25 And when Yahushaphat and his people came to take away the spoil from them, they found among them an abundance of riches with the dead bodies and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they spent three yamim gathering the spoil, it was so much.

26 And on the fourth yom they assembled themselves in the Valley of Berach-YAH; for there they blessed אֱלֹהֵינוּ: therefore the name of the same place is called, The Valley of Berach-YAH, to this yom.

27 Then they returned, every man of Yahudah and Yahrushalayim and Yahushaphat in front of them, to go again to Yahrushalayim with simcha; for אֱלֹהֵינוּ had made them to gilah over their enemies.

28 And they came to Yahrushalayim with lyres and harps and shofars to the Bayit of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

29 And the fear of Ahlohim was on all the malchutim of those countries, when they had heard that אֱלֹהֵינוּ fought against the enemies of Yisrael.

30 So the realm of Yahushaphat was quiet: for his Ahlohim gave him rest all around.

31 And Yahushaphat reigned over Yahudah: he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign and he reigned twenty-five years in Yahrushalayim. And his emma's name was Azuvah the daughter of Shilhi.

32 And he had his halacha in the derech of Asa his abba and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים.

33 But the idol temples were not taken away: for as yet the people had not prepared their levavot towards the Ahlohim of their ahvot.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Yahushaphat, the first and last, see, they are written in the Scroll of Yahu the son of Hanani, who is mentioned in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yisrael.

35 And after this did Yahushaphat melech of Yahudah join with Ahazyah melech of Yisrael and did wickedly in doing so:

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in Etzyon-Gever.

37 Then Eli-Ezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Yahushaphat, saying, Because you have joined yourself with Achazyahu, אֱחָזְיָהוּ has broken your works. And the ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

21 Now Yahushaphat slept with his ahvot and was buried with his ahvot in the city of Dawid. And Yahuram his son reigned in his place.

2 And he had brothers the sons of Yahushaphat, Azaryah and Yehi-El and Zacharyah and Azaryah and Micha-El and Shephatyah: all these were the sons of Yahushaphat melech of Yisrael.

3 And their abba gave them great gifts of silver and of gold and of precious things, with fortified cities in Yahudah: but the malchut he gave to Yahuram; because he was the bachor.

4 Now when Yahuram had risen up over the malchut of his abba, he strengthened himself and killed all his brothers with the sword and others also of the rulers of Yisrael.

5 Yahuram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign and he reigned eight years in Yahrushalayim.

6 And he had his walk in the derech of the melechim of Yisrael, like the deeds of Beit Achav; for he had the daughter of Achav as his isha and he worked that which was evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים.

7 Yet אֱלֹהִים would not destroy Beit Dawid because of the brit that He had made with Dawid and as He promised to give an ohr to him and to his sons leolam-va-ed.

8 In his yamim the Edomites revolted from under the rule of Yahudah and made themselves a melech.

9 Then Yahuram went forth with his rulers and all his mirkavot with him: and he rose up by lyla and killed the Edomites who surrounded him and the captains of the mirkavot.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Yahudah to this yom. The same time also did Livnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of his ahvot.

11 Moreover he made idol temples in the mountains of Yahudah and caused the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim to commit fornication and led Yahudah astray.

12 And there came a written parchment to him from Eliyahu the navi, saying, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Dawid your abba, Because you have not had your halacha in the derachot of Yahushaphat your abba, nor in the derachot of Asa melech of Yahudah,

13 But have had your halacha in the derech of the melechim of Yisrael, and have made Yahudah and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim to go whoring, like the whoredoms of Beit Achav and also have slain your brothers from your abba's bayit, who were better than you:

14 See, with a great plague אִיָּאָז will smite your people and your children and your wives and all your goods:

15 And you shall have great sickness by disease of your intestines, until your intestines fall out by reason of the sickness yom by yom.

16 Moreover אִיָּאָז stirred up against Yahuram the ruach of the Plishtim and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Yahudah and broke into it and carried away all the substance that was found in the melech's bayit and his sons also and his wives; so that there was not one son left to him, except Yahuachaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this אִיָּאָז smote him in his intestines with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his intestines fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of a serious disease. And his people made no burning funeral for him like the burning funeral for his ahvot.

20 Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign and he reigned in Yahrushalayim eight years and departed without being desired by anyone. But they buried him in the city of Dawid, but not in the tombs of the melechim.

22 And the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim made Achazyahu his youngest son melech in his place: for the raiding band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the older sons.

So Achazyahu the son of Yahuram melech of Yahudah reigned.

2 Forty-two years old was Achazyahu when he began to reign and he reigned one year in Yahrushalayim. His emma's name also was Athalyahu the daughter of Omri.

3 He also had his halacha in the derachot of Beit Achav: for his emma was his counselor to do wickedly.

4 And he did evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים like Beit Achav: for they were his counselors to his destruction after the death of his abba.

5 He had his halacha also after their counsel and went with Yahuram the son of Achav melech of Yisrael to war against Haza-El melech of Aram at Ramot-Gilad: and the Arameans wounded Yoram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Yezreel because of the wounds that were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Haza-El melech of Aram. And Azaryah the son of Yahuram melech of Yahudah went down to see Yahuram the son of Achav at Yezre-El because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of Achazyahu was from Ahlohim by coming to Yoram: for when he was come, he went out with Yahuram against Yahu the son of Nimshi, whom אֱלֹהִים had anointed to cut off Beit Achav.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Yahu was executing mishpat upon Beit Achav and found the rulers of Yahudah and the sons of the brothers of Achazyahu, that served Achazyahu, he killed them.

9 And he sought for Achazyahu: and they caught him, for he was hidden in Shomron and brought him to Yahu: and when they had slain him, they buried him properly: Because, they said, he is the son of Yahushaphat, who sought אֱלֹהִים with all his lev. So the bayit of Achazyahu had no power to still keep the malchut.

10 But when Athalyah the emma of Achazyahu saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the malchut zera of Beit Yahudah.

11 But Yahushaphat, the daughter of the melech, took Yoash the son of Achazyahu and stole him from among the melech's sons that were slain and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Yahushaphat, the daughter of melech Yahuram, the isha of Yahuyadah the kohen, for she was the sister of Achazyahu, hid him from Athalyah, so that she killed him not.

12 And he was with them hidden in the Bayit of Ahlohim six years: and Athalyah reigned over the land.

23 And in the seventh year Yahuyadah strengthened himself and took the captains of hundreds, Azaryahu the son of Yeroham and Yishmael the son of Yahochanan and Azaryahu the son of Oved and Maaseyah the son of Adayah and Elishaphat the son of Zichri into brit with him.

2 And they went about in Yahudah and gathered the Lewiym out of all the cities of Yahudah and the heads of the ahvot of Yisrael and they came to Yahrushalayim.

3 And the entire kehilla made a brit with the melech in the Bayit of Ahlohim. And he said to them, See, the melech's son shall reign, as אִי־אֵל has said of the sons of Dawid.

4 This is the thing that you shall do; A third part of you entering on The Shabbat, from the kohanim and of the Lewiym, shall be gatekeepers for the doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the melech's bayit; and a third part at the Foundation Gate: and all the people shall be in the courts of the Bayit of אִי־אֵל .

6 But let none come into the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים, except the kohanim and those that serve from the Lewiym; they shall go in, for they are kadosh: but all the people shall guard the charge of אֱלֹהִים.

7 And the Lewiym shall surround the melech all round, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever else comes into the bayit, he shall be put to death: but you be with the melech when he comes in and when he goes out.

8 So the Lewiym and all Yahudah did according to all things that Yahuyadah the kohen had commanded and took every man his men that were to come in on The Shabbat, with them that were to go out on The Shabbat: for Yahuyadah the kohen did not dismiss the priestly divisions.

9 Moreover Yahuyadah the kohen delivered to the captains of hundreds spears and large shields and smaller shields, that had been melech Dawid's, which were in the Bayit of Ahlohim.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the Bayit, to the left side of the Bayit, along by the altar and the Bayit, by the melech all around.

11 Then they brought out the melech's son and put upon him the keter and gave him the testimony and made him melech. And Yahuyadah and his sons anointed him and said, Let the melech live!

12 Now when Athalyahu heard the noise of the people running and praising the melech, she came to the people into the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים:

13 And she looked and, see, the melech stood at his pillar at the entering in and the rulers and the shofars by the melech: and all the people of the land had gilah and sounded with shofars, also the singers with instruments of music and such as taught to sing and offer tehilla. Then Athalyahu tore her clothes and said, Treason, Treason.

14 Then Yahuyadah the kohen brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the army and said to them, Take her forth from the ranks: and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword. For the kohen said, Slay her not in the Bayit of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she came to the entering of the Horse Gate by the melech's bayit, they killed her there.

16 And Yahuyadah made a brit between him and between all the people and between the melech that they should be אִיִּזְרָאֵל's people.

17 Then all the people went to the bayit of Ba'al and broke it down and broke his altars and his images in pieces and killed Mattan the kohen of Ba'al before the altars.

18 Also Yahuyadah appointed the offices of the Bayit of אִיִּזְרָאֵל by the hand of the kohanim the Lewiym, whom Dawid had distributed in the Bayit of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, to offer the burnt offerings of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, as it is written in the Torah of Moshe, with gilah and with shirim, as Dawid ordained it.

19 And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the Bayit of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, that none who were unclean in any derech should enter in.

20 And he took the captains of hundreds and the nobles and the rulers of the people and all the people of the land and brought down the melech from the Bayit of אִיִּזְרָאֵל: and they came through the high gate into the melech's bayit and set the melech upon the kesay of the malchut.

21 And all the people of the land had gilah: and the city was quiet, after they had slain Athalyahu with the sword.

24 Yoash was seven years old when he began to reign and he reigned forty years in Yahrushalayim. His emma's name also was Tzivyah of Be-er-Sheva.

2 And Yoash did that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים all the yamim of Yahuyadah the kohen.

3 And Yahuyadah took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 And it came to pass after this, that Yoash decided to repair the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

5 And he gathered together the kohanim and the Lewiym and said to them, Go out to the cities of Yahudah and gather from kol Yisrael money to repair the Bayit of your Ahlohim from year to year and see that you go quickly to the matter. But the Lewiym did not hurry to do it.

6 And the melech called for Yahuyadah the kohen and said to him, Why have you not required of the Lewiym to bring out of Yahudah and out of Yahrushalayim the collection, according to the commandment of Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים and of the kehilla of Yisrael, for the Mishkan of witness?

7 For the sons of Athalyahu, that wicked woman, had broken up the Bayit of Ahlohim; and also all the dedicated things of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים did they offer to Ba'alim.

8 And at the melech's commandment they made a chest and set it outside at the gate of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

9 And they made a proclamation throughout Yahudah and Yahrushalayim, to bring in to אֱלֹהִים the collection that Moshe the eved of Ahlohim laid upon Yisrael in the wilderness.

10 And all the rulers and all the people had gilah and brought in and cast into the chest, until they had made an end of giving.

11 Now it came to pass, at that time that the chest was brought to the melech's office by the hand of the Lewiym and when they saw that there was much money, the melech's Sopher and the Kohen HaGadol's officer came and emptied the chest and took it and carried it back to its place again. This they did every yom and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the melech and Yahuyadah gave it to such as did the work of the service of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and also such as worked with iron and bronze to fix the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

13 So the workmen labored and the work was finished by them and they set the Bayit of Ahlohim in its proper form and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the melech and Yahuyadah, from which were made vessels for the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים, even vessels to serve and to offer with and spoons and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים continually all the yamim of Yahuyadah.

15 But Yahuyadah grew older and was full of yamim when he died; a hundred thirty years old he was when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of Dawid among the melechim because he had done tov in Yisrael, both toward Ahlohim and toward His Bayit.

17 Now after the death of Yahuyadah came the rulers of Yahudah and bowed before the melech. Then the melech listened to them.

18 And they left the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of their ahvot and served Asherim and idols: and wrath came upon Yahudah and Yahrushalayim for their trespass.

19 Yet He sent neviim to them, to bring them back again to אֱלֹהִים; and they testified against them: but they would not listen.

20 And The Ruach of Ahlohim came upon Zacharyah the son of Yahuyadah the kohen, who stood above the people and said to them, This says Ahlohim, Why do you transgress the mishpatim of אֱלֹהִים, that you cannot prosper? Because you have forsaken אֱלֹהִים, He has also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the melech in the court of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

22 So Yoash the melech remembered not the kindness which Yahuyadah Zacharyah's abba had done to him, but killed his son. And when he died, he said, אֱלֹהִים look upon it and repay it!

23 And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the army of Aram came up against him: and they came to Yahudah and Yahrushalayim and destroyed all the rulers of the people from among the people and sent all their spoil to the melech of Dameshek.

24 For the army of the Arameans came with a small company of men and אֱלֹהִים delivered a very great army into their hand because they had forsaken אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of their ahvot. So they executed mishpat against Yoash.

25 And when they had departed from him – for they left him very sick – his own avadim conspired against him for the dahm of the sons of Yahuyadah the kohen and killed him on his bed and he died: and they buried him in the city of Dawid but they buried him not in the tombs of the melechim.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; Zavad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess and Yahuzavad the son of Shimrith a Moavitess.

27 Now concerning his sons and the others that conspired against him and the repairing of the Bayit of Ahlohim, see, they are written in the Scroll of The Melechim. And Amatzyahu his son reigned in his place.

25 Amatzyahu was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yahrushalayim. And his emma's name was Yahuaddan of Yahrushalayim.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, but not with a perfect lev.

3 Now it came to pass, when the malchut was established to him, that he killed the avadim that had killed the melech his abba.

4 But he did not kill their children, but did as it is written in the Torah in the scroll of Moshe, where אֱלֹהִים commanded, saying, The ahvot shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the ahvot, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 Moreover Amatzyahu gathered Yahudah together and made them captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their ahvot, throughout all Yahudah and Benyamin: and he numbered them from twenty years older and above and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle the spear and shield.

6 He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of bravery out of Yisrael for a hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came a man of Ahlohim to him, saying, O melech, let not the army of Yisrael go with you; for אֱלֹהִים is not with Yisrael, with all the children of Efrayim.

8 But if you will go, do it, be strong for the battle: Ahlohim shall make you fall before the enemy: for Ahlohim has Power to help and to cast down.

9 And Amatzyahu said to the man of Ahlohim but what shall we do about the hundred talents that I have given to the army of Yisrael? And the man of Ahlohim answered, אֱלֹהִים is able to give you much more than this.

10 Then Amatzياهو separated the army that had come to him out of Efrayim, to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly lit against Yahudah and they returned home in great anger.

11 And Amatzياهو strengthened himself and led forth his people and went to the Valley of Salt and killed of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And another ten thousand left alive did the children of Yahudah carry away captive and brought them to the top of the rock and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 But the soldiers of the army which Amatzياهو sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Yahudah, from Shomron even to Beth-Horon and killed three thousand of them and took much spoil.

14 Now it came to pass, after that Amatzياهو returned from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the ahlahim of the children of Seir and set them up to be his ahlahim and bowed down himself before them and burned incense to them.

15 Therefore the anger of אֱלֹהִים was lit against Amatzياهو and He sent to him a navi, who said to him, Why have you sought after the ahlahim of the very people, who could not deliver their own people out of your hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the melech said to him, Are you appointed to give the melech counsel? Stop! Why should you be killed? Then the navi stopped and said, I know that Ahlohim has determined to destroy you because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.

17 Then Amatzyahu melech of Yahudah took advice and sent to Yoash, the son of Yahuachaz, the son of Yahu, melech of Yisrael, saying, Come, let us see one another face to face.

18 And Yoash melech of Yisrael sent to Amatzyahu melech of Yahudah, saying, The thistle that was in Levanon sent to the cedar that was in Levanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as an isha: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Levanon and trampled the thistle.

19 You have said, See, I have killed the Edomites; and your lev lifted you up to boast: stay now at home; why should you meddle with me to your own hurt, that you should fall, even you and all of Yahudah with you?

20 But Amatzyahu would not listen; for it came from Ahlohim, that He might deliver them into the hand of their enemies because they sought after the ahlahim of Edom.

21 So Yoash the melech of Yisrael went up; and they saw one another face to face, both he and Amatzyahu melech of Yahudah, at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Yahudah.

22 And Yahudah was killed before Yisrael and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Yoash the melech of Yisrael took Amatzyahu melech of Yahudah, the son of Yoash, the son of Yahuachaz, at Beth-Shemesh and brought him to Yahrushalayim and broke down the wall of Yahrushalayim from the Gate of Efrayim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits

24 And he took all the gold and the silver and all the vessels that were found in the Bayit of Ahlohim with Oved-Edom and the treasures of the melech's bayit, the hostages also and returned to Shomron.

25 And Amatzyahu the son of Yoash melech of Yahudah lived after the death of Yoash son of Yahuachaz melech of Yisrael fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amatzyahu, the first and last, see, are they not written in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yahudah and Yisrael?

27 Now from the time that Amatzyahu turned away from following אֱלֹהִים they made a conspiracy against him in Yahrushalayim; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him and killed him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses and buried him with his ahvot in the city of Yahudah.

26 Then all the people of Yahudah took Uziyahu, who was sixteen years old and made him melech in the place of his abba Amatzyahu.

2 He built Eloth and restored it to Yahudah, after the melech slept with his ahvot.

3 Sixteen years old was Uziyahu when he began to reign and he reigned fifty-two years in Yahrushalayim. His emma's name also was Yecholyah of Yahrushalayim.

4 And he did that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that his abba Amatzyahu did.

5 And he sought Ahlohim in the yamim of Zacharyah, who had binah in the visions of Ahlohim: and as long as he sought אֱלֹהִים, Ahlohim made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Plishtim and broke down the wall of Gat and the wall of Yavneh and the wall of Ashdod and built cities around Ashdod and among the Plishtim.

7 And Ahlohim helped him against the Plishtim and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-Ba'al and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uziyahu: and his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Mitzrayim; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uziyahu built towers in Yahrushalayim at the Corner Gate and at the Valley Gate and at the turning of the wall and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert and dug many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country and in the plains: farmers also and vine dressers in the mountains and in Carmel: for he loved the soil.

11 Moreover Uziyahu had an army of fighting men, that went out to war by divisions, according to the number of their account by the hand of Yei-EI the Sopher and Maaseyahu the ruler, under the hand of Chananyahu, one of the melech's captains.

12 The whole number of the head of the ahvot of the mighty men of bravery was two thousand six hundred.

13 And under their hand there was an army, three hundred seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the melech against the enemy.

14 And Uziyahu prepared for them throughout all the army shields and spears and helmets and gooff armor and bows and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Yahrushalayim machines, invented by skilled men, to be on the towers and upon the corners, to shoot arrows and great stones with. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he became strong.

16 But when he was strong, his lev was lifted up to his own destruction: for he transgressed against אֱלֹהֵי his Ahlohim and went into the Hekal of אֱלֹהֵי to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azaryahu the kohen went in after him and with him eighty kohanim of אִיִּזְיָהוּ, that were brave men:

18 And they withstood Uziyahu the melech and said to him, This has nothing to do with you Uziyahu, to burn incense to אִיִּזְיָהוּ, but only for the kohanim the sons of Aharon, that are kadosh to burn incense: go out of the Kadosh-Place; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your kavod before אִיִּזְיָהוּ Ahlohim.

19 Then Uziyahu was angry and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was angry with the kohanim, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the kohanim in the Bayit of אִיִּזְיָהוּ, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azaryahu the head kohen and all the kohanim, looked upon him and, see, he was leprous in his forehead and they threw him out from there; he himself hurried to get out because אִיִּזְיָהוּ had struck him.

21 And Uziyahu the melech was a leper to the yom of his death and dwelt in a separate bayit, being a leper; for he was cut off from the Bayit of אִיִּזְיָהוּ: and Yotam his son was over the melech's bayit, giving mishpat to the people of the land.

22 Now the rest of the acts of Uziyahu, the first and last, was recorded by Yeshayahu the navi, the son of Amotz.

23 So Uziyahu slept with his ahvot and they buried him with his ahvot in the field of the burial that belonged to the melechim; for they said, He is a leper: and Yotam his son reigned in his place.

27 Yotam was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and he reigned sixteen years in Yahrushalayim. His emma's name also was Yerushah, the daughter of Tzadok.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that his abba Uziyahu did: however, he entered not into the Hekal of אֱלֹהִים. And the people did still act corruptly.

3 He built the High Gate of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Yahudah and in the forests he built castles and towers.

5 He fought also with the melech of the Ammonites and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him in that same year a hundred talents of silver and ten thousand measures of wheat and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay to him, both the second year and the third.

6 So Yotam became mighty because he prepared his halachot before אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Yotam and all his wars and his halacha, see, they are written in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yisrael and Yahudah.

8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned sixteen years in Yahrushalayim.

9 And Yotam slept with his ahvot and they buried him in the city of Dawid: and Achaz his son reigned in his place.

28 Achaz was twenty years old when he began to reign and he reigned sixteen years in

Yahrushalayim: but he did not do that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, like Dawid his abba:

2 For he had his halacha in the derech of the melechim of Yisrael, and made also molten images for the Ba'alim.

3 Moreover he burned incense in the Valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, after the abominations of the goyim whom אֱלֹהִים had cast out before the children of Yisrael.

4 He sacrificed also and burned incense in the idol temples and on the hills and under every green eytz.

5 Therefore אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim delivered him into the hand of the melech of Aram; and they killed him and carried away a great multitude of them captive and brought them to Dameshek. And he was also delivered into the hand of the melech of Yisrael, who killed him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekach the son of Remalyahu killed in Yahudah a hundred twenty thousand in one yom, who were all brave men; because they had forsaken אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of their ahvot.

7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Efrayim, killed Maaseyahu the melech's son and Azricham the leader of the bayit and Elchanah that was next to the melech.

8 And the children of Yisrael carried away captive their brothers two hundred thousand including women, sons and daughters and took also away much spoil from them and brought the spoil to Shomron.

9 But a navi of אֱלֹהִים was there, whose name was Oved: and he went out before the army that came to Shomron and said to them, See because אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of your ahvot was angry with Yahudah, He has delivered them into your hand and you have slain them in a rage that reaches up to the shamayim.

10 And now you desire to keep under the children of Yahudah and Yahrushalayim for bondmen and bondwomen to you: but are there not with you, your own sins against אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim ?

11 Now listen to me therefore and return the captives again, which you have taken captive of your brothers: for the fierce wrath of אֲשׁוּר is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Efrayim, Azaryahu the son of Yahuchanan, Berechyahu the son of Meshillemoth and Yechizkiyahu the son of Shallum and Amatsa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war, 13 And said to them, You shall not bring in the captives here: for whereas we have offended against אֲשׁוּר already, you intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great and there is fierce wrath against Yisrael.

15 And the men which were designated by name rose up and took the captives and the spoil and clothed all that were naked among them and dressed them and gave them sandals and gave them to eat and to drink and anointed them and carried all their feeble upon donkeys and brought them to Yericho, the city of palm eytzim, to their brothers: then they returned to Shomron.

16 At that time did melech Achaz send to the melechim of Ashshur to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smote Yahudah and carried away captives.

18 The Plishtim also had invaded the cities of the low country and of the south of Yahudah and had taken Beth-Shemesh and Ayalon and Gederoth and Shocho with its villages and Timnah with its villages, Gimzo also with its villages: and they dwelt there.

19 For אֲשׁוּר brought Yahudah low because of Achaz melech of Yisrael; for he made Yahudah, transgress heavily against אֲשׁוּר.

20 And Tilgath-Pilneser melech of Ashshur came to him and distressed him, but did not help him.

21 For Achaz took away a portion out of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and out of the bayit of the melech and from the rulers and gave it to the melech of Ashshur: but it did not help him.

22 And in the time of his distress did he trespass even more against אֱלֹהִים: this is that melech Achaz.

23 For he sacrificed to the ahlahim of Dameshek, who killed him: and he said, Because the ahlahim of the melechim of Aram helps them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were his ruin and of kol Yisrael.

24 And Achaz gathered together the vessels of the Bayit of Ahlohim and cut in pieces the vessels of the Bayit of Ahlohim and closed the doors of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and he made pagan altars in every corner of Yahrushalayim.

25 And in every city of Yahudah he made idol temples to burn incense to other ahlahim and provoked אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of his ahvot to anger.

26 Now the rest of his acts and of all his derachot, the first and last, see, they are written in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yahudah and Yisrael.

27 And Achaz slept with his ahvot and they buried him in the city, even in Yahrushalayim: but they brought him not into the tombs of the melechim of Yisrael: and Hizqiyahu his son reigned in his place.

29 Hizqiyahu began to reign when he was twenty-five years old and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yahrushalayim. And his emma's name was Aviyah, the daughter of Zacharyahu.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that Dawid his abba had done.

3 He in the first year of his reign, in the first chodesh, opened the doors of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the kohanim and the Lewiym and gathered them together into the East Street,
5 And said to them, Shema to me, you Lewiym, set yourselves apart and set apart the Bayit of אלהים Ahlohim of your ahvot and carry out the filth still in the Kadosh-Place.

6 For our ahvot have trespassed and done that which was evil in the eyes of אלהים our Ahlohim and have forsaken Him and have turned away their faces from the dwelling of אלהים and turned their backs.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch and put out the lamps and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the Kadosh-Place to the Ahlohim of Yisrael.

8 Therefore the wrath of אלהים was upon Yahudah and Yahrushalayim and He has delivered them to trouble, to astonishment and to hissing, as you see with your eyes.

9 For, see, our ahvot have fallen by the sword and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in my lev to make a brit with אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael, that His fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 My sons; be not now negligent: for אלהים has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him and that you should serve Him and burn incense.

12 Then the Lewiym arose, Mahath the son of Amatsai and Yoel the son of Azaryahu, of the sons of the Kohathites: and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Avdi and Azaryahu the son of Yehalel-El: and of the Gershonites; Yoah the son of Tzimmah and Ayden the son of Yoah:

13 And of the sons of Elizaphan; Shimri and Yei-El: and of the sons of Asaph; Zacharyahu and Mattanyahu:

14 And of the sons of Heman; Yehi-El and Shimei: and of the sons of Yeduthun; Shemayah and Uzzi-El.

15 And they gathered their brothers and set themselves apart and came, according to the commandment of the melech, by the Words of אֲחִיזַבְחָן, to cleanse the Bayit of אֲחִיזַבְחָן.

16 And the kohanim went into the inner part of the Bayit of אֲחִיזַבְחָן, to cleanse it and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Hekal of אֲחִיזַבְחָן into the court of the Bayit of אֲחִיזַבְחָן. And the Lewiyim took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first yom of the first chodesh to set it apart and on the eighth yom of the chodesh they came to the porch of אֲחִיזַבְחָן: so they set apart the Bayit of אֲחִיזַבְחָן in eight yamim; and on the sixteenth yom of the first chodesh they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hizqiyahu the melech and said, We have cleansed all the Bayit of אֲחִיזַבְחָן and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels and the lechem of the Shulchan of the Faces, with all its vessels.

19 Moreover all the vessels, which melech Achaz in his reign did cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and set apart and, see, they are before the altar of אֲחִיזַבְחָן.

20 Then Hizqiyahu the melech rose early and gathered the rulers of the city and went up to the Bayit of אֲחִיזַבְחָן.

21 And they brought seven bullocks and seven rams and seven lambs and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the malchut and for the Kadosh-Place and for Yahudah. And he commanded the kohanim the sons of Aharon to offer them on the altar of אֲחִיזַבְחָן.

22 So they killed the bullocks and the kohanim received the dahm and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the dahm upon the altar: they killed also the lambs and they sprinkled the dahm upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the male goats for the sin offering before the melech and the kehilla; and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the kohanim killed them and they made reconciliation with their dahm upon the altar, to make keporah for kol Yisrael: for the melech commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for kol Yisrael.

25 And he appointed the Lewiym in the Bayit of אֲשֵׁרָא with cymbals, with lyres and with harps, according to the commandment of Dawid and of Gad the melech's seer and Natan the navi: for so was the commandment of אֲשֵׁרָא by His neviim.

26 And the Lewiym stood with the instruments of Dawid and the kohanim with the shofars.

27 And Hizqiyahu commanded to offer the burnt offering upon the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the songs of אֲשֵׁרָא began also with the shofars and with the instruments ordained by Dawid melech of Yisrael.

28 And all the kehilla worshipped and the singers sang and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the melech and all that were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped.

30 And Hizqiyahu the melech and the rulers commanded the Lewiym to sing and give tehilla to אֲשֵׁרָא with the words of Dawid and of Asaph the seer. And they sang tehillim with gilah and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 Then Hizqiyahu answered and said, Now you have set apart yourselves to אֱלֹהִים, come near and bring sacrifices and hodu offerings into the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים. And the kehilla brought in sacrifices and hodu offerings; and burnt offerings by as many as were of a moved lev.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the kehilla brought, was seventy bullocks, a hundred rams and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to אֱלֹהִים.

33 And the kadosh things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the kohanim were too few, so that they could not skin all the burnt offerings: therefore their brothers the Lewiym did help them, until the work was ended and until the other kohanim had set themselves apart: for the Lewiym were more upright in lev to set themselves apart than the kohanim.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the shalom offerings and the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים was re-established.

36 And Hizqiyahu had gilah, with all the people, in that Ahlohim had prepared the people: for the task was done suddenly and promptly.

30 And Hizqiyahu sent to kol Yisrael and Yahudah and wrote letters also to Efrayim and Menasheh, that they should come to the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים at Yahrushalayim, to keep the Pesach to אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

2 For the melech had taken counsel and his rulers and the entire kehilla in Yahrushalayim, to keep the Pesach in the second chodesh.

3 For they could not keep it at that time because the kohanim had not set themselves apart sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Yahrushalayim.

4 And the thing pleased the melech and the entire kehilla.

5 So they established a decree to make a proclamation throughout kol Yisrael, from Be-er-Sheva even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Pesach to אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael at Yahrushalayim: for they had not done it for a long time as it had been commanded.

6 So the postal runners went with the letters from the melech and his rulers throughout kol Yisrael and Yahudah and according to the commandment of the melech, saying, You children of Yisrael, teshuvah again to אלהים Ahlohim of Avraham, Yitzchak and Yisrael, and He will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the melechim of Ashshur.

7 And be not you like your ahvot and like your brothers, who trespassed against אלהים Ahlohim of their ahvot, who then gave them up to desolation, as you see.

8 Now be not stiff-necked, as your ahvot were, but yield yourselves to אלהים and enter into His Kadosh-Place, which He has set apart le-olam-va-ed: and serve אלהים your Ahlohim that the fierceness of His wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if you teshuvah again to אלהים, your brothers and your children shall find rachamim before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for אלהים your Ahlohim is full of unmerited chen and rachamim and will not turn away His face from you, if you make teshuvah to Him.

10 So the postal runners passed from city to city through the country of Efrayim and Menasheh even to Zevulun: but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless some from Asher and Menasheh and of Zevulun humbled themselves and came to Yahrushalayim.

12 Also in Yahudah the hand of Ahlohim was to give them one lev to do the commandment of the melech and of the rulers, by The Word of אֱלֹהִים.

13 And there were assembled at Yahrushalayim many people to keep the moed of Chag Matzoth in the second chodesh, a very great kehilla.

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Yahrushalayim and all the altars for incense they took away and cast them into the brook Kidron.

15 Then they killed the Pesach on the fourteenth yom of the second chodesh: and the kohanim and the Lewiym were ashamed and set themselves apart and brought in the burnt offerings into the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

16 And they stood in their place according to the commandment, according to the Torah of Moshe the man of Ahlohim: the kohanim sprinkled the dahm, which they received from the hand of the Lewiym.

17 For there were many in the kehilla that were not kadosh: therefore the Lewiym had the charge of the killing of the Pesach for everyone that was not clean, to set them apart to אֱלֹהִים.

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Efrayim, and Menasheh, Yissachar and Zevulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the Pesach otherwise than it was written. But Hizqiyahu made tefillah for them, saying, אֱלֹהִים is tov and He will pardon everyone, 19 That prepares his lev to seek Ahlohim, אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of his ahvot, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the Kadosh-Place.

20 And אִיִּזְקִיָּהוּ listened to Hizqiyahu and healed the people.

21 And the children of Yisrael that were present at Yahrushalayim kept the moed of Chag Matzoth seven yamim with great gilah: and the Lewiym and the kohanim gave tehilla to אִיִּזְקִיָּהוּ yom-by-yom, singing with loud instruments to אִיִּזְקִיָּהוּ.

22 And Hizqiyahu spoke comfortably to all the Lewiym that taught the tov da'at of אִיִּזְקִיָּהוּ: and they did eat throughout the moed seven yamim, offering shalom offerings and making confession to אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתָם Ahlohim of their ahvot.

23 And the whole kehilla took counsel to keep another seven yamim: and they kept another seven yamim with gilah.

24 For Hizqiyahu melech of Yahudah did give to the kehilla a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the rulers gave to the kehilla a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of kohanim set themselves apart.

25 And all the kehilla of Yahudah, with the kohanim and the Lewiym and the entire kehilla that came out of Yisrael, and the gerim that came out of the land of Yisrael and that dwelt in Yahudah, had gilah.

26 So there was great simcha in Yahrushalayim: for since the time of Shlomo the son of Dawid melech of Yisrael there was nothing like it in Yahrushalayim.

27 Then the kohanim the Lewiym arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard and their tefillah came up to His kadosh dwelling, even to the shamayim.

31 Now when all this was finished, kol Yisrael that was present went out to the cities of Yahudah and broke the images in pieces and cut down the Asherim and threw down the idol temples and the altars out of all Yahudah and Benyamin, in Efrayim also and Menasheh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Yisrael returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

2 And Hizqiyahu appointed the divisions of the kohanim and the Lewiym after their divisions, every man according to his service, the kohanim and Lewiym for burnt offerings and for shalom offerings, to serve and to give hodu and to give tehilla in the gates of the tents of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

3 He appointed also the melech's portion from his substance for the burnt offerings, for the shacrit and maariv burnt offerings and the burnt offerings for The Shabbats and for the Chodashim and for the set moadeem, as it is written in the Torah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

4 Also he commanded the people that dwelt in Yahrushalayim to give the portion of the kohanim and Lewiym to them, that they might be encouraged in the Torah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

5 And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Yisrael brought in abundance the bikkurim of grain, wine and oil and honey and of all the increase of the fields; and the ma'aser of all things they brought in abundantly.

6 And concerning the children of Yisrael and Yahudah, that dwelt in the cities of Yahudah, they also brought in the ma'aser of oxen and sheep and the ma'aser of kadosh things which were kadosh to אֱלֹהֵינוּ their Ahlohim and laid them up by heaps.

7 In the third chodesh they began to lay the foundation of the heaps and finished them in the seventh chodesh.

8 And when Hizqiyahu and the rulers came and saw the heaps, they blessed אֱלֹהֵינוּ and His people Yisrael.

9 Then Hizqiyahu questioned the kohanim and the Lewiym concerning the heaps.

10 And Azaryahu the head kohen of Beit Tzadok answered him and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the Bayit of אֶלֹהִים, we have had enough to eat and have left plenty: for אֶלֹהִים has blessed His people; and that which is left is in this great storage.

11 Then Hizqiyahu commanded to prepare rooms in the Bayit of אֶלֹהִים; and they prepared them, 12 And brought in the offerings and the ma'aser and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Chonanyahu the Lewite was ruler and Shimei his brother was the next.

13 And Yehi-El and Azazyahu and Nahath and Asah-El and Yerimoth and Yozavad and Elel and Yismachyahu and Machath and Benyahu, were overseers under the hand of Chonanyahu and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hizqiyahu the melech and Azaryahu the ruler of the Bayit of Ahlohim.

14 And Korach the son of Imnah the Lewite, the gatekeeper toward the east, was over the terumah of Ahlohim, to distribute the offerings of אֶלֹהִים and the most kadosh things.

15 And next were Ayden and Minyamin and Yeshua and Shemayahu, Amaryahu and Shecanyahu, in the cities of the kohanim, in their appointed office, to give to their brothers by divisions, to the great as well as to the small:

16 Beside the males, from three years older and upward, even to everyone that enters into the Bayit of אֶלֹהִים, his daily portion for their service in their duties according to their divisions;

17 Both to the kohanim by the bayit of their ahvot and the Lewiym from twenty years old and upward, in their duties by their divisions;

18 And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives and their sons and their daughters, through the entire kehilla: for in their appointed office they set themselves apart in set apartness:

19 Also of the sons of Aharon the kohanim, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, the men that were designated by name, to give portions to all the males among the kohanim and to all that were counted by genealogies among the Lewiym.

20 And this did Hizqiyahu throughout all Yahudah and did that which was tov and right and full of emet before אלהים his Ahlohim.

21 And in every mitzvah that he began in the service of the Bayit of Ahlohim and in the Torah and in the mishpatim, to seek his Ahlohim, he did it with all his lev and prospered.

32 After these things and their establishment, Sanchayrev melech of Ashshur came and entered into Yahudah and encamped against the fortified cities and thought to win them for himself.

2 And when Hizqiyahu saw that Sanchayrev had come and that he was purposed to fight against Yahrushalayim,

3 He took counsel with his rulers and his mighty men to stop the mayim of the fountains that were outside the city: and they did help him.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopped all the fountains and the brook that ran through the middle of the land, saying, Why should the melechim of Ashshur come and find much mayim?

5 Also he strengthened himself and built up all of the wall that was broken and raised up to the towers and another wall outside and repaired Millo in the city of Dawid and made spears and shields in abundance.

6 And he set captains of war over the people and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city and spoke comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the melech of Ashshur, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be more with us than with him:

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is אלהינו our Ahlohim to help us and to fight our battles. And the people found rest by the words of Hizqiyahu melech of Yahudah.

9 After this did Sanchayrev melech of Ashshur send his avadim to Yahrushalayim – but he himself laid siege against Lachish and all his power with him – to Hizqiyahu melech of Yahudah and to all Yahudah that were at Yahrushalayim, saying,

10 This says Sanchayrev melech of Ashshur, On what do you trust, that you stay in the siege in Yahrushalayim?

11 Does not Hizqiyahu persuade you to die by famine and by thirst, saying, אלהינו our Ahlohim shall deliver us out of the hand of the melech of Ashshur?

12 Has not the same Hizqiyahu taken away his idol temples and his altars and commanded Yahudah and Yahrushalayim, saying, You shall worship before one altar and burn incense upon it?

13 Know you not what I and my ahvot have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the ahlahim of the goyim of those lands in any derech able to deliver their lands out of my hand?

14 Who was there among all the ahlahim of those goyim that my ahvot utterly destroyed, which could deliver their people out of my hand, that your ahlahim should be able to deliver you out of my hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hizqiyahu deceive you, nor persuade you on this matter, neither believe him: for no ahlahim of any nation, or malchut was able to deliver his people out of my hand and out of the hand of my ahvot: how much less shall your Ahlohim deliver you out of my hand?

16 And his avadim spoke even more things against אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim and against His eved Hizqiyahu.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael and to speak against Him, saying, As the ahlahim of the goyim of the other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the Ahlohim of Hizqiyahu deliver His people out of my hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the speech of Yahudah to the people of Yahrushalayim that were on the wall, to frighten them and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

19 And they spoke against the Ahlohim of Yahrushalayim, as against the ahlahim of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cause Hizqiyahu the melech and the navi Yeshayahu the son of Amotz, made tefillot and cried to the shamayim.

21 And אֱלֹהִים sent a heavenly malach, who cut off all the mighty men of bravery and the leaders and captains in the camp of the melech of Ashshur. So he returned with shame to his own land. And when he had come into the bayit of his ahlahim, they that were his own offspring killed him there with the sword.

22 So אֱלֹהִים saved Hizqiyahu and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim from the hand of Sanchayrev the melech of Ashshur and from the hands of all others and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts to אֲרָאָם to Yahrushalayim and presents to Hizqiyahu melech of Yahudah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all goyim from then on.

24 In those yamim Hizqiyahu was sick, near to death and made tefillah to אֲרָאָם and He spoke to him and He gave him an ot.

25 But Hizqiyahu rendered not again according to the tov done to him; for his lev was lifted up in pride: therefore there was wrath upon him and upon Yahudah and Yahrushalayim.

26 Notwithstanding Hizqiyahu humbled himself from the pride of his lev, both he and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim, so that the wrath of אֲרָאָם came not upon them in the yamim of Hizqiyahu.

27 And Hizqiyahu had exceeding riches and kavod: and he made himself treasuries for silver and for gold and for precious stones and for spices and for shields and for all manner of pleasant jewels;

28 Storehouses also for the increase of grain and wine and oil; and stalls for all kinds of beasts and folds for flocks.

29 Also he provided for himself cities and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for Ahlohim had given him very much substance.

30 Hizqiyahu himself also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of Dawid. And Hizqiyahu prospered in all his works.

31 However in the business of the ambassadors sent from the rulers of Bavel, who sent to him to seek information about all the wonders that were done in the land, Ahlohim left him alone, to test him, that He might know all that was in his lev.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hizqiyahu and his tov mitzvoth, see, they are written in the vision of Yeshayahu the navi, the son of Amotz and in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yahudah and Yisrael.

33 And Hizqiyahu slept with his ahvot and they buried him in the best of the tombs of the sons of Dawid: and all Yahudah and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim gave him great kavod at his death. And Menasheh his son reigned in his place.

33 Menasheh was twelve years old when he began to reign and he reigned fifty-five years in Yahrushalayim:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, like the abominations of the goyim, whom אֱלֹהִים had cast out before the children of Yisrael.

3 For he rebuilt again the idol temples which Hizqiyahu his abba had broken down and he raised up altars for the Ba'alim and made Asherim and worshipped all the hosts of the shamayim and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים; about which אֱלֹהִים had said, In Yahrushalayim shall My Name be le-olam-va-ed.

5 And he built altars for all the hosts of shamayim in the two courts of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the Valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed pagan times and used enchantments and used witchcraft and dealt with a familiar ruach and with spiritists: he did much evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke Him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, an idol that he had made, in the Bayit of Ahlohim, of which Ahlohim had said to Dawid and to Shlomo his son, In this Bayit and in Yahrushalayim, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Yisrael, will I put My Name le-olam-va-ed:

8 Neither will I anymore remove the foot of Yisrael from out of the land which I have appointed for your ahvot; only if they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole Torah and the chukim and the ordinances by the hand of Moshe.

9 So Menasheh made Yahudah and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim to go astray and to do worse than the goyim, whom אֱלֹהִים had destroyed before the children of Yisrael.

10 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Menasheh and to His people: but they would not listen.

11 Therefore אֱלֹהִים brought upon them the captains of the army of the melech of Ashshur, which took Menasheh among the thorns and bound him with bronze shackles and carried him to Bavel.

12 And when he was in affliction, he sought אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim and humbled himself greatly before the Ahlohim of his ahvot, 13 And made tefillah to Him: and He was entreated by him and listened to his supplication and brought him again to Yahrushalayim into his malchut. Then Menasheh knew that אֱלֹהִים He was Ahlohim.

14 Now after this he built a wall outside the city of Dawid, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the Fish Gate and it went around Ophel and he raised it up to a very great height and put captains of war in all the fortified cities of Yahudah.

15 And he took away the strange ahlahim and the idol out of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and all the altars that he had built on the har of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and in Yahrushalayim and cast them out of the city.

16 And he repaired the altar of אֱלֹהִים and sacrificed on it shalom offerings and hodu offerings and commanded Yahudah to serve אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

17 Nevertheless the people did sacrifice still in the idol temples, yet to אֱלֹהִים their Ahlohim only.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Menasheh and his tefillah to his Ahlohim and the words of the seers that spoke to him in the Name of אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, see, they are written in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yisrael.

19 His tefillah also and how Ahlohim was moved by him and all his sin and his trespass and the places in which he built idol temples and set up Asherim and graven images, before he was humbled: see, they are all written among the sayings of the seers.

20 So Menasheh slept with his ahvot and they buried him in his own bayit: and Amon his son reigned in his place.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign and reigned two years in Yahrushalayim.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, as did Menasheh his abba: for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which Menasheh his abba had made and served them;

23 And humbled not himself before אֱלֹהִים, as Menasheh his abba had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his avadim conspired against him and killed him in his own bayit.

25 But the people of the land killed all them that had conspired against melech Amon; and the people of the land made Yoshiyahu his son melech in his place.

34 Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began to reign and he reigned in Yahrushalayim thirty-one years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים and had his halacha in the halachot of Dawid his abba and turned neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the Ahlohim of Dawid his abba: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Yahudah and Yahrushalayim of the idol temples and the Asherim and the carved images and the molten images.

4 And they broke down the altars of Ba'alim in his presence; and the images, that were high above them, he cut down; and the Asherim and the carved images and the molten images, he broke in pieces and made dust of them and scattered it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed to them.

5 And he burned the bones of their kohanim upon their altars and cleansed Yahudah and Yahrushalayim.

6 And so he also did in the cities of Menasheh and Efrayim and Shimon, even to Naphtali, with their ruins all around.

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the Asherim and had beaten the graven images into powder and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Yisrael, he returned to Yahrushalayim.

8 Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the Bayit, he sent Shaphan the son of Azalyahu and Maaseyahu the leader of the city and Yoach the son of Yoachaz the recorder, to repair the Bayit of אלהים his Ahlohim.

9 And when they came to Hilkiyahu the Kohen HaGadol, they delivered the money that was brought into the Bayit of Ahlohim, which the Lewiym that kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Menasheh and Efrayim and of the remnant of Yisrael and of all Yahudah and Benyamin; and they returned to Yahrushalayim.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the Bayit of אִרְמֵיָא and they gave it to the workmen that worked in the Bayit of אִרְמֵיָא, to repair and strengthen the Bayit:

11 Even to the craftsmen and builders they gave it, to buy carved stone and timber for couplings and to floor the houses that the melechim of Yahudah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers were Yachath and Ovadyahu, the Lewiym, of the sons of Merari; and Zacharyah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to oversee; and others of the Lewiym, all that were skilled with instruments of music.

13 Also they who oversaw the bearers of burdens and were overseers of all those that did work in any manner of service: and of the Lewiym there were sophrim and officers and gatekeepers.

14 And when they brought out the money that was brought into the Bayit of אִרְמֵיָא, Hilkiyahu the kohen found a scroll of the Torah of אִרְמֵיָא given by Moshe.

15 And Hilkiyahu answered and said to Shaphan the Sopher, I have found the scroll of the Torah in the Bayit of אִרְמֵיָא. And Hilkiyahu delivered the scroll to Shaphan.

16 And Shaphan carried the scroll to the melech and brought the melech word back again, saying, All that was committed to your avadim, they did it.

17 And they have gathered together the money that was found in the Bayit of אִרְמֵיָא and have delivered it into the hands of the overseers and to the hands of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the Sopher told the melech, saying, Hilkiyahu the kohen has given me a scroll. And Shaphan read it before the melech.

19 And it came to pass, when the melech had heard the Words of the Torah, that he tore his clothes.

20 And the melech commanded Hilkiyahu and Ahikam the son of Shaphan and Avdon the son of Micah and Shaphan the Sopher and Asayah an eved of the melech's, saying, 21 Go, inquire of אֱלֹהִים for me and for them that are left in Yisrael and in Yahudah, concerning the Words of the scroll that is found: for great is the wrath of אֱלֹהִים that is poured out upon us because our ahvot have not kept The Word of אֱלֹהִים, to do after all that is written in this scroll.

22 And Hilkiyahu and they that the melech had appointed, went to Huldah the neviyah, the isha of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe – now she dwelt in Yahrushalayim in the second quarter – and they spoke to her to that effect.

23 And she answered them, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, Tell the man that sent you to Me,

24 This says אֱלֹהִים, See, I will bring evil upon this place and upon the inhabitants of it, even all the curses that are written in the scroll that they have read before the melech of Yahudah:

25 Because they have forsaken Me and have burned incense to other ahlahim, that they might provoke Me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore My wrath shall be poured out upon this place and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the melech of Yahudah, who sent you to inquire of אֱלֹהִים, so shall you say to him, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael concerning the words which you have heard;

27 Because your lev was tender and you did humble yourself before Ahlohim, when you heard His Words against this place and against its inhabitants and humbled yourself before Me and did tear your clothes and weep before Me; I have even heard you also, says אֱלֹהִים.

28 See, I will gather you to your ahvot and you shall be gathered to your grave in shalom, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place and upon the inhabitants of it. So they brought the melech word again.

29 Then the melech sent and gathered together all the zechanim of Yahudah and Yahrushalayim.

30 And the melech went up into the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and all the men of Yahudah and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim and the kohanim and the Lewiym and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the Words of the scroll of the brit that was found in the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים.

31 And the melech stood in his place and made a brit before אֱלֹהִים, to have his halacha after אֱלֹהִים and to keep His mishpatim and His testimonies and His chukim, with all his lev and with all his being, to perform the Words of the brit that is written in this scroll.

32 And he caused all that were present in Yahrushalayim and Benyamin to stand by it. And the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim did according to the brit of Ahlohim, the Ahlohim of their ahvot.

33 And Yoshiyahu took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Yisrael and made all that were present in Yisrael to serve, even to serve אֱלֹהִים their Ahlohim. And all his yamim they did not depart from following אֱלֹהִים, the Ahlohim of their ahvot.

35 Moreover Yoshiyahu kept a Pesach to אֱלֹהִים in Yahrushalayim: and they killed the Pesach on the fourteenth yom of the first chodesh.

2 And he set the kohanim in their duties and encouraged them to the service of the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים,

3 And said to the Lewiym that taught kol Yisrael, who were kadosh to אלהים, Put the kadosh Ark in the Bayit which Shlomo the son of Dawid melech of Yisrael did build; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve אלהים your Ahlohim and His people Yisrael,

4 And prepare yourselves by the houses of your ahvot, after your divisions, according to the writing of Dawid melech of Yisrael and according to the writing of Shlomo his son.

5 And stand in the Kadosh-Place according to the divisions of the mishpachot of the ahvot of your brothers the people and after the division of the mishpachot of the Lewiym.

6 So kill the Pesach and set yourselves apart and prepare your brothers, so that they may do according to The Word of אלהים by the hand of Moshe.

7 And Yoshiyahu gave to the people, from the flock, lambs and kids, all for the Pesach offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty three thousand bullocks: these were of the melech's substance.

8 And his rulers gave willingly to the people, to the kohanim and to the Lewiym: Hilkiyahu and Zacharyah and Yehi-El, rulers of the Bayit of Ahlohim, they gave to the kohanim for the Pesach offerings two thousand six hundred small cattle and three hundred oxen.

9 Chananyahu also and Shemayahu and Natan-El, his brothers and Hashavyahu and Yei-El and Yozavad, head of the Lewiym, gave to the Lewiym for Pesach offerings five thousand small cattle and five hundred oxen.

10 So the service was prepared and the kohanim stood in their place and the Lewiym in their courses, according to the melech's commandment.

11 And they killed the Pesach and the kohanim sprinkled the dahm from their hands and the Lewiym skinned them.

12 And they removed the burnt offerings, so that they might give according to the divisions of the mishpachot of the people, to offer to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, as it is written in the scroll of Moshe. And so they did with the oxen.

13 And they roasted the Pesach with fire according to the ordinance: but the other kadosh offerings they cooked in pots and in caldrons and in pans and divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves and for the kohanim: because the kohanim the sons of Aharon were busy in offering the burnt offerings and the fat until lyla; therefore the Lewiym prepared for themselves and for the kohanim the sons of Aharon.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their places, according to the commandment of Dawid and Asaph and Heman and Yeduthun the melech's seer; and the gatekeepers waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brothers the Lewiym prepared for them.

16 So all the service of אֱלֹהֵינוּ was prepared the same yom, to keep the Pesach and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, according to the commandment of melech Yoshiyahu.

17 And the children of Yisrael that were present kept the Pesach at that time and the moed of Chag Matzoth seven yamim.

18 And there was no Pesach like that one kept in Yisrael from the yamim of Shmuel the navi; neither did all the melechim of Yisrael ever shomer such a Pesach as Yoshiyahu kept and the kohanim and the Lewiym and all Yahudah and Yisrael that were present, and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Yoshiyahu was this Pesach kept.

20 After all this, when Yoshiyahu had prepared the Bayit, Necho melech of Mitzrayim came up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates River: and Yoshiyahu went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with you, you melech of Yahudah? I come not against you this yom, but against the bayit with which I have war: for ahlahim commanded me to hurry: refrain from meddling with ahlahim, who is with me, that He does not destroy you.

22 Nevertheless Yoshiyahu would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him and listened not to the words of Necho from the mouth of Ahlohim and came to fight in the Valley of Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at melech Yoshiyahu; and the melech said to his avadim, Take me away; for I am severely wounded.

24 His avadim therefore took him out of that mirkavah and put him in the second mirkavah that he had; and they brought him to Yahrushalayim and he died and was buried in one of the tombs of his ahvot. And all Yahudah and Yahrushalayim mourned for Yoshiyahu.

25 And Yirmeyahu lamented for Yoshiyahu: and all the singing men and the singing women spoke of Yoshiyahu in their lamentations until this yom and made them an ordinance in Yisrael: and, see, they are written in the lamentations.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Yoshiyahu and his tov mitzvoth, according to that which was written in the Torah of אהאז:

27 And his mitzvoth, the first and last, see, they are written in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yisrael and Yahudah.

36 Then the people of the land took Yahuachaz the son of Yoshiyahu and made him melech in his abba's place in Yahrushalayim.

2 Yahuachaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign and he reigned three chodashem in Yahrushalayim.

3 And the melech of Mitzrayim turned aside and took Yahrushalayim and imposed on the land a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the melech of Mitzrayim made Elyakim his brother melech over Yahudah and Yahrushalayim and changed his name to Yahuyakim. And Necho took Yahuachaz his brother and carried him to Mitzrayim.

5 Yahuyakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and he reigned eleven years in Yahrushalayim: and he did that which was evil in the sight of אלהים his Ahlohim.

6 Against him came up Nevuchadnetzar melech of Bavel and bound him in bronze shackles, to carry him to Bavel.

7 Nevuchadnetzar also carried the vessels of the Bayit of אלהים to Bavel and put them in his hekal at Bavel.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Yahuyakim and his abominations which he did and that which was found in him, see, they are written in the Scroll of The Melechim of Yisrael and Yahudah: and Yahuyahchin his son reigned in his place.

9 Yahuyahchin was eight years old when he began to reign and he reigned three chodashem and ten yamim in Yahrushalayim: and he did that which was evil in the sight of אלהים.

10 And at the turn of the year, melech Nevuchadnetzar sent and brought him to Bavel, with the valuable vessels of the Bayit of אלהים and made Tzidqiyahu his brother melech over Yahudah and Yahrushalayim.

11 Tzidqiyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to reign and reigned eleven years in Yahrushalayim.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of אלהים his Ahlohim and humbled not himself before Yirmeyahu the navi speaking from the mouth of אלהים.

13 And he also rebelled against melech Nevuchadnetzar, who had made him swear by Ahlohim: but he stiffened his neck and hardened his lev from turning to אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

14 Moreover all the heads of the kohanim and the people, transgressed very much just like all the abominations of the goyim; and polluted the Bayit of אלהים which He had set apart in Yahrushalayim.

15 And אלהים Ahlohim of their ahvot sent for them by His messengers, rising up early and sending them; because He had rachamim on His people and on His dwelling place:

16 But they mocked the messengers of Ahlohim and despised His Words and abused His neviim, until the wrath of אלהים arose against His people, until there was no remedy.

17 Therefore He brought upon them the melech of the Chaldeans, who killed their young men with the sword in the Bayit of their Kadosh-Place and had no rachamim upon young men, or maidens, older men, or those that were frail, He gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the Bayit of Ahlohim, great and small and the treasures of the Bayit of אלהים and the treasures of the melech and of his rulers; all these he brought to Bavel.

19 And they burned the Bayit of Ahlohim and broke down the wall of Yahrushalayim and burned all the palaces of it with fire and destroyed all the valuable vessels in it.

20 And those that had escaped from the sword he carried away to Bavel; where they were avadim to him and his sons until the reign of the malchut of Persia:

21 To fulfill The Word of אֱלֹהִים by the mouth of Yirmeyahu, until the land had enjoyed her Shabbats: for as long as she lay desolate she kept Shabbat, to fulfill seventy years.

22 Now in the first year of Koresh melech of Persia, so that The Word of אֱלֹהִים spoken by the mouth of Yirmeyahu might be accomplished, אֱלֹהִים stirred up the ruach of Koresh melech of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his malchut and put it also in writing, saying,

23 This says Koresh melech of Persia, All the malchutim of the earth has אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the shamayim given to me; and He has charged me to build him a Bayit in Yahrushalayim, which is in Yahudah. Who is there among you from all His people? אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim be with him and now let him go and make aliyah. X

16 And Yaakov begat Yoseph. This Yoseph was the husband of Miryam, from whom was born משיח, who is called The Moshiach.

17 So all the generations from Avraham to Dawid are fourteen generations; and from Dawid until the carrying away into Bavel are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Bavel to The Moshiach are fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of משיח Ha Moshiach was in this manner: When His eema Miryam was espoused to Yoseph, before they came together, she was found to be with Child by The Ruach Hakodesh.

19 Then Yoseph her husband, being a tzadik man and not willing to make her a public example, desired to put her away and conceal her.

20 But while he thought on these things, see, the heavenly malach of The Master YAH appeared to him in a dream, saying, Yoseph, ben Dawid, fear not to take to you Miryam your isha: for that which is conceived in her is from The Ruach Hakodesh.

21 And she shall bring forth a Son and you shall call His Name משיח: for He shall save His people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by The Master אֱלֹהִים through the navi, saying,

23 See, The Virgin shall be with Child and shall bring forth a Son and they shall call His Name Emmanu-El, which when interpreted means, El with us.

24 Then Yoseph being raised from sleep did as the heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים had told him and took to himself his isha:

25 And had no sexual relations with her until she had brought forth her bachor Son: and he called His Name משיח.

2 Now when משיח was born in Beth-Lechem of Yahudah in the yamim of Herod the melech, see, there came astronomers from the east to Yahrushalayim,

2 Saying, Where is He that is born Melech of the Yahudim? For we have seen His cochav in the east and have come to worship Him.

3 When Herod the melech had heard these things, he was troubled and all Yahrushalayim with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the main kohanim and Sophrim of the people together, he demanded of them where The Moshiach would be born.

5 And they said to him, In Beth-Lechem of Yahudah: for this is written by the navi,

6 And you Beth-Lechem, in the land of Yahudah, are not the least among the princes of Yahudah: for out of you shall come a Governor that shall rule My people Yisrael.

7 Then Herod, when he had privately called the magicians, inquired of them diligently what time the cochav appeared.

8 And he sent them to Beth-Lechem and said, Go and search diligently for the young Child; and when you have found Him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship Him also.

9 When they had heard the melech, they departed; and, see, the cochav, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young Child was.

10 When they saw the cochav, they rejoiced with exceedingly great simcha.

11 And when they had come into the bayit, they saw the young Child with Miryam His eema and fell down and worshipped Him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented to Him gifts; gold and frankincense and myrrh.

12 And being warned of אֱלֹהִים in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another derech.

13 And when they were departed, see, the heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים appeared to Yoseph in a dream, saying, Arise and take the young Child and His eema and flee into Mitzrayim and stay there until I bring you word: for Herod will seek the young Child to destroy Him.

14 When he arose, he took the young Child and His eema by lyla and departed into Mitzrayim:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by The Master אֱלֹהִים through the navi, saying, Out of Mitzrayim have I called My Son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry and sent forth and killed all the children that were in Beth-Lechem and in all its coasts, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Yirmeyahu the navi, saying,

18 In Ramah was there a voice heard, lamentation and weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and she would not be comforted because they are no more and could not be brought back.

19 But when Herod was dead, see, a heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים appeared in a dream to Yoseph in Mitzrayim, 20 Saying, Arise and take the young Child and His eema and go into the land of Yisrael: for they are dead who sought the young Child's chayim.

21 And he arose and took the young Child and His eema and came into the land of Yisrael.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Yahudah in the place of his abba Herod, he was afraid to go there: notwithstanding, being warned by אֱלֹהִים in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galil:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Natzereth: that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the navi, He shall be called The Ha-Natzer.

3 In those yamim came Yochanan the Matbeel, proclaiming in the wilderness of Yahudah,

2 And saying, Make teshuvah: for the malchut ha shamayim is offered.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the navi Yeshayahu, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the derech of The Master אֱלֹהִים, make His paths straight.

4 And the same Yochanan had his clothing from goatskins and a leather girdle all around his loins; and his food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Yahrushalayim and all of Yahudah and the entire region all around the Yarden River,

6 And were immersed by him in the Yarden River, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Prushim and Tzadukim come to his mikvah, he said to them, O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits of perfect teshuvah:

9 And think not within yourselves, We have Avraham as our abba: for I say to you that אֱלֹהִים is able of these stones to raise up children for Avraham.

10 Behold also the axe is laid to the root of the eytzim: therefore every eytz, which brings not forth tov fruit, is cut down and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed mikvah you with the mayim of teshuvah: but He that comes after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to bear: He shall mikvah you with the fire of The Ruach Hakodesh, 12 Whose fan is in His hand and He will thoroughly purge His floor and gather His wheat into the storehouse; but He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 Then came וּמַרְיָאֵל from Galil to the Yarden River to Yochanan, to be immersed by him.

14 But Yochanan forbid Him, saying, I have need to be immersed by You and You come to me?

15 And וּמַרְיָאֵל answering said to him, Allow it to be so now: for this will allow us to fulfill all Tzedakah-Zadokite protocol. Then He allowed him.

16 And וּמַרְיָאֵל, when He was immersed, He went up immediately out of the mayim: and, see, the shamayim were opened over Him and Yochanan saw The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים descending like a yonah and resting upon Him:

17 And see a voice from the shamayim, saying, This is My Beloved Son, in whom I AM well pleased.

4 Then was וּמַרְיָאֵל led up by The Ruach into the wilderness to be tempted by ha s.a.tan.

2 And when He had fasted forty yamim and forty laylot, He was hungry afterward.

3 And when the tempter came to Him, he said, Since You are The Son of Ahloha, command that these stones be made lechem.

4 But He answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by lechem alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of אֱלֹהִים.

5 Then s.a.tan took Him up into the kadosh city and set Him on a pinnacle of the Beit HaMikdash,

6 And said to Him, Since You are The Son of Ahloha, cast Yourself down: for it is written, He shall give His heavenly malachim charge concerning You: and in their hands they shall bear You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone.

7 וּמַרְיָאֵל said to him, It is written again, You shall not test The Master אֱלֹהִים your Ahloha.

8 Again, s.a.tan took Him up into an exceedingly high har and showed Him all the malchutim of the olam hazeh and the tifereth of them;

9 And said to Him, All these things will I give You, if You will fall down and worship me and bare Your head to me.

10 Then said וּמַרְיָאֵל to him, Go, s.a.tan: for it is written, You shall worship אֱלֹהִים your Ahloha and Him only shall you serve.

11 Then s.a.tan left Him and, see, heavenly malachim came and attended to Him.

12 Now when משה had heard that Yochanan was cast into prison, He departed into Galil;

13 And leaving Natzeret, He came and dwelt in Kfar Nachum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zevulon and Naphtali:

14 That it might be fulfilled what was spoken by Yeshayahu the navi, saying,

15 The land of Zevulon and the land of Naphtali, by the derech of the sea, beyond the Yarden River, Galil of the goyim;

16 The people who sat in darkness saw great Ohr; and to those who sat in the region and shadow of death Ohr is sprung up.

17 From that time משה began to proclaim and to say, Teshuvah: for the malchut ha shamayim is offered.

18 And משה, walking by the Sea of Galil, saw two brothers, Shimon called Kefa and Andri his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishermen.

19 And He said to them, Follow Me and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they immediately left their nets and followed Him.

21 And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, Yaakov the son of Zavdi and Yochanan his brother, in a ship with Zavdi their abba, mending their nets; and He called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their abba and followed Him.

23 And משה went about all Galil, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming The Besorah of the malchut and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people of Yisrael.

24 And His fame went throughout all Aram-Syria: and they brought to Him all sick people that were taken with diverse diseases and torments and those who were possessed with shedim and those who were lunatics and those that had paralyses; and He healed them.

25 And there followed Him great multitudes of people from Galil and from Dekapolis and from Yahrushalayim and from Yahudah and from beyond the Yarden River.

5 And seeing the multitudes, He went up on a har: and when He was seated, His talmidim came to Him:

2 And He opened His mouth and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in ruach: for theirs is the malchut ha shamayim.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the Land.

6 Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst after tzedakah: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the rachamim givers: for they shall obtain rachamim.

8 Blessed are the pure in lev: for they shall see אִשְׁרָאֵל.

9 Blessed are the shalom-makers: for they shall be called b'nai אִשְׁרָאֵל.

10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for tzedakah's sake: for theirs is the malchut ha shamayim.

11 Blessed are you, when men shall revile you and persecute you and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for My sake.

12 Gilah and be in great simcha: for great is your reward in the shamayim: for so persecuted they the neviim who were before you.

13 You are the salt of the earth: but if the salt has lost its taste, how shall it be salted? It is no longer tov for anything, but to be cast out and to be trodden under the feet of men.

14 You are the ohr of the olam hazeh. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden.

15 Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but on a menorah; and it gives ohr to all that are in the bayit.

16 Let your ohr so shine before men, that they may see your tov mitzvoth and esteem your Abba who is in the shamayim.

17 Think not that I AM come to weaken, or destroy the Torah, or the neviim: I have not come to weaken, or destroy, but to completely reveal it in its intended fullness.

18 For truly I say to you, Until the current shamayim and earth pass away, not one yud, or one nekudah shall by any means pass from the Torah, until all be fulfilled.

19 Whoever therefore shall break, or weaken one of the least Torah mitzvoth and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the malchut ha shamayim: but whoever shall do and teach the commands, the same shall be called great in the malchut ha shamayim.

20 For I say to you, Except your tzedakah shall exceed the tzedakah of the Sophrim and Prushim, you shall in no case enter into the malchut ha shamayim.

21 You have heard that it was said by them of old time, You shall not murder; and whoever shall murder shall be in danger of the mishpat:
22 And I say to you, That whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the mishpat: and whoever shall say to his brother, Raca, you nothing idiot, shall be in danger of the Sanhedrin: but whoever shall say, You fool, shall be in danger of Gei-Hinnom fire.
23 Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your brother has anything against you;
24 Leave your gift before the altar and go your way; first be reconciled to your brother and then come and offer your gift.
25 Agree with your accuser quickly, while you are in the derech with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver you to the shophet and the shophet deliver you to the officer and you be cast into prison.
26 Truly I say to you, You shall by no means come out from there, until you have paid the last penny.
27 You have heard that it was said by them of old time, You shall not commit adultery:
28 And I say to you, That whoever looks on a married woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his lev.
29 And if your right eye seduces you, pluck it out and cast it from you: for it is better for you that one of your members should perish, than for your whole gooff to be cast into Gei-Hinnom.
30 And if your right hand seduces you, cut it off and cast it from you: for it is more profitable for you that one of your members should perish, rather than your whole gooff should be cast into Gei-Hinnom.
31 It has been said, Whoever shall put away his isha, let him give her a Sefer Keritut of divorce.
32 Therefore I say to you, That whoever shall put away his isha, except for the cause of sexual unloyalty, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever shall marry her that is not divorced, but only put away, he commits fornication.
33 Again, you have heard that it has been said by them of old time, You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to The Master אלהים your oaths:
34 And so I say to you, Swear not falsely at all; neither by the shamayim; for it is אלהים's kesay:
35 Nor by the earth; for it is His footstool: neither by Yahrushalayim; for it is the city of the Awesome Melech.

36 Neither shall you swear by your head because you cannot make one hair white, or black.

37 So let your communication be, Ken, ken; Lo, lo: for whatever is more than this comes from deception.

38 You have heard that it has been said, An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth:

39 And so I say to you, That you resist not man's evil: but whoever shall smite you on your right cheek, turn to him the other one also.

40 And if any man will sue you at the court and takes away your coat, let him have your cloak also.

41 And whoever shall compel you to go a mile, go with him two.

42 Give to him that asks you and from him that would borrow from you, turn not away.

43 You have heard that it has been said; You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.

44 Rather I say to you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do tov to them that hate you and make tefillah for those who despitefully use you and persecute you;

45 That you may be the children of your Abba who is in the shamayim: for He makes His shemesh to rise on the evil and on the tov and sends rain on the tzadikim and on those who are not tzadikim.

46 For if you only love them who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?

47 And if you greet your Yisraelite brothers only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so?

48 Therefore become perfect, even as your Abba who is in the shamayim is The Perfect One.

6 Take heed that you do not your mitzvoth before men, to be seen by them: otherwise you have no reward from your Abba who is in the shamayim.

2 Therefore when you perform your mitzvoth, do not sound a shofar before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have tifereth from men. Truly I say to you, They have their reward.

3 So when you perform mitzvoth, let not your left hand know what your right hand does:

4 That your mitzvoth may be in secret: and your Abba who sees in secret Himself shall reward you openly.

5 And when you make tefillah, you shall not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to petition standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, They have their reward.

6 So you, when you make tefillah, enter into your tallit, or onto your couch, and when you have shut your door, make tefillah to your Abba who is in secret; and your Abba who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

7 Again when you make tefillah, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their long tefillot.

8 Be not therefore like them: for do you not see that your Abba knows what things you have need of, before you even ask Him?

9 After this manner therefore make tefillah: Our Abba who is in the shamayim, kadosh shmecha.

10 Your malchut come. Your ratzon be done in the earth, as it is in the shamayim.

11 Give us today our daily lechem.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And guard us from temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Yours is the malchut and The Power and the tifereth, le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

14 For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Abba will also forgive you:

15 However if you forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Abba forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover when you fast, be not, as the hypocrites, who make a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces that they may appear to men to fast. Truly I say to you, They have their reward.

17 So you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face;

18 That you appear not to men to be fasting, but to your Abba who is in secret: and your Abba, who sees in secret, shall reward you openly.

19 Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust does corrupt and where thieves break through and steal:

20 Therefore lay up for yourselves treasures in the shamayim, where neither moth nor rust does corrupt and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your lev be also.

22 The ohr of the gooff is the eye: if therefore your eye is bright, your whole gooff shall be full of ohr.

23 So if your eye is evil, your whole gooff shall be full of darkness. If therefore the ohr that is in you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve אֱלֹהִים and Mammon.

25 Therefore I say to you, Take no thought for your chayim, what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor yet for your gooff, what you shall put on. Is not chayim more than food and the gooff more than clothing?

26 See the birds of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your Heavenly Abba feeds them. Are you not much better than they are?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit to his height?

28 And why do you fixate with your clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say to you, That even Shlomo in all his tifereth was not dressed like one of these.

30 Therefore, if אֱלֹהִים so clothes the grass of the field, which today is and tomorrow is cast into the fireplace, shall He not much more clothe you, O you of little emunah?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? Or, What shall we drink? Or, with what shall we be clothed?

32 For after all these things do the goyim seek: for your Heavenly Abba knows that you have need of all these things.

33 So you seek first the malchut of אֱלֹהִים and His tzedakah; and all these things shall be added to you.

34 Take therefore no thought for tomorrow: for tomorrow shall take thought for the things of its own: Sufficient for one yom is the evil of that yom.

7 Do not judge, so that you will not be judged.

2 For with what mishpat you judge, you shall be judged: and with what measure you apply, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And why do you see the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but feel not the log that is in your own eye?

4 Or, how will you say to your brother, Let me pull out the splinter out of your eye; and, see, a log is in your own eye?

5 You hypocrite, first cast out the log out of your own eye; and then shall you see clearly to remove the splinter out of your brother's eye.

6 Do not hang earrings on the dogs, neither cast you your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them under their feet and turn again and tear at you.

7 Ask and it shall be given you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be opened to you:

8 For everyone that asks receives; and he that seeks finds; and to him that knocks it shall be opened.

9 Or, what man is there of you, who if his son asks for lechem, will he give him a stone?

10 Or, if he asks for a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If you then, being evil, know how to give tov gifts to your children, how much more shall your Abba who is in the shamayim give tov things and His tov Ruach to them that ask Him?

12 Therefore all things whatever you would that men should do to you, do you also to them: for this is the Torah and the neviim.

13 Enter in at the narrow gate: for wide is the gate and broad is the derech, that leads to destruction and many there be who go in that gate:

14 Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the derech, that leads to chayim and few there be that find it.

15 Beware of false neviim, who come to you in lamb's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.

16 You shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles?

17 Even so every tov eytz brings forth tov fruit; but a corrupt eytz brings forth evil fruit.

18 A tov eytz cannot bring forth evil fruit; neither can a corrupt eytz bring forth tov fruit.

19 Every eytz that brings not forth tov fruit is cut down and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore by their fruits you shall know them.

21 Not every one that says to Me, Master, Master, shall enter with Me into the malchut ha shamayim; but he that does the will of My Abba who is in the shamayim.

22 A great many will say to Me in that yom, Master, Master, have we not prophesied in Your Name? And in Your Name have expelled shedim? And in your Name done many wonderful mitzvoth and nisim?

23 And then will I profess to them, I never knew you: depart from Me, you that work Torah-less-ness.

24 Therefore whoever hears these sayings of Mine and does them, I will liken him to a wise man, who built his bayit upon a Rock:

25 And the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that bayit; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a Rock.

26 And every one that hears these sayings of Mine and does them not, shall be like a foolish man, who built his bayit upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew and beat upon that bayit; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when סוֹפְרָאז had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at His Torah and conduct:

29 For He taught them as one having authority and not as the Sophrim.

8 When He had come down from the har, great multitudes followed Him.

2 And, see, there came a leper and worshipped Him, saying, Master, if You will, You can make me clean. Will You heal me?

3 And סוֹפְרָאז put forth His hand and touched him, saying, I will; be clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And סוֹפְרָאז said to him, See that you tell no man; but go your way, show yourself to the kohen and offer the gift that Moshe commanded, for a testimony to them.

5 And when סוֹפְרָאז had entered into Kfar Nachum, there came to Him a centurion, beseeching Him,

6 And saying, Master, my eved lies at home sick of paralysis, grievously tormented.

7 And סוֹפְרָאז said to him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Master, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof: but speak the word only and my eved shall be healed.

9 For I am a sinful man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go and he goes; and to another, Come and he comes; and to my eved, Do this and he does it.

10 When סוֹפְרָאז heard it, He marveled and said to them that followed, Truly I say to you, I have not found so great emunah, no, not in Yisrael.

11 And I say to you, That many shall come from the east and west and shall sit down with Avraham and Yitzchak and Yaakov, in the malchut ha shamayim.

12 But the children of the malchut shall be cast out into the outer darkness of Gei-Hinnom: and there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And סוֹפְרָאז said to the centurion, Go your way; and as you have believed, so be it done to you. And his eved was healed in the exact same hour.

14 And when סוֹפְרָאז had come into Kefa's bayit, He saw his isha's eema in bed and sick with a fever.

15 And He touched her hand and the fever left her: and she arose and attended to them.

16 When the evening had come, they brought to Him many that were possessed with shedim: and He expelled the shedim with His Word and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Yeshayahu the navi, saying, He Himself took our infirmities and carried our sicknesses.

18 Now when סוֹפְרָאז saw great multitudes around Him; He gave a commandment to depart to the other side.

19 And a certain Sopher came and said to Him, Master; I will follow You wherever You go.

20 And סוֹפְרָאז said to him, The foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests; but The Ben Ahdahm, The Virgin's Son, has no where to lay His head.

21 And another of His talmidim said to Him, Rabbi, allow me first to go and bury my abba.

22 But Yahushua said to him, Follow Me; and let the dead bury their own dead.

23 And when He had entered into a ship, His talmidim followed Him.

24 And, see, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with waves: but He was asleep.

25 And His talmidim came to Him and awoke Him, saying, Master, save us: we perish!

26 And He said to them, Why are you fearful, O you of so little emunah? Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marveled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him!

28 And when He had come to the other side into the country of the Gergashites, there met Him two men possessed with shedim, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no man might pass by that derech.

29 And, see, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with You, Yahushua, Son of Ahloha? Are You come here to torment us before the time?

30 And there was off in the distance a herd of many pigs feeding.

31 So the shedim sought Him, saying, If You expel us, allow us to attack the herd of pigs.

32 And He said to them, Go. And when they had come out, they attacked the herd of pigs: and, see, the whole herd of pigs ran violently down a steep place into the sea and perished in the mayim.

33 And they that kept them fled and went their way into the city and told everything that had happened to the ones who were possessed by the shedim.

34 And, see, the whole city came out to meet אֱלֹהִים: and when they saw Him, they sought Him that He would depart out of their coasts.

9 And He entered into a ship and passed over and came into His own city.

2 And, see, they brought to Him a man sick from paralysis, lying on a quilt: and אֱלֹהִים seeing their emunah said to the sick from paralyzes; Son, be of tov ruach; your sins are forgiven you.

3 And, see, certain of the Sophrim said within themselves, This Man blasphememes.

4 And אֱלֹהִים knowing their thoughts said, Why do you think evil in your levavot?

5 For which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise and walk?

6 But that you may know that The Ben Ahdahm has Power on earth to forgive sins, (then He said to the sick of the paralysis): Arise, take up your mat and go to your bayit.

7 And he arose and departed to his bayit.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and gave tehilla to אֱלֹהִים, who had given such Power to men.

9 And as וַיַּעֲבֹד passed forth from there, He saw a man, named Mattityahu, sitting at the tax office: and He said to him, Follow Me. And he arose and followed Him.

10 And it came to pass, as וַיַּעֲבֹד sat to eat in the bayit, see; many tax collectors, violent men, and sinners came and sat down with Him and His talmidim.

11 And when the Prushim saw it, they said to His talmidim, Why does your Rabbi eat with tax collectors and sinners?

12 But when וַיַּעֲבֹד heard that, He said to them, They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go and learn what this means, I desire rachamim and not sacrifice: for I AM not come to call the tzadikim, but sinners to teshuvah.

14 Then came to Him the talmidim of Yochanan ha Matbeel, saying, Why do we and the Prushim fast often, but your talmidim fast not?

15 And וַיַּעֲבֹד said to them, Can the children of the Bridegroom mourn, as long as the Bridegroom is with them? But the yamim will come, when the Bridegroom shall be taken from them and then shall they fast.

16 No man puts a piece of new cloth on an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up takes from the garment and the tear is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old wineskins: lest the wineskins break and the wine runs out and the wineskins perish: but they put new wine into new wineskins and both are preserved.

18 While He spoke these things to them, see, there came a certain synagogue leader and worshipped Him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay Your hand upon her and she shall live.

19 And וַיַּעֲבֹד arose and followed him and so did His talmidim.

20 And, see, a woman, who was diseased with an issue of dahm for twelve years, came behind Him and touched the tzitzit of His garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may just touch His tzitzit, I shall be whole.

22 But וַיַּעֲבֹד turned around and when He saw her, He said, Daughter, be of tov comfort; your emunah has made you whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when וַיַּעֲבֹד came into the synagogue leader's bayit and saw the professional mourners and the people making noise, 24 He said to them, Give place: for the girl is not dead, just sleeping. And they laughed Him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put out, He went in and took her by the hand and the girl arose.

26 And the fame of it went abroad into all that land.

27 And when וַיֵּצֵא departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying and saying, Ben Dawid, have rachamim on us.

28 And when He had come into the bayit, the blind men came to Him: and וַיֵּצֵא said to them, Do you believe that I AM able to do this? They said to Him, Yes, Master.

29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, According to your emunah be it to you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and וַיֵּצֵא strictly commanded them, saying, See that no man knows it.

31 But they, when they had departed, they published His fame in all that country.

32 As they went out, see, they brought to Him a dumb man possessed by s.a.tan.

33 And when the shed was expelled, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes marveled, saying, It was never so seen in Yisrael.

34 But the Prushim said, He casts out shedim through the sar of the shedim.

35 And וַיֵּצֵא went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming The Besorah of the malchut and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with rachamim on them because they fainted and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then He said to His talmidim, The harvest truly is great, but the workers are few.

38 Make tefillah therefore to The Master of the harvest, that He will send forth workers into His harvest.

10 And when He had called to Him His twelve talmidim, He gave them Power against unclean shedim, to expel them and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of diseases.

2 Now the names of the twelve shlichim are these; The first, Shimon, who is called Kefa and Andri his brother; Yaakov the son of Zavdi and Yochanan his brother;

3 Philip and Bartholomi; Toma and Mattityahu the tax collector; Yaakov the son of Alphai and Lebai, whose last name was Thaddai;

4 Shimon the Zealot, and Yahudah from Qerioth, who also betrayed Him.

5 These twelve ⲟⲩⲏⲛⲁⲓⲛ sent forth and commanded them, saying, Go not in the manner of the goyim and stay away from pagan practices, and into any city of the Shomronim enter not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep that have strayed and whored from Beit Yisrael.

7 And as you go, proclaim, saying, The malchut ha shamayim is offered.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead and expel shedim: freely you have received, freely give.

9 Do not accumulate gold, or silver, or brass in your purses,

10 Nor a bag for your journey, neither two coats, neither sandals, nor your staffs: for the workman is worthy of his food.

11 And into whatever city, or town you shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide until you go from there.

12 And when you come into a bayit, greet those in it.

13 And if the bayit is worthy, let your shalom come upon it: but if it is not worthy, let your shalom return to you.

14 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when you depart out of that bayit, or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Truly I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sedom and Amorah in the Yom HaDin, than for that city.

16 See, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be therefore wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to their congregational councils and they will scourge you in their kehellot;

18 And you shall be brought before governors and melechim for My sake, for a testimony against them and the goyim.

19 But when they seize you, take no thought how, or what you shall speak: for it shall be given to you in that same hour what you shall speak.

20 For it is not you that speaks, but The Ruach of your Abba who speaks in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death and The Abba the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents and cause them to be put to death.

22 And you shall be hated by all men for My Name's sake: but he that endures to the end shall live and be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee into another: for truly I say to you, you shall not have covered and converted the cities of Beit Yisrael, until The Ben Ahdahm has returned.

25 It is enough for the talmid that he is as His Teacher and the eved as His Master. If they have called The Master of Beit Yisrael Baal-Zevuv, how much more shall they call them of His household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hidden, that shall not be made known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak in ohr: and what you hear in the ear, that proclaim upon the housetops.

28 And fear them not who kill the gooff, but are not able to kill the being: but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both being and gooff in Gei-Hinnom.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And yet one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Abba.

30 Are not the very hairs of your head all numbered?

31 Fear not therefore, you are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whoever therefore shall confess and give tehilla to Me before men, him will I confess and give tehilla for him also before My Abba who is in the shamayim.

33 But whoever shall deny Me before men, him will I also deny before My Abba who is in the shamayim.

34 Think not that I AM come to send shalom on the earth: I came not to send shalom, but a sword.

35 For I AM come to set a man at odds against his abba and the daughter against her eema and the daughter-in-law against her eema-in-law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loves abba, or eema more than Me is not worthy of Me: and he that loves son, or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.

38 And he that takes not his execution stake and follows after Me, is not worthy of Me.

39 He who is concerned about his chayim shall lose it: and he that loses his chayim for My sake shall find it.

40 He that receives you receives Me and he that receives Me receives Him that sent Me.

41 He that receives a navi in the name of a navi shall receive a navi's reward; and he that receives a tzadik man in the name of a tzadik man shall receive a tzadik man's reward.

42 And whoever shall give a drink to one of these little ones, even just a cup of cold mayim in the name of a talmid, truly I say to you, That he shall in no way lose his reward.

11 And it came to pass, when וַיֵּשֶׁבֶת had made an end of commanding His twelve talmidim, He departed from there to teach and to proclaim in their cities.

2 Now when Yochanan had heard in the prison the mitzvoth of The Moshiach, he sent two of his talmidim,

3 And said to Him, Are You the One that should come, or do we look for another?

4 וַיֵּשֶׁבֶת answered and said to them, Go and show Yochanan again those things that you do hear and see:

5 The blind receive their sight and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up and the poor have The Besorah proclaimed to them and are acquitted.

6 And blessed is he, who shall not be offended by Me.

7 And as they departed, וַיֵּשֶׁבֶת began to say to the multitudes concerning Yochanan, What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in fine clothing? See, they that wear fine clothing are in melechim's houses.

9 But what did you go out to see? A navi? Yes, I say to you and more than a navi.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, See, I send My messenger, who shall prepare the derech before Me.

11 Truly I say to you, Among them that are born of women there has not risen a greater than Yochanan ha Matbeel: nevertheless he that is least in the malchut ha shamayim is greater than him.

12 And from the yamim of Yochanan ha Matbeel until now the malchut ha shamayim has been administered by force and has been oppressed and senseless persons have been controlling it by violence.

13 For all the neviim and the Torah prophesied concerning Yochanan.
14 And if you will receive it, this is Eli-Yahu, who was supposed to come.
15 He that has ears to hear, let him hear.
16 But to what shall I liken this generation? It is like children sitting in the markets and calling to their chaverim, 17 And saying, We have played for you and you have not danced; we have mourned for you and you have not lamented.
18 For Yochanan came neither eating nor drinking and they said, He has a shed.
19 The Ben Ahdahm came eating and drinking and they say, See a gluttonous man and wine drinker, a chaver of tax collectors and sinners. So fools judge the wise.
20 Then He began to rebuke the cities where most of His mighty mitzvot were done because they did not make teshuvah:
21 Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Beth Tsaida! For if the mighty mitzvot, which were done in you, had been done in Tsur and Tsidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.
22 But I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Tsur and Tsidon at the Yom HaDin, than for you.
23 And you, Kfar Nachum, which is exalted to the shamayim, shall be brought down to Gei-Hinnom: for if the mighty mitzvot, which have been done in you, had been done in Sedom, it would have remained until this yom.
24 But I say to you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sedom in the Yom HaDin, than for you.
25 At that time $\sigma\omega\tau\alpha\lambda\lambda$ made tefillah and said, I thank You, O Abba, Master of the shamayim and earth because You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes.
26 Even so, Abba: for so it seemed tov in Your sight.
27 All things are delivered to Me by My Abba: and no man knows The Son, but The Abba; neither knows any man The Abba, but The Son and he to whom The Son will reveal Him.
28 Come to Me, all you that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest and help you to bear your yoke.
29 Take My yoke upon you and learn about Me; for I AM meek and lowly in lev: and you shall find rest for your beings.
30 For My yoke is gentle and My burden is light.

12 At that time וַיֵּלֶךְ went on The Shabbat through the cornfields; and His talmidim were hungry and began to pluck the ears of grain and to eat.
2 But when the Prushim saw it, they said to Him, See, your talmidim do that which is not proper to do upon The Shabbat.
3 But He said to them, Have you not read what Dawid did, when he was hungry and they that were with him;
4 How he entered into the Bayit of The Master וַיֵּלֶךְ and did eat from the Lechem ha Panayim, which was not permitted in Torah for him to eat, neither for them who were with him, but only for the kohanim?
5 Or, have you not read in the Torah, how that on The Shabbat the kohanim in the Beit HaMikdash profane The Shabbat and are blameless?
6 But I say to you, That in this place is One greater than the Beit HaMikdash.
7 But if you had known what this means, I will have rachamim and not sacrifice, you would not have condemned the innocent.
8 For The Ben Ahdahm is Master even of The Shabbat.
9 And when He was departed from there, He went into their synagogue:
10 And, see, there was a man who had his hand withered. And they asked Him, saying, Is it permitted in the Torah to heal on The Shabbat? So that they might accuse Him.
11 And He said to them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep and if it fall into a pit on The Shabbat, will he not lay hold on it and lift it out?
12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? So then it is permitted in Torah to do mitzvoth on The Shabbat.
13 Then He said to the man, Stretch forth your hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, just like the other.
14 Then the Prushim went out and took council against Him, how they might destroy Him.
15 But when וַיֵּלֶךְ knew it, He withdrew Himself from there: and great multitudes followed Him and He healed them all;
16 And commanded them that they should not make known where He was:
17 That it might be fulfilled what was spoken by Yeshayahu the navi, saying,

18 See My Eved, whom I have chosen; My Beloved, in whom My being is well pleased: I will put My Ruach upon Him and He shall show Torah's mishpatim to the goyim.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry out; neither shall any man hear His voice in the streets.

20 A crushed reed shall He not break and smoking flax shall He not quench, until He brings forth mishpatim to victory.

21 And in His Name shall the goyim tikvah and trust.

22 Then was brought to Him one possessed with a shed, blind and dumb: and He healed him, so completely that the blind and dumb both spoke and saw.

23 And all the people of Yisrael were amazed and said, Is not this Ben Dawid?

24 But when the Prushim heard it, they said, This fellow does not expel shedim, except by Baal-Zevuv the sar of the shedim.

25 And אֱלֹהִים knew their thoughts and said to them, Every malchut divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city, or bayit divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if s.a.tan expelled s.a.tan, he would be divided against himself; how then would his malchut stand?

27 And if I by Baal-Zevuv expel shedim, by whom do your children expel them? Therefore they shall be your shophtim.

28 But if I expel shedim by The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים , then the malchut of אֱלֹהִים has come to you.

29 Or, else how can one enter into a strong man's bayit and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? And then he will spoil his bayit.

30 He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathers not with Me scatters abroad.

31 Therefore I say to you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men: but the blasphemy against The Ruach Hakodesh shall not be forgiven to men.

32 And whoever speaks a word against The Ben Ahdahm, it shall be forgiven him: but whoever speaks against The Ruach Hakodesh, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in the olam hazeh and neither in the olam haba.

33 Either make the eytz tov and its fruit tov; or else make the eytz corrupt and its fruit corrupt: for the eytz is known by its fruit.

34 O generation of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak tov things? For out of the abundance of the lev the mouth speaks.

35 A tov man out of the tov treasure of the lev brings forth tov things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things.

36 But I say to you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account of it on the Yom Ha Din.

37 For by your words you shall be declared tzadik and by your words you shall be condemned.

38 Then certain of the Sophrim and of the Prushim answered, saying, Rabbi, we would see an ot from You.

39 But He answered and said to them, An evil and adulterous generation seeks after an ot; and there shall no ot be given to it, but the ot of the navi Yonah:

40 For as Yonah was three yamim and three laylot in the fish's belly; so shall The Ben Ahdahm be three yamim and three laylot in the lev of the earth.

41 The men of Ninveh shall rise in the Yom HaDin with this generation and shall condemn it: because they repented at the proclaiming of Yonah; and, see, a Greater than Yonah is here.

42 The Malka of Sheba shall rise up in the Yom HaDin with this generation and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the chochmah of Shlomo; and, see, a Greater than Shlomo is here.

43 When the unclean ruach has gone out of a man, it walks through dry places, seeking rest and finds none.

44 Then it says, I will return to my bayit from where I came out; and when it returns, it finds it empty, swept and decorated.

45 Then it goes and takes with it seven other shedim more wicked than itself and they enter in and dwell there: and then the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also in this wicked generation.

46 While He yet talked to the people, see, His eema and His brothers stood outside, desiring to speak with Him.

47 Then one said to Him, See, Your eema and Your brothers stand outside, desiring to speak with You.

48 But He answered and said to him that told Him, Who is My eema? And who are My Yisraelite brothers?

49 And He stretched forth His hand toward His talmidim and said, See My eema and My Yisraelite brothers!

50 For whoever shall do the will of My Abba who is in the shamayim, the same is My brother and sister and eema.

13 The same yom $\omega\omega\uparrow\aleph\aleph$ went out of the bayit, and sat by the seaside.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together to Him, so that He went into a ship and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And He spoke many things to them in parables, saying, See, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some zera fell by the wayside and the birds came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and immediately they sprung up because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the shemesh was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up and choked them:

8 But others fell into tov ground and brought forth fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who has ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the talmidim came and said to Him, Why do You speak to them in parables?

11 He answered and said to them, Because it is given to you to know the sods of the malchut ha shamayim, but to them it is not given.

12 For whoever has, to him shall be given and he shall have more abundance: but whoever has not, from him shall be taken away even what he has.

13 Therefore I speak to them in parables: because seeing they see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Yeshayahu, which said, By hearing you shall hear and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's lev has become thickened and their ears are dull of hearing and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and should understand with their lev and should make teshuvah and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For truly I say to you, That many neviim and tzadikim have desired to see those things which you see and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear and have not heard them.

18 Hear therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one hears The Word of the malchut and understands it not, then comes the wicked one and catches away that which was sown in his lev. This is he who received zera by the wayside.

20 But he that received the zera into stony places, the same is he that hears the word and immediately with simcha receives it;

21 Yet has he not root in himself, but endures for a while: for when tribulation, or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he is offended.

22 He also that received zera among the thorns is he that hears the word; and the cares of the olam hazeh and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word and he becomes unfruitful.

23 But he that received zera into the tov ground is he that hears the word and understands it; who also bears fruit and brings forth, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable He put forth to them, saying, The malchut ha shamayim is like a man who sowed tov zera in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his derech.

26 But when the blade was sprung up and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the avadim of the master came and said to him, Sir, did you not sow tov zera in your field? From where then have the tares come from?

28 He said to them, An enemy has done this. The avadim said to him, Will you then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, No; lest while you gather up the tares, you root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into My barn.

31 Another parable He put forth to them, saying, The malchut ha shamayim is like a grain of mustard zera, which a man took and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all zera: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs and becomes an eytz, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches.

33 Another parable He spoke to them; The malchut ha shamayim is like chametz, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spoke וַיִּסְפָּר to the multitude in parables; and without a parable He spoke not to them:

35 That it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the navi, saying, I will open My mouth in parables; I will utter things that have been kept secret from the yamim of old.

36 Then וַיִּסְפָּר sent the multitude away and went into the bayit: and His talmidim came to Him, saying, Declare to us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said to them, He that sows the tov zera is The Ben Ahdahm;

38 The field is the olam hazeh; the tov zera are the children of the malchut; but the tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is s.a.tan; the harvest is the end of the olam hazeh; and the reapers are the heavenly malachim.

40 As the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be at the end of the olam hazeh.

41 The Ben Ahdahm shall send forth His heavenly malachim and they shall gather out of His malchut all things that offend and those who do Torah-less-ness;

42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: where there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then shall the tzadikim shine forth as the shemesh in the malchut of their Abba. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

44 Again, the malchut ha shamayim is like a treasure hidden in a field; which when a man has found, he hides and because of simcha goes and sells all that he has and buys that single field.

45 Again, the malchut ha shamayim is like a merchant, seeking precious pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

47 Again, the malchut ha shamayim is like a net that was cast into the sea and gathered in every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore and sat down and gathered the tov into vessels, but took the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the olam hazeh: the heavenly malachim shall come forth and separate the wicked from among the tzadikim, 50 And shall expel them into the furnace of fire: where there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 אמר said to them, Have you understood all these things? They said to Him, Oh yes, Master.

52 Then He said to them, Therefore every Sopher who is instructed about the malchut ha shamayim is like an abba of children, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 And it came to pass, that when אמר had finished these parables, He departed from there.

54 And when He had come into His own country, He taught them in their synagogues, so that they were astonished and said, from where has this Man this chochmah and these mighty mitzvoth?

55 Is not this the carpenter's Son? Is not His eema called Miryam? And His brothers, Yaakov and Yoseph and Shimon and Yahudah?

56 And His sisters, are they not all with us? From where then has this Man all these things?

57 And they were offended by Him. But אמר said to them, A Navi is not unappreciated, except in His own country and in His own bayit.

58 And He did not many mighty mitzvoth there because of their unbelief.

14 At that time Herod the district ruler heard about the fame of אמר,

2 And said to his avadim, This is Yochanan ha Matbeel; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty mitzvoth do manifest themselves in him.

3 For Herod had laid hold on Yochanan and bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip's isha.

4 For Yochanan said to him, It is not permissible in Torah for you to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude because they counted him as a navi.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herod.

7 So he promised with an oath to give her whatever she would ask.

8 And she, being previously instructed by her eema, said, Give me here Yochanan ha Matbeel's head on a dish.

9 And the melech was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake and those who sat with him as guests over food, he commanded the head to be given to her.

10 And he sent and beheaded Yochanan in the prison.

11 And his head was brought on a dish and given to the girl: and she brought it to her eema.

12 And his talmidim came and took up the gooff and buried it and went and told סוֹפְרָאן.

13 When סוֹפְרָאן heard of it, He departed from there by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard of it, they followed Him on foot out of the cities.

14 And סוֹפְרָאן went forth and saw a great multitude and was moved with rachamim towards them and He healed their sick ones.

15 And when it was evening, His talmidim came to Him, saying, This is a desert place and the sunlight is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food.

16 But סוֹפְרָאן said to them, They need not depart; you give them to eat.

17 And they said to Him, We have here only five loaves and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them here to Me.

19 And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to the shamayim, He said the bracha and broke it and gave the loaves to His talmidim and the talmidim to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 And immediately סוֹפְרָאן constrained His talmidim to get into a ship and to go before Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away.

23 And when He had sent the multitudes away, He went up into a har alone to make tefillah: and when the evening had come, He was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary to it.

25 And in the fourth watch of the lyla וַיֵּלֶךְ went to them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the talmidim saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a ruach; and they cried out for fear.

27 But immediately וַיִּדְבַר spoke to them, saying, Be of tov courage; it is I AM; be not afraid!

28 And Kefa answered Him and said, Master, if it is You, command me to come to You on the mayim.

29 And He said, Come-Boh. And when Kefa had come down out of the ship, he walked on the mayim, to go to וַיֵּלֶךְ.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, Master, save me.

31 And immediately וַיִּדְבַר stretched forth His hand and caught him and said to him, O man of little emunah, why did you doubt?

32 And when they had come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped Him, saying, Of an emet You are The Son of וַיֵּלֶךְ.

34 And when they had gone over, they came into the land of Gennesar.

35 And when the men of that place had da'at of His arrival, they sent out into all that country all around and brought to Him all that were diseased;

36 And begged Him that they might only touch the tzitzit of His garment: and as many as touched were completely healed.

15 Then came to וַיֵּלֶךְ Sophrim and Prushim, who were from Yahrushalayim, saying,

2 Why do Your talmidim transgress the tradition of the zechanim? For they do not wash their hands when they eat food.

3 But He answered and said to them, Why do you also transgress the commandment of וַיֵּלֶךְ by your tradition?

4 For וַיֵּלֶךְ commanded, you saying, Honor your abba and eema: and, he that curses abba, or eema, let him die the death.

5 But you say, Whoever shall say to his abba, or his eema, It is a gift by whatever you would have been profited by me;

6 And does not esteem his abba, or his eema, he shall be free. This is how you have made the commandment of וַיֵּלֶךְ of no effect by your tradition.

7 You hypocrites, well did Yeshayahu prophesy about you, saying,

8 This people draws near to Me with their mouth and honors Me with their lips; but their lev is far from Me.

9 But in vain they do worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commands of men.

10 And He called the multitude and said to them, Shema and understand:

11 Not that which goes into the mouth defiles a man; but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man.

12 Then came His talmidim and said to Him, Did You know that the Prushim were offended, after they heard this teaching?

13 But He answered and said, Every plant, which My heavenly Abba has not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Leave them alone: they are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered Kefa and said to Him, Declare to us this parable.

16 And $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\tau$ said, Are you also yet without binah

17 Do you not yet understand, that whatever enters in at the mouth goes into the belly and is cast out into the sewer?

18 But those things that proceed out of the mouth come forth from the lev; and they defile the man.

19 For out of the lev proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness and blasphemies:

20 These are the things that defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands defiles not a man.

21 Then $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\tau$ went from there and departed into the coasts of Tsur and Tsidon.

22 And, see, a woman of Kanaan came out of the same coasts and cried to Him, saying, Have rachamim on me, O Master, Ben Dawid; my daughter is heavily vexed with a shed.

23 But He answered her not a word. And His talmidim came and sought Him, saying; Send her away; for she cries after us.

24 But He answered and said, They did not send Me but to the lost sheep of Beit Yisrael, who went astray and whored.

25 Then she came and worshipped Him, saying, Master, help me.

26 But He answered and said, It is not right to take the children's lechem and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, Emet, sir: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs that fall from their masters' shulchan.

28 Then סוֹפֵרֵי־אֵז answered and said to her, O woman, great is your emunah: be it to you even as you will. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 And Yahushua departed from there and came near to the Sea of Galil; and went up into a har and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came to Him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed and many others and cast them down at סוֹפֵרֵי־אֵז's feet; and He healed them:

31 So that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speak, the maimed made whole, the lame to walk and the blind to see: and they gave tehilla to the Ahloha of Yisrael.

32 Then סוֹפֵרֵי־אֵז called His talmidim to Him and said, I have rachamim on the multitude because they continue with Me now for three yamim and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away without food, lest they faint in the derech.

33 And His talmidim said to Him, From where should we have so much lechem in the wilderness, so as to feed so great a multitude?

34 And סוֹפֵרֵי־אֵז said to them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, Seven and a few little fishes.

35 And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And He took the seven loaves and the fishes and gave hodu and broke them and gave to His talmidim and the talmidim to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat and were filled: and they collected from the broken pieces that were left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And He sent away the multitude and entered the boat and came into the coasts of Magdala.

16 The Prushim also with the Tzadukim came and testing Him desired that He would show them a single ot from the shamayim.

2 He answered and said to them, When it is evening, you say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the boker, It will be foul weather today: for the sky is red and overcast. O you hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky; but can you not discern the signs of the times?

4 The offspring of evildoers seeks after an ot; and there shall no ot be given to it, but the ot of the navi Yonah. And He left them and departed.

5 And when His talmidim were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take lechem.

6 Then אמר said to them, Take heed and beware of the chametz of the Prushim and of the Tzadukim.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no lechem.

8 Which when אמר perceived, He said to them, O you of little emunah, why do you reason among yourselves, that you have brought no lechem?

9 Do you not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves and the five thousand and how many baskets you took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves and the four thousand and how many baskets you took up?

11 How is it that you did not understand that I spoke not to you concerning lechem, but that you should beware of the chametz of the Prushim and of the Tzadukim?

12 Then they understood how that He commanded them not to beware of the chametz of lechem, but of the teachings and behavior of the Prushim and of the Tzadukim.

13 When אמר came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His talmidim, saying, Who do men say that I The Ben Ahdahm Am?

14 And they said, Some say that You are Yochanan ha Matbeel: some, Eli-Yahu; and others, Yirmeyahu, or one of the neviim.

15 He said to them, But who do you say that I AM?

16 And Shimon Kefa answered and said, You are The Moshiach, The Son of the living Ahloha who has come into the olam hazeh.

17 And אמר answered and said to him, Blessed are you, Shimon Bar Yonah: for flesh and dahm has not revealed this to you, but My Abba who is in the shamayim.

18 And I say also to you, That you are Kefa and upon this Rock I will restore My kehilla as a Bayit of tefillah; and the gates of Gei-Hinnom shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give to you the keys of the malchut ha shamayim: and whatever you shall bind on earth shall be; having been bound in the shamayim: and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be; having been loosed in the shamayim.

20 Then He commanded His talmidim that they should tell no man that He was משיח Ha Moshiach.

21 From that time forth משיח began to show to His talmidim, how that He must go to Yahrushalayim and suffer many things from the zechanim and main kohanim and Sophrim and be killed and be raised again the third yom.

22 Then Kefa took Him and began to rebuke Him, saying, Be it far from You, Master: this shall not be to You.

23 But He turned and said to Kefa, Get behind Me, s.a.tan: you are an offence to Me: for you do not desire the things that be of אנשים, but those that be of men.

24 Then said משיח to His talmidim, If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his execution stake and follow Me.

25 For whoever will save his chayim shall lose it: and whoever will lose his chayim for My sake shall find it.

26 For how is a man profited, even if he shall gain the entire olam hazeh and lose his own being? Or, what shall a man give in exchange for his being?

27 For The Ben Ahdahm shall come in the tifereth of His Abba with His heavenly malachim; and then He shall reward every man according to his mitzvoth.

28 Truly I say to you, There are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, until they see The Ben Ahdahm coming in His malchut.

17 And after six yamim משיח took Kefa, Yaakov and Yochanan his brother and brought them up into an high har alone to make tefillah,

2 And while He was making tefillah He was transformed before them: and His face did shine as the shemesh and His clothing was white as the ohr.

3 And, see, there appeared to them Moshe and Eli-Yahu talking with Him about what would happen to Him in Yahrushalayim.

4 Then answered Kefa and said to משיח, Master, it is tov for us to be here: if You will, let us make here three sukkot; one for You and one for Moshe and one for Eli-Yahu.

5 While he yet spoke, see, a bright cloud overshadowed them and they were greatly alarmed: and see a Bat-Kol out of the cloud, which said, This is My Beloved Son, in whom I AM well pleased; hear Him.

6 And when the talmidim heard it, they fell on their face and were very afraid.

7 And וַיָּבֹאוּ came and touched them and said, Arise and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, except וַיָּבֹאוּ only.

9 And as they came down from the har, Yahushua commanded them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until The Ben Ahdahm be risen again from the dead.

10 And His talmidim asked Him, saying, Why then do the Sophrim say that Eli-Yahu must first come?

11 And וַיָּבֹאוּ answered and said to them, Eli-Yahu truly shall first come and restore all things.

12 But I say to you, That Eli-Yahu has come already and they knew him not, but have done to him whatever they desired. Likewise shall also The Ben Ahdahm suffer from them.

13 Then the talmidim understood that He spoke to them of Yochanan ha Matbeel.

14 And when they had come to the multitude, there came to Him a certain man, kneeling down to Him and saying, 15 Master, have rachamim on my son: for he is tormented by an evil ruach and very tormented: for often he falls into the fire and often into the mayim.

16 And I brought him to Your talmidim and they could not cure him.

17 Then וַיָּבֹאוּ answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation who deny, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I preach to you? Bring him here to Me.

18 And וַיָּבֹאוּ rebuked the shed; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the talmidim to וַיָּבֹאוּ alone and said, Why could not we expel it?

20 And וַיָּבֹאוּ said to them, Because of your unbelief: for truly I say to you, If you have emunah as a grain of mustard zera, you shall say to this har, Move from here to there; and it shall move; and nothing shall be impossible to you.

21 However this kind goes out only by tefillah and fasting.

22 And while they stayed in Galil, וַיָּבֹאוּ said to them, The Ben Ahdahm shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill Him and the third yom He shall be raised again. And they were exceedingly sorry.

24 And when they had come to Kfar Nachum, they that received tax money came to Kefa and said, Does not your Rabbi pay tax?

25 He said, Yes. And when he had come into the bayit, שׁוֹמְרֵי הַבַּיִת anticipated this and said to him, saying, What do you think, Shimon Kefa? Of whom do the melechim of the earth take toll, or tax? From their own children, or from strangers?

26 Kefa said to Him, From strangers. שׁוֹמְרֵי הַבַּיִת said to him, Then are the children tax exempt.

27 Nevertheless, lest we should offend them, go to the sea and cast a hook and take up the fish that first comes up; and when you have opened its mouth, you shall find a piece of money: that take and give them for Me and you.

18 At the same time came the talmidim to שׁוֹמְרֵי הַבַּיִת, saying, Who is the greatest in the malchut ha shamayim?

2 And שׁוֹמְרֵי הַבַּיִת called a little child to Him and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Truly I say to you, Except you turn to Me and then become as little teachable children, you shall not enter into the malchut ha shamayim.

4 Whoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is the greatest in the malchut ha shamayim.

5 And whoever shall receive one such little child in My Name receives Me.

6 But whoever shall mislead one of these little ones who believe in Me, it were better for him that a millstone were hung around his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe to the olam hazeh because of offences and confusion! For it must be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence and confusion comes!

8 So if your hand, or your foot offend you, cut them off and cast them from you: it is better for you to enter into chayim lame, or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if your eye offends you, pluck it out and cast it from you: it is better for you to enter into chayim with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into Gei-Hinnom fire.

10 Take heed that you despise not one of these little ones; for I say to you, That in the shamayim their heavenly malachim do always see the face of My Abba who is in the shamayim.

11 For The Ben Ahdahm has come to save that which was lost.

12 So what do you think? If a Man has a hundred sheep and one of them goes astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine and go into the mountains and seek that one that has gone astray?

13 And if so be that He finds it, truly I say to you, That He has simcha more over that sheep, than of the ninety-nine who went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Abba who is in the shamayim that one of these little ones should perish.

15 And if your brother shall trespass against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone: if he shall hear you, you have gained your brother.

16 But if he will not hear you, then take with you one, or two more witnesses, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it to the kehilla of Yisrael: but if he neglects to hear the kehilla of Yisrael, let him be to you like a heathen man and a tax collector.

18 Truly I say to you, Whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in the shamayim: and whatever you shall loose on earth shall be loosed in the shamayim.

19 Again I say to you, That if two of you who are worthy shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them by My Abba who is in the shamayim.

20 For where two, or three will assemble together in My Name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came Kefa to Him and said, Master, how often shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Up to seven times?

22 אמר said to him, I did not say to you, up to seven times: but, up to seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the malchut ha shamayim like a certain Melech, who would take account of His avadim.

24 And when He had begun to settle, one was brought to Him, who owed Him ten thousand talents.

25 But as he had nothing with which to pay, His master commanded him to be sold and his isha and children and all that he had and payment to be made.

26 The eved therefore fell down and worshipped Him, saying, Master, have patience with me and I will pay You all.

27 Then The Master of that eved was moved with rachamim and released him and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same eved went out and found one of his fellow avadim, who owed him a hundred pieces of money: and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me what you owe.

29 And his fellow eved fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, Have patience with me and I will pay you all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow avadim saw what was done, they were very sad and angry and came and told their Master all that was done.

32 Then his Master, after He had called him, said to him, O you wicked eved of Beliyaal, I forgave you all that debt because you begged Me:

33 Should not you have also have had rachamim on your fellow eved, even as I had rachamim on you?

34 And his Master was angry and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to Him.

35 So likewise shall My Heavenly Abba do also to you, if you from your levavot do not forgive every one his brother their trespasses.

19 And it came to pass, that when $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\tau$ had finished these sayings, He departed from Galil and came into the coasts of Yahudah beyond the Yarden River;

2 And great multitudes followed Him; and He healed them there.

3 The Prushim also came to Him, tempting Him and saying to Him, Is it permitted in Torah for a man to put away his isha for any and every cause?

4 And He answered and said to them, Have you not read, that He who made them in Beresheeth made them male and female in order?

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave abba and eema and shall he cleave to his isha? and the two shall be one flesh;

6 Therefore they are no more two, but basar echad. What therefore $\alpha\upsilon\tau\alpha\tau$ has joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They said to Him, Why did Moshe then command to give a Sefer Keritut [scroll of divorce] and to divorce her?

8 He said to them, Because of the hardness of your levavot, Moshe allowed you to divorce your wives [only with a scroll of divorce]; but from the beginning and from eternity it was not so.

9 And I say to you, Whoever shall leave his isha, except it be for her adultery; and she then marries another husband in place of the first, causes her to commit adultery: and whoever marries her who has been separated but not yet divorced, does commit immorality himself.

10 His talmidim said to Him, If the case of the man be so with his isha, it is not tov to marry.

11 But He said to them, All men cannot receive your saying, except those to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, who were so born from their eema's womb: and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, who have made themselves eunuchs for the malchut ha shamayim's sake. He that is able to receive it let him receive it.

13 Then were brought to Him little children, that He should put His Hands on them and say a bracha: and the talmidim rebuked them.

14 But אֲנִי said, Allow little children and do not forbid them to come to Me: for of such is the malchut ha shamayim.

15 And He laid His Hands on them and departed from there.

16 And, see, one came and said to Him, Tov Master, what tov thing shall I do, that I may have eternal chayim in the olam haba?

17 And He said to him, Why do you call Me tov? There is none tov but one, that is, אֱלֹהִים: but if you will enter into chayim, keep the Torah mitzvot.

18 He said to Him, Which ones? אֲנִי said, You shall do no murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, 19 Honor your abba and your eema: and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

20 The young man said to Him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what do I lack yet?

21 אֲנִי said to him, If you will be perfect, go and sell what you have and give to the poor and you shall have treasure in the shamayim: and come and follow Me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful and angry: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said וַיֹּאמֶר to His talmidim, Truly I say to you, That it is very hard for a rich man to enter into the malchut ha shamayim.

24 And again I say to you, It is easier for a large rope to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the malchut of מַלְכוּת.

25 When His talmidim heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But וַיֹּאמֶר beheld them and said to them, With men this is impossible; but with מַלְכוּת all things are possible.

27 Then answered Kefa and said to Him, See, we have forsaken all and followed You; what shall we have therefore?

28 And וַיֹּאמֶר said to them, Truly I say to you, Those of you who have followed Me, in the regeneration when The Ben Ahdahm shall sit on the kesay of His esteem, you also shall sit upon twelve thrones, administering mishpat over the twelve tribes of Yisrael.

29 And every one that has forsaken houses, or brothers, or sisters, or abba, or eema, or isha, or children, or lands, for My Name's sake, shall receive a hundredfold and shall inherit everlasting chayim.

30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

20 For the malchut ha shamayim is like a Man that is a Farm Owner, who went out early in the boker to hire workers into His vineyard.

2 And when He had agreed with the workers for a penny a yom, He sent them into His vineyard.

3 And He went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said to them, You too go into the vineyard and whatever is right I will give you. And they went their derech.

5 Again He went out about the sixth and ninth hour and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour He went out and found others standing idle and said to them, Why do you stand here all the yom idle?

7 They said to Him, Because no man has hired us. He said to them, You too go also into the vineyard; and whatever is right, that shall you receive.

8 So when evening had come, the Owner of the vineyard said to His manager, Call the workers and give them their pay, beginning from the last to the first.

9 And when those came who were hired around the eleventh hour, they received every man a silver piece.

10 But when the first came, they thought that they would receive more; and they likewise received every man a silver piece.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the Owner of the vineyard, 12 Saying, These last group has worked just one hour and You have made them equal to us, who have borne the burden and heat of the yom.

13 But He answered one of them and said, Chaver, I do you no wrong: did you not agree with Me for a silver piece?

14 Take what is yours and go your way: I will give to this last man, as also I gave to you.

15 Is it not permitted in Torah for Me to do what I will with My own? Is your eye evil, because I AM tov?

16 So the last shall be first and the first last: for many are called, but few chosen.

17 And סוף־אז going up to Yahrushalayim, took the twelve talmidim aside in the derech and said to them,

18 See, we go up to Yahrushalayim; and The Ben Ahdahm shall be betrayed to the main kohanim and to the Sophrim and they shall condemn Him to death, 19 And shall deliver Him to the goyim to mock and to scourge and to impale Him: and the third yom He shall rise again.

20 Then came to Him the eema of Zavdi's children with her sons, worshipping Him and desiring a certain request from Him.

21 And He said to her, What do you want? She said to Him, Grant that my two sons may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your malchut.

22 But Yahushua answered and said, You know not what you ask. Are you able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of and to be immersed with the mikvah that I AM immersed with? They said to Him, We are able.

23 And He said to them, You shall drink indeed of My cup and be immersed with the mikvah that I AM immersed with: but to sit on My right hand and on My left, is not Mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared by My Abba.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brothers.

25 But וַיִּקְרָא called them to Him and said, You know that the princes of the goyim exercise dominion over them and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whoever will be great among you, let him be your eved;

27 And whoever will be first among you, let him be your eved:

28 Even as The Ben Ahdahm came not to be attended to, but to serve and to give His chayim a ransom for many.

29 And as they departed from Yericho, a great multitude followed Him.

30 And, see, two blind men sitting by the wayside, when they heard that וַיִּקְרָא passed by, cried out, saying, Have rachamim on us, O Master, Ben Dawid.

31 And the multitude rebuked them because they desired them to keep silent: but they cried out even more, saying, Have rachamim on us, O Master, Ben Dawid.

32 And וַיִּקְרָא stood still and called them and said, What do you want Me to do for you?

33 They said to Him, Master, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So וַיִּקְרָא had rachamim on them and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight and they followed Him.

21 And when they drew near to Yahrushalayim and had come to Beth Phagi, to the Har of Olives, then וַיִּקְרָא sent two talmidim,

2 Saying to them, Go into the village opposite you and immediately you shall find a donkey tied and a colt with her: loose them and bring them to Me.

3 And if any man says anything to you, you shall say, our Master has need of them; and immediately he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the navi, saying,

5 Tell the daughter of Tzion, See, your Melech comes to you, meek and sitting upon a donkey, even a colt the foal of a donkey.

6 And the talmidim went and did as וַיִּקְרָא commanded them,

7 And brought the donkey and the colt and put on them their clothes and they set Him on it.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the road; others cut down branches from the eytzim and spread them in the road.

9 And the multitudes that went before and that followed, cried out, saying, Hoshiana to The Savior The Ben Dawid: Blessed is He that comes in the Name of The Master אֲדֹנָי; Hoshiana in the highest.

10 And when He had come into Yahrushalayim, all the city was stirred up, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is אֲדֹנָי Ha Navi of Natzeret of Galil.

12 And אֲדֹנָי went into the Beit HaMikdash of אֲדֹנָי and cast out all them that sold and bought in the Beit HaMikdash and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said to them, It is written, My Bayit shall be called the Bayit of Tefillah; but you have made it a den of thieves and violent men.

14 And the blind and the lame came to Him in the Beit HaMikdash; and He healed them.

15 And when the main kohanim and Sophrim saw the wonderful things that He did and the children crying in the Beit HaMikdash saying, Let The Son of Ahloha be praised, and, Hoshiana to the Ben Dawid; they were very displeased, 16 And said to Him, Do You hear what they say? And אֲדֹנָי said to them, Yes; have you never read, Out of the mouth of babies and those who are nursed, You have perfected tehilla and composed a song?

17 And He left them and went out of the city into Beth Anya; and He spent the lyla there.

18 Now in the boker as He returned into the city, He was hungry.

19 And when He saw a fig eytz on the derech, He came to it and found nothing on it, but leaves only and said to it, Let no fruit grow on you ever again. And at once the fig eytz withered away.

20 And when the talmidim saw it, they marveled, saying, How quickly the fig eytz did wither away!

21 אֲדֹנָי answered and said to them, Truly I say to you, If you have emunah and doubt not, you shall not only do that which is done to the fig eytz, but also if you shall say to this har, Be removed and be thrown into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And all things, whatever you shall ask in tefillah, believing, you shall receive.

23 And when He was come into the Beit HaMikdash, the main kohanim and the zechanim of the people came to Him as He was teaching and said, By what authority and Power do You do these things? And who gave You this authority and Power?

24 And אמר answered and said to them, I will ask you one thing, which if you tell Me, I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 Yochanan's mikvah and authority, where did it come from? From the shamayim, or from men? And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, From the shamayim; He will say to us, Why did you not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all believed that Yochanan was a navi.

27 And they answered אמר and said, We cannot tell. And He said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

28 But what do you think? A certain Man had two sons; and He came to the first and said, Son, go work today in My vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented and went.

30 And He came to the second and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, Sir: and went not.

31 Which of the two sons did the will of their Abba? They said to Him, The first. אמר said to them, Truly I say to you, that the tax collectors and the harlots go into the malchut of אמר before you.

32 For Yochanan came to you in the way of tzedakah and you believed him not: but the tax collectors and the harlots believed him: and you, when you had seen it, made no teshuvah afterwards, that you might believe him.

33 Hear another parable: There was a certain Farm Owner, who planted a vineyard, and placed a hedge around it and dug a winepress in it and built a tower and leased it out to farmers and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, He sent His avadim to the farmers, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the farmers took His avadim and beat one and killed another and stoned another.

36 Again, He sent other avadim more than the first: and they did to them likewise.

37 But last of all He sent to them His Son, saying, They will reverence My Son.

38 But when the farmers saw The Son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill Him and let us seize on His inheritance.

39 And they caught Him and cast Him out of the vineyard and killed Him.

40 When The Master therefore of the vineyard comes, what will He do to those farmers?

41 They said to Him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men and will lease His vineyard to other farmers, who shall render Him the fruits in their moadem.

42 אמר said to them, Did you never read in The Katuv, The Stone that the builders rejected, the same has become the Head of the corner: this is The Master אמר's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes?

43 Therefore I say to you, The malchut of אמר shall be taken from you and given to a people bringing forth the fruits of it.

44 And whoever shall fall on this Stone shall be broken: but on whomever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder and they will be broken apart.

45 And when the main kohanim and Prushim had heard His parables, they perceived that He spoke about them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on Him, they feared the multitude because the people trusted Him as a Navi.

22 And אמר answered and spoke to them again by parables and said,

2 The malchut ha shamayim is like a certain Melech, who made a marriage for His Son,

3 And sent forth His avadim to call them that were invited to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, He sent forth other avadim, saying, Tell them who are invited, See, I have prepared My dinner: My oxen and My fatted calf are killed and all things are ready: come to the marriage.

5 But they made light of it and went their derachot, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took His avadim and treated them spitefully and killed them.

7 But when The Melech heard of this, He was angry: and he sent forth His armies and destroyed those murderers and burned up their city.

8 Then He said to His avadim, The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.

9 Go therefore into the highways and as many as you shall find, invite to the marriage.

10 So those avadim went out into the highways and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and tov: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 And when The Melech came in to see the guests, He saw there a man who did not have on a wedding garment:

12 And He said to him, Chaver, how did you come in here not having on a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said The Melech to the avadim, Bind him hand and foot and take him away and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 Then went the Prushim and took counsel how they might entangle Him in His talk.

16 And they sent out to Him their talmidim with the Herodians, saying, Rabbi, we know that You are emet and faithful, and teach the derech of Ahloha in emet, neither do You care what any man thinks: for You regard not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What do You think? Is it permitted in Torah to give tax to Kaiser, or not?

18 But $\text{סוֹפְרֵי$ perceived their wickedness and said, Why do you try Me, you hypocrites?

19 Show Me the tax money. And they brought to Him a silver piece.

20 And He said to them, Whose likeness and inscription is this?

21 They said to Him, Kaiser's. Then He said to them, Give obediently therefore to Kaiser the things which are Kaiser's; and to סוֹפְרֵי the things that are סוֹפְרֵי 's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marveled and left Him and went their derech.

23 The same yom came to Him the Tzadukim, who say that there is no resurrection and asked Him, 24 Saying, Master, Moshe said, If a man dies, having no children, his brother shall marry his isha and raise up zera for his brother.

25 Now there were among us seven brothers: and the first, when he had married an isha, he died and, having no children, left his isha to his brother:

26 Likewise the second also and the third, all the way to the seventh.

27 And last of all, the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose isha shall she be from the seven?
For they all had her as an isha.

29 וַיֹּאמְרוּ answered and said to them, You are led astray, not knowing the Keetvay HaKadosh, nor The Power of אֱלֹהִים.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the heavenly malachim of אֱלֹהִים in the shamayim.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by Ahloha, saying,

32 I AM the Ahloha of Avraham and the Ahloha of Yitzchak and the Ahloha of Yaakov? Ahloha is not the Ahloha of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at His Torah.

34 But when the Prushim had heard that He had put the Tzadukim to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, who was a Torah master, asked Him a question, testing Him and saying,

36 Rabbi, which one is the greatest mitzvah in the Torah?

37 וַיֹּאמֶר said to him, You shall love The Master אֱלֹהִים your Ahloha with all your lev and with all your being and with your entire mind.

38 This is the first and greatest commandment.

39 And the second is like it; You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

40 On these two mitzvoth hang all the Torah and the neviim.

41 While the Prushim were gathered together, Yahushua asked them, 42 Saying, What do you think of The Moshiach? Whose Son is He? They said to Him, Ben Dawid.

43 He said to them, How then does Dawid led by The Ruach call Him The Master אֱלֹהִים, saying,

44 The Master אֱלֹהִים said to my Master, Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool?

45 If Dawid then calls Him Master אֱלֹהִים, how is He then Dawid's son?

46 And no man was able to answer Him a word and from that yom on no one asked Him anymore questions.

23 Then spoke וַיֹּאמֶר to the multitude and to His talmidim,

2 Saying, The Sophrim and the Prushim sit themselves in Moshe's kesay:

3 All therefore that Moshe will invite you to observe, that observe and do; but do not do after their Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah: for they talk Torah and do not what Moshe said!

4 For they bind heavy burdens too grievous to bear and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their mitzvoth they do to be seen by men: they make large their tephillin and lengthen their tzitziyot,

6 And love the best seats at moadeem and the main seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets and to be called, Rabbi, Rabbi, by men.

8 But as for you do not desire to be called Rabbi: for one is your Rabbi, even The Moshiach; and all you are Yisraelite brothers.

9 And call no man abba upon the earth: for one is your Abba, who is in the shamayim.

10 Neither be called teachers: for one is your Teacher, even The Moshiach.

11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your eved.

12 And whoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 But woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you shut up the malchut ha shamayim from men: for you neither go in yourselves, neither do you allow them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you devour widows' houses and for show and lengthy exposition make long tefillot: therefore you shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you travel sea and land to make one Yireh-יִרֵה, and when he is made, you make him twofold more a child of Gei-Hinnom than yourselves.

16 Woe to you, blind guides, who say, Whoever shall swear by the Beit HaMikdash, it is nothing; but whoever shall swear by the gold of the Beit HaMikdash, he is a debtor!

17 You blind fools: for what is greater, the gold, or the Beit HaMikdash that sets apart the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 You blind fools: for which is greater, the gift, or the altar that sets apart the gift?

20 Whoever therefore shall swear by the altar, swears by it and by all things on it.

21 And whoever shall swear by the Beit HaMikdash, swears by it and by Him that dwells in it.

22 And he that shall swear by the shamayim swears by the kesay of אִשָּׁרָא and by Him that sits on it.

23 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you pay ma'aser of mint and anise and cummin and have omitted the weightier matters of the Torah, mishpat, rachamim and emunah: these needed to have been done and not to leave the others undone.

24 You blind guides, who strain at a gnat and swallow a camel.

25 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you make clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of extortion and unrighteousness.

26 You blind Prush, cleanse first that which is inside the cup and dish, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you are like white washed tombs, which indeed appear beautiful outside, but inside are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness.

28 Even so you also outwardly appear tzadik to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and Torah-less-ness.

29 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the neviim and decorate the graves of the tzadikim, 30 And say, If we had been alive in the yamim of our ahvot, we would not have taken part with them in the dahm of the neviim.

31 Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves, that you are the children of those that killed the neviim.

32 Fill you up then the measure of your ahvot.

33 You serpents, you generation of vipers, how can you escape the damnation of Gei-Hinnom?

34 Therefore, see, I send to you neviim and wise men and Sophrim: and some of them you shall kill and destroy; and some of them you shall scourge in your synagogues and persecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come all the tzadik dahm shed upon the earth, from the dahm of the tzadik Hevel to the dahm of Zacharyah son of Yahuyadah, whom you killed between the Beit HaMikdash and the altar.

36 Truly I say to you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Yahrushalayim, Yahrushalayim, you that kills the neviim and stones those who are sent to you, how often would I have gathered your children together, even as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you were not willing!

38 See, your Bayit is left to you desolate.

39 For I say to you, You shall not see Me again, until you shall surely learn to cry and say, Baruch Haba BeShem HaAdon אלהים.

24 And אלהים went out and departed from the Beit HaMikdash: and His talmidim came to Him to show Him the buildings of the Beit HaMikdash.

2 And אלהים said to them, Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as He sat upon the Har of Olives, the talmidim came to Him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the ot of Your coming and of the end of this age?

4 And אלהים answered and said to them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in My Name, saying, I AM The Moshiach; and shall deceive many.

6 And you shall hear of revolutions and rumors of wars: see that you be not troubled, or become foolish: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and malchut against malchut: and there shall be famines and pestilences and earthquakes, in diverse places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted and shall kill you: and you shall be hated by all goyim for My Name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended and shall betray one another and shall hate one another.

11 And many false neviim shall rise and shall deceive many.

12 And because Torah-less-ness shall abound, the ahava of many shall grow cold.

13 But he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this Besorah of the malchut shall be proclaimed in all the olam hazeh for a witness to all goyim; and then shall the end come.

15 When you therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniyel the navi, standing in the Beit HaMikdash,(whoever reads, let him understand)

16 Then let them who are in Yahudah flee into the mountains:

17 Let him who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his bayit:

18 Neither let him who is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe to them that are with child and to them that are nursing children in those yamim!

20 But make tefillah that your flight is not in the winter, neither on Yom Shabbat:

21 For then shall be Great Tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the olam hazeh to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those yamim are shortened, there should no flesh survive: but for the elect and for the sake of those chosen, those yamim shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man says to you, See, here is The Moshiach, or There He is; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Moshiachs and false neviim and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it became possible, they shall deceive the very elect and chosen.

25 See, I have told you before it occurs.

26 Therefore if they shall say to you, See, He is in the desert; do not go: see, He is in the secret rooms; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning comes out of the east and shines even to the west; so shall also the coming of The Ben Ahdahm be.

28 For wherever the dead gooff is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 Immediately after The Tribulation of those yamim shall the shemesh be darkened and the yarayach shall not give its ohr and the cochavim shall fall from the shamayim and the powers of the shamayim shall be shaken:

30 And then shall appear the ot of The Ben Ahdahm in the shamayim: and then shall all the tribes of the land mourn and they shall see The Ben Ahdahm coming on the clouds of the shamayim with Power and great tifereth.

31 And He shall send His heavenly malachim with a great sound of a shofar and they shall gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of the shamayim to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the fig eytz; When its branch is yet tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer fruit is near:

33 So likewise, when you shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the doors.

34 Truly I say to you, This tribe shall not pass, until all these things are fulfilled.

35 Ha Shamayim and earth shall pass away, but My Words shall not pass away.

36 But of that yom and hour knows no man, no, not even the heavenly malachim, but My Abba only.

37 But as the yamim of Noach were, so shall also the coming of The Ben Ahdahm be.

38 For as in the yamim that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the yom that Noach entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came and took them all away; so shall also the coming of The Ben Ahdahm be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; one shall be taken and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; one shall be taken, and the other left; because the malachim at the end of the olam will remove the stumbling blocks from the olam and will separate the tov ones from the wicked.

42 Watch therefore: for you know not what hour your Master is coming.

43 But know this; that if the owner of the bayit had known in what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and would not have allowed his bayit to be broken into.

44 Therefore you also stay ready: for in such an hour as you think not The Ben Ahdahm will come.

45 Who then is a faithful and wise eved, whom His Master has made ruler over His household, to give them food in due season?

46 Blessed is that eved, whom His Master when He comes shall find so doing.

47 Truly I say to you, That He shall make him ruler over all His goods and children.

48 But if an evil eved shall say in his lev, My Master delays His coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow avadim and to eat and drink with the drunks;

50 The Master of that eved shall come in a yom when he looks not for Him and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him in pieces and appoint him a portion with the hypocrites: and there shall then be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 Then shall the malchut ha shamayim be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went forth to meet the Bridegroom and the Bride.

2 And five of them were wise and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the Bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, See, the Bridegroom comes; go out to meet Him.

7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said to the wise, Give us from your oil; for our lamps have gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there not be enough for you and us: instead go to them that sell and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the Bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with Him to the marriages: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Master, Master, open to us.

12 But He answered and said, Truly I say to you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for you know neither the yom nor the hour in which The Ben Ahdahm comes.

14 For the malchut ha shamayim is like a Man traveling into a far country, who called His own avadim and delivered to them His goods.

15 And to one He gave five talents, to another two and to another one; to every man according to his own ability; and immediately He took His journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same and made five other talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained another two.

18 But he that had received one talent went and dug in the earth and hid His Master's money.

19 After a long time The Master of those avadim came and settled accounts with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought another five talents, saying, Master, you delivered to me five talents: see, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His Master said to him, Well done, you tov and faithful eved: you have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things: enter into the simcha of your Master.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Master, You delivered to me two talents: see, I have gained two more talents besides them.

23 His Master said to him, Well done, tov and faithful eved; you have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things: enter into the simcha of your Master.

24 Then he who had received the one talent came and said, Master, I knew You, that You are a hard shrewd Man, reaping where You have not sown and gathering where You have not scattered zera:

25 And I was afraid and went and hid Your talent in the earth: see, there You have what is Yours.

26 His Master answered and said to him, You wicked and lazy eved, you supposedly knew that I reap where I sowed not and gather where I have not scattered zera:

27 You should have at least deposited My silver with the bankers and then at My coming I would have received My own with interest.

28 Take therefore the talent from him and give it to him who owns ten talents.

29 For to every one that has shall be given and he shall have abundance: but from him that has not; shall be taken away even that which he has.

30 And cast the unprofitable eved into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 When The Ben Ahdahm shall come in His tifereth and all the kadosh heavenly malachim with Him, then shall He sit upon the kesay of His tifereth:

32 And before Him shall be gathered all goyim: and He shall separate them one from another, as a Shepherd divides His sheep from the goats:

33 And He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall The Melech say to them on His right hand, Come, you blessed of My Abba, inherit the malchut prepared for you from the foundation of the olam hazeh:

35 For I was hungry and you gave Me food: I was thirsty and you gave Me drink: I was a stranger, and you took Me in:

36 Naked and you clothed Me: I was sick and you visited Me: I was in prison and you came to Me.

37 Then shall the tzadikim answer Him, saying, Master, when did we see You hungry and fed You? Or, thirsty and gave You to drink?

38 When did we see You as a stranger and took You in? Or, naked and clothed You?

39 Or, when did we see You sick, or in prison and visited You?

40 And The Melech shall answer and say to them, Truly I say to you, Whenever you have done it to one of the least of these My Yisraelite brothers; you have done it to Me.

41 Then shall He say also to them on the left hand, Depart from Me, you cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for s.a.tan and his shedim:

42 For I was hungry and you gave Me no food: I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink:

43 I was a stranger and you took Me not in: naked and you clothed Me not: sick and in prison and you visited Me not.

44 Then shall they also answer Him, saying, Our Master, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison and did not attend to You?

45 Then shall He answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, In so far as you did it not to one of the least of these My Yisraelite brothers, you did it not to Me.

46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment but the tzadikim into chayim eternal.

26 And it came to pass, when מַלְאָכָא had finished all these sayings, He said to His talmidim,

2 You know that after two yamim is the moed of the Pesach and The Ben Ahdahm is betrayed to be impaled.

3 Then assembled together the main kohanim and the Sophrim and the zechanim of the people, to the palace of the Kohen HaGadol, who was called Qayapha,

4 And they consulted just how they might seize מַלְאָכָא by subtlety and kill Him.

5 But they said, Not on the moed yom, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 Now when וַיְהִי was in Beth Anya, in the bayit of Shimon the jar merchant, 7 There came to Him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment and poured it on His head, as He sat at the shulchan to eat.

8 But when His talmidim saw it, they had indignation, saying, For what purpose is this wasted?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much and given to the poor.

10 When וַיְהִי understood it, He said to them, Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a tov work upon Me.

11 For you have the poor always with you; but Me you do not have always.

12 For in that she has poured this ointment on My gooff, she did it for My burial preparation.

13 Truly I say to you, Wherever this Besorah shall be proclaimed in the whole olam hazeh, there shall also be told what this woman has done for Me, as a memorial to her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called Yahudah from Qerioth, went to the kohanim HaGadolim, 15 And said to them, What will you give me and I will deliver Him to you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time on, he sought an opportunity to betray Him.

17 Now before the moed of Chag Matzoth the talmidim came to וַיְהִי, saying to Him, Where will You that we prepare for You to eat the Pesach?

18 And He said, Go into the city to a man who will be a volunteer for the task, and say to him, The Master said, My time is at hand; I will keep the Pesach at your bayit with My talmidim.

19 And the talmidim did as וַיְהִי had commanded them; and they made ready The Pesach.

20 Now when the evening had come, He sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, He said, Truly I say to you, That one of you shall betray Me.

22 And they were exceedingly sorrowful and began each one of them to say to Him, Master, is it I?

23 And He answered and said; He that dips his hand with Me in the dish, the same shall betray Me.

24 The Ben Ahdahm goes as it is written of Him: but woe to that man by whom The Ben Ahdahm is betrayed! It had been tov for that man if he had not even been born.

25 Then Yahudah, who betrayed Him, answered and said, Rabbi, is it I? He said to him, You have spoken it.

26 And as they were eating, וַיֹּאמֶר took lechem and made the bracha and broke it and gave it to the talmidim and said, Take, eat; this is My gooff.

27 And He took the cup and gave hodu and gave it to them, saying, Drink all of it;

28 For this is My dahm of the Brit Chadasha that is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine again, until that yom when I drink it new with you in My Abba's malchut.

30 And when they had sung a shir, they went out to the Har of Olives.

31 Then said וַיֹּאמֶר to them, All of you shall be offended and grieved because of Me this lyla: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I AM risen again, I will go before you into Galil.

33 Kefa answered and said to Him, Though all men shall be offended because of You, yet will I never be offended.

34 וַיֹּאמֶר said to him, Truly I say to you, That this lyla, before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.

35 Kefa said to Him, Though I should die with You, yet will I not deny You. Likewise also said all the talmidim.

36 Then came וַיֹּאמֶר with them to a place called Gethsemane and said to the talmidim, Sit here, while I go and make tefillah over there.

37 And He took with Him Kefa and the two sons of Zavdi and began to be sorrowful and very heavy hearted.

38 Then said He to them, My being is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death: stay here and watch with Me.

39 And He went a little further and fell on His face and made tefillah, saying, O My Abba, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me: nevertheless not as I will, but as You will.

40 And He came to the talmidim and found them asleep and said to Kefa, What, could you not watch with Me one hour?

41 Watch and make tefillah, so that you enter not into temptation: the human ruach indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time and made tefillah, saying, O My Abba, if this cup may not pass away from Me, except I drink it, let Your will be done.

43 And He came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And He left them and went away again and made tefillah the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then He came to His talmidim and said to them, Sleep on now and take your rest: see, the hour is at hand and The Ben Ahdahm is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: see, he is at hand that does betray Me.

47 And while He yet spoke, see, Yahudah, one of the twelve, came and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the main kohanim and the zechanim of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed Him gave them an ot, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, it is Him: seize Him.

49 And immediately he came to $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ and said, Shalom, Rabbi; and kissed Him.

50 And $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ said to him, Beloved chaver, why have you come, what have you done? Then they came and arrested $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ and took Him.

51 And, see, one of them who was with $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ stretched out his hand and drew his sword and struck an eved of the Kohen HaGadol's and cut off his ear.

52 Then said $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ to him, Put up again your sword into the sheath: for all those that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Do you not understand that I can meet My enemies and that I can now make tefillah to My Abba and He shall presently give Me more than twelve legions of heavenly malachim?

54 But how then shall the Keetvay HaKadosh of the Tanach be fulfilled, that it has to be this way?

55 In that same hour said $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ to the multitudes, Are you come out against a thief, as if we were thieves, with swords and clubs to take Me? I sat daily with you teaching in the Beit HaMikdash and you did not seize Me.

56 But all this was done, that the Keetvay HaKadosh of the neviim might be fulfilled. Then all the talmidim forsook Him and fled.

57 And they that had laid hold on $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{א}\text{ז}$ led Him away to Qayapha the Kohen HaGadol, where the Sophrim and the zechanim were assembled.

58 But Kefa followed Him from far off to the Kohen HaGadol's palace and went in and sat with the avadim, to see the result.

59 Now the main kohanim and zechanim and all the Sanhedrin, sought false witness against וּמַרְדֵּנָה, to put Him to death;

60 But found none: yes, though many false witnesses came, yet they found none. At the end came two false witnesses, 61 And said, This Fellow said, I AM able to destroy the Beit HaMikdash of Ahloha and to build it in three yamim.

62 And the Kohen HaGadol stood and said to Him, Don't You respond? What is all this that these witness against You?

63 But וּמַרְדֵּנָה kept His silence. And the Kohen HaGadol answered and said to Him, I put You under oath before the living Ahloha, that You tell us whether You are The Moshiach, The Son of The Almighty.

64 וּמַרְדֵּנָה said to him, You have said it: nevertheless I say to you, After this you shall see The Ben Ahdahm sitting as The Right Hand of אֱלֹהִים, and coming in the clouds of the shamayim.

65 Then the Kohen HaGadol tore his clothes, saying, He has spoken blasphemy; what further need do we have for witnesses? See, now you have heard His blasphemy.

66 What do you think? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then they did spit in His face and beat Him; and others slapped Him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophecy to us, Oh You Moshiach, Who is he that smote You?

69 Now Kefa sat outside in the palace: and a girl came to him, saying, You also were with וּמַרְדֵּנָה of Galil.

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, I know not what you are saying.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another girl saw him and said to them that were there, This fellow was also with וּמַרְדֵּנָה of Natzeret.

72 And again he lied with an oath saying, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came to him those that stood by and said to Kefa, Surely you also are one of them from this Navi's group; for your speech gives you away.

74 Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, I don't know the Man. And immediately the cock crowed.

75 And Kefa remembered The Word of וּמַרְדֵּנָה, which said to him, Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times. And he went out and wept bitterly.

27 When the boker had come, all the main kohanim and zechanim of the people took counsel against וּפְּאָרְזֵי to put Him to death:

2 And when they had bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

3 Then Yahudah, who had betrayed Him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the main kohanim and zechanim, 4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent dahm. And they said, What is that to us? You take care of that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the Beit HaMikdash and departed and went and hanged himself.

6 And the main kohanim took the silver pieces and said, It is not right according to Torah to put the coins into the treasury because it is the price of dahm.

7 And they took counsel and bought with the coins the Potter's Field, to bury strangers in.

8 Therefore that field is called, Akel-Dahma, to this yom.

9 Then was fulfilled that what was spoken by Zecharyah the navi, saying: And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him that was appraised, whom the children of Yisrael did appraise;

10 And gave the silver for the Potter's Field, as The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ appointed me.

11 And וּפְּאָרְזֵי stood before the governor: and the governor asked Him, saying, Are You Melech of the Yahudim? And וּפְּאָרְזֵי said to him, You have said it.

12 And when He was accused by the main kohanim and zechanim, He answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate to Him, Do You hear how many things they witness against You?

14 And He answered him not a word; insomuch that the governor marveled greatly.

15 Now at the time of the moed the governor used to release to the people a prisoner, whom they desired.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner who was almost meshugas, called Bar-Abba taken in a case of murder who had been placed in a dungeon.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, Whom do you wish that I release to you? Bar-Abba, or בַּר אֲבָבָא who is called The Moshiach?

18 For he knew that for envy and hatred without a cause they had delivered Him.

19 When he sat down on the mishpat seat, his isha sent to him, saying, Have nothing to do with that Tzadik-Man: for I have suffered many things today in a dream because of Him.

20 But the main kohanim and zechanim persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Bar-Abba and destroy בַּר אֲבָבָא.

21 The governor answered and said to them, Which of the two do you desire that I release to you? They said, Bar-Abba.

22 Pilate said to them, What shall I do then with בַּר אֲבָבָא who is called The Moshiach? They all said to him, Let Him be hanged.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil has He done? But they cried out even more, saying, Let Him be hanged on an eytz.

24 When Pilate saw that he could not prevail, but that rather a tumult was made, he took mayim and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the dahm of this tzadik: you see to it.

25 Then answered all the people and said, His dahm be on us and on our children.

26 Then he released Bar-Abba to them: and when he had scourged בַּר אֲבָבָא, he delivered Him to be impaled.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor the horsemen of the court, took בַּר אֲבָבָא into the common hall and gathered to Him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped Him and put on Him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a keter of thorns, they put it upon His head and a reed in His right hand: and they bowed the knee before Him and mocked Him, saying, Hail, Melech of the Yahudim!

30 And they spit at Him and took the reed and smote Him on the head.

31 And after they had mocked Him, they took the robe off from Him and put His own clothing on Him and led Him away to impale Him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Shimon by name: they compelled him to bear His execution stake.

33 And when they were come to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, the place of THE SKULL, 34 They gave Him vinegar to drink mixed with gall: and when He had tasted it, He would not drink.

35 And they impaled Him and parted His garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled what was spoken by the navi, They parted My garments among them and upon My vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched Him there;

37 And set up over His head His accusation written, THIS IS מלך היהודים THE MELECH OF THE YAHUDIM.

38 Then were there two thieves impaled with Him, one on the right hand and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled Him, shaking their heads, 40 Saying, You that will destroy the Beit HaMikdash and build it in three yamim, save Yourself. If You are The Son of Ahloha, come down from the execution stake.

41 Likewise also the main kohanim mocking Him, with the Sophrim and zechanim, said, 42 He saved others; Himself He cannot save. If He is The Melech of Yisrael, let Him now come down from the execution stake and we will believe Him.

43 He trusted in Ahloha; let Him deliver Him now, if He will have Him: for He said, I AM The Son of Ahloha.

44 The thieves also, who were impaled with Him, reviled Him in the same way.

45 Now from 12 noon there was darkness over all the olam until 3 in the afternoon.

46 And at about 3 in the afternoon מלך היהודים cried with a loud voice, saying, אלי-אלי, אלי-אלי, למאנא-אזאבתי? That is to say, My אלי-אלי, My אלי-אלי, why are You keeping Me here so long?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This Man calls for Eli-Yahu.

48 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge and filled it with vinegar and put it on a reed and gave Him to drink.

49 The rest said, Leave Him alone, let us see whether Eli-Yahu will come to save Him. Seizing a lance, another pricked His side, and out came mayim and dahm.

50 מלך היהודים, when He had cried again with a loud voice, He dismissed His ruach.

51 And, see, the veil of the Beit HaMikdash was rent in two from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the Yisraelite kidushim that slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after His resurrection and went into the kadosh city and appeared to many.

54 Now when the centurion and they that were with him, watching וּמִיָּאָרְז, saw the earthquake and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was The Son of The Almighty.

55 And many women were there looking from far off, who followed וּמִיָּאָרְז from Galil, attending to Him:

56 Among them were Miryam from Magdala and Miryam the eema of Yaakov and Yoseph and also the eema of Zavdi's children.

57 When the evening had come, there came a rich man of Ramathayim, named Yoseph, who also himself was וּמִיָּאָרְז's talmid:

58 He went to Pilate and asked for the gooff of וּמִיָּאָרְז. Then Pilate commanded the gooff to be delivered.

59 And when Yoseph had taken the gooff, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb and departed.

61 And there was Miryam from Magdala and the other Miryam, opposite the tomb.

62 Now the next yom, that followed the yom of the preparation, the main kohanim and Prushim came together to Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that the deceiver said, while He was yet alive, After three yamim I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third yom, lest His talmidim come by lyla and steal Him away and say to the people, He is risen from the dead: so that the last deception shall be worse than the first ones.

65 Pilate said to them, You have a guard: go your derech; make it as secure as you can.

66 So they went and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone and setting a guard.

28 Moreover, after Shabbat (Aviv 15) it being just before dawn toward one of the weekly Shabbats, came Miryam of Magdala and the other Miryam to see the tomb.

2 And, see, there was a great earthquake: for the heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים descended from the shamayim and came and rolled back the stone from the door and sat upon it.

3 His appearance was like lightning and His clothing white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the guards did shake and became as dead men.

5 And the heavenly malach answered and said to the women, Fear not: for I know that you seek אֵשֶׁת, who was impaled.

6 He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come; see the place where The Master Yahushua had lain.

7 And go quickly and tell His talmidim that He is risen from the dead; and, see, He goes before you into Galil; there shall you see Him: see, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great simcha; and did run to bring His talmidim word.

9 And as they went to tell His talmidim, see, אֵשֶׁת met them, saying, Greetings. May The Name deliver you. And they came and held Him by the feet and worshipped Him.

10 Then said אֵשֶׁת to them, Be not afraid: go tell My Yisraelite brothers that they go into Galil and there shall they see Me.

11 Now when they were going, see, some of the guards came into the city and showed the main kohanim all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the zechanim and had taken counsel, they gave large money to the horsemen soldiers, 13 Saying, Say that, His talmidim came by lyla and stole Him away while we slept.

14 And if this comes to the governor's attention, we will persuade him and protect you.

15 So they took the money and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported in secret among the Yahudim until this yom.

16 Then the eleven talmidim went away into Galil, into a har where אֵשֶׁת had appointed them.

17 And when they saw Him, they worshipped Him: but some still doubted.

18 And $\sigma\omega\tau\alpha\zeta$ came and spoke to them, saying, All Power is given to Me in the shamayim and in the earth.

19 Go therefore and make talmidim of all goyim, doing mikvah upon them in My Name:

20 Teaching them to shomer all things, which I have commanded you: and see, I AM with you always, even to the end of the olam hazeah. Ahmein. X

Mark-Yochanan Moshe

- 1 The beginning of The Besorah of וּמְרִיאָה The Moshiach, The Son of מְרִיאָה;
- 2 As it is written in the neviim, See, I send My messenger, who shall prepare the derech before Me.
- 3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare you the derech of The Master מְרִיאָה, make His paths straight.
- 4 Yochanan did mikvah in the wilderness and proclaimed the mikvah of teshuvah for the remission of sins.
- 5 And there went out to him all the land of Yahudah and those of Yahrushalayim and were all immersed by him in the river of Yarden, confessing their sins.
- 6 And Yochanan was clothed with goatskin and with a leather girdle around his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;
- 7 And proclaimed, saying, There comes One mightier than I after me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.
- 8 I indeed have immersed you with mayim: but He shall mikvah you with The Ruach Hakodesh.
- 9 And it came to pass in those yamim that וּמְרִיאָה came from Natzeret of Galil and was immersed of Yochanan in the Yarden.
- 10 And immediately coming up out of the mayim, He saw the shamayim opened and The Ruach like a yonah descending upon Him:
- 11 And there came a voice from the shamayim, saying, You are My beloved Son, in whom I AM well pleased.
- 12 And immediately The Ruach drove Him into the wilderness.

13 And He was there in the wilderness forty yamim, tempted by s.a.tan; and was with the wild beasts; and the heavenly malachim attended to Him.

14 Now after Yochanan was put in prison, וַיָּבֵר came into Galil, proclaiming The Besorah of the malchut of יְהוָה, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled and the malchut of יְהוָה is at hand: make teshuvah and believe The Besorah.

16 Now as He walked by the Sea of Galil, He saw Shimon and Andri his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishermen.

17 And וַיָּבֵר said to them, Follow Me and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And immediately they forsook their nets and followed Him.

19 And when He had gone a little further, He saw Yaakov the son of Zavdi and Yochanan his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets.

20 And immediately He called them: and they left their abba Zavdi in the boat with the hired avadim and went after Him.

21 And they went into Kfar Nachum; and immediately on all The Shabbats He entered into the synagogue and taught.

22 And they were astonished at His teaching: for He taught them as one that had authority and not as the Sophrim.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean ruach; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Leave us alone; what have we to do with You, וַיָּבֵר of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know You who You are, the Kadosh-One of יְהוָה.

25 And וַיָּבֵר rebuked him, saying, Be silent and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean ruach had torn him and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? What new teaching is this? For with authority He commands even the shedim and they do obey Him.

28 And immediately His fame spread abroad throughout all the regions all around about Galil.

29 And immediately, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the bayit of Shimon and Andri, with Yaakov and Yochanan.

30 But Shimon's isha's eema lay sick of a fever and immediately they told Him about her.

31 And He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her and she attended to them.

32 And at evening, when the shemesh did set, they brought to Him all that were diseased and them that were possessed with shedim.

33 And the entire city was gathered together at the door.

34 And He healed many that were sick of different diseases and expelled many shedim; and allowed not the shedim to speak because they knew Him.

35 And in the boker, rising up a great while before yom, He went out and departed into a solitary place and there made tefillah.

36 And Shimon and they that were with Him followed after Him.

37 And when they had found Him, they said to Him, All the men of Yisrael seek for You.

38 And He said to them, Let us go into the next towns that I may proclaim there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And He proclaimed in their synagogues throughout all Galil and expelled shedim.

40 And there came a leper to Him, beseeching Him and kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, If You will, You can make me clean.

41 And וַיִּנָּחֵם, moved with rachamim, put out His hand and touched him and said to him, I will; be clean.

42 And as soon as He had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him and he was cleansed.

43 And He strictly ordered him and immediately sent him away;

44 And said to him, See you say nothing to any man: but go your derech, show yourself to the kohen and offer for your cleansing those things which Moshe commanded, for a testimony to them.

45 But he went out and began to greatly publish it and to spread abroad the matter, insomuch that וַיִּנָּחֵם could no more openly enter into the city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to Him from every quarter.

2 And again He entered into Kfar Nachum, after some yamim; and it became known that He was in the bayit.

2 And immediately many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not even around the door: and He proclaimed the word to them.

3 And they came to Him, bringing one sick of the palsy, who was carried by four men.

4 And when they could not come near to Him for the press, they removed the roof where He was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the quilt where the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When וַיִּנָּחֵם saw their emunah, He said to the sick of the palsy, Son, your sins are forgiven you.

6 But there were certain of the Sophrim sitting there and reasoning in their levavot,

7 Why does this man speak blasphemies like this?
Who can forgive sins but אֱלֹהִים only?

8 And immediately when סוֹפְרֵי־כֶסֶף perceived in His Ruach that they so reasoned within themselves, He said to them, Why do you reason these things in your levavot?

9 Which is easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Arise and take up your quilt and walk?

10 But that you may know that The Ben Ahdahm has Power on earth to forgive sins, He said to the sick of the palsy, 11 I say to you, Arise and take up your quilt and go your derech into your bayit.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the quilt and went out before them all; so that they were all amazed and esteemed אֱלֹהִים, saying, We never saw anything like this.

13 And He went out again by the seaside; and all the multitudes came to Him and He taught them.

14 And as He passed by, He saw Lewi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax office and said to him, Follow Me. And he arose and followed Him.

15 And it came to pass, that, as סוֹפְרֵי־כֶסֶף sat at meat in his bayit, many tax collectors and sinners sat also together with סוֹפְרֵי־כֶסֶף and His talmidim: for there were many and they followed Him.

16 And when the Sophrim and Prushim saw Him eat with tax collectors and sinners, they said to His talmidim, How is it that He eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?

17 When סוֹפְרֵי־כֶסֶף heard it, He said to them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are seriously sick: I came not to call the tzadikim, but sinners to make teshuvah.

18 And the talmidim of Yochanan and of the Prushim used to fast: and they came and said to Him, Why do the talmidim of Yochanan and of the Prushim fast, but Your talmidim fast not?

19 And אמר said to them, Can the children of the Bridegroom fast, while the Bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the Bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the yamim will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them and then shall they fast in those yamim.

21 No man also sews a piece of new cloth on an old garment: otherwise the new piece that filled it up takes away from the old and the tear is made worse.

22 And no man puts new wine into old wineskins: or else the new wine bursts the wineskins and the wine is spilled and the wineskins will be ruined: but new wine must be put into new wineskins.

23 And it came to pass, that He went through the cornfields on The Shabbat; and His talmidim began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.

24 And the Prushim said to Him, See, why do they do on The Shabbat yom that which is not allowed?

25 And He said to them, Have you never read what Dawid did, when he had need and was hungry, he and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the Bayit of The Master אמר while Aviathar was Kohen HaGadol, and ate the Lechem of the Presence, which is not lawful to eat except for the kohanim and gave also to them that were with him?

27 And He said to them, The Shabbat was made for man and not man for The Shabbat:

28 Therefore The Ben Ahdahm is Master also of The Shabbat.

3 And He entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand.

2 And they watched Him, whether He would heal him on The Shabbat; that they might accuse Him.

3 And He said to the man that had the withered hand, Stand up.

4 And He said to them, Is it lawful to do tov on The Shabbat, or to do evil? To save chayim, or to kill? But they held their silence.

5 And when He had looked all around them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their levavot, He said to the man, Stretch out your hand! And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And the Prushim went out and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against Him, how they might destroy Him.

7 But וַתִּסְתֵּר withdrew Himself with His talmidim to the sea: and a great multitude from Galil followed Him and from Yahudah,

8 And from Yahrushalayim and from Idumaea and from beyond Yarden; and those around Tsor and Tsidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things He did, came to Him.

9 And He spoke to His talmidim, that a small boat should wait for Him because of the multitude, lest they should throng Him.

10 For He had healed many; so that they pressed upon Him to touch Him, as many as had plagues.

11 And unclean ruachim, when they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried, saying, You are The Son of אֱלֹהִים.

12 And He strictly ordered them that they should not make Him known.

13 And He went up into a har and called to Him whom He would: and they came to Him.

14 And He ordained twelve, that they should be with Him and that He might send them out to proclaim,

15 And to have Power to heal sicknesses and to expel shedim:

16 And Shimon He surnamed Kefa;

17 And Yaakov the son of Zavdi and Yochanan the brother of Yaakov; and He surnamed them B'nai Regash, which is, The Sons of Thunder:

18 And Andri and Philip and Bar-Talmi and Mattityahu and Toma and Yaakov the son of Alphai and Thaddai and Shimon the Zealot, 19 And Yahudah from Qerioth, who also betrayed Him: and they went into a bayit.

20 And the multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat lechem.

21 And when His relatives heard it, they went out to seize Him: for they said, He is out of His mind.

22 And the Sophrim that came down from Yahrushalayim said, He has Baal-Zevuv and by the sar of the shedim He casts out shedim.

23 And He called them to Him and said to them in parables, How can s.a.tan expel s.a.tan?

24 And if a malchut is divided against itself, that malchut cannot stand.

25 And if a bayit is divided against itself, that bayit cannot stand.

26 And if s.a.tan rise up against himself and be divided, he cannot stand, but has an end.

27 No man can enter into a strong man's bayit and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his bayit.

28 Truly I say to you, All sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men and whatever blasphemies they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against The Ruach Hakodesh has no forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

30 Because they said, He, $\omega\upsilon\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu$, has an unclean ruach.

31 There came then His brothers and His eema and, standing outside, sent to Him, calling Him.

32 And the multitude sat around Him and they said to Him, See, Your eema and Your brothers outside seek for You.

33 And He answered them, saying, Who is My eema, or who are My Yisraelite brothers?

34 And He looked all around to those who sat around Him and said; See My eema and My Yisraelite brothers!

35 For whoever shall do the will of אִתְּכֶם, the same is My brother and My sister and eema.

4 And He began again to teach by the seaside:

and there was gathered to Him a great multitude, so that He entered into a boat and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And He taught them many things by parables and said to them in His teaching,

3 Shema; See, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the wayside and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the shemesh was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns and the thorns grew up and choked it and it yielded no fruit.

8 And some fell on tov ground and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought out, some thirty and some sixty and some a hundred.

9 And He said to them, He that has ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when He was alone, the twelve that were with Him, asked Him about the parable.

11 And He said to them, To you it is given to know the sod of the malchut of אִתְּכֶם: but to them that are outside, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see and not perceive; and hearing they may hear and not understand; lest at any time they should do teshuvah and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And He said to them, Don't you know this parable? And how then will you know all other parables?

14 The sower sows the Word.

15 And these are they by the wayside, where the Word is sown; but when they have heard, s.a.tan comes immediately and takes away the Word that was sown in their levavot.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the Word, immediately receive it with gilah;

17 And have no root in themselves and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction, or persecution arises for the Word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are those that are sown among thorns; such as hear the Word, 19 And the cares of this olam hazeh and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things entering in, choke the Word and it becomes unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on tov ground; such as hear the Word and receive it and bring out fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty and some a hundred.

21 And He said to them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? And not to be set on a menorah?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And He said to them, Take heed what you hear: with what measure you use, it shall be measured to you: and to you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that has, to him shall be given: and he that has not, from him shall be taken even that which he has.

26 And He said, So is the malchut of אֶרֶב, as if a man should cast zera into the ground;

27 And should sleep and rise lyla and yom and the zera should spring and grow up, he knows not how.

28 For the earth brings out fruit by itself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full grain in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought out, immediately he puts in the sickle because the harvest is come.

30 And He said, To what shall we compare the malchut of אֶרֶב ? Or, with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard zera, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the zera that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all herbs and shoots out great Netzarim-Branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables He spoke the word to them, as they were able to listen to it.

34 But without a parable He spoke not to them: and when they were alone, He expounded all things to His talmidim.

35 And the same yom, when the evening was come, He said to them, Let us pass over to the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took Him along as He was in the boat. And there were also with Him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full.

38 And He was in the stern, asleep on a cushion: and they woke Him and said to Him, Rabbi, don't You care that we perish?

39 And He arose and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, Shalom, be still. And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

40 And He said to them, Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no emunah?

41 And they feared exceedingly and said one to another, What manner of Man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?

5 And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.

2 And when He was come out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean ruach,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, not even with chains:

4 Because he had often been bound with shackles and chains and had pulled the chains apart and the shackles he had broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, lyla and yom, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw וַיִּרְאֵהוּ far off, he ran and worshipped Him,

7 And cried with a loud voice and said, What have I to do with You, וַיִּרְאֵהוּ: You, Son of El-Elyon? I ask You by וַיִּרְאֵהוּ, that You torment me not.

8 For He said to him, Come out of the man, you unclean ruach.

9 And He asked him, What is your name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he begged Him much that He would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there near to the mountains a great herd of pigs feeding.

12 And all the shedim begged Him, saying, Send us into the pigs, that we may attack them.

13 And immediately וַיִּשְׁמַע gave them leave. And the unclean ruachim went out and attacked the pigs: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, they were about two thousand; and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the pigs fled and told it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to וַיִּשְׁמַע and saw him that was possessed with the s.a.tan and had the legion, sitting and clothed and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them what happened to him that was possessed with the s.a.tan and also concerning the pigs.

17 And they began to beg Him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when He was come into the boat, he that had been possessed with the shed begged that he might go with Him.

19 But וַיִּשְׁמַע allowed it not, but said to him, Go home to your chaverim and tell them what great things The Master וַיִּשְׁמַע has done for you and how He has had rachamim on you.

20 And he departed and began to publish in Dekapolis how great things וַיַּעַזְרֵם had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when וַיַּעַזְרֵם had passed over again by boat to the other side, many people gathered to Him: and He was near to the sea.

22 And, see, there came one of the shamashim of the synagogue, Yair by name; and when he saw Him, he fell at His feet, 23 And begged Him greatly, saying, My little daughter lies at the point of death: I beg you, come and lay Your hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And וַיַּעַזְרֵם went with him; and many people followed Him and thronged Him.

25 And a certain woman, who had an issue of dahm for twelve years,

26 Who had suffered many things by many physicians and had spent all that she had and was not better, but rather grew worse, 27 When she had heard of וַיַּעַזְרֵם, she came in the crowd behind and touched His garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch even His tzitzit, I shall be whole.

29 And immediately the fountain of her dahm was dried up; and she felt in her gooff that she was healed of that plague.

30 And וַיַּעַזְרֵם, immediately knowing in Himself that Power had gone out of Him, turned around to the crowd and said, Who touched My clothes?

31 And His talmidim said to Him, You see the multitude thronging You and You say, Who touched Me?

32 And He looked all around about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before Him and told Him all the emet.

34 And He said to her, My daughter of Yisrael, your emunah has made you whole; go in shalom and be whole of your affliction.

35 While He yet spoke, there came from the shamesh of the synagogue's bayit, someone who said, Your daughter is dead: why trouble The Master any further?

36 As soon as $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu\tau\epsilon$ heard the word that was spoken, He said to the shamesh of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And He allowed no man to follow Him, except Kefa and Yaakov and Yochanan the brother of Yaakov.

38 And He came to the bayit of the shamesh of the synagogue and saw the tumult and those that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when He had come in, He said to them, Why do you make this commotion and weep? The child is not dead, but only sleeping.

40 And they laughed at Him. But when He had put them all out, He took The Abba and the eema of the child and those that were with Him and entered in where the child was lying.

41 And He took the child by the hand and said to her, Talitha cumi! Which is, translated, Little girl, I say to you, arise.

42 And immediately the child arose and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with great astonishment.

43 And He ordered them many times that no one should know it; and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

6 And He went out from there and came into His own country; and His talmidim followed Him.

2 And when The Shabbat had come, He began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing Him were astonished, saying, From where has this Man these things? And what chochmah is this, which is given to Him, that even such mighty mitzvoth are done by His Hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, The Son of Miryam, the brother of Yaakov and Yoseph and of Yahudah and Shimon? And are not His sisters here with us? And they were offended by Him.

4 But וַיֹּאמֶר said to them, A Navi is never belittled, except in His own country and among His own kin and in His own bayit.

5 And He could do no mighty mitzvoth there, except that He laid His Hands upon a few sick folk and healed them.

6 And He marveled because of their unbelief. And He went around their villages, teaching.

7 And He called to Him the twelve and began to send them out two by two; and He gave them Power over unclean ruachim;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only; no bag, no lechem, no copper in their money belts:

9 But to wear sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And He said to them, In whatever place you enter into a bayit, there abide until you depart from that place.

11 And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when you depart from there, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Truly I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Sedom and Amorah in the Yom HaDin, than for that city.

12 And they went out and proclaimed that men should make teshuvah.

13 And they expelled many shedim and anointed with oil many that were sick and healed them.

14 And melech Herod heard of Him; (for His Name had been spread abroad) and he said, That Yochanan ha Matbeel had risen from the dead and therefore mighty mitzvoth do show themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is Eli-Yahu. And others said, That it is a navi, or someone like one of the neviim.

16 But when Herod heard this, he said, It is Yochanan, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent out and seized Yochanan and bound him in the prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's isha: for he had married her.

18 For Yochanan had said to Herod, It is not permitted in the Torah for you to have your brother's isha.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod feared Yochanan, knowing that he was a just man and one who was kadosh and observed him; and when he heard him, he was very convicted and heard him with gilah.

21 And when a state occasion had come, Herod on his birthday made a supper to his great men, high captains and head men of Galil;

22 And when the daughter of Herodias came in and danced and pleased Herod and those who sat with him, the melech said to the girl, Ask from me whatever you will and I will give it you.

23 And he swore to her, Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give it to you, up to half of my malchut.

24 And she went out and said to her eema, What shall I ask for? And she said, The head of Yochanan ha Matbeel.

25 And she came in immediately with haste to the melech and asked, saying, I will that you give me immediately in a dish the head of Yochanan the Immerser.

26 And the melech was exceedingly sorry; yet for his oath's sake and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the melech sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a dish and gave it to the girl: and the girl gave it to her eema.

29 And when his talmidim heard of it, they came and took up his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

30 And his talmidim gathered themselves together to $\omega\omega\text{ף}\text{א}\text{ז}$ and told Him all things, both what they had done and what they had taught.

31 And He said to them, Come aside by yourselves into a quiet place and rest a while: for there were many coming and going and they had no time for themselves, so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a quiet place by boat privately.

33 And the people saw them departing and many knew Him and ran there on foot from all cities and came before them and came together to Him.

34 And $\omega\omega\text{ף}\text{א}\text{ז}$, when He came out, saw many people and was moved with rachamim toward them because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and He began to teach them many things.

35 And when the yom was now far gone, His talmidim came to Him and said, This is a deserted place and now the hour is late:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country all around and into the villages and buy themselves lechem: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said to them, You give them something to eat. And they said to Him, Shall we go and buy two hundred silver pieces worth of lechem and give them to eat?

38 He said to them, How many loaves do you have? Go and see. And when they knew, they said, Five and two fishes.

39 And He commanded them to make them all sit down in groups upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties.

41 And when He had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, He looked up to the shamayim and said the bracha and broke the loaves and gave them to His talmidim to set before them; and the two fishes He divided among them all.

42 And they did all eat and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and also of fishes.

44 And those that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And immediately He made His talmidim get into the boat and to go to the other side to Beth Saida, while He sent away the people.

46 And when He had sent them away, He departed into a har to make tefillah.

47 And when evening was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea and He was alone on the land.

48 And He saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was against them: and about the fourth watch of the lyla He came to them, walking upon the sea and would have passed right by them.

49 But when they saw Him walking upon the sea, they thought it was a ruach and cried out:

50 For they all saw Him and were troubled. And immediately He talked with them and said to them, Be of tov courage: it is I AM; be not afraid.

51 And He went up to them and into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were exceedingly amazed within themselves beyond description and wondered.

52 For they understood not the miracle of the loaves: for their lev was hardened and confused.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesar and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the boat, immediately they knew Him, 55 And ran throughout that whole region all around and began to carry in beds those that were sick, to where they heard He was.

56 And wherever He entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets and begged Him that they might touch only His tzitzit: and as many as touched Him were made whole.

7 Then came together to Him the Prushim and certain of the Sophrim, which came from Yahrushalayim.

2 And when they saw some of His talmidim eat lechem with defiled, that is to say, with unwashed, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Prushim and all the Yahudim, except they wash their hands often, eat not, holding to the tradition of the zechanim.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there are, which they have received and hold fast to such, as the washing of cups and pots, copper vessels and tables.

5 Then the Prushim and Sophrim asked Him, Why don't Your talmidim have their halachot according to the tradition of the zechanim, but eat lechem with unwashed hands?

6 He answered and said to them, Well has Yeshayahu prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honors Me with their lips, but their lev is far from Me.

7 But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as Torah the commandments of men.

8 Laying aside the commandment of אֱלֹהִים, you guard the traditions of men, such as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such things you do.

9 And He said to them, Full well you do reject the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים, that you may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moshe said, Honor your abba and your eema; and, Whoever curses abba, or eema, let him die in death:

11 But you say, If a man shall say to his abba or eema, It is Korban, that is to say, a gift to אֱלֹהִים, from whatever you might have received from me; he shall be free.

12 And you no longer allow him to do any tov matter for his abba or his eema;

13 Making The Word of אֱלֹהִים of no effect through your tradition, which you have delivered: and many similar things you do.

14 And when He had called all the people to Him, He said to them, Shema to Me every one of you and understand:

15 There is nothing from outside a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are the things that defile the man.

16 If any man has ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when He had entered into the bayit away from the people, His talmidim asked Him concerning the parable.

18 And He said to them, Are you also without binah? Do you not perceive, that things from outside that enter into the man, cannot defile him;

19 Because it enters not into his lev, but into his stomach and then is thrown out through the intestines, thereby purifying the food.

20 And He said, That which comes out of the man that defiles the man.

21 For from within, out of the lev of men, proceeds evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within and defile the man.

24 And from there He arose and went into the borders of Tsor and Tsidon and entered into a bayit and would have no man know it: but He could not be hidden.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean ruach, heard of Him and came and fell at His feet:

26 The woman was a heathen, a Syro-Phoenician by nation; and she begged Him that He would expel a shed out of her daughter.

27 But $\omega\psi\alpha\lambda\lambda$ said to her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not right to take the children's lechem and to cast it to the dogs.

28 And she answered and said to Him, Yes, Master: yet the dogs under the shulchan eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And He said to her, For this saying go your derech; the s.a.tan has gone out of your daughter.

30 And when she was come to her bayit, she found the s.a.tan gone out and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tsor and Tsidon, He came to the Sea of Galil, through the midst of the coasts of Dekapolis.

32 And they brought to Him one that was deaf and had an impediment in his speech; and they begged Him to put His hand upon him.

33 And He took him aside from the multitude and put His fingers into his ears and He spit and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to the shamayim, He sighed and said to him, Ephtacha, that is, Be opened.

35 And immediately his ears were opened and the binding of his tongue was loosed and he spoke plainly.

36 And He ordered them that they should tell no man: but the more He ordered them, so much the more they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He has done all things well: He makes both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.

8 In those yamim the multitudes came being very great and having nothing to eat, וַיִּקְרָא called His talmidim to Him and said to them,

2 I have rachamim on the multitude because they have now been with Me three yamim and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the derech: for some of them came from far.

4 And His talmidim answered Him, From where can a man satisfy these men with lechem here in the wilderness?

5 And He asked them, How many loaves do you have? And they said, seven.

6 And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and He took the seven loaves and said the bracha and broke them and gave to His talmidim to set it before them; and they did set it before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and He said the bracha and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat and were filled: and they took up of the broken pieces that were left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and He sent them away.

10 And immediately He entered into a boat with His talmidim and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Prushim came out and began to question Him, seeking from Him an ot from the shamayim, trying Him.

12 And He sighed deeply in His Ruach and said, Why does this generation seek after an ot? Truly I say to you, There shall no ot be given to this generation.

13 And He left them and entering into the boat again departed to the other side.

14 Now the talmidim had forgotten to take lechem, neither did they have in the boat with them more than one loaf.

15 And He ordered them, saying, Watch out, beware of the chametz of the Prushim and of the chametz of the Herodians.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no lechem.

17 And when $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu$ knew it, He said to them, Why do you reason because you have no lechem? Don't you yet perceive and understand? Are your levavot still hardened?

18 Having eyes, don't you see? And having ears, don't you hear? And do you not remember?

19 When I broke the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took you up? They said to Him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took you up? And they said, Seven.

21 And He said to them, How is it then that you do not understand?

22 And He came to Beth-Saida; and they brought a blind man to Him and begged Him to touch him.

23 And He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town; and when He had spit on his eyes and put His Hands upon him, He asked him if he saw anything.

24 And he looked up and said, I see men as eytzim, walking.

25 After that He put His Hands again upon his eyes and made him look up: and he was restored and saw every man clearly.

26 And He sent him away to his bayit, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to anyone in the town.

27 And ⲟⲩⲱⲉⲛⲁⲛ went out and His talmidim, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and on the derech He asked His talmidim, saying to them, Who do men say that I AM?

28 And they answered, Yochanan the Immerser: but some say, Eli-Yahu; and others, One of the neviim.

29 And He said to them, But who do you say that I AM? And Kefa answered and said to Him, You are The Moshiach.

30 And He ordered them that they should tell no man about Him.

31 And He began to teach them, that The Ben Ahdahm must suffer many things and be rejected of the zechanim and by the head kohanim and Sophrim and be killed and after three yamim rise again.

32 And He spoke that saying openly. And Kefa took Him and began to rebuke Him.

33 But when He had turned around and looked at His talmidim, He rebuked Kefa, saying, Get behind Me, s.a.tan: for you are not thinking on the things that are from אִיָּאָר, but the things that are from men.

34 And when He had called the people to Him with His talmidim also, He said to them, Whoever will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his execution stake and follow Me.

35 For whoever will save his chayim shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his chayim for My sake and that of The Besorah, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole olam hazeh and lose his own being?

37 Or, what shall a man give in exchange for his being?

38 Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of Me and of My Words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall The Ben Ahdahm be ashamed, when He comes in the tifereth of His Abba with the kadosh heavenly malachim.

9 And He said to them, Truly I say to you, That there be some of you that stand here, who shall not taste of death, until they have seen the malchut of אִיָּאָר come with Power.

2 And after six yamim אַרְבָּעָא took with Him Kefa and Yaakov and Yochanan and led them up into an high har apart by themselves: and He was transformed before them.

3 And His raiment became shining, exceedingly white as snow; like no launderer on earth can make white.

4 And there appeared to them Eli-Yahu with Moshe: and they were talking with אמר.

5 And Kefa answered and said to אמר, Rabbi, it is tov for us to be here: and let us make three sukkot; one for You and one for Moshe and one for Eli-Yahu.

6 For he did not know what to say; for they were very afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My Beloved Son: hear Him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no man anymore, except אמר only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the har, He ordered them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, until The Ben Ahdahm had risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying within themselves, questioning one another what this rising from the dead should mean.

11 And they asked Him, saying, Why say the Sophrim that Eli-Yahu must first come?

12 And He answered and told them, Eli-Yahu truly comes first and restores all things; and how it is written of The Ben Ahdahm, that He must suffer many things and be despised.

13 But I say to you, That Eli-Yahu has indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they desired, as it is written of him.

14 And when He came to His talmidim, He saw a great multitude around them and the Sophrim disputing with them.

15 And immediately all the people, when they beheld Him, were greatly amazed and running to Him greeted Him.

16 And He asked the Sophrim, What are you disputing about with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought to You my son, who has a dumb ruach;

18 And whenever he seizes him, he tears him: and he foams and gnashes with his teeth and wastes away: and I spoke to Your talmidim that they should expel it; and they could not.

19 He answered him and said, O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I preach to you? Bring him to Me.

20 And they brought him to Him: and when he saw Him, immediately the ruach tore at him; and he fell on the ground and rolled around foaming.

21 And He asked his abba, How long has this been happening to him? And he said, From childhood.

22 And often it casts him into the fire and into the mayim, to destroy him: but if You can do anything, have rachamim on us and help us.

23 οωφειζ said to him, If you can believe, all things are possible to him that believes.

24 And immediately The Abba of the child cried out and said with tears, Master, I believe; but help my unbelief.

25 When οωφειζ saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the foul ruach, saying to him, You dumb and deaf ruach, I charge you, come out of him and enter no more into him.

26 And the ruach cried out, after causing convulsions and came out of him: and he was as one who was dead; so that many said, he is dead.

27 But οωφειζ took him by the hand and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when He had come into the bayit, His talmidim asked Him privately, Why could we not expel it?

29 And He said to them, This kind can come out by nothing, other than tefillah and fasting.

30 And they departed from there and passed through Galil; and He did not desire that any man should know it.

31 For He taught His talmidim and said to them, The Ben Ahdahm is delivered into the hands of men and they shall kill Him; and after He is killed, He shall rise the third yom.

32 But they understood not that saying and were afraid to ask Him.

33 And He came to Kfar Nachum: and being in the bayit He asked them, What was it that you disputed among yourselves on the derech?

34 But they held their silence: for on the derech they had argued among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And He sat down and called the twelve and said to them, If any man desires to be first, the same shall be last of all and eved of all.

36 And He took a child and set him in the midst of them: and when He had taken him in His arms, He said to them, 37 Whoever shall receive one such child in My Name, receives Me: and whoever shall receive Me, receives not Me, but Him that sent Me.

38 And Yochanan answered Him, saying, Rabbi, we saw one casting out shedim in Your Name and he doesn't follow us: and we forbade him because he doesn't follow us.

39 But וַיִּשְׁמַע said, Forbid him not: for there is no man who shall do a miracle in My Name that can ever speak evil of Me.

40 For he that is not against us is for us.

41 For whoever shall give you a cup of mayim to drink in My Name because you belong to The Moshiach, truly I say to you, That he shall not lose his reward.

42 And whoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in Me, it is better for him that a millstone were hung around his neck and he were cast into the sea.

43 And if your hand offends you, cut it off: it is better for you to enter into chayim maimed, than having two hands to go into Gei-Hinnom, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 Where their worm dies not and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if your foot offend you, cut it off: it is better for you to enter crippled into chayim, than having two feet to be cast into Gei-Hinnom, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dies not and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if your eye offends you, pluck it out: it is better for you to enter into the malchut of אֶרֶץ with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into Gei-Hinnom fire:

48 Where their worm dies not and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is tov: but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have shalom one with another.

10 And He arose from there and came into the coasts of Yahudah by the other side of the Yarden: and the people gathered to Him again; and, as He usually did, He taught them again.

2 And the Prushim came to Him and asked Him, Is it permitted in the Torah for a man to put away his isha? Trying Him.

3 And He answered and said to them, What did Moshe command you?

4 And they said, Moshe allowed us to write a Sefer Keritut and to put her away.

5 And וַיֹּאמְרוּ answered and said to them, For the hardness of your lev he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation וַיִּבְרָא made them male and female in order.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his abba and eema and cleave to his isha?

8 And the two shall be one flesh: so then they are no more two, but one flesh.

9 What therefore וַיִּבְרָא has joined together let not man separate.

10 And in the bayit His talmidim asked Him again about the same matter.

11 And He said to them, Whoever shall put away his isha [without him giving her a scroll of divorce] and then she marries another, she then commits adultery.

12 And if a woman shall [try to] put away her husband [without him giving her a scroll of divorce] and she marries another man, she commits adultery.

13 And they brought young children to Him, that He should touch them: and His talmidim rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when וַיֹּאמְרוּ saw it, He was much displeased and said to them, Allow the little children to come to Me and forbid them not: for of such people is the malchut of וַיִּבְרָא.

15 Truly I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the malchut of וַיִּבְרָא as a little child, he shall not enter into it.

16 And He took them up in His arms, put His Hands upon them and said a bracha upon them.

17 And when He had gone out into the derech, there came one running and bowed before Him and asked Him, Tov Rabbi, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal chayim?

18 And ר' יוחנן said to him, Why do you call Me tov? There is none tov but One, that is, אין.

19 You know the mitzvot, Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honor your abba and eema.

20 And he answered and said to Him, Rabbi, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then ר' יוחנן beholding him loved him and said to him, One thing you lack: go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor and you shall have treasure in the shamayim: and come, take up the execution stake and follow Me.

22 And he was sad at that saying and went away grieved and depressed: for he had great possessions.

23 And ר' יוחנן looked around and said to His talmidim, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the malchut of אין.

24 And the talmidim were astonished at His Words. But ר' יוחנן answered again and said to them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the malchut of אין.

25 It is easier for a large rope to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the malchut of אין.

26 And they were totally astonished, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And ר' יוחנן looking at them said, With men it is impossible, but not with אין: for with אין all things are possible.

28 Then Kefa began to say to Him, Look, we have left all and have followed You.

29 And אמר answered and said, Truly I say to you, There is no man that has left bayit, or brothers, or sisters, or abba, or eema, or isha, or children, or lands, for My sake and that of The Besorah, 30 That he shall not receive one hundredfold now in this time, houses and Yisraelite brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands with persecutions; and in the olam haba eternal chayim.

31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 And they were in the derech going up to Yahrushalayim; and אמר went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And He took again the twelve and began to tell them what things would happen to Him,

33 Saying, See, we go up to Yahrushalayim; and The Ben Ahdahm shall be delivered to the head kohanim and to the Sophrim; and they shall condemn Him to death and shall deliver Him to the goyim:

34 And they shall mock Him and shall scourge Him and shall spit upon Him and shall kill Him: and the third yom He shall rise again.

35 And Yaakov and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdi, came to Him, saying, Rabbi, we would that You should do for us what we desire.

36 And He said to them, What would you desire that I should do for you?

37 They said to Him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left hand, in Your tifereth.

38 But אמר said to them, You know not what you ask: can you drink of the cup that I drink of ? And be immersed with the mikvah that I AM immersed with?

39 And they said to Him, We can. And אמר said to them, You shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the mikvah that I AM immersed with shall you be immersed:

40 But to sit on My right hand and on My left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with Yaakov and Yochanan.

42 But אֱלִיָּהוּ called them to Him and said to them, You know that they who are chosen to rule over the goyim exercise dominion over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whoever will be great among you, shall be your eved:

44 And whoever of you desires to be the first, shall be eved of all.

45 For even The Ben Ahdahm came not to be attended to, but to serve and to give His chayim a ransom for many.

46 And they came to Yericho: and as He went out of Yericho with His talmidim and a great number of people, blind Bartimai, the son of Timai, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was אֱלִיָּהוּ of Natzeret, he began to cry out and say, אֱלִיָּהוּ, Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.

48 And many ordered him that he should hold his silence: but he cried out even more, Oy! Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.

49 And אֱלִיָּהוּ stood still and commanded him to be called. And they called the blind man, saying to him, Be of tov comfort, rise; He calls for you.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose and came to אֱלִיָּהוּ.

51 And אֱלִיָּהוּ answered and said to him, What do you desire that I should do for you? The blind man said to Him, Master, that I might receive my sight.

52 And אמר said to him, Go your derech; your emunah has made you whole. And immediately he received his sight and followed אמר in the derech.

11 And when they came near to Yahrushalayim, to Beth Phagi and Beth-Anyah, at the Har of Olives, He sent out two of His talmidim,

2 And said to them, Go your derech into the village opposite you: and as soon as you enter into it, you shall find a colt tied, on which never man sat; loose him and bring him.

3 And if any man says to you, Why are you doing this? You say that our Rabbi has need of it; and immediately he will send him here.

4 And they went their derech and found the colt tied by the door outside in a place where two derachot met; and they loosed him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said to them, What are you doing, loosing the colt?

6 And they said to them even as אמר had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to אמר and cast their garments on him; and He sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the derech: and others cut down branches off the eytzim and spread them in the derech.

9 And they that went before and they that followed, shouted, saying, Hoshiana; Baruch Habah Beshem HaAdon אמר:

10 Blessed is the malchut of our abba Dawid that comes in the Name of אמר: Hoshiana in the highest.

11 And אמר entered into Yahrushalayim and into the Beit HaMikdash: and when He had looked around at all things and the evening had come, He went out to Beth-Anyah with the twelve.

12 And on the next yom, when they had come from Beth-Anyah, He was hungry:

13 And seeing a fig eytz far off having leaves, He came, to see if He might find anything on it: and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs had not yet come.

14 And אמר answered and said to it, No man eat fruit from you after this le-olam-va-ed. And His talmidim heard it.

15 And they came to Yahrushalayim: and אמר went into the Beit HaMikdash and began to cast out those that sold and bought in the Beit HaMikdash and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not allow that any man should carry any vessel through the Beit HaMikdash.

17 And He taught, saying to them, Is it not written, My Bayit shall be called a Beit Tefillah for all goyim? But you have made it a den of thieves.

18 And the Sophrim and head kohanim heard it and sought how they might destroy Him: for they feared Him because all the people were astonished at His teaching.

19 And when evening had come, they went out of the city.

20 And in the boker, as they passed by, they saw the fig eytz dried up from the roots.

21 And Kefa calling it to remembrance said to Him, Rabbi, see, the fig eytz that You cursed has withered away.

22 And אמר answering said to them, Have emunah in אמר.

23 For truly I say to you, That whoever shall say to this har, Be removed and be cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his lev, but shall believe that those things, which he says, shall come to pass; he shall have whatever he says.

24 Therefore I say to you, What things you desire, when you make tefillah, believe that you receive them and you shall have them.

25 And when you stand making tefillah, forgive, if you have any matter against any: that your Abba also who is in the shamayim may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But if you do not forgive, neither will your Abba who is in the shamayim forgive your trespasses.

27 And they came again to Yahrushalayim: and as He was walking in the Beit HaMikdash, there came to Him the head kohanim and the Sophrim and the zechanim, 28 And said to Him, By what authority are You doing these things? And who gave You this authority to do these things?

29 And סופרים answered and said to them, I will also ask you one question and answer Me and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The mikvah from Yochanan, was it from the shamayim, or from men? Answer Me.

31 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From the shamayim; He will say, Why then did you not believe him?

32 But if we shall say, Of men; they feared the people: for all men reckoned Yochanan, that he was a navi indeed.

33 And they answered and said to סופרים, We cannot tell. And סופרים answering said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

12 And He began to speak to them by parables.

A certain Man planted a vineyard and set a hedge around it and dug a place for the winepress and built a tower and rented it out to farmers and went into a far country.

2 And at the season of harvest, He sent to the farmers an eved, that he might receive from the farmers of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him and beat him and sent him away empty.

4 And again He sent to them another eved; and at him they cast stones and wounded him in the head and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again He sent another; and him they killed and many others; beating some and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one Son, His well beloved, He sent him lastly also to them, saying, They will reverence My Son.

7 But those farmers said among themselves, This is the Heir; come, let us kill Him and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took Him and killed Him and cast Him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the master of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers and will give the vineyard to others.

10 And have you not read this Katuv; The Stone, which the builders rejected, has become the Head of the corner:

11 This was The Master אֱלֹהִים's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on Him, but feared the people: for they knew that He had spoken the parable against them: and they left Him and went their way.

13 And they sent to Him certain of the Prushim and of the Herodians, to catch Him in His Words.

14 And when they had come, they said to Him, Rabbi, we know that You are emet and are not concerned with man's opinion: for You regard not the person of men, but teach the derech of אֱלֹהִים in emet: Is it permitted according to Torah to give taxes to Kaiser, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why do you test Me? Bring Me a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And He said to them, Whose image and inscription is this? And they said to Him, Kaiser's.

17 And סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז answering said to them, Render to Kaiser the things that are Kaiser's and to אֵזֵי the things that are אֵזֵי's. And they marveled at Him.

18 Then come to Him the Tzadukim, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked Him, saying, 19 Rabbi, Moshe Rabainu wrote to us, If a man's brother dies and leaves his isha behind him and leaves no children, that his brother should take his isha and raise up zera for his brother.

20 Now there were seven brothers: and the first took an isha and dying left no zera.

21 And the second took her and died, neither left her any zera: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven all had her and left no zera: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, whose isha shall she be? Since all seven had her as an isha.

24 And סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז answering said to them, Do you not therefore make serious errors because you know not the Keetvay HaKadosh, or The Power of אֵזֵי ?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the heavenly malachim who are in the shamayim.

26 And concerning the dead, that they will rise: have you not read in the Torah of Moshe, how in the bush אֵזֵי spoke to him, saying, I AM the Eloha of Avraham and the Eloha of Yitzchak and the Eloha of Yaakov?

27 He is not the Eloha of the dead, but the Eloha of the living: you therefore do greatly go astray.

28 And one of the Sophrim came and having heard them reasoning together and perceiving that He had answered them well, asked Him, Which is the first mitzvah of all?

29 And סופרים answered him, The first of all the mitzvot is, Shema, Yisrael; The Master אֱלֹהִים is our Eloha, The Master אֱלֹהִים is Echad:

30 And you shall love The Master אֱלֹהִים your Eloha with all your lev and with all your being and with all your mind and with all your strength: this is the first mitzvah.

31 And the second is like it, namely this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There are no other mitzvot greater than these.

32 And the Sopher said to Him, Well, Rabbi, You have said the emet: for there is One Eloha; and there is no other besides Him:

33 And to love Him with all the lev and with all the binah and with all the being and with all the strength and to love your neighbor as yourself, is more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when סופרים saw that he answered discreetly, He said to him, You are not far from the malchut of אֱלֹהִים. And no man after that did ask Him any questions.

35 And סופרים responding said, while He taught in the Beit HaMikdash, How do the Sophrim say that The Moshiach is Ben Dawid?

36 For Dawid himself said by The Ruach Hakodesh, The Master אֱלֹהִים said to My Master, Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

37 Dawid therefore himself called Him Master; in what way then is He Dawid's son? And the common people heard Him with gilah.

38 And He said to them in His teaching, Beware of the Sophrim, who love to go in long clothing and love greetings in the marketplaces,

39 And the best seats in the synagogues and the best places at moadeem:

40 Who devour widows' houses and for a public show make long tefillot: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 And סופרים sat over against the treasury and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow and she threw in two small copper coins, which make a cent.

43 And He called His talmidim and said to them, Truly I say to you, That this poor widow has put more in, than all those who have put into the treasury:

44 For all they did put in of their abundance; but she of her poverty did put in all that she had, even all her livelihood.

13 And as He went out of the Beit HaMikdash, one of His talmidim said to Him, Rabbi, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And סופרים answering said to him, Do you see these great buildings? There shall not be left one stone upon another that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as He sat upon the Har of Olives opposite the Beit HaMikdash, Kefa and Yaakov and Yochanan and Andri asked Him privately, 4 Tell us, when shall these things be? And what shall be the ot when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And סופרים answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in My Name, saying, I AM The Moshiach; and shall deceive many.

7 And when you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, be not troubled: for such things must indeed be; but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation and malchut against malchut: and there shall be earthquakes in different places and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the Shivilai HaMoshiach.

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues you shall be beaten: and you shall be brought before rulers and melechim for My sake, for a testimony to them.

10 And The Besorah must first be published among all goyim.

11 But when they shall lead you away and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what you shall speak, neither do you premeditate: but whatever shall be given you in that hour, that you shall speak: for it is not you that speaks, but The Ruach Hakodesh.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death and The Abba the son; and children shall rise up against their parents and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And you shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake: but he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.

14 But when you shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the navi, set up where it should not be (let him that reads understand), then let them that be in Yahudah flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the bayit, neither enter in, to take any thing out of his bayit:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again to take up his garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child and to them that nurse in those yamim!

18 And make tefillah that your flight is not in the winter.

19 For in those yamim shall be Tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the creation that אֱלֹהִים created to this time, neither shall be ever again.

20 And except that The Master אֱלֹהִים had shortened those yamim, no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom He has chosen, He has shortened the yamim.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Look, here is The Moshiach; or look, He is there; believe him not:

22 For false Moshiachs and false neviim shall rise and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the chosen people.

23 But take heed: see, I have foretold you all things.

24 But in those yamim, after that Tribulation, the shemesh shall be darkened and the yarayach shall not give her ohr, 25 And the cochavim of the shamayim shall fall and the powers that are in the shamayim shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see The Ben Ahdahm coming on the clouds with great Power and tifereth.

27 And then shall He send His heavenly malachim and shall gather together His chosen people from the four winds, from the uttermost parts of the earth to the uttermost parts of the shamayim.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig eytz; When her branch is yet tender and puts out leaves, you know that summer is near:

29 So in like manner, when you shall see these things come to pass, know that it is near, even at the doors.

30 Truly I say to you, That this generation shall not pass, until all these things take place.

31 The shamayim and the earth shall pass away: but My Words shall not pass away.

32 But of that yom and that hour knows no man, no, not the heavenly malachim who are in the shamayim, neither The Son, but The Abba alone.

33 Take heed, watch and make tefillah: for you know not when the time is.

34 For The Ben Ahdahm is like a man taking a far journey, who left His Bayit and gave authority to His avadim and to every man his work assignment and commanded the doorkeeper to watch.

35 Watch therefore: for you know not when The Master of the Bayit comes, at evening, or at midnight, or at twilight, or in the boker:

36 Lest coming suddenly He finds you sleeping.

37 And what I say to you I say to kol Yisrael, Shomer!

14 After two yamim was the moed of the Pesach and of Chag Matzoth: and the head kohanim and the Sophrim sought how they might seize Him by trickery and put Him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the moed yom, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 And being in Beth-Anya in the bayit of Shimon The Jar Merchant, as He sat at dinner, there came a woman having an alabaster flask of ointment of pistachio very precious; and she broke the flask and poured it on His head.

4 And there were some that were displeased among themselves and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pieces of silver and given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And וַיֹּאמֶר said, Leave her alone; why do you trouble her? She has done a tov mitzvah for Me.

7 For you have the poor with you always and whenever you desire, you may do them tov: but Me you have not always.

8 She has done what she could: she has come before the time to anoint My gooff for its burial.

9 Truly I say to you, Wherever this Besorah shall be proclaimed throughout the whole olam hazeh, what she has done shall be spoken of for her remembrance.

10 And Yahudah from Qerioth, one of the twelve, went to the head kohanim, to betray Him to them.

11 And when they heard it, they had gilah and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray Him.

12 And before the first yom of Chag Matzoth, when they killed the Pesach, His talmidim said to Him, Where do You desire that we go and prepare so that You may eat the Pesach?

13 And He sent out two of His talmidim and said to them, Go into the city and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of mayim: follow him.

14 And wherever he shall go in, say to the owner of the bayit, The Rabbi said, Where is the guest room, where I shall eat the Pesach with My talmidim?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make it ready for us!

16 And His talmidim went out and came into the city and found it as He had said to them: and they made ready the Pesach.

17 And in the evening He came with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, וַיֹּאמֶר said, Truly I say to you, One of you who eats with Me shall betray Me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful and to say to Him one by one, Is it I? And another said, Is it I?

20 And He answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve that dips with Me in the dish.

21 The Ben Ahdahm indeed is going, as it is written of Him: but woe to that man by whom The Ben Ahdahm is betrayed! Tov were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And as they did eat, והוא took matzah and said the bracha and broke it and gave it to them and said, Take, eat: this is My gooff.

23 And He took the Cup of Geulah and when He had given hodu, He gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And He said to them, This is My dahm of the Brit Chadasha, which is shed for many.

25 Truly I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that yom that I drink it new in the malchut of והוא.

26 And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Har of Olives.

27 And והוא said to them, All you shall be offended because of Me this lyla: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after I AM risen, I will go before you into Galil.

29 But Kefa said to Him, Although all shall be offended; yet I will not.

30 And והוא said to him, Truly I say to you, That this yom, even in this lyla, before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three different times.

31 But he spoke the more vehemently, If I should die with You, I still will not deny You in any way.

Likewise said all of them.

32 And they came to a place that was named Gat Sh'manim: and He said to His talmidim, Sit here, while I shall make tefillah.

33 And He took with Him Kefa and Yaakov and Yochanan and He began to be very pressed down and to be deeply distressed;

34 And said to them, My being is exceedingly sorrowful to death: tarry here and watch.

35 And He went forward a little and fell on the ground and made tefillah that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him.

36 And He said, Abba, Abba, all things are possible for You; take away this cup from Me: nevertheless not what I will, but what You will.

37 And He came and found them sleeping and He said to Kefa, Shimon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch just one hour?

38 Watch and make tefillah, lest you enter into temptation. The human ruach truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again He went away and made tefillah and spoke the same words.

40 And when He returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy, neither did they know what to answer Him.

41 And He came the third time and said to them, Sleep on now and take your rest: it is enough, the hour has come; see, The Ben Ahdahm is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; look, he that betrays Me is here.

43 And immediately, while He yet spoke, came Yahudah, one of the twelve and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the head kohanim and the Sophrim and the zechanim.

44 And he that betrayed Him had given them an ot, saying, Whomever I shall kiss, that is the one; take Him and lead Him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he went immediately to Him and said, Rabbi, Rabbi; and kissed Him.

46 And they laid their hands on Him and took Him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword and smote an eved of the Kohen HaGadol and cut off his ear.

48 And אמר answered and said to them, Are you come out, against a thief, with swords and with clubs to take Me?

49 I was daily with you in the Beit HaMikdash teaching and you took Me not: but the Keetvay HaKadosh must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook Him and fled.

51 And there followed Him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast around his naked gooff; and the men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.

53 And they led אמר away to the Kohen HaGadol: and with him were assembled all the head kohanim and the zechanim and the Sophrim.

54 And Kefa followed Him far off, even into the palace of the Kohen HaGadol: and he sat with the avadim and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the head kohanim and all the Sanhedrin sought for a witness against אמר to put Him to death; and found none.

56 For many bore false witness against Him, but their witness did not agree.

57 And there arose some and bore false witness against Him, saying, 58 We heard Him say, I will destroy this Beit HaMikdash that is made with hands and within three yamim I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither in this accusation did their witness agree.

60 And the Kohen HaGadol stood up in the midst and asked סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז, saying, Do You answer nothing? What is this that they witness against You?

61 But He maintained His silence and answered nothing. Again the Kohen HaGadol asked Him and said to Him, Are You The Moshiach, The Son of the Blessed?

62 And סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז said, I AM: and you shall see The Ben Ahdahm sitting on the Right Hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the shamayim.

63 Then the Kohen HaGadol tore his clothes and said, Why do we need any further witnesses?

64 You have heard the blasphemy: what do you think? And they all condemned Him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on Him and to cover His face and to buffet Him and to say to Him, Prophecy: and the avadim did strike Him with the palms of their hands.

66 And as Kefa was beneath in the palace, there came one of the eved girls of the Kohen HaGadol:

67 And when she saw Kefa warming himself, she looked at him and said: And you also were with סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז of Natzeret.

68 But he denied it, saying, I know Him not; neither do I understand what you say. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 And an eved girl saw him again and began to say to them that stood by, He is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Kefa, Surely you are one of them: for you are a Galilean and your speech is like theirs.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom you speak.

72 And the second time the cock crowed. And Kefa recalled to mind the word that סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז said to him,

Before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three times. And when he thought about it, he wept.

15 And immediately in the boker the head kohanim held a consultation with the zechanim and Sophrim and the whole Sanhedrin and bound סופראז and carried Him away and delivered Him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked Him, Are You The Melech of the Yahudim? And He answering said to him, You said it.

3 And the head kohanim accused Him of many things: but He answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked Him again, saying, You answer nothing? Look at how many things they witness against You.

5 But סופראז again answered nothing; so that Pilate marveled.

6 Now at that moed he released one prisoner to them, whomever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bar-Abba, who was bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had always done for them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Do you wish that I release to you The Melech of the Yahudim?

10 For he knew that the head kohanim had delivered Him because of envy.

11 But the head kohanim moved the people, that he should release Bar-Abba to them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again to them, What will you then that I shall do to Him whom you call The Melech of the Yahudim?

13 And they cried out again, Impale Him!

14 Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has He done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Impale Him!

15 And so Pilate, willing to gratify the people, released Bar-Abba to them and delivered $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\lambda\alpha\varsigma$, when he had scourged Him, to be impaled.

16 And the soldiers led Him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they called together the whole company of soldiers.

17 And they clothed Him with purple and platted a keter of thorns and put it around His head, 18 And began to salute Him, Hail, Melech of the Yahudim!

19 And they smote Him on the head with a reed and did spit upon Him and bowing their knees they mockingly worshipped Him.

20 And when they had mocked Him, they took off the purple from Him and put His own clothes on Him and led Him out to impale Him.

21 And they compelled one Shimon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, The Abba of Alexander and Rufus, to bear His execution stake.

22 And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of The Skull.

23 And they gave Him wine to drink mixed with myrrh: but He received it not.

24 And when they had impaled Him, they parted His garments, casting lots for them, what every man should take.

25 And it was 9 in the boker and they impaled Him.

26 And the inscription of His accusation was written above; Y-AHSHUA H-ANOTZREI U-MELECH HAYAHUDIM.

27 And with Him they impaled two thieves; the one on His right hand and the other on His left.

28 And The Katuv was fulfilled, that said: And He was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by blasphemed Him, wagging their heads and saying, Ah-ha, You that destroys the Beit HaMikdash and builds it in three yamim, 30 Save yourself and come down from the execution stake.

31 Likewise also the head kohanim mocking said among themselves with the Sophrim, He saved others; Himself He cannot save.

32 Let The Moshiach The Melech of Yisrael descend now from the execution stake that we may see and believe. And they that were impaled with Him reviled Him.

33 And when 12 noon had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at 3 in the afternoon עליון cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli- עליון, Eli- עליון, lemana-azavthani? Which means, My El- עליון, My El- עליון, why are You keeping Me waiting so long?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, See, He calls for Eli-Yahu.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar and put it on a reed and gave Him to drink, saying, Leave Him alone; let us see whether Eli-Yahu will come to take Him down.

37 And עליון cried with a loud voice and gave up the ruach.

38 And the veil of the Beit HaMikdash was torn in two from the top to the bottom.

39 And when the centurion, who stood opposite Him, saw that He cried out and gave up the ruach, he said, Truly this Man was The Son of The Almighty.

40 There were also women looking on far off: among whom was Miryam of Magdala and Miryam the eema of Yaakov the Lesser and of Yoseph and Shlomo;

41 Who also, when He was in Galil, followed Him and attended to Him; and many other women who came up with Him to Yahrushalayim.

42 And now when the evening had come because it was the preparation, that is, the yom before The Shabbat, 43 Yoseph of Ramathayim, a prominent Sanhedrin member, who also believed in and waited for the malchut of אִיִּשָׁר, came and went in boldly to Pilate and asked for the gooff of סוֹפְרֵיִשָׁר.

44 And Pilate marveled that He was already dead: and he called the centurion and asked Him whether He had already been dead.

45 And when he knew it from the centurion, he gave the gooff to Yoseph.

46 And he bought fine linen and took Him down and wrapped Him in linen and laid Him in a tomb that was cut out of a rock and rolled a stone to the door of the tomb.

47 And Miryam from Magdala and Miryam the eema of Yoseph beheld the place where He was laid.

16 And after the annual Shabbat (Aviv 15) had fully past, Miryam from Magdala and Miryam the eema of Yaakov and Shulamit, had bought sweet spices that they might come and anoint Him.

2 And very early in the boker on one of the weekly Shabbats they came to the tomb just as the shemesh was rising.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll away for us the stone from the door of the tomb?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was already rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were greatly frightened.

6 And he said to them, Be not afraid: You seek אֵשֶׁת of Natzeret, who was impaled: He is risen; He is not here: see the place where they laid Him.

7 But go your דֶרֶךְ, tell His תַּלְמִידִים and Kefa that He went before you into Galil: there shall you see Him, as He said to you.

8 And they went out quickly and fled from the tomb; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they anything to any man; for they were afraid.

9 Having risen moreover on the first Shabbat (Aviv 18 after Passover), He appeared first to Miryam from Magdala, out of whom He had expelled seven שְׂדֵימִים.

10 And she went and told them that had been with Him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they believed not.

12 After that He appeared in another form to two of them, as they walked and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it to the rest: neither did the rest believe them.

14 Afterward He appeared to the eleven as they sat to eat and upbraided them for their unbelief and hardness of לֵב because they believed not those who had seen Him after He had risen.

15 And He said to them, Go into all the אֲרָצוֹת and proclaim The בְּשׂוּרָה to every creature.

16 He that believes and is immersed shall be saved; but he that believes not shall be condemned.

17 And these signs shall follow all them that believe-trust; In My Name shall they all expel שְׂדֵימִים; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up-out serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall recover.

19 So then after oʷɪʳʳ had spoken to them; He was received up into the third shamayim and sat down as the Right Hand of ʳɪʳʳ.

20 And they went out and proclaimed everywhere, ʳɪʳʳ working with them and confirming the word with signs following. Ahmein. X

Luke-Luka

The Besorah According To Luke-Luka

To All Nations

- 1 Since many have undertaken to set forth in order a declaration of those things that are most surely believed among us,
- 2 Even as they delivered them to us, by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and avadim of the word;
- 3 It seemed tov to me also, having had perfect binah of all things from the very beginning, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilos,
- 4 That you might know the certainty of those things, in which you have been instructed.
- 5 There was in the yamim of Herod, the melech of the province of Yahudah, a certain kohen named Zacharyah, of the division of Aviyah: and his isha was one of the daughters of Aharon and her name was Elisheva.
- 6 And they were both tzadikim before The Master אלהים, having their halacha in all the chukim and mishpatim of The Master אלהים blameless.
- 7 And they had no child because Elisheva was barren and they both were now advanced in years.
- 8 And it came to pass, that while he served in the kohen's office before אלהים in the order of his division,
- 9 According to the custom of the kohen's office, he was chosen by lot to burn incense when he went into the Beit HaMikdash of The Master אלהים.
- 10 And the whole multitude of the people were making tefillot outside at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared to him a heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

12 And when Zacharyah saw him, he was troubled and fear fell upon him.

13 But the heavenly malach said to him, Fear not, Zacharyah: for your tefillah is heard; and your isha Elisheva shall bear you a son and you shall call his name Yochanan.

14 And you shall have simcha and gilah; and many shall rejoice at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of The Master אֱלֹהִים and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with The Ruach Hakodesh, even from his eema's womb.

16 And many of the children of Yisrael shall he return to The Master אֱלֹהִים their Ahloha.

17 And he shall go before Him in The Ruach and Power of Eli-Yahu, to turn the levavot of the ahvot to the children, and the disobedient to the chochmah of the just; to make ready an emet people prepared for The Master אֱלֹהִים.

18 And Zacharyah said to the heavenly malach, How shall I know this? For I am an old man and my isha advanced in years.

19 And the heavenly malach answering said to him, I am Gavriel, that stands in the Presence of אֱלֹהִים; and am sent to speak to you and to show you this tov news.

20 And, see, you shall be dumb and not able to speak, until the yom that these things shall be performed because you believed not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharyah and marveled that he waited so long in the Beit HaMikdash.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak to them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the Beit HaMikdash: for he beckoned to them and remained dumb.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the yamim of his service were accomplished, he departed to his own bayit.

24 And after those yamim his isha Elisheva conceived and hid herself five chodashem, saying,
25 The Master אלהים has dealt with me in the yamim in which He looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth chodesh the heavenly malach Gavriel was sent from אלהים to a city of Galil, named Natzeret, 27 To a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Yoseph, from the bayit of Dawid; and the virgin's name was Miryam.

28 And the heavenly malach came in to her and said, Greetings, you that are highly favored, אלהים is with you: favored are you among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying and wondered in her mind what manner of greeting this should be.

30 And the heavenly malach said to her, Fear not, Miryam: for you have found chen with אלהים.

31 And, see, you shall conceive in your womb and bring forth a Son and shall call His Name משיח.

32 He shall be great and shall be called The Son of the Highest: and The Master אלהים Ahloha shall give to Him the kesay of His abba Dawid:

33 And He shall reign over Beit Yaakov le-olam-va-ed; and of His malchut there shall be no end.

34 Then said Miryam to the heavenly malach, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the heavenly malach answered and said to her, The Ruach Hakodesh shall come upon you and

The Power of El-Elyon shall overshadow you:
therefore also that Kadosh-One which shall be born from you shall be called The Son of אֱלֹהִים.

36 And, see, your cousin Elisheva, she has also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth chodesh with her, who was called barren.

37 For with אֱלֹהִים nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Miryam said, See the female eved of The Master אֱלֹהִים; be it to me according to your word.
And the heavenly malach departed from her.

39 And Miryam arose in those yamim and went into the hill country with speed, into a city of Yahudah;

40 And entered into the bayit of Zacharyah and greeted Elisheva.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisheva heard the greeting of Miryam, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elisheva was filled with The Ruach Hakodesh:

42 And she spoke out with a loud voice and said, Blessed are you among women and favored is the fruit of your womb.

43 And who am I that the eema of my Master should come to me?

44 For see, as soon as the voice of your greeting sounded in my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for simcha.

45 And favored is she that believed: for there shall be an accomplishing of those things that were told her from The Master אֱלֹהִים.

46 And Miryam said, My being does magnify The Master אֱלֹהִים,

47 And my ruach has rejoiced in Ahloha my Savior.

48 For He has regarded the low estate of His female eved: for, see, from now on all generations shall call me favored.

49 For He that is mighty has done to me great things; and kadosh is His Name.

50 And His rachamim is on them that fear Him from generation to generation.

51 He has showed strength with His Arm; He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their levavot.

52 He has put down the mighty from their seats and exalted them of low degree.

53 He has filled the hungry with tov things; and the rich He has sent empty away.

54 He has helped His son Yisrael, in remembrance of His rachamim;

55 As He spoke to our ahvot, to Avraham and to his zera le-olam-va-ed.

56 And Miryam stayed with her about three chodashem and returned to her own bayit.

57 Now Elisheva's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbors and her cousins heard how אֵלִישֶׁבַע had showed great rachamim upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth yom they came to perform brit-milah on the child; and they called him Zacharyah, after the name of his abba.

60 And his eema answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called Yochanan.

61 And they said to her, There is no one from your mishpacha that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his abba, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote, saying, His name is Yochanan. And they all marveled.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately and his tongue loosed and he spoke and praised אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt all around them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of province of Yahudah.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their levavot, saying, What manner of boy shall this be!

And the hand of The Master אֱלֹהִים was with him.

67 And his abba Zacharyah was filled with The Ruach Hakodesh and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be The Master אֱלֹהִים the Ahloha of Yisrael; for He has visited and redeemed His people,

69 And has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the bayit of His eved Dawid;

70 As He spoke by the mouth of His kadosh neviim, who have been since the olam hazeh began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the rachamim promised to our ahvot and to remember His kadosh brit;

73 The oath that He swore to our abba Avraham,

74 That He would grant to us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear,

75 In set apartness and tzedakah before Him, all the yamim of our chayim.

76 And you, child, shall be called the navi of El-Elyon: for you shall go before the face of The Master אֱלֹהִים to prepare His derachot;

77 To give the da'at of salvation to His people by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender rachamim of our Ahloha; by which the Dayspring from on high has visited us,

79 To give Ohr to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the derech of shalom.

80 And the child grew and grew strong in ruach and was in the deserts until the yom of his open showing to Yisrael.

2 And it came to pass in those yamim, that there went out a decree from Kaiser Augustus, that all the land should be registered.

2 And this registration was made before Quirinius was governor of Syria Aram.

3 And all went to be registered, every one to his own city.

4 And Yoseph also went up from Galil, out of the city of Natzeret, into the province of Yahudah, to the city of Dawid, which is called Beth-Lechem; because he was of the bayit and lineage of Dawid:

5 To be registered with Miryam his engaged isha, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the yamim were filled that she should give birth.

7 And she brought forth her bachor Son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a sukkah feeding trough; because there was no room for them in the family dwelling.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by lyla.

9 And, see, the heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים came upon them and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים shone around them: and they were greatly afraid.

10 And the heavenly malach said to them, Fear not: for, see, I bring you tov news of great simcha, which shall be to all the people of Yisrael.

11 For to you is born this yom in the city of Dawid a Savior, which is The Moshiach The Master אֱלֹהִים.

12 And this shall be your ot; You shall find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a sukkah feeding trough.

13 And suddenly there was with the heavenly malach a multitude of the heavenly malachim praising אֱלֹהִים and saying,

14 Tifereth to אֱלֹהִים in the highest and on earth shalom and tov among men, with whom He is pleased.

15 And it came to pass, as the heavenly malachim were gone away from them into the shamayim, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go to Beth-Lechem and see this thing which has come to pass, which The Master אֱלֹהִים has made known to us.

16 And they came with speed and found Miryam and Yoseph and the baby lying in a sukkah-feeding trough.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this Child.

18 And all they that heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Miryam kept all these things and pondered them in her lev.

20 And the shepherds returned, esteeming and praising אֱלֹהִים for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them.

21 And when eight yamim were accomplished for the brit-milah of the Child, His Name was called מִרְיָם, which was so named by the heavenly malach before He was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the yamim of her cleansing according to the Torah of Moshe were accomplished, they brought Him to Yahrushalayim, to present Him before The Master אֱלֹהִים;

23 As it is written in the Torah of The Master אֱלֹהִים, Every male that opens the womb shall be called kadosh to The Master אֱלֹהִים;

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the Torah of The Master אֱלֹהִים, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, see, there was a man in Yahrushalayim, whose name was Shimon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the comforting restoration of Yisrael: and The Ruach Hakodesh was upon him.

26 And it was revealed to him by The Ruach Hakodesh, that he should not see death, before he had seen The Master אֱלֹהִים's Moshiach.

27 And he came by The Ruach into the Beit HaMikdash: and when the parents brought in the Child סוּפֵּרֵי, to do for Him after the command of the Torah,

28 Then he took Him up in his arms and blessed אֱלֹהִים and said,

29 אֱלֹהִים, now allow Your eved to depart in shalom, according to Your Word:

30 For my eyes have seen Your סוּפֵּרֵי,

31 That You have prepared before the face of all peoples;

32 An Ohr to unveil the goyim and the tifereth of Your people Yisrael.

33 And Yoseph and His eema marveled at those things that were spoken about Him.

34 And Shimon blessed them and said to Miryam His eema, See, this Child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Yisrael; and for an ot which shall be spoken against;

35 And a sword shall pierce through your own being also, that the thoughts of many levavot may be revealed.

36 And there was one Channa, a neviyah, the daughter of Phenu-El, of the tribe of Asher: she was advanced in years and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about eighty-four years, who departed not from the Beit HaMikdash, but served אֱלֹהִים with fasting and tefillot lyla and yom.

38 And she coming in that instant gave hodu likewise to The Master אֱלֹהִים and spoke of Him to all them that looked for geulah in Yahrushalayim.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Torah of The Master אֱלֹהִים, they returned into Galil, to their own city Natzeret.

40 And the Child grew and became strong in Ruach, filled with chochmah: and the rachamim of אֱלֹהִים was upon Him.

41 Now His parents went to Yahrushalayim every year at the moed of the Pesach.

42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Yahrushalayim for the moed.

43 And when they had fulfilled the yamim of Chag Matzoth, as they returned, the Child אֱלֹהִים stayed behind in Yahrushalayim; and Yoseph and His eema did not know it.

44 But thinking He was with the children in their company, they went a yom's journey; and they sought Him among their relatives and acquaintances.

45 And when they found Him not, they turned back again to Yahrushalayim, seeking Him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three yamim they found Him in the Beit HaMikdash, sitting in the midst of the Torah teachers, both hearing them and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard Him were astonished at His binah and answers.

48 And when they saw Him, they were amazed: and His eema said to Him, Son, why have You dealt with us like this? See, Your abba and I have sought You anxiously.

49 And He said to them, How is it that you sought Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Abba's business?

50 And they understood not the saying that He spoke to them.

51 And He went down with them and came to Natzeret and was subject to them: but His eema kept all these sayings in her lev.

52 And אֵלֹהִים increased in chochmah and stature and in chen with אֲדָמָה and man.

3 Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Kaiser, Pontius Pilate being governor of the province of Yahudah and Herod being district ruler of Galil and his brother Philip district ruler of Yetur and of the region of Trachonitis and Lusania the district ruler of Abilene,

2 Annas and Caiaphas being the High kohanim, The Word of אֵלֹהִים came to Yochanan the son of Zacharyah in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country around Yarden, proclaiming the mikvah of teshuvah for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the scroll of the words of Yeshayahu the navi, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare the derech of The Master אֵלֹהִים, make His paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled and every har and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight and the rough derachot shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of אֵלֹהִים.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be immersed by him, O generation of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of teshuvah and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Avraham as our abba: for I say to you, That אֵלֹהִים is able of these stones to raise up children to Avraham.

9 And now also the axe is laid to the root of the eytzim: every eytz therefore which brings not forth tov fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answered and said to them, He that has two coats, let him impart to him that has none; and he that has food, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also tax collectors to be immersed and said to him, Teacher, what shall we do?

13 And he said to them, take no more than that which is appointed to you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying: And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation and all men wondered in their levavot about Yochanan, whether he were The Moshiach, or not;

16 Yochanan answered, saying to them all, I indeed mikvah you with mayim; but one mightier than I is coming, the straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to unloose: He shall mikvah you with The Ruach Hakodesh and with fire:

17 Whose winnowing fork is in His hand and He will thoroughly purge His floor, and will gather the wheat into His storehouse; but the chaff He will burn with unquenchable fire.

18 And many other things in his exhortation he proclaimed to the people.

19 But Herod the district ruler, being rebuked by him for Herodias his brother Philip's isha and for all the evils which Herod had done, 20 Added this also to them, that he locked up Yochanan in prison.

21 Now when all the people were immersed, it came to pass, that օַּוִּיִּאָז also being immersed and making tefillot, the shamayim were opened,

22 And The Ruach Hakodesh descended in a bodily shape like a yonah upon Him and a voice came from the shamayim, which said, You are My beloved Son; in You I AM well pleased!

23 And օַּוִּיִּאָז Himself was beginning to be about thirty years of age; legally and with the priestly authority of the Torah, The Son of Yahusef, who came from Eli,

24 Who was from Mattityahu, who was from Lewi, who was from Meleki, who was from Yanna, who was from Yoseph,

25 Who was from Mattityahu, who was from Ahmos, who was from Nachum, who was from Hesli, who was from Nogah,

26 Who was from Maath, who was from Mattityahu, who was from Shimi, who was from Yoseph, who was from Yahudah,

27 Who was from Yochanan, who was from Rephayah, who was from Zerubbavel, who was from Shealtiel, who was from of Neri,

28 Who was from Meleki, who was from Addi, who was from Qosam, who was from Elmodam, who was from Er,

29 Who was from Yehoshua, who was from Eliezer, who was from Yorim, who was from Mattityahu, who was from Lewi,

30 Who was from Shimon, who was from Yahudah, who was from Yoseph, who was from Yonan, who was from Elyakim,

31 Who was from Melea, who was from Menna, who was from Mattatha, who was from Nathan, who was from Dawid,

32 Who was from Yishai, who was from Oved, who was from Boaz, who was from Salmon, who was from Nachshon,

33 Who was from Aminadav, who was from Aram, who was from Chetzron, who was from Peretz, who was from Yahudah, 34 Who was from Yaakov, who was from Yitzchak, who was from Avraham, who was from Terach, who was from Nachor, 35 Who was from Saruch, who was from Re-u, who was from Pheleg, who was from Ever, who was from Shela,

36 Who was from Qeynan, who was from Arpakshad, who was from Shem, who was from Noach, who was from Lamech, 37 Who was from Methushelach, who was from Chanok, who was from Yared, who was from Mahala-El, who was from Kanaan, 38 Who was from Enosh, who was from Sheth, who was from Ahdahm, who was from Ahloha.

4 And אֱלֹהִים being full of The Ruach Hakodesh returned from the Yarden and was led by The Ruach into the wilderness,

2 Being forty yamim tested of s.a.tan. And in those yamim He did eat nothing: and when they were ended, He afterward was hungry.

3 And s.a.tan said to Him, Since You are The Son of Ahloha, command this stone that it be made lechem.

4 And אֱלֹהִים answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by lechem alone, but by every Word of אֱלֹהִים .

5 And s.a.tan, taking Him up into a high har, showed Him all the malchutim of the olam hazeh in a moment of time.

6 And s.a.tan said to Him, All this power will I give You and the tifereth of them: for that is delivered to me; and to whomever I will, I give it.

7 If You therefore will worship me, all shall be Yours.

8 And סוֹף־אֵל answered and said to him, Get behind Me, s.a.tan: for it is written, You shall worship אֵלֵינוּ your Ahloha and Him only shall you serve.

9 And he brought Him to Yahrushalayim and set Him on a pinnacle of the Beit HaMikdash and said to Him, Since You are The Son of Ahloha, cast yourself down from here:

10 For it is written, He shall give His heavenly malachim charge over You, to keep You:

11 And in their hands they shall bear You up, lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone.

12 And סוֹף־אֵל answering said to him, It is said, You shall not try The Master אֵלֵינוּ your Ahloha.

13 And when s.a.tan had ended all of the trial, he departed from Him for a while.

14 And סוֹף־אֵל returned in The Power of The Ruach into Galil: and there was published His fame through all the regions all around.

15 And He taught in their synagogues, being esteemed by all.

16 And He came to Natzeret, where He had been brought up: and, according to His practice, He went into the synagogue on The Shabbat and stood up to read.

17 And there was delivered to Him the Scroll of the navi Yeshayahu. And when He had opened the scroll, He found the place where it was written,

18 The Ruach of The Master אֵלֵינוּ is upon Me because He has anointed Me to proclaim The Besorah to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to send deliverance to those that are devastated,

19 To proclaim the acceptable year of The Master
אֶת־אָזְנוֹ.

20 And He rolled up the scroll and He gave it again to the shamesh and sat down. And the eyes of all of those that were in the synagogue were glued on Him.

21 And He began to say to them, This yom is this Katuv fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bore Him witness and wondered at the favorable words that proceeded out of His mouth. And they said, Is not this Moshiach Ben Yoseph?

23 And He said to them, You will surely say to Me this mishle, Physician, heal Yourself: whatever we have heard done in Kfar Nachum, do also here in Your country.

24 And He said, Truly I say to you, No navi is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you the emet; many widows were in Beit Yisrael in the yamim of Eli-Yahu, when the shamayim were shut up three years and six chodashem, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But to none of them was Eli-Yahu sent, except to Tsarephath, a city of Tsidon, to a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Beit Yisrael in the time of Elisha the navi; and none of them was cleansed, except Naaman the Aramean.

28 And all those in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up and threw Him out of the city and led Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might cast Him down headlong.

30 But He passing through the midst of them went His derech, 31 And came down to Kfar Nachum, a city of Galil and He taught them on The Shabbat.

32 And they were astonished at His teaching: for His Word was with authority.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man, who had an unclean ruach of a shed and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Leave us alone; what have we to do with You, Yahushua of Natzeret? Have You come to destroy us? I know You who You are; the Kadosh-One of אֱלֹהִים.

35 And אֱלֹהִים rebuked him, saying, Be silent and come out of him. And when the shed had thrown him in their midst, he came out of him and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed and spoke among themselves, saying, What a Word is this! For with authority and Power He commands the shedim and they come out.

37 And His fame went out into every place from that country all around.

38 And He arose out of the synagogue and entered into Shimon's bayit. And Shimon's eema-in-law was taken with a great fever; and they asked Him concerning her.

39 And He stood over her and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she stood and waited on them.

40 Now when the shemesh was setting, all they that had any sick with diverse diseases brought them to Him; and He laid His Hands on each one of them and healed them.

41 And shedim also came out of many, crying out and saying, You are The Moshiach The Son of Ahloha. And He rebuking them allowed them not to speak: for they knew that He was The Moshiach.

42 And when it was yom, He departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought Him and came to Him and tried to keep Him from leaving them.

43 And He said to them, I must proclaim the malchut of אֱלֹהִים to other cities also: for that reason I AM sent.

44 And He proclaimed in the synagogues of Galil.

5 And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon Him to hear The Word of אֱלֹהִים, He stood by the Lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them and were washing their nets.

3 And He entered into one of the boats, which was Shimon's and asked that he would pull out a little from the land. And He sat down and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when He had ceased speaking, He said to Shimon, Pull out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.

5 And Shimon answering said to Him, Master, we have toiled all lyla and have taken nothing: nevertheless at Your Word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they caught a great multitude of fishes: and their net broke.

7 And they beckoned to their partners, who were in the other ship, that they should come to help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 When Shimon Kefa saw it, he fell down at אֱלֹהִים's knees saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Master.

9 For he was astonished and all that were with Him, at the catch of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Yaakov and Yochanan, the sons of Zavdi, who were partners with Shimon. And וַיֹּאמֶר שֵׁשׁׁלְיָנִי said to Shimon, Fear not; from now on you shall catch men.

11 And when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all and followed Him.

12 And it came to pass, when He was in a certain city, see a man full of leprosy: who seeing וַיֹּאמֶר fell on his face and asked Him, saying, Master, if You will, You can make me clean.

13 And He put forth His hand and touched him, saying, I will: be clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And He ordered him to tell no man, But go and show yourself to the kohen and offer for your cleansing, what Moshe commanded, as a testimony to them.

15 But all the more His fame went all around: and great multitudes came together to hear and to be healed by Him of their infirmities.

16 And He withdrew Himself into the wilderness and made tefillah.

17 And it came to pass on a certain yom, as He was teaching, that there were Prushim and teachers of the Torah sitting by, who were come out of every town of Galil and the province of Yahudah and Yahrushalayim: and The Power of The Master וַיֹּאמֶר was present to heal them.

18 And, see, men brought in a quilt a man who was taken with a paralysis: and they sought a means to bring him in and to lay him before Him.

19 And when they could not find how they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the roof and let him down through the tiling with his quilt into the midst before וַיֹּאמֶר.

20 And when He saw their emunah, He said to him, Man, your sins are forgiven you.

21 And the Sophrim and the Prushim began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but Ahloha alone?

22 But when וואַרען perceived their thoughts, He answering said to them, What are you reasoning in your levavot?

23 Which is easier, to say, Your sins are forgiven you; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that you may know that The Ben Ahdahm has Power upon earth to forgive sins, (He said to the sick of the paralysis,) I say to you, Arise and take up your quilt and go into your bayit.

25 And immediately he rose up before them and took up that on which he lay and departed to his own bayit, esteeming וואַרען.

26 And they were all amazed and they esteemed וואַרען and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things today.

27 And after these things He went forth and saw a tax collector, named Lewi, sitting at the tax office: and He said to him, Follow Me.

28 And he left all, rose up and followed Him.

29 And Lewi made Him a great reception in his own bayit: and there was a great company of tax collectors and of others that sat down with them.

30 But the Sophrim and Prushim grumbled against His talmidim, saying, Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?

31 And וואַרען answering said to them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 I came not to call the tzadikim, but sinners to teshuvah.

33 And they said to Him, Why do the talmidim of Yochanan fast often and make tefillot and likewise the talmidim of the Prushim; but Yours eat and drink?

34 And He said to them, Can you make the children of The Bridegroom fast, while The Bridegroom is still with them?

35 But the yamim will come, when The Bridegroom shall be taken away from them and then shall they fast in those yamim.

36 And He spoke also a parable to them; No man puts a piece of a new garment upon an old; otherwise the new one makes a tear and also the piece that was taken out of the new one does not match the old.

37 And no man puts new wine into old wineskins, since then the new wine will burst the wineskins and be spilled and the wineskins shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine immediately desires new: for he said, The old is better.

6 And it came to pass on the second Shabbat after the first, that He went through the grain fields; and His talmidim plucked the ears of grain and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Prushim said to them, Why do You do that which is prohibited in Torah on The Shabbat?

3 And וַיֹּאמְרוּ answering them said, Have you not read so much as this, what Dawid did, when he was hungry and they who were with him;

4 How he went into the Bayit of The Master וַיֹּאמְרוּ and did take and eat the Lechem ha Panayim, and gave also to those that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat except for the kohanim alone?

5 And He said to them, Therefore The Ben Ahdahm is Master also of The Shabbat.

6 And it came to pass also on another Shabbat, that He entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the Sophrim and Prushim watched Him, whether He would heal on The Shabbat; that they might find an accusation against Him.

8 But He knew their thoughts and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise up and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said וַיִּשְׁאַל to them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on The Shabbat to do tov, or to do evil? To save chayim, or to destroy it?

10 And looking all around upon them all, He said to the man, Stretch forth your hand! And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with bitterness; and discussed with each other what they might do to וַיִּשְׁאַל.

12 And it came to pass in those yamim, that He went out into a har to make tefillah and continued all lyla in tefillah to וַיִּשְׁאַל.

13 And when it was yom, He called to Himself His talmidim: and from them He chose twelve, whom also He named shlichim.

14 Shimon (whom He also named Kefa) and Andri his brother, Yaakov and Yochanan, Philip and Bartholomi, 15 Mattityahu and Toma, Yaakov the son of Alphai and Shimon called Zealot, 16 And Yahudah the brother of Yaakov and Yahudah from Qerioth, who also was the traitor.

17 And He came down with them and stood in the plain and the crowd of His talmidim and a great multitude of people out of all the provinces of Yahudah and Yahrushalayim and from the sea coast of Tsor and Tsidon, who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with shedim: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch Him: for there went Power out of Him and healed them all.

20 And He lifted up His eyes on His talmidim and said, Blessed are you poor: for yours is the malchut of מלכות.

21 Blessed are you that hunger now: for you shall be filled. Blessed are you that weep now: for you shall laugh.

22 Blessed are you, when men shall hate you and when they shall separate you from their company and shall reproach you and publish your names as evil, for The Ben Ahdahm's sake.

23 Rejoice in that yom and leap for simcha: for, see, your reward is great in the shamayim: for in the like manner did their ahvot to the neviim.

24 But woe to you that are rich! For you have received your consolation.

25 Woe to you that are full! For you shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! For you shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe to you, when all men shall speak well of you! For so did their ahvot to the false neviim.

27 But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do tov to them who hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you and make tefillah for them who despitefully use you and burden you.

29 And to him that smites you on one cheek offer also the other; and he that takes away your robe forbid him not to take your shirt also.

30 Give to every man that asks from you; and of him that takes away your goods do not ask them to return it.

31 And as you would desire that men should do to you, do also to them likewise.

32 For if you only love them who love you, what blessing do you have? For sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if you only do tov to them who do tov to you, what blessing have you? For even sinners also do the same.

34 And if you lend to them from whom you tikvah to receive again, what blessing have you? For sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love you your enemies and do tov and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward shall be great and you shall be the children of El-Elyon: for He is kind to the thankless and to the evil.

36 Be therefore full of rachamim, as your Abba also is full of rachamim.

37 Judge not and you shall not be judged: condemn not and you shall not be condemned: forgive and you shall be forgiven:

38 Give and it shall be given to you; tov measure, pressed down and shaken together and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure with which you measure it shall be measured back to you again.

39 And He spoke a parable to them, Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The talmid is not above His Master: but every one that is perfect shall be as His Master.

41 And why do you see the mote that is in your brother's eye, but perceive not the beam that is in your own eye?

42 Or, how can you say to your brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in your eye, when you yourself see not the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of your own eye and then shall you see clearly to pull out the mote that is in your brother's eye.

43 For a tov eytz brings not forth corrupt fruit; neither does a corrupt eytz bring forth tov fruit.

44 For every eytz is known by its own fruit. For from thorns men do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes.

45 A tov man out of the tov treasure of his lev brings forth that which is tov; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his lev brings forth that which is evil:
for out of the abundance of the lev his mouth speaks.

46 And why do you call Me, Master-Adon, Master-
Adon and do not the things that I say?

47 Whoever comes to Me and hears My sayings and does them, I will show you to whom he is like 48 He is like a man who built a bayit and dug deep and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that bayit and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that hears and does not what I say, is like a man that built a bayit upon the earth without a foundation; against which the stream did beat vehemently and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that bayit was great.

7 Now when He had ended all His sayings in the audience of the people, He entered into Kfar Nachum.

2 And a certain centurion's eved, who was dear to him, was sick and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of אֲרָאָה, he sent zechanim of the Yahudim, asking Him that He would come and heal his eved.

4 And when they came to אֲרָאָה, they asked Him immediately, saying, That he was worthy for whom He should do this:

5 For he loves our nation and he has built us a synagogue.

6 Then וַיֵּלֶךְ went with them. And when He was now not far from the bayit, the centurion sent chaverim to Him, saying to Him, Master, trouble not yourself: for I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof:

7 Therefore neither thought I myself worthy to come to You: but just say Your Word and my eved shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers and I say to one, Go and he goes; and to another, Come and he comes; and to my eved, Do this and he does it.

9 When וַיֵּלֶךְ heard these things, He marveled at him and turned around and said to the people that followed Him, I say to you, I have not found so great emunah, no, not in Yisrael.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the bayit, found the eved whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the yom after, that He went into a city called Naim; and many of His talmidim went with Him and many people.

12 Now when He came near to the gate of the city, see, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his eema and she was a widow: and many people of the city were with her.

13 And when וַיֵּלֶךְ saw her, He had rachamim on her and said to her, Weep not!

14 And He came and touched the casket: and they that carried him stood still. And He said, Young man, I say to you, arise!

15 And he that was dead sat up and began to speak. And He delivered him to his eema.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they esteemed וַיֵּלֶךְ, saying, That a great Navi has risen up among us; and, That Ahloha has visited His people.

17 And this news about Him went forth throughout all the province of Yahudah and throughout the entire region all around.

18 And the talmidim of Yochanan showed him of all these things.

19 And Yochanan calling to him two of His talmidim sent them to סוֹפְרָאן, saying, Are You He that should come? Or, do we look for another?

20 When the men were come to Him, they said, Yochanan ha Matbeel has sent us to You, saying, Are You He that should come? Or, should we look for another?

21 And in that same hour He cured many of their infirmities and plagues and shedim; and to many that were blind He gave them sight.

22 Then סוֹפְרָאן answering said to them, Go your way and tell Yochanan what things you have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised and to the poor The Besorah is proclaimed.

23 And favored is he, who does not stumble because of Me.

24 And when the messengers of Yochanan had departed, He began to speak to the people concerning Yochanan, What went you out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went you out for to see? A man clothed in soft garments? See, those who are splendidly dressed and live delicately, are in melechim's courts.

26 But what went you out to see? A navi? Yes, I say to you and much more than a navi.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, See, I send My messenger and he shall prepare the derech before Me.

28 For I say to you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater navi than Yochanan ha Matbeel: but he that is least in the malchut of אֱלֹהִים is greater than him.

29 And all the people that heard Him, even the tax collectors, declared Ahloha to be tzadik, being immersed by the mikvah of Yochanan.

30 But the Prushim and Torah-teachers rejected the will of אֱלֹהִים for themselves, not being immersed by him.

31 And סוֹפְרֵי אֵיזֵר said, To what shall I liken the men of this nation? And what are they like?

32 They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling one to another and saying, We have played the flute for you and you have not danced; we have lamented for you and you have not wept.

33 For Yochanan ha Matbeel came neither eating lechem nor drinking wine; and you say, That he has a shed.

34 The Ben Ahdahm has come eating and drinking; and you say, See a gluttonous man and a wine drinker, a chaver of tax collectors and sinners!

35 But chochmah is justified by all its works.

36 And one of the Prushim desired that He would eat with him. And He went into the Prush's bayit and sat down to eat.

37 And, see, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that סוֹפְרֵי אֵיזֵר sat to eat in the Prush's bayit, brought an alabaster vase of oil, 38 And stood at His feet behind Him weeping and began to wash His feet with tears and did wipe them with the hairs of her head and kissed His feet and anointed them with oil.

39 Now when the Prush who had invited Him saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This Man, if He were a navi, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that touches Him: for she is a sinner.

40 And אמר answering said to him, Shimon, I have something to say to you. And he said, Master, say it.

41 There was a certain creditor who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he forgave them both. Tell Me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Shimon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And He said to him, You have rightly judged.

44 And He turned to the woman and said to Shimon, See this woman? I entered into your bayit, you gave Me no mayim for My feet: but she has washed My feet with tears and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 You gave Me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in has not ceased to kiss My feet.

