

YAH SCRIPTURES

INTRODUCTION

This translation of the Scriptures uses a number of words and names that may be unfamiliar to some.

THE NAME OF THE ALMIGHTY

The Name of the Creator, YHWH known as the 'tetragrammaton' is rendered using the ancient Hebrew letters: yod, hay, waw, hay in the Dead Sea Scrolls. The practice of copying the Scriptures into modern Hebrew was applied by the scribes, while the Name of YHWH was rendered in the Paleo Hebrew script – יהוה. This English translation uses the same script throughout. It is believed to be the form used by יהוה Himself when He gave the Commandments in stone to Mosheh.

THE NAME OF HA'MASHIAH

The Name of the Messiah which means 'Yah is salvation' is spelled in Hebrew: yod, hay, waw, shin, ayin - spoken and spelled similar to Yahoshua, the successor to Mosheh and is also rendered in the Paleo Hebrew Script - יהושע throughout the Renewed Covenant.

ORDER OF BOOKS

The order of Books in the First Covenant follow the traditional Hebraic TaNaK (Torah, Nebi'im, Ketubim) while the Letters of Sha'ul have been arranged in approximate chronological order.

FOOTNOTES

In this translation you will find no comments or footnotes! It is vitally important that if you do not understand a certain issue from Scripture that you ask יהוה to teach you through the Ruah ha'Qodesh (see 1 Jn 2:27, 1 Co 2:13) He is your teacher - not man.

THE PRONUNCIATION OF NAMES

All the names throughout this translation have been transliterated to give an accurate pronunciation in the Hebrew language. The following table gives the vocal sounds necessary for correct pronunciation.

PRONUNCIATION GUIDE

a - äh in ärm	ᵇ - bh v as in vet
e - eh as in elm	ᵈ - dh th as in them
i - ee as in ēel	ě - ey as in eight
o - oh as in on	ḡ - gh The 'ḡ' is pronounced as
ḥ - (ch) The 'ḥ' and 'ḵ' are pronounced as ḵ - (kh) the 'ch' in the German composer
	Bach, or the Scottish Loch, like a guttural, aspirated h sound.

OTHER USE OF LANGUAGE

The Torah commands not to speak the names of false mighty ones (Exo 23:13, Jos 23:7, Psa 16:4), and in an effort to reduce the number of English words derived from pagan deities or pagan titles, especially when pertaining to His Bën and His people, the YAH Scriptures contains a number of Hebrew words, also reflecting the Hebrew origin of Scripture. As these terms will be foreign to many, a GLOSSARY is included to familiarize the user with these new words.

(FIRST COVENANT)

BERĔSHITH

- 1 In the beginning Elohim created the shamayim and the earth.
- 2 And the earth came to be formless and empty, and darkness was on the face of the deep. And the Ruah of Elohim was moving on the face of the waters.
- 3 And Elohim said, "Let light come to be," and light came to be.
- 4 And Elohim saw the light, that it was good. And Elohim separated the light from the darkness.
- 5 And Elohim called the light 'day' and the darkness He called 'night.' And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, day one.
- 6 And Elohim said, "Let an expanse come to be in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."
- 7 And Elohim made the expanse, and separated the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse. And it came to be so.
- 8 And Elohim called the expanse 'shamayim.' And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, the second day.
- 9 And Elohim said, "Let the waters under the shamayim be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it came to be so.
- 10 And Elohim called the dry land 'earth,' and the collection of the waters He called 'seas.' And Elohim saw that it was good.
- 11 And Elohim said, "Let the earth bring forth grass, the plant that yields seed, and the fruit tree that yields fruit according to its kind, whose seed is in itself, on the earth." And it came to be so.

12 And the earth brought forth grass, the plant that yields seed according to its kind, and the tree that yields fruit, whose seed is in itself according to its kind. And Elohim saw that it was good.

13 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, the third day.

14 And Elohim said, "Let lights come to be in the expanse of the shamayim to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs and Appointed Times, and for days and years, 15 and let them be for lights in the expanse of the shamayim to give light on the earth." And it came to be so.

16 And Elohim made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night, and the stars.

17 And Elohim placed them in the expanse of the shamayim to give light on the earth,

18 and to rule over the day and over the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. And Elohim saw that it was good.

19 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, the fourth day.

20 And Elohim said, "Let the waters teem with shoals of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth on the face of the expanse of the shamayim."

21 And Elohim created great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters teemed, according to their kind, and every winged bird according to its kind. And Elohim saw that it was good.

22 And Elohim barak them, saying, "Bear fruit and increase, and fill the waters in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth."

23 And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, the fifth day.

24 And Elohim said, "Let the earth bring forth the living creature according to its kind: livestock and creeping creatures and beasts of the earth, according to its kind." And it came to be so.

25 And Elohim made the beast of the earth according to its kind, livestock according to its kind, and all that creep on the earth according to its kind. And Elohim saw that it was good.

26 And Elohim said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the shamayim, and over the livestock, and over all the earth and over all the creeping creatures that creep on the earth."

27 And Elohim created the man in His image, in the image of Elohim He created him - male and female He created them.

28 And Elohim barak them, and Elohim said to them, "Bear fruit and increase, and fill the earth and subdue it, and rule over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the shamayim, and over all creatures moving on the earth."

29 And Elohim said, "See, I have given you every plant that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed, to you it is for food.

30 "And to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the shamayim, and to every creeping creature on the earth, in which there is breath of life, every green plant is for food." And it came to be so.

31 And Elohim saw all that He had made, and see, it was very good. And there came to be evening and there came to be morning, the sixth day.

2 Thus the shamayim and the earth were completed, and all their array.

2 And on the seventh day Elohim completed His work which He had done, and He rested on the seventh day from all His work which He had made.

3 And Elohim barak<sub>u</sub> the seventh day and made it qodesh, because on it He rested from all His work which Elohim in creating had made.

4 These are the births of the shamayim and the earth when they were created, in the day that אֱלֹהִים Elohim made earth and shamayim.

5 Now no shrub of the field was yet on the earth, and no plant of the field had yet sprung up, for אֱלֹהִים Elohim had not sent rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the ground,

6 but a mist went up from the earth and watered the entire surface of the ground.

7 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim formed the man out of dust from the ground, and breathed into his nostrils breath of life. And the man became a living being.

8 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim planted a garden in Ĕden, to the east, and there He put the man whom He had formed.

9 And out of the ground אֱלֹהִים Elohim made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food, with the tree of ḥai in the midst of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Ĕden to water the garden, and from there it divided and became four riverheads.

11 The name of the first is Pishon, it is the one surrounding the entire land of Ḥawilah, where there is gold.

12 And the gold of that land is good. Bdellium is there, and the shoham stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Giḥon, it is the one surrounding the entire land of Kush.

14 And the name of the third river is H̄iddeqel, it is the one which goes toward the east of Ashshur. And the fourth river is Perath.

15 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim took the man and put him in the garden of Ēden to work it and to guard it.

16 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim commanded the man, saying, “Eat of every tree of the garden, 17 but do not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for in the day that you eat of it you shall certainly die.”

18 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim said, “It is not good for the man to be alone, I am going to make a helper for him, as his counterpart.”

19 And from the ground אֱלֹהִים Elohim formed every beast of the field and every bird of the shamayim, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. And whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name.

20 So the man gave names to all livestock, and to the birds of the shamayim, and to every beast of the field. But for the man there was not found a helper for him, as his counterpart.

21 So אֱלֹהִים Elohim caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and he slept. And He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place.

22 And the rib which אֱלֹהִים Elohim had taken from the man He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

23 And the man said, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. This one is called ‘woman’, because she was taken out of man.”

24 For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and join unto his wife, and they shall become one flesh. And they were both naked, the man and his wife, yet they were not ashamed.

3 And the serpent was more crafty than any beast of the field which אֱלֹהִים Elohim had made, and he said to the woman, “Is it true that Elohim has said, ‘Do not eat of every tree of the garden?’”

2 And the woman said to the serpent, “We are to eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden,

3 but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, Elohim has said, ‘Do not eat of it, nor touch it, lest you die.’ ”

4 And the serpent said to the woman, “You shall certainly not die.

5 “For Elohim knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes shall be opened, and you shall be like Elohim, knowing good and evil.”

6 And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree desirable to make one wise, and she took of its fruit and ate. And she also gave to her husband with her, and he ate.

7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made loin coverings for themselves.

8 And they heard the sound of אֱלֹהִים Elohim walking about in the garden in the cool of the day, and Aḏam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of אֱלֹהִים Elohim among the trees of the garden.

9 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim called unto Aḏam and said to him, “Where are you?”

10 And he said, “I heard Your voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid myself.”

11 And He said, “Who made you know that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you that you should not eat?”

12 And the man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I ate."

13 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" And the woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

14 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, you are cursed more than all livestock and more than every beast of the field. On your abdomen you are to go, and eat dust all the days of your life.

15 "And I put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed. He shall crush your head, and you shall crush His heel."

16 To the woman He said, "I greatly increase your sorrow and your conception - bring forth children in pain. And your desire is for your husband, and he rules over you."

17 And to the man He said, "Because you have listened to the voice of your wife, and have eaten of the tree of which I commanded you, saying, 'Do not eat of it': "Cursed is the ground because of you, in toil you are to eat of it all the days of your life,

18 and it shall bring forth thorns and thistles for you, and you shall eat the plants of the field.

19 "By the sweat of your face you are to eat bread until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken. For dust you are, and to dust you return."

20 And the man called his wife's name Ḥawwah, because she became the mother of all living.

21 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim made coats of skin for the man and his wife and dressed them.

22 And אֱלֹהִים Elohim said, "See, the man has become like one of Us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he put out his hand and take also of the tree of ḥai, and eat, and live forever..."

23 so אֱלֹהִים Elohim sent him out of the garden of Ēden to till the ground from which he was taken,
 24 and He drove the man out. And He placed kerubim at the east of the garden of Ēden, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of ḥai.

4 And Aḏam knew Ḥawwah his wife, and she conceived and bore Qayin, and said, “I have gained a man from אֱלֹהִים.”

2 And again, she gave birth to his brother Heḇel. And Heḇel became a keeper of sheep, but Qayin became a tiller of the ground.

3 And it came to be, in the course of time, that Qayin brought an offering of the fruit of the ground to אֱלֹהִים.

4 And Heḇel also brought of the first-born of his flock and of their fat. And אֱלֹהִים looked to Heḇel and his offering,

5 but He did not look to Qayin and his offering. And Qayin was very wroth, and his face fell.

6 And אֱלֹהִים said to Qayin, “Why are you wroth? And why is your face fallen?

7 “If you do well, is there not acceptance? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. And its desire is for you, but you should master it.”

8 And Qayin told Heḇel his brother, “Come, let us go into the field.” And it came to be when they were in the field, that Qayin rose up against Heḇel his brother and killed him.

9 And אֱלֹהִים said to Qayin, “Where is Heḇel your brother?” And he said, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s guard?”

10 And He said, “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s blood cries out to Me from the ground.

11 “And now you are cursed from the earth, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s blood from your hand.

12 “If you till the ground, it shall no longer yield its strength to you. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth.”

13 And Qayin said to אָדָם, “My wickedness is too great to bear!

14 “See, You have driven me from the face of the ground today, and I am hidden from Your face. I shall be a fugitive and a wanderer on the earth, and it shall be that anyone who finds me kills me.”

15 And אָדָם said to him, “Well, if anyone kills Qayin, vengeance is taken on him sevenfold.” And אָדָם placed a sign for Qayin, lest anyone finding him kills him.

16 So Qayin went out from the presence of אָדָם and dwelt in the land of Noḡ on the east of Ĕden.

17 And Qayin knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Ḥanoḵ. And he built a city, and called the name of the city after the name of his son, Ḥanoḵ.

18 And to Ḥanoḵ was born Iraḡ. And Iraḡ brought forth Meḥuya’ēl, and Meḥuya’ēl brought forth Methusa’ēl, and Methusa’ēl brought forth Lemek.

19 And Lemek took for himself two wives, the name of one was Aḡah, and the name of the second was Tsillah.

20 And Aḡah bore Yaḡal. He was the father of those who dwell in tents, with livestock.

21 And his brother’s name was Yuḡal. He was the father of all those who play the lyre and flute.

22 As for Tsillah, she also bore Tuḡal-Qayin, a smith of all kinds of tools in bronze and iron. And the sister of Tuḡal-Qayin was Na’amah.

23 And Lemek said to his wives Adah and Tsillah, "Hear my voice! Wives of Lemek, listen to my words! For I have killed a man for wounding me, even a young man for hurting me.

24 "For Qayin is avenged sevenfold, and Lemek seventy-sevenfold."

25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son and called his name Sheth, "For Elohim has appointed me another seed instead of Hebel," because Qayin had slain him.

26 And to Sheth, to him also a son was born. And he called his name Enosh. Then it was begun to call on the Name of אָנָשׁ.

5 This is the book of the genealogy of Adam. In the day that Elohim created man, He made him in the likeness of Elohim.

2 Male and female He created them, and He barak them, and called their name 'Adam' in the day they were created.

3 And Adam lived one hundred and thirty years, and brought forth a son in his own likeness, after his image, and called his name Sheth.

4 And after he brought forth Sheth, the days of Adam were eight hundred years. And he brought forth sons and daughters.

5 So all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years, and he died.

6 And Sheth lived one hundred and five years, and brought forth Enosh.

7 And after he brought forth Enosh, Sheth lived eight hundred and seven years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

8 So all the days of Sheth were nine hundred and twelve years, and he died.

- 9 And Enosh lived ninety years, and brought forth Qěynan.
- 10 And after he brought forth Qěynan, Enosh lived eight hundred and fifteen years, and brought forth sons and daughters.
- 11 So all the days of Enosh were nine hundred and five years, and he died.
- 12 And Qěynan lived seventy years, and brought forth Mahalal'ěl.
- 13 After he brought forth Mahalal'ěl, Qěynan lived eight hundred and forty years, and brought forth sons and daughters.
- 14 So all the days of Qěynan were nine hundred and ten years, and he died.
- 15 And Mahalal'ěl lived sixty-five years, and brought forth Yeređ.
- 16 And after he brought forth Yeređ, Mahalal'ěl lived eight hundred and thirty years, and brought forth sons and daughters.
- 17 So all the days of Mahalal'ěl were eight hundred and ninety-five years, and he died.
- 18 And Yeređ lived one hundred and sixty-two years, and brought forth Ҳanoқ.
- 19 And after he brought forth Ҳanoқ, Yeređ lived eight hundred years, and brought forth sons and daughters.
- 20 So all the days of Yeređ were nine hundred and sixty-two years, and he died.
- 21 And Ҳanoқ lived sixty-five years, and brought forth Methushelaḥ.
- 22 And after he brought forth Methushelaḥ, Ҳanoқ walked with Elohim three hundred years, and brought forth sons and daughters.
- 23 So all the days of Ҳanoқ were three hundred and sixty-five years.

24 And Ḥanok̄ walked with Elohim. Then he was no more, for Elohim took him.

25 And Methushelah̄ lived one hundred and eighty-seven years, and brought forth Lemek̄.

26 And after he brought forth Lemek̄, Methushelah̄ lived seven hundred and eighty-two years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

27 So all the days of Methushelah̄ were nine hundred and sixty-nine years, and he died.

28 And Lemek̄ lived one hundred and eighty-two years, and brought forth a son,

29 and called his name Noah̄, saying, “This one comforts us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which אַרְצָא has cursed.”

30 And after he brought forth Noah̄, Lemek̄ lived five hundred and ninety-five years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

31 So all the days of Lemek̄ were seven hundred and seventy-seven years, and he died.

32 And Noah̄ was five hundred years old, and Noah̄ brought forth Shēm, Ḥam, and Yepheth.

6 And it came to be, when men began to increase on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them,
 2 that the sons of Elohim saw the daughters of men, that they were good. And they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

3 And אַרְצָא said, “My Ruah̄ shall not strive with mankind forever in his going astray. He is flesh, and his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.”

4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days, and also afterward, when the sons of Elohim came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them.

Those were the mighty men who were of old, the men of name.

5 And אַף־אֵל saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And אַף־אֵל was sorry that He had made man on the earth, and He was grieved in His heart.

7 And אַף־אֵל said, "I am going to wipe off man whom I have created from the face of the earth, both man and beast, creeping creature and birds of the shamayim, for I am sorry that I have made them."

8 But Noah found favour in the eyes of אַף־אֵל.

9 This is the genealogy of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, perfect in his generations. Noah walked with Elohim.

10 And Noah brought forth three sons: Shēm, Ḥam and Yepheth.

11 And the earth was corrupt before Elohim, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And Elohim looked upon the earth and saw that it was corrupt - for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth -

13 and Elohim said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. And see, I am going to destroy them from the earth.

14 "Make yourself an ark of gopherwood. Make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and outside with tar.

15 "And this is how you are to make it: The length of the ark is three hundred ammah, its width fifty ammah, and its height thirty ammah.

16 "Make a window for the ark, and complete it to an ammah from above. And put the door of the ark in its side. Make it with lower, second, and third decks.

17 “And see, I Myself am bringing floodwaters on the earth, to destroy all flesh in which is the breath of life from under the shamayim - all that is on the earth is to die.

18 “And I shall establish My Covenant with you, and you shall come into the ark, you and your sons and your wife and your sons’ wives with you.

19 “And of all the living creatures of all flesh, two of each, you are to bring into the ark, to keep them alive with you - a male and a female.

20 “Of the birds after their kind, and of the cattle after their kind, and of all creeping creatures of the earth after their kind, two of each are to come to you, to keep them alive.

21 “As for you, take of all food that is eaten and gather it to yourself. And it shall be food for you and for them.”

22 And Noah did according to all that Elohim commanded him, so he did.

7 And אֱלֹהִים said to Noah, “Come into the ark, you and all your household, because I have seen that you are righteous before Me in this generation.

2 “Of all the clean beasts take with you seven pairs, a male and his female; and of the beasts that are unclean two, a male and his female;

3 and of birds of the shamayim seven pairs, male and female, to keep offspring alive on the face of all the earth.

4 “For after seven more days I am sending rain on the earth, forty days and forty nights, and shall wipe from the face of the earth all that stand that I created.”

5 And Noah did according to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded him.

6 Now Noah was six hundred years old when the flood-waters were on the earth.

7 And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives went into the ark because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of the clean beasts and of the beasts that are unclean, and of birds, and of all that creep on the earth,
9 two by two they went into the ark to Noah, male and female, as Elohim had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to be after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, on that day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of the shamayim were opened.

12 And the rain was on the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 On that same day Noah and Shem and Ham and Yepheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife and the three wives of his sons with them, went into the ark,

14 they and every living creature after its kind, and every beast after its kind, and every creeping creature that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went into the ark to Noah, two by two, of all flesh in which is the breath of life.

16 And those going in, male and female of all flesh, went in as Elohim had commanded him, and אָרָבָה shut him in.

17 And the flood was on the earth forty days, and the waters increased and lifted up the ark, and it rose high above the earth.

18 And the waters were mighty and greatly increased on the earth, and the ark moved about on the surface of the waters.

19 And the waters were exceedingly mighty on the earth, and all the high mountains under all the shamayim were covered.

20 The waters became mighty, fifteen ammah upward, and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved on the earth - birds and cattle and beasts and every creeping creature that creeps on the earth, and all mankind.

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, all that was on the dry land, died.

23 So He wiped off all that stand, which were on the face of the ground - both man and beast, creeping creature and bird of the shamayim. And they were wiped off from the earth. And only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.

24 And the waters were mighty on the earth, one hundred and fifty days.

8 And Elohim remembered Noah, and all the beasts and all the cattle that were with him in the ark. And Elohim made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.

2 And the fountains of the deep and the windows of the shamayim were stopped, and the rain from the shamayim was withheld.

3 And the waters receded steadily from the earth, and at the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters diminished.

4 And in the seventh month, the seventeenth day of the month, the ark rested on the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased steadily until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains became visible.

6 And it came to be, at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made,

7 and he sent out a raven, which kept going out and turning back until the waters had dried up from the earth.

8 Then he sent out a dove from him, to see if the waters had receded from the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no resting place for its feet and returned into the ark to him, for the waters were on the face of all the earth. So he put out his hand and took it, and pulled it into the ark to himself.

10 And he waited yet another seven days, and again he sent the dove out from the ark.

11 And the dove came to him in the evening, and see, a freshly plucked olive leaf was in its mouth. And Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.

12 And he waited yet another seven days and sent out the dove, which did not return to him again.

13 And it came to be in the six hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark and looked, and saw the surface of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

15 And Elohim spoke to Noah, saying,

16 "Go out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and your sons' wives with you.

17 "Bring out with you every living creature of all flesh that is with you: of birds, of cattle and all creeping creatures that creep on the earth. And let them teem on the earth, and bear and increase on the earth."

18 So Noah went out, and his sons and his wife and his sons' wives with him, 19 every beast, every creeping creature, and every bird, whatever creeps on the earth, according to their kinds, went out of the ark.

20 And Noah built an altar to אֱלֹהִים, and took of every clean beast and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And אֱלֹהִים smelled a soothing fragrance, and אֱלֹהִים said in His heart, "Never again shall I curse the ground because of man, although the inclination of man's heart is evil from his youth, and never again smite all life, as I have done,

22 as long as the earth remains, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and winter and summer, and day and night shall not cease."

9 And Elohim barak Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Bear fruit and increase, and fill the earth.

2 "And the fear of you and the dread of you is on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the shamayim, on all that creeps on the ground, and on all the fish of the sea - into your hand they have been given.

3 "Every moving creature that lives is food for you. I have given you all, as the green plants.

4 "But do not eat flesh with its life, its blood.

5 "But only your blood for your lives I require, from the hand of every beast I require it, and from the hand of man. From the hand of every man's brother I require the life of man.

6 "Whoever sheds man's blood, by man his blood is shed, for in the image of Elohim has He made man.

7 "As for you, bear fruit and increase, bring forth teeming in the earth and increase in it."

8 And Elohim spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying,

9 “And I, see, I establish My Covenant with you and with your seed after you,

10 and with every living creature that is with you: of the birds, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ark, every beast of the earth.

11 “And I shall establish My Covenant with you, and never again is all flesh cut off by the waters of the flood, and never again is there a flood to destroy the earth.”

12 And Elohim said, “This is the sign of the Covenant which I make between Me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for all generations to come:

13 “I shall put My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the Covenant between Me and the earth.

14 “And it shall be, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow shall be seen in the cloud,

15 and I shall remember My Covenant which is between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and never again let the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 “And the rainbow shall be in the cloud, and I shall see it, to remember the everlasting Covenant between Elohim and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

17 And Elohim said to Noah, “This is the sign of the Covenant which I have established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

18 And the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shēm and Ḥam and Yepheth. And Ḥam was the father of Kena’an.

19 These three were the sons of Noah, and all the earth was overspread from them.

20 And Noah, a man of the soil, began and planted a vineyard.

21 And he drank of the wine and was drunk, and became uncovered in his tent.

22 And Ḥam, the father of Kena'an, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside.

23 So Shēm and Yepheth took a garment, laid it on both their shoulders, and went backward and covered the nakedness of their father, but their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 And Noaḥ awoke from his wine, and he knew what his younger son had done to him,

25 and he said, "Cursed is Kena'an, let him become a servant of servants to his brothers."

26 And he said, "Baruḵ be אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of Shēm, and let Kena'an become his servant.

27 "Let Elohim enlarge Yepheth, and let him dwell in the tents of Shēm. And let Kena'an become his servant."

28 And Noaḥ lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

29 So all the days of Noaḥ were nine hundred and fifty years, and he died.

10 And this is the genealogy of the sons of Noaḥ: Shēm, Ḥam, and Yepheth. And sons were born to them after the flood.

2 The sons of Yepheth: Gomer, and Maḡoḡ, and Maḡai, and Yawan, and Tuḅal, and Mesheḵ and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Toḡarmah.

4 And the sons of Yawan: Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Doḡanim.

5 From these the coastland peoples of the nations were separated into their lands, everyone according to his language, according to their clans, into their nations.

6 And the sons of Ḥam: Kush, and Mitsrayim, and Put, and Kena'an.

7 And the sons of Kush: Seḇa, and Ḥawilah, and Saḇtah, and Ra'mah, and Saḇteḇa. And the sons of Ra'mah: Sheḇa and Deḇan.

8 And Kush brought forth Nimroḇ, he began to be a mighty one on the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before אֱלֹהִים, therefore it is said, "Like Nimroḇ the mighty hunter before אֱלֹהִים."

10 And the beginning of his reign was Babel, and Ereḇ, and Akkaḇ, and Kalnēh, in the land of Shin'ar.

11 From that land he went to Ashshur and built Ninewēh, and Reḥoboth Ir, and Kelaḥ, 12 and Resen between Ninewēh and Kelaḥ, the great city.

13 And Mitsrayim brought forth Luḇim, and Anamim, and Lehāḇim, and Naphtuḥim, 14 and Pathrusim, and Kasluḥim, from whom came the Pelishtites and Kaphtorim.

15 And Kena'an brought forth Tsidon his first-born, and Ḥēth,

16 and the Yeḇusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgashite,

17 and the Ḥiwwite, and the Arqite, and the Sinite,

18 and the Arwaḇite, and the Tsemarite, and the Ḥamathite. And afterward the clans of the Kena'anites were spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Kena'anites was from Tsidon as you go toward Gerar, as far as Azzah, as you go toward Seḇom, and Amarah, and Admah, and Tseḇoyim, as far as Lasha.

20 These were the sons of Ḥam, according to their clans, according to their languages, in their lands, in their nations.

21 And also to Shēm, the father of all the children of Ĕber, the brother of Yepheth the elder, brought forth.

22 The sons of Shēm: Ĕylam, and Asshur, and Arpaḳshaḍ, and Luḍ, and Aram.

23 And the sons of Aram: Uts, and Ḥul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arpaḳshaḍ brought forth Shelaḥ, and Shelaḥ brought forth Ĕber.

25 And to Ĕber were born two sons, the name of one was Peleḡ, for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother's name was Yoqtan.

26 And Yoqtan brought forth Almoḍaḍ, and Sheleph, and Ḥatsarmaweth, and Yeraḥ, 27 and Haḍoram, and Uzal, and Diqlah,

28 and Oḅal, and Aḅima'ēl, and Sheḅa,

29 and Ophir, and Ḥawilah, and Yoḅaḅ. All these were sons of Yoqtan.

30 And their dwelling place was from Mēysha as you go toward Sephar, a mountain of the east.

31 These were the sons of Shēm, according to their clans, according to their languages, in their lands, according to their nations.

32 These were the clans of the sons of Noah, according to their generations, in their nations. And from these the nations were divided on the earth after the flood.

11 And it came to be, all the earth had one language and one speech.

2 And it came to be, as they departed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shin'ar, and they dwelt there.

3 And they said to each other, "Come, let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and they had asphalt for mortar.

4 And they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower whose top is in the shamayim, and make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered over all the face of the earth."

5 Then אֱלֹהִים came down to see the city and the tower which the sons of men had built.

6 And אֱלֹהִים said, "Look, they are one people and they all have one language, and this is what they begin to do! And now, they are not going to be withheld from doing whatever they plan to do.

7 "Come, let Us go there and confuse their language, so that they do not understand one another's speech."

8 And אֱלֹהִים scattered them from there, over the face of all the earth, and they ceased building the city.

9 That is why its name was called Babel, because there אֱלֹהִים confused the language of all the earth, and from there אֱלֹהִים scattered them over the face of all the earth.

10 This is the genealogy of Shēm: Shēm was a hundred years old and brought forth Arpaḳshad, two years after the flood.

11 And after he brought forth Arpaḳshad, Shēm lived five hundred years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

12 And Arpaḳshad lived thirty-five years, and brought forth Shelaḥ.

13 And after he brought forth Shelaḥ, Arpaḳshad lived four hundred and three years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

14 And Shelaḥ lived thirty years, and brought forth Ēber.

15 And after he brought forth Ĕber, Shelaḥ lived four hundred and three years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

16 And Ĕber lived thirty-four years, and brought forth Peleḡ.

17 And after he brought forth Peleḡ, Ĕber lived four hundred and thirty years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

18 And Peleḡ lived thirty years, and brought forth Re'u.

19 And after he brought forth Re'u, Peleḡ lived two hundred and nine years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

20 And Re'u lived thirty-two years, and brought forth Seruḡ.

21 And after he brought forth Seruḡ, Re'u lived two hundred and seven years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

22 And Seruḡ lived thirty years, and brought forth Naḥor.

23 And after he brought forth Naḥor, Seruḡ lived two hundred years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

24 And Naḥor lived twenty-nine years, and brought forth Teraḥ.

25 And after he brought forth Teraḥ, Naḥor lived one hundred and nineteen years, and brought forth sons and daughters.

26 And Teraḥ lived seventy years, and brought forth Aḅram, Naḥor, and Haran.

27 And this is the genealogy of Teraḥ: Teraḥ brought forth Aḅram, Naḥor, and Haran. And Haran brought forth Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Teraḥ in the land of his birth, in Ur-Kasdim.

29 And Aḅram and Naḥor took wives: the name of Aḅram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Naḥor's wife, Milkah, the daughter of Haran the father of Milkah and the father of Yiskah.

30 And Sarai was barren, she had no child.

31 And Teraḥ took his son Aḅram and his grandson Lot, son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, his son Aḅram's wife, and they went out with them from Ur-Kasdim to go to the land of Kena'an. And they came to Ḥaran and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Teraḥ came to be two hundred and five years, and Teraḥ died in Ḥaran.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to Aḅram, "Go yourself out of your land, from your relatives and from your father's house, to a land which I show you.

2 "And I shall make you a great nation, and barak̄ you and make your name great, and you shall be a berak̄ah!

3 "And I shall barak̄ those who barak̄ you, and curse him who curses you. And in you all the clans of the earth shall be baruk̄."

4 So Aḅram left, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, and Lot went with him. And Aḅram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Ḥaran.

5 And Aḅram took Sarai his wife and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had gathered, and the beings whom they had acquired in Ḥaran, and they departed for the land of Kena'an. And they came to the land of Kena'an.

6 And Aḅram passed through the land to the place of Sheḱem, as far as the terebinth tree of Moreh. At that time the Kena'anites were in the land.

7 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to Aḅram and said, "To your seed I give this land." And he built there an altar to אֱלֹהִים, who had appeared to him.

8 And from there he moved to the mountain east of Běyth Ěl, and he pitched his tent, with Běyth Ěl on the west and Ai on the east. And he built there an altar to אֱלֹהִים, and called on the Name of אֱלֹהִים.

9 And Abram departed, continuing toward the Negeb.

10 And a scarcity of food came to be in the land, and Abram went down to Mitsrayim to dwell there, for the scarcity of food was severe in the land.

11 And it came to be, when he was close to entering Mitsrayim, that he said to Sarai his wife, “See, I know that you are a lovely woman to look at.

12 “And it shall be, when the Mitsrites see you, that they shall say, ‘This is his wife.’ And they shall kill me, but let you live.

13 “Please say you are my sister, so that it shall be well with me for your sake, and my life be spared because of you.”

14 And it came to be, when Abram came into Mitsrayim, that the Mitsrites saw the woman, that she was very lovely.

15 And Pharaoh’s officials saw her and praised her before Pharaoh, and the woman was taken to Pharaoh’s house.

16 And he treated Abram well for her sake, and he had sheep, and cattle, and male donkeys, and male and female servants, and female donkeys, and camels.

17 But אֱלֹהִים plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram’s wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram and said, “What is this you have done to me? Why did you not inform me that she was your wife?

19 “Why did you say, ‘She is my sister’? And so I was going to take her for my wife. Look, here is your wife, take her and go.”

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him, and they sent him away, with his wife and all that he had.

13 And Abram went up from Mitsrayim into the Negeb, he and his wife and all that he had, and Lot with him.

2 And Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journey from the Negeb as far as Běyth Ĕl, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Běyth Ĕl and Ai,

4 to the place of the altar which he had made there at first. And there Abram called on the Name of אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם.

5 Now Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together, for their possessions were great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. And at that time the Kena'anites and the Perizzites dwelt in the land.

8 Then Abram said to Lot, "Please let there be no strife between you and me, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers.

9 "Is not all the land before you? Please separate from me. If you take the left, then I go to the right; or, if you go to the right, then I go to the left."

10 And Lot lifted his eyes and saw all the plain of the Yardēn, that it was well watered everywhere - before אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָם destroyed Sedom and Amorah - like the garden of אֱדֵן, like the land of Mitsrayim as you go toward Tso'ar.

11 So Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Yardĕn, and Lot moved east. Thus they separated from each other,

12 Abram dwelling in the land of Kena'an, and Lot dwelling in the cities of the plain and pitched his tent as far as Sedom.

13 But the men of Sedom were evil and sinned before אֱלֹהִים, exceedingly so.

14 And after Lot had separated from him, אֱלֹהִים said to Abram, "Now lift up your eyes and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward,

15 for all the land which you see I shall give to you and your seed forever.

16 "And I shall make your seed as the dust of the earth, so that, if a man could count the dust of the earth, then your seed also could be counted.

17 "Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you."

18 So Abram moved his tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamrĕ, which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to אֱלֹהִים.

14 And it came to be in the days of Amraphel sovereign of Shin'ar, Aryok sovereign of Ellasar, Kedorla'omer sovereign of Ĕylam, and Tid'al sovereign of Goyim,

2 that they fought against Bera sovereign of Sedom, Birsha sovereign of Amorah, Shinab sovereign of Admah, Shem'ĕber sovereign of Tseboyim, and the sovereign of Bela, that is Tso'ar.

3 All these joined together in the Valley of Siddim, that is the Salt Sea.

4 Twelve years they served Kedorla'omer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year Kedōrla'omer and the sovereigns that were with him came and smote the Repha'im in Ashteroth Qarnayim, and the Zuzim in Ḥam, and the Ĕymites in Shawēh Qiryathayim,

6 and the Ḥorites in their mountain of Sē'ir, as far as Ĕl Paran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they turned back and came to Ĕyn Mishpat, that is Qadēsh, and smote all the country of the Amalēqites, and also the Amorites who dwelt in Ḥatsetson Tamar.

8 And the sovereign of Seđom, and the sovereign of Amorah, and the sovereign of Admah, and the sovereign of Tseḃoyim, and the sovereign of Bela, that is Tso'ar, went out and joined together in battle in the Valley of Siddim, 9 against Kedōrla'omer sovereign of Ĕylam, and Tid'al sovereign of Goyim, and Amraphel sovereign of Shin'ar, and Aryok sovereign of Ellasar - four sovereigns against five.

10 And the Valley of Siddim had many tar pits. And the sovereigns of Seđom and Amorah fled and fell there, and the remainder fled to the mountains.

11 And they took all the goods of Seđom and Amorah, and all their food, and went away.

12 And they took Lot, Aḃram's brother's son who dwelt in Seđom, and his goods, and left.

13 And one who had escaped came and informed Aḃram the Iḃri, for he dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamrē the Amorite, brother of Eshkol and brother of Anēr, and they had a covenant with Aḃram.

14 And when Aḃram heard that his brother was taken captive, he armed his three hundred and eighteen trained servants who were born in his own house, and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

15 And he and his servants divided against them by night, and smote them and pursued them as far as Hōbah, which is on the left of Dammeseq.

16 So he brought back all the goods, and also brought back his brother Lot and his goods, as well as the women and the people.

17 And after his return from the defeat of Kedōrla'omer and the sovereigns who were with him, the sovereign of Sedōm came out to meet him at the Valley of Shawēh, that is, the Sovereign's Valley.

18 And Malkitsedeq sovereign of Shalēm brought out bread and wine. Now he was the kohēn of the Most High Ěl.

19 And he baruḵ him and said, "Baruḵ be Aḅram of the Most High Ěl, Possessor of the shamayim and earth.

20 "And baruḵ be the Most High Ěl who has delivered your enemies into your hand." And he gave him a tenth of all.

21 And the sovereign of Sedōm said to Aḅram, "Give me the people, and take the goods for yourself."

22 But Aḅram said to the sovereign of Sedōm, "I have lifted my hand to אֱלֹהִים, the Most High Ěl, the Possessor of the shamayim and earth,

23 not to take a thread or a sandal strap or whatever is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Aḅram rich,'

24 except only what the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Anēr, Eshkol, and Mamrē. Let them take their portion."

15 After these events the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Aḅram in a vision, saying, "Do not be afraid, Aḅram. I am your shield, your reward is exceedingly great."

2 And Aḅram said, "Aḅonai אֱלֹהִים, what would You give me, seeing I go childless, and the heir of my house is Eli'ezer of Dammeseq?"

3 And Abram said, "See, You have given me no seed, and see, one born in my house is my heir!"

4 And see, the word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, saying, "This one is not your heir, but he who comes from your own body is your heir."

5 And He brought him outside and said, "Look now toward the shamayim, and count the stars if you are able to count them." And He said to him, "So are your seed."

6 And he believed in אֱלֹהִים, and He reckoned it to him for righteousness.

7 And He said to him, "I am אֱלֹהִים, who brought you out of Ur-Kasdim, to give you this land to inherit it."

8 And he said, "Adonai אֱלֹהִים, whereby do I know that I possess it?"

9 And He said to him, "Bring Me a three-year-old heifer, and a three-year-old female goat, and a three-year-old ram, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon."

10 And he took all these to Him and cut them in the middle, and placed each half opposite the other, but he did not cut the birds.

11 And the birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

12 And it came to be, when the sun was going down, and a deep sleep fell upon Abram, that see, a frightening great darkness fell upon him.

13 And He said to Abram, "Know for certain that your seed are to be sojourners in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them, and they shall afflict them four hundred years.

14 "But the nation whom they serve I am going to judge, and afterward let them come out with great possessions.

15 "Now as for you, you are to go to your fathers in peace, you are to be buried at a good old age.

16 “Then, in the fourth generation they shall return here, for the wickedness of the Amorites is not yet complete.”

17 And it came to be, when the sun went down and it was dark, that see, a smoking oven and a burning torch passing between those pieces.

18 On the same day אַבְרָם made a Covenant with אַבְרָם, saying, “I have given this land to your seed, from the river of Mitsrayim to the great river, the River Perath,

19 with the Qěynite, and the Qenizzite, and the Qadmonite,

20 and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Repha'im,

21 and the Amorite, and the Kena'anite, and the Girschite, and the Yebusite.”

16 And Sarai, אַבְרָם's wife, had borne him no child.

And she had a Mitsrite female servant whose name was Haġar.

2 And Sarai said to אַבְרָם, “See, אַבְרָם has kept me from bearing children. Please, go in to my female servant. It might be that I am built up by her.” And אַבְרָם listened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai, אַבְרָם's wife, took Haġar her female servant, the Mitsrite, and gave her to her husband אַבְרָם to be his wife, after אַבְרָם had dwelt ten years in the land of Kena'an.

4 And he went in to Haġar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said to אַבְרָם, “My wrong be upon you! I gave my female servant into your bosom. And when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. Let אַבְרָם judge between you and me.”

6 And Abram said to Sarai, “See, your female servant is in your hand, do to her what is good in your eyes.” And Sarai treated her harshly, and she fled from her presence.

7 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the way to Shur,

8 and He said, “Haḡar, Sarai’s female servant, where have you come from, and where are you going?” And she said, “I am fleeing from the presence of Sarai, my mistress.”

9 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to her, “Return to your mistress, and humble yourself under her hand.”

10 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to her, “I am going to increase your seed greatly, too numerous to be counted.”

11 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to her, “See, you are conceiving and bearing a son, and shall call his name Yishma’el, because אֱלֹהִים has heard your affliction.

12 “And he is to be a wild man, his hand against every one and every one’s hand against him, and dwell over against all his brothers.”

13 And she called the Name of אֱלֹהִים who spoke to her, “You are the Ĕl who sees,” for she said, “Even here have I seen after Him who sees me?”

14 That is why the well was called Be’er Laḡai Ro’i, see, it is between Qaḡesh and Bereḡ.

15 And Haḡar bore Abram a son, and Abram called the name of his son, whom Haḡar bore, Yishma’el.

16 And Abram was eighty-six years old when Haḡar bore Yishma’el to Abram.

- 17 And it came to be when Abram was ninety-nine years old, that אַבְרָם appeared to Abram and said to him, “I am Ĕl Shaddai - walk before Me and be perfect.
- 2 “And I give My Covenant between Me and you, and shall greatly increase you.”
- 3 And Abram fell on his face, and Elohim spoke with him, saying,
- 4 “As for Me, look, My Covenant is with you, and you shall become a father of many nations.
- 5 “And no longer is your name called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, because I shall make you a father of many nations.
- 6 “And I shall make you bear fruit exceedingly, and make nations of you, and sovereigns shall come from you.
- 7 “And I shall establish My Covenant between Me and you and your seed after you in their generations, for an everlasting Covenant, to be Elohim to you and your seed after you.
- 8 “And I shall give to you and your seed after you the land of your sojournings, all the land of Kena’an, as an everlasting possession. And I shall be their Elohim.”
- 9 And Elohim said to Abraham, “As for you, guard My Covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations.
- 10 “This is My Covenant which you guard between Me and you, and your seed after you: Every male child among you is to be circumcised.
- 11 “And you shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall become a sign of the Covenant between Me and you.
- 12 “And a son of eight days is circumcised by you, every male child in your generations, he who is born in your house or bought with silver from any foreigner who is not of your seed.

13 “He who is born in your house, and he who is bought with your silver, has to be circumcised. So shall My Covenant be in your flesh, for an everlasting Covenant.

14 “And an uncircumcised male child, who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, his life shall be cut off from his people - he has broken My Covenant.”

15 And Elohim said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, do not call her name Sarai, for Sarah is her name.

16 “And I shall barak her and also give you a son by her. And I shall barak her, and she shall become nations - sovereigns of peoples are to be from her.”

17 And Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, “Is a child born to a man who is a hundred years old? Or is Sarah, who is ninety years old, to bear a child?”

18 And Abraham said to Elohim, “Oh, let Yishma’el live before You!”

19 And Elohim said, “No, Sarah your wife is truly bearing a son to you, and you shall call his name Yitshaq. And I shall establish My Covenant with him for an everlasting Covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 “And as for Yishma’el, I have heard you. See, I shall barak him, and shall make him bear fruit, and greatly increase him. He is to bring forth twelve princes, and I shall make him a great nation.

21 “But My Covenant I establish with Yitshaq, whom Sarah is to bear to you at this appointed time next year.”

22 And when He had ended speaking with him, Elohim went up from Abraham.

23 And Abraham took Yishma’el his son, and all those born in his house and all those bought with his silver, every male among the men of Aḅraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins that same day, as Elohim told him.

24 And Aḅraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Yishma'ël his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 Aḅraham and his son Yishma'ël were circumcised that same day.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house or bought with silver from a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

18 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamrě, while he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day.

2 So he lifted his eyes and looked, and saw three men standing opposite him. And when he saw them, he ran from the tent door to meet them, and bowed himself to the ground,

3 and said, "אֱלֹהִים, if I have now found favour in Your eyes, please do not pass Your servant by.

4 "Please let a little water be brought, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree.

5 "And let me bring a piece of bread and refresh your hearts, and then go on, for this is why you have come to your servant." And they said, "Do as you have said."

6 So Aḅraham ran into the tent to Sarah and said, "Hurry, make ready three se'im of fine flour, knead it and make cakes."

7 And Aḅraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hurried to prepare it.

8 And he took curds and milk and the calf which he had prepared, and put it before them, and he stood by them under the tree as they ate.

9 And they said to him, "Where is Sarah your wife?" And he said, "See, in the tent."

10 And He said, "I shall certainly return to you according to the time of life, and see, Sarah your wife is to have a son!" And Sarah was listening in the tent door which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age, and Sarah was past the way of women.

12 And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old, shall I have pleasure, my master being old too?"

13 And אֱלֹהִים said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Shall I truly have a child, since I am old?'"

14 "Is any matter too hard for אֱלֹהִים? At the appointed time I am going to return to you, according to the time of life, and Sarah is to have a son."

15 But Sarah denied it, saying, "I did not laugh," for she was afraid. And He said, "No, but you did laugh!"

16 And the men rose up from there and looked toward Sodom, and Abraham went with them to send them away.

17 And אֱלֹהִים said, "Shall I hide from Abraham what I am doing,

18 since Abraham is certainly going to become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be barak in him?

19 "For I have known him, so that he commands his children and his household after him, to guard the Way of אֱלֹהִים, to do righteousness and Right-Ruling, so that אֱלֹהִים brings to Abraham what He has spoken to him."

20 And אַף־אַזַּי said, “Because the outcry against Sedom and Am<sup>o</sup>rah is great, and because their sin is very heavy,

21 “I am going down now to see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry against it that has come to Me, and if not, I know.”

22 So the men turned away from there and went toward Sedom, but Abraham still stood before אַף־אַזַּי.

23 And Abraham drew near and said, “Would You also destroy the righteous with the wicked?”

24 “Suppose there are fifty righteous within the city, would You also destroy the place and not spare it for the fifty righteous that were in it?”

25 “Far be it from You to act in this way, to slay the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be as the wicked. Far be it from You! Does the Judge of all the earth not do right?”

26 And אַף־אַזַּי said, “If I find in Sedom fifty righteous within the city, then I shall spare all the place for their sakes.”

27 And Abraham answered and said, “Look, please, I who am but dust and ashes have taken it upon myself to speak to אַף־אַזַּי,

28 “Suppose there are five less than the fifty righteous, would You destroy all of the city for lack of five?” And He said, “If I find there forty-five, I do not destroy it.”

29 And he spoke to Him yet again and said, “Suppose there are found forty?” And He said, “I would not do it for the sake of forty.”

30 And he said, “Let not אַף־אַזַּי be displeased, and let me speak: Suppose there are found thirty?” And He said, “I would not do it if I find thirty there.”

31 And he said, “Look, please, I have taken it upon myself to speak to אַף־אַזַּי: Suppose there are found twenty?” And He said, “I would not destroy it for the sake of twenty.”

32 And he said, “Let not אַף־אַף be displeased, and let me speak only this time: Suppose there are found ten?” And He said, “I would not destroy it for the sake of ten.”

33 Then אַף־אַף went away as soon as He had ended speaking to Abraham. And Abraham returned to his place.

19 And the two messengers came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. And when Lot saw them, he rose up to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground,

2 and he said, “Look, please my masters, please turn in to your servant’s house and spend the night, and wash your feet, and rise early and go your way.” And they said, “No, but let us spend the night in the open square.”

3 But he urged them strongly, and they turned in to him and came into his house. And he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every part, surrounded the house.

5 And they called to Lot and said to him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, and let us ‘know’ them.”

6 So Lot went out to them through the doorway, and shut the door behind him,

7 and said, “Please, my brothers, do not do evil!

8 “Look, please, I have two daughters who have not known a man. Please, let me bring them out to you, and do to them as is good in your eyes, only do no deed to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof.”

9 But they said, “Stand back!” And they said, “This one came in to sojourn, and should he always judge? Now we are going to treat you worse than them.” So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door.

10 But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

11 Then they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, and they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 And the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? A son-in-law, and your sons, and your daughters, and whomever you have in the city - bring them out of this place!

13 “For we are going to destroy this place, because the cry against them has grown great before the face of אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים has sent us to destroy it.”

14 And Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, “Get up, get out of this place, for אֱלֹהִים is going to destroy this city!” But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be as one joking.

15 And when morning dawned, the messengers urged Lot to hurry, saying, “Get up, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city.”

16 And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, and his wife’s hand, and the hands of his two daughters, אֱלֹהִים having compassion on him, and they brought him out and put him outside the city.

17 And it came to be, when they had brought them outside, that he said, “Escape for your life! Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed.”

- 18 And Lot said to them, “Oh no, אֵלֵינוּ!
19 “Look, please, your servant has found favour in your eyes, and you have increased your kindness which you have shown me by saving my life, but I am unable to escape to the mountains, lest calamity overtake me and I die.
20 “Look, please, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is small. Please let me escape there - is it not a small matter - and let my life be saved?”
21 And He said to him, “Look, I have favoured you concerning this matter also, without overthrowing this city for which you have spoken.
22 “Hurry, escape there. For I am not able to do any deed until you arrive there.” So the name of the city was called Tso’ar.
23 The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Tso’ar.
24 And אֵשׁ וְשׁוּלְפֻרִים rained sulphur and fire on Sedom and Amorah, from אֵשׁ וְשׁוּלְפֻרִים out of the shamayim.
25 So He overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground.
26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a post of salt.
27 And Abraham arose early in the morning to the place where he had stood before אֵלֵינוּ,
28 and he looked toward Sedom and Amorah, and toward all the land of the plain. And he looked and saw the smoke of the land which went up like the smoke of a furnace.
29 Thus it came to be, when Elohim destroyed the cities of the plain, that Elohim remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when He overthrew the cities in which Lot had dwelt.

30 And Lot went up out of Tso'ar and dwelt in the mountains, and his two daughters were with him, for he was afraid to dwell in Tso'ar. And he and his two daughters dwelt in a cave.

31 And the first-born said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man on the earth to come in to us, as is the way of all the earth.

32 "Come, let us make our father drink wine and lie with him, so that we preserve the seed of our father."

33 So they made their father drink wine that night. And the first-born went in and lay with her father, and he was not aware of it when she lay down or when she arose.

34 And it came to be on the next day that the first-born said to the younger, "See, I lay with my father last night. Let us make him drink wine tonight as well, and you go in and lie with him, so that we keep the seed of our father."

35 So they made their father drink wine that night as well. And the younger arose and lay with him, and he was not aware of it when she lay down or when she arose.

36 Thus both the daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father.

37 And the first-born bore a son and called his name Mo'ab, he is the father of the Mo'abites to this day.

38 And the younger, she also bore a son and called his name Ben-Ammi, he is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

20 And Abraham departed from there to the land of the Negeb, and dwelt between Qadēsh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said concerning Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." And Abimelek sovereign of Gerar sent and took Sarah.

3 But Elohim came to Abimelek in a dream by night, and said to him, "See, you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife."

4 However, Abimelek had not come near her, and he said, "אִי־אֵנִי, would You slay a righteous nation also?"

5 "Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she, even she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and in the innocence of my hands I have done this."

6 And Elohim said to him in a dream, "Though I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart, and so I kept you from sinning against Me, for this reason I did not let you touch her.

7 "And now, return the man's wife, for he is a nabi, and let him pray for you and you live. But if you do not return her, know that you shall certainly die, you and all that are yours."

8 So Abimelek rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and spoke all these words in their hearing. And the men were greatly frightened.

9 And Abimelek called Abraham and said to him, "What have you done to us? In what have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my reign a great sin? You have done matters to me that should not be done."

10 And Abimelek said to Abraham, "What did you have in view, that you have done this matter?"

11 And Abraham said, "Only because I said, the reverence of Elohim is not in this place, and they shall kill me for the sake of my wife.

12 “And yet, she is truly my sister. She is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.

13 “And it came to be, when Elohim caused me to wander from my father’s house, that I said to her, ‘This is your kindness that you should do for me: in every place, wherever we go, say of me, “He is my brother.”’ ”

14 Then Abimeleḵ took sheep, and cattle, and male and female servants, and gave them to Aḇraham. And he returned Sarah his wife to him.

15 And Abimeleḵ said, “See, my land is before you, dwell wherever it is good in your eyes.”

16 And to Sarah he said, “See, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. See, it is to you a covering of eyes before all who are with you and before all others, and you are cleared before everyone.”

17 And Aḇraham prayed to Elohim, and Elohim healed Abimeleḵ, and his wife, and his female servants, so they bore children, 18 for אִיִּזְרָאֵל had closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimeleḵ because of Sarah, Aḇraham’s wife.

21 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל visited Sarah as He had said, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל did for Sarah as He had spoken.

2 So Sarah conceived and bore Aḇraham a son in his old age, at the appointed time of which Elohim had spoken to him.

3 And Aḇraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to him, Yitshāq.

4 And Aḇraham circumcised his son Yitshāq when he was eight days old, as Elohim had commanded him.

5 And Aḇraham was one hundred years old when his son Yitshāq was born to him.

6 And Sarah said, "Elohim has made me laugh, and everyone who hears of it laughs with me."

7 And she said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? For I have borne him a son in his old age."

8 And the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Yitshaq was weaned.

9 And Sarah saw the son of Haḡar the Mitsrite, whom she had borne to Abraham, mocking.

10 So she said to Abraham, "Drive out this female servant and her son, for the son of this female servant shall not inherit with my son, with Yitshaq."

