Genesis-Beresheeth

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 Beresheeth bara Ahlohim Aleph-Tau ha shamayim v-et ha-aretz
- 2 And the earth was without form and void; and darkness was upon the surface of the deep mayim. And The Ruach of Ahlohim moved upon the face of the mayim.
- 3 And Ahlohim said, Let there be Ohr: and Ohr was.
- 4 And Ahlohim saw The Ohr, that it was tov: and Ahlohim divided The Ohr from the darkness.
- 5 And Ahlohim called The Ohr, Daytime, and the darkness He called Lyla. And the evening and the boker were Yom Echad.
- 6 And Ahlohim said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the mayim and let it divide the mayim from the mayim.
- 7 And Ahlohim made the firmament and divided the mayim that were under the firmament from the mayim that were above the firmament: and it was so.
- 8 And Ahlohim called the firmament Shamayim. And the evening and the boker were Yom Shanee.
- 9 And Ahlohim said, Let the mayim under the shamayim be gathered together to one place and let the dry land appear; and it was so. And the mayim under the shamayim gathered to their gatherings and the dry land appeared.
- 10 And Ahlohim called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the mayim He called Seas: and Ahlohim saw that it was tov.
- 11 And Ahlohim said, Let the earth bring out grass, the herb yielding zera and the fruit eytz yielding fruit after its kind, whose zera is in itself, upon the earth:

and it was so.

12 And the earth brought out grass and herb yielding zera after its kind and the eytz yielding fruit, whose zera was in itself, after its kind: and Ahlohim saw that it was tov.

13 And the evening and the boker were Yom Shlishi.

14 And Ahlohim said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the shamayim to divide the yom from the lyla; and let them be for signs-witnesses and for moadeem and for yamim and years:

15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the shamayim to give ohr upon the earth: and it was so.

16 And Ahlohim made-asah two great lights; the greater ohr to rule the yom and the lesser ohr to rule the lyla: therefore namely the cochavim.

17 And Ahlohim set them in the firmament of the shamayim to give ohr upon the earth,

18 And to rule over the yom and over the lyla and to divide the ohr from the darkness: and Ahlohim saw that it was tov.

19 And the evening and the boker were Yom Revee.

20 And Ahlohim said, Let the mayim bring out abundantly the moving creatures that have chayim and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of the shamayim.

21 And Ahlohim created great whales and every living creature that moves, which the mayim brought out abundantly, after their kind and every winged fowl after its kind: and Ahlohim saw that it was tov.

22 And Ahlohim blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply and refill the mayim in the seas and let fowl multiply in the earth.

23 And the evening and the boker were Yom Chameeshe.

24 And Ahlohim said, Let the earth bring out the living creature after its kind, cattle and creeping thing and beast of the earth after its kind: and it was so.

25 And Ahlohim made the beast of the earth after its kind and cattle after their kind and every thing that creeps upon the earth after its kind: and Ahlohim saw that it was tov.

26 And Ahlohim said, Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air and over the cattle and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

27 So The Word of Ahlohim created man in His own image, in the image of Ahlohim He created him; male and female He created them.

28 And Ahlohim blessed them and Ahlohim said to them, Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the fowl of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.

29 And Ahlohim said, See, I have given you every herb bearing zera, which is upon the face of all the earth and every eytz, which is the fruit of an eytz yielding zera; to you it shall be for food.

30 And to every beast of the earth and to every fowl of the air and to every thing that creeps upon the earth, in which there is chayim, I have given every green herb for food: and it was so.

31 And Ahlohim saw every thing that He had made; and see; it was very tov. And the evening and the boker were Yom Sheshi.

2 So the shamayim and the earth were finished and all their hosts.

2 And on the sixth yom Ahlohim ended His work that He had made; and He rested on the seventh yom from all His work that He had made.

3 And Ahlohim blessed the seventh yom and set it apart: because in it He had rested from all His work that Ahlohim created and made.

4 These are the generations of the shamayim and of the earth when they were created, in the yom that אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim made the earth and the shamayim,

5 And every plant of the field before it was in the earth and every herb of the field before it grew: for אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim had not caused it to rain upon the earth and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils The Ruach of chayim; and man became a living nephesh.

8 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim planted a garden eastward in Ayden; and there He put the man whom He had formed.

9 And out of the ground made אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim to grow every eytz that is pleasant to the sight and tov for food; the eytz chayim also in the midst of the garden and the eytz of the da'at of tov and evil.

10 And a river went out of Ayden to water the garden; and from there it parted and became four riverheads.

11 The name of the first is Pishon: that is the one surrounding the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is tov: bdellium is there and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same one that surrounds the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Tigris: that is the one that goes toward the east of Ashshur. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

15 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim took the man and put him into Gan Ayden to work it and to guard it.

16 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim commanded the man, saying, Of every eytz of Gan Ayden you may freely eat:

17 But of the eytz of the da'at of tov and evil, you shall not eat of it: for in the yom that you eat from it you shall surely die.

18 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim said, It is not tov that the Adahm should be alone; I will make for him a helper as his counterpart ezer-ke-negdo.

19 And out of the ground אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim formed every beast of the field and every fowl of the air; and brought them to Ahdahm to see what he would call them: and whatever Ahdahm called every living creature; that was the name of it.

20 And Ahdahm gave names to all the cattle and to the fowls of the air and to every beast of the field; but for Ahdahm there was not found a helper as his counterpart-ezer-ke-negdo.

21 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim caused a deep sleep to fall upon Ahdahm and he slept: and He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh in its place;

22 And with the rib that אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim had taken from man, He made a woman and brought her to the man.

23 And the Ahdahm said, Now this time, this one, is now bone of my bones and this one, is now flesh of my flesh: to this one, she shall be called Isha because this one was taken out of Ish.

24 Therefore shall an Ish leave his abba and his eema and shall be joined to his Isha: and they shall be basar echad.

25 And they were both naked, the ish and his isha and were not ashamed.

3 Now the serpent was craftier than any beast of the field that אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim had made. And he said to the woman, Is it emet? Has Ahlohim really said, You shall not eat of every eytz of the garden?

2 And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the eytzim of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the eytz which is in the midst of the garden, Ahlohim has said, You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.

4 And the serpent said to the woman, You shall not surely die:

5 For Ahlohim does know that in the yom you eat of it, then your eyes shall be opened and you shall be like Ahlohim, knowing tov and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the eytz was tov for food and that it was pleasant to the eyes and an eytz to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit of it and did eat and gave it also to her husband with her; and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of both of them were opened and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves aprons.

8 And they heard the voice of אהה Ahlohim walking in the garden in the cool of the yom: and Ahdahm and his isha hid themselves from the presence of אהה Ahlohim among the eytzim of the garden.

9 And אהה Ahlohim called to Ahdahm and said to him, Where are you?

10 And he said, I heard Your voice in the garden and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And He said, Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the eytz that I commanded you that you should not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the eytz and I did eat.

13 And אלהים Ahlohim said to the woman, What is this that you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me and I did eat.

14 And אלהים Ahlohim said to the serpent, Because you have done this, you are cursed above all cattle and above every beast of the field; upon your belly shall you go and dust shall you eat all the yamim of your chayim:

15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your zera and her Zera; He shall crush your head and you shall be gazing up at His heel.

16 Unto the woman He said, I will greatly multiply your sorrow and your conception; in sorrow you shall bring out children; and your desire shall be to your husband and he shall rule over you.

17 And to Ahdahm He said, Because you have listened to the voice of your isha and have eaten of the eytz, of which I commanded you, saying, You shall not eat of it: cursed is the ground for your sake; in sorrow shall you eat from it all the yamim of your chayim;

18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring out for you; and you shall eat the herb of the field;

19 By the sweat of your face shall you eat lechem, until you return to the ground; for out of it were you taken: for dust you are and to dust shall you return.

20 And Ahdahm called his isha's name Chavah; because she was the eema of all living.

21 Unto Ahdahm also and to his isha did אלהים Ahlohim make coats of skins and clothed them.

22 And אלהים Ahlohim said, See, the man-Ahdahm has become as one of Us, to know tov and evil: and now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the eytz chayim and eat and live le-olam-va-ed:

23 Therefore אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim sent him out from Gan Ayden, to work the ground from where he was taken.

24 So He drove out the man; and He placed at the east of Gan Ayden cheruvim and a flaming sword that turned in every direction, to guard the derech back to the eytz chayim.

4 And Ahdahm had known Chavah his isha; and she conceived and bore Qayin and said, I have gotten a man from אֱלֹהִים .

2 And she again bore his brother Hevel. And Hevel was a guardian of sheep, but Qayin was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in process of time it came to pass, that Qayin brought from the fruit of the ground an offering to אֱלֹהִים.

4 And Hevel, also brought of the bechorot of his flock and of its fat. And אֱלֹהִים had respect for Hevel and his offering:

5 But to Qayin and to his offering He had not respect. And Qayin was very angry and his face displayed hate.

6 And אֱלֹהִים said to Qayin, Why are you angered and annoyed? And why is your face displaying hate?

7 If you do well, shall you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin lies at your door. And its desire is for you, but you should rule over it.

8 And Qayin talked with Hevel his ach: Let us go out into the plain. And it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Qayin rose up against Hevel his brother and killed him.

9 And אֱלֹהִים said to Qayin, Where is Hevel your ach? And he said, I don't know: Am I my ach's guardian?

10 And He said, What have you done? The voice of your brother's dahm cries to Me from the ground.

11 And now are you cursed from the earth, that has opened its mouth to receive your brother's dahm from your hand;

12 When you till the ground, it shall not from now on yield to you its strength; a fugitive and a wanderer shall you be in the earth.

13 And Qayin said to אִדָּם, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 See, You have driven me out this yom from the face of the earth; and from Your face shall I be hidden; and I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth; and it shall come to pass, that every one that finds me shall try and kill me.

15 And אִדָּם said to him, Therefore whoever kills Qayin, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And אִדָּם set a mark upon Qayin, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 And Qayin went out from the presence of אִדָּם and dwelt in the land of Nod, to the east of Gan Ayden.

17 And Qayin knew his isha; and she conceived and bore Chanoch: and he built a city and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Chanoch.

18 And to Chanoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehuya-EI: and Mehuya-EI begat Methusa-EI: and Methusa-EI begat Lamech.

19 And Lamech took two wives: the name of one was Adah and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bore Yaval: he was The Abba of such as dwell in tents and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Yuval: he was The Abba of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bore Tuval-Qayin, an instructor in every kind of brass and iron tool: and the sister of Tuval-Qayin was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said to his wives, Adah and Zillah, Shema to my voice; you wives of Lamech, listen to my speech: for I have slain a man to my own wounding and a young man to my hurt.

24 If Qayin shall be avenged seven times, truly Lamech seventy seven times.

25 And Ahdahm knew his isha again; and she bore a son and called his name Sheth: For Ahlohim, she said, has appointed me another zera instead of Hevel, whom Qayin killed.

26 And to Sheth, also there was born a son; and he called his name Enosh: then men began to call upon the Name of אֱלֹהִים.

Torah Parsha 2 Shavuah-Week 2-Ahdahm v'Chawa Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 5-8. Renewed Covenant Mattityahu-Matthew chapters 7-11.

5 This is the scroll of the generations of Ahdahm.

In the yom that Ahlohim created man, in the likeness of Ahlohim He made him;

2 Male and female He created them; and blessed them and called their name Ahdahm, in the yom when they were created.

3 And Ahdahm lived a hundred thirty years and begat a son in his own likeness, after his own image; and called his name Sheth:

4 And the yamim of Ahdahm after he had begotten Sheth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the yamim that Ahdahm lived were nine hundred thirty years: and he died.

6 And Sheth lived a hundred five years and begat Enosh:

7 And Sheth lived after he begat Enosh eight hundred seven years and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the yamim of Sheth were nine hundred twelve years: and he died.

9 And Enosh lived ninety years and begat Kenan:

10 And Enosh lived after he begat Kenan eight hundred fifteen years and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the yamim of Enosh were nine hundred five years: and he died.

12 And Kenan lived seventy years and begat Mahalal-EI:

13 And Kenan lived after he begat Mahalal-EI eight hundred forty years and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the yamim of Kenan were nine hundred ten years: and he died.

15 And Mahalal-EI lived sixty-five years and begat Yared:

16 And Mahalal-EI lived after he begat Yared eight hundred thirty years and begat sons and daughters:

17 And all the yamim of Mahalal-EI were eight hundred ninety five years: and he died.

18 And Yared lived a hundred sixty-two years and he begat Chanoch:

19 And Yared lived after he begat Chanoch eight hundred years and begat sons and daughters:

20 And all the yamim of Yared were nine hundred sixty two years: and he died.

21 And Chanoch lived sixty-five years and begat Metushelach:

22 And Chanoch had his halacha with Ahlohim after he begat Metushelach three hundred years and begat sons and daughters:

23 And all the yamim of Chanoch were three hundred sixty five years:

24 And Chanoch had his halacha with Ahlohim: and he was not; for Ahlohim took him.

25 And Metushelach lived a hundred eighty seven years and begat Lamech:

26 And Metushelach lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty two years and begat sons and daughters:

27 And all the yamim of Metushelach were nine hundred sixty nine years: and he died.

28 And Lamech lived a hundred eighty two years and begat a son:

29 And he called his name Noach, saying, This one shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands because of the ground that אַרְצָא has cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noach five hundred ninety five years and begat sons and daughters:

31 And all the yamim of Lamech were seven hundred seventy seven years: and he died.

32 And Noach was five hundred years old: and Noach begat Shem, Ham and Yahpheth.

6 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth and daughters were born to them,

2 That the sons of Ahlohim saw the daughters of men that they were beautiful; and they took for themselves wives of all which they chose.

3 And אַרְצָא said, My Ruach shall not always strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his yamim shall be one hundred twenty years.

4 There were Nephilim in the earth in those yamim; and also after that, when the sons of Ahlohim came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them, the same became gibborm-giants who were of old, men of fame.

5 And Ahlohim saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth and that every imagination of the thoughts of his lev was only evil continually.

6 And it bothered אלהים that He had made man on the earth and it grieved Him in His lev.

7 And אלהים said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man and beast and the creeping thing and the fowl of the air; for it bothers Me that I have made them.

8 But Noach found chen in the eyes of אלהים.

9 These are the generations of Noach: Noach was a tzadik man and perfect in his generations and Noach had his halacha with Ahlohim.

10 And Noach begat three sons, Shem, Ham and Yahpheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before Ahlohim and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And Ahlohim looked upon the earth and, see, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its derech upon the earth.

13 And Ahlohim said to Noach, The end of all flesh has come before Me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, see, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 Make a tayvah of gopher wood; rooms you shall make in the tayvah and shall cover it inside and outside with tar.

15 And this is the design that you shall make it: The length of the tayvah shall be three hundred cubits, the width of it fifty cubits and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shall you make to the tayvah and in a cubit shall you finish it above; and the door of the tayvah shall you set in the side of it; with lower, second and third stories shall you make it.

17 And, see, I, even I, do bring a flood of mayim upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, in which is The Ruach of chayim, from under the shamayim; and everything that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with you I will establish My brit; and you shall come into the tayvah, you and your sons and your isha and your sons' wives with you.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shall you bring into the tayvah, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female.

20 Of the fowl after their kind and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after its kind, two of every sort shall come to you, to keep them alive.

21 And take for you all food that is eaten and you shall gather it to you; and it shall be for food for you and for them.

22 So Noach did according to all that Ahlohim commanded him; so he did.

7 And אָהֳרָם said to Noach, Come you and all your bayit into the tayvah; for you have I seen tzadik before Me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast you shall take by sevens, the male and the female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and the female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep all zera alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For in seven yamim, I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty yamim and forty laylot; and every living substance that I have made I will destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noach did according to all that אָהֳרָם commanded him.

6 And Noach was six hundred years old when the flood of mayim was upon the earth.

7 And Noach went in and his sons and his isha and his sons' wives with him, into the tayvah because of the mayim of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts and of beasts that are not clean and of fowls and of every thing that creeps upon the earth,

9 They went in two by two to Noach into the tayvah, the male and the female, as Ahlohim had commanded Noach.

10 And it came to pass after seven yamim, that the mayim of the flood was upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noach's chayim, in the second chodesh, the seventeenth yom of the chodesh, the same yom were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of the shamayim were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty yamim and forty laylot.

13 In the same yom entered Noach and Shem and Ham and Yahpheth, the sons of Noach and Noach's isha and the three wives of his sons with them, into the tayvah;

14 They and every beast after its kind and all the cattle after their kind and every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth after its kind and every fowl after its kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in to Noach into the tayvah, two by two of all flesh, in which is The Ruach of chayim.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as Ahlohim had commanded him: and אִרְבָּבָה shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty yamim upon the earth; and the mayim increased and lifted up the tayvah and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the mayim prevailed and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the tayvah went upon the face of the mayim.

19 And the mayim prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills that were under the entire shamayim were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the mayim prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl and of cattle and of beast and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was The Ruach of chayim, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed that was upon the face of the ground, both man and cattle and the creeping things and the fowls of the shamayim; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noach only remained alive and they that were with him in the tayvah.

24 And the mayim prevailed upon the earth one hundred fifty yamim.

8 And Ahlohim remembered Noach and every living thing and all the cattle that were with him in the tayvah: and Ahlohim made a wind to pass over the earth and the mayim subsided;

2 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of shamayim were stopped and the rain from the shamayim was restrained;

3 And the mayim returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred fifty yamim the mayim were abated.

4 And the tayvah rested in the seventh chodesh, on the seventeenth yom of the chodesh, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the mayim decreased continually until the tenth chodesh: in the tenth chodesh, on the first yom of the chodesh, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 And it came to pass at the end of forty yamim, that Noach opened the window of the tayvah that he had made:

7 And he sent out a raven, which went out back and forth, until the mayim were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent out a yonah from him, to see if the mayim were abated from off the face of the ground;
9 But the yonah found no rest for the sole of her foot and she returned to him into the tayvah, for the mayim were on the face of the whole earth: then he put out his hand and took her and pulled her in to him into the tayvah.

10 And he stayed yet seven more yamim; and again he sent out the yonah out of the tayvah;

11 And the yonah came in to him in the evening; and, see, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off: so Noach knew that the mayim were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet seven more yamim; and sent out the yonah; which returned not again to him anymore.

13 And it came to pass in the six hundred first year, in the first chodesh, on the first yom of the chodesh, the mayim were dried up from off the earth: and Noach removed the covering of the tayvah and looked and, see, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second chodesh, on the twenty-seventh yom of the chodesh, the earth was dried.

15 And Ahlohim spoke to Noach, saying,

16 Go out from the tayvah, you and your isha and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

17 Bring out with you every living thing that is with you, of all flesh, both of fowl and of cattle and of every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth and be fruitful and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noach went out and his sons and his isha and his sons' wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing and every fowl and whatever creeps upon the earth, after their kinds, went out of the tayvah.

20 And Noach rebuilt an altar to אֱלֹהִים; and took of every clean beast and of every clean fowl and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And אֱלֹהִים smelled a sweet fragrance; and אֱלֹהִים said in His lev, I will not again curse the ground anymore for man's sake; for the imagination of man's lev is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite anymore every living thing, as I have done.

22 While the earth remains, seedtime and harvest and cold and heat and summer and winter and yom and lyla shall not cease.

Torah Parsha 3 Shavuah-Week 3-Vayevarech Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 9-12. Renewed Covenant Mattityahu-Matthew chapters 12-6.

9 And Ahlohim blessed Noach and his sons and said to them, Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moves upon the earth and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things.

4 But flesh with the chayim in it, which is its dahm, shall you not eat.

5 And surely the dahm of your lives I will require; at the hand of every beast will I require it and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the chayim of man.

6 Whosoever sheds man's dahm, by man, shall his dahm be shed: for in the image of Ahlohim He made man.

7 And you, be fruitful and multiply; bring out abundantly in the earth and multiply in it.

8 And Ahlohim spoke to Noach and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, even I, will establish My brit with you and with your zera after you;

10 And with every living creature that is with you, the fowl, the cattle and every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the tayvah, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish My brit with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off anymore by the mayim of a flood; neither shall there be a flood anymore to destroy the earth.

12 And Ahlohim said, This is the sign of the brit that I make between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set My bow in the cloud and it shall be for a sign of a brit between the earth and Me.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember My brit, which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the mayim shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting brit between Ahlohim and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And Ahlohim said to Noach, This is the sign of the brit, which I have established between My Word and all flesh that is upon the earth.

18 And the sons of Noach that went out from the tayvah were Shem and Ham and Yahpheth: and Ham is The Abba of Kanaan.

19 These are the three sons of Noach: and from them was the whole earth filled.

20 And Noach began to be a man of the soil and he planted a vineyard:

21 And he drank of the wine and became drunk; and he was uncovered within his tent.

22 And Ham, The Abba of Kanaan, saw the nakedness of his abba and told his two brothers outside.

23 And Shem and Yahpheth took a garment and laid it upon both their shoulders and went in backwards and covered the nakedness of their abba; and their faces were backward and they saw not their abba's nakedness.

24 And Noach awoke from his wine and knew what his younger son had done to him.

25 And he said, Cursed be Kanaan; an eved of avadim shall he be to his brothers.

26 And he said, Barchu-et-אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Shem; and Kanaan shall be his eved.

27 Ahlohim shall enlarge Yahpheth and אֱלֹהִים shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Kanaan shall be his eved.

28 And Noach lived after the flood three hundred fifty years.

29 And all the yamim of Noach were nine hundred fifty years: and he died.

10 Now these are the generations of the sons of Noach, Shem, Ham and Yahpheth: and to them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Yahpheth; Gomer and Magog and Madai and Yavan and Tuval and Meshech and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz and Riphath and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Yavan; Elishah and Tarshish, Chittim and Dodanim.

5 By these were the isles of the goyim divided in their lands, every one after his tongue, after their mishpachot, in their goyim.

6 And the sons of Ham; Kush and Mitzrayim and Phut and Kanaan.

7 And the sons of Kush; Seba and Havilah and Savtah and Raamah and Savtecha: and the sons of Raamah; Sheva and Dedan.

8 And Kush begat Nimrod: he began to be a giant in the earth.

9 He was a giant hunter before the face of אֱלֹהִים: That is why it is said, Even as Nimrod the giant hunter before the face of אֱלֹהִים.

10 And the beginning of his malchut was Bavel and Erech and Accad and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land went out Ashshur, who built Ninveh, and the city Rehovoth and Calah, 12 And Resen between Ninveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mitzrayim begat Ludim and Anamim and Lehavim and Naphtuhim, 14 And Pathrusim and Kasluchim, out of whom came Plishtim and Kaphtorim.

15 And Kanaan begat Tzidon his bachor and Cheth,

16 And the Yevusite and the Amorite and the Girgashite,

17 And the Hivite and the Arkite and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite and the Zemarite and the Hamathite: and afterward were the mishpachot of the Kanaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Kanaanites was from Tzidon, as you come to Gerar, to Azah, as you go, to Sedom and Amorah and Admah and Zevoim, even to Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their mishpachot, after their tongues, in their countries and in their goyim.

21 Unto Shem also, The Abba of all the children of Ever, the brother of Yahpheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem; Eylam and Ashshur and Arphaxad and Lud and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz and Hul and Gether and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Kaynan and Kaynan begat Salah; and Salah begat Ever.

25 And to Ever were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his yamim was the earth divided; and his brother's name was Yoktan.

26 And Yoktan begat Almodad and Sheleph and Hazar-Maveth and Yourah, 27 And Hadoram and Uzal and Diklah,

28 And Oval and Avima-El and Sheva,

29 And Ophir and Havilah and Yovab: all these were the sons of Yoktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as you are going to Sephar a har of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their mishpachot, after their tongues, in their lands, after their goyim.

32 These are the mishpachot of the sons of Noach, after their generations, in their goyim. By these mishpachot were the goyim divided in the earth after the flood.

11 And the whole earth was of one language and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another, Come, let us make bricks and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Come, let us build a city and a tower, whose top may reach to the shamayim; and let us make a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And אֱלֹהִים came down to see the city and the tower that the children of men built.

6 And אֱלֹהִים said, See, the people are echad and they all have one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Come, let Us go down and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

8 So אֱלֹהִים scattered them abroad from there upon the face of all the earth: and they ceased to build the city.

9 Therefore its name is called Bavel; because אֱלֹהִים did there confuse the language of all the earth: and from there did אֱלֹהִים scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a hundred years old and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad three hundred thirty five years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

12 And Arphaxad lived one hundred thirty-five years, and begat Cainan:

13 And Arphaxad lived after he begat Cainan three hundred thirty years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

And Cainan lived one hundred and thirty years and begat Salah. And Cainan lived after he begat Salah three hundred and thirty years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

14 And Salah lived one hundred thirty years and begat Ever:

15 And Salah lived after he begat Ever three hundred thirty years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

16 And Ever lived one hundred thirty four years and begat Peleg:

17 And Ever lived after he begat Peleg three hundred seventy years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

18 And Peleg lived one hundred thirty years and begat Reu:

19 And Peleg lived after he begat Reu two hundred and nine years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

20 And Reu lived one hundred thirty two years and begat Serug:

21 And Reu lived after he begat Serug two hundred seven years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

22 And Serug lived one hundred thirty years and begat Nachor:

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nachor two hundred years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

24 And Nachor lived seventy nine years and begat Terach:

25 And Nachor lived after he begat Terach one hundred twenty nine years and begat sons and daughters and he died.

26 And Terach lived seventy years and begat Avram, Nachor and Charan.

27 Now these are the generations of Terach: Terach begat Avram, Nachor and Charan; and Charan begat Lot.

28 And Charan died in the presence of his abba Terach in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chaldees-Ur Chasdim.

29 And Avram and Nachor took wives: the name of Avram's isha was Sarai; and the name of Nachor's isha, was Milcah, the daughter of Charan, he was The Abba of Milcah and The Abba of Yiscah.

30 But Sarai was barren; she had no child.

31 And Terach took Avram his son and Lot the son of Charan his son's son and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Avram's isha; and they went out with them from Ur of the Chaldees-Ur Chasdim, to go into the land of Kanaan; and they came to Charan and dwelt there.

32 And the yamim of Terach in Charan were two hundred five years: and Terach died in Charan.

12 Now אַבְרָם had said to Avram, Get out of your country and from your mishpacha and from your abba's bayit, to a land that I will show you:

2 And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a bracha:

3 And I will bless them that bless you and curse him that curses you: and in you shall all mishpachot of the earth be blessed mixed.

4 So Avram departed, as אַבְרָם had spoken to him; and Lot went with him: and Avram was seventy-five years old when he departed out of Charan.

5 And Avram took Sarai his isha and Lot his brother's son and all their substance that they had gathered and the beings that they had gotten in Charan; and they went out to go into the land of Kanaan; and into the land of Kanaan they came.

6 And Avram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the plain of Moreh. And the Kanaanites were then in the land.

7 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avram and said, To your zera will I give this land: and there he built an altar to אֱלֹהִים, who appeared to him

8 And he moved from there to a har on the east of Beth-El and pitched his tent, having Beth-El on the west and Ai on the east: and there he rebuilt an altar to אֱלֹהִים and called upon the Name of אֱלֹהִים.

9 And Avram journeyed, going on still toward the south.

10 And there was a famine in the land: and Avram went down into Mitzrayim to sojourn there; for the famine was severe in the land.

11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Mitzrayim, that he said to Sarai his isha, See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look upon:

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Mitzrim shall see you, that they shall say, This is his isha: and they will kill me, but they will save you alive.

13 Please say you are my sister: that it may be well with me for your sake; and my being shall live because of you.

14 And it came to pass, that, when Avram came into Mitzrayim, the Mitzrim beheld the woman that she was very beautiful.

15 The princes of Pharaoh also saw her and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's bayit.

16 And he treated Avram well for her sake: and he had sheep and oxen and male donkeys and male avadim and female avadim and female donkeys and camels.

17 And אִפְרַיִם plagued Pharaoh and his bayit with great plagues because of Sarai Avram's isha.

18 And Pharaoh called Avram and said, What is this that you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your isha?

19 Why did you say, She is my sister? So I might have mistakenly taken her to me as my isha: now therefore see your isha, take her and go your derech.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away and his isha and all that he had.

Torah Parsha 4 Shavuah-Week 4-Vayaal Avram. Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 13-16. Renewed Covenant Mattityahu- Matthew chapters 17-21

13 And Avram went up out of Mitzrayim, he and his isha and all that he had and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Avram was very rich in cattle, in silver and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-El, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-El and Ai;

4 To the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Avram called on the Name of אֱלֹהֵי.

5 And Lot also, who went with Avram, had flocks and herds and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them so that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Avram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle: and the Kanaanites and the Perizzites dwelt then in the land.

8 And Avram said to Lot, Let there be no strife, please, between you and me and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers.

9 Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself, please, from me: if you will take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if you depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes and beheld all the plain of Yarden, that it was well watered everywhere, before אֱלֹהִים destroyed Sedom and Amorah, even as the Gan Ayden of אֱלֹהִים, like the land of Mitzrayim, as you come to Tzoar.

11 Then Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Yarden; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves from one another.

12 Avram dwelt in the land of Kanaan and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain and camped his tent toward Sedom.

13 But the men of Sedom were wicked and sinners before אֱלֹהִים exceedingly.

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Avram, after Lot was separated from him, Lift up now yours eyes and look from the place where you are northward and southward and eastward and westward:

15 For all the land which you see, to you will I give it and to your zera le-olam-va-ed.

16 And I will make your zera as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then your zera also can be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land in the length and in the width, for I will give it to you.

18 Then Avram removed his tent and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Chebron and built there an altar to אֱלֹהִים.

14 And it came to pass in the yamim of Amraphel melech of Shinar, Arioch melech of Ellasar, Chedarlaomer melech of Eylam and Tidal melech of goyim,

2 That these made war with Bera melech of Sedom and with Birsha melech of Amorah, Shinav melech of Admah and Shemever melech of Zevoiim and the melech of Bela, which is Tzoar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Siddim, which is the Salt Sea.

4 Twelve years they served Chedarlaomer and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Chedarlaomer and the melechim that were with him and smote the Rephalim in Ashteroth Karnayim and the Zuzims in Ham and the Emims in Shaveh Kiryat-Aim,

6 And the Horites in their Har Seir, to El-Paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned and came to En-Mishpat, which is Kadesh and smote all the country of the Amalekites and also the Amorites that dwelt in Hatzazon-Tamar.

8 And there went out the melech of Sedom and the melech of Amorah and the melech of Admah and the melech of Zevoiim and the melech of Bela (the same is Tzoar) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim;

9 With Chedarlaomer the melech of Eylam and with Tidal melech of goyim and Amraphel melech of Shinar and Arioch melech of Ellasar; four melechim against five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of tar pits; and the melechim of Sedom and Amorah fled and fell there; and they that remained fled to the har.

11 And they took all the items of Sedom and Amorah and all their food and went their derech.

12 And they took Lot, Avram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sedom and his items and departed.

13 And there came one that had escaped and told Avram the Ivri; for he dwelt in the plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eschol and brother of Aner: and these were in a brit with Avram.

14 And when Avram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his trained avadim, born in his own bayit, three hundred and eighteen and pursued them to Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his avadim, by lyla and smote them and pursued them to Hovah, which is on the left hand of Dameshek.

16 And he brought back all the items and also brought again his brother Lot and his items and the women also and the people.

17 And the melech of Sedom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedarlaomer and of the melechim that were with him, at the Valley of Shaveh, which is the melech's valley.

18 And Malki-Tzedek melech of Shalem brought out lechem and wine: and He was the kohen of El-Elyon.

19 And He blessed him and said, Blessed be Avram to El-Elyon, Possessor of the shamayim and earth:

20 And blessed be El-Elyon, who has delivered your enemies into your hand. And he paid Him the ma'aser of all.

21 And the melech of Sedom said to Avram, Give me the persons and take the items to yourself.

22 And Avram said to the melech of Sedom, I have lifted up my hand to אֱלֹהֵי, El-Elyon, the Possessor of the shamayim and earth,

23 That I will not take from you a thread, or even a shoe latchet and that I will not take anything that is yours, lest you should say, I have made Avram rich:

24 Except what the young men have eaten and the portion of the men who went with me. Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them take their portion.

15 After these things The Word of אֱלֹהִים came to Avram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Avram: I AM your shield and your exceeding great reward.

2 And Avram said, Master אֱלֹהִים, what will You give me, seeing I go childless and the steward of my bayit is this Eliezer of Dameshek?

3 And Avram said, See, to me You have given no zera: and, see, one born in my bayit is my heir.

4 And, see, The Word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, saying, This shall not be your heir; but he that shall come out of your own bowels shall be your heir.

5 And He brought him out abroad and said, Look now toward the shamayim and count the cochavim, if you are able to number them: and He said to him, So shall your zera be.

6 And he believed in The Word of אֱלֹהִים; and He counted it to him as tzedakah.

7 And He said to him, I AM אֱלֹהִים that brought you out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give you this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Master אֱלֹהִים, how shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And He said to him, Take a heifer three years old and a female goat three years old and a ram three years old and a turtledove and a young pigeon.

10 And he took for Him all these and divided them in the midst and laid each piece one against another: but the birds he divided not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcasses, Avram drove them away.

12 And when the shemesh was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Avram; and, see, a horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And He said to Avram, Know of a certainty that your zera shall be gerim in a land that is not theirs and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four hundred years;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

15 And you shall go to your ahvot in shalom; you shall be buried in a tov old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come here again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the shemesh went down and it was dark, see a smoking furnace and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

18 In the same yom אִרְאֵל made a brit with Avram, saying, To your zera have I given this land, from the river of Mitzrayim to the great river, the River Euphrates:

19 The land of the Kenites and the Kenizzites and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Rephayim, 21 And the Amorites and the Kanaanites and the Girgashites and the Yevusites.

16 Now Sarai Avram's isha bore him no children: and she had a handmaid, a Mitzri, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said to Avram, See now, אִרְאֵל has restrained me from bearing: Please, go in to my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her; And Avram listened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Avram's isha took Hagar her maid the Mitzri, after Avram had dwelt ten years in the land of Kanaan and gave her to her husband Avram to be his isha.

4 And he went in to Hagar and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said to Avram, My wrong is upon you: I have given my maid into your bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: אֱלֹהִים judge between me and you.

6 But Avram said to Sarai, See, your maid is in your hand; do to her as it pleases you. And when Sarai dealt harshly with her, she fled from her face.

7 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים found her by a fountain of mayim in the wilderness, by the fountain on the derech to Shur.

8 And He said, Hagar, Sarai's maid, where did you come from? And where will you go? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sarai.

9 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים said to her, Return to your mistress and submit yourself under her hands.

10 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים said to her, I will multiply your zera exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים said to her, See, you are with child and shall bear a son and shall call his name Yishma-El; because אֱלֹהִים has heard your affliction.

12 And he will be a wild man; his hand will be against every man and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brothers.

13 And she called on the Name of אֱלֹהִים that spoke to her, You are El-Roi: for she said, Have I even here looked upon Him that sees me?

14 Therefore the well was called Beer-Lahai-Roi; and it is between Kadesh and Bered.

15 And Hagar bore Avram a son: and Avram called his son's name, which Hagar bore, Yishma-El.

16 And Avram was eighty-six years old, when Hagar bore Yishma-El to Avram.

Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 17-20. Renewed

Covenant Mattityahu-Matthew chapters 22-26.

17 And when Avram was ninety-nine years old, אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avram and said to him, I AM El-Shaddai; have your halacha before Me and be perfect.

2 And I will make My brit between Me and you and will multiply you exceedingly.

3 And Avram fell on his face: and Ahlohim talked with him, saying,

4 As for Me, see, My brit is with you and you shall be The Abba of many goyim.

5 Neither shall your name anymore be called Avram, but your name shall be Avraham; for The Abba of many goyim I have made you.

6 And I will make you exceedingly fruitful and I will make goyim from you and melechim shall come from you.

7 And I will establish My brit between My Word and you and your zera after you in their generations as an everlasting brit, to be an Ahlohim to you and to your zera after you.

8 And I will give to you and to your zera after you, the land in which you are a ger, all the land of Kanaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their Ahlohim

9 And Ahlohim said to Avraham, You shall keep My brit therefore, you and your zera after you in their generations.

10 This is My brit that you shall keep, between Me and you and your zera after you; every male child among you shall enter brit-milah.

11 And you shall perform brit-milah on the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a sign of the brit between you and Me.

12 And he that is eight yamim old shall become brit-milah among you, every male child in your generations, he that is born in the bayit, or bought with the money of any ger, which is not of your zera.

13 He that is born in your bayit and he that is bought with your money, must enter brit-milah: and My brit shall be in your flesh for an everlasting brit:

14 And the male child whose flesh of his foreskin is not made brit-milah, that being shall be cut off from his people; he has broken My brit.

15 And Ahlohim said to Avraham, As for Sarai your isha, you shall not call her name Sarai, but Sarah shall be her name.

16 And I will bless her and give you a son also by her: And I will bless her and she shall be an eema of goyim; melechim of peoples shall be from her.

17 Then Avraham fell upon his face and laughed and said in his lev, Shall a child be born to him that is a hundred years old? And shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And Avraham said to Ahlohim, O that Yishma-El might live before You!

19 And Ahlohim said, Sarah your isha shall bear you a son indeed; and you shall call his name Yitzchak: and I will establish My brit with him for an everlasting brit and with his zera after him.

20 And as for Yishma-El, I have heard you: See, I have blessed him and will make him fruitful and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he bring forth and I will make him a great nation.

21 But My brit will I establish with Yitzchak, whom Sarah shall bear to you at this set time in the next year.

22 And He stopped talking with him and Ahlohim went up from Avraham.

23 And Avraham took Yishma-El his son and all that were born in his bayit and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Avraham's bayit; and performed brit-milah in the flesh of their foreskin on the very same yom that Ahlohim had spoken to him.

24 And Avraham was ninety-nine years old when he performed brit-milah in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Yishma-El his son was thirteen years old, when he performed brit-milah in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the very same yom did Avraham perform brit-milah and Yishma-El his son also.

27 And all the men of his bayit, born in the bayit and bought with money of the ger, received brit-milah with him.

18 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to him in the plains of Mamre: and Avraham sat in the tent door in the heat of the yom.

2 And Avraham lifted up his eyes and looked and see, three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them at the tent door and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And Avraham said, אֱלֹהִים; if now I have found chen in Your sight, please do not leave Your eved:

4 Please let a little mayim be taken and wash Your feet and rest yourselves under the eytz:

5 And I will get a morsel of lechem and so comfort Your levavot; after that You shall go Your derech: for this is why You have come to Your eved. And they said, Go do, as you have said.

6 And Avraham ran into the tent to Sarah and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine flour, knead it and make cakes.

7 And Avraham ran to the herd and took a tender calf and gave it to a young man; and he hurried to prepare it.

8 And he took butter and milk and the calf that he had prepared and set it before them; and he stood by them under the eytz and they did eat.

9 And they said to him, Where is Sarah your isha? And he said, See; in the tent.

10 And He said, I will certainly return to you according to the time of chayim; and, see; Sarah your isha shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door that was behind Him.

11 Now Avraham and Sarah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am grown old shall I have pleasure, my master being old also?

13 And אַיִן said to Avraham, Why did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a certainty bear a child, seeing I am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for אַיִן? At the time appointed I will return to you, according to the time of chayim and Sarah shall have a son.

15 Then Sarah denied it, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And He said, No; but you did laugh.

16 And the men rose up from there and looked toward Sedom: and Avraham went with them to bring them on the derech.

17 And אַיִן said, Shall I hide from Avraham that thing which I must do;

18 Seeing that Avraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation and all the goyim of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him and they shall keep the halacha of אַיִן, to do mishpat and justice; that אֱלֹהִים may bring upon Avraham that which He has spoken about him.

20 And אֱלֹהִים said, Because the cry of Sedom and Amorah is great and because their sin is very severe;

21 I will go down now and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come to Me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from there and went toward Sedom: but Avraham still stood before אֱלֹהִים.

23 And Avraham drew near and said, Will You also destroy the tzadikim with the wicked?

24 Suppose there are fifty tzadikim within the city: will You also destroy and not spare the place for the fifty tzadikim that are in it?

25 That be far from You to do after this manner, to kill the tzadikim with the wicked: and that the tzadikim should be as the wicked, that be far from You: Shall not The Shophet of all the earth do right?

26 And אֱלֹהִים said, If I find in Sedom fifty tzadikim within the city, then I will spare the entire place for their sakes.

27 And Avraham answered and said, See now, I have taken it upon me to speak to אֱלֹהִים, who am but dust and ashes:

28 Suppose there shall lack five from the fifty tzadikim: will You destroy the whole city for lack of five? And He said, If I find forty-five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spoke to Him yet again and said, Suppose there shall be forty found there. And He said, I will not do it for forty's sake.

30 And he said to Him, Oh let not אֱלֹהִים be angry and I will speak: Suppose thirty shall be found there. And He said, I will not do it, if I find thirty there.

31 And he said, See now, I have taken it upon me to speak to אֱלֹהִים: Suppose there shall be twenty found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for twenty's sake.

32 And he said, Oh let not אֱלֹהִים be angry and I will speak yet this once more: Suppose ten shall be found there. And He said, I will not destroy it for ten's sake.

33 And אֱלֹהִים went His derech, as soon as He had left communing with Avraham: and Avraham returned to his place.

19 And there came two heavenly malachim to Sedom at evening; and Lot sat in the gate of Sedom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, See now, my masters, turn in and stay here, Please, into your eved's bayit and stay all lyla and wash your feet and You shall rise up early and go on your derech. And they said, No; but we will stay in the street all lyla.

3 And he pressured them greatly; and they turned in to stay with him and entered into his bayit; and he made them a moed and did bake matzah and they did eat.

4 But before they laid down, the men of the city of Sedom, surrounded the bayit all round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called to Lot and said to him, Where are the men who came in to you this lyla? Bring them out to us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out of the door to them and shut the door behind him,

7 And said, Please, brothers, do not do this wickedness.

8 See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; let me, please, bring them out to you and do to them as you desire: only to these men do nothing; because they came under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back; And they said again, This one fellow came in here to sojourn and he desires to be a shopet: now will we deal worse with you, than with them. And they leaned heavily upon Lot and came close to breaking down the door.

10 But the men put out their hands and pulled Lot into the bayit to them and shut the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the bayit with blindness, both small and great: so that they struggled to find the door.

12 And the men said to Lot, Do you have anyone else here? A son-in-law and your sons and your daughters and whoever else you have in the city, bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place because their sinful cry has grown great before the face of אֱלֹהִים; and אֱלֹהִים has sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out and spoke to his sons in law, who married his daughters and said, Get up, get out of this place; for אֱלֹהִים will destroy this city. But he seemed as one that mocked to his sons in law.

15 And when the boker dawned, then the heavenly malachim hurried Lot, saying, Arise, take your isha and your two daughters, who are here; lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand and upon the hand of his isha and upon the hand of his two daughters; אֱלֹהִים being full of rachamim to him: and they brought him out and placed him outside the city.

17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them out, that he said, Escape for your chayim; look not behind you and do not stay in any part of the plain; escape to the har, lest you be consumed.

18 And Lot said to them, Please don't, my master:

19 See now, your eved has found chen in your sight and you have magnified your rachamim, which you have showed to me in saving my chayim; and I cannot escape to the har, lest some evil overtake me and I die:

20 See now, this city is near to flee to and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape there is it not a small matter and my nephesh shall be rescued.

21 And he said to him, See, I have accepted you concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city, about which you have spoken.

22 Hurry and escape there; for I cannot do anything until you get there. Therefore the name of the city was called Tzoar.

23 The shemesh had risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Tzoar.

24 Then The Word of אֱלֹהִים rained upon Sedom and upon Amorah brimstone and fire from אֱלֹהִים out of the shamayim;

25 And He overthrew those cities and all the plain and all the inhabitants of the cities and that which grew up from the ground.

26 But his isha looked back from behind him and she became a pillar of salt.

27 And Avraham got up early in the boker to the place where he stood Before אֱלֹהִים:

28 And he looked toward Sedom and Amorah and toward all the land of the plain and beheld and, see, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 And it came to pass, when Ahlohim destroyed the cities of the plain, that Ahlohim remembered Avraham and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities where Lot dwelt.

30 And Lot went up out of Tzoar and dwelt in the har and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Tzoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the bechora said to the younger, Our abba is old and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us after the manner of all the earth:

32 Come, let us make our abba drink wine and we will lie with him, that we may preserve zera for our abba.

33 And they made their abba drink wine that lyla: and the bechora went in and lay with her abba; and he did not perceive when she lay down, or when she arose.

34 And it came to pass the next yom, that the bechora said to the younger, See, I lay last lyla with my abba: let us make him drink wine this lyla also; and you go in and lie with him, that we may preserve zera for our abba.

35 And they made their abba drink wine that lyla also: and the younger arose and lay with him; and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 So both the daughters of Lot were with a child by their abba.

37 And the bechora bore a son and called his name Moav: the same is The Abba of the Moavites to this yom.

38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi: the same is The Abba of the children of Ammon to this yom.

20 And Avraham journeyed from there toward the south country and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Avraham said of Sarah his isha, She is my sister: and Avimelech melech of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But Ahlohim came to Avimelech in a dream by lyla and said to him, See, you are but a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken; for she is a man's isha.

4 But Avimelech had not come near her: and he said, אֵלֵי אֵיךְ, will You kill also a tzadik nation?

5 Didn't he say to me, She is my sister? And she, even said herself, He is my brother. In the integrity of my lev and innocence of my hands have I done this.

6 And Ahlohim said to him in a dream, Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your lev; for I also withheld you from sinning against Me: therefore I allowed you not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man to his isha; for he is a navi and he shall make tefillah for you and you shall live: and if you restore her not, know that you shall surely die, you and all that belongs to you.

8 Therefore Avimelech rose early in the boker and called all his avadim and told all these things to them: and the men were very afraid.

9 Then Avimelech called Avraham and said to him, What have you done to us? And how have I offended you that you have brought on me and on my malchut a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done.

10 And Avimelech said to Avraham, What were you thinking seeing that you have done this thing?

11 And Avraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of Ahlohim is not in this place; and they will kill me for my isha's sake.

12 And yet indeed she is my sister; she is the daughter of my abba, but not the daughter of my eema; and she became my isha.

13 And it came to pass, when Ahlohim caused me to wander from my abba's bayit, that I said to her, This is your chesed which you shall show to me; in every place where we shall come, say about me, He is my brother.

14 And Avimelech took sheep and oxen and male avadim and female avadim and gave them to Avraham and restored him to Sarah his isha.

15 And Avimelech said, See, my land is before you: dwell where it pleases you.

16 And to Sarah he said, See, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver: see, he is to you a covering of the eyes, to all that are with you and with all others: by this she was reproved.

17 So Avraham made tefillah to Ahlohim: and Ahlohim healed Avimelech and his isha and his female avadim; and they bore children.

18 For אֱלֹהִים had closed up all the wombs of the bayit of Avimelech because of Sarah Avraham's isha.

Torah Parsha 6 Shavuah-Week 6-V' אֱלֹהִים Paqad. Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 21-24. Renewed Covenant Mattityahu-Matthew chapters 27-28.

21 And אֱלֹהִים visited Sarah as He had said and אֱלֹהִים did to Sarah as He had spoken.

2 For Sarah conceived and bore Avraham a son in his old age, at the set time of which Ahlohim had spoken to him.

3 And Avraham called the name of his son that was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Yitzchak.

4 And Avraham performed brit-milah upon his son Yitzchak being eight yamim old, as Ahlohim had commanded him.

5 And Avraham was one hundred years old, when his son Yitzchak was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, Ahlohim has made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me.

7 And she said, Who would have said to Avraham, that Sarah would nurse children? For I have born him a son in his old age.

8 And the child grew and was weaned: and Avraham made a great feast the same yom that Yitzchak was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Mitzri, whom she had birthed for Avraham, mocking.

10 So she said to Avraham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, Yitzchak.

11 And the thing was very severe in Avraham's sight because of his son.

12 And Ahlohim said to Avraham, Let it not be severe in your sight because of the lad and because of your bondwoman; in all that Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice; for in Yitzchak shall your zera be called.

13 And also of the son of the eved woman will I make a nation, because he is your zera.

14 And Avraham rose up early in the boker and took lechem and a bottle of mayim and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child and sent her away: and she left and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-Sheva.

15 And the mayim was used up in the bottle and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went and sat down opposite him a tov derachot off, about the distance of a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat opposite him and lifted up her voice and wept.

17 And Ahlohim heard the voice of the lad; and The Heavenly Malach of Ahlohim called to Hagar out of the shamayim and said to her, What is the matter with you, Hagar? Fear not, for Ahlohim has heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad and hold him in your hand; for I will make him a great nation.

19 And Ahlohim opened her eyes and she saw a well of mayim; and she went and filled the bottle with mayim and gave the lad drink.

20 And Ahlohim was with the lad; and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his eema took for him an isha out of the land of Mitzrayim.

22 And it came to pass at that time, that Avimelech and Phichol the chief captain of his army spoke to Avraham, saying, Ahlohim is with you in all that you do:

23 Now therefore swear to me here by Ahlohim that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the chesed that I have done to you, you shall do to me and to the land in which you have sojourned.

24 And Avraham said, I will swear.

25 And Avraham reprov'd Avimelech because of a well of mayim, which Avimelech's avadim had violently taken away.

26 And Avimelech said, I don't know who has done this thing: neither did you tell me, neither did I hear of it, until today.

27 And Avraham took sheep and oxen and gave them to Avimelech; and both of them made a brit.

28 And Avraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Avimelech said to Avraham, What do these seven ewe lambs mean that you have set by yourselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shall you take of my hand, that they may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well.

31 So he called that place Beer-Sheva; because there both of them swore.

32 So they made a brit at Beer-Sheva: then Avimelech rose up and Phichol the chief captain of his army and they returned into the land of the Plishtim.

33 And Avraham planted a grove in Beer-Sheva and called there on the Name of אֵלֵאֱלֹהִים, El-Olam.

34 And Avraham sojourned in the Plishtim's land many yamim.

22 And it came to pass after these things, that Ahlohim did test Avraham and said to him, Avraham: and he said, See, Hinayne.

2 And He said, Take now your son, your only beloved son Yitzchak, whom you love and get into the land of Moriyah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains of which I will tell you.

3 And Avraham rose up early in the boker and saddled his donkey and took two of his young men with him and Yitzchak his son and cut the wood for the burnt offering and rose up and went to the place that Ahlohim had told him on the third yom.

4 And Avraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place far off.

5 And Avraham said to his young men, Stay here with the donkey; and I and the lad will go over there and worship and come again to you,

6 And Avraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it upon Yitzchak his son; and he took the fire in his hand and a knife; and they went both of them together.

7 And Yitzchak spoke to Avraham his abba and said, My abba: and he said, Hinayne, my son. And he said, See, the fire and the wood: but where is The Lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Avraham said, My son, Ahlohim will provide Himself a [The] Lamb for the burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place that Ahlohim had told him about; and Avraham rebuilt an altar there and laid the wood in order and bound Yitzchak his son and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Avraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.

11 And The Malach-אלהים called to him out of the shamayim and said, Avraham, Avraham: and he said, Hinayne.

12 And He said, Lay not your hand upon the lad, neither do anything to him: for now I know that you fear Ahlohim, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only beloved son from Me.

13 And Avraham lifted up his eyes and looked and saw behind him a ram caught in a thicket by its horns: and Avraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 And Avraham called the name of that place אלהים יראה -Yireh: as it is said to this yom, On the har אלהים is and will be seen.

15 And The Malach-אלהים called to Avraham out of the shamayim the second time,

16 And said, By Myself have I sworn, says אלהים because you have done this thing and have not withheld your son, your only son:

17 That in the bracha I will bless you and in multiplying I will multiply your zera as the cochavim of the shamayim and as the sand that is upon the seashore; and your zera shall possess the cities and gates of its enemies;

18 And in your zera shall all the goyim of the earth be blessed-mixed; because you have obeyed My voice.

19 So Avraham returned to his young men and they rose up and went together to Beer-Sheva; and Avraham dwelt at Beer-Sheva.

20 And it came to be after these things, that it was told Avraham, saying, See, Milcah, she has also born children to your brother Nachor;

21 Huz his bachor and Buz his brother and Kemu-El The Abba of Aram, 22 And Chesed and Hazo and Pildash and Yidlaph and Bethu-El.

23 And Bethu-El begat Rivkah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nachor, Avraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bore also Tevah and Gaham and Thahash and Maachah.

23 And Sarah was one hundred twenty seven years old: these were the years of the chayim of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kiryath-Arba; the same is Chebron in the land of Kanaan: and Avraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 And Avraham stood up from before his dead and spoke to the sons of Cheth, saying,

4 I am a ger and a dweller with you: give me a possession for a burial-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the children of Cheth answered Avraham, saying to him,

6 Hear us, my master: you are a mighty sar among us: in the choicest of our sepulchers bury your dead; none of us shall withhold from you his sepulcher, so that you may bury your dead.

7 And Avraham stood up and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Cheth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; listen to me and inquire for me to Ephron the son of Tzohar, 9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is at the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession for a burial-place among you.

10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Cheth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Avraham in the audience of the children of Cheth, even all those that went in at the gate of his city, saying, 11 No, my master, hear me: the field I give you and the cave that is in it, I give it to you; in the presence of the sons of my people I give it to you: bury your dead.

12 And Avraham bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spoke to Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if you will give it to me, Please, hear me: I will give you money for the field; take it from me and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Avraham, saying to him,

15 My master, listen to me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that between you and me? Bury therefore your dead.

16 And Avraham listened to Ephron; and Avraham weighed for Ephron the silver, which he had named in the presence of the sons of Cheth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

17 And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field and the cave that was in it and all the eytzim that were in the field, that were in all the borders all around, were made sure,

18 Unto Avraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Cheth, before all that went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this, Avraham buried Sarah his isha in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre:
the same is Chebron in the land of Kanaan.

20 And the field and the cave that is in it, were deeded to Avraham for a possession of a burial-place by the sons of Cheth.

24 And Avraham was old and well stricken in age:
and אֱלֹהִים had blessed Avraham in all things.

2 And Avraham said to his eldest eved of his bayit, that ruled over all that he had, Please put your hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make you swear by אֱלֹהִים, the Ahlohim of the shamayim and the Ahlohim of the earth, that you shall not take an isha for my son of the daughters of the Kanaanites, among whom I dwell:

4 But you shall go to my country and to my mishpacha and take an isha for my son Yitzchak.

5 And the eved said to him, Suppose the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land: do I need to bring your son again to the land from where you came?

6 And Avraham said to him, Beware that you bring not my son there again.

7 אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the shamayim, who took me from my abba's bayit and from the land of my mishpacha and who spoke to me and that swore to me, saying, Unto your zera will I give this land; He shall send His Malach before you and you shall take an isha for my son from there.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow you, then you shall be clear from this oath: only bring not my son there again.

9 And the eved put his hand under the thigh of Avraham his master and swore to him concerning that matter.

10 And the eved took ten camels from the camels of his master and departed; for all the items of his master were in his hand: and he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nachor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down outside the city by a well of mayim at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw mayim.

12 And he said, O אלהים, Ahlohim of my master Avraham, Please, send me with Your bracha this yom and show chesed to my master Avraham.

13 See, I stand here by the well of mayim; and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw mayim:

14 And let it come to pass, that the young girl to whom I shall say, Please let down your pitcher, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink and I will give your camels drink also: let the same be she that you have appointed for your eved Yitzchak; and thereby shall I know that you have showed chesed to my master.

15 And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, see, Rivkah came out, who was born to Bethu-El, son of Milcah, the isha of Nachor, Avraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the young girl was very beautiful to look at, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well and filled her pitcher and came up.

17 And the eved ran to meet her and said, Please let me drink a little mayim from your pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my master: and she hurried and let down her pitcher upon her hand and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw mayim for your camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hurried and emptied her pitcher into the trough and ran again to the well to draw mayim and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering about her held his silence, to see whether אִרְאֵל had made his journey prosperous, or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden earring of half a shekel weight and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, whose daughter are you? Please tell me: is there room in your abba's bayit for us to lodge?

24 And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethu-El the son of Milcah that she bore to Nachor.

25 She said moreover to him, We have both straw and fodder enough and room to lodge.

26 And the man bowed down his head and worshipped אִרְאֵל.

27 And he said, Barchu-et-אִרְאֵל Ahlohim of my master Avraham, who has not left my master destitute of His rachamim and His emet: I was traveling in the derech and now אִרְאֵל has led me to the bayit of my master's brothers.

28 And the young girl ran and told those of her eema's bayit these things.

29 And Rivkah had a brother and his name was Lavan: and Lavan ran out to the man, to the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands and when he heard the words of Rivkah his sister, saying, This is what the man spoke to me; then Lavan came to the man; as he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, you blessed of אֱלֹהִים; Why do you stand outside? For I have prepared the bayit and room for the camels.

32 And the man came into the bayit: and he undressed his camels and gave straw and fodder for the camels and mayim to wash his feet and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set food before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told of my errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Avraham's eved.

35 And אֱלֹהִים has blessed my master greatly; and he is become great: and He has given him flocks and herds and silver and gold and male avadim and female avadim and camels and donkeys.

36 And Sarah my master's isha bore a son to my master when she was old: and to him has he given all that he has.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, You shall not take an isha for my son of the daughters of the Kanaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But you shall go to my abba's bayit and to my mishpacha and take an isha for my son.

39 And I said to my master, Suppose the woman will not follow me?

40 And he said to me, אֱלֹהִים, before whom I have my halacha, will send His Malach with you and prosper your derech; and you shall take an isha for my son from my mishpacha and from my abba's bayit:

41 Then shall you be clear from this oath, when you come to my mishpacha; if they give you no one, you shall be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this yom to the well and said, O אלהים, Ahlohim of my master Avraham, if now You do prosper my derech in which I go;

43 See, I stand by the well of mayim; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin comes out to draw mayim and I say to her, Please give me a little mayim from your pitcher to drink;

44 And she says to me, Drink and I will draw for your camels too; let therefore the same one be the woman whom אלהים has appointed for my master's son.

45 And before I had done speaking in my lev, see, Rivkah came out with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down to the well and drew mayim: and I said to her, Please let me drink.

46 And she hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder and said, Drink and I will give your camels drink also: so I drank and she gave the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her and said, Whose daughter are you? And she said, The daughter of Bethu-El, Nachor's son, whom Milcah bore to him: and I put the earring upon her face and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head and worshipped אלהים and blessed אלהים Ahlohim of my master Avraham, who had led me in the right derech to take my master's brother's daughter to his son.

49 And now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Lavan and Bethu-El answered and said, This thing proceeds from אלהים: we cannot speak to you bad, or tov.

51 See, Rivkah is before you, take her and go and let her be your master's son's isha, as אִפְרָיִם has spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Avraham's eved heard their words, he worshipped אִפְרָיִם, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the eved brought out jewels of silver and jewels of gold and clothing and gave them to Rivkah: he gave also to her brother and to her eema precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him and stayed all lyla; and they rose up in the boker and he said, Send me away to my master.

55 And her brother and her eema said, Let the young girl stay with us a few yamim, at least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said to them, Do not hinder me, seeing אִפְרָיִם has prospered my derech; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the young girl and ask her.

58 And they called Rivkah and said to her, Will you go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rivkah their sister and her nurse and Avraham's eved and his men.

60 And they blessed Rivkah and said to her, You are our sister, now become the eema of thousands of millions, and let your zera possess the gate of those who hate them.

61 And Rivkah arose and her young girls and they rode upon the camels and followed the man: and the eved took Rivkah and went his derech.

62 And Yitzchak came from the derech of the well Lachai-Roei, for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Yitzchak went out to meditate in the field in the evening: and he lifted up his eyes and saw and, see, the camels were coming.

64 And Rivkah lifted up her eyes and when she saw Yitzchak, she was lifted from off the camel.

65 For she had said to the eved, What man is this that walks in the field to meet us? And the eved had said, It is my master: therefore she took a veil, and covered herself.

66 And the eved told Yitzchak all things that he had done.

67 And Yitzchak brought her into his eema Sarah's tent and took Rivkah and she became his isha; and he loved her: and Yitzchak was comforted after his eema's death.

25 Then again Avraham took an isha and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bore him Zimran and Yokshan and Medan and Midyan and Ishvak and Shuah.

3 And Yokshan begat Sheva and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Ashurim and Letushim and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midyan; Ephah and Epher and Hanoch and Avida and Eldah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 And Avraham gave all that he had to Yitzchak.

6 But to the sons of the concubines, whom Avraham had, Avraham gave gifts and sent them away from Yitzchak his son, eastward, to the east country.

7 And these are the yamim of the years of Avraham's chayim that he lived, one hundred seventy five years.

8 Then Avraham gave up the ruach and died in a tov old age, an old man and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Yitzchak and Yishma-El buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Tzoar the Hittite, which is before Mamre,
10 The field that Avraham purchased from the sons of Cheth: there was Avraham buried and Sarah his isha.

11 And it came to pass after the death of Avraham, that Ahlohim blessed his son Yitzchak; and Yitzchak dwelt by the well Lachai-Roei.

12 Now these are the generations of Yishma-El, Avraham's son, whom Hagar the Mitzri, Sarah's handmaid, bore to Avraham:

13 And these are the names of the sons of Yishma-El, by their names, according to their generations: the bachor of Yishma-El, Nevayoth; and Kedar and Adveel and Mivsam,

14 And Mishma and Dumah and Massa,

15 Hadar and Tema, Yetur, Naphish and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Yishma-El and these are their names, by their towns and by their settlements, twelve princes according to their tribes.

17 And these are the years of the chayim of Yishma-El, one hundred thirty seven years: and he gave up the ruach and died; and was gathered to his people.

18 And they dwelt from Havilah to Shur that is before Mitzrayim, as you go towards Ashshur: facing their brothers did they settle.

19 And these are the generations of Yitzchak, Avraham's son: Avraham begat Yitzchak:

20 And Yitzchak was forty years old when he took Rivkah to be his isha, the daughter of Bethu-El the Aramean of Padan-Aram, the sister of Lavan the Aramean.

21 And Yitzchak sought אִשָּׁה for his isha because she was barren: and אִשָּׁה was found by him and Rivkah his isha conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it is so, why am I like this? And she went to inquire of אִשָּׁה.

23 And אִשָּׁה said to her, Two goyim are in your womb and two kinds of peoples shall be separated from your bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

24 And when her yamim to be delivered were fulfilled, see, there were twins in her womb.

25 And the first came out red, all over like a hairy garment; and they called his name Esav.

26 And after that came out his brother and his hand took hold on Esav's heel; and his name was called Yaakov: and Yitzchak was sixty years old when she bore them.

27 And the boys grew: and Esav was a skilled hunter, a man of the field; and Yaakov was a plain man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Yitzchak loved Esav because he did eat of his venison: but Rivkah loved Yaakov.

29 And Yaakov cooked pottage: and Esav came from the field and he was faint:

30 And Esav said to Yaakov, Please feed me with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.

31 And Yaakov said, Sell me this yom your bechora.

32 And Esav said, See, I am at the point of death: so what profit shall this bechora be to me?

33 And Yaakov said, Swear to me this yom; and he swore to him: and he sold his bechora to Yaakov.

34 Then Yaakov gave Esav lechem and a pottage of lentils; and he did eat and drink and rose up and went his derech: so Esav despised his bechora.

26 And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the yamim of Avraham. And Yitzchak went to Avimelech melech of the Plishtim to Gerar.

2 And אִפְרַיִם appeared to him and said, Go not down into Mitzrayim; dwell in the land that I shall tell you about:

3 Sojourn in this land and I will be with you and will bless you; for to you and to your zera, I will give all these countries and I will perform the oath which I swore to Avraham your abba;

4 And I will make your zera to multiply as the cochavim of the shamayim and will give to your zera all these countries; and in your zera shall all the goyim of the earth be blessed;

5 Because Avraham obeyed My voice and kept My charge, My mitzvoth, My chukim and My Torot.

6 And Yitzchak dwelt in Gerar:

7 And the men of the place asked him about his isha; and he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my isha; lest, said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rivkah; because she was beautiful to look at.

8 And it came to pass; when he had been there a long time that Avimelech melech of the Plishtim looked out at a window and saw Yitzchak playing with Rivkah his isha.

9 And Avimelech called Yitzchak and said, See, of a certainty she is your isha. So why did you say, She is my sister? And Yitzchak said to him, Because, I said otherwise I will die because of her.

10 And Avimelech said, What is this you have done to us? One of our people might have unknowingly lain with your isha and you would have brought guilt upon us.

11 And Avimelech charged all his people, saying, He that touches this man, or his isha shall surely be put to death.

12 Then Yitzchak sowed in that land and received in that same year a hundredfold return: and אֱלֹהִים blessed him.

13 And the man grew great and went forward and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great supply of avadim: and the Plishtim envied him.

15 For all the wells that his abba's avadim had dug in the yamim of Avraham his abba, the Plishtim had stopped them and filled them with earth.

16 And Avimelech said to Yitzchak, Go from us; for you are much mightier than us.

17 And Yitzchak departed from there and camped his tent in the Valley of Gerar and dwelt there.

18 And Yitzchak dug again the wells of mayim, which they had dug in the yamim of Avraham his abba; for the Plishtim had stopped them after the death of Avraham: and he called their names by the names that his abba had called them.

19 And Yitzchak's avadim dug in the valley and found there a well of running mayim.

20 And the herdsmen of Gerar did strive with Yitzchak's herdsmen, saying, The mayim is ours: and he called the name of the well Esek; because they strove with him.

21 And they dug another well and strove over that one also: and he called the name of it Sitnah.

22 And he moved from there and dug another well; and for that one they strove not: and he called the name of it Rehovoth; and he said, For now אֱלֹהִים has made room for us and we shall be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from there to Beer-Sheva.

24 And אַף־אַז appeared to him the same lyla and said, I AM the Ahlohim of Avraham your abba: fear not, for I AM with you and will bless you and multiply your zera for My eved Avraham's sake.

25 And he built an altar there and called upon the Name of אַף־אַז and pitched his tent there and Yitzchak's avadim dug a well.

26 Then Avimelech went to him from Gerar and Ahuzzath one of his chaverim and Phichol the chief captain of his army.

27 And Yitzchak said to them, Why do you come to me, seeing you hate me and have sent me away from you?

28 And they said, We saw certainly that אַף־אַז was with you: and we said, Let there be now an oath between us, even between us and you and let us make a brit with you;

29 That you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you and as we have done to you nothing but tov and have sent you away in shalom: you are now the blessed of אַף־אַז.

30 And he made for them a feast and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up early in the boker and swore one to another: and Yitzchak sent them away and they departed from him in shalom.

32 And it came to pass the same yom that Yitzchak's avadim came and told him concerning the well that they had dug and said to him, We have found mayim.

33 And he called it Shevah: therefore the name of the city is Beer-Sheva to this yom.

34 And Esav was forty years old when he took his isha Yehudite the daughter of Beeri the Hittite and Bashemath the daughter of Elon the Hittite:

35 Which caused grief of mind to Yitzchak and to Rivkah.

27 And it came to pass, that when Yitzchak was old and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esav his eldest son and said to him, My son: and he said to him, See, hinayne.

2 And he said, See now, I am old; I know not the yom of my death:

3 Now please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow and go out to the field and find me some venison;

4 And make me tasty meat, such as I love and bring it to me, that I may eat it; that my being may bless you before I die.

5 And Rivkah heard when Yitzchak spoke to Esav his son. And Esav went to the field to hunt for venison and to bring it.

6 And Rivkah spoke to Yaakov her son, saying, See, I heard your abba speak to Esav your brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison and make me tasty meat, that I may eat and bless you before אִרְאֶה before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you.

9 Go now to the flock and get me from there two tov kids of the goats; and I will make from them tasty meat for your abba, such as he loves:

10 And you shall bring it to your abba, that he may eat and that he may bless you before his death.

11 And Yaakov said to Rivkah his eema, See, Esav my brother is a hairy man and I am a smooth man:

12 My abba will feel me and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me and not a bracha.

13 And his eema said to him, Upon me be your curse, my son: only obey my voice and go get them for me.

14 And he went and took and brought them to his eema: and his eema made tasty meat, such as his abba loved.

15 And Rivkah took nice clothing from her eldest son Esav, which were with her in the bayit and put them upon Yaakov her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands and upon the smooth parts of his neck:

17 And she gave the tasty meat and the lechem, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Yaakov.

18 And he came to his abba and said, My abba: and he said, Hinayne; who are you, my son?

19 And Yaakov said to his abba, I am Esav your bachor; I have done accordingly as you told me: Please arise sit up and eat of my venison, that your being may bless me.

20 And Yitzchak said to his son, How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim brought it to me.

21 And Yitzchak said to Yaakov, Please come near so that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esav, or not.

22 And Yaakov went near to Yitzchak his abba; and he felt him and said, The voice is Yaakov's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esav.

23 And he discerned him not because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esav's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Are you really my son Esav? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me and I will eat of my son's venison, that my being may bless you.

And he brought it near to him and he did eat: and he brought him wine and he drank.

26 And his abba Yitzchak said to him, Come near now and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his clothing and blessed him and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field that אֵפֶרֶז has blessed:

28 Therefore Ahlohim give you from the dew of the shamayim and the fatness of the earth and plenty of grain and wine:

29 Let people serve you and goyim bow down to you: be master over your brothers and let your eema's sons bow down to you: cursed be every one that curses you and blessed be he that blesses you.

30 And it came to pass, as soon as Yitzchak had made an end of making the bracha upon Yaakov, that Yaakov had just gone out from the presence of Yitzchak his abba and see, Esav his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made tasty meat and brought it to his abba and said to his abba, Let my abba arise and eat of his son's venison, that your being may bless me.

32 And Yitzchak his abba said to him, Who are you? And he said, I am your son, your bachor Esav.

33 And Yitzchak trembled very exceedingly and said, Who? Where is he that has taken venison and brought it me and I have eaten of all before you came and have blessed him? Yes and he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esav heard the words of his abba, he cried with a great and exceedingly bitter cry and said to his abba, Bless me also, O my abba.

35 And he said, Your brother came with subtlety and has taken away your bracha.

36 And he said, Is not he rightly named Yaakov? For he has supplanted me these two times: he took away my bechora; and, see, now he has taken my bracha! And Esav said, Have you not reserved a bracha for me?

37 And Yitzchak answered and said to Esav, See, I have made him your master and all his brothers have I given to him for avadim; and with grain and wine have I sustained him: and what shall I do now for you, my son?

38 And Esav said to his abba, Have you not just one bracha, my abba? Bless me, even me also, O my abba. And Esav lifted up his voice and wept.

39 And Yitzchak his abba answered and said to him, See, your dwelling shall be away from the richness of the earth and away from the dew of the shamayim from above;

40 And by your sword shall you live and shall serve your brother; and it shall come to pass when you shall have the dominion, that you shall break his yoke from off your neck.

41 And Esav hated Yaakov because of the bracha with which his abba blessed him: and Esav said in his lev, The yamim of mourning for my abba are at hand; then will I kill my brother Yaakov.

42 And these words of Esav her elder son were told to Rivkah: and she sent and called Yaakov her younger son and said to him, See, your brother Esav, concerning you, does comfort himself by purposing to kill you.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee to Lavan my brother to Charan;

44 And stay with him a few yamim, until your brother's anger turns away;

45 Until your brother's anger turns away from you and he forgets what you have done to him: then I will send and get you from there: why should I be deprived of both of you in one yom?

46 And Rivkah said to Yitzchak, I am weary of my chayim because of the daughters of Cheth: if Yaakov takes an isha from the daughters of Cheth, such as these who are of the daughters of the land, what tov shall my chayim be to me?

28 And Yitzchak called Yaakov and blessed him and charged him and said to him, You shall not take an isha of the daughters of Kanaan.

2 Arise, go to Padan-Aram, to the bayit of Bethu-El your eema's abba; and take an isha from there from the daughters of Lavan your eema's brother.

3 And El-Shaddai bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you and you shall become a kehilla of nations-goyim;

4 And El-Shaddai give you the bracha of Avraham, to you and to your zera with you; that you may inherit the land in which you are a ger, which Ahlohim gave to Avraham.

5 And Yitzchak sent Yaakov away: and he went to Padan-Aram to Lavan, son of Bethu-El the Aramean, the brother of Rivkah, Yaakov's and Esav's eema.

6 When Esav saw that Yitzchak had blessed Yaakov and sent him away to Padan-Aram, to take him an isha from there; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, You shall not take an isha from the daughters of Kanaan;

7 And that Yaakov obeyed his abba and his eema and had gone to Padan-Aram.

8 And Esav seeing that the daughters of Kanaan did not please Yitzchak his abba;

9 Then went Esav to Yishma-El and took besides the wives that he already had Mahalath the daughter of Yishma-El Avraham's son, the sister of Nevayoth, to be his isha.

10 And Yaakov went out from Beer-Sheva and went toward Charan.

11 And he came upon a certain place and stayed there all lyla because the shemesh was set; and he took of the stones of that place and used them for his pillows and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed and see a ladder set up on the earth and the top of it reached to the shamayim: and see the heavenly malachim of Ahlohim ascending and descending on it.

13 And, see, אֱלֹהִים stood above it and said, I AM אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Avraham your abba and the Ahlohim of Yitzchak: the land where you lie, to you will I give it and to your zera;

14 And your zera shall be as the dust of the earth and you shall break out abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south: and in you and in your zera shall all the mishpachot of the earth be blessed.

15 And, see, I AM with you and will keep you in all the places where you are going and will bring you again into this land; for I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken to you.

16 And Yaakov awoke out of his sleep and he said, Surely אֱלֹהִים is in this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid and said, How awesome is this place! This is no other place but Beit Ahlohim and this is sha-ar ha shamayim.

18 And Yaakov rose up early in the boker and took the stone that he had put for his pillow and set it up for a pillar and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Beth-El: but the name of that city was called Luz first.

20 And Yaakov vowed a vow, saying, If The Word of Ahlohim will be with me and will keep me in this derech that I go and will give me lechem to eat and clothing to put on,

21 So that I come again to my abba's bayit in shalom; then shall The Word of אֱלֹהִים be my Ahlohim:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be Ahlohim 's Bayit: and of all that You shall give me I will surely give the ma'aser to You.

chapters 6-10.

29 Then Yaakov went on his journey and came into the land of the people of the east.

2 And he looked and saw a well in the field and, see, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And there were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the sheep and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in its place.

4 And Yaakov said to them, My brothers, where are you from? And they said, From Charan are we.

5 And he said to them, Do you know Lavan the son of Nachor? And they said, We know him,

6 And he said to them, Is he well? And they said, He is well and see, Rachel his daughter comes with the sheep.

7 And he said, See, it is still bright, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: give mayim to the sheep and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks are gathered together and until they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we may give mayim to the sheep.

9 And while he yet spoke with them, Rachel came with her abba's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Yaakov saw Rachel the daughter of Lavan his eema's brother and the sheep of Lavan his eema's brother, that Yaakov went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth and watered the flock of Lavan his eema's brother.

11 And Yaakov kissed Rachel and lifted up his voice and wept.

12 And Yaakov told Rachel that he was her abba's relative and that he was Rivkah's son: and she ran and told her abba.

13 And it came to pass, when Lavan heard the tidings of Yaakov his sister's son, that he ran to meet him and embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his bayit. And he told Lavan all these things.

14 And Lavan said to him, Surely you are my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him about a chodesh.

15 And Lavan said to Yaakov, Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what shall your wages be?

16 And Lavan had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah and the name of the younger was Rachel.

17 Leah's eyes were tender; but Rachel was beautiful and well favored.

18 And Yaakov loved Rachel; and said, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter.

19 And Lavan said, It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man: stay with me.

20 And Yaakov served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed to him but a few yamim, for the ahava he had for her.

21 And Yaakov said to Lavan, Give me my isha, for my yamim are fulfilled, that I may go in to her.

22 And Lavan gathered together all the men of the place and made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter and brought her to him; and he went in to her.

24 And Lavan gave to his daughter Leah, Zilpah his maid for a handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the boker, see, it was Leah: and he said to Lavan, What is this you have done to me? Did I not serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?

26 And Lavan said, It must not be so done in our country, to give the younger before the bechora.

27 Fulfill her seven years and we will give you Rachel also for the service that you shall serve with me yet seven more years.

28 And Yaakov did so and fulfilled her seven years: and he gave him Rachel his daughter for an isha also.

29 And Lavan gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid.

30 And he went in also to Rachel and he loved also Rachel more than Leah and served with him yet seven more years.

31 And when אףאז saw that Leah was hated, He opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.

32 And Leah conceived and bore a son and she called his name Reuven: for she said, Surely אףאז has looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.

33 And she conceived again and bore a son; and said, Because אףאז has heard that I was hated, he has therefore given me this son also: and she called his name Shimon.

34 And she conceived again and bore a son; and said, Now this time will my husband be joined to me because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called Lewi.

35 And she conceived again and bore a son: and she said, Now will I hallel אלהים: therefore she called his name Yahudah; and ceased bearing.

30 And when Rachel saw that she bore Yaakov no children, Rachel envied her sister; and said to Yaakov, Give me children, or else I will die.

2 And Yaakov's anger was lit against Rachel: and he said, Am I in Ahlohim 's place; who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?

3 And she said, See my maid Bilhah, go in to her; and she shall bear upon my knees that I may also have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid to be his isha: and Yaakov went in to her.

5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Yaakov a son.

6 And Rachel said, Ahlohim has judged me and has also heard my voice and has given me a son: therefore she called his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again and bore Yaakov a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With great strife have I wrestled with my sister and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid and gave her to Yaakov to be his isha.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bore Yaakov a son.

11 And Leah said, A troop comes: and she called his name Gad.

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bore Yaakov a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher.

14 And Reuven went in the yamim of wheat harvest and found love-apples in the field and brought them to his eema Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Please give me some of your son's love-apples.

15 And Leah said to her, Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? And would you take away my son's love-apples also? And Rachel said, Therefore let him lie with you tonight for your son's love-apples.

16 And Yaakov came out of the field in the evening and Leah went out to meet him and said, You must come in to me; for surely I have hired you with my son's love-apples. And he lay with her that lyla.

17 And Ahlohim listened to Leah and she conceived and bore Yaakov the fifth son.

18 And Leah said, Ahlohim has given me my hire because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Yissachar.

19 And Leah conceived again and bore Yaakov the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, Ahlohim has endued me with a tov dowry; now will my husband dwell with me because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zevulon.

21 And afterwards she bore a daughter and called her name Dinah.

22 And Ahlohim remembered Rachel and Ahlohim listened to her and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived and bore a son; and said, Ahlohim has taken away my reproach:

24 And she called his name Yoseph; and said, אסף אסף shall add to me another son.

25 And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Yoseph, that Yaakov said to Lavan, Send me away, that I may go to my own place and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you and let me go: for you know my service that I have done for you.

27 And Lavan said to him, Please, if I have found chesed in your eyes, stay: for I have learned by experience that אלהים has blessed me for your sake.

28 And he said, Appoint me your wages and I will give it.

29 And he said to him, You know how I have served you and how your cattle were with me.

30 For it was little which you had before I came and it is now increased to a multitude; and אלהים has blessed you since my coming: and now when shall I provide for my own bayit also?

31 And he said, What shall I give you? And Yaakov said, You shall not give me anything: if you will do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep your flock:

32 I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted cattle and all the brown cattle among the sheep and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and those shall be my hire.

33 So shall my tzedakah answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before your face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted as stolen with me.

34 And Lavan said, See, I would it might be according to your word.

35 And he removed that yom the male goats that were ring streaked and spotted and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted and every one that had some white in it and all the brown among the sheep and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three yamim' journey between himself and Yaakov: and Yaakov fed the rest of Lavan's flocks.

37 And Yaakov took rods of green poplar and of the hazel and chesnut eytz; and rounded white streaks in them and made the white appear that was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods that he had rounded before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods and brought out cattle ring streaked, speckled and spotted.

40 And Yaakov did separate the lambs and set the faces of the flocks toward the ring streaked and all the brown in the flock of Lavan; and he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them in Lavan's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whenever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Yaakov laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Lavan's and the stronger Yaakov's.

43 And the man increased exceedingly and had much cattle and female avadim and male avadim and camels and donkeys.

31 And he heard the words of Lavan's sons, saying, Yaakov has taken away all that was our abba's; and of that which was our abba's has he gotten all this tifereth.

2 And Yaakov beheld the face of Lavan and, see, it was not towards him as before.

3 And אָפֿאָז said to Yaakov, Return to the land of your ahvot and to your mishpacha; and I will be with you.

4 And Yaakov sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock,

5 And said to them, I see your abba's face that it is not toward me as before; but the Ahlohim of my abba has been with me.

6 And you know that with all my power I have served your abba.

7 And your abba has deceived me and changed my wages ten times; but Ahlohim did not allow him to hurt me.

8 When he said, The speckled cattle shall be your wages; then all the cattle bore speckled: and when he said so, The ring streaked shall be your hire; then all the cattle bore ring streaked.

9 So Ahlohim has taken away the cattle of your abba and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up my eyes and saw in a dream and, see, the rams that leaped upon the cattle were ring streaked, speckled and grizzled.

11 And The Malach-Ahlohim spoke to me in a dream, saying, Yaakov!; And I said, Hinayne.

12 And He said, Lift up now your eyes and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ring streaked, speckled and grizzled: for I have seen all that Lavan does to you.

13 I AM the El of Beth-El, where you anointed the pillar and where you vowed a vow to Me: now arise, get out from this land and return to the land of your mishpacha.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there yet any portion, or inheritance for us in our abba's bayit?

15 Are we not counted as gerim by him? For he has sold us and has fully devoured our money also.

16 For all the riches that Ahlohim has taken from our abba, that is ours and our children's: now then, whatever Ahlohim has said to you, do.

17 Then Yaakov rose up and set his sons and his wives upon camels.

18 And he carried away all his cattle and all his items that he had gotten, the cattle of his labor, which he had gotten in Padan-Aram, to go to Yitzchak his abba in the land of Kanaan.

19 And Lavan went to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her abba's.

20 And Yaakov went away without telling Lavan the Aramean, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up and passed over the river and set his face toward Har Gilad.

22 And it was told to Lavan on the third yom that Yaakov had fled.

23 And he took his brothers with him and pursued after him a seven yamim' journey; and they overtook him in the Har Gilad.

24 And Ahlohim came to Lavan the Aramean in a dream by lyla and said to him, Take heed that you speak not to Yaakov either tov, or bad.

25 Then Lavan overtook Yaakov. Now Yaakov had camped his tent in the har: and Lavan with his brothers camped in the Har of Gilad.

26 And Lavan said to Yaakov, What have you done, that you have gone away without telling me and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with a sword?

27 Why did you flee away secretly and deceive me; and did not tell me, so that I could have sent you away with simcha and with shirim, with tabret and with harp?

28 And you have not allowed me to kiss my sons and my daughters? You have now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you harm: but the El of your abba's bayit spoke to me last lyla, saying, Take heed that you speak not to Yaakov either tov, or bad.

30 And now, you have gone because you greatly long for your abba's bayit, but why have you stolen my ahlahim?

31 And Yaakov answered and said to Lavan, Because I was afraid: for I said, Suppose you would take by force your daughters from me.

32 With whoever you find your ahlahim, let him not live: before our brothers discern what is and isn't mine and take it with you. For Yaakov knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Lavan went into Yaakov's tent and into Leah's tent and into the two female avadim's tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images and put them in the camel's furniture and sat upon them. And Lavan searched the entire tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her abba, Let it not displease my master that I cannot rise up before you; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 And Yaakov was angry and contended with Lavan: and Yaakov answered and said to Lavan, What is my trespass? What is my sin; that you have so hotly pursued after me?

37 Why you have searched all my items, what have you found from all your household items? Set it here before my brothers and your brothers, that they may judge between us both.

38 These twenty years have I been with you; your ewes and your female goats have not cast their young and the rams of your flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not to you; I bore the loss of it; of my hand did you require it, whether stolen by yom, or stolen by lyla.

40 So I was; in the yom the drought consumed me and the frost by lyla; and my sleep departed from my eyes.

41 Therefore have I been twenty years in your bayit; I served you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your cattle: and you have changed my wages ten times.

42 Except the Ahlohim of my abba, the Ahlohim of Avraham and the Fear of Yitzchak, had been with me, surely you would have sent me away now empty. Ahlohim has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands and rebuked you last lyla.

43 And Lavan answered and said to Yaakov, These daughters are my daughters and these children are my children and these cattle are my cattle and all that you see is mine: and what can I do this yom to these my daughters, or to their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come, let us make a brit, you and I; and let it be for a witness between you and me.

45 And Yaakov took a stone and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Yaakov said to his brothers, Gather stones; and they took stones and made a heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Lavan called it Yegar-Sahadutha: but Yaakov called it Gal-Ed.

48 And Lavan said, This heap is a witness between you and me this yom. Therefore was the name of it called Gal-Ed.

49 And Mitzpah; for he said, מִצְפָּה watch between you and me, when we are absent one from another.

50 If you shall afflict my daughters, or if you shall take other wives beside my daughters, no man is with us; see, Ahlohim is witness between you and me.

51 And Lavan said to Yaakov, See this heap and see this pillar, which I have set between you; and me;

52 This heap be a witness and this pillar be a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you and that you shall not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm.

53 The Ahlohim of Avraham and the Ahlohim of Nachor, the Ahlohim of their abba, judge between us. And Yaakov swore by the Fear of his abba Yitzchak.

54 Then Yaakov offered sacrifice upon the har and called his brothers to eat lechem: and they did eat lechem and stayed all lyla in the har.

55 And early in the boker Lavan rose up and kissed his sons and his daughters and blessed them: and Lavan departed and returned to his place.

32 And Yaakov went on his derech and the heavenly malachim of Ahlohim met him.

2 And when Yaakov saw them, he said, This is Ahlohim 's army: and he called the name of that place Machanayim.

3 And Yaakov sent messengers before him to Esav his brother to the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, So shall you speak to my master Esav; Your eved Yaakov says this, I have sojourned with Lavan and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen and donkeys, flocks and male avadim and female avadim: and I have sent to tell my master, that I may find chen in your sight.

6 And the messengers returned to Yaakov, saying,
We came to your brother Esav and also he comes to meet you and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Yaakov was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people that were with him and the flocks and herds and the camels, into two camps—groups;

8 And said, If Esav comes to the one camp and smites it, then the other camp that is left shall escape.

9 And Yaakov said, O Ahlohim of my abba Avraham and Ahlohim of my abba Yitzchak, אֱלֹהֵי יִצְחָק who said to me, Return to your country and to your mishpacha and I will deal well with you:

10 I am not worthy of the least of all the chesed and of all the emet, which You have showed to Your eved; for with just my staff I passed over this Yarden; and now I have become two camps of peoples.

11 Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esav: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me and the eema with the children.

12 And You did say, I will surely do you tov and make your zera as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 And he lodged there that same lyla; and took of that which came to his hand a present for Esav his brother;

14 Two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

15 Thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his avadim, every drove by themselves; and said to his avadim, Go ahead of me and put a space between drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esav my brother meets you and asks you, saying, Whose are you? And where are you going? And whose are these before you?

18 Then you shall say, They are your eved Yaakov's; it is a present sent to my master Esav: and, see, also Yaakov is behind us.

19 And so in like manner he commanded the second and the third and all that followed the droves, saying, In this manner shall you speak to Esav, when you find him.

20 And say also, See, your eved Yaakov is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goes before me and after that I will see his face; I suppose he will then accept me.

21 So the present went before him: and he himself lodged that lyla in the company.

22 And he rose up that lyla and took his two wives and his two female avadim and his eleven sons and passed over the ford Yavok.

23 And he took them and sent them over the brook and sent over what he had.

24 And Yaakov was left alone; and there wrestled a Man with Yaakov until the breaking of the yom.

25 And when the Man saw that He prevailed not against him, the Man touched the hollow of Yaakov's thigh; and the hollow of Yaakov's thigh was out of joint, as the Son of Man wrestled with Yaakov.

26 And the Man said, Let Me go, for the yom breaks. And Yaakov said, I will not let You go, except You bless me.

27 And the Man said to Yaakov, What is your name? And he answered, Yaakov.

28 And the Man said, Your name shall no longer be called Yaakov, but Yisrael: for as a sar you have power with Ahlohim and with men and have prevailed.

29 And Yaakov asked Him and said, Please tell me Your Name. And He said, Why is it that you do ask about My Name? And He blessed him there.

30 And Yaakov called the name of the place Peni-El: for I have seen Ahlohim panayim-el-panayim and still my chayim has been preserved.

31 And as he passed over Peni-El the shemesh rose upon him and he limped on his hip.

32 Therefore the children of Yisrael eat not of the sinew which shrank, that is upon the socket of the thigh, to this yom: because He touched the socket of Yaakov's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

Torah Parsha 9 Shavuah-Week 9-Vayesah Yaaqov Einav Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 33-36.
Renewed Covenant Yochanan Moshe-Mark chapters 11-16.

33 And Yaakov lifted up his eyes and looked and, see, Esav came and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children to Leah and to Rachel and to the two handmaids.

2 And he put the handmaids and their children in the front and Leah and her children after them and Rachel and Yoseph in the back.

3 And he passed over before them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esav ran to meet him and embraced him and fell on his neck and kissed him: and they wept.

5 And Esav lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with you? And Yaakov said, The children that Ahlohim has by His unmerited chen given to your eved.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near and bowed themselves: and after came Yoseph near with Rachel and they bowed themselves.

8 And he said, What do you mean by all this company that I met? And Yaakov said, These are to find chen in the sight of my master.

9 And Esav said, I have enough, my brother; keep what you have for yourself.

10 And Yaakov said, No, Please, if now I have found chen in your sight, then receive my present from my hand: because I see your face towards me, as though I had seen the face of Ahlohim and you were pleased with me.

11 Please take my bracha that is brought to you; because Ahlohim has dealt with me through unmerited chen and because I have enough. And he urged him and Esav took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey and let us go and I will go before you.

13 And he said to him, My master knows that the children are tender and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one yom, all the flock will die.

14 Please let my master pass over before his eved. And I will journey on gently, according to the pace of the cattle that goes before me and the pace that the children are able to endure, until I come to my master to Seir.

15 And Esav said, Let me now leave with you some of the folks that are with me. And Yaakov said, What need do I have for them? Let me find chen in the sight of my master.

16 So Esav returned that yom on his derech to Seir.

17 And Yaakov journeyed to Sukkot and built himself a bayit and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called Sukkot.

18 And Yaakov came intact and healed to a city of Shechem, which is in the land of Kanaan, when he came from Padan-Aram; and camped his tent before the city.

19 And he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of Chamor, Shechem's abba, for one hundred pieces of money.

20 And he erected there an altar and called it El-Elohei-Yisrael.

34 And Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she bore to Yaakov, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And when Shechem the son of Chamor the Hivite, sar of the country, saw her, he took her and lay with her and defiled her.

3 And his being did cleave to Dinah the daughter of Yaakov and he loved the young girl and spoke kindly to the young girl.

4 And Shechem spoke to his abba Chamor, saying, Get me this young girl to be my isha.

5 And Yaakov heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Yaakov held his silence until they had come.

6 And Chamor The Abba of Shechem went out to Yaakov to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Yaakov came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved and they were very angry because he had done folly in Yisrael in lying with Yaakov's daughter; which thing should not to be done.

8 And Chamor communed with them, saying, The being of my son Shechem longs for your daughter: Please give her to him to be his isha.

9 And make many marriages with us and give your daughters to us and take our daughters to you.

10 And you shall dwell with us: and the land shall be before you; dwell and trade in it and get possessions in it.

11 And Shechem said to her abba and to her brothers, Let me find chen in your eyes and what you shall say to me I will give.

12 Ask me much dowry and gift and I will give it according as you shall tell me: but give me the young girl to be my isha.

13 And the sons of Yaakov answered Shechem and Chamor his abba deceitfully because he had defiled Dinah their sister:

14 And they said to them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that has not performed brit-milah; for that would be a reproach to us:

15 But in this request we will consent to you: If you will be as we are, that every male of yours performs brit-milah;

16 Then will we give our daughters to you and we will take your daughters to us and we will dwell with you and we will become one people.

17 But if you will not listen to us, to perform brit-milah; then will we take our daughter and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Chamor and Shechem Chamor's son.

19 And the young man did not hesitate to perform brit-milah because he delighted in Yaakov's daughter: and he was more honorable than all in the bayit of his abba.

20 And Chamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city and communed with the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are in shalom with us; therefore let them dwell in the land and trade in it; for look at the land; it is large enough for them also; let us take their daughters to us for our wives and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only in this manner will the men consent to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us performs brit-milah, as they are in brit-milah.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs become ours? Only let us consent to them and they will dwell with us.

24 And to Chamor and to Shechem his son listened all that went out of the gate of his city; and every male performed brit-milah including all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 And it came to pass on the third yom, when the men were still sore, that two of the sons of Yaakov, Shimon and Lewi, Dinah's brothers, took each man his sword and came upon the city boldly and killed all the males.

26 And they killed Chamor and Shechem his son with the edge of the sword and took Dinah out of Shechem's bayit and went out.

27 The sons of Yaakov came upon the slain and plundered the city because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep and their oxen and their donkeys and that which was in the city and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth and all their little ones and their wives they took captive and plundered even all that was in the bayit.

30 And Yaakov said to Shimon and Lewi, You have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Kanaanites and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me and kill me; and I shall be destroyed, I and also kol Beit Yisrael.

31 And they said to Yaakov, Should he deal with our sister as with a harlot?

35 And Ahlohim said to Yaakov, Arise, go up to Beth-El and dwell there: and make there an altar to El, that appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esav your ach.

2 Then Yaakov said to his household and to all that were with him, Put away the strange ahlahim that are among you and be clean and change your garments:

3 And let us arise and go up to Beth-El; and I will make there an altar to El, who answered me in the yom of my distress and was with me in the derech which I went.

4 And they gave to Yaakov all the strange ahlahim that were in their hands and all their earrings that were in their ears; and Yaakov hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

5 And they journeyed: and the terror of Ahlohim was upon the cities that were around them, so that they did not pursue after the sons of Yaakov.

6 So Yaakov came to Luz, which is in the land of Kanaan, that is, Beth-El, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar and called the place El-Beth-El: because there Ahlohim appeared to him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Devorah Rivkah's nurse died and she was buried beneath Beth-El under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-Bachuth.

9 And Ahlohim appeared to Yaakov again, when he came out of Padan-Aram and blessed him.

10 And Ahlohim said to him, Your name is Yaakov: your name shall not be called anymore Yaakov, but Yisrael shall be your name: and He called his name Yisrael.

11 And Ahlohim said to him, I AM El-Shaddai: be fruitful and multiply; a nation-goy; and a kehilla of goyim-kahal-goyim; shall come from you and melechim shall come out of your loins;

12 And the land that I gave Avraham and Yitzchak, to you I will give it and to your zera after you will I give the land.

13 And Ahlohim went up from him in the place where He talked with him.

14 And Yaakov set up a pillar in the place where He talked with him, even a pillar of stone: and he poured a drink offering on it and he poured oil on it.

15 And Yaakov called the name of the place where Ahlohim spoke with him, Beth-El.

16 And they journeyed from Beth-El; and there was just a little derech to go to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed and she had hard labor.

17 And it came to pass, when she was in hard labor, that the midwife said to her, Fear not; you shall have this son also.

18 And it came to pass, as her chayim was leaving, for she died that she called his name Ben-Oni: but his abba called him Benyamin.

19 And Rachel died and was buried on the derech to Ephrath, which is Beth-Lechem.

20 And Yaakov set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this yom.

21 And Yisrael journeyed and spread his tent beyond the tower of Edar.

22 And it came to pass, when Yisrael dwelt in that land, that Reuven went and lay with Bilhah his abba's concubine: and Yisrael heard of it. Now the sons of Yaakov were twelve:

23 The sons of Leah; Reuven, Yaakov's bachor and Shimon and Lewi and Yahudah and Yissachar and Zevulon:

24 The sons of Rachel; Yoseph and Benyamin:

25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid; Dan and Naphtali:

26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid; Gad and Asher: these are the sons of Yaakov, who were born to him in Padan-Aram.

27 And Yaakov came to Yitzchak his abba at Mamre, to the city of Arbah, which is Chebron, where Avraham and Yitzchak sojourned.

28 And the yamim of Yitzchak were one hundred eighty years.

29 And Yitzchak gave up the ruach and died and was gathered to his people, being old and full of yamim: and his sons Esav and Yaakov buried him.

36 Now these are the generations of Esav, who is Edom.

2 Esav took his wives of the daughters of Kanaan; Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite and Aholivamah the daughter of Anah the daughter of Ziveon the Hivite.

3 And Bashemath Yishma-El's daughter, sister of Nevayoth.

4 And Adah bore to Esav Elifaz; and Bashemath bore Reuel;

5 And Aholivamah bore Yeush and Yaalam and Korach: these are the sons of Esav, which were born to him in the land of Kanaan.

6 And Esav took his wives and his sons and his daughters and all the persons of his bayit and his cattle and all his beasts and all his substance, that he had gotten in the land of Kanaan; and went into the country away from the face of his brother Yaakov.

7 For their riches were more than what would allow them to dwell together; and the land in which they were gerim could not bear them both because of their cattle.

8 So Esav dwelt in Har Seir: Esav is Edom.

9 And these are the generations of Esav The Abba of the Edomites in Har Seir:

10 These are the names of Esav's sons; Elifaz the son of Adah the isha of Esav, Reuel the son of Bashemath the isha of Esav.

11 And the sons of Elifaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho and Gatam and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Elifaz Esav's son; and she bore to Elifaz Amalek: these were the sons of Adah Esav's isha.

13 And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath and Zerach, Shammah and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath Esav's isha.

14 And these were the sons of Aholivamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Ziveon, Esav's isha: and she bore to Esav Yeush and Yaalam and Korach.

15 These were chiefs of the sons of Esav: the sons of Elifaz the bachor son of Esav; chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief Kenaz, 16 Chief Korach, chief Gatam and chief Amalek: these are the chiefs that came of Elifaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.

17 And these are the sons of Reuel Esav's son; chief Nahath, chief Zerach, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah: these are the chiefs that came from Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Bashemath Esav's isha.

18 And these are the sons of Aholivamah Esav's isha; chief Yeush, chief Yaalam, chief Korach: these were the chiefs that came from Aholivamah the daughter of Anah, Esav's isha.

19 These are the sons of Esav, who is Edom and these are their chiefs.

20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan and Shoval and Ziveon and Anah, 21 And Dishon and Ezer and Dishan: these are the chiefs of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the children of Shoval were these; Alvan and Manahath and Eival, Shepho and Onam.

24 And these are the children of Ziveon; both Ayah and Anah: this was that Anah that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the donkeys of Ziveon his abba.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon and Aholivamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; Hemdan and Eshvan and Ithran and Cheran.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan and Zaavan and Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these: Uz and Aran.

29 These are the chiefs that came from the Horites; chief Lotan, chief Shoval, chief Ziveon, chief Anah, 30 Chief Dishon, chief Ezer and chief Dishan: these are the chiefs that came from the Horites, among their chiefs in the land of Seir.

31 And these are the melechim that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any melech over the children of Yisrael.

32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhavah.

33 And Bela died and Yovav the son of Zerach of Bozrah reigned in his place.

34 And Yovav died and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his place.

35 And Husham died and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midyan in the field of Moav, reigned in his place: and the name of his city was Avith.

36 And Hadad died and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place.

37 And Samlah died and Shaul of Rehovoth by the river reigned in his place.

38 And Shaul died and Ba'al-Chanan the son of Achvor reigned in his place.

39 And Ba'al-Chanan the son of Achvor died and Hadar reigned in his place: and the name of his city was Pau; and his isha's name was Mehetavel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahav.

40 And these are the names of the chiefs that came from Esav, according to their mishpachot, after their places, by their names; chief Timnah, chief Alvah, chief Yetheth,

41 Chief Aholivamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon,

42 Chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mivzar,

43 Chief Magdiel, chief Iram: these are the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwellings in the land of their possession: he is Esav The Abba of the Edomites.

Torah Parsha 10 Shavuah-Week 10-Vayeshev Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 37-40. Renewed Covenant Luka-Luke chapters 1-5.

37 And Yaakov dwelt in the land in which his abba was a ger, in the land of Kanaan.

2 These are the generations of Yaakov. Yoseph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers; and the lad was with the sons of Bilhah and with the sons of Zilpah, his abba's wives: and Yoseph brought to his abba evil reports about them.

3 Now Yisrael loved Yoseph more than all his children because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colors.

4 And when his brothers saw that their abba loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and could not speak nicely to him.

5 And Yoseph dreamed a dream and he told it to his brothers: and they hated him even more.

6 And he said to them, Please listen to this dream that I have dreamed:

7 For, see, we were binding sheaves in the field and, see, my sheaf arose and also stood upright; and, see, your sheaves stood all around and bowed to my sheaf.

8 And his brothers said to him, Shall you indeed reign over us? Or, shall you indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

9 And he dreamed another dream and told it his brothers and said, See, I have dreamed yet another dream; and, see, the shemesh and the yarayach and the eleven cochavim bowed down to me.

10 And he told it to his abba and to his brothers: and his abba rebuked him and said to him, What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall your eema and I and your brothers indeed come to bow down to you to the earth?

11 And his brothers envied him; but his abba observed the saying.

12 And his brothers went to feed their abba's flock in Shechem.

13 And Yisrael said to Yoseph, Do not your brothers feed the flock in Shechem? Come and I will send you to them. And he said to him, Hinayne.

14 And he said to him, Please go and see whether things are well with your brothers and well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the Valley of Chebron and he came to Shechem.

15 And a certain man found Yoseph, as he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What are you looking for?

16 And he said, I seek my brothers: Please tell me where they feed their flocks.

17 And the man said, They have departed from here; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Yoseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him far off, even before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him.

19 And they said one to another, See, the dreamer is coming.

20 Come now and let us kill him and cast him into some pit and we will say, Some evil beast has devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And Reuven heard it and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reuven said to them, Shed no dahm, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness and lay no hand upon him; that he might remove him out of their hands, to deliver him to his abba again.

23 And it came to pass, when Yoseph came to his brothers, that they stripped Yoseph of his coat of many colors that was on him.

24 And they took him and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no mayim in it.

25 And they sat down to eat lechem: and they lifted up their eyes and looked and, see, a company of Yishmaelites came from Gilad with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Mitzrayim.

26 And Yahudah said to his brothers, What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his dahm?

27 Come and let us sell him to the Yishmaelites and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and our flesh. And his brothers were content.

28 Then there passed by Midyanite traders; and they drew and lifted up Yoseph out of the pit and sold Yoseph to the Yishma'elym for twenty pieces of silver: and they brought Yoseph into Mitzrayim.

29 And Reuven returned to the pit; and, see, Yoseph was not in the pit; and he tore his clothes.

30 And he returned to his brothers and said, The child is not here; and I, where shall I go?

31 And they took Yoseph's coat and killed a kid of the goats and dipped the coat in the dahm.

32 And they sent the coat of many colors and they brought it to their abba; and said, This have we found: and we don't know whether it be your son's coat, or not.

33 And he knew it and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast has devoured him; Yoseph is without a doubt torn in pieces.

34 And Yaakov tore his clothes and put sackcloth upon his loins and mourned for his son many yamim.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down to Sheol mourning my son. So his abba wept for him.

36 And the Midyanites sold him in Mitzrayim to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

38 And it came to pass at that time that Yahudah departed from his brothers and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Yahudah saw there a daughter of a certain Kanaanite, whose name was Shuah; and he took her and went in to her.

3 And she conceived and bore a son; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again and bore a son; and she called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived and bore a son; and called his name Shelach: and he was at Chezib, when she bore him.

6 And Yahudah took an isha for Er his bachor, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er, Yahudah's bachor, was wicked in the sight of אֱלֹהִים; and אֱלֹהִים killed him.

8 And Yahudah said to Onan, Go in to your brother's isha and marry her and raise up zera for your brother.

9 And Onan knew that the zera should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in to his brother's isha, that he spilled it on the ground, lest he should give zera to his brother.

10 And the thing that he did displeased אֱלֹהִים: So He killed him also.

11 Then said Yahudah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at your abba's bayit, until Shelach my son is grown: for he said, Lest suppose he die also, as his brothers did. And Tamar went and dwelt in her abba's bayit.

12 And in process of time the daughter of Shuah Yahudah's isha died; and Yahudah was comforted and went up to his sheepshearers to Timnath, he and his chaver Hirah the Adullamite.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, See your abba-in-law goes up to Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from her and covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself and sat in an open entrance, which is by the derech to Timnath; for she saw that Shelach was grown and she was not given to him to be his isha.

15 When Yahudah saw her, he thought she was a harlot because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned to her by the derech and said, Please go get ready and let me come in to you; for he knew not that she was his daughter in law. – She said, What will you give me that you may come in to me?

17 And he said, I will send you a kid from the flock. And she said, Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give you? And she said, Your signet and your bracelets and your staff that is in your hand. And he gave it her and came in to her and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose and went away and removed her veil from her and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Yahudah sent the kid by the hand of his chaver the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was openly by the wayside? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Yahudah and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in that place.

23 And Yahudah said, Let her take them for herself, lest we be shamed: see, I sent this kid and you have not found her.

24 And it came to pass about three chodashem after, that it was told Yahudah, saying, Tamar your daughter in law has played the harlot; and also, see, she is with child by whoredom. And Yahudah said, Bring her out and let her be burned.

25 When she was brought out, she sent to her abba in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, Please discern, whose are these, the signet and bracelets and staff.

26 And Yahudah acknowledged them and said, She has been more tzadik than I; because that I gave her not to Shelach my son. And he knew her again no more.

27 And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took it and bound upon his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This one came out first,

29 And it came to pass, he drew back his hand, so that his brother came out first: and she said, How have you broken out? This breach is upon you: therefore his name was called Peretz.

30 And afterward came out his brother, who had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called Zerach.

39 And Yoseph was brought down to Mitzrayim; and Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, a Mitzri, bought him from the hands of the Yishmaelites, who had brought him down there.

2 And אִשְׁמָאֵלִיט was with Yoseph and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the bayit of his master the Mitzri.

3 And his master saw that אִשְׁמָאֵלִיט was with him and that אִשְׁמָאֵלִיט made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

4 And Yoseph found chen in his sight and he served him: and he made him overseer over his bayit and all that he had he put into Yoseph's hand.

5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his bayit and over all that he had, that אֱלֹהִים blessed the Mitzri's bayit for Yoseph's sake; and the bracha of אֱלֹהִים was upon all that he had in the bayit and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Yoseph's hand; and he knew not what he had, except the lechem that he did eat. And Yoseph was handsome in form and appearance.

7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's isha cast her eyes upon Yoseph; and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused and said to his master's isha, See, my master does not know what is with me in the bayit and he has committed all that he has to my hand;

9 There is none greater in this bayit than I; neither has he kept back anything from me but you because you are his isha: how then can I do this great wickedness and sin against Ahlohim ?

10 And it came to pass, as she spoke to Yoseph yom by yom, that he listened not to her, to lie with her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Yoseph went into the bayit to do his business; and none of the men of the bayit were there with him.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand and fled outside.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled,

14 That she called to the men of her bayit and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in an Ivri to us to mock us; he came in to me to lie with me and I cried with a loud voice:

15 And it came to pass, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me and fled and went outside.

16 And she placed his garment by her, until his master came home.

17 And she spoke to him according to these words, saying, The Ivri eved, who you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me:

18 And it came to pass, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his isha, which she spoke to him, saying, After this manner did your eved to me; that his anger was lit.

20 And Yoseph's master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the melech's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

21 But אֶרְנָנִי was with Yoseph and showed him rachamim and gave him chen in the sight of the guard of the prison.

22 And the guardian of the prison committed to Yoseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the prison; and whatever they did there, it was his doing.

23 The guardian of the prison looked not at anything that was under his authority; because אֶרְנָנִי was with him and that which he did, אֶרְנָנִי made it to prosper.

40 And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the melech of Mitzrayim and his baker had offended their master the melech of Mitzrayim.

2 And Pharaoh was angry against two of his officers, against the chief of the butlers and against the chief of the bakers.

3 And he put them in prison in the bayit of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Yoseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Yoseph with them and he served them: and they continued a season in prison.

5 And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one lyla, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the melech of Mitzrayim, who were bound in the prison.

6 And Yoseph came in to them in the boker, to check on them and, see, they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the prison of his master's bayit, saying, Why do you look so sad today?

8 And they said to him, We have dreamed a dream and there is no interpreter of it. And Yoseph said to them, Do not interpretations belong to Ahlohim? Please tell them to me.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Yoseph and said to him, In my dream, see, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded and her blossoms shot out; and the clusters of it brought out ripe grapes:

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

12 And Yoseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three yamim:

13 Within three yamim shall Pharaoh lift up your head and restore you to your place: and you shall deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, like in the past when you were his butler.

14 But remember me when it shall be well with you and show chesed, to me and please make mention of me to Pharaoh and bring me out of this bayit:

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Ivrim: and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was tov, he said to Yoseph, I also was in my dream and I had three white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of baked foods for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Yoseph answered and said, This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three yamim:

19 Yet within three yamim shall Pharaoh lift up your head from off of you and shall hang you on an eytz; and the birds shall eat your flesh from off of you.

20 And it came to pass the third yom, which was Pharaoh's birthday, that he made a feast to all his avadim: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his avadim.

21 And he restored the chief butler to his butlership again; and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he hanged the chief baker: as Yoseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet the chief butler did not remember Yoseph, but forgot him.

Torah Parsha 11 Shavuah-Week 11-Miqeitz
Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 41-44. Renewed
Covenant Luka-Luke chapters 6-10.

41 And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed: and, see, he stood by the river.

2 And, see, there came up out of the river seven well-favored cows; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And, see, seven other cows came up after them out of the river, ill-favored and lean; and stood by the other cows upon the edge of the river.

4 And the ugly and lean cows did eat up the seven well-favored and fat cows. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, see, seven ears of grain came up upon one stalk, abundant and tov.

6 And, see, seven thin ears blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven abundant and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke and, see, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the boker that his ruach was troubled; and he sent and called for all the magicians of Mitzrayim and all the wise men: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them to Pharaoh.

9 Then spoke the chief butler to Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this yom:

10 Pharaoh was angry with his avadim and put me in prison in the captain of the guard's bayit, both me and the chief baker:

11 And we dreamed a dream in one lyla, both he and I; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Ivri, an eved to the captain of the guard; and we told him and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored to my office and him he hanged.

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Yoseph and they brought him quickly out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself and changed his clothing and came in to Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, I have dreamed a dream and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard it said of you, that you can understand a dream to interpret it.

16 And Yoseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: Ahlohim shall give Pharaoh an answer with shalom.

17 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, In my dream, see, I stood upon the bank of the river:

18 And, see, there came up out of the river seven cows, fat-fleshed and well-favored; and they fed in a meadow:

19 And, see, seven other cows came up after them, poor and very ugly and lean, such as I never saw in all the land of Mitzrayim for ugliness:

20 And the lean and the ill-favored cows did eat up the first seven fat cows:

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were ugly, as at the beginning. So I awoke.

22 And I saw in my dream and, see; seven ears came up in one stalk, full and tov:

23 And, see, seven ears, withered, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven tov ears: and I told this to the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.

25 And Yoseph said to Pharaoh, The dreams of Pharaoh are echad: Ahlohim has showed Pharaoh what He is about to do.

26 The seven tov cows are seven years; and the seven tov ears are seven years: the dream is echad.

27 And the seven thin and ugly cows that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

28 This is the thing that I have spoken to Pharaoh:
What Ahlohim is about to do he shows to Pharaoh.

29 See, there comes seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of Mitzrayim:

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Mitzrayim; and the famine shall consume the land;

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of the famine following, for it shall be very severe.

32 And because the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice; it is because the thing is established by Ahlohim and Ahlohim will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh seek for a man discreet and wise and set him over the land of Mitzrayim.

34 Let Pharaoh do this and let him appoint officers over the land and take up the fifth part of the land of Mitzrayim in the seven plentiful years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those tov years that come and lay up grain under the hand of Pharaoh and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be a reserve for the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Mitzrayim; so that the land perishes not through the famine.

37 And the thing was tov in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his avadim.

38 And Pharaoh said to his avadim, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom is The Ruach of Ahlohim ?

39 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, Seeing that Ahlohim has showed you all this, there is none so discreet and wise as you are:

40 You shall be over all my bayit and according to your word shall all my people be ruled: only in the kesay will I be greater than you.

41 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, See, I have set you over all the land of Mitzrayim.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand and put it upon Yoseph's hand and prepared him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck;

43 And he made him to ride in the second mirkavah that he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Mitzrayim.

44 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, I am Pharaoh and without you shall no man lift up his hand, or foot in all the land of Mitzrayim.

45 And Pharaoh called Yoseph's name Zaphnath-Paaneah; and he gave him as his isha Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah kohen of On. And Yoseph went out over all the land of Mitzrayim.

46 And Yoseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim. And Yoseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh and went throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

47 And in the seven plentiful years the earth brought out by handfuls.

48 And he gathered up all the food for the seven years, which was in the land of Mitzrayim and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was all around every city, he laid up the same.

49 And Yoseph gathered much grain as the sand of the sea, until he stopped numbering; for it was without number.

50 And to Yoseph were born two sons before the years of famine came, which Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah kohen of On bore to him.

51 And Yoseph called the name of the bachor Menasheh: For he said Ahlohim, has made me forget all my toil and all my past in my abba's bayit.

52 And the name of the second son he called Efrayim: For Ahlohim has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.

53 And the seven years of plenty that was in the land of Mitzrayim, had ended.

54 And the seven years of scarcity began to come, according to what Yoseph had said: and the scarcity was in all lands; but in all the land of Mitzrayim there was lechem.

55 And when all the land of Mitzrayim was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for lechem: and Pharaoh said to all the Mitzrim, Go to Yoseph; what he says to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Yoseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Mitzrim; and the famine grew very severe in the land of Mitzrayim.

57 And all countries came into Mitzrayim to Yoseph to buy grain because the famine was so severe in all the lands.

42 Now when Yaakov saw that there was grain in Mitzrayim, Yaakov said to his sons, Why do you look at each other?

2 And he said, See, I have heard that there is grain in Mitzrayim: go down there and buy from there; that we may live and not die.

3 And Yoseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain in Mitzrayim.

4 But Benyamin, Yoseph's brother, Yaakov did not send with his brothers; for he said, Perhaps mischief may befall him.

5 And the sons of Yisrael came to buy grain among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Kanaan.

6 And Yoseph was the governor over the land and it was he that sold to all the people of the land: and Yoseph's brothers came and bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Yoseph saw his brothers and he knew them, but made himself strange to them and spoke roughly to them; and he said to them, Where do you come from? And they said, From the land of Kanaan to buy food.

8 And Yoseph knew his brothers, but they knew him not.

9 And Yoseph remembered the dreams that he dreamed about them and said to them, You are spies; You have come only to see the secrets and operations of the land.

10 And they said to him, No, my master, but to buy food have your avadim come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are upright men; your avadim are not spies.

12 And he said to them, No, but to see the operations of the land you have come.

13 And they said, Your avadim are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Kanaan; and, see, the youngest is this yom with our abba and one is not.

14 And Yoseph said to them, That is it what I spoke to you, saying, You are spies:

15 Hereby you shall be proven: By the chayim of Pharaoh you shall not go out from here, except your youngest brother come here.

16 Send one of you and let him get your brother and you shall be kept in prison, that your words may be proven, whether there be any emet in you: or else by the chayim of Pharaoh surely you are spies.

17 And he put them all into the prison for three yamim.

18 And Yoseph said to them the third yom, This do and live; for I fear Ahlohim

19 If you are upright men, let one of your brothers be bound in the bayit of your prison: but go, carry grain for the famine of your houses:

20 But bring your youngest brother to me; so shall your words be verified and you shall not die. And they did so.

21 And they said one to another, We are truly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his being, when he begged us and we would not listen; therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuven answered them, saying, Did not I warn you not to sin against the child; and you would not listen? Therefore, see, now his dahm is required.

23 And they knew not that Yoseph understood them, for he spoke to them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself around from them and wept; and returned to them again and communed with them and took from them Shimon and bound him before their eyes.

25 Then Yoseph commanded to fill their sacks with grain and to restore every man's money into his sack and to give them provision for the derech: and this he did for them.

26 And they loaded their donkeys with the grain and departed there.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder in the inn, he saw his money; for, see, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said to his brothers, My money is restored; and, see, it is even in my sack: and their levavot failed them and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that Ahlohim has done to us?

29 And they came to Yaakov their abba to the land of Kanaan and told him all that happened to them; saying,

30 The man, who is master of the land, spoke roughly to us and saw us as spies of his country.

31 And we said to him, We are upright men; we are not spies:

32 We are twelve brothers, sons of our abba; one is not and the youngest is this yom with our abba in the land of Kanaan.

33 And the man, the master of the country, said to us, Hereby shall I know that you are upright men; leave one of your brothers here with me and take food for the famine of your households and go:

34 And bring your youngest brother to me: then shall I know that you are not spies, but that you are upright men: so I will deliver your brother to you and you shall move around freely in the land.

35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, see, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their abba saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Yaakov their abba said to them, All of you have bereaved me of my children: Yoseph is not and Shimon is not and now you will take Benyamin away: all these things are done against me.

37 And Reuven spoke to his abba, saying, Slay my two sons, if I bring him not back to you: deliver him into my hand and I will bring him to you again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead and he is left alone: if mischief befalls him by the derech in which you go, then shall you bring down my old age with sorrow to Sheol.

43 And the famine was severe in the land.

2 And it came to pass, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought out of Mitzrayim, their abba said to them, Go again, buy us a little more food.

3 And Yahudah spoke to him, saying, The man did solemnly warn us, saying, You shall not see my face, except your brother is with you.

4 If you will send our brother with us, we will go down and buy you food:

5 But if you will not send him, we will not go down: for the man said to us, You shall not see my face, except your brother is with you.

6 And Yisrael said, Why did you deal so badly with me, so as to tell the man whether you had another brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us persistently of our state and of our mishpacha, saying, Is your abba yet alive? Have you another brother? And we answered him according to these words: how could we have known that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Yahudah said to Yisrael his abba, Send the lad with me and we will arise and go; that we may live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones.

9 I will be guarantor for him; of my hand shall you require him: if I bring him not to you and set him again before you, then let me bear the blame leolam-va-ed:

10 For if we had not lingered, surely by now we would have returned this second time.

11 And their abba Yisrael said to them, If it must be so now, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels and carry down a present to the man, a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds:

12 And take double money in your hand; and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hand; It could have been a mistake.

13 Take also your brother and arise, go again to the man:

14 And El-Shaddai give you rachamim before the man, that he may send away your other brother and Benjamin. If I will be bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 And the men took that present and they took double money in their hand and Benjamin; and rose up and went down to Mitzrayim and stood before Yoseph.

16 And when Yoseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his bayit, Bring these men home and make a slaughtering and make ready; for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Yoseph asked; and the man brought the men into Yoseph's bayit.

18 And the men were afraid because they were brought into Yoseph's bayit; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time are we brought in; that he may seek occasion against us and fall upon us and take us for avadim and our donkeys.

19 And they came near to the steward of Yoseph's bayit and they communed with him at the door of the bayit,

20 And said, O sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food:

21 And it came to pass, when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks and, see, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hand.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Shalom be to you, fear not: your Ahlohim and the Ahlohim of your abba, has given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Shimon out to them.

24 And the man brought the men into Yoseph's bayit and gave them mayim and they washed their feet; and he gave their donkeys fodder.

25 And they made ready the present for Yoseph's coming at noon: for they heard that they should eat lechem there.

26 And when Yoseph came home, they brought him the present that was in their hand into the bayit and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare and said, Is your abba well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Your eved our abba is in tov health, he is yet alive. And he said, Blessed be that man by Ahlohim! And they bowed down their heads and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benyamin, his eema's son and said, Is this your younger brother, about whom you spoke to me? And he said, Ahlohim give you unmerited chen, my son.

30 And Yoseph hurried; for his emotions did yearn for his brother: and he sought somewhere to weep; and he entered into his room and wept there.

31 And he washed his face and went out and restrained himself and said, Serve the food.

32 And they set the shulchan for him by himself and for them by themselves and for the Mitzrim by themselves because the Mitzrim do not eat lechem with the Ivrim, for that is an abomination to the Mitzrim.

33 And they sat before him, the bachor according to his bechora and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marveled at one another.

34 And he took and sent portions to them from before him: but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they drank and had simcha with him.

44 And he commanded the steward of his bayit, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest and his grain money. And he did according to the word that Yoseph had spoken.

3 As soon as the boker was ohr, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 And when they had gone out of the city, not that far off, Yoseph said to his steward, Rise up, follow the men; and when you do overtake them, say to them, Why have you rewarded evil for tov?

5 Is not this cup the one from which my master drinks and by which he divines? You have done evil in so doing.

6 And he overtook them and he spoke to them these same words.

7 And they said to him, Why says my master these words? Ahlohim forbid that your avadim should do according to this thing:

8 See, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to you out of the land of Kanaan: why then should we steal out of your master's bayit his silver, or gold?

9 With whoever of your avadim it is found, let him die and we also will be my master's avadim.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according to your words; he with whom it is found shall be my eved; and you shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched and began at the eldest and stopped at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

13 Then they tore their clothes and loaded every man his donkey and returned to the city.

14 And Yahudah and his brothers came to Yoseph's bayit; for he was still there: and they fell before him to the ground.

15 And Yoseph said to them, What deed is this that you have done? Did you not know that such a man as I can certainly divine?

16 And Yahudah said, What shall we say to my master? What shall we speak? Or, how shall we clear ourselves? Ahlohim has found out the iniquity of your avadim: see, we are my master's avadim, both we and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, Ahlohim forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my eved; and as for the rest of you, go in shalom to your abba.

18 Then Yahudah came near to him and said, Oh my master; please let your eved speak a word in my master's ears and let not your anger burn against your eved: for you are even as Pharaoh.

19 My master asked his avadim, saying, Have you an abba, or a brother?

20 And we said to my master, We have an abba, an old man and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead and he alone is left of his eema and his abba loves him.

21 And you did say to your avadim, Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes upon him.

22 And we said to my master, The lad cannot leave his abba: for if he should leave his abba, his abba would die.

23 And you did say to your avadim, Except your youngest brother comes down with you, you shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to pass when we came up to your eved my abba, we told him the words of my master.

25 And our abba said, Go again and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother will be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the man's face, unless our youngest brother be with us.

27 And your eved my abba said to us, You know that my isha bore me two sons:

28 And the one went out from me and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since:

29 And if you take this one also from me and mischief befall him, you shall bring down my old age with sorrow to Sheol.

30 Now therefore when I come to your eved my abba and the lad is not with us; seeing that his chayim is bound up in the lad's chayim;

31 It shall come to pass, when he sees that the lad is not with us, that he will die: and your avadim shall bring down the old age of your eved our abba with sorrow to Sheol.

32 For I, your eved became guarantor for the lad to my abba, saying, If I bring him not again to you, then I shall bear the blame to my abba le-olam-va-ed.

33 Now therefore, please, let your eved stay instead of the lad as an eved to my master; and let the lad go up with his brothers.

34 For how shall I go up to my abba and the lad be not with me? For then I will see the evil that would come on my abba.

Torah Parsha 12 Shavuah-Week 12-V'lo Yachol Beresheeth-Genesis chapters 45-48. Renewed Covenant Luka-Luke chapters 11-15.

45 Then Yoseph could not restrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Make every man to go out from me. And there stood no man with him, while Yoseph made himself known to his brothers.

2 And he wept aloud: and the Mitzrim and the bayit of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Yoseph said to his brothers, I am Yoseph; does my abba still live? And his brothers could not answer him; for they were trembling at his presence.

4 And Yoseph said to his brothers, Come near to me please. And they came near. And he said, I am Yoseph your brother, whom you sold into Mitzrayim.

5 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves that you sold me here: for Ahlohim did send me before you to preserve chayim.

6 For these two years have the famine been in the land: and yet there are still five more years, in which there shall be neither plowing nor harvest.

7 And Ahlohim sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

8 So now it was not you that sent me here, but Ahlohim: and He has made me an abba to Pharaoh and master of all his bayit and a ruler throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

9 Hurry and go up to my abba and say to him, This says your son Yoseph, Ahlohim has made me master of all Mitzrayim: come down to me, do not delay:

10 And you shall dwell in the land of Goshen and you shall be near to me, you and your children and your children's children and your flocks and your herds and all that you have:

11 And there will I nourish you; for there are still five years of famine; lest you and your household and all that you have, come to poverty.

12 And, look, your eyes see and the eyes of my brother Benyamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you.

13 And you shall tell my abba of all my tifereth in Mitzrayim and of all that you have seen; and you shall hurry and bring my abba down here.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benyamin's neck and wept; and Benyamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brothers and wept upon them: and after that his brothers talked with him.

16 And the report was heard in Pharaoh's bayit, saying, Yoseph's brothers have come: and it pleased Pharaoh well and his avadim.

17 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, Say to your brothers, This do; load your beasts and go, into the land of Kanaan;

18 And take your abba and your households and come to me: and I will give you the tov of the land of Mitzrayim and you shall eat the fat of the land.

19 Now you are commanded, this do; take wagons out of the land of Mitzrayim for your little ones and for your wives and bring your abba and come.

20 Also do not worry about your items; for the tov of all the land of Mitzrayim is now yours.

21 And the children of Yisrael did so: and Yoseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh and gave them provision for the derech.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of clothing; but to Benyamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing.

23 And to his abba he sent the following; ten donkeys loaded with the tov things of Mitzrayim and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and lechem and food for his abba by the derech.

24 So he sent his brothers away and they departed: and he said to them, See that you don't quarrel on the derech.

25 And they went up out of Mitzrayim and came into the land of Kanaan to Yaakov their abba, 26 And told him, saying, Yoseph is still alive and he is governor over all the land of Mitzrayim. And Yaakov's lev fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Yoseph that he had said to them: and when he saw the wagons that Yoseph had sent to carry him, the ruach of Yaakov their abba revived:

28 And Yisrael said, It is enough; Yoseph my son is still alive: I will go and see him before I die.

46 And Yisrael took his journey with all that he had and came to Beer-Sheva and offered sacrifices to the Ahlohim of his abba Yitzchak.

2 And Ahlohim spoke to Yisrael in the visions of the lyla and said, Yaakov, Yaakov. And he said, Hinayne.

3 And He said, I AM EI, the EI of your abba: fear not to go down into Mitzrayim; for I will there make of you a great nation – a goy gadol:

4 I will go down with you into Mitzrayim; and I will also surely bring you up again: and Yoseph shall put his hand upon your eyes.

5 And Yaakov rose up from Beer-Sheva: and the sons of Yisrael carried Yaakov their abba and their little ones and their wives, in the wagons that Pharaoh had sent to carry him.

6 And they took their cattle and their items, which they had gotten in the land of Kanaan and came into Mitzrayim, Yaakov and all his zera with him:

7 His sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters and all his zera he brought with him into Mitzrayim.

8 And these are the names of the children of Yisrael, who came into Mitzrayim, Yaakov and his sons: Reuven, Yaakov's bachor.

9 And the sons of Reuven; Hanoch and Phallu and Hetzron and Carmi.

10 And the sons of Shimon; Yemu-El and Yamin and Ohad and Yachin and Tzoar and Shaul the son of a Canaanitish woman.

11 And the sons of Lewi; Gershon, Qehath and Merari.

12 And the sons of Yahudah; Er and Onan and Shelach and Peretz and Zerach: but Er and Onan died in the land of Kanaan. And the sons of Peretz were Hetzron and Hamul.

13 And the sons of Yissachar; Tola and Phuvah and Iyov and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zevulon; Sered and Elon and Yahle-El.

15 These are the sons of Leah, which she bore to Yaakov in Padan-Aram, with his daughter Dinah: all the beings of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.

16 And the sons of Gad; Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezvon, Eri and Arodi and Areli.

17 And the sons of Asher; Yimnah and Ishuah and Isui and Beriyah and Serah their sister: and the sons of Beriyah; Hever and Malchi-El.

18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Lavan gave to Leah his daughter and these she bore to Yaakov, even sixteen beings.

19 The sons of Rachel Yaakov's isha; Yoseph and Benyamin.

20 And to Yoseph in the land of Mitzrayim were born Menasheh and Efrayim, who Asenath the daughter of Poti-Pherah kohen of On bore to him.

21 And the sons of Benyamin were Belah and Becher and Ashvel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim and Huppim and Ard.

22 These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Yaakov: all the beings were fourteen.

23 And the son of Dan; Hushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali; Yahze-El and Guni and Yezer and Shillem.

25 These are the sons of Bilhah, who Lavan gave to Rachel his daughter and she bore these to Yaakov: all the beings were seven.

26 All the beings that came with Yaakov into Mitzrayim, who came out of his loins, besides Yaakov's sons' wives, all the beings were sixty-six.

27 And the sons of Yoseph, who were born to him in Mitzrayim, were two beings: all the beings of Beit Yaakov, who came into Mitzrayim, were seventy-five.

28 And he sent Yahudah before him to Yoseph, to direct his face to Goshen; and they came into the land of Goshen.

29 And Yoseph made ready his mirkavah and went up to meet Yisrael his abba, in Goshen and presented himself before him; and he fell on his neck and wept on his neck a long while.

30 And Yisrael said to Yoseph, Now let me die, since I have seen your face because you are still alive.

31 And Yoseph said to his brothers and to his abba's bayit, I will go up and show Pharaoh and say to him, My brothers and my abba's bayit, who were in the land of Kanaan, have come to me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade has been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you and shall say, What is your occupation?

34 That you shall say, Your avadim's trade has been with cattle from our youth even until now, both we and also our ahvot: that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Mitzrim.

47 Then Yoseph came and told Pharaoh and said, My abba and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they have, came out of the land of Kanaan; and, see, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brothers, even five men and presented them to Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said to his brothers, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Your avadim are shepherds, both we and also our ahvot.

4 They said moreover to Pharaoh, To sojourn in the land we have come; for your avadim have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is severe in the land of Kanaan: therefore we ask you, let your avadim dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spoke to Yoseph, saying, Your abba and your brothers have come to you:

6 The land of Mitzrayim is before you; in the best of the land make your abba and brothers to dwell; in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if you know any able men among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

7 And Yoseph brought in Yaakov his abba and set him before Pharaoh: and Yaakov blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said to Yaakov, How old are you?

9 And Yaakov said to Pharaoh, The yamim of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred thirty years: few and evil have the yamim of the years of my chayim been and I have not attained to the yamim of the years of the chayim of my ahvot in the yamim of their pilgrimage.

10 And Yaakov blessed Pharaoh and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Yoseph placed his abba and his brothers and gave them a possession in the land of Mitzrayim, in the best of the land, in the land of Raamses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Yoseph nourished his abba and his brothers and his abba's entire household, with lechem, according to their mishpachot.

13 And there was no lechem in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Mitzrayim and all the land of Kanaan grew weak because of the famine.

14 And Yoseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Mitzrayim and in the land of Kanaan, for the grain which they bought: and Yoseph brought the money into Pharaoh's bayit.

15 And when money failed in the land of Mitzrayim and in the land of Kanaan, all the Mitzrim came to Yoseph and said, Give us lechem: for why should we die in your presence? For the money is gone.

16 And Yoseph said, Give me your cattle; and I will give you food for your cattle, if the money is gone.

17 And they brought their cattle to Yoseph: and Yoseph gave them lechem in exchange for horses and for the flocks and for the cattle of the herds and for the donkeys: and he fed them with lechem for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year ended, they came to him the second year and said to him, We will not hide it from my master, how that our money is spent; my master also has our herds of cattle; there is nothing left in the sight of my master, but our bodies and our lands:

19 Why shall we die before your eyes, both our land and us? Buy us and our land for lechem and we will be avadim to Pharaoh: and give us zera, that we may live and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Yoseph bought all the land of Mitzrayim for Pharaoh; for the Mitzrim sold every man his field because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Mitzrayim even to the other end of it.

22 Only the land of the kohanim bought he not; for the kohanim had a portion assigned to them by Pharaoh and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: That is why they did not sell their lands.

23 Then Yoseph said to the people, See, I have bought you this yom and your land for Pharaoh: look, here is zera for you and you shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that you shall give the fifth part to Pharaoh and four parts shall be your own, for zera of the field and for your food and for those of your households and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, You have saved our lives: let us find chen in the sight of my master and we will be Pharaoh's avadim.

26 And Yoseph made it a law over the land of Mitzrayim to this yom, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part; except the land of the kohanim, which did not become Pharaoh's.

27 And Yisrael dwelt in the land of Mitzrayim, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions in it and grew and multiplied exceedingly.

28 And Yaakov lived in the land of Mitzrayim seventeen years: so the full age of Yaakov was a hundred forty seven years.

29 And the time drew near that Yisrael must die: and he called his son Yoseph and said to him, If now I have found chen in your sight, Please put your hand under my thigh for the oath and deal in chesed and emet with me. Please do not bury me in Mitzrayim:

30 But I will lie with my ahvot and you shall carry me out of Mitzrayim and bury me in their burial-place.

And he said, I will do as you have said.

31 And he said, Swear to me. And he swore to him. And Yisrael bowed himself upon the bed's head.

48 And it came to pass after these things, that one told Yoseph, See, your abba is sick: and he took with him his two sons, Menasheh and Efrayim.

2 And one told Yaakov and said, See, your son Yoseph comes to you: and Yisrael strengthened himself and sat upon the bed.

3 And Yaakov said to Yoseph, El-Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in the land of Kanaan and blessed me,

4 And said to me, See, I will make you fruitful and multiply you and I will make you into a kehilla of goyim – le-kahal amim; and will give this land to your zera after you for an everlasting possession.

5 And now your two sons, Efrayim and Menasheh, who were born to you in the land of Mitzrayim before I came to you in Mitzrayim, are mine; as Reuven and Shimon, they shall be mine.

6 And your issue, which you beget after them, shall be yours and shall be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance.

7 And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died next to me in the land of Kanaan on the derech, when yet there was but a little derech to come to Ephrath: and I buried her there in the derech of Ephrath; the same is Beth-Lechem.

8 And Yisrael beheld Yoseph's sons and said, Who are these?

9 And Yoseph said to his abba, They are my sons, whom Ahlohim has given me in this place. And he said, Please bring them to me and I will bless them.

10 Now the eyes of Yisrael were dim for age, so that he could not see. And he brought them near to him; and he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Yisrael said to Yoseph, I had not thought to see your face ever again: and, see, Ahlohim has showed me also your zera.

12 And Yoseph brought them out from between his knees and he bowed himself with his face to the earth.

13 And Yoseph took them both, Efrayim in his right hand toward Yisrael's left hand and Menasheh in his left hand toward Yisrael's right hand and brought them near to him.

14 And Yisrael stretched out his right hand and laid it upon Efrayim's head, who was the younger and his left hand upon Menasheh's head, guiding his hands knowingly; for Menasheh was the bachor.

15 And he blessed Yoseph and said, Ahlohim, before whom my ahvot Avraham and Yitzchak did have their halacha, the Ahlohim who fed me all my chayim long to this yom, 16 The Malach who redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name-Yisrael be named on them, and the name of my ahvot Avraham and Yitzchak; and let them grow into a multitude like fish –vayi-dag-oo lerov in the midst of the earth.

17 And when Yoseph saw that his abba laid his right hand upon the head of Efrayim, it displeased him: and he held up his abba's hand, to remove it from Efrayim's head to Menasheh's head.

18 And Yoseph said to his abba, Not so, my abba: for this is the bachor; put your right hand upon his head.

19 And his abba refused and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than him and his zera shall become the fullness of the goyim – melo ha-goyim.

20 And he blessed them that yom, saying, By you shall Yisrael be blessed, saying, Ahlohim make you as Efrayim and as Menasheh: and he set Efrayim before Menasheh.

21 And Yisrael said to Yoseph, See, I die: but Ahlohim shall be with you and bring you again to the land of your ahvot.

22 Moreover I have given to you one shechem above your brothers that I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

49 And Yaakov called to his sons and said,
Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the yamim ha-acharonim.
2 Gather yourselves together, and listen, you sons of Yaakov and listen to Yisrael your abba.
3 Reuven, you are my bachor, my might and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as mayim, you shall not excel; because you went up to your abba's bed; then you defiled it: he went up to my couch.

5 Shimon and Lewi are brothers; instruments of cruelty are in their dwellings.

6 O my being, come not into their secret; let not my kavod, be united to their kehilla: for in their anger they killed a man and in their displeasure and self-will they hamstrung an ox for pleasure.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their anger, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Yaakov and scatter them in Yisrael.

8 Yahudah, you are he whom your brothers shall hallel: your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; your abba's children shall bow down before you.

9 Yahudah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, you have gone up: he stooped down; he couched as a lion and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 The scepter shall not depart from Yahudah nor a lawgiver from between His feet, until Shiloh comes and the things reserved for Him; to Him shall the gathering and the expectation of the goyim be.

11 Binding his foal to the vine and his donkey's colt to the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine and his clothes in the dahm of grapes:

12 His eyes shall be red with wine and his teeth white with milk.

13 Zevulon shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for a haven of ships; and his border shall be to Tzidon.

14 Yissachar is a strong donkey couching down between two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was tov and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear and became an eved to tribute.

16 Dan shall judge his people, as one of the tribes of Yisrael.

17 Dan shall be a serpent in The Derech, an adder in the derech that bites the horse's heels, so that its Rider shall fall backward.

18 I have waited for Your YAHUSHA, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

19 Gad, a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the end.

20 Out of Asher his lechem shall be fat and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 Naphta is a deer let loose: he gives beautiful words.

22 Yoseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall:

23 The archers have severely grieved him and shot at him and hated him:

24 But his bow abode in strength and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the Mighty Ahlohim of Yaakov; (from there comes The Shepherd, The Stone of Yisrael)

25 Even by the El of your abba, who shall help you; and by The Almighty, who shall bless you with brachot of the shamayim above, brachot of the deep that lies beneath, brachot of the breasts and of the womb:

26 The brachot of your abba have prevailed above the brachot of my ancestors to the utmost border of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Yoseph and on the keter of the head of him that was separate from his brothers.

27 Benjamin shall tear as a wolf: in the boker he shall devour the prey and at lyla he shall divide the plunder.

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Yisrael: and this is what their abba spoke to them and blessed them; every one according to their bracha, he blessed them.

29 And he charged them and said to them, I am to be gathered to my people: bury me with my ahvot in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, 30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Kanaan, that Avraham bought along with the field of Ephron the Hittite for a possession for a burial-place.

31 There they buried Avraham and Sarah his isha; there they buried Yitzchak and Rivkah his isha; and there I buried Leah.

32 The purchase of the field and of the cave that is there was from the children of Cheth.

33 And when Yaakov had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed and yielded up the ruach and was gathered to his people.

50 And Yoseph fell upon his abba's face and wept upon him and kissed him.

2 And Yoseph commanded his avadim the physicians to embalm his abba: and the physicians embalmed Yisrael.

3 And forty yamim were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the yamim of those who are embalmed: and the Mitzrim mourned for him seventy yamim.

4 And when the yamim of his mourning were past, Yoseph spoke to the bayit of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found chen in your eyes, please speak to Pharaoh, saying,

5 My abba made me swear, saying, See, I desire to die in my grave that I have dug for myself in the land of Kanaan, there shall you bury me. Now therefore let me go up, please and bury my abba and I will return again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury your abba, even as he made you swear.

7 And Yoseph went up to bury his abba: and with him went up all the avadim of Pharaoh, the shamashim of his bayit and all the shamashim of the land of Mitzrayim,

8 And all of Beit Yoseph and his brothers and his abba's bayit: only their little ones and their flocks and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both mirkavot and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is beyond the Yarden River and there they mourned with a great and very severe lamentation: and he mourned for his abba sheva yamim.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Kanaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a severe mourning for the Mitzrim: Therefore the name of it was called Havel-Mitzrayim, which is beyond the Yarden.

12 And his sons did to him according to all he commanded them:

13 For his sons carried him into the land of Kanaan and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, that Avraham bought along with the field as a possession for a burial-place from Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Yoseph returned into Mitzrayim, he and his brothers and all that went up with him to bury his abba, after he had buried his abba.

15 And when Yoseph's brothers saw that their abba was dead, they said, Yoseph maybe will hate us and will certainly repay us all the evil that we did to him.

16 And they sent a messenger to Yoseph, saying, Your abba did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall you say to Yoseph, Please forgive the trespass of your brothers, for their sin; for they did to you evil: and now, we beg you, forgive the trespass of the avadim of the Ahlohim of your abba.

And Yoseph wept when they spoke to him.

18 And his brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, See, we will be your avadim.

19 And Yoseph said to them, Fear not: for am I in the place of Ahlohim ?

20 But as for you, you thought evil against me; but Ahlohim meant it for tov, to bring to pass, as it is this yom, to save many people alive.

21 Now therefore fear not: I will nourish you and your little ones. And he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

22 And Yoseph dwelt in Mitzrayim, he and his abba's bayit: and Yoseph lived one hundred ten years.

23 And Yoseph saw Efrayim's children until the third generation: the children also of Machir, the son Menasheh, were brought up upon Yoseph's knees.

24 And Yoseph said to his brothers, I will soon die: and Ahlohim will surely visit you and bring you out of this land to the land which he swore to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov.

25 And Yoseph took an oath from the children of Yisrael, saying, Ahlohim will surely visit you and you shall carry up my bones from here.

26 So Yoseph died, being one hundred ten years old: and they embalmed him and he was put in a coffin in Mitzrayim. X

Exodus-Shemoth

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 Now these are the shemoth of the children of Yisrael, which came into Mitzrayim; every man and his household came with Yaakov.
- 2 Reuven, Shimon, Lewi and Yahudah,
- 3 Yissachar, Zevulun and Benyamin,
- 4 Dan and Naphtali, Gad and Asher.
- 5 And all the beings that came out of the loins of Yaakov were seventy-five beings: for Yoseph was in Mitzrayim already.
- 6 And Yoseph died and all his brothers and all that generation.
- 7 And the children of Yisrael were fruitful and increased abundantly and multiplied and became exceedingly mighty; and the land was filled with them.
- 8 Now there arose up a new melech over Mitzrayim, who knew not Yoseph.
- 9 And he said to his people, See, the people of the children of Yisrael are more and mightier than us:
- 10 Come, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply and it comes to pass, that, when there comes upon us any war, they join with our enemies and fight against us and then leave the land.
- 11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh the treasure cities, of Pithom and Raamses.
- 12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Yisrael.

13 And the Mitzrim made the children of Yisrael to serve with harshness:

14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, with mortar and with brick and with all manner of service in the field: all their service, which they made them serve, was with harshness.

15 And the melech of Mitzrayim spoke to the Ivri midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah and the name of the other Puah:

16 And he said, When you perform the office of a midwife to the Ivri women and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then you shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared Ahlohim and did not obey what the melech of Mitzrayim commanded them, but saved the male children alive.

18 And the melech of Mitzrayim called for the midwives and said to them, Why have you done this thing and have saved the male children alive?

19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, Because the Ivri women are not as the Mitzri women; for they are lively and are delivered before the midwives come in to help them.

20 Therefore Ahlohim dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied and became very mighty.

21 And it came to pass because the midwives feared Ahlohim, that He made them batiym.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born to you, him shall you cast into the river, but every daughter you shall save alive.

2 And there went a man from beit Lewi and took as an isha a daughter of Lewi.

2 And the woman conceived and bore a son: and when she saw that he was a beautiful child, she hid him three chodashem.

3 And when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of wicker and coated it with slime and with pitch and put the child inside; and she laid it in the reeds by the river's bank.

4 And his sister stood far off, to know what would happen to him.

5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her female avadim walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her eved to get it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, see, the baby wept. And she had rachamim on him and said, This is one of the Ivrit children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call for you a nurse from the Ivri women, that she may nurse the child for you?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the eved went and called the child's eema.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take this child away and nurse it for me and I will give you your wages. And the woman took the child and nursed it.

10 And the child grew and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. And she called his name Moshe: and she said, Because I drew him out of the mayim.

11 And it came to pass in those yamim, when Moshe had grown, that he went out to his brothers and looked on their burdens: and he saw a Mitzri smiting an Ivri, one of his brothers.

12 And he looked all around and when he saw that there was no man, he killed the Mitzri and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out the second yom, see, two men of the Ivrim argued together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Why did you smite your neighbor?

14 And he said, Who made you a sar and a shophet over us? Do you intend to kill me, as you killed the Mitzri? And Moshe feared and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moshe. But Moshe fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midyan: and he sat down by a well.

16 Now the kohen of Midyan had seven daughters: and they came and drew mayim and filled the bowls to give mayim to their abba's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moshe stood up and helped them and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to Reu-El their abba, he said, How is it that you came back so soon today?

19 And they said, A Mitzri delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds and also drew enough mayim for us and watered the flock.

20 And he said to his daughters: And where is he? Why is it that you have left the man? Call him, that he may eat a meal.

21 And Moshe was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Moshe Tzipporah his daughter.

22 And she bore him a son and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a ger in a strange land.

23 And it came to pass in due time that the melech of Mitzrayim died: and the children of Yisrael sighed because of the bondage and they cried and their cry came up to Ahlohim because of the bondage.

24 And Ahlohim heard their groaning and Ahlohim remembered His brit with Avraham, with Yitzchak and with Yaakov.

25 And Ahlohim looked upon the children of Yisrael and Ahlohim took note of them.

Shemot-Exodus chapters 3-6. Renewed Covenant
Luka-Luke chapters 21-24.

3 Now Moshe kept the flock of Yithro his abba-in-law, the kohen of Midyan: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert and came to the Har of Ahlohim, even to Horev.

2 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked and, see, the bush burned with fire and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moshe said, I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush is not burned.

4 And when אֱלֹהִים saw that he turned aside to see, Ahlohim called to him out of the midst of the bush and said, Moshe, Moshe. And he said, Hinayne.

5 And He said, Draw not near here: put off your sandals from your feet, for the place on which you stand is kadosh ground.

6 Moreover He said, I AM the Ahlohim of your abba, the Ahlohim of Avraham, the Ahlohim of Yitzchak and the Ahlohim of Yaakov. And Moshe hid his face; for he was afraid to look upon Ahlohim.

7 And אֱלֹהִים said, I have surely seen the affliction of My people which are in Mitzrayim and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

8 And I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Mitzrim and to bring them up out of that land to a lovely and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Kanaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Yevusites.

9 Now therefore, see, the cry of the children of Yisrael has come to Me: and I have also seen the oppression with which the Mitzrim oppress them.

10 Come now therefore and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring forth My people the children of Yisrael out of Mitzrayim.

11 And Moshe said to Ahlohim, Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring forth the children of Yisrael out of Mitzrayim?

12 And He said, Certainly I will be with you; and this shall be an ot to you, that I have sent you: When you have brought forth the people out of Mitzrayim, you shall serve Ahlohim upon this har.

13 And Moshe said to Ahlohim, See, when I come to the children of Yisrael and shall say to them, The Ahlohim of your ahvot has sent me to you; and they shall say to me, What is His Name? What shall I say to them?

14 And The Word of Ahlohim said to Moshe, Eyeh asher eyeh: and He said, This shall you say to the children of Yisrael, EYEH has sent me to you.

15 And Ahlohim said moreover to Moshe, This shall you say to the children of Yisrael, אהרן Ahlohim of your ahvot, the Ahlohim of Avraham, the Ahlohim of Yitzchak and the Ahlohim of Yaakov, has sent me to you: this is My Name le-olam-va-ed and this is My memorial to all generations.

16 Go and gather the zechanim of Yisrael together and say to them, אהרן Ahlohim of your ahvot, the Ahlohim of Avraham, of Yitzchak and of Yaakov, appeared to me, saying, I have surely visited you and have seen that which is done to you in Mitzrayim:

17 And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Mitzrayim to the land of the Kanaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Yevusites, to a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And they shall listen to your voice: and you shall come, you and the zechanim of Yisrael, to the melech of Mitzrayim and you shall say to him, אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the Ivrim has met with us: and now please let us go on a three yamim' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim.

19 And I AM sure that the melech of Mitzrayim will not let you go, no, not even by a mighty hand.

20 And I will stretch out My hand and smite Mitzrayim with all My wonders that I will do in the midst of it: and after that he will let you go.

21 And I will give this people chen in the sight of the Mitzrim: and it shall come to pass, that when you go, you shall not go empty:

22 But every woman shall take from her neighbor and from her that sojourns in her bayit, jewels of silver and jewels of gold and garments: and you shall put them upon your sons and upon your daughters; and you shall plunder the Mitzrim.

4 And Moshe answered and said, But, see, they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice: for they will say, אֱלֹהִים has not appeared to you.

2 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, What is that in your hand? And he said, A rod.

3 And He said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground and it became a serpent; and Moshe fled from before it.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Put forth your hand and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand and caught it and it became a rod in his hand:

5 So that they may believe that אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of their ahvot, the Ahlohim of Avraham, the Ahlohim of Yitzchak and the Ahlohim of Yaakov, has appeared to you.

6 And אִרְאֵל said furthermore to him, Put now your hand into your bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, see, his hand was leprous as snow.

7 And He said, Put your hand back into your bosom again. And he put his hand back into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom and, see, it had turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe you, neither listen to the voice of the first ot, that they will believe the voice of the latter ot.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither listen to your voice, that you shall take from the mayim of the river and pour it upon the dry land: and the mayim which you take out of the river shall become dahm upon the dry land.

10 And Moshe said to אִרְאֵל, O אִרְאֵל, I am not eloquent, neither before, nor since You have spoken to Your eved: but I am slow of speech and of a slow tongue.

11 And אִרְאֵל said to him, Who has made man's mouth? Or, who makes the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? Have not I אִרְאֵל ?

12 Now therefore go and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall say.

13 And he said, O אִרְאֵל, I beg You; by the hand of someone else please send deliverance.

14 And the anger of אִרְאֵל burned against Moshe and He said, Is not Aharon the Lewi your ach? I know that he can speak well. And also, see, he comes forth to meet you: and when he sees you, he will have simcha in his lev.

15 And you shall speak to him and put words in his mouth: and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth and will teach you what you shall do.

16 And he shall be your spokesman to the people: and he shall be to you like a mouth and you shall be to him in Ahlohim 's place.

17 And you shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.

18 And Moshe went and returned to Yithro his abba-in-law and said to him, Let me go, please and return to my brothers who are in Mitzrayim and see whether they still are alive. And Yithro said to Moshe, Go in shalom.

19 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe in Midyan, Go, return into Mitzrayim: for all the men are dead who sought your chayim.

20 And Moshe took his isha and his sons and put them upon a donkey and he returned to the land of Mitzrayim: and Moshe took the rod of Ahlohim in his hand.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, When you go to return to Mitzrayim, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in your hand: but I will harden his lev, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And you shall say to Pharaoh, This said אֱלֹהִים, Yisrael is My Son, even My bachor:

23 And I say to you, Let My Son go, that he may serve Me: and if you refuse to let him go, see, I will slay your son, even your bachor.

24 And it came to pass in the derech at the lodging place that אֱלֹהִים met Moshe and sought to stun him.

25 Then Tzipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her blocked lev, and brought herself to his feet and she said, Surely you are indeed a bridegroom of dahm for me.

26 So אֱלֹהִים let her go: then she said, A bridegroom of dahm you are for me, in order to be brit-milah.

27 And אֱלֹהִים said to Aharon, Go into the wilderness to meet Moshe. And he went and met him on the har of Ahlohim and kissed him.

28 And Moshe told Aharon all the Words of אֱלֹהִים who had sent him and all the signs, which He had commanded him.

29 And Moshe and Aharon went and gathered together all the zechanim of the children of Yisrael:

30 And Aharon spoke all the Words that אֱלֹהִים had spoken to Moshe and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people believed: and when they heard that אֱלֹהִים had visited the children of Yisrael and that He had looked upon their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

5 And afterward Moshe and Aharon went in and told Pharaoh, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, Let My people go, that they may hold a moed to Me in the midbar.

2 And Pharaoh said, Who is this אֱלֹהִים that I should obey His voice to let Yisrael go? I know not אֱלֹהִים, neither will I let Yisrael go.

3 And they said, The Ahlohim of the Ivrim has met with us: let us go for a three yom journey into the desert and sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim; lest He fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the melech of Mitzrayim said to them, Why do you, Moshe and Aharon, take the people away from their work? Get back to your burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, See, the people of the land now are many, and you make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same yom the taskmasters of the people and their officers, saying,

7 You shall no more give the people straw to make bricks, as before: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the same amount of bricks, which they did make before, you shall require it of them; you shall not diminish any of it: for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our Ahlohim.

9 Let even more work be laid upon the men, that they may labor in it; and let them not regard vain words.

10 And the taskmasters of the people went out and their officers and they spoke to the people, saying, This said Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go get your straw wherever you can find it: yet none of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Mitzrayim to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hurried them, saying, Fulfill your work, your daily tasks just like when there was straw.

14 And the foremen of the children of Yisrael, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten and asked, Why have you not fulfilled your task in making bricks both yesterday and today, as before?

15 Then the foremen of the children of Yisrael came and cried to Pharaoh, saying, Why do you treat your avadim this derech?

16 There is no straw given to your avadim and they say to us, Make bricks: and, see, your avadim are beaten; but the fault is with your own people.

17 But he said, You are idle; therefore you say, Let us go and do sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

18 Go therefore now and work; for there shall no straw be given to you, yet shall you deliver the same amount of bricks.

19 And the foremen of the children of Yisrael did see that they were in trouble, after it was said, You shall not diminish any from the bricks of your daily task.

20 And they met Moshe and Aharon, who stood in the derech, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 And they said to them, אֱלֹהִים look upon you and judge; because you have made us to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his avadim, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moshe returned to אֱלֹהִים and said, אֱלֹהִים, why have You done this evil to this people? Why is it that You have sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name, he has done evil to this people; neither have You delivered Your people at all.

6 Then אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Now shall you see what I will do to Pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And Ahlohim spoke to Moshe and said to him, I AM אֱלֹהִים:

3 And I appeared to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, in and as El-Shaddai, but by My Name אֱלֹהִים was I not known to them?

4 And I have also established My brit with them, to give them the land of Kanaan, the land of their pilgrimage, where they were gerim.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Yisrael, whom the Mitzrim keep in bondage; and I have remembered My brit.

6 Therefore say to the children of Yisrael, I AM אֱלֹהִים and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Mitzrim and I will deliver you out of their bondage and I will redeem you with an outstretched Arm, and with great mishpatim:

7 And I will take you to Me for a people and I will be your Ahlohim: and you shall know that I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Mitzrim.

8 And I will bring you in to the land, concerning which I did swear to give it to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov; and I will give it to you for a heritage: I AM אֱלֹהִים.

9 And Moshe spoke this to the children of Yisrael: but they listened not to Moshe because of their anguish of ruach and cruel bondage.

10 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

11 Go in, speak to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, so that he lets the children of Yisrael go out of his land.

12 And Moshe spoke before אֱלֹהִים, saying, See, the children of Yisrael have not listened to me; how then shall Pharaoh listen to me, I who am of untrained lips?

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon and gave them a command for the children of Yisrael and to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, to bring the children of Yisrael out from the land of Mitzrayim.

14 These are the heads of their ahvots' batiym: The sons of Reuven the bachor of Yisrael; Hanoch and Pallu, Hetzron and Carmi: these are the mishpachot of Reuven.

15 And the sons of Shimon, Yemu-El and Yamin and Ohad and Yachin and Zohar and Shaul the son of a Kanaanite woman: these are the mishpachot of Shimon.

16 And these are the names of the sons of Lewi according to their generations; Gershon and Qehath and Merari: and the years of the chayim of Lewi were one hundred thirty seven years.

17 The sons of Gershon; Libni and Shimi, according to their mishpachot.

18 And the sons of Qehath; Amram and Izhar and Chebron and Uzziel: and the years of the chayim of Qehath were one hundred thirty three years.

19 And the sons of Merari; Mahali and Mushi: these are the mishpachot of Lewi according to their generations.

20 And Amram took Yocheved his abba's sister as an isha; and she bore him Aharon and Moshe: and the years of the chayim of Amram were a hundred thirty seven years.

21 And the sons of Izhar; Korach and Nepheg and Zichri.

22 And the sons of Uzzi-El; Misha-El and Elzaphan and Zithri.

23 And Aharon took Elisheva, daughter of Amminadav, sister of Naashon, as an isha; and she bore him Nadav and Avihu, El-Azar and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Korach; Assir and Elchanah and Aviasaph: these are the mishpachot of the Korachites.

25 And El-Azar Aharon's son took one of the daughters of Putiel as an isha; and she bore him Pinchus: these are the heads of the ahvot of the Lewiym according to their mishpachot.

26 These are Aharon and Moshe, to whom אֱלֹהִים said, Bring out the children of Yisrael from the land of Mitzrayim according to their divisions.

27 These are the ones who spoke to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, to bring out the children of Yisrael from Mitzrayim: this is that Moshe and Aharon.

28 And it came to pass on the yom when אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe in the land of Mitzrayim, 29 That אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying, I AM אֱלֹהִים: speak to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim all that I say to you.

30 And Moshe said before אֱלֹהִים, See, I am of untrained lips and why should Pharaoh listen to me?

Torah Parsha 15 Shavuah-Week 15-Re'eh
Ne'tatecha. Shemot-Exodus chapters 7-10.
Renewed Covenant Yochanan-John chapters 1-5.

7 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, See, I have made you like an ahlaim to Pharaoh: and Aharon your brother shall be your navi.

2 You shall speak all that I command you: and Aharon your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, to send the children of Yisrael out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaoh's lev and multiply My signs and My wonders in the land of Mitzrayim.

4 But Pharaoh shall not listen to you, that I may lay My hand upon Mitzrayim and bring forth My divisions and My people the children of Yisrael, out of the land of Mitzrayim by great mishpatim.

5 And the Mitzrim shall know that I AM אֱלֹהִים, when I stretch forth My hand upon Mitzrayim and bring out the children of Yisrael from among them.

6 And Moshe and Aharon did as אֱלֹהִים commanded them; so did they.

7 And Moshe was eighty years old and Aharon eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak to you, saying, Show a miracle for yourselves: then you shall say to Aharon, Take your rod and cast it before Pharaoh and it shall become a serpent.

10 And Moshe and Aharon went in to Pharaoh and they did as אֱלֹהִים had commanded and Aharon cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his avadim and it became a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: and the magicians of Mitzrayim, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod and they became serpents: but Aharon's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And He hardened Pharaoh's lev, so that he listened not to them; as אֱלֹהִים had said.

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Pharaoh's lev is hardened; he refuses to let the people go.

15 Go to Pharaoh in the boker; see, he goes out to the mayim; and you shall stand by the river's bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shall you take in your hand.

16 And you shall say to him, אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the Ivrim has sent me to you, saying, Let My people go, that they may serve Me in the wilderness: and, see, before you would not listen.

17 This says אֱלֹהִים, In this you shall know that I AM אֱלֹהִים: see, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the mayim, which are in the river and they shall be turned to dahm.

18 And the fish that are in the river shall die and the river shall stink; and the Mitzrim shall find it impossible to drink of the mayim of the river.

19 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, Say to Aharon, Take your rod and stretch out your hand upon the mayim of Mitzrayim, upon their streams, upon their rivers and upon their ponds and upon all their pools of mayim, that they may become dahm; and that there may be dahm throughout all the land of Mitzrayim, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moshe and Aharon did so, as אֱלֹהִים commanded; and he lifted up the rod and smote the mayim that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of his avadim; and all the mayim that were in the river were turned to dahm.

21 And the fish that were in the river died; and the river smelled and the Mitzrim could not drink of the mayim of the river; and there was dahm throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

22 And the magicians of Mitzrayim did so with their enchantments: and Pharaoh's lev was hardened, neither did he listen to them; as אֱלֹהִים had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his bayit neither did he set his lev to this also.

24 And all the Mitzrim dug all around the river for mayim to drink; for they could not drink of the mayim of the river.

25 And seven yamim were fulfilled, after אֱלֹהִים had smitten the river.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, Go to Pharaoh and say to him, This says אֱלֹהִים, Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

2 And if you refuse to let them go, see, I will smite all your borders with frogs:

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your bayit and into your bedroom and upon your bed and into the bayit of your avadim and upon your people and into your ovens and into your kneading bowls:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on you and upon your people and upon all your avadim.

5 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, Say to Aharon, Stretch forth your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers and over the ponds and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Mitzrayim.

6 And Aharon stretched out his hand over the mayim of Mitzrayim; and the frogs came up and covered the land of Mitzrayim.

7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments and brought up frogs upon the land of Mitzrayim.

8 Then Pharaoh called for Moshe and Aharon and said, Make tefillah to אֱלֹהֵיךָ, that He may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

9 And Moshe said to Pharaoh, Explain yourself to me: when shall I make tefillah for you and for your avadim and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your batiym, that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, Tomorrow. And Moshe said, Be it according to your word: that you may know that there is none like אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim.

11 And the frogs shall depart from you and from your batiym and from your avadim and from your people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 And Moshe and Aharon went out from Pharaoh: and Moshe cried to אֱלֹהֵיךָ because of the frogs that He had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And אֱלֹהֵיךָ did according to the word of Moshe; and the frogs died out of the batiym, out of the villages and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land smelled.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his lev and listened not to them; as אֱלֹהֵיךָ had said.

16 And אֱלֹהֵיךָ said to Moshe, Say to Aharon, Stretch out your rod and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

17 And they did so; for Aharon stretched out his hand with his rod and smote the dust of the earth and it became lice in man and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

18 And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of Ahlohim: and Pharaoh's lev was hardened and he listened not to them; as אֱלֹהִים had said.

20 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Rise up early in the boker and stand before Pharaoh; see, he comes forth to the mayim; and say to him, This says אֱלֹהִים, Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

21 Or, else, if you will not let My people go, see, I will send swarms of flies upon you and upon your avadim and upon your people and into your batiym: and the batiym of the Mitzrim shall be full of swarms of flies and also the ground where they are.

22 And I will separate in that yom the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; so that you may know that I AM אֱלֹהִים in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put a division between My people and your people: tomorrow shall this ot be.

24 And אֱלֹהִים did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the bayit of Pharaoh and into his avadim's batiym and into all the land of Mitzrayim: the land was ruined by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 And Pharaoh called for Moshe and for Aharon and said, Go, sacrifice to your Ahlohim in the land.

26 And Moshe said, It is not right to do so; for we would be sacrificing the abomination of the Mitzrim to אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim: see, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Mitzrim before their eyes and will they not stone us?

27 We will go three yamim' journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to אלהים our Ahlohim, as He shall command us.

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to אלהים your ahlahim in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away: make tefillah for me.

29 And Moshe said, See, I go out from you and I will make tefillah to אלהים that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his avadim and from his people, tomorrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully anymore in not letting the people go to sacrifice to אלהים.

30 And Moshe went out from Pharaoh and made tefillah to אלהים.

31 And אלהים did according to the word of Moshe; and He removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his avadim and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh hardened his lev at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

9 Then אלהים said to Moshe, Go in to Pharaoh and tell him, This says אלהים Ahlahim of the Ivrim, Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

2 For if you refuse to let them go and will hold them still,

3 See, the Hand of אלהים is upon your cattle that are in the field, upon the horses, upon the donkeys, upon the camels, upon the oxen and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous pestilence.

4 And אלהים shall separate between the cattle of Yisrael and the cattle of Mitzrayim: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children of Yisrael's.

5 And אלהים appointed a set time, saying, Tomorrow אלהים shall do this thing in the land.

6 And אֱלֹהִים did that thing on the next yom and all the cattle of Mitzrayim died: but of the cattle of the children of Yisrael not one died.

7 And Pharaoh sent and, see, there was not one of the cattle of the Yisraelites dead. And the lev of Pharaoh was hardened and he did not let the people go.

8 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe and to Aharon, Take handfuls of ashes of a furnace and let Moshe sprinkle it toward the shamayim in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Mitzrayim and shall be for boils breaking forth with sores upon man and upon beast, throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace and stood before Pharaoh; and Moshe sprinkled it up toward the shamayim; and it became a boil breaking forth with sores upon man and upon beast.

11 And the magicians could not stand before Moshe because of the boils; for the boils were upon the magicians and upon all the Mitzrim.

12 And אֱלֹהִים hardened the lev of Pharaoh and he listened not to them; as אֱלֹהִים had spoken to Moshe.

13 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Rise up early in the boker and stand before Pharaoh and say to him, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the Ivrim, Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

14 For I will at this time send all My plagues upon your lev and upon your avadim and upon your people; that you may know that there is none like Me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out My hand, that I may smite you and your people with pestilence; and you shall be cut off from the earth.

16 And indeed for this cause have I raised you up, for to show in you My Power; and that My Name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 Yet you still exalt yourself against My people, that you will not let them go?

18 See, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Mitzrayim since the foundation of it even until now.

19 Therefore now, send for and gather your cattle and all that you have in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them and they shall die.

20 Those that feared The Word of אֱלֹהִים among the avadim of Pharaoh made their avadim and cattle flee into their batiym:

21 But those that regarded not The Word of אֱלֹהִים left their avadim and their cattle in the field.

22 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Stretch forth your hand toward the shamayim, that there may be hail in all the land of Mitzrayim, upon man and upon beast and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Mitzrayim.

23 And Moshe stretched forth his rod toward the shamayim: and אֱלֹהִים sent thunder and hail and the fire ran along upon the ground; and אֱלֹהִים rained hail upon the land of Mitzrayim.

24 So there was hail and fire mixed with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Mitzrayim since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Mitzrayim all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the field and broke every eytz of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Yisrael were, was there no hail.

27 And Pharaoh sent and called for Moshe and Aharon and said to them, I have sinned this time: אֲנִי אָוֵן is Tzadik and my people and I are wicked.

28 Make tefillah to אֲנִי אָוֵן; for it is enough. Let there be no more mighty thundering and hail; and I will let you go and you shall stay no longer.

29 And Moshe said to Him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to אֲנִי אָוֵן; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be anymore hail; that you may know how that the earth is אֲנִי אָוֵן 's.

30 But as for you and your avadim, I know that you will not yet fear אֲנִי אָוֵן Ahlohim.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: for the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bud.

32 But the wheat and the spelt were not smitten: for they ripen late.

33 And Moshe went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread abroad his hands to אֲנִי אָוֵן : and the thunders and hail ceased and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned yet more and hardened his lev, he and his avadim.

35 And the lev of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Yisrael go; as אֲנִי אָוֵן had spoken by Moshe.

10 And אֲנִי אָוֵן said to Moshe, Go in to Pharaoh: for I have hardened his lev and the lev of his avadim, that I might show these My signs before him:

2 And that you may tell it in the ears of your son and of your son's son, what things I have done in Mitzrayim and My signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I AM אֲנִי אָוֵן.

3 And Moshe and Aharon came in to Pharaoh and said to him, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the Ivrim, How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may serve Me.

4 Or, else, if you refuse to let My people go, see, tomorrow will I bring the locusts into your coast:

5 And they shall cover the face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remains to you from the hail and shall eat every eytz which grows for you out of the field:

6 And they shall fill your batiym and the batiym of all your avadim and the batiym of all the Mitzrim; which neither your ahvot, nor your ahvots' ahvot have seen, since the yom that they were upon the earth to this yom. And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's avadim said to him, How long shall this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve אֱלֹהִים their Ahlohim: Do you not yet know that Mitzrayim is being destroyed?

8 And Moshe and Aharon were brought again to Pharaoh: and he said to them, Go, serve אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim: but who are they that shall go?

9 And Moshe said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a moed to אֱלֹהִים.

10 And he said to them, Let אֱלֹהִים be so with you, as I will let you go and your little ones: but be warned that evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now you that are men and serve אֱלֹהִים; for that is what you did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Stretch out your hand over the land of Mitzrayim for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Mitzrayim and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left.

13 And Moshe stretched forth his rod over the land of Mitzrayim and אִיִּזְרָאֵל brought an east wind upon the land all that yom and all that lyla; and when it was boker, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Mitzrayim and rested in all the coasts of Mitzrayim: very grievous were they; before then there were no such locusts as those, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land and all the fruit of the eytzim which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing on the eytzim, or in the herbs of the field, throughout all the land of Mitzrayim.

16 Then Pharaoh called for Moshe and Aharon in haste; and he said, I have sinned against אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim and against you.

17 Now, therefore, forgive my sin only this once and make tefillah to אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim, that He may take away from me this death.

18 And he went out from Pharaoh and made tefillah to אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

19 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts and cast them into the Yam Suf; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Mitzrayim.

20 But אִיִּזְרָאֵל hardened Pharaoh's lev, so that he would not let the children of Yisrael go.

21 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Moshe, Stretch out your hand toward the shamayim, that there may be darkness over the land of Mitzrayim, even darkness that may be felt.

22 And Moshe stretched forth his hand toward the shamayim; and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Mitzrayim for three yamim:

23 They saw not one another, neither rose anyone from his place for three yamim: but all the children of Yisrael had ohr in their dwellings.

24 And Pharaoh called to Moshe and said, Go, serve אֱלֹהֶיךָ; only let your flocks and your herds stay: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Moshe said, You must give us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not be a hoof left behind; for we must take them to serve אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim; for we know not with what we must serve אֱלֹהֵינוּ, until we come there.

27 But אֱלֹהֵינוּ hardened Pharaoh's lev and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said to him, Get away from me, watch yourself and never see my face again! For in that yom that you see my face, you shall die.

29 And Moshe said, You have spoken well, I will see your face again no more!

Torah Parsha 16 Shavuah-Week 16-Od Nega Echad. Shemot-Exodus chapters 11-14. Renewed Covenant Yochanan-John chapters 6-10.

11 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Moshe, Yet will I bring one more plague upon Pharaoh and upon Mitzrayim; afterwards he will let you go from here: when he shall let you go, he shall surely drive you out from here altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people and let every man ask from his neighbor and every woman from her neighbor, jewels of silver and jewels of gold.

3 And אִיִּצְחָק gave the people chesed in the sight of the Mitzrim. Moreover, the man Moshe was very great in the land of Mitzrayim, in the sight of Pharaoh's avadim and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moshe said, This says אִיִּצְחָק, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Mitzrayim:

5 And all the bachorim in the land of Mitzrayim shall die, from the bachor of Pharaoh that sits upon his kesay, even to the bachor of the female eved that is behind the mill; and all the bachor of the beasts.

6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Mitzrayim, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it anymore.

7 But against any of the children of Yisrael shall no dog move his tongue, against man, or beast: that you may know that אִיִּצְחָק does put a difference between the Mitzrim and Yisrael.

8 And all these your avadim shall come down to Me and bow down themselves to Me, saying, Get out and all the people that follow you. And after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

9 And אִיִּצְחָק said to Moshe, Pharaoh shall not listen to you; that My wonders may be multiplied in the land of Mitzrayim.

10 And Moshe and Aharon did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and אִיִּצְחָק hardened Pharaoh's lev, so that he would not let the children of Yisrael go out of his land.

12 And אִיִּצְחָק spoke to Moshe and Aharon in the land of Mitzrayim, saying,

2 This chodesh shall be for you the beginning of chodashem, Rosh Chodashem: it shall be the first chodesh of the year for you.

3 Speak to all the kehilla of Yisrael, saying, In the tenth yom of this chodesh they shall take for themselves every man a lamb, according to the bayit of their ahvot, a lamb for a bayit:

4 And if the household is too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his bayit take it according to the number of their beings; every man according to his needs you shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: you shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

6 And you shall keep it up until the fourteenth yom of the same chodesh: and the whole assembly of the kehilla of Yisrael shall kill it in between the evenings.

7 And they shall take of the dahm and strike it on the two side posts and on the upper doorpost of their batiym, in which they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that lyla, roasted with fire and matzah; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat none of it raw, nor cooked, or boiled at all with mayim, but roasted with fire; its head with its legs, with the inside parts.

10 And you shall let nothing of it remain until the boker; and that which remains until the boker you shall burn with fire.

11 And this is how you shall eat it; with your loins dressed, your shoes on your feet and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in a great hurry: it is אֶרְבֵּי's Pesach.

12 For I will pass through the land of Mitzrayim this lyla and will smite all the bachor in the land of Mitzrayim, both man and beast; and against all the ahlahim of Mitzrayim I will execute mishpat: I AM אֶרְבֵּי.

13 And the dahm shall be to you for an ot upon the batiym where you are: and when I see the dahm, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Mitzrayim.

14 And this yom shall be to you for a memorial; and you shall shomer it as a moed to אֶתְכֶם throughout your generations; you shall shomer it as a moed by a mishpat le-olam-va-ed.

15 Seven yamim shall you eat matzah; even the first yom you shall put away chametz out of your batiym: for whoever eats lechem with chametz from the first yom until the seventh yom, that being shall be cut off from Yisrael.

16 And in the first yom there shall be a miqra kodesh, and on the seventh yom there shall be a miqra kodesh to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you.

17 And you shall observe Chag Matzoth; for on this very yom have I brought your divisions out of the land of Mitzrayim: therefore shall you observe this yom in your generations by a mishpat le-olam-va-ed.

18 In the first chodesh, on the fourteenth yom of the chodesh between the evenings, you shall eat matzah, until the twenty-first yom of the chodesh at evening.

19 Seven yamim shall there be no chametz found in your batiym: for whoever eats that which is chametz, even that being shall be cut off from the kehilla of Yisrael, whether he be a ger, or born in the land.

20 You shall eat nothing with chametz; in all your dwellings shall you eat matzah.

21 Then Moshe called for all the zechanim of Yisrael and said to them, Choose and take a lamb according to your mishpachot and kill the Pesach.

22 And you shall take a bunch of hyssop and dip it in the dahm that is in the basin and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the dahm that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out the door of his bayit until the boker.

23 For אֱלֹהִים will pass through to smite the Mitzrim; and when He sees the dahm upon the lintel and on the two side posts, אֱלֹהִים will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to come in to your batiym to smite you.

24 And you shall observe this word as a mishpat for you and for your sons le-olam-va-ed.

25 And it shall come to pass, when you have come to the land that אֱלֹהִים will give you, according as He has promised, that you shall shomer this service.

26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say to you, What do you mean by this service?

27 That you shall say, It is the sacrifice of אֱלֹהִים 's Pesach, who passed over the batiym of the children of Yisrael in Mitzrayim, when He smote the Mitzrim and delivered our batiym. And the people bowed their heads and worshipped.

28 And the children of Yisrael went away and did as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe and Aharon, so they did.

29 And it came to pass, that at midnight אֱלֹהִים smote all the bachor in the land of Mitzrayim, from the bachor of Pharaoh that sat on his kesay to the bachor of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the bachor of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the lyla, he and all his avadim and all the Mitzrim; and there was a great cry in Mitzrayim, for there was not a bayit where there was not one dead.

31 And he called for Moshe and Aharon by lyla and said, Rise and get out from among my people, both you and the children of Yisrael; and go, serve אִיִּצְרָאֵל, as you have said.

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as you have said and be gone; and bless me also.

33 And the Mitzrim greatly urged the people, that they might send them out of the land in a great hurry; for they said, We will all be dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was chametz, their kneading bowls being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Yisrael did according to the word of Moshe; and they asked of the Mitzrim jewels of silver and jewels of gold and garments:

36 And אִיִּצְרָאֵל gave the people chen in the sight of the Mitzrim, so that they gave to them such things as they required. And they plundered the Mitzrim.

37 And the children of Yisrael journeyed from Raamses to Sukkot, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Mitzrayim, for it was not chametz; because they were driven out of Mitzrayim and could not delay, neither had they prepared for themselves any food.

40 Now the sojourning of the children of Yisrael, who dwelt in Kanaan and Mitzrayim, was four hundred thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even on the very same yom of their entry, it came to pass, that all the divisions of אִיִּצְרָאֵל went out from the land of Mitzrayim.

42 It is a lyla to be much observed to אִיִּצְרָאֵל for bringing them out from the land of Mitzrayim: this is a lyla to אִרְאֵל to be observed by all the children of Yisrael in all their generations.

43 And אִרְאֵל said to Moshe and Aharon, This is the chuk of the Pesach: There shall no ger eat of it:

44 But every man's eved that is bought for money, when you have performed brit-milah upon him, then shall he eat of it.

45 A foreigner and a hired eved shall not eat of it.

46 In one bayit shall it be eaten; you shall not carry forth any of the flesh outside of the bayit, neither shall you break a bone of it.

47 All the kehilla of Yisrael shall shomer it.

48 And when a ger shall sojourn with you and desires to shomer the Pesach to אִרְאֵל; all his males must perform brit-milah and then let him come near and shomer it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no person that is not brit milah shall eat of it.

49 One Torah shall be for him that is native and for the ger that sojourns among you.

50 This did all the children of Yisrael; as אִרְאֵל commanded Moshe and Aharon, so did they.

51 And it came to pass the very same yom that אִרְאֵל did bring the children of Yisrael out of the land of Mitzrayim by their divisions.

13 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Set Apart to Me all the bachor, whatever opens the womb among the children of Yisrael, both of man and of beast: it is Mine.

3 And Moshe said to the people, Remember this yom, in which you came out from Mitzrayim, out of the bayit of bondage; for by the strength of His Hand אִרְאֵל brought you out from this place: there shall no lechem with chametz be eaten.

4 This yom came you out in the chodesh of Aviv.

5 And it shall be when אִיִּצְרָאֵל shall bring you into the land of the Kanaanites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Hivites and the Yevusites, which He swore to your ahvot to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall shomer this service in this chodesh.

6 Seven yamim you shall eat matzah and in the seventh yom shall be a moed to אִיִּצְרָאֵל.

7 Matzah shall be eaten seven yamim; and there shall no lechem with chametz be seen with you, neither shall there be chametz seen with you in all your borders.

8 And you shall inform your son in that yom, saying, This is done because of what אִיִּצְרָאֵל did for me when I came forth out of Mitzrayim.

9 And it shall be for an ot to you upon your hand and for a memorial between your eyes, that the Torah of אִיִּצְרָאֵל may be in your mouth: for with a strong hand has אִיִּצְרָאֵל brought you out of Mitzrayim.

10 You shall therefore shomer this chuk in its appointed time from year to year.

11 And it shall be when אִיִּצְרָאֵל shall bring you into the land of the Kanaanites, as He swore to you and to your ahvot and shall give it to you,

12 That you shall set apart to אִיִּצְרָאֵל all that pehters the womb and every pehter that comes from a beast which you have; all the males belong to אִיִּצְרָאֵל.

13 And every bachor of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck: and all the bachor males among your children shall you redeem.

14 And it shall be when your son asks you in times to come, saying, What is this? That you shall say to him, By the strength of His Hand אִיִּצְרָאֵל brought us out from Mitzrayim, from the bayit of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that אִיִּצְרָאֵל killed all the bachor in the land of Mitzrayim, both the bachor of man and the bachor of beast: therefore I sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים all that pehters the womb, being males; but all the bachor of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for an ot upon your hand and for a memory between your eyes: for by the strength of His Hand אֱלֹהִים brought us forth out of Mitzrayim.

17 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that Ahlohim led them not through the derech of the land of the Plishtim, although that was near; for Ahlohim said, Lest the people regret when they see war and they return to Mitzrayim:

18 But Ahlohim led the people around, through the derech of the wilderness of the Yam Suf: and the children of Yisrael went up armed out of the land of Mitzrayim.

19 And Moshe took the bones of Yoseph with him: for he had certainly made the children of Yisrael swear, saying, Ahlohim will surely visit you; and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you.

20 And they took their journey from Sukkot and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And אֱלֹהִים went before them by yom in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them in the derech; and by lyla in a pillar of fire, to give them ohr; to go with them by yom and lyla:

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by yom, nor the pillar of fire by lyla, from before the people.

14 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael that they turn and encamp before Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, opposite Ba'al-Tzephon: before it shall you encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Yisrael, They are entangled in the land; the wilderness has shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaoh's lev, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honored through Pharaoh and over all his army; that the Mitzrim may know that I AM אֱלֹהִים. And they did so.

5 And it was told the melech of Mitzrayim that the people fled: and the lev of Pharaoh and of his avadim was turned against the people and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Yisrael go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his mirkavah and took his people with him:

7 And he took six hundred chosen mirkavot and all the mirkavot of Mitzrayim and captains over every one of them.

8 And אֱלֹהִים hardened the lev of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim and he pursued after the children of Yisrael: and the children of Yisrael went out with a high hand.

9 But the Mitzrim pursued after them, all the horses and mirkavot of Pharaoh and his horsemen and his army and overtook them camping by the sea, beside Pi-Hahiroth, before Ba'al-Tzephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Yisrael lifted up their eyes and, see, the Mitzrim marched after them; and they were much afraid: and the children of Yisrael cried out to אֱלֹהִים.

11 And they said to Moshe, Because there were no graves in Mitzrayim, have you now taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you dealt with us in this manner, to carry us forth out of Mitzrayim?

12 Is not this the word that we did tell you in Mitzrayim, saying, Leave us alone, that we may serve the Mitzrim? For it had been better for us to serve the Mitzrim, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 And Moshe said to the people, Fear not, stand still and see the YAHUSHA of אֱלֹהִים, which He will show to you today: for the Mitzrim whom you have seen today, you shall see them again no more le-olam-va-ed.

14 אֲנִי shall fight for you and you shall stay still.

15 And אֲנִי said to Moshe, Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the children of Yisrael that they may go forward:

16 But lift up your rod and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it: and the children of Yisrael shall go on dry ground through the middle of the sea.

17 And I, see, I will harden the levavot of the Mitzrim and they shall follow them: and I will get for Myself kavod through Pharaoh and upon all his armies, upon his mirkavot and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Mitzrim shall know that I AM אֲנִי, when I have gotten kavod for Myself through Pharaoh, his mirkavot and his horsemen.

19 And The Malach-Ahlohim, who went before the camp of Yisrael, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Mitzrim and the camp of Yisrael; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave ohr by lyla to these: so that the one came not near the other all the lyla.

21 And Moshe stretched out his hand over the sea; and אֲנִי caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that lyla and made the sea dry land and the mayim were divided.

22 And the children of Yisrael went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the mayim were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

23 And the Mitzrim pursued and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his mirkavot and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the boker watch אֱלֹהִים looked to the armies of the Mitzrim through the pillar of fire and of the cloud and troubled the army of the Mitzrim,

25 And took off their mirkavah wheels, that they drove them with difficulty: so that the Mitzrim said, Let us flee from the face of Yisrael; for אֱלֹהִים fights for them against the Mitzrim.

26 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the mayim may come again upon the Mitzrim, upon their mirkavot and upon their horsemen.

27 And Moshe stretched forth his hand over the sea and the sea returned to its usual flow when the boker appeared; and the Mitzrim fled right into it; and אֱלֹהִים overthrew the Mitzrim in the midst of the sea.

28 And the mayim returned and covered the mirkavot and the horsemen and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not even one of them alive.

29 But the children of Yisrael walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the mayim were a wall to them on their right hand and on their left.

30 So אֱלֹהִים saved Yisrael that yom out of the hand of the Mitzrim; and Yisrael saw the Mitzrim dead upon the seashore.

31 And Yisrael saw that great work which אֱלֹהִים did upon the Mitzrim: and the people feared אֱלֹהִים and believed אֱלֹהִים and His eved Moshe.

Moshe Shemot-Exodus chapters 15-18. Renewed
Covenant Yochanan-John chapter 11.

15 Then sang Moshe and the children of Yisrael this shir to אֱלֹהִים and spoke, saying, I will sing to אֶלֶּיךָ, for He has triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider has He thrown into the sea.

2 YAH is my strength and shir and He has become my OSWHY: He is my El and I will hallel Him; my abba's Ahlohim and I will exalt Him.

3 אֶלֶּיךָ is a Man of War: אֶלֶּיךָ is His Name.

4 Pharaoh's mirkavot and his army has He cast into the sea: his chosen captains also are drowned in the Yam Suf.

5 The depths have covered them: they sank into the bottom as a stone.

6 Your Right Hand, O אֶלֶּיךָ, has become tifereth in Power: Your Right Hand, O אֶלֶּיךָ, has dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of Your Excellency You have overthrown them that rose up against You: You sent forth Your anger, which consumed them as stubble.

8 And with the blast of Your nostrils the mayim were gathered together, the floods stood upright as a heap and the depths became stiff in the lev of the sea.

9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the plunder; my desire shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.

10 You did blow with Your wind, the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty mayim.

11 Me-chamocha, O אֶלֶּיךָ, among the mighty ones? Who is like You, beautiful in set apartness, awesome in tehilot, doing wonders?

12 You stretched out Your Right Hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 You in Your rachamim have led forth the people whom You have redeemed: You have guided them in Your strength to Your kadosh dwelling.