46 My head with oil you did not anoint: but this woman has anointed My feet with perfume.

47 Therefore I say to you, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little.

48 And He said to her, Your sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at the shulchan with Him began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgives sins also?

50 And He said to the woman, Your emunah has saved you; go in shalom.

8 And it came to pass afterward, that He went throughout every city and village, proclaiming and showing The Besorah of the malchut of אשר: and the twelve were with Him,

2 And certain women, who had been healed of shedim and infirmities, Miryam called Magdala, out of whom were expelled seven shedim,

3 And Yochana the isha of Chuza Herod's manager and Shoshanna and many others, who attended to Him from their substance.

4 And when many people were gathered together and had come to Him out of every city, He spoke by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his zera: and as he sowed, some fell by the wayside; and it was trodden down and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it sprung up, it withered away because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it.

8 And some fell on tov ground and sprang up and produced fruit a hundredfold. And when He had said these things, He cried, He that has ears to hear let him hear.

9 And His talmidim asked Him, What is this parable about?

10 And He said, To you it is given to know the sods of the malchut of אִיִּיִּי: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The zera is The Word of אִיִּיִּי.

12 Those by the wayside are those that hear; then comes s.a.tan and takes away the word out of their levavot, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 Those on the rock are those, who, when they hear, receive the word with simcha; and these have no root, which for a while believe and in time of trial fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with the cares and riches and pleasures of this chayim and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that zera on the tov ground are those, who in an honest and tov lev, having heard the word, keep it and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 No man, when he has lit a candle, covers it with a vessel, or puts it under a bed; but sets it on a menorah that those who enter in may see the ohr.

17 For nothing is secret that shall not be made manifest; neither anything hidden, that shall not be known and come out.

18 Be careful therefore how you hear: for whoever has, to him shall be given; and whoever has not, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have.

19 Then came to Him His eema and His brothers and could not come to Him because of the crowd.

20 And it was told to Him by certain men who said, Your eema and Your brothers stand outside, desiring to see You.

21 And He answered and said to them, My eema and My Yisraelite brothers are those who hear The Word of אִשְׂרָאֵל and are doing it.

22 Now it came to pass on a certain yom, that He went into a ship with His talmidim: and He said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they set out.

23 But as they sailed He fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with mayim and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the mayim: and they ceased and there was a calm.

25 And He said to them, Where is your emunah? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this; for He commands even the winds and mayim and they obey Him?

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galil.

27 And when He went forth to land, there met Him out of the province a certain man, who had a shed a long time and wore no clothes, neither stayed in any bayit, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw וַיֵּצֵא, he cried out and fell down before Him and with a loud voice said, What do we have in common, Yahushua, Son of El-Elyon? I beg You, torment me not.

29 For He had commanded the shed to come out of the man. For often it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in shackles; and he broke the bands and was driven by the shed into the wilderness.

30 And וַיֵּצֵא asked him, saying, What is your name? And he said, Legion: because many shedim were entered into him.

31 And they asked Him that He would not command them to go out into the bottomless pit.

32 And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the har: and they asked Him that He would allow them to attack them. And He allowed them.

33 Then went the shedim out of the man and attacked the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to וַיֵּצֵא and found the man, out of whom the shedim were expelled, sitting at the feet of օַוֶּיֶאָז, clothed and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the shedim was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes all around asked Him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and He went up into the ship and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the shedim were departed asked Him if he might stay with Him: but օַוֶּיֶאָז sent him away, saying, 39 Return to your own bayit and show what great things אֶיֶאָז has done to you. And he went his way and published throughout the whole city what great things օַוֶּיֶאָז had done to him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when օַוֶּיֶאָז returned, the people gladly received Him: for they were all waiting for Him.

41 And, see, there came a man named Yair and he was a shamesh of the synagogue: and he fell down at օַוֶּיֶאָז's feet and asked Him to come into his bayit:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age and she lay dying. But as He went the people thronged Him.

43 And a woman having an issue of dahm twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any,

44 Came behind Him and touched the tzitzit of His garment: and immediately her issue of dahm stopped.

45 And օַוֶּיֶאָז said, Who touched Me? When all denied it, Kefa and they that were with Him said, Master, the multitudes throng You and press You and yet You ask, Who touched Me?

46 And օַוֶּיֶאָז said, Somebody has touched Me: for I perceive that Power has gone out of Me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling and falling down before Him, she declared to Him before all the people the reason she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And He said to her, Daughter, be of tov comfort: your emunah has made you whole; go in shalom.

49 While He yet spoke, there came one from the shamesh of the synagogue's bayit, saying to him, Your daughter is dead; trouble not The Master.

50 But when וַיִּשְׁמָע heard it, He answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only and she shall be made whole.

51 And when He came into the bayit, He allowed no man to go in, except Kefa and Yaakov and Yochanan and The Abba and the eema of the girl.

52 And all wept and mourned her: but He said, Weep not; she is not dead, but only sleeping.

53 And they laughed Him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And He put them all out and took her by the hand and called, saying, Young girl, arise.

55 And her ruach returned and she arose immediately: and He commanded them to give her something to eat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but He ordered them that they should tell no man what was done.

9 Then He called His twelve talmidim together and gave them Power and authority over all shedim and to cure diseases.

2 And He sent them to proclaim the malchut of וַיִּשְׁמָע and to heal the sick.

3 And He said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor bags, neither lechem, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatever bayit you enter into, there abide and then depart.

5 And whoever will not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a witness against them.

6 And they departed and went through the towns, proclaiming The Besorah and healing everywhere.

7 Now Herod the district ruler heard about all that was done by Him: and he was perplexed because that it was said by some, that Yochanan was risen from the dead;

8 And by some, that Eli-Yahu had appeared; and by others, that one of the old neviim had risen again.

9 And Herod said, Yochanan have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see Him.

10 And the shlichim, when they had returned, told Him all that they had done. And He took them and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Beth-Saida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed Him: and He received them and spoke to them of the malchut of אֱלֹהִים and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the yom began to wane, then came the twelve and said to Him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country all around and lodge and get food: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But He said to them, You give them to eat! And they said, We have only five loaves and two fishes; unless we go and buy food for all this people.

14 For there were about five thousand men. And He said to His talmidim, Make them sit down by fifties in a company!

15 And they did so and made them all sit down.

16 Then He took the five loaves and the two fishes and looking up to the shamayim, He said the bracha and broke them and gave to the talmidim to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat and were all filled: and there was taken up from the fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 And it came to pass, as He was alone making tefillot, His talmidim were with Him: and He asked them, saying, Who do the people say that I AM?

19 They answering said, Yochanan ha Matbeel; but some say, Eli-Yahu; and others say, that one of the old neviim has risen again.

20 He said to them, But who do you say that I AM? Kefa answering said, The Moshiach of אֱלֹהִים.

21 And He strictly ordered them and commanded them to tell this to no man.

22 Saying, The Ben Ahdahm must suffer many things and be rejected by the zechanim and chief kohanim and Sophrim and be killed and be raised the third yom.

23 And He said to them all, If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his execution stake daily and follow Me.

24 For whoever will save his chayim shall lose it: but whoever will lose his chayim for My sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gains the whole olam hazeh and loses himself, or is thrown away?

26 For whoever shall be ashamed of Me and of My Words, of him shall The Ben Ahdahm be ashamed, when He shall come with the tifereth of His Abba, accompanied by the kadosh heavenly malachim.

27 But I tell you the emet, there are some standing here, who shall not taste of death, until they see the malchut of אֱלֹהִים.

28 And it came to pass about eight yamim after these sayings, He took Kefa and Yochanan and Yaakov and went up into a har to make tefillah.

29 And as He made tefillah, the appearance of His countenance was altered and His garment was white and dazzling.

30 And, see, there talked with Him two men, who were Moshe and Eli-Yahu:

31 Who appeared in tifereth and spoke of His death that He would accomplish at Yahrushalayim.

32 But Kefa and they that were with Him were heavy with sleep: and when they awoke, they saw His tifereth and the two men that stood with Him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from Him, Kefa said to ⲟⲩⲏⲁⲓⲛ, Master, it is tov for us to be here: and let us make three sukkot; one for You and one for Moshe and one for Eli-Yahu: not knowing what he said.

34 While he spoke, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is My Beloved Son: Hear Him.

36 And when the voice was past, Yahushua was found alone. And they kept it quiet and told no man in those yamim any of those things that they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next yom, when they had come down from the har, many people met Him.

38 And, see, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beg You, look upon my son: for he is my only child.

39 And, see, a ruach seizes him and he suddenly cries out; and it convulses him with foaming and it hardly departs from him bruising him.

40 And I asked Your talmidim to expel it; and they could not.

41 And אמר answering said, O unbelieving and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here!

42 And as he was coming, the shed threw him down and tore at him. And אמר rebuked the shed and healed the child and delivered him again to his abba.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty Power of אמר. But while they all marveled every one at all the things that אמר did, He said to His talmidim, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for The Ben Ahdahm shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying and it was hidden from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask Him about that saying.

46 Then there arose a dispute among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And אמר, perceiving the thoughts of their levavot, took a child and set him by His side, 48 And said to them, Whoever shall receive this child in My Name receives Me: and whoever shall receive Me receives Him that sent Me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And Yochanan answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out shedim in Your Name; and we rebuked him because he is not with us as Your follower.

50 And אמר said to him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the time had come that He should be offered up, He prepared His face to go to Yahrushalayim, 52 And sent messengers before His face: and they went and entered into a village of the Shomronites, to make ready for Him.

53 And they did not receive Him because His face was directed as though He would go to Yahrushalayim.

54 And when His talmidim Yaakov and Yochanan saw this, they said, Master, will You that we command fire to come down from the shamayim and consume them, even as Eli-Yahu did?

55 But He turned and rebuked them and said, You know not what manner of ruach you are of!

56 For The Ben Ahdahm has not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 And it came to pass, that, as they went in the derech, a certain man said to Him, Master, I will follow You wherever You go.

58 And סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז said to him, Foxes have holes and birds of the air have nests; but The Ben Ahdahm has nowhere to lay His head.

59 And He said to another, Follow Me. But he said, Master, allow me first to go and bury my abba.

60 סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז said to him, Let the dead bury their dead: but you go and proclaim the malchut of אֱלֹהֵי־אֲבֹתֵינוּ.

61 And another also said, Master, I will follow You; but let me first entrust my home to someone and then come.

62 And סוֹפְרֵי־אֵז said to him, No man, having put his hand to the plough handle and looking back, is fit for the malchut of אֱלֹהֵי־אֲבֹתֵינוּ.

10 After these things He appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two before His face into every city and place, where He Himself would come.

2 Therefore He said to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: make tefillah therefore to The Master of the harvest, that He would send forth laborers into His harvest.

3 Go your derachot: see, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor bag, nor sandals: and join with no man along the derech.

5 And into whatever bayit you enter, first say, Shalom to this bayit.

6 And if the son of shalom is there, your shalom shall rest upon it: if not, it shall return to you again.

7 And in the same bayit remain, eating and drinking such things as they give you: for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Go not from bayit to bayit.

8 And into whatever city you enter and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are there and say to them, The malchut of אִיִּי has come near to you.

10 But into whatever city you enter and they receive you not, go out into the streets and say, 11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaves on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be you sure of this, that the malchut of אִיִּי is offered to you.

12 But I say to you, That it shall be more tolerable in that yom for Sedom, than for that city.

13 Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Beth-Saida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tsor and Tsidon, which have been done in you, they would have a great while ago made teshuvah, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tsor and Tsidon at the Yom HaDin, than for you.

15 And you, Kfar Nachum that is exalted to the shamayim shall be thrown down to Sheol.

16 He that hears you hears Me; and he that despises you despises Me; and he that despises Me despises Him that sent Me.

17 And the seventy returned again with simcha, saying, Master, even the shedim were subject to us through Your Name.

18 And He said to them, I beheld s.a.tan as lightning fall from the shamayim.

19 See, I give to you Power to tread on serpents and scorpions and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 But rejoice not, that the shedim are subject to you; but rather rejoice because your names are written in the shamayim.

21 In that hour $\alpha\omega\iota\alpha\lambda\lambda\alpha$ rejoiced in The Ruach HaKodesh and said, Todah raba, O Abba, Sovereign of the shamayim and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes: even so, Abba; for so it seemed tov in Your sight.

22 All things are delivered to Me by My Abba: and no man knows who The Son is, but The Abba; and who The Abba is, but The Son and he to whom The Son wishes to reveal Him.

23 And He turned to His talmidim and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see:

24 For I tell you, that many neviim and melechim have desired to see those things which you see and have not seen them; and to hear those things which you hear and have not heard them.

25 And, see, a certain Torah teacher stood up and tested Him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal chayim?

26 He said to him, What is written in the Torah? How do you read it?

27 And he answering said, You shall love The Master אלהים your Ahloha with all your lev and with all your being and with all your strength and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.

28 And He said to him, You have answered right: these do and you shall live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said to אלהים: And who is my neighbor?

30 And אלהים answering said, A certain man went down from Yahrushalayim to Yericho and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his garment and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain kohen that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lewi, when he was at the place, came and looked at him and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Shomronite, as he journeyed, came to where he was: and when he saw him, he had rachamim on him, 34 And went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine and set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn and took care of him.

35 And in the boker when he departed, he took out two pieces of silver and gave them to the innkeeper and said to him, Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I come again, I will repay you.

36 Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to him that fell victim among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that showed rachamim to him. Then said אלהים to him, Go and do likewise!

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that He entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received Him into her bayit.

39 And she had a sister called Miryam, who also sat at וּפְתָחַי's feet and heard His Word.

40 But Martha was occupied with much serving and came to Him and said, Master, don't You care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Speak to her therefore that she help me.

41 And וּפְתָחַי answered and said to her, Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is required: and Miryam has chosen that טוֹב part, which shall not be taken away from her.

11 And it came to pass, that, as He was making tefillot in a certain place, when He ceased, one of His talmidim said to Him, Master, teach us to make tefillah, as Yochanan also taught His talmidim.

2 And He said to them, When you make tefillah, say, Our Abba who is in the shamayim, kadosh be Your Name. Your malchut come. Your ratzon be done, as in the shamayim, also in the earth.

3 Give us yom by yom our daily lechem.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into trial; but deliver us from the wicked one and error.

5 And He said to them, Which of you shall have a chaver and shall go to him at midnight and say to him, Chaver, lend me three loaves;

6 For a chaver of mine in his journey has come to me and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give you.

8 I say to you, If he will not rise and give him because he is his chaver, yet because of his persistence he will rise and give him as much as he needs.

9 And I say to you, Ask and it shall be given you; seek and you shall find; knock and it shall be opened to you.

10 For every one that asks receives; and he that seeks finds; and to him that knocks it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask for lechem from any of you that is an abba, will he give him a stone? Or, if he asks for a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or, if he shall ask for an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If you then, being evil, know how to give tov gifts to your children: how much more shall your Heavenly Abba give The Ruach Hakodesh to them that ask Him?

14 And He was casting out a shed and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the shed was gone out, the dumb spoke; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casts out shedim through Ba'al-Zevuv the chief of the shedim.

16 And others, testing Him, sought from Him an ot from the shamayim.

17 But He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every malchut divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a bayit divided against a bayit falls.

18 If s.a.tan also were divided against himself, how shall his malchut stand? Because you say that I expel shedim through Ba'al-Zevuv.

19 And if I by Ba'al-Zevuv expel shedim, by whom do your sons expel them? Therefore shall they be your shophtim.

20 But if I with the finger of אֶפְרַיִם expel shedim, no doubt the malchut of אֶפְרַיִם is offered to you.

21 When a strong-armed man keeps his courtyard, his goods are safe:

22 But when a stronger one than he shall come upon him and overcome him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted and divides his spoils.

23 He that is not with Me is against Me: and he that gathers not with Me scatters.

24 When the unclean ruach is gone out of a man, he walks through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he said, I will return to my bayit where I came from.

25 And when he is coming, he finds it swept and garnished.

26 Then he goes and takes with him seven other shedim more wicked than himself; and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as He spoke these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice and said to Him, Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts which You have sucked.

28 But He said, Yes, rather, favored are they that hear The Word of אִתְּכֶם and guard it.

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, He began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek an ot; and there shall no ot be given it, but the ot of Yonah the navi.

30 For as Yonah was an ot to the Ninevites, so also shall The Ben Ahdahm be to this generation.

31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the Yom HaDin with the men of this generation and condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the chochmah of Shlomo; and, see, a greater than Shlomo is here.

32 The men of Ninveh shall rise up in the Yom HaDin with this generation and shall condemn it: for they repented at the proclaiming of Yonah; and, see, a greater than Yonah is here.

33 No man, when he has lit a candle, puts it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a menorah, that those who come in may see the ohr.

34 The ohr of the gooff is the eye: therefore when your eye is single, your whole gooff also is full of ohr; but when your eye is sick, your gooff also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the ohr that is in you be not darkness.

36 If your whole gooff therefore be full of ohr, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of ohr, as when the bright shining of a candle does give you ohr.

37 And as He spoke, a certain Prush asked Him to dine with him: and He went in and sat down to eat.

38 And when the Prush saw it, he marveled that He had not first washed before dinner.

39 And סוף ארז said to him, Now do you Prushim make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of greed and wickedness.

40 You fools, did not He that made that which is on the outside make that which is within also?

41 But rather give kindness of such things as you have within; and, see, all things are clean to you.

42 But woe to you, Prushim! For you give maaser mint and rue and all manner of herbs and pass over mishpatim and the ahava of ארז: these you should have done and not to leave the others undone.

43 Woe to you, Prushim! For you love the uppermost seats in the synagogues and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe to you, Sophrim and Prushim, hypocrites! For you are as graves that are not seen and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the Torah teachers and said to Him, Master, with this saying You insulted us also.

46 And He said, Woe to you also, you Torah teachers! For you load men with burdens hard to bear and you yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the neviim and your ahvot killed them.

48 Truly you bear witness that you allow the deeds of your ahvot: for they indeed killed them and you built their tombs.

49 Therefore also said the Chochmah of Ahloha, I will send them neviim and shlichim and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the dahm of all the neviim that was shed from the foundation of the olam hazeh may be required of this nation;

51 From the dahm of Hevel to the dahm of Zacharyah, who perished between the altar and the Beit HaMikdash: truly I say to you, It shall be required of this nation.

52 Woe to you, Torah teachers! For you have taken away the key of da'at: you entered not in yourselves and them that were entering in you hindered.

53 And as He said these things to them, the Sophrim and the Prushim began to oppose Him vehemently and to provoke Him to speak on many subjects:

54 Lying in wait for Him and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

12 In the meantime, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His talmidim first, Beware of the chametz of the Prushim, which is hypocrisy.

2 For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither hidden, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatever you have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the ohr; and that which you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say to you My chaverim, Be not afraid of them that kill the gooff and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will show you whom you shall fear: Fear Him, who after He has killed has Power to throw into Gei-Hinnom; yes, I say to you, Fear Him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins and not one of them is forgotten before אֱלֹהִים ?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: you are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say to you, Whoever shall confess Me before men, Him shall The Ben Ahdahm also confess before the heavenly malachim of אֱלֹהִים:

9 But he that denies Me before men shall be denied before the heavenly malachim of אֱלֹהִים.

10 And whoever shall speak a word against The Ben Ahdahm, it shall be forgiven him: but to him that blasphemes against The Ruach Hakodesh it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you to the synagogues and to rulers and authorities, take no thought how, or what thing you shall answer, or what you shall say:

12 For The Ruach Hakodesh shall teach you in the same hour what you ought to say.

13 And one of the company said to Him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And He said to him, Man, who made Me a shophet, or a divider over you?

15 And He said to them, Take heed and beware of greed: for a man's chayim consists not in the abundance of the things that he possesses.

16 And He spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do because I have no room where to store my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones; and there will I store all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my being, Being, you have much goods laid up for many years; take it easy, eat, drink and celebrate.

20 But אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to him, You fool, this lyla your being shall be required from you: then whose shall those things be, which you have prepared?

21 So is he that lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

22 And He said to His talmidim, Therefore I say to you, Take no thought for your chayim, what you shall eat; neither for the gooff, what you shall put on.

23 Your chayim is more than food and your gooff is more than a garment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouses nor barns; and אִיִּזְרָאֵל feeds them: how much more are you better than the fowls?

25 And which of you by worrying can add to his height one cubit?

26 If you then are not able to do the thing that is least, why worry about the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say to you, That Shlomo in all his tifereth was not dressed like one of these.

28 If then אִיִּזְרָאֵל so clothe the grass, which today is in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the fireplace; how much more will He clothe you, O you of little trust?

29 And seek not what you shall eat, or what you shall drink, neither keep worrying.

30 For all these things do the goyim of the olam hazeh seek after: and your Abba knows that you have need of these things.

31 But rather seek the malchut of אִתְּךָ; and all these things shall be added to you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Abba's tov pleasure to give you the malchut.

33 Sell what you have and give in kindness; provide yourselves bags which grow not old, a treasure in the shamayim that fails not, where no thief approaches, neither moth corrupts.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your lev be also.

35 Let your loins be bound and your lights burning;

36 And you yourselves like men that wait for their Master, when He will return from the wedding; that when He is coming and knocks, they may open to Him immediately.

37 Blessed are those avadim, whom The Master when He is coming shall find watching: truly I say to you, That He shall gird himself and make them to sit down to eat and will go around and serve them.

38 And if He shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch and find them watching, favored are those avadim.

39 And this know, that if the owner of the bayit had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not have allowed his bayit to be broken into.

40 Be you therefore ready also: for The Ben Ahdahm is coming at an hour when you think not.

41 Then Kefa said to Him, Master, are You speaking this parable to us, or even to everyone?

42 And אֲנִי said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom His Master shall make ruler over His household, to give them their portion of food in due season?

43 Blessed is that eved, whom His Master when He comes shall find so doing.

44 Of an emet I say to you, That He will make him ruler over all that He has.

45 But if that eved says in his lev, My Master delays His coming; and shall begin to beat the male avadim and female avadim and to eat and drink and to be drunk;

46 The Master of that eved will come in a yom when he looks not for Him and at an hour when he is not aware and will cut him in two and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that eved, who knew His Master's will and did not prepare himself, neither did according to His will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For to whom much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the most.

49 I AM come to send fire on the earth; and how I wish that it were already lit?

50 But I have a mikvah to be immersed with; and how am I greatly afflicted until it be accomplished!

51 Do you think that I have come to give shalom to the earth? I tell you, No; but rather division:

52 For from now on there shall be five in one bayit divided, three against two and two against three.

53 The Abba shall be divided against the son and the son against the abba; the eema against the daughter and the daughter against the eema; the eema-in-law against her daughter-in-law and the daughter-in-law against her eema-in-law.

54 And He said also to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the west, immediately you say, There is coming a shower; and so it is.

55 And when you see the south wind blow, you say, There will be heat; and it comes to pass.

56 You hypocrites, you can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that you do not discern this time?

57 Yes and why even yourselves you judge not what is right?

58 When you go with your adversary to the ruler, as you are in the derech, give diligence that you may be delivered from him; lest he drag you to the shophet and the shophet deliver you to the officer and the officer cast you into prison.

59 I tell you, you shall not depart from there, until you have paid the very last coin.

13 There were present at that season some that told Him of the Galilaeans, whose dahm Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.

2 And וַיֻּאָמַר answering said to them, Do you think that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, No: but, except you make teshuvah, you shall all likewise perish

4 Or, those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Yahrushalayim?

5 I tell you, No: but, except you make teshuvah, you shall all likewise perish.

6 He spoke also this parable; A certain man had a fig eytz planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit on it and found none.

7 Then he said to the dresser of his vineyard, See, these three years I came seeking fruit on this fig eytz and found none: cut it down; why should the ground be wasted?

8 And he answering said to him, Master, leave it alone this year again, until I shall dig around it and cast manure on it:

9 And if it bears fruit, well: and if not, then after that You shall cut it down.

10 And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on The Shabbat.

11 And, see, there was a woman who had a ruach of infirmity eighteen years and was bent over and could in no way lift herself up.

12 And when סוֹפֵרֵי saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, Woman, you are loosed from your infirmity.

13 And He laid His Hands on her: and immediately she was made straight and esteemed אִשָּׁה.

14 And the rabbi of the synagogue answered with indignation because סוֹפֵרֵי had healed on The Shabbat and said to the people, There are six yamim in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed and not on The Shabbat.

15 סוֹפֵרֵי then answered him and said, You hypocrite, does not each one of you on The Shabbat loose his ox, or his donkey from the stall and lead him away to watering?

16 And should not this woman, being a daughter of Avraham, whom s.a.tan has bound, see, these eighteen years, be set free from this bond on The Shabbat?

17 And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed: and the entire nation had gilah for all the wonderful things that were done by Him.

18 Then He said, To what is the malchut of אִשָּׁה like? And to what shall I compare it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard zera, which a man took and threw into his garden; and it grew and grew into a great eytz; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again He said, To what shall I liken the malchut of אִיִּזְרָאֵל?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened.

22 And He went through the cities and villages, teaching and journeying toward Yahrushalayim.

23 Then someone said to Him, Master, are there few that will be saved? And He said to them, 24 Strive to enter in at the narrow gate: for many, I say to you, Will seek to enter in and shall not be able.

25 Once The Master of the bayit is risen up and has shut the door and you begin to stand outside and to knock on the door, saying, Master, Master, open to us; and He shall answer and say to you, I know you not where you are from:

26 Then shall you begin to say, We ate and drank in your presence and You have taught in our streets.

27 But He shall say, I tell you, I know you not where you are from; depart from Me, all you workers of Torah-less-ness.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you shall see Avraham and Yitzchak and Yaakov and all the neviim, in the malchut of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and you yourselves thrown out.

29 And they shall come from the east and from the west and from the north and from the south and shall sit down in the malchut of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

30 And, see, there are last which shall be first and there are first which shall be last.

31 The same yom there came certain of the Prushim, saying to Him, Get going and depart from here: for Herod will kill You.

32 And He said to them, You go and tell that fox, See, I expel shedim and I do cures today and tomorrow and on the third yom I shall be finished.

33 Nevertheless I must work today and tomorrow and the yom following: for it cannot be that The Navi perishes outside of Yahrushalayim.

34 O Yahrushalayim, Yahrushalayim, which kills the neviim and stones them that are sent to you; how often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen does gather her chicks under her wings and you O' Yisrael did not want it!

35 See, Beit Yisrael is left to you desolate: and truly I say to you, You shall not see Me, until the time comes when you shall say, baruch haba beshem HaAdon אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

14 And it came to pass, as He went into the bayit of one of the chief Prushim to eat lechem on The Shabbat, that they watched Him.

2 And, see, there was a certain man before Him who had the dropsy.

3 And אַתְּוֹפֵי אֲנִי answering spoke to the Torah teachers and Prushim, saying, Is it permitted in Torah to heal on The Shabbat Yom?

4 And they held their silence. And He took him and healed him and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have a donkey, or an ox fall into a pit and will not immediately pull him out on The Shabbat Yom?

6 And they could not answer Him about these things.

7 And He put forth a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose out the best places at moadeem; saying to them,

8 When you are invited by any man to a wedding, do not sit down in the best place; lest he invite a more honorable man than you;

9 And he that invited both of you comes and says to you, Give this man the best place; and you begin with shame to take the last place.

10 But when you are invited, go and sit down in the last place; so that when he that invited you comes, he may say to you, Chaver, go up higher: then shall you have kavod in the presence of those that recline at the moed with you.

11 For whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and he that humbles himself shall be exalted.

12 Then He said also to the one that invited Him, When you make a dinner, or a supper, call not your chaverim, nor your Yisraelite brothers, neither your relatives, nor your rich neighbors; lest they also invite you again and a repayment be made to you.

13 But when you observe a moed, call the poor, the maimed, the lame and the blind:

14 And you shall be favored; for they cannot repay you: for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just.

15 And when one of them that was reclining with Him, heard these things, he said to Him, Blessed is he that shall eat lechem in the malchut of אֱלֹהִים.

16 Then He said to him, A certain man made a great supper and invited many:

17 And sent his eved at supper time to say to them that were invited, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all began making excuses. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of property and I must go and see it: I ask you have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen and I go to try them out: I ask you have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married an isha and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that eved came and showed His Master these things. Then The Master of the bayit being angry said to his eved, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in here the poor and the crippled, the lame and the blind.

22 And the eved said, Master, it is done as you have commanded and yet there is still room.

23 And The Master said to the eved, Go out into the highways and hedges and compel them to come in, that My bayit may be filled.

24 For I say to you, That none of those men who were invited shall taste of My supper.

25 And there went great multitudes with Him: and He turned and said to them, 26 If any man comes to Me and does not put aside his abba and eema and isha and children and brothers and sisters, yes and his own chayim also, he cannot be My talmid.

27 And whoever does not bear his execution stake and come after Me, cannot be My talmid.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sits not down first and counts the cost, whether he has sufficient supplies to finish it?

29 Otherwise, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, all that see it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build and was not able to finish.

31 Or, what melech, going to make war against another melech, sits not down first and consults whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that is coming against him with twenty thousand?

32 If not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and desires conditions of shalom.

33 So likewise, any of you that forsakes not all that he has, he cannot be My talmid.

34 Salt is tov: but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that has ears to hear let him hear.

15 Then drew near to Him all the tax collectors and sinners to hear Him.

2 And the Prushim and Sophrim grumbled, saying, This Man receives sinners and eats with them.

3 And He spoke this parable to them, saying,

4 What man among you, having a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the ninety nine in the wilderness and goes after that which is lost, until he finds it?

5 And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he is coming home, he calls together his chaverim and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep that was lost.

7 I say to you, That likewise simcha shall be in the shamayim over one sinner that repents, more than over ninety-nine tzadikim, who need no teshuvah.

8 Or, what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loses one piece, does not light a candle and sweep the bayit, and seek diligently until she finds it?

9 And when she has found it, she calls her chaverim and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece that I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say to you, There is simcha in the presence of the heavenly malachim of אַף אַז over one sinner that repents.

11 And He said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his abba, Abba, give me the portion of goods that belongs to me. And he divided to them his living.

13 And not many yamim after the younger son gathered all things together and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he was longing to fill his belly with the pods that the swine did eat: and no man gave to him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired avadim of my abba's have lechem enough and to spare and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my abba and will say to him, Abba, I have sinned against the shamayim and before you, 19 And am no more worthy to be called your son: make me as one of your hired avadim.

20 And he arose and came to his abba. But when he was yet a great way off, his abba saw him and had rachamim and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.

21 And the son said to him, Abba, I have sinned against the shamayim and in your sight and am no more worthy to be called your son.

22 But The Abba said to his avadim, Bring forth the best robe and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring here the fatted calf and kill it; and let us eat and celebrate:

24 For this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found. And they began to celebrate.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew near to the bayit, he heard music and dancing.

26 And he called one of the avadim and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said to him, Your brother has come; and your abba has killed the fatted calf because he has received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry and would not go in: therefore his abba came out and pleaded with him.

29 And he answering said to his abba, See, these many years do I serve you, neither transgressed I at any time your commandment: and yet you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my chaverim:

30 But as soon as this your son has come, who has devoured your living with harlots, you have killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said to him, Son, you are always with me and all that I have is yours.

32 It was right that we should celebrate and be in simcha: for this your brother was dead and is alive again; and was lost and is found.

16 And He said also to His talmidim, There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same steward was accused of wasting his wealth.

2 And he called him and said to him, How is it that I hear this about you? Give an account of your stewardship; for you may no longer be steward.

3 Then the steward said to himself, What shall I do? For my master takes away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what to do, so that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his master's debtors to him and said to the first, How much do you owe my master?

6 And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take your bill and sit down quickly and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another: And how much do you owe? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take your bill and write eighty.

8 And the master commended the unjust steward because he had done wisely: for the children of the olam hazeh are in their generation wiser than the children of ohr.

9 And I say to you, Make for yourselves chaverim of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when you fail, they may receive you into everlasting dwellings.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the emet riches?

12 And if you have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No eved can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve אֱלֹהִים and wealth.

14 And the Prushim also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they ridiculed Him.

15 And He said to them, You are they which justify yourselves before men; but אֱלֹהִים knows your levavot: for that which is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of אֱלֹהִים.

16 The Torah and the neviim were concerning Yochanan: since that time the malchut of אֱלֹהִים is proclaimed and every man presses into it.

17 And it is easier for the shamayim and earth to pass, than one letter of the Torah to fail.

18 Whoever puts away his isha and marries another, commits adultery: and whoever marries her that is undivorced from her husband commits adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen and fared very well every yom:

20 And there was a certain beggar named El-Azar, who was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 Desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's shulchan: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died and was carried by the heavenly malachim into Avraham's Bosom: the rich man also died and was buried;

23 And in Sheol he lifts up his eyes, being in torment and saw Avraham far off and El-Azar in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Abba Avraham, have rachamim on me and send El-Azar, that he may dip the tip of his finger in mayim and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Avraham said, Son, remember that you in your lifetime received your tov things and likewise El-Azar evil things: but now he is comforted and you are tormented.

26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that those who would pass from here to you cannot; neither can they pass to us that would come from there.

27 Then he said, I ask you therefore, abba Avraham that you would send him to my abba's bayit:

28 For I have five brothers; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Avraham said to him, They have Moshe Rabainu and the neviim; let them hear them.

30 And he said, No, Abba Avraham: but if one went to them from the dead, they will make teshuvah.

31 And he said to him, If they listen not to Moshe Rabainu and the neviim, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

17 Then said He to the talmidim, It is impossible that offences will not come: but woe to him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hung around his neck and he was thrown into the sea rather, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 Take heed to yourselves: If your brother trespasses against you, rebuke him; and if he makes teshuvah, forgive him.

4 And if he trespasses against you seven times in a yom and seven times in a yom turns again to you, saying, I make teshuvah; you shall forgive him.

5 And the shlichim said to וַיִּשְׁמַע, Increase our emunah.

6 And וַיִּשְׁמַע said, If you had emunah as a grain of mustard zera, you might say to this mulberry eytz, Be plucked up by the root and be planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having an eved plowing, or feeding cattle, will say to him immediately, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to eat?

8 But would you not rather say to him, Make ready for my supper and dress yourself and serve me, until I have eaten and drunk; and afterward you shall eat and drink?

9 Does he thank that eved because he did the things that were commanded him? I think not.

10 So likewise you, when you shall have done all those things that are commanded to you, say, We are unworthy avadim: we have done only that which was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as He went to Yahrushalayim that He passed through the midst of Shomron and Galil.

12 And as He entered into a certain village, there He met ten men that were lepers, who stood far off:

13 And they lifted up their voices and said, Yahushua, Master, have rachamim on us.

14 And when He saw them, He said to them, Go show yourselves to the kohanim! And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back and with a loud voice esteemed אִיִּי, 16 And fell down on his face at His feet, giving Him hodu: and he was a Shomronite.

17 And אַוִּיִּיִּי answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine who separated?

18 There are not found any that returned to give tifereth to אִיִּיִּי, except this stranger.

19 And He said to him, Arise, go your way: your emunah has made you whole.

20 And the Prushim demanded to know, when the malchut of אִיִּיִּי should come, He answered them and said, The malchut of אִיִּיִּי is not coming with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, See here! Or, See there! For, see, the malchut of אִיִּיִּי is within you.

22 And He said to the talmidim, The yamim will come, when you shall desire to see one of the yamim of The Ben Ahdahm and you shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or See there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that flashes out from one part under the shamayim and shines to the other part under the shamayim; so shall also The Ben Ahdahm be in His yom.

25 But first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 And as it was in the yamim of Noach, so shall it be also in the yamim of The Ben Ahdahm.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the yom that Noach entered into the ark and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the yamim of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;

29 But the same yom that Lot went out of Sedom it rained fire and brimstone from The Master אֵשׁ וָסֵלֶזְוִי from the shamayim and destroyed them all.

30 Even so shall it be in the yom when The Ben Ahdahm is revealed.

31 In that yom, he who shall be upon the housetop, with his belongings in the bayit, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's isha!

33 Whoever shall seek to save his chayim shall lose it; and whoever shall lose his chayim shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that lyla there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken and the other left.

37 And they responded and said to Him, Where, Master? And He said to them, Wherever the gooff is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

18 And He spoke a parable to them to this end, that men ought always to make tefillah and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was in a city a shopet, who feared not אףאז, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, Do right to me regarding my adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said to himself, Though I fear not Ahloha, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubles me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she wears me out.

6 And אףאז said, Hear what the unjust shopet said.

7 And shall not אףאז do tov to His own elect, who cry yom and lyla to Him, as He has patience with them?

8 I tell you that He will do tov to them speedily. Nevertheless when The Ben Ahdahm comes, shall He find emunah in the earth?

9 And He spoke this parable to certain people who trusted in themselves that they were tzadik and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the Beit HaMikdash to make tefillah; the one a Prush and the other a tax collector.

11 The Prush stood and made tefillah within himself, Ahloha, I thank You, that I am not as other men are, extortionists, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.

12 I fast two meals on The Shabbat; I give ma'aser of all that I possess.

13 And the tax collector, standing far off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to the shamayim, but smote his breast, saying, Ahloha be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his bayit justified rather than the other: for every one that exalts himself shall be humbled; and he that humbles himself shall be exalted.

15 And they brought to Him also infants, that He would touch them: but when His talmidim saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But וואסער called them to Him and said, Allow the little children to come to Me and forbid them not: for of such is the malchut of אויף איר.

17 Truly I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the malchut of אויף איר as a little child shall in no way enter there.

18 And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, Tov Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal chayim?

19 And וואסער said to him, Why do you call Me tov? No one is tov, except One, that is, אויף איר.

20 You know the mitzvoth, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your abba and your eema.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when וואסער heard these things, He said to him, Yet you lack one thing: sell all that you have and distribute to the poor and you shall have treasure in the shamayim: and come, follow Me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when וואסער saw that he was very sorrowful, He said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the malchut of אויסער.

25 For it is easier for a large Rope to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the malchut of אויסער.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And He said, The things, which are impossible with men, are possible with אויסער.

28 Then Kefa said, Look, we have left all and followed You.

29 And He said to them, Truly I say to you, There is no man that has left bayit, or parents, or brothers, or isha, or children, for the malchut of אויסער's sake, 30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time and in the olam haba chayim everlasting.

31 Then He took aside the twelve and said to them, See, we go up to Yahrushalayim and all things that are written by the neviim concerning The Ben Ahdahm shall be accomplished.

32 For He shall be delivered to the goyim and shall be mocked and insulted and spit on:

33 And they shall scourge and curse Him and put Him to death: and the third yom He shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hidden from them, neither knew they the things that were spoken.

35 And it came to pass, that as He was coming near to Yericho, a certain blind man sat by the wayside begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that וואסער of Natzeret passes by.

38 And he cried, saying, Yahushua, Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.

39 And those who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his shalom: but he cried much more, You Ben Dawid, have rachamim on me.

40 And אֲרָאָה stood and commanded him to be brought to Him: and when he had come near, He asked him, 41 Saying, What will you that I shall do for you? And he said, Master, that I may receive my sight.

42 And אֲרָאָה said to him, Receive your sight: your emunah has saved you.

43 And immediately he received his sight and followed Him, esteeming אֲרָאָה: and all the people, when they saw it, gave hodu to Ahloha.

19 And אֲרָאָה entered and passed through Yericho.

2 And, see, there was a man named Zakkai, who was the chief among the tax collectors and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see אֲרָאָה who He was; and could not due to the pressing crowds because he was short in height.

4 And he ran ahead and climbed up into a leafless eytz to see Him: for He was to pass that derech.

5 And when אֲרָאָה came to the place, He looked up and saw him and said to him, Zakkai, hurry and come down; for today I must abide at your bayit.

6 And he hurried and came down and received Him with simcha.

7 And when they saw it, they all grumbled, saying, That He had gone to be a guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zakkai stood and said to אֲרָאָה; See, Master, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore all things to him fourfold.

9 And וַיֹּאמֶר said to him, This yom is salvation come to this bayit because he also is a b'nai Avraham.

10 For The Ben Ahdahm has come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, He added another parable because He was near to Yahrushalayim and because they thought that the malchut of מַלְכוּת should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a malchut and to return.

13 And he called his ten avadim, and delivered to them ten pounds and said to them, Occupy until I come.

14 But his citizens hated him and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he returned, having received the malchut, then he commanded these avadim to be called to him, to whom he had given the money that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Master, Your pound has gained ten pounds.

17 And he said to him, Well done, you tov eved: because you have been faithful in very little, take authority over ten talents.

18 And the second came, saying, Master, Your pound has gained five pounds.

19 And He said likewise to him, Take authority also over five talents.

20 And another came, saying, Master, see, here is Your pound, which I have kept laid up in a purse:

21 For I feared you because you are a harsh man: you take up that which you laid not down and reap that which you did not sow.

22 And he said to him, Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked eved. You supposedly knew that I was a harsh man, taking up what I laid not down and reaping what I did not sow:

23 Then why didn't you put my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have collected my own with interest?

24 And he said to them that stood by, Take from him the pound and give it to him that has ten pounds.

25 And they said to Him, Master, he has ten pounds.

26 For I say to you, That to every one who has shall be given; and from him that has not, even that which he has shall be taken away from him.

27 But these enemies, who did not desire that I should reign over them, bring here and slay them before Me!

28 And when He had spoken this, He went ahead, ascending up to Yahrushalayim.

29 And it came to pass, when He was come near to Beth Phagi and Beth Anya, at the har called the Har of Olives, He sent two of His talmidim, 30 Saying, Go into the village opposite you; in which as you enter you shall find a colt tied, on which no man has sat: loose him and bring him here.

31 And if any man asks you, Why do you loose him? This shall you say to him, Because The Master has need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way and found it even as He had said to them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why do you loose the colt?

34 And they said, The Master has need of him.

35 And they brought him to וּפָאָרְזֵי: and they threw their garments upon the colt and they set וּפָאָרְזֵי on it.

36 And as He went, they spread their clothes in the דֶּרֶךְ.

37 And when He had come near, even now at the descent of the Har of Olives, the whole multitude of תַּלְמִידִים began to have גִּילָה and give תְּהִלָּה to אֱלֹהֵינוּ with a loud voice for all the mighty מִצְוֹת that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be The Melech that is coming in the Name of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ: שָׁלוֹם in the שָׁמַיִם and תִּפְרֵת in the highest.

39 And some of the פְּרוּשִׁים from among the multitude said to Him, Master, rebuke Your תַּלְמִידִים.

40 And He answered and said to them, I tell you that, if these should hold their שָׁלוֹם, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 And when He came near, He beheld the city and wept over it, 42 Saying, If you only knew, even in this your יּוֹם, the things that belong to your שָׁלוֹם! But now they are hidden from your eyes.

43 For the יָמִים shall come upon you, that your enemies shall cast a trench around you and surround you and press you in on every side, 44 And shall lay you even with the ground and your children within you; and they shall not leave in you one stone upon another; because you knew not the time of your visitation.

45 And He went into the בַּיִת הַמִּקְדָּשׁ and began to cast out them that sold there and them that bought;

46 Saying to them, It is written, My בַּיִת is the בַּיִת of תְּפִלָּה: but you have made it a den of thieves!

47 And He taught daily in the Beit HaMikdash. But the chief kohanim and the Sophrim and the chief of the people sought to destroy Him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear Him.

20 And it came to pass, that on one of those yamim, as He taught the people in the Beit HaMikdash and proclaimed The Besorah; the chief kohanim and the Sophrim came to Him with the zechanim,

2 And spoke to Him, saying, Tell us, by what authority do You do these things? Or, who is he that gave You this authority?

3 And He answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer Me:

4 The mikvah of Yochanan, was it from the shamayim, or from men?

5 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, From the shamayim; He will say, Why then didn't you believe him?

6 But if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that Yochanan was a navi.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell where it was from.

8 And סופרים said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then He began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and leased it forth to farmers and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent an eved to the farmers, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the farmers beat him and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another eved: and they beat him also and treated him shamefully and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also and threw him out.

13 Then said the master of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come; let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What therefore shall the master of the vineyard do to them?

16 He shall come and destroy these farmers and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, Let it not be.

17 And He beheld them and said, What is this then that is written, The Stone that the builders rejected, the same has become The Rosh Pina?

18 Everyone who falls upon that Stone shall be broken; but on whoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief kohanim and the Sophrim the same hour sought to lay hands on Him; but they feared the people: for they perceived that He had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched Him and sent forth spies, who pretended to be just men, that they might trap Him in His Words, that so they might deliver Him to the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked Him, saying, Master, we know that You say and teach rightly, neither are You partial to any man, but teach the halacha of Ahloha truly:

22 Is it right for us to give taxes to Kaiser, or not?

23 But He perceived their craftiness and said to them, Why do you try Me?

24 Show Me a silver piece. Whose image and inscription does it have? They answered and said, Kaiser's.

25 And He said to them, Render therefore to Kaiser the things that are Kaiser's and to אֱלֹהִים the things that are אֱלֹהִים's.

26 And they could not catch Him in His Words before the people: and they marveled at His answer and held their silence.

27 Then came to Him certain of the Tzadukim, who deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked Him, 28 Saying, Master, Moshe Rabainu wrote to us, If any man's brother dies, having an isha and he dies without children, that his brother should take his isha and raise up zera for his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brothers: and the first took an isha and died without children.

30 And the second took her as an isha and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner all seven also: and they all left no children and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose isha is she? For all seven had her as an isha.

34 And אֱלֹהִים answering said to them, The children of the olam hazeh marry and are given in marriage:

35 But those who shall be accounted worthy to obtain the olam haba and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die anymore: for they are like the heavenly malachim; and are the children of Ahloha, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, even Moshe showed at the bush, when he called The Master אֵלֹהִים the Ahloha of Avraham and the Ahloha of Yitzchak and the Ahloha of Yaakov.

38 For He is not the Ahloha of the dead, but of the living: for all live to Him.

39 Then certain of the Sophrim answering said, Master, You have well said.

40 And after that they did not ask Him any question at all.

41 And He said to them, How do they say that The Moshiach is Dawid's Son?

42 And yet Dawid himself said in the Scroll of Tehillim, The Master אֵלֹהִים said to My Master, Sit on My Right Hand, 43 Until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

44 Dawid therefore called Him Master, how is He then Dawid's son?

45 Then in the presence of all the people He said to His talmidim, 46 Beware of the Sophrim, who desire to walk in long robes and love greetings in the markets and the highest seats in the synagogues and the best places at moadeem;

47 Who embezzle widows' houses and for a show make long tefillot: these shall receive greater damnation.

21 And He looked up and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And He saw also a certain poor widow casting in there her two small coins.

3 And He said, Of an emet I say to you, That this poor widow has thrown in more than all of them:

4 For all these have from their abundance thrown into the terumah to Ahloha: but she from her poverty has thrown in all that she had to live on.

5 And as some spoke of the Beit HaMikdash, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gift offerings, He said,

6 As for these things which you see, the yamim will come, in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked Him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? And what of will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And He said, Take heed that you be not deceived: for many shall come in My Name, saying, I AM The Moshiach; and the time draws near: go not therefore after them.

9 But when you shall hear of wars and unrest, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not immediately.

10 Then He said to them, Nation shall rise against nation and malchut against malchut:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in diverse places and famines and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from the shamayim; and the winters shall be severe.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and into prisons, being brought before melechim and rulers for My Name's sake.

13 And it shall turn into a testimony for you.

14 Settle it therefore in your levavot, not to meditate before what you shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and chochmah, that all your adversaries shall not be able to refute nor resist.

16 And you shall be betrayed both by parents and brothers and mishpacha and chaverim; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And you shall be hated of all men for My Name's sake.

18 But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

19 Possess your lives by your endurance to the end.

20 And when you shall see Yahrushalayim surrounded with armies, then know that the destruction of it is near.

21 Then let those who are in province of Yahudah flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter into it.

22 For these are the yamim of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe to them that are with child and to them that nurse, in those yamim! For there shall be great distress in the land and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword and shall be led away captive into all goyim: and Yahrushalayim shall be trodden down by the goyim, until the times of the goyim be fulfilled.

25 And there shall be signs in the shemesh and in the yarayach and in the cochavim; and upon the earth distress of goyim, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's levavot failing them for fear and for looking after those things that are coming on the earth: for the powers of the shamayim shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see The Ben Ahdahm coming on clouds with a large army and great tifereth.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up and lift up your heads; for your geulah draws near.

29 And He spoke to them a parable; See the fig eytz and all the eytzim;

30 When they already budded, you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near at hand.

31 So likewise, when you see these things come to pass, know that the malchut of מלכות is near at hand.

32 Truly I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, until all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but My Words shall not pass away.

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your levavot be weighed down with gluttony and drunkenness and worries of this chayim, so that yom comes upon you suddenly.

35 For like a downpour shall it come to trap all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch therefore and make tefillah always, that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass and to stand before The Ben Ahdahm.

37 And in the daytime He was teaching in the Beit HaMikdash; and at lyla He went out and stayed on the har that is called the Har of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the boker to Him in the Beit HaMikdash, to hear Him.

22 Now the moed of Chag Matzoth drew near, which is called The Pesach.

2 And the chief kohanim and Sophrim sought how they might kill Him; but they feared the people.

3 Then entered s.a.tan into Yahudah surnamed Qerioth, being from the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way and communed with the chief kohanim and captains, how he might betray Him to them.

5 And they were glad and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised and sought opportunity to betray Him to them in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then approached Chag Matzoth, when the Pesach must be killed.

8 And He sent Kefa and Yochanan, saying, Go and prepare for us the Pesach that we may eat.

9 And they said to Him, Where do You want us to prepare?

10 And He said to them, See, when you enter into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of mayim; follow him into the bayit where he enters in.

11 And you shall say to the owner of the bayit, The Master says to you, Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Pesach with My talmidim?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went and found as He had said to them: and they made ready the Pesach.

14 And when the hour was come, He sat down and the twelve shlichim with Him.

15 And He said to them, With desire I have desired to eat this Pesach with you before I suffer:

16 For I say to you, I will not anymore eat of it, until it be fulfilled in the malchut of אִיִּיִּי.

17 And He took the cup and gave hodu and said, Take this and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the malchut of אִיִּיִּי shall come.

19 And He took matzah and said the bracha and broke it and gave it to them, saying, This is My gooff which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the Brit Chadasha in My dahm, which is shed for you.

21 But, see, the hand of him that betrays Me is with Me on the shulchan.

22 And truly The Ben Ahdahm goes, as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom He is betrayed!

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this act.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be the greatest.

25 And He said to them, The melechim of the goyim exercise rule over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called doers of tov.

26 But you shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the least; and he that is a leader, be as he that does serve.

27 For who is greater, he that sits down, or he that serves the one sitting? Is it not he that sits to eat? But I AM among you as one that serves.

28 You are those who have continued with Me in My trials.

29 And I appoint to you a malchut, as My Abba has appointed to Me;

30 That you may eat and drink at My shulchan in My malchut and sit on thrones being shophtim over the twelve tribes of Yisrael.

31 And He said, Shimon, Shimon, see, s.a.tan has desired to have you, that he may sift all of you as wheat:

32 But I have made tefillah for you, that your emunah fails not: and when you have repented, strengthen your Yisraelite brothers.

33 And he said to Him, Master, I am ready to go with You, both into prison and to death.

34 And He said, I tell you, Kefa, the cock shall not crow this yom, before you shall three times deny that you know Me.

35 And He said to them, When I sent you without purse and bag and sandals, did you lack anything? And they said, Nothing.

50 And one of them smote the eved of the Kohen HaGadol and cut off his right ear.

51 And אמר answered and said, Enough already. And He touched the ear of the one who was struck and healed him.

52 Then אמר said to the chief kohanim and captains of the Beit HaMikdash and the zechanim, who had come to Him, Have you come out, like against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the Beit HaMikdash, you did not even point your hands against Me: but this is your time and the power of darkness.

54 Then they took Him and led Him and brought Him into the Kohen HaGadol's bayit. And Kefa followed far off.

55 And when they had lit a fire in the midst of the hall and were sat down together, Kefa sat down among them.

56 But a certain eved girl beheld him as he sat by the fire and earnestly looked at him and said, This man was also with Him.

57 And he denied Him, saying, Woman, I know Him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him and said, You are also one of them. And Kefa said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour later another confidently affirmed, saying, Of an emet this fellow also was with Him: for he is a Galilaeen.

60 And Kefa said, Man, I know nothing of what you are saying. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crew.

61 And אמר turned and looked at Kefa. And Kefa remembered The Word of אמר, how He had said to him, Before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.

62 And Kefa went out and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held owfayz mocked Him and smote Him.

64 And when they had blindfolded Him, they struck Him on the face and asked Him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote You?

65 And many other things blasphemously they spoke against Him.

66 And as soon as it was yom, the zechanim of the people and the chief kohanim and the Sophrim came together and led Him into their council chamber, saying,

67 Are You Moshiach? Tell us. And He said to them, If I tell you, you will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer Me, nor let Me go.

69 Hereafter shall The Ben Ahdahm sit on the Right Hand of The Power of ayayz.

70 Then they all said, Are You then The Son of El-Elyon? And He said to them, You say that I AM!

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? For we ourselves have heard from His own mouth.

23 And the whole multitude of them arose and led Him to Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse Him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation and forbidding giving taxes to Kaiser, saying that He Himself is The Moshiach, A Melech.

3 And Pilate asked Him, saying, Are You The Melech of the Yahudim? And He answered him and said, You said it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief kohanim and to the people, I find no fault in this Man.

5 And they were angrier, saying, He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all the province of Yahudah, beginning from Galil to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galil, he asked whether the Man were a Galilaeen.

7 And as soon as he knew that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who himself also was at Yahrushalayim at that time.

8 And when Herod saw סוֹפְרִיָאָה, he was exceedingly in simcha: for he had desired to see Him for a long time because he had heard many things about Him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by Him.

9 Then he questioned Him in many words; but He answered him nothing.

10 And the chief kohanim and Sophrim stood and vehemently accused Him.

11 And Herod with his men of war insulted Him and mocked Him and dressed Him in a scarlet robe and sent Him again to Pilate.

12 And the same yom Pilate and Herod were made chaverim: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief kohanim and the rulers of the people,

14 Said to them, You have brought this Man to me, as one that misleads your people: and, see, I, having examined Him before you, have found no fault in this Man concerning those things of which you accuse Him:

15 No, not even Herod: for I sent you to him; and, see, nothing worthy of death is done by Him.

16 I will therefore chastise Him and release Him.

17 For because of a necessity he must release one to them at the moed.

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this Man and release to us Bar-Abba:

19 Who for a certain uprising made in the city and for murder, was thrown into prison;

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release օֹוֹרֵאָז, spoke again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Impale Him! Impale Him!

22 And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil has He done? I have found no cause of death in Him: I will therefore chastise Him and let Him go.

23 And they insisted with loud voices, requiring that He might be impaled. And the voices of them and of the chief kohanim prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released to them, the one that for sedition and murder was thrown into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered օֹוֹרֵאָז to their will.

26 And as they led Him away, they laid hold upon one Shimon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country and on him they laid the execution stake, that he might bear it after օֹוֹרֵאָז.

27 And there followed Him a great group of people and of women, who also mourned and lamented Him.

28 But օֹוֹרֵאָז turning to them said, Daughters of Yahrushalayim, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

29 For, see, the yamim are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green eytz, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two others, they were wicked ones, who were led with Him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called The Skull, there they impaled Him, with the wicked ones, one on the right hand and the other on the left.

34 Then said $\alpha\omega\upsilon\acute{\alpha}\alpha\alpha$, Abba, forgive them; for they know not what they do! And they parted His garment and cast lots.

35 And the people stood staring. And the synagogue rulers also with them sneering, saying, He saved others; let Him save Himself, if He is The Moshiach, the chosen One of Ahloha.

36 And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him and offering Him vinegar, 37 And saying, If You are The Melech of the Yahudim, save Yourself.

38 And an inscription also was written over Him in letters of Greek and Latin and Ivrit, THIS IS THE MELECH OF THE YAHUDIM.

39 And one of the wicked ones who were hanged blasphemed against Him, saying, If You are The Moshiach, save Yourself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Don't you fear Ahloha, seeing you are under the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this Man has done nothing wrong.

42 And he said to $\alpha\omega\upsilon\acute{\alpha}\alpha\alpha$, Master, remember me when You come into Your malchut.

43 And $\alpha\omega\upsilon\acute{\alpha}\alpha\alpha$ said to him, Truly I say to you, Today shall you be with Me in Gan Ayden.

44 And it was about the sixth hour and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the shemesh was darkened and the veil at the Hekel of the Beit HaMikdash was torn in the midst.

46 And when אמר had cried with a loud voice, He said, O My Abba, into Your hands I commit My ruach: and having said this, He gave up the ruach.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he esteemed Ahloha, saying, Certainly this was The Tzadik Man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things that were done, smote their breasts and returned.

49 And all His acquaintances and the women that followed Him from Galil, stood far off, beholding these things.

50 And, see, there was a man named Yoseph a Sanhedrin member; and he was a tov tzadik man, 51 He had not agreed with the counsel and their deed – he was from Ramathayim, a city of Yahudah: who also himself waited for the malchut of אמר.

52 This man went to Pilate and asked for the gooff of אמר.

53 And he took it down and wrapped it in linen and laid it in a tomb that was cut in stone, in which never a man before was laid.

54 And that yom was the preparation and The Shabbat was about to dawn.

55 And the women also, who came with Him from Galil, followed after and beheld the tomb and how His gooff was laid.

56 And they returned and prepared spices and ointments; and rested on The Shabbat Yom (annual Shabbat of Aviv 15) according to the commandment.

24 But really early in the boker on one of the weekly Shabbats (Aviv 18) they came to the tomb, bringing the spices that they had prepared and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.

3 And they entered in and found not the gooff of owfayz.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed about it, see, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seek you the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how He spoke to you when He was yet in Galil, 7 Saying, The Ben Ahdahm must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be impaled and the third yom rise again.

8 And they remembered His Words,

9 And returned from the tomb and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

10 It was Miryam from Magdala and Yochana and Miryam the eema of Yaakov and other women that were with them, who told these things to the shlichim.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales and they believed them not.

12 Then arose Kefa and ran to the tomb; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves and departed, wondering within himself about all that which had come to pass.

13 And, see, two of them went that same yom to a village called Amma-Us, which was from Yahrushalayim about six miles.

14 And they talked together about all those things that had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, owfayz Himself drew near and went with them.

16 But their eyes were restrained so that they could not recognize Him.

17 And He said to them, What manner of communications are these that you have with each other, as you walk and are sad?

18 And one of them, whose name was Qleophas, answering said to Him, Are You only a ger in Yahrushalayim and have not known the things that have come to pass in it in these yamim?

19 And He said to them, What things? And they said to Him, Concerning נצרת of Natzeret, who was a Navi mighty in mitzvoth and Word before Ahloha and all the people of Yisrael:

20 And how the chief kohanim and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death and have impaled Him.

21 But we trusted that it was He who should have redeemed Yisrael: and besides all this, today is the third yom since these things were done.

22 Yes and certain women also of our group made us astonished, who were earlier at the tomb;

23 And when they found not His gooff, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of heavenly malachim, who said that He was alive.

24 And certain of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it even as the women had said: but Him they did not see.

25 Then He said to them, O fools and slow of lev to believe all that the neviim have spoken:

26 Did not The Moshiach have to suffer all these things, in order to enter into His tifereth?

27 And beginning at Moshe Rabainu and all the neviim, He expounded to them in all the Keetvay HaKadosh the things concerning Himself.

28 And they drew near to the village, where they went: and He made them think He was going to a far place.

29 But they constrained Him, saying, Remain with us: for it is toward evening and the yom is nearly dark. And He went in to stay with them.

30 And it came to pass, as He sat to eat with them, He took lechem and said the bracha and broke it and gave some to them.

31 And their eyes were opened and they knew Him; and He vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Were not our minds dull within us, while He talked with us on the road and interpreted the Keetvay HaKadosh to us?

33 And they rose up the same hour and returned to Yahrushalayim and found the eleven gathered together and them that were with them, 34 Saying, our Master is risen indeed and has appeared to Shimon.

35 And they told what things were done on the road and how He was known by them in the breaking of lechem.

36 And as they spoke, Yahushua Himself stood in the midst of them and said to them, Shalom Aleichem. It is I; don't be afraid.

37 But they were confused and frightened and thought that they had seen a ruach.

38 And He said to them, Why are you troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your levavot?

39 See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself: handle Me and understand and see; for a ruach has no flesh and bones, as you see I have.

40 And when He had spoken this, He showed them His Hands and His feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for simcha and wondered, He said to them, Have you here any food?

42 And they gave Him a piece of broiled fish and a honeycomb.

43 And He took it and did eat before them.

44 And He said to them, These are the Words that I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the Torah of Moshe and in the Neviim and in the Tehillim, concerning Me.

45 Then He opened their binah, that they might understand the Keetvay HaKadosh, 46 And said to them, So it is written and so it was necessary that The Moshiach suffer and rise from the dead on the third yom:

47 And that teshuvah for remission of sins should be proclaimed in His Name among all goyim, beginning at Yahrushalayim.

48 And you are witnesses of these things.

49 And, see, I send the Promise of My Abba upon you: but remain in the city of Yahrushalayim, until you are clothed with Power from on high.

50 And He led them out as far as to Beth-Anya, and He lifted up His Hands and made a bracha over them.

51 And it came to pass, while He blessed them, He departed from them and went up into the shamayim.

52 And they worshipped Him and returned to Yahrushalayim with great simcha:

53 And were continually in the Beit HaMikdash, giving tehilot and brachot to אלהים. Ahmein. X

The Besorah According To John-Yochanan

To All Nations

- 1 Beresheeth was The Miltha The Living Torah, and The Living Torah was with אֱלֹהִים and The Living Torah was אֱלֹהִים.
- 2 The same Miltha was The Beresheeth with אֱלֹהִים.
- 3 All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made.
- 4 In Him was chayim; and the chayim was The Ohr of men.
- 5 And The Ohr shines in darkness; and the darkness did not overcome it.
- 6 There was a man sent from אֱלֹהִים, whose name was Yochanan.
- 7 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of The Ohr, that all men through Him might believe.
- 8 He was not that Ohr, but was sent to bear witness of that Ohr.
- 9 That was the emet Ohr, which lights every man that comes into the olam hazeh.
- 10 He was in the olam hazeh and the olam hazeh was made by Him and the olam hazeh knew Him not.
- 11 He came to His own and His own received Him not.
- 12 But as many as received Him, to them gave He Power to become the sons of אֱלֹהִים, even to them that believe on His Name:
- 13 Which were born, not of dahm, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of אֱלֹהִים.

14 And the living Torah was made flesh and dwelt among us and we saw His tifereth, the tifereth as of the only brought forth of The Abba, full of unmerited chen and emet.

15 Yochanan bore witness of Him and cried, saying, This was He of whom I spoke, He that comes after me is preferred before me: for He was before me.

16 And of His fullness all we have received, unmerited chen upon unmerited chen.

17 For the Torah was given by Moshe; its unmerited chen and emet came by משיח The Moshiach.

18 No man has seen The Abba at any time; the only brought forth Son, who was in the bosom of The Abba, He has declared Him.

19 And this is the witness of Yochanan, when the Yahudim sent kohanim and Lewiym from Yahrushalayim to ask him, Who are you?

20 And he confessed and denied not; but confessed, I am not The Moshiach.

21 And they asked him, What then? Are you Eliyahu? And he said, I am not. Are you Ha Navi? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they to him, Who are you? That we may give an answer to them that sent us. What are you saying about yourself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the derech of The Master משיח, as said the navi Yeshayahu.

24 And they that were sent were of the Prushim.

25 And they asked him and said to him, Why are you doing mikvot, if you are not The Moshiach, nor Eliyahu, neither Ha Navi?

26 Yochanan answered them, saying, I mikvah with mayim: but there stands One among you, whom you know not;

27 He it is, whose coming after me is preferred before me, whose sandals I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Beth-Bara beyond Yarden, where Yochanan was doing mikvah.

29 The next yom Yochanan saw וּמַרְאֵהוּ coming to him and said, Behold The Lamb of אֵלֹהִים, who takes away the sin of the olam hazeh.

30 This is He of whom I said, After me comes a Man who is preferred before me: for He was before me.

31 And I knew Him not: but that He should be made manifest to Yisrael, therefore am I come performing mikvah with mayim.

32 And Yochanan bore witness, saying, I saw The Ruach descending from the shamayim like a yonah and it stayed upon Him.

33 And I knew Him not: but He that sent me to mikvah with mayim, the same said to me, Upon whom you shall see The Ruach descending and remaining on Him, the same is He who performs mikvot with The Set Apart Ruach.

34 And I saw and bore witness that this is The Son of אֵלֹהִים.

35 Again the next yom after Yochanan stood up with two of his talmidim;

36 And looking right at וּמַרְאֵהוּ as He walked, he said, Behold The Lamb of אֵלֹהִים !

37 And the two talmidim heard him speak and they followed וּמַרְאֵהוּ.

38 Then וּמַרְאֵהוּ turned and saw them following and said to them, What are you seeking? They said to Him, Rabbi (Teacher), where do You live?

39 He said to them, Come and see. They came and saw where He dwelt and stayed with Him that yom: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two who heard Yochanan speak and followed Him, was Andri, Shimon Kefa's brother.

41 He first found his own brother Shimon and said to him, We have found The Moshiach.

42 And he brought him to וּמְרִיָּא. And when וּמְרִיָּא saw him, He said, You are Shimon bar Yonah: you shall be called Kefa, a stone.

43 The yom following וּמְרִיָּא wished to go into Galil and found Philip and said to him, Follow Me!

44 Now Philip was of Beth-Tsaida, the city of Andri and Kefa.

45 Philip found Nathan-El and said to him, We have found Him, of whom Moshe in the Torah and the neviim, did write, Yahushua of Natzeret, The Son of Yoseph.

46 And Natan-El said to him, Can any tov thing come out of Natzeret? Philip said to him, Come and see.

47 וּמְרִיָּא saw Natan-El coming to Him and said of him, Behold an Yisraelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Natan-El said to Him, From where do You know me? Yahushua answered and said to him, Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig eytz, I saw you.

49 Natan-El answered and said to Him, Rabbi, You are The Son of אֶלְיָא; You are Melech Yisrael.

50 וּמְרִיָּא answered and said to him, Because I said to you, I saw you under the fig eytz, you believe? You shall see greater things than these.

51 And He said to him, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, From now on you shall see the shamayim opened and the heavenly malachim of אֶלְיָא ascending and descending upon The Ben Ahdahm.

2 And on Yom Shleshi there was a marriage in Qanah of Galil; and the eema of וּמְרִיָּא was there:
2 And both וּמְרִיָּא was invited and His talmidim, to the marriage.

3 And when they needed more wine, the eema of օַוִּיָאָז said to Him, They have no wine.

4 օַוִּיָאָז said to her, Woman, what is it to Me and you? My hour has not yet come.

5 His eema said to the avadim, Whatever He says to you, do it.

6 And there were set there six stone jars, after the manner of the purifying of the Yahudim, containing twenty to thirty gallons apiece.

7 օַוִּיָאָז said to them, Fill the stone jars with mayim. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And He said to them, Draw out with them now and bring them to the master of ceremonies of the wedding. And they took them.

9 When the master of ceremonies of the wedding had tasted the mayim that was made wine and knew not where it came from – but the avadim who drew the mayim knew – the master of ceremonies of the wedding called the bridegroom,

10 And said to him, Every man at the beginning does serve tov wine; and when men have drunk, afterwards that which is poorer: but you have kept the tov wine until now.

11 This is the beginning of the nisim that օַוִּיָאָז did in Qanah of Galil and manifested forth His tifereth; and His talmidim believed on Him.

12 After this He went down to Kfar Nachum, with His eema and His brothers and His talmidim: and they continued there a few yamim.

13 And the Yahudim's Pesach was at hand and օַוִּיָאָז went up to Yahrushalayim,

14 And found in the Beit HaMikdash those that sold oxen and sheep and doves and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when He had made a whip of small cords,
He drove them all out of the Beit HaMikdash and the sheep and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money and overthrew the tables;

16 And said to them that sold doves, Take these things away; make not My Abba's Bayit into a Bayit of merchandise!

17 And His talmidim remembered that it is written, The zeal for Your Bayit has given Me courage and eaten Me up.

18 Then answered the Yahudim and said to Him, What ot will You show us, seeing that You are doing these things?

19 וַיֹּאמְרוּ answered and said to them, Destroy this Beit HaMikdash and in three yamim I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Yahudim, Forty-six years this Beit HaMikdash was being built and will You raise it up in three yamim?

21 But He spoke of the Beit HaMikdash of His gooff.

22 When therefore He was risen from the dead, His talmidim remembered that He had said this to them; and they believed the Keetvay HaKadosh, and the Word which וַיֹּאמְרוּ had said.

23 Now when He was in Yahrushalayim at the Pesach, during the moed, many believed in His Name, when they saw the nisim that He did.

24 But וַיֹּאמְרוּ did not commit Himself to them because He knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for He knew what was in the sons of men.

3 There was a man of the Prushim, named

Nakdimon, a ruler of the Yahudim:

2 The same came to וַיֹּאמְרוּ by lyla and said to Him, Rabbi, we know that You are a Moreh come from Ahloha: for no man can do these nisim that You are doing, except Ahloha be with Him.

3 օַּוְרֵאֲרַם answered and said to him, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Except a man be born again-brit halev, he cannot see the malchut of אֲרַםִּים.

4 Nakdimon said to Him, How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter the second time into his eema's womb and be born?

5 օַּוְרֵאֲרַם answered, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Except a man is born of mayim and of The Ruach, he cannot enter into the malchut of אֲרַםִּים.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of The Ruach is Ruach.

7 Marvel not that I said to you, You must be born from above.

8 The wind blows where it desires and you hear the sound of it, but cannot tell where it comes from and where it goes: so is every one that is born of The Ruach.

9 Nakdimon answered and said to Him, How can these things be?

10 օַּוְרֵאֲרַם answered and said to him, Are you a moreh of Yisrael and you do not know these things?

11 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, We speak what we do know and testify what we have seen; and you receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things and you believe not, how shall you believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man has ascended up to the shamayim, but He that came down from the shamayim, even The Ben Ahdahm who is in the shamayim.

14 And as Moshe lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must The Ben Ahdahm be lifted up:

15 That whoever believes in Him should not perish, but have eternal chayim.

16 For אֲרַםִּים so loved the olam hazeh, that He gave His only brought forth Son, that whoever believes on Him should not perish, but have everlasting chayim.

17 For אֱלֹהִים sent not His Son into the olam hazeh to condemn the olam hazeh; but that the olam hazeh through Him might be saved.

18 He that believes on Him is not condemned: but he that believes not is condemned already because he has not believed on the Name of the only brought forth Son of אֱלֹהִים.

19 And this is the condemnation, that Ohr has come into the olam hazeh and men loved darkness rather than Ohr because their deeds were evil.

20 For everyone that does evil hates The Ohr, neither comes to The Ohr, lest his deeds should be exposed.

21 But he that does emet comes to The Ohr, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are done through Ahloha.

22 After these things came מוֹשֶׁה and His talmidim into the province of Yahudah; and there He tarried with them and was doing mikvot.

23 And Yochanan also was performing mikvah in Ayin near to Salim because there was much mayim there: and they came and were immersed.

24 For Yochanan was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of Yochanan's talmidim and the Yahudim about cleansing ceremonies.

26 And they came to Yochanan and said to him, Rabbi, He that was with you beyond Yarden, to whom you bore witness, see, the same does mikvot and all men come to Him.

27 Yochanan answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from the shamayim.

28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said; I am not The Moshiach, but that I am sent before Him.

29 He that has the bride is the Bridegroom: but the chaver of the Bridegroom, who stands and hears Him, rejoices greatly because of the Bridegroom's voice: in His voice, my simcha therefore is complete.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that comes from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly and speaks of the earth: He that comes from the shamayim is above all.

32 And what He has seen and heard, that He testifies; and no man receives His testimony.

33 He that has received His testimony has received the seal that Ahloha is emet.

34 For He whom אֱלֹהִים has sent speaks the Words of אֱלֹהִים: for אֱלֹהִים gives not The Ruach to Him by limited increments.

35 The Abba loves The Son and has given all things into His hand.

36 He that believes on The Son has everlasting chayim: and he that believes not on The Son shall not see chayim; but the wrath of אֱלֹהִים remains upon him.

4 When therefore The Master knew how the Prushim had heard that מֵרְאִי אֱלֹהִים made and immersed more talmidim than Yochanan,

2 Though מֵרְאִי אֱלֹהִים Himself did not do mikvot, but His talmidim.

3 He left Yahudah and departed again into Galil.

4 And He needed to go through Shomron.

5 He came to a city of Shomron, which is called Shechem, near to the parcel of ground that Yaakov gave to his son Yoseph.

6 Now Yaakov's Well was there. מֵרְאִי אֱלֹהִים therefore, being wearied with His journey, sat on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There came a woman of Shomron to draw mayim:
օַוִּיָּאָז said to her, Give Me to drink.

8 His talmidim had gone away to the city to buy food.

9 Then said the woman of Shomron to Him, How is it that You, being a Yahudi, asks a drink from me, who is a woman of Shomron? For the Yahudim have no dealings with the Shomronites.

10 օַוִּיָּאָז answered and said to her, If you knew the gift of Ahloha and who it is that said to you, Give Me a drink; you would have asked Him and He would have given you living mayim.

11 The woman said to Him, Master, You have no bucket and the well is deep: from where then do
You have this living mayim?

12 Are You greater than our abba Yaakov, who gave us the well and drank from it himself and his children and his cattle?

13 օַוִּיָּאָז answered and said to her, Whoever drinks of this mayim shall thirst again:

14 But whoever drinks of the mayim that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the mayim that I shall give him shall be in him a well of mayim springing up into everlasting chayim.

15 The woman said to Him, Master, give me this mayim, that I thirst not, neither come here to draw.

16 օַוִּיָּאָז said to her, Go, call your husband and come here.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. օַוִּיָּאָז said to her, You have well said, I have no husband:

18 For you have had five husbands; and the one whom you now have is not your husband: what you have said is emet.

19 The woman said to Him, Master, I perceive that You are The Navi.

20 Our ahvot worshipped in this har; and yet You say, that in Yahrushalayim is the place where men should worship.

21 אָבָא said to her, Woman, believe Me, the hour comes, when you shall neither in this har, nor at Yahrushalayim, worship The Abba.

22 You worship you know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is from the Yahudim.

23 But the hour comes and now is, when the emet worshippers shall worship The Abba in Ruach and in Emet: for The Abba seeks such to worship Him.

24 Ahloha is Ruach: and they that worship Him must worship Him in Ruach and in Emet.

25 The woman said to Him, I know that The Moshiach comes, when He has come, He will tell us all things.

26 אָבָא said to her, I that speak to you I AM He.

27 And at this time came His talmidim and marveled that He talked with the woman: yet no man said, What do You want with her, or Why do You talk with her?

28 The woman then left her jug of mayim and went on her derech into the city and said to the men, 29 Come, see a Man, who told me all things that I ever did: is not this The Moshiach?

30 Then they went out of the city and came to Him.

31 In the meantime His talmidim urged Him, saying, Master, eat something.

32 But He said to them, I have food to eat that you know nothing about.

33 Therefore said the talmidim one to another, Has any man brought Him anything to eat?

34 אָבָא said to them, My food is to do the will of Him that sent Me and to finish His work.

35 Do you not say, There are yet four chodashem and then comes the harvest? See, I say to you, Lift up your eyes and look at the fields; for they are white and ready to harvest.

36 And he that reaps receives wages and gathers fruit to chayim eternal: that both he that sows and he that reaps may gilah as echad.

37 And in this case is that saying emet, One sows and another reaps.

38 I sent you to reap that on which you bestowed no labor: other men labored and you have entered into their labors.

39 And many of the Shomronites of that city believed on Him for the saying of the woman, which she testified, He told me all that I ever did.

40 So when the Shomronites came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them: and He stayed there two yamim.

41 And many more believed because of His own Word;

42 And said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of your saying: for we have heard Him ourselves and know that this is indeed The Moshiach, The Savior of the olam hazeh.

43 Now after two yamim He departed from there and went into Galil.

44 For וַיִּשְׁמַע Himself testified, that a Navi has no kavod in His own country.

45 Then when He had come into Galil, the Galileans received Him, having seen all the nisim that He did at Yahrushalayim at the moed: for they also went to the moed.

46 So וַיִּשְׁמַע came again into Qanah of Galil, where He made the mayim wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Kfar Nachum.

47 When he heard that וַיִּשְׁמַע had come out of Yahudah into Galil, he went to Him and asked Him if

He would come down and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said օַּוְרִאָּז to him, Except you see signs and wonders, you will not believe.

49 The nobleman said to Him, Master, come down before my child dies.

50 օַּוְרִאָּז said to him, Go on your way; your son lives. And the man believed The Word that օַּוְרִאָּז had spoken to him and he went on his derech.

51 And as he was now going down, his avadim met him and told him, saying, Your son lives.

52 Then he asked the time when his son began to improve. And they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the abba knew that it was at the same hour, in which օַּוְרִאָּז said to him, Your son lives: and he himself believed and his bayit as well.

54 This is the second ness that օַּוְרִאָּז did, when He came out of Yahudah into Galil.

5 After this there was a moed of the Yahudim; and օַּוְרִאָּז went up to Yahrushalayim.

2 Now there is at Yahrushalayim by the sheep market a mikvah, which is called in the Ivrit tongue Beth Chesed, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folks, blind, crippled and paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the mayim.

4 For a heavenly malach went down at a certain season-moed into the mikvah and stirred the mayim: whoever was first in after the stirring of the mayim was made well of whatever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, who had an illness thirty-eight years.

6 When օַּוְרִאָּז saw him lying down, He knew that he had been in that condition for a long time, said to him, Do you wish to be made well?

7 The impotent man answered Him, Master, I have no one, when the mayim is stirred, to put me into the mikvah: but while I am coming, another steps down before me.

8 וַיֹּאמֶר said to him, Rise, take up your quilt and walk!

9 And immediately the man was made well and took up his quilt and walked: and that yom was The Shabbat.

10 The Yahudim therefore said to him that was cured, It is Shabbat: it is not allowed by Torah for you to carry your quilt.

11 He answered them, He that made me well, the same One said to me, Take up your quilt and walk.

12 Then they asked him, What man is that who said to you, Take up your quilt and walk?

13 And he that was healed did not know who it was: for וַיֹּאמֶר had moved Himself away, into a large multitude in that place.

14 Afterward וַיֹּאמֶר found him in the Beit HaMikdash and said to him, Behold, you are made well: sin no more, lest a worse thing come to you.

15 The man departed and told the Yahudim that it was וַיֹּאמֶר, who had made him well.

16 And therefore did the Yahudim persecute וַיֹּאמֶר and sought to kill Him because He had done these things on The Shabbat.

17 But וַיֹּאמֶר answered them, My Abba works until now and I work.

18 Therefore the Yahudim sought even more to kill Him because He not only had broken The Shabbat, but said also that Ahloha was His Abba, making Himself equal with Ahloha.

19 Then answered וַיֹּאמֶר and said to them, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, The Son can do nothing by Himself, but only what He sees The

Abba doing: for the things He does, these also does
The Son likewise.

20 For The Abba loves The Son and shows Him all things that He Himself does: and He will show Him greater works than these that you may marvel.

21 For as The Abba raises the dead and makes alive; even so The Son makes alive whom He will.

22 For The Abba judges no man, but has entrusted all mishpat to The Son:

23 That all men should esteem The Son, even as they esteem The Abba. He that honors not The Son honors not The Abba who has sent Him.

24 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, He that hears My Word and believes on Him that sent Me, has everlasting chayim and shall not come into condemnation; but has passed from death to chayim.

25 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, The hour is coming and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of The Son of אֱלֹהִים: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as The Abba has chayim in Himself; so has
He given to The Son to have chayim in Himself;

27 And has given Him authority to execute mishpat also because He is The Ben Ahdahm.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, that all that are in the graves shall hear His voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done tov, to the resurrection of chayim; and they that have done evil, to the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can by My own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and My mishpat is tzadik; because I seek not My own will, but the will of The Abba who has sent Me.

31 If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not emet.

32 There is Another that bears witness of Me; and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is emet.

33 You sent to Yochanan and he bore witness to The Emet.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that you might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining ohr: and you were willing for a season to gilah in his ohr.

36 But I have a greater witness than that of Yochanan: for the works which The Abba has given Me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of Me, that The Abba has sent Me.

37 And The Abba Himself, who has sent Me, has borne witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His appearance.

38 And you have not His Word living and abiding in you: for whom He has sent, Him you believe not.

39 Search the Keetvay Ha Kadosh; for in them you think you have eternal chayim: and these are those, which testify of Me.

40 And you will not come to Me, that you might have chayim.

41 I receive not kavod from men.

42 But I know you, that you have not the ahava of Ahloha in you.

43 I AM come in My Abba's Name and you receive Me not: if another shall come in his own name, him you will receive.

44 How can you believe, you who receive kavod from each other and seek not the kavod that comes from אֱלֹהִים only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to The Abba: there is one that accuses you, even Moshe, in whom you trust.

46 For had you believed Moshe, you would have believed Me: for he wrote of Me.

47 But if you believe not his Ketuvim, how shall you believe My Words?

6 After these things וַיֵּלֶךְ went over the Sea of Galil, which is the Sea of Kinnereth.

2 And a great multitude followed Him because they saw His nisim that He did on those that were diseased.

3 And וַיֵּלֶךְ went up into a har and there He sat with His talmidim.

4 [And the Pesach, moed of the Yahudim, was near.*]

5 When וַיֵּלֶךְ then lifted up His eyes and saw a great company come to Him, He said to Philip, Where shall we buy lechem that these may eat?

6 And this He said to test him: for He Himself knew what He would do.

7 Philip answered Him, Two hundred pieces of silver worth of lechem is not enough for them, even if each one of them took a little.

8 One of His talmidim, Andri, Shimon Kefa's brother, said to Him, 9 There is a lad here, who has five barley loaves and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And וַיֵּלֶךְ said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And וַיֵּלֶךְ took the loaves; and when He had said the bracha, He distributed to the talmidim and the talmidim to them that were sitting down; and likewise from the fishes as much as they could.

12 When they were filled, He said to His talmidim, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above that which they had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the ness that וַיֵּאָמֵר did, said, This is truly Ha Navi that should come into the olam hazeh.

15 When וַיֵּאָמֵר therefore perceived that they would come and take Him by force, to make Him Melech Yisrael, He departed again into a har Himself alone.

16 And when evening came, His talmidim went down to the sea, 17 And entered into a ship and went over the sea toward Kfar Nachum. And it was now dark and וַיֵּאָמֵר had not come to them.

18 And the sea arose because of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about four miles, they saw וַיֵּאָמֵר walking by the sea, and drawing near to the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But He said to them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received Him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the province where they were going.

22 The yom following, the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except for the one into which His talmidim had entered and that וַיֵּאָמֵר had not entered with His talmidim.

23 But other boats from Tiberias came from near the place where they had eaten lechem, after וַיֵּאָמֵר had said the bracha:

24 When the people therefore saw that וַיֵּאָמֵר was not there, neither His talmidim, they also took boats and came to Kfar Nachum, seeking for וַיֵּאָמֵר.

25 And when they had found Him at the seaport, they said to Him, Rabbi, when did You come here?

26 אמר answered them and said, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, You seek Me, not because you saw the nisim, but because you did eat of the loaves and were filled.

27 Labor not for the food that perishes, but for that food that endures to everlasting chayim, which The Ben Ahdahm shall give you: for Him has The Abba sealed.

28 Then they said to Him, What should we do, that we might do the works of Ahloha?

29 אמר answered and said to them, This is the greatest mitzvah of Ahloha, that you believe on Him whom He has sent.

30 They said therefore to Him, What ot will You show us, that we may see and believe You? What mitzvah do You perform?

31 Our ahvot did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them manna from the shamayim to eat.

32 Then אמר said to them, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Moshe gave you not that manna from the shamayim; but My Abba gives you the emet lechem from the shamayim.

33 For the lechem of Ahloha is He who comes down from the shamayim and gives chayim to the olam hazeh.

34 Then they said to Him, Master, Always and le-olam-va-ed give us this lechem.

35 And אמר said to them, I AM the lechem of chayim: he that comes to Me shall never hunger; and he that believes on Me shall never thirst.

36 But I said to you, That you also have seen Me and believe not.

37 All that The Abba gives to Me shall come to Me; and he that comes to Me I will in no way cast out.

38 For I came down from the shamayim, not to do My own will, but the will of Him that sent Me.

39 And this is The Abba's will who has sent Me, that of all those He has given Me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last yom.

40 And this is the will of Him that sent Me, that everyone who sees The Son and believes on Him, may have everlasting chayim: and I will raise him up at the last yom.

41 The Yahudim then murmured at Him because He said, I AM the lechem who came down from the shamayim.

42 And they said, Is not this בן יוסף, The Ben of Yoseph, whose abba and eema we know? How is it then that He said, I came down from the shamayim?

43 בן יוסף therefore answered and said to them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to Me, except The Abba who has sent Me draws him: and I will raise him up at the last yom.

45 It is written by the navi: And they shall be all taught by אֱלֹהִים. Every man therefore that has heard and has learned from The Abba, comes to Me.

46 Not that any man has seen The Abba, except the One who is from אֱלֹהִים, He has seen The Abba.

47 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, He that believes on Me has everlasting chayim.

48 I AM that lechem of chayim.

49 Your ahvot did eat manna in the wilderness and are dead.

50 This is the lechem that comes down from the shamayim that a man may eat of it and not die.

51 I AM the living lechem who came down from the shamayim: if any man eats of this lechem, he shall live le-olam-va-ed: and the lechem that I will give is My flesh, which I will give for the chayim of the olam hazeh.

52 The Yahudim therefore argued among themselves, saying, How can this man give us His flesh to eat?

53 Then $\alpha\omega\upsilon\alpha\zeta$ said to them, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Except you eat the flesh of The Ben Ahdahm and drink His dahm; you have no chayim in you.

54 Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My dahm, has eternal chayim; and I will raise him up on the last yom.

55 For My flesh is meat indeed and My dahm is drink indeed.

56 He that eats My flesh and drinks My dahm, dwells in Me and I in him.

57 As the living Abba has sent Me and I live by The Abba: so he that eats of Me, even he shall live by Me.

58 This is that lechem that came down from the shamayim: not as your ahvot did eat manna and are dead: he that eats of this lechem shall live le-olam-va-ed.

59 These things said He in the synagogue, as He taught in Kfar Nachum.

60 Many therefore of His talmidim, when they had heard this, said, Oy vey! This is a difficult teaching; who can hear and obey it?

61 When $\alpha\omega\upsilon\alpha\zeta$ knew within Himself that His talmidim murmured, He said to them, Does this offend you?

62 What if you shall see The Ben Ahdahm ascend up to where He was before?

63 It is The Ruach that makes alive; the flesh profits nothing: The Words that I speak to you, they are Ruach and they are chayim.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For $\alpha\omega\upsilon\alpha\zeta$ knew from Beresheeth whom they were that believed not and who should betray Him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I to you that no man can come to Me, except it is given to him by My Abba.

66 From that time on many of His talmidim backslid and had their halacha no longer with Him.

67 Then said $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\rho\varsigma$ to the twelve, Will you also go away?

68 Then Shimon Kefa answered Him, Rabbi, to whom shall we go? You have the Words of eternal chayim.

69 And we believe and are sure that You are The Moshiaich, The Son of the living $\alpha\tau\tau\epsilon\upsilon\varsigma$.

70 $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\rho\varsigma$ answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve and yet one of you is a shed?

71 He spoke of Yahudah from Qerioth the son of Shimon: for he it was that was chosen to betray Him, being one of the twelve.

7 After these things $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\rho\varsigma$ walked only in Galil: for He would not walk in the province of Yahudah because the Yahudim sought to kill Him.

2 Now the Yahudim's moed of Sukkot was at hand.

3 His brothers therefore said to Him, Depart from here, and go into Yahudah, that Your talmidim also might see the works that You are doing.

4 For there is no one who does anything in secret, who himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these nisim, show Yourself to the olam hazeh.

5 For neither did His brothers believe in Him.

6 Then $\alpha\omega\upsilon\tau\alpha\rho\varsigma$ said to them, My time is not come: but your time to go up is always ready.

7 The olam hazeh cannot hate you; but Me it hates because I testify against it, that its deeds are evil.

8 Go up to this moed: I do not go up to this moed; for My time is not yet come.

9 When He had said these words to them, He stayed still in Galil.

10 But when His brothers had gone up, then He went also up to the moed, but not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Yahudim sought Him at the moed and said, Where is He?

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning Him: for some said, He is a tov man: others said, No; but He just deceives the people.

13 But no man spoke openly about Him for fear of the Yahudim.

14 Now about the midst of the moed וַיָּעָלֶה went up into the Beit HaMikdash and taught.

15 And the Yahudim marveled, saying, How does this man know how to read the scrolls, having never learned in a yeshiva?

16 וַיַּעֲנֵם answered them and said, My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17 If any man desires His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be from וַיִּשְׁמַע, or if I speak from My own thoughts.

18 He that speaks of himself seeks his own tifereth: but He that seeks the tifereth of the One who sent Him, the same is emet and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

19 Did not Moshe give you the Torah and yet none of you keeps the Torah? Why do you try to kill Me?

20 The people answered and said, You have a shed: who is trying to kill You?

21 וַיַּעֲנֵם answered and said to them, I have done one mitzvah and you all marvel.

22 Moshe therefore gave you brit-milah – not because it is from Moshe, but from the ahvot – and you on The Shabbat brit-milah a man.

23 If a man on The Shabbat receives brit-milah, that the Torah of Moshe is not broken; are you angry with Me because I have made a man fully healed on The Shabbat?

24 Judge not according to appearance, but judge a tzadik mishpat.

25 Then said some of them from Yahrushalayim, Is not this the One whom they seek to kill?

26 But look, He speaks boldly and they say nothing to Him. Perhaps our rulers have found out that this is the actual Moshiach?

27 But on the other hand we know this man and where He comes from: but when The Moshiach comes, no man will know where He is from.

28 Then cried $\alpha\omega\iota\lambda\alpha\mu$ in the Beit HaMikdash as He taught, saying, You both know Me and you know where I AM from: and I AM not come by Myself, but He who sent Me is Emet, whom you know not.

29 But I know Him: for I AM from Him and He has sent Me.

30 Then they sought to take Him: but no man laid hands on Him because His hour had not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on Him and said, When The Moshiach comes; will he do more nisim than those that this Man has done?

32 The Prushim heard the people muttering such things about Him; and the Prushim and the chief kohanim sent officers to seize Him.

33 Then said $\alpha\omega\iota\lambda\alpha\mu$ to them, Yet a little while am I with you and then I go to Him that sent Me.

34 You shall seek Me and shall not find Me: and where I AM, there you cannot come.

35 Then said the Yahudim among themselves, Where will He go, that we shall not find Him? Will He go to the dispersed among the Greeks and the pagan goyim, and teach them?

36 What kind of saying is this that He said, You shall seek Me and shall not find Me: and where I AM, there you cannot come?

37 On the last and greatest yom of the moed, Yahushua stood and cried, saying, If any man thirsts, let him come to Me and drink.

38 He that believes on Me, as the Keetvay HaKadosh have said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of mayim chayim.

39 And this He spoke of The Ruach, which they that believe on Him would receive: for The Ruach Hakodesh was not yet given; because וַיִּשְׁמַע was not yet esteemed.

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Truly this is Ha Navi of Sefer Devarim.

41 Others said, This is The Moshiach. But some said, Shall The Moshiach come out of Galil?

42 Have not the Keetvay HaKadosh said, that The Moshiach comes from the zera of Dawid and out of the town of Beth-Lechem, where Dawid was from?

43 So there was a division among the people because of Him.

44 And some of them would have taken Him; but no man laid hands on Him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief kohanim and Prushim; and they said to them, Why have you not brought Him to us?

46 The officers answered, Never has any man spoken like this man.

47 Then answered the Prushim, Are you also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers, or any of the Prushim believed on Him?

49 But these people who know not the Torah are cursed.

50 Nakdimon said to them – he that came to וַיִּשְׁמַע by lyla, being one of them.

51 Does our Torah judge any man, before it hears him and knows what he does?

52 They answered and said to him, Are you also from Galil? Search and look: for out of Galil, Ha Navi will not come forth.

53 And every man went to his own bayit.

8 Yahushua went to the Har of Olives.

2 And early in the boker He came again into the Beit HaMikdash and all the people came to Him; and He sat down and taught them.

3 And the sophrim and Prushim brought to Him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had placed her in the midst, 4 They said to Him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moshe in the Torah commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what are You saying?

6 This they said, tempting Him, that they might be able to accuse Him. But וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ stooped down and with His finger wrote on the ground, as though He heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking Him, He lifted Himself up and said to them, He that is without sin among you, let him be the first to cast a stone at her.

8 And again He stooped down and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning with the eldest, even to the youngest: and וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ was left alone, with the woman standing in the midst.

10 When וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ had lifted Himself up and saw no one but the woman, He said to her, Woman, where are your accusers? Has no man condemned you?

11 She said, No man, Master. And וַיִּשְׁתַּחוּ said to her, Neither do I condemn you: go and sin no more.

12 Then spoke $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{a}\text{z}$ again to them, saying, I AM The Ohr of the olam hazeh: he that follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have The Ohr of chayim.

13 The Prushim therefore said to Him, You bear witness of Yourself; Your witness is not emet.

14 $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{a}\text{z}$ answered and said to them, Though I bear witness of Myself, yet My witness is emet: for I know where I came from and where I AM going; but you cannot tell where I came from, or where I go.

15 You judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I do judge, My mishpat is emet: for I AM not doing it alone, but I and The Abba that sent Me.

17 It is also written in your Torah, that the testimony of two men is emet.

18 I AM one that bears witness of Myself and The Abba that sent Me bears witness of Me.

19 Then they said to Him, Where is Your Abba? Yahushua answered, You neither know Me, nor My Abba: if you knew Me, you would have known My Abba also.

20 These words spoke $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{a}\text{z}$ in the treasury, as He taught in the Beit HaMikdash: and no man laid hands on Him; for His hour had not yet come.

21 Then said $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{a}\text{z}$ again to them, I go on My way and you shall seek Me and shall die in your sins: where I go, you cannot come.

22 Then said the Yahudim, Will He kill Himself? Because He said, Where I go, you cannot come.

23 And He said to them, You are from beneath; I AM from above: you are of the olam hazeh; I AM not of the olam hazeh.

24 I said therefore to you, that you shall die in your sins: for if you believe not that I AM, you shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they to Him, Who are You? And օַׁׁׁׁׁ said to them, Even though I have just begun to speak to you;

26 I have many things to say and to judge you for:
but He that sent Me is emet; and I speak to the olam hazeh those things which I have heard from Him.

27 They did not understand that He spoke to them of The Abba.

28 Then said օַׁׁׁׁׁ to them, When you have lifted up The Ben Ahdahm, then shall you know that I AM and that I do nothing by Myself; but as My Abba has taught Me, I speak these things.

29 And He that sent Me is with Me: The Abba has not left Me alone; for I do always those things that please Him.

30 As He spoke these words, many believed on Him.

31 Then said օַׁׁׁׁׁ to those Yahudim who believed on Him, If you continue in My Word, then are you My talmidim indeed;

32 And you shall know The Emet and The Emet shall make you free.

33 They answered Him, We are Avraham's zera and were never in bondage to any man: how are You saying, You shall be made a free people?

34 օַׁׁׁׁׁ answered them, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Whoever commits sin is the eved of sin.

35 And the eved stays not in the bayit le-olam-va-ed: but a son stays le-olam-va-ed.

36 If The Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free indeed.

37 I know that you are Avraham's zera; but you seek to kill Me because My Word has no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with My Abba: and you do that which you have seen with your abba.

39 They answered and said to Him, Avraham is our abba. אברהם said to them, If you were Avraham's children, you would do the works of Avraham.

40 But now you seek to kill Me, a man that has told you The Emet, which I have heard from אברהם: this Avraham did not do.

41 You do the deeds of your abba. Then they said to Him, We are not born of fornication; we have one Abba, even Ahloha.

42 אברהם said to them, If אברהם Ahloha were your Abba, you would love Me: for I proceeded forth and came from אברהם Ahloha; neither came I by My own accord, but He sent Me.

43 Why do you not understand My speech? Even because you cannot hear My Word.

44 You are of your abba s.a.tan, and the lusts of your abba you will do. He was a murderer from Beresheeth and stayed not in the emet because there is no emet in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks his own lie: for he is a liar and The Abba of it.

45 And because I tell you The Emet, you do not believe Me.

46 Which of you can rebuke Me because of sin? And if I say The Emet, why do you not believe Me?

47 He that is of אברהם hears אברהם's Words: you therefore hear them not because you are not of אברהם.

48 Then answered the Yahudim and said to Him, Don't we say the emet, that You are a Shomronite and have a shed?

49 אברהם answered, I have not a shed; but I esteem My Abba, but you do not esteem Me and even curse Me.

50 And I seek not My own tifereth: there is One that seeks and judges.

51 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, If a man guards My Words, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Yahudim to Him, Now we know that You have a shed. Avraham is dead and the neviim; and You are saying, If a man guards My Words, he shall never taste death.

53 Are You greater than our abba Avraham, who is dead? And the neviim who are dead: who do You make Yourself to be?

54 אמר answered, If I esteem Myself, My kavod is nothing: it is My Abba that esteems Me; the One who you say, is your Ahloha:

55 Yet you have not known Him; but I know Him: and if I should say, I don't know Him, I shall be a liar like all of you: but I know Him and shomer His Word.

56 Your abba Avraham rejoiced to see the yom of My coming: and he saw it and had gilah.

57 Then said the Yahudim to Him, You are not yet fifty years old and You have seen Avraham?

58 אמר said to them, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Before Avraham was, I AM.

59 Then they took up stones to cast at Him: but אמר hid Himself and went out of the Beit HaMikdash, going through the midst of them and so went away.

9 And as אמר passed by, He saw a man who was blind from his birth.

2 And His talmidim asked Him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 אמר answered, Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of Ahloha should be made manifest through him.

4 I must do the works of Him that sent Me, while it is yom: the lyla comes, when no man can do works.

5 As long as I AM in the olam hazeh, I AM The Ohr of the olam hazeh.

6 When He had spoken this, He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva and He anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said to him, Go, wash in the Mikvah of Shiloach – which is by interpretation, Sent – he went on his way therefore and washed and came back seeing.

8 The neighbors therefore and those who before had seen him blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is that man: others said, No he only resembles him: but he said, I am the one.

10 Therefore they said to him, How were your eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A Man they call אֲרַמְיָא made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, Go to the Mikvah of Shiloach and wash: and I went and washed and I received my sight.

12 Then they said to him, Where is He? He said, I don't know.

13 They brought to the Prushim him that was blind before.

14 And it was Shabbat when אֲרַמְיָא made the clay and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Prushim asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes and I washed and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Prushim, This Man is not from Ahloha because He does not shomer The Shabbat! Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such nisim? And there was a division among them.

17 They said to the blind man again, What do you say about Him, who has opened your eyes? He said to them, I say He is a Navi.

18 But the Yahudim did not believe him, who had been blind and received his sight, until they called in the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now sees, we don't know; or who has opened his eyes we don't know: he is bar mitzvah; ask him: he can speak for himself.

22 These words spoke his parents because they feared the Yahudim: for the Yahudim had agreed already, that if any man did confess that He was The Moshiach, he would then be put out of the synagogue.

23 Because of this his parents said, He is bar mitzvah; ask him.

24 Then they again called the man that was blind and said to him, Give Ahloha the tehilla: we know that this Man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether He is a sinner, or not, I don't know: one thing I know, that, before I was blind, but now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already and you do not hear: why do you want to hear it again? Do you also desire to be His talmidim?

28 Then they cursed him and said, You are His talmid; but we are Moshe's talmidim.

29 We know that Ahloha spoke to Moshe: as for this fellow, we don't even know where He comes from.

30 The man answered and said to them, Why here is an interesting thing, that you don't know from where He comes from and yet He has opened my eyes.

31 Now we know that Ahloha listens not to sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of Ahloha and does His will, He listens to him.

32 Since the olam hazeh began it was never heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not from Ahloha, He could do nothing.

34 They answered and said to him, You were altogether born in sins and yet you teach us? And they cast him out.

35 וַיִּשְׁמָעוּ heard that they had cast him out; and when He had found him, He said to him, Do you believe on The Son of אֱלֹהִים ?

36 He answered and said, Who is He, Master, that I may believe on Him?

37 And וַיִּשְׁמָעוּ said to him, You have seen Him and it is He that is speaking with you right now.

38 And he said, Master, I believe. And he worshipped Him.

39 And וַיִּשְׁמָעוּ said, For mishpat I AM come into this olam hazeh, that they who see not might see; and that they who see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Prushim who were with Him heard these words and said to Him, Are we blind also?

41 וַיִּשְׁמָעוּ said to them, If you were blind, you would have no sin: but now you say, We see; therefore your sin remains.

10 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, He that enters not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up some other derech, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But He that enters in by the door is the Shepherd of the sheep.

3 To Him the doorkeeper opens; and the sheep hear His voice: and He calls His own sheep by name and leads them out.

4 And when He puts forth His own sheep, He goes before them and the sheep follow Him: for they know His voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This figure of speech אָמַרְתִּים used with them: but they understood not these things that He spoke to them.

7 Then said אָמַרְתִּים to them again, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, I AM the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before Me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I AM the door: by Me if any man enters in, he shall be saved and shall go in and out and find pasture.

10 The thief comes not, but to steal and to kill and to destroy: I AM come that they might have chayim and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I AM the Tov Shepherd: the Tov Shepherd gives His chayim for the sheep.

12 But he that is a hired person and not the Shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away: and the wolf catches them and scatters the sheep.

13 The hired person runs away because he is a hired person and cares not for the sheep.

14 I AM the Tov Shepherd and know My sheep and am known by My sheep.

15 As The Abba knows Me, even so I know The Abba: and I lay down My chayim for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring in and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd.

17 Therefore does My Abba love Me because I lay down My chayim, that I might take it again.

18 No man takes it from Me, but I lay it down by Myself. I have Power to lay it down and I have Power to take it again. This commandment have I received from My Abba.

19 There was a division therefore again among the Yahudim for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He has a shed and is meshugas; why do you listen to Him?

21 Others said, These are not the Words of Him that has a shed. Can a shed open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Yahrushalayim at Chanukah-The Feast Of Rededication and it was winter.

23 And $\alpha\omega\iota\lambda\lambda\alpha$ walked in the Beit HaMikdash in Shlomo's Porch.

24 Then came the Yahudim around Him and said to Him, How long do You make us doubt? If You are The Moshiach, tell us plainly.

25 $\alpha\omega\iota\lambda\lambda\alpha$ answered them, I told you and you believed not: the works that I do in My Abba's Name, they bear witness of Me.

26 But you believe not because you are not My sheep, as I said to you.

27 My sheep hear My voice and I know them and they follow Me:

28 And I give to them eternal chayim; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man snatch them out of My hand.

29 My Abba, who gave them to Me, is greater than all; and no man is able to snatch them out of My Abba's hand.

30 I and My Abba are Echad and are in one accord.

31 Then the unbelieving Yahudim took up stones again to stone Him.

32 אמר answered them, Many tov works have I showed you from My Abba; for which of those works do you stone Me?

33 The Yahudim answered Him, saying, For a tov mitzvah we don't stone You; but for blasphemy; because You, being only a man, make Yourself Ahloha.

34 אמר answered them, Is it not written in your Torah, I said, you are ahlahim?

35 If He called them ahlahim, to whom The Word of אמר came, then The Katuv cannot be broken;

36 Why do you say of Him, whom Abba has set apart and sent into the olam hazeh, You blaspheme; because I said, I AM The Son of Ahloha?

37 If I do not the works of My Abba, believe Me not.

38 But if I do, though you believe Me not, believe the works: that you may know and believe, that The Abba is in Me and I in Him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take Him: but He escaped out of their hand, 40 And He went away again beyond Yarden into the place where Yochanan at first immersed; and there He stayed.

41 And many came to Him and said, Yochanan did not even do one ness: but all the things that Yochanan spoke about this Man are emet.

42 And many believed on Him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, named El-Azar, of Beth Anya, the town of Miryam and her sister Martha.

2 It was that Miryam who anointed אמר with ointment and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother El-Azar was sick.

3 Therefore his sisters sent to Him, saying, Master, see, he whom You love is sick.

4 When אזכריאל heard that, He said, This sickness is not to death, but for the tifereth of אזכריאל, that The Son of אזכריאל might be esteemed by this.

5 Now אזכריאל loved Martha and her sister and El-Azar.

6 When He had heard that he was sick, He stayed two yamim still in the same place where He was.

7 Then after that He said to His talmidim, Let us go into Yahudah again.

8 His talmidim said to Him, Master, the Yahudim recently sought to stone You; and You go there again?

9 אזכריאל answered, Are there not twelve hours in the yom? If any man walks in the yom, he stumbles not because he sees The Ohr of the olam hazeh.

10 But if a man walks in the lyla, he stumbles because there is no Ohr in him.

11 These things He said: and after that He said to them, Our chaver El-Azar sleeps; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said His talmidim, Master, if he sleeps, he shall get well.

13 But אזכריאל spoke of His death: but they thought that He had spoken of taking a rest in sleep.

14 Then said אזכריאל to them plainly, El-Azar is dead.

15 And I AM glad for your sake that I was not there, to the intent that you may believe; nevertheless let us go to him.

16 Then said Toma, who is called the Twin, to his fellow talmidim, Let us also go, that we may die with Him.

17 Then when אזכריאל came, He found that he had been in the tomb for four yamim already.

18 Now Beth-Anya was near to Yahrushalayim, about two miles away:

19 And many of the Yahudim came to Martha and Miryam, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that וואָס was coming, went and met Him: but Miryam sat still in the bayit.

21 Then said Martha to וואָס, Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatever You will ask of וואָס, וואָס will give it to You.

23 וואָס said to her, Your brother shall rise again.

24 Martha said to Him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection on the last yom.

25 וואָס said to her, I AM The Resurrection and The Chayim: he that believes in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?

27 She said to Him, Yes, Master: I believe that You are The Moshiach, The Son of וואָס, who should come into the olam hazeih.

28 And when she had said so, she went on her derech and called Miryam her sister secretly, saying, The Master has come and calls for you.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly and came to Him.

30 Now וואָס had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met Him.

31 The Yahudim then who were with her in the bayit, comforting her, when they saw Miryam, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, She goes to the tomb to weep there.

32 Then when Miryam had come to where וואָס was and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

33 When וואסער therefore saw her weeping and the Yahudim also weeping who came with her, He groaned in The Ruach and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have you laid him? They said to Him, Master, come and see.
35 וואסער wept.
36 Then said the Yahudim, Behold how He loved him!
37 And some of them said, Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
38 וואסער therefore again being troubled within came to the tomb. It was a cave and a stone was placed at the entrance.
39 וואסער said, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, said to Him, Master, by this time he stinks: for he has been dead four yamim.
40 וואסער said to her, Did I not say to you, that, if you would believe, you would see the tifereth of וואסער ?
41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was laid. And וואסער lifted up His eyes and said, Abba, todah that You have heard Me.
42 And I know that You hear Me always: but because of the people who stand by I said it, that they may believe that You have sent Me.
43 And when He had spoken, He cried out with a loud voice, El-Azar, uhrach vetzeah; come forth.
44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with burial clothes: and his face bound with a burial napkin. וואסער said to them, Loose him and let him go.
45 Then many of the Yahudim who came to Miryam and had seen the things that וואסער did, believed on Him.

46 But some of them went to the Prushim and told them what things וּמְרִיאָהוּ had done.

47 Then gathered the chief kohanim and the Prushim a sanhedrin and said, What do we do? For this Man does many nisim.

48 If we just leave Him alone, all men will believe on Him: and the Romayim shall come and take away our position, our Beit HaMikdash and our nation.

49 And one of them, named Qayapha, being the Kohen HaGadol that same year, said to them, You know nothing at all, 50 Nor do you consider that it is better for us that one Man should die for the people, than for the entire nation to perish.

51 And this he spoke not by himself: but being Kohen HaGadol that year, he prophesied that וּמְרִיאָהוּ should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also He should gather together into echad the B'nai Ahloha that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that yom forward they took counsel together to put Him to death.

54 וּמְרִיאָהוּ therefore walked no more openly among the Yahudim; but went there to a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Efrayim and there continued with His talmidim.

55 And the Yahudim's Pesach was at hand: and many went out of the country up to Yahrushalayim before the Pesach, to purify themselves.

56 Then they sought for וּמְרִיאָהוּ and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the Beit HaMikdash, What do you think; will He not come to the moed?

57 Now both the chief kohanim and the Prushim had given a commandment, so that, if any man knew where He was, he should reveal it, that they might seize Him.

12 Then וַיֵּשֶׁב six yamim before the Pesach came to Beth Anya, where El-Azar was who וַיֵּשֶׁב had raised from the dead.

2 There they made Him a supper; and Martha served: and El-Azar was one of them that sat at the shulchan with Him.

3 Then Miryam took an alabaster of tov pistachio, very expensive and anointed the feet of וַיֵּשֶׁב and wiped His feet with her hair: and the bayit was filled with the fragrance of the oil.

4 Then said one of His talmidim, Yahudah from Qerioth, Shimon's son, who would betray Him,

5 Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred silver pieces and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not because he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief and had the moneybag and stole what was put in it.

7 Then said וַיֵּשֶׁב, Leave her alone: she has kept it for the yom of My burial.

8 For the poor you always have with you; but Me you do not have always.

9 Many people of the Yahudim therefore knew that He was there: and they came not for וַיֵּשֶׁב's sake only, but that they might also see El-Azar, whom He had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief kohanim conspired that they might put El-Azar also to death;

11 Because on account of him many of the Yahudim were leaving the kohanim and believed on וַיֵּשֶׁב even more.

12 On the next yom many of the people that had come early for the moed, when they heard that וַיֵּשֶׁב was coming to Yahrushalayim,

13 Took branches of palm eytzim and went forth to meet Him and cried, Hoshiana: Blessed is The

Melech of Yisrael; Baruch haba beshem HaAdon
אֲדֹנָי.

14 And אֲדֹנָי, when He had found a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Tzion: see, your Melech comes, sitting on a donkey's colt.

16 These things His talmidim understood not at that time: but when אֲדֹנָי was esteemed, then they recalled that these things were written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

17 The people therefore that were with Him when He called El-Azar out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness.

18 For this cause the people also met Him, for they heard that He had done this ness.

19 The Prushim therefore said among themselves, Do you perceive how we prevail nothing? Behold, the entire olam has gone after Him.

20 And there were certain Greeks and others among them that came up to worship at the moed:

21 The same came near to Philip, who was from Beth-Tsaida of Galil and sought him, saying, sir, we would like to see אֲדֹנָי.

22 Philip told Andri: and Andri and Philip told אֲדֹנָי.

23 And אֲדֹנָי answered them, saying, The hour has come, that The Ben Ahdahm should be esteemed.

24 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Except a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it stays alone: but if it dies, it brings forth much fruit.

25 He that loves his chayim shall lose it; and he that has no concern for his chayim in the olam hazeh shall keep it to chayim eternal.

26 If any man serve Me, let him follow Me; and where I AM, there also shall My eved be: if any man serve Me, him will My Abba esteem.

27 Now My being is troubled; and what shall I say?
Abba, save Me from this hour: but it was for this cause that I came to this hour.

28 Abba, bring tifereth to Your Name. Then there came a voice from the shamayim, saying, I have both esteemed it and will esteem it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by and who heard it, said that it thundered: others said, A heavenly malach spoke to Him.

30 אמר answered and said, This voice came not because of Me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the mishpat of the olam hazeh: now shall the sar of the olam hazeh be expelled.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to Me.

33 This He said, signifying what death He should die.

34 The people answered Him, We have heard out of the Torah that The Moshiach remains on earth leolam-va-ed: so how are You saying, The Ben Ahdahm must be lifted up? Who is this Ben Ahdahm?

35 Then אמר said to them, Yet a little while is The Ohr with you. Walk while you have The Ohr, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walks in darkness knows not where he goes.

36 While you have Ohr, believe in The Ohr, that you may be the children of Ohr. These things spoke אמר and departed and was hidden from them.

37 But though He had done so many nisim before them, yet they believed not on Him:

38 That the saying of Yeshayahu the navi might be fulfilled, which he spoke saying אמר, who has believed our report? And to whom has the Arm of The Master אמר been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe because Yeshayahu said again,

40 They have blinded their eyes and hardened their levavot; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their levavot and return and I would heal them.

41 These things said Yeshayahu, when he saw His tifereth and spoke of Him.

42 Nevertheless among the leading rulers also many believed on Him; but because of the Prushim they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the tehilot of men more than the tehilot of אֱלֹהִים.

44 אֱלֹהִים cried and said, He that believes on Me, believes not on Me, but on Him that sent Me.

45 And he that sees Me sees Him that sent Me.

46 I have come an Ohr into the olam hazeh that whoever believes on Me should not live in darkness.

47 And if any man hears My Words and believes not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the olam, but to save the olam hazeh.

48 He that rejects Me and receives not My Words, has One that judges him. The Word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him on the last yom.

49 For I have not spoken by Myself; but The Abba who sent Me, He gave Me a commandment, what I should say and what I should speak.

50 And I know that His commandment is eternal chayim: whatever I speak therefore, even as The Abba said to Me, so I speak.

13 Now before the moed of the Pesach, when אֱלֹהִים knew that His hour had come and that He should depart out of the olam hazeh back to The Abba, having loved His own who were in the olam hazeh, He loved them to the end.

2 During supper, s.a.tan put into the lev of Yahudah from Qerioth, Shimon's son, the desire to betray Him;

3 𐤀𐤛𐤉𐤁𐤁𐤁 knowing that The Abba had given all things into His Hands and that He had come from 𐤁𐤉𐤁𐤁 and was going back to 𐤁𐤉𐤁𐤁;

4 Rose from supper and laid aside His garments; and took a towel and girded Himself.

5 After that He poured mayim into a basin and began to observe Rachatz and washed the talmidim's feet and wiped them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 Then He came to Shimon Kefa: and Kefa said to Him, Master, do You wash my feet?

7 𐤀𐤛𐤉𐤁𐤁𐤁 answered and said to him, What I do you do not know now; but you shall know after this.

8 Kefa said to Him, You shall never wash my feet. Yahushua answered him, If I wash you not, you have no part with Me.

9 Shimon Kefa said to Him, Master, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 𐤀𐤛𐤉𐤁𐤁𐤁 said to him, He that is bathed need not wash except his feet, but is clean already: and you are clean, but not all.

11 For He knew who should betray Him; therefore He said, You are not all clean.

12 So after He had washed their feet and had taken off His garments and was sitting down again, He said to them, Now do you know what I have done to you?

13 You call Me Master and Rabbi: and you say well; for I AM.

14 If I then, Your Rabbi and Master, have washed your feet; you also should wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example that you should do as I have done to you.

16 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, The eved is not greater than His Master; neither He that is sent, greater than He that sent Him.

17 If you know these things, happy are you if you do them.

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that The Katuv may be fulfilled, He that eats lechem with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.

19 Now I tell you before it comes to pass, so that, when it is come to pass, you may believe that I AM.

20 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, He that receives whomever I send receives Me; and he that receives Me receives Him that sent Me.

21 When owfʼʼz had said this, He was troubled in ruach and testified and said, Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, That one of you shall betray Me.

22 Then the talmidim looked at each other, not knowing of whom He spoke.

23 Now there was leaning on owfʼʼz's bosom one of His talmidim, whom Yahushua loved.

24 Shimon Kefa therefore beckoned to him that he should ask who it was that He spoke about.

25 He then lying on owfʼʼz's breast said to Him, Master, who is it?

26 owfʼʼz answered, It is he, to whom I shall give a matzah piece, when I have dipped it. And when He had dipped the matzah piece, He gave it to Yahudah from Qerioth, the son of Shimon.

27 And after the matzah piece s.a.tan entered into him. Then said owfʼʼz to him, What you are doing, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the shulchan knew why He said this to him.

29 For some of them thought because Yahudah had the moneybag, that owfʼʼz had said to him, Buy those things that we need for the moed; or that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the matzah piece went out immediately: and it was lyla.

31 Therefore, when he had gone out, וּמִיָּאָזְזֵי said, Now is The Ben Ahdahm esteemed and וּמִיָּאָזְזֵי is esteemed in Him.

32 If וּמִיָּאָזְזֵי be esteemed in Him, וּמִיָּאָזְזֵי shall also esteem Him in Himself and shall esteem Him immediately.

33 My sons, yet a little while I AM with you. You shall seek Me: and as I said to the Yahudim, Where I go, you cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A renewed commandment I give to you, That you have ahava towards one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that you are My talmidim, if you have ahava one to another.

36 Shimon Kefa said to Him, Master, where are You going? Yahushua answered him, Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but you shall follow Me afterwards.

37 Kefa said to Him, Master, why can't I follow You now? I will lay down my chayim for Your sake.

38 וּמִיָּאָזְזֵי answered him; Will you lay down your chayim for My sake? Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, The cock shall not crow, until you have denied Me three times.

14 Let not your lev be troubled: you believe in וּמִיָּאָזְזֵי, believe also in Me.

2 In My Abba's bayit are many abiding chambers: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I AM, there you may be also.

4 And where I go you know and the derech you know.

5 Toma said to Him, Master, we know not where You are going; so how can we know the derech?

6 אני said to him, I AM the Derech, the Emet and the Chayim: no man comes to My Abba, except through Me.

7 If you had known Me, you would have known My Abba also: and from now on you know Him and have seen Him.

8 Philip said to Him, Master, show us The Abba and it will be enough for us.

9 אני said to him, Have I been so long a time with you and yet have you not known Me, Philip? He that has seen Me has seen The Abba; how then are you saying, show us The Abba?

10 Do you not believe that I AM in The Abba and The Abba is in Me? The words that I speak to you I speak not from Myself: but The Abba that dwells in Me, He does the works.

11 Believe Me that I AM in The Abba and The Abba in Me: or else believe Me because of the works.

12 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, He that believes on Me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to My Abba.

13 And whatever you shall ask in My Name, that will I do, that The Abba may be esteemed in The Son.

14 If you shall ask anything in My Name, I will do it.

15 If you love Me, keep My mitzvoth.

16 And I will ask The Abba and He shall give you another Comforter, that He may stay with and in you le-olam-va-ed;

17 Even The Ruach of Emet; whom the olam hazeh cannot receive because it sees Him not, neither knows Him: but you know Him; for He dwells with you and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you as orphans: I will come to you after a little while.

19 Yet a little while and the olam hazeh will see Me no more; but you will see Me: because I live, you shall live also.

20 In that yom you shall know that I AM in My Abba and you in Me and I in you.

21 He that has My mitzvoth and keeps them, he it is that loves Me: and he who loves Me, shall be loved by My Abba and I will love him and will reveal Myself to him.

22 Yahudah, not from Qerioth, said to Him, Master, how is it that You will reveal Yourself to us and not to the olam hazeh?

23 Yahushua answered and said to him, If a man loves Me, he will guard My Words: and My Abba will love him and We will come to him and make Our stay with and in him.

24 He that loves Me not keeps not My sayings: and the word which you hear is not Mine, but The Abba's who sent Me.

25 These things have I spoken to you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is The Ruach Hakodesh, whom The Abba will send in My Name, He shall teach you all things and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.

27 Shalom I leave with you; My own shalom I give to you: but not as the olam hazeh gives it. Let not your lev be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 You have heard what I said to you, I go away and come again to you. If you loved Me, you would gilah because I said, I go to The Abba: for My Abba is greater than I AM.

29 And now I have told you before it comes to pass, so that, when it is come to pass, you might believe.

30 I will no longer talk much with you: for the sar of the olam hazeh is coming and has nothing against Me.

31 But that the olam hazeh may know that I love My Abba; and as The Abba gave Me orders, even so I do them. Rise up; let us go away from here.

15 I AM the Emet Vine and My Abba is The Gardener.

2 Every branch in Me that bears not fruit He takes away: and every branch that bears fruit, He purges it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now you are clean through the word that I have spoken to you.

4 Remain in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, except it stays in the Vine; neither can you, except you remain in Me.

5 I AM the Vine, you are the netsarim: He that stays in Me and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit: for without Me you can do nothing.

6 If a man stays not in Me, he is cast forth as a branch and is withered; and men gather them and cast them into the fire and they are burned.

7 If you stay in Me and My Words stay in you, you shall ask what you desire and it shall be done for you.

8 By this is My Abba esteemed, that you bear much fruit; so shall you be My talmidim.

9 As The Abba has loved Me, so have I loved you: continue in My ahava.

10 If you keep My mitzvoth, you shall stay in My ahava; even as I have kept My Abba's mitzvoth and stay in His ahava.

11 These things have I spoken to you, that My simcha might remain in you and that your simcha might be full.

12 This is My commandment, That you love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater ahava has no man than this that a man lay down His chayim for His chaverim.

14 You are My chaverim, if you do all I command you.

15 No longer do I call you avadim; for the eved knows not what His Master does: but I have called you chaverim; for all things that I have heard from My Abba I have made known to you.

16 You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you and ordained you, that you should go and bring forth more fruit and that your fruit should remain: whatever you shall ask of The Abba in My Name, He will give it to you.

17 These things I command you, that you love one another.

18 If the olam hazeh hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.

19 If you were of the olam hazeh, the olam hazeh would love its own: but because you are not of the olam hazeh, but I have chosen you out of the olam hazeh, therefore the olam hazeh hates you.

20 Remember The Word that I said to you, The eved is not greater than His Master. If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they have guarded My Words, they will guard yours also.

21 But all these things will they do to you for My Name's sake because they know not Him that sent Me.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin: but now they have no excuse, or sacrifice for their sin.

23 He that hates Me, hates My Abba also.

24 If I had not done among them the works that no other man did, they would have no sin: but now have they seen and hated both My Abba and Me.

25 But this comes to pass, that The Word might be fulfilled that is written in their Torah, They hated Me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter will come, whom I will send to you from The Abba, The Ruach of Emet, which proceeds from The Abba, He shall testify of Me:

27 And you also shall bear witness because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16 These things have I spoken to you, that you should not stumble.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the time comes, that whoever kills you will think that he performs an offering in אֱלֹהִים's service.

3 And these things will they do to you because they have not known Me, or The Abba.

4 But these things have I told you, so that when the time shall come, you may remember that I told you about them. And these things I did not tell you before because I was with you.

5 But now I go on My derech to Him that sent Me; and none of you asks Me, Where are you going?

6 But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your lev.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the emet; It is better for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send Him to you.

8 And when He has come, He will reprove the olam of sin and of tzedakah and of mishpat:

9 Of sin because they believe not on Me;

10 Of tzedakah because I go to My Abba and you see Me no more;

11 Of mishpat because the ruler of the olam hazeh is being judged.

12 I have yet many other things to say to you, but you cannot grasp them now.

13 But when He, The Ruach of Emet, has come, He will guide you into all emet: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will show you things to come in the future.

14 He shall esteem Me: for He shall receive from Me what is Mine and shall show it to you.

15 All things that My Abba has are Mine: that is why I said, that He shall take of Mine and shall show it to you.

16 A little while and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while later and you shall see Me because I go to The Abba.

17 Then said some of His talmidim among themselves, What is this that He said to us, A little while and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while and you shall see Me: and, Because I AM going to The Abba?

18 They said therefore, What is this that He said, A little while? We do not understand what He is saying.

19 Now וַיִּשְׁמָעוּ knew that they desired to ask Him and said to them, Do you inquire among yourselves what I said, A little while and you shall not see Me: and again, a little while and you shall see Me?

20 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, That you shall weep and lament, but the olam hazeh shall gilah: and you shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into simcha.

21 A woman when she is in labor has grief because her hour has come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembers no more the pain, for the simcha that a son is born into the olam hazeh.

22 And you now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again and your lev shall gilah and your simcha no man takes from you.

23 And in that yom you shall ask Me nothing.

Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, Whatever you shall ask My Abba in My Name, He will give it you.

24 Until now you have asked nothing in My Name: now ask and you shall receive, that your simcha may be full.

25 These things have I spoken to you in figures of speech: but the time comes, when I shall no more speak to you in figures of speech, but I shall show you in the pashat, things concerning The Abba.

26 In that yom you shall ask in My Name: and I say not to you, that I will ask The Abba for you:

27 For The Abba Himself loves you because you have loved Me and have believed that I came out from within אִיִּיִּי.

28 I came out from The Abba and have come into the olam hazeh: again, I leave the olam hazeh and go back to The Abba.

29 His talmidim said to Him, See, now You speak in pashat and speak without drash.

30 Now we are sure that You know all things and need not that any man should ask You: by this we believe that You came forth from within אִיִּיִּי.

31 אַוִּיִּיִּי said to them, Do you now believe?

32 Behold, the hour comes, yes, has now come, that you shall be scattered, every man to his own country and shall leave Me alone: and yet I AM not alone because My Abba is with and in Me.

33 These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you might have shalom. In the olam hazeh you shall have tribulation: but be of tov courage; I have overcome and conquered the olam hazeh.

17 These words spoke Yahushua and lifted up His eyes to the shamayim and said, Abba, the hour has come; esteem Your Son, that Your Son also may esteem You:

2 As You have given Him Power over all flesh that He should give eternal chayim to as many as You have given Him.

3 And this is eternal chayim, that they might know You, the only emet Ahloha and אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach, whom You have sent.

4 I have esteemed You on the earth: I have finished the work that You gave Me to do.

5 And now, O Abba, esteem Me by Your own self with the esteem that I had with You before the olam hazeh was created.

6 I have manifested Your Name to the men whom You gave Me out of the olam hazeh: Yours they were and You gave them to Me; and they have kept Your Word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatever You have given Me are from You.

8 For I have given to them The Words which You gave Me; and they have received them and have known surely that I came out from You and they have believed that You did send Me.

9 I request for them: I request not for the olam hazeh, but for those whom You have given Me; for they are Yours.

10 And all Mine are Yours and Yours are Mine; and I AM esteemed in them.

11 And now I AM no more in the olam hazeh, but these are in the olam hazeh and I come to You Kadosh Abba, shomer through Your own Name those whom You have given Me, that they may be echad, as we are Echad.

12 While I was with them in the olam hazeh, I guarded them in Your Name: those that You gave Me I have kept and none of them is lost, except the son of perdition; that The Katuv might be fulfilled.

13 And now I return to You; but these things I speak in the olam hazeh, that they might have My simcha completed within themselves.

14 I have given them Your Word; and the olam hazeh has hated them because they are not of the olam hazeh, even as I AM not of the olam hazeh.

15 I request not that You should take them out of the olam hazeh, but that You should keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the olam hazeh, even as I AM not of the olam hazeh.

17 Set them apart through Your emet: Your Word is Emet.

18 As You have sent Me into the olam hazeh, even so have I also sent them into the olam hazeh.

19 And for their sakes I set Myself apart, that they also might be kadosh through The Emet.

20 Neither do I make tefillah for these alone, but for them also who shall believe on Me through their Word, 21 That they all may be echad; as You, Abba, are with and in Me and I with and in You, that they also may be echad with and in Us: that the olam hazeh may believe that You have sent Me.

22 And the tifereth, which You gave Me, I have given them; that they may be echad, even as we are echad:

23 I with and in them and You with and in Me, that they may be perfected into Our echad; and that the olam hazeh may know that You have sent Me and have loved them, as You have loved Me.

24 Abba, I will that they also, whom You have given Me, be with Me where I AM; that they may see My tifereth, which You have given Me: for You loved Me before the foundation of the olam hazeh.

25 O My Tzadik-Abba, the olam hazeh has not known You: but I have known You and these have known that You have sent Me.

26 And I have declared to them Your Name and will yet declare it: so that the ahava with which You have loved Me may be in them and I in them.

18 After וַיֵּשֶׁב had spoken these words, He went forth with His talmidim over the brook Qidron, where there was a garden, into which He entered, with His talmidim.

2 And Yahudah also, who betrayed Him, knew the place: for וַיֵּשֶׁב often would stay there with His talmidim.

3 Yahudah then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief kohanim and Prushim, came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 וַיֵּשֶׁב therefore, knowing all things that should come upon Him, went forward and said to them, Whom do you seek?

5 They answered Him, וַיֵּשֶׁב of Natzeret. וַיֵּשֶׁב said to them, I AM. And Yahudah also, who betrayed Him, stood with them.

6 As soon as He had said to them, I AM, they went backwards and fell to the ground.

7 Then He asked them again, Whom do you seek? And they said, וַיֵּשֶׁב of Natzeret.

8 וַיֵּשֶׁב answered, I have told you that I AM: if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, that He spoke, Of those whom You gave Me have I lost none.

10 Then Shimon Kefa having a sword drew it and smote the Kohen HaGadol's eved and cut off his right ear. The eved's name was Melech.

11 Then said וַיֹּאמֶר to Kefa, Put your sword into the sheath: the cup, which My Abba has given Me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the company of soldiers and the captain and officers of the Yahudim took וַיֹּאמֶר and bound Him, 13 And led Him away to Chanan first; for he was abba-in-law of Qayapha, who was the Kohen HaGadol that same year.

14 Now Qayapha was he, who gave counsel to the Yahudim, that it was better that one Man should die for the people.

15 And Shimon Kefa followed וַיֹּאמֶר and so did another talmid: that talmid was known to the Kohen HaGadol and went in with וַיֹּאמֶר into the palace of the Kohen HaGadol.

16 But Kefa stood at the door outside. Then went out that other talmid, who was known to the Kohen HaGadol and spoke to her that guarded the door and brought in Kefa.

17 Then said the girl that guarded the door to Kefa, Are not you also one of this Man's talmidim? He said, I am not.

18 And the avadim and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Kefa stood with them and warmed himself.

19 The Kohen HaGadol then asked וַיֹּאמֶר about His talmidim and about His doctrine.

20 וַיֹּאמֶר answered him, I spoke openly to the olam hazeh; I always taught in the synagogue and in the Beit HaMikdash, where the Yahudim always assemble; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why do you ask Me? Ask those who heard Me, what I have said to them: see, they know what I said.

22 And when He had spoken this, one of the officers who stood by struck סוֹפְרָאן with the palm of his hand, saying, Is that the way You answer the Kohen HaGadol?

23 סוֹפְרָאן answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why did you strike Me?

24 Now Chanan had sent Him bound to Qayapha the Kohen HaGadol.

25 And Shimon Kefa stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Are not you also one of His talmidim? He denied it and said, I am not.

26 One of the avadim of the Kohen HaGadol, being a relative of the one whose ear Kefa cut off, said, Did I not see you in the garden with Him?

27 Kefa then denied again: and immediately the cock crowed.

28 Then they led סוֹפְרָאן from Qayapha to the hall of mishpat: and it was early; but they themselves went not into the Mishpat Hall, lest they should be defiled; so that they might eat the Pesach.

29 Pilate then went out to them and said, What accusation do you bring against this Man?

30 They answered and said to him, If He were not an evildoer, we would not have brought Him up to you.

31 Then said Pilate to them; You take Him and judge Him according to your Torah. The Yahudim therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That The Word of סוֹפְרָאן might be fulfilled, that He spoke, signifying what kind of death He should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the Mishpat Hall again and called סוֹפְרָאן and said to Him, Are You The Melech of the Yahudim?

34 אמר answered him, Are you asking this on your own, or did others tell you this about Me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Yahudi? Your own nation and the chief kohanim have brought You to me: what have You done?

36 אמר answered, My malchut is not of this olam hazeh: if My malchut were of this olam hazeh, then would My avadim fight, that I should not be delivered to the Yahudim: but now is My malchut not from here.

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, Are You a melech then? אמר answered, You are right in saying that I AM a Melech. For this very reason was I born and for this cause I came into the olam hazeh, that I should bear witness to the Emet. Everyone that is of the Emet hears My voice.

38 Pilate said to Him, What is emet? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Yahudim and said to them, I find in Him no fault at all.

39 But you have a custom that I should release to you one prisoner on the Pesach: will you therefore that I release to you The Melech of the Yahudim?

40 Then they all cried again, saying: Not this man, but Bar-Abba. Now Bar-Abba was a robber.

19 Then Pilate therefore took אמר and scourged Him.

2 And the soldiers wove a keter of thorns and put it on His head and they put on Him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, Melech of the Yahudim! And they smote Him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again and said to them, Behold, I bring Him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in Him.

5 Then came אמר forth, wearing the keter of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, Behold the Man!

6 When the chief kohanim therefore and officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, Impale Him! Impale Him! Pilate said to them, You take Him and impale Him: for I find no fault in Him.

7 The Yahudim answered him; We have a Torah and by our Torah He has to die because He made Himself The Son of Ahloha.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was even more afraid;

9 And went again into the Mishpat Hall and said to $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\tau\epsilon\varsigma$, Where are You from? But $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\tau\epsilon\varsigma$ gave him no answer.

10 Then said Pilate to Him, You speak not to me? Don't you know that I have power to impale You and have power to release You?

11 $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\tau\epsilon\varsigma$ answered, You would have no power at all against Me, unless it was given to you from above: therefore he that delivered Me to you has the greater sin.

12 And from that time on Pilate sought to release Him: but the Yahudim cried out, saying, If you let this Man go, you are not Kaiser's chaver: whoever makes Himself a Melech speaks against Kaiser.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\tau\epsilon\varsigma$ forth and sat down in the mishpat seat in a place that is called Pavement, but in Ivrit, Gavatha.

14 And it was during the preparation for the Pesach, at about noon he said to the Yahudim, Behold your Melech!

15 But they cried out, Away with Him, away with Him, Impale Him! Pilate said to them, Shall I impale your Melech? The Kohen HaGadol answered; We have no melech but Kaiser.

16 Then Pilate delivered Him to them to be impaled. And they took $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\tau\epsilon\varsigma$ and led Him away.

17 And He bearing His stake went forth into a place called the Place of The Skull, which is called in Ivrit; Golgotha:

18 Where they impaled Him and two others with Him, on either side one and ֹוֹרֵאֵז in the midst.

19 And Pilate wrote on a stone sign and put it on the stake. And the writing was, ֹוֹרֵאֵז Ha-Notsri U-Melech HaYahudim ֹוֹרֵאֵז.

20 This sign then read many of the Yahudim: for the place where ֹוֹרֵאֵז was impaled was near to the city: and it was written in Ivrit and Greek and Latin.

21 Then said the chief kohanim of the Yahudim to Pilate, Write not, The Melech of the Yahudim; but that He said, I AM Melech of the Yahudim.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 Then the soldiers, when they had impaled ֹוֹרֵאֵז, took His garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also His coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it, to see whose it should be: that The Katuv might be fulfilled, which said, They parted My clothes among them and for My robe they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 Now there stood by the stake of ֹוֹרֵאֵז His eema and His eema's sister, Miryam the isha of Qlophah and Miryam from Magdala.

26 When ֹוֹרֵאֵז therefore saw His eema and the talmid standing by, whom He loved, He said to His eema, Woman, see your Son!

27 Then He said to the talmid, See your eema! And from that hour that talmid took her to his own home.

28 After this, Yahushua knowing that all things were now accomplished, that The Katuv might be fulfilled, said, I thirst!

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar and put it upon hyssop and lifted it to His mouth.

30 When וְיֵשׁוּעַ therefore had received the vinegar, He said, KALA: and He bowed His head and dismissed His ruach.

31 The Yahudim therefore because it was the Preparation Yom, that the bodies should not remain upon the stake on The Shabbat, for that Shabbat yom was an important annual Shabbat sought Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers and broke the legs of the first and of the other who were impaled with Him.

33 But when they came to וְיֵשׁוּעַ and saw that He was dead already, they broke not His legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear had pierced His side and instantly came out דָּהֵם וְיַיִם.

35 And he that saw it bore witness and his witness is אֱמֶת: and he knows that what he said is אֱמֶת, that you might believe.

36 For these things were done, that The כְּתוּב should be fulfilled, A bone of His shall not be broken.

37 And again another כְּתוּב said, They shall look on Him whom they pierced.

38 And after this Yoseph of Ramathayim, being a talmid of וְיֵשׁוּעַ, but secretly for fear of the Yahudim, asked Pilate if he could take away the גִּוּף of וְיֵשׁוּעַ: and Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took the גִּוּף of וְיֵשׁוּעַ.

39 And there came also Nakdimon, who in the beginning came to וְיֵשׁוּעַ by lyla and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred-pint weight.

40 Then they took the gooff of סוף־אז and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Yahudim is to bury.

41 Now in the place where He was impaled there was a garden; and in the garden a new tomb, where no man was ever laid.

42 There they laid סוף־אז because of the Yahudim's Preparation Yom; for the tomb was nearby.

20 And then on one of the weekly Shabbats (Aviv 18), early in the boker, as darkness became ohr, came Miryam from Magdala to the tomb and saw the stone taken away from the tomb.

2 Then she ran and came to Shimon Kefa and to the other talmid, whom סוף־אז loved and said to them, They have taken away סוף־אז out of the tomb and we know not where they have laid Him.

3 Kefa therefore went forth and that other talmid and came to the tomb.

4 So they ran both together: and the other talmid did outrun Kefa and came first to the tomb.

5 And stooping down and looking in, he saw the linen clothes lying; yet he did not go in.

6 Then came Shimon Kefa following him and went into the tomb and saw the linen cloths lying,

7 And the cloth, that was around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other talmid, who came first to the tomb and he saw and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not The Katuv, that He must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the talmidim went away again to their own home.

11 But Miryam stood outside at the tomb weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb, 12 And saw two heavenly malachim in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the gooff of օַוְיָאָז had lain.

13 And they said to her, Woman, why do you weep? She said to them, Because they have taken away my Master and I know not where they have laid Him.

14 And when she had said that, she turned herself back and saw օַוְיָאָז standing and knew not that it was օַוְיָאָז.

15 օַוְיָאָז said to her, Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek? She, supposing Him to be the gardener, said to Him, Sir, if You have taken Him away, tell me where You have laid Him and I will take Him away.

16 օַוְיָאָז said to her, Miryam! She turned herself and said to Him, Rabboni; which is to say, my Great Master.

17 օַוְיָאָז said to her, Touch Me not; for I AM not yet ascended to My Abba! But go to My Yisraelite brothers and say to them, I ascend to My Abba and your Abba; and to My Ahloha and your Ahloha.

18 Miryam from Magdala came and told the talmidim that she had seen օַוְיָאָז and that He had spoken these things to her.

19 And being therefore the evening of the same weekly Shabbat (Aviv 18), when the doors were shut where the talmidim were assembled for fear of the unbelieving Yahudim, came օַוְיָאָז and stood in their midst and said to them, Shalom Aleichem!

20 And when He had said this, He showed them His Hands and His side. Then were the talmidim in gilah, when they saw օַוְיָאָז.

21 Then said օַוְיָאָז to them again, Shalom aleichem: as My Abba has sent Me, even so I send you.

22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, Receive The Ruach Hakodesh:

23 If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven; If you withhold forgiveness of a man's sins they are kept.

24 But Toma, one of the twelve, called The Twin, was not with them when וואַר אַז came.

25 The other talmidim therefore said to him, We have seen וואַר אַז. But he said to them, Except I shall see in His Hands the print of the nails and put my finger into the print of the nails and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight yamim again His talmidim were inside and Toma with them: then came וואַר אַז, the doors being shut and stood in the midst and said, Shalom Aleichem!

27 Then He said to Toma, Reach here your finger and see My hands; and reach here your hand and thrust it into My side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Toma answered and said to Him, My Master YAH and my Ahloha.

29 וואַר אַז said to him, Toma because you have seen Me, you have believed: blessed are they that have not seen and yet have believed.

30 And many other signs truly did וואַר אַז in the presence of His talmidim, which are not written in this scroll:

31 But these are written; that you might believe that וואַר אַז is The Moshiach, The Son of אַבְרָהָם; and that by believing you might have chayim through His Name.

21 After these things וואַר אַז showed Himself again to the talmidim at the Sea of Kinnereth; and in this manner did He show Himself.

2 There were together Shimon Kefa and Toma called the Twin and Natan-El of Qanah in Galil and the sons of Zavdi and two others of His talmidim.

3 Shimon Kefa said to them, I'm going fishing. They said to him, We'll also go with you. They went forth and climbed into a boat immediately; and that lyla they caught nothing.

4 But when the boker had come, *o*wa^hay^h stood on the shore: but the talmidim knew not that it was *o*wa^hay^h.

5 Then *o*wa^hay^h said to them, Children, have you any food? They answered Him, No.

6 And He said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and you shall find. They cast therefore and now they were not able to draw it in for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that talmid whom *o*wa^hay^h loved said to Kefa, It is *o*wa^hay^h. Now when Shimon Kefa heard that it was *o*wa^hay^h, he put on his outer fisher's coat – for he was stripped – and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other talmidim came in a little boat – for they were not far from land, but as it were about a hundred yards – dragging the net with the fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there and fish laid on it and lechem.

10 *o*wa^hay^h said to them, Bring of the fish that you have now caught.

11 Shimon Kefa went up and drew the net to land full of great fishes, one hundred fifty three: for even though there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 *o*wa^hay^h said to them, Come and break your fast! And none of the talmidim did ask Him, Who are You? Knowing that it was the Master-YAH.

13 *o*wa^hay^h then came and took lechem and gave it to them and also fish.

14 This is now the third time that וַיֵּשֶׁב showed Himself to His talmidim, after He was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had eaten, וַיֵּשֶׁב said to Shimon Kefa, Shimon, bar Yonah, Do you love Me more than these? He said to Him, Yes, Master YAH; You know that I am fond of You. He said to him, Feed My lambs.

16 He said to him again the second time, Shimon, bar Yonah, do you love Me? He said to Him, Yes, Master YAH; You know that I am fond of You. He said to him, Graze My sheep.

17 He said to him the third time, Shimon, bar Yonah, are you just fond of Me? Kefa was grieved because He said to him at the third time, Are you just fond of Me? And he said to Him, Master YAH, You know all things; You know that I am just fond of You at the moment. וַיֵּשֶׁב said to him, Feed My ewes.

18 Ahmein, ahmein, I say to you, When you were young, you dressed yourself and walked wherever you desired: but when you shall be old, you shall stretch forth your hands and another shall dress you and carry you where you do not want to go.

19 This He spoke, signifying by what death Kefa should esteem וַיֵּשֶׁב. And when He had spoken this, He said to him, Follow Me.

20 Then Kefa, turning around, saw the talmid whom וַיֵּשֶׁב loved following; who also was the one that leaned on His breast at supper, who said, Master-YAH, who is he that betrays You?

21 Kefa seeing him said to וַיֵּשֶׁב, Master-YAH and what about him?

22 וַיֵּשֶׁב said to him, If I desire that he lives until I come again, what is that to you? You just follow Me.

23 Then this saying went around among the Yisraelite brothers, that this talmid would not die: yet וַיֵּשֶׁב said not to him, you shall not die; but, If I choose that he remains alive until I come, what is that to you?

24 This is the talmid who testifies of these things and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is emet.

25 And there are also many other things that owf did, which, if they should all be written one by one, I suppose that even the olam hazeh itself, could not contain those written scrolls. Ahmein. X

Acts Of The Apostles

Maaseh Shlichim-To All Nations

- 1 The first scroll have I made, O Theophilos, of all that owfʿʿz began both to do and teach,
- 2 Until the yom in which He was taken up, after He through The Ruach Hakodesh had given His Torah to the shlichim whom He had chosen:
- 3 To whom also He showed Himself alive after His passion by many infallible proofs, being seen by them forty yamim and speaking of the things pertaining to the malchut of ʿʿʿz.
- 4 And, as He ate lechem together with them, He commanded them that they should not depart from Yahrushalayim, but wait for the Promise of Abba, which, He said, you have heard from Me.
- 5 For Yochanan ha Matbeel truly immersed with mayim; but you shall be immersed with The Ruach Hakodesh not many yamim from now.
- 6 When they therefore had come together, they asked Him, saying, Master, will You at this time restore again the malchut to Yisrael?
- 7 And He said to them, It is not for you to know the times, or the moadeem, which Abba has put under His own authority.
- 8 But you shall receive Power, after The Ruach Hakodesh has come upon you: and you shall be witnesses to Me both in Yahrushalayim and in all Yahudah and in Shomron and to the four corners of the olam.
- 9 And when He had spoken these things, while they looked, He was taken up; and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked steadfastly toward the shamayim as He went up, see, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Who also said, You men of Galil, why do you stand gazing up into the shamayim? This same וּשְׁמַיִם, who is taken up from you into the shamayim, shall so come in like manner as you have seen Him go into the shamayim.

12 Then they returned to Yahrushalayim from the har called Olives, which is from Yahrushalayim a Shabbat yom's journey.

13 And when they came back, they went up into an upper room, where there were staying Kefa and Yaakov and Yochanan and Andri, Philip and Toma, Bartholomi and Mattityahu, Yaakov the son of Alphai and Shimon the Zealot and Yahudah the brother of Yaakov.

14 These all continued with one accord in the tefillot and supplication, with the women and Miryam the eema of Yahushua and with His brothers.

15 And in those yamim Kefa stood up in the midst of the talmidim – the number of names together were about a hundred twenty – and said,

16 Men and Yisraelite brothers, this Katuv had to have been fulfilled, which The Ruach Hakodesh by the mouth of Dawid spoke before concerning Yahudah, who was a guide to them that took וּשְׁמַיִם.

17 For he was numbered with us and had obtained part of this service.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling head first, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines gushed out.

19 And it was known to all the dwellers at Yahrushalayim; so that field is called in their own language, Akel-Dahma, that is to say, The Field of Dahm.

20 For it is written in the Scroll of Tehillim, Let his dwelling be desolate and let no man dwell in it: and let his office of service be given to another.

21 It is therefore necessary that one of these men who have been with us all the time that the Savior אֱלֹהֵינוּ went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the mikvah of Yochanan ha Matbeel, to the same yom that He was taken up from us, one must be ordained to be a witness with us of His resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Yoseph called Bar-Nava, who was surnamed Ha-Tzadik and Mattityahu.

24 And they made tefillah and said, You, Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ , who knows the levavot of all men, show which of these two You have chosen, 25 That he may take part of this service and calling, from which Yahudah by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave out their lots; and the lot fell upon Mattityahu; and he was numbered with the eleven shlichim.

2 And when the moed of Shavuot was fully counted by the omer, they were all with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came a sound from the shamayim as of a groaning Ruach and it filled all the Bayit-House where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared to them divided tongues like as of fire and it sat upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with The Ruach Hakodesh and began to speak with other tongues, as The Ruach Hakodesh gave them the utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Yahrushalayim, Yahudim, devout men, out of every nation under the shamayim.

6 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confused because every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and marveled, saying one to another, See, are not all these who speak Galilaeans?

8 How then do we hear them speaking in our own native language?

9 Parthians and Medes and Eylamites and those Yisraelites dwelling in Aram, among whom were Yahudim and those from Kappadokia, those from Pontos and also Asia Minor,

10 Phrygia and Pamphulia, in Mitzrayim and in the parts of Libya near Cyrene and Yahudim and gerim from Romiyah, along with the Yireh-אֲרָאֵל, 11 Cretans and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of Ahloha.

12 And they were all amazed and stunned and were in doubt, saying one to another, What does this mean?

13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 But Kefa, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and said to them, You men of Yahudah and all you that are staying at Yahrushalayim, be this known to you and listen to my words:

15 For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, seeing it is but nine in the boker.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the navi Yo-El;

17 And it shall come to pass in the yamim acharonim, said אֲרָאֵל, I will pour out from My Ruach upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy and your young men shall see visions and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on My avadim and on My female avadim I will pour out in those yamim from My Ruach; and they shall prophesy:

19 And I will show wonders in the shamayim above and signs in the olam beneath; dahm and fire and vapor of smoke:

20 The shemesh shall be turned into darkness and the yarayach into dahm, before that great and terrible Yom אִיִּיִּי comes:

21 And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the Name of The Master אִיִּיִּי shall be saved.

22 You men of Yisrael, listen to these words; Yahushua of Natzeret, a man approved of אִיִּיִּי among you by nisim and wonders and signs, which אִיִּיִּי did through Him in the midst of you, as you yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of אִיִּיִּי, you have taken and by the hands of Torah-less men, you have impaled and killed:

24 Whom אִיִּיִּי has raised up, having demolished the cords of death: because it was not possible for Sheol to hold Him.

25 For Dawid spoke concerning Him, I saw my אִיִּיִּי always before my face, for He is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my lev have gilah and my tongue had simcha; moreover also my gooff shall rest in tikvah:

27 Because You will not leave my being in Sheol, neither will You allow the Kadosh-One of Yisrael to see corruption.

28 You have made known to me the derachot of chayim; You shall make me full of simcha with Your presence.

29 Men and Yisraelite brothers, let me freely speak to you of the patriarch Dawid, that he is both dead and buried and his tomb is with us to this yom.

30 Being a navi and knowing that אֱלֹהִים had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up The Moshiach to sit on his kesay;

31 He seeing this before spoke of the resurrection of The Moshiach, that His being was not left in the Sheol, neither did His flesh see corruption.

32 This אֱלֹהִים has אֱלֹהִים raised up, of which we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being as the Right Hand of אֱלֹהִים exalted and having received from Abba the promise of The Ruach Hakodesh, He has sent out all this, which you now see and hear.

34 For Dawid is not ascended into the shamayim: but he said himself, The Master אֱלֹהִים said to My Master, Sit at My right hand,

35 Until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

36 Therefore let kol Beit Yisrael know assuredly, that The Master אֱלֹהִים has made known that same אֱלֹהִים, whom you have impaled, as both Melech and Moshiach.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pierced in their levavot and said to Kefa and to the rest of the shlichim, Men and Yisraelite brothers, what shall we do?

38 Then Kefa said to them, Shuv and be immersed every one of you in the Name of The Master-YAH אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach for the forgiveness of sins and you shall receive the gift of The Ruach Hakodesh.

39 For the promise is to you and to your children and to all that are far off, even as many as אֱלֹהִים our Ahloha shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort them, saying, Save yourselves from this sinful generation.

41 Then they that gladly received his word were immersed: and the same yom there were added to them about three thousand beings.

42 And they continued steadfastly in the shlichim's Torah and chavurah and in breaking of lechem and in the tefillot.

43 And fear came upon every being: and many wonders and signs were done by the shlichim.

44 And all that believed were echad and had all things be-yachad;

45 And sold their possessions and goods and divided them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily as echad in the Beit HaMikdash, breaking lechem from bayit to bayit, and did eat their food with simcha and a pure lev, 47 Offering tehilla to אֱלֹהֵינוּ and having chen with all the people. And אֱלֹהֵינוּ added to the kehilla of Yisrael daily all those being saved.

3 Now Kefa and Yochanan went up together into the Beit HaMikdash at the hour of tefillah, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his eema's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the Beit HaMikdash which is called the Yahpha Gate, to ask assistance from those that entered into the Beit HaMikdash;

3 Who seeing Kefa and Yochanan about to go into the Beit HaMikdash asked for assistance.

4 And Kefa, staring at him with Yochanan, said, Look at us.

5 And he listened to them, expecting to receive something from them.

6 Then Kefa said, Silver and gold I have none; but what I have I give you: In the Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach of Natzeret rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he leaped up and stood and he walked and entered the Beit HaMikdash with them, walking and leaping and giving tehilla to Ahloha.

9 And all the people saw him walking and giving tehilla to Ahloha:

10 And they knew that it was the one who sat for assistance at the Yahpha Gate of the Beit HaMikdash: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.

11 And as the lame man who was healed held Kefa and Yochanan, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Shlomo's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Kefa saw it, he answered the people, You men of Yisrael, why do you marvel at this? Or, why do you look so intently at us, as though by our own power or set apartness we have made this man to walk?

13 The Ahloha of Avraham and of Yitzchak and of Yaakov, the Ahloha of our ahvot, has esteemed His Son אֱלֹהֵינוּ ; whom you delivered up and denied Him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let Him go.

14 But you denied the Kadosh-One and the Tzadik-One of Yisrael and desired that a murderer be released to you;

15 And killed the Sar of Chayim, whom אֱלֹהֵינוּ has raised from the dead; of which we are witnesses.

16 And His Name through emunah in His Name has made this man strong, whom you see and know:

yes, the emunah, which is by Him, has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of all of you.

17 And now, Yisraelite brothers, I know that through ignorance you did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which Ahloha before had showed by the mouth of all His neviim, that The Moshiach should suffer, He has now fulfilled.

19 Make teshuvah therefore and be converted in lev, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of The Master אֱלֹהִים;

20 And He shall send מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach, who before was proclaimed to you:

21 Whom the shamayim must receive until the times of the restoration of all things, which אֱלֹהִים has spoken by the mouth of all His kadosh neviim since the olam began.

22 For Moshe truly said to the ahvot, A Navi shall The Master אֱלֹהִים your Ahloha raise up to you from your Yisraelite brothers, like me; you shall listen to Him in all things and whatever He shall say to you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every being, who will not hear that Navi, shall be destroyed from among the people of Yisrael.

24 Yes and all the neviim from Shmuel and those that followed after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these yamim.

25 You are the children of the neviim and of the brit that אֱלֹהִים made with our ahvot, saying to Avraham: And in your zera shall all the goyim of the olam be blessed/mixed.

26 To you first אֱלֹהִים, having raised up His Son מוֹשִׁיָּח, sent Him to give you brachot, in turning away all of you from your iniquities.

4 And as they spoke to the people, the kohanim and the leaders of the Beit HaMikdash and the Tzadukim, came upon them,
2 Being disturbed that they taught the people of Yisrael and proclaimed through עֲלָמוֹת the resurrection from the dead.
3 And they laid hands on them and put them in prison until the next yom: for it was now evening.
4 But many of them who heard The Word believed; and the number of the men were about five thousand.
5 And it came to pass on the next yom, that their rulers and zechanim and Torah Sophrim,
6 And Chanan the Kohen HaGadol and Cayapha and Yochanan and Alexander and as many as were from the mishpacha of the Kohen HaGadol, were gathered together at Yahrushalayim.
7 And when they had set the talmidim in their midst, they asked, By what Power, or by what Name, have you done this?
8 Then Kefa, filled with The Ruach Hakodesh, said to them, You rulers of the people and zechanim of Yisrael,
9 If we are examined today because of the tov mitzvah done to the helpless man, by what means he is made healthy;
10 Be it known to you all and to kol Yisrael, that by the Name of עֲלָמוֹת Ha Moshiach of Natzeret, whom you impaled, whom עֲלָמוֹת raised from the dead, even by Him does this man stand here before you healthy.
11 This is the Stone that was rejected by you builders, that has become The Rosh Pina.
12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other Name under the shamayim given among men, by which we must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Kefa and Yochanan and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took special note, that they had been with օַּוִּיִּיִּי.

14 And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go outside out of the Sanhedrin, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable ness has been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Yahrushalayim; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spreads no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them that they speak to no man in this Name from now on.

18 And they called them and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the Name of օַּוִּיִּיִּי.

19 But Kefa and Yochanan answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of Ahloha to listen to you more than to ִּיִּיִּי, you can judge.

20 We just cannot stop speaking about the things, which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing on how they might punish them because of the people: for all men gave tehilla to ִּיִּיִּי for that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this ness of healing was done.

23 And being let go, they went to their own people and reported all that the chief kohanim and zechanim had said to them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to ִּיִּיִּי with one accord and said, Master ִּיִּיִּי, You are Ahloha, who has made the shamayim and the olam and the sea and all that is in them:

25 Who by the mouth of Your eved Dawid has said, Why did the heathen rage and the people imagine worthless things?

26 The melechim of the olam stood up and the rulers were gathered together against The Master אֱלֹהִים and against His Moshiach.

27 For of an emet against Your kadosh Son מָלְכֵנוּ, whom You have anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the pagans and the people of Yisrael, were gathered together,

28 To do whatever Your hand and Your counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Master אֱלֹהִים, see their threats: and grant to Your avadim, that with all boldness they may speak Your Word,

30 By stretching out Your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the Name of Your kadosh Son מָלְכֵנוּ.

31 And when they had made tefillah, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with The Ruach Hakodesh and they spoke The Word of אֱלֹהִים with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were echad: no one claimed that any of the things, which he possessed, was his own; but they had all things be-yachad.

33 And with great Power gave the shlichim witness of the resurrection of the Savior מָלְכֵנוּ: and great chen was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked:
for as many as were possessors of lands, or houses sold them and brought the prices of those things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the shlichim's feet: and then distributions were made to every man according as he had need.

36 And Yoseph, who by the shlichim was surnamed Bar-Nava, which is, being interpreted, The Son of Encouragement a Lewite and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Had a field and sold it and brought the money and placed it at the disposal of the shlichim.

5 But a certain man named Chananyah, with Shappirah his isha, sold a field,

2 And kept back part of the proceeds, his isha also knowing about it and brought a certain part and laid it at the shlichim's feet.

3 But Kefa said, Chananyah, why has s.a.tan filled your lev to lie to The Ruach Hakodesh, to keep back part of the price of the field?

4 While it remained in your care, was it not your own? And after it was sold, was it not under your own authority? Why have you conceived this thing in your lev? You have not lied to men, but to אֱלֹהִים.

5 And Chananyah hearing these words fell down and gave up the ruach: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wrapped him up and carried him out and buried him.

7 And it was about three hours later, when his isha, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Kefa asked her, Tell me whether you sold the field for this much? And she said, Yes, for this much.

9 Then Kefa said to her, How is it that you have agreed together to test The Ruach of The Master אֱלֹהִים? See, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door and shall carry you out.

10 Then she fell down at his feet immediately and yielded up the ruach: and the young men came in and found her dead and, carried her out and buried her next to her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the kehilla of Yisrael and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the shlichim were many signs and wonders done among the people; and they were all with one accord in Shlomo's Porch.

13 And of the rest of the leaders in the Beit HaMikdash, dared not seize them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were added to אִרְיָאֵל, more and more even multitudes both of men and women.

15 So that they brought out the sick into the streets and laid them on mats and couches, so that at the very least, the shadow of Kefa passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities around Yahrushalayim, bringing sick folks and those who were troubled with shedim: and they were healed every one.

17 Then the Kohen HaGadol rose up and all they that were with him, which is the sect of the Tzadukim and were filled with indignation, 18 And laid their hands on the shlichim and put them in the common prison.

19 But a heavenly malach of The Master אִרְיָאֵל opened the prison doors at lyla and brought them out and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the Beit HaMikdash to the people of Yisrael all The Words of this Derech of chayim.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the Beit HaMikdash early in the boker and taught. But the Kohen HaGadol came and they that were with him and called the Sanhedrin together and all the Sanhedrin of the children of Yisrael sent word to the prison to have them brought out.

22 But when the officers came and found them not in the prison, they returned,

23 Saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety and the guards standing outside the doors: but when we had opened the doors, we found no man inside.

24 Now when the Kohen HaGadol and the captain of the Beit HaMikdash and the chief kohanim heard these things, they were puzzled and wondered how this could happen.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, See, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the Beit HaMikdash and teaching the people of Yisrael.

26 Then the captain with the officers brought the talmidim in without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they sat them before the Sanhedrin: and the Kohen HaGadol asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we strictly command you that you should not teach in this Name? And, see, you have filled Yahrushalayim with your teaching and now you intend to bring this Man's dahm upon us.

29 Then Kefa and the other shlichim answered and said, We must first obey Ahloha rather than men.

30 The Ahloha of our ahvot raised up $\omega\omega\text{ף}\text{א}\text{ז}$, whom you killed and hanged on an eytz of execution.

31 This very One has $\text{א}\text{ף}\text{א}\text{ז}$ exalted with His Right Hand to be the Sar and Savior, to grant teshuvah to Yisrael and the forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are His witnesses of these things; and so is also The Ruach Hakodesh, whom Ahloha has given to them that obey Him.

33 When they heard these words, they were enraged and took counsel to murder them.

34 Then stood up one in the Sanhedrin, a Prush, named Gamliel, an honored Torah teacher, held in the highest esteem among all the people of Yisrael, who commanded that the shlichim be taken out of the chamber for a while;

35 And said to them, You men of Yisrael, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do to these men.

36 For before these yamim rose up Todah, boasting himself to be somebody great; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: he was killed; and all, that obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nothing.

37 After this man rose up Yahudah of Galil in the yamim of the taxing and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all those who obeyed him were dispersed.

38 And now I say to you, Refrain from hurting these men and leave them alone: for if these ideas, or this work be from men, it will come to nothing:

39 But if it be of Ahloha, you cannot overthrow it; lest you be found in a fight against Ahloha.

40 And they agreed with him: and when they had called the shlichim and had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of $\text{owf}\text{אז}$ and let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His Name.

42 And daily in the Beit HaMikdash and in every bayit, they ceased not to teach and proclaim Yahushua Ha Moshiach.

6 And in those yamim, when the number of the talmidim was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Hellenists against the Ivrim because their widows were neglected in the daily distribution.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the talmidim to them and said, It is not right that we should leave The Word of $\text{אז}\text{אז}$ and serve food.

3 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, look for seven men of honest report, full of The Ruach of The Master רַחֵם and chochmah, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to tefillah and to the service of The Word.

5 And the saying pleased the entire multitude: and they chose Tzephanyah, a man full of emunah and The Ruach Hakodesh and Philip and Prochoros and Nikanor and Timon and Parmenas and Nikolaos a Yisraelite of Antioch:

6 Who were set before the shlichim: and when they had made tefillah, they laid their hands on them.

7 And The Word of רַחֵם increased; and the number of the talmidim multiplied in Yahrushalayim greatly; and a large group of the kohanim and others from the Yahudite emunah were obedient to the Netsarim emunah.

8 And Tzephanyah, full of emunah and Power, did great wonders and nisim among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the Synagogue of the Libertines and Cyrenians and Alexandrians and of them of Cilikia and of Asia Minor, disputing with Tzephanyah.

10 And they were not able to resist the chochmah and The Ruach by which he spoke.

11 Then they instigated other men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moshe and against Ahloha.

12 And they stirred up the people and the zechanim and the Sophrim and all these came upon him and caught him and brought him to the Sanhedrin,

13 And set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceases not to speak blasphemous words against the Kadosh-Place and the Torah:

14 For we have heard him say, that this owfz of Natzeret shall destroy this place and shall change the derachot that Moshe delivered to us.

15 And all that sat in the Sanhedrin, looking steadfastly at him, saw his face as if it had been the face of a heavenly malach.

7 Then the Kohen HaGadol said, Are these things the emet?

2 And he said, Men, Yisraelite brothers and ahvot, listen to me; The Ahloha of tifereth appeared to our abba Avraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charan,

3 And said to him, Get out of your country and from your mishpacha and come into the land that I shall show you.

4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldeans and dwelt in Charan: and from there, when his abba was dead, he moved into this land, in which you now dwell.

5 And He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet He promised that He would give it to him for a possession and to his zera after him, when as yet he had no children.

6 And Ahloha spoke saying, That his zera should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage and mistreat them with evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said z: and after that shall they come out and serve Me in this place.

8 And He gave him the brit of brit-milah: and so Avraham brought out Yitzchak and performed brit-milah on him the eighth yom; and Yitzchak brought out Yaakov; and Yaakov brought out the twelve ahvot.

9 And the ahvot, moved with envy, sold Yoseph into Mitzrayim: but Ahloha was with him,
10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions and gave him chen and chochmah in the sight of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim; and He made him governor over Mitzrayim and all his bayit.
11 Now there came a famine over all the land of Mitzrayim and Kanaan and great affliction: and our ahvot found no food.
12 But when Yaakov heard that there was grain in Mitzrayim, he sent out our ahvot first.
13 And the second time Yoseph was made known to his brothers; and Yoseph's mishpacha was made known to Pharaoh.
14 Then Yoseph sent and called his abba Yaakov to him and all his mishpacha, seventy-five beings.
15 So Yaakov went down into Mitzrayim and died, he and our ahvot, 16 And were carried over into Shechem and laid in the tomb that Avraham bought for a sum of money from the sons of Chamor The Abba of Shechem.
17 But when the time of the promise drew near, which Ahloha had sworn to Avraham, the people grew and multiplied in Mitzrayim, 18 Until another melech arose, who knew not Yoseph.
19 The same dealt deceitfully with our people and mistreated our ahvot; so that they made them cast out their young children, so that they might not live.
20 In which time Moshe was born and was favored and pleasing to Ahloha and was raised in his abba's bayit three chodashem:
21 And when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter took him in and nourished him even as her own son.
22 And Moshe was learned in all the chochmah of the Mitzrites and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And when he was forty years old, it came into his lev to visit his brothers the children of Yisrael.

24 And seeing one of them mistreated, he defended him and avenged him that was oppressed and smote the Mitzri:

25 For he supposed his Yisraelite brothers would have understood how Ahloha by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next yom he showed himself to them as they fought and would have made them echad again, saying, Men, you are Yisraelite brothers; why do you do wrong to one another?

27 But he that did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, Who made you a ruler and a shophet over us?

28 Will you kill me, as you did the Mitzri yesterday?

29 Then Moshe ran at this saying and was a stranger in the land of Midyan, where he brought forth two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of Har Senai The Malach-אלהים from The Master אלהים in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moshe saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to see it, the voice of The Master אלהים came to him, 32 Saying, I AM the Ahloha of your ahvot, the Ahloha of Avraham and the Ahloha of Yitzchak and the Ahloha of Yaakov. Then Moshe trembled and dared not look.

33 Then said The Master אלהים to him, Take off your sandals from your feet: for the place where you stand is kadosh ground.

34 I have seen, yes I have seen the affliction of My people who are in Mitzrayim and I have heard their groaning and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you into Mitzrayim.

35 This Moshe whom they refused, saying, Who made you a ruler and a shophet? The same one did אֱלֹהִים send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of The Malach-אֱלֹהִים who appeared to him in the bush.

36 He brought them out, after that he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Mitzrayim and in the Yam Suf and in the wilderness for forty years.

37 This is that Moshe, who said to the children of Yisrael, A Navi shall The Master אֱלֹהִים your Ahloha raise up to you from your Yisraelite brothers, like me; to Him shall you listen.

38 This is he, that was in the eidta-ekklesia-kehilla of Yisrael in the wilderness with The Malach-אֱלֹהִים who spoke to him on Har Senai and with our ahvot: who received the living Words to give to us:

39 To whom our ahvot would not obey, but threw him from them and in their levavot turned back again into Mitzrayim, 40 Saying to Aharon, Make us mighty ones to go before us: for as for this Moshe, who brought us out of the land of Mitzrayim, we do not know what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those yamim and offered sacrifices to the idol and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then Ahloha turned and gave them up to worship the cochavim of the shamayim; as it is written in the scroll of the neviim, O you people of Yisrael, why have you offered to Me slain beasts and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yes, you took up the sukkah of Moloch and the cochav of your mighty one Remphan-Derphan and made images to worship: and so I will carry you away beyond Bavel.

44 Our ahvot had the tent of witness in the wilderness, as He had appointed, speaking to Moshe, that he should make it according to the pattern that he had seen.

45 Which also our ahvot that came after brought in with וַיְבִרְכֵנוּ son of Nun, into this land of the goyim, whom Ahloha drove out before the faces of our ahvot, up until the yamim of Dawid;

46 Who found chen before וַיְבִרְכֵנוּ and desired to find a tent for the Ahloha of Yaakov.

47 But Shlomo built Him a Bayit.

48 But El-Elyon dwells not in temples made with hands; as said the navi, 49 Heaven is My kesay and the olam is My footstool: what bayit will you build Me? Says The Master וַיְבִרְכֵנוּ: or where is the place of My rest?

50 Has not My hand made all these things?

51 You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in lev and ears, you do always resist The Ruach Hakodesh: as your ahvot did, so do you.

52 Which of the emet neviim have not your ahvot persecuted? And they have also killed those who spoke before of the coming of the Tzadik-One; whom you now have betrayed by murder:

53 Who have received the Torah like the very commands given to heavenly malachim, but have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, they were enraged and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, being full of The Ruach Hakodesh, looked up staring into the shamayim and saw the tifereth of וַיְבִרְכֵנוּ and וַיְבִרְכֵנוּ standing on the right hand of El-Elyon, 56 And said, See, I see the shamayim opened and the Ben-Ahdahm standing on the Right Hand of וַיְבִרְכֵנוּ.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice and covered their ears and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Shaul.

59 And they stoned Tzephanyah, while he was calling upon Ahloha and saying, Master owfayz, receive my ruach.

60 And he kneeled down and cried with a loud voice, Master owfayz; lay not this sin against them. And when he had said this, he died.

8 And Shaul was approving of Tzephanyah's death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the kehilla of Yisrael at Yahrushalayim; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Yahudah and Shomron, except the shlichim.

2 And devout men carried Tzephanyah to his burial and mourned over him in great human sorrow.

3 As for Shaul, he made havoc of the kehilla of Yisrael, entering into every bayit and seizing men and women, throwing them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere proclaiming The Word.

5 Then Philip went down to the city of Shomron, and proclaimed The Moshiach to them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed to those things that Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the nisim that he did.

7 For shedim, crying with loud voices, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many who were paralyzed and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great simcha in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Shimon, who in the past in the same city used sorcery and bewitched the people of Shomron, claiming to be the I AM:

10 To whom they all made tefillah, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great Power of Ahloha.

11 And to him they paid careful attention because for a long time he had amazed them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip proclaiming the things concerning the malchut of אֱלֹהִים and the Name of מוֹשִׁיָּאֵח Ha Moshiach, they were immersed, both men and women.

13 Then Shimon himself believed also: and when he was immersed, he continued with Philip and was impressed, beholding the nisim and signs that were done.

14 Now when the shlichim who were at Yahrushalayim heard that Shomron had received The Word of אֱלֹהִים, they sent to them Kefa and Yochanan:

15 Who, when they had come down, made tefillah for them, that they might receive The Ruach Hakodesh:

16 For until then He had not fallen upon them: they only were immersed in the Name of the Savior מוֹשִׁיָּאֵח.

17 Then they laid their hands on them and they received The Ruach Hakodesh.

18 And when Shimon saw that through laying on of the shlichim's hands that The Ruach Hakodesh was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this Power, that on whoever I lay hands; he may receive The Ruach Hakodesh.

20 But Kefa said to him, Your money perishes with you because you have thought that the gift of אֱלֹהִים may be purchased with money.

21 You have nothing to do with our emunah: for your lev is not right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים.

22 Repent therefore of your wickedness and make tefillah to Ahloha, if perhaps the thoughts of your lev may be forgiven you.

23 For I perceive that you are poisoned with bitterness, bound by Torah violations.

24 Then answered Shimon and said, Make tefillah to the Savior for me, that none of these things that you have spoken come upon me.

25 And, when they had testified and proclaimed The Word of אֱלֹהִים, they returned to Yahrushalayim and proclaimed The Besorah in many villages of the Shomronim.

26 And a heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים spoke to Philip, saying, Arise and go toward the south to the derech that goes down from Yahrushalayim to Azah, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, see, a man of Kush, a faithful believer, a treasurer of great authority under Kandace malqa of the Kushim, who was in charge of all her treasure and had come to Yahrushalayim to worship, 28 Was returning and sitting in his mirkavah reading Yeshayahu the navi.

29 Then The Ruach said to Philip, Go near and join this mirkavah.

30 And Philip ran to him and heard him reading Yeshayahu the navi and said; Do you understand what you read?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should teach me? And he desired that Philip would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of The Katuv from where he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a Lamb is dumb before His shearer, so He opened not His mouth:

33 In His humiliation His mishpat was taken away:
and who shall declare His generation? For His chayim is taken from the olam.

34 And the faithful believer asked Philip and said, I ask you, of whom does the navi speak this? Of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth and began at the same Katuv and proclaimed to him וּמִיָּאָרְזֵי.

36 And as they went on their derech, they came to a certain mayim: and the faithful believer said, See, here is mayim; what does stop me from being immersed?

37 And Philip said, If you believe with all your lev, you may. And he answered and said, I believe that וּמִיָּאָרְזֵי Ha Moshiach is The Son of אֱלֹהִים.

38 And he commanded the mirkavah to stop: and they both went down into the mayim, both Philip and the faithful believer; and he immersed him.

39 And when they had come up out of the mayim,
The Ruach of The Master אֱלֹהִים caught Philip away to another place, so that the faithful believer saw him no more: and he went on his derech with gilah.

40 But Philip was found at Ashdod: and passing through he proclaimed in all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

9 And Shaul, yet breathing out threatening and slaughter against the talmidim of the Savior, went to the Kohen HaGadol,

2 And desired letters from him to Dameshek to the synagogues, that if he found any of this Derech, whether they were men, or women, he might bring them bound to Yahrushalayim.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near Dameshek:
and suddenly there shone all around him an ohr
from the shamayim:

4 And he fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, Shaul, Shaul, why are you persecuting Me personally?

5 And he said, Who are You, Master? And He said, I AM Yahushua whom you are persecuting: it is hard for you to offer against Me this worthless resistance.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Master, what will You have me to do? And օַּוְיָאָז said to him, Arise and go into the city and it shall be told to you what you must do.

7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Shaul arose from the ground; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand and brought him into Dameshek.

9 And he was three yamim without sight and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain talmid at Dameshek, named Chananyah; and օַּוְיָאָז said to him in a vision, Chananyah. And he said, See, Hinayne, my Master אָיָאָז.

11 And Yahushua said to him, Arise and go into the street which is called Yahshar and ask in the bayit of Yahudah for one called Shaul, of Tarsus: for, see, he makes tefillah, 12 And has seen in a vision a man named Chananyah coming in and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Chananyah answered, Master, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to Your Yisraelite kidushim at Yahrushalayim:

14 And here he has authority from the chief kohanim to imprison all that call on Your Name.

15 But The Master օַּוְיָאָז said to him, Arise and go: for he is a chosen vessel to Me, to bear My Name before the goyim and melechim and the children of Yisrael:

16 For I will show him how many great things he must suffer for My Name's sake.

17 And Chananyah went on his derech and entered into the bayit; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Shaul, the Savior וְיֵשׁוּעַ, that appeared to you in the derech as you came, has sent me, that you might receive your sight and be filled with The Ruach Hakodesh.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales: and he received sight immediately and arose and was immersed.

19 And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then Shaul stayed for a while with the talmidim that were at Dameshek.

20 And right away he proclaimed וְיֵשׁוּעַ in the synagogues, that וְיֵשׁוּעַ is The Son of דָּוִד.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, saying; Is not this the one that destroyed those who called on this Name in Yahrushalayim and came here for that purpose, that he might bring them bound to the chief kohanim?

22 But Shaul increased even more in strength and confused the Yahudim who dwelt at Dameshek, proving that this is The Moshiach.

23 And after many yamim, the Yahudim took counsel to kill him:

24 But Shaul knew their laying in wait. And they watched the gates yom and lyla to kill him.

25 Then the talmidim took him by lyla and let him down from the wall in a basket.

26 And when Shaul had come to Yahrushalayim, he desired to join himself to the talmidim: but they were all afraid of him and believed not that he was a talmid.

27 But Bar-Nava took him and brought him to the shlichim and declared to them how he had seen The Master אֱלֹהִים in the derech, and that He had spoken to him and how he had proclaimed boldly at Dameshek in the Name of מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Yahrushalayim.

29 And he spoke boldly in the Name of the Savior מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים and disputed against the Hellenists: and they went about to murder him.

30 Which when the Yisraelite brothers knew, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsus.

31 Then had the kehellot of Yisrael shalom throughout all Yahudah and Galil and Shomron and were built up; having their halacha in the fear of אֱלֹהִים and in the comfort of The Ruach Hakodesh and were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Kefa passed through various cities, he came down also to the Yisraelite kidushim who dwelt at Lod.

33 And there he found a certain man named Anyah, who had been bound to his mat eight years and was sick from paralysis.

34 And Kefa said to him, Anyah, Yahushua Ha Moshiach makes you healthy: arise and take your mat. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lod and Sharon saw him and turned to אֱלֹהִים.

36 Now there was at Yapho a certain talmida named Tavitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of tov mitzvoth and kind acts that she did.

37 And it came to pass in those yamim, that she was sick and died: who when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room.

38 And since Lod was near to Yapho and the talmidim had heard that Kefa was there, they sent to him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Kefa arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping and showing the coats and garments that Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Kefa put them all out and kneeled down and made tefillah; and turning to the gooff said, Tavitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Kefa, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand and lifted her up and when he had called the Yisraelite kidushim and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Yapho; and many believed in וַיִּשְׁמְעוּ because of it.

43 And it came to pass, that he stayed many yamim in Yapho with Shimon a leather-tanner.

10 There was a certain man in Caesarea called

Cornelius, a captain of the Italian regiment,

2 A tzadik man, a Yireh-יָרֵחַ along with all his bayit, who gave much assistance to the people and made tefillah to Ahloha always.

3 He saw in a vision, evidently about three in the afternoon, a heavenly malach of מַלְאָכִים coming in to him and saying to him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked at him, he was afraid and said, What is it, Master? And he said to him, your tefillot and your mitzvoth have come up as a memorial before Ahloha.

5 And now send men to Yapho and call for Shimon, who is called Kefa:

6 He lodges with Shimon a tanner, whose bayit is by the sea:

7 And when the heavenly malach who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household avadim and a tzadik soldier from those that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Yapho.

9 On the next yom, as they went on their journey and drew near to the city, Kefa went up to the housetop to make tefillah about noon:

10 And he became very hungry and desired to eat: but while they prepared food for him, he fell into a trance,

11 And he saw the shamayim opened and a certain vessel descending to him, like a large linen cloth at the four corners, and let down into the olam:

12 In it were all manner of four-footed beasts of the olam and wild beasts and creeping things and fowl of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Kefa; kill and eat!

14 But Kefa said, Not so, Master; for I have never eaten anything that is not kadosh, or that is unkosher.

15 And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What אִיִּזְרָאֵל has cleansed, that you should not call unkosher or unclean.

16 This was done three times: and the vessel was received up again into the shamayim.

17 Now while Kefa doubted within himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, see, the men who were sent from Cornelius had arrived and asked for Shimon's bayit and stood outside the gate, 18 They called out and asked whether Shimon, who was surnamed Kefa, was lodged there.

19 While Kefa thought on the vision, The Ruach said to him, See, three men seek you.

20 Arise therefore and go down and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Kefa went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, See, I am the one whom you seek: what is the cause for which you came?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captain, a tzadik man and one that is a Yireh-אֵלֹהִים and has a tov report among all the nation of the Yahudim, was instructed by Ahloha through a kadosh heavenly malach to send for you to his bayit and to hear words from you.

23 Kefa invited them in and lodged them. And the next yom Kefa went away with them and certain Yisraelite brothers from Yapho accompanied him.

24 And the next yom after they entered into Caesarea, Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close chaverim.

25 And as Kefa was coming in, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshipped him.

26 But Kefa took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am only a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in and found many that had come together.

28 And he said to them, You know how that it is rabbinically forbidden for a man that is a Yahudi to keep company, or come to one of another nation; but אֵלֹהִים has showed me that I should not call any man common, unkosher, or unclean.

29 Therefore I came to you without hesitation, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what purpose you have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four yamim ago I was fasting until this hour; and at 3 in the afternoon, I made tefillah in my bayit and, see, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, your tefillot are heard and your mitzvot are had in remembrance in the sight of Ahloha.

32 Send therefore to Yapho and call here Shimon, whose surname is Kefa; he is lodged in the bayit of Shimon a tanner by the sea: who, when he comes, shall speak to you.

33 Immediately therefore I sent for you; and you have done well that you have come. Now therefore we are all here present before Ahloha, to hear all things that are commanded you by Ahloha.

34 Then Kefa opened his mouth and said, Of an emet I perceive that אֱלֹהִים is not a respecter of persons:

35 But in every nation those that fear Him and work tzedakah, are accepted by Him.

36 The Word that The Master אֱלֹהִים sent to the children of Yisrael, proclaiming shalom by מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach: He is Master of all:

37 That word, I say, you know, which was published throughout all Yahudah and began at Galil, after the mikvah that Yochanan ha Matbeel proclaimed;

38 How אֱלֹהִים anointed מוֹשִׁיָּח of Natzeret with The Ruach Hakodesh and with Power: who went about doing all tov and healing all that were oppressed of s.a.tan; for אֱלֹהִים was with Him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which He did both in the land of the Yahudim and in Yahrushalayim; whom they killed and hanged on an eytz:

40 Him אֱלֹהִים raised up on the third yom and showed Him openly;

41 Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by אֱלֹהִים, even to us, who did eat and drink with Him after He rose from the dead.

42 And He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that it is He who was ordained by אֱלֹהִים to be the Shophet of the living and dead.

43 To Him give all the neviim witness that through His Name whoever believes in Him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Kefa yet spoke these words, The Ruach Hakodesh fell on all them who heard The Word.

45 And the Yahudim who believed were astonished, all those who came with Kefa because that on the goyim also was poured out the same gift of The Ruach Hakodesh.

46 For they heard them speak with other languages and magnify אֱלֹהִים. Then answered Kefa, 47 Can any man forbid mayim for their mikvah, that these should not be immersed, who have received The Ruach Hakodesh as well as we have?

48 And he commanded them to be immersed in the Name of יְהוָה. Then they asked him to stay certain yamim.

11 And the shlichim and Yisraelite brothers that were in Yahudah heard that the goyim had also received The Word of אֱלֹהִים.

2 And when Kefa had come up to Yahrushalayim, they that were of the brit-milah contended with him,

3 Saying, You went in with men not in brit milah and did eat with them.

4 But Kefa rehearsed the matter from the beginning and explained it in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Yapho making tefillah: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descended, as it had been a great sheet, let down from the shamayim by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 When I had intently looked inside, I considered and saw four-footed beasts of the olam and wild beasts and creeping things and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Kefa; kill and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Master: for nothing common, or unkosher has at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from the shamayim, What אֱלֹהִים has cleansed, that call not common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into the shamayim.

11 And, see, immediately there were three men already who had come to the bayit where I was, sent from Caesarea to me.

12 And The Ruach told me go with them, doubting nothing. Moreover, these six Yisraelite brothers accompanied me too and we entered into the man's bayit:

13 And he showed us how he had seen a heavenly malach in his bayit, who stood and said to him, Send men to Yapho and call for Shimon, whose surname is Kefa;

14 Who shall tell you words, by which you and all your bayit shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, The Ruach Hakodesh fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered The Word of מֹשֶׁה, how that He said, Yochanan ha Matbeel indeed immersed with mayim; but you shall be immersed with The Ruach Hakodesh.

17 Forasmuch then as אֱלֹהִים gave them the same gift as He did to us, who believed on מֹשֶׁה Ha Moshiach; who was I, that I could withstand אֱלֹהִים?

18 When they heard these things, they became silent and gave tehilla to אֱלֹהִים, saying, So then אֱלֹהִים has also granted teshuvah to chayim to all the goyim.

19 Now they who were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose over Tzephanyah traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, proclaiming The Word to none but to the Yahudim only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they were come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, proclaiming והיה Ha Moshiach.

21 And the hand of The Master והיה was with them: and a great number believed and returned to והיה.

22 Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the kehilla of Yisrael, which was in Yahrushalayim:
and they sent out Bar-Nava, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came and had seen the chen of והיה, had gilah and exhorted them all, that with a full purpose of lev they must cleave to והיה.

24 For he was a tov man and full of The Ruach Hakodesh and of emunah: and many people were added to והיה.

25 Then Bar-Nava departed to Tarsus, to seek Shaul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that for a full year they assembled themselves with the kehilla of Yisrael and taught many people. And the talmidim were called Natrsarim first in Antioch.

27 And in those yamim came neviim from Yahrushalayim to Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named Hagavus and signified by The Ruach that there should be great famine throughout all the land: which came to pass in the yamim of Claudius Kaiser.

29 Then the talmidim, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief to the Yisraelite brothers who dwelt in Yahudah:

30 Which also they did and sent it to the zechanim by the hands of Bar-Nava and Shaul.

12 Now about that time Herod the melech stretched out his hands to do evil to certain of the kehilla of Yisrael.

2 And he killed Yaakov the brother of Yochanan with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the unbelieving Yahudim, he proceeded further to take Kefa also. These were the yamim of Chag Matzoth.

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to guard him; intending after Pesach to bring him out to the people.

5 Kefa therefore was kept in prison: but tefillah was made without ceasing by the kehilla of Yisrael to אֱלֹהִים for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him out, the same lyla Kefa was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the guards in front of the door guarded the prison.

7 And, see, the heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים came upon him and an ohr shone in the prison: and he touched Kefa on the side and raised him up, saying, Rise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the heavenly malach said to him, Gird yourself and tie your sandals. And so he did. And he said to him, Cast your garment around you and follow me.

9 And he went out and followed him; and did not know that it was real which was done by the heavenly malach; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city; which opened to them on its own accord:

and they went out and passed on through one street; and at once the heavenly malach departed from him.

11 And when Kefa had come to himself, he said, Now I know for sure, that The Master אֱלֹהִים has sent His heavenly malach and has delivered me out of the hand of Herod and from all the expectation of the people among the unbelieving Yahudim.

12 And when he had realized this, he came to the bayit of Miryam the eema of Yochanan, whose surname was Moshe-Markus; where many were gathered together making tefillah.

13 And as Kefa knocked at the door of the gate, a young girl came to listen, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Kefa's voice, she did not open the gate due to uncontrollable simcha, but ran in and told how Kefa stood outside the gate.

15 And they said to her, You are meshugas. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then they said, It is his heavenly malach.

16 But Kefa continued knocking: and when they had opened the door and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning to them with the hand to be quiet, declared to them how The Master אֱלֹהִים had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go show these things to Yaakov and to the Yisraelite brothers. And he departed and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was yom, there was no small stir among the soldiers, about what had become of Kefa.

19 And when Herod had sought for him and found him not, he questioned the guards and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Yahudah to Caesarea and stayed there.

20 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tsor and Tzidon: but they came with one accord to him and, having made Blastus the melech's officer their chaver, desired shalom; because their country was nourished by the melech's country.

21 And upon a set yom Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his kesay and made a verbal address to them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a mighty one and not of a man.

23 And immediately the heavenly malach of The Master אֱלֹהִים killed him because he gave not אֱלֹהִים the tifereth: and he was eaten by worms and gave up the ruach.

24 But The Word of אֱלֹהִים grew and multiplied.

25 And Bar-Nava and Shaul returned from Yahrushalayim, when they had fulfilled their service and took with them Yochanan, whose surname was Moshe-Markus.

13 Now there were in the kehilla of Yisrael that was at Antioch certain neviim and morim; as Bar-Nava and Shimon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene and Manachem, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch and Shaul.

2 As they made tefillah and fasted to אֱלֹהִים, The Ruach Hakodesh said, Appoint for Me Bar-Nava and Shaul for the work for which I have called them.

3 Then having fasted and made tefillah and having laid hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent out by The Ruach Hakodesh, departed to Seleukia; and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they proclaimed The Word of אֱלֹהִים in the synagogues of the Yahudim: and they had also Yochanan-Moshe-Markus with them.

6 And when they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false navi, a Yahudi, whose name was Bar-Yeshua:

7 Who was with the deputy of the country, Sergueus Paulus, a wise man; who called for Bar-Nava and Shaul and desired to hear The Word of Ahloha.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the emunah.

9 Then Shaul, who also is called Paul, filled with The Ruach Hakodesh, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all deceit and all mischief, you child of the devil, you enemy of all tzedakah, will you not cease to pervert the right halachot of The Master אֱלֹהִים?

11 And now, see, the hand of The Master אֱלֹהִים is upon you and you shall be blind, not seeing the shemesh for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and darkness; and he went about seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the Torah of The Master אֱלֹהִים.

13 Now when Shaul and his company left from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and Yochanan Moshe-Mark departed from them and returned to Yahrushalayim.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia and went into the synagogue on The Shabbat and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the Torah parsha and the haftarah, the rulers of the synagogue sent for them, saying, Men and Yisraelite brothers, if you have any Word of exhortation for the people, go ahead and say it.

16 Then Shaul stood up and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Yisrael and you that fear Ahloha, pay attention!

17 The Ahloha of this people of Yisrael chose our ahvot and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Mitzrayim and with a Mighty Arm He brought them out.

18 And for forty years He preserved them in the wilderness.

19 And when He had destroyed seven goyim in the land of Kanaan, He divided their land by inheritance.

20 And after that He gave to them shophtim for around four hundred fifty years, until Shmuel the navi.

21 And afterward they desired a melech: and אִיִּשׂרָאֵל gave to them Shaul the son of Kish, a man from the tribe of Benyamin, for about forty years.

22 And when He had removed him, He raised up Dawid to be their melech; and regarding him He gave testimony and said, I have found Dawid the son of Yishai, a man after My own lev, who shall do all My will.

23 Of this man's zera has אִיִּשׂרָאֵל according to His promise raised up for Yisrael a Savior, Yahushua:

24 Whom Yochanan ha Matbeel had first proclaimed even before his coming by the mikvah of teshuvah, to all the people of Yisrael.

25 And as Yochanan ha Matbeel fulfilled his course, he said, Who do you think that I am? I am not He. But, see, there comes One after me, whose sandals I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and Yisraelite brothers, children of the race of Avraham and whoever among you are Yireh-אִיִּשׂרָאֵל, to you is The Word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Yahrushalayim and their rulers because they knew Him not, nor the voices of the neviim that are read every Shabbat, they have fulfilled those words by condemning Him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in Him, yet they asked Pilate that He should be killed.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of Him, they took Him down from the eytz and laid Him in a tomb.

30 But אֱלֹהִים raised Him from the dead:

31 And He was seen many yamim by those who came up with Him from Galil to Yahrushalayim, who are His witnesses to the people.

32 And we declare to you The Besorah, how that the promise which was made to the ahvot, 33 אֱלֹהִים has fulfilled the same promise to us their children, in that He has raised up מְשִׁיחָא again; as it is also written in Tehillim Bet, You are My Son, this yom have I begotten You.

34 And since He raised Him up from the dead, no more to return to corruption, He said this, I will give You the sure rachamim of Dawid.

35 For this reason He said also in another mizmor, You shall not allow Your Kadosh- One to see corruption.

36 For Dawid, after he had served his own generation by the will of אֱלֹהִים, died and was laid with his ahvot and saw corruption:

37 But He, whom אֱלֹהִים raised again, saw no corruption.

38 Be it known to you therefore, men and Yisraelite brothers, that through this Man is proclaimed to you the forgiveness of sins:

39 And by Him all that believe are justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the Torah of Moshe.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the neviim;

41 See, you despisers and wonder and perish: for I work a work in your yamim, a work which you shall in no way believe, though a man declare it to you.

42 And when the Yahudim had gone out of the synagogue, the non-Yahudim begged that these words might be proclaimed to them the next Shabbat.

43 Now when the kehilla was dismissed, many of the Yahudim and religious proselytes followed Shaul and Bar-Nava: who were speaking to them and persuaded them to continue in the chen of אֱלֹהִים.

44 And the next Shabbat almost the entire city came together to hear The Word of אֱלֹהִים.

45 But when the Yahudim saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy and spoke against those things, which were spoken by Shaul, contradicting and blaspheming him.

46 Then Shaul and Bar-Nava grew bold and said, It was necessary that The Word of אֱלֹהִים should first have been spoken to you: but seeing you put it away from you and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting chayim, look, we turn to the goyim.

47 For this is what אֱלֹהִים commanded us, saying, I have set you to be an ohr of the goyim that you should be for salvation to the ends of the olam.

48 And when the non-Yahudim heard this, they were full of simcha and gave tehilla to The Word of אֱלֹהִים: and as many as were ordained to eternal chayim believed.

49 And The Word of The Master אֱלֹהִים was published throughout that entire region.

50 But the Yahudim stirred up the devout and honorable women and the ruling men of the city and raised persecution against Shaul and Bar-Nava and expelled them out of their borders.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them and came to Ikoniom.

52 And the talmidim were filled with simcha and with The Ruach Hakodesh.

14 And it came to pass in Ikoniom, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Yahudim and so spoke, that a great multitude both of the Yahudim and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Yahudim stirred up the non-Yahudim and affected their minds with evil against the Yisraelite brothers.

3 So they remained there a long time speaking boldly in The Master יֵשׁוּעַ, who gave testimony to The Word of His chen and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: a part sided with the unbelieving Yahudim and a part sided with the shlichim.

5 And when there was an assault made by the non-Yahudim and also by the unbelieving Yahudim with their rulers, to use them despitefully and to stone them,

6 They were made aware of it and fled to Lustra and Derbe, cities of Lukaonia and to the region all around:

7 And there they proclaimed The Besorah.

8 And there sat a certain man at Lustra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his eema's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Shaul speak: who firmly looked at him and perceived that he had emunah to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand up straight on your feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Shaul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of the Lukaonians, The mighty ones have come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bar-Nava, Zeus; and Shaul, Hermes because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the kohen of Zeus, who was before their city, brought oxen and wreaths to the gates and wanted to sacrifice to them along with the people.

14 Which when the shlichim, Bar-Nava and Shaul, heard of it, they tore their clothes and ran in among the people, crying out, 15 And saying, Sirs, why do you do these things?

We also are men of like passions with you and proclaim to you that you should make teshuvah from these vanities to the living Ahloha, who made the shamayim and the olam and the sea and all things that are in them:

16 Who in times past allowed all goyim to have their halacha in their own derachot.

17 Nevertheless He left not Himself without witness, in that He did tov and gave us rain from the shamayim and fruitful moadem, filling our levavot with food and simcha.

18 And with these sayings they barely restrained the people, so that they did not sacrifice to them.

19 And there came certain unbelieving Yahudim from Antioch and Ikoniom, who persuaded the people to turn against the shlichim and, having stoned Shaul, drew him out of the city, thinking he was dead.

20 But, as the talmidim stood all around him, he rose up and came into the city: and the next yom he departed with Bar-Nava to Derbe.

21 And when they had proclaimed The Besorah to that city and had taught many, they returned again to Lustra and to Ikoniom and Antioch, 22 Exhorting the talmidim and reminding them to continue in the emunah and that we must through great tribulation enter into the malchut of אֱלֹהִים.

23 And when they had ordained zechanim in every kehilla of Yisrael and had made tefillah and fasted, they commended them to אֱלֹהִים, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphulia.

25 And when they had proclaimed The Word of The Master אֱלֹהִים in Perge, they went down into Attalia:

26 And from there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been recommended to the chen of The Master אֱלֹהִים for the work that they fulfilled.

27 And when they had come and had gathered the kehilla of Yisrael together, they rehearsed all that אֱלֹהִים had done with them and how He had opened the door of emunah to the goyim.

28 And there they stayed a long time with the talmidim.

15 And certain men which came down from

Yahudah taught the Yisraelite brothers and said, Except you receive brit-milah after the manner of Moshe, you cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Shaul and Bar-Nava had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Shaul and Bar-Nava and certain others of them, should go up to Yahrushalayim to the shlichim and zechanim about this question.

3 And being sent on their derech by the kehilla of Yisrael, they passed through Phoenicia and Shomron, declaring the return of the goyim: and they caused great simcha to all the Yisraelite brothers.

4 And when they had come to Yahrushalayim, they were received by the kehilla of Yisrael and by the shlichim and zechanim and they declared all things that אִיִּזְרָאֵל had done through them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Prushim who believed, saying, That it was needful to give them brit-milah and to command them to keep the Torah of Moshe.

6 And the shlichim and zechanim came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Kefa rose up and said to them, Men and Yisraelite brothers, you know how that a long time ago אִיִּזְרָאֵל made choices among us, that the goyim by my mouth should hear The Word of The Besorah and believe.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל, who knows the levavot, bore them witness, giving them The Ruach Hakodesh even as He did to us;

9 And put no difference between us and them; purifying their levavot by emunah.

10 Now therefore why do you test אִיִּזְרָאֵל, to put a yoke upon the neck of the talmidim, which neither our ahvot nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the chen of מוֹשִׁיָּאֵחַ Ha Moshiach we shall be saved, even as they will.

12 Then the entire multitude kept silent and listened to Bar-Nava and Shaul, declaring what nisim and wonders אִיִּזְרָאֵל had done among the goyim by them.

13 And after they had kept silent, Yaakov answered, saying, Men and Yisraelite brothers, listen to me:

14 Shimon has declared how אִיִּזְרָאֵל at first did visit the goyim, to take out from them a people for His Name.

15 And to this agree the words of the neviim; as it is written,

16 After this I will return and will rebuild again the Sukkah of Dawid, which has fallen down; and I will rebuild again its ruins and I will set it up once more:

17 That the remnant of men might seek after The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ and all the goyim, upon whom My Name is called, said The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who does all these things.

18 Known to אֱלֹהֵינוּ are all His works from the beginning of the olam.

19 Because of this, my mishpat is that we trouble not those, who are from among the goyim and who are returning to אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

20 But that we write to them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols and from fornication and from things strangled and from dahm.

21 For Moshe from old times has in every city those that proclaim his teachings, with his Torah being read in the synagogues every Shabbat.

22 Then it pleased the shlichim and zechanim, with the entire kehilla of Yisrael, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Shaul and Bar-Nava; namely, Yahudah surnamed Bar-Savas and Sila, key men among the Yisraelite brothers:

23 And they gave them written letters to be delivered saying; The shlichim and zechanim and Yisraelite brothers send greetings to the Yisraelite brothers, which are of the goyim in Antioch and Syria and Cilikia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your beings, saying, You must receive brit-milah first and keep the Torah immediately: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed tov to us, being assembled as echad, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Bar-Nava and Shaul, 26 Men that have risked their chayim for the Name of our Master מֹשִׁיָּאֵנוּ Ha Moshiach.

27 We have sent therefore Yahudah and Sila, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed tov to The Ruach Hakodesh and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary initial things;

29 That you abstain from meats offered to idols and from dahm and from things strangled and from fornication: if you guard yourselves regarding these, you shall do well. Be strong!

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the encouragement.

32 And Yahudah and Sila, being neviim also themselves, exhorted the Yisraelite brothers with many words and confirmed them.

33 And after they had stayed a while, they were let go in shalom from the Yisraelite brothers back to the shlichim.

34 But it pleased Sila to stay there still.

35 Shaul also and Bar-Nava continued in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming The Word of אֱלֹהִים, with many others also.

36 And some yamim later Shaul said to Bar-Nava, Let us go again and visit our Yisraelite brothers in every city where we have proclaimed The Word of אֱלֹהִים and see how they are doing.

37 And Bar-Nava determined to take with them Yochanan, whose surname was Moshe-Markus.

38 But Shaul thought it not tov to take him with them because he departed from them from Pamphylia and continued not with them in the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them that they departed after separating from each other: and so Bar-Nava took Moshe-Markus and sailed to Cyprus;

40 And Shaul chose Sila and departed, being recommended by the Yisraelite brothers to the ches of אִרְיָאז.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilikia, confirming the kehellot of Yisrael.

16 Then he came to Derbe and Lustra: and, see, a certain talmid was there, named Timtheous, the son of a certain woman, who was a Yahudi and believed; but his abba was an Aramean:

2 Which was well reported of by the Yisraelite brothers that were at Lustra and Ikoniom.

3 Shaul desired to have him travel with him; and took him and conducted brit-milah for him because of the Yahudim who were in those quarters: for they all knew that his abba was an Aramean.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep that were ordained by the shlichim and zechanim who were at Yahrushalayim.

5 And so the kehellot of Yisrael were established in the emunah and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galutyah, they were forbidden by The Ruach Hakodesh to proclaim The Word in Asia Minor,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they desired to go into Bitunyah: but The Ruach did not allow them.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Shaul in the lyla; There stood a man of Makedonia and begged him, saying, Come over into Makedonia and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go into Makedonia, knowing for sure that אִרְיָאז had called us to proclaim The Besorah to them.

11 We left Troas; we came with a straight course to Samothrake and the next yom to Neapolis;

12 And from there to Philippi, which is the main city of that part of Makedonia and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain yamim.

13 And on The Shabbat we went out of the city by a riverside, where tefillah was always made; and we sat down and spoke to the women who assembled there:

14 And a certain woman named Lydyah, a seller of purple, from the city of Thyatira, who worshipped אֱלֹהִים, listened to us: whose lev אֱלֹהִים opened, that she received those things that were spoken of by Shaul.

15 And when she was immersed and her household, she asked us, saying, If you have judged me to be faithful to אֱלֹהִים, come into my bayit and stay there. And she urged us.

16 And it came to pass, as we went to Shabbat tefillot, a certain young girl possessed with an unclean ruach of Python met us, who brought her masters much profit by fortune telling:

17 The same followed Shaul and us and cried, saying, These men are the avadim of El-Elyon, who show to us the derech of salvation.

18 And this she did many yamim. But Shaul, being disturbed, turned and said to the unclean ruach, I command you in the Name of מוֹשֶׁה Ha Moshiach to come out of her. And it came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the ongoing possibility of further gain was gone, they caught Shaul and Sila and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers,

20 And brought them to the authorities, saying, These men, being Yahudim, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romayim.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the authorities tore off their clothes and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, commanding that the prison guard keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such a charge, threw them into the inner prison and made their feet secure in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Shaul and Sila made tefillah and sang tehillim to אֱלֹהֵינוּ: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison woke out of his sleep and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Shaul shouted with a loud voice, saying, Do yourself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then the keeper of the prison called for an ohr and ran in and came trembling and fell down before Shaul and Sila, 30 And having led them out, he said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and you shall be saved and also your bayit.

32 And they spoke to him The Word of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ and to all that were in his bayit.

33 And he took them in that same hour of the lyla and washed their stripes; and was immersed, he and all his mishpacha, right away.

34 And when he had brought them into his bayit, he prepared food for them and rejoiced, believing in אֱלֹהֵינוּ with all his bayit.

35 And when it was yom, the authorities sent the prison officers, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this to Shaul, The authorities have sent to let you go: now therefore depart and go in shalom.

37 But Shaul said to them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romiyah citizens and have cast us into prison; and now do they throw us out privately? No! Indeed; let them come here themselves and bring us out.

38 And the prison officers told these words to the authorities: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romayim.

39 And they came and pleaded with them and brought them outside the gates and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison and entered into the bayit of Lydyah and when they had seen the Yisraelite brothers, they comforted them and left.

17 Now when they had passed through Apollonia, they came to Tesloniqyah, where was a synagogue of the Yahudim:

2 And Shaul, as his manner was, went in and for three Shabbats reasoned with them from the Keetvay HaKadosh,

3 Opening and alleging, that Moshiach needed to have suffered and risen again from the dead; and that this אֱלֹהֵינוּ, whom I proclaim to you, is Moshiach.

4 And some of them believed, and joined with Shaul and Sila; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and many of the leading women.

5 But the Yahudim who believed not, moved with envy, took some wicked men from the city streets and gathered a large mob and caused disturbances in the city and assaulted the bayit of Yason and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Yason and certain Yisraelite brothers to the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the olam upside down have come here also;

7 Whom Yason has received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Kaiser, saying that there is another Melech, named owףאז.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken bail from Yason and from the others, they let them go.

10 And the Yisraelite brothers immediately sent away Shaul and Sila by lyla to Berea: who coming there went into the synagogue of the Yahudim.

11 These were more noble than those in Tesloniqyah, in that they received The Word with all readiness of mind and searched the Keetvay HaKadosh daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also many honorable women and men who were Greeks.

13 But when the unbelieving Yahudim of Tesloniqyah had da'at that The Word of אףאז was proclaimed by Shaul at Berea, they came there also and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the Yisraelite brothers sent away Shaul to go as it were to the sea: but Sila and Timtheous stayed there still.

15 And they that conducted his trip brought Shaul to Athens: and receiving a commandment to Sila and Timtheous to come to him fast, they departed.

16 Now while Shaul waited for them at Athens, his ruach was stirred in him, when he saw the city totally given to idolatry.

17 Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Yahudim and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said: What will this babblers say? Others said, He seems to be a proclaimer of strange mighty ones: because he proclaimed to them οὐρανὸν and the resurrection.

19 And they arrested him and brought him to Areopagus, saying, May we know what is this new teaching, that you bring?

20 For you bring certain strange things to our ears: we would like to know therefore what these things mean.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers who were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.

22 Then Shaul stood in the midst of Areopagus and said, You men of Athens, I perceive that in all things you are very religious.

23 For as I passed by and looked at your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN MIGHTY ONE. Whom you therefore ignorantly worship, him I do declare to you.

24 ἡμεῖς that made the olam and all things in it, seeing that He is Ruler of the shamayim and the olam, dwells not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though He needed anything, seeing He gives to all chayim and Ruach and all things;

26 And has made all goyim of men from one dahm to dwell on all the face of the olam and has determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their dwelling;

27 That they should seek Him, if possibly they might reach out for Him and find Him, though He be not far from any one of us:

28 For in Him we live and move and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

29 Now then since we are the offspring of אֱלֹהִים, we should not think that El-Elyon is anything like gold, or silver, or stone, created by man's mind, or devices.

30 For the past times of ignorance אֱלֹהִים overlooked; but now commands all men every where to make teshuvah:

31 Because He has appointed a Yom Din, in which He will judge the olam in tzedakah by that Man whom He has ordained; by which He has given proof to all men, in that He has raised Him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will listen to you again on this matter.

33 So Shaul departed from among them.

34 But certain men joined him and believed: among whom was Dionusios the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

18 After these things Shaul departed from Athens and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Yahudi named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently come from Italy, with his isha Priscilla; because Claudius had commanded all Yahudim to depart from Romiyah and they came to them.

3 And because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and they worked together: for by their occupation they were tallit makers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every Shabbat and persuaded the Yahudim and the Greeks.

5 And when Sila and Timtheous were come from Makedonia, Shaul was pressed in The Ruach because the Yahudim opposed and blasphemed as he testified that mshich was The Moshiach.

6 And when they opposed themselves and blasphemed, he shook off his garment and said to them, Your dahm be upon your own heads; I am clean: from now on I will go to the goyim.

7 And he departed there and entered into a certain man's bayit, named Justus, one that worshipped mshich , whose bayit was next to the synagogue.

8 And Crispus, the rabbi of the synagogue, believed on mshich with all his bayit; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed and were immersed.

9 Then spoke The Master mshich to Shaul in the lyla by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak and do not keep silent:

10 For I AM with you and no man shall attack you to hurt you: for I have many people in this city.

11 And he stayed there a year and six chodashem, teaching The Word of mshich among them.

12 And when Gallion was the proconsul of Achayah, the unbelieving Yahudim made insurrection with one accord against Shaul and brought him to the mishpat bema, 13 Saying, This fellow persuades men to worship Ahloha contrary to the Torah.

14 And when Shaul was now about to open his mouth, Gallion said to the Yahudim, If it were a matter of criminal wrong, or wicked lewdness, O you Yahudim, there would be a reason that I should listen to you:

15 But if it is a question of words and names, and of your Torah, you can settle it; for I do not wish to be a shophet of such matters.

16 And he removed all of them from the mishpat bema.

17 Then all the pagans took Sosthenes, the rabbi of the synagogue and beat him before the mishpat seat. And Gallion cared for none of those things.

18 And Shaul after this stayed there yet a tov while and then took his leave from the Yisraelite brothers and sailed from there into Aram and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shaved his head in Cenchrea: for he was under a Nazarite vow.

19 And he came to Ephsiyah and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue and reasoned with the Yahudim.

20 When they desired him to stay longer with them, he declined;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this moed that comes in Yahrushalayim: but I will return again to you, if אִי אֵלֶיךָ wills. And he sailed from Ephsiyah.

22 And when he had landed at Caesarea and went up and greeted the kehilla of Yisrael, then he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed and went over all the country of Galutyah and Phrygia, strengthening all the talmidim.

24 And a certain Yahudi named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man and mighty in the Keetvay HaKadosh, came to Ephsiyah.

25 This man was instructed in the Torah and halacha of The Master אִי אֵלֶיךָ; and being fervent in The Ruach, he spoke and taught diligently the things of אִי אֵלֶיךָ, knowing only the mikvah of Yochanan ha Matbeel.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: and when Aquila and Priscilla had heard him, they took him to them and expounded to him the derech of אִי אֵלֶיךָ more fully.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achayah, the Yisraelite brothers wrote, exhorting the talmidim to receive him and when he arrived, helped them much who had believed through chen:
28 For he mightily refuted the Yahudim, publicly, showing by the Keetvay HaKadosh that וּמִשִּׁיחַ was in fact The Moshiach.

19 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Shaul having passed through the upper borders came to Ephsiyah: and finding certain talmidim,

2 He said to them, Have you received The Ruach Hakodesh when you believed? And they said to him, We have not even heard whether there is any Ruach Hakodesh.

3 And he said to them, Into what then were you immersed? And they said, Into Yochanan ha Matbeel's mikvah.

4 Then said Shaul, Yochanan ha Matbeel truly immersed with the mikvah of teshuvah, saying to the people, that they should believe on Him who should come after him, that is, on Moshiach וּמִשִּׁיחַ.

5 When they heard this, they were immersed in the Name of The Master וּמִשִּׁיחַ.

6 And when Shaul had laid his hands upon them, The Ruach Hakodesh came on them; and they spoke with tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for around three chodashem, disputing and persuading the things concerning the malchut of וּמִשִּׁיחַ.

9 But when some were hardened and believed not, but spoke evil of the Derech before the multitude, he departed from them and separated the talmidim and they held midrash daily in the yeshiva of Tyrannus.

10 And this continued for around two years; so that all those who dwelt in Asia Minor heard The Word of The Master $\omega\upsilon\acute{\iota}\alpha\alpha\zeta$, Yahudim, Greeks and Arameans.

11 And $\alpha\acute{\iota}\alpha\alpha\zeta$ worked special nisim by the hands of Shaul:

12 So that even from the clothes on his gooff were brought to the sick handkerchiefs, or aprons and the diseases departed from them, the shedim went out from them and the insane were restored.

13 Then certain roving Yahudim, exorcists, took it upon themselves to call out over those who had shedim in the Name of The Master $\omega\upsilon\acute{\iota}\alpha\alpha\zeta$, saying, We adjure you by $\omega\upsilon\acute{\iota}\alpha\alpha\zeta$ who Shaul proclaims.

14 And there were seven sons of Skeua, a Yahudi and the head of the roving exorcist kohanim, who did the same thing.

15 And the evil shed answered and said, Yahushua I know and Shaul I know; but who are you?

16 And the man in whom the evil ruach was leaped on them and overcame them and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that bayit naked, beaten and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Yahudim and Greeks also dwelling at Ephsiyah; and fear fell on them all and the Name of the Savior $\omega\upsilon\acute{\iota}\alpha\alpha\zeta$ was magnified.

18 And many that believed came and confessed and showed their s.a.tanic deeds.

19 Many of them also who used magic brought their books together and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of the books and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew The Word of $\alpha\acute{\iota}\alpha\alpha\zeta$ and prevailed.

21 After these things were ended, Shaul purposed in The Ruach, when he had passed through Makedonia and Achayah, to go to Yahrushalayim, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Romiyah.

22 So he sent into Makedonia two of them that attended to him, Timtheous and Erastos; but he himself stayed in Asia Minor for a while.

23 At the same time there arose a big stir about The Derech.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines for Artemis the pagan mighty one, brought no small gain to the craftsmen;

25 When he called together the shrine makers and said, Sirs, you know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover you see and hear, that not only at Ephsiyah, but almost throughout all of Asia Minor, this Shaul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are not mighty ones which we make with our hands:

27 So that not only our livelihood is in danger to come to nothing; but also that the shrine of the great female mighty one Artemis should be despised and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all in Asia Minor and the olam worships.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians.

29 And the entire city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Makedonia, Shaul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Shaul would have entered into the mob, the talmidim did not allow him.

31 And certain of the officials of Asia Minor, who were his chaverim, sent for him, desiring that he would not risk his chayim in the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing and some another: for the mob was confused; and most did not know why they had come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Yahudim putting him forward. And Alexander motioned for silence with his hand and would have made his defense to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Yahudi, all with one voice for about two hours cried out, Great is Artemis of the Ephesians.

35 And when the mayor had quieted the people, he said, You men of Ephsiyah, what man is there that knows not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great female mighty one Artemis and her image which fell down from Zeus in the shamayim?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, you should be quiet, do nothing in haste.

37 For you have brought here these men, who are neither robbers of temples, nor blasphemers of your female mighty one.

38 Therefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against any man, the courts are open and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another.

39 But if you inquire anything concerning any other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful court.

40 For we are in danger to be called to an account for this yom's riot, there being no reason we can give to account for this mob scene.

41 And when he had spoken, he dismissed the crowd.

20 And after the uproar had ceased, Shaul called to him the talmidim and embraced them and departed to go into Makedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there he stayed three chodashem. And when the unbelieving Yahudim lay in wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Makedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Minor Sopater from Berea; and from Tesloniqyah, Aristarchos and Secundos; and Gaios from Derbe and Timtheous; and from Asia Minor, Tuchicos and Trophimos.

5 These going on ahead waited for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the yamim of Chag Matzoth, and came to them at Troas in five yamim; where we stayed seven yamim.

7 And moreover on one of The Shabbats, when the talmidim came together to break lechem, Shaul proclaimed to them, ready to depart the next yom; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutuchos, who fell into a deep sleep: and as Shaul was sharing a long teaching, he sank into deep sleep and fell down from the third loft and was picked up dead.

10 And Shaul went down and fell on him and embraced him and said, Don't worry; for his chayim is now in him.

11 When he therefore had come up again and had broken lechem and eaten and talked a long while, even until daybreak he then departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive and rejoiced exceedingly.

13 And we went ahead by ship and sailed to Assos, there intending to take in Shaul: for so had he appointed, having gone there by land.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in and came to Mitulene.

15 And we sailed there and came the next yom opposite Chios; and the next yom we arrived at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium; and the next yom we came to Miletus.

16 For Shaul had determined to sail by Ephesus because he would not spend the time in Asia Minor: for he rushed, if it were still possible for him, to be at Yehushalayim for Chag Shavuot.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called the zechanim of the kehilla of Yisrael.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, You know, from the first yom that I came into Asia Minor, what kind of lifestyle I had with you at all times,

19 Serving אֱלֹהִים with all humility of mind and with many tears and temptations, what befell me by the lying in wait of the unbelieving Yahudim:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable for you, but have showed you and have taught you publicly and from bayit to bayit, 21 Testifying both to the Yahudim and also to the Greeks, teshuvah before אֱלֹהִים and emunah toward our Master ה' Ha Moshiach.

22 And now, see, I go bound in The Ruach to Yehushalayim, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Except that The Ruach Hakodesh witnesses in every city, saying that prison and afflictions await me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my chayim dear to myself, so that I might finish my course with simcha and the service, which I have received from The Master אדני, to testify The Besorah of the chen of אדני.

25 And now, see, I know that you all, among whom I have gone proclaiming the malchut of אדני, shall see my face no more.

26 Therefore I take you to record this yom that I am pure from the dahm of all men.

27 For I have not held back to declare to you the complete counsel of אדני.

28 Take heed therefore to yourselves and to all the flock, over which The Ruach Hakodesh has made you overseers, to feed the kehilla of Yisrael in אדני, which He has purchased with His own dahm.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also from among your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away talmidim after themselves.

31 Therefore watch and remember, that for about three years I ceased not to warn every one lyla and yom with tears.

32 And now, Yisraelite brothers, I commend you to אדני and to The Word of His chen, which is able to build you up and to give you an inheritance among all them who are kadosh.

33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yes, you yourselves know, that these hands have supplied my necessities, for me and for those that were with me.

35 I have showed you all things, how that by working hard you also must support the weak and to remember The Words of The Master וַיֹּאמֶר, how He said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had spoken this, he kneeled down and made tefillah with them all.
37 And they all wept hard and fell on Shaul's neck and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for The Words that he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

21 And it came to pass, that after we had separated from them and had launched, we came with a straight course to Coos and the yom following to Rhodes and from there to Patara:
2 And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set out.
3 Now when we had seen Cyprus, we left it on the left hand and sailed into Syria and landed at Tsor: for there the ship was to unload her cargo.
4 And finding talmidim, we stayed there seven yamim: who said to Shaul through The Ruach that he should not go up to Yahrushalayim.
5 And when we had accomplished those yamim, we departed and went our derech; and they all brought us on our derech, with their wives and children, until we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore and made tefillah.
6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we sailed; and they returned home again.
7 And when we had finished our course from Tsor, we came to Ptolemais and greeted the Yisraelite brothers and stayed with them one yom.
8 And the next yom we that were of Shaul's group departed and came to Caesarea: and we entered into the bayit of Philip the Proclaimer, who was one of the seven; and stayed with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, who did prophesy.

10 And as we stayed there many yamim, there came down from Yahudah a certain navi, named Hagav.

11 And when he had come to us, he took Shaul's girdle and bound his own hands and feet and said, This says The Ruach Hakodesh, So shall the Yahudim at Yahrushalayim bind the man that owns this girdle and shall deliver him into the hands of the pagans.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and those of that place, begged him not to go up to Yahrushalayim.

13 Then Shaul answered, What do you mean by weeping and breaking my lev? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Yahrushalayim for the Name of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of אֱלֹהֵינוּ be done.

15 And after those yamim we prepared and went up to Yahrushalayim.

16 There went with us also certain of the talmidim of Caesarea and brought with them Menason of Cyprus, an old talmid, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we had come to Yahrushalayim, the Yisraelite brothers received us with simcha.

18 And the yom following Shaul went in with us to Yaakov; and all the zechanim were present.

19 And when he had greeted them, he declared particularly what things אֱלֹהֵינוּ had done among the goyim by his service.

20 And when they heard it, they gave tehilla to אֱלֹהֵינוּ and said to him, You see, brother, how many tens of thousands there are who believe among the Yahudim; and they are all zealous for the Torah:

21 And they are wrongly informed about you, that you teach all the Yahudim who are among the goyim to forsake Moshe's Torah, saying that they should not brit-milah their children, neither walk after the halacha of Torah.

22 What is this therefore? The multitudes will hear that you have come.

23 So do what we tell you: We have four men who have a Nazarite vow on them;

24 Take them and cleanse yourself with them and pay their expenses, that they may shave their heads: and then all will know that those things, of which they were informed about you, are false and nothing; but that you yourself also have your halacha orderly, guarding all of the Torah.

25 As touching the returning goyim which believe, we have written and concluded that they keep themselves from things offered to idols and from dahm and from strangled things and from fornication.*

26 Then Shaul took the men and the next yom cleansed himself with them and entered into the Beit HaMikdash, to signify the completion of the yamim of their separation, until the offering should be given for every one of them.

27 And when the seven yamim were almost ended, the Yahudim who were from Asia Minor, when they saw him in the Beit HaMikdash, stirred up all the people and laid hands on him, 28 Crying out, Men of Yisrael, help: This is the man, that teaches all men everywhere against the people of Yisrael and the Torah and this makom kadosh: and furthermore he brought Greeks into the Beit HaMikdash and has polluted this makom kadosh.

29 For they had been seen before with him in the city, Trophimos the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Shaul had brought into the Beit HaMikdash.

30 And all the city was moved and the people ran together: and they took Shaul and dragged him out of the Beit HaMikdash: and immediately shut the doors.

31 And as they went about to kill him, news came to the chief captain of the company, that all Yahrushalayim was in an uproar.

32 He immediately took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they stopped beating Shaul.

33 Then the chief captain came near and took him and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded to know who he was and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the real reason for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the headquarters.

35 And when he came to the stairs, so it was, that he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the unbelieving people followed after him, shouting, Away with him.

37 And as Shaul was about to be led into the headquarters, he said to the chief captain, May I speak to you? The chief captain said, Can you speak Greek?

38 Are not you that Mitzri, who a while back made a revolt and led out into the wilderness four thousand men that were assassins?

39 But Shaul said, No. I am a man, a Yahudi of Tarsus, a city in Cilikia, a citizen of a well known city: and, I beg you, allow me to speak to my people Yisrael.

40 And when he had given him permission, Shaul stood on the stairs and motioned with the hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Ivrit tongue, saying, 22 Men, Yisraelite brothers and ahvot of Yisrael, listen to my defense, which I make to you now.

2 And when they heard that he spoke in the Ivrit tongue, they kept even quieter and he said,

3 I am indeed a man who am a Yahudi, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilikia, yet brought up in this city at the yeshiva of Gamliel and taught according to the perfect manner of the Torah of the ahvot and was zealous towards Ahloha, as you all are this yom.

4 And I persecuted the Derech to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the Kohen HaGadol does bear me witness and all the zechanim of the Sanhedrin: from whom also I received letters to the Yisraelite brothers and went to Dameshek, to bring them who were there bound to Yahrushalayim, to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey and had come near to Dameshek around noon, suddenly there shone from the shamayim a Great Ohr all around me.

7 And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, Shaul, Shaul, why do you persecute Me personally?

8 And I answered, Who are You, Master? And He said to me, I AM אֲנִי of Natzeret, whom you persecute.

9 And they that were with me saw The Ohr and were afraid; but they did not hear the voice of Him that spoke to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Master? And וַיֹּאמֶר said to me, Arise and go into Dameshek; and there it shall be told you all things which are appointed for you to do.

11 And when I could not see for the tifereth of that Ohr, being led by the hand of those that were with me, I came into Dameshek.

12 And one Chananyah, a devout man following the Torah, having a tov report among all the Yahudim who dwelt there, 13 Came to me and stood and said to me, Brother Shaul, receive your sight. And the same hour I looked up at him.

14 And he said, The Ahloha of our ahvot has chosen you, that you should know His will and see that Tzadik-One and should hear the voice from His mouth.

15 For you shall be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard.

16 And now why do you delay? Arise and be immersed and wash away your sins, calling on the Name of יְהוָה.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I had come again to Yahrushalayim, even while I made tefillah in the Beit HaMikdash, I went into a trance;

18 And saw Him saying to me, Hurry and get quickly out of Yahrushalayim: for they will not receive your testimony concerning Me.

19 And I said, Master, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those that believed on You:

20 And when the dahm of Your martyr Tzephanyah was shed, I also was standing by and approving of his death and held the garments of those that killed him.

21 And He said to me, Depart: for I will send you far from here to the goyim.

22 And they gave him their attention up to this Word and then lifted up their voices and said, Away with such a fellow from the olam: for it is not fit that he should even live.

23 And as they shouted, they cast off their clothes and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the headquarters and ordered that he should be examined after a scourging and beating; that he might know the reason they shouted against him.

25 And as they bound him with straps, Shaul said to the captain that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a citizen of Romiyah and yet uncondemned?

26 When the captain heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Be careful what you do: for this man is a citizen of Romiyah.

27 Then the chief captain came and said to him, Tell me, are you a Romiyah citizen? He said, Ken.

28 And the chief captain answered, I paid a great price for my citizenship. And Shaul said, But I was freely born as a Romiyah citizen.

29 Then right away those who should have examined him left him alone: and the chief captain also was worried, after he knew that he was a Romiyah citizen because he had bound him unlawfully.

30 On the next yom because he desired to know the emet reason why he was accused by the unbelieving Yahudim, he unbound and released him and commanded the chief kohanim and all their Sanhedrin to appear and brought Shaul down and set him before them.

23 And Shaul, intently beholding the Sanhedrin, said, Men and Yisraelite brothers, I have lived in all tov conscience before אֱלֹהִים until this yom.

2 And the Kohen HaGadol Chananyah commanded them that stood by him to hit him on the mouth.

3 Then said Shaul to him, אף אף shall hit you, you whited wall: for you sit to judge me by the Torah and then command me to be hit contrary to the Torah.

4 And they that stood by said, Do you even revile Ahloha's Kohen HaGadol?

5 Then said Shaul, I did not know brothers, that he was the Kohen HaGadol: for it is written, You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.

6 But when Shaul perceived that the one part were Tzadukim and the other Prushim, he cried out in the Sanhedrin, Men and brothers, I am a Prush, the son of a Prush: because of my tikvah in the resurrection of the dead – the mee-chayai hamaytiim – I am being questioned.

7 And when he had said this, there arose a dissension between the Prushim and the Tzadukim: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Tzadukim say that there is no resurrection, or heavenly malachim and shedim: but the Prushim confess both.

9 And there arose a great tumult: and the Sophrim who were of the Prushim's viewpoint arose, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a ruach, or a heavenly malach has spoken to him, let us not fight against Ahloha.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Shaul might have been pulled to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and to take him by force from among them and to bring him into the headquarters.

11 And the lyla following אף אף stood by him and said, Be of tov ruach, Shaul: for as you have testified of Me in Yahrushalayim, so must you bear witness in Romiyah.

12 And when it was daylight, certain of the Yahudim banded together and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Shaul.

13 And there were more than forty who had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief kohanim and zechanim and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have killed Shaul.

15 Now therefore you with the Sanhedrin tell the chief captain so that he brings him down to you tomorrow and pretend as if you are seeking more information from him: and we, whenever he comes near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Shaul's nephew heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the headquarters and told Shaul.

17 Then Shaul called one of the centurions to him and said, Bring this young man to the chief captain: for he has something to tell him.

18 So he took him and brought him to the chief captain and said, Shaul the prisoner called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand and went with him aside privately and asked him, What is that you have to tell me?

20 And he said, The unbelieving Yahudim have agreed to ask you that you would bring down Shaul tomorrow into the Sanhedrin, as though they would inquire something of him more fully.

21 But do not yield to them: for they lie in wait for him more than forty men who, have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink until they have killed him: and now they are ready, looking for the promise from you.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart and said, See that you tell no man that you have showed these things to me.

23 And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea and seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, at three in the boker;

24 And provide them beasts that they may set Shaul on them and bring him safely to Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias sends greetings to the most excellent Governor Felix.

27 This man was taken by the unbelieving Yahudim and would have been killed by them: then I came with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a citizen of Romiyah.

28 And when I wanted to know the reason why they accused him, I brought him out into their Sanhedrin:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions about their Torah, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or even of prison.

30 And when it was told to me how the unbelieving Yahudim lay in wait for the man, I sent right away to you and gave commandment to his accusers also to speak before you exactly what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Shaul and brought him by lyla to Antipatris.

32 On the next yom they left the horsemen to go with him and returned to the headquarters:

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Shaul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked what province he was from. And then he understood that he was of Cilikia;

35 I will listen to you, when your accusers have also come, he said. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

24 And after five yamim Chananyah the Kohen HaGadol descended with the zechanim and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Shaul.

2 And when he was called out, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by you we enjoy great shalom and that very worthy deeds are done to this nation by your care,

3 We accept it always and in all places, most noble Felix, with all hodu.

4 But, that I not weary you with long explanations, I ask you that you would listen to us in your kindness just a few of our words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow and a mover of sedition among all the Yahudim throughout the olam and a ringleader of the sect of the Natsarim:

6 Who also has gone about to profane the Beit HaMikdash: whom we took and would have judged according to our Torah.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to you: so that by examining him yourself you will have the da'at of all these things, of which we accuse him.

9 And the unbelieving Yahudim also agreed, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Shaul, after the governor had motioned to him to speak, answered, Knowing that you have been for many years a shophet to this nation, I gladly defend myself:

11 So that you may understand, about twelve yamim ago I went up to Yahrushalayim to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the Beit HaMikdash disputing with any man, nor stirring up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess to you, that after the Derech which they call heresy, so I worship the Ahloha of my ahvot, believing all things which are written in the Torah and in the Neviim:

15 Having tikvah toward Ahloha, which they themselves also believe, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the tzadikim and the unjust.

16 It is for this reason that I labor, to always have a conscience void of offence toward Ahloha and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring assistance to my nation and terumah offerings.

18 At which time certain Yahudim from Asia Minor found me cleansed in the Beit HaMikdash, neither with a multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who should be here before you and object, if they had something against me.

20 Or, else let those here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the Sanhedrin, 21 Except it be for this one declaration, that I shouted standing among them, It is regarding the resurrection of the dead that I am called into questioning by you this yom.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more exact da'at of the Derech, he deferred and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will decide your matter.

23 And he commanded a captain to keep Shaul and to let him have liberty and that he should not forbid any of his acquaintances to attend to, or visit him.

24 And after certain yamim, when Felix came with his isha Drusilla, who was a female Yahudi, he sent for Shaul and heard him concerning the emunah in The Moshiach.

25 And as he reasoned of tzedakah, self-control and the mishpat to come, Felix trembled and answered, Go your derech for now; when I have some time, I will call for you.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given to him by Shaul, that he might free him: therefore he sent for him often and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus succeeded Felix: and Felix, willing to do the unbelieving Yahudim a favor, left Shaul in prison.

25 Now when Festus had come into the province, after three yamim he ascended from Caesarea to Yahrushalayim.

2 Then the Kohen HaGadol and the leaders of the Yahudim informed him against Shaul and begged him,

3 Asking a favor from him, that he would send him to Yahrushalayim, laying wait in the derech to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Shaul should be kept at Caesarea and that he himself would depart there shortly.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had stayed among them more than ten yamim, he went down to Caesarea; and the next yom sitting on the mishpat seat commanded Shaul to be brought out.

7 And when he had come, the unbelieving Yahudim who came down from Yahrushalayim stood around and laid many and grievous complaints against Shaul, which they could not prove.

8 When he answered for himself he said, Neither against the Torah of the Yahudim, neither against the Beit HaMikdash, nor yet against Kaiser, have I offended in any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the unbelieving Yahudim a favor, answered Shaul and said, Will you go up to Yahrushalayim and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Shaul, I stand at Kaiser's mishpat seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Yahudim have I done no wrong, as you very well know.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed anything worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things of which these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Kaiser.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the Sanhedrin, answered, Have you appealed to Kaiser? To Kaiser shall you go.

13 And after certain yamim Melech Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to greet Festus.

14 And when they had been there many yamim, Festus declared Shaul's cause to the melech, saying, There is a certain man left in prison by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Yahrushalayim, the chief kohanim and the zechanim of the Yahudim informed me, desiring to have mishpat against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romayim to deliver any man to die, before the one accused has an opportunity to answer the accusers face to face and have a chance to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come here, without any delay on the next yom I sat on the mishpat seat and commanded the man to be brought out.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none of the accusations about such things as I thought:

19 But had certain issues against him about their own worship and about someone named סופראז, who was dead, whom Shaul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I was uncertain about these matters, I asked him whether he would go to Yahrushalayim and there be judged on these matters.

21 But when Shaul had appealed to be kept for a hearing before Augustus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Kaiser.

22 Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also like to hear the man myself. Tomorrow, he said, you shall hear him.

23 And the next yom, when Agrippa had come and Bernice, with great show and had entered into the place of hearing, with the commanders and important men of the city, at Festus's commandment Shaul was brought out.

24 And Festus said, Melech Agrippa and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Yahudim have dealt with me, both at Yahrushalayim and also here, screaming that he should not live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain charges to write to my master. Therefore I have brought him out before you and especially before you, O melech Agrippa, so that, after your examination, I might have something to charge him with.

27 For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not signify the crimes brought against him.

26 Then Agrippa said to Shaul, You are permitted to speak for yourself. Then Shaul stretched out his hand and answered for himself:

2 I think of myself as favored, Melech Agrippa because I shall answer for myself this yom before you touching all the things that I am accused of by the unbelieving Yahudim:

3 Especially because I know you to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Yahudim: therefore I ask you to listen to me patiently.

4 My manner of chayim from my youth, which was from the start known by my own nation of Yisrael at Yahrushalayim, is known by all the Yahudim;

5 Who knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the strictest sect of our observance I lived as a Prush with their excellent teaching.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the tikvah of the promise made by אֱלֹהִים to our ahvot:

7 To which promise our twelve tribes, diligently praying to Ahloha yom and lyla, have tikvah to come. For which tikvah's sake, Melech Agrippa, I am accused by the unbelieving Yahudim.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that אֱלֹהִים should raise the dead?

9 I truly thought to myself, that I should do many things contrary to the Name of אֱלֹהִים of Natzeret.

10 Which things I also did in Yahrushalayim: and many of the Yisraelite kidushim did I lock in prison, having received authority from the chief kohanim; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them often in every synagogue and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad at them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12 While doing this, as I went to Dameshek with authority and commission from the chief kohanim, 13 At midday, O Melech, I saw on the road an ohr from the shamayim, greater than the brightness of the shemesh, shining all around me and on those who journeyed with me.

14 And when we all were fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in Ivrit, Shaul, Shaul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to offer against Me this worthless resistance.

15 And I said, Who are You, Master? And He said, I AM Yahushua whom you persecute.

16 But rise and stand upon your feet: for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you an eved and a witness both of these things which you have seen and of those things which I will reveal to you;

17 Delivering you from the people, and from the goyim, to whom I now send you,

18 To open their eyes and to turn them from darkness to ohr and from the power of s.a.tan to אלהים, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among them who are kadosh by emunah that is in Me.

19 Therefore, O Melech Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision:

20 But showed it first to them of Dameshek and at Yahrushalayim and throughout all the borders of Yahudah and then to the goyim, that they should make teshuvah and turn to אלהים and do mitzvoth meet for teshuvah.

21 For these reasons the unbelieving Yahudim caught me in the Beit HaMikdash and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help from אלהים, I continue to this yom, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those, which the neviim and Moshe Rabainu said, would come:

23 That The Moshiach should suffer and that He should be the first that should rise from the dead and should show Ohr to the people and to the goyim.

24 And as he was speaking for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Shaul, you are beside yourself; much learning has made you meshugas.

25 But he said, I am not meshugas, most noble Festus; but speak out The Words of emet and common sense.

26 For the melech knows of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from you; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 Melech Agrippa, do you believe the neviim? I know that you believe.

28 Then Agrippa said to Shaul, You almost are persuading me to be a Notsri.

29 And Shaul said, I would to Ahloha, that not only you, but also all that hear me today, might become fully as I am, except for these chains.

30 And when he had spoken all this, the melech rose up and the governor and Bernice and they that sat with them:

31 And when they had left, they talked between themselves, saying, This man does nothing worthy of death, or of prison.

32 Then said Agrippa to Festus; This man could have been set free, if he had not appealed to Kaiser.

27 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Shaul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius, a captain of the Augustan regimen.

2 And entering into a ship from Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the borders of Asia Minor; with Aristarchos, a Makedonian of Tesloniqyah, being with us.

3 And the next yom we landed at Tzidon. And Julius courteously treated Shaul and gave him liberty to go to his chaverim to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from there, we sailed under Cyprus because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilikia and Pamphylia, we came to Mura, a city of Lucia.

6 And there the captain found a ship from Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us on board.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many yamim and barely were come opposite Cnidus, the wind did not allow us to proceed, we sailed close to Crete, off Salmone;

8 And, hardly passing it, came to a place which is called The Fair Havens; near the city of Lasea.

9 Now we remained there a long time, even until the Yom Kippur fast was past, and since it had become dangerous for anyone to sail, Shaul admonished them,

10 And said to them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the cargo and ship, but also of our chayim.

11 Nevertheless the captain believed the navigator and the owner of the ship, more than those things that were spoken by Shaul.

12 And because the harbor was not suited to winter in, most advised to depart from there also, if by any means they might get to Phoenicia and spend the winter there; which is a harbor of Crete, facing southwest and northwest.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, leaving there, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against us a hurricane, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught and could not hold up against the wind, we yielded control of it.

16 And passing under a certain island that is called Clauda, we could hardly retain the ship's lifeboat:

17 Which when they had taken it up, we girded up and prepared the ship and, feared lest we should fall into the downward rapids, we pulled down the sail and drifted.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with the hurricane, the next yom they began to throw our belongings into the sea;

19 And the third yom we cast out with our own hands the rigging of the ship.

20 And when neither shemesh nor cochavim in many yamim appeared and the hurricane beat on us, all tikvah that we should be saved was then lost.

21 But after a long abstinence from food Shaul stood out in the midst of them and said, Sirs, you should have listened to me and not have sailed from Crete, only to have experienced this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of tov courage: for there shall be no loss of any man's chayim among you, but only of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this lyla a Heavenly Malach of אֱלֹהִים, whose I am and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Shaul; you must be brought before Kaiser: and, look, אֱלֹהִים has given you all them that sail with you.