11 And the matter was very evil in the eyes of Abraham because of his son.

12 But Elohim said to Abraham, "Let it not be evil in your eyes because of the boy and because of your female servant. Whatever Sarah has said to you, listen to her voice, for in Yitshaq your seed is called.

13 "And of the son of the female servant I also make a nation, because he is your seed."

14 And Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, which he gave to Haḡar, putting it on her shoulder, also the boy, and sent her away. And she left and wandered in the Wilderness of Be'ērsheḡa.

15 And the water in the skin was used up, and she placed the boy under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went and sat down about a bowshot away, for she said, "Let me not see the death of the boy." And she sat opposite him, and lifted her voice and wept.

17 And Elohim heard the voice of the boy, and the messenger of Elohim called to Haḡar from the shamayim, and said to her, "What is the matter with you, Haġar? Do not fear, for Elohim has heard the voice of the boy where he is.

18 “Arise, lift up the boy and hold him with your hand, for I make a great nation of him.”

19 And Elohim opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. And she went and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

20 And Elohim was with the boy, and he grew and dwelt in the wilderness, and became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran, and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Mitsrayim.

22 And it came to be at that time that Aġimeleġ and Piġol, the commander of his army, spoke to Aġraham, saying, “Elohim is with you in all that you do.

23 “And now, swear to me by Elohim, not to be untrue to me, to my offspring, or to my descendants. Do to me according to the kindness that I have done to you and to the land in which you have dwelt.”

24 And Aġraham said, “I swear.”

25 And Aġraham reproved Aġimeleġ because of a well of water which Aġimeleġ’s servants had seized.

26 And Aġimeleġ said, “I do not know who has done this deed. Neither did you inform me, nor did I hear until today.”

27 So Aġraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to Aġimeleġ, and the two of them made a covenant.

28 And Aġraham put seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Aġimeleġ asked Aġraham, “What are these seven ewe lambs which you have put by themselves?”

30 And he said, “Take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, to be my witness that I have dug this well.”

31 So he called that place Be’ĕrsheġa, because the two of them swore an oath there.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Be'ěrsheḃa. And Aḃimeleḃ rose with Piḃol, the commander of his army, and they returned to the land of the Pelishtites.

33 And he planted a tamarisk tree in Be'ěrsheḃa, and there called on the Name of אֵלֶּיךָ, the Everlasting Ėl.

34 And Aḃraham sojourned in the land of the Pelishtites many days.

22 And it came to be after these events that Elohim tried Aḃraham, and said to him, "Aḃraham!" And he said, "Here I am."

2 And He said, "Take your son, now, your only son Yitṣḃaq, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriyah, and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I command you."

3 And Aḃraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Yitṣḃaq his son. And he split the wood for the burnt offering, and arose and went to the place which Elohim had commanded him.

4 And on the third day Aḃraham lifted his eyes and saw the place from a distance.

5 So Aḃraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey while the boy and I go over there and worship, and come back to you."

6 And Aḃraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Yitṣḃaq his son. And he took the fire in his hand, and a knife, and the two of them went together.

7 And Yitṣḃaq spoke to Aḃraham his father and said, "My father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." And he said, "See, the fire and the wood! But where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

8 And Abraham said, “My son, Elohim provides for Himself the lamb for a burnt offering.” And the two of them went together.

9 And they came to the place which Elohim had commanded him, and Abraham built an altar there and placed the wood in order. And he bound Yitshaq his son and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched out his hand and took the knife to slay his son,

11 but the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים called to him from the shamayim and said, “Abraham, Abraham!” And he said, “Here I am.”

12 And He said, “Do not lay your hand on the boy, nor touch him. For now I know that you revere Elohim, seeing you have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

13 And Abraham lifted his eyes and looked and saw behind him a ram caught in a bush by its horns, and Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up for a burnt offering instead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of the place, ‘אֵיֶשֶׁת יִרְחָה,’ as it is said to this day, “On the mountain אֱלֹהִים provides.”

15 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים called to Abraham a second time from the shamayim,

16 and said, “By Myself I have sworn, declares אֱלֹהִים, because you have done this, and have not withheld your son, your only son,

17 that I shall certainly baruk you, and I shall certainly increase your seed as the stars of the shamayim and as the sand which is on the seashore, and let your seed possess the gate of their enemies.

18 “And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be baruk, because you have obeyed My voice.”

19 Then Aḅraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Be'ērsheḅa. And Aḅraham dwelt at Be'ērsheḅa.

20 And it came to be after these events that it was reported to Aḅraham, saying, "See, Milkah too has borne children to your brother Naḅor:

21 "Uts his first-born, and Buz his brother, and Qemu'ēl the father of Aram, 22 and Kesed, and Ḥazo, and Pildash, and Yidlaph, and Bethu'ēl."

23 And Bethu'ēl brought forth Ribqah. These eight, Milkah bore to Naḅor, Aḅraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Re'uwmah, also bore Teḅaḅ, and Gaḅam, and Taḅash, and Ma'aḅah.

23 And Sarah lived one hundred and twenty-seven years, the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Qiryath Arba, that is Ḥeḅron, in the land of Kena'an, and Aḅraham came to mourn for Sarah and to weep for her.

3 Then Aḅraham rose up from beside his dead, and spoke to the sons of Ḥēth, saying,

4 "I am a foreigner and a sojourner among you. Give me property for a burial site among you, so that I bury my dead from my presence."

5 And the sons of Ḥēth answered Aḅraham, saying to him,

6 "Hear us, my master: You are a prince of Elohim among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us withholds from you his burial site, from burying your dead."

7 So Aḅraham rose and bowed himself to the people of the land, the sons of Ḥēth.

8 And he spoke with them, saying, "If it is your desire that I bury my dead from my presence, hear me, and approach Ephron son of Tsoḥar for me,

9 and let me have the cave of Maḵpĕlah which he has, which is at the end of his field. Let him give it to me for the complete amount of silver, as property for a burial site among you."

10 And Ephron dwelt among the sons of Ḥĕth. And Ephron the Ḥittite answered Aḇraham in the hearing of the sons of Ḥĕth, all who entered at the gate of his city, saying,

11 "No, my master, listen to me! I shall give you the field and the cave that is in it. I shall give it to you in the presence of the sons of my people. I shall give it to you. Bury your dead!"

12 And Aḇraham bowed himself down before the people of the land,

13 and he spoke to Ephron in the hearing of the people of the land, saying, "If only you would hear me. I shall give the amount of silver for the field, take it from me, and let me bury my dead there."

14 And Ephron answered Aḇraham, saying to him,

15 "My master, listen to me! The land is worth four hundred sheqels of silver. What is that between you and me? So bury your dead."

16 And Aḇraham listened to Ephron, and Aḇraham weighed out the silver for Ephron which he had named in the hearing of the sons of Ḥĕth, four hundred sheqels of silver, currency of the merchants.

17 Thus the field of Ephron which was in Maḵpĕlah, which was before Mamrĕ, the field and the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, which were within all the surrounding borders, were deeded

18 to Aḅraham as a possession in the presence of the sons of Ḥēth, before all who went in at the gate of his city.

19 And after this Aḅraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Maḵpēlah, before Mamrē, that is Ḥeḅron, in the land of Kena'an.

20 Thus the field and the cave that is in it were deeded to Aḅraham by the sons of Ḥēth as property for a burial site.

24 And Aḅraham was old, advanced in years. And אֱלֹהִים had barak Aḅraham in every way.

2 And Aḅraham said to the oldest servant of his house, who ruled over all that he had, "Please, put your hand under my thigh,

3 so that I make you swear by אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of the shamayim and the Elohim of the earth, that you do not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Kena'anites, among whom I dwell,

4 but go to my land and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son Yitshaq."

5 And the servant said to him, "What if the woman refuses to follow me to this land? Do I then take your son back to the land from which you came?"

6 And Aḅraham said to him, "Beware lest you take my son back there!"

7 "אֱלֹהִים, Elohim of the shamayim, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my relatives, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, 'To your seed I give this land,' He sends His messenger before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there.

8 "And if the woman refuses to follow you, then you shall be released from this oath; only, do not take my son back there."

9 Then the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

10 And the servant took ten of his master's camels and left, for all his master's goods were in his hand. And he arose and went to Aram Naharayim, to the city of Naḥor.

11 And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a fountain of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, “אלהים, Elohim of my master Abraham, please meet before me this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

13 “See, I am standing here by the fountain of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water.

14 “Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please let down your jar to let me drink,’ and she says, ‘Drink, and let me water your camels too,’ let her be the one whom You have appointed for Your servant Yitshaq. And let me know by this that You have shown kindness to my master.”

15 And it came to be, before he had ended speaking, that see, Ribqah, who was born to Bethu'el, son of Milkah, the wife of Naḥor, Abraham's brother, came out with her jar on her shoulder.

16 And the young woman was very good-looking, a maiden, no man having known her. And she went down to the fountain, filled her jar, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her and said, “Please let me drink a little water from your jar.”

18 And she said, “Drink, my master.” And she hurried and let her jar down to her hand, and gave him a drink.

19 And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "Let me draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking."

20 And she hurried and emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the fountain to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And watching her, the man remained silent in order to know whether אַיְיָ had prospered his way or not.

22 And it came to be, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighing half a sheqel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten sheqels of gold,

23 and said, "Whose daughter are you? Please inform me, is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?"

24 And she said to him, "I am the daughter of Bethu'el, Milkah's son, whom she bore to Naḥor."

25 And she said to him, "We have both straw and fodder enough, and room to spend the night."

26 And the man bowed down his head and worshipped אַיְיָ.

27 And he said, "Baruḵ be אַיְיָ Elohim of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His kindness and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, אַיְיָ led me to the house of my master's brothers."

28 Then the young woman ran and informed those of her mother's house these matters.

29 And Ribqah had a brother whose name was Laḅan, and Laḅan ran out to the man, to the fountain.

30 And it came to be, when he saw the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister's wrists, and when he heard the words of his sister Ribqah, saying, "Thus the man spoke to me," that he went to the man and saw him standing by the camels at the fountain.

31 And he said, "Come in, O baruḵ of אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם! Why do you stand outside? I myself have prepared the house, and a place for the camels.

32 So the man came into the house, while he unloaded the camels and provided straw and fodder for the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him,

33 and put food before him to eat. But he said, "Let me not eat until I have spoken my word." And he said, "Speak on."

34 And he said, "I am Aḇraham's servant.

35 "And אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם has baraḵ my master exceedingly, and he has become great. And He has given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.

36 "And Sarah my master's wife bore a son to my master after she was old. And he has given to him all that he has.

37 "And my master made me swear, saying, 'Do not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Kena'anites, in whose land I dwell,

38 but go to my father's house and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.'

39 "And I said to my master, 'What if the woman does not follow me?'

40 "But he said to me, 'אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם, before whom I walk, sends His messenger with you and shall prosper your way. And you shall take a wife for my son from my relatives and from my father's house.

41 'Then, when you go to my relatives, you are to be released from this oath. And if they do not give her to you, then you are released from my oath.'

42 "And this day I came to the fountain and said, 'אֱלֹהֵי אַבְרָהָם, Elohim of my master Aḇraham, please, if You are prospering the way in which I am going,

43 see, I am standing by the fountain of water, and when the maiden comes out to draw water, and I say to her, "Please give me a little water from your jar to drink,"

44 and she says to me, "Drink, and let me draw for your camels too," let her be the woman whom אַיָּאָה has appointed for my master's son.'

45 "I had not yet ended speaking in my heart, then see, Ribqah was coming out with her jar on her shoulder. And she went down to the fountain and drew water. And I said to her, 'Please let me drink.'

46 "And she hurried and let her jar down from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and let me water your camels too.' So I drank, and she watered the camels too.

47 "And I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' And she said, 'The daughter of Bethu'el, Naḥor's son, whom Milkah bore to him.' Then I put the nose ring on her nose and the bracelets on her wrists.

48 "And I bowed my head and worshipped אַיָּאָה, and barak אַיָּאָה, Elohim of my master Aḇraham, who had led me in the true way to take the daughter of my master's brother for his son.

49 "And now, if you are going to show kindness and truth to my master, let me know, and if not, let me know, so that I turn to the right or to the left."

50 And Laḇan answered - Bethu'el too - and said, "The matter comes from אַיָּאָה, we are not able to speak to you either evil or good.

51 "See, Ribqah is before you. Take her and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as אַיָּאָה has spoken."

52 And it came to be, when Aḇraham's servant heard their words, that he bowed himself towards the earth before אַיָּאָה.

53 And the servant brought out ornaments of silver, and ornaments of gold, and garments, and gave them to Ribqah. He also gave costly gifts to her brother and to her mother.

54 And he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night. When they arose in the morning he said, "Let me go to my master."

55 But her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us a few days, at least ten, then you go."

56 And he said to them, "Do not delay me, since אִתִּי has prospered my way. Let me go so that I go to my master."

57 And they said, "Let us call the young woman and ask her."

58 So they called Ribqah and said to her, "Are you going with this man?" And she said, "I shall go."

59 So they let go Ribqah their sister and her nurse, and Abraham's servant and his men.

60 And they barak Ribqah and said to her, "Let our sister become the mother of thousands of ten thousands, and let your seed possess the gates of those who hate them."

61 And Ribqah and her young women arose, and they rode on the camels and followed the man. So the servant took Ribqah and left.

62 And Yitshaq came from the way of Be'ēr Laḥai Ro'i, for he dwelt in the Negeb.

63 And Yitshaq went out to meditate in the field in the evening. And he lifted his eyes and looked and saw the camels coming.

64 And Ribqah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Yitshaq she dismounted from her camel,

65 and she said to the servant, "Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?" And the servant said,

66 And the servant told Yitshaq all the matters he had done.

67 And Yitshaq brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent. And he took Ribqah and she became his wife, and he loved her. Thus Yitshaq was comforted after his mother’s death.

25 And Abraham took another wife, whose name was Qeturah.

2 And she bore him Zimran, and Yoqshan, and Medan, and Midyan, and Yishbaq, and Shuwaḥ.

3 And Yoqshan brought forth Sheḇa and Deḡan. And the sons of Deḡan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Le’ummim.

4 And the sons of Midyan were Ĕphah, and Ĕpher, and Ḥanok, and Abiḡa, and Elda’ah. All these were the children of Qeturah.

5 Now Abraham gave all that he had to Yitshaq,

6 but to the sons of the concubines whom Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts while he was still living, and sent them away from his son Yitshaq, eastward, to the land of the east.

7 And these are all the years of Abraham’s life which he lived: one hundred and seventy-five years.

8 And Abraham breathed his last and died in a good old age, aged and satisfied, and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sons Yitshaq and Yishma’el buried him in the cave of Maḡpēlah, which is before Mamrē, in the field of Ephron son of Tsoḡar the Ḥittite, 10 the field which Abraham purchased from the sons of Ḥēth. There Abraham was buried with Sarah his wife.

11 And it came to be, after the death of Abraham, that Elohim barak his son Yitshaq. And Yitshaq dwelt at Be'ėr Lahai Ro'i.

12 And this is the genealogy of Yishma'ėl, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Mitsrite, Sarah's female servant, bore to Abraham.

13 And these were the names of the sons of Yishma'ėl, by their names, according to their generations: The first-born of Yishma'ėl, Nebayoth; then Qedar, and Adbe'ėl, and Mibsam,

14 and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 Hadad, and Tema, Yetur, Naphish, and Qedemah.

16 These were the sons of Yishma'ėl and these were their names, by their towns and their settlements, twelve chiefs according to their tribes.

17 And these were the years of the life of Yishma'ėl: one hundred and thirty-seven years. And he breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people.

18 And they dwelt from Hawilah as far as Shur, which is east of Mitsrayim as you go toward Ashshur. He settled before all his brothers.

19 And this is the genealogy of Yitshaq, Abraham's son. Abraham brought forth Yitshaq.

20 And Yitshaq was forty years old when he took Ribqah as wife, the daughter of Bethu'ėl the Aramean of Paddan Aram, the sister of Laban the Aramean.

21 And Yitshaq prayed to אֱלֹהִים for his wife, because she was barren. And אֱלֹהִים answered his prayer, and Ribqah his wife conceived.

22 And within her the children struggled together, and she said, "If all is right, why am I this way?" So she went to ask אֱלֹהִים.

23 And אֱלֹהִים said to her, "Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples shall be separated from your body. And one people shall be stronger than the other, and the older serve the younger.”

24 And when the days were filled for her to give birth, and see, twins were in her womb!

25 And the first came out reddish all over, like a hairy garment, so they called his name Ėsaw.

26 And afterward his brother came out, with his hand holding on to Ėsaw’s heel, so his name was called Ya’aqob. And Yitshaq was sixty years old when she bore them.

27 And the boys grew up. And Ėsaw became a man knowing how to hunt, a man of the field, while Ya’aqob was a complete man, dwelling in tents.

28 And Yitshaq loved Ėsaw because he ate of his wild game, but Ribqah loved Ya’aqob.

29 And Ya’aqob cooked a stew, and Ėsaw came in from the field, and he was weary.

30 And Ėsaw said to Ya’aqob, “Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am weary.” That is why his name was called Eđom.

31 But Ya’aqob said, “Sell me your birthright today.”

32 And Ėsaw said, “Look, I am going to die, so why should I have birthright?”

33 Then Ya’aqob said, “Swear to me today.” And he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Ya’aqob.

34 Ya’aqob then gave Ėsaw bread and stew of lentils. And he ate and drank, and rose up and left. Thus Ėsaw despised his birthright.

26 And there was a scarcity of food in the land, besides the first scarcity of food which was in the days of Abraham. And Yitshaq went to Abimelek, sovereign of the Pelishtites, in Gerar.

2 And אַפֶּקֶד appeared to him and said, “Do not go down to Mitsrayim, live in the land which I command you.

3 “Sojourn in this land. And I shall be with you and barak<sub>ך</sub> you, for I give all these lands to you and your seed. And I shall establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father.

4 “And I shall increase your seed like the stars of the shamayim, and I shall give all these lands to your seed. And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be baruk<sub>ך</sub>,

5 because Abraham obeyed My voice and guarded My Charge: My Commands, My Laws, and My Torot.”

6 And Yitshaq dwelt in Gerar.

7 And when the men of the place asked about his wife, he said, “She is my sister.” For he was afraid to say, “She is my wife.” “Lest the men of the place should kill me for Ribqah, because she is good-looking.”

8 And it came to be, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelek<sub>ך</sub> sovereign of the Pelishtites looked through a window, and he watched and saw Yitshaq playing with Ribqah his wife.

9 So Abimelek<sub>ך</sub> called Yitshaq and said, “See, truly she is your wife! So how could you say, ‘She is my sister’?” And Yitshaq said to him, “Because I said, ‘Lest I die on account of her.’ ”

10 And Abimelek<sub>ך</sub> said, “What is this you have done to us? One of the people had almost lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us.”

11 And Abimelek<sub>ך</sub> commanded all his people, saying, “He who touches this man or his wife shall certainly be put to death.”

12 And Yitshaq sowed in that land, and reaped in the same year a hundred-fold, and אַפֶּקֶד barak<sub>ך</sub> him.

13 And the man grew great and went forward until he became very great.

14 And he came to have possessions of flocks and possessions of herds and a great body of servants, and the Pelishtites envied him.

15 And the Pelishtites had stopped up all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and filled them with dirt.

16 And Abimelek said to Yitshaq, "Go away from us, for you are much mightier than we."

17 So Yitshaq went from there and pitched his tent in the wadi Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Yitshaq dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Pelishtites had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. And he called them by the names which his father had called them.

19 But when Yitshaq's servants dug in the wadi and found a well of running water there, 20 the herdsmen of Gerar strove with Yitshaq's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." And he called the name of the well Ĕseq, because they strove with him.

21 And they dug another well, and they strove over that one too, and he called its name Sitnah.

22 And he moved from there and dug another well, and they did not strive over it. And he called its name Reḥoboth, and said, "For now אֱלֹהִים has made room for us, and we shall bear fruit in the land."

23 And from there he went up to Be'ērsheḇa.

24 And אֱלֹהִים appeared to him the same night and said, "I am the Elohim of your father Abraham. Do not fear, for I am with you, and shall barak you and increase your seed for My servant Abraham's sake."

25 And he built an altar there, and called on the Name of אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו, and he pitched his tent there, and the servants of Yitsh̄aq dug a well there.

26 And Abimelek came to him from Gerar, with Aḥuzzath, one of his friends, and Piḳol the commander of his army.

27 And Yitsh̄aq said to them, “Why have you come to me, seeing you have hated me and have sent me away from you?”

28 But they said, “We have clearly seen that אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו is with you. And we said, ‘Please, let there be an oath between us, between you and us. And let us make a covenant with you,

29 that you do no evil to us, as we have not touched you, and as we have done only good toward you, and have sent you away in peace. You are now baruk̄ by אֱלֹהֵי אֲבֹתָיו.’ ”

30 And he made them a feast, and they ate and drank.

31 And they rose early in the morning and swore an oath with one another. And Yitsh̄aq let them go, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And on the same day it came to be that the servants of Yitsh̄aq came and informed him about the well which they had dug, and said to him, “We have found water.”

33 So he called it Shibah. Therefore the name of the city is Be’ērsheḃa to this day.

34 And when Ēsaw was forty years old, he took as wives Yahuḏith the daughter of Be’ēri the Ḥittite, and Basemath the daughter of Ēylon the Ḥittite.

35 And they were a bitterness of spirit to Yitsh̄aq and Ribqah.

27 And it came to be, when Yitsh̄aq was old and his eyes were too dim to see, that he called Ēsaw his elder son and said to him, "My son." And he answered him, "Here I am."

2 And he said, "See now, I am old, I do not know the day of my death.

3 "Now then, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt wild game for me.

4 "And make me a tasty dish, such as I love, and bring it to me to eat, in order that my being may barak you before I die."

5 And Ribqah heard when Yitshaq spoke to Ėsaw his son. And Ėsaw went to the field to hunt wild game and to bring it.

6 And Ribqah spoke to Ya'aqob her son, saying, "See, I heard your father speak to Ėsaw your brother, saying,

7 'Bring me wild game and make me a tasty dish to eat, and barak you in the presence of אֱלֹהֵי before my death.'

8 "And now my son, listen to my voice according to what I command you.

9 "Please go to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, and I make a tasty dish from them for your father, such as he loves.

10 "And you shall take it to your father, and he shall eat it, so that he might barak you before his death."

11 And Ya'aqob said to Ribqah his mother, "See, Ėsaw my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth-skinned man.

12 "What if my father touches me? Then I shall be like a deceiver in his eyes, and shall bring a curse on myself and not a beraqah."

13 But his mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Only obey my voice, and go, get them for me."

14 And he went and fetched them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made a tasty dish, such as his father loved.

15 And Ribqah took the best garments of her elder son Ĕsaw, which were with her in the house, and put them on Ya'aqob her younger son.

16 And she put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the smooth part of his neck.

17 Then she gave the tasty dish and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Ya'aqob.

18 And he went to his father and said, "My father." And he said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

19 And Ya'aqob said to his father, "I am Ĕsaw your first-born, I have done as you said to me. Please rise, sit and eat of my wild game, so that your being might barak me."

20 But Yitshaq said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?" And he said, "Because אֱלֹהִים your Elohim brought it to me."

21 Then Yitshaq said to Ya'aqob, "Please come near, so that I feel you, my son, whether you truly are my son Ĕsaw or not."

22 And Ya'aqob went near to Yitshaq his father, and he felt him and said, "The voice is the voice of Ya'aqob, but the hands are the hands of Ĕsaw."

23 And he did not recognise him, for his hands were hairy like his brother Ĕsaw's hands, and he barak him.

24 And he said, "Are you truly my son Ĕsaw?" And he said, "I am."

25 And he said, "Bring it near to me, and let me eat of my son's wild game, so that my being might barak you." So he brought it near to him, and he ate. And he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Yitshaq said to him, "Please come near and kiss me, my son."

27 And he came near and kissed him. And he smelled the smell of his garments, and barak̄ him and said, "See, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field which אֶרֶץ has barak̄.

28 "And Elohim give you of the dew of the shamayim, of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and wine.

29 "Let peoples serve you, and nations bow down to you. Be master over your brothers, and let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be those cursing you, and baruk̄ be those beraḳah you!"

30 And it came to be, as soon as Yitshaq had finished beraḳah Ya'aqob, and Ya'aqob had hardly left the presence of Yitshaq his father, that Ĕsaw his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he too had made a tasty dish and brought it to his father, and said to his father, "Let my father rise and eat of his son's wild game, so that your being might barak̄ me."

32 And his father Yitshaq said to him, "Who are you?" And he said, "I am your son, your first-born, Ĕsaw."

33 Then Yitshaq shuddered with exceedingly great trembling, and said, "Who was it then who hunted wild game and brought it to me? And I ate all of it before you came, and I have barak̄ him. Even so, he is baruk̄."

34 When Ĕsaw heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Barak̄ me, me too, O my father!"

35 And he said, "Your brother came with deceit and took your beraḳah."

36 And Ĕsaw said, "Was his name, then, called Ya'aqob? For he has caught me by the heel these two times. He took my birthright, and see, now he has taken my beraḳah!" And he said, "Have you not reserved a beraḳah for me?"

37 Then Yitshaq answered and said to Ęsaw, “See, I have made him your master, and all his brothers I have given to him as servants. And I have sustained him with grain and wine. And what, then, shall I do for you, my son?”

38 And Ęsaw said to his father, “Have you only one beraqah, my father? Baraq me, me too, O my father!” And Ęsaw lifted up his voice and wept.

39 And Yitshaq his father answered and said to him, “See, your dwelling is of the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of the shamayim from above.

40 “And by your sword you are to live, and serve your brother. And it shall be, when you grow restless, that you shall break his yoke from your neck.”

41 And Ęsaw hated Ya’aqob because of the beraqah with which his father baraq him, and Ęsaw said in his heart, “The days of mourning for my father draw near, then I am going to kill my brother Ya’aqob.”

42 And the words of Ęsaw her older son were reported to Ribqah, and she sent and called Ya’aqob her younger son, and said to him, “See, your brother Ęsaw comforts himself concerning you, to kill you.

43 “And now, my son, listen to my voice, and rise, flee to my brother Laban in Haran.

44 “And stay with him a few days, until your brother’s wrath turns away, 45 until your brother’s displeasure turns away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. And I shall send and bring you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?”

46 And Ribqah said to Yitshaq, “I am disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Ya’aqob takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these who are the daughters of the land, what is my life to me?”

28 And Yitsh̄aq called Ya'aqob̄ and barak̄ him, and commanded him, and said to him, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Kena'an.

2 "Arise, go to Paddan Aram, to the house of Bethu'el your mother's father. And take a wife for yourself from there, from the daughters of Laban your mother's brother.

3 "And El Shaddai barak̄ you, and make you bear fruit and increase you, and you shall become an assembly of peoples,

4 and give you the beraḳah of Abraham, to you and your seed with you, so that you inherit the land of your sojournings, which Elohim gave to Abraham."

5 So Yitsh̄aq sent Ya'aqob̄ away, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethu'el the Aramean, the brother of Ribqah, the mother of Ya'aqob̄ and Esaw.

6 And Esaw saw that Yitsh̄aq had barak̄ Ya'aqob̄ and sent him away to Paddan Aram to take himself a wife from there, and that as he barak̄ him he gave him a command, saying, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Kena'an,"

7 and that Ya'aqob̄ had obeyed his father and his mother and had gone to Paddan Aram.

8 So Esaw saw that the daughters of Kena'an did not please his father Yitsh̄aq,

9 and Esaw went to Yishma'el and took Maḥalath the daughter of Yishma'el, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebayoth, to be his wife, besides the wives he had.

10 And Ya'aqob̄ went out from Be'ersheba and went toward Haran.

11 And he came upon a place and stopped over for the night, for the sun was down. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed and saw a ladder standing on the earth, and its top reached to the shamayim, and saw messengers of Elohim going up and coming down on it.

13 And see, אֱלֹהִים stood above it and said, “I am אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Abraham your father and the Elohim of Yitshaq. The land on which you are lying, I give it to you and your seed.

14 “And your seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and you shall break forth to the west and to the east, to the north and the south. And all the clans of the earth shall be baruk in you and in your seed.

15 “And see, I am with you and shall guard you wherever you go, and shall bring you back to this land. For I am not going to leave you until I have done what I have spoken to you.”

16 And Ya’aqob̄ awoke from his sleep and said, “Truly, אֱלֹהִים is in this place, and I did not know it.”

17 And he was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of Elohim, and this is the gate of the shamayim!”

18 And Ya’aqob̄ rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put at his head, put it up as a standing column, and poured oil on top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Běyth Ĕl, however, the name of that city had been Luz previously.

20 And Ya’aqob̄ made a vow, saying, “Seeing Elohim is with me, and has kept me in this way that I am going, and has given me bread to eat and a garment to put on –

21 when I have returned to my father’s house in peace, and אֱלֹהִים shall be my Elohim,

22 then this stone which I have placed as a standing column shall be Elohim's house, and of all that You give me, I shall certainly give a tenth to You."

29 And Ya'aqob moved on and came to the land of the people of the East.

2 And he looked and saw a well in the field, and saw three flocks of sheep lying by it, for out of that well they watered the flocks, and a large stone was on the well's mouth.

3 And all the flocks would be gathered there, then they would roll the stone from the well's mouth and water the sheep, and put the stone back in its place on the well's mouth.

4 So Ya'aqob said to them, "My brothers, where are you from?" And they said, "We are from Haran."

5 And he said to them, "Do you know Laban son of Nahor?" And they said, "We know him."

6 So he said to them, "Is he well?" And they said, "Well. And see, his daughter Raḥēl is coming with the sheep."

7 And he said, "See, it is still high day, not the time for the livestock to be gathered together. Water the sheep, and go and feed them."

8 But they said, "We are not allowed until all the flocks are gathered together, and they have rolled the stone from the well's mouth, then we shall water the sheep."

9 While he was still speaking with them, Raḥēl came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

10 And it came to be, when Ya'aqob saw Raḥēl the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Ya'aqob went near and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Ya'aqob̄ kissed Raḥēl, and lifted up his voice and wept.

12 And when Ya'aqob̄ told Raḥēl that he was her father's relative and that he was Ribqah's son, she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to be, when Laḅan heard the report about Ya'aqob̄ his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Then he told Laḅan all these matters.

14 And Laḅan said to him, "You are indeed my bone and my flesh." And he stayed with him for a month.

15 Then Laḅan said to Ya'aqob̄, "Because you are my relative, should you therefore serve me for naught? Let me know, what should your wages be?"

16 And Laḅan had two daughters, the name of the elder was Lě'ah, and the name of the younger was Raḥēl.

17 And Lě'ah's eyes were weak, but Raḥēl was lovely of form and appearance.

18 And Ya'aqob̄ loved Raḥēl, so he said, "Let me serve you seven years for Raḥēl your younger daughter."

19 And Laḅan said, "It is better that I give her to you than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

20 So Ya'aqob̄ served seven years for Raḥēl, and they seemed to him but a few days because of the love he had for her.

21 Then Ya'aqob̄ said to Laḅan, "Give me my wife, for my days are completed, and let me go in to her."

22 And Laḅan gathered all the men of the place and made a feast.

23 And it came to be in the evening, that he took Lě'ah his daughter and brought her to Ya'aqob̄. And he went in to her.

24 And Laban gave his female servant Zilpah to his daughter Lě'ah as a female servant.

25 And in the morning it came to be, that see, it was Lě'ah. So he said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Was it not for Raḥěl that I served you? Why then have you deceived me?"

26 And Laban said, "It is not done this way in our place, to give the younger before the first-born.

27 "Complete the week of this one, then we give you this one too, for the service which you shall serve with me still another seven years."

28 And Ya'aqob did so and completed her week. Then he gave him his daughter Raḥěl too, as wife.

29 And Laban gave his female servant Bilhah to his daughter Raḥěl as a female servant.

30 And he also went in to Raḥěl, and he also loved Raḥěl more than Lě'ah. And he served with Laban still another seven years.

31 And אַףאַז saw that Lě'ah was unloved, and He opened her womb, but Raḥěl was barren.

32 And Lě'ah conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Re'uběn, for she said, "For אַףאַז has looked on my affliction, because now my husband is going to love me."

33 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Because אַףאַז has heard that I am unloved, He gave me this son too." And she called his name Shim'on.

34 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Now this time my husband is joined to me, because I have borne him three sons." So his name was called Lěwi.

35 And she conceived again and bore a son, and said, "Now I praise אַףאַז." So she called his name Yahudah. And she ceased bearing.

30 And when Raḥĕl saw that she bore Ya'aqob no children, Raḥĕl envied her sister, and said to Ya'aqob, "Give me children, or else I am going to die!"

2 And Ya'aqob's displeasure burned against Raḥĕl, and he said, "Am I in the place of Elohim, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

3 And she said, "See, my female servant Bilhah; go in to her, and let her bear over my knees, and let me be built up from her as well."

4 So she gave him Bilhah her female servant as wife, and Ya'aqob went in to her.

5 And Bilhah conceived and bore Ya'aqob a son.

6 And Raḥĕl said, "Elohim has rightly ruled my case, and has also heard my voice and given me a son." So she called his name Dan.

7 And Raḥĕl's female servant Bilhah conceived again and bore Ya'aqob a second son.

8 And Raḥĕl said, "With great wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister, and I have overcome." So she called his name Naphtali.

9 And Lě'ah saw that she had ceased bearing, and she took Zilpah her female servant and gave her to Ya'aqob as wife.

10 And Lě'ah's female servant Zilpah bore Ya'aqob a son.

11 And Lě'ah said, "What luck!" So she called his name Gaḍ.

12 And Lě'ah's female servant Zilpah bore Ya'aqob a second son.

13 And Lě'ah said, "I am baruḵ, for the daughters shall call me baruḵ." So she called his name Ashĕr.

14 And Re'uḇĕn went in the days of wheat harvest and found love-apples in the field, and brought them to his mother Lě'ah. And Raḥĕl said to Lě'ah, "Please give me some of your son's love-apples."

15 But she said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's love-apples too?" And Raḥĕl said, "Therefore let him lie with you tonight for your son's love-apples."

16 And when Ya'aqoḇ came out of the field in the evening, Lě'ah went out to meet him and said, "Do come in to me, for indeed, I have hired you with my son's love-apples." And he lay with her that night.

17 And Elohim listened to Lě'ah, and she conceived and bore Ya'aqoḇ a fifth son.

18 And Lě'ah said, "Elohim has given me my hire, because I have given my female servant to my husband." So she called his name Yissaskar.

19 And Lě'ah conceived again and bore Ya'aqoḇ a sixth son.

20 And Lě'ah said, "Elohim has presented me with a good present. Now my husband is going to dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons." So she called his name Zeḇulun.

21 And afterward she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

22 And Elohim remembered Raḥĕl, and Elohim listened to her and opened her womb.

23 And she conceived, and bore a son, and said, "Elohim has taken away my reproach."

24 So she called his name Yosěph, and said, "אסף has added to me another son."

25 And it came to be, when Raḥĕl had borne Yosěph, that Ya'aqoḇ said to Laḇan, "Send me on my way, to go to my own place and to my land.

26 "Give my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go, for you yourself know my service which I have done for you."

27 And Laban said to him, "If I have found favour in your eyes, please stay, for I have diligently watched that אַף־אֵלֶּיךָ has barak me for your sake."

28 And he said, "Name me your wages, and I give it."

29 So he said to him, "You know how I have served you and how your livestock has been with me.

30 "For the little you had before I came has increased greatly, and אַף־אֵלֶּיךָ has barak you since my coming. But now, when am I to provide for my own house too?"

31 And he said, "What do I give you?" And Ya'aqob said, "Give me naught! If you do this for me, I shall again feed and guard your flocks:

32 "Let me pass through all your flock today, removing from there all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the black ones among the lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. And these shall be my wages.

33 "And my righteousness shall answer for me in time to come, when you come concerning my wages: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the lambs, it is stolen if it is with me."

34 And Laban said, "See, let it be according to your word!"

35 And on that day he put aside the male goats that were speckled and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had some white in it, and all the black ones among the lambs, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he put three days' journey between himself and Ya'aqob, and Ya'aqob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 And Ya'aqob took for himself rods of green poplar and of the almond and chestnut trees, peeled white strips in them, and exposed the white which was in the rods.

38 And he put the rods which he had peeled before the flocks in the gutters, in the watering troughs where the flocks came to drink, and they conceived when they came to drink.

39 So the flocks conceived before the rods, and the flocks brought forth streaked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Ya'aqob separated the lambs, and made the flocks face toward the streaked and all the black in the flock of Laḅan, but he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laḅan's flock.

41 And it came to be, whenever the strong ones of the flock conceived, that Ya'aqob placed the rods before the eyes of the flock in the gutters, so they would conceive among the rods.

42 But when the flocks were weak, he did not put them in, so the weak ones were Laḅan's and the strong ones Ya'aqob's.

43 Thus the man increased very much, and had many flocks, and female and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

31 And he heard the words of Laḅan's sons, saying, "Ya'aqob has taken away all that was our father's, and from what belonged to our father he has made all this wealth."

2 And Ya'aqob would look at the face of Laḅan and see that it was not toward him as before.

3 And אַף־אָז said to Ya'aqob, "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives. And I am with you."

4 And Ya'aqob sent and called Raḥēl and Lě'ah to the field, to his flock,

5 and said to them, "I see your father's face, that it is not toward me as before, but the Elohim of my father has been with me.

6 “And you know that I have served your father with all my strength.

7 “Yet your father has deceived me and changed my wages ten times, but Elohim did not allow him to do evil to me.

8 “When he said this, ‘The speckled are your wages,’ then all the flocks bore speckled. And when he said this, ‘The streaked are your wages,’ then all the flocks bore streaked.

9 “So Elohim has taken away the livestock of your father and given them to me.

10 “And it came to be, at the time when the flocks conceived, that I lifted my eyes and looked in a dream and saw the rams which leaped upon the flocks were streaked, speckled, and mottled.

11 “And the Messenger of Elohim spoke to me in a dream, saying, ‘Ya’aqob.’ And I said, ‘Here I am.’

12 “And He said, ‘Lift your eyes now and see, all the rams which leap on the flocks are streaked, speckled, and mottled, for I have seen all that Laḅan is doing to you.

13 ‘I am the Ĕl of Běyth Ĕl, where you anointed the standing column and where you made a vow to Me. Now rise up, get out of this land, and return to the land of your relatives.’ ”

14 And Raḥĕl and Lě’ah answered and said to him, “Do we still have any portion or inheritance in our father’s house?

15 “Are we not reckoned by him as strangers? For he has sold us, and also entirely consumed our silver.

16 “For all the wealth which Elohim has taken from our father are ours and our children’s. Now then, do whatever Elohim has told you.”

17 So Ya’aqob rose and put his sons and his wives on camels,

18 and he drove off all his livestock and all his possessions which he had acquired, his property of the livestock which he had acquired in Paddan Aram, to go to his father Yitshaq in the land of Kena'an.

19 And when Laban had gone to shear his sheep, Raḥēl stole the house idols that were her father's.

20 And Ya'aqob stole the heart of Laban the Aramean, because he did not inform him that he was about to flee.

21 And he fled with all that he had. And he rose up and passed over the river, and headed toward the mountains of Gil'ad.

22 And on the third day Laban was told that Ya'aqob had fled.

23 Then he took his brothers with him and pursued him for seven days' journey, and he overtook him in the mountains of Gil'ad.

24 But in a dream by night Elohim came to Laban the Aramean, and said to him, "Guard yourself, that you do not speak to Ya'aqob either good or evil."

25 Then Laban overtook Ya'aqob. Now Ya'aqob had pitched his tent in the mountains, and Laban with his brothers pitched in the mountains of Gil'ad.

26 And Laban said to Ya'aqob, "What have you done, that you have stolen my heart, and driven my daughters off like captives taken with the sword?"

27 "Why did you flee secretly and deceive me, and not inform me, and I would have sent you away with joy and songs, with tambourine and lyre?"

28 "And you did not allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters. Now you have been foolish to do this.

29 "It is in the power of my hand to do evil to you, but the Elohim of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Guard yourself, that you do not speak to Ya'aqob either good or evil.'

30 “And now you have gone because you greatly long for your father’s house, but why did you steal my mighty ones?”

31 And Ya’aqob answered and said to Laban, “Because I was afraid, for I said, ‘Lest you tear your daughters away from me.’”

32 “With whomever you find your mighty ones, let him not live. In the presence of our brothers, see for yourself what is with me and take it with you.” For Ya’aqob did not know that Raḥēl had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Ya’aqob’s tent, and into Lě’ah’s tent, and into the tents of the two female servants, but he did not find them. And he came out of Lě’ah’s tent and entered Raḥēl’s tent.

34 Now Raḥēl had taken the house idols and put them in the camel’s saddle, and sat on them. And Laban searched all about the tent but did not find them.

35 And she said to her father, “Let it not displease my master that I am unable to rise before you, for the way of women is with me.” And he searched but did not find the house idols.

36 And Ya’aqob was wroth and contended with Laban, and Ya’aqob answered and said to Laban, “What is my transgression? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued me?”

37 “Now that you have searched all my goods what have you found of all your household goods? Put it here before my brothers and your brothers, and let them decide between the two of us!”

38 “These twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not miscarried their young, and I have not eaten the rams of your sheep.

39 “That which was torn by beasts I did not bring to you, I myself bore the loss of it. You required it from my hand, whether stolen by day or stolen by night.

40 "I was! By day the heat consumed me, and the frost by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes.

41 "These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times.

42 "Unless the Elohim of my father, the Elohim of Abraham and the Awe of Yitshaq, had been with me, you would now have sent me away empty-handed. Elohim has seen my affliction and the labour of my hands, and rendered judgment last night."

43 And Laḅan answered and said to Ya'aqoḅ, "These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and this flock is my flock, and all that you see is mine. But what shall I do today to these, my daughters or to their children whom they have borne?

44 "And now, come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and it shall be a witness between you and me."

45 So Ya'aqoḅ took a stone and put it up as a standing column.

46 And Ya'aqoḅ said to his brothers, "Gather stones." And they took stones and made a heap, and they ate there on the heap.

47 And Laḅan called it Yeḡar Saḥaḍutha, but Ya'aqoḅ called it Gal'ěḍ.

48 And Laḅan said, "This heap is a witness between you and me today." That is why its name was called Gal'ěḍ, 49 also Mitspah, because he said, "Let אִתְּכֶם watch between you and me when we are out of each other's sight.

50 "If you afflict my daughters, or if you take other wives besides my daughters, although no man is with us; see, Elohim is witness between you and me!"

51 And Laḅan said to Ya'aqoḅ, "See this heap and see this standing column, which I have placed between you and me.

52 "This heap is a witness, and this standing column is a witness, that I do not pass beyond this heap to you, and you do not pass beyond this heap and this standing column to me, for evil.

53 "The Elohim of Aḅraham, the Elohim of Naḅor, and the Elohim of their father rightly rule between us!" And Ya'aqoḅ swore by the Awe of his father Yitṣḅaq.

54 And Ya'aqoḅ brought an offering on the mountain, and called his brothers to eat bread. And they ate bread and spent the night on the mountain.

55 And Laḅan rose up early in the morning, and kissed his sons and daughters and barakḅ them. And Laḅan left and returned to his place.

32 And Ya'aqoḅ went on his way, and the messengers of Elohim met him.

2 And when Ya'aqoḅ saw them, he said, "This is the camp of Elohim." And he called the name of that place Maḅanayim.

3 And Ya'aqoḅ sent messengers before him to Ĕsaw his brother in the land of Sĕ'ir, the field of Eḅom

4 and he commanded them, saying, "Say this to my master Ĕsaw, 'Your servant Ya'aqoḅ said this, "I have sojourned with Laḅan and stayed there until now.

5 "And I have bulls, and donkeys, flocks, and male and female servants. And I have sent to inform my master, to find favour in your eyes." ' "

6 So the messengers returned to Ya'aqoḅ, saying, "We came to your brother Ĕsaw, and he also is coming to meet you, and four hundred men with him."

7 And Ya'aqob<sub>u</sub> was greatly afraid and distressed. So he divided the people that were with him, and the flocks and herds and camels, into two groups,

8 and he said, "If Ĕsaw comes to the one group and attacks it, then the other group which is left shall escape."

9 And Ya'aqob<sub>u</sub> said, "O Elohim of my father Abraham and Elohim of my father Yitshaq, אֱלֹהֵי יִצְחָק who said to me, 'Return to your land and to your relatives, and I do good to you,'

10 "I do not deserve the least of all the kind acts and all the truth which You have shown Your servant, for I passed over this Yardēn with my staff, and now I have become two groups.

11 "Deliver me, I pray, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Ĕsaw, for I fear him, lest he come and shall smite me and the mother with the children.

12 "For You said, 'I shall certainly do good to you, and shall make your seed as the sand of the sea, which are too numerous to count.' "

13 And he spent the night there, and took what came to his hand as a present for Ĕsaw his brother –

14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

15 thirty milk camels with their colts, forty cows and ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals.

16 And he gave into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and put some distance between drove and drove."

17 And he commanded the first one, saying, "When Ĕsaw my brother meets you and asks you, saying, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going? And whose are these in front of you?'

18 then you shall say, 'They are your servant Ya'aqob's. It is a present sent to my master Ĕsaw. And see, he also is behind us.' "

19 So he commanded the second, and the third, and all who followed the droves, saying, "Speak to Ĕsaw this same word when you find him,

20 and you shall say, 'Also look, your servant Ya'aqob is behind us.' " For he said, "Let me appease him with the present that goes before me, and after that see his face. He might accept me."

21 And the present passed over before him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

22 And he rose up that night and took his two wives, and his two female servants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford of Yabboq.

23 And he took them and sent them over the stream, and sent over what he had.

24 And Ya'aqob was left alone. And a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day.

25 And when He saw that He did not overcome him, He touched the socket of his hip. And the socket of Ya'aqob's hip was dislocated as he wrestled with Him.

26 And He said, "Let Me go, for the day breaks." But he said, "I am not letting You go until You have barak me!"

27 So He asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Ya'aqob."

28 And He said, "Your name is no longer called Ya'aqob, but Yisra'el, because you have striven with Elohim and with men, and have overcome."

29 And Ya'aqob asked Him, saying, "Please let me know Your Name." And He said, "Why do you ask about My Name?" And He barak him there.

30 And Ya'aqob called the name of the place Peni'el, "For I have seen Elohim face to face, and my life is preserved."

31 And the sun rose on him as he passed over Penu'el, and he limped on his hip.

32 That is why the children of Yisra'el to this day do not eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the socket of the thigh, because He touched the socket of the thigh of Ya'aqob, in the sinew of the hip.

33 And Ya'aqob lifted his eyes and looked and saw Esaw coming, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children among Lě'ah, and Raḥel, and the two female servants.

2 And he put the female servants and their children in front, and Lě'ah and her children behind, and Raḥel and Yosēph last.

3 And he himself passed over before them and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.

4 And Esaw ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck and kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lifted his eyes and saw the women and children, and said, "Who are these with you?" And he said, "The children with whom Elohim has favoured your servant."

6 Then the female servants came near, they and their children, and bowed themselves.

7 And Lě'ah also came near with her children, and they bowed themselves. And Yosēph and Raḥel came near, and they bowed themselves.

8 Then Esaw said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?" And he said, "To find favour in the eyes of my master."

9 But Ěsaw said, "I have enough, my brother, let what you have remain yours."

10 And Ya'aqoḃ said, "No, please, if I have now found favour in your eyes, then receive my present from my hand, because I have seen your face like seeing the face of Elohim, and you were pleased with me.

11 "Please, take my beraḱah that is brought to you, because Elohim has favoured me, and because I have all." And he urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, "Let us depart and go, and let me go before you."

13 But he said to him, "My master knows that the children are weak, and the flocks and herds which are nursing are with me. And if the men should drive them hard one day, all the flocks shall die.

14 "Please let my master go before his servant, and let me lead on slowly according to the pace of the livestock that go before me, and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my master in Sě'ir."

15 And Ěsaw said, "Please let me leave with you some of the people who are with me." But he said, "Why this? Let me find favour in the eyes of my master."

16 And Ěsaw returned that day on his way to Sě'ir.

17 And Ya'aqoḃ departed to Sukkoth, and built himself a house, and made booths for his livestock. That is why the name of the place is called Sukkoth.

18 And Ya'aqoḃ came safely to the city of Sheḱem, which is in the land of Kena'an, when he came from Paddan Aram. And he pitched his tent before the city.

19 And he bought the portion of the field where he had pitched his tent, from the children of Ḥamor, Sheḱem's father, for one hundred qesitah.

20 And he put up an altar there and called it Ěl Eloḥě Yisra'ěl.

34 And Dinah, the daughter of Lě'ah, whom she had borne to Ya'aqob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 And Shekem, son of Hāmor the Hīwwite, prince of the land, saw her and took her and lay with her, and humbled her.

3 And his being clung to Dinah the daughter of Ya'aqob, and he loved the girl and spoke kindly to the girl.

4 And Shekem spoke to his father Hāmor, saying, "Take this girl for me for a wife."

5 And Ya'aqob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter. Now his sons were with his livestock in the field, so Ya'aqob kept silent until they came.

6 And Hāmor, the father of Shekem, went out to Ya'aqob to speak with him.

7 And the sons of Ya'aqob came in from the field when they heard it. And the men were grieved and very wroth, because he had done a senseless deed in Yisra'ěl by lying with Ya'aqob's daughter, which should not be done.

8 But Hāmor spoke with them, saying, "My son Shekem's being longs for your daughter. Please give her to him for a wife.

9 "And intermarry with us, give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves,

10 and dwell with us, and let the land be before you. Dwell and move about in it, and have possessions in it."

11 And Shekem said to her father and her brothers, "Let me find favour in your eyes, and whatever you say to me I give.

12 “Ask of me a bride price and gift ever so high, and I give according to what you say to me, but give me the girl for a wife.”

13 But the sons of Ya’aqob answered Shekem and Hamor his father, and spoke with deceit, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

14 And they said to them, “We are not able to do this matter, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised, for that would be a reproach to us.

15 Only on this would we agree to you: If you become as we are, to have every male of you circumcised, 16 then we shall give our daughters to you, and take your daughters to us. And we shall dwell with you, and shall become one people.

17 “But if you do not listen to us and be circumcised, we shall take our daughter and go.”

18 And their words pleased Hamor and Shekem, Hamor’s son.

19 And the young man did not delay to do this because he delighted in Ya’aqob’s daughter. Now he was more respected than all the household of his father.

20 And Hamor and Shekem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke with the men of their city, saying, 21 “These men are at peace with us, so let them dwell in the land and move about in it. And see, the land is large enough for them. Let us take their daughters for us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 “Only on this would the men agree to dwell with us, to be one people: if every male among us is circumcised as they are circumcised.

23 “Their herds and their possessions, and all their beasts, should they not be ours? Only let us agree with them, and let them dwell with us.”

24 And all who went out of the gate of his city listened to Ḥamor and Sheḵem his son; every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city.

25 And it came to be on the third day, when they were in pain, that two of the sons of Ya'aqob, Shim'on and Lěwi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword and came boldly upon the city and killed all the males.

26 And they killed Ḥamor and Sheḵem his son with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah from Sheḵem's house, and went out.

27 The sons of Ya'aqob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their flocks and their herds, and their donkeys, and that which was in the city and that which was in the field,

29 and all their wealth. And all their little ones and their wives they took captive, and they plundered all that was in the houses.

30 And Ya'aqob said to Shim'on and Lěwi, "You have troubled me by making me a stench among the inhabitants of the land, among the Kena'anites and the Perizzites. And I am few in number, they shall gather themselves against me and shall smite me, and I shall be destroyed, my household and I."

31 But they said, "Should he treat our sister like a whore?"

35 And Elohim said to Ya'aqob, "Arise, go up to Běyth Ĕl and dwell there. And make an altar there to Ĕl who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Ĕsaw your brother."

2 And Ya'aqob said to his household and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign mighty ones that are among you, and cleanse yourselves, and change your garments.