14 The people shall hear and be afraid: sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.

15 Then the rulers of Edom shall be amazed; the mighty men of Moav, trembling shall take hold upon them; all the inhabitants of Kanaan shall melt away.

16 Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of Your Arm they shall be as still as a stone; until Your people pass over, O אֱלֹהִים, until the people pass over, whom You have purchased.

17 You shall bring them in and plant them in the har of Your inheritance, in the place, O אֱלֹהִים, which You have made for Yourself to dwell in, in the Kadosh-Place, O אֱלֹהִים, that Your hands have established.

18 אֱלֹהִים shall reign le-olam-va-ed.

19 For the horse of Pharaoh went in with his mirkavot and with his horsemen into the sea and אֱלֹהִים brought again the mayim of the sea upon them; but the children of Yisrael went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 And Miryam the neviyah, the sister of Aharon, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miryam answered them, Sing to אֱלֹהִים, for He has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider has He thrown into the sea.

22 So Moshe brought Yisrael from the Yam Suf and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three yamim in the wilderness and found no mayim.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the mayim of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the people murmured against Moshe, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he cried to אֱלֹהִים; and אֱלֹהִים showed him an eytz, which when he had cast into the mayim, the mayim were made sweet: there He made for them a chuk and a mishpat and there He tested them,

26 And said, If you will diligently listen to the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and will do that which is right in His sight and will give ear to His mitzvoth and shomer all His chukim, I will put none of these diseases upon you, which I have brought upon the Mitzrim: for I AM אֱלֹהִים -Rophechah.

27 And they came to Eylim, where were twelve wells of mayim and seventy palm eytzim: and they encamped there by the mayim.

16 And they took their journey from Eylim and all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Eylim and Senai, on the fifteenth yom of the second chodesh after their departing out of the land of Mitzrayim.

2 Then the whole kehilla of the children of Yisrael murmured against Moshe and Aharon in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Yisrael said to them, Would to Ahlohim we had died by the Hand of אֱלֹהִים in the land of Mitzrayim, when we sat by the pots of meat and when we did eat lechem until we were full; for you have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole kehilla with hunger.

4 Then said אֱלֹהִים to Moshe, See, I will rain lechem from the shamayim for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain amount every yom, that I may test them, whether they will have their halacha in My Torah, or not.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth yom they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moshe and Aharon said to all the children of Yisrael, At evening, then you shall know that אֱלֹהִים has brought you out from the land of Mitzrayim:

7 And in the boker, then you shall see the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים; for He hears your murmurings against אֱלֹהִים and who are we that you murmur against us?

8 And Moshe said, This shall be, when אֱלֹהִים shall give you in the evening meat to eat and in the boker lechem to your satisfaction; for אֱלֹהִים hears your murmurings that you murmur against Him: and who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against אֱלֹהִים.

9 And Moshe spoke to Aharon, Say to all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, Come near before אֱלֹהִים: for He has heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aharon spoke to the whole kehilla of the children of Yisrael, that they looked toward the wilderness and, see, the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים appeared in the cloud.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Yisrael: speak to them, saying, At evening you shall eat meat and in the boker you shall be filled with lechem; and you shall know that I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

13 And it came to pass, that at evening the quails came up and covered the camp: and in the boker the dew lay all around the camp.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, see, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Yisrael saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they did not know what it was. And Moshe said to them, This is the lechem that אֱלֹהִים has given you to eat.

16 This is the thing which אֱלֹהִים has commanded, Gather of it every man according to eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take some for every man who is in his tent.

17 And the children of Yisrael did so and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did measure it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his need.

19 And Moshe said, Let no man leave any of it until the boker.

20 Nevertheless they listened not to Moshe; but some of them left it until the boker and it bred worms and smelled: and Moshe was angry with them.

21 And they gathered it every boker, every man according to his need: and when the shemesh became hot, it melted.

22 And it came to pass, that on the sixth yom they gathered twice as much lechem, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the kehilla came and told Moshe.

23 And he said to them, This is that which אִתְּכֶם has said, Tomorrow is the rest of the kadosh Shabbat to אִתְּכֶם; bake that which you will bake today and cook what you will cook; and that which remains leftover, store up for yourselves until the boker.

24 And they stored up until the boker, as Moshe commanded: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm inside.

25 And Moshe said, Eat that today; for today is a Shabbat to אִתְּכֶם: today you shall not find it in the field.

26 Six yamim you shall gather it; but on the seventh yom, which is The Shabbat, in it there shall be none.

27 And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh yom to gather and they found none.

28 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, How long do you refuse to shomer My mitzvot and My Torot?
29 See, that אֱלֹהִים has given you The Shabbat, therefore He gives you on the sixth yom the lechem for two yamim; abide every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh yom.
30 So the people rested on the seventh yom.
31 And beit Yisrael called the name of it Manna: and it was like coriander zera, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.
32 And Moshe said, This is the thing which אֱלֹהִים commands, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your future generations; that they may see the lechem with which I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Mitzrayim.
33 And Moshe said to Aharon, Take a pot and put an omer full of manna inside and store it up before אֱלֹהִים, to be kept for your future generations.
34 As אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe, so Aharon stored it before the Testimony, to be kept.
35 And the children of Yisrael did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came to the borders of the land of Kanaan.
36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

17 And all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael journeyed from the wilderness of Tzin, after their journeys, according to the command of אֱלֹהִים and pitched camp in Rephidim: and there was no mayim for the people to drink.

2 Therefore the people did strive with Moshe and said, Give us mayim that we may drink. And Moshe said to them, Why do you strive with me? Why do you test אֱלֹהִים ?

3 And the people thirsted there for mayim; and the people murmured against Moshe and said, Why is this that you have brought us up out of Mitzrayim, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moshe cried to אֱלֹהִים, saying, What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.

5 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Go on before the people and take with you of the zechanim of Yisrael; and your rod, with which you smote the river, take it in your hand and go.

6 See, I will stand before you there upon The Rock in Horev; and you shall smite The Rock and there shall come mayim out of it, so that the people may drink. And Moshe did so in the sight of the zechanim of Yisrael.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah and Merivah because of the striving of the children of Yisrael and because they tested אֱלֹהִים, saying, Is אֱלֹהִים among us, or not?

8 Then came Amalek and fought with Yisrael in Rephidim.

9 And Moshe said to Yahusha , Choose us some men and go out, fight with Amalek: tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of Ahlohim in my hand.

10 So Yahusha did as Moshe had said to him and fought with Amalek: and Moshe, Aharon and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moshe held up his hand, that Yisrael prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moshe's hands were heavy; and they took a stone and put it under him and he sat down; and Aharon and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the shemesh.

13 And Yahusha defeated Amalek and their people with the edge of the sword.

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Write this for a memorial in a scroll and rehearse it in the ears of Yahusha: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under the shamayim.

15 And Moshe built an altar and called the Name of it אֱלֹהִים Nissi:

16 For he said, Because his hand is on the kesay of YAH; אֱלֹהִים will have a war with Amalek from generation to generation.

18 When Yithro, the kohen of Midyan, Moshe's abba-in-law, heard of all that Ahlohim had done for Moshe and for Yisrael His people and that אֱלֹהִים had brought Yisrael out of Mitzrayim;

2 Then Yithro, Moshe's abba-in-law, took Tzipporah, Moshe's isha, after he had sent her back,

3 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom; for he said, I have been a ger in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer; for the Ahlohim of my abba, said he, was my help and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:

5 And Yithro, Moshe's abba-in-law, came with his sons and his isha to Moshe into the wilderness, where he camped at the Har of Ahlohim:

6 And he said to Moshe, I your abba-in-law Yithro have come to you, with your isha and her two sons with her.

7 And Moshe went out to meet his abba-in-law and bowed down, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moshe told his abba-in-law all that אֱלֹהִים had done to Pharaoh and to the Mitzrim for Yisrael's sake and all the travail that had come upon them by the derech and how אֱלֹהִים delivered them.

9 And Yithro rejoiced for all the tov that אֱלֹהִים had done to Yisrael, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Mitzrim.

10 And Yithro said, Blessed be אֱלֹהִים, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Mitzrim and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Mitzrim.

11 Now I know hat אֱלֹהִים is greater than all ahlahim: for in the thing in which they dealt proudly He was above them.

12 And Yithro, Moshe's abba-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for Ahlohim: and Aharon came and all the zechanim of Yisrael, to eat lechem with Moshe's abba-in-law before Ahlohim.

13 And it came to pass the next yom, that Moshe sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moshe from the boker to the evening.

14 And when Moshe's abba-in-law saw all that he did for the people, he said, What is this thing that you do for all the people? Why do you sit alone and all the people stand before you from boker to evening?

15 And Moshe said to his abba-in-law, Because the people come to me to inquire of Ahlohim:

16 When they have a matter, they come to me; and I judge between one and another and I do make them know the chukim of Ahlohim and His Torot.

17 And Moshe's abba-in-law said to him, The thing that you do is not tov.

18 You will surely wear away, both you and this people that is with you: for this thing is too heavy for you; you are not able to perform it yourself all alone.

19 Shema now to my voice, I will give you counsel and Ahlohim shall be with you: Stand before Ahlohim for the people, that you may bring the matters to Ahlohim:

20 And you shall teach them the ordinances and Torot and shall show them the derech in which they must have their halacha, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men, such as fear Ahlohim, men of emet, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people at all moadem: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for yourself and they shall bear the burden with you.

23 If you shall do this thing and Ahlohim command you so, then you shall be able to endure and the entire people shall also go to their place in shalom.

24 So Moshe listened to the voice of his abba-in-law and did all that he had said.

25 And Moshe chose able men out of kol Yisrael and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all moadem: the hard matters they brought to Moshe, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moshe let his abba-in-law depart; and he went his derech into his own land.

Torah Parsha 18 Shavuah-Week 18-Ba' Chodesh Ha'shlishi Shemot-Exodus chapters 19-22.

Renewed Covenant Yochanan-John chapters 12-16.

19 In the third chodesh, when the children of Yisrael had gone forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, the same yom they came into the wilderness of Senai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim and were come to the desert of Senai and had camped in the wilderness; and there Yisrael camped before the har.

3 And Moshe went up to Ahlohim and אֱלֹהִים called to him out of the har, saying, This shall you say to Beit Yaakov and tell the children of Yisrael;

4 You have seen what I did to the Mitzrim and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself.

5 Now therefore, if you will obey My voice indeed and shomer My brit, then you shall be a peculiar treasure to Me above all peoples: for all the earth is Mine:

6 And you shall be to Me a malchut of kohanim, and a kadosh nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the children of Yisrael.

7 And Moshe came and called for the zechanim of the people and set before them all these words that אֱלֹהִים commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together and said, All that אֱלֹהִים has spoken we will do. And Moshe returned the words of the people to אֱלֹהִים.

9 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, See, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you and believe you le-olam-va-ed. And Moshe told the words of the people to אֱלֹהִים.

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Go to the people and set them apart today and tomorrow and let them wash their clothes, 11 And be ready by the third yom: for on the third yom אֱלֹהִים will come down in the sight of all the people upon Har Senai.

12 And you shall set borders for the people all around, saying, Be careful, that you go not up into the har, or touch the border of it: whoever touches the har shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast, or man, it shall not live: when the shofar sounds long, they shall come near the har.

14 And Moshe went down from the har to the people and set apart the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said to the people, Be ready for the third yom: approach not your wives in intimacy.

16 And it came to pass on the third yom in the boker, that there was thunder and lightning and a thick cloud upon the har and the voice of the shofar exceedingly loud; so that all the people that were in the camp trembled.

17 And Moshe brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with Ahlohim; and they stood at the foot of the har.

18 And Har Senai was altogether in smoke because אֱלֹהִים descended upon it in fire: and the smoke of it ascended as the smoke of a furnace and the whole har shook greatly.

19 And when the voice of the shofar sounded long and became louder and louder, Moshe spoke and Ahlohim answered him by a voice.

20 And אֱלֹהִים came down upon Har Senai, on the top of the har: and אֱלֹהִים called Moshe up to the top of the har; and Moshe went up.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Go down and warn the people, lest they break through to אֱלֹהִים to see and many of them perish.

22 And let the kohanim also, who come near to אֱלֹהִים, set themselves apart, lest אֱלֹהִים break forth upon them.

23 And Moshe said to אֱלֹהִים, The people cannot come up to Har Senai: for you warned us, saying, Set borders around the har and set it apart.

24 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, Away, get down and you shall come up, you and Aharon with you: but let not the kohanim and the people break through to come up to אֱלֹהִים, lest He break forth upon them.

25 So Moshe went down to the people and spoke to them.

20 And The Word of Ahlohim spoke all these Words, saying,

2 [Aleph] I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who has brought you out of the land of Mitzrayim, out of the bayit of bondage.

3 [Bet] You shall have no other ahlahim before My face.

4 You shall not make to you any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in the shamayim above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the mayim under the earth:

5 You shall not bow down yourself to them, nor serve them: for I אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim am a zealous Ahlohim, visiting the iniquity of the ahvot upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those that hate Me;

6 And showing rachamim to thousands of them that love Me and shomer My mitzvot.

7 [Gimel] You shall not bring the Name of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim to vain emptiness; for אֱלֹהִים will not hold him guiltless nor clean the one that brings His Name to vain emptiness.

8 [Daled] Remember the Yom Ha-Shabbats, to shomer them as kadosh.

9 Six yamim shall you labor and do all your work:

10 But the seventh yom is The Shabbat of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim: in it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your male eved, nor your female eved, nor your cattle, nor your ger, nor a convert that is within your gates:

11 For in six yamim אֶרְבַּע made the shamayim and earth, the sea and all that is in them and rested on the seventh yom: therefore אֶרְבַּע blessed The Shabbat yom and set it apart.

12 [Hey] Honor your abba and your eema: that your yamim may be long upon the land that אֶרְבַּע your Ahlohim gives you.

13 [Waw] You shall not murder.

14 [Zayin] You shall not commit adultery.

15 [Chet] You shall not steal.

16 [Tet] You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

17 [Yud] You shall not covet your neighbor's bayit;
you shall not covet your neighbor's isha, or his male eved, or his female eved, or his ox, or his donkey, or any thing that is your neighbor's.

18 And all the people saw the thundering and the lightning and the noise of the shofar and the har smoking: and when the people saw it, they moved back and stood at a distance.

19 And they said to Moshe, You speak with us and we will listen: but let not Ahlohim speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moshe said to the people, Fear not: for Ahlohim is come to test you and that His fear may be before your faces, that you sin not.

21 And the people stood far off and Moshe drew near to the thick darkness where Ahlohim was.

22 And אֶרְבַּע said to Moshe, This you shall say to the children of Yisrael, You have seen that I have talked with you from the shamayim.

23 You shall not make besides Me my ahlahim, ahlahim of silver; neither shall you make for yourselves ahlahim of gold.

24 An altar of earth you shall make for Me and shall sacrifice there your burnt offerings and your shalom offerings, your sheep and your oxen: in the place, where I recorded My Name; there I will come to you and I will bless you.

25 And if you will make Me an altar of stones, you shall not build it of cut stones: for if you lift up your tool upon it, you have polluted My altar.

26 Neither shall you go up by steps to My altar, that your nakedness be not discovered on it.

21 Now these are the mishpatim that you shall set before them.

2 If you buy an Ivri eved, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he was married, then his isha shall go out with him.

4 If his master has given him an isha and she has born him sons, or daughters; the isha and her children shall be her master's and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the eved shall plainly say, I love my master, my isha and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him to the shophtim; he shall also bring him to the door, or to the door post; and his master shall pierce his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him le-olam-va-ed.

7 And if a man sells his daughter to be a female eved, she shall not go out as the men avadim do.

8 If she is wicked in the eyes of her Adon, who has appointed-assembled her to himself, let her be traded or given to a foreign nation, she shall not be sold within Yisrael [by implication] because he is offended by her.

9 And if he has betrothed her to his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he will take himself another isha, her food, her garment and her marital rights, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he does not these three to her, then shall she go out free without money.

12 He that smites a man, so that he dies, shall be surely put to death.

13 And if a man lies not in wait, but Ahlohim delivers him into his hand; then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbor, to kill him with guile; you shall take him away from My altar that he may die.

15 And he that hits his abba, or his eema, shall be surely put to death.

16 And he that kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 And he that curses his abba, or his eema, shall surely be put to death.

18 And if men strive together and one smites another with a stone, or with his fist and he does not die, but is confined to his bed:

19 If he rises again and walks outside with his staff, then shall he that smote him be innocent: only he shall pay for the loss of his time and shall see to it that he is thoroughly healed.

20 And if a man smites his male eved, or his female eved, with a rod and they die under his hand; he shall be surely punished.

21 But if he remains alive a yom, or two, he shall not be punished; for he is his property.

22 If men fight and hurt a woman with child, so that her child departs from her and yet no harm follows, he shall be surely punished, according to what the woman's husband will determine; and he shall pay as the shophtim determine.

23 And if there is any injury, then you shall give chayim for chayim,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smites the eye of his male eved, or the eye of his female eved, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smites out his male eved's tooth, or his female eved's tooth, he shall let them go free for the tooth's sake.

28 If an ox gores a man, or a woman that they die, then the ox shall be surely stoned and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be innocent.

29 But if the ox was in the habit of goring in times past and it had been told to the owner and he had not kept it in, but that it had killed a man, or a woman; the ox shall be stoned and its owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sin covering penalty, then he shall give for the ransom of his chayim whatever is laid upon him.

31 Whether it has gored a son, or has gored a daughter, according to this mishpat shall it be done to him.

32 If the ox shall gore a male eved, or a female eved, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver and the ox shall be stoned.

33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit and not cover it and an ox, or a donkey fall inside;

34 The owner of the pit shall repay and give money to the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 And if one man's ox hurts another's, so that he dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or, if it is known that the ox has gored in times past and his owner has not kept him in; he shall surely repay ox for ox and the dead ox shall be his own.

22 If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found breaking in and be smitten so that he dies, there is no guilt for his shed dahm.

3 If the shemesh is risen upon him, there is guilt for his bloodshed; he should make full restitution; if he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft is certainly found in his hand alive, whether it is an ox, or donkey, or sheep; he shall restore double.

5 If a man shall cause a field, or vineyard to be eaten and shall put in his beast and shall feed in another man's field; he repays from the best of his own field and from the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 If a fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes, so that the stacked grain, or the standing grain, or the field, is consumed; he that lit the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 If a man shall deliver to his neighbor money, or goods to guard and it be stolen out of the man's bayit; if the thief is found, let him repay double.

8 If the thief is not found, then the master of the bayit shall be brought to the shophtim, to see whether he has put his hand into his neighbor's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for garment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challenges to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the shophtim; and whoever the shophtim shall declare wrong, he shall repay double to his neighbor.

10 If a man deliver to his neighbor a donkey, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to guard; and it dies, or is hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

11 Then shall an oath of אִי אִי be between them both, that he has not put his hand to his neighbor's goods; and the owner of it shall accept it and he shall not repay.

12 And if it is stolen from him, he shall make restitution to the owner of it.

13 If it is torn in pieces, then let him bring it for a witness and he shall not repay that which was torn.

14 And if a man borrows anything from his neighbor and it is hurt, or dies, the owner of it not being with it, he shall surely repay.

15 But if the owner of it is with it, he shall not repay: if it is a hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 And if a man entices a virgin that is not engaged and lies with her, he shall surely pay a dowry for her to be his isha.

17 If her abba utterly refuses to give her to him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 You shall not allow a witch to live.

19 Whoever lies with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 He that sacrifices to any ahlahim, except to אִי אִי only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

21 You shall neither vex a ger, nor oppress him; for you were gerim in the land of Mitzrayim.

22 You shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If you afflict them in any derech and they cry out to Me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And My anger shall wax hot and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows and your children fatherless.

25 If you lend money to any of My people that is poor among you, you shall not be to him as one who lends on interest to him, neither shall you lay upon him interest.

26 If you take your neighbor's garment as a pledge, you shall deliver it to him before the shemesh goes down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his garment for his skin: with what shall he sleep? And it shall come to pass, when he calls out to Me, that I will listen; for I AM gracious.

28 You shall not revile Ahlohim, nor curse a ruler of your people.

29 You shall not delay to offer the first of your ripe fruits and of your liquors: the bachor of your sons shall you give to Me.

30 Likewise shall you do with your oxen and with your sheep: seven yamim it shall be with his eema; on the eighth yom you shall give it to Me.

31 And you shall be kadosh men to Me: neither shall you eat any flesh that is torn by the beasts in the field; you shall cast it to the dogs.

Torah Parsha 19 Shavuah-Week 19 -Lo Tisa-Shemot Exodus chapters 23-26. Renewed Covenant Yochanan-John chapters 17-21.

23 You shall not raise a false report: put not your hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; neither shall you speak in a cause to turn aside after many to turn aside what is right:

3 Neither shall you favor a poor man in his cause.

4 If you meet your enemy's ox, or his donkey going astray, you shall surely bring it back to him again.

5 If you see the donkey of him that hates you lying under its burden, you shall refrain from leaving it to him, you shall surely help with it.

6 You shall not turn aside the right-ruling of your poor in his cause.

7 Keep far from a false matter; and the innocent and tzadik kill not: for I will not justify the wicked.

8 And you shall take no bribe: for the bribe blinds the wise and twists the words of the tzadik.

9 Also you shall not oppress a ger: for you know the lev of a ger, seeing you were gerim in the land of Mitzrayim.

10 And six years you shall sow your land and shall gather in the fruits of it:

11 But the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie still; that the poor of your people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner you shall deal with your vineyard and with your olive grove.

12 Six yamim you shall do your work and on the seventh yom you shall rest: that your ox and your donkey may rest and the son of your handmaid and the ger, may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said to you take heed: and make no mention of the names of other ahlahim, neither let it be heard out of your mouth.

14 Three regalim you shall shomer as chagim to Me in the year.

15 You shall shomer Chag Matzah: you shall eat matzah seven yamim, as I commanded you, in the time appointed in the chodesh Aviv; for in it you came out from Mitzrayim; and none shall appear before Me empty-handed.

16 And Chag Shavuot the harvest the bikkurim of your labors, which you have sown in the field; and the Chag of Ingathering – Sukkot – that is toward the end of the year, when you have gathered in your labors out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all your males shall appear before אלהים Ahlohim.

18 You shall not offer the dahm of My sacrifice with chametz-lechem; neither shall the fat of My sacrifice remain until the boker.

19 The first of the bikkurim of your land you shall bring into the Bayit of אלהים your Ahlohim. You shall not cook a kid in its eema's milk.

20 See, I send A Malach before you, to guide you in the derech and to bring you into the place that I have prepared.

21 Beware of Him and obey His voice, provoke Him not; for otherwise He will not pardon your transgressions; for My Name is in Him.

22 But if you shall indeed obey His voice and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy to your enemies and an adversary to your adversaries.

23 For My Malach shall go before you and bring you into the land of the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Kanaanites and the Hivites and the Yevusites: and I will cut them off.

24 You shall not bow down to their ahlahim, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but you shall utterly overthrow them and without fail break down their images.

25 And you shall serve אלהים your Ahlohim and He shall bless your lechem and your mayim; and I will take sickness away from the midst of you.

26 There shall nothing miscarry, nor be barren, in your land: the number of your yamim I will fill.

27 I will send My fear before you and will destroy all the people to whom you shall come and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

28 And I will send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Kanaanite and the Hittite, from before you.

29 I will not drive them out from before you in one year; lest the land become desolate and the beast of the field multiply against you.

30 Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you be increased and inherit the land.

31 And I will set your borders from the Yam Suf even to the Sea of the Plishtim and from the desert to the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and you shall drive them out from before you.

32 You shall make no brit with them, or with their ahlahim.

33 They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me: for if you serve their ahlahim, it will surely be a snare to you.

24 And The Word of אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Come up to אֱלֹהִים, you and Aharon, Nadav and Avihu, El-Azar and Ithamar and seventy of the zechanim of Yisrael; and worship far off.

2 And Moshe alone shall come near אֱלֹהִים: but they shall not come near; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 And Moshe came and told the people all the Words of אֱלֹהִים and all the mishpatim: and all the people answered with kol echad and said, All the Words that אֱלֹהִים has said we will do.

4 And Moshe wrote all the Words of אֱלֹהִים and rose up early in the boker and built an altar under the hill and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Yisrael.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Yisrael, which offered burnt offerings and sacrificed shalom offerings of bulls to אֱלֹהִים.

6 And Moshe took half of the dahm and put it in basins; and half of the dahm he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the scroll of the brit and read it in the audience of the people: and they said, All that אֱלֹהִים has said will we do and be obedient.

8 And Moshe took the dahm and sprinkled it on the people and said, See the dahm of the brit, that אֱלֹהִים has made with you concerning all these Words.

9 Then went up Moshe and Aharon, Nadav and Avihu and seventy of the zechanim of Yisrael:

10 And they saw the Ahlohim of Yisrael: and there was under His feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone and as it were the gooff of the shamayim in His clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Yisrael He laid not His hand: also they saw Ahlohim and did eat and drink.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Come up to Me into the har and be there: and I will give you tablets of stone and a Torah and mitzvoth that I have written; that you may teach them.

13 And Moshe rose up and his assistant Yahusha: and Moshe went up into the Har of Ahlohim.

14 And he said to the zechanim, Wait here for us, until we come again to you: and, see, Aharon and Hur are with you: if any man has any matters to do, let him come to them.

15 And Moshe went up into the har and a cloud covered the har.

16 And the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים abode upon Har Senai and the cloud covered it six yamim: and on the seventh yom He called to Moshe out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the tifereth of אִתְּךָ was like a consuming fire on the top of the har in the eyes of the children of Yisrael.

18 And Moshe went into the midst of the cloud and went up to the har: and Moshe was in the har forty yamim and forty laylot.

25 And אִתְּךָ spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael, that they bring Me an offering: of every man that gives it willingly with his lev you shall take My offering.

3 And this is the offering that you shall take from them; gold and silver and brass,

4 And blue and purple and scarlet and fine linen and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red and blue/violet skins and acacia wood,

6 Oil for the ohr, spices for anointing oil and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx stones and stones to be set in the shoulder garment and in the breastplate.

8 And let them make Me a Kadosh-Place; that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I show you, after the pattern of the Mishkan and the pattern of all the instruments of it, even so shall you make it.

10 And they shall make an ark of acacia wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length of it and a cubit and a half the width of it and a cubit and a half the height of it.

11 And you shall cover it with pure gold, within and without shall you cover it and shall make upon it a keter of gold all around.

12 And you shall cast four rings of gold for it and put them in the four corners of it; and two rings shall be on the one side of it and two rings on the other side of it.

13 And you shall make poles of acacia wood and cover them with gold.

14 And you shall put the poles into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be carried with them.

15 The poles shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

16 And you shall put into the ark the testimony that I shall give you.

17 And you shall make a lid of keporah of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length of it and a cubit and a half the width of it.

18 And you shall make two cheruvim of gold; of beaten work shall you make them, on the two ends of the lid of keporah.

19 And make one cheruv on the one end and the other cheruv on the other end: even on the lid of keporah shall you make the cheruvim on the two ends of it.

20 And the cheruvim shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the lid of keporah with their wings and their faces shall look one to another; toward the lid of keporah shall the faces of the cheruvim be.

21 And you shall put the lid of keporah above upon the ark; and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I shall give you.

22 And there I will meet with you and I will commune with you from above the lid of keporah, from between the two cheruvim that are upon the Ark of the Testimony, of all things which I will give you in mitzvoth for the children of Yisrael.

23 You shall also make a shulchan of acacia wood: two cubits shall be the length of it and a cubit the width of it and a cubit and a half the height of it.

24 And you shall cover it with pure gold and make a keter molding of gold all around.

25 And you shall make to it a border of a hand width all around it and you shall make a golden keter to the border of it all around.

26 And you shall make for it four rings of gold and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet of it.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places for the poles to bear the shulchan.

28 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood and cover them with gold, that the shulchan may be borne with them.

29 And you shall make the dishes of it and spoons of it and the covers of it and bowls of it, to cover all over: of pure gold shall you make them.

30 And you shall put the Lechem ha Panayim on the shulchan before Me always.

31 And you shall make a menorah of pure gold: of beaten work shall the menorah be made: its shaft and its branches, its bowls, its knobs and its blossoms, shall be from the same piece.

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides of it; three branches of the menorah out of one side and three branches of the menorah on the other side:

33 Three cups made like almonds, with a knob and a blossom in one branch; and three cups made like almonds in the other branch, with a knob and a blossom: for the six branches that come out of the menorah.

34 And on the menorah itself shall be four cups made like almonds, with their knobs and their blossom.

35 And there shall be a knob under two branches of the same piece and a knob under two branches of the same piece and a knob under two branches of the same piece, according to the six branches that proceed out of the menorah.

36 Their knobs and their branches shall be the same: all of it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And you shall make the seven lamps of it: and they shall light the lamps of it, that they may give ohr opposite it.

38 And the snuffers of it and the trays of it, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 See to it that you make them after their pattern, which was showed to you in the har.

26 Moreover you shall make the Mishkan with ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet: with cheruvim of skilled work shall you make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits and the width of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And you shall make loops of blue upon the edge of the end curtain on one set; and likewise shall you make in the uttermost edge of the end curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shall you make in the one curtain and fifty loops shall you make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And you shall make fifty hooks of gold and couple the curtains together with the hooks: and it shall be one Mishkan.

7 And you shall make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the Mishkan: eleven curtains shall you make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits and the width of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And you shall couple five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves and shall double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the Mishkan.

10 And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain and second set.

11 And you shall make fifty hooks of brass and put the hooks into the loops and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the backside of the Mishkan.

13 And a cubit on the one side and a cubit on the other side of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the Mishkan on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And you shall make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red and a covering above made of blue/violet skins.

15 And you shall make boards for the Mishkan of acacia wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board and a cubit and a half shall be the width of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: this shall you make for all the boards of the Mishkan.

18 And you shall make the boards for the Mishkan, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And you shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the Mishkan on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the Mishkan westward you shall make six boards.

23 And two boards shall you make for the corners of the Mishkan in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath and they shall be coupled together above the head of it to one ring: this shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And there shall be eight boards and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

26 And you shall make bars of acacia wood; five for the boards of the one side of the Mishkan, 27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Mishkan and five bars for the boards of the side of the Mishkan, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And you shall cover the boards with gold and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and you shall cover the bars with gold.

30 And you shall raise up the Mishkan according to the fashion of it that was showed to you on the har.

31 And you shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen of skilled work: with cheruvim shall it be made:

32 And you shall hang it upon four pillars of acacia wood covered with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 And you shall hang up the veil from the hooks, so that you may bring inside within the veil the Ark of the Testimony: and the veil shall divide between the Makom Kadosh and the Most-Kadosh-Place.

34 And you shall put the lid of keporah upon the Ark of the Testimony in the Most-Kadosh-Place.

35 And you shall set the shulchan outside the veil and the menorah opposite the shulchan on the side of the Mishkan towards the south: and you shall put the shulchan on the north side.

36 And you shall make a hanging for the door of the tent, of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen, made with needlework.

37 And you shall make for the hanging five pillars of acacia wood and cover them with gold and their hooks shall be of gold: and you shall cast five sockets of brass for them.

Shemot Exodus chapters 27-30. Renewed
Covenant. Maaseh Shlichim-Acts chapters 1-5.

27 And you shall make an altar of acacia wood, five cubits long and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height of it shall be three cubits.

2 And you shall make the horns of it upon the four corners of it: its horns shall be the same: and you shall cover it with brass.

3 And you shall make its pans to receive its ashes and its shovels and its basins and its flesh hooks and its firepans: all the vessels of it you shall make of brass.

4 And you shall make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shall you make four brass rings in the four corners of it.

5 And you shall put it under the compass of the altar beneath that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood and cover them with brass.

7 And the poles shall be put into the rings and the poles shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shall you make it: as it was showed to you in the har, so shall they make it.

9 And you shall make the court of the Mishkan: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen one hundred cubits long for one side:

10 And the twenty pillars of it and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their bands shall be of silver.

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of one hundred cubits long, with its twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.

12 And for the width of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten and their sockets ten.

13 And the width of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three and their sockets three.

16 And for the gate of the court shall be a hanging of twenty cubits, of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen, made with needlework: and their pillars shall be four and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars all around the court shall be banded with silver; their hooks shall be of silver and their sockets of brass.

18 The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits and the width fifty everywhere and the height five cubits of fine twined linen and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the Mishkan in all the service of it and all the pegs of it and all the pegs of the court, shall be of brass.

20 And you shall command the children of Yisrael that they bring you pure olive oil beaten for the ohr, to cause the lamp to burn always.

21 In the Mishkan of the kehilla outside the veil, which is before the testimony, Aharon and his sons shall tend it from evening to boker before אִשָּׁרֵז: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed to their generations on behalf of the children of Yisrael.

28 And bring near Aharon your brother and his sons with him, from among the children of Yisrael, that he may serve Me in the kohen's office, even Aharon, Nadav and Avihu, El-Azar and Ithamar, Aharon's sons.

2 And you shall make kadosh garments for Aharon your brother for tifereth and for beauty.

3 And you shall speak to all that are wise hearted, whom I have filled with The Ruach of chochmah, that they may make Aharon's garments to consecrate him, that he may attend to Me in the kohen's office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breastplate and a shoulder garment and a robe and a broidered coat, a turban and a girdle: and they shall make kadosh garments for Aharon your brother and his sons, that he may attend to Me in the kohen's office.

5 And they shall take gold and blue and purple and scarlet and fine linen.

6 And they shall make the shoulder garment of gold, of blue and of purple, of scarlet and fine twined linen, with skilled work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder pieces joined at the two edges of it; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the embroidered band of the shoulder garment, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work of it; even of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen.

9 And you shall take two onyx stones, and inscribe on them the names of the children of Yisrael:

10 Six of their names on one stone and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shall you engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Yisrael: you shall make them to be set in settings of gold.

12 And you shall put the two stones upon the shoulders of the shoulder garment for stones of memorial to the children of Yisrael: and Aharon shall bear their names before אֲהָרֹן upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

13 And you shall make settings of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of braided cords shall you make them and fasten the braided cords to the settings.

15 And you shall make the breastplate of mishpat with skilled work; like the work of the shoulder garment you shall make it; of gold, of blue and of purple and of scarlet and of fine twined linen, shall you make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled; a span shall be the length of it and a span shall be the width of it.

17 And you shall set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire and a diamond.

19 And the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a beryl and an onyx and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their settings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Yisrael, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with its name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 And you shall make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of corded work of pure gold.

23 And you shall make upon the breastplate two rings of gold and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And you shall put the two-corded chains of gold in the two rings that are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two-corded chains you shall fasten in the two settings and put them on the shoulder pieces of the shoulder garment before it.

26 And you shall make two rings of gold and you shall put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border of it, which is in the side of the shoulder garment inward.

27 And two other rings of gold you shall make and shall put them on the two sides of the shoulder garment underneath, on the front of it, opposite the other coupling of it, above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings of it to the rings of the shoulder garment with a lace of blue, that it may be above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment, so that the breastplate is not loosed from the shoulder garment.

29 And Aharon shall bear the names of the children of Yisrael on the breastplate of mishpat upon his lev, when he goes in to the kadosh place, for a memorial before אֱלֹהִים continually.

30 And you shall put on the breastplate of mishpat the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aharon's lev, when he goes in before אֱלֹהִים: and Aharon shall bear the mishpat of the children of Yisrael upon his lev before אֱלֹהִים continually.

31 And you shall make the robe of the shoulder garment all in blue.

32 And there shall be a hole in the top of it, in the midst of it: it shall have a binding of woven work all around the hole of it, as it were the hole of strong armor that it be not torn.

33 And beneath upon the hem of it you shall make pomegranates of blue and of purple and of scarlet, all around the hem of it; and bells of gold between them all around:

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hem of the robe all around.

35 And it shall be upon Aharon to attend: and its sound shall be heard when he goes in to the kadosh place before אֱלֹהִים and when he comes out, that he dies not.

36 And you shall make a plate of pure gold and engrave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, Kadosh-Le-אֱלֹהִים.

37 And you shall put it on a blue lace that it may be upon the turban; upon the forefront of the turban it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aharon's forehead, that Aharon may bear the iniquity of the kadosh things, which the children of Yisrael shall set apart in all their kadosh gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before אִתְּךָ.

39 And you shall embroider the coat of fine linen and you shall make the turban of fine linen and you shall make the girdle of needlework.

40 And for Aharon's sons you shall make coats and you shall make for them girdles and turbans shall you make for them, for tifereth and for beauty.

41 And you shall put them upon Aharon your brother and his sons with him; and shall anoint them and consecrate them and set them apart, that they may attend to Me in the kohen's office.

42 And you shall make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even to the thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aharon and upon his sons, when they come in to the Mishkan of the kehilla, or when they come near to the altar to attend in the kadosh place; that they bear not iniquity and die: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed to him and his zera after him.

29 And this is the thing that you shall do to them to set them apart, to attend to Me in the kohen's office: Take one young bullock and two rams without blemish,

2 And matzah and cakes unleavened tempered with oil and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheat flour shall you make them.

3 And you shall put them into one basket and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aharon and his sons you shall bring to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and shall wash them with mayim.

5 And you shall take the garments and put upon Aharon the coat and the robe of the shoulder garment and the shoulder garment and the breastplate and gird him with the embroidered band of the shoulder garment:

6 And you shall put the turban upon his head and put the kadosh keter upon the turban.

7 Then shall you take the anointing oil and pour it upon his head and anoint him.

8 And you shall bring his sons and put long shirts upon them.

9 And you shall gird them with girdles, Aharon and his sons and put the turbans on them: and the kohen's office shall be theirs for a perpetual chuk: and you shall consecrate Aharon and his sons.

10 And you shall cause a bullock to be brought before the Mishkan of the kehilla: and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And you shall kill the bullock before אֶת־אֶזְרָח, by the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

12 And you shall take of the dahm of the bullock and put it upon the horns of the altar with your finger and pour all the dahm beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And you shall take all the fat that covers the inwards and the lobe that is above the liver and the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock and his skin and his dung, shall you burn with fire outside the camp: it is a sin offering.

15 You shall also take one ram; and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

16 And you shall slay the ram and you shall take its dahm and sprinkle it all around upon the altar.

17 And you shall cut the ram in pieces and wash the inwards of it and its legs and put them upon its pieces and on its head.

18 And you shall burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt offering to אֱלֹהִים: it is a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

19 And you shall take the other ram; and Aharon and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the ram.

20 Then shall you kill the ram and take of its dahm and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aharon and upon the tip of the right ear of his sons and upon the thumb of their right hand and upon the great toe of their right foot and sprinkle the dahm upon the altar all around.

21 And you shall take of the dahm that is upon the altar and of the anointing oil and sprinkle it upon Aharon and upon his garments and upon his sons and upon the garments of his sons with him: and he shall be kadosh and his garments and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

22 Also you shall take of the ram the fat and the rump and the fat that covers the inwards and the lobe above the liver and the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them and the right thigh; for it is a ram of consecration:

23 And one loaf of lechem and one cake of oiled lechem and one wafer out of the basket of the matzah that is before אֱלֹהִים:

24 And you shall put all in the hands of Aharon and in the hands of his sons; and shall wave them for a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים.

25 And you shall receive them from their hands and burn them upon the altar for a burnt offering, for a sweet savor before אֱלֹהִים: it is an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

26 And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aharon's consecration and wave it for a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים: and it shall be your portion.

27 And you shall set apart the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution offering, which is waved and which is heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, even of that which is for Aharon and of that which is for his sons:

28 And it shall be Aharon's and his sons' by a chuk le-olam-va-ed from the children of Yisrael: for it is a contribution offering: and it shall be a contribution offering from the children of Yisrael of the sacrifice of their shalom offerings, even their contribution offering to אִתָּם.

29 And the kadosh garments of Aharon shall become his sons' after him, to be anointed in them and to be consecrated in them.

30 And that son that is kohen in his place shall put them on seven yamim, when he comes into the Mishkan of the kehilla to attend in the kadosh place.

31 And you shall take the ram of the consecration and cook its flesh in the kadosh place.

32 And Aharon and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram and the lechem that is in the basket, by the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

33 And they shall eat those things with which the keporah was made, to consecrate and to set them apart: but a ger shall not eat of it because they are kadosh.

34 And if any of the flesh of the consecrations, or of the lechem, remain to the boker, then you shall burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten because it is kadosh.

35 And this shall you do to Aharon and to his sons, according to all things that I have commanded you: seven yamim shall you consecrate them.

36 And you shall offer every yom a bullock for a sin offering for keporah: and you shall cleanse the altar, when you have made a keporah for it and you shall anoint it, to set it apart.

37 Seven yamim you shall make keporah for the altar and set it apart; and it shall be an altar most kadosh: whatever touches the altar shall be kadosh.

38 Now this is that which you shall offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year yom by yom continually.

39 The one lamb you shall offer in the boker; and the other lamb you shall offer at evening:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth ephah of flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb you shall offer at evening and shall do like according to the meat offering of the boker and according to the drink offering of it, for a sweet savor, an offering made by fire to אלהים.

42 This shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla before אלהים: where I will meet you, to speak there to you.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Yisrael and the Mishkan shall be kadosh by My tifereth.

44 And I will set apart the Mishkan of the kehilla and the altar: I will set apart also both Aharon and his sons, to attend to Me in the kohen's office.

45 And I will dwell among the children of Yisrael and will be their Ahlohim.

46 And they shall know that I AM אלהים their Ahlohim, that brought them forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, that I may dwell among them: I AM אלהים their Ahlohim.

30 And you shall make an altar to burn incense upon: of acacia wood shall you make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length of it and a cubit the width of it; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height of it: the horns of it shall be of the same.

3 And you shall cover it with pure gold, the top of it and the sides of it all around and the horns of it; and you shall make for it a keter of gold all around.

4 And two golden rings shall you make for it under the keter of it, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides of it shall you make it; and they shall be for places for the poles with which to bear it.

5 And you shall make the poles of acacia wood and cover them with gold.

6 And you shall put it before the veil that is by the Ark of the Testimony, before the lid of keporah that is over the testimony, where I will meet with you.

7 And Aharon shall burn on it sweet incense every boker: when he prepares the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aharon lights the lamps at evening, he shall burn incense upon it, perpetual incense before אֱלֹהִים throughout your generations.

9 You shall offer no strange incense on it, or burnt sacrifice, or meat offering; neither shall you pour a drink offering on it.

10 And Aharon shall make a keporah upon the horns of it once in a year with the dahm of the sin offering of keporah: once in the year shall he make keporah upon it throughout your generations: it is most kadosh to אֱלֹהִים.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

12 When you take the census of the children of Yisrael after their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his being to אֱלֹהִים, when you number them; that there be no plague among them, when you number them.

13 This they shall give, every one that passes among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) a half shekel shall be the offering of אֱלֹהִים.

14 Every one that passes among them that is numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

15 The rich shall not give more and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when you give an offering to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to make a keporah for your beings.

16 And you shall take the keporah money of the children of Yisrael and shall appoint it for the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla; that it may be a memorial to the children of Yisrael before אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to make a keporah for your beings.

17 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ spoke to Moshe, saying,

18 You shall also make a basin of brass and its foot also of brass, to wash with: and you shall put it between the Mishkan of the kehilla and the altar and you shall put mayim inside.

19 For Aharon and his sons shall wash their hands and their feet there:

20 When they go into the Mishkan of the kehilla, they shall wash with mayim, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to attend, to burn offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, so that they die not: and it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed to them, even to him and to his zera throughout their generations.

22 Moreover אֱלֹהֵינוּ spoke to Moshe, saying,

23 Take for you principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels and of sweet cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty shekels and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels,

24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place and of olive oil a hin:

25 And you shall make it into an oil of kadosh ointment, an ointment compound after the work of the perfumer: it shall be a kadosh anointing oil.

26 And you shall anoint the Mishkan of the kehilla with it and the Ark of the Testimony, 27 And the shulchan and all its vessels and the menorah and its vessels and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels and the basin and its stand.
29 And you shall set them apart, that they may be most kadosh: so that whatever touches them shall be kadosh.
30 And you shall anoint Aharon and his sons and consecrate them, that they may attend to Me in the kohen's office.
31 And you shall speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, This shall be a kadosh anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.
32 Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall you make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is kadosh and it shall be kadosh to you.
33 Whoever produces any like it, or whoever puts any of it upon a ger, shall even be cut off from his people.
34 And אִרְאֵל said to Moshe, Take sweet spices, stacte and onycha and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:
35 And you shall make it a perfume, a confection after the work of a perfumer, salted, pure and kadosh:
36 And you shall beat some of it very fine and put of it before the testimony in the Mishkan of the kehilla, where I will meet with you: it shall be to you most kadosh.
37 And as for the incense that you shall make, you shall not make to yourselves according to the composition of it: it shall be to you kadosh for אִרְאֵל.

38 Whoever shall make anything like it, to even smell it, shall be cut off from his people.

Torah Parsha 21 Shavuah-Week 21 Betzalel
Exodus chapters 31-34. Renewed Covenant
Maaseh Shlichim-Acts chapters 6-10.

31 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 See, I have called by name Betzalel-Eli the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahudah:

3 And I have filled him with The Ruach of Ahlohim, in chochmah and in binah and in da'at and in all manner of workmanship,

4 To devise skilled works, to work in gold and in silver and in brass,

5 And in cutting of stones, to set them and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 And I, see, I have appointed with him Aholiav, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the levavot of all that are wise hearted, I have put chochmah, that they may make all that I have commanded you;

7 The Mishkan of the kehilla and the Ark of the Testimony and the lid of keporah that is on it and all the furniture of the Mishkan,

8 And the shulchan and its furniture and the pure menorah with all its furniture and the altar of incense,

9 And the altar of burnt offering with all its furniture and the basin and its stand.

10 And the clothing of service and the kadosh garments for Aharon the kohen and the garments of his sons, to attend in the kohen's office, 11 And the anointing oil and sweet incense for the kadosh place: according to all that I have commanded you shall they do.

12 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

13 Speak also to the children of Yisrael, saying, Truly My Shabbats you shall shomer: for it is an ot between Me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I AM אֱלֹהִים that does set you apart.

14 You shall shomer The Shabbat therefore; for it is kadosh for you: every one that defiles it shall surely be put to death: for whoever does any work on it, that being shall be cut off from among his people.

15 Six yamim may work be done; but on the seventh is The Shabbat of rest, kadosh to אֱלֹהִים: whoever does any work on The Shabbat yom; he shall surely be put to death.

16 Therefore the children of Yisrael shall shomer The Shabbat, to observe The Shabbat throughout their generations, for an everlasting brit.

17 It is an ot between Me and the children of Yisrael le-olam-va-ed: for in six yamim אֱלֹהִים made the shamayim and the earth and on the seventh yom He rested and was refreshed.

18 And He gave to Moshe, when He had made an end of communing with him upon Har Senai, two tablets of testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of Ahlohim.

32 And when the people saw that Moshe delayed to come down out of the har, the people gathered themselves together to Aharon and said to him, Get up, make us ahlahim, that shall go before us; for as for this Moshe, the man that brought us up out of the land of Mitzrayim, we do not know what has become of him.

2 And Aharon said to them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons and of your daughters and bring them to me.

3 And all the people broke off the golden earrings that were in their ears and brought them to Aharon.

4 And he received them at their hand and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a golden calf: and they said, These be your ahlahim, O Yisrael, which brought you up out of the land of Mitzrayim.

5 And when Aharon saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aharon made a proclamation and said, Tomorrow is a moed to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

6 And they rose up early in the boker and offered burnt offerings and brought shalom offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink and rose up to play.

7 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Moshe, Go, get yourself down; for your people, which you brought out of the land of Mitzrayim, have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the halacha which I commanded them: they have made themselves a molded calf and have worshipped it and have sacrificed to it and said, These be your ahlahim, O Yisrael, which have brought you up out of the land of Mitzrayim.

9 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Moshe, I have seen this people and see; it is a stiff-necked people:

10 Now therefore leave Me alone, that My anger may wax hot against them and that I may consume them: and I will make from you a great nation. And as for Aharon; אֱלֹהֵינוּ was very angry to destroy him. And Moshe made tefillah for Aharon.

11 And Moshe sought אֱלֹהֵינוּ his Ahlohim and said, אֱלֹהֵינוּ, why does Your anger wax hot against Your people, which You have brought forth out of the land of Mitzrayim with great Power and with a mighty hand?

12 Why should the Mitzrim speak and say, For evil did He bring them out, to slay them in the mountains and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from Your fierce anger and relent of this evil against Your people.

13 Remember Avraham, Yitzchak and Yisrael, Your avadim, to whom You swore by Your own self and said to them, I will multiply your zera as the cochavim of the shamayim and all this land that I have spoken of will I give to your zera and they shall inherit it le-olam-va-ed.

14 And אִי־אִזְרָאֵל relented of the evil which He thought to do to His people.

15 And Moshe turned and went down from the har and the two tablets of the testimony were in his hand: the tablets were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tablets were the work of Ahlohim and the writing was the writing of Ahlohim, inscribed upon the tablets.

17 And when Yahusha heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moshe, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And Moshe said, It is not the voice of them originating from strength, neither is it the voice of them routing the enemy: but the noise originating from celebrating wine I hear and the voice of sin.

19 And it came to pass, as soon as he came near to the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing: and Moshe's anger became hot and he cast the tablets out of his hands and broke them beneath the har.

20 And he took the calf that they had made and burned it in the fire and ground it to powder and scattered it upon the mayim and made the children of Yisrael drink of it.

21 And Moshe said to Aharon, What did this people do to you, that you have brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aharon said, Let not the anger of my master burn: you know the people that they are set on evil.

23 For they said to me, Make us ahlahim, which shall go before us: for as for this Moshe, the man that brought us up out of the land of Mitzrayim, we do not know what has become of him.

24 And I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire and there came out this calf.

25 And when Moshe saw that the people had broken loose; for Aharon had let them loose to their shame among their enemies:

26 Then Moshe stood in the gate of the camp and said, Who is on אֱלֹהִים 's side? Let him come to me. And all the sons of Lewi gathered themselves together to him.

27 And he said to them, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, Put every man his sword by his side and go in and out from tent to tent throughout the camp and slay every man his brother and every man his companion and every man his neighbor.

28 And the children of Lewi did according to the word of Moshe: and there died of the people that yom about three thousand men.

29 For Moshe had said, Ordain yourselves today for service to אֱלֹהִים, since every man was against his son and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a bracha this yom.

30 And it came to pass on the next yom, that Moshe said to the people, You have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up to אֱלֹהִים; perhaps I shall make a keporah for your sin.

31 And Moshe returned to אֱלֹהִים and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin and have made for themselves ahlahim of gold.

32 Yet now, if You will please forgive their sin....; but if not, please blot me, I ask You, out of Your scroll that You have written.

33 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Whoever has sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My scroll.

34 Therefore now go lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you: see, My Malach shall go before you: nevertheless in the yom when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And אֱלֹהִים plagued the people because they made the calf, which Aharon also made.

33 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Depart and go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought up out of the land of Mitzrayim, to the land which I swore to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, saying, Unto your zera will I give it:

2 And I will send A Malach before you; and I will drive out the Kanaanite, the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Yevusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of you; for you are a stiff-necked people: lest I consume you in the derech.

4 And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For אֱלֹהִים had said to Moshe, Say to the children of Yisrael, You are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of you in a moment and consume you: therefore now put off your ornaments from you, that I may know what to do to you.

6 And the children of Yisrael stripped themselves of their ornaments by the Har Horev.

7 And Moshe took the Mishkan and pitched it outside the camp, far off from the camp and called it the Mishkan of the kehilla. And it came to pass, that every one who sought אֱלֹהִים went out to the Mishkan of the kehilla, which was outside the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moshe went out to the Mishkan that all the people rose up and stood every man at his tent door and looked at Moshe, until he was gone into the Mishkan.

9 And it came to pass, as Moshe entered into the Mishkan, the cloudy pillar descended and stood at the door of the Mishkan and אֱלֹהִים talked with Moshe.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the Mishkan door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe panayim-el-panayim, as a man speaks to his chaver. And he returned again into the camp: but his eved Yahusha, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the Mishkan.

12 And Moshe said to אֱלֹהִים, See, You said to me, Bring up this people: and You have not let me know whom You will send with me. Yet You have said, I know you by name and you have also found chen in My sight.

13 Now therefore, I ask You, if I have found chen in Your sight, show me now Your Derech, that I may know You, that I may find chen in Your sight: and consider that this nation is Your people.

14 And He said, My Presence shall go with you and I will give you rest.

15 And he said to Him, If Your Presence goes not with me, carry us not up there.

16 For how shall it be known here that I and Your people have found chen in Your sight? Except You go with us? So shall we be separated, I and Your people, from all the goyim that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, I will do this thing also that you have spoken: for you have found chen in My sight and I know you by name.

18 And Moshe said, I beg You, show me Your Kavod.

19 And He said, I will make all My Tov to pass before you and I will proclaim the Name of אֱלֹהִים before you; And will show unmerited chen to whom I will and will show rachamim to whom I will.

20 And He said, You cannot see My face: for there shall no man see Me and live.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said, See, there is a place by Me and you shall stand upon The Rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while My Kavod passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the Rock and will cover you with My hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away My Hand and you shall see My back: But My face shall not be seen.

34 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Cut two tablets of stone like the first: and I will write upon these tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

2 And be ready in the boker and come up in the boker to Har Senai and present yourself there to Me on the top of the har.

3 And no man shall come up with you, neither let any man be seen throughout the entire har; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before the har.

4 And he cut two tablets of stone like the first; and Moshe rose up early in the boker and went up to Har Senai, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him and took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

5 And אֱלֹהִים descended in the cloud and stood with him there and proclaimed the Name of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And אֱלֹהִים passed by before him and proclaimed, אֱלֹהִים, אֱלֹהִים. An El, full of rachamim and chen, longsuffering and abundant in, chesed and emet,

7 Keeping chesed for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin and will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the ahvot upon the children and upon the children's children, to the third and to the fourth generation.

8 And Moshe hurried and bowed his head toward the earth and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found chen in Your sight, O אֱלֹהִים, let אֱלֹהִים, I beg You, go among us; for it is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin and take us for Your inheritance.

10 And He said, See, I make a brit: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation: and all the people among whom you are, shall see the work of אֱלֹהִים: for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you.

11 Observe that which I command you this yom. See, I drive out from before you the Amorite and the Kanaanite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivite and the Yevusite.

12 Guard yourself, lest you make a brit with the inhabitants of the land where you go, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you:

13 But you shall destroy their altars, break their images and cut down their groves:

14 For you shall worship no other el: for אֱלֹהִים, whose Name is Zealous, is a zealous El:

15 Lest you make a brit with the inhabitants of the land and they go whoring after their ahlahim and do sacrifice to their ahlahim and one calls to you and you eat of his sacrifice;

16 And you take of their daughters for your sons and their daughters go whoring after their ahlahim and make your sons go whoring after their ahlahim.

17 You shall make yourselves no molded ahlahim.

18 Chag Matzoth shall you shomer. Seven yamim you shall eat matzah, as I commanded you, at the time of the chodesh Aviv: for in the chodesh Aviv you came out from Mitzrayim.

19 All that pehters the womb is Mine; and every bachor among your cattle, whether ox, or sheep, that is male.

20 But the bachor of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb: and if you redeem him not, then shall you break his neck. All the bachor of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before Me empty.

21 Six yamim you shall work, but on the seventh yom you shall rest: in plowing time and in harvest time you shall rest.

22 And you shall observe Chag Shavuot, of the bikkurim of the wheat harvest and the moadeem of the ingatherings in the middle of the year and the chag of the last ingathering-Sukkot at the turn of the year-tekufat ha-shanna.

23 Three times in the year shall all your male children appear before אלהים Ahlohim, the Ahlohim of Yisrael.

24 For I will cast out the goyim before you and enlarge your borders: neither shall any man desire your land, when you shall go up to appear before אלהים your Ahlohim three times in the year.

25 You shall not offer the dahm of My sacrifice with chametz; neither shall the sacrifice of the moed of the Pesach be left to the boker.

26 The first of the bikkurim of your land you shall bring to the Bayit of אלהים your Ahlohim. You shall not cook a kid in its eema's milk.

27 And אלהים said to Moshe, Write these Words: for according to the mouth of these Words I have made a brit with you and with Yisrael.

28 And Moshe was there with אלהים forty yamim and forty laylot; he did neither eat lechem, nor drink mayim. And he wrote upon the tablets the words of the brit, the ten words.

29 And it came to pass, when Moshe came down from Har Senai with the two tablets of testimony in Moshe's hand, when he came down from the har, that Moshe did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with Him.

30 And when Aharon and all the children of Yisrael saw Moshe, see, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come near him.

31 And Moshe called to them; and to Aharon and all the rulers of the kehilla returned to him: and Moshe talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Yisrael came near: and he gave them in commands all that אלהים had spoken with him on Har Senai.

33 And until Moshe had done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

34 But when Moshe went in before אלהים to speak with Him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out and spoke to the children of Yisrael that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Yisrael saw the face of Moshe that the skin of Moshe's face shone; and Moshe put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

Torah Parsha 22 Shavuah-Week 22-Vayakel
Moshe. Shemot-Exodus chapters 35-38. Renewed
Covenant Maaseh Shlichim-Acts chapters 11-15.

35 And Moshe gathered all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael together and said to them, These are the words that אֱלֹהִים has commanded, that you should do them.

2 Six yamim shall work be done, but on the seventh yom there shall be to you a kadosh yom, a Shabbat of rest to אֱלֹהִים: whoever does work on it shall be put to death.

3 You shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings upon The Shabbat yom.

4 And Moshe spoke to all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, saying, This is the thing that אֱלֹהִים commanded, saying,

5 Take from among you an offering to אֱלֹהִים: whoever is of a willing lev, let him bring it, an offering for אֱלֹהִים; gold and silver and brass,

6 And blue and purple and scarlet and fine linen and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red and blue/violet skins and acacia wood,

8 And oil for the ohr and spices for anointing oil and for the sweet incense,

9 And onyx stones and stones to be set for the shoulder garment and for the breastplate.

10 And every wise hearted among you shall come and make all that אֱלֹהִים has commanded;

11 The Mishkan, its tent and its covering, its hooks and its boards, its bars, its pillars and its sockets,

12 The ark and the poles of it, with the lid of keporah and the veil of the covering,

13 The shulchan and its poles and all its vessels and the Lechem ha Panayim,

14 The menorah also for the ohr and its furniture and its lamps, with the oil for the ohr, 15 And the incense altar and its poles and the anointing oil and the sweet incense and the hanging for the door at the entrance of the Mishkan, 16 The altar of burnt offering, with its bronze grating, its poles and all its vessels, the basin and its stand,
17 The hangings of the court, its pillars and their sockets and the hanging for the door of the court, 18 The pegs of the Mishkan and the pegs of the court and their cords, 19 The clothing of service, to do service in the kadosh place, the kadosh garments for Aharon the kohen and the garments of his sons, to attend in the kohen's office.
20 And all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael departed from the presence of Moshe.
21 And they came, every one whose lev was stirred up and every one whose ruach was willing and they brought אֲרָאָה 's offering to the work of the Mishkan of the kehilla, for all its service and for the kadosh garments.
22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing in lev and brought bracelets and earrings and rings and tablets, all jewels of gold:
and every man that offered a wave offering of gold to אֲרָאָה.
23 And every man, with whom was found blue and purple and scarlet and fine linen and goats' hair and red skins of rams and blue/violet skins, brought them.
24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought an offering to אֲרָאָה: and every man, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise in lev did spin with their hands and brought that which they had spun, both of blue and of purple and of scarlet and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose lev stirred them up in chochmah spun goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones and stones to be set, for the shoulder garment and for the breastplate;

28 And spices and oil for the ohr and for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Yisrael brought a willing offering to אֱלֹהִים, every man and woman, whose lev made them willing to bring something for all manner of work, which אֱלֹהִים had commanded to be made by the hand of Moshe.

30 And Moshe said to the children of Yisrael, See, אֱלֹהִים has called by name Betzal-Ei the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahudah;

31 And He has filled him with The Ruach of Ahlohim, in chochmah, in binah and in da'at and in all manner of workmanship;

32 And to design, to work in gold and in silver and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stones, to set them and in carving of wood, to make all manner of skilled work.

34 And He has put this in his lev that he may teach, both he and Aholiav, the son of Achisamach, of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them has He filled with chochmah of lev, to work all manner of work, of the engraver and of the skilled workman and of the embroiderer, in blue and in purple, in scarlet and in fine linen and of the weaver, even of them that do any work and of those that design skilled work.

36 Then made Betzal-EI and Aholiav and every wise hearted man, in whom אִיִּיִּי put chochmah and binah to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the Kadosh-Place, according to all that אִיִּיִּי had commanded.

2 And Moshe called Betzal-EI and Aholiav and every wise hearted man, in whose lev אִיִּיִּי had put chochmah, even every one whose lev was stirred up to come to the work to do it:

3 And they received from Moshe all the offerings, which the children of Yisrael had brought for the work of the service of the Kadosh-Place, to make it complete. And they brought to him free will offerings every boker.

4 And all the wise men, that were doing all the work of the Kadosh-Place, came every man from his work that they made;

5 And they spoke to Moshe, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which אִיִּיִּי commanded to make.

6 And Moshe gave an order and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make anymore work for the offering of the Kadosh-Place. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For that which they had was sufficient for all the work to be made; and it was too much.

8 And every wise hearted man among them that made the work of the Mishkan made ten curtains of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet: with cheruvim of skilled work he made them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty eight cubits and the width of one curtain four cubits: the curtains were all of one size.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one to another: and the other five curtains he coupled one to another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from one set in the coupling: likewise he made them in the end curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops he made in one curtain and fifty loops he made in the edge of the curtain that was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty hooks of gold and coupled the curtains one to another with the hooks: so it became one Mishkan.

14 And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the Mishkan: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits and four cubits was the width of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling and fifty loops he made upon the edge of the curtain that couples the second.

18 And he made fifty hooks of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red and a covering of blue/violet skins above that.

20 And he made boards for the Mishkan of acacia wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits and the width of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: so did he make for all the boards of the Mishkan.

23 And he made boards for the Mishkan; twenty boards for the south side southward:

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons and two sockets under another board for its two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the Mishkan, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the Mishkan westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the Mishkan in the two sides.

29 And they were coupled beneath and coupled together at the head of it, to one ring: this he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, under every board two sockets.

31 And he made bars of acacia wood; five for the boards of the one side of the Mishkan, 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the Mishkan and five bars for the boards of the Mishkan for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he covered the boards with gold and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars and covered the bars with gold.

35 And he made a veil of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen: with cheruvim he made it of skilled work.

36 And he made four pillars of acacia wood and covered them with gold: their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 And he made a covering for the Mishkan door of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen, of needlework;

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he covered their tops and their rings with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

37 And Betzal-EI made the ark of acacia wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it and a cubit and a half the width of it and a cubit and a half the height of it:

2 And he covered it with pure gold inside and outside and made a keter of gold for it all around.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it; even two rings upon one side of it and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold.

5 And he put the poles into the rings by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 And he made the lid of keporah of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length of it and one cubit and a half the width of it.

7 And he made two cheruvim of gold, beaten out of one piece he made them, on the two ends of the lid of keporah;

8 One cheruv on the end on this side and another cheruv on the other end on that side: out of the lid of keporah he made the cheruvim on the two ends of it.

9 And the cheruvim spread out their wings on high and covered with their wings over the lid of keporah, with their faces one to another; even towards the lid of keporah were turned the faces of the cheruvim.

10 And he made the shulchan of acacia wood: two cubits was the length of it and a cubit the width of it and a cubit and a half the height of it:

11 And he covered it with pure gold and made on it a keter of gold all around.

12 Also he made on it a border of a handbreadth all around; and made a keter of gold for the border of it all around.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four legs of it.

14 Opposite the border were the rings, the places for the poles to bear the shulchan.

15 And he made the poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold, to bear the shulchan.

16 And he made the vessels, which were upon the shulchan, its dishes and its spoons and its bowls and its jars for pouring with, pure gold.

17 And he made the menorah of pure gold: of beaten work he made the menorah; its shaft and its branch, its cups, its knobs and its blossoms, were the same:

18 And six branches going out of the sides of it; three branches of the menorah out of one side of it and three branches of the menorah out of the other side:

19 Three cups made after the fashion of almonds in one branch, a knob and a blossom; and three cups made like almonds in another branch, a knob and a blossom: so it was done throughout the six branches going out of the menorah.

20 And in the menorah were four cups made like almonds, its knobs and its blossoms:

21 And a knob under two branches of the same and a knob under two branches of the same and a knob under two branches of the same, for the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knobs and their branches were the same:
all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps and its snuffers and its trays, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold he made it and all the vessels of it.

25 And he made the incense altar of acacia wood:
the length of it was a cubit and the width of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; the horns of it were of the same.

26 And he covered it with pure gold, both the top of it and the sides of it all around and the horns of it:
also he made for it a keter of gold all around.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the keter, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides of it, to be places for the poles to lift it.

28 And he made the poles of acacia wood and covered them with gold.

29 And he made the kadosh anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

38 And he made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood: five cubits was the length of it and five cubits the width of it; it was foursquare; and three cubits the height of it.

2 And he made the horns of it on the four corners of it; the horns of it were of the same: and he covered it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots and the shovels and the basins and the flesh hooks and the firepans: all the vessels of it he made of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brass-grated network, under its rim, midway from the bottom.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the poles.

6 And he made the poles of acacia wood and covered them with brass.

7 And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, to lift it; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 And he made the basin of brass and the stand from brass, from the bronze mirrors of the women assembling, who did service at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

9 And he made the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, a hundred cubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty and their bronze sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their bands were of silver.

11 And for the north side the hangings were a hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.

12 And for the west side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten and their sockets ten; the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits; their pillars three and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this hand and that hand, were hangings of fifteen cubits; their pillars three and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court all around were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their bands of silver; and the covering of their tops of silver; and all the pillars of the court were banded with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was needlework, of blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length and the height in the width was five cubits, corresponding to the screens of the court.

19 And their pillars were four and their sockets of brass four; their hooks of silver and the covering of their tops and their bands of silver.

20 And all the pegs of the Mishkan and of the court all around, were of brass.

21 This is the census of the Mishkan, even of the Mishkan of testimony, as it was counted, according to the command of Moshe, for the service of the Lewiym, by the hand of Ithamar, son to Aharon the kohen.

22 And Betzal-Ei the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahudah, made all that אֵלֵי אֵלֵי commanded Moshe.

23 And with him was Aholiav, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and a skilled workman and an embroiderer in blue and in purple and in scarlet and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the kadosh place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents and seven hundred thirty shekels, according to the shekel of the Kadosh-Place.

25 And the silver from them that were numbered from the kehilla was a hundred talents and one thousand seven hundred seventy five shekels, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place:

26 A bekah for every man, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place, for every one that went to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty men.

27 And from the hundred talents of silver were cast the sockets of the Kadosh-Place and the sockets of the veil; a hundred sockets from the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And from the one thousand seven hundred seventy five shekels he made hooks for the pillars and covered their tops and made bands for them.

29 And the brass from the offering was seventy talents and two thousand four hundred shekels.

30 And with it he made the sockets to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and the bronze altar and the bronze grate for it and all the vessels of the altar, 31 And the sockets of the court all around and the sockets of the court gate and all the pegs of the Mishkan and all the pegs of the court all around.

39 And of the blue and purple and scarlet, they made clothing of service, to do service in the kadosh place and made the kadosh garments for Aharon; as אִפְאֵז commanded Moshe.

2 And he made the shoulder garment of gold, blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue and in the purple and in the scarlet and in the fine linen, with skilled work.

4 They made shoulder pieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the embroidered band of his shoulder garment, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work of it; of gold, blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen; as אִפְאֵז commanded Moshe.

6 And they made onyx stones enclosed in settings of gold, graven, as signets are engraven, with the names of the children of Yisrael.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the shoulder garment, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Yisrael; as אָרָאָז commanded Moshe.

8 And he made the breastplate of skilled work, like the work of the shoulder garment; of gold, blue and purple and scarlet and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length of it and a span the width of it, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx and a jasper: they were enclosed in settings of gold.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Yisrael, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two settings of gold and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two cords of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two cords they fastened in the two settings and put them on the shoulder pieces of the shoulder garment, in the front.

19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the shoulder garment inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings and put them on the two sides of the shoulder garment underneath, toward the front of it, opposite the other coupling of it, above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the shoulder garment with a lace of blue, that it might be above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the shoulder garment; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

22 And he made the robe of the shoulder garment of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of a strong armor, with a band all around the hole that it should not tear.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet and twined linen.

25 And they made bells of pure gold and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, all around between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe to attend in; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

27 And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aharon and for his sons,

28 And a turban of fine linen and beautiful turban ornaments of fine linen and linen breeches of fine twined linen,

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen and blue and purple and scarlet, of needlework; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

30 And they made the plate of the kadosh keter of pure gold and wrote upon it a writing, like the engravings of a signet, Kadosh-Le-אֱלֹהִים.

31 And they tied to it a lace of blue, to fasten it high upon the turban; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

32 So all the work of the Mishkan of the tent of the kehilla was finished: and the children of Yisrael did according to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe, so they did.

33 And they brought the Mishkan to Moshe, the tent and all its furniture, its hooks, its boards, its bars and its pillars and its sockets,

34 And the covering of rams' skins dyed red and the covering of blue/violet skins and the veil of the covering,

35 The Ark of the Testimony and its poles and the lid of keporah,

36 The shulchan and all the vessels of it and the Lechem of the Panayim,

37 The gold menorah, with the lamps of it, even with the lamps to be set in order and all the vessels of it and the oil for ohr,

38 And the golden altar and the anointing oil and the sweet incense and the hanging for the Mishkan door,

39 The bronze altar and its grate of brass, its poles and all its vessels, the basin and its stand,

40 The hangings of the court, its pillars and its sockets and the hanging for the court gate, its cords and its pegs and all the vessels of the service of the Mishkan, for the tent of the kehilla, 41 The clothing of service to do service in the kadosh place and the kadosh garments for Aharon the kohen and his sons' garments, to attend in the kohen's office.

42 According to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe, so did the children of Yisrael all the work.

43 And Moshe did look upon all the work and, see, they had done it as אֱלֹהִים had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moshe blessed them.

40 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 On the first yom of the first chodesh shall you set up the Mishkan of the tent of the kehilla,

3 And you shall put in it the Ark of the Testimony and cover the ark with the veil.

4 And you shall bring in the shulchan and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it; and you shall bring in the menorah and light the lamps of it.

5 And you shall set the altar of gold for the incense before the Ark of the Testimony and put the hanging of the door to the Mishkan.

6 And you shall set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the Mishkan of the tent of the kehilla.

7 And you shall set the basin between the tent of the kehilla and the altar and shall put mayim inside.

8 And you shall set up the court all around and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And you shall take the anointing oil and anoint the Mishkan and all that is inside and shall set it apart and all the vessels of it: and it shall be kadosh.

10 And you shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its vessels and set apart the altar: and it shall be an altar most kadosh.

11 And you shall anoint the basin and its stand and set it apart.

12 And you shall bring Aharon and his sons to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and wash them with mayim.

13 And you shall put upon Aharon the kadosh garments and anoint him and set him apart; that he may attend to Me in the kohen's office.

14 And you shall bring his sons and clothe them with long robes:

15 And you shall anoint them, as you did anoint their abba that they may attend to Me in the kohen's office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting kohanut throughout their generations.

16 So Moshe did: according to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded him, so did he.

17 And it came to pass in the first chodesh in the second year, on the first yom of the chodesh; that the Mishkan was raised up.

18 And Moshe raised up the Mishkan and fastened its sockets and set up the boards of it and put in the bars of it and raised up its pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the Mishkan and put the covering of the tent above it; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

20 And he took and put the testimony into the ark and set the poles on the ark and put the lid of keporah above the ark:

21 And he brought the ark into the Mishkan and set up the veil of the covering and covered the Ark of the Testimony; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

22 And he put the shulchan in the tent of the kehilla, upon the side of the Mishkan northward, outside the veil.

23 And he set the lechem in order upon it before אֱלֹהִים; as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe.

24 And he put the menorah in the tent of the kehilla, opposite the shulchan, on the side of the Mishkan southward.

25 And he lit the lamps before אֱלֹהִים; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tent of the kehilla before the veil:

27 And he burned sweet incense on it; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

28 And he set up the hanging at the door of the Mishkan.

29 And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the Mishkan of the tent of the kehilla and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

30 And he set the basin between the tent of the kehilla and the altar and put mayim there, to wash with.

31 And Moshe and Aharon and his sons washed their hands and their feet there:

32 When they went into the tent of the kehilla and when they came near to the altar, they washed; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

33 And he raised up the court all around the Mishkan and the altar and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moshe finished the work.

34 Then a cloud covered the tent of the kehilla and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים filled the Mishkan.

35 And Moshe was not able to enter into the tent of the kehilla because the cloud dwelt on it and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים filled the Mishkan.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the Mishkan, the children of Yisrael went onward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they journeyed not until the yom that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of אֱלֹהִים was upon the Mishkan by yom and fire was on it by lyla, in the sight of all beit Yisrael, throughout all their journeys. X

Leviticus-Wayiqra

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 And אֱלֹהִים called to Moshe and spoke to him out of the Mishkan of the kehilla, saying,
- 2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, If any man of you bring an offering to אֱלֹהִים you shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd and of the flock.
- 3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla before אֱלֹהִים.
- 4 And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make keporah for him.
- 5 And he shall kill the bull before אֱלֹהִים: and the kohanim, Aharon's sons, shall bring the dahm and sprinkle the dahm all around upon the altar that is by the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.
- 6 And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.
- 7 And the sons of Aharon the kohen shall put fire upon the altar and lay the wood in order upon the fire:
- 8 And the kohanim, Aharon's sons, shall lay the pieces, the head and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire that is upon the altar:
- 9 But its inwards and its legs shall he wash in mayim: and the kohen shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

10 And if his offering is of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the north side of the altar before אֱלֹהִים: and the kohanim, Aharon's sons, shall sprinkle its dahm all around upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat: and the kohen shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire that is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with mayim: and the kohen shall bring it all and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

14 And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to אֱלֹהִים be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the kohen shall bring it to the altar and wring off its head and burn it on the altar; and the dahm of it shall be drained out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away its crop with its feathers and cast it beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes:

17 And he shall rend it at its wings, but shall not divide it asunder: and the kohen shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

2 And when any will offer a grain offering to אֱלֹהִים, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it and put frankincense on it:

2 And he shall bring it to Aharon's sons the kohanim: and he shall take from it his handful of the flour of it and of the oil of it, with all the frankincense of it; and the kohen shall burn the remembrance portion of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים:

3 And the remnant of the grain offering shall be Aharon's and his sons: it is a thing most kadosh of the offerings of אִפְאֵל made by fire.

4 And if you bring an offering of a grain offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or matzah wafers anointed with oil.

5 And if your offering is a grain offering baked in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mixed with oil.

6 You shall part it in pieces and pour oil on it: it is a grain offering.

7 And if your offering is a grain offering baked in the frying pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And you shall bring the grain offering that is made of these things to אִפְאֵל: And when it is presented to the kohen, he shall bring it to the altar.

9 And the kohen shall take from the grain offering a remembrance portion and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אִפְאֵל.

10 And that which is left of the grain offering shall be Aharon's and his sons: it is a thing most kadosh of the offerings of אִפְאֵל made by fire.

11 No grain offering, which you shall bring to אִפְאֵל, shall be made with chametz: for you shall burn no chametz, nor any honey, in any offering to אִפְאֵל made by fire.

12 Regarding the offering of bikkurim, you shall offer them to אִפְאֵל: but they shall not be burned on the altar for a sweet fragrance.

13 And every offering of your grain offering shall you season with salt; neither shall you allow the salt of the brit of your Ahlohim to be lacking from your grain offering: with all your offerings you shall offer salt.

14 And if you offer a grain offering of your bikkurim to אִפְאֵל, you shall offer for the grain offering of your bikkurim, the aviv of grain, dried by the fire, even grain crushed out of full ears.

15 And you shall put oil upon it and lay frankincense on it: it is a grain offering.

16 And the kohen shall burn the remembrance portion of it, part of the crushed grain of it and part of the oil of it, with all the frankincense of it: it is an offering made by fire to אלהים.

Torah Parsha 24 Shavuah-Week 24 V'im Zevach Shlamim Wayiqra-Leviticus chapters 3-6. Renewed Covenant. Maaseh Shlichim-Acts chapters 21-25.

3 And if his offering is a sacrifice of a shalom offering, if he offer it from the herd; whether it be a male, or female, he shall offer it without blemish before אלהים.

2 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering and kill it at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla: and Aharon's sons the kohanim shall sprinkle the dahm upon the altar all around.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the shalom offering an offering made by fire to אלהים; the fat that covers the inwards and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

5 And Aharon's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אלהים.

6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of shalom offering to אלהים be of the flock; male, or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7 If he offers a lamb for his offering, then shall he offer it before אֱלֹהִים.

8 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering and kill it before the Mishkan of the kehilla: and Aharon's sons shall sprinkle the dahm of it upon the altar all around.

9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the shalom offering an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים; the fat of it with the whole tail, shall he take off close by the backbone; and the fat that covers the inwards and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

10 And the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them, which is by the loins and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

11 And the kohen shall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

12 And if his offering is a goat, then he shall offer it before אֱלֹהִים.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it and kill it before the Mishkan of the kehilla: and the sons of Aharon shall sprinkle the dahm of it upon the altar all around.

14 And he shall offer of it his offering, even an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים; the fat that covers the inwards and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

15 And the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them, which is by the loins and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

16 And the kohen shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire for a sweet fragrance: all the fat is אֱלֹהִים 's.

17 It shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that you eat neither fat nor dahm.

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, If a being shall sin through ignorance against any of the mitzvot of אִשְׁתֵּי אֲשֵׁר לֹא יֵעָשׂוּ concerning things which should not be done and shall do any of them:

3 If the anointed kohen commits sin, like the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bull without blemish to אִשְׁתֵּי אֲשֵׁר for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bull to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla before אִשְׁתֵּי אֲשֵׁר; and shall lay his hand upon the bull's head and kill the bull before אִשְׁתֵּי אֲשֵׁר.

5 And the kohen that is anointed shall take of the bull's dahm and bring it to the Mishkan of the kehilla:

6 And the kohen shall dip his finger in the dahm and sprinkle the dahm seven times before אִשְׁתֵּי אֲשֵׁר, before the veil of the Kadosh-Place.

7 And the kohen shall put some of the dahm upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before אִשְׁתֵּי אֲשֵׁר, which is in the Mishkan of the kehilla: and shall pour all the dahm of the bull at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bull for the sin offering; the fat that covers the inwards and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys and the fat that is upon them, which is by the loins and the lobe above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 As it was taken off from the bull of the sacrifice of shalom offerings: and the kohen shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

11 And the skin of the bull and all its flesh, with its head and with its legs and its inwards and its dung,

12 Even the whole bull shall he carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out and burn it on the wood with fire: where the ashes are poured out shall it be burned.

13 And if the whole kehilla of Yisrael sins through ignorance and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the kehilla and they have done something against any of the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים concerning things which should not be done and are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned, is known, then the kehilla shall offer a young bull for the sin and bring it before the Mishkan of the kehilla.

15 And the zechanim of the kehilla shall lay their hands upon the head of the bull before אֱלֹהִים: and the bull shall be killed before אֱלֹהִים.

16 And the kohen that is anointed shall bring of the bull's dahm to the Mishkan of the kehilla:

17 And the kohen shall dip his finger in some of the dahm and sprinkle it seven times before אֱלֹהִים, even in front of the veil.

18 And he shall put some of the dahm upon the horns of the altar which is before אֱלֹהִים, that is in the Mishkan of the kehilla and shall pour out all the dahm at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

19 And he shall take all its fat from it and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: and the kohen shall make keporah for them and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull: it is a sin offering for the kehilla.

22 When a ruler has sinned and done something through ignorance against any of the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim concerning things that should not be done and is guilty;

23 Or, if his sin, that he has sinned, comes to his da'at; he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish:

24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before אֵלֹהִים: it is a sin offering.

25 And the kohen shall take of the dahm of the sin offering with his finger and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering and shall pour out its dahm at the bottom of the altar of burnt offering.

26 And he shall burn all its fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of the shalom offerings: and the kohen shall make keporah for him as concerning his sin and it shall be forgiven him.

27 And if any one of the common people sin through ignorance, while he does something against any of the mitzvot of אֵלֹהִים concerning things which should not be done and is guilty;

28 Or, if his sin, which he has sinned, comes to his da'at: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned.

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering and slay the sin offering in the place of the burnt offering.

30 And the kohen shall take of the dahm of it with his finger and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering and shall pour out all the dahm of it at the bottom of the altar.

31 And he shall take away all the fat of it, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of shalom offerings; and the kohen shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet fragrance to אֵלֹהִים; and the kohen shall make keporah for him and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he brings a lamb for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sin offering and slay it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering.

34 And the kohen shall take of the dahm of the sin offering with his finger and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering and shall pour out all the dahm of it at the bottom of the altar:

35 And he shall take away all the fat of it, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the shalom offerings; and the kohen shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to אֵלֹהִים: and the kohen shall make keporah for his sin that he has committed and it shall be forgiven him.

5 And if a being sins and hears the voice of swearing and is a witness, whether he has seen, or known of it; if he does not reveal it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2 Or, if a being touches any unclean thing, whether it be a carcass of an unclean beast, or a carcass of unclean cattle, or the carcass of unclean creeping things and if it is hidden from him; he also shall be unclean and guilty.

3 Or, if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever uncleanness it is with which a man shall be defiled and it be hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or, if a being swears, speaking with his lips to do evil, or to do tov, whatever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath and it be hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he has sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his guilt offering to אֱלֹהֵיךָ for his sin that he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the kohen shall make keporah for him concerning his sin.

7 And if he is not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his guilt, which he has committed, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to אֱלֹהֵיךָ; one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them to the kohen, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not divide it asunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle of the dahm of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the dahm shall be drained out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the manner: and the kohen shall make keporah for him for his sin that he has sinned and it shall be forgiven him.

11 But if he is not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense on it: for it is a sin offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the kohen and the kohen shall take his handful of it, even a remembrance portion of it and burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהֵיךָ: it is a sin offering.

13 And the kohen shall make keporah for him as touching his sin that he has sinned in one of these and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the kohen's, as a grain offering.

14 And אֱלֹהֵיךָ spoke to Moshe, saying,

15 If a being commits a trespass and sin through ignorance, in the kadosh things of אֱלֹהִים; then he shall bring for his guilt to אֱלֹהִים a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with your estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place, for a guilt offering:

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he has done in the kadosh thing and shall add a fifth part to it and give it to the kohen: and the kohen shall make keporah for him with the ram of the guilt offering and it shall be forgiven him.

17 And if a being sins and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים; though he knew it not, yet is he guilty and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to your estimation, for a guilt offering, to the kohen: and the kohen shall make keporah for him concerning his ignorance where he made a mistake and did not know it and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a guilt offering: he has certainly trespassed against אֱלֹהִים.

6 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 If a being sins and commits a sin against אֱלֹהִים and lies to his neighbor in that which was delivered to him to keep, or in pledge, or in a thing taken away by violence, or has deceived his neighbor;

3 Or, has found that which was lost and lies about it and swears falsely; in any of these that a man does by sinning:

4 Then it shall be because he has sinned and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he has deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered to him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or, all that about which he has sworn falsely; he shall even restore its principal and shall add the fifth part more to it and give it to him to whom it belongs, in the yom of his guilt offering.

6 And he shall bring his guilt offering to אֵיִשׁ, a ram without blemish out of the flock, with your estimation, for a guilt offering, to the kohen:

7 And the kohen shall make keporah for him before אֵיִשׁ: and it shall be forgiven him for anything that he has done in trespassing in it.

8 And אֵיִשׁ spoke to Moshe, saying,

9 Command Aharon and his sons, saying, This is the Torah of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering because of the burning upon the altar all lyla to the boker and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

10 And the kohen shall put on his linen garment and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh and take up the ashes which the fire has consumed with the burnt offering on the altar and he shall put them beside the altar.

11 And he shall put off his garments and put on other garments and carry forth the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the kohen shall burn wood on it every boker and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn on it the fat of the shalom offerings.

13 The fire shall always be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

14 And this is the Torah of the grain offering: the sons of Aharon shall offer it before אֵיִשׁ, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the grain offering and of the oil of it and all the frankincense which is upon the grain offering and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet fragrance, even the remembrance portion of it, to אֱלֹהִים.

16 And the remainder of it shall Aharon and his sons eat: with unleavened lechem shall it be eaten in the Kadosh-Place; in the court of the Mishkan of the kehilla they shall eat it.

17 It shall not be baked with chametz. I have given it to them for their portion of My offerings made by fire; it is most kadosh, as is the sin offering and as the guilt offering.

18 All the males among the children of Aharon shall eat of it. It shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed in your generations concerning the offerings of אֱלֹהִים made by fire: every one that touches them shall be kadosh.

19 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aharon and of his sons, which they shall offer to אֱלֹהִים in the yom when he is anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering perpetual, half of it in the boker and half of it at lyla.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baked, you shall bring it in: and the baked pieces of the grain offering shall you offer for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

22 And the kohen from his sons that are anointed in his place shall offer it: it is a chuk le-olam-va-ed to אֱלֹהִים, it shall be wholly burned.

23 For every grain offering for the kohen shall be wholly burned: it shall not be eaten.

24 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

25 Speak to Aharon and to his sons, saying, This is the Torah of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before אֱלֹהִים: it is most kadosh.

26 The kohen that offers it for sin shall eat it: in the Kadosh-Place shall it be eaten, in the court of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

27 Whatever shall touch the flesh of it shall be kadosh: and when there is sprinkled dahm upon any garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a Kadosh-Place.

28 But the earthen vessel in which it is cooked shall be broken: and if it be cooked in a bronze pot, it shall be scoured and rinsed in mayim.

29 All the males among the kohanim shall eat of it: it is most kadosh.

30 And no sin offering, from which any of the dahm is brought into the Mishkan of the kehilla to make keporah in the Kadosh-Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burned in the fire.

Torah Parsha 25 Shavuah-Week 25 Torat Ha-Asham Wayiqra- Leviticus chapters 7-10. Renewed Covenant Maaseh Shlichim-Acts chapters 26-28.

7 Likewise this is the Torah of the guilt offering: it is most kadosh.

2 In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the guilt offering: and the dahm of it shall he sprinkle all around upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer from it all the fat; the tail and the fat that covers the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins and the lobe that is above the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away:

5 And the kohen shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים: it is a guilt offering.

6 Every male among the kohanim shall eat of it: it shall be eaten in a kadosh-place: it is most kadosh.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the guilt offering: there is one Torah for them: the kohen that makes keporah with it shall have it.

8 And the kohen that offers any man's burnt offering, even the kohen shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering that he has offered.

9 And the entire grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is dressed in the frying pan and in the pan, shall be the kohen's that offers it.

10 And every grain offering, mixed with oil and dry, shall all the sons of Aharon have, one as much as another.

11 And this is the Torah of the sacrifice of shalom offerings, which one shall offer to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

12 If he offers it for a hodu, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of hodu unleavened cakes mixed with oil and unleavened wafers anointed with oil and cakes mixed with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering leavened lechem with the sacrifice of hodu for his shalom offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole offering for a contribution to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם and it shall be the kohen's that sprinkles the dahm of the shalom offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his shalom offerings for hodu shall be eaten the same yom that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the boker.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same yom that he offers his sacrifice: and on the next yom also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third yom shall be burned with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his shalom offerings be eaten at all on the third yom, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed to him that offers it: it shall be an abomination and the being that eats of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that touches any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire: and as for the flesh, all that is clean shall eat of it.

20 But the being that eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of shalom offerings, that pertains to אֱלֹהִים, having his uncleanness upon him, even that being shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the being that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing and eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of shalom offerings, which pertains to אֱלֹהִים, even that being shall be cut off from his people.

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

23 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, You shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the beast that dies by itself and the fat of that which is torn by living creatures, may be used in any other use: but you shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whoever eats the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, even that being that eats it shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover you shall eat no manner of dahm, whether it be of fowl, or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatever being it is that eats any manner of dahm, even that being shall be cut off from his people.

28 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

29 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, He that offers the sacrifice of his shalom offerings to אֱלֹהִים shall bring his offering to אֱלֹהִים from the sacrifice of his shalom offerings.

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings to אֱלֹהִים made by fire. The fat with the breast, shall he bring, that the breast may be waved for a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים.

31 And the kohen shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aharon's and his sons'.

32 And the right thigh shall you give to the kohen for a contribution offering of the sacrifices of your shalom offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aharon, that offers the dahm of the shalom offerings and the fat, shall have the right thigh for his part.

34 For the wave breast and the heave thigh have I taken from the children of Yisrael from off the sacrifices of their shalom offerings and have given them to Aharon the kohen and to his sons by a chuk le-olam-va-ed from among the children of Yisrael.

35 This is the portion of the anointing of Aharon and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of אֱלֹהִים made by fire, in the yom when he presented them to attend to אֱלֹהִים in the kohen's office;

36 Which אֱלֹהִים commanded to be given to them by the children of Yisrael, in the yom that He anointed them, by a chuk le-olam-va-ed throughout their generations.

37 This is the Torah of the burnt offering, of the grain offering and of the sin offering and of the guilt offering and of the consecration offerings and of the sacrifice of the shalom offerings;

38 Which אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe on Har Senai, in the yom that He commanded the children of Yisrael to offer their offerings to אֱלֹהִים, in the wilderness of Senai.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Take Aharon and his sons with him and the garments and the anointing oil and a bull for the sin offering and two rams and a basket of unleavened lechem;

3 And gather the entire kehilla together to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

4 And Moshe did as אֱלֹהִים commanded him; and the kehilla was gathered together to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

5 And Moshe said to the kehilla, This is the thing that אֱלֹהִים commanded to be done.

6 And Moshe brought Aharon and his sons and washed them with mayim.

7 And he put upon him the coat and dressed him with the girdle and clothed him with the robe and put the ephod upon him and he dressed him with the long shirt of the ephod and bound it to him with it.

8 And he put the breastplate upon him: also he put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.

9 And he put the turban upon his head; also upon the turban, even upon its forefront, did he put the golden plate, the kadosh keter, as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

10 And Moshe took the anointing oil and anointed the Mishkan and all that was in it and set them apart.

11 And he sprinkled it upon the altar seven times and anointed the altar and all its vessels, both the basin and its stand, to set them apart.

12 And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aharon's head and anointed him, to set him apart.

13 And Moshe brought Aharon's sons and put robes upon them and dressed them with girdles and put turbans upon them; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

14 And he brought the bull for the sin offering: and Aharon and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the bull for the sin offering.

15 And he killed it; and Moshe took the dahm and put it upon the horns of the altar all around with his finger and purified the altar and poured the dahm at the bottom of the altar and set it apart, to make keporah upon it.

16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards and the lobe above the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and Moshe burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bull and its hide, its flesh and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

18 And he brought the ram for the burnt offering: and Aharon and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

19 And he killed it; and Moshe sprinkled the dahm upon the altar all around.

20 And he cut the ram into pieces; and Moshe burned the head and the pieces and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in mayim; and Moshe burned the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweet fragrance and an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

22 And he brought the other ram, the ram of consecration and Aharon and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the ram.

23 And he killed it; and Moshe took of the dahm of it and put it upon the tip of Aharon's right ear and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aharon's sons and Moshe put some of the dahm upon the tips of their right ears and upon the thumbs of their right hands and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moshe sprinkled the dahm upon the altar all around.

25 And he took the fat and the tail and all the fat that was upon the inwards and the lobe above the liver and the two kidneys and their fat and the right thigh:

26 And out of the basket of unleavened lechem, that was before אֱלֹהִים, he took one unleavened cake and a cake of oiled lechem and one wafer and put them on the fat and upon the right thigh:

27 And he put all upon Aharon's hands and upon his sons' hands and waved them for a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים.

28 And Moshe took them from off their hands and burned them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were consecrations for a sweet fragrance: it is an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

29 And Moshe took the breast and waved it for a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים: Taken from the ram of consecration it was Moshe's part as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

30 And Moshe took of the anointing oil and of the dahm which was upon the altar and sprinkled it upon Aharon and upon his garments and upon his sons and upon his sons' garments with him; and set Aharon apart and his garments and his sons and his sons' garments with him.

31 And Moshe said to Aharon and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla: and there eat it with the lechem that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, Aharon and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remains of the flesh and of the lechem shall you burn with fire.

33 And you shall not go out of the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla for seven yamim, until the yamim of your consecration are at an end: for seven yamim He shall consecrate you.

34 As He has done this yom, so אֱלֹהִים has commanded to do, to make keporah for you.

35 Therefore shall you abide at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla yom and lyla for seven yamim and guard the charge of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, that you do not die: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aharon and his sons did all things that אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded by the hand of Moshe.

9 And it came to pass on the eighth yom, that Moshe called Aharon and his sons and the zechanim of Yisrael.

2 And he said to Aharon, Take a young calf for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish and offer them before אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

3 And to the children of Yisrael you shall speak, saying, Take a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 Also a bull and a ram for shalom offerings, to sacrifice before אִיִּזְרָאֵל; and a grain offering mixed with oil: for today אִיִּזְרָאֵל will appear to you.

5 And they brought that which Moshe commanded before the Mishkan of the kehilla: and all the kehilla drew near and stood before אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

6 And Moshe said, This is the thing that אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded that you should do: and the tifereth of אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall appear to you.

7 And Moshe said to Aharon, Go to the altar and offer your sin offering and your burnt offering and make keporah for yourself and for the people: and offer the offering of the people and make keporah for them; as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded.

8 Aharon therefore went to the altar and killed the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aharon brought the dahm to him: and he dipped his finger in the dahm and put it upon the horns of the altar and poured out the dahm at the bottom of the altar:

10 But the fat and the kidneys and the lobe above the liver of the sin offering, he burned upon the altar; as אִתְּךָ commanded Moshe.

11 And the flesh and the hide he burned with fire outside the camp.

12 And he killed the burnt offering; and Aharon's sons presented to him the dahm, which he sprinkled all around upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering to him, with the pieces of it and the head: and he burned them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards and the legs and burned them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the people's offering and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people and killed it and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering and offered it according to the prescribed manner.

17 And he brought the grain offering and took a handful of it and burned it upon the altar, beside the burnt sacrifice of the boker.

18 He killed also the bull and the ram for a sacrifice of shalom offerings, which was for the people: and Aharon's sons presented to him the dahm, which he sprinkled upon the altar all around,

19 And the fat of the bull and of the ram, the tail and that which covers the inwards and the kidneys and the lobe above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts and he burned the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right thigh Aharon waved for a wave offering before אִתְּךָ; as Moshe commanded.

22 And Aharon lifted up his hand toward the people and blessed them and came down from offering the sin offering and the burnt offering and shalom offerings.

23 And Moshe and Aharon went into the Mishkan of the kehilla and came out and blessed the people: and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים appeared to all the people.
24 And there came a fire out from before אֱלֹהִים and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat. When all the people saw, they shouted and fell on their faces.

10 And Nadav and Avihu, the sons of Aharon, took each of them his censer and put fire in it and put incense on it and offered strange fire before אֱלֹהִים, which He commanded them not.
2 And there went out fire from אֱלֹהִים and devoured them and they died before אֱלֹהִים.
3 Then Moshe said to Aharon, This is that which אֱלֹהִים spoke, saying, I will be kadosh in them that come near Me and before all the people I will be esteemed. And Aharon held his silence.
4 And Moshe called Misha-El and El-Tzaphan, the sons of Uzzi-El the uncle of Aharon and said to them, Come near, carry your brothers from before the Kadosh-Place out of the camp.
5 So they went near and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moshe had said.
6 And Moshe said to Aharon and to El-Azar and to Ithamar, his sons, Uncover not your heads, neither tear your clothes; lest you die and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brothers, kol beit Yisrael, mourn the burning which אֱלֹהִים has lit.
7 And you shall not go out from the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, lest you die: for the anointing oil of אֱלֹהִים is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moshe.
8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Aharon, saying, 9 Do not drink wine nor strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Mishkan of the kehilla, lest you die: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed throughout your generations:

10 And that you may put a difference between that which is kadosh and defiled and between unclean and clean;

11 And that you may teach the children of Yisrael all the chukim, which אֱלֹהִים has spoken to them by the hand of Moshe.

12 And Moshe spoke to Aharon and to El-Azar and to Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the grain offering that remains of the offerings of אֱלֹהִים made by fire and eat it without chametz beside the altar: for it is most kadosh:

13 And you shall eat it in a kadosh place because it is your due and your sons' due, of the sacrifices of אֱלֹהִים made by fire: for so I am commanded.

14 And the wave breast and contribution thigh shall you eat in a clean place; you and your sons and your daughters with you: for they are your dues and your sons' dues, which are given out of the sacrifices of the shalom offerings of the children of Yisrael.

15 The contribution thigh and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים; and it shall be yours and your sons' with you, by a chuk le-olam-va-ed; as אֱלֹהִים has commanded.

16 And Moshe diligently sought the goat of the sin offering and, see, it was burned: and he was angry at El-Azar and Ithamar, the sons of Aharon who were left alive, saying,

17 Why have you not eaten the sin offering in the Kadosh-Place, seeing it is most kadosh and Ahlohim has given it you to bear the iniquity of the kehilla, to make keporah for them before אֱלֹהִים?

18 See, the dahm was not brought in within the sanctuary: you should indeed have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.

19 And Aharon said to Moshe, See, this yom have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים; and such things would have befallen me if I had eaten the sin offering today; would it have been right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים ?

20 And when Moshe heard that, he was content.

Torah Parsha 26 Shavuah-Week 26-Zot Hachaya.
Wayiqra- Leviticus chapters 11-14. Renewed
Covenant Yaakov-James chapters 1-5.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying to them,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, These are the living creatures that you shall eat among all the living creatures that are on the earth.

3 Whatever splits the hoof and is cloven-footed and chews the cud, among the living creatures, that shall you eat.

4 Nevertheless these shall you not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those that divide the hoof: the camel because he chews the cud, but divides not the hoof; he is unclean to you.

5 And the rabbit because he chews the cud, but divides not the hoof; he is unclean to you.

6 And the hare because he chews the cud, but divides not the hoof; he is unclean to you.

7 And the pig, though he divides the hoof and be cloven-footed, yet he chews not the cud; he is unclean to you.

8 Of their flesh shall you not eat and their carcass shall you not touch; they are unclean to you.

9 These shall you eat of all that are in the mayim: whatever has fins and scales in the mayim, in the seas and in the rivers, those shall you eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, of all that move in the mayim and of any living thing that is in the mayim, they shall be an abomination to you:

11 They shall be even an abomination to you; you shall not eat of their flesh, but you shall hold their carcasses in abomination.

12 Whatever has no fins, or scales in the mayim; that shall be an abomination to you.

13 And these are they that you shall hold in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle and the vulture and the black vulture,

14 And the hawk and the falcon after its kind;

15 Every raven after its kind;

16 And the ostrich and the nighthawk and the seagull and the hawk after its kind,

17 And the little owl and the fisher owl and the great owl,

18 And the swan and the pelican and the bat,

19 And the stork, the heron after its kind and the hoopoe and the bat.

20 All flying insects, creeping upon all fours, shall be an abomination to you.

21 Yet these may you eat of every flying creeping thing that goes upon all fours, which have legs above their feet, to leap with upon the earth;

22 Even these of them you may eat; the locust after its kind and the bald locust after its kind and the beetle after its kind and the grasshopper after its kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination to you.

24 And for these you shall be unclean: whoever touches the carcass of them shall be unclean until the evening.

25 And whoever picks up any part of the carcass of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

26 The carcasses of every beast that divides the hoof and is not cloven-footed, nor chews the cud, are unclean to you: every one that touches them shall be unclean.

27 And whatever goes upon its paws, among all manner of living creatures that go on all four, those are unclean to you: anyone who touches their carcass shall be unclean until the evening.

28 And he that picks up the carcass of them shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening: they are unclean to you.

29 These also shall be unclean to you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel and the mouse and the frog after its kind,

30 And the porcupine and the land lizard and the lizard and the snail and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whoever touches them, when they are dead, shall be unclean until the evening.

32 And upon whatever any of them, when they are dead, falls, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sack, whatever vessel it is, in which any work is done, it must be put into mayim and it shall be unclean until the evening; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel, on which any of them falls, whatever is in it shall be unclean; and you shall break it.

34 Of all grain that may be eaten, that on which such mayim comes shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

35 And every thing on which any part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether it be an oven, or stoves for cooking pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean and shall be unclean to you.

36 Nevertheless a fountain, or pit, in which there is plenty of mayim, shall be clean: but that which touches their carcass shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcass falls upon any planting zera that is to be sown, it shall be clean.

38 But if any mayim is put upon the zera and any part of their carcass falls on it, it shall be unclean to you.

39 And if any beast, of which you may eat, dies; he that touches the carcass of it shall be unclean until the evening.

40 And he that eats of the carcass of it shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening: he also that picks up the carcass of it shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening.

41 And every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatever goes upon the belly and whatever goes upon all fours, or whatever has more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them you shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 You shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creeps; neither shall you make yourselves unclean with them, that you should be defiled by them.

44 For I AM אֲנִי your Ahlohim: you shall therefore set yourselves apart and you shall be kadosh; for I AM kadosh: neither shall you defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

45 For I AM אֱלֹהִים that brings you up out of the land of Mitzrayim, to be your Ahlohim: you shall therefore be kadosh, for I AM kadosh.

46 This is the Torah of the living creatures and of the fowls and of every living creature that moves in the mayim and of every creature that creeps upon the earth:

47 To make a difference between the unclean and the clean and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.

12 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, If a woman has conceived and has born a male child: then she shall be unclean seven yamim; as in the yamim of the monthly separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the eighth yom the flesh of his foreskin shall receive brit-milah.

4 And she shall then continue in the dahm of her purifying thirty-three yamim; she shall touch no kadosh thing, nor come into the Kadosh-Place, until the yamim of her purifying are fulfilled.

5 But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her monthly separation: and she shall continue in the dahm of her purifying sixty-six yamim.

6 And when the yamim of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb of the first year for a burnt offering and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, to the kohen.

7 He shall offer it before אֱלֹהִים and make keporah for her; and she shall be cleansed from the discharge of her dahm. This is the Torah for her that has born a male, or a female.

8 And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the one for the burnt offering and the other for a sin offering: and the kohen shall make keporah for her and she shall be clean.

13 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe and Aharon, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a swelling, a scab, or a bright blemish and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; then he shall be brought to Aharon the kohen, or to one of his sons the kohanim:

3 And the kohen shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and if the hair in the plague has turned white and the plague in sight is deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the kohen shall look at him and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright blemish is white in the skin of his flesh and in sight be not deeper than the skin and the hair of it be not turned white; then the kohen shall shut him up that has the plague seven yamim:

5 And the kohen shall look at him the seventh yom: and, see, if the plague in his sight is as it was and the plague did not spread in the skin; then the kohen shall shut him up seven yamim more:

6 And the kohen shall look at him again the seventh yom: and, see, if the plague be something dark and the plague spread not in the skin, the kohen shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much further in the skin, after he has been seen by the kohen for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the kohen again:

8 And if the kohen sees that the scab spread in the skin, then the kohen shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the kohen.

10 And the kohen shall see him: and, see, if the rising is white in the skin and it has turned the hair white and there be quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh and the kohen shall pronounce him unclean and shall not quarantine it: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy breaks out further in the skin and the leprosy covers all the skin of the one that has the plague from his head even to his foot, wherever the kohen looks;

13 Then the kohen shall consider: and, see, if the leprosy has covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that has the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appears in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the kohen shall see the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or, if the raw flesh changes again and be changed to white, he shall come to the kohen;

17 And the kohen shall see him: and, see, if the plague has turned into white; then the kohen shall pronounce him clean that has the plague: he is clean.

18 The flesh also, in which, even in the skin of it, was a boil and is healed,

19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright blemish, white and something reddish and it be showed to the kohen;

20 And if, when the kohen sees it, see, it is in sight lower than the skin and the hair of it is turned white; the kohen shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the kohen looks at it and, see, there are no white hairs on it and if it is not lower than the skin, but is something dark; then the kohen shall shut him up seven yamim:

22 And if it spreads much further in the skin, then the kohen shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright blemish stays in its place and spreads not, it is a burning boil; and the kohen shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or, if there be any flesh, in the skin in which there is a hot burning and the quick flesh that burns has a white bright blemish, something reddish, or white;

25 Then the kohen shall look upon it: and, see, if the hair in the bright blemish is turned white and it is in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: therefore the kohen shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the kohen looks at it and, see, there is no white hair in the bright blemish and it is no lower than the other skin, but is something dark; then the kohen shall shut him up seven yamim:

27 And the kohen shall look at him on the seventh yom: and if it is spread much further in the skin, then the kohen shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright blemish stays in its place and spreads not in the skin, but it is something dark; it is a rising of the burning and the kohen shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 If a man, or woman have a plague upon the head, or the beard;

30 Then the kohen shall see the plague: and, see, if it be in sight deeper than the skin; and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the kohen shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy upon the head, or beard.

31 And if the kohen looks at the infection and, see, it is not in sight deeper than the skin and that there is no black hair in it; then the kohen shall isolate him that has the infection seven yamim:

32 And on the seventh yom the kohen shall look at the plague: and, see, if the infection did not spread and there be in it no yellow hair and the infection is not in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be shaven, but the infection shall he not shave; and the kohen shall shut him up that has the infection seven more yamim:

34 And on the seventh yom the kohen shall look at the infection: and, see, if the infection is not spread further in the skin, nor is in sight deeper than the skin; then the kohen shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes and be clean.

35 But if the infection spread much into the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the kohen shall look at him: and, see, if the infection has spread in the skin, the kohen shall not seek for yellow hair. He is unclean.

37 But if the infection is in his sight not spread and there is black hair grown up on it; the infection is healed, he is clean: and the kohen shall pronounce him clean.

38 If a man also, or a woman has in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 Then the kohen shall look: and, see, if the bright blemishes in the skin of their flesh be darkish white; it is a freckled blemish that grows in the skin; he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair has fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

41 And he that has his hair fallen off from the front part of his head toward his face, his forehead is bald: yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the kohen shall look upon it: and, see, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appears in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the kohen shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be torn and his head bare and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

46 All the yamim in which the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; outside the camp shall his dwelling be.

47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woolen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof; of linen, or of wool; whether in a skin, or in any thing made of skin;

49 If the plague be greenish, or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy and shall be showed to the kohen:

50 And the kohen shall look upon the plague and isolate him that has the plague seven yamim:

51 And he shall look at the plague on the seventh yom: if the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is an active leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp, or woof, in wool, or in linen, or any thing of skin, in which the plague is: for it is a active leprosy; it shall be burned in the fire.

53 And if the kohen shall look and sees that the plague is not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the kohen shall command that they wash the thing in which the plague is and he shall shut it up seven yamim more:

55 And the kohen shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, see, if the plague has not changed its color and the plague has not spread; it is unclean; you shall burn it in the fire; it is eaten inward, whether it be bare within, or outside.

56 And if the kohen looks and, see, the plague be something dark after the washing of it; then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appears still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: you shall burn that in which the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatever thing of skin it be, which you shall wash, if the plague is departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time and shall be clean.

59 This is the Torah of the plague of leprosy in a garment of wool, or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

14 And אִתְּכֶם spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 This shall be the Torah of the leper in the yom of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the kohen:

3 And the kohen shall go forth out of the camp; and the kohen shall look and, see, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the kohen command to take for him that is to be cleansed two birds alive and clean and cedar wood and scarlet and hyssop:

5 And the kohen shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running mayim:

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it and the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop and shall dip them and the living bird in the dahm of the bird that was killed over the running mayim:

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times and shall pronounce him clean and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes and shave off all his hair and wash himself in mayim, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp and shall stay out of his tent seven yamim.

9 But it shall be on the seventh yom, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in mayim and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth yom he shall take two male lambs without blemish and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish and three tenths of an ephah of fine flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil and one log of oil.

11 And the kohen that makes him clean shall present the man that is to be made clean and those things, before אִתְּךָ, at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla:

12 And the kohen shall take one male lamb and offer it for a guilt offering and the log of oil and wave them for a wave offering before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם:

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the Kadosh-Place: for as the sin offering is the kohen's, so is the guilt offering: it is most kadosh:

14 And the kohen shall take some of the dahm of the guilt offering and the kohen shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the great toe of his right foot:

15 And the kohen shall take some of the log of oil and pour it into the palm of his own left hand:

16 And the kohen shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven times before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם:

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the kohen put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the dahm of the guilt offering:

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the kohen's hand he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: and the kohen shall make keporah for him before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

19 And the kohen shall offer the sin offering and make keporah for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering:

20 And the kohen shall offer the burnt offering and the grain offering upon the altar: and the kohen shall make keporah for him and he shall be clean.

21 And if he is poor and cannot afford so much; then he shall take one lamb for a guilt offering to be waved, to make keporah for him and one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering and a log of oil;

22 And two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford; and the one shall be a sin offering and the other a burnt offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth yom for his cleansing to the kohen, to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

24 And the kohen shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil and the kohen shall wave them for a wave offering before אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

25 And he shall kill the lamb of the guilt offering and the kohen shall take some of the dahm of the guilt offering and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the great toe of his right foot:

26 And the kohen shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand:

27 And the kohen shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before אֱלֹהֵינוּ:

28 And the kohen shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed and upon the thumb of his right hand and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the dahm of the guilt offering:

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the kohen's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make keporah for him before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

30 And he shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can afford;

31 Even such as he is able to afford, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, with the grain offering: and the kohen shall make keporah for him that is to be cleansed before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

32 This is the Torah for the one who has the plague of leprosy, whose hand is not able to afford that which pertains to his cleansing.

33 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,

34 When you have come into the land of Kanaan, which I give to you for a possession and I put the plague of leprosy in a bayit of the land of your possession;

35 And he that owns the bayit shall come and tell the kohen, saying, It seems to me there is as it were a plague in the bayit:

36 Then the kohen shall command that they empty the bayit, before the kohen goes into it to see the plague, that all that is in the bayit be not made unclean: and afterward the kohen shall go in to see the bayit:

37 And he shall look on the plague and, see, if the plague is in the walls of the bayit with sunken places, greenish, or reddish, which in sight are deep into the wall;

38 Then the kohen shall go out of the bayit to the door of the bayit and shut up the bayit for seven yamim:

39 And the kohen shall come again the seventh yom and shall look: and, see, if the plague is spread in the walls of the bayit;

40 Then the kohen shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is and they shall cast them into an unclean place outside the city:

41 And he shall cause the bayit to be scraped inside all around and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off outside the city into an unclean place:

42 And they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar and shall plaster the bayit.

43 And if the plague comes back again and breaks out in the bayit, after he has taken away the stones and after he has scraped the bayit and after it is plastered;

44 Then the kohen shall come and look and, see, if the plague is spread in the bayit, it is an active leprosy in the bayit: it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the bayit, the stones of it and the timber of it and all the mortar of the bayit; and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover he that goes into the bayit all the while that it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening.

47 And he that lies in the bayit shall wash his clothes; and he that eats in the bayit shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the kohen shall come in and look upon it and, see, the plague has not spread in the bayit, after the bayit was plastered: then the kohen shall pronounce the bayit clean because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the bayit two birds and cedar wood and scarlet and hyssop:

50 And he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running mayim:

51 And he shall take the cedar wood and the hyssop and the scarlet and the living bird and dip them in the dahm of the slain bird and in the running mayim and sprinkle the bayit seven times:

52 And he shall cleanse the bayit with the dahm of the bird and with the running mayim and with the living bird and with the cedar wood and with the hyssop and with the scarlet:

53 But he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open fields and make keporah for the bayit: and it shall be clean.

54 This is the Torah for all manner of plague of leprosy and eruption, 55 And for the leprosy of a garment and of a bayit,
56 And for a rising and for a scab and for a bright blemish:
57 To teach when it is unclean and when it is clean: this is the Torah of leprosy.

Torah Parsha 27 Shavuah-Week 27- Ki Yeyeh Zav.
Wayiqra-Leviticus chapters 15-18. Renewed
Covenant Ivrim-Hebrews chapters 1-5.

15 And אִתָּךְ spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,
2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, When any man has a running discharge out of his flesh because of his discharge he is unclean.
3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his discharge: whether his flesh runs with his discharge, or his flesh is stopped up from his discharge, it is his uncleanness in him all the yamim of the discharge of his flesh; even if his flesh obstructs his discharge, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed, on which he lies that has the discharge, is unclean: and every object, on which he sits, shall be unclean.
5 And whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.
6 And he that sits on any thing on which he sat that has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.
7 And he that touches the flesh of him that has the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

8 And if he that has the discharge spits upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

9 And whatever saddle he rides upon that has the discharge shall be unclean.

10 And whoever touches any object that was under him shall be unclean until the evening: and he that picks up any of those things shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

11 And whoever touches the one that has the discharge and has not rinsed his hands in mayim, he shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

12 And the vessel of earth, that he touches which has the discharge, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in mayim.

13 And when he that has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge; then he shall count for himself seven yamim for his cleansing and wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in running mayim and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth yom he shall take with him two turtledoves, or two young pigeons and come before אִשְׁרָאֵל to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and give them to the kohen:

15 And the kohen shall offer them, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the kohen shall make keporah for him before אִשְׁרָאֵל for his discharge.

16 And if any man's semen of emission goes out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

17 And every garment and every skin, on which is the semen of emission, shall be washed with mayim and be unclean until the evening.

18 The woman also who lies with a man having semen of emission, they shall both bathe themselves in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

19 And if a woman has a discharge and in her discharge of her flesh shall be found dahm, she shall be separated seven yamim: and whoever touches her shall be unclean until the evening.

20 And every thing that she lies upon in her separation shall be unclean: every thing also that she sits upon shall be unclean.

21 And whoever touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

22 And whoever touches any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

23 And if it is on her bed, or on any thing on which she sits, when he touches it, he shall be unclean until the evening.

24 And if any man lies with her at all and her discharge is upon him, he shall be unclean seven yamim; and all the bed on which he lies shall be unclean.

25 And if a woman has a discharge of her dahm many yamim but not in the time of her separation, or if it runs beyond the time of her separation; all the yamim of the discharge of her uncleanness shall be as the yamim of her separation: she shall be unclean.

26 Every bed on which she lies all the yamim of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her separation: and whatever she sits upon shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her separation.

27 And whoever touches those things shall be unclean and shall wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening.

28 But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven yamim and after that she shall be clean.

29 And on the eighth yom she shall take with her two turtledoves, or two young pigeons and bring them to the kohen, to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

30 And the kohen shall offer the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering; and the kohen shall make keporah for her before אֱלֹהִים for the discharge of her uncleanness.

31 And so shall you separate the children of Yisrael from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile My Mishkan that is among them.

32 This is the Torah of him that has a discharge and of him whose semen goes from him and is defiled by it;

33 And of her that is sick in her monthly separation and of him that has a discharge, of the man and of the woman and of him that lies with her that is unclean.

16 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe after the death of the two sons of Aharon, when they drew near before אֱלֹהִים and died;

2 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Speak to Aharon your brother, that he come not at all times into the most Kadosh-Place within the veil before the rachamim seat, which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the rachamim seat.

3 This is how Aharon shall come into the Kadosh-Place: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

4 He shall put on the kadosh linen coat and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh and shall be dressed with a linen girdle and with the linen turban shall he be attired: these are kadosh garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in mayim and so put them on.

5 And he shall take from the kehilla of the children of Yisrael two goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aharon shall offer his bull of the sin offering, which is for himself and make keporah for himself and for his bayit.

7 And he shall take the two goats and present them alive before אֱלֹהִים at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

8 And Aharon shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for אֱלֹהִים and the other lot for the Azazel.

9 And Aharon shall bring the goat upon which אֱלֹהִים's lot fell and offer it for a sin offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the Azazel, shall be presented alive before אֱלֹהִים, to make keporah over it and to let it go for an Azazel into the wilderness.

11 And Aharon shall bring the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself and shall make keporah for himself and for his bayit and shall kill the bull of the sin offering which is for himself:

12 And he shall take a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before אֱלֹהִים and his hands full of sweet incense crushed fine and bring it within the veil:

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before אֱלֹהִים, that the cloud of the incense may cover the rachamim seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not:

14 And he shall take of the dahm of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger upon the rachamim seat that is eastward; and before the rachamim seat shall he sprinkle of the dahm with his finger seven times.

15 Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people and bring its dahm within the veil and do with that dahm as he did with the dahm of the bull and sprinkle it upon the rachamim seat and before the rachamim seat:

16 And he shall make keporah for the Kadosh-Place because of the uncleanness of the children of Yisrael and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the Mishkan of the kehilla, that remains among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And there shall be no man in the Mishkan of the kehilla when he goes in to make keporah in the Kadosh-Place, until he comes out and has made keporah for himself and for his household and for all the kehilla of Yisrael.

18 And he shall go out to the altar that is before אֲרָזָה and make keporah for it; and shall take of the dahm of the bull and of the dahm of the goat and put it upon the horns of the altar all around.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the dahm upon it with his finger seven times and cleanse it and set it apart from the uncleanness of the children of Yisrael.

20 And when he has made an end of reconciling the Kadosh-Place and the Mishkan of the kehilla and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aharon shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Yisrael and all their transgressions in all their sins, putting them upon the head of the goat and shall send it away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness:

22 And the goat shall bear upon itself all their iniquities to a land not inhabited: and he shall let the goat go into the wilderness.

23 And Aharon shall come into the Mishkan of the kehilla and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the Kadosh-Place and shall leave them there:

24 And he shall wash his flesh with mayim in the Kadosh-Place and put on his garments and come forth and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people and make keporah for himself and for the people.

25 And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let the goat go to Azazel shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in mayim and afterward come into the camp.

27 And the bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose dahm was brought in to make keporah in the Kadosh-Place, shall one carry forth outside the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins and their flesh and their dung.

28 And he that burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his flesh in mayim and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 And this shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed to you: that in the seventh chodesh, on the tenth yom of the chodesh, you shall afflict your beings, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a ger that sojourns among you:

30 For on that yom shall the kohen make keporah for you, to cleanse you, that you may be clean from all your sins before אלהים.

31 It shall be a Shabbat-Shabbaton of rest to you and you shall afflict your beings, by a chuk le-olam-va-ed.

32 And the kohen, whom he shall anoint and whom he shall consecrate to attend in the kohen's office in his abba's place, shall make the keporah and shall put on the linen clothes, even the kadosh garments:

33 And he shall make keporah for the Most Kadosh-Place and he shall make keporah for the Mishkan of the kehilla and for the altar and he shall make keporah for the kohanim and for all the people of the kehilla.

34 And this shall be an everlasting chuk to you, to make keporah for the children of Yisrael for all their sins once a year. And Aharon did as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to Aharon and to his sons and to all the children of Yisrael and say to them; This is the thing that אֱלֹהִים has commanded, saying,

3 Anyone of beit Yisrael, that kills an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or that kills it out of the camp,

4 And does not bring it to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, to offer an offering to אֱלֹהִים before the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים; dahm shall be imputed to that man; he has shed dahm; and that man shall be cut off from among his people:

5 To the end that the children of Yisrael may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them to אֱלֹהִים, to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, to the kohen and offer them for shalom offerings to אֱלֹהִים.

6 And the kohen shall sprinkle the dahm upon the altar of אֱלֹהִים at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and burn the fat for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices at gates, where they have gone whoring. This shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed for them throughout their generations.

8 And you shall say to them, Whatever man there is of beit Yisrael, or of the gerim that sojourn among you, that offers a burnt offering of sacrifice,

9 And brings it not to the gate of the Mishkan of the kehilla, to offer it to אֱלֹהִים; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 And whatever man there is of beit Yisrael, or of the gerim that sojourn among you, who eats any manner of dahm; I will set My face against that being who eats dahm and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the chayim of the flesh is in the dahm: and I have given it to you upon the altar to make keporah for your beings: for it is the dahm that makes keporah for the being.

12 Therefore I said to the children of Yisrael, No being shall eat dahm; neither shall any ger that sojourns among you eat dahm.

13 And whatever man there is of the children of Yisrael, or of the gerim who sojourn among you, which hunts and catches any beast, or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the dahm and cover it with dust.

14 For it is the chayim of all flesh; the dahm of it is for the chayim of it: therefore I said to the children of Yisrael, You shall eat the dahm of no manner of flesh: for the chayim of all flesh is the dahm of it: whoever eats it shall be cut off.

15 And every being that eats that which died by itself, or that which was torn by living creatures, whether it is one of your own country, or a ger, he shall both wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and be unclean until the evening: then shall he be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

3 After the doings of the land of Mitzrayim, in which you dwelt, shall you not do: and after the doings of the land of Kanaan, where I bring you, shall you not do: neither shall you have your halacha in their ordinances.

4 You shall do My mishpatim and shomer My ordinances, to have your halacha in it: I AM אלהים your Ahlohim.

5 You shall therefore guard My chukim and My mishpatim: which if a man does, he shall live in them: I AM אלהים.

6 None of you shall approach anyone that is close mishpacha, to uncover their nakedness: I AM אלהים.

7 The nakedness of your abba, or the nakedness of your eema, shall you not uncover: she is your eema; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

8 The nakedness of your abba's isha shall you not uncover: it is your abba's nakedness.

9 The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your abba, or daughter of your eema, whether she be born at home, or born abroad, even their nakedness you shall not uncover.

10 The nakedness of your son's daughter, or of your daughter's daughter, even their nakedness you shall not uncover: for theirs is your own nakedness.

11 The nakedness of your abba's isha's daughter, begotten of your abba, she is your sister, you shall not uncover her nakedness.

12 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your abba's sister: she is your abba's flesh.

13 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your eema's sister: for she is your eema's near flesh.

14 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your abba's brother, you shall not approach his isha: she is your aunt.

15 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your daughter-in-law: she is your son's isha; you shall not uncover her nakedness.

16 You shall not uncover the nakedness of your brother's isha: it is your brother's nakedness.

17 You shall not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shall you take her son's daughter, or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness; for they are her near relatives: it is wickedness.

18 Neither shall you take a woman as an isha, as a rival to her sister, to uncover her nakedness while the sister is alive.

19 Also you shall not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her monthly uncleanness.

20 Moreover you shall not lie carnally with your neighbor's isha, to defile yourself with her.

21 And you shall not let any of your offspring pass through the fire to Molech, neither shall you defile the Name of your Ahlohim: I AM אלהים.

22 You shall not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

23 Neither shall you lie with any beast to defile yourself with it: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down to it: it is perversion.

24 Defile not yourselves in any of these things: for in all these the goyim are defiled which I cast out before you:

25 And the land is defiled: therefore I do visit the iniquity of it upon it and the land itself vomits out her inhabitants.

26 You shall therefore guard My chukim and My mishpatim and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any ger that sojourns among you:

27 For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you and the land is defiled;

28 That the land spit you not out also, when you defile it, as it spit out the goyim who were before you.

29 For whoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the beings that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore shall you guard My ordinance, that you commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you and that you defile not yourselves by them: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim.

Torah Parsha 28 Shavuah-Week 28 Kedoshim
Teeh'Yu Wayiqra-Leviticus chapters 19-22.
Renewed Covenant Ivrim–Hebrews chapters 6-13.

19 And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael and say to them, You shall be kidushim: for I אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim am kadosh.

3 You shall fear every man his eema and his abba and guard My Shabbats: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim.

4 Turn not to idols, nor make yourselves molded ahlohim: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim.

5 And if you offer a sacrifice of shalom offerings to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, you shall offer it from your own freewill.

6 It shall be eaten the same yom you offer it and on the next yom: and if anything remains until the third yom, it shall be burned in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third yom, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eats it shall bear his iniquity because he has profaned the kadosh thing of אִלָּן: and that being shall be cut off from among his people.

9 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest.

10 And you shall not glean your vineyard, neither shall you gather every grape of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and ger: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim.

11 You shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another.

12 And you shall not swear by My Name falsely, neither shall you defile the Name of your Ahlohim: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

13 You shall not defraud your neighbor, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired shall not abide with you all lyla until the boker.

14 You shall not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling-block before the blind, but shall fear your ahlohim: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

15 You shall do no unrighteousness in mishpat: you shall not respect the person of the poor, nor esteem the person of the mighty: but in tzedakah shall you judge your neighbor.

16 You shall not go up and down as a slanderer among your people: neither shall you stand against the dahm of your neighbor: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

17 You shall not hate your brother in your lev: you may rebuke your neighbor and not suffer sin because of him.

18 You shall not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I AM אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

19 You shall guard My chukim. You shall not let your cattle mate with a diverse kind: you shall not sow your field with mixed zera: neither shall a garment mixed of linen and wool come upon you.

20 And whoever lies carnally with a woman, that is a female eved, engaged to a husband and not at all redeemed, nor set free; there shall be an inquiry; they shall not be put to death because she was not free.

21 And he shall bring his guilt offering to אֱלֹהֵי, to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, even a ram for a guilt offering.

22 And the kohen shall make keporah for him with the ram of the guilt offering before אֱלֹהֵי for his sin that he has done: and the sin, which he has done, shall be forgiven him.

23 And when you shall come into the land and shall have planted all manner of eytzim for food, then you shall count the fruit of it as unharvested: three years shall it be as unharvested for you: it shall not be eaten.

24 But in the fourth year all the fruit of it shall be kadosh for the hallel of אֱלֹהֵי.

25 And in the fifth year shall you eat of the fruit of it, that it may yield to you the increase of it: I AM אֱלֹהֵי your Ahlohim.

26 You shall not eat any thing with the dahm: neither shall you use enchantment, nor observe times.

27 You shall not round the corners of your heads; neither shall you destroy the peyot of your beard.

28 You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any tattoo marks upon you: I AM אֱלֹהֵי.

29 Do not prostitute your daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom and the land become full of wickedness.

30 You shall guard My Shabbats and reverence My Kadosh-Places: I AM אֱלֹהֵי.

31 Regard not those who are mediums, neither seek after spiritists, to be defiled by them: I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

32 You shall rise up before the elderly and esteem the face of the old man and fear your Ahlohim: I AM אֱלֹהִים.

33 And if a ger sojourn with you in your land, you shall not vex him.

34 But the ger that dwells with you shall be to you as one born among you and you shall love him as yourself; for you were gerim in the land of Mitzrayim: I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

35 You shall do no unrighteousness in mishpat, in measurement of length, in weight, or in measuring liquids.

36 Just balances, just weights, a just ephah and a just hin, shall you have: I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitzrayim.

37 Therefore shall you observe all My chukim and all My mishpatim and do them. I AM אֱלֹהִים.

20 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Moreover, you shall say to the children of Yisrael, Whoever he be of the children of Yisrael, or of the gerim that sojourn in Yisrael, that gives any of his offspring to Molech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 And I will set My face against that man and will cut him off from among his people; because he has given from his offspring to Molech, to defile My Kadosh-Place and to defile My kadosh Name.

4 And if the people of the land do in any derech hide their eyes from the man, when he gives his offspring to Molech and kill him not:

5 Then I will set My face against that man and against his mishpacha and will cut him off and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 And the being that turns after such as have spiritists and after mediums, to go whoring after them, I will even set My face against that being and will cut him off from among his people.

7 Set yourselves apart therefore and be kidushim: for I AM אלהים your Ahlohim.

8 And you shall guard My chukim and do them: I AM אלהים who sets you apart.

9 For every one that curses his abba, or his eema shall be surely put to death: he has cursed his abba, or his eema; his dahm shall be upon him.

10 And the man that commits adultery with another man's isha, even he that commits adultery with his neighbor's isha, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 And the man that lies with his abba's isha has uncovered his abba's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their dahm shall be upon them.

12 And if a man lies with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have made confusion; their dahm shall be upon them.

13 If a man also lies with mankind, as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their dahm shall be upon them.

14 And if a man takes an isha with her eema, it is wickedness: they shall be burned with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 And if a man lies with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and you shall slay the beast..

16 And if a woman approaches any beast and lies down with it, you shall kill the woman and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their dahm shall be upon them.

17 And if a man shall take his sister, his abba's daughter, or his eema's daughter and see her nakedness and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he has uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And if a man shall lie with a woman during her sickness and shall uncover her nakedness; he has discovered her flow and she has uncovered the fountain of her dahm: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19 And you shall not uncover the nakedness of your eema's sister, nor of your abba's sister: for he uncovers his near mishpacha: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 And if a man shall lie with his uncle's isha, he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.

21 And if a man shall take his brother's isha, it is an unclean thing: he has uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

22 You shall therefore guard all My chukim and all My mishpatim and do them: that the land, where I bring you to dwell, will not spit you out.

23 And you shall not have your halacha in the customs of the goyim, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things and therefore I abhorred them.

24 But I have said to you, You shall inherit their land and I will give it to you to possess, a land that flows with milk and honey: I AM אלהים your Ahlohim, who has separated you from other peoples.

25 You shall therefore make a difference between clean living creatures and unclean and between unclean fowls and clean: and you shall not make your beings abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And you shall be kidushim to Me: for I אֱלֹהִים am kadosh and have separated you from other peoples, that you should be Mine.

27 A man, or woman who is a spiritist, or that is a medium, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their dahm shall be upon them.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Speak to the kohanim the sons of Aharon and say to them, There shall none be defiled by the dead among his people:

2 Except by his relatives, that are near to him, that is, by his eema and by his abba and by his son and by his daughter and by his brother,

3 And by his sister a virgin that is near to him, who has had no husband; by her may he be defiled.

4 But he shall not defile himself, being a ruler among his people, to profane himself.

5 They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they fully shave off the peyot of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be kidushim to their Ahlohim and not defile the Name of their Ahlohim: for the offerings of אֱלֹהִים made by fire and the lechem of their Ahlohim, they do offer: therefore they shall be kadosh.

7 They shall not take an isha who is a whore, or a defiled woman; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is kadosh to his Ahlohim

8 You shall set him apart therefore; for he offers the lechem of your Ahlohim: he shall be kadosh to you: for I אֱלֹהִים, who am setting him apart, am kadosh.

9 And the daughter of any kohen, if she defiled herself by playing the whore, she profanes her abba: she shall be burned with fire.

10 And he that is the Kohen HaGadol among his brothers, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor tear his clothes.

11 Neither shall he go in to any dead gooff, nor defile himself for his abba, or for his eema;

12 Neither shall he go out of the Kadosh-Place, nor defile the Kadosh-Place of his Ahlohim; for the nezer of the anointing oil of his Ahlohim is upon him:

I AM אֱלֹהִים.

13 And he shall take an isha in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or defiled, or a harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people as an isha.

15 Neither shall he defile his offspring among his people: for I אֱלֹהִים do set him apart.

16 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

17 Speak to Aharon, saying, Any of your offspring in their generations that has any blemish, let him not approach to offer the lechem of his Ahlohim.

18 For whatever man has a blemish, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that is disfigured, or deformed,

19 Or, a man that is broken footed, or broken handed,

20 Or, a hunchback, or a dwarf, or he that has a defect in his eye, or has skin inflammation, or is scabbed, or a eunuch;

21 No man that has a blemish among the offspring of Aharon the kohen shall come near to offer the offerings of אֱלֹהִים made by fire: he has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the lechem of his Ahlohim.

22 He shall eat the lechem of his Ahlohim, both of the most kadosh and of the kadosh.

23 Only he shall not go into the veil, nor come near to the altar because he has a blemish; that he defile not My kadosh places: for I אֱלֹהִים do set them apart.

24 And Moshe told it to Aharon and to his sons and to all the children of Yisrael.

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to Aharon and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the kadosh offerings of the children of Yisrael and that they defile not My kadosh Name in those things which they set apart to Me: I AM אֱלֹהִים.

3 Say to them, Whoever of all your offspring among your generations, who draws near to the kadosh things, which the children of Yisrael set apart to אֱלֹהִים, having his uncleanness upon him, that being shall be cut off from My presence: I AM אֱלֹהִים.

4 If anyone of the zera of Aharon is a leper, or has a running discharge; he shall not eat of the kadosh things, until he is clean. And whoever touches any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose semen goes from him;

5 Or, whoever touches any creeping thing, by which he may be made unclean, or a man from whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has;

6 The being that has touched any such thing shall be unclean until evening and shall not eat of the kadosh things, unless he washes his flesh with mayim.

7 And when the shemesh is down, he shall be clean and shall afterward eat of the kadosh things because it is his food.

8 That which dies by itself, or is torn by living creatures, he shall not eat to defile himself with it: I AM אֱלֹהִים.

9 They shall therefore guard My ordinance, lest they bear sin for it and die therefore, if they defile it: I אֱלֹהִים do set them apart.

10 There shall no ger eat of the kadosh thing: a dweller of the kohen, or a hired eved, shall not eat of the kadosh thing.

11 But if the kohen buy any being with his money, he shall eat of it and he that is born in his bayit: they shall eat of his grain.

12 If the kohen's daughter also is married to a ger, she may not eat of an offering of the kadosh things.

13 But if the kohen's daughter is a widow, or divorced and has no child and returns to her abba's bayit, as in her youth, she shall eat of her abba's grain: but there shall no ger eat of it.

14 And if a man eats of the kadosh thing by mistake, then he shall add the fifth part of it to it and shall give it to the kohen with the kadosh thing.

15 And they shall not defile the kadosh things of the children of Yisrael, which they offer to אֱלֹהִים;

16 Or, allow them to bear the iniquity of guilt, when they eat their kadosh things: for I אֱלֹהִים do set them apart.

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

18 Speak to Aharon and to his sons and to all the children of Yisrael and say to them, Anyone from beit Yisrael, or from the gerim in Yisrael, that will offer his offering for all his vows and for all his freewill offerings which they will offer to אֱלֹהִים for a burnt offering;

19 You shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the cattle, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 But whatever has a blemish that shall you not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whoever offers a sacrifice of shalom offerings to אֱלֹהִים to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in cattle, or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish in it.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a cut, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these to אלהים, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar to אלהים.

23 Either a bull, or a lamb that has anything deformed, or dwarfed, that may you offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 You shall not offer to אלהים that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall you make any offering of it in your land.

25 Neither from a ger's hand shall you offer the lechem of your Ahlohim from any of these; because their corruption is in them and blemishes are in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

26 And אלהים spoke to Moshe, saying,

27 When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven yamim with its eema; and from the eighth yom and thereafter it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire to אלהים.

28 And whether it is cow, or sheep, you shall not kill it and her young both in one yom.

29 And when you will offer a sacrifice of hodu to אלהים, offer it of your own will for your acceptance.

30 On the same yom it shall be eaten up; you shall leave none of it until the next yom: I AM אלהים.

31 Therefore shall you guard My mitzvoth and do them: I AM אלהים.

32 Neither shall you defile My kadosh Name; but I will be kadosh among the children of Yisrael: I AM אלהים who sets you apart;

33 That brought you out of the land of Mitzrayim, to be your Ahlohim: I AM אלהים.

Torah Parsha 29 Shavuah-Week 29-Moadei אִתְּכֶם.
Wayiqra-Leviticus chapters 23-26. Renewed
Covenant Kefa Alef-First Peter chapters 1-5.

23 And אִתְּכֶם spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them,
The moadeem of אִתְּכֶם, which you shall proclaim to be miqra kedoshim, even these are My moadeem.

3 Six yamim shall work be done: but the seventh yom is a Shabbat-Shabbaton of rest, a miqra kodesh. You shall do no work in it: it is The Shabbat of אִתְּכֶם in all your dwellings.

4 These are the moadeem of אִתְּכֶם, even miqra kedoshim, which you shall proclaim in their appointed times.

5 On the fourteenth yom of the first chodesh between the evenings is אִתְּכֶם 's Pesach.

6 And on the fifteenth yom of the same chodesh is Chag HaMatzoth to אִתְּכֶם: seven yamim you must eat matzah.

7 In the first yom you shall have a miqra kodesh:
you shall do no laborious work on it.

8 But you shall offer an offering made by fire to אִתְּכֶם for seven yamim: on the seventh yom is a miqra kodesh: you shall do no laborious work on it.

9 And אִתְּכֶם spoke to Moshe, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them,
When you have come into the land which I give to you and shall reap any harvest of it, then you shall bring an omer of the beginning of your harvest to the kohen:

11 And he shall wave the omer sheaf before אִתְּכֶם, to be accepted: the kohen shall wave it on the first yom.

12 And you shall offer the next yom before the first of the seven Shabbats, when you wave the omer-sheaf, a male lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering to אלהים.

13 And the grain offering of it shall be two tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to אלהים for a sweet fragrance: and the drink offering of it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin.

14 And you shall eat neither lechem, nor parched grain, nor fresh ears, until the same yom that you have brought an offering to your Ahlohim: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 And you shall count from the next yom after The Shabbat, from the yom that you brought the omer of the wave offering; seven full weeks-shavuot:

16 Until the next yom after the last weekly Shabbat you shall have numbered fifty yamim and you shall offer a new grain offering to אלהים.

17 You shall bring out of your dwellings two wave loaves of two-tenths of an ephah: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with chametz; they are the bikkurim to אלהים.

18 And you shall offer with the lechem seven lambs without blemish of the first year and one young bull and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering to אלהים, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet fragrance to אלהים.

19 Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering and two male lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of shalom offerings.

20 And the kohen shall wave them with the lechem of the bikkurim for a wave offering before אלהים, with the two lambs. They shall be kadosh to אלהים for the kohen.

21 And you shall proclaim on the same yom, that it may be a miqra kodesh to you: you shall do no laborious work on it: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not harvest the corners of your field when you reap, neither shall you gather any gleaning of your harvest: you shall leave them to the poor and to the ger: I AM אלהים your Ahlohim.

23 And אלהים spoke to Moshe, again saying,

24 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, In the seventh chodesh, on the first yom of the chodesh, you shall have a Shabbaton, a remembrance of blowing of shofar blasts, a miqra kodesh.

25 You shall do no laborious work on it: but you shall offer an offering made by fire to אלהים.

26 And אלהים spoke to Moshe, saying,

27 Also on the tenth yom of this seventh chodesh there shall be a Yom HaKippurim: it shall be a miqra kodesh to you; and you shall afflict your beings and offer an offering made by fire to אלהים.

28 And you shall do no work in that same yom: for it is the Yom HaKippurim, to make keporah for you before אלהים your Ahlohim.

29 For any being that shall not be afflicted in that same yom, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatever being it is that does any work in that same yom, the same being will I destroy from among his people.

31 You shall do no manner of work: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be to you a Shabbat-Shabbaton and you shall afflict your beings: on the ninth yom of the chodesh at evening, from evening to evening, shall you celebrate your Shabbat.

33 And אלהים spoke to Moshe again, saying,

34 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, The fifteenth yom of this seventh chodesh shall be the Chag HaSukkot for seven yamim to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

35 On the first yom shall be a miqra kodesh: you shall do no laborious work in it.

36 Seven yamim you shall offer an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵינוּ: on the eighth yom shall be a miqra kodesh to you; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵינוּ: it is a solemn gathering; and you shall do no laborious work on it.

37 These are the moadeem of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, which you shall proclaim to be miqra kedoshim, to offer an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a sacrifice and drink offerings, as commanded every yom:

38 Beside The Shabbats of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and beside your gifts and beside all your vows and beside all your freewill offerings, which you give to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

39 Also on the fifteenth yom of the seventh chodesh, when you have gathered in the fruit of the land, you shall celebrate a chag to אֱלֹהֵינוּ seven yamim: on the first yom shall be a Shabbaton and on the eighth yom shall be a Shabbaton.

40 And you shall take on the first yom the boughs of tov eytzim, branches of palm eytzim and the boughs of thick eytzim and willows of the brook; and you shall have simcha before אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim seven yamim.

41 And you shall celebrate it as a chag to אֱלֹהֵינוּ seven yamim in the year. It shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed in your generations: you shall celebrate it in the seventh chodesh.

42 You shall dwell in sukkot seven yamim; all that are native Yisraelites shall dwell in sukkot:

43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Yisrael to dwell in sukkot, when I brought them out of the land of Mitzrayim: I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

44 And Moshe spoke to the children of Yisrael about the moadeem of אֱלֹהִים.

24 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Command the children of Yisrael that they bring to you pure olive oil for the ohr, to cause the lamps of the menorah to burn continually.

3 Outside the veil of the testimony, in the Mishkan of the kehilla, shall Aharon arrange it from the evening to the boker before אֱלֹהִים continually: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed in your generations.

4 He shall arrange the lamps upon the menorah before אֱלֹהִים continually.

5 And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes: two tenths of an ephah shall be in one cake.

6 And you shall set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the clean shulchan before אֱלֹהִים.

7 And you shall put pure frankincense upon each row so that it may be on the lechem for a remembrance portion, even an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

8 Every Shabbat he shall set it in order before אֱלֹהִים continually, being taken from the children of Yisrael by an everlasting brit.

9 And it shall be Aharon's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the Kadosh-Place: for it is most kadosh to him of the offerings of אֱלֹהִים made by fire by an eternal chuk.

10 And the son of a Yisraelite woman, whose abba was a Mitzri, went out among the children of Yisrael: and this son of the Yisraelite woman and a man of Yisrael strove together in the camp;

11 And the Yisraelite woman's son blasphemed the Name of אֱלֹהִים, and cursed. And they brought him to Moshe: and his eema's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Divri, of the tribe of Dan.

12 And they put him in under guard, that the mind of אֱלֹהִים might be showed to them.

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

14 Bring him forth that has cursed outside the camp; and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head and let the entire kehilla stone him.

15 And you shall speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, Whoever curses his Ahlohim shall bear his sin.

16 And he that blasphemes the Name of אֱלֹהִים, he shall surely be put to death and all the kehilla shall certainly stone him: the ger and he that is born in the land, when he blasphemes the Name of אֱלֹהִים, shall be put to death.

17 And he that kills any man shall surely be put to death.

18 And he that kills a beast shall make it tov; a beast for a beast.

19 And if a man causes a blemish in his neighbor; as he has done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he has caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And he that kills a beast, he shall restore it: and he that kills a man, he shall be put to death.

22 You shall have one mishpat of Torah, for the ger and for the native: for I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

23 And Moshe spoke to the children of Yisrael that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp and stone him with stones. And the children of Yisrael did as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

25 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe on Har Senai, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, When you come into the land that I give you, then shall the land keep a Shabbat to אֶרֶץ.

3 Six years you shall sow your field and six years you shall prune your vineyard and gather in the fruit of it;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a Shabbat-Shabbaton to the land, a Shabbat for אֶרֶץ: you shall neither sow your field, nor prune your vineyard.

5 That which grows of its own accord of your harvest you shall not reap, neither gather the grapes of your undressed vine: for it is a year of Shabbaton to the land.

6 And The Shabbat-produce of the land shall be grain for you: for you and for your eved and for your female eved and for your hired eved and for your ger that sojourns with you,

7 And for your cattle and for the beasts that are in your land, shall all the increase of it be for food.

8 And you shall number seven Shabbats of years, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven Shabbats of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

9 Then shall you cause the shofar of the yovel to sound on the tenth yom of the seventh chodesh, on the Yom HaKippurim shall you make the shofar sound throughout all your land.

10 And you shall set apart the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all the inhabitants of it: it shall be a yovel to you; and you shall return every man to his possession and you shall return every man to his mishpacha.

11 A yovel shall that fiftieth year be to you: you shall not sow; neither reap that which grows by itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of your undressed vine.

12 For it is the yovel; it shall be kadosh to you: you shall eat the increase of it out of the field.

13 In the year of this yovel you shall return every man to his possession.

14 And if you sell some item to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor's hand, you shall not oppress one another:

15 According to the number of years after the yovel you shall buy from your neighbor and according to the number of years of the fruits he shall sell to you:

16 According to the multitude of years you shall increase the price of it and according to the fewness of years you shall diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits does he sell to you.

17 You shall not therefore oppress one another; but you shall fear your Ahlohim: for I AM אלהיך your Ahlohim.

18 So you shall do My chukim and guard My mishpatim and do them; and you shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit and you shall eat your fill and dwell there in safety.

20 And if you shall say, What shall we eat in the seventh year? See, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will command My bracha upon you in the sixth year and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And you shall sow the eighth year and eat yet of old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in you shall eat of the old store.

23 The land shall not be sold le-olam-va-ed: for the land is Mine; for you are settlers and sojourners with Me.

24 And in all the land you possess you shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 If your brother becomes poor and has sold away some of his possession and if any of his relatives come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count the years since the sale and restore the remainder to the man to whom he sold it; that he may return to his possession.

28 But if he is not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that has bought it until the year of yovel: and in the yovel it shall be released and he shall return to his possession.

29 And if a man sells a bayit in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it is not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the bayit that is in the walled city shall be established le-olam-va-ed to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the yovel.

31 But the houses of the villages, which have no wall around them, shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed and they shall go out in the yovel.

32 As for the cities of the Lewiym and the houses of the cities of their possession, the Lewiym can redeem them at any time.

33 And if a man purchases from the Lewiym, then the bayit that was sold and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of yovel: for the houses of the cities of the Lewiym are their possession among the children of Yisrael.

34 But the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.

35 And if your brother becomes poor and he falters in your area; then you shall strengthen him; that he may live with you, like a ger, or dweller.

36 Take no interest from him, or increase: but fear your Ahlohim; that your brother may live with you. I AM אלהים.

37 You shall not give him your money with interest, nor lend him your supplies for your profit.

38 I AM אלהים your Ahlohim, which brought you forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, to give you the land of Kanaan and to be your Ahlohim.

39 And if your brother that dwells in your area becomes poor and sells himself to you; you shall not force him to serve as an eved:

40 But as an employee and as a resident, he shall be with you and shall serve you to the year of yovel:

41 And then shall he depart from you, both he and his children with him and shall return to his own mishpacha and to the possession of his ahvot shall he return.

42 For they are My avadim, which I brought forth out of the land of Mitzrayim: they shall not be sold as avadim.

43 You shall not rule over him with harshness; but shall fear אלהים your Ahlohim.

44 Both your male and female avadim, which you shall have, shall be from the heathen that are all around you; of them shall you buy male and female avadim.

45 Moreover from the children of the gerim that do sojourn among you, from them shall you buy and of their mishpachot that are with you, which they shall bring forth in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And you shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; they shall be your avadim le-olam-va-ed: but over your brothers the children of Yisrael, you shall not rule one over another with harshness.

47 And if a resident, or ger grows rich with you and your brother who dwells with him grows poor and sells himself to the resident, or dweller with you, or to a member of the ger's mishpacha:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brothers may redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that are close relatives to him of his mishpacha may redeem him; or if he is able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold until the year of yovel: and the price of his purchase shall be divided according to the number of years, according to the time of a paid eved.

51 If there be yet many years, according to them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain just a few years to the year of yovel, then he shall count with him and according to his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired employee shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of yovel, both he and his children with him.

55 Because the children of Yisrael are My avadim; they are My avadim whom I brought forth out of the land of Mitzrayim: I AM אלהים your Ahlohim.

26 You shall make no idols nor graven image, neither rear up a standing image, neither shall you set up any image of stone in your land, to bow down to it: for I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

2 You shall guard My Shabbats and reverence My Kadosh-Places: I AM אֱלֹהִים.

3 If you have your halacha in My chukim and guard My mitzvoth and do them;

4 Then I will give you rain in due season and the land shall yield her increase and the eytzim of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach to the vintage and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time: and you shall eat your lechem to the full and dwell in your land safely.

6 And I will give shalom in the land and you shall lie down and none shall make you afraid: and I will rid evil living beasts out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

7 And you shall chase your enemies and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And five of you shall chase a hundred and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For I will watch over you and make you fruitful and multiply you and establish My brit with you.

10 And you shall eat old supply and clear the old because of the new.

11 And I will set My Mishkan among you: and My being shall not reject you.

12 And I will walk among you and will be your Ahlohim and you shall be My people.

13 I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brought you forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, that you should not be their avadim; and I have broken the bands of your yoke and made you go upright.

14 But if you will not listen to Me and will not do all these mitzvoth;

15 And if you shall despise My chukim, or if your being despises My mishpatim, so that you will not do all My mitzvot, but that you break My brit:

16 I also will do this to you; I will even appoint over you terror, consumption and inflammation, that shall destroy the eyes and cause sorrow of lev: and you shall sow your zera in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set My face against you and you shall be slain before your enemies: they that hate you shall reign over you; and you shall flee when none pursues you.

18 And if you will not yet for all this listen to Me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your shamayim as iron and your earth as brass:

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall all the eytzim of the land yield their fruits.

21 And if you walk contrary to Me and will not listen to Me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.

22 I will also send wild living creatures among you, which shall rob you of your children and destroy your cattle and make you few in number; and your highways shall be desolate.

23 And if you will not be reformed by Me by these things, but will have your halacha contrary to Me;

24 Then will I also walk contrary to you and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.

25 And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the vengeance of My brit: and when you are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you; and you shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.

26 And when I have broken the supply of your lechem, ten women shall bake your lechem in one oven and they shall deliver to you your lechem again by weight: and you shall eat and not be satisfied.

27 And if you will not for all this listen to Me, but have your halacha contrary to Me;

28 Then I will walk contrary to you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.

29 And you shall eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters shall you eat.

30 And I will destroy your high places and cut down your shemesh-pillars, and cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols and My being shall abhor you.

31 And I will make your cities waste and bring your sanctuary to desolation and I will not smell the fragrance of your sweet odors.

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell there shall be astonished at it.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate and your cities waste.

34 Then shall all the land enjoy her Shabbats, as long as it lies desolate, while you are in your enemies' land; even then shall all the land rest and enjoy her Shabbats.

35 As long as it lies desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your Shabbats, when you dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you I will send a faintness into their levavot in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursues.

37 And they shall fall one upon another, as if it were before a sword, when none pursues: and you shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And you shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their ahvot shall they pine away with them.

40 If they shall confess their iniquity and the iniquity of their ahvot, with their guilt, which they trespassed against Me and that also, they have had their halacha contrary to Me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised levavot are humbled and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I remember My brit with Yaakov and also My brit with Yitzchak and also My brit with Avraham will I remember; and I will remember the land.

43 The land also shall be left by them and shall enjoy its Shabbats, while it lies desolate without them: and they shall accept the punishment of their iniquity: because they despised My mishpatim and because their beings abhorred My chukim.

44 And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly and to break My brit with them: for I AM אלהים their Ahlohim.

45 But I will for their sakes remember the brit of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of Mitzrayim in the sight of the heathen, that I might be their Ahlohim: I AM אלהים.

46 These are the chukim and mishpatim and Torot, which אלהים made between Himself and the children of Yisrael on Har Senai by the hand of Moshe.

Torah Parsha 30 Shavuah-Week 30-Yaflee Nehder.
Wayiqra-Leviticus chapter 27. Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 1-3. Renewed Covenant Kefa Bet-Second Peter chapters 1-3

- 27 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,
- 2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, If a man shall make a singular vow, regarding evaluation of lives to אִיִּזְרָאֵל,
- 3 And your estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even to sixty years old; even your estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place.
- 4 And if it is a female, then your estimation shall be thirty shekels.
- 5 And if it is from five years old even to twenty years old, then your estimation for a male shall be twenty shekels and for the female ten shekels.
- 6 And if it is from a chodesh old even to five years old, then your estimation for a male shall be five shekels of silver and for the female your estimation shall be three shekels of silver.
- 7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then your estimation shall be fifteen shekels and for the female ten shekels.
- 8 But if he is too poor to pay your estimation, then he shall present himself before the kohen and the kohen shall set a value for him; according to his ability that vowed shall the kohen value him.
- 9 And if it is a beast, of which men bring as an offering to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, all that any man gives of such to אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall be kadosh.
- 10 He shall not alter it, or change it, a tov for a bad, or a bad for a tov: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange of it shall be kadosh.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, then he shall present the beast before the kohen:

12 And the kohen shall value it, whether it be tov, or bad: as you value it, O kohen, so shall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part of it to your estimation.

14 And when a man shall set apart his bayit to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, then the kohen shall estimate it, whether it be tov, or bad: as the kohen shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he who sets it apart does redeem his bayit, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your estimation to it and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall set apart to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם some part of a field of his possession, then your estimation shall be according to the zera of it: a homer of barley zera shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he set apart his field from the year of yovel, according to your estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he set apart his field after the yovel, then the kohen shall reckon to him the money according to the years that remain, even to the year of the yovel and it shall be deducted from your estimation.

19 And if he that set apart the field will in any derech redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your evaluation to it and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed anymore.

21 But the field, when it is released in the yovel, shall be kadosh to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, as a field dedicated; the possession of it shall be the kohen's.

22 And if a man sets apart to אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ a field that he has bought, which is not a field of his possession;
23 Then the kohen shall reckon to him the worth of your estimation, even to the year of the yovel: and he shall give your estimation in that yom, as a kadosh thing to אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ.

24 In the year of the yovel, the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And every evaluation shall be according to the shekel of the Kadosh-Place: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 Only the bachor of the living creatures, which is אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ's bachor, no man shall set it apart; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ 's.

27 And if it is an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to your estimation and shall add a fifth part of it to it: or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your estimation.

28 Notwithstanding no dedicated thing, that a man shall devote to אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ of all that he has, both of man and beast and of the field of his possession, shall be sold, or redeemed: every dedicated thing is most kadosh to אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ.

29 No one under the ban of men shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

30 And all the ma'aser of the land, whether of the zera of the land, or of the fruit of the eytz, is אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ's: it is kadosh to אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ.

31 And if a man indeed redeems any of his ma'aser, he shall add to it the fifth part of it.

32 And concerning the ma'aser of the herd, or of the flock, even whatever passes under the rod, the ma'aser shall be kadosh to אִשְׁתֵּי אֶרֶץ.

33 He shall not inquire whether it be tov, or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he changes it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed, shall be kadosh; it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the mitzvoth, which אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe for the children of Yisrael on Har Senai. X

Numbers-Bamidbar

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 And אִתְּךָ spoke to Moshe in the wilderness of Senai, in the Mishkan of the kehilla, on the first yom of the second chodesh, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Mitzrayim, saying,
 - 2 Take a census of all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, with the number of their names, every male head by head,
 - 3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go out to war in Yisrael: you and Aharon shall number them by their divisions.
 - 4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the bayit of his ahvot.
 - 5 And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: From the tribe of Reuven; Elitzur the son of Shedeyur.
 - 6 Of Shimon; Shelumi-El the son of Tzurishaddai.
 - 7 Of Yahudah; Nahcshon the son of Amminadav.
 - 8 Of Yissachar; Nethane-El the son of Tzuar.
 - 9 Of Zevulun; Eliav the son of Helon.
 - 10 Of the children of Yoseph: of Efrayim; Elyshama the son of Ammihud: of Menasheh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.
 - 11 Of Benyamin; Avidan the son of Gidoni.
 - 12 Of Dan; Ahizer the son of Ammishaddai.
 - 13 Of Asher; Pagi-El the son of Okran.
 - 14 Of Gad; Elyasaph the son of Deu-El.
 - 15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan.

16 These were the leaders of the kehilla, leaders of the tribes of their ahvot, heads of thousands in Yisrael.

17 And Moshe and Aharon took these men who were called by their names:

18 And they assembled the entire kehilla together on the first yom of the second chodesh and they declared their ancestry after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, head by head.

19 As אִרְאֵל commanded Moshe, so he numbered them in the midbar of Senai.

20 And the children of Reuven, Yisrael's eldest son, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuven, were forty six thousand five hundred.

22 Of the children of Shimon, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, head by head, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Shimon, were fifty nine thousand three hundred.

24 Of the children of Gad, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

25 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were forty five thousand six hundred fifty.

26 Of the children of Yahudah, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

27 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Yahudah, were seventy four thousand six hundred.

28 Of the children of Yissachar, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

29 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Yissachar, were fifty four thousand four hundred.

30 Of the children of Zevulon, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

31 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Zevulon, were fifty seven thousand four hundred.

32 Of the children of Yoseph, namely, of the children of Efrayim, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

33 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Efrayim, were forty thousand five hundred.

34 Of the children of Menasheh, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

35 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Menasheh, were thirty two thousand two hundred.

36 Of the children of Benyamin, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

37 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Benyamin, were thirty five thousand four hundred.

38 Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

39 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were sixty two thousand seven hundred.

40 Of the children of Asher, by their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

41 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty one thousand five hundred.

42 Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war;

43 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty three thousand four hundred.

44 These are those that were numbered, which Moshe and Aharon numbered and the leaders of Yisrael, being twelve men: each one was for the bayit of his ahvot.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Yisrael, by their armies, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go out to war in Yisrael;

46 Even all they that were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

47 But the Lewiym after the tribe of their ahvot were not numbered among them.

48 For אִיִּזְרָאֵל had spoken to Moshe, saying,

49 Only you shall not number the tribe of Lewi, neither take their census among the children of Yisrael:

50 But you shall appoint the Lewiym over the Mishkan of testimony and over all the vessels of it and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the Mishkan and all the vessels of it; and they shall serve in it and shall camp all around the Mishkan.

51 And when the Mishkan moves forward, the Lewiym shall take it down: and when the Mishkan is to be camped, the Lewiym shall set it up: and the ger that comes near shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Yisrael shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp and every man by his own banner, throughout their divisions.

53 But the Lewiym shall camp all around the Mishkan of testimony, that there is no wrath upon the kehilla of the children of Yisrael: and the Lewiym shall keep the duty of the Mishkan of the testimony.

54 And the children of Yisrael did according to all that אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Moshe, so they did.

2 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,

2 Every man of the children of Yisrael shall camp by his own banner, with the ot of their abba's bayit: at a long distance around the Mishkan of the kehilla shall they camp.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the shemesh shall those of the banner of the camp of Yahudah camp throughout their divisions: and Nachshon the son of Amminadav shall be leader of the children of Yahudah.

4 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were seventy four thousand six hundred.

5 And those that do camp next to him shall be the tribe of Yissachar: and Natan-El the son of Tzuar shall be leader of the children of Yissachar.

6 And his host and those that were numbered of it, were fifty four thousand four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zevulon: and Eliav the son of Helon shall be leader of the children of Zevulon.

8 And his host and those that were numbered of it, were fifty seven thousand four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Yahudah were one hundred eighty six thousand four hundred, throughout their divisions. These shall set out first.

10 On the south side shall be the banner of the camp of Reuven according to their divisions: and the leader of the children of Reuven shall be Elitzur the son of Shedey-Ur.

11 And his host and those that were numbered of it, were forty six thousand five hundred.

12 And those who camp next to him shall be the tribe of Shimon: and the leader of the children of Shimon shall be Shelumi-El the son of Tzuri-Shaddai.

13 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were fifty nine thousand three hundred.

14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the leader of the sons of Gad shall be Elyasaph the son of Reu-El.

15 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were forty five thousand six hundred fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reuven were one hundred fifty one thousand four hundred fifty, throughout their divisions. And they shall set out as second to depart.

17 Then the Mishkan of the kehilla shall move forward with the camp of the Lewiym in the midst of the camp: as they camp, so shall they move forward, every man in his place by their banners.

18 On the west side shall be the banner of the camp of Efrayim according to their divisions: and the leader of the sons of Efrayim shall be Eli-Shama the son of Ammichud.

19 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were forty thousand five hundred.

20 And next to him shall be the tribe of Menasheh: and the leader of the children of Menasheh shall be Gamali-El the son of Pedahzur.

21 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were thirty two thousand two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of Benyamin: and the leader of the sons of Benyamin shall be Avidan the son of Gideoni.

23 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were thirty five thousand four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Efrayim were one hundred eight thousand one hundred, throughout their divisions. And they shall go forward as the third to depart.

25 The banner of the camp of Dan shall be on the north side by their divisions: and the leader of the children of Dan shall be Achiezer the son of Ammi-Shaddai.

26 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were sixty two thousand seven hundred.

27 And those that camp next to him shall be the tribe of Asher: and the leader of the children of Asher shall be Pagi-El the son of Ocran.

28 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were forty one thousand five hundred.

29 Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the leader of the children of Naphtali shall be Ahira the son of Enan.

30 And his host and those that were numbered of them, were fifty three thousand four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan were one hundred fifty seven thousand six hundred. They shall go last with their banners.

32 These are those who were numbered of the children of Yisrael by the bayit of their ahvot: all those that were numbered of the camps throughout their divisions were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty.

33 But the Lewiym were not numbered among the children of Yisrael; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

34 And the children of Yisrael did according to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe: so they camped by their banners and so they moved forward, every one after their mishpachot, according to the bayit of their ahvot.

3 These also are the generations of Aharon and Moshe in the yom that אֱלֹהִים spoke with Moshe in Har Senai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aharon; Nadav the bachor and Avihu, El-Azar and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aharon, the kohanim who were anointed, whom he consecrated to serve in the kohen's office.

4 And Nadav and Avihu died before אֱלֹהִים, when they offered strange fire before אֱלֹהִים, in the wilderness of Senai, and they had no children: and El-Azar and Ithamar ministered in the kohen's office in the sight of Aharon their abba.

5 And אֱלִיָּאָז spoke to Moshe, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Lewi near and present them before Aharon the kohen, that they may serve him.

7 And they shall keep his duty and the duty of the whole kehilla before the Mishkan of the kehilla, to do the service of the Mishkan.

8 And they shall guard all the instruments of the Mishkan of the kehilla and the duty of the children of Yisrael, to do the service of the Mishkan.

9 And you shall give the Lewiym to Aharon and to his sons: they are wholly given to him out of the children of Yisrael.

10 And you shall appoint Aharon and his sons and they shall guard their kohen's office: and the ger that comes near shall be put to death.

11 And אֱלִיָּאָז spoke to Moshe, saying,

12 See, I have taken the Lewiym from among the children of Yisrael instead of all the bachorim that pehter the womb among the children of Yisrael: therefore the Lewiym shall be Mine;

13 Because all the bachorim are Mine; for on the yom that I smote all the bachorim in the land of Mitzrayim I made all the bachorim in Yisrael kadosh to Me, both man and beast: they shall be Mine: I AM אֱלִיָּאָז.

14 And אֱלִיָּאָז spoke to Moshe in the wilderness of Senai, saying, 15 Number the children of Lewi after the bayit of their ahvot, by their mishpachot: every male from a chodesh old and upward shall you number them.

16 And Moshe numbered them according to The Word of אֱלִיָּאָז, as he was commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Lewi by their names; Gershon and Qehath and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gershon by their mishpachot; Livni and Shimei.

19 And the sons of Qehath by their mishpachot; Amram and Yitzhar, Chebron and Uzzi-El.

20 And the sons of Merari by their mishpachot; Mahli and Mushi. These are the mishpachot of the Lewiyim according to the bayit of their ahvot.

21 Of Gershon was the mishpacha of the Livnites and the mishpacha of the Shimites: these are the mishpachot of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a chodesh old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.

23 The mishpachot of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the Mishkan westward.

24 And the leader of the bayit of the ahvot of the Gershonites shall be Eliyasaph the son of Le-El.

25 And the duty of the sons of Gershon in the Mishkan of the kehilla shall be the Mishkan and the tent, the covering of it and the covering for the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, 26 And the hangings of the court and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the Mishkan and by the altar all around and the cords of it for all its service.

27 And of Qehath was the mishpacha of the Amramites and the mishpacha of the Yisharites and the mishpacha of the Hevronites and the mishpacha of the Uzzielites: these are the mishpachot of the Kohathites.

28 The number of all the males, from a chodesh old and upward were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the duty of the Kadosh-Place.

29 The mishpachot of the sons of Qehath shall pitch on the side of the Mishkan southward.

30 And the leader of the bayit of the ahvot of the mishpachot of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzzi-El:

31 And their duty shall be the Ark and the shulchan and the menorah and the altars and the vessels of the Kadosh-Place in which they serve; and the covering and the laver and its base and all its service.

32 And El-Azar the son of Aharon the kohen shall be leader over the leaders of the Lewiym and has the oversight of those that keep the duty of the Kadosh-Place.

33 Of Merari was the mishpacha of the Mahlites and the mishpacha of the Mushites: these are the mishpachot of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a chodesh old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.

35 And the leader of the bayit of the ahvot of the mishpachot of Merari was Zuri-El the son of Avihail: these shall pitch on the side of the Mishkan northward.

36 And under the custody and duty of the sons of Merari shall be the boards of the Mishkan and the bars of it and the columns of it and the sockets of it and all the vessels of it and all its service, 37 And the columns of the court all around and their sockets and their pegs and their cords.

38 But those that camp before the Mishkan toward the east, even before the Mishkan of the kehilla eastward, shall be Moshe and Aharon and his sons, keeping the duty of the Kadosh-Place for the duty of the children of Yisrael; and the ger that comes near shall be put to death.

39 All that were numbered of the Lewiym, which Moshe and Aharon numbered at the command of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, by their mishpachot, all the males from a chodesh old and upward, were twenty two thousand.

40 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Moshe, Number all the bachor of the males of the children of Yisrael from a chodesh old and upward and take the number of their names.

41 And you shall take the Lewiym for Me I AM אִיִּזְרָאֵל instead of all the bachor among the children of Yisrael and the cattle of the Lewiym instead of all the bachor among the cattle of the children of Yisrael.

42 And Moshe numbered, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded him, all the bachor among the children of Yisrael.

43 And all the bachor males by the number of names, from a chodesh old and upward, of those that were numbered, were twenty two thousand two hundred seventy three.

44 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

45 Take the Lewiym instead of all the bachor among the children of Yisrael and the cattle of the Lewiym instead of their cattle; and the Lewiym shall be Mine: I AM אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and seventy three of the bachor of the children of Yisrael, which are more than the Lewiym;

47 You shall even take five shekels apiece by the poll, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place shall you take them, the shekel of twenty gerahs.

48 And you shall give the money, by which the excess number of them is to be redeemed, to Aharon and to his sons.

49 And Moshe took the redemption money of those that were over and above those that were redeemed by the Lewiym:

50 From the bache of the children of Yisrael he took the money; one thousand three hundred sixty five shekels, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place:
51 And Moshe gave the money of those that were redeemed to Aharon and to his sons, according to The Word of אֱלֹהִים, as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

Torah Parsha 31 Shavuah-Week 31-Nasa Et Rosh.
Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 4-7. Renewed
Covenant Yochanan Alef-First John chapters 1-5.

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,
2 Take the census of the sons of Qehath from among the sons of Lewi, after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot,
3 From thirty years old and upward even until fifty years old, all who enter into the service, to do the work in the Mishkan of the kehilla.
4 This shall be the service of the sons of Qehath in the Mishkan of the kehilla, about the most kadosh things:
5 And when the camp moves forward, Aharon shall come and his sons and they shall take down the covering veil and cover the Ark of the Testimony with it:
6 And shall put on it the covering of fine leather and shall spread over it an all blue cloth and shall put in the poles of it.
7 And upon the shulchan of the faces they shall spread a cloth of blue and put on it the dishes and the spoons and the bowls and covers to cover it fully: and the eternal lechem shall be on it:
8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet and cover the same with a covering of fine leather and shall put in the poles of it.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue and cover the menorah of the ohr and its lamps and its snuffers and its trays and all the oil vessels of it, by which they serve it:

10 And they shall put it and all the vessels of it inside a covering of leather skin and shall put it upon a bar.

11 And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue and cover it with a covering of leather skin and shall put in the poles of it:

12 And they shall take all the utensils of ministry, by which they serve in the Kadosh-Place and put them in a cloth of blue and cover them with a covering of leather skin and shall put them on a bar:

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar and spread a purple cloth over it:

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels of it, by which they serve about it, even the censers, the meathooks and the shovels and the basins, all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread over it a covering of leather skin and put in the poles of it.

15 And when Aharon and his sons have made an end of covering the Kadosh-Place and all the vessels of the Kadosh-Place, as the camp moves forward; then the sons of Qehath shall come to bear it: but they shall not touch any kadosh thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Qehath in the Mishkan of the kehilla.

16 And to the oversight of El-Azar the son of Aharon the kohen, pertains the oil for the ohr and the sweet incense and the daily grain offering and the anointing oil and the oversight of all the Mishkan and of all that is in it, in the Kadosh-Place and in the vessels of it.

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,

18 Do not cut off the tribe of the mishpachot of the Kohathites from among the Lewiym:

19 But this do to them, that they may live and not die, when they approach to the most kadosh things:

Aharon and his sons shall go in and appoint everyone to his service and to his burden:

20 But they shall not go in to see when the kadosh things are being covered, lest they die.

21 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

22 Take also the census of the sons of Gershon, throughout the houses of their ahvot, by their mishpachot;

23 From thirty years old and upward until fifty years old shall you number them; all that enter in to perform the service, to do the work in the Mishkan of the kehilla.

24 This is the service of the mishpachot of the Gershonites, to serve and for their burdens:

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the Mishkan and the Mishkan of the kehilla, its covering and the covering of the leather skin that is on it and the covering for the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla,

26 And the hangings of the court and the covering for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the Mishkan and by the altar all around and their cords and all the instruments of their service and all that is made for them: so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aharon and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burdens and in all their service: and you shall appoint to them their duty for all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the mishpachot of the sons of Gershon in the Mishkan of the kehilla: and their duty shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aharon the kohen.

29 As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them after their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot;

30 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old shall you number them, every one that enters into the service, to do the work of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

31 And this is the duty of their burden, according to all their service in the Mishkan of the kehilla; the boards of the Mishkan and the bars of it and the columns of it and sockets of it, 32 And the columns of the court all around and their sockets and their pegs and their cords, with all their instruments and all their service: and by their name you shall assign the instruments of the duty of their burden.

33 This is the service of the mishpachot of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the Mishkan of the kehilla, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aharon the kohen.

34 And Moshe and Aharon and the leaders of the kehilla numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their mishpachot and after the bayit of their ahvot,

35 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that enters into the service, for the work in the Mishkan of the kehilla:

36 And those that were numbered of them by their mishpachot were two thousand seven hundred fifty.

37 These were they that were numbered of the mishpachot of the Kohathites, all that might do service in the Mishkan of the kehilla, which Moshe and Aharon did number according to the command of אִתְּכֶם by the hand of Moshe.

38 And those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, throughout their mishpachot and by the bayit of their ahvot,

39 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that enters into the service, for the work in the Mishkan of the kehilla, 40 Even those that were numbered of them, throughout their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot, were two thousand six hundred thirty.

41 These are they that were numbered of the mishpachot of the sons of Gershon, of all that might do service in the Mishkan of the kehilla, whom Moshe and Aharon did number according to the command of אֱלֹהִים.

42 And those who were numbered of the mishpachot of the sons of Merari, throughout their mishpachot, by the bayit of their ahvot,

43 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that enters into the service, for the work in the Mishkan of the kehilla, 44 Even those that were numbered of them after their mishpachot, were three thousand two hundred.

45 These are those that were numbered of the mishpachot of the sons of Merari, whom Moshe and Aharon numbered according to The Word of אֱלֹהִים by the hand of Moshe.

46 All those that were numbered of the Lewiym, whom Moshe and Aharon and the leaders of Yisrael numbered, after their mishpachot and after the bayit of their ahvot,

47 From thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone that came to do the service of the ministry and the service of the burden in the Mishkan of the kehilla, 48 Even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty.

49 According to the command of אֱלֹהִים they were numbered by the hand of Moshe, every one according to his service and according to his burden: so were they numbered by him, as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

5 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Command the children of Yisrael, that they put out of the camp every leper and everyone that has an issue and whoever is defiled by the dead:

3 Both male and female shall you put out, outside the camp shall you put them; that they defile not their camps, in the midst of which I dwell.

4 And the children of Yisrael did so and put them out outside the camp: as אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, so did the children of Yisrael.

5 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

6 Speak to the children of Yisrael, When a man, or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, in a trespass against אֱלֹהִים and that person be guilty;

7 Then they shall confess their sin that they have done: and he shall repay his trespass with its principal and then add to it the one-fifth and give it to him against whom he has trespassed.

8 But if the man has no relative to repay the trespass to, let the trespass be paid to אֱלֹהִים, for the kohen; in addition to the ram of the keporah, with which a keporah shall be made for him.

9 And every offering of all the kadosh things of the children of Yisrael, which they bring to the kohen, shall be his.

10 And every man's kadosh gifts shall be his: whatever any man gives the kohen, it shall be his.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

12 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, If any man's isha goes aside and commits a trespass against him,

13 And a man lies with her carnally and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband and is kept secret and she is defiled and there was no witness against her, nor was she caught;

14 And the ruach of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his isha and she is defiled:

or if the ruach of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous of his isha and she is not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his isha to the kohen and he shall bring the offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense on it; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the kohen shall bring her near and set her before אֵלֹהִים:

17 And the kohen shall take kadosh mayim in an earthen vessel; of the dust that is on the floor of the Mishkan the kohen shall take some and put it into the mayim:

18 And the kohen shall set the woman before אֵלֹהִים and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the kohen shall have in his hand the bitter mayim that causes the curse:

19 And the kohen shall put her under an oath and say to the woman, If no man has lain with you and if you have not gone aside to uncleanness with another instead of your husband, be free from this bitter mayim that causes the curse:

20 But if you have gone aside to another instead of your husband and if you are defiled and some man has lain with you beside your husband:

21 Then the kohen shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing and the kohen shall say to the woman, אֵלֹהִים make you a curse and an oath among your people, when אֵלֹהִים makes your thigh to rot and your belly to swell;

22 And this mayim that causes the curse shall go into your bowels, to make your belly to swell and your thigh to rot: And the woman shall say, Ahmein, Ahmein.

23 And the kohen shall write these curses in a scroll and he shall blot them out with the bitter mayim:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter mayim that causes the curse: and the mayim that causes the curse shall enter into her and become bitter.

25 Then the kohen shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand and shall wave the offering before אֱלֹהִים and offer it upon the altar:

26 And the kohen shall take a handful of the offering, as a memorial offering and burn it upon the altar and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the mayim.

27 And when he has made her to drink the mayim, then it shall come to pass, that, if she is defiled and has done trespass against her husband, that the mayim that causes the curse shall enter into her and becomes bitter and her belly shall swell and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman is not defiled, but is clean; then she shall be free and shall conceive zera.

29 This is the Torah of jealousy, when an isha turns aside to another instead of her husband and is defiled;

30 Or, when the ruach of jealousy comes upon him and he is jealous over his isha and shall set the woman before אֱלֹהִים and the kohen shall execute to her all this Torah.

31 Then shall the man be free from iniquity, but the woman shall bear her iniquity.

6 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, When either man, or woman shall separate themselves to vow a vow of a Nazirite, to separate themselves to אֱלֹהִים:

3 He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the yamim of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine eytz, from the zera even to the skin.

5 All the yamim of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the yamim are fulfilled, in which he separates himself to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, he shall be kadosh and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the yamim that he separates himself to אִיִּזְרָאֵל he shall not come near a dead gooff.

7 He shall not make himself unclean for his abba, or for his emma, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the separation of his Ahlohim is upon his head.

8 All the yamim of his separation he is kadosh to אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

9 And if any man dies suddenly near him and he has defiled the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the yom of his cleansing, on the seventh yom shall he shave it.

10 And on the eighth yom he shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to the kohen, to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla:

11 And the kohen shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering and make a keporah for him because he sinned by reason of the dead gooff and shall set apart his head that same yom.

12 And he shall consecrate to אִיִּזְרָאֵל the yamim of his separation and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass offering: but the yamim that were before shall be lost because his separation was defiled.

13 And this is the Torah of the Nazirite, when the yamim of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla:

14 And he shall offer his offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, one male lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering and one ewe lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering and one ram without blemish for shalom offerings,

15 And a basket of unleavened lechem, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil and wafers of unleavened lechem anointed with oil and their grain offering and their drink offerings.

16 And the kohen shall bring them before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם and shall offer his sin offering and his burnt offering:

17 And he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of shalom offerings to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, with the basket of unleavened lechem: the kohen shall offer also his grain offering and his drink offering.

18 And the Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and shall take the hair of the head of his separation and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the shalom offerings.

19 And the kohen shall take the boiled thigh of the ram and one unleavened cake out of the basket and one unleavened wafer and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazirite, after the hair of his separation is shaven:

20 And the kohen shall wave them for a wave offering before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם: this is kadosh for the kohen, with the wave breast offering and the thigh of the contribution: and after that the Nazirite may drink wine.

21 This is the Torah of the Nazirite who has vowed and of his offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם for his separation and besides that, whatever else his hands are able to provide: according to the vow which he vowed, so he must do after the Torah of his separation.

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

23 Speak to Aharon and to his sons, saying, This is the derech you shall bless the children of Yisrael, saying to them,

24 אֱלֹהִים bless you and keep you:

25 אֱלֹהִים make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you:

26 אֱלֹהִים lift up His countenance upon you and give you shalom.

27 And they shall put My Name upon the children of Yisrael; and I will bless them.

7 And it came to pass on the yom that Moshe had fully set up the Mishkan and had anointed it and set it apart and all the furnishings of it, both the altar and all its vessels and had anointed them and set them apart;

2 That the leaders of Yisrael, heads of the bayit of their ahvot, who were the leaders of the tribes and were over them that were numbered, drew near:

3 And they brought their offering before אֱלֹהִים, six covered wagons and twelve cattle; a wagon for every two of the leaders and for each one a bull: and they brought them before the Mishkan.

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

5 Accept these from them, that they may be for the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla; and you shall give them to the Lewiym, to every man according to his service.

6 And Moshe took the wagons and the cattle and gave them to the Lewiym.

7 Two wagons and four cattle he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to their service:

8 And four wagons and eight cattle he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aharon the kohen.

9 But to the sons of Qehath he gave none because the service of the kadosh objects belonged to them, to carry it upon their shoulders.

10 And the leaders offered their offerings for the dedicating of the altar in the yom that it was anointed, even the leaders offered their offering before the altar.

11 And אִי־אֵלֵי said to Moshe, They shall offer their offering, each leader on his yom, for the dedicating of the altar.

12 And he that offered his offering the first yom was Nachshon the son of Amminadav, of the tribe of Yahudah:

13 And his offering was one silver platter, the weight of it was a hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place; both of them were full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering:

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense:

15 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

16 One kid of the male goats for a sin offering:

17 And for a sacrifice of shalom offerings, two cattle, five rams, five male goats and five lambs of the first year: this was the offering of Nachshon the son of Amminadav.

18 On the second yom Natan-El the son of Tzuar, leader of Yissachar, brought it near:

19 He offered for his offering one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering:

20 One spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense:

21 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year, for a burnt offering:

22 One kid of the male goats for a sin offering:

89 And when Moshe went into the Mishkan of the kehilla to speak with Him, then he heard the voice of One speaking to him from above the rachamim seat that was upon the Ark of testimony, from between the two cheruvim: and He spoke to him.

Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 8-10. Renewed
Covenant Yochanan Bet, Yochanan Gimel and Yahudah. Second John, Third John, & Jude.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to Aharon and say to him, When you light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give ohr in front of the menorah.

3 And Aharon did so; he lit the lamps in front of the menorah, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Moshe.

4 And this work of the menorah was of beaten gold, to the shaft of it, to its blossoms it was beaten work: according to the pattern that אִיִּזְרָאֵל had showed Moshe, so he made the menorah.

5 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

6 Take the Lewiym from among the children of Yisrael and cleanse them.

7 And this shall you do to them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle the mayim of purifying upon them and let them shave all their gooff and let them wash their clothes and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with its grain offering, even fine flour mixed with oil and another young bullock shall you take for a sin offering.

9 And you shall bring the Lewiym before the Mishkan of the kehilla: and you shall gather the whole kehilla of the children of Yisrael together:

10 And you shall bring the Lewiym before אִיִּזְרָאֵל: and the children of Yisrael shall lay their hands upon the Lewiym:

11 And Aharon shall offer the Lewiym before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם for an offering from the children of Yisrael so that they may perform the service of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

12 And the Lewiym shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and you shall offer one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering, to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, to make a keporah for the Lewiym.

13 And you shall set the Lewiym before Aharon and before his sons and offer them for an offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

14 So shall you separate the Lewiym from among the children of Yisrael: and the Lewiym shall be Mine.

15 And after that shall the Lewiym go in to do the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla: and you shall cleanse them and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given to Me from among the children of Yisrael, instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the bachor of all the children of Yisrael, have I taken them to Me.

17 For all the bachor of the children of Yisrael are Mine, both man and beast: on the yom that I smote every bachor in the land of Mitzrayim I set them apart for Myself.

18 And I have taken the Lewiym instead of all the bachor of the children of Yisrael.

19 And I have given the Lewiym as a gift to Aharon and to his sons from among the children of Yisrael, to do the service for the children of Yisrael in the Mishkan of the kehilla and to make a keporah for the children of Yisrael: that there be no plague among the children of Yisrael, when the children of Yisrael come near to the Kadosh-Place.

20 And Moshe and Aharon and all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, did to the Lewiym according to all that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם commanded Moshe concerning the Lewiym, so did the children of Yisrael to them.

21 And the Lewiym were purified and they washed their clothes; and Aharon offered them as an offering before אֱלֹהִים; and Aharon made keporah for them to cleanse them.

22 And after that went the Lewiym in to do their service in the Mishkan of the kehilla before Aharon and before his sons: as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe concerning the Lewiym, so they did to them.

23 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

24 This applies to the Lewiym: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to wait upon the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla:

25 And from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting upon the service of it and shall serve no more:

26 But shall serve with their brothers in the Mishkan of the kehilla, to shomer the duty, but shall do no service. This shall you do to the Lewiym regarding their duties.

9 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe in the wilderness of Senai, in the first chodesh of the second year after they had come out of the land of Mitzrayim, saying,
2 Let the children of Yisrael also keep the Pesach at its appointed time.

3 On the fourteenth yom of this chodesh, in the evening, you shall keep it at its appointed time: according to all the rites of it and according to all the ceremonies of it, shall you keep it.

4 And Moshe spoke to the children of Yisrael, that they should keep the Pesach.

5 And they kept the Pesach on the fourteenth yom of the first chodesh in the evening in the wilderness of Senai: according to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe, so did the children of Yisrael.

6 And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead gooff of a man, that they could not keep the Pesach on that yom: and they came before Moshe and before Aharon on that yom:

7 And those men said to him, We are defiled by the dead gooff of a man: Why are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering to אלהים at His appointed time among the children of Yisrael?

8 And Moshe said to them, Stand still and I will hear what אלהים will command concerning you.

9 And אלהים spoke to Moshe, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, If any man of you, or of your offspring shall be unclean by reason of a dead gooff, or is on a far off journey, he shall still keep the Pesach to אלהים.

11 The fourteenth yom of the second chodesh at dusk they shall keep it and eat it with matzah and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it until the boker, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the Pesach they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, or is not on a journey and fails to keep the Pesach, even the same being shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of אלהים at its appointed time, that man shall bear his sin.

14 And if a ger shall sojourn among you and will keep the Pesach to אלהים; according to the ordinance of the Pesach and according to the manner of it, so shall he do: you shall have one ordinance, both for the ger and for him that was born in the land.

15 And on the yom that the Mishkan was raised up the cloud covered the Mishkan, the tent of the testimony: and at evening there was upon the Mishkan as it were the appearance of fire, until the boker.

16 So it was always: the cloud covered it by yom and the appearance of fire by lyla.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the Mishkan, then the children of Yisrael journeyed: and in the place where the cloud stopped, there the children of Yisrael pitched their tents.

18 At the command of אֱלֹהִים the children of Yisrael journeyed and at the command of אֱלֹהִים they camped: as long as the cloud stayed upon the Mishkan they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried for a long time upon the Mishkan many yamim, the children of Yisrael kept the duty of אֱלֹהִים and did not journey.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was a few yamim upon the Mishkan; according to the command of אֱלֹהִים they stayed in their tents and according to the command of אֱלֹהִים they journeyed.

21 And sometimes, when the cloud stayed from evening to the boker, when the cloud was taken up in the boker, then they journeyed: whether it was by yom, or by lyla; when the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or, whether it was two yamim, or a chodesh, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the Mishkan, remaining on it, the children of Yisrael stayed in their tents and did not journey: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the command of אֱלֹהִים they rested in the tents and at the command of אֱלֹהִים they journeyed: they kept the duty of אֱלֹהִים, at the command of אֱלֹהִים by the hand of Moshe.

10 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Make two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shall you make them: that you may use them for the calling of the kehilla and for the journeying of the camp.