25 Therefore, sirs, be of tov courage: for I believe אֱלֹהִים, that it shall be even as it was told to me.

26 But first we must run aground upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth lyla was come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors determined that they had drawn near to some country;

28 And taking sounding measurements, they found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should run aground, they dropped four anchors out of the stern and made tefillah for the yom to come.

30 And as the sailors were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the lifeboat into the sea, under pretense as though they were casting out anchors to fasten the ship, 31 Shaul said to the captain and to the soldiers, If these people do not stay in the ship, they cannot survive.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the lifeboat and let it fall off.

33 And while the yom was dawning, Shaul sought them all to take food, saying, This yom is the fourteenth yom that you have stayed and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Therefore I beg you to take some food: for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had spoken, he took lechem and gave hodu to אֲרָאֵל in the presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of tov courage and they also took some food.

37 And we were in the ship a total of two hundred seventy six beings.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was yom, they did not recognize the land: but they discovered a certain bay with a shore, into which they planned, if it were possible, to run the ship.

40 And when they had cut off the anchors, they threw them into the sea and loosed the rudder ropes and hoisted up the main sail to the wind and made it to shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the front stuck fast and remained unmovable, but the back of it was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.

43 But the captain, willing to save Shaul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that those who could swim should cast themselves first into the sea and go to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safely to land.

28 And having come to safety, then they learned that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarians who lived there showed us much kindness: for they lit a fire and received each one of us because of the falling rain and because of the cold.

3 And when Shaul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat and bit his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the creature hanging on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, who, though he has escaped the sea, yet mishpat does not allow him to have his chayim.

5 And he shook off the viper into the fire and felt no harm.

6 But they looked to see when he would swell up, or die suddenly: but after they had looked a great while and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds and said that he was a mighty Ahloha.

7 In the same area were lands belonging to the chief of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us and lodged us at his home for three yamim most courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that The Abba of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bowel pain: to whom Shaul entered in and made tefillah and laid his hands on him and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, who had diseases in the island, came and were healed:

10 Who also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they gave us such basic things as were necessary.

11 And after three chodashem we departed in a ship from Alexandria, which had wintered on the island, whose carved figurehead was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we stayed there three yamim.

13 And from there we got hold of a compass and came to Rhegium: and after one yom the south wind blew and we came the next yom to Puteoli:

14 Where we found Yisraelite brothers and were invited to stay with them for seven yamim: and so we went toward Romiyah.

15 And from there, when the Yisraelite brothers heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appiiforum and the Three Taverns: who when Shaul saw, he gave hodu to אַיִן אֵל and took courage.

16 And when we came to Romiyah, the captain delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Shaul was allowed to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three yamim Shaul called the rulers of the Yahudim together: and when they had come together, he said to them, Men and Yisraelite brothers, though I have committed nothing against the Yahudim, or the Torah of our ahvot, yet was I delivered as a prisoner from Yahrushalayim into the hands of the Romayim.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go because there was no reason for death to be brought against me.

19 But when the unbelieving Yahudim spoke against it, I was obliged to appeal to Kaiser; not that I had anything to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you and to speak with you: because it is for the tikvah of Yisrael that I am bound with these chains.

21 And they said to him, We neither received letters out of the province of Yahudah concerning you, neither did any of the Yisraelite brothers that came here show, or speak any lashon hara against you.

22 But we desire to hear from you what you think: for as concerning this sect, we know that everywhere it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a yom, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified about the malchut of אֱלֹהִים, persuading them concerning אֱלֹהִים, both out of the Torah of Moshe and out of the Neviim, from boker until evening.

24 And some believed the things that were spoken and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after Shaul had spoken one final word, Well did The Ruach Hakodesh speak by Yeshayahu the navi to our ahvot,

26 Saying, Go to this people and say, Hearing you shall hear and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see and not perceive:

27 For the lev of this people is grown hardened and their ears are dull of hearing and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their lev and should make teshuvah and I should then heal them.

28 Be it known therefore to you, that the וּמְרִאָז of אִיִּז is being sent to the goyim, and that they will listen to it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Yahudim departed and had great reasoning and arguing among themselves.

30 And Shaul dwelt two full years in his own rented bayit at his own expense and received all that came in to him,

31 Proclaiming the malchut of אִיִּז and teaching those things about וּמְרִאָז Ha Moshiach: with all confidence, no man forbidding him. Ahmein. X

James-Yaakov

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Yaakov, an eved of אֱלֹהִים and The Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach to the twelve tribes who are scattered abroad among the goyim in the galut: Shalom.
- 2 My Yisraelite brothers, count it all simcha when you fall into diverse trials;
- 3 Knowing this, that the trying of your emunah produces patience.
- 4 But let patience be a perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, wanting nothing.
- 5 If any of you lack chochmah, let him ask of אֱלֹהִים who gives to all men liberally, without reproach; and it shall be given to him.
- 6 But let him ask in emunah, nothing wavering. For he that wavers is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
- 7 For let not that man think that he shall receive anything from The Master אֱלֹהִים.
- 8 A double minded man is unstable in all his derachot.
- 9 Let the brother of low degree gilah in that he is exalted:
- 10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
- 11 For the shemesh is no sooner risen with a burning heat, so that it withers the grass and the flower falls and the pretty appearance of it perishes: so also shall the rich man fade away in the course of his chayim.
- 12 Blessed is the man that endures trials: for when he is tried, he shall receive the keter of chayim that אֱלֹהִים has promised to those that love Him.

13 Let no man say when he is tested, I am tempted by אִיִּזְרָאֵל; for אִיִּזְרָאֵל cannot be tempted with evil, neither does He tempt any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own desires and is taken away.

15 Then when desire has conceived, it births sin: and sin, when it is spread, brings forth death.

16 Do not go astray, my beloved Yisraelite brothers.

17 Every tov gift and every perfect gift is from above and comes down from The Abba of Lights, in whom there is no changing, nor shadows that turn.

18 Of His own will He brought us forth with the Torah of emet, that we should be the bikkurim of His recreation.

19 So then, my beloved Yisraelite brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak and slow to anger:

20 For the wrath of man does not bring about the tzedakah of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

21 Therefore lay aside all filthiness and the multitude of evils and receive with meekness the engrafted Torah, which is able to save your beings.

22 But be doers of the Torah, and not hearers only deceiving yourselves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the Torah and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror:

24 For he sees himself and goes away and immediately forgets what type of man he was.

25 But whoever looks into the perfect Torah of freedom and continues in it, he will not be a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the mitzvot; this man shall be blessed in his mitzvot.

26 If any man among you seems to be an eved of The Master and controls not his tongue, he deceives his own lev and this man's service is in vain.

27 Pure and undefiled service to Abba אֲבִיָּא is this:
to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction and to keep himself unspotted from the olam hazeh.

2 My Yisraelite brothers, have not the emunah in our Master מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach, The Master of tifereth, with partiality.

2 For if there comes into your synagogue a man with a gold ring, in costly apparel and there comes in also a poor man in soiled clothing;

3 And you show chen to him that wears the beautiful clothing and say to him, Sit here in a tov place; and say to the poor, Stand over there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are you not then being partial among yourselves and have become shophtim with evil thoughts?

5 Shema carefully, my beloved Yisraelite brothers,
Has not אֲבִיָּא chosen the poor of this olam rich in emunah and heirs of the malchut which He has promised to them that love Him?

6 But you have despised the poor. Is it not rich men that oppress you and drag you before their bema of mishpat?

7 Do they not blaspheme that worthy Name by which you are called?

8 If you fulfill the royal Torah according to The Katuv, You shall love your neighbor as yourself; you will do well:

9 But if you show partiality among men, you commit sin and are convicted by the Torah as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the entire Torah and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For He that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now even if you commit no adultery, yet if you kill, you have become a transgressor of the Torah.

12 So act and do, as those that shall be judged by the Torah of liberty.

13 For He shall have mishpat without rachamim to him that has showed no rachamim; for you exalt yourselves by desiring rachamim instead of mishpat.

14 What does it profit, my Yisraelite brothers, if a man says he has emunah and has not mitzvoth? Can emunah save him?

15 If a brother, or sister is naked and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you says to them, Depart in shalom, may you be warm and filled; but you give them not those things that are needful to the gooff; what use is it?

17 Even so emunah, if it has not mitzvoth, is dead, being alone.

18 Yes, a man may say, You have emunah and I have mitzvoth: show me your emunah without your mitzvoth and I will show you my emunah by my mitzvoth.

19 You believe that there is Ahloha Echad; you do well: the shedim also believe and tremble.

20 But will you know, O vain ish, that emunah without mitzvoth is dead?

21 Was not Avraham our abba made tzadik by mitzvoth, when he had offered Yitzchak his son upon the altar?

22 Do you see how emunah worked with his mitzvoth and by mitzvoth was his emunah made perfect?

23 And The Katuv was fulfilled which said, Avraham believed אֱמָנָה and it was counted to him for tzedakah: and he was called the chaver of אֱמָנָה.

24 You see then how that by mitzvoth a man is made tzadik and not by emunah only.

25 Likewise also was not Rachav the harlot made tzadik by mitzvot, when she had received the spies and had sent them out another derech?

26 For as the gooff without the ruach is dead, so emunah without mitzvot is dead also.

3 My Yisraelite brothers, not many should be rabbis-morim, knowing that we shall receive a stronger mishpat.

2 For in many things we offend all people. If any man offend not in speech, the same is a perfect man and able also to bridle the whole gooff.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, so that they may obey us; and we turn their whole gooff.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned around with a very small rudder, in any way that the captain desires.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member and yet boasts great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire ignites!

6 And the tongue is a fire and the sinful olam a forest: so is the tongue among our members, it can defile the whole gooff and sets on fire the course of our Yisraelite race that rolls on like a wheel; and it burns on with the fire of Gei-Hinnom.

7 For every kind of beast and of birds and of serpents and of things in the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is unruly, evil and full of deadly poison.

9 With it we bless Ahloha, even our Abba; and with it we curse men, who are made after the image of The Master אלהים.

10 Out of the same mouth proceeds brachot and cursing. My Yisraelite brothers, these things should not be so!

11 Does a fountain send forth at the same place sweet mayim and bitter?

12 Can the fig eytz, my Yisraelite brothers, bear olive berries? Or, a vine, figs? So likewise saltwater cannot be made sweet.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with training among you? Let him show a tov lifestyle with his mitzvoth in meekness of chochmah.

14 But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your levavot, boast not and lie not against the emet.

15 This chochmah descends not from above, but is earthly, sensual and from s.a.tan.

16 For where envy and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

17 But the chochmah that is from above is first perfect, then full of shalom, gentle and ready to obey, full of rachamim and tov fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

18 And those that make shalom sow the fruit of tzedakah in shalom.

4 From where do wars and fighting among you come? Do they not come from your desires that war in your members?

2 You desire and have not: you kill and desire to have and cannot obtain: you strive and fight; yet you have not because you ask not.

3 You ask and receive not because you ask wickedly, that you may satisfy your lusts.

4 You adulterers and adulteresses, know you not that chavurah with worldly things is enmity with אֱלֹהִים? Whoever therefore wants to be a chaver of worldly things is the enemy of אֱלֹהִים.

5 Do you think that The Katuv said in vain, The human ruach that dwells in us is being provoked to envy?

6 But He gives more chen. Therefore He said, אִי־אֵזֶז resists the proud, but gives chen to the humble.

7 Submit yourselves fully therefore to אִי־אֵזֶז. Resist s.a.tan and he will flee from you.

8 Draw near to אִי־אֵזֶז and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your levavot, you double minded.

9 Lament and mourn and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning and your simcha to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of The Master אִי־אֵזֶז and He shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, Yisraelite brothers. He that speaks evil of his brother and judges his brother, speaks evil of the Torah and judges the Torah: But if you judge the Torah, you are not a doer of the Torah, but a judge of it.

12 There is one Lawgiver and Shophet, who is able to save and to destroy: who are you to judge your neighbor?

13 Come now, you that say, Today, or tomorrow we will go into such a city and continue there a year and buy and sell and prosper:

14 You do not know what shall be tomorrow. For what is your chayim? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.

15 For what you should say is, The Master אִי־אֵזֶז willing, we shall have chayim and do this, or that.

16 But now you gilah in your boastings: all such pride is evil.

17 Therefore to him that knows to do tov and does it not, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, you rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is tarnished; and their rust shall be a witness against you and shall eat your flesh, as it was fire. You have stored up treasure together for the yamim acharonim.

4 Behold, the wages of the laborers who have reaped your fields, that you hold back by fraud, cries: and the cries of those who have reaped have entered into the ears of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot.

5 You have lived in pleasure on the earth and been in luxury; you have nourished your levavot, as in a yom of slaughter.

6 You have condemned and killed the tzadik man; and he does not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, Yisraelite brothers, to the coming of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth and has great patience for it, until it receives the early and latter-rain.

8 You also be patient; establish your levavot: for the coming of The Master draws near.

9 Grumble not one against another, Yisraelite brothers, lest you be condemned: behold, the Shophet stands before the door.

10 Take, my Yisraelite brothers, the neviim, who have spoken in the Name of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, as our example of suffering, affliction and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the patience of Iyov and have seen the purpose of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ; that The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ is full of pity and full of tender rachamim.

12 But above all things, my Yisraelite brothers, swear not, neither by the shamayim, neither by the olam, neither by any other oath: but let your yes be yes; and your no be no; lest you fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him make tefillah. Is any in tov mood? Let him sing from The Tehillim.

14 Is any sick among you? Let him call for the shamashim of the kehilla; and let them make tefillah over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

15 And the tefillah of emunah shall save the sick and אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall raise him up; and if he has committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

16 Confess your faults one to another and make tefillah one for another, that you may be healed. The effectual fervent tefillot of a tzadik man is powerful accomplishing much.

17 Eliyahu was a man subject to many emotions as we are and he made tefillah earnestly that it would not rain: and it rained not on the earth for three years and six chodashem.

18 And he made tefillah again and the shamayim gave rain and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Yisraelite brothers, if any of you does stray from the emet and one of you helps him make full teshuvah;

20 Let him know, that he who turns the sinner from the error of his derech, shall save a being from death and shall even wipe out a multitude of sins.

Ahmein. X

Hebrews-Ivrim

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Ahloha, who at various times and in different derachot spoke in times past to the ahvot of Yisrael by the neviim,

2 Has in these yamim acharonim spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the olamim;

3 Who being the brightness of His tifereth and the express image of His Person and upholding all things by The Word of His Power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down as the Right Hand of the Majesty on High;

4 Being made so much better than the heavenly malachim, as He has inherited a more excellent Name than them.

5 For to which of the heavenly malachim said He at any time, You are My Son, this yom have I brought You forth? And again, I will be to Him an Abba and He shall be to Me a Son?

6 And again, when He brings in the first brought-forth into the olam, He says: And let all the heavenly malachim of Ahloha worship Him.

7 And of the heavenly malachim He says, Who makes His heavenly malachim ruachim and His avadim a flame of fire.

8 But to The Son He says, Your kesay, O Ahloha, is le-olam-va-ed: a scepter of tzedakah is the scepter of Your malchut.

9 You have loved tzedakah and hated iniquity; therefore Ahloha, even Your Ahloha, has anointed You with the oil of gilah above Your fellows.

10 And, You, אֱלֹהִים, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the shamayim are the works of Your hands:

11 They shall perish; but You remain; and they all shall grow old as does a garment;

12 And like a mantle You shall fold them up and they shall be changed: but You are the same and Your years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the heavenly malachim said He at any time, Sit on My right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool?

14 Are they not all serving ruachim, sent forth to serve those who shall be heirs of salvation?

2 Therefore we have to give the more earnest attention to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if The Word spoken by heavenly malachim was firm and every transgression and act of disobedience received a correct reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation; which at first began to be spoken by The Master Himself and was confirmed to us by them that heard Him;

4 אֱלֹהִים also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders and with different nisim and gifts of The Ruach Hakodesh, according to His own will!

5 For it is not to the heavenly malachim that He has subjected the olam haba, of which we speak.

6 But The Katuv testifies, saying, What is man, that You are mindful of him? Or, the ben adam, that You visited him?

7 You made him a little lower than the heavenly malachim; You crowned him with tifereth and kavod and did set him over the works of Your hands:

8 You have put all things in subjection under His feet. For in that He put all in subjection under Him,

He left nothing that is not put under Him. But now we see not yet all things put under Him.

9 But we see $\omega\text{f}\text{אז}$, who was made a little lower than the heavenly malachim for the suffering of death, crowned with tifereth and kavod; because He tasted death for every man, apart from Abba Ahloha of course.

10 For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to tifereth, to make the Sar of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both He that sets-apart and those who are being set apart are all echad: for which reason He is not ashamed to call them Yisraelite brothers, 12 Saying, I will declare Your Name to My Yisraelite brothers, in the midst of the kehilla will I sing tehilla to You.

13 And again, I will put My trust in Him. And again, Behold I and the children that $\text{אז}\text{אז}$ has given Me.

14 Since the children share in flesh and dahm, He also Himself likewise took part of the same; that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, s.a.tan;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to avdooth.

16 For truly He took not on Himself the nature of heavenly malachim; but He took on Himself the offspring-zera of Avraham.

17 So in every way it behooved Him to be made like His Yisraelite brothers, so that He might be full of rachamim as a faithful Kohen HaGadol in things pertaining to $\text{אז}\text{אז}$, to make keporah for the sins of the people.

18 For in that He Himself has suffered being tried, He is able to help them that are tried.

3 Therefore, kadosh Yisraelite brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider The Sholiach and The Kohen HaGadol of our confession, The Moshiach משיח;

2 Who was faithful to Him that appointed Him, as also Moshe was faithful in all his bayit.

3 For this Man was counted worthy of more tifereth than Moshe, seeing that He who has built the bayit has more kavod than the bayit.

4 For every bayit is built by some man; but He that built all things is Ahloha.

5 And Moshe truly was faithful in all his bayit, as an eved, for a testimony of those things that were to be spoken later;

6 But The Moshiach as a Son over His own bayit; whose bayit we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the gilah of our tikvah firm to the end.

7 Therefore as The Ruach Hakodesh says, Today if you will hear His voice,

8 Harden not your levavot, as in the rebellion, in the yom of trials in the wilderness:

9 When your ahvot tried Me, proved Me and saw My works forty years.

10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation and said, They do always go wayward in their levavot; and they have not known My halachot.

11 So I swore in My wrath, They shall not enter into My rest.

12 Shema, Yisraelite brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil lev of unbelief, in departing from the living Ahloha.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called today; lest any of you become hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of The Moshiach, if we hold onto the beginning of our confidence firm to the end;

15 While it is said, today if you will hear His voice, harden not your levavot, as in the rebellion.

16 For some, when they had heard, did rebel: was it not those that came out of Mitzrayim with Moshe? Although not all of them.

17 But with whom was He grieved for forty years? Was it not with them that had sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear that they should not enter into His rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

4 Let us therefore fear, while the promise of entering into His rest remains, lest any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For to us was The Besorah proclaimed, as well as to them: but The Word proclaimed did not profit them, since it was not mixed with emunah in them that heard it.

3 For we who have believed do enter into the rest, as He said, As I have sworn in My wrath, they shall not enter into My rest: for behold the works were finished from the foundation of the olam.

4 For He spoke in a certain place of The Shabbath in this manner: And Ahloha did rest on the seventh yom from all His works.

5 And in this place again, They shall not enter into My rest.

6 Seeing therefore it stands that some will surely enter into it and they to whom it was first proclaimed entered not because of unbelief:

7 Again, after so long a time; He appointed another yom as it is written above, for Dawid said, Today if you will hear His voice, harden not your levavot.

8 For if אֱלֹהִים son of Nun had given them rest, then would He not afterward have spoken of another yom.

9 There remains therefore a Shabbat-keeping duty to all the people of Ahloha.

10 For the one that is entered into His rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as אֱלֹהִים did from His.

11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that future Shabbat, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For The Word of אֱלֹהִים is quick and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing between the nephesh and the ruach man and between the joints and marrow and bone and is a discerner of the emet thoughts and intents of the lev.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in His sight: but all things are naked and open before the eyes of Him to whom we have to answer.

14 Seeing then that we have a great Kohen HaGadol, that is passed into the shamayim, אֱלֹהִים The Son of אֱלֹהִים, let us hold fast our confession.

15 For we have not a Kohen HaGadol who cannot be touched with the feeling of our weaknesses; but He was in all points tried like we are, yet He was without sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly to the kesay of chen, that we may obtain rachamim and find chen to help in our time of need.

5 For every Kohen HaGadol taken from among men is appointed for men in things pertaining to אֶת־אֶת־אֶת, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 He is the one who can humble himself and have rachamim on the ignorant who go astray; for that he himself also is surrounded with weaknesses.

3 And because of these he is obliged, to sacrifice for the people and also for himself, on account of his own sins.

4 And no man takes this kavod to himself, but he that is called of אֶת־אֶת־אֶת, as was Aharon.

5 So also The Moshiach esteemed not Himself to be made a Kohen HaGadol; but He that said to Him, You are My Son, today have I brought You forth.

6 As He says also in another place, You are a Kohen le-olam-va-ed, based on The Dabar-The Word Malki-Tzedek.

7 Who in the yamim of His flesh, when He had offered up tefillot and supplications with strong crying and tears to Him that was able to save Him from death and was heard;

8 Though He was The Son, yet He learned obedience by the things that He suffered;

9 And He grew to be perfect and He became The Author of eternal salvation to all them that obey Him;

10 Called of אֶת־אֶת־אֶת, a Kohen HaGadol based on The Dabar-The Word Malki-Tzedek.

11 About whom we have many things to say, but some are hard to explain, seeing you are dull of hearing.

12 For when by this time you ought to be morim, you have the need that someone teach you again the first principles of the primary writings of אֶת־אֶת־אֶת; and have become those that need milk and not strong meat.

13 For everyone that uses milk is unskilled in The Word of Tzedakah: for he is a baby.

14 But strong meat belongs to them that are mature, even those who by reason of using The Word, have their senses exercised to discern both tov and evil.

6 Therefore leaving the elementary principles of the teaching of The Moshiach, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of teshuvah from past evil works and of emunah towards אֱלֹהִים,

2 Of the teachings of mikvot and of laying on of hands and of our resurrection from the dead and of eternal mishpat.

3 And this will we do, if The Master אֱלֹהִים permits.

4 For it is impossible for those who were once immersed in mikvah, and have tasted of the heavenly gift and were made partakers of The Ruach Hakodesh,

5 And have tasted the tov Word of אֱלֹהִים and the powers of the olam haba,

6 And should they fall away, to renew them again to teshuvah; seeing they impale by themselves The Son of אֱלֹהִים again and put Him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes upon it and brings forth plants fit for them by whom it is tilled, receives brachot from Ahloha:

8 But that which bears thorns and thistles is rejected and is near to cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we expect better things from you and things that accompany salvation; that's why we speak like this.

10 For אֱלֹהִים is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of ahava, which you have showed toward His Name, in that you have served the Yisraelite kidushim and still do serve.

11 And we desire that every one of you show the same eagerness to the full assurance of your tikvah to the end:

12 That you be not lazy in The Malchut, but followers of them who through emunah and patience will inherit the promises.

13 For when אֱלֹהִים made a promise to Avraham because He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, 14 Saying, Surely in brachot I will bless you and multiplying I will multiply you.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men truly swear by the greater than themselves: and in every dispute among them, the emet settlement is by the oath.

17 In like manner אֱלֹהִים, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise that His promise was unchangeable, sealed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, the promise and the tikvah, in which it was impossible for אֱלֹהִים to lie, we might have a strong encouragement, we who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the tikvah set before us:

19 Which tikvah we have as an anchor of our being, both sure and firm and that tikvah enters within the veil;

20 There מֹשֶׁה has previously entered in for our sakes, made The Kohen HaGadol le-olam-va-ed , based on The Dabar-The Word Malki-Tzedek.

7 For this Malki-Tzedek, melech of Wholeness, kohen of El-Elyon, who met Avraham returning from the slaughter of the melechim and blessed him;
2 To whom also Avraham gave a ma'aser; first being by interpretation Melech of Tzedakah and after that also Melech of Healing and Wholeness, that is, Melech of Shalom;

3 Without abba, without emma, without records in any list or genealogy, without a start of yamim, nor any end of chayim; but this One was like The Son of אָבְרָהָם; who is the One that abides in His kohanut-priesthood in ongoing victory.

4 Now consider how great this One was, to whom even our abba Avraham gave the ma'aser and firstfruits of the best.

5 And truly they that are of the sons of Lewi, who receive the office of the kohanim, have a mitzvah to take the ma'aser from the people according to the Torah, that is, from their Yisraelite brothers, even though they come out of the loins of Avraham:

6 But the One not recorded in their family's genealogy, received the ma'aser from Avraham and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And The Dabar is correct; the lesser one is blessed by the Greater One.

8 And here mortal men receive the ma'aser; but there The One received them, of whom The Katuv is a witness that He lives continually.

9 And one might say, that through Avraham even Lewi, who received the ma'aser, gave ma'aser.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his abba Avraham, when Malki-Tzedek met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Lewitical kohanut – for under it the people received the Torah – what further need was there that another Kohen should arise, based upon My Dabar-My Word Malki-Tzedek and not be called based on My Words to Aharon?

12 For the kohanut being transferred, there is made of necessity an adjustment also in the Torah.

13 For He of whom these things are spoken of pertains to another tribe, of which no man ever served at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Master sprang out of Yahudah; of which tribe Moshe said nothing concerning the kohanut.

15 And it is yet clearer: that after the likeness and image of Malki-Tzedek there arises another Kohen, 16 Who is not appointed by the Torah of a carnal mitzvah given to flesh and dahm, but by The Power of an endless chayim.

17 For He testifies, You are a Kohen le-olam-va-ed, based on The Dabar-The Word Malki-Tzedek.

18 For there is truly a setting-aside of the former mitzvah because of its weakness and unprofitableness.

19 For the Torah healed nothing, but the bringing in of a better tikvah did; through which we draw near to אֱלֹהִים.

20 And He confirmed it to us by an oath:

21 For those kohanim were made without any oath; but this One with an oath, by Him that said to Him, The Master אֱלֹהִים has sworn and will not relent, You are a Kohen le-olam-va-ed; based on The Dabar-The Word Malki-Tzedek:

22 By that oath אֱלֹהִים was made a guarantor of a better brit.

23 And they truly were many kohanim because they were not allowed to continue in the land by reason of their death:

24 But this One, le-olam-va-ed, has a continuous kohanut, that will not depart from us.

25 Therefore He is able also to save them fully, that come to אֱלֹהִים through Him, seeing He lives le-olam-va-ed to make intercession for them.

26 For such a Kohen HaGadol is fully fit for us, who is kadosh, harmless, undefiled, pure, separate from sinners and exalted higher than the shamayim;

27 Who need not daily, as those Kohanim Gedolim, to offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins and then for the people's: for this He did once, when He offered up Himself.

28 For the Torah makes men Kohanim Gedolim, who have human weakness; but The Dabar-Word of the oath, which was after the Torah, appointed The Son, The Perfect One, le-olam-va-ed.

8 Now of the things that we have spoken this is the summary: We have such a Kohen HaGadol, who is set as the Right Hand of the kesay of the Majesty in the shamayim;

2 An attendant of the Kadosh-Place and of the emet Tent of Meeting, which אֶלֶּל pitched and not man.

3 For every Kohen HaGadol is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices: So it was also necessary that this Man have something to offer.

4 For if He were on earth, He would not be a kohen, seeing that there are kohanim that offer gifts according to the Torah:

5 Who serve as the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moshe was admonished by Ahloha when he was about to make the Tent of Meeting: for, See, He said, that you make all things according to the pattern showed to you on the har.

6 But now אֶלֶּל Ha Moshiach has obtained a greater service, by which He also is the Mediator of a more advantageous brit, which was given as Torah based upon more advantageous promises.

7 For if that first brit people had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, He says, Behold, the yamim come, says The Master אֶלֶּל, when I will make a Brit Chadasha with Beit Yisrael and with Beit Yahudah:

9 Not according to the brit that I made with their ahvot in the yom when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Mitzrayim; because they continued not in My brit and I regarded them not, says The Master אֱלֹהִים.

10 For this is the brit that I will make with Beit Yisrael after those yamim, says The Master אֱלֹהִים; I will put My Torah into their mind and write it on their levavot: and I will be their Ahloha and they shall be My People-Ami:

11 And they shall not teach every man his fellow Yisraelite citizen, and every man his Yisraelite brother, saying, Know The Master אֱלֹהִים for kol Yisrael shall know Me, from the least to the greatest of them.

12 For I will forgive their unrighteousness and their sins and their Torah-less-ness will I remember no more.

13 In that He says, a new kohanut, He has made the first old. Now that which decays and becomes old is near disappearing.

9 Then truly the first kohanut also had regulations of worship and an earthly Kadosh-Place.

2 For there was a Tent of Meeting made; the first area, where the menorah and the shulchan and the Lechem of the Panayim was; which is called the Makom Kadosh.

3 And after the second veil, the area of the Tent of Meeting which is called the Kadosh HaKedoshim;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Ark of the Testimony covered on all sides with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna and Aharon's rod that budded and the tablets of the testimony;

5 And over it the cheruvim of tifereth shadowing the rachamim seat; of which we won't now speak in detail.

6 Now when these things were prepared, the kohanim went always into the Makom Kadosh of the Tent of Meeting, performing the services.

7 But into the Kadosh HaKedoshim went the Kohen HaGadol alone once every year, with dahm, which he offered for himself and for the sins of the people:
8 The Ruach Hakodesh therefore signifying, that the derech into the Makom Kadosh was not yet made manifest for believers, while the first Tent of Meeting was still standing:

9 Which was a parable for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make the one that did the service perfect, regarding his conscience;

10 Which stood only in food offerings and drink offerings and different washings and flesh-related regulations, imposed on the kohanim until the time of reformation and restoration.

11 But Moshiach has now become a Kohen HaGadol of tov things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tent of Meeting, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation;

12 Neither by the dahm of goats and calves, but by His own dahm He entered in once into the Kadosh HaKedoshim, having obtained eternal geulah for us.

13 For if the dahm of bulls and of goats and the ashes of a red heifer sprinkling the defiled, sets-apart the flesh:

14 How much more shall the dahm of Moshiach, who through the eternal Ruach offered Himself without blemish to Ahloha, purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living Ahloha?

15 And for this cause He is the Mediator of the Brit Chadasha, by means of His death, for the geulah of the sins that were done in the first brit, so that those who are called, might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a will is presented it shows the death of its maker.

17 For a will is in force only after men are dead: otherwise it is useless while its maker lives.

18 For this reason, not even the first will was dedicated without dahm.

19 For when Moshe had spoken every precept to all the people according to the Torah, he took the dahm of calves, with mayim and scarlet wool and hyssop and sprinkled both the scroll and all the people, 20 Saying, This is the dahm of the will which אִתְּךָ has commanded for you.

21 In like manner later, he sprinkled with dahm both the Tent of Meeting and all the vessels of the service.

22 And almost all things are by the Torah purged with dahm; and without the shedding of dahm there is no forgiveness.

23 It was therefore necessary that the images of the heavenly things should be purified with these; although the heavenly objects serve to host a better sacrifice than these.

24 For The Moshiach is not entered into the Kadosh-Place made with hands, which is an image of the emet one; but into the shamayim itself, now to appear in the presence of אֱלֹהֵינוּ for us:

25 For He does not need to offer Himself often, as the Kohen HaGadol who enters into the Kadosh HaKedoshim every year with dahm that is not His own;

26 For then He would have to suffer often from the foundation of the olam: but now once at the end of the olam hazeh, He has appeared to abolish sin by the sacrifice of Himself.

27 And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the mishpat:

28 So Moshiach was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to those that look for Him shall He appear the second time for our deliverance, this time not carrying our sins.

10 For the Torah having a shadow of tov things to come and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make those who draw near perfect.

2 Otherwise would they not have ceased to be offered? Because then the worshippers once cleansed, should have had no more awareness of their sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins.

4 For it is impossible that the dahm of bulls and goats can take away sins.

5 Therefore when He comes into the olam hazeh, He says, Sacrifice and offering You did not desire, but a gooff You have prepared for Me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin You have had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Behold, I come: in the volume of the scroll and chapter, it is written of Me, to do Your will,

O אָפֶּנְדֶּה.

8 In the above quote when He said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin You did not desire, neither do You have pleasure in them; which are offered according to the Torah;

9 Then He said, Behold, I come to do Your will, O אָפֶּנְדֶּה. He takes away the first sacrificial system, that He may establish the second.

10 By that desire we are now kadosh through the offering of the gooff of וּפָאָרְחָה Ha Moshiach once for all.

11 And every kohen stands daily serving and offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this Man, after He had offered one sacrifice for sins le-olam-va-ed, sat down as the right Hand of אֱלֹהִים;

13 Waiting from then on until all His enemies are made His footstool.

14 For by one offering He has perfected le-olam-va-ed them that are being set apart.

15 And The Ruach Hakodesh also is a witness for us: for after that He had said before,

16 This is the brit that I will make with them after those yamim, says The Master אֱלֹהִים, I will put My Torot into their levavot and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and Torah-less-ness will I remember no more.

18 Now where forgiveness of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, Yisraelite brothers, boldness to enter into the Makom Kadosh by the dahm of וּפָאָרְחָה,

20 By a new and living derech, which He has set apart for us, through the veil, that is to say, His flesh;

21 And having a Kohen HaGadol over the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהִים;

22 Let us draw near with a emet lev in full assurance of emunah, having our levavot sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure mayim.

23 Let us hold fast the confession of our emunah without wavering; (for He is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us care for one another to stir up ahava and tov mitzvot:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as you see the Yom approaching.

26 For if we sin willfully after that we have received the da'at of the emet, there remains no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful anticipation of mishpat and fire, which shall devour His enemies.

28 He that despised Moshe's Torah died without rachamim under two, or three witnesses:

29 Of how much worse punishment, do you think, he shall deserve, who has trampled under foot The Son of אֱלֹהִים and has counted the dahm of the brit, by which he was made kadosh as a common thing and has insulted The Ruach of chen?

30 For we know Him that has said, Vengeance belongs to Me, I will repay, says The Master אֱלֹהִים. And again, אֱלֹהִים shall judge His people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living Ahloha.

32 But remember the former yamim, in which, after you were immersed in mikvah, you endured great fights and sufferings;

33 On one hand you were exposed to reproaches and pressures; and on the other hand you became sharers with those who were so treated.

34 And you had pity on those who were prisoners and you allowed the seizure of your property cheerfully, for you yourselves know that you have a better and more enduring possession in the shamayim.

35 Do not lose your confidence, which has great reward.

36 For you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of אֱלֹהִים, you will receive the promise.

37 In yet a little while, He that shall come will come and will not tarry.

38 But the just shall live by My emunah: but if anyone draws back, My being shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of those who draw back to perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the being.

11 Now emunah is the substance of things now hoped for, as it was the substance of things which have already come to pass, as it is the evidence of things not yet seen.

2 For by it zichnai –Yisrael obtained a tov report.

3 Through emunah we understand that the olamim were framed by The Word of Ahloha, so that things that are seen were made by the invisible.

4 By emunah Hevel offered to אֱלֹהִים a more excellent sacrifice than Qayin, by which he obtained witness that he was tzadik, אֱלֹהִים testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaks.

5 By emunah Chanok was translated that he should not see death; and was not found because אֱלֹהִים had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony; that he pleased אֱלֹהִים.

6 But without emunah it is impossible to please Him: for he that comes to אֱלֹהִים must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those that diligently seek Him.

7 By emunah Noach, being warned by אֱלֹהִים of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, made an ark to save his bayit; by it he condemned the olam and became heir of the tzedakah that is by emunah.

8 By emunah Avraham, when he was called to go out into a place that he would later receive as an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By emunah he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Yitzchak and Yaakov, the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for a city that has foundations, whose Builder and Maker is אֱלֹהִים.

11 Through emunah also Sarah herself received strength to conceive offspring and was delivered of a child when she was past age because she deemed Him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang forth one, from him almost dead; and then later others, as many as the cochavim of the sky in multitude and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died in emunah, not having received the heavenly promised land, but having seen it far off and were persuaded of it and embraced it and confessed that they were gerim and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they might have had the opportunity to return.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one: therefore אֱלֹהִים is not ashamed to be called their Ahloha: for He has prepared for them a city.

17 By emunah Avraham, when he was tried, offered up Yitzchak: and he that had received the promises offered up his only brought-forth son,

18 Of whom it was said, That in Yitzchak shall your zera be called:

19 Accounting that אֱלֹהִים was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from where also he received him in a figure.

20 By emunah Yitzchak blessed Yaakov and Esav concerning things to come.

21 By emunah Yaakov, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Yoseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By emunah Yoseph, when he died, made mention of the exodus of B'nai Yisrael; and gave them a commandment concerning his bones.

23 By emunah Moshe, when he was born, was hidden three chodashem by his parents because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the melech's commandment.

24 By emunah Moshe, when he was grown, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of אֱלֹהִים, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short while;

26 Esteeming the reproach of The Moshiach as greater riches than the treasures in Mitzrayim: for he looked forward to receive the reward.

27 By emunah he forsook Mitzrayim, not fearing the wrath of the melech: for he endured, as seeing Him who is invisible.

28 Through emunah he kept the Pesach and the sprinkling of dahm, lest He that destroyed the bachorim should touch them.

29 By emunah they passed through the Yam Suf on dry land: which the Mitzrites attempting to do were drowned.

30 By emunah the walls of Yericho fell down, after they were circled around for seven yamim.

31 By emunah the harlot Rachav did not perish with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with shalom.

32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to tell of Gidyon and of Baraq and of Shimshon and of Yiftach; of Dawid also and Shmuel and of the neviim:

33 Who through emunah subdued malchutim, worked tzedakah, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, routed the armies of the foreigners.

35 Women received their dead raised to chayim again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trials of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes and also chains and imprisonment:

37 They were stoned, they were sawn apart, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom this olam was not worthy; they wandered in deserts and in mountains and in dens and caves of the earth).

39 And these all, having obtained a tov report through emunah, received not the promise:

40 אִיִּים having provided for us too; so that they without us should not be made perfect.

12 Therefore seeing that we also are surrounded with so great a cloud of Yisraelite witnesses, let us lay aside every weight and the sin that does so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking to אֱלֹהֵינוּ the Author and Finisher of our emunah; who for the simcha that was set before Him endured the execution eytz, despising the shame and has sat down as the right hand of the kesay of אֲבָא.

3 For consider Him that suffered such opposition from those sinners against Himself, from those who opposed their own beings, so that you do not become discouraged, nor your being become remiss.

4 Ye have not yet resisted to dahm, striving against sin.

5 And you have forgotten the exhortation that speaks to you as to children, My son, despise not the chastening of The Master אֲבָא, nor grow weak when you are rebuked by Him:

6 For whom The Master אֲבָא loves He chastens and scourges every son whom He receives.

7 If you endure discipline, אֲבָא deals with you as with sons; for what son does The Abba not discipline?

8 But if you are without discipline, by which we all are trained, then are you gerim and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had ahvot of our flesh who corrected us and we gave them respect: shall we not much rather be subject to The Abba of Ruachim and live?

10 For they truly for a few yamim disciplined us after their own binah; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of His kadosh nature.

11 Now no discipline for the present seems to be fun, but sorrowful: nevertheless afterwards, it yields fruits of shalom to those who are trained by that discipline.

12 Therefore lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the derech; but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow shalom with all men and set apartness-kedushah, without which no man shall see אֱלֹהִים:
15 Taking heed lest any man fall short of the chen of אֱלֹהִים; lest any root of bitterness spring up to harm you and by which many be defiled;
16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esav, who for one morsel of meat sold his bechora.
17 For you know how that afterwards, when he would have inherited the bracha, he was rejected: for he had no chance of recovering it, though he sought it carefully with tears.
18 For you have not come to the har that might be touched and that burned with fire, nor to blackness and darkness and tempest,
19 And the sound of a shofar and the voice of words; which voice they that heard begged that The Word should not be spoken to them anymore:
20 For they could not endure what was commanded and if so much as a beast touched the har, it was to be stoned, or thrust through with a spear:
21 And so terrible was the sight that Moshe said, I exceedingly fear and quake:
22 But you have come to Har Tzion and to the city of the living Ahloha, the heavenly Yahrushalayim and to an innumerable multitude of heavenly malachim,
23 To the gathering and kehilla of the bachorim, that is enrolled in the shamayim and to אֱלֹהִים the Shophet of all and to the ruachim of tzadikim made perfect,
24 And to מוֹשֶׁה the Mediator of the Brit Chadasha and to the dahm of sprinkling, that speaks better things than that of Hevel.
25 See that you refuse Him not that speaks. For if they escaped not who refused him that spoke on earth, how much more shall we not escape, if we turn away from Him that speaks from the shamayim:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now He has promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also the shamayim.

27 And this Word, Yet once more, signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, the things that have been made, so that those things that cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Therefore receiving a malchut that cannot be moved, let us have chen, by which we may serve אֱלֹהִים acceptably with reverence and fear:

29 For our Ahloha is a consuming fire.

13 Let Yisraelite brotherly ahava continue.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain gerim: for in that manner some have entertained heavenly malachim unaware.

3 Remember them that are in prison, as in prison with them; and them who suffer adversity, for you also are human.

4 Marriage is honorable in all situations and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers אֱלֹהִים will judge.

5 Let your behavior be without greed; and be content with such things as you have: for The Master אֱלֹהִים Himself has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you.

6 So that we may boldly say, אֱלֹהִים is my Helper and I will not fear what man shall do to me.

7 Remember those who lead you, who have spoken to you The Word of אֱלֹהִים: whose outcome follow, imitate their mitzvot and emunah.

8 הוֹשִׁיָּע Ha Moshiach the same yesterday and today and le-olam-va-ed.

9 Be not carried about with different and strange doctrines. For it is a tov thing that the lev is established with chen; not with foods, which has not profited those that have been occupied with that.

10 We have an altar, from which they have no right to eat, who serve the earthly Tent of Meeting.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose dahm is brought into the Kadosh-Place by the Kohen HaGadol for sin, are burned outside the camp.

12 Therefore וְעַתָּה also, that He might set apart the people of Yisrael with His own dahm, suffered outside the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach.

14 For we have no lasting city here, but we seek the one to come.

15 By Him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of tehilla to יְהוָה continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving hodu to His Name.

16 But to do tov and to share don't forget: for with such sacrifices יְהוָה is well pleased.

17 Shema to your spiritual leaders and obey them: for they watch for your beings, as those that must give account to יְהוָה, that they may do it with simcha and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

18 Make tefillot for us: for we trust we have a tov conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

19 But I ask you exceedingly to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

20 Now the Ahloha of shalom, that brought again from the dead our Master יְהוָה, that Great Roei of the sheep, through the dahm of the everlasting brit, 21 Make you perfect in every tov mitzvah to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through יְהוָה Ha Moshiach; to whom be tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

22 And I beg you, Yisraelite brothers, allow for this Word of exhortation: for I have written a letter to you with just a few words.

23 Know that our brother Timtheous has been set free; if he comes shortly, I will see you with him.

24 Salute all your spiritual leaders and all the Yisraelite kidushim. The Yisraelites of Italy salute you.

25 Chen be with you all. Ahmein. X

First Peter-Kefa Aleph

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shimon Kefa, a sholiach of owfayz Ha Moshiach, to the pilgrims of the galut in Pontos, Galut-YAH, Kappadokia, Asia and Bithunia,
- 2 Chosen according to the foreknowledge of Abba ayayz and set apart by The Ruach, for obedience and sprinkling of the dahm of owfayz Ha Moshiach: chen to you and shalom be multiplied.
- 3 Blessed be the Ahloha and Abba of our Master owfayz Ha Moshiach, who according to His abundant rachamim has begotten us again to a living tikvah through the resurrection of owfayz Ha Moshiach from the dead,
- 4 To an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled that does not fade away, reserved in the shamayim for you,
- 5 Who are kept by The Power of ayayz through emunah for salvation and deliverance ready to be revealed in the yamim acharonim.
- 6 In this you greatly gilah, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been burdened by various trials,
- 7 That the testing of your emunah, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to tehilla, kavod and tifereth at the revelation of owfayz Ha Moshiach,
- 8 Whom having not seen, you love. Though now you do not see Him, yet believing, you gilah with simcha unspeakable and full of tifereth,
- 9 Receiving the end result of your emunah – the salvation of your beings.

10 Of this salvation the neviim have inquired and searched carefully, who prophesied of the chen that would come to you,

11 By searching to know when, or in what time frame, The Ruach of Moshiach that was in them was indicating concerning Moshiach, when it testified beforehand of the sufferings of The Moshiach and the esteem that would follow.

12 To them it was revealed that they weren't really serving themselves, but were ministering to us the things which now have been reported to you through those who have proclaimed The Besorah to you by The Ruach Hakodesh sent from the shamayim; things which heavenly malachim desire to look into.

13 Therefore prepare the loins of your mind, be sober and rest your tikvah fully upon the chen that is to be brought to you at the revelation of אֲנִי הָאֵלֹהִים Ha Moshiach;

14 As obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts, as in your ignorance;

15 But as He who called you is kadosh, you also be kadosh in all your conduct, 16 Because it is written, Be kadosh, for I AM kadosh.

17 And if you call on Abba, who without partiality judges according to each one's mitzvoth, conduct yourselves throughout the time of your sojourning in fear;

18 Knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver, or gold, from your futile spiritual conduct received by tradition from your ahvot, 19 But with the precious dahm of Moshiach, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot.

20 He indeed was foreordained before the foundation of the olam, but was manifest in these last times for you;

21 Who through Him believe in אֱלֹהִים, who raised Him from the dead and gave Him tifereth, so that your emunah and tikvah are in אֱלֹהִים.

22 Since you have cleansed your beings in obeying the emet through The Ruach in sincere ahava of the Yisraelite brothers, love one another fervently with a clean lev,

23 Having been born again, not of corruptible zera but incorruptible, through The Word of אֱלֹהִים which lives and abides le-olam-va-ed,

24 Because all flesh is as grass and all the tifereth of man as the flower of the grass. The grass withers and its flower falls away, 25 But The Word of אֱלֹהִים endures le-olam-va-ed. Now this is The Word that by The Besorah was proclaimed to you.

2 Having laid aside all evil and all deceit and hypocrisies and envies and all lashon hara,

2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of The Word that you may grow by it:

3 If so be that you have tasted that The Master אֱלֹהִים is tov.

4 To whom coming, as to a living Stone, disallowed indeed by men, but chosen of אֱלֹהִים and precious,

5 You also, as lively stones, are built up as a spiritual bayit, a kadosh kohanut, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to אֱלֹהִים by oֹמֵר אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.

6 Therefore also it is contained in The Katuv, Behold, I lay in Tzion a chief Corner Stone, elect, precious: and he that believes on Him shall not be put to shame or disgrace.

7 To you therefore who believe He is precious: but to those who are disobedient, the Stone that the builders disallowed, the same is made The Rosh Pina,

8 And a Stone of scandal and a Rock of offence, even to them who stumble at The Word, being disobedient: to which they also were appointed.

9 But you are a chosen generation, a royal kohanut, a kadosh nation, and a peculiar people; that you should show forth the tehillot of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous Ohr:

10 Who in times past were Lo-Ami-Not a People but are now the people of אֱלֹהִים: who were Lo-Ruchamah – No-Mercy, but now have obtained rachamim.

11 Dearly beloved, I beg you as strangers and sojourners in the olam hazeh, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the being;

12 Having your behavior honest among the goyim: that, when they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your mitzvoth, which they shall behold, esteem אֱלֹהִים in a future yom of personal visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for אֱלֹהִים's sake: whether it is to the melech, as supreme;

14 Or, to governors, as to those that are sent by Him for the punishment of evildoers and for the tehilla of those that do well.

15 For so is the will of אֱלֹהִים, that with well doing you may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free and not using your liberty for a cloak of evil, but as the avadim of אֱלֹהִים.

17 Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear אֱלֹהִים. Honor The Melech.

18 Avadim, be subject to your human masters with all fear; not only to the tov and gentle, but also to the crooked ones.

19 For this is emet chen, if because of a tov conscience to אֱלֹהִים anyone endures grief, or suffering wrongfully.

20 For what tifereth is it, if, when you are beaten for your own faults, you shall take it patiently? But if, when you do well and still suffer for it and you take it patiently, this is acceptable with אֱלֹהִים.

21 For even to this were you called: because Moshiach also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps:

22 Who did no sin, neither was deceit found in His mouth:

23 Who, when He was reviled, reviled not again; when He suffered, He threatened not; but committed Himself to Him that judges righteously:

24 Who His own self carried our sins in His own gooff on the eytz that we, being dead to sins, should live to tzedakah: by whose stripes you were healed.

25 Because you were as sheep going astray; but now have made teshuvah to The Shepherd and Guardian of your beings.

3 Likewise, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not The Word, they also may without The Word be won by the behavior of the wives;

2 While they behold your pure behavior coupled with your fear of אֱלֹהִים.

3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be the hidden man of the lev, that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet ruach, which is in the sight of אֱלֹהִים of great price.

5 For after this manner in the former times the kadosh women also, who trusted in אֱלֹהִים, adorned themselves, being in proper relationship to their own husbands:

6 Even as Sarah obeyed Avraham in all things, calling him master: whose daughters you are, as long as you do well and obey like her and are not frightened by them with any fear.

7 In like manner, you husbands, dwell with them according to da'at, giving esteem to the isha, as to the weaker vessel and as being heirs together of the chen of chayim; that your tefillot be not hindered.

8 Finally, let all be of an echad mind, having rachamim on each another, ahava as Yisraelite brothers, be tender of lev, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: on the contrary, brachot; knowing that you are called to this, that you shall inherit the great bracha.

10 For he that will love chayim and see tov yamim, let him refrain his tongue from lashon hara and his lips that they speak no deceit:

11 Let him make teshuvah from evil and do tov; let him seek shalom and pursue it.

12 For the eyes of The Master אֱלֹהִים are over the tzadik and His ears are open to their tefillot: but the face of The Master אֱלֹהִים is against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if you are followers of that which is tov?

14 But if you suffer for tzedakah's sake, favored are you: and be not afraid of their terror threats, neither be troubled;

15 But set apart The Master אֱלֹהִים in your levavot: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asks you for a reason for the tikvah that is in you with meekness and fear:

16 Having a tov conscience; that, when they speak lashon hara about you, as evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your tov behavior in Moshiach.

17 For it is better, if the will of אֱלֹהִים be so, that you suffer for well doing, rather than for evil doing.

18 For Moshiach also has once suffered for sins, the tzadik for the unjust, that He might bring us to אֱלֹהִים, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by The Ruach:

19 Through which He also went and proclaimed to the ruachim in prison;

20 Who before that time were disobedient, when the patience of אֱלֹהִים waited in the yamim of Noach, while the tayvah was being prepared, when few, that is, eight beings were saved through the mayim.

21 Whose emet likeness and reality also saves us, even mikvah, not the putting away of the dirt of the flesh, but the answer of a tov conscience towards אֱלֹהִים, by the resurrection of מוֹשִׁיָּאחַ Ha Moshiach:

22 Who has gone into the shamayim and is as the right Hand of אֱלֹהִים; heavenly malachim and authorities and powers being made subject to Him.

4 Since then Moshiach has suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of אֱלֹהִים.

3 For in past times in our chayim it sufficed us to have done the will of the goyim, when we walked in indecencies, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, wild parties and detestable idolatries:

4 They think it strange that you do not associate with them in that same excess of loose living, even speaking lashon hara about you:

5 They shall give an account to Him that is ready to judge the living and the dead.

6 For this reason was The Besorah proclaimed also to them that are dead, that they might be judged as men in the flesh, but live according to אֱלֹהִים in The Ruach.

7 But the end of all things is at hand: be therefore sober and be attentive in tefillah.

8 And above all things have fervent ahava among yourselves: for ahava shall cover a multitude of sins.

9 Be like mishpacha one to another without grumbling.

10 As every man has received a gift, even so serve the same gift to another, as tov stewards of the manifold chen of אֱלֹהִים.

11 If any man speaks, let him speak the Words of אֱלֹהִים; if any man serve, let him do it with the ability which אֱלֹהִים gives: that in all things אֱלֹהִים may be esteemed through שׂוֹמְרֵי אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach, to whom be tehilla and the rule in Yisrael le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trials which are to test you, as though some strange thing has happened to you:

13 But gilah, in the fact that you share Moshiach's sufferings; that, when His tifereth shall be revealed, you may gilah also with exceeding simcha.

14 If you are reproached for the Name of Moshiach, happy are you; for The Ruach of tifereth and of אֱלֹהִים rests upon you: on their part He is evil spoken of, but on your part He is praised.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Natzar in Yisrael, let him not be ashamed; but let him esteem אֱלֹהִים in this matter.

17 For the time has come that Yom HaDin must begin in Beit אֱלֹהִים: and if it first begins with us, what shall be the end of them that obey not The Besorah of אֱלֹהִים?

18 And if the tzadikim barely are saved, where shall the wicked and the sinner appear?

19 So then let those that suffer according to the will of אֱלֹהִים commit the keeping of their beings to Him in well doing, as to a faithful Creator.

5 Therefore the zechanim who are among you I exhort, who am also a zachan and a witness of the sufferings of Moshiach and also a partaker of the tifereth that shall be revealed:

2 Feed the flock of אֱלֹהִים which is among you, taking the oversight of it, not by compulsion, but willingly; not for greed, or dirty gain, but of a willing mind;

3 Neither as being masters over those trusted to you, but by being examples to the flock.

4 And when the Roei-HaGadol shall appear, you shall receive a keter of tifereth that fades not away.

5 Likewise, you younger Yisraelites, submit to the shamashim. Yes, all of you are to be subject one to another and be clothed with humility: for אֱלֹהִים resists the proud and gives chen to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty Hand of אֱלֹהִים, that He may exalt you in due time:

7 Casting all your anxiety upon Him; for He cares for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your enemy s.a.tan, as a roaring lion, walks around on earth, seeking whom he can devour:

9 Resist him steadfast in the emunah, knowing that the same afflictions are experienced in your Yisraelite brothers that are all over the olam.

10 But may the Ahloha of all chen, who has called us to His eternal tifereth by Moshiach $\omega\omega\text{ף}\text{ף}\text{ף}$, after you have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen and settle you.

11 To Him be tifereth and rule over kol Yisrael le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

12 By Sila, a faithful brother to you, as I count him to be, I have written briefly, exhorting and testifying that this is the emet chen of $\text{ף}\text{ף}\text{ף}$ by which you stand.

13 The chosen Yisraelite kehilla that is at Bavel, elected together with you, salutes you; and so does Moshe-Marcus my son.

14 Greet one another with a kiss of ahava. Shalom be with you all that are in Moshiach $\omega\omega\text{ף}\text{ף}\text{ף}$. Ahmein.

Second Peter-Kefa Bet

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shimon Kefa, an eved and a sholiach of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, to them that have obtained like precious emunah with us through the tzedakah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and our Savior אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach:
- 2 Chen and shalom be multiplied to you through the da'at of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Master,
- 3 According as His divine Power has given to us all things that pertain to chayim and Shabbat-guarding piety, through the da'at of Him that has called us to tifereth and Power:
- 4 By these are given to us exceedingly great and precious promises: that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the olam hazeh through lust.
- 5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your emunah Power; and to Power da'at;
- 6 And to da'at temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience Shabbat-guarding piety;
- 7 And to Shabbat-guarding piety, brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness, ahava.
- 8 For if these things be in you and abound, they shall cause that you shall neither be inactive nor unfruitful in the da'at of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.
- 9 But he that lacks these things is blind and cannot see far off, and has forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
- 10 For this reason, Yisraelite brothers, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if you do these things, you shall never fall:

11 For in this manner an entrance shall be provided for you abundantly into the everlasting malchut of our Master and Savior ֹוֹףֶֿאֶֿנֶֿ Ha Moshiach.

12 And so I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though you know them and are established in the present emet.

13 Yes, I think it is right, as long as I am in this earthly tent, to stir you up by a reminder;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off my earthly tent, even as our Master ֹוֹףֶֿאֶֿנֶֿ Ha Moshiach has showed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavor that you may be able after my death to have these things always as a reminder.

16 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you The Power and coming of our Master ֹוֹףֶֿאֶֿנֶֿ Ha Moshiach, but were eyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For He received from Abba ֶֿאֶֿנֶֿ kavod and tifereth, when there came a voice to Him from the excellent tifereth, This is My beloved Son, in whom I AM well pleased.

18 And this voice that came from the shamayim we heard, when we were with Him in the Har-Kadosh.

19 We have also a more sure Word of prophecy; to which you do well that you take heed, as to an Ohr that shines in a dark place, until the yom dawns and the Yom Cochav rises in your levavot:

20 Knowing this first that no prophesy of the Keetvay HaKadosh is of any private interpretation.

21 For prophecy came not in ancient times by the will of man: but kadosh men of ֶֿאֶֿנֶֿ spoke as they were moved by The Ruach Hakodesh.

2 But there were false neviim also among the people, even as there shall be false morim among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying The Master that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their paths of destruction; because of them the halacha of Emet shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through greed shall they with fabricated words make merchandise of you: whose mishpat now is from a long time and lingers not and their damnation does not slumber.

4 For if אףאז spared not the heavenly malachim that sinned, but expelled them down to The Tartaros, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for mishpat;

5 And spared not the ancient olam, but saved Noach one of eight people, a proclaimer of tzedakah, bringing in the flood upon the olam of the wicked;

6 And turning the cities of Sedom and Amora into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that after should live wickedly;

7 And delivered just Lot, oppressed with the filthy behavior of the wicked:

8 (For that tzadik dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, tortured his tzadik being from yom to yom with their anti-Torah deeds):

9 The Master אףאז knows how to deliver The Shabbat-guarding pious ones out of trials and to reserve the unjust until Yom HaDin to be punished:

10 But mostly those that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness and despise government.

Presumptuous are they, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of the honored ones.

11 Whereas heavenly malachim, which are greater in power and might, bring not a slanderous accusation against them before אףאז.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to indulge in the daytime. Spots they are and blemishes, boasting themselves with their own deceptions while they celebrate their moeds with you;

14 Having eyes full of adultery, that cannot cease from sin; enticing unstable beings, having a lev of greed they have exercised covetous practices; children under a curse:

15 Who have forsaken the tzadik derech and have gone astray, following the derech of Bilam the son of Be'or, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his Torah-less-ness: the dumb donkey speaking with a man's voice forbade the madness of the navi.

17 These are wells without mayim, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved le-olam-va-ed.

18 For when they speak arrogant nonsense, they entice through the lusts of the flesh, through many indecencies, those that had indeed escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the avadim of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the olam hazeh through the da'at of The Master and Savior וּמְשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach and if they are again entangled in it and overcome, the latter-end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the halacha of tzedakah, than, after they have known it, to turn from the kadosh mitzvot delivered to them.

22 But it is happened to them according to the mishle emet, The dog has returned to its own vomit again; and the pig that was washed to her rolling in the mud.

3 This second letter, beloved, I now write to you; in both letters I have stirred up your sincere minds by way of a reminder:

2 That you may remember the words which were spoken before by the kadosh neviim and by the directions from us the shlichim of The Master and Savior:

3 Knowing this first; that there shall come in the yamim acharonim scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For since the ahvot fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beresheeth of creation.

5 For they willingly are ignorant of this fact, that by The Word of אֱלֹהִים the shamayim were of old and the earth standing out of the mayim and in the mayim:

6 Through which the olam that then was, being overflowed with mayim, perished:

7 But the shamayim and the earth, which are now, by the same Word are kept in store, reserved for the fire at the Yom HaDin and destruction of wicked men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one yom is with Master אֱלֹהִים as a thousand years and a thousand years as one yom.

9 The Master אֱלֹהִים is not slack concerning His promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering towards us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to teshuvah.

10 But the yom of The Master אָרְאֵר will come as a thief in the lyla; in which the shamayim shall pass away with a great noise-shofar and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are in it shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons should you be in all kadosh conduct and Shabbat-guarding piety, 12 Looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the Yom אָרְאֵר, in which the shamayim being on fire shall be dissolved and the elements shall melt with fervent heat!

13 Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for renewed shamayim and a renewed olam, where tzedakah dwells.

14 So then, beloved, seeing that you look for such things, be diligent that you may be found by Him in shalom, without spot and blameless.

15 And consider the long patience of our Master as salvation; even as our beloved brother Shaul also according to the chochmah given to him has written to you;

16 As also in all his letters, speaking in them of these things; in which some things are hard to understand, which they that are unlearned and unstable twist, as they do also the other Keetvay HaKadosh, to their own destruction.

17 You then, beloved ones, seeing you know these things beforehand, beware lest you also, being led away with the delusion of Torah-less-ness, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But grow in chen and in the da'at of our Master and Savior אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach. To Him be tifereth both now and le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein. X

First John-Yochanan Alef

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 He who was from Beresheeth, whom we have heard, whom we have seen with our eyes, whom we have looked upon and our hands have handled, we declare to you that He is the Torah of chayim.
- 2 And the chayim was manifested and we have seen and bear witness to and declare to you that eternal chayim, that was with Abba and was manifested to us.
- 3 We announce to you that which we have seen and heard; that we declare to you, that you also may have chavurah with us; and truly our chavurah is with Abba and with His Son $\omega\psi\chi\lambda\zeta$ Ha Moshiach.
- 4 And these things we write to you that your simcha may be full.
- 5 This is the message which we have heard from Him and declare to you, that $\aleph\lambda\zeta$ is Ohr and in Him is no darkness at all.
- 6 If we say that we have chavurah with Him and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the emet.
- 7 But if we walk in The Ohr as He is in The Ohr, we have chavurah with one another, and the dahm of $\omega\psi\chi\lambda\zeta$ Ha Moshiach His Son cleanses us from all sin.
- 8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the emet is not in us.
- 9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
- 10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar and His Word is not in us.

2 My little children of Yisrael, these things I write to you, so that you may not sin. But if anyone sins, we have an Intercessor with Abba, אָבִי Ha Moshiach Ha-Tzadik.

2 And He Himself is the keporah offering for our sins and not for ours only but also for the whole olam hazeh.

3 Now by this we know that we know Him, if we guard His mitzvoth.

4 He who says, I know Him and does not guard His mitzvoth, is a liar and the emet is not in him.

5 But whoever keeps His Word; truly the ahava of אָהָבָה is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him.

6 He who says he stays in Him, should himself also have his halacha just as He had His halacha.

7 Brothers, I write no new mitzvah to you, but an old mitzvah, which you have had, from Beresheeth. The old mitzvah is The Word that you have heard from Beresheeth.

8 Again, a renewed mitzvah I write to you, which thing is emet in Him and in you because the darkness is passing away and the emet of Ohr is already shining.

9 He who says he is in The Ohr and hates his brother, is in darkness until now.

10 He who loves his brother stays in The Ohr and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But he who hates his brother is in darkness and has his halacha in darkness and does not know where he is going because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I write to you, little children because your sins are forgiven for His Name's sake.

13 I write to you, ahvot, because you have known Him who is from Beresheeth. I write to you, young men because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children because you have come to know Abba.

14 I have written to you, ahvot because you have known Him who is from Beresheeth. I have written to you, young men because you are strong and The Word of אֱלֹהִים stays in you and you have overcome the wicked one.

15 Do not love the olam hazeh, or the things in the olam hazeh. If anyone loves the olam hazeh, the ahava of Abba is not in him.

16 For all that is in the olam hazeh; the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of chayim; is not of Abba but is of the olam hazeh.

17 And the olam hazeh is passing away and the lust of it; but he who does the will of אֱלֹהִים lives le-olam-va-ed.

18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you have heard that the anti-Moshiach is coming, even now many anti-Moshiachs have come, by which we know that it is the final hour.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out that they might be made manifest, that none of them were of us.

20 But you have an anointing from the Kadosh-One and you know all things.

21 I have not written to you because you do not know the emet, but because you know it and know that no lie is of the emet.

22 Who is a liar but he who denies that מוֹשִׁיָּח is The Moshiach? He is an anti-Moshiach, whoever denies The Abba and The Son.

23 Whoever denies The Son does not have Abba either; but he who acknowledges The Son has Abba also.

24 As for you, let that stay in you which you have heard from Beresheeth. If what you heard from Beresheeth stays in you, you also will stay in The Son and in The Abba.

25 And this is the promise that He has promised us; eternal chayim.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who try to deceive you.

27 But the anointing which you have received from Him stays in you and you do not need that anyone teach you differently; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all emet things and is emet and is not a lie and just as it has taught you, then you will stay in Him.

28 And now, little children, stay in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

29 If you know that He is tzadik, you know that everyone who practices tzedakah is born of Him.

3 Behold what manner of ahava Abba has bestowed on us, that we should be called b'nai אבא! Therefore the olam hazeh does not know us because it did not know Him.

2 Beloved, now we are b'nai אבא; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

3 And everyone who has this tikvah in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure.

4 Anyone who commits sin violates Torah, for sin is the transgression of the Torah.

5 And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin.

6 Whoever stays in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him.

7 Little children, let no one deceive you. He who does tzedakah is tzadik, just as He is The Tzadik.

8 He who sins is of s.a.tan, for s.a.tan has sinned from Beresheeth. For this purpose The Son of אֱלֹהִים was manifested, that He might destroy the works of s.a.tan.

9 Whoever has been born of אֱלֹהִים does not sin, for His zera remains in him; and he cannot sin because he has been born of אֱלֹהִים.

10 In this the b'nai אֱלֹהִים and the children of s.a.tan are manifest: Whoever does not do tzedakah is not of אֱלֹהִים, nor is he who does not love his brother.

11 For this is the message that you heard from Beresheeth, that we should love one another, 12 Not as Qayin, who was of the wicked one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother's were tzadik.

13 Do not marvel, my Yisraelite brothers, if the olam hazeh hates you.

14 We know that we have passed from death to chayim because we have ahava for the Yisraelite brothers. He who does not love his brother stays in death.

15 Whoever hates his brother is a murderer and you know that no murderer has eternal chayim abiding in him.

16 By this we know ahava because He laid down His chayim for us. And we also ought to lay down our chayim for our Yisraelite brothers.

17 But whoever has this olam's necessities and sees his brother in need and shuts his lev from him, how does the ahava of אֱלֹהִים live in him?

18 My little children let us not love in word, or in tongue, but in mitzvoth and in emet.

19 And by this we know that we are of the emet and shall establish our levavot before Him.

20 For if our lev condemns us, אֱלֹהִים is greater than our lev and knows all things.

21 Beloved, if our lev does not condemn us, we have confidence towards אֱלֹהִים.

22 And whatever we ask we receive from Him because we guard His mitzvoth and do those things that are pleasing in His sight.

23 And this is His great mitzvah: that we should believe on the Name of His Son אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach and love one another, as He gave us that mitzvah.

24 Now he who keeps His mitzvoth stays in Him and He in him. And by this we know that He stays in us, by The Ruach that He has given us.

4 Beloved Yisrael, do not believe every ruach, but test all the ruachim, whether they are of אֱלֹהִים; because many false neviim have gone out into the olam hazeh.

2 By this shall you know The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים: Every ruach that confesses that אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach has come in the flesh is from אֱלֹהִים,

3 And every ruach that does not confess that אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach has come in the flesh is not from אֱלֹהִים. And this is the ruach of the anti-Moshiach, which you have heard was coming and is now already in the olam hazeh.

4 You are of אֱלֹהִים, little children and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the olam hazeh.

5 They are from the olam hazeh. Therefore they speak as from the olam hazeh and the olam hazeh hears them.

6 We are from אֱלֹהִים. He who knows אֱלֹהִים hears us; he who is not from אֱלֹהִים does not hear us. By this we know The Ruach of Emet and the ruach of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another, for ahava is from אהבה; and everyone who has ahava is born from אהבה and knows אהבה.

8 He who does not have ahava does not know אהבה, for אהבה is Ahava.

9 In this the ahava of אהבה was manifested toward us; that אהבה has sent His only begotten Son into the olam hazeh, that we might live through Him.

10 In this is found that ahava, not that we loved אהבה, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be the keporah for our sins.

11 Beloved, if אהבה so loved us; we also should love one another.

12 No one has seen אהבה at any time. If we love one another, אהבה stays in us and His ahava has been perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we stay in Him and He in us because He has given to us from His Ruach.

14 And we have seen and testify that The Abba has sent The Son as Savior of the olam hazeh.

15 Whoever confesses that משיח is The Son of אהבה, אהבה stays in him and he in אהבה.

16 And we have known and believed the ahava that אהבה has for us. אהבה is Ahava and he who stays in ahava, stays in אהבה and אהבה in him.

17 Ahava has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the Yom HaDin; because as He is, so are we in the olam hazeh.

18 There is no fear in ahava; but perfect ahava casts out fear because fear involves punishment. But he who fears punishment has not been made perfect in ahava.

19 We love Him because He first loved us.

20 If someone says, I love אהבה and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love אהבה whom he has not seen?

21 And this mitzvah we have from Him: that he who loves אֱלֹהִים must love his Yisraelite brother also.

5 Everyone who believes that מוֹשִׁיָּח is The Moshiach is begotten of אֱלֹהִים: and every one that loves Him who begot, loves Him also who is begotten of Him.

2 By this we know that we love the b'nai אֱלֹהִים, when we love אֱלֹהִים and guard His mitzvot.

3 For this is the ahava of אֱלֹהִים, that we guard His mitzvot: and His mitzvot are not heavy and hard.

4 For whoever is born of אֱלֹהִים overcomes the olam hazeh: and this is the victory that overcomes the olam hazeh, even our emunah.

5 Who is he who overcomes the olam hazeh, but he that believes that מוֹשִׁיָּח is The Son of אֱלֹהִים?

6 This is He that came by mayim and dahm, even מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach; not by mayim only, but by mayim and dahm.

7 And it is the very Ruach that bears witness of this; because The Ruach is Emet.

8 The Ruach and the mayim and the dahm: and these agree as Echad.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of אֱלֹהִים is greater: for this is the witness of אֱלֹהִים that He has testified concerning His Son.

10 He that believes on The Son of אֱלֹהִים has the witness in himself: he that believes not אֱלֹהִים has made Him a liar; because he believes not the witness that אֱלֹהִים gave of His Son.

11 And this is the witness, that אֱלֹהִים has given to us eternal chayim and this chayim is in His Son.

12 He that has The Son has chayim; and he that has not The Son of אֱלֹהִים has not chayim.

13 These things have I written to you that believe on the Name of The Son of אֱלֹהִים; that you may know that you have eternal chayim and that you may believe on the Name of The Son of אֱלֹהִים.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us:

15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desire from Him.

16 If any man sees his brother sin a sin, which is not to death, he shall ask and He shall give him chayim for them that sin not to death. There is a sin to death: I do not say that he shall make tefillah for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin that is not to death.

18 We know that whoever is born of אֱלֹהִים sins not; but he that is begotten of אֱלֹהִים guards himself and the wicked one touches him not.

19 And we know that we are of אֱלֹהִים and that the whole olam hazeh lies in the wicked one.

20 And we know that The Son of אֱלֹהִים has come and has given us binah, that we may know Him that is Emet and we are in Him that is Emet, even in His Son מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach. He is the Ahloha-Emet and He is eternal chayim.

21 B'nai Yisrael, guard yourselves from idols. Ahmein. X

Second John-Yochanan Bet

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 The zachen to the chosen elect lady Kuria and her children, whom I love in the emet; and not I only, but also all they that have known the emet;
- 2 For the emet's sake, which dwells in us and shall be with us le-olam-va-ed.
- 3 Chen be with you, rachamim and shalom, from Abba and from The Master 𐤀𐤓𐤓𐤁𐤀 Ha Moshiach, The Son of Abba, in emet and ahava.
- 4 I rejoiced greatly because I found your children having their halacha in emet, as we have received the same commandment from The Abba.
- 5 And now I beseech you, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to you, but that which we had from Beresheeth, that we love one another.
- 6 And this is ahava, that we have our halacha after His mitzvoth. This is The Mitzvah, as you have heard from Beresheeth, that you should have your halacha in it.
- 7 For many deceivers have entered into the olam hazeh, who confess not that 𐤀𐤓𐤓𐤁𐤀 Ha Moshiach has come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-Moshiach.
- 8 Shomer yourselves, that we lose not those things for which we have worked and attained, but that we receive a full reward.
- 9 Everyone committing Torah violation, by not staying in the teaching of Moshiach, has not Ahloha.

He that stays in the teaching of Moshiach has both
The Abba and The Son.

10 If anyone comes to you and brings not this teaching, receive him not into your bayit, neither offer him shalom:

11 For he that greets him even with a shalom, is a partaker of his wicked works.

12 Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you and speak panayim-el-panayim, that our simcha may be full.

13 The children of your elect sister greet you.
Ahmein. X

Third John-Yochanan

Gimel

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 The zachen to the beloved Gaios, whom I love in the emet.
- 2 Beloved, I wish above all things that you may prosper and be in health, even as your chayim prospers.
- 3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the Yisraelite brothers came and testified of the emet that is in you even as you have your halacha in the emet.
- 4 I have no greater simcha than to hear that my children have their halacha in emet.
- 5 Beloved, do faithfully whatever you do for the Yisraelite brothers, and also for the gerim;
- 6 Who have borne witness of your ahava before the kehilla: who if you send them forward worthy of Ahloha, then you shall do tov:
- 7 Because for His Name's sake they went forth, taking nothing from the goyim.
- 8 Therefore we should receive such men, that we might be their fellow helpers for the emet.
- 9 I wrote to the Yisraelite kehilla: but Diotrephes, who loves to be in the first position among them, receives us not.
- 10 So, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he does, gossiping against us with lashon hara: and not content with that, neither does he himself receive the Yisraelite brothers and forbids them that would and casts them out of the kehilla.

11 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is tov. He that does tov is of אֱלֹהִים: but he that does evil has not seen אֱלֹהִים.

12 Demetrios has a tov report among all men and about the emet itself: yes and we also bear record of him; and you know that our witness is emet.

13 I have many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to you:

14 But I trust I shall shortly see you and we shall speak panayim-el-panayim. Shalom be to you. Our chaverim greet you. Greet the chaverim by name. Ahmein. X

Jude-Yahudah

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Yahudah, the eved of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and brother of Yaakov, to them that are kadosh by Abba אֱלֹהֵינוּ and preserved in אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and called:

2 Rachamim to you and shalom and ahava, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write to you and exhort you that you should earnestly contend for the emunah which was once for all time delivered to the Yisraelite kidushim.

4 For there are certain men who slipped in secretly, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, wicked men, turning the unmerited chen of our Ahloha into indecency and denying the only Master Ahloha and our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though you once knew this, how that The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, having saved the people out of the land of Mitzrayim, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the heavenly malachim who kept not their first dwelling, but left their own dwelling, He has reserved in everlasting chains under darkness for the mishpat of the great Yom Ha Din.

7 Even as Sedom and Amora and the cities around them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication and going after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the mishpat of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, reject authority and speak evil of His tifereth.

9 Yet Micha-El the chief malach, when contending with s.a.tan about the gooff of Moshe, did not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Master אֱלֹהִים rebuke you.

10 But these speak evil of those things that they do not know: but what they know naturally, as unreasoning beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone in the derech of Qayin and ran with greed after the delusion of Bilam for a reward and perished in the rebellion of Korach.

12 These are rocky reefs in your moadeem of ahava to אֱלֹהִים, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without mayim, carried about by the winds; eytzim whose fruit decays, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering cochavim, for whom is reserved the blackness of darkness le-olam-va-ed.

14 And Chanok also, the seventh from Ahdahm, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, The Master אֱלֹהִים comes with ten thousands of His Yisraelite kidushim, 15 To execute mishpat upon all and to convict all that are wicked among them of all their wicked deeds, which they have wickedly committed and of all their harsh words which wicked sinners have spoken against Him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaks proud words, being respecters of persons in order to seek gain.

17 But, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before by the shlichim of our Master-YAH, אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach;

18 How that they told you there would be mockers in the yamim acharonim, who would walk after their own wicked lusts.

19 These are those who cause divisions, sensual, having not The Ruach.

20 But you, beloved, build yourselves up in your most kadosh emunah, making tefillot in The Ruach Hakodesh, 21 Shomer yourselves in the ahava of Ahloha, looking for the rachamim of our Master-YAH אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach to eternal chayim.

22 And have rachamim on some who doubt, making a difference:

23 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even a garment defiled by the things of the flesh.

24 Now to Him that is able to keep you from falling and to present you blameless before the presence of His esteem with exceeding simcha,

25 To the only Ahloha our Savior, through אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach our Master-YAH be tifereth and majesty, authority and Power, both now and le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein. X

Romans-Romiyah

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, an eved of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, called to be a sholiach, set apart to The Besorah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ,
- 2 Which He had promised before by His neviim in the Keetvay HaKadosh,
- 3 Regarding His Son אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach our Savior, who was born of the zera of Dawid in the flesh;
- 4 And declared to be The Son of אֱלֹהֵינוּ with Power, according to The Ruach of set apartness, by His resurrection from the dead:
- 5 By whom we have received unmerited chen and the calling of a sholiach, for obedience to the emunah that bears His Name among all goyim.
- 6 Among whom are you also the called of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach:
- 7 To all that be in Romiyah, beloved of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, called to be Yisraelite kidushim: unmerited chen to you and shalom from אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Abba and the Savior אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.
- 8 First, I thank my Ahloha through אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach for you all, that your emunah is spoken of throughout the whole olam.
- 9 For אֱלֹהֵינוּ is my witness, whom I serve with my ruach in The Besorah of His Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my tefillot;
- 10 Making requests, if at all possible that I might have a prosperous journey by the will of אֱלֹהֵינוּ to come to you.
- 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, so that you may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual emunah both yours and mine.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, Yisraelite brothers, that many times I purposed to come to you, but was previously hindered, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other goyim.

14 I am a debtor both to the Greeks and to the foreigners; both to the wise and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to proclaim The Besorah to you that are at Romiyah also.

16 For I am not ashamed of The Besorah of Moshiach: for it is The Power of אֱלֹהִים for salvation to every one that believes; to the Yahudi first and also to the Greek and Aramean.

17 For by The Besorah is the tzedakah of אֱלֹהִים revealed from emunah to emunah: as it is written, The tzadik shall live by emunah.

18 For the wrath of אֱלֹהִים is revealed from the shamayim against all wickedness and all unrighteousness of men, who suppress the emet in unrighteousness;

19 Because that which could be known about אֱלֹהִים is manifest in them; for אֱלֹהִים has showed it to them.

20 For the invisible things coming from Him from the creation of the olam hazeh are clearly seen, being understood by the things of creation, even His eternal Power and divine nature; so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew אֱלֹהִים, they esteemed Him not as Ahloha, neither did they show hodu; but became vain in their imaginations and their foolish lev became darkened.

22 Claiming themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the tifereth of the incorruptible Ahloha into an image made like corruptible man, such as birds and four footed beasts and other creeping things.

24 Therefore אִיִּזְרָאֵל also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own levavot, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves:
25 Who changed the emet of אִיִּזְרָאֵל into a lie, and worshipped and served the creation more than The Creator, baruch shemoh.

26 For this cause אִיִּזְרָאֵל gave them up to vile affections: for even their women did change the natural sexual relations into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural sexual relationship with the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men committing shameful acts and receiving back in their own selves repayment for their error.

28 And even as they did not like to retain אִיִּזְרָאֵל in their da'at, אִיִּזְרָאֵל released them to a wasted mind, to do those things that are improper;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, fighting, deceit, evil thinking; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without binah, or discernment, brit breakers, cold and without ahava, unforgiving, ruthless:

32 Who knowing the mishpat of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, that those who commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also take pleasure in others that do them.

2 Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are who judges: for in your mishpat of another, you condemn yourself; because you who judge do the same things.

2 But we are sure that the mishpat of אֱלֹהִים is according to emet against those who commit such things.

3 And do you really think, O man, that judges them who do such things and do the same, that you shall escape the mishpat of אֱלֹהִים ?

4 Or, do you stand against the riches of His rachamim and tolerance and patience; by not knowing that the rachamim of אֱלֹהִים can lead you to teshuvah?

5 But after your hardness and unrepentant lev you are storing up for yourself great wrath against the yom of His wrath and the revelation of the tzadik mishpat of אֱלֹהִים;

6 Who will render to every man according to his mitzvot:

7 To them who by continuing patiently in well doing seek for tifereth, kavod, immortality and eternal chayim:

8 But to those that are contentious against the emet and do not obey the emet, but actually obey unrighteousness, will come indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every being that does evil, upon the Yahudi first and also upon the Greek and Aramean;

10 But tifereth, kavod and shalom, to every man that does tov mitzvot, to the Yahudi first and also to the Greek and Aramean:

11 For there is no partiality with אֱלֹהִים.

12 For as many as have sinned without Torah da'at shall also perish without Torah da'at: and as many as have sinned with Torah da'at shall be judged by that Torah da'at;

13 For not the hearers of Torah da'at are just before אֱלֹהִים, but the doers of the Torah shall be tzadikim.

14 For when the goyim, which have not Torah da'at, do by nature the things contained in the Torah, these, having not the Torah da'at, have an inbred Torah for themselves:

15 Which shows the work of the Torah written on their levavot, their conscience also bearing witness and their thoughts will either accuse, or else excuse one another.

16 In the Yom when אֱלֹהִים shall judge the secrets of men by סוֹפְרֵי אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach according to my Besorah.

17 See, you are called a Yahudi, who trusts in the Torah and makes your boast in your Ahloha,

18 And knows His will and approves of the excellent things, that are being instructed in the Torah;

19 And are confident that you yourself are a guide to the spiritually blind, an ohr to those who are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a rabbi of babies, who see themselves as the pattern of da'at and the emet that is in the Torah.

21 You therefore who teaches another, don't you also teach yourself? You that proclaim that a man should not steal, do you steal?

22 You that say a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You that hate idolatry, do you rob temples?

23 You that make your boast in the Torah, through breaking the Torah do you dishonor אֱלֹהִים?

24 For the Name of אֱלֹהִים is blasphemed among the goyim through you, as it is written.

25 For brit-milah truly profits, if you keep the Torah: but if you are a breaker of the Torah, your brit-milah has been made akrobustia.

26 Therefore if the akrobustia keeps the tzedakah of the Torah, shall not his akrobustia be again counted as brit-milah?

27 And shall not the akrobustia by nature, if they completely perform the Torah, judge you, even though you follow the letter and the brit-milah, but still transgress the Torah?

28 For he is not a Yahudi, which is one outwardly; neither is that brit-milah, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Yahudi, who is one inwardly; and brit-milah is that of the lev, in The Ruach and not in the letter; whose tehilla is not from men, but from אֱלֹהִים.

3 What advantage then has the Yahudi? Or, what profit is there in brit-milah?

2 Much in every way: primarily because they were the first to be entrusted with the Words of אֱלֹהִים and the first to believe in His Word.

3 For what if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief nullify emunah in אֱלֹהִים ?

4 By no means: yes, let אֱלֹהִים be emet, but every man a liar; as it is written, That You might be proven tzadik by Your Words and triumph when You judge.

5 But if our unrighteousness establishes the tzedakah of אֱלֹהִים, what shall we say? Is אֱלֹהִים unrighteous when He inflicts wrath? I speak as a man.

6 By no means: for then how shall He judge the olam hazeh?

7 For if the emet of אֱלֹהִים has increased through my lying nature for His tifereth; why am I still judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather as some slander us by reports and as some affirm that we say, Let us do evil, that some tov may come . Their condemnation for this is le-olam-va-ed.

9 What then? Are we better than them? No, in no way: for we have proven before that the Yahudim, Greeks and Arameans, are all under sin;

10 As it is written, There is not one tzadik, no, not one:

11 There is none that understands, there is none that seeks after Ahloha.

12 They are all gone out of the halacha; they have all together become worthless; there is none that does tov, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an open tomb; with their languages they have spoken deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouths are full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet are swift to shed dahm:

16 Destruction and misery are in their halachot:

17 And the halacha of shalom have they not known:

18 There is no fear of Ahloha before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things the Torah says, it says to those who are living by Torah: that every mouth may be stopped and all of the olam hazeh may become guilty before אֱלֹהִים.

20 Therefore by the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah alone, without full heartfelt emunah, there shall no flesh be justified in His sight: for by the Torah comes the da'at of sin.

21 But now the tzedakah of אֱלֹהִים apart from the Torah is manifested, being witnessed by the Torah and the neviim;

22 Even the tzedakah of אֱלֹהִים which is by emunah on מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach to all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned and come short of the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים;

24 Being justified freely by His unmerited chen through the geulah that is in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּח:

25 Whom אֱלֹהִים has set forth to be a keporah through emunah in His dahm, to declare His tzedakah for the remission of sins that are past.

26 To declare, I say, at this time His tzedakah: that He might be tzadik and the justifier of anyone who believes on אֱלֹהִים.

27 Where is man's boasting then? It is worthless. By what Torah is man made tzadik? By Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah alone? No: but by the full Torah of emunah.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is made a tzadik by full emunah apart from the limited Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah.

29 Is He the Ahloha of the Yahudim only? Is He not also the Ahloha of the goyim? Yes, of course, of the goyim also:

30 Since it is Ahloha-Echad, who shall justify the brit-milah by emunah and the akrobustia through emunah.

31 Do we then make void the Torah through personal emunah? By no means: actually we establish the full Torah.

4 What shall we say then about Avraham our abba, who lived in the flesh, before Ahloha called him?

2 For if Avraham were justified by mitzvoth alone, he has something to boast about; but not before אֱלֹהִים.

3 For what says The Katuv? Avraham believed אֱלֹהִים and it was counted to him for tzedakah.

4 Now to him that performs mitzvoth alone is the reward not given as unmerited chen, but as a debt.

5 But to him that works not, but believes on Him that makes tzadik the unrighteous, his emunah is counted as tzedakah.

17 As it is written, I have made you an abba of many goyim, before Him whom he believed, even אֱלֹהִים, who makes alive the dead and calls those things which are not as though they were.

18 Who against tikvah believed in tikvah, that he might become The Abba of many goyim; according to that which was spoken, so shall your zera be.

19 And being not weak in emunah, he considered not his own gooff almost dead, when he was about one hundred years old, neither the deadness of Sarah's womb:

20 He did not doubt the promise of אֱלֹהִים through any unbelief; but was strong in emunah, giving tifereth to אֱלֹהִים;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what He had promised, He was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for tzedakah.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him alone;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on Him that raised up מָשִׁיחַ our Savior from the dead;

25 Who was delivered for our willful transgressions and was raised again for our justification.

5 Therefore being justified by emunah, we have shalom with אֱלֹהִים through our Savior מָשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach:

2 By whom also we have access by this emunah into this unmerited chen in which we stand and rejoice in the tikvah of the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים.

3 And not only so, but we tifereth in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation works patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, tikvah:

5 And tikvah makes us bold; because the ahava of אֱלֹהִים is shed abroad in our levavot by The Ruach Hakodesh that is given to us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Moshiach died for the unrighteous.

7 Hardly for a wicked man will one die: yet maybe for a tov man some would even dare to die.

8 But אֱלֹהִים manifested His ahava towards us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Moshiach died for us.

9 Much more then, being made tzadik by His dahm, we shall be saved from wrath through Him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were restored to אֱלֹהִים by the death of His Son, much more, being restored, shall we be saved by His chayim.

11 And not only this, but we also simcha in אֱלֹהִים through our Savior מֹשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach, by whom we have now received the keporah.

12 Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the olam hazeh and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for all have sinned:

13 For before the Torah sin was in the olam hazeh: but sin is not imputed when there is no Torah.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Ahdahm to Moshe, even over all those that had not sinned after the sin of Ahdahm's transgression, who is the type of Him that was to come.

15 But the gift is not like the fall of man. For if through the fall of one man many died, how much more through the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים and His gift of unmerited chen, which also came by one Man, מֹשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach, is increased for many more.

16 And the fall of man is not as great as is the gift: for the mishpat of one led to the condemnation of many, but the free gift of forgiveness from many offences, resulted in the justification of many more.

17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they who receive overflowing unmerited chen and the gift of tzedakah shall reign in chayim by One, $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu\zeta$ Ha Moshiach.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one mishpat came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the tzedakah of One, the free gift came upon all men for justification and victory to chayim.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of One shall many be made tzadik.

20 Moreover the Torah entered, so that trespasses would officially increase. But where sin increased, unmerited chen did much more abundantly increase:

21 So that as sin has reigned to death, even so might unmerited chen reign through tzedakah to eternal chayim by $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu\zeta$ Ha Moshiach our Savior.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, so that unmerited chen may increase more than sin?

2 Let it not be! How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer in it?

3 Know you not, that as many of us as were immersed into $\sigma\omega\tau\acute{\alpha}\nu\zeta$ Ha Moshiach were immersed into His death?

4 Therefore we are buried with Him by mikvah into death: that like our Moshiach who was raised up from the dead by the tifereth of Abba, even so we also should have our halacha in a new chayim.

5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also raised in the likeness of His resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man has been impaled with Him, that the gooff of sin might be destroyed, that from now on we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is freed from serving sin.

8 Now if we are dead with Moshiach, we believe that we shall also live with Him:

9 Knowing that Moshiach being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more dominion over Him.

10 For in that He died, He died to sin once: but in that He lives, He lives to אִיִּי.

11 In like manner consider yourself also to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to אִיִּי through אֲנִיִּי Ha Moshiach our Savior.

12 Let not sin therefore have rule in your mortal gooff, that you should obey it in its hurtful desires.

13 Neither yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin: but yield yourselves to אִיִּי, as those that are alive from the dead and your members as instruments of tzedakah to אִיִּי.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for you are not under the law of sin, but under unmerited chen.

15 What then? Shall we sin again because we are free from the law of sin, but under unmerited chen? Let it not be.

16 Know you not, that to whom you yield yourselves avadim to obey, His avadim you become; whether of sin to death, or of Torah obedience to tzedakah?

17 But אִיִּי be given hodu that you were the avadim of sin, but you have obeyed from the lev that form of instruction that was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from sin, you became the avadim of tzedakah.

19 I speak like a man does because of the limitations of your comprehension in the flesh: for as you have yielded your gooff's members as avadim to uncleanness and to Torah-less-ness; even so now yield your gooff's members as avadim to tzedakah and set apartness.

20 For when you were the avadim of sin, you were free from tzedakah.

21 What fruit did you have then in those things that you are now ashamed of ? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, having become avadim to אֱלֹהִים, you have your fruit to set apartness, with the end result being everlasting chayim.

23 For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of אֱלֹהִים is eternal chayim through מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל Ha Moshiach our Master.

7 Know you not, Yisraelite brothers, for I speak to them that know the Torah, how that the Torah has dominion over a man as long as he lives?

2 For the woman who has a husband is bound by the Torah to her husband so long as he lives; but if the husband is dead, she is loosed from the Torah of her husband.

3 So then if, while her husband lives, she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband is dead, she is free from the Torah of her husband; so that she is not an adulteress, though she gets married to another man.

4 So you see, my Yisraelite brothers, you also have become dead to the Torah of your husband by the gooff of Moshiach; that you should be married to another, even to Him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit to אֱלֹהִים.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, through the Torah, did work in our members to bring forth fruit to death.

6 But now we are delivered from the Torah of our husband, being dead to what we were held by; that we should serve in newness of Ruach and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Torah a sinful, or sin-causing instrument? Let it not be! No, I had not known about sin, except by the Torah: for I had not known lust, except the Torah had said, You shall not covet.

8 But sin, by means of the commandment, provoked in me all manner of desire. For without the Torah sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the full Torah once: but when the mitzvoth came, sin revived and I died.

10 And the mitzvoth, which were ordained to bring chayim, I found to bring death.

11 For sin, taking opportunity by the mitzvoth, deceived me and by it killed me.

12 Therefore the Torah is kadosh and the mitzvoth are kadosh and just and tov.

13 Then was that which is tov made into death for me? Let it not be! But sin, that it might appear to be sin, worked death in me by that which is tov; so that sin by the mitzvoth might become exceedingly sinful.

14 For we know that the Torah is full of The Ruach: but I am of the flesh, sold under sin.

15 For I do not know what is going on: for what I purpose to do in obeying Torah, that I do not do; but what I hate in the olam hazeh, that I wind up doing.

16 If then I do that which I do not want to do, I consent to the Torah that it is tov.

17 Now then it is no more I that do sinful deeds, but sin that dwells in my flesh.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no tov thing: for the choice and desire to do the right thing is present with me; but how to perform that which is tov evades me.

19 For the tov that I should do I do not: but the evil that I desire not, that I wind up doing.

20 Now if I do what I should not do, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwells in me.

21 I find then an interesting Torah, that, when I would do tov by the Torah, evil is still present with me.

22 For I delight in the Torah of אֱלֹהִים after the inward man:

23 But I see another torah in my members, warring against the Torah of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the torah of sin, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from the gooff of death?

25 Hodu be to אֱלֹהִים through מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach our Savior. So then with the mind I myself serve the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, but with the flesh the torah of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּח, who have their halacha even in the flesh, after The Ruach of מוֹשִׁיָּח.

2 For the Torah of The Ruach of chayim in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּח has made me free from the torah of sin and death.

3 For what the Torah could not do because it was powerless regarding man's weak flesh, אֱלֹהִים sending His own Son, in the likeness of that same sinful flesh and for sin, condemned man's sinful flesh, by means of His own flesh:

4 That the tzedakah of the Torah might be fulfilled in us, who have their halacha not after the flesh, but after The Ruach.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after The Ruach the things of The Ruach.

6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is chayim and shalom.

7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against אֱלֹהִים: for it is not subject to the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please אֱלֹהִים.

9 But you are not in the flesh, but in The Ruach, if in fact The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים dwells in you. Now if any man does not have The Ruach of Moshiach, he is none of His.

10 And if Moshiach be in you, the gooff is dead because of sin; but the ruach is alive because of tzedakah.

11 But if The Ruach of Him that raised up מֵתִים from the dead lives in you, He that raised up Moshiach from the dead shall also bring chayim to your mortal bodies by His Ruach that dwells in you.

12 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh and its torah.

13 For if you live after the flesh, you shall die: but if you allow The Ruach to mortify the deeds and desires of your gooff, you shall live.

14 For as many as are led by The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים, they are the b'nai אֱלֹהִים.

15 For you have not received The Ruach of bondage again to fear, but you have received The Ruach of adoption, by which we cry, Abba, Abba.

16 The Ruach itself bears witness with our ruach, that we are b'nai אֱלֹהִים:

17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of אֱלֹהִים and joint-heirs with Moshiach; so that since we suffer with Him, we will also be esteemed together.

18 For I'm sure that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the tifereth that shall be revealed in us.

19 For the intense expectation of all of the creation waits for the manifestation of the b'nai אֱלֹהִים.

20 For creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly, or originally, but by reason of Him who has subjected creation to wait in tikvah, 21 Because the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the beautiful liberty of the b'nai אֱלֹהִים.

22 For we know that all of creation groans and travails in pain together until now.

23 And not only creation, but we ourselves, who have the bikkurim of The Ruach, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, specifically, the geulah of our gooff.

24 For we are saved by tikvah: but tikvah that is seen is not tikvah: for what a man actually sees, he does not need to have tikvah for!

25 But if we have tikvah for what we do not yet see, then with patience we willingly wait for it.

26 Likewise The Ruach also helps our weaknesses: for we know not how we should make tefillah as we should: but The Ruach makes tefillah for us with groaning that cannot be described.

27 And He that searches the levavot knows what is the mind of The Ruach because The Ruach makes tefillah for the Yisraelite kidushim according to the will of אֱלֹהִים.

28 And we know that all things work together for tov to them that love אֱלֹהִים, to those who are the called according to His purpose.

29 For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the Bachor among many Yisraelite brothers.

30 Moreover whom He did predestine, those He also called: and whom He called, those He also justified: and whom He justified, those He also esteemed.

31 What shall we say then to these things? If אֱלֹהִים is for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?

33 Can anyone bring any charge against אֱלֹהִים's chosen people Yisrael? It is אֱלֹהִים that makes us tzadikim.

34 Who is the only One that could condemn His chosen people? It is The Moshiach who died, yes. But instead of condemning us, He has risen, to the right Hand of אֱלֹהִים and He now makes intercession for us.

35 Who then shall separate us from the ahava of Moshiach? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, For Your sake we are killed all yom long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor chayim, nor heavenly malachim, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come;

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creation, shall be able to separate us from the ahava of אֱלֹהִים, which is in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָאֵנוּ our Savior.

9 I say the emet in Moshiach, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in The Ruach HaKodesh;

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my lev.

3 For if it were possible I myself would wish to be banished from Moshiach for my Yisraelite brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Yisraelites; to whom pertains the adoption and the tifereth and the britot and the giving of the Torah and the worship and the promises;

5 Who are the ahvot, from whom Moshiach came in the flesh, who is the Ahloha over all, אֱלֹהִים the Blessed One le-olam-va-ed.

6 Not as though The Word of אֱלֹהִים has failed in Yisrael. For they are not all still Yisrael, who are from Yisrael:

7 Neither because they are the zera of Avraham, are they all b'nai Yisrael: but, In Yitzchak shall your zera be called.

8 That is, those who are children of the flesh, these are not the b'nai אֱלֹהִים: but the b'nai-brit are counted as the zera.

9 For this is The Word of promise, At this time will I come and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when Rivkah also had conceived by one, even by our abba Yitzchak;

11 For the children being not yet born, neither having done any tov, or evil, that the purpose of אֱלֹהִים according to choice might stand, not of works, but of Him that does the calling;

12 It was said to her, The older boy shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, Yaakov have I loved, but Esav have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with אֱלֹהִים ? Let it not be!

15 For He says to Moshe, I will have chen on whom I will have chen and I will have rachamim on whom I will have rachamim.

16 So then it is not within reach of him that wishes, nor of him that strives in the flesh to be Yisrael, but of אֱלֹהִים that shows rachamim.

17 For The Katuv says to Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised you up, that I might show My Power in you and that My Name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore He has rachamim on whom He will have rachamim and He hardens the levavot of those He does not choose.

19 You might say then to me, Why does He find fault with some that He does not choose? For who has resisted His will?

20 No but, O man, who are you that replies and talks back to אֱלֹהִים ? Shall the thing formed say to Him that formed it, Why have you made me this way?

21 Does not the potter have Power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel to kavod and another without kavod?

22 What if אֱלֹהִים, willing to show His wrath and to make His Power known, endured with much patience the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction:

23 And that He might make known the riches of His tifereth on the vessels of rachamim, that He had prepared beforehand for tifereth, 24 Even us, whom He has called, not of the Yahudim only, but also of the goyim?

25 As He says also in Husha, I will call them My People-Ami, who were not My People-Lo-Ami; and will call her Ruchamah, who were Lo-Ruchamah.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not My People-Lo Ami; there shall they be called children of the living Ahloha.

27 Yeshayahu also cries on behalf of Yisrael,
Though the number of b'nai Yisrael be as the sand of the sea; only a remnant shall be saved:

28 For He will finish the work and cut it short in tzedakah: because a short work will The Master אֱלֹהִים make upon the earth.

29 And as Yeshayahu said before, Except The Master אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot had left us a surviving remnant, we would have been as Sedom and been made like Amora.

30 What shall we say then? That the goyim, who followed not after the Torah of tzedakah, have attained tzedakah, even the tzedakah that comes by emunah.

31 But Yisrael, which followed after the Torah of tzedakah, has not attained the goal of the Torah of tzedakah.

32 Why not? Because they sought it not by emunah but as it were by Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah alone.

For they stumbled at that Stumbling Stone;

33 As it is written, See, I lay in Tzion a Stumbling Stone and Rock of Offense: and whoever believes on Him shall not be ashamed.

10 Yisraelite brothers, my lev's desire and tefillah to אֱלֹהִים for Yisrael is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal for אֱלֹהִים, but not according to da'at.

3 For they being ignorant of אֱלֹהִים's tzedakah, go about to establish their own tzedakah, have not submitted themselves to the tzedakah of אֱלֹהִים.

4 For Moshiach is the actual goal of the Torah for an eternal tzadik standing to everyone that believes.

5 For Moshe describes the tzedakah that comes from the Torah: That the man who does those things shall live by them.

6 But the tzedakah that is of emunah speaks in this manner; Say not in your lev, Who shall ascend into the shamayim? That is, to bring The Moshiach down from above:

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? That is, to bring up The Moshiach again from the dead.

8 But what does Torah actually say? The Word is near you, even in your mouth and in your lev: that is, The Word of emunah, which we proclaim;

9 That if you shall confess with your mouth The Master אדני and shall believe in your lev that אדני has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved.

10 For with the lev man believes to tzedakah; and with the mouth confession is made to and concerning אדני.

11 For The Katuv says, Whoever believes on Him shall not be ashamed or disgraced.

12 For there is no difference between the Yahudi and the Greek or the Aramean: for the same Master אדני is over all and is rich in rachamim to all that call upon Him.

13 For whoever shall call upon the Name of The Master אדני shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a proclaimer?

15 And how shall they proclaim, except they be sent? As it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that proclaim The Besorah of Shalom and bring Besorot of tov things!

16 But they have not all obeyed The Besorah. For Yeshayahu says, אדני, who has believed our report?

17 So then, emunah comes by hearing and hearing by The Word of אדני.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes truly, their sound went into all the earth and their words to the ends of the olam hazeh.

19 But I say, Did not Yisrael know? First Moshe says, I will provoke you to zeal by them that are not a people at all, a Lo-Ami and by this foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Yeshayahu is very bold and says, I was found by them that sought Me not; I was made manifest to them that asked not after Me.

21 But to Yisrael He says, All yom long I have stretched forth My hands to a disobedient and quarrelsome people.

11 I say then, did אֱלֹהִים cast away His people? By no means. For I also am a Yisraelite, of the zera of Avraham, of the tribe of Benyamin.

2 אֱלֹהִים has not cast away His people whom He knew and chose beforehand. Don't you know what The Katuv says of Eliyahu? How he even pleads with אֱלֹהִים against Yisrael, saying,

3 אֱלֹהִים, they have killed Your neviim and overthrown Your altars; and I am left alone and they seek my chayim.

4 But what says The Word of אֱלֹהִים to him? I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Ba'al.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to His election by unmerited chen.

6 And if by unmerited chen, then is it no more by mitzvoth: otherwise unmerited chen is not unmerited chen. But if it is by mitzvoth, then is it no more unmerited chen: unless work is not work.

7 What then? Yisrael has not obtained that which they sought for; but the chosen remnant has obtained it and the rest were blinded.

8 According as it is written, אָרָרָם has given them the ruach of slumber, eyes that they should not see and ears that they should not hear; to this yom.

9 And Dawid says, Let their shulchan be made a snare and a trap and a scandal and a reward to them:

10 Let their eyes become darkened, that they may not see and be hunchbacked always.

11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall le-olam-va-ed? Let it not be: but rather through their fall salvation has gone out to the goyim, for to provoke them to zeal.

12 Now if their temporal fall brought riches to the olam hazeh and the diminishing of their believing numbers brought riches to the goyim; how much more the fullness of their return from blindness?

13 For I speak to you goyim because I am the sholiach to the goyim, I magnify my work by explaining this.

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation those who are of my flesh and might save some of them.

15 For if their temporal setting aside be the reconciling of the olam hazeh, what shall the receiving of them back be, but chayim from the dead?

16 For if the bikkurim are kadosh, the lump is also kadosh: and if the root is kadosh, so are the branches-Netsarim.

17 And if some of the branches were broken off and you, being a wild olive eytz, were grafted in among them and with them you partake of the Root and fatness of the olive eytz;

18 Boast not against the cultivated branches. But if you boast, you better remember that you do not bear the Root, but the Root bears you.

19 You will say then, The cultivated branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Emet; because of unbelief they were broken off and you stand by emunah. Be not arrogant, but fear:

21 For if אֱלֹהִים spared not the cultivated branches, shomer, He may not spare you either.

22 See therefore the chesed and severity of אֱלֹהִים: on those who fell, severity; but towards you, chesed, if you continue in His chesed: otherwise you also shall be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in their unbelief, shall be grafted in: for אֱלֹהִים is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut out of the olive eytz which is uncultivated and were grafted contrary to nature into a tov olive eytz: how much more shall these, who are the cultivated branches, be grafted into their own olive eytz as well?

25 For I would not, Yisraelite brothers, that you should be ignorant of this mysterious secret, lest you should be wise in your own pride and conceit; that partial blindness has happened to Yisrael, until the fullness of the goyim—the melo hagoyim—comes in.

26 And so kol Yisrael shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Tzion the Deliverer and shall turn away wickedness from Yaakov:

27 For this is My brit with them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning The Besorah, they are enemies for your sakes: but as far as being the chosen people, they are beloved for the sake of the ahvot.

29 For the gifts and calling of אֱלֹהִים are without teshuvah.

30 For as you in times past have not believed אֱלֹהִים, yet have now obtained rachamim through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your rachamim they also may re-obtain rachamim.

32 For אֱלֹהִים has put kol Yisrael in various forms of unbelief, that He might have rachamim upon kol Yisrael.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the chochmah and da'at of אֱלֹהִים ! How unsearchable are His mishpatim and His halachot past finding out!

34 For who has really known the mind of The Master אֱלֹהִים ? Or, who has been His advisor?

35 Or, who has first given anything to Him, in order to receive something back from Him?

36 For from Him and through Him and to Him, are all things: to whom be tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

Ahmein.

12 I beg you therefore, Yisraelite brothers, by the rachamim of אֱלֹהִים, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, kadosh, acceptable to אֱלֹהִים, which is your act of reasonable worship.

2 And be not conformed to this olam hazeh: but be transformed by the ongoing renewing of your mind, that you may discern what is that tov, acceptable and even the perfect, will of אֱלֹהִים.

3 For I say, through the unmerited chen given to me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he should; but to think soberly, as אֱלֹהִים has dealt to every man the measure of emunah.

4 For as we have many members in the one gooff of Yisrael and all members have not the same role:

5 So we, being many, are one gooff of Yisrael in The Moshiach and each one members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the unmerited chen that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the measure of emunah;

7 Or, some service, let us serve: or he that teaches, let him teach;

8 Or, he that exhorts, let him exhort: he that gives, let him do it with simplicity; he that oversees, with diligence; he that shows rachamim, with simcha.

9 Let ahava be without deceit in full sincerity.

Despise that which is evil; cleave to that which is tov.

10 Be kind and tender to one another with brotherly ahava; in kavod preferring another over yourself;

11 Not idle in your duty; fervent in ruach; serving your אף אף;

12 Having gilah in tikvah; be patient in tribulation; continue steadfast in tefillah;

13 Distributing to the necessity of the Yisraelite kidushim; be given to hospitality.

14 Bless them who persecute you: bless and do not curse.

15 Gilah with them that do gilah and weep with those that weep.

16 Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not prideful things and position, but associate with the humble. Be not wise in your own estimation.

17 Repay to no man evil for evil. Do things honestly and right in the sight of all men.

18 If it is possible, on your part, live in shalom with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, revenge not yourselves, but rather give place to wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; and repayment, says אף אף.

20 Therefore if your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him drink: for in so doing you shall heap coals of fire on His head.

21 Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with tov.

13 Let every Yisraelite be subject to civil governing powers. For there is no power but from אֲפִיקָרִים: the civil powers that exist are ordained of אֲפִיקָרִים.

2 Whoever therefore resists the civil power, resists the ordained institution of אֲפִיקָרִים: and they that resist, shall receive mishpat on themselves.

3 For civil shophtim are not a menace to tov mitzvot, but to cause men to fear doing evil. Will you then not be afraid of the authorities? Do that which is tov and you shall have tehilla from the same authorities:

4 For he is the eved of אֲפִיקָרִים to you for tov. But if you do that which is evil, then be afraid; for he bears not the sword in vain: for he is the eved of אֲפִיקָרִים, an instrument to execute wrath upon the one that does evil.

5 Therefore we must be subject, not only for fear of wrath, but also because of our conscience.

6 For this cause pay taxes also: for they are אֲפִיקָרִים's instruments, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tax to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom; reverence to whom reverence is due; kavod to whom kavod is due.

8 Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loves another has fulfilled the Torah.

9 For this, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not kill, you shall not steal, you shall not bear false witness, you shall not covet; and if there is any other mitzvah, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely; ahavta re'echa camocha – you shall love your neighbor as yourself.

10 Ahava seeks no evil to its neighbor: therefore ahava is the completion of the Torah of chayim.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we first came to believe.

12 The lyla is far spent, the Yom is at hand: let us therefore cast off the deeds of darkness and let us put on the Tallit of Ohr.

13 Let us have an honest halacha, as in the yom; not in wild parties and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and indecencies, not in fighting, or envying.

14 But put on אור Ha Moshiach and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lust.

14 Him that is weak in the emunah receive, but not criticizing his thoughts.

2 For one believes that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eats only vegetables.

3 Let not him that eats meat despise him that eats no meat; and let not him who does not eat meat judge him that eats meat: for אור has received kol Yisrael.

4 Who are you that judges another man's eved? To his own Master אור he stands, or falls. Yes, he shall be held up too: for אור is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteems one yom above another: another esteems every yom alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regards the yom of eating, regards it to אור; and he that regards not the yom, to אור he does not regard it. He that eats, eats to אור, for he gives hodu; and he that eats not, before אור he eats not and neither gives אור hodu.

7 For no Yisraelite man lives for himself and no Yisraelite man dies for himself.

8 For whether we live, we live for אֱלֹהִים; and whether we die, we die for אֱלֹהִים: whether we live, or whether we die, we belong to and for אֱלֹהִים.

9 For this purpose Moshiach both died and rose and was revived, so that He might be The Master אֱלֹהִים both of the dead and the living.

10 But why do you judge your Yisraelite brother? Or, why do you despise your Yisraelite brother over these secondary issues? For we shall all stand before the bema seat of our Moshiach.

11 For it is written, As I live, says The Master אֱלֹהִים, every knee shall bow to Me and every tongue shall confess to The Master אֱלֹהִים.

12 So then each one of us shall give an account of himself to אֱלֹהִים.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another anymore: but rather be mindful of this that no man put any unnecessary stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall before his Yisraelite brother's derech.

14 I know and am persuaded by the Savior מוֹשִׁיָאֵל, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteems anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if your Yisraelite brother is grieved with your food choice, now you are no longer walking in ahava. Do not destroy him with your food choices, for whom Moshiach died.

16 Let not then your tov be evil spoken of:

17 For the malchut of אֱלֹהִים is not food and drink; but tzedakah and shalom and simcha in The Ruach Hakodesh.

18 For he who in these choices serves Moshiach is acceptable to אֱלֹהִים and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things that make for shalom and things with which we may edify one another.

20 For food choices will not destroy the work of אֱלֹהִים. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eats so as to cause stumbling.

21 It is tov neither to eat meat, nor to drink wine, or anything by which your Yisraelite brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Have you a certain food emunah? Keep it to yourself before אֱלֹהִים. Favored is he that condemns not himself in that thing which he allows.

23 And he that doubts and eats violates his own emunah because he eats not with emunah: for whatever is not of emunah is sin.

15 We then that are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbor for his tov and edification.

3 For even Moshiach pleased not Himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached You fell on Me.

4 For all things that were written in the Tanach were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Keetvay HaKadosh might have tikvah.

5 Now the Ahloha of patience and comfort, grant you the ability to regard one another with equal worth according to Moshiach אֱלֹהִים:

6 That you may with one mind and one mouth esteem אֱלֹהִים, even The Abba of our Savior אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.

7 Therefore be friendly and bear one another's burdens, as Moshiach also brought us close to the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים.

8 Now I say that אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach was an Eved to Yisrael for the emet of אֱלֹהִים, to confirm the promises made to our ahvot:

9 And that the goyim might all esteem אֱלֹהִים for His rachamim; as it is written, For this cause I will confess You among the goyim and sing to Your Name.

10 And again He says, Gilah, you goyim, with His people.

11 And again, Hallel The Master אֱלֹהִים, all you goyim; and laud Him, all you people.

12 And again, Yeshayahu says, There shall be a Root of Yishai and He that shall rise to reign over the goyim; in Him shall the goyim trust.

13 Now the Ahloha of tikvah fill you with all simcha and shalom in believing, that you may abound in your tikvah, through The Power of The Ruach Hakodesh.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my Yisraelite brothers, that you also are full of much tov, filled with all da'at, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, Yisraelite brothers, I have written more boldly partially to remind you because of the unmerited chen that is given to me by אֱלֹהִים, 16 That I should be the eved of מֶלֶךְ הַמְּשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach to the goyim, serving in The Besorah of אֱלֹהִים, that the terumah of the goyim might be acceptable, being set apart by The Ruach Hakodesh.

17 I have therefore a cause for boasting through מֶלֶךְ הַמְּשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach in those things that pertain to אֱלֹהִים.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things that Moshiach has not done through me, to make the goyim obedient, by word and demands, 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by The Power of The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים; so that from Yahrushalayim and all around Illurikon, I have fully proclaimed The Besorah of Moshiach.

20 Yes, so have I strived to proclaim The Besorah, not where Moshiach was already named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, To whom He was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more a place in these parts and having a great desire these many years to come to you;

24 Whenever I take my journey into Sepharad, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey and that you will escort me there, after I have more, or less fully enjoyed my visit with you.

25 But now I go to Yahrushalayim to serve the Yisraelite kidushim.

26 For it has pleased them of Makedonia and Achayah to give a terumah for the poor Yisraelite kidushim who are at Yahrushalayim.

27 It has pleased them truly; and their debtors they are. For if the goyim have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to attend to them in material things.

28 When therefore I have performed this and have sealed for them this fruit, I will return through you into Sepharad.

29 And I am sure that, when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the brachot of The Besorah of Moshiach.

30 Now I beg you, Yisraelite brothers, for the Savior אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach's sake and for the ahava of The Ruach, that you strive together with me in your tefillot to אֲרַחֵם for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Messiah from Beit Yahudah; and that my terumah which I have for Yahrushalayim may be accepted by the Yisraelite kidushim;

32 That I may come to you with simcha by the will of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and may be refreshed with you.
33 Now the Ahloha of shalom be with you all.
Ahmein.

16 I commend to you Phoebe our Yisraelite sister, who is an eved of the kehilla that is at Cenchrea:
2 That you receive her in אֱלֹהֵינוּ, as becomes Yisraelite kidushim and that you assist her in whatever business she has need of: for she has been a great help to many and to myself also.
3 Greet Priscilla and Aquilas my helpers in Moshiach וְעִמָּנוּ:
4 Who have for my chayim laid down their own necks: for whom not only I give hodu, but also all the kehillot of the Yisraelite goyim.
5 Likewise greet the kehilla that is in their bayit. Greet my well beloved Epainetos, who is the bikkurim of Achayah to The Moshiach.
6 Greet Miryam, who worked very hard for us.
7 Greet Andronikos and Yunia, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are of note among the shlichim, who also were in Moshiach before me.
8 Greet Amplias my beloved in אֱלֹהֵינוּ.
9 Greet Urbanos, our helper in The Moshiach and Stachus my beloved.
10 Greet Apelles approved in The Moshiach. Greet those who are of Aristobulos' bayit.
11 Greet Herodion my relative. Greet them that are of the bayit of Narkissus, who are in אֱלֹהֵינוּ.
12 Greet Truphanyah and Truphosa, who labor in אֱלֹהֵינוּ. Greet the beloved Persis, who labored much in אֱלֹהֵינוּ.
13 Greet Rufus chosen in אֱלֹהֵינוּ and his eema and mine.

14 Greet Asugritos, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes and the Yisraelite brothers, who are with them.

15 Greet Philologos and Yulia, Nereus and his sister and Olumpas and all the Yisraelite kidushim that are with them.

16 Greet one another with a kadosh kiss. The Yisraelite kehellot of The Moshiach greet you.

17 Now I beg you, Yisraelite brothers, mark those who cause divisions and stumbling contrary to the Torah that you have learned; and avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Savior $\omega\psi\chi\alpha\zeta$ Ha Moshiach, but their own belly; and by tov words and convincing speeches deceive the levavot of the simple.

19 For your obedience is reported to all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise to that which is tov, but simple concerning evil.

20 And the Ahloha of shalom shall bruise s.a.tan under your feet shortly. The unmerited chen of our Savior $\omega\psi\chi\alpha\zeta$ Ha Moshiach be with you.

21 Timtheous my fellow worker and Lucius and Yason and Sosipater, my relatives, greet you.

22 I Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in $\alpha\beta\gamma\delta$.

23 Gaios my host and the whole kehilla, greets you. Erastos the treasurer of the city greets you and Quartus a Yisraelite brother.

24 The unmerited chen of our Savior $\omega\psi\chi\alpha\zeta$ Ha Moshiach be with you all.

25 Now to Him that is able to establish you according to my Besorah and the proclaiming of $\omega\psi\chi\alpha\zeta$ Ha Moshiach, according to the revelation of the sod, which was kept hidden since the olam hazeh began;

26 But now is made manifest, by the Keetvay HaKadosh of the neviim, according to the commandment of the everlasting Ahloha, made known to all goyim for the obedience of the emunah:

27 To אֱלֹהִים the only wise One, be tifereth through אֱמִנָה Ha Moshiach le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein. X

First Corinthians- Qorintyah Alef

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, called to be a sholiach of Yahusha Ha Moshiach through the will of אֱלֹהִים and Sosthenes our Yisraelite brother,
- 2 To the Yisraelite kehilla of אֱלֹהִים which is at Qorintyah, to them that are kadosh in The Moshiach מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים, called to be Yisraelite kidushim, with all that in every place call upon the Name of מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach our Master, both theirs and ours:
- 3 Unmerited chen to you and shalom, from אֱלֹהִים our Abba and from The Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.
- 4 I thank my Ahloha always on your behalf, for the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים which is given to you by מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach;
- 5 That in everything you are enriched by Him, in all words and in all da'at;
- 6 Even as the witness of Moshiach was confirmed in you:
- 7 So that you were not lacking any gift; while waiting for the coming of our Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach:
- 8 Who shall also strengthen you until the end, that you may be blameless in the yom of our Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.
- 9 אֱלֹהִים is faithful, by whom you were called to the chavurah of His Son מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach our Master.
- 10 Now I appeal to you, Yisraelite brothers, by the Name of our Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach that you all speak as echad and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same opinion.

11 For it has been declared to me about you, my Yisraelite brothers, by those who are of beit Chloe, that there are contentions and disputes among you.

12 Now this I say because some among you say, I am of Shaul; and I am of Apollos; and I am of Kefa; and I am of Moshiach.

13 Is Moshiach divided? Was Shaul impaled for you? Or, were you immersed in the name of Shaul?

14 I thank אֱלֹהֵינוּ that I immersed none of you, but Crispos and Gaios;

15 So that no one should say that I had immersed in my own name.

16 And I immersed also the bayit of Tzephanyah: but besides them, I do not know whether I immersed anyone else.

17 For Moshiach sent me not to mikvah, but to proclaim The Besorah: not with chochmah of words, lest the offering of Moshiach should be made of no effect.

18 For the proclaiming of the execution stake is to them that are perishing foolishness; but to us who are being saved it is The Power of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

19 For it is written, I will destroy the chochmah of the wise and will bring to nothing the binah of the clever 20 Where is the wise? Where is the Sopher? Where is the debater of the olam hazeh? Has not אֱלֹהֵינוּ made foolish the chochmah of the olam hazeh?

21 For after that in the chochmah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ the olam hazeh by worldly chochmah knew not אֱלֹהֵינוּ, it pleased אֱלֹהֵינוּ by the simplicity of proclaiming to save them that believe.

22 For the Yahudim require an ot and the Greeks seek after chochmah:

23 But we proclaim The Moshiach impaled, to the Yahudim a scandal and to the Greeks foolishness;

24 But to those who are called, both Yahudim and Greeks, The Moshiach is The Power of אֱלֹהִים and the chochmah of אֱלֹהִים.

25 For the foolishness of אֱלֹהִים is wiser than men; and the weakness of אֱלֹהִים is stronger than men.

26 For you see your calling, my Yisraelite brothers, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But אֱלֹהִים has chosen the foolish things of the olam hazeh to embarrass the wise; and אֱלֹהִים has chosen the weak things of the olam hazeh to embarrass the things that are mighty;

28 And Ahloha has chosen those from humble mishpachot of the olam hazeh, those who are despised, those אֱלֹהִים has chosen, yes and the ones who are not, to bring to nothing those that are something:

29 That no flesh should boast in His presence.

30 But of Him are you in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל, who is from אֱלֹהִים and has been made to us chochmah and tzedakah and set apartness and geulah:

31 That, as it is written, He that boasts, let him boast in אֱלֹהִים.

2 And I, Yisraelite brothers, when I came to you, came not with excellence of speech, or of chochmah, declaring to you the witness of אֱלֹהִים.

2 For I determined not to know anything among you, except מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל Ha Moshiach and Him impaled.

3 And I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my proclaiming was not with enticing words of man's chochmah, but in a demonstration of The Ruach and of Power:

5 That your emunah should not stand in the chochmah of men, but in The Power of אֱלֹהִים.

6 Yet we speak chochmah among those that are mature: yet not the chochmah of the olam hazeh, or of the rulers of the olam hazeh, that comes to nothing:

7 But we speak the chochmah of אֱלֹהִים in a sod, even the hidden chochmah, that אֱלֹהִים has ordained before the olam hazeh to our tifereth:

8 Which none of the rulers of the olam hazeh knew: for had they known it, they would not have impaled The Master of Tifereth.

9 But as it is written, Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither has it entered into the lev of man, the things which Ahloha has prepared for them that love Him.

10 But אֱלֹהִים has revealed them to us by His Ruach: for The Ruach searches all things, yes, the deep things of אֱלֹהִים.

11 For who knows the things of a man, except the ruach of man, which is in him? Even so the things of Ahloha no man knows, but The Ruach of Ahloha.

12 Now we have received, not the ruach of the olam hazeh, but The Ruach, which is from Ahloha; that we might know all the things that are freely given to us by אֱלֹהִים.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's chochmah teaches, but which The Ruach Hakodesh teaches; comparing spiritual matters with spiritual matters.

14 But the natural material man receives not the things of The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them because they need spiritual discernment.

15 But he that is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man.

16 For who has known the mind of The Master אֱלֹהִים, that he may give Him Torah lessons? But we have the mind of Moshiach.

3 And I, Yisraelite brothers, could not speak to you as spiritual ones, but as to worldly ones, even as to babies in Moshiach.

2 I have fed you with milk and not with meat: for before now you were not able to bear it, neither now are you able.

3 For you are still worldly: since there is among you ongoing envying and strife and divisions, are you not worldly and walking as natural men?

4 For while one says, I am of Shaul; and another, I am of Apollos; are you not still worldly?

5 Who then is Shaul and who is Apollos, but avadim through whom you believed, even as The Master אֱלֹהִים gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos gave mayim; but אֱלֹהִים gave the increased growth.

7 So then neither is he that plants anything, neither he that gives mayim anything; but אֱלֹהִים who gives the increase.

8 Now he that plants and he that gives mayim are echad: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.

9 For we are Yisraelite laborers together with אֱלֹהִים: you are אֱלֹהִים's field, you are אֱלֹהִים's sukkah.

10 According to the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation and another builds on it. But let every man take heed how he builds on it.

11 For another foundation can no man lay than that which has been laid, which is מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach.

12 Now if any man builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay and straw;

13 Every man's mitzvot shall be made manifest: for The Ohr of Yom HaDin shall declare it because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's mitzvot of what sort it is.

14 If any man's mitzvot remain which he has built on, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's mitzvot shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; as one who has been saved by a fire.

16 Know you not that you are the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהִים and that The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים dwells in you?

17 If any man defiles the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהִים, him shall אֱלֹהִים destroy; for the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהִים is kadosh, which you are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among Yisrael seems to be wise in the olam hazeh, let him become a natural fool, that he may be spiritually wise.

19 For the chochmah of the olam hazeh is foolishness with אֱלֹהִים. For it is written, He catches the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, The Master אֱלֹהִים knows the thoughts of the naturally wise, that they are worthless.

21 Therefore let no man boast in other men. For all things are yours;

22 Whether Shaul, or Apollos, or Kefa, or the olam hazeh, or chayim, or death, or the olam haba; all things are yours;

23 And you are Moshiach's; and Moshiach is אֱלֹהִים's.

4 Let a man regard all of us, as simple avadim of Moshiach and caretakers of the sods of אֱלֹהִים.

2 Moreover it is required in caretakers that a man is found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or of man's mishpat: yes, I do not even judge myself.

4 For I do not know of any matter against myself; yet I am not declared tzadik by that: but He that judges me is The Master אֱלֹהִים.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until מִשְׁפָּט comes, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness and will make manifest the thoughts of the levavot: and then shall every man have tehilla from The Master אֱלֹהִים.

6 And these things, my Yisraelite brothers, I have in an explainable picture applied to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that you might learn by us not to think of any man above that which is written, that not one of you be puffed up in favor of one against another.

7 For who makes you to differ from each other? And what do you have that you did not first receive? Now if you did receive it, why do you boast, as if you had not received it?

8 Now you are full, now you are rich, you have reigned as melechim apart from us: and I wished indeed that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that אֱלֹהִים has set forth the shlichim to be last in all things, as if we were condemned to death: for we have become a spectacle to the olam hazeh and to the heavenly malachim and to all men.

10 We are fools for Moshiach's sake, but you are wise in Moshiach; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honorable, but we are despised.

11 Even to this present hour we both hunger and thirst and are scantily clad and beaten and have no permanent home;

12 And labor, working with our own hands: being cursed, we return brachot; being persecuted, we suffer:

13 Being defamed, we help: we are made as the filth of the olam hazeh and are the revilement of all men to this yom.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you.

15 For though you have ten thousand Torah teachers in The Moshiach, yet you do not have many spiritual ahvot: for in Moshiach אנחנו I have begotten you through The Besorah.

16 Therefore I appeal to you be imitators of me.

17 For this cause have I sent to you Timtheous, who is my beloved ben emunah, faithful in אנחנו, who shall bring you into remembrance of my halacha which is in Moshiach, as I teach everywhere in every Yisraelite kehilla.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, if The Master אנחנו wills and will know, not the words of those who are puffed up, but The Power.

20 For the malchut of אנחנו is not in speech only, but in Power.

21 What do you desire? Shall I come to you with a rod of correction, or in ahava and in the ruach of meekness?

5 It is commonly reported that there is fornication among you and the kind of fornication not even mentioned among the pagan goyim, that one should have his abba's isha.

2 And you are boasting in this behavior, instead of mourning, so that he that has done this sin might be removed outside the camp.

3 For I truly, I remain absent in gooff, but present in The Ruach, I have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that has done this sin,

4 In the Name of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, when you are gathered together, with my ruach, with The Power of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, 5 To deliver such a one to s.a.tan for the destruction of the flesh, that his ruach may be saved in the Yom of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

6 Your boasting is not tov. Don't you know that a little chametz leavens the whole lump?

7 Clean out therefore the old chametz, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Moshiach our Pesach was sacrificed for us:

8 So then let us keep the moed, not with old chametz, neither with the chametz of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened matzah of sincerity and emet.

9 I wrote to you in a prior letter not to associate with fornicators and immoral persons:

10 I did not mean with the fornicators out in the olam hazeh, or with the covetous, or swindlers, or with idolaters; since you would literally have to leave the olam hazeh.

11 But now I have written to you not to keep company, or associate, with any man that is called a Yisraelite brother who is a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler; with such a one do not even eat.

12 For what business do I have with judging those that are in the olam hazeh? But you must judge them that are in the Yisraelite kehilla.

13 But those that are in the olam hazeh אֱלֹהֵינוּ judges. Therefore put that wicked person outside the camp yourselves.

- 6 How dare any of you, having a matter against another Yisraelite, go to court before the unsaved and not before a Bet Din of the Yisraelite kidushim?
- 2 Do you not know that the Yisraelite kidushim shall judge the olam hazeh? And if you shall judge the entire olam hazeh, are you unworthy and unable to judge even the smallest matters?
- 3 Don't you know that we shall judge the fallen malachim? How much more things that pertain to this chayim?
- 4 If then you have mishpatim to render in things pertaining to this chayim, why then do you appoint as shophtim in the Bet Din those who are least esteemed in the Yisraelite kehilla.
- 5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you to sit on the Bet Din? Is there not even one that shall be able to judge between Yisraelite brothers?
- 6 But Yisraelite brother goes to court against Yisraelite brother and that before the unbelievers!
- 7 Now therefore you are all already at fault because you go to court one against another. Why do you not rather receive being wronged? Why do you not rather allow yourselves to be cheated?
- 8 No, you do wrong and cheat, even your Yisraelite brothers.
- 9 Know you not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the malchut of אֱלֹהִים ? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals,
- 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall inherit the malchut of אֱלֹהִים.
- 11 And such were some of you: but you are washed, but you are kadosh, but you are declared to be a tzadik in the Name of The Master owfaaz and by The Ruach of our Ahloha.

12 All things are permitted to me, but not all things profit: all things are permitted for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods: but afaz shall destroy both it and them. Now the gooff is not for fornication, but for afaz; and afaz for the gooff.

14 And afaz who has raised up owfaaz, will also raise us by His own Power.

15 Don't you know that your bodies are the members of Moshiach? Shall I then take the members of Moshiach and make them the members of a harlot? Let it never be!

16 What? Know you not that he who is joined to a harlot is one gooff? For the two, says He, shall become basar echad.

17 But he that is joined to afaz becomes one with Him in Ruach.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the gooff; but he that commits fornication sins against his own gooff.

19 Do you not know that your gooff is the Beit HaMikdash of The Ruach Hakodesh which is in you, which you have from afaz and you are not your own?

20 For you are bought with a price: therefore bring tifereth to afaz in your gooff and in your ruach, which are from Him.

7 Now concerning the matters of which you wrote to me: It is tov for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, Let every man have his own isha to be his; and let every isha have an association with only her own husband.

3 Let the husband render to the isha the ahava he owes her: and likewise also the isha to her husband.

4 The isha does not have full authority over her own gooff, without the husband: and likewise also the husband does not have full authority over his own gooff, without the isha.

5 Do not deprive one another, except it be with consent for a short time, that you may give yourselves to fasting and tefillot; and afterwards come together again, so that s.a.tan does not tempt you in the area of sexual self-control.

6 But I speak this as a concession, but it is not part of the Torah.

7 For I would prefer that all men were like myself in purity. But every man has his own proper gift from אֱלֹהִים, one after this manner and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and the widows, It is tov for them if they remain single even as I am now.

9 But if they do not have the self-control, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

10 And to the married I command, yet not I, but אֱלֹהִים, Let not the isha depart from her husband:

11 But if she departs let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband divorce his isha.

12 But to the rest speak I, not אֱלֹהִים: If any Yisraelite brother has an isha that believes not and she is pleased to stay with him, let him not divorce her.

13 And the woman who has a husband that believes not, if he is pleased to stay with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is set apart by the isha and the unbelieving isha is set apart by the husband: otherwise your children would be unclean; but now are they kadosh.

15 But if the unbelieving insists on departing, let him depart. A Yisraelite brother, or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but אֱלֹהִים has called us to have shalom.

16 For who knows, O isha, whether you shall bring salvation to your husband? Or, who knows, O man, whether you shall bring salvation to your isha?

17 But as The Master אֱלֹהִים has distributed a purpose to every man, as אֱלֹהִים has called each one; so let him have his halacha. And this is what I ordain in all the kehellot of Yisrael.

18 Is any man called being brit milah? Let him not become as one not in brit-milah. Is any called in uncircumcision? Let him not be made brit-milah.

19 Brit-milah is nothing and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the Torah of אֱלֹהִים is everything.

20 Let every man remain in the same calling in which he was before he was called to salvation.

21 Were you called being an eved? It matters not: but even though you can be made free, choose rather to serve.

22 For he that was called in אֱלֹהִים, being an eved, is אֱלֹהִים's freeman: likewise also he that was called, being free, is Moshiach's eved.

23 Ye were bought with a price; do not be the avadim of men.

24 Yisraelite brothers, let every man, in whatever station of chayim he was called, remain in it serving אֱלֹהִים.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no Torah commandment from אֱלֹהִים: yet I give my mishpat, as one that has obtained the rachamim of אֱלֹהִים to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is tov due to the present distress and persecutions, I say, that it is tov for a man, or a woman to remain as a virgin.

27 Are you married to an isha? Seek not to be divorced. Are you divorced from an isha? Do not seek an isha.

28 But and if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have pressure in the flesh: but I will spare you more details.

29 But this I say, Yisraelite brothers, the time is short: from now on, even those who have wives should act as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that have gilah, as though they have none; and they that buy, as though they did not possess anything.

31 And they that use the olam hazeh, as not misusing it, for the design of the olam hazeh passes away.

32 But I would have you without worldly cares. He that is unmarried cares for the things that belong to אִיִּשׁוּת, how he may please אֱלֹהִים:

33 But he that is married cares for the things that are of the olam hazeh, how he may please his isha.

34 There is a difference also between an isha and a virgin, or a single. The unmarried woman cares for the things of אִיִּשׁוּת, that she may be kadosh both in goff and in ruach: but she that is married cares for the things of the olam hazeh, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own tov; not to place a restraint on you, but for that which is proper, so that you may serve אֱלֹהִים without distraction.

36 But if any man thinks that he behaves himself improperly toward his maiden, if she is past the marriage age and his need requires marriage, let him do what he desires, he sins not: let them marry.

37 But he that stands steadfast in his lev, having no necessity for marriage, but has power over his own desire and has determined in his lev that he will keep his maiden single, also does well.

38 So then as for ahvot, he that gives her in marriage does well; but he that gives her not in marriage does even better.

39 The isha is married by the Torah as long as her husband lives; but if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she desires; of course, only to those of like emunah.

40 But she is happier if she remains unmarried, in my opinion: and I think also that I have The Ruach of אִיִּיִּי.

8 Now as regarding food offered to idols, we know that we all have da'at. Da'at puffs up, but ahava edifies.

2 And if any man think that he knows anything, he knows nothing yet as he should know.

3 But if any man love אִיִּיִּי, this person is known by Him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of food that is offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the olam hazeh and that there is no other Ahloha but the Echad of Yisrael.

5 For though there are many who are called Ahloha, or master, whether in the shamayim, or on earth, as there are many mighty ones and many masters,

6 But to us there is but One Ahloha, Abba, from whom are all things and we in Him; and One Master-YAH, אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, through whom are all things and through whom we live.

7 However every man does not have that correct da'at: for some with a clear conscience being aware of the idolatrous sacrifice, still eat things offered to idols and their conscience being weak becomes defiled.

8 But food commends us not to אֱלֹהִים: for neither, if we eat this kind of food, are we better in His sight; neither, if we do not eat this kind of food, are we worse in His sight.

9 But beware lest by any means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling-block to those that are weak.

10 For if any believing man sees you who has a emet da'at of אֱלֹהִים sitting to eat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him who is weak be encouraged to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And through your indifference shall the weak Yisraelite brother perish, for whom Moshiach died?

12 But when you sin in this manner against the Yisraelite brothers and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Moshiach Himself.

13 So, if meat causes my Yisraelite brother to stumble, I will eat no meat while the olam hazeh stands, lest I cause my Yisraelite brother to stumble.

9 Am I not a sholiach? Am I not a free man? Have I not seen אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach our Master? Are not you my work in אֱלֹהִים?

2 If I am not a sholiach to others, yet doubtless I am to you: for you are the seal of my sholiach's work in אֱלֹהִים.

3 My answer to them that do examine my credentials is this,

4 Have we not authority to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not authority to travel with a sister isha, or relative, just like the other shlichim and other Yisraelite brothers of The Master אֱלֹהִים and Kefa?

6 Or, is it only Bar-Nava and I alone, that have no authority to stop secular work?

7 What officer, or soldier goes into a war at any time at his own expenses? Who plants a vineyard and eats not of its fruit? Or, who feeds a flock and eats not from the milk of the flock?

8 Do I say these things, as a man would talk? Or, does not the Torah say the same thing also?

9 For it is written in the Torah of Moshe, You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the grain. Is אֱלֹהִים concerned only about the oxen?

10 Or, does He say it for all our sakes? Yes. For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that plows should plow in tikvah; and that he that threshes should thresh in tikvah so that both can be partakers of His tikvah of harvest.

11 If we have sown to you the spiritual things, is it too much if we should reap your material things?

12 If others are partakers of this authority over you, what about us? But we have not used this authority; but we put up with all things, lest we should hinder The Besorah of The Moshiach.

13 Do you not know that those who serve the Kadosh-Place receive their provision from the things of The Set Apart Place? And those who serve at the altar have their share of the offerings from the altar?

14 Even so has אֱלֹהִים ordained that those who proclaim The Besorah should live from The Besorah.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written that these compensations should be done to me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my boasting worthless.

16 For though I proclaim The Besorah, I have nothing to boast about: for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe to me, if I proclaim not The Besorah!

17 For if I do this thing voluntarily, then I have a reward: but if not voluntarily I am entrusted with mere management duties.

18 What is my reward then? Truly that, when I proclaim The Besorah, I may make The Besorah of Moshiach without cost, that I do not abuse my authority in The Besorah.

19 For though I am free from all men, yet have I made myself an eved to all, so that I might gain more beings.

20 And to the Yahudim I became as a Yahudi, that I might gain the Yahudim; to them that are under the Torah, as under the Torah, that I might gain them that are under the Torah;

21 To them that are without Torah, as without Torah, being not without Torah before אִתָּךְ, but guarded by the Torah for The Moshiach, that I might gain them that are without Torah.

22 To the weak I became as one who is weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by any means lead some to salvation.

23 And this I do for the sake of The Besorah that I might be a fellow partaker of it with you.

24 Don't you know that they who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? So when you run, run in such a way that you may obtain it.

25 And every man that competes for the prize controls himself in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible keter; but we an incorruptible one.

26 So I run, not with uncertainty; so I fight, not as one that aimlessly beats the air:

27 But I conquer and subdue my gooff, so that when I have proclaimed to others, I myself should not become a castaway.

10 Moreover, Yisraelite brothers, I would not that you should be ignorant, how that all our ahvot were under the cloud and all passed through the sea;

2 And were all immersed into Moshe in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual food;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they all drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was and is Moshiach.

5 But with many of them אִיִּים was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither let us be idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed and there fell in one yom twenty four thousand.

9 Neither let us test Moshiach, as some of them also tested and were destroyed by serpents.

10 Neither let us murmur, as some of them also murmured and were destroyed by the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written as our warning, upon whom the end of the olam hazeh has come.

12 Therefore let him that thinks he stands take careful watch, lest he fall.

13 There has no trial come upon you but such as is common to all men: but אֱלֹהִים is faithful, who will not allow you to be tested above that which you are able to bear; but will with the trial also make a way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

14 Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; you are the judge of what I say.

16 The kiddish cup of bracha which we bless, is it not the sharing of the dahm of The Moshiach? The matzah which we break, is it not the sharing of the gooff of The Moshiach?

17 For we being many are one lechem and one gooff: for we are all partakers of that lechem echad.

18 Behold Yisrael whose observance is after the flesh: are not those who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What then do I say? That the idol is anything, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is anything?

20 But I say, that the things that the goyim sacrifice, they sacrifice to shedim and not to Ahloha: and I would not that you should have chavurah with shedim.

21 You cannot drink the kiddish cup of אֱלֹהִים and the cup of shedim: you cannot be partakers of אֱלֹהִים's shulchan and the shulchan of shedim.

22 Do we provoke אֱלֹהִים to jealousy? Are we stronger than He is?

23 All things lawful in Torah are permitted for me, but all things are not profitable: all things lawful in Torah are permitted for me, but all things do not build up my emunah.

24 Let no man seek his own interests only, but every man another's well-being and welfare.

25 Whatever is sold in the meat market eat nothing; ask questions about the food for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is The Master אֱלֹהִים's and the fullness of it.

27 If any of them that believes not invites you to a moed and you desire to go; whatever is set before you eat nothing; ask questions about the food for conscience sake.

28 But if any man says to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, do not eat it for his sake that showed it and for conscience sake: for the earth is The Master אֱלֹהִים's and the fullness of it:

29 The conscience, of which I speak is not yours, but others: for why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience?

30 For if I by unmerited chesed be a partaker, why should evil be spoken against me for that thing for which I give hodu?

31 Therefore whether you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים.

32 Give no offence, neither to the Yahudim, nor to the goyim, nor to the Yisraelite kehilla of אֱלֹהִים:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own advantage, but the advantage of many, that they may be saved.

11 Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Moshiach.

2 Now I praise you, Yisraelite brothers, that you remember me in all things and keep the chukim and mishpatim, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you to know, that the head of every man is Moshiach; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Moshiach is אֱלֹהִים.

4 Every man making tefillot, or prophesying, having his head veiled and hanging down, dishonors his head.

5 But every woman that makes tefillot, or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head: for that is the same as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman does not have a head covering, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn, or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to veil his head, because he is the image and tifereth of אֱלֹהִים: but the woman is the tifereth of the man.

8 For the man is not from the woman; but the woman from the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have a symbol of authority on her head because of the unclean fallen shedim.

11 Nevertheless neither is the man independent of the woman, neither the woman independent of the man, in אףאז.

12 For as the woman is from the man, even so is the man also through the woman; but all things are from אףאז.

13 Shophet for yourselves: is it proper that a woman prays to אףאז uncovered?

14 Does not nature itself teach you, that, if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him?

15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a tifereth for her: for her hair is given to her as a covering.

16 But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom of contention, neither the kehellot of אףאז.

17 Now in declaring this to you I do not commend you, since when you come together you have not made progress but have become worse.

18 For first of all, when you come together in the Yisraelite kehilla, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be controversies and also heresies among you, that those who are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When you come together therefore into one place as Yisrael, do not eat and drink inappropriately on the Yom of Shabbat, The Yom of our Master.

21 For in eating every one takes his own meal first: and one is hungry and another is drunk.

22 What's going on? Don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or, do you despise the Yisraelite kehilla of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and shame those that have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I give tehilla to you for this? I will not give you tehilla.

23 For I have received from אֱלֹהֵינוּ that which also I delivered to you, that The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ the same lyla in which He was betrayed took whole wheat unleavened lechem:

24 And when He had said the bracha, He broke it and said, Take, eat: this is My gooff, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of Me.

25 After the same manner also He took the kiddush cup, after He had eaten, saying, This cup of geulah is the Brit Chadasha in My dahm: this do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.

26 For as often as you eat this whole wheat unleavened lechem and drink this cup, you do show אֱלֹהֵינוּ's death until He returns.

27 Therefore whosoever shall eat this whole wheat unleavened lechem and drink this cup of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, unworthily, shall be guilty of the gooff and dahm of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

28 But let a man examine himself and so let him eat of that whole wheat unleavened lechem and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the gooff of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

30 For this reason many are weak and sickly among you and many are dead.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are disciplined by אֱלֹהֵינוּ, that we should not be condemned with the olam hazeh.

33 Therefore, my Yisraelite brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for the other.

34 And if any man is hungry, let him eat at home; so that when you come together it is not for condemnation. And the rest of the Pesach procedures I will set in order when I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, my Yisraelite brothers, I would not have you ignorant.

2 You know that you were goyim, carried away to and by those dumb idols, even as you were led.

3 Therefore I want you to understand, that no man speaking by The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים calls אֱלֹהִים a curse: and that no man can say that אֱלֹהִים is The Master אֱלֹהִים, but by The Ruach Hakodesh.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Ruach.

5 And there are differences in callings, but the same Master אֱלֹהִים.

6 And there are diversities of powers and manifestations, but it is the same Ahloha who works all and through all.

7 But the manifestation of The Ruach is given to every man to profit himself and all others.

8 For to one is given by The Ruach The Word of chochmah; to another The Word of da'at by the same Ruach;

9 To another emunah by the same Ruach; to another the gifts of healing by the same Ruach;

10 To another the working of nisim; to another prophecy; to another the discerning of the emet Ruach; to another diverse kinds of languages; to another the interpretation of diverse languages:

11 But all these are done by that one and the same Ruach, dividing to every man individually as He will.

12 For as the gooff of Yisrael is one and has many members and all the members of that one gooff, being many, are still one gooff: so also is Moshiach.

13 For by one Ruach are we all immersed into one gooff, whether we be Yahudim, or Greeks, or Arameans, whether we be avadim, or free; and have been all made to drink from The Ruach Echad.

14 For the gooff is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the gooff; is it therefore not of the gooff?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the gooff; is it therefore not of the gooff?

17 If the whole gooff was an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole gooff were for hearing, what part would the smelling come from?

18 But now has Ahloha set the members every one of them in the gooff, as it has pleased Him.

19 And if they were all the same member, where would the gooff be?

20 But now there are indeed many members, yet just one gooff.

21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: nor can the head say to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 No, rather those members of the gooff, which seem to be weakest, are the most necessary:

23 And those members of the gooff, which we think to be less respected, upon these we present greater respect; and our uncomely parts we dress up with greater care.

24 For our nicer looking parts have no need for special attention: but Ahloha has blended the gooff together, having given more abundant respect to the parts that lack respect, or are inferior:

25 That there should be no discord, or division in the gooff; but that the members should have the same ahava one for another.

26 And whether one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members gilah with it.

27 Now you are the gooff of The Moshiach and members individually.

28 And אִתְּכֶם has set some in the Yisraelite kehilla, first shlichim, secondarily neviim, thirdly morim, after that nisim, then gifts of healings, helpers, leaders and diverse languages.

29 Are all shlichim? Are all neviim? Are all morim? Are all workers of nisim?

30 Do all have the gifts of healings? Do all speak with diverse languages? Do all interpret?

31 But seek earnestly the best gifts: and yet I will show you a more excellent halacha.

13 Though I speak with the diverse languages of men and of heavenly malachim, and have not ahava, I am become as sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy and understand all sods and all da'at; and though I have all emunah, so that I could remove mountains and have not ahava, I am nothing.

3 And though I distribute all my material things to feed the poor and give my gooff to boasting, but have not ahava, it profits me nothing.

4 Ahava suffers long and is kind; ahava envies not; ahava does not boast, is not puffed up,

5 Does not behave itself indecently, seeks not its own advantage, is not easily provoked or offended, thinks no evil, stores up no grievances;

6 Has no gilah in Torah-less-ness, but has simcha in the emet;

7 Bears all things, believes all things, has tikvah for all tov things, endures all things.

8 Ahava never fails or comes to an end: but whether there are prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be diverse languages, they shall cease; whether there be da'at, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is Perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly; but then panayim-el-panayim: now I know in part; but then shall I know Him, even as also He has known me.

13 And now abides these three – emunah, tikvah, ahava; but the greatest of these gifts of The Ruach is ahava.

14 Follow after ahava and desire spiritual gifts, but specifically that you may prophesy.

2 For he that speaks in an unknown language speaks not to men, but to Ahloha: for no man understands him; but in The Ruach, he speaks sods.

3 But he that prophesies speaks to men to edification and encouragement and comfort.

4 He that speaks in an unknown language edifies himself; but he that prophesies edifies the Yisraelite kehilla.

5 I would that you all spoke with diverse languages, but rather that you prophesied: for greater is he that prophesies than he that speaks with diverse languages, unless the same one interpret, that the Yisraelite kehilla may receive edifying.

6 Now, Yisraelite brothers, if I come to you speaking with diverse languages, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by da'at, or by prophesying, or by teaching?

7 And even lifeless instruments that give musical sounds, whether flute, or harp, except they give a distinct sound, how shall it be known what is played on the flute, or harp?

8 For if the shofar gives out an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for the battle?

9 So likewise, unless you utter by the tongue words that are easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? For you shall be speaking into the air.

10 There are, undoubtedly, so many kinds of voices and sounds in the olam hazeh and none of them is without significance.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaks a foreigner and he that speaks shall be a foreigner to me.

12 So since, you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek gifts that will allow you to excel in the edifying of the entire Yisraelite kehilla.

13 Therefore let him that speaks in an unknown language make tefillah that he may also be given the interpretation.

14 For if I make tefillah in an unknown language, my Ruach makes tefillah, but my binah is unfruitful.

15 What then shall I do? I will make tefillah with The Ruach and I will make tefillah with binah also: I will sing with The Ruach and I will sing with binah also.

16 Or, else when you shall bless with The Ruach, how shall he that is in a place of not being learned say, Ahmein, when you give hodu, seeing he does not understand what you are saying?

17 For you truly do well to give hodu in The Ruach, but the others are not edified.

18 I thank my Ahloha; I speak with diverse languages more than all of you combined:

19 Yet in the Yisraelite kehilla I had rather speak five words with my binah, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

20 Yisraelite brothers, be not children in binah: but in evil and Torah breaking, that's where you can be children, but in binah be men.

21 In the Torah it is written, With men of other diverse languages and other lips will I speak to this people; and yet for all that will they not hear Me, says The Master אף אף.

22 So diverse languages are for an ot, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serves not for unbelievers, but for those who believe.

23 If therefore the whole Yisraelite kehilla comes together into one place and all speak with diverse languages and there comes in a visitor, or those that are unlearned in the gifts, or even unbelievers, will they not say that you are meshugoyim?

24 But if all prophesy and there comes in a visitor, one that believes not, or one who is unlearned, he will be convinced by all the words and he will be set right by all the words:

25 And the secrets of his lev will be openly revealed; and so falling down on his face he will worship Ahloha and report that Ahloha is truly among you.

26 How is it then, Yisraelite brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a mizmor, has a different doctrine, has a language, has a revelation and has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build up the people of Yisrael.

27 If any man speaks in an unknown language, let two, or at most three take their turns and let someone interpret.

28 But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the Yisraelite kehilla; and let him speak to himself and to His Ahloha.

29 Let the neviim speak two, or three in their turns and let the others discern their words.

30 If anything is simultaneously revealed to another that sits by, let the first hold his silence and not interrupt.

31 For you may all prophesy one by one in your turn, that all may learn and all may be comforted.

32 And the ruachim of the neviim are subject to the neviim.

33 For Ahloha is not the author of confusion, but of shalom, as He is in all kehellot of the Yisraelite kidushim.

34 Let your women keep silent in the kehellot: for it is not permitted for them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also says the Torah.

35 And if they will learn anything, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak out in the Yisraelite kehilla.

36 What? Came The Word of אֱלֹהִים out from you only? Or, came it to you only?

37 If any man thinks himself to be a navi, or a spiritual being, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are in fact from the Torah of אֱלֹהִים.

38 But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 So, Yisraelite brothers, seek to prophesy and also forbid not to speak with diverse languages.

40 Of course let all things be done decently and in order.

15 Moreover, Yisraelite brothers, I declare to you The Besorah which I proclaimed to you, which also you have received and in which you stand;

2 By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I proclaimed to you, unless you have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, how that Moshiach died for our sins according to the Keetvay HaKadosh;

4 And that He was buried and that He rose again the third yom according to the Keetvay HaKadosh:

5 And that He was seen of Kefa, then of the twelve:

6 After that, more than five hundred Yisraelite brothers saw Him at once; of whom a great many remain alive, but some are dead.

7 After that, He was seen by Yaakov; then of all the shlichim.

8 And last of all He was seen by me also, ignorant and imperfectly trained as I was.

9 For I am the least of the shlichim, that am not even fit to be called a sholiach because I persecuted the Yisraelite kehilla of Ahloha.

10 But by the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים today I am what I am: and His unmerited chen that was showered upon me was not in vain; but I labored even more abundantly than them: yet not I, but the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים which was in me.

11 Therefore whether it was I, or they; so we proclaimed and so you believed.

12 Now if Moshiach is proclaimed that He rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then is Moshiach not risen:

14 And if Moshiach has not risen, then is our proclaiming in vain and your emunah is also in vain.

15 Yes and worse than that we are found to be false witnesses of אֱלֹהִים; because we have testified about אֱלֹהִים that He raised up Moshiach: whom He did not raise up, if it be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then Moshiach is not raised:

17 And if Moshiach is not raised, your emunah is in vain; you are still in your sins.

18 Then those also who died with emunah in Moshiach have perished.

19 If for this chayim only we have tikvah in Moshiach, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Moshiach risen from the dead and become The Bikkur of those that died in emunah.

21 For since by man came death, by Man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ahdahm all die, even so in Moshiach shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Moshiach The Bikkur; afterwards they that are Moshiach's at His coming.

24 Then comes the end of the olam hazeh, when He shall have delivered up the malchut to אֱלֹהִים, even Abba; when He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For He must reign, until He has put all enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For He has put all things under His feet. But when He says, all things are put under Him, it is clear that the One who did put all things under Him, Abba Himself, is excluded.

28 And when all things shall be subdued under Him, then shall The Son also Himself be subject to Abba that put all things under Him, so that אֱלֹהִים may be all in all.

29 Otherwise what shall they do who are immersed for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? Why are they then immersed for the dead?

30 And why do we stand in jeopardy every hour?

31 I affirm by my boasting over you that I have in Moshiach אֱלֹהִים our Master, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephsiyah, what advantage is it to me, if the dead rise not? Let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil company corrupts tov manners and habits.

34 Awake to tzedakah and sin not; for some have not the da'at of Ahloha: I speak this to your shame.

35 But someone will say, How are the dead raised up? And with what gooff do they come?

36 You fool, that which you sow is not made alive, except it die:

37 And that which you sow, you sow not the gooff that shall be, but the bare grain, that it may by chance result in wheat, barley, or even some other grain:

38 But Ahloha gives it a gooff as it has pleased Him and to every zera its own gooff.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes and another of birds.

40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies: but the tifereth of the heavenly is one kind and the tifereth of the earthly is another kind.

41 There is one tifereth of the shemesh and another tifereth of the yarayach and another tifereth of the cochavim: for one cochav differs from another cochav in tifereth.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in tifereth: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in Power:

44 It is sown a natural gooff; it is raised a spiritual gooff. There is a natural gooff and there is a spiritual gooff.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ahdahm was made a living being; the last Ahdahm was made a chayim giving Ruach.

46 But the spiritual Ahdahm was not first, but the natural Ahdahm; and afterwards the spiritual One.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second [Son of] Man is The Master אֱלֹהִים from the shamayim.

48 As is the earthy, so also are those that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, so also are those that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy one, we shall also bear the image of the Heavenly One.

50 Now this I say, Yisraelite brothers, that flesh and dahm cannot inherit the malchut of אֱלֹהִים; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I show you a sod; We shall not all die, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last shofar: for the shofar shall sound and the dead shall be raised incorruptible and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is your sting? O Sheol, where is your victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the Torah violations.

57 But hodu be to אֱלֹהִים, who gives us the victory through our Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל Ha Moshiach.

58 Therefore, my beloved Yisraelite brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the mitzvoth and assignments of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, for you must know that your labor is not in vain in Him.

16 Now concerning the collection for the Yisraelite kidushim, as I have given orders to all the Yisraelite kehellot of Galutyah, the same applies to you.

2 On every one of The Shabbats each one of you should set apart the maaser, according to the things that He has prospered you with, so that there be no collections when I come after Shabbat.

3 And when I come, whoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberal gift to Yahrushalayim.

4 And if it is right that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come to you, when I shall pass through Makedonia: for I do pass through Makedonia.

6 And it may be that I will remain and spend the winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey wherever I go.

7 For I will not see you now on the derech; but I trust to stay a while with you, if אֱלֹהֵינוּ permits.

8 But I will stay at Ephsiyah until Shavuot.

9 For a great and effective door has opened to me, but there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timtheous comes, see that he may be with you without worry: for he works the mitzvoth of The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but send him forth in shalom, that he may come to me: for I am waiting for him with my other Yisraelite brothers.

12 As touching our Yisraelite brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the Yisraelite brothers: but his desire was not to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have a convenient time.

13 Watch, stand fast in the emunah, be like men and be strong.

14 Let all your mitzvot be done with ahava.

15 I appeal to you, Yisraelite brothers, you know the bayit of Tzephanyah, how they are the bikkurim from Achayah and that they have fully dedicated themselves to the service of the Yisraelite kidushim, 16 Submit yourselves to them and to everyone that helps us and labors with us.

17 I am in simcha about the coming of Tzephanyah and Fortunatos and Achaicos: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my ruach and yours: therefore recognize them that are like that.

19 The kehillot of Asia Minor greet you. Aquilas and Priscilla greet you warmly in The Master, with the Yisraelite kehilla that is in their bayit.

20 All the Yisraelite brothers greet you. Greet one another with a kadosh kiss.

21 The salutation of Shaul with my own hand.

22 If any man love not The Master וְיָשׁוּעַ Ha Moshiach, let that become a curse. Maranatha-Mah-Aaron-Atah; - Oh Master come-Boh!

23 The unmerited chen of our Master וְיָשׁוּעַ Ha Moshiach be with you.

24 My ahava be with you all in Moshiach וְיָשׁוּעַ . Ahmein. X

Qorintyah Bet–Second Corinthians

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach of אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach by the will of אֱלֹהִים and Timtheous our brother, to the Yisraelite congregation of אֱלֹהִים which is at Qorintyah, with all the Yisraelite kidushim that are in all Achayah:

2 Unmerited favor be to you and shalom from אֱלֹהִים our Abba and from the Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.

3 Blessed be אֱלֹהִים, even The Abba of our Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach, The Abba of all rachamim and the Eloha of all comfort;

4 Who comforts us in all our tribulation that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by Eloha.

5 For as the sufferings of Moshiach abound in us, so our comforts also abound by Moshiach.

6 And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, being worked out in enduring the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation.

7 And our tikvah for you is steadfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the comforts.

8 For we would not, Yisraelite brothers, have you ignorant of our trouble that came to us in Asia Minor, that we were weighed down, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of our chayim:

9 But we were even ready to die, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in אֱלֹהִים who raises the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death and does deliver: in whom we trust that He will yet deliver us;

11 You also helping together by making tefillah for us that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, hodu may be given to many on our behalf.

12 For our gilah is this, the testimony of our conscience, in simplicity, sincerity and cleanliness, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the unmerited favor of אֱלֹהִים, we have had our behavior in the olam hazeh and even more so to you.

13 For we write no other things to you, than what you read, or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also you have understood us in part, that we are also your gilah, even as you also are our gilah in the Yom of the Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים.

15 And in this confidence I desired and intended to come to you before, that you might have a double benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Makedonia and to come again out of Makedonia to you and by you to be brought on my way toward the province of Yahudah.

17 When I was therefore considering this, did I do so lightly? Or, the things that I plan, do I plan according to the flesh; that with me there should be the confusion of yes, yes and no, no? 18 But as אֱלֹהִים is emet, our word toward you was not even yes and no. 19 For The Son of אֱלֹהִים, מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach, who was proclaimed among you by us, even by me and Sila and Timotheous, was not yes and no, but in Him was yes.

20 For all the promises of אֱלֹהִים in Him are yes and in Him ahmein, to the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים through us.

21 Now He who establishes us with you as echad in Moshiach and has anointed us all, is אֱלֹהִים;

22 Who has also sealed us and given the pledge of the Ruach in our levavot.

23 Moreover I call אָרְאֵז for a record upon my being, that to spare you I decided not to come yet to Qorintyah.

2 Not that we have rule over your emunah, but are helpers of your simcha: for by emunah you stand.

2 But I determined this within myself that I would not come again to you in sadness.

2 For if I make you sorrowful, who is he then that makes me have simcha, but the same ones who are made sorrowful by me?

3 And I wrote this same to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from the ones I ought to gilah with; having confidence in you all, that my simcha is your simcha as well.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of lev I wrote to you with many tears; not that you should be made sad, but that you might know the abundant ahava which I have for you.

5 But if anyone has caused grief, he has not made me sad only, but to a certain degree all of you: therefore the news will not be a shock to you.

6 The rebuke of many persons is sufficient for such a man.

7 So that from now on you should forgive him and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow.

8 Therefore I appeal to you that you would confirm your ahava toward him.

9 For that is why I wrote to you, that I might know by your words to me, whether you are obedient in all things.

10 To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also: for anything I have forgiven, to whomever I forgave it, it is for your sakes that I forgave it in the presence of The Moshiach;

11 Lest s.a.tan should get an advantage over us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to proclaim The Besorah of Moshiach and a door was opened to me by אֱלֹהִים, 13 I had no rest in my ruach, because I did not find Teitus my Yisraelite brother: therefore I left them and I went from there into Makedonia.

14 Now thanks be to אֱלֹהִים, who always causes us to triumph in The Moshiach and makes manifest the fragrance of His chochmah through us in every place.

15 For we are to אֱלֹהִים a sweet fragrance of Moshiach, in them that are being saved and in them that are perishing:

16 To the one we are the fragrance of death to death; and to the other the fragrance of chayim to chayim. And who is worthy for these things?

17 For we are not as many, who corrupt The Word of אֱלֹהִים: but as men of sincerity, according to the emet, in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, we speak through Moshiach.

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? Or, do we need, as some others, letters of recommendation to you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 You are our letter written on our levavot, known and read by all men:

3 For you are known to be the letter of The Moshiach served by us, written not with ink, but with the Ruach of the living Eloha; not in tablets of stone, but on fleshy tablets of the living lev.

4 And this is the trust we have through Moshiach towards אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

5 Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to think anything of ourselves; but our sufficiency is from אֱלֹהֵינוּ;

6 Who also has made us worthy avadim of the Brit Chadasha; not of the letter, but of the Ruach: for the letter kills, but the Ruach gives chayim.

7 But if the administration of death, written and engraved in stones, was full of so much tifereth, that b'nai Yisrael could not behold the face of Moshe for the tifereth of his countenance; which tifereth was not lasting:

8 Why then should not the administration of the Ruach be with even more tifereth?

9 For if the administration of condemnation was with tifereth, much more does the administration of tzedakah exceed in tifereth.

10 For even that which was made in tifereth had no tifereth in this respect, by reason of the tifereth that exceeds it.

11 For if that which was not lasting was with tifereth, how much more that which remains is full of tifereth.

12 Seeing then that we have such tikvah, we speak and conduct ourselves bravely:

13 And not as Moshe, who put a veil over his face that b'nai Yisrael should not look on the tifereth that was not lasting:

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this yom there remains the same veil not taken away in the reading of the Tanach; which veil is removed by Moshiach.

15 But even to this yom, when Torah is read, the veil is upon their lev.

16 Nevertheless, whenever a man makes teshuvah to the Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ, the veil shall be taken away by the Ruach Hakodesh.

17 Now the Master אֱלֹהִים is that same Ruach: and where the Ruach of the Master אֱלֹהִים is, there is freedom.

18 But we all, with an open face seeing ourselves in a mirror see the tifereth of the Master אֱלֹהִים and are changed into the same likeness from tifereth to tifereth, even by the Ruach of the Master אֱלֹהִים.

4 Therefore we are not weary of this service, just as we are not weary of the rachamim we have received and so we don't lose lev;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of shame, not practicing cunning, nor handling The Word of אֱלֹהִים deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the emet commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of Eloha.

3 But if our Besorah is hid, it is hid to them that are lost and perishing:

4 In whom the sar-ruler of this olam has blinded the minds of those who believe not, lest The Light of the tifereth filled Besorah of Moshiach, who is the image and likeness of אֱלֹהִים, should shine on them.

5 For we proclaim not ourselves, but The Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל the Master; and ourselves your avadim for מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל's sake.

6 For אֱלֹהִים, who commanded The Light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our levavot, to give The Light of the chochmah of the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים in the face of מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל Ha Moshiach.

7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be from אֱלֹהִים and not from us.

8 We are distressed on every side, yet not overwhelmed; we are perplexed, but not conquered;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in our bodies the death of the Master owfayz, so that the chayim also of owfayz might be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we who live are always delivered to death for owfayz's sake, that the chayim also of owfayz might be made manifest in our mortal bodies.

12 So then death is close to us, but chayim is in you.

13 We all have the same Ruach of emunah, as it is written, I believed and therefore have I spoken; we also believe and therefore we also speak;

14 Knowing that He who raised up the Master owfayz shall raise us up also by owfayz and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes that the abundant unmerited favor might through the hodu of many overflow to the tifereth of ayayz.

16 For this reason we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed yom by yom.

17 For our light and tiny afflictions, which is just for a moment, prepares for us a far greater and limitless tifereth, le-olam-va-ed;

18 We look not and gilah not at the things, that are seen, but at the things that are not seen: for the things that are seen are temporal; but the things that are not seen are le-olam-va-ed.

5 For we know that if our earthly bayit of this tent were destroyed, we still have a building of Eloha, a bayit not made with hands, eternal in the shamayim.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our bayit, which is from the shamayim:

3 So that then, unlike now, we will not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tent do groan, because of its weight: not because we are willing to leave it, but rather to add to it and put on the other body, so that mortality might be swallowed by chayim.

5 Now He that has prepared us for the same purpose is Eloha, who also has given to us the pledge of His Ruach.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from אֱלֹהִים:

7 For we have our halacha by emunah, not by sight:

8 This is why we are confident, I say, willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with אֱלֹהִים.

9 Therefore we labor, that, whether present, or absent from home, we may be pleasing to Him.

10 For we must all appear before the bema seat of Moshiach; that every one may receive the things done with his body, according to what he has done, whether it be tov, or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the fear of אֱלֹהִים, we persuade and win men; so that we are understood by אֱלֹהִים; and I trust also by you in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again to you, but we give you an occasion to boast about us, that you may have something to answer them who take pride in appearance and not in lev.

13 For if we are wrong, we answer to Eloha: or if we are tzadikim, it is for your sake.

14 For the ahava of Moshiach compels us; because we have judged this to be emet, that if One died for all, then all were dead:

15 And that He died for all, that those who live should not from now on live for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again.

16 And from now on we know no man after the body: yes, though we have known Moshiach after the body, yet now we don't know Him any longer in this way.

17 Therefore if any man is in Moshiach, he is a renewed creation: old things have passed away; behold, all things have become renewed.

18 And all things are of אֱלֹהִים, who has restored us to Himself by מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach and has given to us the service of restoration and renewal;

19 Definitely then אֱלֹהִים was in Moshiach, restoring the olam to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them; and has committed to us The Word of restoration.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for The Moshiach, as though Eloha is asking you through us: we beg you on Moshiach's behalf, be restored to אֱלֹהִים.

21 For He has made Him to be the sin sacrifice for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the tzedakah of אֱלֹהִים in Him.

6 We then, as workers together with Him, appeal to you also that you receive not the unmerited favor of אֱלֹהִים in vain.

2 For He said, I have heard you in an accepted time and in the yom of salvation have I helped you: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the yom of salvation.

3 Giving no offence in anything that the service of restoration is not blamed:

4But in all things showing ourselves to be the avadim of Eloha, in much patience, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,

5 In scourgings, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in vigils, in fastings;

6 In clean Torah living, in da'at, in longsuffering, in chesed, in the Ruach Hakodesh, in sincere ahava,

7 In The Word of emet, in the power of Eloha, in the armor of tzedakah on the right hand and on the left,

8 In honor and dishonor, in evil report and tov report: as deceivers and yet being emet;

9 In unknown and yet well known; in dying and, behold, we live; in chastening and yet not killed;

10 As sad, yet always in gilah; in poverty, yet making many rich; as having nothing and yet possessing all things.

11 Oy Qorintyahim, we have told you everything, our lev is exposed.

12 You are not constrained by us, but you are restrained by your own levavot.

13 Now repay me the same way; I speak to my children; also become increased in your ahava for me.

14 Do not unite together in marriage with unbelievers: for what fellowship has tzedakah with Torah-less-ness? And what mingling has Light with darkness?

15 And what accord, or brit has Moshiach with s.a.tan? Or, what portion has he that believes with an unbeliever?

16 And what union has the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהִים with idols? For you are the Beit HaMikdash of the living Eloha; as אֱלֹהִים has said, I will dwell in them and walk in them; and I will be their Eloha and they shall be My Ami-people.

17 Therefore come out from among them and be kadosh, says the Master אֱלֹהִים and touch not the unclean things; and I will receive you,

18 And will be an Abba to you and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Master אֱלֹהִים the Almighty.

7 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and ruach, perfecting our set-apartness in the fear of אֱלֹהִים.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak this not to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our levavot to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my boasting about you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly in simcha in all our tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Makedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; around us fighting and disputes, within were fears and pressure.

6 Nevertheless Eloha, that comforts those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Teitus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, when he told us of your longing desire, your mourning, your zeal towards me; so that I had even more simcha.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it before: for I perceive that the same letter has made you sad, though it was only for a little while.

9 Now I have gilah, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed leading you to full teshuvah: for you were made sorry according to the things of אֱלֹהִים, that you might not be damaged by us in any way.

10 For sorrow according to the things of אֱלֹהִים leads to teshuvah and to salvation that never needs to be repented of: but the sorrow of the olam hazeh works death.

11 For look; the very thing that was distressing you, that you sorrowed over according to the things of אֱלֹהִים, that has resulted from your great effort, yes in your apology, yes in your anger over your sin, yes in your fear of Eloha, yes in your ahava, desire, zeal and righting of all wrongs! In all things you have proven yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 So, although I wrote to you, I did not write for the cause of him who had done the wrong, nor for the cause of the one that suffered the wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of Eloha might appear to be evident to you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes and exceedingly with even more simcha because of the simcha of Teitus, because his ruach was refreshed by all of you.

14 For if I boasted anything to him about you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in emet, even so our boasting, which I made before Teitus, was truthful.

15 And his deep ahava is more abundant toward you, while he remembers your obedience, how with respect and awe you received him.

16 I gilah therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

8 Moreover, Yisraelite brothers, we want you to know the unmerited favor of אִיִּצְחָק bestowed on the Yisraelite congregations of Makedonia;

2 How that even in great trial of affliction, the plenty of their simcha despite their deep poverty overflowed into their rich liberality.

3 For to their credit and power, yes I bear witness, that even beyond their ability they were willing to give of themselves;

4 Begging us with much urgency that we would receive the gift, so they could take part in the service of this mitzvah to the Yisraelite kidushim.

5 And this they did, not only as we expected, but first they gave themselves to אִתָּנוּ and then to us by the will of אִתָּנוּ.

6 So that we desired Teitus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish with you the same unmerited favor as well.

7 Therefore, as you excel in all things, in emunah and clean speech and in Torah da'at and in all diligence and in your ahava for us, see that you excel in the unmerited favor of giving also.

8 I speak not by Torah commandment, but about the sincerity of others, to prove the sincerity of your ahava.

9 For you know the unmerited favor of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, that, though He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, that through His poverty you might be made spiritually rich.

10 And with this background I give my advice: for this is for your advantage, who have begun before in your own desire about a year ago, to now do.

11 Now therefore perform the actual mitzvah; that as there was a readiness to perform the mitzvah, so there may be a performance of it also from that which you have.

12 For if there is a willing mind, then every man can give according to what a man has and not according to what he has not and then his gift is acceptable.

13 This advice is not intended to relieve other men, for you to be burdened:

14 But that there may be equality, that now at this time your plenty may be a supply for their needs, so that their plenty also may be a supply for your needs: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing extra; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But hodu be to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, who put the same care for you into the lev of Teitus.

17 For indeed he accepted our appeal; but being more eager to receive it, on his own accord he went to see you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose tehilla is in The Besorah throughout all the Yisraelite congregations;

19 And not only that, but he was also chosen by the Yisraelite congregations to travel with us with this financial relief, which is administered by us to the tifereth of the same Master and to also encourage you to do likewise:

20 We are therefore careful in the collection and distribution, that no man should blame us in this plenty that is administered by us:

21 For we are careful to do the honest things, not only in the sight of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, because of the great trust which he has in you.

23 If anyone asks about Teitus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or if anyone asks about our Yisraelite brothers, they are the shlichim of the Yisraelite congregations and the very tifereth of Moshiach.

24 Therefore show them and all the Yisraelite congregations, the proof of your ahava and of our boasting on your behalf, by the performance of your intentions.

9 For as touching the service to the Yisraelite kidushim, it is not necessary for me to write to you:

2 For I know the eagerness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Makedonia, that Achayah was ready to give a year ago; and your zeal has provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent the Yisraelite brothers to you, lest our boasting of you should be worthless in this matter; that, as I said, you should be ready:

4 Perhaps if some from Makedonia come with me and find you unprepared (we speak, not you) you would then be ashamed about our confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to ask the Yisraelite brothers, that they would go before me to you and make up beforehand your gift, about which you gave notice before, that the gift might be ready, as a bracha for you and not as an act of extortion.

6 But this I say, He who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposed in his lev, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for Eloha loves a cheerful giver.

8 And Eloha is able to make all unmerited favor abound towards you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every tov mitzvah:

9 As it is written, He has dispersed liberally; He has given to the poor: His tzedakah remains le-olam-va-ed.

10 Now He that gives zera to the sower including lechem for food, shall supply and multiply your zera sown and increase the fruits of your tzedakah;

11 Being enriched in every way in all liberality, which causes us to give and perfect our hodu to Eloha.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the needs of the Yisraelite kidushim, but it causes an overflowing of hodu by many Yisraelites to Eloha;

13 Through the actual evidence of this service they give tifereth to אֱלֹהִים for your confession and subjection to The Besorah of Moshiach and for your liberal distribution to them and to all men;

14 And by their tefillot for you, who long after you for the great unmerited favor of אֱלֹהִים in you.

15 Hodu also be to אֱלֹהִים for His incomparable gift.

10 Now I Shaul myself appeal to you by the meekness and gentleness of Moshiach, who in presence am lowly when among you, but being absent still have confidence towards you:

2 But I appeal to you, not to be troubled when I arrive, since I think I will have to be bold and brave against some, who think that we walk according to the flesh.

3 For though we are walking in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh:

4 For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through our Eloha to the pulling down of strongholds;

5 Casting down imaginations and every high human matter that exalts itself against the da'at of אֱלֹהִים, taking captive every thought to be obedient to Moshiach;

6 And we are ready to revenge all disobedience among some, when your obedience is complete.

7 Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trusts that he belongs to Moshiach, let him rethink and understand, that, as he belongs to Moshiach, even so we belong to Moshiach.

8 For even if I should boast more of our authority, that אֱלֹהִים has given us, not for your destruction but for your edification, I should not be ashamed:

9 I am hesitant so that I may not terrify you by my letter.

10 For his letters, they say, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak and his speech is weak.

11 Let the ones who think this understand, that, such as we are in word by letter when we are absent, so will we be also in action when we are present.

12 For we dare not count, or compare ourselves with those who are proud of, or who commend, themselves, for they measure themselves by themselves and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things outside our limits, but according to the limits of the authority that אֱלֹהִים has distributed to us, the limit needed to reach out even to you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our limits of authority, as if we did not ever reach you: for we have come all the way to you also by proclaiming The Besorah of Moshiach:

15 Not boasting of things beyond our limited measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having tikvah, that as your emunah is increased, we also shall be increased by you, according to our limits among you,

16 And so we shall proclaim The Besorah in the regions beyond you, so as not to boast in another man's limited authority, or what others have accomplished.

17 But he that boasts, let him boast about אֱלֹהִים.

18 For not he that praises himself is approved, but whom the Master אֱלֹהִים praises.

11 I would that you could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed you are bearing with me.

2 For I am zealous over you with the zeal of אֱלֹהִים: for I have given you in marriage to one Husband, that I may present you as an innocent virgin to Moshiach.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Chavah through his tricks, so your minds should also be corrupted away from the simplicity that is in Moshiach.

4 For when someone comes and proclaims another רואי ארז, whom we have not proclaimed, or if you receive another ruach, which you have not before received, or another Besorah, which you have not before accepted, sometimes you still put up with it!

5 For I suppose I am not inferior to the most distinguished shlichim.

6 But though I may be unskilled in speech, yet not in da'at; for we have been fully transparent and open among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I have proclaimed to you The Besorah of ארז without pay?

8 I took from other Yisraelite congregations, taking some assistance from them, to do you tov service.

9 And when I was present with you and was in lack, I was a burden to no man: for that which was lacking for me the Yisraelite brothers who came from Makedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you and so will I continue to keep myself.

10 As the emet of Moshiach is in me, no man shall stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achayah.

11 Why? Because I don't love you? ארז knows I do.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off any opportunity from those who desire opportunity; that in whatever they boast, they may not be found equal to us.

13 For such are false shlichim, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the shlichim of The Moshiach.

14 And no marvel; for s.a.tan himself is transformed into a malach of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if s.a.tan's avadim also become transformed into the avadim of tzedakah; whose end shall be according to their deeds.

16 I say again, Let no man think me to be a fool; if otherwise, yet still as a fool then receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak here, I speak it not according to אִי אִי, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.

19 For you listen to and put up with fools, despite you yourselves being wise.

20 For you allow them to dominate you, even if a man brings you into bondage, or if a man devours you, or if a man takes from you, or if a man exalts himself, or if a man hits you in the face.

21 I speak this as concerning reproach, as though we have been weak. But in things that others are bold – I speak foolishly – I am bold also.

22 Are they Ivrim? So am I. Are they Yisraelites? So am I. Are they the zera of Avraham? So am I!

23 Are they avadim of Moshiach? – I speak as a fool – I am even more than them; in labors more abundant, in beatings above my limit, in prison more frequently, in near-death experiences more often.

24 From the unbelieving Yahudim five times I received thirty-nine stripes.

25 Three times was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a lyla and a yom I have been in the deep;

26 In many journeys, often, in perils of mayim, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false so called brothers;

27 In toils and hardships, in making tefillot often, in hunger and thirst, in much fasting, in cold and in nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are outside attacks and pressures, that which comes upon me daily, the care and well being of all the Yisraelite congregations.

29 Who is sick, that I do not feel their pain? Who stumbles in their halacha and does not have my inward sympathy?

30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my own sufferings and weaknesses.

31 The Eloha and Abba of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, who is blessed le-olam-va-ed, knows that I do not lie.

32 In Dameshek the governor under Aretas the melech guarded the city of Dameshek with a guard, who desired to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall and escaped from his hands.

12 To boast is indeed useless for me. I prefer to relate visions and revelations of אֱלֹהֵינוּ .

2 I knew a man in Moshiach about fourteen years ago – whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: אֱלֹהֵינוּ knows – such a one was caught up to the third shamayim.

3 And I knew such a man – whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: אֱלֹהֵינוּ knows;

4 How he was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 In such a one will I boast: yet about myself I will not boast anymore, except in my weaknesses.

6 For though I would desire to boast more, I shall not be a fool; for I speak the emet: but now I will stop, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears me to be.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations I have received, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a malach of s.a.tan to buffet me, lest I should exalt myself.

8 For this thing I sought אף אף אף three times, that it might depart from me.

9 And He said to me, My unmerited favor is sufficient for you: for My strength is made perfect in your weakness. With great gilah therefore will I rather boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Moshiach may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in my weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Moshiach's sake: for when I am physically weak, then am I spiritually strong.

11 I have become a fool in boasting; you have compelled me: for I should have been commended by you: for in nothing am I behind the most distinguished of the shlichim, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signs of a sholiach were done among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty mitzvoth.

13 For in what manner were you inferior to other Yisraelite congregations, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? Forgive me this wrong!

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek nothing from you but just yourselves: for children should not provide for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very willingly pay my expenses and give all of myself for your beings; yet the more I love you, the less I am loved. 0

16 But so be it, I did not burden you: nevertheless, as a shrewd man, I caught you with your guile.

17 Did I make any financial gain from you, by any of them whom I sent to you?

18 I urged Teitus to go to you and with him I sent a brother. Did Teitus make a gain of you? Did not we have the same Ruach-led halacha? Was not our halacha in the same steps?

19 Again, do you think that we still need to keep defending and apologizing to you? We speak before אף אף in The Moshiach: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for you to be built up.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you the way I would like and that I shall act among you as you would not like: lest there be strife, jealousy, anger, contention, slander, gossip, boasting and tumults:

21 And perhaps, when I come again, my Eloha will humble me, as I shall bewail many who have sinned already and have not made teshuvah of the uncleanness and fornication and indecency that they have committed.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two, or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before and say again before I come, as if I were present, as on my second visit; I write to those who keep sinning until now and have not made teshuvah and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare, though I am absent now:

3 Since you seek a proof of Moshiach speaking through me, who has never been powerless among you, but powerful among you:

4 For though He was impaled through weakness, yet He lives by the power of אֱלֹהִים. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of אֱלֹהִים towards you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether you be in the emunah; test yourselves. Don't you know yourself, that אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach is in you, unless you are rejects?

6 But I trust that you shall know that we are not rejected.

7 Now I make tefillah to אֱלֹהִים that you do no evil; not so that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we may appear to be rejects before you.

8 For we can do nothing against the emet, but for the emet.

9 For we are in simcha, when we are weak and you are strong: and this also we wish, even your mature perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use harshness, according to the power, that אֱלֹהִים has given to me for your edification and not destruction.

11 Finally, Yisraelite brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of tov comfort, be echad, live in shalom; and the Eloha of ahava and shalom shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with a kadosh kiss.

13 All the Yisraelite kidushim greet you.

14 The unmerited favor of the Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach, the ahava of אֱלֹהִים and the chavurah of the Ruach Hakodesh, be with you all. Ahmein. X

Galatians-Galutyah

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach, not of men, neither by man, but by אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach and Abba אֱבָרָה, who raised Him from the dead;

2 And all the Yisraelite brothers, who are with me, to the Yisraelite kehellot of Galutyah:

3 Unmerited chen to you and shalom from Abba אֱבָרָה and from our Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach,

4 Who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from the evil olam hazeh, according to the will of אֱבָרָה our Abba:

5 To whom be tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

6 I am shocked that you are so soon removed from Him that called you to the unmerited chen of Moshiach to another version of The Besorah:

7 Which is not another; but there are some that trouble you and do pervert The Besorah of Moshiach.

8 But though we, or a malach from the shamayim, proclaim any other Besorah to you than that which we have proclaimed to you, let him be cursed.

9 As we said before, so I repeat, if any man proclaims any other Besorah to you than the one you have received, let him be cursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or אֱנִי ? Or, do I seek to please men? For if I still sought to please men, I should not be the eved of Moshiach.

11 But I certify to you, my Yisraelite brothers, that The Besorah, which was proclaimed by me, is not received from man.

12 For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it from men, but through the revelation of אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.

13 For you have heard of my former halacha in the past in Judaism, how that I intensely and continually persecuted the Yisraelite kehellot of אֱלֹהִים and tried to destroy them:

14 And I progressed in Judaism above many of my equals in my own nation; above all I was especially zealous of the teachings of my ahvot.

15 But when it pleased אֱלֹהִים, who chose me from my birth and called me by His unmerited chen,

16 To reveal His Son in me, that I might proclaim Him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and dahm:

17 Neither did I go to Yahrushalayim to them who were shlichim before me; but I went into Arabia and returned again to Dameshek.

18 Then after three years I went up to Yahrushalayim to see Kefa and stayed with him fifteen yamim.

19 But the other shlichim I did not see, other than Yaakov The Master's brother.

20 Now the things that I write to you, behold, before אֱלֹהִים, I do not lie.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Aram and Cilikia;

22 And was not known personally by sight by any of the Yisraelite kehellot in the province of Yahudah who were in Moshiach:

23 But they had heard only, that he who had persecuted us in times past now proclaims the emunah that he once destroyed.

24 And they esteemed אֱלֹהִים because of me.

2 Then fourteen years after that I went up again to Yahrushalayim with Bar-Nava and took Teitus with me also.

2 And I went up by sod-revelation and communicated to them concerning The Besorah that I proclaim among the goyim, but privately to them who were of tov reputation, lest by any means I should labor, or had labored, in vain.

3 But neither Teitus, who was with me, being an Aramean, was compelled to be made brit-milah immediately:

4 And because of false Yisraelite brothers who sneaked in and who came in to secretly spy out our liberty that we have in The Moshiach $\omega\omega\text{f}\text{אז}$, that they might bring us into avdooth:

5 To whom we gave no place by yielding in submission to them, no, not even for an hour; that the emet of The Besorah might remain among you.

6 But of those who were considered to be somewhat important-whatever they were, it makes no difference to me: $\text{אז}\text{אז}$ accepts no man's person – for those who seemed to be somewhat important added nothing additional, or new to me:

7 But on the contrary, when they saw that The Besorah of the akrobustia was committed to me, as was The Besorah of the brit-milah to Kefa;

8 For He that worked vigorously in Kefa for his calling as a sholiach to the brit-milah, the same One was mighty in me toward the goyim:

9 And when Yaakov, Kefa and Yochanan, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the unmerited chen that was given to me, they gave to me and Bar-Nava the right hand of chavurah; that we should go to the goyim and they to the brit-milah.

10 Only they desired that we should remember the poor; the same mitzvah which I also was eager to do.

11 But when Kefa had come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face because he was at fault.

12 For before certain men came from Yaakov, he did eat with the peoples: but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them that were from the Yahudim in Yahrushalayim.

13 And the other Yahudim joined with him in his hypocrisy; so that even Bar-Nava was led astray with their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the emet of The Besorah, I said to Kefa in front of them all, If you, being a Yahudi in The Ohr, live like the Arameans in the darkness, and not as do the Yahudim, why do you compel the peoples in darkness to live as do the Yahudim in The Ohr?

15 For we who are from the Yahudim by nature, are not from the peoples; the sinners, 16 Knowing that a man is not ever declared right by the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah, but by the full emunah in אֱמוּנָה Ha Moshiach; even we who have believed in אֱמוּנָה Ha Moshiach, that we might be declared tzadik by the full emunah in Moshiach and not by the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah: for by limited Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah shall no flesh can ever be declared tzadik.

17 But if, while we seek to be declared tzadik by Moshiach, we ourselves also are found to be sinners, is therefore Moshiach now an Eved of the sin in our lives? Let it never be!

18 For if I build again the things that I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I died by the hands of Torah that I might live to אֱמוּנָה .

20 I am impaled with Moshiach: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Moshiach lives in me: and the chayim which I now live in the flesh I live by the emunah of The Son of אֱלֹהִים, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים: for if becoming a tzadik came by the limited Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah, then Moshiach has died in vain.

3 O foolish Galutyah people, who has put you under a spell, that you should not obey the emet, since אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach has been clearly set forth, before your eyes as impaled among you?

2 This only would I learn from you: Did you receive The Ruach Hakodesh by the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah, or by your full obedience to emunah?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun your halacha in The Ruach Hakodesh, are you now made perfect by the flesh and its settling for Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah?

4 Have you suffered so many things for nothing? If it is yet for nothing.

5 He that supplies you with The Ruach Hakodesh and works great nisim among you, does He do it by the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah, or by your hearing and emunah?

6 Even as Avraham believed אֱלֹהִים and it was counted to him for tzedakah.

7 Know therefore that those who are of the emunah, the same are b'nai Avraham.

8 And the Katuv, foreseeing that אֱלֹהִים would justify the heathen through emunah, proclaimed before The Besorah to Avraham, saying, In you shall all goyim be blessed-mixed.

9 So then they that are of emunah are blessed with faithful believing Avraham.

10 For as many as are followers of the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continues not in all the things that are written in the Scroll of The Torah to do them.

11 But that no man is declared a tzadik by the limited Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, is evident: for, the tzadik shall live by the full emunah.

12 And the Torah is not made by man's emunah: but, the man that does all that is written in it, shall also live in them.

13 Moshiach has redeemed us from the curse of the Torah, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangs on an eytz:

14 That the bracha upon Avraham might come upon the goyim through אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach; that we might receive the promise of The Ruach Hakodesh through emunah.

15 Yisraelite brothers, I speak after the manner of men; Even if a brit is a man's brit, yet still if it is confirmed, no man sets it aside, or adds to it.

16 Now to Avraham and his zera were the promises made. He said not and to your zera, as in many; but as of One and to your Zera, which is Moshiach.

17 And this I say, that the Brit, that was confirmed by אֱלֹהִים through Moshiach, the Torah, that came four hundred and thirty years later, cannot nullify the Avrahamic brit, so that it should make the promise of no effect.

18 For if the inheritance is from the Torah, it is no more by The Word of promise: but אֱלֹהִים gave it to Avraham by promise.

19 What purpose then does the Torah serve? It was added because of transgressions, until the Zera should come to whom the promise was made; and heavenly malachim through the hands of a Mediator ordained it.

20 Now a Mediator does not represent one party, but אֱחָאֵד is Echad.

21 Is the Torah then against the promises of אֱחָאֵד? Let it never be! For if there had been a Torah given that could have given us chayim, then truly tzedakah would have been by the Torah.

22 But the Katuv has concluded all under sin, that the promise by emunah of מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach might be given to them that believe.

23 But before the Netsarim emunah came; the Torah was guiding and guarding us, while we were confined from the emunah about to be revealed.

24 Therefore the Torah was the pathfinder for us going forward to the derech of Moshiach, that by trusting emunah in Him we may be declared tzadik.

25 But after the Netsarim emunah has come we are no longer under schoolmasters.

26 For you are all בְּנֵי אֱחָאֵד by emunah in The Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּח.

27 For as many of you as have been immersed into Moshiach have put on Moshiach.

28 There is neither Yahudi nor Aramean nor Greek, there is neither eved nor free and there is neither male nor female: for you are kol Yisrael echad in The Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּח.

29 And if you are Moshiach's, then are you Avraham's zera, and heirs according to the promise.

4 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from an eved, even though he is master over all of them;

2 But is under guardians and stewards of the bayit until the time that has been set by his abba.

3 Even so, when we were children, we were in avdooth under the elements of the olam hazeh:

4 But when the fullness of the time had come, אֱלֹהִים sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the promises of the Torah,

5 To redeem those who were under the promise of Torah, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

6 And because you are sons, אֱלֹהִים has sent forth The Ruach Hakodesh of His own Son into your levavot, crying, Abba, Abba.

7 So then you are no longer an eved, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of אֱלֹהִים through Moshiach.

8 Back then, when you knew not אֱלֹהִים, you did service to those who by nature are not אֱלֹהִים our Ahloha.

9 But now, after that you have known אֱלֹהִים, or rather are known by אֱלֹהִים, how do you return again back to the weak and poor elementary matters, to which you desire again to be in avdooth?

10 You shomer your own yamim and chodashem and times and years.

11 I am concerned about you, lest I have labored among you for nothing.

12 Yisraelite brothers, put yourself in my place, just as once I put myself in your place. You have not offended me at all.

13 You know how through weakness of the flesh I proclaimed The Besorah to you before.

14 And in my trial that was in my flesh you did not despise, or reject me; but received me as a malach of Ahloha, even as Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵלֹהִים.

15 Where then are the brachot and rachamim you had towards me? For I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and have given them to me.

16 Have I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the emet?

17 They do not desire tov for you, but they desire to dominate you and exclude you from Yisrael that your desire may be to serve them.

18 But it is tov to always desire pleasant things and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, of whom I am again in birth pains until The Moshiach be formed in you again, 20 I desire to be present with you now and to change my tone; but now I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the Miqsat Maaseh Ha-Torah; do you not listen to the entire Torah?

22 For it is written, that Avraham had two sons, the one by a female eved, the other by a free woman.

23 But he who was from the female eved was born after the flesh; but he from the free woman was by promise.

24 Which things are allegories: for these are the two britot; the one from Har Senai, that brings forth avdooth, which is Hagar.

25 For this Hagar is Har Senai in Arabia and corresponds to Yahrushalayim that now exists and is in avdooth with her children.

26 But the Yahrushalayim that is above is free, which is the eema of us all.

27 For it is written, Gilah, you barren that did not bear; break forth and shout for simcha, you that did not have labor: for the barren and deserted one has many more children than she who has had a husband.

28 Now we, Yisraelite brothers, are like Yitzchak was; we are the children of promise.

29 But as it was then, he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after The Ruach Hakodesh, even so, it is now.

30 Nevertheless what does The Katuv tell us to do? Cast out the female eved and her son: for the son of the female eved shall not be heir with the son of the free woman.

31 So then, Yisraelite brothers, we are not children of the female eved, but of the free woman.

5 Stand fast therefore in the liberty in which Moshiach has made us free and be not harnessed again under the yoke of avdooth.

2 Behold, I Shaul say to you, that if you become brit-milah, Moshiach shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is brit-milah, that he is a debtor to do the whole Torah.

4 Moshiach has become of no effect to you, whoever of you are declared to be a tzadik by the Torah; you are fallen from unmerited chen.

5 For we through The Ruach Hakodesh wait for the tikvah of tzedakah by emunah.

6 For in $\sigma\omega\upsilon\acute{\alpha}\nu$ Ha Moshiach neither brit-milah is anything, nor akrobustia; But emunah which works by ahava.

7 You did run well before; who did hinder you that you should not obey the emet?

8 This persuasion comes not of Him that has called you.

9 A little chametz leavens the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through $\acute{\alpha}\rho\iota\sigma\tau\acute{o}\varsigma$, that you will not think any differently: but he that troubles you shall bear his mishpat, whoever he is.

11 And I, Yisraelite brothers, if I yet proclaim brit-milah, why do I suffer persecution? Then is the scandal of the execution stake ceased.

12 I desire that they who trouble you were even cut off.

13 For, Yisraelite brothers, you have been called to liberty; only use not liberty as an occasion for the flesh, but by ahava serve one another.

14 For all the Torah is fulfilled in one word, even in this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

15 But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you are not consumed by each other.

16 This I say then, have your halacha in The Ruach Hakodesh and you shall not fulfill the desires of the flesh.

17 For the flesh craves what is harmful to The Ruach Hakodesh and The Ruach Hakodesh opposes the desires of the flesh: and these two are contrary to one another: so that you cannot do whatever you please.

18 But if The Ruach Hakodesh leads you, you are not under those systems that pervert the Torah.

19 Now the works of the flesh are well known, among which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, indecency

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, quarrels, jealousies, rage, strife, selfish ambition, stubbornness, heresies, 21 Envy, murder, drunkenness, wild indecent parties and all such things: about which I warn you again as I have also done in times past, that those who practice such things as the derech of their chayim shall not inherit the malchut of אִשְׂרָאֵל.

22 But the fruit of The Ruach Hakodesh is ahava, simcha, shalom, patience, chesed, rachamim, trust worthiness, 23 Gentleness, self-control: there is no emet Torah that is against this kind of tov fruit.

24 And they that are Moshiach's have controlled the flesh with its affections and desires.

25 If we live in The Ruach Hakodesh, let us also have our halacha in The Ruach Hakodesh.

26 Let us not desire worthless tifereth, provoking, or ridiculing one another, or envying one another.

6 Yisraelite brothers, if a man is overtaken in a trespass, you who are the spiritual ones restore him in the ruach of gentleness; while guarding yourself, lest you also be tempted.

2 Bear one another's burdens and so complete in practice the Torah of The Moshiach.

3 For if a man thinks himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But let every man examine his own mitzvoth and then shall he have gilah in himself alone and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in The Word share with him that teaches in all tov things.

7 Be not deceived; Ahloha is not mocked: for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap.

8 For he that sows to his flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows into The Ruach Hakodesh shall from The Ruach Hakodesh reap everlasting chayim.

9 And let us not be weary in doing well: for in due season we shall reap, if we do not grow weary.

10 So then, as we have the opportunity, let us do tov to all men, especially to those who are of the household of believing Yisrael.

11 You see how large a letter I have written to you with my own handwriting.

12 Those who desire to make a nice show of your flesh, they compel you to be brit-milah; in order to avoid suffering persecution for the execution stake of Moshiach.

13 For those who are brit-milah do not keep the Torah; but desire to have you become brit-milah, that they may boast over your flesh.

14 But אַף־אָז forbid that I should boast, except in the execution stake of our Master אַף־אָז Ha Moshiach, through whom the olam hazeh is impaled to me and I am impaled to the olam hazeh.

15 For in The Moshiach $\omega\text{f}\text{אז}$ neither brit-milah, nor akrobustia, has strength to save, but only a renewed creation.

16 And as many as have their halacha according to this mishpat, shalom be upon them and rachamim, be upon The Emet Yisrael of $\text{אז}\text{אז}$.

17 From now on let no man trouble me: for I bear in my gooff the marks of The Master $\omega\text{f}\text{אז}$.

18 Yisraelite brothers, the unmerited chen of our Master $\omega\text{f}\text{אז}$ Ha Moshiach be with your ruach. Ahmein. X

Ephesians-Ephsiyah

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul, a sholiach of אָפּוּסְטָאָל Ha Moshiach by the will of אָבְרָהָם, to the Yisraelite kidushim which are at Ephsiyah and to the faithful Yisraelites in Moshiach אָפּוּסְטָאָל:

2 Unmerited chen be to you and shalom, from אָבְרָהָם our Abba and from The Master אָפּוּסְטָאָל Ha Moshiach.

3 Blessed be the Ahloha and Abba of our Master אָפּוּסְטָאָל Ha Moshiach, who has blessed us with all spiritual brachot in the shamayim in Moshiach:

4 Even as He has chosen us in Him before the foundation of the olam, that we should be kadosh and without spot before Him in ahava:

5 Having predestinated us for the adoption of children by אָפּוּסְטָאָל Ha Moshiach to Himself, according to the tov pleasure of His will,

6 To the tehilla of the tifereth of His unmerited chen, by which He has made us accepted in the Beloved.

7 In whom we have geulah through His dahm, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His unmerited chen;

8 Which He has abounded toward us in all chochmah and binah;

9 Having made known to us the sod of His will, according to His tov pleasure which He has purposed in Himself:

10 That in the administration of the fullness of times He might gather together in one all things in Moshiach, both which are in the shamayim and which are on the earth; even in Him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who works all things after the counsel of His own will:

12 That we should be the tehilla of His tifereth, who were the first to trust in The Moshiach.

13 In whom you also trusted, after you heard The Word of emet, The Besorah of your אֱמוּנָה : in whom also, after you believed, were then sealed with The Ruach Hakodesh of promise, 14 Who is the pledge from אֱמוּנָה of our future inheritance until the geulah of the purchased possession, our bodies, to the tehilla of His tifereth.

15 Therefore, after I heard of your emunah in The Master אֱמוּנָה and your ahava to all the Yisraelite kidushim,

16 I do not stop to give hodu for you, making mention of you in my tefillot;

17 That the Ahloha of our Master אֱמוּנָה Ha Moshiach, The Abba of tifereth, may give to you The Ruach of chochmah and revelation in the da'at of Him:

18 So that the eyes of your lev being enlightened; to know what is the tikvah of His calling and what are the riches of the tifereth of His inheritance in the Yisraelite kidushim,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of His Power to us, who believe, according to the working of His mighty Power,

20 Which He worked in Moshiach, when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him as His own right hand in the shamayim,

21 Far above all principality and Power and might and dominion and every name that is named, not only in the olam hazeh, but also in the olam haba:

22 And has put all things under His feet and gave Him to be the head over all things in the Yisraelite kehilla, 23 Which is His gooff, the complete extension of Him who fills all in all.

2 And you has He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 In which in times past you walked according to the course of this olam, according to the sar of the power of the air, the ruach that now operates in Torah-breaking children:

3 Among whom also we all used to have our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of our flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as were others.

4 But אֱלֹהִים, who is rich in rachamim, for His great ahava through which He loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in our sins, has made us alive together with Moshiach – by unmerited chen you are saved –

6 And has raised us up together and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Moshiach מֹשִׁיָּאֵל:

7 That in the olam haba He might show the exceeding riches of His unmerited chen in chesed toward us through Moshiach מֹשִׁיָּאֵל.

8 For by unmerited chen are you saved through emunah; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of אֱלֹהִים:

9 Not by our mitzvoth, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are His masterpiece, recreated in The Moshiach מֹשִׁיָּאֵל to tov mitzvoth, which אֱלֹהִים has ordained beforehand that we should perform as our halacha.

11 Therefore remember, that you being in times past goyim in the flesh, who are called The Uncircumcision by those called the Brit-Milah in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time you were without Moshiach, being excluded, aliens from the Commonwealth of Yisrael, as gerim from the britot of promise, having no tikvah and without Ahloha in the olam hazeh:

13 But now in Moshiach օַּוְיָאָז you who sometimes were far off are made near by the dahm of Moshiach.

14 For He is our shalom, who has made both echad, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in His flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in human dogma; for to make in Himself from the two one renewed man, so making shalom;

16 And that He might reconcile both to אֵלֵינוּ in one gooff by the execution stake, having slain the enmity through it:

17 And came and proclaimed shalom to you who were far off, and to them that were near.

18 For through Him we both have access by one Ruach to Abba.

19 Now therefore you are no more gerim and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the Yisraelite kidushim, forming the household of אֵלֵינוּ ; Beit Yisrael.

20 Beit Yisrael is built upon the foundation of the shlichim and neviim, օַּוְיָאָז Ha Moshiach Himself being the Rosh Pina;

21 In whom all the bayit being joined together grows into a kadosh Beit HaMikdash in אֵלֵינוּ :

22 In whom you also are being built together as the Beit HaMikdash of Ahloha through The Ruach.

3 For this cause I Shaul, am the prisoner of օַּוְיָאָז Ha Moshiach for the goyim,

2 If you have heard of the administration of the unmerited chen of אֵימָנָה which is given to me for you:

3 How that by revelation He made known to me the sod; as I wrote before in few words,

4 So that, when you read this, you may understand my da'at into the sod of The Moshiach;

5 Which in other olamim was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to His kadosh shlichim and neviim by the Ruach;

6 That the goyim should be fellow heirs, united in shalom in the same gooff and partakers of His promise in Moshiach by The Besorah:

7 Of which I was made an eved, according to the gift of the unmerited chen of אֵימָנָה given to me by the working of His Power.

8 To me, who am the least of all Yisraelite kidushim, is this unmerited chen given, that I should proclaim among the goyim the unsearchable riches of Moshiach;

9 And that all men would see what is the purpose of the administration of this sod, which from the beginning of the olam has been hidden in אֵימָנָה, who created all things by אֵימָנָה Ha Moshiach:

10 For the intent that now through the one reunited Yisraelite kehilla, principalities and authorities in the shamayim might learn the manifold chochmah of אֵימָנָה,

11 According to the eternal purpose that He purposed in Moshiach אֵימָנָה our Master:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the emunah in Him.

13 So I desire that you faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your tifereth.

14 For this cause I bow my knees to The Abba of our Master אֵימָנָה Ha Moshiach,

15 Of whom the whole mishpacha in the shamayim and on the earth is named,
16 That He would grant you, according to the riches of His tifereth, to be strengthened with might by His Ruach in your inner man;
17 That Moshiach may dwell in your levavot by emunah; that you, being rooted and grounded in ahava,
18 May be able to comprehend with all the Yisraelite kidushim what is the width and length and depth and height;
19 To know the ahava of Moshiach, which passes human da'at; that you might be filled with all the fullness of אֱלֹהִים.
20 Now to Him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask, or think, according to The Power that is at work in us,
21 To Him be tifereth in the Yisraelite kehilla through Moshiach
Yahusha throughout all olamim, le-olam-va-ed.
Ahmein.

4 I therefore, the prisoner of אֱלֹהִים, beg of you that your halacha is worthy of the rank to which you are called,
2 With all humility and meekness, with patience, bearing with one another in ahava;
3 Being eager to guard the unity of The Ruach in the bond of shalom.
4 There is one gooff and one Ruach, even as you are called in one tikvah of your calling;
5 One Master אֱלֹהִים, one emunah, one mikvah,
6 One Ahloha and Abba of us all, who is above us all and through us all and in you all.
7 But to every one of us is given unmerited chen according to the measure of the gift of The Moshiach.

8 That is why it says, When He ascended up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave spiritual gifts to men.

9 Now that He ascended, what is it but that He also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same One also that ascended far above all the shamayim, that He might fill all things.

11 And He gave some, shlichim; and some, neviim; and some, proclaimers; and some, roehim and morim;

12 For the purpose of perfecting of the Yisraelite kidushim, for the mitzvoth of service, for the rebuilding of the gooff of Moshiach:

13 Until we all come into the unity of national emunah and the full da'at of The Son of אֱלֹהִים, into a mature and perfect man, according to the same measure and the same stature of the fullness that Moshiach Himself has:

14 That we should no longer be children, tossed around by waves and carried away with every wind of teaching, by the tricks of men and human cleverness, used by those who lie in wait to deceive you;

15 But speaking the emet in ahava, that we may progress and grow through Him, who is the Head of kol Yisrael, even The Moshiach:

16 From whom the whole gooff joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the working of every member doing its share, causing growth for the gooff, building itself up in ahava.

17 This I say therefore and testify in אֱלֹהִים, that from now on you conduct your halacha not as other goyim walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having their binah darkened, being alienated from the chayim of Ahloha through the ignorance that is in them because of the blindness of their lev:

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over to indecency, to perform all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But you have not learned your chayim in Moshiach that way;

21 If you have heard about Him and have been taught by Him, as the emet is in $\text{owf}\aleph\aleph$.

22 That you put off concerning the former way of chayim the old man, which is degenerated with deceitful lusts;

23 And be renewed in the ruach of your mind;

24 And that you put on the renewed man, which after Ahloha is recreated in tzedakah and real set apartness.

25 Therefore put away lying and speak every man the emet with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.

26 Be angry, but sin not: let not the shemesh go down upon your wrath:

27 Do not give s.a.tan a chance, or opening.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is tov, that he may have something to give to him that needs.

29 Let no lashon hara proceed out of your mouth, but that, which is tov and useful for edification, that it may impart brachot to the hearers.

30 And grieve not The Ruach Hakodesh of $\aleph\aleph\aleph$, by whom you are sealed for Yom HaGeulah.

31 Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and loud yelling and lashon hara, be put away from you, along with all malice:

32 And be kind towards one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as אֱלֹהִים for Moshiach's sake has already forgiven you.

5 Be therefore followers of אֱלֹהִים, as dear children;

2 And have a halacha of ahava, as Moshiach also has loved us and has given Himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים for a sweet smelling fragrance.

3 But fornication and all uncleanness, or greed for gain, let it not be even once named among you, as is fitting for kidushim in Yisrael;

4 Neither cursing, nor foolish talking, nor insults, not even flattery, since none of these are necessary: but rather the giving of hodu.

5 For this you know, that no fornicator, no unclean person, no covetous man, no one who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the malchut of Moshiach and of אֱלֹהִים.

6 Let no man deceive you with meaningless words: for because of these things comes the wrath of אֱלֹהִים upon the children of disobedience.

7 Be not partakers with them.

8 For you were once darkness, but now are you in The Ohr of אֱלֹהִים: have your halacha as children of Ohr:

9 For the fruits of Ohr are found in chesed and tzedakah and emet;

10 Learn to discern what is acceptable to אֱלֹהִים.

11 And have no chavurah with the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but rather condemn them.

12 For it is a shame to even speak of those things that are done by them in secret.

13 But all things that are under condemnation are made manifest by The Ohr: for whatever is manifested is manifested by Ohr.

14 Therefore He said, Awake you that sleep and arise from the dead and Moshiach shall give you Ohr.

15 See then that your halacha is detailed and alert, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Taking advantage of the time and opportunity you are given because the yamim are evil.

17 Therefore be not unwise, but understand what the will of אֱלֹהִים is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, in which there is excess; but be filled with The Ruach;

19 Speaking to yourselves with the Tehillim and shirim of tehilla and spiritual shirim, singing and making melody in your lev to The Master אֱלֹהִים;

20 Giving hodu always for all things to Abba אֱלֹהִים in the Name of our Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach;

21 Submit yourselves one to another in the fear of אֱלֹהִים.

22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as you would to אֱלֹהִים.

23 For the husband is the head of the isha, even as Moshiach is the Head of the Yisraelite kehilla: and He is the Savior of the gooff.

24 Therefore as the Yisraelite kehilla is subject to Moshiach, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Moshiach also loved the Yisraelite kehilla and gave Himself for it;

26 That He might set it apart and cleanse it with the washing of mayim by The Word, 27 That He might present it to Himself a beautiful Yisraelite kehilla, not having spots, or wrinkles, or any such thing; but that it should be kadosh and without blame.

28 Like this, men should love their wives even as their own bodies. He that loves his isha loves himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as אֱלֹהִים the Yisraelite kehilla:

30 For we are members of His gooff, of His flesh and of His bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his abba and eema and shall be joined to his isha and any two shall be basar-echad.

32 This is a great sod: but I speak concerning The Moshiach and the Yisraelite kehilla.

33 However let every one of you as an individual so love his isha even as himself; and the isha see that she respects her husband.

6 Children, obey your parents in The Master: for this is right before אֱלֹהִים .

2 Honor your abba and eema-which is the first commandment with promise,

3 That it may be well with you and you may live long on the land.

4 Parents, provoke not your children to anger: but bring them up in the Torah and admonitions of The Master.

5 Avadim, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of lev, as to Moshiach;

6 Not with eye-service, as hypocrites; but as the avadim of The Moshiach, doing the will of אֱלֹהִים from the lev;

7 With a tov will doing service for men, as if to אֱלֹהִים and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatever tov thing any man does, the same shall he receive from אֱלֹהִים , whether he be an eved, or free.

9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, refrain from threatening them: knowing that your own Master אֱלֹהִים also is in the shamayim; neither is there any partiality with Him.

10 Finally, my Yisraelite brothers, be strong in אֱלֹהִים and in The Power of His might.

11 Put on the whole armor of Ahloha, that you may be able to stand against the strategies of s.a.tan.

12 Because we wrestle not against flesh and dahm, but against principalities, against authorities, against the rulers of the darkness of this olam, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

13 Therefore take up the whole armor of Ahloha, that you may be able to withstand in the evil yom and having done all, to stand, stand even more.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins wrapped around with emet and having on the breastplate of tzedakah;

15 And your feet fitted with the preparation of The Besorah of shalom;

16 Above all, taking the shield of emunah, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery arrows of the wicked one.

17 And take the helmet of salvation and the sword of The Ruach, which is The Word of אֱלֹהִים:

18 Making tefillot always with all intercession and supplication in The Ruach and watching in The Ruach with all endurance and petitions for all the Yisraelite kidushim;

19 And for me, that words may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the sod of The Besorah, 20 For which I am an envoy in prison: that in prison I may speak boldly, as I should speak.

21 But that you also may know my affairs and how I am doing, Tuchikos, a beloved Yisraelite brother and faithful eved in The Master, shall make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs and that he might comfort your levavot.

23 Shalom be to the Yisraelite brothers and ahava with emunah, from Abba אֲבָאָא and The Master מוֹשִׁיָּאָח Ha Moshiach.

24 Unmerited chen be with all those who love our Master מוֹשִׁיָּאָח Ha Moshiach in sincerity. Ahmein. X

Philippians-Phylypsiyah

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul and Timtheous, the avadim of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, to all the Yisraelite kidushim in Moshiach אֱלֹהֵינוּ who are at Phylypsiyah, with the teaching overseers and shamashim:
- 2 Unmerited chen be to you and shalom, from אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Abba and from The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.
- 3 I give hodu to my Ahloha upon every remembrance of you,
- 4 Always in every one of my tefillot for you I make my request with simcha,
- 5 For your chavurah in The Besorah from the first yom until now;
- 6 Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a tov work in you will complete it until the Yom of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach:
- 7 Even as it is right for me to think this of all of you because I have you in my lev; because both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of The Besorah, you all are partakers of my unmerited chen.
- 8 For אֱלֹהֵינוּ is my witness, how greatly I long after you all with the affections of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.
- 9 And this is my tefillah, that your ahava may abound more and more in chochmah and in all discernment;
- 10 That you may choose and discern the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offence until the Yom of The Moshiach;

11 Being filled with the fruits of tzedakah, which are by אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, to the tifereth and tehilla of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

12 But I desire that you should understand, Yisraelite brothers, that the things that happened to me have turned out for the advancement of The Besorah;

13 So that the reasons for my imprisonment in Moshiach are manifest to all the palace and to Kaiser's court and also in all other places;

14 And many of the Yisraelite brothers in The Master are growing more confident by my imprisonment and are much more bold to speak The Word without fear.

15 Some indeed proclaim Moshiach because of envy and strife; and some also in tov will and ahava:

16 The former proclaim Moshiach for selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking they are adding pressure and stress to my imprisonment:

17 But the latter out of ahava, knowing that I am set for the defense of The Besorah.

18 What then? In every way, whether in pretence, or in emet, Moshiach is proclaimed; and in that I have gilah, yes and will have more gilah.

19 For I know that this shall turn into my deliverance through your tefillot and the gift of The Ruach of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, 20 According to my intense longing and my tikvah, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Moshiach shall be magnified in my gooff, whether it be by chayim, or by my death.

21 For to me to live is The Moshiach and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the gooff, this is the ongoing fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I do not know.

23 For I am torn between two desires, having a desire to depart and to be with Moshiach; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to remain in the gooff is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall stay here for now and continue with you for your progress and simcha in believing;

26 That your gilah may be more abundant in וְיָשׁוּב Ha Moshiach for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your behavior be worthy of The Besorah of Moshiach: that whether I come and see you, or whether I am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one ruach, with one mind excelling as echad for the emunah of The Besorah;

28 And in nothing be terrified by your adversaries: whose personal conduct is the ot of their future destruction, but your conduct speaks of salvation, from וְיָשׁוּב .

29 For to you it is given on Moshiach's behalf, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer for His sake;

30 Having the same trials that you saw in me and now hear to be in me.

- 2 If therefore you have received any encouragement in Moshiach, or any comfort, or ahava, or any chavurah of The Ruach, or any affection, or rachamim,
- 2 Complete my simcha, that you are likeminded, having the same ahava, being in echad accord and in echad mind.
- 3 Let nothing be done through strife, or pride, or conceit; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem the other better than themselves.
- 4 A Yisraelite should look not only on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was and is also in Moshiach משיח:

6 Who, being in the very form of Ahloha, thought it not presumptuous, or blasphemous – that He is the equal of אֵלֵּיִם:

7 But made Himself of no reputation and took upon Himself the form of an eved and was made in the likeness of the sons of men:

8 And being found fashioned as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to death, even the death of the execution stake.

9 Therefore אֵלֵּיִם also has highly exalted Him and given Him The Name which is above every name:

10 That at The Name of משיח every knee should bow, of things in the shamayim and things on earth and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess that משיח Ha Moshiach is The Master אֵלֵּיִם, to the tifereth of Ahloha His Abba.

12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is אֵלֵּיִם who works in you both to will and to do of His tov pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputes:

15 So that you may be the blameless and harmless, sons of אֵלֵּיִם, without spot, in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the olam hazeh;

16 For you are to them The Ohr of chayim, that I may gilah in the Yom of Moshiach, that I have not run randomly, neither labored in vain.

17 Yes and if my dahm is offered in the sacrifice and service for your emunah, I have simcha and gilah with you all.

18 For the same reason also do you simcha and gilah with me.

19 But I trust in The Master וַיֵּשֶׁב to send Timtheous shortly to you, that I also may be of tov comfort, when I know your condition.

20 For I have no others like myself, who will genuinely care for your condition.

21 For all seek their own agendas and not the things that are וַיֵּשֶׁב Ha Moshiach's.

22 But you know his record, that, as a son with an abba, he has served with me in The Besorah.

23 Therefore I plan to send him shortly, as soon as I see how it goes with me.

24 But I trust in וַיֵּשֶׁב that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditos, my Yisraelite brother and chaver in labor and fellow soldier, your sholiach, who also attended to my needs.

26 For he longed for you and was full of heaviness because you had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick even close to death: but וַיֵּשֶׁב had rachamim on him; and not on him only, but on me also, so that I should not have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him to you even more eagerly, so that when you see him again, you may gilah, that I might be less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in The Master with all simcha; and hold him in high regard:

30 Because for the work of Moshiach he was near death, not regarding his chayim, to supply to me what you could not.

3 Finally, my Yisraelite brothers, gilah in our Master. To write the same things to you over and over again, to me is not a bother, but it is safe for you.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the mutilation.

3 For we are the brit-milah, who worship אֱלֹהִים in The Ruach and gilah in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵךְ and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I too could have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks of trusting in the flesh, I could even more so:

5 I was made brit-milah the eighth yom, of the race of Am-Yisrael, of the tribe of Benyamin, an Ivri, son of an Ivri; regarding Torah, a Prush;

6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the Renewed Yisraelite kehilla; regarding the right conduct that is in the Torah, blameless.

7 But what things were once gains for me; I counted lost for Moshiach.

8 Yes doubtless and I count all things to be lost for the better excellence of the chochmah of The Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵךְ my Master: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things and do count them as garbage, that I may gain more of Moshiach,

9 And be found in Him, not having my own tzedakah, which is from the Torah, but that which is through the emunah of Moshiach, the tzedakah that is from אֱלֹהִים by emunah:

10 That I may know Him and The Power of His resurrection and the chavurah of His sufferings, being made conformable even to a death like His;

11 That by any means necessary I might attain to the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained it, or was already perfected: but I follow after, so that I may apprehend the reasons why I was also apprehended by Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵךְ.

13 Yisraelite brothers, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things that are behind me, I reach and strive for those things that are yet before me, 14 I press on toward the goal for the prize of victory of the high calling of אֱלֹהִים in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּח.

15 Let us therefore, as many as are mature, have this mind: and if in anything you think differently, אֱלֹהִים shall reveal even this to you.

16 Nevertheless, in the main issues we have all already attained maturity, so let us have our halacha by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Yisraelite brothers, be imitators together of me and mark those who have that same halacha just as you have us as an example.

18 For many have wrong halacha, of whom I have told you often and now tell you even with weeping, that they are the enemies of the execution stake of Moshiach:

19 Whose end is destruction, whose Ahloha is their belly and whose tifereth is in their shameful conduct, who mind earthly things.

20 For our labor and behavior is from the shamayim; from where we also look and eagerly wait for the return of the Savior, The Master מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach:

21 Who shall change our poor lowly gooff, that it may be refashioned just like His new esteemed gooff, according to His own working by which He is able to subdue all things under His control.

4 Therefore, my Yisraelite brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my simcha and keter, stand fast in The Master, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodia and beseech Suntuche, that they be of the same mind in The Master.

3 And I ask you also, emet chaverim, help those women who labored with me in The Besorah, with Qlemes also and with others of my fellow laborers, whose names are in the Scroll of Chayim.

4 Gilah in owfayz always: and again I say, Gilah.

5 Let your moderation and humility be known to all men. The Master is at hand.

6 Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by tefillah and supplication with hodu let your requests be made known to ayayz.

7 And the shalom of ayayz, which passes all binah, shall keep your levavot and minds through Moshiach owfayz.

8 Finally, Yisraelite brothers, whatever things are emet, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of tov report; if there be any virtue and if there be any tehilla, think on these things.

9 Those things, which you have both learned and received and heard and seen in me, do: and the Ahloha of shalom shall be with you.

10 But I had gilah in ayayz greatly, that now recently your care and concern for me has been revived again; though you were concerned in the past, but you lacked the means.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatever state I am in to be content.

12 I know what it is to be poor and I know what it is to be rich: I have gone through and experienced many things, both to be full and to be hungry, to have plenty and be in want.

13 I have the strength to do all things through Moshiach who strengthens me.

14 Yet you have done well, that you did share during my affliction.

15 Now you in Phylpsiyah should know, that in the beginning of The Besorah in the goyim, when I departed from Makedonia, no Yisraelite kehilla communicated with me regarding giving and receiving assistance, but you alone.

16 For even in Tesloniqyah you sent again and again to meet my needs.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire spiritual fruit that may multiply in your account.

18 But I have all and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditos the things that were sent from you, as an odor of a sweet-smelling sacrifice, acceptable and well pleasing to אָהֲרָן.

19 But my Ahloha shall supply all your needs according to His riches by the tifereth of Moshiach אָהֲרָן.

20 Now to אָהֲרָן our Abba be tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

21 Greet every kadosh one in Moshiach אָהֲרָן.

The Yisraelite brothers who are with me greet you.

22 All the Yisraelite kidushim greet you, most of all those that believe in Kaiser's bayit.

23 The unmerited chen of our Master אָהֲרָן Ha Moshiach be with you all. Ahmein. X

Colossians-Qolesayah

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, a sholiach of אָבָא Ha Moshiach by the will of אָבָא and Timtheous our Yisraelite brother,
- 2 To the Yisraelite kidushim and faithful Yisraelite brothers in Moshiach who are at Qolesayah:
Unmerited chen be to you and shalom, from אָבָא our Abba and The Master אָבָא Ha Moshiach.
- 3 We give hodu to אָבָא The Abba of our Master אָבָא Ha Moshiach, making tefillot always for you,
- 4 Since we heard of your emunah in Moshiach אָבָא and of the ahava which you have to all the Yisraelite kidushim,
- 5 For the tikvah that is laid up for you in the shamayim, of which you heard before in The Word of the emet of The Besorah;
- 6 Which has come to you, as it has in all the olam; and brings forth fruit, as it does also in you, since the yom that you heard of it and knew the unmerited chen of אָבָא in emet:
- 7 As you also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow eved, who is for you also a faithful eved of Moshiach;
- 8 Who also declared to us your ahava in The Ruach.
- 9 For this cause we also, since the yom we heard of it, do not cease to make tefillot for you and to desire that you might be filled with the da'at of His will in all chochmah and spiritual binah;
- 10 That you might have a halacha worthy of The Master fully pleasing, being fruitful in every tov mitzvah and increasing in the da'at of Ahloha;

11 Strengthened with all koach, according to His beautiful Power, to all patience and endurance with simcha;

12 Giving hodu to Abba, who has made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the Yisraelite kidushim in ohr:

13 Who has delivered us from the power of darkness and has translated us into the malchut of His dear Son:

14 In whom we have geulah through His dahm, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible Ahloha, the Bachor of all creation:

16 For by Him were all things created, that are in the shamayim and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether they are thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by Him and for Him:

17 And He is before all things and by Him all things consist.

18 And He is the Head of the gooff, the kehilla of Yisrael: The Beginning, The Bachor from the dead; that in all things He might be the first.

19 For it pleased Abba that in Him should all fullness dwell;

20 And, having made shalom through the dahm of His execution stake, through Him to restore all things to Himself; whether they be things on earth, or things in the shamayim.

21 And you, that were sometimes alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now has He restored.

22 In the gooff of His flesh through death, to present you kadosh and blameless and without reproach in His sight:

23 If you continue in the emunah grounded and settled and be not moved away from the tikvah of

The Besorah, about which you have heard and which was proclaimed to every creature that is under the shamayim; by which I Shaul have been made an eved;

24 Who now have simcha in my sufferings for you, that now fills up that which is lacking in the afflictions of The Moshiach in my own flesh for His gooff's sake, which is the kehilla of Yisrael:

25 Of which I am made an eved, according to the administration of Ahloha's gift, which is given to me for you, to fulfill The Word of אִתְּךָ;

26 Even the sod that has been hidden from olamim and from generations, but now is revealed to His Yisraelite kidushim:

27 To whom אִתְּךָ would make known what are the riches of the tifereth of this sod among all the goyim; which is Moshiach in you, the tikvah of tifereth:

28 Whom we proclaim, warning every man and teaching every man in all chochmah; that we may present every man mature in Moshiach אִתְּךָ:

29 For which I also labor, striving according to His working, which works in me with His Power.

2 For I want you to know what a great struggle I have for you and for those at Laodikeia and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their levavot might be in full shalom, being knit together in ahava, to all the riches of the full assurance of binah, to the acknowledgement of the sod of Abba אִתְּךָ and of The Moshiach;

3 In whom are hidden all the treasures of chochmah and da'at.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in The Ruach, having simcha and beholding your orderliness and the firmness of your emunah in Moshiach.

6 As you have therefore received Moshiach אֱלֹהֵינוּ The Master, so have your halacha in Him:

7 Rooted and built up in Him, established in the emunah, as you have been taught, abounding in the emunah with hodu.

8 Beware lest any man devour you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the traditions of men, after the elementary matters of the olam hazeh and not after Moshiach.

9 For in Him dwells all the fullness of El-Elyon in bodily form.

10 And you are complete in Him, who is the Head of all principality and Power:

11 In whom also you are made brit-milah with the brit-milah made without hands, in putting off the goff of the sins of the flesh by the brit-milah of The Moshiach:

12 Buried with Him in mikvah, by which also you are risen with Him through emunah in the operation of אֱלֹהֵינוּ , who has raised Him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, has He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all your trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His execution stake;

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no individual man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of a moed, or in the chodesh, or in The Shabbat yamim:

17 Which are shadows of things to come; except the Yisraelite goff of Moshiach.

18 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a false humility and in the worshipping of heavenly malachim, spiritually standing on things that he has not seen, empty-headed things, created by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding to the Head, from which all the gooff knit together by joints and ligaments receives nourishment and grows with the increase of Ahloha.

20 Therefore if you are dead with The Moshiach from the elements of the olam hazeh, why, as though living in the olam hazeh, are you subject to ordinances,

21 Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with man's using; after the commandments and teachings of men?

23 Whose rules have a show of chochmah in positive attitude, human-will worship, or self-humiliation of the gooff type worship and neglecting of the gooff type worship; but these have no eternal value, except for the satisfying and parading of the flesh.

3 If you then are risen with Moshiach, seek those things which are above, where Moshiach sits as the right Hand of אֱלֹהִים.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For you are dead and your chayim is hidden with Moshiach in אֱלֹהִים.

4 When Moshiach, who is our chayim, shall appear, then shall you also appear with Him in tifereth.

5 Put to death therefore your bodily members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, perverted affections, evil desire and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 Because of these the wrath of אֱלֹהִים comes upon the deeds of disobedience:

7 In which you also had your halacha in the past, when you lived in them.

8 But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy and filthy speech out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his wicked deeds;

10 And have put on the renewed man, which is renewed in da'at after the image of Him that created him:

11 Where there is neither Greek, or Yahudi, brit-milah, or uncircumcision, foreigner, or Scythian, bond, or free: but Moshiach is all and in kol Yisrael.

12 Put on therefore, as the chosen people of אֱלֹהִים, kadosh and beloved, rachamim, chesed, humbleness of mind, meekness and endurance;

13 Bearing one another and forgiving one another, if any man has a quarrel against anyone else: even as The Moshiach forgave you, so also do you.

14 And above all these things put on ahava, which is the bond of perfection.

15 And let the shalom of Moshiach rule in your levavot, to which also you are called in one gooff; and be full of hodu.

16 Let The Word of The Moshiach dwell in you richly in all chochmah; teaching and admonishing one another in the Tehillim and with Ruach-filled shirim, singing with unmerited chen in your levavot to The Master.

17 And whatever you do in word, or mitzvah, do all in the Name of The Master אֱלֹהִים, giving hodu to Abba אֱלֹהִים through Him.

18 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in The Master.

19 Husbands, love your wives and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to אֱלֹהִים.

21 Ahvot, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 Avadim, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men pleasers; but in sincerity of lev, fearing The Master אֱלֹהִים:

23 And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to אֱלֹהִים and not to men;

24 Knowing that from The Master אֱלֹהִים you shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for you serve מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach.

25 But he that does wrong shall receive for the wrong that he has done: and there is no partiality of persons.

4 Human masters, give to your avadim that which is just and fair; knowing that you also have The Master אֱלֹהִים in the shamayim.

2 Continue in the tefillot, and watch in the same with hodu;

3 Offer tefillah also for us, that Ahloha would open to us a door for The Word, to speak the sod of Moshiach, for which I am also in prison:

4 That I may make things clear, as I should speak.

5 Have your halacha in chochmah towards those that are outside the emunah, redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with unmerited chen, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you should answer every man.

7 All my affairs shall Tuchikos tell you, who is a beloved Yisraelite brother and a faithful eved in The Master:

8 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he might know your affairs and bring shalom to your levavot;

9 With Onesimos, a faithful and beloved Yisraelite brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things that are done here.

10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner salutes you and Moshe-Marcus, the nephew of Bar-Nava, about whom you received my instructions: if he comes to you, receive him;

11 And Yeshua, who is called Yustus, who is a Yahudi. These only are my fellow workers for the malchut of אֱלֹהִים, who have been a comfort to me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, an eved of Moshiach, salutes you, always laboring fervently for you in tefillot, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of אֱלֹהִים.

13 For I bear him record, that he has a great zeal for you and for those that are in Laodikeia and for those in Hierapolis.

14 Luka, the beloved physician and Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the Yisraelite brothers who are in Laodekeia and Numpha and the remnant kehilla that meets in his bayit.

16 And when this letter is read among you, make sure that it is read also in the kehilla of the Laodikeians; and that you also read the letter from Laodikeia.

17 And say to Archippos, Take heed to the calling, which you have received in The Master, that you complete it.

18 This greeting is with my own hand – Shaul. Remember my imprisonment. Unmerited chen be with you. Ahmein. X

First Thessalonians- Tesloniqyah Alef

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul and Sila and Timtheous, to the Yisraelite kehilla of Tesloniqyah which is in Abba אָפּאָבאָ and in the Master אָפּאָבאָ Ha Moshiach: unmerited chen be to you and shalom, from אָפּאָבאָ our Abba and The Master אָפּאָבאָ Ha Moshiach.
- 2 We give hodu to אָפּאָבאָ always for you all, making mention of you in our tefillot;
- 3 Remembering without ceasing your mitzvoth in the emunah and labor of ahava and patience of tikvah in our Master אָפּאָבאָ Ha Moshiach, in the sight of אָפּאָבאָ our Abba;
- 4 Knowing, beloved Yisraelite brothers, your choosing by אָפּאָבאָ.
- 5 For our Besorah came not to you in Spoken Word only, but also in Power and in The Ruach Hakodesh, and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
- 6 And you became followers of us and of The Master, having received The Word in much tribulation, with the simcha of The Ruach Hakodesh:
- 7 So that you were examples to all that believe in Makedonia and Achayah.
- 8 For from you sounded forth The Word of The Master not only in Makedonia and Achayah, but also in every place, so that your emunah towards אָפּאָבאָ is spread abroad; so that we do not need to speak anything more about you.

9 For they themselves relate to us what manner of entry we first had with you and how you made teshuvah towards אֱלֹהִים from idols to serve the living and emet Ahloha;

10 And to wait for His Son from the shamayim, whom He raised from the dead, even מֵוֹתָיִם, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

2 For you yourselves, Yisraelite brothers, know our entrance in and among you, that it was not a waste of time:

2 But even after we had suffered and were shamefully treated before, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold in our Ahloha to speak to you The Besorah of אֱלֹהִים in much struggle.

3 For our appeal was not by deceit, nor by uncleanness, nor by guile:

4 But as we were allowed by אֱלֹהִים to be put in trust with The Besorah, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but אֱלֹהִים, who tries our levavot.

5 For neither at any time did we use flattering words to make you believe, as you know, nor under a secret desire based upon greed; אֱלֹהִים is my witness:

6 We sought not support, either from you, or from others, when we could have been burdensome to you, as the shlichim of Moshiach.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nursing eema nurses her children:

8 So having this affectionate desire towards you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not The Besorah of אֱלֹהִים only, but also our own beings because you were dear to us.

9 For you remember, Yisraelite brothers, our labor and toil: for laboring lyla and yom when with you because we would not be burdensome to any of you, we proclaimed to you The Besorah of Ahloha.

10 You are witnesses, along with אֱלֹהִים also, how kadosh and justly and without blame we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As you know how we exhorted and comforted and oversaw each one of you, as an abba does with his children, 12 That you would have your halacha worthy of אֱלֹהִים, who has called you to His malchut and tifereth.

13 For this cause also we give hodu to אֱלֹהִים without ceasing because, when you received The Word of אֱלֹהִים which you heard from us, you received it not as The Word of men, but as it is in emet, The Word of אֱלֹהִים, that also works in you that believe.

14 For you, Yisraelite brothers, became followers of the kehellot of אֱלֹהִים which in Yahudah are in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל: For you also have suffered similar things from your own countrymen, even as they have from the unbelieving Yahudim in the land of Yahudah:

15 Who both killed The Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל, and their own neviim and have persecuted us; and they please not Ahloha and are against all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the goyim so that they might be saved, to fill up their sins all the way: for His wrath has come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, Yisraelite brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in lev, tried even more earnestly to see your face with great desire.

18 Therefore we would have come to you, even I Shaul, again; but s.a.tan hindered us.

19 For what is our tikvah, or simcha, or keter of gilah? All of you are; now and even then in the presence of our Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל Ha Moshiach at His coming.

20 For you are our tifereth and simcha.

3 So when we could no longer stand it, we thought it tov to be left alone at Athens;

2 And sent Timtheous, our Yisraelite brother and eved of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and our fellow-laborer in The Besorah of Moshiach, to establish you and to encourage you concerning your emunah:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for you yourselves know that we are appointed to this.

4 For truly, when we were with you, we told you before that we would suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, as you know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer stand it, I sent to know about your emunah, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you and our labor among you be in vain.

6 But now when Timtheous came from you back to us and brought us the tov update of your emunah and ahava and that you have tov memories of us all the time, desiring greatly to see us again, as we also to see you again:

7 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, we were comforted over you in all our tribulation and distress by your emunah:

8 For now we live, if you stand fast in The Master.

9 For what hodu can we render to אֱלֹהֵינוּ again for you, for all the simcha in which we rejoiced for your sakes before our Ahloha;

10 In maariv and shacrit with many tefillot, so that we might see your face and might complete that which is lacking in your emunah?

11 Now אֱלֹהֵינוּ Himself our Abba and our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, direct our derech back to you.

12 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ make you increase and abound in ahava one toward another and towards kol Yisrael, even as we do to you:

13 To establish your levavot blameless in set apartness before אֱלֹהֵינוּ, our Abba, at the coming of our Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵחַ Ha Moshiach with all His Yisraelite kidushim.

4 Furthermore we beg you, Yisraelite brothers and exhort you by The Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵחַ, that as you have received from us how you ought to have your halacha in pleasing אֱלֹהֵינוּ, so you should excel more and more.

2 For you know what commands we gave you by The Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵחַ.

3 For this is the will of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, even your set apartness that you should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his own goff as a vessel in set apartness and kavod;

5 Not in the lust of passions, even as the goyim who know not אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

6 That no man take advantage, or defraud his brother in Yisrael in any matter: because אֱלֹהֵינוּ is the revenger of all such behavior, as we also have warned you and testified.

7 For אֱלֹהֵינוּ has not called us to unclean behavior, but to set apartness.

8 Therefore he that despises another Yisraelite, despises not man, but אֱלֹהֵינוּ Himself, who has also given us His Ruach Hakodesh.

9 But as touching brotherly ahava you need not that I write to you again: for your innermost beings are taught by אֱלֹהֵינוּ to love one another.

10 And indeed you do love all the Yisraelite brothers who are in all of Makedonia: but we beg you, Yisraelite brothers that you increase in this even more;

11 And that you study to be quiet and to do your own business and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That you may have your halacha honestly towards them that are outside the emunah and that you may lack nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, Yisraelite brothers, concerning those who are dead, that you sorrow not, even as unbelievers who have no tikvah.

14 For if we believe that אֱלֹהִים died and rose again, even them also who have died believing in אֱלֹהִים will Ahloha bring with Him.

15 For this we say to you by The Word of אֱלֹהִים, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of The Master shall not be resurrected before those who are already dead in the emunah.

16 For The Master Himself shall descend from the shamayim with a shout, with the voice of the chief heavenly malach, and with His shofar and with the tekiyah-ge-dolah of אֱלֹהִים: and the dead in Moshiach shall rise first:

17 Then we who are alive and remain at His return shall be caught up together with them onto the clouds, to meet The Master in the air: and so shall we ever be with The Master.

18 So then comfort one another with these Words.

5 But of the times and the moadem, Yisraelite brothers, you have no need that I write to you.

2 For you know perfectly that the Yom of אֱלֹהִים comes as a thief in the lyla.

3 For when they shall say, Shalom-ve betachon; then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a woman in labor; and they shall not escape.

4 But you, Yisraelite brothers, are not in darkness, that the yom should overtake you as a thief.

5 You are all the children of Ohr and the children of the Yom: we are not of the lyla, or of the darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep, sleep in the lyla; and they that get drunk, get drunk in the lyla.

8 But let us, who are of the Yom, be sober, putting on the breastplate of emunah and ahava; and as a helmet, the tikvah of chayim.