3 “And let us arise and go up to Běyth Ěl, and let me make there an altar to Ěl, who answered me in the day of my distress, and has been with me in the way which I have gone.”

4 So they gave Ya’aqob all the foreign mighty ones which were in their hands, and all their earrings which were in their ears. And Ya’aqob hid them under the terebinth tree which was near Shekem.

5 And they departed, and the fear of Elohim was upon the cities that were all around them, and they did not pursue the sons of Ya’aqob.

6 And Ya’aqob came to Luz, that is Běyth Ěl, which is in the land of Kena’an, he and all the people who were with him.

7 And he built there an altar and called the place Ěl Běyth Ěl, because there Elohim appeared to him when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 And Deborah, Ribqah’s nurse, died, and she was buried below Běyth Ěl under the terebinth tree. So the name of it was called Allon Baquth.

9 And Elohim appeared to Ya’aqob again, when he came from Paddan Aram, and barak him.

10 And Elohim said to him, “Your name is Ya’aqob, your name is no longer called Ya’aqob, but Yisra’el is your name.” So He called his name Yisra’el.

11 And Elohim said to him, “I am Ěl Shaddai. Bear fruit and increase, a nation and a company of nations shall be from you, and sovereigns come from your body.

12 “And the land which I gave Abraham and Yitshaq I give to you. And to your seed after you I give this land.”

13 And Elohim went up from him in the place where He had spoken with him.

14 And Ya'aqob put up a standing column in the place where He had spoken with him, a monument of stone. And he poured a drink offering on it, and he poured oil on it.

15 And Ya'aqob called the name of the place where Elohim spoke with him, Běyth Ěl.

16 Then they departed from Běyth Ěl. And it came to be, when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath, that Raḥěl began to give birth, and had great difficulty giving birth.

17 And it came to be, as she was having great difficulty giving birth, that the midwife said to her, "Do not fear, for it is another son for you."

18 And it came to be, as her life was going out - for she died - that she called his name Ben-Oni. But his father called him Binyamin.

19 So Raḥěl died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, that is Běyth Leḥem.

20 And Ya'aqob put a standing column on her grave, which is the monument of Raḥěl's grave to this day.

21 And Yisra'ěl departed and pitched his tent beyond the tower of Ěḡer.

22 And it came to be, when Yisra'ěl dwelt in that land, that Re'uḃen went and lay with Bilhah his father's concubine. And Yisra'ěl heard about it. Now the sons of Ya'aqob were twelve:

23 The sons of Lě'ah were Re'uḃen, Ya'aqob's first-born, and Shim'on, and Lěwi, and Yahuḡah, and Yissaskar, and Zeḃulun;

24 the sons of Raḥěl were Yosěph and Binyamin;

25 the sons of Bilhah, Raḥěl's female servant, were Dan and Naphtali;

26 and the sons of Zilpah, Lě'ah's female servant, were Gaḡ and Ashěr. These were the sons of Ya'aqob who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

27 And Ya'aqob̄ came to his father Yitshaq at Mamrē, or Qiryath Arba, that is Hēbron, where Abraham and Yitshaq had dwelt.

28 And the days of Yitshaq were one hundred and eighty years.

29 So Yitshaq breathed his last and died, and was gathered to his people, aged and satisfied of days. And his sons Ěsaw and Ya'aqob̄ buried him.

36 And this is the genealogy of Ěsaw, who is Edom.

2 Ěsaw took his wives from the daughters of Kena'an: Adah the daughter of Ěylon the Hittite, and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Tsib'on the Hiwwite;

3 and Basemath, Yishma'el's daughter, sister of Nebayoth.

4 And Adah bore Eliphaz to Ěsaw, and Basemath bore Re'uw'el.

5 And Oholibamah bore Ye'ush, and Ya'lam, and Qorah. These were the sons of Ěsaw who were born to him in the land of Kena'an.

6 And Ěsaw took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the beings of his household, and his herds and all his beasts, and all his possessions which he had gained in the land of Kena'an, and went to a land away from the presence of his brother Ya'aqob̄.

7 For their possessions were too great for them to dwell together, and the land of their sojournings could not support them because of their herds.

8 So Ěsaw dwelt in Mount Se'ir. Ěsaw is Edom.

9 And this is the genealogy of Ěsaw the father of the Edomites in Mount Sē'ir.

10 These were the names of Ěsaw's sons: Eliphaz son of Adah, wife of Ěsaw, and Re'uw'el son of Basemath, wife of Ěsaw.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Těman, Omar, Tsepho, and Gatam, and Qenaz.

12 And Timna was the concubine of Eliphaz, Ěsaw's son, and she bore Amalěq to Eliphaz. These were the sons of Ađah, Ěsaw's wife.

13 These were the sons of Re'uw'ěl: Nađath and Zerađ, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the sons of Basemath, Ěsaw's wife.

14 These were the sons of Oholibamah, Ěsaw's wife, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Tsiḃ'on. And she bore to Ěsaw: Ye'ush, and Ya'lam, and Qorađ.

15 These were the chiefs of the sons of Ěsaw. The sons of Eliphaz, the first-born son of Ěsaw, were Chief Těman, Chief Omar, Chief Tsepho, Chief Qenaz, 16 Chief Qorađ, Chief Gatam, Chief Amalěq. These were the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Eđom. They were the sons of Ađah.

17 And these were the sons of Re'uw'ěl, Ěsaw's son: Chief Nađath, Chief Zerađ, Chief Shammah, and Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Re'uw'ěl in the land of Eđom. These were the sons of Basemath, Ěsaw's wife.

18 And these were the sons of Oholibamah, Ěsaw's wife: Chief Ye'ush, Chief Ya'lam, and Chief Qorađ. These were the chiefs from Oholibamah, Ěsaw's wife, the daughter of Anah.

19 These were the sons of Ěsaw, who is Eđom, and these were their chiefs.

20 These were the sons of Sě'ir the Ḥorite who inhabited the land: Lotan, and Shoḃal, and Tsiḃ'on, and Anah, 21 and Dishon, and Ětser, and Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Ḥorites, the sons of Sě'ir, in the land of Eđom.

22 And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hĕmam. Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And these were the sons of Shoḅal: Alwan, and Manaḥath, and Ĕyḅal, Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these were the sons of Tsib'on: both Ayah and Anah. This was the Anah who found the water in the wilderness as he fed the donkeys of his father Tsib'on

25 And these were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholiḅamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these were the sons of Dishon: Hĕmdan, and Eshban, and Yithran, and Keran.

27 These were the sons of Ĕtser: Bilhan, and Za'awan, and Aqan.

28 These were the sons of Dishan: Uts and Aran.

29 These were the chiefs of the Hōrites: Chief Lotan, Chief Shoḅal, Chief Tsib'on, Chief Anah, 30 Chief Dishon, Chief Ĕtser, and Chief Dishan. These were the chiefs of the Hōrites, according to their chiefs in the land of Sĕ'ir.

31 And these were the sovereigns who reigned in the land of Eḡom before any sovereign reigned over the children of Yisra'ĕl.

32 And Bela the son of Be'or reigned in Eḡom, and the name of his city was Dinḥaḅah.

33 And Bela died, and Yoḅaḅ son of Zeraḥ of Botsrah reigned in his place.

34 And Yoḅaḅ died, and Husham of the land of the Tĕmanites reigned in his place.

35 And Husham died, and Haḡaḡ son of Beḡaḡ, who smote Miḡyan in the field of Mo'aḅ, reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Awith.

36 And Haḡaḡ died, and Samlah of Masrĕqah reigned in his place.

37 And Samlah died, and Sha'ul of Reḥoḅoth ha'Nahar reigned in his place.

38 And Sha'ul died, and Ba'al-Hanan son of Aqbor reigned in his place.

39 And Ba'al-Hanan son of Aqbor died, and Haqar reigned in his place. And the name of his city was Pa'u. And his wife's name was Mehētab'ēl, the daughter of Matrēd, the daughter of Mēy-Zahab.

40 And these were the names of the chiefs of Ĕsaw, according to their clans and their places, by their names: Chief Timnah, Chief Alwah, Chief Yethēth,

41 Chief Oholibamah, Chief Ĕlah, Chief Pinon,

42 Chief Qenaz, Chief Tēman, Chief Miḡtsar,

43 Chief Maḡdi'ēl, Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Eḡom, according to their dwelling places in the land of their possession. Ĕsaw was the father of the Eḡomites.

37 And Ya'aqob dwelt in the land of his father's sojournings, in the land of Kena'an.

2 This is the genealogy of Ya'aqob. Yosēph, being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brothers. And the young man was with the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Yosēph brought an evil report of them to his father.

3 And Yisra'ēl loved Yosēph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. And he made him a long robe.

4 But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him and were not able to speak peaceably to him.

5 And Yosēph dreamed a dream, and told it to his brothers. So they hated him even more.

6 And he said to them, "Please listen to this dream which I have dreamed:

7 "See, we were binding sheaves in the midst of the field, and see, my sheaf rose up and also stood up.

And see, your sheaves stood all around and bowed down to my sheaf.”

8 And his brothers said to him, “Shall you indeed reign over us? Shall you indeed rule over us?” So they hated him even more for his dreams and for his words.

9 And he dreamed still another dream and related it to his brothers, and said, “See, I have dreamed another dream, and see, the sun and the moon and the eleven stars bowed down to me.”

10 And he related it to his father and his brothers. And his father rebuked him and said to him, “What is this dream that you have dreamed? Shall we, your mother and I and your brothers, indeed come to bow down to the earth before you?”

11 And his brothers envied him, but his father guarded the word.

12 And his brothers went to feed their father’s flock in Sheķem.

13 And Yisra’ěl said to Yosěph, “Are not your brothers feeding in Sheķem? Come, I send you to them.” So he said to him, “Here I am.”

14 And he said to him, “Please go and see if it is well with your brothers and well with the sheep, and bring back word to me.” So he sent him out of the Valley of Hēbron, and he went to Sheķem.

15 And a certain man found him, and see, he was wandering in the field. And the man asked him, saying, “What do you seek?”

16 And he said, “I am seeking my brothers. Please inform me where they are feeding their sheep.”

17 And the man said, “They have left here, for I heard them say, ‘Let us go towards Dothan.’ ” So Yosěph went after his brothers and found them in Dothan.

18 And they saw him from a distance, and before he came near them, they plotted against him, to kill him.

19 And they said to each other, "See, this master of dreams is coming!

20 "Now, then, come and let us now kill him and throw him into some pit, and shall say, 'Some wild beast has devoured him.' Let us then see what comes of his dreams!"

21 But Re'uběn heard and rescued him from their hands, and said, "Let us not take his life."

22 And Re'uběn said to them, "Shed no blood. Throw him into this pit which is in the wilderness and do not lay a hand on him" - in order to rescue him out of their hands, and bring him back to his father.

23 So it came to be, when Yosěph had come to his brothers, that they stripped Yosěph of his robe, the long robe which was on him.

24 And they took him and threw him into a pit. And the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat a meal. And they lifted their eyes and looked and saw a company of Yishma'ělites, coming from Gil'ad with their camels, bearing spices, and balm, and myrrh, going to take them down to Mitsrayim.

26 And Yahudāh said to his brothers, "What would we gain if we kill our brother and conceal his blood?"

27 "Come and let us sell him to the Yishma'ělites, and let not our hand be upon him, for he is our brother, our flesh." And his brothers listened.

28 And men, Miḡyanite traders passed by, so they pulled Yosěph up and lifted him out of the pit, and sold him to the Yishma'ělites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Yosěph to Mitsrayim.

29 And Re'uběn returned to the pit, and see, Yosěph was not in the pit. And he tore his garments.

30 And he returned to his brothers and said, "The boy is gone! And I, where am I to go?"

31 So they took Yosĕph's robe, killed a male goat, and dipped the robe in the blood,

32 and sent the long robe and brought it to their father and said, "We have found this. Please look, is it the robe of your son or not?"

33 And he recognised it and said, "It is my son's robe. An evil beast has devoured him. Yosĕph is torn, torn to pieces."

34 And Ya'aqob tore his garments, and put sackcloth on his waist, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters arose to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted, and he said, "Now let me go down into the grave to my son in mourning." So his father wept for him.

36 And the Miḡanites had sold him in Mitsrayim to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

38 And at that time it came to be that Yahudah left his brothers, and turned aside to a man, an Aḡullamite whose name was Hīrah.

2 And Yahudah saw there a daughter of a certain Kena'anite whose name was Shuwa. And he took her and went in to her.

3 So she conceived and bore a son, and he called his name Ĕr.

4 And she conceived again and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.

5 And she conceived yet again and bore a son, and called his name Shĕlah. And he was at Keziḡ when she bore him.

6 And Yahudah took a wife for Ĕr his first-born, and her name was Tamar.

7 But Ĕr, Yahudah's first-born, was evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים took his life.

8 And Yahudāh said to Onan, “Go in to your brother’s wife and marry her, and raise up an heir to your brother.”

9 And Onan knew that the offspring would not be his. And it came to be, when he went in to his brother’s wife, that he spilled on the ground, lest he should give an offspring to his brother.

10 But what he did displeased אֱלֹהִים, so He took his life too.

11 Then Yahudāh said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, “Remain a widow in your father’s house until my son Shēlah is grown.” For he said, “Lest he also die as his brothers did.” And Tamar went and dwelt in her father’s house.

12 And after a long time the daughter of Shuwa, Yahudāh’s wife, died. And Yahudāh was comforted, and went up to his sheep-shearers at Timnah, he and his friend Hīrah the Adullamite.

13 And it was reported to Tamar, saying, “See, your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

14 And she took off her widow’s garments, and covered herself with a veil and wrapped herself, and sat at the entrance to Ēnayim which was on the way to Timnah. For she saw that Shēlah was grown, and she was not given to him as a wife.

15 And Yahudāh saw her, and reckoned her for a whore, for she had covered her face.

16 And he turned aside to her by the way, and said, “Please let me come in to you,” for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, “What do you give me to come in to me?”

17 And he said, “Let me send you a young goat from the flock.” And she said, “Do you give me a pledge until you send it?”

18 So he said, "What pledge should I give you?" And she said, "Your seal and your cord and your staff that is in your hand." And he gave them to her, and went in to her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose and went away, and removed her veil and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Yahudāh sent the young goat by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand, but he did not find her.

21 And he asked the men of that place, saying, "Where is the cult prostitute who was beside the way to Ēnayim?" And they said, "There was no cult prostitute in this place."

22 And he returned to Yahudāh and said, "I have not found her. And the men of the place also said there was no cult prostitute in this place."

23 And Yahudāh said, "Let her take them for herself, lest we become despised, for I sent this young goat and you have not found her."

24 And it came to be, about three months after, that Yahudāh was informed, saying, "Tamar your daughter-in-law has whored, and see, she has conceived by whoring." And Yahudāh said, "Bring her out and let her be burned!"

25 When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man to whom these belong, I am pregnant." And she said, "Please examine whose these are: the seal and the cord and the staff."

26 And Yahudāh examined and said, "She has been more righteous than I, because I did not give her to Shēlah my son." And he never knew her again.

27 And it came to be, at the time for giving birth, that see, twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to be, when she was giving birth, that the one put out his hand. And the midwife took a scarlet thread and bound it on his hand, saying, “This one came out first.”

29 And it came to be, as he drew back his hand, that see, his brother came out! And she said, “How did you break through? This breach be upon you!” So his name was called Perets.

30 And afterward his brother came out who had the scarlet thread on his hand. So his name was called Zerah.

39 And Yosëph had been taken down to Mitsrayim. And Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, a Mitsrite, bought him from the Yishma’ërites who had taken him down there.

2 And it came to be that אִפְתָּאֵן was with Yosëph, and he became a prosperous man, and was in the house of his master the Mitsrite.

3 And his master saw that אִפְתָּאֵן was with him and that אִפְתָּאֵן made all he did to prosper in his hand.

4 So Yosëph found favour in his eyes, and served him, and he appointed him over his house, and gave into his hand all that he had.

5 And it came to be, from the time that he appointed him over his house and all that he had, that אִפְתָּאֵן barak the Mitsrite’s house for Yosëph’s sake. And the beraḳah of אִפְתָּאֵן was on all that he had in the house and in the field.

6 And he left in Yosëph’s hand all that he had, and he did not know what he had except for the bread which he ate. And Yosëph was handsome in form and handsome appearance.

7 And after these events it came to be that his master’s wife lifted up her eyes to Yosëph and said, “Lie with me.”

8 But he refused and said to his master's wife, "Look, my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has given into my hand all that he has.

9 "No one is greater in this house than I, and he has not withheld whatever from me but you, because you are his wife. And how shall I do this great evil and sin against Elohim?"

10 And it came to be, as she spoke to Yosěph day by day, that he did not listen to her, to lie with her, to be with her.

11 And it came to be on a certain day, when Yosěph went into the house to do his work, and none of the men of the house was inside, 12 that she caught him by his garment, saying, "Lie with me." But he left his garment in her hand, and fled and ran outside.

13 And it came to be, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and fled outside,

14 that she called to the men of her house and spoke to them, saying, "See, he has brought in to us an lbri to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried out with a loud voice.

15 "And it came to be, when he heard that I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me, and fled and went outside."

16 And she kept his garment with her until his master came home.

17 And she spoke to him these same words, saying, "The lbri servant whom you brought to us came in to me, to mock me, 18 so it came to be, as I lifted my voice and cried out, that he left his garment with me and fled outside."

19 And it came to be, when his master heard the words which his wife spoke to him, saying, "Your servant did to me according to these words," that his displeasure burned.

20 Then Yosëph's master took him and put him into the prison, a place where the sovereign's prisoners were confined. And he was there in the prison.

21 But אֶתְרָא was with Yosëph and extended kindness to him, and He gave him favour in the eyes of the prison warden.

22 And the prison warden gave into the hand of Yosëph all the prisoners who were in the prison, and whatever was done there was his doing.

23 The prison warden did not look into any point that was under Yosëph's hand, because אֶתְרָא was with him. And whatever he did, אֶתְרָא made it prosper.

40 And after these events it came to be that the cupbearer and the baker of the sovereign of Mitsrayim sinned against their master, the sovereign of Mitsrayim.

2 And Pharaoh was wroth with his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker.

3 So he put them in confinement in the house of the captain of the guard, in the prison, the place where Yosëph was a prisoner.

4 And the captain of the guard put Yosëph in charge of them, and he served them. So they were in confinement for some time.

5 Then the cupbearer and the baker of the sovereign of Mitsrayim, who were confined in the prison, dreamed a dream, both of them, each man's dream in one night and each man's dream with its own interpretation.

6 And Yosëph came in to them in the morning and looked at them and saw that they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers who were with him in confinement of his master's house, saying, "Why do you look so sad today?"

8 And they said to him, "We each have dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it." And Yosěph said to them, "Do not interpretations belong to Elohim? Relate them to me, please."

9 So the chief cupbearer related his dream to Yosěph, and said to him, "See, in my dream a vine was before me,

10 and in the vine were three branches, and it was as though it budded – its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes.

11 "And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand. So I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

12 And Yosěph said to him, "This is the interpretation of it: The three branches are three days.

13 "Yet, within three days Pharaoh is going to lift up your head and restore you to your place, and you shall put Pharaoh's cup in his hand according to the former ruling, when you were his cupbearer.

14 "But remember me when it is well with you, and please show kindness to me. And mention me to Pharaoh, and get me out of this house.

15 "For truly I was stolen away from the land of the Ibrim. And also I have done naught that they should put me into the dungeon."

16 And the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, and he said to Yosěph, "I also was in my dream and saw three white baskets were on my head,

17 and in the uppermost basket all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

18 And Yosëph answered and said, "This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days.

19 "Yet, within three days Pharaoh is going to lift off your head from you and hang you on a tree. And the birds shall eat your flesh from you."

20 And on the third day, Pharaoh's birthday, it came to be that he made a feast for all his servants. And he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and of the chief baker among his servants,

21 and he restored the chief cupbearer to his post of cupbearer again, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand,

22 but he hanged the chief baker, as Yosëph had interpreted to them.

23 And the chief cupbearer did not remember Yosëph, but forgot him.

41 And it came to be, at the end of two years' time, that Pharaoh had a dream, and saw him standing by the river,

2 and saw seven cows coming up out of the river, fine looking and fat, and they fed amongst the reeds,

3 then saw seven other cows coming up after them out of the river, ugly and lean of flesh, and stood by the other cows on the bank of the river.

4 And the ugly and lean of flesh cows ate up the seven fine looking and fat cows. Then Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed a second time and saw seven heads of grain coming up on one stalk, plump and good,

6 and saw seven lean heads, scorched by the east wind, coming up after them.

7 And the seven lean heads swallowed the seven plump and complete heads. Then Pharaoh awoke and saw it was a dream.

8 And it came to be in the morning that his spirit was moved, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Mitsrayim and all its wise men. And Pharaoh related to them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them for Pharaoh.

9 Then the chief cupbearer spoke to Pharaoh, saying, "I remember my crimes this day.

10 "When Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me in confinement in the house of the captain of the guard, both me and the chief baker, 11 each one of us dreamed a dream in one night, he and I. Each of us dreamed according to the interpretation of his own dream.

12 "And there was with us an Iḅri youth, a servant of the captain of the guard. And we related to him, and he interpreted our dreams for us. To each man he interpreted according to his own dream.

13 "And it came to be, as he interpreted for us, so it came to be. He restored me to my office, and he hanged him."

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Yosěph, and they hurriedly brought him out of the dungeon. And he shaved and changed his garments, and came to Pharaoh.

15 And Pharaoh said to Yosěph, "I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one to interpret it. Now I myself have heard it said of you that you understand a dream, to interpret it."

16 And Yosěph answered Pharaoh, saying, "It is not in me, let Elohim answer Pharaoh with peace."

17 And Pharaoh said to Yosěph, "See, in my dream I stood on the bank of the river

18 and saw seven cows coming up out of the river, fine looking and fat, and they fed amongst the reeds,

19 then saw seven other cows coming up after them, poor and very ugly and lean of flesh, such ugliness as I have never seen in all the land of Mitsrayim.

20 “And the lean of flesh and ugly cows ate up the first seven, the fat cows.

21 “Yet when they had eaten them up, no one would have known that they had eaten them, for they were as ugly as at the beginning. Then I awoke.

22 “Also, I looked in my dream and saw seven heads coming up on one stalk, complete and good, 23 then saw seven heads, withered, lean, scorched by the east wind, coming up after them.

24 “And the lean heads swallowed the seven good heads. And I spoke to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me.”

25 And Yosëph said to Pharaoh, “The dream of Pharaoh is one. Elohim has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do:

26 “The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years - it is one dream.

27 “And the seven lean and ugly cows which came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty heads scorched by the east wind are seven years of scarcity of food.

28 “This is the word which I spoke to Pharaoh: Elohim has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do.

29 “See, seven years of great plenty are coming in all the land of Mitsrayim,

30 but after them seven years of scarcity of food shall arise and all the plenty be forgotten in the land of Mitsrayim. And the scarcity of food shall destroy the land, 31 and the plenty shall not be remembered in the land, because of the scarcity of food following, for it is very severe.

32 “And the dream was repeated to Pharaoh twice because the word is established by Elohim, and Elohim is hastening to do it.

33 “And now, let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man, and appoint him over the land of Mitsrayim.

34 “Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint overseers over the land, to take up one-fifth of the land of Mitsrayim in the seven years of plenty.

35 “And let them gather all the food of those good years that are coming, and store up grain under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 “And the food shall be for a store for the land for the seven years of scarcity of food which shall be in the land of Mitsrayim, and do not let the land be cut off by the scarcity of food.”

37 And the word was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said to his servants, “Could we find another like him, a man in whom is the Ruah of Elohim?”

39 Then Pharaoh said to Yosĕph, “Since Elohim has shown you all this, there is no one as discerning and wise as you.

40 “Be over my house, you yourself, and at your word all my people shall be equipped - only in the throne I am greater than you.”

41 And Pharaoh said to Yosĕph, “See, I have appointed you over all the land of Mitsrayim.”

42 And Pharaoh took his seal-ring off his hand and put it on Yosĕph’s hand. And he dressed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

43 And he had him ride in the second chariot which he had. And they cried out before him, “Bow the knee!” And he appointed him over all the land of Mitsrayim.

44 And Pharaoh said to Yosěph, "I am Pharaoh, and without you let no man lift his hand or foot in all the land of Mitsrayim."

45 And Pharaoh called Yosěph's name Tsaphnath-Pa'něah. And he gave him as a wife Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Phera priest of On. And Yosěph went out over all the land of Mitsrayim.

46 Now Yosěph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim. And Yosěph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Mitsrayim.

47 And in the seven years of plenty the ground brought forth generously.

48 And he gathered all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Mitsrayim, and laid up the food in the cities. He laid up in every city the food of the fields which surrounded them.

49 Thus Yosěph gathered very much grain, as the sand of the sea, until he ceased counting, for it was without number.

50 And to Yosěph were born two sons before the years of scarcity of food came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Phera priest of On, bore to him.

51 And Yosěph called the name of the first-born Menashsheh, "For Elohim has made me forget all my toil and all my father's house."

52 And the name of the second he called Ephrayim, "For Elohim has caused me to bear fruit in the land of my affliction."

53 And the seven years of plenty which were in the land of Mitsrayim came to an end, 54 and the seven years of scarcity of food began to come, as Yosěph had said. And the scarcity of food was in all lands, but in all the land of Mitsrayim there was bread.

55 But when all the land of Mitsrayim hungered, and the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, Pharaoh said to all the Mitsrites, “Go to Yosěph, do whatever he says to you.”

56 And the scarcity of food was over all the face of the earth, and Yosěph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Mitsrites. And the scarcity of food was severe in the land of Mitsrayim.

57 And all the earth came to Yosěph in Mitsrayim to buy grain, because the scarcity of food was severe in all the earth.

42 And when Ya’aqob̄ saw that there was grain in Mitsrayim, Ya’aqob̄ said to his sons, “Why do you look at each other?”

2 And he said, “See, I have heard that there is grain in Mitsrayim. Go down to that place and buy for us there, and let us live and not die.”

3 And Yosěph’s ten brothers went down to buy grain in Mitsrayim.

4 But Ya’aqob̄ did not send Yosěph’s brother Binyamin with his brothers, for he said, “Lest some harm come to him.”

5 And the sons of Yisra’ěl went to buy grain among those who journeyed, for the scarcity of food was in the land of Kena’an.

6 And Yosěph was the governor over the land, he was the one who sold to all the people of the land. And Yosěph’s brothers came and bowed down before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Yosěph saw his brothers and recognised them, but he acted as a stranger to them and spoke to them harshly, and said to them, “Where do you come from?” And they said, “From the land of Kena’an to buy food.”

8 So Yosëph recognised his brothers, but they did not recognise him.

9 And Yosëph remembered the dreams which he had dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land!"

10 And they said to him, "No, my master, but your servants have come to buy food.

11 "We are all one man's sons, we are trustworthy, your servants are not spies."

12 But he said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land."

13 And they said, "Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Kena'an. And see, the youngest is with our father today, and one is no more."

14 And Yosëph said to them, "It is as I spoke to you, saying, 'You are spies!'

15 "By this you shall be proven: By the life of Pharaoh, you do not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

16 "Send one of you, and let him bring your brother, while you are kept in prison. So let your words be proven to see whether there is any truth in you, or else, by the life of Pharaoh, you are spies!"

17 And he put them all together in prison for three days.

18 Now Yosëph said to them the third day, "Do this and live, for I revere Elohim:

19 "If you are trustworthy, let one of your brothers be confined to your prison house, and you, go, bring grain for the scarcity of food of your houses.

20 "And bring your youngest brother to me, and let your words be confirmed, and you do not die." And so they did.

21 And they said to each other, “Truly, we are guilty concerning our brother, for we saw the distress of his life when he pleaded with us, yet we did not listen, that is why this distress has come upon us.”

22 And Re’uḇēn answered them, saying, “Did I not speak to you, saying, ‘Do not sin against the boy,’ and you would not listen? And see, his blood is now required of us.”

23 And they did not know that Yosēph understood them, for he spoke to them through an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself away from them and wept, but came back to them and spoke to them. And he took Shim’on from them and bound him before their eyes.

25 And Yosēph commanded and they filled their sacks with grain, also to put back every man’s silver into his sack, and to give them food for the journey. And thus it was done for them.

26 So they loaded their donkeys with the grain and went from there.

27 And as one of them opened his sack to give his donkey fodder at the lodging place, he saw his silver, for there it was in the mouth of his sack!

28 And he said to his brothers, “My silver has been returned, and there it is, in my sack!” And their hearts sank and they were afraid, saying to each other, “What is this that Elohim has done to us?”

29 So they came to Ya’aqoḇ their father in the land of Kena’an and reported to him all that befell them, saying,

30 “The man, the master of the land, spoke to us harshly, and took us for spies of the land.

31 “But we said to him, ‘We are trustworthy, we are not spies.

32 'We are twelve brothers, sons of our father. One is no more, and the youngest is today with our father in the land of Kena'an.'

33 "And the man, the master of the land, said to us, 'By this I know that you are trustworthy: Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food for the scarcity of food of your households, and go.

34 'And bring your youngest brother to me, then I know that you are not spies, but that you are trustworthy - I give your brother to you, and you move about in the land.' "

35 And it came to be as they emptied their sacks, that look, the bundle of each man's silver was in his sack! And when they and their father saw the bundles of silver, they were afraid.

36 And Ya'aqob<sup>u</sup> their father said to them, "You have bereaved me - Yosēph is no more, and Shim'on is no more, and you would take Binyamin! All this is against me."

37 So Re'ubēn spoke to his father, saying, "Take the lives of my two sons if I do not bring him back to you. Put him in my hands, and I myself bring him back to you."

38 But he said, "My son is not going down with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone. If any harm should come to him along the way in which you go, then you would bring down my grey hair with sorrow to the grave."

43 But the scarcity of food was severe in the land.

2 And it came to be, when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Mitsrayim, that their father said to them, "Go back, buy us a little food."

3 But Yahudāh spoke to him, saying, “The man vehemently warned us, saying, ‘You do not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ ”

4 “If you let our brother go with us, we go down and buy you food.

5 “But if you do not let him go, we do not go down, because the man said to us, ‘You do not see my face unless your brother is with you.’ ”

6 And Yisra’ēl said, “Why did you do evil to me to inform the man that you still had a brother?”

7 And they said, “The man kept asking about us and our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you a brother?’ And we informed him according to these words. How could we know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

8 And Yahudāh said to Yisra’ēl his father, “Send the boy with me, and let us arise and go, and live and not die, both we and you and also our little ones.

9 “I myself shall stand guarantor for him - from my hand you are to require him. If I do not bring him back to you and put him before you, then let me bear the blame forever.

10 “For if we had not delayed, truly by now we could have returned this second time.”

11 And their father Yisra’ēl said to them, “If so, then do this: Take some of the best fruit of the land in your vessels and bring a present down for the man, a little balm and a little honey, spices and myrrh, nuts and almonds.

12 “And take double silver in your hand, and take back in your hand the silver that was returned in the mouth of your sacks. It could have been a mistake.

13 “And take your brother, and arise, go back to the man.

14 “And Ēl Shaddai give to you compassion before the man, so that he shall release your other brother and Binyamin. And I, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved!”

15 And the men took that present and Binyamin, and they took double the amount of silver in their hand, and arose and went down to Mitsrayim, and stood before Yosěph.

16 And Yosěph saw Binyamin with them, and said to the one over his house, “Bring the men home, and make a great slaughter, and prepare, for these men are to eat with me at noon.”

17 And the man did as Yosěph said, and the man brought the men into Yosěph’s house.

18 And the men were afraid because they were brought into Yosěph’s house. And they said, “It is because of the silver, which was put back into our sacks the first time, that we are brought in, to throw himself upon us and fall upon us, to take us as slaves, our donkeys too.”

19 So they came near to the man over the house of Yosěph, and spoke to him at the door of the house,

20 and said, “O my master, we indeed came down the first time to buy food,

21 but it came to be, when we came to the lodging place, that we opened our sacks and saw each man’s silver in the mouth of his sack, our silver in its weight. And we have brought it back in our hand.

22 And we have brought down other silver in our hands to buy food. We do not know who put our silver in our sacks.”

23 But he said, “Peace be with you, do not be afraid. Your Elohim and the Elohim of your father has given you treasure in your sacks - your silver had come to me!” And he brought Shim’on out to them.

24 And the man brought the men into Yosěph's house and gave them water, and they washed their feet. And he gave their donkeys fodder.

25 And they made the present ready for Yosěph's coming at noon, for they heard that they were to eat there.

26 And when Yosěph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand, into the house, and bowed down before him to the earth.

27 And he asked them about their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he still alive?"

28 And they said, "Your servant our father is in good health, he is still alive." And they bowed their heads down and did obeisance.

29 And he lifted his eyes and saw his brother Binyamin, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your younger brother of whom you spoke to me?" And he said, "Elohim show favour to you, my son."

30 And Yosěph hurried, for his emotions were deeply moved towards his brother, and he looked to weep, and went into his room and wept there.

31 Then he washed his face and came out, and controlled himself, and said, "Serve the food."

32 And they placed him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Mitsrites who ate with him by themselves, for the Mitsrites could not eat food with the Ibrim, for that is an abomination to the Mitsrites.

33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright and the youngest according to his youth, and the men looked at each other in astonishment.

34 And he took portions to them from before him, but Binyamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. And they feasted and they drank with him.

44 And he commanded the one over his house, saying, “Fill the men’s sacks with food, as they are able to bear, and put each man’s silver in the mouth of his sack.

2 “And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and the silver for his grain.” And he did according to the word of Yosëph which he spoke.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys.

4 And when they had gone out of the city, not having gone far, Yosëph said to the one over his house, “Rise up, follow the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, ‘Why have you repaid evil for good?

5 ‘Is this not the one from which my master drinks, and with which he indeed divines? You have done evil in what you have done.’ ”

6 So he overtook them and spoke these words to them.

7 And they said to him, “Why does my master say these words? Far be it from us that your servants should do according to this word.

8 “See, we brought back to you from the land of Kena’an the silver which we found in the mouth of our sacks. How then should we steal silver or gold from your master’s house?

9 “With whomever of your servants it is found - he shall die and we shall become my master’s slaves as well.”

10 And he said, “Now also let it be according to your words: he with whom it is found becomes my slave, and you are innocent.”

11 And they hurried, each man let down his sack to the ground, and each opened his sack.

12 And he searched, with the oldest first and with the youngest last, and the cup was found in Binyamin's sack.

13 And they tore their garments, and each man loaded his donkey and went back to the city.

14 And Yahudah and his brothers came to Yosěph's house, and he was still there. And they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Yosěph said to them, "What deed is this you have done? Did you not know that a man like me indeed divines?"

16 And Yahudah said, "What do we say to my master? What do we speak? Or how do we clear ourselves? Elohim has found out the wickedness of your servants. See, we are my master's slaves, both we and he also with whom the cup was found."

17 But he said, "Far be it from me to do this. The man in whose hand the cup was found, he becomes my slave. And you, go up in peace to your father."

18 And Yahudah came near to him and said, "O my master, please let your servant speak a word in my master's hearing, and do not let your displeasure burn against your servant, for you are like Pharaoh.

19 "My master asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father or a brother?'

20 "And we said to my master, 'We have a father, an old man, and a young child of his old age, and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother's children, and his father loves him.'

21 "And you said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, and let me lay my eyes on him.'

22 "And we said to my master, 'The boy is not able to leave his father, for if he leaves his father, his father shall die.'

23 “But you said to your servants, ‘Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you do not see my face again.’

24 “And it came to be, when we went up to your servant my father, that we told him the words of my master.

25 “And our father said, ‘Go back and buy us a little food.’

26 “But we said, ‘We are not able to go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we shall go down, for we are not able to see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

27 “Then your servant my father said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons,

28 and the one went out from me, and I said, “Truly, he is torn, torn to pieces!” And I have not seen him since.

29 ‘And if you take this one from me too, and harm comes to him, you shall bring down my grey hair with evil to the grave.’

30 “And now, if I come to your servant my father and the boy is not with us - since his own life is bound up in his life –

31 then it shall be, when he sees that the boy is not with us, that he shall die. So your servants shall bring down the grey hair of your servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

32 “For your servant went guarantor for the boy to my father, saying, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then I shall be a sinner before my father forever.’

33 “And now, please let your servant remain instead of the boy as a slave to my master, and let the boy go up with his brothers.

34 “For how do I go up to my father if the boy is not with me, lest I see the evil that would come upon my father?”

45 And Yosëph was unable to restrain himself before all those who stood by him, and he called out, “Have everyone go out from me!” So no one stood with him while Yosëph made himself known to his brothers.

2 And he wept aloud, and the Mitsrites and the house of Pharaoh heard it.

3 And Yosëph said to his brothers, “I am Yosëph, is my father still alive?” But his brothers were unable to answer him, for they trembled before him.

4 Then Yosëph said to his brothers, “Please come near to me.” And when they came near, he said, “I am Yosëph your brother, whom you sold into Mitsrayim.

5 “And now, do not be grieved nor displeased with yourselves because you sold me here, for Elohim sent me before you to preserve life.

6 “For two years now the scarcity of food has been in the land, and there are still five years in which there is neither ploughing nor harvesting.

7 “And Elohim sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to give life to you by a great escape.

8 “So then, you did not send me here, but Elohim. And He has appointed me for a father to Pharaoh, and master of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Mitsrayim.

9 “Hurry and go up to my father, and say to him, ‘Thus says your son Yosëph, “Elohim has made me master of all Mitsrayim. Come down to me, do not delay.

10 “And you shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and be near to me, you and your children, your children’s children, your flocks and your herds, and all that you have.

11 “And I shall provide for you there, lest you and your household, and all that you have, come to poverty, because five years of scarcity of food are still to come.”

12 “And look, your eyes and the eyes of my brother Binyamin see that it is my mouth that speaks to you.

13 “And you shall inform my father of all my esteem in Mitsrayim, and of all that you have seen. And you shall hurry and bring my father down here.”

14 And he fell on his brother Binyamin’s neck and wept, and Binyamin wept on his neck.

15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers spoke with him.

16 And the report of it was heard by the house of Pharaoh, saying, “The brothers of Yosëph have come.” And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said to Yosëph, “Say to your brothers, ‘Do this: Load your beasts and go, enter the land of Kena’an,

18 and take your father and your households and come to me, and I give you the best of the land of Mitsrayim, and you eat the fatness of the land.

19 ‘And you have been commanded, do this: Take wagons out of the land of Mitsrayim for your little ones and your wives. And you shall bring your father, and come.

20 ‘And do not be concerned about your goods, for the best of all the land of Mitsrayim is yours.’ ”

21 And the sons of Yisra’ël did so. And Yosëph gave them wagons, according to the command of Pharaoh, and he gave them food for the journey.

22 He gave to all of them, to each man, changes of garments, but to Binyamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of garments.

23 And he sent to his father this: ten donkeys loaded with the best of Mitsrayim, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, and bread, and food for his father for the journey.

24 So he sent his brothers away, and they left. And he said to them, "Do not quarrel along the way."

25 And they went up out of Mitsrayim, and came to the land of Kena'an to Ya'aqob̄ their father.

26 And they told him, saying, "Yosĕph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Mitsrayim." And Ya'aqob̄'s heart ceased, for he did not believe them.

27 But when they spoke to him all the words which Yosĕph had spoken to them, and when he saw the wagons which Yosĕph had sent to transport him, the spirit of Ya'aqob̄ their father revived.

28 And Yisra'ĕl said, "Enough! My son Yosĕph is still alive. Let me go and see him before I die."

46 And Yisra'ĕl departed with all that he had, and came to Be'ĕrsheḃa, and brought offerings to the Elohim of his father Yitṣḥaq.

2 And Elohim spoke to Yisra'ĕl in the visions of the night, and said, "Ya'aqob̄, Ya'aqob̄!" And he said, "Here I am."

3 And He said, "I am the Ĕl, Elohim of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Mitsrayim, for I shall make you there into a great nation.

4 "I Myself am going down with you to Mitsrayim and I Myself shall certainly bring you up again. And let Yosĕph put his hand on your eyes."

5 And Ya'aqob̄ rose up from Be'ĕrsheḃa. And the sons of Yisra'ĕl brought their father Ya'aqob̄, and their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to transport him.

6 And they took their livestock and their property which they had acquired in the land of Kena'an, and came into Mitsrayim, Ya'aqob and all his seed with him.

7 His sons and his sons' sons, his daughters and his sons' daughters, and all his seed he brought with him to Mitsrayim.

8 And these were the names of the children of Yisra'el, Ya'aqob and his sons, who came into Mitsrayim: Re'ubēn was Ya'aqob's first-born.

9 And the sons of Re'ubēn: Ḥanok, and Pallu, and Ḥetsron, and Karmi.

10 And the sons of Shim'on: Yemu'el, and Yamin, and Ohaḍ, and Yaḳin, and Tsoḥar, and Sha'ul, son of a Kena'anite woman.

11 And the sons of Lēwi: Gēreshon, Qehath, and Merari.

12 And the sons of Yahudah: Ĕr, and Onan, and Shēlah, and Perets, and Zeraḥ - but Ĕr and Onan died in the land of Kena'an. And the sons of Perets were Ḥetsron and Ḥamul.

13 And the sons of Yissasḳar: Tola, and Puw'ah, and Yob, and Shimron.

14 And the sons of Zebulun: Sereḍ, and Ĕlon, and Yaḥle'el.

15 These were the sons of Lē'ah, whom she bore to Ya'aqob in Paddan Aram, with his daughter Dinah. All the beings, his sons and his daughters, were thirty-three.

16 And the sons of Gaḍ: Tsiphyon and Ḥaggi, Shuni and Etsbon, Ĕri and Aroḍi, and Arēli.

17 And the sons of Ashĕr: Yimnah, and Yishwah, and Yishwi, and Beri'ah, and Seraḥ, their sister. And the sons of Beri'ah: Ḥeber and Malki'ĕl.

18 These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laḃan gave to Lĕ'ah his daughter. And these she bore to Ya'aqoḃ: sixteen beings.

19 The sons of Raḥĕl, Ya'aqoḃ's wife: Yosĕph and Binyamin.

20 And to Yosĕph in the land of Mitsrayim were born Menashsheh and Ephrayim, whom Asenath, the daughter of Poti-Phera priest of On, bore to him.

21 And the sons of Binyamin: Belah, and Beḳer, and Ashbĕl, Gĕra and Na'aman, Ĕḥi and Rosh, Muppim and Ḥuppim, and Ard.

22 These were the sons of Raḥĕl who were born to Ya'aqoḃ: fourteen beings in all.

23 And the son of Dan: Ḥushim.

24 And the sons of Naphtali: Yaḥtse'ĕl, and Guni, and Yĕtser, and Shillĕm.

25 These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laḃan gave to Raḥĕl his daughter, and she bore these to Ya'aqoḃ: seven beings in all.

26 All the beings who went with Ya'aqoḃ to Mitsrayim, who came from his body, besides Ya'aqoḃ's sons' wives, were sixty-six beings in all.

27 And the sons of Yosĕph who were born to him in Mitsrayim were two beings. All the beings of the house of Ya'aqoḃ who went to Mitsrayim were seventy.

28 And he sent Yahudah before him to Yosĕph, to point out before him the way to Goshen. And they came to the land of Goshen.

29 And Yosĕph made ready his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Yisra'ĕl. And he appeared to him, and fell on his neck and wept on his neck a long time.

30 And Yisra'ël said to Yosëph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

31 And Yosëph said to his brothers and to his father's household, "I am going up to inform Pharaoh, and say to him, 'My brothers and those of my father's house, who were in the land of Kena'an, have come to me.

32 'And the men are shepherds, that they have been men of livestock, and they have brought their flocks and their herds, and all that they have.'

33 "And it shall be, when Pharaoh calls you and says, 'What is your occupation?'

34 that you shall say, 'Your servants have been men of livestock from our youth even till now, both we and also our fathers,' so that you dwell in the land of Goshen, for every shepherd is an abomination to the Mitsrites."

47 Then Yosëph went and spoke to Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, their flocks and their herds and all that they possess, have come from the land of Kena'an. And see, they are in the land of Goshen."

2 And he took five men from among his brothers and presented them to Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?" And they said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we and also our fathers."

4 And they said to Pharaoh, "We have come to dwell in the land, because there is no pasture for your servant's flocks, for the scarcity of food is severe in the land of Kena'an. And now, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

5 And Pharaoh spoke to Yosëph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you.

6 “The land of Mitsrayim is before you. Settle your father and brothers in the best of the land, let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if you know of capable men among them, then make them chief herdsmen over my livestock.”

7 And Yosĕph brought in his father Ya’aqob and stood him before Pharaoh. And Ya’aqob barak Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said to Ya’aqob, “How many are the days of your life?”

9 And Ya’aqob said to Pharaoh, “The days of the years of my sojournings are one hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not reached the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their sojournings.”

10 And Ya’aqob barak Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 So Yosĕph settled his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Mitsrayim, in the best of the land, in the land of Ra’meses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Yosĕph provided his father, and his brothers, and all his father’s household with bread for the mouth of the little ones.

13 Now there was no bread in all the land, because the scarcity of food was very severe, and the land of Mitsrayim and all the land of Kena’an became exhausted from the scarcity of food.

14 And Yosĕph gathered up all the silver that was found in the land of Mitsrayim and in the land of Kena’an, for the grain which they bought. And Yosĕph brought the silver into Pharaoh’s house.

15 And when the silver was all spent in the land of Mitsrayim and in the land of Kena’an, all the Mitsrites came to Yosëph and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For the silver is gone!"

16 And Yosëph said, "Give your livestock, and I give you bread for your livestock, if the silver is gone."

17 So they brought their livestock to Yosëph, and Yosëph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks they owned, and for the herds they owned, and for the donkeys. Thus he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock that year.

18 And when that year had ended, they came to him the next year and said to him, "We do not hide from my master that our silver is all spent, and my master also has the livestock we owned. There has not any been left before my master but our bodies and our lands.

19 "Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and let us and our land be servants of Pharaoh. And give us seed, and let us live and not die, and let the land not lie waste."

20 And Yosëph bought the entire land of Mitsrayim for Pharaoh, because every man of the Mitsrites sold his field, because the scarcity of food was severe upon them. And the land came to be Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he moved them into the cities, from one end of the borders of Mitsrayim to the other end.

22 Only the ground of the priests he did not buy, for the priests had allotments from Pharaoh, and they ate their allotments which Pharaoh gave them. Therefore they did not sell their ground.

23 And Yosëph said to the people, "Look, I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh. Look, here is seed for you, and you shall sow the land.

24 "And it shall be that in the harvest you shall give one-fifth to Pharaoh. And four-fifths is your own, as seed for the field and for your food, for those of your households and as food for your little ones.”

25 And they said, “You have saved our lives. Let us find favour in the eyes of my master, and we shall become Pharaoh’s servants.”

26 And Yosĕph made it a law over the land of Mitsrayim to this day, that Pharaoh should have one-fifth, except for the ground of the priests only, which did not become Pharaoh’s.

27 And Yisra’ĕl dwelt in the land of Mitsrayim, in the land of Goshen. And they had possessions there and bore fruit and increased exceedingly.

28 And Ya’aqob̄ lived in the land of Mitsrayim seventeen years. So the length of Ya’aqob̄’s life was one hundred and forty-seven years.

29 And the time for Yisra’ĕl to die drew near, and he called his son Yosĕph and said to him, “Now if I have found favour in your eyes, please put your hand under my thigh, and show kindness and truth to me. Please do not bury me in Mitsrayim, 30 but I shall lie with my fathers, and you shall take me up out of Mitsrayim and bury me in their burial place.” And he said, “I do as you have said.”

31 And he said, “Swear to me.” And he swore to him, and Yisra’ĕl bowed himself on the head of the bed.

48 And after these events it came to be that it was said to Yosĕph, “See, your father is sick.” And he took with him his two sons, Menashsheh and Ephrayim.

2 And Ya’aqob̄ was told, “See, your son Yosĕph is coming to you.” And Yisra’ĕl strengthened himself and sat up on the bed.

3 And Ya’aqob̄ said to Yosĕph, “Ĕl Shaddai appeared to me at Luz in the land of Kena’an and barak̄ me,

4 and said to me, 'See, I am making you bear fruit and shall increase you and make of you an assembly of peoples, and give this land to your seed after you as an everlasting possession.'

5 "And now, your two sons, Ephrayim and Menashsheh, who were born to you in the land of Mitsrayim before I came to you in Mitsrayim, are mine - as Re'ubĕn and Shim'on, they are mine.

6 "Your offspring whom you shall bring forth after them are yours, and let them be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.

7 "And I, when I came from Paddan, Raḥĕl died beside me in the land of Kena'an on the way, when there was but a little distance to go to Ephrath. And I buried her there on the way to Ephrath, that is Bĕyth Leḥem."

8 And Yisra'ĕl saw Yosĕph's sons, and said, "Who are these?"

9 And Yosĕph said to his father, "They are my sons, whom Elohim has given me in this place." And he said, "Please bring them to me, and let me baraḳ them."

10 And the eyes of Yisra'ĕl were dim with age, and he was unable to see. And he drew them near him, and he kissed them and embraced them.

11 And Yisra'ĕl said to Yosĕph, "I had not thought to see your face. But see, Elohim has also shown me your seed!"

12 So Yosĕph brought them from between his knees, and he bowed down with his face to the earth.

14 And Yisra'ĕl stretched out his right hand and laid it on Ephrayim's head, who was the younger, and his left hand on Menashsheh's head, consciously directing his hands, for Menashsheh was the first-born.

15 And he barak<sub>ḵ</sub> Yosĕph, and said, "The Elohim before whom my fathers Aḅraham and Yitshāq walked, the Elohim who has fed me all my life long to this day, 16 the Messenger who has redeemed me from all evil - barak<sub>ḵ</sub> the youths! And let my name be called upon them, and the name of my fathers Aḅraham and Yitshāq. And let them increase to a multitude in the midst of the earth."

17 And when Yosĕph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephrayim, it was evil in his eyes; and he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from the head of Ephrayim to the head of Menashsheh.

18 And Yosĕph said to his father, "Not so, my father, for this one is the first-born, put your right hand on his head."

19 But his father refused and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also becomes a people, and he also is great. And yet, his younger brother is greater than he, and his seed is to become the completeness of the nations."

20 And he barak<sub>ḵ</sub> them on that day, saying, "In you Yisra'ĕl shall barak<sub>ḵ</sub>, saying, 'Elohim make you as Ephrayim and as Menashsheh!' " Thus he put Ephrayim before Menashsheh.

21 And Yisra'ĕl said to Yosĕph, "See, I am dying, but Elohim shall be with you and bring you back to the land of your fathers.

22 "And I, I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took from the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow."

49 And Ya'aqob called his sons and said, "Gather together, so that I declare to you what is to befall you in the last days:

2 "Gather together and hear, you sons of Ya'aqob, and listen to Yisra'el your father.

3 "Re'ubēn, you are my first-born, my power and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of exaltation and the excellency of power.

4 "Unstable as the waters, you do not excel, because you went up to your father's bed, then you defiled it - he went up to my couch.

5 "Shim'on and Lēwi are brothers, their weapons are implements of violence.

6 "Let my being not enter their council, let my esteem not be united to their assembly; because they slew a man in their displeasure, and they lamed an ox in pleasure.

7 "Cursed be their displeasure for it is fierce, and their wrath for it is cruel! I divide them in Ya'aqob and scatter them in Yisra'el.

8 "You, Yahudāh, your brothers praise you; your hand is on the neck of your enemies; your father's children bow down before you.

9 "Yahudāh is a lion's cub; from the prey you have gone up, my son! He bowed down, he crouched like a lion. And like a lion, who rouses him?

10 "The sceptre shall not turn aside from Yahudāh, nor a Lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh comes, and to Him is the obedience of peoples.

11 "Binding his donkey to the vine, and his donkey's colt to the choice vine, he washed his garments in wine, and his robes in the blood of grapes.

12 "His eyes are darker than wine, and his teeth whiter than milk.

13 “Zebulun dwells at the seashore, he is a haven for ships, and his border is unto Tsidon.

14 “Yissaskar is a strong donkey lying down between two burdens,

15 and he saw that a resting place was good, and that the land was pleasant, and he inclined his shoulder to bear a burden, and became a subject to slave labour.