3 And when they shall blow with them, the entire kehilla shall assemble themselves to you at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the leaders, who are heads of the thousands of Yisrael, shall gather themselves to you.

5 When you blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When you blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the kehilla is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aharon, the kohanim, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance le-olam-va-ed throughout your generations.

9 And if you go to war in your land against the enemy that oppresses you, then you shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and you shall be remembered before אלהים your Ahlohim and you shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also in the yom of your simcha, and in your moadeem, and in the beginnings of your chodashim, you shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over the sacrifices of your shalom offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your Ahlohim: I AM אלהים your Ahlohim.

11 And it came to pass on the twentieth yom of the second chodesh, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from off the Mishkan of the testimony.

12 And the children of Yisrael took their journeys out of the wilderness of Senai; and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And they first took their journey according to the command of אלהים by the hand of Moshe.

14 In the first place went the banner of the camp of the children of Yahudah according to their divisions: and over his host was Nachshon the son of Amminadav.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Yissachar was Natan-El the son of Tzuar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zevulon was Eliav the son of Helon.

17 And the Mishkan was taken down; and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari moved forward, bearing the Mishkan.

18 And the banner of the camp of Reuven moved forward according to their divisions: and over its host was Elitzur the son of Shedey-Ur.

19 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Shimon was Shelumi-El the son of Tzurishaddai.

20 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Elyasaph the son of Deu-El.

21 And the Kohathites moved forward, bearing the Kadosh-Place objects: and the others did set up the Mishkan before they came.

22 And the banner of the camp of the children of Efrayim set forward according to their divisions: and over its host was Ely-Shama the son of Ammihud.

23 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Menasheh was Gamli-El the son of Pedahzur.

24 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Benyamin was Avidan the son of Gidoni.

25 And the banner of the camp of the children of Dan moved forward, which was the rear guard of all the camps throughout their divisions: and over their division was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher was Pagi-El the son of Ocran.

27 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the son of Enan.

28 Such were the journeyings of the children of Yisrael according to their divisions, when they moved forward.

29 And Moshe said to Hovav, the son of Reu-El the Midyanite, Moshe's abba-in-law, We are journeying to the place of which אֱלֹהִים said, I will give it you: come with us and we will do you tov: for אֱלֹהִים has spoken tov concerning Yisrael.

30 And he said to Moshe, I will not go; but I will depart to my own land and to my kindred.

31 And Moshe said, Leave us not, I ask you; because you know how we are to camp in the wilderness and you may be to us as eyes.

32 And it shall be, if you go with us, yes, it shall be, that what tov אֱלֹהִים shall do to us, the same will we do to you.

33 And they departed from the har of אֱלֹהִים three yamim' journey: and the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהִים went before them in the three yamim' journey, to search out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of אֱלֹהִים was upon them by yom, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the Ark moved forward, that Moshe said, Rise up, אֱלֹהִים and let Your enemies be scattered; and let them that hate You flee before You.

36 And when it rested, he said, Shuvee, O אֱלֹהִים, to the countless myriads- thousands of Yisrael.

Ha'Am Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 11-14.
Renewed Covenant Romiyah-Romans chapters 1-5.

11 And when the people complained, it displeased אֱלֹהִים: and אֱלֹהִים heard it; and His anger was lit; and the fire of אִיִּי burned among them and consumed them that were at the outskirts of the camp.

2 And the people cried to Moshe; and when Moshe made tefillah to אִיִּי, the fire was quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place Taverah: because the fire of אִיִּי burned among them.

4 And the mixed multitude that was among them lusted greatly: and the children of Yisrael also wept again and said, Who shall give us meat to eat?

5 We remember the fish, which we did eat in Mitzrayim freely; the cucumbers and the melons and the leeks and the onions and the garlic:

6 But our throat is dried up: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes.

7 And the manna was as coriander zera and the color of it as the color of bdellium.

8 And the people went about and gathered it and ground it on millstones, or beat it in the mortar and baked it in pans and made cakes from it: and the taste of it was as the taste of fresh oil.

9 And when the dew fell upon the camp in the lyla, the manna fell upon it.

10 Then Moshe heard the people weep throughout their mishpachot, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of אִיִּי was lit greatly; Moshe also was displeased.

11 And Moshe said to אִיִּי, Why have You afflicted Your eved? And why have I not found chen in Your sight, in that You lay the burden of this entire people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all of this people; Have I begotten them, that You should say to me, Carry them in your bosom, as a nursing abba bears the nursing child, to the land that You swore to their ahvot?

13 Where should I find meat to give to this entire people? For they weep to me, saying, Give us meat that we may eat.

14 I am not able to bear this entire people alone because it is too heavy for me.

15 And if You do this to me, kill me altogether, if I have found chesed in Your sight; and let me not see my evil.

16 And אֶלְדָּד said to Moshe, Gather to Me seventy men of the zechanim of Yisrael, whom you know to be the zechanim of the people and officers over them; and bring them to the Mishkan of the kehilla, that they may stand there with you.

17 And I will come down and talk with you there: and I will take of The Ruach which is upon you and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you bear it not yourself alone.

18 And say to the people, Set yourselves apart for tomorrow and you shall eat meat: for you have wept in the ears of אֶלְדָּד, saying, Who shall give us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Mitzrayim:

therefore אֶלְדָּד will give you meat and you shall eat.

19 You shall not eat one yom, nor two yamim, nor five yamim, neither ten yamim, nor twenty yamim;

20 But even a whole chodesh, until it comes out of your nostrils and it becomes loathsome to you: because you have despised אֶלְדָּד who is among you and have wept before Him, saying, Why did we come out of Mitzrayim?

21 And Moshe said, The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and you have said, I will give them meat, that they may eat a whole chodesh.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? Or, shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together just for them, to suffice them?

23 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Is אֱלֹהִים 's Arm too short? You shall see now whether My Word meets you, or not.

24 And Moshe went out and told the people the Words of אֱלֹהִים and gathered the seventy men of the zechanim of the people and set them all around the Mishkan.

25 And אֱלֹהִים came down in a cloud and spoke to him and took of The Ruach that was upon him and gave it to the seventy zechanim: and it came to pass, that, when The Ruach rested upon them, they prophesied and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad and the name of the other Medad: and The Ruach rested upon them; and they were among those listed, but went not out to the Mishkan: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man and told Moshe and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Yahusha the son of Nun, the assistant of Moshe, one of his young men, answered and said, My master Moshe, forbid them.

29 And Moshe said to him, Are you jealous for my sake? O that all אֱלֹהִים 's people were neviim and that אֱלֹהִים would put His Ruach upon them!

30 And Moshe returned into the camp, he and the zechanim of Yisrael.

31 And there went out a wind from אֱלֹהִים and brought quails from the sea and let them fall by the camp, about a yom's journey on this side and about a yom's journey on the other side, all around the camp, about two cubits high upon the surface of the earth.

32 And the people stayed up all that yom and all that lyla and all the next yom and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers:

and they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

33 And while the meat was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the wrath of אֱלֹהִים was lit against the people and אֱלֹהִים smote the people with a very great plague.

34 And he called the name of that place Kivroth-Hattaavah: because there they buried the people that lusted.

35 And the people journeyed from Kivroth-Hattaavah to Hazereth; and stayed at Hazereth.

12 And Miryam and Aharon spoke against Moshe because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married another: an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Has אֱלֹהִים indeed spoken only by Moshe? Has He not spoken also by us? And אֱלֹהִים heard it.

3 Now the man Moshe was very meek, above all the men that were upon the face of the earth.

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke suddenly to Moshe and to Aharon and to Miryam, Come out you three to the Mishkan of the kehilla. And those three came out.

5 And אֱלֹהִים came down in the pillar of the cloud and stood in the door of the Mishkan and called Aharon and Miryam: and they both came out.

6 And He said, Hear now My Words: If there be a navi among you, I אֱלֹהִים will make Myself known to him in a vision and will speak to him in a dream.

7 My eved Moshe is not so, who is faithful in all My bayit.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even plainly and not in dark speeches; and the form of אֱלֹהִים shall he see: why then were you not afraid to speak against My eved Moshe?

9 And the anger of אֱלֹהִים was lit against them; and He departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the Mishkan; and, see, Miryam became leprous, as white as snow: and Aharon looked upon Miryam and, see, she was leprous.

11 And Aharon said to Moshe, Oh, my master, I beg you, lay not the sin upon us, in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, whose flesh is half consumed when he comes out of its emma's womb.

13 And Moshe cried to אֱלֹהִים, saying, Heal her now, O El, I beg You.

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, If her abba had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven yamim? Let her be shut out from the camp seven yamim and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miryam was shut out from the camp seven yamim: and the people journeyed not until Miryam was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people left from Hazereth and camped in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Send men that they may search the land of Kanaan, which I give to the children of Yisrael: from every tribe of their ahvot shall you send a man, every one a leader among them.

3 And Moshe by the command of אֱלֹהִים sent them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Yisrael.

4 And these were their names: of the tribe of Reuven, Shammua the son of Zakur.

5 Of the tribe of Shimon, Shaphat the son of Hori.

6 Of the tribe of Yahudah, Kalev the son of Yephunneh.

7 Of the tribe of Yissachar, Igal the son of Yoseph.

8 Of the tribe of Efrayim, Husha the son of Nun.
9 Of the tribe of Benyamin, Palti the son of Raphu.
10 Of the tribe of Zevulon, Gaddi-El the son of Sodi.
11 Of the tribe of Yoseph, namely, of the tribe of Menasheh, Gaddi the son of Susi.
12 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammi-El the son of Gemalli.
13 Of the tribe of Asher, Shethur the son of Mikael.
14 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahvi the son of Vophsi.
15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geu-El the son of Machi.
16 These are the names of the men that Moshe sent to spy out the land. And Moshe called Husha the son of Nun, Yahusha.
17 And Moshe sent them to spy out the land of Kanaan and said to them, Go up this derech southward and go up into the har:
18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwell there, whether they be strong, or weak, few, or many;
19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be tov, or bad; and what cities there are that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strongholds;
20 And what the land is, whether it be fat, or lean, whether there is wood there, or not. And be of tov courage and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the season of the first ripe grapes.
21 So they went up and searched the land from the wilderness of Tzin to Rehov, as men come to Hamath.
22 And they ascended by the south and came to Chebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmi, the children of Anak, were. Now Chebron was built seven years before Tzoan in Mitzrayim.
23 And they came to the brook of Eshcol and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes and they bore it between the two of them on a pole; and they brought of the pomegranates and of the figs.

24 The place was called the Brook Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes that the children of Yisrael cut down from there.

25 And they returned from searching the land after forty yamim.

26 And they went and came to Moshe and to Aharon and to all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them and to all the kehilla and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him and said, We came to the land where you sent us and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

28 Nevertheless the people are strong that dwell in the land and the cities are walled and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there.

29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites and the Yevusites and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Kanaanites dwell by the sea and by the coast of the Yarden.

30 And Kalev quieted the people before Moshe and said, Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 But the men that went up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we are.

32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched to the children of Yisrael, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people that we saw in it are men of great size.

33 And there we saw the Nephilim, the sons of a giant, who came from the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers and so we were in their sight.

14 And the entire kehilla lifted up their voice and cried; and the people wept that lyla.

2 And all the children of Yisrael murmured against Moshe and against Aharon: and the whole kehilla said to them, Would to Ahlohim that we had died in the land of Mitzrayim! Or, would to Ahlohim we had died in this wilderness!

3 And why has אֱלֹהִים brought us to this land, to kill us by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? Is it not better for us to return to Mitzrayim?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a leader and let us return to Mitzrayim.

5 Then Moshe and Aharon fell on their faces before all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael.

6 And Yahusha the son of Nun and Kalev the son of Yephunneh, who were from them that searched the land, tore their clothes:

7 And they spoke to all the company of the children of Yisrael, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceedingly tov land.

8 If אֱלֹהִים delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us; a land that flows with milk and honey.

9 Only rebel not against אֱלֹהִים, neither fear the people of the land; for they are lechem for us: their defense is departed from them and אֱלֹהִים is with us: fear them not.

10 But the entire kehilla wanted to stone them with stones. And the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים appeared in the Mishkan of the kehilla before all the children of Yisrael.

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, How long will this people provoke Me? And how long will it be until they believe Us, for all the signs that I have showed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence and disinherit them and will make of you and your avoht, a greater goy and mightier than they are.

13 And Moshe said to אֱלֹהִים, Then the Mitzrim shall hear it, for You brought up this people in Your might from among them;

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that You אֱלֹהִים are among this people, that You אֱלֹהִים are seen face to face and that Your cloud stands over them and that You go before them, by yom in a pillar of a cloud and in a pillar of fire by lyla.

15 Now if You shall kill this entire people as one man, then the goyim who have heard of Your fame will speak, saying, 16 Because אֱלֹהִים was not able to bring this people into the land which He swore to them, therefore He has slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beg You, let The Power of אֱלֹהִים be great, according as You have spoken, saying, 18 אֱלֹהִים is longsuffering and of great rachamim, forgiving iniquity and transgression and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the ahvot upon the children to the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beg You, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of Your rachamim and as You have forgiven this people, from Mitzrayim even until now.

20 And אֱלֹהִים said, I have pardoned according to your word:

21 But as truly as I live, all the land shall be filled with the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים.

22 Because all those men who have seen My tifereth and My nisim, which I did in Mitzrayim and in the wilderness and have tempted Me now these ten times and have not listened to My voice;

23 Surely they shall not see the land that I swore to their ahvot, neither shall any of them that provoked Me see it:

24 But My eved Kalev because he had another Ruach in him and has followed Me fully, him will I bring into the land where he went; and his zera shall possess it.

25 (Now the Amalekites and the Kanaanites dwelt in the valley) Tomorrow turn and set out into the wilderness by the derech of the Yam Suf.

26 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying, 27 How long shall I bear with this evil kehilla, who murmur against Me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Yisrael that they murmur against Me.

28 Say to them, As truly as I live, says אִרְאֵל, as you have spoken in My ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness; and all that were numbered among you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against Me,

30 For sure you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore to make you dwell there, except Kalev the son of Yephunneh and Yahusha the son of Nun.

31 But your little ones, who you said should be a prey, them will I bring in and they shall know the land that you have despised.

32 But as for you, your carcasses, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall wander in the wilderness forty years and bear your whoring, until your carcasses are wasted in the wilderness.

34 After the number of the yamim in which you searched the land, even forty yamim, each yom for a year, shall you bear your iniquities, even forty years and you shall know the result of straying from Me.

35 I אֱלֹהִים have said, I will surely do it to this entire evil kehilla that have gathered together against Me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed and there they shall die.

36 And the men, whom Moshe sent to search the land, who returned and made all the kehilla to murmur against him, by bringing up slander about the land, 37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report from the land, died by the plague before אֱלֹהִים.

38 But Yahusha the son of Nun and Kaleb the son of Yephunneh, who were from the men that went to search the land, still lived.

39 And Moshe told these sayings to all the children of Yisrael: and the people mourned greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the boker and got up into the top of the har, saying, See, we are here and will go up to the place which אֱלֹהִים has promised: for we have sinned. And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe saying; do not go up and fight, because I AM not in the midst of you. Otherwise, you will be defeated by your enemies.

41 And Moshe said, Why do you now still transgress the command of אֱלֹהִים ? But it shall not prosper.

42 Go not up, for אֱלֹהִים is not among you; that you be not smitten by your enemies.

43 For the Amalekites and the Kanaanites are there before you and you shall fall by the sword: because you have turned away from אֱלֹהִים, therefore אֱלֹהִים will not be with you.

44 But they presumed to go up to the hill top: nevertheless the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהִים and Moshe, departed not out of the camp.

45 Then the Amalekites came down and the Kanaanites who dwelt in that hill and smote them and beat them down, even to Hormah and they returned to the camp.

Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 15-18. Renewed
Covenant Romiyah-Romans chapters 6-10.

15 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them,
When you come into the land of your dwellings,
which I give to you,

3 And will make an offering by fire to אֱלֹהִים, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice in performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or in your moadeem, to make a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים, of the herd, or of the flock:

4 Then shall he that offers his offering to אֱלֹהִים bring a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil.

5 And the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering shall you prepare with the burnt offering, or sacrifice, for one lamb.

6 Or, for a ram, you shall prepare for a grain offering two tenths of an ephah of flour mixed with the third part of a hin of oil.

7 And for a drink offering you shall offer the third part of a hin of wine, for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

8 And when you prepare a bullock for a burnt offering, or for a sacrifice in performing a vow, or shalom offerings to אֱלֹהִים:

9 Then shall he bring with a bullock a grain offering of three tenths of an ephah of flour mixed with half a hin of oil.

10 And you shall bring for a drink offering half a hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

11 This shall be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that you shall prepare, so shall you do to every one according to their number.

13 All that are natives of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

14 And if a ger sojourn with you, or whoever is among you in your generations and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם; as you do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the kehilla and also for the ger that sojourns with you, an ordinance le-olam-va-ed in your generations: as you are, so shall the ger be before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

16 One Torah and one ordinance shall be for you and for the ger that sojourns with you.

17 And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם spoke to Moshe, saying,

18 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them,

When you come into the land where I bring you,

19 Then it shall be, that, when you eat of the lechem of the land, you shall offer up a terumah offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

20 You shall offer up a cake from the first of your dough for a terumah offering: as you do the terumah offering of the threshing floor, so shall you present it.

21 From the first of your dough you shall give to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם a terumah offering in your generations.

22 And if you have erred and not observed all these mitzvoth, which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם has spoken to Moshe,

23 Even all that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם has commanded you by the hand of Moshe, from the yom that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם commanded Moshe and onward throughout all your generations;

24 Then it shall be, if anything be committed by ignorance without the da'at of the kehilla, that all the kehilla shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet fragrance to אלהים, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the ordinance and one kid of the male goats for a sin offering.

25 And the kohen shall make a keporah for all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire to אלהים and their sin offering before אלהים, for their ignorance:

26 And it shall be forgiven all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael and the ger that sojourns among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 And if any being sins through ignorance, then he shall bring a female goat of the first year for a sin offering.

28 And the kohen shall make a keporah for the being that sins ignorantly, when he sins by ignorance before אלהים, to make a keporah for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 You shall have one Torah for him that sins through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Yisrael and for the ger that sojourns among them.

30 But the being that does something defiantly, whether he be born in the land, or a ger, the same reproaches אלהים; and that being shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he has despised The Word of אלהים and has broken His command, that being shall utterly be cut off; his iniquity shall be upon him.

32 And while the children of Yisrael were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks on The Shabbat yom.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks brought him to Moshe and Aharon and to the entire kehilla.

34 And they put him under guard because it was not declared what should be done to him.

35 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, The man shall be surely put to death: the entire kehilla shall stone him with stones outside the camp.

36 And all the kehilla brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones and he died; as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

37 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

38 Speak to the children of Yisrael and tell them that they are to make tzitziyot in the wings of their garments throughout their generations and that they put upon the tzitzit of the wings a cord of techelet:

39 And it shall be to you for a tzitzit, that you may look upon it and remember all the mitzvot of אֱלֹהִים and do them; and that you seek not after your own lev and your own eyes, which you used to go whoring:

40 That you may remember and do all My mitzvot and be kadosh to your Ahlohim.

41 I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brought you out of the land of Mizrayim, to be your Ahlohim: I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

16 Now Korach, the son of Izhar, the son of Qehath, the son of Lewi and Dathan and Aviram, the sons of Eliav and On, the son of Peleth, sons of Reuven, took men:

2 And they rose up before Moshe, with certain of the children of Yisrael, two hundred fifty leaders of the kehilla, famous in the kehilla, men of name recognition:

3 And they gathered themselves together against Moshe and against Aharon and said to them, You take too much upon yourselves, seeing all the kehilla is kadosh, every one of them and אֱלֹהִים is among them: why then do you lift up yourselves above the kehilla of אֱלֹהִים ?

4 And when Moshe heard it, he fell upon his face:

5 And he spoke to Korach and to all his company, saying, Even tomorrow אֱלֹהִים will show who are His and who is kadosh; and will cause him to come near to Him: even him whom He has chosen will He cause to come near to Him.

6 Do this; Take censers, Korach and all your company;

7 And put fire in them and put incense in them before אֱלֹהִים tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom אֱלֹהִים does choose, he shall be kadosh: you take too much upon you, you sons of Lewi.

8 And Moshe said to Korach, Hear, I ask you, you sons of Lewi:

9 Is it but a small thing to you, that the Ahlohim of Yisrael has separated you from the kehilla of Yisrael, to bring you near to Himself to do the service of the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים and to stand before the kehilla to serve them?

10 And He has brought you near to Him and all your brothers the sons of Lewi with you: and now you seek the kohanut also?

11 For which cause both you and all your company are gathered together against אֱלֹהִים: and who is Aharon that you murmur against him?

12 And Moshe sent to call Dathan and Aviram, the sons of Eliav: who said, We will not come up:

13 Is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land that flows with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except perhaps to make yourself a leader over us?

14 Moreover you have not brought us into a land that flows with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you now put out the eyes of these men? We will not come up.

15 And Moshe was very angry and said to אֱלֹהִים, Respect not their offering: I have not taken one donkey from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moshe said to Korach, You and all your company come before אֱלֹהִים with Aharon tomorrow:

17 And take every man his censer and put incense in it and bring it before אֱלֹהִים every man his censer, two hundred fifty censers; you also and Aharon, each of you with his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer and put fire in them and laid incense on them and stood at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla with Moshe and Aharon.

19 And Korach gathered the entire kehilla against them at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla: and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים appeared to all the kehilla.

20 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,

21 Separate yourselves from among this kehilla, that I may consume them in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces and said, O Ahlohim, the El of the ruachim of all flesh, shall one man sin and will you be angry with all the kehilla?

23 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

24 Speak to the kehilla, saying, Move away from around the tents of Korach, Dathan and Aviram.

25 And Moshe rose up and went to Dathan and Aviram; and the zechanim of Yisrael followed him.

26 And he spoke to the kehilla, saying, Depart, I ask you, from the tents of these wicked men and touch nothing of theirs, lest you be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they got away from the tents of Korach, Dathan and Aviram, on every side: and Dathan and Aviram came out and stood in the door of their tents and their wives and their sons and their little children.

28 And Moshe said, Hereby you shall know that אֱלֹהִים has sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them from my own lev.

29 If these men die the common death of all men, or if they are visited after the visitation of all men; then אֱלֹהִים has not sent me.

30 But if אֱלֹהִים makes a new thing and the earth opens her mouth and swallows them up, with all that pertains to them and they go down quickly into Sheol; then you shall understand that these men have provoked אֱלֹהִים.

31 And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground split open that was under them:

32 And the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up and their houses and all the men with Korach and all their goods.

33 They and all that pertained to them, went down alive into Sheol and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the kehilla.

34 And kol Yisrael that were around them fled at their cry: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a fire from אֱלֹהִים and consumed the two hundred fifty men that offered incense.

36 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

37 Speak to El-Azar the son of Aharon the kohen, that he take up the censers out of the blaze and scatter the fire away; for they are kadosh.

38 The censers of these sinners against their own beings, let them make from them broad plates as a covering for the altar: for they offered them before אֱלֹהִים, therefore they are kadosh: and they shall be an ot to the children of Yisrael.

39 And El-Azar the kohen took the brazen censers, by which those that were burned had offered; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial to the children of Yisrael, that no ger, who is not of the zera of Aharon, should come near to offer incense before אֱלֹהִים; that he be not like Korach and as his company: as אֱלֹהִים said to him by the hand of Moshe.

41 But on the next yom all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael murmured against Moshe and against Aharon, saying, You have killed the people of אֱלֹהִים.

42 And it came to pass, when the kehilla was gathered against Moshe and against Aharon, that they looked toward the Mishkan of the kehilla: and, see, the cloud covered it and the tifereth of אֱלֹהִים appeared.

43 And Moshe and Aharon came before the Mishkan of the kehilla.

44 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

45 Get up from among this kehilla, that I may consume them in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

46 And Moshe said to Aharon, Take a censer and put fire on it from off the altar and put on incense and go quickly to the kehilla and make a keporah for them: for there is anger gone out from אֱלֹהִים; the plague has begun.

47 And Aharon took as Moshe commanded and ran into the midst of the kehilla; and, see, the plague had begun among the people: and he put on incense and made keporah for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stopped.

49 Now those that died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those that died after the matter of Korach.

50 And Aharon returned to Moshe to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla: and the plague was stopped.

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael and take from every one of them a rod according to the bayit of their ahvot, of all their leaders according to the bayit of their ahvot twelve rods: write every man's name upon his rod.

3 And you shall write Aharon's name upon the rod of Lewi: for one rod shall be for the head of the bayit of their ahvot.

4 And you shall lay them in the Mishkan of the kehilla before the testimony, where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from before Me the murmurings of the children of Yisrael, by which they murmur against you.

6 And Moshe spoke to the children of Yisrael and every one of their leaders gave him a rod each, for each leader one, according to the bayit of their ahvot, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aharon was among their rods.

7 And Moshe laid up the rods before אֱלֹהִים in the Mishkan of witness.

8 And it came to pass, that on the next yom Moshe went into the Mishkan of witness; and, see, the rod of Aharon for the bayit of Lewi had budded and brought out buds and bloomed blossoms and yielded almonds.

9 And Moshe brought out all the rods from before אֱלֹהִים to all the children of Yisrael: and they looked and took every man his rod.

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Bring Aharon's rod again before the testimony, to be kept as an ot against the children of rebellion; and you shall put away their murmurings from Me, that they do not die.

11 And Moshe did so: as אֱלֹהִים commanded him, so he did.

12 And the children of Yisrael spoke to Moshe, saying, See, we die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whoever comes anywhere near to the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים shall die: Will we ever stop perishing?

18 And אֱלֹהִים said to Aharon, You and your sons and your abba's bayit with you shall bear the iniquity of the Kadosh-Place: and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your kohanut.

2 And your brothers also of the tribe of Lewi, the tribe of your abba, come near to you, that they may be joined to you and serve you: but you and your sons with you shall serve before the Mishkan of witness.

3 And they shall keep your duty and the duty of the entire Mishkan: only they shall not come near the vessels of the Kadosh-Place and the altar that neither they, nor you also, die.

4 And they shall be joined to you and keep the duty of the Mishkan of the kehilla, for all the service of the Mishkan: and a ger shall not come near you.

5 And you shall keep the duty of the Kadosh-Place and the duty of the altar: that there be no wrath anymore upon the children of Yisrael.

6 And I, see, I have taken your brothers the Lewiym from among the children of Yisrael: to you they are given as a gift from אֱלֹהִים, to do the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

7 Therefore you and your sons with you shall shomer your kohen's office for all things pertaining to the altar and inside the veil; and you shall serve: I have given your kohen's office to you as a gift for service: and the ger that comes near shall be put to death.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Aharon, See, I also have given you the duty of My terumah offerings of all the kadosh things of the children of Yisrael; to you have I given them by reason of the anointing and to your sons, by a chuk le-olam-va-ed.

9 This shall be yours of the most kadosh things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every grain offering of theirs and every sin offering of theirs and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to Me, shall be most kadosh for you and for your sons.

10 In the most Kadosh-Place shall you eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be kadosh to you.

11 And this is yours; the terumah offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Yisrael: I have given them to you and to your sons and to your daughters with you, by a chuk le-olam-va-ed: every one that is clean in your bayit shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil and all the best of the wine and of the wheat, the bikkurim of what they shall offer to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, I have given to you.

13 And whatever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, shall be yours; every one that is clean in your bayit shall eat of it.

14 Everything dedicated in Yisrael shall be yours.

15 Everything that pehters the womb in all flesh, which they bring to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, whether it is of men, or beasts, shall be yours: nevertheless the bachor of man shall you surely redeem and the firstling of unclean beasts shall you redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a chodesh old shall you redeem, according to your estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the Kadosh-Place, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, you shall not redeem; they are kadosh: you shall sprinkle their dahm upon the altar and shall burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

18 And their meat shall be yours, as the wave breast and as the right thigh are yours.

19 All the terumah offerings of the kadosh things, which the children of Yisrael offer to אֱלֹהִים, have I given you and your sons and your daughters with you, by a chuk le-olam-va-ed: it is a brit of salt le-olam-va-ed before אֱלֹהִים to you and to your zera with you.

20 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Aharon, You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any part among them: I AM your part and your inheritance among the children of Yisrael.

21 And, see, I have given the children of Lewi all the ma'aser in Yisrael for an inheritance, for their service in which they serve, even the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

22 Neither must the children of Yisrael from now on come near the Mishkan of the kehilla, lest they bear sin and die.

23 But the Lewiym shall do the service of the Mishkan of the kehilla and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a chuk le-olam-va-ed throughout your generations, that among the children of Yisrael they have no inheritance.

24 But the ma'aser of the children of Yisrael, which they offer as a terumah offering to אֱלֹהִים, I have given to the Lewiym to inherit: therefore I have said to them, Among the children of Yisrael they shall have no inheritance.

25 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

26 Speak to the Lewiym and say to them, When you take from the children of Yisrael the ma'aser which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then you shall offer up a terumah offering of it for אֶרְצָךְ, even a ma'aser of the ma'aser.

27 And your terumah offering shall be reckoned to you, as though it were the grain of the threshing floor and as the fullness of the winepress.

28 So you also shall offer a terumah offering to אֶרְצָךְ of all your ma'aser, that you receive from the children of Yisrael; and you shall give אֶרְצָךְ 's terumah offering to Aharon the kohen.

29 Out of all your gifts you shall offer every terumah offering to אֶרְצָךְ, all the best of it, even the kadosh part of it.

30 Therefore you shall say to them, When you have heaved the best of it from it, then it shall be counted to the Lewiyim as the increase of the threshing floor and as the increase of the winepress.

31 And you shall eat it in every place, you and your households: for it is your reward for your service in the Mishkan of the kehilla.

32 And you shall bear no sin because of it, when you have heaved the best of it: neither shall you pollute the kadosh things of the children of Yisrael, lest you die.

Torah Parsha 35 Shavuah-Week 35-Zot Chukat HaTorah. Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 19-22. Renewed Covenant Romiyah-Romans chapters 11-13.

19 And אֶרְצָךְ spoke to Moshe and to Aharon, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the Torah which אֶרְצָךְ has commanded, saying, Speak to the children of Yisrael, that they bring you a red heifer without blemish, in which is no defect and upon which never came a yoke:

3 And you shall give it to El-Azar the kohen, that he may bring it outside the camp and one shall slay it before him:

4 And El-Azar the kohen shall take of its dahm with his finger and sprinkle of its dahm directly before the Mishkan of the kehilla seven times:

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; its skin and its flesh and its dahm, with its dung, shall he burn:

6 And the kohen shall take cedarwood and hyssop and scarlet and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 Then the kohen shall wash his clothes and he shall bathe his gooff in mayim and afterward he shall come into the camp and the kohen shall be unclean until the evening.

8 And he that burns it shall wash his clothes in mayim and bathe his gooff in mayim and shall be unclean until the evening.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and lay them up outside the camp in a clean place and it shall be kept for the kehilla of the children of Yisrael for the mayim of separation: it is for purification from sin.

10 And he that gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening: and it shall be to the children of Yisrael and to the ger that sojourns among them, for a law le-olam-va-ed.

11 He that touches the dead gooff of any man shall be unclean seven yamim.

12 He shall purify himself with mayim on the third yom and on the seventh yom he shall be clean: but if he does not purify himself on the third yom, then on the seventh yom he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever touches the gooff of any man that is dead and purifies not himself, defiles the Mishkan of אִי־אִי; and that being shall be cut off from Yisrael: because the mayim of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

14 This is the Torah, of when a man dies in a tent: all that come into the tent and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven yamim.

15 And every open vessel, which has no covering fastened upon it, is unclean.

16 And whoever touches one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead gooff, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven yamim.

17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burned heifer of purification for sin and running mayim shall be put into a vessel:

18 And a clean person shall take hyssop and dip it in the mayim and sprinkle it upon the tent and upon all the vessels and upon the persons that were there and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

19 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third yom and on the seventh yom: and on the seventh yom he shall purify himself and wash his clothes and bathe himself in mayim and shall be clean at evening.

20 But the man that shall be unclean and shall not purify himself, that being shall be cut off from among the kehilla because he has defiled the Kadosh-Place of אִי־אִי: the mayim of separation has not been sprinkled upon him; he is unclean.

21 And it shall be a perpetual chuk to them; that he that sprinkles the mayim of separation shall wash his clothes; and he that touches the mayim of separation shall be unclean until evening.

22 And anything the unclean person touches shall be unclean; and the being that touches him shall be unclean until evening.

20 Then came the children of Yisrael, even the whole kehilla, into the desert of Tzin in the first chodesh: and the people stayed in Kadesh; and Miryam died there and was buried there.

2 And there was no mayim for the kehilla: and they gathered themselves together against Moshe and against Aharon.

3 And the people contended with Moshe and spoke, saying, Would to Ahlohim that we had died when our brothers died before אִיִּזְרָאֵל!

4 And why have you brought up the kehilla of אִיִּזְרָאֵל into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die here?

5 And why have you made us to come up out of Mitzrayim, to bring us to this evil place? It is not a place of zera, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any mayim to drink.

6 And Moshe and Aharon went from the presence of the kehilla to the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla and they fell upon their faces: and the tifereth of אִיִּזְרָאֵל appeared to them.

7 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

8 Take the rod and gather the kehilla together, you and Aharon your brother and speak to The Rock before their eyes; and it shall give out its mayim and you shall bring them mayim out of The Rock: so you shall give the kehilla and their beasts drink.

9 And Moshe took the rod from before אִיִּזְרָאֵל, as He commanded him.

10 And Moshe and Aharon gathered the kehilla together before The Rock and he said to them, Hear now, you rebels; must we fetch you mayim out of this Rock?

11 And Moshe lifted up his hand and with his rod he smote The Rock twice: and the mayim came out abundantly and the kehilla drank and their beasts also.

12 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe and Aharon, Because you believed Me not, to set Me apart in the eyes of the children of Yisrael, therefore you shall not bring this kehilla into the land which I have given them.

13 This is the mayim of Merivah; because the children of Yisrael strove with אֱלֹהִים and He was made kadosh in them.

14 And Moshe sent messengers from Kadesh to the melech of Edom, This says your brother Yisrael, You know all the travail that has befallen us:

15 How our ahvot went down into Mitzrayim and we had dwelt in Mitzrayim a long time; and the Mitzrim did evil to us and to our ahvot:

16 And when we cried to אֱלֹהִים, He heard our voice and sent a Malach and has brought us out of Mitzrayim: and, see, we are in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your border:

17 Let us pass, I ask you, through your country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the mayim of the wells: we will go by the melech's highway, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your borders.

18 And Edom said to him, You shall not pass by me, lest I come out against you with the sword.

19 And the children of Yisrael said to him, We will go by the highway: and if my cattle and I drink of your mayim, then I will pay for it: Let me only pass through on foot without a word.

20 And he said, You shall not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people and with a strong hand.

21 So Edom refused to give Yisrael passage through his border: therefore Yisrael turned away from him.

22 And the children of Yisrael, even the whole kehilla, journeyed from Kadesh and came to Har Hor.

23 And אֱלִיָאָז spoke to Moshe and Aharon in Har Hor, by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aharon shall be gathered to his people: for he shall not enter into the land that I have given to the children of Yisrael because you rebelled against My Word at the mayim of Merivah.

25 Take Aharon and El-Azar his son and bring them up to Har Hor:

26 And strip Aharon of his garments and put them upon El-Azar his son: and Aharon shall be gathered to his people and shall die there.

27 And Moshe did as אֱלִיָאָז commanded: and they went up into Har Hor in the sight of the entire kehilla.

28 And Moshe stripped Aharon of his garments and put them upon El-Azar his son; and Aharon died there at the top of the har: and Moshe and El-Azar came down from the har.

29 And when the entire kehilla saw that Aharon was dead, they mourned for Aharon thirty yamim, even kol beit Yisrael.

21 And when melech Arad the Kanaanite, who dwelt in the south, heard that Yisrael came by the derech of the spies; then he fought against Yisrael and took some of them prisoners.

2 And Yisrael vowed a vow to אֱלִיָאָז and said, If You will indeed deliver this people into my hand and then I will utterly destroy their cities.

3 And אֱלִיָאָז listened to the voice of Yisrael and delivered up the Kanaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place Hormah.

4 And they journeyed from Har Hor by the derech of the Sea Of Reeds, to go around the land of Edom: and the beings of the people were very discouraged because of this route.

5 And the people spoke against Ahlohim and against Moshe, Why have you brought us up out of Mitzrayim to die in the wilderness? For there is no lechem and neither is there any mayim and our being hates this light lechem.

6 And אֱלֹהִים sent fiery serpents among the people and they bit the people; and many of the people of Yisrael died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moshe and said, We have sinned, for we have spoken against אֱלֹהִים and against you; ask אֱלֹהִים, that He may take away the serpents from us. And Moshe made tefillah for the people.

8 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Make a fiery serpent and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that everyone that is bitten, when he looks upon it, shall live.

9 And Moshe made a serpent of brass and put it upon a pole and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked at the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 And the children of Yisrael set forward and camped in Oboth.

11 And they journeyed from Oboth and camped at Iye Ha-Avarim, in the wilderness that is before Moav, towards the rising of the shemesh.

12 From there they moved and camped in the Valley of Zered.

13 From there they moved and camped on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moav, between Moav and the Amorites.

14 Therefore it is said in the Scroll of the Wars of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, what He did in the Yam Suf and in the brooks of Arnon, 15 And at the stream of the brooks that goes down to the dwelling of Ar and lies upon the border of Moav.

16 And from there they went to Be-er: that is the well of which אִיִּזְרָאֵל had spoken to Moshe, Gather the people together and I will give them mayim.

17 Then Yisrael sang this shir, Spring up O well; sing to it:

18 The leaders dug the well, the nobles of the people dug it, by the direction of the Torah-Giver, with their shovels. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah:

19 And from Mattanah to Nahali-El: and from Nahali-El to Bamoth:

20 And from Bamoth in the valley, that is in the country of Moav, to the top of Pisgah, which looks toward Yeshimon.

21 And Yisrael sent messengers to Sichon melech of the Amorites, saying, 22 Let me pass through your land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the mayim of the well: but we will go along by the melech's highway, until we are past your borders.

23 And Sichon would not allow Yisrael to pass through his border: but Sichon gathered all his people together and went out against Yisrael into the wilderness: and he came to Yahatz and fought against Yisrael.

24 And Yisrael smote him with the edge of the sword and possessed his land from Arnon to Yavok, even to the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Yisrael took all these cities: and Yisrael dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Cheshbon and in all the villages of it.

26 For Cheshbon was the city of Sichon the melech of the Amorites, who had fought against the former melech of Moav and taken all his land out of his hand, even to Arnon.

27 So they that speak in mishle say, Come into Cheshbon, let the city of Sichon be built and prepared:

28 For there is a fire gone out of Cheshbon, a flame from the city of Sichon: it has consumed Ar of Moav and the masters of the high places of Arnon.

29 Woe to you, Moav! you are undone, O people of Chemosh: he has given his sons that escaped and his daughters, into captivity to Sichon melech of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them; Cheshbon is perished even to Divon and we have laid them waste even to Nophah, which reaches to Medeva.

31 So Yisrael dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moshe sent to spy out Yaatzer and they took the villages of it and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 And they turned and went up by the derech of Bashan: and Og the melech of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And אֲרָאֵל said to Moshe, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into your hand and all his people and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sichon melech of the Amorites, who dwelt at Cheshbon.

35 So they smote him and his sons and all his people, until there were none left to him alive: and they possessed his land.

22 And the children of Yisrael set forward and camped in the plains of Moav on this side of the Yarden by Yericho.

2 And Balak the son of Tzippor saw all that Yisrael had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moav was very afraid of the people because they were many: and Moav was distressed because of the children of Yisrael.

4 And Moav said to the zechanim of Midyan, Now shall this company lick up all that are around us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field. And Balak the son of Tzippor was melech of the Moavites at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore to Bilam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, See, there is a people come out from Mitzrayim: see, they cover the face of the earth and they abide opposite me:

6 Come now therefore, I ask you, curse for me this people; for they are too mighty for me: perhaps I shall prevail, that we may smite them and then I may drive them out of the land: for I know that he whom you bless is blessed and he whom you curse is cursed.

7 And the zechanim of Moav and the zechanim of Midyan departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came to Bilam and spoke to him the words of Balak.

8 And he said to them, Stay here this lyla and I will bring you word again, as אִרְאֶה shall speak to me: and the leaders of Moav stayed with Bilam.

9 And Ahlohim came to Bilam and said, What men are these with you?

10 And Bilam said to Ahlohim, Balak the son of Tzippor, melech of Moav, has sent to me, saying, 11 See, there is a people come out of Mitzrayim, who cover the face of the earth, and they dwell next to me. Come now, curse them; perhaps I then shall be able to overcome them and drive them out.

12 And Ahlohim said to Bilam, You shall not go with them; you shall not curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Bilam rose up in the boker and said to the leaders of Balak, Get into your land: for אֱלֹהִים refuses to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the leaders of Moav rose up and they went to Balak and said, Bilam refuses to come with us.

15 And Balak sent again more leaders and more honorable than them.

16 And they came to Bilam and said to him, This says Balak the son of Tzippor, Let nothing, I ask you, hinder you from coming to me:

17 For I will promote you to very great kavod and I will do whatever you say to me: come therefore, I ask you, curse for me this people.

18 And Bilam answered and said to the avadim of Balak, If Balak would give me his bayit full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond The Word of אֱלֹהִים my Ahlohim, to do less, or more.

19 Now therefore, I ask you, stay here also tonight, that I may know what more אֱלֹהִים will say to me.

20 And The Malach of אֱלֹהִים came to Bilam at lyla and said to him, If the men come to call you, rise up and go with them; but only The Word that I shall say to you, that shall you do.

21 And Bilam rose up in the boker and saddled his donkey and went with the leaders of Moav.

22 And Ahlohim 's anger was lit because he went: and The Malach-אֱלֹהִים stood in the derech as an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his donkey and his two avadim were with him.

23 And the donkey saw The Malach of אֱלֹהִים standing in the derech and His sword drawn in His hand: and the donkey turned aside out of the derech and went into the field: and Bilam smote the donkey, to turn her back on the derech.

24 But The Malach of אֱלֹהִים stood in a derech of the vineyards, a wall being on this side and a wall on that side.

25 And when the donkey saw The Malach of אֱלֹהִים, she thrust herself to the wall and crushed Bilam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And The Malach of אֱלֹהִים went further and stood in a narrow place, where there was no derech to turn either to the right hand, or to the left.

27 And when the donkey saw The Malach of אֱלֹהִים, she fell down under Bilam: and Bilam's anger was lit and he smote the donkey with his staff.

28 And אֱלֹהִים opened the mouth of the donkey and she said to Bilam, What have I done to you, that you have smitten me these three times?

29 And Bilam said to the donkey, Because you have mocked me: I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would kill you.

30 And the donkey said to Bilam, Am not I your donkey, upon which you have ridden ever since I was yours to this yom? Was I ever inclined to do this to you? And he said, No.

31 Then אֱלֹהִים opened the eyes of Bilam and he saw The Malach of אֱלֹהִים standing in the derech and His sword drawn in His hand: and he bowed down his head and fell flat on his face.

32 And The Malach of אֱלֹהִים said to him, Why have you smitten your donkey these three times? See, I went out to stand against you because your derech is perverted before Me:

33 And the donkey saw Me and turned from Me these three times: unless she had turned from Me, surely now also I would have slain you and saved her alive.

34 And Bilam said to The Malach of אֱלֹהִים, I have sinned; for I knew not that You stood in the derech against me: now therefore, if it displeases You, I will go back again.

35 And The Malach of אֱלֹהִים said to Bilam, Go with the men: but only the Word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak. So Bilam went with the leaders of Balak.

36 And when Balak heard that Bilam had come, he went out to meet him at a city of Moav, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the border coast.

37 And Balak said to Bilam, Did I not urgently send for you to call you? Why did you delay in coming to me? Am I not able indeed to promote you to kavod?

38 And Bilam said to Balak, See, I have come to you: do I now have any power at all to say something? The word that Ahlohim puts in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Bilam went with Balak and they came to Kiryath-Huzoth.

40 And Balak offered cattle and sheep and sent some to Bilam and to the leaders that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the next yom, that Balak took Bilam and brought him up into the high places of Ba'al, that there he might see the outside part of the people.

Torah Parsha 36 Shavuah-Week 36-Balak
Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 23-26. Renewed
Covenant Romiyah-Romans chapters 14-16.

23 And Bilam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Bilam had spoken; and Balak and Bilam offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Bilam said to Balak, Stand by your burnt offering and I will go: perhaps אֱלֹהִים will come to meet me: and whatever He shows me I will tell you. And he went to a high place.

4 And Ahlohim met Bilam: and he said to Him, I have prepared seven altars and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים put a Word in Bilam's mouth and said, Return to Balak and so you shall speak.

6 And he returned to him and, see, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he and all the leaders of Moav.

7 And he took up his mishle and said, Balak the melech of Moav has brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse for me Yaakov and come, rage at Yisrael.

8 How shall I curse, whom El has not cursed? Or, how shall I rage, at those whom אֱלֹהִים has not raged?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him and from the hills I see him: look, a people dwelling alone, that shall not be reckoned among the goyim.

10 Who can count the dust of Yaakov and the number of the fourth part of Yisrael? Let me die the death of the tzadik and let my last end be like his!

11 And Balak said to Bilam, What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies and, see, you have kept on blessing.

12 And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that, which אֱלֹהִים has put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said to him, Come with me to another place, from where you may see them: you shall see only the extremity and shall not see them all: and curse them for me from there.

14 And he brought him into the field of Tzophim, to the top of Pisgah and built seven altars and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

15 And he said to Balak, Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet אֱלֹהִים there.

16 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים met Bilam and put a Word in his mouth and said, Go again to Balak and say this.

17 And when he came to him, see, he stood by his burnt offering and the leaders of Moav with him. And Balak said to him, What has אֱלֹהִים spoken?

18 And he took up his mishle and said, Rise up, Balak and hear; listen to me, you son of Tzippor:

19 El is not a man, that He should lie, neither a ben-adam, that He should repent: has He said and shall He not do it? Or, has He spoken and shall He not make it tov?

20 See, I have received an order to bless: and He has blessed; and I cannot reverse it.

21 He has not beheld iniquity in Yaakov, neither has He seen perverseness in Yisrael: אֱלֹהִים his Ahlohim is with him and the shout of a Melech is among them.

22 El brought them out of Mitzrayim; He has as it were the strength of a rhinocerus.

23 Surely there is no enchantment against Yaakov, neither is there any divination against Yisrael: according to this time it shall be said of Yaakov and of Yisrael, What El has done!

24 See, the people shall rise up as a great lion and lift up himself as a young lion: he shall not lie down until he eats of the prey and drinks the dahm of the slain.

25 And Balak said to Bilam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all.

26 But Bilam answered and said to Balak, Did I not tell you, saying, All that אֱלֹהִים speaks, that I must do?

27 And Balak said to Bilam, Come, I ask you, I will bring you to another place; perhaps it will please Ahlohim that you may curse them for me from there.

28 And Balak brought Bilam to the top of Peor looking toward Yeshimon.

29 And Bilam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars and prepare me here seven bullocks and seven rams.

30 And Balak did as Bilam had said and offered a bullock and a ram on every altar.

24 And when Bilam saw that it pleased אֱלֹהִים to bless Yisrael, he went not, as at other times, to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Bilam lifted up his eyes and he saw Yisrael abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and The Ruach of Ahlohim came upon him.

3 And he took up his mishle and said, Bilam the son of Beor has said and the man whose eyes are open has said:

4 He has said, who heard the Words of El, who saw the vision of The Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How tov are your tents, O Yaakov and your sukkot-tabernacles, O Yisrael!

6 As the Netsarim are they spread out, as gardens by the river's side, as the eytzim of aloes that אֱלֹהִים has planted and as cedar eytzim beside the mayim.

7 He shall pour the mayim out of His Netsarim and his zera shall be in many mayim and his Melech shall be higher than Agag and his malchut shall be exalted.

8 El brought him out of Mitzrayim; He has as it were the strength of a rhinocerus: He shall eat up the goyim that are his enemies and shall break their bones and pierce them through with his arrows.

9 He couched; he lay down as a lion and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesses you and cursed is he that curses you.

10 And Balak's anger was lit against Bilam and he smote his hands together: and Balak said to Bilam, I called you to curse my enemies and, see, you have continued to bless them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee to your place: I sought to promote you to great kavod; but see, אֱלֹהִים has kept you back from kavod.

12 And Bilam said to Balak, Did not I speak also to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying, 13 If Balak would give me his bayit full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the command of אֱלֹהִים, to do either tov, or bad of my own mind; but what אֱלֹהִים says, that will I speak?

14 And now, see, I go to my people: come therefore and I will advise you what this people Yisrael shall do to your people in the latter-yamim.

15 And he took up his mishle and said, Bilam the son of Beor has said and the man whose eyes are open has said:

16 He has said, who heard the Words of Ahlohim and knew the da'at of the Most High, who saw the vision of The Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 I shall see Him, but not now: I shall see Him, but not near: there shall come a Cochav-A Man out of Yaakov and a Scepter shall rise out of Yisrael and He shall destroy the corners of Moav and establish, plant, advance and head all the children of Seth.

18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession, even his enemies; and Yisrael shall do valiantly.

19 Out of Yaakov shall He come that shall have dominion and shall destroy the remains of the city.

20 And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his mishle and said, Amalek was the first of the goyim; but his latter-end shall be that he perishes le-olam-va-ed.

21 And he looked on the Qeynites and took up his mishle and said, Strong is your dwelling place and you put your nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless the Qeynite shall be wasted, until Ashshur shall take you captive.

23 And he made up his mishle and said, Oy! who shall live when El imposes this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Ashshur; and shall afflict the other bank as well; they also shall perish le-olam-va-ed.

25 And Bilam rose up and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his derech.

25 And Yisrael stayed in Shittim and the people began to whore with the daughters of Moav.

2 And they called the people to the sacrifices of their Ahlohim: and the people did eat and bowed down to their ahlohim.

3 And Yisrael joined himself to Ba'al-Peor: and the anger of אֱלֹהִים was lit against Yisrael.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Take all the heads of the people and hang them up before אֱלֹהִים before the shemesh, that the fierce anger of אֱלֹהִים may be turned away from Yisrael.

5 And Moshe said to the shophtim of Yisrael, Slay everyone his men that were joined to Ba'al-Peor.

6 And, see, one of the children of Yisrael came and brought to his brothers a Midyanite woman in the sight of Moshe and in the sight of all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, who were weeping before the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

7 And when Pinchus, the son of El-Azar, the son of Aharon the kohen, saw it, he rose up from among the kehilla and took a spear in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Yisrael into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Yisrael and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stopped from the children of Yisrael.

9 And those that died in the plague were twenty four thousand.

10 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

11 Pinchus, the son of El-Azar, the son of Aharon the kohen, has turned My wrath back from the children of Yisrael, while he was zealous for My sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Yisrael in My zeal.

12 Therefore say, See, I give to him My brit of shalom:

13 And he shall have it and his zera after him, even the brit of an everlasting kohanut; because he was zealous for his Ahlohim and made keporah for the children of Yisrael.

14 Now the name of the Yisraelite man that was slain, with the Midyanite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu; a leader of a bayit of his ahvot among the Shimonites.

15 And the name of the Midyanite woman that was slain was Kozbi, the daughter of Tzur; he was head over a people, the leader of a bayit of ahvot in Midyan.

16 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

17 Distress the Midyanites and smite them:

18 For they distressed you with their tricks, by which they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor and in the matter of Kozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midyan, their sister, who was slain in the yom of the plague because of the matter of Peor.

26 And it came to pass after the plague that אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe and to El-Azar the son of Aharon the kohen, saying,

2 Take a census of all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their abba's bayit, all that are able to go to war in Yisrael.

3 And Moshe and El-Azar the kohen spoke with them in the plains of Moav by the Yarden near Yericho, saying,

52 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 To many you shall give the greater inheritance and to few you shall give the smaller inheritance: to each one shall their inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of them.

55 But the land shall be divided by lot; according to the names of the tribes of their ahvot they shall inherit it.

60 And to Aharon was born Nadav and Avihu, El-Azar and Ithamar.

61 And Nadav and Avihu died, when they offered strange fire before אֱלֹהִים.

62 And those that were numbered of them were twenty three thousand, all males from a chodesh old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Yisrael because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Yisrael.

63 These are those that were numbered by Moshe and El-Azar the kohen, who numbered the children of Yisrael in the plains of Moav by the Yarden near Yericho.

64 But among these there was not a man of them whom Moshe and Aharon the kohen numbered, when they numbered the children of Yisrael in the wilderness of Senai.

65 For אֱלֹהִים had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, except Kalev the son of Yephunneh and Yahusha the son of Nun.

27 Then came the daughters of Tzelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilad, the son of Machir, the son of Menasheh, of the mishpachot of Menasheh the son of Yoseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah and Hoglah and Milcah and Tirtzah.

2 And they stood before Moshe and before El-Azar the kohen and before the leaders and the entire kehilla, by the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla, saying,

3 Our abba died in the wilderness and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against אֱלֹהֵינוּ in the company of Korach; but died in his own sin and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our abba be done away from among his mishpacha because he had no son? Give to us therefore a possession among the brothers of our abba.

5 And Moshe brought their cause before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

6 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ spoke to Moshe, saying,

7 The daughters of Tzelophehad speak right: you shall surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their abba's brothers; and you shall cause the inheritance of their abba to pass to them.

8 And you shall speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, If a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

9 And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his abba's brothers.

11 And if his abba has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his relative that is next to him of his mishpacha and he shall possess it: and it shall be to the children of Yisrael a chuk of mishpat, as אֱלֹהֵינוּ commanded Moshe.

12 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Moshe, Get up into this Har Avarim and see the land that I have given to the children of Yisrael.

13 And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people, as Aharon your brother was gathered.

14 For you rebelled against My command in the desert of Tzin, in the strife of the kehilla, to set Me apart at the mayim before their eyes: that is the mayim of Merivah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Tzin.

15 And Moshe spoke to אֱלֹהִים, saying,

16 Let אֱלֹהִים, the Ahlohim of the ruachim of all flesh, set a man over the kehilla, 17 Who may go out before them and who may go in before them and who may lead them out and who may bring them in; that the kehilla of אֱלֹהִים be not as sheep who have no shepherd.

18 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Take Yahusha the son of Nun, a man in whom is The Ruach and lay your hands upon him;

19 And set him before El-Azar the kohen and before the entire kehilla; and give him a charge in their sight.

20 And you shall put some of your kavod upon him, that all the kehilla of the children of Yisrael may be obedient.

21 And he shall stand before El-Azar the kohen, who shall ask counsel for him after the mishpat of Urim before אֱלֹהִים: at His Word shall they go out and at His Word they shall come in, both he and all the children of Yisrael with him, even all the kehilla.

22 And Moshe did as אֱלֹהִים commanded him: and he took Yahusha and set him before El-Azar the kohen and before the entire kehilla:

23 And he laid his hands upon him and gave him a charge, as אֱלֹהִים commanded by the hand of Moshe.

28 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Command the children of Yisrael and say to them, My offering and My lechem for My sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet fragrance to Me, shall you observe to offer to Me in their due time.

3 And you shall say to them, This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם; two lambs of the first year without blemish yom by yom, for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shall you offer in the shacrit and the other lamb shall you offer at maariv;

5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a grain offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Har Senai for a sweet fragrance, a sacrifice made by fire to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

7 And the drink offering of it shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb: in the Kadosh-Place shall you cause the strong wine to be poured to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם for a drink offering.

8 And the other lamb shall you offer at maariv: as the grain offering of the boker and as the drink offering of it, you shall offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

9 And on The Shabbat yom two lambs of the first year without blemish and two tenths of an ephah of flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil and the drink offering of it:

10 This is the burnt offering of every Shabbat, beside the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

11 And in the beginnings of your chodashem you shall offer a burnt offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם; two young bullocks and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without blemish;

12 And three tenths of an ephah of flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, for one bullock; and two tenths of an ephah of flour for a grain offering, mixed with oil, for one ram;

13 And a tenth of an ephah of flour mixed with oil for a grain offering for one lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet fragrance, a sacrifice made by fire to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

14 And their drink offerings shall be half a hin of wine to a bullock and the third part of a hin to a ram and a fourth part of a hin to a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every chodesh throughout the chodashem of the year.

15 And one kid of the male goats for a sin offering to אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

16 And on the fourteenth yom of the first chodesh is the Pesach of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

17 And on the fifteenth yom of this chodesh is the chag: seven yamim shall matzah be eaten.

18 On the first yom shall be a miqra kodesh; you shall do no manner of laborious work.

19 But you shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering to אֱלֹהֵינוּ; two young bullocks and one ram and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be to you without blemish:

20 And their grain offering shall be of flour mixed with oil: three tenths of an ephah shall you offer for a bullock and two tenths of an ephah for a ram;

21 One tenth of an ephah shall you offer for every lamb, for each of the seven lambs:

22 And one goat for a sin offering, to make keporah for you.

23 You shall offer these beside the burnt offering in the boker, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24 After this manner you shall offer daily, throughout the seven yamim, the food of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵינוּ: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

25 And on the seventh yom you shall have a miqra kodesh; you shall do no laborious work.

26 Also on the yom of bikkurim, when you bring a new grain offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, at your Shavuot, you shall have a miqra kodesh; you shall do no laborious work:

27 But you shall offer the burnt offering for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם; two young bullocks, one ram, seven lambs of the first year;

28 And their grain offering of flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for one bullock, two tenths of an ephah for one ram,

29 One tenth of an ephah to one lamb, for each of the seven lambs;

30 And one kid of the male goats, to make keporah for you.

31 You shall offer them beside the continual burnt offering and the grain offering and their drink offerings. They shall be to you without blemish.

29 And in the seventh chodesh, on the first yom of the chodesh, you shall have a miqra kodesh; you shall do no laborious work: it is a yom of blowing the trumpets for you.

2 And you shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם; one young bullock, one ram and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

3 And their grain offering shall be of flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for a bullock and two tenths of an ephah for a ram,

4 And one tenth of an ephah for one lamb, for all the seven lambs:

5 And one kid of the male goats for a sin offering, to make keporah for you:

6 Besides the burnt offering of the chodesh and the grain offering and the daily burnt offering and the grain offering and their drink offerings, according to their manner, for a sweet fragrance, a sacrifice made by fire to אֵלֹהִים.

7 And you shall have on the tenth yom of this seventh chodesh a miqra kodesh; and you shall afflict your beings: you shall not do any work on it:

8 But you shall offer a burnt offering to אֵלֹהִים for a sweet fragrance; one young bullock, one ram and seven lambs of the first year; they shall be to you without blemish:

9 And their grain offering shall be of flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah to a bullock and two tenths of an ephah to one ram,

10 One tenth of an ephah for one lamb, for each of the seven lambs:

11 One kid of the male goats for a sin offering; beside the sin offering of keporah and the continual burnt offering and the grain offering of it and their drink offerings.

12 And on the fifteenth yom of the seventh chodesh you shall have a miqra kodesh; you shall do no laborious work and you shall keep a chag to אֵלֹהִים for seven yamim:

13 And you shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אֵלֹהִים; thirteen young bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish:

14 And their grain offering shall be of flour mixed with oil, three tenths of an ephah for every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenths of an ephah for each ram of the two rams,

15 And a tenth of an ephah for each lamb of the fourteen lambs:

16 And one kid of the male goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

17 And on the second yom you shall offer twelve young bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

18 And their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

19 And one kid of the male goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering and the grain offering of it and their drink offerings.

20 And on the third yom eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish;

21 And their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

22 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

23 And on the fourth yom ten bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the male goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

26 And on the fifth yom nine bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

27 And their grain offering and their drink offering for the bullocks, for the rams and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

29 And on the sixth yom eight bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

30 And their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after their manner:

31 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

32 And on the seventh yom seven bullocks, two rams and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

33 And their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, its grain offering and its drink offering.

35 On the eighth yom you shall have a miqra kodesh: you shall do no laborious work on it:

36 But you shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet fragrance to אלהים: one bullock, one ram and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

37 Their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

38 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering and its grain offering and its drink offering.

39 These things you shall offer to אלהים in your moadeem, beside your vows and your terumah offerings, for your burnt offerings and for your grain offerings and for your drink offerings and for your shalom offerings.

40 And Moshe told the children of Yisrael according to all that אלהים commanded Moshe.

30 And Moshe spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Yisrael, saying, This is the thing that אֱלֹהִים has commanded.

2 If a man vows a vow to אֱלֹהִים, or swears an oath to bind his being with some agreement; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vows a vow to אֱלֹהִים and binds herself by an agreement, being in her abba's bayit in her youth;

4 And her abba hears her vow and her agreement by which she has bound her being and her abba shall hold his shalom towards her: then all her vows shall stand and every agreement by which she has bound her being shall stand.

5 But if her abba disallows it in the yom that he hears it; not any of her vows, or agreements by which she has bound her being, shall stand: and אֱלֹהִים shall forgive her because her abba disallowed it for her.

6 And if she has a husband, when she vowed, or uttered something rash out of her lips, by which she bound her being;

7 And her husband heard it and held his shalom towards her in the yom that he heard it: then her vows shall stand and her agreements by which she bound her being shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallowed it on the yom that he heard it; then he has nullified her vow which she vowed and that which she uttered with her lips, by which she bound her being, shall be of no effect: and אֱלֹהִים shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a widow and of her that is divorced, by which they have bound their beings, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's bayit, or bound herself by an agreement with an oath;
11 And her husband heard it and held his shalom towards her and did not disallow it: then all her vows shall stand and every agreement by which she bound her being shall stand.

12 But if her husband has utterly made them void on the yom he heard them; then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the agreement of her being, shall not stand: her husband has made them void; and אִיִּשׁ shall forgive her.

13 Every vow and every binding oath to afflict the being, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether holds his shalom towards her from yom to yom; then he established all her vows, or all her agreements, which are upon her: he confirms them because he held his shalom towards her in the yom that he heard them.

15 But if he shall in any derech make them void after he has heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the chukim, which אִיִּשׁ commanded Moshe, between a man and his isha, between The Abba and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her abba's bayit.

31 And אִיִּשׁ spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Avenge the children of Yisrael against the Midyanites: afterward shall you be gathered to your people.

3 And Moshe spoke to the people, saying, Some of you arm for war; and let them go against the Midyanites and avenge אַף־אָז on Midyan.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Yisrael, shall you send to the war:

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Yisrael, a thousand from every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.

6 And Moshe sent them to the war, a thousand from every tribe, with Pinchus the son of El-Azar the kohen, to the war, with the kadosh instruments and the trumpets to blow in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midyanites, as אַף־אָז commanded Moshe; and they killed all the males.

8 And they killed the melechim of Midyan, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reva, five melechim of Midyan: Bilam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Yisrael took all the women of Midyan captives and their little ones and took the spoil of all their cattle and all their flocks and all their goods.

10 And they burned all their cities in which they dwelt and all their encampments, with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives and the prey and the spoil, to Moshe and El-Azar the kohen and to the kehilla of the children of Yisrael, to the camp at the plains of Moav, which is by Yarden near Yericho.

13 And Moshe and El-Azar the kohen and all the leaders of the kehilla, went out to meet them outside the camp.

14 And Moshe was angry with the officers of the army, with the captains over thousands and captains over hundreds, who came from the battle.

15 And Moshe said to them, Have you saved all the women alive?

16 See, these caused the children of Yisrael, through the counsel of Bilam, to commit trespass against אֱלֹהֵינוּ in the matter of Peor and there was a plague among the kehilla of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

17 Now therefore kill every male among the little ones and kill every woman that has known a man by lying with him.

18 But all the female children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And abide outside the camp seven yamim: whoever has killed any person and whoever has touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third yom and on the seventh yom.

20 And purify all your raiment and all that is made of skins and all work of goats' hair and all things made of wood.

21 And El-Azar the kohen said to the men of war who went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the Torah that אֱלֹהֵינוּ commanded Moshe;

22 Only the gold and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin and the lead,

23 Everything that may abide in the fire, you shall make it go through the fire and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified with the mayim of separation: and all that passes not through the fire you shall make go through the mayim.

24 And you shall wash your clothes on the seventh yom and you shall be clean and afterward you shall come into the camp.

25 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ spoke to Moshe, saying,

26 Take the census of the spoil that was taken, both of man and of beast, you and El-Azar the kohen and the heads of the ahvot of the kehilla:

27 And divide the spoil into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle and between the entire kehilla:

28 And levy a tribute to אִיִּזְרָאֵל from the men of war who went out to battle: one being of five hundred, both of the persons and of the cattle and of the donkeys and of the sheep:

29 Take it from their half and give it to El-Azar the kohen, for a kadosh offering for אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

30 And of the children of Yisrael's half, you shall take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the cattle, of the donkeys and of the flocks, of all manner of beasts and give them to the Lewiym, who keep the duty of the Mishkan of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

31 And Moshe and El-Azar the kohen did as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Moshe.

32 And the spoils, being the rest of the plunder which the men of war had caught, was six hundred seventy five thousand sheep,

33 And seventy two thousand cattle,

34 And sixty one thousand donkeys,

35 And thirty two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known a man by lying with him.

36 And the half, which was the portion of those that went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty seven thousand five hundred sheep:

37 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy five.

38 And the cattle were thirty six thousand; of which אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's tribute was seventy-two.

39 And the donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred; of which אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's tribute was sixty one.

40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's tribute was thirty-two persons.

41 And Moshe gave the tribute, which was אִשָּׁרָאֵל 's kadosh offering, to El-Azar the kohen, as אִשָּׁרָאֵל commanded Moshe.

42 And of the children of Yisrael's half, which Moshe divided from the men that were at war,

43 Now the half that belonged to the kehilla was three hundred thirty seven thousand five hundred sheep,

44 And thirty six thousand cattle,

45 And thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

46 And sixteen thousand persons;

47 Even from the children of Yisrael's half, Moshe took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast and gave them to the Lewiym, who kept the duty of the Mishkan of אִשָּׁרָאֵל; as אִשָּׁרָאֵל commanded Moshe.

48 And the officers, who were over thousands of the army, the captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, came near to Moshe:

49 And they said to Moshe, Your avadim have taken the census of the men of war who are under our duty and there lacks not one man among us.

50 We have therefore brought an offering for אִשָּׁרָאֵל, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, chains and bracelets, rings, earrings and tablets, to make a keporah for our beings before אִשָּׁרָאֵל.

51 And Moshe and El-Azar the kohen took the gold from them, even all the fashioned jewels.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they offered up to אִשָּׁרָאֵל, from the captains of thousands and of the captains of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred fifty shekels.

53 For the men of war had taken spoil, every man for himself.

54 And Moshe and El-Azar the kohen took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds and brought it into the Mishkan of the kehilla for a memorial for the children of Yisrael before אִשָּׁרָאֵל.

32 Now the children of Reuven and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of Yazer and the land of Gilad, that the place was a tov place for cattle;

2 The children of Gad and the children of Reuven came and spoke to Moshe and to El-Azar the kohen and to the leaders of the kehilla, saying,

3 Ataroth and Divon and Yazer and Nimrah and Cheshbon and Elealeh and Shevam and Nevo and Beon,

4 Even the country which אֲרָאֵל smote before the kehilla of Yisrael, is a land for cattle and your avadim have cattle:

5 Therefore, they said, If we have found chen in your sight, let this land be given to your avadim for a possession and bring us not over the Yarden River.

6 And Moshe said to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuven, Shall your brothers go to war, while you shall sit here?

7 And why do you discourage the lev of the children of Yisrael from going over into the land that אֲרָאֵל has given them?

8 This did your ahvot, when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea to see the land.

9 For when they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the levavot of the children of Yisrael, that they should not go into the land that אֲרָאֵל had given them.

10 And אֲרָאֵל 's anger was lit at the same time and He swore, saying,

11 Surely none of the men that came up out of Mitzrayim, from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I swore to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov; because they have not fully followed Me:

12 Except Kalev the son of Yephunneh the Kenezite, and Yahusha the son of Nun: for they have wholly followed אֱלֹהִים.

13 And אֱלֹהִים 's anger was lit against Yisrael and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, was consumed.

14 And, see, now you have risen up in your abba's place, an increase of sinful men, to add more to the fierce anger of אֱלֹהִים towards Yisrael.

15 For if you turn away from after Him, He will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you shall destroy this entire people.

16 And they came near to him and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle and cities for our little ones:

17 But we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Yisrael, until we have brought them to their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 We will not return to our houses, until the children of Yisrael have inherited every man his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Yarden, or beyond; because our inheritance has fallen to us on this side of the Yarden eastward.

20 And Moshe said to them, If you will do this thing, if you will go armed before אֱלֹהִים to war,

21 And will go all of you armed over the Yarden before אֱלֹהִים, until He has driven out His enemies from before Him, 22 And the land shall be subdued before אֱלֹהִים: then afterward you shall return and be guiltless before אֱלֹהִים and before Yisrael; and this land shall be your possession before אֱלֹהִים.

23 But if you will not do so, see, you will have sinned against אֱלֹהֵינוּ: and be sure your sin will find you out.

24 Build cities for your little ones and pens for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuven spoke to Moshe, saying, Your avadim will do as my master commands.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilad:

27 But your avadim will pass over, every man armed for war, before אֱלֹהֵינוּ to battle, as my master says.

28 So concerning them Moshe commanded El-Azar the kohen and Yahusha the son of Nun and the leaders, the ahvot of the tribes of the children of Yisrael:

29 And Moshe said to them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuven will pass with you over Yarden, every man armed to battle, before אֱלֹהֵינוּ and the land shall be subdued before you; then you shall give them the land of Gilad for a possession:

30 But if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Kanaan.

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuven answered, saying, As אֱלֹהֵינוּ has said to your avadim, so will we do.

32 We will pass over armed before אֱלֹהֵינוּ into the land of Kanaan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side of the Yarden may be ours.

33 And Moshe gave to them, even to the children of Gad and to the children of Reuven and to half the tribe of Menasheh the son of Yoseph, the malchut of Sichon melech of the Amorites and the malchut of Og melech of Bashan, the land, with the cities of it in the coasts, even the cities of the country all around.

34 And the children of Gad built Dibon and Ataroth and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Shophan and Yaazer and Yogvehah,

36 And Beth-Nimrah and Beth-Charan, fortified cities: and pens for sheep.

37 And the children of Reuven built Cheshbon and Elealeh and Kirjathayim, 38 And Nevo and Ba'al-Meon - their names being changed and Shivmah: and gave other names to the cities that they built.

39 And the children of Machir the son of Menasheh went to Gilad and took it and dispossessed the Amorites that were in it.

40 And Moshe gave Gilad to Machir the son of Menasheh; and he dwelt there.

41 And Yair the son of Menasheh went and took the small towns of it and called them Havoth-Yair.

42 And Novach went and took Kenath and the villages of it and called it Novach, after his own name, for a memorial for the children of Yisrael before $\aleph\aleph\aleph$.

33 These are the journeys of the children of Yisrael, who went out of the land of Mitzrayim with their divisions under the hand of Moshe and Aharon.

2 And Moshe wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the command of $\aleph\aleph\aleph$: and these are their journeys according to their starting points.

3 And they departed from Raamses in the first chodesh, on the fifteenth yom of the first chodesh; on the yom after the Pesach the children of Yisrael went out with a high hand in the sight of all the Mitzrim.

4 For the Mitzrim buried all their bachor, which אֶרְצָם had smitten among them: upon their ahlohim also אֶרְצָם executed mishpatim.

5 And the children of Yisrael moved from Raamses and camped in Sukkot.

6 And they departed from Sukkot and camped in Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they moved from Etham and turned again to Pnai-Hachiroth, which is before Ba'al-Tzephon: and they camped before Migdol.

8 And they departed from Pnai-Hachiroth and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness and went three yamim' journey in the wilderness of Etham and camped in Marah.

9 And they moved from Marah and came to Eylim: and in Eylim were twelve fountains of mayim and seventy palm eytzim; and they camped there.

10 And they moved from Eylim and encamped by the Sea Of Reeds-Yam Suf.

11 And they took their journey from the Sea Of Reeds and encamped in the wilderness of Tzin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Tzin and encamped in Dophkah.

13 And they departed from Dophkah and encamped in Alush.

14 And they moved from Alush and encamped at Rephidim, where there was no mayim for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Rephidim and camped in the wilderness of Senai.

16 And they moved from the desert of Senai and camped at Kivroth-Hattaavah.

17 And they departed from Kivroth-Hattaavah and encamped at Hazereth.

18 And they departed from Hazereth and camped in Rithmah.

19 And they departed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-Parez.

20 And they departed from Rimmon-Parez and camped in Livnah.

21 And they moved from Livnah and camped at Rissah.

22 And they journeyed from Rissah and camped in Kehelathah.

23 And they went from Kehelathah and camped in Har Shapher.

24 And they moved from Har Shapher and encamped in Haradah.

25 And they moved from Haradah and camped in Makheloth.

26 And they moved from Makheloth and encamped at Tahath.

27 And they departed from Tahath and camped at Tarah.

28 And they moved from Tarah and camped in Mithcah.

29 And they went from Mithcah and camped in Hashmonah.

30 And they departed from Hashmonah and encamped at Moseroth.

31 And they departed from Moseroth and camped in Bene-Yaakan.

32 And they moved from Bene-Yaakan and encamped at Hor-Hagidgad.

33 And they went from Hor-Hagidgad and camped in Yotvathah.

34 And they moved from Yotvathah and encamped at Evronah.

35 And they departed from Evronah and encamped at Etzion-Gaver.

36 And they departed from Etzion-Gaver and camped in the wilderness of Tzin, which is Kadesh.

37 And they departed from Kadesh and camped in Har Hor, at the edge of the land of Edom.

38 And Aharon the kohen went up into Har Hor at the command of אֱלֹהִים and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Yisrael had come out of the land of Mitzrayim, in the first yom of the fifth chodesh.

39 And Aharon was one hundred twenty three years old when he died in Har Hor.

40 And melech Arad the Kanaanite, which dwelt in the south in the land of Kanaan, heard of the coming of the children of Yisrael.

41 And they departed from Har Hor and camped in Zalmonah.

42 And they departed from Zalmonah and camped in Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon and camped in Ovoth.

44 And they departed from Ovoth and camped in Iye-Ha-Avarim, at the border of Moav.

45 And they departed from Iyim and camped in Divon-Gad.

46 And they departed from Divon-Gad and encamped in Almon-Divlathayim.

47 And they departed from Almon-Divlathayim and camped in the mountains of Avarim, before Nevo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Avarim and camped in the plains of Moav by Yarden near Yericho.

49 And they camped by Yarden, from Beth-Yesimoth even to Avel-Shittim in the plains of Moav.

50 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe in the plains of Moav by the Yarden River near Yericho, saying,

51 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, When you pass over the Yarden into the land of Kanaan;

52 Then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you and destroy all their stone images and destroy all their molded images and demolish all their high places:

53 And you shall dispossess the inhabitants of the land and dwell there: for I have given you the land to possess.

54 And you shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your mishpachot: and to the larger you shall give the greater inheritance and to the fewer you shall give the smaller inheritance: every man's inheritance shall be in the place where his lot falls; according to the tribes of your ahvot you shall inherit it.

55 But if you will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which you let remain shall be thorns in your eyes and thorns in your sides and shall distress you in the land in which you will dwell.

56 Moreover it shall come to pass, that I shall do to you, as I thought to do to them.

34 And אִרְבֵּז spoke to Moshe, saying,

2 Command the children of Yisrael and say to them, When you come into the land of Kanaan; this is the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, even the land of Kanaan with the coasts of it:

3 Then your southern quarter shall be from the wilderness of Tzin along by the coast of Edom and your southern border shall be the outmost coast of the Salt Sea eastward:

4 And your border shall turn from the south to the ascent of Akravvim and pass on to Tzin: and the going out of it shall be from the south to Kadesh-Barnea and shall go on to Hazar-Addar and continue to Azmon:

5 And the border shall turn around from Azmon to the river of Mitzrayim and the end of it shall be at the sea.

6 And as for the western border, you shall even have the Great Sea for a border: this shall be your western border.

7 And this shall be your northern border: from the Great Sea you shall mark out Har Hor:

8 From Har Hor you shall mark out your border to the entrance of Hamath; and the edge of the border shall be toward Zedad:

9 And the border shall go on to Ziphron and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-Enan: this shall be your northern border.

10 And you shall mark out your eastern border from Hazar-Enan to Shepham:

11 And the border shall go down from Shepham to Rivlah, on the east side of Ayin; and the border shall descend and shall reach to the side of the sea of Chinnereth eastward:

12 And the border shall go down to Yarden and the end of it shall be at the Salt Sea: this shall be your land with the borders of it all around.

13 And Moshe commanded the children of Yisrael, saying, This is the land that you shall inherit by lot, which אֶרְצָאֵלֶיךָ commanded to give to the nine tribes and the half tribe:

14 For the tribe of the children of Reuven according to the bayit of their ahvot and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the bayit of their ahvot, have received their inheritance; and half the tribe of Menasheh has received their inheritance:

15 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side of the Yarden River near Yericho eastward, toward the rising of the shemesh.

16 And אֶרְצָאֵלֶיךָ spoke to Moshe, saying,

17 These are the names of the men who shall divide the land among you: El-Azar the kohen and Yahusha the son of Nun.

18 And you shall take one leader of every tribe, to divide the land among you by inheritance.

19 And the names of the men are these: Of the tribe of Yahudah, Kaleb the son of Yephunneh.

20 And of the tribe of the children of Shimon, Shemu-El the son of Ammihud.

21 Of the tribe of Benyamin, Elidad the son of Chislon.

22 And the leader of the tribe of the children of Dan, Bukki the son of Yogli.

23 The leader of the children of Yoseph, for the tribe of the children of Menasheh, Hanni-El the son of Ephod.

24 And the leader of the tribe of the children of Efrayim, Kemu-El the son of Shiphtan.

25 And the leader of the tribe of the children of Zevulon, Elyzaphan the son of Parnach.

26 And the leader of the tribe of the children of Yissachar, Palti-El the son of Azzan.

27 And the leader of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ahihud the son of Shelomi.

28 And the leader of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Pedah-El the son of Ammihud.

29 These are those whom אֲנִי־אֲנִי־אֲנִי commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Yisrael in the land of Kanaan.

LaLewiyim, Bamidbar-Numbers chapters 35-36.
Devarim chapters 1-2. Renewed Covenant
Qorintyah Alef First Corinthians chapters 11-16.

35 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe in the plains of Moav by Yarden near Yericho, saying,

2 Command the children of Yisrael that they give to the Lewiym from the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in; and you shall give also to the Lewiym suburbs for the cities all around them.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the suburbs shall be for their cattle and for their goods and for all their beasts.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which you shall give to the Lewiym, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits all around.

5 And you shall measure from outside the city on the east side two thousand cubits and on the south side two thousand cubits and on the west side two thousand cubits and on the north side two thousand cubits and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which you shall give to the Lewiym there shall be six cities for refuge, which you shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee there: and to these you shall add forty-two cities.

7 So all the cities that you shall give to the Lewiym shall be forty eight cities: those shall you give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which you shall give shall be from the possession of the children of Yisrael: from those that have many you shall give many; but from those that have few you shall give few: every one shall give from his cities to the Lewiym according to his inheritance which he inherits.

9 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Moshe, saying,

10 Speak to the children of Yisrael and say to them, When you have come over Yarden into the land of Kanaan;

11 Then you shall appoint cities to be cities of refuge for yourselves; that the killer may flee there, who kills any person accidentally.

12 And they shall be for you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the killer dies not, until he stands before the kehilla in mishpat.

13 And of these cities which you shall give, six cities shall you have for refuge.

14 You shall give three cities on this side of the Yarden River and three cities shall you give in the land of Kanaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Yisrael and for the ger and for the dweller among them: that anyone that kills any person by accident may flee there.

16 And if he smites him with an instrument of iron, so that he dies, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smites him by throwing a stone, by which he may die and he dies, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or, if he smites him with a hand weapon of wood, by which he may die and he dies, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of dahm himself shall slay the murderer: when he meets him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he threw him because of hatred, or hurled something at him while laying in wait, that he dies;

21 Or, in enmity smote him with his hand so that he dies: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of dahm shall slay the murderer, when he meets him.

22 But if he threw him suddenly without enmity, or has thrown at him anything without lying in wait,

23 Or, with any stone, by which a man may die, seeing him not and cast it at him, that he dies and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the kehilla shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of dahm according to these mishpatim:

25 And the kehilla shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of dahm and the kehilla shall restore him to the city of his refuge, where he had fled: and he shall abide in it until the death of the Kohen HaGadol, who was anointed with the kadosh oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come outside the border of the city of his refuge, where he fled;

27 And the revenger of dahm finds him outside the borders of the city of his refuge and the revenger of dahm kills the slayer; he shall not be guilty of dahm:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the Kohen HaGadol: but after the death of the Kohen HaGadol the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for a chuk of mishpat to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whoever kills any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover you shall take no ransom for the chayim of a murderer, who is guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And you shall take no ransom for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the kohen.

33 So you shall not pollute the land in which you are: for dahm defiles the land: and the land cannot be cleansed of the dahm that is shed on it, except by the dahm of him who shed it.

34 Defile not the land that you shall inhabit, in which I dwell: for I אֱלֹהִים dwell among the children of Yisrael.

36 And the leaders of the ahvot of the mishpachot of the children of Gilad, the son of Machir, the son of Menasheh, of the mishpachot of the sons of Yoseph, came near and spoke before Moshe and before the leaders, the main ahvot of the children of Yisrael:

2 And they said, אֱלֹהִים commanded my master to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Yisrael: and my master was commanded by אֱלֹהִים to give the inheritance of Tzelophehad our brother to his daughters.

3 And if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Yisrael, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our ahvot and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe into which they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the yovel of the children of Yisrael shall be, then shall their inheritance be put to the inheritance of the tribe into which they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our ahvot.

5 And Moshe commanded the children of Yisrael according to The Word of אֱלֹהִים, saying, The tribe of the sons of Yoseph have spoken well.

6 This is the thing which אֱלֹהִים does command concerning the daughters of Tzelophehad, saying, Let them marry whom they think best; but only to the mishpacha of the tribe of their abba shall they marry.

7 So shall the inheritance of the children of Yisrael not be moved from tribe to tribe: each one of the children of Yisrael shall keep himself in the inheritance of the tribe of his ahvot.

8 And every daughter, that possesses an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Yisrael, shall be isha to one of the mishpacha of the tribe of her abba, that the children of Yisrael may enjoy every man the inheritance of his ahvot.

9 Neither shall the inheritance move from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Yisrael shall keep himself in his own inheritance.

10 Even as אִשְׂרָאֵל commanded Moshe, so did the daughters of Tzelophehad:

11 For Mahlah, Tirtzah and Hoglah and Milcah and Noah, the daughters of Tzelophehad, were married to their abba's brothers' sons:

12 And they were married into the mishpachot of the sons of Menasheh the son of Yoseph and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the mishpacha of their abba.

13 These are the mitzvoth and the mishpatim, which אִשְׂרָאֵל commanded by the hand of Moshe to the children of Yisrael in the plains of Moav by Yarden near Yericho. X

Deuteronomy-Devarim

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 These are the words that Moshe spoke to kol Yisrael beyond the Yarden in the wilderness, in the plain opposite the Yam Suf, between Paran and Tophel and Lavan and Hatzeroth and Dizahav.
- 2 (There are eleven yamim' journey from Horev by the derech of Har Seir to Kadesh-Barnea.)
- 3 And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh chodesh, on the first yom of the chodesh, that Moshe spoke to the children of Yisrael, according to all that אֱלֹהִים had given him in mitzvoth for them;
- 4 After he had slain Sichon the melech of the Amorites, who dwelt in Cheshbon and Og the melech of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth in Edrei:
- 5 Beyond Yarden, in the land of Moav, Moshe began to declare this Torah, saying,
- 6 אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim spoke to us in Horev, saying, You have dwelt long enough in this har:
- 7 Turn and take your journey and go to the har of the Amorites and to all the places near there, in the plain, in the hills and in the low country and in the south and by the sea side, to the land of the Kanaanites and to Levanon, to the great river, the River Euphrates.
- 8 See, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which אֱלֹהִים swore to your ahvot, Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov, to give to them and to their zera after them.
- 9 And I spoke to you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you alone by myself:

10 אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim has multiplied you and, see, you are this yom as the cochavim of the shamayim for multitude.

11 אִתְּךָ Ahlohim of your ahvot will make you a thousand times more than you are now and bless you, as He has promised you!

12 How can I by myself all alone bear your pressure and your burden and your strife?

13 Take wise and understanding men, known among your tribes and I will make them heads over you.

14 And you answered me and said, The thing, which you have spoken, is tov for us to do.

15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men and well known and made them heads over you, captains over thousands and captains over hundreds and captains over fifties and captains over tens and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your shophtim at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brothers and judge in tzedakah between every man and his brother and the ger that is with him.

17 You shall not respect persons in mishpat; but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the mishpat belongs to Ahlohim: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it to me and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things that you should do.

19 And when we departed from Horev, we went through that entire huge and awesome wilderness, which you saw by the derech of the har of the Amorites, as אִתְּךָ our Ahlohim commanded us; and we came to Kadesh-Barnea.

20 And I said to you, You are come to the har of the Amorites, which אִתְּךָ our Ahlohim does give to us.

21 See, אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has set the land before you: go up and possess it, as אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of your ahvot has said to you; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 And you came near to me every one of you and said, We will send men before us and they shall search out the land and bring us word again of which derech we must go up and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me: and I took twelve men from you, one per tribe:

24 And they turned and went up into the har and came to the Valley of Eshcol and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us and brought us word again and said, It is a tov land that אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim gives us.

26 Nevertheless you would not go up, but rebelled against the mitzvah of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim:

27 And you grumbled in your tents and said, Because אֱלֹהִים hated us, He has brought us forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 Where shall we go up? Our brothers have discouraged our levavot, saying, The people are greater and taller than us; the cities are great and walled up to the shamayim; and we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.

29 Then I said to you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim who goes before you, He shall fight for you, according to all that He did for you in Mitzrayim before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where you have seen how אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim carried you, as a man carries his son, in all the derech that you went, until you came into this place.

32 Yet in this matter you did not believe אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, 33 Who went in the derech before you, to search out a place to pitch your tents, in the fire by lyla, to show you which derech you should go and in the cloud by yom.

34 And אֱלֹהִים heard the voice of your words and was angry and swore, saying, 35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that tov land, which I swore to give to your ahvot.

36 Except Kaleb the son of Yephunneh, he shall see it and to him will I give the land that he has walked upon and to his children because he has fully followed אֱלֹהִים.

37 Also אֱלֹהִים was angry with me for your sakes, saying, You also shall not go in there.

38 But Yahusha the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there: encourage him: for he shall cause Yisrael to inherit it.

39 And your little ones, which you said should be a prey and your children, which in that yom had no da'at between tov and evil, they shall go in there and to them will I give it and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the derech of the Yam Suf.

41 Then you answered and said to me, We have sinned against אֱלֹהִים, we will go up and fight, according to all that אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim commanded us. And when you had girded on every man his weapons of war, you were ready to go up on the hill.

42 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, Say to them. Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spoke to you; and you would not listen, but rebelled against the order of אֱלֹהִים and went presumptuously up into the har.

44 And the Amorites, who dwelt in that har, came out against you and chased you, as bees do and destroyed you in Seir, even to Hormah.

45 And you returned and wept before אֱלֹהִים; but אֱלֹהִים would not listen to your voice, nor give ear to you.

46 So you dwelt in Kadesh many yamim, according to the yamim that you dwelt there.

2 Then we turned and took our journey into the wilderness by the derech of the Yam Suf, as אֱלֹהִים spoke to me: and we circled Har Seir many yamim.

2 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to me, saying,

3 You have circled this har long enough: turn northward.

4 And command the people, saying, You are to pass through the coast of your brothers the children of Esav, who dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take tov heed to yourselves therefore:

5 Strive not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a footstep; because I have given Har Seir to Esav for a possession.

6 You shall buy food from them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy mayim from them for money, that you may drink.

7 For אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has blessed you in all the works of your hand: He knows your wandering through this great wilderness. These forty years אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has been with you; you have lacked nothing.

8 And when we passed by our brothers the children of Esav, who dwelt in Seir, through the derech of the plain from Eilat and from Etzion-Gever, we turned and passed by the derech of the wilderness of Moav.

9 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, Distress not the Moavites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give you their land as a possession; because I have given Ar to the children of Lot as a possession.

10 The Emim dwelt there in times past, a people great and many and tall, as the Anakim;

11 Which also were reckoned as Rephayim, like the Anakim; but the Moavites called them Emim.

12 The Horites also dwelt in Seir before; but the children of Esav succeeded them, when they had destroyed them and dwelt in their place; as Yisrael did to the land of their possession, which אֲרָאֵל gave to them.

13 Now rise up, I said and go over the brook Zered. And we went over the brook Zered.

14 And the time from which we came from Kadesh-Barnea, until we came over the brook Zered, was thirty-eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were consumed from among the camp, as אֲרָאֵל swore to them.

15 For indeed the Hand of אֲרָאֵל was against them, to destroy them from among the camp, until they were consumed.

16 So it came to pass, when all the men of war had perished from among the people,

17 That אֲרָאֵל spoke to me, saying,

18 You are to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moav, this yom:

19 And when you come near, opposite the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor strive with them: for I will not give you the land of the children of Ammon as a possession; because I have given it to the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of Rephayim: Rephayim dwelt there in old times; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims;

21 A people great and many and as tall, as the Anakim; but אֲרָאֵל destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them and dwelt in their place:

22 As He did to the children of Esav, who dwelt in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites from before them; and they succeeded them and dwelt in their place even to this yom:

23 And the Avim who dwelt in Hatzerim, even to Azzah, the Kaphtorim, who came forth out of Kaphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their place).

24 Rise up, take your journey and pass over the river Arnon: see, I have given into your hand Sichon the Amorite, melech of Cheshbon and his land: begin to possess it and contend with him in battle.

25 This yom will I begin to put the dread of you and the fear of you upon the goyim that are under the whole shamayim, who shall hear reports of you and shall tremble and be in anguish because of you.

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth to Sichon melech of Cheshbon with words of shalom, saying, 27 Let me pass through your land: I will go along by the highway; I will neither turn to the right hand nor to the left.

28 You shall sell me meat for money that I may eat; and give me mayim for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet;

29 As the children of Esav who dwell in Seir and the Moavites who dwell in Ar, did for me; until I shall pass over Yarden into the land that אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Ahlohim gives us.

30 But Sichon melech of Cheshbon would not let us pass by him: for אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim hardened his ruach and made his lev obstinate, that He might deliver him into your hand, as can be seen this yom.

31 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to me, See, I have begun to give Sichon and his land to you: begin to possess, that you may inherit his land.

32 Then Sichon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Yahaz.

33 And אלהינו our Ahlohim delivered him before us; and we smote him and his sons and all his people.
34 And we took all his cities at that time and utterly destroyed the men and the women and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain:
35 Only the cattle we took for a prey to ourselves and the spoil of the cities, that we took.
36 From Aroer, which is by the edge of the river of Arnon and from the city that is by the river, even to Gilad, there was not one city too strong for us: אלהינו our Ahlohim delivered all of them to us:
37 Only to the land of the children of Ammon you did not come, nor to any place of the river Yavok, nor to the cities in the mountains, nor to whatever אלהינו our Ahlohim has forbidden us.

Torah Parsha 40 Shavuah-Week 40-Derech HaBashan. Devarim-Deuteronomy chapters 3-6. Renewed Covenant Qorintyah Bet Second Corinthians chapters 1-5.

3 Then we turned and went up the derech to Bashan: and Og the melech of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.
2 And אלהינו said to me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him and all his people and his land, into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sichon melech of the Amorites, who dwelt at Cheshbon.
3 So אלהינו our Ahlohim delivered Og into our hands also, the melech of Bashan and all his people: and we smote him until none of them was left with him.
4 And we took all his cities at that time; there was not a city that we didn't take from them, sixty cities, all the region of Argov and the malchut of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates and bars; and many unwallied towns.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sichon melech of Cheshbon, utterly destroying the men, women and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey for ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two melechim of the Amorites the land that was beyond Yarden, from the river of Arnon to Har Hermon;

9 (Hermon is the place that the Tzidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir)

10 All the cities of the plain and all Gilad and all Bashan, to Salchah and Edrei, cities of the malchut of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og melech of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephayim; see his bed frame was a bed frame of iron; is it not in Ravvath of the children of Ammon? Nine cubits was the length of it and four cubits the width of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the River Arnon and half of Har Gilad and the cities of it, I gave to the Reuvenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilad and all Bashan, being the malchut of Og, I gave to the half tribe of Menasheh; all the region of Argov, with all Bashan, which was called the land of Rephayim.

14 Yair the son of Menasheh took all the country of Argov to the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi; and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havoth-Yair, to this yom.

15 And I gave Gilad to Machir.

16 And to the Reuvenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilad even to the River Arnon half the valley and the border even to the River Yavok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 The plain also and Yarden and the coast of it, from Kinnereth even to the sea of the plain, even the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has given you this land to possess: you shall pass over armed before your brothers the children of Yisrael, all that are fit for the war.

19 But your wives and your little ones and your cattle, for I know that you have much cattle; shall abide in your cities that I have given you;

20 Until אֱלֹהִים has given rest to your brothers, as well as to you and until they also possess the land which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has given them beyond Yarden: and then shall you return every man to his possession, which I have given you.

21 And I commanded Yahusha at that time, saying, Your eyes have seen all that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has done to these two melechim: so shall אֱלֹהִים do to all the malchutim where you are going.

22 You shall not fear them: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim He shall fight for you.

23 And I pleaded with אֱלֹהִים at that time, saying,

24 O Master אֱלֹהִים, You have begun to show Your eved Your greatness and Your mighty hand: for what El is there in the shamayim, or in the earth, that can do according to Your works and according to Your might?

25 I asked You, let me go over and see the tov land that is beyond the Yarden, that beautiful har and Levanon.

26 But אֱלֹהִים was angry with me for your sakes and would not listen to me: and אֱלֹהִים said to me, Enough of that already! Speak no more to Me about this matter.

27 Get up into the top of Pisgah and lift up your eyes westward and northward and southward and eastward and see it with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Yarden River.

28 But charge Yahusha and encourage him and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people and he shall cause them to inherit the land that you shall see.

29 So we dwelt in the valley opposite Beit-Peor.

4 Now therefore listen, O Yisrael, to the chukim and to the mishpatim, which I teach you, for to do them, that you may live and go in and possess the land which אלהים Ahlohim of your ahvot gives you.

2 You shall not add to the word, which I command you, neither shall you take away anything from it, that you may shomer the mitzvoth of אלהים your Ahlohim that I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what אלהים did because of Ba'al-Peor: for all the men that followed Ba'al-Peor, אלהים your Ahlohim has destroyed them from among you.

4 But you who cling to אלהים your Ahlohim are alive every one of you this yom.

5 See, I have taught you chukim and mishpatim, even as אלהים my Ahlohim commanded me, that you should do so in the land which you go to possess.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your chochmah and your binah in the sight of the goyim, who shall hear all these chukim and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who has Ahlohim so near to them, as אלהים our Ahlohim is in all things for which we call upon Him?

8 And what nation is there so great, that has chukim and mishpatim so tzadik as all this Torah, which I set before you this yom?

9 Only take heed to yourself and shomer your being diligently, lest you forget the things which your eyes have seen and lest they depart from your lev all the yamim of your chayim: but teach them to your sons and your son's sons;

10 The yom that you stood before אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim in Horev, when אֱלֹהִים said to me, Gather the people together to Me and I will make them hear My Words, that they may learn to fear Me all the yamim that they shall live upon the earth and that they may teach their children.

11 And you came near and stood under the har; and the har burned with fire to the midst of the shamayim, with darkness, clouds and thick darkness.

12 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of the words but saw no likeness, only you heard a voice.

13 And He declared to you His brit, which He commanded you to perform, even the Ten Mitzvoth and He wrote them upon two tablets of stone.

14 And אֱלֹהִים commanded me at that time to teach you chukim and mishpatim, that you might do them in the land you are going to possess.

15 Take therefore tov heed to yourselves; for you saw no manner of form on the yom that אֱלֹהִים spoke to you in Horev out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest you corrupt yourselves and make a graven image, the form of any figure, the likeness of male, or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flies in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the mayim beneath the earth:

19 And lest you lift up your eyes to the shamayim and when you see the shemesh and the yarayach and the cochavim, even all the host of the shamayim, should be drawn to worship them and serve them, which אלהים your Ahlohim has given to all goyim under the whole shamayim.

20 But אלהים has taken you and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Mitzrayim, to be to Him a people of inheritance, as you are this yom.

21 And אלהים was angry with me for your sakes and swore that I should not go over the Yarden and that I should not go in to that tov land, which אלהים your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over the Yarden: but you shall go over and possess that tov land.

23 Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the brit of אלהים your Ahlohim, which He made with you and make yourself a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, that אלהים your Ahlohim has forbidden you.

24 For אלהים your Ahlohim is a consuming fire, even a zealous El.

25 When you shall beget children and children's children and you shall have remained a long time in the land and shall corrupt yourselves and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing and shall do evil in the sight of אלהים your Ahlohim, to provoke Him to anger:

26 I call the shamayim and earth to witness against you this yom that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land which you are going over Yarden to possess; you shall not prolong your yamim upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And אלהים shall scatter you among the goyim and you shall be left few in number among the heathen, where אלהים shall lead you.

28 And there you shall serve ahlohim, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from there you shall seek אלהיך your Ahlohim, you shall find Him, if you seek Him with all your lev and with all your being.

30 When you are in great tribulation, and all these things have come upon you, even in the latter-yamim, then you shall make teshuvah to אלהיך your Ahlohim and shall be obedient to His voice.

31 For אלהיך your Ahlohim is an El of rachamim, He will not forsake you, neither destroy you, nor forget the brit of your ahvot, which He swore to them.

32 For ask now about the yamim that are past, which were before you, since the yom that Ahlohim created man upon the earth and ask from the one side of the shamayim to the other, whether there has been any Torah as great as this, or anything that has been heard like it?

33 Did any other people hear the voice of Ahlohim speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard and live?

34 Or, has Ahlohim tried to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs and by wonders and by war and by a mighty hand and by an outstretched Arm, and by great deeds, according to all that אלהיך your Ahlohim did for you in Mitzrayim before your eyes?

35 To you it was showed, that you might know that אלהיך He is Ahlohim; there is none else beside Him.

36 Out of the shamayim He made you to hear His voice, that He might instruct you: and upon earth He showed you His great fire; and you heard His Words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because He loved your ahvot, therefore He chose their zera after them and brought you out in His sight with His mighty Power out of Mitzrayim;

38 To drive out goyim from before you greater and mightier than you are, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this yom.

39 Know therefore this yom and consider it in your lev, that אלהים He is Ahlohim in the shamayim above and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 You shall therefore shomer His chukim and His mitzvoth, which I command you this yom, that it may go well with you and with your children after you and that you may prolong your yamim upon the earth, which אלהים your Ahlohim gives you, le-olam-va-ed.

41 Then Moshe separated three cities on this side of the Yarden toward the rising shemesh;

42 That the killer might flee there, who might kill his neighbor unintentionally, without hating him in times past; and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reuvenites; and Ramot in Gilad, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Menashshites.

44 And this is the Torah that Moshe set before the children of Yisrael:

45 These are the testimonies and the chukim and the mishpatim, which Moshe spoke to the children of Yisrael, after they came forth out of Mitzrayim.

46 On this side of Yarden, in the valley opposite Beit-Peor, in the land of Sichon melech of the Amorites, who dwelt at Cheshbon, whom Moshe and the children of Yisrael smote, after they had come forth out of Mitzrayim:

47 And they possessed his land and the land of Og melech of Bashan, two melechim of the Amorites, who were on this side of Yarden toward the rising of the shemesh;

48 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the River
Arnon, even to Har Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the plain on this side of the Yarden eastward, even to the sea of the plain, under the slopes of Pisgah.

5 And Moshe called kol Yisrael and said to them, Hear, O Yisrael, the chukim and mishpatim which I speak in your hearing this yom, that you may learn them and shomer and do them.

2 אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim made a brit with us in Horev.

3 אֱלֹהִים made not this brit with our ahvot, but with us, who are all of us here alive this yom.

4 אֱלֹהִים talked with you panayim-el-panayim in the har out of the midst of the fire,

5 (I stood between אֱלֹהִים and you at that time, to show you The Word of אֱלֹהִים: For you were afraid because of the fire and went not up into the har) saying,

6 I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitzrayim, from the bayit of avdooth.

7 You shall have no other ahlohim before My face.

8 You shall not make any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in the shamayim above, or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the mayim beneath the earth:

9 You shall not bow down to them, nor serve them:
for I אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim am a zealous El, visiting the iniquity of the ahvot upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me,

10 And showing rachamim to thousands of those who love Me and shomer My mitzvot.

11 You shall not bring the Name of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim to vain emptiness: for אֱלֹהִים will not hold him guiltless that brings His Name to vain emptiness.

12 Shomer Yom ha Shabbat to set it apart, as אָפְּאָרְךָ your Ahlohim has commanded you.

13 Six yamim you shall labor and do all your work:

14 But the seventh yom is The Shabbat of אָפְּאָרְךָ your Ahlohim: in it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male eved, nor your female eved, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor the ger that is within your gates; that your male eved and your female eved may rest as well as you.

15 And remember that you were an eved in the land of Mitzrayim and that אָפְּאָרְךָ your Ahlohim brought you out from there through a mighty hand and by an outstretched Arm: therefore אָפְּאָרְךָ your Ahlohim commanded you to shomer Yom ha Shabbat.

16 Honor your abba and your eema, as אָפְּאָרְךָ your Ahlohim has commanded you; that your yamim may be prolonged and that it may go well with you, in the land that אָפְּאָרְךָ your Ahlohim gives you.

17 You shall not murder.

18 Neither shall you commit adultery.

19 Neither shall you steal.

20 Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbor.

21 Neither shall you desire your neighbor's isha, neither shall you covet your neighbor's bayit, his field, nor his male eved, nor his female eved, his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's.

22 These Words אָפְּאָרְךָ spoke to all your kehilla in the har out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and He added no more. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and delivered them to me.

23 And it came to pass, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, for the har did burn with fire, that you came near to me, even all the heads of your tribes and your zechanim;

24 And you said, See, אלהים our Ahlohim has showed us His tifereth and His greatness and we have heard His voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this yom that Ahlohim does talk with man and man still lives.

25 Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of אלהים our Ahlohim anymore, then we shall die.

26 For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living Ahlohim speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have and lived?

27 You go near and hear all that אלהים our Ahlohim shall say: and speak to us all that אלהים our Ahlohim shall speak to you; and we will listen to it and do it.

28 And אלהים heard the voice of your words, when you spoke to me; and אלהים said to me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 O that there were such a lev in them, that they would fear Me and shomer all My mitzvoth always, that it might be well with them and with their children le-olam-va-ed!

30 Go say to them, Get into your tents again.

31 But as for you, stand here by Me and I will speak to you all the mitzvoth and the chukim and the mishpatim, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land that I give them to possess.

32 You shall shomer to do therefore as אלהים your Ahlohim has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand, or to the left.

33 You shall have your halacha in all the halachot that אלהים your Ahlohim has commanded you, that you may live and that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your yamim in the land that you shall possess.

6 Now these are the mitzvot, the chukim and the mishpatim, which אלהים your Ahlohim commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land which you go to possess:

2 That you might fear אלהים your Ahlohim, to shomer all His chukim and His mitzvot, which I command you, you and your son and your son's son, all the yamim of your chayim; and that your yamim may be prolonged.

3 Hear, O Yisrael and shomer to do it; that it may be well with you and that you may increase mightily, as אלהים Ahlohim of your ahvot has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey.

4 Shema Yisrael: אלהים is our Ahlohim, אלהים is Echad:

5 And you shall love אלהים your Ahlohim with all your lev and with all your being and with all your might.

6 And these words, which I command you this yom, shall be in your lev:

7 And you shall teach them diligently to your children and shall talk of them when you sit in your bayit and when you walk by the derech and when you lie down and when you rise up.

8 And you shall bind them for an ot upon your hand and they shall be as a memory between your eyes.

9 And you shall write them upon the posts of your bayit and on your gates.

10 And it shall be, when אלהים your Ahlohim shall have brought you into the land which He swore to your ahvot, to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, to give you great and tov cities, which you did not build,

11 And houses full of all tov things, which you filled not and wells dug, which you did not dig, vineyards and olive eytzim, which you planted not; when you shall have eaten and are full;

12 Then beware lest you forget אֱלֹהֶיךָ, who brought you forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, from the bayit of avdooth.

13 You shall fear אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Ahlohim and serve Him and shall swear by His Name.

14 You shall not go after other ahlohim, the ahlohim of the peoples who are all around you;

15 (For אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Ahlohim is a zealous El among you) lest the anger of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Ahlohim be lit against you and destroy you from off the face of the earth.

16 You shall not try אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Ahlohim, as you tried Him in Massah.

17 You shall diligently shomer the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Ahlohim and His testimonies and His chukim, which He has commanded you.

18 And you shall do that which is right and tov in the sight of אֱלֹהֶיךָ: that it may be well with you and that you may go in and possess the tov land that אֱלֹהֶיךָ swore to your ahvot.

19 To cast out all your enemies from before you, as אֱלֹהֶיךָ has spoken.

20 And when your son asks you in times to come, saying, What do these testimonies and chukim and mishpatim mean, which אֱלֹהֶיךָ our Ahlohim has commanded you?

21 Then you shall say to your son, We were Pharaoh's avadim in Mitzrayim; and אֱלֹהֶיךָ brought us out of Mitzrayim with a mighty hand:

22 And אֱלֹהֶיךָ showed signs and wonders, great and grievous, upon Mitzrayim, upon Pharaoh and upon his entire household, before our eyes:

23 And He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in, to give us the land that He swore to our ahvot.

24 And אלהים commanded us to do all these chukim, to fear אלהים our Ahlohim, for our tov always, that He might preserve us alive, as it is this yom.

25 And it shall be our tzedakah, if we shomer to do all these mitzvot before אלהים our Ahlohim, as He has commanded us.

Torah Parsha 41 Shavuah-Week 41-Ki Yeviyacha.
Devarim-Deuteronomy chapters 7-10. Renewed
Covenant Qorintyah Bet-Second
Corinthians chapters 6-10.

7 When אלהים your Ahlohim shall bring you into the land where you are going to possess and has cast out many goyim before you, the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Kanaanites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Yevusites, seven goyim greater and mightier than you;

2 And when אלהים your Ahlohim shall deliver them before you; you shall smite them and utterly destroy them; you shall make no brit with them, nor show rachamim to them:

3 Neither shall you make marriages with them; your daughter you shall not give to his son, nor his daughter shall you take for your son.

4 For they will turn away your son from following Me, that they may serve other ahlohim : so will the anger of אלהים be lit against you and destroy you suddenly.

5 But this is how you shall deal with them; you shall destroy their altars and break down their images and cut down their groves and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For you are a kadosh people to אלהים your Ahlohim: אלהים your Ahlohim has chosen you to be a special people to Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 אלהים did not set His love upon you, nor choose you because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples:

8 But because אלהים loved you and because He would keep the oath which He had sworn to your ahvot; therefore אלהים has brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you out of the bayit of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim.

9 Know that אלהים your Ahlohim, He is Ahlohim, the faithful El, who keeps His brit and rachamim with them that love Him and shomer His mitzvot to a thousand generations;

10 And repays them that hate Him to their face, to destroy them: He will not be slack to anyone that hates Him; He will repay him to his face.

11 You shall therefore shomer the mitzvot and the chukim and the mishpatim, which I command you this yom, to do them.

12 Therefore it shall come to pass, if you listen to these mishpatim and shomer and do them, that אלהים your Ahlohim shall keep with you the brit and the rachamim which He swore to your ahvot:

13 And He will love you and bless you and multiply you: He will also bless the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep, in the land which He swore to your ahvot to give you.

14 You shall be blessed above all peoples: there shall not be male, or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And אֱלֹהִים will take away from you all sickness and will put none of the evil diseases of Mitzrayim, which you have seen and know about, upon you; but will lay them upon all them that hate you.

16 And you shall consume all the peoples that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim shall deliver for you; your eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shall you serve their ahlohim; for that will be a snare to you.

17 If you shall say in your lev, These goyim are greater than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 You shall not be afraid of them: but shall well remember what אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim did to Pharaoh and to all Mitzrayim;

19 The great temptations which your eyes saw and the signs and the wonders and the mighty hand and the outstretched Arm, by which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim brought you out: so shall אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim do to all the peoples whom you fear.

20 Moreover אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, who hide themselves from you, will be destroyed.

21 You shall not be afraid of them: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim is among you, a Mighty-El and awesome.

22 And אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim will put out those goyim before you little by little: you may not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you.

23 But אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim shall deliver them to you and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they are destroyed.

24 And He shall deliver their melechim into your hand and you shall destroy their name from under the shamayim: there shall no man be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their ahlohim shall you burn with fire: you shall not desire the silver, or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, lest you be snared with it: for it is an abomination to אלהיך your Ahlohim.

26 Neither shall you bring an abomination into your bayit, lest you be a cursed thing like it: but you shall utterly detest it and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

8 All the mitzvot, which I command you this yom, shall you shomer to do, that you may live and multiply and go in and possess the land that אלהיך swore to your ahvot.

2 And you shall remember all the derachot that אלהיך your Ahlohim led you these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you and to prove you, to know what was in your lev, whether you would shomer His mitzvot, or not.

3 And He humbled you and allowed you to hunger and fed you with manna, which you knew not, neither did your ahvot know; that He might make you know that man does not live by lechem only, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of אלהיך does man live.

4 Your garment did not wear out on you; neither did your foot swell, these forty years.

5 You shall also consider in your lev, that, as a man disciplines his son, so אלהיך your Ahlohim disciplines you.

6 Therefore you shall shomer the mitzvot of אלהיך your Ahlohim, to have your halacha in His halachot and to fear Him.

7 For אלהיך your Ahlohim brings you into a tov and spacious land, a land of brooks of mayim, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat and barley and vines and fig eytzim and pomegranates; a land of olive oil and honey;

9 A land where you shall eat lechem without scarceness, you shall not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron and out of whose hills you may dig brass.

10 When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless אֱלֹהֵי your Ahlohim for the tov land that He has given you.

11 Beware that you forget not אֱלֹהֵי your Ahlohim, in not keeping His mitzvoth and His mishpatim and His chukim, which I command you this yom:

12 Lest when you have eaten and are full and have built nice houses and dwelt in them;

13 And when your herds and your flocks multiply and your silver and your gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied;

14 That your lev be lifted up and you forget אֱלֹהֵי your Ahlohim, who brought you forth out of the land of Mitzrayim, from the bayit of bondage;

15 Who led you through that great and awesome wilderness, where there were fiery serpents and scorpions and drought, where there was no mayim; who brought forth mayim out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your ahvot knew not, that He might humble you and that He might test you, to do you tov at your latter-end, 17 And you say in your lev, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth.

18 But you shall remember אֱלֹהֵי your Ahlohim: for it is He that gives you power to get wealth, that He may establish His brit which He swore to your ahvot, to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, as it is this yom.

19 And it shall be, if you do in any manner forget אֱלֹהֵי your Ahlohim and have your halacha after other ahlahim and serve them and worship them, I testify against you this yom that you shall surely perish.

20 And like the goyim that אֱלֹהִים destroyed before your face, so shall you also perish; because you would not be obedient to the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

9 Shema Yisrael: You are to pass over Yarden this yom, to go in to possess goyim greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fortified up to the shamayim,

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakim, whom you know and of whom you have heard it said, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this yom, that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim is He who goes over before you; as a consuming fire He shall destroy them and He shall bring them down before your face: so shall you drive them out and destroy them quickly, as אֱלֹהִים has said to you.

4 Do not say in your lev, after אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has cast them out from before you, saying, For my tzedakah אֱלֹהִים has brought me in to possess this land: rather for the wickedness of those goyim אֱלֹהִים does drive them out from before you.

5 Not for your tzedakah, or for the uprightness of your lev, do you go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these goyim אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim does drive them out from before you and that He may perform the word which אֱלֹהִים swore to your ahvot, Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov.

6 Understand therefore, that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim does not give you this tov land to possess it for your tzedakah; for you are a stiff-necked people.

7 Remember and don't forget, how you provoked אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim to wrath in the wilderness: from the yom that you did depart out of the land of Mitzrayim, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against אֱלֹהִים.

8 Also in Horev you provoked אֱלֹהִים to wrath, so that אֱלֹהִים was angry with you and wanted to destroy you.

9 When I had gone up into the har to receive the tablets of stone, even the tablets of the brit that אֱלֹהִים made with you, then I dwelt in the har forty yamim and forty laylot, I neither did eat lechem nor drink mayim:

10 And אֱלֹהִים delivered to me two tablets of stone written with the finger of Ahlohim; and on them was written according to all the words, which אֱלֹהִים spoke with you in the har out of the midst of the fire in the yom of the kehilla.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty yamim and forty laylot, that אֱלֹהִים gave me the two tablets of stone, even the tablets of the brit.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, Arise, get down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought forth out of Mitzrayim have corrupted themselves; they have quickly turned aside out of the halacha which I commanded them; they have made for themselves a molded image.

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to me, saying, I have seen this people and see, it is a stiff-necked people:

14 Leave Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under the shamayim: and I will make from you a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the har and the har burned with fire: and the two tablets of the brit were in my two hands.

16 And I looked and, saw that you had sinned against אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and had made a molded calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the halacha that אֱלֹהִים had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tablets and cast them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before אֱלֹהִים, as at first, forty yamim and forty laylot: I did neither eat lechem, nor drink mayim because of all your sins which you committed, in doing wickedly in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke Him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which אֱלֹהִים was angry against you to destroy you. But אֱלֹהִים heard me at that time also.

20 And אֱלֹהִים was very angry with Aharon and would have destroyed him: and I made tefillah for Aharon also at the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which you had made and burned it with fire and stomped on it and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust into the brook that descended out of the har.

22 And at Taverah and at Massah and at Kivroth-Hattaavah, you provoked אֱלֹהִים to wrath.

23 And when אֱלֹהִים sent you from Kadesh-Barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land that I have given you; then you rebelled against the command of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and you believed Him not, nor listened to His voice.

24 You have been rebellious against אֱלֹהִים from the yom that I knew you.

25 So I fell down before אֱלֹהִים forty yamim and forty laylot, as I fell down the first time; because אֱלֹהִים had said He would destroy you.

26 I made tefillah therefore to אֱלֹהִים and said, O Master אֱלֹהִים, destroy not Your people and Your inheritance, whom You have redeemed through Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Mitzrayim with a mighty hand.

27 Remember Your avadim, Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov; look not to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land from where you brought us out say, Because אֱלֹהֵינוּ was not able to bring them into the land which He promised them and because He hated them, He has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are Your people and Your inheritance, which You brought out by Your mighty Power and by Your outstretched Arm.

10 At that time אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to me, Cut two tablets of stone like the first and come up to Me on the har and make an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tablets the words that were in the first tablets that you broke and you shall put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of acacia wood and cut two tablets of stone like the first and went up into the har, having the two tablets in my hand.

4 And He wrote on the tablets, according to the first writing, the Ten Mitzvoth, which אֱלֹהֵינוּ spoke to you on the har out of the midst of the fire in the yom of the kehilla: and אֱלֹהֵינוּ gave them to me.

5 And I turned and came down from the har and put the tablets in the Ark that I had made; and there they are, as אֱלֹהֵינוּ commanded me.

6 And the children of Yisrael took their journey from Beeroth from the children of Yaakan to Mosera: there Aharon died and there he was buried; and El-Azar his son served in the kohen's office in his place.

7 From there they journeyed to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Yotvath, a land of rivers of mayim.

8 At that time אֱלֹהֵינוּ separated the tribe of Lewi, to bear the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to stand before אֱלֹהִים to attend to Him and to bless in His Name, to this yom.

9 Therefore Lewi has no part, or inheritance with his brothers; אֱלֹהִים is his inheritance, as אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim promised him.

10 And I stayed in the har, according to the first time, forty yamim and forty laylot; and אֱלֹהִים heard me at that time also and אֱלֹהִים chose not to destroy you.

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, Arise, take your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I swore to their ahvot to give them.

12 And now, Yisrael, what does אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim require of you, but to fear אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, to have your halacha in all His halachot and to love Him and to serve אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim with all your lev and with all your being, 13 To shomer the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים and His chukim, which I command you this yom for your tov.

14 See, the shamayim and the shamayim of shamayim belong to אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, the earth also, with all that is in it.

15 Only אֱלֹהִים had delight in your ahvot to love them and He chose their zera after them, even above all peoples, as it is this yom.

16 Perform brit-milah therefore on the foreskin of your lev, and be no more stiff-necked.

17 For אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim is the Ahlohim of all mighty ones and Master of all masters, a great El, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality, nor takes bribes:

18 He does execute the mishpat of the fatherless and widow and loves the ger, in giving him food and garments.

19 Love therefore the ger: for you were gerim in the land of Mitzrayim.

20 You shall fear אלהיך your Ahlohim; Him shall you serve and to Him shall you cleave and swear by His Name.

21 He is your tehilla and He is your Ahlohim, that has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen.

22 Your ahvot went down into Mitzrayim with seventy-five persons; and now אלהיך your Ahlohim has made you as the cochavim of the shamayim for multitude.

11 Therefore you shall love אלהיך your Ahlohim and shomer His charge and His chukim and His mishpatim and His mitzvot, always.

2 And know you this yom: for I speak not with your children who have not known and who have not seen the chastisement of אלהיך your Ahlohim, His greatness, His mighty hand and His outstretched Arm,

3 And His nisim and His acts, which He did in the midst of Mitzrayim to Pharaoh the melech of Mitzrayim and to all his land;

4 And what He did to the army of Mitzrayim, to their horses and to their mirkavot; how He made the mayim of the Yam Suf to overflow them as they pursued after you and how אלהיך has destroyed them to this yom;

5 And what He did for you in the wilderness, until you came into this place;

6 And what He did to Dathan and Aviram, the sons of Eliav, the son of Reuven and all the men of Korach: how the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up and their households and their tents and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of kol Yisrael:

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of אֱלֹהֵיךָ which He did.

8 Therefore shall you shomer all the mitzvot which I command you this yom, that you may be strong and multiply, and go in and possess the land, which you are going to possess;

9 And to prolong your yamim in the land, which אֱלֹהֵיךָ swore to your ahvot to give to them and to their zera, a land that flows with milk and honey.

10 For the land, which you go in to possess, is not as the land of Mitzrayim, from which you came out, where you sowed your zera and watered it by foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, which you are going to possess, is a land of hills and valleys and mayim to drink from the rain of the shamayim:

12 A land that אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Ahlohim cares for: the eyes of אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Ahlohim are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if you shall listen diligently to My mitzvot which I command you this yom, to love אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Ahlohim and to serve Him with all your lev and with all your being,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain and your wine and your oil.

15 And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle, that you may eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your lev be not deceived and you turn aside and serve other ahlohim and worship them;

17 And then אֱלֹהִים 's wrath be lit against you and He will shut up the shamayim, that there be no rain and that the land yield not its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the tov land which אֱלֹהִים gives you.

18 Therefore shall you lay up My Words in your lev and in your being and bind them for an ot upon your hand, that they may be as a memory between your eyes.

19 And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your bayit and when you walk by the derech, when you lie down and when you rise up.

20 And you shall write them upon the doorposts of your bayit and upon your gates:

21 That your yamim may be multiplied and the yamim of your children, in the land which אֱלֹהִים swore to your ahvot to give them, as the yamim of the shamayim are above the earth.

22 For if you shall diligently shomer all these mitzvoth that I command you, to do them, to love אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, to have your halacha in all His halachot and to cleave to Him;

23 Then will אֱלֹהִים drive out all these goyim from before you and you shall possess greater goyim and mightier ones than yourselves.

24 Every place the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Levanon, from the River Euphrates, even to the Western Sea shall your coast be.

25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread upon, as He has said to you.

26 See, I set before you this yom a bracha and a curse;

27 A blessing, if you obey the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, which I command you this yom:

28 And a curse, if you will not obey the mitzvot of אלהיך your Ahlohim, but turn aside out of the derech which I command you this yom, to go after other ahlohim, which you have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when אלהיך your Ahlohim has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the blessing upon Har Gerazim and the curse upon Har Eival.

30 Are they not on the other side of the Yarden, further on the derech west, where the shemesh goes down, in the land of the Kanaanites, who dwell in the desert plains in front of Gilgal, next to the oak of Morah, beside Shechem.

31 For you shall pass over the Yarden to go in to possess the land that אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you and you shall possess it and dwell there.

32 And you shall shomer to do all the chukim and mishpatim that I set before you this yom.

12 These are the chukim and mishpatim, which you shall shomer to do in the land, which אלהיך Ahlohim of your ahvot gives you to possess, all the yamim that you live upon the earth.

2 You shall utterly destroy all the places, in which the goyim (which you shall possess) served their ahlohim, upon the high mountains and upon the hills and under every green eytz:

3 And you shall overthrow their altars and break their pillars and burn their Asherim with fire; and you shall cut down the graven images of their ahlohim and destroy their names out of that place.

4 You shall not do so to אלהיך your Ahlohim.

5 But to the place that אלהיך your Ahlohim chose out of all your tribes to put His Name there, even to His dwelling shall you seek and there you shall come:

6 And there you shall bring your burnt offerings and your sacrifices and your ma'aser and heave offerings of your hand and your vows and your terumah offerings and the bechorot of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And there you shall eat before אלהיך your Ahlohim and you shall gilah in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which אלהיך your Ahlohim has blessed you.

8 You shall not do after all the things that we do here this yom; every man whatever is right in his own eyes.

9 For you have not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you.

10 But when you go over the Yarden and dwell in the land which אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you to inherit and when He gives you rest from all your enemies all around, so that you dwell in safety;

11 Then there shall be a place which אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen to cause His Name to dwell; there shall you bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings and your sacrifices, your ma'aser and the heave offering of your hand and all your choice vows which you vow to אלהיך:

12 And you shall gilah before אלהיך your Ahlohim, you and your sons and your daughters and your male avadim and your female avadim and the Lewi that is within your gates; because he has no part, or inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to yourself that you offer not your burnt offerings in every place that you see:

14 But in the place which אלהיך has chosen in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings and there you shall do all that I command you.

15 Whatever you desire you may kill and eat in all your gates, according to the blessing of אלהיך your Ahlohim which He has given you: the unclean and the clean man may eat of it, of the gazelle and deer alike.

16 Only you shall not eat the dahm; you shall pour it upon the earth as mayim.

17 You may not eat within your gates the ma'aser of your grain, or of your wine, or of your oil, or the bechorot of your herds, or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vowed, nor your terumah offerings, or heave offering of your hand:

18 But you must eat them before אלהיך your Ahlohim in the place which אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen, you and your son and your daughter and your male eved and your female eved and the Lewi that is within your gates: and you shall gilah before אלהיך your Ahlohim in all that you put your hands to undertake.

19 Guard yourself that you forsake not the Lewi as long as you live upon the earth.

20 When אלהיך your Ahlohim shall enlarge your border, as He has promised you and you shall say, I will eat meat because your being longs to eat flesh; you may eat flesh, whatever your being desires.

21 If the place where אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen to put His Name is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which אלהיך has given you, as I have commanded you and you shall eat in your gates whatever your being desires.

22 Even as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you shall eat them: the unclean and the clean man shall eat of them alike.

23 Only be sure that you eat not the dahm: for the dahm is the chayim; and you may not eat the chayim with the meat.

24 You shall not eat it; you shall pour it upon the earth as mayim.

25 You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in the sight of אלהים.

26 Only your kadosh things which you have and your vows, you shall take and go to the place which אלהים chose:

27 And you shall offer your burnt offerings, the meat and the dahm, upon the altar of אלהים your Ahlohim: and the dahm of your sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of אלהים your Ahlohim and you shall eat the meat.

28 Shomer and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you le-olam-va-ed, when you do that which is tov and right in the sight of אלהים your Ahlohim.

29 When אלהים your Ahlohim shall cut off the goyim from before you, that you are going to possess and you dispossess them and dwell in their land;

30 Guard yourself that you are not ensnared by following them, after they are destroyed from before you; and that you inquire not after their ahlohim , saying, How did these goyim serve their ahlohim? Even so will I do too.

31 You shall not do so to אלהים your Ahlohim: for every abomination to אלהים, that He hates, have they done to their ahlohim ; for even their sons and their daughters they have burned in the fire to their ahlohim.

32 Whatever I am commanding you, shomer to do it: you shall not add to it, nor take away from it.

13 If there arises among you a navi, or a dreamer of dreams and gives you an ot, or a wonder,

2 And the ot, or the wonders come to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, Let us go after other ahlohim, which you have not known and let us serve them;

3 You shall not listen to the words of that navi, or that dreamer of dreams: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim tests you, to know whether you love אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim with all your lev and with all your being.

4 You shall have your halacha after אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and fear Him and shomer His mitzvoth and obey His voice and you shall serve Him and cleave to Him.

5 And that navi, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he has spoken to turn you away from אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitzrayim and redeemed you out of the bayit of avdooth, in order to draw you away from the halacha that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim commanded you to have. So shall you put the evil away from the midst of you.

6 If your brother, the son of your eema, or your son, or your daughter, or the isha of your bosom, or your chaver, which is as your own being, entices you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other ahlohim, whom you have not known, you, nor your ahvot;

7 Namely, of the ahlohim of the people who are all around you, near to you, or far off from you, from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth;

8 You shall not agree with him, or listen to him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him:

9 But you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first upon him to put him to death and afterwards the hand of all the people.

10 And you shall stone him with stones, that he die; because he has sought to tear you away from אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitzrayim, from the bayit of avdooth.

11 And kol Yisrael shall hear and fear and shall do no more any such wickedness as this among you.

12 If you shall hear someone from one of your cities, that אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim has given you to dwell in, saying,

13 Certain men, the children of Belial, have gone out from among you and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other ahlohim, whom you have not known;

14 Then shall you inquire and search and ask diligently; and, see, if it is emet and if the thing is certain, that such abomination is done among you;

15 You shall surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly and all that is in it and the cattle of it, with the edge of the sword.

16 And you shall gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street and shall burn with fire the city and all the spoil of it, for אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim: and it shall be a heap le-olam-va-ed; it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall cleave none of the cursed thing to your hand: so that אִתְּךָ may turn from the fierceness of His anger and show you rachamim and have rachamim upon you and multiply you, as He has sworn to your ahvot;

18 When you shall listen to the voice of אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim, to shomer all His mitzvoth that I command you this yom, to do that which is tzadik in the eyes of אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim.

14 You are the children of אִתְּךָ your Ahlohim: you shall not cut yourselves, nor shave between your eyes for the dead.

2 For you are a kadosh people to אלהים your Ahlohim and אלהים has chosen you to be a treasured possession, a people for Himself, above all the goyim that are upon the earth.

3 You shall not eat any abominable thing.

4 These are the beasts that you shall eat: the ox, the sheep and the goat,

5 The deer and the gazelle and the fallow deer and the wild goat and the har goat and the wild ox and the har sheep.

6 And every beast that parts the hoof and splits the hoof in two and chews the cud are among the beasts that you shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that split the hoof; like the camel and the hare and the rabbit: for they chew the cud, but split not the hoof; therefore they are unclean to you.

8 And the swine because it parts the hoof, yet chews not the cud, it is unclean to you: you shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead gooff.

9 These you shall eat of all that are in the mayim: all that have fins and scales shall you eat:

10 And whatever has not fins and scales you may not eat; it is unclean to you.

11 Of all clean birds you shall eat.

12 But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle and the vulture and the black vulture,

13 And the red kite and the falcon and the buzzard after their kinds,

14 And every raven after its kind.

15 And the ostrich and the nighthawk and the seagull and the hawk after its kind,

16 The little owl and the great owl and the white owl,

17 And the pelican and the carrion vulture and the fisher owl,

18 And the stork and the heron after its kind and the lapwing and the bat.

19 And every creeping thing that flies is unclean to you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean birds you may eat.

21 You shall not eat of anything that dies by itself: you shall give it to the ger that is in your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to an alien: for you are a kadosh people to אלהיך your Ahlohim. You shall not cook a kid in its eema's milk.

22 You shall truly give ma'aser of all the increase of your zera that the field brings forth year by year.

23 And you shall eat before אלהיך your Ahlohim, in the place that He chose to place His Name there, the ma'aser of your grain, of your wine and of your oil and the bechorot of your herds and of your flocks; that you may learn to fear אלהיך your Ahlohim always.

24 And if the derech is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it; or if the place is too far from you, where אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen to set His Name, when אלהיך your Ahlohim has blessed you:

25 Then shall you turn it into money and bind up the money in your hand and shall go to the place which אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen:

26 And you shall bestow that money for whatever your being desires after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your being desires: and you shall eat there before אלהיך your Ahlohim and you shall gilah, you and your household,

27 And the Lewi that is within your gates; you shall not forsake; for he has no part, or inheritance with you.

28 At the end of three years you shall bring forth all the ma'aser of your increase the same year and shall lay it up within your gates:

29 And the Lewi, (because he has no part nor inheritance with you,) and the ger and the fatherless and the widow, which are within your gates, shall come and shall eat and be satisfied; that אלהים your Ahlohim may bless you in all the work of your hands which you do.

15 At the end of every seven years you shall make a release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lends anything to his neighbor shall release it; he shall not require it from his neighbor, or from his brother; because it is called אלהים 's release.

3 From a foreigner you may exact it again: but that which is yours with your brother your hand shall release;

4 There shall be no poor among you; for אלהים shall greatly bless you in the land which אלהים your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance to possess:

5 Only if you carefully listen to the voice of אלהים your Ahlohim, to shomer and to do all these mitzvoth which I command you this yom.

6 For אלהים your Ahlohim will bless you, as He promised you: and you shall lend to many goyim, but you shall not borrow; and you shall reign over many goyim, but they shall not reign over you.

7 If there is among you a poor man of one of your brothers within any of your gates in your land which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you, you shall not harden your lev, nor shut your hand from your poor brother:

8 But you shall open your hand wide to him and shall surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he needs.

9 Beware that there is not a thought of Bely-al in your lev, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and your eye be evil against your poor brother and you give him no release; and he cries to אֱלֹהִים against you and it becomes sin for you.

10 You shall surely give him the release and your lev shall not be grieved when you give it to him: because for this thing אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim shall bless you in all your works and in all that you put your hand to undertake.

11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command you, saying, You shall open your hand wide to your brother, to your poor and to your needy, in your land.

12 And if your brother, an Ivri man, or an Ivri woman, is sold to you and serves you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you.

13 And when you send him out free from you, you shall not let him go away empty-handed:

14 You shall furnish him liberally out of your flock and out of your floor and out of your winepress: of that which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has blessed you, you shall give to him.

15 And you shall remember that you were an eved in the land of Mitzrayim and אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim redeemed you: therefore I command you this thing today.

16 And it shall be, if he says to you, I will not go away from you; because he loves you and your bayit because he fares well with you;

17 Then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear to the door and he shall be your eved le-olam-va-ed. And also to your female eved you shall do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard to you, when you send him away free from you; for he has been worth twice as much as a hired eved to you, in serving you six years: and אלהיך your Ahlohim shall bless you in all that you do.

19 All the bachor males that come from your herd and from your flock you shall set it apart to אלהיך your Ahlohim: you shall do no work with the bachor of your herd, nor shear the bachor of your sheep.

20 You shall eat it before אלהיך your Ahlohim year by year in the place that אלהיך has chosen, you and your household.

21 And if there is any blemish in it, such as if it is lame, or blind, or has any ill blemish, you shall not sacrifice it to אלהיך your Ahlohim.

22 You shall eat it within your gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the gazelle and as the deer.

23 Only you shall not eat the dahm of it; you shall pour it upon the ground as mayim.

16 Shomer the chodesh of The Aviv-OT, and shomer the Pesach to אלהיך your Ahlohim: for in the chodesh of Aviv אלהיך your Ahlohim brought you forth out of Mitzrayim by lyla.

2 You shall therefore sacrifice the Pesach to אלהיך your Ahlohim, from the flock and the herd, in the place that אלהיך has chosen to place His Name.

3 You shall eat no leavened lechem with it; seven yamim shall you eat matzah with it, even the lechem of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Mitzrayim in haste: that you may remember the yom when you came forth out of the land of Mitzrayim all the yamim of your chayim.

4 And there shall be no leavened lechem seen with you in all your borders seven yamim; neither shall any of the meat, which you sacrificed the first yom at evening, remain all lyla until the boker.

5 You may not sacrifice the Pesach within any of your gates, which אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you:

6 But at the place that אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen to place His Name, there you shall sacrifice the Pesach at evening, at the going down of the shemesh, at the season that you came forth out of Mitzrayim.

7 And you shall roast and eat it in the place that אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen: and you shall return in the boker and go to your tents.

8 Six yamim you shall eat matzah: and on the seventh yom shall be a miqra kodesh to אלהיך your Ahlohim: you shall do no work in it.

9 Seven whole weeks shall you number: begin to number the seven whole weeks from such time as you begin to put the sickle to the grain.

10 And you shall shomer the Chag Shavuot to אלהיך your Ahlohim with a tribute of a terumah offering from your hand, which you shall give to אלהיך your Ahlohim, according to how אלהיך your Ahlohim has blessed you:

11 And you shall gilah before אלהיך your Ahlohim, you and your son and your daughter and your male eved and your female eved and the Lewi that is within your gates and the ger and the fatherless and the widow, that are among you, in the place which אלהיך your Ahlohim has chosen to place His Name.

12 And you shall remember that you were an eved in Mitzrayim: and you shall shomer and do these chukim.

13 You shall shomer Chag Sukkot seven yamim, after you have gathered in your grain and your wine:

14 And you shall gilah in your chag, you and your son and your daughter and your male eved and your female eved and the Lewi, the ger and the fatherless and the widow, that are within your gates.

15 Seven yamim shall you shomer a solemn chag to אלהיך your Ahlohim in the place which אלהיך has chosen: because אלהיך your Ahlohim shall bless you in all your increase and in all the works of your hands, therefore you shall surely gilah.

16 Three times in a year shall all your males appear before אלהיך your Ahlohim in the place which He has chosen; at Chag Matzoth and at Chag Shavuot and at Chag Sukkot: and they shall not appear before אלהיך empty-handed:

17 Every man shall give, as he is able; according to the bracha of אלהיך your Ahlohim; that He has given you.

18 Shophtim and officers shall you appoint in all your gates, which אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you, throughout your tribes: and they shall judge the people with just mishpat.

19 You shall not distort mishpat; you shall not respect persons, neither take a bribe: for a bribe does blind the eyes of the wise and pervert the words of the tzadik.

20 That which is fully just shall you follow, that you may live and inherit the land that אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you.

21 You shall not plant a grove of any eytzim near the altar of אלהיך your Ahlohim, which you shall make.

22 Neither shall you set up any pillar; which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim hates.

17 You shall not sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim any bull, or sheep, in which there is a blemish, or any evil matter: for that is an abomination to אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

2 If there is found among you, within any of your gates which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you, man, or woman, that has done wickedness in the sight of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, in transgressing His brit,

3 And has gone and served other ahlohim and worshipped them, either the shemesh, or yarayach, or any of the host of the shamayim, which I have not commanded;

4 And it is told to you and you have heard of it and inquired diligently and it is emet and the thing is certain, that such abomination is done in Yisrael.

5 Then shall you bring forth that man, or that woman, that has committed that wicked thing, to your gates, even that man, or that woman and shall stone them with stones, until they die.

6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death and afterward the hands of all the people. So you shall put the evil away from among you.

8 If there arises a matter too hard for you in mishpat, between dahm and dahm, between a lawsuit and another, between an assault or another, being matters of controversy within your gates: then shall you arise and get up into the place which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has chosen;

9 And you shall come to the kohanim the Lewiym and to the shophet that shall be in those yamim and inquire; and they shall show you the sentence of mishpat:

10 And you shall do according to the sentence, which they of that place which אִיִּזְרָאֵל has chosen shall show you; and you shall shomer to do according to all that they inform you:

11 According to the verdict of the Torah that they shall teach you and according to the mishpat that they shall tell you, you shall do: you shall not decline from the ruling which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 And the man that will do arrogantly and will not listen to the kohen that stands to attend there before אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim, or to the shophet, even that man shall die: and you shall put away the evil from Yisrael.

13 And all the people shall hear and fear and not do arrogantly.

14 When you are come to the land that אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim gives you and shall possess it and shall dwell in it and shall say, I will set a melech over me, like all the goyim that are around me;

15 You shall certainly set a melech over you, whom אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim shall choose: one from among your brothers shall you set as melech over you: you may not set a ger over you, who is not your brother.

16 But he must not multiply horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Mitzrayim, so that he can multiply horses: because as אִיִּזְרָאֵל has said to you, You shall not return anymore that derech.

17 Neither shall he multiply women to himself, so that his lev turns not away: neither shall he greatly multiply for himself silver and gold.

18 And it shall be, when he sits upon the kesay of his malchut, that he shall write himself a copy of this

Torah in a scroll out of that which is before the kohanim the Lewiym:

19 And it shall be with him and he shall read it all the yamim of his chayim: that he may learn to fear אלהים his Ahlohim, to shomer all the Words of this Torah and these chukim, to do them:

20 That his lev may not be lifted up above his brothers and that he may not turn aside from the mitzvah, to the right hand, or to the left: to the end that he may prolong his yamim in his malchut, he and his children, in the midst of Yisrael.

18 The kohanim the Lewiym and all the tribe of Lewi, shall have no part, or inheritance with Yisrael: they shall eat the offerings of אלהים made by fire and His inheritance.

2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers: אלהים is their inheritance, as He has said to them.

3 And this shall be the kohen's due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox, or sheep; and they shall give to the kohen the thigh and the two cheeks and the stomach.

4 The bikkurim also of your grain, of your wine and of your oil and the first of the fleece of your sheep, shall you give him.

5 For אלהים your Ahlohim has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to attend in the Name of אלהים: him and his sons le-olam-va-ed.

6 And if a Lewi comes from any of your gates out of kol Yisrael, where he sojourned and comes with all the desire of his mind to the place that אלהים has chosen;

7 Then he shall attend in the Name of אלהים his Ahlohim, as all his brothers the Lewiym do, who stand there before אלהים.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which comes from the sale of his inheritance.

9 When you have come into the land that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those goyim.

10 There shall not be found among you anyone that makes his son, or his daughter to pass through the fire, or that uses divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch.

11 Or, a spell caster, or a consulter with familiar ruachim, or a wizard, or one who calls up the dead.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם : and because of these abominations אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim does drive them out from before you.

13 You shall be perfect with אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim.

14 For these goyim, which you shall possess, listened to observers of times and to diviners: but as for you, אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim has not allowed you to do so.

15 אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim will raise up to you a Navi from the midst of you, from your brothers, like me; to Him you shall listen;

16 According to all that you desired of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Ahlohim in Horev in the yom of the kehilla, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם my Ahlohim, neither let me see this great fire anymore, that I die not.

17 And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם said to me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 I will raise them up a Navi from among their brothers, like you and will put My Words in His mouth; and He shall speak to them all that I shall command Him.

19 And it shall come to pass, that whoever will not listen to My Words that He shall speak in My Name, I will require it of him.

20 But the navi, who shall presume to speak a word in My Name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other ahlohim, even that navi shall die.

21 And if you say in your lev, How shall we know the word that אֱלֹהִים has not spoken?

22 When a navi speaks in the Name of אֱלֹהִים, if the thing follows not, nor comes to pass, that is the thing which אֱלֹהִים has not spoken, but the navi has spoken it presumptuously: you shall not be afraid of him.

Torah Parsha 44 Shavuah-Week 44-Ki Yachrit
Devarim-Deuteronomy chapters 19-22. Renewed
Covenant Ephesiyah-Ephesians chapters 1-6.

- 19 When אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has cut off the goyim, whose land אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses;
- 2 You shall separate three cities for yourselves in the midst of your land, which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you to possess.
- 3 You shall prepare a derech and divide the coasts of your land, which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you to inherit, into three parts, that every killer may flee there.
- 4 And this is the case of the killer, who shall flee there, that he may live: Whoever kills his neighbor ignorantly, whom he hated not in times past;
- 5 As when a man goes into the woods with his neighbor to cut wood and his hand swings with the axe to cut down the eytz and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbor, so that he dies; he shall flee to one of those cities and live:

6 Lest the revenger of the dahm pursue the killer, while his lev is hot and overtakes him because the derech is long and slays him; whereas he was not worthy of death because he hated him not in times past.

7 Therefore I commanded you, saying, You shall separate three cities for yourselves.

8 And if אֶרְצְךָ your Ahlohim enlarges your coast, as He has sworn to your ahvot and gives you all the land that He promised to give to your ahvot;

9 If you shall shomer all these mitzvot to do them, which I command you this yom, to love אֶרְצְךָ your Ahlohim and to have your halacha always in His halachot; then shall you add three cities more for yourselves, besides these three:

10 That innocent dahm be not shed in your land, which אֶרְצְךָ your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance, so that dahm be upon you.

11 But if any man hates his neighbor and lies in wait for him and rises up against him and smites him so that he dies and flees into one of these cities:

12 Then the zechanim of his city shall send and fetch him there and deliver him into the hand of the revenger of dahm that he may die.

13 Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the guilt of innocent dahm from Yisrael, that it may go well with you.

14 You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which those of past times have set in your inheritance, which you shall inherit in the land that אֶרְצְךָ your Ahlohim gives you to possess.

15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.

16 If a false witness rises up against any man to testify against him, that which is wrong;

17 Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before אִיִּאז, before the kohanim and the shophtim, who shall serve in those yamim;

18 And the shophtim shall make diligent inquiry: and, see, if the witness is a false witness and has testified falsely against his brother;

19 Then shall you do to him, as he had thought to have done to his brother: so shall you put the evil away from among you.

20 And those who remain shall hear and fear and shall commit no more any such evil among you.

21 And your eye shall not pity; but chayim shall go for chayim, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20 When you go out to battle against your enemies and see horses and mirkavot and a people more than you, be not afraid of them: for אִיִּאז your Ahlohim is with you, who brought you up out of the land of Mitzrayim.

2 And it shall be, when you come near to the battle, that the kohen shall approach and speak to the people,

3 And shall say to them, Shema Yisrael, you approach this yom to battle against your enemies: let not your levavot faint, fear not and do not tremble, neither be terrified because of them;

4 For אִיִּאז your Ahlohim is He that goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 And the officers shall speak to the people saying, What man is there that has built a new bayit and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his bayit, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that has planted a vineyard and has not yet eaten of it? Let him also go and return to his bayit, lest he die in the battle and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there that has engaged an isha and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his bayit, lest he die in the battle and another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further to the people and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his bayit, lest his brother's lev faint as well as his lev.

9 And it shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people that they shall make captains of the armies to lead the people.

10 When you come near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim shalom to it.

11 And it shall be, if it gives you an answer of shalom and opens to you, then it shall be, that all the people that are found in it shall be compulsory labor to you and they shall serve you.

12 And if it will make no shalom with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it:

13 And when אִיִּי your Ahlohim has delivered it into your hands, you shall smite every male in it with the edge of the sword:

14 But the women and the little ones and the cattle and all that is in the city, even all the spoil in it, shall you take for yourself; and you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which אִיִּי your Ahlohim has given you.

15 This shall you do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these goyim.

16 But of the cities of these people, which אִיִּי your Ahlohim does give you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes:

17 But you shall utterly destroy them; namely, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Kanaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Yevusites; as אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has commanded you:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their ahlohim; so do not sin against אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

19 When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy the eytzim in it by wielding an axe against them: for you may eat of them and you shall not cut them down for the eytz of the field is man's chayim to use them in the siege:

20 Only the eytzim that you know that they are not eytzim for food, you shall destroy and cut them down; and you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it falls.

21 If one is found slain in the land which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you to possess, lying in the field and it is not known who has slain him:

2 Then your zechanim and your shophtim shall come forth and they shall measure the distance to the cities, which are around him, that is slain:

3 And it shall be, that the city that is next to the slain man, even the zechanim of that city shall take a heifer, which has not been worked and which has not drawn in the yoke;

4 And the zechanim of that city shall bring down the heifer to a rough valley, which is neither plowed nor sown and shall cut off the heifer's neck there in the valley:

5 And the kohanim, the sons of Lewi, shall come near - for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has chosen them to attend to Him and to bless in the Name of אֱלֹהִים; and by their word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried.

6 And all the zechanim of that city, that are next to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this dahm, neither have our eyes seen it.

8 Atone, O אֱלֹהִים, for Your people Yisrael, whom You have redeemed and lay not innocent dahm to Your people Yisrael's charge. And the dahm shall be forgiven them.

9 So shall you put away the guilt of innocent dahm from among you, when you shall do that which is right in the sight of אֱלֹהִים.

10 When you go forth to war against your enemies and אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has delivered them into your hands and you have taken them captive,

11 And see among the captives a beautiful woman and have a desire for her, that you would have her to be your isha;

12 Then you shall bring her home to your bayit and she shall shave her head and trim her nails;

13 And she shall put off the garment of her captivity and shall remain in your bayit and bewail her abba and her eema a full chodesh: and after that you shall go in to her and be her husband and she shall be your isha.

14 And it shall be, if you have no delight in her, then you shall let her go where she will; but you shall not sell her at all for money, you shall not make merchandise of her because you have humbled her.

15 If a man has two wives, one beloved and another hated and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the bachor son be hers that was hated:

16 Then it shall be, when he makes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not give preference to the son of the beloved isha before the son of the hated, who is indeed the bachor:

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated as the bachor, by giving him a double portion of all that he has: for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the bachor is his.

18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his abba, or the voice of his eema and that, when they have disciplined him, will not listen to them:

19 Then shall his abba and his eema lay hold on him and bring him out to the zechanim of his city and to the gate of his place;

20 And they shall say to the zechanim of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

21 Then all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, so that he dies: so shall you put evil away from among you; and kol Yisrael shall hear and fear.

22 And if a man has committed a sin worthy of death, then he shall be put to death and you shall hang him on an eytz:

23 His gooff shall not remain all lyla upon the eytz, but you shall bury him that yom; for he that is hanged is cursed-[arur] by Ahlohim; that your land is not defiled, which ארצך your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance.

22 You shall not see your brother's ox, or his sheep go astray and hide yourself from them: you shall without fail bring them again to your brother.
2 And if your brother is not near to you, or if you know him not, then you shall bring it to your own bayit and it shall be with you until your brother seeks after it and you shall restore it to him again.
3 In like manner shall you do with his donkey; and so shall you do with his garment; and with all lost things of your brother's, which he has lost and you have found, shall you do likewise: you may not hide yourself.

4 You shall not see your brother's donkey, or his ox fall down by the derech and hide yourself from them: you shall surely help him to lift them up again.

5 The woman shall not wear that which pertains to a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are an abomination to אִתְּכֶם your Ahlohim.

6 If a bird's nest by chance is before you in the derech in any eytz, or on the ground, with young ones, or eggs and the eema is sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, you shall not take the eema with the young:

7 But you shall in any case let the eema go and take the young for yourself; that it may be well with you and that you may prolong your yamim.

8 When you build a new bayit, then you shall make a guard rail for your roof, that you bring not dahm upon your bayit, if any man falls from there.

9 You shall not sow your vineyard with different zera: lest the fruit of your zera that you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard, be defiled and forfeited.

10 You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together.

11 You shall not wear a garment of different sorts, as of wool and linen together.

12 You shall make for yourself tzitzit upon the four corners of your garment, with which you cover yourself.

13 If any man takes an isha and goes in to her and hates her,

14 And makes abusive charges against her and brings up an evil name upon her and says, I took this woman and when I came to her, I found her not a virgin:

15 Then shall The Abba of the damsel and her eema, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity to the zechanim of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's abba shall say to the zechanim, I gave my daughter to this man to be an isha and he hates her;

17 And, see, he has made an accusation against her, saying, I found not your daughter a virgin; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the zechanim of the city.

18 And the zechanim of that city shall take that man and discipline him;

19 And they shall fine him one hundred shekels of silver and give them to The Abba of the damsel because he has brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Yisrael: and she shall be his isha; he may not put her away all his yamim.

20 But if this thing is emet and the tokens of virginity are not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her abba's bayit and the men of her city shall stone her with stones so that she dies: because she has done folly in Yisrael, to play the whore in her abba's bayit: so shall you put evil away from among you.

22 If a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both die, both the man that lay with the woman and the woman: so shall you put away evil from Yisrael.

23 If a damsel that is a virgin is engaged to a husband and a man finds her in the city and lies with her;

24 Then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city and you shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel because she cried not, being in the city; and the man because he has humbled his neighbor's isha: so you shall put away evil from among you.

25 But if a man finds an engaged damsel in the field and the man forces her and lies with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die.

26 But to the damsel you shall do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbor and slays him, even so is this matter:

27 For he found her in the field and the engaged damsel cried and there was none to save her.

28 If a man finds a damsel that is a virgin, who is not engaged and lays hold of her and lies with her and they are found;

29 Then the man that lay with her shall give to the damsel's abba fifty shekels of silver and she shall be his isha; because he has humbled her, he may not put her away all his yamim.

30 A man shall not take his abba's isha, nor discover his abba's skirt.

Torah Parsha 45 Shavuah-Week 45-Yikach Devarim
Deuteronomy chapters 23-26. Renewed Covenant
Philipsiyah-Philippians chapters 1-4.

23 He that is wounded in the private male parts, or has his private member cut off, shall not enter into the kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל.

2 A bastard shall not enter into the kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל.

3 An Ammonite, or Moavite shall not enter into the kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל le-olam-va-ed:

4 Because they met you not with lechem and with mayim on the derech, when you came forth out of Mitzrayim; and because they hired Bilam the son of Beor of Pethor of Mesopotamia against you, to curse you.

5 Nevertheless אָהֳלֵיכֶם your Ahlohim would not listen to Bilam; but אָהֳלֵיכֶם your Ahlohim turned the curse into a bracha for you because אָהֳלֵיכֶם your Ahlohim loved you.

6 You shall not seek their shalom nor their prosperity all your yamim le-olam-va-ed.

7 You shall not abhor an Edomite; for he is your brother: you shall not abhor a Mitzri; because you were a ger in his land.

8 The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the kehilla of אָהֳלֵיכֶם in their third generation.

9 When your army goes forth against your enemies, then guard yourself from every wicked thing.

10 If there is among you any man, that is not clean by reason of emission at lyla, then shall he go abroad out of the camp, he shall not come within the camp:

11 But it shall be, when evening comes, he shall wash himself with mayim: and when the shemesh is down, he shall come into the camp again.

12 You shall have a place also outside the camp, where you shall go forth abroad:

13 And you shall have a paddle upon your weapon; and it shall be, when you will ease yourself outside, you shall dig there and shall turn and cover your excrement:

14 For אָהֳלֵיכֶם your Ahlohim walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and to give up your enemies before you; therefore shall your camp be kadosh: that He sees no unclean thing in you and turns away from you.

15 You shall not deliver back to his master the eved who has escaped from his master to you:

16 He shall dwell with you, even among you, in that place which he shall choose in one of your gates, where it suits him best: you shall not oppress him.

17 There shall be no whore of the daughters of Yisrael, nor a sodomite of the sons of Yisrael.

18 You shall not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the Bayit of אלהים your Ahlohim for any vow: for even both these are abominations to אלהים your Ahlohim.

19 You shall not lend with interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of food, interest of any thing that is lent upon interest:

20 Unto a ger you may lend with interest; but to your brother you shall not lend with interest: that אלהים your Ahlohim may bless you in all that you set your hand to, in the land which you are going to possess.

21 When you shall vow a vow to אלהים your Ahlohim, you shall not be slack to pay it: for אלהים your Ahlohim will surely require it of you; and it would be sin to you.

22 But if you shall abstain to vow, there shall be no sin in you.

23 That which is gone out of your lips you shall shomer and perform; even a terumah offering, according as you have vowed to אלהים your Ahlohim, which you have promised with your mouth.

24 When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat grapes to your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel.

25 When you come into the standing grain of your neighbor, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not use a sickle for your neighbor's standing grain.

24 When a man has taken an isha and married her and it comes to pass that she finds no chen in his eyes because he has found some uncleanness in her: then let him write her a Sefer Keritut and put it in her hand and send her out of his bayit.

2 And when she is departed out of his bayit, she may go and be another man's isha.

3 And if the latter husband hates her and writes her a Sefer Keritut and puts it in her hand and sends her out of his bayit; or if the latter husband dies, who took her to be his isha;

4 Her former husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his isha, after she is defiled; for that is abomination before אלהים: and you shall not cause the land to sin, which אלהים your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance.

5 When a man has taken a new isha, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year and shall cheer up his isha which he has taken.

6 No man shall take the mill, or the upper millstone as a pledge: for he takes a man's chayim as a pledge.

7 If a man is found kidnapping any of his brothers of the children of Yisrael and makes merchandise of him, or sells him; then that thief shall die; and you shall put evil away from among you.

8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that you shomer diligently and do according to all that the kohanim the Lewiym shall teach you: as I commanded them, so you shall shomer to do.

9 Remember what אלהים your Ahlohim did to Miryam in the derech, after you had come forth out of Mitzrayim.

10 When you lend your brother anything, you shall not go into his bayit to get his pledge.

11 You shall stand outside and the man to whom you do lend shall bring the pledge outside to you.

12 And if the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his pledge:

13 In any case you shall deliver to him the pledge again when the shemesh goes down, that he may sleep in his own garment and bless you: and it shall be tzedakah to you before אלהים your Ahlohim.

14 You shall not oppress a hired eved that is poor and needy, whether he is of your brothers, or of your gerim that are in your land within your gates:

15 Daily you shall give him his wages, neither shall the shemesh go down upon it; for he is poor and sets his lev upon it: lest he cries against you to אלהים and it is sin to you.

16 The ahvot shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the ahvot: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

17 You shall not pervert the mishpat of the ger, nor of the fatherless; nor take a widow's garment:

18 But you shall remember that you were an eved in Mitzrayim and אלהים your Ahlohim redeemed you there: therefore I command you to do this thing.

19 When you cut down your harvest in your field and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it: it shall be for the ger, for the fatherless and for the widow: that אלהים your Ahlohim may bless you in all the work of your hands.

20 When you beat your olive eytz, you shall not examine the branch behind you: it shall be for the ger, for the fatherless and for the widow.

21 When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not glean it afterward: it shall be for the ger, for the fatherless and for the widow.

22 And you shall remember that you were an eved in the land of Mitzrayim: therefore I command you to do this thing.

25 If there is a controversy between men and they come for mishpat, that the shophtim may judge them; then they shall justify the tzadik and condemn the wicked.

2 And it shall be, if the wicked man is worthy to be beaten, that the shophet shall cause him to lie down and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

3 Forty stripes he may give him and not more: lest, if he should continue to beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother should be degraded before you.

4 You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain.

5 If brothers dwell together and one of them dies and has no child, the isha of the dead shall not marry a ger: her husband's brother shall go in to her and take her to himself as an isha and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her.

6 And it shall be, that the bachor whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother that is dead, that his name be not put out of Yisrael.

7 And if the man does not like to take his brother's isha, then let his brother's isha go up to the gate to the zechanim and say, My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Yisrael, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.

8 Then the zechanim of his city shall call him and speak to him: and if he persists and says, I desire not to take her;

9 Then shall his brother's isha come to him in the presence of the zechanim and loose his shoe from off his foot and spit in his face and shall answer and say, So shall it be done to that man that will not build up his brother's bayit.

10 And his name shall be called in Yisrael, The bayit of him that has his shoe loosed.

11 When men strive together one with another and the isha of the one draws near to deliver her husband out of the hand of the one that smites him and puts forth her hand and takes him by the private parts:

12 Then you shall cut off her hand, your eye shall not pity her.

13 You shall not have in your bag different weights, a great and a small.

14 You shall not have in your bayit different measures, a great and a small.

15 But you shall have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shall you have: that your yamim may be lengthened in the land that אלהים your Ahlohim gives you.

16 For all that do such things and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination to אלהים your Ahlohim.

17 Remember what Amalek did to you in the derech, when you came out of Mitzrayim;

18 How he met you by the derech and attacked your rear, even all that were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he feared not Ahlohim.

19 Therefore it shall be, when אלהים your Ahlohim has given you rest from all your enemies all around, in the land which אלהים your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance to possess, that you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the shamayim; you shall not forget to do it.

26 And it shall be, when you come in to the land that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you for an inheritance and possess it and dwell in it;

2 That you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which you shall bring from your land that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you and shall put it in a basket and shall go to the place which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has chosen to place His Name.

3 And you shall go to the kohen that shall be in those yamim and say to him, I profess this yom to אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, that I am come to the country which אֱלֹהִים swore to our ahvot to give us.

4 And the kohen shall take the basket out of your hand and set it down before the altar of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

5 And you shall speak and say before אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, An Aramean was ready to destroy my abba; and he went down into Mitzrayim and sojourned there with a few and became there a nation, great, mighty and populous:

6 And the Mitzrim treated us wickedly and afflicted us and laid upon us hard avdooth:

7 And when we cried to אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of our ahvot, אֱלֹהִים heard our voice and looked on our affliction and our labor and our oppression:

8 And אֱלֹהִים brought us forth out of Mitzrayim with a mighty hand and with an outstretched Arm and with great fear and with signs and with wonders:

9 And He has brought us into this place and has given us this land, even a land that flows with milk and honey.

10 And now, see, I have brought the bikkurim of the land, which you, O אֱלֹהִים, have given me. And you shall set it before אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and worship before אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim:

11 And you shall gilah in every tov thing that אלהים your Ahlohim has given to you and to your bayit, you and the Lewi and the ger that is among you.

12 When you have made an end of tithing all the ma'aser of your increase the third year, which is the year of tithing and have given it to the Lewi, the ger, the fatherless and the widow, that they may eat within your gates and be filled;

13 Then you shall say before אלהים your Ahlohim, I have brought away the kadosh things out of my bayit and also have given them to the Lewite and to the ger, to the fatherless and to the widow, according to all your mitzvoth which you have commanded me: I have not transgressed your mitzvoth, neither have I forgotten them.

14 I have not eaten any of it in my mourning, neither have I taken away any of it for any unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead: but I have listened to the voice of אלהים my Ahlohim and have done according to all that you have commanded me.

15 Look down from your kadosh dwelling, from the shamayim and bless your people Yisrael and the land that you have given us, as You swore to our ahvot, a land that flows with milk and honey.

16 This yom אלהים your Ahlohim has commanded you to do these chukim and mishpatim: you shall therefore shomer and do them with all your lev and with all your being.

17 You have caused אלהים this yom to be your Ahlohim and to have your halacha in His halachot and to shomer His chukim and His mitzvoth and His mishpatim and to listen to His voice:

18 And אלהים has caused you this yom to be His treasured people, as He has promised you and that you should shomer all His mitzvoth;

19 And to make you high above all goyim that He has made, in tehilla and in name and in kavod; and that you may be a kadosh people to אלהיך your Ahlohim, as He has spoken.

Torah Parsha 46 Shavuah-Week 46-Vayitzav
Devarim-Deuteronomy chapters 27-30. Renewed
Covenant Qolesayah-Colossians chapters 1-4.

- 27 And Moshe with the zechanim of Yisrael commanded the people, saying, Shomer all of the mitzvah that I command you this yom.
- 2 And it shall be on the yom when you shall pass over the Yarden to the land which אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you, that you shall set up great stones and plaster them with plaster:
- 3 And you shall write upon them all the Words of this Torah, when you have passed over, that you may go in to the land that אלהיך your Ahlohim gives you, a land that flows with milk and honey, as אלהיך Ahlohim of your ahvot has promised you.
- 4 Therefore it shall be when you have gone over Yarden, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this yom, in Har Gerazim and you shall plaster them with plaster.
- 5 And there shall you build an altar to אלהיך your Ahlohim, an altar of stones: you shall not lift up any iron tool upon them.
- 6 You shall build the altar of אלהיך your Ahlohim of whole stones: and you shall offer burnt offerings on it to אלהיך your Ahlohim:
- 7 And you shall offer shalom offerings and shall eat there and gilah before אלהיך your Ahlohim.
- 8 And you shall write upon the stones all the Words of this Torah very plainly.
- 9 And Moshe and the kohanim the Lewiym spoke to kol Yisrael, saying, Take heed and listen, O Yisrael;

this yom you have become the people of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

10 You shall therefore obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and do His mitzvoth and His chukim, which I command you this yom.

11 And Moshe charged the people the same yom, saying,

12 These tribes shall stand upon Har Gerazim to bless the people, when you go over Yarden; Shimon and Lewi and Yahudah and Yissachar and Yoseph and Benyamin:

13 And these tribes shall stand upon Har Eival to curse; Reuven, Gad and Asher and Zevulon, Dan and Naphtali.

14 And the Lewiym shall speak and say to all the men of Yisrael with a loud voice, 15 Cursed is the man that makes any graven, or molded image, an abomination to אֱלֹהִים, the work of the hands of the craftsman and puts it in a secret place. And all the people shall answer and say, Ahmein.

16 Cursed is he that makes fun of and dishonors his abba, or his eema. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

17 Cursed is he that removes his neighbor's landmark. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

18 Cursed is he that makes the blind to wander out of the derech. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

19 Cursed is he that perverts the mishpat of the ger, fatherless and widow. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

20 Cursed is he that lies with his abba's isha; because he uncovers his abba's skirt. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

21 Cursed is he that lies with any manner of beast. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

22 Cursed is he that lies with his sister, the daughter of his abba, or the daughter of his eema. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

23 Cursed is he that lies with his eema-in-law. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

24 Cursed is he that smites his neighbor secretly. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

25 Cursed is he that takes a reward to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

26 Cursed is he that confirms not all the Words of this Torah to do them. And all the people shall say, Ahmein.

28 And it shall come to pass, if you shall listen diligently to the voice of אלהים your Ahlohim, to shomer and to do all His mitzvoth which I command you this yom, that אלהים your Ahlohim will set you on high above all goyim of the earth:

2 And all these brachot shall come on you and overtake you, if you shall listen to the voice of אלהים your Ahlohim.

3 Blessed shall you be in the city and blessed shall you be in the field.

4 Blessed shall be the fruit of your gooff and the fruit of your ground and the fruit of your cattle, the increase of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep.

5 Blessed shall be your basket and your bowl.

6 Blessed shall you be when you come in and blessed shall you be when you go out.

7 אלהים shall cause your enemies that rise up against you to be smitten before your face: they shall come against you one derech and flee before you seven derachot.

8 אלהים shall command the blessing upon you in your storehouses and in all that you undertake; and

He shall bless you in the land that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim gives you.

9 אֱלֹהִים shall establish you as a kadosh people to Himself, as He has sworn to you, if you shall shomer the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and have your halacha in His halachot.

10 And all people of the earth shall see that you are called by the Name of אֱלֹהִים; and they shall be afraid of you.

11 And אֱלֹהִים shall make you have plenty in goods, in the fruit of your gooff and in the fruit of your cattle and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which אֱלֹהִים swore to your ahvot to give you.

12 אֱלֹהִים shall open to you His tov treasure, the shamayim to give the rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend to many goyim and you shall not borrow.

13 And אֱלֹהִים shall make you the head and not the tail; and you shall be above only and you shall not be beneath; if you listen to the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, which I command you this yom, to shomer and to do them:

14 And you shall not go aside from any of the words that I command you this yom, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other ahlohim to serve them.

15 But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, to shomer to do all His mitzvoth and His chukim that I command you this yom; that all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you:

16 Cursed shall you be in the city and cursed shall you be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be your basket and your bowl.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of your gooff and the fruit of your land, the increase of your cattle and the flocks of your sheep.

19 Cursed shall you be when you come in and cursed shall you be when you go out.

20 אֲרָאָה shall send upon you cursing, vexation and rebuke, in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly; because of the wickedness of your doings, by which you have forsaken Me.

21 אֲרָאָה shall make the pestilence cleave to you, until it has consumed you from off the land, which you are going to possess.

22 אֲרָאָה shall smite you with confusion and with a fever and with an inflammation and with an extreme burning and with the sword and with blight and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish.

23 And your shamayim that is over your head shall be brass and the earth that is under you shall be iron.

24 אֲרָאָה shall make the rain of your land powder and dust: from the shamayim shall it come down upon you, until you are destroyed.

25 אֲרָאָה shall cause you to be smitten before your enemies: you shall go out one derech against them and flee seven derachot before them: and shall be removed into all the malchutim of the earth.

26 And your gooff shall be food to all fowls of the air and to the beasts of the earth and no man shall frighten them away.

27 אֲרָאָה will smite you with the boils of Mitzrayim and with the tumors and with the scab and with the itch, of which you cannot be healed.

28 אֲרָאָה shall smite you with madness and blindness and astonishment of lev:

29 And you shall grope at noontday, as the blind gropes in darkness and you shall not prosper in your derachot: and you shall be only oppressed and spoiled all your yamim and no man shall save you.

30 You shall engage an isha and another man shall lie with her: you shall build a bayit and you shall not dwell in it: you shall plant a vineyard and shall not gather the grapes of it.

31 Your ox shall be slain before your eyes and you shall not eat of it: your donkey shall be violently taken away from before your face and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given to your enemies and you shall have none to rescue them.

32 Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people and your eyes shall look and fail with longing for them all the yom long; and there shall be no might in your hand.

33 The fruit of your land and all your labors, shall a nation that you know not eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always:

34 So that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes and what you shall see.

35 אֲרָמִי shall smite you in the knees and in the legs, with a sore boil that cannot be healed, from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

36 אֲרָמִי shall bring you and your melech which you shall set over you, to a nation which neither you nor your ahvot have known; and there shall you serve other ahlohim, of wood and stone.

37 And you shall become an astonishment, a mishle and a mockery, among all goyim where אֲרָמִי shall lead you.

38 You shall carry much zera out into the field and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it.

39 You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but shall neither drink of the wine, nor gather the grapes; for worms shall eat them.

40 You shall have olive eytzim throughout all your coasts, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives shall drop off.

41 You shall beget sons and daughters, but you shall not enjoy them; for they shall go into captivity.

42 All your eytzim and the fruit of your land shall the locusts consume.

43 The ger that is within you shall come up above you very high; and you shall come down very low.

44 He shall lend to you and you shall not lend to him: he shall be the head and you shall be the tail.

45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and shall pursue you and overtake you, until you are destroyed; because you listened not to the voice of אלהים your Ahlohim, to shomer His mitzvoth and His chukim which He commanded you:

46 And they shall be upon you for an ot and for a wonder and upon your zera le-olam-va-ed.

47 Because you did not serve אלהים your Ahlohim with simcha and with gilah of lev, for the abundance of all things;

48 Therefore shall you serve your enemies that אלהים shall send against you, in hunger and in thirst and in nakedness and in want of all things: and He shall put a yoke of iron upon your neck, until He has destroyed you.

49 אלהים shall bring a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies; a nation whose tongue you shall not understand;

50 A nation of fierce countenance that shall not regard the person of the old, nor show chen to the young:

51 And they shall eat the fruit of your cattle and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed: who also shall not leave you either grain, wine, or oil, or the increase of your cattle, or flocks of your sheep, until they have destroyed you.

52 And they shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land: and they shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which אלהים your Ahlohim has given you.

53 And you shall eat the fruit of your own gooff, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, which אלהים your Ahlohim has given you, in the siege and in the tribulation, in which your enemies shall distress you:

54 So that the man that is tender among you and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother and toward the isha of his bosom and toward the remnant of his children that he shall leave:

55 So that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat: because he has nothing left to him in the siege and in the tribulation, in which your enemies shall distress you in all your gates.

56 The tender and delicate woman among you; who would not venture to set the sole of her foot upon the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil towards the husband of her bosom and toward her son and toward her daughter,

57 And toward her young one that comes out from between her feet and toward her children which she shall bear: for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly in the siege and tribulation, in which your enemy shall distress you in your gates.

58 If you will not shomer to do all the Words of this Torah that are written in this scroll, that you may fear this wonderful and awesome Name, אלהים your Ahlohim;

59 Then אלהים will make your plagues extraordinary and the plagues of your zera, even terrible plagues of long duration and sore sicknesses of long duration.

60 Moreover He will bring upon you all the diseases of Mitzrayim, which you were afraid of; and they shall cleave to you.

61 Also every sickness and every plague, which is not written in the scroll of this Torah, those will אֲנִי bring upon you, until you are destroyed.

62 And you shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the cochavim of the shamayim for multitude; because you would not obey the voice of אֲנִי your Ahlohim.

63 And it shall come to pass, that as אֲנִי rejoiced over you to do you tov and to multiply you; so אֲנִי will gilah over you to destroy you and to bring you to nothing; and you shall be plucked from off the land which you are going to possess.

64 And אֲנִי shall scatter you among all peoples and goyim, from the one end of the earth even to the other; and there you shall serve other ahlohim, which neither you nor your ahvot have known, even wood and stone.

65 And among these goyim shall you find no ease, neither shall the sole of your foot have rest: but אֲנִי shall give you there a trembling lev and failing of eyes and sorrow of mind:

66 And your chayim shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear yom and lyla and shall have no assurance of your chayim:

67 In the boker you shall say, Would to Ahlohim it were evening! And at evening you shall say, Would to Ahlohim it were boker! For the fear of your lev with which you shall fear and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see.

68 And אֲנִי shall bring you into Mitzrayim again with ships, the derech of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again: and there you shall be sold to your enemies for avadim and female avadim and no man shall buy you.

29 These are the Words of the brit, which אֲנִי commanded Moshe to make with the children of Yisrael in the land of Moav, besides the brit that He made with them in Horev.

2 And Moshe called to kol Yisrael and said to them, You have seen all that אֱלֹהִים did before your eyes in the land of Mitzrayim to Pharaoh and to all his avadim and to all his land;

3 The great trials which your eyes have seen, the signs and those great nisim:

4 Yet אֱלֹהִים has not given you a lev to perceive and eyes to see and ears to hear, to this yom.

5 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes have not worn out upon you and your shoe has not worn out upon your foot.

6 You have not eaten lechem, neither have you drunk wine, or strong drink: that you might know that I AM אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

7 And when you came to this place, Sichon the melech of Cheshbon and Og the melech of Bashan, came out against us to battle and we smote them:

8 And we took their land and gave it for an inheritance to the Reuvenites and to the Gadites and to the half tribe of Menasheh.

9 Keep therefore the Words of this brit and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do.

10 You stand this yom all of you before אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim; your captains of your tribes, your zechanim and your officers, with all the men of Yisrael,

11 Your little ones, your wives and your gerim that are in your camp, from the cutter of your wood to the drawer of your mayim:

12 That you should enter into brit with אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and into His oath, which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim makes with you this yom:

13 That He may establish you today for a people to Himself and that He may be to you an Ahlohim, as

He has said to you and as He has sworn to your ahvot, to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov.

14 Neither with you only do I make this brit and this oath;

15 But with him that stands here with us this yom before אלהים our Ahlohim and also with him that is not here with us this yom:

16 For you know how we have dwelt in the land of Mitzrayim; and how we came through the goyim that you passed by;

17 And you have seen their abominations and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:

18 Lest there should be among you man, or woman, or mishpacha, or tribe, whose lev turns away this yom from אלהים our Ahlohim, to go and serve the ahlohim of these goyim; lest there should be among you a root that bears bitterness and wormwood;

19 And it comes to pass, when he hears the words of this curse, that he blesses himself in his lev, saying, I shall have shalom, though I have my halacha in the imagination of my lev, to add drunkenness to thirst:

20 אלהים will not spare him, but then the anger of אלהים and His zeal shall be lit against that man and all the curses that are written in this scroll shall lie upon him and אלהים shall blot out his name from under the shamayim.

21 And אלהים shall separate him for evil out of all the tribes of Yisrael, according to all the curses of the brit that are written in this scroll of the Torah:

22 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you and the ger that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land and the sicknesses which אלהים has laid upon it;

23 And that the whole land is like that which is brimstone and salt and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows in it, like the overthrow of Sedom and Amarah, Admah and Zevoim, which אֱלֹהִים overthrew in His anger and in His wrath:

24 Even all goyim shall say, Why has אֱלֹהִים done this to this land? What means the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the brit of אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of their ahvot, which He made with them when He brought them forth out of the land of Mitzrayim:

26 For they went and served other ahlohim and worshipped them, ahlohim whom they knew not and whom He had not given to them:

27 And the anger of אֱלֹהִים was lit against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this scroll:

28 And אֱלֹהִים rooted them out of their land in anger and in wrath and in great indignation and cast them into another land, as it is this yom.

29 The secret things belong to אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim: but those things that are revealed belong to us and to our children le-olam-va-ed, that we may do all the Words of this Torah.

30 And it shall come to pass, when all these things have come upon you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you and you shall call them to mind among all the goyim, where אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has driven you,

2 And shall teshuvah to אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and shall obey His voice according to all that I command you this yom, you and your children, with all your lev and with all your being;

3 That then אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim will turn your captivity and have rachamim upon you and will return and gather you from all the goyim, where אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim has scattered you.

4 If any of you are driven out to the farthest parts of the shamayim, from there will אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim gather you and from there will He fetch you:

5 And אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim will bring you into the land that your ahvot possessed and you shall possess it; and He will do you tov and multiply you above your ahvot.

6 And אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim will perform brit-milah upon your lev and the lev of your zera, to love אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim with all your lev and with all your being, that you may live.

7 And אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim will put all these curses upon your enemies and on them that hate you, who persecute you.

8 And you shall make teshuvah and obey the voice of אָפֶשֶׁתּ and do all His mitzvot which I command you this yom.

9 And אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim will make you have excess in every work of your hand, in the fruit of your gooff and in the fruit of your cattle and in the fruit of your land, for tov: for אָפֶשֶׁתּ will again gilah over you for tov, as He rejoiced over your ahvot:

10 If you shall listen to the voice of אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim, to shomer His mitzvot and His chukim which are written in this scroll of the Torah and if you turn to אָפֶשֶׁתּ your Ahlohim with all your lev and with all your being.

11 For this mitzvah, which I command you this yom, is not hidden from you, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in the shamayim, that you should say, Who shall go up for us to the shamayim and bring it to us, that we may hear and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea that you should say,
Who shall go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear and do it?

14 But The Word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your lev, and in your hand, that you may do it.

15 See, I have set before you this yom chayim and tov and death and evil;

16 In that I command you this yom to love אהבת
your Ahlohim, to have your halacha in His halachot and to shomer His mitzvoth and His chukim and His mishpatim, that you may live and multiply: and אהבת your Ahlohim shall bless you in the land which you are going to possess.

17 But if your lev turns away, so that you will not hear, but shall be drawn away to worship other ahlohim and serve them;

18 I declare to you this yom, that you shall surely perish and that you shall not prolong your yamim upon the land, which you pass over the Yarden to go to possess.

19 I call the shamayim and earth to record this yom against you, that I have set before you chayim and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose chayim, that both you and your zera may live:

20 That you may love אהבת your Ahlohim and that you may obey His voice and that you may cleave to Him: for He is your chayim and the length of your yamim: that you may dwell in the land which אהבת swore to your ahvot, to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, to give them.

Torah Parsha 47 Shavuah-Week 47-Vayelech
Devarim-Deuteronomy chapters 31-32. Renewed Covenant Tesloniqyah Alef-First Thessalonians
chapters 1-5.

31 And Moshe went and spoke these words to kol Yisrael.

2 And he said to them, I am one hundred twenty years old this yom; I can no more go out and come in: also אֱלֹהִים has said to me, You shall not go over this Yarden.

3 אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, He will go over before you and He will destroy these goyim from before you and you shall possess them: and Yahusha, he shall go over before you, as אֱלֹהִים has said.

4 And אֱלֹהִים shall do to them as He did to Sichon and to Og, melechim of the Amorites and to their land which He destroyed.

5 And אֱלֹהִים shall deliver them up before your face, that you may do to them according to all the mitzvoth which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong and of a tov courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, He it is that does go with you; He will not fail you, nor forsake you.

7 And Moshe called to Yahusha and said to him in the sight of kol Yisrael, Be strong and of a tov courage: for you must go with this people to the land which אֱלֹהִים has sworn to their ahvot to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it.

8 And אֱלֹהִים, He it is that does go before you; He will be with you, He will not fail you, neither forsake you: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 And Moshe wrote this Torah in a scroll and delivered it to the kohanim, the sons of Lewi, who bore the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהִים and to all the zechanim of Yisrael.

10 And Moshe commanded them, saying, At the end of seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, at Chag Sukkot, 11 When kol Yisrael comes to appear before אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim in the place that He has chosen, you shall read this Torah before kol Yisrael in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men and women and children, and your ger that is within your gates, that they may hear and that they may learn and fear אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim and shomer to do all the Words of this Torah:

13 And that their children, who have not known anything, may hear and learn to fear אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, as long as you live in the land which you go over the Yarden to possess.

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, See, your yamim approach when you must die: call Yahusha and present yourselves in the Mishkan of the kehilla, that I may give him a command. And Moshe and Yahusha went and presented themselves in the Mishkan of the kehilla.

15 And אֱלֹהִים appeared in the Mishkan in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the Mishkan.

16 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, See, you shall sleep with your ahvot; and this people will rise up and whore after the ahlohim of the gerim of the land, where they are going to be among them and will forsake Me and break My brit that I have made with them.

17 Then My anger shall be lit against them in that yom and I will forsake them and I will hide My face from them and they shall be devoured and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that yom, are not these evils come upon us because our Ahlohim is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide My face in that yom for all the evils that they shall do, in that they will have turned to other ahlohim.

19 Now therefore write this shir for yourselves and teach it to the children of Yisrael: put it in their mouths, that this shir may be a witness for Me against the children of Yisrael.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their ahvot, that flows with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves and grown fat; then will they turn to other ahlohim and serve them and provoke Me and break My brit.

21 And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles have befallen them, that this shir shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their zera: for I know their imaginations that they entertain, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I swore to them.

22 Moshe therefore wrote this shir the same yom and taught it to the children of Yisrael.

23 And he gave Yahusha the son of Nun a command and said, Be strong and of tov courage: for you shall bring the children of Yisrael into the land which I swore to them: and I will be with you.

24 And it came to pass, when Moshe had made an end of writing the Words of this Torah in a scroll, until they were finished,

25 That Moshe commanded the Lewiym, who bore the Ark of the Testimony of אֶת־אֱלֹהֵינוּ, saying, 26 Take this scroll of the Torah and put it at the side of the Ark of the Testimony of אֶת־אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim, that it may be there for a witness against you.

27 For I know your rebellion and your stiff neck: see, while I am yet alive with you this yom, you have been rebellious against אֶת־אֱלֹהֵינוּ; and how much more after my death?

28 Gather to me all the zechanim of your tribes and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears and call the shamayim and earth to record it against them.

29 For I know that after my death you will fully corrupt yourselves and turn aside from the halacha which I have commanded you; and evil will befall you in the latter-yamim; because you will do evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke Him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moshe spoke in the ears of all the kehilla of Yisrael the Words of this shir, until they were ended.

32 Give ear-hazinu, O you shamayim and I will speak; and shema, O earth, to the Words of my mouth.

2 My doctrine-Torah shall drop as the rain; my speech shall drop down as the dew, as the small rain upon the tender herb and as the showers upon the grass:

3 Because I will publish the Name of אֱלֹהִים: ascribe greatness to our Ahlohim.

4 He is The Rock, His work is perfect: for all His halachot are just: An El of emet and without iniquity, tzadik and right is He.

5 They have corrupted themselves, they are blemished and are not His children: they are a perverse and crooked generation.

6 Are these the things you return to אֱלֹהִים, O foolish and unwise people? Is not He your Abba that has bought you? Has He not made you and established you?

7 Remember the yamim of old, consider the years of many generations: ask your Abba, and He will show you; your zechanim and they will tell you.

8 When Elyon divided to the goyim their inheritance, when He separated the sons of Ahdahm, He set the boundaries of the goyim according to the number of the heavenly malachim of Ahlohim and Yisrael's sons.

9 For אֱלֹהִים 's portion is His people; Yaakov His allotted inheritance.

10 He found him in a desert land and in the wasted, howling wilderness; He led him about, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eye.

11 As an eagle stirs up her nest, flutters over her young, spreads abroad her wings, takes them and bears them on her wings:

12 So אֱלֹהִים alone did lead him and there was no strange el with him.

13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and He made him to suck honey out of the rock and oil out of the flinty rock;

14 Butter of cattle and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs and rams of the breed of Bashan and goats, with the finest of wheat; and you did drink the pure dahm of the grape, the tov wine.

15 But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked: you are waxed fat, you are grown thick, you are covered with fatness; then he forsook Ahloha who made him and lightly esteemed The Rock of his salvation.

16 They provoked Him to zeal with strange ahlohim, with abominations they provoked Him to anger.

17 They sacrificed to shedim, not to Ahloha; to ahlohim whom they knew not, to new ones that popped up; whom your ahvot feared not.

18 Of The Rock that begat you, you are not mindful and have forgotten the El that formed you.

19 And when אֱלֹהִים saw it, He abhorred them because of their provoking of His sons and of His daughters.

20 And He said, I will hide My face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very perverse generation, children in whom is no emunah.

21 They have moved Me to zeal with that which is not El; they have provoked Me to anger with their vanities: and I will move them to zeal with those who are Lo-Ami; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For a fire is lit in My anger and shall burn to the lowest Sheol and shall consume the land with its increase and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will gather evils upon them; I will send My arrows upon them.

24 They shall be wasted with hunger and devoured with burning heat and with bitter destruction: I will also send the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison of serpents of the dust.

25 The sword without and fear within, shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the nursing child also with the man of gray hairs.

26 I said, I would scatter them into the four corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely and lest they should say, Our hand is high and אֱלֹהֵינוּ has not done all this.

28 For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any binah in them.

29 O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

30 How should one chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock had sold them and אֱלֹהֵינוּ had given them up?

31 For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves are shophtim.

32 For their vine is of the vine of Sedom and of the fields of Amorah: their grapes are grapes of gall, their clusters are bitter:

33 Their wine is the poison of serpents and the cruel venom of vipers.

34 Is not this laid up in store with Me and sealed up among My treasures?

35 To Me belongs vengeance and repayment; their foot shall slide in due time: for the yom of their calamity is at hand and the things that shall come upon them make haste.

36 For אֱלֹהִים shall judge His people and have rachamim for His avadim, when He sees that their power is gone and there is none remaining bond, or free.

37 And He shall say, Where are their ahlohim, their rock in whom they trusted?

38 Who did eat the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up and help you and be your protection.

39 See now that I, even I, AM He and there is no ahlohim with Me: I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of My hand.

40 For I lift up My hand to the shamayim and say, I live le-olam-va-ed.

41 If I sharpen My flashing sword and My hand takes hold on mishpat; I will render vengeance to My enemies and will reward them that hate Me.

42 I will make My arrows drunk with dahm and My sword shall devour flesh; and that with the dahm of the slain and of the captives, from the keter of the head of the enemy.

43 Gilah, O shamayim, with Him and let all the heavenly malachim worship Him: O gilah you goyim with His people, and let all the sons of Ahlohim strengthen themselves in Him; for He will avenge the dahm of His sons and will render mishpat to His adversaries and will reward them that hate Him and אִיִּם will make a keporah for the land and for His people.

44 And Moshe came and spoke all the Words of this shir in the ears of the people, he and Yahusha the son of Nun.

45 And Moshe made an end of speaking all these words to kol Yisrael:

46 And he said to them, Set your levavot to all the words that I testify among you this yom, which you shall command your children to shomer and to do, all the Words of this Torah.

47 For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your chayim: and through this thing you shall prolong your yamim in the land, which you go over the Yarden to possess.

48 And אִיִּם spoke to Moshe that same yom, saying,

49 Get up into this har Avarim, to Har Nevo, which is in the land of Moav that is opposite Yericho; and see the land of Kanaan, which I give to the children of Yisrael for a possession:

50 And die on the har where you go up and be gathered to your people; as Aharon your brother died on Har Hor and was gathered to his people:

51 Because you trespassed against Me among the children of Yisrael at the mayim of Merivah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Tzin; because you did not set Me apart in the midst of the children of Yisrael.