9 For אֱלֹהִים has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain deliverance by our Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵחַ Ha
Moshiach,

10 Who died for us, that, whether we are awake, or dead, we should live together with Him.

11 Therefore comfort yourselves together and edify one another, even as also you already do.

12 And we ask you, Yisraelite brothers, to know them who labor among you and are over you in אֱלֹהִים and who admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in ahava for their work's sake. And be at shalom among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, Yisraelite brothers, correct them that are unruly, comfort those who lack courage, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none repay evil for evil to any man; but always follow that which is tov, both among yourselves and to all men.

16 Gilah always.

17 Make tefillah without ceasing.

18 In all things give hodu: for this is the will of אֱלֹהִים in Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵחַ for you.

19 Quench not The Ruach Hakodesh.

20 Do not reject prophecies.

21 Test them all; hold fast to what is tov.

22 Abstain from all forms of evil.

23 And may the very Ahloha of shalom separate you completely; so that your whole ruach, nephesh and gooff be preserved without blemish, until the coming of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ ha Moshiach.

24 Faithful is He that called you, who also will shomer all of His Word.

25 Yisraelite brothers, offer many tefillot for us.

26 Greet all the Yisraelite brothers with a kadosh kiss.

27 I charge you by The Master that this letter is read to all the kadosh Yisraelite brothers.

28 The unmerited chen of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach be with you. Ahmein. X

Second Thessalonians- Tesloniqyah Bet

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael

1 Shaul and Sila and Timtheous, to the kehilla of Tesloniqyah in אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Abba and The Master מֶלֶךְנוּ Ha Moshiach:

2 Chen to you and shalom, from אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Abba and The Master מֶלֶךְנוּ Ha Moshiach.

3 We are bound to give hodu to אֱלֹהֵינוּ always for you, Yisraelite brothers, as it is proper because your emunah grows exceedingly and the ahava of kol Yisrael towards each other abounds more and more;

4 So that we ourselves boast in you in the kehellot of אֱלֹהֵינוּ for your patience and emunah even in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure:

5 Which is clear evidence of the tzadik mishpat of אֱלֹהֵינוּ yet to come to the olam hazeh, that you may be counted worthy of the malchut of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, for which you also now suffer:

6 Seeing it is a tzadik thing with אֱלֹהֵינוּ to repay tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are undergoing tribulation rest with us, when The Master מֶלֶךְנוּ shall be revealed from the shamayim with His mighty heavenly malachim,

8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not אֱלֹהֵינוּ and that obey not The Besorah of our Master מֶלֶךְנוּ Ha Moshiach:

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction away from the presence of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and from the tifereth of His Power;

10 When He shall come to be esteemed in His Yisraelite kidushim and to be admired by all those who believe in that Yom because our testimony among you was believed.

11 Therefore also we make tefillot always for you, that our Ahloha would count you worthy of this calling, to fulfill all the tov pleasure of His rachamim and the work of emunah with Power:

12 That the Name of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach may be lifted up in you and you in Him, according to the unmerited chen of our Ahloha and The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.

2 Now we urge you, Yisraelite brothers, by the coming of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and by our gathering together to Him,

2 That you be not soon shaken in mind, or troubled, neither by any ruach, nor by man's word, nor by letter as from us, that the Yom of Moshiach's coming is at hand.

3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that Yom shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin will be revealed, the son of perdition;

4 Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called Ahloha, or that is worshipped; so that he showing himself as Ahloha, sits in the Hekel of Ahloha, declaring himself to be Ahloha.

5 Remember, that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?

6 And now you know what withholds this; so that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the sod of Torah-less-ness does already work: only he who now prevents it, will prevent it, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Torah-less one be revealed, whom אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall consume with The Ruach of His mouth and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of s.a.tan with all unclean power and signs and lying wonders,

10 With all deceit and unrighteousness in those that are perishing; because they received not the ahava of the emet that they might be saved.

11 And for this reason אֱלֹהִים shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe THE LIE:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the emet, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give hodu always to אֱלֹהִים for you, Yisraelite brothers beloved of The Master because אֱלֹהִים has from Beresheeth chosen you as bikkurim to be saved through the set apartness of The Ruach and emunah in the emet:

14 To which He called you by our Besorah, to obtain the tifereth of our Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.

15 Therefore, Yisraelite brothers, stand fast and hold on to the mitzvoth and the traditions that you have been taught, whether by word, or our letter.

16 Now our Master מֶלֶךְ אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach Himself and אֱלֹהִים, even our Abba, who have loved us and have given us everlasting comfort and tov tikvah through unmerited chen, 17 Comfort your levavot and establish you in every tov Word of the Keetvay HaKadosh and in mitzvoth.

3 Finally, Yisraelite brothers, make tefillot for us, that The Word of אֱלֹהִים may spread rapidly and be praised, even as it has with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not emunah.

3 But The Master אֱלֹהִים is faithful, who shall establish you and shomer you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in אִתְּכֶם about you, that you both do and will do the things that we command you.

5 And The Master direct your levavot into the ahava of אִתְּכֶם and into the patient waiting for Moshiach.

6 Now we command you, Yisraelite brothers, in the Name of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach that you withdraw yourselves from every Yisraelite brother that has his halacha disorderly and not after the tradition that he received from us.

7 For you know how you should follow us: for we ourselves behaved not disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's lechem without paying for it; but worked with labor and toil lyla and yom, that we might not burden any of you:

9 Not because we have no power to do so, but to make ourselves an example for you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, not working at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now those that are like that we command and exhort by our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, that with shalom they should work and eat their own lechem.

13 But you, Yisraelite brothers, be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man does not obey our word by this letter, note that man and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a Yisraelite brother.

16 Now the Ahloha of shalom Himself give you shalom always by all means. אִתְּכֶם be with you all.

17 The greeting of Shaul with my own hand, which is my mark in every letter: so I write.

18 The unmerited chen of our Master $\sigma\omega\acute{\iota}\alpha\acute{\iota}$ Ha Moshiach be with you all. Ahmein. X

Philemon-Phileymon

To A Co-Laborer In Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, a prisoner of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and Timtheous our Yisraelite brother, to Phileymon our dearly beloved and fellow laborer,
- 2 And to our beloved Apphyah and Archippus our fellow soldier and to the kehilla in your bayit:
- 3 Chen to you and shalom, from אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Abba and The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.
- 4 I give hodu to my Ahloha, making mention of you always in my tefillot,
- 5 Hearing of your ahava and emunah, that you have toward The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ and towards all the Yisraelite kidushim;
- 6 That the sharing of your emunah may work itself out by the acknowledging of every tov thing that is in you in Moshiach אֱלֹהֵינוּ.
- 7 For we have great simcha and consolation in your ahava because the affections of the Yisraelite kidushim are refreshed by you, brother.
- 8 Therefore, though I might have much boldness in The Moshiach to command you to do what is fitting,
- 9 Yet for ahava's sake I rather appeal to you, now being Shaul the aged and now also a prisoner of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.
- 10 I beg you for my ben emunah Onesimus, whom I have brought to emunah in my imprisonment:
- 11 Who in times past was to you unprofitable, but now he is profitable to you and to me:
- 12 Whom I have sent again: therefore receive him, that is, my own desire:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, so that in your place he has served me in the chains of The Besorah:

14 But without your feedback I did nothing; so that your mitzvah should not be as it were from necessity, but willingly.

15 For perhaps he therefore departed from you for a while, that you should receive him back le-olam-va-ed;

16 Not now as an eved, but above an eved, a beloved Yisraelite brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in The Master?

17 If you count me as your partner, receive him as you would me.

18 If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that on my account;

19 I Shaul have written this with my own hand, I will repay it: not to mention how you owe me indeed even your own chayim.

20 Yes, my Yisraelite brother, let me have simcha over you in אֶפְרָיִם: refresh my tender affections in אֶפְרָיִם.

21 Having confidence in your obedience I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do even more than I say.

22 At the same time prepare for me also a place to stay: for I trust that through your tefillot I shall be brought back to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Moshiach אֶפְרָיִם greets you;

24 And also Moshe-Marcus, Aristarchos, Demas, Luka, my fellow laborers.

25 The chen of our Master אֶפְרָיִם Ha Moshiach be with your ruach. Ahmein. X

First Timothy-Timtheous

Alef

To A Shepherd of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, a sholiach of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach by the commandment of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Savior and Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach our tikvah;
- 2 To Timtheous, my own ben emunah: Unmerited chen, rachamim and shalom, from אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Abba and אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach our Master.
- 3 As I asked you to stay at Ephsiyah, when I went into Makedonia, that you might command some that they teach no other teaching,
- 4 Neither give heed to bubbe mysehs-fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than building up your emunah.
- 5 Now the goal of the above commandment is ahava out of a clean lev, a tov conscience and sincere emunah:
- 6 From which some having turned aside to foolish words;
- 7 Desiring to be teachers of the Torah; understanding neither what they say, nor what they affirm.
- 8 But we know that the Torah is tov, if a man uses it lawfully;
- 9 Knowing this, that the Torah is not made for a tzadik, but for the Torah-less and disobedient, for the wicked and for sinners, for Shabbat breakers, for wrong-doers, for profane, for murderers of ahvot and murderers of eemot, for killers,
- 10 For those who whore, for sodomites and lesbians, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound Torah-keeping;

11 According to the beautiful Besorah of the blessed Ahloha, that was committed to my trust.

12 And I give hodu to Moshiach משיח our Master, who has empowered me, in that He counted me faithful, putting me into His service;

13 Even though before I was a blasphemer and a persecutor and insulter of believers: I obtained rachamim because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the unmerited chen of our Master was exceedingly abundant to me with the emunah and ahava that is in Moshiach משיח .

15 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance: That Moshiach משיח came into the olam hazeh to save sinners; of whom I am the worst.

16 But for this cause I obtained rachamim, that in me first משיח Ha Moshiach might show forth all patience, as a pattern to those who will believe on Him to everlasting chayim after me.

17 Now to The Melech, Eternal, Immortal, Invisible, the only wise Ahloha, be kavod and tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

18 This charge I commit to you, my son Timtheous, according to the prophecies which went before upon you, that you by them might wage a tov campaign;

19 Holding your emunah, in a tov conscience; because those who have rejected this charge have had their emunah shipwrecked:

20 Among those are Humenaios and Alexander; whom I have delivered to s.a.tan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 I urge that, first of all, supplications, tefillot, intercessions and hodu, be made for all men;

2 For melechim and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and shalom-filled chayim in all Shabbat-guarding piety and seriousness.

3 For this is tov and acceptable in the sight of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Savior;

4 Who will have all men to be saved and come to the da'at of the emet.

5 For there is Ahloha-Echad and One Mediator between Ahloha and men, The [Son of Man], מְשִׁיחַ Ha Moshiach;

6 Who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be proclaimed in due time.

7 Of which I am ordained as a proclaimer and a sholiach – I speak the emet in Moshiach and do not lie – a teacher of the goyim in the emunah and emet.

8 I desire therefore that men make tefillot everywhere, lifting up kadosh hands, without wrath, or doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with decency and sensitive chochmah; not with braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly outfits;

10 But that which becomes a woman professing Shabbat-guarding piety with tov mitzvot.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I do not allow a woman to teach, by usurping authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Ahdahm was first formed, then Chavah.

14 And Ahdahm was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 But she shall give brachot and chayim by the children she bears, if of course they continue in emunah, ahava and set apartness with sensible behavior.

3 This is a emet saying, if a man desires the office of a teaching-overseer, or shamesh, he desires a tov work.

2 A teaching overseeing shamesh then must be blameless, the husband by at least one-an echad isha, vigilant, sober, of tov behavior, given to hospitality, able to teach;

3 Not given to excessive wine, not a short-tempered brawler, not a lover of unjust gains; but patient and gentle;

4 One that oversees his own bayit well, having his children in subjection living in all purity;

5 For if a man knows not how to oversee his own bayit, how shall he take care of the kehilla of אִיִּיז ?

6 Not a new believer, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of s.a.tan.

7 Moreover he must have a tov report of those who remain outside Yisrael; lest he fall into the reproach and the snare of s.a.tan.

8 Likewise must the shamashim also be pure, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for unjust gain;

9 Holding the divine sod of the emunah in a clean conscience.

10 And let these shamashim also first be tested and examined; then let them use the office of a shamesh, after having been found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be of tov character, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the shamashim be the husbands by at least one-echad isha, overseeing their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a shamesh well, gain a tov standing and great increase with the emunah which is in Moshiach וּמִיִּיז.

14 These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly:

15 But if I delay, that you may know how you ought to behave yourself in Beit אֱלֹהִים , which is the Kehilla of The Living Ahloha, the pillar and foundation of the Torah of emet.

16 And truly great is the sod of our Shabbat-guarding piety and tzedakah: He was manifest in the flesh, declared right in The Ruach, seen by heavenly malachim, proclaimed among Beit Yisrael, in and from all the goyim, believed on in the olam hazeh, then received up into The Tifereth.

4 Now The Ruach speaks expressly, that in the yamim acharonim some shall depart from the emunah, giving heed to seducing ruachim and teachings of shedim;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience branded with a hot iron;

3 Forbidding to marry and commanding to abstain from foods, which אֱלֹהִים has created to be received with hodu by those who believe and know the emet.

4 For every creature of אֱלֹהִים is tov and nothing to be refused, if it be received with hodu:

5 If it has already been made kadosh by The Word of אֱלֹהִים and tefillah.

6 If then you teach these things to the Yisraelite brothers, you shall be a tov eved of מוֹשֶׁה Ha Moshiach, nourished up in the Words of emunah and of tov teaching, which you have followed closely.

7 But refuse profane old wives' fables; train yourself rather by Shabbat-guarding piety.

8 For bodily exercise profits some: but Shabbat-guarding piety is profitable for all things, having the promise of the chayim that now is and of the olam haba that is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach because we trust in the living Ahloha, who is the Savior of all men, specifically of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to the believers in Yisrael, in word, in behavior, in ahava, in ruach, in emunah, in purity.

13 Until I come, pay attention to reading Torah, to exhortation, to teaching.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the shamashim.

15 Practice these things; give yourself fully to them; that your progress may appear to kol Yisrael.

16 Take heed to yourself and to your teachings; continue in them: for in doing this you shall both save yourself and those that hear you.

5 Rebuke not a shamesh, but treat him as an abba in the emunah; and the younger men as Yisraelite brothers;

2 The elderly women as eemot; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honor widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children, or nephews, let them first learn to show Shabbat-guarding piety at home and let the children care for them and so repay their parents: for that is tov and acceptable before אֱלֹהִים .

5 And she that is a widow indeed and is all-alone, trusts in אֱלֹהִים and continues in supplications and tefillot both during maariv and shacrit.

6 But she that lives in pleasure is dead while she lives.

7 And these things command, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any does not provide for his own, especially for those of his own bayit, he has denied the emunah and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be enrolled for community support under sixty years old, having been the isha of just one man,

10 Well spoken of for tov mitzvot; if she has brought up children, if she has housed non-Yisraelite gerim, if she has washed the feet of the Yisraelite kidushim, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every tov mitzvah, then let her be added to the community support rolls.

11 But the younger widows refuse for community enrollment: for when they will begin to be headstrong against Moshiach, they will marry;

12 Having guilt because they have cast off their first emunah.

13 Also they learn to be idle, wandering about from bayit to bayit; and not only idle, but also become gossiping busybodies, speaking things that they should not.

14 I resolve therefore that the younger women marry, bear children and guide the bayit, giving no occasion to the adversary to speak disdainfully.

15 For some women have already turned aside after s.a.tan.

16 If any man, or woman that believes has widows in their homes, let them assist them and let not the kehilla be charged; so that the kehilla can relieve them that are truly widows.

17 Let the shamashim that oversee well be counted worthy of double kavod, especially those who labor in The Word and in Torah.

18 For the Katuv says, You shall not muzzle the ox that treads out the grain. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against a shamesh receive not an accusation, without two, or three witnesses.

20 Those who sin rebuke before all, so that others also may fear.

21 I adjure you before אֱלֹהֵינוּ and The Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and the elect heavenly malachim, that you shomer these things without preferring one over another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be a partaker of other men's sins: keep yourself clean.

23 Drink mayim no longer, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your ongoing infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are obvious leading to mishpat; but those of others will be seen later.

25 Likewise also the tov mitzvoth of some are manifest now; and those who do not perform mitzvoth cannot be hidden.

6 Let those who are believing avadim under a yoke count their own masters worthy of all kavod, that the Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and His teaching be not blasphemed.

2 And those that have believing masters, let them not despise them because they are Yisraelite brothers; but rather do them service because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit of the masters. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise and consent not to wholesome words, even The Words of our Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and to the teaching which is according to Shabbat-guarding piety;

4 He is proud, knows nothing, but is sick, engaging in questions and verbal battles, from which comes envy, contention, strife, blasphemy, evil suspicions,
5 Worthless disputes of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the emet, supposing that serving אֱלֹהִים is a means to unjust wealth and is the same as Shabbat-guarding piety: from such withdraw yourself.

6 But Shabbat-guarding piety with contentment is the greatest gain.

7 For we brought nothing into the olam hazeh and it is certain we can carry nothing out of it.

8 And having food and clothing let us be content with these.

9 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which plunge men into destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which some have longed after and have fallen from the emunah and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But you, O man of אֱלֹהִים, flee these things; and follow after tzedakah, Shabbat-guarding piety, emunah, ahava, patience and meekness.

12 Fight the tov fight of emunah, grab hold on eternal chayim, for which you are also called and have professed a tov profession before many witnesses.

13 I give you charge in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, who quickens all things and before Moshiach מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a tov confession;

14 That you keep this mitzvah without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵל Ha Moshiach:

15 Who in His own timing shall show, just who is the blessed and only Eternal Ruler, The Melech HaMelechim and Adon Adonim;

16 Who alone has immortality, dwelling in The Ohr that no man can approach; whom no man has seen, or can see: to whom be kavod and Power le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

17 Charge them that are rich in the olam hazeh, that they be not proud, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living Ahloha, who gives us richly all things to enjoy;

18 That they do tov, that they are rich in tov mitzvoth, ready to give tzedakah, willing to share their wealth;

19 Laying up in store for themselves a tov foundation for the olam haba, that they may grab hold of eternal chayim.

20 O Timtheous, guard that which is committed to your trust, avoiding profane and empty babblings and the contradictions of false so-called worldly da'at:

21 Who some professing have strayed from the emunah. Unmerited chen be with you. Ahmein. X

Second Timothy- Timtheous Bet

To A Shepherd of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, a sholiach of אדנינו Ha Moshiach by the will of אדנינו, according to the promise of chayim, which is in אדנינו Ha Moshiach,
- 2 To Timtheous, my dearly beloved son: Unmerited chen, rachamim and shalom, from Abba אדנינו and אדנינו Ha Moshiach our Master.
- 3 I give hodu to אדנינו, whom I served from boyhood with a clear conscience, that without ceasing, I have remembered you in my tefillot during maariv and shacrit;
- 4 Greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with simcha;
- 5 When I call to remembrance the sincere emunah that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your eema Eunike; and I am persuaded in you also.
- 6 For this reason I remind you to stir up the gift of אדנינו, which is in you by the laying on of my hands.
- 7 For אדנינו has not given us The Ruach of fear; but of power and of ahava and of a sound mind.
- 8 Be not ashamed of the testimony of our Master, nor of me His eved: but be a partaker of the afflictions of The Besorah according to The Power of אדנינו;
- 9 Who has saved us and called us with a kadosh calling, not according to our man-made works, but according to His own purpose and chen, which was given to us in אדנינו Ha Moshiach even before the olam began,

10 But now has been made manifest by the appearing of our Savior אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, who has abolished death and has revealed chayim and immortality through The Besorah:

11 To which I am appointed a proclaimer and a sholiach and a moreh to the goyim.

12 For which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know in whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to take care of me until that yom.

13 Hold fast to the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in emunah and in the ahava that is in אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.

14 That tov thing which was committed to you shomer by The Ruach Hakodesh who dwells in us.

15 This you know, that all those who are in Asia have turned away from me; including Phugellos and Hermogenes.

16 אֱלֹהֵינוּ give rachamim to the bayit of Onesiphoros; for he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my imprisonment:

17 But, when he was in Romiyah, he searched me out very diligently and found me.

18 אֱלֹהֵינוּ grant to him that he may find rachamim in that yom: and in all the derachot he attended to me at Ephsiyah, you know very well.

2 You therefore, my son, be strong in the unmerited chen that is in אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.

2 And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit to other faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 You therefore endure hardships, with us as a tov soldier of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.

4 No man that goes to battle entangles himself with the affairs of this chayim; so that he may please Him who has chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if anyone competes in a contest, he cannot receive the keter, except he competes by the rules.

6 The farmer that labors must be the first one to eat of his fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and אֱלֹהִים give you da'at in all things.

8 Remember that מֹשֶׁה Ha Moshiach of the zera of Dawid was raised from the dead according to my Besorah:

9 For which I suffer trouble, as a criminal, even imprisonment; but The Word of אֱלֹהִים is not imprisoned.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the chosen people Yisrael, that they may also obtain the salvation that is in מֹשֶׁה Ha Moshiach with eternal tifereth.

11 It is a faithful saying: For if we are dead with Him, we shall also live with Him:

12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with Him: if we deny Him, He also will deny us:

13 If we believe not, yet He abides faithful: He cannot deny Himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before אֱלֹהִים that they not engage in word battles – that is useless – since it subverts the hearers of The Word.

15 Study to show yourself approved before אֱלֹהִים, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing The Word of Emet.

16 But avoid profane and empty chatter: for they will increase to more wickedness.

17 And their word will eat through people like gangrene: Humenaios and Philetos are of this group;

18 Who concerning the emet have gone astray, saying that the resurrection is past already; and have overthrown the emunah of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of The Master אֱלֹהִים stands firm, having this seal; The Master אֱלֹהִים knows those who are His. And, Let everyone that names the Name of Moshiach depart from Torah breaking.

20 But in a great bayit there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to kavod and some to no kavod.

21 If a man therefore cleanses himself from unclean matters, he shall be a vessel of kavod, kadosh and fit for The Master's use and prepared for every tov mitzvah.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow tzedakah, emunah, ahava, shalom, with them that call on אֱלֹהִים out of a pure lev.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do breed arguments.

24 And the eved of אֱלֹהִים must not quarrel; but be gentle to all men, able to teach, patient,

25 In meekness instructing those that oppose him; so אֱלֹהִים somehow will give them teshuvah to their acknowledging of the emet;

26 And that they may come to their senses and leave the snare of s.a.tan, who has taken them captive to do his will.

3 This know also, that in the yamim ha-acharonim perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unclean,

3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, addicts to lust, fierce, despisers of those that are tov,

4 Traitors, hasty, proud and arrogant, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of אֱלֹהִים;

5 Having a form of a Shabbat-guarding pious lifestyle, but denying The Power of it: from such turn away.

6 For these are the people who creep into and infect entire houses away from emunah and lead captive women weighed down with sins, who are being led away with various lusts,

7 Always learning and never able to come to the da'at of the emet.

8 Now as Yannes and Yambres opposed Moshe, so do these also resist the emet: people of corrupt minds, far from the emunah.

9 But they shall go no further: for their folly shall be manifest to all men, as was that of those men.

10 But you have fully known my teaching, manner of chayim, purpose, emunah, endurance, ahava, patience, 11 The persecutions and afflictions, that came to me at Antioch, at Ikonion, at Lustra; which persecutions I endured: but out of them all אֱלֹהִים delivered me.

12 Yes and all that will live a Shabbat-guarding pious lifestyle in אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and enchanters shall get worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.

14 But you on the other hand continue in the things that you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them;

15 And that from a child you have known the Keetvay HaKadosh, which are able to make you wise about your salvation through emunah which is in אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach.

16 All the Keetvay HaKadosh are given by the inspiration of אֱלֹהִים and are profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, as Torah in tzedakah:

17 That the man of אֱלֹהִים may be perfect, fully equipped for all tov mitzvot.

4 I charge you therefore before אֱלֹהֵינוּ and The Master מוֹשִׁיָּאֵךְ Ha Moshiach, who shall judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His malchut;

2 Proclaim The Word; be ready to do so during moadeem and at regular times; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all patience and teaching.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound teaching; but after their own lusts shall they add for themselves extra teachers, tickling the ears.

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the emet and shall be turned to made up stories.

5 But shomer yourself in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of a proclaimer, fulfill your service.

6 For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a tov fight, I have finished my course and I have kept the emunah:

8 And now there is laid up for me the keter of tzedakah, which מוֹשִׁיָּאֵךְ, The Tzadik-Shophet, shall give me on that yom: and not to me only, but to all in Yisrael that also love His appearing.

9 Do your best to come shortly to me:

10 For Demas has forsaken me, having loved the olam hazeh and is departed to Thesloniqyah; Crescens to Galutyah, Teitus to Dalmatyah.

11 Only Luka is with me. Take Moshe-Markus and bring him with you: for he is profitable to me for the service.

12 And Tuchikos have I sent to Ephsiyah.

13 The scroll carrier that I left at Troas with Karpus, when you come, bring with you and also the scrolls, specifically the parchment scrolls.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: אֱלֹהֵינוּ reward him according to his works:

15 You too be careful also, for he has greatly withstood our words.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I make tefillah that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding אִתִּי stood with me and strengthened me; that by me the proclaiming might be fully known and that all the goyim might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And אִתִּי shall deliver me from every evil work and will preserve me for His heavenly malchut; to Him be tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

19 Salute Prisca and Aqulas and the bayit of Onesiphoros.

20 Erastos stayed in Corintyah: but Trophimos have I left at Miletos sick.

21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulos greets you and Pudes and Linos and Klaudia and all the Yisraelite brothers.

22 The Master אִתִּי Ha Moshiach be with your ruach. Unmerited chen be with you. Ahmein. X

Titus-Teitus

To A Shepherd of Yisrael

- 1 Shaul, an eved of אֱלֹהִים and a sholiach of אֱלֹהִים
Ha Moshiach, according to the emunah of אֱלֹהִים's chosen ones, and the acknowledging of the emet that is after a lifestyle of Shabbat-guarding piety;
- 2 In the expectation of eternal chayim, which Ahloha, who cannot lie, promised before the olam hazeh;
- 3 But has in a time that now is at hand, manifested
His Word through proclaiming, which has been committed to me according to the commandment of Ahloha our Savior;
- 4 To Teitus, my own ben emunah according to our common emunah: Chen, rachamim and shalom, from Abba אֱלֹהִים and The Master אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach our Savior.
- 5 For this cause I left you in Crete, that you should set in order the things that are not done and ordain zechanim in every city, as I had appointed you:
- 6 If anyone is blameless, the husband by at least one-echad isha, having believing children not accused of loose living, or of being unruly.
- 7 For a Yisraelite overseer must be blameless, as a spiritual manager of אֱלֹהִים not self-seeking, not quick tempered, not excessive in the use of wine, not a brawler, not greedy for filthy gain;
- 8 But kind to gerim, a lover of tov men, sober, a tzadik, kadosh, self-controlled;
- 9 Holding fast to the trustworthy word as he has been taught, that he may be able by sound teaching to exhort the believers and rebuke the proud.

10 For there are many unruly men, big talkers and deceivers, especially those who are brit-milah and yet unbelievers:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who pervert entire houses of believers, teaching things they should not, for the sake of filthy gain.

12 One of their own, even a so called navi of their own, said, The Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.

13 This witness is emet. Therefore rebuke them sharply, so that the believers may be sound in the emunah;

14 Not giving heed to certain Yahudim fables and commandments of men, who hate the emet and turn others from the emet.

15 Unto the clean all things are clean: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing clean; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know אֱלֹהִים ; but in mitzvoth they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient, condemning every tov mitzvah.

2 But you must speak the things that are proper for sound instruction:

2 Teach the older men to be sober, tahor, temperate, sound in emunah, in ahava and in patience.

3 Teach the older women likewise, that they be in their behavior as becomes set apartness, not false accusers, not an eved to much wine, teachers of tov things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be modest, to love their husbands and their children,

5 To be sensible, tahor, tov homemakers, obedient to their own husbands, that The Word of אֱלֹהִים is not reproached.

6 Likewise exhort children to be sensible and modest.

7 In all things showing yourself as a living pattern of tov mitzvot: in teaching, showing perfection, sincerity and seriousness.

8 Choose sound Words for teaching, so that they cannot be condemned; so that he who opposes us may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us.

9 Let avadim be obedient to their own masters, to please them well in all things; not talking back, or being contentious;

10 Not stealing but showing trustworthiness; so that they may embrace the teaching of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Savior in all things.

11 For the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהֵינוּ that brings salvation has appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us to renounce wickedness and worldly lusts and to live sensibly, as tzadikim with a lifestyle of Shabbat-guarding piety, in the olam hazeh;

13 Looking for that blessed tikvah and the beautiful appearing of the great Ahloha and our Savior מוֹשִׁיָּאֵנוּ Ha Moshiach;

14 Who gave Himself for us, that He might save us from all Torah breaking and cleanse for Himself a renewed people, zealous of tov mitzvot.

15 These things speak and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise you.

3 Remind the people of Yisrael to be subject to earthly rulers and governors, to be ready to do every tov mitzvah,

2 To speak no lashon hara of anyone, to not be quarrelsome, but gentle, showing meekness to all men.

3 For we ourselves also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in evil and envy, being hated and hating one another.

4 But after the chesed and ahava of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Savior toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of tzedakah which we have done, but according to His rachamim He saved us, by the washing of regeneration and renewing work of The Ruach Hakodesh;

6 Which He shed on us abundantly through מוֹשִׁיָּנוּ Ha Moshiach our Savior;

7 That being declared a tzadik by His unmerited chen, we should be made heirs of the tikvah of eternal chayim.

8 This is a faithful saying and these things I will that you affirm constantly, that those who believe in אֱלֹהֵינוּ might be careful to maintain tov mitzvoth continually. These things are tov and profitable to men.

9 But avoid foolish endless questions and stories of genealogies and contentions and quarrels with the Sophrim; for they are unprofitable and vain.

10 A man that is divisive, or heretical after the first and second warning, just shun him;

11 Knowing that he that is like that is perverted and sins, being self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas to you, or Tuchikus, be diligent to come to me to Nikopolis: for I have decided to spend the winter there.

13 Make sure that Zenas the Sopher and Apollos are given a tov farewell on their journey so that they lack nothing.

14 And let kol Yisrael also learn to maintain tov mitzvoth in urgent needs and times, that they be not unfruitful.

15 All that are with me greet you. Greet them that love us in the emunah. Chen be with you all.

Ahmein. X

Chazon – Revelation

To The Believing Remnant Of Yisrael In Asia
And Yisrael's Final Generation

1 The Chazon of $\omega\psi\chi\lambda\zeta$ Ha Moshiach, which $\aleph\tau$ gave to Him, to show to His avadim things which must shortly come to pass; and He sent and signified it by His heavenly malach to His eved Yochanan:

2 Who bore witness of The Word of $\aleph\tau$ and of the testimony of $\omega\psi\chi\lambda\zeta$ Ha Moshiach and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that reads and they that hear The Words of this prophecy and shomer those things that are written in it: for the time is at hand.

4 Yochanan to the seven Yisraelite congregations, which are in Asia: Unmerited favor be to you and shalom, from Him who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven ruachim which are before His kesay;

5 And from $\omega\psi\chi\lambda\zeta$ Ha Moshiach, who is the Faithful Witness and the Bachor from the dead and the Sar of the melechim of the olam. Unto Him that loved us and washed us from our sins in His own dahm,

6 And has made us melechim and Kohanim to His Eloha and Abba; to Him be tifereth and dominion le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

7 See, He comes with clouds; and every eye shall see Him and those also who pierced Him: and all tribes of the olam shall wail because of Him. Even so. Ahmein.

8 I AM the Aleph and Tau, the Beginning and the End, says the Master $\aleph\tau$, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty-El Shaddai.

9 I Yochanan, who also am your Yisraelite brother and chaver in tribulation and in the malchut and endurance of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, was on the island that is called Patmos, for The Word of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and for the testimony of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach.

10 I was in the Ruach on Yom אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a shofar, 11 Saying, I AM Aleph and Tau, the First and the Last: and, What you see, write in a scroll and send it to the seven Yisraelite congregations which are in Asia; to Ephesos and to Smyrna and to Beth Togarmah and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodikeia.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me.

And when I turned, I saw seven golden menorot;

13 And in the midst of the seven menorot one like The Ben Ahdahm, clothed with an ephod down to the feet and wrapped around the chest with a golden girdle.

14 His head and His hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and His eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And His feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and His voice as the sound of many streams of mayim.

16 And He had in His right hand seven cochavim: and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and His face was as the shemesh shining in strength.

17 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead.

And He laid His right hand upon me, saying to me, Fear not; I AM The First and The Last:

18 I AM He that lives and was dead; and, see, I AM alive le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein; and have the keys of Sheol and of death.

19 Write the things that you have seen and the things that are and the things which shall be after this;

20 The mystery of the seven cochavim that you saw in My right hand and the seven golden menorot. The seven cochavim are the seven teaching overseers of the seven Yisraelite congregations: and the seven menorot that you saw are the seven Yisraelite congregations.

2 Unto the teaching overseer of the congregation of Ephsiyah write; These things says He that holds the seven cochavim in His right hand, who walks in the midst of the seven golden menorot;

2 I know your mitzvoth and your labor and your endurance and how you can't bear those who are evil: and you have tried them who say they are shlichim and are not and have found them to be liars:

3 And have borne and have endurance and for My Name's sake have labored and have not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have something against you, because you have left your first ahava.

5 Remember therefore from where you are fallen and make teshuvah and do the first mitzvoth; or else I will come to you quickly and will remove your menorah out of its place, unless you make teshuvah.

6 But this you have, that you hate the wicked deeds of the Nikolites, which I also hate.

7 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations; To him that overcomes I will give to eat of the eytz chayim, which is in the midst of the Gan Ayden of Eloha.

8 And to the teaching overseer of the Yisraelite congregation in Smyrna write; These things says the First and the Last, who was dead and is alive;

9 I know your mitzvot and tribulation and poverty, but you are rich – and I know the blasphemy of them who say they are Yahudim and are not, but are the synagogue of s.a.tan.

10 Fear none of those things that you shall suffer: see, s.a.tan shall cast some of you into prison, that you may be tried; and you shall have tribulation ten days: be faithful to death and I will give you the keter chayim.

11 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations; he that overcomes shall not be hurt by the second death.

12 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Beth Togarmah write; These things says He who has the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know your mitzvot and where you dwell, even where s.a.tan's seat is: and you hold fast to My Name, and have not denied the emunah in Me, even in those days when Antipas was My faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where s.a.tan dwells.

14 But I have a few things against you, because you have there them that hold the teaching of Bilam, who taught Balaq to cast a stumbling block before the children of Yisrael, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit fornication.

15 So have you also those that hold the teaching of the Nikolites, which teaching I hate.

16 Make teshuvah; or else I will come to you quickly and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations; To him that overcomes will I give to eat of the hidden manna and will give him a white stone and in the stone a renewed name written, which no man knows other than he that receives it.

18 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Thyatira write; These things says The Son of $\aleph\aleph\aleph$, who has eyes like a flame of fire and His feet are like fine brass;

19 I know your mitzvoth and ahava and service and emunah and your endurance and your mitzvoth; and the last to be more than the first.

20 But I have a few things against you, because you allow that woman Isavel, who called herself a neviyah, to teach and to seduce My avadim to commit fornication and to eat things sacrificed to idols.

21 And I gave her time to make teshuvah from her fornication; and she repented not.

22 See, I will cast her into a coffin, and them that commit adultery with her into Great Tribulation, unless they make teshuvah from their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the Yisraelite congregations shall know that I AM He who searches the minds and levavot: and I will give to every one of you according to your wicked deeds.

24 But to you I say and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this teaching of uncleanness and who have not known the depths of s.a.tan, as they call them; I will put upon you no other burden.

25 But that which you have already hold fast until I come.

26 And he that overcomes and keeps My mitzvoth to the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to pieces: even as I received from My Abba.

28 And I will give him The Morning Cochav.

29 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

3 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Sardis write; These things says He that has the seven ruachim of אַף־אֶז and the seven cochavim; I know your mitzvoth, that you have a name that you live and yet are dead.

2 Be watchful and strengthen the things that remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found your mitzvoth perfect before אַף־אֶז.

3 Remember therefore how you have received and heard and hold fast and make teshuvah. If therefore you shall not watch, I will come upon you as a thief and you shall not know what hour I will come upon you.

4 You have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with Me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcomes, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the Scroll of Chayim, but I will confess his name before My Abba and before His heavenly malachim.

6 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

7 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation in Philadelphia write; These things says He that is kadosh, He that is emet, He that has the key of Dawid, He that opens and no man shuts; and shuts and no man opens;

8 I know your mitzvoth: see, I have set before you an open door and no man can shut it: for you have little strength, but have kept My Word and have not denied My Name.

9 See, I will make them of the synagogue of s.a.tan, who say they are Yahudim and are not, but do lie; see, I will make them to come and worship before your feet and to know that I have loved you.

10 Because you have kept The Word of My endurance, I also will shomer you in the hour of testing, which shall come upon all of the olam hazeh, to test them that dwell in the olam.

11 See, I come quickly: hold fast to what you have, that no man takes your keter.

12 Him that overcomes will I make a pillar in the Mishkan of My Eloha and he shall go out no more: and I will write upon him the Name of My Eloha and the name of the city of My Eloha, which is the Renewed Yahrushalayim, which comes down out of the shamayim from My Eloha: and I will write upon him My renewed Name.

13 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

14 And to the teaching overseer of the congregation of the Laodikeia write; These things says The Ahmein, the only Faithful and Emet witness, the first cause of all the creation of אֱלֹהִים;

15 I know your mitzvoth that you are neither cold nor hot: I desire that you were cold, or hot.

16 So then because you are lukewarm and are neither cold, or hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth.

17 Because you say, I am rich and increased with goods and have need of nothing; and know not that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked:

18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold tried in the fire, that you may be rich; and white raiment, that you may be clothed, so that the shame of your nakedness does not appear; and anoint your eyes with ointment, that you may see.

19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore and make teshuvah.

20 See, I stand at the door and knock: if any man hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will dine with him and he with Me.

21 To him that overcomes will I grant to sit with Me in My kesay, even as I also overcame and have sat down with My Abba on His kesay.

22 He that has an ear, let him hear what the Ruach says to the Yisraelite congregations.

4 After this I looked and see, a door was opened in the shamayim: and the first voice which I heard was like a shofar talking with me; which said, Come up here and I will show you things that must be after this.

2 And immediately I was in the Ruach: and see, a kesay was set in the shamayim and One sat on the kesay.

3 And He who sat there looked like jasper and a ruby stone: and there was a rainbow around the kesay, in sight like an emerald.

4 And all around the kesay were twenty-four seats: and upon the seats I saw twenty-four zechanim sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads ketarim of gold.

5 And out of the kesay came lightning and thundering and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the kesay, which are the seven ruachim of אִתְּאֵל.

6 And before the kesay there was a sea of glass like crystal: and in the midst of the kesay and all around the kesay, were four creatures full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first creature was like a lion and the second creature like a calf and the third creature had a face as a man and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.

9 And when those creatures give tifereth and honor and hodu to Him that sat on the kesay, who lives le-olam-va-ed,

8 And the four creatures each had six wings around him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not yom and lyla, saying, Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh, אֱלֹהִים El-Shaddai, who was and is and is to come.

9 And when those creatures give tifereth and honor and hodu to Him that sat on the kesay, who lives le-olam-va-ed,

10 The twenty-four zechanim fell down before Him that sat on the kesay and worshiped Him that lives le-olam-va-ed and cast their ketarim before the kesay, saying,

11 You are worthy, O אֱלֹהִים, to receive tifereth and honor and power: for You have created all things and for Your pleasure they are and were created.

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him that sat on the kesay a scroll written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong heavenly malach proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose the seals of it?

3 And no man in the shamayim, or in the olam, or under the olam, was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the scroll, neither to look at it.

5 And one of the zechanim said to me, Weep not: see, The Lion of the tribe of Yahudah, The Root of Dawid, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals.

6 And I looked and in the midst of the kesay and of the four creatures and in the midst of the zechanim, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven ruachim of אִרְבָּעָה sent forth into all the olam.

7 And He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him that sat upon the kesay.

8 And when He had taken the scroll, the four creatures and the twenty-four zechanim fell down before The Lamb, having each one of them harps and golden bowls full of spices, which are the tefillot of Yisraelite kidushim.

9 And they sang a renewed shir, saying, You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals: for You were slain and have redeemed us to אִרְבָּעָה by Your dahm out of every kindred and tongue and people and nation;

10 And have made us melechim and Kohanim to our Eloha: and we shall reign in the olam.

11 And I looked and I heard the voice of many heavenly malachim around the kesay and the creatures and the zechanim: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands,

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is The Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches and chochmah and strength and honor and tifereth and brachot.

13 And every creature which is in the shamayim and on the olam and under the olam and such as are in the sea and all that are in them, I heard saying, Blessing and honor and tifereth and power, be to Him that sits upon the kesay and to The Lamb le-olam-va-ed!

14 And the four creatures said, Ahmein. And the twenty-four zechanim fell down and worshipped Him that lives le-olam-va-ed.

6 And I saw when The Lamb opened one of the seals and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder and one of the four creatures saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw and see, a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a keter was given to him: and he went forth conquering and to conquer.

3 And when He had opened the second seal, I heard the second creature say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat on it to take shalom from the olam and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword.

5 And when He had opened the third seal, I heard the third creature say, Come and see. And I looked and a black horse; and he that sat on it had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four creatures say, A measure of wheat for a penny and three measures of barley for a penny; and see that you hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when He had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth creature say, Come and see.

8 And I looked and saw a green horse: and his name that sat on it was Death, and Sheol followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the olam, to kill with sword and with hunger and with death and with the creatures of the olam.

9 And when He had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the beings of those that were slain for The Word of אֱלֹהִים and for the testimony, which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O אֱלֹהִים, kadosh and emet, do You not judge and avenge our dahm on them that dwell on the olam?

11 And white robes were given to each one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little while, until their fellow servants and their Yisraelite brothers, should also be killed as they were, was completed.

12 And I looked when He had opened the sixth seal and there was a great earthquake; and the shemesh became black as sackcloth of hair and the yarayach became as dahm;

13 And the cochavim of the shamayim fell to the olam, even as a fig eytz casts its unripe figs, when shaken by a strong wind.

14 And the shamayim departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every har and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the melechim of the olam and the great men and the rich men and the chief captains and the mighty men and every slave and every free man hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him that sits on the kesay and from the wrath of The Lamb:

17 For the great Yom of His wrath is still yet to come; and who shall be able to stand?

7 And after these things I saw four heavenly malachim standing on the four corners of the olam, holding the four winds of the olam, that the wind should not blow on the olam, nor on the sea, nor on any eytz.

2 And I saw another heavenly malach ascending from the east, having the seal of the living Eloha: and he cried with a loud voice to the four heavenly malachim, to whom it was given to hurt the olam and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the olam, neither the sea, nor the eytzim, until we have sealed the avadim of our Eloha in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed: and there were sealed one hundred forty four thousand from all the tribes of the children of Yisrael.

5 Of the tribe of Yahudah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuven were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Menasheh were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Shimon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Lewi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Yissachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zevulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Yoseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benyamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I looked and, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues stood before the kesay and before The Lamb, clothed with white robes and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our Eloha who sits upon the kesay and to The Lamb.

11 And all the heavenly malachim stood around the kesay and the zechanim and the four creatures and fell before the kesay on their faces and worshipped

אֱלֹהֵינוּ,

12 Saying, Ahmein! Blessing and tifereth and chochmah and hodu and honor and power and might, be to our Eloha le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

13 And one of the zechanim answered, saying to me, Who are these who are arrayed in white robes? And where did they come from?

14 And I said to him, Sir, you know. And he said to me, These are those who came out of the Great Tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the dahm of The Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the kesay of אֱלֹהִים and serve Him yom and lyla in His Mishkan: and He that sits on the kesay shall dwell among them.

|16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the shemesh light on them, nor any heat.

17 For The Lamb who is in the midst of the kesay shall feed them and shall lead them to living fountains of mayim: and אֱלֹהִים shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

8 And when He had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in the shamayim for about half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven heavenly malachim who stood before אֱלֹהִים; and to them were given seven shofarim.

3 And another heavenly malach came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the tefillot of all the Yisraelite kidushim upon the golden altar that was before the kesay.

4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the tefillot of the Yisraelite kidushim, ascended up before אֱלֹהִים out of the heavenly malach's hand.

5 And the heavenly malach took the censer and filled it with fire of the altar and cast it onto the olam: and there were voices and thundering and lightning and an earthquake.

6 And the seven heavenly malachim who had the seven shofarim prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first heavenly malach sounded and there followed hail and fire mingled with dahm and they were cast upon the olam: and a third part of the eytzim were burned up and all the green grass was burned up.

8 And the second heavenly malach sounded and as it were a great har burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became dahm;

9 And a third part of the creatures that were in the sea that had chayim, died; and a third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third heavenly malach sounded and there fell a great cochav from the shamayim, burning as if it were a lamp and it fell upon a third of the rivers and upon the fountains of mayim;

11 And the name of the cochav is called Wormwood: and a third part of the mayim became wormwood; and many men died from the mayim, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth heavenly malach sounded and a third part of the shemesh was smitten and a third part of the yarayach and a third part of the cochavim; so that a third of them were darkened and a third part of both yom and lyla did not shine.

13 And I looked and listened to a heavenly malach flying through the midst of the shamayim, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the olam because of the other voices of the shofar of the three heavenly malachim, which are yet to sound!

9 And the fifth heavenly malach sounded and I saw a cochav fall from the shamayim to the olam: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the shemesh and the air were darkened because of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the olam: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the olam have power.

4 And it was commanded to them that they should not hurt the grass of the olam, neither any green thing, neither any eytz; but only those men who do not have the seal of אִתָּאֵל in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented for five chodashem: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he stings a man.

6 And in those days shall men seek death and shall not find it; and shall desire to die and death shall flee from them.

7 And the shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared to battle; and on their heads were as it were ketarim like gold and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had hair like the hair of women and their teeth were like the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, like breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was like the sound of mirkavot of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like scorpions and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men for five chodashem.

11 And they had a melech over them, who is the malach of the bottomless pit, whose name in Ivrit is Avaddon, but in the Greek tongue his name is Apolluon.

12 One woe is past; and, see, there come two more woes after this.

13 And the sixth heavenly malach sounded and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar that is before אֲרָבָה,

14 Saying to the sixth heavenly malach who had the shofar, Loose the four heavenly malachim which are bound in the great River Euphrates.

15 And the four heavenly malachim were loosed, who were prepared for the hour and yom and chodesh and year, in which to slay a third of mankind.

16 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred million and I heard the number of them.

17 And this is how I saw the horses in the vision and those that sat on them, having breastplates of fire and of jacinth and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three were the third part of mankind killed, by the fire and by the smoke and by the brimstone, that issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth and in their tails: for their tails were like serpents, having heads and with them they do their harm.

20 And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues still did not make teshuvah from the works of their hands, that they should not worship shedim and idols of gold and silver and brass and stone and of wood: which cannot see, hear, nor walk:

21 Neither did they make teshuvah from their murders, nor from their sorceries, nor from their fornication, nor from their thefts.

10 And I saw another mighty heavenly malach come down from the shamayim, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head and his face was as it were the shemesh and his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little scroll open: and he set his right foot upon the sea and his left foot on the olam,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from the shamayim saying to me, Seal up those things that the seven thunders uttered and do not write them.

5 And the heavenly malach whom I saw stood upon the sea and upon the olam lifted up his hand to the shamayim,

6 And swore by Him that lives le-olam-va-ed, who created the shamayim and the things that are in it and the olam and the things that are in it and the sea and the things that are in it, that time should no longer exist:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh heavenly malach, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of אִי אֵל shall also be finished, as He has declared to His avadim the neviim.

8 And the voice which I heard from the shamayim spoke to me again and said, Go and take the little scroll that is open in the hand of the heavenly malach who stands upon the sea and upon the olam.

9 And I went to the heavenly malach and said to him, Give me the little scroll. And he said to me, Take it and eat it up; and it shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be in your mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little scroll out of the heavenly malach's hand and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said to me, You must prophesy again before many peoples and nations and tongues and melechim.

11 And there was given to me a reed like a rod: and the heavenly malach stood, saying, Rise and measure the Mishkan of אֶלֶּז and the altar and those that worship in it.

2 But the court that is outside the Beit HaMikdash leave out and do not measure it; for it is given to the nations: and the kadosh city shall they tread under foot forty two chodashem.

3 And I will give power to My two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the two olive eytzim and the two menorot standing before the Eloha of the olam.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in like manner be killed.

6 These have power to shut the shamayim, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over mayim to turn them to dahm, and to smite the olam with all kind of plagues, as often as they desire.

7 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them and shall overcome them and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sedom and Mitzrayim, where also our Master was impaled.

9 And those of the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three and a half days and shall not allow their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the land shall gilah over them and celebrate and shall send gifts to each other; because these two neviim tormented those that dwelt on the land.

11 And after three and a half days the Ruach of chayim from אִלְהִים entered into them and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon those who saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from the shamayim saying to them, Come up here. And they ascended up to the shamayim in a cloud; and their enemies saw them.

13 And the same hour there was a great earthquake and the tenth part of the city fell and in the earthquake seven thousand men were killed: and the remnant became afraid and gave tifereth to the Eloha of the shamayim.

14 The second woe is past; and see, the third woe comes quickly.

15 And the seventh heavenly malach sounded; and there were great voices in the shamayim, saying, The malchutim of the olam hazeh have become the malchutim of our Eloha and of His Moshiach; and He shall reign le-olam-va-ed.

16 And the twenty-four zechanim, who sat before אִלְהִים on their seats, fell upon their faces and worshipped אִלְהִים, 17 Saying, We give You hodu, O Master אִלְהִים El-Shaddai, who was and who is and who is coming; because You have taken Your great power and have reigned.

18 And the nations were angry and Your wrath has come and the time of the dead that they should be judged and that You should give rewards to Your avadim the neviim and to the Yisraelite kidushim and to them that fear Your Name, small and great;

and should destroy them who destroy the land.

19 And the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים was opened in the shamayim and there was seen in His Mishkan the Ark of the Testimony: and there was lightning and voices and thundering and an earthquake and great hail.

12 And there appeared a great wonder in the shamayim; a woman clothed with the shemesh and the yarayach under her feet, and upon her head a keter of twelve cochavim:

2 And she being with child cried, labored in birth and pained to deliver.

3 And there appeared another wonder in the shamayim; and see a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns and seven ketarim upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew a third part of the cochavim of the shamayim and did throw them to the olam: and the dragon stood poised before the woman who was ready to deliver, in order to devour her Child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a male-Child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her Child was caught up to אֱלֹהִים and to His kesay.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by אֱלֹהִים, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred sixty days.

7 And there was war in the shamayim: Micha-El and his heavenly malachim fought against the dragon;
and the dragon fought with his heavenly malachim,

8 And the dragon prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in the shamayim.

9 And the great dragon was expelled, that head serpent, called The Akel Kartza and also called s.a.tan, who deceives the entire olam hazeh: he was expelled into the olam and his heavenly malachim were expelled with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in the shamayim, Now has come deliverance and strength and the malchut of our Eloha and the power of His Moshiach: for the Akel Kartza, the accuser of our Yisraelite brothers is expelled, who accused and slandered them before our Eloha yom and lyla.

11 And they overcame him by the dahm of The Lamb and by The Word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives even to the death.

12 Therefore gilah, you shamayim and you that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the olam and of the sea! For s.a.tan has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was expelled to the olam, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the Male-Child.

14 And to the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth mayim as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.

16 And the ground helped the woman and the land opened her mouth and swallowed up the flood, which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was angry with the woman and went to make war with the remnant of her zera, that shomer the mitzvoth of אִתְּךָ and have the testimony of אֱלֹהֵיךָ Ha Moshiach.

13 And I stood upon the sand of the sea and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns and upon his horns ten ketarim and upon his heads the names of blasphemy.

2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard and his feet were as the feet of a bear and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power and his seat and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all of the olam hazeh marveled after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon who gave power to the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty-two chodashem.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to blaspheme His Name and His Mishkan and them that dwell in the shamayim.

7 And it was given to him to make war with the Yisraelite kidushim and to overcome them: and power was given him over all tribes and tongues and nations.

8 And all that dwell in the olam shall worship him, whose names are not written in the Scroll of Life of The Lamb slain from the foundation of the olam.

9 If any man has an ear, let him hear.

10 He that leads into captivity shall go into captivity: he that kills with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the endurance and the emunah of the Yisraelite kidushim.

11 And I looked and another beast came up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon.

12 And he exercises all the power of the first beast before him and causes the olam and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he does great wonders, so that he makes fire come down from the shamayim into the olam in the sight of men,

14 And deceives them that dwell in the olam by means of those nisim which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to those that dwell in the olam, that they should make an image to the beast, who had the wound by a sword and did live.

15 And he had power to give chayim to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as would not worship the image of the beast to be killed.

16 And he causes all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy, or sell, except he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, even the multitudes who have his name.

18 Here is chochmah. Let him that has binah consider the multitude of the beast: for it is the multitude of a man; and his multitude is encoded in 'chi, xi, sigma.

14 And I looked and saw, a Lamb stood on Har Tzion and with Him one hundred forty four thousand Yisraelites, having His Name and His Abba's Name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from the shamayim, as the voice of many mayim and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpists playing with their harps:

3 And they sang as it were a renewed shir before the kesay and before the four creatures and the zechanim: and no man could learn that shir but the hundred forty four thousand, who were redeemed from the olam.

4 These are those, who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are those who follow The Lamb wherever He goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the Bikkurim-Netsarim to אִיִּי and to The Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the kesay of אִיִּי.

6 And I saw another heavenly malach fly in the midst of the shamayim, having the everlasting Besorah to proclaim to them that dwell in the olam and to every nation and kindred and tongue and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear אִיִּי and give tifereth to Him; for the hour of His mishpat has come: and worship Him that made the shamayim and the olam and the sea and the fountains of mayim.

8 And there followed another heavenly malach, saying, Bavel is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third heavenly malach followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worships the beast and his image and receives his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of אִיִּי, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of His indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the kadosh heavenly malachim and in the presence of The Lamb:

11 And the smoke of their torment ascends up le-olam-va-ed: and they have no rest yom, or lyla, who worship the beast and his image and whoever receives the mark of his name.

12 Here is the endurance of the Yisraelite kidushim: here are those that shomer the mitzvoth of אִתְּךָ and the emunah of עִמָּךָ. 13 And I heard a voice from the shamayim saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in אִתְּךָ from this time forward: Yes, says the Ruach, that they may rest from their labors; and their mitzvoth do follow them. 14 And I looked and see a white cloud and upon the cloud One sat like The Ben Ahdahm, having on His head a golden keter and in His hand a sharp sickle. 15 And another heavenly malach came out of the Mishkan, crying with a loud voice to Him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in Your sickle and reap: for the time is come for You to reap; for the harvest of the olam is ripe. 16 And He that sat on the cloud thrust in His sickle into the olam; and the olam was reaped. 17 And another heavenly malach came out of the Mishkan that is in the shamayim, he also having a sharp sickle. 18 And another heavenly malach came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the olam; for her grapes are fully ripe. 19 And the heavenly malach thrust in his sickle into the olam and gathered the vine of the olam and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of אִתְּךָ. 20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city and dahm came out of the winepress, even to the horses' bridles, by the space of one thousand six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw another ot in the shamayim, great and marvelous, seven heavenly malachim having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of אִתְּךָ.

2 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast and over his image and over his mark and over the multitude of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having the harps of Eloha.

3 And they sing the shir of Moshe the eved of the Master אֱלֹהִים and the shir of The Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are Your deeds, Master אֱלֹהִים El-Shaddai; tzadik and emet are Your halachot, O Melech of the Yisraelite kidushim.

4 Who shall not fear You, O Master אֱלֹהִים and glorify Your Name? For You alone are kadosh: for all nations shall come and worship before You; for Your mishpatim are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked and, see, the Mishkan of The Testimony in the shamayim was opened:

6 And the seven heavenly malachim came out of the Mishkan, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen and having their breasts wrapped with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four creatures gave to the seven heavenly malachim seven golden bowls full of the wrath of אֱלֹהִים, who lives le-olam-va-ed.

8 And the Mishkan was filled with smoke from the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים and from His power; and no man was able to enter into the Mishkan, until the seven plagues of the seven heavenly malachim were fulfilled.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the Mishkan saying to the seven heavenly malachim, Go your ways and pour out the bowls of the wrath of אֱלֹהִים upon the olam.

2 And the first went and poured out his bowl upon the olam; and there fell severe and malignant sores upon the men who had the mark of the beast and upon them who worshipped his image.

3 And the second heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the sea; and it became as the dahm of a dead man: and every living being died in the sea.

4 And the third heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the rivers and fountains of mayim; and they became dahm.

5 And I heard the heavenly malach of the mayim say, You are tzadik, O אֱלֹהִים, who is and was and who shall be, because You have judged well.

6 For they have shed the dahm of the Yisraelite kidushim and neviim and You have given them dahm to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Master אֱלֹהִים El-Shaddai, emet and tzadik are Your mishpatim.

8 And the fourth heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the shemesh; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat and blasphemed the Name of אֱלֹהִים, who has power over these plagues: and they did not make teshuvah to give Him tifereth.

10 And the fifth heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the kesay of the beast; and his malchut was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the Eloha of the shamayim because of their pains and their sores and did not make teshuvah from their deeds.

12 And the sixth heavenly malach poured out his bowl upon the great River Euphrates; and the mayim of it was dried up, so that the way of the melechim of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean shedim like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the ruachim of shedim, working nisim, who go forth to the melechim of the olam and to the entire olam, to gather them to the battle of that great Yom אִיִּאז the Almighty.

15 See, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watches and keeps his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame.

16 And He gathered them together into a place called in Ivrit, Har Meggido.

17 And the seventh heavenly malach poured out his bowl into the air; and there came a great voice out of the Mishkan of the shamayim, from the kesay, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices and thunders and lightning and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the olam, so mighty an earthquake and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts and the cities of the nations fell: and great Bavel came to remembrance before אִיִּאז, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

20 And every island fled away and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of the shamayim, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed אִיִּאז because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceedingly great.

17 And there came one of the seven heavenly malachim who had the seven bowls and talked with me, saying to me, Come here; I will show to you the mishpat of the great whore that sits upon many mayim:

2 With whom the melechim of the olam have committed fornication and the inhabitants of the olam have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the Ruach into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet color and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of the abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BAVEL - THE GREAT, THE EEMA OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE OLAM.

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the dahm of the Yisraelite kidushim and with the dahm of the martyrs of אֲנָשֵׁי דַּיָּקָה : and when I saw her, I wondered greatly.

7 And the heavenly malach said to me, Why did you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that you saw was and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit and go into perdition: and they that dwell in the olam shall wonder, whose names were not written in the Scroll of Chayim from the foundation of the olam, when they see the beast that was and is not and yet is.

9 And here is the mind that has chochmah. The seven heads are the seven mountains, on which the woman sits.

10 And there are seven melechim: five are fallen and one is and the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was and is not, even he is the eighth and is of the seven and goes into destruction.

12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten melechim, who have received no malchut as yet; but receive power as melechim in just one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind and shall give their power and strength to the beast.

14 These shall make war with The Lamb and The Lamb shall overcome them: for He is Master of masters and Melech of melechim: and they that are with Him are called, the chosen and faithful people of Yisrael.

15 And he said to me, The mayim that you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

16 And the ten horns that you saw upon the beast, these shall hate the whore and shall make her desolate and naked and shall eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

17 For אִיִּזְרָאֵל has put in their levavot to fulfill His will and to agree and give their malchutim to the beast, until The Words of אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall be fulfilled. 18 And the woman that you saw is that great city, that reigns over the melechim of the olam.

18 And after these things I saw another heavenly malach come down from the shamayim, having great power; and the olam was lit with his tifereth.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Bavel the great has fallen, has fallen and has become the dwelling of shedim and the haunt of every foul ruach and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication and the melechim of the olam have committed fornication with her and the merchants of the olam have grown rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from the shamayim, saying, Come out of her, My people-Ami, that you be not partakers of her sins, so that you receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached to the shamayim and אֱלֹהִים has remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you and repay her double according to her works: in the cup that she has filled, fill it double to her.

7 How much she has esteemed herself and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she says in her lev, I sit a malka and am not a widow and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one yom, death and mourning and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Master אֱלֹהִים -Eloha who judges her.

9 And the melechim of the olam, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing far off for the fear of her torment, saying, Oy, vey, that great city Bavel, that mighty city! For in one hour is your mishpat come.

11 And the merchants of the olam shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buys their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet and all your wood and all the vessels of ivory and all the vessels of most precious wood and of brass and iron and marble, 13 And cinnamon and incense and ointments and frankincense and wine and oil and fine flour and wheat and creatures and sheep and horses and mirkavot and avadim and the beings of men.

14 And the fruits that your being lusted after are departed from you and all things which were dainty and they have departed from you and you shall find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, shall stand far off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Oy, vey, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches have come to nothing. And every ship captain and all the passengers and sailors and as many as trade by sea, stood far off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like this great city!

19 And they cast dust on their heads and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Oy, vey that great city, in which all that had ships in the sea were made rich because of her wealth! For in one hour she is made desolate.

20 Gilah over her, you shamayim and you kadosh shlichim and neviim; for אֵלֵינוּ has avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty heavenly malach took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, Just like this, with violence, shall that great city Bavel be thrown down and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voice of harpists and musicians and of flutists and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in you; and no craftsman of any craft, shall be found any more in you; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in you;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in you; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in you: for your merchants were the great men of the olam; for by your sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And in her was found the dahm of neviim and of Yisraelite kidushim and of all that were slain upon the olam.

19 And after these things I heard a great voice of many people in the shamayim, saying, Hallel-u-Yah; Salvation and tifereth and honor and power to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Eloha:

2 For emet and tzadik are His mishpatim: for He has judged the great whore, who did corrupt the olam with her fornication and has avenged the dahm of His avadim at her hand.

3 And again they said, Hallel-u-Yah. And her smoke rose up le-olam-va-ed.

4 And the twenty-four zechanim and the four creatures fell down and worshipped אֱלֹהֵינוּ that sat on the kesay, saying, Ahmein; Hallel-u-Yah.

5 And a voice came out of the kesay, saying, Tehilla to our Eloha, all of you His avadim and you that fear Him, both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, as the voice of much mayim and as the voice of mighty thundering, saying, Hallel-u-Yah: for the Master אֱלֹהֵינוּ El-Shaddai reigns.

7 Let us be glad and gilah and give honor to Him: for the marriage suppers of The Lamb has come, and His isha has made herself ready.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the tzedakah of the Yisraelite kidushim.

9 And he said to me, Write, Blessed are THEY who are called to the marriage suppers of The Lamb . And he said to me, These are the emet sayings of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See that you do it not: I am your fellow eved and from your Yisraelite brothers who have the testimony of וְעַבְדָּךְ ; worship וְעַבְדָּךְ, for the testimony of וְעַבְדָּךְ is the Ruach of prophecy.

11 And I saw the shamayim opened and see, a white horse; and He that sat upon it was called Faithful and Emeth and in tzedakah He does judge and make war.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire and on His head were many ketarim; and He had a Name written, that no man knew, but He Himself.

13 And He was clothed with a long tallit dipped in dahm: and His Name is called The Davar וְעַבְדָּךְ.

14 And the armies that were in the shamayim followed Him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should smite the nations: and He shall rule them with a rod of iron: and He treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of El-Shaddai.

16 And He has on His tallit and on His banner a Name written, Melech-ha melechim and Adon-Adonim.

17 And I saw a heavenly malach standing in the shemesh; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of the shamayim, Come and gather yourselves together to the supper of the great Eloha;

18 That you may eat the flesh of melechim and the flesh of captains and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of them that sit on them and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

18 That you may eat the flesh of melechim and the flesh of captains and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of them that sit on them and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 And I saw the beast and the melechim of the olam and their armies, gathered together to make war against Him that sat on the horse and against His army.

20 And the beast was taken and with him the navi sheker that performed nisim before him, with which he deceived those that had received the mark of the beast and those that worshipped his image. These both were thrown alive into a Lake of Fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant was slain with the sword of Him that sat upon the horse, whose sword proceeded out of His mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw a heavenly malach come down from the shamayim, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand;

2 And he laid hold of the dragon, that old serpent, who is s.a.tan and bound him a thousand years,

3 And expelled him into the bottomless pit and shut him up and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years are fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed for a short season.

4 And I saw thrones and they sat upon them and mishpat was given to them: and I saw the beings of them that were beheaded for the witness of $\omega\omega\text{ף}\text{ף}\text{ז}$ and for The Word of $\text{ף}\text{ף}\text{ז}$, and who had not worshipped the beast, or his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Moshiach a thousand years.

5 This is the first resurrection. (But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished.)

6 Blessed and kadosh is he that has part in the first resurrection: on such the second death has no power, but they shall be Kohanim of אֱלֹהִים and of Moshiach and shall reign with Him a thousand years.)

7 And when the thousand years are expired, s.a.tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out to deceive the nations who are around the four quarters of the land, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they came over the entire width of the land and surrounded the camp of the Yisraelite kidushim, and the beloved city: and fire came down from אֱלֹהִים out of the shamayim and devoured them.

10 And s.a.tan that deceived them was thrown into the Lake of Fire and brimstone, where the beast and the navi sheker are and shall be tormented yom and lyla le-olam-va-ed.

11 And I saw a great Kesay Lavan and Him that sat on it, from whose face the olam and the shamayim fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before אֱלֹהִים; and the scrolls were opened: and another scroll was opened, which is the Sefer Ha Chayim: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the scrolls, according to their own mitzvoth.

13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and death and Sheol delivered up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man according to their own mitzvoth.

14 And death and Sheol were thrown into the Lake of Fire. This is the second death.

15 And whoever was not found written in the Sefer Ha Chayim was thrown into the Lake of Fire.

21 And I saw a renewed shamayim and a renewed olam: for the first shamayim and the first olam had passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I Yochanan saw the kadosh city, the renewed Yahrushalayim, coming down from אֱלֹהִים out of the shamayim, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of the shamayim saying, See, the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים is with men and He will dwell with them and they shall be His people and אֱלֹהִים Himself shall be with them and be their Eloha.

4 And אֱלֹהִים shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things have passed away.

5 And He that sat upon the kesay said, See Kala, I make all things renewed. And He said to me, Write: for these words are emet and faithful.

6 And He said to me, Kala. I AM Aleph and Tau, the Beginning and the End. I will give to him that is thirsty of the fountain of the mayim chayim freely.

7 He that overcomes shall inherit all things; and I will be his Eloha and he shall be My son.

8 But the fearful and unbelieving and the abominable and murderers and those who whore and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone: this is the second death.

9 And there came to me one of the seven heavenly malachim who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and talked with me, saying, Come here, I will show you the bride, Yisrael, The Lamb's isha.

10 And he carried me away in the Ruach to a great high har and showed me that great city, the kadosh Yahrushalayim, descending out of the shamayim from אֶרֶץ אֱלֹהִים,

11 Having the tifereth of אֶרֶץ אֱלֹהִים: and its light was like a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And it had a great high wall and had twelve gates and at the gates twelve heavenly malachim and names written on the gates, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Yisrael:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations and in them the names of the twelve shlichim of The Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city and its gates and its walls.

16 And the city lies foursquare and the length is as large as the width: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured its wall, one hundred forty four cubits, according to the measure of the man, that is, of the heavenly malach.

18 And the building of its wall was jasper: and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, agate; the fourth, emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, ruby; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, yacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve crystals; every gate was one crystal: and the streets of the city were pure gold, as if it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no Mishkan in it: for the Master אֱלֹהִים El-Shaddai and The Lamb are the Mishkan of it.

23 And the city had no need of the shemesh, neither of the yarayach, to shine in it: for the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים did brighten it and The Lamb is The Light of it.

24 And the nations of those that are saved shall walk in The Light of it: and the melechim of the olam do bring their tifereth and honor into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by yom: for there shall be no lyla there.

26 And they shall bring the tifereth and honor of the nations into it.

27 And there shall by no means enter into it anyone that is unclean, or whoever works abomination, and or makes up lies: but only those who are written in The Lamb's Sefer Ha Chayim.

22 And he showed me a pure river of mayim chayim, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the kesay of אֱלֹהִים and of The Lamb.

2 In the midst of its street, on either side of the river, there was an eytz-chayim, that bore twelve kinds of fruits and yielded their fruits every chodesh: and the leaves of the eytzim were for the health of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the kesay of the Master אֱלֹהִים and of The Lamb shall be in it; and His avadim shall serve Him:

4 And they shall see His face; and His Name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no lyla there; and they need no candle, neither light of the shemesh; for אֱלֹהִים Eloha gives them Light: and they shall reign le-olam-va-ed.

6 And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and emet: and אֱלֹהֵי הַקְּדוֹשִׁים Eloha of the kadosh neviim sent His heavenly malach to show to His avadim the things that must shortly be done.

7 See, I come quickly: blessed is he that guards the sayings of the prophecy of this scroll.

8 And I, Yochanan, saw these things and heard them. And when I had heard and seen them, I fell down to worship before the feet of the malach who showed me these things.

9 Then he said to me, See that you do it not: for I am your fellow eved and of your brothers the neviim and from those who shomer the sayings of this scroll: worship Abba אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתָם.

10 And he said to me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this scroll: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is a tzadik, let him be a tzadik still: and he that is kadosh, let him be kadosh still.

12 And, see, I come quickly; and My reward is with Me, to give every man according to his mitzvoth.

13 I AM Aleph and Tau, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last, the Alpha and Omega.

14 Blessed are they that do His mitzvoth that they may have the right to the eytzim chayim and may enter in through the twelve gates into the city.

15 For outside are dogs and sorcerers and whores and murderers and idolaters and whoever loves to make lying the way of their chayim.

16 I אֱלֹהֵי הַקְּדוֹשִׁים have sent My heavenly malach to testify to you these things in the Yisraelite congregations. I AM the Root and the Offspring of Dawid and the Bright and Morning Cochav.

17 And the Ruach and/in the bride of Yisrael say, Boh. And let him that hears say, Boh. And let him that is thirsty come. And whoever so desires, let him take the mayim chayim freely.

18 For I testify to every man that hears The Words of the prophecy of this scroll, If any man shall add to these things, אףאז shall add to him the plagues that are written in this scroll:

19 And if any man shall take away from The Words of this scroll of prophecy, אףאז shall take away his part out of the Sefer Ha Chayim and out of the kadosh city and from the things that are written in this scroll.

20 He who testifies of these things says, Surely I come quickly. Ahmein. Even so, come, Master אףאז.

21 The unmerited favor of our Master אףאז Ha Moshiach be with all the Yisraelite kidushim. Ahmein. X

Baruch-Baruk

To Yisrael In Exile

1 And these are the words of the scroll that Baruch the son of Neriyah the son of Maaseyah the son of Tzidkiyahu the son of Asadiyah the son of Hilkiyahu wrote in Bavel,

2 In the fifth year and in the seventh yom of the chodesh, at the time the Chaldeans took Yahrushalayim and burnt it with fire.

3 And Baruch read the words of this scroll in the hearing of Yechonyahu the son of Yahuyakim melech of Yahudah and in the ears of all the people that came to hear the scroll,

4 And in the hearing of the nobles and of the melech's sons and in the hearing of the zechanim and of all the people, from the lowest to the highest, even of all them that dwelt at Bavel by the River Sud.

5 Whereupon they wept, fasted and made tefillah before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

6 They made also a collection of money according to every man's power:

7 And they sent it to Yahrushalayim to Eliakim the Kohen HaGadol, the ben of Hilkiyahu ben of Shlomo and to the kohanim and to all the people who were found with him at Yahrushalayim,

8 At the same time when he received the vessels of the bayit of אֱלֹהֵינוּ that were carried out of the temple, to return them into the land of Yahudah, the tenth yom of the chodesh Sivan, namely, silver vessels, which Tzidkiyahu the ben of Husha melech of Yahudah had made,

9 After that Nevuchadnetsar melech of Bavel had carried away Yechonyahu, the princes, the captives, the mighty men and the people of the land, from Yahrushalayim and brought them to Bavel.

10 And they said, Behold, we have sent you money to buy you burnt offerings and sin offerings and incense and prepare the lechem ha'panayim to offer upon the altar of אלהים our Ahlohim;

11 And make tefillah for the chayim of Nevuchadnetsar melech of Bavel and for the chayim of Belshatsar his son, that their yamim may be upon earth as the yamim of the shamayim:

12 And אלהים will give us strength and lighten our eyes and we shall live safely under the shadow of Nevuchadnetsar melech of Bavel and under the shadow of Belshatsar his son and we shall serve them many yamim and find chen in their sight.

13 Make tefillah for us also to אלהים our Ahlohim, for we have sinned against אלהים our Ahlohim; and to this yom the fury of אלהים and His wrath is not turned away from us.

14 And you shall read this scroll, which we have sent to you, to make confession in the bayit of אלהים, upon the moadem and solemn yamim.

15 And you shall say, To אלהים our Ahlohim belongs tzedakah, but to us confusion of faces, as it is come to pass this yom, to them of Yahudah and to the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim,

16 And to our melechim and to our princes and to our kohanim and to our neviim and to our ahvot:

17 For we have sinned before אלהים,

18 And disobeyed Him and have not listened to the voice of אלהים our Ahlohim, to walk in the mitzvoth that He gave us openly:

19 Since the yom that אלהים brought our ahvot out of the land of Mitzrayim, to this present yom, we have been disobedient to אלהינו our Ahlohim and we have been negligent by not hearing His voice.

20 So the evils cleaved to us and the curse, which אלהינו appointed by Moshe Rabeinu His eved at the time that He brought our ahvot out of the land of Mitzrayim, to give us a land that flows with milk and honey, as it is this yom.

21 Nevertheless we have not listened to the voice of אלהינו our Ahlohim, according to all the words of the neviim, whom He sent to us:

22 But every man followed the imagination of his own wicked lev to serve strange ahlohim and to do evil in the sight of אלהינו our Ahlohim.

- 2 Therefore אלהינו has made tov on His Word, which He pronounced against us and against our shophtim who judged Yisrael and against our melechim and against our princes and against the men of Yisrael and Yahudah,
- 2 To bring upon us great plagues, such as never came to pass under the whole shamayim as it did in Yahrushalayim, according to the things that were written in The Torah of Moshe Rabeinu;
- 3 That a man should eat the flesh of his own ben and the flesh of his own daughter.
- 4 Moreover He has delivered them to be in subjection to all the malchutim that are round about us, to be as a reproach and desolation among all the people round about, where אלהינו has scattered them.
- 5 So we were cast down and not exalted because we have sinned against אלהינו our Ahlohim and have not been obedient to His voice.
- 6 To אלהינו our Ahlohim belongs tzedakah: but to us and to our ahvot open shame, as appears this yom.
- 7 For all these plagues are come upon us, which אלהינו has pronounced against us;

8 Yet have we not made tefillah before אֱלֹהֵינוּ, that we might turn everyone from the imaginations of their wicked levavot.

9 So אֱלֹהֵינוּ watched over us for evil and אֱלֹהֵינוּ has brought it upon us: for אֱלֹהֵינוּ is tzadik in all His works which He has commanded us.

10 Yet we have not listened to His voice, to walk in the mitzvot of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, that He has set before us.

11 And now, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ahlohim of Yisrael, who have brought Your people out of the land of Mitzrayim with a Mighty Hand and High Arm and with signs and with wonders and with great Power and have gotten Yourself a great Name, as appears this yom:

12 O אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim, we have sinned, we have done wickedly; we have dealt unrighteously in all Your ordinances.

13 Let Your wrath turn from us: for we are but a few left among the goyim, where You have scattered us.

14 Hear our tefillot, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ and our petitions and deliver us for Your own sake and give us chesed in the sight of them who have led us away:

15 That all the earth may know that You are אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim because Yisrael and his posterity is called by Your Name.

16 O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, look down from Your Beit HaMikdash and consider us: bow down Your ear, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to hear us.

17 Open Your eyes and behold; for the dead who are in the graves, whose beings are taken from their bodies, will give to אֱלֹהֵינוּ neither hallel nor tzedakah:

18 But the being that is greatly vexed, who goes stooping and feeble and the eyes that fail and the hungry being, will give You hallel and tzedakah, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

19 Therefore we do not make our humble supplication before You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim, for the tzedakah of our ahvot and of our melechim, for they had none.

20 For You have sent out Your wrath and indignation upon us, as You have spoken by Your avadim the neviim, saying, 21 This says אִיִּי, Bow down your shoulders to serve the melech of Bavel: so shall you remain in the land that I gave to your ahvot.

22 But if you will not hear the voice of אִיִּי, to serve the melech of Bavel, 23 I will cause to cease out of the cites of Yahudah and from out of Yahrushalayim, the voice of simcha and the voice of gilah, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the kalah: and the whole land shall be desolate of inhabitants.

24 But we would not listen to Your voice, to serve the melech of Bavel: therefore have You made tov the Words that You spoke by Your avadim the neviim, namely, that the bones of our melechim and the bones of our ahvot, should be taken out of their place.

25 And, see, they are cast out to the heat of the yom and to the frost of the lyla and they died in great miseries by famine, by sword and by pestilence.

26 And the Bayit which is called by Your Name have You laid waste, as it is seen this yom, for the wickedness of Beit Yisrael and Beit Yahudah.

27 O אִיִּי our Ahlohim, You have dealt with us after all Your tov-ness and according to all Your great rachamim, 28 As You spoke by Your eved Moshe Rabeinu in the yom when You commanded him to write The Torah before the children of Yisrael, saying, 29 If you will not hear My voice, surely this very great multitude shall be turned into a small number among the goyim where I will scatter them.

30 For I knew that they would not hear Me because it is a stiffnecked people: but in the land of their captivities they shall remember themselves.

31 And shall know that I AM אלהים their Ahlohim: for I will give them a lev and ears to shema:

32 And they shall hallel Me in the land of their captivity and think upon My Name, 33 And make teshuvah from their stiff neck and from their wicked deeds: for they shall remember the derachot of their ahvot, who sinned before אלהים.

34 And I will bring them again into the land which I promised with an oath to their ahvot, Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov and they shall be masters of it: and I will increase them and they shall not be diminished.

35 And I will make an everlasting brit with them to be their Ahlohim and they shall be My People-Ami: and I will no more drive My people Yisrael out of the land that I have given them.

3 O אלהים Almighty, Ahlohim of Yisrael, the being in anguish, the troubled ruach, cries out to You.

2 Hear, O אלהים and have rachamim; as You are full of rachamim: and have pity upon us because we have sinned before You.

3 For You endure le-olam-va-ed and we perish utterly.

4 O אלהים Almighty, You Ahlohim of Yisrael, hear now the tefillot of the dead Yisraelites, when they were still alive and of their children who have sinned before You, by not hearkening to the voice of You their Ahlohim: for which cause these plagues cleave to us.

5 Remember not the iniquities of our ahvot: but think upon Your Power and Your Name now at this time.

6 For You are אלהים our Ahlohim and we will hallel You, O אלהים.

7 And for this cause You have put Your fear in our levavot, to the intent that we should call upon Your Name and hallel You in our captivity: for we have called to mind all the iniquity of our ahvot, who sinned before You.

8 Behold, we are yet this yom in our captivity, where You have scattered us for a reproach and a curse and to be subject to payments, according to all the iniquities of our ahvot, who departed from אלהים our Ahlohim.

9 Shema Yisrael, the mitzvot of chayim: give ear to understand chochmah.

10 How did it come to pass in Yisrael, that you are in your enemies' land, that you are grown old in a strange country, that you are defiled with the dead, 11 That you are counted with them that go down into Sheol?

12 You have forsaken the fountain of chochmah.

13 For if you had walked in the Derech of Ahlohim, you should have dwelt in shalom le-olam-va-ed.

14 Learn where is chochmah? Where is strength? Where is binah? So that you may know also where is length of yamim and chayim and where is the ohr of the eyes and shalom?

15 Who has found out her place? Or, who has come into her treasures?

16 Where have the princes of the goyim gone and such as ruled the beasts upon the earth;

17 They that had their pastime with the fowls of the air and they that hoarded up silver and gold, in which men trust and made no end of their getting?

18 For they that worked in silver and were so careful and whose works are unsearchable, 19 They are vanished and gone down to the grave and others are come up in their place.

20 Young men have seen ohr and dwelt upon the earth: but the derech of da'at have they not known,
21 Nor understood the derachot of it, nor laid hold of it: their children were far off from that derech.

22 It has not been heard of in Kanaan, neither has it been seen in Teman.

23 The Agarenes that seek chochmah upon earth, the merchants of Meran and of Teman, the authors of fables and searchers out of binah; none of these have known the Derech of chochmah, or remember her derachot.

24 O Yisrael, how great is the Bayit of Ahlohim. And how large is the place of His possession.

25 It is great, high and unmeasurable and has no end.

26 There were the nephilim, famous from Beresheet, that were of so great stature and so expert in war.

27 אף אף did not choose them, neither gave He the derech of da'at to them:

28 But they were destroyed because they had no chochmah and perished through their own foolishness.

29 Who has gone up into the shamayim and taken her and brought her down from the clouds?

30 Who has gone over the sea and found her and will bring her for pure gold?

31 No man knows her derachot, nor thinks of her derech.

32 But He who knows all things knows her and has found her out with His binah: He that prepared the earth le-olam-va-ed has filled it with four-footed beasts:

33 He that sends forth ohr and it goes, calls it again and it obeys Him with fear.

34 The cochavim shone in their watches and rejoiced: when He called them, they say, Hinayne; and so with cheerfulness they showed ohr to Him who made them.

35 This is our Ahlohim and there shall no other be counted as comparable to Him

36 He has found out all the derech of da'at and has given it to Yaakov His eved and to Yisrael His beloved.

37 Afterward He showed Himself upon earth and conversed with men.

4 This is the scroll of the mitzvoth of Ahlohim and The Torah that endures le-olam-va-ed: all they that keep it shall come to chayim; but such as leave it shall die.

2 Turn, O Yaakov and take hold of it: walk in the presence of the ohr of it, that you may be illuminated.

3 Give not your esteem to another, nor the things that are profitable to you to a strange nation.

4 O Yisrael, happy are we: for things that are pleasing to Ahlohim are made known to us.

5 Be of tov cheer, my people, the remnant of Yisrael.

6 You were sold to the goyim, not for your destruction: but because you moved Ahlohim to wrath you were delivered to the enemies.

7 For you provoked Him that made you by sacrificing to shedim and not to Ahlohim.

8 You have forgotten אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim, that brought you up; and you have grieved Yahrushalayim, that nursed you.

9 For when she saw the wrath of Ahlohim coming upon you, she said, Listen, O you that dwell around Tzion: Ahlohim has brought upon me great mourning;

10 For I saw the captivity of my sons and daughters, which אֱלֹהִים brought upon them.

11 With gilah did I nourish them; but sent them away with weeping and mourning.

12 Let no man rejoice over me, a widow and forsaken of many, who because of the sins of my children I am left desolate; because they departed from The Torah of Ahlohim.

13 They knew not His chukim, nor walked in the derachot of His mitzvoth, nor trod in the derachot of talmidut in His tzedakah.

14 Let them that dwell around Tzion come and remember you, the captivity of my sons and daughters, which אֱלֹהִים has brought upon them.

15 For He has brought a nation upon them from far, a shameless nation and of a strange language, who neither revered the zachen nor pitied the child.

16 These have carried away the dear beloved children of the widow and left her that was alone desolate without daughters.

17 But how can I help you?

18 For He who brought these plagues upon you will deliver you from the hands of your enemies.

19 Go your derech, O my children, go your derech: for I am left desolate.

20 I have put off the clothing of shalom and put upon me the sackcloth of my tefillah: I will cry to אֱלֹהִים in my yamim.

21 Be of tov cheer, O my children, cry to אֱלֹהִים and He will deliver you from the power and hand of the enemies.

22 For my tikvah is in אֱלֹהִים, that He will save you; and gilah is come to me from the Set-apart One because of the rachamim which shall soon come to you from אֱלֹהִים our YAHUSHA.

23 For I sent you out with mourning and weeping: but Ahlohim will give you to me again with gilah and simcha le-olam-va-ed.

24 Like as now the neighbors of Tzion have seen your captivity: so shall they see shortly your YAHUSHA from our Ahlohim which shall come upon you with great tifereth and brightness of אִי אִי אִי.

25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come upon you from Ahlohim: for your enemy has persecuted you; but shortly you shall see his destruction and shall tread upon his neck.

26 My delicate ones have gone rough derachot and were taken away as a flock caught by the enemies.

27 Be of tov comfort, O my children and cry to Ahlohim: for you shall be remembered by Him who brought these things upon you.

28 For as it was your mind to go astray from Ahlohim: so, being returned, seek Him ten times more.

29 For He that has brought these plagues upon you shall bring you everlasting gilah with your YAHUSHA.

30 Take a tov lev, O Yahrushalayim: for He that gave you that name will comfort you.

31 Miserable are they who afflicted you and rejoiced at your fall.

32 Miserable are the cities which your children served: miserable is she that received your sons.

33 For as she rejoiced at your ruin and was glad at your fall: so shall she be grieved for her own desolation.

34 For I will take away the rejoicing of her great multitude and her pride shall be turned into mourning.

35 For fire shall come upon her from אִי אִי אִי, long to endure; and she shall be inhabited by shedim for a great time.

36 O Yahrushalayim, look around you toward the east and behold the gilah that comes to you from Ahlohim.

37 Look, your sons come, whom you sent away, they come gathered together from the east to the west by the Word of the Kadosh One, rejoicing in the kavod of Ahlohim.

5 Put off, O Yahrushalayim, the garment of mourning and affliction and put on the tifereth of the esteem that comes from Ahlohim le-olam-va-ed.

2 Cast on you a double garment of the tzedakah which comes from Ahlohim; and set a keter on your head of the kavod of אִתְּכֶם.

3 For Ahlohim will show your brightness to every country under the shamayim.

4 For your name shall be called of Ahlohim le-olam-va-ed. The shalom of tzedakah and the kavod of Ahlohim's avdoot.

5 Arise, O Yahrushalayim and stand on high and look about toward the east and behold your children gathered from the west to the east by the Word of The Set Apart One, rejoicing in the remembrance of Ahlohim.

6 For they departed from you on foot and were led away by their enemies: but Ahlohim brings them to you exalted with tifereth, as children of the Kingdom.

7 For Ahlohim has appointed that every high hill and banks of long continuance should be cast down and valleys filled up to make even the ground, that Yisrael may go safely in the tifereth of Ahlohim,

8 Moreover even the woods and every sweet-smelling eytz shall overshadow Yisrael by the mitzvah of Ahlohim.

9 For Ahlohim shall lead Yisrael with gilah in the Ohr of His tifereth with the rachamim and tzedakah that comes from Him.

6 A copy of a letter that Yirmeyahu sent to them who were about to be led captives into Bavel by the melech of Bavel, to certify them, as it was commanded to him by Ahlohim.

2 Because of the sins which you have committed before Ahlohim, you shall be led away captive into Bavel by Nevuchadnetsar melech of the Babylonians.

3 So when you come to Bavel, you shall remain there many years and for a long season, namely, seven generations: and after that I will bring you away in shalom from there.

4 Now shall you see in Bavel ahlohim of silver and of gold and of wood, borne upon shoulders, which cause the goyim to fear.

5 Beware therefore that you in no way be like the goyim, neither be you like them, when you see the multitude before them and behind them, worshipping them.

6 But rather say you in your levavot, O אלהים, we must give You avdoot.

7 For My Malach, Yahushua, is with you and I Myself am caring for your beings.

8 As for their tongue, it is polished by the workman and they themselves are gilded and laid over with silver; yet are they but false and cannot speak.

9 And taking gold, as it were for a virgin that loves to gilah, they make ketarim for the heads of their ahlohim.

10 Sometimes also their kohanim convey from their ahlohim gold and silver and bestow it upon themselves.

11 Yes, they will give of it to the common harlots and deck them as men with garments, being ahlohim of silver and ahlohim of gold and wood.

12 Yet these ahlohim cannot save themselves from rust and moth, though they be covered with purple raiment.

13 They wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, when there is much upon them.

14 And it that cannot put to death one that offends it; it holds a scepter, as though it were a shophet of the country.

15 It has also in its right hand a dagger and an ax: but cannot deliver itself from war and thieves.

16 By which they are known not to be ahlohim: therefore fear them not.

17 For like a vessel that a man uses is worthless when it is broken, even so it is with their ahlohim: when they are set up in their temples, their eyes are full of dust through the feet of them that come in.

18 And as the doors are made secure on every side upon him that offends the melech, as being committed to suffer death: even so their kohanim make fast their temples with doors, with locks and bars, lest their ahlohim be spoiled by robbers.

19 They ohr candles for them, yes, more than for themselves and they cannot see even one.

20 They are as one of the beams of the temple, yet they say their levavot are gnawed upon by things creeping out of the earth; and when they eat them and their clothes, they feel it not.

21 Their faces are made black through the smoke that comes out of the temple.

22 Upon their bodies and heads sit bats, swallows and birds and the cats also.

23 By this you may know that they are not ahlohim: therefore fear them not.

24 Notwithstanding the gold that is about them to make them beautiful, except they wipe off the rust, they will not shine: for neither when they were melted did they feel it.

25 The things in which there is no breath are bought for a most high price.

26 They are borne upon shoulders, having no feet by which they declare to men that they are quite worthless.

27 They also that serve them are ashamed: for if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise up again by themselves: neither, if one set them upright, can they move by themselves: neither, if they be bowed down, can they make themselves straight: but they set gifts before them as to dead men.

28 As for the things that are sacrificed to them, their kohanim sell and abuse; in like manner their wives lay up part of it in salt; but to the poor and impotent they give nothing of it.

29 Women in nidah and women in childbirth eat their sacrifices: by these things you may know that they are not ahlohim: fear them not.

30 For how can they be called ahlohim? Because women set meat before the ahlohim of silver, gold and wood?

31 And their kohanim sit in their temples, having their clothes rent and their heads and beards shaven and nothing upon their heads.

32 They roar and cry before their ahlohim, as men do at a pagan feast when one is dead.

33 The kohanim also take off their garments and clothe their wives and children.

34 Whether it be evil that one does to them, or tov, they are not able to reward that: they can neither set up a melech, nor put him down.

35 In like manner, they can neither give riches nor money: though a man make a vow to them and keep it not, they will not require it.

36 They can save no man from death, neither deliver the weak from the mighty.

37 They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor help any man in his distress.

38 They can show no rachamim to the widow, nor do tov to the orphan.

39 Their ahlohim of wood and which are overlaid with gold and silver, are like the stones that be carved out of the har: they that worship them shall be confounded.

40 How should a man then think and say that they are ahlohim, when even the Chaldeans themselves dishonor them?

41 Who if they shall see one dumb that cannot speak, they bring him and intreat Baal that he may speak, as though he were able to understand.

42 Yet they cannot understand this themselves and leave them: for they have no da'at.

43 The women also with cords about them, sitting in the derachot, burn bran for perfume: but if any of them, drawn by someone that passes by, lie with it, she reproaches her fellow that she was not thought as worthy as herself, nor her cord broken.

44 Whatever is done among them is false: how may it then be thought or said that they are ahlohim?

45 They are made by carpenters and goldsmiths: they can be nothing else than the workmen will have them to be.

46 And they themselves that made them can never continue long; how should then the things that are made by them be ahlohim?

47 For they left lies and reproaches to them that come after.

48 For when there comes any war or plague upon them, their kohanim consult with themselves where they may be hidden with them.

49 How then cannot men perceive that they be not ahlohim, which can neither save themselves from war nor from plague?

50 For seeing they be but of wood and overlaid with silver and gold, it shall be known from now on that they are false:

51 And it shall manifestly appear to all goyim and melechim that they are not ahlohim, but the works of men's hands and that there is no work of Ahlohim in them.

52 Who then may not know that they are not ahlohim?

53 For neither can they set up a melech in the land, nor give rain to men.

54 Neither can they judge their own cause, nor redress a wrong, being unable: for they are as crows between the shamayim and earth.

55 So when fire falls upon the bayit of ahlohim of wood, or laid over with gold or silver, their kohanim will flee away and escape; but they themselves shall be burned asunder like beams.

56 Moreover they cannot withstand any melech or enemies: how can it then be thought or said that they are ahlohim?

57 Neither are those ahlohim of wood and laid over with silver or gold able to escape either from thieves or robbers.

58 Whose gold and silver and garments with which they are clothed, those that are strong take it and go away with it: neither are they able to help themselves.

59 Therefore it is better to be a melech who shows his power, or else a profitable vessel in a bayit, which the owner shall have use of, than such false ahlohim; or to be a door in a bayit, to keep such things in it, than such false ahlohim. Or, a pillar of wood in a palace, than such false ahlohim.

60 For shemesh, yarayach and cochavim, being bright and sent to do their offices are obedient.

61 In like manner the lightning when it breaks forth is easy to be seen; and after the same manner the wind blows in every country.

62 And when Ahlohim commands the clouds to go over the whole olam, they do as they are told.

63 And the fire sent from above to consume hills and woods does as it is commanded: but these are not like them, neither in show nor power.

64 So it is neither to be supposed nor said that they are ahlohim, seeing, they are able neither to judge causes nor to do tov to men.

65 Knowing therefore that they are not ahlohim, fear them not,

66 For they can neither curse nor bless melechim:

67 Neither can they show signs in the shamayim among the goyim, nor shine as the shemesh, nor reflect ohr as the yarayach.

68 The beasts are better than they are: for they can get under a cover and help themselves.

69 It is then by no means manifest to us that they are ahlohim: therefore fear them not.

70 For as a scarecrow in a garden of cucumbers keeps nothing: so are their ahlohim of wood laid over with silver and gold.

71 And likewise their ahlohim of wood, laid over with silver and gold, are like a white thorn in an orchard, that every bird sits upon; as also to a dead gooff that is cast into the dark.

72 And you shall know them to be not ahlohim by the bright purple that rots upon them and they themselves afterward shall be eaten and shall be a reproach in the country.

73 Better therefore is the tzadik who has no idols: for he shall be from reproach. X

The Three Guards- Shalosh Shomrim [Third Ezra Chapters 3 and 4 Only]

3 Now when Darius reigned, he made a great feast unto all his subjects and unto all his household and unto all the princes of Media and Persia,

2 And to all the governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, from India unto Ethiopia, from a hundred twenty and seven provinces.

3 And when they had eaten and drunken and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the melech went into his bedroom and slept and soon after awoke.

4 Then three young men, that were of the guard that kept the melech's gooff, spoke one to another.

5 Let every one of us speak advice: he that shall overcomes and whose advice shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the melech Darius give great gifts and great things in tokens of victory:

6 As, to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold cups and to sleep upon gold and a chariot with bridles of gold and an head tire of fine linen and a chain around his neck:

7 And he shall sit next to Darius because of his chochmah and shall be called Darius his cousin.

8 And then everyone wrote his advice, sealed it and laid it under melech Darius's pillow.

9 And said that, when the melech is risen, someone will give him the writings; and of whose side the melech and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his advice is the wisest, to him shall the victory be given, as was appointed.

10 The first wrote, Wine is the strongest.

11 The second wrote, The melech is the strongest.

12 The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Emet bears the victory.

13 Now when the melech was risen, they took their writings and delivered them unto him and so he read them:

14 And sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and Media and the governors and the captains and the lieutenants and the chief officers.

15 And sat down in the royal seat of mishpat; and the writings were read before them.

16 And he said, Call the young men and they shall declare their own insights. So they were called and came in.

17 And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings. Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine.

18 And he said, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine. It causes all men to err that drink it:

19 It makes the mind of the melech and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich:

20 It turns also every thought into silliness or simcha, so that a man remembers neither sorrow nor debt:

21 And it makes every lev rich, so that a man remembers neither melech nor governor; and it makes one to speak all things:

22 And when it is in their cups, they forget their love both to chaverim and brethren and a little after it draws out fighting:

23 But when they are drunk from wine, they remember not what they have done.

24 O you men, is not wine the strongest, that enforces to do this? And when he had spoken, he held his shalom.

- 4 Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the melech, began to say,
- 2 O you men, do not men excel in strength that bear rule over sea and land and all things in them?
- 3 But yet the melech is more mighty: for he is master of all these things and has dominion over them; and whatsoever he commands them, they do.
- 4 If he tells them to make war the one against the other, they do it: if he sends them out against their enemies, they go and break down mountains walls and towers.
- 5 They slay and are slain and transgress not the melech's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the melech, as well the spoil and everything else.
- 6 Likewise for those that are not soldiers and have nothing to do with wars, but use farming, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the melech and compel one another to pay tribute to the melech.
- 7 And yet he is but one man: if he commands to kill, they kill; if he commands to spare, they spare.
- 8 If he commands to smite, they smite; if he commands to make desolate, they make desolate; if he commands to build, they build.
- 9 If he commands to cut down, they cut down; if he commands to plant, they plant.
- 10 So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore, he lies down, he eats and drinks and takes his rest:
- 11 And these keep watch around him, neither may any one depart and do his own business, neither disobey him in anything.

12 O you men, how should not the melech be mightiest, when in such a manner he is always obeyed? And he held his tongue.

13 Then the third, who had spoken of women and of The Emet, (this was Zerubbavel) began to speak.

14 O you men, it is not the great melech, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that excels; who is it then that rules them, or has the oversight over them? The answer is women?

15 Women have birthed the melech and all the people that bear rule by sea and land.

16 Even from them they were born: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from where the wine comes.

17 These also make garments for men; these bring beauty to men; and without women men cannot be.

18 Yes and if men have gathered gold and silver, or any other tov thing, do they not have ahava for a woman which is nice in favor and beauty?

19 And letting all those things go, do they not gaze and even with open mouth, fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire for her than for silver or gold, or any tov thing whatsoever?

20 A man leaves his own abba that brought him up and his own country and cleaves unto his isha.

21 He spends his chayim with his isha. and remembers neither abba, nor mother, nor country.

22 By this also you must know that women have dominion over you in many ways: do you not labor and toil and give and bring all to the woman?

23 Yes, a man takes his sword and goes his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon the rivers.

24 And looks upon a lion and goes in the darkness; and when he has stolen, spoiled and robbed, he brings it to his lover.

25 Wherefore a man has more ahava for his isha than abba or mother.

26 Yes, many there be that have run out of their wits for women and become avadim for their sakes.

27 Many also have perished, have erred and sinned, for women.

28 And now do you not believe me? Is not the melech great in his power? Do not all regions fear to touch him?

29 Yet did I see him and Apame the melech's concubine, the daughter of the admirable Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the melech, 30 And taking the keter from the melech's head and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the melech with her left hand.

31 And yet for all this the melech groped her and gazed upon her with an open mouth: if she laughed at him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure with him, the melech was fast to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again.

32 O you men, see how women are the strongest, seeing they do all this?

33 Then the melech and the princes looked at one another: so he began to speak of The Emet.

34 O you men; are not women strongest? Great is the earth, high is the shamayim, swift is the shemesh in its course, for it circles in the shamayim and seeks its own course, back again to its own place in one yom.

35 Is He not great that makes these things?

Therefore, great is The Emet and stronger than all things.

36 All the earth cries to The Emet and the shamayim bless it: all works shake and tremble at it; and with it is no unrighteous thing.

37 Wine is wicked, the melech is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked and such are all their wicked works; and there is no emet in them; in their unrighteousness also they shall perish.

38 As for The Emet, it endures and is always strong; it lives and conquers le olam va-ed.

39 With Emet there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but Emet does the things that are just and refrains from all unjust things and all wicked things; and all men do well when following Emet.

40 Neither in its mishpat is any unrighteousness; and Emet is the strength, malchut, power and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the Myhla of Emet.

41 And with that he held his shalom. And all the people then shouted and said, Great is Emet and mighty above all things.

42 Then said the melech to him, Ask what you will more than is appointed in the writing and we will give it to you, because you are found wisest; and you shalt sit next me and shalt be called my cousin.

43 Then said he to the melech, Remember your vow, which you have vowed to rebuild Yahrushalayim, in the yom when you came to your malchut?

44 And to send back all the vessels that were taken away out of Yahrushalayim, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Bavel and to send them back?

45 You also have vowed to rebuild the Beit HaMikdash, which the Edomites burned when the House of Yahudah was made desolate by the Chaldeans.

46 And now, O master, the melech, this is that which I require and which I desire of you and the main desire even proceeding from yourself: I desire therefore that you make tov your vow, the performance of it with your own mouth, which you have vowed to the Melech of the shamayim.

47 Then Darius the melech stood up and kissed him and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely help them on their way, both him and all those that go up with him to rebuild Yahrushalayim.

48 He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Celosyria and Phenice and to them in Levanon, that they should bring cedar wood from Levanon to Yahrushalayim and that they should build the city with him.

49 Moreover he wrote for all the Yahudim that went out of his realm up into Yahudah, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors.

50 And that all the land which they hold should be free without tribute; and that the Edomites should return the villages of the Yahudim, which then they held:

51 Yes, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the Beit HaMikdash, until the time that it was rebuilt.

52 And ten more talents yearly, to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every yom, as they had a mitzvah.

53 And that all they that went from Bavel to rebuild the city should have freedom, as well as their posterity with all the kohanim that had been in exile.

54 He wrote also concerning the duties and the kohanim's vestments in which they minister.

55 And likewise for the duties of the Lewites, to be given to them until the yom that the Beit HaMikdash was finished and Yahrushalayim rebuilt.

56 And he commanded to give to all that kept the city pensions and wages.

57 He returned also all the vessels from Bavel, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in his commandment, the same order he also gave to be done and sent unto Yahrushalayim.

58 Now when this young man Zerubbavel had gone out, he lifted his face to the shamayim, towards Yahrushalayim and praised The Melech of the shamayim, 59 And said, From You comes victory, from You comes chochmah and Yours is the tifereth and I am Your eved.

60 Blessed are You, who has given me chochmah: for to You I give hodu, O Myhla of our ahvot.

61 And so he took the letters and went out and came unto Bavel and told it all his brethren.

62 And they praised the Myhla of their ahvot, because He had given them freedom and liberty.

63 To go up and to rebuild Yahrushalayim and the Beit HaMikdash, which is called by His Name: and they feasted with instruments of music and simcha seven yamim. X

Bel & The Dragon-Bel Ve-Hatanin

1 When Melech Astyages was laid to rest with his ancestors, Cyrus the Persian succeeded to his malchut.

2 Daniyel was a companion of the melech and was the most esteemed of all his friends.

3 Now the Babylonians had an idol called Bel, and every yom they provided for it twelve bushels of choice flour and forty sheep and six measures of wine.

4 The melech revered it and went every yom to worship it. But Daniyel worshiped his own Ahlohim. So the melech said to him, Why do you not worship Bel?

5 He answered, Because I do not revere idols made with hands, but the living Ahlohim, who created the shamayim and earth and has dominion over all living creatures.

6 The melech said to him, Do you not think that Bel is a living Ahlohim? Do you not see how much he eats and drinks every yom?

7 And Daniyel laughed and said, Do not be deceived, O melech, for this thing is only clay inside and bronze outside and it never ate or drank anything.

8 Then the melech was angry and called the kohanim of Bel and said to them, If you do not tell me who is eating these provisions, you shall die.

9 But if you can prove that Bel is eating them, Daniyel shall die, because he has spoken blasphemy against Bel. Daniyel said to the melech, Let it be done as you have said.

10 Now there were seventy kohanim of Bel, besides their wives and children. So the melech went with Daniyel into the temple of Bel.

11 The kohanim of Bel said, See, we are now going outside; you yourself, O melech, put out the food and prepare the wine and shut the door and seal it with your signet.

12 When you return in the boker, if you do not find that Bel has eaten it all, we will die; otherwise, Daniyel will, who is telling lies about us.

13 They were unconcerned, for beneath the table they had made a hidden entrance, through which they used to go in regularly and consume the provisions.

14 After they had gone out, the melech set out the food for Bel. Then Daniyel ordered his avadim to bring ashes and they scattered them throughout the whole temple in the presence of the melech alone. Then they went out, shut the door and sealed it with the melech's signet and departed.

15 During the lyla the kohanim came as usual, with their wives and children and they ate and drank everything.

16 Early in the boker the melech rose and came and Daniyel with him.

17 The melech said, Are the seals unbroken, Daniyel? He answered, They are unbroken, O melech.

18 As soon as the doors were opened, the melech looked at the table and shouted in a loud voice, You are great, O Bel and in you there is no deceit at all.

19 But Daniyel laughed and restrained the melech from going in. Look at the floor, he said, And notice whose footprints these are.

20 The melech said, I see the footprints of men and women and children.

21 Then the melech was enraged and he arrested the kohanim and their wives and children. They showed him the secret doors through which they used to enter to consume what was on the table.

22 Therefore the melech put them to death and gave Bel over to Daniyel, who destroyed it and its temple.

23 Now in that place there was also a great dragon, which the Babylonians revered.

24 The melech said to Daniyel, You cannot deny that this is a living Ahlohim; so worship him.

25 Daniyel said, I worship אֱלֹהִים my Ahlohim only, for He is the emet living Ahlohim.

26 But give me permission, O melech and I will kill the dragon without sword or club. The melech said, I give you permission.

27 Then Daniyel took tar, fat and hair and boiled them together and made cakes, which he fed to the dragon. The dragon ate them and burst open. Then Daniyel said, See what you have been worshiping.

28 When the Babylonians heard about it, they were very indignant and conspired against the melech, saying, The melech has become a Yahudi; he has destroyed Bel and killed the dragon and slaughtered the kohanim.

29 Going to the melech, they said, Hand Daniyel over to us, or else we will kill you and your household.

30 The melech saw that they were pressing him hard and under compulsion he handed Daniyel over to them.

31 They threw Daniyel into the lion's den and he was there for six yamim.

32 There were seven lions in the den and every yom they had been given two human bodies and two sheep; but now they were given nothing, so that they would devour Daniyel.

33 Now the navi Chabakook was in Yahudah; he had made a stew and had broken lechem into a bowl and was going into the field to take it to the reapers.

34 But the Malach of אֱלֹהִים said to Chabakook, Take the food that you have to Bavel, to Daniyel, in the lion's den.

35 Chabakook said, Adon, I have never seen Bavel and I know nothing about the den.

36 Then the Malach of אֱלֹהִים took him by the keter of his head and carried him by his hair; with the speed of The Ruach he set him down in Bavel, right over the den.

37 Then Chabakook shouted, Daniyel, Daniyel. Take and eat the food that Ahlohim has sent you.

38 Daniyel said, You have remembered me, O אֱלֹהִים and have not forsaken those who have ahava for You.

39 So Daniyel got up and ate. And the Malach of אֱלֹהִים immediately returned Chabakook to his own place.

40 On the seventh yom the melech came to mourn for Daniyel. When he came to the den he looked in and there sat Daniyel.

41 The melech shouted with a loud voice, You are great, O Adon אֱלֹהִים, the Ahlohim of Daniyel and there is none other besides You.

42 Then he pulled Daniyel out and threw into the den those who had attempted his destruction and they were instantly eaten before his very eyes. X

The Prayer of Azariah-

Tefillat Azaryah

- 1 They walked around in the midst of the flames, singing shirim to Ahlohim and blessing אלהים
- 2 Then Azaryah stood still in the fire and made tefillah out loud:
- 3 Blessed are you, אלהים Ahlohim of our ancestors and worthy of all tehilot and esteemed is your Name le-olam-va-ed.
- 4 For You are just in all You have done; all Your works are emet and Your halachot tzadik and all your mishpatim are emet.
- 5 You have executed emet mishpat in all You have brought upon us and upon Yahrushalayim, the kadosh city of our ancestors; by an emet mishpat, You have brought all this upon us because of our sins.
- 6 For we have sinned and broken Your Torah in turning away from You; in all matters we have sinned grievously.
- 7 We have not obeyed your mitzvoth, we have not kept them or done what you have commanded us for our own tov.
- 8 So all that You have brought upon us and all that You have done to us, You have done by an emet mishpat.
- 9 You have handed us over to our enemies, Torahless and hateful rebels and to an unjust melech, the most wicked in all the world.
- 10 And now we cannot open our mouths; we, Your avadim who worship You, have become a shame and a reproach.

11 For Your Name's sake do not give us up le-olam-va-ed and do not annul your brit.

12 Do not withdraw your rachamim from us, for the sake of Avraham your beloved and for the sake of your eved Yitzchak and Yisrael your kadosh one.

13 To whom you promised to multiply their descendants like the cochavim of the shamayim and like the sand on the shore of the sea.

14 For we, אִיִּי, have become fewer than any other nation and are brought low this yom in all the olam because of our sins.

15 In our yom we have no ruler, or navi, or leader, no burnt offering, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, no place to make an offering before You and to find rachamim.

16 Yet with a contrite lev and a humble ruach may we be accepted.

17 As though it were with burnt offerings of rams and bulls, or with tens of thousands of the fat of lambs; such may our sacrifice be in Your sight this yom and may we unreservedly follow You, for no shame will come to those who trust in You.

18 And now with all our lev we follow You; we fear You and seek Your presence.

19 Do not put us to shame, but deal with us in Your patience and in your abundant rachamim.

20 Deliver us in accordance with your marvelous works and bring esteem to Your Name, YAHUSHA

21 Let all who do harm to Your avadim be put to shame; let them be disgraced and deprived of all power and let their strength be broken.

22 Let them know that you alone are אִיִּי, ruling in esteem over the whole olam.

23 Now the melech's avadim who threw them in kept stoking the furnace with tar, flax fibers and brushwood.

24 And the flames poured out above the furnace forty nine cubits.

25 And spread out and burned those Chaldeans who were caught near the furnace.

26 But the Malach אֱלֹהִים came down into the furnace to be with Azaryah and his companions and drove the fiery flame out of the furnace.

27 And made the inside of the furnace as though it were a moist ruach were whistling through it. The fire did not touch them at all and caused them no pain or distress.

28 Then the three with one voice gave hodu and esteem and blessed אֱלֹהִים in the furnace:

29 Blessed are you, YAHUSHA of our ancestors; be esteemed and highly exalted le-olam-va-ed.

30 And blessed is Your esteemed, kadosh Name to be highly praised and highly exalted le-olam-va-ed.

31 Blessed are you in the Beit HaMikdash of Your kadosh esteem and to be extolled and highly lifted up le-olam-va-ed.

32 Blessed are You who look into the depths from Your kesay between the cheruvim to be praised and highly exalted le-olam-va-ed.

33 Blessed are You on the kesay of Your malchut to be extolled and highly exalted le-olam-va-ed.

 34 Blessed are You in the raqiyah of the shamayim to be worshipped and esteemed le-olam-va-ed.

35 Bless אֱלֹהִים, all you works of אֱלֹהִים; shir tehilot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

 36 Bless אֱלֹהִים, you shamayim; shir tehilot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

37 Bless אֱלֹהִים, you malachim of אֱלֹהִים; shir tehilot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

39 Bless אֲרָצָה, all you powers of אֲרָצָה; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

40 Bless אֲרָצָה, shemesh and yarayach; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

41 Bless אֲרָצָה, cochavim of the shamayim; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

42 Bless אֲרָצָה, all rain and dew; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

43 Bless אֲרָצָה, all you ruachim; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

44 Bless אֲרָצָה fire and heat; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

45 Bless אֲרָצָה, winter cold and summer heat; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

46 Bless אֲרָצָה, dews and falling snow; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

47 Bless אֲרָצָה, nights and yamim, shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

48 Bless אֲרָצָה, ohr and darkness; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

49 Bless אֲרָצָה, ice and cold; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

50 Bless אֲרָצָה, frosts and snows; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

51 Bless אֲרָצָה, lightnings and clouds; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

52 Let the earth bless אֲרָצָה; let it shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

53 Bless אֲרָצָה, mountains and hills; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed

54 Bless אֲרָצָה, all that grows in the ground; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

55 Bless אֲרָצָה, seas and rivers; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

56 Bless אֲרָצָה, you springs, shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

57 Bless אֲרָצָה you whales and all that swim in the mayim; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

58 Bless אֲרָצָה, all birds of the air; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

59 Bless אֲרָצָה, all wild animals and cattle; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

60 Bless אֲרָצָה, all people on earth; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

61 Bless אֲרָצָה, O Yisrael; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

62 Bless אֲרָצָה you kohanim of אֲרָצָה shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

63 Bless אֲרָצָה, you avadim of אֲרָצָה, shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

64 Bless אֲרָצָה, ruachim and naphshoth of the tzadikim; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

65 Bless אֲרָצָה, you who are kadosh and humble in lev; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed.

66 Bless אֲרָצָה, Chananyah, Azaryah, and Mishael; shir tehillot to Him and highly exalt Him le-olam-va-ed. For He has rescued us from Sheol and saved us from the power of death and delivered us from the midst of the burning fiery furnace; from the midst of the fire, He has delivered us.

67 Give hodu to אֲרָצָה, for He is tov, for His rachamim endures le-olam-va-ed.

68 All who worship אֲרָצָה, bless the Ahlohim of all ahlohim, shir tehillot to Him and give hodu to Him, for His rachamim endures le-olam-va-ed. X

Susanna-Shoshanna

Kadosh Woman Living Virtuously

- 1 There was a man living in Bavel whose name was Yohakim.
- 2 He married the daughter of Hilkiyah, named Shoshanna, a very beautiful woman and one who feared אלהים .
- 3 Her parents were tzadik and had trained their daughter according to the Torah of Moshe.
- 4 Yohakim was very rich and had a fine garden next to his house; the Yahudim used to come to him because he was the most esteemed of them all.
- 5 That year two zechanim from the people were appointed as shophtim. Concerning them אלהים had said: Wickedness came forth from Bavel, from zechanim who were shophtim, who were supposed to govern the people.
- 6 These men were frequently at Yohakim's bayit and all who had a case to be tried came to them there.
- 7 When the people left at noon, Shoshanna would go into her husband's gan to walk.
- 8 Every yom the two zechanim used to see her, going in and walking about and they began to lust for her.
- 9 They suppressed their consciences and turned away their eyes from looking to the shamayim or remembering their duty to administer mishpat.
- 10 Both were overwhelmed with passion for her, but they did not tell each other of their distress.
- 11 For they were ashamed to disclose their lustful desires to seduce her.
- 12 Yom after yom they watched eagerly to see her.

13 One yom they said to each other, Let us go home, for it is time for lunch. So they both left and parted from each other.

14 But turning back, they met again; and when each pressed the other for the reason, they confessed their lust. Then together they arranged for a time when they could find her alone.

15 Once, while they were watching for an opportunity, one yom she went in as before with only two maids and wished to bathe in the gan, for it was a hot yom.

16 No one was there except the two zechanim, who had hidden themselves and were watching her.

17 She said to her maids, Bring me olive oil and ointments and shut the gan doors so that I can bathe.

18 They did as she told them: they shut the doors of the gan and went out by the side doors to bring what they had been commanded; they did not see the zechanim, because they were hiding.

19 When the maids had gone out, the two zechanim got up and ran to her.

20 They said, Look, the gan doors are shut and no one can see us. We are burning with desire for you; so give your consent and have sex with us.

21 If you refuse, we will testify against you that a young man was with you and this was why you sent your maids away.

22 Shoshanna groaned and said, I am completely trapped. For if I do this, it will mean death for me; if I do not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 If I choose not to do it; I will fall into your hands, rather than sin in the sight of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

24 Then Shoshanna cried out with a loud voice and the two zechanim shouted to drown her out.

25 And one of them ran and opened the gan doors.

26 When the people in the bayit heard the shouting in the gan, they rushed in at the side door to see what had happened to her.

27 And when the zechanim told their story, the avadim felt very much ashamed, for nothing like this had ever been said about Shoshanna.

28 The next yom, when the people gathered at the bayit of her husband Yohakim, the two zechanim came, full of their wicked plot to have Shoshanna put to death. In the presence of the people they said.

29 Send for Shoshanna daughter of Hilkiyah, the isha of Yohakim.

30 So they sent for her. And she came with her parents, her children and all her relatives.

31 Now Shoshanna was a woman of great refinement and beautiful in appearance.

32 As she was veiled, the scoundrels ordered her to be unveiled, so that they might feast their eyes on her beauty.

33 Those who were with her and all who saw her were weeping.

34 Then the two zechanim stood up before the people and laid their hands on her head.

35 Through her tears she looked up toward the shamayim, for her lev trusted in אלהים.

36 The zechanim said, While we were walking in the gan alone, this woman came in with two maids, shut the gan doors and then dismissed the maids.

37 Then a young man, who was hiding there, came to her and had sex with her.

38 We were in a corner of the gan and when we saw this wickedness we ran to them.

39 Although we saw them having sex, we could not hold the man, because he was stronger than we were and he opened the doors and got away.

40 We did, however, seize this woman and asked who the young man was.

41 But she would not tell us. These things we testify. Because they were zechanim of the people and shophtim, the assembly believed them and condemned her to death.

42 Then Shoshanna cried out with a loud voice and said, O eternal אֱלֹהִים, you know what is secret and are aware of all things before they come to be.

43 You know that these men have given false evidence against me. And now I am to die, though I have done none of the wicked things that they have charged against me.

44 אֱלֹהִים heard her cry.

45 Just as she was being led off to execution, אֱלֹהִים stirred up the kadosh ruach of a young lad named Daniyel.

46 And he shouted with a loud voice, I want no part in shedding this woman's dahm.

47 All the people turned to him and asked, What is this you are saying?

48 Taking his stand among them he said, Are you such fools, O Yisraelites, as to condemn a daughter of Yisrael without examination and without learning the facts?

49 Return to court, for these men have given false evidence against her.

50 So all the people hurried back. And the rest of the zechanim said to him, Come, sit among us and inform us, for Ahlohim has given you the standing of a zachan.

51 Daniyel said to them, Separate them far from each other and I will examine them.

52 When they were separated from each other, he summoned one of them and said to him, You old relic of wicked yamim, your sins have now come to light, which you have committed in the past.

53 Pronouncing unjust mishpatim, condemning the innocent and acquitting the guilty, though אִי־אִי said, You shall not put an innocent and tzadik person to death.

54 Now then, if you really saw this woman, tell me this: Under what eytz did you see them being intimate with each other? He answered, Under a mastic tree.

55 And Daniyel said, Very well. This lie has cost you your head, for the Malach of Ahlohim has received the sentence from Ahlohim and will immediately cut you in two.

56 Then, putting him to one side, he ordered them to bring the other. And he said to him, You offspring of Kanaan and not of Yahudah, beauty has beguiled you and lust has perverted your lev.

57 This is how you have been treating the daughters of Yisrael all along and they were intimate with you through fear; but a daughter of Yahudah would not tolerate your wickedness.

58 Now then, tell me: Under what eytz did you catch them being intimate with each other? He answered, Under an evergreen oak.

59 Daniyel said to him, Very well. This lie has cost you also your head, for the Malach of Ahlohim is waiting with His sword to split you in two, so as to destroy you both.

60 Then the whole assembly raised a great shout and blessed אִי־אִי, who saves those who place their tikvah in Him.

61 And they took action against the two zechanim, because out of their own mouths Daniyel had convicted them of bearing false witness; they did to them as they had wickedly planned to do to their neighbor.

62 Acting in accordance with the Torah of Moshe, they put them to death. Thus innocent dahm was spared that yom.

63 Hilkiyah and his isha praised אלהים for their daughter Shoshanna and so did her husband Yohakim and all her relatives, because she was found innocent of a shameful deed.

64 And from that yom onward Daniyel had a great reputation among all the people. X

Ecclesiasticus-Sirach

To Yisrael

Many great things have been delivered to us by The Torah and the Prophets and by others that have followed their steps, for which things Yisrael ought to be commended for learning and retaining its chochmah; and not only the readers must become skillful themselves; but also they that yearn to learn, that are without Torah and the Prophets, both by speaking and writing these things. My grandfather Yahusha, when he had spent much time reading The Torah and the Prophets and other scrolls of our fathers and matured, was then drawn to write something pertaining to the learning and chochmah he found; so that those who desire to learn and are dedicated to these things, might grow even more, in living according to The Torah. So let me encourage you to read it with favor and attention and to pardon us, if we may seem to come short of some words, which we have labored to interpret from him. For some things uttered in Hebrew and then translated into another language, loses some power: and not only these things but The Torah and Prophets and the rest of the scrolls, all are more or less the same, when read in their own Hebrew language. For in the 38th year of my coming into Mitzrayim, when Ptolemy III-Euergetes was melech, I found a scroll of great learning: therefore, I found it necessary to labor, so that I could interpret it. I used skill and was careful to translate the scroll correctly, so that those also in a strange country may also learn. For they also desire to live after The Torah.

1 All chochmah comes from אִיּוֹם and is with Him le-olam-va-ed.

2 Who can number the sand of the sea and the drops of rain and the yamim of perpetuity?

3 Who can find out the height of the shamayim and the breadth of the earth and the deep and chochmah?

4 Chochmah has been created before all things and the binah of caution from everlasting.

5 The Word of Ahlohim El-Elyon is the fountain of chochmah; and her derachot are everlasting mitzvot.

6 To whom has the root of chochmah been revealed? Or, who has known her wise counsels?

7 Unto whom has the da'at of chochmah been made manifest? And who has understood her great experience?

8 There is one wise and greatly to be feared, אִיּוֹם sitting upon His kesay.

9 He created her and saw her and numbered her and poured her out upon all His works.

10 She is with all flesh according to His gift and He has given her to them that love Him.

11 The fear of אִיּוֹם is esteem, kavod and simcha and a keter of rejoicing.

12 The fear of אִיּוֹם makes a merry lev and gives simcha and gilah and a long chayim.

13 Whoever fears אִיּוֹם, it shall go well with him at the end of chayim and he shall find chen in the yom of his death.

14 To fear אִיּוֹם is the beginning of chochmah: and it was created with the faithful in the womb.

15 She has built an everlasting foundation with men and she shall continue with their zera.

16 To fear אִיּוֹם is fulness of chochmah and fills men with her fruits.

17 She fills all their bayit with things desirable and the collections of her increase.

18 The fear of אִתָּנָה is a keter of chochmah, making shalom and perfect health to flourish; both which are the gifts of Ahlohim: and it enlarges their rejoicing that love Him.

19 Chochmah rains down skill and da'at of binah and exalts them to esteem that hold her fast.

20 The root of chochmah is to fear אִתָּנָה and the netzarim of it are long chayim.

21 The fear of אִתָּנָה drives away sins: and where it is present, it turns away wrath.

22 A furious man cannot be justified; for the sway of his fury shall be his destruction.

23 A patient man will tear for a time and afterward simcha shall spring up to him.

24 He will hide his words for a time and the lips of many shall declare his chochmah.

25 The mishle of da'at are in the treasures of chochmah: but Shabbat guarding piety is an abomination to a sinner.

26 If you lack chochmah, keep the mitzvot and אִתָּנָה shall give her to you.

27 For the fear of אִתָּנָה is chochmah and instruction: and emunah and meekness are His delight.

28 Distrust not the fear of אִתָּנָה when you are poor: and come not to Him with a double lev.

29 Be not a hypocrite in the sight of men and take tov heed what you speak.

30 Exalt not yourself, lest you fall and bring disparagement upon your being and so Ahlohim discover your secrets and cast you down in the midst of the kehilla because you came not in emet to the fear of אִתָּנָה but your lev is full of deceit.

2 My son, if you come to serve אֱלֹהִים, prepare your being for testing.

2 Set your lev right and constantly endure and make not haste in time of trouble.

3 Cleave to Him and depart not, that you may be increased at your end.

4 Whatever is brought upon you take cheerfully and be patient when you are changed to a lower estate.

5 For gold is tried in the fire and acceptable men in the furnace of adversity.

6 Believe in Him and He will help you; order your derech upright and trust in Him.

7 You that fear אֱלֹהִים, wait for His rachamim; and go not aside, lest you fall.

8 You that fear אֱלֹהִים, believe Him; and your reward shall not fail.

9 You that fear אֱלֹהִים, tikvah for tov and le olam va-ed lasting simcha and rachamim.

10 Look at the generations of old and see; did anyone that trusted in אֱלֹהִים stay confounded? Or, did any abide in His fear and was forsaken? Or, whom did He ever despise, that called upon Him?

11 For אֱלֹהִים is full of rachamim and chen, longsuffering and full of pity and forgives sins and saves in the time of affliction.

12 Woe be to fearful levavot and faint hands and the sinner that goes in two derachot.

13 Woe to him that is fainthearted. for he believes not fully; therefore shall he not be defended.

14 Woe to you that have lost patience. And what will you do when אֱלֹהִים shall visit you?

15 They that fear אֱלֹהִים will not disobey His Word; and they that love Him will keep His derachot.

16 They that fear אֱלֹהִים will seek that which is well pleasing to Him; and they that love Him shall be filled with The Torah.

17 They that fear אֱלֹהִים will prepare their levavot and humble their naphsoth in His sight, 18 Saying, We will fall into the hands of אֱלֹהִים and not into the hands of men: for as His majesty is, so is His rachamim.

3 Hear your abba, O children and do accordingly, that you may be safe.

2 For אֱלֹהִים has given the abba esteem over the children and has confirmed the authority of the eema over the sons.

3 Whoever esteems his abba makes an keporah for his sins:

4 And he that esteems his eema is as one that lays up treasure.

5 Whoever esteems his abba shall have simcha from his own children; and when he makes tefillah, he shall be heard.

6 He that esteems his abba shall have a long chayim; and he that is obedient to אֱלֹהִים shall be a comfort to his eema.

7 He that fears אֱלֹהִים will esteem his abba and will do service to his parents, as to his masters.

8 Esteem your abba and eema both in word and deed, that a bracha may come upon you from them.

9 For the blessing of the abba establishes the houses of children; but the curse of the eema roots out foundations.

10 Esteem not in the disparagement of your abba; for your abba's disparagement is no esteem to you.

11 For the esteem of a man is from the esteem of his abba; and an eema in disparagement is a reproach to the children.

12 My son, help your abba in his older age and grieve him not as long as he lives.

13 And if his memory and strength fail, have patience with him; and despise him not when you are in your full strength.

14 For the elderly care of your abba shall not be forgotten: and instead of sins, it shall be added to build you up.

15 In the yom of your affliction it shall be remembered; your sins also shall melt away, as the ice in warm weather.

16 He that forsakes his abba is as a blasphemer; and he that angers his eema is cursed of Ahlohim.

17 My son, go on with your business in meekness; so shall you be beloved by him that is approved.

18 The greater you are, the more you should humble yourself and you shall find chen before

אֱלֹהִים.

19 Many are in high places of renown: but sods are revealed to the meek.

20 For the Power of אֱלֹהִים is great and He is esteemed by the lowly.

21 Seek not things that are too hard for you, neither search the things that are above your strength.

22 But what is commanded to you, think upon it with reverence, for it is not needful for you to see with your eyes the things that are in secret.

23 Be not curious in unnecessary matters: for more things are shown to you, than other men understand 24 For many are deceived by their own vain opinion; and an evil suspicion has overthrown their mishpat.

25 Without eyes you shall want ohr: profess not the da'at therefore that you have not.

26 A stubborn lev shall fare evil at the end; and he that loves danger shall perish in it.

27 An obstinate lev shall be laden with sorrows; and the wicked man shall heap sin upon sin.

28 In the punishment of the proud there is no remedy; for the plant of wickedness has taken root in him.

29 The lev of the prudent will understand a parable; and an attentive ear is the longing of a wise man.

30 Mayim will quench a flaming fire; and rachamim makes a keporah for sins.

31 And he that returns tov for evil is mindful of that which may come in the future; and when he falls, he shall find help.

4 My son, defraud not the poor of his living and make not the needy eyes to wait long.

2 Make not a hungry being sorrowful; neither provoke a man in his distress.

3 Add not more trouble to a lev that is vexed; and defer not to give to him that is in need.

4 Reject not the supplication of the afflicted; neither turn away your face from a poor man.

5 Turn not away your eye from the needy and give him no occasion to curse you:

6 For if he curses you in the bitterness of his being, his tefillah shall be heard by Him that made him.

7 Get yourself the love of the kehilla and bow your head to a great man.

8 Let it not grieve you to bow down your ear to the poor and give him a kind answer with meekness.

9 Deliver him that suffers wrong from the hand of the oppressor; and be not fainthearted when you sit in mishpat.

10 Be as an abba to the orphan and a husband to their eema: so shall you be as the Son of El-Elyon and He shall love you more than your eema does.

11 Chochmah exalts her children and lays hold of them that seek her.

12 He that loves her loves chayim; and they that seek her early, shall be filled with simcha.

13 He that holds her fast shall inherit esteem; and wherever she enters, אִיִּיז will bless.

14 They that serve her shall minister to The Set Apart One: and they that love her, אִיִּיז does love.

15 Whoever gives ear to her shall judge the goyim: and he that attends to her shall dwell securely.

16 If a man commit himself to her, he shall inherit her; and his generation shall hold her in possession.

17 For at the first she will walk with him in his crooked derachot and bring fear and dread upon him and torment him with her discipline, until she may trust his nephesh and test him by her Torot.

18 Then will she return him to the straight derech and comfort him and show him her secrets.

19 But if he go astray, she will forsake him and give him over to his own ruin.

20 Observe opportunity and beware of evil; and be not ashamed when it concerns your nephesh.

21 For there is a shame that brings sin; and there is a shame which is esteem and chen.

22 Accept no flattery and let not the reverence of any man cause you to fall.

23 And refrain not to speak when there is occasion to do tov and hide not your chochmah in her beauty.

24 For by speech chochmah shall be known: and learning by the word of the tongue.

25 In no way speak against the emet; but be ashamed of the error of your ignorance.

26 Be not ashamed to confess your sins; and force not the course of the river.

27 Make not yourself an associate to a foolish man; neither accept the person of the mighty.

28 Strive for the emet to death and אִיִּיז shall fight for you.

29 Be not hasty with your tongue and in your tov deeds do not be slack.

30 Be not as a lion in your bayit, nor frantic among your avadim.

31 Let not your hand be stretched out to receive and shut when it is time to repay.

5 Set your lev upon your goods; and say not, I have enough for my chayim.

2 Follow not your own mind and your strength, to walk in the derachot of your lev:

3 And say not, Who shall control me for my works? For אֱלֹהִים will surely revenge your pride.

4 Say not, I have sinned and what harm has happened to me? For אֱלֹהִים is longsuffering, He will in no wise let you go.

5 Concerning keporah, be not without fear to add sin to sin:

6 And say not His rachamim is great; He will be pacified for the multitude of my sins: for rachamim and wrath come from Him and His indignation rests upon sinners.

7 Do not delay to shuv to אֱלֹהִים and do not put it off for another yom: for suddenly shall the wrath of אֱלֹהִים come forth and in your security, you shall be destroyed and perish in the yom of vengeance.

8 Set not your lev upon goods unjustly gotten, for they shall not profit you in the yom of calamity.

9 Be not swayed with every ruach and go not into every derech: for so does the sinner that has a double tongue.

10 Be steadfast in your binah; and let your word be the same.

11 Be swift to hear; and let your chayim be sincere; and with patience give answers.

12 If you have binah, answer your neighbor; if not, lay your hand upon your mouth.

13 Esteem and shame is in talk: and the tongue of man is his fall.

14 Be not called a gossiper and lie not in wait with your tongue: for a foul shame is upon the thief and an evil condemnation upon the double tongue.

15 Be not ignorant of anything in a great matter or a small matter.

6 Instead of a chaver become not an enemy; for thereby you shall inherit an ill name, shame and reproach: even so shall a sinner that has a double tongue.

2 Extol not yourself in the counsel of your own lev; that your being be not torn in pieces as a bull straying alone.

3 You shall eat up your leaves and lose your fruit and leave yourself as a dry eytz.

4 A wicked being shall destroy him that has it and shall make him to be laughed to scorn by his enemies.

5 Sweet language will multiply chaverim: and a pleasant speaking tongue will increase kind greetings.

6 Be in shalom with many: nevertheless have but one counsellor from a thousand.

7 If you would get a chaver, prove him first and be not hasty to credit him.

8 For one may be a chaver for his own agenda and may not abide in the yom of your trouble.

9 And there is a chaver who, being turned to enmity and strife, will discover your reproach.

10 Again, some chaverim may be companions at the shulchan but not continue in the yom of your affliction.

11 But in your prosperity he will be as yourself and will be bold over your avadim.

12 If however you are brought low, he will be against you and will hide himself from your face.

13 Separate yourself from your enemies and take heed of your chaverim.

14 A faithful chaver is a strong defense: and he that has found such a one has found a treasure.

15 Nothing does affect a faithful chaver and his excellency is invaluable.

16 A faithful chaver is the medicine of chayim; and they that fear אֱלֹהִים shall find Him.

17 Whoever fears אֱלֹהִים shall make real chaverim: for he will treat them even as he treats himself.

18 My son, gather instruction from your youth up: so shall you find chochmah even in your old age.

19 Come to her as one that plows and sows and wait for her tov fruits: You will have to work at it for a while but you will soon be enjoying what you have earned.

20 She is very unpleasant to the unlearned: he that is without binah will not remain with her.

21 She will lie upon him as a mighty stone of trials; and he will cast her from him before long.

22 For chochmah is according to her name and she is not manifest to many.

23 Give ear, my son, receive my advice and refuse not my counsel, 24 And put your feet into her chains and your neck into her yoke.

25 Bow down your shoulder and bear her and be not grieved with her bonds.

26 Come to her with your whole lev and keep her derachot with all your power.

27 Search and seek and she shall be made known to you: and when you have gotten hold of her, let her not go.

28 For eventually you shall find her rest and that shall be turned to your simcha.

29 Then shall her fetters be a strong defense for you and her yoke a robe of esteem.

30 For there is a golden ornament upon her and her bands are purple lace.

31 You shall put her on as a robe of esteem and shall put her around you as a keter of simcha.

32 My son, if you will, you shall be taught: and if you will apply your mind, you shall be clever.

33 If you love to shema, you shall receive binah: and if you bow your ear, you shall be wise, 34 Stand in the multitude of the zechanim; and cleave to him that is wise.

35 Be willing to hear every tzadik discourse; and let not the mishle of binah escape you.

36 And if you see a man of binah, go frequently to him and let your foot wear out the steps of his door.

37 Let your mind be upon the chukim of אֱלֹהִים and meditate continually in His mitzvot: He shall establish your lev and give you chochmah at your own yearning.

7 Do no evil, so shall no harm come to you.

2 Depart from the unjust and iniquity shall turn away from you.

3 My son, sow not upon the ground of unrighteousness and you shall not reap them sevenfold.

4 Seek not from אֱלֹהִים preeminence, neither of the melech the seat of esteem.

5 Justify not yourself before אֱלֹהִים; and boast not of your chochmah before The Melech.

6 Seek not to be shophet, being not able to take away iniquity; lest at any time you fear the person of the mighty, a stumbling block in the derech of your uprightness.

7 Offend not against the multitude of a city and then you shall not disgrace yourself among your people.

8 Bind not one sin upon another; for even in one you shall not be unpunished.

9 Say not, Ahlohim will look upon the multitude of my offerings and when I offer to El-Elyon Ahlohim, He will accept it.

10 Be not fainthearted when you make tefillah and neglect not to give charity.

11 Laugh no man to scorn in the bitterness of his being: for there is One who humbles and exalts.

12 Devise not a lie against your brother; neither do the same to your chaver.

13 Do not use any manner of lying: for the custom of it is not tov.

14 Use not many words in a multitude of zechanim and make not much babbling when you make tefillah.

15 Hate not laborious work, neither farming, which El-Elyon has ordained.

16 Number not yourself among the multitude of sinners but remember that wrath will not tarry long.

17 Humble yourself greatly: for the vengeance of the wicked is fire and worms.

18 Change not a chaver for any tov by any means; neither a faithful brother for the gold of Ophir.

19 Don't miss out on a wise and tov woman: for her chen is above gold.

20 Seeing that your eved works hard, entreat him not with evil. nor the hireling that gives himself wholly for you.

21 Let your being love a tov eved and defraud him not of liberty.

22 Have you cattle? Look out for them: and if they be for your profit, keep them with you.

23 Have you children? Instruct them and teach them discipline from their youth.

24 If you have daughters, keep them virtuous and don't be too indulgent with them.

25 Marry your daughter and so shall you have performed a weighty matter: but give her to a man of binah.

26 If you have a tov isha, do not give her a Sefer Keritut but do not trust yourself to someone you don't hold in ahava.

27 Esteem your abba with your whole lev and forget not the birth sorrows of your eema.

28 Remember that you were begotten by them; and how can you recompense them for the things that they have done for you?

29 Fear אִתָּךְ with all your being and reverence His kohaneem.

30 Treasure Him that made you with all your strength and forsake not His avadim.

31 Fear אִתָּךְ and so esteem the kohaneem; and give them their portion, as it is commanded to you; the bikkurim and the trespass offering and the gift of the shoulders and the sacrifices of sanctification and the bikkurim of the set apart things.

32 And stretch your hand to the poor, that your blessing may be perfected.

33 A gift has chen in the sight of every man living; for the dead retain it not.

34 Fail not to be with them that weep and mourn with them that mourn.

35 Be not slow to visit the sick: for that shall make you to be beloved.

36 Whatever you do, remember that some yom you must die. As long as you keep this in mind, you will never sin.

8 Do not challenge a person who has influence; you may fall into his power.

2 Do not quarrel with someone rich; he may bribe people to turn against you. Gold has destroyed many people and corrupted melechim.

3 Don't argue with someone who talks too much; you will just be adding fuel to his fire.

4 Don't make fun of someone who has bad manners; he may insult your ancestors.

5 Don't criticize someone if he is already turning away from sin. Remember that we are all guilty.

6 Never think less of someone because he is old; some of us are growing old, too.

7 Rejoice not over your greatest enemy being dead but remember that we all die.

8 Do not disregard what the wise have said. Study their mishle; from them you can learn to be cultured and to serve great people.

9 Pay attention to what old people say, for they learned from those who came before them. You can learn from them and they can teach you how to have an answer ready when you need one.

10 You should not provide a sinner with more opportunity to sin. You might get hurt yourself; it's as easy as getting burned while adding logs to a fire.

11 You should not get up and walk out on someone who is insolent. He might twist your words and use them against you.

12 You should not lend anything to someone more powerful than you. If you do, you might as well consider it lost.

13 You should not guarantee anyone else's loan to an extent that you cannot afford. You must be prepared to pay any such guarantee.

14 You should not bring a lawsuit against a shophet. He will win because of his position.

15 You should not travel with anyone who is reckless. It will cause you nothing but trouble. He will do any foolish thing he pleases and you will die with him.

16 You should not get into an argument with anyone who has a hot temper or go to some place where the two of you will be alone. Violence means nothing to such a person and he will attack you when there is no one to help you.

17 You should not ask a stupid person for advice. He will not be able to keep secret what you tell him.

18 You should not do anything in front of a ger that should be kept secret. There is no way of knowing what will happen if you do.

19 You should not reveal your most private thoughts to anyone. If you do, you may as well throw away any chance of simcha.

9 Don't be jealous of the isha you love. You will only be teaching her how to do you harm.

2 Do not surrender your dignity to any woman.

3 Keep away from other men's wives or they will trap you.

4 Don't keep company with female musicians; they will trick you.

5 Don't look too intently at a virgin, or you may find yourself forced to pay a bride price.

6 Don't give yourself to prostitutes, or you may lose everything you own.

7 So don't go looking about in the streets or wandering around in the run-down parts of town.

8 When you see a tov-looking woman, look the other way; don't let your mind dwell on the beauty of any woman who is not your isha. Many men have been led astray by a woman's beauty. It kindles passion as if it were fire.

9 Don't sit down to eat with another man's isha or join her for a drink. You may give in to the temptation of her charms and be destroyed by your passion.

10 Never abandon old chaverim; you will never find a new one who can take their place. Friendship is like wine; it gets better as it grows older.

11 Don't be jealous of a sinner's success; you don't know what kind of disaster is in store for him.

12 Don't take pleasure in the things that make unrighteous people happy; remember that they will be held guilty as long as they live.

13 If you keep away from someone who has the power to put you to death, you will not have to fear for your chayim; but if you must go near him, be very careful, or he may kill you. Be conscious that you are walking among hidden traps, that you are an easy target.

14 Get to know the people around you as well as you can and take advice only from those who are qualified to give it.

15 Engage in conversation with intelligent people and let The Torah of El-Elyon be the topic of your discussions.

16 And let just men eat and drink with you; and let your esteem be in the fear of אֱלֹהִים.

17 A skilled worker is admired for the things he makes and a leader's chochmah is proven by his words.

18 Someone who speaks rashly and recklessly is feared and hated by everyone in town.

10 A wise ruler will educate his people and his government will be orderly.

2 All the officials and all the citizens will be like their ruler.

3 An uneducated Melech will ruin his people but a government will grow strong if its rulers are wise.

4 אֱלֹהִים sees to the government of the olam and brings the tzadik person to power at the right time.

5 The success of that person is in אֱלֹהִים's hands.

אֱלֹהִים is the source of the esteem given to any official.

6 Don't be angry with someone le olam va-ed for every little thing he does wrong. Don't do anything out of injured pride.

7 Arrogance and injustice are hated by both אֱלֹהִים and people.

8 Injustice, arrogance and wealth cause nations to fall from power and others then rise to take their place.

9 We are only dust and ashes; what have we got to be proud of? Our gooff decays even while we are alive.

10 A long illness puzzles the doctor. Even a melech may be alive today and dead tomorrow.

11 When a person dies, all he then possesses is worms, flies and maggots.

12 Pride has its beginning when a person abandons אֱלֹהִים, his maker.

13 Pride is like a fountain pouring out sin and whoever persists in it will be full of wickedness. That is why אֱלֹהִים brought terrible punishments on some people and completely destroyed them.

14 אֱלֹהִים has overthrown melechim and put humbler people in their place.

15 אֱלֹהִים has pulled up nations by the roots and established humbler ones in their place.

16 אֱלֹהִים has overthrown empires and completely devastated their lands.

17 He destroyed some so completely that they are not even remembered anymore.

18 The Creator never intended for human beings to be arrogant and violent.

19 Who deserves esteem? The human race does, because people fear אֱלֹהִים. Who does not deserve esteem? Also the human race does not, because people break אֱלֹהִים's mitzvot.

20 A leader should be esteemed by those who follow him;

21 And אִיִּיִּי honors those who fear Him.

22 Rich people, famous people and poor people all take pride in their fear of אִיִּיִּי.

23 It is not right to refuse esteem to a poor person who is intelligent and it is not right to give esteem to a sinner.

24 People of influence, rulers and shophtim will be esteemed but none of them is greater than a person who fears אִיִּיִּי.

25 An eved who has chochmah will have free citizens serving him; and if they are sensible, they will not resent it.

26 When you do your work, don't make a show of your skill and don't try to put on a show when you are in trouble.

27 It is better to work and have more than you need, than to go around boasting but hungry.

28 My child, keep your self respect but remain modest. Value yourself at your true worth.

29 There is no excuse for a person to run himself down. No one respects a person who has no respect for himself.

30 Poor people can be esteemed for their tov sense and rich people can be esteemed for their wealth.

31 If someone is esteemed while he is poor, think how much he will be esteemed if he becomes rich. If someone is despised while he is rich, think how much more he will be despised if he becomes poor.

- 11 Chochmah lifts up the head of him that is of low degree and makes him to sit among great men.
- 2 Commend not a man for his beauty; neither abhor a man for his outward appearance.
- 3 The bee is little among things that fly; but her fruit is the best of sweet things.
- 4 Boast not of your clothing and raiment and exalt not yourself in the yom of esteem: for the works of אֱלֹהִים are wonderful and His works among men are hidden.

5 Many melechim have sat down upon the ground; and one that was never respected before has worn the keter.

6 Many mighty men have been greatly disgraced; and the esteemed delivered into other men's hands.

7 Blame not before you have examined the emet: understand first and then rebuke.

8 Answer not before you have heard the cause: neither interrupt men in the midst of their talk.

9 Strive not in a matter that concerns you not; and sit not in mishpat with sinners.

10 My son, meddle not with many matters: for if you meddle much, you shall not be innocent; and if you follow after these matters, you shall not obtain, neither shall you escape by fleeing.

11 There is one that labors hard and fast and still falls behind.

12 Again, there is another that is slow and has need of help, wanting ability and full of poverty; yet the eyes of אֱלֹהִים looked upon him for tov and raised him up from his low estate, 13 And lifted up his head from misery; so that many saw that from אֱלֹהִים is true shalom.

14 Prosperity and adversity, chayim and death, poverty and riches, all come from אֱלֹהִים.

15 Chochmah, da'at and binah of The Torah, are of אֱלֹהִים: love and The Derech of tov works, are from Him.

16 Error and darkness had their beginning together with sinners: and evil shall grow old with them that revel in it.

17 The gifts of אֱלֹהִים remains with the favored and His chen brings prosperity le-olam-va-ed.

18 Someone may grow rich by working hard and denying himself pleasure but what does he get for it?

19 He says to himself, Now I can finally sit back and enjoy what I have worked for. But he has no idea how long it will be before he must die and leave his wealth to others.

20 Be steadfast in your brit and stay in your work.

21 Marvel not at the works of sinners; but trust in אֱלֹהִים and remain in your labor: for it is an easy thing in the sight of אֱלֹהִים to suddenly make a poor man rich.

22 The blessing of אֱלֹהִים is in the reward of the tzadikim and suddenly He makes their brachot flourish.

23 Say not, What profit is there of my service? And what tov things shall I have from now on?

24 Again, say not, I have enough and possess many things and what evil shall I have from now on?

25 In the yom of prosperity there is a forgetfulness of affliction: and in the yom of affliction there is no more remembrance of prosperity.

26 For it is an easy thing for אֱלֹהִים in the yom of death to reward a man according to his derachot.

27 The affliction of an hour makes a man forget pleasure: and in the end his deeds shall be discovered.

28 Judge none blessed before his death: for a man shall be known in his children's legacy.

29 Bring not every man into your bayit: for the deceitful man has many tricks.

30 A proud person is a decoy to lure you into danger; like a spy, he will look for your weaknesses.

31 For he lies in wait and turns tov into evil; and in things worthy of esteem, he will blame you.

32 By a spark of fire a heap of coals is kindled: and a sinful man lays wait for dahm.

33 Take heed of a mischievous man, for he works wickedness; lest he bring upon you a perpetual blot.

34 If you bring a ger into your bayit with you, it will only cause trouble, even between you and your own mishpacha.

12 When you do a tov mitzvah, make sure you know who is benefiting from it; then what you do will not be wasted.

2 You will be repaid for any kindness you show to a tzadik person. If he doesn't repay you, El-Elyon will.

3 No tov ever comes to a person who gives comfort to the wicked; it is not a tzadik act.

4 Give to His people but don't help sinners.

5 Do tov to humble people but don't give anything to those who are not devout. Don't give them food, or they will use your kindness against you. Every tov thing you do for such people will bring you twice as much trouble in return.

6 The אִיִּים Himself hates sinners and He will punish them.

7 Give to tov people but do not help sinners.

8 When things are going well, it is hard to tell who your real chaverim are but in hard times you can recognize your enemies;

9 Even your chaverim will leave you then. But when you are successful, your enemies will act like chaverim.

10 Never trust an enemy; his wickedness is as destructive as rust.

11 Shomer and be on guard against him, even if he acts ever so humble. He is like a metal mirror that rusts away if you don't keep it polished.

12 Seat an enemy at your right hand and the next thing you know he'll be trying to get your own place of esteem. Put him next to you and he will overthrow you. Then you will realize the error of my words and be stung with regret when you remember them.

13 Nobody feels sorry for snake charmers or wild animal tamers who get bitten, 14 And nobody will feel sorry for you if you run around with sinners and get involved in their evil.

15 An enemy will stay with you for a while but not when trouble comes.

16 He will speak fine words while he plots how to trap you. He will pretend to share your sorrows but he will kill you if he gets a chance.

17 If trouble comes your way, you will find him waiting, ready to trip you up while he pretends to help you.

18 He will be a different person then, rubbing his hands, nodding his head and spreading rumors about you.

13 If you touch tar, it will stick to you and if you keep company with arrogant people, you will come to be just like them.

2 Don't try to lift something too heavy for you and don't keep company with people who are richer and more powerful than you. You cannot keep a clay pot next to an iron kettle; the pot will break if it hits the kettle.

3 If a rich person wrongs someone, he can afford to add insult to injury; but if a poor person is wronged, he is forced to apologize for himself.

4 A rich person will use you as long as he can profit from it but when you need him, he will leave you helpless.

5 He will live with you as long as you have anything and will gladly drain you dry.

6 If he needs you, he will trick you with his smiles and cheerful, kindly words. Do you need anything? He will ask.

7 He will feed you until you are embarrassed. Finally, when he has drained you two or three times over, he will laugh at you. If you see him later, he will pretend he doesn't know you and will pass you by.

8 Be careful not to be misled; you can be enjoying yourself and suddenly find yourself humiliated.

9 If you are invited to the home of someone influential, be reserved in your behavior. Then he will invite you more often.

10 If you push yourself on him, he will put you in your place. On the other hand, if you keep your distance from him, he will forget about you.

11 Don't pretend to be his equal or trust everything he says. In spite of all of his long and polite conversation, he is testing you.

12 If a person does not keep confidences, he is cruel; he will not hesitate to hurt you or have you put in jail.

13 Keep your secrets to yourself and be very careful, for you are always walking on dangerous ground.

14 As long as you live, love ﷻ and call on Him to rescue you.

15 Every creature prefers its own kind and people are no different.

16 Just as animals of the same species flock together, so people keep company with people like themselves.

17 A sinner has no more in common with a devout person than a wolf has with a lamb.

18 Rich people have no more in common with poor people than hyenas have with dogs.

19 The rich hunt down the poor just as lions hunt down wild donkeys in the open country.

20 Arrogant people have nothing but scorn for the humble and the rich think of the poor in the same way.

21 When a rich person stumbles, his chaverim will steady him but if a poor person falls, his chaverim will have nothing to do with him.

22 When someone rich makes a mistake, there are many people to cover up for him and explain away all the things he never should have said. But let someone poor make a mistake and he gets nothing but criticism. Even if what he says makes tov sense, nobody will listen.

23 When a rich person speaks, everyone is silent and they tehilla him to the shamayim for what he says. But let a poor person speak and everybody says, Who is that? They push him down if he so much as stumbles.

24 There is nothing wrong with being rich if you haven't sinned to get that way. But there is nothing sinful about being poor either. Only the lost think so.

25 It's what is in your lev that makes the expression on your face be in simcha or sad.

26 If you feel cheerful, you will look cheerful, although making up mishle calls for some intense thought.

14 Blessed is the man that has not slipped with his mouth and is not pierced with the multitude of sins.

2 Blessed is he whose conscience has not condemned him and who is not fallen from his tikvah in אִשְׁתָּוּת.

3 It isn't right for someone who is selfish to be rich. What use is money to a stingy person?

4 If you deny yourself in order to accumulate wealth, you are only accumulating it for someone else.

Others will use your riches to live in luxury.

5 How can you be generous with others if you are stingy with yourself, if you are not willing to enjoy your own wealth?

6 No one is worse off than someone who is stingy with himself; it is a sin that brings its own punishment.

7 When such a person does something tov, it is only by accident; his selfishness will sooner or later be evident.

8 A selfish person is evil; he turns his back on people's needs;

9 And is never satisfied with what he has. Greed will shrivel up a person's nephesh.

10 Some people are too stingy to put lechem on their own table.

11 My child, treat yourself as well as you can and bring worthy offerings to אףאז.

12 Remember that death is coming for you some yom and you haven't been told when that will be.

13 Before that yom comes, be kind to your chaverim; be as generous as you can.

14 Don't deny yourself a single yom's enjoyment. If there is something you want to do and it is not in violation of Torah, go ahead.

15 Some yom all that you have worked for will be divided up and given to others.

16 So be generous; but also be willing to receive from others. Enjoy yourself, for you will not find any pleasures in the olam of the dead.

17 The human gooff wears out like a piece of clothing. The ancient Torah decrees that we must die.

18 Human beings are like leaves on a spreading eytz. New growth takes the place of the fallen leaves; while some of us die, others are being born.
19 Everything made by human hands will decay and perish, along with the person who made it.
20 It is a person with simcha, who is concerned with cochmah, who uses common tov sense.
21 Anyone who studies the ways of chochmah will also learn her secrets.
22 Go after cochmah like a hunter looking for game.
23 Look into her windows and listen at her doors.
24 Camp as close to her bayit as you can get;
25 And you will have a fine place to live.
26 Build your bayit there, safe beneath her protecting branches.
27 There shaded from the heat.

15 He that fears אִתָּאָז will do tov and he that has the da'at of The Torah shall obtain her.
2 And as an eema shall she meet him and receive him as an isha married of a virgin.
3 With the lechem of binah shall she feed him and give him the mayim of chochmah to drink.
4 He shall be stayed upon her and shall not be moved; and shall rely upon her and shall not be confounded.
5 She shall exalt him above his neighbors and in the midst of the kehilla shall she open his mouth.
6 He shall find simcha and a keter of gilah and she shall cause him to inherit an everlasting name.
7 But foolish men shall not attain her and sinners shall not see her.
8 For she is far from pride and men that are liars cannot remember her.
9 Tehillot are not becoming in the mouth of a sinner, for it was not sent to him by אִתָּאָז.

10 For tehillot shall be uttered in chochmah and אֱלֹהִים will prosper it.
11 Say not, It is through אֱלֹהִים that I fell away: for you ought not to do the things that He hates.
12 Say not, He has caused me to err: for He has no need of the sinful man.
13 אֱלֹהִים hates all abomination; and they that fear Ahlohim love it not.
14 He himself made man from Beresheeth and left him in the hand of his own counsel;
15 If you will, keep the mitzvoth and perform acceptable faithfulness.
16 He has set fire and mayim before you: stretch forth your hand to which one you will choose.
17 Before man is chayim and death; and what he chooses shall be given to him.
18 For the chochmah of אֱלֹהִים is great and He is mighty in Power and beholds all things:
19 And His eyes are upon them that fear Him and He knows every work of man.
20 He has commanded no man to do wickedly, neither has He given any man license to sin.

16 Do not long for a multitude of unprofitable children, neither delight in wicked sons.
2 Though they multiply, rejoice not in them, except the fear of אֱלֹהִים be with them.
3 Trust not in their chayim, neither respect their multitude: for one that is tzadik, is better than a thousand; and better it is to die without children, than to have them that are wicked.
4 For by one that has binah shall the city be replenished: but the kindred of the wicked shall speedily become desolate.
5 Many such things have I seen with my eyes and my ear has heard greater things than these.

6 In the kehilla of the wicked shall a fire be kindled;
and in a rebellious nation wrath is set on fire.

7 He was not pacified toward the old giants, who fell away in the strength of their foolishness.

8 Neither spared He the place where Lot sojourned but abhorred them for their pride.

9 He pitied not the people of perdition, who were taken away in their sins:

10 Nor the six hundred thousand footmen, who were gathered together in the hardness of their levavot.

11 And if there is even one stiff-necked among the people, it is a marvel if he escapes unpunished: for rachamim and wrath are with Him; He is mighty to forgive and to pour out displeasure.

12 As His rachamim is great, so is His correction also: He shophtim a man according to his works.

13 The sinner shall not escape with his spoils: and the patience of the tzadikim shall not be frustrated.

14 Make way le olam va-ed for every work of rachamim: le olam va-ed, man shall find according to his works.

15 אִרְאַז hardened Pharaoh's lev, so that he should not know Him, that His powerful works might be known to the olam.

16 His rachamim is manifest to every creature; and He has separated his ohr from the darkness with a plumbline.

17 Say not, I will hide myself from אִרְאַז: shall any remember me from above? I shall not be remembered among so many people: for what is my being among such an infinite number of creatures?

18 Behold, the shamayim and the shamayim of shamayim, the deep and the earth and all that in it is, shall be moved when He shall visit.

19 The mountains also and foundations of the earth be shaken with trembling, when אֱלֹהִים looks upon them.

20 No lev can think upon these things worthily: and who is able to conceive His derachot?

21 It is a tempest which no man can see: for the most part of His works are hidden.

22 Who can declare the works of His justice? Or, who can endure them? For His brit is far off and the trial of all things is in the end.

23 He that lacks binah will think upon vain things: and a foolish man imagines foolishness.

24 My son, listen to me and learn da'at and mark my words with your lev.

25 I will give you diligent and accurate instruction.

26 The works of אֱלֹהִים are done in mishpat from the beginning: and from the time He made them, He gave everything a place of their own.

27 He arranged everything in an eternal order and decreed that it should be that way le-olam-va-ed.

Not one part of creation ever grows hungry; no part grows tired or stops its work.

28 None of them hinders another and they shall never disobey His Word.

29 After this אֱלֹהִים looked upon the earth and filled it with His brachot.

30 He covered it with all kinds of creatures that must die and return to the dust.

17 Then אֱלֹהִים formed human beings from the dust and sent each of them back to it again.

2 He gave them only a limited time to live; but He gave them authority over everything on earth.

3 He made them to be like Himself, and gave them His own strength.

4 He made all other creatures afraid of them; He gave them authority over all the animals and birds.

5 אֱלֹהִים gave them the five senses but he also gave them a sixth, intelligence and a seventh, reason, which enables them to interpret what comes to them through the senses.

6 He gave them their tongues, their eyes, their ears, their minds and their consciences.

7 He filled them with da'at and binah and showed them the difference between tov and evil.

8 He gave them His own insight to let them see the majesty of His creation.

9 And He allowed them to take pride le-olam-va-ed in His marvelous deeds.

10 They will give tehilla to His kadosh Name and proclaim the greatness of all He does.

11 He made da'at available to them and gave them The Torah as a source of chayim.

12 He made an eternal brit with them and revealed His mitzvoth to them.

13 They saw the splendor of His majesty and heard the esteem of His voice.

14 He warned them against unrighteousness and taught each person how to treat others.

15 אֱלֹהִים is always aware of what people do; there is no way to hide from him.

16 From childhood on they tend to be evil; their levavot are like stone and they don't seem to be able to make it more human.

17 He divided the nations of the whole olam. He gave each nation its own ruler but Yisrael is אֱלֹהִים 's own possession.

18 Whom being His bachor, He nourishes with discipline and giving them the ohr of His ahava does not forsake them.

19 אֱלֹהִים is always watching what people do; everything they do is as clear as the yom to Him.

20 None of their sins are hidden from Him; He is aware of them all.

21 But אֱלֹהִים is full of favor and knows His creatures; so He has spared them rather than abandon them.

22 When we give to the poor, אֱלֹהִים considers it as precious, as a valuable ring. Human kindness is as precious to Him as chayim itself.

23 Later He will judge the wicked and punish them; they will get what they deserve.

24 But אֱלֹהִים will allow those who make teshuvah to return to Him. He always gives encouragement to those who are losing tikvah.

25 Come to אֱלֹהִים and leave your sin behind. Make tefillah sincerely, that He will help you live a better chayim.

26 Return to אֱלֹהִים and turn away from sin. Have an intense hatred for wickedness; He will lead you of darkness into the ohr of health.

27 Those who are alive can give hodu to אֱלֹהִים but can anyone in the realm of the dead shir tehillot to אֱלֹהִים?

28 A person who is alive and well can shir אֱלֹהִים's tehillot; but the dead, who no longer exist, have no way to give Him hodu.

29 How great is אֱלֹהִים's rachamim and forgiveness to those who make teshuvah to Him.

30 But this is not the nature of human beings; not one of us is immortal.

31 Nothing is brighter than the shemesh but even the shemesh's ohr fails during an eclipse. How much easier it is for human thoughts to be eclipsed by evil.

32 אֱלֹהִים can look out over all the cochavim in the shamayim. Human beings? They are just dust and ashes.

18 He that lives le-olam-va-ed has created all things in general.

2 אִי־אֵל only is tzadik and there is none other but He,

3 Who governs the olam with the palm of His hand and all things obey His will: for He is The Melech of all, by His Power dividing set apart things among them from the profane.

4 To whom has He given Power to declare His works? And who shall find out His noble acts?

5 Who shall calculate the strength of His majesty? And who shall also tell His rachamim?

6 As for the wondrous works of אִי־אֵל, there may nothing be taken from them, neither may anything be added to them, neither can the foundation of them be found out.

7 When we come to the end of that story, we have not even begun; we are simply at a loss for words.

8 What is man and for what purpose does he serve? What is his tov and what is his evil?

9 The number of a man's yamim at the most are a hundred years.

10 As a drop of mayim to the sea and a pebble in comparison to the sand; so are a thousand years to the yamim of perpetuity.

11 Therefore is Ahlohim patient with them and pours forth His rachamim upon them.

12 He saw and perceived their end to be evil; therefore He multiplied His rachamim.

13 The rachamim of man is toward his neighbor; but the rachamim of אִי־אֵל is upon all flesh: He reproves, nurtures, teaches and brings again, as a Shepherd His flock.

14 He has rachamim on them that receive discipline and that diligently seek after His mishpatim.

15 My son, blemish not your tov deeds, neither use uncomfortable words when you give anything.

16 Shall not the dew relieve one from the heat? So is a tov word better than a gift.

17 See, is not a word better than a gift? But both are with a gracious man.

18 It is stupid to be unkind and insulting. No one's eyes are going to sparkle at a gift that you resent giving.

19 Learn before you speak and guard your health before you become sick.

20 Before mishpat examine yourself and in the yom of visitation you shall find rachamim.

21 Humble yourself before you become sick and in the time of sins make teshuvah.

22 Let nothing hinder you to pay your vow in due time and defer not until death to be justified.

23 Before you make tefillah, prepare yourself; and be not as one that tries אִי־אֵל.

24 Think upon the wrath that shall be at the end and the time of vengeance, when He shall turn away His face.

25 When you have enough, remember the time of hunger: and when you are rich, think upon poverty and the needy.

26 From the boker until the same evening, things can change quickly before אִי־אֵל.

27 A wise man will fear in everything and in the yom of sinning he will beware of offence: but a fool knows not what time it is.

28 Every man of binah knows chochmah and will give tehilla to him that found her.

29 They that were of binah in sayings became also wise themselves and poured forth exquisite mishle.

30 Go not after your lusts but refrain yourself from your appetites.

31 If you give your being the longings that please it, she will make you a laughingstock to your enemies that malign you.

32 Don't indulge in luxurious living; the expense of it will ruin you.

33 Don't make yourself a beggar by borrowing for expensive banquets when you don't have enough money of your own.

19 A laboring man that is given to drunkenness shall not be rich: and he that contemns small things shall fall little by little.

2 Wine and women will make men of binah to fall away: and he that cleaves to harlots will become unwise.

3 Moths and worms shall have him as a heritage and such a man shall be taken away.

4 He that is hasty to give credit is foolish; and he that sins shall offend against his own being.

5 Whoever takes pleasure in wickedness shall be condemned: but he that resists pleasures crowns his chayim.

6 He that can rule his tongue shall live without strife; and he that hates babbling shall have less evil.

7 Do not repeat that which is told to you, and you shall be far better.

8 Whether it be to chaver or foe, talk not of other men's lives; and if you would be without offence, reveal them not.

9 Whoever hears you will take notice of it and sooner or later will hate you for it.

10 If you have heard a word, let it die with you; and be silent, it will not burst you.

11 A fool travails with a word, as a woman in labor with child.

12 As an arrow that sticks in a man's thigh, so is a word within a fool's belly.

13 If you hear that a chaver has done something wrong, ask him about it. Maybe it isn't emet. If it is emet, he won't do it again.

14 If you hear that a neighbor has said something he shouldn't, ask him about it. Maybe he didn't say it. If he did, he won't say it again.

15 Admonish a chaver: for many times it is a slander and believe not every tale.

16 There is one that slips in his speech but not from his lev; and who is he that has not offended with his tongue?

17 Admonish your neighbor before you threaten him; and not being angry, give place to The Torah of El-Elyon.

18 The fear of אֱלֹהִים is the first step to be accepted by Him and chochmah obtains His love.

19 The da'at of the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים is the doctrine of chayim: and they that do things that please Him, shall receive the fruit of the eytz of immortality.

20 The fear of אֱלֹהִים is all chochmah; and in all chochmah is the performance of The Torah and the da'at of His omnipotence.

21 If an eved says to his master, I will not do as it pleases you; though afterward he does it, he angers him that nourishes him.

22 The da'at of wickedness is not chochmah, neither at any time is the counsel of sinners wise.

23 There is a wickedness and the same is an abomination; and there is a fool lacking chochmah.

24 He that has small binah and fears Ahlohim, is better than one that has much chochmah and transgresses The Torah of El-Elyon.

25 It is possible to be marvelously clever and still be dishonest, or to get what you want by being absurdly polite.

26 There is a wicked man that hangs down his head in false humility; but inwardly he is full of deceit, 27 They will turn their faces away and pretend not to hear you but they'll take advantage of you when you least expect it.

28 If for some reason they are unable to sin now, they'll get round to it at the first opportunity.

29 You can know people by their appearance. The first time you look at them, you can tell if they have tov sense.

30 Their character shows in the way they dress, the way they laugh and the way they have their halacha.

20 There is a reproof that is not comely: again, some man holds his tongue and he is wise.

2 It is much better to reprove, than to be angry secretly: and he that confesses his fault shall be preserved from hurt.

3 How tov is it, when you are reproved, to make teshuvah. For so shall you escape willful sin.

4 As is the lust of a eunuch to deflower a virgin; so is he that executes mishpat with violence.

5 There is one that keeps silent and is found with cochmah: and another by much babbling becomes hateful.

6 One man holds his tongue because he has no answer: and another keeps silent, knowing his time.

7 A man of cochmah will hold his tongue until he sees opportunity: but a babbler and a fool will regard no time.

8 He that uses many words shall be abhorred; and he that takes to himself authority in it shall be hated.

9 There is a sinner that has tov success in evil things; and there is a gain that turns to loss.

10 There is a gift that shall not profit you; and there is a gift whose recompence is double.

11 Esteem can be followed by disgrace but there are people who have risen from obscurity to places of esteem.

12 There is that buys much for a little and repays it sevenfold.

13 A wise man by his words makes himself beloved:
but the chen of fools shall be poured out.

14 If such a person gives you something, it won't do any tov; it won't be as valuable as he thinks it is.

15 He isn't generous with anything but criticism, which he will shout for all the olam to hear. If he lends you something this yom, he'll want it back tomorrow.

16 Then that fool will say, Nobody likes me. Nobody appreciates what I do for them. They'll take what I give them but then talk about me behind my back.

17 And he's right; he's a constant joke to everyone.

18 To slip upon a pavement is better than to slip with the tongue: so the fall of the wicked shall come speedily.

19 A foolish untimely tale will always be in the mouth of the unwise.

20 A sentence of cochmah shall be rejected when it comes out of a fool's mouth; for he will not speak it in due season.

21 If a person is too poor to afford sin, he can rest without a guilty conscience.

22 You can lose all your self respect by being reluctant to speak up in the presence of stupidity.

23 If you promise a chaver something because you are too bashful to say no, you're making an enemy needlessly.

24 A lie is a foul blot in a man, yet it is continually in the mouth of the untaught.

25 A thief is better than a man that is accustomed to lie: but they both shall have destruction as their legacy.

26 The disposition of a liar lacks chen and his shame is ever with him.

27 A man of cochmah shall promote himself to esteem with his words: and he that has binah will please great men.

28 He that tills his land shall increase his harvest:
and he that pleases great men shall get pardon for iniquity.

29 Gifts and bribes make even those with chochmah blind to the emet and prevent them from being honest in their criticism.

30 Chochmah that is hidden and treasure that is hoarded up, what profit is in them both?

31 Better is he that hides his folly than a man that hides his chochmah.

32 Necessary patience in seeking אִתְּנָה is better than he that leads his chayim without a guide.

21 My son, have you sinned? Do so no more but ask pardon for your former sins.

2 Flee from sin as from the face of a serpent: for if you come too near it, it will bite you: the teeth of it are as the teeth of a lion, slaying the beings of men.

3 All iniquity is as a two edged sword, the wounds of it cannot be healed.

4 To terrify and do wrong will waste riches: so the bayit of proud men shall be made desolate.

5 A tefillah out of a poor man's mouth reaches to the ears of Ahlohim and his mishpat comes speedily.

6 He that hates to be reprov'd is in the derech of sinners: but he that fears אִתְּנָה will make teshuvah from his lev.

7 An eloquent man is known far and near; but a man of binah knows when he slips.

8 He that builds his bayit with other men's money is like one that gathers himself stones for the tomb of his burial.

9 The kehilla of the wicked is like a pile of junk: and the end of them all is a flame of fire to destroy them.

10 The derech of sinners is made plain with stones but at the end of it is the pit of Sheol.

11 He that keeps The Torah of אִתְּךָ gets the binah from it: and the perfection of the fear of אִתְּךָ is chochmah.

12 He that is not wise will not be taught: but there is a chochmah which multiplies bitterness.

13 The da'at of a wise man shall abound like a flood: and his counsel is like a pure fountain of chayim.

14 The inner parts of a fool are like a broken vessel and he will hold no da'at as long as he lives.

15 If a smart man hears a wise word, he will commend it and add to it: but as soon as one of no binah hears it, it displeases him and he casts it behind his back.

16 The talk of a fool is like a burden in the derech: but chen shall be found in the lips of those with chochmah.

17 They enquire at the mouth of the wise man in the kehilla and they shall ponder his words in their lev.

18 As is a bayit that is destroyed, so is chochmah to a fool: and the da'at of the unwise is as talk without sense.

19 Sound doctrine to fools is as fetters on the feet and like chains on the right hand.

20 A fool lifts up his voice with laughter; but a wise man does barely smile a little.

21 Learning is to a wise man as an ornament of gold and like a bracelet upon his right arm.

22 A foolish man's foot is quickly in his neighbor's bayit: but a man of experience keeps a distance.

23 A fool will peep in at the door into the bayit: but he that is well nurtured will stand outside.

24 Eavesdropping at doors is bad manners and anyone with a sense of decency would be ashamed to do it.

25 The lips of talkers will tell things not pertaining to them: but the words of such as have binah are carefully weighed in the balance.

26 The lev of fools is in their mouth: but the mouth of those with cochmah is in their lev.

27 When a wicked person curses his enemy he is cursing himself.

28 A whisperer defiles his own being and is hated wherever he dwells.

22 Lazy people are no better than dung;

2 They are repulsive and no one wants to get near them.

3 It is a disgrace to an abba to have an undisciplined child, especially if it is a daughter.

4 A sensible daughter will get a husband but a shameless daughter brings her abba grief.

5 A girl with no sense of propriety will disgrace both her husband and her abba; neither will have any respect for her.

6 Lecturing your children can sometimes be as out of place as singing to people in mourning but a whipping is a wise choice of discipline at any time.

7 Trying to teach a fool is like gluing a broken pot together again, like waking someone out of a deep sleep.

8 Explaining something to a fool is like explaining it to a sleepy person;

9 When you have finished, he'll say,

10 What was that again?

11 We mourn for the dead because they have no access to ohr. We ought to mourn for fools, because they have no access to intelligence. In fact, we should go into deeper mourning for fools, because the chayim they lead is worse than death. The dead are at least at rest.

12 For seven yamim we mourn the dead but a foolish or unjust person causes a lifetime of grief.

13 Don't visit stupid people or spend a lot of time talking with them. Avoid them; then they can't contaminate you and you can live in shalom without being troubled or worn down by their foolishness.

14 Such people are a heavier burden to bear than lead; and the only word that fits them is fools.

15 It is easier to carry a load of sand, salt and iron than to put up with a stupid person.

16 A wooden beam can be put into a building so firmly that an earthquake cannot shake it loose; a person can be trained to use reason and tov sense so well, that he keeps his head when a crisis comes.

17 A mind that thinks things through intelligently is like a firm wall, finely decorated.

18 Small stones on top of a wall will not stay put when the wind blows and a person whose stupid ideas have made him timid will not be able to stand up to frightening situations.

19 If you stick something in your eye, tears will flow; and if you hurt a person deeply, you will discover his emet feelings.

20 If you throw stones at birds, you will scare them away; and if you insult a chaver, you will break up the friendship.

21 Even if you have a violent argument with a chaver and speak sharply, all is not lost. You can still make it up with him.

22 But any chaver will leave you if you insult him, if you are arrogant, if you reveal his secrets, or if you turn on him unexpectedly.

23 Gain the confidence of your neighbor if he is poor; then you can share his simcha if he becomes successful. Stand by him when he is in trouble if you want to share with him, when better times come his way.

24 Fumes and smoke appear before the flames do; insults come before violence.

25 I will never be afraid to protect a chaver and I will never turn a chaver away if he needs me.

26 If I suffer because of him, everyone who learns of it will be on guard against him.

27 I wish that a guard could be placed at my mouth, that my lips could be wisely sealed. It would keep me from making mistakes and prevent me from destroying myself with my own tongue.

23 O אֲבִי אֲבִי, Abba and Master of my chayim, do not leave me at the rachamim of my own words; don't let them cause my downfall.

2 I wish I could be whipped for my thoughts, so that cochmah could discipline my mind. I would not want to be spared when I am wrong; I would not want a single sin to be overlooked.

3 Then I would not keep on sinning, making one mistake after another. I could not fall to my enemies and be humiliated by them.

4 O אֲבִי אֲבִי, my Abba, Ahlohim of my chayim, keep me from being arrogant;

5 Protect me from evil desires.

6 Keep me from being overcome by greed or lust; do not leave me at the rachamim of these shameless passions.

7 My children, listen to what I have to say about proper speech; do as I teach you and you will never get trapped.

8 Sinners are caught by their own arrogant, insulting words.

9 Don't fall into the habit of taking oaths and don't use אֲבִי אֲבִי's kadosh Name too freely.

10 An eved who is constantly beaten will never be free of bruises; someone who is always taking an oath by the Kadosh Name, will never be free of sin.

11 Anyone who takes oaths all the time is sinful to the core and punishment is never far away from his bayit. If he fails to fulfill his oath, he is guilty. If he ignores his oath, he is twice as guilty. If his oath was insincere in the first place, he cannot be pardoned and will have a bayit full of trouble.

12 There is one derech of speaking that is like death itself ; may no Yisraelite ever be guilty of it. Devout people do not wallow in such sin and they will keep away from such behavior.

13 Don't fall into the habit of coarse, profane talk; it is sinful.

14 You might forget yourself while in the company of important people and make a fool of yourself with some foul word that comes to you naturally. Think how your parents would feel. You would curse the yom you were born and wish you were dead.

15 If you fall into the habit of using offensive language, you will never break yourself of it as long as you have chayim.

16 There are any number of derachot to sin and bring down אףאז's anger but sexual passion is a hot blazing fire, that cannot be put out at will; it can only burn itself out. A man who lives for nothing but sexual enjoyment will keep on, until that fire destroys him.

17 To such a man all women are desirable and he can never get enough as long as he lives.

18 The man who is unfaithful to his isha thinks to himself, No one will ever know. It's dark in here and no one sees me. I have nothing to worry about. As for El-Elyon, He won't even notice.

19 This man is only afraid of other people. He doesn't realize that the eyes of אףאז are ten thousand times brighter than the shemesh, that He sees everything we do, even when we try to hide it.

20 He knew everything before He created the olam, as well as after.

21 That sinful man will be caught when he least expects it and punished publicly.

22 The same is true of an isha, who is unfaithful to her husband and presents him with a child by another man.

23 In the first place, she has broken The Torah of El-Elyon. In the second place, she has wronged her husband.

24 And in the third place, she has made a whore of herself by committing adultery and bearing the child of a man not her husband.

25 The children will suffer for her sin. They will not be able to find a place in society or establish mispachot.

26 She herself will be brought before the kehilla;

27 And permanently disgraced. There will be a curse on her memory. After she is gone;

28 Everyone will realize that nothing is better than fearing אלהים, nothing is sweeter than keeping His mitzvot.

24 Chochmah shall tehillah herself and shall esteem in the midst of her people.

2 In the kehilla of El-Elyon shall she open her mouth and triumph before His Power.

3 I came out of the mouth of El-Elyon and covered the earth as a cloud.

4 I dwelt in high places and my kesay is in a cloudy pillar.

5 I alone compassed the circuit of the shamayim and walked in the bottom of the deep.

6 In the waves of the sea and in all the earth and in every people and nation, I got a possession.

7 With all these I sought rest: and in whose inheritance shall I abide?

8 So The Creator of all things gave me a mitzvah and He that made me caused my sukkah to rest and said, Let your dwelling be in Yaakov and your inheritance in Yisrael.

9 He created me from the beginning before the olam and I shall never fail.

10 In the set apart sukkah I served before Him; and so was I established in Tzion.

11 Likewise in the beloved city He gave me rest and in Yahrushalayim was my Power.

12 And I took root in an esteemed people, even in the portion of אֲרָצָה's inheritance.

13 I was exalted like a cedar in Levanon and as a cypress eytz upon the mountains of Hermon.

14 I was exalted like a palm eytz in Ein Gedi and as a rose plant in Yericho, as a fair olive eytz in a pleasant field and grew up as a green eytz by the mayim.

15 I gave a sweet smell like cinnamon and aspalathus and I yielded a pleasant odor like the best myrrh, as galbanum and onyx and sweet storax and as the fume of frankincense in the sukkah.

16 As the turpentine eytz I stretched out my netsarim and my netsarim are the branches of esteem and chen.

17 As the vine brought I forth pleasant savor and my flowers are the fruit of esteem and riches.

18 I am the eema of fair love and fear and da'at and set apart tikvah: I therefore, being perpetual, am given to all my children who are named of Him.

19 Come to me, all that are desirous of me and fill yourselves with my fruits.

20 For my memorial is sweeter than honey and my inheritance than the honeycomb.

21 They that eat me shall yet be hungry and they that drink me shall yet be thirsty.

22 He that obeys me shall never be confounded and they that work with me shall not do wrong.

23 All these things are the scrolls of the brit of אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim, even The Torah which Moshe Rabeinu commanded for a heritage to the kehillot of Yaakov.

24 Faint not; be strong in אֱלֹהִים; that He may confirm you, cleave to Him: for אֱלֹהִים Almighty is Ahlohim alone and beside Him there is no other Savior.

25 He fills all things with His chochmah, as Pishon and as Tigris in the time of the new fruits.

26 He makes the binah to abound like the Euphrates and as the Yarden in the time of the harvest.

27 It sparkles with teachings like the Nile, like the Gihon at grape-picking time.

28 The first man knew her not perfectly: no more shall the last find her out.

29 For her thoughts are more than the sea and her counsels profounder than the great deep.

30 I also came out as a brook from a river and as a conduit into a gan.

31 I said, I will water my best gan and will water abundantly my gan bed: and, lo, my brook became a river and my river became a sea.

32 I will yet make doctrine to shine as the boker and will send forth her ohr afar off.

33 I will yet pour out doctrine as prophecy and leave it to all ages le-olam-va-ed.

34 Behold that I have not labored for myself only but for all them that seek chochmah.

25 In three things I was beautified and stood up beautiful both before Ahlohim and men: the unity of brethren, the ahava of neighbors, a man and an isha that agree together.

2 Three sorts of men my being hates and I am greatly offended at their chayim: a poor man that is proud, a rich man that is a liar and an old foolish adulterer.

3 If you have gathered nothing in your youth, how can you find anything in your age?

4 O how comely a thing is mishpat for gray hairs and for ancient men to know counsel.

5 O how comely is the chochmah of old men and binah and counsel to men of esteem.

6 Much experience is the keter of old men and the fear of Ahlohim is their esteem.

7 There are nine things which I have judged in my lev to be simcha and the tenth I will utter with my tongue: A man that has simcha from his children; and he that lives to see the fall of his enemy:

8 Well is he who dwells with an isha of binah and who has not slipped with his tongue and has not served a man more unworthy than himself:

9 Well is he who has found cochmah and he who speaks in the ears of them that will shema:

10 O how great is he who finds chochmah. Yet is there none above him that fears אִיָּאָה.

11 But the ahava of אִיָּאָה passes all things for insight: and he that holds it, to whom shall he be compared?

12 The fear of אִיָּאָה is the beginning of ahava: and emunah is the beginning of cleaving to Him.

13 Give me any plague but the plague of the lev: and any wickedness but the wickedness of a woman:

14 And any affliction but the affliction from them that hate me: and any revenge but the revenge of enemies.

15 There is no head above the head of a serpent; and there is no wrath above the wrath of an enemy.

16 I had rather dwell with a lion and a dragon, than to maintain a bayit with a wicked woman.

17 The wickedness of a woman changes her face and darkens her countenance like sackcloth.

18 Her husband shall sit among his neighbors; and when he hears it, he shall sigh bitterly.

19 All wickedness is little compared to the wickedness of a woman: let the portion of a sinner fall upon her.

20 As the climbing up of a sandy derech is to the feet of the aged, so is an isha full of words to a quiet man.

21 Stumble not at the beauty of a woman and do not lust after her for pleasure.

22 When a man is supported by his isha, there is sure to be anger, arrogance and humiliation.

23 A bad isha will make her husband gloomy and depressed and break his lev. Show me a timid ish who can never make up his mind and I will show you an isha who doesn't make her husband happy.

24 From the isha came the beginning of sin, and through her we all die.

25 Don't let a bad isha have her way, anymore than you would allow mayim to leak from your cistern.

26 If she will not walk in agreement with you, cut her off from your flesh and give her a Sefer Keritut and let her go.

26 Blessed is the man that has a virtuous isha, for the number of his yamim shall be doubled.

2 A virtuous isha brings simcha to her husband and he shall fulfill the years of his chayim in shalom.

3 A tov isha is a tov portion, which shall be given in the portion to them that fear אף אף.

4 Whether a man be rich or poor, if he has a tov lev towards אִשָּׁה, he shall at all times rejoice with a face of simcha.

5 There are three things that my lev fears; and for the fourth I was very afraid: the slander of a city, the gathering together of an unruly multitude and a false accusation: all these are worse than death.

6 But a grief of lev and sorrow is an isha that is jealous over another isha and a scourge of the tongue which communicates jealousy.

7 An evil isha is a yoke shaken to and fro: he that has hold of her is as though he held a scorpion.

8 A drunken woman and a wanderer causes great anger and she will not cover her own shame.

9 The whoredom of a woman may be known in her haughty looks and eyelids.

10 If your daughter be shameless, keep a close watch on her, lest she abuse herself through too much liberty.

11 If she is too self willed, be on guard and don't be surprised if she disappoints you.

12 She'll spread her legs anywhere for any man who wants her, just as a thirsty traveller will drink whatever mayim is available.

13 The chen of an isha delights her husband and her discretion will fatten his bones.

14 A silent and loving isha is a gift from אִשָּׁה; and there is nothing so precious as a mind well instructed.

15 A humble and faithful isha is a double chen and her stable mind cannot be valued.

16 As the shemesh when it arises in the high shamayim; so is the beauty of a tov isha in the administration of her bayit.

17 As the clear ohr is upon the set apart candlestick; so is the beauty of the face in ripe age.

18 As the golden pillars are upon the sockets of silver; so are the fair feet with a stable lev.

19 My son, keep the flower of your age sound; and give not your strength to strangers.

20 When you have gotten a fruitful possession through all the field, sow it with your own zera, trusting in the tov of your stock.

21 So your legacy which you leave shall be magnified, having the confidence of their tov lineage.

22 A harlot shall be accounted as small spit; but a married isha is a tower against death to her husband.

23 A wicked woman is given as a portion to a wicked man: but a tzadik woman is given to him that fears אףאז.

24 A dishonest isha brings shame: but an honest isha will reverence her husband.

25 A shameless isha shall be counted as a dog; but she that is humble will fear אףאז.

26 An isha that esteems her husband shall be judged wise by all; but she that disparages him in her pride shall be counted most wicked of all.

27 A loud crying woman and a nag, shall be sought out to drive away the enemies.

28 There are two things that grieve my lev; and the third makes me angry: a man of war that suffers poverty; and men of binah that are not respected; and one that turns from tzedakah to sin; אףאז prepares such a one for the sword.

29 A merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong; and a huckster shall not be free from sin.

27 Many have sinned for a small matter; and he that seeks for abundance will turn his eyes away.

2 As a nail sticks fast between the joints of the stones; so does sin stick close between buying and selling.

3 Unless a man hold himself diligently in the fear of אִתְּאֵל, his bayit shall soon be overthrown.

4 As when one sifts with a sieve, the refuse remains; so the filth of man in his talk.

5 The furnace proves the potter's vessels; so the trial of man is in his reasoning.

6 The fruit declares if the eytz has been dressed; so is the utterance of a conceit in the lev of man.

7 Praise no man before you hear him speak; for this is the trial of men.

8 If you follow tzedakah, you shall obtain her and put her on as a wonderful long robe.

9 The birds will resort to their like; so will emet return to them that practice in her.

10 As the lion lies in wait for the prey; so sin for them that work iniquity.

11 The discourse of a tzadik man is always with chochmah; but a fool changes as the yarayach.

12 If you be among the indiscreet, observe the time; but be continually among men of binah.

13 The discourse of fools is irksome and their sport is the wantonness of sin.

14 The talk of him that swears much makes the hair stand upright; and their brawls make one stop his ears.

15 The strife of the proud is bloodshed and their oratory is grievous to the ear.

16 Whoever reveals secrets loses his credit and shall never find chaver to his mind.

17 Love your chaver and be faithful to him: but if you betray his secrets, follow no more after him.

18 For as a man has destroyed his enemy; so have you lost the love of your neighbor.

19 As one that lets a bird go out of his hand, so have you let your neighbor go and shall not get him again

20 Follow after him no more, for he is too far off; he is as a roe escaped out of the snare.

21 As for a wound, it may be bound up; and after reviling there may be reconciliation: but he that betrays secrets is without tikvah.

22 He that winks with the eyes works evil: and he that knows him will depart from him.

23 When you are present, he will speak sweetly and will admire your words: but at the last he will writhe his mouth and slander your sayings.

24 I have hated many things but nothing like him; for אף אף will hate him.

25 Whoever casts a stone on high casts it on his own head; and a deceitful stroke shall make wounds.

26 Whoever digs a pit shall fall in it: and he that sets a trap shall be taken in it.

27 He that works mischief, it shall fall upon him and he shall not know where it comes.

28 Mockery and reproach are from the proud; but vengeance, as a lion, shall lie in wait for them.

29 They that rejoice at the fall of the tzadik shall be taken in the snare; and anguish shall consume them before they die.

30 Malice and wrath, even these are abominations; and the sinful man shall have them both.

28 He that avenges shall find vengeance from אף אף and He will surely keep his sins in remembrance.

2 Forgive your neighbor the hurt that he has done to you, so shall your sins also be forgiven when you make tefillah.

3 One man bears hatred against another and does he seek pardon from אָפָּרָא?

4 He shows no rachamim to a man who is like himself: and does he ask forgiveness of his own sins?

5 If he that is but flesh nourish hatred, who will intreat for pardon of his sins?

6 Remember your end and let enmity cease; remember corruption and death and abide in the mitzvoth.

7 Remember the mitzvoth and bear no malice to your neighbor: remember the brit of the Highest and wink at ignorance.

8 Abstain from strife and you shall diminish your sins: for a furious man will kindle strife,

9 A sinful man disturbs chaverim and makes debate among them that be at shalom.

10 As the matter of the fire is, so it burns: and as a man's strength is, so is his wrath; and according to his riches his anger rises; and the stronger they are which contend, the more they will be inflamed.

11 A hasty contention kindles a fire: and a hasty fighting sheds dahm.

12 If you blow the spark, it shall burn: if you spit upon it, it shall be quenched: and both these come out of your mouth.

13 Curse the whisperer and double-tongued: for such have destroyed many that were at shalom.

14 A backbiting tongue has disquieted many and driven them from nation to nation: strong cities has it pulled down and overthrown the houses of great men.

15 A backbiting tongue has cast out virtuous women and deprived them of their labors.

16 Whoever listens to it shall never find rest and shall never dwell quietly.

17 The stroke of the whip makes marks in the flesh:
but the stroke of the tongue breaks the bones.

18 Many have fallen by the edge of the sword: but not so many as have fallen by the tongue.

19 Well is he that is defended through the venom of it; who has not drawn the yoke of it, nor has been bound in her bands.

20 For the yoke of it is a yoke of iron and the bands of it are bands of brass.

21 The death of it is an evil death, the grave were better than it.

22 It shall not have rule over them that fear Ahlohim, neither shall they be burned with the flame of it.

23 Such as forsake אֱלֹהִים shall fall into it; and it shall burn in them and not be quenched; it shall be sent upon them as a lion and devour them as a leopard.

24 Look that you hedge your possession about with thorns and bind up your silver and gold,

25 And weigh your words in a balance and make a door and bar for your mouth.

26 Beware you slide not by it, lest you fall before him that lies in wait.

29 Be kind enough to lend to your neighbor when he needs help. You are keeping אֱלֹהִים 's commands if you help him.

2 If he needs something, lend it to him. And when you are in debt, pay it back as soon as you can.

3 If you meet your obligations, you will always be able to borrow what you need.

4 Many people treat a loan as something they found and can keep, causing embarrassment to those who helped them.

5 Some people will speak politely, bow and scrape until they get the loan they want, but when the time comes to pay it back, they'll put it off, say that it's inconvenient and make a lot of worthless excuses.

6 If the lender insists on being paid, he can count himself lucky to get back half. If he doesn't insist, the borrower has robbed him and made an unnecessary enemy. All the lender will get from him are curses, insults and disrespect, but never any gratitude.

7 Many people refuse to lend at all, not because they are stingy, but because they don't want to be cheated if they can avoid it.

8 Nevertheless, be understanding with those who are poor. Don't keep them waiting for your generosity.

9 אִתְּךָ has commanded us to help the poor; don't refuse them the help they need.

10 It is better to lose your money by helping a relative or a chaver than to lose it by letting it rust away under a rock somewhere.

11 Use your wealth as אִתְּךָ has commanded; this will do you more tov than keeping your money for yourself.

12 Count among your treasures the fact that you give to the poor. It will save you from all kinds of trouble

13 And will be a better defense against your enemies than the strongest shield or stoutest spear.

14 A tov man is willing to guarantee his neighbor's debts. Only someone who has lost all sense of decency would refuse to do so.

15 If someone does this favor for you, don't forget it; he has risked his tov name for you.

16 There are some ungrateful sinners who abandon those who stand behind them and they cause them loss of property.

17 Guaranteeing loans has ruined many prosperous people and caused them unsettling storms of trouble.

18 Influential people have lost their homes over it and have had to go wandering in foreign countries.

19 A sinner who hopes to make a profit by guaranteeing a loan is going to find himself involved in lawsuits.

20 So help your neighbor as much as you can, but protect yourself against the dangers involved.

21 The necessities of chayim are mayim, food, clothing and a bayit where you can have privacy.

22 It is better to be poor and live under your own crude roof than to enjoy lavish banquets in other people's homes.

23 Be in simcha with what you have, even if it isn't very much and don't listen to anyone who would insult your bayit and mishpacha.

24 Going from bayit to bayit is a miserable way to live. Anywhere you go, you don't dare to speak.

25 You welcome the guests and pour the drinks and nobody thanks you. Instead, people humiliate you by saying things like:

26 Oh ger. Come here and set the table. I want to eat what you've got there. Give it here.

27 Go away, ger. I've got an important guest. My brother is coming to visit and I need the room.

28 Being denied hospitality or having a moneylender hound you; these are hard things for any sensitive person to endure.

30 An abba who loves his son will whip him often, so that he can be proud of him later.

2 If a son is disciplined, he will be of some use and his abba can boast of him to his chaverim.

3 Anyone who gives tov guidance to his son can not only take pride in him among his chaverim, but he can make his enemies jealous.

4 While the abba is alive, the sight of his son makes him happy and when he dies, he has no regrets.

5 He is not really dead, because his son is like him.

6 He has left someone to take vengeance on his enemies and to return the favors he owes his chaverim.

7 But anyone who spoils his son will have to bandage his wounds. His lev will stop every time he hears a shout.

8 An untamed horse is going to be stubborn and an undisciplined son is no different.

9 If you pamper your child and play with him, he will be a disappointment and a source of grief.

10 Laugh with him now and one yom you will have to cry over him, grinding your teeth in regret.

11 Don't give him freedom while he is young and don't overlook what he does wrong.

12 Spank him while he is still a child and make him respect your authority. If you don't, he will be stubborn and disobedient and cause you nothing but sorrow.

13 So discipline your son and give him work to do, or else he will be an embarrassment to you.

14 It is better to be poor, but strong and healthy, than to be rich, but in poor health.

15 A sound, healthy gooff and a cheerful attitude are more valuable than gold and jewels.

16 Nothing can make you richer or give you greater simcha than these two things.

17 It would be better to be dead, asleep le-olam-va-ed, than to live in the misery of chronic illness.

18 The finest foods means nothing if you are too ill to eat it; it might as well be offered to an idol.

19 But there is no point in offering food to an idol; it can't eat it or smell it. It is just the same with someone whom the אֱלֹהִים has afflicted.

20 He looks at his food and sighs, like a castrated man hugging a young woman.

21 Don't deliberately torture yourself by giving in to depression.

22 Inward simcha makes for a long chayim and makes it worth living.

23 Enjoy yourself and be in simcha; don't worry all the time. Worry never did anybody any tov and it has destroyed many people.

24 It will make you old before your time. Jealousy and anger will shorten your chayim.

25 A cheerful person with a tov attitude will have a tov appetite and enjoy his food.

31 Worrying about money will make you lose weight and lose sleep.

2 Worrying about business will keep you from sleeping just as surely as a serious illness does.

3 Rich people work hard to make a lot of money; then they can sit back and live in luxury.

4 Poor people work hard and have nothing to show for it and when they rest, they are still poor.

5 No one who loves money can be judged innocent; his efforts to get rich have led him into sin.

6 Many people have been ruined because of money, brought panayim-el-panayim with disaster.

7 Money is a trap for those who are fascinated by it, a trap that every fool falls into.

8 A person who gets rich without sinfully chasing after money is fortunate.

9 Do you know anyone like that? If so, we will congratulate him for performing a ness that no one else has ever been able to do.

10 If anyone has ever passed this test, he can well be proud. Has anyone ever known that he could get away with cheating someone and not taken advantage of it?

11 If so, he deserves his wealth and everyone will tehillah him for his generosity.

12 When you sit down at a fancy banquet, don't let your mouth hang open and don't say, Look at all that food.

13 It is impolite to have a greedy eye; remember that. Nothing in creation is greedier than the eye; that is why it sheds tears so often.

14 Don't reach out for everything you see and don't elbow people out of the way to get at the food.

15 Be considerate of the other people at the shulchan and treat them the way you want to be treated.

16 When you get your food, eat it like a human being. Don't smack your lips and slurp; nobody can stand that.

17 It's tov manners to be the first to stop eating; stuffing yourself is offensive.

18 If there are many people present, don't try to be the first to be served.

19 A little bit is plenty for anyone with tov manners. Besides, you won't be short of ruach when you go to bed.

20 People who eat too much get a stomachache and cannot sleep. If you don't overeat, you can get a tov lyla's sleep and wake up early the next boker feeling fine.

21 But if you do get a stomach-ache from eating too much, go off and vomit and you will feel better.

22 My child, if you listen to what I am saying and put it into practice, one of these yamim you will thank me for it. Be moderate in everything you do and you will never be sick.

23 People appreciate a generous host and he deserves their tehilla.

24 But everybody in town will complain about a host who is stingy with food and their complaints are justified.

25 Don't try to prove your manhood by how much you can drink. Wine has been the ruin of many.

26 An arrogant person's character shows through when he is in a drunken argument, in the same way that iron is tested when it is heated red hot and then dipped in mayim.

27 Wine can put new chayim into you if you drink it in moderation. What would chayim be like without it? Wine was created to make us happy.

28 If you drink it in moderation and at the right time, it can raise your spirits and make you cheerful, 29 But if you drink when you are angry and upset, it leads to headaches, embarrassment and disgrace.

30 A drunken fool can lose his temper and hurt himself. His drinking makes him weak and an easy target for angry blows.

31 Never rebuke a person when you have both been drinking. Don't hurt his feelings while he is having a tov time. It's not the time to criticize anyone, or to ask him to pay back a debt.

32 If you are chosen to preside at a banquet, don't put on airs. Just be like everyone else. Look after the guests before you sit down.

2 After you have performed your duties, you can sit down and enjoy yourself with the others. They will respect you for doing a tov job.

3 If you are older than most of the guests, you may talk; that is your right. But you should know what you are talking about and not interrupt the music.

4 If entertainment is being provided, don't keep up a steady conversation; it's the wrong time to show off your wit.

5 Music at a banquet where wine is served is like a ruby set in gold.

6 Tov music and tov wine, an emerald set in gold.

7 If you are young, don't speak unless you have to, but never more than twice and only if someone speaks to you first.

8 Come to the point and say it all in a few words. Show that you are well informed but stay quiet.

9 Don't treat important people as if you were their equal and don't make a nuisance of yourself by asking them a lot of questions.

10 The reputation of a modest person goes before him, as lightning before thunder.

11 Leave the party at the right time and never be the last to go. Don't linger at the door; just go straight to your bayit.

12 There you can enjoy yourself as you wish, but don't commit the sin of bragging.

13 And don't forget to thank your Creator for letting you enjoy so many tov things.

14 If you fear אף אף, you will accept His correction. He will bless those who get up early in the boker to make tefillah.

15 Study His Torah and you will master it, unless you are insincere about it, in which case you will fail.

16 If you fear אף אף, you will know what is right and you will be famous for your fairness.

17 Sinners have no use for correction and will interpret The Torah to suit themselves.

18 Sensible people will consider every opinion, but arrogant people will let nothing stand in their way.

19 Never do anything without thinking it through and once you have done something, don't look back and wish you had done something else.

20 Don't take a course of action that is dangerous and don't make the same mistake twice.

21 Don't be too sure of yourself, even when the derech looks easy.

22 Always watch where you are going.

23 Whatever you do be careful; this is keeping אִיִּיר's mitzvoth.

24 Believing in The Torah means keeping אִיִּיר's mitzvoth. If you trust אִיִּיר, you cannot lose.

33 No evil will ever come to those who fear אִיִּיר; however often danger comes, אִיִּיר will come to their rescue.

2 A person who has no use for The Torah hasn't any sense and anyone who is insincere about it is going to be tossed about like a boat in a storm.

3 If you are wise, you will believe in The Torah; you will find it as reliable as the kadosh lots.

4 Prepare what you are going to say and people will listen to you. Use what you have learned before you start talking.

5 A foolish person's mind works like a cartwheel, going round and round in circles.

6 A sarcastic chaver is like a wild horse that neighs no matter who tries to ride him.

7 Why are some yamim holier than others, even though the same shemesh rises on every yom of the year?

8 It is because אִיִּיר made them different by setting them apart as moadem and chagim.

9 He made some yamim kadosh and important and made other yamim ordinary.

10 Every human being was made from the earth, just as Ahdam was.

11 But אִיִּיר, in His chochmah, made them all different and gave them different tasks.

12 He blessed some, making them esteemed and kadosh, keeping them near Him. Others He cursed, humbling them and removing them from their positions.

13 Just as clay is in the potter's hands for him to shape as he pleases, so we are in the hands of our Creator for Him to do with as He wishes.

14 Tov is the opposite of evil, chayim is the opposite of death and sin is the opposite of devotion to אלהים.

15 Think about it: El-Elyon has made everything in pairs, each thing the opposite of something else.

16 As for me, I have been the last to come on duty, as if going through vineyards to gather whatever the grape-pickers had left behind. But אלהים blessed me and I did well, like a grape-picker who has filled the winepress.

17 But I want you to know that I have not done all this work for myself alone, but le olam va-ed for anyone who wants to learn.

18 Shema, all you great leaders. All you leaders of the assemblies, hear what I have to say.

19 Never, as long as you have chayim, give anyone power over you; whether son, isha, brother, or chaver. Don't give your property to anyone; you might change your mind and have to ask for it back.

20 As long as you have breath in your gooff, don't let anyone lead your chayim for you.

21 It is better that your children be dependent on you than the other way round.

22 Keep control over all that you do; don't let anyone stain your reputation.

23 Wait until the last moment of your chayim, when you are breathing your last and then divide your property among your heirs.

24 A donkey should be given its fodder and its burden and it should be beaten. An eved should be given food and work and should be disciplined.

25 If you make your eved work, you can set your mind at ease. If you don't keep him busy, he will be looking for freedom.

26 You can use harness and yoke to tame an animal and an eved can be tortured in the stocks.

27 Keep him at work and don't let him be idle; idleness can only teach him how to make trouble.

28 Work is what he needs. If he won't obey you, put him in chains.

29 But don't be too severe with anyone and never be unfair.

30 If you have an eved, treat him as you would want to be treated; you bought him with your hard-earned money.

31 Treat him as a brother; you need him as you need yourself. If you ill-treat him and he runs away, where are you going to look for him?

34 Foolish people are deceived by vain tikvah and dreams get them all excited.

2 A person who pays any attention at all to dreams is like someone who tries to catch shadows or chase the ruach.

3 What you see in a dream is no more real than the reflection of your face in a mirror.

4 What is unreal can no more produce something real than what is dirty can produce something clean.

5 Dreams, divination and omens are all nonsense. You see in them only what you want to see.

6 Unless El-Elyon has sent you the dream, pay no attention to it.

7 Dreams have misled many people; they put their emunah in them, only to be disappointed.

8 The Torah is complete without such falsehood. Cochmah, as spoken by the tzadikim, is also complete without it.

9 A well-travelled person with wide experience knows many things and talks sense.

10 You can't know much if you haven't experienced much, but travel can make you cleverer.

11 In my own travels I have seen many things and learned more than I can put into words.

12 I have been in danger of death many times, but I have always been able to escape by relying on past experiences.

13 Those who fear אֱלֹהִים will live, because they have put their trust in the One who can save them.

14 Fear אֱלֹהִים and you will have nothing else to fear. If your trust is in Him, you will never act like a coward.

15 People who fear אֱלֹהִים are fortunate, because they know where they can look for help.

16 אֱלֹהִים watches over those who love Him; He is their strong protection and firm support. He shelters them from the heat, shades them from the noontday shemesh and keeps them from stumbling and falling.

17 He makes them cheerful and puts a sparkle in their eyes. He blesses them with chayim and health.

18 If you offer as a sacrifice an animal that you have obtained dishonestly, it is defective and unacceptable.

19 El-Elyon gets no pleasure from sacrifices made by sinful people; no amount of sacrifices can make up for their sins.

20 Anyone who steals an animal from the poor to offer as a sacrifice is like someone who kills a boy before his abba's eyes.

21 Food means chayim itself to poor people and taking it away from them is murder.

22 It is murder to deprive someone of his living or to cheat an employee of his wages.

23 When one person builds and somebody else tears down, has anything been accomplished but hard work?

24 When one person blesses and somebody else curses, which one is אֱלֹהִים going to listen to?

25 If you touch a dead gooff and then purify yourself by washing, but then go and touch it again, what tov did the washing do?

26 If you fast because of your sins and then go out and commit the same sins over again, what have you gained by going without food? Who do you think is going to listen to your tefillot?

35 Keeping The Torah is worth many offerings; it is a chavurah offering in itself.

2 Returning a kindness is like a grain offering; giving to the poor is like a thanksgiving offering.

3 Keeping away from sin will please אֱלֹהִים and make keporah for sin.

4 But don't come to the Beit HaMikdash without an offering.

5 The Torah requires that you bring one.

6 When a tzadik person offers a sacrifice and the fat drips down on the altar, a pleasant smell rises to El-Elyon.

7 אֱלֹהִים will accept the offerings made by a tzadik person and will not forget them.

8 Praise אֱלֹהִים by making generous offerings to Him; don't be stingy with the bikkur of your crops.

9 Be in gilah with every gift you make and when you pay your ma'aser, do it gladly.

10 Give to El-Elyon as He has given to you, just as generously as you can.

11 אֱלֹהִים always repays and will do it many times over.

12 But don't try to bribe Him or rely on offerings that you have obtained dishonestly. He will not accept them. אֱלֹהִים is fair and does not show partiality.

13 He is not prejudiced against the poor; when someone makes tefillah, who has been wronged, אֱלֹהִים listens.

14 When orphans and widows pour out their tefillot, He does not ignore them.

15 The tears running down a widow's cheek cry out in accusation against the one who has caused her distress.

16 Serve אֱלֹהִים willingly and אֱלֹהִים will accept you; your tefillot will reach the shamayim.

17 The tefillah of a humble person goes past the clouds and keeps on going until it reaches אֱלֹהִים El-Elyon, where it stays until He answers by seeing that mishpat is done and that the guilty are punished.

18 And אֱלֹהִים will act quickly. He will show no patience with wicked people. He will take vengeance by crushing the heathen. He will completely wipe out those without rachamim and the arrogant and will destroy the authority of the wicked.

19 He will give each of us what our thoughts and actions deserve. Because of אֱלֹהִים's rachamim, His people will gilah when He has given mishpat to their case.

20 In times of trouble His rachamim is as welcome as rain after a long drought.

36 O אֱלֹהִים of the universe, look upon us and have rachamim.

2 Make every nation stand in fear of you.

3 Take action against the foreign nations and let them witness Your Power.

4 You have used us to show them how kadosh You are; now use them to show us how great You are.

5 Let them learn, as we have learned, that there is no Ahlohim, O אלהים, but You.

6 Give new otot, perform new nissim; show us Your great strength.

7 Bring on that appointed time when everyone can talk about the great things You do.

8 Pour out Your furious, flaming anger and let none of our enemies survive.

9 Destroy those who have oppressed Your people.

10 Crush all those enemy rulers who think they are the only people in the olam who matter.

11 Gather the tribes of Yisrael together again and give them back their land as you gave it to them long ago.

12 אלהים, have rachamim on Yisrael, the people who are known by Your Name, whom You called your bachor ben.

13 Take pity on Yahrushalayim, your kadosh city, where You chose to stay.

14 Fill Your Beit HaMikdash on Har Tzion with Your beauty and with hymns of tehillah.

15 Testify for Your people, whom You created in the beginning; fulfil the prophecies that have been spoken in your Name.

16 Reward those who have put their emunah in You and vindicate Your neviim.

17 You have always been gracious to Your people; listen to Your avadim as we make tefillah. Then everyone in the olam will recognize that you are אלהים, The Ahlohim of the ages.

18 Any kind of food can be eaten, but some foods are better than others.

19 And just as the tongue can distinguish the flavors of different kinds of meat, so a sharp mind can detect lies.

20 A person with a warped mind causes trouble, but an experienced person knows how to pay it back.

21 A woman has to take any man as a husband, but a man must choose his isha carefully.

22 A woman's beauty makes a man gilah; there is no fairer sight for the human eye to see.

23 If the isha is kind and gentle in her speech, her husband is the most fortunate of men.

24 When a man marries, he gets the finest thing he will ever have; an isha to help and encourage him.

25 If property is not fenced in, thieves will wander in and help themselves. And if a man has no isha, he is a sighing wanderer;

26 People have no more trust in a homeless person who sleeps in a different place every lyla than they have in a wandering thief who goes from town to town.

37 Anyone can claim to be your chaver, but some people are chaverim in name only.

2 The grief caused when a close friendship turns sour is as bad as death.

3 This evil impulse we have. Why was it ever formed? How did it manage to cover the olam with deceit?

4 Some people will be your chaver as long as things are going well, but they will turn against you when trouble comes.

5 A real chaver will help you against your enemies and protect you in the fight.

6 Never forget such a companion in battle; share the results of your victory with him.

7 Anyone can give advice, but some people do so only in their own interest.

8 Be careful when somebody offers you advice.

Find out first what his interest in the matter is, because you can be sure that he is thinking primarily of himself. Why should he come out on top instead of you?

9 He will assure you that things look tov and then stand back to watch what happens to you.

10 Don't ask advice of anyone who doesn't trust you and don't give advice to anyone who is jealous of you.

11 Don't ask a woman for advice about a rival of hers, a coward about war, a merchant about a bargain, a buyer about selling, a stingy person about gratitude, a cruel person about kindness, a lazy person about work, a casual worker about finishing a job, a lazy eved about a difficult task. Pay no attention to any advice they may give.

12 Instead, rely on someone who is Ruach filled and known to keep אףאז's mitzvoth, someone who is sympathetic with you, who will be sorry to see you fail.

13 And trust your own mishpat; no one's advice is more reliable.

14 Sometimes your own intuition can tell you more than seven watchmen on a high tower.

15 Above all, make tefillah to El Elyon that He will show you the right thing to do.

16 Planning and thought lie behind everything that is done.

17 The mind concerns itself with four things: these are tov and evil, chayim and death.

18 They all begin in the mind, but the tongue is their absolute ruler.

19 Someone may have the ability to teach, but still not be of much use to himself.

20 He may be clever with words, but end up starving because people hate him.

21 This may happen if he hasn't any sense, if אףאז has not given him tact.

22 Someone may consider himself wise and let you know that he is certain about what he knows.

23 Anyone who really is wise will be the teacher of his people and they can be certain that what he teaches is the emet.

24 Everyone will give tehilla for such a person and speak of him as fortunate.

25 A person's chayim has only a limited number of yamim, but the chayim of Yisrael cannot be measured in yamim at all.

26 The wise will win the confidence of others and will be remembered le-olam-va-ed.

27 My child, as you go through chayim, keep your appetite under control and don't eat anything that you know is bad for you.

28 All food doesn't agree with everyone and everyone doesn't like the same kinds of food.

29 Don't feel that you just have to have all sorts of fancy food and don't be a glutton over any food.

30 If you eat too much, you'll be sick; if you do it all the time, you'll always have stomach trouble.

31 Gluttony has been the death of many people. Avoid it and live longer.

38 Give doctors the esteem they deserve, for אֱלֹהִים gave them their work to do.

2 Their skill came from El-Elyon and melechim reward them for it.

3 Their knowledge gives them a position of importance and powerful people hold them in high regard.

4 אֱלֹהִים created medicines from the earth and a sensible person will not hesitate to use them.

5 Didn't a tree once make bitter mayim fit to drink, so that אֱלֹהִים's Power might be known?

6 He gave medical knowledge to human beings, so that we would give tehilla to Him for the nessim He performs.

7 The chemist mixes these medicines and the doctor will use them to cure diseases and ease pain.

8 There is no end to the activities of אֱלֹהִים, who gives health to the people of the olam.

9 My child, when you feel ill, don't ignore it. Make tefillah to אֱלֹהִים and He will make you well.

10 Confess all your sins and determine that in the future you will live a tzadik chayim.

11 Offer incense and a grain offering, as fine as you can afford.

12 Then call the doctor for אֱלֹהִים created him and keep him at your side; you need him.

13 There are times when you have to depend on his skill.

14 The doctor's tefillah is that אֱלֹהִים will make him able to ease his patients' pain and make them well again.

15 As for the person who sins against his Creator, he deserves to be sick.

16 My child, when someone dies, you should mourn. Weep and wail to show how deeply you feel the loss. Prepare the gooff in the proper way and be present at the burial.

17 Weep bitterly and passionately; observe the proper period of mourning for the person. Mourn for a whole yom or maybe two, to keep people from talking, but then pull yourself together and reconcile yourself to the loss.

18 Grief can undermine your health and even lead to your own death.

19 Grief lingers on after the death of a loved one, but it is not wise to let it lead you into poverty.

20 Don't lose yourself in sorrow; drive it away.

Remember that we must all die sometime.

21 There is no way to bring the dead person back.

All your sorrow does him no tov and it hurts you.

Don't forget that.

22 You will die, just as he did. Today it was his turn; tomorrow it will be yours.

23 When the dead have been laid to rest, let the memory of them fade. Once they are gone, take courage.

24 Scholars must have time to study if they are going to be wise; they must be relieved of other responsibilities.

25 How can a farmhand gain knowledge, when his only ambition is to drive the oxen and make them work, when all he is able to talk about is livestock?

26 He takes great pains to plough a straight furrow and will work far into the lyla to feed the animals.

27 It is the same with the artist and the craftsman, who work lyla and yom engraving precious stones, carefully working out new designs. They take great pains to produce a lifelike image and will work far into the lyla to finish the work.

28 It is the same with the blacksmith at his anvil, planning what he will make from a piece of iron. The heat from the fire sears his skin as he sweats away at the forge. The clanging of the hammer deafens him as he carefully watches the object he is working take shape. He takes great pains to complete his task and will work far into the lyla to bring it to perfection.

29 It is the same with the potter, sitting at his wheel and turning it with his feet, always concentrating on his work, concerned with how many objects he can produce.

30 He works the clay with his feet until he can shape it with his hands; then he takes great pains to glaze it properly and will work far into the lyla to clean out the kiln.

31 All these people are skilled with their hands, each of them an expert at his own craft.

32 Without such people there could be no cities; no one would live or visit where these services were not available.

33 These people are not sought out to serve on the public councils and they never attain positions of great importance. They do not serve as shophtim and they do not understand legal matters. They have no education and are not known for their chochmah. You never hear them quoting Mishle.

34 But the work they do holds this olam together. When they do their work, it is the same as offering tefillah.

39 But it is different with the person who devotes himself to studying The Torah of El-Elyon. He examines the chochmah of all the ancient writers and concerns himself with the prophecies.

2 He memorizes the sayings of famous men and is a skilled interpreter of mishle.

3 He studies the sod meaning of mishle and is able to discuss the obscure points of mishle.

4 Great people call on him for his services and he is seen in the company of rulers. He travels to foreign lands in his efforts to learn about human tov and evil.

5 It is his practice to get up early and make tefillah aloud to אֱלֹהֵינוּ his Creator, asking El-Elyon to forgive his sins.

6 Then, if the great אֱלֹהֵינוּ is willing, he will be filled with understanding. He will pour out a stream of wise sayings and give thanks to אֱלֹהֵינוּ in tefillah.

7 He will have knowledge to share and tov advice to give, as well as insight into אֱלֹהֵינוּ's sod.

8 He will demonstrate his learning in what he teaches and his pride will be in אִיִּי's Torah and brit.

9 He will be widely praised for his chochmah and it will never be lost, because people for generations to come will remember him.

10 The goyim will talk about his chochmah and he will be praised aloud in the assembly.

11 If he lives to old age, he will die famous, but if he is laid to rest before he is famous, he will be content.

12 Like the yarayach, I am full of more ideas to be discussed.

13 Shema, you devout children of mine and blossom like a rosebush by a stream.

14 Bloom like a sweet smelling lily and send your fragrance into the air like incense. Shir אִיִּי's tehillot and thank Him for all that He has done.

15 Proclaim His beauty in grateful tehilla. To the music of the harp, shir this shir:

16 All that אִיִּי has done is very tov; all that He commands is sooner or later done.

17 No one should ask why things are as they are; these questions will be answered at the right time. He commanded and the mayim piled up high, great walls of mayim arose when He spoke.

18 Whatever He commands is promptly done; there are no limits to His Power to save.

19 He sees all that every human being does; there is no way to hide from His sight.

20 He sees the whole of time, from beginning to end, and nothing takes Him by surprise.

21 No one should ask why things are as they are; everything in creation has its purpose.

22 His brachot overflow like the Nile, enriching the earth in a fertile flood.

23 He turns fresh mayim into salt mayim and He turns his anger on the goyim.

24 For the devout, His ways are yahshar; for the wicked, they are laid with traps.

25 From Beresheeth He has made tov things for the tov and terrible things for sinners.

26 The basic needs for chayim are these: mayim, fire, iron and salt, flour, honey and milk, wine, clothing and oil.

27 All these things are tov for those who are devout, but they turn into evils for sinners.

28 There are ruachim that were created to bring punishment, fierce enough to move mountains. In times of mishpat, they unleash their strength and calm the anger of their Maker.

29 Vicious animals, scorpions and snakes; the sword that destroys the wicked;

30 Fire, hail, famine and disease; these have all been created as punishments.

31 They are all glad to obey אֱלֹהִים's command and are ready to serve Him here on earth. When their times of duty comes, they never disobey.

32 I was long convinced of this, so after thinking it over I put it in writing.

33 Everything made by אֱלֹהִים is tov; He meets every need at the proper time.

34 No one can claim that some things are worse than others, le olam va-ed; everything is tov in its proper place.

35 Now then, shir tehilot with all your lev and give tehilla to The Name of אֱלֹהִים.

40 Every person has been given a great deal of work to do. A heavy burden lies on all of us from the yom of our birth until the yom we go back to the earth, the mother of us all.

2 We are confused and fearful, dreading the yom of our death.

3 All of us from the melech on his splendid kesay wearing royal robes and a keter;

4 To the humblest person dressed in sacks and living in poverty.

5 All through our lives we meet anger, jealousy and trouble. Things disturb us; we live with furious conflicts and with the fear of death. Even when we go to bed, we think up new troubles in our sleep.

6 We get little rest, if any at all. When we sleep, it is as if we were awake, disturbed by our imaginations. If we dream that we are running from an enemy;

7 Just as we are about to be caught, we wake up and are relieved to find there is nothing to be afraid of.

8 These are what all creatures, both human and animal, must face (but it is seven times worse for sinners):

9 Death, violence, conflict, murder, disaster, famine, sickness, epidemic.

10 All these things were created because of the wicked; they are the ones who have caused destruction.

11 Everything that comes from the earth goes back to the earth, just as all mayim flows into the sea.

12 Nothing that comes from bribery or injustice will last, but the effects of loyalty will remain le-olam-va-ed.

13 Wealth that has been obtained dishonestly is like a stream that runs full during a thunderstorm;

14 Tumbling rocks along as it flows, but then suddenly goes dry.

15 The children of sinful people will not leave large mishpachot; they are like plants trying to take root on rock;

16 Like reeds along a river bank, withering before any other plant.

17 Acts of kindness and charity are as lasting as eternity.

18 Having independent means or working for a living; both can make chayim pleasant, but it is better to find a treasure.

19 Your name can be preserved if you have children or if you establish a city; but finding Cochmah is a better way. Owning livestock and orchards will make you famous, but it is better to have an isha you love.

20 Wine and music can make you gilah, but a happy marriage is even better.

21 Flutes and harps make fine music, but a pleasant voice is better than either.

22 Gracefulness and beauty please the eye, but not as much as new growth in the spring.

23 You can't go wrong with a tov chaver or neighbor, but an intelligent isha is better than either.

24 Relatives and helpers are tov to have in times of trouble, but it will be an even greater help if you have made a practice of giving to the poor.

25 Gold and silver provide security, but tov advice is better.

26 Wealth and strength give confidence, but the fear of אִיִּזְוֶה can give you even greater confidence. When you fear אִיִּזְוֶה you need nothing more; it is all the support you need.

27 The fear of אִיִּזְוֶה is like a rich garden of brachot; you could not want a more esteemed shelter.

28 My child, don't live the chayim of a beggar; it is better to die than to beg.

29 If you have to depend on someone else for your food, you are not really living your own chayim. You pollute yourself by accepting food from another.

Begging is torture to the nephesh of any sensitive person.

30 A shameless person can make begging sound sweet, but something inside him burns.

41 Death. The very thought of it is bitter to someone who is prosperous, living in shalom with his possessions, free of worries and still able to enjoy his food.

2 Death. Its sentence is welcome to someone living in poverty, with failing health, very old, burdened with worries, blind and without tikvah.

3 Do not be afraid of death's decree. Remember that it came to those before you and will come to those after you.

4 אֵלֵינוּ has decreed it le olam va-ed to every living creature. Who are you to object to what El-Elyon wishes? In the olam of the dead, no one will care whether you lived ten years, a hundred, or a thousand.

5 The children of sinners, brought up in sinful surroundings, turn out to be hateful people.

6 They will lose whatever they inherit and their own descendants will live in permanent disgrace.

7 The children will put the blame for their disgrace on their sinful parents.

8 You are doomed, you who are not kadosh people, who have abandoned The Torah of El-Elyon.

9 When you have children, disaster will strike them and you will be left with nothing but sorrow. There will be great simcha whenever you stumble and even after your death you will be cursed.

10 What comes into being from nothing will return to nothing; so it will be with the unsaved, doomed to extinction.

11 A person's goff amounts to nothing, but a tov reputation will last le-olam-va-ed.

12 Protect your reputation; it will outlive you and last longer than a thousand treasures of gold.

13 A tov chayim lasts only a short time, but a tov reputation will last le-olam-va-ed.

14 My children, do as I teach you and live at shalom. Cochmah that is not expressed is like a treasure that has been hidden; both are useless.

15 A person who covers up his foolishness is better than one who keeps his chochmah to himself.

16 My children, listen and I will teach you the circumstances when it is proper to be ashamed. Sometimes it is entirely out of place.

17 Before your parents, be ashamed of immoral behavior. Before a ruler or an important person, be ashamed of a lie.

18 Before a shophet, be ashamed of criminal behavior. Before a public assembly, be ashamed of breaking the law. Before a chaver or partner, be ashamed of dishonesty.

19 Before your neighbors, be ashamed of theft. Be ashamed of breaking a promise of leaning on the dinner table with your elbows, of stinginess when you are asked for something;

20 Of not returning a greeting, of staring at a prostitute,

21 Of turning down a relative's request, of depriving someone of what is rightly his, of staring at another man's isha, 22 Of playing around with his eved woman (keep away from her bed.) of insulting your chaverim, of following up your gifts with criticism.

23 Of betraying secrets. These are times when it is proper for you to be ashamed and people will respect you for it.

42 On the other hand, it is possible to sin by giving in to other people too much. Here are some things you should not be ashamed of:

- 2 The Torah of El-Elyon and His brit, judging even sinful people fairly;
- 3 Sharing expenses with a business partner or a travelling companion, sharing an inheritance;
- 4 Using accurate weights and measures;
- 5 Making a profit, whether great or small, bargaining with a merchant, disciplining your children often, beating a disloyal eved until the blood flows.
- 6 It is wise to lock things up if you cannot trust your isha or if too many people are around.
- 7 Keep an accurate record of any deposits you make or of anything you give or receive.
- 8 Don't hesitate to correct someone who is acting foolishly or an old man who goes about with prostitutes. All this is worthwhile advice and if you follow it, everyone will approve of your behavior.
- 9 Although he will not let his daughter know it, an abba will lie awake at lyla worrying about her. If she is young, he worries that she might not get married. If she is already married, he worries about her simcha.
- 10 If she is a virgin, he worries that she might be seduced and become pregnant while living in his house. If she is married, he worries that she might be unfaithful, or that she might not be able to have children.
- 11 Keep a close watch over your daughter if she is determined to have her own halacha. If you don't, she may make a fool of you in front of your enemies. You will be a constant joke to everyone in town, a public disgrace. Make sure that her room has no windows or any place where she can look out to the entrance of the house.
- 12 Don't let her show off her beauty in front of men, or spend her time talking with the women.
- 13 Women hurt other women just as moths damage clothing.

14 A man's wickedness is better than a woman's goodness; women bring shame and disgrace.

15 Now I will remind you of the works of אֱלֹהִים and describe the things I have seen. The Words of אֱלֹהִים brought His works into being, and the whole of creation obeys His commands.

16 The ohr of the shemesh shines down on everything and everything is filled with אֱלֹהִים's beauty.

17 Not even to His kadosh malachim has אֱלֹהִים given power to describe all His mighty deeds, even though He has given them Power to stand unharmed in His esteemed presence.

18 He sees into the oceans and into the human lev and He knows the secrets of both. El-Elyon knows everything that can be known and understands the signs of the ages.

19 He knows all that has ever been and all that ever will be; He uncovers the deepest of mysteries.

20 He takes notice of our every thought and hears our every word.

21 The orderly olam shows the greatness of His chochmah; He is the same le olam va-ed and ever. Nothing can be added to Him and nothing taken 22 All His works are beautiful, down to the smallest and faintest spark of ohr.

23 All these things go on le-olam-va-ed and all of them have their purpose.

24 All things are in pairs, each the opposite of the other, but nothing אֱלֹהִים made is incomplete.

25 Everything completes the tov of something else. Could anyone ever see enough of this beauty?

43 How beautiful is the bright, clear shamayim above us. What a esteemed sight it is.

2 The shemesh, when it appears, proclaims as it rises how marvelous a thing it is, made by El-Elyon.

3 At noon it dries up the land; no one can stand its blazing heat.

4 The setting shemesh sets fire to the hilltops, like a metal furnace glowing from the heat. It sends out fiery rays, blinding the eyes with its brightness.

5 אֵלֵינוּ, who made it, is great; it speeds on its way at His command.

6 There is also the yarayach, marking the passage of time, an eternal sign of the changing moadem.

7 The yarayach determines the kadosh yamim. Its ohr grows full and then grows dim.

8 The yarayach is named by Him, marvelous to watch, as it grows fuller each lyla, a signal of ohr for the heavenly armies, shining out in the dome of the shamayim.

9 The shining cochavim make the lyla lovely, brilliant ornaments in אֵלֵינוּ's high shamayim.

10 They stay in the places assigned to them by the Kadosh One and never relax their dutiful watch.

11 Look at the rainbow and give tehilla to its Creator. How magnificent, how radiant, its beauty.

12 Like a bow bent by the hands of El-Elyon, it spans the horizon in a circle of beauty.

13 He commands and snow begins to fall; lightning strikes to carry out His mishpatim.

14 The storerooms of the shamayim are thrown open, and the clouds roll out like flying birds.

15 With His Power He forms great masses of clouds and shatters the ice into hailstones.

16 He speaks and thunder twists the earth in pain; the mountains are shaken by His strength. Whenever He wishes, the south wind blows, large 17 He sends the snow fluttering down like birds, like locusts filling the ground.

18 We marvel at its beautiful whiteness and in fascination we watch it fall.

19 He sprinkles frost over the ground like salt, and it freezes into thorny flowers of ice.

20 He sends the cold north wind blowing and the water hardens into ice; every lake and pond freezes over, putting on a coat of icy armor.

21 He scorches the hills of the midbar with drought, and the grass turns brown from its heat;

22 But a cloudy mist restores it all to chayim as the weather cools and dew appears.

23 By His chochmah He calmed the great oceans and placed the islands there.

24 Sailors tell about the dangers of the sea and we listen to their tales in amazement.

25 In the sea are strange and marvelous creatures: huge monsters and all kinds of living things.

26 Each of אֱלֹהִים's messengers succeeds at its task. Everything is held together by His Word.

27 We could say much more and never finish, but it all means this: אֱלֹהִים is everything.

28 How can we find the power to give tehilla to Him? He is greater than all His creation.

29 אֱלֹהִים is awesome in His greatness; His Power is overwhelming.

30 Though you do your best to give tehilla to Him,
He is greater than you can ever express. Though you esteem Him tirelessly and with all your strength, you still cannot give tehilla to Him enough.

31 No one has seen Him, no one can describe Him;
no one can give tehilla to Him as He deserves.

32 Mysteries greater than these are still unknown;
we know only a fraction of His works.

33 אֱלֹהִים made the universe and then gave chochmah to devout people.

44 So let us now give tehilla to kadosh men, our ancestors of generations past.

2 Those whom אִיִּיז esteemed with great beauty, in whom His greatness has been seen from the beginning of time.

3 There were some who ruled malchutim and some who were known for their strength. Some were wise advisers, and some spoke prophecies.

4 There were political leaders whose policies governed the people, rulers who issued decrees, scholars who spoke wise words, and those who used pointed mishle.

5 Poets and composers of music.

6 Rich and powerful men living in shalom at home.

7 All these were famous in their own times, esteemed by the people of their yom.

8 Some left a reputation, and people still esteem them today.

9 There are others who are not remembered, as if they had never lived, they died and were forgotten, they and their children after them.

10 But we will esteem these kadosh men, whose tzadik deeds have never been forgotten.

11 Their reputations will be passed on to their descendants and this will be their inheritance.

12 Their descendants continue to keep the brit and always will, because of what their ancestors did.

13 Their family line will go on le-olam-va-ed and their fame will never fade.

14 Their bodies were laid to rest, but their reputations will live le-olam-va-ed.

15 Nations will tell about their chochmah and Ahlohim's people will esteem them.

16 Chanok pleased אִיִּיז and was taken up into the shamayim. He became an inspiration for teshuvah for all time to come.

17 Noach was a perfectly tzadik man. After destruction came, he gave the human race a new start. Because of him there were people left on the earth when the flood was over.

18 אֱלֹהִים made an eternal brit with him, promising that chayim would never again be destroyed by a flood.

19 Avraham was the great ancestor of many nations; his reputation was faultless.

20 He kept The Torah of El-Elyon and made a brit with Him, a brit marked on his gooff. When he was put to the test, he was found faithful.

21 And so אֱלֹהִים made him a solemn promise that his descendants would be a bracha to the olam; that their number would be countless, like the dust of the earth; that they would be esteemed more than any other people on earth; and that their land would extend from sea to sea, from the Euphrates to the ends of the earth.

22 אֱלֹהִים renewed that brit with Yitzchak and then again with Yisrael, repeating the promise that Avraham's descendants would be a bracha, mixed in to the whole human race.

23 אֱלֹהִים assured Yaakov that He would bless him; He gave him the land that would be his, dividing it into twelve parts, one for each of the tribes.

45 From Yaakov's descendants אֱלֹהִים raised up a kadosh man who won the favor of everyone, loved by Ahlohim and human beings alike. This man was Moshe, whose very memory is a blessing.

2 אֱלֹהִים made him as esteemed as the malachim and made his enemies fear him.

3 There in Mitzrayim at his command the disaster struck. אֱלֹהִים made melechim hold him in respect. אֱלֹהִים gave him His commands for His people and showed him the dazzling ohr of His presence.

4 אֱלֹהִים chose Moshe out of the whole human race and consecrated him because of his loyalty and humility.

5 He let him hear His voice and led him into the dark cloud, where, panayim-el-panayim, He gave him the mitzvoth, The Torah that gives chayim and knowledge, so that Moshe might teach the brit's regulations to the Yisraelites.

6 אֱלֹהִים raised up Aharon, a kadosh man like his brother Moshe, of the tribe of Lewi.

7 He made an eternal brit with him, giving him the privilege of serving as kohen to אֱלֹהִים's people. He honored him by clothing him with magnificent robes and fine ornaments.

8 Perfect in their splendor. He granted him the symbols of authority: the linen shorts, the shirt and the robe with the pomegranates around the hem.

9 Gold bells were also around its hem, so that when he walked, their ringing would be heard in the Beit HaMikdash and אֱלֹהִים would remember His people.

10 אֱלֹהִים gave Aharon the kadosh robe with the gold, blue and purple embroidery; the breast piece with the Urim and Thummim.

11 The red yarn, spun by an expert; the precious stones with names engraved on them, mounted in a gold setting by a jeweler, placed on the breast piece to remind אֱלֹהִים of the twelve tribes of Yisrael.

12 He gave him the turban with the gold ornament engraved with the words Kadosh Le-אֱלֹהִים. It was expertly crafted, a beautiful work of art and it was a high esteem to wear it.

13 Before Aharon's time such beautiful things were never seen. No one but Aharon and his descendants ever wore them, or ever will.

14 The grain offering is to be presented twice a yom and burnt completely.

15 Moshe ordained Aharon to the office by pouring the kadosh anointing oil over his head. An eternal brit was made with him and his descendants, that they would serve אֱלֹהִים as His kohanim and bless the people in אֱלֹהִים's Name.

16 אֱלֹהִים chose Aharon out of the whole human race to offer sacrifices, to burn fragrant incense, to remind אֱלֹהִים of His people and to take away their sins.

17 He entrusted the mitzvot to Aharon's keeping and gave him the authority to make legal decisions and to teach Yisrael The Torah.

18 Once, while the people were in the midbar, an angry group of jealous outsiders conspired against Moshe. These were Dathan, Aviram and Korach with their supporters.

19 אֱלֹהִים saw what they were doing and became angry, so furious that He performed a nes and destroyed them in a blazing fire.

20 Then He rewarded Aharon again, giving him a special honor: the right to the offerings of the bikkur produce, so that the kohanim should have enough to eat.

21 Their food is the sacrifices offered to אֱלֹהִים; אֱלֹהִים gave this to Aharon and his descendants.

22 But Aharon, unlike the rest of the people, was to inherit no land, no special portion of his own. אֱלֹהִים Himself would be all he needed.

23 Only Moshe and Aharon were more famous for their intense devotion to אֱלֹהִים than Pinchus son of El Azar. He brought about forgiveness for Yisrael's sin by standing firm in brave determination when everyone else was in revolt.

24 And so אֱלֹהִים made a brit with him, valid for all time to come, that he should be in charge of the tent of meeting and of His people, that he and his descendants should hold the office of Kohen Gadol le-olam-va-ed.

25 Unlike the brit made with Dawid son of Yishai, from the tribe of Yahudah, where the kesay passed only from abba to son, the kohanut was to pass from Aharon to all his descendants le-olam-va-ed.

26 Now give tehilla to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who is tov, who has crowned you with beauty. May He give you chochmah to judge His people fairly, so that their success and your authority may continue le-olam-va-ed.

46 Yahusha son of Nun was a great soldier and the next of the neviim after Moshe. He lived up to the meaning of his name, as the great deliverer of אֱלֹהֵינוּ's chosen people. He defeated the enemies that attacked them, so that Yisrael could claim its land.

2 How magnificent it was when he raised his arm and then led the attack on the cities.

3 No one could stand up to him; he was fighting a kadosh war for אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

4 Remember how he held back the shemesh and made one yom as long as two?

5 When his enemies were threatening him from every side, he prayed to the mighty אֱלֹהֵינוּ El-Elyon and his tefillah was answered with a hailstorm of devastating force.

6 אֱלֹהֵינוּ hurled the hail down on the enemy and destroyed them at the pass at Beth Choron, so that the nations would realize how strong Yahusha was, since he was fighting as a devoted follower of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

7 Yahusha was loyal as long as Moshe lived, both he and Caley son of Yahphunneh. They stood up to the whole community, made them stop their ungrateful complaining and kept them from sinning.

8 Out of the six hundred thousand Yisraelites who marched through the midbar, these two were the only ones spared and allowed to enter the rich and fertile land that was to be theirs.

9 אִיִּזְרָאֵל made Calev strong and when he was an old man, he was still strong enough to go up into the hill country and capture it for himself and his descendants.

10 Then all Yisrael could see how tov it is to follow אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

11 Then there were the shophtim, each of them famous in their own right, who never fell into idolatry and never abandoned אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

12 May their memory be honored. May these whom we esteem spring from the grave to new chayim in their descendants.

13 Shmuel was loved by אִיִּזְרָאֵל. As אִיִּזְרָאֵל's navi he established the malchut and appointed rulers for the people.

14 He judged the nation in accordance with The Torah of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and אִיִּזְרָאֵל protected Yisrael.

15 Because Shmuel was faithful, he was accepted as a true navi. People trusted him as a seer because of his words.

16 When his enemies were threatening him from every side, he called upon Almighty אִיִּזְרָאֵל and offered him a young lamb as a sacrifice.

17 Then אִיִּזְרָאֵל thundered from the shamayim with a mighty roar;

18 And destroyed all the enemy rulers of the Plishtim.

19 When Shmuel was about to die, he gave assurances before אִיִּזְרָאֵל and the anointed melech that he had never taken anyone's property, not even so much as a pair of shoes and no one contradicted him.

20 Even after he died, he prophesied to Melech Shaul how he would die. Out of the grave he spoke as a navi, to blot out his people's wickedness.

47 After him came Nathan, who was a navi at the time of Dawid.

2 As the choice fat portion of the chavurah offering is reserved for אֱלֹהִים, so Dawid was chosen from among the Yisraelites.

3 He played with lions and bears as if they were lambs or little goats.

4 When he was still a boy, he killed a giant to rescue his people. He put a stone in his sling, took aim and put an end to Golyath's bragging.

5 He made tefillah to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, El-Elyon and was given the strength to kill that famous soldier, so that the nations would have respect for the power of His people.

6 The people honored him for killing his tens of thousands and when he was crowned melech, they praised him for being chosen by אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

7 He wiped out all his enemies and permanently crushed the Plishtim, so that they never again became a threat.

8 In everything Dawid did, he gave thanks and tehilla to the Kadosh אֱלֹהֵינוּ, El-Elyon. He loved his Creator and sang tehillot to Him with all his lev.