16 “Dan rightly rules his people as one of the tribes of Yisra’el.

17 “Dan is a serpent by the way, an adder by the path, that bites the horse’s heels so that its rider falls backward.

18 “I have waited for your deliverance, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ!

19 “Gaḏ, a raiding band raids him, but he raids its heel.

20 “Bread from Asher is rich, and he gives delicacies of a sovereign.

21 “Naphtali is a deer let loose, he gives words of elegance.

22 “Yosēph is an offshoot of a fruit-bearing tree, an offshoot of a fruit-bearing tree by a fountain, his branches run over a wall.

23 “And the archers have bitterly grieved him, shot at him and hated him.

24 “But his bow remained in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the Mighty One of Ya’aqob - from there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Yisra’el -

25 from the Ĕl of your father who helps you, and by Ĕl Shaddai who baraḵ you with bireḵoth of the shamayim above, bireḵoth of the deep that lies beneath, bireḵoth of the breasts and of the womb.

26 “The bireḵoth of your father have excelled the bireḵoth of my ancestors, up to the limit of the everlasting hills. They are on the head of Yosēph, and on the crown of the head of him who was separated from his brothers.

27 “Binyamin is a wolf that tears, in the morning he eats prey, and at night he divides the spoil.”

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Yisra’ěl, and this is what their father spoke to them. And he barak them, he barak each one according to his own beraḳah.

29 And he commanded them, and said to them, “I am to be gathered to my people, bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite,

30 in the cave that is in the field of Maḳpēlah, which is before Mamrē in the land of Kena’an, which Aḅraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite as a possession for a burial site.

31 There they buried Aḅraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Yitṣḥaq and Ribqah his wife, and there I buried Lě’ah,

32 the field purchased, and the cave which is in it, from the sons of Hēth.”

33 And when Ya’aqob ended commanding his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed and breathed his last, and was gathered to his people.

50 And Yosēph fell on his father’s face, and wept over him, and kissed him.

2 And Yosēph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. So the physicians embalmed Yisra’ěl.

3 And forty days were completed for him, for so are completed the days of embalming. And the Mitsrites wept for him seventy days.

4 And when the days of weeping for him were past, Yosēph spoke to the household of Pharaoh, saying, “If, now, I have found favour in your eyes, please speak in the hearing of Pharaoh, saying,

5 'My father made me swear, saying, "See, I am dying, bury me in my grave which I dug for myself in the land of Kena'an." And now, please let me go up and bury my father, and return.' "

6 And Pharaoh said, "Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear."

7 And Yosĕph went up to bury his father. And with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Mitsrayim,

8 and all the house of Yosĕph, and his brothers, and his father's house. Only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond the Yardĕn, and they lamented there with a great and very heavy lamentation. And he observed seven days of mourning for his father.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Kena'anites, saw the mourning at the threshing-floor of Atad, they said, "This is a grievous mourning for the Mitsrites." That is why its name was called Abĕl Mitsrayim, which is beyond the Yardĕn.

12 And his sons did to him as he had commanded them,

13 for his sons brought him to the land of Kena'an, and buried him in the cave of the field of Maḱpĕlah, before Mamrĕ, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property for a burial site.

14 And after he had buried his father, Yosĕph returned to Mitsrayim, he and his brothers and all who went up with him to bury his father.

15 And when Yosëph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, "What if Yosëph hates us, and pays us back all the evil which we did to him?"

16 And they sent word to Yosëph, saying, "Before your father died he commanded, saying,

17 'This is what you are to say to Yosëph, "I beg you, please forgive the transgression of your brothers and their sin, for they did evil to you." ' And now, please forgive the transgression of the servants of the Elohim of your father." And Yosëph wept when they spoke to him.

18 And his brothers also went and fell down before his face, and they said, "See, we are your servants."

19 And Yosëph said to them, "Do not fear, for am I in the place of Elohim?

20 "And you, you intended evil against me, but Elohim intended it for good, in order to do it as it is this day, to keep a great many people alive.

21 "And now, do not fear, I provide for you and your little ones." So he comforted them and spoke kindly to them.

22 And Yosëph dwelt in Mitsrayim, he and his father's household. And Yosëph lived one hundred and ten years.

23 And Yosëph saw Ephrayim's children to the third generation. The children of Maķir, son of Menashsheh, were also brought up on Yosëph's knees.

24 And Yosëph said to his brothers, "I am dying, but Elohim shall certainly visit you and bring you out of this land to the land of which He swore to Abraham, to Yitřhaq, and to Ya'aqob."

25 And Yosëph made the children of Yisra'ël swear, saying, "Elohim shall certainly visit you, and you shall bring up my bones from here."

26 And Yosĕph died, being one hundred and ten years old. And they embalmed him, and he was placed in a coffin in Mitsrayim.

1 And these are the names of the children of Yisra'ël who came to Mitsrayim with Ya'aqob, each one with his household:

2 Re'ubēn, Shim'on, Lēwi, and Yahudāh;

3 Yissaskar, Zebulun, and Binyamin;

4 Dan and Naphtali, Gaḏ and Ashēr.

5 And all those who were descendants of Ya'aqob were seventy beings, as Yosēph was already in Mitsrayim.

6 And Yosēph died, and all his brothers, and all that generation.

7 And the children of Yisra'ël bore fruit and increased very much, multiplied and became very strong, and the land was filled with them.

8 Then a new sovereign arose over Mitsrayim, who did not know Yosēph,

9 and he said to his people, "See, the people of the children of Yisra'ël are more and stronger than we,

10 come, let us act wisely towards them, lest they increase, and it shall be when fighting befalls us, that they shall join our enemies and fight against us, and shall go up out of the land."

11 So they appointed slave-masters over them to afflict them with their burdens, and they built for Pharaoh supply cities, Pithom and Ra'amses.

12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they increased and grew, and they were in dread of the children of Yisra'ël.

13 And the Mitsrites made the children of Yisra'ël serve with harshness,

14 and they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all kinds of work in the field, all their work which they made them do was with harshness.

15 Then the sovereign of Mitsrayim spoke to the Iḅri midwives, of whom the name of one was Shiprah and the name of the other Pu'ah,

16 and he said, "When you deliver the Iḅri women, and see them on the birth-stools, if it is a son, then you shall put him to death, but if it is a daughter, then she shall live."

17 But the midwives revered Elohim, and did not do as the sovereign of Mitsrayim commanded them, and kept the male children alive.

18 So the sovereign of Mitsrayim called for the midwives and said to them, "Why have you done this, and kept the male children alive?"

19 And the midwives said to Pharaoh, "Because the Iḅri women are not like the Mitsrite women. For they are lively and give birth before the midwives come to them."

20 So Elohim was good to the midwives, and the people increased and became very numerous.

21 And it came to be, because the midwives revered Elohim, that He provided households for them.

22 And Pharaoh commanded all his people, saying, "Throw every son who is born into the river, and keep alive every daughter."

2 And a man of the house of Lěwi went and married a daughter of Lěwi.

2 And the woman conceived and bore a son. And she saw that he was a lovely child, and she hid him three months.

3 And when she could hide him no longer, she took an ark of papyrus for him, and coated it with tar and pitch, and put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the edge of the river.

4 And his sister stood at a distance, to know what would be done to him.

5 And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river, and her young women were walking by the river-side. And when she saw the ark among the reeds, she sent her female servant to get it,

6 and opened it and saw the child, and see, the child wept. So she had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the children of the Iḅrim."

7 And his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call a nurse for you from the Iḅri women to nurse the child for you?"

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Go." And the girl went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away and nurse him for me, then I shall pay your wages." So the woman took the child and nursed him.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Mosheh, saying, "Because I have drawn him out of the water."

11 And in those days it came to be, when Mosheh was grown, that he went out to his brothers and looked at their burdens. And he saw a Mitsrite beating an Iḅri, one of his brothers.

12 So he turned this way and that way, and when he saw no one, he smote the Mitsrite and hid him in the sand.

13 And he went out the second day and saw two Ibrim fighting, and he said to the one who did the wrong, "Why do you smite your neighbour?"

14 And he said, "Who made you a head and a judge over us? Do you intend to slay me as you slew the Mitsrite?" And Mosheh feared and said, "Truly, the matter is known!"

15 And Pharaoh heard of this matter, and he sought to kill Mosheh. But Mosheh fled from the face of Pharaoh and dwelt in the land of Midyan. And he sat down by a well.

16 And the kohēn of Midyan had seven daughters. And they came and drew water, and they filled the troughs to water their father's flock, 17 but the shepherds came and drove them away. Then Mosheh stood up and came to their rescue, and watered their flock.

18 And they came to Re'uw'ēl their father, and he said, "How is it that you have come so soon today?"

19 And they said, "A Mitsrite rescued us from the hand of the shepherds, and he also drew enough water for us and watered the flock."

20 And he said to his daughters, "And where is he? Why did you leave the man? Call him and let him eat bread."

21 And Mosheh agreed to dwell with the man, and he gave Tsipporah his daughter to Mosheh.

22 And she bore him a son, and he called his name Gēreshom, for he said, "I have become a sojourner in a foreign land."

23 And it came to be after these many days that the sovereign of Mitsrayim died. And the children of Yisra'ēl groaned because of the slavery, and they cried out. And their cry came up to Elohim because of the slavery.

24 And Elohim heard their groaning, and Elohim remembered His Covenant with Aḇraham, with Yitsh̄aq, and with Ya'aqob̄.

25 And Elohim looked on the children of Yisra'ēl, and Elohim knew!

3 And Mosheh was shepherding the flock of Yithro his father-in-law, the kohēn of Midyan. And he led the flock to the back of the wilderness, and came to Ḥorēḇ, the mountain of Elohim.

2 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. And he looked and saw the bush burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed.

3 And Mosheh said, "Let me turn aside now, and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn."

4 And אֱלֹהִים saw that he turned aside to see, and Elohim called to him from the midst of the bush and said, "Mosheh! Mosheh!" And he said, "Here I am."

5 And He said, "Do not come near here. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is qodesh ground."

6 And He said, "I am the Elohim of your father, the Elohim of Aḇraham, the Elohim of Yitsh̄aq, and the Elohim of Ya'aqob̄." And Mosheh hid his face, for he was afraid to look at Elohim.

7 And אֱלֹהִים said, "I have indeed seen the oppression of My people who are in Mitsrayim, and have heard their cry because of their slave-drivers, for I know their sorrows.

8 "And I have come down to deliver them from the hand of the Mitsrites, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, to the place of the Kena'anites and the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites and the Yebusites.

9 “And now, see, the cry of the children of Yisra’el has come to Me, and I have also seen the oppression with which the Mitsrites oppress them.

10 “And now, come, I am sending you to Pharaoh, to bring My people, the children of Yisra’el, out of Mitsrayim.”

11 And Mosheh said to Elohim, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Yisra’el out of Mitsrayim?”

12 And He said, “Because I am with you. And this is to you the sign that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Mitsrayim, you are to serve Elohim on this mountain.”

13 And Mosheh said to Elohim, “See, when I come to the children of Yisra’el and say to them, ‘The Elohim of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they say to me, ‘What is His Name?’ what shall I say to them?”

14 And Elohim said to Mosheh, “I AM that which I AM.” And He said, “Thus you shall say to the children of Yisra’el, ‘I AM has sent me to you.’ ”

15 And Elohim said further to Mosheh, “Thus you are to say to the children of Yisra’el, ‘אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Yitshaq, and the Elohim of Ya’aqob, has sent me to you. This is My Name forever, and this is My remembrance to all generations.’

16 “Go, and you shall gather the elders of Yisra’el together, and say to them, ‘אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, of Yitshaq, and of Ya’aqob, appeared to me, saying, “I have indeed visited you and seen what is done to you in Mitsrayim;

17 and I say: I am bringing you up out of the affliction of Mitsrayim to the land of the Kena’anite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Hiwwite and the Yebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” ’

18 “And they shall listen to your voice. And you shall come, you and the elders of Yisra’ël, to the sovereign of Mitsrayim, and you shall say to him, ‘אֱלֹהִים Elohim of the Ibrim has met with us. And now, please, let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness to slaughter to אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.’

19 “But I know that the sovereign of Mitsrayim is not going to let you go, not even by a strong hand.

20 “And I shall stretch out My hand and smite Mitsrayim with all My wonders which I shall do in its midst. And after that he shall let you go.

21 “And I shall give this people favour in the eyes of the Mitsrites. And it shall be, that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed.

22 “But every woman shall ask from her neighbour and from the stranger in her house, objects of silver, and objects of gold, and garments. And you shall put them on your sons and on your daughters, and shall plunder the Mitsrites.”

4 And Mosheh answered and said, “And if they do not believe me, nor listen to my voice, and say, ‘אֱלֹהִים has not appeared to you?’ ”

2 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, “What is that in your hand?” And he said, “A rod.”

3 And He said, “Throw it on the ground.” So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent. And Mosheh fled from it.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Reach out your hand and catch it by the tail” - so he reached out his hand and seized it, and it became a rod in his hand -

5 so that they believe that אֱלֹהִים Elohim of their fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Yitshaq, and the Elohim of Ya'aqob, has appeared to you."

6 And אֱלֹהִים said to him again, "Now put your hand in your bosom." And he put his hand in his bosom, and when he took it out, and see, his hand was leprous, like snow.

7 And He said, "Put your hand in your bosom again." So he put his hand in his bosom again, and drew it out of his bosom, and see, it was restored like his other flesh.

8 "And it shall be, if they do not believe you, nor listen to the voice of the first sign, they shall believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 "And it shall be, if they do not believe even these two signs, or listen to your voice, that you shall take water from the river and pour it on the dry land. And the water which you take from the river shall become blood on the dry land."

10 And Mosheh said to אֱלֹהִים, "O אֱלֹהִים, I am not a man of words, neither before nor since You have spoken to Your servant, for I am slow of speech and slow of tongue."

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, "Who has made man's mouth? Or who makes dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Is it not I, אֱלֹהִים?"

12 "And now, go, and I shall be with your mouth and teach you what to say."

13 But he said, "O אֱלֹהִים, please send by the hand of him whom You would send."

14 And the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים burned against Mosheh, and He said, "Is not Aharon the Lēwite your brother? I know that he speaks well. And see, he is also coming out to meet you. And when he sees you, he shall be glad in his heart.

15 “And you shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth. And I am with your mouth and with his mouth, and I shall teach you what to do.

16 “And he shall speak for you to the people. And it shall be that he shall be a mouth for you, and you shall be an elohim for him.

17 “And take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

18 Then Mosheh went and returned to Yithro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Mitsrayim to see whether they are still alive.” And Yithro said to Mosheh, “Go in peace.”

19 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh in Midyan, “Go, return to Mitsrayim, for all the men are dead who sought your life.”

20 So Mosheh took his wife and his sons and put them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Mitsrayim. And Mosheh took the rod of Elohim in his hand.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “As you go back to Mitsrayim, see that you do all those wonders before Pharaoh which I have put in your hand. But I am going to harden his heart, so that he does not let the people go.

22 “And you shall say to Pharaoh, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Yisra’el is My son, My first-born,

23 so I say to you, let My son go to serve Me. But if you refuse to let him go, see, I am killing your son, your first-born.” ’ ”

24 And it came to be on the way, in the lodging place, that אֱלֹהִים met him and sought to kill him.

25 And Tsipporah took a sharp stone and cut off the foreskin of her son and threw it at Mosheh's feet, and said, "You are indeed a bridegroom of blood to me!"

26 So He let him go. Then she said, "You are a bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.

27 And אֶרְנָנ said to Aharon, "Go to meet Mosheh in the wilderness." And he went and met him on the mountain of Elohim, and kissed him.

28 Mosheh then told Aharon all the words of אֶרְנָנ who had sent him, and all the signs which He had commanded him.

29 And Mosheh went with Aharon and gathered together all the elders of the children of Yisra'ël.

30 And Aharon spoke all the words which אֶרְנָנ had spoken to Mosheh. Then he did the signs before the eyes of the people.

31 And the people believed. And they heard that אֶרְנָנ had visited the children of Yisra'ël and that He had looked on their affliction, and they bowed their heads and did obeisance.

5 And afterwards Mosheh and Aharon went in and said to Pharaoh, "Thus said אֶרְנָנ Elohim of Yisra'ël, 'Let My people go, so that they celebrate a festival to Me in the wilderness.' "

2 And Pharaoh said, "Who is אֶרְנָנ, that I should obey His voice to let Yisra'ël go? I do not know אֶרְנָנ, nor am I going to let Yisra'ël go."

3 And they said, "The Elohim of the Ibrim has met with us. Please, let us go three days' journey into the wilderness and slaughter to אֶרְנָנ our Elohim, lest He fall upon us with pestilence or with the sword."

4 But the sovereign of Mitsrayim said to them, "Mosheh and Aharon, why do you take the people from their work? Get back to your burdens."

5 And Pharaoh said, "See, the people of the land are many now, and you make them cease from their burdens!"

6 And the same day Pharaoh commanded the slave-drivers of the people and their foremen, saying,
7 "You are no longer to give the people straw to make bricks as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 "And lay on them the required amount of bricks which they made before, do not diminish it. For they are idle, that is why they cry out, saying, 'Let us go and slaughter to our Elohim.'

9 "Let more work be laid on the men, so that they labour in it, and not pay attention to words of falsehood."

10 And the slave-drivers of the people and their foremen went out and spoke to the people, saying, "Thus said Pharaoh, 'I do not give you straw.

11 'Go, take straw for yourselves, wherever you find it, for your work shall not be diminished.' "

12 And the people were scattered in all the land of Mitsrayim - to gather stubble for straw.

13 And the slave-drivers were hurrying them on, saying, "Complete your work, your daily amount, as when there was straw."

14 Also the foremen of the children of Yisra'el, whom Pharaoh's slave-drivers had appointed over them, were beaten and were asked, "Why have you not completed your task in making bricks both yesterday and today, as before?"

15 And the foremen of the children of Yisra'el came and cried out to Pharaoh, saying, "Why do you treat your servants this way?"

16 “There is no straw given to your servants, and they say to us, ‘Make bricks!’ And see, your servants are beaten, but your own people are at fault.”

17 But he said, “You are idle! You are idle! That is why you say, ‘Let us go and slaughter to אֱלֹהִים.’”

18 “So now go, work. And straw is not given to you, but deliver the amount of bricks.”

19 And the foremen of the children of Yisra’el saw that they were in trouble after it was said, “You are not to diminish your daily amount of bricks.”

20 And when they came out from Pharaoh, they met Mosheh and Aharon who stood there to meet them.

21 And they said to them, “Let אֱלֹהִים look on you and judge, because you have made us loathsome in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants, to give a sword in their hand to kill us.”

22 And Mosheh returned to אֱלֹהִים and said, “אֱלֹהִים, why have You done evil to this people? Why did You send me?”

23 “For ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in Your Name, he has done evil to this people. And You have not delivered Your people at all.”

6 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Now see what I do to Pharaoh, for with a strong hand he is going to let them go, and with a strong hand he is going to drive them out of his land.”

2 And Elohim spoke to Mosheh and said to him, “I am אֱלֹהִים.

3 “And I appeared to Abraham, to Yitshaq, and to Ya’aqob, as Ēl Shaddai. And by My Name, אֱלֹהִים, was I not known to them?”

4 “And I also established My Covenant with them, to give them the land of Kena’an, the land of their sojournings, in which they have sojourned.

5 “And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Yisra’ël whom the Mitsrites are enslaving, and I have remembered My Covenant.

6 “Say, therefore, to the children of Yisra’ël, ‘I am אֱלֹהִים, and I shall bring you out from under the burdens of the Mitsrites, and shall deliver you from their enslaving, and shall redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments,

7 and shall take you as My people, and I shall be your Elohim. And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim who is bringing you out from under the burdens of the Mitsrites.

8 ‘And I shall bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Yitshaq, and to Ya’aqob, to give it to you as an inheritance. I am אֱלֹהִים.’ ”

9 And Mosheh spoke thus to the children of Yisra’ël, but they did not listen to Mosheh, because of shortness of spirit, and from hard slavery.

10 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

11 “Go in, speak to Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, to let the children of Yisra’ël go out of his land.”

12 And Mosheh spoke before אֱלֹהִים, saying, “The children of Yisra’ël have not listened to me, and why would Pharaoh listen to me, for I am of uncircumcised lips?”

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, and gave them a command for the children of Yisra’ël and for Pharaoh, sovereign of Mitsrayim, to bring the children of Yisra’ël out of the land of Mitsrayim.

14 These are the heads of their fathers’ houses: The sons of Re’ubën, the first-born of Yisra’ël: Hanok and Pallu, Hetsron and Karmi. These are the clans of Re’ubën.

15 And the sons of Shim’on: Yemu’ël, and Yamin, and Ohad, and Yaqin, and Tsohar, and Sha’ul the son of a Kena'anite woman. These are the clans of Shim'on.

16 These are the names of the sons of Lěwi according to their generations: Gěreshon, and Qehath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Lěwi were one hundred and thirty-seven.

17 The sons of Gěreshon: Liḅni and Shim'i according to their clans.

18 And the sons of Qehath: Amram, and Yitshar, and Heḅron, and Uzzi'ěl. And the years of the life of Qehath were one hundred and thirty-three.

19 And the sons of Merari: Maḅli and Mushi. These are the clans of Lěwi according to their generations.

20 And Amram took for himself Yoḱeḅeḅ, his father's sister, as wife. And she bore him Aharon and Mosheh. And the years of the life of Amram were one hundred and thirty-seven.

21 And the sons of Yitshar: Qoraḅ, and Nepheḅ, and Ziḱri.

22 And the sons of Uzzi'ěl: Misha'ěl, and Eltsaphan, and Sithri.

23 Aharon took to himself Elisheḅa, daughter of Amminadaḅ, sister of Naḅshon, as wife. And she bore him Naḅaḅ, and Aḅihu, El'azar, and Ithamar.

24 And the sons of Qoraḅ: Assir, Elqanah, and Aḅiyasaph. These are the clans of the Qorḅites.

25 And El'azar, Aharon's son, took for himself one of the daughters of Puti'ěl as wife. And she bore him Pineḅas. These are the heads of the fathers of the Lěwites according to their clans.

26 This is Aharon, and Mosheh, to whom אֱלֹהִים said, "Bring out the children of Yisra'ěl from the land of Mitsrayim according to their divisions."

27 They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, to bring out the children of Yisra'ël from Mitsrayim. This is Mosheh, and Aharon.

28 And it came to be, on the day when אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh in the land of Mitsrayim,

29 that אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying, "I am אֱלֹהִים. Speak to Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim all that I say to you."

30 And Mosheh said before אֱלֹהִים, "See, I am of uncircumcised lips, and why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

7 So אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "See, I have made you an elohim to Pharaoh, and Aharon your brother is your nabi.

2 "You shall speak all that I command you, and Aharon your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, to let the children of Yisra'ël go out of his land.

3 "But I am going to harden the heart of Pharaoh, and shall increase My signs and My wonders in the land of Mitsrayim.

4 "And Pharaoh is not going to listen to you, and I shall lay My hand on Mitsrayim, and bring My divisions and My people, the children of Yisra'ël, out of the land of Mitsrayim by great judgments.

5 "And the Mitsrites shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים, when I stretch out My hand on Mitsrayim. And I shall bring the children of Yisra'ël out from among them."

6 And Mosheh and Aharon did as אֱלֹהִים commanded them, so they did.

7 Now Mosheh was eighty years old and Aharon eighty-three years old when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying,

9 “When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Show a miracle for yourselves,’ then you shall say to Aharon, ‘Take your rod and throw it before Pharaoh, and let it become a serpent.’ ”

10 So Mosheh and Aharon went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as אֱלֹהִים commanded. And Aharon threw his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 But Pharaoh also called the wise men and the practisers of witchcraft. And they, the magicians of Mitsrayim, also did so with their magic.

12 And they, each one, threw down his rod, and they became serpents. But the rod of Aharon swallowed up their rods.

13 And Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as אֱלֹהִים had said.

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “The heart of Pharaoh is hard, he refuses to let the people go.

15 “Go to Pharaoh in the morning, as he goes out to the water, and you shall stand by the river’s bank to meet him. And take in your hand the rod which was turned into a serpent.

16 “And you shall say to him, ‘אֱלֹהִים the Elohim of the Ibrim has sent me to you, saying, “Let My people go, so that they serve Me in the wilderness,” but see, until now you have not listened!

17 ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “By this you know that I am אֱלֹהִים. See, I am striking the waters which are in the river with the rod that is in my hand, and they shall be turned to blood,

18 and the fish in the river shall die. And the river shall stink, and the Mitsrites shall find it impossible to drink the water of the river.” ’ ”

19 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, “Say to Aharon, ‘Take your rod and stretch out your hand over the waters of Mitsrayim, over their streams, over their rivers, over their ponds, and over all their pools of water, that they become blood. And there shall be blood in all the land of Mitsrayim, both in wooden and in stone containers.' ”

20 And Mosheh and Aharon did so, as אֱלֹהִים commanded. And he lifted up the rod and struck the waters that were in the river, in the eyes of Pharaoh and in the eyes of his servants. And all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that were in the river died, and the river stank, and the Mitsrites were unable to drink the water of the river. And the blood was in all the land of Mitsrayim.

22 And the magicians of Mitsrayim did the same with their magic. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as אֱלֹהִים had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and his heart was not moved by this either.

24 And all the Mitsrites dug all around the river for water to drink, for they were unable to drink the water of the river.

25 And seven days were completed after אֱלֹהִים had struck the river.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Let My people go, so that they serve Me.

2 “But if you refuse to let them go, see, I am smiting all your border with frogs.

3 “And the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and shall come into your house, and into your bedroom, and on your bed, and into the houses of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading bowls,

4 and the frogs shall come up on you and on your people and on all your servants.” ’ ”

5 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Say to Aharon, ‘Stretch out your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Mitsrayim.’ ”

6 So Aharon stretched out his hand over the waters of Mitsrayim, and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Mitsrayim.

7 And the magicians did so with their magic, and brought up frogs on the land of Mitsrayim.

8 Pharaoh then called for Mosheh and Aharon, and said, “Pray to אֱלֹהִים to take away the frogs from me and from my people, and I shall let the people go to slaughter to אֱלֹהִים.”

9 And Mosheh said to Pharaoh, “Explain yourself to me: When am I to pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, and remain only in the river?”

10 So he said, “Tomorrow.” And he said, “Let it be according to your word, so that you know that there is no one like אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.

11 “And the frogs shall turn aside from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people - they shall remain in the river only.”

12 And Mosheh and Aharon went out from Pharaoh. And Mosheh cried out to אֱלֹהִים concerning the frogs which He had brought against Pharaoh.

13 And אֱלֹהִים did according to the word of Mosheh. And the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courtyards, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank.

15 And when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to them, as אֲרָאֵל had said.

16 And אֲרָאֵל said to Mosheh, "Say to Aharon, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, so that it becomes gnats in all the land of Mitsrayim.' "

17 And they did so, and Aharon stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and it became gnats on man and beast. All the dust of the land became gnats in all the land of Mitsrayim.

18 And the magicians did similarly with their magic to bring forth gnats, but they were unable. And there were gnats on man and beast.

19 The magicians then said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of Elohim!" But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not listen to them, as אֲרָאֵל had said.

20 And אֲרָאֵל said to Mosheh, "Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh as he comes out to the water, and say to him, 'Thus said אֲרָאֵל, "Let My people go, so that they serve Me.

21 "Or else, if you do not let My people go, see, I am sending swarms of flies on you and your servants, and on your people and into your houses. And the houses of the Mitsrites shall be filled with swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they stand.

22 "And in that day I shall separate the land of Goshen, in which My people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there, so that you know that I am אֲרָאֵל in the midst of the land.

23 "And I shall put a distinction between My people and your people. Tomorrow this sign shall be." ' "

24 And אֲרָאֵל did so, and thick swarms of flies came into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Mitsrayim, and the land was ruined because of the swarms of flies.

25 Pharaoh then called for Mosheh and Aharon, and said, "Go, slaughter to your Elohim in the land."

26 And Mosheh said, "It is not right to do so, for we would be slaughtering the abomination of the Mitsrites to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim. See, if we slaughter the abomination of the Mitsrites before their eyes, would they not stone us?"

27 "Let us go three days' journey into the wilderness, then we shall slaughter to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim, as He commands us."

28 And Pharaoh said, "I am letting you go, then you shall slaughter to אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Elohim in the wilderness. Only, do not go very far away! Pray for me."

29 And Mosheh said, "See, when I leave you I shall pray to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and tomorrow the swarms of flies shall depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. But do not let Pharaoh again deceive, not to let the people go to slaughter to אֱלֹהֵינוּ."

30 And Mosheh went out from Pharaoh and prayed to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

31 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ did according to the word of Mosheh and removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. Not one remained.

32 But Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time too, and did not let the people go.

9 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Mosheh, "Go in to Pharaoh and speak to him, 'Thus said אֱלֹהֵינוּ Elohim of the Ibrim, "Let My people go, so that they serve Me.

2 "For if you refuse to let them go, and still hold them,

3 see, the hand of אֱלֹהֵינוּ is on your livestock in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the cattle, and on the sheep - a very grievous pestilence.

4 “And אֱלֹהִים shall separate between the livestock of Yisra'el and the livestock of Mitsrayim, and let no matter die of all that belongs to the children of Yisra'el.” ’ ’ ”

5 And אֱלֹהִים made an appointed time, saying, “Tomorrow אֱלֹהִים is going to do this word in the land.”

6 And אֱלֹהִים did this word on the next day, and all the livestock of Mitsrayim died, but of the livestock of the children of Yisra'el, not one died.

7 Then Pharaoh sent, and see, not even one of the livestock of the Yisra'elites was dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh and Aharon, “Fill your hands with ashes from a furnace and let Mosheh scatter it toward the shamayim before the eyes of Pharaoh.

9 “And it shall become fine dust in all the land of Mitsrayim, and it shall cause boils that break out in sores on man and beast in all the land of Mitsrayim.”

10 So they took ashes from the furnace and stood before Pharaoh, and Mosheh scattered them toward the shamayim. And they caused boils, breaking out in sores on man and beast.

11 And the magicians were unable to stand before Mosheh because of the boils, for the boils were on the magicians and on all the Mitsrites.

12 But אֱלֹהִים hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not listen to them, as אֱלֹהִים had said to Mosheh.

13 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Rise early in the morning and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of the Ibrim, “Let My people go, so that they serve Me,

14 for at this time I am sending all My plagues unto your heart, and on your servants and on your people, so that you know that there is no one like Me in all the earth.

15 “Now if I had stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with pestilence, then you would have been cut off from the earth.

16 “And for this reason I have raised you up, in order to show you My power, and in order to declare My Name in all the earth.

17 “You still exalt yourself against My people in that you do not let them go!

18 “See, tomorrow about this time I am causing very heavy hail to rain down, such as has not been in Mitsrayim, from the day of its founding until now.

19 “And now send, bring your livestock to safety, and all that you have in the field, for the hail shall come down on every man and every beast which is found in the field and is not brought home, and they shall die.” ’ ’

20 Those among the servants of Pharaoh who revered the word of אֱלֹהִים made their servants and livestock flee to the houses.

21 But those who did not lay their heart on the word of אֱלֹהִים left their servants and livestock in the field.

22 Then אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Stretch out your hand toward the shamayim, and let there be hail in all the land of Mitsrayim - on man, and on beast, and on every plant of the field, throughout the land of Mitsrayim.”

23 Then Mosheh stretched out his rod toward the shamayim. And אֱלֹהִים sent thunder and hail, and fire came down to the earth. And אֱלֹהִים rained hail on the land of Mitsrayim.

24 Thus there came to be hail, and fire flashing continually in the midst of the hail, very heavy, such as had not been in all the land of Mitsrayim since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote in all the land of Mitsrayim all that was in the field, both man and beast. And the hail smote every plant of the field and broke every tree of the field.

26 Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Yisra'el were, there was no hail.

27 Pharaoh then sent and called for Mosheh and for Aharon, and said to them, "I have sinned this time. אֱלֹהִים is righteous, and my people and I are wicked.

28 "Pray to אֱלֹהִים, for there has been enough of the thunder and hail of Elohim. And I am letting you go, so that you stay no longer."

29 And Mosheh said to him, "As soon as I go out of the city, let me spread out my hands to אֱלֹהִים, let the thunder cease and the hail be no more, so that you know that the earth belongs to אֱלֹהִים.

30 "But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear before אֱלֹהִים Elohim."

31 And the flax and the barley were smitten, for the barley was in the head and the flax was in bud.

32 But the wheat and the spelt were not smitten, for they were late crops.

33 And Mosheh went out of the city from Pharaoh and spread out his hands to אֱלֹהִים, and the thunder and the hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth.

34 And Pharaoh saw that the rain, and the hail, and the thunder had ceased, yet he sinned again and he hardened his heart, he and his servants.

35 And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the children of Yisra'el go, as אֱלֹהִים had said through Mosheh.

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his servants, so that I show these signs of Mine before him,

2 and that you relate in the hearing of your son and your son's son what I have done in Mitsrayim, and My signs which I have done among them. And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים."

3 And Mosheh and Aharon came in to Pharaoh and said to him, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of the Ibrim, 'Till when shall you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, so that they serve Me.

4 'Or else, if you refuse to let My people go, see, tomorrow I am bringing locusts within your borders.

5 'And they shall cover the surface of the land, so that no one is able to see the land. And they shall eat the rest of what has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and they shall eat every tree which grows up for you out of the field.

6 'And they shall fill your houses, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Mitsrites, which neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day.' " Then he turned and went out from Pharaoh.

7 And Pharaoh's servants said to him, "Till when would this one be a snare to us? Let the men go, so that they serve אֱלֹהִים their Elohim. Do you not yet know that Mitsrayim is destroyed?"

8 And Mosheh and Aharon were brought back to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim. Who are the ones that are going?"

9 And Mosheh said, "We are going with our young and our old, with our sons and our daughters, with our flocks and our herds we are going, for we have a festival to אֱלֹהֵינוּ."

10 And he said to them, "Let אֱלֹהֵיכֶם be with you as I let you and your little ones go! Watch, for evil is before your face!

11 "Not so! You men go now, and serve אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, for that is what you desired." And they were driven out from the presence of Pharaoh.

12 And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם said to Mosheh, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Mitsrayim for the locusts to come upon the land of Mitsrayim, and eat every plant of the land - all that the hail has left."

13 And Mosheh stretched out his rod over the land of Mitsrayim, and אֱלֹהֵיכֶם brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. Morning came, and the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Mitsrayim and settled within all the borders of Mitsrayim, very grievous. There had never been locusts like them before, nor would there again be like them.

15 And they covered the surface of all the land, so that the land was darkened. And they ate every plant of the land and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left, and no greenness was left on the trees or on the plants of the field, in all the land of Mitsrayim.

16 Pharaoh then called for Mosheh and Aharon in haste, and said, "I have sinned against אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim and against you.

17 “And now, please bear my sin only this once, and pray to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, that He would only turn away this death from me.”

18 And he went out from Pharaoh and prayed to אֱלֹהִים.

19 And אֱלֹהִים turned a very strong west wind, which took the locusts away and blew them into the Sea of Reeds. Not one locust was left within all the border of Mitsrayim.

20 However, אֱלֹהִים hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not let the children of Yisra'ël go.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Stretch out your hand toward the shamayim, and let there be darkness over the land of Mitsrayim, even a darkness which is felt.”

22 And Mosheh stretched out his hand toward the shamayim, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Mitsrayim for three days.

23 They did not see one another, nor did anyone rise from his place for three days, while all the children of Yisra'ël had light in their dwellings.

24 And Pharaoh called to Mosheh and said, “Go, serve אֱלֹהִים, only leave your flocks and your herds behind. Let your little ones go with you too.”

25 But Mosheh said, “You yourself are to provide us with slaughterings and burnt offerings, to prepare for אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.

26 “And our livestock are to go with us too, not a hoof is to be left behind, for we have to take some of them to serve אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, and we ourselves do not know with what we are to serve אֱלֹהִים until we come there.”

27 However, אֱלֹהִים hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Watch yourself and see my face no more, for in the day you see my face you die!"

29 And Mosheh said, "You have spoken rightly - never again do I see your face!"

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "I am bringing yet one more plague on Pharaoh and on Mitsrayim. After that he is going to let you go from here. When he lets you go, he shall drive you out from here altogether.

2 "Speak now in the hearing of the people, and let every man ask from his neighbour and every woman from her neighbour, objects of silver and objects of gold."

3 And אֱלֹהִים gave the people favour in the eyes of the Mitsrites. And the man Mosheh was very great in the land of Mitsrayim, in the eyes of Pharaoh's servants and in the eyes of the people.

4 And Mosheh said, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'About midnight I am going out into the midst of Mitsrayim,

5 and all the first-born in the land of Mitsrayim shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sits on his throne, even to the first-born of the female servant who is behind the handmill, and all the first-born of cattle.

6 'And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Mitsrayim, such as has never been or ever be again.

7 'But against any of the children of Yisra'ël no dog shall move its tongue, against man or against beast, so that you know that אֱלֹהִים makes distinction between Mitsrayim and Yisra'ël.'

8 "And all these servants of yours shall come down to me and bow down to me, saying, 'Get out, you and all the people at your feet!' And after that I shall go out.” And he went out from Pharaoh in great displeasure.

9 But אִפְרָיִם said to Mosheh, “Pharaoh is not going to listen to you, in order to multiply My wonders in the land of Mitsrayim.”

10 And Mosheh and Aharon did all these wonders before Pharaoh, however, אִפְרָיִם hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he did not let the children of Yisra’el go out of his land.

12 And אִפְרָיִם spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon in the land of Mitsrayim, saying,

2 “This month is the beginning of months for you, it is the first month of the year for you.

3 “Speak to all the congregation of Yisra’el, saying, ‘On the tenth day of this month each one of them is to take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household.

4 ‘And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next to his house take it according to the number of the beings, according to each man’s need you make your count for the lamb.

5 ‘Let the lamb be a perfect one, a year old male. Take it from the sheep or from the goats.

6 ‘And you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month. Then all the assembly of the congregation of Yisra’el shall kill it between the evenings.

7 ‘And they shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel of the houses where they eat it.

8 ‘And they shall eat the flesh on that night, roasted in fire - with unleavened bread and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 'Do not eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted in fire, its head with its legs and its inward parts.

10 'And do not leave of it until morning, and what remains of it until morning you are to burn with fire.

11 'And this is how you eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand. And you shall eat it in haste. It is the Pesah of פֶּסַח.

12 'And I shall pass through the land of Mitsrayim on that night, and shall smite all the first-born in the land of Mitsrayim, both man and beast. And on all the mighty ones of Mitsrayim I shall execute judgment. I am אֲנִי.

13 'And the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I shall pass over you, and let the plague not come on you to destroy you when I smite the land of Mitsrayim.

14 'And this day shall become to you a remembrance. And you shall observe it as a Festival to פֶּסַח throughout your generations - observe it as a Festival, an everlasting Law.

15 'Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. Indeed on the first day you cause leaven to cease from your houses. For whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that being shall be cut off from Yisra'el.

16 'And on the first day is a qodesh gathering, and on the seventh day you have a qodesh gathering. No work at all is done on them, only that which is eaten by every being, that alone is prepared by you.

17 'And you shall guard the Matstsoth, for on this same day I brought your divisions out of the land of Mitsrayim. And you shall guard this day throughout your generations, an everlasting Law.

18 'In the first, on the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening, you shall eat unleavened bread until the twenty-first day of the month in the evening.

19 'For seven days no leaven is to be found in your houses, for if anyone eats what is leavened, that same being shall be cut off from the congregation of Yisra'ël, whether sojourner or native of the land.

20 'Do not eat that which is leavened - in all your dwellings you are to eat unleavened bread.' "

21 And Mosheh called for all the elders of Yisra'ël and said to them, "Go out and take lambs for yourselves according to your clans, and slaughter the Pesah.

22 "And you shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin, and you, none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.

23 "And אֲנֹכִי shall pass on to smite the Mitsrites, and shall see the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, and אֲנֹכִי shall pass over the door and not allow the destroyer to come into your houses to smite you.

24 "And you shall guard this word as a Law for you and your sons, forever.

25 "And it shall be, when you come to the land which אֲנֹכִי gives you, as He promised, that you shall guard this service.

26 "And it shall be, when your children say to you, 'What does this service mean to you?'

27 then you shall say, 'It is the Pesah slaughtering of אֲנֹכִי, who passed over the houses of the children of Yisra'ël in Mitsrayim when He smote the Mitsrites and delivered our households.' " And the people bowed their heads and did obeisance.

28 And the children of Yisra'ël went away and did so - as אִרְאֵל had commanded Mosheh and Aharon, so they did.

29 And it came to be at midnight that אִרְאֵל smote all the first-born in the land of Mitsrayim, from the first-born of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the first-born of the captive who was in the dungeon, and all the first-born of livestock.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Mitsrites. And there was a great cry in Mitsrayim, for there was not a house where there was not a dead one.

31 Then he called for Mosheh and Aharon by night, and said, "Arise, go out from the midst of my people, both you and the children of Yisra'ël. And go, serve אִרְאֵל as you have said.

32 "Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and go. Then you shall baraḵ me too."

33 And the Mitsrites urged the people, to hasten to send them away out of the land. For they said, "We are all dying!"

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, having their kneading bowls bound up in their garments on their shoulders.

35 And the children of Yisra'ël had done according to the word of Mosheh, and they had asked from the Mitsrites objects of silver, and objects of gold, and garments.

36 And אִרְאֵל gave the people favour in the eyes of the Mitsrites, so that they gave them what they asked, and they plundered the Mitsrites.

37 And the children of Yisra'ël departed from Ra'meses to Sukkoth, about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides the little ones.

38 And a mixed multitude went up with them too, also flocks and herds, very much livestock.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they had brought out of Mitsrayim, for it was not leavened, since they were driven out of Mitsrayim, and had not been able to delay, nor had they prepared food for themselves.

40 And the sojourn of the children of Yisra'ël who lived in Mitsrayim was four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to be at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, on that same day it came to be that all the divisions of אִיִּזְרָאֵל went out from the land of Mitsrayim.

42 It is a night to be observed unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל for bringing them out of the land of Mitsrayim. This night is unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל, to be observed by all the children of Yisra'ël throughout their generations.

43 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh and Aharon, "This is the Law of the Pesah: No son of a stranger is to eat of it, 44 but any servant a man has bought for silver, when you have circumcised him, then let him eat of it.

45 "A sojourner and a hired servant does not eat of it.

46 "It is eaten in one house, you are not to take any of the flesh outside the house, nor are you to break any bone of it.

47 "All the congregation of Yisra'ël are to perform it.

48 "And when a stranger sojourns with you and shall perform the Pesah to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and perform it, and he shall be as a native of the land. But let no uncircumcised eat of it.

49 "There is one Torah for the native-born and for the stranger who sojourns among you."

50 And all the children of Yisra'ël did as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Mosheh and Aharon, so they did.

51 And it came to be on that same day that אֱלֹהִים brought the children of Yisra'ël out of the land of Mitsrayim according to their divisions.

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Qadosh to Me all the first-born, the one opening the womb among the children of Yisra'ël, among man and among beast, it is Mine.”

3 And Mosheh said to the people, “Remember this day in which you went out of Mitsrayim, out of the house of slavery. For by strength of hand אֱלֹהִים brought you out of this place, and whatever is leavened shall not be eaten.

4 “Today you are going out, in the month Abib.

5 “And it shall be, when אֱלֹהִים brings you into the land of the Kena'anites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivvites, and the Yebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month.

6 “Seven days you eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day is a Festival to אֱלֹהִים.

7 “Unleavened bread is to be eaten the seven days, and whatever is leavened is not to be seen with you, and leaven is not to be seen with you within all your border.

8 “And you shall inform your son in that day, saying, ‘It is because of what אֱלֹהִים did for me when I came up from Mitsrayim.’

9 “And it shall be as a sign to you on your hand and as a reminder between your eyes, that the Torah of אֱלֹהִים is to be in your mouth, for with a strong hand אֱלֹהִים has brought you out of Mitsrayim.

10 “And you shall guard this Law at its Appointed Time from year to year.

11 “And it shall be, when אִיִּצְרָאֵל brings you into the land of the Kena’anites, as He swore to you and your fathers, and gives it to you,

12 that you shall pass over to אִיִּצְרָאֵל every one opening the womb, and every first-born that comes from your livestock, the males belong to אִיִּצְרָאֵל.

13 “But every first-born of a donkey you are to ransom with a lamb. And if you do not ransom it, then you shall break its neck. And every first-born of man among your sons you are to ransom.

14 “And it shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is this?’ then you shall say to him, ‘By strength of hand אִיִּצְרָאֵל brought us out of Mitsrayim, out of the house of bondage.

15 ‘And it came to be, when Pharaoh was too hardened to let us go, that אִיִּצְרָאֵל killed every first-born in the land of Mitsrayim, both the first-born of man and the first-born of beast. Therefore I am slaughtering to אִיִּצְרָאֵל every male that opens the womb, but every first-born of my sons I ransom.’

16 “And it shall be as a sign on your hand and as frontlets between your eyes, for by strength of hand אִיִּצְרָאֵל brought us out of Mitsrayim.”

17 And it came to be, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that Elohim did not lead them by way of the land of the Pelishtites, though that was nearer, for Elohim said, “Lest the people regret when they see fighting, and return to Mitsrayim.”

18 So Elohim led the people around by way of the wilderness of the Sea of Reeds. And the children of Yisra’el went up armed from the land of Mitsrayim.

19 And Mosheh took the bones of Yosēph with him, for he certainly made the children of Yisra’el swear, saying, “Elohim shall certainly visit you, and you shall bring my bones from here with you.”

20 And they departed from Sukkoth and camped in Ĕtham at the edge of the wilderness.

21 And אֱלֹהִים went before them by day in a column of cloud to lead the way, and by night in a column of fire to give them light, so as to go by day and night.

22 The column of cloud did not cease by day, nor the column of fire by night, before the people.

14 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, that they turn and camp before Pi ha’Hiroth, between Miġdol and the sea, opposite Ba’al Tsephon - camp before it by the sea.

3 “For Pharaoh shall say of the children of Yisra’ël, ‘They are entangled in the land, the wilderness has closed them in.’

4 “And I shall harden the heart of Pharaoh, and he shall pursue them. But I am to be esteemed through Pharaoh and over all his army, and the Mitsrites shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים.” And they did so.

5 And it was reported to the sovereign of Mitsrayim that the people had fled, and the heart of Pharaoh and his servants was turned against the people. And they said, “Why have we done this, that we have let Yisra’ël go from serving us?”

6 So he made his chariot ready and took his people with him.

7 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Mitsrayim with officers over all of them.

8 And אֱלֹהִים hardened the heart of Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, and he pursued the children of Yisra’ël, but the children of Yisra’ël went out with a high hand.

9 And the Mitsrites pursued them, and all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen and his army, and reached them camping by the sea beside Pi ha'Ḥiroth, before Ba'al Tsephon.

10 And when Pharaoh drew near, the children of Yisra'ël lifted their eyes and saw the Mitsrites coming up after them. And they were greatly afraid, so the children of Yisra'ël cried out to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

11 And they said to Mosheh, "Did you take us away to die in the wilderness because there are no graves in Mitsrayim? What is this you have done to us, to bring us up out of Mitsrayim?"

12 "Is this not the word that we spoke to you in Mitsrayim, saying, 'Leave us alone and let us serve the Mitsrites?' For it would have been better for us to serve the Mitsrites than to die in the wilderness."

13 And Mosheh said to the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand still, and see the deliverance of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, which He does for you today. For the Mitsrites whom you see today, you are never, never to see again.

14 "אֱלֹהֵינוּ fights for you, and you keep silent."

15 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Mosheh, "Why do you cry to Me? Speak to the children of Yisra'ël, and let them go forward.

16 "And you, lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, and let the children of Yisra'ël go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 "And I, see I am hardening the hearts of the Mitsrites, and they shall follow them. And I am to be esteemed through Pharaoh and over all his army, his chariots, and his horsemen.

18 "And the Mitsrites shall know that I am אֱלֹהֵינוּ, when I am esteemed through Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen."

19 And the Messenger of Elohim, who went before the camp of Yisra'ël, moved and went behind them.

And the column of cloud went from before them and stood behind them,

20 and came between the camp of the Mitsrites and the camp of Yisra'ël. And it was the cloud and the darkness, and it gave light by night, and the one did not come near the other all the night.

21 And Mosheh stretched out his hand over the sea. And אֱלֹהִים caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and made the sea into dry land, and the waters were divided.

22 And the children of Yisra'ël went into the midst of the sea on dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right and on their left.

23 And the Mitsrites pursued and went after them into the midst of the sea, all the horses of Pharaoh, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to be, in the morning watch, that אֱלֹהִים looked down upon the army of the Mitsrites through the column of fire and cloud, and He brought the army of the Mitsrites into confusion.

25 And He took off their chariot wheels, so that they drove them with difficulty. And the Mitsrites said, "Let us flee from the face of Yisra'ël, for אֱלֹהִים fights for them against the Mitsrites."

26 Then אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, and let the waters come back upon the Mitsrites, on their chariots, and on their horsemen."

27 And Mosheh stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its usual flow, at the break of day, with the Mitsrites fleeing into it. Thus אֱלֹהִים overthrew the Mitsrites in the midst of the sea, 28 and the waters returned and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the army of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them, and not even one was left of them.

29 And the children of Yisra'ël walked on dry ground in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right and on their left.

30 Thus אֱלֹהִים saved Yisra'ël that day out of the hand of the Mitsrites, and Yisra'ël saw the Mitsrites dead on the seashore.

31 And Yisra'ël saw the great work which אֱלֹהִים had done in Mitsrayim, and the people revered אֱלֹהִים, and believed אֱלֹהִים and His servant Mosheh.

15 Then Mosheh and the children of Yisra'ël sang this song to אֱלֹהִים, and spoke, saying,

The horse and its rider

He has thrown into the sea!

2 “Yah is my strength and song, and He has become my deliverance.

He is my Ĕl, and I praise Him -

Elohim of my father, and I exalt Him.

3 “אֱלֹהִים is a man of battle,

4 “He has cast Pharaoh’s chariots and his army into the sea,

And his chosen officers are drowned in the Sea of Reeds.

5 “The depths covered them,
 They went down to the bottom like a stone.

6 “Your right hand, O אֱלֹהִים, has become great in power.

Your right hand, O אֱלֹהִים, has crushed the enemy.

7 “And in the greatness of Your excellence
 You pulled down those who rose up against You.
 You sent forth Your wrath, it consumed them like stubble.

8 “And with the wind of Your nostrils the waters were heaped up,
 The floods stood like a wall,
 The depths became stiff in the heart of the sea.

9 “The enemy said, ‘I pursue, I overtake,
 I divide the spoil, my being is satisfied on them.
 I draw out my sword, my hand destroys them.’

10 “You blew with Your wind, the sea covered them,
 They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

11 “Who is like You, O אֱלֹהִים, among the mighty ones?
 Who is like You, great in qodeshah?
 Awesome in praises, working wonders.

12 “You stretched out Your right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 “In Your kindness You led the people whom You have redeemed,
 In Your strength You guided them to Your qodesh dwelling.

14 “Peoples heard, they trembled,
 Anguish gripped the inhabitants of Pelesheth.

15 “Then the chiefs of Edom were troubled,
 The mighty men of Mo’ab, trembling grips them,
 All the inhabitants of Kena’an melted.

16 “Fear and dread fell on them,
 By the greatness of Your arm they are as silent as a stone,
 Until Your people pass over, O אֱלֹהִים,
 Until the people, whom You have bought, pass over.

17 “You bring them in and plant them in the mountain of Your inheritance,
 In the place, O אֱלֹהִים, which You have made for Your own dwelling,
 The Miqdash, O אֱלֹהִים, which Your hands have prepared.

18 “אֱלֹהִים reigns forever and ever.”

19 For the horses of Pharaoh went with his chariots and his horsemen into the sea, and אֱלֹהִים brought back the waters of the sea upon them. And the children of Yisra'el went on dry ground in the midst of the sea.

20 And Miryam the nebiyah, the sister of Aharon, took the timbrel in her hand. And all the women went out after her with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Miryam answered them,

The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea!”