52 Yet you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go there to the land that I give the children of Yisrael.

33 And this is the blessing, with which Moshe the man of Ahlohim blessed the children of Yisrael before his death.

2 And he said, אֲרָאָה came from Mt. Senai and rose up from Seir [the gate of The Lamb's city the Heavenly Yahrushalayim], to them [Yisrael]; He shone [manifested Himself] forth and arrived from Har Paran [as an ornament to govern His bride] and He [Yahusha-The Word] came with tens of thousands [teachers & witnesses] of-with kidushim [angelic witnesses]: from out of His Right Hand-Side went a Fiery Torah [fiery Words of da'at, chochmah, languages] for them [Yisrael & the goyim].

3 Yes, He loved the people; all His kidushim are in your hand: and they sat down at your feet; every one shall receive of Your Words.

4 Moshe commanded us a Torah, even the inheritance of the kehilla of Yaakov.

5 And He was Melech in Yeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Yisrael were gathered together.

6 Let Reuven live and not die; and let not his men be few.

7 And this is the blessing of Yahudah: and he said, Shema, אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to the voice of Yahudah and bring him to his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be a help to him from his enemies.

8 And of Lewi he said, Let your Thummim and your Urim be with your Kadosh-One, whom you did test at Massah and with whom you did contend at the mayim of Merivah;

9 Who said to his abba and to his eema, I have not seen him; neither did he acknowledge his brothers, or know his own children: for they have observed Your Word and kept Your brit.

10 They shall teach Yaakov Your mishpatim and Yisrael Your Torah: they shall put incense before You and whole burnt sacrifices upon Your altar.

11 אֱלֹהֵינוּ bless, his substance and accept the work of his hands; smite through the loins of those that rise against him and of those that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 And of Benyamin he said, The beloved of אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall dwell in safety by Him; and אֱלֹהֵינוּ shall cover him all the yom long and he shall dwell between His shoulders.

13 And of Yoseph he said, Blessed of אֱלֹהֵינוּ is his land, with the precious things of the shamayim, with the dew and with the deep that lies beneath,

14 And with the precious fruits brought forth by the shemesh and with the precious things put forth by the yarayach,

15 And with the best things of the ancient mountains and with the precious things of the everlasting hill,

16 And with the precious things of the earth and fullness of it and with the tov will of Him that dwelt in the bush: let the blessing come upon the head of Yoseph and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brothers.

17 His splendor is like a bachor bull and his horns are like the horns of the rhinocerus: with them he shall push the peoples together to the ends of the earth: and they are the myriads of Efrayim and they are the thousands of Menasheh.

18 And of Zevulon he said, Gilah, Zevulon, in your going out; and, Yissachar, in your tents.

19 They shall call the peoples to My Har; and there they shall offer sacrifices of tzedakah: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas and of treasures hidden in the sand.

20 And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlarges Gad: he dwells as a lion and tears the arm, yes the keter of the head.

21 And he provided the first part for himself because there, the portion of the Torah giver, was hidden; and he came with the heads of the people, he did the tzedakah of אִיִּצְרָאֵל and his mishpatim with Yisrael.

22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan.

23 And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with chen and full with the bracha of אִיִּצְרָאֵל: possess the west and the south.

24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brothers and let him dip his foot in oil.

25 Your shoes shall be iron and brass; and as your yamim, so shall your strength be.

26 There is none like the El of Yeshurun, who rides upon the shamayim to help you and in His excellency rides the skies.

27 The Ahlohim of old is your refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms: and He shall thrust out the enemy from before you; and shall say, Destroy them.

28 Yisrael then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Yaakov shall be upon a land of grain and wine; also His shamayim shall drop down dew.

29 Favored are you, O Yisrael: who is like you, O people saved by אֶלֶּהִים, the Shield of your help, who is the Sword of Your Excellency! And your enemies shall be found to be liars to you; and you shall tread down their high places.

34 And Moshe went up from the plains of Moav to the har of Nevo, to the top of Pisgah that is opposite Yericho. And אֶלֶּהִים showed him all the land of Gilad, as far as Dan,

2 And all of Naphtali and the land of Efrayim and Menasheh and all the land of Yahudah, to the Western Sea,

3 And the south and the plain of the Valley of Yericho, the city of palm eytzim, to Tzoar.

4 And אֶלֶּהִים said to him, This is the land which I swore to Avraham, to Yitzchak and to Yaakov, saying, I will give it to your zera: I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there.

5 So Moshe the eved of אֶלֶּהִים died there in the land of Moav, according to The Word of אֶלֶּהִים.

6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Moav, opposite Beit-Peor: but no man knows of his burial place to this yom.

7 And Moshe was one hundred twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force gone.

8 And the children of Yisrael wept for Moshe in the plains of Moav thirty yamim: so the yamim of weeping and mourning for Moshe were ended.

9 And Yahusha the son of Nun was full of The Ruach of chochmah; for Moshe had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Yisrael listened to him and did as אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

10 And there arose not a navi since, in Yisrael, like Moshe, whom אֱלֹהִים knew panayim-el-panayim,

11 As evidenced by all the signs and the wonders, which אֱלֹהִים sent him to do in the land of Mitzrayim to Pharaoh and to all his avadim and to all his land,

12 And in all that his mighty hand did and in all the great fearsome deeds that Moshe showed forth in the sight of kol Yisrael. X

Joshua-Yahoshua

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 Now after the death of Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים, it came to pass, that אֱלֹהִים spoke to Yahoshua the son of Nun, Moshe's assistant, saying,
 - 2 Moshe My eved is dead; now therefore arise, go over this the Yarden River, you and this entire people, to the land that I do give to them, even to the children of Yisrael.
 - 3 Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given to you, as I said to Moshe.
 - 4 From the wilderness of Levanon even to the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the shemesh, shall be your border.
 - 5 There shall not be any man able to resist you all the yamim of your chayim: as I was with Moshe, so I will be with you: I will not fail you, nor forsake you.
 - 6 Be strong and courageous: for to this people shall you divide for an inheritance the land, which I swore to their ahvot to give them.
 - 7 Only be strong and very courageous, that you may shomer to do according to all the Torah, which Moshe My eved commanded you: turn not from it to the right hand, or to the left, that you may prosper wherever you go.
 - 8 This scroll of the Torah shall not depart out of your mouth; but you shall meditate on it yom and lyla, that you may shomer to do according to all that is written in it: for then you shall make your derech prosperous and then you shall have tov success.

9 Have not I commanded you? Be strong and courageous; be not afraid, neither be dismayed: for אלהים your Ahlohim is with you wherever you go.

10 Then Yahoshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, Prepare for yourselves provisions; for within three yamim you shall pass over this the Yarden River, to go in to possess the land, which אלהים your Ahlohim gives you to possess.

12 And to the Reuvenites and to the Gadites and to half the tribe of Menasheh, spoke Yahoshua, saying, 13 Remember the word that Moshe the eved of אלהים commanded you, saying, אלהים your Ahlohim has given you rest and has given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moshe gave you on this side of the Yarden River; nevertheless you shall pass with your brothers armed, all the mighty men of valor and help them;

15 Until אלהים has given your brothers rest, as He has given you and they also have possessed the land which אלהים your Ahlohim gives them: then you shall return to the land of your possession and enjoy it, which Moshe אלהים 's eved gave you on this side of the Yarden River toward the rising of the shemesh.

16 And they answered Yahoshua, saying, All that you command us we will do and wherever you send us, we will go.

17 As we listened to Moshe in all things, so will we listen to you: only אלהים your Ahlohim be with you, as He was with Moshe.

18 Whoever he is that does rebel against your commandment and will not listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death:

only be strong and courageous.

2 And Yahoshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Yericho. And they went and came to a harlot's bayit, named Rachav and lodged there.

2 And it was told the melech of Yericho, saying, See, there came men in here tonight from the children of Yisrael to search out the land.

3 And the melech of Yericho sent to Rachav, saying, Bring forth the men that have come to you, which have entered into your bayit: for they have come to search out all the land.

4 And the woman took the two men and hid them and said, There came men to me, but I didn't know where they were from:

5 And it came to pass about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that men from the melech went out: She said to them, Where those men went, I don't know: Pursue after them quickly; for you shall overtake them.

6 But she had brought them up to the roof of the bayit and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had piled up on the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them in the derech to the Yarden River to the fords: and as soon as those who pursued after them had gone out after the spies, they shut the gate.

8 And before they had laid down for the lyla, she came up to them on the roof;

9 And she said to the men, I know that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם has given you the land and that your fear is fallen upon us and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you.

10 For we have heard how אֱלֹהֵיכֶם dried up the mayim of the Yam Suf for you, when you came out of Mitzrayim; and what you did to the two melechim of the Amorites, that were on the other side of the Yarden River, Sichon and Og, whom you utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our levavot did melt, neither did there remain anymore courage in us because of you: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, He is Ahlohim in the shamayim above and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, please, swear to me by אֱלֹהִים, since I have showed you chesed; that you will also show chesed to my abba's bayit and give me an emet ot:

13 And that you will keep alive my abba and my eema and my brothers and my sisters and all that they have and deliver our chayim from death.

14 And the men answered her, Our chayim for yours, if you utter nothing about this business. And it shall be, when אֱלֹהִים has given us the land that we will deal in chesed and in emet with you.

15 Then she let them down by a rope through the window: for her bayit was upon the town wall and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said to them, Get to the har, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three yamim, until the pursuers return: and afterward you can go your derech.

17 And the men said to her, We will be blameless of this your oath which you have made us swear.

18 Unless you do this; when we come into the land, you shall bind this cord of scarlet thread in the window from which you did let us down: and you shall bring your abba and your eema and your brothers and all your abba's household to stay with you.

19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of your bayit into the street, his spilled dahm shall be his own fault and we will be guiltless: and whoever shall be with you in the bayit, if they are hurt, his dahm shall become our fault, if any harm comes upon him.

20 And if you mention this business to anyone, then we will be free of your oath that you have made us swear.

21 And she said, According to your words, so be it. And she sent them away and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window.

22 And they went and came to the har and stayed there three yamim, until the pursuers had returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the derech, but found them not.

23 So the two men returned and descended from the har and passed over and came to Yahoshua the son of Nun and told him all things that had happened to them:

24 And they said to Yahoshua, Truly אִיִּזְרָאֵל has delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the land do faint because of us.

3 And Yahoshua rose early in the boker; and they set out from Shittim and came to the Yarden River, he and all the children of Yisrael and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass after three yamim that the officers went through the camp;

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When you see the Ark of the Testimony of אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim and the kohanim, the Lewiym, bearing it; then you shall set out from your place and follow it.

4 Only, there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure: come not near to it, that you may know the derech by which you must go: for you have not passed by this derech before.

5 And Yahoshua said to the people, Set yourselves apart: for tomorrow אֱלֹהִים will do wonders among you.

6 And Yahoshua spoke to the kohanim, saying, Take up the Ark of the Testimony and pass over before the people. And they took up the Ark of the Testimony and went before the people.

7 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, This yom will I begin to magnify you in the sight of kol Yisrael; that they may know that, as I was with Moshe, so I will be with you.

8 And you shall command the kohanim that bear the Ark of the Testimony, saying, When you have come to the brink of the mayim of the Yarden River, you shall stand still in the middle of the Yarden River.

9 And Yahoshua said to the children of Yisrael, Come here and hear the Words of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

10 And Yahoshua said, By this you shall know that the living Ahlohim is among you and that He will without fail drive out from before you the Kanaanites and the Hittites and the Hivites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Yevusites.

11 See; the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהִים of all the earth passes over before you into the Yarden River.

12 Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Yisrael, out of every tribe a man.

13 And it shall come to pass, as soon as the soles of the feet of the kohanim that bear the Ark of אֱלֹהִים, Master of all the earth, shall rest in the mayim of the Yarden River, that the mayim of the Yarden River shall be cut off from the mayim that comes down from upstream; and they shall stand still like a pile.

14 And it came to pass, when the people moved from their tents, to pass over the Yarden River and the kohanim bearing the Ark of the Testimony before the people;

15 And as they that bore the Ark had come to the Yarden River and the feet of the kohanim that bore the Ark were dipped in the edge of the mayim for the Yarden River overflows all its banks all the time at harvest

16 That the mayim which came down from the north stopped and rose up into a pile very far away at Aram, that is beside Tzaretan: and the mayim that came down toward the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, failed and was cut off: and the people passed over just opposite Yericho.

17 And the kohanim that bore the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהִים stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Yarden River and all the Yisraelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people had passed completely over the Yarden River.

4 And it came to pass, when all the people had completely passed over the Yarden River, that אֱלֹהִים spoke to Yahoshua, saying,

2 Take twelve men out of the people, out of every tribe a man,

3 And command them, saying, Take out of the midst of the Yarden River, out of the place where the kohanim's feet stood firm, twelve stones and you shall carry them over with you and leave them in the lodging place, where you shall lodge this lyla.

4 Then Yahoshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared from the children of Yisrael, out of every tribe a man:

5 And Yahoshua said to them, Pass over before the Ark of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim into the midst of the Yarden River and take up every man a stone upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Yisrael:

6 That this may be an ot among you, that when your children ask their ahvot in times to come, saying, What is the meaning of these stones?

7 Then you shall answer them, That the mayim of the Yarden River was cut off before the Ark of the Testimony of אֲרֹן; when it passed over the Yarden River, the mayim of the Yarden River was cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Yisrael le-olam-va-ed.

8 And the children of Yisrael did so, as Yahoshua commanded and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Yarden River, as אֲרֹן spoke to Yahoshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Yisrael and carried them over with them to the place where they lodged and laid them down there.

9 And Yahoshua set up twelve stones in the midst of the Yarden River, in the place where the feet of the kohanim who bore the Ark of the Testimony stood: and they are there to this yom.

10 For the kohanim who bore the Ark stood in the midst of the Yarden River, until everything was finished that אֲרֹן commanded Yahoshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moshe commanded Yahoshua: and the people hurried and passed over.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people had completely passed over, that the Ark of אֲרֹן passed over and the kohanim, in the presence of the people.

12 And the children of Reuven and the children of Gad and half the tribe of Menasheh, passed over armed before the children of Yisrael, as Moshe spoke to them:

13 About forty thousand prepared for war passed over before אֲרֹן to battle, to the plains of Yericho.

14 On that yom אִיִּזְרָאֵל magnified Yahoshua in the sight of kol Yisrael; and they feared him, just as they feared Moshe, all the yamim of his chayim.

15 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Yahoshua, saying,

16 Command the kohanim that bear the Ark of the Testimony that they come up out of the Yarden River.

17 Yahoshua therefore commanded the kohanim, saying, Come up out of the Yarden River.

18 And it came to pass, when the kohanim that bore the Ark of the Testimony of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came up out of the midst of the Yarden River and the soles of the kohanim's feet were lifted up to the dry land, that the mayim of the Yarden River returned to its place and flowed over all its banks, as they did before.

19 And the people came up out of the Yarden River on the tenth yom of the first chodesh and camped in Gilgal, on the east border of Yericho.

20 And those twelve stones, which they took out of the Yarden River, did Yahoshua set up in Gilgal.

21 And he spoke to the children of Yisrael, saying, When your children shall ask their ahvot in times to come, saying, What is the meaning of these stones?

22 Then you shall let your children know, saying, Yisrael came over this Yarden River on dry land.

23 For אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim dried up the mayim of the Yarden River from before you, until you had passed over, just as אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim did to the Yam Suf, which He dried up before us, until we had gone over:

24 That all the people of the earth might know the Hand of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, that it is mighty: that you might fear אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim le-olam-va-ed.

5 And it came to pass, when all the melechim of the Amorites, who were on the side of the Yarden River westward and all the melechim of the Kanaanites, which were by the sea, heard that אֱלֹהִים had dried up the mayim of the Yarden River from before the children of Yisrael, until they had passed over, that their lev melted, neither was there ruach in them anymore because of the children of Yisrael.

2 At that time אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, Make yourselves sharp knives and perform brit-milah again upon the children of Yisrael a second time.

3 And Yahoshua made a sharp knife and performed brit-milah upon the children of Yisrael at the hill of the foreskins.

4 And this is the reason why Yahoshua did perform brit-milah upon the people: All the people that came out of Mitzrayim, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness, in the derech after they came out of Mitzrayim.

5 Now all the people that came out had received brit-milah: but all the people that were born in the wilderness in the derech as they came out of Mitzrayim, had not received brit-milah.

6 For the children of Yisrael walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the people that were men of war, who came out of Mitzrayim, were consumed because they obeyed not the voice of אֱלֹהִים: to whom אֱלֹהִים swore that He would not show them the land, which אֱלֹהִים swore to their ahvot that He would give us, a land that flows with milk and honey.

7 And their children, whom He raised up in their place, upon those did Yahoshua perform brit-milah: for they were not made brit-milah because they had not performed brit-milah on the derech.

8 And it came to pass, when they had done performing brit-milah upon all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, until they were healed.

9 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, This yom have I rolled away the reproach of Mitzrayim from off you. Therefore the name of the place is called Gilgal to this yom.

10 And the children of Yisrael encamped in Gilgal and kept the Pesach on the fourteenth yom of the chodesh in the evening in the plains of Yericho.

11 And they did eat of the stored produce of the land on the yom after the Pesach, unleavened cakes and parched grain on the same yom.

12 And the manna ceased on the next yom after they had eaten of the produce of the land; neither had the children of Yisrael manna anymore; but they did eat of the new fruit of the land of Kanaan that year.

13 And it came to pass, when Yahoshua was by Yericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked and, see, there stood A Man opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand: and Yahoshua went to Him and said to Him, Are You for us, or for our enemies?

14 And He said, No; but as Captain of the armies of אִיִּזְרָאֵל I AM now come. And Yahoshua fell on his face to the earth and did worship and said to Him, What says My Master to His eved?

15 And the Captain of אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's camp said to Yahoshua, Loose your sandals from off your feet; for the place where you stand is kadosh ground. And Yahoshua did so.

6 Now Yericho was tightly shut up because of the children of Yisrael: none went out and none came in.

2 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, See, I have given into your hand Yericho and the melech of it and the mighty men of valor.

3 And you shall go around the city, all the men of war, shall go around the city once. This shall you do for six yamim.

4 And seven kohanim shall carry before the Ark seven shofars: and on the seventh yom you shall go around the city seven times and the kohanim shall blow with the shofars.

5 And it shall come to pass, that when they make a tekiyah gedollah with the shofars and when you hear the sound of the shofars, that all the people shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall down flat and the people shall ascend every man directly before him.

6 And Yahoshua the son of Nun called the kohanim and said to them, Take up the Ark of the Testimony and let seven kohanim bear the seven shofars before the Ark of אֶלֶּהֶם.

7 And he said to the people, Pass over and surround the city and let him that is armed go before the Ark of אֶלֶּהֶם.

8 And it came to pass, when Yahoshua had spoken to the people, that the seven kohanim bearing the seven shofars passed on before אֶלֶּהֶם and blew with the shofars: and the Ark of the Testimony of אֶלֶּהֶם followed them.

9 And the armed men went before the kohanim that blew with the shofars and the rear guard came after the Ark and behind the kohanim blowing with shofars.

10 And Yahoshua had commanded the people, saying, You shall not shout, nor make any noise with your voice, neither shall any word proceed out of your mouth, until the yom I tell you to shout; then shall you shout.

11 So the Ark of אֶלֶּהֶם circled the city, going around it once: and they came into the camp and lodged in the camp.

12 And Yahoshua rose early in the boker and the kohanim took up the Ark of אֲרֹן.

13 And seven kohanim bearing seven shofars before the Ark of אֲרֹן went on continually and blew with the shofars: and the armed men went before them; but the rear guard came after the Ark of אֲרֹן and after the kohanim blowing with the shofars.

14 And the second yom they circled the city once and returned into the camp: they did the same for six yamim.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh yom, that they rose early about the dawning of the yom and circled the city after the same manner seven times: only on that yom they circled the city seven times.

16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the kohanim blew with the shofars, Yahoshua said to the people, Shout; for אֲרֹן has given you the city.

17 And the city shall be cursed and all that is in it belongs to אֲרֹן: Only Rachav the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in her bayit because she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 And, under all circumstances you shall guard yourselves from the cursed things, lest you make yourselves cursed, when you take of the cursed things and make the camp of Yisrael a curse and trouble it.

19 But all the silver and gold and vessels of brass and iron, are kadosh to אֲרֹן: they shall come into the treasury of אֲרֹן.

20 So the people shouted when the kohanim blew with the shofars: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the shofars, that the people shouted with a great shout and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city every man directly before him and they took the city.

21 And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city, man and woman, young and old and ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

22 But Yahoshua had said to the two men that had spied out the land, Go into the harlot's bayit and bring out from there the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her.

23 And the young men that were spies went in and brought Rachav and her abba and her eema and her brothers and all that she had; and they brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Yisrael.

24 And they burned the city with fire and all that was in it: only the silver and the gold and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the Bayit of אֶלֶל.

25 And Yahoshua saved Rachav the harlot alive and her abba's household and all that she had; and she dwells in Yisrael even to this yom; because she hid the messengers, which Yahoshua had sent to spy out Yericho.

26 And Yahoshua warned them at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before אֶלֶל, that rises up and rebuilds this city Yericho: he shall lay the foundation of it with the death of his bachor and with the death of his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

27 So אֶלֶל was with Yahoshua and his fame was reported throughout all the land.

7 But the children of Yisrael committed a trespass in the cursed thing: for Achan, the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Yahudah, took of the cursed thing: and the anger of אֶלֶל burned against the children of Yisrael.

2 And Yahoshua sent men from Yericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-Aven, on the east side of Beth-El and spoke to them, saying, Go up and view the land.

And the men went up and viewed Ai.

3 And they returned to Yahoshua and said to him, Let not all the people go up; but let about two, or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to toil there; for they are just a few.

4 So there went up from the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote about thirty-six men: for they chased them from before the gate even to Shevarim and smote them in the descent: therefore the levavot of the people melted and became as mayim.

6 And Yahoshua tore his clothes and fell to the earth upon his face before the Ark of אֱלֹהִים until the evening, he and the zechanim of Yisrael and put dust upon their heads.

7 And Yahoshua said, O Master אֱלֹהִים, why have You even brought this people over the Yarden River, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would to Ahlohim we had been content and stayed on the other side of the Yarden River!

8 O אֱלֹהִים, what shall I say, when Yisrael turns their backs before their enemies!

9 For the Kanaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it and shall surround us and cut off our name from the earth: and what will You do for Your great Name?

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, Get up; why do you lie down this derech upon your face?

11 Yisrael has sinned and they have also transgressed My brit, which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the cursed things and have also stolen and deceived also and they have put it even among their own belongings.

12 Therefore the children of Yisrael could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies because they were cursed: neither will I be with you anymore, except you destroy the cursed things from among you.

13 Rise up, set the people apart and say, Set yourselves apart for tomorrow: for this says אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael, There is a cursed thing in the midst of you, O Yisrael: you cannot stand before your enemies, until you take away the cursed thing from among you.

14 In the boker therefore you shall be brought near according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which אלהים calls for shall come according to their mishpachot; and the mishpacha which אלהים shall call for will come by household; and the household which אלהים shall call for shall come forth man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is found with the cursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he has: because he has transgressed the brit of אלהים and because he has worked wickedness in Yisrael.

16 So Yahoshua rose up early in the boker and brought Yisrael by their tribes; and the tribe of Yahudah was selected:

17 And he brought the mishpacha of Yahudah; and he took the mishpacha of the Zerachites: and he brought the mishpacha of the Zerachites man by man; and Zavdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Karmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerach, of the tribe of Yahudah, was selected.

19 And Yahoshua aid to Achan, My son, I beg you, give tifereth to אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael and make confession to Him; and tell me now what you have done; hide it not from me.

20 And Achan answered Yahoshua and said, Indeed I have sinned against אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael and this is what I did:

21 When I saw among the spoils a lovely garment from Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them and took them; and, see, they are hidden in the earth under the middle of my tent and the silver is under it.

22 So Yahoshua sent messengers and they ran to the tent; and, see, it was hidden in his tent and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent and brought them to Yahoshua and to all the children of Yisrael and laid the items out before אֱלֹהִים.

24 And Yahoshua and kol Yisrael with him, took Achan the son of Zerach and the silver and the garment and the bar of gold and his sons and his daughters and his oxen and his donkeys and his sheep and his tent and all that he had: and they brought them to the Valley of Achor.

25 And Yahoshua said, Why have you troubled us? אֱלֹהִים shall trouble you this yom. And kol Yisrael stoned him with stones and burned them with fire, after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones to this yom. So אֱלֹהִים turned from the fierceness of His anger. Therefore the name of that place was called, The Valley of Achor, to this yom.

8 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, Fear not, neither be dismayed: take all the people of war with you and arise, go up to Ai: see, now I have given into your hand the melech of Ai and his people and his city and his land:

2 And you shall do to Ai and her melech as you did to Yericho and her melech: only the spoil and the cattle, shall you take for a prey to yourselves: now go lay an ambush for the city behind it.

3 So Yahoshua arose and all the people of war, to go up against Ai: and Yahoshua chose thirty thousand mighty men of valor and sent them away by lyla.

4 And he commanded them, saying, See, you shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but you all be ready:

5 And I and all the people that are with me, will approach the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as the last time, that we will turn and run before them,

6 For they will come out after us. When we have drawn them from the city; they will say, They flee from before us, as last time: then we will flee before them.

7 Then you shall rise up from the ambush and seize the city: for אלהים your Ahlohim will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when you have taken the city, that you shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of אלהים shall you do. See, I have commanded you.

9 Yahoshua therefore sent them forth: and they went to lie in ambush and stay between Beth-El and Ai, on the west side of Ai: but Yahoshua lodged that lyla among the people.

10 And Yahoshua rose up early in the boker and numbered the people and went up, he and the zechanim of Yisrael, ahead of the people to Ai.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up and drew near and came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-El and Ai, on the west side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people in position, even all the army, positioned to the north of the city and those who lay in wait positioned to the west of the city, that Yahoshua went that lyla into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to pass, when the melech of Ai saw it, that they quickly rose up early and the men of the city went out against Yisrael to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Yahoshua and kol Yisrael pretended as if they were beaten before them and fled by the derech of the wilderness.

16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Yahoshua and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai, or Beth-El, that went not out chasing after Yisrael: and they left the city wide open and pursued after Yisrael.

18 And אִרְיָאֵל said to Yahoshua, Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai; for I will give it into your hand. And Yahoshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their places and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city and took it and immediately set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw and, see, the smoke of the city ascended up to the shamayim and they had no power to flee in any direction: and the people that fled to the wilderness turned back towards the pursuers.

21 And when Yahoshua and kol Yisrael saw that the ambush had taken the city and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again and killed the men of Ai.

22 And the others also ran out of the city; so they were in the midst of Yisrael, some on this side and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they let none of them remain, or escape.

23 And the melech of Ai they took alive and brought him to Yahoshua.

24 And it came to pass, when Yisrael had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field and in the wilderness where they chased them and when they had all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Yisraelites returned to Ai and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And so it was, that all that fell that yom, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Yahoshua drew not his hand back, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

27 Only the cattle and the spoil of that city Yisrael took for a prey to themselves, according to The Word of אֱלֹהִים which He commanded Yahoshua.

28 And Yahoshua burned Ai and made it a heap le-olam-va-ed, even a desolation to this yom.

29 And the melech of Ai he hanged on an eytz until evening: and as soon as the shemesh was down, Yahoshua commanded that they should take his gooff down from the eytz and cast it at the entrance of the gate of the city and raised on it a great pile of stones, that remains to this yom.

30 Then Yahoshua built an altar to אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael in Har Gerazim, 31 As Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים commanded the children of Yisrael, as it is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moshe, an altar of whole stones, over which no man has lifted up any cutting tool: and they offered on it burnt offerings to אֱלֹהִים and sacrificed shalom offerings.

32 And he wrote there on top of the stones a copy of the Torah of Moshe, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Yisrael.

33 And kol Yisrael and their zechanim and officers and their shophtim, stood on both sides of the Ark of the Testimony before the kohanim the Lewiym, who bore the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהִים, the ger as well, as he that was born among them; half of them over against Har Gerazim and half of them over against Har Eival; as Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים had commanded before, that they should bless the people of Yisrael.

34 And afterwards he read all the Words of the Torah, the brachot and klalot, according to all that is written in the scroll of the Torah.

35 There was not a single word of all that Moshe commanded, which Yahoshua did not read before all the kehilla of Yisrael, with the women and the little ones, and the gerim that were accompanying them.

9 And it came to pass, when all the melechim which were on this side of the Yarden River, in the hills and in the valleys and in all the borders of the Great Sea toward Levanon, the Hittite and the Amorite, the Kanaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite and the Yevusite, heard of it;

2 That they gathered themselves together, to fight with Yahoshua and with Yisrael, with one accord.

3 And when the inhabitants of Giveon heard what Yahoshua had done to Yericho and to Ai,

4 They did work slyly and went and pretended to be ambassadors and took old sacks upon their donkeys and wine skins, old and torn and patched up;

5 And old worn out shoes, with their feet bound with sandals and old garments upon them and all the lechem of their provision was dry and moldy.

6 And they went to Yahoshua to the camp at Gilgal and said to him and to the men of Yisrael, We come from a far land: now therefore make a brit with us.

7 And the men of Yisrael said to the Hivites, It is possible that you dwell among us; and how shall we make a brit with you?

8 And they said to Yahoshua, We are your avadim. And Yahoshua said to them, Who are you? And from where do you come?

9 And they said to him, From a very far land your avadim have come because of the Name of אלהים your Ahlohim: for we have heard of His fame and all that He did in Mitzrayim,

10 And all that He did to the two melechim of the Amorites, that were beyond the Yarden River, to Sichon melech of Cheshbon and to Og melech of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

11 Why our zechanim and all the inhabitants of our land spoke to us, saying, Take food with you for the journey and go to meet them and say to them, We are your avadim: therefore now make a brit with us.

12 This our lechem we took fresh for our provision out of our houses on the yom we left to go to you; but now, see, it is dry and it is moldy:

13 And these skins of wine, which we filled, were new; and, see, they are torn: and these garments and our shoes have become old because of the very long journey.

14 And the men took of their food and asked not counsel at the mouth of אלהים.

15 And Yahoshua made shalom with them and made a brit with them, to let them live: and the leaders of the kehilla swore to them.

16 And it came to pass at the end of three yamim after they had made a brit with them, that they heard that they were their neighbors and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the children of Yisrael journeyed and came to their cities on the third yom. Now their cities were Giveon and Khephirah and Be-Eroth and Kiryath-Yearim.

18 And the children of Yisrael smote them not because the leaders of the kehilla had sworn to them by אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael. And the entire kehilla murmured against the leaders.

19 But all the leaders said to the entire kehilla, We have sworn to them by אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael: now therefore we may not touch them.

20 This we will do to them; we will even let them live, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath that we swore to them.

21 And the leaders said to them, Let them live; but let them be avadim as cutters of wood and drawers of mayim for all the kehilla; as the leaders had promised them.

22 And Yahoshua called for them and he spoke to them, saying, Why have you tricked us, saying, We are very far from you, when you dwell among us?

23 Now therefore you are cursed and there shall none of you be freed from being avadim and cutters of wood and drawers of mayim for the bayit of my Ahlohim.

24 And they answered Yahoshua and said, Because it was certainly told to your avadim, how אלהים your Ahlohim commanded His eved Moshe to give you all the land and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore we were very afraid of our chayim because of you and have done this thing.

25 And now, see, we are in your hand: as it seems tov and right to you to do to us, do.

26 And so he did to them and delivered them out of the hands of the children of Yisrael, that they killed them not.

27 And Yahoshua made them that yom cutters of wood and drawers of mayim for the kehilla and for the altar of אִלְמֶלֶךְ, even to this yom, in the place that He would choose.

10 Now it came to pass, when Adoni-Tzedek, melech of Yahrushalayim had heard how Yahoshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Yericho and her melech and as he had done to Ai and her melech; and how the inhabitants of Giveon had made shalom with Yisrael and were among them;

2 That they feared greatly because Giveon was a great city, as one of the malchut cities and because it was greater than Ai and all the men there were mighty.

3 And Adoni-Tzedek melech of Yahrushalayim sent to Hoham melech of Chebron and to Piram melech of Yarmuth and to Yaphia, melech of Lachish and to Devir melech of Eglon, saying,

4 Come up to me and help me, that we may smite Giveon: for they have made shalom with Yahoshua and with the children of Yisrael.

5 Therefore the five melechim of the Amorites, the melech of Yahrushalayim, the melech of Chebron, the melech of Yarmuth, the melech of Lachish, the melech of Eglon, gathered themselves together and went up, with all their armies and camped before Giveon and made war against them.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent to Yahoshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Hold not back your hand from your avadim; come up to us quickly and accept us and help us: for all the melechim of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Yahoshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with him and all the mighty men of valor.

8 And אִיִּזְרְיֵאל said to Yahoshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into your hand; there shall not a man of them stand before you.

9 Yahoshua therefore came to them suddenly and went up from Gilgal all lyla.

10 And אִיִּזְרְיֵאל confused them before Yisrael and killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon and chased them along the derech that goes up to Beth-Horon and smote them to Azekah and to Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Yisrael and were going down to Beth-Horon, that אִיִּזְרְיֵאל cast down great stones from the shamayim upon them to Azekah and they died: there were more who died with hailstones than those whom the children of Yisrael killed with the sword.

12 Then spoke Yahoshua to אִיִּזְרְיֵאל in the yom when אִיִּזְרְיֵאל delivered up the Amorites before the children of Yisrael and he said in the sight of Yisrael, Shemesh, stand still over Gibeon; and, Yarayach, in the Valley of Ayalon.

13 And the shemesh stood still and the yarayach stayed in place, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in Sefer Yahshar? So the shemesh stood still in the midst of the shamayim and did not set for about a whole yom.

14 And there was no yom like that before it, or after it, that אִיִּזְרָאֵל listened to the voice of a man: for אִיִּזְרָאֵל fought for Yisrael.

15 And Yahoshua returned and kol Yisrael with him, to the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five melechim fled and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Yahoshua, saying, The five melechim have been found hiding in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Yahoshua said, Roll great stones upon the opening of the cave and set men by it to guard them:

19 And don't stay, but pursue after your enemies and smite in their rear guard; Do not allow them to enter into their cities: for אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Ahlohim has delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Yahoshua and the children of Yisrael had made an end of killing them with a very great slaughter, until they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fortified cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Yahoshua at Makkedah in shalom: none murmured against any of the children of Yisrael.

22 Then said Yahoshua, Open the mouth of the cave and bring out those five melechim to me.

23 And they did so and brought forth those five melechim to him, the melech of Yahrushalayim, the melech of Chebron, the melech of Yarmuth, the melech of Lachish and the melech of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those melechim to Yahoshua, that Yahoshua called for all the men of Yisrael and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these melechim. And they came near and put their feet upon their necks.

25 And Yahoshua said to them, Fear not, nor be dismayed, be strong and courageous: for this is what אִיִּזְרָאֵל will do to all your enemies against whom you fight.

26 And afterward Yahoshua smote them and killed them and hanged them on five eytzim: and they were hanging upon the eytzim until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the shemesh, that Yahoshua commanded and they took them down off the eytzim and cast them into the cave where they had been hidden and laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very yom.

28 And that yom Yaoshua took Makkedah and smote it with the edge of the sword and the melech he utterly destroyed and all the beings that were in it; he let none remain: and he did to the melech of Makkedah as he had done to the melech of Yericho.

29 Then Yahoshua passed from Makkedah and kol Yisrael with him, to Livnah and fought against Livnah:

30 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל delivered it also and the melech of it, into the hand of Yisrael; and he smote it with the edge of the sword and all the beings that were in it; he let none remain in it; but did to that melech as he had done to the melech of Yericho.

31 And Yahoshua passed from Livnah and kol Yisrael with him, to Lachish and camped against it and fought against it:

32 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל delivered Lachish into the hand of Yisrael, taking it on the second yom and smote it with the edge of the sword and all the beings that were in it, according to all that he had done to Livnah.

33 Then Horam melech of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Yahoshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 And from Lachish Yahoshua passed to Eglon and kol Yisrael with him; and they camped against it and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that yom and smote it with the edge of the sword and all the beings that were in it he utterly destroyed that yom, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Yahoshua went up from Eglon and kol Yisrael with him, to Chebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it and smote it with the edge of the sword and the melech of it and all the cities of it and all the beings that were in it; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly and all the beings that were in it.

38 And Yahoshua returned and kol Yisrael with him, to Devir; and fought against it:

39 And he took it and the melech of it and all the cities of it; and they smote them with the edge of the sword and utterly destroyed all the beings that were in it; he left none remaining: as he had done to Chebron, so he did to Devir and to the melech of it; as he had done also to Livnah and to her melech.

40 So Yahoshua smote all the land of the hills and of the south and of the low country and of the springs and all their melechim: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael commanded.

41 And Yahoshua smote them from Kadesh-Barnea even to Azah and all the land of Goshen, even to Giveon.

42 And all these melechim and their land did Yahoshua take at one time because אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael fought for Yisrael.

43 And Yahoshua returned and kol Yisrael with him, to the camp to Gilgal.

11 And it came to pass, when Yavin melech of Chatzor had heard those things, that he sent to Yovav melech of Madon and to the melech of Shimron and to the melech of Achshaph,
2 And to the melechim that were on the north of the mountains and of the plains south of Kinneroth and in the valley and in the borders of Dor on the west,
3 And to the Kanaanite on the east and on the west and to the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Yevusite in the mountains and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mitzpah.
4 And they went out, they and all their armies with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the seashore in multitude, with horses and mirkavot very many.
5 And when all these melechim met together, they came and camped together at the mayim of Merom, to fight against Yisrael.
6 And אֲרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, Be not afraid because of them: for tomorrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Yisrael: you shall destroy their horses and burn their mirkavot with fire.
7 So Yahoshua came and all the people of war with him, against them by the mayim of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them.
8 And אֲרָאֵל delivered them into the hand of Yisrael, who smote them and chased them to great Tzidon and to Misrephoth-Mayim and to the Valley of Mitzpah eastward; and they smote them, until they left none remaining.
9 And Yahoshua did to them as אֲרָאֵל told him: he destroyed their horses and burned their mirkavot with fire.
10 And Yaoshuaat that time turned back and took Chatzor and smote the melech of it with the sword:

for Chatzor previously was the head of all those malchutim.

11 And they smote all the beings that were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burned Chatzor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those melechim and all the melechim of them, did Yahoshua take and smote them with the edge of the sword and he utterly destroyed them, as Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים commanded.

13 But as for the cities that stood still in their strength, Yisrael burned none of them, except Chatzor only; that did Yahoshua burn.

14 And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle, the children of Yisrael took for a prey to themselves; but every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither were any left.

15 As אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe His eved, so did Moshe command Yahoshua and so did Yahoshua; he left nothing undone of all that אֱלֹהִים commanded Moshe.

16 So Yahoshua took all that land, the hills and all the southland and all the land of Goshen and the valley and the plain and the har of Yisrael and the valley of the same;

17 Even from Har Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Ba'al-Gad in the Valley of Levanon under Har Hermon: and all their melechim he took and smote them and killed them.

18 Yahoshua made war a long time with all those melechim.

19 There was not a city that made shalom with the children of Yisrael, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Giveon: all the others they took in battle.

20 For it was from אִרְאֵז to harden their levavot, that they should come against Yisrael in battle, that He might destroy them utterly and that they might have no chen, but that He might destroy them, as אִרְאֵז commanded Moshe.

21 And at that time came Yahoshua and cut off the Anakim from the mountains, from Chebron, from Devir, from Anav and from all the mountains of Yahudah and from all the mountains of Yisrael: Yahoshua destroyed them utterly with their cities.

22 There was none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Yisrael: only in Azah, in Gat and in Ashdod, some remained.

23 So Yahoshua took the whole land, according to all that אִרְאֵז said to Moshe; and Yahoshua gave it for an inheritance to Yisrael according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

12 Now these are the melechim of the land, that the children of Yisrael smote and possessed their land on the other side of the Yarden River toward the rising of the shemesh, from the River Arnon to Har Hermon and all the plain on the east:

2 Sichon melech of the Amorites, who dwelt in Cheshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the River Arnon and from the middle of the river and from half of Gilad, even to the River Yavvok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

3 And from the plain to the sea of Kinnereth on the east and to the sea of the plain, even the Salt Sea on the east, the derech to Beth-Yeshimoth; and from the south, under Ashdoth-Pisgah:

4 And the border of Og, melech of Bashan, which was of the remnant of the Rephayim, that dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei,

5 And reigned in Har Hermon and in Salcah and in all Bashan, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites and half of Gilad, the border of Sichon, melech of Cheshbon.

6 Them did Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים and the children of Yisrael smite: and Moshe the eved of אֱלֹהִים gave it for a possession to the Reuvenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of Menasheh.

7 And these are the melechim of the land which Yahoshua and the children of Yisrael smote on this side of the Yarden River on the west, from Ba'al-Gad in the Valley of Levanon even to Har Halak, that goes up to Seir; which Yahoshua gave to the tribes of Yisrael for a possession according to their divisions;

8 In the mountains and in the valleys and in the plains and in the springs and in the wilderness and in the southland; the Hittites, the Amorites and the Kanaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Yevusites:

9 The melech of Yericho, one; the melech of Ai, which is beside Beth-El, one;

10 The melech of Yahrushalayim, one; the melech of Chebron, one;

11 The melech of Yarmuth, one; the melech of Lachish, one;

12 The melech of Eglon, one; the melech of Gezer, one;

13 The melech of Devir, one; the melech of Geder, one;

14 The melech of Hormah, one; the melech of Arad, one;

15 The melech of Livnah, one; the melech of Adullam, one;

16 The melech of Makkedah, one; the melech of Beth-El, one;

17 The melech of Tappuah, one; the melech of Hopher, one;
18 The melech of Aphek, one; the melech of Lasharon, one;
19 The melech of Madon, one; the melech of Chatzor, one;
20 The melech of Shimron-Meron, one; the melech of Achshaph, one;
21 The melech of Taanach, one; the melech of Megiddo, one;
22 The melech of Kedesh, one; the melech of Yokneam of Carmel, one;
23 The melech of Dor in the border of Dor, one; the melech of the goyim of Gilgal, one;
24 The melech of Tirtzah, one: all the melechim thirty-one.

13 Now Yahoshua was old and advanced in years; and אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to him, You are old and advanced in years and there remains yet very much land to be possessed.

2 This is the land that yet remains: all the borders of the Plishtim and all Geshuri,

3 From Sihor, which is before Mitzrayim, even to the borders of Ekron northward, which is counted to the Kanaanite: five masters of the Plishtim; the Gazathites and the Ashdothites, the Eshkalonites, the Gittites and the Ekronites; also the Avites:

4 From the south, all the land of the Kanaanites and Mearah that is beside the Tsidonians, to Aphek, to the borders of the Amorites:

5 And the land of the Giblites and all Levanon, toward the rising of the shemesh, from Ba'al-Gad under Har Hermon to the entrance into Hamath.

6 All the inhabitants of the hill land from Levanon to Misrephoth-Mayim and all the Tsidonians, these will I drive out from before the children of Yisrael: Now divide it by lot to the Yisraelites for an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

7 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half tribe of Menasheh,

8 With whom the Reuvenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moshe gave them, beyond the Yarden River eastward, even as Moshe
the eved of אלהים gave them;

9 From Aroer, that is upon the bank of the River
Arnon and the city that is in the midst of the river and all the plain of Medeva to Divon,

10 And all the cities of Sichon, melech of the Amorites, who reigned in Cheshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon;

11 And Gilad and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites and all of Har Hermon and all Bashan to Salcah;

12 All the malchut of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the Rephayim: for these did Moshe smite and cast them out.

13 Nevertheless the children of Yisrael expelled not the Geshurites, nor the Maachathites: but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Yisraelites until this yom.

14 Only to the tribe of Lewi he gave no inheritance;
the sacrifices of אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael made by fire are their inheritance, as He said to them.

15 And Moshe gave to the tribe of the children of Reuven inheritance according to their mishpachot.

16 And their border was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the River Arnon and the city that is in the midst of the river and all the plain by Medeva;

17 Cheshbon and all her cities that are in the plain;
Divon and Bamoth-Ba'al and Beth-Ba'al-Meon,

18 And Yahazah and Kedemoth and Mephaath,

19 And Kiryathaim and Sibmah and Zareth-Shahar in the har of the valley,

20 And Beit-Peor and Ashdoth-Pisgah and Beth-Yeshimoth,

21 And all the cities of the plain and all the malchut of Sichon, melech of the Amorites, who reigned in Cheshbon, whom Moshe smote with the leaders of Midyan, Evi and Rekem and Zur and Hur and Reva, which were princes of Sichon, dwelling in the land.

22 Bilam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, did the children of Yisrael slay with the sword among those that were slain by them.

23 And the border of the children of Reuven was the Yarden River. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuven after their mishpachot, the cities and the villages of it.

24 And Moshe gave inheritance to the tribe of Gad, even to the children of Gad according to their mishpachot.

25 And their border was Yazer and all the cities of Gilad and half the land of the children of Ammon, to Aroer that is before Ravah;

26 And from Cheshbon to Ramath-Mitzpah and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border of Devir;

27 And in the valley, Beth-Aram and Beth-Nimrah and Sukkot and Zaphon, the rest of the malchut of Sichon, melech of Cheshbon, the Yarden River and its border, even to the edge of the sea of Kinnereth on the other side of the Yarden River eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their mishpachot, the cities and their villages.

29 And Moshe gave inheritance to the half tribe of Menasheh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Menasheh by their mishpachot.

30 And their border was from Machanayim, all Bashan, all the malchut of Og melech of Bashan and all the towns of Yair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities:

31 And half Gilad and Ashtaroth and Edrei, cities of the malchut of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Menasheh, even for half of the children of Machir by their mishpachot.

32 These are the countries that Moshe did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moav, on the other side of the Yarden River, by Yericho, eastward.

33 But to the tribe of Lewi Moshe gave not any inheritance: אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael was their inheritance, as He said to them.

14 And these are the countries that the children of Yisrael inherited in the land of Kanaan, which El-Azar the kohen and Yahoshua the son of Nun and the heads of the ahvot of the tribes of the children of Yisrael, distributed for an inheritance to them.

2 By lot was their inheritance, as אלהים commanded by the hand of Moshe, for the nine tribes and for the half tribe.

3 For Moshe had given the inheritance of two tribes and a half tribe on the other side the Yarden River: but to the Lewiym he gave no inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Yoseph were two tribes, Menasheh and Efrayim: therefore they gave no part to the Lewiym in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle and for their substance.

5 As אלהים commanded Moshe, so the children of Yisrael did and they divided the land.

6 Then the children of Yahudah came to Yahoshua in Gilgal: and Kaleb the son of Yephunneh the Kenezite said to him, You know the thing that אלהים said to Moshe the man of Ahlohim concerning me and you in Kadesh-Barnea.

7 I was forty years old when Moshe the eved of אלהים sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in my lev.

8 Nevertheless my brothers that went up with me made the lev of the people melt: but I fully followed אלהים my Ahlohim.

9 And Moshe swore on that yom, saying, Surely the land upon which your feet have trodden shall be your inheritance and your children's le-olam-va-ed because you have fully followed אלהים, my Ahlohim.

10 And now, see, אלהים has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years, ever since אלהים spoke this Word to Moshe, while the children of Yisrael wandered in the wilderness: and now, I am this yom eighty-five years old.

11 Yet I am as strong this yom as I was in the yom that Moshe sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this har, of which אלהים spoke in that yom; for you heard in that yom how the Anakim were there and that the cities were great and fortified: if so be אלהים will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as אלהים said.

13 And Yahoshua blessed him and gave to Kalev the son of Yephunneh, Chebron for an inheritance.

14 Chebron therefore became the inheritance of Kalev the son of Yephunneh the Kenezite to this yom because he fully followed אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

15 And the name of Chebron before was Kiryath-Arba; because Arba was the greatest man among the Anakim. And the land had rest from war.

15 This then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Yahudah by their mishpachot; even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Tzin southward was the uttermost part of the south border.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the Salt Sea, from the bay that looks southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-Acravvim and passed along to Tzin and ascended up on the south side to Kadesh-Barnea and passed along to Chetzron and went up to Adar and went around to Karkaa:

4 And it passed toward Azmon and went out to the river of Mitzrayim; and the goings out of that border was at the sea: this shall be your south border.

5 And the east border was the Salt Sea, even to the end of the Yarden River. And the border in the north side began from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of the Yarden River:

6 And the border went up to Beth-Hogla and passed along by the north of Beth-Aravah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuven:

7 And the border went up toward Devir from the Valley of Achor and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the mayim of Enshemesh and ended at Enrogel:

8 And the border went up by the Valley of the son of Hinnom to the south side of the Yevusite; the same is Yahrushalayim: and the border went up to the top of the har that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of the Refayim northward:

9 And the border was drawn from the top of the hill to the fountain of the mayim of Nephtoah and went out to the cities of Har Ephron; and the border went around to Ba-Alah, which is Kiryath-Yearim:

10 And the border turned around from Ba-Alah westward to Har Seir and passed along to the side of Har Yearim, which is Kesalon, on the north side and went down to Beth-Shemesh and passed on to Timnah:

11 And the border went out to the side of Ekron northward: and the border went around to Shicron and passed along to Har Ba-Alah and went out to Yavneel; and the border ended at the sea.

12 And the west border was to the Great Sea and the border of it. This is the border of the children of Yahudah all round according to their mishpachot.

13 And to Kalev the son of Yephunneh he gave a part among the children of Yahudah, according to the commandment of אִיִּזְרָאֵל to Yahoshua, even the city of Arba The Abba of Anak, that city is Chebron.

14 And Kalev drove out the three sons of Anak, Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmi, the children of Anak.

15 And he went up from there to the inhabitants of Devir: and the name of Devir before was Kiryath-Sepher.

16 And Kalev said, He that smites Kiryath-Sepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as an isha.

17 And Othni-El the son of Kenaz, the brother of Kalev, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as an isha.

18 And it came to pass, as she came to him, that she moved him to ask from her abba a field: and she got off her donkey; and Kalev said to her, What is the matter my daughter?

19 She answered, Give me a bracha; for you have given me a southland; give me also springs of mayim. And he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Yahudah according to their mishpachot.
21 And the farthest cities of the tribe of the children of Yahudah toward the border of Edom southward were Kavzeel and Eder and Yagur,
22 And Kinah and Dimonah and Adadah,
23 And Kedesh and Chatzor and Ithnan,
24 Zif and Telem and Bealoth,
25 And Chatzor, Hadattah and Kerioth and Chetzron, which is Chatzor, 26 Amam and Shema and Moladah,
27 And Hazargaddah and Heshmon and Beth-Palet,
28 And Hazarshual and Be-er-Sheva and Bizyothyah,
29 Baalah and Yim and Azem,
30 And Eltolad and Chesil and Hormah,
31 And Ziklag and Madmannah and Sansannah,
32 And Levaoth and Shilhim and Ain and Rimmon: all the cities were twenty-nine, with their villages:
33 And in the valley, Eshtaol and Zoreah and Ashnah,
34 And Zanoah and Engannim, Tappuah and Enam,
35 Yarmuth and Adullam, Socoh and Azekah,
36 And Sharaim and Adithaim and Gederah and Gederothaim; fourteen cities with their villages:
37 Zenan and Hadashah and Migdalgad,
38 And Dilean and Mitzpah and Yoktheel,
39 Lachish and Bozkath and Eglon,
40 And Cavon and Lahmam and Kithlish,
41 And Gederoth, Beth-Dagon and Naamah and Makkedah; sixteen cities with their villages:
42 Livnah and Ether and Ashan,
43 And Yiftach and Ashnah and Neziv,
44 And Keilah and Achziv and Mareshah; nine cities with their villages:
45 Ekron, with its towns and its villages:

46 From Ekron even to the sea, all that was near Ashdod, with their villages:
47 Ashdod with its towns and its villages, Azah with its towns and its villages, to the river of Mitzrayim and the Great Sea and the border of it:
48 And in the mountains, Shamir and Yattir and Socoh,
49 And Dannah and Kiryath-Sannah, which is Devir, 50 And Anav and Eshtemoh and Anim,
51 And Goshen and Holon and Giloh; eleven cities with their villages:
52 Arav and Dumah and Eshean,
53 And Yanum and Beth-Tappuah and Aphekah,
54 And Humtah and Kiryath-Arba, which is Chebron and Tzior; nine cities with their villages:
55 Maon, Carmel and Zif and Yuttah,
56 And Yezreel and Yokdeam and Zanoah,
57 Qayin, Gibeah and Timnah; ten cities with their villages:
58 Halhul, Bethzur and Gedor,
59 And Maarath and Beth-Anoth and Eltekon; six cities with their villages:
60 Kiryath-Ba'al, which is Kiryath-Yearim and Ravh; two cities with their villages:
61 In the wilderness, Beth-Arabah, Middin and Secacah, 62 And Nivshan and the City of Salt and Engedi; six cities with their villages.
63 As for the Yevusites, the inhabitants of Yahrushalayim, the children of Yahudah could not drive them out: but the Yevusites dwell with the children of Yahudah at Yahrushalayim to this yom.

16 And the lot of the children of Yoseph fell from the Yarden River by Yericho, to the mayim of Yericho on the east, to the wilderness that goes up from Yericho throughout Har Beth-El,

2 And goes out from Beth-El to Luz and passes along to the borders of Archi to Ataroth,
3 And goes down westward to the border of Yaphleti, to the border of Beth-Horon the lower and to Gezer: and the goings out of it is at the sea.
4 So the children of Yoseph, Menasheh and Efrayim, took their inheritance.
5 And the border of the children of Efrayim according to their mishpachot was this: even the border of their inheritance on the east side was Atarothaddar, to Beth-Horon the upper;
6 And the border went out toward the sea to Michmethah on the north side; and the border went about eastward to Ta'anath-Shiloh and passed by it on the east to Yanohah;
7 And it went down from Yanohah to Ataroth and to Naarath and came to Yericho and went out at the Yarden River.
8 The border went out from Tappuah westward to the river Kanah; and the goings out of it were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Efrayim by their mishpachot.
9 And the separate cities for the children of Efrayim were among the inheritance of the children of Menasheh, all the cities with their villages.
10 And they did not drive out the Kanaanites that dwelt in Gezer: but the Kanaanites dwell among the Efraimites to this yom and serve under slave labor.

17 There was also a lot for the tribe of Menasheh; for he was the bachor of Yoseph; for Machir the bachor of Menasheh, The Abba of Gilad: because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilad and Bashan.

2 And for the rest of the children of Menasheh by their mishpachot; for the children of Aviezer and for the children of Helek and for the children of Asriel and for the children of Shechem and for the children of Hopher and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Menasheh the son of Yoseph by their mishpachot.

3 But Tzelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilad, the son of Machir, the son of Menasheh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirtzah.

4 And they came near before El-Azar the kohen and before Yahoshua the son of Nun and before the leaders, saying, אֱלֹהֵינוּ commanded Moshe to give us an inheritance among our brothers. Therefore according to the commandment of אֱלֹהֵינוּ he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their abba.

5 And there fell ten portions to Menasheh, beside the land of Gilad and Bashan, which were on the other side of the Yarden River;

6 Because the daughters of Menasheh had an inheritance among his sons: and the rest of Menasheh's sons had the land of Gilad.

7 And the border of Menasheh was from Asher to Michmethah that lies before Shechem; and the border went along on the right hand to the inhabitants of Entappuah.

8 Menasheh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Menasheh belonged to the children of Efrayim;

9 And the border descended to the River Kanah, southward of the river: these cities of Efrayim are among the cities of Menasheh: the border of Menasheh also was on the north side of the river and the outgoings of it were at the sea:

10 Southward it was Efrayim's and northward it was Menasheh's and the sea is his border; and they met together in Asher in the north and in Yissachar in the east.

11 And Menasheh had in Yissachar and in Asher Beth-Shean and her towns and Ivleam and her towns and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns and the inhabitants of Endor and her towns and the inhabitants of Ta-Anach and her towns and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, three districts.

12 Yet the children of Menasheh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Kanaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to pass, when the children of Yisrael were growing strong, that they put the Kanaanites to slave labor; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Yoseph spoke to Yahoshua, saying, Why have you given us just one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing we are a great people, whom אלהים has blessed until now?

15 And Yahoshua answered them, If you are a great people, then get up to the forests and clear out a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaites, since the hills of Efrayim are too narrow for you.

16 And the children of Yoseph said, The hills of Efrayim are not enough for us: and besides, all the Kanaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have mirkavot of iron, both those who are of Beth-Shean and its towns and those who are in the Valley of Yezreel.

17 And Yahoshua spoke to Beit Yoseph, even to Efrayim and to Menasheh, saying, You are a great people, and have great power: you shall not have only one lot:

18 But the har shall be yours; for though it is a forest, you shall cut it down: and its farthest limits shall be yours: for you shall drive out the Kanaanites, though they have iron mirkavot and though they are strong.

18 And the whole kehilla of the children of Yisrael assembled together at Shiloh and set up the Mishkan of the kehilla there. And the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Yisrael seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Yahoshua said to the children of Yisrael, How long are you slack to go to possess the land, which אלהים Ahlohim of your ahvot has given you?

4 Appoint three men from each tribe: and I will send them and they shall rise and go through the land and describe it according to their inheritance; and they shall come back to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Yahudah shall abide in their border on the south and Beit Yoseph shall abide in their borders on the north.

6 You shall therefore describe the land into seven parts and bring the description here to me, that I may cast lots for you here before אלהים our Ahlohim.

7 But the Lewiym have no part among you; for the kohanut of אלהים is their inheritance: and Gad and Reuven and half the tribe of Menasheh, have received their inheritance beyond the Yarden River on the east, which Moshe the eved of אלהים gave them.

8 And the men arose and went away: and Yahoshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land and describe it and come again to me, that I may cast lots here for you before אלהים in Shiloh.

9 And the men went and passed through the land and described it by cities into seven parts in a scroll and came back to Yahoshua to the camp at Shiloh.

10 And Yahoshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before אִלְיָאֵל: and Yahoshua divided the land to the children of Yisrael according to their divisions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their mishpachot: and the border of their lot came forth between the children of Yahudah and the children of Yoseph.

12 And their border on the north side was from the Yarden River; and the border went up to the side of Yericho on the north side and went up through the mountains westward; and the endings of it were at the wilderness of Beth-Aven.

13 And the border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz, which is Beth-El, southward; and the border descended to Atarothadar, near the hill that lies on the south side of the lower Beth-Horon.

14 And the border was drawn there and went around the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lies before Beth-Horon southward; and it ended at Kiryath-Ba'al, which is Kiryath-Yearim, a city of the children of Yahudah: this was the west side.

15 And the south side was from the end of Kiryath-Yearim and the border went out on the west and went out to the well of mayim of Nephtoah:

16 And the border came down to the end of the har that lies before the Valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Refayim on the north and descended to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of Yevusi on the south and descended to Enrogel,

17 And was drawn from the north and went forth to En-Shemesh and went forth toward Geliloth, which is opposite the going up of Adummim and went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuven,

18 And passed along toward the side opposite Aravah northward and went down to Aravah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of Beth-Hoglah northward: and the end of the border was at the north bay of the Salt Sea at the south end of the Yarden River: this was the south border.

20 And the Yarden River was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benyamin, by the boundaries of it all around, according to their mishpachot.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benyamin according to their mishpachot were Yericho and Beth-Hoglah and the Valley of Keziz,

22 And Beth-Aravah and Zemaraim and Beth-El,

23 And Avim and Parah and Ophrah,

24 And Khephar-Haammonai and Ophni and Gava; twelve cities with their villages:

25 Giveon and Ramah and Beeroth,

26 And Mitzpah and Chephirah and Motzah,

27 And Rekem and Irpeel and Taralah,

28 And Tzelah, Eleph and Yevusi, which is Yahrushalayim, Giveath and Kiryath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benyamin according to their mishpachot.

19 And the second lot came forth to Shimon, for the tribe of the children of Shimon according to their mishpachot: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Yahudah.

2 And they had in their inheritance Be-er-Sheva, or Sheva and Moladah,

3 And Hazarshual and Balah and Azem,

4 And Eltolad and Bethul and Hormah,

5 And Ziklag and Beth-Marcavoth and Chatzarsusah,

6 And Beth-LeVaoth and Sharuhem; thirteen cities and their villages:

7 Ain, Remmon and Ether and Ashan; four cities and their villages:

8 And all the villages that were around these cities to Baalathveer, Ramath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Shimon according to their mishpachot.

9 Out of the portion of the children of Yahudah was the inheritance of the children of Shimon: for the part of the children of Yahudah was too much for them: therefore the children of Shimon had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zevulon according to their mishpachot: and the border of their inheritance was to Sarid:

11 And their border went up toward the sea and Maralah and reached to Davasheth and reached to the river that is before Yokneam;

12 And turned from Sarid eastward toward the sunrising to the border of Chisloth-Tavor and then goes out to Daverath and goes up to Yaphia,

13 And from there passes on along on the east to Gat-Hepher, to Et-Katsin and goes out to Rimmon to Neah;

14 And the border went around it on the north side to Hannathon: and ended in the Valley of Yiphthah-EI:

15 And Kattath and Nahallal and Shimron and Idalah and Beth-Lechem: twelve cities with their villages.

16 This is the inheritance of the children of Zevulon according to their mishpachot, these cities with their villages.

17 The fourth lot came out to Yissachar, for the children of Yissachar according to their mishpachot.

18 And their border was toward Yezreel and Chesulloth and Shunem,

19 And Hapharaim and Shion and Anaharath,

20 And Ravith and Kishion and Avez,

21 And Remeth and En-Gannim and En-Haddah and Beth-Pazzez;

22 And the border reaches to Tavor and Shahazimah and Beth-Shemesh; and the outgoings of their border was at the Yarden River: sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Yissachar according to their mishpachot, the cities and their villages.

24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Asher according to their mishpachot.

25 And their border was Helkath and Hali and Beten and Achshaph,

26 And Alammelech and Amad and Misheal; and reaches to Carmel westward and to Shihor-Livnath;

27 And turns toward the rising of the shemesh to Beth-Dagon and reaches to Zevulon and to the Valley of Yiphthah-El toward the north side of Beth-Emek and Neiel and goes out to Cavul on the left hand,

28 And Chebron and Rehov and Hammon and Kanah, even to great Tzidon;

29 And then the border turns to Ramah and to the strong city Tsor; and the border turns to Hosah; and the outgoings of it are at the sea from the border to Achziv:

30 Ummah also and Apehek and Rehov: twenty-two cities with their villages.

31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their mishpachot, these cities with their villages.

32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their mishpachot.

33 And their border was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaananim and Adami-Nekev and Yavne-El, to Lakum; and the outgoings of it were at the Yarden River:

34 And then the border turns westward to Aznothtavor and goes out from there to Hukkok and reaches to Zevulon on the south side and reaches to Asher on the west side and to Yahudah upon the Yarden River toward the rising of the shemesh.

35 And the fortified cities are Ziddim, Zer and Hammath, Rakkath and Chinnereth, 36 And Adamah and Ramah and Chatzor,

37 And Kedesh and Edrei and Enhazor,

38 And Yiron and Migdalel, Horem and Beth-Anath and Beth-Shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their mishpachot, the cities and their villages.

40 And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their mishpachot.

41 And the border of their inheritance was Zorah and Eshtaol and Yir-Shemesh,

42 And Shaalavin and Ayalon and Yethlah,

43 And Elon and Thimnathah and Ekron,

44 And Eltekeh and Givethon and Baalath,

45 And Yehud and Beneberak and Gat-Rimmon,

46 And Meyarkon and Rakkon, with the border before Yapho.

47 And the border of the children of Dan was too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem and took it and smote it with the edge of the sword and possessed it and dwelt in it and called it Leshem-Dan, after the name of Dan their abba.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their mishpachot, these cities with their villages.

49 When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their borders, the children of Yisrael gave an inheritance to Yahoshua the son of Nun among them:

50 According to The Word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל they gave him the city that he asked for, even Timnath-Serah in Har Efrayim: and he built the city and dwelt in it.

51 These are the inheritances, which El-Azar the kohen and Yahoshua the son of Nun and the heads of the ahvot of the tribes of the children of Yisrael, divided for an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before אִיִּזְרָאֵל, at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla. So they made an end of dividing the land.

20 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל also spoke to Yahoshua, saying,

2 Speak to the children of Yisrael, saying, Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, which I spoke to you about through Moshe:

3 That the slayer that kills anyone accidentally, or unintentionally may flee there: and these cities shall be your refuge from the revenger of dahm.

4 And when he that does flee to one of those cities shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and shall declare his cause in the ears of the zechanim of that city, they shall take him into the city and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.

5 And if the revenger of dahm pursues after him, then they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbor unwittingly and did not hate him previously.

6 And he shall dwell in that city, until he stands before the kehilla for mishpat and until the death of the Kohen HaGadol that shall be in those yamim: then shall the slayer return and come to his own city and to his own bayit, to the city from where he fled.

7 And they appointed Kedesh in Galil in Har Naphtali and Shechem in Har Efrayim and Kiryath-Arba, which is Chebron, in the har of Yahudah.

8 And on the other side of the Yarden River by Yericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness upon the plain out of the tribe of Reuven and Ramot in Gilad out of the tribe of Gad and Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Menasheh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Yisrael and for the ger that sojourned among them that whoever killed any person unintentionally might flee there and not die by the hand of the revenger of dahm, until he stood before the kehilla.

21 Then came near the heads of the ahvot of the Lewiym to El-Azar the kohen and to Yahoshua the son of Nun and to the heads of the ahvot of the tribes of the children of Yisrael;

2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Kanaan, saying, אִתָּנוּ commanded through Moshe to give us cities to dwell in, with the suburbs of it for our cattle.

3 And the children of Yisrael gave to the Lewiym out of their inheritance, at the commandment of אִתָּנוּ, these cities and their suburbs.

4 And the lot came out for the mishpachot of the Kohathites: and the children of Aharon the kohen, who were of the Lewiym, had by lot out of the tribe of Yahudah and out of the tribe of Shimon and out of the tribe of Benyamin, thirteen cities.

5 And the rest of the children of Qehath had by lot out of the mishpachot of the tribe of Efrayim and out of the tribe of Dan and out of the half tribe of Menasheh, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the mishpachot of the tribe of Yissachar and out of the tribe of Asher and out of the tribe of Naphtali and out of the half tribe of Menasheh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 The children of Merari by their mishpachot had out of the tribe of Reuven and out of the tribe of Gad and out of the tribe of Zevulon, twelve cities.

8 And the children of Yisrael gave by lot to the Lewiym these cities with their suburbs, as אִתָּנָה commanded through Moshe.

9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Yahudah and out of the tribe of the children of Shimon, these cities that are here mentioned by name,

10 Which the children of Aharon, being of the mishpachot of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Lewi, had: for theirs was the first lot.

11 And they gave them the city of Arba The Abba of Anak, which city is Chebron, in the hill land of Yahudah, with the suburbs of it around it.

12 But the fields of the city and the villages of it, they gave to Kalev the son of Yephunneh for his possession.

13 So they gave to the children of Aharon the kohen Chebron with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Livnah with its suburbs,

14 And Yattir with its suburbs and Eshtemoa with its suburbs,

15 And Holon with its suburbs and Devir with its suburbs,

16 And Ain with its suburbs and Yuttah with its suburbs and Beth-Shemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Benyamin, Giveon with its suburbs, Geva with its suburbs, 18 Anathoth with its suburbs and Almon with its suburbs; four cities.

19 All the cities of the children of Aharon, the kohanim, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

20 And the mishpachot of the children of Qehath, the Lewiym that remained of the children of Qehath, even they had the cities of their lot out of the tribe of Efrayim.

21 For they gave them Shechem with its suburbs in Har Efrayim, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Gezer with its suburbs, 22 And Kivzaim with its suburbs and Beth-Horon with its suburbs; four cities.

23 And out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh with its suburbs, Givethon with its suburbs, 24 Aiyalon with its suburbs, Gat-Rimmon with its suburbs; four cities.

25 And out of the half tribe of Menasheh, Taanach with its suburbs and Gat-Rimmon with its suburbs; two cities.

26 All the cities were ten with their suburbs for the mishpachot of the children of Qehath that remained.

27 And to the children of Gershon, of the mishpachot of the Lewiym, out of the other half tribe of Menasheh they gave Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Beeshterah with its suburbs; two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Yissachar, Kishon with its suburbs, Davareh with its suburbs, 29 Yarmuth with its suburbs, En-Gannim with its suburbs; four cities.

30 And out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal with its suburbs, Avdon with its suburbs, 31 Helkath with its suburbs and Rehov with its suburbs; four cities.

32 And out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galil with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Hammothdor with its suburbs and Kartan with its suburbs; three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gershonites according to their mishpachot were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

34 And to the mishpachot of the children of Merari, the rest of the Lewiym, out of the tribe of Zevulon, Yokneam with its suburbs and Kartah with its suburbs, 35 Dimnah with its suburbs, Nahalal with its suburbs; four cities.

36 And out of the tribe of Reuven, Bezer with its suburbs and Yahazah with its suburbs, 37 Kedemoth with its suburbs and Mephaath with its suburbs; four cities.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramot in Gilad with its suburbs, to be a city of refuge for the slayer; and Machanayim with its suburbs, 39 Cheshbon with its suburbs, Yazer with its suburbs; four cities in all.

40 So all the cities for the children of Merari by their mishpachot, that were remaining of the mishpachot of the Lewiym, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Lewiym within the possession of the children of Yisrael were forty-eight cities with their suburbs.

42 These cities each had suburbs around them: as it was with all these cities.

43 And אֱלֹהִים gave to Yisrael all the land which He swore to give to their ahvot; and they possessed it and dwelt in it.

44 And אֱלֹהִים gave them rest all around, according to all that He swore to their ahvot: and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them; אֱלֹהִים delivered all their enemies into their hand.

45 There failed nothing of any tov Word that אֱלֹהִים had spoken to Beit Yisrael; all came to pass.

22 Then Yahoshua called the Reuvenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of Menasheh,

2 And said to them, You have kept all that Moshe the eved of אלהים commanded you and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you:

3 You have not left your brothers these many yamim to this yom, but have kept the charge of the commandment of אלהים your Ahlohim.

4 And now אלהים your Ahlohim has given rest to your brothers, as He promised them: therefore now return and go to your tents and to the land of your possession, which Moshe the eved of אלהים gave you on the other side of the Yarden River.

5 But take diligent heed to do the mitzvah and the Torah, which Moshe the eved of אלהים charged you, to love אלהים your Ahlohim and to have your halacha in all His halachot and to keep His mitzvot and to cleave to Him and to serve Him with all your lev and with all your being.

6 So Yahoshua blessed them and sent them away: and they went to their tents.

7 Now to the one half of the tribe of Menasheh Moshe had given possession in Bashan: but to the other half of it gave Yahoshua among their brothers on this side of the Yarden River westward. And when Yahoshua sent them away also to their tents, then he blessed them,

8 And he spoke to them, saying, Return with much riches to your tents and with much cattle, with silver and with gold and with brass and with iron and with much clothing: divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.

9 And the children of Reuven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menasheh returned and departed from the children of Yisrael out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Kanaan, to go to the land of Gilad, to the land of their possession, which they possessed, according to The Word of אלהים through Moshe.

10 And when they came to the borders of the Yarden River, that are in the land of Kanaan, the children of Reuven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menasheh built there an altar by the Yarden River, a great altar for all to see.

11 And the children of Yisrael who heard it said, See, the children of Reuven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menasheh have built an altar opposite the land of Kanaan, in the borders of the Yarden, at the passage of the children of Yisrael.

12 And when the children of Yisrael heard it, the whole kehilla of the children of Yisrael gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to war against them.

13 And the children of Yisrael sent to the children of Reuven and to the children of Gad and to the half tribe of Menasheh, into the land of Gilad, Pinchus the son of El-Azar the kohen, 14 And with him ten leaders, one from each bayit a leader throughout all the tribes of Yisrael; and each one was a head of the bayit of their ahvot among the thousands of Yisrael.

15 And they came to the children of Reuven and to the children of Gad and to the half tribe of Menasheh, to the land of Gilad and they spoke with them, saying,

16 This says the whole kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל, What trespass is this that you have committed against the Ahlohim of Yisrael, to turn away this yom from following אִשְׂרָאֵל, in that you have built an altar, that you might rebel this yom against אִשְׂרָאֵל ?

17 Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this yom, although there was a plague in the kehilla of אִשְׂרָאֵל;

18 That you must turn away this yom from following אִשְׂרָאֵל ? And it will be, if you rebel today against אֱלֹהִים, that tomorrow He will be angry with the whole kehilla of Yisrael.

19 And, if the land of your possession is unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of אֱלֹהִים, where אֱלֹהִים 's Mishkan dwells and take possession among us: but rebel not against אֱלֹהִים, nor rebel against us, in building an altar besides the altar of אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim in Shiloh.

20 Did not Achan the son of Zerach commit a trespass in the cursed thing and wrath fell on all the kehilla of Yisrael? And that man did not perish alone in his iniquity.

21 Then the children of Reuven and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Menasheh answered and said to the heads of the thousands of Yisrael,

22 אֱלֹהִים El of ahlohim, אֱלֹהִים El of ahlohim, He knows our reasons and let Yisrael also know our reasons; if it was built in rebellion, or in transgression against אֱלֹהִים, then let Him not save us this yom,

23 If we have built an altar to turn away from following אֱלֹהִים, or to offer on it burnt offerings or meat offerings, or if to offer shalom offerings on it, let אֱלֹהִים Himself enact retribution;

24 But truly because of fear we built it, saying, perhaps in times to come your children might speak to our children, saying, What have you to do with אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael?

25 For אֱלֹהִים has made the Yarden River a border between us and you, you children of Reuven and children of Gad; you have no part with אֱלֹהִים: so might your children make our children cease from fearing אֱלֹהִים.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, or for sacrifice:

27 But that it may serve as a witness between us and you and our generations after us, that we might do the service of אֱלֹהִים before Him with our burnt offerings and with our sacrifices and with our shalom offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, You have no part with אֱלֹהִים.

28 Therefore we said, that it shall be, if they should say this to us, or to our generations in times to come, that we may say again, See the pattern of the altar of אֱלֹהִים, which our ahvot made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 Far be it from us to rebel against אֱלֹהִים and turn this yom from following אֱלֹהִים, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim that is before His Mishkan.

30 And when Pinchus the kohen and the leaders of the kehilla and heads of the thousands of Yisrael who were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuven and the children of Gad and the children of Menasheh spoke, it pleased them.

31 And Pinchus the son of El-Azar the kohen said to the children of Reuven and to the children of Gad and to the children of Menasheh, This yom we perceive that אֱלֹהִים is among us because you have not committed this trespass against אֱלֹהִים: now you have delivered the children of Yisrael out of the Hand of אֱלֹהִים.

32 And Pinchus the son of El-Azar the kohen and the leaders, returned from the children of Reuven and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilad, to the land of Kanaan, to the children of Yisrael and brought them word again.

33 And the thing pleased the children of Yisrael; and the children of Yisrael blessed Ahlohim and no longer intended to go up against them in battle, to destroy the land where the children of Reuven and Gad dwelt.

34 And the children of Reuven and the children of Gad called the altar Ed, for it shall serve as a witness between us that אֱלֹהֵינוּ is our Ahlohim.

23 And it came to pass a long time after that אֱלֹהֵינוּ had given rest to Yisrael from all their enemies all around, that Yahoshua grew old and advanced in age.

2 And Yahoshua called for kol Yisrael and for their zechanim and for their heads and for their shophtim and for their officers and said to them, I am old and advanced in age:

3 And you have seen all that אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim has done to all these goyim because of you; for אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim is He that has fought for you.

4 See; I have divided to you by lot these goyim that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Yarden River, with all the goyim that I have cut off, even to the Great Sea westward.

5 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim, He shall expel them from before you and drive them out of your sight; and you shall possess their land, as אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim has promised to you.

6 Be therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moshe, that you turn not aside from it either to the right hand, or to the left;

7 That you come not among these goyim, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their ahlohim, nor swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow yourselves to them:

8 But cleave to אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Ahlohim, as you have done until this yom.

9 For אֱלֹהִים has driven out from before you great goyim and strong: but as for you, no man has been able to stand before you until this yom.

10 One man of yours shall chase a thousand: for אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, He it is that fights for you, as He has promised you.

11 And you shall carefully guard yourselves, that you fully love אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.

12 But if you do in any derech go back and cleave to the remnant of these goyim, even these that remain among you and shall make marriages with them and go in to them and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim will no longer drive out any of these goyim from before you; but they shall be snares and traps to you and whips in your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this tov land that אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has given you.

14 And, see, this yom I am going the derech of all the earth: and you know in all your levavot and in all your beings, that not one thing has failed of all the tov things which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim spoke concerning you; all has come to pass for you and not one word has failed.

15 Therefore it shall come to pass, that as all the tov things have come upon you, which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim promised you; so shall אֱלֹהִים bring upon you all evil things, until He has destroyed you from off this tov land which אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim has given you.

16 When you have transgressed the brit of אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim, which He commanded you and have gone and served other ahlohim and bowed yourselves to them; then shall the anger of אֱלֹהִים be lit against you and you shall perish quickly from off the tov land which He has given to you.

24 And Yahoshua gathered all the tribes of Yisrael to Shechem and called for the zechanim of Yisrael and for their heads and for their shophtim and for their officers; and they presented themselves before Ahlohim.

2 And Yahoshua said to all the people, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, Your ahvot dwelt on the other side of the River Euphrates in old times, even Terach, The Abba of Avraham and The Abba of Nachor: and they served other ahlohim.

3 And I took your abba Avraham from the other side of the River Euphrates, and led him throughout all the land of Kanaan and multiplied his zera, and gave him Yitzchak.

4 And I gave to Yitzchak, Yaakov and Esav: and I gave to Esav Har Seir, to possess it; but Yaakov and his children went down into Mitzrayim.

5 I sent Moshe also and Aharon and I plagued Mitzrayim, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out.

6 And I brought your ahvot out of Mitzrayim: and you came to the sea; and the Mitzrim pursued after your ahvot with mirkavot and horsemen to the Yam Suf.

7 And when they cried to אֱלֹהִים, He put darkness between you and the Mitzrim and brought the sea upon them and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Mitzrayim: and you dwelt in the wilderness for a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt on the other side of the Yarden River; and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that you might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then Balak the son of Tzippor, melech of Moav, arose and warred against Yisrael and sent and called Bilam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 But I would not listen to Bilam; therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And you went over the Yarden River and came to Yericho: and the men of Yericho fought against you, the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Kanaanites and the Hittites and the Girgashites, the Hivites and the Yevusites; and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent the hornet before you, that drove them out from before you, even the two melechim of the Amorites; but not with your sword, nor with your bow.

13 And I have given you a land for which you did not labor and cities that you built not and now you dwell in them; and eat of the vineyards and olive eytzim, which you did not plant.

14 Now therefore fear אֱלֹהֵיךָ and serve Him in sincerity and in emet: and put away the ahlohim which your ahvot served on the other side of the River Euphrates and in Mitzrayim; and serve אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

15 And if it seems evil to you to serve אֱלֹהֵיךָ, choose this yom whom you will serve; whether the ahlohim which your ahvot served that were on the other side of the River Euphrates, or the ahlohim of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my bayit, we will serve אֱלֹהֵיךָ Ahlohim.

16 And the people answered and said, Far be it from us that we should forsake אֱלֹהֵיךָ, to serve other Ahlohim;

17 For אֱלֹהֵיךָ our Ahlohim, He it is that brought us up and our ahvot out of the land of Mitzrayim, from the bayit of bondage and that did those great signs in our sight and preserved us in all the derech where we went and among all the peoples through whom we passed:

18 And אֱלֹהִים drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who dwelt in the land: therefore will we also serve אֱלֹהִים, for He is our Ahlohim.

19 And Yahoshua said to the people, You cannot serve אֱלֹהִים: for He is a kodesh Ahlohim; He is also a zealous Ahlohim; He will not forgive your transgressions, or your sins.

20 If you forsake אֱלֹהִים and serve strange ahlohim, then He will turn and do you hurt and consume you, even after He has done you tov.

21 And the people said to Yahoshua, No; but we will serve אֱלֹהִים.

22 And Yahoshua said to the people, You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen אֱלֹהִים, to serve Him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away, the strange ahlohim that are among you and incline your lev to אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

24 And the people said to Yahoshua, אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim will we serve and His voice will we obey.

25 So Yahoshua cut a brit with the people that yom and established for them a chuk and a mishpat in Shechem.

26 And Yahoshua wrote these words in the scroll of the Torah of Ahlohim and took a great stone and set it up there under an oak, that was by the Dwelling Place of אֱלֹהִים.

27 And Yahoshua said to all the people, See, this stone shall be a witness to us; for it has heard all the Words of אֱלֹהִים that He spoke to us: it shall be therefore a witness to you, lest you deny your Ahlohim.

28 So Yahoshua let the people depart, every man to his inheritance.

29 And it came to pass after these things, that Yahoshua the son of Nun, the eved of אֱלֹהִים, died, being one hundred ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-Serah, which is in Har Efrayim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash.

31 And Yisrael served אֱלֹהִים all the yamim of Yahoshua and all the yamim of the zechanim that outlived Yahoshua, who had known all the works of אֱלֹהִים, that He had done for Yisrael.

32 And the bones of Yoseph, which the children of Yisrael brought up out of Mitzrayim, were buried in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Yaakov bought from the sons of Hamor The Abba of Shechem for one hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Yoseph.

33 And El-Azar the son of Aharon died; and they buried him in a hill that belonged to Pinchus his son, which was given to him in Har Efrayim. X

Jasher–Sefer Yahshar

1 And אֱלֹהִים said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness, and אֱלֹהִים created man in his own image.

2 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim formed man from the dust of the ground, and He blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being endowed with speech.

3 And אֱלֹהִים said, It is not tov for man to be alone; I will make to him a helpmeet.

4 And אֱלֹהִים caused a deep sleep to fall upon Ahdam, and he slept, and he took away one of his ribs, and he built flesh upon it, and formed it and brought it to Ahdam, and Ahdam awoke from his sleep, and behold an isha was standing before him.

5 And he said, This is a bone of my bones and she shall be called isha, for this has been taken from man; and Ahdam called her name Chawa, for she was the ema of all living.

6 And אֱלֹהִים blessed them and called their names Ahdam and Chawa in the day that He created them, and אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim said, Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth.

7 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim took Ahdam and his wife, and He placed them in the Gan Aden to dress it and to keep it; and He commanded them and said to them, From every tree of the Gan you may eat, but from the tree of the knowledge of tov and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die.

8 And when אֱלֹהִים had blessed and commanded them, He went from them, and Ahdam and his wife dwelt in the gan according to the command which אֱלֹהִים had commanded them.

9 And the serpent, which אֱלֹהִים had created with them in the earth, came to them to incite them to transgress the command of אֱלֹהִים that He had commanded them.

10 And the serpent enticed and persuaded the isha to eat from the tree of knowledge, and the isha hearkened to the voice of the serpent, and she transgressed the word of אֱלֹהִים, and took from the tree of the knowledge of tov and evil, and she ate, and she took from it and gave also to her husband and he ate.

11 And Ahdam and his wife transgressed the command of אֱלֹהִים that He commanded them, and אֱלֹהִים knew it, and His anger was kindled against them and He cursed them.

12 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim drove them that day from the Gan Aden, to till the ground from which they were taken, and they went and dwelt at the east of the Gan Aden; and Ahdam knew his wife Chawa and she bore two sons and three daughters.

13 And she called the name of the first born Cayin, saying, I have obtained a man from אֱלֹהִים, and the name of the other she called Avel, for she said, In vanity we came into the earth, and in vanity we shall be taken from it.

14 And the boys grew up and their abba gave them a possession in the land; and Cayin was a tiller of the ground, and Avel a keeper of sheep.

15 And it was at the expiration of a few years, that they brought an approximating offering to אֱלֹהִים, and Cayin brought from the fruit of the ground, and Avel brought from the firstlings of his flock from the fat of it, and אֱלֹהִים turned and inclined to Avel and his offering, and a fire came down from אֱלֹהִים from the shamayim and consumed it.

16 And to Cayin and his offering אֱלֹהִים did not turn, and he did not incline to it, for he had brought from the inferior fruit of the ground before אֱלֹהִים, and Cayin was jealous against his brother Avel on account of this, and he sought a pretext to slay him.

17 And in some time after, Cayin and Avel his brother, went one day into the field to do their work; and they were both in the field, Cayin tilling and ploughing his ground, and Avel feeding his flock; and the flock passed that part which Cayin had ploughed in the ground, and it sorely grieved Cayin on this account.

18 And Cayin approached his brother Avel in anger, and he said to him, What is there between me and you, that you come to dwell and bring your flock to feed in my land?

19 And Avel answered his brother Cayin and said to him, What is there between me and you, that you shall eat the flesh of my flock and clothe yourself with their wool?

20 And now therefore, put off the wool of my sheep with which you have clothed yourself, and recompense me for their fruit and flesh that you have eaten, and when you shall have done this, I will then go from your land as you have said?

21 And Cayin said to his brother Avel, Surely if I slay you this day, who will require your blood from me?

22 And Avel answered Cayin, saying, Surely אֱלֹהִים who has made us in the earth, He will avenge my cause, and He will require my blood from you should you slay me, for אֱלֹהִים is the Shophet and arbiter, and it is He who will requite man according to his evil, and the wicked man according to the wickedness that he may do upon earth.

23 And now, if you should slay me here, surely אֱלֹהִים knows your secret views, and will judge you for the evil that you did declare to do to me this day.

24 And when Cayin heard the words, which Avel his brother had spoken, behold, the anger of Cayin was kindled against his brother Avel for declaring this thing.

25 And Cayin hurried and rose up, and took the iron part of his ploughing instrument, with which he suddenly smote his brother and he slew him, and Cayin spilt the blood of his brother Avel upon the earth, and the blood of Avel streamed upon the earth before the flock.

26 And after this Cayin repented having slain his brother, and he was sadly grieved, and he wept over him and it vexed him exceedingly.

27 And Cayin rose up and dug a hole in the field, wherein he put his brother's body, and he turned the dust over it.

28 And אַדָּם knew what Cayin had done to his brother, and אַדָּם appeared to Cayin and said to him, Where is Avel your brother that was with you?

29 And Cayin dissembled, and said, I do not know, am I my brother's keeper? And אַדָּם said to him, What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to me from the ground where you have slain him.

30 For you have slain your brother and have dissembled before me, and did imagine in your heart that I saw you not, nor knew all your actions.

31 But you did this thing and did slay your brother for nothing and because he spoke rightly to you, and now, therefore, cursed be you from the ground which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand, and wherein you did bury him.

32 And it shall be when you shall till it, it shall no more give you its strength as in the beginning, for thorns and thistles shall the ground produce, and you shall be moving and wandering in the earth until the day of your death.

33 And at that time Cayin went out from the presence of אֱלֹהִים, from the place where he was, and he went moving and wandering in the land toward the east of Gan-Aden, he and all belonging to him.

34 And Cayin knew his wife in those days, and she conceived and bare a son, and he called his name Chanok, saying, In that time אֱלֹהִים began to give him rest and quiet in the earth.

35 And at that time Cayin also began to build a city: and he built the city and he called the name of the city Chanok, according to the name of his son; for in those days אֱלֹהִים had given him rest upon the earth, and he did not move about and wander as in the beginning.

36 And Irad was born to Chanok, and Irad begat Mechuyael and Mechuyael begat Methusael.

2 And it was in the hundred and thirtieth year of the life of Ahdam upon the earth, that he again knew Chawa his wife, and she conceived and bare a son in his likeness and in his image, and she called his name Sheth, saying, Because אֱלֹהִים has appointed me another zera in the place of Avel, for Cayin has slain him.

2 And Sheth lived one hundred and five years, and he begat a son; and Sheth called the name of his son Enosh, saying, Because in that time the sons of men began to multiply, and to afflict their beings and hearts by transgressing and rebelling against אֱלֹהִים.

3 And it was in the days of Enosh that the sons of men continued to rebel and transgress against אֱלֹהִים, to increase the anger of אֱלֹהִים against the sons of men.

4 And the sons of men went and they served other Ahlohim, and they forgot אֱלֹהִים who had created them in the earth: and in those days the sons of men made images of brass and iron, wood and stone, and they bowed down and served them.

5 And every man made his Ahlohim and they bowed down to them, and the sons of men forsook אֱלֹהִים all the days of Enosh and his children; and the anger of אֱלֹהִים was kindled on account of their works and abominations that they did in the earth.

6 And אֱלֹהִים caused the mayim of the River Gihon to overwhelm them, and he destroyed and consumed them, and he destroyed the third part of the earth, and notwithstanding this, the sons of men did not turn from their evil halachot, and their hands were yet extended to do evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים.

7 And in those days there was neither sowing nor reaping in the earth; and there was no food for the sons of men and the famine was very great in those days.

8 And the zera which they sowed in those days in the ground became thorns, thistles and briars; for from the days of Ahdam was this declaration concerning the earth, of the curse of אֱלֹהִים, which He cursed the earth, on account of the sin which Ahdam sinned before אֱלֹהִים.

9 And it was when men continued to rebel and transgress against אֱלֹהִים, and to corrupt their halachot, that the earth also became corrupt.

10 And Enosh lived ninety years and he begat Cainan;

11 And Cainan grew up and he was forty years old, and he became wise and had knowledge and skill in all wisdom, and he reigned over all the sons of men, and he led the sons of men to wisdom and knowledge; for Cainan was a very wise man and had understanding in all wisdom, and with his wisdom he ruled over ruachs and shadim;

12 And Cainan knew by his wisdom that אַף־אֵל would destroy the sons of men for having sinned upon earth, and that אַף־אֵל would in the latter-days bring upon them the mayim of the flood.

13 And in those days Cainan wrote upon tablets of stone, what was to take place in time to come, and he put them in his treasures.

14 And Cainan reigned over the whole earth, and he turned some of the sons of men to the service of אַף־אֵל.

15 And when Cainan was seventy years old, he begat three sons and two daughters.

16 And these are the names of the children of Cainan; the name of the first born Mahlallel, the second Enan, and the third Mered, and their sisters were Adah and Zillah; these are the five children of Cainan that were born to him.

17 And Lamech, the son of Methusael, became related to Cainan by marriage, and he took his two daughters for his wives, and Adah conceived and bare a son to Lamech, and she called his name Yaval.

18 And she again conceived and bare a son, and called his name Yuval; and Zillah, her sister, was barren in those days and had no offspring.

19 For in those days the sons of men began to trespass against אַף־אֵל, and to transgress the mitzvot that He had commanded to Ahdam, to be fruitful and multiply in the earth.

20 And some of the sons of men caused their wives to drink a draught that would render them barren, in order that they might retain their figures and whereby their beautiful appearance might not fade.

21 And when the sons of men caused some of their wives to drink, Zillah drank with them.

22 And the child-bearing women appeared abominable in the sight of their husbands as widows, while their husbands lived, for to the barren ones only they were attached.

23 And in the end of days and years, when Zillah became old, 𐤆𐤓𐤏𐤍 opened her womb.

24 And she conceived and bare a son and she called his name Tuval Cayin, saying; After I had withered away have I obtained him from the Almighty 𐤆𐤓𐤏𐤍.

25 And she conceived again and bare a daughter, and she called her name Naamah, for she said, After I had withered away have I obtained pleasure and delight.

26 And Lamech was old and advanced in years, and his eyes were dim that he could not see, and Tuval Cayin, his son, was leading him and it was one day that Lamech went into the field and Tuval Cayin his son was with him, and while they were walking in the field, Cayin the son of Ahdam advanced towards them; for Lamech was very old and could not see much, and Tuval Cayin his son was very young.

27 And Tuval Cayin told his abba to draw his bow, and with the arrows he smote Cayin, who was yet far off, and he slew him, for he appeared to them to be an animal.

28 And the arrows entered Cayin's body although he was distant from them, and he fell to the ground and died.

29 And 𐤆𐤓𐤏𐤍 requited Cayin's evil according to his wickedness, which he had done to his brother Avel, according to the word of 𐤆𐤓𐤏𐤍 that He had spoken.

30 And it came to pass when Cayin had died, that Lamech and Tuval went to see the animal which they had slain, and they saw, and behold Cayin their grandfather was fallen dead upon the earth.

31 And Lamech was very much grieved at having done this, and in clapping his hands together he struck his son and caused his death.

32. And the wives of Lamech heard what Lamech had done, and they sought to kill him.

33 And the wives of Lamech hated him from that day, because he slew Cayin and Tuval Cayin, and the wives of Lamech separated from him, and would not listen to him in those days.

34 And Lamech came to his wives, and he pressed them to listen to him about this matter.

35 And he said to his wives Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice O wives of Lamech, attend to my words, for now you have imagined and said that I slew a man with my wounds, and a child with my stripes for their having done no violence, but surely know that I am old and grey-headed, and that my eyes are heavy through age, and I did this thing unknowingly.

36 And the wives of Lamech listened to him in this matter, and they returned to him with the advice of their abba Ahdam, but they bore no children to him from that time, knowing that אָדָם's anger was increasing in those days against the sons of men, to destroy them with the mayim of the flood for their evil doings.

37 And Mahlallel the son of Cainan lived sixty-five years and he begat Yahred; and Yahred lived one hundred sixty-two years and he begat Chanok.

3 And Chanok lived sixty-five years and he begat Metushelach; and Chanok walked with אָדָם after having begot Metushelach, and he served אָדָם, and despised the evil halachot of men.

2 And the being of Chanok was wrapped up in the Torah of אָדָם, in knowledge and in understanding; and he wisely retired from the sons of men, and secreted himself from them for many days.

3 And it was at the expiration of many years, while he was serving אֱלֹהִים, and praying before Him in his house, that a malach of אֱלֹהִים called to him from ha shamayim, and he said, Hinayni.

4 And He said, Rise, go forth from your house and from the place where you do hide yourself, and appear to the sons of men, in order that you may teach them the halacha in which they should go and the work which they must accomplish to enter in the halachot of אֱלֹהִים.

5 And Chanok rose up according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, and went forth from his house, from his place and from the chamber in which he was concealed; and he went to the sons of men and taught them the halachot of אֱלֹהִים, and at that time assembled the sons of men and acquainted them with the Torah of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And he ordered it to be proclaimed in all places where the sons of men dwelt, saying, Where is the man who wishes to know the halachot of אֱלֹהִים and tov works? Let him come to Chanok.

7 And all the sons of men then assembled to him, for all who desired this thing went to Chanok, and Chanok reigned over the sons of men according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, and they came and bowed to him and they heard his word.

8 And the Ruach of אֱלֹהִים was upon Chanok, and he taught all his men the wisdom of אֱלֹהִים and his halachot, and the sons of men served אֱלֹהִים all the days of Chanok, and they came to hear his wisdom.

9 And all the melechim of the sons of men, both first and last, together with their princes and shophtim, came to Chanok when they heard of his wisdom, and they bowed down to him, and they also required of Chanok to reign over them, to which he consented.

10 And they assembled in all, one hundred and thirty melechim and princes, and they made Chanok melech over them and they were all under his power and command.

11 And Chanok taught them wisdom, knowledge, and the halachot of אֱלֹהִים; and he made shalom among them, and shalom was throughout the earth during the life of Chanok.

12 And Chanok reigned over the sons of men two hundred and forty-three years, and he did mishpat and tzedakah with all his people, and he led them in the halachot of אֱלֹהִים.

13 And these are the generations of Chanok, Metushelach, Elisha, and Elimelech, three sons; and their sisters were Melca and Nahmah, and Metushelach lived one hundred eighty-seven years and he begat Lamech.

14 And it was in the fifty-sixth year of the life of Lamech when Ahdam died; nine hundred and thirty years old was he at his death, and his two sons, with Chanok and Metushelach his son, buried him with great pomp, as at the burial of melechim, in the cave which אֱלֹהִים had told him.

15 And in that place all the sons of men made a great mourning and weeping on account of Ahdam; it has therefore become a custom among the sons of men to this day.

16 And Ahdam died because he ate of the tree of knowledge; he and his children after him, as אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim had spoken.

17 And it was in the year of Ahdam's death which was the two hundred and forty-third year of the reign of Chanok, in that time Chanok resolved to separate himself from the sons of men and to secret himself as at first in order to serve אֱלֹהִים.

18 And Chanok did so, but did not entirely secret himself from them, but kept away from the sons of men three days and then went to them for one day.

19 And during the three days that he was in his chamber, he prayed to, and praised אֱלֹהֵי אֱלֹהֵי, and the day on which he went and appeared to his subjects he taught them the halachot of אֱלֹהֵי, and all they asked him about אֱלֹהֵי he told them.

20 And he did in this manner for many years, and he afterward concealed himself for six days, and appeared to his people one day in seven; and after that once in a month, and then once in a year, until all the melechim, princes and sons of men sought for him, and desired again to see the face of Chanok, and to hear his word; but they could not, as all the sons of men were greatly afraid of Chanok, and they feared to approach him on account of the אֱלֹהֵי-like awe that was seated upon his countenance; therefore no man could look at him, fearing he might be punished and die.

21 And all the melechim and princes resolved to assemble the sons of men, and to come to Chanok, thinking that they might all speak to him at the time when he should come forth among them, and they did so.

22 And the day came when Chanok went forth and they all assembled and came to him, and Chanok spoke to them the words of אֱלֹהֵי and he taught them wisdom and knowledge, and they bowed down before him and they said, May the melech live! May the melech live!

23 And in some time after, when the melechim and princes and the sons of men were speaking to Chanok, and Chanok was teaching them the halachot of אֱלֹהֵי, behold a malach of אֱלֹהֵי then called to Chanok from the shamayim, and wished to bring him up to the shamayim to make him reign there over the sons of אֱלֹהִים, as he had reigned over the sons of men upon earth.

24 When at that time Chanok heard this he went and assembled all the inhabitants of the earth, and taught them wisdom and knowledge and gave them divine Torot, and he said to them, I have been required to ascend into the shamayim, I therefore do not know the day of my going.

25 And now therefore I will teach you wisdom and knowledge and will give you Torah before I leave you, how to act upon earth whereby you may live; and he did so.

26 And he taught them wisdom and knowledge, and gave them Torah, and he reproved them, and he placed before them chukim and mishpatim to do upon earth, and he made shalom among them, and he taught them everlasting life-chayay-olam, and dwelt with them some time teaching them all these things.

27 And at that time the sons of men were with Chanok, and Chanok was speaking to them, and they lifted up their eyes and the likeness of a great horse descended from the shamayim, and the horse paced in the air;

28 And they told Chanok what they had seen, and Chanok said to them, On my account does this horse descend upon earth; the time has come when I must go from you and I shall no more be seen by you.

29 And the horse descended at that time and stood before Chanok, and all the sons of men that were with Chanok saw him.

30 And Chanok then again ordered a voice to be proclaimed, saying, Where is the man who delights to know the halachot of אֱלֹהִים his אֱלֹהִים, let him come this day to Chanok before he is taken from us.

31 And all the sons of men assembled and came to Chanok that day; and all the melechim of the earth with their princes and counselors remained with him that day; and Chanok then taught the sons of men wisdom and knowledge, and gave them divine Torah; and he bade them to serve אֱלֹהֵיכֶם and walk in his halachot all the days of their lives, and he continued to make shalom among them.

32 And it was after this that he rose up and rode upon the horse; and he went forth and all the sons of men went after him, about eight hundred thousand men; and they went with him one day's journey.

33 And the second day he said to them, Return home to your tents, why will you go? Perhaps you may die; and some of them went from him, and those that remained went with him six day's journey; and Chanok said to them every day, Return to your tents, lest you may die; but they were not willing to return, and they went with him.

34 And on the sixth day some of the men remained and clung to him, and they said to him, We will go with you to the place where you go; as אֱלֹהֵיכֶם lives, death only shall separate us.

35 And they urged so much to go with him, that he ceased speaking to them; and they went after him and would not return;

36 And when the melechim returned they caused a census to be taken, in order to know the number of remaining men that went with Chanok; and it was upon the seventh day Shabbat that Chanok ascended into the shamayim in a whirlwind, with horses and mirkavot of fire.

37 And on the eighth day all the melechim that had been with Chanok sent to bring back the number of men that were with Chanok, in that place from which he ascended into the shamayim.

38 And all those melechim went to the place and they found the earth there filled with snow, and upon the snow were large stones of snow and one said to the other, Come, let us break through the snow and see, perhaps the men that remained with Chanok are dead, and are now under the stones of snow, and they searched but could not find him, for he had ascended into the shamayim.

4 And all the days that Chanok lived upon earth, were three hundred and sixty-five years.

2 And when Chanok had ascended into the shamayim, all the melechim of the earth rose and took Metushelach his son and anointed him, and they caused him to reign over them in the place of his abba.

3 And Metushelach acted uprightly in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, as his abba Chanok had taught him, and he likewise during the whole of his life taught the sons of men wisdom, knowledge and the fear of אֱלֹהִים, and he did not turn from the tov way either to the right or to the left.

4 But in the latter-days of Metushelach, the sons of men turned from אֱלֹהִים, they corrupted the earth, they robbed and plundered each other, and they rebelled against אֱלֹהִים and they transgressed, and they corrupted their halachot, and would not listen to the voice of Metushelach, but rebelled against him.

5 And אֱלֹהִים was exceedingly angry against them, and אֱלֹהִים continued to destroy the zera in those days, so that there was neither sowing nor reaping in the earth.

6 For when they sowed the ground in order that they might obtain food for their support, behold, thorns and thistles were produced which they did not sow.

7 And still the sons of men did not turn from their evil halachot, and their hands were still extended to do evil in the sight of אלהים, and they provoked אלהים with their evil halachot, and אלהים was very angry, and repented that He had made man.

8 And he thought to destroy and annihilate them and he did so.

9 In those days when Lamech the son of Metushelach was one hundred and sixty years old, Sheth the son of Ahdam died.

10 And all the days that Sheth lived, were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.

11 And Lamech was one hundred and eighty years old when he took Ashmua, the daughter of Elishaa the son of Chanok his uncle, and she conceived.

12 And at that time the sons of men sowed the ground, and a little food was produced, yet the sons of men did not turn from their evil halachot, and they trespassed and rebelled against אלהים.

13 And the wife of Lamech conceived and bare him a son at that time, at the turn of the year.

14 And Metushelach called his name Noach, saying, The earth was in his days at rest and free from corruption, and Lamech his abba called his name Menachem saying, This one shall comfort us in our works and miserable toil in the earth, which אלהים had cursed.

15 And the child grew up and was weaned, and he went in the halachot of his abba Metushelach, perfect and upright with אלהים.

16 And all the sons of men departed from the halachot of אלהים in those days as they multiplied upon the face of the earth with sons and daughters, and they taught one another their evil practices and they continued sinning against אלהים.

17 And every man made to himself an Ahlohim, and they robbed and plundered every man his neighbor as well as his relative, and they corrupted the earth, and the earth was filled with violence.

18 And their shophtim and rulers went to the daughters of men and took their wives by force from their husbands according to their choice, and the sons of men in those days took from the cattle of the earth, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and taught the mixture of animals of one species with the other, in order therewith to provoke אֱלֹהִים; and אֱלֹהִים saw the whole earth and it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted its halachot upon earth, all men and all animals.

19 And אֱלֹהִים said, I will blot out man that I created from the face of the earth, yes from man to the birds of the air, together with cattle and beasts that are in the field for I repent that I made them.

20 And all men who walked in the halachot of אֱלֹהִים, died in those days, before אֱלֹהִים brought the evil upon man which he had declared, for this was from אֱלֹהִים, that they should not see the evil which אֱלֹהִים spoke of concerning the sons of men.

21 And Noach found rachamim in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים chose him and his children to raise up zera from them upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And it was in the eighty-fourth year of the life of Noach that Chanok the son of Sheth died; he was nine hundred and five years old at his death.

2 And in the one hundred and seventy ninth year of the life of Noach, Cainan the son of Enosh died, and all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.

3 And in the two hundred and thirty fourth year of the life of Noach, Mahlallel the son of Cainan died, and the days of Mahlallel were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.

4 And Yahred the son of Mahlallel died in those days, in the three hundred and sixty-sixth year of the life of Noach; and all the days of Yahred were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.

5 And all who followed אִיִּם died in those days, before they saw the evil that אִיִּם declared to do upon earth.

6 And after the lapse of many years, in the four hundred and eightieth year of the life of Noach, when all those men, who followed אִיִּם had died away from among the sons of men, and only Metushelach was then left, אִיִּם said to Noach and Metushelach, saying,

7 Speak, and proclaim to the sons of men, saying, This says אִיִּם, return from your evil halachot and forsake your works, and אִיִּם will relent of the evil that he declared to do to you, so that it shall not come to pass.

8 For this says אִיִּם, Behold I give you a period of one hundred and twenty years; if you will teshuvah to me and forsake your evil halachot, then will I also turn away from the evil that I told you, and it shall not exist, says אִיִּם.

9 And Noach and Metushelach spoke all the words of אִיִּם to the sons of men, day after day, constantly speaking to them.

10 But the sons of men would not listen to them, nor incline their ears to their words, and they were stiff-necked.

11 And אִיִּם granted them a period of one hundred and twenty years, saying, If they will teshuvah, then will אִיִּם repent of the evil, so as not to destroy the earth.

12 Noach the son of Lamech refrained from taking a wife in those days, to beget children, for he said, Surely now אִיִּם will destroy the earth, why then shall I beget children?

13 And Noach was a just man, he was perfect in his generation, and אלהים chose him to raise up zera from his zera upon the face of the earth.

14 And אלהים said to Noach, Take to you a wife, and beget children, for I have seen you tzadik before me in this generation.

15 And you shall raise up zera, and your children with you, in the midst of the earth; and Noach went and took a wife, and he chose Naamah the daughter of Chanok, and she was five hundred and eighty years old.

16 And Noach was four hundred and ninety-eight years old, when he took Naamah for a wife.

17 And Naamah conceived and bare a son, and he called his name Yahpheth, saying, אלהים has enlarged me in the earth; and she conceived again and bare a son, and he called his name Shem, saying, אלהים has made me a remnant, to raise up zera in the midst of the earth.

18 And Noach was five hundred and two years old when Naamah bare Shem, and the boys grew up and went in the halachot of אלהים, in all that Metushelach and Noach their abba taught them.

19 And Lamech the abba of Noach, died in those days; yet truly he did not go with all his heart in the halachot of his abba, and he died in the five hundred and ninety-fifth  year of the life of Noach.

20 And all the days of Lamech were seven hundred and seventy seven years, and he died.

21 And all the sons of men who knew אלהים, died in that year before אלהים brought evil upon them; for אלהים willed them to die, so as not to behold the evil that אלהים would bring upon their brothers and relatives, as He had so declared to do.

22 In that time, אלהים said to Noach and Metushelach, Stand forth and proclaim to the sons of men all the words that I spoke to you in those days, perhaps they may teshuvah from their evil halachot, and I will then relent of the evil and will not bring it.

23 And Noach and Metushelach stood forth, and said in the ears of the sons of men, all that אֱלֹהִים had spoken concerning them.

24 But the sons of men would not listen, neither would they incline their ears to all their declarations.

25 And it was after this that אֱלֹהִים said to Noach, The end of all flesh has come before me, on account of their evil deeds, and behold I will destroy the earth.

26 And you take for yourself gopher wood, and go to a certain place and make a large ark, and place it in that spot.

27 And this shall you make it; three hundred cubits its length, fifty cubits wide and thirty cubits high.

28 And you shall make to you a door, open at its side, and to a cubit you shall finish above, and cover it within and without with pitch.

29 And behold I will bring the flood of mayim upon the earth, and all flesh will be destroyed, from under the shamayim all that is upon earth shall perish.

30 And you and your household shall go and gather two couple of all living things, male and female, and shall bring them to the ark, to raise up zera from them upon earth.

31 And gather to you all food that is eaten by all the animals, that there may be food for you and for them.

32 And you shall choose for your sons three maidens, from the daughters of men, and they shall be wives to your sons.

33 And Noach rose up, and he made the ark, in the place where אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, and Noach did as אֱלֹהִים had ordered him.

34 In his five hundred and ninety-fifth year Noach commenced to make the ark, and he made the ark in five years, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded.

35 Then Noach took the three daughters of Eliyakim, son of Metushelach, for wives for his sons, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Noach.

36 And it was at that time Metushelach the son of Chanok died, nine hundred and sixty nine years old was he, at his death.

6 At that time, after the death of Metushelach, אֱלֹהִים said to Noach, Go you with your household into the ark; behold I will gather to you all the animals of the earth, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and they shall all come and surround the ark.

2 And you shall go and seat yourself by the doors of the ark, and all the beasts, the animals, and the fowls, shall assemble and place themselves before you, and such of them as shall come and crouch before you, shall you take and deliver into the hands of your sons, who shall bring them to the ark, and all that will stand before you; you shall leave.

3 And אֱלֹהִים brought this about on the next day, and animals, beasts and fowls came in great multitudes and surrounded the ark.

4 And Noach went and seated himself by the door of the ark, and of all flesh that crouched before him, he brought into the ark, and all that stood before him he left upon earth.

5 And a lioness came, with her two whelps, male and female, and the three crouched before Noach, and the two whelps rose up against the lioness and smote her, and made her flee from her place, and she went away, and they returned to their places, and crouched upon the earth before Noach.

6 And the lioness ran away, and stood in the place of the lions.

7 And Noach saw this, and wondered greatly, and he rose and took the two whelps, and brought them into the ark.

8 And Noach brought into the ark from all living creatures that were upon earth, so that there was none left but which Noach brought into the ark.

9 Two and two came to Noach into the ark, but from the clean animals, and clean fowls, he brought seven couples, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him.

10 And all the animals, and beasts, and fowls, were still there, and they surrounded the ark at every place, and the rain had not descended till seven days after.

11 And on that day, אֱלֹהִים caused the whole earth to shake, and the sun darkened, and the foundations of the world raged, and the whole earth was moved violently, and the lightning flashed, and the thunder roared, and all the fountains in the earth were broken up, such as was not known to the inhabitants before; and אֱלֹהִים did this mighty act, in order to terrify the sons of men, that there might be no more evil upon earth.

12 And still the sons of men would not return from their evil halachot, and they increased the anger of אֱלֹהִים at that time, and did not even direct their hearts to all this.

13 And at the end of seven days, in the six hundredth year of the life of Noach, the mayim of the flood were upon the earth.

14 And all the fountains of the deep were broken up, and the windows of the shamayim were opened, and the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

15 And Noach and his household, and all the living creatures that were with him, came into the ark on account of the mayim of the flood, and אֱלֹהִים shut him in.

16 And all the sons of men that were left upon the earth, became exhausted through evil on account of the rain, for the mayim was coming more violently upon the earth, and the animals and beasts were still surrounding the ark.

17 And the sons of men assembled together, about seven hundred thousand men and women, and they came to Noach to the ark.

18 And they called to Noach, saying, Open for us that we may come to you in the ark--and why shall we die?

19 And Noach, with a loud voice, answered them from the ark, saying, Have you not all rebelled against אֱלֹהִים, and said that he does not exist? And therefore אֱלֹהִים brought upon you this evil, to destroy and cut you off from the face of the earth.

20 Is not this the thing that I spoke to you of one hundred and twenty years back, and you would not listen to the voice of אֱלֹהִים, and now do you desire to live upon earth?

21 And they said to Noach, We are ready to teshuvah to אֱלֹהִים; only open for us that we may live and not die.

22 And Noach answered them, saying, Behold now that you see the trouble of your beings, you wish to teshuvah to אֱלֹהִים; why did you not teshuvah during these hundred and twenty years, which אֱלֹהִים granted you as the determined period?

23 But now you come and tell me this on account of the troubles of your beings, now also אֱלֹהִים will not listen to you, neither will He give ear to you on this day, so that you will not now succeed in your wishes.

24 And the sons of men approached in order to break into the ark, to come in on account of the rain, for they could not bear the rain upon them.

25 And אֱלֹהִים sent all the beasts and animals that stood round the ark. And the beasts overpowered them and drove them from that place, and every man went his way and they again scattered themselves upon the face of the earth.

26 And the rain was still descending upon the earth, and it descended forty days and forty nights, and the mayim prevailed greatly upon the earth; and all flesh that was upon the earth or in the mayim died, whether men, animals, beasts, creeping things or birds of the air, and there only remained Noach and those that were with him in the ark.

27 And the mayim prevailed and they greatly increased upon the earth, and they lifted up the ark and it was raised from the earth.

28 And the ark floated upon the face of the mayim, and it was tossed upon the mayim so that all the living creatures within were turned about like pottage in a cauldron.

29 And great anxiety seized all the living creatures that were in the ark, and the ark was like to be broken.

30 And all the living creatures that were in the ark were terrified, and the lions roared, and the oxen lowed, and the wolves howled, and every living creature in the ark spoke and lamented in its own language, so that their voices reached to a great distance, and Noach and his sons cried and wept in their troubles; they were greatly afraid that they had reached the gates of death.

31 And Noach prayed to אֱלֹהִים, and cried to him on account of this, and he said, O אֱלֹהִים help us, for we have no strength to bear this evil that has encompassed us, for the waves of the mayim have surrounded us, mischievous torrents have terrified us, the snares of death have come before us; answer us, O אֱלֹהִים, answer us, light up your countenance toward us and be gracious to us, redeem us and deliver us.

32 And אֱלֹהִים hearkened to the voice of Noach, and אֱלֹהִים remembered him.

33 And a wind passed over the earth, and the mayim were still and the ark rested.

34 And the fountains of the deep and the windows of the shamayim were stopped, and the rain from the shamayim was restrained.

35 And the mayim decreased in those days, and the ark rested upon the mountains of Ararat.

36 And Noach then opened the windows of the ark, and Noach still called out to אֱלֹהִים at that time and he said, O אֱלֹהִים, who did form the earth and the shamayim and all that are in it, bring forth our beings from this confinement, and from the prison wherein you have placed us, for I am much wearied with sighing.

37 And אֱלֹהִים hearkened to the voice of Noach, and said to him, When you shall have completed a full year you shall then go forth.

38 And at the turn of the year, when a full year was completed to Noach's dwelling in the ark, the mayim were dried from off the earth, and Noach put off the covering of the ark.

39 At that time, on the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the earth was dry, but Noach and his sons, and those that were with him, did not go out from the ark until אֱלֹהִים told them.

40 And the day came that אֱלֹהִים told them to go out, and they all went out from the ark.

41 And they went and returned every one to his way and to his place, and Noach and his sons dwelt in the land that אֱלֹהִים had told them, and they served וַיֵּלֶךְ אֵת כָּל יְמֵיָם, וַיְבָרֵךְ אֱלֹהִים אֶת נֹחַ וְאֶת בָּנָיו בְּצֵאתָם מִן הַתְּיָבֹהוֹת.

42 And He said to them, Be fruitful and fill all the earth; become strong and increase abundantly in the earth and multiply therein.

7 And these are the names of the sons of Noach: Yahpheth, Ham and Shem; and children were born to them after the flood, for they had taken wives before the flood.

2 These are the sons of Yahpheth; Gomer, Magog, Madai, Yahvan, Tuval, Meshech, and Tiras, seven sons.

3 And the sons of Gomer were Ashkinaz, Rephath and Tegarmah.

4 And the sons of Magog were Elichanaf and Luval.

5 And the children of Madai were Achon, Zeelo, Chazoni and Lot.

6 And the sons of Yahvan were Elisha, Tarshish, Chittim and Dudonim.

7 And the sons of Tuval were Ariphi, Kesed and Taari.

8 And the sons of Meshech were Dedon, Zaron and Shebashni.

9 And the sons of Tiras were Beniv, Gera, Lupirion and Gilak; these are the sons of Yahpheth according to their families, and their numbers in those days were about four hundred and sixty men.

10 And these are the sons of Ham; Cush, Mitzrayim, Phut and Kanaan, four sons; and the sons of Cush were Seva, Havilah, Savta, Raama and Satecha, and the sons of Raama were Sheva and Dedan.

11 And the sons of Mitzrayim were Lud, Anom and Pathros, Chasloth and Chaphtor.

12 And the sons of Phut were Gevul, Hadan, Benah and Adan.

13 And the sons of Kanaan were Tzidon, Cheth, Amori, Gergashi, Hivi, Arkee, Seni, Arodi, Zimodi and Chamothi.

14 These are the sons of Ham, according to their families, and their numbers in those days were about seven hundred and thirty men.

15 And these are the sons of Shem; Eylam, Ashur, Arpachshad, Lud and Aram, five sons; and the sons of Eylam were Shushan, Machul and Harmon.

16 And the sons of Ashar were Mirus and Mokil, and the sons of Arpachshad were Shelach, Anar and Ashcol.

17 And the sons of Lud were Pethor and Bizayon, and the sons of Aram were Uz, Chul, Gather and Mash.

18 These are the sons of Shem, according to their families; and their numbers in those days were about three hundred men.

19 These are the generations of Shem; Shem begat Arpachshad and Arpachshad begat Shelach, and Shelach begat Ever and to Ever were born two children, the name of one was Peleg, for in his days the sons of men were divided, and in the latter-days, the earth was divided.

20 And the name of the second was Yoktan, meaning that in his day the lives of the sons of men were diminished and lessened.

21 These are the sons of Yoktan; Almodad, Shelaf, Chazarmoveth, Yerach, Hadurom, Ozel, Diklah, Oval, Avimael, Sheva, Ophir, Havilah and Jovab; all these are the sons of Yoktan.

22 And Peleg his brother begat Yen, and Yen begat Serug, and Serug begat Nachor and Nachor begat Terah, and Terah was thirty-eight years old, and he begat Charan and Nachor.

23 And Cush the son of Ham, the son of Noach, took a wife in those days in his old age, and she bare a son, and they called his name Nimrod, saying, At that time the sons of men again began to rebel and transgress against אֱלֹהִים, and the child grew up, and his abba loved him exceedingly, for he was the son of his old age.

24 And the garments of skin that אֱלֹהִים made for Ahdam and his wife, when they went out of the gan, were given to Cush.

25 For after the death of Ahdam and his wife, the garments were given to Chanok, the son of Yahred, and when Chanok was taken up to אֱלֹהִים, he gave them to Metushelach, his son.

26 And at the death of Metushelach, Noach took them and brought them to the ark, and they were with him until he went out of the ark.

27 And in their going out, Ham stole those garments from Noach his abba, and he took them and hid them from his brothers.

28 And when Ham begat his bechor Cush, he gave him the garments in secret, and they were with Cush many days.

29 And Cush also concealed them from his sons and brothers, and when Cush had begotten Nimrod, he gave him those garments through his love for him, and Nimrod grew up, and when he was twenty years old he put on those garments.

30 And Nimrod became strong when he put on the garments, and אֱלֹהִים gave him might and strength, and he was a mighty hunter in the earth, yes, he was a mighty hunter in the field, and he hunted the animals and he built altars, and he offered upon them the animals before אֱלֹהִים.

31 And Nimrod strengthened himself, and he rose up from among his brothers, and he fought the battles of his brothers against all their enemies round about.

32 And אֲרַמְּךָ delivered all the enemies of his brothers in his hands, and אֲרַמְּךָ prospered him from time to time in his battles, and he reigned upon earth.

33 Therefore it became current in those days, when a man ushered forth those that he had trained up for battle, he would say to them, Like אֲרַמְּךָ did to Nimrod, who was a mighty hunter in the earth, and who succeeded in the battles that prevailed against his brothers, that he delivered them from the hands of their enemies, so may אֲרַמְּךָ strengthen us and deliver us this day.

34 And when Nimrod was forty years old, at that time there was a war between his brothers and the children of Yahpheth, so that they were in the power of their enemies.

35 And Nimrod went forth at that time, and he assembled all the sons of Cush and their families, about four hundred and sixty men, and he hired also from some of his friends and acquaintances about eighty men, and he gave them their pay, and he went with them to battle, and when he was on the road, Nimrod strengthened the hearts of the people that went with him.

36 And he said to them, Do not fear, neither be alarmed, for all our enemies will be delivered into our hands, and you may do with them as you please.

37 And all the men that went were about five hundred, and they fought against their enemies, and they destroyed them, and subdued them, and Nimrod placed standing officers over them in their respective places.

38 And he took some of their children as security, and they were all servants to Nimrod and to his brothers, and Nimrod and all the people that were with him turned homeward.

39 And when Nimrod had joyfully returned from battle, after having conquered his enemies, all his brothers, together with those who knew him before, assembled to make him melech over them, and they placed the regal keter upon his head.

40 And he set over his subjects and people, princes, shophtim, and rulers, as is the custom among melechim.

41 And he placed Terah the son of Nachor the prince of his host, and he dignified him and elevated him above all his princes.

42 And while he was reigning according to his heart's desire, after having conquered all his enemies around, he advised with his counselors to build a city for his palace, and they did so.

43 And they found a large valley opposite to the east, and they built him a large and extensive city, and Nimrod called the name of the city that he built Shinar, for אִפְפַּז had vehemently shaken his enemies and destroyed them.

44 And Nimrod dwelt in Shinar, and he reigned securely, and he fought with his enemies and he subdued them, and he prospered in all his battles, and his malchut became very great.

45 And all nations and tongues heard of his fame, and they gathered themselves to him, and they bowed down to the earth, and they brought him offerings, and he became their master and melech, and they all dwelt with him in the city at Shinar, and Nimrod reigned in the earth over all the sons of Noach, and they were all under his power and counsel.

46 And all the earth was of one tongue and words of union, but Nimrod did not go in the halachot of אִפְפַּז, and he was more wicked than all the men that were before him, from the days of the flood until those days.

47 And he made ahlohim of wood and stone, and he bowed down to them, and he rebelled against אֱלֹהִים, and taught all his subjects and the people of the earth his wicked halachot; and Mardon his son was more wicked than his abba.

48 And every one that heard of the acts of Mardon the son of Nimrod would say, concerning him, from the wicked goes forth wickedness; therefore it became a mishle in the whole earth, saying, From the wicked goes forth wickedness, and it was current in the words of men from that time to this.

49 And Terah the son of Nachor, prince of Nimrod's army, was in those days very great in the sight of the melech and his subjects, and the melech and princes loved him, and they elevated him very high.

50 And Terah took a wife and her name was Amthelo the daughter of Cornevo; and the wife of Terah conceived and bare him a son in those days.

51 Terah was seventy years old when he begat him, and Terah called the name of his son that was born to him Avram, because the melech had raised him in those days, and dignified him above all his princes that were with him.

8 And it was in the night that Avram was born, that all the servants of Terah, and all the wise men of Nimrod, and his conjurors came and ate and drank in the house of Terah, and they rejoiced with him on that night.

2 And when all the wise men and conjurors went out from the house of Terah, they lifted up their eyes toward the shamayim that night to look at the stars, and they saw, and behold one very large star came from the east and ran in the shamayim, and he swallowed up the four stars from the four sides of the shamayim.

3 And all the wise men of the melech and his conjurors were astonished at the sight, and the sages understood this matter, and they knew its import.

4 And they said to each other, This only is a sign that the child that has been born to Terah this night, who will grow up and be fruitful, and multiply, and possess all the earth, he and his children le-olam-va-ed, and he and his zera will slay great melechim, and inherit their lands

5 And the wise men and conjurors went home that night, and in the morning all these wise men and conjurors rose up early, and assembled in an appointed house.

6 And they spoke and said to each other, Behold the sight that we saw last night is hidden from the melech, it has not been made known to him.

7 And should this thing get known to the melech in the latter-days, he will say to us, why have you concealed this matter from me, and then we shall all suffer death; therefore, now let us go and tell the melech the sight which we saw, and the interpretation of it, and we shall then remain clear.

8 And they did so, and they all went to the melech and bowed down to him to the ground, and they said, May the melech live, may the melech live.

9 We heard that a son was born to Terah the son of Nachor, the prince of your host, and we came to his house last night, and we ate and drank and rejoiced with him that night.

10 And when your servants went out from the house of Terah, to go to our respective homes to abide there for the night, we lifted up our eyes to the shamayim, and we saw a great star coming from the east, and the same star ran with great speed, and swallowed up four great stars, from the four sides of the shamayim

11 And your servants were astonished at the sight which we saw, and were greatly terrified, and we made our mishpat upon the sight, and knew by our wisdom the proper interpretation of it, that this thing applies to the child that is born to Terah, who will grow up and multiply greatly, and become powerful, and kill all the melechim of the earth, and inherit all their lands, he and his zera le-olam-va-ed.

12 And now our master and melech, behold we have truly acquainted you with what we have seen concerning this child.

13 If it seems tov to the melech to give his abba value for this child, we will slay him before he shall grow up and increase in the land, and his evil increase against us, that we and our children perish through his evil.

14 And the melech heard their words and they seemed tov in his sight, and he sent and called for Terah, and Terah came before the melech.

15 And the melech said to Terah, I have been told that a son was born to you last night, and after this manner was observed in the shamayim at his birth.

16 And now therefore give me the child, that we may slay him before his evil springs up against us, and I will give you for his value, your house full of silver and gold.

17 And Terah answered the melech and said to him: My master and melech, I have heard your words, and your servant shall do all that his melech desires.

18 But my master and melech, I will tell you what happened to me last night, that I may see what advice the melech will give his servant, and then I will answer the melech upon what he has just spoken; and the melech said, Speak.

19 And Terah said to the melech, Ayon, son of Mored, came to me last night, saying,

20 Give to me the great and beautiful horse that the melech gave you, and I will give you silver and gold, and straw and provender for its value; and I said to him, Wait till I see the melech concerning your words, and behold whatever the melech says, that will I do.

21 And now my master and melech, behold I have made this thing known to you, and the advice that my melech will give to his servant, that will I follow.

22 And the melech heard the words of Terah, and his anger was kindled and he considered him in the light of a fool.

23 And the melech answered Terah, and he said to him, Are you so silly, ignorant, or deficient in understanding, to do this thing, to give your beautiful horse for silver and gold or even for straw and provender?

24 Are you so short of silver and gold, that you should do this thing, because you cannot obtain straw and provender to feed your horse? And what is silver and gold to you, or straw and provender, that you should give away that fine horse which I gave you, like which there is none to be had on the whole earth?

25 And the melech left off speaking, and Terah answered the melech, saying, Like to this has the melech spoken to his servant;

26 I beseech you, my master and melech, what is this which you did say to me, saying, Give your son that we may slay him, and I will give you silver and gold for his value; what shall I do with silver and gold after the death of my son? Who shall inherit me? Surely then at my death, the silver and gold will return to my melech who gave it.

27 And when the melech heard the words of Terah, and the parable that he brought concerning the melech, it grieved him greatly and he was vexed at this thing, and his anger burned within him.

28 And Terah saw that the anger of the melech was kindled against him, and he answered the melech, saying, All that I have is in the melech's power; whatever the melech desires to do to his servant, that let him do, yes, even my son, he is in the melech's power, without value in exchange, he and his two brothers that are older than he.

29 And the melech said to Terah, No, but I will purchase your younger son for a price.

30 And Terah answered the melech, saying, I beseech you my master and melech to let your servant speak a word before you, and let the melech hear the word of his servant, and Terah said, Let my melech give me three days' time till I consider this matter within myself, and consult with my family concerning the words of my melech; and he pressed the melech greatly to agree to this.

31 And the melech hearkened to Terah, and he did so and he gave him three days' time, and Terah went out from the melech's presence, and he came home to his family and spoke to them all the words of the melech; and the people were greatly afraid.

32 And it was in the third day that the melech sent to Terah, saying, Send me your son for a price as I spoke to you; and should you not do this, I will send and slay all you have in your house, so that you shall not even have a dog remaining.

33 And Terah hurried, (as the thing was urgent from the melech), and he took a child from one of his servants, which his handmaid had born to him that day, and Terah brought the child to the melech and received value for him.

34 And אַבְרָם was with Terah in this matter, that Nimrod might not cause Avram's death, and the melech took the child from Terah and with all his might dashed his head to the ground, for he thought it had been Avram; and this was concealed from him from that day, and it was forgotten by the melech, as it was the will of Providence not to suffer Avram's death.

35 And Terah took Avram his son secretly, together with his ema and nurse, and he concealed them in a cave, and he brought them their provisions monthly.

36 And אֲרָמֶלֶךְ was with Avram in the cave and he grew up, and Avram was in the cave ten years, and the melech and his princes, soothsayers and sages, thought that the melech had killed Avram.

9 And Charan, the son of Terah, Avram's oldest brother, took a wife in those days.

2 Charan was thirty-nine years old when he took her; and the wife of Charan conceived and bare a son, and he called his name Lot.

3 And she conceived again and bare a daughter, and she called her name Milca; and she again conceived and bare a daughter, and she called her name Sarai.

4 Charan was forty-two years old when he begat Sarai, which was in the tenth year of the life of Avram; and in those days Avram and his ema and nurse went out from the cave, as the melech and his subjects had forgotten the affair of Avram.

5 And when Avram came out from the cave, he went to Noach and his son Shem, and he remained with them to learn the Torah of אֲרָמֶלֶךְ and His halachot, and no man knew where Avram was, and Avram served Noach and Shem his son for a long time.

6 And Avram was in Noach's house thirty-nine years, and Avram knew אֲרָמֶלֶךְ from three years old, and he went in the halachot of אֲרָמֶלֶךְ until the day of his death, as Noach and his son Shem had taught him; and all the sons of the earth in those days greatly transgressed against אֱלֹהִים, and they rebelled against him and they served other ahlohim, and they forgot אֱלֹהִים who had created them in the earth; and the inhabitants of the earth made to themselves, at that time, every man his ahlohim; ahlohim of wood and stone which could neither speak, hear, nor deliver, and the sons of men served them and they became their ahlohim.

7 And the melech and all his servants, and Terah with all his household were then the first of those that served ahlohim of wood and stone.

8 And Terah had twelve ahlohim of large size, made of wood and stone, after the twelve months of the year, and he served each one monthly, and every month Terah would bring his meat offering and drink offering to his ahlohim; this did Terah all the days.

9 And all that generation were wicked in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, and they made every man his ahlohim, but they forsook אֱלֹהִים who had created them.

10 And there was not a man found in those days in the whole earth, who knew אֱלֹהִים (for they served each man his own אֱלֹהִים) except Noach and his household, and all those who were under his counsel knew אֱלֹהִים in those days.

11 And Avram the son of Terah was growing great in those days in the house of Noach, and no man knew it, and אֱלֹהִים was with him.

12 And אֱלֹהִים gave Avram an understanding heart, and he knew all the works of that generation were vain, and that all their ahlohim were vain and were of no avail.

13 And Avram saw the sun shining upon the earth, and Avram said to himself Surely now this sun that shines upon the earth is אֱלֹהִים, and him will I serve.

14 And Avram served the sun in that day and he prayed to him, and when evening came the sun set as usual, and Avram said within himself, Surely this cannot be אֱלֹהִים?

15 And Avram still continued to speak within himself, Who is He who made the shamayim and the earth? Who created upon earth? Where is He?

16 And night darkened over him, and he lifted up his eyes toward the west, north, south, and east, and he saw that the sun had vanished from the earth, and the day became dark.

17 And Avram saw the stars and moon before him, and he said, Surely this is the אֱלֹהִים who created the whole earth as well as man, and behold these his servants are ahlohim around him: and Avram served the moon and prayed to it all that night.

18 And in the morning when it was light and the sun shone upon the earth as usual, Avram saw all the things that אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim had made upon earth.

19 And Avram said to himself Surely these are not ahlohim that made the earth and all mankind, but these are the servants of אֱלֹהִים, and Avram remained in the house of Noach and there knew אֱלֹהִים and his halachot' and he served אֱלֹהִים all the days of his life, and all that generation forgot אֱלֹהִים, and served other ahlohim of wood and stone, and rebelled all their days.

20 And melech Nimrod reigned securely, and all the earth was under his control, and all the earth was of one tongue and words of union.

21 And all the princes of Nimrod and his great men took counsel together; Phut, Mitzrayim, Cush and Kanaan with their families, and they said to each other, Come let us build ourselves a city and in it a strong tower, and its top reaching the shamayim, and we will make ourselves famous, so that we may reign upon the whole world, in order that the evil of our enemies may cease from us, that we may reign mightily over them, and that we may not become scattered over the earth on account of their wars.

22 And they all went before the melech, and they told the melech these words, and the melech agreed with them in this affair, and he did so.

23 And all the families assembled consisting of about six hundred thousand men, and they went to seek an extensive piece of ground to build the city and the tower, and they sought in the whole earth and they found none like one valley at the east of the land of Shinar, about two days' walk, and they journeyed there and they dwelt there.

24 And they began to make bricks and burn fires to build the city and the tower that they had imagined to complete.

25 And the building of the tower was to them a transgression and a sin, and they began to build it, and while they were building against אלהים Ahlohim of the shamayim, they imagined in their hearts to war against him and to ascend into the shamayim.

26 And all these people and all the families divided themselves in three parts; the first said We will ascend into the shamayim and fight against him; the second said, We will ascend to the shamayim and place our own ahlohim there and serve them; and the third part said, We will ascend to the shamayim and smite him with bows and spears; and אלהים knew all their works and all their evil thoughts, and he saw the city and the tower which they were building.

27 And when they were building they built themselves a great city and a very high and strong tower; and on account of its height the mortar and bricks did not reach the builders in their ascent to it, until those who went up had completed a full year, and after that, they reached to the builders and gave them the mortar and the bricks; this was done daily.

28 And behold these ascended and others descended the whole day; and if a brick should fall from their hands and get broken, they would all weep over it, and if a man fell and died, none of them would look at him.

29 And אֱלֹהִים knew their thoughts, and it came to pass when they were building they cast the arrows toward the shamayim, and all the arrows fell upon them filled with blood, and when they saw them they said to each other, Surely we have slain all those that are in the shamayim.

30 For this was from אֱלֹהִים in order to cause them to err, and in order to destroy them from off the face of the ground.

31 And they built the tower and the city, and they did this thing daily until many days and years were elapsed.

32 And אֱלֹהִים said to the seventy malachim who stood foremost before him, to those who were near to him, saying, Come let us descend and confuse their tongues, that one man shall not understand the language of his neighbor, and they did so to them.

33 And from that day following, they forgot each man his neighbor's tongue, and they could not understand to speak in one tongue, and when the builder took from the hands of his neighbor lime or stone which he did not order, the builder would cast it away and throw it upon his neighbor, that he would die.

34 And they did so many days, and they killed many of them in this manner.

35 And אֱלֹהִים smote the three divisions that were there, and He punished them according to their works and designs; those who said, We will ascend to the shamayim and serve our ahlohim, became like apes and elephants; and those who said, We will smite the shamayim with arrows, אִרְאֵל killed them, one man through the hand of his neighbor; and the third division of those who said, We will ascend to the shamayim and fight against Him, אִרְאֵל scattered them throughout the earth.

36 And those who were left among them, when they knew and understood the evil that was coming upon them, they forsook the building, and they also became scattered upon the face of the whole earth.

37 And they ceased building the city and the tower; therefore he called that place Bavel, for there אִרְאֵל confounded the language of the whole earth; behold it was at the east of the land of Shinar.

38 And as to the tower which the sons of men built, the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up one third part of it, and a fire also descended from the shamayim and burned another third, and the other third is left to this day, and it is of that part which was aloft, and its circumference is three days' walk.

39 And many of the sons of men died in that tower, a people without number.

10 And Peleg the son of Ever died in those days, in the forty-eighth year of the life of Avram son of Terah, and all the days of Peleg were two hundred and thirty-nine years.

2 And when אִרְאֵל had scattered the sons of men on account of their sin at the tower, behold they spread forth into many divisions, and all the sons of men were dispersed into the four corners of the earth.

3 And all the families became each according to its language, its land, or its city.

4 And the sons of men built many cities according to their families, in all the places where they went, and throughout the earth where אִרְאֵל had scattered them.

5 And some of them built cities in places from which they were afterward extirpated, and they called these cities after their own names, or the names of their children, or after their particular occurrences.

6 And the sons of Yahpheth the son of Noach went and built themselves cities in the places where they were scattered, and they called all their cities after their names, and the sons of Yahpheth were divided upon the face of the earth into many divisions and languages.

7 And these are the sons of Yahpheth according to their families, Gomer, Magog, Medai, Yahvan, Tuval, Meshech and Tiras; these are the children of Yahpheth according to their generations.

8 And the children of Gomer, according to their cities, were the Francum, who dwell in the land of Franza, by the River Franza, by the River Senah.

9 And the children of Rephath are the Bartonim, who dwell in the land of Bartonia by the River Ledah, which empties its mayim in the great sea Gihon, that is, Oceanus.

10 And the children of Tugarma are ten families, and these are their names: Buzar, Parzunac, Balgar, Elichanum, Ragbiv, Tarki, Bid, Zevuc, Ongal and Tilmaz; all these spread and rested in the north and built themselves cities.

11 And they called their cities after their own names; those are they who abide by the rivers Hithlah and Italac to this day.

12 But the families of Angoli, Balgar and Parzunac, they dwell by the great River Dubnee; and the names of their cities are also according to their own names.

13 And the children of Yahvan are the Yahvanim who dwell in the land of Makedonia, and the children of Medai are the Orelum that dwell in the land of Curson, and the children of Tuval are those that dwell in the land of Tuskanah by the River Pashiyah.

14 And the children of Meshech are the Shibashni and the children of Tiras are Rushash, Cushni, and Ongolis; all these went and built themselves cities; those are the cities that are situated by the sea Javus by the River Cura, which empties itself in the River Tragan.

15 And the children of Elishah are the Almanim, and they also went and built themselves cities; those are the cities situated between the mountains of Iyov and Shivathmo; and of them were the people of Lumbardi who dwell opposite the mountains of Iyov and Shivathmo, and they conquered the land of Italia and remained there to this day.

16 And the children of Chittim are the Romaim who dwell in the Valley of Canopia by the River Tibreu.

17 And the children of Dudonim are those who dwell in the cities of the sea Gihon, in the land of Bordna.

18 These are the families of the children of Yahpheth according to their cities and languages, when they were scattered after the tower, and they called their cities after their names and occurrences; and these are the names of all their cities according to their families, which they built in those days after the tower.

19 And the children of Ham were Cush, Mitzrayim, Phut and Kanaan according to their generation and cities.

20 All these went and built themselves cities as they found fit places for them, and they called their cities after the names of their ahvot Cush, Mitzrayim, Phut and Kanaan.

21 And the children of Mitzrayim are the Ludim, Anamim, Lehavim, Naphtuchim, Pathrusim, Casluchim and Caphturim, seven families.

22 All these dwell by the River Sihor, that is the brook of Mitzrayim, and they built themselves cities and called them after their own names.

23 And the children of Pathros and Casloch intermarried together, and from them went forth the Pelishtim, the Azathim, and the Gerarim, the Githim and the Ekronim, in all five families; these also built themselves cities, and they called their cities after the names of their ahvot to this day.

24 And the children of Kanaan also built themselves cities, and they called their cities after their names, eleven cities and others without number.

25 And four men from the family of Ham went to the land of the plain; these are the names of the four men, Sedom, Amarah, Admah and Zevoyim.

26 And these men built themselves four cities in the land of the plain, and they called the names of their cities after their own names.

27 And they and their children and all belonging to them dwelt in those cities, and they were fruitful and multiplied greatly and dwelt peaceably.

28 And Seir the son of Hur, son of Hivi, son of Kanaan, went and found a valley opposite to Mount Paran, and he built a city there, and he and his seven sons and his household dwelt there, and he called the city which he built Seir, according to his name; that is the land of Seir to this day.

29 These are the families of the children of Ham, according to their languages and cities, when they were scattered to their countries after the tower.

30 And some of the children of Shem son of Noach, abba of all the children of Ever, also went and built themselves cities in the places wherein they were scattered, and they called their cities after their names.

31 And the sons of Shem were Eylam, Ashur, Arpachshad, Lud and Aram, and they built themselves cities and called the names of all their cities after their names.

32 And Ashur son of Shem and his children and household went forth at that time, a very large body of them, and they went to a distant land that they found, and they met with a very extensive valley in the land that they went to, and they built themselves four cities, and they called them after their own names and occurrences.

33 And these are the names of the cities that the children of Ashur built, Ninevah, Resen, Calach and Rehovother; and the children of Ashur dwell there to this day.

34 And the children of Aram also went and built themselves a city, and they called the name of the city Uz after their eldest brother, and they dwell therein; that is the land of Uz to this day.

35 And in the second year after the tower a man from the house of Ashur, whose name was Bela, went from the land of Ninevah to sojourn with his household wherever he could find a place; and they came until opposite the cities of the plain against Sedom, and they dwelt there.

36 And the man rose up and built there a small city, and called its name Bela, after his name; that is the land of Zoar to this day.

37 And these are the families of the children of Shem according to their language and cities, after they were scattered upon the earth after the tower.

38 And every malchut, city, and family of the families of the children of Noach built themselves many cities after this.

39 And they established governments in all their cities, in order to be regulated by their orders; so did all the families of the children of Noach le-olam-va-ed.

11 And Nimrod son of Cush was still in the land of Shinar, and he reigned over it and dwelt there, and he built cities in the land of Shinar.

2 And these are the names of the four cities that he built, and he called their names after the occurrences that happened to them in the building of the tower.

3 And he called the first Bavel, saying, Because אִלְלָל there confounded the language of the whole earth; and the name of the second he called Erech, because from there אִלְלָל dispersed them.

4 And the third he called Eched, saying there was a great battle at that place; and the fourth he called Calnah, because his princes and mighty men were consumed there, and they vexed אִלְלָל, they rebelled and transgressed against Him.

5 And when Nimrod had built these cities in the land of Shinar, he placed in them the remainder of his people, his princes and his mighty men that were left in his malchut.

6 And Nimrod dwelt in Bavel, and he there renewed his reign over the rest of his subjects, and he reigned securely, and the subjects and princes of Nimrod called his name Amraphel, saying that at the tower his princes and men fell through his means.

7 And notwithstanding this, Nimrod did not teshuvah to אִלְלָל, and he continued in wickedness and teaching wickedness to the sons of men; and Mardon, his son, was worse than his abba, and continued to add to the abominations of his abba.

8 And he caused the sons of men to sin, therefore it is said, From the wicked goes forth wickedness.

9 At that time there was war between the families of the children of Ham, as they were dwelling in the cities that they had built.

10 And Chedorlaomer, melech of Eylam, went away from the families of the children of Ham, and he fought with them and he subdued them, and he went to the five cities of the plain and he fought against them and he subdued them, and they were under his control.

11 And they served him twelve years, and they gave him a yearly tax.

12 At that time died Nachor, son of Serug, in the forty-ninth year of the life of Avram son of Terah.

13 And in the fiftieth year of the life of Avram son of Terah, Avram came forth from the house of Noach, and went to his abba's house.

14 And Avram knew אֱלֹהִים, and he went in his halachot and Torot, and אֱלֹהִים his אֱלֹהִים was with him.

15 And Terah his abba was in those days, still captain of the army of melech Nimrod, and he still followed strange ahlohim.

16 And Avram came to his abba's house and saw twelve ahlohim standing there in their temples, and the anger of Avram was kindled when he saw these images in his abba's house.

17 And Avram said, As אֱלֹהִים lives these images shall not remain in my abba's house; so shall אֱלֹהִים who created me do to me if in three days' time I do not break them all.

18 And Avram went from them, and his anger burned within him. And Avram hurried and went from the chamber to his abba's outer court, and he found his abba sitting in the court, and all his servants with him, and Avram came and sat before him.

19 And Avram asked his abba, saying, Abba, tell me where is אֱלֹהִים who created the shamayim and earth, and all the sons of men upon earth, and who created you and me. And Terah answered his son Avram and said, Behold those who created us are all with us in the house.

20 And Avram said to his abba, My master, show them to me I ask you; and Terah brought Avram into the chamber of the inner court, and Avram saw, and behold the whole room was full of ahlohim of wood and stone, twelve great images and others less than they without number.

21 And Terah said to his son, Behold these are they which made all you see upon earth, and which created me and you, and all mankind.

22 And Terah bowed down to his ahlohim, and he then went away from them, and Avram, his son, went away with him.

23 And when Avram had gone from them he went to his ema and sat before her, and he said to his ema, Behold, my abba has shown me those who made the shamayim and earth, and all the sons of men.

24 Now, therefore, hurry and fetch a kid from the flock, and make of it tasty meat that I may bring it to my abba's ahlohim as an offering for them to eat; perhaps I may thereby become acceptable to them.

25 And his ema did so, and she fetched a kid, and made tasty meat of it, and brought it to Avram, and Avram took the tasty meat from his ema and brought it before his abba's ahlohim, and he drew near to them that they might eat; and Terah his abba, did not know of it.

26 And Avram saw on the day when he was sitting among them, that they had no voice, no hearing, no motion, and not one of them could stretch forth his hand to eat.

27 And Avram mocked them, and said, Surely the tasty meat that I prepared has not pleased them, or perhaps it was too little for them, and for that reason they would not eat; therefore tomorrow I will prepare fresh tasty meat, better and more plentiful than this, in order that I may see the result.

28 And it was on the next day that Avram directed his ema concerning the tasty meat, and his ema rose and fetched three fine kids from the flock, and she made of them some excellent tasty meat, such as her son was fond of, and she gave it to her son Avram; and Terah his abba did not know of it.

29 And Avram took the tasty meat from his ema, and brought it before his abba's ahlohim into the chamber; and he came near to them that they might eat, and he placed it before them, and Avram sat before them all day, thinking perhaps they might eat.

30 And Avram viewed them, and behold they had neither voice nor hearing, nor did one of them stretch forth his hand to the meat to eat.

31 And in the evening of that day in that house Avram was clothed with the Ruach of אֱלֹהִים.

32 And he called out and said, Woe to my abba and this wicked generation, whose hearts are all inclined to vanity, who serve these idols of wood and stone which can neither eat, smell, hear nor speak, who have mouths without speech, eyes without sight, ears without hearing, hands without feeling, and legs which cannot move; like them are those that made them and that trust in them.

33 And when Avram saw all these things his anger was kindled against his abba, and he hurried and took a hatchet in his hand, and came to the chamber of the ahlohim, and he broke all his abba's ahlohim.

34 And when he had done breaking the images, he placed the hatchet in the hand of the great ahlohim which was there before them, and he went out; and Terah his abba came home, for he had heard at the door the sound of the striking of the hatchet; so Terah came into the house to know what this was about.

35 And Terah, having heard the noise of the hatchet in the room of images, ran to the room to the images, and he met Avram going out.

36 And Terah entered the room and found all the idols fallen down and broken, and the hatchet in the hand of the largest, which was not broken, and the tasty meat that Avram his son had made was still before them.

37 And when Terah saw his anger was greatly kindled, and he hurried and went from the room to Avram.

38 And he found Avram his son still sitting in the house; and he said to him, What is this work you have done to my ahlohim?

39 And Avram answered Terah his abba and he said, Not so my master, for I brought tasty meat before them, and when I came near to them with the meat that they might eat, they all at once stretched forth their hands to eat before the great one had put forth his hand to eat.

40 And the large one saw their works that they did before him, and his anger was violently kindled against them, and he went and took the hatchet that was in the house and came to them and broke them all, and behold the hatchet is yet in his hand as you see.

41 And Terah's anger was kindled against his son Avram, when he spoke this; and Terah said to Avram his son in his anger, What is this tale that you have told? You speak lies to me.

42 Is there in these ahlohim ruach, being or power to do all you have told me? Are they not wood and stone, and have I not myself made them, and can you speak such lies, saying that the large ahlohim that was with them smote them? It is you that did place the hatchet in his hands, and then say he smote them all.

43 And Avram answered his abba and said to him, And how can you then serve these idols in whom there is no power to do anything? Can those idols in which you trust deliver you? Can they hear your prayers when you call upon them? Can they deliver you from the hands of your enemies, or will they fight your battles for you against your enemies, that you should serve wood and stone that can neither speak nor hear?

44 And now surely it is not tov for you nor for the sons of men that are connected with you, to do these things; are you so silly, so foolish or so short of understanding that you will serve wood and stone, and do after this manner?

45 And forget אלהים Ahlohim who made the shamayim and earth, and who created you in the earth, and thereby bring a great evil upon your beings in this matter by serving stone and wood?

46 Did not our ahvot in days of old sin in this matter, and אלהים Ahlohim of the universe brought the mayim of the flood upon them and destroyed the whole earth?

47 And how can you continue to do this and serve ahlohim of wood and stone, who cannot hear, or speak, or deliver you from oppression, thereby bringing down the anger of the אלהים of the universe upon you?

48 Now therefore my abba refrain from this, and bring not evil upon your being and the beings of your household.

49 And Avram hurried and sprang from before his abba, and took the hatchet from his abba's largest idol, with which Avram broke it and ran away.

50 And Terah, seeing all that Avram had done, hurried to go from his house, and he went to the melech and he came before Nimrod and stood before him, and he bowed down to the melech; and the melech said, What do you want?

51 And he said, I beseech you my master, to hear me--Now fifty years back a child was born to me, and this has he done to my ahlohim and this has he spoken; and now therefore, my master and melech, send for him that he may come before you, and judge him according to the law, that we may be delivered from his evil.

52 And the melech sent three men of his servants, and they went and brought Avram before the melech. And Nimrod and all his princes and servants were that day sitting before him, and Terah sat also before them.

53 And the melech said to Avram, What is this that you have done to your abba and to his ahlohim? And Avram answered the melech in the words that he spoke to his abba, and he said, The large ahlohim that was with them in the house did to them what you have heard.

54 And the melech said to Avram, Had they power to speak and eat and do as you have said? And Avram answered the melech, saying, And if there be no power in them why do you serve them and cause the sons of men to err through your follies?

55 Do you imagine that they can deliver you or do anything small or great, that you should serve them? And why will you not sense the אֱלֹהִים of the whole universe, who created you and in whose power it is to kill and keep alive?

56 O foolish, simple, and ignorant melech, woe to you le-olam-va-ed.

57 I thought you would teach your servants the upright way, but you have not done this, but have filled the whole earth with your sins and the sins of your people who have followed your halachot.

58 Do you not know, or have you not heard, that this evil that you do, our ancestors sinned therein in days of old, and the eternal אלהים brought the mayim of the flood upon them and destroyed them all, and also destroyed the whole earth on their account? And will you and your people rise up now and do like to this work, in order to bring down the anger of אלהים Ahlohim of the universe, and to bring evil upon you and the whole earth?

59 Now therefore put away this evil deed which you do, and serve the אלהים of the universe, as your being is in his hands, and then it will be well with you.

60 And if your wicked heart will not listen to my words to cause you to forsake your evil halachot, and to serve the eternal אלהים, then will you die in shame in the latter-days, you, your people and all who are connected with you, hearing your words or walking in your evil halachot.

61 And when Avram had ceased speaking before the melech and princes, Avram lifted up his eyes to the shamayim, and he said, אלהים sees all the wicked, and He will judge them.

12 And when the melech heard the words of Avram he ordered him to be put into prison; and Avram was ten days in prison.

2 And at the end of those days the melech ordered that all the melechim, princes and governors of different provinces and the sages should come before him, and they sat before him, and Avram was still in the house of confinement.

3 And the melech said to the princes and sages, Have you heard what Avram, the son of Terah, has done to his abba? This has he done to him, and I ordered him to be brought before me, and this has he spoken; his heart did not misgive him, neither did he stir in my presence, and behold now he is confined in the prison.

4 And therefore decide what mishpat is due to this man who reviled the melech; who spoke and did all the things that you heard.

5 And they all answered the melech saying, The man who reviles the melech should be hanged upon a tree; but having done all the things that he said, and having despised our Ahlohim, he must therefore be burned to death, for this is the law in this matter.

6 If it pleases the melech to do this, let him order his servants to kindle a fire both night and day in your brick furnace, and then we will cast this man into it.

And the melech did so, and he commanded his servants that they should prepare a fire for three days and three nights in the melech's furnace, that is in Chasdim; and the melech ordered them to take Avram from prison and bring him out to be burned.

7 And all the melech's servants, princes, masters, governors, and shophtim, and all the inhabitants of the land, about nine hundred thousand men, stood opposite the furnace to see Avram.

8 And all the women and little ones crowded upon the roofs and towers to see what was doing with Avram, and they all stood together at a distance; and there was not a man left that did not come on that day to behold the scene.

9 And when Avram was come, the conjurors of the melech and the sages saw Avram, and they cried out to the melech, saying, Our sovereign master, surely this is the man whom we know to have been the child at whose birth the great star swallowed the four stars, which we declared to the melech now fifty years since.

10 And behold now his abba has also transgressed your commands, and mocked you by bringing you another child, which you did kill.

11 And when the melech heard their words, he was exceedingly angry, and he ordered Terah to be brought before him.

12 And the melech said, Have you heard what the conjurors have spoken? Now tell me truly, how you did it; and if you shall speak emet you shall be acquitted.

13 And seeing that the melech's anger was so much kindled, Terah said to the melech, My master and melech, you have heard the emet, and what the sages have spoken is right. And the melech said, How could you do this thing, to transgress my orders and to give me a child that you did not beget, and to take value for him?

14 And Terah answered the melech, Because my tender feelings were excited for my son, at that time, and I took a son of my handmaid, and I brought him to the melech.

15 And the melech said Who advised you to this? Tell me, do not hide anything from me, and then you shall not die.

16 And Terah was greatly terrified in the melech's presence, and he said to the melech, It was Charan my eldest son who advised me to this; and Charan was in those days that Avram was born, thirty two years old.

17 But Charan did not advise his abba to anything, for Terah said this to the melech in order to deliver his being from the melech, for he feared greatly; and the melech said to Terah, Charan your son who advised you to this shall die through fire with Avram; for the sentence of death is upon him for having rebelled against the melech's desire in doing this thing.

18 And Charan at that time felt inclined to follow the halachot of Avram, but he kept it within himself.

19 And Charan said in his heart, Behold now the melech has seized Avram on account of these things which Avram did, and it shall come to pass, that if Avram prevail over the melech I will follow him, but if the melech prevail I will go after the melech.

20 And when Terah had spoken this to the melech concerning Charan his son, the melech ordered Charan to be seized with Avram.

21 And they brought them both, Avram and Charan his brother, to cast them into the fire; and all the inhabitants of the land and the melech's servants and princes and all the women and little ones were there, standing that day over them.

22 And the melech's servants took Avram and his brother, and they stripped them of all their clothes except their lower garments that were upon them.

23 And they bound their hands and feet with linen cords, and the servants of the melech lifted them up and cast them both into the furnace.

24 And אֱלֹהִים loved Avram and He had rachamim over him, and אֱלֹהִים came down and delivered Avram from the fire and he was not burned.

25 But all the cords with which they bound him were burned, while Avram remained and walked about in the fire.

26 And Charan died when they had cast him into the fire, and he was burned to ashes, for his heart was not perfect with אֱלֹהִים; and those men who cast him into the fire, the flame of the fire spread over them, and they were burned, and twelve men of them died.

27 And Avram walked in the midst of the fire three days and three nights, and all the servants of the melech saw him walking in the fire, and they came and told the melech, saying, Behold we have seen Avram walking about in the midst of the fire, and even the lower garments which are upon him are not burned, but the cord with which he was bound is burned.

28 And when the melech heard their words his heart fainted and he would not believe them; so he sent other faithful princes to see this matter, and they went and saw it and told it to the melech; and the melech rose to go and see it, and he saw Avram walking to and fro in the midst of the fire, and he saw Charan's body burned, and the melech wondered greatly.

29 And the melech ordered Avram to be taken out from the fire; and his servants approached to take him out and they could not, for the fire was round about and the flame ascending toward them from the furnace.

30 And the melech's servants fled from it, and the melech rebuked them, saying, Make haste and bring Avram out of the fire that you shall not die.

31 And the servants of the melech again approached to bring Avram out, and the flames came upon them and burned their faces so that eight of them died.

32 And when the melech saw that his servants could not approach the fire lest they should be burned, the melech called to Avram, O servant of the אֱלֹהִים who is in the shamayim, go forth from amidst the fire and come here before me; and Avram hearkened to the voice of the melech, and he went forth from the fire and came and stood before the melech.

33 And when Avram came out the melech and all his servants saw Avram coming before the melech, with his lower garments upon him, for they were not burned, but the cord with which he was bound was burned.

34 And the melech said to Avram, How is it that you were not burned in the fire?

35 And Avram said to the melech, The אֱלֹהִים of the shamayim and earth in whom I trust and who has all in His power, he delivered me from the fire into which you did cast me.

36 And Charan the brother of Avram was burned to ashes, and they sought for his body, and they found it consumed.

37 And Charan was eighty-two years old when he died in the fire of Chasdim. And the melech, princes, and inhabitants of the land, seeing that Avram was delivered from the fire, they came and bowed down to Avram.

38 And Avram said to them, Do not bow down to me, but bow down to the אֱלֹהִים of the world who made you, and serve Him, and go in His halachot for it is He who delivered me from out of this fire, and it is He who created the beings and ruachs of all men, and formed man in his ema's womb, and brought him forth into the world, and it is He who will deliver those who trust in Him from all pain.

39 And this thing seemed very wonderful in the eyes of the melech and princes, that Avram was saved from the fire and that Charan was burned; and the melech gave Avram many presents and he gave him his two head servants from the melech's house; the name of one was Oni and the name of the other was Eliezer.

40 And all the melechim, princes and servants gave Avram many gifts of silver and gold and pearl, and the melech and his princes sent him away, and he went in shalom.

41 And Avram went forth from the melech in shalom, and many of the melech's servants followed him, and about three hundred men joined him.

42 And Avram returned on that day and went to his abba's house, he and the men that followed him, and Avram served אֱלֹהֵי אָבִיו His אֱלֹהֵי אָבִיו all the days of his life, and he walked in His halachot and followed His Torah.

43 And from that day forward Avram inclined the hearts of the sons of men to serve אֱלֹהֵי אָבִיו.

44 And at that time Nachor and Avram took to themselves wives, the daughters of their brother Charan; the wife of Nachor was Milca and the name of Avram's wife was Sarai. And Sarai, wife of Avram, was barren; she had no offspring in those days.

45 And at the expiration of two years from Avram's going out of the fire, that is in the fifty-second year of his life, behold melech Nimrod sat in Bavel upon the throne, and the melech fell asleep and dreamed that he was standing with his troops and armies in a valley opposite the melech's furnace.

46 And he lifted up his eyes and saw a man in the likeness of Avram coming forth from the furnace, and that he came and stood before the melech with his drawn sword, and then sprang to the melech with his sword, when the melech fled from the man, for he was afraid; and while he was running, the man threw an egg upon the melech's head, and the egg became a great river.

47 And the melech dreamed that all his troops sank in that river and died, and the melech took flight with three men who were before him and he escaped.

48 And the melech looked at these men and they were clothed in princely dresses as the garments of melechim, and had the appearance and majesty of melechim.

49 And while they were running, the river again turned to an egg before the melech, and there came forth from the egg a young bird that came before the melech, and flew at his head and plucked out the melech's eye.

50 And the melech was grieved at the sight, and he awoke out of his sleep and his ruach was agitated; and he felt a great terror.

51 And in the morning the melech rose from his couch in fear, and he ordered all the wise men and magicians to come before him, when the melech related his dream to them.

52 And a wise servant of the melech, whose name was Anuki, answered the melech, saying, This is nothing else but the evil of Avram and his zera that will spring up against my master and melech in the latter-days.

53 And behold the day will come when Avram and his zera and the children of his household will war with my melech, and they will smite all the melech's hosts and his troops.

54 And as to what you have said concerning three men which you did see like to yourself, and which did escape, this means that only you will escape with three melechim from the melechim of the earth who will be with you in battle.

55 And that which you saw of the river which turned to an egg as at first, and the young bird plucking out your eye, this means nothing else but the zera of Avram which will slay the melech in latter days.

56 This is my melech's dream, and this is its interpretation, and the dream is emet, and the interpretation, which your servant has given you, is right.

57 Now therefore my melech, surely you know that it is now fifty-two years since your sages saw this at the birth of Avram, and if my melech will allow Avram to live in the earth it will be to the injury of my master and melech, for all the days that Avram lives, neither you nor your malchut will be established, for this was known formerly at his birth; and why will not my melech slay him, that his evil may be kept from you in latter-days?

58 And Nimrod hearkened to the voice of Anuki, and he sent some of his servants in secret to go and seize Avram, and bring him before the melech to suffer death.

59 And Eliezer, Avram's servant whom the melech had given him, was at that time in the presence of the melech, and he heard what Anuki had advised the melech, and what the melech had said to cause Avram's death.

60 And Eliezer said to Avram, Hasten, rise up and save your being, that you may not die through the hands of the melech, for this did he see in a dream concerning you, and this did Anuki interpret it, and this also did Anuki advise the melech concerning you.

61 And Avram hearkened to the voice of Eliezer, and Avram hurried and ran for safety to the house of Noach and his son Shem, and he concealed himself there and found a place of safety; and the melech's servants came to Avram's house to seek him, but they could not find him, and they searched throughout the country and he was not to be found, and they went and searched in every direction and he was not to be met with.

62 And when the melech's servants could not find Avram they returned to the melech, but the melech's anger against Avram was stilled, as they did not find him, and the melech drove from his mind this matter concerning Avram.

63 And Avram was concealed in Noach's house for one month, until the melech had forgotten this matter, but Avram was still afraid of the melech; and Terah came to see Avram his son secretly in the house of Noach, and Terah was very great in the eyes of the melech.

64 And Avram said to his abba, Do you not know that the melech thinks to slay me, and to annihilate my name from the earth by the advice of his wicked counselors?

65 Now whom have you here and what have you in this land? Arise; let us go together to the land of Kanaan that we may be delivered from his hand, lest you perish also through him in the latter-days.

66 Do you not know or have you not heard, that it is not through love that Nimrod gives you all this honor, but it is only for his benefit that he bestows all this tov upon you?

67 And if he does to you greater tov than this, surely these are only vanities of the world, for wealth and riches cannot avail in the day of wrath and anger.

68 Now therefore listen to my voice, and let us arise and go to the land of Kanaan, out of the reach of injury from Nimrod; and serve אֱלֹהִים who created you in the earth and it will be well with you; and cast away all the vain things which you pursue.

69 And Avram ceased to speak, when Noach and his son Shem answered Terah, saying, Emet is the word that Avram has said to you.

70 And Terah hearkened to the voice of his son Avram, and Terah did all that Avram said, for this was from אֱלֹהִים, that the melech should not cause Avram's death.

13 And Terah took his son Avram and his grandson Lot, the son of Charan, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, the wife of his son Avram, and all the beings of his household and went with them from Ur Chasdim to go to the land of Kanaan. And when they came as far as the land of Charan they remained there, for it was exceedingly tov land for pasture, and of sufficient extent for those who accompanied them.

2 And the people of the land of Charan saw that Avram was tov and upright with אֱלֹהִים and men, and that אֱלֹהִים His אֱלֹהִים was with him, and some of the people of the land of Charan came and joined Avram, and he taught them the Torah of אֱלֹהִים and His halachot; and these men remained with Avram in his house and they adhered to him.

3 And Avram remained in the land three years, and at the expiration of three years אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avram and said to him; I AM אֱלֹהִים who brought you forth from Ur Chasdim, and delivered you from the hands of all your enemies.

4 And now therefore if you will listen to my voice and keep my mitzvot, my chukim and my Torot, then will I cause your enemies to fall before you, and I will multiply your zera like the stars of the shamayim, and I will send my blessing upon all the works of your hands, and you shall lack nothing.

5 Arise now, take your wife and all belonging to you and go to the land of Kanaan and remain there, and I will there be to you for an אֱלֹהִים, and I will bless you. And Avraham rose and took his wife and all belonging to him, and he went to the land of Kanaan as אֱלֹהִים had told him; and Avram was fifty years old when he went from Charan.

6 And Avram came to the land of Kanaan and dwelt in the midst of the city, and he there pitched his tent among the children of Kanaan, inhabitants of the land.

7 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avram when he came to the land of Kanaan, and said to him, This is the land which I gave to you and to your zera after you le-olam-va-ed, and I will make your zera like the stars of the shamayim, and I will give to your zera for an inheritance all the lands which you see.

8 And Avram built an altar in the place where אַבְרָם had spoken to him, and Avram there called upon the Name of אַבְרָם.

9 At that time, at the end of three years of Avram's dwelling in the land of Kanaan, in that year Noach died, which was the fifty-eighth year of the life of Avram; and all the days that Noach lived were nine hundred and fifty years and he died.

10 And Avram dwelt in the land of Kanaan, he, his wife, and all belonging to him, and all those that accompanied him, together with those that joined him from the people of the land; but Nachor, Avram's brother, and Terah his abba, and Lot the son of Charan and all belonging to them dwelt in Charan.

11 In the fifth year of Avram's dwelling in the land of Kanaan the people of Sedom and Amarah and all the cities of the plain revolted from the power of Chedorlaomer, melech of Eylam; for all the melechim of the cities of the plain had served Chedorlaomer for twelve years, and given him a yearly tax, but in those days in the thirteenth year, they rebelled against him.

12 And in the tenth year of Avram's dwelling in the land of Kanaan there was war between Nimrod melech of Shinar and Chedorlaomer melech of Eylam, and Nimrod came to fight with Chedorlaomer and to subdue him.

13 For Chedorlaomer was at that time one of the princes of the hosts of Nimrod, and when all the people at the tower were dispersed and those that remained were also scattered upon the face of the earth, Chedorlaomer went to the land of Eylam and reigned over it and rebelled against his master.

14 And in those days when Nimrod saw that the cities of the plain had rebelled, he came with pride and anger to war with Chedorlaomer, and Nimrod assembled all his princes and subjects, about seven hundred thousand men, and went against Chedorlaomer, and Chedorlaomer went out to meet him with five thousand men, and they prepared for battle in the Valley of Bavel which is between Eylam and Shinar.

15 And all those melechim fought there, and Nimrod and his people were smitten before the people of Chedorlaomer, and there fell from Nimrod's men about six hundred thousand, and Mardon the melech's son fell among them.

16 And Nimrod fled and returned in shame and disgrace to his land, and he was under subjection to Chedorlaomer for a long time, and Chedorlaomer returned to his land and sent princes of his army to the melechim that dwelt around him, to Arioch melech of Elasar, and to Tidal melech of Goyim, and made a covenant with them, and they were all obedient to his commands.

17 And it was in the fifteenth year of Avram's dwelling in the land of Kanaan, which is the seventieth year of the life of Avram, and אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avram in that year and He said to him, I AM אֱלֹהִים who brought you out from Ur Chasdim to give you this land for an inheritance.

18 Now therefore have your halacha before Me and be perfect and keep My mitzvot, for to you and to your zera I will give this land for an inheritance, from the River Mitzrayim to the great River Euphrates.

19 And you shall come to your ahvot in shalom and in tov age, and in the fourth generation they shall return here in this land and shall inherit it le-olam-va-ed; and Avram built an altar, and he called upon the name of אֱלֹהִים who appeared to him, and he brought up sacrifices upon the altar to אֱלֹהִים.

20 At that time Avram returned and went to Charan to see his abba and ema, and his abba's household, and Avram and his wife and all belonging to him returned to Charan, and Avram dwelt in Charan five years.

21 And many of the people of Charan, about seventy-two men, followed Avram and Avram taught them the Torah of אֱלֹהִים and His halachot, and he taught them to know אֱלֹהִים.

22 In those days אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avram in Charan, and he said to him, Behold, I spoke to you these twenty years back saying,

23 Go forth from your land, from your birth-place and from your abba's house, to the land which I have shown you to give it to you and to your children, for there in that land will I bless you, and make you a great nation, and make your name great, and in you shall the families of the earth be blessed.

24 Now therefore arise, go forth from this place, you, your wife, and all belonging to you, also every one born in your house and all the beings you have made in Charan, and bring them out with you from here, and rise to return to the land of Kanaan.

25 And Avram arose and took his wife Sarai and all belonging to him and all that were born to him in his house and the beings that they had made in Charan, and they came out to go to the land of Kanaan.

26 And Avram went and returned to the land of Kanaan, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים. And Lot the son of his brother Charan went with him, and Avram was seventy-five years old when he went forth from Charan to return to the land of Kanaan.

27 And he came to the land of Kanaan according to the word of אֱלֹהִים to Avram, and he pitched his tent and he dwelt in the plain of Mamre, and with him was Lot his brother's son, and all belonging to him.

28 And אַבְרָם again appeared to Avram and said, To your zera will I give this land; and he there built an altar to אַבְרָם who appeared to him, which is still to this day in the plains of Mamre.

14 In those days there was in the land of Shinar a wise man that had understanding in all wisdom, and of a beautiful appearance, but he was poor and indigent; his name was Rikayon and he was hard pressed to support himself.

2 And he resolved to go to Mitzrayim, to Oswiris the son of Anom melech of Mitzrayim, to show the melech his wisdom; for perhaps he might find rachamim in his sight, to raise him up and give him maintenance; and Rikayon did so.

3 And when Rikayon came to Mitzrayim he asked the inhabitants of Mitzrayim concerning the melech, and the inhabitants of Mitzrayim told him the custom of the melech of Mitzrayim, for it was then the custom of the melech of Mitzrayim that he went from his royal palace and was seen abroad only one day in the year, and after that the melech would return to his palace to remain there.

4 And on the day when the melech went forth he passed mishpat in the land, and every one having a suit came before the melech that day to obtain his request.

5 And when Rikayon heard of the custom in Mitzrayim and that he could not come into the presence of the melech, he grieved greatly and was very sorrowful.

6 And in the evening Rikayon went out and found a house in ruins, formerly a baking house in Mitzrayim, and he abode there all night in bitterness of being and pinched with hunger, and sleep was removed from his eyes.

7 And Rikayon considered within himself what he should do in the town until the melech made his appearance, and how he might maintain himself there.

8 And he rose in the morning and walked about, and met in his way those who sold vegetables and various sorts of zera with which they supplied the inhabitants.

9 And Rikayon wished to do the same in order to get a maintenance in the city, but he was unacquainted with the custom of the people, and he was like a blind man among them.

10 And he went and obtained vegetables to sell them for his support, and the rabble assembled around him and ridiculed him, and took his vegetables from him and left him nothing.

11 And he rose up from there in bitterness of being, and went sighing to the baking house in which he had remained all the night before, and he slept there the second night.

12 And on that night again he reasoned within himself how he could save himself from starvation, and he devised a scheme how to act.

13 And he rose up in the morning and acted ingeniously, and went and hired thirty strong men of the rabble, carrying their war instruments in their hands, and he led them to the top of the Mitzrite sepulcher, and he placed them there.

14 And he commanded them, saying, This says the melech, Strengthen yourselves and be valiant men, and let no man be buried here until two hundred pieces of silver be given, and then he may be buried; and those men did according to the order of Rikayon to the people of Mitzrayim the whole of that year.

15 And in eight months time Rikayon and his men gathered great riches of silver and gold, and Rikayon took a great quantity of horses and other animals, and he hired more men, and he gave them horses and they remained with him.

16 And when the year came round, at the time the melech went forth into the town, all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim assembled together to speak to him concerning the work of Rikayon and his men.

17 And the melech went forth on the appointed day, and all the Mitzrites came before him and cried to him, saying,

18 May the melech live le-olam-va-ed. What is this thing you do in the town to your servants, not to allow a dead body to be buried until so much silver and gold be given? Was there ever the like to this done in the whole earth, from the days of former melechim; yes even from the days of Ahdam, to this day, that the dead should not be buried only for a set price?

19 We know it to be the custom of melechim to take a yearly tax from the living, but you do not only do this, but from the dead also you collect a tax day by day.

20 Now, O melech, we can no more bear this, for the whole city is ruined on this account, and do you not know it?

21 And when the melech heard all that they had spoken he was very angry, and his anger burned within him at this affair, for he had known nothing of it.

22 And the melech said, Who and where is he that dares to do this wicked thing in my land without my command? Surely you will tell me.

23 And they told him all the works of Rikayon and his men, and the melech's anger was aroused, and he ordered Rikayon and his men to be brought before him.

24 And Rikayon took about a thousand children, sons and daughters, and clothed them in silk and embroidery, and he set them upon horses and sent them to the melech by means of his men, and he also took a great quantity of silver and gold and precious stones, and a strong and beautiful horse, as a present for the melech, with which he came before the melech and bowed down to the earth before him; and the melech, his servants and all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim wondered at the work of Rikayon, and they saw his riches and the present that he had brought to the melech.

25 And it greatly pleased the melech and he wondered at it; and when Rikayon sat before him the melech asked him concerning all his works, and Rikayon spoke all his words wisely before the melech, his servants and all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim.

26 And when the melech heard the words of Rikayon and his wisdom, Rikayon found rachamim in his sight, and he met with rachamim and chesed from all the servants of the melech and from all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, on account of his wisdom and excellent speeches, and from that time they loved him exceedingly.

27 And the melech answered and said to Rikayon, Your name shall no more be called Rikayon but Pharaoh shall be your name, since you did exact a tax from the dead; and he called his name Pharaoh.

28 And the melech and his subjects loved Rikayon for his wisdom, and they consulted with all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim to make him prefect under the melech.

29 And all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim and its wise men did so, and it was made a law in Mitzrayim.

30 And they made Rikayon Pharaoh prefect under Oswiris melech of Mitzrayim, and Rikayon Pharaoh governed over Mitzrayim, daily administering mishpat to the whole city, but Oswiris the melech would judge the people of the land one day in the year, when he went out to make his appearance.

31 And Rikayon Pharaoh cunningly usurped the government of Mitzrayim, and he exacted a tax from all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim.

32 And all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim greatly loved Rikayon Pharaoh, and they made a decree to call every melech that should reign over them and their zera in Mitzrayim, Pharaoh.

33 Therefore all the melechim that reigned in Mitzrayim from that time forward were called Pharaoh to this day.

15 And in that year there was a heavy famine throughout the land of Kanaan, and the inhabitants of the land could not remain on account of the famine for it was very grievous.

2 And Avram and all belonging to him rose and went down to Mitzrayim on account of the famine, and when they were at the brook Mitzrayim they remained there some time to rest from the fatigue of the road.

3 And Avram and Sarai were walking at the border of the brook Mitzrayim, and Avram beheld his wife Sarai that she was very beautiful.

4 And Avram said to his wife Sarai, Since אֵלֹהִים has created you with such a beautiful countenance, I am afraid of the Mitzrites lest they should slay me and take you away, for the fear of אֵלֹהִים is not in these places.

5 Surely then you shall do this, Say you are my sister to all that may ask you, in order that it may be well with me, and that we may live and not be put to death.

6 And Avram commanded the same to all those that came with him to Mitzrayim on account of the famine; also his nephew Lot he commanded, saying, If the Mitzrites ask you concerning Sarai say she is the sister of Avram.

7 And yet with all these orders Avram did not put confidence in them, but he took Sarai and placed her in a chest and concealed it among their vessels, for Avram was greatly concerned about Sarai on account of the wickedness of the Mitzrites.

8 And Avram and all belonging to him rose up from the brook Mitzrayim and came to Mitzrayim; and they had scarcely entered the gates of the city when the guards stood up to them saying, Give ma'aser to the melech from what you have, and then you may come into the town; and Avram and those that were with him did so.

9 And Avram with the people that were with him came to Mitzrayim, and when they came they brought the chest in which Sarai was concealed and the Mitzrites saw the chest.

10 And the melech's servants approached Avram, saying, What have you here in this chest that we have not seen? Now open you the chest and give ma'aser to the melech of all that it contains.

11 And Avram said, This chest I will not open, but all you demand upon it I will give. And Pharaoh's officers answered Avram, saying, It is a chest of precious stones, give us the ma'aser of it.

12 Avram said, All that you desire I will give, but you must not open the chest.

13 And the melech's officers pressed Avram, and they reached the chest and opened it with force, and they saw, and behold a beautiful woman was in the chest.

14 And when the officers of the melech beheld Sarai they were struck with admiration at her beauty, and all the princes and servants of Pharaoh assembled to see Sarai, for she was very beautiful. And the melech's officers ran and told Pharaoh all that they had seen, and they praised Sarai to the melech; and Pharaoh ordered her to be brought, and the woman came before the melech.

15 And Pharaoh beheld Sarai and she pleased him exceedingly, and he was struck with her beauty, and the melech rejoiced greatly on her account, and made presents to those who brought him the tidings concerning her.

16 And the woman was then brought to Pharaoh's house, and Avram grieved on account of his wife, and he prayed to אֱלֹהִים to deliver her from the hands of Pharaoh.

17 And Sarai also prayed at that time and said, O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim you did tell my master Avram to go from his land and from his abba's house to the land of Kanaan, and you did promise to do well with him if he would perform your mitzvot; now behold we have done that which you did command us, and we left our land and our families, and we went to a strange land and to a people whom we have not known before.

18 And we came to this land to avoid the famine, and this evil accident has befallen me; now therefore, O אֱלֹהִים אֱלֹהִים, deliver us and save us from the hand of this oppressor, and do well with me for the sake of your chesed.

19 And אֱלֹהִים hearkened to the voice of Sarai, and אֱלֹהִים sent a malach to deliver Sarai from the power of Pharaoh.

20 And the melech came and sat before Sarai and behold a malach of אֱלֹהִים was standing over them, and he appeared to Sarai and said to her, Do not fear, for אֱלֹהִים has heard your prayer.

21 And the melech approached Sarai and said to her, What is that man to you who brought you here? And she said, He is my brother.

22 And the melech said, It is incumbent upon us to make him great, to elevate him and to do to him all the tov which you shall command us; and at that time the melech sent to Avram silver and gold and precious stones in abundance, together with cattle, men servants and maid servants; and the melech ordered Avram to be brought, and he sat in the court of the melech's house, and the melech greatly exalted Avram on that night.

23 And the melech approached to speak to Sarai, and he reached out his hand to touch her, when the malach smote him heavily, and he was terrified and he refrained from reaching to her.

24 And when the melech came near to Sarai, the malach smote him to the ground, and acted like this to him the whole night, and the melech was terrified.

25 And the malach on that night smote heavily all the servants of the melech, and his whole household, on account of Sarai, and there was a great lamentation that night among the people of Pharaoh's house.

26 And Pharaoh, seeing the evil that befell him, said, Surely on account of this woman has this thing happened to me, and he removed himself at some distance from her and spoke pleasing words to her.

27 And the melech said to Sarai, Tell me I ask you concerning the man with whom you came here; and Sarai said, This man is my husband, and I said to you that he was my brother for I was afraid, lest you should put him to death through wickedness.

28 And the melech kept away from Sarai, and the plagues of the malach of אִרְאֵז ceased from him and his household; and Pharaoh knew that he was smitten on account of Sarai, and the melech was greatly astonished at this.

29 And in the morning the melech called for Avram and said to him, What is this you have done to me? Why did you say, She is my sister, owing to which I took her to me for a wife, and this heavy plague has therefore come upon me and my household.

30 Now therefore here is your wife, take her and go from our land lest we all die on her account. And Pharaoh took more cattle, men servants and maidservants, and silver and gold, to give to Avram, and he returned to him Sarai his wife.

31 And the melech took a maiden whom he begat by his concubines, and he gave her to Sarai for a handmaid.

32 And the melech said to his daughter, It is better for you my daughter to be a handmaid in this man's house than to be mistress in my house, after we have beheld the evil that befell us on account of this woman.

33 And Avram arose, and he and all belonging to him went away from Mitzrayim; and Pharaoh ordered some of his men to accompany him and all that went with him.

34 And Avram returned to the land of Kanaan, to the place where he had made the altar, where he at first had pitched his tent.

35 And Lot the son of Charan, Avram's brother, had a heavy stock of cattle, flocks and herds and tents, for אֶרֶץ was bountiful to them on account of Avram.

36 And when Avram was dwelling in the land the herdsmen of Lot quarreled with the herdsmen of Avram, for their property was too great for them to remain together in the land, and the land could not bear them on account of their cattle.

37 And when Avram's herdsmen went to feed their flock they would not go into the fields of the people of the land, but the cattle of Lot's herdsmen did otherwise, for they were allowed to feed in the fields of the people of the land.

38 And the people of the land saw this occurrence daily, and they came to Avram and quarreled with him on account of Lot's herdsmen.

39 And Avram said to Lot, What is this you are doing to me, to make me despicable to the inhabitants of the land, that you order your herdsmen to feed your cattle in the fields of other people? Do you not know that I am a stranger in this land among the children of Kanaan, and why will you do this to me?

40 And Avram quarreled daily with Lot on account of this, but Lot would not listen to Avram, and he continued to do the same and the inhabitants of the land came and told Avram.

41 And Avram said to Lot, How long will you be to me for a stumbling block with the inhabitants of the land? Now I beseech you let there be no more quarrelling between us, for we are kinsmen.

42 But I beg you separate from me, go and choose a place where you may dwell with your cattle and all belonging to you, but keep yourself at a distance from me, you and your household.

43 And be not afraid in going from me, for if anyone does any injury to you, let me know and I will avenge your cause from him, only remove yourself from me.

44 And when Avram had spoken all these words to Lot, then Lot arose and lifted up his eyes toward the plain of Yarden.

45 And he saw that the whole of this place was well watered, and tov for man as well as affording pasture for the cattle.

46 And Lot went from Avram to that place, and he there pitched his tent and he dwelt in Sedom, and they were separated from each other.

47 And Avram dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hevron, and he pitched his tent there, and Avram remained in that place many years.

16 At that time Chedorlaomer melech of Eylam sent to all the neighboring melechim, to Nimrod, melech of Shinar who was then under his power, and to Tidal, melech of Goyim, and to Arioch, melech of Elasar, with whom he made a covenant, saying, Come up to me and assist me, that we may smite all the towns of Sedom and its inhabitants, for they have rebelled against me these thirteen years.

2 And these four melechim went up with all their camps, about eight hundred thousand men, and they went as they were, and smote every man they found in their road.

3 And the five melechim of Sedom and Amorah, Shinav melech of Admah, Shemever melech of Zevoyim, Bera melech of Sedom, Bersha melech of Amorah, and Bela melech of Zoar, went out to meet them, and they all joined together in the Valley of Siddim.

4 And these nine melechim made war in the Valley of Siddim; and the melechim of Sedom and Amorah were smitten before the melechim of Eylam.

5 And the Valley of Siddim was full of lime pits and the melechim of Eylam pursued the melechim of Sedom, and the melechim of Sedom with their camps fled and fell into the lime pits, and all that remained went to the mountain for safety, and the five melechim of Eylam came after them and pursued them to the gates of Sedom, and they took all that there was in Sedom.

6 And they plundered all the cities of Sedom and Amorah, and they also took Lot, Avram's brother's son, and his property, and they seized all the goods of the cities of Sedom, and they went away; and Unic, Avram's servant, who was in the battle, saw this, and told Avram all that the melechim had done to the cities of Sedom, and that Lot was taken captive by them.

7 And Avram heard this, and he rose up with about three hundred and eighteen men that were with him, and he that night pursued these melechim and smote them, and they all fell before Avram and his men, and there was none remaining but the four melechim who fled, and they went each his own road.

8 And Avram recovered all the property of Sedom, and he also recovered Lot and his property, his wives and little ones and all belonging to him, so that Lot lacked nothing.

9 And when he returned from smiting these melechim, he and his men passed the Valley of Siddim where the melechim had made war together.

10 And Bera melech of Sedom, and the rest of his men that were with him, went out from the lime pits into which they had fallen, to meet Avram and his men.

11 And Adoni-Tzedek melech of Yahrushalayim, the same was Shem, went out with his men to meet Avram and his people, with bread and wine, and they remained together in the valley of Melech.

12 And Adoni-Tzedek blessed Avram, and Avram gave him a ma'aser from all that he had brought from the spoil of his enemies, for Adoni-Tzedek was a kohen before אֱלֹהִים.

13 And all the melechim of Sedom and Amorah, who were there, with their servants, approached Avram and begged of him to return them their servants whom he had made captive, and to take to himself all the property.

14 And Avram answered the melechim of Sedom, saying, As אֱלֹהִים lives who created the shamayim and earth, and who redeemed my being from all affliction, and who delivered me this day from my enemies, and gave them into my hand, I will not take anything belonging to you, that you may not boast tomorrow, saying, Avram became rich from our property that he saved.

15 For אֱלֹהִים my אֱלֹהִים in whom I trust said to me, You shall lack nothing, for I will bless you in all the works of your hands.

16 And now therefore behold, here is all belonging to you, take it and go; as אֱלֹהִים lives I will not take from you from a living being down to a shoetie or thread, except the cost of the food of those who went out with me to battle, as also the portions of the men who went with me, Anar, Ashcol, and Mamre, they and their men, as well as those also who had remained to watch the baggage, they shall take their portion of the spoil.

17 And the melechim of Sedom gave Avram according to all that he had said, and they pressed him to take of whatever he chose, but he would not.

18 And he sent away the melechim of Sedom and the remainder of their men, and he gave them orders about Lot, and they went to their respective places.

19 And Lot, his brother's son, he also sent away with his property, and he went with them, and Lot returned to his home, to Sedom, and Avram and his people returned to their home to the plains of Mamre, which is in Hevron.