9 He put singers at the altar to provide beautiful music.

10 He prepared the times of the moadem throughout the year and made them splendid occasions; the Beit HaMikdash rang with אֱלֹהֵינוּ's tehillot all yom long.

11 אֱלֹהֵינוּ forgave Dawid's sin and established his power le-olam-va-ed. He made a brit with him that he and his descendants would reign in splendor over Yisrael.

12 David prepared the derech well for his son, a wise man, to rule after him.

13 There was no war while Shlomo was melech. Ahlohim gave him shalom on all his borders, so that he could build for אֱלֹהִים a Beit HaMikdash which would stand le olam va-ed.

14 How wise you were, Shlomo, when you were young. Your da'at was like the Nile in its high tide.

15 Your influence reached over all the olam; your mishle and riddles were known everywhere.

16 You were famous everywhere and people loved you for bringing shalom.

17 Nations around the olam held you in admiration for your shirim, mishle and witty sayings.

18 You gathered silver and gold as if it were tin or lead, all in the Name of אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

19 But your lust for strange women was your downfall.

20 You stained your reputation and that of your descendants. They suffered punishment for that foolishness of yours, which caused them so much grief.

21 It divided the nation and a rival malchut arose in northern Yisrael.

22 But אֱלֹהִים will always have rachamim and keep all His promises. He will never fully destroy the descendants of Dawid, whom He chose and who loved Him. So, for Yisrael's sake, He allowed Dawid's mishpacha to survive.

23 Shlomo followed his ancestors in death and left one of his sons to rule after him. This was Rechavam, a man of little intelligence and great foolishness, whose policies caused a rebellion. There was also the unspeakable Yerovam, who led northern Yisrael in sinful ways.

24 His people became so sinful that they were exiled from their land.

25 They tried all kinds of wickedness, until אףאז took vengeance on them.

48 Then there arose the fiery navi Eliyahu, whose words blazed like a torch.

2 He brought a famine on the people and many of them died because of his persistence.

3 Speaking in the Name of אףאז, he kept the rain from coming and on three occasions he called down fire.

4 Eliyahu, your neseem were marvelous. No one else can boast of such mitzvoth.

5 In the Name of El-Elyon, you brought a dead man back to chayim.

6 You brought a famous melech down to sickness and death.

7 At Har Senai you heard אףאז rebuke you and declare His determination to punish His enemies.

8 You anointed a melech to be the instrument of that punishment and a navi to take your place.

9 You were taken up to the shamayim in a fiery whirlwind, a mirkavah drawn by fiery horses.

10 The Katuv says that you are ready to appear at the designated time, to cool Ahlohim's anger before it breaks out in fury; that you will bring parents and children together again and restore the tribes of Yisrael.

11 Fortunate are those who live to see you come, as well as those who have already died in ahava, for we too shall live.

12 When Eliyahu was hidden by the whirlwind, Elisha was filled with his Ruach. As long as he lived, he was not afraid of rulers and they could not make him do as they wished.

13 Nothing was too hard for him. Even when he was dead, his gooff worked a ness.

14 In chayim and in death he performed amazing neseem.

15 But in spite of all this, the people did not abandon their sinful ways, until they were taken from their land as prisoners and scattered all over the olam. This left the nation few in number, but those who remained were still ruled by the descendants of Dawid.

16 Some of the people did what was pleasing to אֱלֹהִים, but others committed sin after sin.

17 Hezkeyahu prepared his city to resist a siege and provided it with a supply of mayim. He had a tunnel built through solid rock with iron tools and had cisterns built to hold the mayim.

18 During his reign Sennacheriv attacked the city and sent his chief official from Lachish. He challenged Yahrushalayim and boasted arrogantly.

19 The people lost their courage and shook with fear; they were in pain, like a woman in labor.

20 But they prayed to אֱלֹהִים, full of rachamim, The Kadosh One in the shamayim, who quickly answered their tefillot and sent Yeshayahu to save them.

21 אֱלֹהִים struck the Ashurim camp; His Malach wiped them out.

22 Yes, Hezkeyahu did what was pleasing to אֱלֹהִים and firmly followed the example of his ancestor Dawid. This was what was commanded by the great navi Yeshayahu, whose visions were trusted.

23 He made the shemesh move backward and lengthened the melech's chayim.

24 He comforted the mourners in Yahrushalayim. His powerful ruach looked into the future.

25 And he predicted what was to happen before the end of time, hidden things that had not yet occurred.

49 The memory of Yoshiyahu is as sweet as the fragrance of expertly blended incense, sweet as honey to the taste, like music with wine at a banquet.

2 He followed the correct policy of reforming the nation and removed the horrors of idolatry.

3 He was completely loyal to אֱלֹהֵינוּ and strengthened the one true emunah in those wicked times.

4 All the melechim, except Dawid, Hezkeyahu and Yoshiyahu, were terrible sinners, because they abandoned The Torah of El-Elyon to the very end of their malchut.

5 They surrendered their power and esteem to gerim.

6 Who set fire to the kadosh city and left its streets deserted, just as Yirmeyahu had predicted.

7 Yirmeyahu had been badly treated, even though he was chosen as a navi before he was born, to uproot and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, but also to build and to plant.

8 It was Yechezkel who was shown the vision of the divine beauty over the mirkavah and the living creatures.

9 He also referred to the navi lyov, who always did the right thing.

10 May the bones of the twelve neviim rise to new chayim, because these men encouraged the people of Yisrael and saved them with confident tikvah.

11 Exactly how can we give hodu for Zerubbavel?

He was like a signet ring on אֱלֹהֵינוּ's Right Hand, 12 As was Yahusha son of Yahozadak. They rebuilt אֱלֹהֵינוּ's kadosh Beit HaMikdash, destined for eternal fame.

13 The memory of Nechemyah is also great. He rebuilt the ruined walls of Yahrushalayim, installing the gates and bars. He rebuilt our homes.

14 No one else like Chanok has ever walked the face of the earth, for he was taken up from the earth.

15 No one else like Yoseph has ever been born; even his bones were honored.

16 Shem, Seth and Enosh were highly honored, but Ahdam's beauty was above that of any other living being.

50 The greatest of his brothers and the pride of his people was the Kohen Gadol, Shimon son of Oniyah, who repaired the Beit HaMikdash.

2 And laid the foundation for the high double wall and the fortifications of the Beit HaMikdash.

3 The reservoir, as big as the bronze tank, was dug while he was in office.

4 He made plans to protect his people from attack and fortified the city, so that it could withstand a siege.

5 How esteemed he was when he came out of the Most Kadosh Place.

6 He was like the boker cochav shining through the clouds, like the full yarayach.

7 Like the shemesh shining on the Beit HaMikdash of El-Elyon, like the rainbow gleaming in beauty against the clouds,

8 Like roses in springtime, like lilies beside a stream, like the cedars of Levanon in summer,

9 Like burning incense, like a cup made of hammered gold and decorated with all kinds of jewels,

10 Like an olive-tree loaded with fruit, like a cypress-tree towering into the clouds.

11 When Shimon put on his magnificent priestly robe and went up to the kadosh altar dressed in perfect splendor, he made the Beit HaMikdash courtyard a majestic sight.

12 When the kohanim handed him the portions of the sacrifice as he stood beside the altar with his assistants circling him like a wreath, he was like a young cedar of Levanon surrounded by palm trees.

13 Those were the descendants of Aharon in their splendid garments, standing before the whole assembly of Yisrael, holding in their hands the offerings made to אֱלֹהִים.

14 When he had finished the service at the altar and had arranged the sacrifice to El-Elyon, The Almighty.

15 He reached for a cup and poured out sweet-smelling wine at the foot of the altar as an offering to El-Elyon, the Universal Melech.

16 Then the kohanim shouted and blew their chatzotroth of hammered silver. They made a loud noise that El-Elyon would hear.

17 All the people immediately bowed down with their faces to the ground to worship אֱלֹהִים, the Almighty, El-Elyon.

18 Then the choir began to shir His tehilot and the beautiful music rang out.

19 The people made tefillah to the אֱלֹהִים El-Elyon full of rachamim, until the service of worship had come to a close.

20 Then Shimon came down from the altar, raised his hands over the whole assembly of Yisrael and reverently pronounced the blessing from אֱלֹהִים.

21 While the people bowed a second time in worship to receive that blessing from El-Elyon.

22 Now then, give tehilla to the Ahlohim of the universe, who has done great things everywhere, who brings us up from the time we are born and deals with us with rachamim.

23 May He give us simcha and allow us to have shalom in Yisrael le olam va-ed.

24 May He continue His rachamim to us and rescue us in our time of need.

25 There are two nations that I detest and a third that does not even deserve to be called a nation.

26 These are the Edomites, the inhabitants of the Plishtim cities and the stupid Shomronites.

27 I, Yahusha son of Sirach El-Azar of Yahrushalayim, put all my chochmah into writing this book to provide instruction and knowledge for others.

28 May Ahlohim bless everyone who gives attention to these teachings. Whoever takes them to lev will become wise.

29 Whoever lives by them will be strong enough for any occasion, because he will be walking in the ohr of אֱלֹהִים.

51 I give you hodu, O אֱלֹהִים and Melech; I give tehilla to you as my Ahlohim and Savior. I give You hodu,

2 For You have helped me and protected me. You have rescued me from death, from dangerous lies and slander.

3 You helped me when no one else would; in your great rachamim You saved me from the many troubles I have known: from the glaring hatred of my enemies, who wanted to put an end to my chayim.

4 From suffocation in oppressive smoke rising from fires I did not start.

5 From death itself; from vicious slander reported to the melech.

6 I was once brought panayim-el-panayim with death.

7 Enemies surrounded me everywhere. I looked for someone to help me, but there was no one there.

8 But then, O אֱלֹהִים, I remembered how merciful You are and what You had done in times past. I remembered that You rescue those who rely on You, that You save them from their enemies.

9 Then from here on earth, I made tefillah to You to rescue me from death.

10 I prayed, O אֱלֹהִים You are my Abba; do not abandon me to my troubles when I am helpless against arrogant enemies.

11 I will always give tehilla to You and shir shirim of hodu. You answered my tefillah.

12 And saved me from the threat of destruction. And so I thank You and give tehilla to You. O אֱלֹהִים, I give tehilla to You.

13 When I was still young, before I started out on my travels, I boldly made tefillah for chochmah.

14 I went to the Beit HaMikdash and asked for her and I will look for her as long as I live.

15 From my blossoming youth to my ripe old age, she has been my delight. I have followed directly in her path ever since I was young.

16 I received chochmah as soon as I began listening for her and I have been rewarded with great da'at.

17 I have always been a learner and am grateful to everyone who has been my teacher.

18 I was determined to live wisely and was devoted to the cause of tov. I have no regrets.

19 I fought for chochmah and was strict in my conduct. When I made tefillah, I sadly confessed how far short of chochmah I fell.

20 But I was determined to have her and I found her by keeping myself apart from sin. I have grown in chochmah since first I found her and I will never be without her.

- 21 Because I was driven by the desire to find her, I have been richly rewarded.
- 22 אֱלֹהֵינוּ gave me a gift for words and I have used it for His tehilla.
- 23 Come to me, all you that need instruction and learn in my school.
- 24 Why do you not admit that you are ignorant and do nothing about it?
- 25 This is what I say: It costs nothing to be wise.
- 26 Put on the yoke of Torah and be willing to learn. The opportunity is always near you.
- 27 See for yourselves. I have really not studied very hard, but I still have found great contentment.
- 28 No matter how much it costs you to get chochmah, it will be well worth it.
- 29 Be grateful for אֱלֹהֵינוּ's rachamim and never be ashamed to give tehilla to Him.
- 30 Do your duty at the proper time and אֱלֹהֵינוּ, at the time He thinks proper, will give you your great reward. X

Tobias-Toviyah

- 1 The Sefer of the Devarim of Toviyah, son of Toviell, the son of Chananiel, the son of Aduel, the son of Gabael, of the zera of Asael, of the tribe of Naphthali;
- 2 Who in the time of Enemessar melech of the Asshurim was led captive out of Thisbe, which is at the right hand of that city, which is called properly Naphtali in Galil above Asher.
- 3 I Toviyah have walked all the yamim of my chayim in the derachot of emet and tzedakah and I did many alms-deeds to my brethren and my nation, who came with me to Ninveh, into the land of the Asshurim.
- 4 And when I was in my own country in the land of Yisrael, being but young, all the tribe of Naphtali my abba fell from the bayit of Yahrushalayim, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Yisrael, that all the tribes should sacrifice there, where the Beit HaMikdash of the habitation of El-Elyon was consecrated and built for all ages.
- 5 Now all the tribes which together revolted and the bayit of my abba Naphtali, sacrificed to the heifer Baal.
- 6 But I alone went often to Yahrushalayim at the moadem, as it was ordained to all the people of Yisrael by an everlasting decree, having the bikkurim and ma'aser of all increase, with that which was first shorn; and them gave I at the altar to the kohanim the children of Aharon.
- 7 The ma'aser of all increase I gave to the sons of Aharon, who ministered at Yahrushalayim: another ma'aser I sold away and went and spent it every year at Yahrushalayim:

8 And the third I gave to them to whom it was meet, as Devorah my abba's eema had commanded me because I was left an orphan by my abba.

9 Furthermore, when I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna of my own kindred and of her I begat Toviya.

10 And when we were carried away captives to Ninveh, all my brethren and those that were of my kindred did eat of the lechem of the Nations.

11 But I kept myself from eating it;

12 Because I remembered Myhla with all my lev.

13 And El-Elyon gave me unmerited chen before Enemessar, so that I was his trader.

14 And I went into Media and left in trust with Gabael, the brother of Gabriyah, at Rages a city of Media ten talents of silver.

15 Now when Enemessar was dead, Sennacherib his son reigned in his place; whose estate was troubled, that I could not go into Media.

16 And in the time of Enemessar I gave many alms to my brethren and gave my lechem to the hungry, 17 And my clothes to the naked: and if I saw any of my nation dead, or cast about the walls of Ninveh, I buried him.

18 And if the melech Sennacherib had slain any, when he was come and fled from Judea, I buried them privily; for in his wrath he killed many; but the bodies were not found, when they were sought for by the melech.

19 And when one of the Ninevites went and complained of me to the melech that I buried them and hid myself; understanding that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew myself for fear.

20 Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there anything left to me, besides my isha Anna and my ben Toviya.

21 And there passed not fifty five yamim before two of his sons killed him and they fled into the mountains of Ararat; and Sarchedonus his son reigned in his place; who appointed over his abba's accounts and over all his affairs, Achiacharus my brother Anael's son.

22 And Achiacharus sought for me, I returned to Ninveh. Now Achiacharus was cupbearer and keeper of the signet and steward and overseer of the accounts: and Sarchedonus appointed him next to him: and he was my brother's son.

2 Now when I was come home again and my isha Anna was restored to me, with my son Toviya, in the Chag Shavuot, which is the set apart moed of the seven weeks, there was a tov dinner prepared for me, in the which I sat down to eat.

2 And when I saw abundance of meat, I said to my son, Go and bring whatever poor man you shall find of our brothers, who is mindful of אֲרָאָה; and, lo, I wait for you.

3 But he came again and said, Abba, one of our nation is strangled and is cast out in the marketplace.

4 Then before I had tasted of any meat, I got up and took him up into a room until the going down of the shemesh.

5 Then I returned and washed myself and ate my meat in heaviness,

6 Remembering that prophecy of Ahmos, as he said, Your moadem shall be turned into mourning and all your simcha into lamentation.

7 Therefore I wept: and after the going down of the shemesh I went and made a grave and buried him.

8 But my neighbors mocked me and said, This man is not yet afraid to be put to death for this matter. He fled away and yet, lo, he buries the dead again.

9 The same lyla also I returned from the burial and slept by the wall of my courtyard, being polluted and my face was uncovered:

10 And I knew not that there were sparrows in the wall and mine eyes being open, the sparrows muted warm dung into mine eyes and a whiteness came in mine eyes: and I went to the physicians but they helped me not: moreover Achiacharus did nourish me, until I went into Elymais.

11 And my isha Anna did take women's work to do.

12 And when she had sent them home to the owners, they paid her wages and gave her also besides a goat.

13 And when it was in my bayit and began to cry, I said to her, From where is this goat? Is it not stolen? Render it to the owners; for it is not lawful to eat anything that is stolen.

14 But she replied to me, It was given for a gift more than the wages. But I did not believe her but bade her render it to the owners: and I was abashed at her. But she replied to me, Where are your alms and your tzadik deeds? Behold, you and all your works are known.

3 Then I, being grieved, wept and in my sorrow made tefillah, saying,

2 O YAHUSHA, You are just and all Your works and all Your derachot are rachamim and emet and you judge truly and justly le-olam-va-ed.

3 Remember me and look at me, punish me not for my sins and ignorance and the sins of my ahvot, who have sinned before You:

4 For they obeyed not Your mitzvoth. Therefore You have delivered us for a spoil and to captivity and to death and for a mishle of reproach to all the goyim among whom we are dispersed.

5 And now Your mishpatim are many and emet: deal with me according to my sins and my ahvot's because we have not kept Your mitzvot, neither have we walked in emet before You.

6 Now therefore deal with me as seems best to You and command my ruach to be taken from me, that I may be dissolved and become earth: for it is profitable for me to die rather than to live because I have heard false reproaches and have much sorrow: command therefore that I may now be delivered out of this distress and go into The Everlasting Place: turn not Your face away from me.

7 It came to pass the same yom, that in Ecbatane a city of Media, Sarah the daughter of Raguel was also reproached by her ahvot's wives;

8 Because that she had been married to seven husbands, whom Asmodeus the shed, sent to destroy new marriages, had killed, before they had lain with her. Do you not know, said they, that you have strangled your husbands? You have had already seven husbands, neither were you named after any of them.

9 Why do you beat us for them? If they are dead, go your derech after them. Let us never see from you either son or daughter.

10 When she heard these things, she was very sorrowful, so that she thought to have strangled herself; and she said, I am the only daughter of my abba and if I do this, it shall be a reproach to him and I shall bring his old age with sorrow to the grave.

11 Then she made tefillah toward the window and said, Blessed are You, YAHUSHA my Ahlohim and Your set apart and esteemed Name is blessed and exalted le-olam-va-ed. Let all Your works hallel You le-olam-va-ed.

12 And now, YAHUSHA, I set I my eyes and my face toward You, 13 And I say, Take me out of the earth, that I may hear no more the reproach.

14 You know, אָפְרָיִם, that I am pure from all sin with man,

15 And that I never polluted my name, nor the name of my abba, in the land of my captivity: I am the only daughter of my abba, neither has he any child to be his heir, neither any near kinsman, nor any ben of a kinsmen, to whom I may keep myself for an isha: my seven husbands are already dead; and why should I live? But if it please You not that I should die, command that some kavod to be had by me and pity taken on me, that I hear no more reproach.

16 So the tefillot of them both were heard before the majesty of the great Ahlohim.

17 And Raphael the healing malach was sent to heal them both, that is, to scale away the whiteness of Toviyah's eyes and to give Sarah the daughter of Raguel for an isha to Toviyah the ben of Toviyah; and to bind Asmodeus the shed, [Raphael binding the demon by YAH's authority]; because she belonged to Toviyah by right of inheritance.

18 The selfsame time came Toviyah home and entered into his bayit and Sarah the daughter of Raguel came down from her upper chamber.

4 In that yom Toviyah remembered the money which he had committed to Gabael in Rages of Media,

2 And said with himself, I have wished for death; why do I not call for my ben Toviyah that I may assign the money over to him before I die?

3 And when he had called him, he said, My ben, when I am dead, bury me; and despise not your eema but esteem her all the yamim of your chayim and do that which shall please her and grieve her not.

4 Remember, my ben, that she saw many dangers for you, when you were in her womb: and when she is dead, bury her by me in one grave.

5 My ben, be mindful of אלהים our Ahlohim all your yamim and let not your will be set to sin, or to transgress His mitzvot: do uprightly all your chayim long and follow not the derachot of unrighteousness.

6 For if you deal in emet, your doings shall prosperously succeed to you and to all them that live kadosh.

7 Give alms of your substance; and when you give alms, let not your eye be envious, neither turn your face away from any poor and the face of Myhla shall not be turned away from you.

8 If you have abundance give alms accordingly: if you have but a little, be not afraid to give according to that little:

9 For you lay up a tov treasure for yourself against the yom of necessity.

10 Because that alms deliver from death and suffer not to come into darkness.

11 For alms is a tov gift to all that give it in the sight of El-Elyon.

12 Beware of all whoredom, my ben and mainly take an isha of the zera of your ahvot and take not a strange woman as an isha, which is not of your abba's tribe: for we are the b'nai neviim, Noach, Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov: remember, my ben, that our ahvot from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred and were blessed in their children and their zera shall inherit the land.

13 Now therefore, my ben, love your brothers and despise them not in your lev, the sons and daughters of your people, in not taking an isha of them: for in pride is destruction and much trouble and in lewdness is decay and great want: for lewdness is the eema of famine.

14 Let not the wages of any man who has worked for you stay with you but give it right to him: for if you serve אֱלֹהִים, He will also repay you: be circumspect my ben, in all things you do and be wise in all your conduct.

15 Do that to no man which you hate: drink not wine to make you drunk: neither let drunkenness go with you in your journey.

16 Give of your lechem to the hungry and of your garments to them who are naked; and according to your abundance give alms: and let not your eye be envious when you give alms.

17 Pour out your lechem on the burial of the just but give nothing to the wicked.

18 Ask counsel of all that are wise and despise not any counsel that is profitable.

19 Barchu et אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim always and desire of Him that your derachot may be directed and that all your paths and counsels may prosper: every nation has not counsel; but אֱלֹהִים Himself gives all tov things and He humbles whom He will, as He will; now therefore, my ben, remember my mitzvoth, neither let them be put out of your mind.

20 And now I signify this to them to whom I committed ten talents, to Gabael the son of Gabriyah at Rages in Media.

21 And fear not, my ben, that we are made poor: for you have much wealth, if you fear אֱלֹהִים and depart from all sin and do that which is pleasing in His sight.

5 Toviyah then answered and said, Abba, I will do all things which you have commanded me:

2 But how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not?

3 Then he gave him the handwriting and said to him, Seek a man who may go with you while I yet live and I will give him wages: and go and receive the money.

4 Therefore when he went to seek a man, he found Raphael that was a heavenly malach.

5 But he knew it not; and he said to him, Can you go with me to Rages? and do you know those places well?

6 To whom the malach said, I will go with you and I know the derech well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabael.

7 Then Toviyah said to him, Wait for me, till I tell my abba.

8 Then he said to him, Go and do not delay. So he went in and said to his abba, Behold, I have found one who will go with me. Then he said, Call him to me, that I may know of what tribe he is and whether he is a trusty man to go with you.

9 So he called him and he came in and they saluted one another.

10 Then Toviyah said to him, Brother, show me of what tribe and family you are.

11 To whom he said, Do you seek for a tribe or family, or a hired man to go with your son? Then Toviyah said to him, I would know, brother, your kindred and name.

12 Then he said, I am Azaryah, the son of Chananyah the great and of your brothers.

13 Then Toviyah said, You are welcome, brother; be not now angry with me because I have enquired to know your tribe and family; for you are my ach, of an honest and tov stock: for I know Chananyah and Yahunatan, sons of that great Shemiyah, as we went together to Yahrushalayim to worship and offered the bikkurim and the ma'aser of the fruits; and they were not seduced with the error of our brethren: my brother, you are of a tov stock.

14 But tell me, what wages shall I give you? Will you take a drachm a yom and things necessary, as to my own ben?

15 Yes, moreover, if you return safe, I will add something to your wages.

16 So they were well pleased. Then said he to Toviya, Prepare yourself for the journey and Ahlohim send you a tov journey. And when his ben had prepared all things for the journey, his abba said, Go with this man and אִרְאֵל who dwells in the shamayim prosper your journey and the malach of אִרְאֵל keep you company. So they went forth both and the young man's dog with them.

17 But Anna his eema wept and said to Toviya, Why have you sent away our ben? Is he not the staff of our hand in going in and out before us?

18 Be not greedy to add money to money: but let it be as refuse in respect of our child.

19 For that which אִרְאֵל has given us to live is enough.

20 Then said Toviya to her, Take no care, my sister, for he shall return in safety and your eyes shall see him.

21 For the malach tov will keep him company. His journey shall be prosperous and he shall return safely.

22 Then she made an end of weeping.

6 And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river Tigris and they lodged there.

2 And when the young man went down to wash himself, a large fish leaped out of the river and would have devoured him.

3 Then the malach said to him, Take the fish. And the young man laid hold of the fish and drew it to land.

4 To whom the malach said, Open the fish and take the lev and the liver and the gall and pull them up safely.

5 So the young man did as the malach commanded him; and when they had roasted the fish, they ate it: then they both went on their derech, till they drew near to Ecbatane.

6 Then the young man said to the malach, Azaryah achi, to what use is the lev and the liver and the gall of the fish?

7 And he said to him, Touching the lev and the liver, if a shed trouble any, we must make a smoke of it before the man or the woman and the party shall be no more vexed.

8 As for the gall, it is tov to anoint a man who has whiteness in his eyes and he shall be healed.

9 And when they were come near to Rages,

10 The malach said to the young man, Brother, today we shall lodge with Raguel, who is your cousin; he also has one only daughter, named Sarah; I will speak for her, that she may be given to you for an isha.

11 For to you belongs the right to obtain her, seeing you only are her kindred.

12 And the maid is fair and wise. Now therefore hear me and I will speak to her abba; and when we return from Rages we will celebrate the marriage, for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another according to The Torah of Moshe but he shall be guilty of death because the right of inheritance rather belongs to you rather than any other.

13 Then the young man answered the malach, I have heard, Azaryah achi, that this maid has been given to seven men who all died in the marriage chamber.

14 And now I am the only son of my abba and I am afraid, lest if I go in to her, I would die, as the others, for a shed loves her [incubus where a demon sleeps with a human female], who hurts nobody but those who come to her. Therefore I also fear lest I die and bring my abba's and my eema's chayim because of me to the grave with sorrow, for they have no other ben to bury them.

15 Then the malach said to him, Do you not remember the precepts which your abba gave you, that you should marry an isha of your own kindred? Therefore hear me, O my ach; for she shall be given to you as your isha; and make no reckoning of the shed; for this same lyla shall she be given you in marriage.

16 And when you shall come into the marriage chamber, you shall take the ashes of perfume and shall lay upon them some of the lev and liver of the fish and shall make a smoke with it:

17 And the shed shall smell it and flee away and never come again anymore: but when you shall come near to her, rise up both of you and make tefillah to אֱלֹהֵינוּ who is full of rachamim, who will have pity on you and save you: fear not, for she is appointed to you from the beginning; and you shall preserve her and she shall go with you. Moreover, I suppose that she shall bear you children. Now when Toviya had heard these things, he loved her and his lev was effectively joined to her.

7 And when they were come to Ecbatane, they came to the bayit of Raguel and Sarah met them and after they had saluted one another, she brought them into the bayit.

2 Then said Raguel to Edna his isha, How like Toviyah my cousin is this young man.

3 And Raguel asked them, From where are you, brothers? To whom they said, We are of sons of the Naphtalim, who are captives in Ninveh.

4 Then he said to them, Do you know Toviyah our kinsman? And they said, We know him. Then said he, Is he in tov health?

5 And they said, He is both alive and in tov health:
and Toviyah said, He is my abba.

6 Then Raguel leaped up and kissed him and wept,
7 And blessed him and said to him, you are the ben of an honest and tov man. But when he had heard that Toviyah was blind, he was sorrowful and wept.

8 And likewise Edna his isha and Sarah his daughter wept. Moreover they entertained them cheerfully and after that they had killed a ram of the flock, they set meat on the shulchan. Then said Toviyah to Raphael, Azaryah achi, speak of those things of which you spoke in the derech and let this business be dispatched.

9 So he communicated the matter with Raguel: and Raguel said to Toviyah, Eat and drink and be merry:

10 For it is fitting that you should marry my daughter. Nevertheless, I will declare to you the emet.

11 I have given my daughter in marriage to seven men, who died that lyla they came into her:
nevertheless for the present be merry. But Toviyah said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and swear one to another.

12 Raguel said, Then take her from now on according to the manner, for you are her cousin and she is yours and the אֲפִיקֹרֶת of rachamim give you tov success in all things.

13 Then he called his daughter Sarah and she came to her abba and he took her by the hand and gave her to be an isha to Toviyah, saying, Hinay, take her according to The Torah of Moshe and lead her away to your abba. And he blessed them, 14 And called Edna his isha and took paper and wrote an instrument of britot and sealed it.

15 Then they began to eat.

16 After Raguel called his isha Edna and said to her, Sister, prepare another chamber and bring her in there,

17 Which, when she had done as he had told her, she brought her there and she wept and she received the tears of her daughter and said to her,

18 Be of tov comfort, my daughter; אִתְּךָ of the shamayim and ha'aretz give you simcha for this your sorrow: be of tov comfort, my daughter.

8 And when they had eaten, they brought Toviyah into her.

2 And as he went, he remembered the words of Raphael and took the ashes of the perfumes and put the lev and the liver of the fish on the place and made a smoke with it.

3 Which, when the shed had smelled it, it fled into the utmost parts of Mitzrayim, dry places and the malach bound him [interesting that the demon did not go to the pit yet].

4 And after that they were both shut in together, Toviyah rose out of the bed and said, Sister, arise and let us make tefillah that אֱלֹהֵינוּ would have pity on us [A tov lesson worship, incense and tefillah before marital relations].

5 Then began Toviyah to say, Blessed are You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ of our ahvot and blessed is Your set apart and esteemed Name le-olam-va-ed; let the shamayim bless You and all Your creation.

6 You made Ahdahm and gave him Chawa his isha for a helper and partner: from them came mankind:

You have said, It is not tov that a man should be alone; let us make for him an aide like himself.

7 And now, my YAHUSHA, I take not this my sister not for lust but uprightly: therefore in rachamim ordain that we may grow old together.

8 And she said with him, Ahmein.

9 So they slept both that lyla. And Raguel arose and went and made a grave,

10 Saying, I fear lest he also be dead.

11 But when Raguel was come into his bayit,

12 He said to his isha Edna. Send one of the wives and let her see whether he is alive. If not, that we may bury him and no man know it.

13 So the isha opened the door and went in and found them both asleep, 14 And came forth and told them that he was alive.

15 Then Raguel praised אֱלֹהִים and said, O אֱלֹהִים, You are worthy to be praised with all pure and set apart tehillot. Therefore, let Your kiddushim hallel You with all Your creation; and let all Your malachim and Your elect hallel You le-olam-va-ed.

16 You are to be given hallel, for You have made me gilah; and that is not come to me which I suspected; but You have dealt with us according to Your great rachamim.

17 You are to be given hallel because You have had rachamim on two who were the only-begotten children of their ahvot. Grant them rachamim, O אֱלֹהִים and finish their chayim in health with simcha and rachamim.

18 Then Raguel bade his avadim to fill the grave.

19 And he kept the wedding moed fourteen yamim.

20 For before the yamim of the marriage were finished, Raguel had said to him by an oath that he should not depart till the fourteen yamim of the marriage were expired,

21 And then he should take the half of his goods and go in safety to his abba and should have the rest when I and my isha are dead.

9 Then Toviyah called Raphael and said to him,
2 Azaryah achi, take with you an eved and two camels and go to Rages of Media to Gabael and bring me the money and bring him to the wedding.
3 For Raguel has sworn that I shall not depart.
4 But my abba counts the yamim; and if I tarry long, he will be very sorry.
5 So Raphael went out and lodged with Gabael and gave him the handwriting: who brought forth bags which were sealed up and gave them to him.
6 And early in the boker they went forth both together and came to the wedding: and Toviyah blessed his isha.

10 Now Toviyah his abba counted every yom and when the yamim of the journey were expired and they had not returned,
2 Then Toviyah said, Are they detained? Or, is Gabael dead and there is no man to give him the money?
3 Therefore he was very sorry.
4 Then his isha said to him, My ben is dead, seeing he stays long; and she began to wail over him and said,
5 Now I care for nothing, my ben, since I have let you go, the ohr of my eyes.
6 To whom Toviyah said, Hold your shalom and don't worry, for he is safe.
7 But she said, hold your shalom and deceive me not; my ben is dead. And she went out every yom into the derech which they went and ate no meat in the daytime, and ceased not whole laylot to bewail her son Toviyah, until the fourteen yamim of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworn that he should spend there. Then Toviyah said to Raguel, Let me go, for my abba and my eema look no more to see me.

8 But his abba-in-law said to him, Tarry with me and I will send to your abba and they shall declare to him how things go with you.

9 But Toviyah said, No; but let me go to my abba.

10 Then Raguel arose and gave him Sarah his isha and half his goods, avadim and cattle and money, 11 And he blessed them and sent them away, saying, The Ahlohim of the shamayim give you a prosperous journey, my children.

12 And he said to his daughter, Give esteem to your abba-in-law and your eema-in-law, who are now your parents, that I may hear tov report of you. And he kissed her. Edna also said to Toviyah, אֲפֹאֲדָא of the shamayim restore you, my dear brother and grant that I may see your children of my daughter Sarah before I die, that I may rejoice before אֲפֹאֲדָא: behold, I commit my daughter to you in special trust, that you do not treat her badly.

11 After these things Toviyah went his derech, praising אֲפֹאֲדָא that He had given him a prosperous journey and blessed Raguel and Edna his isha and went on his derech till they drew near to Ninveh.

2 Then Raphael said to Toviyah, you know, achi, how you left your abba.

3 Let us hurry before your isha and prepare the bayit.

4 And take in your hand the gall of the fish. So they went their derech and the dog went after them.

5 Now Anna sat looking about toward the derech for her ben.

6 And when she saw him coming, she said to his abba, Behold, your ben comes and the man who went with him.

7 Then said Raphael, I know, Toviya, that your abba will open his eyes.

8 Therefore anoint his eyes with the gall and being pricked with it, he shall rub and the whiteness shall fall away and he shall see you.

9 Then Anna ran forth and fell upon the neck of her ben and said to him, Since I have seen you, my ben, from now on I am content to die. And they both wept.

10 Toviya also went forth toward the door and stumbled: but his ben ran to him, 11 And took hold of his abba: and he placed of the gall on his abba's eyes, saying, Be of tov tikvah, my abba.

12 And when his eyes began to itch, he rubbed them;

13 And the whiteness fell away from the corners of his eyes and when he saw his ben, he fell upon his neck.

14 And he wept and said, Blessed are You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ and blessed is Your Name le-olam-va-ed; and blessed are all Your set apart malachim.

15 For You have scourged and have taken pity on me. For behold, I see my ben Toviya. And his son went in rejoicing and told his abba the great things that had been done for him in Media.

16 Then Toviya went out to meet his daughter-in-law at the gate of Ninveh, rejoicing and praising אֱלֹהֵינוּ and they who saw him go marveled because he had received his sight.

17 But Toviya gave hodu before them because אֱלֹהֵינוּ had rachamim on him. And when he came near to Sarah his daughter-in-law, he blessed her, saying, you are welcome, daughter. Barchu et אִיִּי, who has brought you to us and barchu your abba and your eema. And there was simcha among all his brothers who were at Ninveh.

18 And Achiacharus and Nasbas his brother's sons, came:

19 And Toviyah's wedding was kept seven yamim with great simcha.

12 Then Toviyah called his son Toviyah and said to him, My ben, see that the man be given his wages, who went with you and you must give him more.

2 And Toviyah said to him, O abba, it is no harm to me to give him half of those things which I have brought:

3 For he has brought me again to you in safety, has made my isha whole and brought me the money and likewise healed you.

4 Then the old man said, It is due him.

5 So he called the malach and he said to him, Take half of all that you have brought and go away in safety.

6 Then he took them both apart and said to them, Barchu et אִיִּי, hallel Him and magnify Him. Hallel Him for the things which he has done for you in the sight of all that live. It is tov to give tehilla to אִיִּי and exalt His Name, to esteem and show forth the works of Ahlohim. Therefore be not slack to hallel Him.

7 It is tov to keep close the secret of a melech but it is estimable to reveal the works of אִיִּי. Do that which is tov and no evil shall touch you.

8 Tefillah is tov with fasting and alms and tzedakah. A little with tzedakah is better than much with wickedness. It is better to give alms than to lay up gold:

9 For alms delivers from [spiritual] death and shall purge away all sin [positionally place a person in אֱלֹהִים's radar]. Those that exercise alms and tzedakah shall be filled with chayim:

10 But they who sin are enemies of their own chayim.

11 Surely I will keep close nothing from you. For I said, It was tov to keep close the secret of a melech but that it was estimable to reveal the works of אֱלֹהִים.

12 Now therefore, when you and Sarah your daughter-in-law made tefillah, I brought the remembrance of your tefillot before the Set-apart One: and when you buried the dead, I was with you likewise.

13 And when you did not delay to rise up and leave your dinner to go and cover the dead, your mitzvah was not hidden from me: but I was with you.

14 And now אֱלֹהִים has sent me to heal you and Sarah your daughter in law.

15 I am Raphael, one of the seven set apart arch malachim, who present the tefillot of the kidushim and who go in and out before the kavod of The Set-apart One.

16 Then they were both troubled and fell upon their faces: for they feared.

17 But he said to them, Al tirah-fear not, for it shall go well with you. Therefore give tehilla to אֱלֹהִים.

18 For not of any chen of mine but by the will of our Ahlohim I came; therefore tehilla Him le-olam-va-ed.

19 All these yamim I appeared to you; but I neither ate nor drank but you saw a vision.

20 Now therefore give אֱלֹהִים hodu, for I go back up to Him who sent me; but write all things which are done in a scroll.

21 And when they arose, they saw him no more.

22 Then they confessed the great and wonderful works of אֱלֹהִים and how the malach of אֱלֹהִים, Raphael, had appeared to them.

13 Then Toviyah wrote a tefillah of rejoicing and said, Blessed be אֱלֹהִים that lives le-olam-va-ed and barchu et malchuto-bless His malchut.

2 For He scourges and has rachamim: He leads down to Sheol and brings up again; neither is there any that can avoid His hand.

3 Confess him before the goyim, b'nai Yisrael: for He has scattered us among them.

4 There declare His greatness and extol Him before all the living, for He is our אֱלֹהִים and He is The Ahlohim, our Abba le-olam-va-ed,

5 And He will scourge us for our iniquities and will have rachamim again and will gather us out of all goyim among whom He has scattered us.

6 If you turn to Him with your whole lev and with your whole mind and deal uprightly before Him, then will He turn to you and will not hide His face from you. Therefore see what He will do with you and confess Him with your whole mouth and give tehilla to אֱלֹהִים of all might and extol the Everlasting Melech. In the land of my captivity do I hallel Him and declare His might and majesty to a sinful nation. O you sinners, turn and do tzedakah before Him. Who can tell if He will accept you and have rachamim on you?

7 I will extol my אֱלֹהִים and my whole being shall tehilla The Melech of The Shamayim and shall gilah in His greatness.

8 Let all men speak and let all hallel Him for His tzedakah.

9 O Yahrushalayim, the set apart city, He will scourge you for your children's works and will have rachamim again on the sons of the tzadikim.

10 Give tifereth to אלהים, for He is tov and hallel the Everlasting Melech, that His Mishkan may be built in you again with simcha and let Him make you gilah there in those who are captives and ahava in you le-olam-va-ed those that are miserable.

11 Many goyim shall come from far to The Name of אלהים Ahlohim with gifts in their hands, even gifts to The Melech of the Shamayim. All generations shall hallel You with simcha gadol.

12 Cursed are all they who hate You and blessed shall all be who have ahava for You le-olam-va-ed.

13 Rejoice and gilah for the children of the tzadikim: for they shall be gathered together and shall bless אלהים of the tzadikim.

14 O blessed are they who love You, for they shall rejoice in Your shalom. Blessed are they who have been sorrowful for all Your scourges; for they shall rejoice for You when they have seen all Your Tifereth and shall be in simcha le-olam-va-ed.

15 Let my being bless אלהים The Melech Gadol.

16 For Yahrushalayim shall be built up with sapphires and emeralds and precious stones: your walls and towers and battlements with pure gold.

17 And the streets of Yahrushalayim shall be paved with beryl and carbuncle and stones of Ophir.

18 And all her streets shall say, Hallel אלהים and they shall Hallel Him, saying, Blessed be אלהים who has exalted it le-olam-va-ed.

14 So Toviya made an end of praising אלהים.

2 And he was fifty eight years old when he lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight years and he gave alms and he increased in the fear of אלהים Ahlohim and gave Him tehilot.

3 And when he was very aged he called his ben and the sons of his ben and said to him, My ben, take your children; for, behold, I am aged and am ready to depart out of this chayim.

4 Go into Media my ben, for I surely believe those things which Yonah ha navi spoke of Ninveh, that it shall be overthrown and that for a time shalom shall rather be in Media; and that our brothers shall lie scattered in the earth away from the Promised Land and Yahrushalayim shall be desolate and the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, shall be burned and shall be desolate for a time;

5 And that again אֱלֹהֵינוּ will have rachamim on them and bring them again into the land, where they shall build a Beit HaMikdash but not like to the first, until the time of that age be fulfilled; and afterward they shall return from all places of their captivity and build up Yahrushalayim with tifereth and the Mikdash of אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall be built in it le-olam-va-ed with a wondrous building, as the neviim have spoken of it .

6 And all goyim shall turn and fear אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ahlohim in emet and shall bury their idols.

7 So shall all goyim give tehilla to אֱלֹהֵינוּ and His people shall confess אֱלֹהֵינוּ. And אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall exalt His people. All those who love אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ahlohim in emet and tzedakah shall rejoice, showing rachamim to our brothers.

8 And now, my son, depart out of Ninveh because those things which the navi Yonah spoke shall surely come to pass.

9 But keep The Torah and the mitzvoth and show yourself full of rachamim and mishpat, that it may go well with you.

10 And bury me decently and your eema with me; but tarry no longer at Ninveh. Remember, my son, how Amon handled Achiacharus that brought him up, how out of ohr he brought him into darkness and how he rewarded him again: yet Achiacharus was saved but the other had his reward: for he went down into darkness. Manashe gave alms and escaped the snares of death which they had set for him: but Amon fell into the snare and perished.

11 So now, my ben, consider what alms can do and how tzedakah delivers. When he had said these things, he gave up the ruach in the bed, being a hundred and fifty eight years old; and he buried him with esteem.

12 And when Anna his eema was dead, he buried her with his abba. But Toviya departed with his isha and children to Ecbatane to Raguel his abba in law, 13 Where he became old with esteem and he buried his abba-in-law and eema-in-law with esteem and he inherited their substance and his abba Toviya's.

14 And he died at Ecbatane in Media, being one hundred and twenty seven years old.

15 But before he died he heard of the destruction of Ninveh, which was taken by Nevuchadnetsar and then Achashverosh: and before his death he rejoiced over Nineveh. X

Book Of Wisdom-Sefer Chochmah

- 1 Love tzedakah, you who are the shophtim of the olam: think of אֱלֹהִים with a tov lev and in simplicity of lev seek Him.
- 2 For He will be found of them who do not put Him to trial; and He shows Himself to such as do not distrust Him.
- 3 For presumptuous thoughts separate us from Ahlohim. His Power, when it is tried, reproves the unwise.
- 4 For chochmah shall not enter into a malicious being; nor dwell in the gooff that is subject to sin.
- 5 For The Ruach HaKodesh of discipline will flee deceit and remove from thoughts that are without binah and will not abide when wickedness comes in.
- 6 For chochmah is a loving Ruach; and will not acquit a blasphemer of His Words: for Ahlohim is witness of man's inward thoughts and an emet beholder of his lev and a hearer of his tongue.
- 7 For The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים fills the olam: and that which contains all things has da'at of the voice.
- 8 Therefore he that speaks wicked things cannot be hidden: neither shall vengeance, when it punishes, pass by him.
- 9 For investigation shall be made into the counsels of the wicked: and the sound of his words shall come to אֱלֹהִים for the manifestation of his wicked deeds.
- 10 For the ear of zeal hears all things: and the noise of murmurings is not hidden.

11 Therefore beware of complaining, which is unprofitable; and refrain your tongue from backbiting: for there is no word so secret that shall go for nothing: and the mouth that lies slays the nefesh.

12 Seek not death in the error of your chayim: and pull not upon yourselves destruction with the works of your hands.

13 For Ahlohim made not death: neither has He pleasure in the destruction of the living.

14 For He created all things that they might have their nefesh: and the generations of the olam were at first healthy; there is no poison of destruction in them, nor the malchut of death upon the olam:

15 (For tzedakah and the tzadikim are immortal:)

16 But wicked men with their works and words called death to them: for when they thought to have it as their chaver, they were consumed to nothing and made a brit with it because they are worthy to take part with it.

2 For the wicked said, reasoning within themselves, but not rightly: Our chayim is short and tedious and in the death of a man there is no remedy: neither was there any man known to have returned from the grave.

2 For we are born to live adventurously: and we shall be from now on as though we had never been: for the ruach in our nostrils is as smoke and a little spark in the moving of our lev:

3 Which being extinguished, our gooff shall be turned into ashes and our ruach shall vanish as the soft air,

4 And our name shall be forgotten in time and no man shall have our works in remembrance and our chayim shall pass away as the trace of a cloud and shall be dispersed as a mist, that is driven away with the beams of the shemesh and overcome with the heat of it.

5 For our time is a very shadow that passes away; and after our end there is no returning from the grave: for it is fast sealed, so that no man returns again.

6 Come on therefore, let us enjoy the tov things that are present: and let us speedily use the creatures as in our youth.

7 Let us fill ourselves with costly wine and ointments: and let no flower of the spring pass by us:

8 Let us keter ourselves with rosebuds, before they be withered:

9 Let none of us go without his part of riches: let us leave tokens of our joyfulness in every place: for this is our portion and this is our lot.

10 Let us oppress the poor tzadik man, let us not spare the widow, nor reverence the ancient gray hairs of the zechanim.

11 Let our strength be the torah of tzedakah: for that which is feeble is found to be worthless.

12 Therefore let us lie in wait for the tzadik; because he is not for us and he is utterly contrary to our doings: he upbraids us with our offending the Torah and objects to our shame the violations of our education.

13 He professes to have the da'at of Ahlohim: and he calls himself the child of אֱלֹהִים.

14 He was made to reprove our wicked thoughts.

15 He is grievous to us even to behold, for his chayim is not like other men's; his derachot are strange to us.

16 We are esteemed by him as counterfeits: he abstains from our derachot as from filthiness: he pronounces the end of the tzadik to be blessed and makes his boast that Ahlohim is his Abba.

17 Let us see if his words be emet: and let us prove what shall happen in the end for him.

18 For if the tzadik man be a son of Ahlohim, He will help him and deliver him from the hand of his enemies.

19 Let us examine him with despitefulness and torture, that we may know his meekness and prove his patience.

20 Let us condemn him with a shameful death: for by his own saying he shall be respected.

21 Such things they did imagine and were deceived: for their own wickedness has blinded them.

22 As for the sods of Ahlohim, they knew them not: neither did they tikvah for the wages of tzedakah, nor discerned a reward for blameless beings.

23 For Ahlohim created man to be immortal and made him to be an image of His own immortality.

24 Nevertheless through the envy of the devil came death into the olam: and they who side with him find death with no immortality.

3 But the beings of the tzadikim are in the hands of Ahlohim and there shall no torment touch them.

2 In the sight of the unwise they seemed to die: and their departure is taken for misery,

3 And their going from us to be utter destruction: but they are in great shalom.

4 For though they be punished in the sight of men, yet is their tikvah full of immortality.

5 And having been a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded: for Ahlohim proved them and found them worthy for and of Himself.

6 As gold in the furnace has He tried them and received them as a burnt offering.

7 And in the time of their visitation they shall shine and run to and fro like sparks among the stubble.

8 They shall judge the goyim and have dominion over the people and their אֲרָאָה shall reign le-olam-va-ed.

9 They that put their trust in Him shall understand the emet: and such as be faithful in ahava shall abide with Him: for unmerited chen and rachamim is to His kidushim and He has great care for His elect.

10 But the wicked shall be punished according to their own imaginations, who have neglected the tzadikim and forsaken אֲרָאָה.

11 For whoever despises chochmah and nurture, he is miserable and their tikvah is vain, their labors unfruitful and their works unprofitable:

12 Their wives are foolish and their children wicked:

13 Their offspring is cursed. So blessed is the barren that is undefiled, who has not known the sinful bed: she shall have fruit in the visitation of kadosh malachim.

14 And blessed is the eunuch, who with his hands has done no iniquity, nor imagined wicked things against Ahlohim: for to him shall be given the special gift of emunah and an inheritance in the Bayit of אֲרָאָה more acceptable to His mind.

15 For wonderful is the fruit of tov labors: and the root of chochmah shall never fall away.

16 As for the children of adulterers, they shall not come to their perfection and the zera of a wicked bed shall be rooted out.

17 For though they live long, yet shall they be disregarded: and their last end shall be without esteem.

18 Or, if they die quickly, they have no tikvah, neither comfort in the yom of trial.

19 For horrible is the end of the wicked generation.

4 Better it is to have no children and to have virtue:

for their memorial is immortal: because it is known with Ahlohim and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example of it; and when it is gone, they desire it: it wears a keter and triumphs le-olam-va-ed, having gotten the victory, striving for undefiled rewards.

3 But the multiplying brood of the wicked shall not thrive, nor take deep rooting from bastards, nor lay any fast foundation.

4 For though they flourish like branches for a time, yet standing do not last, for they shall be shaken with the ruach and through the force of ruachem they shall be rooted out.

5 The imperfect branches shall be broken off, their fruit unprofitable, not ripe to eat, yes, fit for nothing.

6 For children begotten of unlawful beds are witnesses of wickedness against their parents in their trial.

7 But though the tzadikim be halted by death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For estimable age is not that which stands for a long time, nor that is measured by number of years.

9 But chochmah is the gray hair to men and an unspotted chayim is old age.

10 He pleased Ahlohim and was beloved of Him, so that living among sinners Chanok was translated.

11 Yes, speedily Chanok was taken away, lest that wickedness should alter his binah, or deceit beguile his nefesh.

12 For the witchcraft of carnality obscures things that are honest; and the wandering of concupiscence undermines the simple mind.

13 He, Chanok, being made perfect instantly, fulfilled a long time plan:

14 For his being pleased אִתָּו: therefore He hastened to take him away from among the wicked.

15 This the people saw and understood it not, neither did they lay this up in their minds. That His unmerited chen and rachamim is with His kidushim and that He has respect to His chosen.

16 So the tzadikim who are dead shall condemn the wicked who are living; and youth that is soon perfected, the many years and old age of the wicked.

17 For they shall see the end of the wise and shall not understand what Ahlohim in His counsel has decreed of him and to what end אִתָּו has set him in safety.

18 They shall see him and despise him; but Ahlohim shall laugh them to scorn: and they shall from now on be a vile carcass and a reproach among the dead le-olam-va-ed.

19 For He shall rend them and cast them down headlong, so that they shall be speechless; and He shall shake them from the foundation and they shall be utterly laid waste and be in sorrow and their memory shall perish.

20 And when they cast up the accounts of their sins, they shall come with fear: and their own iniquities shall convince them to their face.

5 Then shall the tzadik man stand in great boldness before the face of such as have afflicted him and made no account of his labors.

2 When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible fear and shall be amazed at the strangeness of his YAHUSHA, so far beyond all that they looked for.

3 And they repenting and groaning for anguish of ruach shall say within themselves, This was he whom we had sometimes held in derision and a proverb of reproach:

4 We fools accounted his chayim madness and his end to be without esteem:

5 Yet how is he numbered among the children of Ahlohim and his lot is among the kidushim!

6 Therefore have we erred from the derech of emet and the ohr of tzedakah has not shined on us and The Shemesh of Tzedakah rose not upon us.

7 We wearied ourselves in the derech of wickedness and destruction: yes, we have gone through deserts where there was no derech: but as for the derech of אִי־אִי, we have not known it.

8 What has pride profited us? Or, what tov has riches with our arrogance brought us?

9 All those things are passed away like a shadow and as a post that hurried by;

10 And as a ship that passes over the waves of the mayim, which when it is gone by, no trace of it can be found, neither the pathway of the keel in the waves;

11 Or, as when a bird has flown through the air, there is no sign of its derech to be found, but the ohr air being beaten with the stroke of her wings and parted with the violent noise and motion of them, is passed through and then afterwards no clue where it went is to be found;

12 Or, as when an arrow is shot at a mark, it parts the air, which immediately comes together again, so that a man cannot know where it went through:

13 Even so we in like manner, as soon as we were born, began to draw to our end and had no ot of virtue to show; but were consumed in our own wickedness.

14 For the tikvah of the wicked is like dust that is blown away with the wind; like a thin foam that is driven away with the storm; as the smoke which is dispersed here and there with a tempest and passes away as the remembrance of a guest who only stays one yom.

15 But the tzadikim live le-olam-va-ed; their reward also is with אֱלֹהִים and the care of them is with the Most High.

16 Therefore shall they receive an esteemed malchut and a beautiful keter from אֱלֹהִים's hand: for with His Right Hand shall He cover them and with His Arm shall He protect them.

17 He shall take to Him His zeal for complete armor and make the creature His weapon for the revenge of His enemies.

18 He shall put on tzedakah as a breastplate and emet mishpat instead of a helmet.

19 He shall take set apartness for an invincible shield.

20 His severe wrath shall He sharpen for a sword and the olam shall fight with Him against the unwise.

21 Then shall the right aiming thunderbolts go abroad and from the clouds, as from a well-drawn bow, shall they fly to the mark.

22 And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast as out of a stone bow and the mayim of the sea shall rage against them and the floods shall cruelly drown them.

23 Yes, a mighty wind shall stand up against them and like a storm shall blow them away: so iniquity shall lay waste the whole olam and evil dealing shall overthrow the thrones of the mighty.

6 Shema therefore, O you melechim and get binah; learn, you shophtim of the ends of the olam.
2 Give ear, you who rule the people and gilah in the multitude of goyim.

3 For Power is given to you from אֱלֹהִים and sovereignty from The Highest, who shall try your works and search out your counsels.

4 Because, being ministers of His malchut, you have not judged rightly, nor kept the Torah, nor walked after the counsel of אֱלֹהִים;

5 Horribly and speedily shall He come upon you: for a sharp mishpat shall be to them that be in high places.

6 For rachamim will soon pardon the meanest: but mighty men shall be mightily tormented.

7 For He who is אֱלֹהִים over all, shall fear no man's person, neither shall He stand in awe of any man's greatness: for He has made the small and great and cares for all alike.

8 But a sore trial shall come upon the mighty.

9 Unto you therefore, O melechim, do I speak, that you may learn chochmah and not fall away.

10 For they that keep set apartness in tzedakah shall be judged set apart: and they that have learned such things shall find what to answer.

11 So set your affection upon My Words; long for them and you shall be instructed.

12 Chochmah is estimable and never fades away: yes, she is easily seen of them that love her and found of such as seek her.

13 She precedes them that strive for her, in making herself first known to them.

14 Whoever seeks her early shall have no great travail: for he shall find her sitting at his doors.

15 To think about her is perfection of chochmah: and whoever watches for her shall quickly be without worry.

16 For she goes about seeking such as are worthy of her and shows herself kindly to them in the derachot and meets them in every thought.

17 For the very emet beginning of her is the longing for discipline; and the care of discipline is ahava;
18 And ahava is the keeping of her Torot; and giving heed to her Torot is the assurance of incorruption;
19 And incorruption makes us near to be with Ahlohim:
20 Therefore the longing for chochmah brings to His malchut.
21 If your delight be then in malchut thrones and scepters, O you melechim of the people, esteem chochmah, that you may reign le-olam-va-ed.
22 As for chochmah, what she is and how she came up, I will tell you and will not hide sods from you: but will seek her out from the beginning of her manifestations and bring the da'at of her into the ohr and will not pass over the emet.
23 Neither will I go with consuming envy; for such a man shall have no chavurah with chochmah.
24 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the olam: and a wise melech is the affirmation of the people.
25 Receive therefore Torah through my Words and it shall do you tov.

7 I myself also am a mortal man, like all and the offspring of him that was first made from the dust,
2 And in my emma's womb I was fashioned to be flesh for the time of ten chodashem, being compacted in dahm, of the zera of man and the pleasure that came with intimacy.
3 And when I was born, I drew in the common air and entered the olam, which is of like nature and the first voice which I uttered was my own crying, as all others do.
4 I was nursed in swaddling clothes and that with parental care.

5 For there is no melech that had any other beginning of birth.

6 For all men have one entrance into chayim and one going out.

7 So I made tefillah and binah was given me: I called upon Ahlohim and The Ruach of chochmah came to me.

8 I preferred her before scepters and thrones and esteemed riches, as nothing in comparison to her.

9 Neither compared I to her any precious stone because all gold compared to her is as a little sand and silver shall be counted as clay before her.

10 I loved her above health and beauty and chose to have her instead of ohr: for the ohr that comes from her never goes out.

11 All tov things together came to me with her and innumerable riches are in her hands.

12 And I rejoiced in them all because chochmah goes before them all: and I knew not that she was the emma of them.

13 I learned diligently and do communicate with her liberally: I do not hide her riches.

14 For she is a treasure to men that never fails, which they that use become the chaverim of Ahlohim, being commended for the gifts that come from learning.

15 Ahlohim has granted me to speak as I would and to conceive as is fitting for the things that are given me: because it is He that leads to chochmah and directs the wise.

16 For in His hand are both we and our words; all chochmah also and da'at of workmanship.

17 For He has given me certain da'at of the things that are, namely, to know how the olam was made and the operation of the elements:

18 The beginning, ending and midst of the times:
the alterations of the turning of the shemesh-tekufot and the change of moadem:

19 The circuits of years and the positions of cochavim:

20 The natures of living creatures and the furies of wild beasts: the violence of winds and the reasonings of men: the diversities of plants and the virtues of roots:

21 And all such things as are either sod or manifest, them I know.

22 For chochmah, which is the worker of all things, taught me: for in her is a ruach of binah, set apart, unique, many-sided, subtle, lively, clear, undefiled, plain, not subject to hurt, loving the thing that is actively tov, which cannot be restrained, ready to do tov,

23 Kind to man, steadfast, sure, free from care, having all Power, overseeing all things and going through all binah, pure and most subtle ruachim.

24 For chochmah is more powerful than any motion:
she passes and goes through all things by reason of her purity.

25 For she is The Ruach of The Power of Ahlohim and a pure influence flowing from the kavod of The Almighty: therefore no defiled thing can fall into her.

26 For she is the brightness of The Everlasting Ohr, the unspotted mirror of The Power of Ahlohim and the image of His tovah.

27 And being Echad, she can do all things: by herself, she makes all things new: and in all ages entering into set apart beings, she makes them chaverim of Ahlohim and neviim.

28 For Ahlohim loves no one but him that dwells with chochmah.

29 For she is more beautiful than the shemesh and above all the order of cochavim: being compared with the ohr, she is found before it.

30 For after this comes lyla: but vice shall not prevail against chochmah.

8 Chochmah reaches from one end to another mightily: and sweetly she orders all things.

2 I loved her and sought her out from my youth, I desired to make her my spouse and I was a lover of her beauty.

3 In that she that talks with Ahlohim, she magnifies her nobility: yes, אֵלֵינוּ of all things Himself loves her.

4 For she is privy to the sods of the da'at of Ahlohim and a lover of His works.

5 If riches be a possession to be desired in this chayim; what is richer than chochmah that works all things?

6 And if prudence works; who of all, are a more skilled worker than she?

7 And if a man loves tzedakah her labors are virtues: for she teaches self-control and prudence, tzedakah and fortitude: which are such things, that men can have nothing more profitable in their chayim.

8 If a man desires much experience, she knows things of old and discerns rightly what is to come: she knows the subtleties of languages and can expound hidden sods: she foresees signs and wonders and the events of moadem and times.

9 Therefore I purposed to take her to me to live with me, knowing that she would be a counselor of tov things and a comfort in cares and grief.

10 For her sake I shall have kavod among the multitude and esteem with the elders, though I be young.

11 I shall be found of a quick binah in mishpat and shall be admired in the sight of great men.

12 When I hold my tongue, they shall bide my leisure and when I speak, they shall give tov ear to me: if I talk much, they shall lay their hands upon their mouth.

13 Moreover by the means of her I shall obtain immortality and leave behind me an everlasting memory to them that come after me.

14 I shall set the people in order and the goyim shall be subject to me.

15 Horrible tyrants shall be afraid when they only hear of me; I shall be found tov among the multitude and valiant in war.

16 After I am come into my bayit, I will repose myself with her: for her conversation has no bitterness; and to live with her has no sorrow, but simcha and gilah.

17 Now when I considered these things inside myself and pondered them in my lev, how that to be allied to chochmah is immortality;

18 And great pleasure it is to have her friendship; and in the works of her hands are infinite riches; and in consultation with her, prudence; and in talking with her, a tov report; I went about seeking how to take her inside me.

19 For I was a wise child and had a tov ruach.

20 Yes rather, being tov, I came into a gooff undefiled.

21 Nevertheless, when I perceived that I could not otherwise obtain her, except Ahlohim gave her to me; and that was a point of chochmah also, to know whose gift she was; I made tefillah to אֱלֹהִים and sought Him and with my whole lev I said,

9 O Ahlohim of my ahvot and אֱלֹהִים of rachamim, who have made all things with Your Word,

2 And ordained man through Your chochmah, that he should have dominion over the creatures which You have made,

3 And order the olam according to equity and tzedakah and execute mishpat with an upright lev:

4 Give me chochmah that sits by Your kesay; and reject me not from among Your children:

5 For I Your eved and ben of Your handmaid am a feeble person and of a short time and too young for the binah of mishpat and Torot.

6 For though a man be perfect among the children of men, yet if Your chochmah be not with him, he shall be regarded as nothing.

7 You have chosen me to be a melech of Your people and a shophet of Your sons and daughters:

8 You have commanded me to build a Beit HaMikdash upon Your set apart har and an altar in the city where You dwell, a resemblance of the set apart Sukkah that You have prepared from Beresheeth.

9 And chochmah was with You, who know Your works and was present when You made the olam and knew what was acceptable in Your sight and right in Your mitzvoth.

10 O send her out of Your set apart shamayim and from the Kesay of Your tifereth, that being present she may labor with me, that I may know what is pleasing to You.

11 For she knows and has binah in all things and she shall lead me soberly in my doings and preserve me in her Power.

12 So shall my works be acceptable and then shall I judge Your people with tzedakah and be worthy to sit in my abba's kesay.

13 For what man is he that can know the counsel of Ahlohim? Or, who can think what the will of אֱלֹהִים is?

14 For the thoughts of mortal men are miserable and our devices are but uncertain.

15 For the corruptible goff presses down the being and the earthly sukkah weighs down the mind that stresses upon many things.

16 And hardly do we guess rightly at things that are upon the olam and with labor do we find the things that are before us: but who has searched out the things that are in the shamayim?

17 And who has known Your counsel except You give chochmah and send Your Ruach HaKodesh from above?

18 For so the derachot of them which lived on the olam were reformed and men were taught the things that are pleasing to You and were saved through chochmah.

10 She preserved the first-formed abba of the olam, who was created alone and brought him out of his fall,

2 And gave him power to rule all things.

3 But when the wicked went away from her in his anger, he perished also in the fury when he murdered his brother.

4 For whose cause the olam being drowned with the flood, chochmah again preserved it and directed the course of the tzadikim in a piece of wood of small value to the olam.

5 Moreover, the goyim in their wicked conspiracy being confounded, she found out the tzadik and preserved him blameless to Ahlohim and kept him strong against his tender rachamim toward his son.

6 When the wicked perished, she delivered the tzadik man Lot, who fled from the fire which fell down upon the five cities.

7 Of whose wickedness even to this yom the waste land that smokes is a testimony and plants bearing fruit that never come to ripeness: and a standing pillar of salt is a monument of an unbelieving being.

8 For regarding not chochmah, they got not only this hurt, that they knew not the things which were tov; but also left them behind to the olam as an ot of their foolishness: so that in the things in which they offended they could not so much as be hidden.

9 But chochmah delivered from pain those that attended upon her.

10 When the tzadik Yaakov fled from his brother's wrath, she guided him in right paths and showed him the Malchut of אֶתְנָח and gave him da'at of set apart things, made him rich in his travels and multiplied the fruit of his labors.

11 In the covetousness of such as oppressed him she stood by him and made him rich.

12 She defended him from his enemies and kept him safe from those that lay in wait and in a sore conflict she gave him the victory; that he might know that tovah is stronger than all.

13 When the tzadik was sold, she forsook him not, but delivered him from sin: she went down with him into the pit,

14 And left him not in bonds, till she brought him the scepter of the malchut and power against those that oppressed him: as for them that had accused him, she showed them to be liars and gave him perpetual esteem.

15 She delivered the tzadikim and blameless zera from the nation that oppressed them.

16 She entered into the being of the eved of אֶתְנָח, Moshe and withstood dreadful melechim in wonders and signs;

17 Rendered to the tzadikim a reward for their labors, guided them in a marvelous derech and was to them for a cover by yom and a ohr of fire in the lyla season;

18 Brought them through the Yam Suf and led them through much mayim:

19 But she drowned their enemies and cast them up out of the bottom of the deep.

20 Therefore the tzadikim spoiled the wicked and praised Your set apart Name, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ and magnified with one accord Your Right Hand, YAHUSHA, that fought for them.

21 For chochmah opened the mouth of the dumb and made the tongues of them that cannot speak eloquent.

11 She prospered their works in the hand of the kadosh navi Moshe.

2 They went through the wilderness that was not inhabited and pitched tents in places where there lay no derech.

3 They stood against their enemies and were avenged of their adversaries.

4 When they were thirsty, they called upon You and mayim was given them out of the flinty Rock and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.

5 For by what things their enemies were punished, by the same they in their need were benefited.

6 For instead of a perpetual running river troubled with foul dahm,

7 For a manifest reproof of that mitzvah, by which the infants were slain, You gave to them an abundance of mayim by a means which they did not expect:

8 Declaring by that thirst then how You had punished their adversaries.

9 For when they were tried yet in rachamim chastised, they knew how the wicked were judged in wrath and tormented, thirsting in another manner than the tzadikim.

10 For these You admonished and tried as an Abba: but the other, as a severe Melech, You condemned and punished.

11 Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike.

12 For a double grief came upon them and a groaning for the remembrance of things past.

13 For when they heard by their own punishments the other to be benefited, they had angry feelings towards אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

14 For whom they treated with scorn, when he was long before thrown out at the casting forth of the infants, Moshe, in the end, when they saw what came to pass, they admired.

15 But for the foolish devices of their wickedness, with which being deceived they worshipped serpents, demons, void of reason and vile beasts, You sent a multitude of unreasonable beasts upon them for vengeance;

16 That they might know, that by which a man sins, by the same also shall he be punished.

17 For Your Almighty Hand, that made the olam of matters without form, lacked not the means to send among them a multitude of bears or fierce lions,

18 Or, unknown wild beasts, full of rage, newly created, breathing out either a fiery vapor, or filthy scents of scattered smoke, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes:

19 So that not only the harm might remove them at once, but also the terrible sight utterly destroy them.

20 Yes and without these might they have fallen down with one blast, being persecuted of vengeance and scattered abroad through The Ruach of Your Power: but You have ordered all things in measure and number and weight.

21 For You can show Your great strength at all times when You will; and who may withstand the Power of Your Arm?

22 For the whole olam before You is as a little grain of the balance, yes, as a drop of the boker dew that falls down upon the olam.

23 But You have rachamim upon all; for You can do all things and wink at the sins of men because they should amend.

24 For You love all the things that are and abhor nothing which You have made: for never would You have made any thing if You had hated it.

25 And how could any thing have endured if it had not been Your will? Or, been preserved, if not called by You?

26 But You spare all: for they are Yours, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, You are the lover of all naphshot.

12 For Your incorruptible Ruach is in all things.

2 Therefore chasten them little by little that offend and warn them by putting them in remembrance in which they have offended, that leaving their wickedness they may believe on You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

3 For it was Your will to destroy by the hands of our ahvot both those old inhabitants of Your set apart land,

4 Whom You hated for doing most odious works of witchcrafts and wicked sacrifices, demon worship;

5 And also those merciless murderers of children and devourers of man's flesh and the moadem of dahm,

6 With their kohanim out of the midst of their idolatrous crew and the parents, that killed with their own hands beings destitute of help:

7 That the land, which You esteemed above all others, might receive a worthy family of Ahlohim's children.

8 Nevertheless even those You spared as men and sent wasps, forerunners of Your host, to destroy them by little and little.

9 Not that You were unable to bring the wicked under the hand of the tzadikim in battle, or to destroy them at once with cruel beasts, or with one rough Word:

10 But executing Your mishpatim upon them little by little, You gave them room for teshuvah, not being ignorant that they were a wicked generation and that their malice was bred in them and that their derachot would never be changed.

11 For it was a cursed zera from the beginning; neither did You for fear of any man give them any pardon for those things in which they sinned.

12 For who shall say, What have You done? Or, who shall withstand Your mishpat? Or, who shall accuse You for the goyim that perish, whom You made? Or, who shall come to stand against You, to be revenged for the wicked men?

13 For neither is there any Ahlohim but You that cares for all, to whom You might show that Your mishpat is tzadik.

14 Neither shall melech or tyrant be able to set his face against You for any whom You have punished.

15 Because You are Tzadik Yourself, You order all things righteously: thinking it not agreeable with Your Power to condemn him that has not deserved to be punished.

16 For Your Power is the beginning of tzedakah and because You are אֵלֵינוּ of all, that makes You give chen to all.

17 For when men will not believe that You are full of Power, You show Your strength and among them that know it, You make their boldness manifest.

18 But You, mastering Your Power, judge with equity and order us with great chesed: for You may use Power when You will.

19 But by such works have You taught Your people that the just man should be merciful and have made Your children to be of a tov tikvah that You give repentance for sins.

20 For You punished the enemies of Your children and those condemned to death with such deliberation, giving them time and place by which they might be delivered from their malice:

21 With how great circumspection did You give mishpat to Your own sons, to whose ahvot You have sworn and made britot of tov promises?

22 Therefore, whereas You do chasten us, You scourge our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that, when we give mishpat, we should carefully think of Your tov and when we ourselves are judged, we should look for rachamim.

23 Therefore, whereas men have lived wicked and unrighteously, You have tormented them with their own abominations.

24 For they went astray very far in the derachot of error and held them as ahlohim which even among the beasts of their enemies were despised, being deceived, as children of no binah.

25 Therefore to them, as to children without the use of reason, You sent a mishpat to mock them.

26 But they that would not be reformed by that correction, in which He had patience with them, should feel a mishpat worthy of Ahlohim.

27 For look, for what things they grumbled to when they were punished, that is, for them whom they thought to be ahlohim; now being punished in them, when they saw it, they acknowledged Him to be the emet Ahlohim, whom before they denied: and therefore came extreme damnation upon them.

13 Surely vain are all men by nature, who are ignorant of Ahlohim and could not out of the tov things that are seen know Him that is: neither by considering the works did they acknowledge the Master of the work,

2 But deemed either fire, or wind, or the swift air, or the circle of the cochavim, or the violent mayim, or the lights of the shamayim, to be the ahlohim which govern the olam.

3 With whose beauty they being delighted took them to be ahlohim; rather let them know how much better אֱלֹהִים is than they are: for The First Author of beauty has created them.

4 But if they were astonished at their power and virtue, let them understand by them how much mightier He is who made them.

5 For by the greatness and beauty of the creation, proportionately the Maker of them is seen.

6 But yet for this they are the less to be blamed: for they go into error, seeking Ahlohim and longing to find Him.

7 For being familiar with His works they search Him diligently and believe their sight: because the things are beautiful that are seen.

8 But neither are they to be pardoned.

9 For if they were able to know so much that they could aim at the olam; how did they not find אֱלֹהִים sooner?

10 But miserable are they and in dead things is their tikvah, who call them ahlohim that are the works of men's hands, gold and silver, to show art in and resemblances of beasts, or a stone, tov for nothing, the work of an ancient hand.

11 Now a carpenter that fells timber, after he has sawn down an eytz fitting for the purpose and taken off all the bark skillfully round about and has worked it carefully and made a vessel of it fit for the service of man's chayim;

12 And after spending the refuse of his work to dress his meat, has filled himself;

13 And taking the very refuse among those which served to no use, being a crooked piece of wood and full of knots, has carved it diligently, when he had nothing else to do and formed it by the skill of his binah and fashioned it to the image of a man;

14 Or, made it like some vile beast, laying it over with color and with paint coloring it red and covering every spot in it;

15 And when he had made a convenient room for it, set it in a wall and made it fast with iron:

16 For he provided for it that it might not fall, knowing that it was unable to help itself; for it is an image and has need of help:

17 Then makes tefillah for his goods, for his wife and children and is not ashamed to speak to that which has no chayim.

18 For health he calls upon that which is weak: for chayim he prays to that which is dead; for aid humbly beseeches that which has the least means to help: and for a tov journey he asks of that which cannot set a foot forward:

19 And for gaining and getting and for tov success of his hands, asks ability to do of him that is most unable to do anything.

14 Again, one preparing himself to sail and about to pass through the raging waves calls upon a piece of wood more rotten than the vessel that carries him!

2 For he looks for a bracha from that which the workman built by his skill.

3 But Your providence, O Abba, governs it: for You have made a derech in the sea and a safe derech in the waves;

4 Showing that You can save from all danger: yes, though a man went to sea without art.

5 Nevertheless, You would not that the works of Your chochmah should be idle and therefore do men commit their lives to a small piece of wood and passing the rough sea in a weak vessel are saved.

6 For in the old times also, when the proud giants perished, the tikvah of the olam governed by Your hand escaped in a weak vessel of wood and left to all ages a zera of regeneration.

7 For blessed is The Wood by which Tzedakah comes.

8 But that which is made with hands is cursed as well as he that made it: he because he made it; and it because, being corruptible, it was called ahlohim.

9 For the wicked and his wickedness are both alike, hateful to Ahlohim.

10 For that which is made shall be punished together with him that made it.

11 Therefore even upon the idols of the goyim shall there be a visitation: because in the creation of their ahlohim they are become abominations and stumbling blocks to the naphshot of men and a snare to the feet of the unwise.

12 For the devising of idols was the beginning of spiritual fornication and the invention of them, the corruption of chayim.

13 For neither were they from Beresheet; neither shall they be le-olam-va-ed.

14 For by the vanity of men, they entered into the olam and therefore shall they come shortly to an end.

15 For an abba afflicted with untimely mourning, when he has made an image of his child who died young, now esteemed him as an ahlohim, which was then a dead man and delivered to those that were under him ceremonies and sacrifices, witchcraft and dahm sacrifices.

16 So in process of time a wicked custom grew strong and was kept as a law and graven images were worshipped on the orders of melechim.

17 Whom men could not esteem in presence because they dwelt far off, they took the counterfeit of his visage from far and made an express image of a melech whom they esteemed, to the end that by this, they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present.

18 Also the singular diligence of the designer, helped to encourage the ignorant to more superstition.

19 For he, perhaps willing to please the one in authority, forced all his skill to make the resemblance of the best quality.

20 And so the multitude, allured by the diligence of the work, took him now for an ahlohim, which a little before was not esteemed.

21 And this was an occasion to deceive the olam: for men, serving either calamity or tyranny, ascribed to stones and wood the beautiful Name of אֱלֹהִים.

22 Moreover this was not enough for them that they erred in the da'at of Ahlohim; but whereas they lived in the great war of ignorance, they called those great plagues as if they were shalom.

23 For while they slew their children in sacrifices, or used secret ceremonies, the occult or made reveling of strange religious rites;

24 They kept neither lives nor kadosh marriages any longer undefiled: but either one slew another traitorously or grieved him by adultery.

25 So that there reigned in all men without exception dahm, manslaughter, theft and dissimulation, corruption, unfaithfulness, tumults, perjury,

26 Disquieting of tov men, forgetfulness of tov turns, defiling of beings, changing of kinds, disorder in marriages, adultery and shameless uncleanness.

27 For the worshipping of idols, not even to be named, is the beginning and the cause and the end, of all evil.

28 For either they are mad when they be merry, or prophecy lies, or live unjustly, or else lightly take oaths.

29 For since their trust is in idols, which have no chayim; though they swear falsely, yet they look not to be hurt.

30 Yet, for both causes shall they be justly punished: both because they thought not well of Ahlohim, giving heed to idols and also unjustly swore in deceit, despising set apartness.

31 For it is not the power of them by whom they swear: but it is the just vengeance of sinners that always punishes the offence of the wicked.

15 But You, O Ahlohim, are kind and emet, longsuffering and in rachamim ordering all things,

2 For if we sin, we are Yours, knowing Your Power:
but we will not sin, knowing that we are accounted as Yours.

3 For to know You is perfect tzedakah: yes, to know
Your Power is the root of immortality.

4 For neither did the mischievous invention of men deceive us, nor an image spotted with diverse colors, the painter's fruitless labor;

5 The sight which entices fools to lust after it and so they want the form of a dead image that has no breath.

6 Both they that make them, they that desire them and they that worship them are lovers of evil things and are worthy to have such things to trust upon.

7 For the potter, tempering soft earth, fashions every vessel with much labor for our service: yes, of the same clay he makes both the vessels that serve for clean uses and likewise also all such as serve to the contrary: but what is the use of either sort, the potter himself is the shopet.

8 And employing his labors lewdly, he makes a vain ahlohim of the same clay, even that which a little before was made of the earth itself and within a little while after that returns to the same, when his chayim which was lent to him shall be demanded.

9 Notwithstanding his care is not that he shall have much labor, nor that his chayim is short: but strives to excel goldsmiths and silversmiths and endeavors to do like the workers in brass and counts it as his tifereth to make counterfeit things.

10 His lev is ashes, his tikvah is more vile than earth and his chayim of less value than clay:

11 Becasue he knew not his Maker, He who breathed into him an active being, a living ruach.

12 But they counted our chayim a pastime and our time here a market for gain: for, say they, we must be getting riches in every derech, though it be by evil means.

13 For this man that of earthly matter, makes brittle vessels and graven images, knows himself to offend above all others.

14 And all the enemies of Your people who hold them in subjection are most foolish and more miserable than little babies.

15 For they counted all the idols of the heathen to be ahlohim: which neither have the use of eyes to see, nor noses to draw breath, nor ears to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle; and as for their feet, they cannot move.

16 For man made them and he that borrowed his own ruach fashioned them: but no man can make an ahlohim like himself.

17 For being mortal, he works a dead thing with wicked hands: for he himself is better than the things which he worships: whereas he lived once, but they never did.

18 Yes, they worshipped those beasts also that are most hateful: for being compared together, some are worse than others.

19 Neither are they beautiful, so much as to be longed for in respect of beasts: but they went without the hallel of Ahlohim and His bracha.

16 Therefore by the like were they punished worthily and by the multitude of beasts tormented.
2 Instead of punishment, You dealt graciously with Your own people, You prepared for them meat of a strange taste, even quails to stir up their appetite:
3 To the end that they, lusting after food, might for the ugly sight of the beasts sent among them loathe even that which they must have; but these, suffering lack for a short space, might be made partakers of a strange taste.

4 For it was requisite that upon them exercising tyranny should come lack, which they could not avoid: but to these it should only be showed how their enemies were tormented.

5 For when the horrible fierceness of beasts came upon these and they perished with the stings of crooked serpents, Your wrath endured not le-olam-va-ed:

6 But they were troubled for a small season, that they might be admonished, having an ot of YAHUSHA, to put them in remembrance of the mitzvah of Your Torah.

7 For he that turned himself toward it was not saved by the thing that he saw, but by You, for You are the YAHUSHA of all.

8 And in this You made Your enemies confess that it is You who delivers from all evil:

9 For them the bitings of grasshoppers and flies also killed, neither was there found any remedy for their chayim: for they were worthy to be punished by such.

10 But the very teeth of venomous dragons, demons did not overcome Your sons, for Your rachamim was always with them and healed them.

11 For they were pricked, that they should remember Your Words; and were quickly saved, that not falling into deep forgetfulness, they might be continually mindful of Your tovah.

12 For it was neither herbs nor topicals that restored them to health, but Your Word, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who heals all things.

13 For You have Power of chayim and death: You lead to the gates of Sheol and bring back up again.

14 A man indeed kills through his malice: and the ruach, when it is gone forth, returns not, neither the being received up comes again.

15 But it is not possible to escape Your hand.

16 For the wicked who declined to know You, were scourged by the strength of Your Arm. With strange rains, hails and showers that they could not avoid, they were persecuted and through fire were they consumed.

17 For it is most wonderful that the fire had more force in the mayim that quenches all things: for the olam fights for the tzadikim.

18 For sometimes the flame was mitigated, that it might not burn up the beasts that were sent against the wicked, that they might see and perceive that they were persecuted with the mishpat of Ahlohim.

19 And at another time it burns even in the midst of mayim above the power of fire, that it might destroy the fruits of an unjust land.

20 Instead You fed Your own people with malachim's food and sent them from the shamayim lechem, prepared without their labor, able to content every man's delight and agreeing to every taste.

21 For Your sustenance declared Your sweetness to Your children and serving to the appetite of the eater, adjusted itself to every man's liking.

22 But snow and ice endured the fire and melted not, that they might know that fire burning in the hail and sparkling in the rain destroyed the fruits of the enemies.

23 But this again did even forget his own strength, that the tzadikim might be nourished.

24 For the creature that serves You who are the Maker increases his strength against the wicked for their punishment and abates his strength for the benefit of such as put their trust in You.

25 Therefore even then was it altered into all fashions and was obedient to Your unmerited chen, that nourishes all things, according to the longing of them that had need:

26 That Your children, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, whom You love, might know that it is not the growing of fruits that nourishes man, but that it is Your Word which preserves them that put their trust in You.

27 For that which was not destroyed of the fire, being warmed with a little sunbeam, soon melted away:

28 That it might be known, that we must bypass the shemesh to give You hodu and in the boker, make tefillah to You.

29 For the tikvah of the unthankful shall melt away as the winter's frost and shall float away as unprofitable mayim.

- 17 For great are Your mishpatim and cannot be expressed: therefore untrained beings have erred.
- 2 For when wicked men thought to oppress the set apart malchut; they being shut up in their houses, the prisoners of the lyla, fettered with the bonds of a long lyla, lay there exiled from the perpetual Providence.
- 3 For while they supposed to lie hidden in their secret sins, they were scattered under a dark veil of forgetfulness, being horribly astonished and troubled with strange apparitions.
- 4 For neither might the corner that held them keep them from fear: but noises as of waters falling down sounded about them and sad visions appeared to them with heavy countenances.
- 5 No power of the fire might give them ohr: neither could the bright flames of the cochavim endure to lighten that horrible lyla.
- 6 Only there appeared to them a fire kindled of itself, very dreadful: for being much terrified, they thought the things which they saw to be worse than the sight they saw not.
- 7 As for the illusions of designer's magic, they were put down and their boasting in chochmah was reproved with disgrace.
- 8 For they that promised to drive away terrors and troubles from a sick being, were sick themselves of fear, worthy to be laughed at.
- 9 For though no terrible thing feared them; yet being scared with beasts that passed by and hissing of serpents,
- 10 They died for fear, denying that they saw the air, which could not be avoided.

11 For wickedness, condemned by her own witness, is very fearful, being pressed with conscience, always forecasts grievous things.

12 For fear is nothing else but a betraying of the helpers which reason offers.

13 And the expectation from within, being less, counts the ignorance more than the cause which brings the torment.

14 But they sleeping the same sleep that lyla, which was indeed intolerable and which came upon them out of the bottoms of the inevitable Sheol,

15 Were partly vexed with monstrous apparitions, demons and partly fainted, their lev failing them: for a sudden fear came upon them.

16 So then whoever there fell down was strictly kept, shut up in a prison without iron bars,

17 For whether he were a farmer, or shepherd, or a laborer in the field, he was overtaken and endured that necessity, which could not be avoided: for they were all bound with the one chain of lyla.

18 Whether it were a whistling wind, or a melodious noise of birds among the spreading branches, or a pleasing fall of mayim running violently,

19 Or, a terrible sound of stones cast down, or a running that could not be seen of moving beasts, or a roaring voice of most savage wild beasts, or a rebounding echo from the hollow mountains; these things made them to swoon for fear.

20 For the whole olam shined with clear ohr and none were hindered in their labor:

21 Over them only was spread a heavy lyla, an image of that same darkness which should afterward receive them: but yet were they to themselves more grievous than the darkness.

18 Nevertheless Your kidushim had a very great Ohr, whose voice they heard but did not see His shape. Because they also had not suffered the same things, they counted themselves blessed.

2 But for that they did not hurt them now, of whom they had been wronged before, they thanked them and sought them pardon for that they had been enemies.

3 Instead, You gave them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the unknown journey and a harmless shemesh to entertain them.

4 For they who had kept Your sons shut up, by whom the pure Ohr of the Torah was to be given to the olam, were worthy to be deprived of ohr and imprisoned in the lyla.

5 And when they had determined to slay the babies of Your kidushim, one child being cast forth and saved, to reprove them, You took away the multitude of their children and destroyed them altogether in a mighty mayim.

6 Of that lyla were our ahvot certified before, that assuredly knowing to what oaths they had given credence, they might afterwards be of tov cheer.

7 So Your people were accepted both in the salvation of the tzadikim and destruction of their enemies.

8 For by that which You punished our adversaries, by the same You raised us up whom You had called.

9 For the tzadik children of tov men worshipped secretly and with one consent made a set apart Torah, that the kidushim should be like partakers of the same tov and evil, the ahvot now singing out the shirim of hallel.

10 But on the other side, there sounded an accordingly ill cry of the enemies and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were mourned for.

11 The master and the eved were punished in like manner. Like the melech, so suffered the common person.

12 So they all together had innumerable dead with one kind of death; neither were the living sufficient to bury them: for in one moment the noblest offspring of them was destroyed.

13 Because they would not believe anything by reason of the prior signs; upon the destruction of the bachorim, they acknowledged this people to be the sons of Ahlohim.

14 For while all things were in quiet silence and that lyla was in the midst of her swift course,

15 Your Almighty Word, OSWHY, leaped down from the shamayim out of Your royal kesay, as a fierce Man of War into the midst of a land of destruction, Mitzrayim, 16 And brought Your unfeigned mitzvah, as a sharp two edged sword and standing up, filled all things with death; and it touched down from the shamayim, but it stood upon the olam.

17 Then suddenly visions of horrible dreams troubled them greatly and terrors came upon them unlooked for.

18 And one thrown here and another there, half dead, showed the cause of his death.

19 For the dreams that troubled them did foreshadow this, lest they should perish and not know why they were afflicted.

20 Yes, the tasting of death touched the tzadikim also and there was a destruction of the multitude in the midbar: but the wrath endured not long.

21 For then the blameless man made haste and stood forth to defend them; and bringing the shield of his ministry, even tefillah and the propitiation of incense, set himself against the wrath and so brought the calamity to an end, showing that he was Your eved.

22 So he overcame the destroyer, not with strength of gooff, nor force of arms but with a Word subdued the destroyer, confirming the oaths and britot made with the ahvot.

23 For when the dead were now fallen down by heaps one upon another, standing between, he held back the wrath and showed the derech to the living.

24 For in his long garment was the whole olam pictured and in the four rows of the stones was the tifereth of the ahvot engraved and Your Majesty upon the keter on his head.

25 Unto these the destroyer gave place and was afraid of them: for it was enough that they only tasted of the wrath.

19 As for the wicked, wrath came upon them without rachamim to the end: for He knew before what they would do;

2 How that having given them leave to depart and sending them hastily away, they would change their minds and pursue them.

3 For while they were yet mourning and making lamentation at the graves of their dead, they added another foolish device and pursued them as fugitives, whom they had asked to be gone.

4 For the end for which they were worthy drew them to this end and made them forget the things that had already come to pass, that they might add the one punishment which was lacking to their torments:

5 And that Your people might pass in a wonderful derech: but they might find a strange death.

6 For the whole creation submissive to your mitzvoth, had its very nature recreated, so that Your children might be kept without hurt:

7 Namely, a cloud shadowing the camp; and where mayim stood before, dry land appeared; and out of The Yam Suf, He made a derech without impediment; and out of the violent stream a green field:

8 Where all the people went through, that were defended with Your Right Hand, seeing Your marvelous strange nisim.

9 For they went like horses at pasture and leaped like lambs, praising You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who had delivered them.

10 For they were yet mindful of the things that were done while they sojourned in the strange land, how the ground brought forth flies instead of cattle and how the river cast up a multitude of frogs instead of fishes.

11 But afterwards they saw a new generation of fowls, when, being led with their appetite, they asked for delicate meats.

12 For quails came up to them from the sea for their contentment.

13 And punishments came upon the sinners not without the force of thunders: for they suffered justly according to their own wickedness, as they also showed a more hard and hateful behavior toward strangers.

14 Others did not receive those whom they knew not when they came: but the Mitzrites brought chaverim into bondage that had well deserved better treatment from them.

15 And not only so, but these sinners abused strangers not being friendly to them:

16 But these very grievously were afflicted by them, whom they had at first received with feastings and were already made partakers of the same Mitzrite laws with them.

17 Therefore even with blindness were these stricken, as those were at the doors of the tzadik man: when, being surrounded with horrible great darkness, every one sought the passage of his own doors.

18 For the elements were changed in themselves by a kind of harmony, like as in a psaltery notes change the name of the tune and yet are always sounds; which may well be perceived by the sight of the things that have been done.

19 For earthly things were turned into watery and the things, that before swam in the mayim, now went upon the ground.

20 The fire had power in the mayim, forgetting its own virtue: and the mayim forgot its own quenching nature.

21 On the other hand, the flames did not destroy the flesh of the corruptible living things, though they walked in it; neither melted the icy kind of heavenly meat that was by nature apt to melt.

22 For in all things, O אלהים, You magnified Your people and esteemed them, neither did You lightly regard them: but assisted them in every time and place. X

Judith-Yahudith

1 In the twelfth year of the reign of Arphaxad, who reigned in Ninveh, the great city; in the yamim of Arpachshad, who reigned over the Medes in Ecbatane,

2 And built in Ecbatane walls roundabout of stones carved three cubits broad and six cubits long and made the height of the wall seventy cubits and the breadth of it fifty cubits:

3 And set the towers of it upon the gates of it a hundred cubits high and the breadth of it in the foundation threescore cubits:

4 And he made the gates of it, even gates that were raised to the height of seventy cubits and the breadth of them was forty cubits, for the going forth of his mighty armies and for the setting in array of his footmen:

5 Even in those yamim melech Arphaxad made war with melech Arpachshad in the great plain, which is the plain in the borders of Ragau.

6 And there came to him all they that dwelt in the hill country and all that dwelt by Euphrates and Tigris and Hydaspes and the plain of Arioch the melech of the Elymeans and very many goyim of the sons of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battle.

7 Then Arphaxad melech of the Ashshurim sent to all that dwelt in Persia and to all that dwelt westward and to those that dwelt in Kilikia and Damashek and Lebanon and Antilebanon and to all that dwelt upon the sea coast,

8 And to those among the goyim that were of Carmel and Gilad and the higher Galil and the great plain of Esdraelon,

9 And to all that were in Shomron and the cities of it and beyond Jordan to Yahrushalayim and Betane and Chelus and Kadesh and the river of Mitzrayim and Tapanhes and Rameses and all the land of Goshen, 10 Until you come beyond Tunis and Memphis and to all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, until you come to the borders of Cush.

11 But all the inhabitants of the land made ohr of the commandment of Arphaxad melech of the Ashshurim, neither went they with him to the battle; for they were not afraid of him: yes, he was before them as one man and they sent away his ambassadors from them without effect and with disgrace.

12 Therefore Arphaxad was very angry with all this country and swore by his kesay and malchut, that he would surely be avenged upon all those coasts of Kilikia and Damashek and Syria and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moav and the children of Ammon and all Yahudah and all that were in Mitzrayim, till you come to the borders of the two seas.

13 Then he marched in battle array with his power against melech Arpachshad in the seventeenth year and he prevailed in his battle: for he overthrew all the power of Arpachshad and all his horsemen and all his chariots, 14 And became master of his cities and came to Ecbatane and took the towers and spoiled the streets of it and turned the beauty of it into shame.

15 He took also Arpachshad in the mountains of Ragau and smote him through with his darts and destroyed him utterly that yom.

16 So he returned afterward to Ninveh, both he and all his company of sundry goyim being a very great multitude of men of war and there he took his ease and banqueted, both he and his army, a hundred and twenty yamim.

2 And in the eighteenth year, the twenty-second yom of the first chodesh, there was talk in the bayit of Arphaxad melech of the Ashshurim that he should, as he said, avenge himself on all the earth.

2 So he called to him all his officers and all his nobles and communicated with them his secret counsel and concluded the afflicting of the whole earth out of his own mouth.

3 Then they decreed to destroy all flesh that did not obey the commandment of his mouth.

4 And when he had ended his counsel, Arphaxad melech of the Ashshurim called Holofernes the chief captain of his army, who was next to him and said to him.

5 This saith the great melech, the master of the whole earth, Behold, you shall go forth from my presence and take with you men that trust in their own strength, of footmen a hundred and twenty thousand; and the number of horses with their riders twelve thousand.

6 And you shall go against all the west country because they disobeyed my commandment.

7 And you shall declare to them that they prepare for me earth and mayim: for I will go forth in my wrath against them and will cover the whole face of the earth with the feet of my army and I will give them for a spoil to them:

8 So that their slain shall fill their valleys and brooks and the river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflows:

9 And I will lead them captives to the utmost parts of all the earth.

10 You therefore shall go forth. and take beforehand for me all their coasts: and if they will yield themselves to you, you shall reserve them for me till the yom of their punishment.

11 But concerning them that rebel, let not your eye spare them; but put them to the slaughter and spoil them wherever you go.

12 For as I live and by the power of my malchut, whatever I have spoken, that will I do by my hand.

13 And take heed that you transgress none of the commandments of your master but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded you and defer not to do them.

14 Then Holofernes went forth from the presence of his master and called all the governors and captains and the officers of the army of Ashshur;

15 And he mustered the chosen men for the battle, as his master had commanded him, to a hundred and twenty thousand and twelve thousand archers on horseback;

16 And he arranged them, as a great army is ordered for the war.

17 And he took camels and asses for their carriages, a very great number; and sheep and oxen and goats without number for their provision:

18 And plenty of provisions every man of the army and very much gold and silver out of the melech's bayit.

19 Then he went forth and all his power to go before melech Arphaxad in the voyage and to cover all the face of the earth westward with their chariots and horsemen and their chosen footmen.

20 A great number also sundry countries came with them like locusts and like the sand of the earth: for the multitude was without number.

21 And they went forth from Ninveh three yamim's journey toward the plain of Bectileth and pitched from Bectileth near the har which is at the left hand of the upper Kilikia.

22 Then he took all his army, his footmen and horsemen and chariots and went from there into the hill country;

23 And destroyed Phud and Lud and spoiled all the children of Rasses and the children of Yisrael, who were toward the midbar at the south of the land of the Chellians.

24 Then he went over Euphrates and went through Mesopotamia and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbonai, till you come to the sea.

25 And he took the borders of Kilikia and killed all that resisted him and came to the borders of Yapheth, which were toward the south, over against Arabia.

26 He compassed also all the children of Midyan and burned up their tabernacles and spoiled their sheepcotes.

27 Then he went down into the plain of Damashek in the time of wheat harvest and burnt up all their fields and destroyed their flocks and herds, also he spoiled their cities and utterly wasted their countries and smote all their young men with the edge of the sword.

28 Therefore the fear and dread of him fell upon all the inhabitants of the sea coasts, which were in Sidon and Tsor and them that dwelt in Sur and Ocina and all that dwelt in Yemnaan; and they that dwelt in Azotus and Ashkelon feared him greatly.

3 So they sent ambassadors to him to ask for shalom, saying,

2 Behold, we the avadim of Arphaxad the great melech lie before you; use us as shall be tov in your sight.

3 Behold, our houses and all our places and all our fields of wheat and flocks and herds and all the lodges of our tents lie before your face; use them as it pleases you.

4 Behold, even our cities and the inhabitants of it are your avadim; come and deal with them as seems tov to you.

5 So the men came to Holofernes and declared to him after this manner.

6 Then came he down toward the sea coast, both he and his army and set garrisons in the high cities and took out of them chosen men for aid.

7 So they and all the country round about received them with garlands, with dances and with timbrels.

8 Yet he cast down their frontiers and cut down their groves: for he had decreed to destroy all the ahlohim of the land, that all goyim should worship Arphaxad only and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as ahlohim.

9 Also he came over against Esdraelon near to Yahudah, over against the great strait of Yahudah.

10 And he pitched between Geba and Scythopolis and there he tarried a whole chodesh, that he might gather together all the carriages of his army.

4 Now the children of Yisrael, that dwelt in Yahudah, heard all that Holofernes the chief captain of Arphaxad melech of the Ashshurim had done to the goyim and after what manner he had spoiled all their temples and brought them to nothing.

2 Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him and were troubled for Yahrushalayim and for the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהֵיהֶם their Ahlohim:

3 For they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people of Yahudah were lately gathered together: and the vessels and the altar and the Bayit were sanctified after they were profaned.

4 Therefore they sent into all the coasts of Shomron and the villages and to Beth-Horon and Belmen and

Yericho and to Choba and Esora and to the Valley of Salem:

5 And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains and fortified the villages that were in them and laid up food for the provision of war: for their fields were of late reaped.

6 Also Yoachim the Kohen HaGadol, who was in those yamim in Yahrushalayim, wrote to them that dwelt in Bethulyah and Betomestham, which is over against Esdraelon toward the open country, near to Dothaim,

7 Charging them to keep the passages of the hill country: for by them there was an entrance into Yahudah and it was easy to stop them that would come up because the passage was straight, for two men at the most.

8 And the children of Yisrael did as Yoachim the Kohen HaGadol had commanded them, with the zechanim of all the people of Yisrael who dwelt at Yahrushalayim.

9 Then every man of Yisrael cried to אלהים with great fervency and with great vehemence did they humble their naphsoth:

10 Both they and their wives and their children and their cattle and every stranger and hireling and their avadim bought with money, put sackcloth upon their loins.

11 So every man and women and the little children and the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim, fell before the Hekal and cast ashes upon their heads and spread out their sackcloth before the face Of אלהים : also they put sackcloth about the altar,

12 And cried to אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael all with one consent earnestly, that he would not give their children for a prey and their wives for a spoil and the cities of their inheritance to destruction and the sanctuary to be profaned and reproach and for the goyim to rejoice at them.

13 So אִיִּזְרָאֵל heard their tefillot and looked upon their afflictions: for the people fasted many yamim in all Yahudah and Yahrushalayim before the Hekal of אִיִּזְרָאֵל Tzevaot.

14 And Yoachim the Kohen HaGadol and all the kohanim who stood before אִיִּזְרָאֵל and they who ministered to אִיִּזְרָאֵל wore sackcloth on their loins and offered the daily burnt offerings with the vows and free gifts of the people,

15 And had ashes on their turbans and cried to אִיִּזְרָאֵל with all their power, that He would look upon all Beit Yisrael graciously.

5 Then was it declared to Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of Ashur, that the children of Yisrael had prepared for war and had shut up the passages of the hill country and had fortified all the tops of the high hills and had laid impediments in the campaign countries:

2 With which he was very angry and called all the princes of Moav and the captains of Ammon and all the governors of the sea coast,

3 And he said to them, Tell me now, you sons of Kanaan, who this people is, that dwells in the hill country and what are the cities that they inhabit and what is the multitude of their army and in which is their power and strength and what melech is set over them, or captain of their army;

4 And why have they determined not to come to meet me, more than all the inhabitants of the west.

5 Then said Achior, the captain of all the sons of Ammon, Let my master now hear a word from the mouth of your eved and I will declare to you the emet concerning this people who dwells near you and inhabit the hill countries: and there shall no lie come out of the mouth of your eved.

6 This people are descended of the Chaldeans:

7 And they sojourned from then on in Mesopotamia because they would not follow אֲרָאָז of their ahvot, who were in the land of Chaldea.

8 For they left the derech of their ancestors and worshipped the ahlohim of the shamayim, the ahlohim whom they knew: so they cast them out from the face of their ahlohim and they fled into Mesopotamia and sojourned there many yamim.

9 Then their ahlohim commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned and to go into the land of Kanaan: where they dwelt and were increased with gold and silver and with very much cattle.

10 But when a famine covered all the land of Kanaan, they went down into Mitzrayim and sojourned there, while they were nourished and became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation.

11 Therefore the melech of Mitzrayim rose up against them and dealt subtly with them and brought them low with laboring in brick and made them avadim.

12 Then they cried to their ahlohim and He smote all the land of Mitzrayim with incurable plagues: so the Mitzrim cast them out of their sight.

13 And אֲרָאָז dried the Yam Suf before them,

14 And brought them to Har Senai and Kadesh-Barnea and cast forth all that dwelt in the midbar.

15 So they dwelt in the land of the Amorites and they destroyed by their strength all them of Heshbon and passing over Yarden they possessed all the hill country.

16 And they cast forth before them the Kannaim, the Perrizite, the Yevusite and the Shechemite and all the Gergesites and they dwelt in that country many yamim.

17 And while they sinned not before their ahlohim, they prospered because אֱלֹהֵינוּ who hates iniquity was with them.

18 But when they departed from The Derech which He appointed them, they were destroyed in many battles very sorely and were led captives into a land that was not theirs and the Beit HaMikdash of their אֱלֹהֵינוּ was cast to the ground and their cities were taken by the enemies.

19 But now are they returned to their אֱלֹהֵינוּ and are come up from the places where they were scattered and have possessed Yahrushalayim, where their sanctuary is and are seated in the hill country; for it was desolate.

20 Now therefore, my master and governor, if there be any error against this people and they sin against their אֱלֹהֵינוּ, let us consider that this shall be their ruin and let us go up and we shall overcome them.

21 But if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my master now pass by, lest אֱלֹהֵינוּ defend them and their אֱלֹהֵינוּ be for them and we become a reproach before all the olam.

22 And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent murmured and the chief men of Holofernes and all that dwelt by the sea side and in Moav spoke that he should kill him.

23 For, say they, we will not be afraid of the face of the children of Yisrael: for, lo, it is a people that have no strength nor power for a strong battle.

24 Now therefore, master Holofernes, we will go up and they shall be a prey to be devoured by all your army.

6 And when the tumult of men that were about the council was ceased, Holofernes the chief captain of the army of Ashshur said to Achior and all the Moavites before all the company of other goyim,
2 And who are you, Achior and the hirelings of Ephrayim, that you have prophesied against us and have said, that we should not make war with the people of Yisrael because their Ahlohim will defend them? And who is ahlohim but Arphaxad?

3 He will send his power and will destroy them from the face of the earth and their Ahlohim shall not deliver them: but we his avadim will destroy them as one man; for they are not able to sustain the power of our horses.

4 For with them we will tread them under foot and their mountains shall be drunken with their dahm and their fields shall be filled with their dead bodies and their footsteps shall not be able to stand before us, for they shall utterly perish, says melech Arphaxad , master of all the earth: for he said, None of my words shall be in vain.

5 And you, Achior, a hireling of Ammon, who have spoken these words in the yom of your iniquity, shall see my face no more from this yom, until I take vengeance on this nation that came out of Mitzrayim.

6 And then shall the sword of my army and the multitude of them that serve me pass through your sides and you shall fall among their slain, when I return.

7 Now therefore my avadim shall bring you back into the hill country and shall set you in one of the cities of the passages:

8 And you shall not perish, till you are destroyed with them.

9 And if you persuade yourself in your mind that they shall be taken, let not your countenance fall: I have spoken it and none of my words shall be in vain.

10 Then Holofernes commanded his avadim who waited in his tent, to take Achior and bring him to Bethulyah and deliver him into the hands of the children of Yisrael.

11 So his avadim took him and brought him out of the camp into the plain and they went from the midst of the plain into the hill country and came to the fountains that were under Bethulyah.

12 And when the men of the city saw them, they took up their weapons and went out of the city to the top of the hill: and every man that used a sling kept them from coming up by casting of stones against them.

13 Nevertheless having gotten privily under the hill, they bound Achior and cast him down and left him at the foot of the hill and returned to their master.

14 But the Yisraelites descended from their city and came to him and loosed him and brought him to Bethulyah and presented him to the governors of the city:

15 Who were in those yamim Husha the son of Michah, of the tribe of Shimon and Chabris the son of Gothoniel and Charmis the son of Melchiel.

16 And they called together all the zechanim of the city and all their youth ran together and their women, to the assembly and they set Achior in the midst of all their people. Then Husha asked him of that which was done.

17 And he answered and declared to them the words of the council of Holofernes and all the words that he had spoken in the midst of the princes of Ashur and whatever Holofernes had spoken proudly against Beit Yisrael.

18 Then the people fell down and worshipped אלהים and cried to אלהים saying,

19 O אלהים Ahlohim of the shamayim, behold their pride and pity the low estate of our nation and look upon the face of those that are sanctified to you this yom.

20 Then they comforted Achior and praised him greatly.

21 And Husha took him out of the assembly to his bayit and made a feast to the zechanim; and they called on the אלהים of Yisrael all that lyla for help.

7 The next yom Holofernes commanded all his army and all his people who were come to take his part, that they should remove their camp against Bethulyah, to take aforehand the residents of the hill country and to make war against the children of Yisrael.

2 Then their strong men removed their camps in that yom and the army of the men of war was a hundred and seventy thousand footmen and twelve thousand horsemen, beside the baggage and other men that were afoot among them, a very great multitude.

3 And they camped in the valley near to Bethulyah, by the fountain and they spread themselves in breadth over Dothaim even to Belmaim and in length from Bethulyah to Cynamon, which is over against Esdraelon.

4 Now the children of Yisrael, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled and said everyone to his neighbor, Now will these men lick up the face of the earth; for neither the high mountains, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to bear their weight.

5 Then every man took up his weapons of war and when they had kindled fires upon their towers, they remained and watched all that lyla.

6 But in the second yom Holofernes brought forth all his horsemen in the sight of the children of Yisrael who were in Bethulyah,

7 And viewed the passages up to the city and came to the fountains of their waters and took them and set garrisons of men of war over them and he himself removed toward his people.

8 Then came to him all the chief of the children of Esav and all the governors of the people of Moav and the captains of the sea coast and said, 9 Let our master now hear a word, that there be not an overthrow in your army.

10 For this people of the children of Yisrael do not trust in their spears but in the height of the mountains in which they dwell because it is not easy to come up to the tops of their mountains.

11 Now therefore, my master, fight not against them in battle array and there shall not so much as one man of your people perish.

12 Remain in your camp and keep all the men of your army and let your avadim get into their hands the fountain of mayim, which issues from the foot of the har:

13 For all the inhabitants of Bethulyah have their mayim there; so shall thirst kill them and they shall give up their city and we and our people shall go up to the tops of the mountains that are near and will camp there, to watch that none go out of the city.

14 So they and their wives and their children shall be consumed with fire and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrown in the streets where they dwell.

15 So shall you render them an evil reward; because they rebelled and met not your person peaceably.

16 And these words pleased Holofernes and all his avadim and he appointed to do as they had spoken.

17 So the camp of the children of Ammon departed and with them five thousand of the Ashshurim and they pitched in the valley and took the waters and the fountains of the waters of the children of Yisrael.

18 Then the children of Esav went up with the children of Ammon and camped in the hill country over against Dothaim: and they sent some of them toward the south and toward the east over against Ekrebel, which is near to Chusi, that is upon the brook Mochmur; and the rest of the army of the Ashshurim camped in the plain and covered the face of the whole land; and their tents and carriages were pitched to a very great multitude.

19 Then the children of Yisrael cried to אלהיהם their Ahlohim because their lev failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about and there was no derech to escape out from among them.

20 So all the company of Ashhur remained about them, both their footmen, chariots and horsemen, forty three yamim, so that all their vessels of mayim failed all the inhabitants of Bethulyah.

21 And the cisterns were emptied and they had not mayim to drink their fill for one yom; for they gave them drink by measure.

22 Therefore their young children were saddened and their women and young men fainted for thirst and fell down in the streets of the city and by the passages of the gates and there was no longer any strength in them.

23 Then all the people assembled to Husha and to the chief of the city, both young men and women

8 Now at that time Yahudith heard all this, who was the daughter of Merari, the son of Ox, the son of Yoseph, the son of Ozel, the son of Elcia, the son of Chananyah, the son of Gideon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Elihu, the son of Eliav, the son of Nathanael, the son of Samael, the son of Salasadal, the son of Yisrael.

2 And Manasseh was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in the barley harvest.

3 For as he stood overseeing them that bound sheaves in the field, the heat came upon his head and he fell on his bed and died in the city of Bethulyah: and they buried him with his ahvot in the field between Dothaim and Balamo.

4 So Yahudith was a widow in her bayit three years and four chodashem.

5 And she made her a tent upon the top of her bayit and put on sackcloth upon her loins and wore her widow's apparel.

6 And she fasted all the yamim of her widowhood, except the erev before the Shabbats, and the Shabbats and the erev before the Chodeshim and the chodeshim and the moadem and solemn yamim of Beit Yisrael.

7 She was also of a goodly countenance and very beautiful to behold: and her husband Manasseh had left her gold and silver and male avadim and maidavadim and cattle and lands; and she remained upon them.

8 And there was none that gave her an ill word; as she feared Ahlohim greatly.

9 Now when she heard the evil words of the people against the governor, that they fainted for lack of mayim; for Yahudith had heard all the words that Husha had spoken to them and that he had sworn to deliver the city to the Ashshurim after five yamim;

10 Then she sent her maidservant who had the oversight of all things that she had, to call Husha and Chabris and Charmis, the zechanim of the city.

11 And they came to her and she said to them, Listen, O you governors of the inhabitants of Bethulyah: for your words that you have spoken before the people this yom are not tzadik, touching this oath which you made and pronounced between Ahlohim and you and have promised to deliver the city to our enemies, unless within these yamim אִיִּי turns to help you.

12 And now who are you who have tried אִיִּי this yom and stand instead of Ahlohim among the children of men?

13 And now test אִיִּי Almighty but you shall never know anything.

14 For you cannot find the depth of the lev of man, neither can you perceive the things that he thinks: then how can you search out אִיִּי Ahlohim, that has made all these things and know His mind, or comprehend His purpose? No, my brethren, provoke not אִיִּי our Ahlohim to anger.

15 For if He will not help us within these five yamim, He has Power to defend us when He will, even every yom, or to destroy us before our enemies.

16 Do not bind the counsels of אִיִּי our Ahlohim: for אִיִּי is not as man, that He may be threatened; neither is He as a son of man, that He should be wavering.

17 Therefore let us wait for salvation from Him and call upon Him to help us and He will hear our voice, if it pleases Him.

18 For there arose none in our age, neither is there any now in these yamim neither tribe, nor family, nor people, nor city among us, who worship myhla made with hands, as has been before.

19 For which cause our ahvot were given to the sword and for a spoil and had a great fall before our enemies.

20 But we know no other myhla, therefore we trust that He will not despise us nor any of our nation.

21 For if we be taken so, all Yahudah shall lie waste and our sanctuary shall be spoiled; and He will require the profaning of it at our mouth.

22 And the slaughter of our brethren and the captivity of the country and the desolation of our inheritance, will He turn upon our heads among the goyim, wherever we shall be in bondage; and we shall be an offence and a reproach to all them that possess us.

23 For our servitude shall not be directed to chen: but אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim shall turn it to disfavor.

24 Now therefore, O brethren, let us show an example to our brethren because their levavot depend upon us and the Hekal and the Bayit and the Mizbeach, all rest upon our resistance.

25 Moreover let us give hodu to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim, who tries us, even as He did our ahvot.

26 Remember what things He did to Avraham and how He tried Yitzchak and what happened to Yaakov in Mesopotamia of Syria, when He kept the sheep of Lavan his emma's brother.

27 For He has not tried us in the fire, as He did with them, for the examination of their levavot, neither has He taken vengeance on us: but אֱלֹהֵינוּ scourges them that come near to Him, to admonish them.

28 Then said Husha to her, All that you have spoken have you spoken with a tov lev and there is none that may deny your words.

29 For this is not the first yom where your chochmah is manifested; but from the beginning of your yamim all the people have known your binah because the disposition of your lev is tov.

30 But the people were very thirsty and compelled us to do to them as we have spoken and to bring an oath upon ourselves, which we will not break.

31 Therefore now make tefillah for us because you are a tzadik woman and אֱלֹהִים will send us rain to fill our cisterns and we shall faint no more.

32 Then said Yahudith to them, Listen and I will do a thing that shall go throughout all generations to the children of our nation.

33 You shall stand this lyla in the gate and I will go forth with my maidservant: and within the yamim that you have promised to deliver the city to our enemies אֱלֹהִים will visit Yisrael by my hand.

34 But inquire not you of my act: for I will not declare it to you, till the things be finished that I do.

35 Then said Husha and the princes to her, Go in shalom and אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim be before you to take vengeance on our enemies.

36 So they returned from the tent and went to their wards.

9 Yahudith fell upon her face and put ashes upon her head and uncovered the sackcloth with which she was clothed; and about the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Yahrushalayim in the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים Yahudith cried with a loud voice and said,

2 O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of my abba Simeon, to whom You gave a sword to take vengeance on the strangers who loosened the girdle of a maid to defile her and discovered the thigh to her shame and polluted her virginity to her reproach; for you said, It shall not be so and yet they did so:

3 Therefore You gave their rulers to be slain, so that they dyed their bed in dahm, being deceived and smote the avadim with their masters and the masters upon their thrones;

4 And gave their wives for a prey and their daughters to be captives and all their spoils to be divided among Your dear children who were moved with Your zeal and abhorred the pollution of their dahm and called upon You for aid: O Ahlohim, O my Ahlohim, hear me also a widow.

5 For You have done not only those things but also the things which took place before and which ensued after; You have thought upon the things which are now and which are to come.

6 Yes, what things You determined were ready at hand and said, Behold, we are here: for all your derachot are prepared and your shophtim are in your foreknowledge.

7 For, behold, the Ashshurim are multiplied in their power; they are exalted with horse and man; they gilah in the strength of their footmen; they trust in shield and spear and bow and sling; and know not that You are אֶלֹהִים that breaks the battles: אֶלֹהִים is your Name.

8 Throw down their strength in Your Power and bring down their force in Your wrath: for they have designed to defile Your sanctuary and to pollute the mishkan where your esteemed Name rests and to cast down with sword the horn of your altar.

9 Behold their pride and send Your wrath upon their heads: give into my hand, who am a widow, the power that I have conceived.

10 Smite by the deceit of my lips the eved with the sar and the sar with the eved: break down their elegance by the hand of a woman.

11 For Your Power stands not in multitudes nor Your might in strong men: for You are an Ahlohim of the afflicted, a Helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a Protector of the forsaken, the OSWHY of them who are without tikvah.

12 I beg you, I beg you, O Ahlohim of my abba and Ahlohim of the inheritance of Yisrael, אֱלֹהֵינוּ of the shamayim and ha'aretz, Creator of the mayim, melech of every creature, hear my tefillah:

13 And make my speech and deceit to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed cruel things against your brit and your set apart Bayit and against the top of Tzion and against the Bayit of the possession of your children.

14 And make every nation and tribe to acknowledge that You are the Ahlohim of all Power and might and that there is no other who protects the people of Yisrael but You.

10 Now after that she had ceased to cry to the Ahlohim of Yisrael and had made an end of all these words.

2 She rose where she had fallen down and called her maid and went down into the bayit in which she abode for the Shabbat yamim and for the moed yamim,

3 And pulled off the sackcloth which she had on and put off the garments of her widowhood and washed her gooff all over with mayim and anointed herself with precious ointment and braided the hair of her head and put a full cover upon it and put on her garments of simcha, with which she was clad during the chayim of Manasseh her husband.

4 And she put sandals on her feet and put her bracelets on her and her chains and her rings and her earrings and all her ornaments and decked herself bravely, to allure the eyes of all men who should see her.

5 Then she gave her maid a bottle of wine and a cruse of oil and filled a bag with parched grain and lumps of figs and with fine lechem; so she folded all these things together and laid them upon her.

6 So they went forth to the gate of the city of Bethulyah and found standing there Husha and the zechanim of the city, Chabris and Charmis.

7 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered and her apparel was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly and said to her:

8 אֱלֹהִים, the Ahlohim of our ahvot give you chen and accomplish your enterprises to the tifereth of the children of Yisrael and to the exaltation of Yahrushalayim. Then they worshipped אֱלֹהִים.

9 And she said to them, Command the gates of the city to be opened to me, that I may go forth to accomplish the things of which you have spoken with me. So they commanded the young men to open it for her, as she had spoken.

10 And when they had done so, Yahudith went out, she and her maid with her; and the men of the city looked after her, until she was gone down the har and till she had passed the valley and they could see her no more.

11 So they went immediately in the valley: and the first watch of the Ashshurim met her,

12 And took her and asked her, Of what people are you? And from where do you come? And where are you going? And she said, I am a woman of the Ivrim and am fled from them: for they shall be given you to be consumed:

13 And I am coming before Holofernes the chief captain of your army, to declare words of emet; and I will show him a derech, by which he shall go and win all the hill country, without losing the gooff or chayim of anyone of his men.

14 Now when the men heard her words and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty and said to her,

15 You have saved your chayim, in that you have hastened to come down to the presence of our master: now therefore come to his tent and some of us shall conduct you, until they have delivered you to his hands.

16 And when you stand before him, be not afraid in your lev but show to him according to your word; and he will treat you well.

17 Then they chose out of them a hundred men to accompany her and her maid; and they brought her to the tent of Holofernes.

18 Then was there a concourse throughout all the camp: for her coming was noised among the tents and they came around her, as she stood without the tent of Holofernes, till they told him of her.

19 And they wondered at her beauty and admired the children of Yisrael because of her and everyone said to his neighbor, Who would despise this people that have among them such women? Surely it is not tov that one man of them be left who being let go might deceive the whole earth.

20 And they that lay near Holofernes went out and all his avadim and they brought her into the tent.

21 Now Holofernes rested upon his bed under a canopy, which was woven with purple and gold and emeralds and precious stones.

22 So they showed her to him; and he came out before his tent with silver lamps going before him.

23 And when Yahudith was come before him and his avadim they all marveled at the beauty of her countenance; and she fell down upon her face and did reverence to him: and his avadim took her up.

11 Then said Holofernes to her, Woman, be of tov comfort, fear not in your lev: for I never hurt any that was willing to serve Arphaxad, the melech of all the earth.

2 Now therefore, if your people that dwell in the mountains had not set ohr by me, I would not have lifted up my spear against them: but they have done these things to themselves.

3 But now tell me why you are fled from them and are come to us: for you are come for safeguard; be of tov comfort, you shall live this lyla and from now on:

4 For none shall hurt you but treat you well, as they do the avadim of melech Arphaxad my master.

5 Then Yahudith said to him, Receive the words of your eved and suffer your handmaid to speak in your presence and I will declare no lie to my master this lyla.

6 And if you will follow the words of your handmaid, אִתְּךָ will bring the thing perfectly to pass for you; and my master shall not fail in any of his purposes.

7 As Arphaxad melech of all the earth lives and as his power lives who has sent you for the upholding of every living thing: for not only men shall serve him by you but also the beasts of the field and the cattle and the fowls of the air, shall live by your power under Arphaxad and all his bayit.

8 For we have heard of your chochmah and your policies and it is reported in all the earth, that you only are excellent in all the malchut and mighty in da'at and wonderful in feats of war.

9 Now as concerning the matter which Achior did speak in your council, we have heard his words; for the men of Bethulyah saved him and he declared to them all that he had spoken to you.

10 Therefore, O master and governor, respect not his word; but lay it up in your lev, for it is emet: for our nation shall not be punished, neither can sword prevail against them, except they sin against their Ahlohim.

11 And now, that my master be not defeated and frustrate his purpose, even death is now fallen upon them and their sin has overtaken them, with which they will provoke their Ahlohim to anger whenever they shall do that which is not fit to be done:

12 For their provisions fail them and all their mayim is scant and they have determined to lay hands upon their cattle and purposed to consume all those things, that אֱלֹהִים has forbidden them to eat by his laws:

13 And are resolved to spend the bikkurim of the ma'aser of wine and oil, which they had set apart and reserved for the kohanim that serve in Yahrushalayim before the face of our Ahlohim; which things it is not Torah for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands.

14 For they have sent some to Yahrushalayim because they also that dwell there have done the like, to bring them a license from the senate.

15 Now when they shall bring them word, they will right away do it and they shall be given to you to be destroyed the same yom.

16 So I your handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence; and אֱלֹהִים has sent me to work things out with you, by which all the earth shall be astonished and whoever shall hear it.

17 For your eved is faithful and serves the אֱלֹהִים of the shamayim yom and lyla: now therefore, my master, I will remain with you and your eved will go out by lyla into the valley and I will make tefillah to אֱלֹהִים and He will tell me when they have committed their sins:

18 And I will come and show it to you: then you shall go forth with all your army and there shall be none of them that shall resist you.

19 And I will lead you through the midst of Yahudah, until you come before Yahrushalayim; and I will set your kesay in the midst of it; and you shall drive them as sheep that have no shepherd and a dog shall not so much as open his mouth at you: for these things were told to me according to my foreknowledge and they were declared to me and I am sent to tell you.

20 Then her words pleased Holofernes and all his avadim; and they marveled at her chochmah and said, 21 There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty of face and chochmah of words.

22 Likewise Holofernes said to her. Ahlohim has done well to send you before the people, that strength might be in our hands and destruction upon them that lightly regard my master.

23 And now you are both beautiful in your countenance and witty in your words: surely if you do as you have spoken your Ahlohim shall be my אֱלֹהִים and you shall dwell in the bayit of melech Arphaxad and shall be known throughout the whole earth.

12 Then he commanded to bring her in where his plate was set; and asked that they should prepare for her of his own meats and that she should drink of his own wine.

2 And Yahudith said, I will not eat, lest there be an offence: but provision shall be made for me of the things that I have brought.

3 Then Holofernes said to her, If your provision should fail, how should we give you the same? For there be none with us of your nation.

4 Then said Yahudith to him, As your nephesh lives, my master, your handmaid shall not spend those things that I have, before אֱלֹהִים works by my hand the things that He has determined.

5 Then the avadim of Holofernes brought her into the tent and she slept till midlyla and she arose when it was toward the boker watch,

6 And sent to Holofernes, saying, Let my master now command that your handmaid may go forth to tefillah.

7 Then Holofernes commanded his guard that they should not keep her: so she abode in the camp three yamim and went out in the lyla into the valley of Bethulyah and washed herself, mikvah in a fountain of mayim by the camp.

8 And when she came out, she sought אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael to direct her derech to the raising up of the children of her people.

9 So she came in clean and remained in the tent, until she did eat her meat at evening.

10 And in the fourth yom Holofernes made a feast to his own avadim only and called none of the officers to the banquet.

11 Then said he to Bagoas the eunuch, who had charge over all that he had, Go now and persuade this Ivrit woman who is with you, that she come to us and eat and drink with us.

12 For, look, it will be a shame for us, if we shall let such a woman go, not having had her company; for if we draw her not to us, she will laugh us to scorn.

13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Holofernes and came to her and he said, Let not this fair damsel fear to come to my master and to be esteemed in his presence and drink wine and be merry with us and be made this yom as one of the daughters of the Ashurim, who serve in the bayit of Arphaxad .

14 Then said Yahudith to him, Who am I now, that I should gainsay my master? Surely whatsoever pleases him I will do speedily and it shall be my simcha to the yom of my death.

15 So she arose and decked herself with her apparel and all her woman's attire and her maid went and laid soft skins on the ground for her over against Holofernes, which she had received of Bagoas for her daily use, that she might sit and eat upon them.

16 Now when Yahudith came in and sat down, Holofernes's lev was ravished with her and his mind was moved and he desired greatly her company; for he waited a time to deceive her, from the yom that he had seen her.

17 Then said Holofernes to her, Drink now and be merry with us.

18 So Yahudith said, I will drink now, my master because my chayim is magnified in me this yom more than all the yamim since I was born.

19 Then she took and ate and drank before him what her maid had prepared.

20 And Holofernes took great delight in her and drank more wine than he had drunk at any time in one yom since he was born.

13 Now when the evening was come, his avadim made haste to depart and Bagoas shut his tent without and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his master; and they went to their beds: for they were all weary because the feast had been long.

2 And Yahudith was left alone in the tent and Holofernes lying along upon his bed: for he was filled with wine.

3 Now Yahudith had commanded her maid to stand without her bedchamber and to wait for her. Coming forth, as she did daily: for she said she would go forth to her tefillot and she spoke to Bagoas according to the same purpose.

4 So all went forth and none was left in the bedchamber, neither little nor great. Then Yahudith, standing by his bed, said in her lev, O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of all Power, look at this present upon the works of my hands for the exaltation of Yahrushalayim.

5 For now is the time to help your inheritance and to execute your enterprises to the destruction of the enemies who are risen against us.

6 Then she came to the pillar of the bed, which was at Holofernes' head and took down his sword from there,

7 And approached his bed and took hold of the hair of his head and said, Strengthen me, O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, this yom.

8 And she smote twice upon his neck with all her might and she took away his head from him.

9 And his gooff tumbled down from the bed and pulled down the canopy from the pillars; and immediately after she went forth and gave Holofernes' head to her maid;

10 And she put it in her bag of meat: so they two went together according to their custom to tefillah: and when they passed the camp, they compassed the valley and went up the har of Bethulyah and came to the gates of it.

11 Then said Yahudith afar off, to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate: אֱלֹהִים, even our Ahlohim, is with us, to show His Power yet in Yahrushalayim and His forces against the enemy, as He has even done this yom.

12 Now when the men of her city heard her voice, they made haste to go down to the gate of their city and they called the zechanim of the city.

13 And then they ran all together, both small and great, for it was strange to them that she had come: so they opened the gate and received them and made a fire for a ohr and stood round about them.

14 Then she said to them with a loud voice, Praise, tehilla TO אֱלֹהִים, tehilla Ahlohim, I say, for He has not taken away His rachamim from Beit Yisrael but has destroyed our enemies by my hands this lyla.

15 So she took the head out of the bag and showed it and said to them, behold the head of Holofernes, the chief captain of the army of the Ashurim and behold the canopy, in which he did lie in his drunkenness; and אֱלֹהִים has smitten him by the hand of a woman.

16 As אֱלֹהִים lives, who has kept me in my derech that I went, my countenance has deceived him to his destruction and yet has he not committed sin with me, to defile and shame me.

17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished and bowed themselves and worshipped אֱלֹהִים and said with one accord, Blessed be You, O our Ahlohim, who has this yom brought to nothing the enemies of Your people.

18 Then said Husha to her, O daughter, blessed are you of El-Elyon, above all the women upon the earth; and blessed be אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim, who has created the shamayim and ha'aretz, who has directed you to the cutting off of the head of the chief of our enemies.

19 For this your confidence shall not depart from the lev of men, who will remember the Power of Ahlohim le-olam-va-ed.

20 And אֱלֹהִים turn these things to you for a perpetual tehilla, to visit you in tov things because you have not spared your chayim for the affliction of our nation but have revenged our ruin, walking The Straight Derech before our אֱלֹהִים. And all the people said; Ahmein ve' ahmein.

14 Then said Yahudith to them, Hear me now, my brethren and take this head and hang it upon the highest place of your walls.

2 And so soon as the boker shall appear and the shemesh shall come forth upon the earth, take everyone his weapons and go forth every valiant man out of the city and set a captain over them, as though you would go down into the field toward the watch of the Ashurim; but go not down.

3 Then they shall take their armor and shall go into their camp and wake up the captains of the army of the Ashurim and shall run to the tent of Holofernes but shall not find him: then fear shall fall upon them and they shall flee before your face.

4 So you and all that inhabit the coast of Yisrael, shall pursue them and overthrow them as they go.

5 But before you do these things, call to me Achior the Ammonite, that he may see and know him that despised Beit Yisrael and that sent him to us as it were to his death.

6 Then they called Achior out of the bayit of Husha; and when he was come and saw the head of Holofernes in a man's hand in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face and his ruach failed.

7 But when they had restored him, he fell at Yahudith's feet and reverenced her and said, Blessed are you in all the tabernacles of Yahudah and in all goyim, who hearing your name shall be astonished.

8 Now therefore tell me all the things that you have done in these yamim. Then Yahudith declared to him in the midst of the people all that she had done, from the yom that she went forth until that hour she spoke to them.

9 And when she had stopped speaking, the people shouted with a loud voice and made a joyful noise in their city.

10 And when Achior had seen all that the Ahlohim of Yisrael had done, he believed in אלהים greatly and performed brit-milah and was joined to Beit Yisrael to this yom.

11 And as soon as the boker arose, they hanged the head of Holofernes upon the wall and every man took his weapons and they went forth by bands to the straits of the har.

12 But when the Ashurim saw them, they sent to their leaders, who came to their captains and tribunes and to everyone of their rulers.

13 So they came to Holofernes' tent and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our master: for the slaves have been bold to come down against us to battle, that they may be utterly destroyed.

14 Then went in Bagoas and knocked at the door of the tent; for he thought that he had slept with Yahudith.

15 But because none answered, he opened it and went into the bedchamber and found him cast upon the floor dead and his head was taken from him.

16 Therefore he cried with a loud voice, with weeping and sighing and a mighty cry and rent his garments.

17 After he went into the tent where Yahudith lodged: and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people and cried, 18 These avadim have dealt treacherously; one woman of the Ivrim has brought shame upon the bayit of melech Arphaxad: for, behold, Holofernes lies upon the ground without a head.

19 When the captains of the Ashurim's army heard these words, they rent their coats and their minds were fully troubled and there was a cry and a very great noise throughout the camp.

15 And when they that were in the tents heard, they were astonished at the thing that was done.

2 And fear and trembling fell upon them, so that there was no man that dared to abide in the sight of his neighbor but rushing out all together, they fled into every derech of the plain and of the hill country.

3 They also that had camped in the mountains round about Bethulyah fled away. Then the children of Yisrael, everyone that was a warrior among them, rushed out upon them.

4 Then sent Husha to Betomasthem and to Bebai and Chobai and Cola and to all the coasts of Yisrael, such as should tell the things that were done and that all should rush forth upon their enemies to destroy them.

5 Now when the children of Yisrael heard it, they all fell upon them with one consent and slew them to Chobai: likewise also they that came from Yahrushalayim and from all the hill country (for men had told them what things were done in the camp of their enemies and they that were in Gilad and in Galil, chased them with a great slaughter, until they were past Damascus and the borders of it).

6 And the residue that dwelt at Bethulyah fell upon the camp of the Ashurim and spoiled them and were greatly enriched.

7 And the children of Yisrael that returned from the slaughter had that which remained; and the villages and the cities, that were in the mountains and in the plain, got many spoils: for the multitude was very great.

8 Then Yoachim the Kohen HaGadol and the zechanim of the children of Yisrael who dwelt in Yahrushalayim, came to behold the tov things that אִרְמֵי הַיָּרֵךְ had showed to Yisrael and to see Yahudith and to salute her.

9 And when they came to her, they blessed her with one accord and said to her, You are the exaltation of Yahrushalayim, you are the great tifereth of Yisrael, you are the great rejoicing of our nation:

10 You have done all these things by your hand: you have done much tov to Yisrael and אלהים is pleased with it: blessed are you by The Almighty אלהים le olam va-ed. And all the people said, Ahmein.

11 And the people spoiled the camp the space of thirty yamim: and they gave to Yahudith Holoferne's tent and all his plate and beds and vessels and all his stuff: and she took it and laid it on her mule; and made ready her carts and laid them on it.

12 Then all the women of Yisrael ran together to see her and blessed her and made a dance among them for her: and she took branches in her hand and gave also to the women that were with her.

13 And they put a garland of olive upon her and her maid that was with her and she went before all the people in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Yisrael followed in their armor with garlands and with shirim in their mouths.

16 Then Yahudith began to shir this thanksgiving in all Yisrael and all the people sang after her this shir of tehilla.

2 And Yahudith said, Begin praising my Ahlohim with timbrels, shir to my אלהים with cymbals: shir to Him a new psalm: exalt Him and call upon His Name.

3 For אלהים breaks the battles: for among the camps in the midst of the people he has delivered me out of the hands of them that persecuted me.

4 Ashur came out of the mountains from the north, he came with ten thousands of his army, the multitude whereof stopped the torrents and their horsemen have covered the hills.

5 He bragged that he would burn up my borders and kill my young men with the sword and dash the sucking children against the ground and make my infants as a prey and my virgins as a spoil.

6 But The Almighty אֱלֹהֵינוּ has disappointed them by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mighty one did not fall by the young men, neither did the sons of the Titans-Nephilim smite him, nor high giants-Nephilim overcome him: but Yahudith the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her countenance.

8 For she put off the garment of her widowhood for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Yisrael and anointed her face with ointment and bound her hair in a covering and took a linen garment to deceive him.

9 Her sandals ravished his eyes, her beauty took his mind prisoner and the sword passed through his neck.

10 The Persians quaked at her boldness and the Medes were daunted at her resolve and strength.

11 Then my afflicted people shouted for simcha and my weak ones cried aloud; but the enemies were astonished: these lifted up their voices but they were overthrown.

12 The sons of the damsels have pierced them through and wounded them as fugitives' children: they perished by the battle of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

13 I will shir to אֱלֹהֵינוּ a new shir: O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, You are great and marvelous, wonderful in strength and invincible.

14 Let all creatures serve You: for You spoke and they were made. You sent forth Your Ruach and He created them and there is none that can resist Your voice.

15 For the mountains shall be moved from their foundations with the mayim, the rocks shall melt as wax at Your presence: yet You are merciful to them that fear You.

16 For all sacrifices are still too little for a sweet savor to You and all the fat is not sufficient for Your burnt offering: but he that fears אֱלֹהִים is great at all times.

17 Woe to the goyim that rise up against my kindred. אֱלֹהִים Almighty will take vengeance on them in the Yom Ha Din, in putting fire and worms in their flesh; and they shall feel them and weep le-olam-va-ed.

18 Now as soon as they entered into Yahrushalayim, they worshipped אֱלֹהִים; and as soon as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings and their free offerings and their gifts.

19 Yahudith also dedicated all the stuff of Holofernes, which the people had given her and gave the canopy, which she had taken out of his bedchamber, for a gift to אֱלֹהִים.

20 So the people continued feasting in Yahrushalayim before the sanctuary for the space of three chodeshim and Yahudith remained with them.

21 After this time everyone returned to his own inheritance and Yahudith went to Bethulyah and remained in her own possession and was in her time honorable in all the country.

22 And many desired her but none knew her all the yamim of her chayim, after that Manasseh her husband was dead and was gathered to his people.

23 But she increased more and more in esteem and waxed old in her husband's bayit, being a hundred and five years old and she set her maid free; so she died in Bethulyah: and they buried her in the cave of her husband Manasseh.

24 And all of Beit Yisrael lamented her seven yamim: and before she died, she distributed her goods to all them that were nearest of kindred to Manasseh her husband and to them that were the nearest of her kindred.

25 And there were none that made the children of Yisrael afraid anymore in the yamim of Yahudith, nor a long time after her death. X

The Prayer Of Melech Menasheh-Tefillat Menasheh

The Prayers of Menasheh is a short work of 15 verses recording a penitential tefillah attributed to Melech Menasheh of Yahudah. It was found in Hebrew among the Dead Sea Scrolls. Menasheh is recorded in the Scriptures as one of the most idolatrous melechim of Yahudah (2 Kings 21:1–18; 2 Chronicles 33:1–9). The Second Book of Chronicles, records that Menasheh was taken captive by the Assyrians (2 Chronicles 33:11–13). While a prisoner, Menasheh prayed for rachamim and upon being freed and restored to the kesay turned from his idolatrous ways (2 Chronicles 33:15–17). A reference to the tefillah, but not the tefillah itself, is made in 2 Chronicles 33:19, which says that the tefillah is written in "the annals of the melechim of Yisrael." The tefillah was placed at the end of 2 Chronicles in the late 4th-century Vulgate. It was part of the 1537 Matthew Bible and the 1599 Geneva Bible. It also appears in the Apocrypha of the Melech James Bible and of the original 1609/1610 Douai Rheims Bible. Menasheh was the 13th Melech of Yahudah (692-638 B.C.E. son and successor to Melech Hezekiah (2 Kings 20:21). The historian of 2 Kings tells us much about the evil of his reign (21:2-10) and the punishment foretold by the neviim (verses 10- 15), but practically nothing about the rest of the doings of Menasheh. He brought back the abominations of Melech Achaz; imported the adoration of "all the hosts of the shamayim", seemingly the astral, solar and lunar myths of Assyria; introduced and "made his son pass through fire" in the worship of Moloch.

It was probably in this frenzy of his varied forms of idolatry that Menasheh shed also very much innocent blood, until he filled Yahrushalayim up to the mouth. The historian of II Paralipomenon tells much the same account and adds that, in punishment, אֲשׁוּרִים brought the Assyrians upon Yahudah. They carried Menasheh to Bavel. אֲשׁוּרִים heard his tefillah for forgiveness and deliverance and brought him again to Yahrushalayim, where Menasheh did his part in stemming the tide of idolatry that he had formerly forced upon Yahudah (2 Chronicles 33:11-20). At one time, doubt was cast on the historicity of this narrative of II Paralipomenon, because 2 Kings omits the captivity of Menasheh. Schrader gives cuneiform records of twenty two melechim that submitted to Assurhaddon during his expedition against Mitzrayim; second on the list is Mi-na-si-i sar ir Ya-u-di (Menasheh, prince of the city of Yahudah). Schrader also gives the list of twenty two melechim who are recorded on a cuneiform tablet as tributaries to Asurbanipal in the land of Hatti; second on this list is Mi-in-si-i sar mat Ya-u-di (Menasheh, prince of the land of Juda). Since a Bavelian brick confirms the record of the historian of II Paralipomenon, his reputation is made a little more secure in rationalistic circles.

1 אֲשׁוּרִים Almighty Ahlohim of our ahvot, Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov and of their zera tzadikim.
2 Who has made the shamayim and earth, with all the multitudes of it;

3 Who has bound the sea by the Word of Your mitzvah; who has shut up the deep and sealed it by Your awesome and great Name;

4 And all wonder and quake before Your Power.

5 And one cannot stand before Your majestic esteem or bear Your furious anger against the wicked.

6 Yet without measure or boundaries is the rachamim You have bestowed.

7 For You, אֵלֵּיּוֹן El-Elyon, slow to anger and abounding in rachamim and forgiving the evils of men; You, אֵלֵּיּוֹן, in Your great kindness, have bestowed forgiveness to sinners dwelling in transgressions and in Your great rachamim have placed a derech of teshuvah for the wicked so that they may be saved.

8 You, אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the tzadikim, did not grant forgiveness to the tzadikim, to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, as they had not sinned against You willfully; but for me, I, am a sinner and yet You have granted me forgiveness, for I have sinned.

9 My iniquities are beyond number and I should not see, or raise my eyes, or look towards on high, for the greatness of my transgressions; and now, אֵלֵּיּוֹן, rightfully have You afflicted me and have repaid me according to my hands' work, with captivity.

10 I am bent down with iron bands, I cannot even raise my head from my nephesh's sins, as I moved against Your Ruach and was evil in Your eyes. I did not do Your will and did not guard Your mitzvoh and I set up disgusting idols and I increased abominations.

11 And now I bend the knee of my lev, for I desire Your kindness.

12 I have sinned, אֵלֵּיּוֹן, I have sinned and of my transgressions I am well aware.

13 And so I will plead to you, אלהים, forgive, please, forgive me and do not let me die in sin and do not guard and record iniquities le-olam-va-ed and do not cast me away from You and place me in the depths of Sheol, for You are אלהים, Ahlohim of the repentant are You.

14 Show me please, Your kindness, even to me and save me in Your great rachamim, though I am not worthy to see it.

15 And I shall hallel You always, all the yamim of my chayim, for to You all the hosts of the shamayim hallel You and to You, אלהים, is the esteem, le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein. X

Teachings Of The Twelve The Didache

From Our First Shlichim

The Didache meaning “Teaching in Greek” is the short name of a “Nazarene” manual compiled before 300 AD. The full title is The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles [In Greek]. Some believers thought the Didache was inspired but the “church” rejected it when making the final decision about which scrolls to include in the New Testament.

1 There are two derachot, one of chayim and one of death. And there is a great difference between the two derachot.

2 The derech of chayim is this: First, you shall love Ahlohim who made you. And second, love your neighbor as yourself and do not do to another, what you would not want done to you

3 The meaning of these sayings is this: Bless those who curse only you and make tefillah for your enemies and fast for those who persecute you. For what reward is there for loving those who love you? Do not the goyim do the same? But you should love those who hate you and then you shall have no enemies.

4 Abstain from fleshly and bodily lusts: If someone strikes your right cheek, turn the other also and be perfect. If someone forces you to go one mile, go two. If someone takes your cloak, give also your coat. If someone takes from you what is yours, don't ask for it back. You really cannot.

5 Give to everyone who asks you and don't ask for it back. The Abba wants His brachot shared.

Simcha has the giver who lives according to this rule, for that one is guiltless. But the receiver must beware; for if one receives who has need, he is guiltless but if one receives not having need, he shall stand trial, answering for why he received and for what reason. If he is found guilty he shall not escape, until he pays back the last penny.

6 However, concerning this, there is a saying: Let your alms sweat in your hands until you know to whom to give them.

2 The second mitzvah of the teaching is this:

2 Do not commit murder; do not commit adultery; do not corrupt boys; do not have illicit sex; do not steal; do not practice magic; do not practice witchcraft; you shall not murder a child, whether it be born or unborn. Do not covet the things of your neighbor.

3 Do not swear or bear false witness. Do not speak evil of others; do not bear grudges.

4 You should not be double minded or double tongued, for a double tongue is a deadly snare.

5 Your speech should not be false nor empty but fulfilled by action.

6 Do not be covetous, or greedy, or hypocritical, or malicious, or arrogant. Do not have designs against your neighbor.

7 Hate no one; correct some, make tefillah for others and some you should love more than your own chayim.

3 My child, flee evil of all kinds and everything like it.

2 Don't be prone to anger, for anger leads to murder. Don't be jealous or quarrelsome or hot tempered, for all these things lead to murder.

3 My child, don't be lustful, for lust leads to illicit sex. Don't be a filthy talker or allow your eyes a free reign, for these lead to adultery.

4 My child, don't observe omens, since it leads to idolatry. Don't be an enchanter, or an astrologer, or a purifier, or be willing to see or hear about these things, for these all lead to idolatry.

5 My child, don't be a liar, since a lie leads to theft. Don't love money or seek tifereth, for these things lead to thievery.

6 My child, don't grumble, since it leads to blasphemy and don't be self willed or evil minded, for all these things lead to blasphemy.

7 On the contrary, be gentle, since the meek will inherit the earth.

8 Be longsuffering and have pity on others, guileless and gentle and tov and with trembling, treasure the Words you have received.

9 Don't exalt yourself or open your lev to overconfidence. Don't be on intimate terms with mighty people but with just and lowly ones.

10 Accept whatever happens to you as a bracha, knowing that nothing comes to pass apart from Ahlohim.

4 My child, remember yom and lyla him who speaks the Word of Ahlohim to you and esteem him as Yahushua Himself. For wherever His malchut is spoken of, there He is.

2 Seek each yom the faces of the kidushim, in order that you may be refreshed by their words.

3 Do not initiate divisions but rather bring shalom to those who contend against one another. Judge righteously and do not take social status into account when reproofing for transgressions.

4 Do not waver in your decisions once reached.

5 Do not be one who opens his hands to receive, or closes them when it is time to give.

6 If you have anything, by your hands you should give ransom for your sins.

7 Do not hesitate to give and do not complain about it. You will know in time who is the Tov Rewarder.

8 Do not turn away from one who is in want; rather, share all things with your brother and do not say that they are your own. For if you are sharers in what is imperishable, how much more in things which perish.

9 Do not remove your hand from your son or daughter; teach them the fear of Ahlohim from their youth.

10 Do not give orders to your avadim when you are angry, for they tikvah in the same Ahlohim and they may lose the fear of Ahlohim, who is over both of you. Ahlohim is surely not coming to call on us according to our outward appearance or station in chayim but to them whom The Ruach has prepared.

11 And you, avadim, be subject to your masters as to Ahlohim 's image, in modesty and fear.

12 You should hate all hypocrisy and everything which is not pleasing to אדני.

13 Do not in any derech neglect the mitzvot of אדני but keep what you have received, neither adding nor taking away anything.

14 In your gatherings, confess your transgressions and do not come for tefillah with a guilty conscience. This is the derech of chayim.

5 The derech of death, on the other hand, is this: It is evil and cursed; murders, adulteries, lust, illicit sex, thefts, idolatries, magical arts, sorceries, robberies, false testimonies, hypocrisies, double heartedness, deceit, haughtiness, depravity, self will, greediness, filthy talking, jealousy, over confidence, loftiness, boastfulness, those who do not fear Ahlohim.

2 The derech of death is the derech of those who persecute the tov, hate the emet, love lies and do not understand the reward for tzedakah. They do not cleave to tov or tzadik mishpat; they do not watch for what is tov but for what is evil. They are strangers to meekness and patience, loving vanities, pursuing revenge, without pity for the needy and oppressed. They do not know their Creator; they are murderers of children, destroyers of Ahlohim 's image. They turn away from those who are in need, making matters worse for those who are distressed. They are advocates for the rich, unjust shophtim of the poor. In a word, the derech of death is full of those who are steeped in sin. Be delivered, children, from all of this.

6 See that no one leads you astray from the derech of this teaching, since all other teachings train you without the da'at of Ahlohim.

2 For if you are able to bear the entire yoke of אֵלֵינוּ, you will be perfect; but if you are not able, then at least do what you can.

3 Concerning food, do what you are able to do and be on guard against food offered to idols, for that is to worship dead ahlohim.

7 Concerning mikvah, you should mikvah this derech: After first explaining all things, mikvah in the one Name of The Abba and of The Son and of The Set Apart Ruach, in flowing mayim.

2 But if you have no running mayim, mikvah in other mayim; and if you cannot do so in cold mayim, then in warm mayim.

3 If you have very little, pour mayim three times on the head in the one Name of Abba and Son and Set Apart Ruach.

4 Before the mikvah, both the immerser and the candidate for mikvah, plus any others who can, should fast. The candidate should fast for one or two yamim beforehand.

8 Your fasts should not be with the hypocrites, for they fast on yom two and yom six. You should fast on yom four and yom six.

2 And do not make tefillah like the hypocrites but rather as $\alpha\omega\iota\alpha\lambda\lambda$ commanded in the Besorah: Our Abba in the shamayim, kadosh be your Name. Your malchut come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in the shamayim. Give us enough lechem, yom by yom. And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And do not bring us to the time of trial but rescue us from the evil one.

3 Make tefillah of this three times each yom.

9 Concerning the Master's Shulchan, give hodu in this derech.

2 First, concerning the cup of dahm: We thank You, our Abba, for the Kadosh Vine of Dawid Your eved, which You made known to us through $\alpha\omega\iota\alpha\lambda\lambda$ Your eved. To You be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

3 Next, concerning the broken lechem: We thank You, our Abba, for the chayim and da'at which You made known to us through $\alpha\omega\iota\alpha\lambda\lambda$ Your eved. To you be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

4 Even as this broken lechem was scattered over the hills and was gathered together and became echad, so let your kehilla be gathered together from the ends of the earth into Your malchut. To You is the tifereth and the kavod through $\alpha\omega\iota\alpha\lambda\lambda$ le-olam-va-ed.

5 Allow no one to eat or drink of Your Master's Shulchan, unless they have been mikvahed in The Name of awfaz . For concerning this, Yahushua has said, Do not give what is kadosh to dogs.

10 After the Master's Shulchan when you are filled, give hodu this derech:

2 We give hodu, kadosh Abba, for Your kadosh Name which you enshrined in our levavot and for the da'at and emunah and immortality that You made known to us through awfaz Your eved. To You be the tifereth le-olam va-ed.

3 You, Master Almighty, have created all things for Your Name's sake. You gave food and drink to all people for enjoyment, that they might give hodu to You; but to us you freely give spiritual food and drink and chayim eternal through awfaz , Your eved.

4 Before all things we thank You because You are Almighty. To You be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

5 Remember, oh awfaz , Your kehilla. Deliver it from all evil and make it perfect in Your ahava and gather it from the four winds, sanctified for Your malchut, which You have prepared for it. For Yours is the kavod and the tifereth le-olam-va-ed.

6 Let chesed come and let this olam pass away. Hoshiana to The Son of Dawid. If anyone is kadosh, let him come; if anyone is not kadosh, let him repent. Maranatha-Maharon-Atah. Ahmein.

7 But permit the neviim to make the Master's Shulchan, as much as they desire.

11 Welcome the moreh when he comes to instruct you in all that has been said.

2 But if he turns and trains you in another tradition to the destruction of this Besorah teaching, do not listen. If he teaches so as to increase tzedakah and the da'at of afaz , receive him as awfaz .

3 Act according to the precepts of the Besorah concerning all shlichim and neviim:

4 Let every sholiach who comes to you be received as אֲנִי Himself, with the same kavod and respect.

5 But he must not remain more than one yom, or two, if there's a need. If he stays three yamim, he is a false navi.

6 And when the sholiach goes away, let him take nothing but lechem to last him until his next lyla of lodging. If he asks for money, he is a false navi.

7 In addition, if any navi speaks in The Ruach, you shall not try or judge him; every sin will be forgiven but this sin cannot be forgiven.

8 But not everyone who speaks in The Ruach is a navi; only he is a navi who has the actions of אֲנִי in his chayim. By their actions will the false navi and the emet navi be known.

9 Any navi who orders a meal in The Ruach does not eat it; if he does, he is indeed a false navi.

10 And any navi who teaches the emet but does not do what he teaches, is a false navi.

11 When a navi, proven emet, works for the sod of the kehilla in the olam but does not teach others to do what he himself does, he will not be judged among you, for his mishpat is already before Ahlohim. The ancient neviim acted in this derech, also.

12 But whoever says in The Ruach, Give me money, or something else like this, you must not listen to him. But if he tells you to give for the sake of others who are in need, let no one judge him.

12 Welcome anyone coming in The Name of אֲנִי. Receive everyone who comes in The Name of אֲנִי but then, test them and use your discretion as you observe their character.

2 If he who comes is a transient with no roots or stability, assist him as far as you are able; but he should not remain with you more than two or three yamim, if need be.

3 If he wants to stay with you and is a craftsman, let him work for his living.

4 But if he has no trade, use your discernment in providing for him; for a believer should not live idle in your midst.

5 If he is dissatisfied with this sort of an arrangement, he is a Moshiach peddler. Watch that you keep away from such people.

13 Every genuine navi who wants to live among you is worthy of support.

2 So also, every emet moreh is, like a workman, entitled to his support.

3 Every bikkur, therefore, of the products of vintage and harvest, of cattle and of sheep, should be given as bikkurim to the neviim, for they are your esteemed kohanim.

4 But if you have no navi, give it all to the poor.

5 If you bake lechem, take the first loaf and give it according to the mitzvah of bikkurim.

6 If you open a new jar of wine or of oil, take the bikkur and give it to the neviim.

7 If you acquire money or clothing or any other possession, set aside a portion first, as it may seem tov to you and give according to the mitzvah of bikkurim.

14 On the Shabbat yom, gather yourselves together and break lechem, give hodu but first confess your sins so that your service may be pure.

2 However; let no one who is at odds with his brother come together with you, until he has reconciled, so that your service may not be profaned.

3 For this is what אֱלֹהִים has said: For from the rising of the shemesh to its setting My Name is great among the goyim and in every place incense is offered to My Name and a pure offering; for My Name is great among the goyim, says אֱלֹהִים of Hosts. For I AM a great Melach, says אֱלֹהִים of Hosts and My Name is revered among the goyim.

15 Appoint overseers for yourselves, as well as zechanim, worthy of אֲנָשִׁים, of meek disposition, unattached to money, truthful and proven; for they also render to you the service of neviim and teachers.

2 Do not despise them, after all, for they are your esteemed ones, together with the neviim and teachers.

3 And reprove one another, not in anger but in shalom, as you have it in the Besorah. But to anyone who acts wildly against another, let no one speak to him, nor let him hear anything from you until he repents. But your tefillot and alms and all your deeds so do, as you have it in the Besorah of our אֲנָשִׁים.

16 Watch over your own chayim, that your lamps are never quenched and that your loins are never unloosed. Be ready, for you do not know on what yom your Master is coming.

2 Come together often, seeking the things that are tov for your naphsoth. A chayim of emunah will not profit you, if you are not made mature by the end of this age.

3 For in the yamim ha-acharonim false neviim and corrupters will be plenty and the sheep will be turned into wolves and love will be turned into hate.

4 When Torah breaking increases, they will hate and persecute and betray one another and then the olam's deceiver will appear, claiming to be the son of Ahlohim, the anti messiah and he will do signs and wonders and the earth will be delivered into his hands and he will do evil things that have not been seen since the beginning of the olam.

5 Then humankind will enter into the fire of trial and many will be made to stumble and many will perish; but those who endure in their emunah will be saved from under the curse itself.

6 And then the signs of The Emet One will appear: the first ot, an opening of the shamayim; the second ot, the sounding of the shofar; and the third ot, the resurrection of the believing dead.

7 Not of everyone but as it is said: Then אִנִּי אֵלֹהִים my Ahlohim will come and all the kadosh ones with Him.

8 Finally, Then the ot of The Ben Ahdahm will appear in the shamayaim and then all the tribes of the olam will mourn and they will see The Ben Ahdahm coming on the clouds of the shamayim with kavod and great tifereth, and all the kadosh ones with Him, sitting on His royal kesay to give mishpat to the olam hazeh and its deceiver and to reward each one according to his own mitzvoth. The Epistle of Barnabas- Bar-Nava

To Our People Yisrael

Bar-Nava, The Son of Comfort, is mentioned in Acts 1:23, 4:36, 9:27, 11:22, 25, 30, 12:25, 13:1, 2, 7, 43, 46, 50, 14:12, 14, 20, 15:2, 12, 22, 25, 35, 36, 37, 39, 1st Corinthians 9:6, Galatians 2:1, 9, 13 and in Colossians 4:10.

From these biblical references we can see concerning Bar-Nava that:

- He was a traveling companion Of Sholiach Shaul.
- He introduced Sholiach Shaul to the Yahrushalayim community of emunah.
- He was trusted by the Yahrushalayim zechanim.
- He was faithful with finances.
- He was a Yahudite believer.
- He was a Levite. His Hebrew name was Yoseph.
- He was a missionary and had a pastor's lev.
- He was considered a teacher and a navi.
- He was ordained by the set Apart Ruach to rescue Ephraim from the goyim.
- He was from the island of Cyprus.

-He observed Shabbat with the House of Judah.

-He was a key speaker and delegate at the Acts 15 Yahrushalayim Council.

-He was a chosen ambassador by the Yahrushalayim Council, sent out with their rulings.

-He continued secular work.

-He was rebuked by Paul for following Peter in withdrawing from table chavurah from returning Ephraimites. This is a second issue where he is seen in sharp disagreement with Paul.

-He had a sharp break in chavurah with Paul.

-He was a believer before Paul.

-He donated large amounts of land and other material needs to the early Nazarene Yisraelite community.

-His nephew was John Mark author of the gospel bearing his name. Mark was a visitor when Paul was in prison in Rome.

1 Shalom, my sons and daughters in Yisrael, in the name of our Adon $\omega\psi\chi\lambda\omega$ the Moshiach, who has loved us in shalom.

2 I rejoice exceedingly and beyond measure at your happy and wonderful ruach, since the ordinances of The Torah of Ahlohim are great and rich towards you, who have received the engrafted unmerited chen of the spiritual gift.

3 So, I congratulate myself more, hoping to be saved because I see an emet The Ruach poured out upon you from the rich Ahlohim of ahava. So greatly has your longed for appearance hit me with anticipation.

4 Being persuaded, therefore, of this and knowing in myself that since I spoke among you, אִיִּי has helped me in many things, in the derech of tzedakah. I am altogether compelled to love you even beyond my own nephesh because great emunah and ahava dwells in you, in the tikvah of His chayim.

5 Considering also this, that if I take care to communicate to you a part of that which I have received, it shall turn to my reward to have assisted such ruachim as you are. I gave diligence to write to you in few words, in order that together with your emunah, you might have your da'at perfect also.

6 For there are three doctrines ordained of אִיִּי: the tikvah of chayim, the beginning and the end.

7 For the Master has made known to us by the neviim, the things that are past and the things, which are at hand and has given us the bikkurim of the da'at of the things that are to come. Since, therefore, we see all these things, each working as He has spoken, we ought more fully and royally approach His altar;

8. But I, not as a teacher but as one of yourselves, will show to you a few things, by means of which you may even in this present rejoice.

2 Since, therefore, the yamim are evil and the adversary has the authority, we ought to take heed to ourselves and seek out The Torah of אִיִּי.

2 For the helpers of our emunah are reverence and patience and they that fight on our side are longsuffering and continence.

3 While these, therefore, remain pure in things relating to אִיִּי, chochmah and binah, science and da'at, rejoice together with them.

4 For Ahlohim has made known to us through all the neviim, that He desires neither sacrifices nor whole burnt offerings, nor oblations; for He said in a certain place,

5 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices? says אִיִּי. I AM full of the whole burnt offerings of rams; I desire not the fat of lambs, nor the dahm of bulls and goats and you need not come to be seen by Me. For who has required these things at your hands? You shall not add to it in order to tread my court. If you bring the fine flour, it is vain; incense is an abomination to me; your new moons and Shabbats I cannot endure; your fastings and holidays and moadem my nephesh hates.

6 These things, therefore, He has made of none effect, that the new instructions of our Adon אִיִּי The Moshiach, being free from the yoke of necessity, might have an offering not made with hands.

7 Again, He said to them, Did I command your ahvot, when you came out of the land of Mitzrayim, to offer to me whole burnt offerings and sacrifices?

8 Did I not rather command them this? Let each of you bear no malice against his neighbor in his lev and love not a false oath.

9 We ought to perceive, since we are not void of binah the meaning of the tovness of Ahlohim our Abba because He tells us, wishing to seek us who are wandering even as sheep, how we ought to approach Him.

10 He therefore speaks to us in this manner: The sacrifice before Ahlohim is a broken lev; a smell of sweet savor to אִיִּי is a lev that glorifies Him that made it. We should, therefore, brethren examine accurately concerning our own salvation, lest the evil one, making an entrance among us, should draw us away from our chayim.

- 3 Therefore, He said again, concerning these things, to them. Why do you fast to Me, says אֱלֹהִים, so that your voice is heard today in its crying? This is not the fast that I have chosen, says אֱלֹהִים, for a man to humiliate his nephesh;
- 2 Nor if you bend your neck as a ring and put under you sackcloth and ashes; not even then will you call it an acceptable fast.
- 3 But to us He said, Behold the fast which I have chosen, says אֱלֹהִים; not that a man should humiliate his nephesh but that he should loose every bond of unrighteousness and untie the knots of the covenants of violence; set at liberty them that are bruised and cancel every agreement of unrighteousness; break your lechem with the hungry and if you see the naked, clothe him; bring them that are homeless into your dwelling and if you see a man that is lowly, despise him not and turn not away from those of your family;
- 4 Then shall your ohr break forth early and your garments shall spring up quickly and justice shall go before you and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים shall surround you;
- 5 Then shall you cry and אֱלֹהִים shall listen to you; while you are yet speaking He shall say, See, Hinayne: if you put away from you the contract and the conspiracy and the word of murmuring and give your lechem to the hungry with all your lev and have rachamim upon the nephesh that is lowly.
- 6 The longsuffering Ahlohim therefore having seen beforehand that the people whom He had prepared for His beloved would believe in simplicity, has showed to us beforehand, concerning all these things, that we should not come as strangers to their Torah.

4 It behooves, therefore, that we, searching much concerning the things that are at hand, should seek out the things that are able to save us. Let us flee, therefore, utterly from all the works of unrighteousness and let us hate the error of the time that now is, that we may be loved in the atid lavoh.

2 Let us not give liberty to our nephesh that it should have freedom to run with sinners and evil men, neither let us act like them.

3 The Tribulation being made perfect is at hand, concerning which it is written, as Chanok said, For this purpose אַף־אֶזְכֹּר has cut short the times and the yamim, that His beloved might make haste and come into His inheritance.

4 The navi also speaks in this derech: Ten malchutim shall reign upon the earth; and there shall rise up after them a little melech who shall humble three of the melechim under one.

5 And in like manner Daniyel speaks concerning him: And I saw the fourth beast, evil and strong and harder than all the beasts of the earth; and I saw how there grew up from him ten horns and from among them a little horn, growing up beside them and how it humbled under one, three of the great horns.

6 You ought, therefore, to understand. And moreover I ask this of you, as being one among you, loving you especially and altogether, even above my own nephesh; that you should take heed to yourselves and not be like to certain men, by adding to your sins and saying that their brit is also ours. Ours, indeed, it is; but they have lost it leolam-va-ed, in this derech, after that Moshe had already received it.

7 For the Katuv said, So Moshe was in the har fasting forty yamim and laylot and he received the brit from אֱלֹהִים; even tables of stone written with the finger of The Hand of אֱלֹהִים. But when they turned to idols they lost it.

8 For אֱלֹהִים said this to Moshe, Moshe, get down quickly, for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Mitzrayim, have done unlawfully. And Moshe understood and cast the two tables from his hands and the brit that was on them was broken; to the end that only the beloved אֱלֹהִים might be sealed in our levavot in the tikvah of His emunah.

9 Now, though I wished to write many things to you, not as a teacher but even as fits one that loves you, not to fall short of the things that we have, I have been zealous to write to you, as the least of you. Let us, therefore, give heed to the yamim ha-acharonim; for the whole time of our emunah will profit us nothing unless now, in the season of iniquity and among the stumbling-blocks that are coming, we resist as becomes the sons of Ahlohim.

10 That the evil one may not have entrance while we are unaware. Let us fly away from all vanity and fully hate the deeds of the evil derech. Do not, entering into your own houses, dwell alone, as though you were already justified but coming together, inquire one with another concerning the common advantage.

11 For the Katuv said, Woe to them that are wise in their own conceit and learned in their own eyes. Let us be spiritual: let us be a perfect Beit HaMikdash to Ahlohim. So far as in you lies, let us practice the reverence of Ahlohim and strive to keep His Torah mitzvoth, that we may be glad in His ordinances.

12 אֱלֹהִים shall judge the olam without respect of persons; each shall receive according as he has done; if he is tov, tzedakah shall go before him but if he is evil, the reward of wickedness shall be before him.

13 Let us give heed that we do not, as being already elect, take rest and sleep in our sins, lest the ruler of wickedness, getting the victory over us, toss us from the malchut of אֱלֹהִים.

14 And, moreover, my brethren, consider this. When you see that after so many signs and wonders what still has happened to part of Yisrael, even that they have been abandoned for now; let us take heed lest, as it is written, many of us be called but few chosen.

5 For on this account אֱלֹהִים endured to give His flesh to corruption, that we might be sanctified by the remission of sins, which is by the sprinkling of His dahm.

2 For there are written concerning Him certain things that pertain to Yisrael and certain others that pertain to us. For He speaks like this, He was wounded for our iniquities and vexed for our sins; by His stripes we are healed. He was led as a sheep to the slaughter and like a Lamb dumb before him that shears it.

3 We ought therefore, to give special hodu to אֱלֹהִים because He has made known to us the things that are past and has made us wise with regard to those that are at hand, neither are we without binah as regards to the future.

4 For the Katuv said, Not unjustly is the net stretched for the birds. Now this means that a man will perish justly who, having da'at of the derech of tzedakah, shuts himself up into the derech of darkness.

5 Consider this too, my brethren; if אֱלֹהִים endured to suffer for our naphsoth, though He were Ahlohim of the whole olam, to whom Ahlohim said from the foundation of the olam, Let Us make man according to Our image and according to Our likeness, how then did He endure to suffer at the hands of men? Learn.

6 The neviim having received the unmerited chen from Him and prophesied with regard to Him. But He, that He might make death of none effect and bring to ohr the resurrection from the dead because it behooved Him to be made manifest in the flesh,

7 Endured it that He might give to our ahvot the promise and by preparing for Himself a renewed people might show, while upon earth, that He will raise the dead and by Himself execute mishpat.

8 Yes, further; though He taught Yisrael and did so many signs and wonders among them, yet they loved Him not.

9 But when He chose out His own shlichim, who were about to preach His Besorah, they were men unrighteous beyond all sin, that He might show that He came not to call the tzadik but sinners to teshuvah; then He made Himself manifest that He was The Son of Ahlohim.

10 For if He had not come in the flesh how could men have looked upon Him and have been saved, since they cannot endure to look at the rays of the shemesh, which must one yom perish and which is the work of His Hands?

11 For this purpose did The Son of Ahlohim come in the flesh, that He might sum up and finish the sin of them who persecuted His neviim to death;

12 Therefore He endured even to this. For Ahlohim said that the smiting of His flesh it was from them. When they shall smite their Shepherd, then shall the sheep of the flock be scattered.

13 But He himself wished to suffer, for it was necessary that He should suffer upon the execution stake; for He who prophesied about Him said, Spare my nephesh from the sword but drive nails into My flesh, for the synagogues of evil men have risen against Me.

14 And again He said, Behold, I have given My back to the scourging and My cheeks to buffetings; My face also have I set as a hard rock.

6 When, therefore, He made The Torah what said He? Who is he that disputes with Me? Let him resist Me; or who is he that contends with Me? Let him draw near to The Son of אֱלֹהִים.

2 Woe to you, for you shall all wax old as a garment and the moth shall devour you. And again the navi said, Since He has been placed, as a Strong Stone, for crushing; behold I will place on the foundation of Tzion, a Stone precious, elect, a Rosh Pina of great price.

3 And then what said he? And he that believeth in Him shall live le-olam-va-ed. Is then our tikvah in a Stone? Ahlohim forbid. But it is said because אֱלֹהִים has made strong His flesh, for He said, So He made Me as it were a hard Rock.

4 And again, The Stone, which the builders rejected, has become the head of the corner. And again He said, This is the yom, great and wonderful, which אֱלֹהִים has made.

5 I write to you more simply that you may understand. I am the outcast of your love.

6 What then said the navi again? The assembly of the wicked came around Me; they surrounded me as bees do a honeycomb and over My garment they cast lots.

7 Since, therefore, He was about to be made manifest and to suffer in the flesh, His suffering was showed beforehand. For the navi said to Yisrael, Woe to their naphshot, for they have counseled an evil counsel among themselves, saying, Let us bind the tzadik because He is an encumbrance to us.

8 And what said the other navi, even Moshe, to them? Behold, this says אלהים Ahlohim: Enter into the tov land which אלהים swore to Avraham and Yitzchak and Yaakov and inherit it, even a land flowing with milk and honey.

9 What said da'at? Learn it. Place tikvah, upon אלהים, who is about to be manifested to you in the flesh. For man is but earth, which suffers; for, from the face of the ground was made the molding for Ahdahm.

10 What then does He mean when He said, In to the tov land which flows with milk and honey? Blessed be אלהים, brethren, who has put into you chochmah and da'at of His secret things. For the navi speaks a parable from אלהים. Who shall understand, except he that is wise and skillful and that loves his אלהים?

11 Since, therefore, having renewed us by the remission of our sins, He has made us of a new character; He wills that we should have the naphsot of children, as it is indeed He who has formed us, as new naphshot.

12 For the Katuv said concerning us, that He said to The Son, Let Us make man after Our own image and according to Our likeness; and let them rule over the beasts of the earth and the fowls of the shamayim and the fishes of the sea. And אלהים said, when He saw how excellent our form was, Increase and multiply and replenish the earth. These things He said to The Son.

13 Again I will show to you how אלהים speaks to us, since He has made a second fashioning in these yamim ha-acharonim; אלהים said, Behold I make the last even as the first. For to this purpose did the navi preach. Enter into the land flowing with milk and honey and have dominion over it.

14 Behold now we have been formed again, even as He said again in another navi: Behold, said אֱלֹהִים, I will take out from these, that is out of those whom The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים foresaw, the levavot of stone and will put into them levavot of flesh because He himself was about to be manifested in the flesh and to dwell among us.

15 For the habitation of our lev is a Beit HaMikdash set apart to אֱלֹהִים.

16 For אֱלֹהִים said again, How shall I appear before אֱלֹהִים My Ahlohim and be esteemed? He said too, I will give hodu to You in the assembly, in the midst of My brethren; I will shir to You in the midst of the assembly of the kidushim. We are, therefore, those whom He brought into the tov land.

17 What, then, means the milk and honey? It is because a child is kept alive, first with honey, afterwards with milk. So we, too, being quickened by emunah in His promise and by His Word, shall live and rule over the earth.

18 And we said previously, So let them increase and multiply and rule over the fish. Who then is he who is able to rule over the beasts, the fish and fowls of the shamayim? For we ought to perceive that to rule means authority, so that a man by giving commands may exercise lordship.

19 If, therefore, this does not take place now, He has told us when it will; even when we ourselves have been made perfect, so that we become heirs of the brit of אֱלֹהִים.

7 You perceive, therefore, beloved children that our tov אֱלֹהִים has manifested to us all things beforehand, to the end that we should know who we should tehillah, returning hodu for all things.

2 If, therefore, The Son of Ahlohim, being He who is אלהים and who is about to judge the living and the dead, suffered, to the end that His stripes might make us live, let us believe that The Son of Ahlohim could not suffer except on our account.

3 But being impaled, He was given to drink of vinegar and gall. How, then, did the kohanim of the temple signify concerning this? Now, the commandment is written in this derech: Whosoever shall not fast on the fast, he shall die the death; אלהים has commanded it. Since He also was about to offer the vessel that contained His Ruach as a sacrifice, in order that the type might be fulfilled which was given by the offering of Yitzchak at the altar,

4 What said He in the sefer of the navi? And let them eat of the goat, which is offered on the fast for the sins of all. Attend diligently to this. And let the kohanim alone eat of the unwashed intestines with vinegar.

5 What is the significance? Because you will one yom give Me to drink of vinegar and gall, when I AM about to offer up My flesh for My renewed people, you eat it alone, while the people fast and lament in sackcloth and ashes. He commanded this in order that He might show that He needs to suffer at their hands.

6 How, then, did He give His commands? Listen. Take two goats, fair and like each other and offer them up. And let the kohen take one of them as a whole ascension offering for sin.

7 But what shall they do with the other? Let the other, He said, be cursed. Now listen, how the type of עזרא is made manifest.

8 And do you not all spit upon it and pierce it and put scarlet wool around its head and so let it be cast out into the midbar. And when this has been done, he who bears the goat leads it out into the midbar and takes away the wool and places it upon a bush, which is called Rachel, the shoots of which we are accustomed to eat when we find them in the fields. So the fruit of the Rachel only is sweet.

9 What, therefore, does this mean? Listen. One is brought to the altar, the other is cursed and the cursed one is crowned because they shall see Him in that yom, who had the scarlet robe around His flesh, and they shall say, Is not this He, who once we considered as nothing and impaled and spat upon and pierced? Truly this was He who at that time said that He was The Son of Ahlohim.

10 How then was one like the other? In this respect were the goats like Him: they were fair and equal, so that when they saw Him coming they were astonished at the likeness to the goat. Therefore, behold here the type of אֵלֶּיךָ, who was about to suffer.

11 And what means the wool placed in the midst of thorns? It is a type of אֵלֶּיךָ, which has been placed in the assembly of Yisrael. For He who wishes to take the scarlet wool must suffer many things because the thorn is terrible and sharp and must only after pain gain possession of it. So He said, Those who wish to see Me and to take hold of My malchut must through trouble and suffering receive Me.

8 And what type, do you think, was the mitzvah to Yisrael, that the men in whom sin had been accomplished should offer a heifer; and after they had slaughtered it should burn it; and that children should then take the ashes and cast them into vessels and place scarlet wool and hyssop around a stick? Behold, again, the type of the execution stake and the scarlet wool and so the children should sprinkle the people one by one, that they might be purged from their sins.

2 Behold, therefore, in what derech He speaks to you with simplicity. The red heifer signifies אֲשֵׁרָא; the sinful men who offer it are the men who brought Him to the slaughter. But now the men are no longer before us, no longer does the tifereth belong to sinners.

3 The children who sprinkled the dahm are those who brought us the Tov News of the forgiveness of sins and purification of lev, to whom He has given the authority of the Tov News for the purpose of preaching, being twelve in number, for a testimony to the tribes, for twelve, were the tribes of Yisrael.

4 And why, then, were the children who sprinkled three in number? For a testimony to Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov because these are great before Ahlohim.

5 And what signifies the wool upon the wood? Because the malchut of אֲשֵׁרָא is upon the execution stake; and because they who tikvah on Him, shall have chayim le-olam-va-ed.

6 And why are there at the same time the wool and the hyssop? Because in His malchut, the yamim in which we shall be saved shall be evil and filthy; because also he that grieves over His flesh, is healed through the purifying of the hyssop.

7 And these things having happened on this account are manifest to us but obscure to them because they listened not to the voice of אֲשֵׁרָא.

9 He said also again concerning our ears, how He has made brit-milah upon our lev. אֲשֵׁרָא said in the navi, They have listened to Me with the hearing of their ears; and again, He said, They that are far off shall hear with their ears; they shall know what I have done; and be made brit-milah, said אִיִּי, in your lev;

2 And again, Shema Yisrael, for this says אִיִּי your Ahlohim; and again The Ruach of אִיִּי prophesied, Who is he that wishes to live le-olam va-ed? Let him listen to the voice of My Son.

3 And again He said, Listen, O shamayim and give ear, O earth, for אִיִּי has spoken these things for a testimony. And again He said, Listen to the voice of אִיִּי, you rulers of this people. And again He said, Listen children to the voice of one crying in the midbar.

4 To this end, therefore, has He made brit-milah to our hearing, that when we hear His Word, we should believe; for the brit milah in which they trust is done away with. For He has said that brit milah is not that which was made in the flesh alone; so they have transgressed, for an evil malach has deluded them.

5 He said to them, These things said אִיִּי your Ahlohim; so here I find a new mitzvah: Sow not among thorns but be made brit-milah to your אִיִּי. And what said He? Brit milah the hardness of your levavot and harden not your neck. And again, Behold, said אִיִּי, all the goyim are not in brit-milah in their foreskin but this nation is not in brit-milah in their levavot.

6 But he will say, Of an emet the people have been made brit-milah for a seal to them; but so, also, has every Syrian and Arabian and all the kohanim of idols. Do they also belong to the brit? The Egyptians also are in brit-milah.

7 Learn, therefore, children of ahava, richly concerning all things; that Avraham, who first gave brit-milah, made brit-milah, looking forward in The Ruach to אָהֶבְךָ, having received The Doctrines of The Three Letters.

8 For He said, So Avraham made brit-milah out of his household three hundred eighteen naphsoth. What, then, is the da'at that was given by this? Learn that he mentions the eighteen first and then, having made a pause, he mentions the three hundred naphsoth. In the eighteen, CH YAH, you have אָהֶבְךָ; and because the execution stake seen in the letter Tau was about to convey the unmerited chesed of redemption; He mentions also the three hundred. Therefore, he shows אָהֶבְךָ in the two letters, IH-YAH and the execution stake in the one, Taf. *That is, Iota and Eta and T The doctrine of the three letters.

9 He knows this, who has placed the engrafted gift of His teaching in us. No one has had from me a more emet account than this; but I know that you are worthy.

10 But in that Moshe said, You shall not eat the swine, or the eagle, or the hawk, or the crow, or any fish that has no scales in itself, he had in his mind three doctrines.

2 For in the end he said to them in Devarim and I will arrange before this people my mitzvot. The mitzvah of Ahlohim is not, therefore, that they should not eat only; but Moshe spoke in a spiritual sense as well.

3 He spoke of the swine with this meaning: You shall not cleave, He means, like men of this sort, who are like swine, for when they become filled up they forget אָהֶבְךָ but when they are in want they think upon אָהֶבְךָ; even as the swine when it eats knows not its Ahlohim but when it is hungry it cries and when it has received food it is again silent.

4 Nor shall you eat of the eagle, nor of the hawk, nor of the kite, nor of the crow. You shall not, He means, cleave to, nor be like men of this sort, who know not how to provide sustenance for themselves by labor and sweat but in their iniquity seize the property of others and, as though they walked in innocence, watch and observe whom they shall plunder, through their covetousness; even as these birds alone provide not sustenance for themselves by means of toil but, sitting idle, seek out how they may eat the flesh of others, being destructive by reason of their wickedness.

5 And you shall not eat, He said, of the lamprey, or the polypus, or the cuttle fish. You shall not, He means, cleave not to, or become like men of this sort, who are impious to the end and have been already condemned to death, even as these cursed fish alone swim in the depth, not floating as the others do but dwelling in the earth below the depth of the sea.

6 So, He said, You shall not eat the hare, meaning you shall not indulge in unnatural lusts;

7 Nor shall you eat the hyena, meaning you shall not be an adulterer;

8 Nor shall you eat the weasel, meaning you shall not do uncleanness with your mouth concerning food;

9 Therefore Moshe spoke in The Ruach these three doctrines. But they, according to the lusts of their flesh, received them as being only about kosher foods.

10 And Dawid receives da'at concerning the same three doctrines and said in like manner, Blessed is the man who has not walked in the counsel of the unrighteous, even as the unclean fish walk in darkness into the depths of the sea and has not stood in the derech of sinners, even as the unclean who pretend to fear אֱלֹהִים sin as does the swine and has not sat in the seat of the destroyers, even as the unclean birds that do sit for prey. You have also in the end a mitzvah concerning food;

11 But Moshe said, Eat everything that is cloven footed and that chews the cud. What means this? He that takes food knows Him that feeds him and, resting upon Him, seems to be glad. He therefore said well, having regard to the mitzvah. What then means this? Cleave to them that fear אֱלֹהִים, who walk in His mitzvah, which they have received in their levavot; to them that speak of the mitzvah of אֱלֹהִים and observe them, to them who know that the practice of them is a work of gilah and who meditate on the Word of אֱלֹהִים. But what means that which cleaves the hoof? It means that the tzadik walks even in this olam and expects the set apart chayim. Behold how well Moshe has made all these Torot.

12 But how was it possible for them to perceive, or understand these things? But we, having rightly understood the mitzvah and speak them even as אֱלֹהִים has willed. On this account has He made brit-milah our ears and levavot, that we should understand these things.

11 Let us inquire, therefore, if אֱלֹהִים cared to show us beforehand concerning the mayim and concerning the execution stake. Concerning the mayim, it is written, with respect to Yisrael, how that they will not receive the mikvah that brings remission of sins but will establish one for themselves.

2 The navi therefore speaks in this derech, Be astonished, O shamayim. And let the earth be afraid still more at this because this people have done two great and evil things: they have abandoned Me who am the fountain of chayim and have dug for themselves broken cisterns.

3 Is My set apart har of Tzion a deserted rock? You shall be as the young of a bird, which has flown when the nest has been taken away.

4 And again the navi said, I will go before you and will lay low the mountains. And I will break the doors of brass and burst the bars of iron; and I will give to you the treasures of darkness hidden and unseen, that they may know that I AM אלהים Ahlohim; and, he shall dwell in the lofty cave of the strong rock.

5 Then what says he of The Son? His mayim is faithful. You shall behold The Melech in His tifereth and your nephesh shall practice the reverence of אלהים.

6 And again, in another navi, he said, He that does these things shall be as an eytz that grows beside the mayim, which gives its fruit in its season; and its leaf shall not fall off and whatever it does shall prosper.

7 Not so are the unrighteous, not so; they are like the dust which the wind carries away from the face of the earth, so the unrighteous shall not rise up in the mishpat, nor sinners in the kehilla of the tzadik: for אלהים knows the derech of the tzadik but the derech of the unrighteous shall perish.

8 You perceive how He has put together the mayim and the execution stake. For what He means is this, Blessed are they who having hoped on the execution stake, have gone down into the mayim. For He speaks of a reward to be given at the due season; then, said He, I will render what is due to you. But now in that He said, Their leaves shall not fall off or go astray, He means this, That every word that goes out from your mouth in emunah and ahava shall be for a refuge and a tikvah to many.

9 And again another navi said, So the land of Yaakov was praised beyond the whole earth. By so saying He means this, He shall esteem the vessel that contains His Ruach.

10 And what says He afterwards? There was a river flowing on the right and there grew up on its banks fair eytzim and whosoever eats of them shall live le-olam-va-ed.

11 By this He means that we go down into the mayim full of sin and pollution and go up bearing fruit in the lev, having in The Ruach reverence and tikvah towards וַיִּשְׂרַח. And whoever shall eat of the fair eytzim, shall live le-olam-va-ed. He means this, Whoever, He said, shall hear these Words spoken and believes them, shall live le-olam-va-ed.

12 In like manner again He signifies concerning the execution stake in another navi, who said, So when shall these things be fulfilled? וַיִּשְׂרַח said, When the eytz has been bent and shall rise up again and when dahm shall flow from the eytz. You have again a prophecy concerning the execution stake and about Him who is about to be impaled.

2 And He said again in Moshe, when Yisrael was under attack by foreigners, even that He might remind them, while they were under attack, that for their sins they were being delivered over to death; The Ruach said to the lev of Moshe, that he should make the form of an execution stake, of Him who was about to suffer. For He says, If they shall not tikvah upon Him, they will be made war against le-olam-va-ed. Moshe, therefore, arranges weapon against weapon in the midst of the battle and standing higher than all, stretched out his hands and so again Yisrael conquered; then, when he let the hands down, they were again slaughtered.

3 Why? That they might know that they are not to be saved except they tikvah upon Him.

4 And again, in another navi, He said, All yom long have I stretched out My hands to a people who are disobedient and who speak against My tzadik derech.

5 Again, Moshe makes another type of וַיִּשְׂרָף , that it behooves that He should suffer and cause others to live, whom they thought that they had destroyed in figure when Yisrael was falling: For וַיִּשְׂרָף made every kind of serpent to bite them and they died, since the transgression happened to Chava by means of the serpent, to the end that He might convince them that through their transgression they should be given over to the cords of death.

6 For in the end Moshe himself, after he had given a mitzvah that there shall not be among you a molten image, or a graven image for an ahlahim, made one himself, that he might show a type of וַיִּשְׂרָף .

Moshe, therefore, makes a brazen serpent and sets it aloft and calls the people by a proclamation.

7 When, therefore, they had come together they sought Moshe, that he should offer supplication for them concerning their healing. Moshe therefore said to them, When any of you is bitten, let him come to the dead serpent, that is placed upon the eytz and let him believe and tikvah that, though it is dead, He is able to make it live and immediately a person shall be saved; and so they did. You have, therefore, again in these things also, the tifereth of וַיִּשְׂרָף that in Him and to Him are all things.

8 What did Moshe also say to Husha the son of Nun, after he had given the name YAH-Husha to him, being a navi? To this end alone, that all the people might hear and understand that The Abba reveals all things concerning The Son וַיִּשְׂרָף .

9 Moshe therefore said to Yahusha the son of Nun, having given him this name, when he sent him to spy out the land, Take the scroll into your hands and write what אֱלֹהִים said, even that The Son of Ahlohim, in the yamim ha-acharonim, will cut off the whole House of Amalek from the roots.

10 Behold, therefore, again אֱלֹהִים, not the son of humans but The Son of Ahlohim and through a type, was later made manifest in the flesh. Since, therefore, they should one yom say that Moshiach is the Son of Dawid, Dawid himself prophesies, being in reverence and in binah the deceitfulness of sinners, אֱלֹהִים said to my Adon, Sit as My Right Hand until I make Your enemies Your footstool.

11 And again Yeshayahu speaks in this derech, אֱלֹהִים said to Moshiach, My אֱלֹהִים, whose right hand I have held, that the goyim should listen to Him and I will break the strength of melechim. Behold how Dawid calls him אֱלֹהִים and does not call Him my human son.

13 Let us inquire, therefore, whether our people or the first brit people inherit all things and whether the brit is for us or for them.

2 Hear, now, what the Katuv said concerning the people. But Yitzchak made tefillah for Rivkah his isha because she was barren and she conceived. Then went forth Rivkah to inquire of אֱלֹהִים and אֱלֹהִים said to her, Two goyim are in your womb and two peoples are in your bowels and the one people shall surpass the other and the elder shall serve the younger.

3 We ought to understand who was Yitzchak and who was Rivkah and concerning whom He declared that the one people was greater than the other.

4 And in another prophecy Yaakov speaks yet more clearly to Yoseph his son, saying, Behold אֱלֹהִים has not deprived me of your face; bring to me your sons, that I may bless them.

5 And Yoseph brought to him Ephraim and Manasseh, wishing that he should bless Manasseh because he was the elder. Yoseph, therefore, brought him to the right hand of his abba Yaakov. But Yaakov saw in The Ruach a figure of the people that should be from now on. And what said the Ketuvim? And Yaakov crossed his hands and placed his right hand on the head of Ephraim, the second and youngest and blessed him. And Yoseph said to Yaakov, Change your right hand to the head of Manasseh because he is my bachor son. And Yaakov said to Yoseph, I know, my son, I know; but the elder shall serve the younger; but this one also shall be blessed.

6 Behold in what derech he appointed that this people should be the first and heir of the brit.

7 If, therefore, it were moreover mentioned through Avraham also, we have the perfecting of our da'at. What, therefore, said He to Avraham, when he alone believed and it was counted to him for tzedakah? Behold I have made you, Avraham, an abba of the goyim who though not in brit milah, first believe in אֱלֹהִים.

14 Yes but let us inquire whether He has given the brit that He swore to the ahvot, that He would give to the people. Verily He has given it; but they were not worthy to receive it on account of their sins.

2 For the navi said, So Moshe was fasting on Har Senai forty yamim and forty laylot, that he might receive the brit that אֱלֹהִים has made with His people. And he received from אֱלֹהִים the two tablets, that were written by The Ruach with the finger of the Hand of אֱלֹהִים. And Moshe, when he had received them, was bringing them down to the people to give it to them.

3 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Get down quickly, for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Mitzrayim, have done evil. And Moshe perceived that they had again made molten images and he cast the tablets from his hands and the tablets of the brit of אֱלֹהִים were broken.

4 Moshe indeed received them but the people were not worthy. Listen therefore, how we have received them. Moshe received them being an eved but אֱלֹהִים Himself gave it to us, to be a people of inheritance, having suffered for our sake.

5 And He was made manifest, that both they might be made full of their sins and that we, through Him that inherited, might receive the brit of The Adon אֱלֹהִים, who, for this purpose was prepared, that by appearing Himself and redeeming our levavot from darkness, which were already lavished on death and given over to the iniquity of deceit, He might place in us the renewed brit of His people.

6 For it is written how The Abba gave a mitzvah to Him, that having redeemed us from darkness, He should prepare for Himself a kadosh people.

7 Therefore the navi said, I, אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, have called You in tzedakah and I will hold Your hand and make You strong; and I have given You as a brit to the nation of Yisrael, for a Ohr to the goyim also, to open the eyes of the blind and to bring out of chains them that are bound and from the bayit of prison, those that sit in darkness. We know then from where we were redeemed.

8 And again, the navi said, Behold, I have placed You for A Ohr to the goyim, that you should be for My אֱלֹהִים, even to the ends of the earth; this said אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim who has redeemed you.

9 And again, the navi said, The Ruach of אִיִּי is upon Me because He has anointed Me to preach The Besorah to the poor, He has sent Me to heal those that are broken in lev, to preach deliverance to the captives and deliverance to the devastated, to tell of the acceptable year of אִיִּי and the yom of recompense, to comfort all that mourn.

15 And, moreover, concerning the Shabbat it is written in the Ten Mitzvoth in which He spoke on Har Senai to Moshe panayim-el-panayim: Sanctify the Shabbat of אִיִּי with pure hands and a pure lev.

2 And in another place He said, If my sons shall keep My Shabbat, then will I place My rachamim upon them.

3 He speaks, too, of the Shabbat in the beginning of the creation: And Ahlohim made in six yamim the works of His Hands and finished them on the seventh yom and rested on it and sanctified it.

4 Consider, my children, what significance have these words; He finished them in six yamim. They mean this: that in six thousand years, אִיִּי will make an end of all things; for a yom is with Him, as a thousand years. And He himself bears witness to me, saying: Behold this yom; a yom shall be as a thousand years. Therefore, my children, in six yamim, that is in six thousand years, shall all things be brought to an end.

5 And the Words, He rested on the seventh yom, have this significance: After that His Son has come and has caused to cease the time of the wicked one and has judged the unrighteous and repaired the shemesh and the yarayach and the cochavim, then shall He rest well on the seventh yom.

6 And further He said, You shall sanctify it with pure hands and a pure lev. Who, therefore, can sanctify the yom that אֱלֹהִים has sanctified, unless he is pure of lev? In all things, have we been deceived.

7 Behold, that then indeed we shall be able to rest well and sanctify it; even when we ourselves, having been justified and having received the promise, when iniquity exists no longer but when all things have been made new by אֱלֹהִים, we shall then be able to sanctify it, having been first fully sanctified ourselves.

8 And, furthermore, He said to them, Your new moons and your Shabbats I cannot endure. See, now, what He means. The Shabbats, that now are, are not acceptable to Me, but that which I have made is, even that in which, after that I have brought all things to an end, I shall make a beginning of the eighth yom, which thing is the beginning of another olam, the olam haba.

9 So we keep the eighth yom, as well as the Shabbat, as a yom of gilah, on which also מֵתִים was discovered risen from the dead and after which He had appeared and later ascended to the shamayim.

16 And I will, moreover, tell you concerning the Beit HaMikdash, how these wretched men, being deceived, placed their hopes in the building, as if it were the actual habitation of Ahlohim and not on the Ahlohim who made them.

2 For almost after the manner of the goyim, did they consecrate Him in the Beit HaMikdash. But what said אֱלֹהִים, when making it of no affect? Listen. Who has measured out the shamayim with His palm or the earth with the palm of His hand, is it not I, says אֱלֹהִים? The shamayim is My kesay and earth the footstool of My feet. What bayit will you build for Me or what shall be the place of My rest? You have known that their tikvah was vain.

3 And, yet further, He said again, Behold they that have destroyed this Beit HaMikdash shall rebuild it.

4 And so does it happen, for through their war it has been destroyed by the enemy and now both they themselves and the avadim of their enemies shall rebuild it.

5 And again it was made manifest how the Beit HaMikdash and the people of Yisrael should be given up to their enemies. For the Katuv said, So it shall come to pass in the yamim ha-acharonim that אֲנִי shall deliver up the sheep of His pasture and their fold and their tower shall He give up to destruction; and it happened according to that which אֲנִי had spoken.

6 Let us inquire, therefore, whether there is any Beit HaMikdash of Ahlohim. There is; even where He himself has declared that He would make and perfect it. For it is written, So it shall be when the week is completed, that the Beit HaMikdash of Ahlohim shall be rebuilt beautifully, in The Name of אֲנִי.

7 I find, therefore, that there is a Beit HaMikdash; how then shall it be built in The Name of אֲנִי? Learn. Before we believed in Ahlohim the habitation of our lev was corrupted and feeble, a temple built by our own hands. For it was full of idolatry and was a habitation of demons because we did such things as were contrary to Ahlohim;

8 But it shall be rebuilt in The Name of אֲנִי. Pay attention, so that the Beit HaMikdash of אֲנִי may be rebuilt beautifully. But in what manner will it be built? Listen: having received the remission of our sins and having hoped upon The Name of אֲנִי, we have become new, having been again created entirely new. So Ahlohim truly dwells in us as His habitation.

9 How? The Word of His emunah, the calling of His promise, the chochmah of His Torah ordinances, the mitzvot of His doctrines, He Himself prophesying in us, He himself dwelling in us. To us, who were enslaved by death, He opens the gate of the Beit HaMikdash, which is His mouth and giving us teshuvah, leads us into the incorruptible Beit HaMikdash.

10 For he who desires to be saved looks not to man but to Him that dwells in him and speaks in him, wondering that he had never before heard Him speaking such words out of his own mouth, or even desired to hear them. This is the spiritual Beit HaMikdash built by אֱלֹהִים.

17 So far as it is possible for me to show you these things with simplicity, my mind and nephesh have tikvah that I have not omitted any of the things that pertain to salvation;

2 For if I write to you concerning the things that are at hand or the things that will be from now on, you would not be able to understand them fully because they are couched in mishle. These simple things, therefore, I have written.

18 Let us pass on now to another kind of da'at and instruction. There are two paths of instruction and authority; the one of Ohr and the other of darkness. But there is a great difference between the two derachot. For over one, are appointed as overseers the malachim of Ahlohim and over the other the malachim of s.a.tan.

2 On the one side is He who is אֱלֹהִים, from everlasting to everlasting, on the other is the ruler of the olam that now lies in wickedness.

19 Now, the derech of chayim is this: If anyone wishes to travel to the appointed place, let him hurry it by means of his mitzvoth. Now, the da'at of walking in that which is given to us is this:

2 You shall love Him that made you, you shall fear Him that formed you and you shall esteem Him that redeemed you from death. You shall be simple in lev and rich in ruach; you shall not cleave to them that go in the derech of death. You shall hate whatever is not pleasing to Ahlohim; you shall hate all hypocrisy; you shall not abandon the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים;

3 You shall not exalt yourself; you shall be humble in all things; you shall not take tifereth for yourself; you shall not take evil counsel against your neighbor; you shall not take audacity into your nephesh.

4 You shall not commit fornication, you shall not commit adultery. You shall not pollute yourself with mankind: let not the Word of Ahlohim go forth from you in corruption. You shall not accept the status of anyone, in order to reprove any man for transgression. You shall be gentle, you shall be quiet; you shall tremble at the Words that you have heard; you shall not bear malice against your brother;

5 You shall not doubt whether a thing shall be or not; you shall not take The Name of אֱלֹהִים in vain. You shall love your neighbor beyond your own nephesh; you shall not kill a child by abortion, neither shall you destroy it after it is born. You shall not remove your hand from instructing your son or your daughter but shall teach them from their youth the fear of אֱלֹהִים.

6 You shall not covet your neighbor's goods; you shall not be an extortioner; you shall not cleave with your nephesh to the proud but you shall have your conversation with the lowly and the tzadik. Receive as brachot the troubles that come to you, knowing that without Ahlohim nothing happens.

7 You shall not be double minded nor double tongued, for to be double tongued is the snare of death. You shall submit yourself to your Torah teachers, as to the image of Ahlohim, with shame and fear. You shall not give commands with bitterness to your eved and your handmaid, who hopes in the same Ahlohim as you do, lest, perhaps, you cease to reverence Ahlohim, who is over both. For אֱלֹהִים came not to call men with respect of persons but to call only those whom The Ruach had prepared.

8 You shall share in all tov things with your neighbor and shall not say that things are your own. For if you are partners in that which is incorruptible, how much more in the things that are corruptible? You shall not be quick of speech, for the mouth is a snare of death. As far as you are able, you shall be pure concerning your nephesh.

9 Be not a stretcher forth of your hand to receive but draw it back for giving. You shall love, as the apple of your eye, everyone that instructs you in the Word of אֱלֹהִים.

10 You shall remember the Yom of Judgment by lyla and by yom; and you shall seek out every yom the persons of the kidushim.

11 You shall not doubt to give, nor shall you murmur in giving. Give to everyone that asks you and then you shall know who is the Tov Recompenser of the reward. You shall take care of that which you have received, neither adding to it, nor taking from it. You shall hate the evil of man to the end and shall judge justly.

12 You shall not make a schism but shall make shalom by bringing adversaries together. You shall make confession of your sins. You shall not go into tefillah with an evil conscience. This is the derech of chayim; laboring by means of the Word and proceeding to exhort and practicing to save the nephesh by the Word, or you shall work by your hands for the redemption of your sins.

20 But the derech of darkness is crooked and full of cursing, for it is the derech of eternal death and punishment, in which derech the things are that destroy the nephesh. Idolatry, boldness, the pride of power, hypocrisy, double heartedness, adultery, murder, rape, haughtiness, transgression, deceit, malice, self-will, witchcraft, sorcery, covetousness, lack of the reverence of Ahlohim.

2 These are those who are persecutors of the tov and the emet, they are lovers of lies; they who know not the reward of tzedakah, who cleave not to what is tov nor to tzadik mishpat; who attend not to the widow and the orphan; who are awake not for the reverence of Ahlohim but for evil; from whom meekness and patience are far off; who love the things that are vain, who follow after recompense, who pity not the poor, who labor not for him who is in trouble; who are prompt to evil speaking, who know not Him that made them; murderers of children, corruptors of the image of Ahlohim; who turn away from the poor man and oppress the afflicted; advocates of the rich, unjust shophtim of the poor, sinners in all things.

21 It is therefore right that he who has learned The Torah ordinances of אִתְּכֶם, even as many as have been written beforehand, should walk in them. For he who does these things shall be esteemed in the malchut of Ahlohim but he who chooses the contrary things, shall perish together with his works. On this account is the resurrection; on this account is the retribution.

2 I ask those who are of high estate among you, if you will receive any friendly advice from me; keep those with you, with whom you may do what is honorable. Fail not in so doing.

3 The yom is at hand in which everything shall perish together with the evil one; אףאז is near at hand and His reward also.

4 Again and again do I ask you, be tov Torah keepers over yourselves, be tov advisers over yourselves. Abide faithful counselors of one another; take out of the midst of you all hypocrisy,
5 And may Ahlohim, who rules the whole olam, give you chochmah, binah, science, da'at of His ordinances and patience.

6 And be taught by Ahlohim, inquiring what אףאז seeks of you and so do that work, that you may be found saved in the Yom of Judgment.

7 But if there is any memory of that which is tov, remember me while you practice these things, so that both your desire and your watching over it may turn to some tov.

8 I ask you this, asking it as chen to me. So long as the tov vessel is with you, fail not in any of these things but seek them out, without ceasing and fulfill all The Torah mitzvot, for these things are worthy.

9 Therefore I have been very excited to write to you, so far as I was able, so that I might give you simcha. Shalom, children of ahava and shalom; the Ahlohim of tifereth and of all unmerited chen be with your ruach. Ahmein. X

The First Scroll of Clement-Qlemes

From Clement a disciple of Peter. The kehilla of אֱלֹהִים which sojourns in Rome to the kehilla of אֱלֹהִים which sojourns in Corintyah, to them which are called and sanctified by the will of אֱלֹהִים through our Adon אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach. Grace to you and shalom from Almighty אֱלֹהִים through אֱלֹהִים Ha Moshiach be multiplied.

1 By reason of the sudden and repeated calamities and reverses which are befalling us, brethren, we consider that we have been somewhat tardy in giving heed to the matters of dispute that have arisen among you, dearly beloved and to the detestable and unholy sedition, so alien and strange to the elect of אֱלֹהִים, which a few headstrong and self-willed persons have kindled to such a pitch of madness that your name, once revered and renowned and lovely in the sight of all men, has been greatly reviled.

2 For who that had sojourned among you did not approve your most virtuous and steadfast emunah? Who did not admire your sober and forbearing piety in Moshiach? Who did not publish abroad your magnificent disposition of hospitality? Who did not congratulate you on your perfect and sound da'at?

3 For you did all things without respect of persons and you walked after the ordinances of אֱלֹהִים, submitting yourselves to your rulers and rendering to the older men among you the kavod, which is their due.

4 On the young too you enjoined modest and seemly thoughts: and the women you charged to perform all their duties in a blameless and seemly and pure conscience, cherishing their own husbands, as is meet; and you taught them to keep in the rule of obedience and to manage the affairs of their household in seemliness, with all discretion.

2 And you were all lowly in mind and free from arrogance, yielding rather than claiming submission, more glad to give than to receive and content with the provisions which אֱלֹהִים supplies. And giving heed to His Words, you laid them up diligently in your levavot and His sufferings were before your eyes.

2 So a profound and rich shalom was given to all and an insatiable desire of doing tov. An abundant outpouring also of The Ruach HaKadosh fell upon all;

3 And, being full of kadosh counsel, in excellent zeal and with a pious confidence you stretched out your hands to Almighty אֱלֹהִים, supplicating Him to be merciful, if unwillingly you had committed any sin.

4 You had conflict yom and lyla for all the brotherhood, that the number of His elect might be saved with fearfulness and intentness of mind.

5 You were sincere and simple and free from malice one towards another.

6 Every sedition and every schism was abominable to you. You mourned over the transgressions of your neighbors: you judged their shortcomings to be your own.

7 You repented not of any well-doing but were ready to every tov work.

8 Being adorned with a most virtuous and honorable chayim, you performed all your duties in the fear of Him. The mitzvoth and the ordinances of the Adon were written on the tablets of your levavot.

3 All tifereth and enlargement was given to you and that was fulfilled which is written My beloved ate and drank and was enlarged and waxed fat and kicked.

2 Then came jealousy and envy, strife and sedition, persecution and tumult, war and captivity.

3 So men were stirred up, the average against the honorable, the ill reputed against the highly reputed, the foolish against the wise, the young against the elder.

4 For this cause tzedakah and shalom stand aloof, while each man has forsaken the fear of the Master and become impaired in the emunah of Him, neither walks in the ordinances of His mitzvoth nor lives according to that which becomes Moshiach but each goes after the lusts of his evil lev, seeing that they have conceived an unrighteous and sinful jealousy, through which also death entered into the olam.

4 For so it is written, So it came to pass after certain yamim that Qayin brought of the fruits of the earth a sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים and Hevel he also brought of the firstlings of the sheep and of their fatness.

2 And אֱלֹהִים looked upon Hevel and upon his gifts but to Qayin and to his sacrifices He gave no heed.

3 And Qayin sorrowed exceedingly and his countenance fell.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to Qayin, Why are you very sorrowful and why did your countenance fall? If you have offered right and have not divided right, did you not sin? Hold your shalom.

5 Unto you shall he turn and you shall rule over him.[This last phrase has also been translated: Be at shalom: your offering returns to yourself and you shall again possess it.]

6 And Qayin said to Hevel his brother, Let us go over to the plain. And it came to pass, while they were in the plain that Qayin rose up against Hevel his brother and slew him.

7 You see, brethren, jealousy and envy worked a brother's murder.

8 By reason of jealousy our abba Yaakov ran away from the face of Esau his brother.

9 Jealousy caused Joseph to be persecuted even to death and to come even to bondage.

10 Jealousy compelled Moshe to flee from the face of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim while it was said to him by his own countryman, Who made you a shophet or a decider over us, Would you slay me, even as yesterday you slew the Mitzrite?

11 By reason of jealousy Aharon and Miryam were lodged outside the camp.

12 Jealousy brought Dathan and Aviram down alive to Sheol because they made sedition against Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים.

13 By reason of jealousy Dawid was envied not only by the Philistines but was persecuted also by Shaul melech of Yisrael.

5 But, to pass from the examples of ancient yamim, let us come to those champions who lived nearest to our time. Let us set before us the noble examples, which belong to our generation.

2 By reason of jealousy and envy the greatest and most tzadik pillars of the kehilla were persecuted and contended even to death.

3 Let us set before our eyes the tov shlichim.

4 There was Kefa who by reason of unrighteous jealousy endured not one but many labors and having borne his testimony went to his appointed place of tifereth.

5 By reason of jealousy and strife Sholiach Shaul by his example pointed out the prize of patient endurance. After that he had been seven times in bonds, had been driven into exile, had been stoned, had preached in the East and in the West, he won the noble renown which was the reward of his emunah,

6 Having taught tzedakah to the whole olam and having reached the farthest bounds of the West; and when he had borne his testimony before the rulers, so he departed from the olam and went to the kadosh place, having been found a notable pattern of patient endurance.

6 Unto these men of kadosh lives were gathered a vast multitude of the elect, who through many indignities and tortures, being the victims of jealousy, set a brave example among ourselves.

2 By reason of jealousy women being persecuted, after that they had suffered cruel and unholy insults as Danaids and Dircae, safely reached the goal in the race of emunah and received a noble reward, feeble though they were in gooff.

3 Jealousy has estranged wives from their husbands and changed the saying of our abba Ahdahm, This now is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh.

4 Jealousy and strife have overthrown great cities and uprooted great goyim.

7 These things, dearly beloved, we write, not only as admonishing you but also as putting ourselves in remembrance. For we are in the same halacha and the same contest awaits us.

2 Therefore let us forsake idle and vain thoughts; and let us conform to the wonderful and venerable rule which has been handed down to us;

3 And let us see what is tov and what is pleasant and what is acceptable in the sight of Him that made us.

4 Let us fix our eyes on the da'at of Moshiach and understand how precious it is to His Abba because being shed for our salvation it won for the whole olam the unmerited chen of teshuvah.

5 Let us review all the generations in turn and learn how from generation to generation the Master has given a place for teshuvah to them that desire to turn to Him.

6 Noach preached teshuvah and they that obeyed were saved.

7 Yonah preached destruction to the men of Nineveh; but they, repenting of their sins, obtained pardon from אֱלֹהִים by their supplications and received salvation, even though they were aliens from אֲרָצוֹת.

8 The ministers of the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים through The Ruach HaKadosh spoke concerning teshuvah.

2 Yes and the Master of the universe Himself spoke concerning teshuvah with an oath:

3 For, as I live says the Master, I desire not the death of the sinner, so much as his teshuvah,

4 And He added also a merciful mishpat; Shuv, O Beit Yisrael, of your iniquity; say to the sons of My people, Though your sins reach from the earth even to the shamayim and though they be redder than scarlet and blacker than sackcloth and you turn to Me with your whole lev and say Abba, I will give ear to you as to a kadosh people.

5 And in another place He says on this wise, Wash, be you clean. Put away your iniquities from your naphsoth out of My sight. Cease from your iniquities; learn to do tov; seek out mishpat; defend him that is wronged: give mishpat for the orphan and execute tzedakah for the widow; and come and let us reason together, says He; and though your sins be as crimson, I will make them white as snow; and though they be as scarlet, I will make them white as wool. And if you be willing and will listen to Me, you shall eat the tov things of the earth; but if you be not willing, neither listen to Me, a sword shall devour you; for the mouth of the Master has spoken these things.

6 Seeing then that He desires all His beloved to be partakers of teshuvah, He confirmed it by an act of His almighty will.

9 So let us be obedient to His excellent and wonderful will; and presenting ourselves as receivers of His rachamim and tovness, let us fall down before Him and receive His rachamim, forsaking the vain toil and the strife and the jealousy which leads to death.

2 Let us fix our eyes on them that ministered perfectly to His excellent tifereth.

3 Let us set before us Chanok, who being found tzadik in obedience was translated and his death was not found.

4 Noach, being found faithful, by his ministration preached regeneration to the olam and through him the Master saved the living creatures that entered into the ark in agreement.

10 Avraham, who was called the chaver, was found faithful in that he rendered obedience to the Words of אֱלֹהִים.

2 He through obedience went forth from his land and from his kindred and from his abba's bayit, that leaving a scanty land and a feeble kindred and an average bayit he might inherit the promises of אֱלֹהִים.

3 For He says to him Go forth from your land and from your kindred and from your abba's bayit to the land which I shall show you and I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you and will magnify your name and you shall be blessed. And I will bless them that bless you and I will curse them that curse you; and in you shall all the goyim of the earth shall be blessed-mixed.

4 And again, when he was parted from Lot, אֱלֹהִים said to him Look up with your eyes and behold from the place where you now are, to the north and the south and the sunrise and the sea; for all the land which you see, I will give it to you and to your zera le olam va-ed;

5 And I will make your zera as the dust of the earth. If any man can count the dust of the earth, then shall your zera also be counted.

6 And again He says; אֱלֹהִים led Avraham forth and said to him, Look up to the shamayim and count the cochavim and see whether you can number them. So shall your zera be. And Avraham believed אֱלֹהִים and it was reckoned to him for tzedakah.

7 For his emunah and hospitality a son was given to him in old age and by obedience he offered him as a sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים on one of the mountains which He showed him.

11 Or, his hospitality and Shabbat guarding piety

Lot was saved from Sedom, when all the country round about was judged by fire and brimstone; the Master having showed that He forsakes not them which set their tikvah on Him but appoints to punishment and torment them which swerve aside.

2 For when his isha had gone forth with him, being otherwise minded and not in accord, she was appointed for an ot le olam va-ed, so that she became a pillar of salt to this yom, that it might be known to all men that they which are double-minded and they which doubt concerning the Power of אֱלֹהִים are set for a mishpat and for a sign to all the generations.

12 For her emunah and hospitality Rahchav the harlot was saved.

2 For when the spies were sent forth to Yericho by Yahoshua the son of Nun, the melech of the land perceived that they were come to spy out his country and sent forth men to seize them, that being seized they might be put to death.

3 So the hospitable Rachav received them and hid them in the upper chamber under the flax stalks.

4 And when the messengers of the melech came near and said, The spies of our land entered in to you: bring them forth, for the melech so orders: then she answered, The men truly, whom you seek, entered in to me but they departed immediately and are sojourning on the derech; and she pointed out to them the opposite road.

5 And she said to the men, Of a guarantor I perceive that the Master your אֱלֹהִים delivers this city to you; for the fear and the dread of you is fallen upon the inhabitants of it. When therefore it shall come to pass that you take it, save me and the bayit of my abba.

6 And they said to her, It shall be even so as you have spoken to us. When therefore you perceive that we are coming, you shall gather all your folks beneath your roof and they shall be saved; for as many as shall be found outside the bayit shall perish.

7 And moreover they gave her an ot, that she should hang out from her bayit a scarlet thread, thereby showing beforehand that through the dahm of the Master there shall be redemption to all them that believe and tikvah on אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

8 You see, dearly beloved, not only emunah but prophecy, is found in the woman.

13 Let us therefore be lowly minded, brethren, laying aside all arrogance and conceit and folly and anger and let us do that which is written. For The Ruach HaKadosh says, Let not the wise man boast in his chochmah, nor the strong in his strength, neither the rich in his riches; but he that boasts let him boast in the Master, that he may seek Him out and do mishpat and tzedakah most of all remembering the Words of HaAdon אֱלֹהֵינוּ which He spoke, teaching forbearance and longsuffering:

2 For this He spoke, Have rachamim, that you may receive rachamim: forgive, that it may be forgiven to you. As you do, so shall it be done to you. As you give, so shall it be given to you. As you judge, so shall you be judged. As you show kindness, so shall kindness be shown to you. With what measure you mete, it shall be measured back to you.

3 With this commandment and these precepts let us confirm ourselves, that we may walk in obedience to His kadosh Words, with lowliness of mind.

4 For the kadosh Word says, Upon whom shall I look, save upon him that is gentle and quiet and fears My Words?

14 Therefore it is right and proper, brethren, that we should be obedient to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, rather than follow those who in arrogance and unruliness have set themselves up as leaders in abominable jealousy.

2 For we shall bring upon us no common harm but rather great peril, if we surrender ourselves recklessly to the purposes of men who launch out into strife and seditions, so as to estrange us from that which is right.

3 Let us be tov one towards another according to the rachamim and sweetness of Him that made us. For it is written:

4 The tov shall be dwellers in the land and the innocent shall be left on it but they that transgress shall be destroyed utterly from it.

5 And again He says I saw the sinful lifted up on high and exalted as the cedars of Lebanon. And I passed by and behold he was not; and sought out his place and I found it not. Keep innocence and behold uprightness; for there is a remnant for the man of shalom.

15 Therefore let us cleave to them that practice shalom with Shabbat guarding piety and not to them that desire shalom with secret vice.

2 For He says in a certain place, This people honors Me with their lips but their lev is far from Me,

3 And again, they blessed with their mouth but they cursed with their lev.

4 And again He says, They loved Him with their mouth and with their tongue they lied to Him; and their lev was not upright with Him, neither were they steadfast in His brit.

5 For this cause let the deceitful lips be made dumb which speak iniquity against the tzadik. And again May the Master utterly destroy all the deceitful lips, the tongue that speaks proud things, even them that say, Let us magnify our tongue; our lips are our own; who is master over us?

6 For the misery of the needy and for the groaning of the poor I will now arise, says the Master. I will set him in safety; I will deal boldly by him.

16 For Moshiach is with them that are lowly of mind, not with them that exalt themselves over the flock.

2 The scepter of the majesty of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, even our Adon אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, came not in the pomp of arrogance or of pride, though He might have done so but in lowliness of mind, according as The Ruach HaKadosh spoke concerning Him.

3 For He says Master, who believed our report? And to whom was the arm of HaAdon revealed? We announced Him in His presence. As a child was He, as a root in a thirsty ground. There is no form in Him, neither tifereth. And we beheld Him and He had no form nor tifereth but His form was average, lacking more than the form of men. He was a man of stripes and of toil and knowing how to bear infirmity: for His face is turned away. He was dishonored and held of no account.

4 He bears our sins and suffers pain for our sakes: and we accounted Him to be in toil and in stripes and in affliction.

5 And He was wounded for our sins and has been afflicted for our iniquities. The chastisement of our shalom is upon Him. With His bruises we were healed.

6 We all went astray like sheep, each man went astray in his own derech:

7 And HaAdon delivered Him over for our sins. And He opens not His mouth because He is afflicted. As a sheep He was led to slaughter; and as a Lamb before its shearer is dumb, so opens He not His mouth. In His humiliation, His mishpat was taken away.

8 His generation who shall declare? For His chayim is taken away from the earth.

9 For the iniquities of My people He is come to death.

10 And I will give the wicked for His burial and the rich for His death; for He worked no iniquity, neither was guile found in His mouth. And HaAdon desires to cleanse Him from His stripes.

11 If you offer for sin, your nephesh shall see a long lived zera.

12 And HaAdon desires to take away from the toil of His nephesh, to show Him Ohr and to mold Him with binah, to justify a Just One that is a Tov Eved to many. And He shall bear their sins.

13 Therefore He shall inherit many and shall divide the spoils of the strong; because His nephesh was delivered to death and He was reckoned to the transgressors;

14 And He bare the sins of many and for their sins was He delivered up.

15 And again He Himself says; But I AM a worm and no man, a reproach of men and an outcast of the people.

16 All they that beheld Me mocked at Me; they spoke with their lips; they wagged their heads, saying, He hoped on HaAdon; let Him deliver Him, or let Him save Him, for He desires Him.

17 You see, dearly beloved, what is the pattern that has been given to us; for, if HaAdon was lowly of mind, what should we do, who through Him have been brought under the yoke of His unmerited chen?

17 Let us be imitators also of them which went about in goatskins and sheepskins, preaching the coming of Moshiach. We mean Eliyahu and Elisha and likewise Yechezkel, the neviim and besides them those men also that obtained a tov report.

2 Avraham obtained an exceeding tov report and was called the chaver of אֱלֹהִים; and looking steadfastly on the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים, he says in lowliness of mind, But I am dust and ashes.

3 Moreover concerning Iyov also it is written; And Iyov was tzadik and unblameable, one that was emet and esteemed אֱלֹהִים and abstained from all evil.

4 Yet he himself accuses himself saying, No one is pure from pollution, even if his chayim be but for one yom.

5 Moshe was called faithful in all his bayit and by his ministry אֱלֹהִים judged His people Yisrael by stripes and punishment. Though greatly esteemed, yet he spoke no proud words but said when a mitzvah was given to him at the bush, Who am I, that You send me? No, I am feeble of speech and slow of tongue.

6 And again he says, But I am just smoke from the pot.

18 But what must we say of Dawid that obtained a tov report? Of whom אֱלֹהִים said, I have found a man after My lev, Dawid the son of Yishai: with eternal rachamim have I anointed him.

2 Yet he too says to אֱלֹהִים, Have rachamim upon me, O אֱלֹהִים, according to Your great rachamim;
and according to the multitude of Your rachamim, blot out my iniquity.

3 Wash me yet more from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin. For I acknowledge my iniquity and my sin is ever before me. Against You only did I sin and I worked evil in Your sight; that You may be justified in Your Words and may conquer through Your mishpat.

4 For behold, in iniquities was I conceived and in sins did my emma bear me. For behold You have loved emet: the dark and hidden things of Your chochmah have You showed to me.

5 You shall sprinkle me with hyssop and I shall be made clean. You shall wash me and I shall become whiter than snow.

6 You shall make me to hear of simcha and gilah. The bones which have been humbled shall rejoice.

7 Turn away Your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.

8 Make a clean lev within me, O אֱלֹהִים and renew a right ruach in my inmost parts. Cast me not away from Your presence and take not Your Ruach HaKadosh from me.

9 Restore to me the simcha of Your שׂוֹפְרוֹת and strengthen me with a princely Ruach.

10 I will teach sinners Your derachot and Torahless men shall be converted to You.

11 Deliver me from dahm guiltiness, O אֱלֹהִים, the אֱלֹהִים of my שׂוֹפְרוֹת. My tongue shall rejoice in Your tzedakah.

12 Master, You shall open my mouth and my lips shall declare Your tehilla.

13 For, if You had desired sacrifice, I would have given it: in whole burnt offerings You will have no pleasure.

14 A sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים is a contrite ruach; a contrite and humbled lev אֱלֹהִים will not despise.

19 The humility therefore and the submissiveness of so many and so great men, who have obtained a tov report, has through obedience made better not only us but also the generations which were before us, even them that received His Words in fear and emet.

2 Seeing then that we have been partakers of many great and wonderful doings, let us hurry to return to the goal of shalom which has been handed down to us from the beginning and let us look steadfastly to The Abba and Maker of the whole olam and cleave to His splendid and excellent gifts of shalom and benefits.

3 Let us behold Him in our mind and let us look with the eyes of our nephesh to His longsuffering will. Let us note how free from anger He is towards all His creatures.

20 The shamayim are moved by His direction and obey Him in shalom.

2 Yom and lyla accomplish the course assigned to them by Him, without hindrance one to another.

3 The shemesh and the yarayach and the dancing cochavim according to His appointment circle in harmony within the bounds assigned to them, without any swerving aside.

4 The earth, bearing fruit in fulfillment of His will at her proper moadem, puts forth the food that supplies abundantly both men and beasts and all living things which are upon it, making no changes, neither altering anything which He has decreed.

5 The unsearchable things of the abyss and the secret ordinances of the lower parts of the earth, are held together by the same command.

6 The basin of the boundless sea, gathered together by His workmanship into it's reservoirs, passes not the barriers with which it is surrounded; but even as He ordered it, so it does.

7 For He said, So far shall you come and your waves shall be broken within you.

8 The ocean which is impassable for men and the worlds beyond it, are directed by the same ordinances of the Master.

9 The moadem of spring and summer and autumn and winter give derech in succession one to another in shalom.

10 The fixed stations of the winds, each in their due time, perform their services without offence. The ever flowing fountains, made for enjoyment and health, offer their breasts without fail to sustain the chayim of men. Even the smallest of animals come together in shalom and harmony.

11 All these things the great Creator and Master of the universe ordered to be in shalom and agreement, doing tov to all things but far beyond others, to us, who have taken refuge in His compassionate rachamim through our Adon אדונינו Ha Moshiach;

12 To whom be the tifereth and the majesty le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

21 Look you, brethren, lest His benefits, which are many, turn to mishpat to all of us, if we walk not worthy of Him and do those things which are tov and well pleasing in His sight with agreement.

2 For He says in a certain place, The Ruach of the Master is a lamp searching the closets of the belly.

3 Let us see how near He is and how that nothing escapes Him of our thoughts or our devices which we make.

4 It is right therefore that we should not be deserters from His will.

5 Let us rather give offence to foolish and senseless men who exalt themselves and boast in the arrogance of their words, than to אִיִּים.

6 Let us fear the Adon אֱלֹהֵינוּ [Moshiach], whose dahm was given for us. Let us reverence our rulers; let us esteem our zechanim; let us instruct our young men in the lessons of the fear of אֱלֹהֵינוּ. Let us guide our women toward that which is tov:

7 Let them show forth their lovely disposition of purity; let them prove their sincere affection of gentleness; let them make manifest the moderation of their tongue through their silence; let them show their ahava, not in factious preferences but without partiality towards all them that fear אֱלֹהֵינוּ, in kedoosha. Let our children be partakers of the instruction which is in Moshiach:

8 Let them learn how lowliness of mind prevails with אֱלֹהֵינוּ, what power ahava has with אֱלֹהֵינוּ, how the fear of Him is tov and great and saves all them that walk in it in a pure mind with kedoosha.

9 For He is the searcher of the intents and desires; whose Ruach is in us and when He desires, He shall take it away.

22 Now all these things the emunah which is in Moshiach confirms: for He Himself through The Ruach HaKadosh invites: Come, My children, listen to Me, I will teach you the fear of HaAdon.

2 What man is he that desires chayim and loves to see tov yamim?

3 Make your tongue to cease from evil and your lips that they speak no guile.

4 Turn aside from evil and do tov.

5 Seek shalom and ensue it.

6 The eyes of HaAdon are over the tzadik and His ears are turned to their tefillot. But the face of HaAdon is upon them that do evil, to destroy their memory from the earth.

7 The tzadik cried out and HaAdon heard him and delivered him from all his troubles. Many are the troubles of the tzadik and HaAdon shall deliver him from them all.

8 And again, Many are the stripes of the sinner but them that set their tikvah on HaAdon, rachamim shall surround them.

23 The Abba, who is pitiful in all things and ready to do tov, has rachamim on them that fear Him and kindly and lovingly bestows His favors on them that draw near to Him with a single mind.

2 Therefore let us not be double-minded, neither let our nephesh indulge in idle humors respecting His exceeding and wonderful gifts.

3 Let this Katuv be far from us where He says Wretched are the double-minded, Which doubt in their nephesh and say, These things we did hear in the yamim of our ahvot also and behold we have grown old and none of these things has befallen us.

4 You fools, compare yourselves to an eytz; take a vine. First it sheds its leaves, then a shoot comes, then a leaf, then a flower and after these a sour berry, then a full ripe grape. You see that in a little time the fruit of the eytz attains to maturity.

5 Of an emet quickly and suddenly shall His will be accomplished, the Katuv also bearing witness to it, saying He shall come quickly and shall not tarry; and HaAdon shall come suddenly into His Beit HaMikdash, even the Kadosh One, whom you expect.

24 Let us understand, dearly beloved, how the Master continually shows to us the resurrection that shall be later; when He made HaAdon $\omega\psi\chi\theta$ Ha Moshiach, The Bikkur when He raised Him from the dead.

2 Let us behold, dearly beloved, the resurrection which happens at its proper season.

3 Yom and lyla show to us the resurrection. The lyla falls asleep and yom arises; the yom departs and lyla comes on.

4 Let us mark the fruits, how and in what manner the sowing takes place.

5 The sower goes forth and casts into the earth each of the zera; and these falling into the earth dry and bare decay: then out of their decay the might of the Master's providence raises them up and from being one they increase manifold and bear fruit.

25 Let us consider the marvelous of which is seen in the regions of the east, that is, in the parts around Arabia.

2 There is a bird, which is named The Phoenix. This, being the only one of its kind, lives for five hundred years; and when it has now reached the time of its end that it should die, it makes for itself a coffin of frankincense and myrrh and the other spices, into which in the fullness of time it enters and so it dies.

3 But as its flesh rots, a certain worm is produced, which being nourished by the moisture of the dead animal, puts forth feathers. Then, when it has become strong, it takes the nest in which are the bones of its ancestor and bearing them, it flies from the region of Arabia to that of Mitzrayim, to the city which is called City of The Shemesh;

4 And in the daytime in the sight of all, flying to the altar of the shemesh, it lays them upon it; and this done, it sets forth to return.

5 So the kohanim examine the registers of the times and they find that it has come when the five hundredth year is completed.

26 Do we then think it to be a great and marvelous thing, if The Creator of the universe shall bring about the resurrection of them that have served Him with kedoosha in the assurance of a tov emunah, seeing that He shows to us, even by a bird the magnificence of His promise?

2 For He says in a certain place And You shall raise me up and I will tehilla You; and; I went to rest and sleep, I was awakened, for You are with me.

3 And again Iyov says, So You shall raise this my flesh which has endured all these things.

27 With this tikvah therefore let our naphsoth be bound to Him that is faithful in His promises and that is tzadik in His mishpatim.

2 He that commanded not to lie, much more shall He Himself not lie: for nothing is impossible with אֱלֹהִים except to lie.

3 Therefore let our emunah in Him be kindled within us and let us understand that all things are near to Him.

4 By a Word of His majesty He compacted the universe; and by a Word He can destroy it.

5 Who shall say to Him, What have you done? Or, who shall resist the might of His strength? When He desires and as He desires, He will do all things; and nothing shall pass away of those things that He has decreed.

6 All things are in His sight and nothing escapes His counsel,

7 Seeing that the shamayim declare the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים and the firmament proclaims His handiwork. Yom utters Word to yom and lyla proclaims da'at to lyla; and there are neither Words nor speeches, whose voices are not heard.

28 Since therefore all things are seen and heard,

let us fear Him and forsake the abominable lusts of evil works, that we may be shielded by His rachamim from the coming mishpatim.

2 For where can any of us escape from His strong Hand? And what olam will receive any of them that desert His service?

3 For the kadosh Ketuvim say in a certain place Where shall I go and where shall I be hidden from Your face? If I ascend into the shamayim, You are there; if I depart into the farthest parts of the earth, there is Your Right Hand; if I make my bed in the depths, there is Your Ruach.

4 Where then shall one depart, or where shall one flee, from Him that embraces the universe?

29 Let us therefore approach Him in kedoosha of nephesh, lifting up pure and undefiled hands to Him, with ahava towards our gentle and compassionate
Abba who made us an elect portion to Himself.

2 For it is written: When אֱלֹהִים divided the goyim, when He dispersed the sons of Ahdam, He fixed the boundaries of the goyim according to the number of the malachim of אֱלֹהִים. His people Yaakov became the portion of the Master and Yisrael the measurement of His inheritance.

3 And in another place He says, Behold, HaAdon takes for Himself a nation out of the midst of the goyim, as a man takes the bikkurim of his threshing floor; and the Kadosh HaKedoshim shall come forth from that nation.

30 Seeing then that we are the special portion of a kadosh אֱלֹהִים, let us do all things that pertain to kedoosha, forsaking evil speech, abominable and impure embraces, drunkenness and tumults and hateful lusts, abominable adultery, hateful pride.

2 For אֱלֹהִים, He says, resists the proud but gives unmerited chen to the lowly.

3 Let us therefore cleave to those to whom unmerited chen is given from אֱלֹהִים. Let us clothe ourselves in agreement, being lowly minded and temperate, holding ourselves apart from all back biting and evil speaking, being justified by works also and not just by words.

4 For He says, He that says much shall hear also again. Does the fast talker think he is tzadik?

5 Blessed is the offspring of a woman that lives but a short time. Be not abundant in words.

6 Let our tehilla be with אֱלֹהִים and not of ourselves: for אֱלֹהִים hates them that tehilla themselves.

7 Let the testimony to our well doing be given by others, as it was given to our ahvot who were tzadik.

8 Boldness and arrogance and daring are for them that are cursed of אֱלֹהִים; but forbearance and humility and gentleness are with them that are blessed of אֱלֹהִים.

31 Let us therefore cleave to His bracha and let us see what are the derachot of bracha. Let us study the records of the things that have happened from Beresheeth.

2 Why was our abba Avraham blessed? Was it not because he worked tzedakah and emet through emunah?

3 Yitzchak with confidence, as knowing the future, was led as a willing sacrifice.

4 Yaakov with humility departed from his land because of his brother and went to Lavan and served; and the twelve tribes of Yisrael were given to him.

32 If any man will consider them one by one in sincerity, he shall understand the magnificence of the gifts that are given by Him.

2 For from Yaakov are all the kohanim and leviim who minister at the altar of אֱלֹהִים; of him is HaAdon אֱלֹהִים as concerning the flesh; of him are melechim and rulers and governors in the line of Yahudah; yes and the rest of his tribes are held in no small kavod, seeing that אֱלֹהִים promised saying, Your zera shall be as the cochavim of the shamayim.

3 They all therefore were esteemed and magnified, not through themselves or their own works or the tzadik doing which they did but through His will.

4 And so we, having been called through His will in Moshiach אֱלֹהִים, are not justified through ourselves or through our own chochmah or binah or piety or works which we did in kedoosha of lev but through emunah, by which The Almighty אֱלֹהִים justified all men that have been from Beresheeth; to whom be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

33 What then must we do, brethren? Must we idly abstain from doing tov and forsake ahava? May the Master never allow this to befall us at least; but let us hurry with determination and zeal to accomplish every tov work.

2 For The Creator and Master of the universe Himself rejoices in His works.

3 For by His exceeding great might He established the shamayim and by His incomprehensible chochmah He set them in order. And the earth He separated from the mayim that surrounds it and He set it firm on the sure foundation of His own will; and the living creatures which walk upon it, He commanded to exist by His ordinance. Having before created the sea and the living creatures in it, He enclosed it by His own Power.

4 Above all, as the most excellent and exceeding great work of His intelligence, with His kadosh and faultless hands, He formed man in the imprint of His own image.

5 For this says אֱלֹהִים: Let us make man after our image and after our likeness. And אֱלֹהִים made man; male and female, made He them.

6 So having finished all these things, He praised them and blessed them and said, Increase and multiply.

7 We have seen that all the tzadikim were adorned in tov works. Yes and HaAdon Himself having adorned Himself with many worlds rejoiced.

8 Seeing then that we have this pattern, let us conform ourselves with all diligence to His will; let us with all our strength work the work of tzedakah.

34 The tov workman receives the lechem of his work with boldness but the slothful and careless dares not look his employer in the face.

2 It is therefore needful that we should be zealous to well doing, for of Him are all things:

3 Since He warns us saying, Behold, HaAdon and His reward is before His face, to recompense each man according to his work.

4 He exhorts us therefore to believe on Him with our whole lev and to be not idle nor careless to every tov work.

5 Let our boast and our confidence be in Him: let us submit ourselves to His will; let us mark the whole hosts of His malachim, how they stand by and minister to His will.

6 For the Katuv says, Ten thousands of ten thousands stood by Him and thousands of thousands ministered to Him: and they cried aloud, Kadosh, kadosh, kadosh is אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot; all creation is full of His tifereth.

7 Yes and let us ourselves then, being gathered together in agreement with intentness of lev, cry to Him as from one mouth earnestly that we may be made partakers of His great and wonderful promises.

8 For He says, Eye has not seen and ear has not heard and it has not entered into the lev of man what great things He has prepared for them that patiently await Him.

35 How blessed and marvelous are the gifts of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, dearly beloved.

2 Chayim in immortality, splendor in tzedakah, emet in boldness, emunah in confidence, temperance in sanctification. And all these things fall under our apprehension.

3 What then, think on the things He is preparing for them that patiently await Him? The Creator and Abba of the ages, the All Kadosh One Himself knows their number and their tifereth.

4 Let us therefore contend, that we may be found in the number of those that patiently await Him, to the end that we may be partakers of His promised gifts.

5 But how shall this be, dearly beloved? If our mind be fixed through emunah towards אֱלֹהֵינוּ; if we seek out those things which are well pleasing and acceptable to Him; if we accomplish such things as becomes His faultless will and follow the derech of emet, casting off from ourselves all unrighteousness and iniquity, covetousness, strifes, malignities and deceits, whisperings and backbitings, hatred of אִפְּאֵר, pride and arrogance, vain esteem and inhospitality.

6 For they that do these things are hateful to אִפְּאֵר; and not only they that do them but they also that consent to them.

7 For אִפְּאֵר in the Katuv says to the sinner, Why do you declare My ordinances and take My brit upon your lips?

8 Yet You did hate Torah and did cast away My Words behind you. If you saw a thief you did keep company with him and with the adulterers you did set your portion. Your mouth multiplied wickedness and your tongue wove deceit. You sat and spoke against your brother and against the son of your emma you did lay a stumbling block.

9 These things You have done and I kept silence. You thought, unrighteous man, that I should be like you.

10 I will convict you and will set you panayim-el-panayim with yourself.

11 Now understand these things, you that forget אִפְּאֵר, lest at any time He seize you as a lion and there be none to deliver.

12 The sacrifice of tehilla shall esteem Me and there is the derech in which I will show him the oֹמֵר אִפְּאֵר of אִפְּאֵר.

36 This is the derech, dearly beloved, in which we found our salvation, even Yahushua Ha Moshiach the Kohen HaGadol of our offerings, the Guardian and Helper of our weakness.

2 Through Him let us look steadfastly to the heights of the shamayim; through Him we behold as in a mirror His faultless and most excellent visage; through Him the eyes of our levavot were opened; through Him our foolish and darkened mind springs up to the Ohr; through Him the Master willed that we should taste of the immortal da'at Who being the brightness of His majesty is so much greater than malachim, as He has inherited a more excellent Name.

3 For so it is written, Who makes His malachim ruachim and His ministers a flame of fire

4 But of His Son the Master said this, You are My Son, I this yom have begotten You. Ask of Me and I will give You the goyim for Your inheritance and the ends of the earth for Your possession.

5 And again He says to Him Sit as My Right Hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.

6 Who then are these enemies? They that are wicked and resist His will.

37 Let us therefore enlist ourselves, brethren, with all earnestness in His faultless ordinances.

2 Let us mark the soldiers that are enlisted under our rulers, how exactly, how readily, how submissively, they execute the orders given them.

3 All are not prefect soldiers, nor rulers of thousands, nor rulers of hundreds, nor rulers of fifties and so forth; but each man in his own rank executes the orders given by the melech and the governors.

4 The great without the small cannot exist, neither the small without the great. There is a certain mixture in all things and in that is much usefulness.

5 Let us take our gooff as an example. The head without the feet is nothing; so likewise the feet without the head are nothing: even the smallest limbs of our gooff are necessary and useful for the whole gooff: but all the members are echad and unite in subjection to each other, that the whole gooff may be saved.

38 So in our case let the whole gooff be saved in Moshiach Yahushua and let each man be subject to his neighbor, according as also he was appointed with his special unmerited chen.

2 Let not the strong neglect the weak; and let the weak respect the strong. Let the rich minister and give aid to the poor; and let the poor give hodu to אֵלֹהֵינוּ because He has given him one through whom his wants may be supplied. Let the wise display his chochmah, not in words but in tov mitzvoth. He that is lowly in mind, let him not bear testimony to himself but leave testimony to be borne to him by his neighbor. He that is pure in the flesh, let him be so and not boast, knowing that it is another person who bestows his rachamim upon him.

3 Let us consider, brethren, of what matter we were made; who and what manner of beings we were, when we came into the olam; from what a sepulcher and what darkness He that molded and created us brought us into His olam, having prepared His benefits before we were ever born.

4 Seeing therefore that we have all these things from Him, we ought in all things to give hodu to Him, to whom be the tifereth le-olam va-ed. Ahmein.

39 Senseless and stupid and foolish and ignorant men jeer and mock at us, desiring that they themselves should be exalted in their imaginations.

2 For what power has a mortal? Or, what strength has a child of the earth?

3 For it is written; There was no form before my eyes; only I heard a breath and a voice.

4 What then? Shall a mortal be clean in the sight of HaAdon; or shall a man be without blame for his works? Seeing that He is distrustful against His avadim and notes some perversity against His malachim.

5 No, the lower shamayim are not clean in His sight. Away then, you that dwell in houses of clay, even of the same clay that we ourselves are made. He smote them like a moth and from boker to evening they are no more. Because they could not help themselves, they perished.

6 He breathed on them and they died because they had no chochmah.

7 But call you, if perhaps one shall obey you, or if you shall see one of the kadosh malachim. For wrath kills the foolish man and envy slays him that has gone astray.

8 And I have seen fools throwing out roots, but immediately their habitation was eaten up.

9 Far be their sons from safety. May they be mocked at the gates of inferiors and there shall be none to deliver them. For the things which are prepared for them, the tzadik shall eat; but they themselves shall not be delivered from evils.

40 Forasmuch then as these things are manifest beforehand and we have searched into the depths of the Divine da'at, we ought to do all things in order, as many as the Master has commanded us to perform at their appointed moadem.