22 And Mosheh brought Yisra'el from the Sea of Reeds, and they went out into the Wilderness of Shur. And they went three days in the wilderness and found no water.

23 And they came to Marah, and they were unable to drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. So the name of it was called Marah.

24 And the people grumbled against Mosheh, saying,
“What are we to drink?”

25 Then he cried out to אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים showed him a tree. And when he threw it into the waters, the waters were made sweet. There He made a Law and a Right-Ruling for them, and there He tried them.

26 And He said, “If you diligently obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim and do what is right in His eyes, and shall listen to His Commands and shall guard all His Laws, I shall bring on you none of the diseases I brought on the Mitsrites, for I am אֱלֹהִים who heals you.”

27 And they came to Ēlim, where there were twelve fountains of water and seventy palm trees. And they camped there by the waters.

16 And they departed from Ĕlim, and all the congregation of the children of Yisra'ël came to the Wilderness of Sin, which is between Ĕlim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their going out of the land of Mitsrayim.

2 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra'ël grumbled against Mosheh and Aharon in the wilderness.

3 And the children of Yisra'ël said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of אֱלֹהֵינוּ in the land of Mitsrayim, when we sat by the pots of meat and when we ate bread to satisfaction! For you have brought us out into this wilderness to put all this assembly to death with hunger."

4 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Mosheh, "See, I am raining bread from the shamayim for you. And the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, in order to try them, whether they walk in My Torah or not.

5 "And it shall be on the sixth day that they shall prepare what they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily."

6 And Mosheh and Aharon said to all the children of Yisra'ël, "At evening you shall know that אֱלֹהֵינוּ has brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim.

7 "And in the morning you shall see the esteem of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, for He hears your grumblings against אֱלֹהֵינוּ. And what are we, that you grumble against us?"

8 And Mosheh said, "In that אֱלֹהֵינוּ gives you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to satisfaction, for אֱלֹהֵינוּ hears your grumblings which you make against Him. And what are we? Your grumblings are not against us but against אֱלֹהֵינוּ."

9 And Mosheh said to Aharon, “Say to all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ël, ‘Come near before אֱלֹהִים, for He has heard your grumbings.’ ”

10 And it came to be, as Aharon spoke to all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ël, that they looked toward the wilderness and see, the esteem of אֱלֹהִים appeared in the cloud.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

12 “I have heard the grumbings of the children of Yisra’ël. Speak to them, saying, ‘Between the evenings you are to eat meat, and in the morning you are to be satisfied with bread. And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.’ ”

13 And it came to be that quails came up at evening and covered the camp, and in the morning the dew lay all around the camp.

14 And the layer of dew went up, and see, on the surface of the wilderness, was a small round substance, as fine as frost on the ground.

15 And the children of Yisra’ël saw, and they said to each other, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. And Mosheh said to them, “It is the bread which אֱלֹהִים has given you to eat.

16 “This is the word which אֱלֹהִים has commanded: ‘Let every man gather it according to each one’s need, an omer for each being, according to the number of beings. Let every man take for those who are in his tent.’ ”

17 And the children of Yisra’ël did so and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And they measured it by omers, and he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little. Each one gathered according to his need.

19 And Mosheh said, "Let no one leave any of it until morning."

20 And they did not listen to Mosheh, so some of them left part of it until morning, and it bred worms and stank. And Mosheh was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, each one according to his need. And when the sun became hot, it melted.

22 And it came to be, on the sixth day, that they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one. And all the rulers of the congregation came and told Mosheh.

23 And he said to them, "This is what אֱלֹהִים has said, 'Tomorrow is a rest, a Shabbath qodesh to אֱלֹהִים. That which you bake, bake; and that which you cook, cook. And lay up for yourselves all that is left over, to keep it until morning.' "

24 And they laid it up till morning, as Mosheh commanded. And it did not stink, and no worm was in it.

25 And Mosheh said, "Eat it today, for today is a Shabbath to אֱלֹהִים, today you do not find it in the field.

26 "Gather it six days, but on the seventh day, which is the Shabbath, there is none."

27 And it came to be that some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather, but they found none.

28 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "How long shall you refuse to guard My Commands and My Torot?"

29 "See, because אֱלֹהִים has given you the Shabbath, therefore He is giving you bread for two days on the sixth day. Let each one stay in his place, do not let anyone go out of his place on the seventh day."

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Yisra'ël called its name Manna. And it was like white coriander seed, and the taste of it was like thin cakes made with honey.

32 And Mosheh said, "This is the word which אֱלֹהִים has commanded: 'Fill an omer with it, to keep for your generations, so that they see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim.' "

33 And Mosheh said to Aharon, "Take a pot and put an omer of manna in it, and put it down before אֱלֹהִים, to keep for your generations."

34 As אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh, so Aharon put it down before the Witness, to keep.

35 And the children of Yisra'ël ate manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate manna until they came to the border of the land of Kena'an.

36 And an omer is one-tenth of an ěphah.

17 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra'ël departed on their journey from the Wilderness of Sin, according to the command of אֱלֹהִים, and camped in Rephidim. And there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Therefore the people strove with Mosheh, and said, "Give us water to drink." And Mosheh said to them, "Why do you strive with me? Why do you try אֱלֹהִים?"

3 And the people thirsted there for water, and the people grumbled against Mosheh, and said, "Why did you bring us out of Mitsrayim, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?"

4 Then Mosheh cried out to אֱלֹהִים, saying, "What am I to do with this people? Yet a little and they shall stone me!"

5 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “Pass over before the people, and take with you some of the elders of Yisra’el. And take in your hand your rod with which you struck the river, and go.

6 “See, I am standing before you there on the rock in Ḥorēb. And you shall smite the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people shall drink.” And Mosheh did so before the eyes of the elders of Yisra’el.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the ‘strife’ of the children of Yisra’el, and because they ‘tried’ אִיִּזְרָאֵל, saying, “Is אִיִּזְרָאֵל in our midst or not?”

8 And Amalēq came and fought with Yisra’el in Rephidim.

9 And Mosheh said to Yahoshua, “Choose for us men and go out, fight with Amalēq. Tomorrow I am stationing myself on the top of the hill with the rod of Elohim in my hand.”

10 And Yahoshua did as Mosheh said to him, to fight with Amalēq. And Mosheh, Aharon, and Ḥur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to be, when Mosheh held up his hand, that Yisra’el prevailed. And when he let down his hand, Amalēq prevailed.

12 But Mosheh’s hands were heavy, so they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. And Aharon and Ḥur supported his hands, one on one side, and the other on the other side. And his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Yahoshua defeated Amalēq and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “Write this for a remembrance in the book and recite it in the hearing of Yahoshua, that I shall completely blot out the remembrance of Amalëq from under the shamayim.”

15 And Mosheh built an altar and called its name, אֶלֶזֶר Nissi,

16 for he said, “Because a hand is on the throne of Yah, אֶלֶזֶר is to fight against Amalëq, from generation to generation.”

18 And Yithro, the kohën of Midyan, Mosheh’s father-in-law, heard of all that Elohim had done for Mosheh and for Yisra’ël His people, that אֶלֶזֶר had brought Yisra’ël out of Mitsrayim.

2 And Yithro, Mosheh’s father-in-law, took Tsipporah, the wife of Mosheh - after he had sent her back,

3 and her two sons, of whom the name of one was Gëreshom, for he said, “I have been a sojourner in a foreign land,”

4 and the name of the other was Eli’ezer, for he said, “The Elohim of my father was my help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

5 Yithro, Mosheh’s father-in-law, came with his sons and his wife to Mosheh in the wilderness, where he was encamped at the mountain of Elohim.

6 And he had said to Mosheh, “I, your father-in-law Yithro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons with her.”

7 And Mosheh went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed down, and kissed him. And they asked each other about their welfare, and they went into the tent.

8 And Mosheh told his father-in-law all that אֶלֶזֶר had done to Pharaoh and to the Mitsrites for Yisra’ël’s sake, all the hardship that had come upon them on the way, and how אֶלֶזֶר had delivered them.

9 And Yithro rejoiced for all the good which אֱלֹהִים had done for Yisra'ël, whom He had delivered out of the hand of the Mitsrites.

10 And Yithro said, "Baruk be אֱלֹהִים, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Mitsrites and out of the hand of Pharaoh, and who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Mitsrites.

11 "Now I know that אֱלֹהִים is greater than all the mighty ones, for in the matter in which they acted proudly, above them."

12 Then Yithro, the father-in-law of Mosheh, brought a burnt offering and other slaughterings unto Elohim. And Aharon came with all the elders of Yisra'ël to eat bread with the father-in-law of Mosheh before Elohim.

13 And it came to be, on the next day, that Mosheh sat to rightly rule the people. And the people stood before Mosheh from morning until evening.

14 And when the father-in-law of Mosheh saw all that he did for the people, he said, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit by yourself, and all the people stand before you from morning until evening?"

15 And Mosheh said to his father-in-law, "Because the people come to me to seek Elohim.

16 "When they have a matter, they come to me, and I rightly rule between one and another, and make known the Laws of Elohim and His Torot."

17 And the father-in-law of Mosheh said to him, "What you are doing is not good.

18 "Both you and these people with you shall certainly wear yourselves out. For the matter is too heavy for you. You are not able to do it by yourself.

19 "Now listen to my voice. Let me counsel you and Elohim be with you: Stand before Elohim for the people, and you shall bring the matters to Elohim.

20 “And you shall warn them of the Laws and the Torot, and show them the way in which they should walk and the work which they do.

21 “But you yourself, seek out from all the people able men, who revere Elohim, men of truth, hating unfair gain. And place them over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

22 “And they shall rightly rule the people at all times. And it shall be that they bring every great matter to you, but they themselves rightly rule every small matter. So, make it lighter for yourself, for they shall bear with you.

23 “If you do this word, and Elohim shall command you, then you shall be able to stand and all this people also go to their place in peace.”

24 And Mosheh listened to the voice of his father-in-law and did all that he said.

25 And Mosheh chose able men out of all Yisra’el, and made them heads over the people: rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they rightly ruled the people at all times - the hard matters they brought to Mosheh, but they rightly ruled every small matter themselves.

27 And Mosheh sent off his father-in-law, and he went away to his own land.

19 In the third month after the children of Yisra’el had come out of the land of Mitsrayim, on this day they came to the Wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they departed from Rephidim, and had come to the Wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness. So Yisra’el camped there before the mountain.

3 And Mosheh went up to Elohim, and אֱלֹהִים called to him from the mountain, saying, "This is what you are to say to the house of Ya'aqob, and declare to the children of Yisra'el:

4 'You have seen what I did to the Mitsrites, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself.

5 'And now, if you diligently obey My voice, and shall guard My Covenant, then you shall be My treasured possession above all the peoples - for all the earth is Mine -

6 'and you shall be to Me a reign of kohenim and a qodesh nation.' Those are the words which you are to speak to the children of Yisra'el."

7 And Mosheh came and called for the elders of the people, and put before them all these words which אֱלֹהִים commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together and said, "All that אֱלֹהִים has spoken we shall do." So Mosheh brought back the words of the people to אֱלֹהִים.

9 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "See, I am coming to you in the thick cloud, so that the people hear when I speak with you, and believe you forever." And Mosheh reported the words of the people to אֱלֹהִים.

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Go to the people and qadosh them today and tomorrow. And they shall wash their garments, 11 and shall be prepared by the third day. For on the third day אֱלֹהִים shall come down upon Mount Sinai before the eyes of all the people.

12 "And you shall make a border for the people all around, saying, 'Take heed to yourselves that you do not go up to the mountain or touch the border of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall certainly be put to death.

13 'Not a hand is to touch it, but he shall certainly be stoned or shot with an arrow, whether man or beast, he shall not live.' When the trumpet sounds long, let them go up to the mountain."

14 And Mosheh came down from the mountain to the people and qadosh the people, and they washed their garments.

15 And he said to the people, "Be prepared by the third day. Do not come near a wife."

16 And it came to be, on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain. And the sound of the ram's horn was very loud, and all the people who were in the camp trembled.

17 And Mosheh brought the people out of the camp to meet with Elohim, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

18 And Mount Sinai was in smoke, all of it, because אֱלֹהִים descended upon it in fire. And its smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace, and all the mountain trembled exceedingly.

19 And when the blast of the ram's horn sounded long and became very strong, Mosheh spoke, and Elohim answered him by voice.

20 And אֱלֹהִים came down upon Mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain. And אֱלֹהִים called Mosheh to the top of the mountain, and Mosheh went up.

21 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Go down, warn the people, lest they break through unto אֱלֹהִים to see, and many of them fall.

22 "And let the kohenim who come near אֱלֹהִים qadosh themselves too, lest אֱלֹהִים break out against them."

23 And Mosheh said to אֱלֹהִים, "The people are not able to come up to Mount Sinai, for You warned us, saying, 'Make a border around the mountain and qadosh it.' ”

24 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, “Come, go down and then come up, you and Aharon with you. But do not let the kohenim and the people break through to come up to אֱלֹהִים, lest He break out against them.”

25 And Mosheh went down to the people and spoke to them.

20 And Elohim spoke all these Words, saying,

2 “I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, out of the house of slavery.

3 “You have no other mighty ones against My face.

4 “You do not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of that which is in the shamayim above, or which is in the earth beneath, or which is in the waters under the earth,

5 you do not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, am a jealous Ėl, visiting the wickedness of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,

6 but showing kindness to thousands, to those who love Me and guard My Commands.

7 “You do not bring the Name of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim to naught, for אֱלֹהִים does not leave the one unpunished who brings His Name to naught.

8 “Remember the Shabbath day, to qadosh it.

9 “Six days you labour, and shall do all your work,
10 but the seventh day is a Shabbath of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim. You do not do any work - you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates.

11 “For in six days אֱלֹהִים made the shamayim and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day. Therefore אָפָּאָרַךְ barak the Shabbath day and qadosh it.

12 “Respect your father and your mother, so that your days are prolonged upon the land which אָפָּאָרַךְ your Elohim is giving you.

13 “You do not murder.

14 “You do not commit adultery.

15 “You do not steal.

16 “You do not bear false witness against your neighbour.

17 “You do not covet your neighbour’s house, you do not covet your neighbour’s wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, or whatever belongs to your neighbour.”

18 And all the people saw the thunders, the lightning flashes, the sound of the ram’s horn, and the mountain smoking. And the people saw it, and they trembled and stood at a distance,

19 and said to Mosheh, “You speak with us and we hear, but let not Elohim speak with us, lest we die.”

20 And Mosheh said to the people, “Do not fear, for Elohim has come to prove you, and in order that His reverence be before you, so that you do not sin.”

21 So the people stood at a distance, but Mosheh drew near the dense cloud where Elohim was.

22 And אָפָּאָרַךְ said to Mosheh, “Say this to the children of Yisra’ël: ‘You yourselves have seen that I have spoken to you from the shamayim.

23 ‘You do not make besides Me mighty ones of silver, and you do not make mighty ones of gold for yourselves.

24 ‘Make an altar of earth for Me, and you shall slaughter on it your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, your sheep and your cattle. In every place where I cause My Name to be remembered I shall come to you and barak<sub>u</sub> you.

25 'And if you make Me an altar of stone, do not build it of cut stone, for if you use your chisel on it, you have profaned it.

26 'Nor do you go up by steps to My altar, lest your nakedness be exposed on it.'

21 "And these are the Right-Rulings which you are to put before them:

2 "When you buy an Ibr<sub>i</sub> servant, he serves six years, and in the seventh he goes out free, for naught.

3 "If he comes in by himself, he goes out by himself; if he comes in married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 "If his master has given him a wife, and she has borne him sons or daughters, the wife and her children are her master's, and he goes out by himself.

5 "And if the servant truly says, 'I love my master, my wife, and my children, let me not go out free,'

6 then his master shall bring him before Elohim, and shall bring him to the door, or to the doorpost, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl. And he shall serve him forever.

7 "And when a man sells his daughter to be a female servant, she does not go out as the male servants do.

8 "If she is displeasing in the eyes of her master who has engaged her to himself, then he shall let her be ransomed. He shall have no authority to sell her to a foreign people, because of him deceiving her.

9 "And if he has engaged her to his son, he is to do to her as is the right of daughters.

10 "If he takes another, her food, her covering, and her marriage rights are not to be diminished.

- 11 “And if he does not do these three for her, then she shall go out for naught, without silver.
- 12 “He who strikes a man so that he dies shall certainly be put to death.
- 13 “But if he did not lie in wait, but Elohim delivered him into his hand, then I shall appoint for you a place where he is to flee.
- 14 “But when a man acts presumptuously against his neighbour, to kill him by treachery, you are to take him even from My altar to die.
- 15 “And he who smites his father or his mother shall certainly be put to death.
- 16 “And he who kidnaps a man and sells him, or if he is found in his hand, shall certainly be put to death.
- 17 “And he who curses his father or his mother shall certainly be put to death.
- 18 “And when men strive together, and one smites the other with a stone or with his fist, and he does not die but is confined to his bed,
- 19 if he rises again and walks about outside with his staff, then he who smote him shall be innocent. He only pays for lost time and sees to it that he is completely healed.
- 20 “And when a man smites his male or female servant with a rod, so that he dies under his hand, he shall certainly be avenged.
- 21 “But if he remains alive a day or two, he is not avenged; for he is his property.
- 22 “And when men strive and they shall smite a pregnant woman, and her children come out, yet there is no injury, he shall certainly be punished accordingly as the woman’s husband lays upon him. And he shall pay by the judges.
- 23 “But if there is injury, then you shall give life for life,

24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 burn for burn, wound for wound, lash for lash.

26 “And when a man smites the eye of his male or female servant, and destroys it, he is to let him go free for the sake of his eye.

27 “And if he knocks out the tooth of his male or female servant, he is to let him go free for the sake of his tooth.

28 “And when an ox gores a man or a woman to death, then the ox shall certainly be stoned, and its flesh is not eaten, and the owner of the ox is innocent.

29 “However, if the ox was previously in the habit of goring, and its owner has been warned, and he has not kept it confined, so that it has killed a man or a woman, the ox is stoned and its owner also is put to death.

30 “If a sin-covering is laid upon him, then he shall give the ransom of his life, whatever is laid on him.

31 “Whether it has gored a son or gored a daughter, according to this Right-Ruling it is done to him.

32 “If the ox gores a male or female servant, he is to give to their master thirty sheqels of silver, and the ox is stoned.

33 “And when a man opens a pit, or if a man digs a pit and does not cover it, and an ox or a donkey falls in it,

34 the owner of the pit is to repay, he is to give silver to their owner, and the dead is his.

35 “And when the ox of a man smites the ox of his neighbour and it dies, then they shall sell the live ox and divide the silver from it, and also divide the dead ox.

36 “Or if it was known that the ox was previously in the habit of goring, and its owner has not kept it confined, he shall certainly repay ox for ox, while the dead is his.

22 “When a man steals an ox or a sheep, and shall slaughter it or sell it, he repays five cattle for an ox and four sheep for a sheep.

2 “If the thief is found breaking in, and he is smitten so that he dies, there is no guilt for his bloodshed.

3 “If the sun has risen on him, there is guilt for his bloodshed, he shall certainly repay. If he has not the means, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 “If the theft is indeed found alive in his hand, whether it is an ox or donkey or sheep, he repays double.

5 “When a man lets a field or vineyard be consumed, and lets loose his livestock, and it feeds in another man’s field, he repays from the best of his own field and the best of his own vineyard.

6 “When fire breaks out and spreads to thorn bushes, so that stacked grain, or standing grain, or the field is consumed, he who kindled the fire shall certainly repay.

7 “When a man gives silver or goods to his neighbour to guard, and it is stolen out of the man’s house, if the thief is found, he repays double.

8 “If the thief is not found, then the master of the house shall be brought before Elohim to see whether he has put his hand into his neighbour’s goods.

9 “For every matter of transgression, for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for garment, or for whatever is lost which another claims to be his, let the matter of them both come before Elohim. And whomever Elohim declares wrong repays double to his neighbour.

10 "When a man gives to his neighbour a donkey, or ox, or sheep, or any beast to watch over, and it dies, or is injured, or is driven away while no one is looking,
11 let an oath of אִי אִי be between them both, that he has not put his hand into his neighbour's goods. And the owner of it shall accept that, and he does not repay.

12 "But if it is indeed stolen from him, he repays to its owner.

13 "If it is torn to pieces, then let him bring it for evidence, he does not repay what was torn.

14 "And when a man borrows from his neighbour, and it is injured or dies while the owner of it is not present, he shall certainly repay.

15 "But if its owner was with it, he does not repay. If it was hired, he is entitled to the hire.

16 "And when a man entices a maiden who is not engaged, and lies with her, he shall certainly pay the bride-price for her to be his wife.

17 "If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he pays according to the bride-price of maidens.

18 "Do not allow a practiser of witchcraft to live.

19 "Anyone lying with a beast shall certainly be put to death.

20 "He who slaughters to a mighty one, except to אִי אִי only, is put under the ban.

21 "Do not tread down a sojourner or oppress him, for you were sojourners in the land of Mitsrayim.

22 "Do not afflict any widow or fatherless child.

23 "If you do afflict them at all - if they cry out to Me at all, I shall certainly hear their cry,

24 and My wrath shall burn and I shall slay you with the sword, your wives shall be widows and your children fatherless.

25 "If you do lend silver to any of My people, the poor among you, you are not to be like one that lends on interest to him. Do not lay interest on him.

26 "If you take your neighbour's garment as a pledge at all, you are to return it to him before the sun goes down.

27 "For that is his only covering, it is his garment for his skin. What does he sleep in? And it shall be that when he cries to Me, I shall hear, for I show favour.

28 "Do not revile Elohim, nor curse a ruler of your people.

29 "Do not withhold your produce and your juice. Give Me the first-born of your sons.

30 "Likewise you are to do with your oxen, with your sheep. It is to be with its mother seven days. On the eighth day you give it to Me.

31 "And you are qodesh men to Me, and you do not eat any meat which is torn to pieces in the field, you throw it to the dogs.

23 "Do not bring a false report. Do not put your hand with the wicked to be a malicious witness.

2 "Do not follow a crowd to do evil, nor bear witness in a strife so as to turn aside after many, to pervert.

3 "And do not favour a poor man in his strife.

4 "When you meet your enemy's ox or his donkey going astray, you shall certainly return it to him.

5 "When you see the donkey of him who hates you, lying under its burden, you shall refrain from leaving it to him, you shall certainly help him.

6 "Do not turn aside the right-ruling of your poor in his strife.

7 "Keep yourself far from a false matter, and do not kill the innocent and the righteous, for I do not declare the wicked right.

8 “And do not take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the seeing one and twists the words of the righteous.

9 “And do not oppress a sojourner, as you yourselves know the life of a sojourner, because you were sojourners in the land of Mitsrayim.

10 “And for six years you are to sow your land, and shall gather its increase,

11 but the seventh year you are to let it rest, and shall leave it, and the poor of your people shall eat. And what they leave, the beasts of the field eat. Do the same with your vineyard and your oliveyard.

12 “Six days you are to do your work, and on the seventh day you rest, in order that your ox and your donkey might rest, and the son of your female servant and the sojourner be refreshed.

13 “And in all that I have said to you take heed. And make no mention of the name of other mighty ones, let it not be heard from your mouth.

14 “Three times in the year you are to celebrate a Festival to Me:

15 “Guard the Festival of Matssoth. Seven days you eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month of Abib - for in it you came out of Mitsrayim - and do not appear before Me empty-handed;

16 and the Festival of the Harvest, the first-fruits of your labours which you have sown in the field; and the Festival of the Ingathering at the outgoing of the year, when you have gathered in the fruit of your labours from the field.

17 “Three times in the year all your males are to appear before the Adon אדון.

18 “Do not offer the blood of My slaughtering with leavened bread, and the fat of My Festival shall not remain until morning.

19 “Bring the first of the first-fruits of your land into the House of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim. Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

20 “See, I am sending a Messenger before you to guard you in the way and to bring you into the place which I have prepared.

21 “Be on guard before Him and obey His voice. Do not rebel against Him, for He is not going to pardon your transgression, for My Name is in Him.

22 “But if you diligently obey His voice and shall do all that I speak, then I shall be an enemy to your enemies and a distresser to those who distress you.

23 “For My Messenger shall go before you and shall bring you in to the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Kena’anites and the Hivvites and the Jebusites, and I shall cut them off.

24 “Do not bow down to their mighty ones, nor serve them, nor do according to their works, but without fail overthrow them and without fail break down their pillars.

25 “And you shall serve אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and He shall barak your bread and your water. And I shall remove sickness from your midst.

26 “None shall miscarry or be barren in your land. I shall fill the number of your days.

27 “I shall send My fear before you, and cause confusion among all the people to whom you come, and make all your enemies turn their backs to you.

28 “And I shall send hornets before you, which shall drive out the Hivvite, the Kena’anite, and the Hittite from before you.

29 “I shall not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become a waste and the beast of the field become too numerous for you.

30 “Little by little I shall drive them out from before you, until you have increased, and you inherit the land.

31 “And I shall appoint your border from the Sea of Reeds to the Sea of the Pelishtites, and from the wilderness to the River, for I shall give the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you.

32 “Do not make a covenant with them nor with their mighty ones.

33 “Let them not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against Me when you serve their mighty ones, when it becomes a snare to you.”

24 And to Mosheh He said, “Come up to אֱלֹהִים, you and Aharon, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Yisra’el, and you shall bow yourselves from a distance.

2 “But Mosheh shall draw near to אֱלֹהִים by himself, and let them not draw near, nor let the people go up with him.”

3 And Mosheh came and related to the people all the Words of אֱלֹהִים and all the Right-Rulings. And all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the Words which אֱלֹהִים has spoken we shall do.”

4 And Mosheh wrote down all the Words of אֱלֹהִים, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve standing columns for the twelve tribes of Yisra’el.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Yisra’el, and they offered burnt offerings and slaughtered peace slaughterings of bulls to אֱלֹהִים.

6 And Mosheh took half the blood and put it in basins, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the Book of the Covenant and read in the hearing of the people. And they said, "All that אֱלֹהִים has spoken we shall do, and obey."

8 And Mosheh took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, and said, "See, the blood of the Covenant which אֱלֹהִים has made with you concerning all these Words."

9 And Mosheh went up, also Aharon, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Yisra'el,

10 and they saw the Elohim of Yisra'el, and under His feet like a paved work of sapphire stone, and like the shamayim for brightness.

11 Yet He did not stretch out His hand against the chiefs of the children of Yisra'el! And they saw Elohim, and they ate and drank.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Come up to Me on the mountain and be there, while I give you tablets of stone, and the Torah and the Command which I have written, to teach them."

13 And Mosheh arose with his assistant Yahoshua, and Mosheh went up to the mountain of Elohim.

14 And he said to the elders, "Wait here for us until we come back to you. And see, Aharon and Hur are with you. Whoever has matters, let him go to them."

15 And Mosheh went up into the mountain, and a cloud covered the mountain.

16 And the esteem of אֱלֹהִים dwelt on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days. And on the seventh day He called to Mosheh out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the appearance of the esteem of אֱלֹהִים was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain, before the eyes of the children of Yisra'el.

18 And Mosheh went into the midst of the cloud and went up into the mountain. And it came to be that Mosheh was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 And אִתְּךָ spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, that they take up a contribution for Me. From everyone whose heart moves him you shall take up My contribution.

3 “And this is the contribution which you take up from them: gold, and silver, and bronze,

4 and blue and purple and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats’ hair,

5 and rams’ skins dyed red, and fine leather, and acacia wood,

6 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,

7 shoham stones, and stones to be put in the shoulder garment and in the breastplate.

8 “And they shall make Me a Miqdash, and I shall dwell in their midst.

9 “According to all that I show you - the pattern of the Mishkan and the pattern of all its furnishings - make it exactly so.

10 “And they shall make an ark of acacia wood two and a half ammah long, an ammah and a half wide, and an ammah and a half high.

11 “And you shall overlay it with clean gold, inside and outside you shall overlay it. And you shall make on it a moulding of gold all around.

12 “And you shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four corners, two rings on one side, and two rings on the other side.

13 “And you shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold,

14 and shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to lift up the ark by them.

15 “The poles are in the rings of the ark, they are not taken from it.

16 “And into the ark you shall put the Witness which I give you.

17 “And you shall make a lid of atonement of clean gold, two and a half ammah long and an ammah and a half wide.

18 “And you shall make two keruḇim of gold, make them of beaten work, at the two ends of the lid of atonement.

19 “And make one keruḇ at one end, and the other keruḇ at the other end. Make the keruḇim from the lid of atonement, at its two ends.

20 “And the keruḇim shall be spreading out their wings above, covering the lid of atonement with their wings, with their faces toward each other, the faces of the keruḇim toward the lid of atonement.

21 “And you shall put the lid of atonement on top of the ark, and put into the ark the Witness which I give you.

22 “And I shall meet with you there, and from above the lid of atonement, from between the two keruḇim which are on the ark of the Witness, I shall speak to you all that which I command you concerning the children of Yisra’ēl.

23 “And you shall make a table of acacia wood two ammah long, an ammah wide, and an ammah and a half high.

24 “And you shall overlay it with clean gold, and shall make a moulding of gold all around,

25 and shall make for it a rim of a tophaḥ all around, and shall make a gold moulding for the rim all around.

26 “And you shall make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that are at its four legs.

27 “The rings are close to the rim, as holders for the poles to lift the table.

28 “And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, and the table shall be lifted with them.

29 “And you shall make its dishes, and its ladles, and its jars, and its bowls for pouring. Make them of clean gold.

30 “And you shall put the showbread on the table before Me, continually.

31 “And you shall make a lampstand of clean gold - the lampstand is made of beaten work. Its base and its shaft, its cups, its ornamental knobs and blossoms are from it,

32 and six branches shall come out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side;

33 three cups made like almond flowers on one branch, with ornamental knob and blossom, and three cups made like almond flowers on the other branch, with ornamental knob and blossom - so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

34 “And on the lampstand itself are four cups made like almond flowers, with ornamental knob and blossom,

35 and a knob under the first two branches of the same, and a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, according to the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

36 “Their knobs and their branches are of the same - all of it one beaten work of clean gold.

37 “And you shall make seven lamps for it, and they shall mount its lamps so that they give light in front of it.

- 38 “And its snuffers and their trays are of clean gold.
39 “It is made of a kīkar of clean gold, with all these utensils.
40 “So see, and do according to the pattern which was shown to you on the mountain.

- 26 “And make the Mishkan with ten curtains of fine woven linen and blue and purple and scarlet. Make them, with kerubim, the work of a skilled workman.
2 “The length of each curtain is twenty-eight ammah, and the width of each curtain four ammah, all the curtains having one measure.
3 “Five curtains are joined to each other, and five curtains are joined to each other.
4 “And you shall make loops of blue on the edge of the end on one curtain, and do the same on the edge of the end of the second curtain.
5 “Make fifty loops in the one curtain and make fifty loops on the edge of the seam of the second curtain, the loops being opposite to each other.
6 “And you shall make fifty hooks of gold, and shall join the curtains together with the hooks, and the Mishkan shall be one.
7 “And you shall make curtains of goats’ hair, for a Tent over the Mishkan, make eleven curtains.
8 “The length of each curtain is thirty ammah, and the width of each curtain four ammah, one measure to the eleven curtains.
9 “And you shall join the five curtains by themselves, and the six curtains by themselves, and you shall double over the six curtains at the front of the Tent.
10 “And you shall make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is outermost, and fifty loops on the edge of the second curtain.

11 “And you shall make fifty bronze hooks, and put the hooks into the loops, and join the Tent together, and it shall be one.

12 “And the overlapping part of the rest of the curtains of the Tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the Mishkan.

13 “And an ammah on one side and an ammah on the other side, of what remains of the length of the curtains of the Tent, is to hang over the sides of the Mishkan, on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 “And you shall make a covering of ram skins dyed red for the Tent, and a covering of fine leather above that.

15 “And for the Mishkan you shall make the boards of acacia wood, standing up.

16 “Ten ammah is the length of a board, and an ammah and a half the width of each board, 17 two tenons in each board for binding one to another. Do the same for all the boards of the Mishkan.

18 “And you shall make the boards for the Mishkan, twenty boards for the south side.

19 “And make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards, two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.

20 “And for the second side of the Mishkan, on the north side, twenty boards, 21 and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under each of the boards.

22 “And for the rear parts of the Mishkan, westward, make six boards,

23 and make two boards for the corners of the Mishkan in the rear.

24 “And they are double beneath and similarly they are complete to the top, to the one ring. So it is for both of them, they are for the two corners.

25 “And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets - two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the other board.

26 “And you shall make bars of acacia wood, five for the boards on one side of the Mishkan,

27 and five bars for the boards on the other side of the Mishkan, and five bars for the boards of the side of the Mishkan, for the rear parts westward,

28 with the middle bar in the midst of the boards, going through from end to end.

29 “And overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold as holders for the bars, and overlay the bars with gold.

30 “And you shall raise up the Mishkan according to its pattern which you were shown on the mountain.

31 “And you shall make a veil of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine woven linen, the work of a skilled workman, made with kerubim.

32 “And you shall put it on the four columns of acacia wood overlaid with gold, their hooks of gold, upon four sockets of silver.

33 “And you shall hang the veil from the hooks, and shall bring the ark of the Witness there, behind the veil. And the veil shall make a separation for you between the Qodesh and the Most Qodesh Place.

34 “And you shall put the lid of atonement upon the ark of the Witness in the Most Qodesh Place.

35 “And you shall put the table outside the veil, and the lampstand opposite the table on the side of the Mishkan toward the south, and put the table on the north side.

36 “And you shall make a covering for the door of the Tent, of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver.

37 “And you shall make for the covering five columns of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold, their hooks of gold, and you shall cast five sockets of bronze for them.

27 “And you shall make an altar of acacia wood, five ammah long and five ammah wide - the altar is square - and its height three ammah.

2 “And you shall make its horns on its four corners, its horns are of the same. And you shall overlay it with bronze.

3 “And you shall make its pots to receive its ashes, and its shovels and its basins and its forks and its fire holders. Make all its utensils of bronze.

4 “And you shall make a grating for it, a bronze network, and shall make on the network four bronze rings at its four corners,

5 and shall put it under the rim of the altar beneath, so that the network is halfway up the altar.

6 “And you shall make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and shall overlay them with bronze.

7 “And the poles shall be put in the rings, and the poles shall be on the two sides of the altar for lifting it.

8 “Make it hollow with boards. As it was shown to you on the mountain, so they are to make it.

9 “And you shall make the courtyard of the Mishkan: for the south side screens for the courtyard made of fine woven linen, one hundred ammah long for one side,

10 and its twenty columns and their twenty sockets of bronze, the hooks of the columns and their bands of silver,

11 and so for the north side in length, screens one hundred long, with its twenty columns and their twenty sockets of bronze, and the hooks of the columns and their bands of silver.

12 “And the width of the courtyard on the west side screens of fifty ammah, with their ten columns and their ten sockets.

13 “And the width of the courtyard on the east side fifty ammah.

14 “And the screens on one side of the gate fifteen ammah, with their three columns and their three sockets.

15 “And on the other side screens of fifteen, with their three columns and their three sockets.

16 “And for the gate of the courtyard a covering twenty ammah long, of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine woven linen, made by a weaver - four columns and four sockets.

17 “All the columns around the courtyard have bands of silver, their hooks silver and their sockets bronze.

18 “The length of the courtyard is one hundred ammah, and the width fifty by fifty, and the height five ammah, woven of fine linen thread, and its sockets of bronze.

19 “All the utensils of the Mishkan for all its service, all its pegs, and all the pegs of the courtyard, are bronze.

20 “And you, you are to command the children of Yisra’ël to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light, to cause the lamp to burn continually.

21 “In the Tent of Appointment, outside the veil which is before the Witness, Aharon and his sons are to tend it from evening until morning before אֲרָבָה - a Law forever to their generations, from the children of Yisra’ël.

28 “And you, bring near Aharon your brother and his sons with him, from among the children of Yisra’ël, for serving as kohēn to Me: Aharon, Nadab and Abihu, El’azar and Ithamar, the sons of Aharon.

2 “And you shall make qodesh garments for Aharon your brother, for esteem and for comeliness.

3 “And you, speak to all the wise of heart, whom I have filled with a spirit of wisdom, and they shall make the garments of Aharon, to qadosh him, for him to serve as kohēn to Me.

4 “And these are the garments which they make: a breastplate, a shoulder garment, a robe, an embroidered long shirt, a turban, and a girdle. And they shall make qodesh garments for Aharon your brother and his sons, for him to serve as kohēn to Me.

5 “And they shall take the gold, and the blue and the purple and the scarlet, and the fine linen,

6 and shall make the shoulder garment of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine woven linen, the work of a skilled workman.

7 “It is to have two shoulder pieces joined at its two edges, and so it is joined together.

8 “And the embroidered band of the shoulder garment, which is on it, is of the same workmanship, made of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine woven linen.

9 “And you shall take two shoham stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Yisra’ël,

10 six of their names on one stone, and the remaining six names on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 “With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Yisra’ël. Put them in mountings of gold.

12 “And you shall put the two stones on the shoulder pieces of the shoulder garment as stones of remembrance for the sons of Yisra’ël. And Aharon shall bear their names before אֶת־אֶזְרָאֵל on his two shoulders, for a remembrance.

13 “And you shall make mountings of gold,
14 and two chains of clean gold like braided cords, and fasten the braided chains to the mountings.

15 “And you shall make a breastplate of right-ruling, a work of a skilled workman, like the work of the shoulder garment. Make it of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine woven linen.

16 “It is square, doubled, a zereth its length, and a zereth its width.

17 “And you shall put mountings of stones in it, four rows of stones: The first row is a ruby, a topaz, and an emerald;

18 and the second row is a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

19 and the third row is a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

20 and the fourth row is a beryl, and a shoham, and a jasper. They are put in gold mountings.

21 “And the stones are according to the names of the sons of Yisra’ël, twelve according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, each one with its own name, for the twelve tribes.

22 “And you shall make braided chains of corded work for the breastplate at the end, of clean gold.

23 “And you shall make two rings of gold for the breastplate, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 “And you shall put the two cords of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate,

25 and the other two ends of the two cords you fasten to the two mountings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the shoulder garment in the front.

26 “And you shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which is on the inner side of the shoulder garment.

27 “And you shall make two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder pieces, underneath the shoulder garment, on the front of it, close to the seam above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment,

28 and they bind the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the shoulder garment, using a blue cord, so that it is above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment, so that the breastplate does not come loose from the shoulder garment.

29 “And Aharon shall bear the names of the sons of Yisra’el on the breastplate of right-ruling over his heart, when he goes into the qodesh place, for a remembrance before אֱלֹהִים, continually.

30 “And into the breastplate of right-ruling you shall put the Urim and the Tummim, and they shall be on the heart of Aharon when he goes in before אֱלֹהִים. And Aharon shall bear the right-ruling of the children of Yisra’el on his heart before אֱלֹהִים, continually.

31 “And you shall make the robe of the shoulder garment all of blue.

32 “And the opening for his head shall be in the middle of it, a woven binding all around its opening, like the opening in scaled armour, so that it does not tear.

33 “And on its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet, all around its hem, and bells of gold between them all around:

34 a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, on the hem of the robe all around.

35 “And it shall be upon Aharon to attend in, and its sound shall be heard when he goes into the qodesh place before אֲרָצָה and when he comes out, so that he does not die.

36 “And you shall make a plate of clean gold and engrave on it, like the engraving of a signet: QODESHAH TO אֲרָצָה.

37 “And you shall put it on a blue cord, and it shall be on the turban - it is to be on the front of the turban.

38 “And it shall be on the forehead of Aharon, and Aharon shall bear the guilt of the qodesh gifts which the children of Yisra’el qadosh in all their qodesh gifts. And it shall always be on his forehead, for acceptance for them before אֲרָצָה.

39 “And you shall weave the long shirt of fine linen, and shall make the turban of fine linen, and you shall make the girdle of woven work.

40 “And make long shirts for Aharon’s sons. And you shall make girdles for them, and you shall make turbans for them, for esteem and comeliness.

41 “And you shall put them on Aharon your brother and on his sons with him, and shall anoint them, and shall ordain them, and shall qadosh them, and they shall serve as kohenim to Me.

42 “And make linen trousers for them, to cover their nakedness, reaching from the waist to the thighs.

43 “And they shall be on Aharon and on his sons when they come into the Tent of Appointment, or when they come near the altar to attend in the qodesh place, so that they do not bear wickedness and die - a Law forever to him, and to his seed after him.

- 29 “And this is the task you shall do to them to qadosh them to serve Me as kohenim: Take one young bull and two rams, perfect ones,
 2 and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil - make these of wheat flour.
 3 “And you shall put them in one basket and bring them in the basket, along with the bull and the two rams.
 4 “Then you shall bring Aharon and his sons to the door of the Tent of Appointment, and wash them with water.
 5 “And you shall take the garments, and shall put on Aharon the long shirt, and the robe of the shoulder garment, and the shoulder garment, and the breastplate, and shall gird him with the embroidered band of the shoulder garment,
 6 and shall put the turban on his head, and shall put the qodesh sign of dedication on the turban,
 7 and shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head and anoint him.
 8 “Then you shall bring his sons and put long shirts on them,
 9 and shall gird them with girdles - Aharon and his sons - and put the turbans on them. And the kehunnah shall be theirs for an everlasting Law. So you shall ordain Aharon and his sons.
 10 “And you shall bring near the bull before the Tent of Appointment, and Aharon and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the bull.
 11 “And you shall slaughter the bull before אֶת־אֵז, by the door of the Tent of Appointment, 12 and take some of the blood of the bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour all the blood beside the base of the altar.

13 “And you shall take all the fat that covers the entrails, and the appendage on the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them, and burn them on the altar.

14 “But the flesh of the bull, and its skin and its dung, you shall burn with fire outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

15 “And take one ram, and Aharon and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,

16 and you shall slaughter the ram, and you shall take its blood and sprinkle it all around on the altar.

17 “And cut the ram in pieces, and wash its entrails and its legs, and place them upon its pieces and on its head.

18 “And you shall burn the entire ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to אֱלֹהִים, it is a sweet fragrance, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

19 “And you shall take the second ram, and Aharon and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram,

20 and you shall slaughter the ram, and take some of its blood and put it on the tip of the right ear of Aharon and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, on the thumb of their right hand and on the big toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar.

21 “And you shall take some of the blood that is on the altar, and some of the anointing oil, and sprinkle it on Aharon and on his garments, on his sons and on the garments of his sons with him. And he and his garments shall be qodesh, and his sons and the garments of his sons with him.

22 “And you shall take the fat of the ram, and the fat tail, and the fat that covers the entrails, and the appendage on the liver, and the two kidneys and the fat on them, and the right thigh - it is for a ram of ordination -

23 and one loaf of bread, and one cake made with oil, and one thin cake from the basket of the unleavened bread that is before אֵלֹהִים.

24 “And you shall put all these in the hands of Aharon and in the hands of his sons, and you shall wave them - a wave offering before אֵלֹהִים.

25 “Then you shall take them from their hands and burn them on the altar as a burnt offering, as a sweet fragrance before אֵלֹהִים. It is an offering made by fire to אֵלֹהִים.

26 “And you shall take the breast of the ram of Aharon’s ordination and wave it - a wave offering before אֵלֹהִים, and it shall be your portion.

27 “And from the ram of ordination you shall qadosh the breast of the wave offering which is waved, and the thigh of the contribution which is raised, of that which is for Aharon and of that which is for his sons.

28 “And it shall be from the children of Yisra’el for Aharon and his sons by a Law forever, for it is a contribution. And it is a contribution from the children of Yisra’el from their peace offerings - their contribution to אֵלֹהִים.

29 “And the qodesh garments of Aharon are for his sons after him, to be anointed in them and to be ordained in them.

30 “The kohēn from his sons in his place, puts them on for seven days, when he enters the Tent of Appointment to attend in the qodesh place.

31 “And take the ram of ordination and cook its flesh in a qodesh place.

32 “And Aharon and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, by the door of the Tent of Appointment,

33 and they shall eat those with which the atonement was made, to ordain them, to qadosh them. But let a stranger not eat them, because they are qodesh.

34 “And if any of the flesh of the ordination offerings, or of the bread, be left over until the morning, then you shall burn up what is left over. It is not eaten, because it is qodesh.

35 “And so you shall do to Aharon and his sons, according to all I have commanded you. Seven days you shall ordain them, 36 and prepare a bull each day as a sin offering for atonement. And you shall cleanse the altar when you make atonement for it, and you shall anoint it to qadosh it.

37 “For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and qadosh it. And the altar shall be most qodesh - whatever touches the altar is to be qodesh.

38 “And this is what you prepare on the altar: two lambs, a year old, daily, continually.

39 “Prepare the one lamb in the morning, and the other lamb you prepare between the evenings,

40 and one-tenth of an ěphah of flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil, and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering, with the one lamb.

41 “And prepare the other lamb between the evenings. And with it prepare the grain offering and the drink offering, as in the morning, for a sweet fragrance, an offering made by fire to אִיִּזְ -

42 a continual burnt offering for your generations at the door of the Tent of Appointment before אִיִּזְ, where I shall meet with you to speak with you.

43 “And there I shall meet with the children of Yisra’ël, and it shall be made qadosh by My esteem.

44 “And I shall qadosh the Tent of Appointment and the altar. And Aharon and his sons I qadosh to serve as kohenim to Me.

45 “And I shall dwell in the midst of the children of Yisra’ël and shall be their Elohim.

46 “And they shall know that I am אֱלֹהֵימִי their Elohim, who brought them up out of the land of Mitsrayim, to dwell in their midst. I am אֱלֹהֵימִי their Elohim.

30 “And you shall make an altar to burn incense on, make it of acacia wood,

2 an ammah long and an ammah wide - it is a square - and two ammah high, its horns of the same.

3 “And you shall overlay its top, and its sides all around, and its horns with clean gold. And you shall make for it a moulding of gold all around.

4 “And make two gold rings for it, under the moulding on both its sides. Make them on its two sides, and they shall be holders for the poles to lift it with.

5 “And you shall make the poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 “And you shall put it before the veil that is before the ark of the Witness, before the lid of atonement that is over the Witness, where I am to meet with you.

7 “And Aharon shall burn on it sweet incense, morning by morning. As he tends the lamps, he shall burn incense on it.

8 “And when Aharon lights the lamps between the evenings, he shall burn incense on it - a continual incense before אֱלֹהֵימִי throughout your generations.

9 “Do not offer strange incense on it, or a burnt offering, or a grain offering, and do not pour a drink offering on it.

10 “And Aharon shall make atonement upon its horns once a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonement - once a year he makes atonement upon it throughout your generations. It is most qodesh to אֱלֹהִים.”

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

12 “When you take the census of the children of Yisra’el, to register them, then each one shall give an atonement for his life to אֱלֹהִים, when you register them, so that there is no plague among them when you register them.

13 “Everyone among those who are registered is to give this: half a sheqel according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, twenty gĕrahs being a sheqel. The half-sheqel is the contribution to אֱלֹהִים.

14 “Everyone passing over to be registered, from twenty years old and above, gives a contribution to אֱלֹהִים.

15 “The rich does not give more and the poor does not give less than half a sheqel, when you give a contribution to אֱלֹהִים, to make atonement for yourselves.

16 “And you shall take the silver for the atonement from the children of Yisra’el, and give it for the service of the Tent of Appointment. And it shall be to the children of Yisra’el for a remembrance before אֱלֹהִים, to make atonement for yourselves.”

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

18 “And you shall make a basin of bronze, with its stand also of bronze, for washing. And you shall put it between the Tent of Appointment and the altar, and shall put water in it.

19 “And Aharon and his sons shall wash from it their hands and their feet.

20 “When they go into the Tent of Appointment, or when they come near the altar to attend, to burn an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, they wash with water, lest they die.

21 “And they shall wash their hands and their feet, lest they die. And it shall be a Law forever to them, to him and his seed throughout their generations.”

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

23 “And take for yourself choice spices, five hundred of liquid myrrh, and half as much - two hundred and fifty - of sweet-smelling cinnamon, and two hundred and fifty of sweet-smelling cane,

24 and five hundred of cassia, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, and a hin of olive oil.

25 “And you shall make from these a qodesh anointing oil, a compound, blended, the work of a perfumer. It is a qodesh anointing oil.

26 “And with it you shall anoint the Tent of Appointment and the ark of the Witness,

27 and the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense,

28 and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin and its stand.

29 “And you shall qadosh them, and they shall be most qodesh. Whatever touches them is to be qodesh.

30 “And you shall anoint Aharon and his sons, and qadosh them, to serve as kohenim to Me.

31 “And speak to the children of Yisra’el, saying, ‘This is a qodesh anointing oil to Me throughout your generations.

32 'It shall not be poured on the flesh of a man, and make no other like it, according to its composition. It is qodesh, it is qodesh to you.

33 'Whoever compounds like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, shall be cut off from his people.' "

34 And אִרְאֵל said to Mosheh, "Take sweet spices, fragrant gum and cinnamon and galbanam, and clear frankincense with these sweet spices, all in equal amounts.

35 "Then you shall make of these an incense, a compound, work of a perfumer, salted, clean, qodesh.

36 "And you shall beat some of it very fine, and put some of it before the Witness in the Tent of Appointment where I meet with you, it is most qodesh to you.

37 "And the incense which you make, do not make any for yourselves, according to its composition, it is qodesh to you for אִרְאֵל.

38 "Whoever makes like it, to smell it, he shall be cut off from his people."

31 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 "See, I have called by name Betsal'el son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahudah,

3 and I have filled him with the Ruah of Elohim in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all work,

4 to make designs for work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze,

5 and in cutting stones for mounting, and in carving wood, and to work in all work.

6 "And I, look I have appointed with him Oholiab son of Ahisamaq, of the tribe of Dan. And I have put wisdom in the hearts of everyone who is wise-hearted, and they shall make all that I have commanded you:

7 the Tent of Appointment, and the ark of the Witness and the lid of atonement that is on it, and all the utensils of the Tent,

8 and the table and its utensils, and the clean gold lampstand with all its utensils, and the altar of incense,

9 and the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin and its stand,

10 and the woven garments, and the qodesh garments for Aharon the kohēn and the garments of his sons, for serving as kohenim,

11 and the anointing oil and sweet incense for the qodesh place. According to all that I have commanded you, they are to do.”

12 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

13 “And you, speak to the children of Yisra’ēl, saying, ‘My Shabbathoth you are to guard, by all means, for this is a sign between Me and you throughout your generations, to know that I, אֱלֹהִים, qadosh you.

14 ‘And you shall guard the Shabbath, for it is qodesh to you. Everyone who profanes it shall certainly be put to death, for anyone who does work on it, that being shall be cut off from among his people.

15 ‘Six days work is done, and on the seventh is a Shabbath of rest, qodesh to אֱלֹהִים. Everyone doing work on the Shabbath day shall certainly be put to death.

16 ‘And the children of Yisra’ēl shall guard the Shabbath, to perform the Shabbath throughout their generations as an everlasting Covenant.

17 ‘Between Me and the children of Yisra’ēl it is a sign forever. For in six days אֱלֹהִים made the shamayim and the earth, and on the seventh day He rested and was refreshed.’ ”

18 And when He had ended speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Mosheh two tablets of the Witness, tablets of stone, written with the finger of Elohim.

32 And when the people saw that Mosheh was so long in coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together to Aharon, and said to him, “Arise, make us mighty ones who go before us. For this Mosheh, the man who brought us up out of the land of Mitsrayim, we do not know what has become of him.”

2 And Aharon said to them, “Take off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.”

3 And all the people took off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aharon.

4 And he took from their hand, and he formed it with an engraving tool, and made a moulded calf. And they said, “This is your mighty one, O Yisra’ël, that brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim!”

5 And Aharon saw and built an altar before it. And Aharon called out and said, “Tomorrow is a festival to אֶפְרָיִם.”

6 And they rose early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings. And the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

7 And אֶפְרָיִם said to Mosheh, “Go, get down! For your people whom you brought out of the land of Mitsrayim have corrupted themselves.

8 “They have turned aside quickly out of the Way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a moulded calf, and have bowed themselves to it and slaughtered to it, and said, ‘This is your mighty one, O Yisra'ël, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim!' ”

9 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “I have seen this people, and see, it is a stiff-necked people!