20 At that time אֱלֹהִים again appeared to Avram in Hevron, and he said to him, Do not fear, your reward is very great before me, for I will not leave you, until I shall have multiplied you, and blessed you and made your zera like the stars in the shamayim, which cannot be measured nor numbered.

21 And I will give to your zera all these lands that you see with your eyes, to them will I give them for an inheritance le-olam-va-ed, only be strong and do not fear, have your halacha before me and be perfect.

22 And in the seventy-eighth year of the life of Avram, in that year died Reu, the son of Peleg, and all the days of Reu were two hundred and thirty-nine years, and he died.

23 And Sarai, the daughter of Charan, Avram's wife, was still barren in those days; she did not bear to Avram either son or daughter.

24 And when she saw that she bare no children she took her handmaid Chagar, whom Pharaoh had given her, and she gave her to Avram her husband for a wife.

25 For Chagar learned all the halachot of Sarai as Sarai taught her, she was not in any way deficient in following her tov halachot.

26 And Sarai said to Avram, Behold here is my handmaid Chagar, go to her that she may bring forth upon my knees, that I may also obtain children through her.

27 And at the end of ten years of Avram's dwelling in the land of Kanaan, which is the eighty-fifth year of Avram's life, Sarai gave Chagar to him.

28 And Avram hearkened to the voice of his wife Sarai, and he took his handmaid Chagar and Avram came to her and she conceived.

29 And when Chagar saw that she had conceived she rejoiced greatly, and her mistress was despised in her eyes, and she said within herself, This can only be that I am better before אֱלֹהִים than Sarai my mistress, for all the days that my mistress has been with my master, she did not conceive, but me אֵלֹהִים has caused in so short a time to conceive by him.

30 And when Sarai saw that Chagar had conceived by Avram, Sarai was jealous of her handmaid, and Sarai said within herself, This is surely nothing else but that she must be better than I am.

31 And Sarai said to Avram, My wrong be upon you, for at the time when you did pray before אֵלֹהִים for children why did you not pray on my account, that אֵלֹהִים should give me zera from you?

32 And when I speak to Chagar in your presence, she despises my words, because she has conceived, and you will say nothing to her; may אֵלֹהִים judge between me and you for what you have done to me.

33 And Avram said to Sarai, Behold your handmaid is in your hand, do to her as it may seem tov in your eyes; and Sarai afflicted her, and Chagar fled from her to the wilderness.

34 And a malach of אֵלֹהִים found her in the place where she had fled, by a well, and he said to her, Do not fear, for I will multiply your zera, for you shall bear a son and you shall call his name Yishmael; now then return to Sarai your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands.

35 And Chagar called the place of that well Beer-Lahai-Roi; it is between Kadesh and the wilderness of Bered.

36 And Chagar at that time returned to her master's house, and at the end of days Chagar bare a son to Avram, and Avram called his name Yishmael; and Avram was eighty-six years old when he begat him.

17 And in those days, in the ninety-first year of the life of Avram, the children of Chittim made war with the children of Tuval, for when אֵלֹהִים had scattered the sons of men upon the face of the earth, the children of Chittim went and embodied themselves in the plain of Canopia, and they built themselves cities there and dwelt by the River Tivreu.

2 And the children of Tuval dwelt in Tuscanah, and their boundaries reached the River Tivreu, and the children of Tuval built a city in Tuscanan, and they called the name Savinah, after the name of Savinah son of Tuval their abba, and they dwelt there to this day.

3 And it was at that time the children of Chittim made war with the children of Tuval, and the children of Tuval were smitten before the children of Chittim, and the children of Chittim caused three hundred and seventy men to fall from the children of Tuval.

4 And at that time the children of Tuval swore to the children of Chittim, saying, You shall not intermarry among us, and no man shall give his daughter to any of the sons of Chittim.

5 For all the daughters of Tuval were in those days fair, for no women were then found in the whole earth so fair as the daughters of Tuval.

6 And all who delighted in the beauty of women went to the daughters of Tuval and took wives from them, and the sons of men, melechim and princes, who greatly delighted in the beauty of women, took wives in those days from the daughters of Tuval.

7 And at the end of three years after the children of Tuval had sworn to the children of Chittim not to give them their daughters for wives, about twenty men of the children of Chittim went to take some of the daughters of Tuval, but they found none.

8 For the children of Tuval kept their oaths not to intermarry with them, and they would not break their oaths.

9 And in the days of harvest the children of Tuval went into their fields to get in their harvest, when the young men of Chittim assembled and went to the city of Savinah, and each man took a young woman from the daughters of Tuval, and they came to their cities.

10 And the children of Tuval heard of it and they went to make war with them, and they could not prevail over them, for the mountain was exceedingly high from them, and when they saw they could not prevail over them they returned to their land.

11 And at the turn of the year the children of Tuval went and hired about ten thousand men from those cities that were near them, and they went to war with the children of Chittim.

12 And the children of Tuval went to war with the children of Chittim, to destroy their land and to distress them, and in this engagement the children of Tuval prevailed over the children of Chittim, and the children of Chittim, seeing that they were greatly distressed, lifted up the children which they had had by the daughters of Tuval, upon the wall which had been built, to be before the eyes of the children of Tuval.

13 And the children of Chittim said to them, Have you come to make war with your own sons and daughters, and have we not been considered your flesh and bones from that time till now?

14 And when the children of Tuval heard this they ceased to make war with the children of Chittim, and they went away.

15 And they returned to their cities, and the children of Chittim at that time assembled and built two cities by the sea, and they called one Purtu and the other Ariza.

16 And Avram the son of Terah was then ninety-nine years old.

17 At that time אֱלֹהִים appeared to him and He said to him, I will make My covenant between Me and you, and I will greatly multiply your zera, and this is the covenant which I make between me and you, that every male child be circumcised, you and your zera after you.

18 At eight days old shall it be circumcised, and this covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

19 And now therefore your name shall no more be called Avram but Avraham, and your wife shall no more be called Sarai but Sarah.

20 For I will bless you both, and I will multiply your zera after you that you shall become a great nation, and melechim shall come forth from you.

18 And Avraham rose and did all that אֱלֹהִים had ordered him, and he took the men of his household and those bought with his money, and he circumcised them as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him.

2 And there was not one left, whom he did not circumcise, and Avraham and his son Yishmael were circumcised in the flesh of their foreskin; thirteen years old was Yishmael when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

3 And in the third day Avraham went out of his tent and sat at the door to enjoy the heat of the sun, during the pain of his flesh.

4 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to him in the plain of Mamre, and sent three of his ministering malachim to visit him, and he was sitting at the door of the tent, and he lifted his eyes and saw, and see three men were coming from a distance, and he rose up and ran to meet them, and he bowed down to them and brought them into his house.

5 And he said to them, If now I have found favor in your sight, turn in and eat a morsel of bread; and he pressed them, and they turned in and he gave them mayim and they washed their feet, and he placed them under a tree at the door of the tent.

6 And Avraham ran and took a calf, tender and tov, and he hurried to kill it, and gave it to his servant Eliezer to dress.

7 And Avraham came to Sarah into the tent, and he said to her, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it and make cakes to cover the pot containing the meat, and she did so.

8 And Avraham hurried and brought before them butter and milk, beef and mutton, and gave it before them to eat before the flesh of the calf was sufficiently done, and they did eat.

9 And when they had done eating one of them said to him, I will return to you according to the time of life, and Sarah your wife shall have a son.

10 And the men afterward departed and went their ways, to the places to which they were sent.

11 In those days all the people of Sedom and Amarah, and of the whole five cities, were exceedingly wicked and sinful against אֱלֹהִים and they provoked אֱלֹהִים with their abominations, and they strengthened in aging abominably and scornfully before אֱלֹהִים, and their wickedness and crimes were in those days great before אֱלֹהִים.

12 And they had in their land a very extensive valley, about half a day's walk, and in it there were fountains of mayim and a great deal of herbage surrounding the mayim.

13 And all the people of Sedom and Amarah went there four times in the year, with their wives and children and all belonging to them, and they rejoiced there with timbrels and dances.

14 And in the time of rejoicing they would all rise and lay hold of their neighbor's wives, and some, the virgin daughters of their neighbors, and they enjoyed them, and each man saw his wife and daughter in the hands of his neighbor and did not say a word.

15 And they did so from morning to night, and they afterward returned home each man to his house and each woman to her tent; so they always did four times in the year.

16 Also when a stranger came into their cities and brought goods which he had purchased with a view to dispose of there, the people of these cities would assemble, men, women and children, young and old, and go to the man and take his goods by force, giving a little to each man until there was an end to all the goods of the owner which he had brought into the land.

17 And if the owner of the goods quarreled with them, saying, What is this work which you have done to me, then they would approach to him one by one, and each would show him the little which he took and taunt him, saying, I only took that little which you did give me; and when he heard this from them all, he would arise and go from them in sorrow and bitterness of being, when they would all arise and go after him, and drive him out of the city with great noise and tumult.

18 And there was a man from the country of Eylam who was leisurely going on the road, seated upon his donkey, which carried a fine mantle of divers colors, and the mantle was bound with a cord upon the donkey.

19 And the man was on his journey passing through the street of Sedom when the sun set in the evening, and he remained there in order to abide during the night, but no one would let him into his house; and at that time there was in Sedom a wicked and mischievous man, one skillful to do evil, and his name was Hedad.

20 And he lifted up his eyes and saw the traveler in the street of the city, and he came to him and said, Where do you come and where do you go?

21 And the man said to him, I am traveling from Hebron to Eylam where I belong, and as I passed the sun set and no one would allow me to enter his house, though I had bread and mayim and also straw and provender for my donkey, and am short of nothing.

22 And Hedad answered and said to him, All that you shall want shall be supplied by me, but in the street you shall not abide all night.

23 And Hedad brought him to his house, and he took off the mantle from the donkey with the cord, and brought them to his house, and he gave the donkey straw and provender while the traveler ate and drank in Hedad's house, and he abode there that night.

24 And in the morning the traveler rose up early to continue his journey, when Hedad said to him, Wait, comfort your heart with a morsel of bread and then go, and the man did so; and he remained with him, and they both ate and drank together during the day, when the man rose up to go.

25 And Hedad said to him, Behold now the day is declining, you had better remain all night that your heart may be comforted; and he pressed him so that he tarried there all night, and on the second day he rose up early to go away, when Hedad pressed him, saying, Comfort your heart with a morsel of bread and then go, and he remained and ate with him also the second day, and then the man rose up to continue his journey.

26 And Hedad said to him, Behold now the day is declining, remain with me to comfort your heart and in the morning rise up early and go your way.

27 And the man would not remain, but rose and saddled his donkey, and while he was saddling his donkey the wife of Hedad said to her husband, Behold this man has remained with us for two days eating and drinking and he has given us nothing, and now shall he go away from us without giving anything? And Hedad said to her, Be silent.

28 And the man saddled his donkey to go, and he asked Hedad to give him the cord and mantle to tie it upon the donkey.

29 And Hedad said to him, What say you? And he said to him, That you my master shall give me the cord and the mantle made with divers colors that you did conceal with you in your house to take care of it.

30 And Hedad answered the man, saying, This is the interpretation of your dream, the cord which you did see, means that your life will be lengthened out like a cord, and having seen the mantle colored with all sorts of colors, means that you shall have a vineyard in which you will plant trees of all fruits.

31 And the traveler answered, saying, Not so my master, for I was awake when I gave you the cord and also a mantle woven with different colors, which you did take off the donkey to put them by for me; and Hedad answered and said, Surely I have told you the interpretation of your dream and it is a tov dream, and this is the interpretation of it.

32 Now the sons of men give me four pieces of silver, which is my charge for interpreting dreams, and of you only I require three pieces of silver.

33 And the man was provoked at the words of Hedad, and he cried bitterly, and he brought Hedad to Serak judge of Sedom.

34 And the man laid his cause before Serak the judge, when Hedad replied, saying, It is not so, but this the matter stands; and the judge said to the traveler, This man Hedad tells you emet, for he is famed in the cities for the accurate interpretation of dreams.

35 And the man cried at the word of the judge, and he said, Not so my master, for it was in the day that I gave him the cord and mantle which was upon the donkey, in order to put them by in his house; and they both disputed before the judge, the one saying, This the matter was, and the other declaring otherwise.

36 And Hedad said to the man, Give me four pieces of silver that I charge for my interpretations of dreams; I will not make any allowance; and give me the expense of the four meals that you did eat in my house.

37 And the man said to Hedad, Truly I will pay you for what I ate in your house, only give me the cord and mantle that you did conceal in your house.

38 And Hedad replied before the judge and said to the man, Did I not tell you the interpretation of your dream? The cord means that your days shall be prolonged like a cord, and the mantle, that you will have a vineyard in which you will plant all kinds of fruit trees.

39 This is the proper interpretation of your dream; now give me the four pieces of silver that I require as compensation, for I will make you no allowance.

40 And the man cried at the words of Hedad and they both quarreled before the judge, and the judge gave orders to his servants, who drove them rashly from the house.

41 And they went away quarreling from the judge, when the people of Sedom heard them, and they gathered about them and they exclaimed against the stranger, and they drove him rashly from the city.

42 And the man continued his journey upon his donkey with bitterness of being, lamenting and weeping.

43 And while he was going along he wept at what had happened to him in the corrupt city of Sedom.

19 And the cities of Sedom had four shophtim to four cities, and these were their names, Serak in the city of Sedom, Sharkad in Amarah, Zavnac in Admah, and Menon in Zevoyim.

2 And Eliezer Avraham's servant applied to them different names, and he converted Serak to Shakra, Sharkad to Shakrura, Zevnac to Kezobim, and Menon to Matzlodin.

3 And by desire of their four shophtim the people of Sedom and Amarah had beds erected in the streets of the cities, and if a man came to these places they laid hold of him and brought him to one of their beds, and by force made him to lie in them.

4 And as he lay down, three men would stand at his head and three at his feet, and measure him by the length of the bed, and if the man was less than the bed these six men would stretch him at each end, and when he cried out to them they would not answer him.

5 And if he was longer than the bed they would draw together the two sides of the bed at each end, until the man had reached the gates of death.

6 And if he continued to cry out to them, they would answer him, saying, This shall it be done to a man that comes into our land.

7 And when men heard all these things that the people of the cities of Sedom did, they refrained from coming there.

8 And when a poor man came to their land they would give him silver and gold, and cause a proclamation in the whole city not to give him a morsel of bread to eat, and if the stranger should remain there some days, and die from hunger, not having been able to obtain a morsel of bread, then at his death all the people of the city would come and take their silver and gold which they had given to him.

9 And those that could recognize the silver or gold that they had given him took it back, and at his death they also stripped him of his garments, and they would fight about them, and he that prevailed over his neighbor took them.

10 They would after that carry him and bury him under some of the shrubs in the deserts; so they did all the days to any one that came to them and died in their land.

11 And in the course of time Sarah sent Eliezer to Sedom, to see Lot and inquire after his welfare.

12 And Eliezer went to Sedom, and he met a man of Sedom fighting with a stranger, and the man of Sedom stripped the poor man of all his clothes and went away.

13 And this poor man cried to Eliezer and supplicated his favor on account of what the man of Sedom had done to him.

14 And he said to him, Why do you act like this to the poor man who came to your land?

15 And the man of Sedom answered Eliezer, saying, Is this man your brother, or have the people of Sedom made you a judge this day, that you speak about this man?

16 And Eliezer strove with the man of Sedom on account of the poor man, and when Eliezer approached to recover the poor man's clothes from the man of Sedom, he hurried and with a stone smote Eliezer in the forehead.

17 And the blood flowed copiously from Eliezer's forehead, and when the man saw the blood he caught hold of Eliezer, saying, Give me my hire for having rid you of this bad blood that was in your forehead, for such is the custom and the law in our land.

18 And Eliezer said to him, You have wounded me and you now require me to pay you your hire; and Eliezer would not listen to the words of the man of Sedom.

19 And the man laid hold of Eliezer and brought him to Shakra the judge of Sedom for mishpat.

20 And the man spoke to the judge, saying, I beseech you my master, this has this man done, for I smote him with a stone that the blood flowed from his forehead, and he is unwilling to give me my hire.

21 And the judge said to Eliezer, This man speaks emet to you, give him his hire, for this is the custom in our land; and Eliezer heard the words of the judge, and he lifted up a stone and smote the judge, and the stone struck on his forehead, and the blood flowed copiously from the forehead of the judge, and Eliezer said, If this then is the custom in your land give you to this man what I should have given him, for this has been your decision, you did decree it.

22 And Eliezer left the man of Sedom with the judge, and he went away.

23 And when the melechims of Eylam had made war with the melechims of Sedom, the melechims of Eylam captured all the property of Sedom, and they took Lot captive, with his property, and when it was told to Avraham he went and made war with the melechims of Eylam, and he recovered from their hands all the property of Lot as well as the property of Sedom.

24 At that time the wife of Lot bare him a daughter, and he called her name Paltith, saying, Because אִתִּי had delivered him and his whole household from the melechim of Eylam; and Paltith daughter of Lot grew up, and one of the men of Sedom took her for a wife.

25 And a poor man came into the city to seek a maintenance, and he remained in the city some days, and all the people of Sedom caused a proclamation of their custom not to give this man a morsel of bread to eat, until he dropped dead upon the earth, and they did so.

26 And Paltith the daughter of Lot saw this man lying in the streets starved with hunger, and no one would give him anything to keep him alive, and he was just upon the point of death.

27 And her being was filled with pity on account of the man, and she fed him secretly with bread for many days, and the being of this man was revived.

28 For when she went forth to fetch mayim she would put the bread in the mayim pitcher, and when she came to the place where the poor man was, she took the bread from the pitcher and gave it him to eat; so she did many days.

29 And all the people of Sedom and Amarah wondered how this man could bear starvation for so many days.

30 And they said to each other, This can only be that he eats and drinks, for no man can bear starvation for so many days or live as this man has, without even his countenance changing; and three men concealed themselves in a place where the poor man was stationed, to know who it was that brought him bread to eat.

31 And Paltith daughter of Lot went forth that day to fetch mayim, and she put bread into her pitcher of mayim, and she went to draw mayim by the poor man's place, and she took out the bread from the pitcher and gave it to the poor man and he ate it.

32 And the three men saw what Paltith did to the poor man, and they said to her, It is you then who have supported him, and therefore has he not starved, nor changed in appearance nor died like the rest.

33 And the three men went out of the place in which they were concealed, and they seized Paltith and the bread that was in the poor man's hand.

34 And they took Paltith and brought her before their shophtim, and they said to them, This did she do, and it is she who supplied the poor man with bread, therefore did he not die all this time; now therefore declare to us the punishment due to this woman for having transgressed our law.

35 And the people of Sedom and Amarah assembled and kindled a fire in the street of the city, and they took the woman and cast her into the fire and she was burned to ashes.

36 And in the city of Admah there was a woman to whom they did the same.

37 For a traveler came into the city of Admah to abide there all night, with the intention of going home in the morning, and he sat opposite the door of the house of the young woman's abba, to remain there, as the sun had set when he had reached that place; and the young woman saw him sitting by the door of the house.

38 And he asked her for a drink of mayim and she said to him, Who are you? And he said to her, I was this day going on the road, and reached here when the sun set, so I will abide here all night, and in the morning I will arise early and continue my journey.

39 And the young woman went into the house and fetched the man bread and mayim to eat and drink.

40 And this affair became known to the people of Admah, and they assembled and brought the young woman before the shophtim, that they should judge her for this act.

41 And the judge said, The mishpat of death must pass upon this woman because she transgressed our law, and this therefore is the decision concerning her.

42 And the people of those cities assembled and brought out the young woman, and anointed her with honey from head to foot, as the judge had decreed, and they placed her before a swarm of bees which were then in their hives, and the bees flew upon her and stung her that her whole body was swollen.

43 And the young woman cried out on account of the bees, but no one took notice of her or pitied her, and her cries ascended to the shamayim.

44 And אֱלֹהִים was provoked at this and at all the works of the cities of Sedom, for they had abundance of food, and had tranquility among them, and still would not sustain the poor and the needy, and in those days their evil doings and sins became great before אֱלֹהִים.

45 And אֱלֹהִים sent for two of the malachim that had come to Avraham's house, to destroy Sedom and its cities.

46 And the malachim rose up from the door of Avraham's tent, after they had eaten and drunk, and they reached Sedom in the evening, and Lot was then sitting in the gate of Sedom, and when he saw them he rose to meet them, and he bowed down to the ground.

47 And he pressed them greatly and brought them into his house, and he gave them food that they ate, and they abode all night in his house.

48 And the malachim said to Lot, Arise, go forth from this place, you and all belonging to you, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of this city, for אֵשׁ will destroy this place.

49 And the malachim laid hold upon the hand of Lot and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hands of his children, and all belonging to him, and they brought him forth and set him outside the cities.

50 And they said to Lot, Escape for your life, and he fled and all belonging to him.

51 Then אֵשׁ rained upon Sedom and upon Amorah and upon all these cities brimstone and fire from אֵשׁ out of the shamayim

52 And He overthrew these cities, all the plain and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground; and Ado the wife of Lot looked back to see the destruction of the cities, for her rachamim was moved on account of her daughters who remained in Sedom, for they did not go with her.

53 And when she looked back she became a pillar of salt, and it is yet in that place to this day.

54 And the oxen that stood in that place daily licked up the salt to the extremities of their feet, and in the morning it would spring forth afresh, and they again licked it up to this day.

55 And Lot and two of his daughters that remained with him fled and escaped to the cave of Adullam, and they remained there for some time.

56 And Avraham rose up early in the morning to see what had been done to the cities of Sedom; and he looked and beheld the smoke of the cities going up like the smoke of a furnace.

57 And Lot and his two daughters remained in the cave, and they made their abba drink wine, and they lay with him, for they said there was no man upon earth that could raise up zera from them, for they thought that the whole earth was destroyed.

58 And they both lay with their abba, and they conceived and bare sons, and the bachor called the name of her son Moav, saying, From my abba did I conceive him; he is the abba of the Moavites to this day.

59 And the younger also called her son Ben-Ami; he is the abba of the children of Ammon to this day.

60 And after this Lot and his two daughters went away from there, and he dwelt on the other side of the Yarden with his two daughters and their sons, and the sons of Lot grew up, and they went and took themselves wives from the land of Kanaan, and they begat children and they were fruitful and multiplied.

20 And at that time Avraham journeyed from the plain of Mamre, and he went to the land of the Philistines, and he dwelt in Gerar; it was in the twenty-fifth year of Avraham's being in the land of Kanaan, and the hundredth year of the life of Avraham, that he came to Gerar in the land of the Philistines.

2 And when they entered the land he said to Sarah his wife, Say you are my sister, to any one that shall ask you, in order that we may escape the evil of the inhabitants of the land.

3 And as Avraham was dwelling in the land of the Philistines, the servants of Avimelech, melech of the Philistines, saw that Sarah was exceedingly beautiful, and they asked Avraham concerning her, and he said, She is my sister.

4 And the servants of Avimelech went to Avimelech, saying, A man from the land of Kanaan is come to dwell in the land, and he has a sister that is exceeding fair.

5 And Avimelech heard the words of his servants, who praised Sarah to him, and Avimelech sent his officers, and they brought Sarah to the melech.

6 And Sarah came to the house of Avimelech, and the melech saw that Sarah was beautiful, and she pleased him exceedingly.

7 And he approached her and said to her, What is that man to you with whom you did come to our land? And Sarah answered and said He is my brother, and we came from the land of Kanaan to dwell wherever we could find a place.

8 And Avimelech said to Sarah, Behold my land is before you, place your brother in any part of this land that pleases you, and it will be our duty to exalt and elevate him above all the people of the land since he is your brother.

9 And Avimelech sent for Avraham, and Avraham came to Avimelech.

10 And Avimelech said to Avraham, Behold I have given orders that you shall be honored, as you desire on account of your sister Sarah.

11 And Avraham went forth from the melech, and the melech's present followed him.

12 As at evening time, before men lie down to rest, the melech was sitting upon his throne, and a deep sleep fell upon him, and he lay upon the throne and slept till morning.

13 And he dreamed that a malach of אֱלֹהִים came to him with a drawn sword in his hand, and the malach stood over Avimelech, and wished to slay him with the sword, and the melech was terrified in his dream, and said to the malach, In what have I sinned against you that you come to slay me with your sword?

14 And the malach answered and said to Avimelech, Behold you will die on account of the woman which you did last night bring to your house, for she is a married woman, the wife of Avraham who came to your house; now therefore return that man his wife, for she is his wife; and should you not return her, know that you will surely die, you and all belonging to you.

15 And on that night there was a great outcry in the land of the Philistines, and the inhabitants of the land saw the figure of a man standing with a drawn sword in his hand, and he smote the inhabitants of the land with the sword, yes he continued to smite them.

16 And the malach of אֱלֹהִים smote the whole land of the Philistines on that night, and there was a great confusion on that night and on the following morning.

17 And every womb was closed, and all their issues, and the hand of אֱלֹהִים was upon them on account of Sarah, wife of Avraham, whom Avimelech had taken.

18 And in the morning Avimelech rose with terror and confusion and with a great dread, and he sent and had his servants called in, and he related his dream to them, and the people were greatly afraid.

19 And one man standing among the servants of the melech answered the melech, saying, O sovereign melech, restore this woman to her husband, for he is her husband, for the like happened to the melech of Mitzrayim when this man came to Mitzrayim.

20 And he said concerning his wife, She is my sister, for such is his manner of doing when he comes to dwell in the land in which he is a stranger.

21 And Pharaoh sent and took this woman for a wife and אֱלֹהִים brought upon him grievous plagues until he returned the woman to her husband.

22 Now therefore, O sovereign melech, know what happened last night to the whole land, for there was a very great consternation and great pain and lamentation, and we know that it was on account of the woman which you did take.

23 Now, therefore, restore this woman to her husband, lest it should befall us as it did to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim and his subjects, and that we may not die; and Avimelech hurried and called and had Sarah called for, and she came before him, and he had Avraham called for, and he came before him.

24 And Avimelech said to them, What is this work you have been doing in saying you are brother and sister, and I took this woman for a wife?

25 And Avraham said, Because I thought I should suffer death on account of my wife; and Avimelech took flocks and herds, and men servants and maidservants, and a thousand pieces of silver, and he gave them to Avraham, and he returned Sarah to him.

26 And Avimelech said to Avraham, Behold the whole land is before you, dwell in it wherever you shall choose.

27 And Avraham and Sarah, his wife, went forth from the melech's presence with honor and respect, and they dwelt in the land, even in Gerar.

28 And all the inhabitants of the land of the Philistines and the melech's servants were still in pain, through the plague that the malach had inflicted upon them the whole night on account of Sarah.

29 And Avimelech sent for Avraham, saying, Pray now for your servants to אֱלֹהֶיךָ your אֱלֹהֶיךָ, that he may put away this mortality from among us.

30 And Avraham prayed on account of Avimelech and his subjects, and אֱלֹהֶיךָ heard the tefilah of Avraham, and he healed Avimelech and all his subjects.

21 And it was at that time at the end of a year and four months of Avraham's dwelling in the land of the Philistines in Gerar, that אַפְרָיִם visited Sarah, and אַפְרָיִם remembered her, and she conceived and bare a son to Avraham.

2 And Avraham called the name of the son that was born to him, which Sarah bare to him, Yitzchak.

3 And Avraham circumcised his son Yitzchak at eight days old, as אַפְרָיִם had commanded Avraham to do to his zera after him; and Avraham was one hundred, and Sarah ninety years old, when Yitzchak was born to them.

4 And the child grew up and he was weaned, and Avraham made a great feast upon the day that Yitzchak was weaned.

5 And Shem and Ever and all the great people of the land, and Avimelech melech of the Philistines, and his servants, and Phicol, the captain of his host, came to eat and drink and rejoice at the feast which Avraham made upon the day of his son Yitzchak's being weaned.

6 Also Terah, the abba of Avraham, and Nachor his brother, came from Charan, they and all belonging to them, for they greatly rejoiced on hearing that a son had been born to Sarah.

7 And they came to Avraham, and they ate and drank at the feast that Avraham made upon the day of Yitzchak's being weaned.

8 And Terah and Nachor rejoiced with Avraham, and they remained with him many days in the land of the Philistines.

9 At that time Serug the son of Reu died, in the first year of the birth of Yitzchak son of Avraham.

10 And all the days of Serug were two hundred and thirty years,  and he died.

11 And Yishmael the son of Avraham was grown up in those days; he was fourteen years old when Sarah bare Yitzchak to Avraham.

12 And יִצְחָק was with Yishmael the son of Avraham, and he grew up, and he learned to use the bow and became an archer.

13 And when Yitzchak was five years old he was sitting with Yishmael at the door of the tent.

14 And Yishmael came to Yitzchak and seated himself opposite to him, and he took the bow and drew it and put the arrow in it, and intended to slay Yitzchak.

15 And Sarah saw the act which Yishmael desired to do to her son Yitzchak, and it grieved her exceedingly on account of her son, and she sent for Avraham, and said to him, Cast out this bondwoman and her son, for her son shall not be heir with my son, for this did he seek to do to him this day.

16 And Avraham hearkened to the voice of Sarah, and he rose up early in the morning, and he took twelve loaves and a bottle of mayim which he gave to Chagar, and sent her away with her son, and Chagar went with her son to the wilderness, and they dwelt in the wilderness of Paran with the inhabitants of the wilderness, and Yishmael was an archer, and he dwelt in the wilderness a long time.

17 And he and his ema afterward went to the land of Mitzrayim, and they dwelt there, and Chagar took a wife for her son from Mitzrayim, and her name was Merivah.

18 And the wife of Yishmael conceived and bare four sons and two daughters, and Yishmael and his ema and his wife and children afterward went and returned to the wilderness.

19 And they made themselves tents in the wilderness, in which they dwelt, and they continued to travel and then to rest monthly and yearly.

20 And אִשְׁמָעֵל gave Yishmael flocks and herds and tents on account of Avraham his abba, and the man increased in cattle.

21 And Yishmael dwelt in deserts and in tents, traveling and resting for a long time, and he did not see the face of his abba.

22 And in some time after, Avraham said to Sarah his wife, I will go and see my son Yishmael, for I have a desire to see him, for I have not seen him for a long time.

23 And Avraham rode upon one of his camels to the wilderness to seek his son Yishmael, for he heard that he was dwelling in a tent in the wilderness with all belonging to him.

24 And Avraham went to the wilderness, and he reached the tent of Yishmael about noon, and he asked after Yishmael, and he found the wife of Yishmael sitting in the tent with her children, and Yishmael her husband and his ema were not with them.

25 And Avraham asked the wife of Yishmael, saying, Where has Yishmael gone? And she said, He has gone to the field to hunt, and Avraham was still mounted upon the camel, for he would not get off to the ground as he had sworn to his wife Sarah that he would not get off from the camel.

26 And Avraham said to Yishmael's wife, My daughter, give me a little mayim that I may drink, for I am fatigued from the journey.

27 And Yishmael's wife answered and said to Avraham, We have neither mayim nor bread, and she continued sitting in the tent and did not notice Avraham, neither did she ask him who he was.

28 But she was beating her children in the tent, and she was cursing them, and she also cursed her husband Yishmael and reproached him, and Avraham heard the words of Yishmael's wife to her children, and he was very angry and displeased.

29 And Avraham called to the woman to come out to him from the tent, and the woman came and stood opposite to Avraham, for Avraham was still mounted upon the camel.

30 And Avraham said to Yishmael's wife, When your husband Yishmael returns home say these words to him, 31 A very old man from the land of the Philistines came here to seek you, and this was his appearance and figure; I did not ask him who he was, and seeing you were not here he spoke to me and said, When Yishmael your husband returns tell him this did this man say, When you come home put away this nail of the tent which you have placed here, and place another nail in its stead.

32 And Avraham finished his instructions to the woman, and he turned and went off on the camel homeward.

33 And after that Yishmael came from the chase he and his ema, and returned to the tent, and his wife spoke these words to him, 34 A very old man from the land of the Philistines came to seek you, and this was his appearance and figure; I did not ask him who he was, and seeing you were not at home he said to me, When your husband comes home tell him, this says the old man, Put away the nail of the tent which you have placed here and place another nail in its stead.

35 And Yishmael heard the words of his wife, and he knew that it was his abba, and that his wife did not honor him.

36 And Yishmael understood his abba's words that he had spoken to his wife, and Yishmael hearkened to the voice of his abba, and Yishmael cast off that woman and she went away.

37 And Yishmael afterward went to the land of Kanaan, and he took another wife and he brought her to his tent to the place where he then dwelt.

38 And at the end of three years Avraham said, I will go again and see Yishmael my son, for I have not seen him for a long time.

39 And he rode upon his camel and went to the wilderness, and he reached the tent of Yishmael about noon.

40 And he asked after Yishmael, and his wife came out of the tent and she said, He is not here my master, for he has gone to hunt in the fields, and to feed the camels, and the woman said to Avraham, Turn in my master into the tent, and eat a morsel of bread, for your being must be wearied on account of the journey.

41 And Avraham said to her, I will not stop for I am in haste to continue my journey, but give me a little mayim to drink, for I have thirst; and the woman hurried and ran into the tent and she brought out mayim and bread to Avraham, which she placed before him and she urged him to eat, and he ate and drank and his heart was comforted and he blessed his son Yishmael.

42 And he finished his meal and he blessed אִתְּךָ, and he said to Yishmael's wife, When Yishmael comes home say these words to him, 43 A very old man from the land of the Philistines came here and asked after you, and you were not here; and I brought him out bread and mayim and he ate and drank and his heart was comforted.

44 And he spoke these words to me: When Yishmael your husband comes home, say to him,

The nail of the tent which you have is very tov, do not put it away from the tent.

45 And Avraham finished commanding the woman, and he rode off to his home to the land of the Philistines; and when Yishmael came to his tent his wife went forth to meet him with joy and a cheerful heart.

46 And she said to him, An old man came here from the land of the Philistines and this was his appearance, and he asked after you and you were not here, so I brought out bread and mayim, and he ate and drank and his heart was comforted.

47 And he spoke these words to me, When Yishmael your husband comes home say to him, The nail of the tent that you have is very tov, do not put it away from the tent.

48 And Yishmael knew that it was his abba, and that his wife had honored him, and אָרָא בֵּרַךְ blessed Yishmael.

22 And Yishmael then rose up and took his wife and his children and his cattle and all belonging to him, and he journeyed from there and he went to his abba in the land of the Philistines.

2 And Avraham related to Yishmael his son the transaction with the first wife that Yishmael took, according to what she did.

3 And Yishmael and his children dwelt with Avraham many days in that land, and Avraham dwelt in the land of the Philistines a long time.

4 And the days increased and reached twenty six years, and after that Avraham with his servants and all belonging to him went from the land of the Philistines and removed to a great distance, and they came near to Hevron, and they remained there, and the servants of Avraham dug wells of mayim, and Avraham and all belonging to him dwelt by the mayim, and the servants of Avimelech melech of the Philistines heard the report that Avraham's servants had dug wells of mayim in the borders of the land.

5 And they came and quarreled with the servants of Avraham, and they robbed them of the great well which they had dug.

6 And Avimelech melech of the Philistines heard of this affair, and he with Phicol the captain of his host and twenty of his men came to Avraham, and Avimelech spoke to Avraham concerning his servants, and Avraham rebuked Avimelech concerning the well of which his servants had robbed him.

7 And Avimelech said to Avraham, As אֱלֹהִים lives who created the whole earth; I did not hear of the act that my servants did to your servants until this day.

8 And Avraham took seven ewe lambs and gave them to Avimelech, saying, Take these, I beg you, from my hands that it may be a testimony for me that I dug this well.

9 And Avimelech took the seven ewe lambs which Avraham had given to him, for he had also given him cattle and herds in abundance, and Avimelech swore to Avraham concerning the well, therefore he called that well Beersheva, for there they both swore concerning it.

10 And they both made a covenant in Beersheva, and Avimelech rose up with Phicol the captain of his host and all his men, and they returned to the land of the Philistines, and Avraham and all belonging to him dwelt in Beersheva and he was in that land a long time.

11 And Avraham planted a large grove in Beersheva, and he made to it four gates facing the four sides of the earth, and he planted a vineyard in it, so that if a traveler came to Avraham he entered any gate which was in his road, and remained there and ate and drank and satisfied himself and then departed.

12 For the house of Avraham was always open to the sons of men that passed and repassed, who came daily to eat and drink in the house of Avraham.

13 And any man who had hunger and came to Avraham's house, Avraham would give him bread that he might eat and drink and be satisfied, and any one that came naked to his house he would clothe with garments as he might choose and give him silver and gold and make known to him אֱלֹהֵי who had created him in the earth; this did Avraham all his life.

14 And Avraham and his children and all belonging to him dwelt in Beersheva, and he pitched his tent as far as Hevron.

15 And Avraham's brother Nachor and his abba and all belonging to them dwelt in Charan, for they did not come with Avraham to the land of Kanaan.

16 And children were born to Nachor which Milca the daughter of Charan, and sister to Sarah, Avraham's wife, bare to him.

17 And these are the names of those that were born to him, Uz, Buz, Kemuel, Kesed, Chazo, Pildash, Tidlaf, and Bethuel, being eight sons, these are the children of Milca which she bare to Nachor, Avraham's brother.

18 And Nachor had a concubine and her name was Reumah, and she also bare to Nachor, Zevach, Gachash, Tachash and Maacha, being four sons.

19 And the children that were born to Nachor were twelve sons besides his daughters, and they also had children born to them in Charan.

20 And the children of Uz the first born of Nachor were Avi, Cheref, Gadin, Melus, and Devorah their sister.

21 And the sons of Buz were Berachel, Naamath, Sheva, and Madonu.

22 And the sons of Kemuel were Aram and Rechov.

23 And the sons of Kesed were Anamlech, Meshai, Benon and Yifi; and the sons of Chazo were Pildash, Mechi and Opher.

24 And the sons of Pildash were Arud, Chamum, Mered and Moloch.

25 And the sons of Tidlaf were Mushan, Cushan and Mutzi.

26 And the children of Bethuel were Sechar, Lavan and their sister Rivkah.

27 These are the families of the children of Nachor, that were born to them in Charan; and Aram the son of Kemuel and Rechov his brother went away from Charan, and they found a valley in the land by the River Euphrates.

28 And they built a city there, and they called the name of the city after the name of Pethor the son of Aram, that is Aram Naherayim to this day.

29 And the children of Kesed also went to dwell where they could find a place, and they went and they found a valley opposite to the land of Shinar, and they dwelt there.

30 And they there built themselves a city, and they called the name of the city Kesed after the name of their abba, that is the land Kasdim to this day, and the Kasdim dwelt in that land and they were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.

31 And Terah, abba of Nachor and Avraham, went and took another wife in his old age, and her name was Pelilah, and she conceived and bare him a son and he called his name Zova.

32 And Terah lived twenty-five years after he begat Zova.

33 And Terah died in that year; that is in the thirty-fifth year of the birth of Yitzchak son of Avraham.

34 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years, and he was buried in Charan.

35 And Zova the son of Terah lived thirty years and he begat Aram, Achlis and Merik.

36 And Aram son of Zova son of Terah, had three wives and he begat twelve sons and three daughters; and אֱלֹהִים gave to Aram the son of Zova, riches and possessions, and abundance of cattle, and flocks and herds, and the man increased greatly.

37 And Aram the son of Zova and his brother and all his household journeyed from Charan, and they went to dwell where they should find a place, for their property was too great to remain in Charan; for they could not stop in Charan together with their brothers the children of Nachor.

38 And Aram the son of Zova went with his brothers, and they found a valley at a distance toward the eastern country and they dwelt there.

39 And they also built a city there, and they called the name of it Aram, after the name of their eldest brother; that is Aram-Zova to this day.

40 And Yitzchak the son of Avraham was growing up in those days, and Avraham his abba taught him the halacha of אֱלֹהִים to know אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים was with him.

41 And when Yitzchak was thirty-seven years old, Yishmael his brother was going about with him in the tent.

42 And Yishmael boasted of himself to Yitzchak, saying, I was thirteen years old when אֱלֹהִים spoke to my abba to circumcise us, and I did according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which he spoke to my abba, and I gave my being to אֱלֹהִים, and I did not transgress his word which he commanded my abba.

43 And Yitzchak answered Yishmael, saying, Why do you boast to me about this, about a little bit of your flesh that you did take from your body, concerning which אֱלֹהִים commanded you?

44 As אֱלֹהִים lives, the אֱלֹהִים of my abba Avraham, if אֱלֹהִים should say to my abba, Take now your son Yitzchak and bring him up an offering before me, I would not refrain but I would joyfully agree to it.

45 And אֱלֹהִים heard the word that Yitzchak spoke to Yishmael, and it seemed tov in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, and he thought to test Avraham in this matter.

46 And the day arrived when the sons of אֱלֹהִים came and placed themselves before אֱלֹהִים, and s.a.tan also came with the sons of אֱלֹהִים before אֱלֹהִים.

47 And אֱלֹהִים said to s.a.tan, Where are you come from? And s.a.tan answered אֱלֹהִים and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

48 And אֱלֹהִים said to s.a.tan, What is your word to me concerning all the children of the earth? And s.a.tan answered אֱלֹהִים and said, I have seen all the children of the earth who serve you and remember you when they require anything from you.

49 And when you give them the thing that they require from you, they sit at their ease, and forsake you and they remember you no more.

50 Have you seen Avraham the son of Terah, who at first had no children, and he served you and erected altars to you wherever he came, and he brought up offerings upon them, and he proclaimed your name continually to all the children of the earth?

51 And now that his son Yitzchak is born to him, he has forsaken you, he has made a great feast for all the inhabitants of the land, and אֱלֹהִים he has forgotten.

52 For amidst all that he has done he brought you no offering; neither burnt offering nor shalom offering, neither ox, lamb nor goat of all that he killed on the day that his son was weaned.

53 Even from the time of his son's birth until now, being thirty-seven years, he built no altar before you, nor brought any offering to you, for he saw that you did give what he requested before you, and he therefore forsook you.

54 And אֱלֹהִים said to s.a.tan, Have you this considered my servant Avraham? For there is none like him upon earth, a perfect and an upright man before me, one that fears אֱלֹהִים and avoids evil; as I live, were I to say to him, Bring up Yitzchak your son before me, he would not withhold him from me, much more if I told him to bring up a burnt offering before me from his flock or herds.

55 And s.a.tan answered אֱלֹהִים and said, Speak then now to Avraham as you have said, and you will see whether he will not this day transgress and cast aside your words.

23 At that time the Word of אֱלֹהִים came to Avraham, and He said to him, Avraham, and he said, Hinayni.

2 And He said to him, Take now your son, your only son whom you love, even Yitzchak, and go to the land of Moriyah, and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which shall be shown to you, for there will you see a cloud and the presence of אֱלֹהִים.

3 And Avraham said within himself, How shall I separate my son Yitzchak from Sarah his ema, in order to bring him up for a burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים?

4 And Avraham came into the tent, and he sat before Sarah his wife, and he spoke these words to her,

5 My son Yitzchak is grown up and he has not for some time studied the service of his אֱלֹהִים; now tomorrow I will go and bring him to Shem and Ever his son, and there he will learn the halachot of אֱלֹהִים, for they will teach him to know אֱלֹהִים as well as to know that when he prays continually before אֱלֹהִים, He will answer him, therefore there he will know the halacha of serving אֱלֹהִים his אֱלֹהִים.

6 And Sarah said, You have spoken well, go my master and do to him as you have said, but remove him not at a great distance from me, neither let him remain there too long, for my being is bound within his being.

7 And Avraham said to Sarah, My daughter, let us make tefilah to אֱלֹהִים our אֱלֹהִים that He may do tov with us.

8 And Sarah took her son Yitzchak and he abode all that night with her, and she kissed and embraced him, and gave him instructions till morning.

9 And she said to him, O my son, how can my being separate itself from you? And she still kissed him and embraced him, and she gave Avraham instructions concerning him.

10 And Sarah said to Avraham, O my master, I pray you take heed of your son, and place your eyes over him, for I have no other son nor daughter but him.

11 O forsake him not. If he be hungry give him bread, and if he be thirsty give him mayim to drink; do not let him go on foot, neither let him sit in the sun.

12 Neither let him go by himself in the road, neither force him from whatever he may desire, but do to him as he may say to you.

13 And Sarah wept bitterly the whole night on account of Yitzchak, and she gave him instructions until morning.

14 And in the morning Sarah selected a very fine and beautiful garment from those garments that she had in the house that Avimelech had given to her.

15 And she dressed Yitzchak her son with it, and she put a turban upon his head, and she enclosed a precious stone in the top of the turban, and she gave them provision for the road, and they went forth, and Yitzchak went with his abba Avraham, and some of their servants accompanied them to see them off the road.

16 And Sarah went out with them, and she accompanied them upon the road to see them off, and they said to her, Return to the tent.

17 And when Sarah heard the words of her son Yitzchak she wept bitterly, and Avraham her husband wept with her, and their son wept with them a great weeping; also those who went with them wept greatly.

18 And Sarah caught hold of her son Yitzchak, and she held him in her arms, and she embraced him and continued to weep with him, and Sarah said, Who knows if after this day I shall ever see you again?

19 And they still wept together, Avraham, Sarah and Yitzchak, and all those that accompanied them on the road wept with them, and Sarah afterward turned away from her son, weeping bitterly, and all her men servants and maid servants returned with her to the tent.

20 And Avraham went with Yitzchak his son to bring him up as an offering before אֱלֹהִים, as He had commanded him.

21 And Avraham took two of his young men with him, Yishmael the son of Chagar and Eliezer his servant, and they went together with them, and while they were walking in the road the young men spoke these words to themselves, 22 And Yishmael said to Eliezer, Now my abba Avraham is going with Yitzchak to bring him up for a burnt offering to אֱלֹהִים, as He commanded him.

23 Now when he returns he will give to me all that he possesses, to inherit after him, for I am his bechor.

24 And Eliezer answered Yishmael and said, Surely Avraham did cast you away with your ema, and swear that you should not inherit anything of all he possesses, and to whom will he give all that he has, with all his treasures, but to me his servant, who has been faithful in his house, who has served him night and day, and has done all that he desired from me? To me will he bequeath at his death all that he possesses.

25 And while Avraham was proceeding with his son Yitzchak along the road, s.a.tan came and appeared to Avraham in the figure of a very aged man, humble and of contrite ruach, and he approached Avraham and said to him, Are you silly or brutish, that you go to do this thing this day to your only son?

26 For אֱלֹהִים gave you a son in your latter-days, in your old age, and will you go and slaughter him this day because he committed no violence, and will you cause the being of your only son to perish from the earth?

27 Do you not know and understand that this thing cannot be from אֱלֹהִים? For אֱלֹהִים cannot do to man such evil upon earth to say to him, Go slaughter your child.

28 And Avraham heard this and knew that it was the word of s.a.tan who endeavored to draw him aside from the halacha of אֱלֹהִים, but Avraham would not listen to the voice of s.a.tan, and Avraham rebuked him so that he went away.

29 And s.a.tan returned and came to Yitzchak; and he appeared to Yitzchak in the figure of a young man comely and well favored.

30 And he approached Yitzchak and said to him, Do you not know and understand that your old silly abba brings you to the slaughter this day for nothing?

31 Now therefore, my son, do not listen nor attend to him, for he is a silly old man, and let not your precious being and beautiful figure be lost from the earth.

32 And Yitzchak heard this, and said to Avraham, Have you heard, my abba, that which this man has spoken? Even this has he spoken.

33 And Avraham answered his son Yitzchak and said to him, Take heed of him and do not listen to his words, nor attend to him, for he is s.a.tan, endeavoring to draw us aside this day from the mitvoth of אִתְּךָ.

34 And Avraham still rebuked s.a.tan, and s.a.tan went from them, and seeing he could not prevail over them he hid himself from them, and he went and passed before them in the road; and he transformed himself into a large brook of mayim in the road, and Avraham and Yitzchak and his two young men reached that place, and they saw a brook large and powerful as the mighty mayim.

35 And they entered the brook and passed through it, and the mayim at first reached their legs.

36 And they went deeper in the brook and the mayim reached up to their necks, and they were all terrified on account of the mayim; and while they were going over the brook Avraham recognized that place, and he knew that there was no mayim there before.

37 And Avraham said to his son Yitzchak, I know this place in which there was no brook nor mayim, now therefore it is this s.a.tan who does all this to us, to draw us aside this day from the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים.

38 And Avraham rebuked him and said to him, אֱלֹהִים rebuke you, O s.a.tan, be gone from us, for we go by the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים.

39 And s.a.tan was terrified at the voice of Avraham, and he went away from them, and the place again became dry land as it was at first.

40 And Avraham went with Yitzchak toward the place that אֱלֹהִים had told him.

41 And on the third day Avraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place at a distance that אֱלֹהִים had told him of.

42 And a pillar of fire appeared to him that reached from the earth to the shamayim, and a cloud of shecinah upon the mountain, and the shecinah of אֱלֹהִים was seen in the cloud.

43 And Avraham said to Yitzchak, My son, do you see in that mountain, which we perceive at a distance, that which I see upon it?

44 And Yitzchak answered and said to his abba, I see and behold a pillar of fire and a cloud, and the shecinah of אֱלֹהִים is seen upon the cloud.

45 And Avraham knew that his son Yitzchak was accepted before אֱלֹהִים for a burnt offering.

46 And Avraham said to Eliezer and to Yishmael his son, Do you also see that which we see upon the mountain that is at a distance?

47 And they answered and said, We see nothing more than like the other mountains of the earth. And Avraham knew that they were not accepted before אֱלֹהִים to go with them, and Avraham said to them, Abide here with the donkey while I and Yitzchak my son will go to yonder mount and worship there before אֱלֹהִים and then return to you.

48 And Eliezer and Yishmael remained in that place, as Avraham had commanded.

49 And Avraham took wood for a burnt offering and placed it upon his son Yitzchak, and he took the fire and the knife, and they both went to that place.

50 And when they were going along Yitzchak said to his abba, Behold, I see here the fire and wood, and where then is the lamb that is to be the burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים?

51 And Avraham answered his son Yitzchak, saying; אֱלֹהִים has made choice of you my son, to be a perfect burnt offering instead of the lamb.

52 And Yitzchak said to his abba, I will do all that אֱלֹהִים spoke to you with joy and cheerfulness of heart.

53 And Avraham again said to Yitzchak his son, Is there in your heart any thought or counsel concerning this, which is not proper? Tell me my son, I beg you, O my son conceal it not from me.

54 And Yitzchak answered his abba Avraham and said to him, O my abba, as אֱלֹהִים lives and as your being lives, there is nothing in my heart to cause me to deviate either to the right or to the left from the word that he has spoken to you.

55 Neither limb nor muscle has moved or stirred at this, nor is there in my heart any thought or evil counsel concerning this.

56 But I am of joyful and cheerful heart in this matter, and I say, Blessed is אֱלֹהִים who has this day chosen me to be a burnt offering before Him.

57 And Avraham greatly rejoiced at the words of Yitzchak, and they went on and came together to that place that אֱלֹהִים had spoken of.

58 And Avraham approached to build the altar in that place, and Avraham was weeping, and Yitzchak took stones and mortar until they had finished building the altar.

59 And Avraham took the wood and placed it in order upon the altar that he had built.

60 And he took his son Yitzchak and bound him in order to place him upon the wood that was upon the altar, to slay him for a burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים.

61 And Yitzchak said to his abba, Bind me securely and then place me upon the altar lest I should turn and move, and break loose from the force of the knife upon my flesh and of it profane the burnt offering; and Avraham did so.

62 And Yitzchak still said to his abba, O my abba, when you shall have slain me and burnt me for an offering, take with you that which shall remain of my ashes to bring to Sarah my ema, and say to her, This is the sweet smelling savor of Yitzchak; but do not tell her this if she should sit near a well or upon any high place, lest she should cast her being after me and die.

63 And Avraham heard the words of Yitzchak, and he lifted up his voice and wept when Yitzchak spoke these words; and Avraham's tears gushed down upon Yitzchak his son, and Yitzchak wept bitterly, and he said to his abba, Hurry, O my abba, and do with me the will of אֱלֹהִים our אֱלֹהִים as He has commanded you.

64 And the hearts of Avraham and Yitzchak rejoiced at this thing that אֱלֹהִים had commanded them; but the eye wept bitterly while the heart rejoiced.

65 And Avraham bound his son Yitzchak, and placed him on the altar upon the wood, and Yitzchak stretched forth his neck upon the altar before his abba, and Avraham stretched forth his hand to take the knife to slay his son as a burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים.

66 At that time the malachim of chesed came before אֱלֹהִים and spoke to Him concerning Yitzchak, saying,

67 O אֱלֹהִים, you are a merciful and compassionate Melech over all that You have created in the shamayim and in earth, and you support them all; give therefore ransom and redemption instead of your servant Yitzchak, and pity and have rachamim upon Avraham and Yitzchak his son, who are this day performing your commands.

68 Have you seen, O אֱלֹהִים, how Yitzchak the son of Avraham your servant is bound down to the slaughter like an animal? Now therefore let your pity be roused for them, O אֱלֹהִים.

69 At that time אֱלֹהִים appeared to Avraham, and called to him, from the shamayim, and said to him, Lay not your hand upon the lad, neither do anything to him; for now I know that you fear אֱלֹהִים in performing this act, and in not withholding your son, your only son, from Me.

70 And Avraham lifted up his eyes and saw, and behold, a ram was caught in a thicket by his horns; that was the ram which אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim had created in the earth in the day that He made earth and the shamayim.

71 For אֱלֹהִים had prepared this ram from that day, to be a burnt offering instead of Yitzchak.

72 And this ram was advancing to Avraham when s.a.tan caught hold of him and entangled his horns in the thicket, that he might not advance to Avraham, in order that Avraham might slay his son.

73 And Avraham, seeing the ram advancing to him and s.a.tan withholding him, fetched him and brought him before the altar, and he loosened his son Yitzchak from his binding, and he put the ram in his stead, and Avraham killed the ram upon the altar, and brought it up as an offering in the place of his son Yitzchak.

74 And Avraham sprinkled some of the blood of the ram upon the altar, and he exclaimed and said, This is in the place of my son, and may this be considered this day as the blood of my son before אֱלֹהִים.

75 And all that Avraham did on this occasion by the altar, he would exclaim and say, This is in the place of my son, and may it this day be considered before אֱלֹהִים in the place of my son; and Avraham finished the whole of the service by the altar, and the service was accepted before אֱלֹהִים, and was counted as if it had been Yitzchak; and אֱלֹהִים blessed Avraham and his zera on that day.

76 And s.a.tan went to Sarah, and he appeared to her in the figure of an old man very humble and meek, and Avraham was yet engaged in the burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים.

77 And he said to her, Do you not know all the work that Avraham has made with your only son this day? For he took Yitzchak and built an altar, and killed him, and brought him up as a sacrifice upon the altar, and Yitzchak cried and wept before his abba, but he looked not at him, neither did he have rachamim over him.

78 And s.a.tan repeated these words, and he went away from her, and Sarah heard all the words of s.a.tan, and she imagined him to be an old man from among the sons of men who had been with her son, and had come and told her these things.

79 And Sarah lifted up her voice and wept and cried out bitterly on account of her son; and she threw herself upon the ground and she cast dust upon her head, and she said, O my son, Yitzchak my son, O that I had this day died instead of you. And she continued to weep and said, It grieves me for you, O my son, my son Yitzchak, O that I had died this day in your stead.

80 And she still continued to weep, and said, It grieves me for you after that I have reared you and have brought you up; now my joy is turned into mourning over you, I that had a longing for you, and cried and prayed to אלהים till I bare you at ninety years old; and now have you served this day for the knife and the fire, to be made an offering.

81 But I console myself with you, my son, in its being the word of אלהים, for you did perform the mitzvah of your אלהים; for who can transgress the word of our אלהים, in whose hands is the being of every living creature?

82 You are just, O אלהים our אלהים, for all your works are tov and tzadik; for I also rejoice at your word, which you did command, and while my eye weeps bitterly my heart rejoices.

83 And Sarah laid her head upon the bosom of one of her handmaids, and she became as still as a stone.

84 She afterward rose up and went about making inquiries until she came to Hevron, and she inquired of all those whom she met walking in the road, and no one could tell her what had happened to her son.

85 And she came with her maid servants and men servants to Kiryath-Arba, which is Hevron, and she asked concerning her son, and she remained there while she sent some of her servants to seek where Avraham had gone with Yitzchak; they went to seek him in the house of Shem and Ever, and they could not find him, and they sought throughout the land and he was not there.

86 And behold, s.a.tan came to Sarah in the shape of an old man, and he came and stood before her, and he said to her, I spoke falsely to you, for Avraham did not kill his son and he is not dead; and when she heard the word her joy was so exceedingly violent on account of her son, that her being went out through joy; she died and was gathered to her people.

87 And when Avraham had finished his service he returned with his son Yitzchak to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beersheva, and they came home.

88 And Avraham sought for Sarah, and could not find her, and he made inquiries concerning her, and they said to him, She went as far as Hevron to seek you both where you had gone, for this was she informed.

89 And Avraham and Yitzchak went to her to Hevron, and when they found that she was dead they lifted up their voices and wept bitterly over her; and Yitzchak fell upon his ema's face and wept over her, and he said, O my ema, my ema, how have you left me, and where have you gone? O how, how have you left me!

90 And Avraham and Yitzchak wept greatly and all their servants wept with them on account of Sarah, and they mourned over her a great and heavy mourning.

24 And the life of Sarah was one hundred and twenty-seven years, and Sarah died; and Avraham rose up from before his dead to seek a burial place to bury his wife Sarah; and he went and spoke to the children of Cheth, the inhabitants of the land, saying,

2 I am a stranger and a sojourner with you in your land; give me a possession of a burial place in your land, that I may bury my dead from before me.

3 And the children of Cheth said to Avraham, behold the land is before you; in the choice of our sepulchers bury your dead, for no man shall withhold you from burying your dead.

4 And Avraham said to them, If you are agreeable to this go and entreat for me to Ephron, the son of Zochar, requesting that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which is in the end of his field, and I will purchase it from him for whatever he desires for it.

5 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Cheth, and they went and called for him, and he came before Avraham, and Ephron said to Avraham, Behold all you require your servant will do; and Avraham said, No, but I will buy the cave and the field which you have for value, in order that it may be for a possession of a burial place for ever.

6 And Ephron answered and said, Behold the field and the cave are before you, give whatever you desire; and Avraham said, Only at full value will I buy it from your hand, and from the hands of those that go in at the gate of your city, and from the hand of your zera le-olam-va-ed.

7 And Ephron and all his brothers heard this, and Avraham weighed to Ephron four hundred shekels of silver in the hands of Ephron and in the hands of all his brothers; and Avraham wrote this transaction, and he wrote it and testified it with four witnesses.

8 And these are the names of the witnesses, Amigal son of Avishna the Hittite, Adichorom son of Ashunach the Hivite, Avdon son of Achiram the Gomerite, Bakdil the son of Avudish the Zidonite.

9 And Avraham took the scroll of the purchase, and placed it in his treasures; and these are the words that Avraham wrote in the scroll, namely:

10 That the cave and the field Avraham bought from Ephron the Hittite, and from his zera, and from those that go out of his city, and from their zera le-olam-va-ed, are to be a purchase to Avraham and to his zera and to those that go forth from his loins, for a possession of a burial place le-olam-va-ed; and he put a signet to it and testified it with witnesses.

11 And the field and the cave that was in it and all that place were made secure to Avraham and to his zera after him, from the children of Cheth; behold it is before Mamre in Hevron, which is in the land of Kanaan.

12 And after this, Avraham buried his wife Sarah there, and that place and its entire boundary became to Avraham and to his zera for a possession of a burial place.

13 And Avraham buried Sarah with pomp as observed at the interment of melechim, and she was buried in very fine and beautiful garments.

14 And at her bier was Shem, his sons Ever and Avimelech, together with Anar, Ashcol and Mamre, and all the nobles of the land followed her bier.

15 And the days of Sarah were one hundred and twenty-seven years and she died, and Avraham made a great and heavy mourning, and he performed the rites of mourning for seven days.

16 And all the inhabitants of the land comforted Avraham and Yitzchak his son on account of Sarah.

17 And when the days of their mourning were over, Avraham sent away his son Yitzchak, and he went to the house of Shem and Ever, to learn the halachot of אִרְאֵל and his Torot, and Avraham remained there three years.

18 At that time Avraham rose up with all his servants, and they went and returned homeward to Beersheva, and Avraham and all his servants remained in Beersheva.

19 And at the turn of the year Avimelech melech of the Philistines died in that year; he was one hundred and ninety-three years old at his death; and Avraham went with his people to the land of the Philistines, and they comforted the whole household and all his servants, and he then turned and went home.

20 And it was after the death of Avimelech that the people of Gerar took Benmalich his son, and he was only twelve years old, and they made him stay in the place of his abba.

21 And they called his name Avimelech after the name of his abba, for this was their custom to do in Gerar, and Avimelech reigned instead of Avimelech his abba, and he sat upon his throne.

22 And Lot the son of Charan also died in those days, in the thirty-ninth year of the life of Yitzchak, and all the days that Lot lived were one hundred and forty years and he died.

23 And these are the children of Lot that were born to him by his daughters, the name of the bechor was Moav, and the name of the second was Ben-Ami.

24 And the two sons of Lot went and took themselves wives from the land of Kanaan, and they bare children to them, and the children of Moav were Ed, Mayon, Tarsus, and Kanvil, four sons, these are ahvot to the children of Moav to this day.

25 And all the families of the children of Lot went to dwell wherever they did go, for they were fruitful and increased abundantly.

26 And they went and built themselves cities in the land where they dwelt, and they called the names of the cities that they built after their own names.

27 And Nachor the son of Terah, brother to Avraham, died in those days in the fortieth year of the life of Yitzchak, and all the days of Nachor were one hundred and seventy-two years and he died and was buried in Charan.

28 And when Avraham heard that his brother was dead he grieved sadly, and he mourned over his brother many days.

29 And Avraham called for Eliezer his head servant, to give him orders concerning his house, and he came and stood before him.

30 And Avraham said to him, Behold I am old, I do not know the day of my death; for I am advanced in days; now therefore rise up, go forth and do not take a wife for my son from this place and from this land, from the daughters of the Kannaim among whom we dwell.

31 But go to my land and to my birthplace, and take from there a wife for my son, and אלהים Ahlohim of ha shamayim and earth who took me from my abba's house and brought me to this place, and said to me, To your zera will I give this land for an inheritance le-olam-va-ed, He will send His malach before you and prosper your way, that you may obtain a wife for my son from my family and from my abba's house.

32 And the servant answered his master Avraham and said, Behold I go to your birthplace and to your abba's house, and take a wife for your son from there; but if the woman be not willing to follow me to this land, shall I take your son back to the land of your birthplace?

33 And Avraham said to him, Take heed that you bring not my son here again, for אלהים before whom I have had my halacha, He will send His malach before you and prosper your way.

34 And Eliezer did as Avraham ordered him, and Eliezer swore to Avraham his master upon this matter; and Eliezer rose up and took ten camels of the camels of his master, and ten men from his master's servants with him, and they rose up and went to Charan, the city of Avraham and Nachor, in order to fetch a wife for Yitzchak the son of Avraham; and while they were gone Avraham sent to the house of Shem and Ever, and they brought from there his son Yitzchak.

35 And Yitzchak came home to his abba's house to Beersheva, while Eliezer and his men came to Charan; and they stopped in the city by the watering place, and he made his camels to kneel down by the mayim and they remained there.

36 And Eliezer, Avraham's servant, prayed and said, O אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם of Avraham my master; send me I beg you tov speed this day and show chesed to my master, that you shall appoint this day a wife for my master's son from his family.

37 And אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם hearkened to the voice of Eliezer, for the sake of his servant Avraham, and he happened to meet with the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, the wife of Nachor, brother to Avraham, and Eliezer came to her house.

38 And Eliezer related to them all his concerns, and that he was Avraham's servant, and they greatly rejoiced at him.

39 And they all blessed אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם who brought this thing about, and they gave him Rivkah, the daughter of Bethuel, for a wife for Yitzchak.

40 And the young woman was of very comely appearance, she was a virgin, and Rivkah was ten years old in those days.

41 And Bethuel and Lavan and his children made a feast on that night, and Eliezer and his men came and ate and drank and rejoiced there on that night.

42 And Eliezer rose up in the morning, he and the men that were with him, and he called to the whole household of Bethuel, saying, Send me away that I may go to my master; and they rose up and sent away Rivkah and her nurse Devorah, the daughter of Uz, and they gave her silver and gold, men servants and maid servants, and they blessed her.

43 And they sent Eliezer away with his men; and the servants took Rivkah, and he went and returned to his master to the land of Kanaan.

44 And Yitzchak took Rivkah and she became his wife, and he brought her into the tent.

45 And Yitzchak was forty years old when he took Rivkah, the daughter of his uncle Bethuel, for a wife.

25 And it was at that time that Avraham again took a wife in his old age, and her name was Keturah, from the land of Kanaan.

2 And she bare to him Zimran, Yokshan, Medan, Midiyan, Ishbak and Shuach, being six sons. And the children of Zimran were Avihen, Molich and Narim.

3 And the sons of Yokshan were Sheba and Dedan, and the sons of Medan were Amida, Yoab, Gochi, Elisha and Nothach; and the sons of Midiyan were Ephah, Ephher, Chanoch, Avida and Eldaah.

4 And the sons of Ishbak were Makiro, Beyodua and Tator.

5 And the sons of Shuach were Bildad, Mamdad, Munan and Mevan; all these are the families of the children of Keturah the Canaanitish woman that she bare to Avraham the Ivri.

6 And Avraham sent all these away, and he gave them gifts, and they went away from his son Yitzchak to dwell wherever they should find a place.

7 And all these went to the mountain at the east, and they built themselves six cities in which they dwelt to this day.

8 But the children of Sheva and Dedan, children of Yokshan, with their children, did not dwell with their brothers in their cities, and they journeyed and encamped in the countries and wildernesses to this day.

9 And the children of Midiyan, son of Avraham, went to the east of the land of Cush, and they there found a large valley in the eastern country, and they remained there and built a city, and they dwelt therein, that is the land of Midiyan to this day.

10 And Midiyan dwelt in the city that he built, he and his five sons and all belonging to him.

11 And these are the names of the sons of Midiyan according to their names in their cities, Ephah, Ephher, Chanoch, Avida and Eldaah.

12 And the sons of Ephah were Methach, Meshar, Avi and Tzanua, and the sons of Ephher were Ephron, Zur, Alirun and Medin, and the sons of Chanoch were Reuel, Rekem, Azi, Alyoshuv and Alad.

13 And the sons of Avida were Chur, Melud, Kerury, Molchi; and the sons of Eldaah were Miker, and Reva, and Malchiyah and Gavol; these are the names of the Midyanites according to their families; and afterward the families of Midiyan spread throughout the land of Midiyan.

14 And these are the generations of Yishmael the son Avraham, whom Chagar, Sarah's handmaid, bare to Avraham.

15 And Yishmael took a wife from the land of Mitzrayim, and her name was Rivah, the same is Merivah.

16 And Rivah bare to Yishmael Nevayoth, Kedar, Adveel, Mivsam and their sister Bosmath.

17 And Yishmael cast away his wife Rivah, and she went from him and returned to Mitzrayim to the house of her abba, and she dwelt there, for she had been very bad in the sight of Yishmael, and in the sight of his abba Avraham.

18 And Yishmael afterward took a wife from the land of Kanaan, and her name was Malchuth, and she bare to him Nishma, Dumah, Masa, Chadad, Tema, Yetur, Naphish and Kedma.

19 These are the sons of Yishmael, and these are their names, being twelve princes according to their nations; and the families of Yishmael afterward spread forth, and Yishmael took his children and all the property that he had gained, together with the beings of his household and all belonging to him, and they went to dwell where they should find a place.

20 And they went and dwelt near the wilderness of Paran, and their dwelling was from Havilah to Shur, that is before Mitzrayim as you come toward Ahshur.

21 And Yishmael and his sons dwelt in the land, and they had children born to them, and they were fruitful and increased abundantly.

22 And these are the names of the sons of Nevayoth the bechor of Yishmael; Mend, Send, Mayon; and the sons of Kedar were Alyon, Kezem, Chamad and Eli.

23 And the sons of Adveel were Chamad and Yavin; and the sons of Mivsam were Ovadyah, Evedmelech and Yeush; these are the families of the children of Rivah the wife of Yishmael.

24 And the sons of Mishma the son of Yishmael were Shamua, Zecaryon and Oved; and the sons of Dumah were Kezed, Eli, Machmad and Amed.

25 And the sons of Masa were Melon, Mula and Evidadon; and the sons of Chadad were Azur, Minzar and Ebedmelech; and the sons of Tema were Seir, Sadon and Yakol.

26 And the sons of Yetur were Merith, Yaish, Alyo, and Pachoth; and the sons of Naphish were Eved-Tamed, Aviyasaph and Mir; and the sons of Kedma were Calip, Tachtu, and Omir; these were the children of Malchuth the wife of Yishmael according to their families.

27 All these are the families of Yishmael according to their generations, and they dwelt in those lands wherein they had built themselves cities to this day.

28 And Rivkah the daughter of Bethuel, the wife of Avraham's son Yitzchak, was barren in those days, she had no offspring; and Yitzchak dwelt with his abba in the land of Kanaan; and אַרְפַּכְשָׁד was with Yitzchak; and Arpachshad the son of Shem the son of Noach died in those days, in the forty-eighth year of the life of Yitzchak, and all the days that Arpachshad lived were four hundred and thirty-eight years, and he died.

26 And in the fifty-ninth year of the life of Yitzchak the son of Avraham, Rivkah his wife was still barren in those days.

2 And Rivkah said to Yitzchak, Truly I have heard, my master, that your ema Sarah was barren in her days until my master Avraham, your abba, prayed for her and she conceived by him.

3 Now therefore stand up, pray you also to אֱלֹהֵינוּ and He will hear your prayer and remember us through his mercies.

4 And Yitzchak answered his wife Rivkah, saying, Avraham has already prayed for me to אֱלֹהֵינוּ to multiply his zera, now therefore this barrenness must proceed to us from you.

5 And Rivkah said to him, But arise now you also and pray, that אֱלֹהֵינוּ may hear your prayer and grant me children, and Yitzchak hearkened to the words of his wife, and Yitzchak and his wife rose up and went to the land of Moriyah to pray there and to seek אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and when they had reached that place Yitzchak stood up and prayed to אֱלֹהֵינוּ on account of his wife because she was barren.

6 And Yitzchak said, O אלהים Ahlohim of the shamayim and earth, whose goodness and mercies fill the earth, you who did take my abba from his abba's house and from his birthplace, and did bring him to this land, and did say to him, To your zera will I give the land, and you did promise him and did declare to him, I will multiply your zera as the stars of the shamayim and as the sand of the sea, now may your words be verified which you did speak to my abba.

7 For you are אלהים our אלהים, our eyes are toward you to give us zera of men, as you did promise us, for you are אלהים our אלהים and our eyes are directed toward you only.

8 And אלהים heard the prayer of Yitzchak the son of Avraham, and אלהים was entreated of him and Rivkah his wife conceived.

9 And in about seven months after the children struggled together within her, and it pained her greatly that she was wearied on account of them, and she said to all the women who were then in the land, Did such a thing happen to you as it has to me? And they said to her, No.

10 And she said to them, Why am I alone in this among all the women that were upon earth? And she went to the land of Moriyah to seek אלהים on account of this; and she went to Shem and Ever his son to make inquiries of them in this matter, and that they should seek אלהים in this thing respecting her.

11 And she also asked Avraham to seek and inquire of אלהים about all that had befallen her.

12 And they all inquired of אלהים concerning this matter, and they brought her word from אלהים and told her, Two children are in your womb, and two nations shall rise from them; and one nation shall be stronger than the other, and the greater shall serve the younger.

13 And when her days to be delivered were completed, she knelt down, and behold there were twins in her womb, as אֱלֹהִים had spoken to her.

14 And the first one came out red all over like a hairy garment, and all the people of the land called his name Esav, saying, That this one was made complete from the womb.

15 And after that came his brother, and his hand took hold of Esav's heel, therefore they called his name Yaakov.

16 And Yitzchak, the son of Avraham, was sixty years old when he begat them.

17 And the boys grew up to their fifteenth year, and they came among the society of men. Esav was a designing and deceitful man, and an expert hunter in the field, and Yaakov was a man perfect and wise, dwelling in tents, feeding flocks and learning the Torot of אֱלֹהִים, and the commands of his abba and ema.

18 And Yitzchak and the children of his household dwelt with his abba Avraham in the land of Kanaan, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded them.

19 And Yishmael the son of Avraham went with his children and all belonging to them, and they returned there to the land of Havilah, and they dwelt there.

20 And all the children of Avraham's concubines went to dwell in the land of the east, for Avraham had sent them away from his son, and had given them presents, and they went away.

21 And Avraham gave all that he had to his son Yitzchak, and he also gave him all his treasures.

22 And he commanded him saying, Do you not know and understand אֱלֹהִים is אֱלֹהִים in the shamayim and in earth, and there is no other beside Him?

23 And it was He who took me from my abba's house, and from my birth place, and gave me all the delights upon earth; who delivered me from the counsel of the wicked, for in Him did I trust.

24 And He brought me to this place, and He delivered me from Ur Chasdim; and He said to me, To your zera will I give all these lands, and they shall inherit them when they keep my mitzvot, my chukim and my mishpatim that I have commanded you, and which I shall command them.

25 Now therefore my son, listen to my voice, and keep the mitzvot of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your אֱלֹהֶיךָ, which I commanded you, do not turn from the right halacha either to the right or to the left, in order that it may be well with you and your children after you le-olam-va-ed.

26 And remember the wonderful works of אֱלֹהֶיךָ, and His chesed that He has shown toward us, in having delivered us from the hands of our enemies, and אֱלֹהֶיךָ our אֱלֹהֶיךָ caused them to fall into our hands; and now therefore keep all that I have commanded you, and turn not away from the mitzvot of your אֱלֹהֶיךָ, and serve none beside Him, in order that it may be well with you and your zera after you.

27 And teach your children and your zera the Torot of אֱלֹהֶיךָ and His mitzvot, and teach them the upright halacha in which they should go, in order that it may be well with them le-olam-va-ed.

28 And Yitzchak answered his abba and said to him, That which my master has commanded that will I do, and I will not depart from the mitzvot of אֱלֹהֶיךָ my אֱלֹהֶיךָ, I will keep all that He commanded me; and Avraham blessed his son Yitzchak, and also his children; and Avraham taught Yaakov the Torah of אֱלֹהִים and His halachot.

29 And it was at that time that Avraham died, in the fifteenth year of the life of Yaakov and Esav, the sons of Yitzchak, and all the days of Avraham were one hundred and seventy-five years, and he died and was gathered to his people in tov old age, old and satisfied with days, and Yitzchak and Yishmael his sons buried him.

30 And when the inhabitants of Kanaan heard that Avraham was dead, they all came with their melechim and princes and all their men to bury Avraham.

31 And all the inhabitants of the land of Charan, and all the families of the house of Avraham, and all the princes and nobles, and the sons of Avraham by the concubines, all came when they heard of Avraham's death, and they repaid Avraham's chesed, and comforted Yitzchak his son, and they buried Avraham in the cave which he bought from Ephron the Hittite and his children, for the possession of a burial place.

32 And all the inhabitants of Kanaan, and all those who had known Avraham, wept for Avraham a whole year, and men and women mourned over him.

33 And all the little children, and all the inhabitants of the land wept on account of Avraham, for Avraham had been tov to them all, and because he had been upright with אֱלֹהִים and men.

34 And there arose not a man who feared אֱלֹהִים like Avraham, for he had feared His אֱלֹהִים from his youth, and had served אֱלֹהִים, and had gone in all His halachot during his life, from his childhood to the day of his death.

35 And אֱלֹהִים was with him and delivered him from the counsel of Nimrod and his people, and when he made war with the four melechim of Eylam he conquered them.

36 And he brought all the children of the earth to the service of אֱלֹהִים, and he taught them the halachot of אֱלֹהִים, and caused them to know אֱלֹהִים.

37 And he formed a grove and he planted a vineyard therein, and he had always prepared in his tent meat and drink to those that passed through the land, that they might satisfy themselves in his house.

38 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim delivered the whole earth on account of Avraham.

39 And it was after the death of Avraham that אֱלֹהִים blessed his son Yitzchak and his children, and אֱלֹהִים was with Yitzchak as he had been with his abba Avraham, for Yitzchak kept all the mitzvot of אֱלֹהִים as Avraham his abba had commanded him; he did not turn to the right or to the left from the right path which his abba had commanded him.

27 And Esav at that time, after the death of Avraham, frequently went in the field to hunt.

2 And Nimrod melech of Bavel, the same was Amraphel, also frequently went with his mighty men to hunt in the field, and to walk about with his men in the cool of the day.

3 And Nimrod was observing Esav all the days, for a jealousy was formed in the heart of Nimrod against Esav all the days.

4 And on a certain day Esav went in the field to hunt, and he found Nimrod walking in the wilderness with his two men.

5 And all his mighty men and his people were with him in the wilderness, but they removed at a distance from him, and they went from him in different directions to hunt, and Esav concealed himself from Nimrod, and he lurked for him in the wilderness.

6 And Nimrod and his men that were with him did not know him, and Nimrod and his men frequently walked about in the field at the cool of the day, and to know where his men were hunting in the field.

7 And Nimrod and two of his men that were with him came to the place where they were, when Esav started suddenly from his lurking place, and drew his sword, and hurried and ran to Nimrod and cut off his head.

8 And Esav fought a desperate fight with the two men that were with Nimrod, and when they called out to him, Esav turned to them and smote them to death with his sword.

9 And all the mighty men of Nimrod, who had left him to go to the wilderness, heard the cry at a distance, and they knew the voices of those two men, and they ran to know the cause of it, when they found their melech and the two men that were with him lying dead in the wilderness.

10 And when Esav saw the mighty men of Nimrod coming at a distance, he fled, and thereby escaped; and Esav took the valuable garments of Nimrod, which Nimrod's abba had bequeathed to Nimrod, and with which Nimrod prevailed over the whole land, and he ran and concealed them in his house.

11 And Esav took those garments and ran into the city on account of Nimrod's men, and he came to his abba's house wearied and exhausted from fight, and he was ready to die through grief when he approached his brother Yaakov and sat before him.

12 And he said to his brother Yaakov, Behold I shall die this day, and why then do I want the bechor?

And Yaakov acted wisely with Esav in this matter, and Esav sold his bechor to Yaakov, for it was so brought about by אף אף.

13 And Esav's portion in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Avraham had bought from the children of Cheth for the possession of a burial ground, Esav also sold to Yaakov, and Yaakov bought all this from his brother Esav for value given.

14 And Yaakov wrote the whole of this in a scroll, and he testified the same with witnesses, and he sealed it, and the scroll remained in the hands of Yaakov.

15 And when Nimrod the son of Cush died, his men lifted him up and brought him in consternation, and buried him in his city, and all the days that Nimrod lived were two hundred and fifteen years and he died.

16 And the days that Nimrod reigned upon the people of the land were one hundred and eighty-five years; and Nimrod died by the sword of Esav in shame and contempt, and the zera of Avraham caused his death as he had seen in his dream.

17 And at the death of Nimrod his malchut became divided into many divisions, and all those parts that Nimrod reigned over were restored to the respective melechim of the land, who recovered them after the death of Nimrod, and all the people of the house of Nimrod were for a long time enslaved to all the other melechim of the land.

28 And in those days, after the death of Avraham, in that year אָרְבָּבָב brought a heavy famine in the land, and while the famine was raging in the land of Kanaan, Yitzchak rose up to go down to Mitzrayim on account of the famine, as his abba Avraham had done.

2 And אָרְבָּבָב appeared that night to Yitzchak and he said to him, Do not go down to Mitzrayim but rise and go to Gerar, to Avimelech melech of the Philistines, and remain there until the famine shall cease.

3 And Yitzchak rose up and went to Gerar, as אַרְרָא commanded him, and he remained there a full year.

4 And when Yitzchak came to Gerar, the people of the land saw that Rivkah his wife was of a beautiful appearance, and the people of Gerar asked Yitzchak concerning his wife, and he said, She is my sister, for he was afraid to say she was his wife lest the people of the land should slay him on account of her.

5 And the princes of Avimelech went and praised the woman to the melech, but he answered them not, neither did he attend to their words.

6 But he heard them say that Yitzchak declared her to be his sister, so the melech reserved this within himself.

7 And when Yitzchak had remained three months in the land, Avimelech looked out at the window, and he saw, and behold Yitzchak was sporting with Rivkah his wife, for Yitzchak dwelt in the outer house belonging to the melech, so that the house of Yitzchak was opposite the house of the melech.

8 And the melech said to Yitzchak, What is this you have done to us in saying of your wife, She is my sister? How easily might one of the great men of the people have lain with her, and you would then have brought guilt upon us.

9 And Yitzchak said to Avimelech, Because I was afraid lest I die on account of my wife, therefore I said, She is my sister.

10 At that time Avimelech gave orders to all his princes and great men, and they took Yitzchak and Rivkah his wife and brought them before the melech.

11 And the melech commanded that they should dress them in princely garments, and make them ride through the streets of the city, and proclaim before them throughout the land, saying, This is the man and this is his wife; whoever touches this man or his wife shall surely die. And Yitzchak returned with his wife to the melech's house, and אֱלֹהִים was with Yitzchak and he continued to wax great and lacked nothing.

12 And אֱלֹהִים caused Yitzchak to find favor in the sight of Avimelech, and in the sight of all his subjects, and Avimelech acted well with Yitzchak, for Avimelech remembered the oath and the covenant that existed between his abba and Avraham.

13 And Avimelech said to Yitzchak, Behold the whole earth is before you; dwell wherever it may seem tov in your sight until you shall return to your land; and Avimelech gave Yitzchak fields and vineyards and the best part of the land of Gerar, to sow and reap and eat the fruits of the ground until the days of the famine should have passed by.

14 And Yitzchak sowed in that land, and received a hundred-fold in the same year, and אֱלֹהִים blessed him.

15 And the man waxed great, and he had possession of flocks and possession of herds and great store of servants.

16 And when the days of the famine had passed away אֱלֹהִים appeared to Yitzchak and said to him, Rise up, go forth from this place and return to your land, to the land of Kanaan; and Yitzchak rose up and returned to Hevron which is in the land of Kanaan, he and all belonging to him as אֱלֹהִים commanded him.

17 And after this Shelach the son of Arpachshad died in that year, which is the eighteenth year of the lives of Yaakov and Esav; and all the days that Shelach lived were four hundred and thirty-three years and he died.

18 At that time Yitzchak sent his younger son Yaakov to the house of Shem and Ever, and he learned the Torot of אַרְאֵל, and Yaakov remained in the house of Shem and Ever for thirty-two years, and Esav his brother did not go, for he was not willing to go, and he remained in his abba's house in the land of Kanaan.

19 And Esav was continually hunting in the fields to bring home what he could get, so did Esav all the days.

20 And Esav was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and lured them, and Esav was a valiant man in the field, and in the course of time went as usual to hunt; and he came as far as the field of Seir, the same is Edom.

21 And he remained in the land of Seir hunting in the field a year and four months.

22 And Esav there saw in the land of Seir the daughter of a man of Kanaan, and her name was Yehudite, the daughter of Beer, son of Ephraim, from the families of Cheth the son of Kanaan.

23 And Esav took her for a wife, and he came to her; forty years old was Esav when he took her, and he brought her to Hebron, the land of his abba's dwelling place, and he dwelt there.

24 And it came to pass in those days, in the hundred and tenth year of the life of Yitzchak, that is in the fiftieth year of the life of Yaakov, in that year died Shem the son of Noach; Shem was six hundred years old at his death.

25 And when Shem died Yaakov returned to his abba to Hebron, which is in the land of Kanaan.

26 And in the fifty-sixth year of the life of Yaakov, people came from Charan, and Rivkah was told concerning her brother Lavan the son of Bethuel.

27 For the wife of Lavan was barren in those days, and bare no children, and also all his handmaids bare none to him.

28 And אִרְבֵּנָי afterward remembered Adinah the wife of Lavan, and she conceived and bare twin daughters, and Lavan called the names of his daughters, the name of the zachena Leah, and the name of the younger Rachel.

29 And those people came and told these things to Rivkah, and Rivkah rejoiced greatly that אִרְבֵּנָי had visited her brother and that he had gotten children.

29 And Yitzchak the son of Avraham became old and advanced in days, and his eyes became heavy through age; they were dim and could not see.

2 At that time Yitzchak called to Esav his son, saying, Get I beg you your weapons, your quiver and your bow, rise up and go forth into the field and get me some venison, and make me tasty meat and bring it to me, that I may eat in order that I may bless you before my death, as I have now become old and gray-headed.

3 And Esav did so; and he took his weapon and went forth into the field to hunt for venison, as usual, to bring to his abba as he had ordered him, so that he might bless him.

4 And Rivkah heard all the words that Yitzchak had spoken to Esav, and she hurried and called her son Yaakov, saying, This did your abba speak to your brother Esav, and this did I hear, now therefore hurry and make that which I shall tell you.

5 Rise up and go, I beg you, to the flock and fetch me two fine kids of the goats, and I will get the tasty meat for your abba, and you shall bring the tasty meat that he may eat before your brother shall have come from the chase, in order that your abba may bless you.

6 And Yaakov hurried and did as his ema had commanded him, and he made the tasty meat and brought it before his abba before Esav had come from his chase.

7 And Yitzchak said to Yaakov, Who are you, my son? And he said, I am your bechor Esav, I have done as you did order me, now therefore rise up I ask you, and eat of my hunt, in order that your being may bless me as you did speak to me.

8 And Yitzchak rose up and he ate and he drank, and his heart was comforted, and he blessed Yaakov and Yaakov went away from his abba; and as soon as Yitzchak had blessed Yaakov and he had gone away from him, behold Esav came from his hunt from the field, and he also made tasty meat and brought it to his abba to eat of it and to bless him.

9 And Yitzchak said to Esav, And who was he that has taken venison and brought it me before you came and whom I did bless? And Esav knew that his brother Yaakov had done this, and the anger of Esav was kindled against his brother Yaakov that he had acted this way toward him.

10 And Esav said, Is he not rightly called Yaakov? For he has supplanted me twice, he took away my bechor and now he has taken away my blessing; and Esav wept greatly; and when Yitzchak heard the voice of his son Esav weeping, Yitzchak said to Esav, What can I do, my son, your brother came with subtlety and took away your blessing; and Esav hated his brother Yaakov on account of the blessing that his abba had given him, and his anger was greatly roused against him.

11 And Yaakov was very much afraid of his brother Esav, and he rose up and fled to the house of Ever the son of Shem, and he concealed himself there on account of his brother, and Yaakov was sixty-three years old when he went forth from the land of Kanaan from Hevron, and Yaakov was concealed in Ever's house fourteen years on account of his brother Esav, and he there continued to learn the halachot of אִרְאֵל and His mitzvot.

12 And when Esav saw that Yaakov had fled and escaped from him, and that Yaakov had cunningly obtained the blessing, then Esav grieved exceedingly, and he was also vexed at his abba and ema; and he also rose up and took his wife and went away from his abba and ema to the land of Seir, and he dwelt there; and Esav saw there a woman from among the daughters of Cheth whose name was Bosmath, the daughter of Eylon the Hittite, and he took her for a wife in addition to his first wife, and Esav called her name Adah, saying the blessing had in that time passed from him.

13 And Esav dwelt in the land of Seir six months without seeing his abba and ema, and afterward Esav took his wives and rose up and returned to the land of Kanaan, and Esav placed his two wives in his abba's house in Hevron.

14 And the wives of Esav vexed and provoked Yitzchak and Rivkah with their works, for they walked not in the halachot of אִרְאֵל, but served their abba's ahlohim of wood and stone as their abba had taught them, and they were more wicked than their abba.

15 And they went according to the evil desires of their hearts, and they sacrificed and burnt incense to the Baalim, and Yitzchak and Rivkah became weary of them.

16 And Rivkah said, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Cheth; if Yaakov take a wife of the daughters of Cheth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what tov then is life to me?

17 And in those days Adah the wife of Esav conceived and bare him a son, and Esav called the name of the son that was born to him Eliphaz, and Esav was sixty-five years old when she bare him.

18 And Yishmael the son of Avraham died in those days, in the sixty-fourth year of the life of Yaakov, and all the days that Yishmael lived were one hundred and thirty-seven years and he died.

19 And when Yitzchak heard that Yishmael was dead he mourned for him, and Yitzchak lamented over him many days.

20 And at the end of fourteen years of Yaakov's residing in the house of Ever, Yaakov desired to see his abba and ema, and Yaakov came to the house of his abba and ema to Hevron, and Esav had in those days forgotten what Yaakov had done to him in having taken the blessing from him in those days.

21 And when Esav saw Yaakov coming to his abba and ema he remembered what Yaakov had done to him, and he was greatly incensed against him and he sought to slay him.

22 And Yitzchak the son of Avraham was old and advanced in days, and Esav said, Now my abba's time is drawing near that he must die, and when he shall die I will slay my brother Yaakov.

23 And this was told to Rivkah, and she hurried and sent and called for Yaakov her son, and she said to him, Arise, go and flee to Charan to my brother Lavan, and remain there for some time, until your brother's anger be turned from you and then shall you come back.

24 And Yitzchak called to Yaakov and said to him, Take not a wife from the daughters of Kanaan, for this did our abba Avraham command us according to the word of אלהים which He had commanded him, saying, Unto your zera will I give this land; if your children keep my covenant that I have made with you, then will I also perform to your children that which I have spoken to you and I will not forsake them.

25 Now therefore my son listen to my voice, to all that I shall command you, and refrain from taking a wife from among the daughters of Kanaan; arise, go to Charan to the house of Bethuel your ema's abba, and take to you a wife from there from the daughters of Lavan your ema's brother.

26 Therefore take heed lest you should forget אֱלֹהֵיךָ your אֱלֹהֵיךָ and all His halachot in the land to which you go, and should get connected with the people of the land and pursue vanity and forsake אֱלֹהֵיךָ your אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

27 But when you come to the land there serve אֱלֹהֵיךָ, do not turn to the right or to the left from the way which I commanded you and which you did learn.

28 And may the Almighty אֱלֹהֵיךָ grant you favor in the sight of the people of the earth, that you may take there a wife according to your choice; one who is tov and upright in the halachot of אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

29 And may אֱלֹהֵיךָ give to you and your zera the blessing of your abba Avraham, and make you fruitful and multiply you, and may you become a multitude of people in the land where you go, and may אֱלֹהֵיךָ cause you to return to this land, the land of your abba's dwelling, with children and with great riches, with joy and with pleasure.

30 And Yitzchak finished commanding Yaakov and blessing him, and he gave him many gifts, together with silver and gold, and he sent him away; and Yaakov hearkened to his abba and ema; he kissed them and arose and went to Padan-Aram; and Yaakov was seventy-seven years old when he went out from the land of Kanaan from Beersheva.

31 And when Yaakov went away to go to Charan, Esav called to his son Eliphaz, and secretly spoke to him, saying, Now hurry, take your sword in your hand and pursue Yaakov and pass before him in the road, and lurk for him, and slay him with your sword in one of the mountains, and take all belonging to him and come back.

32 And Eliphaz the son of Esav was an active man and expert with the bow as his abba had taught him, and he was a noted hunter in the field and a valiant man.

33 And Eliphaz did as his abba had commanded him, and Eliphaz was at that time thirteen years old, and Eliphaz rose up and went and took ten of his ema's brothers with him and pursued Yaakov.

34 And he closely followed Yaakov, and he lurked for him in the border of the land of Kanaan opposite to the city of Shechem.

35 And Yaakov saw Eliphaz and his men pursuing him, and Yaakov stood still in the place in which he was going, in order to know what this was, for he did not know the thing; and Eliphaz drew his sword and he went on advancing, he and his men, toward Yaakov; and Yaakov said to them, What is this to do with you that you have come here, and what means it that you pursue with your swords.

36 And Eliphaz came near to Yaakov and he answered and said to him, This did my abba command me, and now therefore I will not deviate from the orders which my abba gave me; and when Yaakov saw that Esav had spoken to Eliphaz to employ force, Yaakov then approached and supplicated Eliphaz and his men, saying to him, 37 Behold all that I have and which my abba and ema gave to me, that take to you and go from me, and do not slay me, and may this thing be accounted to you a tzedakah.

38 And אֱלִיפָאז caused Yaakov to find favor in the sight of Eliphaz the son of Esav, and his men, and they hearkened to the voice of Yaakov, and they did not put him to death, and Eliphaz and his men took all belonging to Yaakov together with the silver and gold that he had brought with him from Beersheva; they left him nothing.

39 And Eliphaz and his men went away from him and they returned to Esav to Beersheva, and they told him all that had occurred to them with Yaakov, and they gave him all that they had taken from Yaakov.

40 And Esav was indignant at Eliphaz his son, and at his men that were with him, because they had not put Yaakov to death.

41 And they answered and said to Esav, Because Yaakov supplicated us in this matter not to slay him, our pity was excited toward him, and we took all belonging to him and brought it to you; and Esav took all the silver and gold which Eliphaz had taken from Yaakov and he put them by in his house.

42 At that time when Esav saw that Yitzchak had blessed Yaakov, and had commanded him, saying, You shall not take a wife from among the daughters of Kanaan, and that the daughters of Kanaan were bad in the sight of Yitzchak and Rivkah, 43 Then he went to the house of Yishmael his uncle, and in addition to his older wives he took Machlath the daughter of Yishmael, the sister of Nevayoth, for a wife.

30 And Yaakov went forth continuing his road to Charan, and he came as far as mount Moriyah, and he tarried there all night near the city of Luz; and אֱלֹהִים appeared there to Yaakov on that night, and He said to him, I AM אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Avraham and the ארצו of Yitzchak your abba; the land upon which you liest I will give to you and your zera.

2 And behold I AM with you and will keep you wherever you go, and I will multiply your zera as the stars of ha shamayim, and I will cause all your enemies to fall before you; and when they shall make war with you they shall not prevail over you, and I will bring you again to this land with joy, with children, and with great riches.

3 And Yaakov awoke from his sleep and he rejoiced greatly at the vision that he had seen; and he called the name of that place Bethel.

4 And Yaakov rose up from that place quite rejoiced, and when he walked his feet felt light to him for joy, and he went from there to the land of the children of the East, and he returned to Charan and he sat by the shepherd's well.

5 And he there found some men; going from Charan to feed their flocks, and Yaakov made inquiries of them, and they said, We are from Charan.

6 And he said to them, Do you know Lavan, the son of Nachor? And they said, We know him, and behold his daughter Rachel is coming along to feed her abba's flock.

7 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel the daughter of Lavan came to feed her abba's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

8 And when Yaakov saw Rachel, the daughter of Lavan, his ema's brother, he ran and kissed her, and lifted up his voice and wept.

9 And Yaakov told Rachel that he was the son of Rivkah, her abba's sister, and Rachel ran and told her abba, and Yaakov continued to cry because he had nothing with him to bring to the house of Lavan.

10 And when Lavan heard that his sister's son Yaakov had come, he ran and kissed him and embraced him and brought him into the house and gave him bread, and he ate.

11 And Yaakov related to Lavan what his brother Esav had done to him, and what his son Eliphaz had done to him in the road.

12 And Yaakov resided in Lavan's house for one month, and Yaakov ate and drank in the house of Lavan, and afterward Lavan said to Yaakov, Tell me what shall be your wages, for how can you serve me for nothing?

13 And Lavan had no sons but only daughters, and his other wives and handmaids were still barren in those days; and these are the names of Lavan's daughters which his wife Adinah had borne to him; the name of the zachena was Leah and the name of the younger was Rachel; and Leah was tender-eyed, but Rachel was beautiful and well favored, and Yaakov loved her.

14 And Yaakov said to Lavan, I will serve you seven years for Rachel your younger daughter; and Lavan consented to this and Yaakov served Lavan seven years for his daughter Rachel.

15 And in the second year of Yaakov's dwelling in Charan, that is in the seventy ninth year of the life of Yaakov, in that year died Ever the son of Shem, he was four hundred and sixty-four years old at his death.

16 And when Yaakov heard that Ever was dead he grieved exceedingly, and he lamented and mourned over him many days.

17 And in the third year of Yaakov's dwelling in Charan, Bosmath, the daughter of Yishmael, the wife of Esav, bare to him a son, and Esav called his name Reuel.

18 And in the fourth year of Yaakov's residence in the house of Lavan, אַרְבָּעָה visited Lavan and remembered him on account of Yaakov, and sons were born to him, and his bechor was Beor, his second was Aliv, and the third was Chorash.

19 And אֵלִיָּאָב gave Lavan riches and honor, sons and daughters, and the man increased greatly on account of Yaakov.

20 And Yaakov in those days served Lavan in all manner of work, in the house and in the field, and the blessing of אֵלִיָּאָב was in all that belonged to Lavan in the house and in the field.

21 And in the fifth year died Yehudite, the daughter of Beeri, the wife of Esav, in the land of Kanaan, and she had no sons but daughters only.

22 And these are the names of her daughters that she bare to Esav, the name of the zachena was Marzith, and the name of the younger was Puith.

23 And when Yehudite died, Esav rose up and went to Seir to hunt in the field, as usual, and Esav dwelt in the land of Seir for a long time.

24 And in the sixth year Esav took for a wife, in addition to his other wives, Ahlivamah, the daughter of Zeveon the Hivite, and Esav brought her to the land of Kanaan.

25 And Ahlivamah conceived and bare to Esav three sons, Yeush, Yaalan, and Korah.

26 And in those days, in the land of Kanaan, there was a quarrel between the herdsmen of Esav and the herdsmen of the inhabitants of the land of Kanaan, for Esav's cattle and goods were too abundant for him to remain in the land of Kanaan, in his abba's house, and the land of Kanaan could not bear him on account of his cattle.

27 And when Esav saw that his quarreling increased with the inhabitants of the land of Kanaan, he rose up and took his wives and his sons and his daughters, and all belonging to him, and the cattle which he possessed, and all his property that he had acquired in the land of Kanaan, and he went away from the inhabitants of the land to the land of Seir, and Esav and all belonging to him dwelt in the land of Seir.

28 But from time to time Esav would go and see his abba and ema in the land of Kanaan, and Esav intermarried with the Horites, and he gave his daughters to the sons of Seir, the Horite.

29 And he gave his zachena daughter Marzith to Anah, the son of Zeveon, his wife's brother, and Puith he gave to Azar, the son of Bilhan the Horite; and Esav dwelt in the mountain, he and his children, and they were fruitful and multiplied.

31 And in the seventh year, Yaakov's service which he served Lavan was completed, and Yaakov said to Lavan, Give me my wife, for the days of my service are fulfilled; and Lavan did so, and Lavan and Yaakov assembled all the people of that place and they made a feast.

2 And in the evening Lavan came to the house, and afterward Yaakov came there with the people of the feast, and Lavan extinguished all the lights that were there in the house.

3 And Yaakov said to Lavan, Why do you do this thing to us? And Lavan answered, Such is our custom to act in this land.

4 And afterward Lavan took his daughter Leah, and he brought her to Yaakov, and he came to her and Yaakov did not know that she was Leah.

5 And Lavan gave his daughter Leah his maid Zilpah for a handmaid.

6 And all the people at the feast knew what Lavan had done to Yaakov, but they did not tell the thing to Yaakov.

7 And all the neighbors came that night to Yaakov's house, and they ate and drank and rejoiced, and played before Leah upon timbrels, and with dances, and they responded before Yaakov, He-Leah, He-Leah.

8 And Yaakov heard their words but did not understand their meaning, but he thought such might be their custom in this land.

9 And the neighbors spoke these words before Yaakov during the night, and all the lights that were in the house Lavan had that night extinguished.

10 And in the morning, when daylight appeared, Yaakov turned to his wife and he saw, and behold it was Leah that had been lying in his bosom, and Yaakov said, Behold now I know what the neighbors said last night, He-Leah, they said, and I knew it not.

11 And Yaakov called to Lavan, and said to him, What is this that you did to me? Surely I served you for Rachel, and why did you deceive me and did give me Leah?

12 And Lavan answered Yaakov, saying, Not so is it done in our place to give the younger before the zachena; now therefore if you desire to take her sister likewise, take her to you for the service which you will serve me for another seven years.

13 And Yaakov did so, and he also took Rachel for a wife, and he served Lavan seven years more, and Yaakov also came to Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Leah, and Lavan gave her his maid Bilhah for a handmaid.

14 And when רָחֵל saw that Leah was hated, רָחֵל opened her womb, and she conceived and bare Yaakov four sons in those days.

15 And these are their names, Reuven Shimeon, Levi, and Yahudah, and she afterward left bearing.

16 And at that time Rachel was barren, and she had no offspring, and Rachel envied her sister Leah, and when Rachel saw that she bare no children to Yaakov, she took her handmaid Bilhah, and she bare Yaakov two sons, Dan and Naphtali.

17 And when Leah saw that she had left bearing, she also took her handmaid Zilpah, and she gave her to Yaakov for a wife, and Yaakov also came to Zilpah, and she also bare Yaakov two sons, Gad and Asher.

18 And Leah again conceived and bare Yaakov in those days' two sons and one daughter, and these are their names, Yissacher, Zevulon, and their sister Dinah.

19 And Rachel was still barren in those days, and Rachel prayed to אלהים at that time, and she said, O אלהים Ahlohim remember me and visit me, I beseech you, for now my husband will cast me off, for I have borne him no children.

20 Now O אלהים אלהים, hear my supplication before you, and see my affliction, and give me children like one of the handmaids, that I may no more bear my reproach.

21 And אלהים heard her and opened her womb, and Rachel conceived and bare a son, and she said, אלהים has taken away my reproach, and she called his name Yoseph, saying, May אלהים add to me another son; and Yaakov was ninety-one years old when she bare him.

22 At that time Yaakov's ema, Rivkah, sent her nurse Devorah the daughter of Uz, and two of Yitzchak's servants to Yaakov.

23 And they came to Yaakov to Charan and they said to him, Rivkah has sent us to you that you shall return to your abba's house to the land of Kanaan; and Yaakov hearkened to them in this that his ema had spoken.

24 At that time, the other seven years which Yaakov served Lavan for Rachel were completed, and it was at the end of fourteen years that he had dwelt in Charan that Yaakov said to Lavan, give me my wives and send me away, that I may go to my land, for behold my ema did send to me from the land of Kanaan that I should return to my abba's house.

25 And Lavan said to him, Not so I beg you; if I have found favor in your sight do not leave me; appoint me your wages and I will give them, and remain with me.

26 And Yaakov said to him, This is what you shall give me for wages, that I shall this day pass through all your flock and take away from them every lamb that is speckled and spotted and such as are brown among the sheep, and among the goats, and if you will do this thing for me I will return and feed your flock and keep them as at first.

27 And Lavan did so, and Lavan removed from his flock all that Yaakov had said and gave them to him.

28 And Yaakov placed all that he had removed from Lavan's flock in the hands of his sons, and Yaakov was feeding the remainder of Lavan's flock.

29 And when the servants of Yitzchak that he had sent to Yaakov saw that Yaakov would not then return with them to the land of Kanaan to his abba, they then went away from him, and they returned home to the land of Kanaan.

30 And Devorah remained with Yaakov in Charan, and she did not return with the servants of Yitzchak to the land of Kanaan, and Devorah resided with Yaakov's wives and children in Charan.

31 And Yaakov served Lavan six years longer, and when the sheep brought forth, Yaakov removed from them such as were speckled and spotted, as he had determined with Lavan, and Yaakov did so at Lavan's for six years, and the man increased abundantly and he had cattle and maid servants and men servants, camels, and donkeys.

32 And Yaakov had two hundred drove of cattle, and his cattle were of large size and of beautiful appearance and were very productive, and all the families of the sons of men desired to get some of the cattle of Yaakov, for they were exceedingly prosperous.

33 And many of the sons of men came to procure some of Yaakov's flock, and Yaakov gave them a sheep for a man servant or a maid servant or for an donkey or a camel, or whatever Yaakov desired from them they gave him.

34 And Yaakov obtained riches and honor and possessions by means of these transactions with the sons of men, and the children of Lavan envied him because of this honor.

35 And in the course of time he heard the words of Lavan's sons, saying, Yaakov has taken away all that was our abba's, and of that which was our abba's has he acquired all this glory.

36 And Yaakov beheld the countenance of Lavan and of his children, and behold it was not toward him in those days as it had been before.

37 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to Yaakov at the expiration of the six years, and said to him, Arise, go forth out of this land, and return to the land of your birthplace and I will be with you.

38 And Yaakov rose up at that time and he mounted his children and wives and all belonging to him upon camels, and he went forth to go to the land of Kanaan to his abba Yitzchak.

39 And Lavan did not know that Yaakov had gone from him, for Lavan had been that day sheep shearing.

40 And Rachel stole her abba's images, and she took them and she concealed them upon the camel upon which she sat, and she went on.

41 And this is the manner of the images; in taking a man who is the first born and slaying him and taking the hair off his head, and taking salt and salting the head and anointing it in oil, then taking a small tablet of copper or a tablet of gold and writing the name upon it, and placing the tablet under his tongue, and taking the head with the tablet under the tongue and putting it in the house, and lighting up lights before it and bowing down to it.

42 And at the time when they bow down to it, it speaks to them in all matters that they ask of it, through the power of the name that is written in it.

43 And some make them in the figures of men, of gold and silver, and go to them in times known to them, and the figures receive the influence of the stars, and tell them future things, and in this manner were the images which Rachel stole from her abba.

44 And Rachel stole these images that were her abba's, in order that Lavan might not know through them where Yaakov had gone.

45 And Lavan came home and he asked concerning Yaakov and his household, and he was not to be found, and Lavan sought his images to know where Yaakov had gone, and could not find them, and he went to some other images, and he inquired of them and they told him that Yaakov had fled from him to his abba's, to the land of Kanaan.

46 And Lavan then rose up and he took his brothers and all his servants, and he went forth and pursued Yaakov, and he overtook him in mount Gilead.

47 And Lavan said to Yaakov, What is this you have done to me to flee and deceive me, and lead my daughters and their children as captives taken by the sword?

48 And you did not allow me to kiss them and send them away with joy, and you did steal my ahlohim and did go away.

49 And Yaakov answered Lavan, saying, Because I was afraid lest you would take your daughters by force from me; and now with whomsoever you find your ahlohim he shall die.

50 And Lavan searched for the images and he examined in all Yaakov's tents and furniture, but could not find them.

51 And Lavan said to Yaakov, We will make a covenant together and it shall be a testimony between me and you; if you shall afflict my daughters, or shall take other wives besides my daughters, even אִתְּךָ shall be a witness between me and you in this matter.

52 And they took stones and made a heap, and Lavan said, This heap is a witness between me and you, therefore he called the name of it Gilead.

53 And Yaakov and Lavan offered sacrifice upon the mount, and they ate there by the heap, and they tarried in the mount all night, and Lavan rose up early in the morning, and he wept with his daughters and he kissed them, and he returned to his place.

54 And he hurried and sent off his son Beor, who was seventeen years old, with Avichorof the son of Uz, the son of Nachor, and with them were ten men.

55 And they hurried and went and passed on the road before Yaakov, and they came by another road to the land of Seir.

56 And they came to Esav and said to him, This says your brother and relative, your ema's brother Lavan, the son of Bethuel, saying, 57 Have you heard what Yaakov your brother has done to me, who first came to me naked and bare, and I went to meet him, and brought him to my house with honor, and I made him great, and I gave him my two daughters for wives and also two of my maids.

58 And אִרְאֵל blessed him on my account, and he increased abundantly, and had sons, daughters and maidservants.

59 He has also an immense stock of flocks and herds, camels and donkeys, also silver and gold in abundance; and when he saw that his wealth increased, he left me while I went to shear my sheep, and he rose up and fled in secrecy.

60 And he lifted his wives and children upon camels, and he led away all his cattle and property which he acquired in my land, and he lifted up his countenance to go to his abba Yitzchak, to the land of Kanaan.

61 And he did not allow me to kiss my daughters and their children, and he led my daughters as captives taken by the sword, and he also stole my ahlohim and he fled.

62 And now I have left him in the mountain of the brook of Yavuk, him and all belonging to him; he lacks nothing.

63 If it be your wish to go to him, go then and there will you find him, and you can do to him as your being desires; and Lavan's messengers came and told Esav all these things.

64 And Esav heard all the words of Lavan's messengers, and his anger was greatly kindled against Yaakov, and he remembered his hatred, and his anger burned within him.

65 And Esav hurried and took his children and servants and the beings of his household, being sixty men, and he went and assembled all the children of Seir the Horite and their people, being three hundred and forty men, and took all this number of four hundred men with drawn swords, and he went to Yaakov to smite him.

66 And Esav divided this number into several parts, and he took the sixty men of his children and servants and the beings of his household as one head, and gave them in care of Eliphaz his eldest son.

67 And the remaining heads he gave to the care of the six sons of Seir the Horite, and he placed every man over his generations and children.

68 And the whole of this camp went as it was, and Esav went among them toward Yaakov, and he conducted them with speed.

69 And Lavan's messengers departed from Esav and went to the land of Kanaan, and they came to the house of Rivkah the ema of Yaakov and Esav.

70 And they told her saying, Behold your son Esav has gone against his brother Yaakov with four hundred men, for he heard that he was coming, and he is gone to make war with him, and to smite him and to take all that he has.

71 And Rivkah hurried and sent seventy-two men from the servants of Yitzchak to meet Yaakov on the road; for she said, Perhaps, Esav may make war in the road when he meets him.

72 And these messengers went on the road to meet Yaakov, and they met him in the road of the brook on the opposite side of the brook Yavuk, and Yaakov said when he saw them, This camp is destined to me from אַרְרַז, and Yaakov called the name of that place Machnayim.

73 And Yaakov knew all his abba's people, and he kissed them and embraced them and came with them, and Yaakov asked them concerning his abba and ema, and they said, They were well.

74 And these messengers said to Yaakov, Rivkah your ema has sent us to you, saying, I have heard, my son that your brother Esav has gone forth against you on the road with men from the children of Seir the Horite.

75 And therefore, my son, listen to my voice and see with your counsel what you will do, and when he comes up to you, supplicate him, and do not speak rashly to him, and give him a present from what you possess, and from what אֶפְרַיִם has favored you with.

76 And when he asks you concerning your affairs, conceal nothing from him, perhaps he may turn from his anger against you and you will thereby save your being, you and all belonging to you, for it is your duty to honor him, for he is your zachen brother.

77 And when Yaakov heard the words of his ema that the messengers had spoken to him, Yaakov lifted up his voice and wept bitterly, and did as his ema then commanded him.

32 And at that time Yaakov sent messengers to his brother Esav toward the land of Seir, and he spoke to him words of supplication.

2 And he commanded them, saying, This shall you say to my master, to Esav, This says your servant Yaakov, Let not my master imagine that my abba's blessing with which he did bless me has proved beneficial to me.

3 For I have been these twenty years with Lavan, and he deceived me and changed my wages ten times, as it has all been already told to my master.

4 And I served him in his house very laboriously, and אֶפְרַיִם afterward saw my affliction, my labor and the work of my hands, and He caused me to find rachamim and favor in his sight.

5 And I afterward through אֶפְרַיִם's great chesed and rachamim acquired oxen and donkeys and cattle, and men servants and maidservants.

6 And now I am coming to my land and my home to my abba and ema, who are in the land of Kanaan; and I have sent to let my master know all this in order to find favor in the sight of my master, so that he may not imagine that I have of myself obtained wealth, or that the blessing with which my abba blessed me has benefited me.

7 And those messengers went to Esav, and found him on the borders of the land of Edom going toward Yaakov, and four hundred men of the children of Seir the Horite were standing with drawn swords.

8 And the messengers of Yaakov told Esav all the words that Yaakov had spoken to them concerning Esav.

9 And Esav answered them with pride and contempt, and said to them, Surely I have heard and truly it has been told to me what Yaakov has done to Lavan, who exalted him in his house and gave him his daughters for wives, and he begat sons and daughters, and abundantly increased in wealth and riches in Lavan's house through his means.

10 And when he saw that his wealth was abundant and his riches great he fled with all belonging to him, from Lavan's house, and he led Lavan's daughters away from the face of their abba, as captives taken by the sword without telling him of it.

11 And not only to Lavan has Yaakov done this but also to me has he done so and has twice supplanted me, and shall I be silent?

12 Now therefore I have this day come with my camps to meet him, and I will do to him according to the desire of my heart.

13 And the messengers returned and came to Yaakov and said to him, We came to your brother, to Esav, and we told him all your words, and this has he answered us, and behold he comes to meet you with four hundred men.

14 Now then know and see what you shall do, and pray before אלהים to deliver you from him.

15 And when he heard the words of his brother that he had spoken to the messengers of Yaakov, Yaakov was greatly afraid and he was distressed.

16 And Yaakov prayed to אלהים his אלהים, and he said, O אלהים Ahlohim of my ahvot, Avraham and Yitzchak, you did say to me when I went away from my abba's house, saying,

17 I AM אלהים Ahlohim of your abba Avraham and the אלהים of Yitzchak, to you do I give this land and your zera after you, and I will make your zera as the stars of the shamayim, and you shall spread forth to the four sides of the shamayim, and in you and in your zera shall all the families of the earth be blessed-mixed.

18 And you did establish your words, and did give to me riches and children and cattle, as the utmost wishes of my heart did you give to your servant; you did give to me all that I asked from you, so that I lacked nothing.

19 And you did afterward say to me, Return to your parents and to your birthplace and I will still do well with you.

20 And now that I have come, and you did deliver me from Lavan, I shall fall in the hands of Esav who will slay me, yes, together with the mothers of my children.

21 Now therefore, O אלהים אלהים, deliver me, I pray you, also from the hands of my brother Esav, for I am greatly afraid of him.

22 And if there is no tzedakah in me, do it for the sake of Avraham and my abba Yitzchak.

23 For I know that through chesed and rachamim have I acquired this wealth; now therefore I beseech you to deliver me this day with your chesed and to answer me.

24 And Yaakov ceased praying to אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו, and he divided the people that were with him with the flocks and cattle into two camps, and he gave the half to the care of Dameshek, the son of Eliezer, Avraham's servant, for a camp, with his children, and the other half he gave to the care of his brother Eliaus the son of Eliezer, to be for a camp with his children.

25 And he commanded them, saying, Keep yourselves at a distance with your camps, and do not come too near each other, and if Esav come to one camp and slay it, the other camp at a distance from it will escape him.

26 And Yaakov tarried there that night, and during the whole night he gave his servants instructions concerning the forces and his children.

27 And אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו heard the prayer of Yaakov on that day, and אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו then delivered Yaakov from the hands of his brother Esav.

28 And אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו sent three malachim of the malachim of the shamayim, and they went before Esav and came to him.

29 And these malachim appeared to Esav and his people as two thousand men, riding upon horses furnished with all sorts of war instruments, and they appeared in the sight of Esav and all his men to be divided into four camps, with four chiefs to them.

30 And one camp went on and they found Esav coming with four hundred men toward his brother Yaakov, and this camp ran toward Esav and his people and terrified them, and Esav fell off the horse in alarm, and all his men separated from him in that place, for they were greatly afraid.

31 And the whole of the camp shouted after them when they fled from Esav, and all the warlike men answered, saying,

32 Surely we are the servants of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and who then can stand against us? And Esav said to them, O then, my master and brother Yaakov is your master, whom I have not seen for these twenty years, and now that I have this day come to see him, do you treat me in this manner?

33 And the malachim answered him saying, As אֱלֹהֵינוּ lives, were not Yaakov of whom you speak your brother, we had not left one remaining from you and your people, but only on account of Yaakov we will do nothing to them.

34 And this camp passed from Esav and his men and it went away, and Esav and his men had gone from them about a league when the second camp came toward him with all sorts of weapons, and they also did to Esav and his men as the first camp had done to them.

35 And when they had left it to go on, behold the third camp came toward him and they were all terrified, and Esav fell off the horse, and the whole camp cried out, and said, Surely we are the servants of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and who can stand against us?

36 And Esav again answered them saying, O then, Yaakov my master and your master is my brother, and for twenty years I have not seen his countenance and hearing this day that he was coming, I went this day to meet him, and do you treat me in this manner?

37 And they answered him, and said to him, As אֱלֹהֵינוּ lives, were not Yaakov your brother as you did say, we had not left a remnant from you and your men, but on account of Yaakov of whom you speak being your brother, we will not meddle with you or your men.

38 And the third camp also passed from them, and he still continued his road with his men toward Yaakov, when the fourth camp came toward him, and they also did to him and his men as the others had done.

39 And when Esav beheld the evil that the four malachim had done to him and to his men, he became greatly afraid of his brother Yaakov, and he went to meet him in shalom.

40 And Esav concealed his hatred against Yaakov, because he was afraid of his life on account of his brother Yaakov, and because he imagined that the four camps that he had lighted upon were Yaakov's servants.

41 And Yaakov tarried that night with his servants in their camps, and he resolved with his servants to give to Esav a present from all that he had with him, and from all his property; and Yaakov rose up in the morning, he and his men, and they chose from among the cattle a present for Esav.

42 And this is the amount of the present which Yaakov chose from his flock to give to his brother Esav: and he selected two hundred and forty head from the flocks, and he selected from the camels and donkeys thirty each, and of the herds he chose fifty kine.

43 And he put them all in ten droves, and he placed each sort by itself, and he delivered them into the hands of ten of his servants, each drove by itself.

44 And he commanded them, and said to them, Keep yourselves at a distance from each other, and put a space between the droves, and when Esav and those who are with him shall meet you and ask you, saying, Whose are you, and where do you go, and to whom belongs all this before you, you shall say to them, We are the servants of Yaakov, and we come to meet Esav in shalom, and behold Yaakov comes behind us.

45 And that which is before us is a present sent from Yaakov to his brother Esav.

46 And if they shall say to you, Why does he delay behind you, from coming to meet his brother and to see his face, then you shall say to them, Surely he comes joyfully behind us to meet his brother, for he said, I will appease him with the present that goes to him, and after this I will see his face, perhaps he will accept it from me.

47 So the whole present passed on in the hands of his servants, and went before him on that day, and he lodged that night with his camps by the border of the brook of Yavuk, and he rose up in the midst of the night, and he took his wives and his maid servants, and all belonging to him, and he that night passed them over the ford Yavuk.

48 And when he passed all belonging to him over the brook, Yaakov was left by himself, and a Man met him, and he wrestled with him that night until the breaking of the day, and the hollow of Yaakov's thigh was out of joint through wrestling with Him.

49 And at the break of day the Man left Yaakov there, and He blessed him and went away, and Yaakov passed the brook at the break of day, and he halted upon his thigh.

50 And the sun rose upon him when he had passed the brook, and he came up to the place of his cattle and children.

51 And they went on till midday, and while they were going the present was passing on before them.

52 And Yaakov lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold Esav was at a distance, coming along with many men, about four hundred, and Yaakov was greatly afraid of his brother.

53 And Yaakov hurried and divided his children to his wives and his handmaids, and his daughter Dinah he put in a chest, and delivered her into the hands of his servants.

54 And he passed before his children and wives to meet his brother, and he bowed down to the ground, yes he bowed down seven times until he approached his brother, and אֱלֹהִים caused Yaakov to find rachamim and favor in the sight of Esav and his men, for אֱלֹהִים had heard the prayer of Yaakov.

55 And the fear of Yaakov and his terror fell upon his brother Esav, for Esav was greatly afraid of Yaakov for what the malachim of אֱלֹהִים had done to Esav, and Esav's anger against Yaakov was turned into chesed.

56 And when Esav saw Yaakov running toward him, he also ran toward him and he embraced him, and he fell upon his neck, and they kissed and they wept.

57 And אֱלֹהִים put fear and chesed toward Yaakov in the hearts of the men that came with Esav, and they also kissed Yaakov and embraced him.

58 And also Eliphaz, the son of Esav, with his four brothers, sons of Esav, wept with Yaakov, and they kissed him and embraced him, for the fear of Yaakov had fallen upon them all.

59 And Esav lifted up his eyes and saw the women with their offspring, the children of Yaakov, walking behind Yaakov and bowing along the road to Esav.

60 And Esav said to Yaakov, Who are these with you, my brother? Are they your children or your servants? And Yaakov answered Esav and said, They are my children, which אֱלֹהִים has graciously given to your servant.

61 And while Yaakov was speaking to Esav and his men, Esav beheld the whole camp, and he said to Yaakov, Where did you get the whole of the camp that I met last night? And Yaakov said, To find favor in the sight of my master, it is that which אֶתֵּן graciously gave to your servant.

62 And the present came before Esav, and Yaakov pressed Esav, saying, Take I beg you the present that I have brought to my master, and Esav said, Why is this my purpose? Keep that which you have to yourself.

63 And Yaakov said, It is incumbent upon me to give all this, since I have seen your face that you still live in shalom.

64 And Esav refused to take the present, and Yaakov said to him, I beseech you my master, if now I have found favor in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, for I have therefore seen your face, as though I had seen an ahlohim-like face, because you were pleased with me.

65 And Esav took the present, and Yaakov also gave to Esav silver and gold and bdellium, for he pressed him so much that he took them.

66 And Esav divided the cattle that were in the camp, and he gave the half to the men who had come with him, for they had come on hire, and the other half he delivered to the hands of his children.

67 And the silver and gold and bdellium he gave in the hands of Eliphaz his eldest son, and Esav said to Yaakov, Let us remain with you, and we will go slowly along with you until you come to my place with me, that we may dwell there together.

68 And Yaakov answered his brother and said, I would do as my master speaks to me, but my master knows that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with their young who are with me, go but slowly, for if they went swiftly they would all die, for you know their burdens and their fatigue.

69 Therefore let my master pass on before his servant, and I will go on slowly for the sake of the children and the flock, until I come to my master's place to Seir.

70 And Esav said to Yaakov, I will place with you some of the people that are with me to take care of you in the road, and to bear your fatigue and burden, and he said, What needs it my master, if I may find rachamim in your sight?

71 Behold I will come to you to Seir to dwell there together as you have spoken, go you then with your people for I will follow you.

72 And Yaakov said this to Esav in order to remove Esav and his men from him, so that Yaakov might afterward go to his abba's house to the land of Kanaan.

73 And Esav hearkened to the voice of Yaakov, and Esav returned with the four hundred men that were with him on their road to Seir, and Yaakov and all belonging to him went that day as far as the extremity of the land of Kanaan in its borders, and he remained there some time.

33 And in some time after Yaakov went away from the borders of the land, and he came to the land of Shalem, that is the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Kanaan, and he rested in front of the city.

2 And he bought a parcel of the field that was there, from the children of Chamor the people of the land, for five shekels.

3 And Yaakov there built himself a house, and he pitched his tent there, and he made booths for his cattle, therefore he called the name of that place Succoth.

4 And Yaakov remained in Succoth a year and six months.

5 At that time some of the women of the inhabitants of the land went to the city of Shechem to dance and rejoice with the daughters of the people of the city, and when they went forth then Rachel and Leah the wives of Yaakov with their families also went to behold the rejoicing of the daughters of the city.

6 And Dinah the daughter of Yaakov also went along with them and saw the daughters of the city, and they remained there before these daughters while all the people of the city were standing by them to behold their rejoicings, and all the great people of the city were there.

7 And Shechem the son of Chamor, the prince of the land was also standing there to see them.

8 And Shechem beheld Dinah the daughter of Yaakov sitting with her ema before the daughters of the city, and the damsel pleased him greatly, and he asked his friends and his people, saying, Whose daughter is that sitting among the women, whom I do not know in this city?

9 And they said to him, Surely this is the daughter of Yaakov the son of Yitzchak the Ivri, who has dwelt in this city for some time, and when it was reported that the daughters of the land were going forth to rejoice she went with her ema and maid servants to sit among them as you see.

10 And Shechem beheld Dinah the daughter of Yaakov, and when he looked at her his being became fixed upon Dinah.

11 And he sent and had her taken by force, and Dinah came to the house of Shechem and he seized her forcibly and lay with her and humbled her, and he loved her exceedingly and placed her in his house.

12 And they came and told the thing to Yaakov, and when Yaakov heard that Shechem had defiled his daughter Dinah, Yaakov sent twelve of his servants to fetch Dinah from the house of Shechem, and they went and came to the house of Shechem to take away Dinah from there.

13 And when they came Shechem went out to them with his men and drove them from his house, and he would not allow them to come before Dinah, but Shechem was sitting with Dinah kissing and embracing her before their eyes.

14 And the servants of Yaakov came back and told him, saying; When we came, he and his men drove us away, and this did Shechem do to Dinah before our eyes.

15 And Yaakov knew moreover that Shechem had defiled his daughter, but he said nothing, and his sons were feeding his cattle in the field, and Yaakov remained silent until their return.

16 And before his sons came home Yaakov sent two maidens from his servants' daughters to take care of Dinah in the house of Shechem, and to remain with her, and Shechem sent three of his friends to his abba Chamor the son of Chiddekem, the son of Pered, saying, Get me this damsel for a wife.

17 And Chamor the son of Chiddekem the Hivite came to the house of Shechem his son, and he sat before him, and Chamor said to his son, Shechem, Is there then no woman among the daughters of your people that you will take an Ivri woman who is not of your people?

18 And Shechem said to him, Her only must you get for me, for she is delightful in my sight; and Chamor did according to the word of his son, for he was greatly beloved by him.

19 And Chamor went forth to Yaakov to commune with him concerning this matter, and when he had gone from the house of his son Shechem, before he came to Yaakov to speak to him, behold the sons of Yaakov had come from the field, as soon as they heard the thing that Shechem the son of Chamor had done.

20 And the men were very much grieved concerning their sister, and they all came home fired with anger, before the time of gathering in their cattle.

21 And they came and sat before their abba and they spoke to him kindled with wrath, saying, Surely death is due to this man and to his household, because אלהים Ahlohim of the whole earth commanded Noach and his children that man shall never rob, nor commit adultery; now behold Shechem has both ravaged and committed fornication with our sister, and not one of all the people of the city spoke a word to him.

22 Surely you know and understand that the mishpat of death is due to Shechem, and to his abba, and to the whole city on account of the thing that he has done.

23 And while they were speaking before their abba in this matter, behold Chamor the abba of Shechem came to speak to Yaakov the words of his son concerning Dinah, and he sat before Yaakov and before his sons.

24 And Chamor spoke to them, saying, The being of my son Shechem longs for your daughter; I ask you give her to him for a wife and intermarry with us; give us your daughters and we will give you our daughters, and you shall dwell with us in our land and we will be as one people in the land.

25 For our land is very extensive, so you dwell and trade in it and get possessions in it, and do in it as you desire, and no one shall prevent you by saying a word to you.

26 And Chamor ceased speaking to Yaakov and his sons, and behold Shechem his son had come after him, and he sat before them.

27 And Shechem spoke before Yaakov and his sons, saying, May I find favor in your sight that you will give me your daughter, and whatever you say to me that will I do for her.

28 Ask me for abundance of dowry and gift, and I will give it, and whatever you shall say to me that will I do, and whoever he be that will rebel against your orders, he shall die; only give me the damsel for a wife.

29 And Shimeon and Levi answered Chamor and Shechem his son deceitfully, saying, All you have spoken to us we will do for you.

30 And behold our sister is in your house, but keep away from her until we send to our abba Yitzchak concerning this matter, for we can do nothing without his consent.

31 For he knows the halachot of our abba Avraham, and whatever he says to us, we will tell you, we will conceal nothing from you.

32 And Shimeon and Levi spoke this to Shechem and his abba in order to find a pretext, and to seek counsel what was to be done to Shechem and to his city in this matter.

33 And when Shechem and his abba heard the words of Shimeon and Levi, it seemed tov in their sight, and Shechem and his abba came forth to go home.

34 And when they had gone, the sons of Yaakov said to their abba, saying, Behold, we know that death is due to these wicked ones and to their city, because they transgressed that which אִתְּךָ had commanded to Noach and his children and his zera after them.

35 And also because Shechem did this thing to our sister Dinah in defiling her, for such vileness shall never be done among us.

36 Now therefore know and see what you will do, and seek counsel and pretext what is to be done to them, in order to kill all the inhabitants of this city.

37 And Shimeon said to them, Here is a proper advice for you: tell them to circumcise every male among them as we are circumcised, and if they do not wish to do this, we shall take our daughter from them and go away.

38 And if they consent to do this and will do it, then when they are sunk down with pain, we will attack them with our swords, as upon one who is quiet and peaceable, and we will slay every male person among them.

39 And Shimeon's advice pleased them, and Shimeon and Levi resolved to do to them as it was proposed.

40 And on the next morning Shechem and Chamor his abba came again to Yaakov and his sons, to speak concerning Dinah, and to hear what answer the sons of Yaakov would give to their words.

41 And the sons of Yaakov spoke deceitfully to them, saying, We told our abba Yitzchak all your words, and your words pleased him.

42 But he spoke to us, saying, This did Avraham his abba command him from אֲרָצוֹת אֲרָצוֹת of the whole earth, that any man who is not of his descendants that should wish to take one of his daughters, shall cause every male belonging to him to be circumcised, as we are circumcised, and then we may give him our daughter for a wife.

43 Now we have made known to you all our halachot that our abba spoke to us, for we cannot do this of which you spoke to us, to give our daughter to an uncircumcised man, for it is a disgrace to us.

44 But herein will we consent to you, to give you our daughter, and we will also take to ourselves your daughters, and will dwell among you and be one people as you have spoken, if you will listen to us, and consent to be like us, to circumcise every male belonging to you, as we are circumcised.

45 And if you will not listen to us, to have every male circumcised as we are circumcised, as we have commanded, then we will come to you, and take our daughter from you and go away.

46 And Shechem and his abba Chamor heard the words of the sons of Yaakov, and the thing pleased them exceedingly, and Shechem and his abba Chamor hurried to do the wishes of the sons of Yaakov, for Shechem was very fond of Dinah, and his being was riveted to her.

47 And Shechem and his abba Chamor hurried to the gate of the city, and they assembled all the men of their city and spoke to them the words of the sons of Yaakov, saying,

48 We came to these men, the sons of Yaakov, and we spoke to them concerning their daughter, and these men will consent to do according to our wishes, and behold our land is of great extent for them, and they will dwell in it, and trade in it, and we shall be one people; we will take their daughters, and our daughters we will give to them for wives.

49 But only on this condition will these men consent to do this thing, that every male among us be circumcised as they are circumcised, as their אֲנִיָּא commanded them, and when we shall have done according to their instructions to be circumcised, then will they dwell among us, together with their cattle and possessions, and we shall be as one people with them.

50 And when all the men of the city heard the words of Shechem and his abba Chamor, then all the men of their city were agreeable to this proposal, and they obeyed to be circumcised, for Shechem and his abba Chamor were greatly esteemed by them, being the princes of the land.

51 And on the next day, Shechem and Chamor his abba rose up early in the morning, and they assembled all the men of their city into the middle of the city, and they called for the sons of Yaakov, who circumcised every male belonging to them on that day and the next.

52 And they circumcised Shechem and Chamor his abba, and the five brothers of Shechem, and then every one rose up and went home, for this thing was from אִרְאֵל against the city of Shechem, and from אִרְאֵל was Shimeon's counsel in this matter, in order that אִרְאֵל might deliver the city of Shechem into the hands of Yaakov's two sons.

34 And the number of all the males that were circumcised, were six hundred and forty-five men, and two hundred and forty-six children.

2 But Chiddekem, son of Pered, the abba of Chamor, and his six brothers, would not listen to Shechem and his abba Chamor, and they would not be circumcised, for the proposal of the sons of Yaakov was loathsome in their sight, and their anger was greatly roused at this, that the people of the city had not hearkened to them.

3 And in the evening of the second day, they found eight small children who had not been circumcised, for their mothers had concealed them from Shechem and his abba Chamor, and from the men of the city.

4 And Shechem and his abba Chamor sent to have them brought before them to be circumcised, when Chiddekem and his six brothers sprang at them with their swords, and sought to slay them.

5 And they sought to slay also Shechem and his abba Chamor and they sought to slay Dinah with them on account of this matter.

6 And they said to them, What is this thing that you have done? Are there no women among the daughters of your brothers the Kannaim, that you wish to take to yourselves daughters of the Ivrim, whom you knew not before, and will do this act which your ahvot never commanded you?

7 Do you imagine that you will succeed through this act that you have done? And what will you answer in this affair to your brothers the Kannaim, who will come tomorrow and ask you concerning this thing?

8 And if your act shall not appear just and tov in their sight, what will you do for your lives, and me for our lives, in your not having hearkened to our voices?

9 And if the inhabitants of the land and all your brothers the children of Ham, shall hear of your act, saying,

10 On account of an Ivri woman did Shechem and Chamor his abba, and all the inhabitants of their city, do that with which they had been unacquainted and which their ancestors never commanded them, where then will you fly or where conceal your shame, all your days before your brothers, the inhabitants of the land of Kanaan?

11 Now therefore we cannot bear up against this thing that you have done, neither can we be burdened with this yoke upon us, which our ancestors did not command us.

12 Behold tomorrow we will go and assemble all our brothers, the Canaanitish brothers who dwell in the land, and we will all come and smite you and all those who trust in you, that there shall not be a remnant left from you or them.

13 And when Chamor and his son Shechem and all the people of the city heard the words of Chiddekem and his brothers, they were terribly afraid of their lives at their words, and they repented of what they had done.

14 And Shechem and his abba Chamor answered their abba Chiddekem and his brothers, and they said to them, All the words that you spoke to us are emet.

15 Now do not say, nor imagine in your hearts that on account of the love of the Ivrim we did this thing that our ancestors did not command us.

16 But because we saw that it was not their intention and desire to accede to our wishes concerning their daughter as to our taking her, except on this condition, so we hearkened to their voices and did this act which you saw, in order to obtain our desire from them.

17 And when we shall have obtained our request from them, we will then return to them and do to them that which you say to us.

18 We beseech you then to wait and tarry until our flesh shall be healed and we again become strong, and we will then go together against them, and do to them that which is in your hearts and in ours.

19 And Dinah the daughter of Yaakov heard all these words which Chiddekem and his brothers had spoken, and what Chamor and his son Shechem and the people of their city had answered them.

20 And she hurried and sent one of her maidens, that her abba had sent to take care of her in the house of Shechem, to Yaakov her abba and to her brothers, saying:

21 This did Chiddekem and his brothers advise concerning you, and this did Chamor and Shechem and the people of the city answer them.

22 And when Yaakov heard these words he was filled with wrath, and he was indignant at them, and his anger was kindled against them.

23 And Shimeon and Levi swore and said, As אִיִּזְרָאֵל lives, the אִיִּזְרָאֵל of the whole earth, by this time tomorrow, there shall not be a remnant left in the whole city.

24 And twenty young men had concealed themselves who were not circumcised, and these young men fought against Shimeon and Levi, and Shimeon and Levi killed eighteen of them, and two fled from them and escaped to some lime pits that were in the city, and Shimeon and Levi sought for them, but could not find them.

25 And Shimeon and Levi continued to go about in the city, and they killed all the people of the city at the edge of the sword, and they left none remaining.

26 And there was a great consternation in the midst of the city, and the cry of the people of the city ascended to the shamayim, and all the women and children cried aloud.

27 And Shimeon and Levi slew all the city; they left not a male remaining in the whole city.

28 And they slew Chamor and Shechem his son at the edge of the sword, and they brought away Dinah from the house of Shechem and they went from there.

29 And the sons of Yaakov went and returned, and came upon the slain, and spoiled all their property that was in the city and the field.

30 And while they were taking the spoil, three hundred men stood up and threw dust at them and struck them with stones, when Shimeon turned to them and he slew them all with the edge of the sword, and Shimeon turned before Levi, and came into the city.

31 And they took away their sheep and their oxen and their cattle, and also the remainder of the women and little ones, and they led all these away, and they opened a gate and went out and came to their abba Yaakov with vigor.

32 And when Yaakov saw all that they had done to the city, and saw the spoil that they took from them, Yaakov was very angry at them, and Yaakov said to them, What is this that you have done to me? Behold I obtained rest among the Canaanitish inhabitants of the land, and none of them meddled with me.

33 And now you have done to make me obnoxious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Kannaim and the Perizzites, and I am but of a small number, and they will all assemble against me and slay me when they hear of your work with their brothers, and my household and I will be destroyed.

34 And Shimeon and Levi and all their brothers with them answered their abba Yaakov and said to him, Behold we live in the land, and shall Shechem do this to our sister? Why are you silent at all that Shechem has done? And shall he deal with our sister as with a harlot in the streets?

35 And the number of women whom Shimeon and Levi took captives from the city of Shechem, whom they did not slay, was eighty-five who had not known man.

36 And among them was a young damsel of beautiful appearance and well favored, whose name was Bunah, and Shimeon took her for a wife, and the number of the males that they took captives and did not slay, was forty-seven men, and the rest they slew.

37 And all the young men and women that Shimeon and Levi had taken captives from the city of Shechem, were servants to the sons of Yaakov and to their children after them, until the day of the sons of Yaakov going forth from the land of Mitzrayim.

38 And when Shimeon and Levi had gone forth from the city, the two young men that were left, who had concealed themselves in the city, and did not die among the people of the city, rose up, and these young men went into the city and walked about in it, and found the city desolate without man, and only women weeping, and these young men cried out and said, Behold, this is the evil which the sons of Yaakov the Ivri did to this city in their having this day destroyed one of the Canaanitish cities, and were not afraid of their lives of all the land of Kanaan.

39 And these men left the city and went to the city of Tapnach, and they came there and told the inhabitants of Tapnach all that had befallen them, and all that the sons of Yaakov had done to the city of Shechem.

40 And the information reached Yashuv melech of Tapnach, and he sent men to the city of Shechem to see those young men, for the melech did not believe them in this account, saying, How could two men lay waste such a large town as Shechem?

41 And the messengers of Yashuv came back and told him, saying, We came to the city, and it is destroyed, there is not a man there; only weeping women; neither is any flock or cattle there, for all that was in the city the sons of Yaakov took away.

42 And Yashuv wondered at this, saying, How could two men do this thing, to destroy so large a city, and not one man able to stand against them?

43 For the like has not been from the days of Nimrod, and not even from the remotest time, has the like taken place; and Yashub, melech of Tapnach, said to his people, Be courageous and we will go and fight against these Ivrim, and do to them as they did to the city, and we will avenge the cause of the people of the city.

44 And Yashuv, melech of Tapnach, consulted with his counselors about this matter, and his advisers said to him, Alone you will not prevail over the Ivrim, for they must be powerful to do this work to the whole city.

45 If two of them laid waste the whole city, and no one stood against them, surely if you will go against them, they will all rise against us and destroy us likewise.

46 But if you will send to all the melechim that surround us, and let them come together, then we will go with them and fight against the sons of Yaakov; then will you prevail against them.

47 And Yahshuv heard the words of his counselors, and their words pleased him and his people, and he did so; and Yahshuv melech of Tapnach sent to all the melechim of the Amorites that surrounded Shechem and Tapnach, saying, 48 Go up with me and assist me, and we will smite Yaakov the Ivri and all his sons, and destroy them from the earth, for this did he do to the city of Shechem, and do you not know of it?

49 And all the melechim of the Amorites heard the evil that the sons of Yaakov had done to the city of Shechem, and they were greatly astonished at them.

50 And the seven melechim of the Amorites assembled with all their armies, about ten thousand men with drawn swords, and they came to fight against the sons of Yaakov; and Yaakov heard that the melechim of the Amorites had assembled to fight against his sons, and Yaakov was greatly afraid, and it distressed him.

51 And Yaakov exclaimed against Shimeon and Levi, saying, What is this act that you did? Why have you injured me, to bring against me all the children of Kanaan to destroy me and my household? For I was at rest, even I and my household, and you have done this thing to me, and provoked the inhabitants of the land against me by your proceedings.

52 And Yahudah answered his abba, saying, Was it for nothing my brothers Shimeon and Levi killed all the inhabitants of Shechem? Surely it was because Shechem had humbled our sister, and transgressed the command of our אֱלֹהֵינוּ to Noach and his children, for Shechem took our sister away by force, and committed adultery with her.

53 And Shechem did all this evil and not one of the inhabitants of his city interfered with him, to say, Why will you do this? Surely for this my brothers went and smote the city, and אֱלֹהֵינוּ delivered it into their hands, because its inhabitants had transgressed the mitzvot of our אֱלֹהֵינוּ. Is it then for nothing that they have done all this?

54 And now why are you afraid or distressed, and why are you displeased at my brothers, and why is your anger kindled against them?

55 Surely our אֱלֹהֵינוּ who delivered into their hand the city of Shechem and its people, he will also deliver into our hands all the Canaanitish melechim who are coming against us, and we will do to them as my brothers did to Shechem.

56 Now be tranquil about them and cast away your fears, but trust in אֱלֹהֵינוּ our אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and pray to him to assist us and deliver us, and deliver our enemies into our hands.

57 And Yahudah called to one of his abba's servants, Go now and see where those melechim, who are coming against us, are situated with their armies.

58 And the servant went and looked far off, and went up opposite Mount Sihon, and saw all the camps of the melechims standing in the fields, and he returned to Yahudah and said, Behold the melechims are situated in the field with all their camps, a people exceedingly numerous, like to the sand upon the seashore.

59 And Yahudah said to Shimeon and Levi, and to all his brothers, Strengthen yourselves and be sons of valor, for אֱלֹהֵינוּ אֱלֹהֵינוּ is with us, do not fear them.

60 Stand forth each man, girt with his weapons of war, his bow and his sword, and we will go and fight against these uncircumcised men; אֱלֹהֵינוּ is our אֱלֹהֵינוּ, He will save us.

61 And they rose up, and each girt on his weapons of war, great and small, eleven sons of Yaakov, and all the servants of Yaakov with them.

62 And all the servants of Yitzchak who were with Yitzchak in Hevron, all came to them equipped in all sorts of war instruments, and the sons of Yaakov and their servants, being one hundred and twelve men, went towards these melechims, and Yaakov also went with them.

63 And the sons of Yaakov sent to their abba Yitzchak the son of Avraham to Hevron, the same is Kiryath-Arba, saying, 64 Pray we beseech you for us to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our אֱלֹהֵינוּ, to protect us from the hands of the Kannaim who are coming against us, and to deliver them into our hands.

65 And Yitzchak the son of Avraham prayed to אֱלֹהֵינוּ for his sons, and he said, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ אֱלֹהֵינוּ, you did promise my abba, saying, I will multiply your zera as the stars of the shamayim, and you did also promise me, and establish you your word, now that the melechims of Kanaan are coming together, to make war with my children because they committed no violence.

66 Now therefore, O אֱלֹהִים אֱלֹהִים, אֱלֹהִים of the whole earth, pervert, I pray you, the counsel of these melechim that they may not fight against my sons.

67 And impress the hearts of these melechim and their people with the terror of my sons and bring down their pride, and that they may turn away from my sons.

68 And with your strong hand and outstretched arm deliver my sons and their servants from them, for power and might are in your hands to do all this.

69 And the sons of Yaakov and their servants went toward these melechim, and they trusted in אֱלֹהִים their אֱלֹהִים, and while they were going, Yaakov their abba also prayed to אֱלֹהִים and said, O אֱלֹהִים אֱלֹהִים, powerful and exalted אֱלֹהִים, who has reigned from days of old, from there till now and le-olam-va-ed;

70 You are He who stirs up wars and causes them to cease, in Your hand are power and might to exalt and to bring down; O may my prayer be acceptable before You that You may turn to me with Your mercies, to impress the hearts of these melechim and their people with the terror of my sons, and terrify them and their camps, and with your great chesed deliver all those that trust in You, for it is You who can bring people under us, and reduce nations under our power.

35 And all the melechim of the Amorites came and took their stand in the field to consult with their counselors what was to be done with the sons of Yaakov, for they were still afraid of them, saying, Behold, two of them slew the whole of the city of Shechem.

2 And אֱלֹהִים heard the prayers of Yitzchak and Yaakov, and he filled the hearts of all these melechim' advisers with great fear and terror that they unanimously exclaimed,

3 Are you silly this day, or is there no understanding in you, that you will fight with the Ivrim, and why will you take a delight in your own destruction this day?

4 Behold two of them came to the city of Shechem without fear or terror, and they killed all the inhabitants of the city that no man stood up against them and how will you be able to fight with them all?

5 Surely you know that their אֱלֹהִים is exceedingly fond of them, and has done mighty things for them, such as have not been done from days of old, and among all the ahlohim of the goyim, there is none can do like to His mighty deeds.

6 Surely He delivered their abba Avraham, the Ivri, from the hand of Nimrod, and from the hand of all his people who had many times sought to slay him.

7 He delivered him also from the fire in which melech Nimrod had cast him, and His אֱלֹהִים delivered him from it.

8 And who else can do the like? Surely it was Avraham who slew the five melechim of Eylam, when they had touched his brother's son who in those days dwelt in Sedom.

9 And took his servant that was faithful in his house and a few of his men, and they pursued the melechim of Eylam in one night and killed them, and restored to his brother's son all his property which they had taken from him.

10 And surely you know the אֱלֹהִים of these Ivrim is much delighted with them, and they are also delighted with Him, for they know that He delivered them from all their enemies.

11 And behold through his love toward His אֱלֹהִים, Avraham took his only and precious son and intended to bring him up as a burnt offering to His אֱלֹהִים, and had it not been for אֱלֹהִים who prevented him from doing this, he would then have done it through his love to his אֱלֹהִים.

12 And אֱלֹהִים saw all his works, and swore to him, and promised him that he would deliver his sons and all his zera from every trouble that would befall them, because he had done this thing, and through his love to his אֱלֹהִים stifled his rachamim for his child.

13 And have you not heard what their אֱלֹהִים did to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, and to Avimelech melech of Gerar, through taking Avraham's wife, who said of her, She is my sister, lest they might slay him on account of her, and think of taking her for a wife? And אֱלֹהִים did to them and their people all that you heard of.

14 And behold, we ourselves saw with our eyes that Esav, the brother of Yaakov, came to him with four hundred men, with the intention of slaying him, for he called to mind that he had taken away from him his abba's blessing.

15 And he went to meet him when he came from Aram-Syria, to smite the ema with the children, and who delivered him from his hands but his אֱלֹהִים in whom he trusted? He delivered him from the hand of his brother and also from the hands of his enemies, and surely He again will protect them.

16 Who does not know that it was their אֱלֹהִים who inspired them with strength to do to the town of Shechem the evil that you heard of?

17 Could it then be with their own strength that two men could destroy such a large city as Shechem had it not been for their אֱלֹהִים in whom they trusted? He said and did to them all this to slay the inhabitants of the city in their city.

18 And can you then prevail over them who have come forth together from your city to fight with the whole of them, even if a thousand times as many more should come to your assistance?

19 Surely you know and understand that you do not come to fight with them, but you come to war with their אֲרָאָה who made choice of them, and you have therefore all come this day to be destroyed.

20 Now therefore refrain from this evil which you are endeavoring to bring upon yourselves, and it will be better for you not to go to battle with them, although they are but few in numbers, because their אֲרָאָה is with them.

21 And when the melechim of the Amorites heard all the words of their advisers, their hearts were filled with terror, and they were afraid of the sons of Yaakov and would not fight against them.

22 And they inclined their ears to the words of their advisers, and they listened to all their words, and the words of the counselors greatly pleased the melechim, and they did so.

23 And the melechim turned and refrained from the sons of Yaakov, for they dared not approach them to make war with them, for they were greatly afraid of them, and their hearts melted within them from their fear of them.

24 For this proceeded from אֲרָאָה to them, for He heard the prayers of His servants Yitzchak and Yaakov, for they trusted in Him; and all these melechim returned with their camps on that day, each to his own city, and they did not at that time fight with the sons of Yaakov.

25 And the sons of Yaakov kept their station that day till evening opposite mount Sihon, and seeing that these melechim did not come to fight against them, the sons of Yaakov returned home.

36 At that time אֲרָאָה appeared to Yaakov saying, Arise, go to Bethel and remain there, and make there an altar to אֱלֹהֵי who appears to you, who delivered you and your sons from affliction.

2 And Yaakov rose up with his sons and all belonging to him, and they went and came to Bethel according to the word of אֱלֹהֵי.

3 And Yaakov was ninety-nine years old when he went up to Bethel, and Yaakov and his sons and all the people that were with him, remained in Bethel in Luz, and he there built an altar to אֱלֹהֵי who appeared to him, and Yaakov and his sons remained in Bethel six months.

4 At that time died Devorah the daughter of Uz, the nurse of Rivkah, who had been with Yaakov; and Yaakov buried her beneath Bethel under an oak that was there.

5 And Rivkah the daughter of Bethuel, the ema of Yaakov, also died at that time in Hevron, the same is Kiryath-Arba, and she was buried in the cave of Machpelah that Avraham had bought from the children of Cheth.

6 And the life of Rivkah was one hundred and thirty-three years, and she died and when Yaakov heard that his ema Rivkah was dead he wept bitterly for his ema, and made a great mourning for her, and for Devorah her nurse beneath the oak, and he called the name of that place Allon-Bachuth.

7 And Lavan the Aramean-Syrian died in those days, for אֱלֹהֵי smote him because he transgressed the covenant that existed between him and Yaakov.

8 And Yaakov was a hundred years old when אֱלֹהֵי appeared to him, and blessed him and called his name Yisrael, and Rachel the wife of Yaakov conceived in those days.

9 And at that time Yaakov and all belonging to him journeyed from Bethel to go to his abba's house, to Hevron.

10 And while they were going on the road, and there was yet but a little way to come to Ephrath, Rachel bare a son and she had hard labor and she died.

11 And Yaakov buried her in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth Lechem, and he set a pillar upon her grave, which is there to this day; and the days of Rachel were forty-five years and she died.

12 And Yaakov called the name of his son that was born to him, which Rachel bare to him, Binyamin, for he was born to him in the land on the right hand.

13 And it was after the death of Rachel, that Yaakov pitched his tent in the tent of her handmaid Bilhah.

14 And Reuven was jealous for his ema Leah on account of this, and he was filled with anger, and he rose up in his anger and went and entered the tent of Bilhah and he there removed his abba's bed.

15 At that time the portion of bechor, together with the kingly and priestly offices, was removed from the sons of Reuven, for he had profaned his abba's bed, and the bechor was given to Yoseph, the kingly office to Yahudah, and the priesthood to Levi, because Reuven had defiled his abba's bed.

16 And these are the generations of Yaakov who were born to him in Padan-Aram, and the sons of Yaakov were twelve.

17 The sons of Leah were Reuven the first born, and Shimeon, Levi, Yahudah, Yissacher, Zevulun, and their sister Dinah; and the sons of Rachel were Yoseph and Binyamin.

18 The sons of Zilpah, Leah's handmaid, were Gad and Asher, and the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid, were Dan and Naphtali; these are the sons of Yaakov that were born to him in Padan-Aram.

19 And Yaakov and his sons and all belonging to him journeyed and came to Mamre, which is Kiryath-Arba, that is in Hevron, where Avraham and Yitzchak sojourned, and Yaakov with his sons and all belonging to him, dwelt with his abba in Hevron.

20 And his brother Esav and his sons, and all belonging to him went to the land of Seir and dwelt there, and had possessions in the land of Seir, and the children of Esav were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly in the land of Seir.

21 And these are the generations of Esav that were born to him in the land of Kanaan, and the sons of Esav were five.

22 And Adah bare to Esav his bachor Eliphaz, and she also bare to him Reuel, and Ahlivamah bare to him Yeush, Yaalam and Korah.

23 These are the children of Esav who were born to him in the land of Kanaan; and the sons of Eliphaz the son of Esav were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam, Kenaz and Amalex, and the sons of Reuel were Nachath, Zerach, Shamah and Mizzah.

24 And the sons of Yeush were Timnah, Alvah, Yetheth; and the sons of Yaalam were Alah, Phinor and Kenaz.

25 And the sons of Korah were Teman, Mibzar, Magdiel and Eram; these are the families of the sons of Esav according to their dukedoms in the land of Seir.

26 And these are the names of the sons of Seir the Horite, inhabitants of the land of Seir, Lotan, Shoal, Ziveon, Anah, Dishan, Ezer and Dishon, being seven sons.

27 And the children of Lotan were Hori, Heman and their sister Timna, that is Timna who came to Yaakov and his sons, and they would not give ear to her, and she went and became a concubine to Eliphaz the son of Esav, and she bare to him Amalek.

28 And the sons of Shoal were Alvan, Manahath, Eval, Shepho, and Onam, and the sons of Ziveon were Ayah, and Anah, this was that Anah who found the Yemim in the wilderness when he fed the donkeys of Ziveon his abba.

29 And while he was feeding his abba's donkeys he led them to the wilderness at different times to feed them.

30 And there was a day that he brought them to one of the deserts on the seashore, opposite the wilderness of the people, and while he was feeding them, behold a very heavy storm came from the other side of the sea and rested upon the donkeys that were feeding there, and they all stood still.

31 And afterward about one hundred and twenty great and terrible animals came out from the wilderness at the other side of the sea, and they all came to the place where the donkeys were, and they placed themselves there.

32 And those animals, from their middle downward, were in the shape of the children of men, and from their middle upward, some had the likeness of bears, and some the likeness of the keephas, with tails behind them from between their shoulders reaching down to the earth, like the tails of the ducheephath, and these animals came and mounted and rode upon these donkeys, and led them away, and they went away to this day.

33 And one of these animals approached Anah and smote him with his tail, and then fled from that place.

34 And when he saw this work he was exceedingly afraid of his life, and he fled and escaped to the city.

35 And he related to his sons and brothers all that had happened to him, and many men went to seek the donkeys but could not find them, and Anah and his brothers went no more to that place from that day following, for they were greatly afraid of their lives.

36 And the children of Anah the son of Seir, were Dishon and his sister Ahlivamah, and the children of Dishon were Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran, and the children of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan, and the children of Dishon were Uz and Aran.
37 These are the families of the children of Seir the Horite, according to their dukedoms in the land of Seir.

38 And Esav and his children dwelt in the land of Seir the Horite, the inhabitant of the land, and they had possessions in it and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly, and Yaakov and his children and all belonging to them, dwelt with their abba Yitzchak in the land of Kanaan, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Avraham their abba.

37 And in the one hundred and fifth year of the life of Yaakov, that is the ninth year of Yaakov's dwelling with his children in the land of Kanaan, he came from Padan-Aram.

2 And in those days Yaakov journeyed with his children from Hevron, and they went and returned to the city of Shechem, they and all belonging to them, and they dwelt there, for the children of Yaakov obtained tov and fat pasture land for their cattle in the city of Shechem, the city of Shechem having then been rebuilt, and there were in it about three hundred men and women.

3 And Yaakov and his children and all belonging to him dwelt in the part of the field which Yaakov had bought from Chamor the abba of Shechem, when he came from Padan-Aram before Shimeon and Levi had smitten the city.

4 And all those melechim of the Kannaim and Amorites that surrounded the city of Shechem, heard that the sons of Yaakov had again come to Shechem and dwelt there.

5 And they said, Shall the sons of Yaakov the Ivri again come to the city and dwell therein, after that they have smitten its inhabitants and driven them out? Shall they now return and also drive out those who are dwelling in the city or slay them?

6 And all the melechim of Kanaan again assembled, and they came together to make war with Yaakov and his sons.

7 And Yahshuv melech of Tapnach sent also to all his neighboring melechim, to Eylan melech of Gaash, and to lhuri melech of Shiloh, and to Parathon melech of Chazar, and to Susi melech of Sarton, and to Lavan melech of Beth Choran, and to Shavir melech of Othnay-Mah, saying,

8 Come up to me and assist me, and let us smite Yaakov the Ivri and his sons, and all belonging to him, for they are again come to Shechem to possess it and to slay its inhabitants as before.

9 And all these melechim assembled together and came with all their camps, a people exceedingly plentiful like the sand upon the seashore, and they were all opposite to Tapnach.

10 And Yahshuv melech of Tapnach went forth to them with all his army, and he encamped with them opposite to Tapnach without the city, and all these melechim they divided into seven divisions, being seven camps against the sons of Yaakov.

11 And they sent a declaration to Yaakov and his son, saying, Come you all forth to us that we may have an interview together in the plain, and revenge the cause of the men of Shechem whom you slew in their city, and you will now again return to the city of Shechem and dwell therein, and slay its inhabitants as before.

12 And the sons of Yaakov heard this and their anger was kindled exceedingly at the words of the melechim of Kanaan, and ten of the sons of Yaakov hurried and rose up, and each of them girt on his weapons of war; and there were one hundred and two of their servants with them equipped in battle array.

13 And all these men, the sons of Yaakov with their servants, went toward these melechim, and Yaakov their abba was with them, and they all stood upon the heap of Shechem.

14 And Yaakov prayed to אֱלֹהִים for his sons, and he spread forth his hands to אֱלֹהִים, and he said, O אֱלֹהִים, you are an Almighty אֱלֹהִים, you are our Abba, you did form us and we are the works of your hands; I pray you deliver my sons through your chesed from the hand of their enemies, who are this day coming to fight with them and save them from their hand, for in Your hand is power and might, to save the few from the many.

15 And give to my sons, your servants, strength of heart and might to fight with their enemies, to subdue them, and make their enemies fall before them, and let not my sons and their servants die through the hands of the children of Kanaan.

16 But if it seems tov in your eyes to take away the lives of my sons and their servants, take them in your great chesed through the hands of your ministers, that they may not perish this day by the hands of the melechim of the Amorites.

17 And when Yaakov ceased praying to אֱלֹהִים the earth shook from its place, and the sun darkened, and all these melechim were terrified and a great consternation seized them.

18 And אֱלֹהִים hearkened to the prayer of Yaakov, and אֱלֹהִים impressed the hearts of all the melechim and their hosts with the terror and awe of the sons of Yaakov.

19 For אֱלֹהִים caused them to hear the voice of mirkavot, and the voice of mighty horses from the sons of Yaakov, and the voice of a great army accompanying them.

20 And these melechim were seized with great terror at the sons of Yaakov, and while they were standing in their quarters, behold the sons of Yaakov advanced upon them, with one hundred and twelve men, with a great and tremendous shouting.

21 And when the melechim saw the sons of Yaakov advancing toward them, they were still more panic struck, and they were inclined to retreat from before the sons of Yaakov as at first, and not to fight with them.

22 But they did not retreat, saying, It would be a disgrace to us this twice to retreat from before the Ivrim.

23 And the sons of Yaakov came near and advanced against all these melechim and their armies, and they saw, and behold it was a very mighty people, numerous as the sand of the sea.

24 And the sons of Yaakov called to אִיִּי and said, Help us O אִיִּי, help us and answer us, for we trust in you, and let us not die by the hands of these uncircumcised men, who this day have come against us.

25 And the sons of Yaakov put on their weapons of war, and they took in their hands each man his shield and his javelin, and they approached to battle.

26 And Yahudah, the son of Yaakov, ran first before his brothers, and ten of his servants with him, and he went toward these melechim.

27 And Yahshuv, melech of Tapnach, also came forth first with his army before Yahudah, and Yahudah saw Yahshuv and his army coming toward him, and Yahudah's wrath was kindled, and his anger burned within him, and he approached to battle in which Yahudah ventured his life.

28 And Yahshuv and all his army were advancing toward Yahudah, and he was riding upon a very strong and powerful horse, and Yahshuv was a very valiant man, and covered with iron and brass from head to foot.

29 And while he was upon the horse, he shot arrows with both hands from before and behind, as was his manner in all his battles, and he never missed the place to which he aimed his arrows.

30 And when Yahshuv came to fight with Yahudah, and was darting many arrows against Yahudah, אִפְאָז bound the hand of Yahshuv, and all the arrows that he shot rebounded upon his own men.

31 And notwithstanding this, Yahshuv kept advancing toward Yahudah, to challenge him with the arrows, but the distance between them was about thirty cubits, and when Yahudah saw Yahshuv darting forth his arrows against him, he ran to him with his wrath-excited might.

32 And Yahudah took up a large stone from the ground, and its weight was sixty shekels, and Yahudah ran toward Yahshuv, and with the stone struck him on his shield, that Yahshuv was stunned with the blow, and fell off from his horse to the ground.

33 And the shield burst asunder out of the hand of Yahshuv, and through the force of the blow sprang to the distance of about fifteen cubits, and the shield fell before the second camp.

34 And the melechim that came with Yahshuv saw at a distance the strength of Yahudah, the son of Yaakov, and what he had done to Yahshuv, and they were terribly afraid of Yahudah.

35 And they assembled near Yahshuv's camp, seeing his confusion, and Yahudah drew his sword and smote forty-two men of the camp of Yahshuv, and the whole of Yahshuv's camp fled before Yahudah, and no man stood against him, and they left Yahshuv and fled from him, and Yahshuv was still prostrate upon the ground.

36 And Yahshuv seeing that all the men of his camp had fled from him, hurried and rose up with terror against Yahudah, and stood upon his legs opposite Yahudah.

37 And Yahshuv had a single combat with Yahudah, placing shield toward shield, and Yahshuv's men all fled, for they were greatly afraid of Yahudah.

38 And Yahshuv took his spear in his hand to strike Yahudah upon his head, but Yahudah had quickly placed his shield to his head against Yahshuv's spear, so that the shield of Yahudah received the blow from Yahshuv's spear, and the shield was split in too.

39 And when Yahudah saw that his shield was split, he hastily drew his sword and smote Yahshuv at his ankles, and cut off his feet that Yahshuv fell upon the ground, and the spear fell from his hand.

40 And Yahudah hastily picked up Yahshuv's spear, with which he severed his head and cast it next to his feet.

41 And when the sons of Yaakov saw what Yahudah had done to Yahshuv, they all ran into the ranks of the other melechim, and the sons of Yaakov fought with the army of Yahshuv, and the armies of all the melechim that were there.

42 And the sons of Yaakov caused fifteen thousand of their men to fall, and they smote them as if smiting at gourds, and the rest fled for their lives.

43 And Yahudah was still standing by the body of Yahshuv, and stripped Yahshuv of his coat of armor.

44 And Yahudah also took off the iron and brass that was around Yahshuv, and behold nine men of the captains of Yahshuv came along to fight against Yahudah.

45 And Yahudah hurried and took up a stone from the ground, and with it smote one of them upon the head, and his skull was fractured, and the body also fell from the horse to the ground.

46 And the eight captains that remained, seeing the strength of Yahudah, were greatly afraid and they fled, and Yahudah with his ten men pursued them, and they overtook them and slew them.

47 And the sons of Yaakov were still smiting the armies of the melechim, and they slew many of them, but those melechim daringly kept their stand with their captains, and did not retreat from their places, and they exclaimed against those of their armies that fled from before the sons of Yaakov, but none would listen to them, for they were afraid of their lives lest they should die.

48 And all the sons of Yaakov, after having smitten the armies of the melechim, returned and came before Yahudah, and Yahudah was still slaying the eight captains of Yahshuv, and stripping off their garments.

49 And Levi saw Eylon, melech of Gaash, advancing toward him, with his fourteen captains to smite him, but Levi did not know it for certain.

50 And Eylon with his captains approached nearer, and Levi looked back and saw that battle was given him in the rear, and Levi ran with twelve of his servants, and they went and slew Eylon and his captains with the edge of the sword.

38 And Ihuri melech of Shiloh came up to assist Eylon, and he approached Yaakov, when Yaakov drew his bow that was in his hand and with an arrow struck Ihuri that caused his death.

2 And when Ihuri melech of Shiloh was dead, the four remaining melechim fled from their station with the rest of the captains, and they endeavored to retreat, saying, We have no more strength with the Ivrim after their having killed the three melechim and their captains who were more powerful than we are.

3 And when the sons of Yaakov saw that the remaining melechim had removed from their station, they pursued them, and Yaakov also came from the heap of Shechem from the place where he was standing, and they went after the melechim and they approached them with their servants.

4 And the melechim and the captains with the rest of their armies, seeing that the sons of Yaakov approached them, were afraid of their lives and fled till they reached the city of Chazar.

5 And the sons of Yaakov pursued them to the gate of the city of Chazar, and they smote a great smiting among the melechim and their armies, about four thousand men, and while they were smiting the army of the melechim, Yaakov was occupied with his bow confining himself to smiting the melechim, and he slew them all.

6 And he slew Parathon melech of Chazar at the gate of the city of Chazar, and he afterward smote Susi melech of Sarton, and Lavan melech of Beth-Chorin, and Shavir melech of Machnaymah, and he slew them all with arrows, an arrow to each of them, and they died.

7 And the sons of Yaakov seeing that all the melechim were dead and that they were broken up and retreating, continued to carry on the battle with the armies of the melechim opposite the gate of Chazar, and they still smote about four hundred of their men.

8 And three men of the servants of Yaakov fell in that battle, and when Yahudah saw that three of his servants had died, it grieved him greatly, and his anger burned within him against the Amorites.

9 And all the men that remained of the armies of the melechim were greatly afraid of their lives, and they ran and broke the gate of the walls of the city of Chazar, and they all entered the city for safety.

10 And they concealed themselves in the midst of the city of Chazar, for the city of Chazar was very large and extensive, and when all these armies had entered the city, the sons of Yaakov ran after them to the city.

11 And four mighty men, experienced in battle, went forth from the city and stood against the entrance of the city, with drawn swords and spears in their hands, and they placed themselves opposite the sons of Yaakov, and would not allow them to enter the city.

12 And Naphtali ran and came between them and with his sword smote two of them, and cut off their heads in one stroke.

13 And he turned to the other two, and behold they had fled, and he pursued them, overtook them, smote them and slew them.

14 And the sons of Yaakov came to the city and saw, and behold there was another wall to the city, and they sought for the gate of the wall and could not find it, and Yahudah sprang upon the top of the wall, and Shimeon and Levi followed him, and they all three descended from the wall into the city.

15 And Shimeon and Levi slew all the men who ran for safety into the city, and also the inhabitants of the city with their wives and little ones, they slew with the edge of the sword, and the cries of the city ascended up to the shamayim.

16 And Dan and Naphtali sprang upon the wall to see what caused the noise of lamentation, for the sons of Yaakov felt anxious about their brothers, and they heard the inhabitants of the city speaking with weeping and supplications, saying, Take all that we possess in the city and go away, only do not put us to death.

17 And when Yahudah, Shimeon, and Levi had ceased smiting the inhabitants of the city, they ascended the wall and called to Dan and Naphtali, who were upon the wall, and to the rest of their brothers, and Shimeon and Levi informed them of the entrance into the city, and all the sons of Yaakov came to fetch the spoil.

18 And the sons of Yaakov took the spoil of the city of Chazar, the flocks and herds, and the property, and they took all that could be captured, and went away that day from the city.

19 And on the next day the sons of Yaakov went to Sarton, for they heard that the men of Sarton who had remained in the city were assembling to fight with them for having slain their melech, and Sarton was a very high and fortified city, and it had a deep rampart surrounding the city.

20 And the pillar of the rampart was about fifty cubits and its breadth forty cubits, and there was no place for a man to enter the city on account of the rampart, and the sons of Yaakov saw the rampart of the city, and they sought an entrance in it but could not find it.

21 For the entrance to the city was at the rear, and every man that wished to come into the city came by that road and went around the whole city, and he afterwards entered the city.

22 And the sons of Yaakov seeing they could not find the way into the city, their anger was kindled greatly, and the inhabitants of the city seeing that the sons of Yaakov were coming to them were greatly afraid of them, for they had heard of their strength and what they had done to Chazar.

23 And the inhabitants of the city of Sarton could not go out toward the sons of Yaakov after having assembled in the city to fight against them, lest they might thereby get into the city, but when they saw that they were coming toward them, they were greatly afraid of them, for they had heard of their strength and what they had done to Chazar.

24 So the inhabitants of Sarton speedily took away the bridge of the road of the city, from its place, before the sons of Yaakov came, and they brought it into the city.

25 And the sons of Yaakov came and sought the way into the city, and could not find it and the inhabitants of the city went up to the top of the wall, and saw, and behold the sons of Yaakov were seeking an entrance into the city.

26 And the inhabitants of the city reproached the sons of Yaakov from the top of the wall, and they cursed them, and the sons of Yaakov heard the reproaches, and they were greatly incensed, and their anger burned within them.

27 And the sons of Yaakov were provoked at them, and they all rose and sprang over the rampart with the force of their strength, and through their might passed the forty cubits' breadth of the rampart.

28 And when they had passed the rampart they stood under the wall of the city, and they found all the gates of the city enclosed with iron doors.

29 And the sons of Yaakov came near to break open the doors of the gates of the city, and the inhabitants did not let them, for from the top of the wall they were casting stones and arrows upon them.

30 And the number of the people that were upon the wall was about four hundred men, and when the sons of Yaakov saw that the men of the city would not let them open the gates of the city, they sprang and ascended the top of the wall, and Yahudah went up first to the east part of the city.

31 And Gad and Asher went up after him to the west corner of the city, and Shimeon and Levi to the north, and Dan and Reuven to the south.

32 And the men who were on the top of the wall, the inhabitants of the city, seeing that the sons of Yaakov were coming up to them, they all fled from the wall, descended into the city, and concealed themselves in the midst of the city.

33 And Yissacher and Naphtali that remained under the wall approached and broke the gates of the city, and kindled a fire at the gates of the city, that the iron melted, and all the sons of Yaakov came into the city, they and all their men, and they fought with the inhabitants of the city of Sarton, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and no man stood up before them.

34 And about two hundred men fled from the city, and they all went and hid themselves in a certain tower in the city, and Yahudah pursued them to the tower and he broke down the tower, which fell upon the men, and they all died.

35 And the sons of Yaakov went up the road of the roof of that tower, and they saw, and behold there was another strong and high tower at a distance in the city, and the top of it reached to the shamayim, and the sons of Yaakov hurried and descended, and went with all their men to that tower, and found it filled with about three hundred men, women and little ones.

36 And the sons of Yaakov smote a great smiting among those men in the tower and they ran away and fled from them.

37 And Shimeon and Levi pursued them, when twelve mighty and valiant men came out to them from the place where they had concealed themselves.

38 And those twelve men maintained a strong battle against Shimeon and Levi, and Shimeon and Levi could not prevail over them, and those valiant men broke the shields of Shimeon and Levi, and one of them struck at Levi's head with his sword, when Levi hastily placed his hand to his head, for he was afraid of the sword, and the sword struck Levi's hand, and it wanted but little to the hand of Levi being cut off.

39 And Levi seized the sword of the valiant man in his hand, and took it forcibly from the man, and with it he struck at the head of the powerful man, and he severed his head.

40 And eleven men approached to fight with Levi, for they saw that one of them was killed, and the sons of Yaakov fought, but the sons of Yaakov could not prevail over them, for those men were very powerful.

41 And the sons of Yaakov seeing that they could not prevail over them, Shimeon gave a loud and tremendous shriek, and the eleven powerful men were stunned at the voice of Shimeon's shrieking.

42 And Yahudah at a distance knew the voice of Shimeon's shouting, and Naphtali and Yahudah ran with their shields to Shimeon and Levi, and found them fighting with those powerful men, unable to prevail over them as their shields were broken.

43 And Naphtali saw that the shields of Shimeon and Levi were broken, and he took two shields from his servants and brought them to Shimeon and Levi.

44 And Shimeon, Levi and Yahudah on that day fought all three against the eleven mighty men until the time of sunset, but they could not prevail over them.

45 And this was told to Yaakov, and he was sorely grieved, and he prayed to אלהים, and he and Naphtali his son went against these mighty men.

46 And Yaakov approached and drew his bow, and came near to the mighty men, and slew three of their men with the bow, and the remaining eight turned back, and behold, the war waged against them in the front and rear, and they were greatly afraid for their lives, and could not stand before the sons of Yaakov, and they fled from before them.

47 And in their flight they met Dan and Asher coming toward them, and they suddenly fell upon them, and fought with them, and slew two of them, and Yahudah and his brothers pursued them, and smote the remainder of them, and slew them.

48 And all the sons of Yaakov returned and walked around the city, searching if they could find any men, and they found about twenty young men in a cave in the city, and Gad and Asher smote them all, and Dan and Naphtali lighted upon the rest of the men who had fled and escaped from the second tower, and they smote them all.

49 And the sons of Yaakov smote all the inhabitants of the city of Sarton, but the women and little ones they left in the city and did not slay them.

50 And all the inhabitants of the city of Sarton were powerful men, one of them would pursue a thousand, and two of them would not flee from ten thousand of the rest of men.

51 And the sons of Yaakov slew all the inhabitants of the city of Sarton with the edge of the sword that no man stood up against them and they left the women in the city.

52 And the sons of Yaakov took all the spoil of the city, and captured what they desired, and they took flocks and herds and property from the city, and the sons of Yaakov did to Sarton and its inhabitants as they had done to Chazar and its inhabitants, and they turned and went away.

39 And when the sons of Yaakov went from the city of Sarton, they had gone about two hundred cubits when they met the inhabitants of Tapnach coming toward them, for they went out to fight with them, because they had smitten the melech of Tapnach and all his men.

2 So all that remained in the city of Tapnach came out to fight with the sons of Yaakov, and they thought to take from them the booty and the spoil that they had captured from Chazar and Sarton.

3 And the rest of the men of Tapnach fought with the sons of Yaakov in that place, and the sons of Yaakov smote them, and they fled before them, and they pursued them to the city of Arvelan, and they all fell before the sons of Yaakov.

4 And the sons of Yaakov returned and came to Tapnach, to take away the spoil of Tapnach, and when they came to Tapnach they heard that the people of Arvelan had gone out to meet them to save the spoil of their brothers, and the sons of Yaakov left ten of their men in Tapnach to plunder the city, and they went out toward the people of Arvelan.

5 And the men of Arvelan went out with their wives to fight with the sons of Yaakov, for their wives were experienced in battle, and they went out, about four hundred men and women.

6 And all the sons of Yaakov shouted with a loud voice, and they all ran toward the inhabitants of Arvelan, and with a great and tremendous voice.

7 And the inhabitants of Arvelan heard the noise of the shouting of the sons of Yaakov, and their roaring like the noise of lions and like the roaring of the sea and its waves.

8 And fear and terror possessed their hearts on account of the sons of Yaakov, and they were terribly afraid of them, and they retreated and fled before them into the city, and the sons of Yaakov pursued them to the gate of the city, and they came upon them in the city.

9 And the sons of Yaakov fought with them in the city, and all their women were engaged in slinging against the sons of Yaakov, and the combat was very severe among them the whole of that day until evening.

10 And the sons of Yaakov could not prevail over them, and the sons of Yaakov had almost perished in that battle, and the sons of Yaakov cried to אֶרְאֵל and greatly gained strength toward evening, and the sons of Yaakov smote all the inhabitants of Arvelan by the edge of the sword, men, women and little ones.

11 And also the remainder of the people who had fled from Sarton, the sons of Yaakov smote them in Arvelan, and the sons of Yaakov did to Arvelan and Tapnach as they had done to Chazar and Sarton, and when the women saw that all the men were dead, they went upon the roofs of the city and smote the sons of Yaakov by showering down stones like rain.

12 And the sons of Yaakov hurried and came into the city and seized all the women and smote them with the edge of the sword, and the sons of Yaakov captured all the spoil and booty, flocks and herds and cattle.

13 And the sons of Yaakov did to Machnaymah as they had done to Tapnach, to Chazar and to Shiloh, and they turned from there and went away.

14 And on the fifth day the sons of Yaakov heard that the people of Gaash had gathered against them to battle, because they had slain their melech and their captains, for there had been fourteen captains in the city of Gaash, and the sons of Yaakov had slain them all in the first battle.

15 And the sons of Yaakov that day put on their weapons of war, and they marched to battle against the inhabitants of Gaash, and in Gaash there was a strong and mighty people of the people of the Amorites, and Gaash was the strongest and best fortified city of all the cities of the Amorites, and it had three walls.

16 And the sons of Yaakov came to Gaash and they found the gates of the city locked, and about five hundred men standing at the top of the outer-most wall, and a people numerous as the sand upon the seashore were in ambush for the sons of Yaakov from without the city at the rear of it.

17 And the sons of Yaakov approached to open the gates of the city, and while they were drawing near, behold those who were in ambush at the rear of the city came forth from their places and surrounded the sons of Yaakov.

18 And the sons of Yaakov were enclosed between the people of Gaash, and the battle was both to their front and rear, and all the men that were upon the wall, were casting from the wall upon them, arrows and stones.

19 And Yahudah, seeing that the men of Gaash were getting too heavy for them, gave a most piercing and tremendous shriek and all the men of Gaash were terrified at the voice of Yahudah's cry, and men fell from the wall at his powerful shriek, and all those that were from without and within the city were greatly afraid of their lives.

20 And the sons of Yaakov still came near to break the doors of the city, when the men of Gaash threw stones and arrows upon them from the top of the wall, and made them flee from the gate.

21 And the sons of Yaakov returned against the men of Gaash who were with them from without the city, and they smote them terribly, as striking against gourds, and they could not stand against the sons of Yaakov, for fright and terror had seized them at the shriek of Yahudah.

22 And the sons of Yaakov slew all those men who were without the city, and the sons of Yaakov still drew near to effect an entrance into the city, and to fight under the city walls, but they could not for all the inhabitants of Gaash who remained in the city had surrounded the walls of Gaash in every direction, so that the sons of Yaakov were unable to approach the city to fight with them.

23 And the sons of Yaakov came near to one corner to fight under the wall, the inhabitants of Gaash threw arrows and stones upon them like showers of rain, and they fled from under the wall.

24 And the people of Gaash who were upon the wall, seeing that the sons of Yaakov could not prevail over them from under the wall, reproached the sons of Yaakov in these words, saying,

25 What is the matter with you in the battle that you cannot prevail? Can you then do to the mighty city of Gaash and its inhabitants as you did to the cities of the Amorites that were not so powerful? Surely to those weak ones among us you did those things, and slew them in the entrance of the city, for they had no strength when they were terrified at the sound of your shouting.

26 And will you now then be able to fight in this place? Surely here you will all die, and we will avenge the cause of those cities that you have laid waste.

27 And the inhabitants of Gaash greatly reproached the sons of Yaakov and reviled them with their ahlohim, and continued to cast arrows and stones upon them from the wall.

28 And Yahudah and his brothers heard the words of the inhabitants of Gaash and their anger was greatly roused, and Yahudah was jealous for his אֶלֹהִים in this matter, and he called out and said, O אֶלֹהִים, help, send help to us and our brothers.

29 And he ran at a distance with all his might, with his drawn sword in his hand, and he sprang from the earth and by dint of his strength, mounted the wall, and his sword fell from his hand.

30 And Yahudah shouted upon the wall, and all the men that were upon the wall were terrified, and some of them fell from the wall into the city and died, and those who were yet upon the wall, when they saw Yahudah's strength, they were greatly afraid and fled for their lives into the city for safety.

31 And some were emboldened to fight with Yahudah upon the wall, and they came near to slay him when they saw there was no sword in Yahudah's hand, and they thought of casting him from the wall to his brothers, and twenty men of the city came up to assist them, and they surrounded Yahudah and they all shouted over him, and approached him with drawn swords, and they terrified Yahudah, and Yahudah cried out to his brothers from the wall.

32 And Yaakov and his sons drew the bow from under the wall, and smote three of the men that were upon the top of the wall, and Yahudah continued to cry and he exclaimed, O אֶלֹהִים help us, O אֶלֹהִים deliver us, and he cried out with a loud voice upon the wall, and the cry was heard at a great distance.

33 And after this cry he again repeated to shout, and all the men who surrounded Yahudah on the top of the wall were terrified, and they each threw his sword from his hand at the sound of Yahudah's shouting and his tremor, and fled.

34 And Yahudah took the swords that had fallen from their hands, and Yahudah fought with them and slew twenty of their men upon the wall.

35 And about eighty men and women still ascended the wall from the city and they all surrounded Yahudah, and אַרְאַרִים impressed the fear of Yahudah in their hearts, that they were unable to approach him.

36 And Yaakov and all who were with him drew the bow from under the wall, and they slew ten men upon the wall, and they fell below the wall, before Yaakov and his sons.

37 And the people upon the wall seeing that twenty of their men had fallen, they still ran toward Yahudah with drawn swords, but they could not approach him for they were greatly terrified at Yahudah's strength.

38 And one of their mighty men whose name was Arud approached to strike Yahudah upon the head with his sword, when Yahudah hastily put his shield to his head, and the sword hit the shield, and it was split in two.

39 And this mighty man after he had struck Yahudah ran for his life, at the fear of Yahudah, and his feet slipped upon the wall and he fell among the sons of Yaakov who were below the wall, and the sons of Yaakov smote him and slew him.

40 And Yahudah's head pained him from the blow of the powerful man, and Yahudah had nearly died from it.

41 And Yahudah cried out upon the wall owing to the pain produced by the blow, when Dan heard him, and his anger burned within him, and he also rose up and went at a distance and ran and sprang from the earth and mounted the wall with his wrath-excited strength.

42 And when Dan came upon the wall near to Yahudah all the men upon the wall fled, who had stood against Yahudah, and they went up to the second wall, and they threw arrows and stones upon Dan and Yahudah from the second wall, and endeavored to drive them from the wall.

43 And the arrows and stones struck Dan and Yahudah, and they had nearly been killed upon the wall, and wherever Dan and Yahudah fled from the wall, they were attacked with arrows and stones from the second wall.

44 And Yaakov and his sons were still at the entrance of the city below the first wall, and they were not able to draw their bow against the inhabitants of the city, as they could not be seen by them, being upon the second wall.

45 And Dan and Yahudah when they could no longer bear the stones and arrows that fell upon them from the second wall, they both sprang upon the second wall near the people of the city, and when the people of the city who were upon the second wall saw that Dan and Yahudah had come to them upon the second wall, they all cried out and descended below between the walls.

46 And Yaakov and his sons heard the noise of the shouting from the people of the city, and they were still at the entrance of the city, and they were anxious about Dan and Yahudah who were not seen by them, they being upon the second wall.

47 And Naphtali went up with his wrath-excited might and sprang upon the first wall to see what caused the noise of shouting which they had heard in the city, and Yissacher and Zevulun drew near to break the doors of the city, and they opened the gates of the city and came into the city.

48 And Naphtali leaped from the first wall to the second, and came to assist his brothers, and the inhabitants of Gaash who were upon the wall, seeing that Naphtali was the third who had come up to assist his brothers, they all fled and descended into the city, and Yaakov and all his sons and all their young men came into the city to them.

49 And Yahudah and Dan and Naphtali descended from the wall into the city and pursued the inhabitants of the city, and Shimeon and Levi were from without the city and knew not that the gate was opened, and they went up from there to the wall and came down to their brothers into the city.

50 And the inhabitants of the city had all descended into the city, and the sons of Yaakov came to them in different directions, and the battle waged against them from the front and the rear, and the sons of Yaakov smote them terribly, and slew about twenty thousand of them men and women, not one of them could stand up against the sons of Yaakov.

51 And the blood flowed plentifully in the city, and it was like a brook of mayim, and the blood flowed like a brook to the outer part of the city, and reached the desert of Beth-Chorin.

52 And the people of Beth-Chorin saw at a distance the blood flowing from the city of Gaash, and about seventy men from among them ran to see the blood, and they came to the place where the blood was.

53 And they followed the track of the blood and came to the wall of the city of Gaash, and they saw the blood issue from the city, and they heard the voice of crying from the inhabitants of Gaash, for it ascended to the shamayim, and the blood was continuing to flow abundantly like a brook of mayim.

54 And all the sons of Yaakov were still smiting the inhabitants of Gaash, and were engaged in slaying them till evening, about twenty thousand men and women, and the people of Chorin said, Surely this is the work of the Ivrim, for they are still carrying on war in all the cities of the Amorites.

55 And those people hurried and ran to Beth-Chorin, and each took his weapons of war, and they cried out to all the inhabitants of Beth-Chorin, who also put on their weapons of war to go and fight with the sons of Yaakov.

56 And when the sons of Yaakov had done smiting the inhabitants of Gaash, they walked around the city to strip all the slain, and coming in the innermost part of the city and farther on they met three very powerful men, and there was no sword in their hand.

57 And the sons of Yaakov came up to the place where they were, and the powerful men ran away, and one of them had taken Zevulun, who he saw was a young lad and of short stature, and with his might dashed him to the ground.

58 And Yaakov ran to him with his sword and Yaakov smote him below his loins with the sword, and cut him in two, and the body fell upon Zevulun.

59 And the second one approached and seized Yaakov to fell him to the ground, and Yaakov turned to him and shouted to him, while Shimeon and Levi ran and smote him on the hips with the sword and felled him to the ground.

60 And the powerful man rose up from the ground with wrath-excited might, and Yahudah came to him before he had gained his footing, and struck him upon the head with the sword, and his head was split and he died.

61 And the third powerful man, seeing that his companions were killed, ran from before the sons of Yaakov, and the sons of Yaakov pursued him in the city; and while the powerful man was fleeing he found one of the swords of the inhabitants of the city, and he picked it up and turned to the sons of Yaakov and fought them with that sword.