2 Now the offerings and ministrations He commanded to be performed with care and not to be done rashly or in disorder but at fixed times and moadem.

3 And where and by whom He would have them performed, He Himself fixed by His supreme will: that all things being done with piety according to His tov pleasure might be acceptable to His will.

4 They therefore that make their offerings at the appointed moadem are acceptable and blessed: for while they follow the institutions of the Master they cannot go wrong.

5 For to the Kohen HaGadol his proper services have been assigned and to the kohanim their proper office is appointed and upon the levim their proper ministrations are laid. The layman is bound by the layman's ordinances.

41 Let each of you, brethren, in his own order give hodu to אלהים, maintaining a tov conscience and not transgressing the appointed rules of his service but acting in order.

2 Not in every place, brethren, are the continual daily sacrifices offered, or the freewill offerings, or the sin offerings and the trespass offerings but in Yahrushalayim alone. And even there, the offering is not made in every place but before the sanctuary in the court of the altar; and this too through the Kohen HaGadol and the appointed ministers, after that the victim to be offered has been inspected for blemishes.

3 They therefore who do anything contrary to the seemly ordinance of His will receive death as the penalty.

4 You see, brethren, in proportion as greater da'at has been entrusted to us, so much the more are we exposed to danger.

42 The shlichim received the Besorah for us from HaAdon Yahushua Ha Moshiach; Yahushua Ha Moshiach was sent forth from אלהים.

2 So then Moshiach is from אלהים and the shlichim are from Moshiach. Both therefore came of the will of אלהים in the appointed order.

3 Having therefore received a charge and having been fully assured through the resurrection of our Adon Yahushua Ha Moshiach and confirmed in the Word of אֱלֹהִים with full assurance of The Ruach Ha Kodesh, they went forth with the Besorah that the malchut of אֱלֹהִים should come.

4 So preaching everywhere in country and town, they appointed their bikkurim, when they had proved them by The Ruach, to be overseers and zechanim to them that should believe.

5 And this they did in no new fashion; for indeed it had been written concerning overseers and zechanim from very ancient times; for this says the Katuv in a certain place, I will appoint their overseers in tzedakah and their zechanim in emunah.

43 And what marvel is it, if they which were entrusted in Moshiach, with such a work by אֱלֹהִים, appointed such zechanim and leaders? Seeing that even the blessed Moshe who was a faithful eved in all His bayit, recorded for an ot in the kadosh scrolls, all things that were required of him. And him also the rest of the neviim followed, bearing witness with him to the Torot that were ordained by him.

2 For he, when jealousy arose concerning the kohanut and there was dissension among the tribes, which of them was adorned with the wonderful Name, commanded the twelve chiefs of the tribes to bring to him rods inscribed with the name of each tribe. And he took them and tied them and sealed them with the signet rings of the chiefs of the tribes and put them away in the sukkah of the testimony on the shulchan of אֱלֹהִים.

3 And having shut the sukkah he sealed the keys and likewise also the doors.

4 And he said to them, Brethren, the tribe whose rod shall bud, this has אֱלֹהִים chosen to be kohanim and ministers to Him.

5 Now when boker came, he called together all Yisrael, even the six hundred thousand men and showed the seals to the chiefs of the tribes and opened the sukkah of the testimony and drew forth the rods. And the rod of Aharon was found not only with buds but also bearing fruit.

6 What think you, dearly beloved? Did not Moshe know beforehand that this would come to pass? Assuredly he knew it. But that disorder might not arise in Yisrael, he did this, to the end that The Name of the emet and only אֱלֹהֵינוּ, might be esteemed: to whom be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

44 And our shlichim knew through our Adon Yahushua Ha Moshiach that there would be strife over the name of the overseer's office.

2 For this cause therefore, having received complete foreknowledge, they appointed the previously mentioned persons and afterwards they provided an apostolic continuance, that if these should fall asleep, other approved men should succeed to their ministration. Those therefore who were appointed by them, or afterward by other men of repute with the consent of the whole kehilla and have ministered blameless to the flock of Moshiach in lowliness of mind, peacefully and with all modesty and for long time have borne a tov report with all these men we consider to be unjustly thrust out from their ministration.

3 For it will be no ohr sin for us, if we thrust out those who have offered the gifts of the overseer's office blameless and set apart.

4 Blessed are those zechanim who have gone before, seeing that their departure was fruitful and ripe: for they have no fear lest anyone should remove them from their appointed place.

5 For we see that you have displaced certain persons, though they were living honorably, from the ministration which had been respected by them blamelessly.

45 Be you excited, brethren and zealous about the things that pertain to Yahushua.

2 You have searched the Keetvay HaKadosh, which are emet, which were given through the Kadosh Ruach;

3 And you know that nothing unrighteous or counterfeit is written in them. You will not find that tzadik persons have been thrust out by kadosh men.

4 Tzadik men were persecuted but it was by The Torahless; they were imprisoned but it was by the non set apart ones. They were stoned by transgressors: they were slain by those who had conceived a detestable and unrighteous jealousy.

5 Suffering these things, they endured nobly.

6 For what must we say, brethren? Was Daniyel cast into the lions' den by them that feared אֱלֹהִים?

7 Or, were Ananyah and Azaryah and Mishael shut up in the furnace of fire by them that professed the excellent and wonderful worship of אֱלֹהִים? Far be this from our thoughts. Who then were they that did these things? Abominable men and full of all wickedness were stirred up to such a pitch of wrath, as to bring cruel suffering upon them that served אֱלֹהִים in a kadosh and blameless purpose, not knowing that אֱלֹהִים is the champion and protector of them that in a pure conscience serve His excellent Name: to whom be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

46 But they that endured patiently in confidence inherited tifereth and kavod; they were exalted and had their names recorded by אִתָּם in their memorial le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

2 To such examples as these therefore, brethren, we also ought to cleave. For it is written; Cleave to the kidushim, for they that cleave to them shall be sanctified.

3 And again He says in another place; With the guiltless man you shall be guiltless and with the elect you shall be elect and with the crooked you shall deal crookedly.

4 Let us therefore cleave to the guiltless and tzadik: and these are the elect of אִתָּם.

5 Why is there strife and wrath and factions and divisions and war among you?

6 Have we not one אִתָּם and one Moshiach and one Ruach of unmerited chen that was shed upon us?

7 And is there not one calling in Moshiach?

8 Why do we tear and rend asunder the members of Moshiach and stir up factions against our own gooff and reach such a pitch of folly, as to forget that we are members one of another?

9 Remember the Words of Yahushua our Adon: for He said, Woe to that man; it were tov for him if he had not been born, rather than that he should offend one of My elect. It were better for him that a millstone were hung upon him and be cast into the sea, than that he should pervert one of My elect.

9 Your division has perverted many; it has brought many to despair, many to doubting and all of us to sorrow. And your sedition still continues.

47 Take up the epistle of the blessed Sholiach Shaul.

2 What wrote he first to you in the beginning of the Besorah?

3 Of an emet he charged you in The Ruach concerning himself and Kefa and Apollos because that even then you had made parties.

4 Yet that making of parties brought less sin upon you; for you were partisans of shlichim that were highly reputed and of a man approved in their sight.

5 But now mark those, that have perverted you and diminished the tifereth of your renowned ahava for the brotherhood.

6 It is shameful, dearly beloved, yes, utterly shameful and unworthy of your conduct in Moshiach, that it should be reported that the very steadfast and ancient kehilla of the Corintyahim, for the sake of one or two persons, makes sedition against its own leaders.

7 And this report has reached not only us but them also which differ from us, so that you even heap blasphemies on The Name of the Master by reason of your folly and moreover create peril for yourselves.

48 Let us therefore root this out quickly and let us fall down before the Master and entreat Him with tears, that He may show Himself full of rachamim and be reconciled to us and may restore us to the orderly and pure conduct which belongs to our ahava of the brethren.

2 For this is a gate of tzedakah opened to chayim, as it is written; Open me the gates of tzedakah, that I may enter in thereby and preach HaAdon.

3 This is the gate of HaAdon; the tzadik shall enter in thereby.

4 Seeing then that many gates are opened, this is that gate which is in tzedakah, even that which is in Moshiach, by which all are blessed that have entered in and direct their derech in kedoosha and tzedakah, performing all things without confusion.

5 Let a man be faithful, let him be able to expound a deep saying, let him be wise in the discernment of words, let him be fervent in deeds, let him be pure;
6 For so much the more ought he to be lowly in mind, in proportion as he seems to be the greater; and he ought to seek the common advantage of all and not his own.

49 Let him that has ahava in Moshiach fulfill the mitzvoth of Moshiach.

2 Who can declare the bond of the ahava of אֱלֹהִים?

3 Who is sufficient to tell the majesty of its tifereth?

4 The height, where to ahava exalts, is unspeakable.

5 Love joins us to אֱלֹהִים; ahava covers a multitude of sins; ahava endures all things, is longsuffering in all things. There is nothing coarse, nothing arrogant in ahava. Ahava has no divisions, ahava makes no seditions, ahava does all things in agreement. In ahava were all the elect of אֱלֹהִים made perfect; without ahava nothing is well pleasing to אֱלֹהִים:

6 In ahava the Master took us to Himself; for the ahava which He had toward us, Yahushua Ha Moshiach our Adon has given His dahm for us by the will of אֱלֹהִים and His flesh for our flesh and His chayim for our lives.

50 You see, dearly beloved, how great and marvelous a thing is ahava and there is no declaring its perfection.

2 Who is sufficient to be found in it, save those to whom אֱלֹהִים shall trust it? Let us therefore seek and ask of His rachamim, that we may be found blameless in ahava, standing apart from the factions of men. All the generations from Ahdam to this yom have passed away: but they that by אֱלֹהִים's unmerited chen were perfected in ahava dwell in the abode of the pious; and they shall be made manifest in the visitation of the Malchut of אֱלֹהִים.

3 For it is written; Enter into the closet for a very little while until My anger and My wrath shall pass away and I will remember a tov yom and will raise you from your tombs.

4 Blessed are we, dearly beloved, if we should be doing the mitzvot of אֱלֹהִים in the unity of ahava, to the end that our sins may through ahava be forgiven us.

5 For it is written; Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven and whose sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom HaAdon shall impute no sin, neither is guile in his mouth.

6 This declaration of this blessedness was pronounced upon them that have been elected by אֱלֹהִים through Yahushua Ha Moshiach our Adon, to whom be the tifereth le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

51 For all our transgressions which we have committed through any of the wiles of the adversary, let us ask that we may obtain forgiveness. Yes and they also, who set themselves up as leaders of factions and divisions, ought to look to the common ground of tikvah.

2 For such as walk in fear and ahava desire that they themselves should fall into suffering rather than their neighbors; and they pronounce condemnation against themselves rather than against the harmony which has been handed down to us nobly and righteously.

3 For it is tov for a man to make confession of his trespasses rather than to harden his lev, as the levavot of those were hardened who made sedition against Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים; whose condemnation was clearly manifest,

4 For they went down to Sheol alive and death shall be their shepherd.

5 Pharaoh and his host and all the rulers of Mitzrayim, their chariots and their horsemen, were overwhelmed in the depths of the Red Sea and perished for none other reason but because their foolish levavot were hardened after that the signs and the wonders had been done in the land of Mitzrayim by the hand of Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים.

52 The Master, brethren, has need of nothing at all. He desires not anything of any man, except to confess to Him.

2 For the elect Dawid says; I will confess to HaAdon and it shall please Him more than a young calf that grows horns and hoofs. Let the poor see it and rejoice.

3 And again He says; Sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים a sacrifice of tehilla and pay your vows to אֱלֹהִים: and call upon Me in the yom of your affliction and I will deliver you and you shall esteem Me.

4 For a sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים is a broken ruach.

53 For you know and know well, the kadosh

Keetvay HaKadosh, dearly beloved and you have searched into the Words of אֱלֹהִים. We write these things therefore to put you in remembrance.

2 When Moshe went up into the har and had spent forty yamim and forty laylot in fasting and humiliation, אֱלֹהִים said to him; Moshe, Moshe, come down, quickly here, for My people whom you lead forth from the land of Mitzrayim have worked iniquity: they have transgressed quickly out of the derech which you did command to them: they have made for themselves molten images.

3 And HaAdon said to him; I have spoken to you once and twice, saying, I have seen this people and behold it is stiff-necked. Let Me destroy them utterly and I will blot out their name from under the shamayim and I will make of you a nation great and wonderful and numerous more than this.

4 And Moshe said; No, not so, Adon, Forgive this people their sin, or blot me also out of the Sefer HaChayim.

5 O mighty ahava. O unsurpassable perfection. The eved is bold with his Master; he asks forgiveness for the multitude, or he demands that himself also be blotted out with them.

54 Who therefore is noble among you? Who is compassionate? Who is filled with ahava?

2 Let him say; If by reason of me there be factions and strife and divisions, I retire, I depart, wherever you will and I do that which is ordered by the people: only let the flock of Moshiach be at shalom with its duly appointed overseers.

3 He that shall have done this, shall win for himself great renown in Moshiach and every place will receive him: for the earth is HaAdon's and the fullness of it.

4 This have they done and will do, that live as citizens of that malchut of אִתְּךָ which brings no regrets.

55 But, to bring forward examples of the goyim also; many melechim and rulers, when some season of pestilence pressed upon them, being taught by Words have delivered themselves over to death, that they might rescue their fellow citizens through their own dahm. Many have retired from their own cities, that they might have no more seditions.

2 We know that many among ourselves have delivered themselves to bondage, that they might ransom others. Many have sold themselves to avdooth and receiving the price paid for themselves have fed others.

3 Many women being strengthened through the unmerited chen of אֱלֹהִים have performed many manly deeds.

4 The blessed Yahudite, when the city was beleaguered, asked of the zechanim that she might be allowed to go forth into the camp of the aliens.

5 So she exposed herself to peril and went forth for ahava of her country and of her people which were beleaguered; and HaAdon delivered Holophernes into the hands of a woman.

6 To no less peril did Hadassah also, who was perfect in emunah, expose herself, that she might deliver the twelve tribes of Yisrael, when they were at the point to perish. For through her fasting and her humiliation she entreated the all seeing Master, אֱלֹהִים of the ages; and He, seeing the humility of her nephesh, delivered the people for whose sake she encountered the peril.

56 Therefore let us also make intercession for them that are in any transgression, that forbearance and humility may be given them, to the end that they may yield not to us but to the will of אֱלֹהִים. For so shall the compassionate remembrance of them with אֱלֹהִים and the kidushim be fruitful to them and perfect.

2 Let us accept chastisement, by which no man ought to be vexed, dearly beloved. The admonition which we give one to another is tov and exceedingly useful; for it joins us to the will of אֱלֹהִים.

3 For this says the kadosh Word; HaAdon has indeed chastened me and has not delivered me over to death.

4 For whom HaAdon loves He chastens and scourges every son whom He receives.

5 For of the tzadik, it is said, He shall chasten me in rachamim and shall reprove me but let not the rachamim of sinners anoint my head.

6 And again He says; Blessed is the man whom HaAdon has reproved and refuse not the admonition of The Almighty. For He causes pain and He restores again:

7 He has smitten and His Hands have healed.

8 Six times shall He rescue you from afflictions and at the seventh no evil shall touch you.

9 In famine he shall deliver you from death and in war He shall release you from the arm of the sword.

10 And from the scourge of the tongue, He shall hide you and you shall not be afraid when evils approach.

11 You shall laugh at the unrighteous and wicked and of the wild beasts you shall not be afraid.

12 For wild beasts shall be at shalom with you.

13 Then shall you know that your bayit shall be at shalom: and the abode of your sukkah shall not go wrong,

14 And you shall know that your zera are many and your children are as plenteous, as the herbs of the field.

15 And you shall come to the grave as ripe grain reaped in due season, or as the heap of the threshing floor gathered together at the right time.

16 You see, dearly beloved, how great protection there is for them that are chastened by the Master: for being a kind Abba, He chastens us with the goal being that we may obtain rachamim through His kadosh chastisement.

57 You therefore that laid the foundation of the sedition, submit yourselves to the zechanim and receive chastisement to teshuvah, bending the knees of your lev.

2 Learn to submit yourselves, laying aside the arrogant and proud stubbornness of your tongue. For it is better for you to be found little in the flock of Moshiach and to have your name on אִרְאֵל's roll, than to be had in exceeding kavod and yet be cast out from the tikvah of Him.

3 For this says the All Virtuous Cochmah; Behold I will pour out for you a saying of My Ruach and I will teach you My Word.

4 Because I called and you obeyed not and I held out Words and you heeded not but made My councils of none effect and were disobedient to My reproofs; therefore I also will laugh at your destruction and will rejoice over you when ruin comes upon you and when confusion overtakes you suddenly and your overthrow is at hand like a whirlwind,

5 Or, when you call upon Me, yet will I not hear you. Evil men shall seek Me and not find Me: for they hated chochmah and chose not the fear of HaAdon, neither would they give head to My councils but mocked at My reproofs.

6 Therefore they shall eat the fruits of their own halachot and shall be filled with their own unrighteous.

7 For because they wronged spiritual babies, they shall be slain and inquisition shall destroy the unrighteous. But he that hears Me shall dwell safely trusting in tikvah and shall be quiet from all fear of all evil.

58 Let us therefore be obedient to His most kadosh and wonderful Name, thereby escaping the threats which were spoken of old by the mouth of chochmah against them which disobey, that we may dwell safely, trusting in the most kadosh Name of His majesty.

2 Receive our counsel and you shall have no occasion of regret. For as אֱלֹהִים lives and HaAdon מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach lives, and The Ruach HaKadosh, who are the emunah and the tikvah of the elect, so surely shall he, who with lowliness of mind and instant in gentleness has without remorse performed the ordinances and mitzvot that are given by אֱלֹהִים, be enrolled and have a name among the number of them that are saved through מוֹשִׁיָּח Ha Moshiach, through whom is the tifereth to Him le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

59 But if certain persons should be disobedient to the Words spoken by Him through us, let them understand that they will entangle themselves in no small derech, with transgression and danger;
2 But we shall be guiltless of this sin. And we will ask, with fervency of tefillah and supplication, that The Creator of the universe may guard intact to the end the number that has been numbered of His elect throughout the whole olam, through His beloved Son מוֹשִׁיָּח Moshiach, through whom He called us from darkness to ohr, from ignorance to the full da'at of the tifereth of His Name.

3 Grant to us, Adon, that we may set our tikvah on Your Name which is the primal source of all creation and open the eyes of our levavot, that we may know You, who alone abides in the highest, in the kadosh shamayim; who lays low the insolence of the proud, who sets the lowly on high and brings the lofty low; who makes rich and makes poor; who kills and makes alive; who alone are the Benefactor of ruachim and אֱלֹהִים of all flesh; who looks into the abysses, who scans the works of man; The Helper of them that are in peril, The Savior of them that are in despair; The Creator and Overseer of every ruach; who multiplies the goyim upon earth and have chosen out from all men those that have ahava for You through אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, Your beloved Son, through whom You did instruct us, did sanctify us, did esteem us.

4 We beseech You, Adon and Master, to be our help. Save those among us who are in tribulation; have rachamim on the lowly; lift up the fallen; show Yourself to the needy; heal the unjust; convert the wanderers of Your people; feed the hungry; release our prisoners; raise up the weak; comfort the fainthearted. Let all the goyim know that You are אֱלֹהֵינוּ alone and אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach is Your Son and we are Your people and the sheep of Your pasture.

60 You through Your works did make manifest the everlasting fabric of the olam. You, Adon, did create the earth. You that are faithful throughout all generations, tzadik in Your mishpatim, marvelous in strength and excellence, You that are wise in creating and prudent in establishing that which You have made, that are tov in the things which are seen and faithful with them that trust on You, pitiful and compassionate, forgive us our iniquities and our unrighteousness and our transgressions and shortcomings.

2 Lay not to our account every sin of Your avadim and Your handmaids but cleanse us with the cleansing of Your emet and guide our steps to walk in kedoosha and tzedakah and singleness of lev and to do such things as are tov and well pleasing in Your sight and in the sight of our overseers.

3 Yes, Adon, make Your face to shine upon us in shalom for our tov, that we may be sheltered by Your Mighty Hand and delivered from every sin by Your uplifted Arm. And deliver us from them that hate us wrongfully.

4 Give unity and shalom to us and to all that dwell on the earth, as You gave to our ahvot, when they called on You in emunah and emet with kedoosha, [that we may be saved,] while we render obedience to Your Almighty and most excellent Name and to our rulers and governors upon the earth.

61 You, Adon and Master, have given them the power of sovereignty through Your excellent and unspeakable might, that we knowing the tifereth and kavod which You have given them may submit ourselves to them, in nothing resisting Your will. Grant to them therefore, O Adon, health shalom, unity, stability, that they may administer the government which You have given them without failure.

2 For You, O Heavenly Master, Melech of the ages, gives to the sons of men tifereth and kavod and power over all things that are upon the earth. Adon, you direct their counsel, according to that which is tov and well pleasing in Your sight, so they administer in shalom and gentleness, with Shabbat guarding piety, the Power which You have given them, so that they may obtain Your chen.

3 O You, who alone are able to do these things and things far more exceedingly tov than these for us, we tehilla You through the Kohen HaGadol and Guardian of our naphsoth, Yahushua Ha Moshiach, through whom be the tifereth and the majesty to You both now and for all generations le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

62 As touching those things which befit our emunah and are most useful for a virtuous chayim, to such as would guide our steps in kedoosha and tzedakah, we have written fully to you brethren.

2 For concerning emunah and teshuvah and genuine ahava and temperance and sobriety and patience we have handled every argument, putting you in remembrance, that you ought to please Almighty אֱלֹהֵינוּ in tzedakah and emet and long suffering with kedoosha, laying aside malice and pursuing unity in ahava and shalom, being instant in displaying gentleness; even as our ahvot, of whom we spoke of before, pleased Him, being humble minded toward their Abba and אֱלֹהֵינוּ their Creator and towards all men.

3 And we have put you in mind of these things the more gladly, since we knew well that we were writing to men who are faithful and highly accountable and have diligently searched into the Words of the teachings of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

63 Therefore it is right for us to give heed to so great and so many examples and to submit the neck and occupying the place of obedience to take our side with them that are the leaders of our naphsoth, that ceasing from this foolish dissension we may attain to the goal which lies before us in truthfulness, keeping far from every fault.

2 For you will give us great simcha and gilah, if you render obedience to the things written by us through The Ruach HaKadosh, and root out the unrighteous anger of your jealousy, according to the entreaty which we have made for shalom and agreement in this letter.

3 And we have also sent faithful and prudent men that have walked among us from youth to old age blameless, who shall also be witnesses between you and us.

4 And this we have done that you might know that we have had and still have, every trust in you, that you should be speedily at shalom.

64 Finally may the all seeing אֵלֵינוּ and Master of all ruachim and HaAdon of all flesh, who chose HaAdon אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach and us through Him for a peculiar people, grant to every nephesh that is called after His excellent and kadosh Name, emunah, the fear of אֵלֵינוּ, shalom, patience, longsuffering, temperance, chastity and soberness, that they may be well pleasing to His Name, through our Kohen HaGadol and Guardian אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach, through whom, to Him, be tifereth and majesty, might and kavod, both now and le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

65 Now send back speedily to us our messengers Claudius Ephebus and Valerius Bito, together with Fortunatus also, in shalom and with simcha, to the end that they may the more quickly report the shalom and agreement which is made tefillah for and earnestly desired by us, that we also may the more speedily rejoice over your tov order.

2 The unmerited chen of our Adon אֱלֹהֵינוּ Ha Moshiach be with you and with all men in all places, who have been called by אֵלֵינוּ and through Him be tifereth and kavod, Power and greatness and eternal dominion, from the ages past and le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein. X

Enoch-Chanok To Our Forefathers

The Scroll of Ireem

- 1 The Words of the bracha of Chanok, with which he blessed the elect and tzadik, who will be;
- 2 Living in the yom of end time tribulation, when all the wicked and Torahless are to be removed. And he took up his parable and said -Chanok a tzadik man, whose eyes were opened by אֱלֹהִים, saw the vision of the Kadosh One in the shamayim, which the malachim showed me and from them I heard everything and from them I understood as I saw but not for this generation but for a remote one (final) which is to come.
- 3 Concerning the elect I said and took up my parable concerning them: The Kadosh Great One will come forth from His dwelling,
- 4 And the eternal אֱלֹהִים will tread upon the earth, (even) Har Senai, [and appear from His camp] and appear in the strength of His might from the shamayim of shamayim (future giving of Torah).
- 5 And all shall be smitten with fear and the Ireem shall quake and great fear and trembling shall seize them to the ends of the earth.
- 6 And the high mountains shall be shaken and the high hills shall be made low and shall melt like wax before the flame.
- 7 And the earth shall be fully torn in sunder and all that is in the earth shall perish and there shall be a mishpat upon all (men).

8 But with the tzadikim He will make shalom. And will protect the elect and rachamim shall be upon them. And they shall all belong to אֱלֹהִים and they shall be prospered and they shall all be blessed. And He will help them all and ohr shall appear to them and He will make shalom with them (millennial malchut).

9 And behold. He comes with ten thousands of His kadosh ones To execute mishpat upon all and to destroy all the sinful: And to convict all flesh of all the works of their ungodliness which they have sinful committed and of all the hard things which sinful sinners have spoken against Him. (Quoted in Jude referring to מַלְאָכִים's return.)

2 Observe everything that takes place in the shamayim, how they do not change their orbits and the luminaries which are in the shamayim, how they all rise and set in order each in its season and;

2 Transgress not against their appointed order. Behold the earth and give heed to the things which take place upon it from the first to the last, how steadfast they are, how none of the things in the earth;

3 Change; but all the works of אֱלֹהִים appear to you. Behold the summer and the winter, how the whole earth is filled with mayim and clouds and dew and rain lie upon it.

3 Observe and see how (in the winter) all the eytzim seem as though they had withered and shed all their leaves, except fourteen eytzim, which do not lose their foliage but retain the old foliage from two to three years until the new comes.

4 And again, observe the yamim of summer, how the shemesh is above the earth over against it. And you seek shade and shelter by reason of the heat of the shemesh and the earth also burns with growing heat and so you cannot tread in the earth or on a rock by reason of its heat.

5 Observe how the eytzim cover themselves with green leaves and bear fruit: so give heed and know with regard to all His works and recognize how He that lives le-olam-va-ed has made them so.

2 And all His works go on from year to year le-olam-va-ed ; and all the tasks which they accomplish for Him and their tasks change not but according as אֱלֹהִים has ordained so is it done.

3 And behold how the sea and the rivers in like manner accomplish and change not their tasks from His mitzvoth.

4 But you have not been steadfast, nor done the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים but you have turned away and spoken proud and hard words with your impure mouths against His greatness. Oh, you hard-hearted, you shall find no shalom.

5 Therefore shall you curse your yamim and the years of your chayim shall perish and the years of your destruction shall be multiplied in eternal curses and you shall find no rachamim.

6 a: In those yamim you shall make your names an eternal curse to all the tzadikim,

6 b: And by you shall all who curse, curse and all the sinners and Torahless shall curse you,

6 c: And for you The Torahless there shall be a curse,

6 d: And all the kidushim shall rejoice,

6 e: And there shall be forgiveness of sins (through אֱלֹהִים),

6 f: And every rachamim and shalom and forbearance:

6 g: There shall be salvation-Yahushua for them, a tov ohr.

6 h: And for all of you sinners there shall be no salvation-(through $\text{ow}\text{f}\text{a}\text{z}$),

6 i: But on you all shall abide a curse.

7 a: But for the elect there shall be ohr and simcha and shalom,

7 b: And they, the meek shall inherit the earth (quoted by Messiah in Matthew).

8 And then there shall be bestowed upon the elect chochmah and they shall all live and never again sin, either through ungodliness or through pride: but they who are wise shall be humbled.

9 And they shall not again transgress, nor shall they sin all the yamim of their chayim, nor shall they die of (the divine) anger or wrath but they shall complete the number of the yamim of their chayim.

10 And their lives shall be increased in shalom and the years of their simcha shall be multiplied, in eternal gilah and shalom, all the yamim of their chayim (eternal chayim).

6 And it came to pass when the children of men had multiplied that in those yamim were born to;
2 Them beautiful and comely daughters. And the malachim, the children of the shamayim, saw and lusted after them and said to one another: 'Come; let us choose us wives from among the children of men;

3 And beget us children. And Semyaza, who was their leader, said to them: 'I fear you will not;

4 Indeed agree to do this deed and then I alone shall have to pay the penalty of a great sin. And they all answered him and said: 'Let us all swear an oath and all bind ourselves by mutual vows;

5 Not to abandon this plan but to do this thing fully in one accord. Then they swore all together and bound themselves;

6 By mutual agreement on the plan. And they were in all two hundred; who descended in the yamim of Yared on the summit of Har Hermon and they called it Har Hermon because they had sworn (forbidden) vows;

7 And bound themselves by mutual vows upon it. And these are the names of their leaders: Semyaza, their leader, Araklba, Rameel, Kokavlel, Tamlel, Ramlel, Danel, Ezeqeel, Baraqijal,.

8 Asael, Armaros, Batarel, Ananel, Zaqel, Samsapeel, Satarel, Turel, Yomyael, Sariel. These are their chiefs of tens.

7 And all the others together with them took to themselves wives and each chose for himself one (note that they were monogamous not polygynous to do the most concentrated damage) and they began to go in to them and to defile themselves with them and they taught them charms;

2 And enchantments and the cutting of roots and made them acquainted with plants. And they;

3 Became pregnant and they bare great Giants, whose height was three thousand ells (15 feet or more): Who consumed;

4 All the acquisitions of men. And when men could no longer sustain them, the Giants turned against;

5 Them and devoured mankind. And they began to sin against birds and beasts and reptiles and 6 fish and to devour one another's flesh and drink the dahm. Then the earth laid accusation against the Torahless ones.

8 And Azazel (See Lev. Ch. 16 where Moshe knew Chanok's teachings & called the goat for sin the Azazel) taught men to make swords and knives and shields and breastplates and made known to them the metals of the earth and the art of working them and bracelets and ornaments and the use of antimony and the beautifying of the eyelids and all kinds of costly stones and all;

2 Coloring arts. And there arose much godlessness and men committed fornication and they;

3 Were led astray and became corrupt in all their derachot. Semyaza taught enchantments and root-cuttings, 'Armaros the resolving of enchantments, Baraqiyal (taught) astrology, Kokavel the constellations, Ezeqeel the da'at of the clouds, Araquel the signs of the earth, Shamsiel the signs of the shemesh and Sariel the course of the yarayach.

4 And as men perished, they cried and their cry went up to the shamayim.

9 And then Mikael, Uriel, Raphael and Gavriel looked down from the shamayim and saw much dahm being;

2 Shed in the earth and all Torah-less-ness being worked in the earth. And they said one to another: 'The earth made without inhabitant cries the voice of their crying up to the gates of the shamayim.

3 And now to you, oh kadosh ones of the shamayim, the beings of men make their cry, saying, Bring our cause;

4 Before אֱלֹהִים. And they said to אֱלֹהִים of the ages: 'אֱלֹהִים of all adonim, אֱלֹהִים of all ahlahim, Melech of all melechim and אֱלֹהִים of all the ages, the kesay of Your esteem (stands) to all the generations of the;

5 Ages and Your Name is kadosh and exalted and blessed to all the ages. You have made all things and Power over all things You have: and all things are naked and open in Your sight and You see all

6 Things and nothing can hide itself from You. You see what Azazel has done, who has taught all unrighteousness in the earth and revealed the eternal secrets, which were (preserved) in the shamayim, which

7 Men were striving to learn: And Semyaza, to whom You have given authority to bear rule over his associates.

8 And they have gone into the daughters of men in the earth and have slept with the 9 women and have defiled themselves and revealed to them all kinds of sins. And the women have;

10 Borne Giants and the whole earth has thereby been filled with dahm and unrighteousness. And now, behold, the beings of those who have died are crying and making their cries to the gates of the shamayim and their lamentations have ascended: and cannot cease because of the Torahless deeds which are;

11 Wrought in the earth.

12 And You know all things before they come to pass and You see these things and You do allow them and You do not tell us what we are to do to them in regard to these acts.

10 Then said אִלְלֵז, the Kadosh and Great One spoke and sent Uriel to the son of Lamech,
2 And said to him: 'Go to Noah and tell him in my Name Hide yourself. And reveal to him the end that is approaching: that the whole earth will be destroyed and a deluge is about to come;
3 Upon the whole earth and will destroy all that are on it. And now instruct him that he may escape;
4 And his zera may be preserved for all the generations of the earth. And again אִלְלֵז said to Raphael (El heals): 'Bind Azazel hand and foot and expel him into the darkness: and make an opening;

5 In the midbar, which is in Dudael and expel him in it.

6 And place upon him rough and jagged rocks and cover him with darkness and let him abide there (in Tartaros under Mt Hermon) le-olam-va-ed and cover his face that he may, not see any ohr.

7 And on the yom of the great mishpat, he shall be expelled into the fire. And heal the earth which the malachim have corrupted and proclaim the healing of the earth, that they may heal the plague and that all the children of men may not perish through all the secret things that the;

8 Ireem have disclosed and have taught their sons. And the whole earth has been corrupted:

9 Through the works that were taught by Azazel: to him ascribe all sin. (See how on Yom Kippur all sins were laid on Azazel in fulfillment of this proclamation in Lev. 16.) And to Gavriel said אףאז: 'Proceed against the bastards and the reprobates and against the children of fornication: and destroy [the children of fornication and] the children of the Ireem from among men [and cause them to go forth]: send them one against the other that they may destroy each other in;

10 Battle: for length of yamim shall they not have. And no request that they (i.e. their ahvot) make of you shall be granted to their ahvot on their behalf; for they tikvah to live an eternal chayim and:

11 That each one of them will live five hundred years. And אףאז said to Mikael: 'Go, bind Semyaza and his associates who have united themselves with women so as to have defiled themselves:

12 With them, in all their uncleanness. And when their sons have slain one another and they have seen the destruction of their beloved ones, bind them fast for seventy generations in the valleys of the earth, until the yom of their mishpat and of their consummation, until the mishpat that is;

13 Le-olam-va-ed is consummated (If a generation is 100 years roughly, then they are chained until they are loosed just after the millennial malchut; this is confirmed in Revelation Ch. 20:3 where s.a.tan is loosed after the 7,000 years for final mishpat). In those yamim they shall be led off to the abyss of fire (after the millennium): and:

14 To the torment and the prison in which they shall be confined le-olam-va-ed. And whosoever shall be condemned and destroyed, will from then be bound together with them to the end of all:

15 Generations (men and demons will share the same fate without redemption in $\sigma\omega\tau\alpha\tau\epsilon$). And destroy all the ruachim of the reprobate and the children of the Ireem because;

16 They have wronged mankind. Destroy all evil men from the face of the earth and let every evil work come to an end: and let the plant of tzedakah and emet appear: and it shall prove a bracha; the works of tzedakah and emet' shall be planted in emet and simcha le-olam-va-ed (by the cleansing floods).

17 And then shall all the tzadikim escape and shall live until they beget thousands of children and all the yamim of their youth and their old age shall they complete in shalom.

18 And then shall the whole earth be tilled in tzedakah and shall all be planted with eytzim and;

19 Be full of brachot. And all desirable eytzim shall be planted on it and they shall plant vines on it: and the vine which they plant on it shall yield wine in abundance and as for all the zera which is sown on it each measure (of it) shall bear a thousand and each measure of olives shall yield:

20 Ten presses of oil. And cleanse the earth from all oppression and from all unrighteousness and from all sin and from all godlessness: and all the uncleanness that is done in the earth;

21 Destroy it from off the earth. And all the children of men shall become tzadikim and all goyim;

22 Shall offer adoration and shall tehilla Me and all shall worship Me.

23 And the earth shall be cleansed from all defilement and from all sin and from all punishment and from all torment and I will never again send (floods) upon it from generation to generation and le-olam-va-ed.

11 And in those yamim I will open the store chambers of bracha which are in the shamayim, so as to send;

2 Them down in the earth, over the work and labor of the children of men. And emet and shalom shall be associated together throughout all the yamim of the earth and throughout all the generations of men' (Millennial malchut).

12 Before these things Chanok was hidden and no one of the children of men knew where he was;

2 Hidden, or where he lived, or what had become of him. And his activities-ministry had to do with the Ireem and his yamim were with the kadosh ones in the shamayim learning.

3 And I Chanok was bracha אֵלֹהִים of majesty and The Melech of the Ages and Look, the Ireem;

4 Called me-Chanok the scribe- and said to me:

'Chanok, you scribe of tzedakah, go, declare to the Ireem of the shamayim who have left the high shamayim, the kadosh eternal place and have defiled themselves with women and have done as the children of earth do and have taken to themselves;

5 Wives: You have worked great destruction in the earth:

6 And you shall have no shalom nor forgiveness of sin: and inasmuch as they delight themselves in their children, the murder of their beloved ones shall they see and over the destruction of their children shall they lament and shall make supplication to eternity,

7 But rachamim and shalom shall you not attain. (it is amazing how these demons loved their children, even though they were part human and part ruach; this love was warped as demons cannot love like humans can).

13 And Chanok went and said: 'Azazel, you shall have no shalom: a severe sentence has gone forth; 2 Against you to put you in bonds: And you shall not have rachamim nor requests granted to you because of the unrighteousness which you have taught and because of all the works of Torahlessness.

3 And unrighteousness and sin which you have showed to men. Then I went and spoke to them all;

4 Together and they were all afraid, with fear and trembling seized them. And they sought me (Chanok) to draw up a petition for them that they might find forgiveness and to read their petition in the presence;

5 Of אִיִּים of the shamayim. For from then on they could not speak (with Him) nor lift up their;

6 Eyes to the shamayim for the shame of their sins for which they had been condemned. Then I wrote out their petition and the tefillah in regard to their ruachim and their deeds individually and in regard to their;

7 Requests that they should have forgiveness and length of yamim. And I went off and sat down at the mayim of Dan, in the land of Dan, to the south of the western parts of Hermon (where they resided in Tarartos): I read their petition until I fell;
8 Asleep. And behold a dream came to me and visions fell down upon me and I saw visions of chastisement and a voice came bidding me to tell it to the sons of the shamayim and reprimand them.
9 And when I awoke, I came to them and they were all sitting gathered together, weeping in;
10 'Abelsyail, which is between Lebanon and Seneser, with their faces covered (under Mt. Hermon). And I recounted before them all the visions which I had seen in my sleep and I began to speak the Words of tzedakah and to reprimand the heavenly Ireem.

14 The sefer of the Words of tzedakah and of the reprimands of the eternal Ireem in accordance;
2 With the command of the Kadosh Great One in that vision. I saw in my sleep what I will now say with a tongue of flesh and with the breath of my mouth: which the Great One has given to men to;
3 Speak with and understand with the lev. As He has created and given to man the Power of binah The Word of chochmah, so has He created me also and given me the Power of reprimanding;
4 The Ireem, the children of the shamayim (See Luke 10:18-19) ; this is the same exact authority we have as אנשי's disciples). I wrote out your petition and in my vision it appeared this derech, that your petition will not be granted to you throughout all the yamim of eternity and that mishpat;
5 Has been finally passed upon you: yes (your petition) will not be granted to you.

And from now on you shall not ascend into the shamayim to all eternity and in bonds of the earth the decree;

6 Has gone forth to bind you for all the yamim of the earth. And (that) previously you shall have seen the destruction of your beloved sons and you shall have no pleasure in them but they shall fall before;

7 You by the sword. And your petition on their behalf shall not be granted, nor your own tefillot: even though you weep and make tefillah and speak all the right words contained in the writing which I have;

8 Written. And the vision was showed to me like this: Behold, in the vision clouds invited me and a mist summoned me and the course of the chochavim and the lightning sped and hastened me and the ruachim in;

9 The vision caused me to fly and lifted me upward and bore me into the shamayim. And I went in until I drew near to a wall which is built of crystals and surrounded by tongues of fire: and it began to scare;

10 Me. And I went into the tongues of fire and drew near to a large bayit which was built of crystals: and the walls of the bayit were like a smooth floor (made) of crystals and its groundwork was;

11 Of crystal. Its ceiling was like the derech of the chochavim and the lightning and between them were;

12 Fiery cheruvim and their shamayim was (clear as) mayim. A flaming fire surrounded the walls and its.

13 Windows blazed with fire. And I entered into that bayit and it was hot as fire and cold as ice: there.

14 Were no delights of chayim in it: fear covered me and trembling got hold of me. And as I quaked;

15 And trembled, I fell upon my face. And I beheld a vision and lo. There was a second bayit, greater;
16 Than the former and the entire window stood open before me and it was built of flames of fire. And in every respect it so excelled in splendor and magnificence that I cannot describe to;
17 You its splendor and its beauty. And its floor was of fire and above it was lightning and the derech;
18 Of the chochavim and its ceiling also was flaming fire. And I looked and saw in it a lofty kesay: its appearance was as crystal and the wheels of it as the shining shemesh and there was the vision of;
19 Cheruvim. And from underneath the kesay came streams of flaming fire so that I could not look;
20 At it. And the Great Esteem sat thereon and His raiment shone more brightly than the shemesh and;
21 Was whiter than any snow. None of the malachim could enter and could behold His face by reason;
22 Of the magnificence and esteem and no flesh could behold Him. The flaming fire was around about Him and a great fire stood before Him and none around could draw near Him: ten thousand times;
23 Ten thousand (stood) before Him, yet He needed no counselor. And the most kadosh ones who were;
24 Near to Him did not leave by lyla nor depart from Him by yom. And until then I had been prostrate on my face, trembling: and אֱלֹהִים called me with His own mouth and said to me:
25 Come here, Chanok and hear My Word.
26 And one of the kadosh ones came to me and awoke me and He made me rise up and approach the door: and I bowed my face down.

15 And He answered and said to me and I heard His voice: 'Fear not, Chanok, you tzadik;

2 Man and scribe of tzedakah: approach here and hear My voice. And go, say to the Ireem of the shamayim, who have sent you to intercede for them: You should intercede for men and not men;

3 For you: Why have you left the high, kadosh and eternal shamayim and lain with women and defiled yourselves with the daughters of men and taken to yourselves wives and done like the children;

4 Of earth and begotten Giants (as your) sons? And though you were kadosh, spiritual, living in the eternal chayim, you have defiled yourselves with the dahm of women and have begotten (children) with the dahm of flesh and, as the children of men, you have lusted after flesh and dahm as those also do who die;

5 And perish. Therefore have I given them wives also that they might impregnate them and beget;

6 Children by them, that now nothing might be wanting to them in the earth. But you malachim were formerly;

7 Spiritual, living the eternal chayim and immortal for all generations of the earth. And therefore I have not appointed wives for you; for as for the spiritual ones of the shamayim, the shamayim is their dwelling.

8 And now, the Giants, who are produced from the ruachim and flesh, shall be called evil ruachim upon;

9 The earth and in the earth shall be their dwelling. Evil ruachim have proceeded from their bodies; because they are born from both men and from the kadosh Ireem is their beginning and their primal origin;

10 They shall be evil ruachim in the earth and evil ruachim shall they be called.

11 And the ruachim of the Giants afflict, oppress, destroy, attack, do battle and work destruction in the earth and cause trouble: they take no food but nevertheless they hunger and thirst and cause offences.

12 And these ruachim shall rise up against the children of men and against the women because they have proceeded from them.

16 From the yamim of the slaughter and destruction and death of the Naphaleem, from the beings of whose flesh the ruachim, having gone forth, shall destroy without incurring immediate mishpat - so shall they destroy until the yom of the consummation, the great mishpat in which the age shall be;

2 Consummated, over the Ireem and The Torahless, yes, they shall be wholly consummated. And now as to the Ireem who have sent you to intercede for them, who had been before in the shamayim, (say to them):

3 You have been in the shamayim but all the sods had not yet been revealed to you and you knew worthless ones and these in the hardness of your levavot you have made known to the women and through these sods women and men work much evil in the earth.

4 Say to them therefore: You will have no shalom.

17 And they took and brought me to a place in which those who were there were like flaming fire, 2 And, when they wished, they appeared as men. And they brought me to the place of darkness and to a har the point of whose summit reached to the shamayim. 3 And I saw the places of the luminaries and the treasuries of the chochavim and of the thunder and in the uttermost depths, where there were;

4 A fiery bow and arrows and their quiver and a fiery sword and all the lightning. And they took;

5 Me to the living mayim and to the fire of the west, which receives every setting of the shemesh. And I came to a river of fire in which the fire flows like mayim and discharges itself into the Great Sea towards;

6 The west. I saw the great rivers and came to the great river and to the great darkness and went;

7 To the place where no flesh walks. I saw the mountains of the darkness of winter and the place;

8 Where all the mayim of the deep flow. I saw the mouths of all the rivers of the earth and the mouth of the deep.

18 I saw the treasuries of all the ruachim: I saw how He had furnished with them the whole creation;

2 And the firm foundations of the earth. And I saw the corner-stone of the earth: I saw the four;

3 Ruachim which bear [the earth and] the firmament of the shamayim. And I saw how the ruachim stretch out the vaults of the shamayim and have their stations between the shamayim and earth: these are the pillars;

4 Of the shamayim. I saw the ruachim of the shamayim which turn and bring the circumference of the shemesh and;

5 All the chochavim to their setting. I saw the ruachim in the earth carrying the clouds: I saw the paths;

6 Of the malachim. I saw at the end of the earth the firmament of the shamayim above. And I proceeded and saw a place which burns yom and lyla, where there are seven mountains of magnificent stones,

7 Three towards the east and three towards the south. And as for those towards the east, one was of colored stone and one of pearl and one of jacinth and those towards the south of red stone.

8 But the middle one reached to the shamayim like the kesay of אֶרֶב, of alabaster and the summit of the, kesay was of sapphire.

9 And I saw a flaming fire. And beyond these mountains is a region the end of the great earth:

10 There the shamayim were completed.

11 And I saw a deep abyss, with columns of heavenly fire and among them I saw columns of fire fall, which were beyond measure alike in;

12 The height and the depth. And beyond that abyss I saw a place which had no firmament of the shamayim above and no firmly founded earth beneath it: there was no mayim upon it and no;

13 Birds but it was a waste and horrible place. I saw there seven chochavim like great burning mountains,

14 And to me, when I inquired regarding them, the malach said: 'this place is the end of the shamayim and earth: this has become a prison-Tartaros for the chochavim and the host of the shamayim.

15 And the chochavim which roll over the fire are they which have transgressed the mitzvah of אֶרֶב in the beginning of their rising because they did not come forth at their appointed times.

16 And He was angry with them and bound them until the time when their guilt should be consummated (even) for ten thousand years.

19 And Uriel said to me: 'Here shall stand the malachim who have connected themselves with women (through intercourse) and their ruachim assuming many different forms are defiling mankind and shall lead them astray into sacrificing to demons as ahlahim, (here shall they stand,) until the yom of the great mishpat in;

2 Which they shall be judged until they are destroyed. And the women also of the malachim who 3 went astray shall become sirens. And I, Chanok, alone saw the vision, the ends of all things: and no man shall see as I have seen.

20 These are the names of the kadosh malachim;

2 Who watch. Uriel, one of the kadosh malachim, who is;

3 Over the earth and over Tartaros. Raphael, one of the kadosh malachim, who is over the ruachim of men.

4 Raguel, one of the kadosh malachim who takes vengeance in the earth of the luminaries.

5 Mikael, one of the kadosh malachim, to wit,

6 He that is set over the largest part of mankind and over chaos-war. Saraqael,

7 One of the kadosh malachim, who is set over the ruachim, who sin in the ruach. Gavriel, one of the kadosh

8 Malachim, who is over Paradise and the serpents and the Cheruvim. Remiel, one of the kadosh malachim, whom אִרְאֵל set over those who arise (resurrect).

21 And I proceeded to where things were chaotic.

2 And I saw there something horrible: I saw neither;

3 The shamayim above nor a firmly founded earth but a place chaotic and horrible. And there I saw;

4 Seven chochavim of the shamayim bound together in it, like great mountains and burning with fire. Then;

5 I said: 'For what sin are they bound and on what account have they been expelled in here? Then said Uriel, one of the kadosh malachim, who was with me, who was chief over them and said:

'Chanok, why;

6 Do you ask and why are you eager for the emet?

These are of the number of the chochavim of the shamayim, which have transgressed the mitzvah of אִף־אֵז and are bound here until ten thousand years,

7 The time entailed by their sins, are consummated.

And from there I went to another place, which was still more horrible than the former and I saw a horrible thing: a great fire there which burnt and blazed and the place was cleft as far as the abyss, being full of great descending columns of;

8 Fire: neither its fullness or magnitude could I see, nor could I conjecture. Then I said: 'How;

9 Fearful is the place and how terrible to look upon.

Then Uriel, one of the kadosh malachim who was with me, answered me and said to me: 'Chanok, why have you such fear? And;

10 I answered: 'Because of this fearful place and because of the spectacle of the pain.

11 And he said to me: 'This place is the prison of the malachim and here they will be imprisoned le-olam-va-ed.

22 And there I went to another place and the har of hard rock.

2 And there was in it four hollow places, deep and wide and very smooth. How smooth are the hollow places and deep and dark to look at.

3 Then Raphael, one of the kadosh malachim who was with me, answered and said to me: 'These hollow places have been created for this very purpose, that the ruachim of the beings of the dead should;

4 Assemble in it, yes that all the beings of the children of men should assemble here. And these places have been made to receive them until the yom of their mishpat and until their appointed period, until the great mishpat (comes) upon them. I saw (the ruach of) a dead man making petition, 5 And his voice went forth to the shamayim and made petition. And I asked Raphael, the malach who was;

6 With me and I said to him: 'This ruach which makes petition, whose is it, whose voice goes forth and makes petition to the shamayim?

7 And he answered me saying: 'This is the ruach which went forth from Avel, whom his brother Cayin slew and he makes his petition against him until his zera is destroyed from the face of the earth and his zera is annihilated from among the zera of men.

8 Then I asked regarding it and regarding all the hollow places: 'Why is one separated from the other?

9 And he answered me and said to me: 'These three have been made that the ruachim of the dead might be separated. And such a division has been made (for) the ruachim of the tzadikim, in which there is the bright spring of;

10 Mayim. And such has been made for sinners when they die and are buried in the earth and mishpat has not been executed on them in their;

11 Lifetime. Here their ruachim shall be set apart in this great pain until the great yom of mishpat and punishment and torment of those who curse le-olam-va-ed and retribution for their ruachim.

12 There He shall bind them le-olam-va-ed. And such a division has been made for the ruachim of those who make their petition, who make disclosures concerning their destruction, when they were slain in the yamim;

13 Of the sinners. Such has been made for the ruachim of men who were not tzadikim but sinners, who were complete in transgression and of the transgressors they shall be companions: but their ruachim shall not be slain in the yom of mishpat nor shall they be raised from there.

14 Then I blessed אֱלֹהֵי of esteem and said: 'Blessed be my אֱלֹהֵי of tzedakah, who rules le-olam-va-ed.

23 From there I went to another place to the west of the ends of the earth.

2 And I saw a burning fire which ran without resting,
3 And paused not from its course yom or lyla but (ran) regularly. And 4 I asked saying: 'What is this which rests not? Then Raguel, one of the kadosh malachim who was with me, answered me and said to me: 'This course of fire which you have seen is the fire in the west which persecutes all the luminaries of the shamayim.

24 And from there I went to another place of the earth and he showed me a har range of;
2 Fire which burnt yom and lyla. And I went beyond it and saw seven magnificent mountains all differing each from the other and the stones (of it) were magnificent and beautiful, magnificent as a whole, of exalted appearance and fair exterior: three towards the east, one founded on the other and three towards the south, one upon the other and deep rough ravines, no one of which;
3 Joined with any other. And the seventh har was in the midst of these and it excelled those;
4 In height, resembling the seat of a kesay: and fragrant eytzim encircled the kesay. And among them was an eytz such as I had never yet smelled, neither was any among them nor were others like it: it had a fragrance beyond all fragrances and its leaves and blooms and wood wither not le-olam-va-ed:

5 And its fruit is beautiful and its fruit resembles the dates of a palm. Then I said: 'How beautiful is this eytz and fragrant and its leaves are fair and its blooms very delightful in appearance.

6 Then answered Mikael, one of the kadosh and esteemed malachim who was with me and was their leader.

25 And he said to me: 'Chanok, why do you ask me regarding the fragrance of the eytz,

2 And why do you wish to learn the emet? Then I answered him saying: 'I wish to;

3 know about everything but especially about this eytz. And he answered saying: 'This high har which you have seen, whose summit is like the kesay of אֶלֶּהֶם, is His kesay, where the Kadosh Great One, אֶלֶּהֶם of Esteem, the Eternal Melech, will sit, when He shall come down to visit;

4 The earth with tovness. And as for this fragrant eytz no mortal is permitted to touch it until the great mishpat, when He shall take vengeance on all and bring (everything) to its consummation;

5 Le-olam-va-ed. It shall then be given to the tzadik and kadosh. Its fruit shall be for food to the elect: it shall be transplanted to the Kadosh Place, to the Beit HaMikdash of אֶלֶּהֶם, the Eternal Melech.

6 Then shall they rejoice with simcha and be glad and into the kadosh place shall they enter; and its fragrance shall be in their bones and they shall live a long chayim in the earth, Such as your ahvot lived: And in their yamim shall no sorrow or plague or torment or calamity touch them.

7 Then I blessed אֶלֶּהֶם of Esteem, the Eternal Melech, who has prepared such things for the tzadikim and has created them and promised to give it to them.

26 And I went from there to the middle of the earth and I saw a blessed place in which there were;

2 Eytzim with branches abiding and blooming. And there I saw a kadosh har, 3 And underneath the har to the east there was a stream and it flowed towards the south. And I saw towards the east another har higher than this and between them a deep and narrow.

4 Ravine: in it also ran a stream underneath the har. And to the west of it there was another har, lower than the former and of small elevation and a ravine deep and dry between them: and another deep and dry ravine was at the extremities of the three mountains.

5 And all the ravines were deep and narrow, (being formed) of hard rock and eytzim were not planted upon them.

6 And I marveled at the rocks and I marveled at the ravine, yes, I marveled very much.

27 Then said I: 'for what object is this blessed land, which is entirely filled with eytzim and this; 2 Cursed valley between? Then Uriel, one of the kadosh malachim who was with me, answered and said: 'This cursed valley-Gei Heinom, is for those who are cursed le-olam-va-ed: here shall all the cursed gather together who utter with their lips against אַף־אָז unseemly words and of His esteem speak hard things. Here shall they be gathered together and here;

3 Shall be their place of mishpat. In the yamim ha-acharonim there shall be upon them the spectacle of tzadik mishpat in the presence of the tzadikim le-olam-va-ed: here shall the merciful bless אַף־אָז of esteem, the Eternal Melech.

4 In the yamim of mishpat over the former, they shall bless Him for the rachamim in accordance with 5 which He has assigned them (their lot). Then I blessed אִיָּאָז of Esteem and set forth His esteem and lauded Him with esteem and kavod.

28 And there I went towards the east, into the midst of the har range of the midbar and;
2 I saw a midbar and it was solitary, full of eytzim and plants. And mayim gushed forth from;
3 Above. Rushing like a copious watercourse [which flowed] towards the north-west it caused clouds and dew to ascend on every side.

29 And there I went to another place in the midbar and approached to the east of this har;
2 Range. And there I saw aromatic eytzim exhaling the fragrance of frankincense and myrrh and the eytzim also were similar to the almond eytz.

30 Beyond these, I went afar to the east,
2 And I saw another place, a valley (full) of mayim. And:
3 In it there was an eytz, the color of fragrant eytzim such as the mastic. And on the sides of those valleys I saw fragrant cinnamon. And beyond these I proceeded to the east.

31 And I saw other mountains and among them were groves of eytzim and there flowed forth from;
2 Them nectar, which is named sarara and galbanum. And beyond these mountains I saw another har to the east of the ends of the earth, where aloe-eytzim and all the eytzim were were full;
3 Of stacte, being like almond-eytzim. And when one burnt it, it smelt sweeter than any fragrant odor. [The eytz of the da'at of tov and evil]

32 And after these fragrant odors, as I looked towards the north over the mountains I saw seven mountains full of choice nard and fragrant eytzim and cinnamon and pepper.

2 And there I went over the summits of all these mountains, far towards the east of the earth and passed above the Erythraean Sea and went far from it and passed over the malach Zotiel. And I came to the Garden of the Tzadikim,

3 And saw from afar off eytzim more numerous than these eytzim and two great eytzim there, very great, beautiful and exalted and magnificent and the eytz of da'at-daat, whose kadosh fruit they ate and knew great chochmah.

4 That eytz is in height like the fir and its leaves are like (those of) the carob eytz: and its fruit;

5 Is like the clusters of the vine, very beautiful: and the fragrance of the eytz penetrates afar.

6 Then I said: 'How beautiful is the eytz and how attractive is its look. Then Raphael the kadosh malach, who was with me, answered me and said: This is the eytz of chochmah and evil, of which your old abba and your aged Emma, who were before you, have eaten and they learned chochmah and their eyes were opened,

7 And they knew that they were naked and they were driven out of the garden.

33 And from there I went to the ends of the earth and saw there great beasts and each differed from the other; and (I saw) birds also differing in appearance and beauty and voice, the one differing from the other. And to the east of those beasts I saw the ends of the earth where the shamayim;

2 Rests and the windows of the shamayim open.
And I saw how the chochavim of the shamayim come forth and;

3 I counted the windows out of which they proceed and wrote down all their outlets, of each individual chochav by itself, according to their number and their names, their courses and their positions and their 4 times and their chodashem, as Uriel the kadosh malach who was with me showed me. He showed all things to me and wrote them down for me: also their names he wrote for me and their torot and their companies.

34 And from there I went towards the north to the ends of the earth and there I saw a great and;

2 Exalted device at the ends of the whole earth. And here I saw three windows of the shamayim open in the shamayim: through each of them proceed north ruachim: when they blow there is cold, hail, frost, 3 Snow, dew and rain. And out of one window they blow for tov: but when they blow through the other two windows, it is with violence and affliction in the earth and they blow with violence.

35 And from there I went towards the west to the ends of the earth and saw, there three windows of the shamayim open such as I had seen in the east, the same number of windows and the same number of outlets.

36 And from there I went to the south to the ends of the earth and saw there three open windows;
2 Of the shamayim: and from there come dew, rain and ruach. And from there I went to the east to the ends of the shamayim and saw here the three eastern windows of the shamayim open and small windows.

3 Above them. Through each of these small windows pass the chochavim of the shamayim and run their course to the west on the derech which is showed to them.

4 And as often as I saw things, I always blessed אֱלֹהֵינוּ of Esteem and I continued to bless אֱלֹהֵינוּ of Esteem who has done great and exalted wonders, to show the greatness of His work to the malachim and to ruachim and to men,

5 That they might tehilla His work and all His creation: that they might see the work of His might;

6 And tehilla the great work of His Hands and bless Him le-olam-va-ed.

The Scroll of Parables

37 The second vision which he saw, the vision of chochmah -which Chanok the son of Yared, the son;

2 Of Mahalalel, the son of Kainan, the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Ahdahm, saw. And this is the beginning of the Words of chochmah which I lifted up my voice to speak and say to those which dwell in the earth: Hear all you men of old time and see, you that come after, the Words of the Kadosh.

3 One which I will speak before אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot. It would be better to declare (them only) to the men of old time but even to those that come after we will not withhold the beginning of chochmah.

4 Until the present yom such chochmah has never been given by אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot, as I have received according to my insight, according to the tov pleasure of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot by whom the lot of:

5 Eternal chayim has been given to me. Now three Parables were imparted to me and I lifted up my voice and recounted them to those that dwell in the earth.

38 When the kehilla of the tzadikim shall appear and sinners shall be judged for their sins and shall be driven from the face of the earth:

2 And when the Tzadik One shall appear before the eyes of the tzadikim, whose elect works hang upon אִתָּךְ Tzevaot and ohr shall appear to the tzadikim and the elect who dwell in the earth; then where will be the dwelling of the sinners and where will be the resting-place of those who have denied אִתָּךְ

Tzevaot? It had been tov for them if they had not been born (quoted by אִתָּךְ regarding Judas, who did deny The Set Apart One in Matthew 26:24).

3 When the secrets of the tzadikim shall be revealed and the sinners judged and The Torahless driven from the presence of the tzadikim and elect,

4 From that time on, those that possess the earth shall no longer be powerful and exalted: And they shall not be able to behold the face of the Kadosh One, for אִתָּךְ Tzevaot has caused His ohr to appear on the face of the kadosh, tzadik and elect.

5 Then shall the melechim and the mighty perish and be given into the hands of the tzadikim and kidushim.

6 And then none shall seek for themselves rachamim from אִתָּךְ Tzevaot; for their chayim is at an end.

39 And it shall come to pass in those yamim that elect and kadosh children, b'nai ahlahim, will descend from the;

2 High shamayim and their zera will become one with the children of men. And in those yamim Chanok received scrolls of zeal and wrath and scrolls of disquiet and expulsion. And rachamim shall not be accorded to them, says אִתָּךְ Tzevaot.

3 And in those yamim a whirlwind carried me off from the earth and set me down at the end of the shamayim.

4 And there I saw another vision, the dwelling-places of the kadosh and the resting-places of the tzadikim.

5 Here my eyes saw their dwellings with His tzadik malachim and their resting-places with the kadosh. And they petitioned and interceded and made tefillah for the children of men and tzedakah flowed before them as mayim and rachamim like dew upon the earth: So it is among them le-olam-va-ed.

6a: And in that place my eyes saw the Anointed One of tzedakah and of emunah (Messiah מָשִׁיחַ), 6 b: And tzedakah shall prevail in His yamim. And the tzadikim and elect shall be without number before Him le-olam-va-ed (salvation).

7a: And I saw His dwelling-place under the wings of אֲזַיְתָוֹת Tzevaot.

7b: And all the tzadikim and elect before Him shall be as strong as fiery lights and their mouths shall be full of brachot and their lips extol The Name of אֲזַיְתָוֹת Tzevaot and tzedakah shall never fail before Him.

8 There I wished to dwell and my ruach longed for that dwelling-place: And there until now has been my portion, for so has it been established concerning me before אֲזַיְתָוֹת Tzevaot (living among the malachim).

9 In those yamim I praised and extolled The Name of אֲזַיְתָוֹת Tzevaot with brachot and tehilot because He has destined me for bracha and esteem according to the tov pleasure of אֲזַיְתָוֹת Tzevaot:

10. For a long time my eyes regarded that place and I blessed Him and praised Him, saying: 'Blessed is He and may He be blessed from the beginning and le-olam-va-ed.

11 And before Him there is no ceasing. He knows before the earth was created what is le-olam-va-ed and what will be from;

12 Generation to generation. Those who sleep not bless You: they stand before Your esteem and bless, tehilla and extol, saying: Kadosh, Kadosh, Kadosh, is אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot: He fills the earth with Ruachim;

13 And here my eyes saw all those who sleep not: they stand before Him and bless and say: 'blessed are You and blessed be The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ le-olam-va-ed. And my face was changed; for I could no longer behold more.

(The Four Creatures of Revelation Identified)

40 And after that I saw thousands of thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, I saw a multitude;

2 Beyond number and reckoning, who stood before אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot. And on the four sides of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot I saw four presences (four creatures, same as in the Scroll of Revelation which refers this passage), different from those that sleep not and I learned their names: for the malach that went with me made known to me their names and showed me all the hidden things.

3 And I heard the voices of those four presences (creatures) as they uttered tehillot before אֱלֹהֵינוּ of esteem.

4. The first voice blesses אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot le-olam-va-ed.

5 And the second voice I heard give brachot to;

6 The Anointed One (pre-existent-Yahushua) and the elect ones who hang upon אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot. And the third voice I heard make tefillah and intercede for those who dwell in the earth and supplicate in The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot.

7 And I heard the fourth voice fending off the demons-shedim* and forbidding them to come before אַף־אֵל;

8 Of Hosts to accuse those who dwell in the earth. After that I asked the malach of shalom who went with me, who showed me everything that was hidden: 'Who are these four presences which I have;

9 Seen and whose words I have heard and written down? And he said to me: 'This first is Mika-el, the merciful and longsuffering: and the second, who is set over all the diseases and all the wounds of the children of men, is Rapha-el:

10 And the third, who is set over all the powers, is Gavri-el: and the fourth, who is set over the teshuvah for the tikvah of those who inherit eternal chayim, is named Phanu-el.

11 And these are the four malachim of אַף־אֵל Tzevaot and their four voices that I heard in those yamim.

41 And after that I saw all the secrets of the shamayim and how the malchut is divided and how the;

2 Actions of men are weighed in the balances. And there I saw the mansions of the elect and the mansions of the kadosh ones and my eyes saw there all the sinners being driven away from there, who deny The Name of אַף־אֵל Tzevaot and being dragged off: and they could not abide because of the punishment which proceeds from אַף־אֵל Tzevaot.

3 And there my eyes saw the secrets of the lightning and of the thunder and the secrets of the ruachim, how they are divided to blow over the earth and the secrets of the clouds and dew and there

4 I saw from where they proceed in that place and from where they saturate the dusty earth. And there

I saw closed chambers out of which the ruachim are divided, the chamber of the hail and ruachim, the chamber of the mist and of the clouds and the clouds hover over the earth from the;

5 Beginning of the earth. And I saw the chambers of the shemesh and the yarayach, where they proceed and where they come again and their wonderful return and how one is superior to the other and their stately orbit and how they do not leave their orbit and they add nothing to their orbit and they take nothing from it and they keep emunah with each other, in accordance with the oath by which they;

6 Are bound together. And first the shemesh goes forth and traverses its derech according to the mitzvah;

7 Of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and mighty is His Name le-olam-va-ed. After that I saw the hidden and the visible derech of the yarayach and it accomplishes the course of its derech in that place by yom and by lyla-the one holding a position opposite to the other before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot. And they give hodu and tehilla and rest not; for to them is their thanksgiving rest.

8 For the shemesh changes often for a bracha or a curse and the course of the derech of the yarayach is ohr to the tzadikim and darkness to the sinners in The Name of אֱלֹהִים, who made a separation between the ohr and the darkness and divided the ruachim of men and strengthened the ruachim of the tzadikim, in The Name of His own tzedakah.

9 For no malach hinders His purpose; and no power is able to hinder Him; for He appoints a Shophet (Yahushua) for them all and He shophtim them all before Him.

42 Chochmah found no place where she might dwell; then a dwelling-place was assigned it in the shamayim.

2 Chochmah went forth to make her dwelling among the children of men and found no dwelling-place: Chochmah returned to her place and took her seat among the malachim.

3 And unrighteousness went forth from her chambers: Whom she sought not she found and dwelt with them, as rain in a midbar and dew on a thirsty land.

43 And I saw other lightning and the chochavim of the shamayim and I saw how He called them all by their;

2 Names and they listened to Him. And I saw how they are weighed in a tzadik balance according to their proportions of ohr: (I saw) the width of their spaces and the yom of their appearing and how their revolution produces lightning: and (I saw) their revolution according to the;

3 Number of the malachim and (how) they keep emunah with each other. And I asked the malach who went;

4 With me who showed me what was hidden: 'What are these? And he said to me: אִי אִי Tzevaot has showed you their parabolic meaning (lit. 'their parable'): these are the names of the kadosh ones who dwell in the earth and believe in The Name of אִי אִי Tzevaot le-olam-va-ed.

44 Also another phenomenon I saw in regard to the lightning: how some of the chochavim arise and become lightning and cannot part with their new form.

45 And this is the second parable concerning those who deny the name of the dwelling of the kadosh ones and אִיִּיִּיִּיִּי Tzevaot.

2 And into the shamayim they shall not ascend and in the earth they shall not come: Such shall be the lot of the sinners who have denied The Name of אִיִּיִּיִּיִּיִּי Tzevaot, who are preserved for the yom of suffering and tribulation.

3 On that yom My Anointed One (Yahushua) shall sit on the kesay of esteem and shall try their works and their places of rest shall be innumerable. And their beings shall grow strong within them, when they see My Anointed One and those who have called upon My exalted Name:

4 Then will I cause My Anointed One to dwell among them. And I will transform the shamayim and make it an eternal bracha and ohr.

5 And I will transform the earth and make it a bracha: And I will cause My elect ones to dwell upon it: but the sinners and evil-doers shall not set foot thereon.

6 For I have provided and satisfied with shalom My tzadik ones and have caused them to dwell before Me: but for the sinners there is mishpat impending with Me, so that I shall destroy them from off the face of the earth.

46 And there I saw One who was The Head of Yamim (The Abba) and His head was white like wool and with Him was another being whose countenance had the appearance of a Man and his face was full of graciousness, like one of the kadosh malachim.

2 And I asked the malach who went with me and showed me all the hidden things, concerning that;

3 Ben Ahdahm, who He was and where He was, (and) why He went with the Ancient of Yamim? And he answered and said to me: This is The Ben Ahdahm (Yahushua) who has tzedakah, with whom dwells tzedakah and who reveals all the treasures of that which is hidden, Because אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot has chosen Him and whose lot has the pre-eminence before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot in tzedakah le-olam-va-ed.

4 And this Ben Ahdahm whom you have seen shall raise up the melechim and the mighty from their seats, [And the strong from their kesot] and shall loosen the reins of the strong and break the teeth of the sinners (Yahushua is omnipotent).

5 And He shall put down the melechim from their kesot and malchutim] because they do not extol and tehilla Him, nor humbly acknowledge when the malchut was bestowed upon them.

6 And He shall put down the countenance of the strong and shall fill them with shame. And darkness shall be their dwelling and worms shall be their bed and they shall have no tikvah of rising from their beds because they do not extol The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

7 And these are those who judge the chochavim of the shamayim, [who raise their hands against אֱלֹהִים and tread upon the earth and dwell upon it. And all their deeds manifest unrighteousness and their power rests upon their riches and their emunah is in the ahlahim which they have made with their hands and they deny The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot,

8 And they persecute the houses of His kehellot and the faithful who hang upon The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

47 And in those yamim shall have ascended the tefillah of the tzadikim and the dahm of the tzadikim from the earth before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

2 In those yamim the kadosh ones who dwell above in the shamayim shall unite with one voice and make tefillah and tehilla and give hodu and bless The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot on behalf of the dahm of the tzadikim which has been shed and that the tefillah of the tzadikim may not be in vain before אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot; that mishpat may be done to them and that they may not have to suffer le-olam-va-ed.

3 In those yamim I saw the Ancient of Yamim when He seated himself upon the kesay of His esteem and the scrolls of the living were opened before Him: And all His host which is in the shamayim above and His counselors stood before Him,

4 And the levavot of the kadosh were filled with simcha; because the number of the tzadikim had been offered and the tefillah of the tzadikim had been heard and the dahm of the tzadikim been required before אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot.

48 And in that place I saw the fountain of tzedakah which was inexhaustible: And around it were many fountains of chochmah: And all the thirsty drank of them and were filled with chochmah and their dwellings were with the tzadikim and the kadosh and the elect.

2 And at that hour that Ben Ahdahm was named In the presence of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot and His Name before the Ancient of Yamim (Yahushua pre-existed and was named and anointed before He arrived at Bethlehem).

3 Yes, before the shemesh and the signs were created, before the chochavim of the shamayim were made; His Name was named before and by אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot.

4 He shall be a Staff (Psalm 23) to the Tzadikim where they lean themselves and not fall and He shall be the Ohr of the Goyim and the tikvah of those who are troubled of lev (John Ch 14:1).

5 All who dwell in the earth shall fall down and worship before Him and will tehilla and bless and celebrate with shirim because He is אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot.

6 And for this reason has He been chosen and hidden [Natzared] before Him, before the creation of the earth and le-olam-va-ed.

7 And the Cochma of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot has revealed Him to the kadosh and tzadik ones; for He has preserved [Natzar] the lot of the tzadikim [Natzarim] because they have hated and despised this earth of unrighteousness and have hated all its works and derachot in The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot: for in His Name they are saved and according to His tov pleasure has it been in regard to their chayim.

8 In those yamim downcast in countenance shall the melechim of the earth have become and the strong who possess the land because of the works of their hands, for on the yom of their anguish and affliction they shall not (be able to) save themselves.

9 And I will give them over into the hands of My elect [preserved Natzarim]: as straw in the fire so shall they burn before the face of the kadosh ones: as lead in the mayim shall they sink before the face of the tzadikim and no trace of them shall anymore be found.

10 And on the yom of their affliction [Great Tribulation] there shall be rest in the earth and before the kidushim they shall fall and not rise again [no resurrection of chayim]: and there shall be no one to take them with his hands and raise them up [no resurrection of chayim]: For they have denied אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot and His Anointed One-Moshiach. The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot be blessed.

49 For chochmah is poured out like mayim and esteem fails not before Him le-olam-va-ed.

2 For he is mighty in all the secrets of tzedakah and unrighteousness shall disappear as a shadow and have no continuance; because the Anointed One (Yahushua) stands before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and His esteem is le-olam-va-ed and His might to all generations.

3 And in Him dwells The Ruach of cochmah and the ruach which gives insight and the ruach of binah and of might and the ruach of those who have fallen asleep in tzedakah.

4 And He shall judge the secret things and none shall be able to utter a lying word before Him; for he is the Anointed One (Yahushua) before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot according to His tov pleasure.

50 And in those yamim a change shall take place for the kadosh and elect and the ohr of yamim shall abide upon them and esteem and kavod shall turn to the kadosh ones,

2 On the yom of affliction on which evil shall have been stored up against the sinners. And the tzadikim shall be victorious in The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot: And He will cause the others to witness (this) that they may make teshuvah and forgo the works of their hands.

3 They shall have no kavod without The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot; yet through His Name shall they be saved and אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot will have rachamim on them, for His rachamim is great.

4 And He is tzadik also in His mishpat and in the presence of His esteem unrighteousness also shall not maintain itself: At His mishpat the unrepentant shall perish before Him.

5 And from then on I will have no rachamim on them, says אִתְּךָ Tzevaot.

51 And in those yamim shall the dust also give back that which has been entrusted to it and Sheol also shall give back that which it has received and hell shall give back that which it owes (Revelation Ch. 20:13-14 quotes Chanok. They are opened for mishpat).

1a: For in those yamim the Anointed One (Yahushua) shall arise,

2 And He shall choose the tzadikim and kadosh ones from among them: For the yom has drawn near that they should be saved.

3 And the Anointed One shall in those yamim sit on My kesay and His mouth shall pour forth all the secrets of chochmah and counsel: For אִתְּךָ Tzevaot has given (them) to Him and has esteemed Him.

4 And in those yamim shall the mountains leap like rams and the hills also shall skip like lambs satisfied with milk and the faces of [all] the malachim in the shamayim shall be lit up with simcha.

5a: And the earth shall rejoice,

5b: And the tzadikim shall dwell upon it, 5c: And the elect shall walk on it.

52 And after those yamim in that place where I had seen all the visions of that which is hidden—for; 2 I had been carried off in a whirlwind and they had borne me towards the west—there my eyes saw all the secret things of the shamayim that shall be, a har of iron and a har of copper and a har of silver and a har of gold and a har of soft metal and a har of lead.

3 And I asked the malach who went with me, saying, What things are, those which I have seen in;

4 Secret? And he said to me: 'All these things which you have seen shall serve the dominion of His Anointed One that He may be potent and mighty in the earth.

5 And that malach of shalom answered, saying to me: 'Wait a little and there shall be revealed to you all the secret things which surround אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

6 And these mountains which your eyes have seen, The har of iron and the har of copper and the har of silver and the har of gold and the har of soft metal and the har of lead, all these shall be in the presence of the Anointed One as wax: before the fire and like the mayim which streams down from above [upon those mountains] and they shall become powerless before His feet (mountains symbolize the malchutim of man).

7 And it shall come to pass in those yamim that none shall be saved, either by gold or by silver and none shall be able to escape.

8 And there shall be no iron for war, nor shall one clothe oneself with a breastplate. Bronze shall be of no service and tin [shall be of no service and] shall not be esteemed and lead shall not be desired.

9 And all these things shall be [denied and] destroyed from the surface of the earth, When the Anointed One shall appear before the face of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

53 There my eyes saw a deep valley with open mouths and all who dwell in the earth and sea and islands shall bring to Him gifts and presents and tokens of homage but that deep valley shall not become full.

2 And their hands commit torahless deeds and the sinners devour all whom they lawlessly oppress: Yet the sinners shall be destroyed before the face of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and they shall be banished from off the face of His earth and they shall perish le-olam-va-ed.

3 For I saw all the malachim of punishment abiding (there) and preparing all the instruments of s.a.tan.

4 And I asked the malach of shalom who went with me: for whom are they preparing these instruments?

5 And he said to me: 'They prepare these for the melechim and the mighty of this earth, that they may by them be destroyed.

6 And after this the Tzadik and Anointed One shall cause the bayit of His kehilla to appear: then on they shall be no more hindered in The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

7 And these mountains shall not stand as the earth before His tzedakah but the hills shall be as a fountain of mayim and the tzadikim shall have rest from the oppression of sinners.

(See Revelation Ch. 6)

54 And I looked and turned to another part of the earth and saw there a deep valley with burning; 2 Fire; and they brought the melechim and the mighty and began to expel them into this deep valley.

3 And there my eyes saw how they made these their instruments, iron chains of immeasurable weight.

4 And I asked the malach of shalom who went with me, saying: For whom are these chains being prepared?

5 And he said to me: These are being prepared for the hosts of Azazel, so that they may take them and expel them into the abyss of complete condemnation and they shall cover their jaws with rough stones as אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot commanded.

6 And Mikael and Gavriel and Raphael and Phanuel shall take hold of them on that great yom and expel them on that yom into the burning furnace, that אִלְלָאֵל Tzevaot may take vengeance on them for their unrighteousness in becoming subject to s.a.tan and leading astray those who dwell in the earth.

7 And in those yamim shall punishment come from אִלְלָאֵל Tzevaot and he will open all the chambers of mayim which are above the shamayim and of the fountains which are beneath the earth.

8 And all the mayim shall be joined with the mayim: that which is above the shamayim is the masculine,

9 And the mayim which is beneath the earth is the feminine. And they shall destroy all who dwell;

10 In the earth and those who dwell under the ends of the shamayim. And when they have recognized their unrighteousness which they have done in the earth, then by these shall they perish (flood of Noah predicted).

55 And after that the Ancient of Yamim repented and said: In vain have I destroyed all who dwell; 2 In the earth. And He swore by His great Name: In the future I will not do so to all who dwell in the earth and I will set an ot in the shamayim: and this shall be a pledge of tov emunah between Me and them le-olam-va -ed, so long as the shamayim is above the earth. And this is in accordance with My mitzvah.

3 When I have desired to take hold of them by the hand of the malachim on the yom of tribulation and pain because of this, I will cause My chastisement and My wrath to abide upon them, says;

4 אִלְלָאֵל, Tzevaot. You mighty melechim who dwell in the earth, you shall have to behold My Anointed One, how He sits on the kesay of esteem and shophtim Azazel and all his associates and all his hosts in the name of אַזַּזִּי Tzevaot.

56 And I saw there the hosts of the malachim of punishment going and they held scourges and chains;

2 Of iron and bronze. And I asked the malach of shalom who went with me, saying: To whom are;

3 These who hold the scourges going? 'And he said to me: To their elect and beloved ones, that they may be expelled into the chasm of the abyss of the valley.

4 And then that valley shall be filled with their elect and beloved and the yamim of their lives shall be at an end and the yamim of their leading astray shall not furthermore be reckoned.

5 And in those yamim the malachim shall return and hurl themselves to the east upon the Parthians and Medes. They shall stir up the melechim, so that a ruach of unrest shall come upon them and they shall rouse them from their kesot, that they may break forth as lions from their lairs and as hungry wolves among their flocks.

6 And they shall go up and tread underfoot the land of His elect ones. And the land of His elect ones shall be before them a threshing-floor and a highway (predication of the Medo Persian Empire after the flood).

7 But the city of My tzadikim shall be a hindrance to their horses. And they shall begin to fight among themselves and their right hand shall be strong against themselves and a man shall not know his brother, nor a son his abba or his emma, until there be no number of the corpses through their slaughter and their punishment be not in vain.

8 In those yamim Sheol shall open its jaws and they shall be swallowed up in it and their destruction shall be at an end; Sheol shall devour the sinners in the presence of the elect.

57 And it came to pass after this that I saw another host of wagons and men riding on them and;

2 Coming on the ruachim from the east and from the west to the south. And the noise of their wagons was heard and when this turmoil took place the kadosh ones from the shamayim noted it and the pillars of the earth were moved from their place and the sound of it was heard from one end of the shamayim;

3 To the other, in one yom. And they shall all fall down and worship אֱלֹהֵי תְזַבּוֹת Tzevaot. And this is the end of the second parable.

58 And I began to speak the third parable concerning the tzadikim and elect.

2 Blessed are you, you tzadikim and elect, for exalted shall be your lot.

3 And the tzadikim shall be in the ohr of the shemesh. And the elect in the ohr of eternal chayim: the yamim of their chayim shall be unending and the yamim of the kadosh ones without number.

4 And they shall seek The Ohr (Yahushua) and find tzedakah with אֱלֹהֵי תְזַבּוֹת Tzevaot: There shall be shalom to the tzadikim in The Name of the Eternal אֱלֹהֵי תְזַבּוֹת.

5 And after this it shall be said to the kadosh ones in the shamayim that they should seek out the secrets of tzedakah, the heritage of emunah: for it has become bright as the shemesh in the earth and the darkness is past.

6 And there shall be an Ohr that never ends and no limit of yamim; they shall come to it, for the darkness shall first have been destroyed and the ohr of tzedakah established le-olam-va-ed before אֶלֶף תְּצַוֹת Tzevaot.

59 In those yamim my eyes saw the secrets of the lightning and of the lights and the mishpatim they execute; and they lighten for a bracha or a curse as אֶלֶף תְּצַוֹת;

2 Tzevaot wills it; and there I saw the secrets of the thunder and how when it resounds above in the shamayim, the sound of it is heard and He caused me to see the mishpatim executed in the earth, whether they are for well-being and bracha, or for a curse according to The Word of אֶלֶף תְּצַוֹת Tzevaot.

3 And after that all the secrets of the lights and lightning were showed to me and how they lighten for bracha and for satisfying.

60 In the year 500, in the seventh chodesh, on the fourteenth yom of the chodesh in the chayim of Chanok. In that parable I saw how a mighty quaking made the shamayim of shamayim to quake and the hosts of אֶלֶף תְּצַוֹת and the; malachim, a thousand thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, were

2 Disquieted with a great disquiet. And the Ancient of Yamim sat on the kesay of His esteem and the malachim and the tzadikim stood around Him.

3 And a great trembling seized me and fear took hold of me and my loins gave derech and dissolved were my reins and I fell upon my face.

4 And Mikael sent another malach from among the kadosh ones and he raised me up and when he had raised me up my ruach returned; for I had not been able to endure the look of this host and the.

5 Commotion and the quaking of the shamayim.
And Mikael said to me: 'Why are you disquieted with such a vision? Until this yom, lasted the yom of His rachamim; and He has been merciful and;

6 Long-suffering towards those who dwell in the earth. And when the yom and the Power and the punishment and the mishpat come, which אַף־אֵלֶּיךָ Tzevaot has prepared for those who worship not the Tzadik One of Torah and for those who deny the tzadik mishpatim and for those who take His Name in vain-that yom is prepared, for the elect a brit but for sinners a destruction. 6a When the punishment of אַף־אֵלֶּיךָ Tzevaot shall rest upon them, it shall rest in order that the punishment of אַף־אֵלֶּיךָ Tzevaot may not come, in vain and it shall slay the children with their mothers and the children with their ahvot. Afterwards the mishpat shall take place according to His rachamim and His patience.

7 And on that yom were two monsters parted, a female monster named Leviathan, to dwell in the;
8 Abysses of the ocean over the fountains of the mayim. But the male is named Behemoth, who occupied with his breast a waste midbar named Duidain, on the east of the garden where the elect and tzadikim dwell, where my grandfather was taken up, the seventh from Ahdahm, the first;
9 Man whom אַף־אֵלֶּיךָ Tzevaot created. And I sought the other malach that he should show me the might of those monsters, how they were parted on one yom and expelled, the one into the abysses;
10 Of the sea and the other to the dry land of the midbar. And he said to me: you son of man (Chanok), herein you do seek to know what is hidden.

11 And the other malach who went with me and showed to me what was hidden told me what is first and last in the shamayim in the height and beneath the earth in the depth and at the ends of the;

12 Shamayim and on the foundation of the shamayim. And the chambers of the ruachim and how the ruachim are divided and how they are weighed and (how) the windows of the ruachim are reckoned, each according to the power of the ruach and the power of the lights of the yarayach and according to the power that is fitting: and the divisions of the chochavim according to their names and how all the divisions;

13 Are divided. And the thunders according to the places where they fall and all the divisions that are made among the lightning that it may lighten and their host that they may at once obey.

14 For the thunder has places of rest (which) are assigned (to it) while it is waiting for its peal; and the thunder and lightning are inseparable and although not one and undivided, they both go together;

15 Through the ruach and separate not. For when the lightning lightens, the thunder utters its voice and the ruach enforces a pause during the peal and divides equally between them; for the treasury of their peals is like the sand and each one of them as it peals is held in with a bridle and turned back by the power of the ruach and pushed forward according to the many quarters of the earth.

16 And the ruach of the sea is masculine and strong and according to the might of his strength he draws it back with a rein and in like manner it is driven forward and disperses amid all the mountains;

17 Of the earth. And the ruach of the frost is its own malach and the ruach of the hail is a tov;

18 Malach. And the ruach of the snow has forsaken his chambers on account of his strength -There is a special ruach in it and that which ascends from it is like smoke and its name is frost.

19 And the ruach of the mist is not united with them in their chambers but it has a special chamber; for its course is exalted both in ohr and in darkness and in winter and in summer and in its chamber is a malach.

20 And the ruach of the dew has its dwelling at the ends of the shamayim and is connected with the chambers of the rain and its course is in winter and summer: and its clouds and the clouds of the;

21 Mist are connected and the one gives to the other. And when the ruach of the rain goes forth from its chamber, the malachim come and open the chamber and lead it out and when it is distributed over the whole earth; it unites with the mayim in the earth. And whenever it unites with the mayim on;

22 The earth it is echad with the mayim above. For the mayim are for those who dwell in the earth; for they are nourishment for the earth from אֱלֹהִים who is in the shamayim: therefore there is a measure for the rain, 22a And the malachim take it in charge. And these things I saw towards the Garden of the Tzadik.

23 And the malach of shalom who was with me said to me: These two monsters, prepared conformably to the greatness of אֱלֹהִים, where He shall feed.

61 And I saw in those yamim how long cords were given to those malachim and they took to themselves wings and flew and they went towards the north.

2 And I asked the malach, saying to him: Why have those (malachim) taken these cords and gone off? And he said to me: they have gone to measure.

3 And the malach who went with me said to me: these shall bring the measures of the tzadikim and the ropes of the tzadikim to the tzadikim, that they may fix themselves on The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot le-olam-va-ed.

4 The elect shall begin to dwell with the elect and those are the measures which shall be given to emunah and which shall strengthen tzedakah (only in a community of brethren that dwell together).

5 And these measures shall reveal all the secrets of the depths of the earth and those who have been destroyed by the midbar and those who have been devoured by the beasts and those who have been devoured by the fish of the sea, That they may return and fix themselves on the yom of the Anointed One; for none of the saved shall be destroyed before אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot and none can be destroyed.

6 And all who dwell above in the shamayim received a command and power and one voice and one ohr like to fire.

7 And that One (with) their first words they blessed and extolled and lauded with chochmah and they were wise in utterance and in the ruach of chayim.

8 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot placed the Anointed One (Yahushua) on the kesay of esteem. And He shall judge all the works of the kadosh ones above in the shamayim and in the balance shall their deeds be weighed 9 And when He shall lift up His countenance to judge their secret derachot according to The Word of The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot and their derech according to the derech of the tzadik mishpat of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot, then shall they all with one voice speak and bless and esteem and extol and sanctify The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot.

10 And He will summon all the hosts of the shamayim and all the kadosh ones above and the host of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, the Cherubic, Seraphin and Ophannin and all the malachim of power and all the malachim of principalities and the Anointed One and the other powers in the earth (and) over the mayim; on that yom they shall raise one voice, 11 And bless and esteem and exalt in the ruach of emunah and in the ruach of chochmah and in the ruach of patience and in the ruach of rachamim and in the ruach of mishpat and of shalom and in the ruach of tovness and shall all bless with one voice: Blessed is He and may The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot be blessed le-olam-va-ed.

12 All who sleep not above in the shamayim shall bless Him: all the kadosh ones who are in the shamayim shall bless Him and all the elect who dwell in the Garden of Chayim: and every ruach of ohr who is able to bless and esteem and extol and hallow Your blessed Name and all flesh shall beyond measure esteem and bless Your Name le-olam-va-ed.

13 For great is the rachamim of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and He is longsuffering and all His works and all that He has created He has revealed to the tzadikim and elect in The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

62 And so אֱלֹהִים commanded the melechim and the mighty and the exalted and those who dwell in the earth and said: Open your eyes and lift up your horns if you are able to recognize the Anointed One (Yahushua).

2 And אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot seated Him on the kesay of His esteem and The Ruach of tzedakah was poured out upon Him and The Word of His mouth slays all the sinners and all the unrighteous are destroyed from before His face.

3 And there shall stand up in that yom all the melechim and the mighty and the exalted and those who hold the earth and they shall see and recognize how He sits on the kesay of His esteem and tzedakah is judged before Him and no lying Word is spoken before Him.

4 Then shall pain come upon them as on a woman in travail, [and she has pain in bringing forth] When her child enters the mouth of the womb and she has pain in bringing forth (if they fail to see Yahushua as The Son of Man).

5 And one portion of them shall look on the other and they shall be terrified and they shall be downcast of countenance and pain shall seize them, When they see that Ben Ahdahm sitting on the kesay of His esteem.

6 And the melechim and the mighty and all who possess the earth shall bless and esteem and extol Him who rules over all, who was hidden (in Abba's bosom).

7 For from the beginning The Ben Ahdahm was hidden and אֱלֹהִים preserved Him in the presence of His might and revealed Him only to the elect.

8 And the kehilla of the elect and kadosh ones shall be sown and all the elect shall stand before Him on that yom.

9 And all the melechim and the mighty and the exalted and those who rule the earth shall fall down before Him on their faces and worship and set their tikvah upon that Ben Ahdahm and petition Him and make tefillah for rachamim at His Hands.

10 Nevertheless that אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot will so press them that they shall hastily go forth from His presence and their faces shall be filled with shame and the darkness will grow deeper on their faces.

11 And He will deliver them to the malachim for punishment, to execute vengeance on them because they have oppressed His children and His elect.

12 And they shall be a spectacle for the tzadikim and for His elect: They shall rejoice over them because the wrath of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot rests upon them and His sword is drunk with their dahm.

13 And the tzadikim and elect shall be saved on that yom and they shall never again see the face of the sinners and unrighteous.

14 And אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot will abide over them and with that Ben Ahdahm shall they eat and lie down and rise up le-olam-va-ed.

15 And the tzadikim and elect shall have risen from the earth and ceased to be of downcast countenance. And they shall have been clothed with garments of esteem, 16 And these shall be the garments of chayim from אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot (garments of Yahushua's tzedakah): And your garments shall not grow old, nor your esteem pass away before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

63 In those yamim shall the mighty and the melechim who possess the earth implore (Him) to grant them a little respite from His malachim of punishment to whom they were delivered, that they might fall;

2 Down and worship before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and confess their sins before Him. And they shall bless and esteem אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and say: Blessed is אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot and אֱלֹהִים of melechim and אֱלֹהִים of the mighty and אֱלֹהִים of the rich and אֱלֹהִים of esteem and אֱלֹהִים of chochmah,

3 And splendid in every secret thing is Your Power from generation to generation and Your esteem le-olam-va-ed: Deep are all Your secrets and innumerable and Your tzedakah is beyond reckoning.

4 We have now learned that we should esteem and bless אֱלֹהִים of melechim and Him who is Melech over all melechim.

5 And they shall say: Would that we had rest to esteem and give hodu and confess our emunah before His esteem.

6 And now we long for a little rest but find it not: We try hard to obtain it but find it not: And ohr has vanished from before us and darkness is our dwelling place le-olam-va-ed:

7 For we have not believed on Him nor esteemed The Name of אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot but our tikvah was in the scepter of our malchut and in our esteem.

8 And in the yom of our suffering and tribulation He saves us not; and we find no rest for confession that our אֱלֹהִים is emet in all His works and in His mishpatim and His justice and His mishpatim have no respect of persons.

9 And we pass away from before His face on account of our works and all our sins are swallowed up in His tzedakah.

10 Now they shall say to themselves: Our beings are full of unrighteous gain but it does not prevent us from descending from the midst of earth into the burden of Sheol.

11 And after that their faces shall be filled with darkness and shame before that Ben Ahdahm and they shall be driven from His presence and the sword shall abide before His face in their midst.

12 Then spoke אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot: This is the ordinance and mishpat with respect to the mighty and the melechim and the exalted and those who possess the earth before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot.

64 And other forms I saw hidden in that place. I heard the voice of the malach saying: 'These are the malachim who descended to the earth and revealed what was hidden to the children of men and seduced the children of men into committing sin.

65 And in those yamim Noah saw the earth that it had sunk down and its destruction was near.
2 And he arose from there and went to the ends of the earth and cried aloud to his grandfather Chanok:
3 And Noah said three times with an embittered voice: Hear me, hear me and hear me. And I said to him: Tell me what it is that is falling out in the earth that the earth is in such evil plight;
4 And shaken, if perhaps I shall perish with it? And upon it there was a great commotion in the earth and a voice was heard from the shamayim and I fell on my face.
5 And Chanok my grandfather came and stood by me and said to me: Why have you cried to me with a bitter cry and weeping;
6 A command has gone forth from the presence of אֱלֹהִים concerning those who dwell in the earth that their ruin is accomplished because they have learned all the secrets of the malachim and all the violence of the demons and all their powers -the most secret ones- and all the power of those who practice sorcery and the power of witchcraft and the power of those who make molten images;
7 For the whole earth: And how silver is produced from the dust of the earth and how soft metal;
8 Originates in the earth. For lead and tin are not produced from the earth like the first: it is a fountain;
9 That produces them and a malach stands there and that malach is pre-eminent. And after that my grandfather Chanok took hold of me by my hand and raised me up and said to me: Go, for I have;
10 Asked אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot as touching this commotion in the earth. And He said to me: Because of their unrighteousness their mishpat has been determined and shall not be withheld by Me le-olam-va-ed.

Because of the sorceries which they have searched out and learned, the earth and those;

11 Who dwell upon it shall be destroyed. And they have no place of teshuvah le-olam-va-ed because they have showed them what was hidden and they are the damned: but as for you, My son, אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot knows that you are pure and guiltless of this reproach concerning the secrets.

12 And He has destined your name to be among the kadosh ones and will preserve you among those who dwell in the earth and has destined your tzadik zera both for kingship and for great honors and from your zera shall proceed a fountain of the tzadikim and kadosh ones without number le-olam-va-ed.

66 And after that he showed me the malachim of punishment who are prepared to come and let loose all the powers of the mayim which are beneath in the earth in order to bring mishpat and destruction;
2 On all who abide and dwell in the earth. And אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot gave mitzvah to the malachim who were going forth, that they should not cause the mayim to rise but should hold them;

3 In check; for those malachim were over the powers of the mayim. And I went away from the presence of Chanok.

67 And in those yamim The Word of אֱלֹהִים came to me and He said to me: Noah, your lot has come;
2 Up before Me, a lot without blame, a lot of ahava and tzedakah. And now the malachim are making a wooden [ark] and when they have completed that task I will place My hand upon it and preserve it and there shall come forth from it the zera of chayim and a change shall set in so that the;

3 Earth will not remain without inhabitant. (seems like Noah had help in building the ark from the kadosh malachim.) And I will make strong your zera before me le-olam-va-ed and I will spread abroad those who dwell with you: it shall not be unfruitful on the face of the earth but it shall be blessed and multiply in the earth in The Name of אֱלֹהִים.

4 And He will imprison those malachim, who have showed unrighteousness, in that burning valley which my grandfather Chanok had formerly showed to me in the west among the mountains of gold;

5 And silver and iron and soft metal and tin. And I saw that valley in which there was a great;

6 Convulsion and a convulsion of the mayim. And when all this took place, from that fiery molten metal and from the convulsion of it in that place, there was produced a smell of sulphur and it was connected with those mayim and that valley of the malachim who had led astray (mankind) burned;

7 Beneath that land. And through its valleys proceed streams of fire, where these malachim are punished who had led astray those who dwell in the earth (Mt. Hermon).

8 But those mayim shall in those yamim serve for the melechim and the mighty and the exalted and those who dwell in the earth, for the healing of the gooff but for the punishment of the ruach; now their ruach is full of lust, that they may be punished in their gooff, for they have denied אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot;

9 And see their punishment daily and yet believe not in His Name. And in proportion as the burning of their bodies becomes severe, a corresponding change shall take place in their ruach le-olam-va-ed;

10 For before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot none shall utter an idle word; for the mishpat shall come upon them,

11 Because they believe in the lust of their gooff and deny The Ruach of אֱלֹהִים And those same mayim will undergo a change in those yamim; for when those malachim are punished in these mayim, these mayim-springs shall change their temperature and when the malachim ascend, this mayim of the; 12 Springs shall change and become cold. And I heard Mikael answering and saying: This mishpat with which the malachim are judged is a testimony for the melechim and the mighty that possess the; 13 Earth. Because these mayim of mishpat minister to the healing of the gooff of the melechim and the lust of their gooff; therefore they will not see and will not believe that those mayim will change and become a fire which burns le-olam-va-ed.

68 And after that my grandfather Chanok gave me the teaching of all the secrets in the sefer in the mishle which had been given to him and he put them together for me in the Words of the sefer; 2 Of the mishle. And on that yom Mikael answered Raphael and said: 'the power of the ruach transports and makes me to tremble because of the severity of the mishpat of the secrets, the mishpat of the malachim: who can endure the severe mishpat which has been executed and before; 3 Which they melt away? And Mikael answered again and said to Raphael: 'Who is he whose lev is not softened concerning it and whose reins are not troubled by this Word of mishpat; 4 (That) has gone forth upon them because of those who have led them out? And it came to pass when he stood before אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot, Mikael said to Raphael: 'I will not take their part under the eye of אֱלֹהִים; for אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot has been angry with them because they act; 5 As if they were אֱלֹהִים. Therefore all that is hidden shall come upon them le-olam-va-ed; for neither malach nor man shall have his portion (in it) but alone they have received their mishpat le-olam-va-ed.

69 And after this mishpat they shall terrify and make them to tremble because they have showed this to those who dwell in the earth.

2 And behold the names of those malachim: the first of them is Semyaza, the second Artaqifa and the third Armen, the fourth Kokavel, the fifth Turael, the sixth Rumyal, the seventh Danyal, the eighth Neqael, the ninth Baraqel, the tenth Azazel, the eleventh Armaros, the twelfth Bataryal, the thirteenth Busaseyal, the fourteenth Hananel, the fifteenth Turel and the sixteenth Simapesiel, the seventeenth Yetrel, the eighteenth Tumael, the nineteenth Turel,

3 The twentieth Rumael, the twenty-first Azazel. And these are the chiefs of their malachim and their names and their chief ones over hundreds and over fifties and over tens].

4 The name of the first Yeqon: that is, the one who led astray [all] the sons of אֱלֹהִים and brought them.

5 Down to the earth and led them astray through the daughters of men. And the second was named Asveel: he imparted to the kadosh sons of אֱלֹהִים evil counsel and led them astray so that they defiled;

6 Their bodies with the daughters of men. And the third was named Gadreel: he it is who showed the children of men all the blows of death and he led astray Chava and showed [the weapons of death to the sons of men] the shield and the coat of mail and the sword for battle and all the weapons;

7 Of death to the children of men. And from his hand they have proceeded against those who dwell;

8 In the earth from that yom and le-olam-va-ed. And the fourth was named Penemue: he taught the;

9 Children of men the bitter and the sweet and he taught them all the secrets of their chochmah. And he instructed mankind in writing with ink and paper and thereby many sinned from eternity to;

10 This yom. For men were not created for such a purpose, to give confirmation;

11 To their tov emunah with pen and ink. For men were created exactly like the malachim, to the intent that they should continue pure and tzadik and death, which destroys everything, could not have taken hold of them but through this their da'at they are perishing and through this power;

12 It is consuming me. And the fifth was named Kasdeya: this is he who showed the children of men all the wicked beatings of ruachim and demons and the beatings of the embryo in the womb [abortion], that it may pass away and [the beatings of the being] the bites of the serpent and the beatings;

13 Which befall through the noontide heat, the son of the serpent named Taba'et. And this is the task of Kasveel, the chief of the oath which he showed to the kadosh ones when he dwelt high;

14 Above in esteem and its name is Biqa. This (malach) requested Mikael to show him the hidden Name that he might enunciate it in the oath, so that those might quake before that Name and oath who revealed all that was in secret to the children of men.

15 And this is the power of this oath, for it is powerful and strong and he placed this oath Akae in the hand of Mikael.

16 And these are the secrets of this oath. And they are strong through his oath: And the shamayim was suspended before the earth was created and le-olam-va-ed.

17 And through it the earth was founded upon the mayim and from the secret recesses of the mountains come beautiful mayim, from the creation of the earth and to eternity.

18 And through that oath the sea was created and as its foundation He set for it the sand against the time of (its) anger and it dare not pass beyond it from the creation of the earth to eternity.

19 And through that oath are the depths made fast and abide and stir not from their place from eternity to eternity.

20 And through that oath the shemesh and yarayach complete their course and deviate not from their ordinances from eternity to eternity.

21 And through that oath the chochavim complete their courses and He calls them by their names and they answer Him from eternity to eternity.

22 And in like manner the ruachim of the mayim and of the ruachim and of all zephyrs and (their) paths;

23 From all the quarters of the ruachim. And there are preserved the voices of the thunder and the ohr of the lightning: and there are preserved the chambers of the hail and the chambers of the;

24 Hoarfrost and the chambers of the mist and the chambers of the rain and the dew. And all these believe and give hodu before אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot and esteem (Him) with all their power and their food is in every act of thanksgiving: they thank and esteem and extol The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot le-olam-va-ed.

25 And this oath is mighty over them and through it [they are preserved and] their paths are preserved and their course is not destroyed.

26 And there was great simcha among them and they blessed and esteemed and extolled because The Name of that Ben Ahdahm had been revealed to them.

27 And He sat on the kesay of His esteem and the sum of mishpat was given to The Ben Ahdahm and He caused the sinners to pass away and be destroyed from off the face of the earth and those who have led the earth astray.

28 With chains shall they be bound and in their assembly shall they be imprisoned and all their works vanish from the face of the earth.

29 And from then on there shall be nothing corruptible; for that Ben Ahdahm has appeared and has seated Himself on the kesay of His esteem and all evil shall pass away before His face and The Word of that Ben Ahdahm shall go forth and be strong before אֲרָאֵל Tzevaot.

70 And it came to pass after this that his name during his lifetime was raised aloft to that Ben Ahdahm;

2 And to אֲרָאֵל Tzevaot from among those who dwell in the earth. And he was raised aloft;

3 On the mirkavoth of the ruach and his name vanished among them (speaking of Chanok who was exalted into YAH's presence). And from that yom I was no longer numbered among men: and he set me between the two ruachim, between the North and the;

4 West, where the malachim took the cords to measure for me the place for the elect and tzadik. And there I saw the first ahvot and the tzadikim who from the beginning dwell in that place.

71 And it came to pass after this that my ruach was translated and it ascended into the shamayim: And I saw the kadosh sons of אֲרָאֵל. They were stepping on flames of fire: Their garments were white [and their raiment] and their faces shone like snow.

2 And I saw two streams of fire and the ohr of that fire shone like hyacinth and I fell on my face before אֲרָאֵל Tzevaot.

3 And the malach Mikael [one of the archangels] seized me by my right hand and lifted me up and led me forth into all the secrets and he showed me all the secrets of tzedakah.

4 And he showed me all the secrets of the ends of the shamayim and all the chambers of all the chochavim and all the luminaries, from where they proceed before the face of the kadosh ones.

5 And he translated my ruach into the shamayim of shamayim and I saw there as it were a structure built of crystals and between those crystals, tongues of living fire.

6 And my ruach saw the girdle which covered that bayit of fire and on its four sides were streams full of living fire and they covered that bayit.

7 And all around were Seraphin, Cheruvim and Ophannin: And these are they who sleep not and guard the kesay of His esteem.

8 And I saw malachim who could not be counted, a thousand thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, encircling that bayit.

9 And Mikael and Raphael and Gavriel and Phanuel and the kadosh malachim, who are above the shamayim, go in and out of that bayit. And they came forth from that bayit and Mikael and Gavriel, Raphael and Phanuel and many kadosh malachim without number.

10 And with them the Ancient of Yamim, His head white and pure as wool and His raiment indescribable.

11 And I fell on my face and my whole gooff became relaxed and my ruach was transfigured;

12 And I cried with a loud voice, with the ruach of power and blessed and esteemed and extolled.

13 And these brachot which went forth out of my mouth were well pleasing before the Ancient of Yamim.

14 And that Ancient of Yamim came with Mikael and Gavriel, Raphael and Phanuel, thousands and ten thousands of malachim without number.

15 With them was the Ancient of Yamim, whose head was white as wool and pure and His robe was indescribable.

16 And he (the malach) came to me and greeted me with His voice and said to me This is The Ben Ahdahm who is born to tzedakah and abides over Him and the tzedakah of the Ancient of Yamim forsakes Him not.

17 And he said to me: He proclaims to you shalom in the name of the earth to come; for from there has proceeded shalom since the creation of the earth and so shall it be to you le-olam-va-ed.

18 And all shall walk in His halachot since tzedakah never forsakes Him: With Him will be their dwelling-places and with Him their heritage and they shall not be separated from Him le-olam-va-ed. And so there shall be length of yamim with that Ben Ahdahm and the tzadikim shall have shalom and an upright halacha in The Name of אהאז Tzevaot le-olam-va-ed.

The Scroll of Astronomy

72 The sefer of the courses of the luminaries of the shamayim, the relations of each, according to their classes, their dominion and their moadem, according to their names and places of origin and according to their chodashem, which Uriel, the kadosh malach, who was with me, who is their guide, showed me; and he showed me all their torot exactly as they are and how it is with regard to all the years of the earth;

2 Unto eternity, until the new creation is accomplished which endures until eternity. And this is the first Torah of the luminaries: the luminary the shemesh has its rising in the eastern windows of the shamayim,

3 And its setting in the western windows of the shamayim. And I saw six windows in which the shemesh rises and six windows in which the shemesh sets; and the yarayach rises and sets in these windows; and the leaders of the chochavim and those whom they lead: six in the east and six in the west and all following each other;

4 In accurately corresponding order: also many sub windows to the right and left of these windows. And first there goes forth the great luminary, named the shemesh and its circumference is like the;

5 Circumference of the shamayim (metaphoric language not to be taken literally) and it is quite filled with illuminating and heating fire. The mirkavah on which it ascends, the ruach drives and the shemesh goes down from the shamayim and returns through the north in order to reach the east and is so guided that it comes to the appropriate window and;

6 Shines in the face of the shamayim. In this derech it rises in the first chodesh in the great window, which;

7 Is the fourth (Aviv 1-New Year). And in that fourth window from which the shemesh rises in the first chodesh are twelve windows-openings, from which proceed a flame when they are opened in;

8 Their season. When the shemesh rises in the shamayim, it comes forth through that fourth window thirty,

9 Mornings in succession and sets accurately in the fourth window in the west of the shamayim. And during this period the yom becomes daily longer and the lyla lylaly shorter to the thirtieth;

10 Morning. On that yom the yom is longer than the lyla by a ninth part and the yom amounts exactly to ten parts and the lyla to eight parts.

11 And the shemesh rises from that fourth window and sets in the fourth window and returns to the fifth window of the east thirty mornings and rises from it and sets in the fifth window.

12 And then the yom becomes longer by two parts and amounts to eleven parts and the lyla;

13 Becomes shorter and amounts to seven parts. And it returns to the east and enters into the sixth;

14 Window and rises and sets in the sixth window thirty one mornings on account of its ot (summer).

On that yom the yom becomes longer than the lyla and the yom becomes double the lyla and the yom;

15 Becomes twelve parts and the lyla is shortened and becomes six parts. And the shemesh mounts up again to make the yom shorter and the lyla longer and the shemesh returns to the east and enters into the;

16 Sixth window and rises from it and sets thirty mornings. And when thirty mornings are accomplished,

17 The yom decreases by exactly one part and becomes eleven parts and the lyla seven parts. And the shemesh goes forth from that sixth window in the west and goes to the east and rises in the fifth window for;

18 Thirty mornings and sets in the west again in the fifth western window. On that yom the yom decreases by two parts and amounts to ten parts and the lyla to eight parts.

19 And the shemesh goes forth from that fifth window and sets in the fifth window of the west and rises in the fourth window for;

20 Thirty one mornings on account of its ot (fall) and sets in the west. On that yom the yom is equalized with the lyla, [and becomes of equal length] and the lyla amounts to nine parts and the yom to;

21 Nine parts. And the shemesh rises from that window and sets in the west and returns to the east and rises;

22 Thirty mornings in the third window and sets in the west in the third window. And on that yom the lyla becomes longer than the yom and lyla becomes longer and yom shorter until the thirtieth boker and the lyla amounts exactly to ten parts and the yom to eight;

23 Parts. And the shemesh rises from that third window and sets in the third window in the west and returns to the east and for thirty mornings' rises; then it rises;

24 In the second window in the east and in like manner sets in the second window in the west of the shamayim. And on that yom the lyla amounts to eleven;

25 Parts and the yom to seven parts. And the shemesh rises on that yom from that second window and sets in the west in the second window and returns to the east into the first window for thirty one;

26 Mornings and sets in the first window in the west of the shamayim. And on that yom the lyla becomes longer and amounts to the double of the yom: and the lyla amounts exactly to twelve parts and;

27 The yom to six. And the shemesh has now traversed the divisions of its orbit and turns again to those divisions of its orbit and enters that first window again thirty mornings and sets also in the west:

28 Opposite to it. And on that lyla has the lyla decreased in length by a ninth part and the lyla;

29 Has become eleven parts and the yom seven parts. And the shemesh has returned and entered into the second window in the east and returns on those his divisions of its orbit for thirty mornings, rising;

30 And setting. And on that yom the lyla decreases in length and the lyla amounts to ten parts;

31 And the yom to eight. And on that yom the shemesh rises from that window and sets in the west and returns to the east and rises in the third window for thirty one mornings and sets in the west of the shamayim.

32 On that yom the lyla decreases and amounts to nine parts and the yom to nine parts and the lyla;

33 Is equal to the yom and the year is exactly as to its yamim three hundred and sixty-four. And the length of the yom and of the lyla and the shortness of the yom and of the lyla grow-through the course;

34 Of the shemesh when these distinctions are made. So it comes that its course becomes;

35 Daily longer and its course nightly shorter.

36 And this is The Torah and the course of the shemesh and its return as often as it returns sixty times (in windows 6 and 1 + markers) and rises, i.e.
the great luminary which is named the shemesh, leolam-va-ed.

37 And that which rises is the great luminary and is so named according to its appearance, according as אָרְבַּע commanded.

38 As it rises, so it sets and decreases not and rests not; but runs yom and lyla and its ohr is sevenfold brighter than that of the yarayach; but as regards to visual size they are both equal (As viewed from earth not in reality).

73 And after this Torah I saw another Torah dealing with the smaller luminary, which is named the yarayach (yarayach). And its circumference is like the circumference of the shamayim (as seen from earth) and its mirkavah in which it rides is driven by the ruach and ohr is given to it in definite measure.

2 And its rising and setting change every chodesh: and its yamim are like the yamim of the shemesh and when its ohr is uniform (i.e. full) it amounts to the seventh part of the ohr of the shemesh.

3 And like this it rises.

4 And its first phase in the east comes forth on the thirtieth boker: and on that yom it becomes visible and constitutes for you the first phase of the yarayach on the thirtieth yom together with the shemesh in the window where the shemesh rises.

5 And the one half of it goes forth by a seventh part and its whole circumference is empty, without ohr, with the exception of one-seventh part of it, (and) the;

6 Fourteenth part of its ohr. And when it receives one-seventh part of the half of its ohr, its ohr;

7 Amounts to one-seventh part and the half of it.

And it sets with the shemesh and when the shemesh rises the yarayach rises with it and receives the half of one part of ohr and in that lyla in the beginning of its boker [in the commencement of the lunar yom] the yarayach sets with the shemesh and;

8 Is invisible that lyla with the fourteen parts and the half of one of them. And it rises on that yom with exactly a seventh part and comes forth and recedes from the rising of the shemesh and in its remaining yamim it becomes brighter in the (remaining) thirteen parts.

74 And I saw another course, a Torah for it, (and) how according to that Torah it performs its monthly;

2 Revolution. And all these Uriel, the kadosh malach who is the leader of them all, showed to me and their positions and I wrote down their positions as he showed them to me and I wrote down their chodashem;

3 As they were and the appearance of their lights until fifteen yamim were accomplished. In single seventh parts it accomplishes all its ohr in the east and in single seventh parts accomplishes all its;

4 Darkness in the west. And in certain chodashem it alters its settings and in certain chodashem it pursues;

5 Its own peculiar course. In two chodashem the yarayach sets with the shemesh: in those two middle windows the;

6 Third and the fourth. She goes forth for seven yamim and turns about and returns again through the window where the shemesh rises and accomplishes all its ohr: and it recedes from the shemesh and in eight;

7 Yamim enters the sixth window from which the shemesh goes forth. And when the shemesh goes forth from the fourth window it goes forth seven yamim, until it goes forth from the fifth and turns back again in seven yamim into the fourth window and accomplishes all its ohr: and it recedes and enters into the;

8 First window in eight yamim.

9 And it returns again in seven yamim into the fourth window from which the shemesh goes forth.

10 So I saw their position-how the yarayach rose and the shemesh set in those yamim. And if five years are added together the shemesh has an excess of thirty yamim and all the yamim which accrue;

11 To it for one of those five years, when they are full, amount to 364 yamim. And the excess of the shemesh and of the chochavim amounts to six yamim: in 5 years 6 yamim every year come to 30 yamim: and the;

12 Yarayach falls behind the shemesh and chochavim to the number of 30 yamim. And the shemesh and the chochavim bring in all the years exactly, so that they do not advance or delay their position by a single yom to eternity; but complete the years with perfect mishpat in 364 yamim. In 2 years there are 708 lunar yamim and in 5 years 1,770 lunar yamim, so that in 8 years there are 2,832 yamim.

13 For the yarayach by itself, the yamim amount in 2 years to 708 yamim and in 5 years it falls 50 yamim behind (10 x 5): And in 5 years there are 1,770 lunar yamim, so that for the yarayach, the yamim in 8 years amount to 2,832 yamim; it falls behind in 8 years 80 yamim (364-354=10 yamim per year).

14 And the year is accurately completed in conformity with their lunar stations and the stations of the shemesh, which rise from the windows through which it rises and sets 30 yamim.

75 And the leaders of the heads of the thousands, who are placed over the whole creation and over all the chochavim, have also to do with the four intercalary yamim (4 season markers), being inseparable from their office, according to the reckoning of the year and these render service on the four yamim which are not;

2 reckoned in the reckoning of the year. And owing to them men go wrong, for those luminaries truly render service on the stations, one in the first window (winter), one in the third window of the shamayim (spring) and one in the sixth window (summer), one in the fourth window (fall) and the exactness of the year is;

3 Accomplished through its separate three hundred and sixty-four stations. For the signs and the times and the years and the yamim the malach Uriel showed to me, whom אֱלֹהִים of esteem has set le-olam-va-ed over all the luminaries of the shamayim, in the shamayim and in the earth, that they should rule on the face of the shamayim and be seen in the earth and be leaders for the yom and the lyla, i.e. the shemesh, yarayach and chochavim and all the ministering creatures which make their revolution in all the mirkavoth;

4 Of the shamayim. In like manner twelve doors Uriel showed me; open in the circumference of the shemesh's mirkavah in the shamayim, through which the rays of the shemesh break forth: and from them is warmth;

5 Diffused over the earth, when they are opened at their appointed moadem. And for the ruachim and;

6 The ruach of the dew when they are opened, standing open in the shamayim at the ends. As for the twelve windows in the shamayim, at the ends of the earth, out of which go forth the shemesh, yarayach and chochavim,

7 And all the works of the shamayim in the east and in the west, There are many windows open to the left and right of them and one window at its (appointed) season produces warmth, corresponding (as these do) to those doors from which the chochavim come forth according as He has commanded them,

8 And in which they set corresponding to their number. And I saw mirkavoth in the shamayim, running;

9 In the earth, above those windows in which revolve the chochavim that never set. And one is larger than all the rest and it is that that makes its course through the entire earth.

76 And at the ends of the earth I saw twelve windows open to all the quarters (of the shamayim), from;

2 Which the ruachim go forth and blow over the earth. Three of them are open on the face (i.e. the east) of the shamayim and three in the west and three on the right (i.e. the south) of the shamayim and;

3 Three on the left (i.e. the north). And the three first are those of the east and three are of the;

4 North and three [after those on the left] of the south and three of the west. Through four of these come ruachim of bracha and prosperity and from those eight come hurtful ruachim: when they are sent, they bring destruction on all the earth and on the mayim upon it and on all who dwell on it and on everything which is in the mayim and on the land.

5 And the first ruach from those windows, called the east ruach, comes forth through the first window which is in the east, inclining towards the south: from it come forth desolation, drought, heat,

6 And destruction. And through the second window in the middle comes what is fitting and from it there come rain and fruitfulness and prosperity and dew; and through the third window which lies toward the north come cold and drought.

7 And after these come forth the south ruachim through three windows: through the first window of;

8 Them inclining to the east comes forth a hot ruach. And through the middle window next to it there;

9 Comes forth fragrant smells and dew and rain and prosperity and health. And through the third window lying to the west come forth dew and rain, locusts and desolation.

10 And after these the north ruachim: from the seventh window in the east come dew and rain, locusts and desolation.

11 And from the middle window come in a direct direction health and rain and dew and prosperity; and through the third window in the west come cloud and hoar-frost and snow and rain and dew and locusts.

12 And after these [four] are the west ruachim: through the first window adjoining the north come forth dew and hoar-frost and cold and snow and frost.

13 And from the middle window come forth dew and rain and prosperity and bracha; and through the last window which adjoins the south come forth drought and desolation and burning and destruction.

14 And the twelve windows of the four quarters of the shamayim are completed and all their torot and all their plagues and all their benefactions have I showed to you, my son Metushelach.

77 And the first quarter is called the east because it is the first: and the second, the south because ארבע will descend there, yes, there in quite a special sense will He who is blessed le-olam-va-ed;

2 Descend. And the west quarter is named the diminished because there all the luminaries of the;

3 The shamayim wane and go down. And the fourth quarter, named the north, is divided into three parts: the first of them is for the dwelling of men: and the second contains seas of mayim and the abysses and forests and rivers and darkness and clouds; and the third part contains the garden of tzedakah.

4 I saw seven high mountains, higher than all the mountains which are in the earth: and there;

5 Comes forth hoar-frost and yamim, moadem and years pass away. I saw seven rivers in the earth larger than all the rivers: one of them coming from the west pours its mayim into the Great Sea.

6 And these two come from the north to the sea and pour their mayim into the Erythraean Sea in the;

7 East. And the remaining, four come forth on the side of the north to their own sea, two of them to the Erythraean Sea and two into the Great Sea and discharge themselves there. Seven great islands I saw in the sea and in the mainland: two in the mainland and five in the Great Sea.

78 The names of the shemesh are the following: the first Oryares and the second Tomas.

2 And the yarayach has four names: the first name is Asonya, the second Ebla, the third Benase and the fourth;

3 Erae. These are the two great luminaries: their circumference is like the circumference of the;

4 The shamayim and the size of the circumference of both is alike (from earth's view). In the circumference of the shemesh there are seven portions of ohr which are added to it more than to the yarayach,

5 And in definite measures it is transferred until the seventh portion of the shemesh is exhausted. And they set and enter the windows of the west and make their revolution by the north and come forth through the eastern windows;

6 On the face of the shamayim. And when the yarayach rises one-fourteenth part appears in the shamayim:

7 [The ohr becomes full in it]: on the fourteenth yom it accomplishes its ohr. And fifteen parts of ohr are transferred to it until the fifteenth yom (when) its ohr is accomplished, according to the ot of the year and it becomes fifteen parts and the yarayach grows by (the addition of) fourteenth;

8 Parts. And in its waning (the yarayach) decreases on the first yom to fourteen parts of its ohr, on the second to thirteen parts of ohr, on the third to twelve, on the fourth to eleven, on the fifth to ten, on the sixth to nine, on the seventh to eight, on the eighth to seven, on the ninth to six, on the tenth to five, on the eleventh to four, on the twelfth to three, on the thirteenth to two, on the;

9 Fourteenth to the half of a seventh and all its remaining ohr disappears wholly on the fifteenth.

And:

10 In certain chodashem the lunar chodesh has twenty-nine yamim and once twenty-eight. And Uriel showed me another Torah: when ohr is transferred to the yarayach and on which side it is transferred to it by the shemesh.

11 During all the period during which the yarayach is growing in its ohr, it is transferring it to itself when opposite to the shemesh during fourteen yamim [its ohr is accomplished in the shamayim,

12 And when it is illumined throughout, its ohr is accomplished full in the shamayim. And on the first;

13 Yom (of lunar chodesh) it is called the New Yarayach, for on that yom the ohr rises upon it. She becomes full yarayach exactly on the yom when the shemesh sets in the west and from the east it rises at lyla and the yarayach shines the whole lyla through until the shemesh rises over against it and the yarayach is seen over against the shemesh.

14 On the side where the ohr of the yarayach comes forth, there again it wanes until all the ohr vanishes and all the yamim of the chodesh are at an end and its circumference is empty, void of;

15 Ohr. And three chodashem it makes of thirty yamim and at its time it makes three chodashem of twenty- nine yamim each, in which it accomplishes its waning in the first period of time and in the first; 16 Window for one hundred and seventy-seven yamim. And in the time of its going out it appears for three chodashem (of) thirty yamim each and for three chodashem it appears (of) twenty-nine each. 17 At lyla it appears like a man for twenty yamim each time and by yom it appears like the shamayim and there is nothing else in it save its ohr.

79 And now, my son, I have showed you everything and The Torah of all the chochavim of the shamayim is;
2 Completed. And he showed me all the torot of these, every yom and every season of bearing rule and every year and for its going forth and for the order prescribed to it every chodesh;
3 And every week: And the waning of the yarayach which takes place in the sixth window: for in this;
4 Sixth window its ohr is accomplished and after that there is the beginning of the waning: (And the waning) which takes place in the first window in its season, until one hundred and seventy-seven;
5 Yamim are accomplished: reckoned according to weeks, twenty-five (weeks) and two yamim. She falls behind the shemesh and the order of the chochavim exactly five yamim in the course of one period and when;
6 This place which you see has been traversed. Such is the picture and sketch of every luminary which Uriel the archangel, who is their leader, showed to me.

80 And in those yamim the malach Uriel answered and said to me: Behold, I have showed you everything, Chanok and I have revealed everything to you that you should see this shemesh and this yarayach and the leaders of the chochavim of the shamayim and all those who turn them, their tasks and times and departures.

2 And in the yamim of the sinners the years (lunar) shall be shortened and their zera shall be tardy in their lands and fields and all things in the earth shall alter and shall not appear in their time: And the rain shall be kept back and the shamayim shall withhold (it).

3 And in those times the fruits of the earth shall be backward and shall not grow in their time and the fruits of the eytzim shall be withheld in their time.

4 And the yarayach shall alter its order and not appear at its time.

5 [And in those yamim the shemesh shall be seen and it shall journey in the evening on the extremity of the great mirkavah in the west] and shall shine more brightly than accords with the order of ohr.

6 And many chiefs of the chochavim shall transgress the order (prescribed). And these shall alter their orbits and tasks and not appear at the moadem prescribed to them.

7 And the whole order of the chochavim shall be concealed from the sinners (they will be deceived by the cochavim) and the thoughts of those in the earth shall err concerning them, [And they shall be altered from all their derachot], Yes, they shall err and take them to be ahlahim. 8 And evil shall be multiplied upon them and punishment shall come upon them, so as to destroy all.

81 And he said to me: 'Observe, Chanok, these heavenly tablets and read what is written on them and mark every individual fact.

2 And I observed the heavenly tablets and read everything which was written and understood everything and read the sefer of all the deeds of mankind and of all the children of flesh;

3 That shall be in the earth to the remotest generations (just like Yaakov in Jubilees Ch. 32).

And immediately I blessed the great אֱלֹהִים The Melech of Esteem le-olam-va-ed, in that He has made all the works of the earth and I extolled אֱלֹהִים because of His patience and blessed Him because of the children of men.

4 And after that I said: Blessed is the man who dies in tzedakah and tovness, concerning whom there is no sefer of unrighteousness written and against whom no yom of mishpat shall be found.

5 And those seven kadosh ones brought me and placed me in the earth before the door of my bayit and said to me: Declare everything to your son

Metushelach and show to all your children that no; 6 Flesh is tzadik in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, for He is their Creator. One year we will leave you with your son, until you give your (last) commands, that you may teach your children and record (it) for them and testify to all your children; and in the second year they shall take you from their midst.

7 Let your lev be strong, for the tov shall announce tzedakah to the tov; the tzadikim with the other tzadikim, shall rejoice and shall offer congratulation to one another.

8 But the sinners shall die with the sinners and the apostates will go down with the apostates.

9 And those who practice tzedakah shall die on account of the deeds of men and be taken away on account of the doings of the torahless. 10 And in those yamim they ceased to speak to me and I came to my people, hodu-le אֱלֹהִים of the earth.

82 And now, my son Metushelach, all these things I am recounting to you and writing down for you. And I have revealed to you everything and given you scrolls concerning all these: so preserve, my son Metushelach, the scrolls from your abba's hand and (see) that you deliver them to the generations of the earth.

2 I have given chochmah to you and to your children, [And your children that shall be to you], that they may give it to their children for generations, this chochmah (namely) that passes their thought.

3 And those who understand it shall not sleep but shall listen with the ear that they may learn this chochmah and it shall please those that eat of it better than tov food.

4 Blessed are all the tzadikim, blessed are all those who walk in the derech of; tzedakah and sin not as the sinners, in the reckoning of all their yamim in which the shemesh traverses the shamayim, entering into and departing from the windows for thirty yamim with the heads of thousands of the order of the chochavim, together with the four which are intercalated which divide the four portions of the year, which;

5 Lead them and enter with them four yamim.

Owing to them men shall be at fault and not reckon them in the whole reckoning of the year: yes, men shall be at fault and not recognize them;

6 Accurately. For they belong to the reckoning of the year and are truly recorded le-olam-va-ed, one in the first window (winter) and one in the third (spring) and one in the sixth (summer) and one in the fourth (fall) and the year is completed in three hundred and sixty-four yamim.

7 And the account of it is accurate and the recorded reckoning of it is exact; for the luminaries and chodashem and moadem and years and yamim, has Uriel showed and revealed to me, to whom;

8 אֲרָבָה of the whole creation of the earth has subjected the host of the shamayim. And it has power over lyla and yom in the shamayim to cause the ohr to give ohr to men; shemesh, yarayach and chochavim;

9 And all the powers of the shamayim which revolve in their circular mirkavoth. And these are the orders of the chochavim, which set in their places and in their moadem and moadem and chodashem.

10 And these are the names of those who lead them, who watch that they enter at their times, in their orders, in their moadem, in their chodashem, in their periods of dominion and in their positions.

11 Their four leaders who divide the four parts of the year enter first; and after them the twelve leaders of the orders who divide the chodashem; and for the three hundred and sixty (yamim) there are heads over thousands who divide the yamim; and for the four intercalary yamim there are the leaders which divide;

12 The four parts of the year. And these heads over thousands are intercalated between;

13 Leader and leader, each behind a station but their leaders make the divisions. And these are the names of the leaders who divide the four parts of the year which are ordained: Milki'el (spring), Hel'emmelek (summer) and Mel'eyal (fall), 14 And Narel (winter). And the names of those who lead them: Adnar'el and Yasusa'el and 'Elome'el- these three follow the leaders of the orders and there is one that follows the three leaders of the orders which follow those leaders of stations that divide the four parts of the year.

15 In the beginning of the year Melkeyal rises first and rules who is named Tam'aini and shemesh and all the yamim of his dominion while it bears rule are ninety-one yamim.

16 And these are the signs of the yamim which are to be seen in the earth in the yamim of his dominion: sweat and heat and calms; and all the eytzim bear fruit and leaves are produced on all the eytzim and the harvest of wheat and the rose-flowers and all the flowers which come forth in the field but the eytzim of the winter season become withered.

17 And these are the names of the leaders which are under them: Berka'el, Zelebs'el and another who is added a head of a thousand, called Hiluyaseph: and the yamim of the dominion of this (leader) are at an end.

18 The next leader after him is Hel'emmelek, whom one names the shining shemesh and all the Yamim;

19 Of his ohr are ninety-one yamim. And these are the signs of (his) yamim in the earth: glowing heat and dryness and the eytzim ripen their fruits and produce all their fruits ripe and ready and the sheep pair and become pregnant and all the fruits of the earth are gathered in and everything that is;

20 In the fields and the winepress: these things take place in the yamim of his dominion. These are the names and the orders and the leaders of those heads of thousands: Gida'lyal, Ke'el and He'el and the name of the head of a thousand which is added to them, Asfa'el: and the yamim of his dominion are at an end.

The Scroll of Dream-Visions

83 And now, my son Metushelach, I will show you all my visions which I have seen, recounting;
2 Them before you. Two visions I saw before I took an isha and the one was quite unlike the other: the first when I was learning to write: the second before I took your emma, (when) I saw a terrible;

3 Vision. And regarding them I made tefillah to אֱלֹהִים (seems like Chanok admits to two visions and two wives and we know he pleased אֱלֹהִים which is why he was translated). I had laid me down in the bayit of my grandfather Mahalalel, (when) I saw in a vision how the shamayim collapsed and was borne off and fell to;

4 The earth. And when it fell to the earth I saw how the earth was swallowed up in a great abyss and mountains were suspended on mountains and hills sank down on hills and high eytzim were torn;

5 From their stems and hurled down and sunk in the abyss. And upon it a Word fell into my mouth,

6 And I lifted up (my voice) to cry aloud and said: 'The earth is destroyed. And my grandfather Mahalalel woke me as I lay near him and said to me: Why do you cry so, my son and why;

7 Do you make such lamentation? And I recounted to him the whole vision which I had seen and he said to me: A terrible thing have you seen, my son and of grave moment is your dream- vision as to the secrets of all the sin of the earth: it must sink into the abyss and be destroyed with;

8 A great destruction. And now, my son, arise and make petition to אֱלֹהִים of esteem, since you are a believer, that a remnant may remain in the earth and that He may not destroy the whole;

9 Earth (the tzadik remnant is never raptured but left protected). My son, from the shamayim all this will come upon the earth and upon the earth there will be great destruction.

10 After that I arose and made tefillah and implored and sought and wrote down my tefillah for the generations of the earth and I will show everything to you, my son Metushelach.

11 And when I had gone forth below and seen the shamayim and the shemesh rising in the east and the yarayach setting in the west and a few chochavim and the whole earth and everything as He had known it in the beginning, 12 Then I blessed אֱלֹהֵיךָ of mishpat and extolled Him because He had made the shemesh to go forth from the windows of the east and it ascended and rose on the face of the shamayim and set out and kept traversing the derech showed to him.

84 And I lifted up my hands in tzedakah and blessed the Kadosh and Great One and spoke with the breath of my mouth and with the tongue of flesh, which אֱלֹהֵיךָ has made for the children of the flesh of men, that they should speak with and He gave them Ruach and a tongue and a mouth that they should speak with:

2 Blessed are You, O אֱלֹהֵיךָ, Melech, Great and mighty in Your greatness, אֱלֹהֵיךָ of the whole of creation of the shamayim, Melech of Melechem and אֱלֹהֵיךָ of the whole earth. And Your Power and malchut and greatness abide le-olam-va-ed and throughout all generations is Your dominion; And all the shamayim are Your kesay le-olam-va-ed and the whole earth Your footstool le-olam-va-ed.

3 For You have made and You rule all things and nothing is too hard for You; chochmah departs not from the place of Your kesay, nor turns away from Your presence. And You know and see and hear everything and there is nothing hidden from You.

4 And now the malachim of Your shamayim are guilty of trespass and upon the flesh of men abides Your wrath until the great yom of mishpat.

5 And now, O אֱלֹהֵיךָ The Great Melech, I implore and beseech You to fulfill my tefillah, To leave me a posterity in the earth and not destroy all the flesh of man and make the earth without inhabitant, So that there should be an eternal destruction.

6 And now, my אִיִּי, destroy from the earth the flesh which has aroused Your wrath but the flesh of tzedakah and uprightness establish as a plant of the eternal zera and hide not Your face from the tefillah of Your eved, O אִיִּי.

This vision with incredible accuracy in Chapters 85-91 prophesies the history of the earth from Ahdam to אִיִּי's final malchut with special focus on the Yisraelite people.

85 And after this I saw another dream and I will show the whole dream to you, my son.

2 And Chanok lifted up (his voice) and spoke to his son Metushelach: to you, my son, will I speak: hear my words-incline your ear to the dream-vision of your abba.

3 Before I took your emma Edna, I saw in a vision on my bed and behold a bull [Ahdahm] came forth from the earth and that bull was white; and after it came forth a heifer [Eve] and along with this (latter) came forth two bulls, one of them black [Qayin] and;

4 The other red [Hevel]. And that black bull gored the red one and pursued him over the earth and upon it;

5 I could no longer see that red bull. But that black bull grew and [a] heifer went with him and;

6 I saw that many oxen proceeded from him which resembled and followed him [Qayin's descendents].

And that cow, that first one [Eve], went from the presence of that first bull in order to seek that red one but found him;

7 Not and lamented with a great lamentation over him and sought him. And I looked until that first;

8 Bull [Ahdahm] came to her and quieted her and from that time onward she cried no more. And after that she bore another white bull [Seth] and after him she bore many bulls and black cows [Ahdahm's other descendants].

9 And I saw in my sleep that white bull likewise grow and become a great white bull and from Him proceeded many white bulls [Seth's descendants] and they resembled him. And they began to beget many white bulls, which resembled them, one following the other, (even) many.

86 And again I saw with my eyes as I slept and I saw the shamayim above and behold a chochav [the fallen malach: Semyaza] fell;

2 From the shamayim and it arose and ate and pastured among those oxen. And after that I saw the large and the black oxen [Qayin's descendents] and behold they all changed their stalls and pastures and their cattle and began;

3 To live with each other. And again I saw in the vision and looked towards the shamayim and behold I saw many chochavim [Semyaza's followers; fallen malachim] descend and thrust themselves down from the shamayim to that first chochav and they became;

4 Bulls among those cattle and pastured with them [among them]. And I looked at them and saw and behold they all let out their private members, like horses and began to cover the cows of the oxen [the fallen malachim mated with the daughters of men],

5 And they all became pregnant and bare elephants, camels and donkeys [strange offspring which were Giants – could these have been the dinosaurs of old as well]. And all the oxen feared them and were affrighted at them and began to bite with their teeth and to devour and to gore with their,

6 Horns. And they [the Naphaleem] began, moreover, to devour those oxen; and behold all the children of the earth began to tremble and quake before them and to flee from them.

87 And again I saw how they began to gore each other and to devour each other and the earth;
2 Began to cry aloud. And I raised my eyes again to the shamayim and I saw in the vision and behold there came forth from the shamayim beings who were like white men: and four [the cheruvim: Mikael, Uriel, Raphael and Gavriel] went forth from that place;

3 And three with them. And those three that had last come forth grasped me by my hand and took me up, away from the generations of the earth and raised me up to a lofty place and showed to me;

4 A tower raised high above the earth and all the hills were lower. And one said to me: Remain here until you see everything that befalls those elephants, camels and donkeys [the offspring of the fallen malachim and women] and the chochavim [fallen malachim] and the oxen [humans] and all of them.

5 [Chanok] was to be taken above the earth to observe what was to take place with the inhabitants of the earth].

88 And I saw one of those four who had come forth first [Mikael] and he seized that first chochav [Semyaza] which had fallen from the shamayim and bound it hand and foot and expel it into an abyss: now that abyss was;

2 Narrow and deep and horrible and dark. And one of them [Mikael] drew a sword and gave it to those elephants and camels and donkeys: then they began to smite each other and the whole earth quaked;

3 Because of them.

4 And as I was beholding in the vision, lo, one of those four who had come forth [Raphael] stoned (them) from the shamayim and gathered and took all the great chochavim whose private members were like those of horses and bound them all hand and foot and expel them in an abyss of the earth.

89 And one of those four went to that white bull [Noah] and instructed him in a secret [the forthcoming flood], without his being terrified: he was born a bull and became a man and built for himself a great vessel [ark] and dwelt thereon;
2 And three bulls [Noah's sons: Shem, Ham and Yapheth] dwelt with him in that vessel-ark and they were covered in. And again I raised my eyes towards the shamayim and saw a lofty roof, with seven mayim torrents thereon and those torrents;
3 Flowed with much mayim into an enclosure [the earth]. And I saw again and behold fountains were opened on the surface of that great enclosure and that mayim began to swell and rise upon the surface,
4 And I saw that enclosure until all its surface was covered with mayim. And the mayim, the darkness and mist increased upon it; and as I looked at the height of that mayim, that mayim had risen above the height of that enclosure and was streaming over that enclosure and it stood upon the earth.
5 And all the cattle of that enclosure were gathered together until I saw how they sank and were;
6 Swallowed up and perished in that mayim. But that vessel floated on the mayim, while all the oxen and elephants and camels and donkeys sank to the bottom with all the animals, so that I could no longer see them and they were not able to escape, (but) perished and sank into the depths.

7 And again I saw in the vision until those mayim torrents were removed from that high roof and the chasms;

8 Of the earth were leveled up and other abysses were opened. Then the mayim began to run down into these, until the earth became visible; but that vessel settled in the earth and the darkness;

9 Retired and ohr appeared. But that white bull which had become a man came out of that vessel and the three bulls with him and one of those three was white like that bull [Shem] and one of them was red as dahm [Yapheth] and one black [Ham]: and that white bull departed from them.

10 And they began to bring forth beasts of the field and birds, so that there arose different genera [the different goyim and races]: lions [Babylonians], tigers, wolves [Egyptians], dogs [Philistines], hyenas, wild boars, foxes, squirrels, swine, falcons, vultures, kites, eagles and ravens (wicked peoples); and among them was born a another white bull [Avraham].

11 And they began to bite one another; but that white bull which was born among them begat a wild donkey [Yishmael] and a white bull [Yitzchak] with it and the;

12 Wild donkeys multiplied [Yishmael's descendents, the Arabic tribes]. But that bull which was born from him begat a black wild boar [Esau] and a white;

13 Sheep [Yaakov]; and the former begat many boars but that sheep begat twelve other sheep [twelve sons of Yaakov/Yisrael]. And when those twelve sheep had grown, they gave up one of them [Yoseph] to the donkeys [Yishmaelites] and those donkeys again gave up that sheep to the wolves [Egyptians] and that sheep grew up among the wolves.

14 And אֶלְיָאֵל brought the eleven sheep [Yoseph's brothers] to live with it and to pasture with it among the wolves: and they multiplied and became many flocks of sheep.

15 And the wolves began to fear them and they oppressed them until they destroyed their little ones and they cast their young into a river of much mayim [the Nile]: but those sheep began to;

16 Cry aloud on account of their little ones and to complain to their אֶלְיָאֵל.

17 And a sheep [Moshe Rabainu] which had been saved from the wolves fled and escaped to the wild donkeys [Midianites]; and I saw the sheep how they lamented and cried and sought their אֶלְיָאֵל with all their might, until that אֶלְיָאֵל of the sheep descended at the voice of the sheep from a lofty abode and came to them and pastured (pastored) them.

18 And He called that sheep [Moshe] which had escaped the wolves and spoke with it concerning the wolves that it should admonish them (Pharaoh & the Egyptians) not to touch the sheep. And the sheep went to the wolves according to The Word of אֶלְיָאֵל and another sheep [Aharon] met it and went with it and the two went and entered together into the palace of those wolves and spoke with them and admonished them not to touch the;

19 Sheep from then on. And then I saw the wolves and how they oppressed the sheep;

20 Exceedingly with all their power; and the sheep cried aloud. And אֶלְיָאֵל came to the sheep and they began to smite those wolves [with 10 plagues]: and the wolves began to make lamentation; but the sheep became;

21 Quiet and immediately ceased to cry out. And I saw the sheep until they departed from among the wolves; but the eyes of the wolves were blinded [began to rebel against אֱלֹהִים] and those wolves departed in pursuit of the sheep.

22 With all their power. And אֱלֹהִים of the sheep went with them, as their leader and all His sheep;

23 Followed Him: and His face was dazzling and exalted and terrible to behold. But the wolves;

24 Began to pursue those sheep until they reached a sea of mayim [the Red Sea]. And that sea was divided and the mayim stood on this side and on that before their face and their אֱלֹהִים led them and placed Himself between;

25 Them and the wolves. And as those wolves did not yet see the sheep, they proceeded into the midst of that sea and the wolves followed the sheep and [those wolves] ran after them into that sea.

26 And when they saw אֱלֹהִים of the sheep, they turned to flee before His face but that sea gathered itself together and became as it had been created and the mayim swelled and rose until it covered;

27 Those wolves. And I saw until all the wolves that pursued those sheep perished and were drowned.

28 But the sheep escaped from that mayim and went forth into a midbar, where there was no mayim and no grass; and they began to open their eyes and to see [they became spiritually aware and obeyed אֱלֹהִים's mitzvot]; and I saw אֱלֹהִים of the sheep;

29 Pasturing them and giving them mayim and grass and that sheep going and leading them. And that;

30 Sheep ascended to the summit of that lofty rock [Mt. Senai] and אֱלֹהִים of the sheep sent it to them.

And after that I saw אֱלֹהִים of the sheep, who stood before them and His appearance was great and;

31 Terrible and majestic and all those sheep saw Him and were afraid before His face. And they all feared and trembled because of Him and they cried to that sheep with them [which was among 32 Them]: We are not able to stand before our אֱלֹהֵינוּ or to behold Him. And that sheep which led them again ascended to the summit of that rock but the sheep began to be blinded and to wander;

33 From the derech which He had showed them but that sheep wasn't aware of it. And אֱלֹהֵינוּ of the sheep was wrathful exceedingly against them and that sheep discovered it and went down from the summit of the rock and came to the sheep and found the largest part of them blinded [in rebellion] and fallen;
34 Away. And when they saw it they feared and trembled at its presence and desired to return to their;
35 Folds. And that sheep took other sheep [the Leviim] with it and came to those sheep which had fallen away and began to slay them; and the sheep feared its presence and then that sheep brought back those;
36 Sheep that had fallen away and they returned to their folds. And I saw in this vision until that sheep became a man and built a sukkah [either the formalized nation or the Mishkan] for אֱלֹהֵינוּ of the sheep and placed all the sheep in that bayit.
37 And I saw until this sheep [Aharon] which had met that sheep which led them fell asleep: and I saw until all the great sheep perished [all those men over 20 years of age] and little ones arose in their place and they came to a pasture and;
38 Approached a stream of mayim [the Yarden River]. Then that sheep, their leader which had become a man, withdrew;
39 From them and fell asleep [Moshe died on Mt. Nebo] and all the sheep sought it and cried over it with a great crying. And I saw until they left off crying for that sheep and crossed that stream of mayim and there arose the two other sheep as leaders [Yahusha and Calev] in the place of those which had led them and fallen asleep.

40 And I saw until the sheep came to a tov place and a pleasant and exalted land [the Promised Land of Yisrael] and I saw until those sheep were satisfied; and that bayit (temple) stood among them in the pleasant land.

41 And sometimes their eyes were opened [obeyed אִשְׁרָאֵל] and sometimes blinded [rebelled against אִשְׁרָאֵל], until another sheep [Shmuel] arose and led them and brought them all back and their eyes were opened.

42 And the dogs [Plishtim] and the foxes and the wild boars [Esav's descendants the Edomites] began to devour those sheep until אִשְׁרָאֵל of the sheep raised up [another sheep] a ram [Melech Shaul] from their;

43 Midst, who led them. And that ram began to butt on either side those dogs [Plishtim), foxes and wild 44 boars until he had destroyed them all.

44 And that sheep whose eyes were opened [Shmuel] saw that ram, which was among the sheep, until it forsook its esteem and began to butt those sheep and trampled upon them and behaved itself;

45 Unseemly. And אִשְׁרָאֵל of the sheep sent the lamb [Shmuel] to another lamb [Dawid] and raised it to being a ram and leader of the sheep instead of that;

46 Ram which had forsaken its esteem. And it went to it and spoke to it alone and raised it to being another ram and made it the sar and leader of the sheep; but during all these things those dogs [Plishtim];

47 Oppressed the sheep. And the first ram [Melech Shaul] pursued that second ram [Dawid] and that second ram arose and fled before it; and I saw until those dogs [Plishtim] pulled;

48 Down the first ram. And that second ram arose;
49 And led the [little] sheep. And those sheep grew and multiplied; but all the dogs and foxes and wild boars feared and fled before it and that ram butted and killed the wild beasts and those wild beasts had no longer any power among the;

49b Sheep and robbed them no more of anything. And that ram begat many sheep and fell asleep; and a little sheep [Shlomo] who became ram in its place and became sar and leader of those sheep.
50 And that bayit [nation or malchut] became great and broad and it was built for those sheep: (and) a tower [Shlomo's Beit HaMikdash] lofty and great was built on the bayit for אֱלֹהֵי הַצֹּאן of the sheep and that bayit was low but the tower was elevated and lofty and אֱלֹהֵי הַצֹּאן of the sheep stood on that tower and they offered a full shulchan [mizbaiach-altar-showbread] before Him.

51 And again I saw those sheep that they again erred and went many derachot and forsook their bayit and אֱלֹהֵי הַצֹּאן of the sheep called some from among the sheep [neviim] and sent them to the sheep,

52 But the sheep began to slay them. And one of them [Eliyahu] was saved and was not slain and it sped away and cried aloud over the sheep; and they sought to slay it but אֱלֹהֵי הַצֹּאן of the sheep saved it from;

53 The other sheep and brought it up to Himself and caused it to dwell there [he was taken to the shamayim]. And many other sheep [neviim] He sent to those sheep to testify to them and lament over them.

54 And after that I saw that when they forsook the bayit of אֱלֹהֵי הַצֹּאן and His tower-Beit HaMikdash they fell away entirely and their eyes were blinded [they rebelled]; and I saw אִרְאִי of the sheep how He allowed much slaughter among them in their herds until 55 Those sheep invited that slaughter and betrayed His place. And He gave them; over into the hands of the lions and tigers and wolves and hyenas and into the hand of the foxes and to all the wild;

56 Beasts and those wild beasts began to tear in pieces those sheep (goyim). And I saw that He forsook that their bayit and their tower and gave them all into the hand of the lions [Babylonians], to tear and devour them,

57 Into the hand of all the wild beasts [various other goyim]. And I began to cry aloud with all my power and to appeal to אִרְאִי of the sheep and to advocate to Him in regard to the sheep that they were devoured;

58 By all the wild beasts. But He remained unmoved, though He saw it and rejoiced that they were devoured and swallowed and robbed and left them to be devoured in the hand of all the beasts.

59 And He called seventy shepherds [70 years in Bavel their leaders] and cast those sheep to them that they might pasture them and He spoke to the shepherds and their companions: 'Let each individual of you pasture the sheep;

60 From now on and everything that I shall command you that do. And I will deliver them over to you duly numbered and tell you which of them are to be destroyed-and those shall you destroy. And;

61 He gave over to them those sheep. And He called another and spoke to him: Observe and mark everything that the shepherds will do to those sheep; for they will destroy more of them than;

62 I have commanded them. And every excess and the destruction which will be done through the shepherds, record (namely) how many they destroy according to My command and how many according to their own brutality: Record against every individual shepherd all the destruction he;

63 Effects. And read out before me by number how many they destroy and how many they deliver over for destruction, that I may have this as a testimony against them and know every deed of the shepherds, that I may comprehend and see what they do, whether or not they abide by My;

64 Command which I have commanded them (limited correction not annihilation). But they shall not know it and you shall not declare it to them, nor admonish them but only record against each individual all the destruction which;

65 The shepherds affect each in his time and lay it all before Me. And I saw until those shepherds pastured in their season and they began to slay and to destroy more than they were allowed and they delivered;

66 Those sheep into the hand of the lions [Babylonians]. And the lions and tigers ate and devoured the greater part of those sheep and the wild boars ate along with them; and they burnt that tower (temple) and demolished;

67 That bayit [destroyed Yahrushalayim and the land of Yisrael]. And I became exceedingly sorrowful over that tower because that bayit of the sheep was demolished and afterwards I was unable to see if those sheep entered that bayit.

68 And the shepherds and their associates delivered over those sheep to all the wild beasts, to devour them and each one of them received in its time a definite number: it was written by the other;

69 In a sefer how many each one of them destroyed of them. And each one slew and destroyed many;
70 More than was prescribed; and I began to weep and lament on account of those sheep. And in the vision I saw the one who wrote, how he wrote down everyone that was destroyed by those shepherds, yom by yom and carried it up and laid it down and actually showed the whole sefer to אִיִּזְרָאֵל of the sheep-(even) everything that they had done and all that each one of them had done;

71 Away with and all that they had given over to destruction. And the sefer was read before אִיִּזְרָאֵל of the sheep and He took the sefer from his hand and read it and sealed it and laid it down.

72 And immediately I saw how the shepherds pastured for twelve hours and behold three of those sheep [Ezra, Nehemiah, Chaggai] turned back and came and entered and began to build up all that had fallen down of that;

73 Bayit; but the wild boars [Samaritans] tried to hinder them but they were not able. And they began again to build as before and they reared up that tower [the second temple] and it was named the high tower; and they began again to place a shulchan [mizbaiach-altar] before the tower but all the lechem on it was polluted and not pure.

74 And as touching all this the eyes of those sheep were blinded [still rebelling] so that they saw not and (the eyes of) their shepherds likewise; and they delivered them in large numbers to their shepherds for;

75 Destruction and they trampled the sheep with their feet and devoured them (Rome). And אִיִּזְרָאֵל of the sheep remained unmoved until all the sheep were dispersed over the field and mixed with them (the beasts);

76 And they (the shepherds) did not save them out of the hand of the beasts. And this one who wrote the sefer carried it up and showed it and read it before אִרְאֵל of the sheep and implored Him on their account and sought Him on their account as he showed Him all the doings;

77 Of the shepherds and gave testimony before Him against all the shepherds. And he took the actual sefer and laid it down beside Him and departed.

90 And I saw until that in this manner thirty-five shepherds undertook the pasturing (of the sheep) and they fully completed their periods as did the first; and others received them into their;

2 Hands, to pasture them for their period, each shepherd in his own period. And after that I saw in my vision all the birds of the shamayim coming, the eagles, the vultures, the kites, the ravens; but the eagles led all the birds; and they began to devour those sheep and to pick out their eyes and to;

3 Devour their flesh. And the sheep cried out because their flesh was being devoured by the birds,

4 And as for me I looked and lamented in my sleep over that shepherd who pastured the sheep. And I saw until those sheep were devoured by the dogs and eagles and kites and they left neither flesh nor skin nor sinew remaining on them until only their bones stood there: and their bones too fell;

5 To the earth and the sheep became few (Yisrael). And I saw until that twenty-third had undertaken the pasturing and completed in their several periods fifty-eight times.

6 But behold lambs were borne by those white sheep and they began to open their eyes and to see,

7 And to cry to the sheep. Yes, they cried to them but they did not listen to what they said to;

8 Them but were exceedingly deaf and their eyes were very exceedingly blinded. And I saw in the vision how the ravens [possibly the Seleucid malchut] flew upon those lambs and took one of those lambs and dashed the sheep;

9 In pieces and devoured them. And I saw until horns [leaders attempted to rise up-the Maccabees] grew upon those lambs and the ravens cast down their horns; and I saw until there sprouted a great horn of one of those sheep [a successful leader-either Mattathias or Yahudah the Maccabee] and their eyes;

10 Were opened [they obeyed אִתָּאֵל]. And it looked at them [and their eyes opened] and it cried to the sheep and the;

11 Rams saw it and all ran to it. And notwithstanding all this, those eagles and vultures and ravens and kites still kept tearing the sheep and swooping down upon them and devouring them: still the sheep remained silent but the rams lamented and cried out.

12 And those ravens fought and battled with it and sought to lay low its horn but they had no power over it.

13 All the eagles and vultures and ravens and kites were gathered together and there came with them all the sheep of the field, yes, they all came together and helped each other to break that horn of the ram.

14 And I saw until a great sword was given to the sheep and the sheep proceeded against all the beasts of the field to slay them and all the beasts and the birds of the shamayim fled before their face.

15 And I saw that man, who wrote the sefer according to the command of אִתָּאֵל, until he opened that sefer (Maccabees) concerning the destruction which those twelve last shepherds had done and showed that they had destroyed much more than their predecessors, before אֱלֹהִים of the sheep.

16 And I saw until אֱלֹהִים of the sheep came to them and took in His hand the staff of His wrath,

17 And smote the earth and the earth clave asunder and all the beasts and all the birds of the shamayim

18 Fell from among those sheep and were swallowed up in the earth;

19 And it covered them.

20 And I saw until a kesay was erected in the pleasant land (Yisrael) and אֱלֹהִים of the sheep sat Himself on it, (Yahushua the Messiah) and the others took the sealed scrolls and opened those scrolls before the Ahlohim of the sheep.

21 And אֱלֹהִים called those men the seven first white ones and commanded that they should bring before Him, beginning with the first chochav which led the derech, all the chochavim whose private members;

22 Were like those of horses and they brought them all before Him. And He said to that man who wrote before Him, being one of those seven white ones and said to him: Take those seventy shepherds (Bavel?) to whom I delivered the sheep and who taking them on their own authority slew more;

23 Than I commanded them. And behold they were all bound, I saw and they all stood before Him.

24 And the mishpat was held first over the chochavim and they were judged and found guilty and went to the place of condemnation and they were expelled into an abyss, full of fire and flames and full;

25 Of pillars of fire. And those seventy shepherds were judged and found guilty and they were expelled;

26 Into that fiery abyss. And I saw at that time how a similar abyss was opened in the midst of the earth, full of fire and they brought those blinded sheep and they were all judged and found guilty and;

27 Cast into this fiery abyss and they burned; now this abyss was to the right of that bayit. And I saw those sheep burning and their bones burning.

28 And I stood up to see until they folded up that old bayit [the old nation or malchut and Yisrael]; and carried off all the pillars and all the beams and ornaments of the bayit were at the same time folded up with it and they carried;

29 It off and laid it in a place in the south of the land (Mt. Pisgah). And I saw until אִרְאֵה of the sheep brought a new bayit [set up a new and eternal malchut] greater and loftier than that first and set it up in the place of the first which had been folded up: all its pillars were new and its ornaments were new and larger than those of the first, the old one which He had taken away and all the sheep were within it (New Yahrushalayim).

30 And I saw all the sheep which had been left and all the beasts in the earth and all the birds of the shamayim [goyim of the earth], falling down and doing homage to those sheep and making petition to and obeying;

31 Them in everything. And thereafter those three who were clothed in white and had seized me by my hand [who had taken me up before] and the hand of that ram also seizing hold of me, they;

32 Took me up and set me down in the midst of those sheep before the mishpat took place. And those;

33 Sheep were all white and their tallits of wool was abundant and clean [these are the tzadikim]. And all that had been destroyed and dispersed and all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the shamayim, assembled in that bayit and אִרְאֵה of the sheep rejoiced with great simcha because they were all tov and had returned to;

34 His bayit (remnant of Yisrael). And I saw until they laid down that sword, which had been given to the sheep and they brought it back into the bayit and it was sealed before the presence of אֱלֹהִים and all the sheep;

35 Were invited into that bayit but it held them not. And the eyes of them all were opened and they;

36 Saw the tov [obeyed אֱלֹהִים] and there was not one among them that did not see. And I saw that that bayit was large and broad and very full (John Ch. 14)-many mansions).

37 And I saw that a White Bull was born (Yahushua in His malchut), with large horns and all the beasts of the field and all the;

38 Birds of the air feared Him and made petition to Him all the time. And I saw until all their generations were transformed and they all became white bulls (kidushim-kidushim); and the first (born) among them became a Lamb [Yahushua, The Son of אֱלֹהִים] and that Lamb became a great animal and had great powerful horns on its head; and אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the sheep;

39 Rejoiced over it (The Lamb) and over all the oxen (Yisrael). And I slept in their midst: and I awoke and saw everything.

40 This is the vision which I saw while I slept and I awoke and blessed אֱלֹהִים of tzedakah and;

41 Gave Him esteem. Then I wept with a great weeping and my tears stopped not until I could no longer endure it: when I saw, they flowed on account of what I had seen; le olam va-ed; everything shall come and;

42 Be fulfilled and all the deeds of men in their order were showed to me. On that lyla I remembered the first dream and because of it I wept and was troubled-because I had seen that vision.

91 The sefer written by Chanok [Chanok indeed wrote this complete doctrine of chochmah, (which is) praised of all men and a shophet of all the earth] for all my children who shall dwell in the earth. And for the future generations who shall observe tzedakah and shalom.

2 Let not your ruach be troubled on account of the times; for the Kadosh and Great One has appointed yamim for all things.

3 And the tzadikim shall arise from death and walk in the paths of tzedakah and all his paths and conversations shall be in eternal tovness and chesed.

4 He will be gracious to the tzadik and give him eternal tzedakah and He will give him power so that he shall be (endowed) with tovness and tzedakah. And he shall walk in eternal ohr.

5 And sin shall perish in darkness le-olam-va-ed and shall no more be seen from that yom le-olam-va-ed.

92 And now, my son Metushelach, call to me all your brothers And gather together to me all the sons of your emma; for The Word calls me and the ruach is poured out upon me, that I may show you everything that shall befall you le-olam-va-ed.

2 And Metushelach went and summoned all his brothers and assembled his relatives.

3 And he spoke to all the children of tzedakah and said: 'Hear, you sons of Chanok, all the words of your abba and listen clearly to the voice of my mouth; for I exhort you and say to you, beloved:

4 Love tzedakah and walk in it.

5 And draw not near to tzedakah with a double lev and associate not with those of a double lev but walk in tzedakah, my sons. And it shall guide you on tov paths and tzedakah shall be your companion.

6 For I know that violence must increase in the earth and a great chastisement be executed in the earth and all unrighteousness come to an end: yes, it shall be cut off from its roots and its whole structure shall be destroyed.

7 And unrighteousness shall again be consummated in the earth and all the deeds of unrighteousness and of violence and transgression shall prevail in a twofold degree. And when sin and unrighteousness and blasphemy and violence in all kinds of deeds increase and apostasy and transgression and uncleanness increase,

8 A great chastisement shall come from the shamayim upon all these and;

9 The kadosh אֲדֹנָי will come forth with wrath and chastisement to execute mishpat in the earth.

10 In those yamim violence shall be cut off from its roots;

11 And the roots of unrighteousness together with deceit and they shall be destroyed from under the shamayim. And all the idols of the heathen shall be abandoned and the temples burned with fire;

12 And they shall remove them from the whole earth and they (the heathen) shall be expelled into the mishpat of fire;

13 And shall perish in wrath and in grievous mishpat le-olam-va-ed.

14 And the tzadikim shall arise from their sleep and chochmah shall arise and be given to them.

15 And after that the roots of unrighteousness shall be cut off and the sinners shall be destroyed by the sword;

16 Shall be cut off from the blasphemers in every place,

17 And those who plan violence and those who commit blasphemy shall perish by the sword.

18 And now I tell you, my sons and show you the paths of tzedakah and the paths of violence. Yes, I will show them to you again that you may know what will come to pass.

19 And now, listen to me, my sons and walk in the paths of tzedakah and walk not in the halachot of violence; for all who walk in the halachot of unrighteousness shall perish le-olam-va-ed.

(7 weeks=7,000 years of human history. Week 8=eternity)

93 After that, Chanok both gave and began to recount from the scrolls. And Chanok said:

Concerning the children of tzedakah and concerning the elect of the earth and concerning the Plant of Tzedakah, I will speak these things,

2 Yes, I Chanok will declare (them) to you, my sons: according to that which appeared to me in the heavenly vision and which I have known through The Word of the kadosh malachim and have learned from the heavenly tablets.

3 And Chanok began to recount from the scrolls and said: I was born the seventh in the first week, while mishpat and tzedakah still endured.

4 And after me there shall arise in the second week great wickedness and deceit shall have sprung up; and in it there shall be the first end. And in it a man shall be saved; and after it is ended unrighteousness shall grow up and a law shall be made for the sinners.

5 And after that in the third week at its close a man shall be elected as the plant of tzadik mishpat and his posterity shall become the Plant of Tzedakah le-olam-va-ed.

6 And after that in the fourth week, at its close, visions of the kadosh and tzadik shall be seen and a Torah for all generations and an enclosure shall be made for them.

7 And after that in the fifth week, at its close, the bayit of esteem and dominion shall be built le-olam-va-ed.

8 After that in the sixth week all who live in it shall be blinded and the levavot of all of them shall godlessly forsake chochmah. And in it a man shall ascend; and at its close the bayit of dominion shall be burnt with fire and the whole race of the chosen root shall be dispersed.

9 And after that in the seventh week shall an apostate generation arise and many shall be its deeds and all its deeds shall be apostate.

10 And at its close (8th millennial or eternity) shall be elected the elect tzadikim of the eternal plant of tzedakah, to receive sevenfold instruction concerning all His creation.

11 [For who is there of all the children of men that is able to hear the voice of the Kadosh One without being troubled? And who can think His thoughts?

And who is there that can behold all the works;

12 Of the shamayim? And how should there be one who could behold the shamayim and who is there that could understand the things of the shamayim and see a being or a ruach and could tell of it, or ascend and see;

13 All their ends and think them or do like them ?

And who is there of all men that could know what is the breadth and the length of the earth and to whom has been showed the measurements of all of them?

14 Or, is there anyone who could discern the length of the shamayim and how great is its height and upon what it is founded and how great are the number of the chochavim and where all the luminaries rest] (Enoch speaks of himself)? (Weeks 8-10 are figures-metaphors of the eternal standings, for both the saved and lost)

- 94 And after that there shall be another, the eighth week that of tzedakah and a sword shall be given to it that a tzadik mishpat may be executed on the oppressors and;
- 2 Sinners shall be delivered into the hands of the tzadikim.
- 3 And at its close they shall acquire houses through their tzedakah and a bayit shall be built for the Great Melech in esteem le-olam-va-ed,
- 4 And all mankind shall look to the derech of tzedakah.
- 5 And after that, in the ninth week, the tzadik mishpat shall be revealed to the whole earth,
- 6 And all the works of The Torahless shall vanish from all the earth,
- 7 And the earth shall be written down for destruction.
- 8 And after this, in the tenth week in the seventh part, there shall be the great eternal mishpat, in which He will execute vengeance among the malachim.
- 9 And the first the shamayim shall depart and pass away and a new the shamayim shall appear and all the powers of the shamayim shall give sevenfold ohr.
- 10 And after that there will be many weeks without number le-olam-va-ed and all shall be in tovness and tzedakah and sin shall no more be mentioned le-olam-va-ed.

95 And now I say to you, my sons, love tzedakah and walk in it; for the paths of tzedakah are worthy of acceptance but the paths of unrighteousness shall suddenly be destroyed and vanish.

2 And to certain men of a generation shall the paths of violence and of death be revealed and they shall hold themselves afar from them and shall not follow them.

3 And now I say to you the tzadikim: walk not in the paths of wickedness, nor in the paths of death and draw not near to them, lest you be destroyed.

4 But seek and choose tzedakah and an elect chayim and walk in the paths of shalom and you shall live and prosper.

5 And hold fast my Words in the thoughts of your levavot and allow them not to be removed from your levavot; For I know that sinners will tempt men to do evil to chochmah, so that no place may be found for her and no manner of temptation may diminish.

6 Woe to those who build unrighteousness and oppression and lay deceit as a foundation; for they shall be suddenly overthrown and they shall have no shalom.

7 Woe to those who build their houses with sin; for from all their foundations shall they be overthrown and by the sword shall they fall. [And those who acquire gold and silver in mishpat suddenly shall perish.]

8 Woe to you rich ones, for you have trusted in your riches and from your riches shall you depart because you have not remembered אַף־אֶז in the yamim of your riches.

9 You have committed blasphemy and unrighteousness and have become ready for the yom of slaughter; and the yom of darkness and the yom of the great mishpat (Quoted in the Scroll of James).

10 So I speak and declare to you: He who has created you will overthrow you and for your fall there shall be no rachamim and your Creator will rejoice at your destruction.

11 And your tzadik ones in those yamim shall be a reproach to the sinners and The Torahless.

96 Oh that my eyes were [a cloud of] mayim] that I might weep over you and pour down my tears as a cloud of mayim: That so I might rest from my trouble of lev.

2 Who has permitted you to practice reproaches and wickedness? And so mishpat shall overtake you, sinners.

3 Fear not the sinners, all you tzadikim; for again will אִיִּים deliver them into your hands, that you may execute mishpat upon them according to your desires.

4 Woe to you who cause curses, which cannot be reversed: Healing shall therefore be far from you because of your sins.

5 Woe; to you who repay your neighbor with evil; for you shall be rewarded according to your works (Quoted by אֱלֹהִים in the Sermon on the Har).

6 Woe to you, lying witnesses and to those who weigh out injustice, for suddenly shall you perish (Quoted in Torah).

7 Woe to you, sinners, for you persecute the tzadikim; for you shall be delivered up and persecuted because of your injustice and heavy shall its yoke be upon you.

97 Be hopeful, you tzadikim; for suddenly shall the sinners perish before you and you shall have mastery over them according to your desires.

2 [And in the yom of the tribulation of the sinners,
Your children shall har and rise as eagles and higher than the vultures will be your nest; and you shall ascend and enter the crevices of the earth and the clefts of the rock le-olam-va-ed as rabbits before the unrighteous and they shall sigh because of you and weep.] (Protection and victory through the Great Tribulation)

3 So do not fear you all that have suffered for tzedakah's sake; For healing shall be your portion and a bright ohr shall enlighten you and the voice of rest you shall hear from the shamayim.

4 Woe to you, you sinners, for your riches make you appear like the tzadikim but your levavot convict you of being sinners; and this fact shall be a testimony against you for a memorial of (your) evil deeds.

5 Woe to you who devour the finest of the wheat and drink wine in large bowls and tread underfoot the lowly with your might.

6 Woe to you who drink mayim from every fountain, for suddenly shall you be consumed and wither away because you have forsaken the fountain of chayim (Yahushua - quoted in Jeremiah Ch. 17).

7 Woe to you who work unrighteousness and deceit and blasphemy: It shall be a memorial against you for evil.

8 Woe to you, you mighty, who with might oppress the tzadikim; for the yom of your destruction is coming. In those yamim many and tov yamim shall come to the tzadikim-in the yom of your mishpat.

98 Believe all you tzadikim that the sinners will become a shame and perish in the yom of unrighteousness.

2 Be it known to you (you sinners) that אָרָא is mindful of your destruction and the kadosh malachim of the shamayim rejoice over your destruction.

3 What will you do, you sinners and where will you flee on that yom of mishpat, When you hear the voice of the tefillah of the tzadikim?

4 Yes, you shall not fare like them, this Word shall be a testimony against you: You have been the companions of sinners.

5 And in those yamim the tefillah of the tzadikim shall reach to אִלָּהִים and for you the yamim of your mishpat shall come.

6 And all the words of your unrighteousness shall be read out loud before the Great Kadosh One and your faces shall be covered with shame; and He will reject every work which is grounded on unrighteousness.

7 Woe to all you sinners who live on the ocean and on the dry land; whose remembrance is evil against you.

8 Woe to you who acquire silver and gold in unrighteousness and say: We have become rich with riches and have possessions; And have acquired everything we have desired.

9 And now let us do what we purposed: For we have gathered silver,

10 And many are the land farmers in our houses.

11 And our granaries are full as with mayim, Yes and like mayim your lies shall flow away; for your riches shall not abide; but speedily ascend away from you;

12 For you have acquired it all in unrighteousness and you shall be given over to a great curse.

99 And now I swear to you, to the wise and to the foolish, for you shall have manifold experiences in the earth.

2 For you men shall put on more adornments than a woman and colored garments more than a betulah: In royalty and in grandeur and in power and in silver and in gold and in purple and in splendor and in food they shall be poured out as mayim.

3 Therefore they shall be wanting in doctrine and chochmah and they shall perish thereby together with their possessions; and with all their esteem and their splendor and in shame and in slaughter and in great destitution, their ruachim shall be expelled into the furnace of fire.

4 I have sworn to you, you sinners, as a har has not become a eved and a hill does not become the handmaid of a woman; even so sin has not been sent into the earth, but man by himself has created it and under a great curse shall they fall who commit sin.

5 And barrenness has not been given to the woman but on account of the deeds of her own hands she dies without children.

6 I have sworn to you sinners, by the Kadosh & Great One that all your evil deeds are revealed in the shamayim and that none of your deeds of oppression are covered and hidden.

7 And do not think in your ruach nor say in your lev that you do not know and that you do not see;

8 That every sin is recorded every yom in the shamayim in the presence of אֱלֹהִים. From then on you know that all your oppression by which you oppress is written down every yom until the yom of your mishpat.

9 Woe to you, you fools, for through your folly shall you perish: and you transgress against the wise,

10 And so tov shall not be your portion. And now, know that you are prepared for the yom of destruction: so do not tikvah to live, all you sinners but you shall depart and die; for you know no ransom; for you are prepared for the yom of the great mishpat, for the yom of great tribulation and great shame for your ruachim.

11 Woe to you, you obstinate of lev, who work wickedness and eat dahm (Quoted in The Torah). Where have you tov things to eat and to drink and to be filled? From all the tov things which אִרְצָא has placed in abundance in the earth; therefore you shall have no shalom.

12 Woe to you who love the deeds of unrighteousness: why do you tikvah for tov to yourselves? Know that you shall be delivered into the hands of the tzadik and they shall cut off your necks and slay you and have no rachamim upon you. Woe to you who rejoice in the great tribulation of the tzadik; for no grave shall be dug for you.

13 Woe to you who set as nothing the words of;

14 The tzadik; for you shall have no tikvah of chayim. Woe to you who write down lies and Torahless words (modern yom e-mails and Facebook lies bearing false witness); for they write down their lies that men may hear them and act godlessly towards (their) neighbor.

15 Therefore they shall have no shalom but die a sudden death.

100 Woe to you who work godlessness and esteem in lying and extol them: You shall perish and no happy chayim shall be yours.

2 Woe to them who pervert the words of tzedakah and transgress the eternal Torah and transform themselves into what they were not [into sinners]: they shall be trodden under foot in the earth.

3 In those yamim make ready, you tzadik, to raise your tefillot as a memorial and place them as a testimony before the malachim, that they may place the sin of the sinners for a memorial before אִרְצָא.

4 In those yamim the goyim shall be stirred up and the families of the goyim shall arise on the yom of destruction.

5 And in those yamim the destitute shall go forth and carry off their children and they shall abandon them, so that their children shall perish through them: Yes, they shall abandon their children (that are still) sucklings and not return to them and shall have no pity on their beloved ones.

6 Again I swear to you, you sinners, that sin you are all prepared for a yom of unceasing bloodshed.

7 And they who worship stones and graven images of gold and silver and wood (and stone) and clay and those who worship impure ruachim and demons and all kinds of idols not according to da'at, shall get no manner of help from them.

8 And they shall become Torahless by reason of the folly of their levavot and their eyes shall be blinded through the fear of their levavot and through visions in their dreams.

9 Through these they shall become Torahless and fearful; for they shall have done all their work in a lie and shall have worshiped a stone: Therefore in an instant shall they perish.

10 But in those yamim blessed are all they who accept the Words of chochmah and understand them and observe the paths of אִתְּךָ and walk in the derech of His tzedakah and become not Torahless with The Torahless; for they shall be saved. 11 Woe to you who spread evil to your neighbors; for you shall be slain in Sheol (gossip, slander).

12 Woe to you who make deceitful and false measures and who cause bitterness in the earth; for they shall thereby be utterly consumed (Quoted in Torah).

13 Woe to you who build your houses through the grievous toil of others and all their building materials are the bricks and stones of sin; I tell you, you shall have no shalom.

14 Woe to them who reject the eternal heritage of their ahvot; and whose beings follow after idols; for they shall have no rest.

15 Woe to them who work unrighteousness and help oppression and slay their neighbors until the yom of the great mishpat.

16 For He shall cast down your esteem and bring affliction on your levavot and shall arouse His fierce indignation and destroy you all with the sword; and all the kadosh and tzadik ones shall remember your sins.

101 And in those yamim in one place the ahvot together with their sons shall be smitten and brothers one with another shall fall in death until the streams flow with their dahm.

2 For a man shall not withhold his hand from slaying his sons and his sons' sons and the sinner shall not withhold his hand from his esteemed brother: From dawn until sunset they shall slay one another.

3 And the horse shall walk up to the breast in the dahm of sinners and the mirkavah shall be submerged to its height.

4 In those yamim the malachim shall descend into the secret places and gather together into one place all those who brought down sin; and אף אף will arise on that yom of mishpat to execute great mishpat among sinners.

5 And over all the tzadik and kadosh ones He will appoint guardians from among the kadosh malachim to guard them as the apple of an eye, Until He makes an end of all wickedness and all sin; and though the tzadikim sleep a long sleep, they have nothing to fear.

6 And (then) the children of the earth shall see the wise in security and shall understand all the Words of this sefer and recognize that their riches shall not be able to save them in the overthrow of their sins.

7 Woe to you, sinners, on the yom of strong anguish, you who afflict the tzadik and burn them with fire: You shall be repaid according to your works.

8 Woe to you, you obstinate of lev; who watch in order to devise wickedness: therefore shall fear come upon you and there shall be none to help you.

9 Woe to you, you sinners, on account of the words of your mouth and on account of the deeds of your hands which your godlessness has worked, In blazing flames burning worse than fire shall you burn.

10 And now, know you that from the malachim He will inquire as to your deeds in the shamayim, from the shemesh and from the yarayach and from the chochavim in reference to your sins because in the earth you execute;

11 Mishpatim on the tzadikim. And He will summon to testify against you every cloud and mist and dew and rain; for they shall all be withheld because of you from descending upon you and they;

12 Shall be mindful of your sins.

13 And now give presents to the rain (meaning thanksgiving) that it is not withheld from descending upon you, nor yet the dew, when it has received gold and silver from you that it may descend.

14 When the frost and snow with their chilliness and all the snowstorms with all their plagues fall upon you, in those yamim you shall not be able to stand before them.

102 Observe the shamayim, you children of the shamayim and every work of אֱלֹהִים and fear Him.

2 And work no evil in His presence. If He closes the windows of the shamayim and withholds the rain and;

3 'The dew from descending in the earth on your account, what will you do then? And if He sends His anger upon you because of your deeds, you cannot petition Him; for you spoke proud and insolent;

4 Words against His tzedakah: therefore you shall have no shalom. And do you see the sailors of the ships, how their ships are tossed to and fro by the waves and are shaken by the ruachim and are;

5 In deep trouble? And therefore do they fear because all their tov possessions go upon the sea with them and they have evil forebodings of lev that the sea will swallow them and that they will;

6 Perish there. Are not the seas and all its mayim and all its movements, the work of the Most;

7 High; and has He not set limits to its doings and confined it throughout by the sand? And at His reproof it is afraid and dries up and its entire fish population die and all that is in it; but you sinners that are;

8 In the earth fear Him not. Has He not made the shamayim and the earth and all that is in it? Who has given binah and chochmah to everything that moves in the earth and in the sea?

9 Do not the sailors of the ships fear the sea? Yet sinners fear not אֱלֹהִים.

103 In those yamim when He has brought a grievous fire upon you, where will you flee and where will you find deliverance? And when He launches forth His Word against you, will you not be afraid and fear?

2 And all the luminaries shall be afraid with great fear and all the earth shall be afraid and tremble and be alarmed.

3 And all the malachim shall execute their commands; and shall seek to hide themselves from the presence of the Great Esteem and the children of earth shall tremble and quake; and you sinners shall be cursed le-olam-va-ed and you shall have no shalom.

4 Fear not, you beings of the tzadikim and be hopeful you that have died in His tzedakah.

5 And grieve not if your being into Sheol has descended in grief and that in your chayim your goff fared not according to tovness; just wait for the yom of the mishpat of sinners and for the yom of cursing and chastisement.

6 And yet when you die the sinners speak over you: As we die, so die the tzadikim and what benefit do they reap for their deeds?

7 Behold, even as we, so do they die in grief and darkness and what have they more than we? From then on we are equal.

8 And what will they receive and what will they see le-olam-va-ed? Behold, they too have died and then after that shall they see no ohr.

9 I tell you sinners, you are content to eat and drink and rob and sin and strip men naked and;

10 Acquire wealth and see tov yamim. Have you seen the tzadikim how their end occurs, that no manner;

11 Of violence is found in them until their death? Nevertheless they perished and became as though they had not been and their ruachim descended into Sheol in tribulation.

104 Now, therefore, I swear to you, the tzadikim, by the esteem of the Great and Honored and;

2 Mighty One in dominion and by His greatness I swear to you. I know a sod and have read the heavenly tablets and have seen the kadosh scrolls and have found written in them and inscribed regarding the tzadikim:

3 That all tovness and simcha and esteem are prepared for them and written down for the ruachim of those who have died in tzedakah and that manifold tov shall be given to them in recompense for their labors and that their lot is abundantly beyond the lot of the temporal living.

4 And the ruachim of you who have died in tzedakah shall live and rejoice; and your ruachim shall not perish, nor your memorial from before the face of the Great One; to all the generations of the earth: so no longer fear their claims.

5 Woe to you, you sinners, when you have died, if you die in the wealth of your sins and those who are like you say regarding you: blessed are the sinners: they have seen all their yamim.

6 And how they have died in prosperity and in wealth and have not seen tribulation or murder in their chayim; and they have died in kavod; and mishpat has not been executed on them during their chayim.

7 Do you know that their beings will be made to descend into Sheol and they shall be wretched in their great tribulation.

8 And into darkness and chains and a burning flame where there is grievous mishpat shall their ruachim enter; and the great mishpat shall be for all the generations of the earth. Woe to you, for you shall have no shalom.

9 Let not the tzadik and tov ones who are in their earthly chayim say: In our troubled yamim we have toiled laboriously and experienced every trouble and met with much evil and been consumed and have become few and our ruach small.

10 And we have been destroyed and have not found any to help us even with a word: We have been tortured [and destroyed] and not hoped to see chayim from yom to yom.

11 We hoped to be the head and have become the tail: we have toiled laboriously and had no satisfaction in our toil; and we have become the food of the sinners and the unrighteous and they have laid their yoke heavily upon us.

12 They have had dominion over us that hated us and smote us; and to those that hated us we have bowed our necks but they pitied us not.

13 We desired to get away from them that we might escape and be at rest but found no place where we should flee and be safe from them.

14 And complained to the rulers in our tribulation and cried out against those who devoured us but they did not attend to our cries and would not listen to our voice.

15 And they helped those who robbed us and devoured us and those who made us few; and they concealed their oppression and they did not remove from us the yoke of those that devoured us and dispersed us and murdered us,

16 And they concealed their murder and remembered not that they had lifted up their hands against us.

105 I swear to you that in the shamayim the malachim remember you for tov before the esteem of the Great;

2 One: and your names are written before the esteem of the Great One. Be hopeful; for before you were put to shame through sickness and affliction; but now you shall shine as the lights of the shamayim,

3 You shall shine and you shall be seen and the windows of the shamayim shall be opened to you. And in your cry for mishpat, it shall appear for you; for all your tribulation shall be visited on the;

4 Rulers and on all who helped those who plundered you. Be hopeful and cast not away your hopes, for you shall have great simcha and be as the malachim of the shamayim.

5 What shall you be obliged to do? You shall not have to hide on the yom of the great mishpat and you shall not be found as sinners and the eternal;

6 Mishpat shall be far from you for all the generations of the earth. And now fear not, you tzadikim, when you see the sinners growing strong and prospering in their derachot: be not companions with them,

7 But keep afar from their violence; for you shall become companions of the hosts of the shamayim. And, although you sinners say: All our sins shall not be searched out and be written down, nevertheless;

8 They shall write down all your sins every yom.

And now I show to you that ohr and darkness,
9 Yom and lyla, see all your sins. Be not Torahless in your levavot and lie not and alter not the Words of tzedakah, nor charge with lies The Words of the Kadosh Great One, nor take account of your;

10 Idols; for all your lying and all your godlessness issue not in tzedakah but in great sin. And now I know this sod; that sinners will alter and pervert the Words of tzedakah in many derachot and will speak wicked words and lies and practice great deceits and write their own scrolls concerning;

11 Their words (like the Quran, Talmud and other man-made works claiming to be the actual Words of אֱלֹהִים, all the while ignoring the emet scrolls recovered in the earth like Enoch, Jubilees, etc.). But when they write down truthfully all My Words in their languages and do not change or diminish from any of my Words but write them all down truthfully - all that I first testified;

12 Concerning them. Then, I know another sod, that more scrolls will be given to the tzadikim and the;
13 Wise to become a cause of simcha and tzedakah and much chochmah. And to them shall the scrolls be given and they shall believe in them and rejoice over them and then shall all the tzadikim that have learned from all the paths of tzedakah be repaid (we see that occurring today).

106 In those yamim אֱלֹהִים invited (them) to summon and testify to the children of the earth concerning their chochmah (recovered scrolls): Show (it) to them; for you are their guides and a bracha over the whole earth.

2 For I and My Son will be united with them le-olam-va-ed in the paths of tzedakah in their lives; and you shall have shalom: rejoice, you children of tzedakah. Ahmein.

Fragment of the Scroll of Noach

107 And after some yamim my son

Metushelach took an isha for his son Lamech and she became;

2 Pregnant by him and bore a son. And his gooff was white as snow and red as the blooming of a rose and the hair of his head and his long locks were white as wool and his eyes beautiful. And when he opened his eyes, he lit up the whole bayit like the shemesh and the whole bayit;

3 Was very bright. And he arose in the hands of the midisha, opened his mouth and conversed with אַף־אֶז of tzedakah.

4 And his abba Lamech was afraid of him and;

5 Fled and came to his abba Metushelach. And he said to him: I have begotten a strange son, diverse from and unlike man and resembling the sons of אַף־אֶז of the shamayim (fallen Watchers); and his nature is different and he is not like us and his eyes are as the rays of the shemesh and his;

6 Countenance is exalted. And it seems to me that he is not sprung from me but from the malachim and I fear that in his yamim a wonder may be;

7 Wrought in the earth. And now, my abba, I am here to petition you and implore you that you may go to Chanok, our abba and learn from him the emet, for his dwelling-place is;

8 Among the malachim. (in other words ask Enoch if Noah is a Giant). And when Metushelach heard the words of his son, he came to me to the ends of the earth; for he had heard that was there and he cried aloud and I heard his voice and I came to him.

9 And said to him: Behold, here am I, my son, why have you come to me? 'And he answered and said: Because of a great cause of anxiety have I come to you and because of a disturbing vision;

10 have I approached. And now, my abba, hear me: to Lamech my son there has been born a son, the like of whom there is none and his nature is not like man's nature and the color of his gooff is whiter than snow and redder than the bloom of a rose and the hair of his head is whiter than white wool and his eyes are like the rays of the shemesh and he opened his eyes and;

11 Lit up the whole bayit. And he arose in the hands of the midisha and opened;

12 His mouth and blessed אֱלֹהִים of the shamayim. And his abba Lamech became afraid and fled to me and did not believe that he was sprung from him but that he was in the likeness of the fallen malachim of the shamayim; and behold I have come to you, that you may make known to me the emet.

13 And I, Chanok, answered and said to him: 'Then אֱלֹהִים will do a new thing in the earth and this I have already seen in a vision and make known to you that in the generation of my abba Yared, some of the malachim of the shamayim transgressed The Word of אֱלֹהִים.

14 And behold they committed sin and transgressed The Torah and have united themselves with women and commit sin with them and have married some of them and have begot children by them. And they shall produce in the earth Giants not according to the ruach but according to the flesh and there shall be a great punishment in the earth and the earth shall be cleansed from all impurity.

15 Yes, there comes a great destruction over the whole earth and there shall be a deluge and;

16 A great destruction for one year. And this son who has been born to you shall be left in the earth and his three children shall be saved with him: when all mankind that are in the earth;

17 Shall die [he and his sons shall be saved]. And now make known to your son Lamech that he who has been born is in emet his son and call his name Noach (the one who comforts); for he shall be left to you,

18 And he and his sons shall be saved from the destruction, which shall come upon the earth on account of all the sin and all the unrighteousness, which shall be consummated in the earth in his yamim.

19 And after that (after the flood) there shall be still more unrighteousness than that which was first consummated in the earth; for I know the sods of the kadosh ones;

20 for He, אֱלֹהִים, has showed me and informed me and I have read (them) in the heavenly tablets.

108 And I saw written on them that generation upon generation shall transgress, until a generation of tzedakah arises and transgression is destroyed and sin passes away from the earth and all;

2 Manner of tov comes upon it. And now, my son, go and make known to your son Lamech that this;

3 Son, which has been born, is in emet his son and that (this) is no lie. And when Metushelach had heard the words of his abba Chanok-for he had showed to him everything in secret, he returned;

4 And showed (them) to him and called the name of that son Noach; for he will comfort the earth after all the destruction.

109 Another sefer which Chanok wrote for his son Metushelach and for those who will come after him,

2 And keep The Torah in the yamim ha-acharonim (Scroll of Enoch). You who have done tov shall wait for those yamim until an end is made of those who work evil; and an end of the might of the transgressors.

3 And wait indeed until sin has passed away, for their names shall be blotted out of the Sefer of Chayim and out of the kadosh scrolls (quoted by John in Revelation) and their zera shall be destroyed le-olam-va-ed and their ruachim shall be slain and they shall cry and make lamentation in a place that is a chaotic midbar and in the fire shall they burn; for there is no chayim there.

4 And I saw there something like an invisible cloud; for by reason of its depth, I could not look over and I saw a flame of fire blazing brightly and things shining;

5 Hareem circling and sweeping to and fro. And I asked one of the kadosh malachim who was with me and said to him: What is this shining thing? For it is not the shamayim but it is only the flame of a blazing.

6 Fire and the voice of weeping and crying and lamentation and strong pain. And he said to me: In this place which you see here are expelled the ruachim of sinners and blasphemers and of those who work wickedness and of those who pervert everything that אֱלֹהִים has spoken through the mouth;

7 Of the neviim, even the things that shall be. For some of them are written and inscribed above in the shamayim, in order that the malachim may read them and know that which shall befall the sinners and the ruachim of the humble and of those who have afflicted their bodies and been rewarded;

8 By אֱלֹהִים; and of those who have been put to shame by wicked men: who love אֱלֹהִים and loved neither gold, silver nor any of the tov things which are in the earth but gave over their bodies to torture.

9 Who, since they came into being, longed not after earthly food but regarded everything as a passing breath and lived accordingly and אֱלֹהִים tried them much and their ruachim were;

10 Found pure so that they should bless His Name. And all the brachot assigned for them I have recounted in the scrolls. And he has assigned them their reward because they have been found to be such as loved the shamayim malchut more than their chayim in the earth, even though they were trodden under foot by wicked men and experienced abuse and reviling from them and were put to shame.

11 Yet they blessed Me. And now I will summon the ruachim of the tov who belong to the generation of ohr and I will transform those who were born in darkness, who in the flesh were not rewarded;

12 With such kavod as their faithfulness deserved.

And I will bring forth in shining ohr those who;

13 Have loved My kadosh Emet Name אֱמֶת; and I will seat each on the kesay of his own kavod. And they shall be in blazing ohr for times without number; for tzedakah is the mishpat of אֱמֶת; for to the faithful.

14 He will give faithfulness in the habitation of upright paths. And they shall see those who were,

15 Born in darkness led into darkness, while the tzadikim shall become ohr. And the sinners shall cry aloud and see them in blazing ohr and they indeed will go where yamim and moadem are prescribed for them. X

Jubilees-Yovleem

The Heavenly Given Divisions of Yamim-Days And Times

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

Sefer Ha-Yovleem-Scroll of Jubilees "The Little Genesis" Written By Moshe and dictated from אֱלֹהִים through angels. A Jubilee or Yovel is a period of 49 years or 7 weeks. A Jubilee week is a period of 7 years. The Scroll of Jubilees has 50 Chapters one for each Jubilee from Ahdahm to the Promised Land. Many believe it is mentioned in סוּפְרָא 8:34-35. Copies found at Qumran and Masada are in Hebrew. The Scroll of Jubilees is not a calendar at all; rather it is a revelation to Moshe, through angels, of the celebrations of אֱלֹהִים in the heavens, given first to the patriarchs of Yisrael and later renewed in Torah for all of Yisrael.

This then is the history of the division of the yamim seen in The Torah and of the testimony, the events of the years in Jubilee weeks, the feasts of the brit and the Shabbats, of the Jubilees throughout all the years of the olam, as אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe on Mount Senai, when he went up to receive the tables of The Torah and the commandments, according to the voice of אֱלֹהִים, as He said to him. Go and come up to the top of the Mount.

1 And it came to pass in the first year of the exodus of the children of Yisrael out of Mitzrayim, in the third chodesh, on the sixteenth yom of the chodesh, that אֱלֹהִים, spoke to Moshe, saying: Come up to Me on the Har and I will give you two tables of stone of The Torah and of the commandment, which I have written, that you may teach them.

2 And Moshe went up into the har of אֶרֶב and the splendor of אֶרֶב abode on Har Senai and a cloud overshadowed it six yamim.

3 And He called to Moshe on the seventh yom out of the midst of the cloud and the appearance of the splendor of אֶרֶב was like a flaming fire on the top of the har.

4 And Moshe was on the Har forty yamim and forty laylot and אֶרֶב taught him the earlier and the latter history of the division of all the yamim of The Torah and of the testimony.

5 And He said: Incline your lev to every word which I shall speak to you on this har and write them in a scroll, in order that their generations may see how I have not forsaken them for all the evil which they have done in transgressing the brit which I establish between Me and you, for their generations this yom on Har Senai.

6 And so it will come to pass when all these things come upon them, that they will recognize that I AM more tsadik than they in all their mishpatim and in all their actions and they will recognize that I have been truly with them.

7 And write for yourself all these Words which I declare to, you this yom, for I know their rebellion and their stiff neck, before I bring them into the land of which I swore to their avot, to Avraham and to Yitschaq and to Yaakov saying: Unto your zera will I give a land flowing with milk and honey.

8 And they will eat and be satisfied and they will turn to strange ahlahim, to ahlahim which cannot deliver them from any of their tribulation: and this witness shall be heard for a witness against them.

9 For they will forget all My mitzvoth, even all that I command them and they will walk after the goyim and after their uncleanness and after their shame and will serve their ahlahim and these will prove to them an offence and a tribulation and an affliction and a snare.

10 And many will perish and they will be taken captive and will fall into the hands of the enemy because they have forsaken My ordinances and My mitzvoth and the moadem of My brit and My Shabbats and My kadosh place which I have set apart for Myself in their midst and My sukkah and My sanctuary, which I have set apart for Myself in the midst of the land, that I should set My Name upon it and that it should dwell there.

11 And they will make to themselves high places and groves and graven images and they will worship, each his own graven image, so as to go astray and they will sacrifice their children to shedeem and to all the works of the error of their levavot.

12 And I will send witnesses to them, that I may witness against them but they will not hear and will slay the witnesses also and they will persecute those who seek The Torah and they will abrogate and change everything so as to work evil before My eyes.

13 And I will hide My face from them and I will deliver them into the hand of the goyim for captivity and for a prey and for devouring and I will remove them from the midst of the land and I will scatter them among the goyim.

14 And they will forget all of My Torah and all My mitzvoth and all My mishpatim and will go astray as to new chodashem and Shabbats and moadem and Yovleem and ordinances.

15 And after this they will turn to Me from among the goyim with all their lev and with all their nephesh and with all their strength and I will gather them from among all the goyim and they will seek Me, so that I shall be found of them, when they seek Me with all their lev and with all their nephesh.

16 And I will disclose to them abounding shalom with tzedakah and I will plant them as the plant of tzedakah, with all My lev and with all My nephesh and they shall be for a bracha and not for a curse and they shall be the head and not the tail.

17 And I will build My sanctuary-sukkah in their midst and I will dwell with them and I will be אלהים their Ahlohim and they shall be My People-AMI in emet and tzedakah.

18 And I will not forsake them nor fail them; for I AM אלהים their Ahlohim.

19 And Moshe fell on his face and made tefillah and said, O אלהים my Ahlohim, do not forsake Your people and Your inheritance, so that they should wander in the error of their levavot and do not deliver them into the hands of their enemies, the goyim, lest they should rule over them and cause them to sin against You.

20 Let your rachamim, O אלהים, be lifted up upon Your people and create in them an upright ruach and let not the ruach of Belial rule over them to accuse them before You and to ensnare them from all the paths of tzedakah, so that they may perish from before Your face.

21 But they are Your people and Your inheritance, which You have delivered with Your great Power from the hands of the Mitzrites: create in them a clean lev and a kadosh ruach and let them not be ensnared in their sins from now on until eternity.

22 And אלהים said to Moshe: I know their contrariness and their thoughts and their stiffneckedness and they will not be obedient till they confess their own sin and the sin of their avot. 23 And after this they will turn to Me in all tzedakah and with all their lev and with all their nephesh and I will brit-milah the foreskin of their lev and the foreskin of the lev of their zera and I will create in them a kadosh ruach and I will cleanse them so that they shall not turn away from Me from that yom to eternity.

24 And their naphsoth will cleave to Me and to all My mitzvoth and they will fulfill My mitzvoth and I will be their Abba and they shall be My children.

25 And they all shall be called children of the living אֱלֹהִים and every malach and every ruach shall know, yes, they shall know that these are My children and that I AM their Abba in tzedakah and that I love them.

26 And write down for yourself all these Words which I declare to you on this har, the first and the last, which shall come to pass in all the divisions of the yamim in The Torah and in the testimony and in the weeks and the Yovleem to eternity, until I descend and dwell with them throughout eternity.

27 And He said to the Malach of The Presence: Write for Moshe from the beginning of creation till My sanctuary has been built among them for all eternity.

28 And אֱלֹהִים will appear to the eyes of all and all shall know that I AM the Ahlohim of Yisrael and The Abba of all the children of Yaakov and Melech on Har Tzion for all eternity. And Tzion and Yahrushalayim shall be kadosh.

29 And The Malach of the Presence who went before the camp of Yisrael took the tables of the divisions of the years from the time of the creation, of The Torah and of the testimony of the weeks of the Yovleem, according to the individual years, according to all the number of the Yovleem, according, to the individual years, from the yom of the new creation when the shamayim and the earth shall be renewed and all their creation, according to the powers of the shamayim; and according to all the creation of the earth, until the sanctuary of אֶלֶּהֶם shall be made in Yahrushalayim on Har Tzion; and all the luminaries shall be renewed for healing and for shalom and for blessing for all the elect of Yisrael; and that so it may be from that yom and to all the yamim of the earth.

2 And The Malach Of The Presence spoke to Moshe according to The Word of אֶלֶּהֶם, saying: Write the complete history of the creation, how in six yamim אֶלֶּהֶם Ahlohim finished all His works and all that He created and kept Shabbat on the seventh yom and set it apart for all ages and appointed it as an ot for all His works.

2 For on the first yom He created the shamayim which are above and the earth and the mayim and all the ruachim which serve before Him - the malachim of the presence and the malachim of kedusha and the malachim of the ruach of fire and the malachim of the ruach of the ruachim and the malachim of the ruach of the clouds and of darkness and of snow and of hail and of frost and the malachim of the voices and of the thunder and of the lightning and the malachim of the ruachim of cold and of heat and of winter and of spring and of autumn and of summer; and of all the ruachim of his creatures which are in the shamayim and in the earth, He created the abysses and the darkness, evening and lyla and the ohr, dawn and yom, which
He has prepared in the da'at of His lev.

3 And upon it we saw His works and praised Him and lauded before Him on account of all His works; for seven great works did He create on the first yom.

4 And on the second yom He created the firmament in the midst of the mayim and the mayim were divided on that yom - half of them went up above and half of them went down below the firmament (that was) in the midst over the face of the whole earth. And this was the only work אֵלֵאֵל created on the second yom.

5 And on the third yom He commanded the mayim to pass from off the face of the whole earth into one place and the dry land to appear.

6 And the mayim did so as He commanded them and they retired from off the face of the earth into one place outside of this firmament and the dry land appeared.

7 And on that yom He created for them all the seas according to their separate gathering-places and all the rivers and the gatherings of the mayim in the mountains and on all the earth and all the lakes and all the dew of the earth and the zera which is sown and all sprouting things and fruit-bearing eytzim and eytzim of the wood and the Gan of Ayden, in Ayden and all. These four great works אֵלֵאֵל created on the third yom.

8 And on the fourth yom He assigned the shemesh and the yarayach and the cochavim and set them in the firmament of the shamayim, to give ohr upon all the earth and to rule over the yom and the lyla and divide the ohr from the darkness.

9 And אֵלֵאֵל appointed the shemesh to be a great ot in the earth for yamim and for Shabbats and for chodashem and for moadem and for years and for Shabbats of years and for Yovleem and for all moadem of the years.

10 And it divides the ohr from the darkness and for prosperity, that all things may prosper which shoot and grow in the earth. These three kinds He made- assigned on the fourth yom.

11 And on the fifth yom He created great sea monsters in the depths of the mayim, for these were the first things of flesh that were created by His Hands, the fish and everything that moves in the mayim and everything that flies, the birds and all their kind.

12 And the shemesh rose above them to prosper them and above everything that was on the earth, everything that shoots out of the earth and all fruit-bearing eytzim and all flesh. These three kinds He created on the fifth yom.

13 And on the sixth yom He created all the animals of the earth and all cattle and everything that moves on the earth.

14 And after all this He created man, a man-zachar and a woman-nekevah, created He them and gave him dominion over all that is upon the earth and in the seas and over everything that flies and over beasts and over cattle and over everything that moves on the earth and over the whole earth and over all this He gave him dominion.

15 And these four kinds He created on the sixth yom. And there were altogether two and twenty kinds.

16 And He finished all His work on the sixth yom - all that is in the shamayim and in the earth and in the seas and in the abysses and in the ohr and in the darkness and in everything.

17 And He gave us a great ot, the Shabbat yom, that we should work six yamim but keep Shabbat on the seventh yom from all work.

18 And all the malachim of the Presence and all the malachim of kedoosha, these two great classes -

He has told us to keep the Shabbat with Him in the shamayim and on earth.

19 And He said to us: Behold, I will separate to Myself a people from among all the peoples and these shall keep the Shabbat Yom and I will sanctify them to Myself as My People-Ami and will bless them; as I have sanctified the Shabbat Yom and do sanctify it to Myself, even so will I bless them and they shall be My People-Ami and I will be their Ahlohim.

20 And I have chosen the zera of Yaakov from among all that I have seen and have written him down as My bachor son and have sanctified him to Myself le-olam-va-ed; and I will teach them the Shabbat Yom, that they may keep Shabbat on it from all work.

21 And so He created an ot in accordance with which they should keep Shabbat with us on the seventh yom, to eat and to drink and to bless Him who has created all things as He has blessed and sanctified to Himself a peculiar people above all peoples and that they should keep Shabbat together with us.

22 And He caused His commands to ascend as a sweet savour acceptable before Him all the yamim.

23 There were 22 heads of mankind from Ahdam to Yaakov and 22 kinds of work were made until the seventh yom; this is blessed and kadosh; and the former also is blessed and kadosh; and this one serves with that one for kedusha and blessing.

24 And to this Yaakov and his zera it was granted that they should always be the blessed and kadosh ones of the first testimony and Torah, even as He had sanctified and blessed the Shabbat yom on the seventh yom.

25 He created the shamayim and earth and everything that He created in six yamim and אָרְבָּע made the seventh yom kadosh, for all His works; therefore He commanded on its behalf that, whoever does any work on it shall die and that he who defiles it shall surely die.

26 So command the children of Yisrael to observe this yom that they may keep it kadosh and not do on it any work and not to defile it, as it is more kadosh than all other yamim.

27 And whoever profanes it shall surely die and whoever does on it any work shall surely die eternally that the children of Yisrael may observe this yom throughout their generations and not be rooted out of the land; for it is a kadosh yom and a blessed yom.

28 And everyone who observes it and keeps Shabbat on it from all his work, will be kadosh and blessed throughout all yamim like us.

29 Declare and say to the children of Yisrael The Torah of this yom both that they should keep Shabbat on it and that they should not forsake it in the error of their levavot; and that it is not lawful to do any work on it, which is unseemly, to do on it their own pleasure and that they should not prepare on it anything to be eaten or drunk and that it is not lawful to draw mayim, or bring in or take out on it through their gates any burden, which they had not prepared for themselves on the sixth yom in their dwellings.

30 And they shall not bring in nor take out from bayit to bayit on that yom; for that yom is more kadosh and blessed than any Yovelyom of the Yovleem; on this we kept Shabbat in the shamayim before it was made known to any flesh to keep Shabbat on it on the earth.

31 And The Creator of all things blessed it but he did not sanctify all peoples and goyim to keep Shabbat on it but Yisrael alone: them alone He permitted to eat and drink and to keep Shabbat on it on the earth.

32 And The Creator of all things blessed this yom which He had created for blessing and making it kadosh and splendid above all yamim.

33 This Torah and testimony was given to the children of Yisrael as a Torah le-olam-va-ed to their generations.

3 And on the six yamim of the second week we brought, according to the Word of אֱלֹהִים, to Ahdam all the beasts and all the cattle and all the birds and everything that moves on the earth and everything that moves in the mayim, according to their kinds and according to their types: the beasts on the first yom; the cattle on the second yom; the birds on the third yom; and all that which moves on the earth on the fourth yom; and that which moves in the mayim on the fifth yom.

2 And Ahdam named them all by their respective names and as he called them, so was their name.

3 And on these five yamim Ahdam saw all these, male and female, according to every kind that was on the earth but he was alone and there was found no helpmeet-ezer kenegdo for him.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to us: It is not tov that the man has become alone: let us make a suitable helpmeet for him.

5 And אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim caused a deep sleep to fall upon him and he slept and He took for the woman one rib from among his ribs and this rib was the origin of the woman from among his ribs and He built up the flesh in its place and built the woman.

6 And He awoke Ahdam out of his sleep and on awaking he rose on the sixth yom and He brought her to him and he knew her and said to her: This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called my isha; because she was taken from her husband.

7 Therefore shall man and isha be echad and therefore shall a man leave his abba and his eema and cleave to his isha and they shall be one flesh.

8 In the first week was Ahdam created and the rib - his isha: in the second week He showed her to him: and for this reason the commandment was given to keep in their defilement, for a male seven yamim and for a female fourteen yamim.

9 And after Ahdam had completed forty yamim in the land where he had been created, we brought him into the Gan of Ayden to till and keep it but his isha they brought in on the eightieth yom and after this she entered into the Gan of Ayden.

10 And for this reason the commandment is written on the heavenly tablets in regard to her that gives birth: If she bears a male, she shall remain in her uncleanness seven yamim according to the first week of yamim and thirty and three yamim shall she remain in the dahm of her purifying and she shall not touch any kadosh thing, nor enter into the sanctuary, until she accomplishes these yamim which are required in the case of a male child.

11 But in the case of a female child she shall remain in her uncleanness two weeks of yamim, according to the first two weeks and sixty-six yamim in the dahm of her purification and they will be in all eighty yamim.

12 And when she had completed these eighty yamim we brought her into the Gan of Ayden, for it is the most kadosh place in the earth and every eytz that is planted in it is kadosh.

13 Therefore, there was ordained regarding her who bears a male or a female child the statute of those yamim that she should touch no kadosh thing, nor enter into the sanctuary until these yamim for the male or female child are accomplished.

14 This is The Torah and testimony which was written down for Yisrael, in order that they should observe it all the yamim.

15 And in the first week of the first Yovel, Ahdam and his isha were in the Gan of Ayden for seven years tilling and keeping it and we gave him work and we instructed him to do everything that is suitable for tillage.

16 And he tilled the Garden and was naked and knew it not and was not ashamed and he protected the garden from the birds and beasts and cattle and gathered its fruit and ate and put aside the residue for himself and for his isha and put aside that which was being kept.

17 And after the completion of the seven years, which he had completed there, seven years exactly and in the second chodesh, on the seventeenth yom of the chodesh, the nachash came and approached the woman and the serpent said to the woman, Has אֱלֹהִים commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of every eytz of the Gan?

18 And she said to it, Of all the fruit of the eytzim of the Gan אֱלֹהִים has said to us, Eat; but of the fruit of the eytz which is in the midst of the Gan אֱלֹהִים has said to us, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die. And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die: for אֱלֹהִים does know that on the yom you shall eat of it, your eyes will be opened and you will be as Ahlohim and you will know tov and evil.

20 And the woman saw the eytz that it was agreeable and pleasant to the eye and that its fruit was tov for food and she took of it and eat;

21 And when she had first covered her shame with fig leaves, she gave of it to Ahdam and he ate and his eyes were opened and he saw that he was naked.

22 And he took fig leaves and sewed them together and made an apron for himself and covered his shame.

23 And אָפֶּיֶז cursed the serpent and was angry with it le-olam-va-ed.

24 And He was angry with the woman because she listened to the voice of the serpent and did eat; and He said to her: I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your pains: in sorrow you shall bring forth children and your desire shall be for your husband's role and yet, he will govern over you.

25 And to Ahdam also He said, Because you have listened to the voice of your isha and have eaten of the eytz of which I commanded you that you should not eat of it, cursed be the ground for your sake: thorns and thistles shall it bring forth to you and you shall eat your lechem by the sweat of your face, until you return to the earth from where you were taken; for earth you are and to earth shall you return.

26 And He made for them coats of skin and clothed them and sent them forth from the Gan of Ayden.

27 And on that yom on which Ahdam went forth from the Gan, he offered as a sweet savor an offering, frankincense, galbanum and stacte and spices in the boker with the rising of the shemesh from the yom when he covered his shame.

28 And on that yom was closed the mouth of all beasts and of cattle and of birds and of whatever walks and of whatever moves, so that they could no longer speak: for they had all spoken one with another with one lip and with one tongue.

29 And He sent out of the Gan of Ayden all flesh that was in the Gan of Ayden and all flesh was scattered according to its kinds and according to its types to the places which had been created for them.

30 And to Ahdam alone did He give the ability to cover his shame, of all the beasts and cattle.

31 On this account, it is prescribed on the heavenly tablets as touching all those who know the mishpat of The Torah that they should cover their shame and should not uncover themselves as the goyim uncover themselves.

32 And on the first yom of the fourth chodesh, Ahdam and his isha went forth from the Gan of Ayden and they dwelt in the land of Elda in the land of their creation.

33 And Ahdam called the name of his isha Chavah.

34 And they had no son until the first Yovel and after this he knew her.

35 Now he tilled the land as he had been instructed in the Gan of Ayden.

4 And in the third week in the second Yovel she gave birth to Cayin and in the fourth she gave birth to Avel and in the fifth she gave birth to her daughter Awan.

2 And in the first year of the third Yovel, Cayin slew Hevel because אָדָם accepted the sacrifice of Hevel and did not accept the offering of Cayin.

3 And he slew him in the field: and his dahm cried from the ground to the shamayim, complaining because he had slain him.

4 And אָדָם reproved Cayin because of Hevel because he had slain him and he made him a fugitive on the earth because of the dahm of his brother and he cursed him upon the earth.

5 And on this account it is written on the heavenly tables, Cursed is he who smites his neighbor treacherously and let all who have seen and heard say, Ahmein; and the man who has seen murder and not declared it, let him be cursed as the other.

6 And for this reason we announce when we come before אלהים our Ahlohim all the sin which is committed in the shamayim and on earth and in ohr and in darkness and everywhere.

7 And Ahdam and his isha mourned for Hevel four weeks of years and in the fourth year of the fifth week they became joyful and Ahdam knew his isha again and she bare him a son and he called his name Seth; for he said אלהים has raised up a second zera to us in the earth instead of Hevel; for Cayin slew him.

8 And in the sixth week he begat his daughter Azura.

9 And Cayin took Awan his sister to be his isha and she bare him Chanok at the close of the fourth Yovel. And in the first year of the first week of the fifth Yovel, houses were built on the earth and Cayin built a city and called its name after the name of his son Chanok.

10 And Ahdam knew Eve his isha and she bare yet nine sons.

11 And in the fifth week of the fifth Yovel Seth took Azura his sister to be his isha and in the fourth (year of the sixth week) she bare him Enos.

12 He began to call on The Name of אלהים on the earth.

13 And in the seventh Yovel in the third week Enos took Noam his sister to be his isha and she bare him a son in the third year of the fifth week and he called his name Kenan.

14 And at the close of the eighth Yovel Kenan took Mualeleth his sister to be his isha and she bare him a son in the ninth Yovel, in the first week in the third year of this week and he called his name Mahalalel.

15 And in the second week of the tenth Yovel Mahalalel took to him as isha Dinah, the daughter of Barakiel the daughter of his abba's brother and she bare him a son in the third week in the sixth year and he called his name Yared, for in his yamim the malachim of אַרְבָּע descended on the earth, those who are named the Ireem, that they should instruct the children of men and that they should do mishpat and tzedakah on the earth.

16 And in the eleventh Yovel, Yared took to himself an isha and her name was Baracha, the daughter of Rasuyal, a daughter of his abba's brother, in the fourth week of this Yovel and she bare him a son in the fifth week, in the fourth year of the Yovel and he called his name Chanok.

17 And he was the first among men that are born on earth who learned writing and da'at and chochmah and who wrote down the signs of the shamayim according to the order of their chodashem in a scroll, that men might know the moadem of the years according to the order of their separate chodashem.

18 And he was the first to write a testimony and he testified to the sons of men among the generations of the earth and recounted the weeks of the Yovleem and made known to them the yamim of the years and set in order the chodashem and recounted the Shabbats of the years as we made them, known to him.

19 And what was and what will be, he saw in a vision of his sleep, as it will happen to the children of men throughout their generations until the Yom of Judgment; he saw and understood everything and wrote his testimony, Sefer Chanok and placed the testimony on earth for all the children of men and for their generations.

20 And in the twelfth Yovel, in the seventh week of it, he took to himself an isha and her name was Ednah, the daughter of Dan-EI, the daughter of his abba's brother and in the sixth year in this week she bare him a son and he called his name Methushelach.

21 And he was moreover with the malachim of אַף־אֶז these six Yovleem of years and they showed him everything which is on earth and in the shamayim, the rule of the shemesh and he wrote down everything, Sefer Chanok.

22 And he testified to the Watchers, who had sinned with the daughters of men; for these had begun to unite themselves, so as to be defiled, with the daughters of men and Chanok testified against them all.

23 And he was taken from among the children of men and we conducted him into Gan Ayden in majesty in the shamayim and kavod and behold, there he writes down the condemnation and mishpat of the olam and all the wickedness of the children of men.

24 And on account of it אַף־אֶז brought the mayim of the flood upon all the land of Ayden; for there he was set as an ot and that he should testify against all the children of men, that he should recount all the deeds of the generations until the yom of condemnation.

25 And he burnt the incense of the sanctuary, even sweet spices acceptable before אַף־אֶז on the Har, the Beit HaMikdash, The Har of Gan Ayden.

26 For אַף־אֶז has four places on the earth, the Gan of Ayden and the Har of the East and this Har on which you are this yom, Har Senai and Har Tzion which will be sanctified in the new creation for the kedusha of the earth; through it will the earth be sanctified from all its guilt and its uncleanness throughout the generations of the olam.

27 And in the fourteenth Yovel Methuselach took to himself an isha, Edna the daughter of Azrial, the daughter of his abba's brother, in the third week, in the first year of this week and he begat a son and called his name Lamech.

28 And in the fifteenth Yovel in the third week Lamech took to himself an isha and her name was Betenos the daughter of Baraki'il, the daughter of his abba's brother and in this week she bare him a son and he called his name Noach, saying, This one will comfort me for my trouble and all my work and for the ground which ארצו has cursed.

29 And at the close of the nineteenth Yovel, in the seventh week in the sixth year of it, Ahdam died and all his sons buried him in the land of his creation and he was the first to be buried in the earth.

30 And he lacked seventy years of one thousand years; for one thousand years are as one yom in the testimony of the shamayim, Psalm 90:4; and therefore was it written concerning the eytz of da'at: On the yom that you eat of it you shall die. For this reason he did not complete the years of this yom; for he died during it.

31 At the close of this Yovel Cayin was killed after him in the same year; for his bayit fell upon him and he died in the midst of his bayit and he was killed by its stones; for with a stone he had killed Havel and by a stone was he killed in tzadik mishpat.

32 For this reason it was ordained on the heavenly tablets: With the instrument or the same manner with which a man kills his neighbor, with the same shall he be killed; after the manner that he wounded him, in like manner shall they deal with him.

33 And in the twenty-fifth Yovel Noach took to himself an isha and her name was Emzara, the daughter of Rake'el, the daughter of his abba's brother, in the first year in the fifth week and in the third year of it she bare him Shem, in the fifth year of it she bare him Ham and in the first year in the sixth week she bare him Yapheth.

5 And it came to pass when the children of men began to multiply on the face of the earth and daughters were born to them, that the malachim of אַף־אֵל saw them on a certain year of this Yovel, that they were beautiful to look upon; and they took themselves wives of all whom they chose and they bare to them sons and they were nephilim.

2 And Torahlessness increased on the earth and all flesh corrupted its derech, men and cattle and beasts and birds and everything that walks on the earth - all of them corrupted their derachot and their orders and they began to devour each other and Torahlessness increased on the earth and every imagination of the thoughts of all men was evil continually.

3 And אַף־אֵל looked upon the earth and behold it was corrupt and all flesh had corrupted its orders and all that were upon the earth had worked all manner of evil before His eyes.

4 And He said that He would destroy man and all flesh upon the face of the earth which He had created.

5 But Noach found free unmerited chen before the eyes of אַף־אֵל.

6 And against the malachim whom He had sent upon the earth, He was exceedingly angry and He gave commandment to root them out of all their dominion and He ordered us to bind them in the depths of the earth and behold they are bound in the midst of them and are kept separate from clean malachim.

7 And against their sons went forth a command from before His face that they should be smitten with the sword and be removed from under the shamayim.

8 And He said: My Ruach shall not always abide on man; for they also are flesh and their yamim shall be one hundred and twenty years.

9 And He sent His sword into their midst that each should slay his neighbor and they began to slay each other until they all fell by the sword and were destroyed from the earth.

10 And their avot were witnesses of their destruction and after this they were bound in the depths of the earth le-olam-va-ed, until the yom of the great condemnation, when mishpat is executed on all those who have corrupted their derachot and their works before אףאז.

11 And He destroyed all from their places and there was not left one of them whom He judged not according to all their wickedness.

12 And He made for all His works a new and tzadik nature, so that they should not sin in their whole nature le-olam-va-ed but should be all tzadik each in his kind always.

13 And the mishpat of all is ordained and written on the heavenly tablets in tzedakah, even the mishpat of all who depart from the derech, which is ordained for them to walk in; and if they walk not in it, mishpat is written down for every creature and every kind.

14 And there is nothing in the shamayim or on earth, or in ohr or in darkness, or in Sheol or in the depth, or in the place of darkness (which will not be judged); and all their mishpatim are ordained and written and engraved.

15 In regard to all He will judge, the great according to his greatness and the small according to his smallness and each according to his own halacha.

16 And He is not one who will regard the person of any, nor is He one who will receive gifts, if He says that He will execute mishpat on each: if one gave everything that is on the earth, He will not regard the gifts or the person of any, nor accept anything at his hands, for He is a Tzadek Shophet.

17 And of the children of Yisrael it has been written and ordained: If they turn to Him in tzedakah, He will forgive all their transgressions and pardon all their sins.

18 It is written and ordained that He will show rachamim to all who turn from all their guilt once each year on Yom Kippur.

19 And as for all those who corrupted their derachot and their thoughts before the flood, no man's person was accepted save that of Noach alone; for his person was accepted in behalf of his sons, whom אֱלֹהִים saved from the mayim of the flood on his account; for his lev was tzadik in all his derachot, according as it was commanded regarding him and he had not departed from anything that was ordained for him.

20 And אֱלֹהִים said that he would destroy everything which was upon the earth, both men and cattle and beasts and fowls of the air and that which moves on the earth.

21 And He commanded Noach to make him an ark that he might save himself from the mayim of the flood.

22 And Noach made the ark in all respects as He commanded him, in the twenty-seventh Yovel of years, in the fifth week in the fifth year on the first yom of the first chodesh.

23 And he entered in the sixth year, in the second chodesh, on the first yom of the second chodesh, until the sixteenth; and he entered and all that we brought to him, into the ark and אִיָּוָה closed it from without on the seventeenth evening.

24 And אִיָּוָה opened seven floodgates of the shamayim and the mouths of the fountains of the great deep, seven mouths in number.

25 And the floodgates began to pour down mayim from the shamayim forty yamim and forty laylot and the fountains of the deep also sent up mayim, until the whole olam was full of mayim.

26 And the mayim increased upon the earth: fifteen cubits did the mayim rise above all the high mountains and the ark was lifted up above the earth and it moved upon the face of the mayim.

27 And the mayim prevailed on the face of the earth five chodashem - one hundred and fifty yamim.

28 And the ark went and rested on the top of Luvar, one of the mountains of Ararat.

29 And on the first yom in the fourth chodesh the fountains of the great deep were closed and the floodgates of the shamayim were restrained; and on the first yom of the seventh chodesh all the mouths of the abysses of the earth were opened and the mayim began to descend into the deep below.

30 And on the first yom of the tenth chodesh the tops of the mountains were seen and on the first yom of the first chodesh the earth became visible.

31 And the mayim disappeared from above the earth in the fifth week in the seventh year of it and on the seventeenth yom in the second chodesh the earth was dry.

32 And on the twenty-seventh of it he opened the ark and sent forth from it beasts and cattle and birds and every moving thing.

6 And on the first yom of the third chodesh he went forth from the ark and built an altar on that har.

2 And he made keporah for the earth and took a kid and made keporah by its dahm for all the guilt of the earth; le olam va-ed; everything that had been on it had been destroyed, except those that were in the tayvah with Noach.

3 And he placed the fat of it on the altar and he took an ox and a goat and a sheep and kids and salt and a turtle-dove and the young of a dove and placed a burnt sacrifice on the altar and poured on it an offering mixed with oil and sprinkled wine and strewed frankincense over everything and caused a tov savor to arise, acceptable before אֱלֹהִים.

4 And אֱלֹהִים smelled the tov savor and He made a brit with him that there should not be anymore a flood to destroy the earth; that all the yamim of the earth zera time and harvest should never cease; cold and heat and summer and winter and yom and lyla should not change their order, nor cease le-olam-va-ed.

5 And you, increase and multiply upon the earth and become many upon it and be a bracha upon it. The fear of you and the dread of you I will inspire in everything that is on earth and in the sea.

6 And behold I have given to you all beasts and all winged things and everything that moves on the earth and the fish in the mayim and all things for food; as the green herbs, I have given you all things to eat.

7 But flesh, with the chayim of it, with the dahm, you shall not eat; for the chayim of all flesh is in the dahm, lest your dahm of your lives be required. At the hand of every man, at the hand of every beast will I require the dahm of man.

8 Whoso sheds man's dahm by man shall his dahm be shed, for in the image of אֱלֹהִים made He man.

9 And you increase and multiply on the earth.

10 And Noach and his sons swore that they would not eat any dahm that was in any flesh and he made a brit before אלהים le-olam-va-ed throughout all the generations of the earth in this chodesh.

11 On this account He spoke to you that you should make a brit with the children of Yisrael in this chodesh on Shavuot, upon the Har Senai, with an oath and that you should sprinkle dahm upon them because of all the Words of the brit, which אלהים made with them le-olam-va-ed.

12 And this testimony is written concerning you that you should observe it continually, so that you should not eat on any yom any dahm of beasts or birds or cattle during all the yamim of the earth and the man who eats the dahm of beast or of cattle or of birds during all the yamim of the earth, he and his zera shall be rooted out of the land.

13 And command the children of Yisrael to eat no dahm, so that their names and their zera may be before אלהים our Ahlohim continually.

14 And for this Torah there is no limit of yamim, for it is le-olam-va-ed. They shall observe it throughout their generations, so that they may continue supplicating on your behalf with dahm before the altar; every yom and at the time of boker and evening they shall seek forgiveness on your behalf perpetually before אלהים that they may keep it and not be rooted out.

15 And He gave to Noach and his sons an ot that there should not again be a flood on the earth.

16 He set His bow in the cloud for an ot of the eternal brit that there should not again be a flood on the earth to destroy it all the yamim of the earth.

17 For this reason it is ordained and written on the heavenly tablets, that they should celebrate the Moed of Weeks in this chodesh once a year, to renew the brit every year.

18 And this whole moed was celebrated in the shamayim from the yom of creation till the yamim of Noach - twenty six Yovleem and five weeks of years and Noach and his sons observed it for seven Yovleem and one week of years, 350 years, till the yom of Noach's death and from the yom of Noach's death, his sons, Ham and Japheth, did away with it until the yamim of Avraham and they ate dahm.

19 But Avraham observed it and Yitschaq and Yaakov and his children observed it up to your yamim and in your yamim the children of Yisrael forgot it until you celebrated it anew on this har.

20 And you command the children of Yisrael to observe this moed in all their generations for a commandment to them: one yom in the year in this chodesh, the third, they shall celebrate the moed.

21 For it is the Moed of Weeks and the Moed of First Fruits: this moed is twofold and of a double nature: according to what is written and engraved concerning it, so celebrate it.

22 For I have written in the scroll of the first Torah, in that which I have written for you, that you should celebrate it in its season, one yom in the year and I explained to you its sacrifices that the children of Yisrael should remember and should celebrate it throughout their generations in this chodesh, one yom in every year.

23 And on the first yom of the first chodesh and on first yom of the fourth chodesh and on the first yom of the seventh chodesh and on the first yom of the tenth chodesh are the annual yamim of remembrance and the yamim of the moadem in the four divisions of the year. These are written and ordained as a testimony le-olam-va-ed.

24 And Noach ordained them for himself as moadem for the generations le-olam-va-ed, so that they have become thereby a memorial to him.

25 And on the first yom of the first chodesh he was told to make for himself an tayvah and also on that yom the earth became dry and he opened the tayvah and saw the earth.

26 And on the first yom of the fourth chodesh the mouths of the depths of the abyss beneath were closed. And on the first yom of the seventh chodesh all the mouths of the abysses of the earth were opened and the mayim began to descend into them.

27 And on the first yom of the tenth chodesh the tops of the mountains were seen and Noach was glad.

28 And on this account he ordained them for himself as moadem for a memorial le-olam-va-ed and so are they ordained for all Yisrael.

29 And they placed them on the heavenly tablets, each had thirteen weeks; from one to another passed their memorial, from the first to the second and from the second to the third and from the third to the fourth.

30 And all the yamim of the commandment will be fifty two weeks of yamim and these will make the entire year complete. So it is engraved and ordained on the heavenly tablets.

31 And there is no neglecting this commandment for a single year from year to year; no year can have thirteen chodaschem or more than fifty two weeks.

32 And command the children of Yisrael that they observe the years according to this reckoning, three hundred and sixty four yamim and these will constitute a complete year and they will not disturb its time from its yamim and from its moadem; le-olam va-ed will take place in them according to their testimony and they will not leave out any yom nor disturb any moadem.

33 But if they do neglect and do not observe them according to His commandment, then they will disturb all their moadem and the years will be dislodged from this order and they will disturb the moadem and the years will be dislodged and they will neglect their ordinances.

34 And all the children of Yisrael will forget and will not find the derech of the years and will forget the new chodashem and moadem and the Shabbats and they will go wrong as to all the order of the years.

35 For I know and from now on will I declare it to you and it is not of my own devising; for the scroll is written before me and on the heavenly tablets the division of yamim is ordained, lest they forget the moadem of the brit and walk according to the moadem of the goyim after their error and after their ignorance.

36 For there will be those who will assuredly make observations of the yarayach - how it disturbs the moadem and comes in from year to year ten yamim too soon.

37 For this reason the years will come upon them when they will disturb the order and make an abominable yom, the yom of testimony and an unclean yom a moed yom and they will confound all the yamim, the kadosh with the unclean and the unclean yom with the kadosh; for they will go wrong as to the chodashem and Shabbats and moadem and Yovleem.

38 For this reason I command and testify to you that you may testify to them; for after your death your children will disturb them, so that they will not make the year three hundred and sixty-four yamim only and for this reason they will go wrong as to the new chodashem and moadem and Shabbats and moadem and they will eat all kinds of dahm with all kinds of flesh.

7 And in the seventh week in the first year of it, in this Yovel, Noach planted vines on the har on which the tayvah had rested, named Luvar, one of the Ararat Hareem and they produced fruit in the fourth year and he guarded their fruit and gathered it in this year in the seventh chodesh.

2 And he made wine and put it into a vessel and kept it until the fifth year, until the first yom, on the first yom of the first chodesh.

3 And he celebrated with simcha the yom of this moed and he made a burnt sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵי, one young ox and one ram and seven sheep, each a year old and a kid of the goats, that he might make keporah thereby for himself and his sons.

4 And he prepared the kid first and placed some of its dahm on the flesh that was on the altar which he had made and all the fat he laid on the altar where he made the burnt sacrifice and the ox and the ram and the sheep and he laid all their flesh upon the altar.

5 And he placed all their offerings mixed with oil upon it and afterwards he sprinkled wine on the fire which he had previously made on the altar and he placed incense on the altar and caused a sweet savor to ascend acceptable before אֱלֹהֵי his Ahlohim.

6 And he rejoiced and drank of this wine, he and his children with simcha.

7 And it was evening and he went into his tent and being drunk he lay down and slept and was uncovered in his tent as he slept.

8 And Ham saw Noach his abba naked and went forth and told his two brethren without.

9 And Shem took his garment and arose, he and Yahpheth and they placed the garment on their shoulders and went backward and covered the shame of their abba and their faces were backward.

10 And Noach awoke from his sleep and knew all that his younger son had done to him and he cursed his son and said: Cursed be Kanaan; an enslaved eved shall he be to his brethren.

11 And he blessed Shem and said: Blessed be אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Shem and Kanaan shall be his eved.

12 אֱלֹהִים shall enlarge Yapheth and אֱלֹהִים shall dwell in the dwelling of Shem and Kanaan shall be his eved.

13 And Ham knew that his abba had cursed his younger son and he was displeased that he had cursed his son and he parted from his abba, he and his sons with him, Cush and Mitzraim and Put and Kanaan.

14 And he built for himself a city and called its name after the name of his isha Ne'elatama'uk.

15 And Yapheth saw it and became envious of his brother and he too built for himself a city and he called its name after the name of his isha Adataneses.

16 And Shem dwelt with his abba Noach and he built a city close to his abba on the har and he too called its name after the name of his isha Sedeqetelebab.

17 And behold these three cities are near Har Luvar; Sedeqetelebab fronting the har on its east; and Na'eltama'uk on the south; Adatan Eses towards the west.

18 And these are the sons of Shem: Eylam and Asshur and Arpachshad, this son was born two years after the flood- and Lud and Aram.

19 The sons of Yapheth: Gomer and Magog and Madai and Yavan, Tubal and Meshech and Tiras: these are the sons of Noach.

20 And in the twenty-eighth Yovel Noach began to enjoin upon his sons' sons the ordinances and mitzvoth and all the mishpatim that he knew and he exhorted his sons to observe tzedakah and to cover the shame of their flesh and to bless their Creator and esteem abba and eema and love their neighbor and guard their naphsoth from fornication and uncleanness and all iniquity.

21 For owing to these three things came the flood upon the earth, namely, owing to the fornication in which the Watchers against The Torah of their ordinances went whoring after the daughters of men and took themselves wives of all which they chose: and they made the beginning of uncleanness.

22 And they begat sons the Naphidim and they were all unlike one another and they devoured one another: and the Giants slew the Naphilim and the Naphilim slew the Eljo and the Eljo mankind and one man another, a chain of death.

23 And everyone sold himself to work iniquity and to shed much dahm; and the earth was filled with iniquity.

24 And after this they sinned against the beasts and birds and all that moves and walks on the earth: and much dahm was shed on the earth and every imagination and desire of men imagined vanity and evil continually.

25 And אףאז destroyed everything from off the face of the earth; because of the wickedness of their deeds and because of the dahm which they had shed in the midst of the earth He destroyed everything.

26 And we were left, I and you, my sons and everything that entered with us into the tayvah; and behold I see your works before me that you do not walk in tzedakah: for in the derech of destruction you have begun to walk and you are parting one from another and are envious one of another and so it comes that you are not in harmony, my sons, each with his brother.

27 For I see and behold the shedim have begun their seductions against you and against your children and now I fear on your behalf, that after my death you will shed the dahm of men upon the earth and that you, too, will be destroyed from the face of the earth.

28 For whoso sheds man's dahm and whoso eats the dahm of any flesh, shall all be destroyed from the earth.

29 And there shall not be left any man that eats dahm, or that sheds the dahm of man on the earth, nor shall there be left to him any zera or descendants living under the shamayim; for into Sheol shall they go; and into the place of condemnation shall they descend and into the darkness of the deep shall they all be removed by a violent death.

30 There shall be no dahm seen upon you of all the dahm there shall be all the yamim in which you have killed any beasts or cattle or whatever flies upon the earth and work a tov work to your naphsoth by covering that which has been shed on the face of the earth.

31 And you shall not be like him who eats with dahm but guard yourselves that none may eat dahm before you: cover the dahm, for so have I been commanded to testify to you and your children, together with all flesh.

32 And allow not the nephesh to be eaten with the flesh, that your dahm, which is your chayim, may not be required at the hand of any flesh that sheds it on the earth.

33 For the earth will not be clean from the dahm which has been shed upon it; for only through the dahm of him that shed it will the earth be purified throughout all its generations.

34 And now, my children listen: work mishpat and tzedakah that you may be planted in tzedakah over the face of the whole earth and your tehilla lifted up before אלהים my Ahlohim, Who saved me from the mayim of the flood.

35 And behold, you will go and build for yourselves cities and plant in them all the plants that are upon the earth and moreover all fruit-bearing eytzim.

36 For three years the fruit of everything that is eaten will not be gathered: and in the fourth year its fruit will be accounted kadosh and they will offer the bikkurim, acceptable before אלהים, who created the shamayim and earth and all things. Let them offer in abundance the first of the wine and the oil as first-fruits on the altar of אלהים, Who receives it; and what is left let the avadim of the bayit of אלהים eat before the altar which receives it.

37 And in the fifth year make the release, so that you release it in tzedakah and you shall be tzadik and all that you plant shall prosper.

38 For so did Chanok, the abba of your abba, command his son and Methuselach his son Lamech who commanded me, all the things which his avot commanded him.

39 And I also will give you commandment, my sons, as Chanok commanded his son in the first Jubilee while still living; the seventh in his generation, he commanded and testified to his son and to his son's sons until the yom of his death.

8 In the twenty-ninth Yovel, in the first week, in the beginning of it Arpachshad took himself an isha and her name was Rasu'eya, the daughter of Susan, the daughter of Elam and she bare him a son in the third year in this week and he called his name Kainan.

2 And the son grew and his abba taught him writing and he went to seek for himself a place where he might seize for himself a city.

3 And he found a writing which former generations had carved on the rock and he read what was on it and he transcribed it and sinned owing to it; for it contained the teaching of the Watchers in accordance with which they used to observe the omens of the shemesh and yarayach and cochavim, in all the signs of the shamayim and all its secrets.

4 And he wrote it down and said nothing regarding it; for he was afraid to speak to Noach about it lest he should be angry with him on account of it.

5 And in the thirtieth Yovel, in the second week, in the first year of it, he took himself an isha and her name was Melka, the daughter of Madai, the son of Yapheth and in the fourth year he begat a son and called his name Shelach; for he said: Truly I have been sent.

6 And in the fourth year he was born and Shelach grew up and took to himself an isha and her name was Mu'ak, the daughter of Kesed, his abba's brother, in the one and thirtieth Yovel, in the fifth week, in the first year of it.

7 And she bare him a son in the fifth year of it and he called his name Eber: and he took to himself an isha and her name was Azurad, the daughter of Nevrod, in the thirty-second Yovel, in the seventh week, in the third year of it.

8 And in the sixth year of it, she bare him son and he called his name Peleg; for in the yamim when he was born the children of Noach began to divide the earth among themselves: for this reason he called his name Peleg.

9 And they divided it secretly among themselves and told it to Noach.

10 And it came to pass in the beginning of the thirty-third Yovel that they divided the earth into three parts, for Shem and Ham and Yahpheth, according to the inheritance of each, in the first year in the first week, when one of us who had been sent, was with them.

11 And he called his sons and they drew near to him, they and their children and he divided the earth into the lots, which his three sons were to take in possession and they reached forth their hands and took the writing out of the bosom of Noach, their abba.

12 And there came forth on the writing as Shem's lot the middle of the earth, Yahrushalayim, which he should take as an inheritance for himself and for his sons for the generations of eternity, from the middle of the har range of Rafa, from the mouth of the mayim from the River Tina and his portion goes towards the west through the midst of this river and it extends until it reaches the mayim of the abysses, out of which this river goes forth and pours its mayim into the Sea Me'at and this river flows into the Great Sea. And all that is towards the north is Yapheth's and all that is towards the south belongs to Shem.

13 And it extends till it reaches Karaso: this is in the bosom of the tongue which looks towards the south.

14 And his portion extends along the Great Sea and it extends in a straight line till it reaches the west of the tongue which looks towards the south: for this sea is named the tongue of the Mitzrite Sea.

15 And it turns from here towards the south towards the mouth of the great sea on the shore of its mayim and it extends to the west to 'Afra and it extends until it reaches the mayim of the River Gihon and to the south of the mayim of Gihon, to the banks of this river.

16 And it extends towards the east, till it reaches the Gan of Ayden, to the south of it, to the south and from the east of the whole land of Ayden and of the whole east, it turns to the east and proceeds till it reaches the east of the har named Rafa and it descends to the bank of the mouth of the river Tina.

17 This portion came forth by lot for Shem and his sons, that they should possess it le-olam-va-ed to his generations le-olam-va-ed.

18 And Noach rejoiced that this portion came forth for Shem and for his sons and he remembered all that he had spoken with his mouth in prophecy; for he had said: Blessed be אלהים Ahlohim of Shem and may אלהים dwell in the dwelling of Shem.

19 And he knew that the Gan of Ayden is the Kadosh of Kedosheem and the dwelling of אלהים and Har Senai the centre of the desert and Har Tzion - the center of the navel of the earth: these three were created as kadosh places facing each other.

20 And he blessed אלהים Ahlohim, Who had put The Word of אלהים into his mouth le-olam-va-ed.

21 And he knew that a blessed portion and a bracha had come to Shem and his sons to the generations le-olam-va-ed - the whole land of Ayden and the whole land of the Yam Suf and the whole land of the east and India and on the Yam Suf and the mountains of it and all the land of Bashan and all the land of Levanon and the islands of Kaftur and all the mountains of Sanir and Amana and the mountains of Asshur in the north and all the land of Elam, Asshur and Bavel and Suzan and Ma'edai and all the mountains of Ararat and all the region beyond the sea, which is beyond the mountains of Asshur towards the north, a blessed and spacious land and all that is in it is very tov.