10 “And now, let Me alone, that My wrath might burn against them and I consume them and I make of you a great nation.”

11 But Mosheh pleaded with אֱלֹהִים his Elohim, and said, “אֱלֹהִים, why does Your wrath burn against Your people whom You have brought out of the land of Mitsrayim with great power and with a strong hand?

12 “Why should the Mitsrites speak, and say, ‘For evil He brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth’? Turn from the heat of Your wrath, and relent from this evil to Your people.

13 “Remember Abraham, Yitshaq, and Yisra'ël, Your servants, to whom You swore by Yourself, and said to them, ‘I increase your seed like the stars of the shamayim. And all this land that I have spoken of I give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.’ ”

14 And אֱלֹהִים relented from the evil which He said He would do to His people.

15 And Mosheh turned and went down from the mountain, and in his hand were the two tablets of the Witness, tablets written on both their sides, written on the one and on the other.

16 And the tablets were the work of Elohim, and the writing was the writing of Elohim engraved on the tablets.

17 And Yahoshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted and he said to Mosheh, “A noise of battle in the camp!”

18 But he said, "It is not the sound of those who shout of might, nor is it the sound of those who cry out in weakness, but the sound of singing that I hear."

19 And it came to be, as soon as he came near the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing. And Mosheh's displeasure burned, and he threw the tablets out of his hands and broke them at the foot of the mountain.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and ground it into powder, and scattered it on the face of the water and made the children of Yisra'ël drink it.

21 And Mosheh said to Aharon, "What did this people do to you that you have brought so great a sin upon them?"

22 And Aharon said, "Do not let the displeasure of my master burn. You know the people, for evil is in them.

23 "And they said to me, 'Make us mighty ones who go before us. For this Mosheh, the man who brought us out of the land of Mitsrayim, we do not know what has become of him.'

24 "And I said to them, 'Whoever has gold, let them take it off.' And they gave it to me, and I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out."

25 And Mosheh saw that the people were let loose, for Aharon had let them loose, to their shame among their enemies.

26 And Mosheh stood in the entrance of the camp, and said, "Who is for אֱלֹהִים? To me!" And all the sons of Lěwi gathered themselves to him.

27 And he said to them, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël: 'Each one put his sword on his side, pass over to and fro from gate to gate in the camp, and each one slay his brother, and each one his friend, and each one his relative.' "

28 And the sons of Lēwi did according to the word of Mosheh. And about three thousand men of the people fell that day.

29 And Mosheh said, “You are ordained for אִיִּזְרָאֵל today - since each one has been against his son and his brother - so as to bring upon you a beraḵah today.”

30 And it came to be on the next day that Mosheh said to the people, “You, you have sinned a great sin. And now I am going up to אִיִּזְרָאֵל - if I might atone for your sin.”

31 And Mosheh returned to אִיִּזְרָאֵל and said, “Oh, these people have sinned a great sin, and have made for themselves a mighty one of gold!

32 “And now, if You would lift their sin, but if not, please blot me out of Your Book which You have written.”

33 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “Whoever has sinned against Me, I blot him out of My Book.

34 “And now, go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. See, My Messenger goes before you. And in the day of My visitation I shall visit their sin upon them.”

35 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל plagued the people because they made the calf, which Aharon made.

33 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “Come, go up from here, you and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Mitsrayim, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Yitshāq, and to Ya’aqob, saying, ‘To your seed I give it.’

2 “And I shall send My Messenger before you, and I shall drive out the Kena’anite and the Amorite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hiwwite and the Yebusite,

3 to a land flowing with milk and honey. For I do not go up in your midst because you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you on the way.”

4 And when the people heard this evil word, they mourned, and no one put on his ornaments.

5 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “Say to the children of Yisra’el, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. Should I go up in your midst for one moment I shall consume you. And now, take off your ornaments, and I shall know what to do to you.’ ”

6 So the children of Yisra’el took off their ornaments at Mount Ḥorēb.

7 And Mosheh took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the Tent of Appointment. And it came to be that everyone who sought אִיִּזְרָאֵל went out to the Tent of Appointment which was outside the camp.

8 And it came to be, whenever Mosheh went out to the Tent, that all the people rose, and each man stood at his tent door and watched Mosheh until he entered the Tent.

9 And it came to be, when Mosheh entered the Tent, that the column of cloud descended and stood at the door of the Tent, and He spoke with Mosheh.

10 And all the people saw the column of cloud standing at the Tent door, and all the people rose and bowed themselves, each one at the door of his tent.

11 Thus אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he would return to the camp, but his servant Yahoshua son of Nun, a young man, did not leave the Tent.

12 And Mosheh said to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, “See, You are saying to me, ‘Bring up this people.’ But You have not made known to me whom You would send with me, though

You have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favour in My eyes.'

13 "And now, please, if I have found favour in Your eyes, please show me Your way, and let me know You, so that I find favour in Your eyes. And consider that this nation is Your people."

14 And He said, "My Presence goes, and I shall give you rest."

15 And he said to Him, "If Your Presence is not going, do not lead us up from here."

16 "For how then shall it be known that I have found favour in Your eyes, I and Your people, except You go with us? Then we shall be distinguished, I and Your people, from all the people who are upon the face of the earth."

17 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Even this word you have spoken I shall do, for you have found favour in My eyes, and I know you by name."

18 Then he said, "Please, show me Your esteem."

19 And He said, "I shall cause all My goodness to pass before you, and I shall proclaim the Name of אֱלֹהִים before you. And I shall favour him whom I favour, and shall have compassion on him whom I have compassion."

20 But He said, "You are unable to see My face, for no man sees Me and lives."

21 And אֱלֹהִים said, "See, there is a place with Me! And you shall stand on the rock."

22 "And it shall be, while My esteem passes by, that I shall put you in the cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand while I pass by."

23 "Then I shall take away My hand and you shall see My back, but My face shall not be seen."

34 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Cut two tablets of stone like the first ones, and I shall write on these tablets the Words that were on the first tablets which you broke.

2 “And be ready in the morning. Then you shall come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself to Me there on the top of the mountain.

3 “And let no man come up with you, and let no man be seen in all the mountain, and let not even the flock or the herd feed in front of that mountain.”

4 And he cut two tablets of stone like the first ones. Then Mosheh rose early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, and he took two tablets of stone in his hand.

5 And אֱלֹהִים came down in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the Name, אֱלֹהִים.

6 And אֱלֹהִים passed before him and proclaimed, “אֱלֹהִים, אֱלֹהִים, an Ėl compassionate and showing favour, patient, and great in kindness and truth,

7 watching over kindness for thousands, forgiving wickedness and transgression and sin, but by no means leaving unpunished, visiting the wickedness of the fathers upon the children and the children’s children to the third and the fourth generation.”

8 And Mosheh hurried and bowed himself toward the earth, and did obeisance,

9 and said, “If, now, I have found favour in Your eyes, O אֱלֹהִים, I pray, let אֱלֹהִים go on in our midst, even though we are a stiff-necked people. And forgive our wickedness and our sin, and take us as Your inheritance.”

10 And He said, “See, I am making a Covenant. Before all your people I am going to do wonders such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation. And all the people among whom you are shall see the work of אֱלֹהֵיךָ. For what I am doing with you is awesome.

11 “Guard what I command you today. See, I am driving out from before you the Amorite and the Kena’anite and the Hittite and the Perizzite and the Hivvite and the Yebusite.

12 “Guard yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be a snare in your midst.

13 “But break down their altars, and destroy their pillars, and cut down their Ashĕrim -

14 for you do not bow yourselves to another mighty one, for אֱלֹהֵיךָ, whose Name is jealous, is a jealous Ēl -

15 lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they whore after their mighty ones, and slaughter to their mighty ones, and one of them invites you and you eat of his slaughterings,

16 and you take of his daughters for your sons, and his daughters whore after their mighty ones, and make your sons whore after their mighty ones.

17 “Do not make a moulded mighty one for yourselves.

18 “Guard the Festival of Matstsoth. For seven days you eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the Appointed Time of the month of Abib, because in the month of Abib you came out from Mitsrayim.

19 “Everyone opening the womb is Mine, and every male first-born among your livestock, whether bull or sheep.

20 “But the first-born of a donkey you ransom with a lamb. And if you do not ransom, then you shall break his neck. Every first-born of your sons you shall ransom. And they shall not appear before Me empty-handed.

21 “Six days you work, but on the seventh day you rest - in ploughing time and in harvest you rest.

22 “And perform the Festival of Shabuoth for yourself, of the first-fruits of wheat harvest, and the Festival of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

23 “Three times in the year all your men are to appear before the Adon, אֲדֹנָי, the Elohim of Yisra’ël, 24 for I dispossess nations before you, and shall enlarge your borders, and let no one covet your land when you go up to appear before אֲדֹנָי your Elohim three times in the year.

25 “Do not offer the blood of My slaughtering with leaven, and do not let the slaughtering of the Festival of the Pesah remain until morning.

26 “Bring the first of the first-fruits of your land to the House of אֲדֹנָי your Elohim. Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

27 And אֲדֹנָי said to Mosheh, “Write these Words, for according to the mouth of these Words I have made a Covenant with you and with Yisra’ël.”

28 And he was there with אֲדֹנָי forty days and forty nights. He did not eat bread and he did not drink water. And He wrote on the tablets the Words of the Covenant, the Ten Words.

29 And it came to be, when Mosheh came down from Mount Sinai, while the two tablets of the Witness were in Mosheh’s hand when he came down from the mountain, that Mosheh did not know that the skin of his face shone since he had spoken with Him.

30 And Aharon and all the children of Yisra’ël looked at Mosheh and saw the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him.

31 But Mosheh called out to them, and Aharon and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him, and Mosheh spoke to them.

32 And afterward all the children of Yisra'el came near, and he commanded them all that אֱלֹהִים had spoken with him on Mount Sinai.

33 And when Mosheh ended speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

34 But whenever Mosheh went in before אֱלֹהִים to speak with Him, he would remove the veil until he came out. And when he came out he spoke to the children of Yisra'el what he had been commanded,

35 and the children of Yisra'el would see the face of Mosheh, that the skin of Mosheh's face shone, and Mosheh would put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with Him.

35 And Mosheh assembled all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, and said to them, "These are the Words which אֱלֹהִים has commanded you to do:

2 "Work is done for six days, but on the seventh day it shall be qodesh to you, a Shabbath of rest to אֱלֹהִים. Anyone doing work on it is put to death.

3 "Do not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on the Shabbath day."

4 And Mosheh spoke to all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, saying, "This is the word which אֱלֹהִים commanded, saying,

5 'Take from among you a contribution to אֱלֹהִים. Everyone whose heart so moves him, let him bring it as a contribution to אֱלֹהִים: gold, and silver, and bronze,

6 and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 and ram skins dyed red, and fine leather, and acacia wood,
8 and oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense,
9 and shoham stones, and stones to be put in the shoulder garment and in the breastplate.
10 'And let all the wise-hearted among you come and make all that אֱלֹהִים has commanded:
11 the Mishkan, its Tent and its covering, its hooks and its boards, its bars, its columns, and its sockets,
12 the ark and its poles, the lid of atonement and the veil of the covering,
13 the table and its poles, and all its utensils, and the showbread,
14 and the lampstand for the light, and its utensils, and its lamps, and the oil for the light,
15 and the incense altar, and its poles, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the covering for the door at the entrance of the Mishkan,
16 the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin and its stand,
17 the screens of the courtyard, its columns, and their sockets, and the covering for the gate of the courtyard,
18 the pegs of the Mishkan, and the pegs of the courtyard, and their cords,
19 the woven garments to do service in the qodesh place, the qodesh garments for Aharon the kohēn and the garments of his sons to serve as kohenim.' ”
20 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el withdrew from the presence of Mosheh.
21 And everyone whose heart lifted him up and everyone whose spirit moved him came, and they brought the contribution to אֱלֹהִים for the work of the Tent of Appointment, and for all its service, and for the qodesh garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, all whose hearts moved them, and brought earrings and nose rings, and rings and necklaces, all golden goods, even every one who made a wave offering of gold to אֱלֹהִים.

23 And every man, with whom was found blue and purple and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and fine leather, brought them.

24 Everyone who would make a contribution to אֱלֹהִים of silver or bronze, brought it. And everyone with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the wise-hearted women spun yarn with their hands, and brought what they had spun, the blue and the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen.

26 And all the women whose hearts lifted them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair.

27 And the rulers brought shoham stones, and the stones to be put in the shoulder garment and in the breastplate,

28 and the spices and the oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Yisra'el brought a voluntary offering to אֱלֹהִים, all the men and women whose hearts moved them to bring all kinds of work which אֱלֹהִים, by the hand of Mosheh, had commanded to be done.

30 And Mosheh said to the children of Yisra'el, "See, אֱלֹהִים has called by name Betsal'el son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Yahudah,

31 and He has filled him with the Ruah of Elohim, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all work,

32 to make designs, to work in gold and in silver and in bronze,

33 and in cutting of stones for mounting, and in carving wood, and to work in all workmanship of design.

34 “And He has put in his heart the ability to teach, in him and Oholiab̄ son of Aḥisamaḳ, of the tribe of Dan.

35 “He has filled them with skill to do all work of the engraver and the designer and embroiderer, in blue and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and a weaver, doing any work, and makers of designs.

36 “And Betsal’ēl and Oholiab̄, and every wise-hearted man in whom אֱלֹהִים has given wisdom and understanding, to know how to do all work for the service of the qodesh place, shall do according to all that אֱלֹהִים has commanded.”

2 And Mosheh called Betsal’ēl and Oholiab̄, and every wise-hearted man in whose heart אֱלֹהִים had given wisdom, everyone whose heart lifted him up, to come and do the work.

3 And they received from Mosheh all the contribution which the children of Yisra’ēl had brought for the work of the service of making the qodesh place. But they still brought to him voluntary offerings every morning,

4 so all the craftsmen who were doing all the work of the qodesh place came, each from the work he was doing,

5 and they spoke to Mosheh, saying, “The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work which אֱלֹהִים commanded us to do.”

6 Then Mosheh commanded and they sent this word throughout the camp, saying, “Let neither man nor woman do any more work for the contribution of the qodesh place.” And the people were withheld from bringing,

7 for what they had was enough for all the work to be done, more than enough.

8 Then all the wise-hearted ones among them who worked on the Mishkan made ten curtains woven of fine linen and blue and purple and scarlet. They made them with kerubim, the work of a skilled workman.

9 The length of each curtain was twenty-eight ammah, and the width of each curtain four ammah, all the curtains having one measure.

10 And he joined five curtains, one to another; and the other five curtains he joined, one to another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of the end of one curtain on the seam, the same he did on the edge of the end curtain of the second on the seam.

12 Fifty loops he made on one curtain, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain on the seam of the second; the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty hooks of gold, and joined the curtains to each other with the hooks, and the Mishkan became one.

14 And he made curtains of goats' hair for the Tent over the Mishkan, he made eleven curtains.

15 The length of each curtain was thirty ammah, and the width of each curtain four ammah, the eleven curtains having one measure.

16 And he joined five curtains by themselves and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops on the edge of the end curtain in one, and fifty loops he made on the edge of the curtain joining the second.

18 And he made fifty bronze hooks to join the Tent, to be one.

19 And he made a covering for the Tent of rams' skins, dyed red, and a covering of fine leather above that.

20 And for the Mishkan he made boards of acacia wood, standing up.

21 The length of each board was ten ammah, and the width of each board an ammah and a half.

22 Each board had two tenons for binding one to another. So he did to all the boards of the Mishkan.

23 And he made boards for the Mishkan, twenty boards for the south side.

24 And he made forty sockets of silver to go under the twenty boards, and two sockets under each of the boards for its two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the Mishkan, for the north side, he made twenty boards,

26 and their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under the one board, and two sockets under the other board.

27 And he made six boards for the west side of the Mishkan.

28 And he made two boards for the two back corners of the Mishkan.

29 And they were double beneath, and similarly they were complete to the top by one ring. So he did to both of them for the two corners.

30 And there were eight boards, and their silver sockets, sixteen sockets, two sockets under each of the boards.

31 And he made bars of acacia wood, five for the boards on one side of the Mishkan, 32 and five bars for the boards on the other side of the Mishkan, and five bars for the boards of the Mishkan at the rear, westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to pass through the boards from one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and their rings he made of gold to be holders for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 And he made a veil of blue and purple and scarlet, and fine worked linen. It was made with kerubim, the work of a skilled workman.

36 And he made four columns of acacia wood for it, and overlaid them with gold, with their hooks of gold. And he cast four sockets of silver for them.

37 And he made a covering for the Tent door of blue and purple and scarlet and fine woven linen, made by a weaver, 38 and its five columns with their hooks. And he overlaid their tops and their rings with gold, but their five sockets were of bronze.

37 And Betsal'el made the ark of acacia wood, two and a half ammah long, and an ammah and a half wide, and an ammah and a half high.

2 And he overlaid it with clean gold inside and outside, and made a moulding of gold all around it.

3 And he cast four rings of gold for it, for its four feet, two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side.

4 And he made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the poles into the rings at the sides of the ark, to lift the ark.

6 And he made a lid of atonement of clean gold, two and a half ammah long and an ammah and a half wide.

7 And he made two kerubim of beaten gold. He made them from the two ends of the lid of atonement,

8 one keruḅ at one end on this side, and the other keruḅ at the other end on that side. He made the keruḅim from the lid of atonement, from the two ends.

9 And the keruḅim spread out their wings above, and covered the lid of atonement with their wings, with their faces toward each other, the faces of the keruḅim were toward the lid of atonement.

10 And he made the table of acacia wood, two ammah long, and an ammah wide, and an ammah and a half high.

11 And he overlaid it with clean gold, and made a moulding of gold all around it.

12 And he made a rim, a tophaḥ all around, and made a moulding of gold for the rim all around it.

13 And he cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings on the four corners that were at its four legs.

14 The rings were next to the rim, as holders for the poles to lift the table.

15 And he made the poles of acacia wood to lift the table, and overlaid them with gold.

16 And he made the utensils which were on the table, its dishes, and its cups, and its bowls, and its jars for pouring, of clean gold.

17 And he made the lampstand of clean gold. He made the lampstand of beaten work, its base, and its shaft, its cups, its ornamental knobs, and its blossoms were from it.

18 And six branches came out of its sides: three branches of the lampstand out of one side, and three branches of the lampstand out of the other side.

19 There were three cups like almond flowers on one branch, with ornamental knob and blossom, and three cups like almond flowers on the other branch, a knob and a blossom - so for the six branches coming out of the lampstand.

20 And on the lampstand were four cups like almond flowers, its knobs and blossoms,

21 and a knob under the first two branches of the same, and a knob under the second two branches of the same, and a knob under the third two branches of the same, for the six branches coming out of it.

22 Their knobs and their branches were of it, all of it was one beaten work of clean gold.

23 And he made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its trays, of clean gold.

24 He made it of a kiḳar of clean gold, and all its utensils.

25 And he made the incense altar of acacia wood, an ammah long and an ammah wide, square, and two ammah high. Its horns were of it.

26 And he overlaid it with clean gold, its top and its sides all around, and its horns. And he made a moulding for it of gold all around it.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under its moulding, at its two corners on both sides, as holders for the poles with which to lift it.

28 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the qodesh anointing oil and the clean incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the perfumer.

38 And he made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, five ammah long and five ammah wide, square, and three ammah high.

2 And he made its horns on its four corners, the horns were of it. And he overlaid it with bronze.

3 And he made all the utensils for the altar: the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, and the forks, and the fire holders. He made all its utensils of bronze.

4 And he made a grating for the altar, a bronze network, under its rim, midway from the bottom.

5 And he cast four rings for the four corners of the bronze grating, as holders for the poles.

6 And he made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with bronze.

7 And he put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to lift it. He made the altar hollow with boards.

8 And he made the basin of bronze and its stand of bronze, from the bronze mirrors of the serving women who did service at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

9 And he made the courtyard: for the south side the screens of the courtyard were of fine woven linen, one hundred ammah long,

10 their twenty columns and their twenty sockets, of bronze. The hooks of the columns and their bands were of silver.

11 And for the north side the screens were one hundred ammah long, their twenty columns and their twenty sockets, of bronze. The hooks of the columns and their bands were of silver.

12 And for the west side there were screens of fifty ammah, their ten columns and their ten sockets. The hooks of the columns and their bands were of silver.

13 And for the east side eastward, fifty ammah:

14 fifteen ammah of screens on the one side, with their three columns and their three sockets,

15 and fifteen ammah of screens the other side of the courtyard gate, on this side and that side, with their three columns and their three sockets.

16 All the screens of the courtyard all around were of fine woven linen.

17 And the sockets for the columns were of bronze, the hooks of the columns and their bands were of silver, and the overlay of their tops was of silver. And all the columns of the courtyard had bands of silver.

18 And the covering for the gate of the courtyard was the work of an embroiderer, of blue and purple and scarlet, and of fine woven linen, and twenty ammah long, and the height along its width was five ammah, corresponding to the screens of the courtyard.

19 And the columns were four, and their sockets of bronze four, their hooks were of silver, and the overlay of their tops and their bands was of silver.

20 And all the pegs of the Mishkan, and of the courtyard all around, were of bronze.

21 These were the appointments of the Mishkan, the Mishkan of the Witness, which was appointed by the command of Mosheh, for the service of the Lěwites, by the hand of Ithamar, son of Aharon the kohēn.

22 And Betsal'ěl son of Uri, son of H̄ur, of the tribe of Yahudāh, made all that אִתְּכֶם had commanded Mosheh.

23 And with him: Oholiab̄ son of Aḥisamaḳ, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and designer, an embroiderer in blue and purple and scarlet, and in fine linen.

24 All the gold prepared for the work, in all the work of the qodesh place - and it was the gold of the wave offering - came to be twenty-nine kiḳars and seven hundred and thirty sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place.

25 And the silver from the ones counted of the congregation was one hundred kiḳars and one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place:

26 a beqa, half a sheqel for a head, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, for everyone passing over to those counted, from twenty years old and above, for six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

27 And the hundred kiqars of silver were for casting the sockets of the qodesh place and the bases of the veil: one hundred sockets from the hundred kiqars, a kiqar for each socket.

28 And of the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-five he made hooks for the columns, and overlaid their tops, and made bands for them.

29 And the bronze of the wave offering was seventy kiqars and two thousand four hundred sheqels.

30 And with it he made the sockets for the door of the Tent of Appointment, and the bronze altar, and the bronze grating for it, and all the utensils for the altar,
31 and the sockets for the courtyard all around, and the bases for the courtyard gate, and all the pegs for the Mishkan, and all the pegs for the courtyard all around.

39 And of the blue and purple and scarlet they made woven garments, to do service in the qodesh place. And they made the qodesh garments which were for Aharon, as אִרְבָּע had commanded Mosheh.

2 And he made the shoulder garment of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet, and of fine woven linen.

3 And they beat out sheets of gold and cut it into threads, to work it in with the blue and purple and scarlet, and the fine linen, the work of a skilled workman.

4 They made shoulder pieces for it to join it, it was joined at its two edges.

5 And the embroidered band of his shoulder garment that was on it was of the same work of gold, and blue and purple and scarlet, and of fine woven linen, as אֶרְאֵל had commanded Mosheh.

6 And they made the shoham stones, placed in plated work of gold, engraved as signets are engraved, according to the names of the sons of Yisra'ël.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the shoulder garment, stones of remembrance for the sons of Yisra'ël, as אֶרְאֵל had commanded Mosheh.

8 And he made the breastplate, a work of a skilled workman, like the work of the shoulder garment, of gold, of blue and purple and scarlet, and of fine woven linen.

9 It was square, they made the breastplate double, its length a zereth, its width a zereth, doubled.

10 And they filled it with four rows of stones: a row of ruby, a topaz, and an emerald was the first row;

11 and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire, and a diamond;

12 and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst;

13 and the fourth row a beryl, a shoham, and a jasper - placed in plated work of gold in their mountings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the sons of Yisra'ël, twelve according to their names, engraved like a signet, each one with its own name according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made braided chains of corded work for the breastplate at the ends, of clean gold.

16 And they made two mountings of gold and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two cords of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two cords they fastened in the two mountings, and put them on the shoulder pieces of the shoulder garment in the front.

19 And they made two rings of gold and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the edge of it, which was on the inward side of the shoulder garment.

20 And they made two gold rings and put them on the two shoulder pieces, underneath the shoulder garment, on the front of it, close to its seam above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment.

21 And they bound the breastplate by means of its rings to the rings of the shoulder garment with a blue cord, so that it would be above the embroidered band of the shoulder garment, and that the breastplate would not come loose from the shoulder garment, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

22 And he made the robe of the shoulder garment of woven work, all of blue.

23 And the opening of the robe was in the middle, like the opening in scaled armour, with a woven binding all around the opening, so that it would not tear.

24 And they made on the hem of the robe pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet, twined.

25 And they made bells of clean gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates on the hem of the robe all around between the pomegranates:

26 a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the robe, for the service, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

27 And they made the long shirt of fine linen, the work of a weaver, for Aharon and his sons,

28 and a turban of fine linen, and the turban ornaments of fine linen, and short trousers of fine woven linen,

29 and a girdle of fine woven linen with blue and purple and scarlet, the work of an embroiderer, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

30 And they made the plate of the qodesh sign of dedication of clean gold, and wrote on it an inscription like the engraving of a signet: QODESHAH TO אֱלֹהִים.

31 And they put on it a blue cord, to fasten it above on the turban, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

32 And all the work of the Mishkan of the Tent of Appointment was completed. And the children of Yisra'el did according to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh, so they did.

33 And they brought the Mishkan to Mosheh, the Tent and all its furnishings, its hooks, its boards, its bars, and its columns, and its sockets,

34 and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of fine leather, and the veil of the covering,

35 the ark of the Witness with its poles, and the lid of atonement,

36 the table, and all its utensils, and the showbread,

37 the clean lampstand with its lamps, the lamps to be put in order, and all its utensils, and the oil for light,

38 and the altar of gold, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the covering for the Tent door,

39 the bronze altar and its bronze grating, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin with its stand,

40 the screens of the courtyard, its columns and its sockets, the covering for the courtyard gate, its cords, and its pegs, and all the utensils for the service of the Mishkan, for the Tent of Appointment,

41 the woven garments, to do service in the qodesh place: the qodesh garments for Aharon the kohēn, and his sons' garments, to serve as kohenim.

42 According to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh, so the children of Yisra'el did all the work.

43 And Mosheh looked over all the work and saw they did it as אֱלֹהִים had commanded, so they had done. And Mosheh barak<sub>u</sub> them.

40 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “On the first day of the first month, you are to raise up the Mishkan of the Tent of Appointment,

3 and shall put in it the ark of the Witness, and screen the ark with the veil.

4 “And you shall bring in the table and arrange what belongs on it, and bring in the lampstand and light its lamps.

5 “And you shall put the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the Witness, and put up the covering of the door to the Mishkan.

6 “And you shall put the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the Mishkan of the Tent of Appointment,

7 and shall put the basin between the Tent of Appointment and the altar, and shall put water therein.

8 “And you shall put up the courtyard all around, and shall place the covering of the courtyard gate,

9 and shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the Mishkan and all that is in it, and shall qadosh it and all its utensils, and it shall be qodesh.

10 “And you shall anoint the altar of the burnt offering and all its utensils, and qadosh the altar, and the altar shall be most qodesh.

11 “And you shall anoint the basin and its stand, and qadosh it.

12 “And you shall bring Aharon and his sons to the door of the Tent of Appointment and wash them with water.

13 “And you shall put the qodesh garments on Aharon, and anoint him and qadosh him to serve as kohēn to Me.

14 “And you shall bring his sons and put long shirts on them,

15 and shall anoint them, as you anointed their father, and they shall serve as kohenim to Me. And their anointing shall be for them an everlasting kehunnah throughout their generations.”

16 And Mosheh did according to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, so he did.

17 And it came to be in the first month of the second year, on the first day of the month, that the Mishkan was raised up.

18 And Mosheh raised up the Mishkan and placed its sockets, and put up its boards, and put in its bars, and raised up its columns, 19 and spread the Tent over the Mishkan and put the covering of the Tent on top of it, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

20 And he took the Witness and put it into the ark, and he put the poles through the rings of the ark, and put the lid of atonement on top of the ark,

21 and brought the ark into the Mishkan, and placed the veil of the covering to screen off the ark of the Witness, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

22 And he put the table in the Tent of Appointment, on the north side of the Mishkan, outside the veil, 23 and put the bread in order upon it before אֱלֹהִים, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

24 And he put the lampstand in the Tent of Appointment, opposite the table, on the south side of the Mishkan,

25 and lit the lamps before אֱלֹהִים, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

26 And he put the gold altar in the Tent of Appointment in front of the veil, 27 and burned sweet incense on it, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

28 And he put up the covering to the door of the Mishkan.

29 And he put the altar of burnt offering before the door of the Mishkan of the Tent of Appointment, and offered upon it the burnt offering and the grain offering, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

30 And he put the basin between the Tent of Appointment and the altar, and put water therein for washing.

31 And Mosheh, and Aharon, and his sons washed their hands and their feet with water from it.

32 As they went into the Tent of Appointment, and as they came near the altar, they would wash, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

33 And he raised up the courtyard all around the Mishkan and the altar, and placed the covering of the courtyard gate. And Mosheh completed the work.

34 And the cloud covered the Tent of Appointment, and the esteem of אֱלֹהִים filled the Mishkan.

35 And Mosheh was not able to come into the Tent of Appointment, because the cloud dwelt on it, and the esteem of אֱלֹהִים filled the Mishkan.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from above the Mishkan, the children of Yisra'el went onward in all their journeys.

37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not depart till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of אֶרְבֶּבֶת was on the Mishkan by day, and fire was on it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Yisra'el, in all their journeys.

WAYYIQRA

וַיִּקְרָא אֱלֹהִים

1 And אֱלֹהִים called to Mosheh, and spoke to him from the Tent of Appointment, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, and say to them, ‘When anyone of you brings an offering to אֱלֹהִים, you bring your offering of the livestock, of the herd or of the flock.

3 ‘If his offering is a burnt offering of the herd, let him bring a male, a perfect one. Let him bring it at the door of the Tent of Appointment, for his acceptance before אֱלֹהִים.

4 ‘And he shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

5 ‘And he shall slaughter the bull before אֱלֹהִים. And the sons of Aharon, the kohanim, shall bring the blood and sprinkle the blood all around on the altar which is at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

6 ‘And he shall skin the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces.

7 ‘And the sons of Aharon the kohēn shall put fire on the altar, and lay the wood in order on the fire.

8 ‘And the sons of Aharon, the kohanim, shall arrange the pieces, with the head and the fat on the wood which is on the fire on the altar.

9 ‘But its entrails and its legs he washes with water. And the kohēn shall burn all of it on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

10 ‘And if his offering is from the flock, from the sheep or from the goats as a burnt offering, let him bring a male, a perfect one.

11 'And he shall slaughter it on the north side of the altar before אֱלֹהִים. And the sons of Aharon, the kohenim, shall sprinkle its blood on the altar all around.

12 'And he shall cut it into its pieces, with its head and its fat, and the kohēn shall arrange them on the wood which is on the fire on the altar.

13 'But the entrails and the legs he washes with water. And the kohēn shall bring it all and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

14 'And if the burnt offering of his offering to אֱלֹהִים is of birds, then he shall bring his offering of turtledoves or young pigeons.

15 'And the kohēn shall bring it to the altar, and shall wring off its head, and burn it on the altar, and its blood shall be drained out at the side of the altar.

16 'And he shall remove its crop with its feathers and throw it beside the altar on the east side, into the place for ashes.

17 'And he shall split it at its wings, but not sever it. And the kohēn shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

2 'And when anyone brings a grain offering to אֱלֹהִים, his offering is to be of fine flour. And he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it,

2 and he shall bring it to the sons of Aharon, the kohenim, and he shall take from it his hand filled with fine flour and oil with all the frankincense. And the kohēn shall burn it as a remembrance portion on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

3 'And the rest of the grain offering is for Aharon and his sons, most qodesh of the offerings to אֱלֹהִים by fire.

4 'And so you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened thin cakes anointed with oil.

5 'But if your offering is a grain offering on the griddle, it is of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil.

6 'Divide it into bits and pour oil on it, it is a grain offering.

7 'And if your offering is a grain offering, in a stewing-pot, it is made of fine flour with oil.

8 'And you shall bring to אֱלֹהִים the grain offering that is made of these, and shall present it to the kohēn, and he shall bring it to the altar.

9 'And the kohēn shall take from the grain offering a remembrance portion, and burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

10 'And the rest of the grain offering is for Aharon and his sons, most qodesh of the offerings to אֱלֹהִים made by fire.

11 'No grain offering which you bring to אֱלֹהִים is made with leaven, for you do not burn any leaven or any honey in an offering to אֱלֹהִים made by fire.

12 'Bring them to אֱלֹהִים as an offering of the first-fruits, but they are not burned on the altar for a sweet fragrance.

13 'And season with salt every offering of your grain offering, and do not allow the salt of the Covenant of your Elohim to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings you bring salt.

14 'And if you bring a grain offering of your first-fruits to אֱלֹהִים, bring for the grain offering of your first-fruits green heads of grain roasted on the fire, crushed heads of new grain.

15 'And you shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it. It is a grain offering.

16 'And the kohēn shall burn the remembrance portion, from its crushed grain and from its oil, with all the frankincense, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

3 'And if that which he presents is a peace offering, if he is bringing it of the herd, whether male or female, he brings a perfect one before אֱלֹהִים.

2 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and slaughter it at the door of the Tent of Appointment. And the sons of Aharon, the kohēnim, shall sprinkle the blood on the altar all around.

3 'And from the peace offering he shall bring an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

4 and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them by the loins, and the appendage on the liver which he removes with the kidneys.

5 'And the sons of Aharon shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt offering, which is on the wood, which is on the fire, as an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

6 'And if that which he presents is from the flock, for a peace offering to אֱלֹהִים, male or female, he brings a perfect one.

7 'If he is bringing a lamb as his offering, then he shall bring it before אֱלֹהִים,

8 and shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Appointment, and the sons of Aharon shall sprinkle its blood on the altar round about.

9 'And from the peace offering he shall bring near - as an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים - its fat, all the fat tail which he removes close to the backbone, and the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

10 and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the loins, and the appendage on the liver, which he removes with the kidneys.

11 'And the kohēn shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

12 'And if his offering is a goat, then he shall bring it before אֱלֹהִים,

13 and shall lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the Tent of Appointment. And the sons of Aharon shall sprinkle its blood on the altar all around.

14 'And from it he shall bring his offering, as an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat that is on the entrails,

15 and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the loins, and the appendage on the liver, which he removes with the kidneys.

16 'And the kohēn shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire for a sweet fragrance. All the fat belongs to אֱלֹהִים.

17 'An everlasting Law throughout your generations in all your dwellings: you do not eat any fat or any blood.' "

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el, saying, 'When a being sins by mistake against any of the Commands of אֱלֹהִים, which are not to be done, and shall do any of them:

3 'If the anointed kohēn sins, bringing guilt on the people, then he shall bring to אֱלֹהִים for his sin which he has sinned a young bull, a perfect one, as a sin offering,

4 and he shall bring the bull to the door of the Tent of Appointment before אֶת־אֵלֹהִים, and shall lay his hand on the bull's head, and slaughter the bull before אֶת־אֵלֹהִים.

5 'And the anointed kohēn shall take some of the bull's blood and bring it to the Tent of Appointment,
6 and the kohēn shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before אֶת־אֵלֹהִים, in front of the veil of the qodesh place.

7 'And the kohēn shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before אֶת־אֵלֹהִים, which is in the Tent of Appointment, and pour all the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

8 'Then he takes all the fat of the bull as the sin offering, the fat that covers the entrails and all the fat which is on the entrails,

9 and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the loins, and the appendage on the liver, which he removes with the kidneys,

10 as it was taken from the bull of the peace offering. And the kohēn shall burn them on the altar of the burnt offering.

11 'But the skin of the bull, and all its flesh, with its head and legs, its entrails and dung -

12 all of the bull - he shall bring outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire. Where the ashes are poured out it is burned.

13 'And if the entire congregation of Yisra'el strays by mistake, and the matter has been hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the Commands of אֶת־אֵלֹהִים which are not to be done, and shall be guilty,

14 when the sin which they have sinned becomes known, then the assembly shall bring a young bull for the sin, and bring it before the Tent of Appointment.

15 'And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before אֱלֹהִים, and the bull shall be slaughtered before אֱלֹהִים.

16 'And the anointed kohēn shall bring some of the bull's blood to the Tent of Appointment,

17 and the kohēn shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle it seven times before אֱלֹהִים, in front of the veil,

18 and put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before אֱלֹהִים, which is in the Tent of Appointment, and pour all the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

19 'Then he takes all the fat from it and shall burn it on the altar.

20 'And he shall do with the bull as he did with the bull as a sin offering - so shall he do it. And the kohēn shall make atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 'And he shall bring the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is a sin offering for the assembly.

22 'When a ruler sins, and by mistake has done any of the Commands of אֱלֹהִים his Elohim which are not to be done, and shall be guilty,

23 or if his sin which he has sinned is made known to him, then he shall bring as his offering a buck of the goats, a male, a perfect one.

24 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and slaughter it at the place where they slaughter the burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים. It is a sin offering.

25 'And the kohēn shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering,

26 and burn all its fat on the altar, like the fat of the slaughtering of the peace offering. And the kohēn shall make atonement for him for his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 'And if any being of the people of the land sins by mistake by doing any of the Commands of אִשְׁתִּימֵךְ which are not to be done, and shall be guilty,

28 or if his sin which he has sinned shall be made known to him, then he shall bring as his offering a female goat, a perfect one, for his sin which he has sinned.

29 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and slaughter the sin offering at the place of the burnt offering.

30 'And the kohēn shall take some of its blood with his finger, and shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the blood at the base of the altar,

31 then remove all its fat, as fat is removed from the slaughtering of the peace offering. And the kohēn shall burn it on the altar for a sweet fragrance to אִשְׁתִּימֵךְ. And the kohēn shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 'And if he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he brings a female, a perfect one.

33 'And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and slaughter it as a sin offering at the place where they slaughter the burnt offering.

34 'And the kohēn shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and shall put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and pour all the blood at the base of the altar.

35 'Then he removes all its fat, as the fat of the lamb is removed from the slaughtering of the peace offering. And the kohēn shall burn it on the altar, according to the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. So the kohēn shall make atonement for his sin that he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

5 'And when a being sins in that he has heard the voice of swearing, and is a witness, or has seen, or has known, but does not reveal it, he shall bear his wickedness.

2 'Or when a being touches any unclean matter, or the carcass of an unclean beast, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping creatures, and it has been hidden from him, he is unclean and guilty.

3 'Or when he touches uncleanness of man, any of his uncleanness by which he is unclean, and it has been hidden from him, when he shall know it, then he shall be guilty.

4 'Or when a being swears, speaking rashly with his lips to do evil or to do good, whatever it is that a man swears rashly with an oath, and it has been hidden from him, when he shall know it, then he shall be guilty of one of these.

5 'And it shall be, when he is guilty of one of these, that he shall confess that in which he has sinned,

6 and shall bring his guilt offering to אֱלֹהִים for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a female goat as a sin offering. And the kohēn shall make atonement for him, for his sin.

7 'And if he is unable to bring a lamb, then he shall bring to אֱלֹהִים, he who has sinned, two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

8 'And he shall bring them to the kohēn, who shall bring near that which is for the sin offering first, and wring off its head from its neck, but not sever it.

9 'And he shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.

10 'And he shall prepare the second as a burnt offering according to the Right-Ruling, and the kohēn shall make atonement for him, for his sin which he has sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 'But if he is unable to bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, then he who sinned shall bring for his offering one-tenth of an ĕphah of fine flour as a sin offering. He puts no oil on it, nor does he put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering.

12 'And he shall bring it to the kohēn, and the kohēn shall take his hand filled with it as a remembrance portion, and burn it on the altar according to the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. It is a sin offering.

13 'And the kohēn shall make atonement for him, for his sin that he has sinned in any of these, and it shall be forgiven him. And it shall be the kohēn's, like a grain offering.' "

14 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

15 "When a being commits a trespass, and has sinned by mistake against the qodesh matters of אֱלֹהִים, then he shall bring to אֱלֹהִים as his guilt offering a ram, a perfect one, from the flock, with your valuation in sheqels of silver according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, as a guilt offering.

16 "And he shall make good for the sin that he has done against that which is qodesh, and shall add one-fifth to it and give it to the kohēn. And the kohēn shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 “And when any being sins, and has done what is not to be done, any of the Commands of אֱלֹהִים, though he knew it not, yet he shall be guilty and shall bear his wickedness.

18 “Then he shall bring to the kohēn a ram, a perfect one, from the flock, with your valuation, as a guilt offering. And the kohēn shall make atonement for his mistake he committed unintentionally, though he did not know it, and it shall be forgiven him -

19 it is a guilt offering, he was truly guilty before אֱלֹהִים.”

6 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “When any being sins, and committed a trespass against אֱלֹהִים, and has lied to his neighbour about a deposit, or about a pledge, or about a robbery, or shall extort from his neighbour,

3 or has found what was lost and has lied concerning it, or sworn falsely, so that he sins in regard to any one of all these that a man does,

4 then it shall be, when he sins, and shall be guilty, that he shall return what he took by robbery, or what he has extorted, or the deposit which was deposited with him, or the lost item which he found,

5 or all that about which he swore falsely. He shall repay its total value, add one-fifth more to it, and give it to whom it belongs, on the day of his guilt offering.

6 “Then he brings his guilt offering to אֱלֹהִים, a ram, a perfect one, from the flock, with your valuation, as a guilt offering, to the kohēn.

7 “And the kohēn shall make atonement for him before אֱלֹהִים, and he shall be forgiven for whatever he did that made him guilty.”

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

9 “Command Aharon and his sons, saying, ‘This is the Torah of the burnt offering: This is the burnt offering, because it is burned on the altar all night until morning, and the fire of the altar is kept burning on it.

10 ‘And the kohēn shall put on his linen garment, and put his linen trousers on his body, and shall take up the ashes of the burnt offering which the fire has consumed on the altar, and shall put them beside the altar.

11 ‘And he shall take off his garments, and put on other garments, and shall bring the ashes outside the camp to a clean place.

12 ‘And the fire on the altar is kept burning on it, it is not put out. And the kohēn shall burn wood on it every morning, and arrange the burnt offering on it, and shall burn on it the fat of the peace offerings -

13 fire is continually kept burning on the altar, it is not put out.

14 ‘And this is the Torah of the grain offering: The sons of Aharon shall bring it near before אֱלֹהִים, in front of the altar,

15 and shall take from it with his hand from the fine flour of the grain offering, and from its oil, and all the frankincense which is on the grain offering, and shall burn it on the altar for a sweet fragrance, as its remembrance portion to אֱלֹהִים.

16 ‘Then Aharon and his sons eat the rest of it. It is eaten with unleavened bread, in the qodesh place. They eat it in the courtyard of the Tent of Appointment.

17 'It is not baked with leaven. I have given it to them as their portion of My offerings made by fire, it is most qodesh, like the sin offering and the guilt offering.

18 'All the males among the children of Aharon eat it - a Law forever in your generations concerning the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. All that touches them is to be qodesh.' "

19 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

20 "This is the offering of Aharon and his sons, which they bring near to אֱלֹהִים, beginning on the day when he is anointed: one-tenth of an ĕphah of fine flour as a daily grain offering, half of it in the morning and half of it at night.

21 "It is made on a griddle with oil. Bring it in mixed, bring the baked portions of the grain offering near, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

22 "And the anointed kohĕn from among his sons, who is in his place, prepares it - a Law forever to אֱלֹהִים. All of it has to be burned,

23 and every grain offering for the kohĕn is completely burned, it is not eaten."

24 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

25 "Speak to Aharon and to his sons, saying, 'This is the Torah of the sin offering: In the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, the sin offering is slaughtered before אֱלֹהִים, it is most qodesh.

26 'The kohĕn who is making atonement eats it, in the qodesh place it is eaten, in the courtyard of the Tent of Appointment.

27 'All that touches its flesh is to be qodesh. And when its blood is sprinkled on any garment, you wash that on which it was sprinkled, in a qodesh place.

28 'But the earthen vessel in which it is cooked is to be broken. And if it is cooked in a bronze pot, then it is scoured and rinsed in water.

29 'Every male among the kohenim eats it, it is most qodesh.

30 'And no sin offering from which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Appointment, to make atonement in the qodesh place, is eaten, it is burned with fire.

7 'And this is the Torah of the guilt offering - it is most qodesh.

2 'The guilt offering is slaughtered in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering, and its blood is sprinkled on the altar all around.

3 'Then he brings from it all its fat: the fat tail and the fat that covers the entrails,

4 and the two kidneys and the fat that is on them by the loins, and the appendage on the liver, which he removes with the kidneys.

5 'And the kohēn shall burn them on the altar as an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. It is a guilt offering.

6 'Every male among the kohenim eats it. It is eaten in the qodesh place, it is most qodesh.

7 'The guilt offering is like the sin offering, there is one Torah for them both: the kohēn who makes atonement with it, it is his.

8 'And the kohēn who brings anyone's burnt offering, the skin of the burnt offering which he has brought is the kohēn's, it is his.

9 'And every grain offering that is baked in the oven and all that is prepared in the stewing-pot, or on a griddle, is the kohēn's who brings it, it is his.

10 'And every grain offering mixed with oil, or dry, is for all the sons of Aharon, for all alike.

11 'And this is the Torah of the slaughtering of peace offerings which is brought to אֱלֹהִים:

12 'If he brings it for a thanksgiving, then he shall bring with the slaughtering of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened thin cakes anointed with oil, or cakes of finely blended flour mixed with oil.

13 'Besides the cakes, he brings as his offering leavened bread together with the slaughtering of thanksgiving of his peace offering.

14 'And from it he shall bring one cake from each offering as a contribution to אֲרָאֵל: to the kohēn who sprinkles the blood of the peace offering, it is his.

15 'As for the flesh of the slaughtering of his peace offering for thanksgiving, it is eaten the same day it is offered, he does not leave any of it until morning.

16 'And if the offering he brings is a vow or a voluntary offering, it is eaten the same day that he brings his slaughtering, and what is left of it is eaten the next day,

17 but whatever is left of the flesh of the slaughtering on the third day is burned with fire.

18 'However, if any of the flesh of his peace offering is eaten at all on the third day, it is not accepted. It is not reckoned to him who brings it, it is unclean to him, and the being who eats of it bears his wickedness.

19 'And the flesh that touches that which is unclean is not eaten, it is burned with fire. And as for the clean flesh, all who are clean eat of it.

20 'But the being who eats the flesh of the peace offering that belongs to אֲרָאֵל, while he is unclean, that being shall be cut off from his people.

21 'And when a being who touches that which is unclean, of the uncleanness of man, or of the uncleanness of beast, or of any unclean swarming creature, and shall eat the flesh of the peace offering that belongs to אֱלֹהִים, that being shall be cut off from his people.’ ”

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

23 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘Do not eat any fat, of bull or sheep or goat.

24 ‘And the fat of a dead body, and the fat of what is torn, is used for any purpose, but you do not eat it at all.

25 ‘For whoever eats the fat of the beast of which men bring as an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, even the being who eats it shall be cut off from his people.

26 ‘And do not eat any blood in any of your dwellings, of bird or of beast.

27 ‘Any being who eats any blood, even that being shall be cut off from his people.’ ”

28 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

29 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘He who brings his peace offering to אֱלֹהִים brings his offering to אֱלֹהִים from the slaughtering of his peace offering.

30 ‘With his own hands he brings the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. He brings the fat with the breast, to be waved as a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים.

31 ‘And the kohēn shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast shall be Aharon’s and his sons.’

32 ‘And the right thigh you give to the kohēn as a contribution from your peace offerings.

33 ‘He among the sons of Aharon, who brings the blood of the peace offering, and the fat, the right thigh is his for a portion.

34 ‘For the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution I have taken from the children of Yisra’ël, from their peace offerings, and I give them to Aharon the kohēn and to his sons, as a Law forever, from the children of Yisra’ël.’ ”

35 This is the anointed portion for Aharon and the anointed portion for his sons, from the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, on the day when Mosheh presented them to serve as kohenim to אֱלֹהִים,

36 which אֱלֹהִים commanded to be given to them by the children of Yisra'el, on the day that He anointed them, a Law forever throughout their generations.

37 This is the Torah of the burnt offering, of the grain offering, and of the sin offering, and of the guilt offering, and of the ordinations, and of the peace offering,

38 which אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh on Mount Sinai, on the day when He commanded the children of Yisra'el to bring their offerings to אֱלֹהִים, in the Wilderness of Sinai.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Take Aharon and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread,

3 and assemble all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Appointment.”

4 And Mosheh did as אֱלֹהִים commanded him, and the congregation was assembled at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

5 And Mosheh said to the congregation, “This is the Word אֱלֹהִים commanded to be done.”

6 So Mosheh brought Aharon and his sons and washed them with water,

7 and put the long shirt on him, and girded him with the girdle, and dressed him in the robe, and put the shoulder garment on him, and girded him with the embroidered band of the shoulder garment, and with it tied the shoulder garment on him,

8 and put the breastplate on him, and put the Urim and the Tummim in the breastplate,
9 and put the turban on his head. And on the turban, on its front, he put the golden plate, the qodesh sign of dedication, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.
10 And Mosheh took the anointing oil and anointed the Mishkan and all that was in it, and qadosh them.
11 And he sprinkled some of it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the basin and its base, to qadosh them.
12 And he poured some of the anointing oil on Aharon's head and anointed him, to qadosh him.
13 And Mosheh brought the sons of Aharon and put long shirts on them, and girded them with girdles, and put turbans on them, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.
14 And he brought the bull for the sin offering, and Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull for the sin offering,
15 and it was slaughtered. And Mosheh took the blood, and put some on the horns of the altar all around with his finger, and cleansed the altar. And he poured the blood at the base of the altar, and qadosh it, to make atonement for it.
16 And he took all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage on the liver, and the two kidneys with their fat, and Mosheh burned them on the altar.
17 And the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.
18 And he brought the ram of the burnt offering, and Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram,
19 and it was slaughtered. And Mosheh sprinkled the blood on the altar all around,

20 and he cut the ram into pieces. And Mosheh burned the head, and the pieces, and the fat,

21 and he washed the entrails and the legs in water. And Mosheh burned the entire ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a sweet fragrance, and an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

22 And he brought the second ram, the ram of ordination, and Aharon and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram,

23 and it was slaughtered. And Mosheh took some of its blood and put it on the tip of Aharon's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought near the sons of Aharon, and Mosheh put some of the blood on the tips of their right ears, and on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. And Mosheh sprinkled the blood on the altar all around,

25 and took the fat and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the entrails, and the appendage on the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right thigh, 26 and from the basket of unleavened bread that was before אֱלֹהִים he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of bread anointed with oil, and one thin cake, and put them on the fat and on the right thigh,

27 and placed all these in the hands of Aharon and in the hands of his sons, and waved them as a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים.

28 Mosheh then took them from their hands and burned them on the altar, on the burnt offering. They were ordinations for a sweet fragrance. It was an offering by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

29 And Mosheh took the breast and waved it, a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים. It was Mosheh's portion of the ram of ordination, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

30 And Mosheh took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aharon, on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him. And he qadosh Aharon, his garments, and his sons, and the garments of his sons with him.

31 And Mosheh said to Aharon and his sons, "Cook the flesh at the door of the Tent of Appointment, and eat it there with the bread that is in the basket of the ordinations, as I have commanded, saying, 'Aharon and his sons are to eat it.'

32 "Then burn the rest of the flesh and the bread with fire.

33 "And do not go outside the door of the Tent of Appointment for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed - for He fills your hands for seven days.

34 "אֱלֹהִים has commanded to do, as He has done this day, to make atonement for you.

35 "And stay at the door of the Tent of Appointment day and night for seven days. And you shall guard the duty of אֱלֹהִים, and not die, for so I have been commanded."

36 And Aharon and his sons did all the words that אֱלֹהִים had commanded by the hand of Mosheh.

9 And on the eighth day it came to be that Mosheh called Aharon and his sons and the elders of Yisra'el.

2 And he said to Aharon, "Take for yourself a young bull as a sin offering and a ram as a burnt offering, a perfect one, and bring them before אֱלֹהִים.