62 And the powerful man ran to Yahudah to strike him upon the head with the sword, and there was no shield in the hand of Yahudah; and while he was aiming to strike him, Naphtali hastily took his shield and put it to Yahudah's head, and the sword of the powerful man hit the shield of Naphtali and Yahudah escaped the sword.

63 And Shimeon and Levi ran upon the powerful man with their swords and struck at him forcibly with their swords, and the two swords entered the body of the powerful man and divided it in two, length-wise.

64 And the sons of Yaakov smote the three mighty men at that time, together with all the inhabitants of Gaash, and the day was about to decline.

65 And the sons of Yaakov walked around Gaash and took all the spoil of the city, even the little ones and women they did not suffer to live, and the sons of Yaakov did to Gaash as they had done to Sarton and Shiloh.

40 And the sons of Yaakov led away all the spoil of Gaash, and went out of the city by night.

2 They were going out marching toward the castle of Beth-Chorin, and the inhabitants of Beth-Chorin were going to the castle to meet them, and on that night the sons of Yaakov fought with the inhabitants of Beth-Chorin, in the castle of Beth-Chorin.

3 And all the inhabitants of Beth-Chorin were mighty men, one of them would not flee from before a thousand men, and they fought on that night upon the castle, and their shouts were heard on that night from afar, and the earth quaked at their shouting.

4 And all the sons of Yaakov were afraid of those men, as they were not accustomed to fight in the dark, and they were greatly confounded, and the sons of Yaakov cried to אֱלֹהִים, saying, Give help to us O אֱלֹהִים, deliver us that we may not die by the hands of these uncircumcised men.

5 And אֱלֹהִים hearkened to the voice of the sons of Yaakov, and אֱלֹהִים caused great terror and confusion to seize the people of Beth-Chorin, and they fought among themselves the one with the other in the darkness of night, and smote each other in great numbers.

6 And the sons of Yaakov, knowing that אֱלֹהִים had brought a ruach of perverseness among those men, and that they fought each man with his neighbor, went forth from among the bands of the people of Beth-Chorin and went as far as the descent of the castle of Beth-Chorin, and farther, and they tarried there securely with their young men on that night.

7 And the people of Beth-Chorin fought the whole night, one man with his brother, and the other with his neighbor, and they cried out in every direction upon the castle, and their cry was heard at a distance, and the whole earth shook at their voice, for they were powerful above all the people of the earth.

8 And all the inhabitants of the cities of the Kannaim, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites and all the melechim of Kanaan, and also those who were on the other side of the Yarden, heard the noise of the shouting on that night.

9 And they said, Surely these are the battles of the Ivrim who are fighting against the seven cities, who came near to them; and who can stand against those Ivrim?

10 And all the inhabitants of the cities of the Kannaim, and all those who were on the other side of the Yarden, were greatly afraid of the sons of Yaakov, for they said, Behold the same will be done to us as was done to those cities, for who can stand against their mighty strength?

11 And the cries of the Chorinites were very great on that night, and continued to increase; and they smote each other till morning, and numbers of them were killed.

12 And the morning appeared, and all the sons of Yaakov rose up at daybreak and went up to the castle, and they smote those who remained of the Chorinites in a terrible manner, and they were all killed in the castle.

13 And the sixth day appeared, and all the inhabitants of Kanaan saw at a distance all the people of Beth-Chorin lying dead in the castle of Beth-Chorin, and strewed about as the carcasses of lambs and goats.

14 And the sons of Yaakov led all the spoil which they had captured from Gaash and went to Beth-Chorin, and they found the city full of people like the sand of the sea, and they fought with them, and the sons of Yaakov smote them there till evening time.

15 And the sons of Yaakov did to Beth-Chorin as they had done to Gaash and Tapnach, and as they had done to Chazar, to Sarton and to Shiloh.

16 And the sons of Yaakov took with them the spoil of Beth-Chorin and all the spoil of the cities, and on that day they went home to Shechem.

17 And the sons of Yaakov came home to the city of Shechem, and they remained without the city, and they then rested there from the war, and tarried there all night.

18 And all their servants together with all the spoil that they had taken from the cities, they left without the city, and they did not enter the city, for they said,

Perhaps there may be yet more fighting against us, and they may come to besiege us in Shechem.

19 And Yaakov and his sons and their servants remained on that night and the next day in the portion of the field which Yaakov had purchased from Chamor for five shekels, and all that they had captured was with them.

20 And all the booty that the sons of Yaakov had captured was in the portion of the field, immense as the sand upon the seashore.

21 And the inhabitants of the land observed them from afar, and all the inhabitants of the land were afraid of the sons of Yaakov who had done this thing, for no melech from the days of old had ever done the like.

22 And the seven melechim of the Kannaim resolved to make shalom with the sons of Yaakov, for they were greatly afraid for their lives, on account of the sons of Yaakov.

23 And on that day, being the seventh day, Yaphia melech of Hevron sent secretly to the melech of Ai, and to the melech of Gibeon, and to the melech of Shalem, and to the melech of Adulam, and to the melech of Lachish, and to the melech of Chazar, and to all the Canaanitish melechim who were under their subjection, saying,

24 Go up with me, and come to me that we may go to the sons of Yaakov, and I will make shalom with them, and form a treaty with them, lest all your lands be destroyed by the swords of the sons of Yaakov, as they did to Shechem and the cities around it, as you have heard and seen.

25 And when you come to me, do not come with many men, but let every melech bring his three head captains, and every captain bring three of his officers.

26 And come all of you to Hevron, and we will go together to the sons of Yaakov, and supplicate them that they shall form a treaty of shalom with us.

27 And all those melechim did as the melech of Hevron had sent to them, for they were all under his counsel and command, and all the melechim of Kanaan assembled to go to the sons of Yaakov, to make shalom with them; and the sons of Yaakov returned and went to the portion of the field that was in Shechem, for they did not put confidence in the melechim of the land.

28 And the sons of Yaakov returned and remained in the portion of the field ten days, and no one came to make war with them.

29 And when the sons of Yaakov saw that there was no appearance of war, they all assembled and went to the city of Shechem, and the sons of Yaakov remained in Shechem.

30 And at the expiration of forty days, all the melechim of the Amorites assembled from all their places and came to Hevron, to Yaphiya, melech of Hevron.

31 And the number of melechim that came to Hevron, to make shalom with the sons of Yaakov, was twenty-one melechim, and the number of captains that came with them was sixty-nine, and their men were one hundred and eighty-nine, and all these melechim and their men rested by Mount Hevron.

32 And the melech of Hevron went out with his three captains and nine men, and these melechim resolved to go to the sons of Yaakov to make shalom.

33 And they said to the melech of Hevron, Go before us with your men, and speak for us to the sons of Yaakov, and we will come after you and confirm your words, and the melech of Hevron did so.

34 And the sons of Yaakov heard that all the melechim of Kanaan had gathered together and rested in Hevron, and the sons of Yaakov sent four of their servants as spies, saying, Go and spy these melechim, and search and examine their men whether they are few or many, and if they are but few in number, number them all and come back.

35 And the servants of Yaakov went secretly to these melechim, and did as the sons of Yaakov had commanded them, and on that day they came back to the sons of Yaakov, and said to them, We came to those melechim, and they are but few in number, and we numbered them all, and behold, they were two hundred and eighty-eight, melechim and men.

36 And the sons of Yaakov said, They are but few in number, therefore we will not all go out to them; and in the morning the sons of Yaakov rose up and chose sixty two of their men, and ten of the sons of Yaakov went with them; and they put on their weapons of war, for they said, They are coming to make war with us, for they knew not that they were coming to make shalom with them.

37 And the sons of Yaakov went with their servants to the gate of Shechem, toward those melechim, and their abba Yaakov was with them.

38 And when they had come forth, behold, the melech of Hevron and his three captains and nine men with him were coming along the road against the sons of Yaakov, and the sons of Yaakov lifted up their eyes, and saw at a distance Yaphiya, melech of Hevron, with his captains, coming toward them, and the sons of Yaakov took their stand at the place of the gate of Shechem, and did not proceed.

39 And the melech of Hevron continued to advance, he and his captains, until he came near to the sons of Yaakov, and he and his captains bowed down to them to the ground, and the melech of Hevron sat with his captains before Yaakov and his sons.

40 And the sons of Yaakov said to him, What has befallen you, O melech of Hevron? Why have you come to us this day? What do you require from us? And the melech of Hevron said to Yaakov, I beseech you my master, all the melechim of the Kannaim have this day come to make shalom with you.

41 And the sons of Yaakov heard the words of the melech of Hevron, and they would not consent to his proposals, for the sons of Yaakov had no faith in him, for they imagined that the melech of Hevron had spoken deceitfully to them.

42 And the melech of Hevron knew from the words of the sons of Yaakov, that they did not believe his words, and the melech of Hevron approached nearer to Yaakov, and said to him, I beseech you, my master, to be assured that all these melechim have come to you on peaceable terms, for they have not come with all their men, neither did they bring their weapons of war with them, for they have come to seek shalom from my master and his sons.

43 And the sons of Yaakov answered the melech of Hevron, saying, Send you to all these melechim, and if you speak emet to us, let them each come singly before us, and if they come to us unarmed, we shall then know that they seek shalom from us.

44 And Yaphiya, melech of Hevron, sent one of his men to the melechim, and they all came before the sons of Yaakov, and bowed down to them to the ground, and these melechim sat before Yaakov and his sons, and they spoke to them, saying,

45 We have heard all that you did to the melechim of the Amorites with your sword and exceedingly mighty arm, so that no man could stand up before you, and we were afraid of you for the sake of our lives, lest it should befall us as it did to them.

46 So we have come to you to form a treaty of shalom between us, and now therefore contract with us a covenant of shalom and emet, that you will not meddle with us, inasmuch as we have not meddled with you.

47 And the sons of Yaakov knew that they had really come to seek shalom from them, and the sons of Yaakov listened to them, and formed a covenant with them.

48 And the sons of Yaakov swore to them that they would not meddle with them, and all the melechim of the Kannaim swore also to them, and the sons of Yaakov made them tributary from that day forward.

49 And after this all the captains of these melechim came with their men before Yaakov, with presents in their hands for Yaakov and his sons, and they bowed down to him to the ground.

50 And these melechim then urged the sons of Yaakov and begged of them to return all the spoil they had captured from the seven cities of the Amorites, and the sons of Yaakov did so, and they returned all that they had captured, the women, the little ones, the cattle and all the spoil which they had taken, and they sent them off, and they went away each to his city.

51 And all these melechim again bowed down to the sons of Yaakov, and they sent or brought them many gifts in those days, and the sons of Yaakov sent off these melechim and their men, and they went peaceably away from them to their cities, and the sons of Yaakov also returned to their home, to Shechem.

52 And there was shalom from that day forward between the sons of Yaakov and the melechim of the Kannaim, until the children of Yisrael came to inherit the land of Kanaan.

41 And at the turn of the year the sons of Yaakov journeyed from Shechem, and they came to Hevron, to their abba Yitzchak, and they dwelt there, but their flocks and herds they fed daily in Shechem, for there was there in those days tov and fat pasture, and Yaakov and his sons and all their household dwelt in the valley of Hevron.

2 And it was in those days, in that year, being the hundred and sixth year of the life of Yaakov, in the tenth year of Yaakov's coming from Padan-Aram, that Leah the wife of Yaakov died; she was fifty-one years old when she died in Hevron.

3 And Yaakov and his sons buried her in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which is in Hevron, which Avraham had bought from the children of Cheth, for the possession of a burial place.

4 And the sons of Yaakov dwelt with their abba in the valley of Hevron, and all the inhabitants of the land knew their strength and their fame went throughout the land.

5 And Yoseph the son of Yaakov, and his brother Binyamin, the sons of Rachel, the wife of Yaakov, were yet young in those days, and did not go out with their brothers during their battles in all the cities of the Amorites.

6 And when Yoseph saw the strength of his brothers, and their greatness, he praised them and extolled them, but he ranked himself greater than them, and extolled himself above them; and Yaakov, his abba, also loved him more than any of his sons, for he was a son of his old age, and through his love toward him, he made him a coat of many colors.

7 And when Yoseph saw that his abba loved him more than his brothers, he continued to exalt himself above his brothers, and he brought to his abba evil reports concerning them.

8 And the sons of Yaakov seeing the whole of Yoseph's conduct toward them, and that their abba loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak peaceably to him all the days.

9 And Yoseph was seventeen years old, and he was still magnifying himself above his brothers, and thought of raising himself above them.

10 At that time he dreamed a dream, and he came to his brothers and told them his dream, and he said to them, I dreamed a dream, and behold we were all binding sheaves in the field, and my sheaf rose and placed itself upon the ground and your sheaves surrounded it and bowed down to it.

11 And his brothers answered him and said to him, What means this dream that you did dream? Do you imagine in your heart to reign or rule over us?

12 And he still came, and told the thing to his abba Yaakov, and Yaakov kissed Yoseph when he heard these words from his mouth, and Yaakov blessed Yoseph.

13 And when the sons of Yaakov saw that their abba had blessed Yoseph and had kissed him, and that he loved him exceedingly, they became jealous of him and hated him the more.

14 And after this Yoseph dreamed another dream and related the dream to his abba in the presence of his brothers, and Yoseph said to his abba and brothers, Behold I have again dreamed a dream, and behold the sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me.

15 And his abba heard the words of Yoseph and his dream, and seeing that his brothers' hated Yoseph on account of this matter, Yaakov therefore rebuked Yoseph before his brothers on account of this thing, saying, What means this dream that you have dreamed, and this magnifying of yourself before your brothers who are older than you are?

16 Do you imagine in your heart that I and your ema and your eleven brothers will come and bow down to you, that you speak these things?

17 And his brothers were jealous of him on account of his words and dreams, and they continued to hate him, and Yaakov reserved the dreams in his heart.

18 And the sons of Yaakov went one day to feed their abba's flock in Shechem, for they were still herdsmen in those days; and while the sons of Yaakov were that day feeding in Shechem they delayed, and the time of gathering in the cattle was passed, and they had not arrived.

19 And Yaakov saw that his sons were delayed in Shechem, and Yaakov said within himself, Perhaps the people of Shechem have risen up to fight against them, therefore they have delayed coming this day.

20 And Yaakov called Yoseph his son and commanded him, saying, Behold your brothers are feeding in Shechem this day, and behold they have not yet come back; go now therefore and see where they are, and bring me word back concerning the welfare of your brothers and the welfare of the flock.

21 And Yaakov sent his son Yoseph to the valley of Hevron, and Yoseph came for his brothers to Shechem, and could not find them, and Yoseph went about the field which was near Shechem, to see where his brothers had turned, and he missed his road in the wilderness, and knew not which way he should go.

22 And a malach of אִיִּזְרָאֵל found him wandering in the road toward the field, and Yoseph said to the malach of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, I seek my brothers; have you not heard where they are feeding? And the malach of אֶלְעָזָר said to Yoseph, I saw your brothers feeding here, and I heard them say they would go to feed in Dothan.

23 And Yoseph hearkened to the voice of the malach of אֶלְעָזָר, and he went to his brothers in Dothan and he found them in Dothan feeding the flock.

24 And Yoseph advanced to his brothers, and before he had come near to them, they had resolved to slay him.

25 And Shimeon said to his brothers, Behold the man of dreams is coming to us this day, and now therefore come and let us kill him and cast him in one of the pits that are in the wilderness, and when his abba shall seek him from us, we will say an evil beast has devoured him.

26 And Reuven heard the words of his brothers concerning Yoseph, and he said to them, You should not do this thing, for how can we look up to our abba Yaakov? Cast him into this pit to die there, but stretch not forth a hand upon him to spill his blood; and Reuven said this in order to deliver him from their hand, to bring him back to his abba.

27 And when Yoseph came to his brothers he sat before them, and they rose upon him and seized him and smote him to the earth, and stripped the coat of many colors that he had on.

28 And they took him and cast him into a pit, and in the pit there was no mayim, but serpents and scorpions. And Yoseph was afraid of the serpents and scorpions that were in the pit. And Yoseph cried out with a loud voice, and אֶלְעָזָר hid the serpents and scorpions in the sides of the pit, and they did no harm to Yoseph.

29 And Yoseph called out from the pit to his brothers, and said to them, What have I done to you, and in what have I sinned? Why do you not fear אָפּאָר concerning me? Am I not of your bones and flesh, and is not Yaakov your abba, my abba? Why do you do this thing to me this day, and how will you be able to look up to our abba Yaakov?

30 And he continued to cry out and call to his brothers from the pit, and he said, O Yahudah, Shimeon, and Levi, my brothers, lift me up from the place of darkness in which you have placed me, and come this day to have rachamim on me, you children of אָפּאָר, and sons of Yaakov my abba. And if I have sinned against you, are you not the sons of Avraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov? If they saw an orphan they had rachamim over him, or one that was hungry, they gave him bread to eat, or one that was thirsty, they gave him mayim to drink, or one that was naked, and they covered him with garments!

31 And how then will you withhold your pity from your brother, for I am of your flesh and bones, and if I have sinned to you, surely you will do this on account of my abba!

32 And Yoseph spoke these words from the pit, and his brothers could not listen to him, nor incline their ears to the words of Yoseph, and Yoseph was crying and weeping in the pit.

33 And Yoseph said, O that my abba knew, this day, the act that my brothers have done to me, and the words that they have this day spoken to me.

34 And all his brothers heard his cries and weeping in the pit, and his brothers went and removed themselves from the pit, so that they might not hear the cries of Yoseph and his weeping in the pit.

42 And they went and sat on the opposite side, about the distance of a bowshot, and they sat there to eat bread, and while they were eating, they held counsel together what was to be done with him, whether to slay him or to bring him back to his abba.

2 They were holding the counsel, when they lifted up their eyes, and saw, and behold there was a company of Yishmaelites coming at a distance by the road of Gilead, going down to Mitzrayim.

3 And Yahudah said to them, What gain will it be to us if we slay our brother? Perhaps אִרְאֵךְ will require him from us; this then is the counsel proposed concerning him, which you shall do to him: Behold this company of Yishmaelites going down to Mitzrayim,

4 Now therefore, come let us dispose of him to them, and let not our hand be upon him, and they will lead him along with them, and he will be lost among the people of the land, and we will not put him to death with our own hands. And the proposal pleased his brothers and they did according to the word of Yahudah.

5 And while they were discoursing about this matter, and before the company of Yishmaelites had come up to them, seven trading men of Midiyan passed by them, and as they passed they were thirsty, and they lifted up their eyes and saw the pit in which Yoseph was immured, and they looked, and behold every species of bird was upon him.

6 And these Midyanites ran to the pit to drink mayim, for they thought that it contained mayim, and on coming before the pit they heard the voice of Yoseph crying and weeping in the pit, and they looked down into the pit, and they saw and behold there was a youth of comely appearance and well favored.

7 And they called to him and said, Who are you and who brought you here, and who placed you in this pit, in the wilderness? And they all assisted to raise up Yoseph and they drew him out, and brought him up from the pit, and took him and went away on their journey and passed by his brothers.

8 And these said to them, Why do you do this, to take our servant from us and to go away? Surely we placed this youth in the pit because he rebelled against us, and you come and bring him up and lead him away; now then give us back our servant.

9 And the Midyanites answered and said to the sons of Yaakov, Is this your servant, or does this man attend you? Perhaps you are all his servants, for he is more comely and well favored than any of you, and why do you all speak falsely to us?

10 Now therefore we will not listen to your words, nor attend to you, for we found the youth in the pit in the wilderness, and we took him; we will therefore go on.

11 And all the sons of Yaakov approached them and rose up to them and said to them, Give us back our servant, and why will you all die by the edge of the sword? And the Midyanites cried out against them, and they drew their swords, and approached to fight with the sons of Yaakov.

12 And behold Shimeon rose up from his seat against them, and sprang upon the ground and drew his sword and approached the Midyanites and he gave a terrible shout before them, so that his shouting was heard at a distance, and the earth shook at Shimeon's shouting.

13 And the Midyanites were terrified on account of Shimeon and the noise of his shouting, and they fell upon their faces, and were excessively alarmed.

14 And Shimeon said to them, Verily I am Shimeon, the son of Yaakov the Ivri, who have, only with my brother, destroyed the city of Shechem and the cities of the Amorites; so shall אַף־אֵלֶיךָ moreover do to me, that if all your brothers the people of Midiyan, and also the melechim of Kanaan, were to come with you, they could not fight against me.

15 Now therefore give us back the youth whom you have taken, lest I give your flesh to the birds of the skies and the beasts of the earth.

16 And the Midyanites were more afraid of Shimeon, and they approached the sons of Yaakov with terror and fright, and with pathetic words, saying,

17 Surely you have said that the young man is your servant, and that he rebelled against you, and therefore you placed him in the pit; what then will you do with a servant who rebels against his master? Now therefore sell him to us, and we will give you all that you require for him; and אֶרְאֵל was pleased to do this in order that the sons of Yaakov should not slay their brother.

18 And the Midyanites saw that Yoseph was of a comely appearance and well favored; they desired him in their hearts and were urgent to purchase him from his brothers.

19 And the sons of Yaakov hearkened to the Midyanites and they sold their brother Yoseph to them for twenty pieces of silver, and Reuven their brother was not with them, and the Midyanites took Yoseph and continued their journey to Gilead.

20 They were going along the road, and the Midyanites repented of what they had done, in having purchased the young man, and one said to the other, What is this thing that we have done, in taking this youth from the Ivrim, who is of comely appearance and well favored.

21 Perhaps this youth is stolen from the land of the Ivrim, and why then have we done this thing? And if he should be sought for and found in our hands we shall die through him.

22 Now surely hardy and powerful men have sold him to us, the strength of one of whom you saw this day; perhaps they stole him from his land with their might and with their powerful arm, and have therefore sold him to us for the small value which we gave to them.

23 And while they were this discoursing together, they looked, and behold the company of Yishmaelites which was coming at first, and which the sons of Yaakov saw, was advancing toward the Midyanites, and the Midyanites said to each other, Come let us sell this youth to the company of Yishmaelites who are coming toward us, and we will take for him the little that we gave for him, and we will be delivered from his evil.

24 And they did so, and they reached the Yishmaelites, and the Midyanites sold Yoseph to the Yishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver that they had given for him to his brothers.

25 And the Midyanites went on their road to Gilead, and the Yishmaelites took Yoseph and they let him ride upon one of the camels, and they were leading him to Mitzrayim.

26 And Yoseph heard that the Yishmaelites were proceeding to Mitzrayim, and Yoseph lamented and wept at this thing that he was to be so far removed from the land of Kanaan, from his abba, and he wept bitterly while he was riding upon the camel, and one of their men observed him, and made him go down from the camel and walk on foot, and notwithstanding this Yoseph continued to cry and weep, and he said, O my abba, my abba.

27 And one of the Yishmaelites rose up and smote Yoseph upon the cheek, and still he continued to weep; and Yoseph was fatigued in the road, and was unable to proceed on account of the bitterness of his being, and they all smote him and afflicted him in the road, and they terrified him in order that he might cease from weeping.

28 And אֶלְיָאָז saw the ambition of Yoseph and his trouble, and אֶלְיָאָז brought down upon those men darkness and confusion, and the hand of every one that smote him became withered.

29 And they said to each other, What is this thing that אֶלְיָאָז has done to us in the road? And they knew not that this befell them on account of Yoseph. And the men proceeded on the road, and they passed along the road of Ephrath where Rachel was buried.

30 And Yoseph reached his ema's grave, and Yoseph hurried and ran to his ema's grave, and fell upon the grave and wept.

31 And Yoseph cried aloud upon his ema's grave, and he said, O my ema, my ema, O you who did give me birth, awake now, and rise and see your son, how he has been sold for a slave, and no one to pity him.

32 O rise and see your son, weep with me on account of my troubles, and see the heart of my brothers.

33 Arise my ema, arise, awake from your sleep for me, and direct your battles against my brothers. O how have they stripped me of my coat, and sold me already twice for a slave, and separated me from my abba, and there is no one to pity me.

34 Arouse and lay your cause against them before אֶלְיָאָז, and see whom אֶלְיָאָז will justify in the mishpat, and whom he will condemn.

35 Rise, O my ema, rise, awake from your sleep and see my abba how his being is with me this day, and comfort him and ease his heart.

36 And Yoseph continued to speak these words, and Yoseph cried aloud and wept bitterly upon his ema's grave; and he ceased speaking, and from bitterness of heart he became still as a stone upon the grave.

37 And Yoseph heard a voice speaking to him from beneath the ground, which answered him with bitterness of heart, and with a voice of weeping and praying in these words:

38 My son, my son Yoseph, I have heard the voice of your weeping and the voice of your lamentation; I have seen your tears; I know your troubles, my son, and it grieves me for your sake, and abundant grief is added to my grief.

39 Now therefore my son, Yoseph my son, hope to אֱלֹהִים, and wait for him and do not fear, for אֱלֹהִים is with you, he will deliver you from all trouble.

40 Rise my son, go down to Mitzrayim with your masters, and do not fear, for אֱלֹהִים is with you, my son. And she continued to speak like to these words to Yoseph, and she was still.

41 And Yoseph heard this, and he wondered greatly at this, and he continued to weep; and after this one of the Yishmaelites observed him crying and weeping upon the grave, and his anger was kindled against him, and he drove him from there, and he smote him and cursed him.

42 And Yoseph said to the men, May I find rachamim in your sight to take me back to my abba's house, and he will give you abundance of riches.

43 And they answered him, saying, Are you not a slave, and where is your abba? And if you had an abba you would not already twice have been sold for a slave for so little value; and their anger was still roused against him, and they continued to smite him and to chastise him, and Yoseph wept bitterly.

44 And אֱלֹהִים saw Yoseph's affliction, and אֱלֹהִים again smote these men, and chastised them, and אֱלֹהִים caused darkness to envelope them upon the earth, and the lightning flashed and the thunder roared, and the earth shook at the voice of the thunder and of the mighty wind, and the men were terrified and knew not where they should go.

45 And the beasts and camels stood still, and they led them, but they would not go, they smote them, and they crouched upon the ground; and the men said to each other, What is this that אֱלֹהִים has done to us? What are our transgressions, and what are our sins that this thing has this befallen us?

46 And one of them answered and said to them, Perhaps on account of the sin of afflicting this slave has this thing happened this day to us; now therefore implore him strongly to forgive us, and then we shall know on whose account this evil befalls us, and if אֱלֹהִים shall have rachamim over us, then we shall know that all this comes to us on account of the sin of afflicting this slave.

47 And the men did so, and they supplicated Yoseph and pressed him to forgive them; and they said, We have sinned to אֱלֹהִים and to you, now therefore promise us that you will request of your אֱלֹהִים that he shall put away this death from among us, for we have sinned to Him.

48 And Yoseph did according to their words, and אֱלֹהִים hearkened to Yoseph, and אֱלֹהִים put away the plague which He had inflicted upon those men on account of Yoseph, and the beasts rose up from the ground and they conducted them, and they went on, and the raging storm abated and the earth became tranquilized, and the men proceeded on their journey to go down to Mitzrayim, and the men knew that this evil had befallen them on account of Yoseph.

49 And they said to each other, Behold we know that it was on account of his affliction that this evil befell us. Now therefore why shall we bring this death upon our beings? Let us hold counsel what to do to this slave.

50 And one answered and said, Surely he told us to bring him back to his abba; now therefore come, let us take him back and we will go to the place that he will tell us, and take from his family the price that we gave for him and we will then go away.

51 And one answered again and said, Behold this counsel is very tov, but we cannot do so for the way is very far from us, and we cannot go out of our road.

52 And one more answered and said to them, This is the counsel to be adopted, we will not swerve from it; behold we are this day going to Mitzrayim, and when we shall have come to Mitzrayim, we will sell him there at a high price, and we will be delivered from his evil.

53 And this thing pleased the men and they did so, and they continued their journey to Mitzrayim with Yoseph.

43 And when the sons of Yaakov had sold their brother Yoseph to the Midyanites, their hearts were smitten on account of him, and they repented of their acts, and they sought for him to bring him back, but could not find him.

2 And Reuven returned to the pit in which Yoseph had been put, in order to lift him out, and restore him to his abba, and Reuven stood by the pit, and he heard not a word, and he called out Yoseph! Yoseph! And no one answered or uttered a word.

3 And Reuven said, Yoseph has died through fright, or some serpent has caused his death; and Reuven descended into the pit, and he searched for Yoseph and could not find him in the pit, and he came out again.

4 And Reuven tore his garments and he said, The child is not there, and how shall I reconcile my abba about him if he is dead? And he went to his brothers and found them grieving on account of Yoseph, and counseling together how to reconcile their abba about him, and Reuven said to his brothers, I came to the pit and behold Yoseph was not there, what then shall we say to our abba, for my abba will only seek the lad from me.

5 And his brothers answered him saying, This and this we did, and our hearts afterward smote us on account of this act, and we now sit to seek a pretext how we shall reconcile our abba to it.

6 And Reuven said to them, What is this you have done to bring down the gray hairs of our abba in sorrow to the grave? The thing is not tov that you have done.

7 And Reuven sat with them, and they all rose up and swore to each other not to tell this thing to Yaakov, and they all said, The man who will tell this to our abba or his household, or who will report this to any of the children of the land, we will all rise up against him and slay him with the sword.

8 And the sons of Yaakov feared each other in this matter, from the youngest to the oldest, and no one spoke a word, and they concealed the thing in their hearts.

9 And they afterward sat down to determine and invent something to say to their abba Yaakov concerning all these things.

10 And Yissacher said to them, Here is an advice for you if it seems tov in your eyes to do this thing, take the coat, which belongs to Yoseph, and tear it, and kill a kid of the goats and dip it in its blood.

11 And send it to our abba and when he sees it he will say an evil beast has devoured him, therefore tear his coat and behold his blood will be upon his coat, and by your doing this we shall be free of our abba's murmurings.

12 And Yissacher's advice pleased them, and they hearkened to him and they did according to the word of Yissacher that he had counseled them.

13 And they hurried and took Yoseph's coat and tore it, and they killed a kid of the goats and dipped the coat in the blood of the kid, and then trampled it in the dust, and they sent the coat to their abba Yaakov by the hand of Naphtali, and they commanded him to say these words:

14 We had gathered in the cattle and had come as far as the road to Shechem and farther, when we found this coat upon the road in the wilderness dipped in blood and in dust; now therefore see whether it be your son's coat or not.

15 And Naphtali went and he came to his abba and he gave him the coat, and he spoke to him all the words that his brothers had commanded him.

16 And Yaakov saw Yoseph's coat and he knew it and he fell upon his face to the ground, and became as still as a stone, and he afterward rose up and cried out with a loud and weeping voice and he said, It is the coat of my son Yoseph!

17 And Yaakov hurried and sent one of his servants to his sons, who went to them and found them coming along the road with the flock.

18 And the sons of Yaakov came to their abba about evening, and behold their garments were torn and dust was upon their heads, and they found their abba crying out and weeping with a loud voice.

19 And Yaakov said to his sons, Tell me truly what evil have you this day suddenly brought upon me? And they answered their abba Yaakov, saying, We were coming along this day after the flock had been gathered in, and we came as far as the city of Shechem by the road in the wilderness, and we found this coat filled with blood upon the ground, and we identified it and we sent to you if you could identify it.

20 And Yaakov heard the words of his sons and he cried out with a loud voice, and he said, It is the coat of my son, an evil beast has devoured him; Yoseph is rent in pieces, for I sent him this day to see whether it was well with you and well with the flocks and to bring me word again from you, and he went as I commanded him, and this has happened to him this day while I thought my son was with you.

21 And the sons of Yaakov answered and said, He did not come to us, neither have we seen him from the time of our going out from you until now.

22 And when Yaakov heard their words he again cried out aloud, and he rose up and tore his garments, and he put sackcloth upon his loins, and he wept bitterly and he mourned and lifted up his voice in weeping and exclaimed and said these words, 23 Yoseph my son, O my son Yoseph, I sent you this day after the welfare of your brothers, and behold you have been torn in pieces; through my hand has this happened to my son.

24 It grieves me for you Yoseph my son, it grieves me for you; how sweet were you to me during life, and now how exceedingly bitter is your death to me.

25 O that I had died in your stead Yoseph my son, for it grieves me sadly for you my son, O my son, my son. Yoseph my son, where are you, and where have you been drawn? Arise, arise from your place, and come and see my grief for you, O my son Yoseph.

26 Come now and number the tears gushing from my eyes down my cheeks, and bring them up before אַף־אֵז that His anger may turn from me.

27 O Yoseph my son, how did you fall, by the hand of one by whom no one had fallen from the beginning of the world to this day; for you have been put to death by the smiting of an enemy, inflicted with cruelty, but surely I know that this has happened to you, on account of the multitude of my sins.

28 Arouse now and see how bitter is my trouble for you my son, although I did not rear you, nor fashion you, nor give you breath and being, but it was אֱלֹהִים who formed you and built your bones and covered them with flesh, and breathed in your nostrils the breath of life, and then He gave you to me.

29 Now truly אֱלֹהִים who gave you to me, He has taken you from me, and such then has befallen you 30 And Yaakov continued to speak like to these words concerning Yoseph, and he wept bitterly; he fell to the ground and became still.

31 And all the sons of Yaakov seeing their abba's trouble, they repented of what they had done, and they also wept bitterly.

32 And Yahudah rose up and lifted his abba's head from the ground, and placed it upon his lap, and he wiped his abba's tears from his cheeks, and Yahudah wept an exceeding great weeping, while his abba's head was reclining upon his lap, still as a stone.

33 And the sons of Yaakov saw their abba's trouble, and they lifted up their voices and continued to weep, and Yaakov was yet lying upon the ground still as a stone.

34 And all his sons and his servants and his servant's children rose up and stood around him to comfort him, and he refused to be comforted.

35 And the whole household of Yaakov rose up and mourned a great mourning on account of Yoseph and their abba's trouble, and the intelligence reached Yitzchak, the son of Avraham, the abba of Yaakov, and he wept bitterly on account of Yoseph, he and all his household, and he went from the place where he dwelt in Hevron, and his men with him, and he comforted Yaakov his son, and he refused to be comforted.

36 And after this, Yaakov rose up from the ground, and his tears were running down his cheeks, and he said to his sons, Rise up and take your swords and your bows, and go forth into the field, and seek whether you can find my son's body and bring it to me that I may bury it.

37 Seek also, I beg you, among the beasts and hunt them, and that which shall come the first before you, seize and bring it to me; perhaps אַיִן will this day pity my affliction, and prepare before you that which did tear my son in pieces, and bring it to me, and I will avenge the cause of my son.

38 And his sons did as their abba had commanded them, and they rose up early in the morning, and each took his sword and his bow in his hand, and they went forth into the field to hunt the beasts.

39 And Yaakov was still crying aloud and weeping and walking to and fro in the house, and smiting his hands together, saying, Yoseph my son, Yoseph my son.

40 And the sons of Yaakov went into the wilderness to seize the beasts, and behold a wolf came toward them, and they seized him, and brought him to their abba, and they said to him, This is the first we have found, and we have brought him to you as you did command us, and your son's body we could not find.

41 And Yaakov took the beast from the hands of his sons, and he cried out with a loud and weeping voice, holding the beast in his hand, and he spoke with a bitter heart to the beast, Why did you devour my son Yoseph, and how did you have no fear of the אֱלֹהִים of the earth, or of my trouble for my son Yoseph?

42 And you did devour my son for nothing, because he committed no violence, and did thereby render me culpable on his account, therefore אֱלֹהִים will require him that is persecuted.

43 And אֱלֹהִים opened the mouth of the beast in order to comfort Yaakov with its words, and it answered Yaakov and spoke these words to him, 44 As אֱלֹהִים lives who created us in the earth, and as your being lives, my master, I did not see your son, neither did I tear him to pieces, but from a distant land I also came to seek my son who went from me this day, and I know not whether he be living or dead.

45 And I came this day into the field to seek my son, and your sons found me, and seized me and increased my grief, and have this day brought me before you, and I have now spoken all my words to you.

46 And now therefore, O son of man, I am in your hands, and do to me this day as it may seem tov in your sight, but by the life of אֱלֹהִים who created me, I did not see your son, nor did I tear him to pieces, neither has the flesh of man entered my mouth all the days of my life.

47 And when Yaakov heard the words of the beast he was greatly astonished, and sent forth the beast from his hand, and she went her way.

48 And Yaakov was still crying aloud and weeping for Yoseph day after day, and he mourned for his son many days.

44 And the sons of Yishmael who had bought Yoseph from the Midyanites, who had bought him from his brothers, went to Mitzrayim with Yoseph, and they came upon the borders of Mitzrayim, and when they came near to Mitzrayim, they met four men of the sons of Medan the son of Avraham, who had gone forth from the land of Mitzrayim on their journey.

2 And the Yishmaelites said to them, Do you desire to purchase this slave from us? And they said, Deliver him over to us, and they delivered Yoseph over to them, and they beheld him that he was a very comely youth and they purchased him for twenty shekels.

3 And the Yishmaelites continued their journey to Mitzrayim and the Medanim also returned that day to Mitzrayim, and the Medanim said to each other, Behold we have heard that Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, seek a tov servant who shall stand before him to attend him, and to make him overseer over his house and all belonging to him.

4 Now therefore come let us sell him to him for what we may desire, if he be able to give to us that which we shall require from him.

5 And these Medanim went and came to the house of Potiphar, and said to him, We have heard that you seek a tov servant to attend you, behold we have a servant that will please you, if you can give to us that which we may desire, and we will sell him to you.

6 And Potiphar said, Bring him before me, and I will see him, and if he pleases me I will give to you that which you may require for him.

7 And the Medanim went and brought Yoseph and placed him before Potiphar, and he saw him, and he pleased him exceedingly, and Potiphar said to them, Tell me what you require for this youth?

8 And they said, Four hundred pieces of silver we desire for him, and Potiphar said, I will give it you if you bring me the record of his sale to you, and will tell me his history, for perhaps he may be stolen, for this youth is neither a slave, nor the son of a slave, but I observe in him the appearance of a goodly and handsome person.

9 And the Medanims went and brought to him the Yishmaelites who had sold him to them, and they told him, saying, He is a slave and we sold him to them.

10 And Potiphar heard the words of the Yishmaelites in his giving the silver to the Medanims, and the Medanims took the silver and went on their journey, and the Yishmaelites also returned home.

11 And Potiphar took Yoseph and brought him to his house that he might serve him, and Yoseph found favor in the sight of Potiphar, and he placed confidence in him, and made him overseer over his house, and all that belonged to him he delivered over into his hand.

12 And $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ was with Yoseph and he became a prosperous man, and $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ blessed the house of Potiphar for the sake of Yoseph.

13 And Potiphar left all that he had in the hand of Yoseph, and Yoseph was the one that caused things to come in and go out, and everything was regulated by his wish in the house of Potiphar.

14 And Yoseph was eighteen years old, a youth with beautiful eyes and of comely appearance, and like to him was not in the whole land of Mitzrayim.

15 At that time while he was in his master's house, going in and out of the house and attending his master, Zelicah, his master's wife, lifted up her eyes toward Yoseph and she looked at him, and behold he was a youth comely and well favored.

16 And she coveted his beauty in her heart, and her being was fixed upon Yoseph, and she enticed him day after day, and Zelicah persuaded Yoseph daily, but Yoseph did not lift up his eyes to behold his master's wife.

17 And Zelicah said to him, How goodly are your appearance and form, truly I have looked at all the slaves, and have not seen so beautiful a slave as you are; and Yoseph said to her, Surely he who created me in my ema's womb created all mankind.

18 And she said to him, How beautiful are your eyes, with which you have dazzled all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, men and women; and he said to her, How beautiful they are while we are alive, but should you behold them in the grave, surely you would move away from them.

19 And she said to him, How beautiful and pleasing are all your words. Take now, I ask you, the harp that is in the house and play with your hands and let us hear your words.

20 And he said to her, How beautiful and pleasing are my words when I speak the praise of my אֱלֹהֵי אָבִי and his glory; and she said to him, How very beautiful is the hair of your head, behold the golden comb which is in the house, take it I ask you, and curl the hair of your head.

21 And he said to her, How long will you speak these words? Cease to utter these words to me, and rise and attend to your domestic affairs.

22 And she said to him, There is no one in my house, and there is nothing to attend to but to your words and to your wish; yet notwithstanding all this, she could not bring Yoseph to her, neither did he place his eye upon her, but directed his eyes below to the ground.

23 And Zelicah desired Yoseph in her heart, that he should lie with her, and at the time that Yoseph was sitting in the house doing his work, Zelicah came and sat before him, and she enticed him daily with her discourse to lie with her, or even to look at her, but Yoseph would not listen to her.

24 And she said to him, If you will not do according to my words, I will chastise you with the punishment of death, and put an iron yoke upon you.

25 And Yoseph said to her, Surely אֱלֹהִים who created man looses the fetters of prisoners, and it is He who will deliver me from your prison and from your mishpat.

26 And when she could not prevail over him, to persuade him, and her being still being fixed upon him, her desire threw her into a grievous sickness.

27 And all the women of Mitzrayim came to visit her, and they said to her, Why are you in this declining state? You that lack nothing; surely your husband is a great and esteemed prince in the sight of the melech, should you lack anything of what your heart desires?

28 And Zelicah answered them, saying, This day it shall be made known to you, where this disorder springs in which you see me, and she commanded her maid servants to prepare food for all the women, and she made a banquet for them, and all the women ate in the house of Zelicah.

29 And she gave them knives to peel the citrons to eat them, and she commanded that they should dress Yoseph in costly garments, and that he should appear before them, and Yoseph came before their eyes and all the women looked on Yoseph, and could not take their eyes from off him, and they all cut their hands with the knives that they had in their hands, and all the citrons that were in their hands were filled with blood.

30 And they knew not what they had done but they continued to look at the beauty of Yoseph, and did not turn their eyelids from him.

31 And Zelicah saw what they had done, and she said to them, What is this work that you have done? Behold I gave you citrons to eat and you have all cut your hands.

32 And all the women saw their hands, and behold they were full of blood, and their blood flowed down upon their garments, and they said to her, this slave in your house has overcome us, and we could not turn our eyelids from him on account of his beauty.

33 And she said to them, Surely this happened to you in the moment that you looked at him, and you could not contain yourselves from him; how then can I refrain when he is constantly in my house, and I see him day after day going in and out of my house? How then can I keep from declining or even from perishing on account of this?

34 And they said to her, the words are emet, for who can see this beautiful form in the house and refrain from him? And is he not your slave and attendant in your house, and why do you not tell him that which is in your heart, and allow your being to perish through this matter?

35 And she said to them, I am daily endeavoring to persuade him, and he will not consent to my wishes, and I promised him everything that is tov, and yet I could meet with no return from him; I am therefore in a declining state as you see.

36 And Zelicah became very ill on account of her desire toward Yoseph, and she was desperately lovesick on account of him, and all the people of the house of Zelicah and her husband knew nothing of this matter, that Zelicah was ill on account of her love to Yoseph.

37 And all the people of her house asked her, saying, Why are you ill and declining, and lack nothing? And she said to them, I know not this thing that is daily increasing upon me.

38 And all the women and her friends came daily to see her, and they spoke with her, and she said to them, This can only be through the love of Yoseph; and they said to her, Entice him and seize him secretly, perhaps he may listen to you, and put off this death from you.

39 And Zelicah became worse from her love to Yoseph, and she continued to decline, till she had scarcely enough strength to stand.

40 And on a certain day Yoseph was doing his master's work in the house, and Zelicah came secretly and fell suddenly upon him, and Yoseph rose up against her, and he was more powerful than she, and he brought her down to the ground.

41 And Zelicah wept on account of the desire of her heart toward him, and she supplicated him with weeping, and her tears flowed down her cheeks, and she spoke to him in a voice of supplication and in bitterness of being, saying,

42 Have you ever heard, seen or known of so beautiful a woman as I am, or better than myself, who speak daily to you, fall into a decline through love for you, confer all this honor upon you, and still you will not listen to my voice?

43 And if it be through fear of your master lest he punish you, as the melech lives no harm shall come to you from your master through this thing; now, therefore please listen to me, and consent for the sake of the honor which I have conferred upon you, and put off this death from me, and why should I die for your sake? And she ceased to speak.

44 And Yoseph answered her, saying, Refrain from me, and leave this matter to my master; behold my master knows not what there is with me in the house, for all that belongs to him he has delivered into my hand, and how shall I do these things in my master's house?

45 For he has also greatly honored me in his house, and he has also made me overseer over his house, and he has exalted me, and there is no one greater in this house than I am, and my master has held back nothing from me, excepting you who are his wife, how then can you speak these words to me, and how can I do this great evil and sin to אִתְּךָ and to your husband?

46 Now therefore refrain from me, and speak no more such words as these, for I will not listen to your words. But Zelichah would not listen to Yoseph when he spoke these words to her, but she daily enticed him to listen to her.

47 And it was after this that the brook of Mitzrayim was filled above all its sides, and all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim went forth, and also the melech and princes went forth with timbrels and dances, for it was a great rejoicing in Mitzrayim, and a holiday at the time of the inundation of the sea Sihor, and they went there to rejoice all the day.

48 And when the Mitzrites went out to the river to rejoice, as was their custom, all the people of the house of Potiphar went with them, but Zelichah would not go with them, for she said, I am indisposed, and she remained alone in the house, and no other person was with her in the house.

49 And she rose up and ascended to her temple in the house, and dressed herself in princely garments, and she placed upon her head precious stones of onyx stones, inlaid with silver and gold, and she beautified her face and skin with all sorts of women's purifying liquids, and she perfumed the temple and the house with cassia and frankincense, and she spread myrrh and aloes, and she afterward sat in the entrance of the temple, in the passage of the house, through which Yoseph passed to do his work, and behold Yoseph came from the field, and entered the house to do his master's work.

50 And he came to the place through which he had to pass, and he saw all the work of Zelicah, and he turned back.

51 And Zelicah saw Yoseph turning back from her, and she called out to him, saying What bothers you Yoseph? Come to your work, and behold I will make room for you until you shall have passed to your seat.

52 And Yoseph returned and came to the house, and passed from there to the place of his seat, and he sat down to do his master's work as usual and behold Zelicah came to him and stood before him in princely garments, and the scent from her clothes was spread to a distance.

53 And she hurried and caught hold of Yoseph and his garments, and she said to him, As the melech lives if you will not perform my request you shall die this day, and she hurried and stretched forth her other hand and drew a sword from beneath her garments, and she placed it upon Yoseph's neck, and she said, Rise and perform my request, and if not you die this day.

54 And Yoseph was afraid of her at her doing this thing, and he rose up to flee from her, and she seized the front of his garments, and in the terror of his flight the garment which Zelicah seized was torn, and Yoseph left the garment in the hand of Zelicah, and he fled and got out, for he was in fear.

55 And when Zelicah saw that Yoseph's garment was torn, and that he had left it in her hand, and had fled, she was afraid of her life, lest the report should spread concerning her, and she rose up and acted with cunning, and put off the garments in which she was dressed, and she put on her other garments.

56 And she took Yoseph's garment, and she laid it beside her, and she went and seated herself in the place where she had sat in her illness, before the people of her house had gone out to the river, and she called a young lad who was then in the house, and she ordered him to call the people of the house to her.

57 And when she saw them she said to them with a loud voice and lamentation, See what an Ivri your master has brought to me in the house, for he came this day to lie with me.

58 For when you had gone out he came to the house, and seeing that there was no person in the house, he came to me, and caught hold of me, with intent to lie with me.

59 And I seized his garments and tore them and called out against him with a loud voice, and when I had lifted up my voice he was afraid of his life and left his garment before me, and fled.

60 And the people of her house spoke nothing, but their wrath was very much kindled against Yoseph, and they went to his master and told him the words of his wife.

61 And Potiphar came home enraged, and his wife cried out to him, saying, What is this thing that you have done to me in bringing an Ivri servant into my house, for he came to me this day to sport with me; this did he do to me this day.

62 And Potiphar heard the words of his wife, and he ordered Yoseph to be punished with severe stripes, and they did so to him.

63 And while they were smiting him, Yoseph called out with a loud voice, and he lifted up his eyes to the shamayim, and he said, O אֱלֹהִים אֱלֹהִים, you know that I am innocent of all these things, and why shall I die this day through falsehood, by the hand of these uncircumcised wicked men, whom you know?

64 And while Potiphar's men were beating Yoseph, he continued to cry out and weep, and there was a child there eleven months old, and אִתְּכֶם opened the mouth of the child, and he spoke these words before Potiphar's men, who were smiting Yoseph, saying, 65 What do you want of this man, and why do you do this evil to him? My ema speaks falsely and utters lies; this was what happened.

66 And the child told them accurately all that happened, and all the words of Zelicah to Yoseph day after day did he declare to them.

67 And all the men heard the words of the child and they wondered greatly at the child's words, and the child ceased to speak and became still.

68 And Potiphar was very much ashamed at the words of his son, and he commanded his men not to beat Yoseph any more, and the men ceased beating Yoseph.

69 And Potiphar took Yoseph and ordered him to be brought to mishpat before the priests, who were shophtim belonging to the melech, in order to judge him concerning this affair.

70 And Potiphar and Yoseph came before the priests who were the melech's shophtim, and he said to them, Decide I ask you, what mishpat is due to a servant, for this has he done.

71 And the priests said to Yoseph, Why did you do this thing to your master? And Yoseph answered them, saying, Not so my masters, this was the matter; and Potiphar said to Yoseph, Surely I entrusted in your hands all that belonged to me, and I withheld nothing from you but my wife, and how could you do this evil?

72 And Yoseph answered saying, Not so my master, as אִתְּכֶם lives, and as your being lives, my master, the word that you did hear from your wife is untrue, for this was the affair this day.

73 A year has elapsed to me since I have been in your house; have you seen any iniquity in me, or anything that might cause you to demand my life?

74 And the priests said to Potiphar, Send, we ask you, and let them bring before us Yoseph's torn garment, and let us see the tear in it, and if it shall be that the tear is in front of the garment, then his face must have been opposite to her and she must have caught hold of him, to come to her, and with deceit did your wife do all that she has spoken.

75 And they brought Yoseph's garment before the priests who were shophtim, and they saw and behold the tear was in front of Yoseph, and all the judging priests knew that she had pressed him, and they said, The mishpat of death is not due to this slave for he has done nothing, but his mishpat is, that he be placed in the prison house on account of the report, which through him has gone forth against your wife.

76 And Potiphar heard their words, and he placed him in the prison house, the place where the melech's prisoners are confined, and Yoseph was in the house of confinement twelve years.

77 And notwithstanding this, his master's wife did not turn from him, and she did not cease from speaking to him day after day to listen to her, and at the end of three months Zelicah continued going to Yoseph to the house of confinement day by day, and she enticed him to listen to her, and Zelicah said to Yoseph, How long will you remain in this house? But listen now to my voice, and I will bring you out of this house.

78 And Yoseph answered her, saying, It is better for me to remain in this house than to listen to your words, to sin against אֱלֹהִים; and she said to him, If you will not perform my wish, I will pluck out your eyes, add fetters to your feet, and will deliver you into the hands of them whom you did not know before.

79 And Yoseph answered her and said, Behold the אֱלֹהִים of the whole earth is able to deliver me from all that you can do to me, for he opens the eyes of the blind, and looses those that are bound, and preserves all strangers who are unacquainted with the land.

80 And when Zelicah was unable to persuade Yoseph to listen to her, she left off going to entice him; and Yoseph was still confined in the house of confinement. And Yaakov the abba of Yoseph, and all his brothers who were in the land of Kanaan still mourned and wept in those days on account of Yoseph, for Yaakov refused to be comforted for his son Yoseph, and Yaakov cried aloud, and wept and mourned all those days.

45 And it was at that time in that year, which is the year of Yoseph's going down to Mitzrayim after his brothers had sold him, that Reuven the son of Yaakov went to Timnah and took to him for a wife Eliuram, the daughter of Avi the Canaanite, and he came to her.

2 And Eliuram the wife of Reuven conceived and bare him Hanoch, Palu, Chetzron and Carmi, four sons; and Shimeon his brother took his sister Dinah for a wife and she bare to him Memuel, Yamin, Ohad, Yachin and Zochar, five sons.

3 And he afterward came to Bunah the Canaanitish woman, the same is Bunah whom Shimeon took captive from the city of Shechem, and Bunah was before Dinah and attended upon her, and Shimeon came to her, and she bare to him Shaul.

4 And Yahudah went at that time to Adulam, and he came to a man of Adulam, and his name was Hirah, and Yahudah saw there the daughter of a man from Kanaan, and her name was Aliyath, the daughter of Shua, and he took her, and came to her, and Aliyath bare to Yahudah, Er, Onan and Shiloh; three sons.

5 And Levi and Yissacher went to the land of the east, and they took to themselves for wives the daughters of Yovab the son of Yoktan, the son of Ever; and Yovab the son of Yoktan had two daughters; the name of the zachena was Adinah, and the name of the younger was Aridah.

6 And Levi took Adinah, and Yissacher took Aridah, and they came to the land of Kanaan, to their abba's house, and Adinah bare to Levi, Gershon, Kohath and Merari; three sons.

7 And Aridah bare to Yissacher Tola, Puvah, Iyov and Shomron, four sons; and Dan went to the land of Moav and took for a wife Aphlaeth, the daughter of Chamudan the Moavite, and he brought her to the land of Kanaan.

8 And Aphlaeth was barren, she had no offspring, and אַרְבָּעָא afterward remembered Aphlaeth the wife of Dan, and she conceived and bare a son, and she called his name Chushim.

9 And Gad and Naphtali went to Charan and took from there the daughters of Amuram the son of Uz, the son of Nachor, for wives.

10 And these are the names of the daughters of Amuram; the name of the zachena was Merimah, and the name of the younger Uzith; and Naphtali took Merimah, and Gad took Uzith; and brought them to the land of Kanaan, to their abba's house.

11 And Merimah bare to Naphtali Yachzeel, Guni, Yazer and Shalem, four sons; and Uzith bare to Gad Zephion, Chagi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Arali, seven sons.

12 And Asher went forth and took Adon the daughter of Aphlal, the son of Hadad, the son of Yishmael, for a wife, and he brought her to the land of Kanaan.

13 And Adon the wife of Asher died in those days: she had no offspring; and it was after the death of Adon that Asher went to the other side of the river and took for a wife Chadurah the daughter of Avimael, the son of Ever, the son of Shem.

14 And the young woman was of a comely appearance, and a woman of sense, and she had been the wife of Malkiel the son of Eylam, the son of Shem.

15 And Chadurah bare a daughter to Malkiel, and he called her name Serach, and Malkiel died after this, and Chadurah went and remained in her abba's house.

16 And after the death of the wife at Asher he went and took Chadurah for a wife, and brought her to the land of Kanaan, and Serach her daughter he also brought with them, and she was three years old, and the damsel was brought up in Yaakov's house.

17 And the damsel was of a comely appearance, and she went in the set-apart halachot of the children of Yaakov; she lacked nothing, and אֵלֹהִים gave her wisdom and understanding.

18 And Chadurah the wife of Asher conceived and bare to him Yimnah, Yishvah, Yishvi and Beriyah; four sons.

19 And Zevulun went to Midiyan, and took for a wife Merishah the daughter of Molad, the son of Avida, the son of Midiyan, and brought her to the land of Kanaan.

20 And Merushah bare to Zevulun Sered, Eylon and Yachleel; three sons.

21 And Yaakov sent to Aram, the son of Zova, the son of Terah, and he took for his son Binyamin Mechaliyah the daughter of Aram, and she came to the land of Kanaan to the house of Yaakov; and Binyamin was ten years old when he took Mechaliyah the daughter of Aram for a wife.

22 And Mechaliyah conceived and bare to Binyamin Bela, Becher, Ashvel, Gera and Naaman, five sons; and Binyamin went afterward and took for a wife Arivath, the daughter of Shomron, the son of Avraham, in addition to his first wife, and he was eighteen years old; and Arivath bare to Binyamin Achi, Vosh, Mupim, Chupim, and Ord; five sons.

23 And in those days Yahudah went to the house of Shem and took Tamar the daughter of Eylam, the son of Shem, for a wife for his bechor Er.

24 And Er came to his wife Tamar, and she became his wife, and when he came to her he outwardly destroyed his zera, and his work was evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים slew him.

25 And it was after the death of Er, Yahudah's bechor, that Yahudah said to Onan, go to your brother's wife and marry her as the next of kin, and raise up zera to your brother.

26 And Onan took Tamar for a wife and he came to her, and Onan also did like to the work of his brother, and his work was evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים, and he slew him also.

27 And when Onan died, Yahudah said to Tamar, Remain in your abba's house until my son Shiloh shall have grown up, and Yahudah did no more delight in Tamar, to give her to Shiloh, for he said, Perhaps he will also die like his brothers.

28 And Tamar rose up and went and remained in her abba's house, and Tamar was in her abba's house for some time.

29 And at the turn of the year, Aliyath the wife of Yahudah died; and Yahudah was comforted for his wife, and after the death of Aliyath, Yahudah went up with his friend Hirah to Timnah to shear their sheep.

30 And Tamar heard that Yahudah had gone up to Timnah to shear the sheep, and that Shiloh was grown up, and Yahudah did not delight in her.

31 And Tamar rose up and put off the garments of her widowhood, and she put a vail upon her, and she entirely covered herself, and she went and sat in the public thoroughfare, which is upon the road to Timnah.

32 And Yahudah passed and saw her and took her and he came to her, and she conceived by him, and at the time of being delivered, behold, there were twins in her womb, and he called the name of the first Peretz, and the name of the second Zarah.

46 In those days Yoseph was still confined in the prison house in the land of Mitzrayim.

2 At that time the attendants of Pharaoh were standing before him, the chief of the butlers and the chief of the bakers who belonged to the melech of Mitzrayim.

3 And the butler took wine and placed it before the melech to drink, and the baker placed bread before the melech to eat, and the melech drank of the wine and ate of the bread, he and his servants and ministers that ate at the melech's table.

4 And while they were eating and drinking, the butler and the baker remained there, and Pharaoh's ministers found many flies in the wine, which the butler had brought, and stones of nitre were found in the baker's bread.

5 And the captain of the guard placed Yoseph as an attendant on Pharaoh's officers, and Pharaoh's officers were in confinement one year.

6 And at the end of the year, they both dreamed dreams in one night, in the place of confinement where they were, and in the morning Yoseph came to them to attend upon them as usual, and he saw them, and behold their countenances were dejected and sad.

7 And Yoseph asked them, Why are your countenances sad and dejected this day? And they said to him, We dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it; and Yoseph said to them, Relate, I ask you, your dream to me, and אֲנִי shall give you an answer of shalom as you desire.

8 And the butler related his dream to Yoseph, and he said, I saw in my dream, and behold a large vine was before me, and upon that vine I saw three branches, and the vine speedily blossomed and reached a great height, and its clusters were ripened and became grapes.

9 And I took the grapes and pressed them in a cup, and placed it in Pharaoh's hand and he drank; and Yoseph said to him, The three branches that were upon the vine are three days.

10 Yet within three days, the melech will order you to be brought out and he will restore you to your office, and you shall give the melech his wine to drink as at first when you were his butler; but let me find favor in your sight, that you shall remember me to Pharaoh when it will be well with you, and do chesed to me, and get me brought forth from this prison, for I was stolen away from the land of Kanaan and was sold for a slave to this place.

11 And also that which was told you concerning my master's wife is false, for they placed me in this dungeon for nothing; and the butler answered Yoseph, saying, If the melech deal well with me as at first, as you last interpreted to me, I will do all that you desire, and get you brought out of this dungeon.

12 And the baker, seeing that Yoseph had accurately interpreted the butler's dream, also approached, and related the whole of his dream to Yoseph.

13 And he said to him, In my dream I saw and behold three white baskets upon my head, and I looked, and behold there were in the upper-most basket all manner of baked meats for Pharaoh, and behold the birds were eating them from off my head.

14 And Yoseph said to him, The three baskets that you did see are three days, yet within three days Pharaoh will take off your head, and hang you upon a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from off you, as you saw in your dream.

15 In those days the queen was about to be delivered, and upon that day she bare a son to the melech of Mitzrayim, and they proclaimed that the melech had gotten his bechor and all the people of Mitzrayim together with the officers and servants of Pharaoh rejoiced greatly.

16 And upon the third day of his birth Pharaoh made a feast for his officers and servants, for the hosts of the land of Zoar and of the land of Mitzrayim.

17 And all the people of Mitzrayim and the servants of Pharaoh came to eat and drink with the melech at the feast of his son, and to rejoice at the melech's rejoicing.

18 And all the officers of the melech and his servants were rejoicing at that time for eight days at the feast, and they made merry with all sorts of musical instruments, with timbrels and with dances in the melech's house for eight days.

19 And the butler, to whom Yoseph had interpreted his dream, forgot Yoseph, and he did not mention him to the melech as he had promised, for this thing was from אַרְאֵל in order to punish Yoseph because he had trusted in man.

20 And Yoseph remained after this in the prison house two years, until he had completed twelve years.

47 And Yitzchak the son of Avraham was still living in those days in the land of Kanaan; he was very aged, one hundred and eighty years old, and Esav his son, the brother of Yaakov, was in the land of Edom, and he and his sons had possessions in it among the children of Seir.

2 And Esav heard that his abba's time was drawing near to die, and he and his sons and household came to the land of Kanaan, to his abba's house, and Yaakov and his sons went forth from the place where they dwelt in Hevron, and they all came to their abba Yitzchak, and they found Esav and his sons in the tent.

3 And Yaakov and his sons sat before his abba Yitzchak, and Yaakov was still mourning for his son Yoseph.

4 And Yitzchak said to Yaakov, Bring me here your sons and I will bless them; and Yaakov brought his eleven children before his abba Yitzchak.

5 And Yitzchak placed his hands upon all the sons of Yaakov, and he took hold of them and embraced them, and kissed them one by one, and Yitzchak blessed them on that day, and he said to them, May the אהות of your ahvot bless you and increase your zera like the stars of the shamayim for number.

6 And Yitzchak also blessed the sons of Esav, saying, May אהות cause you to be a dread and a terror to all that will behold you, and to all your enemies.

7 And Yitzchak called Yaakov and his sons, and they all came and sat before Yitzchak, and Yitzchak said to Yaakov, אהות Ahlohim of the whole earth said to me, Unto your zera will I give this land for an inheritance if your children keep my chukim and my halachot, and I will perform to them the oath which I swore to your abba Avraham.

8 Now therefore my son, teach your children and your children's children to fear אֱלֹהֵיךָ, and to go in the tov way which will please אֱלֹהֵיךָ your אֱלֹהֵיךָ, for if you keep the halachot of אֱלֹהֵיךָ and His chukim אֱלֹהֵיךָ will also keep with you His covenant with Avraham, and will do well with you and your zera all the days.

9 And when Yitzchak had finished commanding Yaakov and his children, he gave up the spirit and died, and was gathered to his people.

10 And Yaakov and Esav fell upon the face of their abba Yitzchak, and they wept, and Yitzchak was one hundred and eighty years old when he died in the land of Kanaan, in Hevron, and his sons carried him to the cave of Machpelah, which Avraham had bought from the children of Cheth for a possession of a burial place.

11 And all the melechim of the land of Kanaan went with Yaakov and Esav to bury Yitzchak, and all the melechim of Kanaan showed Yitzchak great honor at his death.

12 And the sons of Yaakov and the sons of Esav went barefooted round about, walking and lamenting until they reached Kiryath-Arba.

13 And Yaakov and Esav buried their abba Yitzchak in the cave of Machpelah, which is in Kiryath-Arba in Hevron, and they buried him with very great honor, as at the funeral of melechim.

14 And Yaakov and his sons, and Esav and his sons, and all the melechim of Kanaan made a great and heavy mourning, and they buried him and mourned for him many days.

15 And at the death of Yitzchak, he left his cattle and his possessions and all belonging to him to his sons; and Esav said to Yaakov, Behold I ask you, all that our abba has left we will divide it in two parts, and I will have the choice, and Yaakov said, We will do so.

16 And Yaakov took all that Yitzchak had left in the land of Kanaan, the cattle and the property, and he placed them in two parts before Esav and his sons, and he said to Esav, Behold all this is before you, choose for yourself the half that you will take.

17 And Yaakov said to Esav, Hear you I ask you what I will speak to you, saying, אלהים Ahlohim of the shamayim and earth spoke to our ahvot Avraham and Yitzchak, saying, Unto your zera will I give this land for an inheritance le-olam-va-ed.

18 Now therefore all that our abba has left is before you, and behold all the land is before you; choose you from them what you desire.

19 If you desire the whole land take it for you and your children le-olam-va-ed, and I will take this riches, and if you desire the riches take it to you, and I will take this land for me and for my children to inherit it le-olam-va-ed.

20 And Nevayoth, the son of Yishmael, was then in the land with his children, and Esav went on that day and consulted with him, saying.

21 This has Yaakov spoken to me, and this has he answered me, now give your advice and we will hear.

22 And Nevayoth said, What is this that Yaakov has spoken to you? Behold all the children of Kanaan are dwelling securely in their land, and Yaakov says he will inherit it with his zera all the days.

23 Go now therefore and take all your abba's riches and leave Yaakov your brother in the land, as he has spoken.

24 And Esav rose up and returned to Yaakov, and did all that Nevayoth the son of Yishmael had advised; and Esav took all the riches that Yitzchak had left, the beings, the beasts, the cattle and the property, and all the riches; he gave nothing to his brother Yaakov; and Yaakov took all the land of Kanaan, from the brook of Mitzrayim to the River Euphrates, and he took it for an everlasting possession, and for his children and for his zera after him le-olam-va-ed.

25 Yaakov also took from his brother Esav the cave of Machpelah, which is in Hevron, which Avraham had bought from Ephron for a possession of a burial place for him and his zera le-olam-va-ed.

26 And Yaakov wrote all these things in the scroll of purchase, and he signed it, and he testified all this with four faithful witnesses.

27 And these are the words which Yaakov wrote in the scroll, saying: The land of Kanaan and all the cities of the Hittites, the Hivites, the Yevusites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, and the Gergashites, all the seven nations from the river of Mitzrayim to the River Euphrates.

28 And the city of Hevron Kiryath-Arba, and the cave which is in it, the whole land did Yaakov buy from his brother Esav for value, for a possession and for an inheritance for his zera after him le-olam-va-ed.

29 And Yaakov took the scroll of purchase and the signature, the command and the statutes and the revealed scroll, and he placed them in an earthen vessel in order that they should remain for a long time, and he delivered them into the hands of his children.

30 Esav took all that his abba had left him after his death from his brother Yaakov, and he took all the property, from man and beast, camel and donkey, ox and lamb, silver and gold, stones and bdellium, and all the riches which had belonged to Yitzchak the son of Avraham; there was nothing left which Esav did not take to himself, from all that Yitzchak had left after his death.

31 And Esav took all this, and he and his children went home to the land of Seir the Horite, away from his brother Yaakov and his children.

32 And Esav had possessions among the children of Seir, and Esav returned not to the land of Kanaan from that day forward.

33 And the whole land of Kanaan became an inheritance to the children of Yisrael for an everlasting inheritance, and Esav with all his children inherited the mountain of Seir.

48 In those days, after the death of Yitzchak, אִתְּכֶם commanded and caused a famine upon the whole earth.

2 At that time Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim was sitting upon his throne in the land of Mitzrayim, and lay in his bed and dreamed dreams, and Pharaoh saw in his dream that he was standing by the side of the river of Mitzrayim.

3 And while he was standing he saw and behold seven fat fleshed and well-favored kine came up out of the river.

4 And seven other kine, lean fleshed and ill favored, came up after them, and the seven ill favored ones swallowed up the well favored ones, and still their appearance was ill as at first.

5 And he awoke, and he slept again and he dreamed a second time, and he saw and behold seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and tov, and seven thin ears blasted with the east wind sprang, up after them, and the thin ears swallowed up the full ones, and Pharaoh awoke out of his dream.

6 And in the morning the melech remembered his dreams, and his ruach was sadly troubled on account of his dreams, and the melech hurried and sent and called for all the magicians of Mitzrayim, and the wise men, and they came and stood before Pharaoh.

7 And the melech said to them, I have dreamed dreams, and there is none to interpret them; and they said to the melech, relate your dreams to your servants and let us hear them.

8 And the melech related his dreams to them, and they all answered and said with one voice to the melech, may the melech live le-olam-va-ed; and this is the interpretation of your dreams.

9 The seven tov kine which you did see denote seven daughters that will be born to you in the latter-days, and the seven kine which you saw come up after them, and swallowed them up, are for a sign that the daughters which will be born to you will all die in the life-time of the melech.

10 And that which you did see in the second dream of seven full tov ears of corn coming up upon one stalk, this is their interpretation, that you will build to yourself in the latter-days seven cities throughout the land of Mitzrayim; and that which you saw of the seven blasted ears of corn springing up after them and swallowing them up while you did behold them with your eyes, is for a sign that the cities which you will build will all be destroyed in the latter-days, in the life-time of the melech.

11 And when they spoke these words the melech did not incline his ear to their words, neither did he fix his heart upon them, for the melech knew in his wisdom that they did not give a proper interpretation of the dreams; and when they had finished speaking before the melech, the melech answered them, saying, What is this thing that you have spoken to me? Surely you have uttered falsehood and spoken lies; therefore now give the proper interpretation of my dreams that you may not die.

12 And the melech commanded after this, and he sent and called again for other wise men, and they came and stood before the melech, and the melech related his dreams to them, and they all answered him according to the first interpretation, and the melech's anger was kindled and he was very angry, and the melech said to them, Surely you speak lies and utter falsehood in what you have said.

13 And the melech commanded that a proclamation should be issued throughout the land of Mitzrayim, saying, It is resolved by the melech and his great men, that any wise man who knows and understands the interpretation of dreams, and will not come this day before the melech, shall die.

14 And the man that will declare to the melech the proper interpretation of his dreams, there shall be given to him all that he will require from the melech. And all the wise men of the land of Mitzrayim came before the melech, together with all the magicians and sorcerers that were in Mitzrayim and in Goshen, in Rameses, in Tachpanches, in Zoar, and in all the places on the borders of Mitzrayim, and they all stood before the melech.

15 And all the nobles and the princes, and the attendants belonging to the melech, came together from all the cities of Mitzrayim, and they all sat before the melech, and the melech related his dreams before the wise men, and the princes, and all that sat before the melech were astonished at the vision.

16 And all the wise men that were before the melech were greatly divided in their interpretation of his dreams; some of them interpreted them to the melech, saying, The seven tov kine are seven melech, who from the melech's issue will be raised over Mitzrayim.

17 And the seven bad kine are seven princes, who will stand up against them in the latter-days and destroy them; and the seven ears of corn are the seven great princes belonging to Mitzrayim, who will fall in the hands of the seven less powerful princes of their enemies, in the wars of our master the melech.

18 And some of them interpreted to the melech in this manner, saying, The seven tov kine are the strong cities of Mitzrayim, and the seven bad kine are the seven nations of the land of Kanaan, who will come against the seven cities of Mitzrayim in the latter-days and destroy them.

19 And that which you saw in the second dream, of seven tov and bad ears of corn, is a sign that the government of Mitzrayim will again return to your zera as at first.

20 And in his reign the people of the cities of Mitzrayim will turn against the seven cities of Kanaan who are stronger than they are, and will destroy them, and the government of Mitzrayim will return to your zera.

21 And some of them said to the melech, This is the interpretation of your dreams; the seven tov kine are seven queens, whom you will take for wives in the latter-days, and the seven bad kine denote that those women will all die in the lifetime of the melech.

22 And the seven tov and bad ears of corn which you did see in the second dream are fourteen children, and it will be in the latter-days that they will stand up and fight among themselves, and seven of them will smite the seven that are more powerful.

23 And some of them said these words to the melech, saying, The seven tov kine denote that seven children will be born to you, and they will slay seven of your children's children in the latter-days; and the seven tov ears of corn which you did see in the second dream, are those princes against whom seven other less powerful princes will fight and destroy them in the latter-days, and avenge your children's cause, and the government will again return to your zera.

24 And the melech heard all the words of the wise men of Mitzrayim and their interpretation of his dreams, and none of them pleased the melech.

25 And the melech knew in his wisdom that they did not altogether speak correctly in all these words, for this was from אִרְאֵל to frustrate the words of the wise men of Mitzrayim, in order that Yoseph might go forth from the house of confinement, and in order that he should become great in Mitzrayim.

26 And the melech saw that none among all the wise men and magicians of Mitzrayim spoke correctly to him, and the melech's wrath was kindled, and his anger burned within him.

27 And the melech commanded that all the wise men and magicians should go out from before him, and they all went out from before the melech with shame and disgrace.

28 And the melech commanded that a proclamation be sent throughout Mitzrayim to slay all the magicians that were in Mitzrayim, and not one of them should be allowed to live.

29 And the captains of the guards belonging to the melech rose up, and each man drew his sword, and they began to smite the magicians of Mitzrayim, and the wise men.

30 And after this Merod, chief butler to the melech, came and bowed down before the melech and sat before him.

31 And the butler said to the melech, May the melech live le-olam-va-ed, and his government be exalted in the land.

32 You were angry with your servant in those days, now two years past, and did place me in the prison, and I was for some time in the prison, I and the chief of the bakers.

33 And there was with us an Ivri servant belonging to the captain of the guard, his name was Yoseph, for his master had been angry with him and placed him in the house of confinement, and he attended us there.

34 And in some time after when we were in the prison, we dreamed dreams in one night, I and the chief of the bakers; we dreamed, each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

35 And we came in the morning and told them to that servant, and he interpreted to us our dreams, to each man according to his dream, did he correctly interpret.

36 And it came to pass as he interpreted to us, so was the event; there fell not to the ground any of his words.

37 And now therefore my master and melech do not slay the people of Mitzrayim for nothing. Behold that slave is still confined in the house by the captain of the guard his master, in the house of confinement.

38 If it pleases the melech let him send for him that he may come before you and he will make known to you, the correct interpretation of the dream that you did dream.

39 And the melech heard the words of the chief butler, and the melech ordered that the wise men of Mitzrayim should not be slain.

40 And the melech ordered his servants to bring Yoseph before him, and the melech said to them,

Go to him and do not terrify him lest he be confused and will not know to speak properly.

41 And the servants of the melech went to Yoseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon, and the melech's servants shaved him, and he changed his prison garment and he came before the melech.

42 And the melech was sitting upon his royal throne in a princely dress girt around with a golden ephod, and the fine gold which was upon it sparkled, and the carbuncle and the ruby and the emerald, together with all the precious stones that were upon the melech's head, dazzled the eye, and Yoseph wondered greatly at the melech.

43 And the throne upon which the melech sat was covered with gold and silver, and with onyx stones, and it had seventy steps.

44 And it was their custom throughout the land of Mitzrayim, that every man who came to speak to the melech, if he was a prince or one that was estimable in the sight of the melech, he ascended to the melech's throne as far as the thirty-first step, and the melech would descend to the thirty-sixth step, and speak with him.

45 If he was one of the common people, he ascended to the third step, and the melech would descend to the fourth and speak to him, and their custom was, moreover, that any man who understood to speak in all the seventy languages, he ascended the seventy steps, and went up and spoke till he reached the melech.

46 And any man who could not complete the seventy, he ascended as many steps as the languages which he knew to speak in.

47 And it was customary in those days in Mitzrayim that no one should reign over them, but who understood to speak in the seventy languages.

48 And when Yoseph came before the melech he bowed down to the ground before the melech, and he ascended to the third step, and the melech sat upon the fourth step and spoke with Yoseph.

49 And the melech said to Yoseph, I dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter to interpret it properly, and I commanded this day that all the magicians of Mitzrayim and the wise men of it, should come before me, and I related my dreams to them, and no one has properly interpreted them to me.

50 And after this, I this day heard concerning you that you are a wise man, and can correctly interpret every dream that you hear.

51 And Yoseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Let Pharaoh relate his dreams that he dreamed; surely the interpretations belong to אֱלֹהִים; and Pharaoh related his dreams to Yoseph, the dream of the kine, and the dream of the ears of corn, and the melech left off speaking.

52 And Yoseph was then clothed with the Ruach of אֱלֹהִים before the melech, and he knew all the things that would befall the melech from that day forward, and he knew the proper interpretation of the melech's dream, and he spoke before the melech.

53 And Yoseph found favor in the sight of the melech, and the melech inclined his ears and his heart, and he heard all the words of Yoseph. And Yoseph said to the melech, Do not imagine that they are two dreams, for it is only one dream, for that which אֱלֹהִים has chosen to do throughout the land he has shown to the melech in his dream, and this is the proper interpretation of your dream:

54 The seven tov kine and ears of corn are seven years, and the seven bad kine and ears of corn are also seven years; it is one dream.

55 Behold the seven years that are coming there will be a great plenty throughout the land, and after that the seven years of famine will follow them, a very grievous famine; and all the plenty will be forgotten from the land, and the famine will consume the inhabitants of the land.

56 The melech dreamed one dream, and the dream was therefore repeated to Pharaoh because the thing is established by אִתָּא, and אִתָּא will shortly bring it to pass.

57 Now therefore I will give you counsel and deliver your being and the beings of the inhabitants of the land from the evil of the famine, that you seek throughout your malchut for a man very discreet and wise, who knows all the affairs of government, and appoint him to superintend over the land of Mitzrayim.

58 And let the man whom you place over Mitzrayim appoint officers under him, that they gather in all the food of the tov years that are coming, and let them lay up corn and deposit it in your appointed stores.

59 And let them keep that food for the seven years of famine, that it may be found for you and your people and your whole land, and that you and your land are not cut off by the famine.

60 Let all the inhabitants of the land be also ordered that they gather in, every man the produce of his field, of all sorts of food, during the seven tov years, and that they place it in their stores, that it may be found for them in the days of the famine and that they may live upon it.

61 This is the proper interpretation of your dream, and this is the counsel given to save your being and the beings of all your subjects.

62 And the melech answered and said to Yoseph, Who says and who knows that your words are correct? And he said to the melech, This shall be a sign for you respecting all my words, that they are emet and that my advice is tov for you.

63 Behold your wife sits this day upon the stool of delivery, and she will bear you a son and you will rejoice with him; when your child shall have gone forth from his ema's womb, your bechor son that has been born these two years back shall die, and you will be comforted in the child that will be born to you this day.

64 And Yoseph finished speaking these words to the melech, and he bowed down to the melech and he went out, and when Yoseph had gone out from the melech's presence, those signs which Yoseph had spoken to the melech came to pass on that day.

65 And the queen bare a son on that day and the melech heard the glad tidings about his son, and he rejoiced, and when the reporter had gone forth from the melech's presence, the melech's servants found the bechor of the melech fallen dead upon the ground.

66 And there was great lamentation and noise in the melech's house, and the melech heard it, and he said, What is the noise and lamentation that I have heard in the house? And they told the melech that his bechor had died; then the melech knew that all Yoseph's words that he had spoken were correct, and then the melech was consoled about his son, by the child that was born to him on that day, as Yoseph had spoken.

49 After these things the melech sent and assembled all his officers and servants, and all the princes and nobles belonging to the melech, and they all came before the melech.

2 And the melech said to them, Behold you have seen and heard all the words of this Ivri man, and all the signs that he declared would come to pass, and not any of his words have fallen to the ground.

3 You know that he has given a proper interpretation of the dream, and it will surely come to pass, now therefore take counsel, and know what you will do and how the land will be delivered from the famine.

4 Seek now and see whether the like can be found, in whose heart there is wisdom and knowledge, and I will appoint him over the land.

5 For you have heard what the Ivri man has advised concerning this to save the land therewith from the famine, and I know that the land will not be delivered from the famine without the advice of the Ivri man, him that advised me.

6 And they all answered the melech and said, The counsel which the Ivri has given concerning this is tov; now therefore, our master and melech, behold the whole land is in your hand, do that which seems tov in your sight.

7 Him whom you choose, and whom you in your wisdom know to be wise and capable of delivering the land with his wisdom, him shall the melech appoint to be under him over the land.

8 And the melech said to all the officers: I have thought that since אִרְיָאֵל has made known to the Ivri man all that he has spoken, there is none so discreet and wise in the whole land as he is; if it seem tov in your sight I will place him over the land, for he will save the land with his wisdom.

9 And all the officers answered the melech and said, But surely it is written in the laws of Mitzrayim, and it should not be violated, that no man shall reign over Mitzrayim, nor be the second to the melech, but one who has knowledge in all the languages of the sons of men.

10 Now therefore our master and melech, behold this Ivri man can only speak the Ivri language, and how then can he be over us the second under government, a man who not even knows our language?

11 Now we ask you send for him, and let him come before you, and prove him in all things, and do as you see fit.

12 And the melech said, It shall be done tomorrow, and the thing that you have spoken is tov; and all the officers came on that day before the melech.

13 And on that night אִיִּצְחָק sent one of his ministering malachim, and he came into the land of Mitzrayim to Yoseph, and the malach of אִיִּצְחָק stood over Yoseph, and behold Yoseph was lying in the bed at night in his master's house in the dungeon, for his master had put him back into the dungeon on account of his wife.

14 And the malach roused him from his sleep, and Yoseph rose up and stood upon his legs, and behold the malach of אִיִּצְחָק was standing opposite him; and the malach of אִיִּצְחָק spoke with Yoseph, and he taught him all the languages of man in that night, and he called his name Yahoseph

15 And the malach of אִיִּצְחָק went from him, and Yoseph returned and lay upon his bed, and Yoseph was astonished at the vision that he saw.

16 And it came to pass in the morning that the melech sent for all his officers and servants, and they all came and sat before the melech, and the melech ordered Yoseph to be brought, and the melech's servants went and brought Yoseph before Pharaoh.

17 And the melech came forth and ascended the steps of the throne, and Yoseph spoke to the melech in all languages, and Yoseph went up to him and spoke to the melech until he arrived before the melech in the seventieth step, and he sat before the melech.

18 And the melech greatly rejoiced on account of Yoseph, and all the melech's officers rejoiced greatly with the melech when they heard all the words of Yoseph.

19 And the thing seemed tov in the sight of the melech and the officers, to appoint Yoseph to be second to the melech over the whole land of Mitzrayim, and the melech spoke to Yoseph, saying,
20 Now you did give me counsel to appoint a wise man over the land of Mitzrayim, in order with his wisdom to save the land from the famine; now therefore, since אִרְאֵךְ has made all this known to you, and all the words which you have spoken, there is not throughout the land a discreet and wise man like you.

21 And your name no more shall be called Yoseph, but Zaphnath-Paaneah shall be your name; you shall be second to me, and according to your word shall be all the affairs of my government, and at your word shall my people go out and come in.

22 Also from under your hand shall my servants and officers receive their salary which is given to them monthly, and to you shall all the people of the land bow down; only in my throne will I be greater than you.

23 And the melech took off his ring from his hand and put it upon the hand of Yoseph, and the melech dressed Yoseph in a princely garment, and he put a golden keter upon his head, and he put a golden chain upon his neck.

24 And the melech commanded his servants, and they made him ride in the second mirkava belonging to the melech, that went opposite of the melech's mirkava, and he caused him to ride upon a great and strong horse from the melech's horses, and to be conducted through the streets of the land of Mitzrayim.

25 And the melech commanded that all those that played upon timbrels, harps and other musical instruments should go forth with Yoseph; one thousand timbrels, one thousand mecholoth, and one thousand nebalim went after him.

26 And five thousand men, with drawn swords glittering in their hands, and they went marching and playing before Yoseph, and twenty thousand of the great men of the melech dressed with girdles of skin covered with gold, marched at the right hand of Yoseph, and twenty thousand at his left, and all the women and damsels went upon the roofs or stood in the streets playing and rejoicing at Yoseph, and gazed at the appearance of Yoseph and at his beauty.

27 And the melech's people went before him and behind him, perfuming the road with frankincense and with cassia, and with all sorts of fine perfume, and scattered myrrh and aloes along the road, and twenty men proclaimed these words before him throughout the land in a loud voice:

28 Do you see this man whom the melech has chosen to be his second? All the affairs of government shall be regulated by him, and he that transgresses his orders, or that does not bow down before him to the ground, shall die, for he rebels against the melech and his second.

29 And when the heralds had ceased proclaiming, all the people of Mitzrayim bowed down to the ground before Yoseph and said, May the melech live, also may his second live; and all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim bowed down along the road, and when the heralds approached them, they bowed down, and they rejoiced with all sorts of timbrels, mechol and nebal before Yoseph.

30 And Yoseph upon his horse lifted up his eyes to the shamayim, and called out and said, He raises the poor man from the dust, He lifts up the needy from the dunghill. O אִתְּךָ Tzevaoth, happy is the man who trusts in you.

31 And Yoseph passed throughout the land of Mitzrayim with Pharaoh's servants and officers, and they showed him the whole land of Mitzrayim and all the melech's treasures.

32 And Yoseph returned and came on that day before Pharaoh, and the melech gave to Yoseph a possession in the land of Mitzrayim, a possession of fields and vineyards, and the melech gave to Yoseph three thousand talents of silver and one thousand talents of gold, and onyx stones and bdellium and many gifts.

33 And on the next day the melech commanded all the people of Mitzrayim to bring to Yoseph offerings and gifts, and that he that violated the command of the melech should die; and they made a high place in the street of the city, and they spread out garments there, and whoever brought anything to Yoseph put it into the high place.

34 And all the people of Mitzrayim cast something into the high place, one man a golden ear-ring, and the other rings and ear-rings, and different vessels of gold and silver work, and onyx stones and bdellium did he cast upon the high place; every one gave something of what he possessed.

35 And Yoseph took all these and placed them in his treasures, and all the officers and nobles belonging to the melech exalted Yoseph, and they gave him many gifts, seeing that the melech had chosen him to be his second.

36 And the melech sent to Potiphera, the son of Ahiram priest of On, and he took his young daughter Osnath and gave her to Yoseph for a wife.

37 And the damsel was very comely, a virgin, one whom man had not known, and Yoseph took her for a wife; and the melech said to Yoseph, I am Pharaoh, and beside you none shall dare to lift up his hand or his foot to regulate my people throughout the land of Mitzrayim.

38 And Yoseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh, and Yoseph went out from before the melech, and he became the melech's second in Mitzrayim.

39 And the melech gave Yoseph a hundred servants to attend him in his house, and Yoseph also sent and purchased many servants and they remained in the house of Yoseph.

40 Yoseph then built for himself a very magnificent house, like the houses of melechim, before the court of the melech's palace, and he made in the house a large temple, very elegant in appearance and convenient for his residence; three years was Yoseph in erecting his house.

41 And Yoseph made for himself a very elegant throne of abundance of gold and silver, and he covered it with onyx stones and bdellium, and he made upon it the likeness of the whole land of Mitzrayim, and the likeness of the river of Mitzrayim that waters the whole land of Mitzrayim; and Yoseph sat securely upon his throne in his house and אִתּוֹ increased Yoseph's wisdom.

42 And all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim and Pharaoh's servants and his princes loved Yoseph exceedingly, for this thing was from אִתּוֹ to Yoseph.

43 And Yoseph had an army that made war, going out in hosts and troops to the number of forty thousand six hundred men, capable of bearing arms to assist the melech and Yoseph against the enemy, besides the melech's officers and his servants and inhabitants of Mitzrayim without number.

44 And Yoseph gave to his mighty men, and to all his host, shields and javelins, and caps and coats of armor and stones for slinging.

50 At that time the children of Tarshish came against the sons of Yishmael, and made war with them, and the children of Tarshish spoiled the Yishmaelites for a long time.

2 And the children of Yishmael were small in number in those days, and they could not prevail over the children of Tarshish, and they were sorely oppressed.

3 And the old men of the Yishmaelites sent a record to the melech of Mitzrayim, saying, Send I beg you to your servants officers and hosts to help us to fight against the children of Tarshish, for we have been consuming away for a long time.

4 And Pharaoh sent Yoseph with the mighty men and host that were with him, and also his mighty men from the melech's house.

5 And they went to the land of Havilah to the children of Yishmael, to assist them against the children of Tarshish, and the children of Yishmael fought with the children of Tarshish, and Yoseph smote the Tarshishites and he subdued all their land, and the children of Yishmael dwell therein to this day.

6 And when the land of Tarshish was subdued, all the Tarshishites ran away, and came on the border of their brothers the children of Yahvan, and Yoseph with all his mighty men and host returned to Mitzrayim, not one man of them missing.

7 And at the turn of the year, in the second year of Yoseph's reigning over Mitzrayim, אֱלֹהִים gave great plenty throughout the land for seven years as Yoseph had spoken, for אֱלֹהִים blessed all the produce of the earth in those days for seven years, and they ate and were greatly satisfied.

8 And Yoseph at that time had officers under him, and they collected all the food of the tov years, and heaped corn year by year, and they placed it in the treasuries of Yoseph.

9 And at any time when they gathered the food Yoseph commanded that they should bring the corn in the ears, and also bring with it some of the soil of the field, that it should not spoil.

10 And Yoseph did according to this year by year, and he heaped up corn like the sand of the sea for abundance, for his stores were immense and could not be numbered for abundance.

11 And also all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim gathered all sorts of food in their stores in great abundance during the seven tov years, but they did not do to it as Yoseph did.

12 And all the food that Yoseph and the Mitzrites had gathered during the seven years of plenty was secured for the land in stores for the seven years of famine, for the support of the whole land.

13 And the inhabitants of Mitzrayim filled each man his store and his concealed place with corn, to be for support during the famine.

14 And Yoseph placed all the food that he had gathered in all the cities of Mitzrayim, and he closed all the stores and placed guards over them.

15 And Yoseph's wife Osnath the daughter of Potiphera bare him two sons, Menasheh and Ephraim, and Yoseph was thirty-four years old when he begat them.

16 And the lads grew up and they went in his halachot and in his Torot, they did not deviate from the halacha which their abba taught them, either to the right or left.

17 And אִרְמֵינִי was with the lads, and they grew up and had understanding and skill in all wisdom and in all the affairs of government, and all the melech's officers and his great men of the inhabitants of Mitzrayim exalted the lads, and they were brought up among the melech's children.

18 And the seven years of plenty that were throughout the land were at an end, and the seven years of famine came after them as Yoseph had spoken, and the famine was throughout the land.

19 And all the people of Mitzrayim saw that the famine had commenced in the land of Mitzrayim, and all the people of Mitzrayim opened their stores of corn for the famine prevailed over them.

20 And they found all the food that was in their stores, full of vermin and not fit to eat, and the famine prevailed throughout the land, and all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim came and cried before Pharaoh, for the famine was heavy upon them.

21 And they said to Pharaoh, Give food to your servants, and why shall we die through hunger before your eyes, even we and our little ones?

22 And Pharaoh answered them, saying, And why do you cry to me? Did not Yoseph command that the corn should be laid up during the seven years of plenty for the years of famine? And why did you not listen to his voice?

23 And the people of Mitzrayim answered the melech, saying, As your being lives, our master, your servants have done all that Yoseph ordered, for your servants also gathered in all the produce of their fields during the seven years of plenty and laid it in the stores to this day.

24 And when the famine prevailed over your servants we opened our stores, and behold all our produce was filled with vermin and was not fit for food.

25 And when the melech heard all that had befallen the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, the melech was greatly afraid on account of the famine, and he was much terrified; and the melech answered the people of Mitzrayim, saying, Since all this has happened to you, go to Yoseph, do whatever he shall say to you, transgress not his commands.

26 And all the people of Mitzrayim went forth and came to Yoseph, and said to him, Give to us food, and why shall we die before you through hunger? For we gathered in our produce during the seven years as you did command, and we put it in store, and this has now befallen us.

27 And when Yoseph heard all the words of the people of Mitzrayim and what had befallen them, Yoseph opened all his stores of the produce and he sold it to the people of Mitzrayim.

28 And the famine prevailed throughout the land, and the famine was in all countries, but in the land of Mitzrayim there was produce for sale.

29 And all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim came to Yoseph to buy corn, for the famine prevailed over them, and all their corn was spoiled, and Yoseph daily sold it to all the people of Mitzrayim.

30 And all the inhabitants of the land of Kanaan and the Philistines, and those beyond the Yarden, and the children of the east and all the cities of the lands far and near heard that there was corn in Mitzrayim, and they all came to Mitzrayim to buy corn, for the famine prevailed over them.

31 And Yoseph opened the stores of corn and placed officers over them, and they daily stood and sold to all that came.

32 And Yoseph knew that his brothers also would come to Mitzrayim to buy corn, for the famine prevailed throughout the earth. And Yoseph commanded all his people that they should cause it to be proclaimed throughout the land of Mitzrayim, saying,

33 It is the pleasure of the melech, of his second and of their great men, that any person who wishes to buy corn in Mitzrayim shall not send his servants to Mitzrayim to purchase, but his sons, and also any Mitzrite or Kanaanite, who shall come from any of the stores from buying corn in Mitzrayim, and shall go and sell it throughout the land, he shall die, for no one shall buy but for the support of his household.

34 And any man leading two or three beasts shall die, for a man shall only lead his own beast.

35 And Yoseph placed guards at the gates of Mitzrayim, and commanded them, saying, Any person who may come to buy corn, allow him not to enter until his name, and the name of his abba, and the name of his abba's abba be written down, and whatever is written by day, send their names to me in the evening that I may know their names.

36 And Yoseph placed officers throughout the land of Mitzrayim, and he commanded them to do all these things.

37 And Yoseph did all these things, and made these laws, in order that he might know when his brothers should come to Mitzrayim to buy corn; and Yoseph's people caused it daily to be proclaimed in Mitzrayim according to these words and chukim that Yoseph had commanded.

38 And all the inhabitants of the east and west country, and of all the earth, heard of the statutes and regulations that Yoseph had enacted in Mitzrayim, and the inhabitants of the extreme parts of the earth came and they bought corn in Mitzrayim day after day, and then went away.

39 And all the officers of Mitzrayim did as Yoseph had commanded, and all that came to Mitzrayim to buy corn, the gate keepers would write their names, and their ahvots' names, and daily bring them in the evening before Yoseph.

51 And Yaakov afterward heard that there was corn in Mitzrayim, and he called to his sons to go to Mitzrayim to buy corn, for upon them also did the famine prevail, and he called to his sons, saying, 2 Behold I hear that there is corn in Mitzrayim, and all the people of the earth go there to purchase, now therefore why will you show yourselves satisfied before the whole earth? Go you also down to Mitzrayim and buy us a little corn among those that come there, that we may not die.

3 And the sons of Yaakov hearkened to the voice of their abba, and they rose up to go down to Mitzrayim in order to buy corn among the rest that came there.

4 And Yaakov their abba commanded them, saying, When you come into the city do not enter together in one gate, on account of the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the sons of Yaakov went forth and they went to Mitzrayim, and the sons of Yaakov did all as their abba had commanded them, and Yaakov did not send Binyamin, for he said, Lest an accident might befall him on the road like his brother; and ten of Yaakov's sons went forth.

6 And while the sons of Yaakov were going on the road, they repented of what they had done to Yoseph, and they spoke to each other, saying, We know that our brother Yoseph went down to Mitzrayim, and now we will seek him where we go, and if we find him we will take him from his master for a ransom, and if not, by force, and we will die for him.

7 And the sons of Yaakov agreed to this thing and strengthened themselves on account of Yoseph, to deliver him from the hand of his master, and the sons of Yaakov went to Mitzrayim; and when they came near to Mitzrayim they separated from each other, and they came through ten gates of Mitzrayim, and the gate keepers wrote their names on that day, and brought them to Yoseph in the evening.

8 And Yoseph read the names from the hand of the gate-keepers of the city, and he found that his brothers had entered at the ten gates of the city, and Yoseph at that time commanded that it should be proclaimed throughout the land of Mitzrayim, saying,

9 Go forth all you store guards, close all the corn stores and let only one remain open, that those who come may purchase from it.

10 And all the officers of Yoseph did so at that time, and they closed all the stores and left only one open.

11 And Yoseph gave the written names of his brothers to him that was set over the open store, and he said to him, Whosoever shall come to you to buy corn, ask his name, and when men of these names shall come before you, seize them and send them, and they did so.

12 And when the sons of Yaakov came into the city, they joined together in the city to seek Yoseph before they bought themselves corn.

13 And they went to the walls of the harlots, and they sought Yoseph in the walls of the harlots for three days, for they thought that Yoseph would come in the walls of the harlots, for Yoseph was very comely and well favored, and the sons of Yaakov sought Yoseph for three days, and they could not find him.

14 And the man who was set over the open store sought for those names that Yoseph had given him, and he did not find them.

15 And he sent to Yoseph, saying, These three days have passed, and those men whose names you did give to me have not come; and Yoseph sent servants to seek the men in all Mitzrayim, and to bring them before Yoseph.

16 And Yoseph's servants went and came into Mitzrayim and could not find them, and went to Goshen and they were not there, and then went to the city of Rameses and could not find them.

17 And Yoseph continued to send sixteen servants to seek his brothers, and they went and spread themselves in the four corners of the city, and four of the servants went into the house of the harlots, and they found the ten men there seeking their brother.

18 And those four men took them and brought them before him, and they bowed down to him to the ground, and Yoseph was sitting upon his throne in his temple, clothed with princely garments, and upon his head was a large keter of gold, and all the mighty men were sitting around him.

19 And the sons of Yaakov saw Yoseph, and his figure and comeliness and dignity of countenance seemed wonderful in their eyes, and they again bowed down to him to the ground.

20 And Yoseph saw his brothers, and he knew them, but they knew him not, for Yoseph was very great in their eyes, therefore they knew him not.

21 And Yoseph spoke to them, saying, From where do you come? And they all answered and said, Your servants have come from the land of Kanaan to buy corn, for the famine prevails throughout the earth, and your servants heard that there was corn in Mitzrayim, so they have come among the other comers to buy corn for their support.

22 And Yoseph answered them, saying, If you have come to purchase as you say, why do you come through ten gates of the city? It can only be that you have come to spy through the whole land.

23 And they all together answered Yoseph, and said, Not so my master, we are right, your servants are not spies, but we have come to buy corn, for your servants are all brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Kanaan, and our abba commanded us, saying, When you come to the city do not enter together at one gate on account of the inhabitants of the land.

24 And Yoseph again answered them and said, That is the thing which I spoke to you, you have come to spy through the land, therefore you all came through ten gates of the city; you have come to see the nakedness of the land.

25 Surely every one that comes to buy corn goes his way, and you are already three days in the land, and what do you do in the walls of harlots in which you have been for these three days? Surely spies do things like these things.

26 And they said to Yoseph, Far be it from our master to speak this, for we are twelve brothers, the sons of our abba Yaakov, in the land of Kanaan, the son of Yitzchak, the son of Avraham, the Ivri, and behold the youngest is with our abba this day in the land of Kanaan, and one is not, for he was lost from us, and we thought perhaps he might be in this land, so we are seeking him throughout the land, and have come even to the houses of harlots to seek him there.

27 And Yoseph said to them, And have you then sought him throughout the earth, that there only remained Mitzrayim for you to seek him in? And what also should your brother do in the houses of harlots, even if he were in Mitzrayim? Have you not said, That you are from the sons of Yitzchak, the son of Avraham, and what shall the sons of Yaakov do then in the houses of harlots?

28 And they said to him, Because we heard that Yishmaelites stole him from us, and it was told to us that they sold him in Mitzrayim, and your servant, our brother, is very comely and well favored, so we thought he would surely be in the houses of harlots, therefore your servants went there to seek him and give ransom for him.

29 And Yoseph still answered them, saying, Surely you speak falsely and utter lies, to say of yourselves that you are the sons of Avraham; as Pharaoh lives you are spies, therefore have you come to the houses of harlots that you should not be known.

30 And Yoseph said to them, And now if you find him, and his master requires of you a great price, will you give it for him? And they said, It shall be given.

31 And he said to them, And if his master will not consent to part with him for a great price, what will you do to him on his account? And they answered him, saying, If he will not give him to us we will slay him, and take our brother and go away.

32 And Yoseph said to them, That is the thing which I have spoken to you; you are spies, for you are come to slay the inhabitants of the land, for we heard that two of your brothers smote all the inhabitants of Shechem, in the land of Kanaan, on account of your sister, and you now come to do the same in Mitzrayim on account of your brother.

33 Only hereby shall I know that you are emet men; if you will send home one from among you to fetch your youngest brother from your abba, and to bring him here to me, and by doing this thing I will know that you are right.

34 And Yoseph called to seventy of his mighty men, and he said to them, Take these men and bring them into the prison.

35 And the mighty men took the ten men, they laid hold of them and put them into the prison, and they were in the prison three days.

36 And on the third day Yoseph had them brought out of the prison, and he said to them, Do this for yourselves if you be emet men, so that you may live, one of your brothers shall be confined in the prison while you go and take home the corn for your household to the land of Kanaan, and fetch your youngest brother, and bring him here to me, that I may know that you are emet men when you do this thing.

37 And Yoseph went out from them and came into the chamber, and wept a great weeping, for his pity was excited for them, and he washed his face, and returned to them again, and he took Shimeon from them and ordered him to be bound, but Shimeon was not willing to allow it, for he was a very powerful man and they could not bind him.

38 And Yoseph called to his mighty men and seventy valiant men came before him with drawn swords in their hands, and the sons of Yaakov were terrified at them.

39 And Yoseph said to them, Seize this man and confine him in prison until his brothers come to him, and Yoseph's valiant men hurried and they all laid hold of Shimeon to bind him, and Shimeon gave a loud and terrible shriek and the cry was heard at a distance.

40 And all the valiant men of Yoseph were terrified at the sound of the shriek, that they fell upon their faces, and they were greatly afraid and fled.

41 And all the men that were with Yoseph fled, for they were greatly afraid of their lives, and only Yoseph and Menasheh his son remained there, and Menasheh the son of Yoseph saw the strength of Shimeon, and he was exceedingly angry.

42 And Menasheh the son of Yoseph rose up to Shimeon, and Menasheh smote Shimeon a heavy blow with his fist against the back of his neck, and Shimeon was stopped in his rage.

43 And Menasheh laid hold of Shimeon and he seized him violently and he bound him and brought him into the house of confinement, and all the sons of Yaakov were astonished at the act of the youth.

44 And Shimeon said to his brothers, None of you must say that this is the smiting of a Mitzrite, but it is the smiting of the house of my abba.

45 And after this Yoseph ordered him to be called who was set over the storehouse, to fill their sacks with corn as much as they could carry, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the road, and this did he to them.

46 And Yoseph commanded them, saying, Take heed lest you transgress my orders to bring your brother as I have told you, and it shall be when you bring your brother here to me, then will I know that you are emet men, and you shall traffic in the land, and I will restore to you your brother, and you shall return in shalom to your abba.

47 And they all answered and said, According as our master speaks so will we do, and they bowed down to him to the ground.

48 And every man lifted his corn upon his donkey, and they went out to go to the land of Kanaan to their abba; and they came to the inn and Levi spread his sack to give provender to his donkey, when he saw and behold his money in full weight was still in his sack.

49 And the man was greatly afraid, and he said to his brothers, My money is restored, and see, it is even in my sack, and the men were greatly afraid, and they said, What is this that אֱלֹהִים has done to us?

50 And they all said, And where is אֱלֹהִים's chesed with our ahvot, with Avraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov, that אֱלֹהִים has this day delivered us into the hands of the melech of Mitzrayim to contrive against us?

51 And Yahudah said to them, Surely we are guilty sinners before אֱלֹהִים our אֱלֹהִים for having sold our brother, our own flesh, and why do you say, Where is אֱלֹהִים's chesed with our ahvot?

52 And Reuven said to them, Said I not to you, do not sin against the lad, and you would not listen to me? Now אֱלֹהִים requires him from us, and how dare you say, Where is אֱלֹהִים's chesed with our ahvot, while you have sinned against אֱלֹהִים?

53 And they tarried overnight in that place, and they rose up early in the morning and laded their donkeys with their corn, and they led them and went on and came to their abba's house in the land of Kanaan.

54 And Yaakov and his household went out to meet his sons, and Yaakov saw and behold their brother Shimeon was not with them, and Yaakov said to his sons, Where is your brother Shimeon, whom I do not see? And his sons told him all that had befallen them in Mitzrayim.

52 And they entered their house, and every man opened his sack and they saw and behold every man's bundle of money was there, at which they and their abba were greatly terrified.

2 And Yaakov said to them, What is this that you have done to me? I sent your brother Yoseph to inquire after your welfare and you said to me. A wild beast did devour him.

3 And Shimeon went with you to buy food and you say the melech of Mitzrayim has confined him in prison, and you wish to take Binyamin to cause his death also, and bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave on account of Binyamin and his brother Yoseph.

4 Now therefore my son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead and he is left alone, and mischief may befall him by the way in which you go, as it befell his brother.

5 And Reuven said to his abba, You shall slay my two sons if I do not bring your son and place him before you; and Yaakov said to his sons, Abide here and do not go down to Mitzrayim, for my son shall not go down with you to Mitzrayim, nor die like his brother.

6 And Yahudah said to them, refrain from him until the corn is finished, and he will then say, Take down your brother, when he will find his own life and the life of his household in danger from the famine.

7 And in those days the famine was sore throughout the land, and all the people of the earth went and came to Mitzrayim to buy food, for the famine prevailed greatly among them, and the sons of Yaakov remained in Kanaan a year and two months until their corn was finished.

8 And it came to pass after their corn was finished, the whole household of Yaakov was pinched with hunger, and all the infants of the sons of Yaakov came together and they approached Yaakov, and they all surrounded him, and they said to him, Give to us bread, and why shall we all perish through hunger in your presence?

9 Yaakov heard the words of his son's children, and he wept a great weeping, and his pity was roused for them, and Yaakov called to his sons and they all came and sat before him.

10 And Yaakov said to them, And have you not seen how your children have been weeping over me this day, saying, Give to us bread, and there is none? Now therefore return and buy for us a little food.

11 And Yahudah answered and said to his abba, If you will send our brother with us we will go down and buy corn for you, and if you will not send him then we will not go down, for surely the melech of Mitzrayim particularly enjoined us, saying, You shall not see my face unless your brother be with you, for the melech of Mitzrayim is a strong and mighty melech, and behold if we shall go to him without our brother we shall all be put to death.

12 Do you not know and have you not heard that this melech is very powerful and wise, and there is none like him in all the earth? Behold we have seen all the melechim of the earth and we have not seen one like that melech, the melech of Mitzrayim; surely among all the melechim of the earth there is none greater than Avimelech melech of the Philistines, yet the melech of Mitzrayim is greater and mightier than he, and Avimelech can only be compared to one of his officers.

13 Abba, you have not seen his palace and his throne, and all his servants standing before him; you have not seen that melech upon his throne in his pomp and royal appearance, dressed in his kingly robes with a large golden keter upon his head; you have not seen the honor and glory which אֱלֹהִים has given to him, for there is none like him in all the earth.

14 Abba, you have not seen the wisdom, the understanding and the knowledge that אֱלֹהִים has given in his heart, nor heard his sweet voice when he spoke to us.

15 We know not, abba, who made him acquainted with our names and all that befell us, yet he asked also about you, saying, Is your abba still living, and is it well with him?

16 You have not seen the affairs of the government of Mitzrayim regulated by him, without inquiring of Pharaoh his master; you have not seen the awe and fear that he impressed upon all the Mitzrites.

17 And also when we went from him, we threatened to do to Mitzrayim like to the rest of the cities of the Amorites, and we were exceedingly angry against all his words which he spoke concerning us as spies, and now when we shall again come before him his terror will fall upon us all, and not one of us will be able to speak to him either a little or a great thing.

18 Now therefore abba, send we beg you the lad with us, and we will go down and buy you food for our support, and not die through hunger. And Yaakov said, Why have you dealt so ill with me to tell the melech you had a brother? What is this thing that you have done to me?

19 And Yahudah said to Yaakov his abba, Give the lad into my care and we will rise up and go down to Mitzrayim and buy corn, and then return, and it shall be when we return if the lad be not with us, then let me bear your blame le-olam-va-ed.

20 Have you seen all our infants weeping over you through hunger and there is no power in your hand to satisfy them? Now let your pity be roused for them and send our brother with us and we will go.

21 For how will אִשְׁרָאֵל's chesed to our ancestors be manifested to you when you say that the melech of Mitzrayim will take away your son? As אִשְׁרָאֵל lives, I will not leave him until I bring him and place him before you; but pray for us to אֱלֹהִים, that he may deal kindly with us, to cause us to be received favorably and kindly before the melech of Mitzrayim and his men, for had we not delayed surely now we had returned a second time with your son.

22 And Yaakov said to his sons, I trust in אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim that He may deliver you and give you favor in the sight of the melech of Mitzrayim, and in the sight of all his men.

23 Now therefore rise up and go to the man, and take for him in your hands a present from what can be obtained in the land and bring it before him, and may the Almighty אֱלֹהִים give you chesed before him that he may send Binyamin and Shimeon your brothers with you.

24 And all the men rose up, and they took their brother Binyamin, and they took in their hands a large present of the best of the land, and they also took a double portion of silver.

25 And Yaakov strictly commanded his sons concerning Binyamin, Saying, Take heed of him in the way in which you are going, and do not separate yourselves from him in the road, neither in Mitzrayim.

26 And Yaakov rose up from his sons and spread forth his hands and he prayed to אֱלֹהִים on account of his sons, saying, O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the shamayim and earth, remember your covenant with our abba Avraham, remember it with my abba Yitzchak and deal kindly with my sons and deliver them not into the hands of the melech of Mitzrayim; do it I pray you O אֱלֹהִים for the sake of your mercies and redeem all my children and rescue them from Mitzrite power, and send them their two brothers.

27 And all the wives of the sons of Yaakov and their children lifted up their eyes to the shamayim and they all wept before אֱלֹהִים, and cried to him to deliver their ahvot from the hand of the melech of Mitzrayim.

28 And Yaakov wrote a record to the melech of Mitzrayim and gave it into the hand of Yahudah and into the hands of his sons for the melech of Mitzrayim, saying,

29 From your servant Yaakov, son of Yitzchak, son of Avraham the Ivri, the prince of אִרְאֵל, to the powerful and wise melech, the revealer of secrets, melech of Mitzrayim, greetings.

30 Be it known to my master the melech of Mitzrayim, the famine was sore upon us in the land of Kanaan, and I sent my sons to you to buy us a little food from you for our support.

31 For my sons surrounded me and I being very old cannot see with my eyes, for my eyes have become very heavy through age, as well as with daily weeping for my son, for Yoseph who was lost from before me, and I commanded my sons that they should not enter the gates of the city when they came to Mitzrayim, on account of the inhabitants of the land.

32 And I also commanded them to go around Mitzrayim to seek for my son Yoseph, perhaps they might find him there, and they did so, and you did consider them as spies of the land.

33 Have we not heard concerning you that you did interpret Pharaoh's dream and did speak truly to him? How then do you not know in your wisdom whether my sons are spies or not?

34 Now therefore, my master and melech, behold I have sent my son before you, as you did speak to my sons; I beseech you to put your eyes upon him until he is returned to me in shalom with his brothers.

35 For do you not know, or have you not heard that which our אִרְאֵל did to Pharaoh when he took my ema Sarah, and what he did to Avimelech melech of the Philistines on account of her, and also what our abba Avraham did to the nine melechim of Eylam, how he smote them all with a few men that were with him?

36 And also what my two sons Shimeon and Levi did to the eight cities of the Amorites, how they destroyed them on account of their sister Dinah?

37 And also on account of their brother Binyamin they consoled themselves for the loss of his brother Yoseph; what will they then do for him when they see the hand of any people prevailing over them, for his sake?

38 Do you not know, O melech of Mitzrayim, that the power of אֱלֹהֵינוּ is with us, and that also אֱלֹהֵינוּ always hears our prayers and forsakes us not all the days?

39 And when my sons told me of your dealings with them, I called not to אֱלֹהֵינוּ on account of you, for then you would have perished with your men before my son Binyamin came before you, but I thought that as Shimeon my son was in your house, perhaps you might deal kindly with him, therefore I did not this thing to you.

40 Now therefore behold Binyamin my son comes to you with my sons, take heed of him and put your eyes upon him, and then will אֱלֹהֵינוּ place his eyes over you and throughout your malchut.

41 Now I have told you all that is in my heart, and behold my sons are coming to you with their brother, examine the face of the whole earth for their sake and send them back in shalom with their brothers.

42 And Yaakov gave the record to his sons into the care of Yahudah to give it to the melech of Mitzrayim.

53 And the sons of Yaakov rose up and took Binyamin and all of the presents, and they went and came to Mitzrayim and they stood before Yoseph.

2 And Yoseph beheld his brother Binyamin with them and he saluted them, and these men came to Yoseph's house.

3 And Yoseph commanded the superintendent of his house to give to his brothers to eat, and he did so to them.

4 And at noon time Yoseph sent for the men to come before him with Binyamin, and the men told the superintendent of Yoseph's house concerning the silver that was returned in their sacks, and he said to them, It will be well with you, fear not, and he brought their brother Shimeon to them.

5 And Shimeon said to his brothers, The master of the Mitzrites has acted very kindly to me, he did not keep me bound, as you saw with your eyes, for when you went out from the city he set me free and dealt kindly with me in his house.

6 And Yahudah took Binyamin by the hand, and they came before Yoseph, and they bowed down to him to the ground.

7 And the men gave the present to Yoseph and they all sat before him, and Yoseph said to them, Is it well with you, is it well with your children, is it well with your aged abba? And they said, It is well, and Yahudah took the record that Yaakov had sent and gave it into the hand of Yoseph.

8 And Yoseph read the letter and knew his abba's writing, and he wished to weep and he went into an inner room and he wept a great weeping; and he went out.

9 And he lifted up his eyes and beheld his brother Binyamin, and he said, Is this your brother of whom you spoke to me? And Binyamin approached Yoseph, and Yoseph placed his hand upon his head and he said to him, May אלהים be gracious to you my son.

10 And when Yoseph saw his brother, the son of his ema, he again wished to weep, and he entered the chamber, and he wept there, and he washed his face, and went out and refrained from weeping, and he said, Prepare food.

11 And Yoseph had a cup from which he drank, and it was of silver beautifully inlaid with onyx stones and bdellium, and Yoseph struck the cup in the sight of his brothers while they were sitting to eat with him.

12 And Yoseph said to the men, I know by this cup that Reuven is the bechor, Shimeon and Levi and Yahudah, Yissacher and Zevulun are children from one ema; seat yourselves to eat according to your births.

13 And he also placed the others according to their births, and he said, I know that this your youngest brother has no brother, and I, like him, have no brother; he shall therefore sit down to eat with me.

14 And Binyamin went up before Yoseph and sat upon the throne, and the men beheld the acts of Yoseph, and they were astonished at them; and the men ate and drank at that time with Yoseph, and he then gave presents to them, and Yoseph gave one gift to Binyamin, and Menasheh and Ephraim saw the acts of their abba, and they also gave presents to him, and Osnath gave him one present, and they were five presents in the hand of Binyamin.

15 And Yoseph brought them out wine to drink, and they would not drink, and they said, From the day on which Yoseph was lost we have not drunk wine, nor eaten any delicacies.

16 And Yoseph swore to them, and he pressed them hard, and they drank plentifully with him on that day, and Yoseph afterward turned to his brother Binyamin to speak with him, and Binyamin was still sitting upon the throne before Yoseph.

17 And Yoseph said to him, Have you begotten any children? And he said, Your servant has ten sons, and these are their names, Bela, Becher, Ashval, Gera, Naaman, Achi, Rosh, Mupim, Chupim, and Ord, and I called their names after my brother whom I have not seen.

18 And he ordered them to bring before him his map of the stars, whereby Yoseph knew all the times, and Yoseph said to Binyamin, I have heard that the Ivrim are acquainted with all wisdom, do you know anything of this?

19 And Binyamin said, Your servant is knowing also in all the wisdom which my abba taught me, and Yoseph said to Binyamin, Look now at this instrument and understand where your brother Yoseph is in Mitzrayim, who you said went down to Mitzrayim.

20 And Binyamin beheld that instrument with the map of the stars of the shamayim, and he was wise and looked therein to know where his brother was, and Binyamin divided the whole land of Mitzrayim into four divisions, and he found that he who was sitting upon the throne before him was his brother Yoseph, and Binyamin wondered greatly, and when Yoseph saw that his brother Binyamin was so much astonished, he said to Binyamin, What have you seen, and why are you astonished?

21 And Binyamin said to Yoseph, I can see by this that Yoseph my brother sits here with me upon the throne, and Yoseph said to him, I am Yoseph your brother, reveal not this thing to your brothers; behold I will send you with them when they go away, and I will command them to be brought back again into the city, and I will take you away from them.

22 And if they dare their lives and fight for you, then shall I know that they have repented of what they did to me, and I will make myself known to them, and if they forsake you when I take you, then shall you remain with me, and I will wrangle with them, and they shall go away, and I will not become known to them.

23 At that time Yoseph commanded his officer to fill their sacks with food, and to put each man's money into his sack, and to put the cup in the sack of Binyamin, and to give them provision for the road, and they did so to them.

24 And on the next day the men rose up early in the morning, and they loaded their donkeys with their corn, and they went forth with Binyamin, and they went to the land of Kanaan with their brother Binyamin.

25 They had not gone far from Mitzrayim when Yoseph commanded him that was set over his house, saying, Rise, pursue these men before they get too far from Mitzrayim, and say to them, Why have you stolen my master's cup?

26 And Yoseph's officer rose up and he reached them, and he spoke to them all the words of Yoseph; and when they heard this thing they became exceedingly angry, and they said, He with whom your master's cup shall be found shall die, and we will also become slaves.

27 And they hurried and each man brought down his sack from his donkey, and they looked in their bags and the cup was found in Binyamin's bag, and they all tore their garments and they returned to the city, and they smote Binyamin in the road, continually smiting him until he came into the city, and they stood before Yoseph.

28 And Yahudah's anger was kindled, and he said, This man has only brought me back to destroy Mitzrayim this day.

29 And the men came to Yoseph's house, and they found Yoseph sitting upon his throne, and all the mighty men standing at his right and left.

30 And Yoseph said to them, What is this act that you have done, that you took away my silver cup and went away? But I know that you took my cup in order to know thereby in what part of the land your brother was.

31 And Yahudah said, What shall we say to our master, what shall we speak and how shall we justify ourselves, אִי אֵנִי has this day found the iniquity of all your servants, therefore has he done this thing to us this day.

32 And Yoseph rose up and caught hold of Binyamin and took him from his brothers with violence, and he came to the house and locked the door at them, and Yoseph commanded him that was set over his house that he should say to them, This says the melech, Go in shalom to your abba, behold I have taken the man in whose hand my cup was found.

54 And when Yahudah saw the dealings of Yoseph with them, Yahudah approached him and broke open the door, and came with his brothers before Yoseph.

2 And Yahudah said to Yoseph, Let it not seem grievous in the sight of my master, may your servant I beg you speak a word before you? And Yoseph said to him, Speak.

3 And Yahudah spoke before Yoseph, and his brothers were there standing before them; and Yahudah said to Yoseph, Surely when we first came to our master to buy food, you did consider us as spies of the land, and we brought Binyamin before you, and you still make sport of us this day.

4 Now therefore let the melech hear my words, and send I beg you our brother that he may go along with us to our abba, lest your being perish this day with all the beings of the inhabitants of Mitzrayim.

5 Do you not know what two of my brothers, Shimeon and Levi, did to the city of Shechem, and to seven cities of the Amorites, on account of our sister Dinah, and also what they would do for the sake of their brother Binyamin?

6 And I with my strength, who am greater and mightier than both of them, come this day upon you and your land if you are unwilling to send our brother.

7 Have you not heard what our אֱלֹהֵינוּ who has chosen us did to Pharaoh on account of Sarah our ema, whom he took away from our abba, that he smote him and his household with heavy plagues, that even to this day the Mitzrites relate this wonder to each other? So will our אֱלֹהֵינוּ do to you on account of Binyamin whom you have this day taken from his abba, and on account of the evils which you this day heaped over us in your land; for our אֱלֹהֵינוּ will remember His covenant with our abba Avraham and bring evil upon you, because you have grieved the being of our abba this day.

8 Now therefore hear my words that I have this day spoken to you, and send our brother that he may go away lest you and the people of your land die by the sword, for you cannot all prevail over me.

9 And Yoseph answered Yahudah, saying, Why have you opened wide your mouth and why do you boast over us, saying, Strength is with you? As Pharaoh lives, if I command all my valiant men to fight with you, surely you and your brothers would sink in the mire.

10 And Yahudah said to Yoseph, Surely it becomes you and your people to fear me; as אִיִּזְרָאֵל lives if I once draw my sword I shall not put it down again until I shall this day have slain all Mitzrayim, and I will commence with you and finish with Pharaoh your master.

11 And Yoseph answered and said to him, Surely strength belongs not alone to you; I am stronger and mightier than you, surely if you draw your sword I will put it to your neck and the necks of all your brothers.

12 And Yahudah said to him, Surely if I this day open my mouth against you I would swallow you up that you be destroyed from off the earth and perish this day from your malchut. And Yoseph said, Surely if you open your mouth I have power and might to close your mouth with a stone until you shall not be able to utter a word; see how many stones are before us, truly I can take a stone, and force it into your mouth and break your jaws.

13 And Yahudah said, אִיִּזְרָאֵל is witness between us, that we have not come here desiring to battle with you; only give us our brother and we will go from you; and Yoseph answered and said, As Pharaoh lives, if all the melechim of Kanaan came together with you, you should not take him from my hand.

14 Now therefore go your way to your abba, and your brother shall be to me for a slave, for he has robbed the melech's house. And Yahudah said, What is it to you or to the character of the melech, surely the melech sends forth from his house, throughout the land, silver and gold either in gifts or expenses, and you still talk about your cup which you did place in our brother's bag and say that he has stolen it from you?

15 אִיִּזְרָאֵל forbid that our brother Binyamin or any of the zera of Avraham should do this thing to steal from you, or from anyone else, whether melech, prince, or any man.

16 Now therefore cease this accusation lest the whole earth hear your words, saying, For a little silver the melech of Mitzrayim wrangled with the men, and he accused them and took their brother for a slave.

17 And Yoseph answered and said, Take to you this cup and go from me and leave your brother for a slave, for it is the mishpat of a thief to be a slave.

18 And Yahudah said, Why are you not ashamed of your words, to leave our brother and to take your cup? Surely if you give us your cup, or a thousand times as much, we will not leave our brother for the silver which is found in the hand of any man, that we will not die over him.

19 And Yoseph answered, And why did you forsake your brother and sell him for twenty pieces of silver until this day, and why then will you not do the same to this your brother?

20 And Yahudah said, אֱלֹהֵינוּ is witness between me and you that we desire not your battles; now therefore give us our brother and we will go from you without quarreling.

21 And Yoseph answered and said, If all the melechim of the land should assemble they will not be able to take your brother from my hand; and Yahudah said, What shall we say to our abba, when he sees that our brother comes not with us, and will grieve over him?

22 And Yoseph answered and said, This is the thing that you shall tell to your abba, saying, The rope has gone after the bucket.

23 And Yahudah said, Surely you are a melech, and why speak you these things, giving a false mishpat? Woe to the melech who is like to you.

24 And Yoseph answered and said, There is no false mishpat in the word that I spoke on account of your brother Yoseph, for all of you sold him to the Midyanites for twenty pieces of silver, and you all denied it to your abba and said to him, An evil beast has devoured him, Yoseph has been torn to pieces.

25 And Yahudah said, Behold the fire of Shem burns in my heart, now I will burn all your land with fire; and Yoseph answered and said, Surely your sister-in-law Tamar, who killed your sons, extinguished the fire of Shechem.

26 And Yahudah said, If I pluck out a single hair from my flesh, I will fill all Mitzrayim with its blood.

27 And Yoseph answered and said, Such is your custom to do as you did to your brother whom you sold, and you dipped his coat in blood and brought it to your abba in order that he might say an evil beast devoured him and here is his blood.

28 And when Yahudah heard this thing he was exceedingly angry and his anger burned within him, and there was before him in that place a stone, the weight of which was about four hundred shekels, and Yahudah's anger was kindled and he took the stone in one hand and cast it to the shamayim and caught it with his left hand.

29 And he placed it afterward under his legs, and he sat upon it with all his strength and the stone was turned into dust from the force of Yahudah.

30 And Yoseph saw the act of Yahudah and he was very much afraid, but he commanded Menasheh his son and he also did with another stone like to the act of Yahudah, and Yahudah said to his brothers, Let not any of you say, this man is an Mitzrite, but by his doing this thing he is of our abba's family.

31 And Yoseph said, Not to you only is strength given, for we are also powerful men, and why will you boast over us all? And Yahudah said to Yoseph, Send I pray you our brother and ruin not your country this day.

32 And Yoseph answered and said to them, Go and tell your abba, an evil beast has devoured him as you said concerning your brother Yoseph.

33 And Yahudah spoke to his brother Naphtali, and he said to him, Make haste, go now and number all the streets of Mitzrayim and come and tell me; and Shimeon said to him, Let not this thing be a trouble to you; now I will go to the mount and take up one large stone from the mount and level it at every one in Mitzrayim, and kill all that are in it.

34 And Yoseph heard all these words that his brothers spoke before him, and they did not know that Yoseph understood them, for they imagined that he knew not how to speak Ivrit.

35 And Yoseph was greatly afraid at the words of his brothers lest they should destroy Mitzrayim, and he commanded his son Menasheh, saying, Go now make haste and gather to me all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, and all the valiant men together, and let them come to me now upon horseback and on foot and with all sorts of musical instruments, and Menasheh went and did so.

36 And Naphtali went as Yahudah had commanded him, for Naphtali was light-footed as one of the swift stags, and he would go upon the ears of corn and they would not break under him.

37 And he went and numbered all the streets of Mitzrayim, and found them to be twelve, and he came hastily and told Yahudah, and Yahudah said to his brothers, Hasten you and put on every man his sword upon his loins and we will come over Mitzrayim, and smite them all, and let not a remnant remain.

38 And Yahudah said, Behold, I will destroy three of the streets with my strength, and you shall each destroy one street; and when Yahudah was speaking this thing, behold the inhabitants of Mitzrayim and all the mighty men came toward them with all sorts of musical instruments and with loud shouting.

39 And their number was five hundred cavalry and ten thousand infantry, and four hundred men who could fight without sword or spear, only with their hands and strength.

40 And all the mighty men came with great storming and shouting, and they all surrounded the sons of Yaakov and terrified them, and the ground quaked at the sound of their shouting.

41 And when the sons of Yaakov saw these troops they were greatly afraid for their lives, and Yoseph did so in order to terrify the sons of Yaakov to become tranquilized.

42 And Yahudah, seeing some of his brothers terrified, said to them, Why are you afraid while the rachamim of אֶרְרָא is with us? And when Yahudah saw all the people of Mitzrayim surrounding them at the command of Yoseph to terrify them, only Yoseph commanded them, saying, Do not touch any of them.

43 Then Yahudah hurried and drew his sword, and uttered a loud and bitter scream, and he smote with his sword, and he sprang upon the ground and he still continued to shout against all the people.

44 And when he did this thing אֶרְרָא caused the terror of Yahudah and his brothers to fall upon the valiant men and all the people that surrounded them.

45 And they all fled at the sound of the shouting, and they were terrified and fell one upon the other, and many of them died as they fell, and they all fled from before Yahudah and his brothers and from before Yoseph.

46 And while they were fleeing, Yahudah and his brothers pursued them to the house of Pharaoh, and they all escaped, and Yahudah again sat before Yoseph and roared at him like a lion, and gave a great and tremendous shriek at him.

47 And the shriek was heard at a distance, and all the inhabitants of Succoth heard it, and all Mitzrayim quaked at the sound of the shriek, and also the walls of Mitzrayim and of the land of Goshen fell in from the shaking of the earth, and Pharaoh also fell from his throne upon the ground, and also all the pregnant women of Mitzrayim and Goshen miscarried when they heard the noise of the shaking, for they were terribly afraid.

48 And Pharaoh sent word, saying, What is this thing that has this day happened in the land of Mitzrayim? And they came and told him all the things from beginning to end, and Pharaoh was alarmed and he wondered and was greatly afraid.

49 And his fright increased when he heard all these things, and he sent to Yoseph, saying, You have brought to me the Ivrim to destroy all Mitzrayim; what will you do with that thievish slave? Send him away and let him go with his brothers, and let us not perish through their evil, even we, you and all Mitzrayim.

50 And if you desire not to do this thing, cast off from you all my valuable things, and go with them to their land, if you delight in it, for they will this day destroy my whole country and slay all my people; even all the women of Mitzrayim have miscarried through their screams; see what they have done merely by their shouting and speaking, moreover if they fight with the sword, they will destroy the land; now therefore choose that which you desire, whether me or the Ivrim, whether Mitzrayim or the land of the Ivrim.

51 And they came and told Yoseph all the words of Pharaoh that he had said concerning him, and Yoseph was greatly afraid at the words of Pharaoh and Yahudah and his brothers were still standing before Yoseph indignant and enraged, and all the sons of Yaakov roared at Yoseph, like the roaring of the sea and its waves.

52 And Yoseph was greatly afraid of his brothers and on account of Pharaoh, and Yoseph sought a pretext to make himself known to his brothers, lest they should destroy all Mitzrayim.

53 And Yoseph commanded his son Menasheh, and Menasheh went and approached Yahudah, and placed his hand upon his shoulder, and the anger of Yahudah was stilled.

54 And Yahudah said to his brothers, Let no one of you say that this is the act of a Mitzrite youth for this is the work of my abba's house.

55 And Yoseph seeing and knowing that Yahudah's anger was stilled, he approached to speak to Yahudah in the language of mildness.

56 And Yoseph said to Yahudah, Surely you speak emet and have this day verified your assertions concerning your strength, and may your אֱלֹהֶיךָ who delights in you, increase your welfare; but tell me truly why from among all your brothers do you wrangle with me on account of the lad, as none of them have spoken one word to me concerning him.

57 And Yahudah answered Yoseph, saying, Surely you must know that I was security for the lad to his abba, saying, If I brought him not to him I should bear his blame le-olam-va-ed.

58 Therefore have I approached you from among all my brothers, for I saw that you were unwilling to allow him to go from you; now therefore may I find rachamim in your sight that you shall send him to go with us, and behold I will remain as a substitute for him, to serve you in whatever you desire, for wherever you shall send me, I will go to serve you with great energy.

59 Send me now to a mighty melech, who has rebelled against you, and you shall know what I will do to him and to his land; although he may have cavalry and infantry or an exceeding mighty people, I will slay them all and bring the melech's head before you.

60 Do you not know or have you not heard that our abba Avraham with his servant Eliezer smote all the melechim of Eylam with their hosts in one night, they left not one remaining? And ever since that day our abba's strength was given to us for an inheritance, for us and our zera le-olam-va-ed.

61 And Yoseph answered and said, You speak emet, and falsehood is not in your mouth, for it was also told to us that the Ivrim have power and that אִיִּזְרָאֵל their אִיִּזְרָאֵל delights much in them, and who then can stand before them?

62 However, on this condition will I send your brother, if you will bring before me his brother the son of his ema, of whom you said that he had gone from you down to Mitzrayim; and it shall come to pass when you bring to me his brother I will take him in his stead, because not one of you was security for him to your abba, and when he shall come to me, I will then send with you his brother for whom you have been security.

63 And Yahudah's anger was kindled against Yoseph when he spoke this thing, and his eyes dropped blood with anger, and he said to his brothers, How does this man this day seek his own destruction and that of all Mitzrayim!

64 And Shimeon answered Yoseph, saying, Did we not tell you at first that we knew not the particular spot to which he went, and whether he is dead or alive, and why does my master speak things like this?

65 And Yoseph observing the countenance of Yahudah discerned that his anger began to kindle when he spoke to him, saying, Bring to me your other brother instead of this brother.

66 And Yoseph said to his brothers, Surely you said that your brother was either dead or lost, now if I should call him this day and he should come before you, would you give him to me instead of his brother?

67 And Yoseph began to speak and call out, Yoseph, Yoseph, come this day before me, and appear to your brothers and sit before them.

68 And when Yoseph spoke this thing before them, they looked each a different way to see from where Yoseph would come before them.

69 And Yoseph observed all their acts, and said to them, Why do you look here and there? I am Yoseph whom you sold to Mitzrayim; now therefore let it not grieve you that you sold me, for as a support during the famine did אֱלֹהִים send me before you.

70 And his brothers were terrified at him when they heard the words of Yoseph, and Yahudah was exceedingly terrified at him.

71 And when Binyamin heard the words of Yoseph he was before them in the inner part of the house, and Binyamin ran to Yoseph his brother, and embraced him and fell upon his neck, and they wept.

72 And when Yoseph's brothers saw that Binyamin had fallen upon his brother's neck and wept with him, they also fell upon Yoseph and embraced him, and they wept a great weeping with Yoseph.

73 And the voice was heard in the house of Yoseph that they were Yoseph's brothers, and it pleased Pharaoh exceedingly, for he was afraid of them lest they should destroy Mitzrayim.

74 And Pharaoh sent his servants to Yoseph to congratulate him concerning his brothers who had come to him, and all the captains of the armies and troops that were in Mitzrayim came to rejoice with Yoseph, and all Mitzrayim rejoiced greatly about Yoseph's brothers.

75 And Pharaoh sent his servants to Yoseph, saying, Tell your brothers to fetch all belonging to them and let them come to me, and I will place them in the best part of the land of Mitzrayim, and they did so.

76 And Yoseph commanded him that was set over his house to bring out to his brothers gifts and garments, and he brought out to them many garments being robes of royalty and many gifts, and Yoseph divided them among his brothers.

77 And he gave to each of his brothers a change of garments of gold and silver, and three hundred pieces of silver, and Yoseph commanded them all to be dressed in these garments, and to be brought before Pharaoh.

78 And Pharaoh seeing that all Yoseph's brothers were valiant men, and of beautiful appearance, he greatly rejoiced.

79 And they afterward went out from the presence of Pharaoh to go to the land of Kanaan, to their abba, and their brother Binyamin was with them.

80 And Yoseph rose up and gave to them eleven mirkavot from Pharaoh, and Yoseph gave to them his mirkava, upon which he rode on the day of his being crowned in Mitzrayim, to fetch his abba to Mitzrayim; and Yoseph sent to all his brothers' children, garments according to their numbers, and a hundred pieces of silver to each of them, and he also sent garments to the wives of his brothers from the garments of the melech's wives, and he sent them.

81 And he gave to each of his brothers ten men to go with them to the land of Kanaan to serve them, to serve their children and all belonging to them in coming to Mitzrayim.

82 And Yoseph sent by the hand of his brother Binyamin ten suits of garments for his ten sons, a portion above the rest of the children of the sons of Yaakov.

83 And he sent to each fifty pieces of silver, and ten mirkavot on the account of Pharaoh, and he sent to his abba ten donkeys laden with all the luxuries of Mitzrayim, and ten female donkeys laden with corn and bread and nourishment for his abba, and to all that were with him as provisions for the road.

84 And he sent to his sister Dinah garments of silver and gold, and frankincense and myrrh, and aloes and women's ornaments in great plenty, and he sent the same from the wives of Pharaoh to the wives of Binyamin.

85 And he gave to all his brothers, also to their wives, all sorts of onyx stones and bdellium, and from all the valuable things among the great people of Mitzrayim, nothing of all the costly things was left but what Yoseph sent of to his abba's household.

86 And he sent his brothers away, and they went, and he sent his brother Binyamin with them.

87 And Yoseph went out with them to accompany them on the road to the borders of Mitzrayim, and he commanded them concerning his abba and his household, to come to Mitzrayim.

88 And he said to them, Do not quarrel on the road, for this thing was from אִתְּכֶם to keep a great people from starvation, for there will be yet five years of famine in the land.

89 And he commanded them, saying, When you come to the land of Kanaan, do not come suddenly before my abba in this affair, but act in your wisdom.

90 And Yoseph ceased to command them, and he turned and went back to Mitzrayim, and the sons of Yaakov went to the land of Kanaan with joy and cheerfulness to their abba Yaakov.

91 And they came to the borders of the land, and they said to each other, What shall we do in this matter before our abba, for if we come suddenly to him and tell him the matter he will be greatly alarmed at our words and will not believe us.

92 And they went along until they came near to their houses, and they found Serach, the daughter of Asher, going forth to meet them, and the damsel was very tov and subtle, and knew how to play upon the harp.

93 And they called to her and she came before them, and she kissed them, and they took her and gave to her a harp, saying, Go now before our abba, and sit before him, and strike upon the harp, and speak these words.

94 And they commanded her to go to their house, and she took the harp and hurried before them, and she came and sat near Yaakov.

95 And she played well and sang, and uttered in the sweetness of her words, Yoseph my uncle is living, and he rules throughout the land of Mitzrayim, and is not dead.

96 And she continued to repeat and utter these words, and Yaakov heard her words and they were agreeable to him.

97 He listened while she repeated them twice and thrice, and joy entered the heart of Yaakov at the sweetness of her words, and the Ruach of אִשְׂרָאֵל was upon him, and he knew all her words to be emet.

98 And Yaakov blessed Serach when she spoke these words before him, and he said to her, My daughter, may death never prevail over you, for you have revived my ruach; only speak yet before me as you have spoken, for you have gladdened me with all your words.

99 And she continued to sing these words, and Yaakov listened and it pleased him, and he rejoiced, and the Ruach of אִשְׁרָאֵל was upon him.

100 While he was yet speaking with her, behold his sons came to him with horses and mirkavot and royal garments and servants running before them.

101 And Yaakov rose up to meet them, and saw his sons dressed in royal garments and he saw all the treasures that Yoseph had sent to them.

102 And they said to him, Be informed that our brother Yoseph is living, and it is he who rules throughout the land of Mitzrayim, and it is he who spoke to us as we told you.

103 And Yaakov heard all the words of his sons, and his heart palpitated at their words, for he could not believe them until he saw all that Yoseph had given them and what he had sent him, and all the signs which Yoseph had spoken to them.

104 And they opened them up before him, and showed him all that Yoseph had sent, they gave to each what Yoseph had sent him, and he knew that they had spoken the emet, and he rejoiced exceedingly on account of his son.

105 And Yaakov said, It is enough for me that my son Yoseph is still living; I will go and see him before I die.

106 And his sons told him all that had befallen them, and Yaakov said, I will go down to Mitzrayim to see my son and his offspring.

107 And Yaakov rose up and put on the garments that Yoseph had sent him, and after he had washed, and shaved his hair, he put upon his head the turban that Yoseph had sent him.

108 And all the people of Yaakov's house and their wives put on the garments which Yoseph had sent to them, and they greatly rejoiced at Yoseph that he was still living and that he was ruling in Mitzrayim, 109 And all the inhabitants of Kanaan heard of this thing, and they came and rejoiced much with Yaakov that he was still living.

110 And Yaakov made a feast for them for three days, and all the melechim of Kanaan and nobles of the land ate and drank and rejoiced in the house of Yaakov.

55 And it came to pass after this that Yaakov said, I will go and see my son in Mitzrayim and will then come back to the land of Kanaan of which אֱלֹהִים had spoken to Avraham, for I cannot leave the land of my birth-place.

2 Behold the Word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, saying, Go down to Mitzrayim with all your household and remain there, fear not to go down to Mitzrayim for I will there make you a great nation.

3 And Yaakov said within himself, I will go and see my son whether the fear of his אֱלֹהִים is yet in his heart, amidst all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yaakov, Fear not about Yoseph, for he still retains his integrity to serve me, as will seem tov in your sight, and Yaakov rejoiced exceedingly concerning his son.

5 At that time Yaakov commanded his sons and household to go to Mitzrayim according to the word of אֱלֹהִים to him, and Yaakov rose up with his sons and all his household, and he went out from the land of Kanaan from Beersheva, with joy and gladness of heart, and they went to the land of Mitzrayim.

6 And it came to pass when they came near Mitzrayim, Yaakov sent Yahudah before him to Yoseph that he might show him a situation in Mitzrayim, and Yahudah did according to the word of his abba, and he hurried and ran and came to Yoseph, and they assigned for them a place in the land of Goshen for all his household, and Yahudah returned and came along the road to his abba.

7 And Yoseph harnessed the mirkava, and he assembled all his mighty men and his servants and all the officers of Mitzrayim in order to go and meet his abba Yaakov, and Yoseph's mandate was proclaimed in Mitzrayim, saying, All that do not go to meet Yaakov shall die.

8 And on the next day Yoseph went forth with all Mitzrayim a great and mighty host, all dressed in garments of fine linen and purple and with instruments of silver and gold and with their instruments of war with them.

9 And they all went to meet Yaakov with all sorts of musical instruments, with drums and timbrels, strewing myrrh and aloes all along the road, and they all went after this fashion, and the earth shook at their shouting.

10 And all the women of Mitzrayim went upon the roofs of Mitzrayim and upon the walls to meet Yaakov, and upon the head of Yoseph was Pharaoh's regal keter, for Pharaoh had sent it to him to put on at the time of his going to meet his abba.

11 And when Yoseph came within fifty cubits of his abba, he got down from the mirkava and he walked toward his abba, and when all the officers of Mitzrayim and her nobles saw that Yoseph had gone on foot toward his abba, they also got down and walked on foot toward Yaakov.

12 And when Yaakov approached the camp of Yoseph, Yaakov observed the camp that was coming toward him with Yoseph, and it gratified him and Yaakov was astonished at it.

13 And Yaakov said to Yahudah, Who is that man whom I see in the camp of Mitzrayim dressed in kingly robes with a very red garment upon him and a royal keter upon his head, who has got down from his mirkava and is coming toward us? And Yahudah answered his abba, saying, He is your son Yoseph the melech; and Yaakov rejoiced in seeing the glory of his son.

14 And Yoseph came near to his abba and he bowed to his abba, and all the men of the camp bowed to the ground with him before Yaakov.

15 And behold Yaakov ran and hurried to his son Yoseph and fell upon his neck and kissed him, and they wept, and Yoseph also embraced his abba and kissed him, and they wept and all the people of Mitzrayim wept with them.

16 And Yaakov said to Yoseph, Now I will die cheerfully after I have seen your face, that you are still living and with glory.

17 And the sons of Yaakov and their wives and their children and their servants, and all the household of Yaakov wept exceedingly with Yoseph, and they kissed him and wept greatly with him.

18 And Yoseph and all his people returned afterward home to Mitzrayim, and Yaakov and his sons and all the children of his household came with Yoseph to Mitzrayim, and Yoseph placed them in the best part of Mitzrayim, in the land of Goshen.

19 And Yoseph said to his abba and to his brothers, I will go up and tell Pharaoh, saying, My brothers and my abba's household and all belonging to them have come to me, and behold they are in the land of Goshen.

20 And Yoseph did so and took from his brothers Reuven, Yissacher Zevulun and his brother Binyamin and he placed them before Pharaoh.

21 And Yoseph spoke to Pharaoh, saying, My brothers and my abba's household and all belonging to them, together with their flocks and cattle have come to me from the land of Kanaan, to sojourn in Mitzrayim; for the famine was sore upon them.

22 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, Place your abba and brothers in the best part of the land, withhold not from them all that is tov, and cause them to eat of the fat of the land.

23 And Yoseph answered, saying, Behold I have stationed them in the land of Goshen, for they are shepherds, therefore let them remain in Goshen to feed their flocks apart from the Mitzrites.

24 And Pharaoh said to Yoseph, Do with your brothers all that they shall say to you; and the sons of Yaakov bowed down to Pharaoh, and they went forth from him in shalom, and Yoseph afterward brought his abba before Pharaoh.

25 And Yaakov came and bowed down to Pharaoh, and Yaakov blessed Pharaoh, and he then went out; and Yaakov and all his sons, and all his household dwelt in the land of Goshen.

26 In the second year, that is in the hundred and thirtieth year of the life of Yaakov, Yoseph maintained his abba and his brothers, and all his abba's household, with bread according to their little ones, all the days of the famine; they lacked nothing.

27 And Yoseph gave to them the best part of the whole land; the best of Mitzrayim had they all the days of Yoseph; and Yoseph also gave to them and to the whole of his abba's household, clothes and garments year by year; and the sons of Yaakov remained securely in Mitzrayim all the days of their brother.

28 And Yaakov always ate at Yoseph's table, Yaakov and his sons did not leave Yoseph's table day or night, besides what Yaakov's children consumed in their houses.

29 And all Mitzrayim ate bread during the days of the famine from the house of Yoseph, for all the Mitzrites sold all belonging to them on account of the famine.

30 And Yoseph purchased all the lands and fields of Mitzrayim for bread on the account of Pharaoh, and Yoseph supplied all Mitzrayim with bread all the days of the famine, and Yoseph collected all the silver and gold that came to him for the corn which they bought throughout the land, and he accumulated much gold and silver, besides an immense quantity of onyx stones, bdellium and valuable garments which they brought to Yoseph from every part of the land when their money was spent.

31 And Yoseph took all the silver and gold that came into his hand, about seventy two talents of gold and silver, and also onyx stones and bdellium in great abundance, and Yoseph went and concealed them in four parts, and he concealed one part in the wilderness near the Yam Suf, and one part by the River Perath, and the third and fourth part he concealed in the desert opposite to the wilderness of Persia and Media.

32 And he took part of the gold and silver that was left, and gave it to all his brothers and to all his abba's household, and to all the women of his abba's household, and the rest he brought to the house of Pharaoh, about twenty talents of gold and silver.

33 And Yoseph gave all the gold and silver that was left to Pharaoh, and Pharaoh placed it in the treasury, and the days of the famine ceased after that in the land, and they sowed and reaped in the whole land, and they obtained their usual quantity year by year; they lacked nothing.

34 And Yoseph dwelt securely in Mitzrayim, and the whole land was under his advice, and his abba and all his brothers dwelt in the land of Goshen and took possession of it.

35 And Yoseph was very aged, advanced in days, and his two sons, Ephraim and Menasheh, remained constantly in the house of Yaakov, together with the children of the sons of Yaakov their brothers, to learn the halachot of אִרְצָא and His Torah.

36 And Yaakov and his sons dwelt in the land of Mitzrayim in the land of Goshen, and they took possession in it, and they were fruitful and multiplied in it.

56 And Yaakov lived in the land of Mitzrayim seventeen years, and the days of Yaakov, and the years of his life were a hundred and forty seven years.

2 At that time Yaakov was attacked with that illness of which he died and he sent and called for his son Yoseph from Mitzrayim, and Yoseph his son came from Mitzrayim and Yoseph came to his abba.

3 And Yaakov said to Yoseph and to his sons, Behold I die, and the אִרְצָא of your ancestors will visit you, and bring you back to the land, which אִרְצָא swore to give to you and to your children after you; now therefore when I am dead, bury me in the cave which is in Machpelah in Hevron in the land of Kanaan, near my ancestors.

4 And Yaakov made his sons swear to bury him in Machpelah, in Hevron, and his sons swore to him concerning this thing.

5 And he commanded them, saying, Serve אלהים your Ahlohim, for He who delivered your ahvot will also deliver you from all trouble.

6 And Yaakov said, Call all your children to me, and all the children of Yaakov's sons came and sat before him, and Yaakov blessed them, and he said to them, אלהים Ahlohim of your ahvot shall grant you a thousand times as much and bless you, and may He give you the blessing of your abba Avraham; and all the children of Yaakov's sons went forth on that day after he had blessed them.

7 And on the next day Yaakov again called for his sons, and they all assembled and came to him and sat before him, and Yaakov on that day blessed his sons before his death, each man did he bless according to his blessing; behold it is written in the scroll of the Torah of אלהים pertaining to Yisrael.

8 And Yaakov said to Yahudah, I know my son that you are a mighty man for your brothers; reign over them, and your sons shall reign over their sons le-olam-va-ed.

9 Only teach your sons the bow and all the weapons of war, in order that they may fight the battles of their brother who will rule over his enemies.

10 And Yaakov again commanded his sons on that day, saying, Behold I shall be this day gathered to my people. Carry me up from Mitzrayim, and bury me in the cave of Machpelah as I have commanded you.

11 However take heed I pray you that none of your sons carry me, only yourselves, and this is the manner you shall do to me, when you carry my body to go with it to the land of Kanaan to bury me, 12 Yahudah, Yissacher and Zevulun shall carry my bier at the eastern side; Reuven, Shimeon and Gad at the south, Ephraim, Menasheh and Binyamin at the west, Dan, Asher and Naphtali at the north.

13 Let not Levi carry with you, for he and his sons will carry the Ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים with the Yisraelites in the camp, neither let Yoseph my son carry it, for as a melech so let his glory be; however, Ephraim and Menasheh shall be in their stead.

14 This shall you do to me when you carry me away; do not neglect anything of all that I command you; and it shall come to pass when you do this to me, that אֱלֹהִים will remember you favorably and your children after you le-olam-va-ed.

15 And you my sons, honor each his brother and his relative, and command your children and your children's children after you to serve אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of your ancestors all the days.

16 In order that you may prolong your days in the land, you and your children and your children's children le-olam-va-ed, when you do what is tov and upright in the sight of אֱלֹהִים your אֱלֹהִים, to go in all His halachot.

17 And you, Yoseph my son, forgive I beg you the prongs of your brothers and all their misdeeds in the injury that they heaped upon you, for אֱלֹהִים intended it for your and your children's benefit.

18 And O my son leave not your brothers to the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, neither hurt their feelings, for behold I consign them to the hand of אֱלֹהִים and in your hand to guard them from the Mitzrites; and the sons of Yaakov answered their abba saying, O, our abba, all that you have commanded us, so will we do; may אֱלֹהִים only be with us.

19 And Yaakov said to his sons, So may אֱלֹהִים be with you when you keep all his halachot; turn not from his halachot either to the right or the left in performing what is tov and upright in His sight.

20 For I know that many and grievous troubles will befall you in the latter-days in the land, yes your children and children's children, only serve אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתַי and He will save you from all trouble.

21 And it shall come to pass when you shall go after אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתַי to serve Him and will teach your children after you, and your children's children, to know אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתַי, then will אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתַי raise up to you and your children a servant from among your children, and אֱלֹהֵי אֲבוֹתַי will deliver you through His hand from all affliction, and bring you out of Mitzrayim and bring you back to the land of your ahvot to inherit it securely.

22 And Yaakov ceased commanding his sons, and he drew his feet into the bed, he died and was gathered to his people.

23 And Yoseph fell upon his abba and he cried out and wept over him and he kissed him, and he called out in a bitter voice, and he said, O my abba, my abba.

24 And his son's wives and all his household came and fell upon Yaakov, and they wept over him, and cried in a very loud voice concerning Yaakov.

25 And all the sons of Yaakov rose up together, and they tore their garments, and they all put sackcloth upon their loins, and they fell upon their faces, and they cast dust upon their heads toward the shamayim.

26 And the thing was told to Osnath Yoseph's wife, and she rose up and put on a sack and she with all the Mitzrite women with her came and mourned and wept for Yaakov.

27 And also all the people of Mitzrayim who knew Yaakov came all on that day when they heard this thing, and all Mitzrayim wept for many days.

28 And also from the land of Kanaan did the women come to Mitzrayim when they heard that Yaakov was dead, and they wept for him in Mitzrayim for seventy days.

29 And it came to pass after this that Yoseph commanded his servants the doctors to embalm his abba with myrrh and frankincense and all manner of incense and perfume, and the doctors embalmed Yaakov as Yoseph had commanded them.

30 And all the people of Mitzrayim and the zachanim and all the inhabitants of the land of Goshen wept and mourned over Yaakov, and all his sons and the children of his household lamented and mourned over their abba Yaakov many days.

31 And after the days of his weeping had passed away, at the end of seventy days, Yoseph said to Pharaoh, I will go up and bury my abba in the land of Kanaan as he made me swear, and then I will return.

32 And Pharaoh sent Yoseph, saying, Go up and bury your abba as he said, and as he made you swear; and Yoseph rose up with all his brothers to go to the land of Kanaan to bury their abba Yaakov as he had commanded them.

33 And Pharaoh commanded that it should be proclaimed throughout Mitzrayim, saying, Whoever goes not up with Yoseph and his brothers to the land of Kanaan to bury Yaakov, shall die.

34 And all Mitzrayim heard of Pharaoh's proclamation, and they all rose up together, and all the servants of Pharaoh, and the zachanim of his house, and all the zachanim of the land of Mitzrayim went up with Yoseph, and all the officers and nobles of Pharaoh went up as the servants of Yoseph, and they went to bury Yaakov in the land of Kanaan.

35 And the sons of Yaakov carried the bier upon which he lay; according to all that their abba commanded them, so did his sons to him.

36 And the bier was of pure gold, and it was inlaid round about with onyx stones and bdellium; and the covering of the bier was gold woven work, joined with threads, and over them were hooks of onyx stones and bdellium.

37 And Yoseph placed upon the head of his abba Yaakov a large golden keter, and he put a golden scepter in his hand, and they surrounded the bier, as was the custom of melechim during their lives.

38 And all the troops of Mitzrayim went before him in this array, at first all the mighty men of Pharaoh, and the mighty men of Yoseph, and after them the rest of the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, and they were all girded with swords and equipped with coats of armor, and the trappings of war were upon them.

39 And all the weepers and mourners went at a distance opposite to the bier, going and weeping and lamenting, and the rest of the people went after the bier.

40 And Yoseph and his household went together near the bier barefooted and weeping, and the rest of Yoseph's servants went around him; each man had his ornaments upon him, and they were all armed with their weapons of war.

41 And fifty of Yaakov's servants went in front of the bier, and they strewed along the road myrrh and aloes, and all manner of perfume, and all the sons of Yaakov that carried the bier walked upon the perfumery, and the servants of Yaakov went before them strewing the perfume along the road.

42 And Yoseph went up with a heavy camp, and they did after this manner every day until they reached the land of Kanaan, and they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which was on the other side of Yarden, and they mourned an exceeding great and heavy mourning in that place.

43 And all the melechim of Kanaan heard of this thing and they all went forth, each man from his house, thirty-one melechim of Kanaan, and they all came with their men to mourn and weep over Yaakov.

44 And all these melechim beheld Yaakov's bier, and behold Yoseph's keter was upon it, and they also put their crowns upon the bier, and encircled it with crowns.

45 And all these melechim made in that place a great and heavy mourning with the sons of Yaakov and Mitzrayim over Yaakov, for all the melechim of Kanaan knew the valor of Yaakov and his sons.

46 And the report reached Esav, saying, Yaakov died in Mitzrayim, and his sons and all Mitzrayim are conveying him to the land of Kanaan to bury him.

47 And Esav heard this thing, and he was dwelling in mount Seir, and he rose up with his sons and all his people and all his household, a people exceedingly great, and they came to mourn and weep over Yaakov.

48 And it came to pass, when Esav came he mourned for his brother Yaakov, and all Mitzrayim and all Kanaan again rose up and mourned a great mourning with Esav over Yaakov in that place

49 And Yoseph and his brothers brought their abba Yaakov from that place, and they went to Hevron to bury Yaakov in the cave by his ahvot.

50 And they came to Kiryath-Arba, to the cave, and as they came Esav stood with his sons against Yoseph and his brothers as a hindrance in the cave, saying, Yaakov shall not be buried here, for it belongs to us and to our abba.

51 And Yoseph and his brothers heard the words of Esav's sons, and they were exceedingly angry, and Yoseph approached Esav, saying, What is this thing which they have spoken? Surely my abba Yaakov bought it from you for great riches after the death of Yitzchak, twenty-five years ago, and also all the land of Kanaan he bought from you and from your sons, and your zera after you.

52 And Yaakov bought it for his sons and his zera after him for an inheritance le-olam-va-ed, and why speak you these things this day?

53 And Esav answered, saying, You speak falsely and utter lies, for I sold not anything belonging to me in all this land, as you say, neither did my brother Yaakov buy anything belonging to me in this land.

54 And Esav spoke these things in order to deceive Yoseph with his words, for Esav knew that Yoseph was not present in those days when Esav sold all belonging to him in the land of Kanaan to Yaakov.

55 And Yoseph said to Esav, Surely my abba inserted these things with you in the record of purchase, and testified the record with witnesses, and behold it is with us in Mitzrayim.

56 And Esav answered, saying to him, Bring the record, all that you will find in the record, so will we do.

57 And Yoseph called to Naphtali his brother, and he said, Hasten quickly, stay not, and run I tell you to Mitzrayim and bring all the records; the record of the purchase, the sealed record and the open record, and also all the first records in which all the transactions of the bechor are written, you get them!

58 And you shall bring them to us here, that we may know from them all the words of Esav and his sons which they spoke this day.

59 And Naphtali hearkened to the voice of Yoseph and he hurried and ran to go down to Mitzrayim, and Naphtali was lighter on foot than any of the stags that were upon the wilderness, for he would go upon ears of corn without crushing them.

60 And when Esav saw that Naphtali had gone to fetch the records, he and his sons increased their resistance against the cave, and Esav and all his people rose up against Yoseph and his brothers to battle.

61 And all the sons of Yaakov and the people of Mitzrayim fought with Esav and his men, and the sons of Esav and his people were smitten before the sons of Yaakov, and the sons of Yaakov slew of Esav's people forty men.

62 And Chushim the son of Dan, the son of Yaakov, was at that time with Yaakov's sons, but he was about a hundred cubits distant from the place of battle, for he remained with the children of Yaakov's sons by Yaakov's bier to guard it.

63 And Chushim was dumb and deaf; still he understood the voice of consternation among men.

64 And he asked, saying, Why do you not bury the dead, and what is this great consternation? And they answered him the words of Esav and his sons; and he ran to Esav in the midst of the battle, and he slew Esav with a sword, and he cut off his head, and it sprang to a distance, and Esav fell among the people of the battle.

65 And when Chushim did this thing the sons of Yaakov prevailed over the sons of Esav, and the sons of Yaakov buried their abba Yaakov by force in the cave, and the sons of Esav beheld it.

66 And Yaakov was buried in Hevron, in the cave of Machpelah that Avraham had bought from the sons of Cheth for the possession of a burial place, and he was buried in very costly garments.

67 And no melech had such honor paid him as Yoseph paid to his abba at his death, for he buried him with great honor like the burial of melechim.

68 And Yoseph and his brothers made a mourning of seven days for their abba.

57 And it was after this that the sons of Esav waged war with the sons of Yaakov, and the sons of Esav fought with the sons of Yaakov in Hevron, and Esav was still lying dead, and not buried.

2 And the battle was heavy between them, and the sons of Esav were smitten before the sons of Yaakov, and the sons of Yaakov slew of the sons of Esav eighty men, and not one died of the people of the sons of Yaakov; and the hand of Yoseph prevailed over all the people of the sons of Esav, and he took Zepho, the son of Eliphaz, the son of Esav, and fifty of his men captive, and he bound them with chains of iron, and gave them into the hand of his servants to bring them to Mitzrayim.

3 And it came to pass when the sons of Yaakov had taken Zepho and his people captive, all those that remained were greatly afraid of their lives from the house of Esav, lest they should also be taken captive, and they all fled with Eliphaz the son of Esav and his people, with Esav's body, and they went on their road to Mount Seir.

4 And they came to Mount Seir and they buried Esav in Seir, but they had not brought his head with them to Seir, for it was buried in that place where the battle had been in Hevron.

5 And it came to pass when the sons of Esav had fled from before the sons of Yaakov, the sons of Yaakov pursued them to the borders of Seir, but they did not slay a single man from among them when they pursued them, for Esav's body which they carried with them excited their confusion, so they fled and the sons of Yaakov turned back from them and came up to the place where their brothers were in Hevron, and they remained there on that day, and on the next day until they rested from the battle.

6 And it came to pass on the third day they assembled all the sons of Seir the Horite, and they assembled all the children of the east, a multitude of people like the sand of the sea, and they went and came down to Mitzrayim to fight with Yoseph and his brothers, in order to deliver their brothers.

7 And Yoseph and all the sons of Yaakov heard that the sons of Esav and the children of the east had come upon them to battle in order to deliver their brothers.

8 And Yoseph and his brothers and the strong men of Mitzrayim went forth and fought in the city of Rameses, and Yoseph and his brothers dealt out a tremendous blow among the sons of Esav and the children of the east.

9 And they slew of them six hundred thousand men, and they slew among them all the mighty men of the children of Seir the Horite; there were only a few of them left, and they slew also a great many of the children of the east, and of the children of Esav; and Eliphaz the son of Esav, and the children of the east all fled before Yoseph and his brothers.

10 And Yoseph and his brothers pursued them until they came to Succoth, and they yet slew of them in Succoth thirty men, and the rest escaped and they fled each to his city.

11 And Yoseph and his brothers and the mighty men of Mitzrayim turned back from them with joy and cheerfulness of heart, for they had smitten all their enemies.

12 And Zepho the son of Eliphaz and his men were still slaves in Mitzrayim to the sons of Yaakov, and their pains increased.

13 And when the sons of Esav and the sons of Seir returned to their land, the sons of Seir saw that they had all fallen into the hands of the sons of Yaakov, and the people of Mitzrayim, on account of the battle of the sons of Esav.

14 And the sons of Seir said to the sons of Esav, You have seen and therefore you know that this camp was on your account, and not one mighty man adept in war remains.

15 Now therefore go forth from our land, go from us to the land of Kanaan to the land of the dwelling of your ahvot. Why shall your children inherit the effects of our children in latter-days?

16 And the children of Esav would not listen to the children of Seir, and the children of Seir considered making war with them.

17 And the children of Esav sent secretly to Angeas melech of Africa, the same is Dinhavah, saying, 18 Send to us some of your men and let them come to us, and we will fight together with the children of Seir the Horite, for they have resolved to fight with us to drive us away from the land.

19 And Angeas melech of Dinhavah did so, for he was in those days friendly to the children of Esav, and Angeas sent five hundred valiant infantry to the children of Esav, and eight hundred cavalry.

20 And the children of Seir sent to the children of the east and to the children of Midiyan, saying, You have seen what the children of Esav have done to us, upon whose account we are almost all destroyed, in their battle with the sons of Yaakov.

21 Now therefore come to us and assist us, and we will fight them together, and we will drive them from the land and be avenged of the cause of our brothers who died for their sakes in their battle with their brothers the sons of Yaakov.

22 And all the children of the east listened to the children of Seir, and they came to them about eight hundred men with drawn swords, and the children of Esav fought with the children of Seir at that time in the wilderness of Paran.

23 And the children of Seir prevailed then over the sons of Esav, and the children of Seir slew on that day of the children of Esav in that battle about two hundred men of the people of Angeas melech of Dinhavah.

24 And on the second day the children of Esav came again to fight a second time with the children of Seir, and the battle was sore upon the children of Esav this second time, and it troubled them greatly on account of the children of Seir.

25 And when the children of Esav saw that the children of Seir were more powerful than they were, some men of the children of Esav turned and assisted the children of Seir their enemies.

26 And there fell yet of the people of the children of Esav in the second battle fifty-eight men of the people at Angeas melech of Dinhavah.

27 And on the third day the children of Esav heard that some of their brothers had turned from them to fight against them in the second battle; and the children of Esav mourned when they heard this thing.

28 And they said, What shall we do to our brothers who turned from us to assist the children of Seir our enemies? And the children of Esav again sent to Angeas melech of Dinhavah, saying, 29 Send to us again other men that with them we may fight with the children of Seir, for they have already twice been heavier than we were.

30 And Angeas again sent to the children of Esav about six hundred valiant men, and they came to assist the children of Esav.

31 And in ten days' time the children of Esav again waged war with the children of Seir in the wilderness of Paran, and the battle was very severe upon the children of Seir, and the children of Esav prevailed at this time over the children of Seir, and the children of Seir were smitten before the children of Esav, and the children of Esav slew from them about two thousand men.

32 And all the mighty men of the children of Seir died in this battle, and there only remained their young children that were left in their cities.

33 And all Midiyan and the children of the east betook themselves to flight from the battle, and they left the children of Seir and fled when they saw that the battle was severe upon them, and the children of Esav pursued all the children of the east until they reached their land.

34 And the children of Esav slew yet of them about two hundred and fifty men and from the people of the children of Esav there fell in that battle about thirty men, but this evil came upon them through their brothers turning from them to assist the children of Seir the Horite, and the children of Esav again heard of the evil doings of their brothers, and they again mourned on account of this thing.

35 And it came to pass after the battle, the children of Esav turned back and came home to Seir, and the children of Esav slew those who had remained in the land of the children of Seir; they slew also their wives and little ones, they left not a being alive except fifty young lads and damsels whom they allowed to live, and the children of Esav did not put them to death, and the lads became their slaves, and the damsels they took for wives.

36 And the children of Esav dwelt in Seir in the place of the children of Seir, and they inherited their land and took possession of it.

37 And the children of Esav took all belonging in the land to the children of Seir, also their flocks, their bullocks and their goods, and all belonging to the children of Seir, did the children of Esav take, and the children of Esav dwelt in Seir in the place of the children of Seir to this day, and the children of Esav divided the land into divisions to the five sons of Esav, according to their families.

38 And it came to pass in those days, that the children of Esav resolved to keter a melech over them in the land of which they became possessed. And they said to each other, Not so, for he shall reign over us in our land, and we shall be under his counsel and he shall fight our battles, against our enemies, and they did so.

39 And all the children of Esav swore, saying, That none of their brothers should ever reign over them, but a strange man who is not of their brothers, for the beings of all the children of Esav were embittered every man against his son, brother and friend, on account of the evil they sustained from their brothers when they fought with the children of Seir.

40 Therefore the sons of Esav swore, saying, From that day forward they would not choose a melech from their brothers, but one from a strange land to this day.

41 And there was a man there from the people of Angeas melech of Dinhavah; his name was Bela the son of Beor, who was a very valiant man, beautiful and comely and wise in all wisdom, and a man of sense and counsel; and there was none of the people of Angeas like him.

42 And all the children of Esav took him and anointed him and they crowned him for a melech, and they bowed down to him, and they said to him, May the melech live, may the melech live.

43 And they spread out the sheet, and they brought him each man earrings of gold and silver or rings or bracelets, and they made him very rich in silver and in gold, in onyx stones and bdellium, and they made him a royal throne, and they placed a regal keter upon his head, and they built a palace for him and he dwelt therein, and he became melech over all the children of Esav.

44 And the people of Angeas took their hire for their battle from the children of Esav, and they went and returned at that time to their master in Dinhavah.

45 And Bela reigned over the children of Esav thirty years, and the children of Esav dwelt in the land instead of the children of Seir, and they dwelt securely in their stead to this day.

58 And it came to pass in the thirty-second year of the Yisraelites going down to Mitzrayim that is in the seventy-first year of the life of Yoseph, in that year died Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, and Magron his son reigned in his stead.

2 And Pharaoh commanded Yoseph before his death to be an abba to his son, Magron, and that Magron should be under the care of Yoseph and under his counsel.

3 And all Mitzrayim consented to this thing that Yoseph should be melech over them, for all the Mitzrites loved Yoseph as before, only Magron the son of Pharaoh sat upon, his abba's throne, and he became melech in those days in his abba's stead.

4 Magron was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and forty years he reigned in Mitzrayim, and all Mitzrayim called his name Pharaoh after the name of his abba, as it was their custom to do in Mitzrayim to every melech that reigned over them.

5 And it came to pass when Pharaoh reigned in his abba's stead; he placed the laws of Mitzrayim and all the affairs of government in the hand of Yoseph, as his abba had commanded him.

6 And Yoseph became melech over Mitzrayim, for he superintended over all Mitzrayim, and all Mitzrayim was under his care and under his counsel, for all Mitzrayim inclined to Yoseph after the death of Pharaoh, and they loved him exceedingly to reign over them.

7 But there were some people among them, who did not like him, saying, No stranger shall reign over us; still the whole government of Mitzrayim devolved in those days upon Yoseph, after the death of Pharaoh, he being the regulator, doing as he liked throughout the land without any one interfering.

8 And all Mitzrayim was under the care of Yoseph, and Yoseph made war with all his surrounding enemies, and he subdued them; also all the land and all the Philistines, to the borders of Kanaan, did Yoseph subdue, and they were all under his power and they gave a yearly tax to Yoseph.

9 And Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim sat upon his throne in his abba's stead, but he was under the control and counsel of Yoseph, as he was at first under the control of his abba.

10 Neither did he reign but in the land of Mitzrayim only, under the counsel of Yoseph, but Yoseph reigned over the whole country at that time, from Mitzrayim to the great River Perath.

11 And Yoseph was successful in all his halachot, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל was with him, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל gave Yoseph additional wisdom, and honor, and glory, and love toward him in the hearts of the Mitzrites and throughout the land, and Yoseph reigned over the whole country forty years.

12 And all the countries of the Philistines and Kanaan and Tzidon, and on the other side of Yarden, brought presents to Yoseph all his days, and the whole country was in the hand of Yoseph, and they brought to him a yearly tribute as it was regulated, for Yoseph had fought against all his surrounding enemies and subdued them, and the whole country was in the hand of Yoseph, and Yoseph sat securely upon his throne in Mitzrayim.

13 And also all his brothers the sons of Yaakov dwelt securely in the land, all the days of Yoseph, and they were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly in the land, and they served אֲבֹתָם all their days, as their abba Yaakov had commanded them.

14 And it came to pass at the end of many days and years, when the children of Esav were dwelling quietly in their land with Bela their melech, that the children of Esav were fruitful and multiplied in the land, and they resolved to go and fight with the sons of Yaakov and all Mitzrayim, and to deliver their brother Zepho, the son of Eliphaz, and his men, for they were yet in those days slaves to Yoseph.

15 And the children of Esav sent to all the children of the east, and they made shalom with them, and all the children of the east came to them to go with the children of Esav to Mitzrayim to battle.

16 And there came also to them of the people of Angeas, melech of Dinhavah, and they also sent to the children of Yishmael and they also came to them.

17 And all this people assembled and came to Seir to assist the children of Esav in their battle, and this camp was very large and full with people, numerous as the sand of the sea, about eight hundred thousand men, infantry and cavalry, and all these troops went down to Mitzrayim to fight with the sons of Yaakov, and they encamped by Rameses.

18 And Yoseph went forth with his brothers with the mighty men of Mitzrayim, about six hundred men, and they fought with them in the land of Rameses; and the sons of Yaakov at that time again fought with the children of Esav, in the fiftieth year of the sons of Yaakov going down to Mitzrayim, that is the thirtieth year of the reign of Bela over the children of Esav in Seir.

19 And אִרְבֵּי gave all the mighty men of Esav and the children of the east into the hand of Yoseph and his brothers, and the people of the children of Esav and the children of the east were smitten before Yoseph.

20 And of the people of Esav and the children of the east that were slain, there fell before the sons of Yaakov about two hundred thousand men, and their melech Bela the son of Beor fell with them in the battle, and when the children of Esav saw that their melech had fallen in battle and was dead, their hands became weak in the combat.

21 And Yoseph and his brothers and all Mitzrayim were still smiting the people of the house of Esav, and all Esav's people were afraid of the sons of Yaakov and fled from before them.

22 And Yoseph and his brothers and all Mitzrayim pursued them a day's journey, and they slew yet from them about three hundred men, continuing to smite them in the road; and they afterward turned back from them.

23 And Yoseph and all his brothers returned to Mitzrayim, not one man was missing from them, but of the Mitzrites there fell twelve men.

24 And when Yoseph returned to Mitzrayim he ordered Zepho and his men to be additionally bound, and they bound them in irons and they increased their grief.

25 And all the people of the children of Esav, and the children of the east, returned in shame each to his city, for all the mighty men that were with them had fallen in battle.

26 And when the children of Esav saw that their melech had died in battle they hurried and took a man from the people of the children of the east; his name was Yovav the son of Zarach, from the land of Botzrah, and they caused him to reign over them instead of Bela their melech.

27 And Yovav sat upon the throne of Bela as melech in his stead, and Yovav reigned in Edom over all the children of Esav ten years, and the children of Esav went no more to fight with the sons of Yaakov from that day forward, for the sons of Esav knew the valor of the sons of Yaakov, and they were greatly afraid of them.

28 But from that day forward the children of Esav hated the sons of Yaakov, and the hatred and enmity were very strong between them all the days, to this day.

29 And it came to pass after this, at the end of ten years, Yovav, the son of Zarach, from Botzrah, died, and the children of Esav took a man whose name was Chusham, from the land of Teman, and they made him melech over them instead of Yovav, and Chusham reigned in Edom over all the children of Esav for twenty years.

30 And Yoseph, melech of Mitzrayim, and his brothers, and all the children of Yisrael dwelt securely in Mitzrayim in those days, together with all the children of Yoseph and his brothers, having no hindrance or evil accident and the land of Mitzrayim was at that time at rest from war in the days of Yoseph and his brothers.

59 And these are the names of the sons of Yisrael who dwelt in Mitzrayim, who had come with Yaakov, all the sons of Yaakov came to Mitzrayim, every man with his household.

2 The children of Leah were Reuven, Shimeon, Levi, Yahudah, Yissacher and Zevulun, and their sister Dinah.

3 And the sons of Rachel were Yoseph and Binyamin.

4 And the sons of Zilpah, the handmaid of Leah, were Gad and Asher.

5 And the sons of Bilhah, the handmaid of Rachel, were Dan and Naphtali.

6 And these were their offspring that were born to them in the land of Kanaan, before they came to Mitzrayim with their abba Yaakov.

7 The sons of Reuven were Chanoch, Pallu, Chetzron and Carmi.

8 And the sons of Shimeon were Yemuel, Yamin, Ohad, Yachin, Zochar and Shaul, the son of the Canaanitish woman.

9 And the children of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari, and their sister Yocheved, who was born to them in their going down to Mitzrayim.

10 And the sons of Yahudah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Peretz and Zarach.

11 And Er and Onan died in the land of Kanaan; and the sons of Peretz were Chezron and Chamul.

12 And the sons of Yissacher were Tola, Puvah, Iyov and Shomron.

13 And the sons of Zevulun were Sered, Eylon and Yachleel, and the son of Dan was Chushim.

14 And the sons of Naphtali were Yachzeel, Guni, Yetzer and Shilam.

15 And the sons of Gad were Ziphion, Chaggi, Shuni, Ezvon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

16 And the children of Asher were Yimnah, Yishvah, Yishvi, Beriayah and their sister Serach; and the sons of Beriayah were Chever and Malchiel.

17 And the sons of Binyamin were Bela, Becher, Ashvel, Gera, Naaman, Achi, Rosh, Mupim, Chupim and Ord.

18 And the sons of Yoseph, that were born to him in Mitzrayim, were Menasheh and Ephraim.

19 And all the beings that went forth from the loins of Yaakov, were seventy beings; these are they who came with Yaakov their abba to Mitzrayim to dwell there: and Yoseph and all his brothers dwelt securely in Mitzrayim, and they ate of the best of Mitzrayim all the days of the life of Yoseph.

20 And Yoseph lived in the land of Mitzrayim ninety-three years, and Yoseph reigned over all Mitzrayim eighty years.

21 And when the days of Yoseph drew near that he should die, he sent and called for his brothers and all his abba's household, and they all came together and sat before him.

22 And Yoseph said to his brothers and to the whole of his abba's household, Behold I die, and אֱלֹהִים will surely visit you and bring you up from this land to the land which He swore to your ahvot to give to them.

23 And it shall be when אֱלֹהִים shall visit you to bring you up from here to the land of your ahvot, then bring up my bones with you from here.

24 And Yoseph made the sons of Yisrael to swear for their zera after them, saying, אֱלֹהִים will surely visit you and you shall bring up my bones with you from here.

25 And it came to pass after this that Yoseph died in that year, the seventy-first year of the Yisraelites going down to Mitzrayim.

26 And Yoseph was one hundred and ten years old when he died in the land of Mitzrayim, and all his brothers and all his servants rose up and they embalmed Yoseph, as was their custom, and his brothers and all Mitzrayim mourned over him for seventy days.

27 And they put Yoseph in a coffin filled with spices and all sorts of perfume, and they buried him by the side of the river, that is Sihor, and his sons and all his brothers, and the whole of his abba's household made a seven-day mourning for him.

28 And it came to pass after the death of Yoseph, all the Mitzrites began in those days to rule over the children of Yisrael, and Pharaoh, melech of Mitzrayim, who reigned in his abba's stead, took all the laws of Mitzrayim and conducted the whole government of Mitzrayim under his counsel, and he reigned securely over his people.

60 And when the year came round, being the seventy-second year from the Yisraelites going down to Mitzrayim, after the death of Yoseph, Zepho, the son of Eliphaz, the son of Esav, fled from Mitzrayim, he and his men, and they went away.

2 And he came to Africa, which is Dinhavah, to Angeas melech of Africa, and Angeas received them with great honor, and he made Zepho the captain of his host.

3 And Zepho found favor in the sight of Angeas and in the sight of his people, and Zepho was captain of the host to Angeas melech of Africa for many days.

4 And Zepho enticed Angeas melech of Africa to collect all his army to go and fight with the Mitzrites, and with the sons of Yaakov, and to avenge of them the cause of his brothers.

5 But Angeas would not listen to Zepho to do this thing, for Angeas knew the strength of the sons of Yaakov, and what they had done to his army in their warfare with the children of Esav.

6 And Zepho was in those days very great in the sight of Angeas and in the sight of all his people, and he continually enticed them to make war against Mitzrayim, but they would not.

7 And it came to pass in those days there was in the land of Chittim a man in the city of Puzimna, whose name was Uzu, and he became degenerately deified by the children of Chittim, and the man died and had no son, only one daughter whose name was Yania.

8 And the damsel was exceedingly beautiful, comely and intelligent, there was none seen like her for beauty and wisdom throughout the land.

9 And the people of Angeas melech of Africa saw her and they came and praised her to him, and Angeas sent to the children of Chittim, and he requested to take her to himself for a wife, and the people of Chittim consented to give her to him for a wife.

10 And when the messengers of Angeas were going forth from the land of Chittim to take their journey, behold the messengers of Turnus melech of Biventu came to Chittim, for Turnus melech of Biventu also sent his messengers to request Yania for him, to take to himself for a wife, for all his men had also praised her to him, therefore he sent all his servants to her.

11 And the servants of Turnus came to Chittim, and they asked for Yania, to be taken to Turnus their melech for a wife.

12 And the people of Chittim said to them, We cannot give her, because Angeas melech of Africa desired her to take her to him for a wife before you came, and that we should give her to him, and now therefore we cannot do this thing to deprive Angeas of the damsel in order to give her to Turnus.

13 For we are greatly afraid of Angeas lest he come in battle against us and destroy us, and Turnus your master will not be able to deliver us from his hand.

14 And when the messengers of Turnus heard all the words of the children of Chittim, they turned back to their master and told him all the words of the children of Chittim.

15 And the children of Chittim sent a note to Angeas, saying, Behold Turnus has sent for Yania to take her to him for a wife, and this have we answered him; and we heard that he has collected his whole army to go to war against you, and he intends to pass by the road of Sardunia to fight against your brother Lucus, and after that he will come to fight against you.

16 And Angeas heard the words of the children of Chittim which they sent to him in the record, and his anger was kindled and he rose up and assembled his whole army and came through the islands of the sea, the road to Sardunia, to his brother Lucus melech of Sardunia.

17 And Niblos, the son of Lucus, heard that his uncle Angeas was coming, and he went out to meet him with a heavy army, and he kissed him and embraced him, and Niblos said to Angeas, When you ask my abba after his welfare, when I shall go with you to fight with Turnus, ask of him to make me captain of his host, and Angeas did so, and he came to his brother and his brother came to meet him, and he asked him after his welfare.

18 And Angeas asked his brother Lucus after his welfare, and to make his son Niblos captain of his host, and Lucus did so, and Angeas and his brother Lucus rose up and they went toward Turnus to battle, and there was with them a great army and many people.

19 And he came in ships, and they came into the province of Ashtorash, and behold Turnus came toward them, for he went forth to Sardunia, and intended to destroy it and afterward to pass on from there to Angeas to fight with him.

20 And Angeas and Lucus his brother met Turnus in the Valley of Canopia, and the battle was strong and mighty between them in that place.

21 And the battle was severe upon Lucus melech of Sardunia, and all his army fell, and Niblos his son fell also in that battle.

22 And his uncle Angeas commanded his servants and they made a golden coffin for Niblos and they put him into it, and Angeas again waged battle toward Turnus, and Angeas was stronger than he, and he slew him, and he smote all his people with the edge of the sword, and Angeas avenged the cause of Niblos his brother's son and the cause of the army of his brother Lucus.

23 And when Turnus died, the hands of those that survived the battle became weak, and they fled from before Angeas and Lucus his brother.

24 And Angeas and his brother Lucus pursued them to the highroad, which is between Alphanu and Romah, and they slew the whole army of Turnus with the edge of the sword.

25 And Lucus melech of Sardunia commanded his servants that they should make a coffin of brass, and that they should place therein the body of his son Niblos, and they buried him in that place.

26 And they built upon it a high tower there upon the highroad, and they called its name after the name of Niblos to this day, and they also buried Turnus melech of Biventu there in that place with Niblos.

27 And behold upon the highroad between Alphanu and Romah the grave of Niblos is on one side and the grave of Turnus on the other, and a pavement between them to this day.

28 And when Niblos was buried, Lucus his abba returned with his army to his land Sardunia, and Angeas his brother melech of Africa went with his people to the city of Biventu, that is the city of Turnus.

29 And the inhabitants of Biventu heard of his fame and they were greatly afraid of him, and they went forth to meet him with weeping and supplication, and the inhabitants of Biventu entreated of Angeas not to slay them nor destroy their city; and he did so, for Biventu was in those days reckoned as one of the cities of the children of Chittim; therefore he did not destroy the city.

30 But from that day forward the troops of the melech of Africa would go to Chittim to spoil and plunder it, and whenever they went, Zepho the captain of the host of Angeas would go with them.

31 And it was after this that Angeas turned with his army and they came to the city of Puzimna, and Angeas took there Yania the daughter of Uzu for a wife and brought her to his city to Africa.

61 And it came to pass at that time Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim commanded all his people to make for him a strong palace in Mitzrayim.

2 And he also commanded the sons of Yaakov to assist the Mitzrites in the building, and the Mitzrites made a beautiful and elegant palace for a royal habitation, and he dwelt therein and he renewed his government and he reigned securely.

3 And Zevulun the son of Yaakov died in that year, that is the seventy-second year of the going down of the Yisraelites to Mitzrayim, and Zevulun died a hundred and fourteen years old, and was put into a coffin and given into the hands of his children.

4 And in the seventy-fifth year died his brother Shimeon, he was a hundred and twenty years old at his death, and he was also put into a coffin and given into the hands of his children.

5 And Zepho the son of Eliphaz the son of Esav, captain of the host to Angeas melech of Dinhavah, was still daily enticing Angeas to prepare for battle to fight with the sons of Yaakov in Mitzrayim, and Angeas was unwilling to do this thing, for his servants had related to him all the might of the sons of Yaakov, what they had done to them in their battle with the children of Esav.

6 And Zepho was in those days daily enticing Angeas to fight with the sons of Yaakov in those days.

7 And after some time Angeas hearkened to the words of Zepho and consented to him to fight with the sons of Yaakov in Mitzrayim, and Angeas got all his people in order, a people numerous as the sand which is upon the seashore, and he formed his resolution to go to Mitzrayim to battle.

8 And among the servants of Angeas was a youth fifteen years old, Balaam the son of Beor was his name and the youth was very wise and understood the art of witchcraft.

9 And Angeas said to Balaam, Conjure for us, I ask you, with the witchcraft, that we may know who will prevail in this battle to which we are now proceeding.

10 And Balaam ordered that they should bring him wax, and he made of it the likeness of mirkavot and horsemen representing the army of Angeas and the army of Mitzrayim, and he put them in the cunningly prepared mayim that he had for that purpose, and he took in his hand the boughs of myrtle trees, and he exercised his cunning, and he joined them over the mayim, and there appeared to him in the mayim the resembling images of the hosts of Angeas falling before the resembling images of the Mitzrites and the sons of Yaakov.

11 And Balaam told this thing to Angeas, and Angeas despaired and did not arm himself to go down to Mitzrayim to battle, and he remained in his city.

12 And when Zepho the son of Eliphaz saw that Angeas despaired of going forth to battle with the Mitzrites, Zepho fled from Angeas from Africa, and he went and came to Chittim.

13 And all the people of Chittim received him with great honor, and they hired him to fight their battles all the days, and Zepho became exceedingly rich in those days, and the troops of the melech of Africa still spread themselves in those days, and the children of Chittim assembled and went to Mount Cuptizia on account of the troops of Angeas melech of Africa, who were advancing upon them.

14 And it was one day that Zepho lost a young heifer, and he went to seek it, and he heard it mooing round about the mountain.

15 And Zepho went and he saw and behold there was a large cave at the bottom of the mountain, and there was a great stone there at the entrance of the cave, and Zepho split the stone and he came into the cave and he looked and behold, a large animal was devouring the ox; from the middle upward it resembled a man, and from the middle downward it resembled an animal, and Zepho rose up against the animal and slew it with his swords.

16 And the inhabitants of Chittim heard of this thing, and they rejoiced exceedingly, and they said, What shall we do to this man who has slain this animal that devoured our cattle?