22 And for Ham came forth the second portion, beyond the Gichon towards the south to the right of the Gan and it extends towards the south and it extends to all the mountains of fire and it extends towards the west to the sea of 'Atel and it extends towards the west till it reaches the sea of Ma'uk, that sea into which everything which is not destroyed descends.

23 And it goes forth towards the north to the limits of Gadir and it goes forth to the coast of the mayim of the sea to the mayim of the Great Sea till it draws near to the River Gichon and goes along the River Gichon till it reaches the right of the Gan of Ayden.

24 And this is the land which came forth for Ham as the portion which he was to occupy le-olam-va-ed for himself and his sons to their generations le-olam- va-ed.

25 And for Yahpheth came forth the third portion beyond the River Tina to the north of the outflow of its mayim and it extends north-easterly to the whole region of Gog and to all the country east of it.

26 And it extends northerly to the north and it extends to the mountains of Qelt towards the north and towards the sea of Ma'uk and it goes forth to the east of Gadir as far as the region of the mayim of the sea.

27 And it extends until it approaches the west of Fara and it returns towards 'Aferag and it extends easterly to the mayim of the Sea of Me'at.

28 And it extends to the region of the River Tina in a north-easterly direction until it approaches the boundary of its mayim towards the Har Rafa and it turns round towards the north.

29 This is the land which that came forth for Yahpheth and his sons as the portion of his inheritance which he should possess for himself and his sons, for their generations le-olam-va-ed; five great islands and a great land in the north.

30 But it is cold and the land of Ham is hot and the land of Shem is neither hot nor cold but it is of blended cold and heat.

9 And Ham divided land among his sons and the first portion came forth for Cush towards the east and to the west of him for Mizraim and to the west of him for Put and to the west of him and to the west of it on the sea for Kanaan.

2 And Shem also divided among his sons and the first portion came forth for Ham and his sons, to the east of the River Tigris till it approaches the east, the whole land of India and on the Yam Suf on its coast and the mayim of Dedan and all the mountains of Mebri and Ela and all the land of Suzan and all that is on the side of Pharnak to the Yam Suf and the River Tina.

3 And for Asshur came forth the second portion, all the land of Asshur and Nineveh and Shinar and to the border of India and it ascends and skirts the river.

4 And for Arpachshad came forth the third portion, all the land of the region of the Chaldees to the east of the Euphrates, bordering on the Yam Suf and all the mayim of the desert close to the tongue of the sea which looks towards Mitzrayim, all the land of Levanon and Sanir and 'Amana to the border of the Euphrates.

5 And for Aram there came forth the fourth portion, all the land of Mesopotamia between the Tigris and the Euphrates to the north of the Chaldees to the border of the mountains of Asshur and the land of Arara.

6 And there came forth for Lud the fifth portion, the mountains of Asshur and all appertaining to them till it reaches the Great Sea and till it reaches the east of Asshur his brother.

7 And Yahpheth also divided the land of his inheritance among his sons.

8 And the first portion came forth for Gomer to the east from the north side to the river Tina; and in the north there came forth for Magog all the inner portions of the north until it reaches to the sea of Me'at.

9 And for Madai came forth as his portion that he should possess from the west of his two brothers to the islands and to the coasts of the islands.

10 And for Yavan came forth the fourth portion every island and the islands which are towards the border of Lud.

11 And for Tuval there came forth the fifth portion in the midst of the tongue which approaches towards the border of the portion of Lud to the second tongue, to the region beyond the second tongue to the third tongue.

12 And for Meshech came forth the sixth portion, all the region beyond the third tongue till it approaches the east of Gadir.

13 And for Tiras there came forth the seventh portion, four great islands in the midst of the sea, which reach to the portion of Ham and the islands of Kamaturi, came out by lot for the sons of Arpachshad as his inheritance.

14 And so the sons of Noach divided to their sons in the presence of Noach their abba and he bound them all by an oath, placing a curse on everyone that sought to seize the portion which had not fallen to him by his lot.

15 And they all said, Ahmein Ve Ahmein for themselves and their sons le-olam-va-ed throughout their generations till the yom of mishpat, on which אלהים Ahlohim shall judge them with a sword and with fire for all the unclean wickedness of their errors, with which they have filled the earth with transgression and uncleanness and fornication and sin.

10 And in the third week of this Yovel the unclean shedim began to lead astray the children of the sons of Noach and to make deception and destroy them.

2 And the sons of Noach came to Noach their abba and they told him concerning the shedim which were leading astray and blinding and slaying his son's sons.

3 And he made tefillah before אלהים his Ahlohim and said: אלהים of the ruachim of all flesh, who have showed rachamim to me and have saved me and my sons from the mayim of the flood and have not caused me to perish as You did the sons of perdition; for Your free unmerited pardon has been great towards me and great has been Your rachamim to my nephesh; let Your free unmerited pardon be lifted up upon my sons and let not wicked ruachim rule over them, lest they should destroy them from the earth.

4 But You bless me and my sons, that we may increase and multiply and replenish the earth.

5 And You know how Your Ireem, the avot of these ruachim, acted in my yom: and as for these ruachim which are living, imprison them and hold them fast in the place of condemnation and let them not bring destruction on the sons of Your eved, my Ahlohim; for these are malignant and created in order to destroy.

6 And let them not rule over the ruachim of the living; for You alone can exercise dominion over them. And let them not have power over the sons of the tzadik from now on and le-olam-va-ed.

7 And אלהינו our Ahlohim help us to bind them all.

8 And the chief of the ruachim, Mastema, came and said: אלהינו, Creator, let some of them remain before me and let them listen to my voice and do all that I shall say to them; for if some of them are not left to me, I shall not be able to execute the power of my will on the sons of men; for these are for corruption and leading astray before my mishpat, for great is the wickedness of the sons of men.

9 And He said: Let the tenth part of them remain before him and let nine parts descend into the place of condemnation.

10 And one of us He commanded that we should teach Noach all their medicines; for He knew that they would not walk in tzedakah, nor strive in tzedakah.

11 And we did according to all His Words: all the malignant evil ones we bound in the place of condemnation and a tenth part of them we left that they might be subject before s.a.tan on the earth.

12 And we explained to Noach all the medicines of their diseases, together with their seductions, how he might heal them with herbs of the earth.

13 And Noach wrote down all things in a scroll as we instructed him concerning every kind of medicine. So the evil ruachim were precluded from hurting the sons of Noach.

14 And he gave all that he had written to Shem, his eldest son; for he loved him exceedingly above all his sons.

15 And Noach slept with his avot and was buried on Har Luvar in the land of Ararat, modern Turkey.

16 Nine hundred and fifty years he completed in his chayim, nineteen Yovleem and two weeks and five years.

17 And in his chayim on earth he excelled all the children of men save Chanok because of the tzedakah, in which he was perfect. For Chanok's office was ordained for a testimony to the generations of the olam, so that he should recount all the deeds of generation to generation, till the Yom of Judgment.

18 And in the three and thirtieth Yovel, in the first year in the second week, Peleg took to himself an isha, whose name was Lomna the daughter of Sina'ar and she bare him a son in the fourth year of this week and he called his name Reu; for he said: Behold the children of men have become evil through the wicked purpose of building for themselves a city and a tower in the land of Shinar.

19 For they departed from the land of Ararat eastward to Shinar; for in his yamim they built the city and the tower, saying, Go to, let us ascend thereby into the shamayim.

20 And they began to build and in the fourth week they made brick with fire and the bricks served them for stone and the clay with which they cemented them together was asphalt which comes out of the sea and out of the fountains of mayim in the land of Shinar.

21 And they built it: forty three years were they building it; its breadth was 203 bricks and the height of a brick was the third of one; its height amounted to 5,433 cubits and 2 palms and the extent of one wall was thirteen stades and of the other thirty stades.

22 And אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim said to us: Behold, they are one people and this they begin to do and now nothing will be withheld from them. Go to, let Us go down and confound their language so that they may not understand one another's speech and they may be dispersed into cities and goyim and one purpose will no longer abide with them until the Yom HaDin.

23 And אֱלֹהִים descended and we descended with him to see the city and the tower which the children of men had built.

24 And He confounded their language and they no longer understood one another's speech and they ceased then to build the city and the tower.

25 For this reason the whole land of Shinar is called Bavel because אֱלֹהִים did there confound all the language of the children of men and from there they were dispersed into their cities, each according to his language and his nation.

26 And אֱלֹהִים sent a mighty ruach against the tower and overthrew it upon the earth and behold it was between Asshur and Bavel in the land of Shinar and they called its name Overthrow.

27 In the fourth week in the first year in the beginning of it in the four and thirtieth Yovel, were they dispersed from the land of Shinar.

28 And Ham and his sons went into the land which he was to occupy, which he acquired as his portion in the land of the south.

29 And Kanaan saw the land of Levanon to the river of Mitzrayim, that it was very tov and he went not into the land of his inheritance to the west, that is to the sea and he dwelt in the land of Levanon, eastward and westward from the border of Yarden and from the border of the sea.

30 And Ham, his abba and Cush and Mizraim his brothers said to him: You have settled in a land which is not yours and which did not fall to us by lot: do not do so; for if you do, do so, you and your sons will fall in the land and be cursed through sedition; for by sedition you have settled and by sedition will your children fall and you shall be rooted out le-olam-va-ed.

31 Dwell not in the dwelling of Shem; for to Shem and to his sons did it come by their lot.

32 Cursed are you and cursed shall you be beyond all the sons of Noach, by the curse by which we bound ourselves by an oath in the presence of the Kadosh Shophet and in the presence of Noach our abba.

33 But he did not listen to them and dwelt in the land of Levanon from Hamath to the entering of Mitzrayim, he and his sons until this yom.

34 And for this reason that land is named Kanaan.

35 And Yahpheth and his sons went towards the sea and dwelt in the land of their portion and Madai saw the land of the sea and it did not please him and he begged a portion from Ham and Asshur and Arpachshad, his isha's brother and he dwelt in the land of Media, near to his isha's brother until this yom.

36 And he called his dwelling-place and the dwelling-place of his sons, Media, after the name of their abba Madai.

11 And in the thirty-fifth Yovel, in the third week, in the first year of it, Reu took to himself an isha and her name was Ora, the daughter of Ur, the son of Kesed and she bare him a son and he called his name Seroh, in the seventh year of this week in this Yovel.

2 And the sons of Noach began to war against each other, to take captive and to slay each other and to shed the dahm of men on the earth and to eat dahm and to build strong cities and walls and towers and individuals began to exalt themselves above the nation and to found the beginnings of malchutim and to go to war, people against people and nation against nation and city against city and all began to do evil and to acquire arms and to teach their sons war and they began to capture cities and to sell male and female slaves.

3 And Ur, the son of Kesed, built the city of Ara of the Chaldees and called its name after his own name and the name of his abba.

4 And they made for themselves molten images and they worshipped each the idol, the molten image which they had made for themselves and they began to make graven images and unclean idols and malignant ruachim assisted and seduced them into committing transgression and uncleanness.

5 And the sar Mastema exerted himself to do all this and he sent forth other ruachim, those which were put under his hand, to do all manner of wrong and sin and all manner of transgression, to corrupt and destroy and to shed dahm upon the earth.

6 For this reason he called the name of Seroh, Serug, for everyone turned to do all manner of sin and transgression.

7 And he grew up and dwelt in Ur of the Chaldees, near to the abba of his isha's eema and he worshipped idols and he took to himself an isha in the thirty-sixth Yovel, in the fifth week, in the first year of it and her name was Melka, the daughter of Kaber, the daughter of his abba's brother.

8 And she bare him Nachor, in the first year of this week and he grew and dwelt in Ur of the Chaldees and his abba taught him the researches of the Chaldees, to divine and prognosticate, according to the signs of the shamayim.

9 And in the thirty-seventh Yovel in the sixth week, in the first year of it, he took to himself an isha and her name was Yiaska, the daughter of Nestag of the Chaldees.

10 And she bare him Terach in the seventh year of this week.

11 And the sar Mastema sent ravens and birds to devour the zera which was sown in the land, in order to destroy the land and rob the children of men of their labors. Before they could plough in the zera, the ravens picked it from the surface of the ground.

12 And for this reason he called his name Terach because the ravens and the birds reduced them to destitution and devoured their zera.

13 And the years began to be barren, owing to the birds and they devoured all the fruit of the eytzim from the eytzim: It was only with great effort that they could save a little of all the fruit of the earth in their yamim.

14 And in this thirty-ninth Yovel, in the second week in the first year, Terach took to himself an isha and her name was Edna, the daughter of Avram, the daughter of his abba's sister.

15 And in the seventh year of this week she bare him a son and he called his name Avram, by the name of the abba of his eema; for he had died before his daughter had conceived a son.

16 And the child began to understand the errors of the earth that all went astray after graven images and after uncleanness and his abba taught him writing and he was two weeks of years old and he separated himself from his abba, that he might not worship idols with him.

17 And he began to make tefillah to The Creator of all things that He might save him from the errors of the children of men and that his portion should not fall into error after uncleanness and vileness.

18 And the zera time came for the sowing of zera upon the land and they all went forth together to protect their zera against the ravens and Avram went forth with those that went and the child was a lad of fourteen years.

19 And a cloud of ravens came to devour the zera and Avram ran to meet them before they settled on the ground and yelled at them before they settled on the ground to devour the zera and said, Descend not: return to the place where you came and they proceeded to turn back.

20 And he caused the clouds of ravens to turn back that yom seventy times and of all the ravens throughout all the land where Avram was there settled there not so much as one.

21 And all who were with him throughout all the land saw him yell at them and all the ravens turn back and his name became great in all the land of the Chaldees.

22 And there came to him this year all those that wished to sow and he went with them until the time of sowing ceased: and they sowed their land and that year they brought enough grain home and ate and were satisfied.

23 And in the first year of the fifth week Avram taught those who made implements for oxen, the artificers in wood and they made a vessel above the ground, facing the frame of the plough, in order to put the zera on it and the zera fell down there from upon the share of the plough and was hidden in the earth and they no longer feared the ravens.

24 And after this manner they made vessels above the ground on all the frames of the ploughs and they sowed and tilled all the land, according as Avram commanded them and they no longer feared the birds

12 And it came to pass in the sixth week, in the seventh year of it, that Avram said to Terach his abba, saying, Abba.

2 And he said, Behold, Hinayne, my son. And he said, What help and profit have we from those idols which you do worship and before which you do bow yourself?

3 For there is no ruach in them; for they are dumb forms and a misleading of the lev.

4 Worship them not: Worship אֱלֹהִים the Ahlohim of the shamayim, who causes the rain and the dew to descend on the earth; and does everything upon the earth and has created everything by His Word and all chayim is from before His face.

5 Why do you worship things that have no ruach in them? For they are the work of hands and on your shoulders do you bear them and you have no help from them; but they are a great cause of shame to those who make them and a misleading of the lev to those who worship them: Worship them not.

6 And his abba said to him, I also know it, my son but what shall I do with a people who have made me to serve before them?

7 And if I tell them the emet, they will slay me; for their nephesh cleaves to them to worship them and esteem them. Keep silent, my son, lest they slay you. And these words he spoke to his two brothers and they were angry with him and he kept silent.

9 And in the fortieth Yovel, in the second week, in the seventh year of it, Avram took to himself an isha and her name was Sarai, the daughter of his abba and his isha and she became his isha.

10 And Charan, his brother, took to himself an isha in the third year of the third week and she bare him a son in the seventh year of this week and he called his name Lot.

11 And Nachor, his brother, took to himself an isha.

12 And in the sixtieth year of the chayim of Avram, that is, in the fourth week, in the fourth year of it, Avram arose by lyla and burned the bayit of the idols and he burned all that was in the bayit and no man knew it.

13 And they arose in the lyla and sought to save their precious ahlahim from the midst of the fire.

14 And Charan rushed to save them but the fire blew over him and he was burnt in the fire and he died in Ur of the Chaldees before Terach his abba and they buried him in Ur of the Chaldees.

15 And Terach went forth from Ur of the Chaldees, he and his sons, to go into the land of Levanon and into the land of Kanaan and he dwelt in the land of Charan and Avram dwelt with Terach his abba in Charan two weeks of years.

16 And in the sixth week, in the fifth year of it, Avram sat up throughout the lyla on the first yom of the seventh chodesh, Yom Teruah & the Moed of Noach, to observe the cochavim from the evening to the boker, in order to see what would be the character of the year with regard to the rains and he was alone as he sat and observed.

17 And a word came into his lev and he said: All the signs of the cochavim and the signs of the yarayach and of the shemesh are all in the Hand of אֱלֹהִים.

Why do I search them out?

18 If He desires, He causes it to rain, boker and evening; And if He desires, He withholds it and all things are in His hand.

19 And he made tefillah that lyla and said, My Ahlohim, אֱלֹהִים El-Elyon, You alone are my Ahlohim, So You and Your dominion have I chosen. And You have created all things and all things that are the work of Your hands.

20 Deliver me from the hands of evil ruachim who have dominion over the thoughts of men's levavot and let them not lead me astray from You my Ahlohim. And establish me and my zera le-olam-va-ed that we go not astray from now on and le-olam-va-ed.

21 And he said, Shall I return to Ur of the Chaldees who seek my face that I may return to them, am I to remain here in this place? The right derech before You prosper it in the hands of Your eved that he may fulfill it and that I may not walk in the deceitfulness of my lev, O אֱלֹהִים my Ahlohim.

22 And he made an end of speaking and making tefillah and behold the Word of אֱלֹהִים was sent to him through Me, saying: Get up from your country and from your kindred and from the bayit of your abba to a land which I will show you and I shall make you a great and numerous nation.

23 And I will bless you and I will make your name great and you shall be blessed in the earth and in you shall all families of the earth be blessed-mixed. And I will bless them that bless you and curse them that curse you.

24 And I will be Ahlohim to you and your son and to your son's son and to all your zera: fear not, from now on and to all generations of the earth I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

25 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim said: Open his mouth and his ears, that he may hear and speak with his mouth, with the language which has been revealed; for it had ceased from the mouths of all the children of men from the yom of the overthrow of Bavel.

26 And I opened his mouth and his ears and his lips and I began to speak with him in Ivrit in the tongue of the creation.

27 And he took the scrolls of his avot and these were written in Ivrit and he transcribed them and he began from now on to study them and I made known to him that which he could not understand and he studied them during the six rainy chodashem.

28 And it came to pass in the seventh year of the sixth week that he spoke to his abba and informed him, that he would leave Charan to go into the land of Kanaan to see it and return to him.

29 And Terach his abba said to him; Go in shalom: May the eternal אֱלֹהִים make your derech straight. And אֱלֹהִים be with you and protect you from all evil and grant to you free unmerited pardon, rachamim and chen before those who see you; and may none of the children of men have power over you to harm you; Go in shalom.

30 And if you see a land pleasant to your eyes to dwell in, then arise and take me to you and take Lot with you, the son of Charan your brother as your own son: אֱלֹהִים be with you.

31 And Nachor your brother leave with me till you return in shalom and we go with you all together.

13 And Avram journeyed from Charan and he took Sarai, his isha and Lot, his brother Charan's son, to the land of Kanaan and he came into Asshur and proceeded to Shechem and dwelt near a lofty oak.

2 And he saw and, behold the land was very pleasant from the entering of Chamath to the lofty oak.

3 And אֱלֹהִים said to him: To you and to your zera will I give this land.

4 And he built an altar there and he offered on it a burnt sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים, who had appeared to him.

5 And he moved from there to the har Bethel on the west and Ai on the east and pitched his tent there.

6 And he saw and behold, the land was very wide and tov and everything grew on it - vines and figs and pomegranates, oaks and ilexes and terebinths and oil eytzim and cedars and cypresses and date eytzim and all eytzim of the field and there was mayim on the mountains.

7 And he blessed אֱלֹהִים, Who had led him out of Ur of the Chaldees and had brought him to this land.

8 And it came to pass in the first year, in the seventh week, on the first yom of the first chodesh, Aviv One, that he built an altar on this har and called on The Name of אֱלֹהִים: You, The Eternal אֱלֹהִים, are my Ahlohim.

9 And he offered on the altar a burnt sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים that He should be with him and not forsake him all the yamim of his chayim.

10 And he moved from there and went towards the south and he came to Chebron and Chebron was built at that time and he dwelt there two years and he went there into the land of the south, to Bealoth and there was a famine in the land.

11 And Avram went into Mitzrayim in the third year of the week and he dwelt in Mitzrayim five years before his isha was torn away from him.

12 Now Tanais in Mitzrayim was at that time built - seven years after Chebron.

13 And it came to pass when Pharaoh seized Sarai, the isha of Avram that אֱלֹהִים plagued Pharaoh and his bayit with great plagues because of Sarai, Avram's isha.

14 And Avram was very wealthy by reason of possessions in sheep and cattle and donkeys and horses and camels and male avadim and female avadim and in silver and gold exceedingly. And Lot also his brother's son, was wealthy.

15 And Pharaoh gave back Sarai, the isha of Avram and he sent him out of the land of Mitzrayim and he journeyed to the place where he had pitched his tent at the beginning, to the place of the altar, with Ai on the east and Bethel on the west and he blessed אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim, Who had brought him back in shalom.

16 And it came to pass in the forty-first Yovel in the third year of the first week, that he returned to this place and offered on it a burnt sacrifice and called on The Name of אֱלֹהִים and said: You, El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים, are my Ahlohim le-olam-va-ed.

17 And in the fourth year of this week Lot parted from him and Lot dwelt in Sedom and the men of Sedom were sinners exceedingly.

18 And it grieved him in his lev that his brother's son had parted from him; for he had no children.

19 In that year when Lot was taken captive, אֱלֹהִים said to Avram, after that Lot had parted from him, in the fourth year of this week: Lift up your eyes from the place where you are dwelling, northward and southward and westward and eastward.

20 For all the land which you see I will give to you and to your zera le-olam-va-ed and I will make your zera as the sand of the sea: though a man may number the dust of the earth, yet your zera shall not be numbered.

21 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and the breadth of it and see it all; for to your zera will I give it. And Avram went to Chebron and dwelt there.

22 And in this year came Chedorlaomer, melech of Elam and Amraphel, melech of Shinar and Arioch melech of Sellasar and Tergal, melech of goyim, slew the melech of Amorah and the melech of Sedom fled and many fell through wounds in the Valley of Siddim, by the Salt Sea.

23 And they took captive Sedom and Ahdam and Zevoim and they took captive Lot also, the son of Avram's brother and all his possessions and they went to Dan.

24 And one who had escaped came and told Avram that his brother's son had been taken captive and Avram armed his household avadim.

25 And the household eved brought for Avram and for his zera, a tenth of the bikkurim to אֱלֹהִים and אֱלֹהִים ordained it as an ordinance le-olam-va-ed that they should give it to the kohanim who serve before Him, that they should possess it le-olam-va-ed.

26 And to this Torah there is no limit of yamim; for He has ordained it for the generations le-olam-va-ed that they should give to אֱלֹהִים the tenth of everything, of the zera and of the wine and of the oil and of the cattle and of the sheep.

27 And He gave it to His kohanim to eat and to drink with simcha before Him.

28 And the melech of Sedom came to him and bowed himself before him and said: Our adon Avram, give to us the naphsoth which you have rescued but let the booty be yours.

29 And Avram said to him: I lift up my hands to El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים, that from a thread to a shoe-latchet I shall not take anything that is yours lest you should say, I have made Avram rich; except only what the young men have eaten and the portion of the men who went with me - Aner, Eschol and Mamre. These shall take their portions.

14 After these things, in the fourth year of this week, on the first yom of the third chodesh, The Word of אֱלֹהִים came to Avram in a dream, saying: Fear not, Avram; I AM your defender and your reward will be exceeding great.

2 And he said: אֱלֹהִים, Ahlohim, what will You give me, seeing I go childless and the son of Maseq, the son of my handmaid, is El-Azar from Dameshek: he will be my heir and yet to me you have given no zera.

3 And He said to him: This man will not be your heir but one that will come out of your own bowels; he will be your heir.

4 And He brought him forth abroad and said to him: Look towards the shamayim and number the cochavim if you are able to number them.

5 And he looked toward the shamayim and beheld the cochavim. And He said to him: So shall your zera be.

6 And he believed in אֱלֹהִים and it was counted to him for tzedakah.

7 And He said to him: I AM אֱלֹהִים that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you the land of the Kanaanites to possess it le-olam-va-ed; and I will be Ahlohim to you and to your zera after you.

8 And he said: אֱלֹהִים, Ahlohim, by which shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And He said to him: Take a heifer of three years and a goat of three years and a sheep of three years and a turtle-dove and a pigeon.

10 And he took all these in the middle of the chodesh and he dwelt at the oak of Mamre, which is near Chebron.

11 And he built there an altar and sacrificed all these; and he poured their dahm upon the altar and divided them in the midst and laid them over against each other; but the birds divided he not.

12 And birds came down upon the pieces and Avram drove them away and did not allow the birds to touch them.

13 And it came to pass, when the shemesh had set, that an ecstasy fell upon Avram and lo, a horror of great darkness fell upon him and it was said to Avram: Know for certain that your zera shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs and they shall bring them into bondage and afflict them four hundred years.

14 And the nation also to whom they will be in bondage will I judge and after that they shall come forth there with much substance.

15 And you shall go to your avot in shalom and be buried in a tov old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall return here; for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 And he awoke from his sleep-tardema and he arose and the shemesh had set; and there was a flame and behold. A furnace was smoking and a flame of fire passed between the pieces.

18 And on that yom אַרְבָּעָה made a brit with Avram, saying: To your zera will I give this land, from the river of Mitzrayim to the great river, the river Euphrates, the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, the Perizzites and the Rephaim, the Phakorites and the Hivites and the Amorites and the Kanaanites and the Girgashites and the Jebusites.

19 And the yom passed and Avram offered the pieces and the birds and their fruit offerings and their drink offerings and the fire devoured them.

20 And on that yom we made a brit with Avram, according as we had covenanted with Noach in this chodesh; and Avram renewed the moed, Shavuot and ordinance for himself le-olam-va-ed.

21 And Avram rejoiced and made all these things known to Sarai his isha; and he believed that he would have zera but she did not bear.

22 And Sarai advised her husband Avram and said to him: Go in to Hagar, my Mitzrite maid: it may be that I shall build up zera with you by her.

23 And Avram listened to the voice of Sarai his isha and said to her, Do so. And Sarai took Hagar, her maid, the Mitzrite and gave her to Avram, her husband, to be his isha.

24 And he went in to her and she conceived and bare him a son and he called his name Ishmael, in the fifth year of this week and this was the eighty-sixth year in the chayim of Avram.

15 And in the fifth year of the fourth week of this Yovel, in the third chodesh, in the middle of the chodesh, Avram celebrated the moed of the first-fruits of the grain harvest.

2 And he offered new offerings on the altar, the first-fruits of the produce, to אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם, a heifer and a goat and a sheep on the altar as a burnt sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם; their fruit offerings and their drink offerings he offered upon the altar with frankincense.

3 And אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם appeared to Avram and said to him:

4 I AM אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם Almighty; approve yourself before Me and be perfect. And I will make My brit between Me and you and I will multiply you exceedingly. And Avram fell on his face and אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם talked with him and said:

6 Behold My ordinance-Torah is with you and you shall be the abba of many goyim.

7 Neither shall your name anymore be called Avram but your name from now on, even le-olam-va-ed, shall be Avraham.

8 For the abba of many goyim have I made you.

And I will make you very great and I will make you into goyim and melechim shall come forth from you.

9 And I shall establish My brit between Me and you and your zera after you, throughout their generations, for an eternal brit, so that I may be Ahlohim to you and to your zera after you.

10 And the land where you have been a dweller, the land of Kanaan, that you may possess it le-olam-va-ed and I will be their Ahlohim.

11 And אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם said to Avraham: And as for you, keep My brit, you and your zera after you: and brit-milah every male among you and brit-milah your foreskins and it shall be a sign of an eternal brit between Me and you.

12 And the child on the eighth yom you shall brit-milah, every male throughout your generations, him that is born in the bayit, or whom you have bought with money from any stranger, whom you have acquired who is not of your zera.

13 He that is born in your bayit shall surely be made brit-milah and those whom you have bought with money shall be made brit-milah and My brit shall be in your flesh for an eternal ordinance.

14 And the male who is not made brit-milah in the flesh of his foreskin on the eighth yom, that nephesh shall be cut off from his people, for he has broken My brit.

15 And אַבְרָהָם said to Avraham: As for Sarai your isha, her name shall no more be called Sarai but Sarah shall be her name.

16 And I will bless her and give you a son by her and I will bless him and he shall become a nation and melechim of goyim shall proceed from him.

17 And Avraham fell on his face and rejoiced and said in his lev: Shall a son be born to him that is a hundred years old and shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, bring forth?

18 And Avraham said to אַבְרָהָם: O that Ishmael might live before You.

19 And אַבְרָהָם said: Yes and Sarah also shall bear you a son and you shall call his name Yitschaq and I will establish My brit with him, an everlasting brit and for his zera after him.

20 And as for Ishmael also have I heard you and behold I will bless him and make him great and multiply him exceedingly and he shall beget twelve princes and I will make him a great nation.

21 But My brit will I establish with Yitschaq, whom Sarah shall bear to you, in these yamim, in the next year.

22 And He left off speaking with him and אָבְרָהָם went up from Avraham.

23 And Avraham did according as אָבְרָהָם had said to him and he took Ishmael his son and all that were born in his bayit and whom he had bought with his money, every male in his bayit and made brit-milah the flesh of their foreskin.

24 And on the same yom was Avraham made brit-milah and all the men of his bayit and all those, whom he had bought with money from the children of the stranger, were made brit-milah with him.

25 This Torah is for all the generations le-olam-va-ed and there is no cessation of the yamim and no omission of one yom out of the eight yamim; for it is an eternal ordinance, ordained and written on the heavenly tablets.

26 And everyone that is born, the flesh of whose foreskin is not made brit-milah on the eighth yom, belongs not to the children of the brit which אָבְרָהָם made with Avraham but to the children of destruction; nor is there, moreover, any ot on him that he is אָבְרָהָם's but he is destined to be destroyed and slain from the earth and to be rooted out of the earth, for he has broken the brit of אָבְרָהָם our Ahlohim.

27 For all the malachim of the presence and all the malachim of kedusha have been so created from the yom of their creation and before the malachim of the presence and the malachim of kedusha He has sanctified Yisrael, that they should be with Him and with His kadosh malachim.

28 And you command the children of Yisrael and let them observe the ot of this brit for their generations as an eternal ordinance and they will not be rooted out of the land.

29 For the command is ordained for a brit, that they should observe it le-olam-va-ed among all the children of Yisrael.

30 For Ishmael and his sons and his brothers and Esav, אִשְׁמָאֵל did not cause to approach Him and He chose them not; though they are the children of Avraham, yet because He knew them; and He chose Yisrael to be His people.

31 And He sanctified it and gathered it from among all the children of men; for there are many goyim and many peoples and all are His and over all goyim has He placed ruachim in authority to lead them, to allow them to go astray from Him.

32 But over Yisrael He did not appoint any malach or ruach to lead them astray, for He alone is their Ruler and He will preserve them and require them at the hand of His malachim and His ruachim and at the hand of all His powers, in order that He may preserve them and bless them and that they may be His and He may be theirs from now on le-olam-va-ed.

33 And now I announce to you that the children of Yisrael will not keep emet to this ordinance and they will not brit-milah their sons according to all this Torah; for in the flesh of their brit milah they will omit this brit milah of their sons and all of them, sons of Belial, will leave their sons without brit milah, as they were born.

34 And there will be great wrath from אֱלֹהִים against the children of Yisrael because they have forsaken His brit and turned aside from His Word and provoked and blasphemed, inasmuch as they do not observe the ordinance of this Torah; for they have treated their members like the goyim, so that they may be removed and rooted out of the land. And there will no more be pardon or forgiveness to them for all the sin of this eternal error.

16 And on the first yom of the fourth chodesh we appeared to Avraham, at the oak of Mamre and we talked with him and we announced to him that a son would be given to him by Sarah his isha.

2 And Sarah laughed, for she heard that we had spoken these words with Avraham and we admonished her and she became afraid and denied that she had laughed on account of the words.

3 And we told her the name of her son, as his name is ordained and written in the heavenly tablets; Yitschaq,

4 And that when we returned to her at a set time, she would have conceived a son.

5 And in this chodesh אֱלֹהִים executed his mishpatim on Sedom and Amorah and Zevoim and all the region of the Yarden and He burned them with fire and brimstone and destroyed them until this yom, even as I have declared to you all their works, that they are wicked and sinners exceedingly and that they defile themselves and commit fornication in their flesh and work uncleanness on the earth.

6 And, in like manner, אֱלֹהִים will execute mishpat on the places where they have done according to the uncleanness of the Sedomites, like to the mishpat of Sedom.

7 But Lot we saved; for אֱלֹהִים remembered Avraham and sent him out from the midst of the overthrow.

8 And he and his daughters committed sin upon the earth, such as had not been on the earth since the yamim of Ahdam till his time; for the man lay with his daughters.

9 And, behold, it was commanded and engraved concerning all his zera, on the heavenly tablets, to remove them and root them out and to execute mishpat upon them like the mishpat of Sedom and to leave no zera of the man on earth on the yom of condemnation.

10 And in this chodesh Avraham moved from Chebron and departed and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur in the mountains of Gerar.

11 And in the middle of the fifth chodesh he moved from there and dwelt at the Well of the Oath.

12 And in the middle of the sixth chodesh אֵלֹהִים visited Sarah and did to her as He had spoken and she conceived.

13 And she bare a son in the third chodesh and in the middle of the chodesh, at the time of which אֵלֹהִים had spoken to Avraham, on the moed of the bikkurim of the harvest, Shavuot, Yitschaq was born.

14 And Avraham made brit-milah upon his son on the eighth yom: he was the first that was made brit-milah according to the brit which is ordained le-olam-va-ed.

15 And in the sixth year of the fourth week we came to Avraham, to the Well of the Oath and we appeared to him, as we had told Sarah that we should return to her and she would have conceived a son.

16 And we returned in the seventh chodesh and found Sarah with child before us and we blessed him and we announced to him all the things which had been decreed concerning him, that he should not die until he should beget six sons more and should see them before he died; but that in Yitschaq should his name and zera be called:

17 And that all the zera of his sons should be goyim and be reckoned with the goyim; but from the sons of Yitschaq one should become a Kadosh zera and should not be reckoned among the goyim.

18 For He should become The Portion of אֵלֹהִים and all his zera had fallen into the possession of אֵלֹהִים, that it should be to אֱלֹהֵינוּ a people for His possession above all goyim and that it should become a malchut and kohanim and a kadosh nation.

19 And we went our derech and we announced to Sarah all that we had told him and they both rejoiced with exceeding great simcha.

20 And he built there an altar to אֱלֹהֵינוּ who had delivered him and who was making him rejoice in the land of his sojourning and he celebrated a moed of simchah in this chodesh seven yamim, Sukkot, near the altar which he had built at the Well of the Oath.

21 And he built booths for himself and for his avadim on this moed and he Avraham was the first to celebrate the Moed of Tabernacles on the earth.

22 And during these seven yamim he brought each yom to the altar a burnt offering to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, two oxen, two rams, seven sheep, one he-goat, for a sin offering, that he might atone thereby for himself and for his zera.

23 And, as a thank-offering, seven rams, seven kids, seven sheep and seven he-goats and their fruit offerings and their drink offerings; and he burnt all the fat of it on the altar, a chosen offering to אֱלֹהֵינוּ for a sweet smelling savor.

24 And boker and evening he burnt fragrant substances, frankincense and galbanum and stackte and nard and myrrh and spice and costum; all these seven he offered, crushed, mixed together in equal parts and pure.

25 And he celebrated this moed during seven yamim, rejoicing with all his lev and with all his nephesh, he and all those who were in his bayit and there was no stranger with him, nor any that was not in brit-milah.

26 And he blessed his Creator, Who had created him in that generation, for He had created him according to His tov pleasure; for Avraham knew and perceived that from him would arise The Plant of Tzedakah for the eternal generations and from him a kadosh zera, so that it should become like Him, Who had made all things.

27 And he blessed and rejoiced and he called the name of this moed The Moed of אֱלֹהִים's Simcha, acceptable to El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים.

28 And we blessed him le-olam-va-ed and all his zera after him throughout all the generations of the earth because he celebrated this moed in its season, according to the testimony of the heavenly tablets.

29 For this reason it is ordained on the heavenly tablets concerning Yisrael, that they shall celebrate the Moed of Tabernacles-Sukkoth seven yamim with simcha, in the seventh chodesh, acceptable before אֱלֹהִים - a statute le-olam-va-ed throughout their generations every year.

30 And to this there is no limit of yamim; for it is ordained le-olam-va-ed regarding Yisrael that they should celebrate it and dwell in booths and set wreaths upon their heads and take leafy boughs and willows from the brook.

31 And Avraham took branches of palm eytzim and the fruit of tov eytzim and every yom going round the altar with the branches seven times a yom in the boker, he praised and gave hodu to אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim for all things in simcha.

17 And in the first year of the fifth week Yitschaq was weaned in this Yovel and Avraham made a great banquet in the third chodesh, on the yom his son Yitschaq was weaned.

2 And Ishmael, the son of Hagar, the Mitzrite, was before the face of Avraham, his abba, in his place and Avraham rejoiced and blessed אַבְרָהָם because he had seen his sons and had not died childless.

3 And he remembered the words which He had spoken to him on the yom on which Lot had parted from him and he rejoiced because אַבְרָהָם had given him zera upon the earth to inherit the earth and he blessed with all his mouth The Creator of all things.

4 And Sarah saw Ishmael playing and dancing and Avraham rejoicing with great simcha and she became jealous of Ishmael and said to Avraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son; for the son of this bondwoman will not be heir with my son, Yitschaq.

5 And the thing was grievous in Avraham's sight because of his maidservant and because of his son, that he should drive them from him.

6 And אַבְרָהָם said to Avraham; Let it not be grievous in your sight because of the child and because of the bondwoman; in all that Sarah has said to you, listen to her words and do them; for in Yitschaq shall your name and zera be called.

7 But as for the son of this bondwoman I will make him a great nation because he is of your zera.

8 And Avraham rose up early in the boker and took lechem and a bottle of mayim and placed them on the shoulders of Hagar and the child and sent her away.

9 And she departed and wandered in the midbar of Beersheva and the mayim in the bottle was gone and the child thirsted and was not able to go on and fell down.

10 And his eema took him and cast him under an olive eytz and went and sat her down opposite him, at the distance of a bow-shot; for she said, Let me not see the death of my child as she sat she wept.

11 And a Malach of אֱלֹהִים, one of the kadosh ones, said to her, Why weep, Hagar? Arise take the child and hold him in your hand; for אֱלֹהִים has heard your voice and has seen the child.

12 And she opened her eyes and she saw a well of mayim and she went and filled her bottle with mayim and she gave her child to drink and she arose and went towards the midbar of Paran.

13 And the child grew and became an archer and אֱלֹהִים was with him and his eema took him an isha from among the daughters of Mitzrayim.

14 And she bare him a son and he called his name Nevaioth; for she said, אֱלֹהִים was near to me when I called upon Him.

15 And it came to pass in the seventh week, in the first year of it, in the first chodesh in this Yovel, on the twelfth of this chodesh, there were voices in the shamayim regarding Avraham, that he was faithful in all that He told him and that he loved אֱלֹהִים and that in every affliction he was faithful.

16 And the sar Mastema came and said before אֱלֹהִים, Behold, Avraham loves Yitschaq his son and he delights in him above all other things; command him to offer him as a burnt-offering on the altar and You will see if he will do this command and You will know if he is faithful in everything in which You do test him.

17 And אֱלֹהִים knew that Avraham was faithful in all his afflictions; for He had tried him through his country and with famine and had tried him with the wealth of melechim and had tried him again through his isha, when she was torn from him and with brit milah; and had tried him through Ishmael and Hagar, his maid-eved, when he sent them away.

18 And in everything in which He had tried him, he was found faithful and his nephesh was not impatient and he was not slow to act; for he was faithful and a lover of אֱלֹהִים.

18 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, Avraham,

Avraham; and he said, Behold, here am I. Hinayne.

2 And He said, Take your beloved son whom you love, even Yitschaq and go to the high country and offer him on one of the mountains which I will point out to you.

3 And he rose early in the boker and saddled his donkey and took his two young men with him and Yitschaq his son and clave the wood of the burnt offering and he went to the place on the third yom, and he saw the place afar off.

4 And he came to a well of mayim and he said to his young men, Abide here with the donkey and I and the lad shall go over there and when we have worshipped we shall come again to you.

5 And he took the wood of the burnt-offering and laid it on Yitschaq his son and he took in his hand the fire and the knife and they went both of them together to that place.

6 And Yitschaq said to his abba, Abba; and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said to him, Behold the fire and the knife and the wood; but where is the Lamb for the burnt-offering abba?

7 And he said, אֱלֹהִים will provide Himself-The Lamb-for the burnt-offering, my son. And he drew near to the place of the Har of אֱלֹהִים.

8 And he built an altar and he placed the wood on the altar and bound Yitschaq his son and placed him on the wood which was upon the altar and stretched forth his hand to take the knife to slay Yitschaq his son.

9 And I stood before him and before the sar Mastema and אֱלֹהִים said, Tell him not to lay his hand on the lad, nor to do anything to him, for I have showed that he fears אֱלֹהִים.

10 And I called to him from the shamayim and said to him: Avraham, Avraham and he was terrified and said: Behold, here am I, Hinayne.

11 And I said to him: Lay not your hand upon the lad, neither do anything to him; for now I have showed that you fear אֱלֹהִים and have not withheld your son, your bachor son, from Me.

12 And the sar Mastema was put to shame; and Avraham lifted up his eyes and looked and, behold a ram caught by his horns and Avraham went and took the ram and offered it for a burnt-offering in the place of his son.

13 And Avraham called that place אֱלֹהִים has seen- אֱלֹהִים YIREH, so that it is said אֱלֹהִים has seen: that is Har Tzion.

14 And אֱלֹהִים called Avraham by his name a second time from the shamayim, as He caused us to appear to speak to him in The Name of אֱלֹהִים.

15 And He said: By Myself have I sworn, says אֱלֹהִים, Because you have done this thing, So have not withheld your son, your beloved son, from Me, That in blessing I will bless you and in multiplying I will multiply your zera, as the cochavim of the shamayim and as the sand which is on the seashore.

16 And your zera shall inherit the cities of its enemies, So in your zera shall all goyim of the earth be blessed-mixed; because you have obeyed My voice and I have showed to all that you are faithful to Me in all that I have said to you: Go in shalom.

17 And Avraham went to his young men and they arose and went together to Beersheva and Avraham;

18 Dwelt by the Well of the Oath. And he celebrated this moed every year, seven yamim with simchah and he called it The Moed of אֶרְבַּע according to the seven yamim, Chag Matzoth-Unleavened Lechem during which he went out and returned in shalom.

19 And accordingly has it been ordained and written on the heavenly tablets regarding Yisrael and its zera that they should observe this moed seven yamim with the simcha of the moed.

19 And in the first year of the first week in the forty-second Yovel, Avraham returned and dwelt opposite Chebron, that is Qiryath Arba, two weeks of years.

2 And in the first year of the third week of this Yovel the yamim of the chayim of Sarah were accomplished and she died in Chebron.

3 And Avraham went to mourn over her and bury her and we tried him to see if his ruach was patient and he was not indignant in the words of his mouth; and he was found patient in this and was not disturbed.

4 For in patience of ruach he conversed with the children of Chet, to the intent that they should give him a place in which to bury his dead.

5 And אֶרְבַּע gave him free unmerited chen before all who saw him and he sought out in gentleness the sons of Chet and they gave him the land of the double cave, Machpelah, over against Mamre, that is Chebron, for four hundred pieces of silver.

6 And they sought him saying, We shall give it to you for nothing; but he would not take it from their hands for nothing, for he gave the price of the place, the money in full and he bowed down before them twice and after this he buried his dead in the double cave of Machpelah.

7 And all the yamim of the chayim of Sarah were one hundred and twenty-seven years, that is, two Yovleem and four weeks and one year: these are the yamim of the years of the chayim of Sarah.

8 This is the tenth trial with which Avraham was tried and he was found faithful and patient in ruach.

9 And he said not a single word regarding the rumor in the land how that אֲפֹרָז had said that He would give it to him and to his zera after him and he begged a place there to bury his dead; for he was found faithful and was recorded on the heavenly tablets as the chaver of אֲפֹרָז.

10 And in the fourth year of it he took an isha for his son Yitschaq and her name was Rivkah the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nachor, the brother of Avraham, the sister of Lavan and daughter of Bethuel; and Bethuel was the son of Melcha, who was the isha of Nachor, the brother of Avraham.

11 And Avraham took to himself a third isha, and her name was Keturah, from among the daughters of his household avadim, for Hagar had died before Sarah. And she bare him six sons, Zimram and Jokshan and Medan and Midian and Ishvak and Shuah, in the two weeks of years.

12 And in the sixth week, in the second year of it, Rivkah bare to Yitschaq two sons, Yaakov and Esav and;

13 Yaakov was a smooth and upright man and Esav was fierce, a man of the field and hairy and Yaakov dwelt in sukkot.

14 And the youths grew and Yaakov learned to write; but Esav did not learn, for he was a man of the field and a hunter and he learned war and all his deeds were fierce.

15 And Avraham loved Yaakov but Yitschaq loved Esav.

16 And Avraham saw the deeds of Esav and he knew that in Yaakov should his name and zera be called; and he called Rivkah and gave a commandment regarding Yaakov, for he knew that she too loved Yaakov much more than Esav.

17 And he said to her: My daughter, watch over my son Yaakov, For he shall be in my place on the earth, for a bracha in the midst of the children of men and for the splendor of the whole zera of Shem.

18 For I know that אֱלֹהִים will choose him to be a people for possession to Himself, above all peoples that are upon the face of the earth.

19 And behold, Yitschaq my son loves Esav more than Yaakov but I see that you truly love Yaakov.

20 Add still further to your kindness to him and let your eyes be upon him in love; for he shall be a bracha to us on the earth from now on to all generations of the earth.

21 Let your hands be strong and let your lev rejoice in your son Yaakov; For I have loved him far beyond all my sons. He shall be blessed le-olam-va-ed and his zera shall fill the whole earth.

22 If a man can number the sand of the earth, His zera also shall be numbered.

23 And all the brachot with which אֱלֹהִים has blessed me and my zera shall belong to Yaakov and his zera always.

24 And in his zera shall my name be blessed and the name of my avot, Shem and Noach and Chanok and Mahalalel and Enos and Seth and Ahdam.

25 And these shall serve to lay the foundations of the shamayim and to strengthen the earth, to renew all the luminaries which are in the firmament.

26 And he called Yaakov before the eyes of Rivkah his eema and kissed him and blessed him and said:

27 Yaakov, my beloved son, whom my nephesh loves, may אֱלֹהִים bless you from above the firmament and may He give you all the brachot with which He blessed Ahdam and Chanok and Noach and Shem; and all the things of which He told me and all the things which He promised to give me, may He cause to cleave to you and to your zera le-olam-va-ed, according to the yamim of shamayim above the earth.

28 And the ruachim of Mastema shall not rule over you or over your zera to turn you from אלהים, who is your Ahlohim from now on le-olam-va-ed.

29 And may אלהים Ahlohim be an Abba to you; you the bacor son and to the people always.

30 Go in shalom, my son. And they both went forth together from Avraham.

31 And Rivkah loved Yaakov, with all her lev and with all her nephesh, very much more than Esav; but Yitschaq loved Esav much more than Yaakov.

20 And in the forty-second Yovel, in the first year of the seventh week, Avraham called Ishmael and his twelve sons and Yitschaq and his two sons and the six sons of Keturah and their sons.

2 And he commanded them that they should observe the derech of אלהים; that they should work tzedakah and love each his neighbor and act in this manner among all men; that they should each so walk with regard to them, so as to do just mishpat and tzedakah on the earth.

3 That they should brit-milah their sons, according to the brit which He had made with them and not deviate to the right hand or the left of all the paths which אלהים had commanded us; and that we should keep ourselves from all fornication and uncleanness and renounce from among us all fornication and uncleanness.

4 And if any woman or maid commit fornication among you, burn her with fire and let them not commit fornication with her after their eyes and their lev; and let them not take to themselves wives from the daughters of Kanaan; for the zera of Kanaan will be rooted out of the land.

5 And he told them of the mishpat of the giants and the mishpat of the Sedomites, how they had been judged on account of their wickedness and had died on account of their fornication and uncleanness and mutual corruption through fornication.

6 And guard yourselves from all fornication and uncleanness and from all pollution of sin, lest you make our name a curse and your whole chayim a hissing and all your sons to be destroyed by the sword and you become cursed like Sedom and all your remnant as the sons of Amorah.

7 I implore you, my sons, love אֱלֹהֵיךָ of the shamayim and cleave to all His mitzvoth.

8 And walk not after their idols and after their uncleanness and make not for yourselves molten or graven ahlahim; for they are vanity and there is no ruach in them; for they are the work of men's hands and all who trust in them, trust in nothing.

9 Serve them not, nor worship them but serve El-Elyon אֱלֹהֵיךָ and worship Him continually: and tikvah for His countenance always and work tzedakah before Him; that He may have pleasure in you and grant you His rachamim and send rain upon you boker and evening; and bless all your works which you have done upon the earth; and bless your lechem and your mayim; and bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land; and the herds of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep.

10 And you will be for a bracha on the earth and all goyim of the earth will desire you; and bless your sons in my name, that they may be blessed as I am.

11 And he gave to Ishmael and to his sons and to the sons of Keturah, gifts and sent them away from Yitschaq his son and he gave everything to Yitschaq his son.

12 And Ishmael and his sons and the sons of Keturah and their sons, went together and dwelt from Paran to the entering in of Bavel in all the land which is towards the East facing the desert.

13 And these mixed with each other and their name was called Arabs and Ishmaelites.

21 And in the sixth year of the seventh week of this Yovel Avraham called Yitschaq his son and commanded him: saying, I am old and know not the yom of my death and am full of my yamim.

2 And behold, I am one hundred and seventy-five years old and throughout all the yamim of my chayim I have remembered אֱלֹהִים and sought with all my lev to do His will and to walk uprightly in all His derachot.

3 My nephesh has hated idols and I have given my lev and ruach, that I might observe to do the will of Him Who created me.

4 For He is the living אֱלֹהִים and He is kadosh and faithful and He is tzadik beyond all and there is with Him no accepting of men's persons and no accepting of gifts; for אֱלֹהִים is tzadik and executes mishpat on all those who transgress His mitzvot and despise His brit.

5 And you, my son, observe His mitzvot and His ordinances and His mishpatim and walk not after the abominations and after the graven images and after the molten images.

6 And eat no dahm at all of animals or cattle, or of any bird which flies in the shamayim.

7 And if you do slay a victim as an acceptable shalom offering, slay it and pour out its dahm upon the altar and all the fat of the offering offer on the altar with fine flour and the meat offering mixed with oil, with its drink offering - offer them all together on the altar of burnt offering; it is a sweet savor before

אֱלֹהִים.

8 And you will offer the fat of the sacrifice of thank offerings on the fire which is upon the altar and the fat which is on the belly and all the fat on the inwards and the two kidneys and all the fat that is upon them and the loins and liver you shall remove, together with the kidneys.

9 And offer all these for a sweet savor acceptable before אלהים, with its meat-offering and with its drink-offering, for a sweet savor, the lechem of the offering to אלהים.

10 And eat its meat on that yom and on the second yom and let not the shemesh on the second yom go down upon it till it is eaten and let nothing be left over for the third yom; for it is not acceptable, for it is not approved and let it no longer be eaten and all who eat of it will bring sin upon themselves; for so I have found it written in the scrolls of my forefathers and in the words of Chanok and in the words of Noach.

11 And on all your oblations you shall sprinkle salt and let not the salt of the brit be lacking in all your oblations before אלהים.

12 And as regards to the wood of the sacrifices, beware lest you bring other wood for the altar in addition to these: cypress, bay, almond, fir, pine, cedar, savin, fig, olive, myrrh, laurel, aspalathus.

13 And of these kinds of wood lay upon the altar under the sacrifice, such as have been tested as to their appearance and do not lay on it any split or dark wood but hard and clean, without fault, a sound and new growth; and do not lay on it old wood, for its fragrance is gone; for there is no longer fragrance in it as before.

14 Besides these kinds of wood, there is none other that you shall place on the altar, for the fragrance is dispersed and the smell of its fragrance goes not up to the shamayim.

15 Observe this commandment and do it, my son, that you may be upright in all your deeds.

16 And at all times be clean in your gooff and wash yourself with mayim before you approach to offer on the altar and wash your hands and your feet before you draw near to the altar; and when you are done sacrificing, wash again your hands and your feet.

17 And let no dahm appear upon you nor upon your clothes; be on your guard, my son, against dahm, be on your guard exceedingly; cover it with dust.

18 And do not eat any dahm for it is the chayim of the nephesh; eat no dahm whatsoever.

19 And take no gifts for the dahm of man, lest it be shed with impunity, without mishpat; for it is the dahm that is shed that causes the earth to sin and the earth cannot be cleansed from the dahm of a man, except by the dahm of him who shed it.

20 And take no present or gift for the dahm of man: dahm for dahm, that you may be accepted before Ahlohim, El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים; for He is the defense of the tov ones: and that you may be preserved from all evil and that He may save you from every kind of death.

21 I see, my son, that all the works of the children of men are sin and wickedness and all their deeds are uncleanness and an abomination and a pollution and there is no tzedakah with them.

22 Beware, lest you should walk in their derachot and tread in their paths and sin a sin to death before El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים. Or, else, He will hide His face from you and give you back into the hands of your transgression and root you out of the land and your zera likewise from under the shamayim and your name and your zera shall perish from the whole earth.

23 Turn away from all their deeds and all their uncleanness and observe the ordinance of El-Elyon אֱלֹהֵי עֵלְיוֹן and do His will and be upright in all things.

24 And He will bless you in all your deeds and will raise up from you a Plant of Tzedakah through all the earth, throughout all generations of the earth and my name and your name shall not be forgotten under the shamayim le-olam-va-ed.

25 Go, my son in shalom. May El-Elyon אֱלֹהֵי עֵלְיוֹן, my Ahlohim and your Ahlohim, strengthen you to do His will; and may He bless all your zera and the residue of your zera for the generations le-olam-va-ed, with all tzadik brachot, that you may be a bracha in all the earth.

26 And he went out from him rejoicing.

22 And it came to pass in the first week in the forty-fourth Yovel, in the second year, that is, the year in which Avraham died, that Yitschaq and Ishmael came from the Well of the Oath to celebrate The Feast of Weeks - that is, The Feast of the First Fruits of the wheat harvest - to Avraham, their abba and Avraham rejoiced because his two sons had come.

2 For Yitschaq had many possessions in Beersheva and Yitschaq was inclined to go and see his possessions and to return to his abba.

3 And in those yamim Ishmael came to see his abba and they both came together and Yitschaq offered a sacrifice for a burnt offering and presented it on the altar of his abba which he had made in Chebron.

4 And he offered a thank offering and made a moed of simcha before Ishmael, his brother: and Rivkah made new cakes from the new grain and gave them to Yaakov, her son, to take them to Avraham, his grandfather, from the bikkurim of the land, that he might eat and bless The Creator of all things before he died.

5 And Yitschaq, too, sent by the hand of Yaakov to Avraham a best thank offering, that he might eat and drink.

6 And he ate and drank and blessed El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים, Who has created the shamayim and earth, Who has made all the fat things of the earth and given them to the children of men, that they might eat and drink and bless their Creator.

7 And now I give hodu to You, my Ahlohim because You have caused me to see this yom: behold, I am one hundred and seventy five years, an old man and full of yamim and all my yamim have been in Your shalom.

8 The sword of the adversary has not overcome me in all that You have given me and my children all the yamim of my chayim until this yom.

9 My Ahlohim, may Your rachamim and Your shalom be upon Your eved and upon the zera of his sons, that they may be to You a chosen nation and an inheritance from among all the goyim of the earth from now on to all the yamim of the generations of the earth, to all the ages.

10 And he called Yaakov and said: My son Yaakov, may אֱלֹהִים the Ahlohim of all bless you and strengthen you to do tzedakah and His will before Him and may He choose you and your zera that you may become a people for His inheritance according to His will always.

11 And my son Yaakov, draw near and kiss me. And he drew near and kissed him and he said: Blessed be my son Yaakov and all the sons of אֱלֹהִים El-Elyon, to all the ages: may אֱלֹהִים give to you a zera of tzedakah; and some of your sons may He sanctify in the midst of the whole earth; may goyim serve you and all the goyim bow themselves before your zera.

12 Be strong in the presence of men and exercise authority over all the zera of Seth. Then your derachot and the derachot of your sons will be justified. So that they shall become a kadosh nation.

13 May El-Elyon אלהים give you all the brachot with which He has blessed me and with which He blessed Noach and Ahdam; may they rest on the kadosh head of your zera from generation to generation le-olam-va-ed.

14 And may He cleanse you from all unrighteousness and impurity that you may be forgiven all the transgressions; which you have committed ignorantly. And may He strengthen you and bless you.

15 And may you inherit the whole earth and may He renew His brit with you. That you may be to Him a nation for His inheritance for all the ages and that He may be to you and to your zera the Ahlohim in emet and tzedakah throughout all the yamim of the earth.

16 And you, my son Yaakov, remember my words and observe the mitzvoth of Avraham your abba: Separate yourself from the goyim and eat not with them: and do not according to their works; and become not their associate; for their works are unclean and all their derachot are a pollution and an abomination and uncleanness.

17 They offer their sacrifices to the dead and they worship evil ruachim and they eat over the graves and all their works are vanity and nothingness.

18 They have no lev to understand and their eyes do not see what their works are and how they err in saying to a piece of wood: You are my ahlahim and to a stone: You are my ahlahim and you are my deliverer. And they have no lev of binah.

19 And as for you, my son Yaakov, may El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים help you and the Ahlohim of the shamayim bless you and remove you from their uncleanness and from all their error.

20 Be warned, my son Yaakov, of taking an isha from any zera of the daughters of Kanaan; for all his zera is to be rooted out of the earth.

21 For, owing to the transgression of Ham, Kanaan erred and all his zera shall be destroyed from off the land and all the residue of it and none springing from him shall be saved on the yom of mishpat.

22 And as for all the worshippers of idols and the profane, there shall be no tikvah for them in the land of the living; and there shall be no remembrance of them on the earth, for they shall descend into Sheol and into the place of condemnation shall they go; as the children of Sedom were taken away, raptured from the earth, so will all those who worship idols be taken away.

23 Fear not, my son Yaakov and be not dismayed, O son of Avraham: May El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים preserve you from destruction and from all the paths of error may He deliver you.

24 This bayit have I built for myself that I might put my name upon it in the earth: it is given to you and to your zera le-olam-va-ed and it will be named the Beit Avraham; it is given to you and to your zera le-olam-va-ed; for you will build my bayit and establish my name before אֱלֹהִים le-olam-va-ed: your zera and your name will stand throughout all generations of the earth.

25 And he ceased commanding him and blessing him.

26 And the two lay together on one bed and Yaakov slept in the bosom of Avraham, his abba's abba and he kissed him seven times and his affection and his lev rejoiced over him.

27 And he blessed him with all his lev and said: El-Elyon אלהים, the Ahlohim of all and Creator of all, Who brought me forth from Ur of the Chaldees that He might give me this land to inherit it le-olam-va-ed and that I might establish a kadosh zera, Blessed be אלהים le-olam-va-ed. Ahmein.

28 And he blessed Yaakov and said: My son, over whom with all my lev and my affection I rejoice, may His free unmerited chen and His rachamim be lifted up upon Yaakov and upon his zera always.

29 And do not forsake him, nor bring him to nothing from now on to the yamim of eternity and may Your eyes be opened upon him and upon his zera, that You may preserve him and;

30 Bless him and may make him kadosh as a nation for Your inheritance; and bless him with all Your brachot from now on to all the yamim of eternity and renew Your brit and Your free unmerited chen with him and with his zera according to all Your tov pleasure to all the generations of the earth.

23 And he placed two fingers of Yaakov on his eyes and he blessed the El of all Ahlohim and he covered his face and stretched out his feet and slept the sleep of eternity and was gathered to his avot.

2 And notwithstanding all this Yaakov was lying in his bosom and knew not that Avraham, his abba's abba, was dead.

3 And Yaakov awoke from his sleep and behold Avraham was cold as ice and he said Abba, abba; but there was none that spoke and he knew then that he was dead.

4 And he arose from his bosom and ran and told Rivkah, his eema; and Rivkah went to Yitschaq in the lyla and told him; and they went together and Yaakov with them and a lamp was in his hand and when they had gone in they found Avraham lying dead.

5 And Yitschaq fell on the face of his abba and wept and kissed him.

6 And the voices were heard in the bayit of Avraham and Ishmael his son arose and went to Avraham his abba and wept over Avraham his abba, he and all the bayit of Avraham and they wept with a great weeping.

7 And his sons Yitschaq and Ishmael buried him in the double cave, near Sarah his isha and they wept for him forty yamim, all the men of his bayit and Yitschaq and Ishmael and all their sons and all the sons of Keturah in their places; and the yamim of weeping for Avraham were ended.

8 And he lived three Yovleem and four weeks of years, one hundred;

9 And seventy-five years and completed the yamim of his chayim, being old and full of yamim. For the yamim of the forefathers, of their chayim, were nineteen Yovleem; and after The Flood they began to grow less than nineteen Yovleem and to decrease in Yovleem and to grow old quickly and not to be full of their yamim by reason of manifold tribulations and the wickedness of their derachot, with the exception of Avraham.

10 For Avraham was perfect in all his mitzvoth with אֱלֹהִים and well pleasing in tzedakah all the yamim of his chayim; and behold, he did not complete four Yovleem in his chayim, when he had grown old by reason of the wickedness around him and was full of his yamim.

11. And all the generations which shall arise from this time until the yom of the Great Judgment shall grow old quickly, before they complete two Yovleem and their da'at shall forsake them by reason of their old age and all their da'at shall vanish away.

12 And in those future yamim, if a man lives a Yovel and a-half of years, they shall surely say regarding him: He has lived long and the greater part of his yamim are pain and sorrow and tribulation and there is no shalom:

13 For calamity follows on calamity and wound on wound and tribulation on tribulation and evil tidings on evil tidings and illness on illness and all evil mishpatim such as these, one with another, illness and overthrow and snow and frost and ice and fever and chills and lethargy and famine and death and sword and captivity and all kinds of calamities and pains.

14 And all these shall come on an evil generation, which transgresses on the earth: their works are uncleanness and fornication and pollution and abominations.

15 Then they shall say: The yamim of the forefathers were many even, to a thousand years and were tov; but behold, the yamim of our chayim, if a man has lived many, are three score years and ten-70 and if he is strong, four score-80 years and even those are evil and there is no shalom in the yamim of this evil generation.

16 And in that generation the sons shall convict their avot and their zechanim of sin and unrighteousness and of the words of their mouth and the great wickedness which they perpetrate and concerning their forsaking the brit which אלהים made between them and Him that they should observe and do all His mitzvoth and His ordinances and all His Torah, without departing either to the right hand or the left.

17 For all have done evil and every mouth speaks iniquity and all their works are uncleanness and an abomination and all their derachot are pollution, uncleanness and destruction.

18 Behold the earth shall be destroyed on account of all their works and there shall be no zera of the vine and no oil; for their works are altogether faithless and they shall all perish together, beasts and cattle and birds and all the fish of the sea, on account of the children of men.

19 And they shall strive one with another, the young with the old and the old with the young, the poor with the rich, the lowly with the great and the beggar with the sar, on account of The Torah and the brit; for they have forgotten the mitzvoth and the brit and the moadem and chodasheem and the Shabbats and Yoveleem and all the mishpatim.

20 And they shall try with swords and war to turn them back into the derech; but they shall not return until much dahm has been shed on the earth, one by another.

21 And those who have escaped shall not return from their wickedness to the derech of tzedakah but they shall all exalt themselves to deceit and wealth, that they may each take all that is his neighbor's and they shall claim and use the great Name of אֱלֹהִים but not in emet and not in tzedakah and they shall defile the Kadosh Ha Kadosheem with their uncleanness and the corruption of their pollution.

22 And a great punishment shall befall the deeds of this generation from אֱלֹהִים and He will give them over to the sword and to mishpat and to captivity to be plundered and devoured.

23 And He will wake up against them the sinners of the goyim, who have neither rachamim nor rachamim and who shall respect the person of no one, neither old nor young, nor anyone, for they are more wicked and strong to do evil than all the children of men. And they shall use violence against Yisrael and transgression against Yaakov and much dahm shall be shed upon the earth and there shall be none to gather and none to bury.

24 In those yamim they shall cry aloud and call and make tefillah that they may be saved from the hand of the sinners, the goyim; but none shall be saved.

25 And the heads of the children shall be white with grey hair and a child of three weeks shall appear old like a man of one hundred years and their stature shall be destroyed by tribulation and oppression.

26 And in those yamim the children shall begin to study the Torot and to seek the mitzvoth and to return to the derech of tzedakah.

27 And the yamim shall begin to grow many and increase among those children of men until their yamim draws near to one thousand years. And to a greater number of years than before will be the number of the yamim.

28 And there shall be no old man, or one who is not satisfied with his yamim, for all shall be as children and as youths.

29 And all their yamim they shall complete and live in shalom and in simcha and there shall be no s.a.tan, nor any evil destroyer; for all their yamim shall be yamim of blessing and healing.

30 And at that time אֱלֹהִים will heal His avadim and they shall rise up and see great shalom and drive out their adversaries. And the tzadik shall see and be thankful and rejoice with simcha le-olam-va-ed and shall see all their mishpatim and all their curses on their enemies.

31 And their bones shall rest in the earth and their ruachim shall have much simcha and they shall know that it is אֱלֹהִים who executes mishpat and shows rachamim to hundreds and thousands and to all that love Him.

32 And you, Moshe, write down these Words; for so are they written and they are recorded on the heavenly tablets for a testimony for the generations le-olam-va-ed.

24 And it came to pass after the death of Avraham that אַבְרָהָם blessed Yitschaq his son and he arose from Chebron and went and dwelt at the Well of the Vision in the first year of the third week of this Yovel, seven years.

2 And in the first year of the fourth week a famine began in the land, besides the first famine, which had been in the yamim of Avraham.

3 And Yaakov made lentil pottage and Esav came from the field hungry. And he said to Yaakov his brother: Give me of this red pottage. And Yaakov said to him: Sell to me your bechora and I will give you lechem and also some of this lentil pottage.

4 And Esav said in his lev: I shall die; of what profit to me is this bechora ?

5 And he said to Yaakov: I give it to you. And Yaakov said: Swear to me, this yom and he swore to him.

6 And Yaakov gave his brother Esav lechem and pottage and he ate until he was satisfied and Esav despised his bechora ; for this reason was Esav's name called Edom, on account of the red pottage which Yaakov gave him for his bechora .

7 And Yaakov became the elder and Esav was brought down from his dignity.

8 And the famine was over the land and Yitschaq departed to go down into Mitzrayim in the second year of this week and went to the melech of the Philistines to Gerar, to Avimelech.

9 And אַבְרָהָם appeared to him and said to him: Go not down into Mitzrayim; dwell in the land that I shall tell you of and sojourn in this land and I will be with you and bless you.

10 For to you and to your zera will I give all this land and I will establish My oath which I swore to Avraham your abba and I will multiply your zera as the cochavim of the shamayim and will give to your zera all this land.

11 And in your zera shall all the goyim of the earth be blessed-mixed because your abba obeyed My voice and kept My charge and My mitzvoth and My Torot and My ordinances and My brit; and now obey My voice and dwell in this land.

12 And he dwelt in Gerar three weeks of years.

13 And Avimelech charged concerning him and concerning all that was his, saying: Any man that shall touch him or anything that is his shall surely die.

14 And Yitschaq waxed strong among the Philistines and he acquired many possessions, oxen and sheep and camels and donkeys and a great household.

15 And he sowed in the land of the Philistines and brought in a hundred-fold and Yitschaq became exceedingly great and the Philistines envied him.

16 Now all the wells which the avadim of Avraham had dug during the chayim of Avraham, the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Avraham and filled them with earth.

17 And Avimelech said to Yitschaq: Go from us, for you are much mightier than we are and Yitschaq departed there in the first year of the seventh week and sojourned in the Valleys of Gerar.

18 And they dug again the wells of mayim which the avadim of Avraham, his abba, had dug and which the Philistines had closed after the death of Avraham his abba and he called their names as Avraham his abba had named them.

19 And the avadim of Yitschaq dug a well in the valley and found living mayim and the shepherds of Gerar strove with the shepherds of Yitschaq, saying: The mayim is ours; and Yitschaq called the name of the well Perversity because they had been perverse with us.

20 And they dug a second well and they strove for that also and he called its name Enmity. And he arose from there and they dug another well and for that they strove not and he called the name of it Room and Yitschaq said: Now אֵיִשָּׁךְ has made room for us and we have increased in the land.

21 And he went up from there to the Well of the Oath in the first year of the first week in the forty-fourth Yovel.

22 And אֵיִשָּׁךְ appeared to him that lyla, on the first yom of the first chodesh and said to him: I AM אֵיִשָּׁךְ the Ahlohim of Avraham your abba; fear not, for I AM with you and shall bless you and shall surely multiply your zera as the sand of the earth, for the sake of Avraham my eved.

23 And he built an altar there, which Avraham his abba had first built and he called upon The Name of אֵיִשָּׁךְ and he offered sacrifice to the Ahlohim of Avraham his abba.

24 And they dug a well and they found living mayim.

25 And the avadim of Yitschaq dug another well and did not find mayim and they went and told Yitschaq that they had not found mayim and Yitschaq said: I have sworn this yom to the Philistines and this thing has been announced to us.

26 And he called the name of that place the Well of the Oath; for there he had sworn to Avimelech and Ahuzzath his chaver and Phicol the prefect host and Or, his host.

27 And Yitschaq knew that yom that under constraint he had sworn to them to make shalom with them.

28 And Yitschaq on that yom cursed the Philistines and said: Cursed be the Philistines to the yom of wrath and indignation from the midst of all goyim; may אַף־אֵז make them a derision and a curse and an object of wrath and indignation in the hands of the sinners, the goyim and in the hands of the Kittim.

29 And whoever escapes the sword of the enemy and the Kittim, may the tzadik nation root them out in mishpat from under the shamayim; for they shall be the enemies and foes of my children throughout their generations upon the earth.

30 And no remnant shall be left to them, Nor one that shall be saved on the yom of the wrath of mishpat; for destruction and rooting out and expulsion from the earth is the whole zera of the Philistines and there shall no longer be left for these Caphtorim a name or a zera on the earth.

31 For though he ascend to the shamayim, there shall he be brought down and though he make himself strong on earth, there shall he be dragged forth and though he hide himself among the goyim, even from there shall he be rooted out; and though he descend into Sheol, there also shall his condemnation be great and there also he shall have no shalom.

32 And if he goes into captivity, by the hands of those that seek his chayim shall they slay him on the derech and neither name nor zera shall be left to him on all the earth; for into eternal cursing shall he depart.

33 And so is it written and engraved concerning him on the heavenly tablets, to do to him on the Yom of Judgment, so that he may be rooted out of the earth.

25 And in the second year of this week in this Yovel, Rivkah called Yaakov her son and spoke to him, saying: My son, do not take an isha of the daughters of Kanaan, as Esav, your brother, who took him two wives of the daughters of Kanaan and they have embittered my nephesh with all their unclean deeds: for all their deeds are fornication and lust and there is no tzedakah with them, for their deeds are evil.

2 And I, my son, love you exceedingly and my lev and my affection bless you every hour of the yom and watch of the lyla.

3 And now, my son, listen to my voice and do the will of your eema and do not take an isha of the daughters of this land but only of the bayit of my abba and of my abba's kindred. You shall take an isha of the bayit of my abba and El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים will bless you and your children shall be a tzadik generation and a kadosh zera.

4 And then spoke Yaakov to Rivkah, his eema and said to her: Behold, eema, I am nine weeks of years old, sixty three and single and I neither know nor have I touched any woman, nor have I betrothed myself to any, nor even think of taking an isha of the daughters of Kanaan.

5 For I remember, eema, the words of Avraham, our abba, for he commanded me not to take an isha of the daughters of Kanaan but to take an isha from the zera of my abba's bayit and from my kindred.

6 I have heard before that daughters have been born to Lavan, your brother and I have set my lev on them to take an isha from among them.

7 And for this reason I have guarded myself in my ruach against sinning or being corrupted in all my derachot throughout all the yamim of my chayim; for with regard to lust and fornication, Avraham, my abba, gave me many commands.

8 And, despite all that he has commanded me, these two and twenty years my brother has striven with me and spoken frequently to me and said: My brother, take to isha, a sister of my two wives; but I refuse to do as he has done.

9 I swear before you, eema that all the yamim of my chayim I will not take an isha from the daughters of the zera of Kanaan and I will not act wickedly as my brother has done.

10 Fear not, eema; be assured that I shall do your will and walk in tzedakah and not corrupt my derachot le-olam-va-ed.

11 And she lifted up her face to the shamayim and extended the fingers of her hands and opened her mouth and blessed El-Elyon אלהים, who had created the shamayim and the earth and she gave Him hodu and tehilla.

12 And she said: Blessed be אלהים Ahlohim and may His Kadosh Name be blessed le-olam-va-ed, who has given me Yaakov as a pure son and a kadosh zera; for he is Yours and Yours shall his zera be continually and throughout all the generations le-olam-va-ed.

13 Bless him, O אלהים and place in my mouth the blessing of tzedakah, that I may bless him.

14 And at that hour, when The Ruach of tzedakah descended into her mouth, she placed both her hands on the head of Yaakov and said:

15 Blessed are you, אלהים of tzedakah and Ahlohim of the ages and may He bless you beyond all the generations of men. May He give you, my son, the derech of tzedakah and reveal tzedakah to your zera.

16 And may He make your sons many during your chayim and may they arise according to the number of the chodashem of the year. And may their sons become many and great beyond the cochavim of the shamayim and their numbers more than the sand of the sea.

17 And may He give them this tov land - as He said He would give it to Avraham and to his zera after him always and may they hold it as a possession le-olam-va-ed.

18 And may I see born to you, my son, blessed children during my chayim and a blessed and kadosh zera may all your zera be.

19 And as you have refreshed your eema's ruach during her chayim, the womb of her that bare you blesses you like this. My affection and my breasts bless you and my mouth and my tongue tehilla you greatly.

20 Increase and spread over the earth and may your zera be perfect in the simcha of the shamayim and earth le-olam-va-ed; And may your zera rejoice and on the great Yom of Shalom and may it have shalom.

21 And may your name and your zera endure to all the ages and may El-Elyon אלהים be their Ahlohim and may the Ahlohim of tzedakah dwell with them and by them may His sanctuary be built to all the ages.

22 Blessed be he that blesses you and all flesh that curses you falsely, may it be cursed.

23 And she kissed him and said to him; May אלהים of the olamim love you as the lev of your eema and her affection rejoice in you and bless you. And she ceased from blessing.

26 And in the seventh year of this week Yitschaq called Esav, his elder Son and said to him: behold, my son and behold my eyes are dim in seeing and I know not the yom of my death.

2 And now take your hunting weapons your quiver and your bow and go out to the field and hunt and catch me venison, my son and make me tasty meat, such as my nephesh loves and bring it to me that I may eat and that my nephesh may bless you before I die.

3 But Rivkah heard Yitschaq speaking to Esav.

4 And Esav went forth early to the field to hunt and catch and bring home to his abba.

5 And Rivkah called Yaakov, her son and said to him: Behold, I heard Yitschaq, your abba, speak to Esav, your brother, saying: Hunt for me and make me tasty meat and bring it to me that I may eat and bless you before אִף־אִף before I die.

6 And now, my son, obey my voice in that which I command you: Go to your flock and fetch me two tov kids of the goats and I will make them tasty meat for your abba, such as he loves and you shall bring it to your abba that he may eat and bless you before אִף־אִף before he dies and that you may be blessed.

7 And Yaakov said to Rivkah his eema: Emma, I shall not withhold anything which my abba would eat and which would please him: only I fear, my eema, that he will recognize my voice and wish to touch me.

8 And you know that I am smooth and Esav, my brother, is hairy and I shall appear before his eyes as an evildoer and shall do a deed which he had not commanded me and he will be angry with me and I shall bring upon myself a curse and not a bracha.

9 And Rivkah, his eema, said to him: Upon me be your curse, my son, only obey my voice.

10 And Yaakov obeyed the voice of Rivkah, his eema and went and fetched two tov and fat kids of the goats and brought them to his eema and his eema made them tasty meat such as he loved.

11 And Rivkah took the tov raiment of Esav, her elder son, which was with her in the bayit and she clothed Yaakov, her younger son, with them and she put the skins of the kids upon his hands and on the exposed parts of his neck.

12 And she gave the meat and the lechem which she had prepared into the hand of her son Yaakov.

13 And Yaakov went in to his abba and said: I am your son: I have done according as you told me: arise and sit and eat of that which I have caught, abba, that your nephesh may bless me.

14 And Yitschaq said to his son: How have you found it so quickly, my son?

15 And Yaakov said: Because אִי־אֵל your Ahlohim caused me to find it.

16 And Yitschaq said to him: Come near, that I may feel you, my son, if you are my son Esav or not.

17 And Yaakov went near to Yitschaq, his abba and he felt him and said:

18 The voice is Yaakov's voice but the hands are the hands of Esav and he discerned him not because it was the desire from the shamayim to remove his power of perception and Yitschaq discerned not, for his hands were hairy as his brother Esav's, so that he blessed him.

19 And he said: Are you my son Esav? And he said: I am your son: and he said, Bring near to me that I may eat of that which you have caught, my son, that my nephesh may bless you.

20 And he brought it near to him and he did eat and he brought him wine and he drank.

21 And Yitschaq, his abba, said to him: Come near and kiss me, my son.

22 And he came near and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his raiment and he blessed him and said: Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a full field which אִי־אֵל has blessed.

23 And may אֱלֹהִים give you of the dew of the shamayim and of the dew of the earth and plenty of grain and oil: Let goyim serve you and peoples bow down to you.

24 Be ruler over your brethren and let your eema's sons bow down to you; and may all the brachot with which אֱלֹהִים has blessed me and blessed Avraham, my abba; be imparted to you and to your zera le-olam-va-ed: Cursed be he that curses you and blessed be he that blesses you.

25 And it came to pass as soon as Yitschaq had made an end of blessing his son Yaakov and Yaakov had gone forth from Yitschaq his abba he hid himself and Esav, his brother, came in from his hunting.

26 And he also made tasty meat and brought it to his abba and said to his abba: Let my abba arise and eat of my venison that your nephesh may bless me.

27 And Yitschaq, his abba, said to him: Who are you? And he said to him: I am your bachor, your son Esav: I have done as you have commanded me.

28 And Yitschaq was very greatly astonished and said: Who is he that has hunted and caught and brought it to me and I have eaten of all before you came and have blessed him: and he shall be blessed and all his zera le-olam-va-ed.

29 And it came to pass when Esav heard the words of his abba Yitschaq that he cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry and said to his abba: Bless me also, abba.

30 And he said to him: Your brother came with guile and has taken away your blessing. And he said: Now I know why his name is named Yaakov: behold, he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my bachor and now he has taken away my blessing.

31 And he said: Have you not reserved a bracha for me, abba? and Yitschaq answered and said to Esav: Behold, I have made him your ruler and all his brethren have I given to him for avadim and with plenty of grain and wine and oil have I strengthened him: And what now shall I do for you, my son?

32 And Esav said to Yitschaq, his abba: Have you but one blessing, O abba? Bless me, also, abba.

33 And Esav lifted up his voice and wept. And Yitschaq answered and said to him: Behold, far from the dew of the earth shall be your dwelling and far from the dew of the shamayim from above.

34 And by your sword will you live and you will serve your brother. And it shall come to pass when you become great and do shake his yoke from off your neck, you shall sin a complete sin to death and your zera shall be rooted out from under the shamayim.

35 And Esav kept threatening Yaakov because of the blessing with which his abba blessed him and he: said in his lev: May the yamim of mourning for my abba now come, so that I may slay my brother Yaakov.

27 And the words of Esav, her elder son, were told to Rivkah in a dream and Rivkah sent and called Yaakov her younger son,

2 And said to him: Behold Esav your brother will take vengeance on you so as to kill you.

3 Now, therefore, my son, obey my voice and arise and flee to Lavan, my brother, to Charan and tarry with him a few yamim until your brother's anger turns away and he removes his anger from you and forget all that you have done; then I will send and fetch you from there.

4 And Yaakov said: I am not afraid; if he wishes to kill me, I will kill him.

5 But she said to him: Let me not lose both my sons in one yom.

6 And Yaakov said to Rivkah his eema: Behold, you know that my abba has become old and does not see because his eyes are dull and if I leave him it will be evil in his eyes because I leave him and go away from you and my abba will be angry and will curse me. I will not go; when he sends me, then only will I go.

7 And Rivkah said to Yaakov: I will go in and speak to him and he will send you away.

8 And Rivkah went in and said to Yitschaq: I loathe my chayim because of the two daughters of Chet, whom Esav has taken him as wives; and if Yaakov takes an isha from among the daughters of the land such as these, for what purpose do I further live, for the daughters of Kanaan are evil.

9 And Yitschaq called Yaakov and blessed him and admonished him and said to him:

10 Do not take an isha of any of the daughters of Kanaan; arise and go to Mesopotamia, to the bayit of Bethuel, your eema's abba and take an isha from there of the daughters of Lavan, your eema's brother.

11 And אֱלֹהִים Almighty bless you and increase and multiply you that you may become a melo ha-goyim and give you the brachot of my abba Avraham, to you and to your zera after you, that you may inherit the land of your sojourning and all the land which אֱלֹהִים gave to Avraham: go, my son, in shalom.

12 And Yitschaq sent Yaakov away and he went to Mesopotamia, to Lavan the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rivkah, Yaakov 's eema.

13 And it came to pass after Yaakov had arisen to go to Mesopotamia that the ruach of Rivkah was grieved after her son and she wept.

14 And Yitschaq said to Rivkah: My sister, weep not on account of Yaakov, my son; for he goes in shalom and in shalom will he return.

15 El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים will preserve him from all evil and will be with him; for He will not forsake him all his yamim;

16 For I know that his derachot will be prospered in all things wherever he goes, until he returns in shalom to us and we see him in shalom.

17 Fear not on his account, my sister, for he is on the upright derech and he is a perfect man: and he is faithful and will not perish. Weep not.

18 And Yitschaq comforted Rivkah on account of her son Yaakov and blessed him.

19 And Yaakov went from the Well of the Oath to go to Charan on the first year of the second week in the forty-fourth Yovel and he came to Luz on the mountains, that is, Bethel, on the first yom of the first chodesh of this week and he came to the place at evening and turned from the derech to the west of the road that lyla: and he slept there; for the shemesh had set.

20 And he took one of the stones of that place and laid under the eytz and he was journeying alone and he slept.

21 And he dreamt that lyla and behold a ladder set up on the earth and the top of it reached to the shamayim and behold, the malachim of אֱלֹהִים ascended and descended on it: and behold, אֱלֹהִים stood upon it.

22 And he spoke to Yaakov and said: I AM אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Avraham, your abba and the Ahlohim of Yitschaq; the land where you are sleeping, to you will I give it and to your zera after you.

23 And your zera shall be as the dust of the earth and you shall increase to the west and to the east, to the north and the south and in you and in your zera shall all the families of the goyim be blessed-mixed.

24 And behold, I will be with you and will keep you wheresoever you go and I will bring you again into this land in shalom; for I will not leave you until I do everything that I told you about.

25 And Yaakov awoke from his sleep and said, Truly this place is the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and I knew it not. And he was afraid and said: Dreadful is this place which is none other than the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים and this is the Gate of the Shamayim.

26 And Yaakov arose early in the boker and took the stone which he had put under his head and set it up as a pillar for an ot and he poured oil upon the top of it. And he called the name of that place Bethel; but the name of the place was Luz at first.

27 And Yaakov vowed a vow to אֱלֹהִים, saying: If אֱלֹהִים will be with me and will keep me in this derech that I go and give me lechem to eat and raiment to put on, so that I come again to my abba's bayit in shalom, then shall אֱלֹהִים be my Ahlohim and this stone which I have set up as a pillar for an ot in this place, shall be אֱלֹהִים's Bayit and of all that you give me, I shall give the tenth-maaser to you, my Ahlohim.

28 And he went on his journey and came to the land of the east, to Lavan, the brother of Rivkah and he was with him and served him for Rachel his daughter one week.

2 And in the first year of the third week he said to him: Give me my isha, for whom I have served you seven years; and Lavan said to Yaakov: I will give you your isha.

3 And Lavan made a moed and took Leah his elder daughter and gave her to Yaakov as an isha and gave her Zilpah his handmaid for a handmaid; and Yaakov did not know, for he thought that she was Rachel.

4 And he went in to her and behold, she was Leah; and Yaakov was angry with Lavan and said to him: Why have you dealt this derech with me? Did not I serve you for Rachel and not for Leah? Why have you wronged me?

5 Take your daughter and I will go; for you have done evil to me. For Yaakov loved Rachel more than Leah; for Leah's eyes were weak but her form was very pretty; but Rachel had beautiful eyes and a beautiful form.

6 And Lavan said to Yaakov: It is not so done in our country, to give the younger before the elder. And it is not right to do this; for so it is ordained and written in the heavenly tablets, that no one should give his younger daughter before the elder; but the elder, one is given first and after her the younger one; and the man who does so, they set down guilt against him in the shamayim and none is tzadik that does this thing, for this deed is evil before אֱלֹהִים.

7 And command the children of Yisrael that they do not this thing; let them neither take nor give the younger before they have given the elder, for it is very wicked.

8 And Lavan said to Yaakov: Let the seven yamim of the moed of this one pass by and I shall give you Rachel, that you may serve me another seven years, that you may pasture my sheep as you did in the former week. And on the yom when the seven yamim of the moed of Leah had passed, Lavan gave Rachel to Yaakov, that he might serve him another seven years and he gave to Rachel, Bilhah, the sister of Zilpah, as a handmaid.

10 And he served yet other seven years for Rachel, for Leah had been given to him for nothing.

11 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל opened the womb of Leah and she conceived and bare Yaakov a son and he called his name Reuven on the fourteenth yom of the ninth chodesh, in the first year of the third week.

12 But the womb of Rachel was closed, for אִיִּזְרָאֵל saw that Leah was hated and Rachel loved.

13 And again Yaakov went in to Leah and she conceived and bare Yaakov a second son and he called his name Shimon, on the twenty-first of the tenth chodesh and in the third year of this week.

14 And again Yaakov went in to Leah and she conceived and bare him a third son and he called his name Lewi, in the first yom of the first chodesh in the sixth year of this week.

15 And again Yaakov went in to her and she conceived and bare him a fourth son and he called his name Yahudah, praiser of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, on the fifteenth of the third chodesh, in the first year of the fourth week.

16 And on account of all this Rachel envied Leah, for she did not bear and she said to Yaakov: Give me children; and Yaakov said: Have I withheld from you the fruits of your womb? Have I forsaken you?

17 And when Rachel saw that Leah had borne four sons to Yaakov, Reuven and Shimon and Lewi and Yahudah, she said to him: Go in to Bilhah my handmaid and she will conceive and bear a son to me.

18 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid as his isha. And he went in to her and she conceived and bare him a son and he called his name Dan, on the ninth of the sixth chodesh, in the sixth year of the third week.

19 And Yaakov went in again to Bilhah a second time and she conceived and bare Yaakov another son and Rachel called his name Naphtali, on the fifth of the seventh chodesh, in the second year of the fourth week.

20 And when Leah saw that she had become sterile and did not bear, she envied Rachel and she also gave her handmaid Zilpah to Yaakov as an isha and she conceived and bare a son and Leah called his name Gad, on the twelfth of the eighth chodesh, in the third year of the fourth week.

21 And he went in again to her and she conceived and bare him a second son and Leah called his name Asher, on the second of the eleventh chodesh, in the fifth year of the fourth week.

22 And Yaakov went in to Leah and she conceived and bare a son and she called his name Yissacar, on the fourth of the fifth chodesh, in the fourth year of the fourth week and she gave him to a nurse.

23 And Yaakov went in again to her and she conceived and bare two children, a son and a daughter and she called the name of the son Zevulon and the name of the daughter Dinah, in the seventh of the seventh chodesh, in the sixth year of the fourth week.

24 And אֱלֹהִים was gracious to Rachel and opened her womb and she conceived and bare a son and she called his name Yoseph, on the first yom of the fourth chodesh, in the sixth year in this fourth week.

25 And in the yamim when Yoseph was born, Yaakov said to Lavan: Give me my wives and sons and let me go to my abba Yitschaq and let me make a bayit; for I have completed the years in which I have served you for your two daughters and I will go to the bayit of my abba.

26 And Lavan said to Yaakov: Tarry with me for your wages and pasture my flock for me again and take your wages.

27 And they agreed with one another that he should give him as his wages those of the lambs and kids which were born black and spotted and white, these were to be his wages.

28 And all the sheep brought forth spotted and speckled and black, variously marked and they brought forth again lambs like themselves and all that were spotted were Yaakov's and those which were not were Lavan's.

29 And Yaakov's possessions multiplied exceedingly and he possessed oxen and sheep and donkeys and camels and male avadim and maid avadim.

30 And Lavan and his sons envied Yaakov and Lavan took back his sheep from him and he observed him with evil intent.

29 And it came to pass when Rachel had borne Yoseph that Lavan went to shear his sheep; for they were distant from him a three yamim journey.

2 And Yaakov saw that Lavan was going to shear his sheep and Yaakov called Leah and Rachel and spoke kindly to them that they should come with him to the land of Kanaan.

3 For he told them how he had seen everything in a dream, even all that He had spoken to him that he should return to his abba's bayit and they said: To every place where you go we will go with you.

4 And Yaakov blessed אֱלֹהֵי the Ahlohim of Yitschaq his abba and the Ahlohim of Avraham his abba's abba and he arose and mounted his wives and his children and took all his possessions and crossed the river and came to the land of Gilead and Yaakov hid his intention from Lavan and told him not.

5 And in the seventh year of the fourth week Yaakov turned his face toward Gilead in the first chodesh, on the twenty-first of it. And Lavan pursued after him and overtook Yaakov in the har of Gilead in the third chodesh, on the thirteenth of it.

6 And אֱלֹהִים did not allow him to injure Yaakov; for he appeared to him in a dream by lyla.

7 And Lavan spoke to Yaakov. And on the fifteenth of those yamim Yaakov made a moed for Lavan and for all who came with him and Yaakov swore to Lavan that yom and Lavan also to Yaakov, that neither should cross the har of Gilead to the other with evil purpose.

8 And he made there a heap for a witness; so the name of that place is called: The Heap of Witness, after this heap.

9 But before they used to call the land of Gilead the land of the Rephaim; for it was the land of the Rephaim and the Rephaim were born there; giants whose height was ten, nine and eight, down to seven cubits, from 15 feet to 10.5 feet tall.

10 And their habitation was from the land of the children of Ammon to Har Hermon and the seats of their malchut were Karnaim and Ashtaroth and Edrei and Misur and Beon.

11 And אֱלֹהִים destroyed them because of the evil of their deeds; for they were very malignant and the Amorites dwelt in their place, wicked and sinful and there is no people today which has done to the fullness all their sins and they have no longer length of chayim on the earth.

12 And Yaakov sent away Lavan and he departed into Mesopotamia, the land of the East and Yaakov returned to the land of Gilead.

13 And he passed over the Yavok in the ninth chodesh, on the eleventh of it. And on that yom Esav, his brother, came to him and he was reconciled to him and departed from him to the land of Seir but Yaakov dwelt in sukkot.

14 And in the first year of the fifth week in this Yovel he crossed the Yarden and dwelt beyond the Yarden and he pastured his sheep from the sea of the heap to Bethshan and to Dothan and to the forest of Akravim.

15 And he sent to his abba Yitschaq of all his substance, clothing and food and meat and drink and milk and butter and cheese and some dates of the valley.

16 And to his eema Rivkah also four times a year, between the times of the chodashem, between ploughing and reaping and between autumn and the rain season and between winter and spring, to the tower of Avraham.

17 For Yitschaq had returned from the Well of the Oath and gone up to the tower of his abba Avraham and he dwelt there apart from his son Esav.

18 For in the yamim when Yaakov went to Mesopotamia, Esav took to himself an isha Mahalath, the daughter of Ishmael and he gathered together all the flocks of his abba and his wives and went up and dwelt on Har Seir and left Yitschaq his abba at the Well of the Oath alone.

19 And Yitschaq went up from the Well of the Oath and dwelt in the tower of Avraham his abba on the mountains of Chebron, 20 And to that place Yaakov sent all that he did send to his abba and his eema from time to time, all they needed and they blessed Yaakov with all their lev and with all their nephesh.

30 And in the first year of the sixth week he went up to Salem, to the east of Shechem, in shalom, in the fourth chodesh.

2 And there they carried off Dinah, the daughter of Yaakov, into the bayit of Shechem, the son of Chamor, the Hivite, the sar of the land and he lay with her and defiled her and she was a little girl, a child of twelve years.

3 And he asked his abba and her brothers that she might be given to him as an isha. And Yaakov and his sons were furious because of the men of Shechem; for they had defiled Dinah, their sister and they spoke to them with evil intent and dealt deceitfully with them and beguiled them.

4 And Shimon and Lewi came unexpectedly to Shechem and executed mishpat on all the men of Shechem and slew all the men whom they found in it and left not a single one remaining in it: they slew all in violence because they had dishonored their sister Dinah.

5 And so let it not again be done from now on that a daughter of Yisrael be defiled; for mishpat is ordained in the shamayim against them that they should destroy with the sword all the men of the Shechemites because they had done shame in Yisrael.

6. And אֶרְאֵל delivered them into the hands of the sons of Yaakov that they might exterminate them with the sword and execute mishpat upon them and that it might not again be done in Yisrael, that a virgin of Yisrael should be defiled.

7 And if there is any man who wishes in Yisrael to give his daughter or his sister to any man who is of the zera of the goyim he shall surely die and they shall stone him with stones; for he has done shame in Yisrael; and they shall burn the woman with fire because she has dishonored the name of the bayit of her abba and she shall be rooted out of Yisrael.

8 And let not an adulterous and no uncleanness be found in Yisrael throughout all the yamim of the generations of the earth; for Yisrael is kadosh to אֶרְאֵל and every man who has defiled Yisrael shall surely die: they shall stone him with stones.

9 For so has it been ordained and written in the heavenly tablets regarding all the zera of Yisrael: he who defiles Yisrael shall surely die and he shall be stoned with stones.

10 And to this Torah there is no limit of yamim and no remission, nor any keporah: but the man who has defiled his daughter shall be rooted out in the midst of all Yisrael because he has given of his zera to Moloch and done impiously so as to defile it.

11 And you, Moshe, command the children of Yisrael and exhort them not to give their daughters to the goyim and not to take for their sons any of the daughters of the goyim for this is abominable before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

12 For this reason I have written for you in the Words of The Torah all the deeds of the Shechemites, which they did against Dinah and how the sons of Yaakov spoke, saying: We will not give our daughter to a man who is not in brit-milah; for that is a reproach to us.

13 And it is a reproach to Yisrael, to those who live and to those that take the daughters of the goyim; for this is unclean and abominable to Yisrael.

14 And Yisrael will not be free from this uncleanness if it has an isha of the daughters of the goyim, or has given any of its daughters to a man who is from the goyim.

15 For there will be plague upon plague and curse upon curse and every mishpat and plague and curse will come: if he does this thing, or hides his eyes from those who commit uncleanness, or those who defile the sanctuary of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, or those who profane His kadosh Name, then will the whole nation together be judged for all the uncleanness and profanity of this man.

16 And there will be no consideration of persons and no receiving at his hands of fruits and offerings and burnt offerings and fat nor the fragrance of sweet savor, so as to accept it: and so it will be for every man or woman in Yisrael who defiles the sanctuary.

17 For this reason I have commanded you, saying: Testify this testimony to Yisrael: see how the Shechemites fared and their sons: how they were delivered into the hands of two sons of Yaakov and they slew them under tortures and it was reckoned to them for tzedakah and it is written down to them for tzedakah.

18 And the zera of Lewi was chosen for the kohanut and to be Lewiym, that they might minister before אלהים, as we do, the malachim, continually and that Lewi and his sons may be blessed le-olam-va-ed; for he was zealous to execute tzedakah and mishpat and vengeance on all those who arose against Yisrael.

19 And so they inscribe as a testimony, Lewi's chen, on the heavenly tablets, blessing and tzedakah before the Ahlohim of all:

20 And we remember the tzedakah which the man fulfilled during his chayim, at all periods of the year; until a thousand generations they will record it and it will come to him and to his descendants after him and he, Lewi, has been recorded on the heavenly tablets as a chaver and a tzadik man.

21 All this account I have written for you and have commanded you to say to the children of Yisrael, that they should not commit sin nor transgress the ordinances nor break the brit which has been ordained for them but that they should fulfill it and be recorded as My chaverim.

22 But if they transgress and work uncleanness in every derech, they will be recorded on the heavenly tablets as adversaries and they will be destroyed out of the Sefer Ha-Chayim and they will be recorded in the scroll of those who will be destroyed and with those who will be rooted out of the earth.

23 And on the yom when the sons of Yaakov slew Shechem, a writing was recorded in their chen in the shamayim that they had executed tzedakah and vengeance on the sinners and it was written for a bracha.

24 And they brought Dinah, their sister, out of the bayit of Shechem and they took captive everything that was in Shechem, their sheep and their oxen and their donkeys and all their wealth and all their flocks and brought them all to Yaakov their abba.

25 And he reproached them because they had put the city to the sword for he feared those who dwelt in the land, the Kanaanites and the Perizzites.

26 And the dread of אַרְאֵל was upon all the cities which are around about Shechem and they did not rise to pursue after the sons of Yaakov; for terror had fallen upon them.

31 And on the first yom of the chodesh Yaakov spoke to all the people of his bayit saying: Purify yourselves and change your garments and let us arise and go up to Bethel, where I vowed a vow to Him on the yom when I fled from the face of Esav my brother because He has been with me and brought me into this land in shalom and put away the strange ahlahim that are among you.

2 And they gave up the strange ahlahim and that which was in their ears and which was on their necks and the idols which Rachel stole from Lavan her abba she gave wholly to Yaakov. And he burnt and broke them to pieces and destroyed them and hid them under an oak which is in the land of Shechem.

3 And he went up on the first yom of the seventh chodesh to Bethel. And he built an altar at the place where he had slept and he set up a pillar there and he sent word to his abba Yitschaq to come to him to his sacrifice and to his eema Rivkah.

4 And Yitschaq said: Let my son Yaakov come and let me see him before I die.

5 And Yaakov went to his abba Yitschaq and to his eema Rivkah, to the bayit of his abba Avraham and he took two of his sons with him, Lewi and Yahudah and he came to his abba Yitschaq and to his eema Rivkah.

6 And Rivkah came forth from the tower to the front of it to kiss Yaakov and embrace him; for her ruach had revived when she heard: Behold Yaakov your son has come; and she kissed him.

7 And she saw his two sons and she recognized them and said to him: Are these your sons, my son? and she embraced them and kissed them and blessed them, saying: In you shall the zera of Avraham become illustrious and you shall prove a bracha on the earth.

8 And Yaakov went in to Yitschaq his abba, to the chamber where he lay and his two sons were with him and he took the hand of his abba and stooping down he kissed him and Yitschaq clung to the neck of Yaakov his son and wept upon his neck.

9 And the darkness left the eyes of Yitschaq and he saw the two sons of Yaakov, Lewi and Yahudah and he said: Are these your sons, my son? For they are just like you.

10 And he said to him that they were truly his sons: And you have truly seen that they are truly my sons.

11 And they came near to him and he turned and kissed them and embraced them both together.

12 And The Ruach of Prophecy, Yahushua, came down into his mouth and he took Lewi by his right hand and Yahudah by his left.

13 And he turned to Lewi first and began to bless him first and said to him: May the Ahlohim of all, אלהים of all the ages, bless you and your children throughout all the ages.

14 And may אלהים give to you and to your zera greatness and great splendor and cause you and your zera, from among all flesh, to approach Him to serve in His sanctuary as the malachim of the presence and as the kadosh ones. Even as they, shall the zera of your sons be for splendor and greatness and kedusha and may He make them great le-olam-va-ed.

15 And they shall be shophtim and princes and chiefs of all the zera of the sons of Yaakov; they shall speak the Word of אלהים in tzedakah and they shall judge all His mishpatim in tzedakah. And they shall declare My derachot to Yaakov and My paths to Yisrael. The blessing of אלהים shall be given in their mouths to bless all the zera of the Beloved One.

16 Your eema has called your name Lewi, So justly has she called your name; you shall be joined to אלהים and be the companion of all the sons of Yaakov; let His shulchan be yours and you and your sons eat of it; and may your shulchan be full to all generations and your food fail not to all the ages.

17 And let all who hate you fall down before you and let all your adversaries be rooted out and perish; and blessed be he that blesses you and cursed be every nation that curses you.

18 And to Yahudah he said: May אלהים give you strength and power to tread down all that hate you; A sar shall you be, you and one of your sons, over the sons of Yaakov; May your name and the name of your sons go forth and traverse every land and region.

19 Then shall the goyim fear before your face and all the goyim shall quake and all the peoples shall quake. In you shall be the help of Yaakov and in you shall be found the YAHUSHA of Yisrael.

20 And when you sit on the kesay of kavod and tzedakah, There shall be great shalom for all the zera of the sons of the Beloved; Blessed be he that blesses you, So all that hate you and afflict you and curse you shall be rooted out and destroyed from the earth and be cursed.

21 And turning he kissed him again and embraced him and rejoiced greatly; for he had seen the sons of Yaakov his son indeed.

22 And he went forth from between his feet and fell down and bowed down to him and he blessed them and rested there with Yitschaq his abba that lyla and they eat and drank with simcha.

23 And he made the two sons of Yaakov sleep, the one on his right hand and the other on his left and it was counted to him for tzedakah.

24 And Yaakov told his abba everything during the lyla, how אֱלֹהִים had showed him great rachamim and how he had prospered him in all his derachot and protected him from all evil.

25 And Yitschaq blessed אֱלֹהִים the Ahlohim of his abba Avraham, who had not withdrawn his rachamim and his tzedakah from the sons of his eved Yitschaq.

26 And in the boker Yaakov told his abba Yitschaq the vow which he had vowed to אֱלֹהִים and the vision which he had seen and that he had built an altar and that everything was ready for the sacrifice to be made before אֱלֹהִים as he had vowed and that he had come back to set him on a donkey.

27 And Yitschaq said to Yaakov his son: I am not able to go with you; for I am old and not able to bear the derech: go, my son, in shalom; for I am one hundred and sixty-five years old this yom; I am no longer able to journey; set your eema on a donkey and let her go with you.

28 And I know, my son, that you have come on my account and may this yom be blessed on which you have seen me alive and I also have seen you, my son.

29 May you prosper and fulfill the vow which you have vowed; and put not off your vow; for you shall be called to account as touching the vow; now therefore make haste to perform it and may He be pleased, Who has made all things, to Whom you have vowed the vow.

30 And he said to Rivkah: Go with Yaakov your son; and Rivkah went with Yaakov her son and Devorah with her and they came to Bethel.

31 And Yaakov remembered the tefillah with which his abba had blessed him and his two sons, Lewi and Yahudah and he rejoiced and blessed אֱלֹהֵי the Ahlohim of his avot, Avraham and Yitschaq.

32 And he said: Now I know that I have an eternal tikvah- tiqvah and my sons also, before the Ahlohim of all; and so is it ordained concerning the two; and they record it as an eternal testimony to them on the heavenly tablets how Yitschaq blessed them.

32 And he abode that lyla at Bethel and Lewi dreamed that they had ordained and made him the kohen of El-Elyon אֱלֹהֵי, him and his sons le-olam-va-ed; and he awoke from his sleep and blessed אֱלֹהֵי.

2 And Yaakov rose early in the boker, on the fourteenth of this seventh chodesh and he gave a maaser of all that came with him, both of men and cattle, both of gold and every vessel and garment, yes, he gave maaser of all.

3 And in those yamim Rachel became pregnant with her son Benyamin. And Yaakov counted his sons from him upwards and to Lewi fell to the portion of אֶלְיָזָר and his abba clothed him in the garments of the kohanut and filled his hands.

4 And on the fifteenth of this chodesh, Sukkot, he brought to the altar fourteen oxen from among the cattle and twenty-eight rams and forty-nine sheep and seven lambs and twenty-one kids of the goats as a burnt-offering on the altar of sacrifice, well pleasing for a sweet savor before אֶלְיָזָר.

5 This was his offering, in consequence of the vow which he had vowed that he would give a tenth, with their fruit-offerings and their drink offerings.

6 And when the fire had consumed it, he burnt incense over them on the fire and for a thank-offering two oxen and four rams and four sheep, four male goats and two sheep of a year old and two kids of the goats; and so he did daily for seven yamim.

7 And he and all his sons and his men were eating this with simcha there during seven yamim and blessing and thanking אֶלְיָזָר, Who had delivered him out of all his tribulation and had given him his vow.

8 And he tithed all the clean animals and made a burnt sacrifice but the unclean animals he gave not to Lewi his son and he gave him all the naphsoth of the men.

9 And Lewi discharged the priestly office at Bethel before Yaakov his abba in preference to his ten brothers and he was a kohen there and Yaakov gave his vow: so he tithed again the maaser to אֶלְיָזָר and sanctified it and it became kadosh to Him.

10 And for this reason it is ordained on the heavenly tablets as a Torah for the tithing again from the maaser to eat before אֱלֹהִים from year to year, in the place where it is chosen that His Name should dwell and to this Torah there is no limit of yamim le-olam-va-ed.

11 This ordinance is written that it may be fulfilled from year to year in eating the second maaser before אֱלֹהִים in the place where it has been chosen and nothing shall remain over from it from this year to the year following.

12 For in its year shall the zera be eaten till the yamim of the gathering of the zera of the year and the wine till the yamim of the wine and the oil till the yamim of its season.

13 And all that is left of it and becomes old, let it be regarded as polluted: let it be burnt with fire, for it is unclean.

14 And so let them eat it together in the sanctuary and let them not allow it to become old.

15 And all the ma'aser of the oxen and sheep shall be kadosh to אֱלֹהִים and shall belong to his kohanim, which they will eat before Him from year to year; for so is it ordained and engraved regarding the maaser on the heavenly tablets.

16 And on the following lyla, on the twenty-second yom of this chodesh renewal, Yaakov resolved to build that place and to surround the court with a wall and to sanctify it and make it kadosh le-olam-va-ed, for himself and his children after him.

17 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to him by lyla and blessed him and said to him: Your name shall not be called Yaakov but Yisrael shall they call your name.

18 And He said to him again: I AM אֱלֹהִים, Who created the shamayim and the earth and I will increase you and multiply you exceedingly and melechim shall come forth from you and they shall judge everywhere wherever the foot of the sons of men has trodden.

19 And I will give to your zera all the earth which is under the shamayim and they shall judge all the goyim according to their desires and after that they shall get possession of the whole earth and inherit it le-olam-va-ed.

20 And He finished speaking with him and He went up from him and Yaakov looked till He had ascended into the shamayim.

21 And he saw in a vision of the lyla and behold a malach descended from the shamayim with seven tablets in his hands and he gave them to Yaakov and he read them and knew all that was written in it, which would befall him and his sons throughout all the ages.

22 And he showed him all that was written on the tablets and said to him: Do not build this place and do not make it an eternal sanctuary and do not dwell here; for this is not the place. Go to the bayit of Avraham your abba and dwell with Yitschaq your abba until the yom of the death of your abba.

23 For in Mitzrayim you shall die in shalom and in this land you shall be buried with kavod in the sepulcher of your avot, with Avraham and Yitschaq.

24 Fear not, for as you have seen and read it, so shall it all be; and write down everything as you have seen and read.

25 And Yaakov said: אף אף, how can I remember all that I have read and seen? And He said to him: I will bring all things to your remembrance.

26 And He went up from him and he awoke from his sleep and he remembered everything which he had read and seen and he wrote down all the Words which he had read and seen.

27 And he celebrated there yet another added yom and he sacrificed on it according to all that he sacrificed on the former yamim and called its name

The Addition, for this yom was added BUT the formeryamim he called The Feast.

28 And so it was manifested that it should be and it is written on the heavenly tablets: so it was revealed to him that he should celebrate it and add it to the seven yamim of the moed.

29 And its name was called The Addition Yom because that it was recorded among the yamim of the moed yamim, according to the number of the counting of the yamim of the year.

30 And in the lyla, on the twenty-third of this chodesh, Devorah, Rivkah's nurse, died and they buried her beneath the city under the oak of the river and he called the name of this place, The River of Devorah and the oak, The oak of the Mourning of Devorah.

31 And Rivkah went and returned to her bayit to his abba Yitschaq and Yaakov sent by her hand rams and sheep and male-goats that she should prepare a meal for his abba such as he desired.

32 And he went after his eema until he came to the land of Kabratan and he dwelt there.

33 And Rachel bore a son in the lyla and called his name son of my sorrow; for she suffered in giving him birth: but his abba called his name Benyamin, on the eleventh of the eighth chodesh in the first of the sixth week of this Yovel.

34 And Rachel died there and she was buried in the land of Ephratha the same is Beth-Lechem and Yaakov built a pillar on the grave of Rachel, on the road above her grave.

33 And Yaakov went and dwelt to the south of Magdala Dra'ef. And he went to his abba Yitschaq, he and Leah his isha, on the first yom of the tenth chodesh.

2 And Reuven saw Bilhah, Rachel's maid, the concubine of his abba, bathing in mayim in a secret place and he lusted for her.

3 And he hid himself at lyla and he entered the bayit of Bilhah at lyla and he found her sleeping alone on a bed in her bayit.

4 And he lay with her and she awoke and saw and behold Reuven was lying with her in the bed and she uncovered the border of her covering and seized him and cried out and discovered that it was Reuven.

5 And she was ashamed because of him and released her hand from him and he fled.

6 And she lamented because of this thing exceedingly and did not tell it to anyone.

7 And when Yaakov returned and sought her, she said to him: I am not clean for you, for I have been defiled in regards to you; for Reuven has defiled me and has lain with me in the lyla and I was asleep and did not discover it until he uncovered my skirt and slept with me.

8 And Yaakov was exceedingly angry with Reuven because he had lain with Bilhah because he had uncovered his abba's skirt.

9 And Yaakov did not approach her again because Reuven had defiled her. And as for any man who uncovers his abba's skirt, his deed is wicked exceedingly, for he is abominable before אלהים.

10 For this reason it is written and ordained on the heavenly tablets that a man should not lie with his abba's isha and should not uncover his abba's skirt, for this is unclean: they shall surely die together, the man who lies with his abba's isha and the woman also, for they have done uncleanness on the earth.

11 And there shall be nothing unclean before אלהים our Ahlohim in the nation which He has chosen for Himself as a possession.

12 And again, it is written a second time: Cursed be he who lies with the isha of his abba, for he has uncovered his abba's shame; and all the kadosh ones of אלהים said Ahmein ve Ahmein.

13 And, Moshe, command the children of Yisrael that they observe this word; for it entails a punishment of death; and it is unclean and there is no keporah le-olam-va-ed to atone for the man who has committed this, but he is to be put to death and slain and stoned with stones and rooted out from the midst of the people of אלהים our Ahlohim.

14 For to no man who does so in Yisrael is it permitted to remain alive a single yom on the earth, for he is abominable and unclean.

15 And let them not say: to Reuven was granted chayim and forgiveness after he had lain with his abba's concubine and to her also though she had a husband and her husband Yaakov, his abba, was still alive.

16 For until that time there had not been revealed the ordinance and mishpat and Torah in its completeness for all but in your yamim Moshe, it has been revealed, as a Torah for all moadem and yamim and an everlasting Torah for the everlasting generations.

17 And for this Torah there is no consummation of yamim and no keporah for it but they must both be rooted out in the midst of the nation: on the yom on which they committed it they shall slay them.

18 And you, Moshe, write it down for Yisrael that they may observe it and do according to these Words and not commit a sin to death; for אלהים our Ahlohim is Shophet, Who respects not persons and accepts not gifts. And tell them these Words of the brit, that they may hear and observe and be on their guard with respect to them and not be destroyed and rooted out of the land; for uncleanness and an abomination and a contamination and pollution are all they who commit it on the earth before our Ahlohim.

20 And there is no greater sin than the fornication which they commit on earth; for Yisrael is a kadosh nation to אלהים its Ahlohim and a nation of inheritance and a priestly and royal nation and for His own possession; and there shall no such uncleanness appear in the midst of the kadosh nation.

21 And in the third year of this sixth week Yaakov and all his sons went and dwelt in the bayit of Avraham, near Yitschaq his abba and Rivkah his eema.

22 And these were the names of the sons of Yaakov: the bacor Reuven, Shimon, Lewi, Yahudah, Yissacar, Zevulon, the sons of Leah; and the sons of Rachel, Yoseph and Benyamin; and the sons of Bilhah, Dan and Naphtali; and the sons of Zilpah, Gad and Asher; and Dinah, the daughter of Leah, the only daughter of Yaakov.

23 And they came and bowed themselves to Yitschaq and Rivkah and when they saw them they blessed Yaakov and all his sons and Yitschaq rejoiced exceedingly, for he saw the sons of Yaakov, his younger son and he blessed them.

34 And in the sixth year of this week of this forty-fourth Yovel Yaakov sent his sons to pasture their sheep and his avadim with them to the pastures of Shechem.

2 And the seven melechim of the Amorites assembled themselves together against them, to slay them, hiding themselves under the eytzim and to take their cattle as a prey.

3 And Yaakov and Lewi and Yahudah and Yoseph were in the bayit with Yitschaq their abba; for his ruach was sorrowful and they could not leave him: and Benjamin was the youngest and for this reason remained with his abba.

4 And there came the melechim of Taphu and the melechim of Aresa and the melechim of Seragan and the melechim of Selo and the melechim of Ga'as and the melechim of Bethoron and the melechim of Ma'anisakir and all those who dwell in these mountains and who dwell in the woods in the land of Kanaan.

5 And they announced this to Yaakov saying: Behold, the melechim of the Amorites have surrounded your sons and plundered their herds.

6 And he arose from his bayit, he and his three sons and all the avadim of his abba and his own avadim and he went against them with six thousand men, who carried swords.

7 And he slew them in the pastures of Shechem and pursued those who fled and he slew them with the edge of the sword and he slew Aresa and Taphu and Saregan and Selo and Amanisakir and Ga, as and he recovered his herds.

8 And he prevailed over them and imposed tribute on them that they should pay him tribute five fruit products of their land and he built Rovel and Tamnatares.

9 And he returned in shalom and made shalom with them and they became his avadim, until the yom that he and his sons went down into Mitzrayim.

10 And in the seventh year of this week he sent Yoseph to learn about the welfare of his brothers from his bayit to the land of Shechem and he found them in the land of Dothan.

11 And they dealt treacherously with him and formed a plot against him to slay him but changing their minds, they sold him to Ishmaelite merchants and they brought him down into Mitzrayim and they sold him to Potiphar, the eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief of the cooks, the kohen of the city of Elew.

12 And the sons of Yaakov slaughtered a kid and dipped the coat of Yoseph in the dahm and sent it to Yaakov their abba on the tenth of the seventh chodesh.

13 And he mourned all that lyla, the lyla before Yom Kippur, for they had brought it to him in the evening and he became feverish with mourning for his death and he said: An evil beast has devoured Yoseph; and all the members of his bayit mourned with him that yom and they were grieving and mourning with him all that yom.

14 And his sons and his daughter rose up to comfort him but he refused to be comforted for his son.

15 And on that yom Bilhah heard that Yoseph had perished and she died mourning him and she was living in Qafratef and Dinah also, his daughter, died after Yoseph had perished.

16 And there came these three mournings upon Yisrael in one chodesh, the seventh chodesh. And they buried Bilhah over against the tomb of Rachel and Dinah also his daughter, they buried there.

17 And he mourned for Yoseph one year and did not cease, for he said Let me go down to the grave mourning for my son.

18 For this reason it is ordained for the children of Yisrael that they should afflict themselves on the tenth of the seventh chodesh - on the yom that the news which made him weep for Yoseph came to Yaakov his abba - that they should make keporah for themselves on it with a young goat on the tenth yom of the seventh chodesh, once a year, for their sins; for they had grieved the affection of their abba regarding Yoseph his son.

19 And this yom has been ordained that they should grieve on it for their sins and for all their transgressions and for all their errors, so that they might cleanse themselves on that yom once a year.

20 And after Yoseph perished, the sons of Yaakov took to themselves wives. The name of Reuven's isha is Ada; and the name of Shimon's isha is Adlba'a, a Kanaanite; and the name of Lewi's isha is Malka, of the daughters of Aram, of the zera of the sons of Terach; and the name of Yahudah's isha, Betasu'el, a Kanaanite; and the name of Yissacar's isha, Hezaqa: and the name of Zevulon's isha, Ni'imman; and the name of Dan's isha, 'Egla; and the name of Naphtali's isha, Rasu'u, of Mesopotamia; and the name of Gad's isha, Maka; and the name of Asher's isha, 'lyona; and the name of Yoseph's isha, Asenath, the Mitzrite; and the name of Benyamin's isha, Iyasaka.

21 And Shimon repented and took a second isha from Mesopotamia as did his brothers.

35 And in the first year of the first week of the forty-fifth Yovel Rivkah called Yaakov, her son and commanded him regarding his abba and regarding his brother, that he should esteem them all the yamim of his chayim.

2 And Yaakov said: I will do everything as you have commanded me; for this thing will be kavod and greatness to me and tzedakah before אֲבֹתַי, that I should esteem them.

3 And you too, eema, know from the time I was born until this yom, all my deeds and all that is in my lev, that I always think tov concerning all.

4 And how then should I not do this thing which you have commanded me, that I should esteem my abba and my brother.

5 Tell me, eema, what perversity have you seen in me, that I might turn away from it, so that no rachamim will be upon me?

6 And she said to him: My son, I have not seen in you all my yamim any perversity but only tzadik mitzvoth. And yet I will tell you the emet, my son: I shall die this year and I shall not survive this year in my chayim; for I have seen in a dream the yom of my death, that I should not live beyond a hundred and fifty-five years: and behold I have completed all the yamim of my chayim which I am to live.

7 And Yaakov laughed at the words of his eema because his eema had said to him that she should die; and she was sitting opposite to him in possession of her strength and she was not infirm in her strength; for she went in and out and saw and her teeth were strong and no ailment had touched her all the yamim of her chayim.

8 And Yaakov said to her: Blessed am I, eema, if my yamim approach the yamim of your chayim and my strength remain with me as your strength: and you will not die, for you are joking with me regarding your death.

9 And she went in to Yitschaq and said to him: One petition I make to you: make Esav swear that he will not injure Yaakov, nor pursue him with enmity; for you know Esav's thoughts that they are perverse from his youth and there is no tov in him; for he desires after your death to kill him.

10 And you know all that he has done since the yom Yaakov his brother went to Charan until this yom: how he has forsaken us with his whole lev and has done evil to us; your flocks he has taken to himself and carried off all your possessions from before your face.

11 And when we implored and sought him for what was our own, he did as a man who was taking pity on us.

12 And he is bitter against you because you did bless Yaakov your perfect and upright son; for there is no evil but only tov in him and since he came from Charan to this yom he has not robbed us of anything, for he brings us everything in its season always and rejoices with all his lev when we take from his hands and he blesses us and has not departed from us since he came from Charan until this yom and he remains with us continually at home giving us kavod.

13 And Yitschaq said to her: I, too, know and see the deeds of Yaakov who is with us, how that with all his lev he gives us kavod; but I loved Esav formerly more than Yaakov because he was the bachor; but now I love Yaakov more than Esav, for he has done manifold evil deeds and there is no tzedakah in him, for all his halachot are unrighteousness and violent and there is no tzedakah around him.

14 And now my lev is troubled because of all his deeds and neither he nor his zera is to be saved, for they are those who will be destroyed from the earth and who will be rooted out from under the shamayim, for he has forsaken אֱלֹהֵי אָבִיו the Ahlohim of Avraham and gone after the idolatry of his pagan wives and after their uncleanness and after their error, he and his children.

15 And you ask me to make him swear that he will not slay Yaakov his brother? Even if he swears, he will not abide by his oath and he will not do tov but evil only.

16 But if he desires to slay Yaakov, his brother, into Yaakov's hands will he be given and he will not escape from his hands, for he will descend into his hands.

17 And fear not on account of Yaakov; for the Guardian of Yaakov is great and powerful and esteemed and praised more than the guardian of Esav.

18 And Rivkah sent and called Esav and he came to her and she said to him: I have a petition, my son, to make to you and do promise to do it, my son.

19 And he said: I will do everything that you say to me and I will not refuse your petition.

20 And she said to him: I ask you that the yom I die, you will take me in and bury me near Sarah, your abba's eema and that you and Yaakov will love each other and that neither will desire evil against the other but have mutual love only and so you will prosper, my sons and be with kavod in the midst of the land and no enemy will rejoice over you and you will be a bracha of rachamim, in the eyes of all those that have ahava for you.

21 And he said: I will do all that you have told me and I shall bury you on the yom you die near Sarah, my abba's eema, as you have desired that her bones may be near your bones.

22 And Yaakov, my brother, also, I shall love above all flesh; for I have not a brother in all the earth but him only: and this is no great merit for me if I love him; for he is my brother and we were sown together in your goff and together came we forth from your womb and if I do not love my brother, whom shall I love?

23 And I, myself, beg you to exhort Yaakov concerning me and concerning my sons, for I know that he will assuredly be melech over me and my sons, for on the yom my abba blessed him, he made him the higher one and me the lower one.

24 And I swear to you that I shall love him and not desire evil against him all the yamim of my chayim but tov only.

25 And he swore to her regarding all this matter. And she called Yaakov before the eyes of Esav and gave him a commandment according to the words which she had spoken to Esav.

26 And he said: I shall do your pleasure; believe me that no evil will proceed from me or from my sons against Esav and I shall be first in nothing but in love only.

27 And they eat and drank, she and her sons that lyla and she died, three Yovleem and one week and one year old, on that lyla and her two sons, Esav and Yaakov, buried her in the double cave Machpelah near Sarah, their abba's eema.

36 And in the sixth year of this week Yitschaq called his two sons Esav and Yaakov and they came to him and he said to them: My sons, I am going the derech of my avot, to the eternal bayit where my avot are.

2 So bury me near Avraham my abba, in the double cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, where Avraham purchased a sepulcher to bury in; in the sepulcher which I dug for myself, there bury me.

3 And this I command you, my sons, that you practice tzedakah on the earth, so that אֱלֹהִים may bring upon you all that אֱלֹהִים said that he would do to Avraham and to his zera.

4 And love one another, my sons, your brothers as a man who loves his own nephesh and let each seek in what derech he may benefit his brother and act together on the earth; and let them love each other as their own naphsoth.

5 And concerning the question of idols, I command and admonish you to reject them and hate them and love them not, for they are full of deception for those that worship them and for those that bow down to them.

6 Remember my sons, אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Avraham your abba and how I too worshipped Him and served Him in tzedakah and in simcha, that He might multiply you and increase your zera as the cochavim of the shamayim in multitude and establish you on the earth, as the plant of tzedakah which will not be rooted out to all the generations le-olam-va-ed.

7 And now I shall make you swear a great oath, as אף אף lives, for there is no oath which is greater than it by The Name, magnificent and full of kavod, great and splendid, wonderful and mighty, Which created the shamayim and the earth and all things together; that you will fear Him and worship Him only. And that each will love his brother with affection and tzedakah and that neither will desire evil against his brother from now on le-olam-va-ed all the yamim of your chayim, so that you may prosper in all your deeds and not be destroyed.

8 And if either of you devises evil against his brother, know that from now on everyone that devises evil against his brother shall fall into His Hand and shall be rooted out of the land of the living and his zera shall be destroyed from under the shamayim.

9 But on the yom of turbulence and cursing and indignation and anger, with flaming devouring fire as He burnt Sedom, so likewise will He burn his land and his city and all that is his and he shall be blotted out of the scroll of the discipline of the children of men and not be recorded in the scroll of chayim but in that which is appointed to destruction; and he shall depart into eternal cursing; so that their condemnation may be always renewed in hate and in cursing and in wrath and in torment and in indignation and in plagues and in disease le-olam-va-ed.

10 I say and testify to you, my sons, according to this mishpat, which shall come upon the man who wishes to injure his brother.

11 And he divided all his possessions between the two on that yom and he gave the larger portion to him that was the bacor and the tower and all that was about it and all that Avraham possessed at the Well of the Oath.

12 And he said: This larger portion I will give to the bachor.

13 And Esav said, I have sold to Yaakov and given my bechora to Yaakov; to him let it be given and I have not a single word to say regarding it, for it is his.

14 And Yitschaq said, May a bracha rest upon you, my sons and upon your zera this yom, for you have given me shalom and my lev is not pained concerning the bechora, lest you should work wickedness on account of it.

15 May El-Elyon אלהים bless the man that works tzedakah, him and his zera le-olam-va-ed.

16 And he ended commanding them and blessing them and they ate and drank together before him and he rejoiced because there was one mind between them and they went forth from him and rested that yom and slept.

17 And Yitschaq slept on his bed that yom rejoicing; and he slept the eternal sleep and died one hundred and eighty years old.

18 He completed twenty-five weeks and five years;

19 And his two sons Esav and Yaakov buried him.

20 And Esav went to the land of Edom, to the mountains of Seir and dwelt there.

21 And Yaakov dwelt in the mountains of Chebron, in the tower of the land of the sojourning of his abba Avraham and he worshipped אלהים with all his lev and according to the visible mitzvoth, according as He had divided the yamim of his generations.

22 And Leah his isha died in the fourth year of the second week of the forty-fifth Yovel and he buried her in the double cave near Rivkah his eema to the left of the grave of Sarah, his abba's eema.

23 And all her sons and his sons came to mourn over Leah his isha with him and to comfort him regarding her,

24 For he was lamenting her, for he loved her exceedingly after Rachel her sister died; for she was perfect and upright in all her halachot and gave Yaakov kavod all the yamim that she lived with him; he did not hear from her mouth a harsh word, for she was gentle and peaceful and upright and had great kavod.

25 And he remembered all her deeds which she had done during her chayim and he lamented her exceedingly; for he loved her with all his lev and with all his nephesh.

37 And on the yom that Yitschaq the abba of Yaakov and Esav died, the sons of Esav heard that Yitschaq had given the portion of the elder to his younger son Yaakov and they were very angry.

2 And they strove with their abba, saying Why has your abba given Yaakov the portion of the elder and passed over you, although you are the elder and Yaakov the younger?

3 And he said to them Because I sold my bechora to Yaakov for a small mess of lentils and on the yom my abba sent me to hunt and catch and bring him something that he should eat and bless me, he came with guile and brought my abba food and drink and my abba blessed him and put me under his hand.

4 And now our abba has caused us to swear, me and him, that we shall not mutually devise evil, either against his brother and that we shall continue in love and in shalom each with his brother and not make our derachot corrupt.

5 And they said to him, We shall not listen to you to make shalom with him; for our strength is greater than his strength and we are more powerful than he is; we shall go against him and slay him and destroy him and his sons. And if you will not go with us, we shall do harm to you also.

6 And now listen to us: Let us send to Aram and Philistia and Moab and Ammon and let us choose for ourselves chosen men who are ardent for battle and let us go against him and do battle with him and let us exterminate him from the earth before he grows strong.

7 And their abba said to them, Do not go and do not make war with him lest you fall before him.

8 And they said to him, This too, is exactly your mode of action from your youth until this yom and you are putting your neck under his yoke. We shall not listen to these words.

9 And they sent to Aram and to Aduram to the chaver of their abba and they hired along with them one thousand fighting men, chosen men of war.

10 And there came to them from Moab and from the children of Ammon, those who were hired, one thousand chosen men and from Philistia, one thousand chosen men of war and from Edom and from the Horites one thousand chosen fighting men and from the Kittim mighty men of war.

11 And they said to their abba: Go forth with them and lead them or else we shall slay you.

12 And he was filled with wrath and indignation on seeing that his sons were forcing him to go before them to lead them against Yaakov his brother. But afterwards he remembered all the evil which lay hidden in his lev against Yaakov his brother;

13 And he remembered not the oath which he had sworn to his abba and to his eema that he would devise no evil all his yamim against Yaakov his brother.

14 And notwithstanding all this, Yaakov knew not that they were coming against him to battle and he was mourning for Leah his isha, until they approached very near to the tower with four thousand warriors and chosen men of war.

15 And the men of Chebron sent to him saying, Behold your brother has come against you, to fight you, with four thousand with the sword and they carry shields and weapons; for they loved Yaakov more than Esav. So they told him; for Yaakov was a more liberal and merciful man than Esav.

16 But Yaakov would not believe it until they came very near to the tower.

17 And he closed the gates of the tower; and he stood on the battlements and spoke to his brother Esav and said, Noble is the comfort with which you have come to comfort me for my isha who has died. Is this the oath that you did swear to your abba and again to your eema before they died? You have broken the oath and the moment that you did swear to your abba were you condemned.

18 And then Esav answered and said to him, Neither the children of men nor the beasts of the earth have any oath of tzedakah which in swearing they have sworn a valid oath le-olam-va-ed; but every yom they devise evil one against another and how each may slay his adversary and foe.

19 And you do hate me and my children le-olam-va-ed. And there is no observing the tie of brotherhood with you.

20 Hear these words which I declare to you, If the boar can change its skin and make its bristles as soft as wool, or if it can cause horns to sprout forth on its head like the horns of a stag or of a sheep, then will I observe the tie of brotherhood with you; and if the breasts separated themselves from their eema, for you have not been a brother to me.

21 And if the wolves make shalom with the lambs so as not to devour or do them violence and if their levavot are towards them for tov, then there shall be shalom in my lev towards you.

22 And if the lion becomes the chaver of the ox and makes shalom with him and if he is bound under one yoke with him and ploughs with him, then will I make shalom with you.

23 And when the raven becomes white as the raza, then know that I have loved you and shall make shalom with you. You shall be rooted out and your sons shall be rooted out and there shall be no shalom for you.

24 And when Yaakov saw that he was so wickedly disposed towards him with his lev and with all his nephesh, as to slay him and that he had come springing like the wild boar, which comes upon the spear that pierces and kills it and recoils not from it;
25 Then he spoke to his own and to his avadim that they should attack him and all his companions in self defense.

38 And after that Yahudah spoke to Yaakov, his abba and said to him: Bend your bow, abba and send forth your arrows and cast down the adversary and slay the enemy; and may you have the power, for we shall not slay your brother, for he is such as you and he is like you let us give him this kavod.

2 Then Yaakov bent his bow and sent forth the arrow and struck Esav, his brother on his right breast and slew him.

3 And again he sent forth an arrow and struck Adoran the Aramaean, on the left breast and drove him backward and slew him.

4 And then went forth the sons of Yaakov, they and their avadim, dividing themselves into companies on the four sides of the tower.

5 And Yahudah went forth in front and Naphtali and Gad with him and fifty avadim with him on the south side of the tower and they slew all they found before them and not one individual of them escaped.

6 And Lewi and Dan and Asher went forth on the east side of the tower and fifty men with them and they slew the fighting men of Moab and Ammon.

7 And Reuven and Yissacar and Zevulon went forth on the north side of the tower and fifty men with them and they slew the fighting men of the Philistines.

8 And Shimon and Benjamin and Chanok, Reuven's son, went forth on the west side of the tower and fifty men with them and they slew of Edom and of the Horites four hundred men, stout warriors; and six hundred fled and four of the sons of Esav fled with them and left their abba lying slain, as he had fallen on the hill which is in Aduram.

9 And the sons of Yaakov pursued after them to the mountains of Seir. And Yaakov buried his brother on the hill which is in Aduram and he returned to his bayit.

10 And the sons of Yaakov pressed hard upon the sons of Esav in the mountains of Seir and bowed their necks so that they became avadim of the sons of Yaakov.

11 And they sent to their abba to inquire, whether they should make shalom with them or slay them.

12 And Yaakov sent word to his sons that they should make shalom and they made shalom with them and placed the yoke of servitude upon them, so that they paid tribute to Yaakov and to his sons always.

13 And they continued to pay tribute to Yaakov until the yom that he went down into Mitzrayim.

14 And the sons of Edom have not got quit the yoke of servitude which the twelve sons of Yaakov had imposed on them until this yom.

15 And these are the melechim that reigned in Edom before there reigned any melech over the children of Yisrael until this yom in the land of Edom.

16 And Bela, the son of Beor, reigned in Edom and the name of his city was Danava.

17 And Bela died and Jobav, the son of Zara of Boser, reigned in his place.

18 And Jobav died and Asam, of the land of Teman, reigned in his place.

19 And Asam died and Adath, the son of Barad, who slew Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place and the name of his city was Avith.

20 And Adath died and Salman, from Amaseqa, reigned in his place.

21 And Salman died and Shaul of Ra'avot by the river, reigned in his place.

22 And Shaul died and Ba'elunan, the son of Achvor, reigned in his place.

23 And Ba'elunan, the son of Achbor died and Adath reigned in his place; and the name of his isha was Maitavith, the daughter of Matarat, the daughter of Metabedza'ab.

24 These are the melechim who reigned in the land of Edom.

39 And Yaakov dwelt in the land of his abba's sojourning in the land of Kanaan.

2 These are the generations of Yaakov. And Yoseph was seventeen years old when they took him down into the land of Mitzrayim and Potiphar, a eunuch of Pharaoh, the chief cook bought him.

3 And he set Yoseph over all his bayit and the blessing of אֱלֹהִים came upon the bayit of the Mitzrite on account of Yoseph and אֱלֹהִים prospered him in all that he did.

4 And the Mitzrite committed everything into the hands of Yoseph; for he saw that אֱלֹהִים was with him and that אֱלֹהִים prospered him in all that he did.

5 And Yoseph's appearance was comely and very beautiful was his appearance and his master's isha lifted up her eyes and saw Yoseph and she loved him and asked him to lie with her.

6 But he did not surrender his nephesh and he remembered אֱלֹהִים and the words which Yaakov, his abba, used to read from among the words of Avraham, that no man should commit fornication with a woman who has a husband; that for him the punishment of death has been ordained in the shamayim before El-Elyon אֱלֹהִים and the sin will be recorded against him in the eternal scrolls continually before אֱלֹהִים.

7 And Yoseph remembered these words and refused to lie with her.

8 And she sought him for a year but he refused and would not listen.

9 But she embraced him and held him fast in the bayit in order to force him to lie with her and closed the doors of the bayit and held him fast; but he left his garment in her hands and broke through the door and fled without from her presence.

10 And the woman saw that he would not lie with her and she accused him in the presence of his adon, saying Your Ivri eved, whom you love, sought to force me sexually so that he might lie with me; and it came to pass when I lifted up my voice that he fled and left his garment in my hands when I held him and he broke the door.

11 And the Mitzrite saw the garment of Yoseph and the broken door and heard the words of his isha and cast Yoseph into prison into the place where the prisoners were kept whom the melech imprisoned.

12 And he was there in the prison; and אִתּוֹ gave Yoseph chen in the sight of the chief of the prison guards and rachamim before him, for he saw that אִתּוֹ was with him and that אִתּוֹ made all that he did to prosper.

13 And he committed all things into his hands and the chief of the prison guards knew of nothing that was with him, for Yoseph did everything and אִתּוֹ perfected it.

14 And he remained there two years. And in those yamim Pharaoh, melech of Mitzrayim was angry against his two eunuchs, against the chief butler and against the chief baker; and he put them in the ward, in the ward of the chief cook, in the prison where Yoseph was kept.

15 And the chief of the prison guards appointed Yoseph to serve them; and he served before them.

16 And they both dreamed a dream, the chief butler and the chief baker and they told it to Yoseph.

17 And as he interpreted it to them so it befell them and Pharaoh restored the chief butler to his office and the chief baker he slew, as Yoseph had interpreted to them.

18 But the chief butler forgot Yoseph in the prison, although he had informed him what would befall him and did not remember to inform Pharaoh how Yoseph had told him, for he forgot.

40 And in those yamim Pharaoh dreamed two dreams in one lyla concerning a famine which was to be in all the land and he awoke from his sleep and called all the interpreters of dreams that were in Mitzrayim and magicians and told them his two dreams and they were not able to declare them.

2 And then the chief butler remembered Yoseph and spoke of him to the melech and he brought him forth from the prison and he told his two dreams before him.

3 And he said before Pharaoh that his two dreams were echad and he said to him: Seven years shall come in which there shall be plenty over all the land of Mitzrayim; and after that seven years of famine, such a famine as has not been in all the land.

4 And now let Pharaoh appoint overseers in all the land of Mitzrayim and let them store up food in every city throughout the yamim of the years of plenty and there will be food for the seven years of famine and the land will not perish through the famine, for it will be very severe.

5 And אִתָּאָנִי gave Yoseph chen and rachamim in the eyes of Pharaoh and Pharaoh said to his avadim. We shall not find such a wise and discreet man as this man, for The Ruach of אִתָּאָנִי is with him.

6 And he appointed him second in his malchut and gave him authority over all of Mitzrayim and caused him to ride in the second chariot of Pharaoh.

7 And he clothed him with kingly garments and he put a gold chain upon his neck and a herald proclaimed before him El, El Wa Abirer and placed a ring on his hand and made him ruler over all his bayit and magnified him and said to him. Only regarding the kesay shall I be greater than you.

8 And Yoseph ruled over all the land of Mitzrayim and all the princes of Pharaoh and all his avadim and all who did the melech's business loved him for he walked in tzedakah for he was without pride and arrogance and he had no respect of persons and did not accept bribes but he judged in tzedakah all the people of the land.

9 And the land of Mitzrayim was in shalom before Pharaoh because of Yoseph, for אִתּוֹ was with him and gave him chen and rachamim for all his generations before all those who knew him and those who heard about him and Pharaoh's malchut was well ordered and there was no demonic beings influencing the land and no evil person in it.

10 And the melech called Yoseph's name Sephantiphans and gave Yoseph an isha the daughter of Potiphar, the daughter of the pagan kohen of Heliopolis, the chief cook.

11 And on the yom that Yoseph stood before Pharaoh he was thirty years old.

12 And in that year Yitschaq died. And it came to pass as Yoseph had said in the interpretation of his two dreams, according as he had said it, there were seven years of plenty over all the land of Mitzrayim and the land of Mitzrayim abundantly produced, one measure producing eighteen hundred measures.

13 And Yoseph gathered food into every city until they were full of grain until they could no longer count and measure it for its multitude.

41 And in the forty-fifth Yovel, in the second week in the second year, Yahudah took for his bacor Er, an isha from the daughters of Aram, named Tamar.

2 But he hated and did not lie with her because his eema was of the daughters of Kanaan and he wished to take him an isha from the kinsfolk of his eema but Yahudah, his abba, would not permit him.

3 And this Er, the bacor of Yahudah, was wicked and אִתּוֹ slew him.

4 And Yahudah said to Onan, his brother Go in to your brother's isha and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her and raise up zera to your brother.

5 And Onan knew that the zera would not be his but his brother's only and he went into the bayit of his brother's isha and spilled the zera on the ground and he was wicked in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים and He slew him.

6 And Yahudah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law: Remain in your abba's bayit as a widow till Shelach my son is grown up and I shall give you to him as an ish.

7 And he grew up; but Bedsu'el, the isha of Yahudah, did not permit her son Shelach to marry.

8 And Bedsu'el, the isha of Yahudah, died in the fifth year of this week. And in the sixth year Yahudah went up to shear his sheep at Timnah.

9 And they told Tamar: Behold your abba-in-law goes up to Timnah to shear his sheep. And she put off her widow's clothes and put on a veil and adorned herself and sat in the gate on the derech to Timnah.

10 And as Yahudah was going along he found her and thought her to be a harlot and he said to her: Let me come in to you; and she said to him Come in and he went in to her.

11 And she said to him: Give me my hire; and he said to her: I have nothing in my hand except my ring that is on my finger and my necklace and my staff which is in my hand.

12 And she said to him, Give them to me until you do send me my hire and he said to her: I will send to you a kid of the goats; and he gave them to her and she conceived by him.

13 So Yahudah went to his sheep and she went to her abba's bayit.

14 And Yahudah sent a kid of the goats by the hand of his shepherd, an Adullamite and he found her not; and he asked the people of the place, saying: Where is the harlot who was here?

15 And they said to him; There is no harlot here with us. And he returned and informed him and said to him that he had not found her: I asked the people of the place and they said to me: There is no harlot here.

16 And he said: Let her keep them lest we become a cause of derision. And when she had completed three chodashem, it was manifest that she was with child and they told Yahudah, saying: Behold Tamar, your daughter-in-law, is with child by whoredom.

17 And Yahudah went to the bayit of her abba and said to her abba and her brothers: Bring her forth and let them burn her, for she has done uncleanness in Yisrael.

18 And it came to pass when they brought her forth to burn her that she sent to her abba-in-law the ring and the necklace and the staff, saying: Discern whose are these, for by him am I with child.

19 And Yahudah acknowledged and said: Tamar is more tzadik than I am. And therefore let them burn her not.

20 And for that reason she was not given to Shelach,

21 And he did not again approach her; and after that she bare two sons, Peretz and Zerach, in the seventh year of this second week.

22 And then the seven years of fruitfulness were accomplished of which Yoseph spoke to Pharaoh.

23 And Yahudah acknowledged that the deed which he had done was evil, for he had lain with his daughter in law and he esteemed it hateful in his eyes and he acknowledged that he had transgressed and gone astray, for he had uncovered the skirt of his deceased son and he began to lament and to supplicate before אֱלֹהֵי אָבִי because of his transgression.

24 And we malachim told him in a dream that it was forgiven him because he supplicated earnestly and lamented and did not again commit whoredom.

25 And he received forgiveness because he turned from his sin and from his ignorance, for he transgressed greatly before אלהים our Ahlohim; and everyone that acts like that, everyone who lies with his daughter in law, married and not a widow, let them burn him with fire, that he may burn in it, for there is uncleanness and pollution upon them, with eternal fire let them burn them.

26 And you command the children of Yisrael that there be no uncleanness among them, for anyone who lies with his daughter in law, married and not a widow, or with his eema in law, married and not a widow, has done uncleanness; with fire let them burn the man who has lain with her and likewise the woman and He will turn away wrath and punishment from Yisrael.

27 And to Yahudah we malachim said that his two sons had not lain with her and for this reason his zera was established for a second generation and would not be rooted out.

28 For in singleness of eye he had gone and sought for punishment, namely, according to the mishpat of Avraham, which he had commanded his sons, Yahudah had sought to burn her with fire.

42 And in the first year of the third week of the forty-fifth Yovel the famine began to come into the land and the rain refused to be given to the earth, for none fell.

2 And the earth grew barren but in the land of Mitzrayim there was food, for Yoseph had gathered the zera of the land in the seven years of plenty and had preserved it.

3 And the Mitzrites came to Yoseph that he might give them food and he opened the storehouses where there was the grain of the first year and he sold it to the people of the land for gold.

4 And Yaakov heard that there was food in Mitzrayim and he sent his ten sons that they should procure food for him in Mitzrayim; but Benyamin he did not send and they arrived among those that went there.

5 And Yoseph recognized them but they did not recognize him; and he spoke to them and questioned them and he said to them; Are you not spies and have you not come to explore the roads of the land?

6 And he put them in prison. And after that he set them free again and detained Shimon alone and sent off his nine brothers.

7 And he filled their sacks with grain and he put their gold in their sacks and they did not know it.

8 And he commanded them to bring their younger brother, for they had told him their abba was living and their younger brother as well.

9 And they went up from the land of Mitzrayim and they came to the land of Kanaan; and they told their abba all that had befallen them and how the adon of the country had spoken roughly to them and had seized Shimon until they should bring Benyamin.

10 And Yaakov said: Me have you bereaved of my children. Yoseph is not and Shimon also is not and now you will take Benyamin away? On me has your wickedness come.

11 And he said: My son will not go down with you lest he fall sick; for their eema gave birth to two sons; and one has perished and this one also you will take from me. If for example he took a fever on the road, you would bring down my old age with sorrow to death.

12 For he saw that their money had been returned to every man in his sack and for this reason he feared to send him.

13 And the famine increased and became sore in the land of Kanaan and in all lands except in the land of Mitzrayim, for many of the children of the Mitzrites had stored up their zera for food from the time when they saw Yoseph gathering zera together and putting it in storehouses and preserving it for the years of famine.

14 And the people of Mitzrayim fed themselves on it during the first year of their famine.

15 But when Yisrael saw that the famine was very sore in the land and that there was no deliverance, he said to his sons: Go again and buy food for us that we die not.

16 And they said: We shall not go; unless our youngest brother goes with us, we shall not go.

17 And Yisrael saw that if he did not send him with them, they should all perish by reason of the famine

18 And Reuven said: Give him into my hand and if I do not bring him back to you, slay my two sons instead of his nephesh.

19 And he said to him: He shall not go with you. And Yahudah came near and said: Send him with me and if I do not bring him back to you, let me bear the blame before you all the yamim of my chayim.

20 And he sent him with them in the second year of this week on the first yom of the chodesh and they came to the land of Mitzrayim with all those who went and they had presents in their hands, stacte, almonds, terebinth nuts and pure honey.

21 And they went and stood before Yoseph and he saw Benyamin his brother and he recognized him and said to them: Is this your youngest brother? And they said to him: It is he. And he said אֲרָאֶה be kind to you, my son.

22 And he sent him into his bayit and he brought forth Shimon to them and he made a feast for them and they presented to him the gift which they had brought in their hands.

23 And they eat before him and he gave them all a portion but the portion of Benyamin was seven times larger than that of any of theirs.

24 And they ate and drank and arose and remained with their donkeys.

25 And Yoseph devised a plan by which he might learn their thoughts as to whether thoughts of shalom prevailed among them and he said to the steward who was over his bayit: Fill all their sacks with food and return their money to them into their vessels; and my cup, the silver cup out of which I drink, put it in the sack of the youngest and send them away.

43 And he did as Yoseph had told him and filled all their sacks for them with food and put their money in their sacks and put the cup in Benyamin's sack.

2 And early in the boker they departed and it came to pass that, when they had gone from there, Yoseph said to the steward of his bayit: Pursue them, run and seize them, saying, For tov you have repaid me with evil; you have stolen from me the silver cup out of which my adon drinks. And bring back to me their youngest brother and fetch him quickly before I go forth to my seat of mishpat.

3 And he ran after them and said to them according to these words.

4 And they said to him: אִי אֵנִי forbid that your avadim should do this thing and steal from the bayit of your adon any utensil and the money also which we found in our sacks the first time, we your avadim brought back from the land of Kanaan.

5 How then and why should we steal any utensil?
Behold here we are and our sacks; search and wherever you find the cup in the sack of any man among us, let him be slain and we and our donkeys will serve your adon.

6 And he said to them: Not so, the man with whom I find it, him only shall I take as an eved and you shall return in shalom to your bayit.

7 And as he was searching in their vessels, beginning with the eldest and ending with the youngest, it was found in Benyamin's sack.

8 And they tore their garments and loaded their donkeys and returned to the city and came to the bayit of Yoseph and they all bowed themselves on their faces to the ground before him.

9 And Yoseph said to them: You have done evil. And they said: What shall we say and how shall we defend ourselves? Our adon has discovered the transgression of his avadim; behold we are the avadim of our adon and our donkeys also.

10 And Yoseph said to them: I too fear אֶתְאֶנִּי; as for you; go to your homes and let your brother be my eved, for you have done evil. Know you not that a man delights in his cup, as I with this cup?

11 And yet you have stolen it from me. And Yahudah said: O my adon, let your eved, I ask, speak a word in my adon's ear; two brothers did your eved's eema bear to our abba: one went away and was lost and has not been found and this one alone is left of his eema and your eved our abba loves him and his chayim also is bound up with the chayim of this lad.

12 And it will come to pass, when we go to your eved our abba and the lad is not with us, that he will die and we shall bring down our abba with sorrow to death.

13 Now rather let me, your eved, abide instead of the boy as a bondsman to my adon and let the lad go with his brethren, for I became guarantor for him at the hand of your eved our abba; and if I do not bring him back, your eved will bear the blame to our abba le-olam-va-ed.

14 And Yoseph saw that they were all behaving tov with one another and he could not refrain himself and he told them that he was Yoseph.

15 And he conversed with them in the Ivrit tongue and fell on their neck and wept.

16 But they knew him not and they began to weep. And he said to them: Weep not over me but hurry and bring my abba to me; and you see that it is my mouth that speaks and the eyes of my brother Benyamin see.

17 For behold this is the second year of the famine and there are,

18 Still five years without harvest or fruit of eytzim or ploughing. Come down quickly, you and your households, so that you perish not through the famine and do not be grieved about your possessions, for אֶרֶץ sent me before you to set things in order that many people might live.

19 And tell my abba that I am still alive and you see that אֶרֶץ has made me as an abba to Pharaoh and ruler over his bayit and over all the land of Mitzrayim.

20 And tell my abba of all my splendor and all the riches and splendor that אֶרֶץ has given me.

21 And by the command of the mouth of Pharaoh he gave them mirkavot and provisions for the derech and he gave them all multi colored raiment and silver.

21 And to their abba he sent raiment and silver and ten donkeys which carried grain and he sent them away.

23 And they went up and told their abba that Yoseph was alive and was measuring out grain to all the goyim of the earth and that he was ruler over all the land of Mitzrayim.

24 And their abba did not believe it, for he was beside himself in his mind; but when he saw the wagons which Yoseph had sent, the chayim of his ruach revived and he said: It is enough for me if Yoseph lives; I will go down and see him before I die.

44 And Yisrael took his journey from Charan from his bayit on the first yom of the third chodesh and he went on the derech of the Well of the Oath and he offered a sacrifice to אלהים the Ahlohim of his abba Yitschaq on the seventh of this chodesh.

2 And Yaakov remembered the dream that he had seen at Bethel and he feared to go down into Mitzrayim.

3 And while he was thinking of sending word to Yoseph to come to him and that he would not go down, he remained there seven yamim, if perhaps he could see a vision as to whether he should remain or go down.

4 And he celebrated the harvest moed of the first-fruits with old grain, for in all the land of Kanaan there was not a handful of zera in the land, for the famine was over all the beasts and cattle and birds and also over man.

5 And on the sixteenth אלהים appeared to him and said to him, Yaakov, Yaakov; and he said, Here am I, Hinayne.

6 And He said to him: I AM אלהים the Ahlohim of your avot, the Ahlohim of Avraham and Yitschaq; fear not to go down into Mitzrayim, for I will there make of you a great nation; I will go down with you and I will bring you up again and in this land shall you be buried and Yoseph shall put his hands upon your eyes. Fear not; go down into Mitzrayim.

7 And his sons rose up and his son's sons and they placed their abba and their possessions upon wagons.

8 And Yisrael rose up from the Well of the Oath on the sixteenth of this third chodesh and he went to the land of Mitzrayim.

9 And Yisrael sent Yahudah before him to his son Yoseph to examine the land of Goshen, for Yoseph had told his brothers that they should come and dwell there that they might be near him.

10 And this was the best land in the land of Mitzrayim and near to him, for all of them and also for the cattle.

11 And these are the names of the sons of Yaakov who went into Mitzrayim with Yaakov their abba; Reuven, the bachor of Yisrael;

12 And these are the names of his sons Chanok and Pallu and Chetzron and Carmi-five.

13 Shimon and his sons; and these are the names of his sons: Yemuel and Yamin and Ohad and Yachin and Zohar and Shaul, the son of the Zephasite woman-seven.

14 Lewi and his sons; and these are the names of his sons: Gershon and Kohat and Merari-four.

Yahudah and his sons; and these are the names of his sons: Shelach and Peretz and Zerach-four.

15 Yissachar and his sons; and these are the names of his sons: Tola and Phua and Yashuv and Shimron-five.

17 Zevulon and his sons; and these are the names of his sons: Sered and Elon and Yahleel-four.

18 And these are the sons of Yaakov and their sons whom Leah bore to Yaakov in Mesopotamia, six and their one sister, Dinah and all the naphsoth of the sons of Leah and their sons, who went with Yaakov their abba into Mitzrayim, were twenty-nine and Yaakov their abba being with them, they were thirty.

19 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, the isha of Yaakov, who bore to Yaakov, Gad and Ashur.

20 And there are the names of their sons who went with him into Mitzrayim. The sons of Gad: Ziphion and Chaggi and Shuni and Ezbon, Eri and Areli and Arodi-eight.

21 And the sons of Asher: Imnah and Ishvah and Ishvi and Beriyah and Serah, their one sister-six.

22 All the naphsoth were fourteen and all those of Leah were forty-four.

23 And the sons of Rachel, the isha of Yaakov: Yoseph and Benyamin.

24 And there were born to Yoseph in Mitzrayim before his abba came into Mitzrayim, those whom Asenath, daughter of Potiphar pagan kohen of Heliopolis bare to him, Manasseh and Ephraim-three.

25 And the sons of Benyamin: Bela and Becher and Ashvel, Gera and Naaman and Ehi and Rosh and Muppim and Chuppim and Ard-eleven.

26 And all the naphsoth of Rachel were fourteen.

27 And the sons of Bilhah, the handmaid of Rachel, the isha of Yaakov, whom she bare to Yaakov, were Dan and Naphtali.

28 And these are the names of their sons who went with them into Mitzrayim. And the sons of Dan were Chushim and Samon and Asudi and Iyaka and Salomon-six.

29 And they died the year in which they entered into Mitzrayim and there was left to Dan, Chushim alone.

30 And these are the names of the sons of Naphtali Yahziel and Guni and Yezer and Shallum and Iv.

31 And Iv, who was born after the years of famine, died in Mitzrayim.

32 And all the naphsoth of Rachel were twenty-six.

33 And all the naphsoth of Yaakov which went into Mitzrayim were seventy naphsoth. These are his children and his children's children, in all seventy but five died in Mitzrayim before Yoseph and had no children.

34 And in the land of Kanaan two sons of Yahudah died, Er and Onan and they had no children and the children of Yisrael buried those who perished and they were reckoned among the seventy non Yisraelite goyim.

45 And Yisrael went into the country of Mitzrayim, into the land of Goshen, on the first yom of the fourth chodesh, in the second year of the third week of the forty-fifth Yovel.

2 And Yoseph went to meet his abba Yaakov, to the land of Goshen and he fell on his abba's neck and wept.

3 And Yisrael said to Yoseph: Now let me die since I have seen you and now may אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael be blessed; the Ahlohim of Avraham and the Ahlohim of Yitschaq, who has not withheld His rachamim and His free unmerited pardon from His eved Yaakov.

4 It is enough for me that I have seen your face while I am yet alive; yes, emet is the vision which I saw at Bethel. Blessed be אלהים my Ahlohim le-olam-va-ed and blessed be His Name.

5 And Yoseph and his brothers ate lechem before their abba and drank wine and Yaakov rejoiced with exceeding great simcha because he saw Yoseph eating with his brothers and drinking before him and he blessed The Creator of all things, Who had preserved him and had preserved for him his twelve sons.

6 And Yoseph had given to his abba and to his brothers as a gift the right of dwelling in the land of Goshen and in Rameses and all the regions round about, which he ruled over before Pharaoh. And Yisrael and his sons dwelt in the land of Goshen, the best part of the land of Mitzrayim and Yisrael was one hundred and thirty years old when he came into Mitzrayim.

7 And Yoseph nourished his abba and his brethren and also their possessions with lechem as much as they desired for the seven years of the famine.

8 And the land of Mitzrayim suffered by reason of the famine and Yoseph acquired all the land of Mitzrayim for Pharaoh in return for food and he got possession of the people and their cattle and everything for Pharaoh.

9 And the years of the famine were accomplished and Yoseph gave to the people in the land zera and food that they might sow the land in the eighth year, for the river had overflowed all the land of Mitzrayim.

10 For in the seven years of the famine it had not overflowed and had irrigated into only a few places on the banks of the river but now it overflowed.

11 And the Mitzrites sowed the land and it bore much grain that year. And this was the first year of the fourth week of the forty-fifth Yovel.

12 And Yoseph took of the grain of the harvest, the fifth part for the melech and left four parts for them for food and for zera and Yoseph made it an ordinance for the land of Mitzrayim until this yom.

13 And Yisrael lived in the land of Mitzrayim seventeen years and all the yamim which he lived were three Yovleem, one hundred and forty-seven years and he died in the fourth year of the fifth week of the forty-fifth Yovel.

14 And Yisrael blessed his sons before he died and told them everything that would befall them in the land of Mitzrayim; and he made known to them what would come upon them in the yamim ha-acharonim and blessed them and gave to Yoseph two portions in the land of Kanaan.

15 And he slept with his avot and he was buried in the double cave-Machpelah in the land of Kanaan, near Avraham his abba in the grave which he dug for himself in the double cave Machpelah in the land of Chebron.

16 And he gave all his scrolls and the scrolls of his avot to Lewi his son that he might preserve them and renew them for his children until this yom.

46 And it came to pass that after Yaakov died the children of Yisrael multiplied in the land of Mitzrayim and they became a great nation and they were of one accord in lev, so that brother loved brother and every man helped his brother and they increased abundantly and multiplied exceedingly, ten weeks of years, all the yamim of the chayim of Yoseph.

2 And there was no demonic control nor any evil all the yamim of the chayim of Yoseph which he lived after his abba Yaakov, for all the Mitzrites esteemed the children of Yisrael, all the yamim of the chayim of Yoseph.

3 And Yoseph died being a hundred and ten years old; seventeen years he lived in the land of Kanaan and ten years he was an eved and three years in prison and eighty years he was under the melech, ruling all the land of Mitzrayim.

4 And he died and all his brethren and all that generation.

5 And he commanded the children of Yisrael before he died that they should carry his bones with them when they went forth from the land of Mitzrayim.

6 And he made them swear regarding his bones, for he knew that the Mitzrites would not again bring forth and bury him in the land of Kanaan, for Makamaron, melech of Kanaan, while dwelling in the land of Ashur, fought in the valley with the melech of Mitzrayim and slew him there and pursued after the Mitzrites to the gates of Ermon.

7 But he was not able to enter, for another, a new melech, had become melech of Mitzrayim and he was stronger than Makamaron and so he returned to the land of Kanaan and the gates of Mitzrayim were closed and none went out and none came into Mitzrayim.

8 And Yoseph died in the forty sixth Yovel, in the sixth week, in the second year and they buried him in the land of Mitzrayim and all his brethren died after him.

9 And the melech of Mitzrayim went forth to war with the melech of Kanaan in the forty-seventh Yovel, in the second week in the second year and the children of Yisrael brought forth all the bones of the children of Yaakov except the bones of Yoseph and they buried them in the field in the double cave Machpelah in the har.

10 And the most of them returned to Mitzrayim but a few of them remained in the mountains of Chebron and Amram your abba remained with them.

11 And the melech of Kanaan was victorious over the melech of Mitzrayim and he closed the gates of Mitzrayim.

12 And he devised an evil device against the children of Yisrael of afflicting them.

13 And he, the new leader of Mitzrayim said to the people of Mitzrayim: Behold the people of the children of Yisrael have increased and multiplied more than us. Come and let us deal wisely with them before they become too many and let us afflict them with avdooth before war comes upon us and before they too fight against us; or else they will join themselves to our enemies and get up out of our land, for their levavot and faces are always towards the land of Kanaan.

14 And he set over them taskmasters to afflict them with avdooth; and they built strong cities for Pharaoh, Pithom and Raamses and they built all the walls and all the fortifications which had fallen in the cities of Mitzrayim.

15 And they made them serve with rigor and the more they dealt wickedly with them, the more they increased and multiplied. And the people of Mitzrayim developed great hate for the children of Yisrael.

47 And in the seventh week, in the seventh year, in the forty seventh Yovel, your abba went forth from the land of Kanaan and you were born in the fourth week, in the sixth year of it, in the forty-eighth Yovel; this was the time of great tribulation on the children of Yisrael.

2 And Pharaoh, melech of Mitzrayim, issued a command regarding them that they should cast all their male children which were born into the river.

3 And they cast them in for seven chodashem until the yom that you were born.

4 And your eema hid you for three chodashem and they told regarding her. And she made a tayvah for you and covered it with pitch and asphalt and placed it in the flags on the bank of the river and she placed you in it seven yamim and your eema came by lyla and nursed you and by yom Miryam, your sister, guarded you from the birds.

5 And in those yamim Tharmuth, the daughter of Pharaoh, came to bathe in the river and she heard your voice crying and she told her maidens to bring you forth and they brought you to her.

6 And she took you out of the tayvah and she had rachamim on you.

7 And your sister said to her: Shall I go and call one of the Ivri women to nurse and nurture this baby for you?

8 And she said to her: Go. And she went and called your eema Yochebed and she gave her wages and she nursed you.

9 And afterwards, when you were grown up, they brought you to the daughter of Pharaoh and you became her son and Amram your abba taught you writing and after you had completed three weeks they brought you into the royal court.

10 And you were three weeks of years at court until the time when you did go forth from the royal court and did see a Mitzrite smiting your chaver who was of the children of Yisrael and you did slay him and hid him in the sand.

11 And on the second yom you did see two of the children of Yisrael striving together and you did say to him who was doing the wrong: Why do you smite your brother?

12 And he was angry and indignant and said: Who made you a sar and a shophet over us? Will you kill me as you killed the Mitzrite yesterday? And you did fear and fled on account of these words.

48 And in the sixth year of the third week of the forty ninth Yovel you did depart to dwell in the land of Midian, five weeks and one year. And you did return into Mitzrayim in the second week in the second year in the fiftieth Yovel.

2 And you yourself know what He spoke to you on Har Senai and what sar Mastema desired to do with you when you were returning into Mitzrayim.

3 Did he not with all his power seek to slay you and deliver the Mitzrites out of your hand when he saw that you were sent to execute mishpat and vengeance on the Mitzrites?

4 And I delivered you out of his hand and you did perform the signs and wonders which you were sent to perform in Mitzrayim against Pharaoh and against all his bayit and against his avadim and his people.

5 And I אֱלֹהִים executed a great vengeance on them for Yisrael's sake and smote them through the plagues of dahm and frogs, lice and dog-flies and malignant boils breaking forth in blains; and their cattle by death; and by hail-stones, thereby He destroyed everything that grew for them; and by locusts which devoured the residue which had been left by the hail and by darkness; and by the death of the bacor of men and animals and on all their idols I אֱלֹהִים took vengeance and burned them with fire.

6 And everything was sent through your hand that you should declare these things before they were done and you did speak with the melech of Mitzrayim before all his avadim and before his people.

7 And everything took place according to your words; ten great and terrible mishpatim came on the land of Mitzrayim that you might execute vengeance on it for Yisrael.

8 And I אֱלֹהִים did everything for Yisrael's sake and according to His brit, which he had ordained with Avraham that He would take vengeance on them, as they had brought them by force into bondage.

9 And the sar Mastema stood up against you and sought to cast you into the hands of Pharaoh and he helped the Mitzrite sorcerers,

10 And they stood up and did before you the evils; indeed we permitted them to work but the remedies we did not allow to be done by their hands.

11 And I אֶפְרַיִם smote them with malignant ulcers and they were not able to stand, for we destroyed them so that they could not perform a single ot.

12 And notwithstanding all these signs and wonders the sar Mastema was not put to shame because he took courage and cried to the Mitzrites to pursue after you with all the powers of the Mitzrites, with their mirkavot and with their horses and with all the hosts of the peoples of Mitzrayim.

13 And I stood between the Mitzrites and Yisrael and We delivered Yisrael out of his hand and out of the hand of his people and I אֶפְרַיִם brought them through the midst of the sea as if it were dry land.

14 And all the peoples whom he brought to pursue after Yisrael, I אֶפְרַיִם our Ahlohim cast them into the midst of the sea, into the depths of the abyss beneath the children of Yisrael, even as the people of Mitzrayim had cast their children into the river. He took vengeance on 1,000,000 of them and one thousand strong and energetic men were destroyed, on account of each suckling of the children of your people which they had thrown into the river.

15 And on the fourteenth yom and on the fifteenth and on the sixteenth and on the seventeenth and on the eighteenth the sar Mastema was bound and imprisoned behind the children of Yisrael that he might not accuse them.

16 And on the nineteenth We let them loose that they might help the Mitzrites and pursue the children of Yisrael.

17 And he hardened their levavot and made them stubborn and the device was devised by אֶפְרַיִם our Ahlohim that He might smite the Mitzrites and cast them into the sea.

18 And on the fourteenth, We bound him that he might not accuse the children of Yisrael on the yom when they asked the Mitzrites for vessels and garments, vessels of silver and vessels of gold and vessels of bronze, in order to spoil the Mitzrites in return for the bondage in which they had forced them to serve.

19 And We did not lead forth the children of Yisrael from Mitzrayim empty handed.

49 Remember the mitzvah which I אֱלֹהִים commanded you concerning the Pesach, that you should celebrate it in its season on the fourteenth of the first chodesh, that you should kill it before it is evening and that they should eat it by lyla on the same evening to the fifteenth from the time of the setting of the shemesh.

2 For on this lyla-the beginning of the moed and the beginning of the simcha - you were eating the Pesach in Mitzrayim, when all the powers of Mastema had been let loose to slay all the bachorim in the land of Mitzrayim, from the bachor of Pharaoh to the bachor of the captive eved in the mill and to the cattle.

3 And this is the ot which I אֱלֹהִים gave them: into every bayit on the lintels of which they saw the dahm of a lamb of the first year, into that bayit they should not enter to kill but should pass-over it, that all those should be saved that were in the bayit because the ot of the dahm that was on its lintels.

4 And the powers of אֱלֹהִים did everything according as אֱלֹהִים commanded them and they passed by all the children of Yisrael and the plague came not upon them to destroy from among them, any nephesh either of cattle or man or dog.

5 And the plague was very grievous in Mitzrayim and there was no bayit in Mitzrayim where there was not at least one dead with weeping and lamentation.

6 And all Yisrael was eating the flesh of the Pesach Lamb and drinking the wine and were praising, blessing and giving hodu to אלהים Ahlohim of their avot and were ready to go forth from under the yoke of Mitzrayim and from the evil bondage.

7 And remember this yom all the yamim of your chayim and observe it from year to year, all the yamim of your chayim, once a year, on its yom, according to all The Torah written and do not cease from celebrating it on the exact yom and the exact chodesh, Aviv 14.

8 For it is an eternal ordinance and engraved on the heavenly tablets regarding all the children of Yisrael that they should observe it every year on its yom, once a year, throughout all their generations; and there is no end to this ordinance, for this is ordained le-olam-va-ed.

9 And the man who is free from uncleanness and does not come to observe it on occasion of its yom, so as to bring an acceptable offering before אלהים and to eat and to drink before אלהים on the yom of its moed, that man who is clean and close at hand, shall be cut off: because he offered not the offering of אלהים in its appointed moed, he shall take the guilt upon himself.

10 Let the children of Yisrael come and observe the Pesach on the yom of its fixed time, on the fourteenth yom of the first chodesh, between the evenings, beyn ha-arbayem, from the third part of the yom to the third part of the lyla, for two portions of the yom are given to the ohr and a third part to the evening.

11 This is that which I אֱלֹהִים commanded you that you should observe it between the evenings, beyn ha-arbayem.

12 And it is not permissible to slay it during any period of the ohr but during the period bordering on the evening; and let them eat it at the time of the evening, until the third part of the lyla; and whatever is left over of all its flesh from the third part of the lyla and onwards, let them burn it with fire.

13 And they shall not cook it with mayim, nor shall they eat it raw but roast on the fire: they shall eat it with diligence, its head with the inwards of it and its feet they shall roast with fire and not break any bone of it; for of the children of Yisrael no bone shall be crushed.

14 For this reason I אֱלֹהִים commanded the children of Yisrael to observe the Pesach on the yom of its fixed time and they shall not break a bone of it; for it is a moed yom and also a yom commanded, so that there may be no changing its yom and chodesh le-olam-va-ed but on the yom of its moed, let it be observed.

15 And command the children of Yisrael to observe the Pesach throughout their yamim, every year, once a year on the yom of its fixed time; and it shall become for a memorial, well pleasing before אֱלֹהִים and no plague shall come upon them, to slay them or to smite them in that year in which they celebrate the Pesach in its season, in every detail according to His command.

16 And they shall not eat it outside the sanctuary of אֱלֹהִים but before the sanctuary of אֱלֹהִים and all the people of the kehilla of Yisrael shall celebrate it in its appointed season.

17 And every man who has come upon its yom shall eat it in the sanctuary of your Ahlohim before אֱלֹהִים from twenty years old and upward; for so is it written and ordained that they should eat it in the sanctuary of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

18 And when the children of Yisrael come into the land which they are to possess, into the land of Kanaan and set up the sukkah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ in the midst of the land, in one of their tribes until the Beit HaMikdash of אֱלֹהֵינוּ has been built in the land, let them come and celebrate the Pesach in the midst of the Mishkan of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and let them kill it before אֱלֹהֵינוּ from year to year.

19 And in the yamim when the Beit HaMikdash has been built in The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ in the land of their inheritance, they shall go there and kill the Pesach in the evening, at sunset, at the third part of the yom.

20 And they shall offer its dahm on the threshold of the altar and shall place its fat on the fire which is upon the altar and they shall eat its flesh roasted with fire in the court of the Beit HaMikdash which will be sanctified in The Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

21 And they may not celebrate the Pesach in their cities, nor in any place except before the Mishkan of אֱלֹהֵינוּ or before His Beit HaMikdash where His Name will dwell; and so they shall not go astray from אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

22 And you, Moshe, command the children of Yisrael to observe the ordinances of the Pesach, as it was commanded to you; declare to them every year the yom and also the yamim of Chag Matzoth, that they should eat only matzah seven yamim and that they should observe its moed and that they bring a sacrifice every yom during those seven yamim of simcha before אֱלֹהֵינוּ on the altar of אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim.

23 For you celebrated this moed with haste when you went forth from Mitzrayim until you entered into the midbar of Shur; for on the shore of the sea you completed it.

50 And after this Torah I made known to you the yamim of the Shabbats in the desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Senai.

2 And I told you of the Shabbats of the land on Har Senai and I told you of the Yovel years in the Shabbats of years: but the year of it have I not told you until you enter the land which you are to possess.

3 And the land also shall keep its Shabbats when they dwell upon it and they shall know the Yovel year.

4 So I have ordained for you the year-weeks and the years and the Yovleem: there are forty nine Yovleem from the yamim of Ahdam until this yom and one week and two years: and there are yet forty years to come for learning the mitzvoth of אִרְאֵל, until they pass over into the land of Kanaan, crossing the Yarden to the west.

5 And the Yoveleem shall continue, until Yisrael is cleansed from all guilt of fornication and uncleanness and pollution and sin and error and dwells with confidence in all the land; and there shall be no more s.a.tan or any evil one; and the land shall be clean from that time le-olam-va-ed.

6 And behold the mitzvoth regarding the Shabbats - I have written them down for you - and all the mishpatim of its instructions.

7 Six yamim shall you labor but on the seventh yom is the Shabbat of אִרְאֵל your Ahlohim. In it you shall do no manner of work, you and your sons and your men-avadim and your maid-avadim and all your cattle and the ger also who is with you.

8 And the man that does any work on it shall die: whoever desecrates that yom, whoever lies with his isha, or whoever says he will do something on it, that he will set out on a journey on it in regard to any buying or selling: and whoever draws mayim on it which he had not prepared for himself on the sixth yom and whoever takes up any burden to carry it out of his tent or out of his bayit shall die.

9 You shall do no work whatsoever on the Shabbat Yom, except what you have already prepared for yourselves on the sixth yom, so as to eat and drink and rest and keep Shabbat free from all work on that yom and to bless אלהיך your Ahlohim, who has given you a yom of moed and a kadosh yom: and a yom of the kadosh malchut for all of Yisrael is this yom among their yamim, le-olam-va-ed.

10 For great is the kavod which אלהיך has given to Yisrael that they should eat and drink and be satisfied on this moed yom and rest on it from all their labors which belongs to the labors of the children of men; except burning frankincense and bringing oblations and sacrifices before אלהיך for yamim and for Shabbats.

11 This work alone shall be done on the Shabbat yamim, in the sanctuary of אלהיך your Ahlohim; that they may atone for Yisrael with sacrifices continually from yom to yom, for a memorial, well pleasing before אלהיך and that He may receive them always from yom to yom according as you have been commanded.

12 And every man who does any work on it, or goes on a journey, or tills his farm, whether in his bayit or any other place and whoever lights a fire, or rides on any beast or travels by ship on the sea, or by air and whoever strikes or kills anything or slaughters a beast or a bird or whoever catches an animal or a bird or a fish or whoever fasts or makes war on the Shabbats:

13 The man who does any of these things on the Shabbat shall die, so that the children of Yisrael shall observe the Shabbats according to the mitzvoth regarding the Shabbats of the land, as it is written in the heavenly tablets, which He gave into my hands, that I should write out for you the laws of the moadem and the moadem times, according to the division of their yamim. Here then is completed the account of the division of the yamim. X

First Maccabees-

Macabeem Alef

- 1 And it happened, after that Alexander son of Philip, the Makedonian, who came out of the erez of the Chittim, had smitten Daryawesh melech of the Persians and Medes, that he reigned in his place, the first over Greece,
- 2 And made many wars and won many strongholds and slew the melechim of the olam,
- 3 And went through to the ends of the olam and took spoils of many goyim, so that the olam was quiet before him; then he was exalted and his lev was lifted up.
- 4 And he gathered a mighty strong army and ruled over countries and goyim and melechim, who became avadim to him.
- 5 And after these things he fell sick and perceived that he should die.
- 6 So he called his avadim, such as were estimable and had been brought up with him from his youth and parted his malchut among them, while he was yet alive.
- 7 So Alexander reigned twelve years and then died.
- 8 And his avadim bore rule everyone in his place.
- 9 And after his death they all put crowns upon themselves and so did their sons after them many years: and evils were multiplied in the olam.
- 10 And there came out of them a wicked root, Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, son of Antiochus the melech, who had been a hostage at Rome and he reigned in the one hundred thirty seventh year of the malchut of the Greeks.

11 In those yamim there went out of Yisrael wicked men, who persuaded many, saying, Let us go and make a brit with the goyim that are around us: for since we departed from them we have had much sorrow.

12 So this plan pleased them well.

13 Then certain of the people were so bold in doing so, that they went to the melech, who gave them freedom to do after the ordinances of the goyim:

14 Then they built a place of worship at Yahrushalayim according to the customs of the goyim:

15 And made themselves akrobustia, and forsook the set apart brit and joined themselves to the goyim and sold themselves to do mischief.

16 Now when the malchut was established before Antiochus, he thought to reign over Mitzrayim that he might have the dominion of two realms.

17 So he entered into Mitzrayim with a great multitude, with chariots and elephants and horsemen and a great navy, 18 And made war against Ptolemy melech of Mitzrayim: but Ptolemy was afraid of him and fled; and many were wounded to death.

19 So they got the strong cities in eretz Mitzrayim and he took the spoils of it.

20 And after that Antiochus had smitten Mitzrayim, he returned again in the hundred and forty third year and went up against Yisrael and Yahrushalayim with a great multitude,

21 And entered proudly into the Makom Kadosh and took away the golden altar and the menorah and all the vessels of it,

22 And the shulchan of the lechem ha panayim and the pouring vessels and the vials. and the censers of gold and the veil and the keter and the golden ornaments that were before the Beit HaMikdash, all which he pulled off.

23 He took also the silver and the gold and the precious vessels: also he took the hidden treasures which he found.

24 And when he had taken all away, he went into his own land, having made a great massacre and spoken very proudly.

25 Therefore there was a great mourning in Yisrael, in every place where they were;

26 So that the princes and zechanim mourned, the virgins and young men were made feeble and the beauty of women was changed.

27 Every bridegroom took up lamentation and she who sat in the marriage chamber was in heaviness, 28 The erez also was moved for the inhabitants of it and all Beit Yaakov was covered with confusion.

29 And after two years fully expired the melech sent his chief collector of taxes to the cities of Yahudah, who came to Yahrushalayim with a great multitude,

30 And spoke words of shalom to them but it was all deceit: for when they had given him credence, he suddenly attacked the city and smote it very sorely and destroyed many of Yisrael.

31 And when he had taken the spoils of the city, he set it on fire and pulled down the houses and walls of it on every side.

32 But the women and children they took captive and possessed the cattle.

33 Then they built the city of Dawid with a great and strong wall and with mighty towers and made it a stronghold for them.

34 And they put in it a sinful nation, wicked men and fortified themselves in it.

35 They stored it also with armor and provisions and when they had gathered together the spoils of

Yahrushalayim, they laid them up there and so they became a sore snare:

36 For it was a place to lie in wait against the Makom Kadosh and an evil adversary to Yisrael.

37 So they shed innocent dahm on every side of the Makom Kadosh and defiled it:

38 Insomuch that the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim fled because of them: them the city was made a dwelling for gerim and became strange to those who were born in her; and her own children left her.

39 Her Makom Kadosh was laid waste like a midbar, her moadem were turned into mourning, her Shabbats into reproach and her esteem into contempt.

40 As had been her kavod, so was her contempt increased and her excellency was turned into mourning.

41 Moreover melech Antiochus wrote to his whole malchut, that all should be one people, 42 And everyone should leave his Torot: so all the goyim agreed according to the mitzvah of the melech.

43 Yes, many also of the Yisraelites consented to his religion, and sacrificed to idols and profaned the Shabbat.

44 For the melech had sent letters by messengers to Yahrushalayim and the cities of Yahudah that they should follow his strange laws,

45 And forbid burnt offerings and sacrifice and drink offerings, in the Beit HaMikdash; and that they should profane the Shabbats and moadem:

46 And pollute the Makom Kadosh and set apart people:

47 Set up altars and groves and chapels of idols and sacrifice swine's flesh and unclean beasts:

48 That they should also not brit-milah their children and make their beings abominable with all manner of uncleanness and profanation:

49 So that they might forget The Torah and change all the mishpatim.

50 And whoever would not do according to the orders of the melech, should die.

51 In like manner wrote he to his whole malchut and appointed overseers over all the people, commanding the cities of Yahudah to sacrifice, city by city.

52 Then many of the people were gathered to them; everyone that forsook The Torah; and so they committed evils in the erez;

53 And drove the Yisraelites into secret places, even wherever they could flee for help.

54 Now the fifteenth yom of the ninth chodesh, in the hundred forty fifth year, they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar and built idol altars throughout the cities of Yahudah on every side;

55 And burnt incense at the doors of their houses and in the streets.

56 And when they had torn in pieces The Torah scrolls which they found, they burnt them with fire.

57 And whoever was found with any book of the brit or if any committed to The Torah, the melech's order was that they should put him to death.

58 So they did by their authority to the Yisraelites every chodesh, to as many as were found in the cities.

59 Now the twenty-fifth yom of the chodesh they sacrificed on the idol altar, which was upon the altar of אִלְלֵאֵל.

60 At which time according to the mitzvah they put to death certain women, who had caused their children to be made brit-milah.

61 And they hung the infants around their necks and rifled their houses and slew them who had made them brit-milah.

62 However many in Yisrael were fully resolved and confirmed in themselves not to eat any unclean thing.

63 Therefore they chose rather to die, that they might not be defiled with unclean foods and that they might not profane the set apart brit: so then they died.

64 And there was very great wrath upon Yisrael.

2 In those yamim arose Mattityahu the son of Yochanan, the son of Shimon, a kohen of the sons of Yoariv, from Yahrushalayim, who dwelt in Modin.
2 And he had five sons, Yahuchanan, called Caddis:
3 Shimon; called Thassi:
4 Yahudah, who was called Maccabee:
5 El-Azar, called Avaran: and Yahunatan, whose surname was Apphus.
6 And when he saw the blasphemies that were committed in Yahudah and Yahrushalayim,
7 He said, Woe is me. why was I born to see this misery of my people and of the set apart city and to dwell there, when it was delivered into the hand of the enemy and the Makom Kadosh into the hand of strangers?
8 Her Beit HaMikdash is become as a man without kavod.
9 Her wonderful vessels are carried away into captivity, her infants are slain in the streets, her young men with the sword of the enemy.
10 What nation has not had a part in her malchut and gotten of her spoils?
11 All her ornaments are taken away; instead of a free woman she has become an eved.

12 And, behold, our Makom Kadosh, even our beauty and our kavod, is laid waste and the goyim have profaned it.

13 To what purpose therefore shall we live any longer?

14 Then Mattityahu and his sons tore their clothes, put on sackcloth and mourned very sorely.

15 In the meantime the melech's officers, such as compelled the people to revolt, came into the city Modin, to make them sacrifice.

16 And when many of Yisrael came to them, Mattityahu also and his sons came together.

17 Then answered the melech's officers and spoke to Mattityahu like this: You are a ruler and an estimable great man in this city, strengthened with sons and brothers:

18 Now therefore you go first and fulfill the melech's mitzvah, like all the goyim have done, yes and the men of Yahudah also and such as remain at Yahrushalayim: so shall you and your bayit be in the number of the melech's chaverim and you and your children shall be esteemed with silver and gold and many rewards.

19 Then Mattityahu answered and spoke with a loud voice, Though all the goyim that are under the melech's dominion obey him and fall away everyone from the emunah of their ahvot and give consent to his orders:

20 Yet will I and my sons and my brothers walk in the brit of our ahvot.

21 אִי־אֵלֵינוּ forbid that we should forsake The Torah and the ordinances.

22 We will not listen to the melech's words, to leave our emunah, either to the right or left.

23 Now when he had left speaking these words, there came one of the Yahudim in the sight of all to sacrifice on the altar which was at Modin, according to the melech's mitzvah.

24 Which thing when Mattityahu saw, was inflamed with zeal and his kidneys trembled, neither could he hide his anger according to mishpat: therefore he ran and slew him upon the altar.

25 Also the melech's commissioner, who compelled men to sacrifice, he killed at that time and the altar he pulled down.

26 So he behaved zealously for The Torah of אִתְּךָ, like Pinchus did to Zimri the son of Salu.

27 And Mattityahu cried throughout the city with a loud voice, saying, Whoever is zealous for The Torah and maintains the brit, let him follow me.

28 So he and his sons fled into the mountains and left all that they had in the city.

29 Then many who sought after justice and mishpat went down into the midbar, to dwell there:

30 Both they and their children, their wives and their cattle because afflictions increased greatly upon them.

31 Now when it was told the melech's avadim and the army that was at Yahrushalayim in the city of Dawid that certain men had violated the melech's order and were gone down into the secret places in the midbar, 32 They pursued after them with a great number and having overtaken them, they camped against them and made war against them on the Shabbat yom.

33 And they said to them, Let that which you have done so far be enough; come forth and do according to the order of the melech and you shall live.

34 But they said, We will not come forth, neither will we do the melech's order, to profane the Shabbat yom.

35 So then they gave them freedom to attack.
36 However they answered them not, neither cast a stone at them, nor closed the places where they hid;
37 But said, Let us die all in our innocence: the shamayim and the olam will testify for us, that you put us to death wrongfully.
38 So they rose up against them in battle on the Shabbat and they slew them, with their wives and children and their cattle, about a thousand people.
39 Now when Mattityahu and his chaverim understood that, they mourned deeply for them.
40 And one of them said to another, If we all do as our brothers have done and fight not for our lives and Torot against the goyim, they will now quickly root us out of the olam.
41 At that time therefore they decreed, saying, Whoever shall come to make battle with us on the Shabbat yom, we will fight against him; neither will we all die, as our brothers that were murdered in the secret places.
42 Then there came to him a company of Chasidim who were mighty men of Yisrael, even all such as were zealous for The Torah.
43 Also all those who fled from persecution joined themselves to them and were support for them.
44 So they joined their forces and smote sinful men in their anger and wicked men in their wrath: but the rest fled to the goyim for help.
45 Then Mattityahu and his chaverim went all around and pulled down the altars:
46 And whatever children they found within the coast of Yisrael who were not brit-milah, those they made brit-milah valiantly.
47 They pursued also after the proud men and the work prospered in their hand.

48 So they recovered The Torah out of the hand of the goyim and out of the hand of melechim, neither did they allow the sinners to triumph.

49 Now when the time drew near that Mattityahu should die, he said to his sons, Now has pride and rebuke gotten strength and the time of destruction and the wrath of indignation:

50 Now therefore, my sons, be zealous for The Torah and give your lives for the brit of your ahvot.

51 Call to remembrance what acts our ahvot did in their time; so shall you receive great esteem and an everlasting name.

52 Was not Avraham found faithful in trials and it was counted to him for tzedakah?

53 Yoseph in the time of his distress kept the mitzvah and was made adon of Mitzrayim.

54 Pinchus our abba in zeal and fervor obtained the brit of an everlasting kohanut.

55 Husha ben Nun for fulfilling the Word, was later made a shophet in Yisrael.

56 Kaleb for bearing witness before the kehilla received the heritage of the eretz.

57 Dawid for being merciful possessed the kesay of an everlasting malchut.

58 Eliyahu for being zealous and fervent for The Torah was taken up into the shamayim.

59 Chananyah, Azaryah and Misha'el, by believing, were saved out of the flame.

60 Daniyel for his innocence was delivered from the mouth of lions.

61 And so consider that throughout all ages, none who put their trust in אֱלֹהִים shall be overcome.

62 Fear not then the words of a sinful man: for his esteem shall be dung and worms.

63 This yom he shall be lifted up by death and tomorrow he shall not be found because he is returned to dust and his thoughts will come to nothing.

64 So, you my sons, be valiant and show yourselves men on behalf of The Torah; for by it shall you obtain kavod.

65 And behold, I know that your brother Shimon is a man of counsel, give ear to him always: he shall be like an abba to you.

66 As for Yahudah Maccabee, he has been mighty and strong, even from his youth up: let him be your captain and fight the battle of the people.

67 Take also with you all those who observe The Torah and avenge the wrong of your people.

68 Recompense fully the goyim and take heed to the mitzvoth of The Torah.

69 So he blessed them and was gathered to his ahvot.

70 And he died in the hundred and forty sixth year and his sons buried him in the sepulchers of his ahvot at Modin and all Yisrael made great lamentation for him.

3 Then his son Yahudah, called Maccabee, rose up in his place.

2 And all his brothers helped him and so did all they who held with his abba and they fought with cheerfulness the battles of Yisrael.

3 So he got his people great esteem and put on a breastplate as a giant and wrapped his warlike harness about him and he made battles, protecting the army with his sword.

4 In his acts he was like a lion and like a lion's whelp roaring for his prey.

5 For He pursued the wicked and sought them out and burnt up those who vexed his people.

6 So the wicked shrunk for fear of him and all the workers of iniquity were troubled because salvation prospered in his hand.

7 He grieved also many melechim and made Yaakov glad with his acts and his memory is blessed le-olam-va-ed.

8 Moreover he went through the cities of Yahudah, destroying the evil ones out of them and turning away wrath from Yisrael:

9 So that he was renowned to the utmost parts of the olam and he received such as were ready to perish.

10 Then Apollonius gathered the goyim together and a great army out of Shomron, to fight against Yisrael.

11 Which, when Yahudah perceived it, he went forth to meet him and so he smote him and slew him: many also fell down slain and the rest fled.

12 Therefore Yahudah took their spoils and Apollonius' sword also and he fought with it all his chayim long.

13 Now when Seron, a sar of the army of Syria, heard that Yahudah had gathered a multitude and company of the faithful to go out with him to war;

14 He said, I will get myself a name and esteem in the malchut; for I will go fight with Yahudah and they who are with him, who despise the melech's orders.

15 So he made him ready to go up and there went with him a mighty army of the wicked ones to help him and to be avenged on the b'nai Yisrael.

16 And when he came near to the going up to Beth Horon, Yahudah went forth to meet him with a small company:

17 Who, when they saw the army coming to meet them, said to Yahudah, How shall we be able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude and so strong, seeing we are ready to faint with fasting all this yom?

18 To whom Yahudah answered, It is no hard matter for the many to be destroyed by the hands of a few; and with אַף־אֶזְרָא of the shamayim it is all one needs, to deliver with a great multitude, or a small company:

19 For the victory of battle stands not in the multitude of an army but strength comes from the shamayim.

20 They come against us in much pride and iniquity to destroy us, our wives and children and to spoil us:

21 But we fight for our lives and our Torot.

22 So אַף־אֶזְרָא Himself will overthrow them before our face: and as for you, be not afraid of them.

23 Now as soon as he had stopped speaking, he leapt suddenly upon them and so Seron and his army was overthrown before him.

24 And they pursued them from the going down of Beth Horon to the plain, where about eight hundred men of them were slain; and the remainder fled into the land of the Plishtim.

25 Then the fear and an exceeding great dread of Yahudah and his brothers began to fall upon the goyim all round them:

26 So much so that his fame came to the melech and all the goyim talked of the battles of Yahudah.

27 Now when melech Antiochus heard these things, he was full of indignation: so he sent and gathered together all the forces of his realm, even a very strong army.

28 He opened also his treasury and gave his soldiers pay for a year, commanding them to be ready whenever he should need them.

29 Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasury failed and that the taxes in the country were small because of the dissension and plague which he had brought upon the eretz in taking away the Torot which had been of old time;

30 He feared that he should not be able to bear the charges any longer, nor to have such gifts to give so liberally as he did before: for he had abounded above the melechim that were before him.

31 So, being greatly perplexed in his mind, he determined to go into Persia to take the taxes of the countries and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lysias, a nobleman and one of the royals, to oversee the affairs of the melech from the River Euphrates to the borders of Mitzrayim:

33 And to raise his son Antiochus, until he came again.

34 Moreover he delivered to him half of his forces and the elephants and gave him charge of all things that he would have done, as also concerning them that dwelt in Yahudah and Yahrushalayim:

35 Namely, that he should send an army against them, to destroy and root out the strength of Yisrael and the remnant of Yahrushalayim and to take away their memory from that place;

36 And that he should place strangers in all their quarters and divide their land by lot.

37 So the melech took the half of the forces that remained and departed from Antioch, his royal city, the hundred and forty seventh year; and having passed the River Euphrates, he went through the high countries.

38 Then Lysias chose Ptolemy the son of Dorymenes, Nicanor and Gorgias, mighty men of the melech's chaverim:

39 And with them he sent forty thousand footmen and seven thousand horsemen, to go into the eretz of Yahudah and to destroy it, as the melech commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power and came and pitched by Ammaus in the plain country.

41 And the merchants of the country, hearing of their fame, took much silver and gold, with avadim and came into the camp to buy the children of Yisrael for slaves: many also of Syria and of the land of the Plishtim joined themselves to them.

42 Now when Yahudah and his brothers saw that miseries were multiplied and that the forces encamped themselves in their borders, for they knew how the melech had given orders to destroy the people and utterly abolish them.

43 They said one to another, Let us restore the decayed fortune of our people and let us fight for our people and the Makom Kadosh.

44 Then was the kehilla gathered together, that they might be ready for battle and that they might make tefillah and ask for rachamim.

45 Now Yahrushalayim lay void as a midbar, there were none of her children that went in or out: the Makom Kadosh also was trodden down and aliens kept the stronghold; the goyim had their habitation in that place; and simcha was taken from Yaakov and the simcha with the harp ceased.

46 So the Yisraelites assembled themselves together and came to Mizpah, opposite Yahrushalayim, for in Mizpah was the place where they used to make tefillah in Yisrael.

47 Then they fasted that yom and put on sackcloth and cast ashes upon their heads and tore their clothes, 48 And laid open the sefer of The Torah, in which the goyim had sought to paint the likeness of their images.

49 They brought also the kohanim's garments and the bikkurim and the ma'aser: and the Nazarites they stirred up, who had accomplished their yamim.

50 Then cried they with a loud voice toward the shamayim, saying, What shall we do with these and where shall we carry them away?

51 For your Makom Kadosh is trodden down and profaned and your kohanim are in heaviness and brought low.

52 And see, the goyim are assembled together against us to destroy us. You know what things they imagine against us.

53 How shall we be able to stand against them, except You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, be our help?

54 Then they sounded the shofars and cried with a loud voice.

55 And after this Yahudah ordained captains over the people, even captains over thousands and over hundreds and over fifties and over tens.

56 But as for such as were building houses or had betrothed wives or were planting vineyards or were fearful, those he commanded that they should return, every man to his own bayit, according to The Torah.

57 So the camp moved and pitched upon the south side of Ammaus.

58 And Yahudah said, Arm yourselves and be valiant men and see that you be in ready in the boker, that you may fight with these goyim who are assembled together against us to destroy us and our Makom Kadosh:

59 For it is better for us to die in battle, than to behold the calamities of our people and our Makom Kadosh.

60 Nevertheless, as the will of אֱלֹהֵינוּ is in the shamayim, so let Him do.

4 Then Gorgias took five thousand footmen and a thousand of the best horsemen and moved out of the camp by lyla;

2 So that he might rush into the camp of the Yahudim and smite them suddenly. And the men of the fortress were his guides.

3 Now when Yahudah heard of it he himself moved and the valiant men with him, that he might smite the melech's army which was at Ammaus,

4 While as yet the forces were dispersed from the camp.

5 In the meantime Gorgias came by lyla into the camp of Yahudah: and when he found no man there, he sought them in the mountains: for said he, These fellows fled from us.

6 But as soon as it was yom, Yahudah showed himself in the plain with three thousand men, who nevertheless had neither armor nor swords in their possession.

7 And they saw the camp of the goyim, that it was strong and well harnessed and compassed all around with horsemen; and these were experts of war.

8 Then said Yahudah to the men that were with him, Fear not their multitude, neither be afraid of their assault.

9 Remember how our ahvot were delivered through the Yam Suf, when Pharaoh pursued them with an army.

10 Now therefore let us cry to the shamayim, if so be that אלהים will have rachamim on us and remember the brit of our ahvot and destroy this army before our faces this yom:

11 That so all the goyim may know that there is only One who delivers and saves Yisrael.

12 Then the strangers lifted up their eyes and saw them coming over against them.

13 So they went out of the camp to battle; but they who were with Yahudah sounded their shofars.

14 So they joined battle and the goyim being confused fled into the plain.

15 Yet all their back parts were slain with the sword: for they pursued them to Aza and to the plains of Idumea and Azotus and Yamnia, so that there were slain of them about three thousand men.

16 This done, Yahudah returned again with his army from pursuing them,

17 And said to the people, Be not greedy for the spoils, as there is another battle before us,

18 And Gorgias and his army are here by us in the har: but stand now against our enemies and overcome them and after this, you may boldly take the spoils.

19 As Yahudah was yet speaking these words, there appeared a part of them looking out of the har:

20 Who when they perceived that the Yahudim had put their army to flight and were burning the tents; for the smoke that was seen declared what was done:

21 When therefore they perceived these things, they were very afraid and seeing also the army of Yahudah in the plain ready to fight, 22 They fled everyone into the land of strangers.

23 Then Yahudah returned to spoil the tents, where they got much gold, silver, blue silk, purple of the sea and great riches.

24 After this they went home and sang a shir of hodu and gave hallel to The Adon in the shamayim because He is tov; because His rachamim endures le-olam-va-ed.

25 So Yisrael had a great deliverance that yom.

26 Now all the strangers that had escaped came and told Lysias what had come to pass,

27 Who, when he heard of it, was confounded and discouraged because neither such things as he desired were done to Yisrael, nor such things as the melech commanded him had come to pass.

28 The next year therefore, Lysias gathered together sixty thousand choice footmen and five thousand horsemen, that he might subdue them.

29 So they came into Idumea and pitched their tents at Beth Sura and Yahudah met them with ten thousand men.

30 And when he saw that mighty army, he made tefillah and said, Blessed are you, O YAHUSHA of Yisrael, who quelled the violence of the mighty man by the hand of your eved Dawid and gave the army of strangers into the hands of Yahunatan the son of Shaul and his armorbearer;

31 Destroy this army in the hand of your people Yisrael and let them be confounded in their power and horsemen:

32 Make them to be of no courage and cause the boldness of their strength to fall away and let them quake at their destruction:

33 Cast them down with the sword of them that love You and let all those that know Your Name יהוה, hallel You with hodu.

34 So they joined battle; and there were slain of the army of Lysias about five thousand men, even before them they were slain.

35 Now when Lysias saw his army put to flight and the strength of Yahudah's soldiers and how they were ready either to live or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia and gathered together a company of strangers and having made his army greater than it was, he purposed to come again against Yahudah.

36 Then said Yahudah and his brothers, Behold, our enemies are confused: let us go up to cleanse and dedicate the Makom Kadosh.

37 Upon this all the army assembled themselves together and went up into Har Tzion.

38 And when they saw the Makom Kadosh desolate and the altar profaned and the gates burned up and shrubs growing in the courts as in a forest or in one of the mountains, yes and the kohanim's chambers pulled down;

39 They tore their clothes and made great lamentation and cast ashes upon their heads, 40 And fell down flat to the ground upon their faces and blew an alarm with the shofars and cried toward the shamayim.

41 Then Yahudah appointed certain men to fight against those who were in the fortress, until he had cleansed the Makom Kadosh.

42 So he chose kohanim of blameless conduct, such as had pleasure in The Torah:

43 Who cleansed the Makom Kadosh and carried out the defiled stones into an unclean place.

44 And when as they consulted what to do with the altar of burnt offerings, which was profaned;

45 They thought it best to pull it down, lest it should be a reproach to them because the goyim had defiled it: so they pulled it down, 46 And laid up the stones in the har of the Beit HaMikdash in a convenient place, until there should come The Navi to show what should be done with them.

47 Then they took new whole stones according to The Torah and built a new altar according to the former;

48 And cleansed the Makom Kadosh and the things that were within the Beit HaMikdash and set apart the courts.

49 They made also new set apart vessels and into the Beit HaMikdash they brought the menorah and the altar of burnt offerings and of incense and the shulchan.

50 And upon the altar they burned incense and the lamps that were upon the menorah they lit, that they might give ohr in the Beit HaMikdash.

51 Furthermore they set the loaves upon the shulchan and spread out the veils and finished all the works which they had begun to make.

52 Now on the twentieth fifth yom of the ninth chodesh, in the hundred forty eighth year, they rose up in the boker, 53 And offered sacrifices according to The Torah upon the new altar of burnt offerings, which they had made.

54 Look, at what time and what yom the goyim had profaned it; even in that same yom, was it dedicated with shirim, instruments, harps and cymbals.

55 Then all the people fell upon their faces, worshipping and praising אלהים of the shamayim, who had given them tov success.

56 And so they kept the dedication of the altar eight yamim and offered burnt offerings with gilah and sacrificed the sacrifice of deliverance and tehilla.

57 They decked also the forefront of the Beit HaMikdash with crowns of gold and with shields; and the gates and the chambers they renewed and hung doors upon them.

58 So there was very great gilah among the people, for the reproach of the goyim was put away.

59 Moreover Yahudah and his brothers with the whole kehilla of Yisrael ordained that the yamim of the dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from year to year, for eight yamim, from the twenty fifth yom of the chodesh, with simcha and gilah.

60 At that time also they built up Har Tzion with high walls and strong towers all around, lest the goyim should come and tread it down, as they had done before.

61 And they set there a garrison to keep it and fortified Beth Sura to preserve it; so that the people might have a defense against Idumea.

5 Now when the goyim round about heard that the altar was built and the Makom Kadosh renewed as before, it displeased them very much.

2 Therefore they thought to destroy the generation of Yaakov that was among them and then they began to slay and destroy the people.

3 Then Yahudah fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at Arabattine because they besieged Gael: and he gave them a great defeat and smashed their courage and took their spoils.

4 Also he remembered the injury of the children of Bean, who had been a snare and an offence to the people, in that they lay in wait for them in the derachot.

5 He shut them up therefore in the towers and encamped against them and destroyed them utterly and burned the towers of that place with fire and all who were in them.

6 Afterward he passed over to the children of Ammon, where he found a mighty power and many people, with Timotheus their captain.

7 So he fought many battles with them, until at length they were weakened before him; and he smote them.

8 And when he had taken Yazar, with the towns belonging to it, he returned into Yahudah.

9 Then the goyim that were at Gilad assembled themselves together against the Yisraelites that were in their quarters, to destroy them; but they fled to the fortress of Dathema.

10 And sent letters to Yahudah and his brothers, The goyim that are round us are assembled together against us to destroy us:

11 And they are preparing to come and take the fortress, which is why we fled, Timotheus being captain of their army.

12 Come now therefore and deliver us from their hands, for many of us have been slain:

13 Yes, all our brothers that were in the places of Toviyah are put to death: their wives and their children also they have carried away captives and borne away their stuff; and they have destroyed there about a thousand men.

14 While these letters were yet being read, behold, there came other messengers from Galil with their clothes torn, who reported this:

15 And said, They of Ptolemais and of Tyrus and Sidon and all Galil of the goyim, are assembled together against us to consume us.

16 Now when Yahudah and the people heard these words, there assembled a great kehilla together, to consult what they should do for their brothers that were in trouble and were being assaulted by them.

17 Then said Yahudah to Shimon his brother, Choose men and go and deliver your brothers who are in Galil, for I and Yahunatan my brother will go into the country of Gilad.

18 So he left Yoseph the son of Zacharyah and Azaryah, captains of the people, with the remnant of the army in Yahudah to keep it.

19 Unto whom he gave an order, saying, Take the charge of this people and see that you make not war against the goyim until the time that we come again.

20 Now to Shimon were given three thousand men to go into Galil and to Yahudah eight thousand men for the country of Gilad.

21 Then went Shimon into Galil, where he fought many battles with the goyim, so that the goyim were defeated by him.

22 And he pursued them to the gate of Ptolemais; and there were slain of the goyim about three thousand men, whose spoils he took.

23 And those that were in Galil and in Arbattis, with their wives and their children and all that they had, took he away with him and brought them into Yahudah with great simcha.

24 Yahudah Maccabee also and his brother Yahunatan went over the Yarden and travelled three yamim into the midbar,

25 Where they met with the Nabathites, who came to them in a peaceful manner and told them everything that had been done to their brothers in the land of Gilad:

26 And how that many of them were shut up in Bosora and Bosor and Alema, Casphor, Maked and Carnaim; all these cities are strong and great:

27 And that they were shut up in the rest of the cities of the country of Gilad and that tomorrow they had appointed to bring their army against the forts and to take them and to destroy them all in one yom.

28 Then Yahudah and his army turned suddenly by the derech of the midbar to Bosora; and when he had won the city, he slew all the males with the edge of the sword and took all their spoils and burned the city with fire, 29 From where he left by lyla and went until he came to the fortress.

30 And in the boker they looked up and, behold, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and other means of war, to take the fortress: for they assaulted them.

31 When Yahudah therefore saw that the battle had begun and that the cry of the city went up to the shamayim with shofars and a great sound, 32 He said to his army, Fight this yom for your brothers.

33 So he went forth behind them in three companies, who sounded their shofars and cried with tefillah.

34 Then the army of Timotheus, knowing that it was Maccabee, fled from him: so he smote them with a great slaughter; so that there were killed of them that yom about eight thousand men.

35 This done, Yahudah turned aside to Mizpah; and after he had assaulted it he took and slew all the males in it and received the spoils of it and burnt it with fire.

36 From there he went and took Casphon, Maged, Bosor and the other cities of the country of Gilad.

37 After these things Timotheus gathered another army and encamped against Raphon beyond the brook.

38 So Yahudah sent men to spy on the army, who brought him word, saying, All the goyim around us are assembled to them, even a very great army.

39 He has also hired the Arabians to help them and they have pitched their tents beyond the brook, ready to come and fight against you. Upon this Yahudah went to meet them.

40 Then Timotheus said to the captains of his army, When Yahudah and his army come near the brook, if he pass over first to us, we shall not be able to withstand him; for he will mightily prevail against us:

41 But if he be afraid and camp beyond the river, we shall go over to him and prevail against him.

42 Now when Yahudah came near the brook, he caused the sophrim of the people to remain by the brook: to whom he gave an order, saying, Allow no man to remain in the camp but let all come to the battle.

43 So he went first over to them and all the people after him: then all the goyim, being defeated before him, cast away their weapons and fled to the temple that was at Carnaim.

44 But they took the city and burned the temple with all who were in it. So was Carnaim subdued, neither could they stand any longer before Yahudah.

45 Then Yahudah gathered together all the Yisraelites who were in the country of Gilad, from the least to the greatest, even their wives and their children and their stuff, a very great army, to the end they might come into the eretz of Yahudah.

46 Now when they came to Ephron, (this was a great city in the derech as they should go, very well fortified) they could not turn from it, either on the right hand or the left but had to pass through the midst of it.

47 Then those of the city shut them in and stopped up the gates with stones.

48 Then Yahudah sent to them in peaceful manner, saying, Let us pass through your land to go into our own country and none shall do you any hurt; we will only pass through on foot: however they would not open it for him.

49 So Yahudah commanded a proclamation to be made throughout the army, that every man should pitch his tent in the place where he was.

50 So the soldiers pitched and assaulted the city all that yom and all that lyla, until at the end, the city was delivered into his hands:

51 Who then slew all the males with the edge of the sword and leveled the city and took the spoils of it and passed through the city over those who were slain.

52 After this they went over Yarden into the great plain before Beth Shan.

53 And Yahudah gathered together those that came behind and exhorted the people all the way through, until they came into the eretz of Yahudah.

54 So they went up to Har Tzion with simcha and gilah, where they offered burnt offerings because not one of them was slain until they had returned in shalom.

55 Now at the time that Yahudah and Yahunatan were in the eretz of Gilad and Shimon his brother in Galil before Ptolemais, 56 Yoseph the son of Zacharyah and Azaryah, captains of the garrisons, heard of the valiant acts and warlike deeds which they had done.

57 Therefore they said, Let us also get us a name and go fight against the goyim that are around us.

58 So when they had given charge to the garrison that was with them, they went toward Yamnia.

59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the city to fight against them.

60 And so it was that Yoseph and Azaryah were put to flight and pursued to the borders of Yahudah: and there were slain that yom of the people of Yisrael about two thousand men.

61 So there was a great defeat among the children of Yisrael because they were not obedient to Yahudah and his brothers but thought to do some valiant act alone.

62 Moreover these men came not of the zera of those by whose hand deliverance was given to Yisrael.

63 However the man Yahudah and his brothers were greatly renowned in the sight of all Yisrael and of all the goyim, wherever their name was heard;

64 Therefore the people assembled to them with joyful acclamations.

65 Afterward went Yahudah forth with his brothers and fought against the children of Esau in the eretz toward the south, where he smote Chebron and the towns of it and pulled down the fortress of it and burned the towers of it all around.

66 From there he left to go into the eretz of the Plishtim and passed through Samaria.

67 At that time certain kohanim, desirous to show their valor, were slain in battle, for that they went out to fight without advice.

68 So Yahudah turned to Azotus in the eretz of the Plishtim and when he had pulled down their altars and burned their carved images with fire and spoiled their cities, he returned into the eretz of Yahudah.

6 About that time melech Antiochus travelling through the high countries, heard that Elymais in the country of Persia was a city greatly renowned for riches, silver and gold;

2 And that there was in it a very rich temple, in which were coverings of gold and breastplates and shields, which Alexander, son of Philip, the Makedonian melech who reigned first among the Greeks had left there.

3 So he came and sought to take the city and to spoil it; but he was not able to because those of the city, had received warnings,

4 They rose up against him in battle: so he fled and departed there with great heaviness and returned to Bavel.

5 Moreover there came one who brought him tidings into Persia that the armies which went against the eretz of Yahudah were put to flight:

6 And that Lysias, who went forth first with a great power was driven away by the Yahudim; and that they were made strong by the armor, the power and store of spoils, which they had gotten of the armies whom they had destroyed:

7 Also that they had pulled down the abomination which he had set up upon the altar in Yahrushalayim and that they had conquered the Makom Kadosh with high walls, as before and also in his city of Beth Sura.

8 Now when the melech heard these words, he was astonished and angry: then when he laid down upon his bed he fell sick due to grief because events had not happened as he had hoped.

9 And there he continued many yamim: for his grief increased more and more and he prepared to die.

10 So he called for all his chaverim and said to them, The sleep is gone from my eyes and my lev fails due to grief.

11 And I thought to myself, Into what tribulation have I come and how great a flood of misery is it, in which now I am. For I was bountiful and beloved in my power.

12 But now I remember the evils that I did at Yahrushalayim and that I took all the vessels of gold and silver that were in it and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Yahudah without a cause.

13 I perceive therefore that for this cause these troubles are come upon me and, behold, I perish through great grief in a strange land.

14 Then he called for Philip, one of his chaverim, whom he made ruler over all his realm, 15 And gave him the keter and his robe and his signet, so that he could bring up his son Antiochus and nourish him up for the malchut.

16 So melech Antiochus died there in the hundred forty ninth year.

17 Now when Lysias knew that the melech was dead, he set up Antiochus his son, whom he had brought up being young, to reign in his place and his name he called Eupator.

18 About this time, they that were in the tower shut in the Yisraelites around the Makom Kadosh and sought always their hurt and the strengthening of the goyim.

19 So Yahudah, purposing to destroy them, called all the people together to besiege them.

20 So they came together and besieged them in the hundred and fiftieth year and he made mounds for shots against them and other tools of war.

21 However certain of them that were besieged escaped, to whom some wicked men of Yisrael joined themselves:

22 And they went to the melech and said, How long will it be before you execute mishpat and avenge our brothers?

23 We have been willing to serve your abba and to do as he would have us and to obey his commands;

24 For which cause they of our nation besiege the tower and are alienated from us: moreover as many of us as they could, they slew and spoiled our inheritance.

25 Neither have they stretched out their hand against us only but also against their borders.

26 And, behold, this yom are they besieging the tower at Yahrushalayim, to take it: the Makom Kadosh also and Beth Sura have they fortified.

27 So if you do not prevent them quickly, they will do greater things than these, neither shall you be able to rule them.

28 Now when the melech heard this, he was angry and gathered together all his chaverim and the captains of his army and those that had charge of the cavalry.

29 There came also to him from other malchutim and from isles of the sea, bands of hired soldiers.

30 So that the number of his army was a hundred thousand footmen and twenty thousand horsemen and thirty two elephants exercised in battle.

31 These went through Idumea and pitched against Beth Sura, which they assaulted many yamim, making tools of war; but they of Beth Sura came out and burned them with fire and fought valiantly.

32 Upon this Yahudah moved from the tower and pitched in Bat Zacharyah, over against the melech's camp.

33 Then the melech rising very early marched fiercely with his army toward Bat Zacharyah, where his armies made them ready to battle and sounded the shofars.

34 And to the end they might provoke the elephants to fight, they showed them the dahm of grapes and mulberries.

35 Moreover they divided the beasts among the armies and for every elephant they appointed a thousand men, armed with coats of metal and with helmets of brass on their heads; and besides this, for every beast were ordained five hundred horsemen of the best.

36 These were ready at every occasion: wherever the beast was and wherever the beast went, they went also, neither departed they from it.

37 And upon the beasts were there strong towers of wood, which covered everyone of them and were tied fast to them with devices: there were also upon everyone thirty two strong men, that fought on them, beside the leaders that ruled it.

38 As for the remnant of the horsemen, they set them on this side and that side, in two parts, with the army giving them signs what to do and being harnessed all over amidst the ranks.

39 Now when the shemesh shone upon the shields of gold and brass, the mountains shined on them and shined like lamps of fire.

40 So part of the melech's army being spread upon the high mountains and part on the valleys below, they marched on safely and in order.

41 So all that heard the noise of their multitude and the marching of the company and the rattling of the harness, were moved: for the army was very great and mighty.

42 Then Yahudah and his army drew near and entered into battle and there were slain of the melech's army six hundred men.

43 El-Azar also, surnamed Savaran, perceiving that one of the beasts, armed with royal harness, was higher than all the rest and supposing that the melech was upon him,

44 Put himself in jeopardy, so that he might deliver his people and get himself perpetual fame:

45 So he ran upon him courageously through the midst of the battle, slaying on the right hand and on the left, so that they were divided from him on both sides.

46 Which done, he crept under the elephant and thrust him under and slew him: then the elephant fell down upon him and there he died.

47 However the rest of the Yahudim seeing the strength of the melech and the violence of his forces, turned away from them.

48 Then the melech's army went up to Yahrushalayim to meet them and the melech pitched his tents against Yahudah and against Har Tzion.

49 But with them that were in Beth Sura he made shalom: for they came out of the city because they had no provisions there to endure the siege, it being a year of shmeta to the erez.

50 So the melech took Beth Sura and set a garrison there to keep it.

51 As for the Makom Kadosh, he besieged it many yamim: and set there artillery with war tools and instruments to cast fire and stones and pieces to cast darts and slings.

52 Then they also made war tools against their war tools and held them in battle a long season.

53 Yet at the last, their vessels being without provisions, (for that it was the seventh year and they in Yahudah that were delivered from the goyim, had eaten up the residue of the storage;)

54 There were but a few left in the Makom Kadosh because the famine so prevailed against them, that they were not able to disperse themselves every man to his own place.

55 At that time Lysias heard that Philip, whom Antiochus the melech, while he lived, had appointed to bring up his son Antiochus, that he might be melech, 56 Had returned out of Persia and Media and the melech's army also that went with him and that he sought to take to himself the ruling of the affairs.

57 So he went in all haste and said to the melech and the captains of the army and the company, We decay daily and our provisions are but small and the place we lay siege to is strong and the affairs of the malchut lie upon us:

58 Now therefore let us be chaverim with these men and make shalom with them and with all their nation;

59 And make a brit with them, that they shall live after their Torot, as they did before: for they are therefore displeased and have done all these things because we abolished their Torot.

60 So the melech and the princes were content: so he sent to them to make shalom; and they accepted it.

61 Also the melech and the princes made an oath to them: then they went out of the stronghold.

62 Then the melech entered into Har Tzion; but when he saw the strength of the place, he broke his oath that he had made and gave an order to pull down the wall around it.

63 Afterwards he departed in all haste and returned to Antioch, where he found Philip to be master of the city: so he fought against him and took the city by force.

7 In the hundred and fifty first year Demetrius the son of Seleucus departed from Rome and came up with a few men to a city of the seacoast and reigned there.

2 And as he entered into the palace of his ancestors, so it was, that his forces had taken Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them to him.

3 So, when he knew it, he said, Let me not see their faces.

4 So his army slew them. Now when Demetrius was set upon the kesay of his malchut,

5 There came to him all the wicked ones and wicked men of Yisrael, having Alcimus, who was desirous to be Kohen HaGadol, for their captain:

6 And they accused the people to the melech, saying, Yahudah and his brothers have slain all your chaverim and driven us out of our own land.

7 Now therefore send some man whom you trust and let him go and see what havoc he has made among us and in the melech's land and let him punish them with all them that help them.

8 Then the melech chose Bacchides, a chaver of the melech, who ruled beyond the flood and was a great man in the malchut and faithful to the melech, 9 And he sent him with that wicked Alcimus, whom he made Kohen HaGadol and commanded that he should take vengeance of the children of Yisrael.

10 So they departed and came with a great power into the eretz of Yahudah, where they sent messengers to Yahudah and his brothers with peaceful words deceitfully.

11 But they gave no heed to their words; for they saw that they were come with a great power.

12 Then did there assemble to Alcimus and Bacchides a company of sophrim, to require justice.

13 Now the Assideans were the first among the children of Yisrael that sought shalom with them:

14 For they said, One that is a kohen of the zera of Aaron is come with this army and he will do us no wrong.

15 So he spoke to them peacefully and swore to them, saying, we will harm neither you nor your chaverim.

16 Then they believed him: however he took sixty men and slew them in one yom, according to the words which he wrote, 17 The flesh of your kidushim have they cast out and their dahm have they shed around Yahrushalayim and there were none to bury them.

18 So the fear and dread of them fell upon all the people, who said, There is neither emet nor tzedakah in them; for they have broken the brit and oath that they made.

19 After this, Bacchides removed himself from Yahrushalayim and pitched his tents in Bezeth, where he sent and took many of the men who had forsaken him and certain of the people also and when he had slain them, he cast them into the great pit.

20 Then he committed the country to Alcimus and left with him power to help him: so Bacchides went to the melech.

21 But Alcimus contended for the high kohanut.

22 And to him came all such as troubled the people, who, after they had gotten the erez of Yahudah into their power, did much hurt in Yisrael.

23 Now when Yahudah saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his company had done among the Yisraelites, even more than the goyim, 24 He went out into all the coasts of Yahudah all around and took vengeance on them that had revolted from him, so that they dared no more go forth into the country.

25 On the other side, when Alcimus saw that Yahudah and his company had gotten the upper hand and knew that he was not able to overcome their force, he went again to the melech and told all the worst of them that he could.

26 Then the melech sent Nicanor, one of his estimable princes, a man that bore deadly hate to Yisrael, with orders to destroy the people.

27 So Nicanor came to Yahrushalayim with a great force; and sent for Yahudah and his brothers deceitfully with friendly words, saying, 28 Let there be no battle between me and you; I will come with a few men, that I may see you in shalom.

29 He therefore came to Yahudah and they saluted one another peacefully. However the enemies were prepared to take away Yahudah by violence.

30 Which thing after it was known to Yahudah, namely, that he came to him with deceit, he was then very afraid of him and would see his face no more.

31 Nicanor also, when he saw that his counsel was discovered, went out to fight against Yahudah beside Caphar Shaloma:

32 Where there were slain of Nicanor's side about five thousand men and the rest fled into the city of Dawid.

33 After this Nicanor went up to Har Tzion and there came out of the Makom Kadosh certain of the kohanim and certain of the zechanim of the people, to salute him in shalom and to show him the burnt sacrifice that was offered for the melech.

34 But he mocked them and laughed at them and abused them shamefully and spoke proudly, 35 And swore in his wrath, saying, Unless Yahudah and his army be now delivered into my hands, if ever I come again in safety, I will burn up this bayit: and with that he went out in a great rage.

36 Then the kohanim entered in and stood before the altar and the Beit HaMikdash, weeping and saying,

37 You, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, chose this bayit to be called by Your Name and to be a bayit of tefillah and petition for your people:

38 Be avenged of this man and his army and let them fall by the sword: remember their blasphemies and do not allow them not to continue any longer.

39 So Nicanor went out of Yahrushalayim and pitched his tents in Beth-Horon, where an army out of Syria met him.

40 But Yahudah pitched in Hadasa with three thousand men and there he made tefillah, saying, 41 O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, when they who were sent from the melech of the Assyrians blasphemed, Your Malach went out and smote one hundred eighty five thousand of them.

42 Even so destroy this army before us this yom, that the rest may know that he has spoken blasphemously against Your Makom Kadosh and judge him according to his wickedness.

43 So the thirteenth yom of the twelfth chodesh the hosts joined battle: but Nicanor's army was discomfited and he himself was the first slain in the battle.

44 Now when Nicanor's army saw that he was slain, they cast away their weapons and fled.

45 Then they pursued after them a yom's journey, from Hadasa to Aza, sounding an alarm after them with their shofars.

46 Then they came forth out of all the towns of Yahudah all around and closed them in; so that they, turning back upon them who pursued them, were all slain with the sword and not one of them was left.

47 Afterwards they took the spoils and the prey and smote off Nicanor's head and his right hand, which he stretched out so proudly and brought them away and hung them up toward Yahrushalayim.

48 For this cause the people rejoiced greatly and they kept that yom as a yom of great gilah.

49 Moreover they ordained to keep it yearly, the thirteenth of the twelfth chodesh.

50 So the erez of Yahudah was in shalom for a little while.

8 Now Yahudah had heard of the Romans, that they were mighty and valiant men and such as would lovingly accept all that joined themselves to them and make a treaty of friendship with all that came to them;

2 And that they were men of great valor. It was told him also of their wars and noble acts which they had done among the Galatians and how they had conquered them and brought them under tribute;

3 And what they had done in the country of Spain, for the winning of the mines of the silver and gold which is there;

4 And that by their policy and patience they had conquered all the land, though it was very far from them; and the melechim also that came against them from the uttermost parts of the olam, until they had discomfited them and given them a great defeat, so that the rest gave them tribute every year:

5 Beside this, how they had discomfited in battle Philip and Perseus, melech of the Chittim, with others that lifted up themselves against them and had overcome them:

6 How also Antiochus the great melech of Asia, that came against them in battle, having one hundred and twenty elephants, with horsemen and chariots and a very great army, was shaken by them;

7 And how they took him alive and covenanted that he and such as reigned after him should pay a great tribute and give hostages and all that which was agreed upon,

8 And the country of India and Media and Lydia and of the wealthiest countries, which they took from him and gave to melech Eumenes:

9 Moreover how the Greeks had determined to come and destroy them;

10 And that they, having da'at of it sent against them a certain captain and fighting with them slew many of them and carried away captives their wives and their children and spoiled them and took possession of their lands and pulled down their strongholds and brought them to be their avadim until this yom:

11 It was told him besides, how they destroyed and brought under their dominion all other malchutim and islands that at any time resisted them;

12 But with their chaverim and such as relied upon them they kept friendship: and that they had conquered malchutim both far and near, so that all that heard of their name were afraid of them:

13 Also those that would help their malchut, would reign; and whom did not help, they displaced: so that they were greatly exalted:

14 Yet for all this none of them wore a keter or was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby:

15 Moreover, how they had made for themselves a senate bayit, in which three hundred twenty men sat in council daily, consulting always for the people, so that they might be well governed:

16 And that they committed their government to one man every year, who ruled over all their country and that all were obedient to that one man and that there was neither envy nor division among them.

17 In consideration of these things, Yahudah chose Eupolemus, the son of Yochanan, the son of Accos and Yason the son of El-Azar and sent them to Rome, to make a treaty of friendship and a treaty with them, 18 And to ask them that they would take the yoke from them; for they saw that the malchut of the Greeks oppressed Yisrael with servitude.

19 They went therefore to Rome, which was a very great journey and came into the senate, where they spoke and said:

20 Yahudah Maccabee with his brothers and the people of the Yahudim, have sent us to you, to make a treaty and shalom with you and that we might be registered as your associates and chaverim.

21 So that matter pleased the Romans well.

22 And this is the copy of the letter which the senate wrote back again in tables of brass and sent to

Yahrushalayim, that there they might have a record of shalom and a treaty:

23 Tov success be to the Romans and to the people of the Yahudim, by sea and by land le-olam-va-ed: the sword also and enemy be far from them,

24 If there come first any war upon the Romans or any of their associates throughout all their dominion,

25 The people of the Yahudim shall help them, at the time that shall be appointed, with all their lev:

26 Neither shall they give anything to them that make war upon them, or aid them with provisions, weapons, money, or ships, as it has seemed tov to the Romans; but they shall keep their britot without taking anything from Rome's enemies.

27 In the same manner also, if war comes first upon the nation of the Yahudim, the Romans shall help them with all their lev, according to the time that shall be appointed for them:

28 Neither shall provisions be given to them that take part against them, or weapons, or money, or ships, as it has seemed tov to the Romans; but they shall keep their britot without deceit.

29 According to these articles did the Romans make a brit with the people of the Yahudim.

30 However if from now on the one party or the other shall think to to add or diminish anything, they may do it at their pleasures and whatsoever they shall add or take away shall be ratified.

31 And as touching the evils that Demetrius does to the Yahudim, we have written to him, saying, Why have you made your yoke heavy upon our chaverim and associates, the Yahudim?

32 If therefore they complain anymore against you, we will do them justice and fight against you by sea and by land.

9 Furthermore, when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his army were slain in battle, he sent Bacchides and Alcimus into the eretz of Yahudah the second time and with them the chief strength of his army:

2 Who went forth by the derech that leads to Galgala and pitched their tents before Masaloth, which is in Arbela and after they had won it, they slew many people.

3 Also the first chodesh of the hundred fifty second year they encamped before Yahrushalayim:

4 From where they moved and went to Berea, with twenty thousand footmen and two thousand horsemen.

5 Now Yahudah had pitched his tents at Eleasa and three thousand chosen men with him:

6 Who seeing the multitude of the other army to be so great were very afraid; then many removed themselves out of the army, so that no more than eight hundred men remained.

7 When Yahudah therefore saw that his army slipped away and that the battle pressed upon him, he was very troubled in mind and much distressed, for he had no time to gather them together.

8 Nevertheless to them that remained he said, Let us arise and go up against our enemies, if by any means we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they discouraged him, saying, We shall never be able to: let us now rather save our lives and later we will return with our brothers to fight against them: for we are but few.

10 Then Yahudah said, אִי־אֵלֵינוּ forbid that I should do this thing, to flee away from them: if our time is come, let us die manfully for our brothers and let us not stain our esteem.

11 With that the army of Bacchides moved out of their tents and stood over against them, their horsemen being divided into two troops and their slingers and archers going before the army and they that marched at the front were all mighty men.

12 As for Bacchides, he was in the right wing: so the army drew near on two fronts and sounded their trumpets.

13 Those also of Yahudah's side, even they sounded their shofars, so that the earth shook at the noise of the armies and the battle continued from boker till lyla.

14 Now when Yahudah perceived that Bacchides and the strength of his army were on the right side, he took with him all the strongest men, 15 Who overcame the right wing and pursued them to the har Azotus.

16 But when those of the left wing saw that those of the right wing were overcome, they came upon Yahudah and those that were with him hard from behind:

17 So that there was a hard battle and many were slain on both parts.

18 Yahudah also was killed and the remnant fled.

19 Then Yahunatan and Shimon took Yahudah their brother and buried him in the sepulcher of his ahvot in Modin.

20 Moreover they mourned him and all Yisrael made great lamentations for him and mourned many yamim, saying, 21 How is the valiant man fallen, who delivered Yisrael.

22 As for the other things concerning Yahudah and his wars and the noble acts which he did and his greatness, they are not all written: for they were very many.

23 Now after the death of Yahudah, the wicked began to put forth their presence in all the coasts of Yisrael and there rose up all such as worked iniquity.

24 In those yamim also was there a very great famine, the reason country revolted and went with the wicked men.

25 Then Bacchides chose the wicked men and made them masters of the country.

26 And they searched for Yahudah's chaverim and brought them to Bacchides, who took vengeance on them and used them spitefully.

27 So was there a great affliction in Yisrael, the like of which was not seen since the time that a navi was absent among them.

28 For this cause all Yahudah's chaverim came together and said to Yahunatan, 29 Since your brother Yahudah died, we have no man like him to go forth against our enemies and Bacchides and against those of our nation who are adversaries to us.

30 Now therefore we have chosen you this yom to be our sar and captain in his place, that you may fight our battles.

31 Upon this Yahunatan took the governance upon him at that time and rose up instead of his brother Yahudah.

32 But when Bacchides got da'at of it, he sought to slay him

33 Then Yahunatan and Shimon his brother and all that were with him, perceiving that, fled into the midbar of Tekoa and pitched their tents by the mayim of the pool Asphar.

34 Which when Bacchides understood that, he came near to the Yarden with all his army upon the Shabbat yom.

35 Now Yahunatan had sent his brother Yochanan, a captain of the people, to ask his chaverim the Navathites, that they might leave with them their baggage, which was much.

36 But the children of Yambri came out of Medeva and took Yochanan and all that he had and went to their derech with it.

37 After this came word to Yahunatan and Shimon his brother, that the children of Yambri made a great marriage and were bringing the bride from Nadabatha with a great procession, as being the daughter of one of the great princes of Kanaan.

38 Therefore they remembered Yochanan their brother and went up and hid themselves under cover of the har:

39 Where they lifted up their eyes and looked and, behold, there was much ado and great carriage: and the bridegroom came forth and his chaverim and brothers, to meet them with drums and instruments of music and many weapons.

40 Then Yahunatan and they that were with him rose up against them from the place where they lay in ambush and made a slaughter of them, as many fell down dead and the remnant fled into the har and they took all their spoils.

41 So was the marriage turned into mourning and the noise of their melody into lamentation.

42 So when they had avenged fully the dahm of their brother, they turned again to the marsh of the Yarden.

43 Now when Bacchides heard of it, he came on the Shabbat yom to the banks of Yarden with great power.

44 Then Yahunatan said to his company, Let us go up now and fight for our lives, for it stands not with us this yom, as in time past:

45 For, behold, the battle is before us and behind us and the mayim of the Yarden on this side and that side, the marsh likewise and wood, neither is there any place for us to turn aside.

46 So cry out now to the shamayim, that you may be delivered from the hand of your enemies.

47 With that they joined battle and Yahunatan stretched forth his hand to smite Bacchides but he turned back from him.

48 Then Yahunatan and they that were with him leaped into the Yarden and swam over to the other bank: however the others passed not over the Yarden to them.

49 So there were slain of Bacchides' army that yom about a thousand men.

50 Afterward Bacchides returned to Yahrushalayim and repaired the strong cites in Yahudah; the fort in Yericho and Ammaus and Beth-Horon and Bethel and Thamnatha, Pharathoni and Taphon, these did he strengthen with high walls, with gates and with bars.

51 And in them he set a garrison, that they might work malice upon Yisrael.

52 He fortified also the city Beth-Sura and Aza and the tower and put forces in them and provision.

53 Besides, he took the chief men's sons in the country for hostages and put them into the tower at Yahrushalayim to be kept.

54 Moreover, in the hundred fifty third year, in the second chodesh, Alcimus commanded that the wall of the inner court of the Makom Kadosh should be pulled down; he pulled down also the works of the neviim

55 And as he began to pull things down, even at that time was Alcimus plagued and his enterprises hindered: for his mouth was stopped and he was taken with a palsy, so that he could no more speak anything, nor give orders concerning his bayit.

56 So Alcimus died at that time with great torment.

57 Now when Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he returned to the melech: then the erez of Yahudah was in shalom two years.

58 Then all the wicked men held a council, saying, Behold, Yahunatan and his company are at ease and dwell without any cares: now therefore we will bring Bacchides here, who shall take them all in one lyla.

59 So they went and consulted with him.

60 Then he moved and came with a great army and sent letters secretly to his adherents in Yahudah, that they should take Yahunatan and those who were with him: however they could not because their counsel was known to them.

61 So they took of the men of the country who were authors of that mischief, about fifty persons and slew them.

62 Afterward Yahunatan and Shimon and they that were with him, got away to Beth Basi, which is in the midbar and they repaired the ruins of it and made it strong.

63 Which thing when Bacchides knew, he gathered together all his army and sent word to them that were of Yahudah.

64 Then he went and laid siege against Beth Basi; and they fought against it for a long season and made engines of war.

65 But Yahunatan left his brother Shimon in the city and went forth himself into the country along with some others.

66 And he smote Odonarkes and his brothers and the children of Phasiron in their tents.

67 And when he began to smite them and came up with his forces, Shimon and his company went out of the city and burned up the engines of war, 68 And fought against Bacchides, who was overcome by them and they afflicted him heavily: for his counsel and labor was in vain.

69 So he was very angry at the wicked men that gave him counsel to come into the country, so he slew many of them and purposed to return into his own country.

70 Then when Yahunatan had da'at of it, he sent ambassadors to him, to make shalom with him and deliver the prisoners.

71 Which thing he accepted and did according to his demands and swore to him that he would never do him harm all the yamim of his chayim.

72 When therefore he had restored to him the prisoners that he had taken before out of eretz Yahudah, he returned and went his derech into his own land, neither did he come anymore into their borders.

73 So the sword ceased from Yisrael: but Yahunatan dwelt at Machmas and began to govern the people; and he destroyed the wicked men out of Yisrael.

10 In the hundred and sixtieth year Alexander, the son of Antiochus surnamed Epiphanes, went up and took Ptolemais: for the people had received him and he reigned there,

2 Now when melech Demetrius heard of it, he gathered together an exceeding great army and went forth against him to fight.

3 Moreover Demetrius sent letters to Yahunatan with loving words, as he magnified him.

4 For said he, Let us first make shalom with him, before he joins with Alexander against us:

5 Otherwise he will remember all the evils that we have done against him and against his brothers and his people.

6 So he gave him authority to gather together an army and to provide weapons, that he might aid him in battle: he commanded also that the hostages that were in the tower should be delivered to him.

7 Then came Yahunatan to Yahrushalayim and read the letters in the audience of all the people and of them that were in the tower:

8 Who were very afraid, when they heard that the melech had given him authority to gather together an army.

9 Then they of the tower delivered their hostages to Yahunatan and he delivered them to their parents.

10 When this was done, Yahunatan settled himself in Yahrushalayim and began to build and repair the city.

11 And he commanded the workmen to build the walls and Har Tzion all around with square stones for fortification; and they did so.

12 Then the gerim who were in the fortresses which Bacchides had built fled away;

13 So that every man left his place and went into his own country.

14 Only at Beth Sura certain of those that had forsaken The Torah and the mitzvoth remained still: for it was their place of refuge.

15 Now when melech Alexander had heard what promises Demetrius had sent to Yahunatan: when also it was told him of the battles and noble acts which he and his brothers had done and of the pains that they had endured, 16 He said, Shall we find such another noble man? Now therefore we will make him our chaver and associate.

17 Upon this he wrote a letter and sent it to him, according to these words, saying,

18 Melech Alexander to his brother Yahunatan sends greeting:

19 We have heard of you that you are a man of great power and fitting to be our chaver.

20 So now this yom we ordain you to be the Kohen HaGadol of your nation and to be called the melech's chaver; (and with it he sent him a purple robe and a keter of gold) and require you to take our side and keep friendship with us.

21 So in the seventh chodesh of the hundred sixtieth year, at Chag Sukkot, Yahunatan put on the set apart robe and gathered together forces and provided much armor.

22 Then when Demetrius heard this, he was very sorry and said,

23 What have we done, that Alexander has prevented us in making friendship with the Yahudim to strengthen himself?

24 I also will write to them words of encouragement and promise them esteem and gifts, that I may have their aid.

25 So he sent greetings to this effect: Melech Demetrius to the people of the Yahudim sends greeting:

26 Seeing that you have kept brit with us and continued in our friendship, not joining yourselves with our enemies, we have heard of it and are in simcha.

27 So now continue to be faithful to us and we will well recompense you for the things you do in our behalf, 28 And will grant you many immunities and give you rewards.

29 And now do I free you and for your sake I release all the Yahudim from tributes and from the customs of salt and from keter taxes,

30 And from that which pertains regarding direct taxes to me, to receive, the third part or the zera and the half of the fruit of the eytzim, I release it from this yom forth, so that they shall not be taken from eretz Yahudah, nor from the three governments, including the lands of Samaria and Galil, from this yom forth and le-olam-va-ed.

31 Let Yahrushalayim also be set apart and free, with the borders of it, both from ma'aser and taxes.

32 And as for the tower which is at Yahrushalayim, I yield up authority over it and give it to the Kohen HaGadol, that he may set in it, such men as he shall choose to oversee it.

33 Moreover I freely set at liberty everyone of the Yahudim who were carried captive out of the eretz of Yahudah into any part of my malchut and I will that all my officers return to you even from their cattle.

34 Furthermore I will that all the moadem and Shabbats and Chodeshim, and solemn yamim and the three yamim before the moed and the three yamim after the moed, shall be for freedom for all the Yahudim in my realm.

35 Also no man shall have authority to meddle with or to molest any of them in any matter.

36 I will further, that there be enrolled among the melech's forces about thirty thousand men of the Yahudim, to whom pay shall be given, as in all other melech's forces.

37 And from them some shall be placed in the melech's strongholds, of whom also some shall be set over the affairs of the malchut, which are of trust: and I will that their overseers and governors be from their own people and that they live after their own Torot, even as the melech has commanded in eretz Yahudah.

38 And concerning the three governments that are added to Yahudah from the country of Samaria, let them be joined with Yahudah, that they may be reckoned to be echad in Yisrael, not bound to obey any other authority other than the Kohen HaGadol's.

39 As for Ptolemais and his land, I give it as a free gift to the Makom Kadosh at Yahrushalayim for the necessary expenses of the Makom Kadosh.