3 “And speak to the children of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘Take a male goat as a sin offering, and a calf and a lamb, both a year old, perfect ones, as a burnt offering,

4 and a bull and a ram as peace offerings, to slaughter before אֱלֹהִים, and a grain offering mixed with oil. For today אֱלֹהִים shall appear to you.’”

5 And they took what Mosheh commanded before the Tent of Appointment, and all the congregation drew near and stood before אֱלֹהִים.

6 And Mosheh said, “This is the Word which אֱלֹהִים commanded you to do, so that the esteem of אֱלֹהִים appears to you.”

7 And Mosheh said to Aharon, “Go to the altar, and prepare your sin offering and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself and for the people. And make the offering of the people, and make atonement for them, as אֱלֹהִים has commanded.”

8 So Aharon came near to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sons of Aharon brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put it on the horns of the altar, and poured the blood at the base of the altar.

10 And the fat, and the kidneys, and the appendage on the liver of the sin offering he burned on the altar, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

11 And the flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp.

12 And he slaughtered the burnt offering, and the sons of Aharon presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled on the altar all around.

13 And they presented the burnt offering to him, with its pieces and head, and he burned them on the altar.

14 And he washed the entrails and the legs, and burnt them with the burned offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slaughtered it and made it a sin offering, like the first one.

16 And he brought the burnt offering and made it, according to the Right-Ruling.

17 He also brought the grain offering, and filled his hand with it, and burned it on the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning.

18 And he slaughtered the bull and the ram as peace offerings, which were for the people. And Aharon's sons presented to him the blood, which he sprinkled on the altar all around,

19 and the fat from the bull and the ram, the fat tail, and the covering, and the kidneys, and the appendage on the liver,

20 and they placed the fat on the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar.

21 But the breasts and the right thigh Aharon waved as a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים, as Mosheh had commanded.

22 Aharon then lifted up his hand toward the people and barak them, and came down from making the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

23 And Mosheh and Aharon went into the Tent of Appointment, and came out and barak the people.

And the esteem of אֱלֹהִים appeared to all the people,
 24 and fire came out from before אֱלֹהִים and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. And all the people saw and cried aloud and fell on their faces.

10 And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aharon, each took his fire holder and put fire in it, and put incense on it, and brought strange fire before אֱלֹהִים, which He had not commanded them.

2 And fire came out from אֱלֹהִים and consumed them, and they died before אֱלֹהִים.

3 Then Mosheh said to Aharon, "This is what אֱלֹהִים spoke, saying, 'By those who come near Me let Me be qodesh! And before all the people let Me be esteemed!' " And Aharon was silent.

4 And Mosheh called to Misha'el and to Eltsaphan, the sons of Uzzi'el the uncle of Aharon, and said to them, "Come near, take your brothers from before the qodesh place out of the camp."

5 So they came near and took them by their long shirts out of the camp, as Mosheh had said.

6 And Mosheh said to Aharon, and to El'azar and to Ithamar, his sons, "Do not unbind your heads nor tear your garments, lest you die, and wrath come upon all the people. But let your brothers, all the house of Yisra'el, bewail the burning which אֱלֹהִים has kindled.

7 "And do not go out from the door of the Tent of Appointment, lest you die, for the anointing oil of אֱלֹהִים is upon you." And they did according to the word of Mosheh.

8 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Aharon, saying,

9 "Do not drink wine or strong drink, you, nor your sons with you, when you go into the Tent of Appointment, lest you die - a Law forever throughout your generations,

10 so as to make a distinction between the qodesh and the profane, and between the unclean and the clean,

11 and to teach the children of Yisra'ël all the Laws which אֱלֹהִים has spoken to them by the hand of Mosheh.”

12 And Mosheh spoke to Aharon, and to El'azar and Ithamar, his sons who were left, “Take the grain offering that is left over from the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, and eat it without leaven beside the altar, for it is most qodesh.

13 “And you shall eat it in a qodesh place, because it is yours by law and your sons' by law, of the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, for so I have been commanded.

14 “And the breast of the wave offering and the thigh of the contribution you eat in a clean place, you, and your sons, and your daughters with you. For they are yours by law and your sons' by law, which are given from the slaughterings of peace offerings of the children of Yisra'ël.

15 “The thigh of the contribution and the breast of the wave offering they bring with the offerings of fat made by fire, to bring as a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים. And it shall be yours and your sons' with you, as a Law forever, as אֱלֹהִים has commanded.”

16 And Mosheh diligently looked for the goat of the sin offering and saw it was burned up. And he was wroth with El'azar and Ithamar, the sons of Aharon who were left, saying,

17 “Why have you not eaten the sin offering in a qodesh place, since it is most qodesh, and Elohim has given it to you to bear the wickedness of the congregation, to make atonement for them before אֱלֹהִים?

18 “See, its blood was not brought inside the qodesh place. You should have eaten it without fail in a qodesh place, as I have commanded.”

19 And Aharon said to Mosheh, “See, today they have brought their sin offering and their burnt offering before אֱלֹהִים, and these have come upon me! If I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים?”

20 And when Mosheh heard that, it was good in his eyes.

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying to them,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘These are the living creatures which you do eat among all the beasts that are on the earth:

3 ‘Whatever has a split hoof completely divided, chewing the cud, among the beasts, that you do eat.

4 ‘Only, these you do not eat among those that chew the cud or those that have a split hoof: the camel, because it chews the cud but does not have a split hoof, it is unclean to you;

5 and the rabbit, because it chews the cud but does not have a split hoof, it is unclean to you;

6 and the hare, because it chews the cud but does not have a split hoof, it is unclean to you;

7 and the pig, though it has a split hoof, completely divided, yet does not chew the cud, it is unclean to you.

8 ‘Their flesh you do not eat, and their carcasses you do not touch. They are unclean to you.

9 ‘These you do eat of all that are in the waters: any one that has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas or in the rivers, that you do eat.

10 ‘But all that have not fins and scales in the seas and in the rivers, all that move in the waters or any living creature which is in the waters, they are an abomination to you.

- 11 'They are an abomination to you - of their flesh you do not eat, and their carcasses you abominate.
- 12 'All that have not fins or scales in the waters is an abomination to you.
- 13 'And these you do abominate among the birds, they are not eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the vulture, and the black vulture,
- 14 and the hawk, and the falcon after its kind,
- 15 every raven after its kind,
- 16 and the ostrich, and the nighthawk, and the seagull, and the hawk after its kind,
- 17 and the little owl, and the fisher owl, and the great owl,
- 18 and the white owl, and the pelican, and the carrion vulture,
- 19 and the stork, the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.
- 20 'All flying insects that creep on all fours is an abomination to you.
- 21 'Only, these you do eat of every flying insect that creeps on all fours: those which have jointed legs above their feet with which to leap on the earth.
- 22 'These of them you do eat: the locust after its kind, and the destroying locust after its kind, and the cricket after its kind, and the grasshopper after its kind.
- 23 'But all other flying insects which have four feet is an abomination to you.
- 24 'And by these you are made unclean, anyone touching the carcass of any of them is unclean until evening,
- 25 and anyone picking up part of the carcass of any of them has to wash his garments, and shall be unclean until evening.

26 'Every beast that has a split hoof not completely divided, or does not chew the cud, is unclean to you. Anyone who touches their carcass is unclean.

27 'And whatever goes on its paws, among all the creatures that go on all fours, those are unclean to you. Anyone who touches their carcass is unclean until evening,

28 and he who picks up their carcass has to wash his garments, and shall be unclean until evening. They are unclean to you.

29 'And these are unclean to you among the creeping creatures that creep on the earth: the mole, and the mouse, and the tortoise after its kind,

30 and the gecko, and the land crocodile, and the sand reptile, and the sand lizard, and the chameleon.

31 'These are unclean to you among all that creep. Anyone who touches them when they are dead becomes unclean until evening.

32 'And whatever any of them in its dead state falls upon, becomes unclean, whether it is any wooden object or garment or skin or sack, any object in which work is done, it is put in water. And it shall be unclean until evening, then it shall be clean.

33 'Any earthen vessel into which any of them falls, whatever is in it becomes unclean, and you break it.

34 'Any of the food which might be eaten, on which water comes, becomes unclean, and any drink which might be drunk from it becomes unclean.

35 'And on whatever their carcass falls becomes unclean - an oven or cooking range - it is broken down. They are unclean, and are unclean to you.

36 'But a fountain or a well, a collection of water, is clean, but whatever touches their carcass is unclean.

37 'And when their carcass falls on any planting seed which is to be sown, it is clean.

38 'But when any water is put on the seed and any part of any such carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

39 'And when any of the beasts which are yours for food dies, he who touches its carcass becomes unclean until evening.

40 'And he who eats of its carcass has to wash his garments, and shall be unclean until evening. And he who picks up its carcass has to wash his garments, and shall be unclean until evening.

41 'And every creeping creature that creeps on the earth is an abomination, it is not eaten.

42 'Whatever crawls on its stomach, and whatever goes on all fours, and whatever has many feet among all creeping creatures that creep on the earth, these you do not eat, for they are an abomination.

43 'Do not make yourselves abominable with any creeping creature that creeps, and do not make yourselves unclean with them, lest you be defiled by them.

44 'For I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and you shall qadosh yourselves. And you shall be qodesh, for I am qodesh. And do not defile yourselves with any creeping creature that creeps on the earth.

45 'For I am אֱלֹהִים who is bringing you up out of the land of Mitsrayim, to be your Elohim. And you shall be qodesh, for I am qodesh.

46 'This is the Torah of the beasts and the birds and every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth,

47 to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living creature that is eaten and the living creature that is not eaten.' "

12 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘When a woman has conceived, and has given birth to a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days, as in the days of her monthly separation she is unclean.

3 ‘And on the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin is circumcised.

4 ‘And she remains in the blood of her cleansing thirty-three days. She does not touch whatever is qodesh, and she does not come into the Miqdash until the days of her cleansing are completed.

5 ‘But if she gives birth to a female child, then she shall be unclean for two weeks, as in her monthly separation, and she remains in the blood of her cleansing for sixty-six days.

6 ‘And when the days of her cleansing are completed, for a son or for a daughter, she brings to the kohēn a lamb a year old, as a burnt offering, and a young pigeon or a turtledove as a sin offering, to the door of the Tent of Appointment.

7 ‘And he shall bring it before אִיִּזְו, and make atonement for her, and she shall be cleansed from the flow of her blood. This is the Torah for her who has given birth to a male or a female.

8 ‘And if she is not able to bring a lamb, then she shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one as a burnt offering and the other as a sin offering. And the kohēn shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.’ ”

13 And אִיִּזְו spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying,

2 “When a man has on the skin of his body a swelling, a scab, or a bright spot, and it shall become on the skin of his body like a leprous infection, then he shall be brought to Aharon the kohēn or to one of his sons the kohenim.

3 “And the kohēn shall look at the infection on the skin of the body. And if the hair on the infection has turned white, and the infection appears to be deeper than the skin of his body, it is a leprous infection. And the kohēn shall look at him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 “But if the bright spot is white on the skin of his body, and does not appear to be deeper than the skin, and its hair has not turned white, then the kohēn shall shut up the infected one seven days.

5 “And the kohēn shall look at him on the seventh day and see, if the infection appears to be as it was, and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the kohēn shall shut him up another seven days.

6 “And the kohēn shall look at him again on the seventh day and see, if the infection has darkened, and the infection has not spread on the skin, then the kohēn shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab, and he shall wash his garments and be clean.

7 “But if the scab spreads further over the skin, after he has been seen by the kohēn for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the kohēn again.

8 “And the kohēn shall look and see, if the scab has spread on the skin, then the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, it is leprosy.

9 “When the infection of leprosy is on a man, then he shall be brought to the kohēn.

10 “And the kohēn shall look and see, if the swelling on the skin is white, and it has turned the hair white, and there is a spot of raw flesh in the swelling,

11 it is an old leprosy on the skin of his body, and the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean. He does not shut him up, for he is unclean.

- 12 “And if leprosy breaks out all over the skin, and the leprosy shall cover all the skin of the infected one, from his head to his foot, wherever the kohēn looks,
- 13 then the kohēn shall look and see, if the leprosy has covered all his body, he shall pronounce the infected one clean. It has all turned white, he is clean.
- 14 “But the day raw flesh appears on him, he is unclean.
- 15 “And the kohēn shall look at the raw flesh and pronounce him to be unclean - the raw flesh is unclean, it is leprosy.
- 16 “Or when the raw flesh changes and turns white again, he shall come to the kohēn.
- 17 “And the kohēn shall look at him and see, if the infection has turned white, then the kohēn shall pronounce the infected one clean, he is clean.
- 18 “And when the body has a boil in the skin, and it is healed,
- 19 and in the place of the boil there comes a white swelling or a bright spot, reddish-white, then it shall be seen by the kohēn.
- 20 “And the kohēn shall look and see, if it appears deeper than the skin, and its hair has turned white, the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, it is a leprous infection which has broken out of the boil.
- 21 “But if the kohēn looks at it and sees no white hairs in it, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the kohēn shall shut him up seven days;
- 22 and if it has spread further over the skin, then the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, it is a leprous infection.
- 23 “But if the bright spot stays in its place, it has not spread, it is the scar of the boil, and the kohēn shall pronounce him clean.

24 “Or when the body receives a burn on its skin by fire, and the raw flesh of the burn shall become a bright spot, reddish-white or white,

25 then the kohēn shall look at it and see, if the hair of the bright spot has turned white, and it appears deeper than the skin, it is leprosy broken out in the burn. And the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, it is a leprous infection.

26 “But if the kohēn looks at it and sees there are no white hairs in the bright spot, and it is not deeper than the skin, but has faded, then the kohēn shall shut him up seven days.

27 “And the kohēn shall look at him on the seventh day. If it spreads further over the skin, then the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, it is a leprous infection.

28 “But if the bright spot stays in its place, and has not spread on the skin, but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn. And the kohēn shall pronounce him clean, for it is the scar from the burn.

29 “And when a man, or a woman, has an infection on the head or in the beard,

30 then the kohēn shall look at the infection and see, if it appears deeper than the skin, and there is thin yellow hair in it, then the kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, it is an eruption, a leprosy of the head or beard.

31 “But when the kohēn looks at the infection of the eruption and sees that it does not appear deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the kohēn shall shut up the infection of the eruption seven days.

32 “And on the seventh day the kohēn shall look at the infection and see, if the eruption has not spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the eruption does not appear deeper than the skin,

33 then he shall shave himself, but the eruption he does not shave. And the kohēn shall shut up the eruption another seven days.

34 “And on the seventh day the kohēn shall look at the eruption and see, if the eruption has not spread over the skin, and does not appear deeper than the skin, then the kohēn shall pronounce him clean. And he shall wash his garments, and he shall be clean.

35 “But if the eruption spreads further over the skin after his cleansing, 36 then the kohēn shall look at him and see, if the eruption has spread over the skin, the kohēn need not seek for yellow hair, he is unclean.

37 “But if the eruption appears to have stayed, and there is black hair grown up in it, the eruption has healed. He is clean, and the kohēn shall pronounce him clean.

38 “And when a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, white bright spots,

39 then the kohēn shall look and see, if the bright spots on the skin of the body are dull white, it is a white spot that grows on the skin, he is clean.

40 “And when a man loses the hair of his head, he is bald, he is clean.

41 “And if the hair has fallen from his forehead, he is bald on the forehead, he is clean.

42 “And when there is on the bald head or bald forehead a reddish-white infection, it is leprosy breaking out on his bald head or his bald forehead.

43 “And the kohēn shall look at it and see, if the swelling of the infection is reddish-white on his bald head or on his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy on the skin of the body,

44 he is a leprous man, he is unclean. The kohēn shall pronounce him unclean, without fail, his infection is on his head.

45 “As for the leper who has the infection, his garments are torn, and his head is uncovered, and he has to cover his upper lip and cry, ‘Unclean! Unclean!’

46 “He is unclean - all the days he has the infection he is unclean. He is unclean, and he dwells alone, his dwelling place is outside the camp.

47 “And when a garment has an infection of leprosy in it, in a woollen garment or in a linen garment,

48 or in the warp or in the weft of linen or wool, or in leather or in any leather-work,

49 and the infection shall be greenish or reddish in the garment or in the leather, or in the warp or in the weft, or in any leather object, it is an infection of leprosy and shall be shown to the kohēn.

50 “And the kohēn shall look at the infection and shut up the infection seven days.

51 “And he shall look at the infection on the seventh day. And when the infection has spread in the garment, or in the warp or in the weft, or in the leather or any leather-work, the infection is an active leprosy, it is unclean.

52 “And he shall burn that garment, or the warp or the weft, in wool or in linen, or any leather object in which the infection is, for it is an active leprosy. It is burned with fire.

53 “But if the kohēn looks and sees that the infection has not spread in the garment, or in the warp or in the weft, or in any leather object,

54 then the kohēn shall give command, and they shall wash that in which the infection is. And he shall shut it up another seven days.

55 “And the kohēn shall look at the infection after it has been washed and see, if the infection has not changed its appearance, though the infection has not spread, it is unclean, and burn it in the fire - it is eaten away, in its inside or outside.

56 “And if the kohēn shall look and see that the infection has faded after washing it, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the warp, or out of the weft, or out of the leather.

57 “And if it is still seen in the garment, or in the warp or in the weft, or in any leather object, it is a spreading infection. Burn it with fire, that in which the infection is.

58 “And if you wash the garment, or the warp or the weft, or any leather object, if the infection has disappeared from it, then it shall be washed a second time, and shall be clean.

59 “This is the Torah of the infection of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, or in the warp or in the weft, or in any leather object, to pronounce it clean or to pronounce it unclean.”

14 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “This shall be the Torah of the leper for the day of his cleansing: He shall be brought to the kohēn,

3 and the kohēn shall go out of the camp, and the kohēn shall look and see, if the leprosy is healed in the leper,

4 then the kohēn shall command, and he shall take for him who is to be cleansed two live and clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

5 “And the kohēn shall command, and he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.

6 “Let him take the live bird and the cedar wood and the scarlet and the hyssop, and dip them and the live bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 “And he shall sprinkle it seven times on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the live bird loose in the open field.

8 “And he who is to be cleansed shall wash his garments, and shall shave off all his hair and wash himself in water, and shall be clean. Then after that he comes into the camp, but shall stay outside his tent seven days.

9 “And on the seventh day it shall be that he shaves all the hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shaves off. And he shall wash his garments and wash his body in water, and shall be clean.

10 “And on the eighth day he takes two male lambs, perfect ones, and one ewe lamb a year old, a perfect one, and three-tenth parts of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, and one log of oil.

11 “And the kohēn who is cleansing shall present the man who is to be cleansed, with these, before אִיִּזְעֵל, at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

12 “And the kohēn shall take one male lamb and bring it as a guilt offering, and the log of oil, and wave them as a wave offering before אִיִּזְעֵל.

13 “And he shall slaughter the lamb in the place where he slaughters the sin offering and the burnt offering, in a qodesh place. For the guilt offering, like the sin offering, belongs to the kohēn. It is most qodesh.

14 “And the kohēn shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering, and the kohēn shall put it on the tip of 24 “And the kohēn shall take the lamb of the guilt offering and the log of oil, and the kohēn shall wave them as a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים.

25 “And he shall slaughter the lamb of the guilt offering, and the kohēn shall take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot.

26 “Then the kohēn pours some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

27 “And the kohēn shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before אֱלֹהִים.

28 “And the kohēn shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of the right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the guilt offering.

29 “And the rest of the oil that is in the kohēn’s hand he puts on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before אֱלֹהִים.

30 “And he shall prepare one of the turtledoves or young pigeons, such as he is able to afford,

31 that which he is able to afford, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, with the grain offering. And the kohēn shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before אֱלֹהִים.

32 “This is the Torah for one who had an infection of leprosy, who is unable to afford for his cleansing.”

33 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying,

34 “When you come into the land of Kena’an, which I am giving you as a possession, and I put a plague of leprosy in a house in the land of your possession,

35 then shall the one who owns the house come and inform the kohēn, saying, 'It seems to me that there is some plague in the house.'

36 "And the kohēn shall command, and they shall empty the house, before the kohēn goes in to look at the plague, so that all that is in the house is not made unclean. And after that the kohēn goes in to look at the house.

37 "And he shall look at the plague and see, if the plague is on the walls of the house with sunken places, greenish or reddish, which appear to be deep in the wall,

38 then the kohēn shall go out of the house, to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

39 "And the kohēn shall come again on the seventh day and look and see, if the plague has spread on the walls of the house,

40 then the kohēn shall command, and they shall remove the stones with the plague in them, and they shall throw them outside the city, into an unclean place,

41 while he lets the house be scraped inside, all around, and the dust that they scrape off they shall pour out in an unclean place outside the city.

42 "And they shall take other stones and put them in the place of those stones, and take other mortar and plaster the house.

43 "And if the plague comes back and breaks out in the house, after he has removed the stones, after he has scraped the house, and after it is plastered,

44 then the kohēn shall come and look and see, if the plague has spread in the house, it is an active leprosy in the house, it is unclean.

45 “And he shall break down the house, its stones, and its timber, and all the plaster of the house, and he shall bring them outside the city to an unclean place.

46 “And he who goes into the house, all the days while it is shut up, becomes unclean until evening.

47 “And he who lies down in the house has to wash his garments, and he who eats in the house has to wash his garments.

48 “However, if the kohēn indeed comes in and looks at it and sees that the plague has not spread in the house after the house was plastered, then the kohēn shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 “And to cleanse the house, he shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

50 “And he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water, 51 and he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the live bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird and in the running water, and shall sprinkle the house seven times.

52 “He shall thus cleanse the house with the blood of the bird and the running water and the live bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet,

53 and he shall let the live bird loose outside the city in the open field, and shall make atonement for the house, and it shall be clean.

54 “This is the Torah for any infection of leprosy, and eruption,

55 and for leprosy of a garment, and of a house,

56 and for a swelling, and for a scab, and for a bright spot,

57 to teach when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the Torah of leprosy.”

15 And אִתָּךְ spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, and say to them, ‘When any man has a discharge from his flesh, his discharge is unclean.

3 ‘And this is his uncleanness in regard to his discharge; whether his flesh runs with his discharge, or his flesh is stopped up by his discharge, it is his uncleanness.

4 ‘Any bed becomes unclean on which he who has the discharge lies, and any object on which he sits becomes unclean.

5 ‘And anyone who touches his bed has to wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

6 ‘And he who sits on any object on which he who has the discharge sat, has to wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

7 ‘And he who touches the flesh of him who has the discharge has to wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening.

8 ‘And when he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

9 ‘Any saddle on which he who has the discharge rides becomes unclean.

10 ‘And whoever touches any of that which was under him is unclean until evening. And he who is carrying them up has to wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

11 ‘And anyone whom he who has the discharge touches without rinsing his hands in water, shall wash his garments and bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

12 'And the earthen vessel which he who has the discharge touches has to be broken, and every wooden vessel has to be rinsed in water.

13 'And when he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count for himself seven days for his cleansing, and shall wash his garments, and shall bathe his flesh in running water, and be clean.

14 'And on the eighth day he takes for himself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and shall come before אֱלֹהֵיךָ, to the door of the Tent of Appointment, and shall give them to the kohēn.

15 'And the kohēn shall prepare them, the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering. And the kohēn shall make atonement for him before אֱלֹהֵיךָ because of his discharge.

16 'And when a man has an emission of semen, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until evening.

17 'And any garment and any leather on which there is semen, shall also be washed with water, and be unclean until evening.

18 'And when a woman lies with a man, and there is an emission of semen, they both shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

19 'And when a woman has a discharge, and the discharge from her flesh is blood, she has to be in her separation for seven days. And whoever touches her is unclean until evening.

20 'And whatever she lies on during her separation is unclean. And whatever she sits on is unclean.

21 'And anyone who touches her bed has to wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

22 'And whoever touches any object that she sat on has to wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

23 'And if it is on the bed or on any object on which she sits, when he touches it, he is unclean until evening.

24 'And if any man lies with her at all, and her monthly flow is on him, he shall be unclean seven days. And any bed he lies on is unclean.

25 'And when a woman has a discharge of blood for many days, other than at the time of her monthly separation, or when she discharges beyond her usual time of monthly separation, all the days of her unclean discharge shall be as the days of her monthly separation. She is unclean.

26 'Any bed on which she lies all the days of her discharge is to her as the bed of her monthly separation. And whatever she sits on is unclean, as the uncleanness of her monthly separation.

27 'And anyone who touches them is unclean, and shall wash his garments, and shall bathe in water, and be unclean until evening.

28 'But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count for herself seven days, and after that she is clean.

29 'And on the eighth day she takes for herself two turtledoves or two young pigeons, and shall bring them to the kohēn, to the door of the Tent of Appointment.

30 'And the kohēn shall prepare the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and the kohēn shall make atonement for her before אֱלֹהִים for the discharge of her uncleanness.

31 'Thus you shall separate the children of Yisra'el from their uncleanness, lest they die in their uncleanness when they defile My Mishkan which is in their midst.

32 'This is the Torah for one who has a discharge, and for him who emits semen and is unclean thereby, 33 and for her who is sick in her monthly separation, and for one who has a discharge, either man or woman, and for him who lies with an unclean woman.' ”

16 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh after the death of the two sons of Aharon, when they drew near before אֱלֹהִים, and died.

2 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Speak to Aharon your brother not to come in at all times to the qodesh place inside the veil, before the lid of atonement which is on the ark, lest he die, because I appear in the cloud above the lid of atonement.

3 “With this Aharon should come into the qodesh place: with the blood of a young bull as a sin offering, and of a ram as a burnt offering.

4 “He should put on the qodesh linen long shirt, with linen trousers on his flesh, and gird himself with a linen girdle, and be dressed with the linen turban - they are qodesh garments. And he shall bathe his body in water, and shall put them on.

5 “And from the congregation of the children of Yisra'el he takes two male goats as a sin offering, and one ram as a burnt offering.

6 “And Aharon shall bring the bull as a sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house.

7 “And he shall take the two goats and let them stand before אֱלֹהִים at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

8 “And Aharon shall cast lots for the two goats, one lot for אִזְזֵל and the other lot for Azazël.

9 “And Aharon shall bring the goat on which the lot for אִזְזֵל fell, and shall prepare it as a sin offering.

10 “But the goat on which the lot for Azazël fell is caused to stand alive before אִזְזֵל, to make atonement upon it, to send it into the wilderness to Azazël.

11 “And Aharon shall bring the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself and for his house, and shall slaughter the bull as the sin offering which is for himself,

12 and shall take a fire holder filled with burning coals of fire from the altar before אִזְזֵל, with his hands filled with sweet incense beaten fine, and shall bring it inside the veil.

13 “And he shall put the incense on the fire before אִזְזֵל, and the cloud of incense shall cover the lid of atonement which is on the Witness, lest he die.

14 “And he shall take some of the blood of the bull and sprinkle it with his finger on the lid of atonement on the east side, also in front of the lid of atonement he sprinkles some of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 “And he shall slaughter the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people, and shall bring its blood inside the veil, and shall do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the lid of atonement and in front of the lid of atonement.

16 “And he shall make atonement for the qodesh place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Yisra’ël, and because of their transgressions in all their sins. And so he does for the Tent of Appointment which is dwelling with them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 “And no man should be in the Tent of Appointment when he goes in to make atonement in the qodesh place, until he comes out. And he shall make atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the assembly of Yisra’ël.

18 “And he shall go out to the altar that is before אֲזִיזָה, and make atonement for it. And he shall take some of the blood of the bull and some of the blood of the goat, and put it on the horns of the altar all around.

19 “And he shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and qadosh it from the uncleanness of the children of Yisra’ël.

20 “And when he has finished atoning for the qodesh place, and the Tent of Appointment, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat.

21 “Then Aharon shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and shall confess over it all the wickednesses of the children of Yisra’ël, and all their transgressions in all their sins, and shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a fit man.

22 “And the goat shall bear on itself all their wickednesses, to a land cut off. Thus he shall send the goat away into the wilderness.

23 “Aharon shall then come into the Tent of Appointment, and shall take off the linen garments which he put on when he went into the qodesh place, and shall leave them there.

24 “And he shall bathe his body in water in the qodesh place, and shall put on his garments, and shall come out and prepare his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make atonement for himself and for the people,

25 and burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

26 “And he who sent away the goat to Azazël washes his garments, and shall bathe his body in water, and afterward he comes into the camp.

27 “And the bull for the sin offering and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the qodesh place, is brought outside the camp. And they shall burn their skins, and their flesh, and their dung with fire.

28 “And he who burns them washes his garments, and shall bathe his body in water, and afterward he comes into the camp.

29 “And this shall be for you a Law forever: In the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you afflict your beings, and do no work, the native or the stranger who sojourns among you.

30 “For on that day he makes atonement for you, to cleanse you, to be clean from all your sins before אֱלֹהִים.

31 “It is a Shabbath of rest for you, and you shall afflict your beings - a Law forever.

32 “And the kohën, who is anointed and ordained to serve as kohën in his father’s place, shall make atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, the qodesh garments,

33 and he shall make atonement for the Qodesh Miqdash, and make atonement for the Tent of Appointment and for the altar, and make atonement for the kohenim and for all the people of the assembly.

34 “And this shall be for you a Law forever, to make atonement for the children of Yisra’ël, for all their sins, once a year.” And he did as אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh.

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to Aharon, to his sons, and to all the children of Yisra’ël, and say to them, ‘This is the word which אֱלֹהִים has commanded, saying,

3 “Any man from the house of Yisra’ël who slaughters a bull or a lamb or a goat in the camp, or who slaughters it outside the camp,

4 and does not bring it to the door of the Tent of Appointment, to bring an offering to אֱלֹהִים before the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים, blood-guilt is reckoned to that man. He has shed blood, and that man shall be cut off from among his people,

5 in order that the children of Yisra’ël bring their slaughterings which they slaughter in the open field. And they shall bring them to אֱלֹהִים at the door of the Tent of Appointment, to the kohën, and slaughter them as peace offerings to אֱלֹהִים.

6 “And the kohën shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of אֱלֹהִים at the door of the Tent of Appointment, and shall burn the fat for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

7 “And let them no longer slaughter their slaughterings to demons, after whom they whored. This is a Law forever for them throughout their generations.” ’

8 “And say to them, ‘Any man of the house of Yisra’ël, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who offers a burnt offering or slaughtering,

9 and does not bring it to the door of the Tent of Appointment, to do it to אֱלֹהִים, that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 ‘And any man of the house of Yisra’ël, or of the strangers who sojourn among you, who eats any blood, I shall turn My face against that being who eats blood, and shall cut him off from among his people.

11 ‘For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your lives, for it is the blood that makes atonement for the life.'

12 "Therefore I said to the children of Yisra'ël, 'No being among you eats blood, nor does any stranger who sojourns among you eat blood.'

13 "And any man from the children of Yisra'ël, or from the strangers who sojourn among you, who hunts and catches any beast or bird, which is eaten, shall pour out its blood and cover it with dust,

14 for it is the life of all flesh. Its blood is for its life. And I said to the children of Yisra'ël, 'Do not eat the blood of any flesh, for the life of all flesh is its blood. Anyone eating it is cut off.'

15 "And any being who eats a carcass or what was torn by a beast, be he a native or a stranger, he shall wash his garments and bathe in water, and shall be unclean until evening. Then he shall be clean.

16 "And if he does not wash or bathe his body, then he shall bear his wickedness."

18 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'ël, and say to them, 'I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

3 'Do not do as they do in the land of Mitsrayim, where you dwelt. And do not do as they do in the land of Kena'an, where I am bringing you, and do not walk in their laws.

4 'Do My Right-Rulings and guard My Laws, to walk in them. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

5 'And you shall guard My Laws and My Right-Rulings, which a man does and lives by them. I am אֱלֹהִים.

6 'No one is to approach anyone of his own flesh to uncover his nakedness. I am אֱלֹהִים.

7 'The nakedness of your father or the nakedness of your mother you do not uncover. She is your mother, you do not uncover her nakedness.

8 'The nakedness of your father's wife you do not uncover, it is your father's nakedness.

9 'The nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home or elsewhere, their nakedness you do not uncover.

10 'The nakedness of your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter, their nakedness you do not uncover, for theirs is your own nakedness.

11 'The nakedness of your father's wife's daughter, brought forth by your father, she is your sister, you do not uncover her nakedness.

12 'The nakedness of your father's sister you do not uncover, she is your father's flesh.

13 'The nakedness of your mother's sister you do not uncover, for she is your mother's flesh.

14 'The nakedness of your father's brother you do not uncover, you do not approach his wife, she is your aunt.

15 'The nakedness of your daughter-in-law you do not uncover, she is your son's wife, you do not uncover her nakedness.

16 'The nakedness of your brother's wife you do not uncover, it is your brother's nakedness.

17 'The nakedness of a woman and her daughter you do not uncover, nor do you take her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness. They are her relatives - it is wickedness.

18 'And do not take a woman as a rival to her sister, to uncover her nakedness while the other is alive.

19 'And do not approach a woman to uncover her nakedness in her monthly separation of uncleanness.

20 'And do not have intercourse with the wife of your neighbour, to defile yourself with her.

21 'And do not give any of your offspring to pass through to Molek. And do not profane the Name of your Elohim. I am יהוה.

22 'And do not lie with a male as with a woman, it is an abomination.

23 'And do not have intercourse with any beast, to defile yourself with it. And a woman does not stand before a beast to mate with it, it is a perversion.

24 'Do not defile yourselves with all these, for by all these the nations are defiled, which I am driving out before you.

25 'Thus the land became defiled, therefore I punished it for its wickedness, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

26 'But you, you shall guard My Laws and My Right-Rulings, and not do any of these abominations, the native nor stranger who sojourns among you, 27 because the men of the land who were before you have done all these abominations, and thus the land became defiled.

28 'So let not the land vomit you out for defiling it, as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

29 'For whoever does any of these abominations, those beings who do them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 'And you shall guard My Charge, so as not to do any of these abominable practices which were done before you, so as not to defile yourselves by them. I am יהוה your Elohim.' "

19 And יהוה spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ël, and say to them, ‘Be qodesh, for I אֱלֹהִים your Elohim am qodesh.

3 ‘Each one of you should revere his mother and his father, and guard My Shabbathoth. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

4 ‘Do not turn to idols, and do not make for yourselves moulded mighty ones. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

5 ‘And when you bring a peace offering to אֱלֹהִים, bring it for your acceptance.

6 ‘It is eaten the same day you slaughter it, and on the next day. And that which is left on the third day is burned with fire.

7 ‘So if it is eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable, it is not accepted,

8 and he who eats it bears his wickedness, because he has profaned the qodesh offering of אֱלֹהִים, and that being shall be cut off from his people.

9 ‘And when you reap the harvest of your land, do not completely reap the corners of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.

10 ‘And do not glean your vineyard or gather every grape of your vineyard, leave them for the poor and the stranger. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

11 ‘Do not steal, do not lie, do not deceive one another.

12 ‘And do not swear falsely by My Name and so profane the Name of your Elohim. I am אֱלֹהִים.

13 ‘Do not oppress your neighbour and do not rob the wages of him who is hired. It is not to remain with you all night until morning.

14 ‘Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling-block before the blind, but revere your Elohim. I am אֱלֹהִים.

15 'Do no unrighteousness in right-ruling. Do not be partial to the poor or favour the face of the great, but rightly rule your neighbour in righteousness.

16 'Do not go slandering among your people. Do not stand against the blood of your neighbour. I am אֱלֹהִים.

17 'Do not hate your brother in your heart. Reprove your neighbour, for certain, and bear no sin because of him.

18 'Do not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the children of your people. And you shall love your neighbour as yourself. I am אֱלֹהִים.

19 'Guard My Laws. Do not let your livestock mate with another kind. Do not sow your field with mixed seed. And do not put a garment woven of two sorts of thread upon you.

20 'And when a man has intercourse with a woman who is a female servant, engaged to a man, and who has not at all been ransomed nor redeemed, nor freedom given there should be an inquiry. But they are not put to death, because she was not free.

21 'And he shall bring his guilt offering to אֱלֹהִים, to the door of the Tent of Appointment, a ram as a guilt offering.

22 'And the kohēn shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before אֱלֹהִים for his sin which he has done. And the sin which he has sinned shall be forgiven him.

23 'And when you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall reckon their fruit as uncircumcised. For three years it is as uncircumcised to you, it is not eaten.

24 'And in the fourth year all its fruit is qodesh - praises to אֱלֹהִים.

25 'And in the fifth year you eat its fruit, so that it increases its yield to you. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

26 'Do not eat with the blood. Do not practise divination or magic.

27 'Do not round the corner of your head, nor destroy the corner of your beard.

28 'And do not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor put tattoo marks on you. I am אֱלֹהִים.

29 'Do not profane your daughter by making her a whore, so that the land does not whore, and the land becomes filled with wickedness.

30 'Guard My Shabbathoth and reverence My Miqdash. I am אֱלֹהִים.

31 'Do not turn to mediums, and do not seek after spiritists to be defiled by them. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

32 'Rise up before the grey-headed. And you shall favour the face of an old man, and shall revere your Elohim. I am אֱלֹהִים.

33 'And when a stranger sojourns with you in your land, do not oppress him.

34 'Let the stranger who dwells among you be to you as the native among you, and you shall love him as yourself. For you were strangers in the land of Mitsrayim. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

35 'Do no unrighteousness in right-ruling, in measurement of length, in weight, or in measuring liquids.

36 'Have right scales, right weights, a right ĕphah, and a right hin. I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim.

37 'And you shall guard all My Laws and all My Right-Rulings, and do them. I am אֱלֹהִים.' "

20 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 "Say to the children of Yisra'ĕl, 'Any man of the children of Yisra'ĕl, or of the strangers who sojourn in Yisra'el, who gives any of his offspring to Molek, shall certainly be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones.

3 'And I, I shall turn My face against that man, and shall cut him off from the midst of his people, because he has given of his offspring to Molek, so as to defile My Miqdash and to profane My qodesh Name.

4 'And if the people of the land at all hide their eyes from the man, as he gives any of his offspring to Molek, and they do not kill him,

5 then I shall turn My face against that man and against his clan, and shall cut him off - and all who go whoring after him, even go whoring after Molek - from the midst of their people.

6 'And the being who turns to mediums, and to spiritists, to go whoring after them, I shall turn My face against that being and cut him off from the midst of his people.

7 'And you shall qadosh yourselves, and shall be qodesh, for I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim,

8 and you shall guard My Laws and do them. I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, who qadosh you.

9 'For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall certainly be put to death - he has cursed his father or his mother, his blood is on him.

10 'And a man who commits adultery with the wife of another man, who commits adultery with the wife of his neighbour: the adulterer and the adulteress shall certainly be put to death.

11 'And a man who lies with the wife of his father has uncovered the nakedness of his father, both of them shall certainly be put to death, their blood is upon them.

12 'And a man who lies with his daughter-in-law: both of them shall certainly be put to death, they have made confusion, their blood is upon them.

13 'And a man who lies with a male as he lies with a woman: both of them have done an abomination, they shall certainly be put to death, their blood is upon them.

14 'And a man who marries a woman and her mother: it is wickedness, they are burned with fire, both he and they, that there be no wickedness in your midst.

15 'And a man who has intercourse with a beast: he shall certainly be put to death, and the beast you kill.

16 'And a woman who approaches any beast and mates with it: you shall kill the woman and the beast, they shall certainly be put to death, their blood is upon them.

17 'And a man who takes his sister, his father's daughter or his mother's daughter, and sees her nakedness and she sees his nakedness: it is a reproach, and they shall be cut off before the eyes of their people. He has uncovered his sister's nakedness, he bears his wickedness.

18 'And a man who lies with a woman during her sickness and uncovers her nakedness: he has laid bare her flow, and she has uncovered the flow of her blood, both of them shall be cut off from the midst of their people.

19 'And do not uncover the nakedness of your mother's sister nor of your father's sister, for that is laying bare one's own flesh, they bear their wickedness.

20 'And a man who lies with his uncle's wife: he has uncovered his uncle's nakedness, they bear their sin, they die childless.

21 'And a man who takes his brother's wife: it is uncleanness, he has uncovered his brother's nakedness, they are childless.

22 'And you shall guard all My Laws and all My Right-Rulings, and do them, so that the land where I am bringing you to dwell does not vomit you out.

23 'And do not walk in the laws of the nation which I am driving out before you, for they do all these, and therefore I loathed them.

24 'But I say to you, "You are going to possess their land, and I Myself give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey." I am אלהים your Elohim, who has separated you from the peoples.

25 'And you shall make a distinction between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean birds and clean. And do not make yourselves abominable by beast or by bird, or whatever creeps on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 'And you shall be qodesh to Me, for I אלהים am qodesh, and have separated you from the peoples to be Mine.

27 'And a man or a woman in whom there is a medium, or who are spiritists, shall certainly be put to death, they are to stone them with stones. Their blood is upon them.' "

21 And אלהים said to Mosheh, "Speak to the kohenim, the sons of Aharon, and say to them, 'No one is to be defiled for the dead among his people,

2 except for his relatives who are nearest to him: for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother;

3 and for his maiden sister who is near to him, who has had no husband - for her he is defiled.

- 4 'A leader does not defile himself among his people, to profane himself;
- 5 they do not make any bald place on their heads, and they do not shave the corner of their beard, and they do not make a cutting in their flesh.
- 6 'They are qodesh to their Elohim and do not profane the Name of their Elohim, for they bring the offerings of אֵשׁ־זָבַח made by fire, and the bread of their Elohim, and shall be qodesh.
- 7 'They do not take a woman who is a whore or a defiled woman, and they do not take a woman put away from her husband, for he is qodesh to his Elohim.
- 8 'And you shall qadosh him, for he brings the bread of your Elohim, he is qodesh to you. For I, אֵשׁ־זָבַח, who qadosh you, am qodesh.
- 9 'And when the daughter of any kohēn profanes herself by whoring, she profanes her father. She is burned with fire.
- 10 'And the kohēn ha'gadol among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil was poured and who is ordained to wear the garments, does not unbind his head nor tear his garments,
- 11 nor come near any dead body, nor defile himself for his father or his mother,
- 12 nor go out of the Miqdash, nor profane the Miqdash of his Elohim, for the sign of dedication of the anointing oil of his Elohim is upon him. I am אֵשׁ־זָבַח.
- 13 'And let him take a wife in her maidenhood.
- 14 'A widow or one put away or a defiled woman or a whore - these he does not take. But a maiden of his own people he takes as a wife.
- 15 'And he does not profane his offspring among his people, for I am אֵשׁ־זָבַח, who qadosh him.' "
- 16 And אֵשׁ־זָבַח spoke to Mosheh, saying,

17 “Speak to Aharon, saying, ‘No man of your offspring throughout their generations, who has any defect, is to draw near to bring the bread of his Elohim.

18 ‘For any man who has a defect is not to draw near: a man blind or one lame or disfigured or deformed,

19 a man who has a broken foot or broken hand,

20 or is a hunchback or a dwarf, or a man who has a defect in his eye, or eczema or scab, or is a eunuch.

21 ‘No man among the offspring of Aharon the kohën, who has a defect, is to come near to bring the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים - he has a defect, he does not come near to bring the bread of his Elohim.

22 ‘He eats the bread of his Elohim, both the most qodesh and the qodesh,

23 only, he does not go near the veil or approach the altar, because he has a defect, lest he profanes My Miqdashim. For I am אֱלֹהִים, who qadosh them.’ ”

24 Thus Mosheh spoke to Aharon and his sons, and to all the children of Yisra’ël.

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to Aharon and his sons, that they separate themselves from the qodesh offerings of the children of Yisra’ël, and that they do not profane My qodesh Name in what they qadosh to Me. I am אֱלֹהִים.

3 “Say to them, ‘Any man of all your offspring throughout your generations who draws near the qodesh offerings which the children of Yisra’ël qadosh to אֱלֹהִים, while he has uncleanness upon him, that being shall be cut off from before Me. I am אֱלֹהִים.

4 ‘Any man of the offspring of Aharon, who is a leper or has a discharge, does not eat the qodesh offerings until he is clean. And whoever touches what is rendered unclean by a corpse, or a man who has had an emission of semen,

5 or a man who touches any creeping creature by which he would be made unclean, or any being by whom he would become unclean, even any of his uncleanness;

6 the being who has touched it shall be unclean until evening, and does not eat the qodesh offerings, but shall bathe his body in water.

7 'And when the sun goes down he shall be clean, and afterward eat the qodesh offerings, because it is his food.

8 'He does not eat that which dies or is torn by beasts, becoming unclean by it. I am אֱלֹהִים.

9 'And they shall guard My Charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby, when they profane it. I אֱלֹהִים qadosh them.

10 'And no stranger eats the qodesh offering. A sojourner with the kohēn, or a hired servant, does not eat the qodesh offering.

11 'But when the kohēn buys a being with his silver, he eats of it. And one who is born in his house eats his food.

12 'And when a kohēn's daughter is married to a stranger, she does not eat of the qodesh offerings.

13 'But when a kohēn's daughter is a widow or put away, and has no child, and has returned to her father's house as in her youth, she eats her father's food, but no stranger eats of it.

14 'And when a man eats the qodesh offering by mistake, then he shall give a qodesh offering to the kohēn, and add one-fifth to it.

15 'And do not profane the qodesh offerings of the children of Yisra'el, which they lift up to אֱלֹהִים,

16 or allow them to bear the wickedness of trespass when they eat their qodesh offerings. For I am אֱלֹהִים, who qadosh them.’ ”

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

18 “Speak to Aharon and his sons, and to all the children of Yisra’el, and say to them, ‘Any man of the house of Yisra’el, or of the strangers in Yisra’el, who brings his offering for any of his vows or for any of his voluntary offerings, which they bring to אֱלֹהִים as a burnt offering,

19 for your acceptance, is a male, a perfect one from the cattle, from the sheep, or from the goats.

20 ‘Whatever has a defect, you do not bring, for it is not acceptable for you.

21 ‘And when a man brings a peace offering to אֱלֹהִים, to complete a vow, or a voluntary offering from the cattle or the sheep, it is to be perfect to be accepted, let there be no defect in it.

22 ‘Those blind or broken or having a cut, or have an ulcer or eczema or scabs, you do not bring to אֱלֹהִים, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to אֱלֹהִים.

23 ‘As for a bull or a lamb that has any limb deformed or dwarfed you do prepare as a voluntary offering, but for a vow it is not accepted.

24 ‘Do not bring to אֱלֹהִים what is bruised or crushed, or torn or cut, nor do it in your land.

25 ‘And from a son of a stranger’s hand you do not bring any of these as the bread of your Elohim, for their corruption is in them, and defects are in them, they are not acceptable for you.’ ”

26 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

27 “When a bull or a sheep or a goat is born, it shall be seven days with its mother. And from the eighth day and thereafter it is acceptable as an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

28 “But do not slaughter a cow or a sheep and its young on the same day.

29 “And when you bring a slaughtering of thanksgiving to אֱלֹהִים, bring it for your acceptance.

30 “It is eaten that same day, leave none of it till morning. I am אֱלֹהִים.

31 “And you shall guard My Commands and do them. I am אֱלֹהִים.

32 “And do not profane My qodesh Name, and I shall be qodesh among the children of Yisra’el. I am אֱלֹהִים, who qadosh you,

33 who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, to be your Elohim. I am אֱלֹהִים.”

23 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, and say to them, ‘The Appointed Times of אֱלֹהִים, which you are to proclaim as qodesh gatherings, My Appointed Times, are these:

3 ‘Six days work is done, but the seventh day is a Shabbath of rest, a qodesh gathering. You do no work, it is a Shabbath to אֱלֹהִים in all your dwellings.

4 ‘These are the Appointed Times of אֱלֹהִים, qodesh gatherings which you are to proclaim at their Appointed Times.

5 ‘In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, between the evenings, is the Pesah to אֱלֹהִים.

6 ‘And on the fifteenth day of this month is the Festival of Matstsoth to אֱלֹהִים - seven days you eat unleavened bread.

7 ‘On the first day you have a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work.

8 'And you shall bring an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם for seven days. On the seventh day is a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work.' ”

9 And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם spoke to Mosheh, saying,

10 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, and you shall say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I give you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the first-fruits of your harvest to the kohēn.

11 ‘And he shall wave the sheaf before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, for your acceptance. On the morrow after the Shabbath the kohēn waves it.

12 ‘And on that day when you wave the sheaf, you shall prepare a male lamb a year old, a perfect one, as a burnt offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם,

13 and its grain offering: two-tenths of an ĕphah of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, a sweet fragrance, and its drink offering: one-fourth of a hin of wine.

14 ‘And you do not eat bread or roasted grain or fresh grain until the same day that you have brought an offering to your Elohim - a Law forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 ‘And from the morrow after the Shabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, you shall count for yourselves: seven completed Shabbathoth.

16 ‘Until the morrow after the seventh Shabbath you count fifty days, then you shall bring a new grain offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

17 ‘Bring from your dwellings for a wave offering two of bread, of two-tenth parts of fine flour they are, baked with leaven, first-fruits to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

18 ‘And besides the bread, you shall bring seven lambs a year old, perfect ones, and one young bull and two rams. They are a burnt offering to אלהים, with their grain offering and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire for a sweet fragrance to אלהים.

19 'And you shall offer one male goat as a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old, as a peace offering.

20 'And the kohēn shall wave them, besides the bread of the first-fruits, as a wave offering before אלהים, besides the two lambs. They are qodesh to אלהים for the kohēn.

21 'And on this same day you shall proclaim a qodesh gathering for yourselves, you do no servile work on it - a Law forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 'And when you reap the harvest of your land do not completely reap the corners of your field when you reap, and do not gather any gleaning from your harvest. Leave them for the poor and for the stranger. I am אלהים your Elohim.' "

23 And אלהים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

24 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el, saying, 'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you have a rest, a remembrance of blowing of trumpets, a qodesh gathering.

25 'You do no servile work, and you shall bring an offering made by fire to אלהים.' "

26 And אלהים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

27 "On the tenth day of this seventh month is Yom ha'Kippurim. It shall be a qodesh gathering for you. And you shall afflict your beings, and shall bring an offering made by fire to אלהים.

28 "And you do no work on that same day, for it is a Yom Kippurim, to make atonement for you before אלהים your Elohim.

29 "For any being who is not afflicted on that same day, he shall be cut off from his people.

30 “And any being who does any work on that same day, that being I shall destroy from the midst of his people.

31 “You do no work - a Law forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 “It is a Shabbath of rest to you, and you shall afflict your beings. On the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you observe your Shabbath.”

33 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

34 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, saying, ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the Festival of Sukkoth for seven days to אֱלֹהִים.

35 ‘On the first day is a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work.

36 ‘For seven days you bring an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. On the eighth day there shall be a qodesh gathering for you, and you shall bring an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים. It is a closing Festival, you do no servile work.

37 ‘These are the Appointed Times of אֱלֹהִים which you proclaim as qodesh gatherings, to bring an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, a burnt offering and a grain offering, a slaughtering and drink offerings, as commanded for every day -

38 besides the Shabbathoth of אֱלֹהִים, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your voluntary offerings which you give to אֱלֹהִים.

39 ‘On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you gather in the fruit of the land, celebrate the Festival of אֱלֹהִים for seven days. On the first day is a rest, and on the eighth day a rest.

40 ‘And you shall take for yourselves on the first day the fruit of good trees, branches of palm trees, twigs of leafy trees, and willows of the stream, and shall rejoice before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim for seven days.

41 'And you shall celebrate it as a Festival to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם for seven days in the year - a Law forever in your generations. Celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 'Dwell in booths for seven days; all who are native Yisra'élites dwell in booths,

43 so that your generations know that I made the children of Yisra'él dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim. I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.' ”

44 Thus did Mosheh speak of the Appointed Times of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם to the children of Yisra'él.

24 And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Command the children of Yisra'él that they bring to you clear oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually.

3 “Outside the veil of the Witness, in the Tent of Appointment, Aharon is to arrange it from evening until morning before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם continually - a Law forever throughout your generations.

4 “He is to arrange the lamps on the clean gold lampstand before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם continually.