17 And they all assembled to consecrate one day in the year to him, and they called the name of it Zepho after his name, and they brought to him drink offerings year after year on that day, and they brought to him gifts.

18 At that time Yania the daughter of Uzu wife of melech Angeas became ill, and her illness was heavily felt by Angeas and his officers, and Angeas said to his wise men, What shall I do to Yania and how shall I heal her from her illness? And his wise men said to him, Because the air of our country is not like the air of the land of Chittim, and our mayim is not like their mayim, therefore from this has the queen become ill.

19 For through the change of air and mayim she became ill, and also because in her country she drank only the mayim which came from Purmah, which her ancestors had brought up with bridges.

20 And Angeas commanded his servants, and they brought to him in vessels of the mayim of Purmah belonging to Chittim, and they weighed those mayim with all the mayim of the land of Africa, and they found those mayim lighter than the mayim of Africa.

21 And Angeas saw this thing, and he commanded all his officers to assemble the hewers of stone in thousands and tens of thousands, and they hewed stone without number, and the builders came and they built an exceedingly strong bridge, and they conveyed the spring of mayim from the land of Chittim to Africa, and those mayim were for Yania the queen and for all her concerns, to drink from and to bake, wash and bathe with, and also to water with it all zera from which food can be obtained, and all fruit of the ground.

22 And the melech commanded that they should bring of the soil of Chittim in large ships, and they also brought stones to build with, and the builders built palaces for Yania the queen, and the queen became healed of her illness.

23 And at the turn of the year the troops of Africa continued coming to the land of Chittim to plunder as usual, and Zepho son of Eliphaz heard their report, and he gave orders concerning them and he fought with them, and they fled before him, and he delivered the land of Chittim from them.

24 And the children of Chittim saw the valor of Zepho, and the children of Chittim resolved and they made Zepho melech over them, and he became melech over them, and while he reigned they went to subdue the children of Tuval, and all the surrounding islands.

25 And their melech Zepho went at their head and they made war with Tuval and the islands, and they subdued them, and when they returned from the battle they renewed his government for him, and they built for him a very large palace for his royal habitation and seat, and they made a large throne for him, and Zepho reigned over the whole land of Chittim and over the land of Italia fifty years.

62 In that year, being the seventy-ninth year of the Yisraelites going down to Mitzrayim, died Reuven the son of Yaakov, in the land of Mitzrayim; Reuven was a hundred and twenty-five years old when he died, and they put him into a coffin, and he was given into the hands of his children.

2 And in the eightieth year died his brother Dan; he was a hundred and twenty years at his death, and he was also put into a coffin and given into the hands of his children.

3 And in that year died Chusham melech of Edom, and after him reigned Hadad the son of Bedad, for thirty-five years; and in the eighty-first year died

Yissacher the son of Yaakov, in Mitzrayim, and Yissacher was a hundred and twenty-two years old at his death, and he was put into a coffin in Mitzrayim, and given into the hands of his children.

4 And in the eighty-second year died Asher his brother, he was a hundred and twenty-three years old at his death, and he was placed in a coffin in Mitzrayim, and given into the hands of his children.

5 And in the eighty-third year died Gad, he was a hundred and twenty-five years old at his death, and he was put into a coffin in Mitzrayim, and given into the hands of his children.

6 And it came to pass in the eighty-fourth year, that is the fiftieth year of the reign of Hadad, son of Bedad, melech of Edom, that Hadad assembled all the children of Esav, and he got his whole army in readiness, about four hundred thousand men, and he directed his way to the land of Moav, and he went to fight with Moav and to make them tributary to him.

7 And the children of Moav heard this thing, and they were very much afraid, and they sent to the children of Midiyan to assist them in fighting with Hadad, son of Bedad, melech of Edom.

8 And Hadad came to the land of Moav, and Moav and the children of Midiyan went out to meet him, and they placed themselves in battle array against him in the field of Moav.

9 And Hadad fought with Moav, and there fell of the children of Moav and the children of Midiyan many slain ones, about two hundred thousand men.

10 And the battle was very severe upon Moav, and when the children of Moav saw that the battle was sore upon them, they weakened their hands and turned their backs, and left the children of Midiyan to carry on the battle.

11 And the children of Midiyan knew not the intentions of Moav, but they strengthened themselves in battle and fought with Hadad and all his army, and all Midiyan fell before him.

12 And Hadad smote all Midiyan with a heavy smiting, and he slew them with the edge of the sword, he left none remaining of those who came to assist Moav.

13 And when all the children of Midiyan had perished in battle, and the children at Moav had escaped, Hadad made all Moav at that time tributary to him, and they became under his hand, and they gave a yearly tax as it was ordered, and Hadad turned and went back to his land.

14 And at the turn of the year, when the rest of the people of Midiyan that were in the land heard that all their brothers had fallen in battle with Hadad for the sake of Moav, because the children of Moav had turned their backs in battle and left Midiyan to fight, then five of the princes of Midiyan resolved with the rest of their brothers who remained in their land, to fight with Moav to avenge the cause of their brothers.

15 And the children of Midiyan sent to all their brothers the children of the east, and all their brothers, all the children of Keturah came to assist Midiyan to fight with Moav.

16 And the children of Moav heard this thing, and they were greatly afraid that all the children of the east had assembled together against them for battle, and they the children of Moav sent a note to the land of Edom to Hadad the son of Bedad, saying,

17 Come now to us and assist us and we will smite Midiyan, for they all assembled together and have come against us with all their brothers the children of the east to battle, to avenge the cause of Midiyan that fell in battle.

18 And Hadad, son of Bedad, melech of Edom, went forth with his whole army and went to the land of Moav to fight with Midiyan, and Midiyan and the children of the east fought with Moav in the field of Moav, and the battle was very fierce between them.

19 And Hadad smote all the children of Midiyan and the children of the east with the edge of the sword, and Hadad at that time delivered Moav from the hand of Midiyan, and those that remained of Midiyan and of the children of the east fled before Hadad and his army, and Hadad pursued them to their land, and smote them with a very heavy slaughter, and the slain fell in the road.

20 And Hadad delivered Moav from the hand of Midiyan, for all the children of Midiyan had fallen by the edge of the sword, and Hadad turned and went back to his land.

21 And from that day forth, the children of Midiyan hated the children of Moav, because they had fallen in battle for their sake, and there was a great and mighty enmity between them all the days.

22 And all that were found of Midiyan in the road of the land of Moav perished by the sword of Moav, and all that were found of Moav in the road of the land of Midiyan, perished by the sword of Midiyan; this did Midiyan to Moav and Moav to Midiyan for many days.

23 And it came to pass at that time that Yahudah the son of Yaakov died in Mitzrayim, in the eighty-sixth year of Yaakov's going down to Mitzrayim, and Yahudah was a hundred and twenty-nine years old at his death, and they embalmed him and put him into a coffin, and he was given into the hands of his children.

24 And in the eighty-ninth year died Naphtali, he was a hundred and thirty-two years old, and he was put into a coffin and given into the hands of his children.

25 And it came to pass in the ninety-first year of the Yisraelites going down to Mitzrayim, that is in the thirtieth year of the reign of Zepho the son of Eliphaz, the son of Esav, over the children of Chittim, the children of Africa came upon the children of Chittim to plunder them as usual, but they had not come upon them for these thirteen years.

26 And they came to them in that year, and Zepho the son of Eliphaz went out to them with some of his men and smote them desperately, and the troops of Africa fled from before Zepho and the slain fell before him, and Zepho and his men pursued them, going on and smiting them until they were near to Africa.

27 And Angeas melech of Africa heard the thing that Zepho had done, and it vexed him exceedingly, and Angeas was afraid of Zepho all the days.

63 And in the ninety-third year died Levi, the son of Yaakov, in Mitzrayim, and Levi was a hundred and thirty-seven years old when he died, and they put him into a coffin and he was given into the hands of his children.

2 And it came to pass after the death of Levi, when all Mitzrayim saw that the sons of Yaakov the brothers of Yoseph were dead, all the Mitzrites began to afflict the children of Yaakov, and to embitter their lives from that day to the day of their going forth from Mitzrayim, and they took from their hands all the vineyards and fields which Yoseph had given to them, and all the elegant houses in which the people of Yisrael lived, and all the fat of Mitzrayim, the Mitzrites took all from the sons of Yaakov in those days.

3 And the hand of all Mitzrayim became more grievous in those days against the children of Yisrael, and the Mitzrites injured the Yisraelites until the children of Yisrael were wearied of their lives on account of the Mitzrites.

4 And it came to pass in those days, in the hundred and second year of Yisrael's going down to Mitzrayim, that Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim died, and Melol his son reigned in his stead, and all the mighty men of Mitzrayim and all that generation which knew Yoseph and his brothers died in those days.

5 And another generation rose up in their stead, which had not known the sons of Yaakov and all the tov which they had done to them, and all their might in Mitzrayim.

6 Therefore all Mitzrayim began from that day forth to embitter the lives of the sons of Yaakov, and to afflict them with all manner of hard labor, because they had not known their ancestors who had delivered them in the days of the famine.

7 And this was also from אִרְאֵל, for the children of Yisrael, to benefit them in their latter-days, in order that all the children of Yisrael might know אִרְאֵל their אִרְאֵל.

8 And in order to know the signs and mighty wonders which אִרְאֵל would do in Mitzrayim on account of His people Yisrael, in order that the children of Yisrael might fear אִרְאֵל Ahlohim of their ancestors, and walk in all His halachot, they and their zera after them all their days.

9 Melol was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned ninety-four years, and all Mitzrayim called his name Pharaoh after the name of his abba, as it was their custom to do to every melech who reigned over them in Mitzrayim.

10 At that time all the troops of Angeas melech of Africa went forth to spread along the land of Chittim as usual for plunder.

11 And Zepho the son of Eliphaz the son of Esav heard their report, and he went forth to meet them with his army, and he fought them there in the road.

12 And Zepho smote the troops of the melech of Africa with the edge of the sword, and left none remaining of them, and not even one returned to his master in Africa.

13 And Angeas heard of this which Zepho the son of Eliphaz had done to all his troops, that he had destroyed them, and Angeas assembled all his troops, all the men of the land of Africa, a people numerous like the sand by the seashore.

14 And Angeas sent to Lucus his brother, saying, Come to me with all your men and help me to smite Zepho and all the children of Chittim who have destroyed my men, and Lucus came with his whole army, a very great force, to assist Angeas his brother to fight with Zepho and the children of Chittim.

15 And Zepho and the children of Chittim heard this thing, and they were greatly afraid and a great terror fell upon their hearts.

16 And Zepho also sent a letter to the land of Edom to Hadad the son of Bedad melech of Edom and to all the children of Esav, saying, 17 I have heard that Angeas melech of Africa is coming to us with his brother for battle against us, and we are greatly afraid of him, for his army is very great, particularly as he comes against us with his brother and his army likewise.

18 Now therefore come you also up with me and help me, and we will fight together against Angeas and his brother Lucus, and you will save us out of their hands, but if not, know that we shall all die.

19 And the children of Esav sent a letter to the children of Chittim and to Zepho their melech, saying, We cannot fight against Angeas and his people for a covenant of shalom has been between us these many years, from the days of Bela the first melech, and from the days of Yoseph the son of Yaakov melech of Mitzrayim, with whom we fought on the other side of Yarden when he buried his abba.

20 And when Zepho heard the words of his brothers the children of Esav he refrained from them, and Zepho was greatly afraid of Angeas.

21 And Angeas and Lucus his brother arrayed all their forces, about eight hundred thousand men, against the children of Chittim.

22 And all the children of Chittim said to Zepho, Pray for us to the אלהים of your ancestors, perhaps He may deliver us from the hand of Angeas and his army, for we have heard that He is a great אלהים and that He delivers all who trust in Him.

23 And Zepho heard their words, and Zepho sought אלהים and he said, 24 O אלהים Ahlohim of Avraham and Yitzchak my ancestors, this day I know that you are an emet אלהים, and all the ahlohim of the nations are vain and useless.

25 Remember now this day to me your covenant with Avraham our abba, which our ancestors related to us, and do graciously with me this day for the sake of Avraham and Yitzchak our ahvot, and save me and the children of Chittim from the hand of the melech of Africa who comes against us for battle.

26 And אלהים hearkened to the voice of Zepho, and He had regard for him on account of Avraham and Yitzchak, and אלהים delivered Zepho and the children of Chittim from the hand of Angeas and his people.

27 And Zepho fought Angeas melech of Africa and all his people on that day, and אַרְאַז gave all the people of Angeas into the hands of the children of Chittim.

28 And the battle was severe upon Angeas, and Zepho smote all the men of Angeas and Lucus his brother, with the edge of the sword, and there fell from them to the evening of that day about four hundred thousand men.

29 And when Angeas saw that all his men perished, he sent a letter to all the inhabitants of Africa to come to him, to assist him in the battle, and he wrote in the letter, saying, All who are found in Africa let them come to me from ten years old and upward; let them all come to me, and behold if he comes not he shall die, and all that he has, with his whole household, the melech will take.

30 And all the rest of the inhabitants of Africa were terrified at the words of Angeas, and there went out of the city about three hundred thousand men and boys, from ten years upward, and they came to Angeas.

31 And at the end of ten days Angeas renewed the battle against Zepho and the children of Chittim, and the battle was very great and strong between them.

32 And from the army of Angeas and Lucus, Zepho sent many of the wounded to his hand, about two thousand men, and Sosiphtar the captain of the host of Angeas fell in that battle.

33 And when Sosiphtar had fallen, the African troops turned their backs to flee, and they fled, and Angeas and Lucus his brother were with them.

34 And Zepho and the children of Chittim pursued them, and they smote them still heavily on the road, about two hundred men, and they pursued Azdrubal the son of Angeas who had fled with his abba, and they smote twenty of his men in the road, and Azdrubal escaped from the children of Chittim, and they did not slay him.

35 And Angeas and Lucus his brother fled with the rest of their men, and they escaped and came into Africa with terror and consternation, and Angeas feared all the days lest Zepho the son of Eliphaz should go to war with him.

64 And Balaam the son of Beor was at that time with Angeas in the battle, and when he saw that Zepho prevailed over Angeas, he fled from there and came to Chittim.

2 And Zepho and the children of Chittim received him with great honor, for Zepho knew Balaam's wisdom, and Zepho gave to Balaam many gifts and he remained with him.

3 And when Zepho had returned from the war, he commanded all the children of Chittim to be numbered who had gone into battle with him, and behold not one was missed.

4 And Zepho rejoiced at this thing, and he renewed his malchut, and he made a feast to all his subjects.

5 But Zepho remembered not אֱלֹהִים and considered not that אֱלֹהִים had helped him in battle, and that he had delivered him and his people from the hand of the melech of Africa, but still walked in the halachot of the children of Chittim and the wicked children of Esav, to serve other alohim which his brothers the children of Esav had taught him; it is therefore said, From the wicked goes forth wickedness.

6 And Zepho reigned over all the children of Chittim securely, but knew not אֱלֹהִים who had delivered him and all his people from the hand of the melech of Africa; and the troops of Africa came no more to Chittim to plunder as usual, for they knew of the power of Zepho who had smitten them all at the edge of the sword, so Angeas was afraid of Zepho the son of Eliphaz, and of the children of Chittim all the days.

7 At that time when Zepho had returned from the war, and when Zepho had seen how he prevailed over all the people of Africa and had smitten them in battle at the edge of the sword, then Zepho advised with the children of Chittim, to go to Mitzrayim to fight with the sons of Yaakov and with Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim.

8 For Zepho heard that the mighty men of Mitzrayim were dead and that Yoseph and his brothers the sons of Yaakov were dead, and that all their children the children of Yisrael remained in Mitzrayim.

9 And Zepho considered to go to fight against them and all Mitzrayim, to avenge the cause of his brothers the children of Esav, whom Yoseph with his brothers and all Mitzrayim had smitten in the land of Kanaan, when they went up to bury Yaakov in Hevron.

10 And Zepho sent messengers to Hadad, son of Bedad, melech of Edom, and to all his brothers the children of Esav, saying, 11 Did you not say that you would not fight against the melech of Africa for he is a member of your covenant? Behold I fought with him and smote him and all his people.

12 Now therefore I have resolved to fight against Mitzrayim and the children of Yaakov who are there, and I will be revenged of them for what Yoseph, his brothers and ancestors did to us in the land of Kanaan when they went up to bury their abba in Hevron.

13 Now then if you are willing to come to me to assist me in fighting against them and Mitzrayim, then shall we avenge the cause of our brothers.

14 And the children of Esav hearkened to the words of Zepho, and the children of Esav gathered themselves together, a very great people, and they went to assist Zepho and the children of Chittim in battle.

15 And Zepho sent to all the children of the east and to all the children of Yishmael with words like these, and they gathered themselves and came to the assistance of Zepho and the children of Chittim in the war upon Mitzrayim.

16 And all these melechim, the melech of Edom and the children of the east, and all the children of Yishmael, and Zepho the melech of Chittim went forth and arrayed all their hosts in Hevron.

17 And the camp was very heavy, extending in length a distance of three days' journey, a people numerous as the sand upon the seashore which cannot be counted.

18 And all these melechim and their hosts went down and came against all Mitzrayim in battle, and encamped together in the Valley of Pathros.

19 And all Mitzrayim heard their report, and they also gathered themselves together, all the people of the land of Mitzrayim, and of all the cities belonging to Mitzrayim, about three hundred thousand men.

20 And the men of Mitzrayim sent also to the children of Yisrael who were in those days in the land of Goshen, to come to them in order to go and fight with these melechim.

21 And the men of Yisrael assembled and were about one hundred and fifty men, and they went into battle to assist the Mitzrites.

22 And the men of Yisrael and of Mitzrayim went forth, about three hundred thousand men and one hundred and fifty men, and they went toward these melechim to battle, and they placed themselves from outside the land of Goshen opposite Pathros.

23 And the Mitzrites believed not in Yisrael to go with them in their camps together for battle, for all the Mitzrites said, Perhaps the children of Yisrael will deliver us into the hand of the children of Esav and Yishmael, for they are their brothers.

24 And all the Mitzrites said to the children of Yisrael, Remain here together in your stand and we will go and fight against the children of Esav and Yishmael, and if these melechim should prevail over us, then come all together upon them and assist us, and the children of Yisrael did so.

25 And Zepho the son of Eliphaz the son of Esav melech of Chittim, and Hadad the son of Bedad melech of Edom, and all their camps, and all the children of the east, and children of Yishmael, a people numerous as sand, encamped together in the Valley of Pathros opposite Tachpanches.

26 And Balaam the son of Beor the Syrian was there in the camp of Zepho, for he came with the children of Chittim to the battle, and Balaam was a man highly honored in the eyes of Zepho and his men.

27 And Zepho said to Balaam, Try by divination for us that we may know who will prevail in the battle; us or the Mitzrites.

28 And Balaam rose up and tried the art of divination, and he was skillful in the knowledge of it, but he was confused and the work was destroyed in his hand.

29 And he tried it again but it did not succeed, and Balaam despaired of it and left it and did not complete it, for this was from אִי אֵל, in order to cause Zepho and his people to fall into the hand of the children of Yisrael, who had trusted in אֱלֹהֵינוּ, the אֱלֹהֵינוּ of their ancestors, in their war.

30 And Zepho and Hadad put their forces in battle array, and all the Mitzrites went alone against them, about three hundred thousand men, and not one man of Yisrael was with them.

31 And all the Mitzrites fought with these melechim opposite Pathros and Tachpanches, and the battle was severe against the Mitzrites.

32 And the melechim were stronger than the Mitzrites in that battle, and about one hundred and eighty men of Mitzrayim fell on that day, and about thirty men of the forces of the melechim, and all the men of Mitzrayim fled from before the melechim, so the children of Esav and Yishmael pursued the Mitzrites, continuing to smite them to the place where was the camp of the children of Yisrael.

33 And all the Mitzrites cried to the children of Yisrael, saying, Hasten to us and assist us and save us from the hand of Esav, Yishmael and the children of Chittim.

34 And the hundred and fifty men of the children of Yisrael ran from their station to the camps of these melechim, and the children of Yisrael cried to אֱלֹהֵינוּ their אֱלֹהֵינוּ to deliver them.

35 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ hearkened to Yisrael, and אֱלֹהֵינוּ gave all the men of the melechim into their hand, and the children of Yisrael fought against these melechim, and the children of Yisrael smote about four thousand of the melechims' men.

36 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ threw a great consternation in the camp of the melechim, so that the fear of the children of Yisrael fell upon them.

37 And all the armies of the melechim fled from before the children of Yisrael and the children of Yisrael pursued them continuing to smite them to the borders of the land of Cush.

38 And the children of Yisrael slew of them in the road yet two thousand men, and of the children of Yisrael not one fell.

39 And when the Mitzrites saw that the children of Yisrael had fought with such few men with the melechim, and that the battle was so very severe against them, 40 All the Mitzrites were greatly afraid of their lives on account of the strong battle, and all Mitzrayim fled, every man hiding himself from the arrayed forces, and they hid themselves in the road, and they left the Yisraelites to fight.

41 And the children of Yisrael inflicted a terrible blow upon the melechims' men, and they returned from them after they had driven them to the border of the land of Cush.

42 And all Yisrael knew the thing that the men of Mitzrayim had done to them, that they had fled from them in battle, and had left them to fight alone.

43 So the children of Yisrael also acted with cunning, and as the children of Yisrael returned from battle, they found some of the Mitzrites in the road and smote them there.

44 And while they slew them, they said to them these words:

45 Why did you go from us and leave us, being a few people, to fight against these melechim who had a great people to smite us, that you might thereby deliver your own beings?

46 And of some which the Yisraelites met on the road, they the children of Yisrael spoke to each other, saying, Smite, smite, for he is a Yishmaelite, or an Edomite, or from the children of Chittim, and they stood over him and slew him, and they knew that he was a Mitzrite.

47 And the children of Yisrael did these things cunningly against the Mitzrites, because they had deserted them in battle and had fled from them.

48 And the children of Yisrael slew of the men of Mitzrayim in the road in this manner, about two hundred men.

49 And all the men of Mitzrayim saw the evil which the children of Yisrael had done to them, so all Mitzrayim feared greatly the children of Yisrael, for they had seen their great power, and that not one man of them had fallen.

50 So all the children of Yisrael returned with joy on their road to Goshen, and the rest of Mitzrayim returned each man to his place.

56 And it came to pass after these things that all the counselors of Pharaoh, melech of Mitzrayim, and all the zachanim of Mitzrayim assembled and came before the melech and bowed down to the ground, and they sat before him.

2 And the counselors and zachanim of Mitzrayim spoke to the melech, saying,

3 Behold the people of the children of Yisrael is greater and mightier than we are, and you know all the evil that they did to us in the road when we returned from battle.

4 And you have also seen their strong power, for this power is to them from their ahvot, for but a few men stood up against a people numerous as the sand, and smote them at the edge of the sword, and of themselves not one has fallen, so that if they had been numerous they would then have utterly destroyed them.

5 Now therefore give us counsel what to do with them, until we gradually destroy them from among us, lest they become too numerous for us in the land.

6 For if the children of Yisrael should increase in the land, they will become an obstacle to us, and if any war should happen to take place, they with their great strength will join our enemy against us, and fight against us, destroy us from the land and go away from it.

7 So the melech answered the zachanim of Mitzrayim and said to them, This is the plan advised against Yisrael, from which we will not depart,

8 Behold in the land are Pithom and Rameses, cities unfortified against battle, it behooves you and us to build them, and to fortify them.

9 Now therefore go you also and act cunningly toward them, and proclaim a voice in Mitzrayim and in Goshen at the command of the melech, saying,

10 All you men of Mitzrayim, Goshen, Pathros and all their inhabitants! The melech has commanded us to build Pithom and Rameses, and to fortify them for battle; who among you of all Mitzrayim, of the children of Yisrael and of all the inhabitants of the cities, are willing to build with us, shall each have his wages given to him daily at the melech's order; so go you first and do cunningly, and gather yourselves and come to Pithom and Rameses to build.

11 And while you are building, cause a proclamation of this kind to be made throughout Mitzrayim every day at the command of the melech.

12 And when some of the children of Yisrael shall come to build with you, you shall give them their wages daily for a few days.

13 And after they shall have built with you for their daily hire, drag yourselves away from them daily one by one in secret, and then you shall rise up and become their task-masters and officers, and you shall leave them afterward to build without wages, and should they refuse, then force them with all your might to build.

14 And if you do this it will be well with us to strengthen our land against the children of Yisrael, for on account of the fatigue of the building and the work, the children of Yisrael will decrease, because you will deprive them from their wives day by day.

15 And all the zachanim of Mitzrayim heard the counsel of the melech, and the counsel seemed tov in their eyes and in the eyes of the servants of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all Mitzrayim, and they did according to the word of the melech.

16 And all the servants went away from the melech, and they caused a proclamation to be made in all Mitzrayim, in Tachpanches and in Goshen, and in all the cities which surrounded Mitzrayim, saying,

17 You have seen what the children of Esav and Yishmael did to us, who came to war against us and wished to destroy us.

18 Now therefore the melech commanded us to fortify the land, to build the cities Pithom and Rameses, and to fortify them for battle, if they should again come against us.

19 Whosoever of you from all Mitzrayim and from the children of Yisrael will come to build with us, he shall have his daily wages given by the melech, as his command is to us.

20 And when Mitzrayim and all the children of Yisrael heard all that the servants of Pharaoh had spoken, there came from the Mitzrites, and the children of Yisrael to build with the servants of Pharaoh, Pithom and Rameses, but none of the children of Levi came with their brothers to build.

21 And all the servants of Pharaoh and his princes came at first with deceit to build with all Yisrael as daily hired laborers, and they gave to Yisrael their daily hire at the beginning.

22 And the servants of Pharaoh built with all Yisrael, and were employed in that work with Yisrael for a month.

23 And at the end of the month, all the servants of Pharaoh began to withdraw secretly from the people of Yisrael daily.

24 And Yisrael went on with the work at that time, but they then received their daily hire, because some of the men of Mitzrayim were yet carrying on the work with Yisrael at that time; therefore the Mitzrites gave Yisrael their hire in those days, in order that they, the Mitzrites their fellow-workmen, might also take the pay for their labor.

25 And at the end of a year and four months all the Mitzrites had withdrawn from the children of Yisrael, so that the children of Yisrael were left alone engaged in the work.

26 And after all the Mitzrites had withdrawn from the children of Yisrael they returned and became oppressors and officers over them, and some of them stood over the children of Yisrael as task masters, to receive from them all that they gave them for the pay of their labor.

27 And the Mitzrites did in this manner to the children of Yisrael day by day, in order to afflict in their work.

28 And all the children of Yisrael were alone engaged in the labor, and the Mitzrites refrained from giving any pay to the children of Yisrael from that time forward.

29 And when some of the men of Yisrael refused to work on account of the wages not being given to them, then the exactors and the servants of Pharaoh oppressed them and smote them with heavy blows, and made them return by force, to labor with their brothers; this did all the Mitzrites to the children of Yisrael all the days.

30 And all the children of Yisrael were greatly afraid of the Mitzrites in this matter, and all the children of Yisrael returned and worked alone without pay.

31 And the children of Yisrael built Pithom and Rameses, and all the children of Yisrael did the work, some making bricks, and some building, and the children of Yisrael built and fortified all the land of Mitzrayim and its walls, and the children of Yisrael were engaged in work for many years, until the time came when אִיִּזְרָאֵל remembered them and brought them out of Mitzrayim.

32 But the children of Levi were not employed in the work with their brothers of Yisrael, from the beginning to the day of their going forth from Mitzrayim.

33 For all the children of Levi knew that the Mitzrites had spoken all these words with deceit to the Yisraelites, therefore the children of Levi refrained from approaching to the work with their brothers.

34 And the Mitzrites did not direct their attention to make the children of Levi work afterward, since they had not been with their brothers at the beginning, therefore the Mitzrites left them alone.

35 And the hands of the men of Mitzrayim were directed with continued severity against the children of Yisrael in that work, and the Mitzrites made the children of Yisrael work with rigor.

36 And the Mitzrites embittered the lives of the children of Yisrael with hard work, in mortar and bricks, and also in all manner of work in the field.

37 And the children of Yisrael called Melol the melech of Mitzrayim "Meror, melech of Mitzrayim," because in his days the Mitzrites had embittered their lives with all manner of work.

38 And all the work wherein the Mitzrites made the children of Yisrael labor, they exacted with rigor, in order to afflict the children of Yisrael, but the more they afflicted them, the more they increased and grew, and the Mitzrites were grieved because of the children of Yisrael.

66 At that time died Hadad the son of Bedad melech of Edom, and Samlah from Mesrekah, from the country of the children of the east, reigned in his place.

2 In the thirteenth year of the reign of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, which was the hundred and twenty-fifth year of the Yisraelites going down into Mitzrayim, Samlah had reigned over Edom eighteen years.

3 And when he reigned, he drew forth his hosts to go and fight against Zepho the son of Eliphaz and the children of Chittim, because they had made war against Angeas melech of Africa, and they destroyed his whole army.

4 But he did not engage with him, for the children of Esav prevented him, saying, He was their brother, so Samlah listened to the voice of the children of Esav, and turned back with all his forces to the land of Edom, and did not proceed to fight against Zepho the son of Eliphaz.

5 And Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim heard this thing, saying, Samlah melech of Edom has resolved to fight the children of Chittim, and afterward he will come to fight against Mitzrayim.

6 And when the Mitzrites heard this matter, they increased the labor upon the children of Yisrael, lest the Yisraelites should do to them as they did to them in their war with the children of Esav in the days of Hadad.

7 So the Mitzrites said to the children of Yisrael, Hasten and do your work, and finish your task, and strengthen the land, lest the children of Esav your brothers should come to fight against us, for on your account will they come against us.

8 And the children of Yisrael did the work of the men of Mitzrayim day by day, and the Mitzrites afflicted the children of Yisrael in order to lessen them in the land.

9 But as the Mitzrites increased the labor upon the children of Yisrael, so did the children of Yisrael increase and multiply, and all Mitzrayim was filled with the children of Yisrael.

10 And in the hundred and twenty-fifth year of Yisrael's going down into Mitzrayim, all the Mitzrites saw that their counsel did not succeed against Yisrael, but that they increased and grew, and the land of Mitzrayim and the land of Goshen were filled with the children of Yisrael.

11 So all the zachanim of Mitzrayim and its wise men came before the melech and bowed down to him and sat before him.

12 And all the zachanim of Mitzrayim and the wise men of it said to the melech, May the melech live le-olam-va-ed; you did counsel us the counsel against the children of Yisrael, and we did to them according to the word of the melech.

13 But in proportion to the increase of the labor so do they increase and grow in the land, and behold the whole country is filled with them.

14 Now therefore our master and melech, the eyes of all Mitzrayim are upon you to give them advice with your wisdom, by which they may prevail over Yisrael to destroy them, or to diminish them from the land; and the melech answered them saying, Give you counsel in this matter that we may know what to do to them.

15 And an officer, one of the melech's counselors, whose name was Iyov, from Mesopotamia, in the land of Uz, answered the melech, saying, 16 If it pleases the melech, let him hear the counsel of his servant; and the melech said to him, Speak.

17 And Iyov spoke before the melech, the princes, and before all the zachanim of Mitzrayim, saying, 18 Behold the counsel of the melech which he advised formerly respecting the labor of the children of Yisrael is very tov, and you must not remove from them that labor le-olam-va-ed.

19 But this is the advice counseled by which you may lessen them, if it seems tov to the melech to afflict them.

20 Behold we have feared war for a long time, and we said, When Yisrael becomes fruitful in the land, they will drive us from the land if a war should take place.

21 If it pleases the melech, let a royal decree go forth, and let it be written in the laws of Mitzrayim that shall not be revoked, that every male child born to the Yisraelites, his blood shall be spilled upon the ground.

22 And by your doing this, when all the male children of Yisrael shall have died, the evil of their wars will cease; let the melech do so and send for all the Ivri midwives and order them in this matter to execute it; so the thing pleased the melech and the princes, and the melech did according to the word of Iyov.

23 And the melech sent for the Ivri midwives to be called, of which the name of one was Shephrah, and the name of the other Puah.

24 And the midwives came before the melech, and stood in his presence.

25 And the melech said to them, When you do the office of a midwife to the Ivri women, and see them upon the stools, if it is a son, then you shall kill him, but if it is a daughter, then she shall live.

26 But if you will not do this thing, then will I burn you up and all your houses with fire.

27 But the midwives feared אִרְאֵל and did not listen to the melech of Mitzrayim or to his words, and when the Ivri women brought forth to the midwife son or daughter; then did the midwife do all that was necessary to the child and let it live; this did the midwives all the days.

28 And this thing was told to the melech, and he sent and called for the midwives and he said to them, Why have you done this thing and have saved the children alive?

29 And the midwives answered and spoke together before the melech, saying,

30 Let not the melech think that the Ivri women are as the Mitzrite women, for all the children of Yisrael are hale, and before the midwife comes to them they are delivered, and as for us your handmaids, for many days no Ivri woman has brought forth upon us, for all the Ivri women are their own midwives, because they are hale.

31 And Pharaoh heard their words and believed them in this matter, and the midwives went away from the melech, and אִרְאֵל dealt well with them, and the people multiplied and waxed exceedingly.

67 There was a man in the land of Mitzrayim of the zera of Levi, whose name was Amram, the son of Kehoth, the son of Levi, the son of Yisrael.

2 And this man went and took a wife, namely Yocheved the daughter of Levi his abba's sister, and she was one hundred and twenty-six years old, and he came to her.

3 And the women conceived and bare a daughter, and she called her name Miryam, because in those days the Mitzrites had embittered the lives of the children of Yisrael.

4 And she conceived again and bare a son and she called his name Aharon, for in the days of her conception, Pharaoh began to spill the blood of the male children of Yisrael.

5 In those days died Zepho the son of Eliphaz, son of Esav, melech of Chittim, and Yaneas reigned in his stead.

6 And the time that Zepho reigned over the children of Chittim was fifty years, and he died and was buried in the city of Navna in the land of Chittim.

7 And Yaneas, one of the mighty men of the children of Chittim, reigned after him and he reigned fifty years.

8 And it was after the death of the melech of Chittim that Balaam the son of Beor fled from the land of Chittim, and he went and came to Mitzrayim to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim.

9 And Pharaoh received him with great honor, for he had heard of his wisdom, and he gave him presents and made him a counselor, and aggrandized him.

10 And Balaam dwelt in Mitzrayim, in honor with all the nobles of the melech, and the nobles exalted him, because they all coveted to learn his wisdom.

11 And in the hundred and thirtieth year of Yisrael's going down to Mitzrayim, Pharaoh dreamed that he was sitting upon his kingly throne, and lifted up his eyes and saw an old man standing before him, and there were scales in the hands of the old man, such scales as are used by merchants.

12 And the old man took the scales and hung them before Pharaoh.

13 And the old man took all the zachanim of Mitzrayim and all its nobles and great men, and he tied them together and put them in one scale.

14 And he took a milk kid and put it into the other scale, and the kid outweighed them all.

15 And Pharaoh was astonished at this dreadful vision, why the kid should outweigh them all, and Pharaoh awoke and behold it was a dream.

16 And Pharaoh rose up early in the morning and called all his servants and related to them the dream, and the men were greatly afraid.

17 And the melech said to all his wise men, Interpret I ask you the dream that I dreamed, that I may know it.

18 And Balaam the son of Beor answered the melech and said to him, This means nothing else but a great evil that will spring up against Mitzrayim in the latter-days.

19 For a son will be born to Yisrael who will destroy all Mitzrayim and its inhabitants, and bring forth the Yisraelites from Mitzrayim with a mighty hand.

20 Now therefore, O melech, take counsel upon this matter, that you may destroy the hope of the children of Yisrael and their expectation, before this evil arise against Mitzrayim.

21 And the melech said to Balaam, And what shall we do to Yisrael? Surely after a certain manner did we at first counsel against them and could not prevail over them.

22 Now therefore give you also advice against them by which we may prevail over them.

23 And Balaam answered the melech, saying, Send now and call your two counselors, and we will see what their advice is upon this matter and afterward your servant will speak.

24 And the melech sent and called his two counselors Reuel the Midyanite and Iyov the Uzite, and they came and sat before the melech.

25 And the melech said to them, Behold you have both heard the dream which I have dreamed, and the interpretation of it; now therefore give counsel and know and see what is to be done to the children of Yisrael, whereby we may prevail over them, before their evil shall spring up against us.

26 And Reuel the Midyanite answered the melech and said, May the melech live, may the melech live le-olam-va-ed.

27 If it seem tov to the melech, let him desist from the Ivrim and leave them, and let him not stretch forth his hand against them.

28 For these are they whom אֱלֹהִים chose in days of old, and took as the lot of his inheritance from among all the nations of the earth and the melechim of the earth; and who is there that stretched his hand against them with impunity, of whom their אֱלֹהִים was not avenged?

29 Surely you know that when Avraham went down to Mitzrayim, Pharaoh, the former melech of Mitzrayim, saw Sarah his wife, and took her for a wife, because Avraham said, She is my sister, for he was afraid, lest the men of Mitzrayim should slay him on account of his wife.

30 And when the melech of Mitzrayim had taken Sarah then אֱלֹהִים smote him and his household with heavy plagues, until he restored to Avraham his wife
Sarah, then was he healed.

31 And Avimelech the Gerarite, melech of the Philistines, אֱלֹהִים punished on account of Sarah wife of Avraham, in stopping up every womb from man to beast.

32 When their אֱלֹהִים came to Avimelech in the dream of night and terrified him in order that he might restore to Avraham Sarah whom he had taken, and afterward all the people of Gerar were punished on account of Sarah, and Avraham prayed to his אֱלֹהִים for them, and He was entreated of him, and he healed them.

33 And Avimelech feared all this evil that came upon him and his people, and he returned to Avraham his wife Sarah, and gave him with her many gifts.

34 He did so also to Yitzchak when he had driven him from Gerar, and אֱלֹהִים had done wonderful things to him, that all the mayim courses of Gerar were dried up, and their productive trees did not bring forth.

35 Until Avimelech of Gerar, and Ahuzzath one of his friends, and Pichol the captain of his host, went to him and they bent and bowed down before him to the ground.

36 And they requested of him to supplicate for them, and he prayed to אֱלֹהִים for them, and אֱלֹהִים was entreated of him and He healed them.

37 Yaakov also, the plain man, was delivered through his integrity from the hand of his brother Esav, and the hand of Lavan the Syrian-Aramean his ema's brother, who had sought his life; likewise from the hand of all the melechim of Kanaan who had come together against him and his children to destroy them, and אֱלֹהִים delivered them out of their hands, that they turned upon them and smote them, for who had ever stretched forth his hand against them with impunity?

38 Surely Pharaoh the former, your abba's abba, raised Yoseph the son of Yaakov above all the princes of the land of Mitzrayim, when he saw his wisdom, for through his wisdom he rescued all the inhabitants of the land from the famine.

39 After which he ordered Yaakov and his children to come down to Mitzrayim, in order that through their virtue, the land of Mitzrayim and the land of Goshen might be delivered from the famine.

40 Now therefore if it seems tov in your eyes, cease from destroying the children of Yisrael, but if it be not your will that they shall dwell in Mitzrayim, send them forth from here, that they may go to the land of Kanaan, the land where their ancestors sojourned.

41 And when Pharaoh heard the words of Yithro he was very angry with him, so that he rose with shame from the melech's presence, and went to Midiyan, his land, and took Yoseph's stick with him.

42 And the melech said to Iyov the Uzite, What say you Iyov, and what is your advice respecting the Ivrim?

43 So Iyov said to the melech, Behold all the inhabitants of the land are in your power; let the melech do, as it seems tov in his eyes.

44 And the melech said to Balaam, What do you say, Balaam, speak your word that we may hear it.

45 And Balaam said to the melech, Of all that the melech has counseled against the Ivrim will they be delivered, and the melech will not be able to prevail over them with any counsel.

46 For if you think to lessen them by the flaming fire, you cannot prevail over them, for surely their אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָם delivered Avraham their abba from Ur of the Chaldeans; and if you think to destroy them with a sword, surely Yitzchak their abba was delivered from it, and a ram was placed in his stead.

47 And if with hard and rigorous labor you think to lessen them, you will not prevail even in this, for their abba Yaakov served Lavan in all manner of hard work, and prospered.

48 Now therefore, O Melech, hear my words, for this is the counsel which is counseled against them, by which you will prevail over them, and from which you should not depart.

49 If it please the melech let him order all their children which shall be born from this day forward, to be thrown into the mayim, for by this can you wipe away their name, for none of them, nor of their ahvot, were tried in this manner.

50 And the melech heard the words of Balaam, and the thing pleased the melech and the princes, and the melech did according to the word of Balaam.

51 And the melech ordered a proclamation to be issued and a law to be made throughout the land of Mitzrayim, saying, Every male child born to the Ivrim from this day forward shall be thrown into the mayim.

52 And Pharaoh called to all his servants, saying, Go now and seek throughout the land of Goshen where the children of Yisrael are, and see that every son born to the Ivrim shall be cast into the river, but every daughter you shall let live.

53 And when the children of Yisrael heard this thing that Pharaoh had commanded, to cast their male children into the river, some of the people separated from their wives and others adhered to them.

54 And from that day forward, when the time of delivery arrived to those women of Yisrael who had remained with their husbands, they went to the field to bring forth there, and they brought forth in the field, and left their children upon the field and returned home.

55 And אִרְאֵל who had sworn to their ancestors to multiply them, sent one of His ministering malachim which are in the shamayim to wash each child in mayim, to anoint and swathe it and to put into its hands two smooth stones from one of which it sucked milk and from the other honey, and He caused its hair to grow to its knees, by which it might cover itself; to comfort it and to cleave to it, through His rachamim for it.

56 And when אִרְאֵל had rachamim over them and had desired to multiply them upon the face of the land, He ordered His earth to receive them to be preserved therein till the time of their growing up, after which the earth opened its mouth and vomited them forth and they sprouted forth from the city like the herb of the earth, and the grass of the forest, and they returned each to his family and to his abba's house, and they remained with them.

57 And the babes of the children of Yisrael were upon the earth like the herb of the field, through אִרְאֵל's rachamim to them.

58 And when all the Mitzrites saw this thing, they went forth, each to his field with his yoke of oxen and his ploughshare, and they ploughed it up as one ploughs the earth at zera time.

59 And when they ploughed they were unable to hurt the infants of the children of Yisrael, so the people increased and waxed exceedingly.

60 And Pharaoh ordered his officers daily to go to Goshen to seek for the babes of the children of Yisrael.

61 And when they had sought and found one, they took it from its ema's bosom by force, and threw it into the river, but the female child they left with its ema; this did the Mitzrites do to the Yisraelites all the days.

68 And it was at that time the Ruach of אִרְאֵל was upon Miryam the daughter of Amram the sister of Aharon, and she went forth and prophesied around the house, saying, Behold a son will be born to us from my abba and ema this time, and he will save Yisrael from the hands of Mitzrayim.

2 And when Amram heard the words of his daughter, he went and took his wife back to the house, after he had driven her away at the time when Pharaoh ordered every male child of the house of Yaakov to be thrown into the mayim.

3 So Amram took Yocheved his wife, three years after he had driven her away, and he came to her and she conceived.

4 And at the end of seven months from her conception she brought forth a son, and the whole house was filled with great light as of the light of the sun and moon at the time of their shining.

5 And when the woman saw the child that it was tov and pleasing to the sight, she hid it for three months in an inner room.

6 In those days the Mitzrites conspired to destroy all the Ivrim there.

7 And the Mitzrite women went to Goshen where the children of Yisrael were, and they carried their young ones upon their shoulders, their babes who could not yet speak.

8 And in those days, when the women of the children of Yisrael brought forth, each woman had hidden her son from before the Mitzrites, that the Mitzrites might not know of their bringing forth, and might not destroy them from the land.

9 And the Mitzrite women came to Goshen and their children who could not speak were upon their shoulders, and when a Mitzrite woman came into the house of an Ivri woman her babe began to cry.

10 And when it cried the child that was in the inner room answered it, so the Mitzrite women went and told it at the house of Pharaoh.

11 And Pharaoh sent his officers to take the children and slay them; this did the Mitzrites to the Ivri women all the days.

12 And it was at that time, about three months from Yocheved's concealment of her son, that the thing was known in Pharaoh's house.

13 And the woman hurried to take away her son before the officers came, and she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein, and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

14 And his sister Miryam stood afar off to know what would be done to him, and what would become of her words.

15 And אִרְאֵל sent forth at that time a terrible heat in the land of Mitzrayim, which burned up the flesh of man like the sun in his circuit, and it greatly oppressed the Mitzrites.

16 And all the Mitzrites went down to bathe in the river, on account of the consuming heat that burned up their flesh.

17 And Bathiya, the daughter of Pharaoh, went also to bathe in the river, owing to the consuming heat, and her maidens walked at the riverside, and all the women of Mitzrayim as well.

18 And Bathiya lifted up her eyes to the river, and she saw the basket upon the mayim, and sent her maid to fetch it.

19 And she opened it and saw the child, and behold the babe wept, and she had rachamim on him, and she said, This is one of the Ivri children.

20 And all the women of Mitzrayim walking on the riverside desired to give him suck, but he would not suck, for this thing was from אִרְאֵל, in order to restore him to his ema's breast.

21 And Miryam his sister was at that time among the Mitzrite women at the riverside, and she saw this thing and she said to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and fetch a nurse of the Ivri women, that she may nurse the child for you?

22 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go, and the young woman went and called the child's ema.

23 And Pharaoh's daughter said to Yocheved, Take this child away and suckle it for me, and I will pay you your wages, two bits of silver daily; and the woman took the child and nursed it.

24 And at the end of two years, when the child grew up, she brought him to the daughter of Pharaoh, and he was to her as a son, and she called his name Moshe, for she said, Because I drew him out of the mayim.

25 And Amram his abba called his name Chavar, for he said, It was for him that he associated with his wife from whom he had turned away.

26 And Yocheved his ema called his name Yekuthiel, because, she said, I have hoped for him to the Almighty, and אֱלֹהִים restored him to me.

27 And Miryam his sister called him Yered, for she descended after him to the river to know what his end would be.

28 And Aharon his brother called his name Avizanuch, saying, My abba left my ema and returned to her on his account.

29 And Kohath the abba of Amram called his name Avigdor, because on his account did אֱלֹהִים repair the breach of the house of Yaakov, that they could no longer throw their male children into the mayim.

30 And their nurse called him Avi-Sucho, saying, In his tabernacle was he hidden for three months, on account of the children of Ham.

31 And all Yisrael called his name Shemayah, son of Nethanel, for they said, In his days has אֱלֹהִים heard their cries and rescued them from their oppressors.

32 And Moshe was in Pharaoh's house, and was to Bathiya, Pharaoh's daughter, as a son, and Moshe grew up among the melech's children.

69 And the melech of Edom died in those days, in the eighteenth year of his reign, and was buried in his temple that he had built for himself as his royal residence in the land of Edom.

2 And the children of Esav sent to Pethor, which is upon the river, and they fetched from there a young man of beautiful eyes and comely aspect, whose name was Shaul, and they made him melech over them in the place of Samlah.

3 And Shaul reigned over all the children of Esav in the land of Edom for forty years.

4 And when Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim saw that the counsel which Balaam had advised respecting the children of Yisrael did not succeed, but that still they were fruitful, multiplied and increased throughout the land of Mitzrayim,

5 Then Pharaoh commanded in those days that a proclamation should be issued throughout Mitzrayim to the children of Yisrael, saying, No man shall diminish any thing of his daily labor.

6 And the man who shall be found deficient in his labor which he performs daily, whether in mortar or in bricks, then his youngest son shall be put in their place.

7 And the labor of Mitzrayim strengthened upon the children of Yisrael in those days, and behold if one brick was deficient in any man's daily labor, the Mitzrites took his youngest boy by force from his ema, and put him into the building in the place of the brick which his abba had left wanting.

8 And the men of Mitzrayim did so to all the children of Yisrael day by day, all the days for a long period.

9 But the tribe of Levi did not at that time work with the Yisraelites their brothers, from the beginning, for the children of Levi knew the cunning of the Mitzrites that they exercised at first toward the Yisraelites.

70 And in the third year from the birth of Moshe, Pharaoh was sitting at a banquet, when Alparanith the queen was sitting at his right and Bathiya at his left, and the lad Moshe was lying upon her bosom, and Balaam the son of Beor with his two sons, and all the princes of the malchut were sitting at table in the melech's presence.

2 And the lad stretched forth his hand upon the melech's head, and took the keter from the melech's head and placed it on his own head.

3 And when the melech and princes saw the work that the boy had done, the melech and princes were terrified, and one man to his neighbor expressed astonishment.

4 And the melech said to the princes who were before him at table, What speak you and what say you, O you princes, in this matter, and what is to be the mishpat against the boy on account of this act?

5 And Balaam the son of Beor the magician answered before the melech and princes, and he said, Remember now, O my master and melech, the dream which you did dream many days since, and that which your servant interpreted to you.

6 Now therefore this is a child from the Ivrim children, in whom is the Ruach of אִיִּר, and let not my master the melech imagine that this youngster did this thing without knowledge.

7 For he is an Ivri boy, and wisdom and understanding are with him, although he is yet a child, and with wisdom has he done this and chosen to himself the malchut of Mitzrayim.

8 For this is the manner of all the Ivrim to deceive melechim and their nobles, to do all these things cunningly, in order to make the melechim of the earth and their men tremble.

9 Surely you know that Avraham their abba acted like this, who deceived the army of Nimrod melech of Bavel, and Avimelech melech of Gerar, and that he possessed himself of the land of the children of Cheth and all the kingdoms of Kanaan.

10 And that he descended into Mitzrayim and said of Sarah his wife, she is my sister, in order to mislead Mitzrayim and her melech.

11 His son Yitzchak also did so when he went to Gerar and dwelt there, and his strength prevailed over the army of Avimelech melech of the Philistines.

12 He also thought of making the malchut of the Philistines stumble, in saying that Rivkah his wife was his sister.

13 Yaakov also dealt treacherously with his brother, and took from his hand his bechor and his blessing.

14 He went then to Padan-Aram to the house of Lavan his ema's brother, and cunningly obtained from him his daughter, his cattle, and all belonging to him, and fled away and returned to the land of Kanaan to his abba.

15 His sons sold their brother Yoseph, who went down into Mitzrayim and became a slave, and was placed in the prison house for twelve years.

16 Until the former Pharaoh dreamed dreams, and withdrew him from the prison house, and magnified him above all the princes in Mitzrayim on account of his interpreting his dreams to him.

17 And when אִרְאֵל caused a famine throughout the land he sent for and brought his abba and all his brothers, and the whole of his abba's household, and supported them without price or reward, and bought the Mitzrites for slaves.

18 Now therefore my master melech behold this child has risen up in their stead in Mitzrayim, to do according to their deeds and to trifle with every melech, prince and judge.

19 If it please the melech, let us now spill his blood upon the ground, lest he grow up and take away the government from your hand, and the hope of Mitzrayim perish after he shall have reigned.

20 And Balaam said to the melech, Let us moreover call for all the shophtim of Mitzrayim and the wise men of it, and let us know if the mishpat of death is due to this boy as you did say, and then we will slay him.

21 And Pharaoh sent and called for all the wise men of Mitzrayim and they came before the melech, and a malach of אִיִּי came among them, and he was like one of the wise men of Mitzrayim.

22 And the melech said to the wise men, Surely you have heard what this Ivri boy who is in the house has done, and this has Balaam judged in the matter.

23 Now judge you also and see what is due to the boy for the act he has committed.

24 And the malach, who seemed like one of the wise men of Pharaoh, answered and said as follows, before all the wise men of Mitzrayim and before the melech and the princes:

25 If it please the melech let the melech send for men who shall bring before him an onyx stone and a coal of fire, and place them before the child, and if the child shall stretch forth his hand and take the onyx stone, then shall we know that with wisdom has the youth done all that he has done, and we must slay him.

26 But if he stretches forth his hand upon the coal, then shall we know that it was not with knowledge that he did this thing, and he shall live.

27 And the thing seemed tov in the eyes of the melech and the princes, so the melech did according to the word of the malach of אִיִּי.

28 And the melech ordered the onyx stone and coal to be brought and placed before Moshe.

29 And they placed the boy before them, and the lad endeavored to stretch forth his hand to the onyx stone, but the malach of אִיִּי took his hand and placed it upon the coal, and the coal became extinguished in his hand, and he lifted it up and put it into his mouth, and burned part of his lips and part of his tongue, and he became heavy in mouth and tongue.

30 And when the melech and princes saw this, they knew that Moshe had not acted with wisdom in taking off the keter from the melech's head.

31 So the melech and princes refrained from slaying the child, so Moshe remained in Pharaoh's house, growing up, and אֶרְרָא was with him.

32 And while the boy was in the melech's house, he was robed in purple and he grew among the children of the melech.

33 And when Moshe grew up in the melech's house, Bathiya the daughter of Pharaoh considered him as a son, and all the household of Pharaoh honored him, and all the men of Mitzrayim were afraid of him.

34 And he daily went forth and came into the land of Goshen, where his brothers the children of Yisrael were, and Moshe saw them daily in shortness of breath and hard labor.

35 And Moshe asked them, saying, Why is this labor meted out to you day by day?

36 And they told him all that had befallen them, and all the injunctions that Pharaoh had put upon them before his birth.

37 And they told him all the counsels which Balaam the son of Beor had counseled against them, and what he had also counseled against him in order to slay him when he had taken the melech's keter from off his head.

38 And when Moshe heard these things his anger was kindled against Balaam, and he sought to kill him, and he was in ambush for him day by day.

39 And Balaam was afraid of Moshe, and he and his two sons rose up and went forth from Mitzrayim, and they fled and delivered their beings and took themselves to the land of Cush to Kikianus, melech of Cush.

40 And Moshe was in the melech's house going out and coming in, אִתָּוָה gave him favor in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants, and in the eyes of all the people of Mitzrayim, and they loved Moshe exceedingly.

41 And the day arrived when Moshe went to Goshen to see his brothers, that he saw the children of Yisrael in their burdens and hard labor, and Moshe was grieved on their account.

42 And Moshe returned to Mitzrayim and came to the house of Pharaoh, and came before the melech, and Moshe bowed down before the melech.

43 And Moshe said to Pharaoh, I ask you my master, I have come to seek a small request from you, turn not away my face empty; and Pharaoh said to him, Speak.

44 And Moshe said to Pharaoh, Let there be given to your servants the children of Yisrael who are in Goshen, one day to rest in from their labor.

45 And the melech answered Moshe and said, Behold I have lifted up your face in this thing to grant your request.

46 And Pharaoh ordered a proclamation to be issued throughout Mitzrayim and Goshen, saying, 47 To you, all the children of Yisrael, this says the melech, for six days you shall do your work and labor, but on the seventh day you shall rest, and shall not perform any work, this shall you do all the days, as the melech and Moshe the son of Bathiya have commanded.

48 And Moshe rejoiced at this thing that the melech had granted to him, and all the children of Yisrael did as Moshe ordered them.

49 For this thing was from אֱלֹהִים to the children of Yisrael, for אֱלֹהִים had begun to remember the children of Yisrael to save them for the sake of their ahvot.

50 And אֱלֹהִים was with Moshe and his fame went throughout Mitzrayim.

51 And Moshe became great in the eyes of all the Mitzrites, and in the eyes of all the children of Yisrael, seeking tov for his people Yisrael and speaking words of shalom regarding them to the melech.

71 And when Moshe was eighteen years old, he desired to see his abba and ema and he went to them to Goshen, and when Moshe had come near Goshen, he came to the place where the children of Yisrael were engaged in work, and he observed their burdens, and he saw a Mitzrite smiting one of his Ivri brothers.

2 And when the man who was beaten saw Moshe he ran to him for help, for the man Moshe was greatly respected in the house of Pharaoh, and he said to him, My master attend to me, this Mitzrite came to my house in the night, bound me, and came to my wife in my presence, and now he seeks to take my life away.

3 And when Moshe heard this wicked thing, his anger was kindled against the Mitzrite, and he turned this way and the other, and when he saw there was no man there he smote the Mitzrite and hid him in the sand, and delivered the Ivri from the hand of him that smote him.

4 And the Ivri went to his house, and Moshe returned to his home, and went forth and came back to the melech's house.

5 And when the man had returned home, he thought of repudiating his wife, for it was not right in the house of Yaakov, for any man to come to his wife after she had been defiled.

6 And the woman went and told her brothers, and the woman's brothers sought to slay him, and he fled to his house and escaped.

7 And on the second day Moshe went forth to his brothers, and saw, and behold two men were quarreling, and he said to the wicked one, Why do you smite your neighbor?

8 And he answered him and said to him, Who has set you for a prince and judge over us? Do you think to slay me as you did slay the Mitzrite? And Moshe was afraid and he said, Surely the thing is known?

9 And Pharaoh heard of this affair, and he ordered Moshe to be slain, so אֱלֹהִים sent His Malach, and he appeared to Pharaoh in the likeness of a captain of the guard.

10 And the Malach of אֱלֹהִים took the sword from the hand of the captain of the guard, and took his head off with it, for the likeness of the captain of the guard was turned into the likeness of Moshe.

11 And the Malach of אֱלֹהִים took hold of the right hand of Moshe, and brought him forth from Mitzrayim, and placed him outside the borders of Mitzrayim, a distance of forty days' journey.

12 And Aharon his brother alone remained in the land of Mitzrayim, and he prophesied to the children of Yisrael, saying, 13 This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of your ancestors, Throw away, each man, the abominations of his eyes, and do not defile yourselves with the idols of Mitzrayim.

14 And the children of Yisrael rebelled and would not listen to Aharon at that time.

15 And אֱלֹהִים thought to destroy them, were it not that אֱלֹהִים remembered the covenant which he had made with Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov.

16 In those days the hand of Pharaoh continued to be severe against the children of Yisrael, and he crushed and oppressed them until the time when אֱלֹהִים sent forth His Word and took notice of them.

72 And it was in those days that there was a great war between the children of Cush and the children of the east and Aram, and they rebelled against the melech of Cush in whose hands they were.

2 So Kikianus melech of Cush went forth with all the children of Cush, a people numerous as the sand, and he went to fight against Aram and the children of the east, to bring them under subjection.

3 And when Kikianus went out, he left Balaam the magician, with his two sons, to guard the city, and the lowest sort of the people of the land.

4 So Kikianus went forth to Aram and the children of the east, and he fought against them and smote them, and they all fell down wounded before Kikianus and his people.

5 And he took many of them captives and he brought them under subjection as at first, and he encamped upon their land to take tribute from them as usual.

6 And Balaam the son of Beor, when the melech of Cush had left him to guard the city and the poor of the city, he rose up and advised with the people of the land to rebel against melech Kikianus, not to let him enter the city when he should come home.

7 And the people of the land hearkened to him, and they swore to him and made him melech over them, and his two sons for captains of the army.

8 So they rose up and raised the walls of the city at the two corners, and they built an exceeding strong building.

9 And at the third corner they dug ditches without number, between the city and the river that surrounded the whole land of Cush, and they made the mayim of the river burst forth there.

10 At the fourth corner they collected numerous serpents by their incantations and enchantments, and they fortified the city and dwelt therein, and no one went out or in before them.

11 And Kikianus fought against Aram and the children of the east and he subdued them as before, and they gave him their usual tribute, and he went and returned to his land.

12 And when Kikianus the melech of Cush approached his city and all the captains of the forces with him, they lifted up their eyes and saw that the walls of the city were built up and greatly elevated, so the men were astonished at this.

13 And they said one to the other, It is because they saw that we were delayed, in battle, and were greatly afraid of us, therefore have they done this thing and raised the city walls and fortified them so that the melechim of Kanaan might not come in battle against them.

14 So the melech and the troops approached the city door and they looked up and behold, all the gates of the city were closed, and they called out to the guards, saying, Open to us, that we may enter the city.

15 But the guards refused to open to them by the order of Balaam the magician, their melech; they allowed them not to enter their city.

16 So they raised a battle with them opposite the city gate, and one hundred and thirty men of the army at Kikianus fell on that day.

17 And on the next day they continued to fight and they fought at the side of the river; they endeavored to pass but were not able, so some of them sank in the pits and died.

18 So the melech ordered them to cut down trees to make rafts, upon which they might pass to them, and they did so.

19 And when they came to the place of the ditches, the mayim revolved by mills, and two hundred men upon ten rafts were drowned.

20 And on the third day they came to fight at the side where the serpents were, but they could not approach there, for the serpents slew of them one hundred and seventy men, and they ceased fighting against Cush, and they besieged Cush for nine years, no person came out or in.

21 At that time that the war and the siege were against Cush, Moshe fled from Mitzrayim from Pharaoh who sought to kill him for having slain the Mitzrite.

22 And Moshe was eighteen years old when he fled from Mitzrayim from the presence of Pharaoh, and he fled and escaped to the camp of Kikianus, which at that time was besieging Cush.

23 And Moshe was nine years in the camp of Kikianus melech of Cush; all the time that they were besieging Cush, and Moshe went out and came in with them.

24 And the melech and princes and all the fighting men loved Moshe, for he was great and worthy, his stature was like a noble lion, his face was like the sun, and his strength was like that of a lion, and he was counselor to the melech.

25 And at the end of nine years, Kikianus was seized with a mortal disease, and his illness prevailed over him, and he died on the seventh day.

26 So his servants embalmed him and carried him and buried him opposite the city gate to the north of the land of Mitzrayim.

27 And they built over him an elegant strong and high building, and they placed great stones below.

28 And the melech's scribes engraved upon those stones all the might of their melech Kikianus, and all his battles which he had fought, behold they are written there at this day.

29 Now after the death of Kikianus melech of Cush it grieved his men and troops greatly on account of the war.

30 So they said one to the other, Give us counsel what we are to do at this time, as we have resided in the wilderness nine years away from our homes.

31 If we say we will fight against the city many of us will fall wounded or killed, and if we remain here in the siege we shall also die.

32 For now all the melechim of Aram and of the children of the east will hear that our melech is dead, and they will attack us suddenly in a hostile manner, and they will fight against us and leave no remnant of us.

33 Now therefore let us go and make a melech over us, and let us remain in the siege until the city is delivered up to us.

34 And they wished to choose on that day a man for melech from the army of Kikianus, and they found no object of their choice like Moshe to reign over them.

35 And they hurried and stripped off each man his garments and cast them upon the ground, and they made a great heap and placed Moshe thereon.

36 And they rose up and blew with trumpets and called out before him, and said, May the melech live, may the melech live!

37 And all the people and nobles swore to him to give him for a wife Adoniah the queen, the Cushite, wife of Kikianus, and they made Moshe melech over them on that day.

38 And all the people of Cush issued a proclamation on that day, saying, Every man must give something to Moshe of what is in his possession.

39 And they spread out a sheet upon the heap, and every man cast into it something of what he had, one a gold earring and the other a coin.

40 Also of onyx stones, bdellium, pearls and marble did the children of Cush cast to Moshe upon the heap, also silver and gold in great abundance.

41 And Moshe took all the silver and gold, all the vessels, and the bdellium and onyx stones, which all the children of Cush had given to him, and he placed them among his treasures.

42 And Moshe reigned over the children of Cush on that day, in the place of Kikianus melech of Cush.

73 In the fifty-fifth year of the reign of Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, that is in the hundred and fifty-seventh year of the Yisraelites going down into Mitzrayim, reigned Moshe in Cush.

2 Moshe was twenty-seven years old when he began to reign over Cush, and forty years did he reign.

3 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל granted Moshe favor and rachamim in the eyes of all the children of Cush, and the children of Cush loved him exceedingly, so Moshe was favored by אִיִּזְרָאֵל and by men.

4 And in the seventh day of his reign, all the children of Cush assembled and came before Moshe and bowed down to him to the ground.

5 And all the children spoke together in the presence of the melech, saying, Give us counsel that we may see what is to be done to this city.

6 For it is now nine years that we have been besieging round about the city, and have not seen our children and our wives.

7 So the melech answered them, saying, If you will listen to my voice in all that I shall command you, then will אִפְאֵז give the city into our hands and we shall subdue it.

8 For if we fight with them as in the former battle that we had with them before the death of Kikianus, many of us will fall down wounded as before.

9 Now therefore behold here is counsel for you in this matter; if you will listen to my voice, then will the city be delivered into our hands.

10 So all the forces answered the melech, saying, All that our master shall command that will we do.

11 And Moshe said to them, Pass through and proclaim a voice in the whole camp to all the people, saying, 12 This says the melech, Go into the forest and bring with you of the young ones of the stork, each man a young one in his hand.

13 And any person transgressing the word of the melech, who shall not bring his young one, he shall die, and the melech will take all belonging to him.

14 And when you shall bring them they shall be in your keeping, you shall rear them until they grow up, and you shall teach them to dart upon, as is the way of the young ones of the hawk.

15 So all the children of Cush heard the words of Moshe, and they rose up and caused a proclamation to be issued throughout the camp, saying,

16 Unto you, all the children of Cush, the melech's order is, that you go all together to the forest, and catch there the young storks each man his young one in his hand, and you shall bring them home.

17 And any person violating the order of the melech shall die, and the melech will take all that belongs to him.

18 And all the people did so, and they went out to the wood and they climbed the fir trees and caught, each man a young one in his hand, all the young of the storks, and they brought them into the desert and reared them by order of the melech, and they taught them to dart upon, similar to the young hawks.

19 And after the young storks were reared, the melech ordered them to be hungered for three days, and all the people did so.

20 And on the third day, the melech said to them, strengthen yourselves and become valiant men, and put on each man his armor and gird on his sword upon him, and ride each man his horse and take each his young stork in his hand.

21 And we will rise up and fight against the city at the place where the serpents are; and all the people did as the melech had ordered.

22 And they took each man his young one in his hand, and they went away, and when they came to the place of the serpents the melech said to them, Send forth each man his young stork upon the serpents.

23 And they sent forth each man his young stork at the melech's order, and the young storks ran upon the serpents and they devoured them all and destroyed them out of that place.

24 And when the melech and people had seen that all the serpents were destroyed in that place, all the people set up a great shout.

25 And they approached and fought against the city and took it and subdued it, and they entered the city.

26 And there died on that day one thousand and one hundred men of the people of the city, all that inhabited the city, but of the people besieging not one died.

27 So all the children of Cush went each to his home, to his wife and children and to all belonging to him.

28 And Balaam the magician, when he saw that the city was taken, he opened the gate and he and his two sons and eight brothers fled and returned to Mitzrayim to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim.

29 They are the sorcerers and magicians who are mentioned in the scroll of the Torah, standing against Moshe when אֱלֹהִים brought the plagues upon Mitzrayim.

30 So Moshe took the city by his wisdom, and the children of Cush placed him on the throne instead of Kikianus melech of Cush.

31 And they placed the royal keter upon his head, and they gave him for a wife Adoniah the Cushite queen, wife of Kikianus.

32 And Moshe feared אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of his ahvot, so that he came not to her, nor did he turn his eyes to her.

33 For Moshe remembered how Avraham had made his servant Eliezer swear, saying to him, You shall not take a woman from the daughters of Kanaan for my son Yitzchak.

34 Also what Yitzchak did when Yaakov had fled from his brother, when he commanded him, saying, You shall not take a wife from the daughters of Kanaan, nor make alliance with any of the children of Ham.

35 For אֱלֹהִים our אֱלֹהִים gave Ham the son of Noach, and his children and all his zera, as slaves to the children of Shem and to the children of Yahpheth, and to their zera after them for slaves, le-olam-va-ed.

36 Therefore Moshe turned not his heart nor his eyes to the wife of Kikianus all the days that he reigned over Cush.

37 And Moshe feared אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו his אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו all his life, and Moshe walked before אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו in emet, with all his heart and being, he turned not from the right halacha all the days of his life; he declined not from the halacha either to the right or to the left, in which Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov had walked.

38 And Moshe strengthened himself in the malchut of the children of Cush, and he guided the children of Cush with his usual wisdom, and Moshe prospered in his malchut.

39 And at that time Aram and the children of the east heard that Kikianus melech of Cush had died, so Aram and the children of the east rebelled against Cush in those days.

40 And Moshe gathered all the children of Cush, a people very mighty, about thirty thousand men, and he went forth to fight with Aram and the children of the east.

41 And they went at first to the children of the east, and when the children of the east heard their report, they went to meet them, and engaged in battle with them.

42 And the war was severe against the children of the east, so אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו gave all the children of the east into the hand of Moshe, and about three hundred men fell down slain.

43 And all the children of the east turned back and retreated, so Moshe and the children of Cush followed them and subdued them, and put a tax upon them, as was their custom.

44 So Moshe and all the people with him passed from there to the land of Aram for battle.

45 And the people of Aram also went to meet them, and they fought against them, and אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו delivered them into the hand of Moshe, and many of the men of Aram fell down wounded.

46 And Aram also were subdued by Moshe and the people of Cush, and also gave their usual tax.

47 And Moshe brought Aram and the children of the east under subjection to the children of Cush, and Moshe and all the people who were with him, returned to the land of Cush.

48 And Moshe strengthened himself in the malchut of the children of Cush, and ארם was with him, and all the children of Cush were afraid of him.

74 In the end of years died Shaul melech of Edom, and Baal Chanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place.

2 In the sixteenth year of the reign of Moshe over Cush, Baal Chanan the son of Achbor reigned in the land of Edom over all the children of Edom for thirty-eight years.

3 In his days Moav rebelled against the power of Edom, having been under Edom since the days of Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote them and Midiyan, and brought Moav under subjection to Edom.

4 And when Baal Chanan the son of Achbor reigned over Edom, all the children of Moav withdrew their allegiance from Edom.

5 And Angeas melech of Africa died in those days, and Azdrual his son reigned in his stead.

6 And in those days died Yaneas melech of the children of Chittim, and they buried him in his temple that he had built for himself in the plain of Canopia for a residence, and Latinus reigned in his stead.

7 In the twenty-second year of the reign of Moshe over the children of Cush, Latinus reigned over the children of Chittim forty-five years.

8 And he also built for himself a great and mighty tower, and he built therein an elegant temple for his residence, to conduct his government, as was the custom.

9 In the third year of his reign he caused a proclamation to be made to all his skilful men, who made many ships for him.

10 And Latinus assembled all his forces, and they came in ships, and went therein to fight with Azdrual son of Angeas melech of Africa, and they came to Africa and engaged in battle with Azdrual and his army.

11 And Latinus prevailed over Azdrual, and Latinus took from Azdrual the aqueduct that his abba had brought from the children of Chittim, when he took Yaniah the daughter of Uzi for a wife, so Latinus overthrew the bridge of the aqueduct, and smote the whole army of Azdrual a severe blow.

12 And the remaining strong men of Azdrual strengthened themselves, and their hearts were filled with envy, and they courted death, and again engaged in battle with Latinus melech of Chittim.

13 And the battle was severe upon all the men of Africa, and they all fell wounded before Latinus and his people, and Azdrual the melech also fell in that battle.

14 And the melech Azdrual had a very beautiful daughter, whose name was Ushpezena, and all the men of Africa embroidered her likeness on their garments, on account of her great beauty and comely appearance.

15 And the men of Latinus saw Ushpezena, the daughter of Azdrual, and praised her to Latinus their melech.

16 And Latinus ordered her to be brought to him, and Latinus took Ushpezena for a wife, and he turned back on his way to Chittim.

17 And it was after the death of Azdrual son of Angeas, when Latinus had turned back to his land from the battle, that all the inhabitants of Africa rose up and took Anival the son of Angeas, the younger brother of Azdruval, and made him melech instead of his brother over the whole land at Africa.

18 And when he reigned, he resolved to go to Chittim to fight with the children of Chittim, to avenge the cause of Azdruval his brother, and the cause of the inhabitants of Africa, and he did so.

19 And he made many ships, and he came therein with his whole army, and he went to Chittim.

20 So Anival fought with the children of Chittim, and the children of Chittim fell wounded before Anival and his army, and Anival avenged his brother's cause.

21 And Anival continued the war for eighteen years with the children of Chittim, and Anival dwelt in the land of Chittim and encamped there for a long time.

22 And Anival smote the children of Chittim very severely, and he slew their great men and princes, and of the rest of the people he smote about eighty thousand men.

23 And at the end of days and years, Anival returned to his land of Africa, and he reigned securely in the place of Azdruval his brother.

75 At that time, in the hundred and eightieth year of the Yisraelites going down into Mitzrayim, there went forth from Mitzrayim valiant men, thirty thousand on foot, from the children of Yisrael, who were all of the tribe of Yoseph, of the children of Ephraim the son of Yoseph.

2 For they said the period was completed which אַרְבָּע had appointed to the children of Yisrael in the times of old, which he had spoken to Avraham.

3 And these men girded themselves, and they put each man his sword at his side, and every man his armor upon him, and they trusted in their strength, and they went out together from Mitzrayim with a mighty hand.

4 But they brought no provision for the road, only silver and gold, not even bread for that day did they bring in their hands, for they thought of getting their provision for pay from the Philistines, and if not they would take it by force.

5 And these men were very mighty and valiant men, one man could pursue a thousand and two could rout ten thousand, so they trusted in their strength and went together as they were.

6 And they directed their course toward the land of Gath, and they went down and found the shepherds of Gath feeding the cattle of the children of Gath.

7 And they said to the shepherds, Give us some of the sheep for pay that we may eat, for we are hungry, for we have eaten no bread this day.

8 And the shepherds said, Are they our sheep or cattle that we should give them to you even for pay? So the children of Ephraim approached to take them by force.

9 And the shepherds of Gath shouted over them that their cry was heard at a distance, so all the children of Gath went out to them.

10 And when the children of Gath saw the evil doings of the children of Ephraim, they returned and assembled the men of Gath, and they put on each man his armor, and came forth to the children of Ephraim for battle.

11 And they engaged with them in the Valley of Gath, and the battle was severe, and they smote from each other a great many on that day.

12 And on the second day the children of Gath sent to all the cities of the Philistines that they should come to their help, saying,

13 Come up to us and help us that we may smite the children of Ephraim who have come forth from Mitzrayim to take our cattle, and to fight against us without cause.

14 Now the beings of the children of Ephraim were exhausted with hunger and thirst, for they had eaten no bread for three days. And forty thousand men went forth from the cities of the Philistines to the assistance of the men of Gath.

15 And these men were engaged in battle with the children of Ephraim, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל delivered the children of Ephraim into the hands of the Philistines.

16 And they smote all the children of Ephraim, all who had gone forth from Mitzrayim, none were remaining but ten men who had run away from the engagement.

17 For this evil was from אִיִּזְרָאֵל against the children of Ephraim, for they transgressed the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל in going forth from Mitzrayim, before the period had arrived which אִיִּזְרָאֵל in the days of old had appointed to Yisrael.

18 And of the Philistines also there fell a great many, about twenty thousand men, and their brothers carried them and buried them in their cities.

19 And the slain of the children of Ephraim remained forsaken in the valley of Gath for many days and years, and were not brought to burial, and the valley was filled with men's bones.

20 And the men who had escaped from the battle came to Mitzrayim, and told all the children of Yisrael all that had befallen them.

21 And their abba Ephraim mourned over them for many days, and his brothers came to console him.

22 And he came to his wife and she bare a son, and he called his name Beriyah, for she was unfortunate in his house.

76 And Moshe the son of Amram was still melech in the land of Cush in those days, and he prospered in his malchut, and he conducted the government of the children of Cush in mishpat, in tzedakah, and integrity.

2 And all the children of Cush loved Moshe all the days that he reigned over them, and all the inhabitants of the land of Cush were greatly afraid of him.

3 And in the fortieth year of the reign of Moshe over Cush, Moshe was sitting on the royal throne while Adoniah the queen was before him, and all the nobles were sitting around him.

4 And Adoniah the queen said before the melech and the princes, What is this thing that you, the children of Cush, have done for this long time?

5 Surely you know that for forty years that this man has reigned over Cush he has not approached me, nor has he served the ahlohim of the children of Cush.

6 Now therefore hear, O you children of Cush, and let this man no more reign over you, as he is not of our flesh.

7 Behold Menacrus my son is grown up, let him reign over you, for it is better for you to serve the son of your master, than to serve a stranger, slave of the melech of Mitzrayim.

8 And all the people and nobles of the children of Cush heard the words which Adoniah the queen had spoken in their ears.

9 And all the people were preparing until the evening, and in the morning they rose up early and made Menacrus, son of Kikianus, melech over them.

10 And all the children of Cush were afraid to stretch forth their hand against Moshe, for אַף־אֵז was with Moshe, and the children of Cush remembered the oath that they swore to Moshe, therefore they did no harm to him.

11 But the children of Cush gave many presents to Moshe, and sent him from them with great honor.

12 So Moshe went forth from the land of Cush, and went home and ceased to reign over Cush, and Moshe was sixty-six years old when he went out of the land of Cush, for the thing was from אֶרֶץ, for the period had arrived which he had appointed in the days of old, to bring forth Yisrael from the affliction of the children of Ham.

13 So Moshe went to Midiyan, for he was afraid to return to Mitzrayim on account of Pharaoh, and he went and sat at a well of mayim in Midiyan.

14 And the seven daughters of Reuel the Midyanite went out to feed their abba's flock.

15 And they came to the well and drew mayim to water their abba's flock.

16 So the shepherds of Midiyan came and drove them away, and Moshe rose up and helped them and watered the flock.

17 And they came home to their abba Reuel, and told him what Moshe did for them.

18 And they said, A Mitzrite man has delivered us from the hands of the shepherds, he drew up mayim for us and watered the flock.

19 And Reuel said to his daughters, And where is he? Why have you left the man?

20 And Reuel sent for him and fetched him and brought him home, and he ate bread with him.

21 And Moshe related to Reuel that he had fled from Mitzrayim and that he reigned forty years over Cush, and that they afterward had taken the government from him, and had sent him away in shalom with honor and with presents.

22 And when Reuel had heard the words of Moshe, Reuel said within himself, I will put this man into the prison house, whereby I shall conciliate the children of Cush, for he has fled from them.

23 And they took and put him into the prison house, and Moshe was in prison ten years, and while Moshe was in the prison house, Tzipporah the daughter of Reuel took pity over him, and supported him with bread and mayim all the time.

24 And all the children of Yisrael were yet in the land of Mitzrayim serving the Mitzrites in all manner of hard work, and the hand of Mitzrayim continued in severity over the children of Yisrael in those days.

25 At that time אֱלֹהִים smote Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, and he afflicted with the plague of leprosy from the sole of his foot to the keter of his head; owing to the cruel treatment of the children of Yisrael was this plague at that time from אֱלֹהִים upon Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim.

26 For אֱלֹהִים had hearkened to the prayer of his people the children of Yisrael, and their cry reached him on account of their hard work.

27 Still His anger did not turn from them, and the hand of Pharaoh was still stretched out against the children of Yisrael, and Pharaoh hardened his neck before אֱלֹהִים, and he increased his yoke over the children of Yisrael, and embittered their lives with all manner of hard work.

28 And when אֱלֹהִים had inflicted the plague upon Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, he asked his wise men and sorcerers to cure him.

29 And his wise men and sorcerers said to him, That if the blood of little children were put into the wounds he would be healed.

30 And Pharaoh hearkened to them, and sent his ministers to Goshen to the children of Yisrael to take their little children.

31 And Pharaoh's ministers went and took the infants of the children of Yisrael from the bosoms of their mothers by force, and they brought them to Pharaoh daily, a child each day, and the physicians killed them and applied them to the plague; this did they all the days.

32 And the number of the children that Pharaoh slew was three hundred and seventy-five.

33 But אִרְאֵן hearkened not to the physicians of the melech of Mitzrayim, and the plague went on increasing mightily.

34 And Pharaoh was ten years afflicted with that plague; still the heart of Pharaoh was more hardened against the children of Yisrael.

35 And at the end of ten years אִרְאֵן continued to afflict Pharaoh with destructive plagues.

36 And אִרְאֵן smote him with a bad tumor and sickness at the stomach, and that plague turned to a severe boil.

37 At that time the two ministers of Pharaoh came from the land of Goshen where all the children of Yisrael were, and went to the house of Pharaoh and said to him, We have seen the children of Yisrael slacken in their work and negligent in their labor.

38 And when Pharaoh heard the words of his ministers, his anger was kindled against the children of Yisrael exceedingly, for he was greatly grieved at his bodily pain.

39 And he answered and said, Now that the children of Yisrael know that I am ill, they turn and scoff at us, now therefore harness my mirkava for me, and I will take myself to Goshen and will see the scoffing of the children of Yisrael with which they are deriding me; so his servants harnessed the mirkava for him.

40 And they took and made him ride upon a horse, for he was not able to ride of himself;

41 And he took with him ten horsemen and ten footmen, and went to the children of Yisrael to Goshen.

42 And when they had come to the border of Mitzrayim, the melech's horse passed into a narrow place, elevated in the hollow part of the vineyard, fenced on both sides, the low, plain country being on the other side.

43 And the horses ran rapidly in that place and pressed each other, and the other horses pressed the melech's horse.

44 And the melech's horse fell into the low plain while the melech was riding upon it, and when he fell the mirkava turned over the melech's face and the horse lay upon the melech, and the melech cried out, for his flesh was very sore.

45 And the flesh of the melech was torn from him, and his bones were broken and he could not ride, for this thing was from אֲרָאָה to him, for אֲרָאָה had heard the cries of his people the children of Yisrael and their affliction.

46 And his servants carried him upon their shoulders, a little at a time, and they brought him back to Mitzrayim, and the horsemen who were with him came also back to Mitzrayim.

47 And they placed him in his bed, and the melech knew that his end was come to die, so Aparanith the queen his wife came and cried before the melech, and the melech wept a great weeping with her.

48 And all his nobles and servants came on that day and saw the melech in that affliction, and wept a great weeping with him.

49 And the princes of the melech and all his counselors advised the melech to cause one to reign in his stead in the land, whomsoever he should choose from his sons.

50 And the melech had three sons and two daughters which Aparanith the queen his wife had borne to him, besides the melech's children of concubines.

51 And these were their names, the bachor Othri, the second Adikam, and the third Morion, and their sisters, the name of the zachena Bathiya and of the other Acuzi.

52 And Othri the bechor of the melech was an idiot, precipitate and hurried in his words.

53 But Adikam was a cunning and wise man and knowing in all the wisdom of Mitzrayim, but of unseemly aspect, thick in flesh, and very short in stature; his height was one cubit.

54 And when the melech saw Adikam his son intelligent and wise in all things, the melech resolved that he should be melech in his stead after his death.

55 And he took for him a wife Gedudah daughter of Avilot, and he was ten years old, and she bare to him four sons.

56 And he afterward went and took three wives and begat eight sons and three daughters.

57 And the disorder greatly prevailed over the melech, and his flesh stank like the flesh of a carcass cast upon the field in summer time, during the heat of the sun.

58 And when the melech saw that his sickness had greatly strengthened itself over him, he ordered his son Adikam to be brought to him, and they made him melech over the land in his place.

59 And at the end of three years, the melech died, in shame, disgrace, and disgust, and his servants carried him and buried him in the sepulcher of the melechim of Mitzrayim in Zoan-Mizraim.

60 But they embalmed him not as was usual with melechim, for his flesh was putrid, and they could not approach to embalm him on account of the stench, so they buried him in haste.

61 For this evil was from אִיִּזְרָאֵל to him, for אִיִּזְרָאֵל had requited him evil for the evil that in his days he had done to Yisrael.

62 And he died with terror and with shame, and his son Adikam reigned in his place.

77 Adikam was twenty years old when he reigned over Mitzrayim, he reigned four years.

2 In the two hundred and sixth year of Yisrael's going down to Mitzrayim did Adikam reign over Mitzrayim, but he continued not so long in his reign over Mitzrayim as his ahvot had continued their reigns.

3 For Melol his abba reigned ninety-four years in Mitzrayim, but he was ten years sick and died, for he had been wicked before אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

4 And all the Mitzrites called the name of Adikam Pharaoh like the name of his ahvot, as was their custom to do in Mitzrayim.

5 And all the wise men of Pharaoh called the name of Adikam Ahuz, for short is called Ahuz in the Mitzrite language.

6 And Adikam was exceedingly ugly, and he was a cubit and a span and he had a great beard that reached to the soles of his feet.

7 And Pharaoh sat upon his abba's throne to reign over Mitzrayim, and he conducted the government of Mitzrayim in his wisdom.

8 And while he reigned he exceeded his abba and all the preceding melechim in wickedness, and he increased his yoke over the children of Yisrael.

9 And he went with his servants to Goshen to the children of Yisrael, and he strengthened the labor over them and he said to them, Complete your work, each day's task, and let not your hands slacken from our work from this day forward as you did in the days of my abba.

10 And he placed officers over them from among the children of Yisrael, and over these officers he placed taskmasters from among his servants.

11 And he placed over them a measure of bricks for them to do according to that number, day by day, and he turned back and went to Mitzrayim.

12 At that time the task-masters of Pharaoh ordered the officers of the children of Yisrael according to the command of Pharaoh, saying, 13 This says Pharaoh, Do your work each day, and finish your task, and observe the daily measure of bricks; diminish not anything.

14 And it shall come to pass that if you are deficient in your daily bricks, I will put your young children in their stead.

15 And the task-masters of Mitzrayim did so in those days as Pharaoh had ordered them.

16 And whenever any deficiency was found in the children of Yisrael's measure of their daily bricks, the task-masters of Pharaoh would go to the wives of the children of Yisrael and take infants of the children of Yisrael to the number of bricks deficient, they would take them by force from their ema's laps, and put them in the building instead of the bricks;

17 While their ahvot and mothers were crying over them and weeping when they heard the weeping voices of their infants in the wall of the building.

18 And the task-masters prevailed over Yisrael, that the Yisraelites should place their children in the building, so that a man placed his son in the wall and put mortar over him, while his eyes wept over him, and his tears ran down upon his child.

19 And the taskmasters of Mitzrayim did so to the babes of Yisrael for many days, and no one pitied or had rachamim over the babes of the children of Yisrael.

20 And the number of all the children killed in the building was two hundred and seventy, some whom they had built upon instead of the bricks that had been left deficient by their ahvot, and some whom they had drawn out dead from the building.

21 And the labor imposed upon the children of Yisrael in the days of Adikam exceeded in hardship that which they performed in the days of his abba.

22 And the children of Yisrael sighed every day on account of their heavy work, for they had said to themselves, Behold when Pharaoh shall die, his son will rise up and lighten our work!

23 But they increased the latter work more than the former, and the children of Yisrael sighed at this and their cry ascended to אֱלֹהִים on account of their labor.

24 And אֱלֹהִים heard the voice of the children of Yisrael and their cry, in those days, and אֱלֹהִים remembered to them his covenant that he had made with Avraham, Yitzchak and Yaakov.

25 And אֱלֹהִים saw the burden of the children of Yisrael, and their heavy work in those days, and he determined to deliver them.

26 And Moshe the son of Amram was still confined in the dungeon in those days, in the house of Reuel the Midyanite, and Tzipporah the daughter of Reuel did support him with food secretly day by day.

27 And Moshe was confined in the dungeon in the house of Reuel for ten years.

28 And at the end of ten years that was the first year of the reign of Pharaoh over Mitzrayim, in the place of his abba, 29 Tzipporah said to her abba Reuel, No person inquires or seeks after the Ivri man, whom you did bind in prison now ten years.

30 Now therefore, if it seems tov in your sight, let us send and see whether he is living or dead, but her abba knew not that she had supported him.

31 And Reuel her abba answered and said to her, Has ever such a thing happened that a man should be shut up in a prison without food for ten years, and that he should live?

32 And Tzipporah answered her abba, saying, Surely you have heard that the אֱלֹהִים of the Ivrim is great and awesome, and does wonders for them at all times.

33 He it was who delivered Avraham from Ur of the Chaldeans, and Yitzchak from the sword of his abba, and Yaakov from the Malach of אֱלֹהִים who wrestled with him at the ford of Yavvuk.

34 Also with this man has he done many things, he delivered him from the river in Mitzrayim and from the sword of Pharaoh, and from the children of Cush, so also can he deliver him from famine and make him live.

35 And the thing seemed tov in the sight of Reuel, and he did according to the word of his daughter, and sent to the dungeon to ascertain what became of Moshe.

36 And he saw, and behold the man Moshe was living in the dungeon, standing upon his feet, praising and praying to the אֱלֹהִים of his ancestors.

37 And Reuel commanded Moshe to be brought out of the dungeon, so they shaved him and he changed his prison garments and ate bread.

38 And afterward Moshe went into the gan of Reuel that was behind the house, and he there prayed to אֱלֹהִים his אֱלֹהִים, who had done mighty wonders for him.

39 And it was that while he prayed he looked opposite to him, and behold a sapphire stick was placed in the ground, which was planted in the midst of the gan.

40 And he approached the stick and he looked, and behold the Name of אלהים Ahlohim of hosts was engraved thereon, written and developed upon the stick.

41 And he read it and stretched forth his hand and he plucked it like a forest tree from the thicket, and the stick was in his hand.

42 And this is the stick with which all the works of our אלהים were performed, after he had created the shamayim and earth, and all the host of them, seas, rivers and all their fishes.

43 And when אלהים had driven Ahdam from Gan Aden, he took the stick in his hand and went and tilled the ground from which he was taken.

44 And the stick came down to Noach and was given to Shem and his descendants, until it came into the hand of Avraham the Ivri.

45 And when Avraham had given all he had to his son Yitzchak, he also gave to him this stick.

46 And when Yaakov had fled to Padan-Aram, he took it into his hand, and when he returned to his abba he had not left it behind him.

47 Also when he went down to Mitzrayim he took it into his hand and gave it to Yoseph, one portion above his brothers, for Yaakov had taken it by force from his brother Esav.

48 And after the death of Yoseph, the nobles of Mitzrayim came into the house of Yoseph, and the stick came into the hand of Reuel the Midyanite, and when he went out of Mitzrayim, he took it in his hand and planted it in his gan.

49 And all the mighty men of the Kinites tried to pluck it when they endeavored to get Tzipporah his daughter, but they were unsuccessful.

50 So that stick remained planted in the gan of Reuel, until he came who had a right to it and took it.

51 And when Reuel saw the stick in the hand of Moshe, he wondered about it, and he gave him his daughter Tzipporah for a wife.

78 At that time died Baal Channan son of Achbor, melech of Edom, and was buried in his house in the land of Edom.

2 And after his death the children of Esav sent to the land of Edom, and took from there a man who was in Edom, whose name was Hadad, and they made him melech over them in the place of Baal Channan, their melech.

3 And Hadad reigned over the children of Edom forty-eight years.

4 And when he reigned he resolved to fight against the children of Moav, to bring them under the power of the children of Esav as they were before, but he was not able, because the children of Moav heard this thing, and they rose up and hurried to elect a melech over them from among their brothers.

5 And they afterward gathered together a great people, and sent to the children of Ammon their brothers for help to fight against Hadad melech of Edom.

6 And Hadad heard the thing that the children of Moav had done, and was greatly afraid of them, and refrained from fighting against them.

7 In those days Moshe, the son of Amram, in Midiyan, took Tzipporah, the daughter of Reuel the Midyanite, for a wife.

8 And Tzipporah walked in the halachot of the daughters of Yaakov, she was nothing short of the tzedakah of Sarah, Rivkah, Rachel and Leah.

9 And Tzipporah conceived and bare a son and he called his name Gershom, for he said, I was a stranger in a foreign land; but he circumcised not his foreskin, at the command of Reuel his abba-in-law.

10 And she conceived again and bare a son, but circumcised his foreskin, and called his name Eliezer, for Moshe said, Because the אֱלֹהִים of my ahvot was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.

11 And Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim greatly increased the labor of the children of Yisrael in those days, and continued to make his yoke heavier upon the children of Yisrael.

12 And he ordered a proclamation to be made in Mitzrayim, saying, Give no more straw to the people to make bricks with, let them go and gather themselves straw as they can find it.

13 Also the amount of bricks, which they shall make, let them give each day, and diminish nothing from them, for they are idle in their work.

14 And the children of Yisrael heard this, and they mourned and sighed, and they cried to אֱלֹהִים on account of the bitterness of their beings.

15 And אֱלֹהִים heard the cries of the children of Yisrael, and saw the oppression with which the Mitzrites oppressed them.

16 And אֱלֹהִים was jealous for His people and His inheritance, and heard their voice, and He resolved to take them out of the affliction of Mitzrayim, to give them the land of Kanaan for a possession.

79 And in those days Moshe was feeding the flock of Reuel the Midyanite his abba-in-law, beyond the wilderness of Sin, and the stick, which he took from his abba-in-law, was in his hand.

2 And it came to pass one day that a kid of goats strayed from the flock, and Moshe pursued it and it came to the mountain of אֶרְצָאֵל to Horev.

3 And when he came to Horev, אֶרְצָאֵל appeared there to him in the bush, and he found the bush burning with fire, but the fire had no power over the bush to consume it.

4 And Moshe was greatly astonished at this sight, why the bush was not consumed, and he approached to see this mighty thing, and אֶרְצָאֵל called to Moshe out of the fire and commanded him to go down to Mitzrayim, to Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim, to send the children of Yisrael from his service.

5 And אֶרְצָאֵל said to Moshe, Go, return to Mitzrayim, for all those men who sought your life are dead, and you shall speak to Pharaoh to send forth the children of Yisrael from his land.

6 And אֶרְצָאֵל showed him to do signs and wonders in Mitzrayim before the eyes of Pharaoh and the eyes of his subjects, in order that they might believe that אֶרְצָאֵל had sent him.

7 And Moshe hearkened to all that אֶרְצָאֵל had commanded him, and he returned to his abba-in-law and told him the thing, and Reuel said to him, Go in shalom.

8 And Moshe rose up to go to Mitzrayim, and he took his wife and sons with him, and he was at an inn in the road, and a malach of אֶרְצָאֵל came down, and sought an occasion against him.

9 And he wished to kill him on account of his bechor son, because he had not circumcised him, and had transgressed the covenant which אֶרְצָאֵל had made with Avraham.

10 For Moshe had hearkened to the words of his abba-in-law that he had spoken to him, not to circumcise his bechor son, therefore he circumcised him not.

11 And Tzipporah saw the malach of אֱלֹהִים seeking an occasion against Moshe, and she knew that this thing was owing to his not having circumcised her son Gershom.

12 And Tzipporah hurried and took of the sharp rock stones that were there, and she circumcised her son, and delivered her husband and her son from the hand of the malach of אֱלֹהִים.

13 And Aharon the son of Amram, the brother of Moshe, was in Mitzrayim walking at the riverside on that day.

14 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to him in that place, and he said to him, Go now toward Moshe in the wilderness, and he went and met him in the mountain of אֱלֹהִים, and he kissed him.

15 And Aharon lifted up his eyes, and saw Tzipporah the wife of Moshe and her children, and he said to Moshe, Who are these to you?

16 And Moshe said to him, They are my wife and sons, whom אֱלֹהִים gave to me in Midiyan; and the thing grieved Aharon on account of the woman and her children.

17 And Aharon said to Moshe, Send away the woman and her children that they may go to her abba's house, and Moshe hearkened to the words of Aharon, and did so.

18 And Tzipporah returned with her children, and they went to the house of Reuel, and remained there until the time arrived when אֱלֹהִים had visited his people, and brought them forth from Mitzrayim from the hand at Pharaoh.

19 And Moshe and Aharon came to Mitzrayim to the community of the children of Yisrael, and they spoke to them all the words of אֱלֹהִים, and the people rejoiced an exceeding great rejoicing.

20 And Moshe and Aharon rose up early on the next day, and they went to the house of Pharaoh, and they took in their hands the rod of אֲרָאֵל.

21 And when they came to the melech's gate, two young lions were confined there with iron instruments, and no person went out or came in from before them, unless those whom the melech ordered to come, when the conjurors came and withdrew the lions by their incantations, and this brought them to the melech.

22 And Moshe hurried and lifted up the stick upon the lions, and he loosed them, and Moshe and Aharon came into the melech's house.

23 The lions also came with them in joy, and they followed them and rejoiced as a dog rejoices over his master when he comes from the field.

24 And when Pharaoh saw this thing he was astonished at it, and he was greatly terrified at the report, for their appearance was like the appearance of the children of אֲרָאֵל.

25 And Pharaoh said to Moshe, What do you require? And they answered him, saying, אֲרָאֵל Ahlohim of the Ivrim has sent us to you, to say, Send forth My people that they may serve Me.

26 And when Pharaoh heard their words he was greatly terrified before them, and he said to them, Go today and come back to me tomorrow, and they did according to the word of the melech.

27 And when they had gone Pharaoh sent for Balaam the magician and to Yannes and Yambres his sons and to all the magicians and conjurors and counselors which belonged to the melech, and they all came and sat before the melech.

28 And the melech told them all the words which Moshe and his brother Aharon had spoken to him, and the magicians said to the melech, But how came the men to you, on account of the lions which were confined at the gate?

29 And the melech said, Because they lifted up their rod against the lions and loosed them, and came to me, and the lions also rejoiced at them as a dog rejoices to meet his master.

30 And Balaam the son of Beor the magician answered the melech, saying, These are none else than magicians like ourselves.

31 Now therefore send for them, and let them come and we will try them, and the melech did so.

32 And in the morning Pharaoh sent for Moshe and Aharon to come before the melech, and they took the rod of אֲרָאֵל, and came to the melech and spoke to him, saying, 33 This said אֲרָאֵל Ahlohim of the Ivrim, Send My people that they may serve Me.

34 And the melech said to them, But who will believe you that you are the messengers of אֲרָאֵל and that you come to me by His order?

35 Now therefore give a wonder or sign in this matter, and then the words that you speak will be believed.

36 And Aharon hurried and threw the rod out of his hand before Pharaoh and before his servants, and the rod turned into a serpent.

37 And the sorcerers saw this and they cast each man his rod upon the ground and they became serpents.

38 And the serpent of Aharon's rod lifted up its head and opened its mouth to swallow the rods of the magicians.

39 And Balaam the magician answered and said, This thing has been from the days of old, that a serpent should swallow its fellow, and that living things devour each other.

40 Now therefore restore it to a rod as it was at first, and we will also restore our rods as they were at first, and if your rod shall swallow our rods, then shall we know that the Ruach of אֱלֹהִים is in you, and if not, you are only an artificer like us.

41 And Aharon hurried and stretched forth his hand and caught hold of the serpent's tail and it became a rod in his hand, and the sorcerers did the like with their rods, and they got hold, each man of the tail of his serpent, and they became rods as at first.

42 And when they were restored to rods, the rod of Aharon swallowed up their rods.

43 And when the melech saw this thing, he ordered the scroll of records that related to the melechim of Mitzrayim, to be brought, and they brought the scroll of records, the chronicles of the melechim of Mitzrayim, in which all the idols of Mitzrayim were inscribed, for they thought of finding in it the Name of אֱלֹהִים, but they found it not.

44 And Pharaoh said to Moshe and Aharon, Behold I have not found the Name of your אֱלֹהִים written in this scroll, and his Name I know not.

45 And the counselors and wise men answered the melech. We have heard that the אֱלֹהִים of the Ivrim is a son of the wise, the son of ancient melechim.

46 And Pharaoh turned to Moshe and Aharon and said to them, I know not אֱלֹהִים whom you have declared; neither will I send His people.

47 And they answered and said to the melech, אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of אֱלֹהִים is His Name, and He proclaimed His Name over us from the days of our ancestors, and sent us, saying, Go to Pharaoh and say to him, Send My people that they may serve Me.

48 Now therefore send us, that we may take a journey for three days in the wilderness, and there may sacrifice to Him, for from the days of our going down to Mitzrayim, He has not taken from our hands either burnt offering, oblation or sacrifice, and if you will not send us, His anger will be kindled against you, and He will smite Mitzrayim either with the plague or with the sword.

49 And Pharaoh said to them, Tell me now His power and His might; and they said to him, He created the shamayim and the earth, the seas and all their fishes, He formed the light, created the darkness, caused rain upon the earth and watered it, and made the herbage and grass to sprout, He created man and beast and the animals of the forest, the birds of the air and the fish of the sea, and by His mouth they live and die.

50 Surely He created you in your ema's womb, and put into you the breath of life, and reared you and placed you upon the royal throne of Mitzrayim, and He will take your breath and being from you, and return you to the ground from where you were taken.

51 And the anger of the melech was kindled at their words, and he said to them, But who among all the אֲרָצוֹת of nations can do this? My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.

52 And he drove them from him, and he ordered the labor upon Yisrael to be more severe than it was yesterday and before.

53 And Moshe and Aharon went out from the melech's presence, and they saw the children of Yisrael in an evil condition for the taskmasters had made their labor exceedingly heavy.

54 And Moshe returned to אֲרָצוֹת and said, Why have you ill-treated Your people? For since I came to speak to Pharaoh what you did send me for, he has exceedingly ill-used the children of Yisrael.

55 And אֲרָצוֹת said to Moshe, Behold you will see that with an outstretched hand and heavy plagues, Pharaoh will send the children of Yisrael from his land.

56 And Moshe and Aharon dwelt among their brothers the children of Yisrael in Mitzrayim.

57 And as for the children of Yisrael the Mitzrites embittered their lives, with the heavy work that they imposed upon them.

80 And at the end of two years, אִרְאֵן again sent Moshe to Pharaoh to bring forth the children of Yisrael, and to send them out of the land of Mitzrayim.

2 And Moshe went and came to the house of Pharaoh, and he spoke to him the words of אִרְאֵן, who had sent him, but Pharaoh would not listen to the voice of אִרְאֵן, and אִרְאֵן roused His might in Mitzrayim upon Pharaoh and his subjects, and אִרְאֵן smote Pharaoh and his people with very great and sore plagues.

3 And אִרְאֵן sent by the hand of Aharon and turned all the mayim of Mitzrayim into blood, with all their streams and rivers.

4 And when a Mitzrite came to drink and draw mayim, he looked into his pitcher, and behold all the mayim was turned into blood; and when he came to drink from his cup the mayim in the cup became blood.

5 And when a woman kneaded her dough and cooked her victuals, their appearance was turned to that of blood.

6 And אִרְאֵן sent again and caused all their mayim to bring forth frogs, and all the frogs came into the houses of the Mitzrites.

7 And when the Mitzrites drank, their bellies were filled with frogs and they danced in their bellies as they dance when in the river.

8 And all their drinking mayim and cooking mayim turned to frogs, also when they lay in their beds their perspiration bred frogs.

9 Notwithstanding all this the anger of אֱלֹהִים did not turn from them, and His hand was stretched out against all the Mitzrites to smite them with every heavy plague.

10 And he sent and smote their dust to lice, and the lice became in Mitzrayim to the height of two cubits upon the earth.

11 The lice were also very numerous, in the flesh of man and beast, in all the inhabitants of Mitzrayim, also upon the melech and queen אֱלֹהִים sent the lice, and it grieved Mitzrayim exceedingly on account of the lice.

12 Notwithstanding this, the anger of אֱלֹהִים did not turn away, and His hand was still stretched out over Mitzrayim.

13 And אֱלֹהִים sent all kinds of beasts of the field into Mitzrayim, and they came and destroyed all Mitzrayim, man and beast, and trees, and all things that were in Mitzrayim.

14 And אֱלֹהִים sent fiery serpents, scorpions, mice, weasels, and toads, together with others creeping in dust.

15 Flies, hornets, fleas, bugs and gnats, each swarm according to its kind.

16 And all reptiles and winged animals according to their kind came to Mitzrayim and grieved the Mitzrites exceedingly.

17 And the fleas and flies came into the eyes and ears of the Mitzrites.

18 And the hornet came upon them and drove them away, and they removed from it into their inner rooms, and it pursued them.

19 And when the Mitzrites hid themselves on account of the swarm of animals, they locked their doors after them, and אֱלֹהִים ordered the Sulanuth that was in the sea, to come up and go into Mitzrayim.

20 And she had long arms, ten cubits in length of the cubit of a man.

21 And she went upon the roofs and uncovered the raftering and flooring and cut them, and stretched forth her arm into the house and removed the lock and the bolt, and opened the houses of Mitzrayim.

22 Afterward came the swarm of animals into the houses of Mitzrayim, and the swarm of animals destroyed the Mitzrites, and it grieved them exceedingly.

23 Notwithstanding this the anger of אֱלֹהִים did not turn away from the Mitzrites, and His hand was yet stretched forth against them.

24 And אֱלֹהִים sent the pestilence, and the pestilence pervaded Mitzrayim, in the horses and donkeys, and in the camels, in herds of oxen and sheep and in man.

25 And when the Mitzrites rose up early in the morning to take their cattle to pasture they found all their cattle dead.

26 And there remained of the cattle of the Mitzrites only one in ten, and of the cattle belonging to Yisrael in Goshen not one died.

27 And אֱלֹהִים sent a burning inflammation in the flesh of the Mitzrites, which burst their skins, and it became a severe itch in all the Mitzrites from the soles of their feet to the crowns of their heads.

28 And many boils were in their flesh that their flesh wasted away until they became rotten and putrid.

29 Notwithstanding this the anger of אֱלֹהִים did not turn away, and His hand was still stretched out over all Mitzrayim.

30 And אֱלֹהִים sent a very heavy hail, which smote their vines and broke their fruit trees and dried them up that they fell upon them.

31 Also every green herb became dry and perished, for a mingling fire descended amidst the hail, therefore the hail and the fire consumed all things.

32 Also men and beasts that were found abroad perished of the flames of fire and of the hail, and all the young lions were exhausted.

33 And אֱלֹהִים sent and brought numerous locusts into Mitzrayim, the Chasel, Salom, Chargol, and Chagole, locusts each of its kind, which devoured all that the hail had left remaining.

34 Then the Mitzrites rejoiced at the locusts, although they consumed the produce of the field, and they caught them in abundance and salted them for food.

35 And אֱלֹהִים turned a mighty wind of the sea that took away all the locusts, even those that were salted, and thrust them into the Yam Suf; not one locust remained within the boundaries of Mitzrayim.

36 And אֱלֹהִים sent darkness upon Mitzrayim, that the whole land of Mitzrayim and Pathros became dark for three days, so that a man could not see his hand when he lifted it to his mouth.

37 At that time died many of the people of Yisrael who had rebelled against אֱלֹהִים and who would not listen to Moshe and Aharon, and believed not in them that אֱלֹהִים had sent them.

38 And who had said, We will not go forth from Mitzrayim lest we perish with hunger in a desolate wilderness, and who would not listen to the voice of Moshe.

39 And אֱלֹהִים plagued them in the three days of darkness, and the Yisraelites buried them in those days, without the Mitzrites knowing of them or rejoicing over them.

40 And the darkness was very great in Mitzrayim for three days, and any person who was standing when the darkness came, remained standing in his place, and he that was sitting remained sitting, and he that was lying continued lying in the same state, and he that was walking remained sitting upon the ground in the same spot; and this thing happened to all the Mitzrites, until the darkness had passed away.

41 And the days of darkness passed away, and אֱלֹהִים sent Moshe and Aharon to the children of Yisrael, saying, Celebrate your feast and make your Pesach, for behold I come in the midst of the night among all the Mitzrites, and I will smite all their bechor, from the bechor of a man to the bechor of a beast, and when I see your Pesach, I will pass over you.

42 And the children of Yisrael did according to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe and Aharon, this did they in that night.

43 And it came to pass in the middle of the night, that אֱלֹהִים went forth in the midst of Mitzrayim, and smote all the bechor of the Mitzrites, from the bechor of man to the bechor of beast.

44 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants and all the Mitzrites, and there was a great cry throughout Mitzrayim in that night, for there was not a house in which there was not a corpse.

45 Also the likenesses of the bechor of Mitzrayim, which were carved in the walls at their houses, were destroyed and fell to the ground.

46 Even the bones of their bechor who had died before this and whom they had buried in their houses, were raked up by the dogs of Mitzrayim on that night and dragged before the Mitzrites and cast before them.

47 And all the Mitzrites saw this evil that had suddenly come upon them, and all the Mitzrites cried out with a loud voice.

48 And all the families of Mitzrayim wept upon that night, each man for his son and each man for his daughter, being the bechor, and the tumult of Mitzrayim was heard at a distance on that night.

49 And Bathiya the daughter of Pharaoh went forth with the melech on that night to seek Moshe and Aharon in their houses, and they found them in their houses, eating and drinking and rejoicing with all Yisrael.

50 And Bathiya said to Moshe, Is this the reward for the tov that I have done to you, who have reared you and stretched you out, and you have brought this evil upon me and my abba's house?

51 And Moshe said to her, Surely ten plagues did אִתְּךָ bring upon Mitzrayim; did any evil accrue to you from any of them? Did one of them affect you? And she said, No.

52 And Moshe said to her, Although you are the bechor to your ema, you shall not die, and no evil shall reach you in the midst of Mitzrayim.

53 And she said, What advantage is it to me, when I see the melech, my brother, and all his household and subjects in this evil, whose bechor perish with all the first born of Mitzrayim?

54 And Moshe said to her, Surely your brother and his household, and subjects, the families of Mitzrayim, would not listen to the words of אִתְּךָ, therefore did this evil come upon them.

55 And Pharaoh melech of Mitzrayim approached Moshe and Aharon, and some of the children of Yisrael who were with them in that place, and he prayed to them, saying,

56 Rise up and take your brothers, all the children of Yisrael who are in the land, with their sheep and oxen, and all belonging to them, they shall leave nothing remaining, only pray for me to אֱלֹהֶיךָ your אֱלֹהֶיךָ.

57 And Moshe said to Pharaoh, Behold though you are your ema's bechor, yet fear not, for you will not die, for אֱלֹהֶיךָ has commanded that you shall live, in order to show you His great might and strong stretched out arm.

58 And Pharaoh ordered the children of Yisrael to be sent away, and all the Mitzrites strengthened themselves to send them, for they said, We are all perishing.

59 And all the Mitzrites sent the Yisraelites forth, with great riches, sheep and oxen and precious things, according to the oath of אֱלֹהֶיךָ between Him and our abba Avraham.

60 And the children of Yisrael delayed going forth at night, and when the Mitzrites came to them to bring them out, they said to them, Are we thieves, that we should go forth at night?

61 And the children of Yisrael asked of the Mitzrites, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and the children of Yisrael stripped the Mitzrites.

62 And Moshe hurried and rose up and went to the river of Mitzrayim, and brought up from there the coffin of Yoseph and took it with him.

63 The children of Yisrael also brought up, each man his abba's coffin with him, and each man the coffins of his tribe.

81 And the children of Yisrael journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides the little ones and their wives.
2 Also a mixed multitude went up with them, and flocks and herds, even much cattle.

3 And the sojourning of the children of Yisrael, who dwelt in the land of Mitzrayim in hard labor, was two hundred and ten years.

4 And at the end of two hundred and ten years, אִרְאֵל brought forth the children of Yisrael from Mitzrayim with a strong hand.

5 And the children of Yisrael traveled from Mitzrayim and from Goshen and from Rameses, and encamped in Succoth on the fifteenth day of the first month.

6 And the Mitzrites buried all their bechor whom אִרְאֵל had smitten, and all the Mitzrites buried their slain for three days.

7 And the children of Yisrael traveled from Succoth and encamped in Ethom, at the end of the wilderness.

8 And on the third day after the Mitzrites had buried their bechor, many men rose up from Mitzrayim and went after Yisrael to make them return to Mitzrayim, for they repented that they had sent the Yisraelites away from their servitude.

9 And one man said to his neighbor, Surely Moshe and Aharon spoke to Pharaoh, saying, We will go a three days' journey in the wilderness and sacrifice to אִרְאֵל our אִרְאֵל.

10 Now therefore let us rise up early in the morning and cause them to return, and it shall be that if they return with us to Mitzrayim to their masters, then shall we know that there is faith in them, but if they will not return, then will we fight with them, and make them come back with great power and a strong hand.

11 And all the nobles of Pharaoh rose up in the morning, and with them about seven hundred thousand men, and they went forth from Mitzrayim on that day, and came to the place where the children of Yisrael were.

12 And all the Mitzrites saw and behold Moshe and Aharon and all the children of Yisrael were sitting before Pi-hahiroth, eating and drinking and celebrating the feast of אֶרְבָּא.

13 And all the Mitzrites said to the children of Yisrael, Surely you said, We will go a journey for three days in the wilderness and sacrifice to our אֶרְבָּא and return.

14 Now therefore this day makes five days since you went, why do you not return to your masters?

15 And Moshe and Aharon answered them, saying, Because אֶרְבָּא our אֶרְבָּא has testified in us, saying, You shall no more return to Mitzrayim, but we will take ourselves to a land flowing with milk and honey, as אֶרְבָּא our אֶרְבָּא had sworn to our ancestors to give to us.

16 And when the nobles of Mitzrayim saw that the children of Yisrael did not listen to them, to return to Mitzrayim, they girded themselves to fight with Yisrael.

17 And אֶרְבָּא strengthened the hearts of the children of Yisrael over the Mitzrites, that they gave them a severe beating, and the battle was sore upon the Mitzrites, and all the Mitzrites fled from before the children of Yisrael, for many of them perished by the hand of Yisrael.

18 And the nobles of Pharaoh went to Mitzrayim and told Pharaoh, saying, The children of Yisrael have fled, and will no more return to Mitzrayim, and in this manner did Moshe and Aharon speak to us.

19 And Pharaoh heard this thing, and his heart and the hearts of all his subjects were turned against Yisrael, and they repented that they had sent Yisrael; and all the Mitzrites advised Pharaoh to pursue the children of Yisrael to make them come back to their burdens.

20 And they said each man to his brother, What is this that we have done, that we have sent Yisrael from our servitude?

21 And אִיִּצְיָר strengthened the hearts of all the Mitzrites to pursue the Yisraelites, for אִיִּצְיָר desired to overthrow the Mitzrites in the Yam Suf.

22 And Pharaoh rose up and harnessed his mirkava, and he ordered all the Mitzrites to assemble, not one man was left excepting the little ones and the women.

23 And all the Mitzrites went forth with Pharaoh to pursue the children of Yisrael, and the camp of Mitzrayim was an exceedingly large and heavy camp, about ten hundred thousand men.

24 And the whole of this camp went and pursued the children of Yisrael to bring them back to Mitzrayim, and they reached them encamping by the Yam Suf.

25 And the children of Yisrael lifted up their eyes, and beheld all the Mitzrites pursuing them, and the children of Yisrael were greatly terrified at them, and the children of Yisrael cried to אִיִּצְיָר.

26 And on account of the Mitzrites, the children of Yisrael divided themselves into four divisions, and they were divided in their opinions, for they were afraid of the Mitzrites, and Moshe spoke to each of them.

27 The first division was of the children of Reuven, Shimeon, and Yissacher, and they resolved to cast themselves into the sea, for they were exceedingly afraid of the Mitzrites.

28 And Moshe said to them, Fear not, stand still and see the salvation of אִיִּצְיָר which He will effect this day for you.

29 The second division was of the children of Zevulun, Binyamin and Naphtali, and they resolved to go back to Mitzrayim with the Mitzrites.

30 And Moshe said to them, Fear not, for as you have seen the Mitzrites this day, so shall you see them no more le-olam-va-ed.

31 The third division was of the children of Yahudah and Yoseph, and they resolved to go to meet the Mitzrites to fight with them.

32 And Moshe said to them, Stand in your places, for אֱלֹהִים will fight for you, and you shall remain silent.

33 And the fourth division was of the children of Levi, Gad, and Asher, and they resolved to go into the midst of the Mitzrites to confound them, and Moshe said to them, Remain in your stations and fear not, only call to אֱלֹהִים that He may save you out of their hands.

34 After this Moshe rose up from amidst the people, and he prayed to אֱלֹהִים and said, 35 O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of the whole earth, save now your people whom you did bring forth from Mitzrayim, and let not the Mitzrites boast that power and might are theirs.

36 So אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Why do you cry to me? Speak to the children of Yisrael that they shall proceed, and do you stretch out your rod upon the sea and divide it, and the children of Yisrael shall pass through it.

37 And Moshe did so, and he lifted up his rod upon the sea and divided it.

38 And the mayim of the sea was divided into twelve parts, and the children of Yisrael passed through on foot, with shoes, as a man would pass through a prepared road.

39 And אֱלֹהִים manifested to the children of Yisrael His wonders in Mitzrayim and in the sea by the hand of Moshe and Aharon.

40 And when the children of Yisrael had entered the sea, the Mitzrites came after them, and the mayim of the sea resumed upon them, and they all sank in the mayim, and not one man was left except Pharaoh, who gave thanks to אֱלֹהֵי and believed in him, therefore אֱלֹהֵי did not cause him to perish at that time with the Mitzrites.

41 And אֱלֹהֵי ordered a malach to take him from among the Mitzrites, who cast him upon the land of Ninevah and he reigned over it for a long time.

42 And on that day אֱלֹהֵי saved Yisrael from the hand of Mitzrayim, and all the children of Yisrael saw that the Mitzrites had perished, and they beheld the great hand of אֱלֹהֵי, in what He had performed in Mitzrayim and in the sea.

43 Then sang Moshe and the children of Yisrael this song to אֱלֹהֵי, on the day when אֱלֹהֵי caused the Mitzrites to fall before them.

44 And all Yisrael sang in concert, saying, I will sing to אֱלֹהֵי for He is greatly exalted, the horse and his rider has He cast into the sea; behold it is written in the scroll of the Torah of אֱלֹהֵי.

45 After this the children of Yisrael proceeded on their journey, and encamped in Marah, and אֱלֹהֵי gave to the children of Yisrael chukim and mishpatim in that place in Marah, and אֱלֹהֵי commanded the children of Yisrael to walk in all his halachot and to serve Him.

46 And they journeyed from Marah and came to Eylim, and in Eylim were twelve springs of mayim and seventy date trees, and the children encamped there by the mayim.

47 And they journeyed from Eylim and came to the wilderness of Sin, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure from Mitzrayim.

48 At that time אֱלֹהֵי gave the manna to the children of Yisrael to eat, and אֱלֹהֵי caused food to rain from the shamayim for the children of Yisrael day by day.

49 And the children of Yisrael ate the manna for forty years, all the days that they were in the wilderness, until they came to the land of Kanaan to possess it.

50 And they proceeded from the wilderness of Sin and encamped in Alush.

51 And they proceeded from Alush and encamped in Rephidim.

52 And when the children of Yisrael were in Rephidim, Amalek the son of Eliphaz, the son of Esav, the brother of Zepho, came to fight with Yisrael.

53 And he brought with him eight hundred and one thousand men, magicians and conjurers, and he prepared for battle with Yisrael in Rephidim.

54 And they carried on a great and severe battle against Yisrael, and אֶרְאֵל delivered Amalek and his people into the hands of Moshe and the children of Yisrael, and into the hand of Yahoshua, the son of Nun, the Ephrathite, the servant of Moshe.

55 And the children of Yisrael smote Amalek and his people at the edge of the sword, but the battle was very sore upon the children of Yisrael.

56 And אֶרְאֵל said to Moshe, Write this thing as a memorial for you in a scroll, and place it in the hand of Yahoshua, the son of Nun, your servant, and you shall command the children of Yisrael, saying, When you shall come to the land of Kanaan, you shall utterly efface the remembrance of Amalek from under the shamayim.

57 And Moshe did so, and he took the scroll and wrote upon it these words, saying, 58 Remember what Amalek has done to you in the road when you went forth from Mitzrayim.

59 Who met you in the road and smote your rear, even those that were feeble behind you when you were faint and weary.

60 Therefore it shall be when אִתְּךָ your אִתְּךָ shall have given you rest from all your enemies round about in the land which אִתְּךָ your אִתְּךָ gives you for an inheritance, to possess it, that you shall blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the shamayim, you shall not forget it.

61 And the melech who shall have pity on Amalek, or upon his memory or upon his zera, behold I will require it of him, and I will cut him off from among his people.

62 And Moshe wrote all these things in a scroll, and he enjoined the children of Yisrael respecting all these matters.

82 And the children of Yisrael proceeded from Rephidim and they encamped in the wilderness of Sinai, in the third month from their going forth from Mitzrayim.

2 At that time came Reuel the Midyanite, the abba-in-law of Moshe, with Tzipporah his daughter and her two sons, for he had heard of the wonders of אִתְּךָ that He had done to Yisrael, that He had delivered them from the hand of Mitzrayim.

3 And Reuel came to Moshe to the wilderness where he was encamped, where was the mountain of אִתְּךָ.

4 And Moshe went forth to meet his abba-in-law with great honor, and all Yisrael was with him.

5 And Reuel and his children remained among the Yisraelites for many days, and Reuel knew אִתְּךָ from that day forward.

6 And in the third month from the children of Yisrael's departure from Mitzrayim, on the sixth day of it, אִתְּךָ gave to Yisrael the ten mitzvot on Mount Sinai.

7 And all Yisrael heard all these mitzvot, and all Yisrael rejoiced exceedingly in אִתְּךָ on that day.

8 And the glory of אֱלֹהִים rested upon Mount Sinai, and He called to Moshe, and Moshe came in the midst of a cloud and ascended the mountain.

9 And Moshe was upon the mount forty days and forty nights; he ate no bread and drank no mayim, and אֱלֹהִים instructed him in the chukim and mishpatim in order to teach the children of Yisrael.

10 And אֱלֹהִים wrote the ten mitzvot which He had commanded the children of Yisrael upon two tablets of stone, which He gave to Moshe to command the children of Yisrael.

11 And at the end of forty days and forty nights, when אֱלֹהִים had finished speaking to Moshe on Mount Sinai, then אֱלֹהִים gave to Moshe the tablets of stone, written with the finger of אֱלֹהִים.

12 And when the children of Yisrael saw that Moshe tarried to come down from the mount, they gathered round Aharon, and said, As for this man Moshe we know not what has become of him.

13 Now therefore rise up, make to us an ahlohim who shall go before us, so that you shall not die.

14 And Aharon was greatly afraid of the people, and he ordered them to bring him gold and he made it into a molten calf for the people.

15 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, before he had come down from the mount, Get down, for your people whom you did bring forth from Mitzrayim have corrupted themselves.

16 They have made to themselves a molten calf, and have bowed down to it, now therefore leave me, that I may consume them from off the earth, for they are a stiff-necked people.

17 And Moshe sought the countenance of אֱלֹהִים, and he prayed to אֱלֹהִים for the people on account of the calf that they had made, and he afterward descended from the mount and in his hands were the two tablets of stone, which אֱלֹהִים had given him to command the Yisraelites.

18 And when Moshe approached the camp and saw the calf that the people had made, the anger of Moshe was kindled and he broke the tablets under the mount.

19 And Moshe came to the camp and he took the calf and burned it with fire, and ground it till it became fine dust, and strewed it upon the mayim and gave it to the Yisraelites to drink.

20 And there died of the people by the swords of each other about three thousand men who had made the calf.

21 And on the next day Moshe said to the people, I will go up to אֱלֹהִים, perhaps I may make atonement for your sins which you have sinned to אֱלֹהִים.

22 And Moshe again went up to אֱלֹהִים, and he remained with אֱלֹהִים forty days and forty nights.

23 And during the forty days did Moshe entreat אֱלֹהִים on behalf of the children of Yisrael, and אֱלֹהִים hearkened to the prayer of Moshe, and אֱלֹהִים was entreated of him on behalf of Yisrael.

24 Then spoke אֱלֹהִים to Moshe to hew two stone tablets and to bring them up to אֱלֹהִים, who would write upon them the ten mitzvot.

25 Now Moshe did so, and he came down and hewed the two tablets and went up to Mount Sinai to אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים wrote the ten mitzvot upon the tablets.

26 And Moshe remained yet with אֱלֹהִים forty days and forty nights, and אֱלֹהִים instructed him in chukim and mishpatim to impart to Yisrael.

27 And אֱלֹהִים commanded him respecting the children of Yisrael that they should make a sanctuary for אֱלֹהִים, that His Name might rest therein, and אֱלֹהִים showed him the likeness of the sanctuary and the likeness of all its vessels.

28 And at the end of the forty days, Moshe came down from the mount and the two tablets were in his hand.

29 And Moshe came to the children of Yisrael and spoke to them all the words of אֱלֹהִים, and he taught them torot, chukim and mishpatim which אֱלֹהִים had taught him.

30 And Moshe told the children of Yisrael the word of אֱלֹהִים, that a sanctuary should be made for Him, to dwell among the children of Yisrael.

31 And the people rejoiced greatly at all the tov which אֱלֹהִים had spoken to them, through Moshe, and they said, We will do all that אֱלֹהִים has spoken to you.

32 And the people rose up like one man and they made generous offerings to the sanctuary of אֱלֹהִים, and each man brought the offering of אֱלֹהִים for the work of the sanctuary, and for all its service.

33 And all the children of Yisrael brought each man of all that was found in his possession for the work of the sanctuary of אֱלֹהִים, gold, silver and brass, and everything that was serviceable for the sanctuary.

34 And all the wise men who were practiced in work came and made the sanctuary of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded, every man in the work in which he had been practiced; and all the wise men in heart made the sanctuary, and its furniture and all the vessels for the set-apart service, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe.

35 And the work of the sanctuary of the tabernacle was completed at the end of five months, and the children of Yisrael did all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe.

36 And they brought the sanctuary and all its furniture to Moshe; like the representation which אֱלֹהִים had shown to Moshe, so did the children of Yisrael.

37 And Moshe saw the work, and behold they did it as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, so Moshe blessed them.

83 And in the twelfth month, in the twenty-third day of the month, Moshe took Aharon and his sons, and he dressed them in their garments, and anointed them and did to them as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, and Moshe brought up all the offerings which אֱלֹהִים had on that day commanded him.

2 Moshe afterward took Aharon and his sons and said to them, For seven days shall you remain at the door of the tabernacle, for this am I commanded.

3 And Aharon and his sons did all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded them through Moshe, and they remained for seven days at the door of the tabernacle.

4 And on the eighth day, being the first day of the first month, in the second year from the Yisraelites' departure from Mitzrayim, Moshe erected the sanctuary, and Moshe put up all the furniture of the tabernacle and all the furniture of the sanctuary, and he did all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded him.

5 And Moshe called to Aharon and his sons, and they brought the burnt offering and the sin offering for themselves and the children of Yisrael, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe.

6 On that day the two sons of Aharon, Nadav and Avihu, took strange fire and brought it before אֱלֹהִים who had not commanded them, and a fire went forth from before אֱלֹהִים, and consumed them, and they died before אֱלֹהִים on that day.

7 Then on the day when Moshe had completed to erect the sanctuary, the princes of the children of Yisrael began to bring their offerings before אֱלֹהִים for the dedication of the altar.

8 And they brought up their offerings each prince for one day, a prince each day for twelve days.

9 And all the offerings which they brought, each man in his day, one silver charger weighing one hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour, mingled with oil for a meat offering.

10 One spoon, weighing ten shekels of gold, full of incense.

11 One young bullock, one ram, one lamb of the first year for a burnt offering.

12 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering.

13 And for a sacrifice of shalom offering, two oxen, five rams, five male-goats, five lambs of a year old.

14 This did the twelve princes of Yisrael day by day, each man in his day.

15 And it was after this, in the thirteenth day of the month, that Moshe commanded the children of Yisrael to observe the Pesach.

16 And the children of Yisrael kept the Pesach in its season on the fourteenth day of the month, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe, so did the children of Yisrael.

17 And in the second month, on the first day of it, אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe, saying, 18 Number the heads of all the males of the children of Yisrael from twenty years old and upward, you and your brother Aharon and the twelve princes of Yisrael.

19 And Moshe did so, and Aharon came with the twelve princes of Yisrael, and they numbered the children of Yisrael in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the numbers of the children of Yisrael by the houses of their ahvot, from twenty years old and upward, were six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

21 But the children of Levi were not numbered among their brothers the children of Yisrael.

22 And the number of all the males of the children of Yisrael from one month old and upward was twenty-two thousand, two hundred and seventy-three.

23 And the number of the children of Levi from one month old and above was twenty-two thousand.

24 And Moshe placed the priests and the Levites each man to his service and to his burden to serve the sanctuary of the tabernacle, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Moshe.

25 And on the twentieth day of the month, the cloud was taken away from the tabernacle of testimony.

26 At that time the children of Yisrael continued their journey from the wilderness of Sinai, and they took a journey of three days, and the cloud rested upon the wilderness of Paran; there the anger of אֱלֹהִים was kindled against Yisrael, for they had provoked אֱלֹהִים in asking him for meat, that they might eat.

27 And אֱלֹהִים hearkened to their voice, and gave them meat that they ate for one month.

28 But after this the anger of אֱלֹהִים was kindled against them, and He smote them with a great slaughter, and they were buried there in that place.

29 And the children of Yisrael called that place Kevroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people that lusted for meat.

30 And they departed from Kevroth Hattaavah and pitched in Hazeroth, which is in the wilderness of Paran.

31 And while the children of Yisrael were in Hatzeroth, the anger of אֱלֹהִים was kindled against Miryam on account of Moshe, and she became leprous, white as snow.

32 And she was confined without the camp for seven days, until she had been received again after her leprosy.

33 The children of Yisrael afterward departed from Hazereth, and pitched in the end of the wilderness of Paran.

34 At that time, אֱלֹהִים spoke to Moshe to send twelve men from the children of Yisrael, one man from a tribe, to go and explore the land of Kanaan.

35 And Moshe sent the twelve men, and they came to the land of Kanaan to search and examine it, and they explored the whole land from the wilderness of Sin to Rechov as you come to Chamoth.

36 And at the end of forty days they came to Moshe and Aharon, and they brought him word as it was in their hearts, and ten of the men brought up an evil report to the children of Yisrael, of the land which they had explored, saying, It is better for us to return to Mitzrayim than to go to this land, a land that consumes its inhabitants.

37 But Yahoshua the son of Nun, and Calev the son of Yephuneh, who were of those that explored the land, said, The land is exceedingly tov.

38 If אֱלֹהִים delight in us, then He will bring us to this land and give it to us, for it is a land flowing with milk and honey.

39 But the children of Yisrael would not listen to them, and they hearkened to the words of the ten men who had brought up an evil report of the land.

40 And אֱלֹהִים heard the murmurings of the children of Yisrael and He was angry and swore, saying, 41 Surely not one man of this wicked generation shall see the land from twenty years old and upward excepting Calev the son of Yephuneh and Yahoshua the son of Nun.

42 But surely this wicked generation shall perish in this wilderness, and their children shall come to the land and they shall possess it; so the anger of אלהים was kindled against Yisrael, and He made them wander in the wilderness for forty years until the end of that wicked generation, because they did not follow אלהים.

43 And the people dwelt in the wilderness of Paran a long time, and they afterward proceeded to the wilderness by the way of the Yam Suf.

84 At that time Korah the son of Yetzer the son of Kohath the son of Levi, took many men of the children of Yisrael, and they rose up and quarreled with Moshe and Aharon and the whole congregation.

2 And אלהים was angry with them, and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, with their houses and all belonging to them, and all the men belonging to Korah.

3 And after this אלהים made the people go round by the way of Mount Seir for a long time.

4 At that time אלהים said to Moshe, Provoke not a war against the children of Esav, for I will not give to you of anything belonging to them, as much as the sole of the foot could tread upon, for I have given Mount Seir for an inheritance to Esav.

5 Therefore did the children of Esav fight against the children of Seir in former times, and אלהים had delivered the children of Seir into the hands of the children of Esav, and destroyed them from before them, and the children of Esav dwelt in their stead to this day.

6 Therefore אלהים said to the children of Yisrael, Fight not against the children of Esav your brothers, for nothing in their land belongs to you, but you may buy food from them for money and eat it, and you may buy mayim of them for money and drink it.

7 And the children of Yisrael did according to the word of אֱלֹהִים.

8 And the children of Yisrael went around the wilderness, going round by the way of Mount Sinai for a long time, and touched not the children of Esav, and they continued in that district for nineteen years.

9 At that time died Latinus melech of the children of Chittim, in the forty-fifth year of his reign, which is the fourteenth year of the children of Yisrael's departure from Mitzrayim.

10 And they buried him in his place that he had built for himself in the land of Chittim, and Avimnas reigned in his place for thirty-eight years.

11 And the children of Yisrael passed the boundary of the children of Esav in those days, at the end of nineteen years, and they came and passed the road of the wilderness of Moav.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Besiege not Moav, and do not fight against them, for I will give you nothing of their land.

13 And the children of Yisrael passed the road of the wilderness of Moav for nineteen years, and they did not fight against them.

14 And in the thirty-sixth year of the children of Yisrael's departing from Mitzrayim אֱלֹהִים smote the heart of Sihon, melech of the Amorites, and he waged war, and went forth to fight against the children of Moav.

15 And Sihon sent messengers to Beor the son of Yaneas, the son of Balaam, counselor to the melech of Mitzrayim, and to Balaam his son, to curse Moav, in order that it might be delivered into the hand of Sihon.

16 And the messengers went and brought Beor the son of Yaneas, and Balaam his son, from Pethor in Mesopotamia, so Beor and Balaam his son came to the city of Sihon and they cursed Moav and their melech in the presence of Sihon melech of the Amorites.

17 So Sihon went out with his whole army, and he went to Moav and fought against them, and he subdued them, and אִרְבֵּי delivered them into his hands, and Sihon slew the melech of Moav.

18 And Sihon took all the cities of Moav in the battle; he also took Cheshbon from them, for Cheshbon was one of the cities of Moav, and Sihon placed his princes and his nobles in Cheshbon, and Cheshbon belonged to Sihon in those days.

19 Therefore the parable speakers Beor and Balaam his son uttered these words, saying, Come to Cheshbon, the city of Sihon will be built and established.

20 Woe to you Moav! You are lost, O people of Chemosh! Behold it is written upon the scroll of the Torah of אִרְבֵּי.

21 And when Sihon had conquered Moav, he placed guards in the cities which he had taken from Moav, and a considerable number of the children of Moav fell in battle into the hand of Sihon, and he made a great capture of them, sons and daughters, and he slew their melech; so Sihon turned back to his own land.

22 And Sihon gave numerous presents of silver and gold to Beor and Balaam his son, and he dismissed them, and they went to Mesopotamia to their home and country.

23 At that time all the children of Yisrael passed from the road of the wilderness of Moav, and returned and surrounded the wilderness of Edom.

24 So the whole congregation came to the wilderness of Sin in the first month of the fortieth year from their departure from Mitzrayim, and the children of Yisrael dwelt there in Kadesh, of the wilderness of Sin, and Miryam died there and she was buried there.

25 At that time Moshe sent messengers to Hadad melech of Edom, saying, This says your brother Yisrael, Let me pass I ask you through your land, we will not pass through field or vineyard, we will not drink the mayim of the well; we will walk in the melech's road.

26 And Edom said to him, You shall not pass through my country, and Edom went forth to meet the children of Yisrael with a mighty people.

27 And the children of Esav refused to let the children of Yisrael pass through their land, so the Yisraelites removed from them and fought not against them.

28 For before this אֱלֹהִים had commanded the children of Yisrael, saying, You shall not fight against the children of Esav, therefore the Yisraelites removed from them and did not fight against them.

29 So the children of Yisrael departed from Kadesh, and all the people came to Mount Hor.

30 At that time אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Tell your brother Aharon that he shall die there, for he shall not come to the land which I have given to the children of Yisrael.

31 And Aharon went up, at the command of אֱלֹהִים, to Mount Hor, in the fortieth year, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month.

32 And Aharon was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor.

85 And melech Arad the Canaanite, who dwelt in the south, heard that the Yisraelites had come by the way of the spies, and he arranged his forces to fight against the Yisraelites.

2 And the children of Yisrael were greatly afraid of him, for he had a great and heavy army, so the children of Yisrael resolved to return to Mitzrayim.

3 And the children of Yisrael turned back about the distance of three days' journey to Maserath B'nai Yaakon, for they were greatly afraid on account of melech Arad.

4 And the children of Yisrael would not get back to their places, so they remained in B'nai Yaakon for thirty days.

5 And when the children of Levi saw that the children of Yisrael would not turn back, they were jealous for the sake of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and they rose up and fought against the Yisraelites their brothers, and slew of them a great many, and forced them to turn back to their place, Mount Hor.

6 And when they returned, melech Arad was still arranging his host for battle against the Yisraelites.

7 And Yisrael vowed a vow, saying, If you will deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל hearkened to the voice of Yisrael, and he delivered the Kannaim into their hand, and he utterly destroyed them and their cities, and he called the name of the place Hormah.

9 And the children of Yisrael journeyed from Mount Hor and pitched in Ovoth, and they journeyed from Ovoth and they pitched at Iye-Avarim, in the border of Moav.

10 And the children of Yisrael sent to Moav, saying, Let us pass now through your land into our place, but the children of Moav would not allow the children of Yisrael to pass through their land, for the children of Moav were greatly afraid lest the children of Yisrael should do to them as Sihon melech of the Amorites had done to them, who had taken their land and had slain many of them.

11 Therefore Moav would not allow the Yisraelites to pass through their land, and אֶרְבֵּאֵל commanded the children of Yisrael, saying, That they should not fight against Moav, so the Yisraelites removed from Moav.

12 And the children of Yisrael journeyed from the border of Moav, and they came to the other side of Arnon, the border of Moav, between Moav and the Amorites, and they pitched in the border of Sihon, melech of the Amorites, in the wilderness of Kedemoth.

13 And the children of Yisrael sent messengers to Sihon, melech of the Amorites, saying, 14 Let us pass through your land, we will not turn into the fields or into the vineyards, we will go along by the melech's highway until we shall have passed your border, but Sihon would not allow the Yisraelites to pass.

15 So Sihon collected all the people of the Amorites and went forth into the wilderness to meet the children of Yisrael, and he fought against Yisrael in Yahaz.

16 And אֶרְבֵּאֵל delivered Sihon melech of the Amorites into the hand of the children of Yisrael, and Yisrael smote all the people of Sihon with the edge of the sword and avenged the cause of Moav.

17 And the children of Yisrael took possession of the land of Sihon from Aram to Yabuk, to the children of Ammon, and they took all the spoil of the cities.

18 And Yisrael took all these cities, and Yisrael dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites.

19 And all the children of Yisrael resolved to fight against the children of Ammon, to take their land also.

20 So אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to the children of Yisrael, Do not besiege the children of Ammon, neither stir up battle against them, for I will give nothing to you of their land, And the children of Yisrael hearkened to the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and did not fight against the children of Ammon.

21 And the children of Yisrael turned and went up by the way of Bashan to the land of Og, melech of Bashan, and Og the melech of Bashan went out to meet the Yisraelites in battle, and he had with him many valiant men, and a very strong force from the people of the Amorites.

22 And Og melech of Bashan was a very powerful man, but Naaron his son was exceedingly powerful, even stronger than he was.

23 And Og said in his heart, Behold now the whole camp of Yisrael takes up a space of three parsa, now will I smite them at once without sword or spear.

24 And Og went up Mount Yahaz, and took from there one large stone, the length of which was three parsa, and he placed it on his head, and resolved to throw it upon the camp of the children of Yisrael, to smite all the Yisraelites with that stone.

25 And the malach of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came and pierced the stone upon the head of Og, and the stone fell upon the neck of Og that Og fell to the earth on account of the weight of the stone upon his neck.

26 At that time אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to the children of Yisrael, Be not afraid of him, for I have given him and all his people and all his land into your hand, and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon.

27 And Moshe went down to him with a small number of the children of Yisrael, and Moshe smote Og with a stick at the ankles of his feet and slew him.

28 The children of Yisrael afterward pursued the children of Og and all his people, and they beat and destroyed them till there was no remnant left of them.

29 Moshe afterward sent some of the children of Yisrael to spy out Yaazer, for Yaazer was a very famous city.

30 And the spies went to Yaazer and explored it, and the spies trusted in אַיָּאֵז, and they fought against the men of Yaazer.

31 And these men took Yaazer and its villages, and אַיָּאֵז delivered them into their hand, and they drove out the Amorites who had been there.

32 And the children of Yisrael took the land of the two melechim of the Amorites, sixty cities that were on the other side of Yarden, from the brook of Arnon to Mount Herman.

33 And the children of Yisrael journeyed and came into the plain of Moav that is on this side of Yarden, by Yericho.

34 And the children of Moav heard all the evil which the children of Yisrael had done to the two melechim of the Amorites, to Sihon and Og, so all the men of Moav were greatly afraid of the Yisraelites.

35 And the zachanim of Moav said, Behold the two melechim of the Amorites, Sihon and Og, who were more powerful than all the melechim of the earth, could not stand against the children of Yisrael, how then can we stand before them?

36 Surely they sent us a message before now to pass through our land on their way, and we would not allow them, now they will turn upon us with their heavy swords and destroy us; and Moav was distressed on account of the children of Yisrael, and they were greatly afraid of them, and they counseled together what was to be done to the children of Yisrael.

37 And the zachanim of Moav resolved and took one of their men, Balak the son of Tzippor the Moavite, and made him melech over them at that time, and Balak was a very wise man.

38 And the zachanim of Moav rose up and sent to the children of Midiyan to make shalom with them, for a great battle and enmity had been in those days between Moav and Midiyan, from the days of Hadad the son of Bedad melech of Edom, who smote Midiyan in the field of Moav, to these days.

39 And the children of Moav sent to the children of Midiyan, and they made shalom with them, and the zachanim of Midiyan came to the land of Moav to make shalom in behalf of the children of Midiyan.

40 And the zachanim of Moav counseled with the zachanim of Midiyan what to do in order to save their lives from Yisrael.

41 And all the children of Moav said to the zachanim of Midiyan, Now therefore the children of Yisrael lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licks up the grass of the field, for this did they do to the two melechim of the Amorites who are stronger than we are.

42 And the zachanim of Midiyan said to Moav, We have heard that at the time when Sihon melech of the Amorites fought against you, when he prevailed over you and took your land, he had sent to Beor the son of Yaneas and to Balaam his son from Mesopotamia, and they came and cursed you; therefore did the hand of Sihon prevail over you, that he took your land.

43 Now therefore send you also to Balaam his son, for he still remains in his land, and give him his hire, that he may come and curse all the people of whom you are afraid; so the zachanim of Moav heard this thing, and it pleased them to send for Balaam the son of Beor.

44 So Balak the son of Tzippor melech of Moav sent messengers to Balaam, saying, 45 Behold there is a people come out from Mitzrayim, behold they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me.

46 Now therefore come and curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me, perhaps I shall prevail to fight against them, and drive them out, for I heard that he whom you bless is blessed, and whom you curse is cursed.

47 So the messengers of Balak went to Balaam and brought Balaam to curse the people to fight against Moav.

48 And Balaam came to Balak to curse Yisrael, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Balaam, Curse not this people for it is blessed.

49 And Balak urged Balaam day by day to curse Yisrael, but Balaam hearkened not to Balak on account of the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל that He had spoken to Balaam.

50 And when Balak saw that Balaam would not accede to his wish, he rose up and went home, and Balaam also returned to his land and he went from there to Midiyan.

51 And the children of Yisrael journeyed from the plain of Moav, and pitched by Yarden from Beth-Yesimoth even to Avel-Shittim, at the end of the plains of Moav.

52 And when the children of Yisrael abode in the plain of Shittim, they began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moav.

53 And the children of Yisrael approached Moav, and the children of Moav pitched their tents opposite the camp of the children of Yisrael.

54 And the children of Moav were afraid of the children of Yisrael, and the children of Moav took all their daughters and their wives of beautiful aspect and comely appearance, and dressed them in gold and silver and costly garments.

55 And the children of Moav seated those women at the door of their tents, in order that the children of Yisrael might see them and turn to them, and not fight against Moav.

56 And all the children of Moav did this thing to the children of Yisrael, and every man placed his wife and daughter at the door of his tent, and all the children of Yisrael saw the act of the children of Moav, and the children of Yisrael turned to the daughters of Moav and coveted them, and they went to them.

57 And it came to pass that when a Ivri came to the door of the tent of Moav, and saw a daughter of Moav and desired her in his heart, and spoke with her at the door of the tent that which he desired, while they were speaking together the men of the tent would come out and speak to the Ivri like to these words:

58 Surely you know that we are brothers, we are all the descendants of Lot and the descendants of Avraham his brother, why then will you not remain with us, and why will you not eat our bread and our sacrifice?

59 And when the children of Moav had this overwhelmed him with their speeches, and enticed him by their flattering words, they seated him in the tent and cooked and sacrificed for him, and he ate of their sacrifice and of their bread.

60 They then gave him wine and he drank and became intoxicated, and they placed before him a beautiful damsel, and he did with her as he liked, for he knew not what he was doing, as he had drunk plenty of wine.

61 This did the children of Moav to Yisrael in that place, in the plain of Shittim, and the anger of אֱלֹהִים was kindled against Yisrael on account of this matter, and he sent a pestilence among them, and there died of the Yisraelites twenty-four thousand men.

62 Now there was a man of the children of Shimeon whose name was Zimri, the son of Salu, who connected himself with the Midyanite Cosbi, the daughter of Zur, melech of Midiyan, in the sight of all the children of Yisrael.

63 And Phineas the son of Elazer, the son of Aharon the priest, saw this wicked thing which Zimri had done, and he took a spear and rose up and went after them, and pierced them both and slew them, and the pestilence ceased from the children of Yisrael.

86 At that time after the pestilence, אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, and to Elazer the son of Aharon the priest, saying,

2 Number the heads of the whole community of the children of Yisrael, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth in the army.

3 And Moshe and Elazer numbered the children of Yisrael after their families, and the number of all Yisrael was seven hundred thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

4 And the number of the children of Levi, from one month old and upward, was twenty-three thousand, and among these there was not a man of those numbered by Moshe and Aharon in the wilderness of Sinai.

5 For אֱלֹהִים had told them that they would die in the wilderness, so they all died, and not one had been left of them except Calev the son of Yephuneh, and Yahoshua the son of Nun.

6 And it was after this that אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Say to the children of Yisrael to avenge upon Midiyan the cause of their brothers the children of Yisrael.

7 And Moshe did so, and the children of Yisrael chose from among them twelve thousand men, being one thousand to a tribe, and they went to Midiyan.

8 And the children of Yisrael warred against Midiyan, and they slew every male, also the five princes of Midiyan, and Balaam the son of Beor did they slay with the sword.

9 And the children of Yisrael took the wives of Midiyan captive, with their little ones and their cattle, and all belonging to them.

10 And they took all the spoil and all the prey, and they brought it to Moshe and to Elazer to the plains of Moav.

11 And Moshe and Elazer and all the princes of the congregation went forth to meet them with joy.

12 And they divided all the spoil of Midiyan, and the children of Yisrael had been revenged upon Midiyan for the cause of their brothers the children of Yisrael.

87 At that time אֱלֹהִים said to Moshe, Behold your days are approaching to an end, take now Yahoshua the son of Nun your servant and place him in the tabernacle, and I will command him; and Moshe did so.

2 And אֱלֹהִים appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood at the entrance of the tabernacle.

3 And אֱלֹהִים commanded Yahoshua the son of Nun and said to him, Be strong and courageous, for you shall bring the children of Yisrael to the land that I swore to give them, and I will be with you.

4 And Moshe said to Yahoshua, Be strong and courageous, for you will make the children of Yisrael inherit the land, and יהוה will be with you, He will not leave you nor forsake you; be not afraid nor disheartened.

5 And Moshe called to all the children of Yisrael and said to them, You have seen all the tov which יהוה your יהוה has done for you in the wilderness.

6 Now therefore observe all the words of this Torah, and have your halacha in the way of יהוה your יהוה, turn not from the way which יהוה has commanded you, either to the right or to the left.

7 And Moshe taught the children of Yisrael chukim and mishpatim and Torot to do in the land as יהוה had commanded him.

8 And he taught them the halacha of יהוה and his Torot, behold, they are written upon the scroll of the Torah of יהוה which He gave to the children of Yisrael by the hand of Moshe.

9 And Moshe finished commanding the children of Yisrael, and יהוה said to him, saying, Go up to the Mount Avarim and die there, and be gathered to your people as Aharon your brother was gathered.

10 And Moshe went up as יהוה had commanded him, and he died there in the land of Moav by the order of יהוה, in the fortieth year from the Yisraelites going forth from the land of Mitzrayim.

11 And the children of Yisrael wept for Moshe in the plains of Moav for thirty days, and the days of weeping and mourning for Moshe were completed.

88 And it was after the death of Moshe that יהוה said to Yahoshua the son of Nun, saying,

2 Rise up, and pass the Yarden to the land which I have given to the children of Yisrael and you shall make the children of Yisrael inherit the land.

3 Every place upon which the sole of your feet shall tread shall belong to you from the wilderness of Levanon to the great river the river of Perath shall be your boundary.

4 No man shall stand up against you all the days of your life; as I was with Moshe, so will I be with you, only be strong and of tov courage to observe all the Torah which Moshe commanded you, turn not from the way either to the right or to the left, in order that you may prosper in all that you do.

5 And Yahoshua commanded the officers of Yisrael, saying, Pass through the camp and command the people, saying, Prepare for yourselves provisions, for in three days more you will pass the Yarden to possess the land.

6 And the officers of the children of Yisrael did so, and they commanded the people and they did all that Yahoshua had commanded.

7 And Yahoshua sent two men to spy out the land of Yericho, and the men went and spied out Yericho.

8 And at the end of seven days they came to Yahoshua in the camp and said to him, אִנֵּנוּ has delivered the whole land into our hand, and the inhabitants of it are melted with fear because of us.

9 And it came to pass after that, that Yahoshua rose up in the morning and all Yisrael with him, and they journeyed from Shittim, and Yahoshua and all Yisrael with him passed the Yarden; and Yahoshua was eighty-two years old when he passed the Yarden with Yisrael.

10 And the people went up from Yarden on the tenth day of the first month, and they encamped in Gilgal at the eastern corner of Yericho.

11 And the children of Yisrael kept the Pesach in Gilgal, in the plains of Yericho, on the fourteenth day at the month, as it is written in the Torah of Moshe.

12 And the manna ceased at that time on the next day after the Pesach, and there was no more manna for the children of Yisrael, and they ate of the produce of the land of Kanaan.

13 And Yericho was entirely closed against the children of Yisrael, no one came out or went in.

14 And it was in the second month, on the first day of the month, that אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, Rise up, behold I have given Yericho into your hand with all the people of it; and all your fighting men shall go around the city, once each day, this shall you do for six days.

15 And the kohanim shall blow upon shofars, and when you shall hear the sound of the shofar, all the people shall give a great shouting that the walls of the city shall fall down; all the people shall go up every man against his opponent.

16 And Yahoshua did so according to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded him.

17 And on the seventh day they went around the city seven times, and the kohanim blew upon the shofars.

18 And at the seventh round, Yahoshua said to the people, Shout, for אֱלֹהִים has delivered the whole city into our hands.

19 Only the city and all that it contains shall be cursed to אֱלֹהִים, and keep yourselves from the cursed thing, lest you make the camp of Yisrael cursed and trouble it.

20 But all the silver and gold and brass and iron shall be consecrated to אֱלֹהִים, they shall come into the treasury of אֱלֹהִים.

21 And the people blew upon shofars and made a great shouting, and the walls of Yericho fell down, and all the people went up, every man straight before him, and they took the city and utterly destroyed all that was in it, both man and woman, young and old, ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

22 And they burned the whole city with fire; only the vessels of silver and gold, and brass and iron, they put into the treasury of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

23 And Yahoshua swore at that time, saying, Cursed be the man who builds Yericho; he shall lay the foundation of it in his bechor, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.

24 And Achan the son of Carmi, the son of Zavdi, the son of Zerah, son of Yahudah, dealt treacherously in the cursed thing, and he took of the cursed thing and hid it in the tent, and the anger of אִיִּזְרָאֵל was kindled against Yisrael.

25 And it was after this when the children of Yisrael had returned from burning Yericho, Yahoshua sent men to spy out also Ai, and to fight against it.

26 And the men went up and spied out Ai, and they returned and said, Let not all the people go up with you to Ai, only let about three thousand men go up and smite the city, for the men of it are but few.

27 And Yahoshua did so, and there went up with him of the children of Yisrael about three thousand men, and they fought against the men of Ai.

28 And the battle was severe against Yisrael, and the men of Ai smote thirty-six men of Yisrael, and the children of Yisrael fled from before the men of Ai.

29 And when Yahoshua saw this thing, he tore his garments and fell upon his face to the ground before אִיִּזְרָאֵל, he, with the zachanim of Yisrael, and they put dust upon their heads.

30 And Yahoshua said, Why O אִיִּזְרָאֵל did you bring this people over the Yarden? What shall I say after the Yisraelites have turned their backs against their enemies?

31 Now therefore all the Kannaim, inhabitants of the land, will hear this thing, and surround us and cut off our name.

32 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, Why do you fall upon your face? Rise, get up, for the Yisraelites have sinned, and taken of the cursed thing; I will no more be with them unless they destroy the cursed thing from among them.

33 And Yahoshua rose up and assembled the people, and brought the Urim by the order of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and the tribe of Yahudah was taken, and Achan the son of Carmi was taken.

34 And Yahoshua said to Achan, Tell me my son, what have you done, and Achan said, I saw among the spoil a goodly garment of Shinar and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight; I coveted them and took them, and behold they are all hidden in the earth in the midst of the tent.

35 And Yahoshua sent men who went and took them from the tent of Achan, and they brought them to Yahoshua.

36 And Yahoshua took Achan and these utensils, and his sons and daughters and all belonging to him, and they brought them into the Valley of Achor.

37 And Yahoshua burned them there with fire, and all the Yisraelites stoned Achan with stones, and they raised over him a heap of stones, therefore did he call that place the Valley of Achor, so אִיִּזְרָאֵל's anger was appeased, and Yahoshua afterward came to the city and fought against it.

38 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, Fear not, neither be you dismayed, behold I have given into your hand Ai, her melech and her people, and you shall do to them as you did to Yericho and her melech, only the spoil of it and the cattle of it shall you take for a prey for yourselves; lay an ambush for the city behind it.

39 So Yahoshua did according to the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and he chose from among the sons of war thirty thousand valiant men, and he sent them, and they lay in ambush for the city.

40 And he commanded them, saying, When you shall see us we will flee before them with cunning, and they will pursue us, you shall then rise out of the ambush and take the city, and they did so.

41 And Yahoshua fought, and the men of the city went out toward Yisrael, not knowing that they were lying in ambush for them behind the city.

42 And Yahoshua and all the Yisraelites feigned themselves wearied out before them, and they fled by the way of the wilderness with cunning.

43 And the men of Ai gathered all the people who were in the city to pursue the Yisraelites, and they went out and were drawn away from the city, not one remained, and they left the city open and pursued the Yisraelites.

44 And those who were lying in ambush rose up out of their places, and hurried to come to the city and took it and set it on fire, and the men of Ai turned back, and behold the smoke of the city ascended to the skies, and they had no means of retreating either one way or the other.

45 And all the men of Ai were in the midst of Yisrael, some on this side and some on that side, and they smote them so that not one of them remained.

46 And the children of Yisrael took Melosh melech of Ai alive, and they brought him to Yahoshua, and Yahoshua hanged him on a tree and he died.

47 And the children of Yisrael returned to the city after having burned it, and they smote all those that were in it with the edge of the sword.

48 And the number of those that had fallen of the men of Ai, both man and woman, was twelve thousand; only the cattle and the spoil of the city they took to themselves, according to the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל to Yahoshua.

49 And all the melechim on this side Yarden, all the melechim of Kanaan, heard of the evil that the children of Yisrael had done to Yericho and to Ai, and they gathered themselves together to fight against Yisrael.

50 Only the inhabitants of Gibeon were greatly afraid of fighting against the Yisraelites lest they should perish, so they acted cunningly, and they came to Yahoshua and to all Yisrael, and said to them, We have come from a distant land, now therefore make a covenant with us.

51 And the inhabitants of Gibeon over-reached the children of Yisrael, and the children of Yisrael made a covenant with them, and they made shalom with them, and the princes of the congregation swore to them, but afterward the children of Yisrael knew that they were neighbors to them and were dwelling among them.

52 But the children of Yisrael slew them not; for they had sworn to them by אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and they became hewers of wood and drawers of mayim.

53 And Yahoshua said to them, Why did you deceive me, to do this thing to us? And they answered him, saying, Because it was told to your servants all that you had done to all the melechim of the Amorites, and we were greatly afraid of our lives, and we did this thing.

54 And Yahoshua appointed them on that day to hew wood and to draw mayim, and he divided them for slaves to all the tribes of Yisrael.

55 And when Adoni-Tzedek melech of Yahrushalayim heard all that the children of Yisrael had done to Yericho and to Ai, he sent to Hoham melech of Hevron and to Piram melech at Yarmuth, and to Yaphiya melech of Lachish and to Dever melech of Eglon, saying, 56 Come up to me and help me, that we may smite the children of Yisrael and the inhabitants of Giveon who have made shalom with the children of Yisrael.

57 And they gathered themselves together and the five melechim of the Amorites went up with all their camps, a mighty people numerous as the sand of the seashore.

58 And all these melechim came and encamped before Giveon, and they began to fight against the inhabitants of Giveon, and all the men of Giveon sent to Yahoshua, saying, Come up quickly to us and help us, for all the melechim of the Amorites have gathered together to fight against us.

59 And Yahoshua and all the fighting people went up from Gilgal, and Yahoshua came suddenly to them, and smote these five melechim with a great slaughter.

60 And אִיִּזְרְאֵל confounded them before the children at Yisrael, who smote them with a terrible slaughter in Giveon, and pursued them along the way that goes up to Beth Horon to Makkedah, and they fled from before the children of Yisrael.

61 And while they were fleeing, אִיִּזְרְאֵל sent upon them hailstones from the shamayim, and more of them died by the hailstones, than by the slaughter of the children of Yisrael.

62 And the children of Yisrael pursued them, and they still smote them in the road, going on and smiting them.

63 And when they were smiting, the day was declining toward evening, and Yahoshua said in the sight of all the people, Sun, stand still upon Giveon, and moon in the Valley of Ayalon, until the nation shall have revenged itself upon its enemies.

64 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל hearkened to the voice of Yahoshua, and the sun stood still in the midst of the shamayim, and it stood still thirty-six moments and the moon also stood still and hurried not to go down a whole day.

65 And there was no day like that, before it or after it that אִיִּזְרָאֵל hearkened to the voice of a man, for אִיִּזְרָאֵל fought for Yisrael.

89 Then spoke Yahoshua this song, on the day that אִיִּזְרָאֵל had given the Amorites into the hand of Yahoshua and the children of Yisrael, and he said in the sight of all Yisrael,

2 You have done mighty things, O אִיִּזְרָאֵל, you have performed great deeds; Me-Camocha? My lips shall sing to Your Name.

3 My goodness and my fortress, my high tower, I will sing a new song to you, with thanksgiving will I sing to you, you are the strength of my salvation.

4 All the melechim of the earth shall praise you, the princes of the world shall sing to you, the children of Yisrael shall rejoice in your salvation, they shall sing and praise your power.

5 To you, O אִיִּזְרָאֵל, did we confide; we said You are our אִיִּזְרָאֵל, for You were our shelter and strong tower against our enemies.

6 To you we cried and were not ashamed, in You we trusted and were delivered; when we cried to You, you did hear our voice, You did deliver our beings from the sword, You did show to us Your rachamim, You did give to us Your salvation, You did rejoice our hearts with Your strength.

7 You did go forth for our salvation, with Your arm You did redeem Your people; You did answer us from the shamayim of your set-apartness, you did save us from ten thousands of people.

8 The sun and moon stood still in the shamayim, and You did stand in Your wrath against our oppressors and did command Your mishpatim over them.

9 All the princes of the earth stood up, the melechim of the nations had gathered themselves together, they were not moved at Your presence, they desired your battles.

10 You did rise against them in Your anger, and did bring down Your wrath upon them; You did destroy them in Your anger, and cut them off in Your heart.

11 Nations have been consumed with Your fury, kingdoms have declined because of Your wrath, You did wound melechim in the day of your anger.

12 You did pour out Your fury upon them, Your wrathful anger took hold of them; You did turn their iniquity upon them, and did cut them off in their wickedness.

13 They did spread a trap, they fell therein, in the net they hid, and their foot was caught.

14 Your hand was ready for all Your enemies who said, Through their sword they possessed the land, through their arm they dwelt in the city; You did fill their faces with shame, You did bring their horns down to the ground, you did terrify them in Your wrath, and did destroy them in Your anger.

15 The earth trembled and shook at the sound of Your storm over them, You did not withhold their beings from death, and did bring down their lives to the grave.

16 You did pursue them in Your storm, You did consume them in Your whirlwind, you did turn their rain into hail, they fell in deep pits so that they could not rise.

17 Their carcasses were like rubbish cast out in the middle of the streets.

18 They were consumed and destroyed in Your anger, You did save Your people with your might.

19 Therefore our hearts rejoice in You, our beings exalt in Your salvation.

20 Our tongues shall relate Your might, we will sing and praise Your wondrous works.

21 For You did save us from our enemies, You did deliver us from those who rose up against us, You did destroy them from before us and depress them beneath our feet.

22 Thus shall all your enemies perish O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and the wicked shall be like chaff driven by the wind, and Your beloved shall be like trees planted by the mayim.

23 So Yahoshua and all Yisrael with him returned to the camp in Gilgal, after having smitten all the melechim, so that not a remnant was left of them.

24 And the five melechim fled alone on foot from battle, and hid themselves in a cave, and Yahoshua sought for them in the field of battle, and did not find them.

25 And it was afterward told to Yahoshua, saying, The melechim are found and behold they are hidden in a cave.

26 And Yahoshua said, Appoint men to be at the mouth of the cave, to guard them, lest they take themselves away; and the children of Yisrael did so.

27 And Yahoshua called to all Yisrael and said to the officers of battle, Place your feet upon the necks of these melechim, and Yahoshua said, So shall אֱלֹהֵינוּ do to all your enemies.

28 And Yahoshua commanded afterward that they should slay the melechim and cast them into the cave, and to put great stones at the mouth of the cave.

29 And Yahoshua went afterward with all the people that were with him on that day to Makkedah, and he smote it with the edge of the sword.

30 And he utterly destroyed the beings and all belonging to the city, and he did to the melech and people of it as he had done to Yericho.

31 And he passed from there to Livnah and he fought against it, and אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל delivered it into his hand, and Yahoshua smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the beings of it, and he did to it and to the melech of it as he had done to Yericho.

32 And from there he passed on to Lachish to fight against it, and Horam melech of Aza went up to assist the men of Lachish, and Yahoshua smote him and his people until there was none left to him.

33 And Yahoshua took Lachish and all the people of it, and he did to it as he had done to Livnah.

34 And Yahoshua passed from there to Eglon, and he took that also, and he smote it and all the people of it with the edge of the sword.

35 And from there he passed to Hevron and fought against it and took it and utterly destroyed it, and he returned from there with all Yisrael to Devir and fought against it and smote it with the edge of the sword.

36 And he destroyed every being in it, he left none remaining, and he did to it and the melech of it as he had done to Yericho.

37 And Yahoshua smote all the melechim of the Amorites from Kadesh-Barnea to Azah, and he took their country at once, for אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל had fought for Yisrael.

38 And Yahoshua with all Yisrael came to the camp to Gilgal.

39 When at that time Yavin melech of Chazor heard all that Yahoshua had done to the melechim of the Amorites, Yavin sent to Yovat melech of Midiyan, and to Lavan melech of Shimron, to Yephah melech of Achshaph, and to all the melechim of the Amorites, saying, 40 Come quickly to us and help us, that we may smite the children of Yisrael, before they come upon us and do to us as they have done to the other melechim of the Amorites.

41 And all these melechim hearkened to the words of Yavin, melech of Chazor, and they went forth with all their camps, seventeen melechim, and their people were as numerous as the sand on the seashore, together with horses and mirkavot innumerable, and they came and pitched together at the mayim of Merom, and they were met together to fight against Yisrael.

42 And אִיִּזְרְיֵאל said to Yahoshua, Fear them not, for tomorrow about this time I will deliver them up all slain before you, you shall plough their horses and burn their mirkavot with fire.

43 And Yahoshua with all the men of war came suddenly upon them and smote them, and they fell into their hands, for אִיִּזְרְיֵאל had delivered them into the hands of the children of Yisrael.

44 So the children of Yisrael pursued all these melechim with their camps, and smote them until there was none left of them, and Yahoshua did to them as אִיִּזְרְיֵאל had spoken to him.

45 And Yahoshua returned at that time to Chazor and smote it with the sword and destroyed every being in it and burned it with fire, and from Chazor, Yahoshua passed to Shimron and smote it and utterly destroyed it.

46 From there he passed to Achshaph and he did to it as he had done to Shimron.

47 From there he passed to Adulam and he smote all the people in it, and he did to Adulam as he had done to Achshaph and to Shimron.

48 And he passed from them to all the cities of the melechim that he had smitten, and he smote all the people that were left of them and he utterly destroyed them.

49 Only their booty and cattle the Yisraelites took to themselves as a prey, but every human being they smote, they suffered not a being to live.

50 As אֲרָאֵל had commanded Moshe so did Yahoshua and all Yisrael, they failed not in anything.

51 So Yahoshua and all the children of Yisrael smote the whole land of Kanaan as אֲרָאֵל had commanded them, and smote all their melechim, being thirty-one melechim, and the children of Yisrael took their whole country.

52 Besides the kingdoms of Sihon and Og which are on the other side Yarden, of which Moshe had smitten many cities, and Moshe gave them to the Reuvenites and the Gadites and to half the tribe of Menasheh.

53 And Yahoshua smote all the melechim that were on this side Yarden to the west, and gave them for an inheritance to the nine tribes and to the half tribe of Yisrael.

54 For five years did Yahoshua carry on the war with these melechim, and he gave their cities to the Yisraelites, and the land became tranquil from battle throughout the cities of the Amorites and the Kannaim.

90 At that time in the fifth year after the children of Yisrael had passed over Yarden, after the children of Yisrael had rested from their war with the Kannaim, at that time great and severe battles arose between Edom and the children of Chittim, and the children of Chittim fought against Edom.

2 And Avianus melech of Chittim went forth in that year, that is in the thirty-first year of his reign, and a great force with him of the mighty men of the children of Chittim, and he went to Seir to fight against the children of Esav.

3 And Hadad the melech of Edom heard of his report, and he went forth to meet him with a heavy people and strong force, and engaged in battle with him in the field of Edom.

4 And the hand of Chittim prevailed over the children of Esav, and the children of Chittim slew of the children of Esav, twenty-two thousand men, and all the children of Esav fled from before them.

5 And the children of Chittim pursued them and they reached Hadad melech of Edom, who was running before them and they caught him alive, and brought him to Avianus melech of Chittim.

6 And Avianus ordered him to be slain, and Hadad melech of Edom died in the forty-eighth year of his reign.

7 And the children of Chittim continued their pursuit of Edom, and they smote them with a great slaughter and Edom became subject to the children of Chittim.

8 And the children of Chittim ruled over Edom, and Edom became under the hand of the children of Chittim and became one malchut from that day.

9 And from that time they could no more lift up their heads, and their malchut became one with the children of Chittim.

10 And Avianus placed officers in Edom and all the children of Edom became subject and tributary to Avianus, and Avianus turned back to his own land, Chittim.

11 And when he returned he renewed his government and built for himself a spacious and fortified palace for a royal residence, and reigned securely over the children of Chittim and over Edom.

12 In those days, after the children of Yisrael had driven away all the Kannaim and the Amorites, Yahoshua was old and advanced in years.

13 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, You are old, advanced in life, and a great part of the land remains to be possessed.

14 Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and to the half tribe of Menasheh, and Yahoshua rose up and did as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had spoken to him.

15 And he divided the whole land to the tribes of Yisrael as an inheritance according to their divisions.

16 But to the tribe at Levi he gave no inheritance; the offerings of אִיִּזְרָאֵל are their inheritance as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had spoken of them by the hand of Moshe.

17 And Yahoshua gave Mount Hebron to Calev the son of Yephuneh, one portion above his brothers, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had spoken through Moshe.

18 Therefore Hebron became an inheritance to Calev and his children to this day.

19 And Yahoshua divided the whole land by lots to all Yisrael for an inheritance, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had commanded him.

20 And the children of Yisrael gave cities to the Levites from their own inheritance, and suburbs for their cattle, and property, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had commanded Moshe so did the children of Yisrael, and they divided the land by lot whether great or small.

21 And they went to inherit the land according to their boundaries, and the children of Yisrael gave to Yahoshua the son of Nun an inheritance among them.

22 By the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל did they give to him the city that he required, Timnath-Serach in Mount Ephraim, and he built the city and dwelt therein.

23 These are the inheritances that Elazer the priest and Yahoshua the son of Nun and the heads of the ahvot of the tribes portioned out to the children of Yisrael by lot in Shiloh, before אֱלֹהִים, at the door of the tabernacle, and they left off dividing the land.

24 And אֱלֹהִים gave the land to the Yisraelites, and they possessed it as אֱלֹהִים had spoken to them, and as אֱלֹהִים had sworn to their ancestors.

25 And אֱלֹהִים gave to the Yisraelites rest from all their enemies around them, and no man stood up against them, and אֱלֹהִים delivered all their enemies into their hands, and not one thing failed of all the tov which אֱלֹהִים had spoken to the children of Yisrael; yes אֱלֹהִים performed every thing.

26 And Yahoshua called to all the children of Yisrael and he blessed them, and commanded them to serve אֱלֹהִים, and he afterward sent them away, and they went each man to his city, and each man to his inheritance.

27 And the children of Yisrael served אֱלֹהִים all the days of Yahoshua, and אֱלֹהִים gave them rest from all around them, and they dwelt securely in their cities.

28 And it came to pass in those days that Avianus melech of Chittim died, in the thirty-eighth year of his reign, that is the seventh year of his reign over Edom, and they buried him in his place that he had built for himself, and Latinus reigned in his stead fifty years.

29 And during his reign he brought forth an army, and he went and fought against the inhabitants of Britannia and Kernania, the children of Elisha son of Yahvan, and he prevailed over them and made them tributary.

30 He then heard that Edom had revolted from under the hand of Chittim, and Latinus went to them and smote them and subdued them, and placed them under the hand of the children of Chittim, and Edom became one malchut with the children of Chittim all the days.

31 And for many years there was no melech in Edom, and their government was with the children of Chittim and their melech.

32 And it was in the twenty-sixth year after the children of Yisrael had passed the Yarden, that is the sixty-sixth year after the children of Yisrael had departed from Mitzrayim, that Yahoshua was old, advanced in years, being one hundred and eight years old in those days.

33 And Yahoshua called to all Yisrael, to their zachanim, their shophtim and officers, after אֱלֹהִים had given to all the Yisraelites rest from all their enemies round about, and Yahoshua said to the zachanim of Yisrael, and to their shophtim, Behold I am old, advanced in years, and you have seen what אֱלֹהִים has done to all the nations whom He has driven away from before you, for it is אֱלֹהִים who has fought for you.

34 Now therefore strengthen yourselves to keep and to do all the words of the Torah of Moshe, not to deviate from it to the right or to the left, and not to come among those nations who are left in the land; neither shall you make mention of the name of their ahlohim, but you shall cleave to אֱלֹהִים Your Ahlohim, as you have done to this day.

35 And Yahoshua greatly exhorted the children of Yisrael to serve אֱלֹהִים all their days.

36 And all the Yisraelites said, We will serve אֱלֹהִים our אֱלֹהִים all our days, we and our children, and our children's children, and our zera le-olam-va-ed.

37 And Yahoshua made a covenant with the people on that day, and he sent away the children of Yisrael, and they went each man to his inheritance and to his city.

38 And it was in those days, when the children of Yisrael were dwelling securely in their cities, that they buried the coffins of the tribes of their ancestors, which they had brought up from Mitzrayim, each man in the inheritance of his children, the twelve sons of Yaakov did the children of Yisrael bury, each man in the possession of his children.

39 And these are the names of the cities wherein they buried the twelve sons of Yaakov, whom the children of Yisrael had brought up from Mitzrayim.

40 And they buried Reuven and Gad on this side Yarden, in Romia, which Moshe had given to their children.

41 And Shimeon and Levi they buried in the city Mauda, which he had given to the children of Shimeon, and the suburb of the city was for the children of Levi.

42 And Yahudah they buried in the city of Binyamin opposite Beth Lechem.

43 And the bones of Yissacher and Zevulun they buried in Tzidon, in the portion that fell to their children.

44 And Dan was buried in the city of his children in Eshtael, and Naphtali and Asher they buried in Kadesh-Naphtali, each man in his place that he had given to his children.

45 And the bones of Yoseph they buried in Shechem, in the part of the field which Yaakov had purchased from Chamor, and which became to Yoseph for an inheritance.

46 And they buried Binyamin in Yahrushalayim opposite the Yevusite, which was given to the children of Binyamin; the children of Yisrael buried their ahvot each man in the city of his children.

47 And at the end of two years, Yahoshua the son of Nun died, one hundred and ten years old, and the time that Yahoshua judged Yisrael was twenty-eight years, and Yisrael served אִיִּזְרָאֵל all the days of his life.

48 And the other affairs of Yahoshua and his battles and his reproofs with which he reproved Yisrael, and all which he had commanded them, and the names of the cities which the children of Yisrael possessed in his days, behold they are written in the Scroll of the words of Yahoshua to the children of Yisrael, and in the Scroll of the Wars of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, which Moshe and Yahoshua and the children of Yisrael had written.

49 And the children of Yisrael buried Yahoshua in the border of his inheritance, in Timnath-Serach, which was given to him in Mount Ephraim.

50 And Elazer the son of Aharon died in those days, and they buried him in a hill belonging to Phineas his son, which was given him in Mount Ephraim.

91 At that time, after the death of Yahoshua, the children of the Kannaim were still in the land, and the Yisraelites resolved to drive them out.

2 And the children of Yisrael asked of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, saying, Who shall first go up for us to the Kannaim to fight against them? And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said, Yahudah shall go up.

3 And the children of Yahudah said to Shimeon, Go up with us into our lot, and we will fight against the Kannaim and we likewise will go up with you, in your lot, so the children of Shimeon went with the children of Yahudah.

4 And the children of Yahudah went up and fought against the Kannaim, so אִיִּזְרָאֵל delivered the Kannaim into the hands of the children of Yahudah, and they smote them in Bezek, ten thousand men.

5 And they fought with Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and he fled from before them, and they pursued him and caught him, and they took hold of him and cut off his thumbs and great toes.

6 And Adoni-Bezek said, Seventy melechim having their thumbs and great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table, as I have done, so אֲרָאָה has requited me, and they brought him to Yahrushalayim and he died there.

7 And the children of Shimeon went with the children of Yahudah, and they smote the Kannaim with the edge of the sword.

8 And אֲרָאָה was with the children of Yahudah, and they possessed the mountain, and the children of Yoseph went up to Bethel, the same is Luz, and אֲרָאָה was with them.

9 And the children of Yoseph spied out Bethel, and the watchmen saw a man going forth from the city, and they caught him and said to him, Show us now the entrance of the city and we will show chesed to you.

10 And that man showed them the entrance of the city, and the children of Yoseph came and smote the City with the edge of the sword.

11 And the man with his family they sent away, and he went to the Hittites and he built a city, and he called the name of it Luz, so all the Yisraelites dwelt in their cities, and the children of Yisrael dwelt in their cities, and the children of Yisrael served אֲרָאָה all the days of Yahoshua, and all the days of the zachanim, who had lengthened their days after Yahoshua, and saw the great work of אֲרָאָה, which He had performed for Yisrael.

12 And the zachanim judged Yisrael after the death of Yahoshua for seventeen years.

13 And all the zachanim also fought the battles of Yisrael against the Kannaim and אֲרָאָה drove the Kannaim from before the children of Yisrael, in order to place the Yisraelites in their land.

14 And he accomplished all the words that he had spoken to Avraham, Yitzchak, and Yaakov, and the oath that he had sworn, to give to them and to their children, the land of the Kannaim.

15 And אֱלֹהִים gave to the children of Yisrael the whole land of Kanaan, as He had sworn to their ancestors, and אֱלֹהִים gave them rest from those around them, and the children of Yisrael dwelt securely in their cities.

16 Barchu-et אֱלֹהִים le-olam-va-ed, amein, v-amein.

17 Strengthen yourselves, and let the hearts of all you that trust in אֱלֹהִים be of tov courage. X

Judges-Shophtim

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 Now after the death of Yahoshua it came to pass, that the children of Yisrael asked אִי־אֵנִי, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Kanaanites first, to fight against them?
- 2 And אִי־אֵנִי said, Yahudah shall go up: see, I have delivered the land into his hand.
- 3 And Yahudah said to Shimon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Kanaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot. So Shimon went with him.
- 4 And Yahudah went up; and אִי־אֵנִי delivered the Kanaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they killed in Bezek ten thousand men.
- 5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him and they killed the Kanaanites and the Perizzites.
- 6 But Adoni-Bezek fled; and they pursued after him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.
- 7 And Adoni-Bezek said, Seventy melechim, having their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their food under my shulchan: as I have done, so Ahlohim has repaid me. And they brought him to Yahrushalayim and there he died.
- 8 Now the children of Yahudah had fought against Yahrushalayim and had taken it and smote it with the edge of the sword and set the city on fire.
- 9 And afterward the children of Yahudah went down to fight against the Kanaanites, who dwelt in the har and in the south and in the valley.

10 And Yahudah went against the Kanaanites that dwelt in Chebron now the name of Chebron before was Kiryath-Arba and they killed Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai.

11 And from there he went against the inhabitants of Devir: and the name of Devir before was Kiryath-Sepher:

12 And Kalev said, He that smites Kiryath-Sepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as an isha.

13 And Othni-El the son of Kenaz, Kalev's younger brother, took it: and he gave him Achsah his daughter as an isha.

14 And it came to pass, when she came to him, that she moved him to ask of her abba a field: and she dismounted from off her donkey; and Kalev said to her, What do you want?

15 And she said to him, Give me a bracha: for you have given me a south land; give me also the springs of mayim. And Kalev gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16 And the children of the Kenite, Moshe's abba-in-law, went up out of the city of palm eytzim with the children of Yahudah into the wilderness of Yahudah, which lies south of Arad; and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Yahudah went with Shimon his brother and they killed the Kanaanites that inhabited Zephath and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called Hormah.

18 Also Yahudah took Azah with its border and Ashkelon with its border and Ekron with its border.

19 And אִרְכָשׁ was with Yahudah; and He drove out the inhabitants of the har; but the inhabitants of the valley could not be driven out because they had mirkavot of iron.

20 And they gave Chebron to Kalev, as Moshe said: and he expelled from there the three sons of Anak.

21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Yevusites that inhabited Yahrushalayim; but the Yevusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Yahrushalayim to this yom.

22 And Beit Yoseph also went up against Beth-El: and אֶלְלָאֵל was with them.

23 And Beit Yoseph sent some to spy in Beth-El now the name of the city before was formerly Luz.

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city and they said to him, Show us, we ask you, the entrance into the city and we will show you rachamim.

25 And when he showed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let the man go along with all his mishpacha.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites and built a city and called the name of it Luz: which is the name of it to this yom.

27 Neither did Menasheh drive out the inhabitants of Beth-Shean and its villages, nor Taanach and its villages, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, nor the inhabitants of Ivleam and its villages, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages: but the Kanaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Yisrael was strong, that they put the Kanaanites to slave labor and did not utterly drive them out.

29 Neither did Efrayim drive out the Kanaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Kanaanites dwelt in Gezer among them.

30 Neither did Zevulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nachalol; but the Kanaanites dwelt among them and became slave laborers.

31 Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Tzidon, nor of Achlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helvah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehov:

32 But the Asherites dwelt among the Kanaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-Anath; but they dwelt among the Kanaanites, the inhabitants of the land: Nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh and of Beth-Anath became slave laborers to them.

34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the har: for they would not allow them to come down to the valley:

35 But the Amorites desired to dwell in Har Heres in Aiyalon and in Shaalvim: yet the hand of Beit Yoseph prevailed, so that they became slave laborers.

36 And the border of the Amorites was from the going up to Akravim, from Sela and upward.

2 And The Malach-^{מלאך} came up from Gilgal to Bochim and said, I made you to go up out of Mitzrayim and have brought you to the land that I swore to your ahvot; and I said, I will never break My brit with you.

2 And you shall make no brit with the inhabitants of this land; you shall throw down their altars: but you have not obeyed My voice: why have you done this?

3 Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be as thorns in your sides and their ahlohim shall be a trap to you.

4 And it came to pass, when The Malach-אלהים spoke these words to all the children of Yisrael, that the people lifted up their voice and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to אלהים.

6 And when Yahoshua had let the people go, the children of Yisrael went every man to his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served אלהים all the yamim of Yahoshua and all the yamim of the zechanim that outlived Yahoshua, who had seen all the great nisim of אלהים, that He did for Yisrael.

8 And Yahoshua the son of Nun, the eved of אלהים, died, being one hundred ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-Cheres, in the Har of Efrayim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation was gathered to their ahvot: and there arose another generation after them, who knew not אלהים, nor the nisim that He had done for Yisrael.

11 And the children of Yisrael did evil in the sight of אלהים and served many of the Ba'alim:

12 And they forsook אלהים Ahlohim of their ahvot, who brought them out of the land of Mitzrayim and followed other ahlohim, even the ahlohim of the peoples that were all around them and bowed themselves to them and provoked אלהים to anger.

13 And they forsook אלהים and served Ba'al and Ashtaroth.

14 And the anger of אלהים was hot against Yisrael and He delivered them into the hands of spoilers that plundered them and He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Wherever they went out, the Hand of אלהים was against them for evil, as אלהים had said and as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had sworn to them: and they were greatly distressed.

16 Nevertheless אִיִּזְרָאֵל raised up shophtim, who delivered them out of the hand of those that plundered them.

17 And yet they would not listen to their shophtim, but they went whoring after other ahlohim and bowed themselves to them: they turned quickly out of the halacha which their ahvot walked in, who obeyed the mitzvot of אִיִּזְרָאֵל; but they did not do so.

18 And when אִיִּזְרָאֵל raised up their shophtim, then אִיִּזְרָאֵל was with the shophet and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the yamim of the shophet's chayim: for אִיִּזְרָאֵל had rachamim because of their groanings because of those that oppressed them and crushed them.

19 And it came to pass, when the shophet was dead, that they returned and corrupted themselves more than their ahvot, in following other ahlohim to serve them and to bow down to them; they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn halachot.

20 And the anger of אִיִּזְרָאֵל was hot against Yisrael; and He said, Because this people has transgressed My brit which I commanded their ahvot and have not listened to My voice;

21 I will also no longer drive out from before them any of the goyim that Yahoshua left when he died:

22 That through them I may test Yisrael, whether they will keep the halacha of אִיִּזְרָאֵל to have their halacha in it, as their ahvot did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore אִיִּזְרָאֵל left those goyim, without driving them out quickly; neither did He deliver them into the hand of Yahoshua.

3 Now these are the goyim that אֲרָאֵל left, to test Yisrael, even many in Yisrael who had not known all the wars of Kanaan;

2 Only so that the generations of the children of Yisrael might know, to teach them war, only those who before knew nothing about war;

3 Namely, five masters of the Plishtim and all the Kanaanites and the Tsidonians and the Hivites that dwelt in Har Levanon, from Har Ba'al-Hermon to the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were to test Yisrael by them, to know whether they would listen to the mitzvot of אֲרָאֵל, which He commanded their ahvot through Moshe.

5 And the children of Yisrael dwelt among the Kanaanites, Hittites and Amorites and Perizzites and Hivites and Yevusites:

6 And they took their daughters to be their wives and gave their daughters to their sons and served their ahlohim.

7 And the children of Yisrael did evil in the sight of אֲרָאֵל and forgot אֲרָאֵל their Ahlohim and served the Ba'alim and the Asherim.

8 Therefore the anger of אֲרָאֵל was hot against Yisrael and He sold them into the hand of Chushan-Rishathayim melech of Aram-Naharayim: and the children of Yisrael served Chushan-Rishathayim eight years.

9 And when the children of Yisrael cried to אֲרָאֵל, then אֲרָאֵל raised up a deliverer for the children of Yisrael, who delivered them, even Othni-El the son of Kenaz, Kalev's younger brother.

10 And The Ruach of אֲרָאֵל came upon Othni-El and He gave mishpat to Yisrael and went out to war: and אֲרָאֵל delivered Chushan-Rishathayim melech of Aram-Naharayim into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-Rishathayim.

11 And the land had rest for forty years. And Othni-El the son of Kenaz died.

12 And the children of Yisrael did evil again in the sight of אֱלֹהִים: and אֱלֹהִים strengthened Eglon the melech of Moav against Yisrael because they had done evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים.

13 And Eglon gathered to him the children of Ammon and Amalek and went and smote Yisrael and possessed the city of palm eytzim.

14 So the children of Yisrael served Eglon the melech of Moav eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Yisrael cried to אֱלֹהִים, then אֱלֹהִים raised them up a deliverer, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benyamite, a man impeded in his right hand: and by him the children of Yisrael sent a present to Eglon the melech of Moav.

16 But Ehud made him a dagger that had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his robe upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present to Eglon melech of Moav: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end of offering the present, he sent away the people that brought the present.