40 Moreover I give every year fifteen thousand shekels of silver out of the melech's accounts from the places mentioned.

41 And all the extra, which the officers paid not in former times, from now on it shall be given toward the works of the Beit HaMikdash.

42 And beside this, the five thousand shekels of silver, which they took from the Beit HaMikdash out of the accounts year by year, even those things shall be released because they belong to the kohanim that serve there.

43 And whoever they are who flee to the Beit HaMikdash at Yahrushalayim, or be within those boundaries, being indebted to the melech, or for any other matter, let them be at liberty with all that they have in my realm.

44 For the building also and repairing of the works of the Makom Kadosh, expenses shall be given from the melech's accounts.

45 Yes and for the building of the walls of Yahrushalayim and the fortifying of it all around, expenses shall be given out of the melech's accounts, along with the building of the walls in Yahudah.

46 Now when Yahunatan and the people heard these words, they gave no credence to them, nor received them because they remembered the great evil that he had done in Yisrael; for he had afflicted them very harshly.

47 But with Alexander they were well pleased because he was the first that sought emet shalom with them and they were always associates with him.

48 Then melech Alexander gathered great forces and camped over against Demetrius.

49 And after the two melechim had joined the battle, Demetrius' army fled: but Alexander followed after him and prevailed against them.

50 And he continued the battle very vigorously until the shemesh went down: and that yom Demetrius was slain.

51 Afterwards Alexander sent ambassadors to Ptolemy melech of Mitzrayim with a message to this effect:

52 Because I have come again to my realm and am set in the kesay of my ahvot and have gotten the dominion and overthrown Demetrius and recovered our country;

53 For after I had joined battle against him, both he and his army were defeated by us, so that we sit in the kesay of his malchut:

54 Now therefore let us make a treaty of friendship together and give me now your daughter to be my isha: and I will be your son in law and will give both you and her great dignity.

55 Then Ptolemy the melech answered, saying, Simcha is the yom in which you returned to the eretz of your ahvot and sat in the kesay of their malchut.

56 And now will I do to you as you have written: meet me therefore at Ptolemais, that we may see one another; for I will marry my daughter to you according to your desire.

57 So Ptolemy went out of Mitzrayim with his daughter Cleopatra and they came to Ptolemais in the hundred and sixty second year:

58 Alexander met him and Ptolemy gave him his daughter Cleopatra and celebrated her marriage at Ptolemais with great kavod, as the manner of melechim is.

59 Now melech Alexander had written to Yahunatan, that he should come and meet him.

60 Who then went with esteem to Ptolemais, where he met the two melechim and gave them and their chaverim silver and gold and many presents and found chen in their sight.

61 At that time certain pestilent fellows of Yisrael, men of a wicked chayim, assembled themselves against him, to accuse him: but the melech would not hear them.

62 Yes and more than that, the melech commanded to take off his garments and clothe him in purple: and they did so.

63 And he made him sit by himself and said into his princes, Go with him into the midst of the city and make proclamation, that no man complain against him in any matter and that no man trouble him for any reason.

64 Now when his accusers saw that he was esteemed according to the proclamation and clothed in purple, they fled away.

65 So the melech esteemed him and appointed him among his chief chaverim and made him a sar and partaker of his dominion.

66 Afterward Yahunatan returned to Yahrushalayim with shalom and gilah.

67 Furthermore in the hundred sixty fifth year came Demetrius ben Demetrius out of Crete into the land of his ahvot:

68 Then when melech Alexander heard of it, he was very concerned and returned to Antioch.

69 Then Demetrius made Apollonius the governor of Celosyria his general, who gathered together a great army and camped in Yamnia and sent to Yahunatan the Kohen HaGadol, saying, 70 You alone lift up yourself against us and I am laughed at and scorned and reproached because of you: and why do you flaunt your power against us in the mountains?

71 Now therefore, if you trust in your own strength, come down to us in the plains and there let us try the matter together: for with me is the power of all the cities.

72 Ask and learn who we are and they shall tell you that you cannot fight successfully in their own land.

73 So now you shall not be able to withstand the horsemen and so great a power in the plains, where there is neither stone nor flint, nor any place to flee.

74 So when Yahunatan heard these words of Apollonius, he was moved in his mind and choosing ten thousand men he went out of Yahrushalayim, where Shimon his brother met him to help him.

75 And he pitched his tents against Yaffa: but; they of Yaffa shut him out of the city because Apollonius had a garrison there.

76 Then Yahunatan laid siege against it and so they of the city let him in for fear: and so Yahunatan won Yaffa.

77 So then when Apollonius heard it, he took three thousand horsemen with a great army of footmen and went to Azotus, as one that journeyed and from there went forth into the plains because he had a great number of horsemen in whom he put his trust.

78 Then Yahunatan followed after him to Azotus, where the armies joined in battle.

79 Now Apollonius had left a thousand horsemen in ambush.

80 And Yahunatan knew that there was an ambush behind him; for they had compassed in his army and cast darts at the people, from boker till evening.

81 But the people stood still, as Yahunatan had commanded them: and so the enemies' horses were tired.

82 Then brought Shimon forth his army and set them against the footmen (for the horsemen were gone) who were defeated by him and fled.

83 The horsemen also, being scattered in the field, fled to Azotus and went into Beth Dagon, their idol's temple, for safety.

84 But Yahunatan set fire on Azotus and the cities around it and took their spoils; and the temple of Dagon, with them that were fled into it, he burned with fire.

85 So there were burned and slain with the sword about eight thousand men.

86 And from there Yahunatan moved his army and camped against Ashkelon, where the men of the city came forth and met him with great esteem.

87 After this returned Yahunatan and his army to Yahrushalayim, having the spoils.

88 Now when melech Alexander heard these things, he esteemed Yahunatan even more.

89 And sent him a buckle of gold, given to such as are of the melech's own dahm: he gave him also the land of Acharon, with the borders of it, as a possession.

11 And the melech of Mitzrayim gathered together a great army, like the sand that lies upon the sea shore and many ships and went about through deceit to get Alexander's malchut and join it to his own.

2 Whereupon he took his journey into Spain in peaceful manner, so that those of the cities opened up to him and met him: for melech Alexander had commanded them to do so because he was his brother in law.

3 Now as Ptolemy entered into the cities, he set in everyone of them a garrison of soldiers to keep it.

4 And when he came near to Azotus, they showed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt and Azotus and the suburbs of it that were destroyed and the bodies that were cast abroad and those that he had burnt in the battle; for they had made heaps of them by the derech where he should pass.

5 Also they told the melech all that Yahunatan had done, to the intent that he might blame him: but the melech held his shalom.

6 Then Yahunatan met the melech with great esteem at Yaffa, where they saluted one another and lodged.

7 Afterward Yahunatan, when he had gone with the melech to the river called Eleutherus, returned again to Yahrushalayim.

8 Melech Ptolemy therefore, having gotten the dominion of the cities by the sea to Seleukia upon the sea coast, imagined wicked thoughts against Alexander.

9 Then he sent ambassadors to melech Demetrius, saying, Come, let us make a brit between us and I will give you my daughter whom Alexander has and you shall reign in your abba's malchut:

10 For I repent that I gave my daughter to him, for he sought to slay me.

11 So he slandered him because he desired his malchut.

12 So he took his daughter from him and gave her to Demetrius and forsook Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

13 Then Ptolemy entered into Antioch, where he set two crowns upon his head, the keter of Asia and of Mitzrayim.

14 In that same time was melech Alexander in Kilikia because those that dwelt in those parts had revolted against him.

15 But when Alexander heard of this, he came to war against Kilikia: where suddenly melech Ptolemy brought forth his army and met him with a mighty power and put him to flight.

16 So Alexander fled into Arabia there to be defended; but melech Ptolemy was exalted:

17 For Zabdiel the Arabian took off Alexander's head and sent it to Ptolemy.

18 Melech Ptolemy also died the third yom after that and they that were in the strongholds were slain by each other.

19 By this means Demetrius reigned in the hundred and sixty seventh year.

20 At the same time Yahunatan gathered together them that were in Yahudah to take the tower that was in Yahrushalayim: and he made many engines of war for it.

21 Then came wicked persons, who hated their own people, went to the melech and told him that Yahunatan besieged the tower, 22 So when he heard it, he was angry and immediately moved and came to Ptolemis and wrote to Yahunatan, that he should not lay siege to the tower but come and speak with him at Ptolemis in great haste.

23 Nevertheless Yahunatan, when he heard this, commanded to besiege it still: and he chose certain of the zechanim of Yisrael and the kohanim and put himself in peril;

24 And took silver and gold and raiment and diverse presents and went to Ptolemis to the melech, where he found chen in his sight.

25 And though certain wicked men of the people of Yisrael had made complaints against him,

26 Yet the melech treated him as his predecessors had done before and promoted him in the sight of all his chaverim,

27 And confirmed him in the high kohanut and in all the esteem that he had before and gave him preeminence among his chief chaverim.

28 Then Yahunatan desired the melech, that he would make Yahudah free from taxes, also the three governments, with the country of Samaria; and he promised him three hundred talents.

29 So the melech consented and wrote letters to Yahunatan of all these things after this manner:

30 Melech Demetrius to his brother Yahunatan and to the nation of the Yahudim, greetings:

31 We send you here a copy of the letter which we did write to our cousin Lasthenes concerning you, that you might see it.

32 Melech Demetrius to his abba Lasthenes greetings:

33 We are determined to do tov to the people of the Yahudim, who are our chaverim and keep britot with us because of their tov will towards us.

34 So we have ratified to them the borders of Yahudah, with the three governments of Apherema and Lydda and Ramathayim, that are added to Yahudah from the country of Samaria and all things pertaining to them, for all such as do sacrifice in Yahrushalayim, instead of the payments, which the melech received from them previously yearly, out of the fruits of the eretz and of the eytzim.

35 And as for the other things that belong to us, of the ma'aser and fees pertaining to us, such as the saltpits and the keter taxes, which are due to us, we discharge them all for their relief.

36 And nothing shall be revoked from this order leolam-va-ed.

37 Now see that you make a copy of these things and let it be delivered to Yahunatan and set upon the set apart har in a conspicuous place.

38 After this, when melech Demetrius saw that erez Yahudah was quiet before him and that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his forces, everyone to his own place, except certain groups of strangers, whom he had gathered from the isles of the goyim: so all the forces of his ahvot hated him.

39 Moreover there was Tryphon, that had been of Alexander's rule before, who, seeing that all the army murmured against Demetrius, went to Simalcue the Arabian that brought up Antiochus the young son of Alexander, 40 And pressured him to deliver him this young Antiochus, that he might reign in his abba's place: he told him therefore all that Demetrius had done and how his men of war were at enmity with him and there he remained a long season.

41 In the meantime Yahunatan sent to melech Demetrius, that he would cast those of the tower out of Yahrushalayim and those also in the fortresses: for they fought against Yisrael.

42 So Demetrius sent to Yahunatan, saying, I will not only do this for you and your people but I will greatly esteem you and your nation in the future.

43 Now therefore you shall do well, if you send me men to help me; for all my forces have gone from me.

44 Upon this Yahunatan sent him three thousand strong men to Antioch: and when they came to the melech, the melech was very glad about their coming.

45 However they that were of the city gathered themselves together into the midst of the city, the number was a hundred twenty thousand men and would have slain the melech.

46 So the melech fled into the court but they of the city kept the passages of the city and began to fight.

47 Then the melech called to the Yahudim for help, who came to him all at once and dispersing themselves throughout the city slew that yom in the city one hundred thousand.

48 Also they set fire to the city and got many spoils that yom and delivered the melech.

49 So when those of the city saw that the Yahudim had taken the city as they did, their courage was abated: so they made supplication to the melech and cried, saying,

50 Grant us shalom and let the Yahudim cease from assaulting us and the city.

51 With that they cast away their weapons and made shalom; and the Yahudim were esteemed in the sight of the melech and in the sight of all that were in his malchut; and they returned to Yahrushalayim, having great spoils.

52 So melech Demetrius sat on the kesay of his malchut and eretz Yahudah was quiet before him.

53 Nevertheless he broke his promises and estranged himself from Yahunatan, neither rewarded him according to the benefits which he had received from him but troubled him very harshly.

54 After this returned Tryphon and with him the young child Antiochus, who reigned and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered to him all the men of war, whom Demetrius had put away and they fought against Demetrius, who turned his back and fled.

56 Moreover Tryphon took the elephants and won Antioch.

57 At that time young Antiochus wrote to Yahunatan, saying, I confirm you in the high kohanut and appoint you ruler over the four governments and to be one of the melech's chaverim.

58 Then he sent him golden vessels to be served in and gave him freedom to drink in gold cups and to be clothed in purple and to wear a golden buckle.

59 His brother Shimon also he made captain from the place called The Ladder of Tyrus, until the borders of Mitzrayim.

60 Then Yahunatan went forth and passed through the cities beyond the mayim and all the forces of Syria gathered themselves to him to help him: and when he came to Ashkelon, those of the city met him with esteem.

61 From there he went to Aza but they of Aza shut him out; so he laid siege to it and burned the suburbs of it with fire and spoiled them.

62 Afterward, when they of Aza made supplication to Yahunatan, he made shalom with them and took the sons of their rulers for hostages and sent them to Yahrushalayim and passed through the country to Damascus.

63 Now when Yahunatan heard that Demetrius' princes were come to Cades, which is in Galil, with a great power, purposing to remove him out of the country, 64 He went to meet them and left Shimon his brother in the country.

65 Then Shimon encamped against Beth Sura and fought against it a long time and closed it:

66 But they desired to have shalom with him, which he granted them and then put them out from there and took the city and set a garrison in it.

67 As for Yahunatan and his army, they pitched at the mayim of Gennesar, from where in the boker they went to the plain of Nasor.

68 And, behold, the army of gerim met them in the plain, who, having laid men in ambush for him in the mountains, came over against him.

69 So when they that lay in ambush rose out of their places and joined the battle, all that were of Yahunatan's side fled;

70 So that there was not one of them left, except Mattiyahu the son of Avshalom and Yahudah the son of Calphi, the captains of the army.

71 Then Yahunatan tore his clothes and cast the dust upon his head and made tefillah.

72 Afterwards returning again to the battle, he put them to flight and so they ran away.

73 Now when his own men that had fled saw this, they returned again to him and with him pursued them to Cades, even to their own tents and there they camped.

74 So there were slain of the goyim that yom about three thousand men: but Yahunatan returned to Yahrushalayim.

12 Now when Yahunatan saw that the time was right, he chose certain men and sent them to Rome, to confirm and renew the friendship that they had with them.

2 He sent letters also to the Lakedemonians and to other places, for the same purpose.

3 So they went to Rome and entered into the senate and said, Yahunatan the Kohen HaGadol and the people of the Yahudim, sent us to you, so that you should renew the friendship and treaty, which you had with them as in former times.

4 Upon this the Romans gave them letters to the governors of every place that they should bring them into eretz Yahudah peacefully.

5 And this is the copy of the letters which Yahunatan wrote to the Lakedemonians:

6 Yahunatan the Kohen HaGadol and the zechanim of the nation and the kohanim and the other of the Yahudim, to the Lakedemonians their brothers sends greetings:

7 There were letters sent in times past to Oniyah the Kohen HaGadol from Daryawesh, who reigned then among you, to signify that you are our brothers, as the copy here underwritten specifies.

8 At which time Oniyah entreated the ambassador that was sent with esteem and received the letters, in which declaration was made of the treaty and friendship.

9 Therefore we also, although we need none of these things, since we have the set apart scrolls of the Ketuvim in our hands to comfort us,

10 Have nevertheless attempted to send to you for the renewing of brotherhood and friendship, lest we should become strangers to you altogether: for a long time has passed since you contacted us.

11 We therefore at all times without ceasing, both in our moadem and other convenient yamim, remember you in the sacrifices which we offer and in our tefillot, as it is right to think upon our brothers:

12 And we are glad for your esteem.

13 As for ourselves, we have had great troubles and wars on every side, as the melechim that surround us have fought against us.

14 However we would not be troublesome to you, nor to others of our associates and chaverim in these wars:

15 For we have help from the shamayim that comforts us, so that we are delivered from our enemies and our enemies are brought under our foot.

16 For this cause we chose Numenius the son of Antiochus and Antipater the son of Yason and sent them to the Romans, to renew the friendship that we had with them and the former treaty.

17 We commanded them also to go to you and to salute and to deliver you our letters concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

18 So now you shall do well to give us an answer.

19 And this is the copy of the letters which Oniars sent.

20 Areus melech of the Lakedemonians to Oniyah the Kohen HaGadol, greeting:

21 It is found in writings, that the Lakedemonians and Yahudim are brothers and that they are both of the zera of Avraham:

22 Now therefore, since this is come to our da'at, you shall do well to write to us of your prosperity.

23 We do write back again to you, that your cattle and goods are ours and ours are yours. We therefore order our ambassadors to make reports to you accordingly.

24 Now when Yahunatan heard that Demebius' princes were come to fight against him with a greater army than before, 25 He moved from Yahrushalayim and met them in the land of Amathis: for he gave them no permission to enter his country.

26 He sent spies also to their tents, who came again and told him that they were appointed to come upon them in the lyla season.

27 Therefore, as soon as the shemesh was down, Yahunatan commanded his men to watch and to have ready arms, that all the lyla long they might be ready to fight: also he sent forth spies around their army.

28 But when the adversaries heard that Yahunatan and his men were ready for battle, they feared and trembled in their levavot and they kindled fires in their camp.

29 However Yahunatan and his company knew it not until the boker: for they saw the lights burning.

30 Then Yahunatan pursued after them but overtook them not: for they had gone over the river Eleutherus.

31 So Yahunatan turned to the Arabians, who were called Zabadeans and smote them and took their spoils.

32 And moving from there, he came to Damascus and so passed through all that country, 33 Shimon also went forth and passed through the country to Ashkelon and from there he turned aside to Yaffa and won it.

34 For he had heard that they would deliver the area to them that took Demetrius' part; so he set a garrison there to keep it.

35 After this came Yahunatan home again and calling the zechanim of the people together, he consulted with them about building strongholds in Yahudah, 36 And making the walls of Yahrushalayim higher and raising a great har between the tower and the city, to separate it from the city, so it might be alone, that men might neither sell nor buy in it.

37 Upon this they came together to build up the city, since part of the wall toward the brook on the east side had fallen down and they repaired that which was called Caphenatha.

38 Shimon also set up Adida in Sephela and made it strong with gates and bars.

39 Now Tryphon went about to get the malchut of Asia and to kill Antiochus the melech, that he might set the keter upon his own head.

40 However he was afraid that Yahunatan would not allow him and that he would fight against him; so he sought a means how to take Yahunatan, that he might kill him. So he moved and came to Beth Shean.

41 Then Yahunatan went out to meet him with forty thousand men chosen for the battle and came to Beth-She'an.

42 Now when Tryphon saw Yahunatan came with so great a force, he dared not stretch his hand against him;

43 But received him with esteem and commended him to all his chaverim and gave him gifts and commanded his men of war to be as obedient to him, as to himself.

44 To Yahunatan also he said, Why have you brought all this people to so great a trouble, seeing there is no war between us?

45 Therefore send them now home again and choose a few men to wait on you and come with me to Ptolemais, for I will give it you and the rest of the strongholds and forces and all that I have any authority over: as for me, I will return and depart: for this is the cause of my coming.

46 So Yahunatan believing him did as he asked him and sent away his army, who went into eretz Yahudah.

47 And with himself he retained but three thousand men, of whom he sent two thousand into Galil and one thousand went with him.

48 Now as soon as Yahunatan entered into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates and took him and all them that came with him they slew with the sword.

49 Then sent Tryphon an army of footmen and horsemen into Galil and into the great plains, to destroy all of Yahunatan's company.

50 But when they knew that Yahunatan and they that were with him were taken or slain, they encouraged one another; and went close together, prepared to fight.

51 They therefore that followed them, perceiving that they were ready to fight for their lives, turned back again.

52 Then they all came into the eretz of Yahudah peacefully and there they mourned that Yahunatan was taken prisoner and them that were with him were slain and they were very afraid; so all Yisrael made great lamentation.

53 Then all the goyim that were all around them sought to destroy them: for said they, They have no captain, nor anyone to help them: now therefore let us make war upon them and take away their memory from among men.

13 Now when Shimon heard that Tryphon had gathered together a great army to invade eretz Yahudah and destroy it,

2 And saw that the people were in great trembling and fear, he went up to Yahrushalayim and gathered the people together,

3 And gave them great exhortation, saying, You yourselves know what great things I, my brothers and my abba's bayit have done for the Torot and the Makom Kadosh, the battles also and troubles which we have seen.

4 For that reason all my brothers are slain or captives for Yisrael's sake and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore be it far from me, that I should spare my own chayim in any time of trouble: for I am no better than my brothers.

6 So for sure I will avenge my nation and the Makom Kadosh and our wives and our children: for all the goyim are gathered to destroy us solely out of hatred.

7 Now as soon as the people heard these words, their ruach revived.

8 And they answered with a loud voice, saying, You shall be our leader instead of Yahudah and Yahunatan your brother.

9 Fight you our battles and whatever you command us, that will we do.

10 So then he gathered together all the men of war and made haste to finish the walls of Yahrushalayim and he fortified it all around.

11 Also he sent Yahunatan the son of Avshalom and with him a large army, to Yaffa, who cast out them who were there and remained there in it.

12 So Tryphon moved from Ptolemais with a great power to invade eretz Yahudah and Yahunatan was with him as a hostage.

13 But Shimon pitched his tents at Adida, over against the plain.

14 Now when Tryphon knew that Shimon was raised up instead of his brother Yahunatan and desired to battle with him, he sent messengers to him, saying,

15 Seeing that we have your brother Yahunatan captive, it is for money that he owed the melech's treasury, concerning the business that was committed to him.

16 So now send a hundred talents of silver and two of his sons for hostages, that when he is set free he may not revolt against us and we will let him go.

17 Then Shimon, although he perceived that they spoke deceitfully to him, yet he sent the money and the children, lest the people of Yisrael should hate him:

18 Who might have said, Because I sent him not the money and the children, therefore is Yahunatan dead.

19 So he sent them the children and the hundred talents: however Tryphon deceived him and neither would he let Yahunatan go.

20 And after this came Tryphon to invade eretz Yahudah and destroy it, going around by the derech that leads to Adora: but Shimon and his army marched against him in every place, everywhere he went.

21 Now they that were in the tower sent messengers to Tryphon, to hurry to them by the midbar and send them provisions.

22 So Tryphon made ready all his horsemen to come that lyla: but there fell lots of snow, so he came not. So he departed and came into the country of Gilad.

23 And when he came near to Bascama he slew Yahunatan, who was buried there.

24 Afterward Tryphon returned and went into his own land.

25 Then sent Shimon and took the bones of Yahunatan his brother and buried them in Modin, the city of his ahvot.

26 And all Yisrael made great lamentation for him and mourned for him many yamim.

27 Shimon also built a monument upon the sepulcher of his abba and his brothers and raised it high to be seen by all around.

28 Moreover he set up seven markers, next to one another, for his abba and his emma and his four brothers.

29 And in these he made devices, in which he set great pillars and upon the pillars he set all their armor for a perpetual memory and near the armor ships, that they might be seen by all that sail on the sea.

30 This is the sepulcher which he made at Modin and it stands yet to this yom.

31 Now Tryphon dealt deceitfully with the young melech Antiochus and slew him.

32 And he reigned in his place and crowned himself melech of Asia and brought great calamity upon eretz Yahudah.

33 Then Shimon built up the strongholds in Yahudah and fenced them about with high towers and great walls and gates and bars and laid up provisions in it.

34 Moreover Shimon chose men and sent them to melech Demetrius, so that he should give Yahudah immunity because all that Tryphon did was to spoil.

35 To whom melech Demetrius answered and wrote after this manner:

36 Melech Demetrius to Shimon the Kohen HaGadol and chaver of melechim and also to the zechanim and nation of the Yahudim, I send greetings:

37 The golden keter and the scarlet robe, which you sent to us, we have received: and we are ready to make steadfast shalom with you, yes and to write to our officers, to confirm the immunities which we have granted.

38 And whatever past britot we have made with you shall stand; and the strongholds, which you have built, shall be your own.

39 As for any oversight or fault committed up to this yom, we forgive it and the keter tax also, which you owe us: and if there were any other taxes paid in Yahrushalayim, it shall no more be paid.

40 And look for those that are fit among you to be in our court and let them be enrolled and let there be shalom between us.

41 So the yoke of the goyim was taken away from Yisrael in the hundred seventieth year.

42 Then the people of Yisrael began to write in their instruments and contracts in the first year of Shimon the Kohen HaGadol, the governor and leader of the Yahudim.

43 In those yamim Shimon camped against Aza and besieged it all around; he made also an engine of war and set it by the city and battered a certain tower and took it.

44 And they that were in the engine leaped into the city; then there was a great uproar in the city:

45 Then the people of the city tore their clothes and climbed upon the walls with their wives and children and cried with a loud voice, beseeching Shimon to grant them shalom.

46 And they said, Deal not with us according to our wickedness but according to your rachamim.

47 So Shimon was appeased and fought no more against them but put them out of the city and cleansed the houses where the idols were and so entered into it with shirim and hodu.

48 Yes, he put all uncleanness out of it and placed such men there as would keep The Torah and made it stronger than it was before and built in it a dwelling place for himself.

49 They also of the tower in Yahrushalayim were kept so strictly that they could neither come forth nor go into the country, nor buy nor sell: so they were in great distress for want of provisions and a great number of them perished through famine.

50 Then they cried to Shimon, begging him to be echad with them: which thing he granted them; and when he had put them out from there, he cleansed the tower from pollutions:

51 And entered into it on the twenty third yom of the second chodesh in the hundred seventy first year, with hodu and branches of palm eytzim and with harps and cymbals and with viols and hymns and shirim: because there was destroyed a great enemy out of Yisrael.

52 He ordained also that that yom should be kept every year with gilah. Moreover the hill of the Beit HaMikdash that was by the tower he made stronger than it was and there he dwelt himself with his company.

53 And when Shimon saw that Yochanan his son was a valiant man, he made him captain of all the hosts; and he dwelt in Aza.

14 Now in the hundred and seventy second year melech Demetrius gathered his forces together and went into Media to get help to fight against Tryphon.
2 But when Arsaces, the melech of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius had entered within his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him alive:
3 Who went and smote the army of Demetrius and took him and brought him to Arsaces, by whom he was put in prison.
4 As for erez Yahudah, that was quiet all the yamim of Shimon; for he sought the tov of his nation in such a manner that his authority and esteem always pleased them well.
5 And as he was esteemed in all his acts, so in this, that he took Yaffa for a haven and made it an entrance to the isles of the sea,
6 And enlarged the borders of his nation and recovered the country,
7 And gathered together a great number of captives and had the dominion of Aza and Beth Sura and the tower, out which he took all that was unclean, neither was there anyone that resisted him.

8 Then they tilled their ground in shalom and the eretz gave her increase and the eytzim of the field their fruit.

9 The zechanim sat all yom in the streets, talking about tov things and the young men put on wondrous and warlike apparel.

10 He provided provisions for the cities and set in them all manner of ammunition, so that his esteemed name was famous to the ends of the olam.

11 He made shalom in the eretz and Yisrael rejoiced with great simcha:

12 For every man sat under his vine and his fig eytz and there was none to make them afraid.

13 Neither was there any left in the eretz to fight against them: yes, the melechim themselves were overthrown in those yamim.

14 Moreover he strengthened all those of his people who were brought low. The Torah he searched out; and everyone who held The Torah in contempt and every wicked person he took away.

15 He beautified the Makom Kadosh and multiplied the vessels of the Beit HaMikdash.

16 Now when it was heard at Rome and as far as Sparta, that Yahunatan was dead, they were very sorry.

17 But as soon as they heard that his brother Shimon was made Kohen HaGadol in his place and ruled the country and the cities in it:

18 They wrote to him in tables of brass, to renew the friendship and treaty which they had made with Yahudah and Yahunatan his brothers:

19 Which writings were read before the kehilla at Yahrushalayim.

20 And this is the copy of the letters that the Lakedemonians sent; The rulers of the Lakedemonians, with the city, to Shimon the Kohen

HaGadol and the zechanim and kohanim and residue of the people of the Yahudim, our brothers, sends greetings:

21 The ambassadors that were sent to our people confirmed to us of your kavod and esteem: therefore we were glad for their coming,

22 And registered the things that they spoke in the council of the people in this manner; Numenius son of Antiochus and Antipater son of Yason, the Yahudim's ambassadors, came to us to renew the friendship they had with us.

23 And it pleased the people to entertain the men with esteem and to put the copy of their ambassadorship in public records, so that the people of the Lakedemonians might have a record of it: furthermore we have written a copy of it to Shimon the Kohen HaGadol.

24 After this Shimon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of gold of a thousand pound weight to confirm the treaty with them.

25 So when the people heard, they said, What hodu shall we give to Shimon and his sons?

26 For he and his brothers and the bayit of his abba have established Yisrael and chased away in fight their enemies from them and confirmed their liberty.

27 So then they wrote it in tables of brass, which they set upon pillars in Har Tzion: and this is the copy of the writing; The eighteenth yom of the sixth chodesh, in the hundred and seventy second year, being the third year of Shimon the Kohen HaGadol, 28 At Saramel in the great kehilla of the kohanim, the people, rulers of the nation and zechanim of the country, were these things informed to us.

29 Since often there have been wars in their country, for the maintenance of their Makom Kadosh and The Torah, Shimon the son of Mattityahu, of the posterity of Yariv, together with his brothers, put themselves in jeopardy and resisting the enemies of their nation, whom their nation greatly esteemed:

30 (For after that Yahunatan, having gathered his nation together and having been their Kohen HaGadol, much was added to his people),

31 Their enemies prepared to invade their country, that they might destroy it and lay hands on the Makom Kadosh:

32 At which time Shimon rose up and fought for his nation and spent much of his own substance and armed the valiant men of his nation and gave them wages,

33 And fortified the cities of Yahudah, together with Beth Sura, that lies upon the borders of Yahudah, where the armory of the enemies had been before; but he set a garrison of Yahudim there:

34 Moreover he fortified Yaffa, which lies upon the sea and Aza, that borders on Azotus, where the enemies had dwelt before: he placed Yahudim there and furnished them with all things convenient for the reparation of it.

35 The people therefore sang the acts of Shimon and to what kavod he thought to bring his nation, made him their governor and Kohen HaGadol because he had done all these things and for the justice and emunah which he kept to his nation and for seeking by all means to exalt his people.

36 For in his time things prospered in his hands, so that the goyim were taken out of their country and they also who were in the city of Dawid in Yahrushalayim, who had made themselves a tower, out of which they issued and polluted all around the Makom Kadosh and did much evil in the Makom Kadosh.

37 But he placed Yahudim in it and fortified it for the safety of the country and the city and raised up the walls of Yahrushalayim.

38 Melech Demetrius also confirmed him as Kohen HaGadol according to those things, 39 And made him one of his chaverim and greatly esteemed him.

40 For he had heard that the Romans had called the Yahudim their chaverim and associates and brothers; and that they had entertained the ambassadors of Shimon with esteem;

41 Also that the Yahudim and kohanim were well pleased that Shimon should be their governor and Kohen HaGadol le-olam-va-ed, until there should arise a faithful Navi;

42 Moreover that he should be their captain and should take charge of the Makom Kadosh, to set them over their works and over the country and over the armor and over the fortresses, that, I say, he should take charge of the Makom Kadosh;

43 Beside this, that he should be obeyed by every man and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name and that he should be clothed in purple and wear gold:

44 Also that it should be lawful for none of the people or kohanim to break any of these things, or to twist his words, or to gather an assembly in the country without him, or to be clothed in purple, or wear a buckle of gold;

45 And whoever should do otherwise, or break any of these things, he should be punished.

46 So it appealed to all the people to deal with Shimon and to do as has been said.

47 Then Shimon accepted it and was well pleased to be Kohen HaGadol and captain and governor of the Yahudim and kohanim and to defend them all.

48 So they commanded that this writing should be put in tables of brass and that they should be set up within the area of the Makom Kadosh in a conspicuous place;

49 Also that the copies of it should be laid up in the treasury, to the end that Shimon and his sons might have them.

15 Moreover Antiochus son of Demetrius the melech sent letters from the isles of the sea to Shimon the kohen and sar of the Yahudim and to all the people;

2 The contents were these: Melech Antiochus to Shimon the Kohen HaGadol and sar of his nation and to the people of the Yahudim, greeting:

3 Seeing that certain pestilent men have usurped the malchut of our ahvot and my purpose is to challenge it again, that I may restore it to the old estate and to that end have gathered a multitude of foreign soldiers together and prepared ships of war;

4 My meaning also being to go through the country, that I may be avenged of them that have destroyed it and made many cities in the malchut desolate:

5 Now therefore I confirm to you all the offerings which the melechim before me granted to you and whatever gifts besides that they granted.

6 I give you freedom also to coin money for your country with your own stamp.

7 And as concerning Yahrushalayim and the Makom Kadosh, let them be free; and all the armor that you have made and fortresses that you have built and keep in your hands, let them remain with you.

8 And if anything be, or shall be, owed to the melech, let it be forgiven to you from this time forth le-olam-va-ed.

9 Furthermore, when we have obtained our malchut, we will esteem you and your nation and your Beit HaMikdash, with great esteem, so that your esteem shall be known throughout the olam.

10 In the hundred and seventy fourth year Antiochus went into the land of his ahvot: at which time all the forces came together to him, so that few were left with Tryphon.

11 So being pursued by melech Antiochus, he fled to Dora, which lies by the sea side:

12 For he saw that troubles came upon him all at once and that his forces had forsaken him.

13 Then Antiochus camped against Dora, having with him one hundred twenty thousand men of war and eight thousand horsemen.

14 And when he had surrounded the city, he placed ships close to the town on the sea side and he vexed the city by land and by sea, neither did he allow any to go out or in.

15 In the meantime Numenius came and his company from Rome, having letters to the melechim and countries; in which were written these things:

16 Lucius, consul of the Romans to melech Ptolemy, greetings:

17 The Yahudim's ambassadors, our chaverim and associates, came to us to renew the old friendship and treaty, being sent from Shimon the Kohen HaGadol and from the people of the Yahudim:

18 And they brought a shield of gold of a thousand pounds.

19 We thought it tov therefore to write to the melechim and countries, that they should do them no harm, nor fight against them, their cities, or countries, nor yet aid their enemies against them.

20 It seemed also tov to us to receive the shield from them.

21 If therefore there be any pestilent fellows who have fled from their country to you, deliver them to Shimon the Kohen HaGadol, that he may punish them according to their own Torah.

22 He wrote the same things likewise to Demetrius the melech and Attalus, to Ariarathes and Arsaces, 23 And to all the countries and to Sampsaes and the Lakedemonians and to Delus and Myndus and Sicyon and Caria and Samos and Pamphylia and Lycia and Halicarnassus and Rhodus and Aradus and Cos and Side and Aradus and Gortyna and Knidus and Kuprus and Kurene.

24 And the copy of which they wrote to Shimon the Kohen HaGadol.

25 So Antiochus the melech camped against Dora the second yom, assaulting it continually and making engines, by which means he shut in Tryphon, that he could neither go out nor in.

26 At that time Shimon sent him two thousand chosen men to aid him; silver also and gold and much armor.

27 Nevertheless he would not receive them but broke all the britot which he had made with him before and became strange to him.

28 Furthermore he sent to him Athenobius, one of his chaverim, to commune with him and say, You withhold Yaffa and Aza; with the tower that is in Yahrushalayim, which are cities of my realm.

29 The borders of it you have wasted and done great hurt in the eretz and taken the dominion of many places within my malchut.

30 Now therefore deliver the cities which you have taken and the taxes of the places, where you have taken dominion outside the borders of Yahudah:

31 Or, else give me for them five hundred talents of silver; and for the harm that you have done and the taxes of the cities, five hundred more talents: if not, we will come and fight against you

32 So Athenobius the melech's chaver came to Yahrushalayim: and when he saw the kavod of Shimon and the cupboard of gold and silver and his great presence, he was astonished and told him the melech's message.

33 Then answered Shimon and said to him, We have neither taken other men's land, nor held that which belongs to others but the inheritance of our ahvot, which our enemies had wrongfully in possession for a certain time.

34 So we, having opportunity, hold the inheritance of our ahvot.

35 And whereas you demand Yaffa and Aza, although they did great harm to the people in our country, yet will we give you a hundred talents for them. So Athenobius answered him not a word;

36 But returned in a rage to the melech and made a report to him of these words and of the kavod of Shimon and of all that he had seen: upon which the melech was exceedingly angry.

37 In the meantime Tryphon fled by ship to Orthosias.

38 Then the melech made Cendebeus captain of the sea coast and gave him an army of footmen and horsemen, 39 And commanded him to remove his army toward Yahudah; also he commanded him to build up Kidron and to fortify the gates and to war against the people; but as for the melech himself, he pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came to Yamnia and began to provoke the people and to invade Yahudah and to take the people prisoners and slay them.

41 And when he had built up Cedrou, he set horsemen there and an army of footmen, so that they might make roads upon the derachot of Yahudah, as the melech had commanded him.

16 Then came up Yochanan from Aza and told Shimon his abba what Cendebeus had done.

2 So Shimon called his two eldest sons, Yahudah and Yochanan and said to them, I, my brothers my abba's bayit have always from my youth to this yom fought against the enemies of Yisrael; and things have prospered so well in our hands, that we have delivered Yisrael many times.

3 But now I am old and you, by אֲבֹתָנוּ's rachamim, are of a sufficient age: so go instead of me and my brother and go and fight for our nation and the help from אֲבֹתָנוּ be with you.

4 So he chose out of the country twenty thousand men of war with horsemen, who went out against Cendebeus and rested that lyla at Modin.

5 And when as they rose in the boker and went into the plain, behold, a mighty great army both of footmen and horsemen came against them: however there was a mayim brook between them.

6 So he and his people pitched over against them: and when he saw that the people were afraid to go over the mayim brook, he went first over himself and then the men seeing him passed through after him.

7 That done, he divided his men and set the horsemen in the midst of the footmen: for the enemies' horsemen were very many.

8 Then they sounded with the set apart shofars: and so Cendebeus and his army were put to flight, so that many of them were slain and the remnant got to the stronghold.

9 At that time was Yahudah Yochanan's brother wounded; but Yochanan still followed after them, until he came to Kidron, which Cendebeus had built.

10 So they fled even to the towers in the fields of Azotus; so he burned it with fire: so that there were slain of them about two thousand men. Afterward he returned into eretz Yahudah in shalom.

11 Moreover in the plain of Yericho Ptolemeus the son of Abubus was made captain and he had abundance of silver and gold:

12 For he was the Kohen HaGadol's son in law.

13 So his lev being lifted up, he thought to get the country for himself and then consulted deceitfully against Shimon and his sons to destroy them.

14 Now Shimon was visiting the cities that were in the country and taking care for the tov ordering of them; at which time he came down himself to Yericho with his sons, Mattityahu and Yahudah, in the hundred and seventy seventh year, in the eleventh chodesh;

15 Where the son of Abubus receiving them deceitfully into a little place, called Docus, which he had built, made them a great banquet: however he had hid men there.

16 So when Shimon and his sons had drunk a lot, Ptolemy and his men rose up and took their weapons and came upon Shimon in the banqueting place and slew him and his two sons and certain of his avadim.

17 In which doing he committed a great treachery and recompensed evil for tov.

18 Then Ptolemy wrote these things and sent to the melech, that he should send him an army to aid him and he would deliver to him the country and cities.

19 He sent others also to Aza to kill Yochanan: and to the officers he sent letters to come to him, that he might give them silver and gold and rewards.

20 And others he sent to take Yahrushalayim and the har of the Beit HaMikdash.

21 Now one had run before to Aza and told Yochanan that his abba and brothers were slain and said, Ptolemy has sent to slay you also.

22 So when he heard it, he was very astonished: so he laid hands on them that were come to destroy him and slew them; for he knew that they sought to take him away.

23 As concerning the rest of the acts of Yochanan and his wars and worthy deeds which he did and the building of the walls which he made and his doings,

24 Behold, these are written in the chronicles of his kohanut, from the time he was made Kohen HaGadol after his abba. X

Second Maccabees- Macabeem Bet

1 The brothers, the Yahudim at Yahrushalayim and in the land of Yahudah, to the brothers, the Yahudim that are throughout Mitzrayim: brachot of health and shalom:

2 Ahlohim be gracious to you and remember His brit that He made with Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov, His faithful avadim;

3 And give you all a lev to serve Him and to do His will with a tov courage and a willing mind;

4 And open your levavot to His Torah and mitzvot and send you shalom,

5 And hear your tefillot and are echad with you and may He never forsake you in time of trouble.

6 And now we are here making tefillah for you.

7 During the time that Demetrius reigned, in the hundred and sixty ninth year, we the Yahudim wrote to you in the extremity of trouble that came upon us in those years, from the time that Yason and his company revolted from the set apart land and malchut,

8 And burned the porch and shed innocent dahm: then we made tefillah to אלהים and He heard us. We also offered sacrifices and fine flour and lit the lamps and set forth the Lechem Ha Panayim.

9 And now see that you keep Chag Sukkot in the ninth chodesh.

10 In the hundred and eighty eighth year, the people who were at Yahrushalayim and in Yahudah and the council in Yahudah, sent greetings of shalom and health to Aristobulus, melech Ptolemy's master, who was of the stock of the anointed kohanim and to the Yahudim that were in Mitzrayim:

11 Seeing that Ahlohim has delivered us from great perils, we thank Him highly, since we were in battle against a melech.

12 For he cast them out that fought within the set apart city.

13 For when the leader was come into Persia and the army with him that seemed invincible, they were slain in the temple of Nanea by the deceit of Nanea's kohanim.

14 For Antiochus, as though he would marry her, came into the place and his chaverim who were with him, to receive money in name of a dowry.

15 Which when the kohanim of Nanea had set forth and he had entered with a small company into the complex of the Beit HaMikdash, they shut the Beit HaMikdash as soon as Antiochus had come in:

16 And opening a secret door in the roof, they threw stones like thunderbolts and struck down the captain, cut them in pieces, smote off their heads and cast them to those that were outside.

17 Blessed be our Ahlohim in all things, who has delivered up the wicked.

18 Therefore since we are now purposed to keep the purification of the Beit HaMikdash upon the twenty-fifth yom of the ninth chodesh, we thought it necessary to certify it for you, that you also might keep it just like Chag Matzoth and of the fire, which was given us when Nechemyah offered sacrifice, after that he had rebuilt the Beit HaMikdash and the altar.

19 For when our ahvot were led into Persia, the kohanim that were then devout took the fire of the altar secretly and hid it in a hollow place of a pit without mayim, where they kept it secure, so that the place was unknown to all men.

20 Now after many years, when it pleased Ahlohim, Nechemyah, being sent from the melech of Persia, sent of the posterity of those kohanim who had hidden it to the fire: but when they told us they found no fire but thick mayim;

21 Then he commanded them to draw it up and to bring it; and when the sacrifices were laid on it, Nechemyah commanded the kohanim to sprinkle the wood and the things laid there with the mayim.

22 When this was done and the time came that the shemesh shone, which before was hidden in a cloud, a great fire was kindled, so that every man marveled.

23 And the kohanim made a tefillah while the sacrifice was burning, both the kohanim and all the rest, starting with Yahunatan and the rest continuing, as Nechemyah did.

24 And the tefillah was after this manner; O אלהים, אלהים Ahlohim, Creator of all things, who are without fear and strong and tzadik and merciful and the only gracious Melech,

25 The only Giver of all things, the only Tzadik, The Almighty and everlasting, You who deliver Yisrael from all trouble and chose the ahvot and set them apart:

26 Receive the sacrifice for Your whole people Yisrael and preserve Your own portion and set it apart.

27 Gather those together that are scattered from us, deliver them that serve among the heathen, look upon them that are despised and abhorred and let the heathen know that You are our Ahlohim.

28 Punish them that oppress us and with pride do us wrong.

29 Plant Your people again in Your Makom Kadosh, as Moshe Rabeinu has spoken.

30 And the kohanim sang tehillim of hodu.

31 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Nechemyah commanded the mayim that was left to be poured on the great stones.

32 When this was done, there was kindled a flame:
but it was consumed by the ohr that shined from the altar.

33 So when this matter was known, it was told the melech of Persia, that in the place where the kohanim that were led away had hid the fire, there appeared mayim where Nechemyah had purified the sacrifices.

34 Then the melech, secured the place and made it set apart, after he had tried the matter.

35 And the melech took many gifts and bestowed them on those whom he would gratify.

36 And Nechemyah called this thing Naphthar, which is as much as to say, a cleansing: but many men call it Nephi.

2 It is also found in the records, that Yirmeyahu the navi commanded them who were carried away to take of the fire, as it has been designated:

2 And how that the navi, having given them The Torah, charged them not to forget the mitzvoth of אִתְּכֶם and that they should not err in their minds, when they see images of silver and gold with their ornaments.

3 And with other such speeches he exhorted them, that The Torah should not depart from their levavot.

4 It was also contained in the same writing that the navi, being warned by Ahlohim, commanded the Mishkan and the ark to go with him, as he went forth into the har, where Moshe Rabeinu climbed up and saw the heritage of Ahlohim.

5 And when Yirmeyahu came there, he found a hollow cave, where he laid the items of the Mishkan and the ark and the altar of incense and blocked the entrance.

6 And some of those that followed him came to mark the derech but they could not find it.

7 Which when Yirmeyahu knew it, he blamed them, saying, As for that place, it shall be unknown until the time that Ahlohim regather his people again together and receive them to rachamim.

8 Then shall אֱלֹהִים show them these things and the Tifereth of אֱלֹהִים shall appear and the cloud also, as it was shown under Moshe Rabeinu and as when Shlomo longed that the place might be estimably set apart.

9 It was also declared that he being wise, offered the sacrifice of dedication and of the finishing of the Beit HaMikdash.

10 And as when Moshe Rabeinu made tefillah to אֱלֹהִים, the fire came down from the shamayim and consumed the sacrifices: even so Shlomo made tefillah also and the fire came down from the shamayim and consumed the burnt offerings.

11 And Moshe Rabeinu said, Because the sin offering was not to be eaten, it was consumed.

12 So Shlomo kept those eight yamim.

13 The same things also were reported in the writings and commentaries of Nechemyah; and how he founding a library gathered together the acts of the melechim and the neviim and of Dawid and the letters of the melechim concerning the set apart gifts.

14 In like manner also Yahudah gathered together all those things that were lost by reason of the war we had and they remain with us, 15 Therefore if you have need of them, send someone to get them for you.

16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we have written to you and you shall do well if you keep the same yamim.

17 We have tikvah also that the Ahlohim who delivered all His people and gave them all a heritage, the malchut, the kohanut and the sanctuary;

18 As He promised in The Torah, will shortly have rachamim upon us and gather us together out of every land under the shamayim into the set apart place: for He has delivered us out of great troubles and has purified the place.

19 Now as concerning Yahudah Maccabee and his brothers and the purification of the great Beit HaMikdash and the dedication of the altar;

20 And the wars against Antiochus Epiphanes and Eupator his son,

21 And the obvious signs that came from the shamayim, to those that behaved themselves boldly to their esteem for Yahudah: so that, being but a few, they overcame the whole country and chased away barbarous multitudes,

22 And recovered again the Beit HaMikdash known to all the olam over and freed the city and upheld the Torot which were in danger, אֱלֹהִים being gracious to them with all chesed:

23 All these things, I say, being declared by Yason of Cyrene in five books, we will try to abridge in one volume.

24 For considering the infinite number and the difficulty which they find who desire to look into the narrations of the account, for the many details of the matter,

25 We have been careful, that they who will read it may have delight and that they that are desirous to commit it to memory, might have an easy task and that all into whose hands it comes might have benefits.

26 Therefore to us who have undertaken this painful labor of abridging, it was not easy but a matter of sweat and watching;

27 Even as it is not easy for him that prepares a banquet and seeks the benefit of others: yet for the brachot of many we will undertake gladly these great pains;

28 Leaving to the author the exact handling of every particular detail and laboring to follow the rules of an abridgement.

29 For as the master builder of a new bayit must care for the whole building; he that undertakes to decorate and paint it, must seek out fit things to adorn it with:even so I think it is with us.

30 To stand upon every point and go over things at large and to be curious in the particulars belongs to the first author of the account:

31 But to use brevity and avoid much laboring of the work, is to be granted to him that will make an abridgment.

32 Here then, we will begin the actual account: only adding little to that which has been said, that it is a foolish thing to make a long prologue and to be short in the account itself.

3 Now when the set apart city was inhabited with all shalom and the Torot were kept very well because of the Shabbat-guarding piety of Chananyah the Kohen HaGadol and his hatred of Torah-less-ness,

2 It came to pass that even the melechim themselves esteemed the Makom Kadosh and magnified the Beit HaMikdash with their best gifts;

3 Insomuch that Seleucus of Asia of his own revenues bore all the costs belonging to the service of the sacrifices.

4 But one Shimon of the tribe of Binyamin, who was made overseer of the Beit HaMikdash, fell out with the Kohen HaGadol about disorder in the city.

5 And when he could not win over Chananyah, he went to Apollonius the son of Thraseas, who then was governor of Celosyria and Phoenicia,

6 And told him that the treasury in Yahrushalayim was full of infinite sums of money, so that the multitude of their riches which did not pertain to the account of the sacrifices was innumerable and that it was possible to bring all into the melech's hand.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the melech and told him about the money, the melech chose Heliodorus his treasurer and sent him with a commandment to bring him the money.

8 So immediately Heliodorus took his journey; pretending to visit the cities of Celosyria and Phoenicia but in reality to fulfill the melech's purpose.

9 And when he had come to Yahrushalayim and had been courteously received by the Kohen HaGadol of the city, he told him what intelligence was given about the money and declared why he came and asked if these things were so indeed.

10 Then the Kohen HaGadol told him that there was such money laid up for the relief of widows and fatherless children:

11 And that some of it belonged to Hircanus son of Toviyah, a man of great dignity and not as that wicked Shimon had misinformed him: the sum was four hundred talents of silver and two hundred of gold:

12 And that it was altogether impossible that such wrongs should be done to them, that had committed it to the set apartness of the place and to the majesty and set apartness of the Beit HaMikdash, esteemed in all the olam.

13 But Heliodorus because of the melech's commandment given to him, said that it still must be brought into the melech's treasury.

14 So at the yom which he appointed he entered in to order this matter: therefore there was no small agony throughout the whole city.

15 But the kohanim, prostrating themselves before the altar in their kohanim vestments, called to the shamayim to Him that made a Torah concerning things given to be kept; that they should safely be preserved for those for whom the funds were designated.

16 Then whoever had looked the Kohen HaGadol in the face, it would have wounded his lev: for his countenance and the changing of his color declared the inward agony of his mind.

17 For the man was so full with fear and horror of the gooff, that it was obvious to them that looked upon him, what sorrow he had now in his lev.

18 Others ran flocking out of their houses to the general supplication because the place was about to come into contempt.

19 And the women, clothed with sackcloth under their breasts, abounded in the streets and the virgins that were kept in ran, some to the gates and some to the walls and others looked out of the windows.

20 And all, holding their hands toward the shamayim, made tefillah.

21 Then it would have pitied a man to see the falling down of the multitude of all sorts and the fear of the Kohen HaGadol being in such an agony.

22 They then called upon The Almighty אֱלֹהִים to keep the things committed to trust, safe and secure for those who had committed them.

23 Nevertheless Heliodorus executed that which was decreed.

24 Now as he was there present himself with his guard around the treasury, אֱלֹהִים of ruacheem and the Sar of all Power, caused a great vision, so that all who presumed to come in with him were astonished at the Power of Ahlohim, fainted and were very afraid.

25 For there appeared to them a horse with a great rider upon it and adorned with a very fair covering and He ran fiercely and smote at Heliodorus with His feet and it seemed that He that sat upon the horse had complete harness of gold.

26 Moreover two other young men appeared before Him, notable in strength, excellent in tifereth and in apparel, who stood by Heliodorus on either side; and scourged him continually and gave him many stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly to the ground and was compassed with great darkness: but they who were with him took him up and put him into an animal shelter.

28 So they carried him out who before came with great speed and with all his guard into the treasury, being unable to help himself with his weapons: and obviously they acknowledged the Power of Ahlohim.

29 For he by the hand of Ahlohim was cast down and lay speechless without all tikvah of chayim.

30 But they praised אֱלֹהִים, who had miraculously esteemed His own place: for the Beit HaMikdash; which a little before was full of fear and trouble, when Almighty אֱלֹהִים appeared, was now filled with simcha and gilah.

31 Then immediately certain of Heliodorus' chaverim begged Chananyah to call upon אֱלֹהִים to grant him his chayim, who lay ready to die.

32 So the Kohen HaGadol, suspecting that the melech should misconceive that some treachery had been done to Heliodorus by the Yahudim, offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

33 Now as the Kohen HaGadol was making an keporah, the same young men in the same clothing appeared and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Give Chananyah the Kohen HaGadol great hodu, because for his sake, אֱלֹהִים has granted you chayim:

34 And seeing that you have been scourged from the shamayim, declare to all men the mighty Power of Ahlohim. And when they had spoken these words, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus, after he had offered sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים, made great vows to Him who had saved his chayim, saluted Chananyah and returned with his army to the melech.

36 Then he testified to all men the works of the great Ahlohim, which he had seen with his eyes.

37 And when the melech inquired of Heliodorus who might be a fit man to be sent yet once again to Yahrushalayim, he said, 38 If you have any enemy or traitor, send him there; and he shall be well-scourged, if he escape with his chayim. For in that place, no doubt; there is a special Power of Ahlohim.

39 For He who dwells in the shamayim has His eye on that place and defends it; and He beats and destroys them who come to hurt it.

40 And the things concerning Heliodorus and the keeping of the treasury, took place as recorded.

4 This Shimon now, of whom we spoke before, having been a betrayer of the money and of his country, slandered Chananyah, as if he had terrified Heliodorus and had been the worker of these evils.

2 So was he bold to call him a traitor, though he had served the city well and tended to his own nation and was so zealous for the Torot.

3 But when their hatred went so far, so that by one of Shimon's factions murders were committed,

4 Chananyah seeing the danger of this contention and that Apollonius, who was the governor of Celosyria and Phoenicia, raged and increased Shimon's malice,

5 He went to the melech, not to be an accuser of his countrymen but seeking the tov of all, both public and private:

6 For he saw that it was impossible that the state should be in shalom and Shimon cease his folly, unless the melech looked into the matter.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, called Epiphanes, took the malchut, Yason the brother of Chananyah labored underhandedly to become Kohen HaGadol,

8 Promising the melech by intercession three hundred sixty talents of silver and of another revenue eighty talents:

9 Beside this, he promised to assign a hundred fifty more, if he might have freedom to set up a place for exercise and for the training up of youth, in the fashions of the heathen and to make them of Yahrushalayim to become like Antiochians.

10 Which when the melech had granted and he had gotten into his hand the authority, he immediately brought his own nation to Hellenistic fashion.

11 And the royal privileges granted by special chen to the Yahudim by the means of Yochanan the abba of Eupolemus, who went as ambassador to Rome for friendship and aid, he took away; and putting down the governments which were according to The Torah, he brought up new customs against The Torah:

12 For he gladly built a place of exercise under the tower itself and brought the chief young men under his subjection and he seduced even the noblest.

13 Now such was the height of Hellenist fashions and increase of heathen manners, through the exceeding profaneness of Yason, that wicked wretch, and not really a Kohen HaGadol;

14 That the kohanim had no courage to serve anymore at the altar but despising the Beit HaMikdash and neglecting the sacrifices, hastened to be partakers of the unlawful allowance in the place of exercise, after the game of Discus called them forth;

15 Not living by the esteem of their ahvot but liking the kavod of the Hellenists best of all.

16 By that behavior, sore calamity came upon them: for they had them to be their enemies and avengers, whose customs they followed, so earnestly and to whom they longed to be like in all things.

17 For it is not a ohr thing to do wickedly against the Torot of Ahlohim: but the time following shall declare these things.

18 Now when the game that was used every fifth year was kept at Tyrus, the melech being present, 19 This ungracious Yason sent special messengers from Yahrushalayim, who were Antiochians, to carry three hundred pieces of silver to the sacrifice of the deity Hercules, which even the bearers of it thought it wrong to bestow it upon the sacrifice because it was not convenient and to be used for other things.

20 This money then, in regard to the sender, was appointed to Hercules' sacrifice; but because of the bearers of it, it was used for the making of ships.

21 Now when Apollonius the son of Menestheus was sent into Mitzrayim for the coronation of melech Ptolemy Philometor, Antiochus, understanding him not to be well affected to his affairs, provided for his own safety: then he came to Yaffa and from there to Yahrushalayim:

22 Where he was esteemed and received by Yason and by the city and was brought in with torch aglow and with great shoutings: and so afterward went with his host to Phoenicia.

23 Three years afterward, Yason sent Menelaus, Shimon's brother, to bear the money to the melech and to put him in reminder of certain necessary matters.

24 But he being brought to the presence of the melech, when he had magnified him for the wonderful appearance of his power, bought the kohanut for himself, offering more than Yason by three hundred talents of silver.

25 So he came with the melech's mandate, bringing nothing worthy of making him the Kohen HaGadol but having the fury of a cruel tyrant and the rage of a savage beast.

26 Then Yason, who had undermined his own brother, being undermined by another, was compelled to flee into the country of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus got the position: but as for the money that he had promised to the melech, he took no tov order for it, although Sostratis the ruler of the castle required it:

28 For the gathering of the customs pertained to him. Therefore they were both called before the melech.

29 Now Menelaus left his brother Lysimachus in his place in the kohanut; and Sostratus left Crates, who was governor of the Cyprians.

30 While those things were going on, they of Tarsus and Mallos made insurrection because they were given to the melech's concubine, called Antiochus.

31 Then came the melech in all haste to appease matters, leaving Andronicus, a man in authority, for his deputy.

32 Now Menelaus, supposing that he had gotten a convenient time, stole certain vessels of gold out of the Beit HaMikdash and gave some of them to Andronicus and some he sold into Tyrus and the cities round about.

33 Which when Chananyah knew, he reproved him and withdrew into a sanctuary at Daphne, near Antioch.

34 Therefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart, asked him to get Chananyah into his hands; who being persuaded to do so and coming to Chananyah in deceit, gave him his right hand with oaths; and though he was suspected by him, yet he persuaded him to come forth to the Makom Kadosh: whom he immediately murdered without regard to tzedakah.

35 For which cause not only the Yahudim but many also of other goyim, took great indignation and were much grieved for the unjust murder of the man.

36 And when the melech was come again from the places around Kilikia, the Yahudim that were in the city and certain of the Greeks that abhorred the fact also, complained because Chananyah was slain without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was heartily sorry and moved to pity and wept because of the sober and modest behavior of him that was dead.

38 And being kindled with anger, immediately he took away Andronicus' purple and ripped off his clothes and leading him through the whole city to that very place where he had committed impiety against Chananyah, there he slew the cursed murderer. So אִרְאֵל rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved.

39 Now when many sacrileges had been committed in the city by Lysimachus with the consent of Menelaus and the fruit of it was spread abroad, the multitude gathered themselves together against Lysimachus, many vessels of gold being already carried away.

40 Whereupon the common people rising and being filled with rage, Lysimachus armed about three thousand men and began first to offer violence; one Auranus being the leader, a man far gone in years and no less in folly.

41 They then seeing the attempt of Lysimachus, some of them caught stones, some clubs, others taking handfuls of dust that was at hand, cast them all together upon Lysimachus and those that set upon them.

42 So many of them they wounded and some they struck to the ground and all of them they forced to flee: but they killed the thief who stole from the Beit HaMikdash next to the treasury.

43 Of these matters therefore there was an accusation laid against Menelaus.

44 Now when the melech came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the senate pleaded the cause before him:

45 But Menelaus, being now convicted, promised Ptolemy the son of Dorymenes to give him much money, if he would pacify the melech toward him.

46 Whereupon Ptolemy taking the melech aside into a certain gallery, as if it were to take the air, brought him to be of another mind:

47 Insomuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, who notwithstanding was the cause of all the mischief: and those poor men, who, if they had told their cause, yes, before the Scythians, should have been judged innocent, them he condemned to death.

48 So they who followed the matter for the city, for the people and for the set apart vessels, soon suffered unjust punishment.

49 So even they of Tyrus, moved with hatred of that wicked deed, caused them to be buried in esteem.

50 And so through the covetousness of those who were of power, Menelaus remained still in authority, increasing in malice and being a great traitor to the citizens.

5 About the same time Antiochus prepared his second voyage into Mitzrayim:

2 And it came to pass that through all the city, for the space almost of forty yamim, there were seen horsemen running in the air, in clothes of gold and armed with lances, like a band of soldiers,

3 And troops of horsemen in array, encountering and running one against another, with shaking of shields and multitude of pikes and drawing of swords and casting of darts and glittering of golden ornaments and harness of all sorts.

4 So every man made tefillah that that vision might turn to tov.

5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumor, as though Antiochus had been dead, Yason took at least a thousand men and suddenly made an assault upon the city; and they who were upon the walls were pushed back and the city at length was taken. Menelaus fled into the castle:

6 But Yason slew his own citizens without rachamim, not considering that to kill them of his own nation would be a most unhappy yom for him; but he thought like they had been his enemies and not his countrymen, whom he conquered.

7 However for all this he obtained not the authority but at the last received shame for the reward of his treason and fled again into the country of the Ammonites.

8 In the end therefore he had an unhappy return, being accused before Aretas the melech of the Arabians, fleeing from city to city, pursued by all men, hated as an apostate from the Torot and being held in abomination as an open enemy of his country and countrymen, he was cast out into Mitzrayim.

9 So he who had driven many out of their country perished in a strange land, retiring to the Lakedemonians and thinking that there he would find help by reason of his kindred:

10 And he that had cast out many unburied had none to mourn for him, nor any solemn funerals at all, nor sepulcher with his ahvot.

11 Now when this that was done came to the melech's ear, he thought that Yahudah had revolted: then moving out of Mitzrayim in a furious mind, he took the city by force of arms, 12 And commanded his men of war not to spare such as they met and to slay such as went up upon the houses.

13 So there was killing of young and old, taking away of men, women and children, slaying of virgins and infants.

14 And there were destroyed within the space of three whole yamim eighty thousand, forty thousand were slain in the conflict; and the rest were sold.

15 Yet he was he not content with this but presumed to go into the most set apart Beit HaMikdash of all the olam; Menelaus, that traitor to the Torot and to his own country, being his guide:

16 And taking the set apart vessels with polluted hands and with profane hands pulling down the things that were dedicated by other melechim for its use and the Kavod and esteem of the place, he gave them away.

17 And so haughty was Antiochus in mind, that he considered not that אֱלֹהִים was angry for a while for the sins of them that dwelt in the city and therefore His eye was not upon the place.

18 For had they not been formerly wrapped in many sins, this man, as soon as he had come in, would have immediately been scourged and put back from his presumption, as Heliodorus was, whom Seleucus the melech sent to view the treasury.

19 Nevertheless Myhla did not choose the people for the place's sake but the place for the people's sake.

20 And therefore the place itself that was partaker with them of the adversity that happened to the nation, did afterward participate in the brachot sent from אֱלֹהִים: and as it was forsaken in the wrath of The Almighty, so again, the great אֱלֹהִים being contented, it was set up with all Kavod.

21 So when Antiochus had carried out of the Beit HaMikdash a thousand eight hundred talents, he departed in haste to Antioch, overbearing in his pride to make the land accessible and the sea passable by foot: such was the haughtiness of his mind.

Phrygian because his manners were more wicked than his own, he set him there;

23 And at Garizim Andronicus; and besides, Menelaus, who worse than all the rest bore a heavy hand over the citizens, having a malicious mind against his countrymen the Yahudim.

24 He sent also that detestable ringleader Apollonius with an army of twenty two thousand, commanding him to slay all those who were in their best age and to sell the women and the younger ones:

25 Who coming to Yahrushalayim and pretending shalom, held back until the set apart Shabbat, when taking the Yahudim keeping the set apart Yom, he commanded his men to arm themselves.

26 And so he slew all them who were celebrating the Shabbat and running through the city with weapons slew great multitudes.

27 But Yahudah Maccabee with about nine others, withdrew himself into the midbar and lived in the mountains after the manner of beasts, with his company, who fed on herbs continually, lest they should be partakers of the pollution.

6 Not long after this the melech sent an old man of Athens to compel the Yahudim to depart from the Torot of their ahvot and not to live after the Torot of Ahlohim:

2 And to pollute also the Beit HaMikdash in Yahrushalayim and to call it the temple of Yupiter Olympus; and that in Garizim, of Yupiter the Defender of Strangers, as they wanted to dwell in the place.

3 This mischief was very grievous to the people:

4 For the Beit HaMikdash was filled with parties and reveling by the goyim, who dallied with harlots and committed fornication with women within the courts of the set apart places and besides that brought in things that were not lawful in Torah.

5 The altar also was filled with profane things, which The Torah forbids.

6 Neither was it considered lawful for a man to keep the Shabbat Yamim or ancient fasts, or to profess himself at all to be a Yahudi.

7 And in the yom of the melech's birthday every single chodesh they were brought by bitter constraint to eat of the sacrifices; and when the Fast of Bacchus was kept, the Yahudim were compelled to go in procession to Bacchus, carrying ivy.

8 Moreover there went out a decree to the neighboring cities of the heathen, by the suggestion of Ptolemy, against the Yahudim, that they should observe the same customs and be partakers of their sacrifices:

9 And whoever would not conform themselves to the manners of the goyim should be put to death. Then might a man have seen the present misery.

10 For there were two women brought who had made brit-milah upon their children; whom they had openly led around the city, the babies hanging at their breasts, they cast them down headlong from the wall.

11 And others, who had run together into nearby caves to keep the Shabbat yom secretly, being discovered by Philip, were all burnt together because they chose to keep themselves for the esteem of the most kadosh Yom.

12 Now I beseech those that read this book, that they be not discouraged about these calamities but that they discern those punishments not to be for destruction but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a sign of His great tovness, when wicked doers are not allowed a long time but in due time punished.

14 For אֱלֹהִים deals with us not as with other goyim, whom He patiently waits to punish until they come to the fulness of their sins, 15 But when they come to the height of sin, afterwards He should take vengeance for us.

16 And therefore He never withdraws His rachamim from us: and though He corrects with adversity, yet He never forsakes His people.

17 But let this that we have spoken be for a warning to us. And now will we come to the declaring of the matter in a few words.

18 El-Azar, one of the main sophrim, an aged man and of a well-favored countenance, was constrained to open his mouth and to eat swine's flesh.

19 But he choosing rather to die with kavod, than to live stained with such an abomination, spit it out and came of his own accord to the torment,

20 Spitting out the meat. In this he showed how everyone ought to stand fast and reject what isn't lawful to taste in Torah, despite the intense desire to live.

21 Those in charge of the sacrifice had been chaverim of El-Azar for a long time; and because of this friendship they told him privately to bring meat that was lawful in Torah for him to eat.

22 He need only pretend to eat the pork, they said and in this way he would not be put to death.

23 But El-Azar made a decision worthy of his gray hair and advanced age. All his chayim he had lived in perfect obedience to אֱלֹהִים's kadosh Torah, so he replied, Kill me, here and now.

24 Such deception is not worthy of an ish of my years. Many young people would think that I had denied my emunah after I was ninety years old.

25 If I pretended to eat this meat, just to live a little while longer, it would bring shame and disgrace on me and lead many young people astray.

26 For the present I might be able to escape what you could do to me but whether I live or die, I cannot escape Almighty אֱלֹהִים.

27 If I die bravely now, it will show that I deserved my long chayim.

28 It will also set a tov example of the way young people should be willing and glad to die for our kadosh and respected Torot. As soon as he said these things, he went off to be tortured.

29 And the very people who had treated him kindly a few minutes before, now turned against him, because they thought he had spoken like a madman.

30 When they had beaten him almost to the point of death, he groaned and said, אֱלֹהִים possesses all kadosh daat. He knows I could have escaped these terrible sufferings and death, yet He also knows that I gladly suffer these things, because I fear Him.

31 So El-Azar died. But his courageous death was remembered as an example, not only by young people but by the entire nation as well.

7 It came to pass also, that seven brothers with their emma were taken and compelled by the melech against The Torah to taste swine's flesh and were tormented with scourges and whips.

2 But one of them that spoke first said this, What would you ask or learn about us? We are ready to die, rather than to transgress the Torot of our ahvot.

3 Then the melech, being in a rage, commanded pans and caldrons to be made hot:

4 Which immediately being heated, he commanded to cut out the tongue of him that spoke first and to cut off the other parts of his gooff, with the rest of his brothers and his emma looking on.

5 After the young man had been reduced to a helpless mass of breathing flesh, the melech gave orders for him to be carried over and thrown into one of the pans. As a cloud of smoke streamed up from the pan, the brothers and their emma encouraged one another to die bravely, saying;

6 אלהים Ahlohim sees us and in emet has comfort for us, as Moshe Rabeinu in his song, which witnessed to their faces, declared saying, אלהים shall grant rachamim to His avadim.

7 So when the first was dead, they brought the second to make him a laughing stock: and when they had pulled off the skin of his head with the hair, they asked him, Will you eat the pork, before you are punished throughout every member of your gooff?

8 But he answered in Ivrit and said, No. So he also received the torment in order, as did the first.

9 And when he was at his last gasp, he said, You like a fury take us out of this present chayim but The Melech of the olam shall raise us up, who have died for His Torot, to everlasting chayim.

10 The soldiers began entertaining themselves with the third brother. When he was ordered to stick out his tongue, he quickly did so. Then he bravely held out his hands;

11 And said courageously, These hands I have from the shamayim; yet His Torot mean more to me than my hands; and from Him I have tikvah to receive them back again.

12 So the melech and those that were with him, marveled at the young man's courage, for he disregarded the pains.

13 Now when this man was dead also, they tormented and tortured the fourth in like manner.

14 So when he was ready to die he said this, It is tov, being put to death by men, to look for tikvah from Ahlohim, to be raised up again by Him: as for you, you shall have no resurrection to eternal chayim.

15 Afterward they brought the fifth also and tortured him.

16 Then he looked to the melech and said, You have Power over men. You are corruptible, doing what you will, yet do not think that Ahlohim has forsaken our nation.

17 Just wait and behold His great power, how He will torment you and your zera.

18 After him also they brought the sixth, who being ready to die said, Be not deceived: for we suffer these things because of ourselves, having sinned against our Ahlohim. Therefore awful things are done to us.

19 But do not think, that you who have chosen to strive against Ahlohim, that you shall escape unpunished.

20 But the emma was the most amazing of them all and worthy of everlasting kavod: for when she saw her seven sons slain within the time of one yom, she endured it with a tov courage because of the tikvah that she had in אִי אֵלֹהִים.

21 Yes, she exhorted everyone of them in Ivrit, filled with a courageous ruach; She combined womanly emotion with manly courage.

22 I cannot tell how you came into my womb: for I neither gave you breath nor chayim, neither was it I that formed the members of everyone of you;

23 But doubtless The Creator of the olam, who formed the human race and who began all things, will also by His own rachamim, give you His Ruach and His chayim again, because you love His Torot more than your own chayim.

24 Antiochus was sure that the mother was making fun of him, so he did his best to convince her youngest son to abandon the Torot of his ancestors.

He promised not only to make the boy rich and famous but to place him in a position of authority and to give him the title Chaver of the Melech.

25 But when the young man would not listen to him, the melech called his emma and exhorted her that she would counsel the young man to save his chayim.

26 And when he had exhorted her with many words, she promised him that she would counsel her son.

27 Leaning over her son, she fooled the cruel tyrant by saying in her native Ivrit, My son, have pity on me. Remember that I carried you in my womb for nine chodashem and nursed you for three years. I have taken care of you and looked after all your needs up to the present yom.

28 I beseech you, my son, look upon the shamayim and the earth and all that is in it and consider that Ahlohim made them of things that were not; and so was mankind made likewise.

29 Fear not this tormentor but, being worthy of your brothers, receive your death, that I may receive you again in rachamim with your brothers.

30 While she was yet speaking these words, the young man said to the melech, What are you waiting for? I will not obey the melech's commandment: but I will obey the mitzvah of The Torah that was given to our ahvot by Moshe Rabeinu.

31 And you, who have been the author of all mischief against the Ivrim, shall not escape the hands of Ahlohim.

32 For we suffer because of our sins.

33 And though the living אֱלֹהִים be angry with us a little while, for our chastening and correction, yet shall He be echad again with His avadim.

34 But you, O man without Ahlohim and of all other most wicked ones, be not lifted up without a cause, nor puffed up with uncertain tikvah, lifting up your hand against the avadim of Ahlohim:

35 For you have not escaped the mishpat of Almighty Ahlohim, who sees all things.

36 For our brothers, who now have suffered a short time of pain, are dead, yet are now under Ahlohim's brit of everlasting chayim: but you, through the mishpat of Ahlohim, shall receive just punishment for your pride.

37 But I, as my brothers, offer up my gooff and chayim for the Torot of our ahvot, beseeching Ahlohim that He would speedily have rachamim on our nation; and that you by torments and plagues may confess that He alone is אֱלֹהִים;

38 And that in me and my brothers the wrath of The Almighty, which is justly brought upon our nation, may cease.

39 These words of ridicule made Antiochus so furious that he had the boy tortured even more cruelly than his brothers.

40 So this man died undefiled, having put his whole emunah in אֱלֹהִים.

41 Last of all after the sons, the emma was put to deah.

42 But I have said enough about the Yahudim being tortured and being forced to eat pork and the intestines of sacrificial animals.

8 Then Yahudah Maccabee and they who were with him went secretly into the towns and called their relatives together and took to them all such as continued in the Yahudim's Torah and assembled about six thousand men.

2 And they called upon אֱלֹהִים, that He would look upon the people who were trodden down of all; and also pity the Beit HaMikdash profaned by wicked men;

3 And that He would have rachamim on the city, very defaced and ready to be made even with the ground; and hear the dahm that cried to Him,
4 And remember the wicked slaughter of harmless infants and the blasphemies committed against His Name; and that He would show His hatred against the wicked.

5 Now when Maccabee had his company about him, he could not be overcome by the heathen: for the wrath of אף־אז was turned into rachamim.

6 Therefore he came towns and cities unawares and burnt them up and got into his hands the most comfortable places and overcame them and put to flight no small number of his enemies.

7 But specifically he took advantage of the lyla for such secret attempts, so that the fruit of his set apartness was spread everywhere.

8 So when Philip saw that this man increased little by little and that things prospered with him still more and more, he wrote to Ptolemy, the governor of Celosyria and Phoenicia, to yield more aid to the melech's affairs.

9 Then promptly choosing Nicanor the son of Patroclus, one of his special chaverim, he sent him with no fewer than twenty thousand of all goyim under him, to root out the whole generation of the Yahudim; and with him he joined also Gorgias a captain, who in matters of war had great experience.

10 So Nicanor undertook to make so much money of the captive Yahudim, to defray the tribute of two thousand talents, which the melech was to pay to the Romans.

11 So immediately he sent to the cities upon the sea coast, proclaiming a sale of the captive Yahudim and promising that they should have ninety bodies for one talent, not expecting the vengeance that was to follow upon him from The Almighty Ahlohim.

12 Now when word was brought to Yahudah of Nicanor's coming and he had imparted to those who were with him that the army was at hand, 13 Then they who were fearful and distrusted the justice of Ahlohim fled and hid.

14 Others sold all that they had left and sought אֶת־אֶת־אֶת to deliver them, sold by the wicked Nicanor before they met together:

15 And if not for their own sakes, yet for the britot He had made with their ahvot and for His set apart and wonderful Name's sake, by which they were called.

16 So Maccabee called his men together, six thousand and exhorted them not to be stricken with terror by the enemy, nor to fear the great multitude of the heathen, who came wrongly against them; but to fight manfully,

17 And to set before their eyes the injury that they had unjustly done to the set apart place and the cruel handling of the city, of which they made a mockery and also the taking away of the government of their ahvot:

18 For they, said he, trust in their weapons and boldness; but our confidence is in The Almighty who in an instant can cast down both them that come against us and also all of the olam.

19 Moreover, he reminded them what help their ahvot had found and how they were delivered, when under Sennacheriv a hundred and eighty-five thousand perished.

20 And he told them of the battle that they had in Bavel with the Galatians, how they came with only eight thousand in all to the battle, along with four thousand Makedonians and that the Makedonians being perplexed, the eight thousand destroyed a hundred and twenty thousand because of the help that they had from the shamayim and so received a great booty.

21 So when he had made them bold with these words and ready to die for The Torah and the country, he divided his army into four parts;

22 And his brothers joined him, leaders of each band, Shimon and Joseph and Yahunatan, giving each one fifteen hundred men.

23 Also he appointed El-Azar to read the kadosh Torah: and when he had given them the password, The help of Ahlohim; himself leading the first band,

24 And by the help of The Almighty they slew over nine thousand of their enemies and wounded and maimed most of Nicanor's host and so put all to flight;

25 And took their money that was supposed to buy them as avadim and pursued them far: but lacking time they returned:

26 For it was the yom before the Shabbat and therefore they would no longer pursue them.

27 So when they had gathered their armor together and spoiled their enemies, they focused themselves about the Shabbat, yielding exceeding tehillot and hodu to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who had preserved them to that yom, which was the beginning of rachamim being poured out upon them.

28 And after the Shabbat, when they had given part of the spoils to the maimed and the widows and orphans, the residue they divided among themselves and their avadim.

29 When this was done and they had made a common supplication, they sought the merciful אֱלֹהֵינוּ to be reconciled with his avadim le-olam-va-ed.

30 Moreover of those that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, who fought against them, they slew above twenty thousand and very easily got great possessions and divided among themselves many spoils and made the maimed, orphans, widows, yes and the aged also, equal in spoils with themselves.

31 And when they had gathered their armor together, they laid them up all carefully in convenient places and the remnant of the spoils they brought to Yahrushalayim.

32 They slew also Philarches, that wicked person, who was with Timotheus and had annoyed the Yahudim in many ways.

33 Furthermore at such time as they kept the feast for the victory in their country, they burnt Callisthenes, that had set fire to the set apart gates, who had fled into a little bayit; and so he received a reward fitting his Torah-less-ness.

34 As for that most ungracious Nicanor, who had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Yahudim as avadim, 35 He was through the help of אֲרָאֵל brought down by those he disdained; and putting off his wonderful apparel and discharging his company, he came like a fugitive eved through the midland to Antioch having very great disdain, for his army that was destroyed.

36 So he who was determined to make tov to the Romans their tribute by means of avadim in Yahrushalayim, spread the message abroad, that the Yahudim had Ahlohim to fight for them and therefore they could not be hurt because they followed the Torot that He gave them.

9 About that time came Antiochus with disdain out of the country of Persia

2 For he had entered the city called Persepolis and went about to rob the temple and to hold the city; then the multitude running to defend themselves with their weapons put them to flight; and so it happened, that Antiochus being put to flight by the inhabitants returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, news was brought to him what had come upon Nicanor and Timotheus.

4 Then swelling with anger, he thought to seek revenge against the Yahudim for the disgrace done to him by those who made him flee. Therefore he commanded his charioteer to drive without ceasing and to start the journey, the mishpat of Ahlohim now following him. For he had spoken proudly saying, That he would come to Yahrushalayim and make it a common burying place of the Yahudim.

5 But אֱלֹהִים Almighty, the Ahlohim of Yisrael, smote him with an incurable and invisible plague: for as soon as he had spoken these words, a pain of the bowels that was irremediable came upon him and heavy torment of his inner parts;

6 And that most justly: for he had tormented other men's bowels with many and strange torments.

7 However he had not ceased from his boasting but still was filled with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Yahudim and commanding to hurry the journey: but it came to pass that he fell down from his chariot violently; so that having a severe fall, all the members of his gooff were in pain.

8 And so he that a little before thought he might command the waves of the sea, (so proud was he beyond the condition of normal men) and weigh the high mountains in a balance, was now cast on the ground and carried in a horse carriage, showing forth to all the obvious Power of Ahlohim.

9 So that the worms rose up out of the gooff of this wicked man and while he lived in sorrow and pain, his flesh fell away and the filthiness of his smell was obnoxious to all his army.

10 And the man who thought a little before that he could reach to the cochavim of the shamayim, no man could endure to carry due to his intolerable stink.

11 Therefore, being plagued, he began to cease his great pride and to come to the da'at of himself by the scourge of Ahlohim, his pain increasing every moment.

12 And when he himself could not abide with his own smell, he said these words, It is fitting to be subject to Ahlohim and that a man that is mortal should not proudly think of himself as if he were Ahlohim.

13 This wicked person vowed also to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, who now no more would have rachamim upon him, saying this,

14 That the set apart city (which he was going in haste, to lay it even with the ground and to make it a common cemetery) he would set free:

15 And as touching the Yahudim, whom he had judged not worthy so much as to be buried but to be cast out with their children to be devoured by the fowls and wild beasts, he would make them all equal to the citizens of Athens:

16 And the set apart the Beit HaMikdash, which before he had spoiled, he would garnish with goodly gifts and restore all the set apart vessels with many more and out of his own revenue defray the charges belonging to the sacrifices:

17 Yes and that also he would become a Yahudi himself and go through all the olam that was inhabited and declare the Power of Ahlohim.

18 But for all this his pains would not cease: for the just mishpat of Ahlohim was come upon him: therefore despairing over his health, he wrote to the Yahudim the letter underwritten, containing the form of a supplication, after this manner:

19 Antiochus, melech and governor, to the tov Yahudim his citizens, bids much simcha, health and prosperity:

20 If you and your children fare well and your affairs be to your contentment, I give very great hodu to Ahlohim, having my tikvah in the shamayim.

21 As for me, I was weak, or else I would have remembered kindly your esteem and tov will, returning out of Persia and being taken with a grievous disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all:

22 Not distrusting my health but having great tikvah to escape this sickness.

23 But considering that even my abba, at the time he led an army into the high countries, appointed a successor,

24 So that, if anything happened unexpectedly, or if any tidings were brought that were grievous, they of the land, knowing to whom the state was left, might not be troubled:

25 Again, considering how that the princes that are on the borders and neighbors to my malchut, wait for opportunities and expect me to perish, I have appointed my son Antiochus melech, whom I often committed and commended to many of you, when I went up into the high provinces; to whom I have written as follows:

26 Therefore I make tefillah and request that you remember the benefits that I have done for you generally and that every man will be still faithful to me and my son.

27 For I am persuaded that he understanding my mind, will estimably and graciously yield to your desires.

28 So the murderer and blasphemer having suffered most grievously, even as he treated other men, so he died a miserable death in a strange country in the mountains.

29 And Philip, who was brought up with him, carried away his goff, who also fearing the son of Antiochus went into Mitzrayim to Ptolemy Philometor.

10 Now Maccabee and his company, אִיִּזְרָאֵל guiding them, recovered the Beit HaMikdash and the city:

2 And the altars which the heathen had built in the open street and also the pagan altars, they pulled down.

3 And having cleansed the Beit HaMikdash they made another altar and striking stones they took fire out of them and offered a sacrifice after two years and set forth incense and lights and the lechem ha panayim.

4 When that was done, they fell flat down and sought אִיִּזְרָאֵל that they might come no more into such troubles; but if they sinned anymore against Him, that He Himself would chasten them with rachamim and that they might not be delivered to the blasphemous and barbarous goyim.

5 Now upon the same yom that the strangers profaned the Beit HaMikdash, on the very same yom it was cleansed again, namely the twenty fifth yom of the same chodesh, which is chodesh nine.

6 And they kept the eight yamim with gilah, as in the Chag Sukkot, remembering that not long before they had held the Chag Sukkot, when they wandered in the mountains and dens like beasts.

7 Therefore they carried branches, fair boughs and palms also and sang tehillim to Him who had given them tov success in cleansing His place.

8 They ordained also by a common statute and decree, That every year those yamim should be kept by the whole nation of the Yahudim.

9 And this was the end of Antiochus, called Epiphanes.

10 Now will we declare the acts of Antiochus Eupator, who was the son of this wicked man, giving a summary of the calamities of the wars.

11 So when he was come to the keter, he set Lysias over the affairs of his realm and appointed him his chief governor of Celosyria and Phoenicia.

12 For Ptolemy, who was called Macron, choosing rather to do justice to the Yahudim for the wrong that had been done to them, sought to continue shalom with them.

13 When being accused by the melech's chaverim before Eupator and called traitor at every word because he had left Kuprus, that Philometor had committed to him and departed to Antiochus Epiphanes. Unable to command the respect due his office, he took poison and ended his chayim.

14 But when Gorgias was governor of the region, he hired soldiers and nourished war continually with the Yahudim:

15 And that being the case, the Idumeans, having gotten their hands on key strongholds, kept the Yahudim occupied and receiving those that were banished from Yahrushalayim, they went about to promote war.

16 Then they who were with Maccabee made supplication and sought Ahlohim that He would be their helper; and so they ran with violence upon the strongholds of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulting them strongly, they won the strongholds and kept off all that fought upon the wall and slew all that fell into their hands and killed no fewer than twenty thousand.

18 And because certain men, who were no less than nine thousand, had fled together into two very strong castles, having all manner of things convenient to sustain the siege,

19 Maccabee left Shimon and Joseph and Zacchai also and them who were with him, who were enough to besiege them and departed himself to those places which were more in need of his help.

20 Now they who were with Shimon, being led with covetousness, were persuaded for money through certain of those that were in the castle and took seventy thousand drachmas and let some of them escape.

21 But when it was told Maccabee what was done, he called the governors of the people together and accused those men, that they had sold their brothers for money and set their enemies free to fight against them.

22 So he slew those who were found traitors and immediately took the two castles.

23 And having tov success with his weapons in all things he took in hand, he slew in the two strongholds more than twenty thousand.

24 Now Timotheus, whom the Yahudim had overcome before, when he had gathered a great multitude of foreign forces and quite a few horses out of Asia, came as though he would take the Yahudim by force of arms.

25 But when he drew near, they who were with Maccabee turned themselves to make tefillah to Ahlohim and sprinkled earth upon their heads and girded their loins with sackcloth, 26 And fell down at the foot of the altar and sought Him to be merciful to them and to be an enemy to their enemies and an adversary to their adversaries, as The Torah declares.

27 So after the tefillah they took their weapons and went on further from the city: and when they drew near to their enemies, they kept by themselves.

28 Now the shemesh having risen, they joined both together; the one part having together with their virtue their refuge also to אֱלֹהֵינוּ for a pledge of their success and victory: the other side making their rage the leader of their battle

29 But when the battle grew strong, there appeared to the enemies from the shamayim five comely men upon horses, with bridles of gold and two of them led the Yahudim,

30 And took Maccabee between them and covered him on every side with weapons and kept him safe but shot arrows and lightnings against the enemies: so that being confounded with blindness and full of trouble, they were killed.

31 And there were slain of footmen twenty thousand five hundred and six hundred horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himself, he fled into a very stronghold, called Gawra, where Chereas was governor.

33 But they who were with Maccabee laid siege against the fortress courageously for four yamim.

34 And they that were within, trusting in the strength of the place, blasphemed exceedingly and uttered wicked words.

35 Nevertheless early on the fifth yom, twenty young men of Maccabee's company, inflamed with anger because of the blasphemies, assaulted the wall and with a fierce courage killed all that they met there.

36 Others likewise ascending after them, while they were busied with them who were within, burnt the towers and kindling fires burnt the blasphemers alive; and others broke open the gates and, having received in the rest of the army, took the city,

37 And killed Timotheus, who was hidden in a certain pit and Chereas his brother, with Apollophanes.

38 When this was done, they praised אלהים with tehillim and hodu, who had done so great things for Yisrael and given them the victory.

11 Not long after these things, Lysias the melech's protector and cousin, who also managed the affairs, was upset for the things that were done.

2 And when he had gathered about eighty thousand with all the horsemen, he came against the Yahudim, thinking to make the city a habitation for the goyim,

3 And to gain wealth from the Beit HaMikdash from the other altars of the heathen and to set the office of the Kohen HaGadol on sale every year:

4 Not at all considering the Power of Ahlohim but puffed up with his ten thousands of footmen and his thousands of horsemen and his eighty elephants.

5 So he came to Yahudah and drew near to Beth Sura, which was a strong town but near Yahrushalayim, about half a mile and he laid a hard siege against it.

6 Now when they that were with Maccabee heard that he besieged the strongholds, they and all the people with lamentation and tears sought אלהים that He would send a tov malach to deliver Yisrael.

7 Then Maccabee himself first of all took weapons, exhorting the others that they would jeopardize themselves together with him to help their brothers: so they went forth together with a willing mind.

8 And as they were at Yahrushalayim, there appeared before them on horseback one in white clothing, shaking his armor of gold.

9 Then they praised the merciful Ahlohim all together and took lev, seeing that they were ready not only to fight with men but with the most cruel beasts and to pierce through walls of iron.

10 So they marched forward in their armor, having a helper from the shamayim: for אֱלֹהִים was merciful to them.

11 And giving a charge upon their enemies like lions, they slew eleven thousand footmen and sixteen hundred horsemen and put all the others to flight.

12 Many of them also being wounded escaped naked; and Lysias himself fled away shamefully and so escaped.

13 Who, as he was a man of binah, considered what loss he had had and considering that the Ivrim could not be overcome because The Almighty Ahlohim helped them, sent to them,

14 And persuaded them to agree to all reasonable conditions and promised that he would persuade the melech that he had to be a chaver to them.

15 Then Maccabee consented to all that Lysias sought, being careful of the common tov; and whatever Maccabee wrote to Lysias concerning the Yahudim, the melech granted it.

16 For there were letters written to the Yahudim from Lysias to this effect: Lysias to the people of the Yahudim I send greetings:

17 Yochanan and Avshalom, who were sent from you, delivered to me the petition subscribed and made request for the performance of the contents of it.

18 Therefore whatever things were fit to be reported to the melech, I have declared them and he has granted as much as might be.

19 And if then you will keep yourselves loyal to the state, from now on also will I endeavor to be a means of your tov.

20 But of the particulars I have given order both to these and the others that came from me, to commune with you.

21 Farewell. The hundred forty eighth year, the twenty fourth yom of the pagan chodesh.

22 Now the melech's letter contained these words: Melech Antiochus to his brother Lysias sends greeting:

23 Since our abba is translated to the ahlaim, our will is that they who are in our realm live quietly, that everyone may attend on his own affairs.

24 We understand also that the Yahudim would not consent to our abba to be brought to the custom of the goyim but would rather keep their own manner of living: for this cause, they require of us that we should allow them to live after their own Torot.

25 So our mind is that this nation shall be in shalom and we have determined to restore to them their Beit HaMikdash, that they may live according to the customs of their ahvot.

26 You shall do well therefore to send to them and grant them shalom, that when they are certain of our intent, they may be of tov comfort and always go cheerfully about their own affairs.

27 And the letter of the melech to the nation of the Yahudim was after this manner: Melech Antiochus sends greeting to the council and the rest of the Yahudim:

28 If you fare well, that's what we like; we are also in tov health.

29 Menelaus declared to us, that your desire was to return home and to follow your own business:

30 So they who will depart shall have safe conduct until the thirtieth yom of the chodesh Aviv with security.

31 And the Yahudim shall use their own kind of meats and Torot, as before; and none of their derachot shall be molested by things ignorantly done by us.

32 I have sent also Menelaus, that he may comfort you.

33 Farewell. In the hundred and forty eighth year and the fifteenth yom of the chodesh Aviv.

34 The Romans also sent to them a letter containing these words: Quintus Memmius and Titus Manlius, ambassadors of the Romans, sends greetings to the people of the Yahudim.

35 Whatever Lysias the melech's cousin has granted, we also are well pleased with it.

36 But as to the matters that he decided are to be referred to the melech, as soon as you have considered them, send someone promptly, so that we may make proposals appropriate for you. For we are on our way to Antioch.

37 Therefore send someone quickly, that we may make propoals to you.

38 Farewell. This hundred forty eighth year, the fifteenth yom of the chodesh Aviv.

12 When these britot were made, Lysias went to the melech and the Yahudim were about their farming.

2 But of the governors of several places, Timotheus and Apollonius the son of Genneus, also Hieronymus and Demophon and beside them Nicanor the governor of Kuprus, would not suffer them to be quiet and live in shalom.

3 The men of Yaffa also did a wicked deed: they made the Yahudim that dwelt among them to go with their wives and children into the boats which they had prepared, as though they had meant them no hurt.

4 Who accepted it according to the common decree of the city, longing to live in shalom and suspecting nothing, so when they were gone forth into the deep, they drowned no less than two hundred of them.

5 When Yahudah heard of this cruelty done to his countrymen, he commanded those that were with him to get ready.

6 And calling upon אִיִּזְק the Tzadik Shophet, he came against those murderers of his brethren and burnt the port by lyla and set the boats on fire and those that fled from there he slew.

7 And when the town was defeated, he went backward, as if he would return to root out all them of the city of Yaffa.

8 But when he heard that the Yamnites were minded to do in like manner to the Yahudim that dwelt among them, 9 He came upon the Yamnites also by lyla and set fire on the port and the navy, so that the ohr of the fire was seen at Yahrushalayim thirty miles off.

10 Now when they were gone from there about a mile in their journey toward Timotheus, no fewer than five thousand men on foot and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians attacked him.

11 Then there was a very severe battle; but Yahudah's side by the help of Ahlohim got the victory; so that the Nomades of Arabia, being overcome, sought Yahudah for shalom, promising both to give him cattle and to appease him otherwise.

12 Then Yahudah, thinking indeed that they would be profitable in many things, granted them shalom: then they shook hands and so they departed to their tents.

13 He went also about to make a bridge to a certain strong city, which was fenced about with walls and inhabited by people of diverse countries; and the name of it was Caspis.

14 But they who were within it put such trust in the strength of the walls and protections that they behaved themselves rudely toward them who were with Yahudah, railing and blaspheming and uttering such words as were not to be spoken.

15 So Yahudah with his company, calling upon אִרְאֵל Tzevaot, who without rams or engines of war had cast down Yericho in the time of מִלְחָמָה, gave a fierce assault against the walls, 16 And took the city by the will of Ahlohim and made large slaughters, so that a lake, a quarter mile wide nearby, being filled full, was seen running with dahm.

17 Then they departed from there ninety four miles and came to Characa to the Yahudim that are called Tubieni.

18 But as for Timotheus, they did not find him in those places, for before he had dispatched anything, he left, leaving a very strong garrison in a certain stronghold.

19 However Dositheus and Sosipater, who were of Yahudah' captains, went forth and slew those that Timotheus had left in the fortress, above ten thousand men.

20 And Yahudah set up his army by groups and went against Timotheus, who had about one hundred twenty thousand men and two thousand five hundred horsemen.

21 Now when Timotheus had da'at of Yahudah's coming, he sent the women and children and the their baggage to a fortress called Carnion: for the town was hard to besiege and hard to enter, by reason of many narrow places.

22 But when Yahudah's first group came into sight, the enemies, being smitten with fear and terror through the appearing of Him who sees all things, scattered, one running this derech, another that derech, so that they were often hurt by their own men and wounded with the points of their own swords.

23 Yahudah also was very earnest in pursuing them, killing those wicked wretches, of whom he slew about thirty thousand men.

24 Timothy himself was captured by the troops of Dositheus and Sosipater. But he was very shrewd and managed to convince them that many of their relatives were his prisoners and would be put to death if anything happened to him.

25 Finally, after he had promised to send their relatives home safely, they let him go free.

26 Then Yahudah marched forth to Carnion and to the temple of Atargatis and there he slew twenty five thousand persons.

27 And after he had put to flight and destroyed them, Yahudah removed the army toward Ephron, a strong city, in which Lysias abode and a great multitude of diverse goyim and the strong young men kept the walls and defended them mightily: in which also was great provision of engines and darts.

28 But when Yahudah and his company had called upon Almighty Ahlohim, who with His Power breaks the strength of His enemies, they won the city and slew twenty five thousand of them that were inside,

29 From there they departed to Scythopolis, which lies seventy five miles from Yahrushalayim,

30 But when the Yahudim that dwelt there had testified that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly with them and treated them kindly in the time of their adversity;

31 They gave them hodu, desiring to be friendly to them: and so they came to Yahrushalayim, as Chag Shavuot was approaching.

32 And after the moed, called Shavuot , they went forth against Gorgias the governor of Idumea, 33 Who came out with three thousand men of foot and four hundred horsemen.

34 And it happened that in their fighting together a few of the Yahudim were slain.

35 Then a Yahudi from the city of Tob, a powerful cavalry soldier by the name of Dositheus, grabbed Gorgias by his cloak and started dragging him away by brute force, intending to take the worthless man alive. But suddenly one from the Thracian cavalry rushed at Dositheus and chopped off his arm, allowing Gorgias to escape to the city of Marisa.

36 Now when they that were with Gorgias had fought long and were weary, Yahudah called upon אֱלֹהֵינוּ, that He would show Himself to be their helper and leader of the battle.

37 And with that he began in Ivrit to shir Psalms with a loud voice and rushing upon Gorgias' men who were taken by surprise, he put them to flight.

38 So Yahudah gathered his army and came into the city of Odollam and when the Yom Shabbat came, they purified themselves, as the custom was and kept the Shabbat in the same place.

39 And upon the yom following, as usual, Yahudah and his company came to take up the bodies of them that were slain and to bury them with their kinsmen in their ahvot's graves.

40 Now under the coats of everyone that was slain, they found things consecrated to the idols of the Yamnites, which is forbidden for the Yahudim by The Torah. Then every man saw that this was the cause why they were slain.

41 All the men therefore were praising אֱלֹהֵינוּ, the Tzadik Shophet, who had revealed the things that were hidden, 42 They made tefillah fervently and pleaded with Him that the sin committed might wholly be put out of remembrance. Besides, that noble Yahudah exhorted the people to keep themselves from such sin, because they saw before their eyes the things that came to pass for the sins of those that were slain.

43 And when he had made a collection throughout the company of about four pounds of silver, he sent it to Yahrushalayim to offer a sin offering, doing in it very well and honestly, in that he was mindful of the promised resurrection:

44 For if he had not hoped that those who were slain could rise again, it had been vain for him to make tefillah in hoping that those who were dead, would be raised.

45 And also he perceived that there was great chen laid up for those that died for a tzadik purpose, it was a set apart and tov thought. So then he made tefillah for the dead, hoping that Ahlohim had delivered them from sin.

13 In the hundred forty ninth year it was told

Yahudah that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a great power into Yahudah,

2 And with him Lysias his protector and ruler of his affairs, having with them a Grecian power of a hundred ten thousand footmen and five thousand three hundred horsemen , twenty two elephants and three hundred chariots armed with hooks.

3 Menelaus, trying to take advantage of the situation, went over to their side and urged them on, not because he was concerned for the country but because he hoped to be confirmed as Kohen HaGadol.

4 But אַרְאַרְז the Melech of all melechim, made Antiochus furious with Menelaus. Lysias proved to Antiochus that this criminal had been the source of all his troubles, so Antiochus ordered him to be taken to the city of Berea and put to death in the way that it was done there.

5 In that city there is a tower about 75 feet high. It is filled with ashes and all around the inside of the tower is a platform sloping down into the ashes.

6 And whoever was convicted of sacrilege or had committed any other grievous crime, there did all men thrust him to death.

7 Menelaus was put to death in that way, without even having the privilege of a burial

8 And that was just what he deserved. He had often profaned the kadosh ashes of the altar fire in the Beit HaMikdash and now he met his death in ashes.

9 Now the melech came with a barbarous and haughty mind to do far worse to the Yahudim than had been done in his abba's time.

10 Which things when Yahudah perceived, he commanded the multitude to call upon אֱלֹהֵינוּ lyla and yom, that like at other times, He would now also help them, being at the point to be put away from Torah from their country and from the set apart Beit HaMikdash:

11 And that He would not allow the people, who had been restored to their country, to be in subjection to the blasphemous goyim.

12 So when they had all done this together and sought the merciful אֱלֹהֵינוּ with weeping and fasting and lying flat upon the ground three yamim long, Yahudah, having exhorted them, commanded that they should be ready.

13 And Yahudah, who met privately with the zechanim, determined that before the melech's host should enter into Yahudah and get to the city, to go forth and fight first with the help of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

14 So when he had committed all to The Creator of the olam and exhorted his soldiers to fight bravely, even to death, for the Torot, the Beit HaMikdash, the city, the country and the commonwealth, he camped near Modin:

15 And having given the key word to them that were around him, Victory is of אִיִּי, with the most valiant and best young men he went into the melech's tent by lyla and slew in the camp about four thousand men and most of the elephants and all who were upon them.

16 Everyone in camp was terrified and in panic when Yahudah and his men finally left victoriously.

17 This was done in the break of the yom because the protection of אִיִּי helped him.

18 Now when the melech had taken a taste of the power of the Yahudim, he went about to find a better way to defeat them,

19 And marched toward Beth Sura, which was a stronghold of the Yahudim: but he was put to flight, failed and lost many of his men:

20 For Yahudah had sent to them who were defending the fort, such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus, who was in the Yahudim's army, disclosed the secrets to the enemies; therefore he was sought for and when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 The melech made a second attempt to come to terms with the people of Bethzur and when he had reached an agreement with them, he withdrew his forces. Then he went to attack Yahudah but again he was defeated.

23 Meanwhile, Philip had been left at Antioch in charge of the government but Melech Antiochus learned that he had revolted. The melech did not know what to do, so he initiated shalom talks with the Yahudim, agreed to their terms and promised to be just in his treatment of them. To put the treaty into effect, he offered a sacrifice, gave a generous gift to show his respect for the Beit HaMikdash, 24 And received Yahnudah well, After that, the melech appointed Hegemonides to be governor of the territory between the cities of Ptolemais and Gerar.

25 Nevertheless, when he came to Ptolemais: the people of that city were not content with this agreement; because they were grieved, they sought to make the britot void:

26 But Lysias made a public speech, defending the brit as well as he could. After he had calmed the people down and convinced them that he was right, he returned to Antioch. In this way Melech Antiochus' invasion was turned into a retreat.

14 Three years later, Yahudah and his men learned that Demetrius son of Seleucus had sailed into the port of Tripolis with a powerful army and a fleet.

2 It was reported that he had killed Melech Antiochus and his guardian Lysias and had taken over the country.

3 There was a man by the name of Alcimus, who had formerly been Kohen HaGadol but who had gladly adopted the Greek way of chayim during the revolt. Realizing that he could never again be Kohen HaGadol and fearful of what the Yahudim might do to him,

4 He went to see Melech Demetrius in the year 151. On this occasion he presented the melech with a gold keter and a palm branch, together with some olive branches traditionally presented to the Beit HaMikdash but he said nothing about his plans.

5 Later, however, he got the chance to put his foolish plans into effect when Demetrius summoned him to a meeting of his advisers and asked him what the Yahudim were intending to do. Alcimus said, 6 The followers of Yahudah think of themselves as devout and patriotic; they love war and are constantly inciting the people to rebellion and will never leave the nation in shalom.

7 It is their fault that I no longer hold the esteemed position of Kohen HaGadol, to which I am entitled by birth. And so I have come here,

8 Primarily out of a genuine concern for your interests as melech but also out of consideration for my own people, for the foolish policies of Yahudah and his followers have brought terrible suffering on our entire nation.

9 When your majesty has examined all the details of these matters, please act in your usual kind and generous manner to relieve the oppression of our nation and its people.

10 As long as Yahudah is alive, it will be impossible for our nation to enjoy shalom.

11 As soon as Alcimus had finished his speech, the other advisers quickly seized this opportunity to arouse Demetrius' anger against Yahudah, because they also hated him.

12 So Melech Demetrius immediately appointed Nicanor, who was the commander of his elephant forces, to be governor of Yahudah and sent him there, 13 With orders to kill Yahudah, scatter his followers and make Alcimus Kohen HaGadol of the greatest Beit HaMikdash in all the olam.

14 All the foreigners in Yahudah, who had fled from Yahudahs' attacks, now rushed to join forces with Nicanor, because they thought that any defeat or trouble that came to the Yahudim would be to their own advantage.

15 The Yahudim heard that Nicanor was attacking and that the foreigners in their country were giving him their support. So they threw dirt on themselves and made tefillah to their Ahlohim, who had chosen their nation as His possession le-olam-va-ed and had never failed to help them in time of need.

16 Then Yahudah, their leader, gave the orders and they immediately marched out to engage the enemy in battle near the village of Adasa.

17 Yahudahs' brother Shimon was fighting Nicanor but was gradually losing the battle because of an unexpected move on the part of the enemy.

18 However, when Nicanor heard how bravely and courageously Yahudah and his men were fighting for their country, he decided not to settle the matter in battle.

19 Instead, he sent Posidonius, Theodotus and Matityahu to make a treaty with the Yahudim.

20 After the terms of the brit had been worked out in detail, Nicanor informed his troops and they unanimously agreed.

21 Then a yom was set on which the leaders would meet in private. Ceremonial chairs were brought out from each camp and set up.

22 Yahudah had taken the precaution of placing battle-ready troops in strategic places, in case of sudden treachery on the part of the enemy. But the two leaders had a friendly meeting.

23 Nicanor stayed on in Yahrushalayim for some time after that. He did not mistreat the Yahudim in any way and even sent away the people who had come over to his side.

24 The two men became the best of chaverim and Yahudah was Nicanor's constant companion.

25 Nicanor urged him to marry and start a family. So Yahudah did this and settled down to a chayim of shalom.

26 When Alcimus noticed how well Nicanor and Yahudah were getting along, he obtained a copy of the brit and went to see Melech Demetrius. He told the melech that Nicanor was disloyal to the government, because he had appointed the traitor Yahudah to be his successor.

27 These false accusations infuriated the melech and in his anger he wrote to Nicanor, informing him that he was dissatisfied with the brit and ordering him to arrest Yahudah and send him to Antioch at once.

28 When this message reached Nicanor, he was hurt and didn't know what to do, because he did not like having to break an agreement with a man who had kept his part of the bargain.

29 Yet it was impossible for him to ignore the melech's command, so he began looking for a way to trap Yahudah.

30 Yahudah, however, noticed that Nicanor was becoming hostile and rude toward him and he knew that this was a bad omen. So he gathered a large number of his followers and went into hiding.

31 When Nicanor realized that Yahudah had outsmarted him, he went to the great and kadosh Beit HaMikdash at the time when the kohanim were offering sacrifice and ordered them to surrender Yahudah to him.

32 But the kohanim declared under oath that they had no idea where Yahudah was hiding.

33 Then Nicanor raised his right arm in the direction of the Beit HaMikdash and made a solemn threat: If you do not hand Yahudah over to me as a prisoner, I will level אֶת־בְּיַת־הַמִּקְדָּשׁ's Beit HaMikdash to the ground, demolish this altar and on this spot build a esteemed pagan temple to Dionysus.

34 Then he left and immediately the kohanim lifted their arms toward the shamayim and made tefillah to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, The Faithful Defender of our nation:

35 אֱלֹהֵינוּ, you are in need of nothing, yet it has pleased You to place Your Beit HaMikdash here and to live among us.

36 You alone are kadosh and Your Beit HaMikdash has only recently been purified, so now protect its set apartness le-olam-va-ed.

37 One of the leaders in Yahrushalayim, a man by the name of Razis, was denounced to Nicanor. It was said that he had helped his people in many ways and was so highly respected by them that he was known as an abba of the Yahudim.

38 During the early yamim of the revolution he had risked his chayim for the Yahudim and had been brought to trial because of his loyalty.

39 Wanting to show clearly how much he disliked the Yahudim, Nicanor sent more than 500 soldiers to arrest Razis;

40 Because he thought his arrest would be a crippling blow to the Yahudim.

41 The soldiers were about to capture the tower where Razis had gone. They were forcing open the gates to the courtyard and the order had been given to set the door on fire. Razis realized there was no escape, so he tried to commit suicide with his sword;

42 Preferring to die with esteem rather than suffer humiliation at the hands of evil men.

43 Under the pressure of the moment, Razis misjudged the thrust of the sword and it did not kill him. So, while the soldiers were swarming into the room, he rushed to the wall and jumped off like a brave hero into the crowd below.

44 The crowd quickly moved back and he fell in the space they left.

45 Still alive and burning with courage, he got up and with blood gushing from his wounds, he ran through the crowd and finally climbed a steep rock.
46 Now completely drained of blood, he tore out his intestines with both hands and threw them at the crowd and as he did so, he made tefillah for אֱלֹהֵינוּ of chayim and ruach to give them back to him. That was how he died.

15 Nicanor learned that Yahudah and his men were in the region of Shomron and so he decided to attack them on a Shabbat, when he could do so without any danger to himself.

2 The Yahudim who were forced to accompany his army begged him not to do such a cruel and savage thing but to respect the yom that the all seeing אֱלֹהֵינוּ had esteemed and made the most kadosh of all yamim.

3 Then Nicanor, the lowest creature on earth, asked if there was some sovereign ruler in the shamyim who had commanded them to esteem the Shabbat.

4 And the Yahudim replied, Yes; the living אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who rules in the shamyim, commanded us to esteem the Shabbat.

5 But Nicanor answered, I am the ruler on earth and I order you to take up your weapons and to do what the melech commands. However, he did not succeed in carrying out his cruel plan.

6 In his arrogance Nicanor had boasted that he would set up a monument in regard to his upcoming victory over Yahudah.

7 But Yahudah was fully confident that אֱלֹהֵינוּ would help him,

8 So he urged his men not to be afraid of the enemy. He encouraged them to remember how the Almighty had helped them in times past and to rest assured that He would give them victory this time also.

9 He renewed their tikvah by reading to them from The Torah and the Neviim and by reminding them of the battles they had already won.

10 When his men were ready for battle, he gave them their orders and at the same time pointed out how the goyim could not be trusted, because they never kept their britot.

11 He armed all his men, not by encouraging them to trust in shields and spears but by inspiring them with courageous words. He also lifted their morale by telling them about his dream, a kind of vision that they could trust in.

12 He told them that he had seen a vision of Chananyah, the former Kohen HaGadol, that great and wonderful man of humble and gentle disposition, who was an outstanding orator and who had been taught from childhood how to live a virtuous chayim. With outstretched arms Chananyah was making tefillah for the entire Yahudi nation.

13 Yahudah then saw an impressive white haired man of great dignity and authority.

14 Chananyah said: This is אֱלֹהֵינוּ's navi Yirmeyahu, who loves the Yahudim and offers many tefillot for us and for Yahrushalayim, the kadosh city.

15 Then Yirmeyahu stretched out his right hand and gave Yahudah a golden sword, saying as he did so, 16 This kadosh sword is a gift from אֱלֹהֵינוּ. Take it and destroy your enemies.

17 The eloquent words that Yahudah spoke encouraged everyone to be brave and inspired boys to fight like men. Their city, their emunah and their Beit HaMikdash were in danger. So the Yahudim made up their minds not to waste any time but to make a daring attack against the enemy and bravely decide their fate in hand to hand combat.

18 They were not so concerned about their own mishpachot and relatives, as they were about their kadosh Beit HaMikdash.

19 And the people who had to stay in Yahrushalayim, were deeply concerned about how a battle on open ground would turn out.

20 Everyone was waiting to see who would win the battle. The enemy troops were already moving forward, with their cavalry on each side of them and their elephants placed in strategic positions.

21 Yahudah looked at the huge enemy force, the variety of their weapons and their fierce elephants. Then he raised his hands toward the shamayim and made tefillah to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who works nisim, because he knew that אֱלֹהֵינוּ gives victory to those who deserve it, not to those who have a strong army.

22 Yahudah said: אֱלֹהֵינוּ, when Hizqiyahu was melech of Yahudah, you sent your malach, who killed 185,000 of Melech Sennacherib's men.

23 Now once again, אֱלֹהֵינוּ of the shamayim, send your tov malach to make our enemies shake and tremble with fear.

24 With Your great Power, destroy these people who have slandered You and have come out to attack Your chosen people. So Yahudah ended his tefillah.

25 Nicanor and his army moved forward to the sound of trumpets and battle shirim;

26 But Yahudah and his men went into battle calling on אֱלֹהֵינוּ for help.

27 So by fighting with their hands and making tefillah to אֱלֹהֵינוּ in their levavot, the Yahudim killed more than 35,000 of the enemy. How grateful they were for the help they had received from אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

28 When the battle was over and they were going home celebrating their victory, they noticed Nicanor in full armor lying dead on the battlefield.

29 Then with loud shouts they gave tehilla to אֱלֹהֵינוּ in their native language.

30 Yahudah the Maccabee, who had always fought with all his gooff and nefesh for his own people, never losing the patriotism of his youth, ordered his men to cut off Nicanor's head and right arm and to take them to Yahrushalayim.

31 When they arrived in the city, he called together all the people, stationed before the kohanim before the altar and sent for the men in the fort.

32 He showed them the head of the evil Nicanor and the arm which that wicked man had arrogantly stretched out against the kadosh Beit HaMikdash of Almighty אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

33 Then he cut out the tongue of that Torahless man, promising to feed it bit by bit to the birds and to hang up his head opposite of the Beit HaMikdash, as evidence of what his foolishness did for him.

34 Everyone there looked up to the shamayim and gave hodu to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who had revealed His Power and had kept His Beit HaMikdash from being defiled.

35 Yahudah hung Nicanor's head from the wall of the fort, as a clear proof to everyone of אֱלֹהֵינוּ's help.

36 By unanimous vote it was decided that this yom would never be forgotten but would be celebrated each year on the evening of Mordechai's Yom, Purim, which is the thirteenth yom of the twelfth chodesh.

37 That is how things turned out for Nicanor. The city of Yahrushalayim remained in the possession of the Yahudim from that time on, so I will end my account here.

38 If it is well written and to the point, I am pleased; if it is poorly written and uninteresting, I have still done my best.

39 We know it is unhealthy to drink wine or mayim alone, whereas wine mixed with mayim makes a delightfully tasty drink.

So also a tov account skillfully written, gives pleasure to those who read it. With this I conclude.

Third Corinthians

Qorinthyah Gimel

This was an epistle widely circulated as early as 130-150 CE and is attributed by many to Paul in his care for the believers in Corinth.

1 Sholiach Shaul, a prisoner of Yahushua Ha Moshiach, unto the brethren which are in Qorinthyah, shalom. Being in the midst of many tribulations, I do not marvel if the teachings of the evil one spreads quickly. For my Adon Yahushua Ha Moshiach will hasten His coming and will no longer endure the insolence of them that falsify His Words. For I delivered to you in the beginning the things which I received from the kadosh shlichim, which were before me, who were at all times with Yahushua Ha Moshiach: namely, that our Adon Yahushua Ha Moshiach was born of Miryam who is of the zera of Dawid according to the flesh, the Ruach HaKadosh being sent forth from the shamayim, from the Abba to her, so that He might come down into this olam and redeem all flesh by His own set apart flesh and raise us up from the dead in the flesh, just as He has shown us, Himself being our example.

2 And because man was formed by His Abba, therefore mankind was sought for when he was lost, that he might be made alive by adoption. For to this end did אלהים Almighty who made the shamayim and the earth first send the neviim to the Yahudim, that they might be turned away from their sins. For He planned to save the entire House of Yisrael. Therefore, He conferred a portion of the Ruach of Moshiach upon the neviim and sent them to the Yahudim first and they proclaimed the emet avdoot of אֱלֹהִים for a long period of time. But the prince of iniquity s.a.tan, desiring to be אֱלֹהִים, laid hands on them and slew them and bound all flesh by evil lusts and the end of the olam by His coming mishpat.

3 But אֱלֹהִים Almighty, who is tzadik, would not cast away His own creation, but had compassion on them from the shamayim and sent His Ruach into Miryam, who believed with all her lev and received the Ruach HaKadosh in her womb, so that Yahushua might come into the olam hazeh, so that by that same kadosh flesh, His own, He might save men. By using Ahdahm's flesh, s.a.tan had brought in death, yet by Moshiach's flesh, s.a.tan was overcome. For by His own goof Yahushua Ha Moshiach saved all flesh and restored it to chayim, so that He might show forth The Temple of Tzedakah in His own gooff, by which we are saved, in whom if we trust, we are also set free.

4 They therefore are not children of tzedakah, but children of wrath, who reject the chochmah of אֱלֹהִים, saying that the shamayim and the earth and all that are in them are not the works of אֱלֹהִים. They therefore are the children of wrath, for cursed are they, following the teaching of the serpent, whom you should drive out and flee from their doctrine. For you are not children of disobedience, but of the well beloved kehillah. Therefore, the time of the resurrection is proclaimed to everyone.

5 And as for those devils which say that there is no resurrection of the flesh, they indeed shall have no resurrection to chayim, but only to mishpat, because they do not believe in Him that is risen from the dead, because they believe not and understand not. For they do not know, O Qorinthyahim, the many kinds of zera, of wheat or of other zera, how they are cast bare into the earth and are corrupted and rise again by the will of אֱלֹהִים, with bodies fully clothed. And not only that gooff which is cast in rises again, but it is recreated with much brachot. And we must not take examples from types of zera only, but from more noble bodies. You know how Yonah the son of Amathyah, when he would not preach to them of Nineveh, but fled, was swallowed by the sea monster. After three yamim and three laylot אֱלֹהִים heard the tefillah of Yonah out of the lowest Sheol and no part of him was consumed, not even a hair nor an eyelash.

6 How much more, oh you of little emunah, shall He raise you that have believed in Messiah Yahushua, just as He Himself arose. In the same way, a dead man also was cast upon the bones of the navi Elisha by the children of Yisrael, arose, in gooff, in nephesh, in bones and in ruach. How much more shall you who have been cast upon the gooff, bones and Ruach of the Adon Yahushua rise again on that yom, having your flesh made whole, just as He rose?

7 In the same way, concerning the navi Eliyahu, he raised the widow's son from death. How much more shall Adon Yahushua Ha Moshiach raise you up from death at the sound of the shofar, in the twinkling of an eye? For He has shown us an example in His own gooff.

8 If then, you receive any other doctrine, אֱלֹהִים Himself shall be a witness against you. Let no man trouble me, for I bear these bonds that I may win Moshiach. I therefore bear His marks in my gooff, so that I may also attain to the resurrection of the dead. Whoever receives or abides in this emet, which he has received by the blessed neviim and the kadosh Besorah, shall receive a reward from Yahushua Ha Moshiach and when that person rises from the dead, he shall obtain perpetual chayim. But whoever transgresses these things, is the fire of mishpat reserved; those that walk in that same derech, are just a generation of vipers. You must reject their words in the Power of אֱלֹהִים. Shalom, chen and ahava, shall then be with you. X

The Testaments of the Twelve Patriarchs-Tzuot Hashevativim

The Testament of Reuben the First born Son of Yaakov and Leah

Chapter 1

The copy of the Testament of Reuben, even the commands which he gave his sons before he died in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his chayim.

Two years after the death of Yoseph his brother, when Reuben fell ill, his sons and his sons' sons were gathered together to visit him.

And he said to them: My children, behold I am dying, and go the way of my avoth.

And seeing there Yahudah, and Gad, and Asher, his brethren, he said to them: Raise me up, that I may tell to my brethren and to my children what things I have hidden in my lev, for behold now at length I am passing away.

And he arose and kissed them, and said unto them:
Hear, my brethren, and do you, my children, give ear to Reuben your abba in the commands which I give unto you.

And behold I call to witness against you this yom the Ahlohim of shamayim, that you walk not in the sins of youth and fornication, wherein I was poured out, and defiled the bed of my Abba Yaakov.

And I tell you that he smote me with a sore plague in my loins for seven chodasheem; and had not my abba Yaakov prayed for me to אֱלֹהִים, אֱלֹהִים would have destroyed me.

For I was thirty years old when I wrought the evil thing before אֱלֹהִים, and for seven chodasheem I was sick unto death.

And after this I repented with set purpose of my soul for seven years before אֱלֹהִים. And wine and strong drink I drank not, and flesh entered not into my mouth, and I eat no pleasant food; but I mourned over my sin, for it was great, such as had not been in Yisrael.

Chapter 2

And now hear me, my children, what things I saw concerning the seven ruachem of deceit, when I repented.

Seven ruachem therefore are appointed against man, and they are the leaders in the works of youth. [And seven other ruacheem are given to him at his creation, that through them should be done every work of man.

The first is the ruach of chayim, with which the constitution (of man) is created. The second is the sense of sight, from with which arises desire.

The third is the sense of hearing, with which comes teaching. The fourth is the sense of smell, with which tastes are given to draw air and breath.

The fifth is the power of speech, with which comes knowledge.

The sixth is the sense of taste, with which comes the eating of meats and drinks; and by it strength is produced, for in food is the foundation of strength.

The seventh is the power of procreation and sexual intercourse, with which through ahava of pleasure sins enter in.

Wherefore it is the last in the order of creation, and the first in that of youth, because it is filled with ignorance, and leads the youth as a blind man to a pit, and as a beast to a precipice.

Chapter 3

Besides all these there is an eighth ruach of sleep, with which is brought about the trance of nature and the image of death.

With these ruacheem are mingled the ruacheem of error.

[First, the ruach of fornication is seated in the nature and in the senses; the second, the ruach of insatiableness, in the belly; the third, the ruach of fighting, in the liver and gall.

The fourth is the ruach of obsequiousness and chicanery, that through officious attention one may be fair in seeming.

The fifth is the ruach of pride, that one may be boastful and arrogant. The sixth is the ruach of lying, in perdition and jealousy to practice deceits, and concealments from kindred and chaverim.

The seventh is the ruach of injustice, with which are thefts and acts of rapacity, that a man may fulfill the desire of his lev; for injustice works together with the other ruacheem by the taking of gifts.

And with all these the ruach of sleep is joined which is (that) of error and fantasy.]

And so perishes every young man, darkening his mind from the emet, and not understanding the Torah of אֱמֶת, nor obeying the admonitions of his avoth as befell me also in my youth.

And now, my children, ahava the emet, and it will preserve you: hear the words of Reuben your abba. Pay no heed to the face of a woman, Nor associate with another man's isha, Nor meddle with affairs of womankind.

For had I not seen Bilhah bathing in a covered place, I had not fallen into this great iniquity. For my mind taking in the thought of the woman's nakedness, allowed me not to sleep until I had wrought the abominable thing. For while Yaakov our abba had gone to Yitzchak his abba, when we were in Eder, near to Ephrath in Bethlehem, Bilhah became drunk and was asleep uncovered in her chamber. Having therefore gone in and beheld nakedness, I wrought the impiety without her perceiving it, and leaving her sleeping I departed. And forthwith a malach of אֱלֹהִים revealed to my abba concerning my impiety, and he came and mourned over me, and touched her no more.

Chapter 4

Pay no heed, therefore, my children, to the beauty of women, nor set your mind on their affairs; but walk in singleness of lev in the fear of אֱלֹהִים, and expend labor on tov deeds, and on study and on your flocks, until אֱלֹהִים gives you an isha, whom He will, that you suffer not as I did. For until my abba's death I had not boldness to look in his face, or to speak to any of my brethren, because of the reproach. Even until now my conscience causes me anguish on account of my impiety. And yet my abba comforted me much and prayed for me unto אֱלֹהִים, that the anger of אֱלֹהִים might pass from me, even as אֱלֹהִים showed. And from then until now I have been on my guard and sinned not. Therefore, my children, I say unto you, observe all things whatsoever I command you, and you shall not sin.

For a pit unto the soul is the sin of fornication, separating it from Ahlohim, and bringing it near to idols, because it deceives the mind and understanding, and leads young men into hell before their time.

For many has fornication destroyed; because, though a man be old or noble, or rich or poor, he brings reproach upon himself with the sons of men and derision with s.a.tan

For you heard regarding Yoseph how he guarded himself from a woman, and purged his thoughts from all fornication, and found chen in the sight of Ahlohim and men.

For the Mitzrite woman did many things to him, and summoned magicians, and offered him ahava potions, but the purpose of his soul admitted no evil desire;

Therefore the Ahlohim of your ahvoth delivered him from every evil (and) hidden death.

For if fornication overcomes not your mind, neither can s.a.tan overcome you.

Chapter 5

For evil are women, my children; and since they have no power or strength over man, they use wiles by outward attractions, that they may draw him to themselves.

And whom they cannot bewitch by outward attractions, him they overcome by craft.

For moreover, concerning them, the malach of אֱלֹהִים told me, and taught me, that women are overcome by the ruach of fornication more than men, and in their lev they plot against men; and by means of their adornment they deceive first their minds, and by the glance of the eye instill the poison, and then through the accomplished act they take them captive.

For a woman cannot force a man openly, but by a harlot's bearing she beguiles him. Flee, therefore, fornication, my children, and command your wives and your daughters, that they adorn not their heads and faces to deceive the mind: because every woman who uses these wiles has been reserved for eternal punishment.

For likewise they allured the Ireem who were before the flood; for as these continually beheld them, they lusted after them, and they conceived the act in their mind; for they changed themselves into the shape of men, and appeared to them when they were with their husbands.

And the women lusting in their minds after their forms, gave birth to giants, for the Ireem appeared to them as reaching even unto shamayim.

Chapter 6

Beware, therefore, of fornication; and if you wish to be pure in mind, guard your senses from every woman.

And command the women likewise not to associate with men, that they also may be pure in mind.

For constant meetings, even though the ungodly deed be not wrought, are to them an irremediable disease, and to us a destruction by s.a.tan and an eternal reproach.

For in fornication there is neither understanding nor shabbat guarding piety, and all jealousy dwells in the lust of it..

Therefore, then I say unto you, you will be jealous against the sons of Levi, and will seek to be exalted over them; but you shall not be able.

For Ahlohim will avenge them, and you shall die by an evil death.

For to Levi Ahlohim gave the sovereignty [and to Yahudah with him and to me also, and to Dan and Yoseph, that we should be for rulers].

Therefore I command you to shema to Levi, because he shall know the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, and shall give ordinances for mishpat and shall sacrifice for all Yisrael until the consummation of the times, as the anointed High Priest, of whom אֱלֹהִים spoke, I adjure you by the Ahlohim of the shamayim to do emet each one and to his neighbour and to entertain ahavah each one for his brother.

And draw you near to Levi in humbleness of lev, that you may receive a bracha from his mouth. For he shall bless Yisrael and Yahudah, because him hath אֱלֹהִים chosen to be melech over all the nation.

And bow down before his zera, for on our behalf it will die in wars visible and invisible, and will be among you an eternal melech.

Chapter 7

And Reuben died, having given these commands to his sons.

And they placed him in a coffin until they carried him up from Mitzrayim, and buried him in Chevron in the cave where his abba was.

The Testament of Simeon the Second of Yaakov and Leah

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Simeon, the things which he spoke to his sons before he died, in the hundred and twentieth year of his chayim, at which time Yoseph, his brother, died.

For when Simeon was sick, his sons came to visit him, and he strengthened himself and sat up and kissed them, and said:-

Chapter 2

Shema, my children, to Simeon your abba, And I will declare unto you what things I have in my lev.

I was born of Yaakov as my abba's second son; And my eema Leah called me Simeon, Because אָרְבֵּי had heard her tefilah.

Moreover, I became strong exceedingly; I shrank from no achievement, Nor was I afraid of anything. For my lev was hard, And my liver was immovable, And my bowels without compassion.

Because valor also has been given from the Most High to men in soul and body.

For in the time of my youth I was jealous in many things of Yoseph, because my abba loved him beyond all.

And I set my mind against him to destroy him, because the sar of deceit sent forth the ruach of jealousy and blinded my mind, so that I regarded him not as a brother, nor did I spare even Yaakov my abba.

But his Ahlohim and the Ahlohim of his avoth sent forth His malach, and delivered him out of my hands.

For when I went to Shechem to bring ointment for the flocks, and Reuben to Dothan, where were our necessaries and all our stores, Yahudah my brother sold him to the Ishmaelites.

And when Reuben heard these things he was grieved, for he wished to restore him to his abba. But on hearing this I was exceedingly angry against Yahudah in that he let him go away alive, and for five months I continued angry against him. But אֶרְאֵל restrained me, and withheld from me the power of my hands; for my right hand was half withered for seven days. And I knew, my children, that because of Yoseph this had befallen me, and I repented and wept; and I besought אֶרְאֵל Ahlohim that my hand might be restored, and that I might hold myself apart from all pollution and envy and from all folly. For I knew that I had devised an evil thing before אֶרְאֵל and Yaakov my abba, on account of Yoseph my brother, in that I envied him.

Chapter 3

And now, my children, shema unto me and beware of the ruach of deceit and envy. For envy rules over the whole mind of a man, and allows him neither to eat nor to drink, nor to do any tov thing. But it ever suggests (to him) to destroy him that he envieth; and so long as he that is envied flourishes, he that envies fadesaway. Two years therefore I afflicted my soul with fasting in the fear of אֶרְאֵל, and I learned that deliverance from envy comes by the fear of Ahlohim. For if a man flee to אֶרְאֵל, the evil ruach runs away from him, and his mind is lightened. And from then on he sympathizes with him whom he envied and forgives those who are hostile to him, and so ceases from his envy.

Chapter 4

And my abba asked Concerning me, because he saw that I was sad; and I said unto him, I am pained in my liver.

For I mourned more than they all, because I was guilty of the selling of Yoseph.

And when we went down into Mitzrayim, and he bound me as a spy, I knew that I was suffering justly, and I grieved not.

Now Yoseph was a tov man, and had the Ruach of Ahlohim within him: being compassionate and pitiful, he bore no malice against me; but loved me even as the rest of his brethren.

Beware, therefore, my children, of all jealousy and envy, and walk in singleness of soul and with tov lev, keeping in mind Yoseph your abba's brother, that Ahlohim may give you also chesed and esteem, and blessing upon your heads, even as you saw in Yoseph's case.

All his days he reproached us not concerning this thing, but loved us as his own soul, and beyond his own sons glorified us, and gave us riches, and cattle and fruits.

Do you also, my children, have ahava each one his brother with a tov lev and the ruach of envy will withdraw from you.

For this makes savage the soul and destroys the body; it causes anger and war in the mind, and stirs up unto deeds of blood, and leads the mind into frenzy, and suffers not prudence to act in men; moreover, it takes away sleep, [and causes tumult to the soul and trembling to the body]. For even in sleep some malicious jealousy, deluding him, gnaws and with wicked ruacheem disturbs his soul, and causes the body to be troubled, and wakes the mind from sleep in confusion; and as a wicked and poisonous ruach, so appears it to men.

Chapter 5

Therefore was Yoseph comely in appearance and goodly to look upon, because no wickedness dwelt in him; for some of the trouble of the ruach the face manifests. And now, my children, Make your levavot tov before אֱלֹהִים, and your derachot straight before men.

And you shall find chesed before אֱלֹהִים and men. Beware, therefore, of fornication, For fornication is the eema of all evils, Separating from Ahlohim, and bringing near to s.a.tan.

For I have seen it inscribed in the writings of Chanok-Enoch that your sons shall be corrupted in fornication, and shall do harm to the sons of Levi with the sword. But they shall not be able to withstand Levi; for he shall wage the war of אֱלֹהִים, and shall conquer all your hosts. And they shall be few in number, divided in Levi and Yahudah, and there shall be none of you for sovereignty, even as also our abba prophesied in his blessings.

Chapter 6

Behold I have told you all things, that I may be acquitted of your sin.

Now, if you remove from you your envy and all stiff-neckedness, as a rose, shall my bones flourish in Yisrael, and as a lily my flesh in Yaakov, And my odor shall be as the odor of Levanon; And as cedars shall kiddushim be multiplied from me le-olam-va-ed, And their branches shall stretch afar off. Then shall perish the zera of Kanaan, And a remnant shall not be unto Amalek, And all the Cappadocians shall perish, and all the Hittites shall be utterly destroyed. Then shall fail the land of Ham, And all the people shall perish. Then shall all the earth rest from trouble, And all the olam under the shamayim from war. Then the Mighty One of Yisrael shall glorify Shem, For אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim shall appear on earth, And Himself save men. Then shall all the ruacheem of deceit be given to be trodden under foot, And men shall rule over wicked ruacheem. Then shall I arise in joy, And will bless the Most High because of His marvellous works.

Chapter 7

And now, my children, obey Levi and Yahudah, and be not lifted up against these two tribes, for from them shall arise unto you the salvation of Ahlohim. For אֱלֹהִים shall raise up from Levi as it were a Kohen Gadol, and from Yahudah as it were a Melech, He shall save all [the goyim and] the race of Yisrael. Therefore I give you these commands that you also may command your children that they may observe them throughout their generations.

Chapter 8

And when Simeon had made an end of commanding his sons, he slept with his avoth, being an hundred and twenty years old. And they laid him in a wooden coffin, to take up his bones to Chevron. And they took them up secretly during a war of the Mitzrites. For the bones of Yoseph the Mitzrites guarded in the tombs of the melechim. For the sorcerers told them; that on the departure of the bones of Yoseph there should be throughout all the land darkness and gloom, and an exceeding great plague to the Mitzrites, so that even with a lamp a man should not recognize his brother.

Chapter 9

And the sons of Simeon bewailed their abba. And they were in Mitzrayim until the yom of their departure by the hand of Moshe.

The Testament of Levi the Third Son of Yaakov and Leah

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Levi, the things which he ordained unto his sons, according to all that they should do, and what things should befall them until the yom of mishpat.

He was sound in health when he called them to him; for it had been revealed to him that he should die. And when they were gathered together he said to them:

Chapter 2

I, Levi, was born in Charan, and I came with my abba to Shechem.

And I was young, about twenty years of age, when, with Simeon, I wrought vengeance on Hamor for our sister Dinah. And when I was feeding the flocks in Abel-Maul, the ruach of understanding of אֱלֹהִים came upon me, and I saw all men corrupting their ways, and that unrighteousness had built for itself walls, and the Torah-less sat upon towers. And I was grieving for the race of the sons of men, and I prayed to אֱלֹהִים that I might be saved.

Then there fell upon me a sleep, and I beheld a high mountain, and I was upon it.

And behold the shamayim were opened and a malach of Ahlohim said to me, Levi enter

And I entered from the first shamayim, and I saw there a great sea hanging. And further I saw a second shamayim far brighter and more brilliant, for there was a boundless light also there in it. And I said to the malach, Why is this so? And the malach said to me, Marvel not at this, for you shall see another shamayim more brilliant and incomparable. And when you have ascended there, You shall stand near אֲרָמֶלְךָ, And shall be His minister, And shall declare His mysteries to men, And shall proclaim concerning Him that shall redeem Yisrael. And by you and Yahudah shall אֲרָמֶלְךָ appear among men saving every race of men. And from אֲרָמֶלְךָ's portion shall be your chayim, And He shall be your field and vineyard, And fruits, gold, and silver.

Chapter 3

I Hear, therefore, regarding the shamayim which have been shown to you. The lowest is for this cause gloomy unto you, in that it beholds all the unrighteous deeds of men.

And it has fire, snow, and ice made ready for the yom of mishpat, in the righteous mishpat of Ahlohim; for in it are all the ruacheem of the retributions for vengeance on men.

And in the second are the hosts of the armies which are ordained for the yom of mishpat, to work vengeance on the ruacheem of deceit and of s.a.tan. And above them are the kadosh ones. And in the highest of all dwells the Great Glory אֲרָמֶלְךָ, far above all holiness.

In [the shamayim next to] it are the archangels, who minister and make propitiation to אֲרָמֶלְךָ for all the sins of ignorance of the righteous; Offering to אֲרָמֶלְךָ a sweet-smelling savour, a reasonable and a bloodless offering. And [in the shamayim below this] are the malachim who bear answers to the malachim of the presence of אלהים. And in the shamayim next to this are thrones and dominions, in which always they offer praise to Ahlohim. When, therefore, אלהים looks upon us, all of us are shaken; yes, the shamayim, and the earth, and the abysses are shaken at the presence of His majesty. But the sons of men, having no perception of these things sin and provoke the Most High.

Chapter 4

Now, therefore, know that אלהים shall execute mishpat upon the sons of men. Because when the rocks are being rent, And the shemesh quenched, And the waters dried up, And the fire cowering, and all creation troubled, And the invisible ruacheem melting away; And Hell takes spoils through the visitations of the Most High, Men will be unbelieving and persist in their iniquity. On this account with punishment shall they be judged. Therefore the Most High has heard your tefilah, to separate you from iniquity, and that you should become to Him a son, and an eved, and a minister of His presence. The light of knowledge shall you light up in Yaakov. And as the shemesh shall you be to all the zera of Yisrael. And there shall be given to you a blessing, and to all your zera, until אלהים shall visit all the goyim in His tender mercies for ever. And therefore there have been given to you counsel and understanding, That you might instruct your sons concerning this; Because they that bless Him shall be blessed, And they that curse Him shall perish.

Chapter 5

And thereupon the malach opened to me the gates of shamayim, and I saw the kadosh temple, and upon a throne of esteem the Most High. And He said to me: Levi, I have given you the blessings of the priesthood until I come and sojourn in the midst of Yisrael.

Then the malach brought me down to the earth, and gave me a shield and a sword, and said to me: Execute vengeance on Shechem because of Dinah, your sister, and I will be with you because אֱלֹהִים hath sent me. And I destroyed at that time the sons of Chamor, as it is written in the heavenly tables. And I said to him: I pray you, O אֱלֹהִים, tell me Your name, that I may call upon You in a yom of tribulation. And he said: I am the malach who interceds for the nation of Yisrael that they may not be smitten utterly, for every evil ruach attacks it. And after these things I awoke, and blessed the Most High, and the malach who interceds for the nation of Yisrael and for all the righteous.

Chapter 6

And when I was going to my abba, I found a brazen shield; wherefore also the name of the mountain is Aspis, which is near Gebal, to the south of Abila And I kept these words in my lev.

And after this I counselled my abba, and Reuben my brother, to bid the sons of Chamor not to be brit milah; for I was zealous because of the abomination which they had wrought on my sister. And I slew Shechem first, and Simeon slew Chamor. And after this my brothers came and smote that city with the edge of the sword. And my abba heard these things and was angry, and he was grieved in that they had received the circumcision, and after that had been put to death, and in his blessings he looked amiss upon us. For we sinned because we had done this thing against his will, and he was sick on that yom.

But I saw that the sentence of Ahlohim was for evil upon Shechem; for they sought to do to Sarah and Rebecca as they had done to Dinah our sister, but אַף־אֵלֹהִים prevented them. And they persecuted Abraham our abba when he was a stranger, and they vexed his flocks when they were big with young; and Eblaen, who was born in his house, they most shamefully handled. And this they did to all strangers, taking away their wives by force, and they banished them. But the wrath of אַף־אֵלֹהִים came upon them to the uttermost.

Chapter 7

And I said to my abba Yaakov: By you will אַף־אֵלֹהִים spoil the Kanaanites, and will give their land to you and to your zera after you. For from this yom forward shall Shechem be called a city of imbeciles; for as a man mockea a fool, so did we mock them. Because also they had wrought folly in Yisrael by defiling my sister. And we departed and came to Bethel.

Chapter 8

And there again I saw a vision as the former, after we had spent there seventy days. And I saw seven men in white raiment saying unto me: Arise, put on the robe of the priesthood, and the keter of tzedakah, and the breastplate of understanding, and the garment of emet, and the plate of faith, and the turban of the head, and the ephod of prophecy. And they severally carried (these things) and put (them,) on me, and said unto me: From henceforth become a kohen of אַף־אֵלֹהִים, you and your zera for ever. And the first anointed me with kadosh oil, and gave to me the staff of mishpat. The second washed me with pure water, and fed me with bread and wine (even) the most kadosh things, and clad me with a kadosh and glorious robe. The third clothed me with a linen vestment like an ephod. The fourth put around me a girdle like unto purple. The fifth gave me a branch of rich olive. The sixth placed a keter on my head. The seventh placed on my head a diadem of priesthood, and filled my hands with incense, that I might serve as kohen to אלהים Ahlohim. And they said to me: Levi, your zera shall be divided into three offices, for a sign of the esteem of אלהים who is to come.

And the first portion shall be great; yes, greater than it shall none be. The second shall be in the priesthood. And the third shall be called by a new name, because a melech shall arise in Yahudah, and shall establish a new priesthood, after the fashion of the nations. And His presence is beloved, as a Navi of the Most High, of the zera of Abraham our abba.

Therefore, every desirable thing in Yisrael shall be for you and for your zera. And you shall eat everything fair to look upon, And the table of אלהים shall your zera apportion. And some of them shall be high priests, and judges, and scribes; For by their mouth shall the kadosh place be guarded. And when I awoke, I understood that this (dream) was like the first dream.

And I hid this also in my lev, and told it not to any man upon the earth.

Chapter 9

And after two days I and Yahudah went up with our abba Yaakov to Yitzchak our abba's abba.

And my abba's abba blessed me according to all the words of the visions which I had seen. And he would not come with us to Bethel. And when we came to Bethel, my abba saw a vision concerning me, that I should be their kohen unto Ahlohim. And he rose up early in the morning, and paid maaser of all to אֱלֹהִים through me. And so we came to Chevron to dwell there. And Yitzchak called me continually to put me in remembrance of the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, even as the malach of אֱלֹהִים showed unto me. And he taught me the Torah of the priesthood, of sacrifices, whole burnt-offerings, first-fruits, freewill-offerings, peace-offerings. And each yom he was instructing me, and was busy on my behalf before אֱלֹהִים, and said to me: Beware of the ruach of fornication; for this shall continue and shall by your zera pollute the kadosh place. Take, therefore, to yourself an isha without blemish or pollution, while yet you are young, and not of the race of strange nations. And before entering into the kadosh place, bathe; and when you offer the sacrifices wash; and again, when you finish the sacrifice, wash Of twelve trees having leaves offer to אֱלֹהִים, as Abraham taught me also. And of every clean beast and bird offer a sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים. And of all your first -fruits and of wine offer the first, as a sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim; and every sacrifice you shall salt with salt.

Chapter 10

Now, therefore, observe whatsoever I command you, children: for whatsoever things I have heard from my avoth I have declared unto you. And behold I am clear from your ungodliness and transgression, which you shall commit in the end of the ages, deceiving Yisrael, and stirring up against it great evils from אֱלֹהִים. And you shall deal lawlessly together with Yisrael, so He shall not bear with Jerusalem because of your wickedness; but the veil of the temple shall be rent, so as not to cover your shame. And you shall be scattered as captives among the goyim, and shall be for a reproach and for a curse there. For the house which אֶרֶץ shall choose shall be called Jerusalem, as is contained in the book of Chanok-Enoch the righteous.

Chapter 11

Therefore when I took an isha I was twenty-eight years old, and her name was Malcha. And she conceived and bare a son, and I called his name Gershom, for we were sojourners in our land, And I saw concerning him, that he would not be in the first rank, And Kohath was born in the thirty-fifth year of my chayim, towards sunrise. And I saw in a vision that he was standing on high in the midst of all the congregation, Therefore I called his name Kohath [which is, beginning of majesty and instruction]. And she bare me a third son, in the fortieth year of my chayim; and since his eema bare him with difficulty, I called him Merari, that is, 'my bitterness,' because he also was likely to die. And Yochebed was born in Mitzrayim, in my sixty-fourth year, for I was renowned then in the midst of my brethren.

Chapter 12

And Gersam took an isha, and she bare to him Lomni and Semei. And the sons of Kohath, Amram, Issachar, Chevron, and Ozeel. And the sons of Merari, Mooli, and Mouses. And in the ninety-fourth year Amram took Yochebed my daughter to him to isha, for they were born in one yom, he and my daughter. Eight years old was I when I went into the land of Canaan, and eighteen years when I slew Shechem, and at nineteen years I became kohen, and at twenty-eight years I took an isha, and at forty-eight I went into Mitzrayim. And behold, my children, you are a third generation. In my hundred and eighteenth year Yoseph died.

Chapter 13

And now, my children, I command you: Fear אהבה your Ahlohim with your whole lev, and walk in simplicity according to all His Torah. And do you also teach your children doctrine, That they may have understanding all their chayim, Reading unceasingly the Torah of Ahlohim. For every one that knows the Torah of אהבה shall be honored, And shall not be a stranger wherever they go. Yes, many friends shall he gain more than his parents, and many men shall desire to serve him. And to hear the Torah from his mouth. Work tzedakah, therefore, my children, upon the earth, That you may have (it) as a treasure in shamayim. And sow tov things in your souls, that you may find them in your chayim. But if you sow evil things, you shall reap every trouble and affliction. Get cochma in the fear of Ahlohim with diligence; For though there be a leading into captivity, and cities and lands be destroyed, and gold and silver and every possession perish, the chochmah of the wise nothing can take away, except the blindness of ungodliness, and the callousness (that comes) of sin. For if one keeps oneself from these evil things, then even among his enemies shall cochma be an esteem to him. And in a strange country a fatherland, and in the midst of foes shall prove a friend. Whosoever teaches noble things and does them, shall be enthroned with melechim, as was also Yoseph my brother.

Chapter 14

Therefore, my children, I have learnt that at the end of the ages you will transgress against אִיִּיר, stretching out hands to wickedness; and to all the Gentiles shall you become a scorn. For our abba Yisrael is pure from the transgressions of the chief priests. For as the shamayim is purer in אִיִּיר's sight than the earth, so also be you, the lights of Yisrael, (purer) than all the Gentiles. But if you be darkened through transgressions, what, therefore, will all the Gentiles do living in blindness? Yes, you shall bring a curse upon our race, because the light of the Torah which was given for to lighten every man this you desire to destroy by teaching commandments contrary to the ordinances of Ahlohim. The offerings of אִיִּיר you shall rob, and from His portion shall you steal choice portions, eating (them) contemptuously with harlots. And out of covetousness you shall teach the commandments of אִיִּיר, wedded women shall you pollute, and the virgins of Yahrushalayim shall you defile: and with harlots and adulteresses shall you be joined, and the daughters of the Gentiles shall you take to isha, purifying them with an unlawful purification; and your union shall be like unto Sodom and Gomorrah. And you shall be puffed up because of your kohanoot, lifting yourselves up against men, and not only so, but also against the commands of Ahlohim. For you shall not pollute the kadosh things with mocking and laughter

Chapter 15

Therefore the temple, which אִיִּיר shall choose, shall be laid waste through your uncleanness, and you shall be captives throughout all nations. And you shall be an abomination unto them, and you shall receive reproach and everlasting shame from the righteous mishpat of Ahlohim.

And all who hate you shall rejoice at your destruction. And if you were not to receive mercy through Abraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov, our avoth, not one of our zera should be left upon the earth.

Chapter 16

And now I have learned that for seventy weeks you shall go astray, and profane the priesthood, and pollute the sacrifices. And you shall make void the Torah, and set aside the words of the neviim by evil perverseness. And you shall persecute tzadik men, and hate the pious, the words of the faithful shall you abhor. And your kadosh places shall be laid waste even to the ground because of it. And you shall have no place that is clean; but you shall be among the Gentiles a curse and a dispersion until He shall again visit you and in pity shall receive you.

Chapter 17

And whereas you have heard concerning the seventy weeks, hear also concerning the kohanoot. For in each jubilee there shall be a kohanoot. And in the first jubilee, the first who is anointed to the kohanoot shall be great, and shall speak to Ahlohim as to an abba. And his priesthood shall be perfect with אִיִּיִּי. In the second jubilee, he that is anointed shall be conceived in the sorrow of beloved ones; and his kohanoot shall be honored and shall be glorified by all. And the third kohen shall be taken hold of by sorrow. And the fourth shall be in pain, because unrighteousness shall gather itself against him exceedingly, and all Yisrael shall hate each one his neighbor. The fifth shall be taken hold of by darkness. Likewise also the sixth and the seventh. And in the seventh shall be such pollution as I cannot express before men, for they shall know it who do these things. Therefore shall they be taken captive and become a prey, and their land and their substance shall be destroyed. And in the fifth week they shall return to their desolate country, and shall renew the house of אֱלֹהִים. And in the seventh week shall become kohanim, (who are) idolaters, adulterers, lovers of money, proud, lawless, lascivious, abusers of children and beasts.

Chapter 18

And after their punishment shall have come from אֱלֹהִים, the kohanoth shall fail. Then shall אֱלֹהִים raise up a new kohen. And to him all the words of אֱלֹהִים shall be revealed; And he shall execute a righteous mishpat upon the earth for a multitude of days. And His star shall arise in shamayim as of a melech. Lighting up the light of knowledge as the shemesh the yom, and He shall be magnified in the world. He shall shine forth as the shemesh on the earth, and shall remove all darkness from under shamayim, And there shall be shalom in all the earth. The shamayim shall be exalted in his days, And the earth shall be glad, and the clouds shall rejoice, and the knowledge of אֱלֹהִים shall be poured forth upon the earth, as the water of the seas; And the malachim of the esteem of the presence of אֱלֹהִים shall be glad in Him. The shamayim shall be opened, And From the temple of esteem shall come upon him sanctification, With the Abba's voice as from Abraham to Yitzchak. And the esteem of the Most High shall be uttered over Him, And the ruach of understanding and sanctification shall rest upon Him. For he shall give the majesty of אֱלֹהִים to His sons in emet for evermore; And there shall none succeed him for all generations for ever. And in his kohanoot the Gentiles shall be multiplied in knowledge upon the earth, And enlightened through the chesed of אֱלֹהִים: In his kohanoot shall sin come to an end, and the lawless shall cease to do evil. [And the just shall rest in him.] And He shall open the gates of paradise, and shall remove the threatening sword against Ahdam. And He shall give to the kiddushim to eat from the tree of chayim, and the ruach of kedusha shall be on them. And s.a.tan shall be bound by Him, And He shall give power to His children to tread upon the evil ruacheem. And אֱלֹהִים shall rejoice in His children, And be well pleased in His beloved ones for ever. Then shall Abraham and Yitzchak and Yaakov be exalted, and will be glad, and all the saints shall clothe themselves with joy.

Chapter 19

And now, my children, you have heard all; choose, therefore, for yourselves either the light or the darkness, either the Torah of אֱלֹהִים or the works of s.a.tan. And his sons answered him, saying, Before אֱלֹהִים we will walk according to His Torah. And their abba said unto them, אֱלֹהִים is witness, and His malachim are witnesses, and you are witnesses, and I am witness, concerning the word of your mouth. And his sons said unto him: We are witnesses. And thus Lewi ceased commanding his sons; and he stretched out his feet on the bed, and was gathered to his ahvot, after he had lived a hundred and thirty-seven years. And they laid him in a coffin, and afterwards they buried him in Chevron, with Abraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov

The Testament of Yahudah the Fourth Son of Yaakov and Leah

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Yahudah, what things he spoke to his sons before he died. They gathered themselves together, therefore, and came to him, and he said to them: Shema, my children, to Yahudah your abba.

I was the fourth son born to my abba Yaakov; and Leah my eema named me Yahudah, saying, I give thanks to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, because He has given me a fourth son also. I was swift in my youth, and obedient to my abba in everything. And I honored my eema and my eema's sister. And it came to pass, when I became a man, that my abba blessed me, saying, You shall be a melech, prospering in all things.

Chapter 2

And אֱלֹהֵינוּ showed me favor in all my works both in the field and in the house. I know that I raced a hind, and caught it, and prepared the meat for my abba, and he did eat. And the roes I used to master in the chase, and overtake all that was in the plains. A wild mare I overtook, and caught it and tamed it. I slew a lion and plucked a kid out of its mouth. I took a bear by its paw and hurled it down the cliff, and it was crushed. I outran the wild boar, and seizing it as I ran, I tore it in sunder. A leopard in Chevron leaped upon my dog, and I caught it by the tail, and hurled it on the rocks, and it was broken in twain. I found a wild ox feeding in the fields, and seizing it by the horns, and whirling it round and stunning it, I cast it from me and slew it.

Chapter 3

And when the two melechim of the Kanaanites came sheathed in armor against our flocks, and much people with them, single-handedly I rushed upon the melech of Chazor, and smote him on the greaves and dragged him down, and so I slew him. And the other, the melech of Tappuah, as he sat upon his horse, [I slew, and so I scattered all his people]. Achor the melech a man of giant stature I found, hurling javelins before and behind as he sat on horseback, and I took up a stone of sixty pounds weight, and hurled it and smote his horse, and killed it. And I fought with (this) other for two hours; and I broke his shield in two, and I chopped off his feet, and killed him. And as I was stripping off his breastplate, behold nine men his companions began to fight with me.

And I wound my garment on my hand; and I slung stones at them, and killed four of them, and the rest fled. And Yaakov my abba slew Baalesath, melech of all the melechim, a naphal in strength, twelve cubits high.,

And fear fell upon them, and they ceased warring against us.

Therefore my abba was free from anxiety in the wars when I was with my brethren. For he saw in a vision concerning me that a Malach of might followed me everywhere, that I should not be overcome.

Chapter 4

And in the south there came upon us a greater war than that in Shechem; and I joined in battle array with my brethren, and pursued a thousand men, and slew of them two hundred men and four melechim. And I went up upon the wall, and I slew four mighty men. And so we captured Chazor, and took all the spoil.

Chapter 5

On the next yom we departed to Aretan, a city strong and walled and inaccessible, threatening us with death. But I and Gad approached on the east side of the city, and Reuben and Levi on the west. And they that were upon the wall, thinking that we were alone, were drawn down against us.

And so my brothers secretly climbed up the wall on both sides by stakes, and entered the city, while the men knew it not. And we took it with the edge of the sword. And as for those who had taken refuge in the tower, we set fire to the tower and took both it and them. And as we were departing the men of Tappuah set upon our spoil, and delivering it up to our sons we fought with them as far as Tappuah. And we slew them and burnt their city, and took as spoil all that was in it.

Chapter 6

And when I was at the waters of Kozeba, the men of Yobel came against us to battle. And we fought with them and routed them; and their allies from Shiloh we slew, and we did not leave them power to come in against us.

And the men of Makir came upon us the fifth yom, to seize our spoil; and we attacked them and overcame them in fierce battle: for there was a host of mighty men amongst them, and we slew them before they had gone up the ascent. And when we came to their city their women rolled upon us stones from the brow of the hill on which the city stood, And I and Simeon hid ourselves behind the town, and seized upon the heights, and destroyed this city also.

Chapter 7

And the next yom it was told us that the melech of the city of Gaash with a mighty host was coming against us. I, therefore, and Dan feigned ourselves to be Amorites, and as allies went into their city. And in the depth of night our brethren came and we opened to them the gates; and we destroyed all the men and their substance, and we took for a prey all that was theirs, and their three walls we cast down. And we drew near to Thamna, where was all the substance of the hostile melechim. Then being insulted by them, I was therefore angry, and rushed against them to the summit; and they kept slinging against me stones and darts. And had not Dan my brother aided me, they would have slain me. We came upon them, therefore, with wrath, and they all fled; and passing by another way, they besought my abba, and he made shalom with them. And we did to them no harm, and they became tributary to us, and we restored to them their spoil. And I built Thamna, and my abba built Pabael. I was twenty years old when this war befell. And the Kanaanites feared me and my brethren.

Chapter 8

And I had much cattle, and I had for chief herdsman Iram the Adullamite. And when I went to him I saw Parsaba, melech of Adullam; and he spoke unto us, and he made us a feast; and when I was heated he gave me his daughter Bathshua to isha. She bare me Er, and Onan and Shelah; and two of them אִרְאֵל smote: for Shelah lived, and his children are you.

Chapter 9

And eighteen years my abba abode in shalom with his brother Esav, and his sons with us, after that we came from Mesopotamia, from Lavan. And when eighteen years were fulfilled, in the fortieth year of my chayim, Esav, the brother of my abba, came upon us with a mighty and strong people.

And Yaakov smote Esav with an arrow, and he was taken up wounded on Mount Seir, and as he went he died at Anoniram. And we pursued after the sons of Esav. Now they had a city with walls of iron and gates of brass; and we could not enter into it, and we encamped around, and besieged it.

And when they opened not to us in twenty days, I set up a ladder in the sight of all and with my shield upon my head I went up, sustaining the assault of stones, upwards of three talents weight; and I slew four of their mighty men.

And Reuben and Gad slew six others.

Then they asked from us terms of shalom; and having taken counsel with our abba, we received them as avadim.

And they gave us five hundred stalks of wheat, five hundred baths of oil, five hundred measures of wine, until the famine, when we went down into Mitzrayim.

Chapter 10

And after these things my son Er took to isha Tamar, from Mesopotamia, a daughter of Aram. Now Er was wicked, and he was in need concerning Tamar, because she was not of the land of Canaan. And on the third night a malach of אִרְאֵל smote him.

And he had not known her according to the evil craftiness of his eema, for he did not wish to have children by her. In the days of the wedding-feast I gave Onan to her in marriage; and he also in wickedness knew her not, though he spent with her a year. And when I threatened him he went in unto her, but he spilled the zera on the ground, according to the command of his eema, and he also died through wickedness.

And I wished to give Shelah also to her, but his eema did not permit it; for she wrought evil against Tamar, because she was not of the daughters of Canaan, as she also herself was.

Chapter 11

And I knew that the race of the Kanaanites was wicked, but the impulse of youth blinded my mind. And when I saw her pouring out wine, owing to the intoxication of wine I was deceived, and took her although my abba had not counselled (it). And while I was away she went and took for Shelah an isha from Kanaan. And when I knew what she had done, I cursed her in the anguish of my nephesh. And she also died through her wickedness together with her sons.

Chapter 12

And after these things, while Tamar was a widow, she heard after two years that I was going up to shear my sheep, and adorned herself in bridal array, and sat in the city Enaim by the gate. For it was a Torah of the Amorites, that she who was about to marry should sit in fornication seven days by the gate. Therefore being drunk with wine, I did not recognize her; and her beauty deceived me, through the fashion of her adorning. And I turned aside to her, and said: Let me go in unto you. And she said: What will you give me? And I gave her my staff, and my girdle, and the diadem of my kingdom in pledge. And I went in unto her, and she conceived. And not knowing what I had done, I wished to slay her; but she privily sent my pledges, and put me to shame. And when I called her, I heard also the secret words which I spoke when lying with her in my drunkenness; and I could not slay her, because it was from אִי אִי. For I said, Lest haply she did it in subtlety, having received the pledge from another woman. But I came not again near her while I lived, because I had done this abomination in all Yisrael. Moreover, they who were in the city said there was no harlot in the gate, because she came from another place, and sat for a while in the, gate. And I thought that no one knew that I had gone in to her. And after this we came into Mitzrayim to Yoseph, because of the famine. And I was forty and six years old, and seventy and three years lived I in Mitzrayim.

Chapter 13

And now I command you, my children, shema to Yahudah your abba, and keep my sayings to perform all the ordinances of אִי אִי, and to obey the mitzvoth of Ahlohim. And walk not after your lusts, nor in the imaginations of your thoughts in haughtiness of lev; and esteem not in the deeds and strength of your youth, for this also is evil in the eyes of אִי אִי. Since I also gloried that in wars no comely woman's face ever enticed me, and reproved Reuben my brother concerning Bilhah, the isha of my abba, the ruacheem of jealousy and of fornication arrayed themselves against me, until I lay with Bathshua the Canaanite, and Tamar, who was espoused to my sons. For I said to my abba-in-

Torah: I will take counsel with my abba, and so will I take your daughter. And he was unwilling, but he showed me a boundless store of gold in his daughter's behalf; for he was a melech. And he adorned her with gold and pearls, and caused her to pour out wine for us at the feast with the beauty of women. And the wine turned aside my eyes, and pleasure blinded my lev. And I became enamoured of and I lay with her, and transgressed the commandment of אִשָּׁה and the commandment of my avoith, and I took her to isha. And אִשָּׁה rewarded me according to the imagination of my lev, inasmuch as I had no joy in her children.

Chapter 14

And now, my children, I say unto you, be not drunk with wine; for wine turns the mind away from the emet, and inspires the passion of lust, and leads the eyes into error. For the ruach of fornication has wine as a minister to give pleasure to the mind; for these two also take away the mind of man. For if a man drink wine to drunkenness, it disturbs the mind with filthy thoughts leading to fornication, and heats the body to carnal union; and if the occasion of the lust be present, he will work the sin, and is not ashamed.

Such is the inebriated man, my children; for he who is drunken reverences no man. For, lo, it made me also to err, so that I was not ashamed of the multitude in the city, in that before the eyes of all I turned aside unto Tamar, and I did a great sin, and I uncovered the covering of my sons' shame. After I had drunk wine I revered not the mitzvoth of Ahlohim, and I took a woman of Canaan to isha. For much discretion needs the man who drinks wine, my children; and herein is discretion in drinking wine a man may drink so long as he preserves modesty. But if he go beyond this limit the ruach of deceit attacks his mind, and it makes the drunkard to talk filthily, and to transgress and not to be ashamed, but even to esteem in his shame, and to account himself honorable.

Chapter 15

He that commits fornication is not aware when he suffers loss, and is not ashamed when put to dishonor. For even though a man be a melech and commit fornication, he is stripped of his kingship by becoming the slave of fornication, as I myself also suffered. For I gave my staff, that is, the ot of my tribe; and my girdle, that is, my power; and my keter, that is, the esteem of my kingdom. And indeed I repented of these things; wine and flesh I eat not until my old age, nor did I behold any joy. And the malach of Ahlohim showed me that for ever do women bear rule over melech and beggar alike. And from the melech they take away his esteem, and from the valiant man his might, and from the beggar even that little which is the ot of his poverty.

Chapter 16

Observe, therefore, my children, the rights limit in wine; for there are in it four evil ruacheem: f lust, of hot desire, of recklessness of filthy lucre. If you drink wine in gladness, be you modest in the fear of Ahlohim. For if in (your) gladness the fear of Ahlohim departs, then drunkenness arises and shamelessness enters in. But if you would live soberly do not touch wine at all, lest you sin in words of outrage, and in fightings and slanders, and transgressions of the mitzvoth of Ahlohim, and you perish before your time. Moreover, wine reveals the mysteries of Ahlohim and men, even as I also revealed the commandments of Ahlohim and the mysteries of Yaakov my abba to the Kanaanitish woman Bathshua, which Ahlohim told me not to reveal. And wine is a cause both of war and confusion.

Chapter 17

And now, I command you, my children, not to ahava money, nor to gaze upon the beauty of women; because for the sake of money and beauty I was led astray to Bathshua the Kanaanite. For I know that because of these two things shall my race fall into wickedness. For even wise men among my sons shall they mar, and shall cause the malchut of Yahudah to be diminished, which אִתְּךָ gave me because of my obedience to my abba. For I never caused grief to Yaakov, my abba: for all things whatsoever he commanded I did. And Yitzchak, the abba of my abba, blessed me to be melech in Yisrael, and Yaakov further blessed me in like manner. And I know that from me shall the malchut be established.

Chapter 18

And I know what evils you will do in the last days. Beware, therefore, my children, of fornication, and the ahava of money, and shema to Yahudah your abba. For these things withdraw you from the Torah of Ahlohim, And blind the inclination of the soul, And teach arrogance, and suffer not a man to have compassion upon his neighbor. They rob his soul of all goodness, And oppress him with toils and troubles, And drive away sleep from him, And devour his flesh. And he hinders the sacrifices of Ahlohim; and he remembers not the bracha of Ahlohim, He hearkens not to a navi when he speaks, And resents the words of tov. For he is a slave to two contrary passions, And cannot obey Ahlohim, Because they have blinded his nephesh. And he walks in the yom as in the night.

Chapter 19

My children, the ahava of money leads to idolatry; because, when led astray through money, men name as ahlohim those who are not ahlohim, and it causes him who has it, to fall into madness. For the sake of money I lost my children, and had not my repentance, and my humiliation, and the prayers of my abba been accepted, I should have died childless. But the Ahlohim of my avoth had rachamim on me, because I did it in ignorance. And the sar of deceit blinded me, and I sinned as a man and as flesh, being corrupted through sins; and I learned my own weakness while thinking myself invincible.

Chapter 20

Know, therefore, my children, that two ruacheem wait upon man the ruach of emet and the ruach of deceit. And in the midst is the ruach of understanding of the mind, to which it belongs to turn whithersoever it will. And the works of emet and the works of deceit are written upon the levavot of men, and each one of them אףאז knows. And there is no time at which the works of men can be hid; for on the lev itself have they been written down before אףאז. And the ruach of emet testifies all things, and accuses all; and the sinner is burnt up by his own lev, and cannot raise his face to the judge.

Chapter 21

And now, my children, I command you, grant ahava to Levi, that you may abide, and exalt not yourselves against him, lest you be utterly destroyed. For to me אֱלֹהִים gave the malchut, and to him the kohanoth, and He set the malchut beneath the priesthood. To me He gave the things upon the earth; to him the things in the shamayim. As the shamayim is higher than the earth, so is the priesthood of Ahlohim higher than the earthly malchut, unless it falls away through sin from אֱלֹהִים and is dominated by the earthly kingdom. For the Malach of אֱלֹהִים said unto me: אֱלֹהִים chose him rather than you, to draw near to Him, and to eat of His table and to offer Him the bikkurim of the choice things of the sons of Yisrael; but you shall be melech of Yaakov. And you shall be amongst them as the sea. For as, on the sea, just and unjust are tossed about, some taken into captivity while some are enriched, so also shall every race of men be in you: some shall be impoverished, being taken captive, and others grow rich by plundering the possessions of others. For the melechim shall be as sea-monsters. They shall swallow men like fishes: The sons and daughters of free men shall they enslave; Houses, lands, flocks, money shall they plunder: And with the flesh of many shall they wrongfully feed the ravens and the cranes; And they shall advance in evil, in covetousness uplifted, And there shall be false neviim like tempests, And they shall persecute all righteous men.

Chapter 22

And אֱלֹהִים shall bring upon them divisions one against another. And there shall be continual wars in Yisrael; And among men of another race shall my kingdom be brought to an end, Until the סוף־אֱלֹהִים of Yisrael shall come, Until the appearing of the Ahlohim of Tzedakah, so that Yaakov [and all the Gentiles] may rest in shalom. And He shall shomer the might of my malchut for ever; For אִיִּיִּי swore to me with an oath that He would not destroy the malchut from my zera for ever.

Chapter 23

Now I have much grief, my children, because of your lewdness and witchcrafts, and idolatries which you shall practice against the malchut, following them that have familiar ruacheem, diviners, and demons of error. You shall make your daughters singing girls and harlots, and you shall mingle in the abominations of the Gentiles. For which things sake אִיִּיִּי shall bring upon you famine and pestilence, death and the sword, beleaguering by enemies, and the reviling of chaverim, the slaughter of children, the rape of wives, the plundering of possessions, the burning of the temple of Ahlohim, the laying waste of the land, the enslavement of yourselves among the Gentiles. And they shall make some of you eunuchs for their wives. Until אִיִּיִּי visit you, when with perfect lev you repent and walk in all His mitzvoth; and He bring you up from captivity among the Gentiles.

Chapter 24

And after these things shall a cochav arise to you from Yaakov in shalom, And a man shall arise [from my zera], like the Shemesh of Tzedakah, walking with the sons of men in meekness and tzedakah; And no sin shall be found in Him. And the shamayim shall be open unto Him, To pour out the Ruach, (even) the blessing of the Abba Kadosh; And He shall pour out the Ruach of chesed upon you; And you shall be unto Him sons in emet, And you shall walk in His mitzvot the first and last. Then shall the scepter of my malchut shine forth; And from your root shall arise a stem; And from it shall grow a rod of tzedakah to the Gentiles, To judge and to save all that call upon אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

Chapter 25

And after these things shall Abraham and Yitzchak and Yaakov arise unto chayim, and I and my brethren shall be chiefs of the tribes of Yisrael: Levi first, I the second, Yoseph third, Benjamin fourth, Simeon fifth; Issachar sixth, and so all in order. And אֱלֹהֵינוּ blessed Levi, and The Angel of the Presence, me; the powers of esteem, Simeon; the shamayim, Reuben; the earth, Issachar; the sea, Zebulun; the mountains, Yoseph; the tabernacle, Benjamin; the luminaries, Dan; Eden, Naphtali; the shemesh, Gad; the moon, Asher. And you shall be the people of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and have one tongue; And there shall be there no ruach of deceit of s.a.tan, For he shall be cast into the fire for ever. And they who have died in grief shall arise in joy, And they who were poor for אֱלֹהֵינוּ's sake shall be made rich, And they who are put to death for אֱלֹהֵינוּ's sake shall awake to chayim. And the hearts of Yaakov shall run in joyfulness, And the eagles of Yisrael shall fly in gladness; And all the people shall glorify אֱלֹהֵינוּ for ever.

Chapter 26

Observe, therefore, my children, all the Torah of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, for there is hope for all them who hold fast unto His ways. And he said to them: Behold, I die before your eyes this yom, a hundred and nineteen years old. Let no one bury me in costly apparel, nor tear open my bowels, for this shall they who are melechim do; and carry me up to Chevron with you. And Yahudah, when he had said these things, fell asleep; and his sons did according to all whatsoever he commanded them, and they buried him in Chevron, with his avoath.

The Testament of Issachar the Fifth Son of Yaakov and Leah

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Issachar. For he called his sons and said to them: Shema, my children, to Issachar your abba; Give ear to the words of him who is beloved of אִיִּשָׁכָר. I was born the fifth son to Yaakov, by way of hire for the mandrakes. For Reuben my brother brought in mandrakes from the field, and Rachel met him and took them. And Reuben wept, and at his voice Leah my eema came forth. How these (mandrakes) were sweet-smelling apples which were produced in the land of Charan below a ravine of water. And Rachel said: I will not give them to you, but they shall be to me instead of children. For אִיִּשָׁכָר hath despised me, and I have not borne children to Yaakov. Now there were two apples; and Leah said to Rachel: Let it suffice you that you have taken my husband: will you take these also? And Rachel said to her: You shall have Yaakov this night for the mandrakes of your son. And Leah said to her: Yaakov is mine, for I am the isha of his youth. But Rachel said: Boast not, and vaunt not yourself; for he espoused me before you, and for my sake he served our abba fourteen years.

And had not craft increased on the earth and the wickedness of men prospered, you would not now see the face of Yaakov. For you are not his isha, but in craft were taken to him in my place. And my abba deceived me, and removed me on that night, and did not allow Yaakov to see me; for had I been there, this had not happened to him. Nevertheless, for the mandrakes I am hiring Yaakov to you for one night. And Yaakov knew Leah, and she conceived and bare me, and on account of the hire I was called Issachar.

Chapter 2

Then appeared to Yaakov a malach of אֱלֹהִים, saying: Two children shall Rachel bear, inasmuch as she has refused company with her husband, and has chosen continency. And had not Leah my eema paid the two apples for the sake of his company, she would have borne eight sons; for this reason she bare six, and Rachel bare the two: for on account of the mandrakes אֱלֹהִים visited her. For He knew that for the sake of children she wished to be with Yaakov, and not for lust of pleasure. For the next yom she again gave up Yaakov. Because of the mandrakes; therefore, אֱלֹהִים hearkened to Rachel. For though she desired them, she ate them not, but offered them in the house of אֱלֹהִים, presenting them to the kohen of the Most High who was at that time.

Chapter 3

When, therefore, I grew up, my children, I walked in tzedakah of lev, and I became a farmer for my abba and my brethren, and I brought in fruits from the field according to their season. And my abba blessed me, for he saw that I walked in rectitude before him. And I was not a busybody in my doings, nor envious and malicious against my neighbor. I never slandered any one, nor did I censure the chayim of any man, walking as I did in singleness of eye. Therefore, when I was thirty-five years old, I took to myself an isha, for my labor wore away my strength, and I never thought upon pleasure with women; but owing to my toil, sleep overcame me. And my abba always rejoiced in my rectitude, because I offered through the kohen to אֶלֶּלְל all bikkurim; then to my abba also. And אֶלֶּלְל increased ten thousand fold His benefits in my hands; and also Yaakov, my abba, knew that Ahlohim aided my singleness. For on all the poor and oppressed I bestowed the tov things of the earth in the singleness of my lev.

Chapter 4

And now, shema to me, my children, And walk in singleness of your lev, For I have seen in it all that is well-pleasing to אֶלֶּלְל. The single-(minded) man covets not gold, He overreaches not his neighbor, He longs not after manifold dainties, He delights not in varied apparel. He does not desire to live a long chayim, But only waits for the will of Ahlohim. And the ruacheem of deceit have no power against him, For he looks not on the beauty of women, Lest he should pollute his mind with corruption. There is no envy in his thoughts, [No malicious person makes his soul to pine away,] Nor worry with insatiable desire in his mind. For he walks in singleness of nephesh, And beholds all things in uprightness of lev, Shunning eyes made evil through the error of the olam hazeh, Lest he should see the perversion of any of the mitzvot of אֶלֶּלְל.

Chapter 5

Keep, therefore, my children, the Torah of Ahlohim, And get singleness of lev. And walk in guilelessness, Not playing the busybody with the business of your neighbor, But ahava אהבה and your neighbor, Have compassion on the poor and weak. Bow down your back unto farming, and toil in labors in all manner of farming, offering gifts to אהבה with thanksgiving. For with the bikkurim of the earth will אהבה bless you, even as He blessed all the kidushim from Abel even until now. For no other portion is given to you than of the fatness of the earth, whose fruits are raised by toil. For our abba Yaakov blessed me with blessings of the earth and of bikkurim. And Lewi and Yahudah were glorified by אהבה even among the sons of Yaakov; for אהבה gave them an inheritance, and to Levi He gave the kohanoot, and to Yahudah the kingdom. And therefore obey them, and walk in the singleness of propose of your abba; for unto Gad hath it been given to destroy the troops that are coming upon Yisrael.

Chapter 6

Know you therefore, my children, that in the last times Your sons will forsake singleness, And will cleave unto insatiable desire; And leaving guilelessness will draw near to malice; And forsaking the commandments of אהבה, They will cleave unto Beliar. And leaving husbandry, They will follow after their own wicked devices, And they shall be dispersed among the Gentiles. And shall serve their enemies. And do you therefore give these commands to your children, that, if they sin, they may the more quickly return to אהבה; For He is merciful, and will deliver them, even to bring them back into their land.

Chapter 7

Behold, therefore, as you see, I am a hundred and twenty-six years old and am not conscious of committing any sin. Except my isha I have not known any woman. I never committed fornication by the uplifting of my eyes. I drank not wine, to be led astray thereby; I coveted not any desirable thing that was my neighbor's. Guile arose not in my lev; A lie passed not through my lips. If any man were in distress I joined my sighs with his, And I shared my bread with the poor. I wrought tov, all my days; I kept emet I loved אַרְאֵל; Likewise also every man with all my lev. So do you also these things, my children, And every ruach of s.a.tan shall flee from you, And no deed of wicked men shall rule over you; And every wild beast shall you subdue, Since you have with you the Ahlohim of shamayim and earth (And) walk with men in singleness of lev. And having said these things, he commanded his sons that they should carry him up to Chevron, and bury him there in the cave with his avoth. And he stretched out his feet and died, at a tov old age; with every limb sound, and with strength unabated, he slept the eternal sleep.

The Testament of Zebulun the Sixth Son of Yaakov and Leah

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Zevulun, which he gave to his sons before he died in the hundred and fourteenth year of his chayim, two years after the death of Yoseph. And he said to them: Shema to me, you sons of Zevulun, attend to the words of your abba. I, Zevulun, was born a tov gift to my parents. For when I was born my abba was increased very exceedingly, both in flocks and herds, when with the striped rods he had his portion. I am not conscious that I have sinned all my days, save in thought. Nor yet do I remember that I have done any iniquity, except the sin of ignorance which I committed against Yoseph; for I covenanted with my brethren not to tell my abba what had been done. But I wept in secret many days on account of Yoseph, for I feared my brethren, because they had all agreed that if any one should declare the secret, he should be slain. But when they wished to kill him, I adjured them much with tears not to be guilty of this sin.

Chapter 2

For Simeon and Gad came against Yoseph to kill him, and he said unto them with tears: Pity me, my brethren, have mercy upon the bowels of Yaakov our abba: lay not upon me your hands to shed innocent blood, for I have not sinned against you. And if indeed I have sinned, with chastening chastise me, my brethren but lay not upon me your hand, for the sake of Yaakov our abba. And as he spoke these words, wailing as he did so, I was unable to bear his lamentations, and began to weep, and my liver was poured out, and all the substance of my bowels was loosened. And I wept with Yoseph, and my lev sounded, and the joints of my body trembled, and I was not able to stand. And when Yoseph saw me weeping with him, and them coming against him to slay him, he fled behind me, beseeching them. But meanwhile Reuben arose and said: Come, my brethren, let us not slay him, but let us cast him into one of these dry pits, which our avoth dug and found no water. For for this cause אִי־אִי־אִי־ forbade that water should rise up in them, in order that Yoseph should be preserved. And they did so, until they sold him to the Ishmaelites.

Chapter 3

For in his price I had no share, my children. But Simeon and Gad and six other of our brethren took the price of Yoseph, and bought sandals for themselves, and their wives, and their children, saying: We will not eat of it, for it is the price of our brother's blood, but we will assuredly tread it under foot, because he said that he would be melech over us, and so let us see what will become of his dreams. Therefore it is written in the writing of the Torah of Moshe, that whosoever will not raise up zera to his brother, his sandal should be unloosed, and they should spit in his face. And the brethren of Yoseph wished not that their brother should live, and אִי־אִי־אִי־ loosed from them the sandal which they wore against Yoseph their brother. For when they came into Mitzrayim they were unloosed by the servants of Yoseph outside the gate, and so they made obeisance to Yoseph after the fashion of Melech Pharaoh. And not only did they make obeisance to him, but were spit upon also, falling down before him, and so they were put to shame before the Mitzrites. For after this the Mitzrites heard all the evils that they had done to Yoseph.

Chapter 4

And after he was sold my brothers sat down to eat and drink. But I, through pity for Yoseph, did not eat, but watched the pit, since Yahudah feared lest Simeon, Dan, and Gad should rush off and slay him. But when they saw that I did not eat, they set me to watch him, till he was sold to the Ishmaelites. And when Reuben came and heard that while he was away (Yoseph) had been sold, he rent his garments, (and) mourning, said: How shall I look on the face of my abba Yaakov? And he took the money and ran after the merchants, but as he failed to find them he returned grieving. But the merchants had left the broad road and marched through the Troglodytes by a short cut. But Reuben was grieved, and ate no food that yom. Dan therefore came to him and said:, Weep not, neither grieve; for we have found what we can say to our abba Yaakov. Let us slay a kid of the goats, and dip in it the coat of Yoseph; and let us send it to Yaakov, saying: Know, is this the coat of your son? And they did so. For they stripped off from Yoseph his coat when they were selling him, and put upon him the garment of an eved. Now Simeon took the coat, and would not give it up, for he wished to rend it with his sword, as he was angry that Yoseph lived and that he had not slain him. Then we all rose up and said unto him: If you give not up the coat, we will say to our abba that you alone did this evil thing in Yisrael. And so he gave it unto them, and they did even as Dan had said.

Chapter 5

I And now, my children, I bid you to keep the commands of אִתְּכֶם, and to show mercy to your neighbors, and to have compassion towards all, not towards men only, but also towards, beasts. For all this thing's sake אֱלֹהִים blessed me, and when all my brethren were sick, I escaped without sickness, for אֱלֹהִים knows the purposes of each. Have, therefore, compassion in your levavot, my children, because even as a man does to his neighbor, even so also will אֱלֹהִים do to him. For the sons of my brethren were all sick and were dying on account of Yoseph, because they showed not mercy in their levavot; but my sons were preserved without sickness, as you know. And when I was in the land of Kanaan, by the sea-coast, I made a catch of fish for Yaakov my abba; and when many were choked in the sea, I continued unhurt.

Chapter 6

I was the first to make a boat to sail upon the sea, for אֱלֹהִים gave me understanding and chochmah about that. And I let down a rudder behind it, and I stretched a sail upon another upright piece of wood in the midst. And I sailed there along the shores, catching fish for the house of my abba until we came to Mitzrayim. And through compassion I shared my catch with every stranger. And if a man were a stranger, or sick, or aged, I boiled the fish, and dressed them well, and offered them to all men, as every man had need, grieving with and having compassion upon them. Therefore also אֱלֹהִים satisfied me with abundance of fish when catching fish; for he that shares with his neighbor receives manifold more from אֱלֹהִים. For five years I caught fish and gave thereof to every man whom I saw, and it was sufficient for all the house of my abba. And in the summer I caught fish, and in the winter I kept sheep with my brethren.

Chapter 7

Now I will declare unto you what I did. I saw a man in distress through nakedness in winter time, and had compassion upon him, and stole away a garment secretly from my abba's house, and gave it to him who was in distress. Do you, therefore, my children, from that which Ahlohim pours upon you, show compassion and mercy without hesitation to all men, and give to every man with a tov lev. And if you have not the means to give to him that needs, have compassion for him in bowels of rachamim. I know that my hand found not the means to give to him that needed, and I walked with him weeping for seven furlongs, and my bowels yearned towards him in compassion.

Chapter 8

Have, therefore, yourselves also, my children, compassion towards every man with rachamim, that אהבה also may have compassion and mercy upon you. Because also in the last days Ahlohim will send His compassion on the earth, and wheresoever He finds bowels of mercy He dwells in him. For in the degree in which a man hath compassion upon his neighbors, in the same degree has אהבה also upon him. And when we went down into Mitzrayim, Yoseph bore no malice against us. To whom taking heed, do you also, my children, approve yourselves without malice, and have ahava one to the another; and do not set down in account, each one of you, evil against his brother.

For this breaks unity and divides all kindred, and troubles the soul, and wears away the countenance.

Chapter 9

Observe, therefore, the mayim, and know when they flow together, they sweep along stones, trees, earth, and other things. But if they are divided into many streams, the earth swallows them up, and they vanish away. So shall you also be if you be divided. Be not you, therefore, divided into two heads, for everything which אֱלֹהִים made has but one head, and two shoulders, two hands, two feet, and all the remaining members. For I have learned in the writings of my ahvot, that you shall be divided in Yisrael, And you shall follow two melechim, And shall work every abomination. And your enemies shall lead you captive, And you shall be evil entreated among the Gentiles, With many infirmities and tribulations. And after these things you shall remember אֱלֹהִים, and repent, And He shall cause you to return; for He is merciful and compassionate. And He setts not down in account evil to the sons of men, because they are flesh, And the ruacheem of deceit deceive them in all their deeds. And after these things there shall arise unto you אֱלֹהִים Himself, the Light of Tzedakah, and healing and compassion shall be in His wings. He shall redeem all the captivity of the sons of men from s.a.tan; And every ruach of deceit shall be trodden down; And he shall bring back all the Gentiles into zeal for Him. And you shall return unto your land. And you shall see Him in Yahrushalayim, for His name's sake. And again through the wickedness of your works shall you provoke Him to anger, And you shall be cast away by Him unto the time of consummation.

Chapter 10

And now, my children, grieve not that I am dying, nor be cast down in that I am coming to my end. For I shall rise again in the midst of you, as a ruler in the midst of his sons; and I shall rejoice in the midst of my tribe, as many as shall keep the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, and the mitzvot of Zebulun their abba. But upon the evil ones shall אףאז bring eternal fire, and destroy them throughout all generations. But I am now hastening away to my rest, as did also my ahvot. But you fear אףאז our Ahlohim with all your strength all the days of your chayim. And when he had said these things he fell asleep, at a tov old age. And his sons laid him in a wooden coffin. And afterwards they carried him up and buried him in Chevron, with his ahvot.

The Testament of Dan the Seventh Son of Yaakov and Bilhah

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Dan, which he spoke to his sons in his last days, in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his chayim. For he called together his family, and said: Shema to my words, you sons of Dan; and give heed to the words of your abba. I have proved in my lev, and in my whole chayim, that emet with just dealing is tov and well pleasing to Ahlohim, and that lying and anger are evil, because they teach man all wickedness. I confess, therefore, this yom to you, my children, that in my lev I resolved on the death of Yoseph my brother, the true and tov man. And I rejoiced that he was sold, because his abba loved him more than us. For the ruach of jealousy and vain glory said to me: You yourself also are his son. And one of the ruacheem of s.a.tan stirred me up, saying: Take this sword, and with it slay Yoseph: so shall your abba have ahava for you when he is dead. Now this is the ruach of anger that persuaded me to crush Yoseph as a leopard crushes a kid. But the Ahlohim of my avoith did not suffer him to fall into my hands, so that I should find him alone and slay him, and cause a second tribe to be destroyed in Yisrael.

Chapter 2

And now, my children, behold I am dying, and I tell you of an emet, that unless you keep yourselves from the ruach of lying and of anger, and ahav the emet and longsuffering, you shall perish. For anger is blindness, and does not suffer one to see the face of any man with emet. For though it be a abba or a eema, he behaves towards them as enemies; though it be a brother, he knows him not; though it be a navi of אִיִּים, he disobeys him; though a tzadik man, he regards him not; though a chaver, he does not acknowledge him. For the ruach of anger encompasses him with the net of deceit, and blinds his eyes, and through lying darkens his mind, and gives him its own peculiar vision. And how does it encompass it his eyes? With hatred of lev, so as to be envious of his brother.

Chapter 3

For anger is an evil thing, my children, for it troubles even the nephesh itself. And the body of the angry man it makes its own, and over his soul it gets the mastery, and it bestows upon the body power that it may work all iniquity. And when the body does all these things, the nephesh justifies what is done, since it sees not right. Therefore he that is angry, if he be a mighty man, has a threefold power in his anger: one by the help of his avadim; and a second by his wealth, whereby he persuades and overcomes wrongfully; and thirdly, having his own natural power he works thereby the evil. And though the angry man be weak, yet has he a power twofold of that which is by nature; for wrath always aides such in Torahlessness. This ruach goes always with lying at the right hand of s.a.tan, that with cruelty and lying his works may be done. [Lying cruelty and anger all come from s.a.tan]

Chapter 4

Understand you, therefore, the power of wrath, that it is vain. For it first of all gives provocation by word; then by deeds it strengthens him who is angry, and with sharp losses disturbs his mind, and so stirs up with great wrath his nephesh. Therefore, when any one speaks against you, be not you moved to anger, and if any man praises you as kadosh men, be not uplifted: be not moved either to delight or to disgust. For first it pleases the hearing, and so makes the mind keen to perceive the grounds for provocation; and then being enraged, he thinks that he is justly angry. If you fall into any loss or ruin, my children, be not afflicted; for this very ruach makes a man desire that which is perishable, in order that he may be enraged through the affliction. And if you suffer loss voluntarily, or involuntarily, be not vexed; for from vexation arises wrath with lying. Moreover, a twofold mischief is wrath with lying; and they assist one another in order to disturb the lev; and when the nephesh is continually disturbed, אִיִּצְרָחֵלֵךְ departs from it, and s.a.tan rules over it.

Chapter 5

Observe, therefore, my children, the mitzvoth of אִיִּצְרָחֵלֵךְ, and keep His Torah; Depart from wrath, And hate lying, That אִיִּצְרָחֵלֵךְ may dwell among you, And s.a.tan may flee from you. Speak emet each one with his neighbor. So shall you not fall into wrath and confusion; But you shall be in shalom, having the Ahlohim of peace, So shall no war prevail over you. Love אֱלֹהִים through all your chayim, And one another with a true lev. I know that in the last days you shall depart from אֱלֹהִים, and you shall provoke Lewi unto anger, And fight against Yahudah; But you shall not prevail against them, for a Malach of אֱלֹהִים shall guide them both; For by them shall Yisrael stand. And whenever you depart from אֱלֹהִים, you shall walk in all evil and work the abominations of the Gentiles, going a-whoring after women of the lawless ones, while with all wickedness the ruacheem of wickedness work in you. For I have read in the book of Chanok-Enoch, the tazdik, that your prince is s.a.tan, and that all the ruacheem of wickedness and pride will conspire to attend constantly on the sons of Lewi, to cause them to sin before אֱלֹהִים. And my sons will draw near to Lewi. And sin with them in all things; And the sons of Yahudah will be covetous, Plundering other men's goods like lions. Therefore shall you be led away with them into captivity, And there shall you receive all the plagues of Mitzrayim, And all the evils of the Gentiles. And so when you return to אֱלֹהִים you shall obtain rachamim, And He shall bring you into His sanctuary, And He shall give you shalom. And there shall arise unto you from the tribe of [Yahudah and of] Lewi the מוֹשֵׁה of אֱלֹהִים; And He shall make war against s.a.tan. And execute an everlasting vengeance on our enemies; And the captivity shall he take from s.a.tan [the souls of the kidushim], And turn disobedient levavot unto אֱלֹהִים, And give to them that call upon Him eternal shalom. And the kidushim shall rest in Gan Eden, And in the New Jerusalem shall the righteous rejoice, And it shall be unto the esteem of Ahlohim forever. And no longer shall Yahrushalayim endure desolation, nor Yisrael be led captive; For אֱלֹהִים shall be in the midst of it, And the Kadosh One of Yisrael shall reign over it.

Chapter 6

And now, fear אֱלֹהִים, my children, and beware of s.a.tan and his ruacheem. Draw near unto Ahlohim and unto the malach that intercedes for you, for he is a Mediator between Ahlohim and man, and for the shalom of Yisrael He shall stand up against the kingdom of the enemy. Therefore is the enemy eager to destroy all that call upon אֱלֹהִים. For he knows that upon the yom on which Yisrael shall repent, the malchut of the enemy shall be brought to an end. For the very Malach of Shalom shall strengthen Yisrael, that it fall not into the extremity of evil. And it shall be in the time of the Torahlessness of Yisrael, that אֱלֹהִים will not depart from them, but will transform them into a nation that does His will, for none of the malachim will be equal unto him. And His Name shall be in every place in Yisrael, and among the Gentiles. Keep, therefore, yourselves, my children, from every evil work, And cast away wrath and all lying, And have ahava for emet and long-suffering. And the things which you have heard from your abba, do you also impart to your children. Depart, therefore, from all unrighteousness, and cleave unto the tzedakah of Ahlohim, and your race will be saved forever. And bury me near my ahvot.

Chapter 7

And when he had said these things he kissed them, and fell asleep at a tov old age. And his sons buried him, And after that they carried up his bones, and placed them near Abraham, and Yitzchak, and Yaakov. [Nevertheless, Dan prophesied unto them that they should forget their Ahlohim, and should be alienated from the land of their inheritance and from the race of Yisrael, and from the family of their zera.]

The Testament of Naphtali the Eighth Son of Yaakov and Bilhah

Chapter 1

The copy of the testament of Naphtali, which he ordained at the time of his death in the hundred and thirtieth year of his chayim. When his sons were gathered together in the seventh month, on the first yom of the month, while still in tov health, he made them a feast of food and wine. And after he was awake in the morning, he said to them, I am dying; and they believed him not. And as he glorified אִיִּי, he grew strong and said that after yesterday's moed he should die. And he began then to say: Hear, my children, you sons of Naphtali, hear the words of your abba. I was born from Bilhah, and because Rachel dealt craftily, and gave Bilhah in place of herself to Yaakov, and she conceived and bare me upon Rachel's knees, therefore she called my name Naphtali. For Rachel loved me very much because I was born upon her lap; and when I was still young she was wont to kiss me, and say: May I have a brother of thine from mine own womb, like unto you. Then also Yoseph was like unto me in all things, according to the prayers of Rachel. Now my eema was Bilhah, daughter of Rotheus the brother of Deborah, Rivkah's nurse, who was born on one and the self-same yom with Rachel. And Rotheus was of the mishpacha of Abraham, a Chaldean, Ahlohim fearing, free-born, and noble. And he was taken captive and was bought by Lavan; and he gave him Euna his handmaid to isha, and she bore a daughter, and called her name Zilpah, after the name of the village in which he had been taken captive. And next she bore Bilhah, saying: My daughter hastens after what is new, for immediately that she was born she seized the breast and hastened to suck it.

Chapter 2

And I was swift on my feet like the deer, and my abba Yaakov appointed me for all messages, and as a deer did he give me his blessing. For as the potter knows the vessel, how much it is to contain, and brings clay accordingly, so also does אֱלֹהִים make the body after the likeness of the ruach, and according to the capacity of the body does He implant the ruach. And the one does not fall short of the other by a third part of a hair; for by weight, and measure, and rule was all the creation made. And as the potter knows the use of each vessel, what it is tov for, so also does אֱלֹהִים know the body, how far it will persist in goodness, and when it begins in evil. For there is no inclination or thought which אֱלֹהִים knows not, for He created every man after His own image. As a man's strength, so also is his work; and as his mind, so also is his skill; and as his purpose, so also is his achievement; and as his lev, so also is his mouth; as his eye, so also is his sleep; as his nephesh, so also is his word, either in the Torah of אֱלֹהִים or in the works of s.a.tan. And as there is a division between light and darkness, between seeing and hearing, so also is there a division between man and man, and between woman and woman; and it is not to be said that the one is like the other either in face or in mind. For Ahlohim made all things tov in their order, the five senses in the head, and He joined on the neck to the head, adding to it the hair also for comeliness and esteem, then the lev for understanding, the belly for excrement, and the stomach for (grinding), the windpipe for taking in (the breath), the liver for wrath, the gall for bitterness, the spleen for laughter, the reins for prudence, the muscles of the loins for power, the lungs for drawing in, the loins for strength, and so forth. So then, my children, let all your works be done in order with tov intent in the fear of Ahlohim, and do nothing disorderly in scorn or out of its due season. For if you bid the eye to hear, it cannot; so neither while you are in darkness can you do the works of light.

Chapter 3

Be you, therefore, not eager to corrupt your doings through covetousness or with vain words to beguile your souls; because if you keep silence in purity of lev, you shall understand how to hold fast the will of Ahlohim, and to cast away the will of s.a.tan. The shemesh, yarayach and cochavim change not their order; so do you also change not the Torah of Ahlohim in the disorderliness of your doings. The Gentiles went astray, and forsook אֱלֹהִים, and changed their order, and obeyed stocks and stones, ruacheem of deceit. But you shall not be so, my children, recognizing in the firmament, in the earth, and in the sea, and in all created things, אֱלֹהִים who made all things, that you become not as Sodom, which changed the order of nature. In like manner the Watchers also changed the order of their nature, whom אַף־אֶזְרָא cursed at the flood, on whose account He made the earth without inhabitants and fruitless.

Chapter 4

These things I say unto you, my children, for I have read in the writing of Chanok-Enoch that you yourselves also shall depart from אַף־אֶזְרָא, walking according to all the Torahlessness of the Gentiles, and you shall do according to all the wickedness of Sodom. And אַף־אֶזְרָא shall bring captivity upon you, and there shall you serve your enemies, and you shall be bowed down with every affliction and tribulation, until אַף־אֶזְרָא have consumed you all. And after you have become small and made few, you shall return and acknowledge אַף־אֶזְרָא your Ahlohim; and He shall bring you back into your land, according to His abundant rachamim. And it shall be, that after that they come into the land of their ahvot, they shall again forget אַף־אֶזְרָא and become wicked. And אַף־אֶזְרָא shall scatter them upon the face of all the earth, until the compassion of אַף־אֶזְרָא shall come, The Man working tzedakah and working rachamim unto all them that are afar off, and to them that are near.

Chapter 5

For in the fortieth year of my chayim, I saw a vision on the Mount of Olives, on the east of Yahrushalayim, that the shemesh and the yarayach were standing still. And behold Yitzchak, the abba of my abba, said to us; Run and lay hold of them, each one according to his strength; and to him that seizesthem will the shemesh and yarayach belong. And we all of us ran together, and Lewi laid hold of the shemesh, and Yahudah outstripped the others and seized the yarayach, and they were both of them lifted up with them. And when Levi became as a shemesh, lo, a certain young man gave to him twelve branches of palms; and Yahudah was bright as the yarayach, and under their feet were twelve rays. [And the two, Levi and Yahudah, ran, and laid hold of them.] And, a bull upon the earth, with two great horns, and an eagle's wings upon its back; and we wished to seize him; but could not. But Yoseph came, and seized him, and ascended up with him on high. And I saw, for I was there, and behold a kadosh writing appeared to us, saying: Assyrians, Medes, Persians, [Chaldeans,] Syrians, shall possess in captivity the twelve tribes of Yisrael.

Chapter 6

And again, after seven days, I saw our abba Yaakov standing by the sea of Yamnia, and we were with him. And behold, there came a ship sailing by, without sailors or pilot; and there was written upon the ship, The Ship of Yaakov. And our abba said to us: Come, let us embark on our ship. And when he had gone on board, there arose a vehement storm, and a mighty tempest of wind; and our abba, who was holding the helm, departed from us. And we, being tossed with the tempest, were borne along over the sea; and the ship was filled with water, (and was) pounded by mighty waves, until it was broken up. And Yoseph fled away upon a little boat, and we were all divided upon nine planks, and Lewi and Yahudah were together. And we were all scattered unto the ends of the earth. Then Lewi, girt about with sackcloth, prayed for us all unto אֱלֹהֵינוּ. And when the storm ceased, the ship reached the land as it were in shalom. And, our abba came, and we all rejoiced with one accord.

Chapter 7

These two dreams I told to my abba; and he said to me: These things must be fulfilled in their season, after that Yisrael hath endured many things. Then my abba said unto me: I believe Ahlohim that Yoseph lives, for I see always that אֶרְאֶה numbers him with you, And he said, weeping: Ah me, my son Yoseph, you lives, though I behold you not, and you see you not Yaakov that begat you. He caused me also, therefore, to weep by these words, and I burned in my lev to declare that Yoseph had been sold, but I feared my brethren.

Chapter 8

And lo! my children, I have shown unto you the last times, how everything shall come to pass in Yisrael. Do you also, therefore, charge your children that they be united to Lewi and to Yahudah; For through them shall אֶרְאֶה arise unto Yisrael, And in them shall Yaakov be blessed. For through their tribes shall Ahlohim appear on earth, To save the race of Yisrael, And to gather together the righteous from among the Gentiles. If you work that which is tov, my children, Both men and malachim shall bless you; And Ahlohim shall be esteemed among the Gentiles through you, And the devil shall flee from you, And the wild beasts shall fear you, And אֶרְאֶה shall have ahava to you, [And the malachim shall cleave to you]. As a man who has trained a child well is kept in kindly remembrance: So also for a tov work there is a tov remembrance before Ahlohim. But him that does not that which is tov, both malachim and men shall curse, And Ahlohim shall be dishonored among the Gentiles through him, And the devil shall make him as his own peculiar instrument, And every wild beast shall master him, And אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall hate him. For the commandments of the Torah are twofold, And through prudence they must be fulfilled. For there is a season for a man to embrace his isha, And a season to abstain for his tefilah. So, then, there are two commandments; and, unless they be done in due order, they bring very great sin upon men. So also is it with the other commandments. Be you therefore wise in Ahlohim, my Children, and prudent, understanding the order of His commandments, and the laws of every Word, that אִיִּזְרָאֵל may ahava you.

Chapter 9

And when he had charged them with many such words, he exhorted them that they should remove his bones to Chevron, and that they should bury him with his avoth. And when he had eaten and drunken with a merry lev, he covered his face and died. And his sons did according to all that Naphtali their abba had commanded them.

The Testament of Gad the Ninth Son of Yaakov and Zilpah

Chapter 1

The copy of the testament of Gad, what things he spoke unto his sons, in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his chayim, saying unto them: Shema, my children, I was the ninth son born to Yaakov, and I was valiant in keeping the flocks. Accordingly I guarded at night the flock; and whenever the lion came, or the wolf, or any wild beast against the fold, I pursued it, and overtaking it I seized its foot with my hand and hurled it about a stone's throw, and so killed it. Now Yoseph my brother was feeding the flock with us for upwards of thirty days, and being young, he fell sick by reason of the heat. And he returned to Chevron to our abba, who made him lie down near him, because he loved him greatly. And Yoseph told our abba that the sons of Zilpah and Bilhah were slaying the best of the flock and eating them against the mishpat of Reuben and Yahudah. For he saw that I had delivered a lamb out of the mouth of a bear, and put the bear to death; but had slain the lamb, being grieved concerning it that it could not live, and that we had eaten it. And regarding this matter I was wroth with Yoseph until the yom that he was sold. And the ruach of hatred was in me, and I wished not either to hear of Yoseph with the ears, or see him with the eyes, because he rebuked us to our faces saying that we were eating of the flock without Yahudah. For whatsoever things he told our abba, he believed him.

Chapter 2

I confess now my din, my children, that oftentimes I wished to kill him, because I hated him from my lev. Moreover, I hated him yet more for his dreams; and I wished to lick him out of the land of the living, even as an ox licks up the grass of the field. Therefore I and Simeon sold him to the Ishmaelites [for thirty pieces of gold, and ten of them we hid, and showed the twenty to our brethren] And thus through covetousness we were bent on slaying him. Thus the Ahlohim of our avoith delivered him from our hands, that we should not work great Torahlessness in Yisrael.

Chapter 3

And now, my children, shema to the words of emet to work tzedakah, and all the Torah of the Most High, and go not astray through the ruach of hatred, for it is evil in all the doings of men. Whatsoever a man does the hater abominates him: and though a man works the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, he praises him not; though a man fears אֱלֹהִים, and takes pleasure in that which is righteous, he loveth him not. He dispraised the emet, he envies him that prospers, he welcomes evil-speaking, he loves arrogance, for hatred blindness soul; as I also then looked on Yoseph.

Chapter 4

Beware, therefore, my children of hatred, for it worketh Torahlessness even against אֱלֹהִים Himself. For it will not hear the words of His commandments concerning the loving of one's--neighbor, and it sins against Ahlohim. For if a brother stumble, it delights immediately to proclaim it to all men, and is urgent that he should be judged for it, and be punished and be put to death. And if it be a servant it stirs him up against his master, and with every affliction it devises against him, if possibly he can be put to death. For hatred works with envy also against them that prosper: so long as it hears of or sees their success it always languishes. For as ahava would quicken even the dead, and would call back them that are condemned to die, so hatred would slay the living, and those that had sinned venially it would not suffer to live. For the ruach of hatred works together with s.a.tan, through hastiness of ruacheem, in all things to men's death; but the ruach of ahava works together with the Torah of Ahlohim in long-suffering unto the וַיִּשְׁמַח of men.

Chapter 5

Hatred, therefore, is evil, for it constantly mates with lying, speaking against the emet; and it makes small things to be great, and causes the light to be darkness, and calls the sweet bitter, and teaches slander, and kindles wrath, and stirs up war, and violence and all covetousness; it fills the lev with evils and devilish poison. These things, therefore, I say to you from experience, my children, that you may drive forth hatred, which is of the devil, and cleave to the ahava of Ahlohim. Righteousness casts out hatred, humility destroys envy. For he that is tzadik and humble is ashamed to do what is unjust, being reprov'd not of another, but of his own lev, because וַיִּשְׁמַח looks on his inclination. He speaks not against a kadosh man, because the fear of Ahlohim overcomes hatred. For fearing lest he should offend וַיִּשְׁמַח , he will not do wrong to any man, even in thought. These things I learnt at last, after I had repented concerning Yoseph.

For true repentance after a godly sort destroys ignorance, and drives away the darkness, and enlightens the eyes, and gives knowledge to the soul, and leads the mind to salvation. And those things which it has not learned from man, it knows through teshuvah. For Ahlohim brought upon me a disease of the liver; and had not the prayers of Yaakov my abba helped me, it had hardly failed but my ruach had departed. For by what things a man transgresses by the same also is he punished.

Since, therefore, my liver was set mercilessly against Yoseph, in my liver too I suffered mercilessly, and was judged for eleven months, for so long a time as I had been angry against Yoseph.

Chapter 6

Andnow, my children, I exhort you, have ahava each one for his brother, and put away hatred from your levavot, have ahava to one another in deed, and in word, and in the inclination of the nephesh. For in the presence of my abba I spoke peaceably to Yoseph; and when I had gone out, the ruach of hatred darkened my mind, and stirred up my nephesh to slay him. Love you one another from the lev; and if a man sin against you, speak peaceably to him, and in your soul hold not guile; and if he repents and confesses, forgive him. But if he deny it, do not get into a passion with him, lest catching the poison from you he take to swearing and so you sin doubly. Let not another man hear your secrets when engaged in legal strife, lest he come to hate you and become your enemy, and commit a great sin against you; for oftentimes he addresses you guilefully or busies himself about you with wicked intent. And though he deny it and yet have a sense of shame when reproved, give over reproving him. For maybe who denies may repent so as not again to wrong you; yes, he may also honor you, and fear and be at shalom with you. And if he be shameless and persist in his wrong-doing, even so forgive him from the lev, and leave to Ahlohim the avenging.

Chapter 7

If a man prospers more than you, do not be vexed, but pray also for him, that he may have perfect prosperity for so it is expedient for you. And if he be further exalted, be not envious of him, remembering that all flesh shall die; and offer praise to Ahlohim, who gives things tov and profitable to all men. Seek out the mishpatim of אֱלֹהִים, and your mind will rest and be in shalom. And though a man become rich by evil means, even as Esav, the brother of my abba, be not jealous; but wait for the end of אֱלֹהִים. For if he takes away from a man wealth gotten by evil means He forgives him if he repents, but the unrepentant is reserved for eternal punishment. For the poor man, if free from envy he pleases אֱלֹהִים in all things, is blessed beyond all men, because he has not the travail of vain men. Put away, therefore, jealousy from your souls, and have ahava for one another with uprightness of lev.

Chapter 8

Do you also therefore tell these things to your children, that they honor Yahudah and Levi, for from them shall אֱלֹהִים raise up מְשִׁיחָא to Yisrael. For I know that at the last your children shall depart from Him, and shall walk in wickedness, and affliction and corruption before אֱלֹהִים. And when he had rested for a little while, he said again; My children, obey your abba, and bury me near to my avoth. And he drew up his feet, and fell asleep in shalom. And after five years they carried him up to Chevron, and laid him with his avoth.

The Testament of Asher the Tenth Son of Yaakov and Zilpah

Chapter 1

The copy of the Testament of Asher, what things he spoke to his sons in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of his chayim. For while he was still in health, he said to them: Shema, you children of Asher, to your abba, and I will declare to you all that is upright in the sight of אֱלֹהִים. Two ways has Ahlohim given to the sons of men, and two inclinations, and two kinds of action, and two modes (of action), and two issues. Therefore all things are by twos, one over against the other. For there are two ways of tov and evil, and with these are the two inclinations in our breasts discriminating them. Therefore if the nephesh take pleasure in the tov (inclination), all its actions are in tzedakah; and if it sin it straightway repents. For, having its thoughts set upon tzedakah, and casting away wickedness, it immediately overthrows the evil, and uproots the sin. But if it incline to the evil inclination, all its actions are in wickedness, and it drives away the tov, and cleaves to the evil, and is ruled by s.a.tan; even though it works what is tov, he perverts it to evil. For whenever it begins to do tov, he forces the issue of the action into evil for him, seeing that the treasure of the inclination is filled with an evil ruach

Chapter 2

A person then may with words help the tov for the sake of the evil, yet the issue of the action leads to mischief. There is a man who shows no compassion upon him who serves his turn in evil; and this thing has two aspects, but the whole is evil. And there is a man that loves him that works evil, because he would prefer even to die in evil for his sake; and concerning this it is clear that it hath two aspects, but the whole is an evil work. Though indeed he have ahava, yet is he wicked who conceals what is evil for the sake of the tov name, but the end of the action tends unto evil. Another steals, does unjustly, plunders defrauds, and withal pities the poor: this too hath a twofold aspect, but the whole is evil. He who defrauds his neighbor provokes Ahlohim, and swears falsely against the Most High, and yet pities the poor: אִי אִי אִי who commands the Torah he sets at nothing and provokes, and yet he refreshes the poor. He defiles the soul, and makes gay the body; he kills many, and pities a few: this, too, has a twofold aspect, but the whole is evil. Another commit's adultery and fornication, and abstains from meats, and when he fasts he does evil, and by the power of his wealth overwhelms many; and notwithstanding his excessive wickedness he does the mitzvot: this, too, has a twofold aspect, but the whole is evil. Such men are hares; clean,- like those that divide the hoof, but in very deed are unclean. For Ahlohim in the tables of the commandments has thus declared.

Chapter 3

But do not you, my children, wear two faces like unto them, of goodness and of wickedness; but cleave unto goodness only, for Ahlohim hath his habitation there, and men desire it. But from wickedness flee away, destroying the (evil) inclination by your tov works; for they that are double-faced serve not Ahlohim, but their own lusts, so that they may please s.a.tan and men like unto themselves.

Chapter 4

For tov men, even they that are of single face, though they be thought by them that are double faced to sin, are just before Ahlohim. For many in killing the wicked do two works, of tov and evil; but the whole is tov, because he hath uprooted and destroyed that which is evil. One man hateth the merciful and unjust man, and the man who committeth adultery and fasteth: this, too, hath a two fold aspect, but the whole work is tov, because he followeth אִרְאַז's example, in that he accepteth not the seeming tov as the genuine tov. Another desires not to see a tov yom with them that riot, lest he defile his body and pollute his soul: this, too, is double-faced, but the whole is tov. For such men are like to stags and to hinds, because in the manner of wild animals they seem to be unclean, but they are altogether clean; because they walk in zeal for אִרְאַז and abstain from what Ahlohim also hates and forbids by His mitzvoth, warding off the evil from the tov.

Chapter 5

Ye see, my children, how that there are two in all things, one against the other, and the one is hidden by the other: in wealth (is hidden) covetousness, in conviviality drunkenness, in laughter grief, in wedlock licentiousness, death succeeds to chayim, dishonor to esteem, night to yom, and darkness to light; [and all things are under the yom, just things under chayim, unjust things under death;] wherefore also eternal chayim awaits death. Nor may it be said that emet is a lie, nor right wrong; for all emet is under the light, even as all things are under Ahlohim. All these things, therefore, I proved in my chayim, and I wandered not from the emet of אִרְאַז, and I searched out the commandments of the Most High, walking according to all my strength with singleness of face unto that which is tov.

Chapter 6

Take heed, therefore, you also, my children, to the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים, following the emet with singleness of face. For they that are double-faced are guilty of a twofold sin; for they both do the evil thing and they have pleasure in them that do it, following the example of the ruacheem of deceit, and striving against mankind. Do you, therefore, my children, keep the Torah of אֱלֹהִים, and give not heed unto evil as unto tov; but look unto the thing that is really tov, and keep it in all mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים, having your conversation therein, and resting therein. For the latter ends of men do show their tzedakah (or unrighteousness), when they meet the malachim of אֱלֹהִים and of Satan.

For when the nephesh departs troubled, it is tormented by the evil ruach which also it served in lusts and evil works. But if he is peaceful with siracha he meets the malach of peace, and he leads him into eternal chayim.

Chapter 7

Become not, my children, as Sodom, which sinned against the malachim of אֱלֹהִים, and perished for ever. For I know that you shall sin, and be delivered into the hands of your enemies; and your land shall be made desolate, and your kadosh places destroyed, and you shall be scattered unto the four corners of the earth. And you shall be set at nought in the dispersion vanishing away as water. Until the Most High shall visit the earth, coming Himself and breaking the head of the dragon in the water. He shall save Yisrael and all the Gentiles Therefore do you also, my children, tell these things to your children, that they disobey Him not. For I have known that you shall assuredly be disobedient, and assuredly act ungodly, not giving heed to the Torah of Ahlohim, but to the commandments of men, being corrupted through wickedness. And therefore shall you be scattered as Gad and Dan my brethren, and you shall know not your lands, tribe, and tongue. But אֱלֹהִים will gather you together in faith through His tender mercy, and for the sake of Abraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov.]

Chapter 8

And when he had said these things unto them he commanded them, saying: Bury me in Chevron. And he fell asleep and died at a tov old age. And his sons did as he had commanded them, and they carried him up to Chevron, and buried him with his avoth.

The Testament of Yoseph the Eleventh Son of Yaakov and Rachel

Chapter 1

The copy of the Testament of Yoseph. When he was about to die he called his sons and his brethren together, and said to them:-My brethren and my children, Shema to Yoseph the beloved of Yisrael; Give ear, my sons, unto your abba. I have seen in my chayim envy and death, Yet I went not astray, but persevered in the emet of אֱלֹהִים. These my brethren hated me, but אלהים loved me: They wished to slay me, but the Ahlohim of my avoath guarded me: They let me down into a pit, and the Most High brought me up again. I was sold into avdoot, and אלהים of all made me free: I was taken into captivity, and His strong hand helped me. I was beset with hunger, and אלהים Himself nourished me. I was alone, and Ahlohim comforted me: I was sick, and אלהים visited me: I was in prison, and my Ahlohim showed favor unto me; In bonds, and He released me; slandered, and He pleaded my cause; Bitterly spoken against by the Mitzrites, and He delivered me; Envied by my fellow-slaves, and He exalted me.

Chapter 2

And this chief captain of Pharaoh entrusted to me his house. And I struggled against a shameless woman, urging me to transgress with her; but the Ahlohim of Yisrael my abba delivered me from the burning flame. I was cast into prison, I was beaten, I was mocked; but אלהים granted me to find mercy in the sight of the keeper of the prison. For אלהים doth not forsake them that fear Him, Neither in darkness, nor in bonds, nor in tribulations, nor in necessities. For Ahlohim is not put to shame as a man, Nor as the son of man is he afraid, Nor as one that is earth-born is He [weak or] affrighted. But in all those things does He give protection, And in divers ways dos He comfort, (Though) for a little space He departs to try the inclination of the nephesh. In ten temptations He showed me approved, And in all of them I endured; For endurance is a mighty charm, And patience gives many tov things.

Chapter 3

How often did the Mitzrayim woman threaten me with death! How often did she give me over to punishment, and then call me back and threaten me, and when I was unwilling to company with her, she said to me: You shall be lord of me, and all that is in my house, if you will give yourself unto me, and you shall be as our master. But I remembered the words of my abba, and going into my chamber, I wept and prayed unto אֱלֹהִים. And I fasted in those seven years, and I appeared to the Mitzrites as one living delicately, for they that fast for Ahlohim's sake receive beauty of face. And if my lord were away from home, I drank no wine; nor for three days did I take my food, but I gave it to the poor and sick. And I sought אֱלֹהִים early, and I wept for the Mitzrite woman of Memphis, for very unceasingly did she trouble me, for also at night she came to me under pretense of visiting me. And because she had no male child she pretended to regard me as a son, and so I prayed to אֱלֹהִים, and she bare a male child. And for a time she embraced me as a son, and I knew it not; but later, she sought to draw me into fornication. And when I perceived it I sorrowed unto death; and when she had gone out, I came to myself, and lamented for her many days, because I recognized her guile and her deceit. And I declared unto her the words of the Most High, if haply she would turn from her evil lust.

Chapter 4

Often, therefore, did she flatter me with words as a kadosh man, and guilefully in her talk praise my chastity before her husband, while desiring to ensnare me when we were alone. For she lauded me openly as chaste, and in secret she said unto me: Fear not my husband; for he is persuaded concerning your chastity: for even should one tell him concerning us, he would not believe. Owing to all these things I lay upon the ground, and besought Ahlohim that אֱלֹהִים would deliver me from her deceit. And when she had prevailed nothing thereby, she came again to me under the plea of instruction, that she might learn the word of Ahlohim. And she said unto me: If you will that I should leave my idols, lie with me, and I will persuade my husband to depart from his idols, and we will walk in the Torah of your אֱלֹהִים. And I said unto her: The אֱלֹהִים wills not that those who reverence Him should be in uncleanness, nor doth He take pleasure in them that commit adultery, but in those that approach Him with a pure lev and undefiled lips. But she held her shalom, longing to accomplish her evil desire. And I gave myself yet more to fasting and tefilah, that אֱלֹהִים might deliver me from her.

Chapter 5

And again, at another time she said unto me: If you will not commit adultery, I will kill my husband by poison; and take you to be my husband. I therefore, when I heard this, rent my garments, and said unto her: Woman, reverence Ahlohim, and do not this evil deed, lest you be destroyed; for know indeed that I will declare this your device unto all men. She therefore, being afraid, besought that I would not declare this device. And she departed soothing me with gifts, and sending to me every delight of the sons of men.

Chapter 6

And afterwards she sent me food mingled with enchantments. and when the eunuch who brought it came, I looked up and beheld a terrible man giving me with the dish a sword, and I perceived that (her) scheme was to beguile me. And when he had gone out I wept, nor did I taste that or any other of her food. So then after one yom she came to me and observed the food, and said unto me: Why is it that you have not eaten of the food? And I said unto her: It is because you have filled it with deadly enchantments; and how do you say: I come not near to idols, but to אלהים alone. Now therefore know that the Ahlohim of my abba has revealed unto me by His malach your wickedness, and I have kept it to convict you, if haply you may see and repent. But that you may learn that the wickedness of the ungodly has no power over them that worship Ahlohim with chastity, behold I will take of it and eat before you. And having so said, I prayed thus: The Ahlohim of my avoth and the malach of Abraham, be with me; and ate. And when she saw this she fell upon her face at my feet, weeping; and I raised her up and admonished her. And she promised to do this iniquity no more.

Chapter 7

But her lev was still set upon evil, and she looked around how to ensnare me, and sighing deeply she became downcast, though she was not sick. And when her husband saw her, he said unto her: Why is your countenance fallen? And she said unto him: I have a pain at my lev, and the groanings of my ruach oppress me; and so he comforted her who was not sick. Then, accordingly seizing an opportunity, she rushed unto me while her husband was yet without, and said unto me: I will hang myself, or cast myself over a cliff, if you will not lie with me. And when I saw the ruach of s.a.tan was troubling her, I prayed unto אֱלֹהִים, and said unto her: Why, wretched woman, are you troubled and disturbed, blinded through, sins? Remember that if you kill yourself, Asteho, the concubine of your husband, your rival, will beat your children, and you will destroy your memorial from off the earth. And she said unto me: Lo, then you love me; let this suffice me: only strive for my chayim and my children, and I expect that I shall enjoy my desire also. But she knew not that because of my אֱלֹהִים I spoke thus, and not because of her. For if a man has fallen before the passion of a wicked desire and become enslaved by it, even as she, whatever thing he may hear with regard to that passion, he receives it with a view to his wicked desire.

Chapter 8

I declare, therefore, unto you, my children, that it was about the sixth hour when she departed from me; and I knelt before אֱלֹהִים all yom, and all the night; and about dawn I rose up, weeping the while and praying for a release from her. At last, then, she laid hold of my garments, forcibly dragging me to have sex with her. When, therefore, I saw that in her madness she was holding fast to my garment, I left it behind, and fled away naked. And holding fast to the garment she falsely accused me, and when her husband came he cast me into prison in his house; and on the next morning, he scourged me and sent me into Pharaoh's prison. And when I was in bonds, the Mitzrite woman was oppressed with grief, and she came and heard how I gave thanks unto אֱלֹהִים and sang praises in the abode of darkness, and with glad voice rejoiced, glorifying my Ahlohim that I was delivered from the lustful desire of the Mitzrayimian woman.

Chapter 9

And often has she sent unto me saying: Consent to fulfill my desire, and I will release you from your bonds, and I will free you from the darkness. And not even in thought did I incline unto her. For Ahlohim loves him who in a den of wickedness combines fasting with chastity, rather than the man who in melechim' chambers combines luxury with license. And if a man lives in chastity, and desires also esteem, and the Most High knows that it is expedient for him, He bestows this also upon me. How often, though she were sick, did she come down to me at unlooked for times, and listened to my voice as I prayed! And when I heard her groanings I held my shalom. For when I was in her house she was wont to bare her arms, and breasts, and legs, that I might lie with her; for she was very beautiful, splendidly adorned in order to beguile me. And אֱלֹהִים guarded me from her devices.

Chapter 10

Ye see, therefore, my children, how great things patience worketh, and tefilah with fasting. So you too, if you follow after chastity and purity with patience and tefilah, with fasting in humility of lev, אֱלֹהִים will dwell among you, because He loves chastity. And wheresoever the Most High dwells, even though envy, or slavery, or slander befalls (a man), אֱלֹהִים who dwells in him, for the sake of his chastity not only delivers him from evil, but also exalts him even as me. For in every way the man is lifted up, whether in deed, or in word, or in thought. My brethren knew how my abba loved me, and yet I did not exalt myself in my mind: although I was a child, I had the fear of Ahlohim in my lev; for I knew that all things would pass away. And I did not raise myself (against them) with evil intent, but I honored my brethren; and out of respect for them, even when I was being sold, I refrained from telling the Ishmaelites that I was a son of Yaakov, a great man and a mighty.

Chapter 11

Do you also, my children, have the fear of Ahlohim in all your works before your eyes, and honor your brethren. For every one who does the Torah of אֱלֹהִים shall be loved by Him. And when I came to the Indocolpitaie with the Ishmaelites, they asked me, saying: Are you a slave? And I said that I was a home-born slave, that I might not put my brethren to shame. And the eldest of them said unto me: You art not a slave, for even your appearance does make it manifest. But I said that I was their eved. Now when we came into Mitzrayim they strove concerning me, which of them should buy me and take me. Therefore it seemed tov to all that I should remain in Mitzrayim with the merchant of their trade, until they should return bringing merchandise. And אֱלֹהִים gave me favor in the eyes of the merchant, and he entrusted to me his house. And Ahlohim blessed him by my means, and increased him in gold and silver and in household avadim. And I was with him three months and five days.

Chapter 12

And about that time the Memphian woman, the isha of Pentephri, came down in a chariot, with great pomp, because she had heard from her eunuchs concerning me. And she told her husband that the merchant had become rich by means of a young Hebrew, and they say that he had assuredly been stolen out of the land of Canaan. Now, therefore, render justice unto him, and take away the youth to your house; so shall the Ahlohim of the Hebrews bless you, for chesed from shamayim is upon him.

Chapter 13

And Pentephris was persuaded by her words, and commanded the merchant to be brought, and said unto him: What is this that I hear concerning you, that you steal persons out of the land of Kanaan, and sell them for avadim? But the merchant fell at his feet, and besought him, saying: I beseech you, my lord, I know not what you say. And Pentephris said unto him: Whence, then, is the Hebrew slave? And he said: The Ishmaelites entrusted him unto me until they should return. But he believed him not, but commanded him to be stripped and beaten. And when he persisted in this statement, Pentephris said: Let the youth be brought. And when I was brought in, I did obeisance to Pentephris (for he was third in rank of the officers of Pharaoh). And he took me apart from him, and said unto me: Are you an eved or free? And I said: An eved. And he said: Whose? And I said: The Ishmaelites. And he said: How did you become their eved? And I said: They bought me out of the land of Kanaan. And he said unto me: Truly you lie; and immediately he commanded me to be stripped and beaten.

Chapter 14

Now the Memphian woman was looking through a window at me while I was being beaten, for her house was near, and she sent unto him saying: Thymishpat is unjust; for you do punish a free man who has been stolen, as though he were a transgressor. And when I made no change in my statement, though I was beaten, he ordered me to be imprisoned, until, he said, the owners of the boy should come. And the woman said unto her husband: Why dost thou detain the captive and well-born lad in bonds, who ought rather to be set at liberty, and be waited upon? For she wished to see me out of a desire of sin, but I was ignorant concerning all these things. And he said to her: It is not the custom of the Mitzrites to take that which belongs to others before proof is given. This, therefore, he said concerning the merchant; but as for the lad, he must be imprisoned.

Chapter 15

Now after four and twenty days came the Ishmaelites; for they had heard that Yaakov my abba was mourning much concerning me. And they came and said unto me: How is it that you said that you were an eved? And lo, we have learned that you art the son of a mighty man in the land of Kanaan, and your abba still mourns for you in sackcloth and ashes. When I heard this my bowels were dissolved and my lev melted, and I desired greatly to weep, but I restrained myself, that I should not put my brethren to shame. And I said unto them, I know not, I am a slave. Then, therefore, they took counsel to sell me, that I should not be found in their hands. For they feared my abba, lest he [should come and] execute upon them a grievous vengeance. For they had heard that he was mighty with Ahlohim and with men. Then said the merchant unto them: Release me from the mishpat of Pentiphri. And they came and requested of me, saying: Say that you were bought by us with money, and he will set us free.

Chapter 16

Now the Memphian woman said to her husband: Buy the youth; for I hear, said she, that they are selling him. And straightway she sent a eunuch to the Ishmaelites, and asked them to sell me. But since the eunuch would not agree to buy me (at their price) he returned, having made trial of them, and he made known to his mistress that they asked a large price for their slave. And she sent another eunuch, saying: Even though they demand two minas, give them, do not spare the gold; only buy the boy, and bring him to me. The eunuch therefore went and gave them eighty pieces of gold, and he received me; but to the Mitzrite woman he said: I have given a hundred. And though I knew (this) I held my shalom, lest the eunuch should be put to shame.

Chapter 17

Ye see, therefore, my children, what great things I endured that I should not put my brethren to shame. Do you also, therefore have ahava one to another, and with long-suffering hide you one another's faults. For Ahlohim delights in the unity of brethren, and in the purpose of a lev that takes pleasure in ahava. And when my brethren came into Mitzrayim they learned that I had returned their money unto them, and upbraided them not, and comforted them. And after the death of Yaakov my abba I loved them more abundantly, and all things whatsoever he commanded I did very abundantly for them, And I allowed them not to be afflicted in the smallest matter; and all that was in my hand I gave unto them. And their children were my children, and my children as their servants; and their chayim was my chayim, and all their suffering was my suffering, and all their sickness was my infirmity. My land was their land, and their counsel my counsel. And I exalted not myself among them in arrogance because of my worldly esteem, but I was among them as one of the least.

Chapter 18

If you also, therefore, walk in the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהֵי, my children, He will exalt you there, and will bless you with tov things le-olam-va-ed. And if any one seeks to do evil unto you, do well unto him, and make tefillah for him, and you shall be redeemed of אֱלֹהֵי from all evil. [For], behold, you see that out of my humility and long -suffering I took unto isha the daughter of the kohen of Heliopolis. And a hundred talents of gold were given me with her, and אֱלֹהֵי made them to serve me. And He gave me also beauty as a flower beyond the beautiful ones of Yisrael; and He preserved me unto old age in strength and in beauty, because I was like in all things to Yaakov.

Chapter 19

Hear you, therefore, me vision which I saw. I saw twelve harts feeding. And nine of them were dispersed. Now the three were preserved, but on the following yom they also were dispersed. And I saw that the three harts became three lambs, and they cried to אֱלֹהֵי, and He brought them forth into a flourishing and well watered place, yes He brought them out of darkness into light. And there they cried unto אֱלֹהֵי until there gathered together unto them the nine harts, and they became as twelve sheep, and after a little time they increased and became many flocks. And after these things I saw and behold, twelve bulls were sucking one cow, which produced a sea of milk, and there drank thereof the twelve flocks and innumerable herds. And the horns of the fourth bull went up unto shamayim and became as a wall for the flocks, and in the midst of the two horns there grew another horn. And I saw a bull calf which surrounded them twelve times, and it became a help to the bulls wholly. And these things must come to pass in their season. Do you therefore, my children, observe the mitzvoth of אִתְּכֶם, and honor Levi and Yahudah; for from them shall arise unto you one who saves [all the nations and] Yisrael. For His kingdom is an everlasting malchut, which shall not pass away; but my malchut among you shall come to an end as a watcher's hammock, which after the summer disappears.

Chapter 20

For I know that after my death the Mitzrites will afflict you, but Ahlohim will avenge you, and will bring you into that which He promised to your ahvot. But you shall carry up my bones with you; for when my bones are being taken up there, אִתְּכֶם shall be with you in light, and s.a.tan shall be in darkness with the Mitzrites. And carry up Asenath your eema to the Hippodrome, and near Rachel your eema bury her. And when he had said these things he stretched out his feet, and died at a tov old age. And all Yisrael mourned for him, and all Mitzrayim, with a great mourning. And when the children of Yisrael went out of Mitzrayim, they took with them the bones of Yoseph, and they buried him in Chevron with his ahvot, and the years of his chayim were one hundred and ten years.

The Testament of Benjamin the Twelfth Son of Yaakov and Rachel

Chapter 1

The copy of the words of Benjamin, which he commanded his sons to observe, after he had lived a hundred and twenty-five years. And he kissed them, and said: As Yitzchak was born to Abraham in his old age, so also was I to Yaakov. And since Rachel my eema died in giving me birth, I had no milk; therefore I was suckled by Bilhah her handmaid. For Rachel remained barren for twelve years after she had borne Yoseph; and she prayed אַפְאַר with fasting twelve days, and she conceived and bare me. For my abba loved Rachel dearly, and prayed that he might see two sons born from her. Therefore was I called Benjamin, that is, a son of days.

Chapter 2

And when I went into Mitzrayim, to Yoseph, and my brother recognized me, he said unto me: What did they tell my abba when they sold me? And I said unto him, They dabbled your coat with blood and sent it, and said: Know whether this be your son's coat. And Yoseph said unto me: Even so, brother, the Kanaanite merchants stole me by force, And it came to pass that as they went on their way they concealed my garment, as though a wild beast had met me and slain me. And so his associates sold me to the Ishmaelites. And they did not lie in saying this. For he wished to conceal from me the deeds of my brethren. And he called to him his brethren and said: Do not tell my abba what you have done unto me, but tell him as I have told Benjamin. And let the thoughts among you be such, and let not these things come to the lev of my abba.

Chapter 3

Do you also, therefore, my children, ahava אהבה Ahlohim of shamayim and earth, and keep His mitzvoth, following the example of the tov and kadosh man Yoseph. And let your mind be unto tov, even as you know me; for he that hath his mind right sees all things rightly. Fear you אהבה, and have ahava for your neighbor; and even though the ruacheem of s.a.tan claim you to afflict you with every evil, yet shall they not have dominion over you, even as they had not over Yoseph my brother. How many men wished to slay him, and Ahlohim shielded him! For he that fears Ahlohim and loves his neighbor cannot be smitten by the ruach of s.a.tan, being shielded by the fear of Ahlohim. Nor can he be ruled over by the device of men or beasts, for he is helped by אהבה through the ahava which he hath towards his neighbor. For Yoseph also besought our abba that he would pray for his brethren, that אהבה would not impute to them as sin whatever evil they had done unto him. And thus Yaakov cried out: My tov child, you have prevailed over the bowels of your abba Yaakov. And he embraced him, and kissed him for two hours.

Chapter 4

See you, therefore, my children, the end of the tov man? Be followers of his compassion, therefore, with a tov mind, that you also may wear crowns of esteem. For the tov man has not a dark eye; for he shows mercy to all men, even though they be sinners. And though they devise with evil intent concerning him, by doing tov he overcomes evil, being shielded by Ahlohim: and he loves the tzadikim as his own nephesh. If any one is esteemed, he envies him not; if any one is enriched, he is not jealous; if any one is valiant, he praises him; the virtuous man he laudes, on the poor man he has mercy; on the weak he has compassion; unto Ahlohim he sings tehellot and protects him as with a shield; him that loves Ahlohim he helps; him that rejects the Most High he admonishes and turns back; and him that has the chesed of a tov ruach he loves as his own soul.

Chapter 5

If, therefore, you also have a tov mind, then will both wicked men be at shalom with you, and the licentious will reverence you and turn unto tov; and the covetous will not only cease from their inordinate desire, but even give the objects of their covetousness to them that are afflicted. If you do well, even the unclean ruacheem will flee from you; and the beasts will dread you. For where there is reverence for tov works and light in the mind, even darkness flees away from him. For if any one does violence to a kadosh man, he repents; for the kadosh man is merciful to his reviler, and holds his shalom. And if any one betrays a tzadik man, the tzadik man prays: though for a little he be humbled, yet not long after he appears far more glorious, as was Yoseph my brother.

Chapter 6

The inclination of the tov man is not in the power of the deceit of the ruach of s.a.tan, for the malach of shalom guides his soul. And he gazes not passionately upon corruptible things, nor gathers together riches through a desire of pleasure. He delights not in pleasure, [he grieves for not his neighbor], he satisfies not himself with luxuries, he fails not in the uplifting of the eyes, אִי אִי is his portion. The tov inclination receives not esteem nor dishonor from men, and it knows not any guile, or lie, or fighting or reviling; for אִי אִי dwells in him and lights up his soul, and he rejoices towards all men always. The tov mind has not two tongues, of blessing and of cursing, of contumely and of honor, of sorrow and of joy, of quietness and of confusion, of hypocrisy and of emet, [of poverty and of wealth]; but it hath one disposition, uncorrupt and pure, concerning all men. It hath no double sight, nor double hearing; for in everything which he does, or speaks, or sees, he knows that אִי אִי looks on his soul. And he cleanses his mind that he may not be condemned by men as well as by Ahlohim. And in like manner the works of s.a.tan are twofold, and there is no singleness in them.

Chapter 7

Therefore, my children, I tell you, flee the malice of s.a.tan; for he gives a sword to them that obey him. And the sword is the eema of seven evils. First the mind conceives through s.a.tan, and first there is bloodshed; secondly ruin; thirdly, tribulation; fourthly, exile; fifthly, dearth; sixthly, panic; seventhly, destruction. Therefore was Qayin also delivered over to seven vengeancees by Ahlohim, for in every hundred years אִי אִי brought one plague upon him. And when he was two hundred years old he began to suffer, and in the nine-hundredth year he was destroyed. For on account of Hevel, his brother, with all the evils was he judged, but Lamech with seventy times seven. Because for ever those who are like Qayin in envy and hatred of brethren, shall be punished with the same mishpat.

Chapter 8

And do you, my children, flee evil-doing, envy, and hatred of brethren, and cleave to goodness and ahava. He that has a pure mind in ahava, looks not after a woman with a view to fornication; for he has no defilement in his lev, because the Ruach of Ahlohim rests upon him. For as the shemesh is not defiled by shining on dung and mire, but rather dries up both and drives away the evil smell; so also the pure mind, though encompassed by the defilements of earth, rather cleanses (them) and is not itself defiled.

Chapter 9

And I believe that there will be also evil-doings among you, from the words of Chanok-Enoch the tzadik: that you shall commit fornication with the fornication of Sodom, and shall perish, all save a few, and shall renew wanton deeds with women; and the malchut of אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall not be among you, for quickly He shall take it away. Nevertheless the temple of Ahlohim shall be in your portion, and the last (temple) shall be more glorious than the first. And the twelve tribes shall be gathered together there, and all the Gentiles, until the Most High shall send forth His מַלְאָכָאֵי in the visitation of an only begotten prophet.

Chapter 10

Now when Yoseph was in Mitzrayim, I longed to see his figure and the form of his countenance; and through the prayers of Yaakov my abba I saw him, while awake in the daytime, even his entire figure exactly as he was. And when he had said these things, he said unto them: Know you, therefore, my children, that I am dying. Do you, therefore, emet and tzedakah each one to his neighbor, and mishpat unto confirmation, and keep the Torah of אֱלֹהִים and his mitzvot. For these things do I leave you instead of inheritance. Do you also, therefore, give them to your children for an everlasting possession; for so did both Abraham, and Yitzchak, and Yaakov. For all these things they gave us for an inheritance, saying: Keep the mitzvot of Ahlohim, until אֱלֹהִים shall reveal His salvation to all nations. And then shall you see Chanok- Enoch, Noach, and Shem, and Avraham, and Yitzchak, and Yaakov, rising on the right hand in simcha. Then shall we also rise, each one over our tribe, worshipping the Melech of shamayim. Then also all men shall rise, some unto esteem and some unto shame. If you therefore, my children, walk in holiness according to the mitzvot of אֱלֹהִים, you shall again dwell securely with me, and all Yisrael shall be gathered unto אֱלֹהִים.

Chapter 11

And I shall no longer be called a ravening wolf on account of your ravages, but a worker of אֱלֹהִים, distributing food to them that work what is tov. And there shall rise up from my zera in the latter times one beloved of אֱלֹהִים, hearing His voice and a doer of the tov pleasure of His will, [enlightening with new knowledge all the Gentiles, even the light of knowledge, bursting in upon Yisrael for ow אֱלֹהִים].

Chapter 12

And when he finished his words, he said: I command you, my children, carry up my bones out of Mitzrayim, and bury me at Chevron, near my ahvot. So Benyamin died a hundred and twenty-five years old, at a tov old age, and they placed him in a coffin. And in the ninety-first year from the entrance of the children of Yisrael into Mitzrayim, they and their brethren brought up the bones of their ahvot secretly during the Kannanite war; and they buried them in Chevron, by the feet of their ahvot. And they returned from the land of Kanaan and dwelt in Mitzrayim until the yom of their departure from the land of Mitzrayim. X