19 But he himself turned back from the stone quarries that were by Gilgal and said, I have a secret message to you, O melech: who then said, Keep silent. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came to him; and he was sitting in a cool room, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have a message from Ahlohim to you. And he arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand and took the dagger from his right thigh and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the handle also went in after the blade; and the gooff fat closed over the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and it came out behind him.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch and shut the doors of the cool room upon him and locked them.

24 When he had gone out, his avadim came; and when they saw that, see, the doors of the cool room were locked, they said, Surely he covers his feet in his summer bedroom.

25 And they tarried until they were ashamed: and, see, he did not open the doors of the cool room; therefore they took a key and opened them: and, see, their master was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they tarried and passed beyond the stone quarries and escaped to Seriah.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that he blew a shofar in the har of Efrayim and the children of Yisrael went down with him from the har and he went before them.

28 And he said to them, Follow after me: for אִיִּזְרָאֵל has delivered your enemies the Moavites into your hand. And they went down after him and took the fords of the Yarden River toward Moav and allowed not any man to pass over.

29 And they killed from Moav at that time about ten thousand men, all were robust and all men of valor; and there escaped not a single man.

30 So Moav was subdued that yom under the hand of Yisrael. And the land had rest eighty years.

31 And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath, who killed of the Plishtim six hundred men with an ox goad: and he also delivered Yisrael.

4 And the children of Yisrael again did evil in the sight of אֲרָאֵל, when Ehud was dead.

2 And אֲרָאֵל sold them into the hand of Yavin melech of Kanaan, that reigned in Hatzor; the captain of the army was Sisra, who dwelt in Harosheth Ha-Goyim.

3 And the children of Yisrael cried to אֲרָאֵל: for Sisra had nine hundred mirkavot of iron and for twenty years he harshly oppressed the children of Yisrael.

4 And Devorah, a neviyah, the isha of Lapidoth, gave mishpat to Yisrael at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the palm eytz of Devorah between Ramah and Beth-El in Har Efrayim: and the children of Yisrael came up to her for mishpat.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Avinoam out of Kedesh-Naphtali and said to him, Has not אֲרָאֵל Ahlohim of Yisrael commanded us saying, Go and draw near towards Har Tavor and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zevulun?

7 And I will draw to you Sisra, the captain of Yavin's army, with his mirkavot and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand.

8 And Barak said to her, If you will go with me, then I will go: but if you will not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with you: nevertheless the journey that you take shall not be for your kavod; for אֲרָאֵל shall sell Sisra into the hand of a woman. And Devorah arose and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 And Barak called Zevulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Devorah went up with him.

11 Now Chever the Kenite, who was of the children of Chovav the abba-in-law of Moshe, had separated himself from the Kenites and camped his tent to the plain of Zaanayim, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they showed Sisra that Barak the son of Avinoam had gone up to Har Tavor.

13 And Sisra gathered together all his mirkavot, even nine hundred mirkavot of iron and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth Ha-Goyim to the river of Kishon.

14 And Devorah said to Barak, Go up; for this is the yom in which אֲרַבְּנָה has delivered Sisra into your hand: has not אֲרַבְּנָה gone out before you? So Barak went down from Har Tavor and ten thousand men after him.

15 And אֲרַבְּנָה destroyed Sisra and all his mirkavot and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisra went down off his mirkavah and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the mirkavot and after the army, to Charosheth Ha-Goyim: and all the army of Sisra fell by the edge of the sword; and there was not a man left.

17 However Sisra fled away on his feet to the tent of Yah-El the isha of Chever the Kenite: for there was shalom between Yavin the melech of Chazor and the bayit of Chever the Kenite.

18 And Yah-El went out to meet Sisra and said to him, Turn in, my master, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in to her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said to her, Give me, I beg you, a little mayim to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk and gave him to drink and covered him.

20 Again he said to her, Stand in the door of the tent and it shall be, when any man does come and asks you, Is there any man here? You shall say, No.

21 Then Yah-El Cheber's isha took a nail of the tent and took a hammer in her hand and went quietly to him and smote the nail into his temples and nailed it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died.

22 And, see, as Barak pursued Sisra, Yah-El came out to meet him and said to him, Come and I will show you the man whom you seek. And when he came into her tent, see, Sisra lay dead and the nail was in his temple.

23 So Ahlohim subdued on that yom Yavin the melech of Kanaan before the children of Yisrael.

24 And the hand of the children of Yisrael prospered and prevailed against Yavin the melech of Kanaan, until they had destroyed Yavin melech of Kanaan.

5 Then sang Devorah and Barak the son of Avinoam on that yom, saying,

2 Hallelu-et-אלהים for the avenging of Yisrael, when the people willingly offered themselves.

3 Shema, O you melechim; give ear, O you princes; I, will shir to אלהים; I will shir tehilot to אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

4 אלהים, when You went out of Seir, when You marched out of the field of Edom, the earth trembled and the shamayim dropped, the clouds also dropped mayim.

5 The mountains melted from before אלהים, even Senai from before אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael.

6 In the yamim of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the yamim of YAH-El, the highways were unoccupied and the travelers walked through byways.

7 They began to live behind walled towns until it ceased, it ceased in Yisrael, until I Devorah an eema in Yisrael, arose.

8 They chose new Ahlohim; then there was war in the gates. Was there a shield, or spear seen among forty thousand in Yisrael?

9 My lev is for the leaders over the chukim of Yisrael, who offered themselves willingly among the people. Barchu-et-אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

10 Speak up, you that ride on white donkeys, you that sit in mishpat and walk along the derech.

11 They that are delivered from the noise of archers in the places of drawing mayim, there shall they rehearse the tzadik acts of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, even the tzadik acts toward the inhabitants of His villages in Yisrael: then shall the people of אִיִּזְרָאֵל go down to the gates.

12 Awake, awake, Devorah: awake, awake and utter a shir: arise, Barak and lead your captivity captive, you son of Avinoam.

13 Then He made him that remains to have dominion over the nobles among the people: אִיִּזְרָאֵל made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Efrayim was there a root of them against Amalek; after you, Benjamin, among your people; out of Machir came leaders over the chukim and out of Zevulun they that handle the quill of the Sopher.

15 And the princes of Yissachar were with Devorah; even Yissachar and also Barak: he was sent on foot into the valley. For the divisions of Reuven there was great resolve of lev.

16 Why did you remain among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleating of the flocks? For the divisions of Reuven there was great searchings of lev.

17 Gilad stayed beyond the Yarden River: and why did Dan remain in ships? Asher continued on the seashore and stayed in his ports.

18 Zevulun and Naphtali were a people that jeopardized their lives to the death in the high places of the field.

19 The melechim came and fought; then fought the melechim of Kanaan in Taanach by the mayim of Megiddo; they took no spoils of silver.

20 They fought from the shamayim; the cochavim in their courses fought against Sisra.

21 The River Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the River Kishon. O my being, you have trampled in strength.

22 Then were the horse hoofs of the enemy broken by the means of the prancing, of their mighty ones.

23 Curse Meroz, said the Heavenly Malach of אִי־אִז, curse bitterly the inhabitants of it; because they came not to the help of אִי־אִז, to the help of אִי־אִז against the mighty.

24 Blessed above women shall YAH-EI the isha of Chever the Kenite be, blessed shall she be above women in the tents.

25 He asked mayim and she gave him milk; she brought forth butter in a noble dish.

26 She put her hand to the nail and her right hand to the workmen's hammer; and with the hammer she smote Sisra, she smashed his head, when she had pierced and struck through his temples.

27 Between her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: between her feet he bowed, he fell: where he bowed, there he fell down dead.

28 The eema of Sisra looked out a window and cried through the lattice, Why is his mirkavah so long in coming home? Why are the wheels of his mirkavot delayed?

29 Her wise ladies answered her; yes, she indeed answered herself,

30 Are they not finding, are they not dividing the spoil? To every man a woman, or two; to Sisra a spoil of dyed garments, a spoil of dyed garments of needlework, of dyed garments of needlework on both sides, made for the necks of those that took the spoil?

31 So let all Your enemies perish, O אֱלֹהִים: but let them that love Him be as the shemesh when it goes forth in its might. And the land had rest forty years.

6 And the children of Yisrael did evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים: and אֱלֹהִים delivered them into the hand of Midyan seven years.

2 And the hand of Midyan prevailed against Yisrael: and because of the Midyanites the children of Yisrael made dens that are in the mountains and caves and strongholds.

3 And so it was, when Yisrael had sown zera, that the Midyanites came up and the Amalekites and the children of the east, they all came up against them.

4 And they encamped against them and destroyed the increase of the earth, all the derech to Azah and left no food for Yisrael, neither sheep, nor ox, nor donkey.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Yisrael was greatly impoverished because of the Midyanites; and the children of Yisrael cried to אֱלֹהִים.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Yisrael cried to אֱלֹהִים because of the Midyanites,

8 That אֱלֹהִים sent a navi to the children of Yisrael, who said to them, This says אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, I brought you up from Mitzrayim and brought you forth out of the bayit of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Mitzrim and out of the hand of all that oppressed you and drove them out from before you and gave you their land;

10 And I said to you, I AM אלהים your Ahlohim; fear not the ahlohim of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but you have not obeyed My voice.

11 And there came The Malach-אלהים, who sat under an oak that was in Ophrah that belonged to Yoash the Avi-Ezrite: and his son Gidyon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midyanites.

12 And The Malach-אלהים appeared to him and said to him, אלהים is with you, you mighty man of valor.

13 And Gidyon said to Him, Oh my Master, if אלהים is with us, why then is all this happened to us? And where are all His nisim which our ahvot told us about, saying, Did not אלהים bring us up from Mitzrayim? But now אלהים has forsaken us and delivered us into the hands of the Midyanites.

14 And אלהים looked upon him, and said, Go in this your might and you shall save Yisrael from the hand of the Midyanites: have not I sent you?

15 And he said to Him, Oh my Master, with what shall I save Yisrael? See, my mishpacha is poor in Menasheh and I am the least in my abba's bayit.

16 And אלהים said to him, Surely I will be with you and you shall smite the Midyanites as one man.

17 And he said to Him, If now I have found chen in Your sight, then show me an ot that it is You who is talking with me.

18 Depart not from here, I ask You, until I come to You, to bring forth my present and set it before You. And He said, I will stay until you come again.

19 And Gidyon went in and made ready a young goat and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the meat he put in a basket and he put the broth in a pot and brought it out to him under the oak and presented it.

20 And The Malach-אלהים said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes and lay them upon this rock and pour out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then The Malach-אלהים put forth the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes. Then The Malach-אלהים departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gidyon perceived that He was The Malach-אלהים, Gidyon said, Oy, Oy אלהים - Ahlohim ! I have seen The Malach-אלהים panayim-el-panayim.

23 And אלהים said to him, Shalom be to you; fear not: you shall not die.

24 Then Gidyon built an altar there to אלהים and called it אלהים -Shalom: to this yom it is yet in Ophrah of the Avi-Ezrites.

25 And it came to pass the same lyla, that אלהים said to him, Take your abba's young bull, even the second bull of seven years old and throw down the altar of Ba'al that your abba has and cut down the Asherah that is by it:

26 And build an altar to אלהים your Ahlohim on the top of this rock, in the ordered place and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the Asherah that you shall cut down.

27 Then Gidyon took ten men of his avadim, and did as אלהים had said to him: and so it was because he feared his abba's household and the men of the city, that he could not do it by yom, so he did it by lyla.

28 And when the men of the city arose early in the boker and see, the altar of Ba'al was cast down and the Asherah was cut down that was by it and the second bull was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who has done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gidyon the son of Yoash has done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said to Yoash, Bring out your son, that he may die: because he has cast down the altar of Ba'al, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was by it.

31 And Yoash said to all that stood against him, Will you plead for Ba'al? Will you save him? He that will plead for him, let him be put to death while it is yet boker: if he be a real ahlohim, let him plead for himself because someone has cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that yom Yoash called Gidyon; Yahruba'al, saying, Let Ba'al plead against him because his altar is thrown down.

33 Then all the Midyanites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together and went over and camped in the Valley of Yezreel.

34 But The Ruach of אִי־אֵז came upon Gidyon and he blew a shofar; and Avi-Ezer was gathered to him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Menasheh; who also were gathered to him: and he sent messengers to Asher and to Zevulun and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

36 And Gidyon said to Ahlohim, If You will save Yisrael by my hand, as You have said, 37 See, I will put a fleece of wool on the floor; and if the dew is on the fleece only and it is dry upon all the earth next to it, then shall I know that You will save Yisrael by my hand, as You have said.

38 And it was so: for he rose up early in the boker and squeezed the fleece together and wrung the dew out of the fleece, filling a bowl full of mayim.

39 And Gidyon said to Ahlohim, Let not Your anger be hot against me and I will speak only once more: let me test once more with the fleece; let it now be dry only upon the fleece and upon all the ground next to it let there be dew.

40 And Ahlohim did so that lyla: for it was dry upon the fleece only and there was dew on all the ground.

7 Then Yahruba'al, who is Gidyon and all the people that were with him, rose up early and camped beside the well of Harod: so that the army of the Midyanites were on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And אִיִּזְרְאֵל said to Gidyon, The people that are with you are too many for Me to give the Midyanites into their hands, lest Yisrael boast themselves against Me, saying, my own hand has saved me.

3 Now therefore go proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Anyone who is fearful and afraid, let him return and depart early from Har Gilad. And there returned from the people twenty two thousand; and there remained ten thousand.

4 And אִיִּזְרְאֵל said to Gidyon, The people are yet too many; bring them down to the mayim and I will test them for you there: and it shall be, that of whom I say to you, This one shall go with you, the same shall go with you; and of whoever I say to you, This one shall not go with you, the same one shall not go.

5 So he brought down the people to the mayim: and אִיִּזְרְאֵל said to Gidyon, Everyone that laps of the mayim with his tongue, as a dog laps, him shall you set by himself; likewise every one that bows down upon his knees to drink.

6 And the number of those that lapped; putting their hands to their mouth were three hundred men: but all the rest of the people bowed down upon their knees to drink mayim.

7 And אִיִּזְרְאֵל said to Gidyon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you and deliver the Midyanites into your hand: and let all the other people go every man to his place.

8 So the people took food in their hands and their shofars: and he sent all the rest of Yisrael every man to his tent and retained those three hundred men: and the army of Midyan was beneath them in the valley.

9 And it came to pass the same lyla, that אֱלֹהִים said to him, Arise, get down to the army, for I have delivered it into your hand.

10 But if you fear to go down, go with Phurah your eved down to the army:

11 And you shall hear what they say; and afterward shall your hands be strengthened to go down to the army. Then he went down with Phurah his eved to the edge of the armed men that were in the camp.

12 And the Midyanites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like grasshoppers for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand by the seaside for multitude.

13 And when Gidyon had come, see, there was a man that told a dream to his chaver and said, See, I dreamed a dream and, a cake of barley lechem tumbled into the army of Midyan and came to a tent and smote it so that it fell and overturned it, that the tent lay flat.

14 And his companion answered and said, This is nothing other than the sword of Gidyon the son of Yoash, a man of Yisrael: for into his hand has Ahlohim delivered Midyan and all the army.

15 And it was so, when Gidyon heard the telling of the dream and the interpretation of it, that he worshipped and returned to the army of Yisrael and said, Arise; for אֱלֹהִים has delivered into your hand the army of Midyan.

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies and he put a shofar in every man's hand, with empty jars and torches in the jars.

17 And he said to them, Look at me and do likewise: and, see, when I come to the outside of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so shall you do.

18 When I blow with the shofar, I and all that are with me, then blow your shofars also on every side of the camp and say, The sword of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and of Gidyon.

19 So Gidyon and the hundred men that were with him, came to the outside of the camp at the start of the middle watch; and they had just set their watch: and they blew the shofars and broke the jars that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the shofars and broke the jars and held the torches in their left hands and the shofars in their right hands to blow with: and they cried out, The sword of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and of Gidyon.

21 And they stood every man in his place around the camp: and all the army ran and cried and fled.

22 And the three hundred blew the shofars and אִיִּזְרָאֵל set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout all the army: and the army fled to Beth-Shittah in Tzererath and to the border of Avel-Meholah, to Tavvath.

23 And the men of Yisrael gathered themselves together out of Naphtali and out of Asher and out of all Menasheh and pursued after the Midyanites.

24 And Gidyon sent messengers throughout all Har Efrayim, saying, Come down against the Midyanites and take from them the watering places to Beth-Barah and of the Yarden River. Then all the men of Efrayim gathered themselves together and took the watering places in Beth-Barah and also of the Yarden River.

25 And they took two princes of the Midyanites, Orev and Zeev; and they killed Orev upon the rock Orev and Zeev they killed at the winepress of Zeev and pursued Midyan and brought the heads of Orev and Zeev to Gidyon on the other side of the Yarden River.

8 And the men of Efrayim said to him, Why have you treated us like this, that you did not call us, when you went to fight with the Midyanites? And they did argue with him sharply.

2 And he said to them, What have I done now in comparison to you? Is not the gleaning of the grapes of Efrayim better than the vintage of Avi-Ezer?

3 Ahlohim has delivered into your hands the princes of Midyan, Orev and Zeev: and what was I able to do in comparison to you? Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

4 And Gidyon came to the Yarden River and passed over, he and the three hundred men that were with him, weary, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said to the men of Sukkot, Give, I ask you, loaves of lechem to the people that follow me; for they are weary and I am pursuing after Tzevah and Tzalmunna, melechim of Midyan.

6 And the princes of Sukkot said, Are the hands of Tzevah and Tzalmunna now in your hand, that we should give lechem to your army?

7 And Gidyon said, Therefore when אִרְאֵל has delivered Tzevah and Tzalmunna into my hand and then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers.

8 And he went up to Penu-El and spoke to them likewise: and the men of Penu-El answered him just as the men of Sukkot had answered him.

9 And he spoke also to the men of Penu-El, saying, When I come again in shalom, I will break down this tower.

10 Now Tzevah and Tzalmunna were in Karkor and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the armies of the children of the east: for there fell a hundred twenty thousand men that drew the sword.

11 And Gidyon went up by the derech of those that dwelt in tents on the east of Novach and Yogvehah and smote the army: for the army was secure.

12 And when Tzevah and Tzalmunna fled, he pursued after them and took the two melechim of Midyan, Tzevah and Tzalmunna and destroyed all the army.

13 And Gidyon the son of Yoash returned from battle before the shemesh was up, 14 And caught a young man of the men of Sukkot and inquired of him: and he described to him the princes of Sukkot and their zechanim, even seventy-seven men.

15 And he came to the men of Sukkot and said, See Tzevah and Tzalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, Are the hands of Tzevah and Tzalmunna now in your hand, that we should give lechem to your men that are weary?

16 And he took the zechanim of the city and thorns of the wilderness and briars and with them he taught the men of Sukkot a lesson.

17 And he beat down the tower of Penu-El and killed the men of the city.

18 Then said he to Tzevah and Tzalmunna, What manner of men were they whom you killed at Tavor? And they answered, As you are, so were they: Each one resembled the children of a Melech.

19 And he said, They were my brothers, even the sons of my eema: as אִיִּים lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you now.

20 And he said to Yether his bachor, Rise up and kill them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared because he was still a youth.

21 Then Tzevah and Tzalmunna said, Rise and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gidyon arose and killed Tzevah and Tzalmunna and took away the ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 Then the men of Yisrael said to Gidyon, Rule over us, both you and your son and your son's son also: for you have delivered us from the hand of Midyan.

23 And Gidyon said to them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: אִיִּים shall rule over you.

24 And Gidyon said to them, I would desire a request from you, that you would give me every man the earrings of his spoil For they had golden earrings because they were Yishma'elym.

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. And they spread a garment and did cast in it every man the earrings of his spoil.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred shekels of gold; besides ornaments and collars and purple raiment that was on the melechim of Midyan and besides the chains that were around their camels' necks.

27 And Gidyon made it into an ephod- shoulder garment and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and kol Yisrael went there whoring after it: it then became a trap to Gidyon and to his bayit.

28 So Midyan was subdued before the children of Yisrael, so that they lifted up their heads no more.

And the country was in shalom forty years in the yamim of Gidyon.

29 And Yahruba'al the son of Yoash went and dwelt in his own bayit.

30 And Gidyon had seventy sons from his own gooff: for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, whose name he called Avimelech.

32 And Gidyon the son of Yoash died in a tov old age and was buried in the tomb of Yoash his abba, in Ophrah of the Avi-Ezrites.

33 And it came to pass, as soon as Gidyon was dead, that the children of Yisrael turned again and went whoring after the Ba'alim and made Ba'al-Berith their ahlohim.

34 And the children of Yisrael remembered not אֱלֹהֵיהֶם their Ahlohim, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

35 Neither showed they chesed to the bayit of Yahruba'al, named, Gidyon, according to all the tov that he had showed to Yisrael.

9 And Avimelech the son of Yahruba'al went to Shechem to his eema's brothers and communed with them and with all the mishpacha of the bayit of his eema's abba, saying,

2 Speak, I ask you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, What is better for you, should all the sons of Yahruba'al, which are seventy persons, reign over you, or just one reign over you? Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh.

3 And his eema's brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their levavot inclined to follow Avimelech; for they said, He is our brother.

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the bayit of Ba'al-Berith, with which Avimelech hired the am-ha-aretz, who followed him.

5 And he went to his abba's bayit at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Yahruba'al, being seventy persons, upon one stone: not counting Yotam the youngest son of Yahruba'al who was left; for he hid himself.

6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together and all the bayit of Millo and went and made Avimelech melech, by the oak of Matzpiyah near the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 And when they told it to Yotam, he went and stood on the top of Har Gerazim and lifted up his voice and cried and said to them, Shema to me, you men of Shechem, that Ahlohim may listen to you.

8 The eytzim went forth once upon a time to anoint a melech over them; and they said to the olive eytz, Reign over us.

9 But the olive eytz said to them, Should I leave my fatness, with which by me they esteem Ahlohim and man and go to be promoted over the other eytzim?

10 And the other eytzim said to the fig eytz, Come and reign over us.

11 But the fig eytz said to them, Should I forsake my sweetness and my tov fruit and go to be promoted over the other eytzim?

12 Then said the other eytzim to the vine, Come and reign over us.

13 And the vine said to them, Should I leave my wine, which cheers Ahlohim and man and go to be promoted over the other eytzim?

14 Then said all the other eytzim to the bramble, Come and reign over us.

15 And the bramble said to the eytzim, If in emet you will anoint me melech over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Levanon.

16 Now therefore, if you have done truly and sincerely, in that you have made Avimelech melech and if you have dealt well with Yahruba'al and his bayit and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands-

17 For my abba fought for you and risked his chayim and delivered you out of the hand of Midyan:

18 And you have risen up against my abba's bayit this yom and have slain his sons, seventy persons, upon one stone and have made Avimelech, the son of his female eved, melech over the men of Shechem because he is your brother.

19 If you then have dealt truly and sincerely with Yahruba'al and with his bayit this yom, then gilah in your choice of Avimelech and let him also gilah in you:

20 But if not, let fire come out from Avimelech and devour the men of Shechem and the bayit of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem and from the bayit of Millo and devour Avimelech.

21 And Yotam ran away and fled and went to Be-er and dwelt there, for fear of Avimelech his brother.

22 And Avimelech had reigned three years over Yisrael,

23 Then Ahlohim sent an evil ruach between Avimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously against Avimelech:

24 That the cruelty done to the seventy sons of Yahruba'al might come and their dahm be laid upon Avimelech their brother, who killed them; and upon the men of Shechem, who aided him in the killing of his brothers.

25 And the men of Shechem set an ambush for him in the top of the mountains and they robbed all that came along that derech: and it was told Avimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of an eved came with his brothers and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields and gathered their vineyards and treaded the grapes and made a simcha and went into the bayit of their ahlohim and did eat and drink and cursed Avimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of the eved said, Who is Avimelech and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Is not he the son of Yahruba'al? And is not Tzevul his officer? Serve the men of Chamor The Abba of Shechem! But why should we serve him?

29 And would to Ahlohim this people were under my hand! Then would I remove Avimelech. And he said to Avimelech, Increase your army and come out.

30 And when Tzevul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of an eved, his anger was lit.

31 And he sent messengers to Avimelech privately, saying, See, Gaal the son of an eved and his brothers have come to Shechem; and, see, they fortify the city against you.

32 Now therefore go up by lyla, you and the people that are with you and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the boker, as soon as the shemesh is up, you shall rise early and come upon the city: and, see, when he and the people that are with him come out against you, then may you do to them as you are able.

34 And Avimelech rose up and all the people that were with him, by lyla and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of an eved went out and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and Avimelech rose up and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Tzevul, See, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Tzevul said to him, You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spoke again and said, See; there comes people down by the middle of the land and another company comes along by the plain of Meonenim.

38 Then said Tzevul to him, Where is now your mouth, with what you said, Who is Avimelech, that we should serve him? Is not this the people that you have despised? Go out now, I tell you and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem and fought with Avimelech.

40 And Avimelech chased him and he fled before him and many were overthrown and wounded, even to the entrance of the gate.

41 And Avimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Tzevul thrust out Gaal and his brothers, so that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass in the boker that the people went out into the field; and they told Avimelech.

43 And he took the people and divided them into three companies and laid wait in the field and looked and the people had come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them and smote them.

44 And Avimelech and the company that was with him, rushed forward and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields and killed them.

45 And Avimelech fought against the city all that yom; and he took the city and killed the people that were in it and beat down the city and sowed it with salt.

46 And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into a stronghold of the bayit of the El-Berith.

47 And it was told Avimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Avimelech went up to Har Tzalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Avimelech took an axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the eytzim and took it and laid it on his shoulder and said to the people that were with him, What you have seen me do, hurry up and do as I have done.

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his branch and followed Avimelech and put them to the stronghold and set the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 Then went Avimelech to Thevez and encamped against Thevez and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city and there fled all the men and women and all those of the city and shut themselves in and they got up to the top of the tower.

52 And Avimelech came to the tower and fought against it and approached the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman dropped a piece of millstone upon Avimelech's head and crushed his skull.

54 Then he called quickly to the young man his armor-bearer and said to him, Draw your sword and kill me, that men say not of me that, A woman killed him. And his young man thrust him through and he died.

55 And when the men of Yisrael saw that Avimelech was dead, they departed every man to his place.

56 So Ahlohim repaid the wickedness to Avimelech, which he did to his abba, in killing his seventy brothers:

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem did Ahlohim repay upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Yotam the son of Yahruba'al.

10 And after Avimelech there arose to defend Yisrael Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Yissachar; and he dwelt in Shamir in Har Efrayim.

2 And he gave mishpat to Yisrael twenty-three years and died and was buried in Shamir.

3 And after him arose Yair, a Giladi and gave mishpat to Yisrael twenty-two years.

4 And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty donkey colts and they had thirty cities, which are called Chavoth-Yair to this yom, which are in the land of Gilad.

5 And Yair died and was buried in Camon.

6 And the children of Yisrael did evil again in the sight of אֱלֹהִים and served the Ba'alim and Ashtaroth and the ahlohim of Aram and the ahlohim of Tzidon and the ahlohim of Moav and the ahlohim of the children of Ammon and the ahlohim of the Plishtim and forsook אֱלֹהִים and did not serve Him.

7 And the anger of אֱלֹהִים was hot against Yisrael and He sold them into the hands of the Plishtim and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they crushed and oppressed the children of Yisrael: eighteen years, all the children of Yisrael that were on the other side of the Yarden River in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilad.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over the Yarden River to fight also against Yahudah and against Benyamin and against Beit Efrayim; so that Yisrael was very distressed.

10 And the children of Yisrael cried to אלהים, saying, We have sinned against You, both because we have forsaken our Ahlohim and also served the Ba'alim.

11 And אלהים said to the children of Yisrael, Did not I deliver you from the Mitzrim and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon and from the Plishtim?

12 The Tzidonians also and the Amalekites and the Maonites, did oppress you; and you cried to Me and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet you have forsaken Me and served other Ahlohim: therefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go and cry to the ahlohim whom you have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Yisrael said to אלהים, We have sinned: do to us whatever seems tov to You; deliver us only today, we ask You.

16 And they put away the strange ahlohim from among them and served אלהים: and His being was grieved for the misery of Yisrael.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together and camped in Gilad. And the children of Yisrael assembled themselves together and camped in Mitzpah.

18 And the people and princes of Gilad said one to another, What man is he that will begin the fight against the children of Ammon? Let him be the head over all the inhabitants of Gilad.

11 Now Yiftach the Giladi was a mighty man of valor and he was the son of a harlot: and Gilad begat Yiftach.

2 And Gilad's isha bore him sons; and his isha's sons grew up and they threw out Yiftach and said to him, You shall not inherit in our abba's bayit; for you are the son of a strange woman.

3 Then Yiftach fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tov: and there were gathered the am-ha-aretz to Yiftach, who went out with him.

4 And it came to pass in the process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Yisrael.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Yisrael, the zechanim of Gilad went to fetch Yiftach out of the land of Tov:

6 And they said to Yiftach, Come and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Yiftach said to the zechanim of Gilad, Did you not hate me and expel me out of my abba's bayit? And why have you come to me now when you are in distress?

8 And the zechanim of Gilad said to Yiftach, Therefore we turn again to you now, that you may go with us and fight against the children of Ammon and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilad.

9 And Yiftach said to the zechanim of Gilad, If you bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon and אִרְאֵנוּ deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the zechanim of Gilad said to Yiftach, אִרְאֵנוּ be witness between us, if we do not obey you according to your words.

11 Then Yiftach went with the zechanim of Gilad and the people made him head and captain over them: and Yiftach uttered all his words before אִרְאֵנוּ at Mitzpah.

12 And Yiftach sent messengers to the melech of the children of Ammon, saying, What have you to do with me, that you have come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the melech of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Yiftach, Because Yisrael took away my land, when they came up out of Mitzrayim, from Arnon even to Yavok and to the Yarden River: now therefore restore those lands again in shalom.

14 And Yiftach sent messengers again to the melech of the children of Ammon:

15 And said to him, This says Yiftach, Yisrael took not away the land of Moav, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Yisrael came up from Mitzrayim and walked through the wilderness to the Yam Suf and came to Kadesh;

17 Then Yisrael sent messengers to the melech of Edom, saying, Let me, I ask you, pass through your land: but the melech of Edom would not listen. And in like manner they sent to the melech of Moav: but he would not consent: and Yisrael stayed in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness and around the land of Edom and the land of Moav and came by the east side of the land of Moav and camped on the other side of Arnon, but did not go within the border of Moav: for Arnon was the border of Moav.

19 And Yisrael sent messengers to Sichon melech of the Amorites, the melech of Cheshbon; and Yisrael said to him, Let us pass, we ask you, through your land into my place.

20 But Sichon did not trust Yisrael to pass through his border: but Sichon gathered all his people together and camped in Yahaz and fought against Yisrael.

21 And אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael delivered Sichon and all his people into the hand of Yisrael and they smote them: so Yisrael possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country.

22 And they possessed all the borders of the Amorites, from Arnon even to Javvok and from the wilderness even to the Yarden River.

23 So now אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael has dispossessed the Amorites from before His people Yisrael and should you possess it?

24 Will not you possess that which Chemosh your ahlohim gives you to possess? So anyone אלהים our Ahlohim shall drive out from before us, them will we possess.

25 And now are you any better, or different than Balaq the son of Tzippor, melech of Moav? Did he ever strive against Yisrael, or did he ever fight against them, 26 While Yisrael dwelt in Cheshbon and her towns and in Aroer and her towns and in all the cities that are along the borders of Arnon, three hundred years? Why therefore did you not recover them within that time?

27 So I have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me: אלהים the Shophet is Shophet this yom between the children of Yisrael and the children of Ammon.

28 However the melech of the children of Ammon listened not to the words of Yiftach which he sent him.

29 Then The Ruach of אלהים came upon Yiftach and he passed over Gilad and Menasheh and passed over Mitzpah of Gilad and from Mitzpah of Gilad he passed over to the children of Ammon.

30 And Yiftach made a vow to אלהים and said, If You shall without fail deliver the children of Ammon into my hands,

31 Then it shall be, that whatever comes forth from the doors of my bayit to meet me, when I return in shalom from the children of Ammon, shall surely belong to אֲרָאֵל and I will offer it up for a burnt offering.

32 So Yiftach passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and אֲרָאֵל delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, even until Minnith, even twenty cities and also the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Yisrael.

34 And Yiftach came to Mitzpah to his bayit and, see, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dancing: and she was his only child; beside her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes and said, Oy oy, my daughter! You have brought me into depression and you are one of them that cause me trouble: for I have opened my mouth to אֲרָאֵל and I cannot go back on my word.

36 And she said to him, My abba, if you have opened your mouth to אֲרָאֵל, do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth; because אֲרָאֵל has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, even the children of Ammon.

37 And she said to her abba, Let this thing be done for me: leave me alone for two chodashem, that I may wander upon the mountains and bewail my virginity, my chaverim and I.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two chodashem: and she went with her chaverim and mourned her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two chodashem, that she returned to her abba, who did with her according to his vow which he had made: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Yisrael,

40 That the daughters of Yisrael went yearly to mourn the daughter of Yiftach the Giladi four yamim every year.

12 And the men of Efrayim gathered themselves together and went northward and said to Yiftach, Why then did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon and did not call us to go with you? We will burn your bayit upon you with fire.

2 And Yiftach said to them, my people and I were all in great strife with the children of Ammon and when I called you, you delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that you delivered me not, I put my chayim in my hands and passed over against the children of Ammon and אֶרְאֵל delivered them into my hand: why then have you come up to me this yom, to fight against me?

4 Then Yiftach gathered together all the men of Gilad and fought with Efrayim: and the men of Gilad smote Efrayim because they said, You Giladites are fugitives of Efrayim, as Efraimites, living among the people of Menasheh.

5 And the Giladites took the passages of the Yarden River before the Efraimites: and it was so, that when those Efraimites who had escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilad said to him, Are you an Efraimite? If he said, No;

6 Then they said to him, Say now the word Shivoleth: and he said Sivoleth: for if he could not pronounce it right; they took him and killed him at the passages of the Yarden River: and there fell at that time of the Efraimites forty two thousand.

7 And Yiftach gave mishpat to Yisrael six years. Then Yiftach the Giladi died and was buried in one of the cities of Gilad.

8 And after him Ivzan of Beth-Lechem gave mishpat to Yisrael.

9 And he had thirty sons and thirty daughters, whom he sent abroad and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he gave mishpat to Yisrael seven years.

10 Then died Ivzan and was buried at Beth-Lechem.

11 And after him Elon, a Zevulonite, gave mishpat to Yisrael; and he gave mishpat to Yisrael ten years.

12 And Elon the Zevulonite died and was buried in Aiyalon in the country of Zevulun.

13 And after him Avdon the son of Hillel, a Pirathonite, gave mishpat to Yisrael.

14 And he had forty sons and thirty nephews who rode on seventy donkey colts: and he gave mishpat to Yisrael eight years.

15 And Avdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Efrayim, in the har of the Amalekites.

13 And the children of Yisrael did evil again in the sight of אֱלֹהִים; and אֱלֹהִים delivered them into the hand of the Plishtim for forty years.

2 And there was a certain man of Tzorah, of the mishpacha of the Danites, whose name was Manoach; and his isha was barren and bore not.

3 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים appeared to the woman and said to her, See now, you are barren and bear not: but you shall conceive and bear a son.

4 Now therefore beware, I tell you and drink no wine, or strong drink and eat not any unkosher-unclean thing:

5 For, look, you shall conceive and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head: for the child shall be a Nazarite to Ahlohim from the womb: and he shall begin to deliver Yisrael out of the hand of the Plishtim.

6 Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, A Man of Ahlohim came to me and His countenance was like the countenance of a Heavenly Malach of Ahlohim, very awesome: but I asked Him not from where He was, neither did He tell me His Name:

7 But He said to me, See, you shall conceive and bear a son; and now drink no wine, or strong drink, neither eat any unkosher-unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to Ahlohim from the womb to the yom of his death.

8 Then Manoach entreated אֱלֹהִים and said, O my Master, let the Man of Ahlohim that You did send come again to us and teach us what we shall do for the child that shall be born.

9 And Ahlohim listened to the voice of Manoach; and The Malach-Ahlohim came again to the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoach her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman hurried and ran and showed her husband and said to him, See, the Man has appeared to me again, that came to me the other yom.

11 And Manoach arose and went after his isha and came to the Man and said to him, Are You the Man that spoke to the woman? And He said, I AM.

12 And Manoach said, Now let Your Words come to pass. How shall we bring up the child and how shall we prepare him?

13 And The Malach-אֱלֹהִים said to Manoach, Of all that I said to the woman let her shomer.

14 She may not eat anything that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine, or strong drink, nor eat any unkosher-unclean thing: all that I commanded her, let her shomer.

15 And Manoach said to The Malach-אלהים, I ask You, let us detain You, until we shall have made ready a young goat for You.

16 And The Malach-אלהים said to Manoach, Though you detain Me, I will not eat of your lechem: and if you will offer a burnt offering, you must offer it to אלהים. For Manoach knew not that He was The Malach-אלהים.

17 And Manoach said to The Malach-אלהים, What is Your Name, that when Your sayings come to pass we may do You kavod?

18 And The Malach-אלהים said to him, Why do you ask My Name, seeing it is a sod?

19 So Manoach took a young goat with a meat offering and offered it upon a rock to אלהים: and The Malach-אלהים gave hallel to אלהים; and Manoach and his isha looked on.

20 For it came to pass, when the flame went up toward the shamayim from off the altar that The Malach-אלהים ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoach and his isha looked on it and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But The Malach-אלהים did not appear again to Manoach and to his isha. Then Manoach knew that He was The Malach-אלהים.

22 And Manoach said to his isha, We shall surely die because we have seen Ahlohim.

23 But his isha said to him, If אלהים had desired to kill us, He would not have received a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would He have showed us all these things, nor would He at this time have told us such things as these.

24 And the woman bore a son and called his name Shimshon: and the child grew and אלהים blessed him.

25 And The Ruach of אַף־אֶז began to move him at times in the camp of Dan between Tzorah and Eshtaol.

14 And Shimshon went down to Timnath and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Plishtim.

2 And he came up and told his abba and his eema and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Plishtim: now therefore get her for me as my isha.

3 Then his abba and his eema said to him, Is there not a woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you go to take an isha of the Plishtim who are not in brit milah? And Shimshon said to his abba, Get her for me; for she pleases me well.

4 But his abba and his eema knew not that it was from אַף־אֶז, that He sought an occasion against the Plishtim: for at that time the Plishtim had dominion over Yisrael.

5 Then Shimshon went down and his abba and his eema, to Timnath and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, see, a young lion roared against him.

6 And The Ruach of אַף־אֶז came mightily upon him and he tore him as he would have torn a young goat and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his abba, or his eema what he had done.

7 And he went down and talked with the woman; and she pleased Shimshon well.

8 And after a time he returned to take her and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and, see, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion.

9 And he took some of it in his hands and went on eating and came to his abba and eema and he gave them and they did eat: but he told them not that he had taken the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

10 So his abba went down to the woman: and Shimshon made there a feast; for this is what the young men used to do.

11 And it came to pass, when they saw him that they brought thirty chaverim to be with him.

12 And Shimshon said to them, I will now put forth a riddle to you: if you can certainly declare it to me within the seven yamim of the feast and find out the answer, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty changes of garments:

13 But if you cannot declare it me, then shall you give me thirty sheets and thirty changes of garments. And they said to him, Put forth your riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said to them, Out of the eater came forth meat and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three yamim expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh yom, that they said to Shimshon's isha, Entice your husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your abba's bayit with fire; have you called us to take what we have and impoverish us?

16 And Shimshon's isha wept before him and said, You hate me and love me not: you have put forth a riddle to the children of my people and have not told it me. And he said to her, See, I have not told it my abba nor to my eema and shall I tell it you?

17 And she wept before him the seven yamim, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh yom, that he told her because she pressed him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh yom before the shemesh went down, What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion? And he said to them, If you had not plowed with my heifer, you would have not found out my riddle.

19 And The Ruach of אַיָּאָז came upon him and he went down to Ashkelon and killed thirty men there and took their spoil and gave changes of garments to those who expounded the riddle. And his anger was lit and he went up to his abba's bayit.

20 But Shimshon's isha was given to his companion, who used to be his chaver.

15 But it came to pass after some time, in the time of Shavuot, that Shimshon visited his isha with a young goat; and he said, I will go into my isha in the bedroom. But her abba would not allow him to go in.

2 And her abba said, I truly thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your chaver: is not her younger sister prettier than her? Take her, I ask you, instead of her.

3 And Shimshon said concerning them, Now this time I will be blameless regarding the Plishtim, if I do them evil.

4 And Shimshon went and caught three hundred foxes and took torches and turned tail to tail and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the torches on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Plishtim and burned up both the grain stacks and also the standing grain, with the vineyards and olives.

6 Then the Plishtim said, Who has done this? And they answered, Shimshon, the son-in-law of the Timnite because he had taken his isha and given her to his chaver. And the Plishtim came up and burned her and her abba with fire.

7 And Shimshon said to them, Though you have done this, yet will I be avenged of you and after that I will cease.

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock Eytam.

9 Then the Plishtim went up and camped in Yahudah and spread out in Lehi.

10 And the men of Yahudah said, Why have you come up against us? And they answered, To bind Shimshon have we come up, to do to him as he has done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Yahudah went to the top of the rock Eytam and said to Shimshon, You know not that the Plishtim are rulers over us? What is this that you have done to us? And he said to them, As they did to me, so have I done to them.

12 And they said to him, We have come down to bind you so that we may deliver you into the hand of the Plishtim. And Shimshon said to them, Swear to me, that you will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spoke to him, saying, No; but we will bind you hard and deliver you into their hand: but surely we will not kill you. And they bound him with two new cords and brought him up from the rock.

14 And when he came to Lehi, the Plishtim shouted against him: and The Ruach of אַף אַז came mightily upon him and the cords that were upon his arms became as linen that was burned with fire and his bands were loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a new jawbone of a donkey and put forth his hand and took it and killed a thousand men with it.

16 And Shimshon said, With the jawbone of a donkey, one heap, two heaps; with the jaw of a donkey have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand and called that place Ramath-Lehi.

18 And he was very thirsty, he called on אלהים and said, You have given this great deliverance into the hand of Your eved: and now shall I die for thirst and fall into the hands of those not made brit-milah?

19 But Ahlohim split a hollow place that was in Lehi and there came mayim out; and when he had drunk, his ruach came again and he revived: therefore he called the name of it En-Chakkore, which is in Lehi to this yom.

20 And he gave mishpat to Yisrael in the yamim of the Plishtim twenty years.

16 Then went Shimshon to Azah and saw there a harlot and went into her.

2 And it was told to the Gazites, saying, Shimshon is come here. And they surrounded him in and lay in wait for him all lyla in the gate of the city and were quiet all the lyla, saying, In the boker, when it is yom, we shall kill him.

3 And Shimshon lay until midnight and arose at midnight and took the doors of the gate of the city and the two posts and went away with them, bar and all and put them upon his shoulders and carried them up to the top of a hill that is before Chebron.

4 And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the rulers of the Plishtim came up to her and said to her, Entice him and see where his great strength lies and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give you every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Delilah said to Shimshon, Tell me, I ask you, where does your great strength lie and with what and how might you be bound in order to afflict you.

7 And Shimshon said to her, If they bind me with seven fresh cords that were never dried, then shall I be weak and be like any another man.

8 Then rulers of the Plishtim brought up to her seven fresh cords that had not been dried and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the bedroom. And she said to him, The Plishtim are upon you, Shimshon. And he broke the cords, as a strand of yarn is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said to Shimshon, See, you have mocked me and told me lies: now tell me, I ask you, with what might you be bound.

11 And he said to her, If they bind me tightly with new ropes that never were used, then shall I be weak and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took new ropes and bound him and said to him, The Plishtim are upon you, Shimshon. And there were those lying in wait abiding in the bedroom. And he broke them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said to Shimshon, Until now you have mocked me and told me lies: tell me with what you might be bound. And he said to her, If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web.

14 And she tightened it with the pin and said to him, The Plishtim are upon you, Shimshon. And he awoke out of his sleep and went away with the pin of the loom and with the web.

15 And she said to him, How can you say, I love you, when your lev is not with me? You have mocked me these three times and have not told me where your great strength lies.

16 And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, so that his being was wearied to death;

17 That he told her all his lev and said to her. There has not come a razor upon my head; for I have been a Nazarite to Ahlohim from my eema's womb: if I am shaved, then my strength will go from me and I shall become weak and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his lev, she sent and called for the rulers of the Plishtim, saying, Come up at once, for he has showed me all his lev. Then the rulers of the Plishtim came up to her and brought money in their hands.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him and his strength went from him.

20 And she said, The Plishtim are upon you, Shimshon. And he awoke out of his sleep and said, I will go about things as at other times before and simply shake myself. But he did not know that אִרְאֵל had departed from him.

21 But the Plishtim took him and put out his eyes and brought him down to Azah and bound him with bronze shackles; and he became a grinder in the prison.

22 However the hair of his head began to grow again after he had been shaven.

23 Then rulers of the Plishtim gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their ahlohim and to make gilah: for they said, Our ahlohim has delivered Shimshon our enemy into our hands.

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their Ahlohim: for they said, Our ahlohim has delivered into our hands our enemy and the destroyer of our country, who killed many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their levavot were glad, that they said, Call for Shimshon, that he may entertain us. And they called for Shimshon out of the prison; and he entertained them: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Shimshon said to the lad that held him by the hand, Allow me that I may feel the pillars upon which the bayit stands, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the bayit was full of men and women; and all the rulers of the Plishtim were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, who beheld while Shimshon entertained them.

28 And Shimshon called to אלהים and said, O אלהים Ahlohim, remember me, I ask You and strengthen me, I ask You, only this once, O Ahlohim, that I may be avenged of the Plishtim for my two eyes.

29 And Shimshon took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the bayit stood and on which it was supported, one with his right hand and the other with his left.

30 And Shimshon said, Let me die with the Plishtim. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the bayit fell upon the rulers and upon all the people that were in it. So those who he killed at his death were more than those that he killed in his chayim.

31 Then his brothers and all the bayit of his abba came down and took him and brought him up and buried him between Tzorah and Eshtaol in the burying place of Manoach his abba. And he gave mishpat to Yisrael twenty years.

17 And there was a man of Har Efrayim, whose name was Michayah.

2 And he said to his eema, The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you, about which you cursed and spoke of also in my ears, see, the silver is with me; I took it. And his eema said, Blessed are you of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, my son.

3 And when he had restored the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his eema, his eema said, I had wholly dedicated the silver to אִיִּזְרָאֵל from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molded image: now therefore I will restore it to you.

4 Yet he restored the money to his eema; and his eema took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to the silversmith, who made it into a graven image and a molded image: and they were in the bayit of Michayah.

5 And the man Michayah had a bayit of ahlohim and made an ephod and teraphim and consecrated one of his sons, who became his kohen.

6 In those yamim there was no melech in Yisrael, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man out of Beth-Lechem Yahudah of the mishpacha of Yahudah, who was a Lewite and he sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-Lechem Yahudah to sojourn where he could find a place: and he came to Har Efrayim to the bayit of Michayah, as he journeyed.

9 And Michayah said to him, From where do you come? And he said to him, I am a Lewite of Beth-Lechem Yahudah and I went to sojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Michayah said to him, Dwell with me and be to me an abba and a kohen and I will give you ten shekels of silver for the year and a suit of apparel and your food. So the Lewi went in.

11 And the Lewi was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of his sons.

12 And Michayah consecrated the Lewite; and the young man became his kohen and was in the bayit of Michayah.

13 Then said Michayah, Now I know that אֱלֹהִים will do me tov, seeing I have a Lewite as my kohen.

18 In those yamim there was no melech in Yisrael: and in those yamim the tribe of the Danites sought an inheritance to dwell in; for until that yom all their inheritance had not yet fallen to them among the tribes of Yisrael.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their mishpacha five men from their borders, men of valor, from Tzorah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land and to search it; and they said to them, Go, search the land: who when they came to Har Efrayim, to the bayit of Michayah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the bayit of Michayah, they knew the voice of the young man, the Lewi: and they turned in there and said to him, Who brought you here? And what are you making in this place? And what have you here?

4 And he said to them, Michayah did such and such with me and has hired me and I am his kohen.

5 And they said to him, Ask counsel, we ask you, from Ahlohim, that we may know whether our derech which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the kohen said to them, Go in shalom: before אֱלֹהִים, is your journey in which you go.

7 Then the five men departed and came to Layish and saw the people that were in it, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Tzidonians, quiet and secure; and there was no civil authority in the land, that might put them to shame in any wrong thing and they were far from the Tzidonians and had kept to themselves.

8 And they came to their brothers to Tzorah and Eshtaol: and their brothers said to them, What say you?

9 And they said, Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land and, see, it is very tov: and are you standing still? Be not lazy to go and enter to possess the land.

10 When you go, you shall come to a people secure and to a large land: for Ahlohim has given it into your hands; a place where there is no want of anything that is in the earth.

11 And there went from there from the mishpacha of the Danites, out of Tzorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up and camped in Kiryath-Yearim, in Yahudah: so they called that place Machaneh-Dan to this yom: see, it is behind Kiryath-Yearim.

13 And they passed there to Har Efrayim and came to the bayit of Michayah.

14 Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Layish and said to their brothers, Do you know that there is among these houses an ephod and teraphim and a graven image and a molded image? Now therefore consider what you have to do.

15 And they turned aside and came to the bayit of the young man the Lewi, even to the bayit of Michayah and saluted him.

16 And the six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to spy out the land went up and came in there and took the graven image and the ephod and the teraphim and the molded image: and the kohen stood in the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Michayah's bayit and fetched the carved image, the ephod and the teraphim and the molded image. Then said the kohen to them, What are you doing?

19 And they said to him, Hold your silence, lay your hand upon your mouth and go with us and be to us an abba and a kohen: is it better for you to be a kohen to the bayit of one man, or that you be a kohen to a whole tribe and a mishpacha in Yisrael?

20 And the kohen's lev was in simcha and he took the ephod and the teraphim and the graven image and went out in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed and put the little ones and the cattle and the carriage before them.

22 And when they were a certain distance from the bayit of Michayah, the men that were in the houses near to Michayah's bayit were gathered together and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried to the children of Dan. And they turned their faces and said to Michayah, What's wrong with you, that you come with such a company?

24 And he said, You have taken away my ahlohim that I made and the kohen and you are gone away: and what have I left? And now you say to me, What bothers you?

25 And the children of Dan said to him, Let not your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows come upon you and you lose your chayim, with the chayim of your household.

26 And the children of Dan went their derech: and when Michayah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his bayit.

27 And they took the things that Michayah had made and the kohen that he had and came to Layish, to a people that were in shalom and secure:

and they smote those people with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer because it was far from Tzidon and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lies near Beth-Rechov. And they built a city and dwelt in it.

29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their abba, who was born to Yisrael: but the name of the city was Layish first.

30 And the children of Dan set up the graven image: and Yahnathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Menasheh, he and his sons were kohanim to the tribe of Dan until the yom of the captivity of the land.

31 And they set them up Michayah's graven image, which he made, all the time that the Bayit of Ahlohim was in Shiloh.

19 And it came to pass in those yamim, when there was no melech in Yisrael, that there was a certain Lewite sojourning on the side of Har Efrayim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-Lechem Yahudah.

2 And his concubine played the whore against him and went away from him to her abba's bayit to Beth-Lechem Yahudah and was there four whole chodashem.

3 And her husband arose and went after her, to speak kindly to her and to bring her again, having his eved with him and a couple of donkeys: and she brought him into her abba's bayit: and when The Abba of the woman saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his abba-in-law, the woman's abba, retained him; and he stayed with him three yamim: so they did eat and drink and lodged there.

5 And it came to pass on the fourth yom, when they arose early in the boker, that he rose up to depart:

and the woman's abba said to his son-in-law, Comfort your lev with a morsel of lechem and afterward go your derech.

6 And they sat down and did eat and drink both of them together: for the woman's abba had said to the man, Be content, I ask you and stay all lyla and let your lev be glad.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his abba-in-law urged him to stay: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the boker on the fifth yom to depart: and the woman's abba said, Comfort your lev, I ask you. And they tarried until afternoon and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine and his eved, his abba-in-law, the woman's abba, said to him, See, now the yom draws toward evening, I ask you stay all lyla: see, the yom grows to an end, lodge here, that your lev may be glad; and in the boker go early on your derech, that you may go home.

10 But the man would not stay that lyla, but he rose up and departed and came over against Yevus, which is Yahrushalayim; and there were with him two donkeys saddled, his concubine also was with him.

11 And when they were by Yevus, the yom was almost over; and the eved said to his master, Come,
I ask you and let us turn in into this city of the Yevusites and lodge in it.

12 And his master said to him, We will not turn aside here into the city of a ger that is not of the children of Yisrael; we will pass over to Givah.

13 And he said to his eved, Come and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all lyla, in Givah, or in Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their derech; and the shemesh went down upon them when they were by Givah, which belongs to Benyamin.

15 And they turned aside there, to go in and to lodge in Givah: and when he went in, he sat down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his bayit for lodging.

16 And, see, there came an old man from his work out of the field at evening, which was also of Har Efrayim; and he sojourned in Givah: but the men of the place were Benyamites.

17 And when he had lifted up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Where are you going? And from where do you come?

18 And he said to him, We are passing from Beth-Lechem Yahudah toward the side of Har Efrayim; from there am I: and I went to Beth-Lechem Yahudah, but I am now going to the Bayit of אֶרְרָא; and there is no man that receives me into his bayit.

19 Yet there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys; and there is lechem and wine also for me and for your female eved and for the young man who is with your avadim: there is no want for any thing.

20 And the old man said, Shalom be with you; however, let all your wants lie upon me; only lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his bayit and gave fodder to the donkeys: and they washed their feet and did eat and drink.

22 Now as they were making their levavot glad, see, the men of the city, certain sons of Beliyaal, circled the bayit all around and beat on the door and spoke to the master of the bayit, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into your bayit, that we may know him sexually.

23 And the man, the master of the bayit, went out to them, No, my brothers, no, I ask you, do not so wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my bayit, do not this folly.

24 See, here is my daughter a young woman and this man's concubine; them I will bring out now and humble them and do with them what seems tov to you: but to this man do not so vile a thing.

25 But the men would not listen to him: so the man took his concubine and brought her forth to them; and they knew her and abused her all lyla until the boker: and when the yom began to dawn, they let her go.

26 Then came the woman in the dawning of the yom and fell down at the door of the man's bayit where her master was, until it was ohr.

27 And her master rose up in the boker and opened the doors of the bayit and went out to go his derech: and, see, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the bayit and her hands were upon the threshold.

28 And he said to her, Up and let us be going. But none answered. Then the man took her up upon a donkey and the man rose up and returned to his place.

29 And when he had come into his bayit, he took a knife and laid hold on his concubine and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces and sent her into all the borders of Yisrael.

30 And it was so, that all that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the yom that the children of Yisrael came up out of the land of Mitzrayim to this yom: consider it, take advice and speak up.

20 Then all the children of Yisrael went out and the kehilla was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Be-er-Sheva, with the land of Gilad, to מִצְפָּה in Mitzpah.

2 And the leaders of all the people, even of all the tribes of Yisrael, presented themselves in the kehilla of the people of Ahlohim, four hundred thousand footmen that drew the sword.

3 Now the children of Benyamin heard that the children of Yisrael had gone up to Mitzpah. Then said the children of Yisrael, Tell us, how was this wickedness done?

4 And the Lewi, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Givah that belongs to Benyamin, I and my concubine to lodge.

5 And the men of Givah rose up against me and circled the bayit all around and came upon me by lyla and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they sexually forced, so that she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine and cut her in pieces and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Yisrael: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Yisrael.

7 See, you are all children of Yisrael; give here your advice and counsel.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will any of us return to his bayit.

9 But now this shall be the thing that we will do to Givah; we will go up by lot against it;

10 And we will take ten men out of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Yisrael and a hundred out of a thousand and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch food for the people, to prepare them, when they come to Givah of Benyamin, according to all the folly that they have done in Yisrael.

11 So all the men of Yisrael were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Yisrael sent men through all the tribe of Benyamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver to us these men, the children of Beliyaal, who are in Givah, that we may put them to death and put away the evil from Yisrael. But the children of Benyamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers the children of Yisrael:

14 But the children of Benyamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Givah, to go out to battle against the children of Yisrael.

15 And the children of Benyamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty six thousand men that drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Givah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all the people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; every one could sling stones at a hair's width and not miss.

17 And the men of Yisrael, against Benyamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew the sword: all these were men of war.

18 And the children of Yisrael arose and went up to the Bayit of Ahlohim and asked counsel from Ahlohim and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benyamin? And אֱלֹהִים said, Yahudah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Yisrael rose up in the boker and encamped against Givah.

20 And the men of Yisrael went out to battle against Benyamin; and the men of Yisrael put themselves in array to fight against them at Givah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Givah and cut down to the ground of the Yisraelites that yom twenty two thousand men.

22 And the people, the men of Yisrael encouraged themselves and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first yom.

23 And the children of Yisrael went up and wept before אֱלֹהִים until evening and asked counsel of אֱלֹהִים, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And אֱלֹהִים said, Go up against them.

24 And the children of Yisrael came near to the children of Benjamin the second yom.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Givah the second yom and cut down to the ground of the children of Yisrael again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Yisrael and all the people, went up and came to the Bayit of Ahlohim and wept and sat there before אֱלֹהִים and fasted that yom until evening and offered burnt offerings and shalom offerings before אֱלֹהִים.

27 And the children of Yisrael inquired of אֱלֹהִים, for the Ark of the Testimony of Ahlohim was there in those yamim, 28 And Pinchus, the son of El-Azar, the son of Aharon, stood before it in those yamim, saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And אֱלֹהִים said, Go up; for tomorrow boker I will deliver them into your hand.

29 And Yisrael set an ambush in wait around Givah.

30 And the children of Yisrael went up against the children of Benjamin on the third yom and put themselves in array against Givah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benyamin went out against the people and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite the people and kill, as at other times, in the highways, one of which goes up to the Bayit of Ahlohim and the other to Givah in the field, about thirty men of Yisrael.

32 And the children of Benyamin said, They are smitten before us, as the first time. But the children of Yisrael said, Let us flee and draw them from the city to the highways.

33 And all the men of Yisrael rose up out of their place and put themselves in array at Ba'al-Tamar: and the ambushers of Yisrael came forth out of their places, even out of the meadows of Givah.

34 And there came against Givah ten thousand chosen men out of kol Yisrael and the battle was fierce: but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And אִי־אִזַּל smote Benyamin before Yisrael: and the children of Yisrael destroyed from the Benyamites that yom twenty five thousand one hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benyamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Yisrael gave ground to the Benyamites because they trusted the ambushers that they had set next to Givah.

37 And the ambushers hurried and rushed upon Givah; and the ambushers in wait drew themselves along and smote the entire city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed an ot between the men of Yisrael and the ambushers in wait that they should make a great flame with smoke rising up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Yisrael turned in the battle, Benyamin began to smite and kill of the men of Yisrael about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to rise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benyamites looked behind them and, see, the flame of the city ascended up to the shamayim.

41 And when the men of Yisrael turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil had come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Yisrael to the derech of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and those Benyamites who came out of the cities were destroyed in the midst of the men of Yisrael.

43 They surrounded the Benyamites all around and chased them and trampled them down with ease over against Givah toward the east.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valor.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to The Rock of Rimmon: and they cut down in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them to Gidom and killed two thousand of them.

46 So that all that fell that yom of Benjamin were twenty five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valor.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness to The Rock Rimmon and stayed in The Rock Rimmon for four chodashem.

48 And the men of Yisrael turned again upon the children of Benjamin and smote them with the edge of the sword, men and beasts of every city and all that were found: also they set fire to all the cities that they came to.

21 Now the men of Yisrael had sworn in Mitzpah, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter to Benyamin as an isha.

2 And the people came to the Bayit of Ahlohim and stayed there until evening before Ahlohim and lifted up their voices and wept sore;

3 And said, O אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, why is this come to pass in Yisrael, that there should be today one tribe missing in Yisrael?

4 And it came to pass in the boker, that the people rose early and built there an altar and offered burnt offerings and shalom offerings.

5 And the children of Yisrael said, Who is there among all the tribes of Yisrael that came not up with the kehilla to אֱלֹהִים ? For they had made a great oath concerning him that would not come up to אֱלֹהִים to Mitzpah, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Yisrael repented for what had occurred to Benyamin their brother and said, There is one tribe cut off from Yisrael this yom.

7 What shall we do to give them wives for those that remain, seeing we have sworn by אֱלֹהִים that we will not give them our daughters as wives?

8 And they said, Which one of the tribes of Yisrael did not come up to Mitzpah to אֱלֹהִים ? And, see, there came none from Yavesh-Gilad to the kehilla.

9 For the people were numbered and, see, there were none of the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gilad there.

10 And the kehilla sent there twelve thousand of the bravest men and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gilad with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that you shall do, You shall utterly destroy every male and every woman that has lain with a man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gilad four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any man: and they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Kanaan.

13 And the whole kehilla sent delegates to speak to the children of Benjamin that were in The Rock Rimmon and to call to them offering shalom.

14 And Benjamin returned at that time; and the kehilla gave them wives that they had saved alive from the women of Yavesh-Gilad: and yet there were more men than women.

15 And the people were sorry for Benjamin because אִי־אִז had made a breach in the tribes of Yisrael.

16 Then the zechanim of the kehilla said, What shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that are escaped from Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Yisrael.

18 However we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Yisrael have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that gives an isha to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, See, there is a moed of אִי־אִז in Shiloh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Beth-El, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Beth-El to Shechem and on the south of Levonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come out of the vineyards and catch every man his isha from the daughters of Shiloh and go to the land of Benjamin.

22 And it shall be, when their ahvot, or their brothers come to us to complain, that we will say to them, Be favorable to them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his isha in the war: for you did not give them wives at this time, that you should be guilty.

23 And the children of Benyamin did so and took wives, according to their number, of those that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned to their inheritance and repaired the cities and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Yisrael departed from there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his mishpacha and they went out from there every man to his inheritance.

25 In those yamim there was no melech in Yisrael: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

Ruth-Root

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

1 Now it came to pass in the yamim when the shophtim ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of Beth-Lechem Yahudah went to sojourn in the country of Moav, he and his isha and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man was Eli-Melech and the name of his isha Naomi and the name of his two sons Machlon and Chilyon, Ephrathites of Beth-Lechem Yahudah. And they came into the country of Moav and continued there.

3 And Eli-Melech Naomi's husband died; and she was left with her two sons.

4 And they took wives from the women of Moav; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Root: and they dwelled there about ten years.

5 And Machlon and Chilyon both died; and the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

6 Then she arose with her daughters-in-law; that she might return from the country of Moav: for she had heard in the country of Moav how that אֱלֹהֵינוּ had visited His people in giving them lechem.

7 And she went forth out of the place where she was, with her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the derech to return to the land of Yahudah.

8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each of you to your eema's bayit: אֱלֹהֵינוּ deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me.

9 אִיִּי grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the bayit of a husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice and wept.

10 And they said to her, Surely we will return with you to your people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn back again, my daughters: why will you go with me? Are there more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your derech; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have tikvah, that I should have a husband also tonight, should I bear sons?

13 Would you wait for them until they were grown? Would you keep yourselves back from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me much for your sakes that the Hand of אִיִּי has gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice and wept again: and Orpah kissed her eema-in-law; but Root clung to her.

15 And she said, See, your sister-in-law is gone back to her people and to her ahlohim: return and follow your sister-in-law also.

16 And Root said, Do not urge me to leave you, or to return from following after you: for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge: your people shall be my people and your Ahlohim my Ahlohim:

17 Where you die, will I die and there will I be buried: אִיִּי do so to me and more also, if anything but death separates you and me.

18 When she saw that she was steadfast in mind to go with her, then she stopped discouraging her.

19 So the two of them went until they came to Beth-Lechem. And it came to pass, when they had come to Beth-Lechem, that all the city was moved about them and they said, Is this Naomi?

20 And she said to them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for The Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full and אִתִּי has brought me home again empty: why then do you call me Naomi, seeing that אִתִּי has testified against me and The Almighty has afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned and Root the Moavite, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moav: and they came to Beth-Lechem in the beginning of barley harvest around Yom HaBikkurim.

2 And Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the mishpacha of Eli-Melech; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Root the Moavite said to Naomi, Let me now go to the field and glean ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find chen. And she said to her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers: as it turned out she came to the part of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the mishpacha of Eli-Melech.

4 And see, Boaz came from Beth-Lechem and said to the reapers, אִתִּי be with you. And they answered him, אִתִּי bless you.

5 Then said Boaz to his eved that was set over the reapers, Whose young woman is this?

6 And the eved that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moavite young woman that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moav:

7 And she said, I ask you, let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves: so she came and has continued even from the boker until now, then she stayed a little in the bayit.

8 Then said Boaz to Ruth, have you heard, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from here, but stay here close to my young women:

9 Let your eyes be on the field that they reap and go after them: have I not charged the young men that they shall not touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink of that which the young men have drawn from.

10 Then she fell on her face and bowed herself to the ground and said to him, Why have I found chen in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, seeing I am a strange foreigner?

11 And Boaz answered and said to her, It has fully been showed to me, all that you have done for your eema-in-law since the death of your husband: and how you have left your abba and your eema and the land of your nativity and are come to a people which you knew not before.

12 אֱלֹהִים repay your work and may a full reward be given to you by אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael; under whose wings you have come to trust.

13 Then she said, Let me find chen in your sight, my master; for you have comforted me and for you have spoken kindly to your female eved, though I be not like one of your female avadim.

14 And Boaz said to her, At mealtime come here and eat of the lechem and dip your lechem in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers: and he passed parched grain to her and she did eat and was satisfied and left.

15 And when she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves and do not restrain her:

16 And let some grain fall by the handfuls for her and leave them, that she may glean them and rebuke her not.

17 So she gleaned in the field until evening and beat out what she had gleaned: and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 And she took it up and went into the city: and her eema-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought forth and gave to her what she had reserved after she was satisfied.

19 And her eema-in-law said to her; Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be he that did take notice of you. And she showed her eema-in-law with whom she had worked and said, The man's name with whom I worked today is Boaz.

20 And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who has not forsaken his kindness to the living and to the dead. And Naomi said to her, The man is a near kinsman of ours, one of our kinsman redeemers.

21 And Root the Moavite said, He said to me also, You shall stay close to my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.

22 And Naomi said to Root her daughter-in-law, It is tov, my daughter, that you go out with his young women too, that they meet you not in any other field.

23 So she kept close to the young women of Boaz to glean to the end of barley harvest and of the wheat harvest of Shavuot; and dwelt with her eema-in-law.

3 Then Naomi her eema-in-law said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for you, that it may be well with you?

2 And now is not Boaz of our mishpacha, with whose young women you were? See, he is winnowing barley tonight in the threshing floor.

3 Wash yourself therefore and anoint yourself and put your garment upon you and get down to the floor: but do not make yourself known to the man, until he has finished eating and drinking.

4 And it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall mark the place where he shall lie and you shall go in and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what you shall do.

5 And she said to her, All that you say to me I will do.

6 And she went down to the floor and did according to all that her eema-in-law told her.

7 And when Boaz had eaten and drunk and his lev was full of simcha, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain: and she came softly and uncovered his feet and lay down.

8 And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was startled and he turned: and, see, he found a woman lying at his feet.

9 And he said, Who are you? And she answered, I am Root your female eved: spread your covering over your female eved; for you are a near kinsman redeemer.

10 And he said, Blessed are you of אִתָּךְ, my daughter: for you have showed more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning because you followed not young men, whether they are poor, or rich.

11 And now, my daughter, fear not; I will do to you all that you require: for all the city of my people does know that you are a virtuous woman.

12 And now it is emet that I am your near kinsman: however there is a kinsman nearer than I.

13 Stay this lyla and it shall be in the boker, that if he will redeem you tov, let him redeem you; but if he will not redeem you, then I will redeem you, as אִתָּךְ lives: lie down until the boker.

14 And she lay at his feet until the boker: and she rose up before anyone could see anyone else. And he said; Let it not be known that a woman came into the floor.

15 Also he said, Bring the mantle that you have upon you and hold it. And when she held it, he measured six measures of barley and laid it on her: and she went into the city.

16 And when she came to her eema-in-law, she said; Is that you, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done for her.

17 And she said, These six measures of barley he gave me; for he said to me, Do not go empty to your eema-in-law.

18 Then said she, Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will turn out. For the man will not rest, until he has finished the matter this yom.

4 Then went Boaz up to the gate and sat down there: and, see, the kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by; to whom he said, Hey! Turn aside and sit down here. And he turned aside and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of the zechanim of the city and said, Sit down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said to the kinsman, Naomi that is come again out of the country of Moav sells a parcel of land, which was our brother Eli-Melech's:

4 And I thought to disclose it to you, saying, Buy it before the inhabitants and before the zechanim of my people. If you will redeem it, redeem it: but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside you; and I am after you. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, On the yom you buy the field from the hand of Naomi; you must acquire also Root the Moaviteess, the isha of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead for and upon his inheritance.

6 And the kinsman redeemer said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance: redeem my right for yourself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 Now this was the manner in former times in Yisrael concerning redeeming and concerning changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his sandal and gave it to his neighbor: and this was a testimony in Yisrael.

8 Therefore the kinsman said to Boaz, Buy it for you. So he drew off his sandal.

9 And Boaz said to the zechanim and to all the people, You are witnesses this yom, that I have bought all that was Eli-Melech's and all that was Chilyon's and Machlon's, from the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Root the Moavites, the isha of Machlon, have I purchased to be my isha, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place: you are witnesses this yom.

11 And all the people that were in the gate and the zechanim, said, We are witnesses. אִתְּכֶם make the woman that has come into your bayit like Rachel and like Leah, which two wives did build Beit Yisrael; and prove your worth in Ephratah and proclaim the Name in Beth-Lechem:

12 And let your bayit be like the bayit of Peretz, whom Tamar bore to Yahudah, of the zera which אִתְּכֶם shall give you by this young woman.

13 So Boaz took Root and she was his isha: and when he went in to her אִתְּכֶם gave her conception and she bore a son.

14 And the women said to Naomi, Blessed be אִתְּכֶם, who has not left you this yom without a redeemer, that His Name may be famous in Yisrael.

15 And he shall be to you a restorer of your chayim, and a sustainer of your old age: for your daughter-in-law, who loves you and who is better to you than seven sons, has born him.

16 And Naomi took the child and laid it in her bosom and became a nurse to it.

17 And the women who were her neighbors gave him a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi; and they called his name Oved: he is The Abba of Yishai, The Abba of Dawid.

18 Now these are the generations of Peretz: Peretz begat Hetzron,

19 And Hetzron begat Ram and Ram begat Amminadav,

20 And Amminadav begat Nachshon and Nachshon begat Salmon,

21 And Salmon begat Boaz and Boaz begat Oved,

22 And Oved begat Yishai and Yishai begat Dawid.

First Samuel-Shmuel Alef

To Our Forefathers Yisrael

- 1 Now there was a certain man of Ramathayim-Zophim, of Har Efrayim and his name was Elchanah, the son of Yeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephratite:
- 2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Channah and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Channah had no children.
- 3 And this man went up out of his city yearly to worship and to sacrifice to אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hofni and Pinchus, the kohanim of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, were there.
- 4 And when the time was that Elchanah made an offering, he gave to Peninnah his isha and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:
- 5 But to Channah he gave a double portion; for he loved Channah: but אֱלֹהֵינוּ had shut up her womb.
- 6 And her adversary also provoked and aggravated her, to make her anxious because אֱלֹהֵינוּ had shut up her womb.
- 7 And as he did so year by year, when she went up to the Bayit of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, so she provoked her; therefore she wept and did not eat.
- 8 Then said Elchanah her husband to her, Channah, why do you weep? And why do you eat nothing? Also why is your lev grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?
- 9 So Channah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh and after they had drunk. Now Eli the kohen sat upon a seat by a post of the Hekal of אֱלֹהֵינוּ .

10 And she was in bitterness of chayim and made tefillah to אֱלֹהִים and wept greatly.

11 And she vowed a vow and said, O אֱלֹהִים Tzevaot, if You will indeed look on the affliction of Your female eved and remember me and not forget Your female eved, but will give to Your female eved a male child, then I will give him to אֱלֹהִים all the yamim of his chayim and there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she continued making tefillah before אֱלֹהִים, that Eli watched her mouth.

13 Now Channah, she spoke in her lev; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she was drunk.

14 And Eli said to her, How long will you be drunk? Put away your wine from you.

15 And Channah answered and said, No, my master, I am a woman of a heavy ruach: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my chayim before אֱלֹהִים.

16 Count not your female eved as a daughter of Beliyaal: for out of the abundance of my complaints and grief have I spoken until now.

17 Then Eli answered and said, Go in shalom: and the Ahlohim of Yisrael grant you your request that you have asked of Him.

18 And she said, Let your female eved find chen in your sight. So the woman went her derech and did eat and her appearance was no longer sad. 19 And they rose up in the boker early and worshipped shachrit before אֱלֹהִים and returned and came to their bayit in Ramah: and Elchanah knew Channah his isha; and אֱלֹהִים remembered her request.

20 Therefore it came to pass, when the time had come about after Channah had conceived, that she bore a son and called his name Shmuel, saying, Because I have asked him from אֱלֹהִים.

21 And the man Elchanah and all his bayit, went up to offer to אֱלֹהִים the yearly sacrifice and his vow.

22 But Channah did not go up; for she said to her husband, I will not go up while the child is weaned, after that I will bring him, that he may appear before אֱלֹהִים and there stay le-olam-va-ed.

23 And Elchanah her husband said to her, Do what seems tov to you; stay here until you have nursed him; only אֱלֹהִים establish His Word. So the woman stayed and gave her son nursing until she weaned him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks and one ephah of flour and a bottle of wine and brought him to the Bayit of אֱלֹהִים in Shiloh: and the child was young.

25 And they killed a bull and brought the child to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my master, as your chayim lives, my master, I am the woman that stood by you here, making tefillah to אֱלֹהִים .

27 For this child I made tefillah; and אֱלֹהִים has given me my request which I have asked of Him:

28 Therefore also I have promised him to אֱלֹהִים ; as long as he lives he shall be given to אֱלֹהִים . And she worshipped אֱלֹהִים there.

2 And Channah made tefillah and said, My lev has gilah in אֱלֹהִים , my lev is exalted in אֱלֹהִים : my mouth is enlarged over my enemies; because I gilah in Your deliverance.

2 There is none kadosh as אֱלֹהִים : for there is none beside You: neither is there any Rock like our Ahlohim.

3 Talk no more so exceedingly proudly; let not arrogance come out of your mouth: for אֱלֹהִים is an El of da'at and by Him your actions are weighed.

4 The bows of the mighty men are broken and they that stumbled are girded with strength.

5 They that were full have sought work for lechem; and they that were hungry have ceased: Also the barren has born seven; and she that has many children has become feeble.

6 אֱלֹהִים kills and makes alive: He brings down to Sheol and brings up.

7 אֱלֹהִים makes poor and makes rich: He brings low and lifts up.

8 He raises up the poor out of the dust and lifts up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them with rulers and to make them inherit the kesay of tifereth: for the pillars of the earth are אֱלֹהִים 's and He has set the olam hazeh upon them.

9 He will guard the feet of His kidushim and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by his own strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of אֱלֹהִים shall be broken to pieces; out of the shamayim shall He thunder upon them: אֱלֹהִים shall judge the ends of the earth; and He shall give strength to His melech and exalt the position of His anointed.

11 And Elchanah went to Ramah to his bayit. And the child did serve before אֱלֹהִים in the presence of Eli the kohen.

12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belyaal; they knew not אֱלֹהִים .

13 And the kohen's custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the kohen's eved came, while the meat was cooking, with a three-pronged hook in his hand,

14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; so that all that the flesh-hook brought up the kohen took for himself. So this they did in Shiloh to all the Yisraelites that came there.

15 Also before they burned the fat, the kohen's eved came and said to the man that sacrificed, Give the meat for the kohen to roast; for he will not have cooked meat from you, but raw.

16 And if any man said to him, Let the fat burn first and then take as much as your being desires; then he would answer him, No; but you shall give it to me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Therefore the sin of the young men was very great before אֱלֹהִים : for men despised the offering of אֱלֹהִים.

18 But Shmuel served before אֱלֹהִים , being a child, dressed with a linen shoulder garment.

19 Moreover his eema made him a little coat and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elchanah and his isha and said, אֱלֹהִים give you zera of this woman for the promise that is given to אֱלֹהִים . And they went to their own home.

21 And אֱלֹהִים visited Channah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. And the child Shmuel grew before אֱלֹהִים .

22 Now Eli was very old and heard all that his sons did to kol Yisrael; and how they had relations with the women that assembled at the door of the Mishkan of the kehilla.

23 And he said to them, Why do you do such things? For I hear of your evil dealings from all the people.

24 No, my sons; for it is not a tov report that I hear: for you make אֱלֹהִים 's people to transgress.

25 If one man sins against another, the shophet shall render mishpat for him: but if a man sins against אֱלֹהִים , who shall help him? Nevertheless they listened not to the voice of their abba because אֱלֹהִים would kill them.

26 And the child Shmuel grew up and was in chen both with אֱלֹהִים and also with men.

27 And there came a man of Ahlohim to Eli and said to him, This says אלהים , Did I not plainly appear to the bayit of your abba, when they were in Mitzrayim in bondage to Pharaoh's bayit?

28 And didn't I choose him out of all the tribes of Yisrael to be My kohen, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, to wear a shoulder ephod before Me? And didn't I give to the bayit of your ahvot all the offerings made by fire by the children of Yisrael?

29 Why do you deal wrongly with My sacrifice and keep My offering, which I have commanded in My dwelling; and esteem your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Yisrael My people?

30 Therefore אלהים Ahlohim of Yisrael says, I said indeed that your bayit and the bayit of your ahvot, should have their halacha before Me le-olam-va-ed: but now אלהים said, Be it far from Me; for them that esteem Me I will esteem and they that despise Me shall be lightly esteemed.

31 See, the yamim come, that I will cut off your arm and the arm of your abba's bayit, that there shall not be an old man in your bayit.

32 And you shall see an enemy in My Dwelling Place, despite all the wealth which Ahlohim shall give Yisrael: and there shall not be an old man in your bayit le-olam-va-ed.

33 And any of the men of your bayit, whom I shall not cut off from My altar, shall still consume your eyes and grieve your lev: and all the increase of your bayit shall die in their youth.

34 And this shall be an ot to you, that what now comes upon your two sons, on Hofni and Pinchus; in one yom they shall die both of them.

35 And I will raise up for Myself a faithful Kohen, that shall do according to that which is in My lev and in My mind: and I will build Him a sure Bayit; and He shall have His halacha before My anointing le-olam-va-ed.

36 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left in your bayit shall come and crouch before him for a piece of silver and a piece of lechem and shall say, Put me, I ask you, into one of the kohanim's offices, that I may eat even a piece of lechem.

3 And the child Shmuel served before אֱלֹהִים and in front of Eli. And The Word of אֱלֹהִים was rare in those yamim; there was no open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli had lain down in his bed and his eyes began to grow dim, that he could not see;

3 And The Ohr of Ahlohim had not yet gone out in the Hekal of אֱלֹהִים, where the Ark of Ahlohim was and Shmuel was lying down ready to sleep;

4 And אֱלֹהִים called:Shmuel: and he answered, Hinayne.

5 And he ran to Eli and said, Hinayne; for you called me. And he said, I did not call you; go lie down again. And he went and laid down.

6 And אֱלֹהִים called yet again: Shmuel. And Shmuel arose and went to Eli and said, Hinayne; for you did call me. And he answered, I did not call you, my son; go lie down again.

7 Now Shmuel did not yet know אֱלֹהִים neither was The Word of אֱלֹהִים yet revealed to him.

8 And אֱלֹהִים called Shmuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli and said, Hinayne; for you did call me. And Eli then perceived that אֱלֹהִים had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said to Shmuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if He calls you, that you shall say, Speak, אֱלֹהִים; for Your eved hears. So Shmuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And אֵלִי came and stood and called as at the other times, Shmuel, Shmuel. Then Shmuel answered, Speak; for Your eved hears.

11 And אֵלִי said to Shmuel, See, I will do a thing in Yisrael, at which both ears of every one that hears shall tingle.

12 In that yom I will perform against Eli all things that I have spoken concerning his bayit: when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 For I have told him that I will judge his bayit le-olam-va-ed for the iniquity which he knows about; because his sons made themselves vile and reviled the people and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn to the bayit of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli's bayit shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering le-olam-va-ed.

15 And Shmuel lay until the boker and opened the doors of the Bayit of אֵלִי . And Shmuel feared to show Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Shmuel and said, Shmuel, my son. And he answered, Hinayne.

17 And he said, What is the thing that אֵלִי has said to you? I ask you, hide it not from me: Ahlohim do all He has showed you and even more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that He said to you.

18 And Shmuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is from אֵלִי : let Him do what seems tov to Him. 19 And Shmuel grew and אֵלִי was with him and he did not ignore even one of His Words. 20 And kol Yisrael from Dan even to Be-er-Sheva knew that Shmuel was established to be a navi of אֵלִי . 21 And אֵלִי appeared again in Shiloh: for אֵלִי revealed Himself to Shmuel in Shiloh by The Word of אֵלִי .

4 And the word of Shmuel came to kol Yisrael.

Now Yisrael went out against the Plishtim to battle and camped beside Even-Ezer: and the Plishtim camped in Aphek.

2 And the Plishtim put themselves in battle against Yisrael: and when they joined the battle, Yisrael was smitten before the Plishtim: and they killed of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 And when the people had come into the camp, the zechanim of Yisrael said, Why has אֱלֹהֵינוּ smitten us today before the Plishtim? Let us get the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהֵינוּ out of Shiloh to us, so that when it comes among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to Shiloh, that they might bring from there the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהֵינוּ Tzevaot, who dwells between the cheruvim: and the two sons of Eli, Hofni and Pinchus, were there with the Ark of the Testimony of Ahlohim.

5 And when the Ark of the Testimony of אֱלֹהֵינוּ came into the camp, kol Yisrael shouted with a great shout, so that the earth shook.

6 And when the Plishtim heard the noise of the shout, they said, What means the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Ivrim? And they understood that the Ark of אֱלֹהֵינוּ had come into the camp.

7 And the Plishtim were afraid, for they said, Ahlohim has come into the camp. And they said, Woe to us! For there has not been such a thing before.

8 Woe to us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Ahlohim ? These are the Ahlohim that smote the Mitzrim with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong and behave yourselves like men, O you Plishtim, that you be not avadim to the Ivrim, as they have been to you: act like men and fight.

10 And the Plishtim fought and Yisrael was smitten and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell in Yisrael thirty thousand foot soldiers.

11 And the Ark of Ahlohim was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hofni and Pinchus, were killed.

12 And there ran a man of Benyamin out of the army and came to Shiloh the same yom with his clothes torn and with dust upon his head.

13 And when he came, see, Eli sat upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his lev trembled over the Ark of Ahlohim. And when the man came into the city and told it to them, the entire city shouted out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What means the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see.

16 And the man said to Eli, I am he that came out of the army and I fled here today out of the battle. And he said, What is going on there, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Yisrael has fled from the Plishtim and there has been also a great slaughter among the people and your two sons also, Hofni and Pinchus, are dead and the Ark of Ahlohim has been taken.

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the Ark of Ahlohim, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate and his neck broke and he died: for he was an old man and very heavy. And he had been shophet in Yisrael for forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Pinchus's isha, was with child, near to be delivered: and when she heard the news that the Ark of Ahlohim was taken and that her abba-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her labor pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said to her, Fear not; for you have born a son. But she answered nothing and neither did she care.

21 And she named the child Ichavod, saying, The tifereth has departed from Yisrael: because the Ark of Ahlohim was taken and because of her abba-in-law and her husband.

22 And she said, The tifereth is departed from Yisrael: for the Ark of Ahlohim is taken.

5 And the Plishtim took the Ark of Ahlohim and brought it from Even-Ezer to Ashdod.

2 When the Plishtim took the Ark of Ahlohim, they brought it into the bayit of Dagon and set it by Dagon.

3 And when those of Ashdod arose early in the boker, see, Dagon was thrown down upon his face to the earth before the Ark of אֱלֹהִים .And they took Dagon and set him back in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the next boker, see, Dagon was thrown down upon his face to the ground before the Ark of אֱלֹהִים ; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the stump of Dagon was left to him.

5 Therefore neither the kohanim of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's bayit, step on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this yom.

6 But the Hand of אֱלֹהִים was heavy upon them of Ashdod and He destroyed them and smote them with tumors, even Ashdod and the borders of it.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael shall not stay with us: for His hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our ahlohim.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the rulers of the Plishtim to them and said, What shall we do with the Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael? And they answered, Let the Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael be moved to Gat. And they carried the Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael there.

9 And it was so, that, after they had removed it, the Hand of אֱלֹהִים was against the city with a very great destruction: and He smote the men of the city, both small and great and they had tumors in their private parts.

10 Therefore they sent the Ark of Ahlohim to Ekron. And it came to pass, as the Ark of Ahlohim came to Ekron, that the Ekronites shouted out, saying, They have brought here the Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael to us, to kill us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the rulers of the Plishtim and said, Send away the Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael and let it go again to its own place, that it kill us not and kill not our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; the hand of Ahlohim was very heavy there.

12 And the men that did not die were smitten with the tumors: and the cry of the city went up to the shamayim.

6 And the Ark of אֱלֹהִים was in the country of the Plishtim seven chodashem.

2 And the Plishtim called for their kohanim and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the Ark of אֱלֹהִים ? Tell us by what means shall we send it to its place.

3 And they said, If you send away the Ark of the Ahlohim of Yisrael, send it not away empty; you shall surely bring Him a trespass offering: then you shall be healed and it shall be known to you why His hand is not turned aside from you.

4 Then said they, What shall be the trespass offering that we shall return to Him? They answered, Five golden tumors and five golden mice, according to the number of masters of the Plishtim: for one plague was on all of you and on your masters.

5 And you shall make images of your tumors and images of your mice that ruin the land; and you shall give tifereth to the Ahlohim of Yisrael: perhaps then He will lighten His hand from off of you and from off of your ahlohim and from off of your land.

6 Why then do you harden your levavot, as the Mitzrim and Pharaoh hardened their levavot? When He had done wonderful things among them, did they not let the people go and they departed?

7 Now therefore make a new cart and take two milking cows, which have never been yoked and tie the cows to the cart and bring their calves home away from them:

8 And take the Ark of אֲרֹן and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which you return to Him for a trespass offering, in a chest by the side of it; and send it away, that it may go.

9 And see, if it goes up to its own border to Beth-Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it was not His hand that smote us; it was an accident that happened to us.

10 And the men did so; and took two milking cows and tied them to the cart and shut up their calves at home:

11 And they laid the Ark of אֲרֹן upon the cart and the chest with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors.

12 And the cows went immediately to the derech of Beth-Shemesh and went along the highway, bellowing as they went and turned not aside to the right hand, or to the left; and the rulers of the Plishtim went after them to the border of Beth-Shemesh.

13 And those of Beth-Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes and saw the Ark and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the cart came into the field of Yahusha, a Beth-Shemite and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they split the wood of the cart and offered the cows as a burnt offering to אֱלֹהִים.

15 And the Lewiym took down the Ark of אֱלֹהִים and the chest that was with it, in which the jewels of gold were and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same yom to אֱלֹהִים .

16 And when the five masters of the Plishtim had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same yom.

17 And these are the golden tumors which the Plishtim returned for a trespass offering to אֱלֹהִים ; for Ashdod one, for Azah one, for Ashkelon one, for Gat one, for Ekron one;

18 And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Plishtim belonging to the five masters, both of fortified cities and of the country villages, even to the great stone of Avel, where they set down the Ark of אֱלֹהִים : which stone remains to this yom in the field of Yahusha, the Beth-Shemite.

19 And He smote the men of Beth-Shemesh because they had looked into the Ark of אֱלֹהִים , even He smote of the people five thousand seventy men: and the people lamented because אֱלֹהִים had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-Shemesh said, Who is able to stand before this kadosh אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim ? And who shall carry up from us the Ark?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiryath-Yearim, saying, The Plishtim have brought again the Ark of אֱלֹהִים ; come down and take it to you.

7 And the men of Kiryath-Yearim came and got the Ark of אֱלֹהִים and brought it into the bayit of Aviniadav on the hill and set apart El-Azar his son to keep the Ark of אֱלֹהִים .

2 And it came to pass, while the Ark stayed in Kiryath-Yearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all Beit Yisrael yearned after אֱלֹהִים .

3 And Shmuel spoke to all Beit Yisrael, saying, If you do teshuvah to אֱלֹהִים with all your levavot, then put away the strange ahlohim and Ashtaroth from among you and prepare your levavot for אֱלֹהִים and serve Him only: then He will deliver you out of the hand of the Plishtim.

4 Then the children of Yisrael did put away the Ba'alim and Ashtaroth and served אֱלֹהִים only.

5 And Shmuel said, Gather kol Yisrael to Mitzpah and I will make tefillah for you to אֱלֹהִים .

6 And they gathered together to Mitzpah and drew mayim and poured it out before אֱלֹהִים and fasted on that yom and said there, We have sinned against אֱלֹהִים .And Shmuel was shophet over the children of Yisrael in Mitzpah.

7 And when the Plishtim heard that the children of Yisrael were gathered together to Mitzpah, the rulers of the Plishtim went up against Yisrael. And when the children of Yisrael heard it, they were afraid of the Plishtim.

8 And the children of Yisrael said to Shmuel, Don't stop crying to אֱלֹהִים our Ahlohim for us, that He will save us out of the hand of the Plishtim.

9 And Shmuel took a suckling lamb and offered it for a burnt offering wholly to אֱלֹהִים : and Shmuel shouted to אֱלֹהִים for Yisrael; and אֱלֹהִים heard him.

10 And as Shmuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Plishtim drew near to battle against Yisrael: but אֱלֹהִים thundered with a great thunder on that yom upon the Plishtim and troubled them; and they were smitten before Yisrael.

11 And the men of Yisrael went out of Mitzpah and pursued the Plishtim and smote them, until they came under Beth-Kar.

12 Then Shmuel took a stone and set it between Mitzpah and Shen and called the name of it Even-Ezer, saying, So far has אֱלֹהִים helped us.

13 So the Plishtim were subdued and they came no more into the borders of Yisrael: and the Hand of אֱלֹהִים was against the Plishtim all the yamim of Shmuel.

14 And the cities which the Plishtim had taken from Yisrael were restored to Yisrael, from Ekron even to Gat; and all its borders did Yisrael deliver out of the hands of the Plishtim. And there was shalom between Yisrael and the Amorites.

15 And Shmuel was shophet in Yisrael all the yamim of his chayim.

16 And he went from year to year and made rounds to Bethel and Gilgal and Mitzpah and was shophet in Yisrael in all those places.

17 And he returned to Ramah; for there was his bayit; and there he was also the shophet in Yisrael; and there he built an altar to אֱלֹהִים .

8 And it came to pass, when Shmuel was old, that he made his sons the shophtim over Yisrael.

2 Now the name of his bachor was Yoel; and the name of his second, Aviyah: and they were shophtim in Be-er-Sheva.

3 And his sons walked not in his halacha, but turned aside after gain and took bribes and perverted mishpat.

4 Then all the zechanim of Yisrael gathered themselves together and came to Shmuel to Ramah,

5 And said to him, See, you are old and your sons walk not in your halachot: now make us a melech to judge us like all the pagan goyim.

6 But the thing displeased Shmuel, when they said, Give us a melech to judge us. And Shmuel made tefillah to אֱלֹהִים .

7 And אֱלֹהִים said to Shmuel, Shema to the voice of the people in all that they say to you: for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works that they have done since the yom that I brought them up out of Mitzrayim even to this yom, forsaking Me and serving other ahlohim, so do they also to you.

9 Now therefore listen to their voice: but sternly warn them and show them the kind of melech that shall reign over them.

10 And Shmuel told all the Words of אֱלֹהִים to the people that asked for this melech from him.

11 And he said, This will be the kind of melech that shall reign over you: He will take your sons and appoint them for himself, for his mirkavot and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his mirkavot.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands and captains over fifties; and will set them to plough his ground and to reap his harvest and to make his instruments of war and instruments for his mirkavot.

13 And he will take your daughters to be perfume makers and to be cooks and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields and your vineyards and your oliveyards, even the best of them and give them to his avadim.

15 And he will take the ma'aser of your zera and of your vineyards and give it to his officers and to his avadim.

16 And he will take your male avadim and your female avadim and your best young men and your donkeys and put them to his own work.

17 He will take the ma'aser of your sheep: and you shall be his avadim.

18 And you shall cry out in that yom because of your melech that you have chosen; and אֱלֹהֵינוּ will not hear you in that yom.

19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Shmuel; and they said, No; but we still want a melech over us;

20 That we also may be like all the goyim, and that our melech may judge us and go out before us and fight our battles.

21 And Shmuel heard all the words of the people and he repeated them in the ears of אֱלֹהֵינוּ .

22 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Shmuel, Shema to their voice and make them a melech. And Shmuel said to the men of Yisrael, Go home every man to his city.

9 Now there was a man of Benyamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Aviel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphyiah, a Benyamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Shaul, a choice young man and handsome: and there was not among the children of Yisrael a better looking person than him: from his shoulders and upward he was taller than any of the people.

3 And the donkeys of Kish Shaul's abba were lost. And Kish said to Shaul his son, Take now one of the avadim with you and arise, go seek the donkeys.

4 And he passed through Har Efrayim and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim and they were not there: and he passed through the land of the Benyamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they had come to the land of Zuph, Shaul said to his eved that was with him, Come and let us return; lest my abba stop caring for the donkeys and get worried about us.

6 And he said to him, See now, there is in this city a man of Ahlohim and he is an honorable man; all that he says comes surely to pass: now let us go there; perhaps he can show us the derech that we should go.

7 Then said Shaul to his eved, But, see, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the lechem is gone in our vessels and there is not a present to bring to the man of Ahlohim: what do we have?

8 And the eved answered Shaul again and said, See, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of Ahlohim, to tell us our derech.

9 In the past in Yisrael, when a man went to inquire of Ahlohim, he spoke like this, Come and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a navi used to be called a seer.

10 Then said Shaul to his eved, Well said; come, let us go. So they went to the city where the man of Ahlohim was.

11 And as they went up the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw mayim and said to them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them and said, He is; see, he is in front of you: hurry now, for he came today to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people today in the high place:

13 As soon as you come into the city, you shall find him immediately, before he goes up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he comes because he does the bracha upon the sacrifice; and afterwards they eat that are invited. Now therefore go; for about this time you shall find him.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they had come into the city, see, Shmuel came out toward them, going up to the high place.

15 Now אִיִּזְבַּב had told Shmuel in his ear the yom before Shaul came, saying,

16 Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benyamin and you shall anoint him to be leader over My people Yisrael, that he may save My people out of the hand of the Plishtim: for I have looked upon My people because their cry has come to Me.

17 And when Shmuel saw Shaul, אִיִּזְבַּב said to him, See the man of whom I spoke to you! He shall reign over My people.

18 Then Shaul drew near to Shmuel in the gate and said, Tell me, please, where the seer's bayit is.

19 And Shmuel answered Shaul and said, I am the seer: go up before me to the high place; for you shall eat with me today and tomorrow I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your lev.

20 And as for your donkeys that were lost three yamim ago, set not your mind on them; for they are found. And for whom is all the desire of Yisrael? Is it not on you and all your abba's bayit?

21 And Shaul answered and said, Am not I a Benyamite, of the smallest of the tribes of Yisrael? And my mishpacha is the least of all the mishpachot of the tribe of Benyamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?

22 And Shmuel took Shaul and his eved and brought them into the hall and made them sit in the best place among them that were invited, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Shmuel said to the cook, Bring the portion that I gave you, of which I said to you, Set it aside.

24 And the cook took up the thigh and that which was upon it and set it before Shaul. And Shmuel said, See that which is left! Set it before you and eat: for this time has it been kept for you since I said, I have invited the people. So Shaul did eat with Shmuel that yom.

25 And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Shmuel communed with Shaul upon the top of the bayit.

26 And they rose early: and it came to pass about the dawning of the yom, that Shmuel called Shaul to the top of the bayit, saying, Come up, that I may send you on your derech. And Shaul arose and they went out both of them, he and Shmuel, outside.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Shmuel said to Shaul, Ask your eved to go on ahead of us and he went on, but stay here for a while, that I may show you The Word of Ahlohim.

10 Then Shmuel took a flask of oil and poured it upon his head and kissed him and said, Is it not because אִנְיָא has anointed you to be leader over his inheritance?

2 When you have departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's tomb at the border of Benyamin at Tzelzah; and they will say to you, The donkeys which you went to seek are found: and, see, your abba has stopped caring about the donkeys and worries about you, saying, What shall I do about my son?

3 Then shall you go on forward from there and you shall come to the plain of Tavor and there shall meet you three men going up to Ahlohim to Beth-El, one carrying three young goats and another carrying three loaves of lechem and another carrying a skin of wine:

4 And they will greet you and give you two loaves of lechem; which you shall receive from their hands.

5 After that you shall come to the hill of Ahlohim, where is the watch-post of the Plishtim: and it shall come to pass, when you are come there to the city, that you shall meet a group of neviim coming down from the high place with a stringed instrument and a flute and a pipe and a harp, before them; and they shall prophesy:

6 And The Ruach of אִיִּי will come upon you and you shall prophesy with them and shall be turned into another man.

7 And let it be, when these signs have come to you, that you do whatever your hand finds to do; for Ahlohim is with you.

8 And you shall go down before me to Gilgal; and, see, I will come down to you, to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice the sacrifices of the shalom offerings: seven yamim shall you stay, until I come to you and show you what you shall do.

9 And it was so, that when he had left Shmuel, Ahlohim gave him another lev: and all those signs came to pass that yom.

10 And when they came there to the hill, see, a group of neviim met him; and The Ruach of Ahlohim came upon him and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him from before saw that, see, he prophesied among the neviim, then the people said one to another, What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Shaul also among the neviim?

12 And a man of the same place answered and said, But who is their abba? Therefore it became a mishle, Is Shaul also among the neviim?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Shaul's uncle said to him and to his eved, Where did you go? And he said, To seek the donkeys: and when we saw that they were nowhere, we came to Shmuel.

15 And Shaul's uncle said, Tell me, what did Shmuel say to you?

16 And Shaul said to his uncle, He told us plainly that the donkeys were found. But of the matter of the malchut, about which Shmuel spoke, he told him not.

17 And Shmuel called the people together to אִיִּזְרָאֵל at Mitzpah;

18 And said to the children of Yisrael, This says אִיִּזְרָאֵל Ahlohim of Yisrael, I brought up Yisrael out of Mitzrayim and delivered you out of the hand of the Mitzrim and out of the hand of all the malchutim and from them that oppressed you:

19 And you have this yom rejected your Ahlohim, who Himself saved you out of all your adversities and your tribulations; and you have said to Him, No, but set a melech over us. Now therefore present yourselves before אִיִּזְרָאֵל by your tribes and by your thousands.

20 And when Shmuel had caused all the tribes of Yisrael to come near, the tribe of Benyamin was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benyamin to come near by their mishpachot, the mishpacha of Matri was taken and Shaul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they inquired of אִיִּזְרָאֵל further, if the man should yet come there. And אִיִּזְרָאֵל answered, See, he has hidden himself among the baggage.

23 And they ran and got him there: and when he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Shmuel said to all the people, See the man whom אִי־אִי has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, Long live the melech!

25 Then Shmuel told the people the manner of the malchut and wrote it in a scroll and laid it up before אִי־אִי .And Shmuel sent all the people away, every man to his bayit.

26 And Shaul also went home to Givah; and there went with him a band of men, whose levavot Ahlohim had touched.

27 But the children of Beliyaal said, How shall this man save us? And they despised him and brought him no presents. But he held his silence.

11 Then Nachash the Ammonite came up and camped against Yavesh-Gilad: and all the men of Yavesh said to Nachash, Make a brit with us and we will serve you.

2 And Nachash the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a brit with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes and lay it for a reproach upon kol Yisrael.

3 And the zechanim of Yavesh said to him, Give us seven yamim to rest, that we may send messengers to all the borders of Yisrael: and then, if there is no man to save us, we will come out to you.

4 Then came the messengers to Givat-Shaul and told the news in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voices and wept.

5 And, see, Shaul came behind the herd out of the field; and Shaul said, What is wrong with the people that they weep? And they told him the news of the men of Yavesh.

6 And The Ruach of Ahlohim came upon Shaul when he heard the news and his anger was lit greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of cattle and cut them in pieces and sent them throughout all the borders of Yisrael by the hands of messengers, saying, Whoever comes not forth with Shaul and Shmuel to battle, so shall it be done to his cattle. And the fear of אֲרָאָה fell on the people and they came out in one accord.

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Yisrael were three hundred thousand and the men of Yahudah thirty thousand.

9 And they said to the messengers that came, This shall you say to the men of Yavesh-Gilad, Tomorrow, by the time the shemesh is hot, you shall have help. And the messengers came and showed it to the men of Yavesh; and they had simcha.

10 Therefore the men of Yavesh said, Tomorrow we will come out to meet you and you shall do with us all that seems tov to you.

11 And it was so on the next yom, that Shaul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the boker watch and killed the Ammonites until the heat of the yom: and it came to pass, that those who remained were scattered, so that not even two of them were left together.

12 And the people said to Shmuel, Who is he that said, Shall Shaul reign over us? Bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Shaul said, There shall not a man be put to death this yom: for today אֲרָאָה has brought deliverance in Yisrael.

14 Then said Shmuel to the people, Come and let us go to Gilgal and renew the malchut there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Shaul melech before אֲרָאָה in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed the sacrifices of shalom offerings before אֱלֹהֵינוּ ; and there Shaul and all the men of Yisrael rejoiced greatly.

12 And Shmuel said to kol Yisrael, See, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me and have made a melech over you.

2 And now, see, the melech walks before you: and I am old and gray-headed; and, see, my sons are with you: and I have had my halacha before you from my childhood to this yom.

3 See, here I am; witness against me before אֱלֹהֵינוּ and before His anointed: whose cattle have I taken? Or, whose donkey have I taken? Or, whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Or, from whose hand have I received any bribe to blind my eyes with it? If so I will restore it you.

4 And they said, You have not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither have you taken anything from any man's hand.

5 And he said to them, אֱלֹהֵינוּ is witness against you and His anointed is witness this yom, that you have not found anything in my hand. And they answered, He is a witness.

6 And Shmuel said to the people, It is אֱלֹהֵינוּ that advanced Moshe and Aharon and that brought your ahvot up out of the land of Mitzrayim.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may rehearse with you before אֱלֹהֵינוּ all the tzadik acts of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, which He did to you and to your ahvot.

8 When Yaakov had come into Mitzrayim and your ahvot cried out to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, then אֱלֹהֵינוּ sent Moshe and Aharon, who brought forth your ahvot out of Mitzrayim and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgot אֱלֹהֵינוּ their Ahlohim, He sold them into the hand of Sisra, leader of the host of Hatzor and into the hand of the Plishtim and into the hand of the melech of Moav and they fought against them.

10 And they cried out to אֱלֹהִים and said, We have sinned because we have forsaken אֱלֹהִים and have served the Ba'alim and Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies and we will serve you.

11 And אֱלֹהִים sent Yeruvaal and Bedan and Yiphtach and Shmuel and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side and you dwelt safely.

12 And when you saw that Nachash the melech of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, No; but a melech shall reign over us: when אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim was your melech.

13 Now therefore see the melech whom you have chosen and whom you have desired! And, see, אֱלֹהִים has set a melech over you.

14 If you will fear אֱלֹהִים and serve Him and obey His voice and not rebel against the mitzvoth of אֱלֹהִים , then shall both you and also the melech that reigns over you continue following אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim:

15 But if you will not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים , but rebel against the commandment of אֱלֹהִים , then shall the Hand of אֱלֹהִים be against you, as it was against your ahvot.

16 Now therefore stand and see this great thing, which אֱלֹהִים will do before your eyes.

17 Is it not Shavuot wheat harvest today? I will call to אֱלֹהִים and He shall send thunder and rain; that you may perceive and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of אֱלֹהִים , in asking for a melech.

18 So Shmuel called to אֱלֹהִים ; and אֱלֹהִים sent thunder and rain that yom: and all the people greatly feared אֱלֹהִים and Shmuel.

19 And all the people said to Shmuel, Make tefillah for your avadim to אלהים your Ahlohim, that we die not: for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask for a melech. 20 And Shmuel said to the people, Fear not: you have done all this wickedness: yet turn not aside from following אלהים, but serve אלהים with all your lev;

21 And turn not aside: for then you would go after worthless things, which cannot profit nor deliver; for they are worthless.

22 For אלהים will not forsake His people for His great Name's sake: because it has pleased אלהים to make you His people.

23 Moreover as for me, Ahlohim forbid that I should sin against אלהים in ceasing to make tefillah for you: but I will teach you the tov and the correct halacha:

24 Only fear אלהים and serve Him in emet with all your lev: for consider how great things He has done for you.

25 But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your melech.

13 Shaul reigned one year; and when he had reigned two years over Yisrael,

2 Shaul chose three thousand men of Yisrael; of which two thousand were with Shaul in Michmash and in Har Bethel and a thousand were with Yonathan in Givah of Benyamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent.

3 And Yonathan smote the watch-post of the Plishtim that was in Geva and the Plishtim heard of it. And Shaul blew the shofar throughout all the land, saying, Let the Ivrim listen.

4 And kol Yisrael heard that Shaul had smitten a watch-post of the Plishtim and that Yisrael also was held in contempt by the Plishtim. And the people were called together by Shaul to Gilgal.

5 And the Plishtim gathered themselves together to fight with Yisrael, thirty thousand mirkavot and six thousand horsemen and people as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up and camped in Michmash, eastward of Beth-Aven.

6 When the men of Yisrael saw that they were in trouble, for the people were distressed, then the people did hide themselves in caves and in thickets and in rocks and in high places and in pits.

7 And some of the Ivrim went over the Yarden River to the land of Gad and Gilad. As for Shaul, he was yet in Gilgal and all the people followed him trembling.

8 And he tarried seven yamim, according to the set time that Shmuel had appointed: but Shmuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Shaul said, Bring here a burnt offering to me and shalom offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, see, Shmuel came; and Shaul went out to meet him, that he might greet him.

11 And Shmuel said, What have you done? And Shaul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me and that you came not within the yamim appointed and that the Plishtim gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 Therefore said I, The Plishtim will come down now upon me to Gilgal and I have not made supplication to אלהים : I forced myself therefore and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Shmuel said to Shaul, You have done foolishly: you have not kept the commandment of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Ahlohim, which He commanded you: for now would אֱלֹהֶיךָ have established your malchut upon Yisrael le-olam-va-ed.

14 But now your malchut shall not continue: אֱלֹהֶיךָ has sought Himself a man after His own lev and אֱלֹהֶיךָ has commanded him to be the leader over His people because you have not kept that which אֱלֹהֶיךָ commanded you.

15 And Shmuel arose and got up from Gilgal to Givah of Benjamin. And Shaul numbered the people that were present with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Shaul and Yonathan his son and the people that were present with them, stayed in Givah of Benjamin: but the Plishtim camped in Michmash.

17 And the spoilers came out of the camp of the Plishtim in three troops: one troop turned to the derech that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual:

18 And another troop turned the derech to Beth-Horon: and another troop turned to the derech of the border that looks to the Valley of Zevoim toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was no blacksmith found throughout all the land of Yisrael: for the Plishtim said, Lest the Ivrim make them swords, or spears:

20 But all the Yisraelites went down to the Plishtim, to sharpen every man his sickle, ploughshare and his forks and his axe and his mattock.

21 Yet they had a broad file for the mattocks and for the coulters and for the forks and for the axes and to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the yom of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Shaul and Yonathan: but with Shaul and with Yonathan his son they were found.

23 And the watch-post of the Plishtim went out to the passage of Michmash.

14 Now it came to pass upon a yom, that Yonathan the son of Shaul said to the young man that bore his armor, Come and let us go over to the Plishtims' watch-post, that is on the other side. But he told not his abba.

2 And Shaul stayed in the outskirts of Givah under a pomegranate eytz, which is in Migron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men;

3 And Achiyah, the son of Achituv, Ichavod's brother, the son of Pinchus, the son of Eli, אִיִּיִּי 's kohen in Shiloh, was girded with a ephod shoulder garment. And the people knew not that Yonathan had gone.

4 And between the passages, by which Yonathan sought to go over to the Plishtims' watch-post, there was a sharp rock on the one side and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez and the name of the other Seneh.

5 One edge was on the north over against Michmash and the other south over against Givah.

6 And Yonathan said to the young man that bore his armor, Come and let us go over to the watch-post of those not in brit-milah: it may be that אִיִּיִּי does work for us: for there is no limit for אִיִּיִּי to save by many, or by just a few.

7 And his armor-bearer said to him, Do all that is in your lev: turn and see, that I am with you according to your lev.

8 Then said Yonathan, See, we will pass over to these men and we will reveal ourselves to them.

9 If they say this to us, Stay until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place and will not go up to them.

10 But if they say this, Come up to us; then we will go up: for אִי־אִי has delivered them into our hand: and this shall be an ot to us.

11 And both of them revealed themselves to the watch-post of the Plishtim: and the Plishtim said, See, the Ivrim come forth out of the holes where they had hidden themselves.

12 And the men of the watch-post answered Yonathan and his armor-bearer and said, Come up to us and we will show you something. And Yonathan said to his armor-bearer, Come up after me: for אִי־אִי has delivered them into the hand of Yisrael.

13 And Yonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet and his armor-bearer after him: and they fell before Yonathan and his armor-bearer and were killed.

14 And that first slaughter, which Yonathan and his armor-bearer made, was about twenty men, within about a half acre of land, which a yoke of cattle usually plows.

15 And there was trembling in the camp, in the field and among all the people: the watch-post and the invaders, they also trembled, so that the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Shaul in Givah of Benjamin looked; and, see, the multitude melted away and they went away very confused.

17 Then said Shaul to the people that were with him, Count and see who is gone from us. And when they had counted, see, Yonathan and his armor-bearer were not there.

18 And Shaul said to Achiyah, Bring here the Ark of Ahlohim. For the Ark of Ahlohim was at that time with the children of Yisrael.

19 And it came to pass, while Shaul talked to the kohen, that the noise that was in the camp of the Plishtim went on and increased: and Shaul said to the kohen, Withdraw your hand.

20 And Shaul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves and they came to the battle: and, see, every man's sword was against his fellow and there was a very great confusion.

21 Moreover the Ivrim that were with the Plishtim before that time, who went up with them into the camp from the country all around, even they also turned to be with the Yisraelites who were with Shaul and Yonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Yisrael which had hidden themselves in Har Efrayim, when they heard that the Plishtim fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So אִרְיָאָה saved Yisrael that yom: and the battle moved to Beth-Aven.

24 And the men of Yisrael were distressed that yom: for Shaul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eats any food until evening, that I may be avenged on my enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all those of the land came to a forest; and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people had come into the forest, see, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Yonathan heard not that his abba charged the people with the oath: therefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were brightened.

28 Then answered one of the people and said, Your abba strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eats any food this yom. And the people were weak.

29 Then said Yonathan, My abba has troubled the land: see, I ask you, how my eyes have been brightened because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much better, if the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies that they found? For would there not have been a much greater slaughter among the Plishtim?

31 And they smote the Plishtim that yom from Michmash to Ayalon: and the people were very weak.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil and took sheep and cattle and calves and killed them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the dahm.

33 Then they told Shaul, saying, See, the people sin against אֱלֹהֵינוּ , in that they eat with the dahm. And he said, You have transgressed: roll a great stone to me this yom.

34 And Shaul said, Disperse yourselves among the people and say to them, Bring me here every man his cattle and every man his sheep and kill them here and eat; and sin not against אֱלֹהֵינוּ in eating with the dahm. And all the people brought every man his cattle with him that lyla and killed them there.

35 And Shaul built an altar to אֱלֹהֵינוּ : this was the first altar that he built to אֱלֹהֵינוּ .

36 And Shaul said, Let us go down after the Plishtim by lyla and spoil them until the boker ohr and let us not leave a man of them alive. And they said, Do whatever seems tov to you. Then said the kohen, Let us draw near here to Ahlohim 37 And Shaul asked counsel of Ahlohim, Shall I go down after the Plishtim? Will you deliver them into the hand of Yisrael? But he answered him not that yom.

38 And Shaul said, Draw near here, all you heads of the people: and know and see what this sin has been this yom.

39 For, as אֱלֹהִים lives, who saves Yisrael, though it be in Yonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he to kol Yisrael, Be on one side and I and Yonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said to Shaul, Do what seems tov to you.

41 Therefore Shaul said to אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, Give me a perfect lot. And Shaul and Yonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Shaul said, Cast lots between me and Yonathan my son. And Yonathan was taken.

43 Then Shaul said to Yonathan, Tell me what you have done. And Yonathan told him and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand and see, I must die.

44 And Shaul answered, Ahlohim do so and more also: for you shall surely die, Yonathan.

45 And the people said to Shaul, Shall Yonathan die, who has brought this great deliverance in Yisrael? Ahlohim forbid: as אֱלֹהִים lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has worked with Ahlohim this yom. So the people rescued Yonathan, so that he did not die.

46 Then Shaul stopped from following the Plishtim: and the Plishtim went to their own place.

47 So Shaul took the malchut over Yisrael and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moav and against the children of Ammon and against Edom and against the melechim of Tzovah and against the Plishtim: and wherever he turned, he troubled them.

48 And he gathered an army and smote the Amalekites and delivered Yisrael out of the hands of those that plundered them.

49 Now the sons of Shaul were Yonathan and Ishvi and Melchi-Shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the bechora Merav and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Shaul's isha was Achinoam, the daughter of Achimaatz: and the name of the leader of his army was Avner, the son of Ner, Shaul's uncle.

51 And Kish was The Abba of Shaul; and Ner The Abba of Avner was the son of Aviel.

52 And there was heavy war against the Plishtim all the yamim of Shaul: and when Shaul saw any strong man, or any brave man, he took him for himself.

15 Shmuel also said to Shaul, אִתָּךְ sent me to anoint you to be melech over His people, over Yisrael: now therefore listen to the voice of the Words of אִתָּךְ .

2 This said אִתָּךְ Tzevaot, I remember that which Amalek did to Yisrael, how he laid wait for him in the derech, when he came up from Mitzrayim.

3 Now go and smite Amalek and utterly destroy all that they have and spare them not; but kill both man and woman, infant and the nursing, cattle and sheep, camel and donkey.

4 And Shaul gathered the people together and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen and ten thousand men of Yahudah.

5 And Shaul came to a city of Amalek and laid wait in the valley.

6 And Shaul said to the Kenites, Go, depart, get away from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for you showed chesed to all the children of Yisrael, when they came up out of Mitzrayim. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Shaul smote the Amalekites from Havilah until you come to Shur, that is over against Mitzrayim.

8 And he took Agag the melech of the Amalekites alive and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Shaul and the people spared Agag, along with the best of the sheep and of the cattle and of the fatlings and the lambs and all that was tov and would not utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and useless, that they destroyed utterly.

10 Then came The Word of אלהים to Shmuel, saying,

11 I regret that I have set up Shaul to be melech: for he is turned back from following Me and has not performed My orders. And it grieved Shmuel; and he cried to אלהים all lyla.

12 And when Shmuel rose early to meet Shaul in the boker, it was told Shmuel, saying, Shaul came to Carmel and, see, he set up a monument and has gone out and moved on and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Shmuel came to Shaul: and Shaul said to him, Yev-er-ech-echah אלהים : I have performed the order of אלהים .

14 And Shmuel said, What means then this bleating of the sheep in my ears and the bellowing of the cattle which I hear?

15 And Shaul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep and cattle, to sacrifice to אלהים your Ahlohim; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Shmuel said to Shaul, Stay and I will tell you what אלהים has said to me this lyla. And he said to him, Go ahead speak.

17 And Shmuel said, When you were little in your own sight, were you not made the head of the tribes of Yisrael and אֱלֹהִים anointed you melech over kol Yisrael?

18 And אֱלֹהִים sent you on a journey and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners, the Amalekites and fight against them until they are consumed.

19 Why then did you not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים , but did jump upon the spoil and did evil in the sight of אֱלֹהִים ?

20 And Shaul said to Shmuel, But yes, I have obeyed the voice of אֱלֹהִים and have gone on the derech that אֱלֹהִים sent me and have brought Agag the melech of Amalek and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and cattle, the best of the things that should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim in Gilgal.

22 And Shmuel said, Has אֱלֹהִים as great a delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of אֱלֹהִים? See, to obey is better than sacrifice and to hear than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry. Because you have rejected The Word of אֱלֹהִים, He has also rejected you from being melech.

24 And Shaul said to Shmuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the order of אֱלֹהִים and your words: because I feared the people and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I beg you, pardon my sin, help me make teshuvah again, that I may worship אֱלֹהִים .

26 And Shmuel said to Shaul, I will not make teshuvah with you: for you have rejected The Word of אֱלֹהִים and אֱלֹהִים has rejected you from being melech over kol Yisrael.

27 And as Shmuel turned around to go away, he laid hold upon the robe of his mantle and it tore.
28 And Shmuel said to him, אֱלֹהִים has torn the malchut of Yisrael from you this yom and has given it to a neighbor of yours, that is better than you.
29 And also the Strength of Yisrael will not lie nor repent: for He is not a man that He should repent.
30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet esteem me now, I beg you, before the zechanim of my people and before Yisrael and make teshuvah with me, that I may worship אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim.
31 So Shmuel made teshuvah with Shaul; and then Shaul worshipped אֱלֹהִים .
32 Then said Shmuel, Bring here to me Agag the melech of the Amalekites. And Agag came to him with delight. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.
33 And Shmuel said, As your sword has made women childless, so shall your eema be childless among women. And Shmuel cut Agag in pieces before אֱלֹהִים in Gilgal.
34 Then Shmuel went to Ramah; and Shaul went up to his bayit to Givat of Shaul.
35 And Shmuel came no more to see Shaul until the yom of his death: nevertheless Shmuel mourned for Shaul: and אֱלֹהִים regretted that He had made Shaul melech over kol Yisrael.

16 And אֱלֹהִים said to Shmuel, How long will you mourn for Shaul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over kol Yisrael? Fill your horn with oil and go, I will send you to Yishai the Beth-Lechemite: for I have provided for Me a melech from among his sons.

2 And Shmuel said, How can I go? If Shaul will hear, he will kill me. And אֱלֹהִים said, Take a heifer with you and say, I have come to sacrifice to אֱלֹהִים .

3 And call Yishai to the sacrifice and I will show you what you shall do: and you shall anoint for Me the very one whom I name to you.

4 And Shmuel did that which אִיָּהוָה spoke and came to Beth-Lechem. And the zechanim of the town trembled at his coming and said, Are you coming in shalom?

5 And he said, In shalom: I have come to sacrifice to אִיָּהוָה : set yourselves apart and come with me to the sacrifice. And he set apart Yishai and his sons and called them to the sacrifice.

6 And it came to pass, when they had come, that he looked on Eliav and said, Surely אִיָּהוָה 's anointed is before Him.

7 But אִיָּהוָה said to Shmuel, Look not on his appearance, or on his height; because I have refused him: for אִיָּהוָה sees not as mankind sees; for mankind looks on the outward appearance, but אִיָּהוָה looks on the lev.

8 Then Yishai called Aviniadav and made him pass before Shmuel. And he said, Neither has אִיָּהוָה chosen this one.

9 Then Yishai made Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither has אִיָּהוָה chosen this one.

10 Again, Yishai made seven of his sons to pass before Shmuel. And Shmuel said to Yishai, אִיָּהוָה has not chosen any of these.

11 And Shmuel said to Yishai, Are all your children here? And he said, There remains yet the youngest and, see, he keeps the sheep. And Shmuel said to Yishai, Send and get him: for we will not sit down until he comes here.

12 And he sent and brought him in. Now he was dark-skinned and reddish, with beauty of eyes and tov to the sight. And אִיָּהוָה said, Arise and anoint him: for this one is he.

13 Then Shmuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers: and The Ruach of אִיָּאָה came upon Dawid from that yom forward. So Shmuel rose up and went to Ramah.

14 But The Ruach of אִיָּאָה departed from Shaul and an evil ruach from אִיָּאָה troubled him.

15 And Shaul's avadim said to him, See now, an evil ruach from Ahlohim troubles you.

16 Let our master now command your avadim, which are before you, to seek out a man, who is a skilled player on a harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil ruach from Ahlohim is upon you, that he shall play with his hand and you shall be well.

17 And Shaul said to his avadim, Provide me now a man that can play well and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the avadim and said, See, I have seen a son of Yishai the Beth-Lechemite, that is skilled in playing and a mighty brave man and a man of war and prudent in all matters and a handsome person and אִיָּאָה is with him.

19 So Shaul sent messengers to Yishai and said, Send me Dawid your son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Yishai took a donkey loaded with lechem and a bottle of wine and a goat and sent them by Dawid his son to Shaul.

21 And Dawid came to Shaul and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armor-bearer.

22 And Shaul sent to Yishai, saying, Let Dawid, stand before me; for he has found chen in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil ruach from Ahlohim was upon Shaul, that Dawid took a harp and played with his hand: so Shaul was refreshed and was well and the evil ruach departed from him.

17 Now the Plishtim gathered together their armies to battle and were gathered together at Sokhoh, which belongs to Yahudah and camped between Sokhoh and Azekah, in Ephes-Dammim.

2 And Shaul and the men of Yisrael were gathered together and camped by the Valley of Elah and began the battle in battle against the Plishtim. 3 And the Plishtim stood on a har on the one side and Yisrael stood on a har on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Plishtim, named Golyat, of Gat, whose height was four cubits and a span.

5 And he had a helmet of bronze upon his head and he was armed with a coat of scaled armor; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of bronze.

6 And he had shin guards of bronze upon his legs and a spear of bronze between his shoulders.

7 And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield-bearer went before him.

8 And he stood and shouted to the armies of Yisrael and said to them, Why are you come out to set yourselves in battle? Am not I a Plishti and you avadim to Shaul? Choose a man from among you and let him come down to me.

9 If he is able to fight with me and to kill me, then will we be your avadim: but if I prevail against him and kill him, then shall you be our avadim and serve us.

10 And the Plishti said, I defy the armies of Yisrael this yom; give me a man that we may fight together.

11 When Shaul and kol Yisrael heard the words of the Plishti, they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 Now Dawid was the son of the Ephrathite of Beth-Lechem Yahudah, whose name was Yishai; and he had eight sons: and in the yamim of Shaul, the man Yishai was old and advanced in years.

13 And the three eldest sons of Yishai went and followed Shaul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliav the bachor and next to him Aviniadav and the third Shammah.

14 And Dawid was the youngest: and the three eldest followed Shaul.

15 But Dawid went and returned from Shaul to feed his abba's sheep at Beth-Lechem.

16 And the Plishti drew near boker and evening and presented himself for forty yamim.

17 And Yishai said to Dawid his son, Take now for your brothers an ephah of this parched grain and these ten loaves and run to the camp to your brothers;

18 And carry these ten cheeses to the leader of their thousand and look and see how your brothers are doing and bring back news.

19 Now Shaul and they and all the men of Yisrael, were in the Valley of Elah, fighting with the Plishtim.

20 And Dawid rose up early in the boker and left the sheep with a guardian and took the items and went, as Yishai had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight and shouted for the battle.

21 For Yisrael and the Plishtim were dressed for battle, army against army.

22 And Dawid left his supplies in the hand of the guardian of the supplies and ran into the army and came and greeted his brothers.

23 And as he talked with them, see, there came up the champion, the Plishti of Gat, Golyat by name, out of the armies of the Plishtim and spoke the same threatening words: and Dawid heard them.

24 And all the men of Yisrael, when they saw the man, fled from him and were heavy with fear.

25 And the men of Yisrael said, Have you seen this man that has come up? Surely to defy Yisrael he is come up: and it shall be, that the man who kills him, the melech will enrich him with great riches and will give him his daughter and make his abba's bayit receive exemptions in Yisrael.

26 And Dawid spoke to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that kills this Plishti and takes away the reproach from Yisrael? For who is this Plishti, not made brit milah, that he should defy the armies of the living Ahlohim ?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that kills him.

28 And Eliav his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliav's anger was lit against Dawid and he said, Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your lev; for you have come down that you might watch the battle.

29 And Dawid said, What have I now done? I was just talking.

30 And he turned from him toward another and spoke after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard that Dawid spoke, they repeated them before Shaul: and he sent for him.

32 And Dawid said to Shaul, Let no man's lev fail because of him; your eved will go and fight with this Plishti.

33 And Shaul said to Dawid, You are not able to go against this Plishti to fight with him: for you are but a youth and he is a man of war from his youth.

34 And Dawid said to Shaul, Your eved kept his abba's sheep and there came a lion and a bear and took a lamb out of the flock:

35 And I went out after him and smote him and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard and smote him and killed him.

36 Your eved killed both the lion and the bear: and this Plishti not in brit milah, shall be as one of them, seeing he has defied the armies of the living Ahlohim.

37 Dawid said moreover, אֱלֹהִים that delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, He will deliver me out of the hand of this Plishti. And Shaul said to Dawid, Go and אֱלֹהִים be with you.

38 And Shaul armed Dawid with his armor and he put a helmet of bronze upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of armor.

39 And Dawid girded his sword upon his armor and he began to go; but stopped for he had not tried them. And Dawid said to Shaul, I cannot go with these; for I have not tried them. And Dawid took them off.

40 And he took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones out of the brook and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a pouch; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Plishti.

41 And the Plishti came on and drew near to Dawid; and the man that bore the shield went before him.

42 And when the Plishti looked around and saw Dawid, he despised him: for he was but a youth and dark-skinned and ruddy and of a handsome appearance.

43 And the Plishti said to Dawid, Am I a dog; that you come to me with sticks? And the Plishti cursed Dawid by his pagan ahlohim.

44 And the Plishti said to Dawid, Come to me and I will give your flesh to the fowls of the air and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said Dawid to the Plishti, You come to me with a sword and with a spear and with a shield: but I come to you in the Name of יהוה Tzevaot, the Ahlohim of the armies of Yisrael, whom you have defied.

46 This yom will יהוה deliver you into my hand; and I will smite you and take your head from you; and I will give the dead bodies of the armies of the Plishtim this yom to the fowls of the air and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that Yisrael has Ahlohim.

47 And all this kehilla shall know that יהוה saves not with sword and spear: for the battle is יהוה 's and He will give you into our hands.

48 And it came to pass, when the Plishti arose and came and drew near to meet Dawid, that Dawid hurried and ran toward the army to meet the Plishti.

49 And Dawid put his hand in his bag and took a stone and slung it and smote the Plishti in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So Dawid prevailed over the Plishti with a sling and with a stone and smote the Plishti and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of Dawid.

51 Therefore Dawid ran and stood over the Plishti and took his sword and drew it out of the sheath and killed him and cut off his head with it. And when the Plishtim saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Yisrael and of Yahudah arose, and shouted and pursued the Plishtim, as far as the valley, to the gates of Ekron. And the wounded of the Plishtim fell down by the derech to Shaaraim, even to Gat and to Ekron.

53 And the children of Yisrael returned from chasing after the Plishtim and they plundered their tents.

54 And Dawid took the head of the Plishti and brought it to Yahrushalayim; but he put his armor in his tent.

55 And when Shaul saw Dawid go forth against the Plishti, he said to Avner, the leader of the army, Avner, whose son is this youth? And Avner said, As your chayim lives, O melech, I cannot tell.

56 And the melech said, Find out whose son the young man is.

57 And as Dawid returned from the slaughter of the Plishti, Avner took him and brought him before Shaul with the head of the Plishti in his hand.

58 And Shaul said to him, Whose son are you, young man? And Dawid answered, I am the son of your eved Yishai the Beth-Lechemite.

18 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking to Shaul, that the chayim of Yonathan was knit with the chayim of Dawid and Yonathan loved him as his own chayim.

2 And Shaul took him that yom and would not let him go home to his abba's bayit.

3 Then Yonathan and Dawid made a brit because he loved him as his own chayim.

4 And Yonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him and gave it to Dawid and his garments, even to his sword and to his bow and to his girdle.

5 And Dawid went out wherever Shaul sent him and behaved himself wisely: and Shaul set him over the men of war and he was accepted in the sight of all the people and also in the sight of Shaul's avadim.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when Dawid had returned from the slaughter of the Plishti, that the women came out of all cities of Yisrael, singing and dancing, to meet melech Shaul, with tambourines, with simcha and with instruments of music.

7 And the women sang as they played and said, Shaul has killed his thousands and Dawid his tens of thousands.

8 And Shaul was very angry and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed to Dawid ten thousands and to me they have ascribed only thousands: and what can he have more but the malchut itself?

9 And Shaul eyed Dawid carefully from that yom and forward.

10 And it came to pass the next yom, that the evil ruach from Ahlohim came upon Shaul and he prophesied evil in the midst of the bayit: and Dawid played the harp with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Shaul's hand.

11 And Shaul cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite Dawid even to the wall with it. And Dawid withdrew from his presence twice.

12 And Shaul was afraid of Dawid because אִי־אֵל was with him and had departed from Shaul.

13 Therefore Shaul removed Dawid from his presence and made him his leader over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

14 And Dawid behaved himself wisely in all his halachot; and אִי־אֵל was with him.

15 So when Shaul saw that Dawid behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him.

16 But kol Yisrael and Yahudah loved Dawid, because he went out and came in before them.

17 And Shaul said to Dawid, See my eldest daughter Merav, I will give her to you as an isha: only be brave for me and fight אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's battles. For Shaul said, Let not my hand kill him, but let the hand of the Plishtim kill him.

18 And Dawid said to Shaul, Who am I? And what is my chayim, or my abba's mishpacha in Yisrael, that I should be son-in-law to the melech?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merav Shaul's daughter should have been given to Dawid, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as his isha.

20 And Michal Shaul's daughter loved Dawid: and they told Shaul and the thing pleased him.

21 And Shaul said, I will give him to her, that she may be a trap to him and that the hand of the Plishtim may be against him. So Shaul said to Dawid a second time, You shall this yom be my son-in-law.

22 And Shaul commanded his avadim, saying, Commune with Dawid secretly and say, See, the melech delights in you and all his avadim love you: now therefore be the melech's son-in-law.

23 And Shaul's avadim spoke those words in the ears of Dawid. And Dawid said, Does it seem to you a small thing to be a melech's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man and lightly esteemed?

24 And the avadim of Shaul told him, saying, In this manner did Dawid react.

25 And Shaul said, This shall you say to Dawid, The melech desires no dowry, but only a hundred foreskins of the Plishtim, to be avenged of the melech's enemies. But Shaul thought to kill Dawid by the hands of the Plishtim.

26 And when his avadim told Dawid these words, it pleased Dawid well to be the melech's son-in-law: and the yamim were not expired.

27 So Dawid arose and went, he and his men and killed of the Plishtim two hundred men; and Dawid brought their foreskins and they gave them all to the melech, that he might be the melech's son-in-law.

And Shaul gave him Michal his daughter as an isha.

28 And Shaul saw and knew that אִרְבָּז was with Dawid and that Michal Shaul's daughter loved him.

29 And Shaul was yet even more afraid of Dawid; and Shaul became Dawid's enemy continually.

30 Then the rulers of the Plishtim went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that Dawid behaved himself more wisely than all the avadim of Shaul; so that his name came to be very precious.

19 And Shaul spoke to Yonathan his son and to all his avadim, that they should kill Dawid.

2 But Yonathan Shaul's son delighted much in Dawid: and Yonathan told Dawid, saying, Shaul my abba seeks to kill you: now therefore, I beg you, take heed until the boker and stay in a secret place and hide yourself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my abba in the field where you are and I will commune with my abba about you and what I see, that I will tell you.

4 And Yonathan spoke tov of Dawid to Shaul his abba and said to him, Let not the melech sin against his eved, against Dawid because he has not sinned against you and because his works towards you have been very tov:

5 For he did take his chayim into his hands and killed the Plishti and אִרְבָּז brought a great deliverance for kol Yisrael: you saw it and did gilah: why then will you sin against innocent dahm, to kill Dawid without a cause?

6 And Shaul listened to the voice of Yonathan: and Shaul swore, As אִי־אֵז lives, he shall not be killed.

7 And Yonathan called Dawid and Yonathan showed him all those things. And Yonathan brought Dawid to Shaul and he was in his presence, as in times past.

8 And there was war again: and Dawid went out and fought with the Plishtim and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled from him.

9 And the evil ruach from אִי־אֵז was upon Shaul again, as he sat in his bayit with his javelin in his hand: and Dawid played the harp with his hand.

10 And Shaul sought to smite Dawid even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Shaul's presence and he smote the javelin into the wall: and Dawid fled and escaped that lyla.

11 Shaul also sent messengers to Dawid's bayit, to watch him and to kill him in the boker: and Michal Dawid's isha told him, saying, If you save not your chayim tonight, tomorrow you shall be killed.

12 So Michal let Dawid down through a window: and he went and fled and escaped.

13 And Michal took a bayit idol and laid it in the bed and put a pillow of goats' hair in place of his head and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Shaul sent messengers to take Dawid, she said, He is sick.

15 And Shaul sent the messengers again to see Dawid, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him.

16 And when the messengers had come in, see, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair in place of his head.

17 And Shaul said to Michal, Why have you deceived me so and sent away my enemy, that he has escaped? And Michal answered Shaul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I kill you?

18 So Dawid fled and escaped and came to Shmuel in Ramah and told him all that Shaul had done to him. And he and Shmuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was told Shaul, saying, See, Dawid is at Naioth in Ramah.

20 And Shaul sent messengers to take Dawid: and when they saw the group of the neviim prophesying and Shmuel standing as appointed over them, The Ruach of Ahlohim was upon the messengers of Shaul and they also prophesied.

21 And when it was told Shaul, he sent other messengers and they prophesied likewise. And Shaul sent messengers again the third time and they prophesied also.

22 Then he also went to Ramah and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Shmuel and Dawid? And one said, See, they are at Naioth in Ramah.

23 And he went there to Naioth in Ramah: and The Ruach of Ahlohim was upon him also and he went on and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

24 And he stripped off his clothes also and prophesied before Shmuel in like manner and lay down naked all that yom and all that lyla. Which is why they say, Is Shaul also among the neviim?

20 And Dawid fled from Naioth in Ramah and came and said before Yonathan, What have I done? What is my iniquity? And what is my sin before your abba, that he seeks my chayim?

2 And he said to him, Ahlohim forbid; you shall not die: see, my abba will do nothing either great, or small, but that he will show it me: and why should my abba hide this thing from me? It is not so.

3 And Dawid swore moreover and said, Your abba certainly knows that I have found chen in your eyes; and he said, Let not Yonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as אִיִּיִּי lives and as your chayim lives, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Yonathan to Dawid, Whatever your chayim desires, I will even do it for you.

5 And Dawid said to Yonathan, See, tomorrow is the chodesh and I should be sitting with the melech to eat: but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the third yom at evening.

6 If your abba misses me at all, then say, Dawid earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Beth-Lechem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the mishpacha.

7 If he says this, It is well; your eved shall have shalom: but if he be very angry, then be sure that evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore you shall deal kindly with your eved; for you have brought your eved into a brit of אִיִּיִּי with you: nevertheless, if there be in me iniquity, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your abba?

9 And Yonathan said, Far be it from you: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my abba to come upon you, then would I not tell it to you?

10 Then said Dawid to Yonathan, Who shall tell me? Or, what if your abba answers you sharply?

11 And Yonathan said to Dawid, Come and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Yonathan said to Dawid, O אִיִּיִּי Ahlohim of Yisrael be my witness, when I have sought for my abba sometime tomorrow, or the third yom and, see, if there be tov towards Dawid and I then send not to you and show it to you;

13 Then אִיִּיִּי do so and much more to Yonathan: but if it pleases my abba to do you evil, then I will show it to you and send you away, that you may go in shalom: and אֱלֹהִים be with you, as He has been with my abba.

14 And you shall, while yet I live, show me the chesed of אֱלֹהִים ; that I die not:

15 And also you shall not cut off your chesed to my bayit le-olam-va-ed: when אֱלֹהִים has cut off all the enemies of Dawid from the face of the earth.

16 So Yonathan made a brit, so his bayit would flourish with Beit Dawid, saying, Let אֱלֹהִים take vengeance against Dawid's enemies.

17 And Yonathan caused Dawid to swear again because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own chayim.

18 Then Yonathan said to Dawid, Tomorrow is chodesh: and you shall be missed because your seat will be empty.

19 And when you have stayed three yamim, then you shall go down quickly and come to the place where you hid yourself and shall remain by the stone Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side of the stone, as though I shot at a mark.

21 And, see, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find the arrows. If I expressly say to the lad, See, the arrows are on this side of you, take them; then come out: for there is shalom to you and no hurt; as אֱלֹהִים lives.

22 But if I say this to the young man, See, the arrows are beyond you; then go your derech: for אֱלֹהִים has sent you away.

23 And as touching the matter which you and I have spoken of, see, אֱלֹהִים is witness between you and me le-olam-va-ed.

24 So Dawid hid himself in the field: and when the chodesh had come, the melech sat down to eat.

25 And the melech sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Yonathan arose and Avner sat by Shaul's side and Dawid's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Shaul spoke not anything that yom: for he thought, Something has happened to him, he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the next yom, which was the second yom of the chodesh, that Dawid's place was empty: and Shaul said to Yonathan his son, Why did not the son of Yishai come to eat, neither yesterday, nor today?

28 And Yonathan answered Shaul, Dawid earnestly asked my permission to go to Beth-Lechem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I ask you; for our mishpacha has a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he has commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found chen in your eyes, let me go, I ask you and see my brothers. Therefore he came not to the melech's shulchan.

30 Then Shaul's anger was lit against Yonathan and he said to him, You son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that you have chosen the son of Yishai to your own shame and to the shame of your eema's nakedness?

31 For as long as the son of Yishai lives upon the earth, you shall not be established, in your malchut. And now send and get him for me, for he shall surely die.

32 And Yonathan answered Shaul his abba and said to him, Why shall he be killed? What has he done?

33 And Shaul cast a javelin at him to smite him: by which Yonathan knew that it was determined by his abba to kill Dawid.

34 So Yonathan arose from the shulchan in fierce anger and did eat no food the second yom of the chodesh: for he was grieved for Dawid because his abba had done him shame.

35 And it came to pass in the boker, that Yonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with Dawid and a little lad with him.

36 And he said to his lad, Run and find out where the arrows that I shoot will land. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the lad had come to the place of the arrow which Yonathan had shot, Yonathan shouted out to the lad and said, Is not the arrow beyond you?

38 And Yonathan shouted after the lad, Hurry, hurry, stay not. And Yonathan's lad gathered up the arrows and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Yonathan and Dawid knew the matter.

40 And Yonathan gave his artillery to his lad and said to him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 And as soon as the lad had gone, Dawid arose out of a place toward the south and fell on his face to the ground and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another and wept one with another, but Dawid wept more.

42 And Yonathan said to Dawid, Go in shalom, since we have sworn both of us in the Name of אֱלֹהֵינוּ , saying, אֱלֹהֵינוּ is witness between me and you and between my zera and your zera le-olam-va-ed. And he arose and departed: and Yonathan went into the city.

21 Then came Dawid to Nov to Achimelech the kohen: and Achimelech was afraid at the meeting with Dawid and said to him, Why are you alone and no man with you?

2 And Dawid said to Achimelech the kohen, The melech has commanded me a word and has said to me, Let no man know any thing of the business about which I send you and what I have to another of him in dances, saying, Shaul has killed his thousands and Dawid his ten thousands?

12 And Dawid laid up these words in his lev and was very afraid of Achish the melech of Gat.

13 And he changed his behavior before them and pretended to be crazy in their hands and scratched on the doors of the gate and let his saliva fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish to his avadim, Look, you see the man is crazy: why then have you brought him to me?

15 Have I need of crazy men, that you have brought this fellow to play the crazy man in my presence? Shall this fellow even come into my bayit?

22 Dawid therefore departed from there and escaped to the cave Adullam: and when his brothers and all his abba's bayit heard it, they went down there to him.

2 And every one that was in distress and every one that was in debt and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves to him; and he became a leader over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 And Dawid went there to Mitzpah of Moav: and he said to the melech of Moav, Let my abba and my eema, I ask you, come forth and be with you, until I know what Ahlohim will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the melech of Moav: and they dwelt with him all the while that Dawid was in the stronghold.

5 And the navi Gad said to Dawid, Do not stay in the stronghold; depart and get into the land of Yahudah. Then Dawid departed and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 When Shaul heard that Dawid was discovered and the men that were with him - now Shaul stayed in Givat under an eytz in Ramah, having his spear in his hand and all his avadim were standing around him;

7 Then Shaul said to his avadim that stood around him, Shema now, you Benyamites; will the son of Yishai give every one of you fields and vineyards and make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds?

8 All of you have conspired against me and there is none that has showed me that my son has made a pact with the son of Yishai and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or showed to me that my son has stirred up my eved against me, to lie in wait, as at this yom.

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the avadim of Shaul and said, I saw the son of Yishai coming to Nov, to Achimelech the son of Achituv.

10 And he inquired of אִי אֵלָּהּ for him and gave him food and gave him the sword of Golyat the Plishti.

11 Then the melech sent to call Achimelech the kohen, the son of Achituv and all his abba's bayit, the kohanim that were in Nov: and they came all of them to the melech.

12 And Shaul said, Shema now, you son of Achituv. And he answered, Hinayne, my master.

13 And Shaul said to him, Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Yishai, in that you have given him lechem and a sword and have inquired of Ahlohim for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this yom?

14 Then Achimelech answered the melech and said: And who is so faithful among all your avadim as Dawid, which is the melech's son-in-law and goes at your bidding and is honorable in your bayit?

15 Did I then begin to inquire of Ahlohim for him? Be it far from me: let not the melech impute anything to his eved, nor to all the bayit of my abba: for your eved knew nothing of all this, not a little, not a lot.

16 And the melech said, You shall surely die, Achimelech, you and all your abba's bayit.

17 And the melech said to the footmen that stood around him, Turn and kill the kohanim of אֲרֵיָאֵל ; because their hand also is with Dawid and because they knew when he fled and did not show it to me. But the avadim of the melech would not put forth their hand to fall upon the kohanim of אֲרֵיָאֵל .

18 And the melech said to Doeg, Turn you and fall upon the kohanim. And Doeg the Edomite turned and he fell upon the kohanim and killed on that yom eighty-five persons that did wear a linen shoulder garment.

19 And Nov, the city of the kohanim, Doeg smote with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and those nursing and cattle and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 And one of the sons of Achimelech the son of Achituv, named Aviathar, escaped and fled after Dawid.

21 And Aviathar showed Dawid that Shaul had killed אֲרֵיָאֵל 's kohanim.

22 And Dawid said to Aviathar, I knew it that yom, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Shaul: I have caused the death of all the persons of your abba's bayit.

23 Stay with me, fear not: for he that seeks my chayim seeks your chayim: but with me you shall be safe.

23 Then they told Dawid, saying, See, the Plishtim fight against Keilah and they rob the threshing floors.

2 Therefore Dawid inquired of אֲדָמָה , saying, Shall I go and smite these Plishtim? And אֲדָמָה said to Dawid, Go and smite the Plishtim and save Keilah.

3 And Dawid's men said to him, See, we are afraid here in Yahudah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Plishtim?

4 Then Dawid inquired of אֲדָמָה yet again. And אֲדָמָה answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah, for I will deliver the Plishtim into your hand.

5 So Dawid and his men went to Keilah and fought with the Plishtim and brought away their cattle and smote them with a great slaughter. So Dawid saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Aviathar the son of Achimelech fled to Dawid at Keilah, that he came down with a shoulder garment in his hand.

7 And it was told Shaul that Dawid was come to Keilah. And Shaul said, Ahlohim has delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars.

8 And Shaul called all the people together to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege Dawid and his men.

9 And Dawid knew that Shaul secretly plotted mischief against him; and he said to Aviathar the kohen, Bring here the shoulder garment.

10 Then said Dawid, O אֲדָמָה Ahlohim of Yisrael, Your eved has certainly heard that Shaul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Shaul come down, as Your eved has heard? O אֲדָמָה Ahlohim of Yisrael, I beseech You, tell Your eved. And אֲדָמָה said, He will come down.

12 Then said Dawid, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Shaul? And אֲדָמָה said, They will deliver you up.

13 Then Dawid and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah and went wherever they could go. And it was told Shaul that Dawid had escaped from Keilah; and he ceased to go forth.

14 And Dawid stayed in the wilderness in strongholds and remained in a har in the wilderness of Zif. And Shaul sought him every yom, but Ahlohim delivered him not into his hand.

15 And Dawid saw that Shaul had come out to seek his chayim: and Dawid was in the wilderness of Zif in the forest.

16 And Yonathan Shaul's son arose and went to Dawid at the forest and strengthened his hand in Ahlohim.

17 And he said to him, Fear not: for the hand of Shaul my abba shall not find you; and you shall be melech over Yisrael and I shall be next to you; and that also Shaul my abba knows.

18 And the two of them made a brit before אֱלֹהִים : and Dawid stayed in the forest and Yonathan went to his bayit.

19 Then came up the Zifites to Shaul to Givat, saying, Does not Dawid hide himself with us in strongholds in the forest, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of Yeshimon?

20 Now therefore, O melech, come down according to all the desire of your chayim to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him into the melech's hand.

21 And Shaul said, Blessed are you of אֱלֹהִים ; for you have rachamim on me.

22 Go, I ask you, prepare yet further and know and see his place where his hide-out is and who has seen him there: for it is told to me that he deals very subtly.

23 See therefore and take da'at of all the hiding places where he hides himself and come again to me with the certainty of his place and I will go with you: and it shall come to pass, if he is in the land, that I will search him out throughout all the thousands of Yahudah.

24 And they arose and went to Zif before Shaul: but Dawid and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain on the south of Yeshimon.

25 Shaul also and his men went to seek him. And they told Dawid: therefore he came down into a rock and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. And when Shaul heard that, he pursued after Dawid in the wilderness of Maon.

26 And Shaul went on this side of the har and Dawid and his men on the other side of the har: and Dawid made a rapid getaway to get away for fear of Shaul; for Shaul and his men surrounded Dawid and his men to take them.

27 But there came a messenger to Shaul, saying, Hurry and get back and come, for the Plishtim have invaded the land.

28 So Shaul returned from pursuing after Dawid and went against the Plishtim; therefore they called that place Sela-HaMachlekot.

29 And Dawid went up from there and dwelt in strongholds at En-Gedi.

24 And it came to pass, when Shaul had returned from following the Plishtim, that it was told him, saying, See, Dawid is in the wilderness of En-Gedi.

2 Then Shaul took three thousand chosen men out of kol Yisrael and went to seek Dawid and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheep enclosures and on the derech, there was a cave; and Shaul went in to relieve himself: and Dawid and his men remained in the far ends of the cave.

4 And the men of Dawid said to him, See the yom of which אִיִּי said to you, See, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, that you may do to him as it shall seem to you. Then Dawid arose and cut off the corner of Shaul's robe privately.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that Dawid's lev smote him because he had cut off Shaul's robe.

6 And he said to his men, אֲנִי אֲסִיר אֶת יָדִי מִלְּפָנָיו כִּי אֲנִי יָדָעְתִּי כִּי אֲנִי אֲסִיר אֶת יָדִי מִלְּפָנָיו כִּי אֲנִי יָדָעְתִּי כִּי אֲנִי יָדָעְתִּי .

7 So Dawid stopped his avadim with these words and allowed them not to rise against Shaul. But Shaul rose up out of the cave and went on his derech.

8 Dawid also arose afterward and went out of the cave and shouted after Shaul, saying, My master the melech. And when Shaul looked behind him, Dawid stooped with his face to the earth and bowed himself.

9 And Dawid said to Shaul, Why do you listen to men's words, saying, See, Dawid seeks your hurt?

10 See, this yom your eyes have seen how אֲנִי אֲסִיר אֶת יָדִי מִלְּפָנָיו has delivered you today into my hand in the cave: and some urged me to kill you: but my eye spared you; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my master; for he is אֲנִי אֲסִיר אֶת יָדִי מִלְּפָנָיו 's anointed.

11 Moreover, my abba, see the corner of your robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the corner of your robe and killed you not, now you know and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand and I have not sinned against you; yet you hunt my chayim to take it.

12 אֲנִי אֲסִיר אֶת יָדִי מִלְּפָנָיו judge between us and אֲנִי אֲסִיר אֶת יָדִי מִלְּפָנָיו avenge me from you: but my own hand shall not be upon you.

13 As says the mishle of the ancients, Wickedness proceeds from the wicked: but my hand shall not be upon you.

14 After whom is the melech of Yisrael come out?
After whom do you pursue? After a dead dog, or after a flea?

15 אִי־אִי therefore is Shophet and He will judge between me and you and see and I will plead my cause, to be delivered out of your hand.

16 And it came to pass, when Dawid had made an end of speaking these words to Shaul, that Shaul said, Is this your voice, my son Dawid? And Shaul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 And he said to Dawid, You are more tzadik than I: for you have rewarded me tov, whereas I have rewarded you evil.

18 And you have showed me this yom how that you have dealt well with me: seeing that when אִי־אִי had delivered me into your hand, you killed me not.

19 For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away whole? Therefore אִי־אִי reward you tov for what you have done to me this yom.

20 And now, see, I know well that you shall surely be melech and that the malchut of Yisrael shall be established in your hand.

21 Swear now therefore to me by אִי־אִי , that you will not cut off my zera after me and that you will not destroy my name out of my abba's bayit.

22 And Dawid swore to Shaul. And Shaul went home; but Dawid and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 And Shmuel died; and all the Yisraelites were gathered together and lamented him and buried him in his bayit at Ramah. And Dawid arose and went down to the wilderness of Paran.

2 And there was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great and he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

3 Now the name of the man was Naval; and the name of his isha Avigail: and she was a woman of tov binah and of a beautiful appearance: but the man was hardened and evil in his doings; and he was of the bayit of Kalev.

4 And Dawid heard in the wilderness that Naval did shear his sheep.

5 And Dawid sent out ten young men and Dawid said to the young men, Get up to Carmel and go to Naval and greet him in my name:

6 And say to him that lives in prosperity, Shalom be both to you and shalom be to your bayit and shalom be to all that you have.

7 And now I have heard that you have shearers: now your shepherds that were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there anything missing to them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask your young men and they will tell you. So let the young men find chen in your eyes: for we come in a tov yom: give, I ask you, whatever comes to your hand to your avadim and to your son Dawid.

9 And when Dawid's young men came, they spoke to Naval according to all those words in the name of Dawid and waited.

10 And Naval answered Dawid's avadim and said, Who is Dawid? And who is the son of Yishai? There are many avadim nowadays that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my lechem and my mayim and my food that I have killed for my shearers and give it to men, whom I know not from where they are?

12 So Dawid's young men turned their derech and went again and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And Dawid said to his men, Put on every man his sword. And they put on every man his sword; and Dawid also put on his sword: and there went up after Dawid about four hundred men; and two hundred stayed by the baggage.

14 But one of the young men told Avigail, Naval's isha, saying, See, Dawid sent messengers out of the wilderness to greet our master; and he railed at them.

15 But the men were very tov to us and we were not hurt, neither did we miss anything, as long as we were accompanying them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were like a wall to us both by lyla and yom, all the time we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master and against all his household: for he is such a son of Beliyaal, that a man cannot even speak to him.

18 Then Avigail hurried and took two hundred loaves and two bottles of wine and five sheep made ready and five measures of parched grain and a hundred clusters of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs and laid them on donkeys.

19 And she said to her avadim, Go before me and I will come after you. But she told it not to her husband Naval.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the donkey, that she came down under the cover of the hill and, see, Dawid and his men came down toward her; and she met them.

21 Now Dawid had said, Surely for nothing have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him: and he has repaid me evil for tov.

22 Let Ahlohim do this and even more to the enemies of Dawid, if I leave even one adult man to him by the boker ohr.

23 And when Avigail saw Dawid, she hurried and got off the donkey and fell before Dawid on her face and bowed herself to the ground, 24 And fell at his feet and said, Upon me, my master, upon me let this iniquity be: and let your female eved, I beg you, speak in your hearing and hear the words of your female eved.

25 Let not my master, I beg you, regard this man of Beliyaal, even Naval: for as his name is, so is he; Naval is his name and folly is with him: but I your female eved did not see the young men of my master, whom you did send.

26 Now therefore, my master, as אֱלֹהִים lives and as your being lives, seeing אֱלֹהִים has withheld you from coming to shed dahm and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now let your enemies and they that seek evil to my master, be as Naval.

27 And now this blessing that your female eved has brought to my master, let it even be given to the young men that follow my master.

28 I beg you, forgive the trespass of your female eved: for אֱלֹהִים will certainly make my master a sure and secure bayit; because my master fights the battles of אֱלֹהִים and evil has not been found in you all your yamim.

29 Yet a man has risen to pursue you and to seek your chayim: but the chayim of my master shall be bound in the bundle of chayim with אֱלֹהִים your Ahlohim; and the beings of your enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when אֱלֹהִים shall have done to my master according to all the tov that He has spoken concerning you and shall have appointed you ruler over Yisrael;

31 That this shall bring no grief to you, no offence of lev to my master, either that you have shed dahm without cause, or that my master has avenged himself: but when אֱלֹהִים shall have dealt well with my master, then remember your female eved.

32 And Dawid said to Avigail, Blessed be אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael, who sent you this yom to meet me:

33 And blessed is your advice and blessed are you, who have kept me this yom from coming to shed dahm and from avenging myself with my own hand.

34 For in very deed, as אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim of Yisrael lives, who has kept me back from hurting you, except you had hurried and come to meet me, surely there had not been left to Naval by the boker ohr any man.

35 So Dawid received from her hand that which she had brought him and said to her, Go up in shalom to your bayit. See, I have listened to your voice and have accepted your whole person.

36 And Avigail came to Naval; and, see, he held a feast in his bayit, like the feast of a melech; and Naval's lev was cheerful within him, for he was very drunk: therefore she told him nothing, at all, until the boker ohr.

37 But it came to pass in the boker, when Naval was sober and his isha had told him these things that his lev died within him; and he became as a stone lev.

38 And it came to pass about ten yamim after that אֱלֹהִים smote Naval, so that he died.

39 And when Dawid heard that Naval was dead, he said, Barchu-et- אֱלֹהִים , who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Naval and has kept his eved from doing evil: for אֱלֹהִים has returned the wickedness of Naval upon his own head: And Dawid sent and communicated with Avigail, to take her to him as an isha.

40 And when the avadim of Dawid had come to Avigail to Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, Dawid sent us to you to take you to him as his isha.

41 And she arose and bowed herself on her face to the earth and said, See, let your female eved be an eved to wash the feet of the avadim of my master.

42 And Avigail hurried and arose and rode upon a donkey, with five young women of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of Dawid and became his isha.

43 Dawid also took Achinoam of Yezreel; and they were also both of them his wives. 44 But Shaul had given Michal his daughter, Dawid's isha, to Phalti the son of Layish, which was of Gallim.

26 And the Zifites came to Shaul to Givat, saying, Does not Dawid hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Yeshimon?

2 Then Shaul arose and went down to the wilderness of Zif, having three thousand chosen men of Yisrael with him, to seek Dawid in the wilderness of Zif.

3 And Shaul camped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Yeshimon, along the derech. But Dawid stayed in the wilderness and he saw that Shaul came after him into the wilderness.

4 Dawid therefore sent out spies and understood that Shaul had come indeed.

5 And Dawid arose and came to the place where Shaul had camped: and Dawid beheld the place where Shaul lay and Avner the son of Ner, the leader of his army: and Shaul lay in the trench and the people camped around him.

6 Then answered Dawid and said to Achimelech the Hittite and to Avishai the son of Tzaruyah, brother to Yoav, saying, Who will go down with me to Shaul to the camp? And Avishai said, I will go down with you.

7 So Dawid and Avishai came to the people by lyla: and, see, Shaul lay sleeping within the camp and his spear stuck in the ground at his head: but Avner and the people lay around him.

8 Then said Avishai to Dawid, Ahlohim has delivered your enemy into your hand this yom: now therefore let me smite him, I ask you, with the spear even to the earth at once and I will not smite him the second time.

9 And Dawid said to Avishai, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against אִישׁ אֵלֹהִים 's anointed and be guiltless?

10 Dawid said furthermore, As אִישׁ אֵלֹהִים lives, אִישׁ אֵלֹהִים shall smite him; or his yom shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle and perish.

11 But אִישׁ אֵלֹהִים forbid that I should stretch forth my hand against אִישׁ אֵלֹהִים 's anointed: but, I ask you, take now the spear that is at his head and the jug of mayim and let us go.

12 So Dawid took the spear and the jug of mayim from Shaul's head and they got away and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither was awakened: for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from אִישׁ אֵלֹהִים had fallen upon them.

13 Then Dawid went over to the other side and stood on the top of a hill far off; a great space being between them:

14 And Dawid shouted to the people and to Avner the son of Ner, saying, Don't you answer, Avner? Then Avner answered and said, Who are you that shouts at the melech?

15 And Dawid said to Avner, Are not you a brave man? And who is like you in Yisrael? Why then have you not guarded your master the melech? For there came one of the people in to destroy the melech your master.

16 This thing is not tov that you have done. As אִיִּשׁ lives, you are worthy to die because you have not guarded your master, אִיִּשׁ 's anointed. And now see where the melech's spear is and the jug of mayim that was at his head.

17 And Shaul knew Dawid's voice and said, Is this your voice, my son Dawid? And Dawid said, It is my voice, my master, O melech.

18 And he said, Why does my master still pursue after his eved? For what have I done? Or, what evil is in my hand?

19 Now therefore, I beg you, let my master the melech hear the words of his eved. If אִיִּשׁ has stirred you up against me, let Him accept an offering: but if they are the children of men, cursed are they before אִיִּשׁ; for they have driven me out this yom from abiding in the inheritance of אִיִּשׁ, saying, Go, serve other ahlohim.

20 Now therefore, let not my dahm fall to the earth before the face of אִיִּשׁ: for the melech of Yisrael is come out to seek a flea, as when one does hunt a partridge in the mountains.

21 Then said Shaul, I have sinned: return, my son Dawid: for I will no more do you harm because my chayim was precious in your eyes this yom: see, I have played the fool and have greatly strayed.

22 And Dawid answered and said, See the melech's spear! Let one of the young men come over and get it.

23 אִיִּשׁ render to every man his tzedakah and his faithfulness: for אִיִּשׁ delivered you into my hand today, but I would not stretch forth my hand against 's anointed.

24 And, see, as your chayim was much valued this yom in my eyes, so let my chayim be much valued in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים and let Him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Shaul said to Dawid, Blessed are you, my son Dawid: you shall both do great things and also shall prevail. So Dawid went on his derech and Shaul returned to his place.

27 And Dawid said in his lev, I shall now perish one yom by the hand of Shaul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Plishtim; so that Shaul shall give up searching for me, to seek me anymore in any of the borders of Yisrael: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And Dawid arose and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him to Achish, the son of Maoch, melech of Gat.

3 And Dawid dwelt with Achish at Gat, he and his men, every man with his household, even Dawid with his two wives, Achinoam the Yezreelitess and Avigail the Carmelitess, Naval's isha.

4 And it was told Shaul that Dawid had fled to Gat: and he sought no more again for him.

5 And Dawid said to Achish, If I have now found chen in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should your eved dwell in the malchut city with you?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that yom: so Ziklag belongs to the melechim of Yahudah to this yom.

7 And the time that Dawid dwelt in the country of the Plishtim was a full year and four chodashem.

8 And Dawid and his men went up and invaded the Geshurites and the Gezrites and the Amalekites: for those pagan goyim were the old inhabitants of the land, as you head to Shur, even to the land of Mitzrayim.

9 And Dawid smote the land and left neither man nor woman alive and took away the sheep and the cattle and the donkeys and the camels and the apparel and returned and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, Where have you made a raid today? And Dawid said, Against the south of Yahudah and against the south of the Yerahmeelites and against the south of the Kenites.

11 And Dawid saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring news to Gat, saying, Lest they should tell on us, saying, So did Dawid and so will be his behavior all the while he dwells in the country of the Plishtim.

12 And Achish believed Dawid, saying, He has made his people Yisrael utterly to hate him; therefore he shall be my eved le-olam-va-ed.

28 And it came to pass in those yamim, that the Plishtim gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Yisrael. And Achish said to Dawid, You know of course, that you shall go out with me to battle, you and your men.

2 And Dawid said to Achish, Surely you shall know what your eved can do. And Achish said to Dawid, Therefore will I make you guardian of my head le-olam-va-ed.

3 Now Shmuel was dead and kol Yisrael had lamented him and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Shaul had put away those that had familiar ruachim and the wizards, out of the land.

4 And the Plishtim gathered themselves together and came and camped in Shunem: and Shaul gathered kol Yisrael together and they camped in Gilvoa.

5 And when Shaul saw the host of the Plishtim, he was afraid and his lev greatly trembled.

6 And when Shaul inquired of אִפְּרָיִם and אִפְּרָיִם answered him not, neither by dreams nor by Urim, nor by neviim.

7 Then said Shaul to his avadim, Seek for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her. And his avadim said to him, See, there is a woman that is a medium at Endor.

8 And Shaul disguised himself and put on other clothes and he went and two men with him and they came to the woman by lyla: and he said, I ask you, divine for me by a familiar ruach and bring me up, the one I shall name to you.

9 And the woman said to him, See, you know what Shaul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the wizards, out of the land: why then do you lay a trap for my chayim, to cause me to die?

10 And Shaul swore to her by אֱלֹהֵי אֲדָמָה , saying, As אֱלֹהֵי אֲדָמָה lives, there shall no punishment happen to you for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up to you? And he said, Bring me up Shmuel.

12 And when the woman saw Shmuel, she shouted with a loud voice: and the woman spoke to Shaul, saying, Why have you deceived me? For you are Shaul.

13 And the melech said to her, Be not afraid: what did you see? And the woman said to Shaul, I saw a ruach ascending out of the earth.

14 And he said to her, What does he look like? And she said, An old man comes up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Shaul perceived that it was Shmuel and he stooped with his face to the ground and bowed himself.

15 And Shmuel said to Shaul, Why have you disturbed my rest, to bring me up? And Shaul answered, I am heavy distressed; for the Plishtim make war against me and Ahlohim has departed from me and answers me no longer, neither by neviim, nor by dreams: therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.

16 Then said Shmuel, Why then do you ask of me, seeing אִיִּזְרָאֵל has departed from you and has become your enemy?

17 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל has done to you, as He spoke by me: for אִיִּזְרָאֵל has torn the malchut out of your hand and given it to your neighbor, even to Dawid:

18 Because you obeyed not the voice of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, nor executed His fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore has אִיִּזְרָאֵל done this thing to you this yom.

19 Moreover אִיִּזְרָאֵל will also deliver Yisrael with you into the hand of the Plishtim: and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me: אִיִּזְרָאֵל also shall deliver the armies of Yisrael into the hand of the Plishtim.

20 Then Shaul fell immediately on the earth and was very afraid because of the words of Shmuel: and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no lechem all the yom and all the lyla.

21 And the woman came to Shaul and saw that he was heavily troubled and said to him, See, your female eved has obeyed your voice and I have put my chayim in my hands and have listened to your words which you spoke to me.

22 Now therefore, I beg you, Shema also to the voice of your female eved and let me set a piece of lechem before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your derech.

23 But he refused and said, I will not eat. But his avadim, together with the woman, compelled him; and he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the bayit; and she hurried and killed it and took flour and kneaded it and did bake matzah from it:

25 And she brought it before Shaul and before his avadim; and they did eat. Then they rose up and went away that lyla.

29 Now the Plishtim gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Yisraelites camped by a fountain that is in Yezreel.

2 And the rulers of the Plishtim passed on by hundreds and by thousands: but Dawid and his men passed on in the rear guard with Achish.

3 Then said the rulers of the Plishtim, What are these Ivrim doing here? And Achish said to the rulers of the Plishtim, Is not this Dawid, the eved of Shaul the melech of Yisrael, which has been with me these yamim and these years and I have found no fault in him since he came to me until this yom?

4 And the rulers of the Plishtim were angry with him; and the rulers of the Plishtim said to him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which you have appointed him and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he be an adversary to us: for how can he reconcile himself to his master? Except with the heads of these our men?

5 Is not this Dawid, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Shaul killed his thousands and Dawid his ten thousands?

6 Then Achish called Dawid and said to him, Surely, as אִי־אֵלֹהִים lives, you have been a tzadik and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is tov in my sight: for I have not found evil in you since the yom of your coming to me to this yom; nevertheless the other rulers' opinion is not favorable of you.

7 So now return and go in shalom, that you displease not the rulers of the Plishtim.

8 And Dawid said to Achish, But what have I done? And what have you found wrong in your eved as long as I have been with you to this yom, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my master the melech?

9 And Achish answered and said to Dawid, I know that you are as tov in my sight, as a malach of Ahlohim: nevertheless the rulers of the Plishtim have said, He shall not go up with us to the battle.

10 So now rise up early in the boker with your master's avadim that have come with you: and as soon as you are up early in the boker and have ohr, depart.

11 So Dawid and his men rose up early to depart in the boker, to return into the land of the Plishtim. And the Plishtim went up to Yezreel.

30 And it came to pass, when Dawid and his men were come to Ziklag on the third yom, that the Amalekites had invaded the south and Ziklag and smitten Ziklag and burned it with fire;

2 And had taken the women captives, that were there: they killed not any, either great, or small, but carried them away and went on their derech.

3 So Dawid and his men came to the city and, see, it was burned with fire; and their wives and their sons and their daughters, were taken captives.

4 Then Dawid and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And Dawid's two wives were taken captives, Achinoam the Yezreelitess and Avigail the isha of Naval the Carmelite.

6 And Dawid was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him because the chayim of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but Dawid encouraged himself in אִתּוֹ his Ahlohim.

7 And Dawid said to Aviathar the kohen, Achimelech's son, I ask you, bring me here the shoulder garment. And Aviathar brought there the shoulder garment to Dawid.

8 And Dawid inquired of אַחִימֵלֵךְ , saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? Shall I overtake them? And He answered him, Pursue, for you shall surely overtake them and without fail recover all.

9 So Dawid went, he and the six hundred men who were with him and came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But Dawid pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred stayed behind, who were so weak that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 And they found a Mitzri in the field and brought him to Dawid and gave him lechem and he did eat; and they made him drink mayim;

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his ruach came again to him: for he had not eaten lechem, nor drunk any mayim, three yamim and three laylot.

13 And Dawid said to him, To whom do you belong? Where are you from? And he said, I am a young man of Mitzrayim, an eved to an Amalekite; and my master left me because three yamim ago I fell sick.

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites and upon the border that belongs to Yahudah and upon the south of Kalev; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And Dawid said to him, Can you bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear to me by Ahlohim, that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master and I will bring you down to this troop.

16 And when he had brought him down, see, they were spread abroad upon all the land, eating and drinking and dancing because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Plishtim and out of the land of Yahudah.

17 And Dawid smote them from the twilight, even to the evening of the next yom: and there escaped not a man of them, except four hundred young men, who rode upon camels and fled.

18 And Dawid recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and Dawid rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor anything that they had taken from them: Dawid recovered all.

20 And Dawid took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other cattle and said, This is Dawid's spoil.

21 And Dawid came to the two hundred men, who were so weak that they could not follow Dawid, whom they had made to stay at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet Dawid and to meet the people that were with him: and when Dawid came near to the people, he greeted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and the men of Beliyaal, of those that went with Dawid and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his isha and his children, that they may go away and depart.

23 Then said Dawid, You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which אלהים has given us, who has preserved us and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will listen to you in this matter? But as the part is for those that went down to the battle, so shall the part be for those that stayed by the baggage: they shall also share the spoil.

25 And it was so from that yom forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Yisrael to this yom.

26 And when Dawid came to Ziklag, he sent some things from the spoil to the zechanim of Yahudah, even to his chaverim, saying, See a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of אֲרָאֵל ;

27 To them which were in Beth-El and to them which were in south Ramot and to them which were in Yattir,

28 And to them which were in Aroer and to them that were in Siphmoth and to them that were in Eshtemoa,

29 And to them which were in Rachal and to them that were in the cities of the Yerachmeelites and to them that were in the cities of the Kenites,

30 And to them that were in Hormah and to them that were in Chor-Ashan and to them that were in Athach, 31 And to them that were in Chebron and to all the places where Dawid himself and his men had been traveling.

31 Now the Plishtim fought against Yisrael: and the men of Yisrael fled from before the Plishtim and fell down killed in Har Gilboa.

2 And the Plishtim overtook Shaul and his sons; and the Plishtim killed Yonathan and Aviniadav and Malchi-Shua, Shaul's sons.

3 And the battle was strong against Shaul and the archers hit him; so he was heavily wounded by the archers.

4 Then said Shaul to his armor-bearer, Draw your sword and thrust me through with it, lest these not in brit milah come and thrust me through and abuse me. But his armor-bearer would not, for he was very afraid. Therefore Shaul took a sword and fell upon it himself.

5 And when his armor-bearer saw that Shaul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword and died with him.

6 So Shaul died and his three sons and his armor-bearer and all his men, that same yom together.

7 And when the men of Yisrael that were on the other side of the valley and they that were on the other side of the Yarden River, saw that the men of Yisrael fled and that Shaul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Plishtim came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the next yom, when the Plishtim came to strip the killed, that they found Shaul and his three sons fallen in Har Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head and stripped off his armor and sent word into the land of the Plishtim around, to publish it in the bayit of their idols and among the people.

10 And they put his armor in the bayit of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his gooff to the wall of Beth-Shan.

11 And when the inhabitants of Yavesh-Gilad heard of that which the Plishtim had done to Shaul;

12 All the brave men arose and went all lyla and took the gooff of Shaul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-Shan and came to Yavesh and burned them there.

13 And they took their bones and buried them under an eytz at Yavesh and fasted shiva seven yamim. X

Bet

Shmuel Bet To Our Forefathers Yisrael

1 Now it came to pass after the death of Shaul, when Dawid had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites and Dawid had stayed two yamim in Ziklag;

2 It came even to pass on the third yom, that, see, a man came out of the camp from Shaul with his clothes torn, with earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to Dawid, that he fell to the earth and prostrated himself.

3 And Dawid said to him, Where do you come from? And he said to him, Out of the camp of Yisrael I have escaped.

4 And Dawid said to him, How went the matter? I ask you, tell me. And he answered, The people are fleeing from the battle and many of the people also are fallen and are dead; and Shaul and Yonathan his son are dead also.

5 And Dawid said to the young man that told him, How do you know you that Shaul and Yonathan his son are dead?

6 And the young man that told him said, By chance I was on Har Gilboa and I saw, Shaul leaned upon his spear; and, see, the mirkavot and horsemen overtook him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said to me, Who are you? And I answered him; I am an Amalekite.

9 And he said to me again, Stand, I beg you, over me and slay me: for anguish has come upon me, but my chayim is still in me.

10 So I stood beside him and killed him because I was sure that he could not live after he had fallen: and I took the keter that was upon his head and the bracelet that was on his arm and have brought them here to my master.

11 Then Dawid took hold of his own clothes and tore them and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening, for Shaul and for Yonathan his son and for the people of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and for kol beit Yisrael; because they had fallen by the sword.

13 And Dawid said to the young man that told him, Where are you from? And he answered, I am the son of a ger, an Amalekite.

14 And Dawid said to him, How were you not afraid to stretch forth your hand to destroy אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's anointed?

15 And Dawid called one of the young men and said, Go near and fall upon him. And he smote him so that he died.

16 And Dawid said to him, Your dahm be upon your head; for your mouth has testified against yourself, saying, I have slain אִיִּזְרָאֵל 's anointed.

17 And Dawid lamented with this lamentation over Shaul and over Yonathan his son:

18 Also he ordered The Bow to be taught to the children of Yahudah: see, it is written in Sefer Yahshar.

19 The beauty of Yisrael is slain upon your high places: how are the mighty fallen!

20 Tell it not in Gat, publish it not in the streets of Ashkelon; lest the daughters of the Plishtim have gilah, lest the daughters of those not in brit milah triumph.

21 You mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty lays rejected, the shield of Shaul, without the anointing oil.

22 From the dahm of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, the bow of Yonathan did not return and the sword of Shaul did not return empty of dahm.

23 Shaul and Yonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives and in their death they were not divided: they were swifter than eagles; they were stronger than lions.

24 You daughters of Yisrael, weep over Shaul, who clothed you in scarlet, along with other delights, who put ornaments of gold upon your clothes.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Yonathan, you were slain in your high places.

26 I am distressed for you, my brother Yonathan: very pleasant have you been to me: your ahava to me was wonderful, surpassing the ahava of women.

27 How are the mighty fallen and the weapons of war perished!

2 And it came to pass after this, that Dawid inquired of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Yahudah? And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to him, Go up. And Dawid said, Where shall I go up? And He said, Unto Chebron.

2 So Dawid went up there and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Yizreelitess and Avigail the widow of Naval the Carmelite.

3 And his men that were with him did Dawid bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Chebron.

4 And the men of Yahudah came and there they anointed Dawid melech over Beit Yahudah. And they told Dawid, saying, That the men of Yavesh-Gilad were those that buried Shaul.

5 And Dawid sent messengers to the men of Yavesh-Gilad and said to them, Blessed are you of אִיִּים that you have showed this chesed to your master, even to Shaul and have buried him.

6 And now אִיִּים show chesed and emet to you: and I also will repay you this tov because you have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened and be brave: for your master Shaul is dead and also Beit Yahudah has anointed me melech over them.

8 But Avner the son of Ner, captain of Shaul's army, took Ish-Bosheth the son of Shaul and brought him over to Machanayim;

9 And made him melech over Gilad and over the Ashurites, and over Yezreel and over Efrayim and over Benjamin and over kol Yisrael.

10 Ish-Bosheth Shaul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Yisrael and reigned two years. But Beit Yahudah followed Dawid.

11 And the time that Dawid was melech in Chebron over Beit Yahudah was seven years and six chodashem.

12 And Avner the son of Ner and the avadim of Ish-Bosheth the son of Shaul, went out from Machanayim to Giveon.

13 And Yoav the son of Tzuruyah and the avadim of Dawid, went out and met together by the pool of Giveon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Avner said to Yoav, Let the young men now arise and compete before us. And Yoav said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benyamin, which pertained to Ish-Bosheth the son of Shaul and twelve of the avadim of Dawid.

16 And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side; so they fell down together: so that place was called Helkath-Hazzurim, which is in Giveon.

17 And there was a very fierce battle that yom; and Avner was beaten and the men of Yisrael, before the avadim of Dawid.

18 And there were three sons of Tzuruyah there, Yoav and Avishai and Asahel: and Asahel was as fast as a desert gazelle.

19 And Asahel pursued after Avner; and in going he turned not to the right hand, nor to the left from following Avner.

20 Then Avner looked behind him and said, Are you Asahel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Avner said to him, Turn aside to your right hand, or to your left and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armor. But Asahel would not turn aside from following after him.

22 And Avner said again to Asahel, Turn aside from following me: why should I smite you to the ground? How then could I face Yoav your brother?

23 However he refused to turn aside: so Avner with the blunt end of the spear smote him under the stomach, so that the spear came out through his back; and he fell down there and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.

24 Yoav also and Avishai pursued after Avner: and the shemesh went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the derech of the wilderness of Giveon.

25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together behind Avner and became one troop and took their stand on the top of a hill.

26 Then Avner called to Yoav and said, Shall the sword devour le-olam-va-ed? Don't you know that it will be bitter in the latter end? How long shall it be then? And when are you going to tell the people to return from following their brothers?

27 And Yoav said, As Ahlohim lives, unless you had spoken up, surely not until boker would the people have quit from following their brothers.

28 So Yoav blew a shofar and all the people stood still and pursued after Yisrael no more, neither fought they anymore.

29 And Avner and his men walked all that lyla through the plain and passed over the Yarden River and went through all Bithron and they came to Machanayim.

30 And Yoav returned from following Avner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dawid's avadim nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the avadim of Dawid had killed from Benjamin, even of Avner's men, so that three hundred sixty men died.

32 And they took up Asahel and buried him in the tomb of his abba, which was in Beth-Lechem. And Yoav and his men went all lyla and they came to Chebron at daybreak.

3 Now there was a long war between Beit Shaul and Beit Dawid: but Dawid grew stronger and stronger and Beit Shaul grew weaker and weaker.
2 And to Dawid were sons born in Chebron: and his bachor was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Yizreelitess;

3 And his second, Chileav, of Avigail the widow of Naval the Carmelite; and the third, Avshalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai melech of Geshur;

4 And the fourth, Adoniyah the son of Haggit; and the fifth, Shephatyah the son of Avital;

5 And the sixth, Yithream, by Eglah Dawid's isha. These were born to Dawid in Chebron.

6 And it came to pass, while there was war between Beit Shaul and Beit Dawid, that Avner made himself strong for Beit Shaul.

7 And Shaul had a concubine, whose name was Ritzpah, the daughter of Ayah: and Ish-Bosheth said to Avner, Why have you gone in to my abba's concubine?

8 Then was Avner very angry at the words of Ish-Bosheth and said, Am I a dog's head, that belongs to Yahudah? This yom I do show chesed to Beit Shaul your abba, to his brothers and to his chaverim and have not allowed you to fall into the hand of Dawid and yet you now charge me today with a sin concerning this woman.

9 So do Ahlohim to Avner and more also, if I do not perform all that אֱלֹהִים has sworn to Dawid, in his service,

10 To transfer the malchut from Beit Shaul and to set up kesay Dawid over Yisrael and over Yahudah, from Dan even to Be-er-Sheva.

11 And he could not answer Avner a word again because he feared him.

12 And Avner sent messengers to Dawid on his behalf, saying, Whose is this land? Saying also, Make your brit with me and, see, my hand shall be with you, to bring kol Yisrael to you.

13 And he said, Very well; I will make a brit with you: but one thing I require of you and that is, that you shall not see my face, until you first bring Michal Shaul's daughter, when you come to see my face.

14 And Dawid sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth Shaul's son, saying, Deliver to me my isha Michal, whom I engaged in exchange for a hundred foreskins of the Plishtim.

15 And Ish-Bosheth sent and took her from her husband, even from Paltiel the son of Layish.

16 And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Avner to him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 And Avner had communication with the zechanim of Yisrael, saying, You sought for Dawid in times past to be melech over you:

18 Now then do it: for אִיִּזְרָאֵל has spoken of Dawid, saying, By the hand of My eved Dawid I will save My people Yisrael out of the hand of the Plishtim and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Avner also spoke in the ears of Benyamin: and Avner went also to speak in the ears of Dawid in Chebron all that seemed tov to Yisrael and that seemed tov to the whole bayit of Benyamin.

20 So Avner came to Dawid to Chebron and twenty men with him. And Dawid made Avner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Avner said to Dawid, I will arise and go and will gather kol Yisrael to my master the melech, that they may make a brit with you and that you may reign over all that your lev desires. And Dawid sent Avner away; and he went in shalom.

22 And, See, the avadim of Dawid and Yoav came from a raid and brought in a great spoil with them: but Avner was not with Dawid in Chebron; for he had sent him away and he was gone in shalom.

23 When Yoav and all the army that was with him had come, they told Yoav, saying, Avner the son of Ner came to the melech and he has sent him away and he is gone in shalom.

24 Then Yoav came to the melech and said, What have you done? See, Avner came to you; why is it that you have sent him away and he is gone in shalom?

25 Don't you know Avner the son of Ner; that he came to deceive you and to know your going out and your coming in and to know all that you do.

26 And when Yoav had come out from Dawid, he sent messengers after Avner, who brought him again from the well of Sirah: but Dawid did not know it.

27 And when Avner returned to Chebron, Yoav took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly and smote him there under the stomach, that he died, for the dahm of Asahel his brother.

28 And afterward when Dawid heard of it, he said, my malchut and I are guiltless before אף־אז le-olam-va-ed from the dahm of Avner the son of Ner:

29 Let it rest on the head of Yoav and on all his abba's bayit; and let there not fail from the bayit of Yoav one that has an issue, or that is a leper, or that leans on a staff, or that falls on the sword, or that lacks lechem.

30 So Yoav and Avishai his brother killed Avner because he had slain their brother Asahel at Giveon in the battle.

31 And Dawid said to Yoav and to all the people that were with him, Tear your clothes and gird yourselves with sackcloth and mourn over Avner. And melech Dawid himself followed the coffin.

32 And they buried Avner in Chebron: and the melech lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Avner; and all the people wept.

33 And the melech lamented over Avner and said, Should Avner have died as a fool dies?

34 Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters: as a man falls before wicked men, so fell you. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came to cause Dawid to eat food while it was yet yom, Dawid swore, saying, So do Ahlohim to me and more also, if I taste lechem, or anything else, until the shemesh is down.

36 And all the people took notice of it and it pleased them: and whatever the melech did pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and kol Yisrael understood that yom that it was not the desire of the melech to slay Avner the son of Ner.

38 And the melech said to his avadim, Don't you know that there is a sar and a great man fallen this yom in Yisrael?

39 And I am weak today, though I am anointed melech; and these men the sons of Tzuruyah are too harsh for me: אַף אַף shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

4 And when Shaul's son heard that Avner was dead in Chebron, his hands were feeble and all the Yisraelites were troubled.

2 And Shaul's son had two men that were officers of bands: the name of the one was Baanah and the name of the other Rechav, the sons of Rimmon a Beerothite, of the children of Benyamin: for Beeroth also was counted with Benyamin:

3 And the Beerothites fled to Gittayim and are sojourners there until this yom.

4 And Yonathan, Shaul's son, had a son that was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the news came of Shaul and Yonathan out of Yezreel and his nurse took him and fled: and it came to pass, as she hurried to flee, that he fell and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechav and Baanah, went and came about the midday to the bayit of Ish-Bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came there into the midst of the bayit, pretending as though they would have gotten wheat; and they smote him under the stomach: and Rechav and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the bayit, he lay on his bed in his bedchamber and they smote him and killed him and beheaded him and took his head and got away through the plain all lyla.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-Bosheth to Dawid in Chebron and said to the melech, See the head of Ish-Bosheth the son of Shaul your enemy, who sought your chayim; and אִי־אִי has avenged my master the melech this yom of Shaul and of his zera.

9 And Dawid answered Rechav and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite and said to them, As אִי־אִי lives, who has redeemed my chayim out of all adversity,

10 When one told me, saying, See, Shaul is dead, thinking to have brought tov news, I took hold of him and killed him in Ziklag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his news:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a tzadik person in his own bayit upon his bed? Shall I not therefore now require his dahm at your hand and take you away from the earth?

12 And Dawid commanded his young men and they killed them and cut off their hands and their feet and hanged them up over the pool in Chebron. But they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in the tomb of Avner in Chebron.

5 Then came all the tribes of Yisrael to Dawid at Chebron and spoke, saying, See, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 Also in times past, when Shaul was melech over us, you were he that led out and brought in Yisrael: and אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to you, you shall feed My people Yisrael and you shall be a ruler over Yisrael.

3 So all the zechanim of Yisrael came to the melech to Chebron; and melech Dawid made a brit with them in Chebron before אִיִּזְרָאֵל: and they anointed Dawid melech over kol Yisrael.

4 Dawid was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Chebron he reigned over Yahudah seven years and six chodashem: and in Yahrushalayim he reigned thirty-three years over kol Yisrael and kol Yahudah.

6 And the melech and his men went to Yahrushalayim to the Yevusites, the inhabitants of the land: who spoke to Dawid, saying, Except you take away the blind and the lame, you shall not come in here: and they said, Dawid cannot come in here.

7 Nevertheless Dawid took the stronghold of Tzion: the same is the city of Dawid.

8 And Dawid said on that yom, Whoever goes up to the gutter and smites the Yevusites and the lame and the blind, that hate Dawid's chayim, he shall become chief and captain. Therefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the bayit.

9 So Dawid dwelt in the fort and called it the city of Dawid. And Dawid built around it from Millo on inward.

10 And Dawid went on and grew great and אֱלֹהִים Ahlohim Tzevaot was with him.

11 And Chiram melech of Tzor sent messengers to Dawid and cedar eytzim and carpenters and masons: and they built Dawid a bayit.

12 And Dawid perceived that אֲרָאָה had established him as melech over kol Yisrael and that he had exalted his malchut for his people Yisrael's sake.