5 “And you shall take fine flour and bake twelve cakes with it, two-tenth parts in each cake.

6 “And you shall put them in two rows, six in a row, on the clean table before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

7 “And you shall put clear frankincense on each row, and it shall be on the bread as a remembrance portion, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

8 “On every Shabbath he is to arrange it before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם continually, from the children of Yisra'él - an everlasting Covenant.

9 “And it shall be for Aharon and his sons, and they shall eat it in the qodesh place, because it is most qodesh to him from the offerings of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם made by fire - an everlasting Law.”

10 And the son of an Yisra'élite woman, whose father was a Mitsrite, went out among the children of Yisra'él. And the Yisra'élite woman's son and a man of Yisra'él strove in the camp.

11 And the Yisra'élite woman's son blasphemed the Name, and cursed. So they brought him to Mosheh. Now his mother's name was Shelomith the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.

12 And they put him in under guard, that it might be declared to them at the word of אֱלֹהִים.

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

14 "Bring the one who has cursed outside the camp, and all those who heard him shall lay their hands on his head, and all the congregation shall stone him.

15 "And speak to the children of Yisra'él, saying, 'Anyone who curses his Elohim shall bear his sin.

16 'And he who blasphemes the Name of אֱלֹהִים shall certainly be put to death, and all the congregation certainly stone him, the stranger as well as the native. When he blasphemes the Name, he is put to death.

17 'And he who smites the life from any man shall certainly be put to death.

18 'And he who smites a beast repays it, body for body.

19 'And when a man inflicts a blemish upon his neighbour, as he has done so it is done to him:

20 'Fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he inflicts a blemish upon him, so it is done to him.

21 'And he who smites a beast repays it, and he who kills a man is put to death.

22 'You are to have one Right-Ruling, for the stranger and for the native, for I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.' "

23 And Mosheh spoke to the children of Yisra'él, and they brought the one who cursed outside the camp, and stoned him with stones. And the children of Yisra'el did as אִתָּן commanded Mosheh.

25 And אִתָּן spoke to Mosheh on Mount Sinai, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, ‘When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall observe a Shabbath to אִתָּן.

3 ‘Six years you sow your field, and six years you prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruit,

4 but in the seventh year the land is to have a Shabbath of rest, a Shabbath to אִתָּן. Do not sow your field and do not prune your vineyard.

5 ‘Do not reap what grows of its own of your harvest, and do not gather the grapes of your unpruned vine, for it is a year of rest for the land.

6 ‘And the Shabbath of the land shall be to you for food, for you and your servant, and for your female servant and your hired servant, and for the stranger who sojourns with you,

7 and for your livestock and the beasts that are in your land. All its crops are for food.

8 ‘And you shall count seven Shabbathoth of years for yourself, seven times seven years. And the time of the seven Shabbathoth of years shall be to you forty-nine years.

9 ‘You shall then sound a ram’s horn to pass through on the tenth day of the seventh month, on Yom ha’Kippurim cause a ram’s horn to pass through all your land.

10 ‘And you shall qadosh the fiftieth year, and proclaim release throughout all the land to all its inhabitants, it is a Yobel for you. And each of you shall return to his possession, and each of you return to his clan.

11 'The fiftieth year is a Yobēl to you. Do not sow, nor reap what grows of its own, nor gather from its unpruned vine.

12 'It is a Yobēl, it is qodesh to you. Eat from the field its crops.

13 'In the Year of this Yobēl let each one of you return to his possession.

14 'And when you sell whatever to your neighbour or buy from the hand of your neighbour, do not exploit one another.

15 'According to the number of years after the Yobēl you buy from your neighbour, and according to the number of years of crops he sells to you.

16 'According to the greater number of years you increase its price, and according to the fewer number of years you diminish its price, because he sells to you according to the number of the years of the crops.

17 'And do not oppress one another, but you shall revere your Elohim. For I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.

18 'And you shall do My Laws and guard My Right-Rulings, and shall do them. And you shall dwell in the land in safety, 19 and the land shall yield its fruit, and you shall eat to satisfaction, and shall dwell there in safety.

20 'And since you might say, "What do we eat in the seventh year, since we do not sow nor gather in our crops?"

21 'Therefore I have commanded My berakāh on you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth the crop for three years.

22 'And you shall sow in the eighth year, and eat of the old crop until the ninth year. Eat of the old until its crop comes in.

23 'And the land is not to be sold beyond reclaim, for the land is Mine, for you are sojourners and settlers with Me.

24 'And provide for a redemption for the land, in all the land of your possession.

25 'When your brother becomes poor, and has sold some of his possession, and his redeemer, a close relative comes to redeem it, then he shall redeem what his brother sold.

26 'And when the man has no one to redeem it, but he himself becomes able to redeem it,

27 then let him count the years since its sale, and return the remainder to the man to whom he sold it, that he shall return to his possession.

28 'And if his hand has not found enough to give back to him, then what was sold shall remain in the hand of him who bought it until the Year of Yobēl. And it shall be released in the Yobēl, and he shall return to his possession.

29 'And when a man sells a house in a walled city, then his right of redemption shall be at the end of the year after it is sold. His right of redemption lasts a year.

30 'But if it is not redeemed within a complete year, then the house in the walled city shall be established beyond reclaim to the buyer of it, throughout his generations. It is not released in the Yobēl.

31 'The houses of villages, however, which have no wall around them are reckoned as the field of the country. A right of redemption belongs to it, and they are released in the Yobēl.

32 'As for the cities of the Lēwites, and the houses in the cities of their possession, the Lēwites have a right of redemption forever.

33 'And that which is redeemed from the Lěwites, both the sale of a house and the city of his possession shall be released in the Year of Yoběł, because the houses in the cities of the Lěwites are their possession in the midst of the children of Yisra'ěl.

34 'But the field of the open land of their cities is not sold, for it is their everlasting possession.

35 'And when your brother becomes poor, and his hand has failed with you, then you shall sustain him, and he shall live with you, like a stranger or a sojourner.

36 'Take no interest from him, or profit, but you shall revere your Elohim, and your brother shall live with you.

37 'Do not lend him your silver on interest, and do not lend him your food for profit.

38 'I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, to give you the land of Kena'an, to be your Elohim.

39 'And when your brother who dwells by you becomes poor, and sells himself to you, do not make him serve as a slave.

40 'But as a hired servant, as a settler he is with you, and serves you until the Year of Yoběł.

41 'And then he shall leave you, he and his children with him, and shall return to his own clan, even return to the possession of his fathers.

42 'For they are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Mitsrayim, they are not sold as slaves.

43 'Do not rule over him with harshness, but you shall revere your Elohim.

44 'And your male and female slaves whom you have from the nations that are around you, from them you buy male and female slaves,

45 and also from the sons of the strangers sojourning among you, from them you buy, and from their clans who are with you, which they shall bring forth in your land, and they shall be your property.

46 'And you shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them as a possession, they are your slaves for all time. But over your brothers, the children of Yisra'el, you do not rule with harshness, one over another.

47 'Now when a sojourner or a settler with you becomes rich, and your brother with him becomes poor, and sells himself to the settler or sojourner with you, or to a member of the sojourner's clan,

48 after he has been sold, there is a right of redemption to him - one of his brothers redeems him, 49 or his uncle or his uncle's son redeems him, or anyone who is a close relative to him in his clan redeems him, or if he is able, then he shall redeem himself.

50 'And he shall reckon with him who bought him: The price of his release shall be according to the number of years, from the year that he was sold to him until the Year of Yobēl; as the days of a hired servant it is with him.

51 'If there are yet many years, according to them he repays the price of his redemption, from the silver of his purchase.

52 'And if few years are left until the Year of Yobēl, then he shall reckon with him, and according to his years he repays him the price of his redemption.

53 'He is with him as a yearly hired servant, and he does not rule with harshness over him before your eyes.

54 'And if he is not redeemed in these years, then he shall be released in the Year of Yobël, he and his children with him.

55 'Because the children of Yisra'ël are servants to Me, they are My servants whom I brought out of the land of Mitsrayim. I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.

26 'Do not make idols for yourselves, and do not put up a carved image or a pillar for yourselves, and do not place a stone image in your land, to bow down to it. For I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.

2 'Guard My Shabbathoth and reverence My Miqdash. I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

3 'If you walk in My Laws and guard My Commands, and shall do them,

4 then I shall give you rain in its season, and the land shall yield its crops, and the trees of the field yield their fruit.

5 'And your threshing shall last till the time of the grape harvest, and the grape harvest shall last till the time of sowing. And you shall eat your bread until you have enough, and shall dwell in your land safely.

6 'And I shall give peace in the land, and you shall lie down and no one make you afraid. And I shall clear the land of evil beasts, and not let the sword go through your land.

7 'And you shall pursue your enemies, and they shall fall by the sword before you.

8 'And five of you shall pursue a hundred, and a hundred of you pursue ten thousand. And your enemies shall fall by the sword before you.

9 'And I shall turn to you and make you bear fruit, and shall increase you, and shall establish My Covenant with you.

10 'And you shall eat the old supply, and clear out the old because of the new.

11 'And I shall put My Mishkan in your midst, and My being shall not reject you.

12 'And I shall walk in your midst, and shall be your Elohim, and you shall be My people.

13 'I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, from being their slaves. And I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk upright.

14 'But if you do not obey Me, and do not do all these Commands,

15 and if you reject My Laws, or if your being loathes My Right-Rulings, so that you do not do all My Commands, but break My Covenant,

16 'I also do this to you: And I shall appoint sudden alarm over you, wasting disease and inflammation, destroying the eyes, and consuming the life. And you shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 'And I shall turn My face against you, and you shall be smitten before your enemies. And those who hate you shall rule over you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you.

18 'And after all these, if you do not obey Me, then I shall punish you seven times more for your sins.

19 'And I shall break the pride of your power, and shall make your shamayim like iron and your earth like bronze.

20 'And your strength shall be spent in vain and your land not yield its crops, nor the trees of the land yield their fruit.

21 'And if you walk contrary to Me, and refuse to obey Me, I shall bring on you seven times more plagues, according to your sins,

22 and send wild beasts among you, which shall bereave you of your children. And I shall cut off your livestock, and make you few in number, and your highways shall be deserted.

23 'And if you are not instructed by Me by these, but walk contrary to Me,

24 then I also shall walk contrary to you, and I Myself shall smite you seven times for your sins.

25 'And I shall bring against you a sword executing the vengeance of My Covenant, and you shall gather together in your cities, and I shall send pestilence among you, and you shall be given into the hand of the enemy.

26 'When I have cut off your supply of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall bring back to you your bread by weight, and you shall eat and not be satisfied.

27 'And if in spite of this, you do not obey Me, but walk contrary to Me,

28 then I shall walk contrary to you in wrath. And I Myself shall punish you seven times for your sins.

29 'And you shall eat the flesh of your sons, and eat the flesh of your daughters.

30 'And I shall destroy your high places, and cut down your sun-pillars, and put your carcasses on the carcasses of your idols. And My being shall loathe you.

31 'And I shall turn your cities into ruins and lay your miqdashim waste, and not smell your sweet fragrances.

32 'And I shall lay the land waste, and your enemies who dwell in it shall be astonished at it.

33 'And I shall scatter you among the gentiles and draw out a sword after you. And your land shall be desert and your cities ruins,

34 and the land enjoy its Shabbathoth as long as it lies waste and you are in your enemies' land. Then the land would rest and enjoy its Shabbathoth.

35 'As long as it lies waste it rests, for the time it did not rest on your Shabbathoth when you dwelt in it.

36 'And as for those of you who are left, I shall send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee. And they shall flee as though retreating from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues.

37 'And they shall stumble over one another, as from before a sword, when no one pursues. And you shall be unable to stand before your enemies.

38 'And you shall perish among the gentiles, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up, 39 and those of you who are left rot away in their wickedness in your enemies' lands, and also in their fathers' wickednesses rot away with them.

40 'But if they confess their wickedness and the wickedness of their fathers, with their trespass in which they trespassed against Me, and that they also have walked contrary to Me,

41 and that I also have walked contrary to them and have brought them into the land of their enemies - if their uncircumcised heart is then humbled, and they accept the punishment of their wickedness,

42 then I shall remember My Covenant with Ya'aqob, and also My Covenant with Yitshaq, and also remember My Covenant with Abraham, and remember the land.

43 'For the land was abandoned by them, and enjoying its Shabbathoth while lying waste without them, and they were paying for their wickedness, because they rejected My Right-Rulings and because their being loathed My Laws.

44 'And yet for all this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I shall not reject them, nor shall I loathe them so as to destroy them and break My Covenant with them. For I am אלהים their Elohim.

45 'Then I shall remember for their sake the Covenant of the ancestors whom I brought out of the land of Mitsrayim before the eyes of the nations to be their Elohim. I am אלהים.' ”

46 These are the Laws and the Right-Rulings and the Torot which אלהים made between Himself and the children of Yisra'el on Mount Sinai by the hand of Mosheh.

27 And אלהים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, 'When a man separates a vow, by your evaluation of lives unto אלהים,

3 when your evaluation is of a male from twenty years old up to sixty years old, then your evaluation shall be fifty sheqels of silver, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place.

4 'And if it is a female, then your evaluation shall be thirty sheqels;

5 and if from five years old up to twenty years old, then your evaluation for a male shall be twenty sheqels, and for a female ten sheqels;

6 and if from a month old up to five years old, then your evaluation for a male shall be five sheqels of silver, and for a female your evaluation shall be three sheqels of silver;

7 and if from sixty years old and above, if it is a male, then your evaluation shall be fifteen sheqels, and for a female ten sheqels.

- 8 'But if he is too poor to pay your evaluation, then he shall present himself before the kohēn, and the kohēn shall lay a value for him. According to the ability of him who vowed, the kohēn shall value him.
- 9 'And if it is a beast of which they bring an offering to אֱלֹהִים, all such given to אֱלֹהִים is qodesh.
- 10 'He is not to replace it or exchange it, good for spoilt or spoilt for good. And if he at all exchanges beast for beast, then both it and the one exchanged for it is qodesh.
- 11 'And if it is any unclean beast of which they do not bring an offering to אֱלֹהִים, then he shall present the beast before the kohēn;
- 12 and the kohēn shall value it, whether it is good or spoilt. According to your evaluation, O kohēn, so it shall be.
- 13 'But if he indeed redeems it, then he shall add one-fifth to your evaluation.
- 14 'And when a man qadosh his house, to be qodesh to אֱלֹהִים, then the kohēn shall value it, whether it is good or spoilt. As the kohēn values it, so it stands.
- 15 'And if he who qadosh it redeems his house, then he shall add one-fifth of the silver of your evaluation to it, and it shall be his.
- 16 'And if a man qadosh to אֱלֹהִים a field he owns, then your evaluation shall be according to the seed for it - a ḥomer of barley seed at fifty sheqels of silver.
- 17 'If he qadosh his field from the Year of Yobēl, according to your evaluation it stands.
- 18 'But if he qadosh his field after the Yobēl, then the kohēn shall reckon to him the silver due according to the years that remain till the Year of Yobēl, and it shall be deducted from your evaluation.

19 'And if he who qadosh the field would redeem it, then he shall add one-fifth of the silver of your evaluation to it, and it shall be his.

20 'And if he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it is no longer redeemed,

21 but the field, when it is released in the Yobël, is qodesh to אֱלֹהִים as a dedicated field, to be the possession of the kohën.

22 'And if a man qadosh to אֱלֹהִים a field which he has bought, which is not the field of his possession,

23 then the kohën shall reckon to him the amount of your evaluation, up to the Year of Yobël, and he shall give your evaluation on that day, qodesh to אֱלֹהִים.

24 'In the Year of Yobël the field returns to him from whom he bought it, to him whose is the possession of the land.

25 'And all your evaluations are to be according to the sheqel of the qodesh place: twenty gërahs to the sheqel.

26 'However, a first-born of the beasts, which is first-born to אֱלֹהִים, no man qadosh it - whether bull or sheep, it belongs to אֱלֹהִים.

27 'And if among the unclean beasts, then he shall ransom it according to your evaluation, and shall add one-fifth to it. And if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your evaluation.

28 'However, whatever a man lays under ban for אֱלֹהִים of all that he has, man and beast, or the field of his possession, is not sold or redeemed. Whatever is laid under ban is most qodesh to אֱלֹהִים.

29 'No one under the ban, under the ban among men, is ransomed, but shall certainly be put to death.

30 'And all the tithe of the land - of the seed of the land or of the fruit of the tree - belongs to אֱלֹהִים. It is qodesh to אֱלֹהִים.

31 'If a man indeed redeems any of his tithes, he adds one-fifth to it.

32 'And the entire tithe of the herd and of the flock, all that passes under the rod, the tenth one is qodesh to אֱלֹהִים.

33 'He does not inquire whether it is good or spoilt, nor does he exchange it. And if he exchanges it at all, then both it and the one exchanged for it are qodesh, it is not redeemed.' "

34 These are the Commands which אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh for the children of Yisra'el on Mount Sinai.

- 1 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the Tent of Appointment, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they had come out of the land of Mitsrayim, saying,
- 2 “Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ël, by their clans, by their fathers’ houses, according to the number of names, every male, head by head,
- 3 from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army in Yisra’ël. Number them by their divisions, you and Aharon.
- 4 “And a man from every tribe should be with you, each one the head of his father’s house.
- 5 “And these are the names of the men who stand with you. From Re’uḇĕn: Elitsur, son of Sheḏĕy’ur.
- 6 “From Shim’on: Shelumi’ël, son of Tsurishaddai.
- 7 “From Yahudah: Naḥshon, son of Amminadab.
- 8 “From Yissaskar: Nethan’ël, son of Tsu’ar.
- 9 “From Zebulun: Eliyab, son of Hĕlon.
- 10 “From the sons of Yosĕph: From Ephrayim: Elishama, son of Ammihuḏ. From Menashsheh: Gamli’ël, son of Pedahsur.
- 11 “From Binyamin: Abidan, son of Gid’oni.
- 12 “From Dan: Ahi’ezer, son Ammishaddai.
- 13 “From Ashĕr: Paġ’i’ël, son of Oḵran.
- 14 “From Gaḏ: Elyasaph, son of Deu’ël.
- 15 “From Naphtali: Aḥira, son of Ĕynan.”
- 16 These are the ones called from the congregation, leaders of their fathers’ tribes, heads of the thousands of Yisra’ël.

17 And Mosheh and Aharon took these men who were called by name,

18 and they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month. And they declared their ancestry by clans, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, each one head by head.

19 As אִרְאֵל commanded Mosheh, so he registered them in the Wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Re'ubēn, Yisra'ēl's first-born, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, every male head by head, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 21 those who were registered of the tribe of Re'ubēn were forty-six thousand five hundred.

22 From the children of Shim'on, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, of those who were registered, according to the number of names, every male head by head, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army,

23 those who were registered of the tribe of Shim'on were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

24 From the children of Gaḏ, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army,

25 those who were registered of the tribe of Gaḏ were forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26 From the children of Yahudaḥ, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 27 those who were registered of the tribe of Yahudaḥ were seventy-four thousand six hundred.

28 From the children of Yissaskar, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army,

29 those who were registered of the tribe of Yissaskar were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

30 From the children of Zebulun, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army,

31 those who were registered of the tribe of Zebulun were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32 From the sons of Yosēph, the children of Ephrayim, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 33 those who were registered of the tribe of Ephrayim were forty thousand five hundred.

34 From the children of Menashsheh, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 35 those who were registered of the tribe of Menashsheh were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36 From the children of Binyamin, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 37 those who were registered of the tribe of Binyamin were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38 From the children of Dan, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 39 those who were registered of the tribe of Dan were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40 From the children of Ashër, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 41 those who were registered of the tribe of Ashër were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42 From the children of Naphtali, their genealogies by their clans, by their fathers' house, according to the number of names, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army, 43 those who were registered of the tribe of Naphtali were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44 These were those registered, whom Mosheh and Aharon registered, with the leaders of Yisra'ël, twelve men, each one for his father's house.

45 And all those that were registered of the children of Yisra'ël, by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and above, everyone going out to the army in Yisra'ël, 46 all those that were registered were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

47 But the Lěwites were not registered among them by their fathers' tribe,

48 because אִרְאֵל had spoken to Mosheh, saying,

49 "Only the tribe of Lěwi you do not register, nor take a census of them among the children of Yisra'ël.

50 "Instead, appoint the Lěwites over the Mishkan of the Witness, over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it. They bear the Mishkan and all its furnishings, and they attend to it, and camp around the Mishkan.

51 "And when the Mishkan is to go forward, the Lěwites take it down. And when the Mishkan is to be put up, the Lēwites put it up. And the stranger who comes near is put to death.

52 “And the children of Yisra’ēl shall pitch their tents, everyone by his own camp, everyone by his own banner, according to their divisions, 53 but let the Lēwites camp around the Mishkan of the Witness, so that there be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Yisra’ēl. And the Lēwites shall guard the duty of the Mishkan of the Witness.”

54 And the children of Yisra’ēl did according to all that אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh, so they did.

2 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying,

2 “The children of Yisra’ēl are to camp, each one by his own banner, beside the sign of his father’s house. Let them camp around the Tent of Appointment at a distance.”

3 And on the east side, towards sunrise: those of the banner of the camp of Yahudāh camp according to their divisions. And the leader of the children of Yahudāh: Naḥshon, son of Amminadab.

4 And his army with their registered ones: seventy-four thousand six hundred.

5 And those camping next to him is the tribe of Yissaskar, and the leader of the children of Yissaskar: Nethan’ēl, son of Tsu’ar.

6 And his army with its registered ones: fifty-four thousand four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zeḅulun, and the leader of the children of Zeḅulun: Eliyab, son of Hēlon.

8 And his army with its registered ones: fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

- 9 All the registered ones of the camp of Yahudāh, according to their divisions: one hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred. These depart first.
- 10 On the south side: the banner of the camp of Re'ubēn according to their divisions, and the leader of the children of Re'ubēn: Elitsur, son of Shedĕy'ur.
- 11 And his army with its registered ones: forty-six thousand five hundred.
- 12 And those who camp next to him: the tribe of Shim'on, and the leader of the children of Shim'on: Shelumi'ēl, son of Tsurishaddai.
- 13 And his army with their registered ones: fifty-nine thousand three hundred.
- 14 Then the tribe of Gaḏ, and the leader of the children of Gaḏ: Elyasaph, son of Re'uw'ēl.
- 15 And his army with their registered ones: forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
- 16 All the registered ones of the camp of Re'ubēn, according to their divisions: one hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty. And they are the second to depart.
- 17 And the Tent of Appointment, the camp of the Lēwites, shall move out in the middle of the camps. As they camp, so they move out, everyone in his place, by their banners.
- 18 On the west side: the banner of the camp of Ephrayim according to their divisions, and the leader of the children of Ephrayim: Elishama, son of Ammihud.
- 19 And his army with their registered ones: forty thousand five hundred.
- 20 And next to him the tribe of Menashsheh, and the leader of the children of Menashsheh: Gamli'ēl, son of Pedāhtsur.

- 21 And his army with their registered ones: thirty-two thousand two hundred.
- 22 Then the tribe of Binyamin, and the leader of the children of Binyamin: Aḅīdan, son of Gīd'oni.
- 23 And his army with their registered ones: thirty-five thousand four hundred.
- 24 All the registered ones of the camp of Ephrayim, according to their divisions: one hundred and eight thousand one hundred. And they are the third to depart.
- 25 On the north side: the banner of the camp of Dan, according to their divisions, and the leader of the children of Dan: Aḅi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.
- 26 And his army with their registered ones: sixty-two thousand seven hundred.
- 27 And those who camp next to him: the tribe of Ashër, and the leader of the children of Ashër: Paḡ'i'ël, son of Oḅran.
- 28 And his army with their registered ones: forty-one thousand five hundred.
- 29 Then the tribe of Naphtali, and the leader of the children of Naphtali: Aḅira, son of Ėynan.
- 30 And his army with their registered ones: fifty-three thousand four hundred.
- 31 All the registered ones of the camp of Dan: one hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They depart last, with their banners.
- 32 These were registered ones of the children of Yisra'ël by their fathers' houses. All who were registered according to their divisions of the camps: six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
- 33 But the Lěwites were not registered among the children of Yisra'ël, as אִתָּן commanded Mosheh.
- 34 And the children of Yisra'ël did according to all that אִתָּן commanded Mosheh. So they camped by their banners and so they departed, each one by his clan, according to their fathers' houses.

3 And these are the generations of Aharon and Mosheh when אֱלֹהִים spoke with Mosheh on Mount Sinai.

2 And these are the names of the sons of Aharon: Naḏab, the first-born, and Aḇihu, El'azar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sons of Aharon, the anointed kohanim, whom he ordained to act as kohanim.

4 And Naḏab and Aḇihu had died before אֱלֹהִים when they brought strange fire before אֱלֹהִים in the Wilderness of Sinai. And they had no children. So El'azar and Ithamar acted as kohanim in the presence of Aharon their father.

5 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

6 "Bring the tribe of Lēwi near, and put them before Aharon the kohēn, and they shall serve him,

7 and shall guard his duty and the duty of all the congregation before the Tent of Appointment, to do the service of the Mishkan.

8 "And they shall guard all the furnishings of the Tent of Appointment, and the duty of the children of Yisra'el, to do the service of the Mishkan.

9 "And you shall give the Lēwites to Aharon and his sons. They are the given ones, given to him from among the children of Yisra'el.

10 "And appoint Aharon and his sons, and they shall guard their kehunnah. And the stranger who comes near shall be put to death."

11 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

12 "Now look, I Myself have taken the Lēwites from among the children of Yisra'el instead of every first-born who opens the womb among the children of Yisra'ël. And the Lěwites shall be Mine, 13 because all the first-born are Mine. On the day that I struck all the first-born in the land of Mitsrayim, I qadosh to Myself all the first-born in Yisra'ël, both man and beast. They are Mine, I am אֱלֹהִים.”

14 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh in the Wilderness of Sinai, saying,

15 “Register the children of Lěwi by their fathers' houses, by their clans. Register every male from a month old and above.”

16 So Mosheh registered them according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, as he had been commanded.

17 And these were the sons of Lěwi by their names: Gěreshon, and Qehath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gěreshon by their clans: Liḅni and Shim'i.

19 And the sons of Qehath by their clans: Amram and Yitshar, Heḅron and Uzzi'ël.

20 And the sons of Merari by their clans: Maḅli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Lěwites by their fathers' houses.

21 From Gěreshon came the clan of the Liḅnites and the clan of the Shim'ites. These were the clans of the Gěreshonites.

22 Their registered ones, according to the number of all the males from a month old and above, their registered ones were seven thousand five hundred.

23 The clans of the Gěreshonites were to camp westward, behind the Mishkan, 24 and the leader of the fathers' house of the Gěreshonites: Elyasaph, son of La'ël.

25 And the duty of the children of Gěreshon in the Tent of Appointment was the Mishkan, and the Tent with its covering, and the covering of the door of the Tent of Appointment, 26 and the screens of the courtyard and the covering of the door of the courtyard, which is around the Mishkan and the altar, and their cords, according to all its service.

27 And from Qehath came the clan of the Amramites, and the clan of the Yitsharites, and the clan of the Hebronites, and the clan of the Uzzi'elites. These were the clans of the Qehathites.

28 In number, all the males, from a month old and above, were eight thousand six hundred, guarding the duty of the qodesh place.

29 The clans of the children of Qehath were to camp on the south side of the Mishkan.

30 And the leader of the fathers' house of the clans of the Qehathites was Elitsaphan, son of Uzzi'el.

31 And their duty was the ark, and the table, and the lampstand, and the altars, and the utensils of the qodesh place used in the service, and the covering, and all its service.

32 And El'azar, son of Aharon the kohēn, was to be chief over the leaders of the Lēwites, with oversight of those who guard the duty of the qodesh place.

33 From Merari came the clan of the Maḥlites and the clan of the Mushites. These were the clans of Merari.

34 And the number of their registered ones, all the males from a month old and above, were six thousand two hundred.

35 And the leader of the fathers' house of the clans of Merari was Tsurī'el, son of Abīḥayil. These were to camp on the north side of the Mishkan.

36 And the appointed duty of the children of Merari was the boards of the Mishkan, and its bars, and its columns, and its sockets, and its utensils, and all its service,

37 and the columns of the courtyard all around, with their sockets, and their pegs, and their cords.

38 And those who were to camp before the Mishkan on the east, before the Tent of Appointment, were Mosheh and Aharon, and his sons, guarding the duty of the Miqdash, and the duty of the children of Yisra'ël. But the stranger who came near was to be put to death.

39 All the registered ones of the Lěwites, whom Mosheh and Aharon registered at the command of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, by their clans, all the males from a month old and above, were twenty-two thousand.

40 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, "Register all the first-born males of the children of Yisra'ël from a month old and above, and take the number of their names.

41 "And you shall take the Lěwites for Me - I am אִיִּזְרָאֵל - instead of all the first-born among the children of Yisra'ël, and the livestock of the Lěwites instead of all the first-born among the livestock of the children of Yisra'ël."

42 And Mosheh registered all the first-born among the children of Yisra'ël as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had commanded him.

43 And all the first-born males, by the number of names, from one month old and above of their registered ones, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.

44 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

45 "Take the Lěwites instead of all the first-born among the children of Yisra'ël, and the livestock of the Lěwites instead of their livestock. And the Lěwites shall be Mine, I am אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

46 "And for the ransom of the two hundred and seventy-three of the first-born of the children of

Yisra'el, who are more than the number of the Lēwites,

47 you shall take five sheqels for each one, head by head - take it by the sheqel of the qodesh place, the sheqel of twenty gěrahs.

48 “And you shall give the silver, the ransom of those who are in excess among them, to Aharon and his sons.”

49 And Mosheh took the ransom silver from those who were over and above those who were ransomed by the Lēwites.

50 From the first-born of the children of Yisra'el he took the silver, one thousand three hundred and sixty-five pieces, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place.

51 And Mosheh gave their ransom silver to Aharon, and to his sons, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, and to Aharon, saying,

2 “Take a census of the sons of Qehath from among the children of Lēwi, by their clans, by their fathers’ house,

3 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work in the Tent of Appointment.

4 “This is the service of the sons of Qehath in the Tent of Appointment, the most qodesh matters:

5 “At the breaking of camp, Aharon and his sons shall come, and they shall take down the covering veil and cover the ark of the Witness with it,

6 and shall put on it a covering of fine leather, and spread over that an all-blue wrapper, and shall insert its poles.

7 “And on the table of showbread they shall spread a blue wrapper, and shall put on it the dishes, and the ladles, and the bowls, and the jars for pouring, and the showbread on it.

8 “And they shall spread over them a scarlet wrapper, and cover the same with a covering of fine leather, and shall insert its poles,

9 and shall take a blue wrapper and cover the lampstand of the light, with its lamps, and its snuffers, and its trays, and all its oil vessels, by which they serve it.

10 “And they shall put it with all its utensils in a covering of fine leather, and put it on a bar.

11 “And over the golden altar they shall spread a blue wrapper, and cover it with a covering of fine leather, and shall insert its poles,

12 and shall take all the utensils of service with which they serve in the qodesh place, and shall put them in a blue wrapper, cover them with a covering of fine leather, and put them on a bar,

13 and shall remove the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple wrapper over it,

14 and shall put on it all its utensils by which they serve there: the fire holders, the forks, and the shovels, and the basins, and all the utensils of the altar, and shall spread on it a covering of fine leather, and insert its poles.

15 “And when Aharon and his sons have finished covering the qodesh objects and all the furnishings of the qodesh place at the breaking of camp, then the sons of Qehath shall come to lift them, but let them not touch that which is qodesh, lest they die. These are the burden of the sons of Qehath in the Tent of Appointment.

16 “And the oversight of El’azar, son of Aharon the kohēn, is the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily grain offering, and the anointing oil, and the oversight of all the Mishkan and all that is in it, with the qodesh place and its furnishings.”

17 And אֶלְעָזָר spoke to Mosheh, and to Aharon, saying,

18 “Do not cut off the tribe of the clans of the Qehathites from among the Lēwites, 19 but do this to them, and they shall live and not die when they approach the most qodesh objects: Aharon and his sons shall go in and appoint each of them to his service and his burden.

20 “They are not, however, to go in to watch while the qodesh objects are being covered, lest they die.”

21 And אֶלְעָזָר spoke to Mosheh, saying,

22 “Take a census also of the sons of Gěreshon, by their fathers’ house, by their clans.

23 “Register them, from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter to perform the service, to do the service in the Tent of Appointment.

24 “This is the service of the clans of the Gěreshonites, in serving and in bearing burdens:

25 “And they shall bear the curtains of the Mishkan and the Tent of Appointment with its covering, the covering of fine leather that is on it, the covering for the door of the Tent of Appointment,

26 and the screens of the courtyard and the covering for the door of the gate of the courtyard, which is around the Mishkan and altar, and their cords, all the equipment for their service and all that is made for them - so shall they serve.

27 “Aharon and his sons are to command all the service of the sons of the Gěreshonites, all their burden and all their service. And you shall appoint to them all the duty of all their burden.

28 “This is the service of the clans of the sons of Gěreshon in the Tent of Appointment. And let their duties be under the hand of Ithamar, son of Aharon the kohěn.

29 “As for the sons of Merari, register them by their clans and by their fathers’ house.

30 “Register them, from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who enter the service to do the work of the Tent of Appointment.

31 “And this is the duty of their burden, according to all their service for the Tent of Appointment: the boards of the Mishkan, and its bars, and its columns, and its sockets, 32 and the columns around the courtyard with their sockets, and their pegs, and their cords, with all their equipment and all their service. And assign by name the equipment of the duty of their burden.

33 “This is the service of the clans of the sons of Merari, as all their service for the Tent of Appointment, under the hand of Ithamar, son of Aharon the kohěn.”

34 So Mosheh and Aharon and the leaders of the congregation registered the sons of the Qehathites by their clans and by their fathers’ house,

35 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who entered the service for work in the Tent of Appointment.

36 And their registered ones, by their clans, were two thousand seven hundred and fifty.

37 These were the registered ones of the clans of the Qehathites, all those serving in the Tent of Appointment, whom Mosheh and Aharon registered according to the command of אִרְאֵה by the hand of Mosheh.

38 And those registered ones of the sons of Gěreshon, by their clans and by their fathers' house,
39 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who entered the service for work in the Tent of Appointment,

40 the registered ones, by their clans, by their fathers' house, were two thousand six hundred and thirty.

41 These were the registered ones of the clans of the sons of Gěreshon, of all who serve in the Tent of Appointment, whom Mosheh and Aharon registered according to the command of אִרְאֵה.

42 And those of the clans of the sons of Merari who were registered, by their clans, by their fathers' house,

43 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who entered the service for work in the Tent of Appointment, 44 the registered ones, by their clans were three thousand two hundred.

45 These were the registered ones of the clans of the sons of Merari, whom Mosheh and Aharon registered according to the command of אִרְאֵה by the hand of Mosheh.

46 All the registered ones of the Lěwites, whom Mosheh and Aharon and the leaders of Yisra'ěl registered, by their clans and by their fathers' houses,

47 from thirty years old and above, even to fifty years old, all who came to do the work of service and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Appointment,
48 their registered ones were eight thousand five hundred and eighty.

49 According to the command of אִרְאֵה they were registered by the hand of Mosheh, each according to his service and according to his burden, thus were they registered by him, as אִרְאֵל commanded Mosheh.

5 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Command the children of Yisra’ël to send out of the camp every leper, and everyone who has a discharge, and whoever becomes defiled for a being.

3 “Send out both male and female, send them outside the camp, so that they do not defile their camps in the midst of which I dwell.”

4 And the children of Yisra’ël did so, to send them outside the camp. As אִרְאֵל had spoken to Mosheh, so the children of Yisra’ël did.

5 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

6 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, ‘When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit in trespass against אִרְאֵל, and that being is guilty,

7 then they shall confess their sin which they have done. And he shall restore his guilt in its principal, plus one-fifth of it, and give it to whom he has been guilty.

8 ‘But if the man has no relative to restore the guilt to, the guilt which is restored goes to אִרְאֵל, for the kohën, in addition to the ram of the atonement with which atonement is made for him.

9 ‘And every contribution of all the qodesh gifts of the children of Yisra’ël, which they bring to the kohën, becomes his.

10 ‘And every man’s qodesh gifts becomes his, whatever any man gives the kohën becomes his.’ ”

11 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

12 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, and say to them, ‘When any man’s wife turns aside and has committed a trespass against him,

13 and a man has intercourse with her, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and it is concealed that she has defiled herself, and there was no witness against her, nor was she caught,

14 and a spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife who has defiled herself, or a spirit of jealousy comes upon him and he becomes jealous of his wife although she has not defiled herself,

15 then the man shall bring his wife to the kohēn. And he shall bring the offering for her, one-tenth of an ēphah of barley flour. He is not to pour oil on it or put frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, an offering for remembering, for bringing wickedness to remembrance.

16 ‘And the kohēn shall bring her near, and shall make her stand before אִי־אִי־אִי.

17 ‘And the kohēn shall take qodesh water in an earthen vessel, and take some of the dust that is on the floor of the Mishkan and put it into the water.

18 ‘And the kohēn shall make the woman stand before אִי־אִי־אִי, and shall uncover the woman’s head, and put the offering for remembering in her hands, which is the grain offering of jealousy, while the kohēn holds in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.

19 ‘And the kohēn shall make her swear, and say to the woman, “If no man has lain with you, and if you have not turned aside to uncleanness under your husband, be free from this bitter water that brings a curse.

20 “But if you have turned aside under your husband, and if you have defiled yourself and some man other than your husband has lain with you”-

21 then the kohēn shall make the woman swear with the oath of the curse, and he shall say to the woman

- “אִיִּזְעוּ make you a curse and an oath among your people, when אִיִּזְעוּ makes your thigh waste away and your abdomen swell,

22 and this water that causes the curse shall go into your inward parts, and make your abdomen swell and your thigh waste away.” And the woman shall say, “Aměn, aměn.”

23 ‘And the kohěn shall write these curses in a book, and shall wipe them off into the bitter water,

24 and shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings the curse, and the water that brings the curse shall enter her to become bitter.

25 ‘And the kohěn shall take the grain offering of jealousy from the woman’s hand, and shall wave the offering before אִיִּזְעוּ, and bring it to the altar.

26 ‘And the kohěn shall take a hand filled with the offering, as its remembrance offering, and burn it on the altar, and afterward make the woman drink the water.

27 ‘And when he has made her drink the water, then it shall be, if she has defiled herself and has committed a trespass against her husband, that the water that brings the curse shall enter her and become bitter, and her abdomen shall swell, and her thigh shall waste away, and the woman shall become a curse among her people.

28 ‘But if the woman has not defiled herself, and is clean, then she shall be clear and shall conceive children.

29 ‘This is the Torah of jealousy, when a wife turns aside under her husband and defiles herself, 30 or when a spirit of jealousy comes upon a man, and he becomes jealous of his wife. Then he shall make the woman stand before אִיִּזְעוּ, and the kohěn shall do to her all this Torah.

31 'And the man shall be clear from wickedness, but the woman bear her wickedness.' ”

6 And אִישׁוֹאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, and say to them, ‘When a man or woman separates, by making a vow of a Nazirite, to be separate to אִישׁוֹאֵל,

3 he separates from wine and strong drink - he drinks neither vinegar of wine nor vinegar of strong drink, neither does he drink any grape juice, nor eat grapes or raisins.

4 ‘All the days of his separation he does not eat whatever is made of the grapevine, from seed to skin.

5 ‘All the days of the vow of his separation a razor does not come upon his head. Until the days are completed for which he separates himself to אִישׁוֹאֵל, he is qodesh. He shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow long.

6 ‘All the days of his separation to אִישׁוֹאֵל he does not go near a dead body.

7 ‘He does not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother or his sister, when they die, because his separation to Elohim is on his head.

8 ‘All the days of his separation he is qodesh to אִישׁוֹאֵל.

9 ‘And when anyone dies beside him in an instant, suddenly, and he has defiled the head of his separation, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing - on the seventh day he shaves it.

10 ‘And on the eighth day he brings two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the kohēn, to the door of the Tent of Appointment,

11 and the kohēn shall prepare one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, and shall make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead body. And he shall qadosh his head on that day, 12 and shall separate to אִזְרָאֵל the days of his separation, and shall bring a male lamb a year old, as a guilt offering. But the former days are not counted, because his separation was defiled.

13 'And this is the Torah of the Nazirite: When the days of his separation are completed, he is brought to the door of the Tent of Appointment,

14 and he shall bring his offering to אִזְרָאֵל: one male lamb a year old, a perfect one, as a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old, a perfect one, as a sin offering, and one ram, a perfect one, as a peace offering,

15 and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened thin cakes anointed with oil, and their grain offering with their drink offerings.

16 'And the kohēn shall bring them before אִזְרָאֵל and prepare his sin offering and his burnt offering.

17 'And he shall prepare the ram as a peace offering to אִזְרָאֵל, together with the basket of unleavened bread. And the kohēn shall prepare its grain offering and its drink offering.

18 'And the Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tent of Appointment, and shall take the hair from the head of his separation and shall put it on the fire which is under the slaughtering of the peace offering.

19 'And the kohēn shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake from the basket, and one unleavened thin cake, and put them upon the hands of the Nazirite after he has shaved his dedicated hair.

20 'Then the kohēn shall wave them, a wave offering before אֱלֹהִים. It is qodesh for the kohēn, besides the breast of the wave offering and besides the thigh of the contribution. And afterwards the Nazirite shall drink wine.'

21 "This is the Torah of the Nazirite who vows to אֱלֹהִים the offering for his separation, and besides that, whatever else his hand is able to provide. According to the vow which he takes, so he shall do according to the Torah of his separation."

22 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

23 "Speak to Aharon and his sons, saying, 'This is how you barak the children of Yisra'el. Say to them:

24 "אֱלֹהִים barak you and guard you;

25 אֱלֹהִים make His face shine upon you, and show favour to you;

26 אֱלֹהִים lift up His face upon you, and give you peace.' "

27 "Thus they shall put My Name on the children of Yisra'el, and I Myself shall barak them."

7 And it came to be, when Mosheh finished putting up the Mishkan, that he anointed it and qadosh it and all its furnishings, as well as the altar and all its utensils. Thus he anointed them and qadosh them.

2 And the leaders of Yisra'el, heads of their fathers' houses who were the leaders of the tribes and over the ones registered, drew near,

3 and they brought their offering before אֱלֹהִים: six covered wagons and twelve cattle, a wagon for every two of the leaders, and for each one a bull. And they brought them near before the Mishkan.

4 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

5 "Accept from them, and they shall be used in doing the service of the Tent of Appointment. And you shall give them to the Lēwites, each one according to his service.”

6 And Mosheh took the wagons and the cattle, and gave them to the Lēwites.

7 He gave two wagons and four cattle to the sons of Gēreshon, according to their service.

8 And he gave four wagons and eight cattle to the sons of Merari, according to their service, under the hand of Ithamar, son of Aharon the kohēn.

9 But to the sons of Qehath he gave none, because theirs was the service of the qodesh objects, which they bore on their shoulders.

10 And the leaders brought the dedication of the altar in the day it was anointed. So the leaders brought their offering before the altar.

11 And אִי־אֵז said to Mosheh, “Let them bring their offering, one leader each day, for the dedication of the altar.”

12 And the one who brought his offering on the first day was Naḥshon, son of Amminadaḅ, from the tribe of Yahudah.

13 And his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

14 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

15 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

16 one male goat as a sin offering;

17 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Naḥshon, son of Amminadaḅ.

18 On the second day Nethan’ēl, son of Tsu’ar, leader of Yissasḅar, brought near.

19 He brought his offering, one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

20 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

21 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

22 one male goat as a sin offering;

23 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethan'ël, son of Tsu'ar.

24 On the third day Eliyaḅ, son of Ḥëlon, leader of the children of Zebulun:

25 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

26 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

27 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

28 one male goat as a sin offering;

29 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliyaḅ, son of Ḥëlon.

30 On the fourth day Elitsur, son of Shedëy'ur, leader of the children of Re'uḅën:

31 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

32 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

33 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

34 one male goat as a sin offering;

35 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elitsur, son of Shedĕy'ur.

36 On the fifth day Shelumi'ĕl, son of Tsurishaddai, leader of the children of Shim'on:

37 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

38 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

39 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

40 one male goat as a sin offering;

41 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Shelumi'ĕl, son of Tsurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day Elyasaph, son of Deu'ĕl, leader of the children of Gaḏ:

43 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

44 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

45 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

46 one male goat as a sin offering;

47 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elyasaph, son of Deu'ĕl.

48 On the seventh day Elishama, son of Ammihud, leader of the children of Ephrayim:

49 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

50 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

51 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year
old, as a burnt offering;

52 one male goat as a sin offering;

53 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama, son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day Gamli'el, son of Pedahsur, leader of the children of Menashsheh:

55 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed
with oil as a grain offering;

56 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

57 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year
old, as a burnt offering;

58 one male goat as a sin offering;

59 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamli'el, son of Pedahsur.

60 On the ninth day Abidan, son of Gidon, leader of the children of Binyamin:

61 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed
with oil as a grain offering;

- 62 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;
63 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;
64 one male goat as a sin offering;
65 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abīdan, son of Gid'oni.
66 On the tenth day Aḥi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai, leader of the children of Dan:
67 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;
68 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;
69 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;
70 one male goat as a sin offering;
71 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Aḥi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.
72 On the eleventh day Paḡ'i'ēl, son of Oḡran, leader of the children of Ashēr:
73 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;
74 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;
75 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;
76 one male goat as a sin offering;
77 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Paḡ'i'ēl, son of Oḡran.

78 On the twelfth day Aḥira, son of Ėynan, leader of the children of Naphtali:

79 his offering was one silver dish, the weight of which was one hundred and thirty, one silver bowl of seventy sheqels, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, both of them filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

80 one gold ladle of ten, filled with incense;

81 one young bull, one ram, one male lamb a year old, as a burnt offering;

82 one male goat as a sin offering;

83 and as a peace offering: two cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Aḥira, son of Ėynan

84 This was the dedication of the altar from the leaders of Yisra'el, when it was anointed: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver bowls, twelve gold ladles.

85 Each silver dish was one hundred and thirty and each bowl seventy. All the silver of the vessels was two thousand four hundred according to the sheqel of the qodesh place.

86 The twelve gold ladles filled with incense was ten each, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place. All the gold of the ladles was one hundred and twenty.

87 All the cattle for the burnt offering were twelve young bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs a year old twelve, with their grain offering, and the male goats as a sin offering twelve.

88 And all the cattle for the peace offerings were twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

89 And when Mosheh went into the tent of Appointment to speak with Him, he heard the voice of One speaking to him from above the lid of atonement that was on the ark of the Witness, from between the two kerubim. Thus He spoke to him.

8 And אִהְרֹן spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to Aharon, and say to him, ‘When you put up the lamps, let the seven lamps give light in front of the lampstand.’”

3 And Aharon did so. He put up the lamps to face toward the front of the lampstand, as אִהְרֹן commanded Mosheh.

4 And this is the work of the lampstand: beaten work of gold, from its base to its blossoms it is beaten work. According to the pattern which אִהְרֹן had shown Mosheh, so he made the lampstand.

5 And אִהְרֹן spoke to Mosheh, saying,

6 “Take the Lēwites from among the children of Yisra’ēl, and you shall cleanse them,

7 and do this to them to cleanse them: Sprinkle water of sin offering on them, and they shall shave all their body, and shall wash their garments, and cleanse themselves,

8 and shall take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil, while you take another young bull as a sin offering.

9 “And you shall bring the Lēwites before the Tent of Appointment, and you shall assemble all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ēl.

10 “And you shall bring the Lēwites before אִהְרֹן, and the children of Yisra’ēl shall lay their hands on the Lēwites, 11 and Aharon shall wave the Lēwites before אִהְרֹן, a wave offering from the children of Yisra’ēl - so shall they be for doing the service of אִהְרֹן.

12 “And the Lēwites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls. And one shall be prepared as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, to make atonement for the Lěwites.

13 “And you shall have the Lěwites stand before Aharon and his sons, and then wave them, a wave offering to אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

14 “Thus you shall separate the Lěwites from among the children of Yisra’ěl, and the Lěwites shall be Mine.

15 “Then after that the Lěwites shall go in to do service in the Tent of Appointment, when you have cleansed them and waved them as a wave offering.

16 “For they are given ones, given to Me from among the children of Yisra’ěl. I have taken them for Myself instead of all who open the womb, the first-born of all the children of Yisra’ěl.

17 “For all the first-born among the children of Yisra’ěl are Mine, both man and beast. On the day that I smote all the first-born in the land of Mitsrayim I qadosh them unto Myself.

18 “And I have taken the Lěwites instead of all the first-born of the children of Yisra’ěl.

19 “And I have given the Lěwites as a gift to Aharon and his sons from among the children of Yisra’ěl, to do the service of the children of Yisra’ěl in the Tent of Appointment, and to make atonement for the children of Yisra’ěl, that there be no plague among the children of Yisra’ěl when the children of Yisra’ěl come near the qodesh place.”

20 Thus Mosheh and Aharon and all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ěl did to the Lěwites according to all that אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Mosheh concerning the Lěwites, so the children of Yisra’ěl did to them.

21 And the Lěwites cleansed themselves and washed their garments, and Aharon waved them, a wave offering before אֱהָרֹן, and Aharon made atonement for them to cleanse them.

22 Then after that the Lěwites went in to do their service in the Tent of Appointment before Aharon and his sons as אֱהָרֹן commanded Mosheh concerning the Lěwites, so they did to them.

23 And אֱהָרֹן spoke to Mosheh, saying,

24 “This applies to the Lěwites: From twenty-five years old and above let him come into active service in the service of the Tent of Appointment,

25 and at the age of fifty years they retire from active service of the service, and serve no more,

26 but they shall attend with their brothers in the Tent of Appointment, to guard the duty, but shall do no service. Thus you shall do to the Lěwites regarding their duties.”

9 And אֱהָרֹן spoke to Mosheh in the Wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Mitsrayim, saying,

2 “Now, let the children of Yisra’ěl perform the Pesah at its Appointed Time.

3 “On the fourteenth day of this month, between the evenings, perform it at its Appointed Time. According to all its Laws and Right-Rulings you perform it.”

4 And Mosheh spoke to the children of Yisra’ěl to perform the Pesah.

5 So they performed the Pesah on the fourteenth day of the first month, between the evenings, in the Wilderness of Sinai. According to all that אֱהָרֹן commanded Mosheh, so the children of Yisra’ěl did.

6 But there were men who were defiled for a being of a man, so that they were not able to perform the Pesah on that day. So they came before Mosheh and Aharon that day,

7 and those men said to him, “We are defiled for the being of a man. Why are we withheld from bringing near the offering of אֶפְסָדָה at its Appointed Time among the children of Yisra’ël?”

8 And Mosheh said to them, “Wait, let me hear what אֶפְסָדָה commands concerning you.”

9 And אֶפְסָדָה spoke to Mosheh, saying,

10 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘When any male of you or your generations is unclean for a being, or is far away on a journey, he shall still perform the Pesah of אֶפְסָדָה.

11 ‘On the fourteenth day of the second month, between the evenings, they perform it - with unleavened bread and bitter herbs they eat it.

12 ‘They do not leave of it until morning, and they do not break a bone of it. According to all the Laws of the Pesah they perform it.

13 ‘But the man who is clean and is not on a journey, and has failed to perform the Pesah, that same being shall be cut off from among his people, because he did not bring the offering of אֶפְסָדָה at its Appointed Time - that man bears his sin.

14 ‘And when a stranger sojourns among you, then he shall perform the Pesah of אֶפְסָדָה. He shall do so according to the Law of the Pesah and according to its Right-Ruling. You have one Law, both for the stranger and the native of the land.’ ”

15 And on the day that the Mishkan was raised up, the cloud covered the Mishkan, the Tent of the Witness. From evening until morning it was above the Mishkan like the appearance of fire.

16 Thus it was continually: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And whenever the cloud was taken up from above the Tent, after that the children of Yisra’ël would depart. And in the place where the cloud dwelt, there the children of Yisra'ël would camp.

18 At the command of אִתָּנָה the children of Yisra'ël departed, and at the command of אִתָּנָה they camped. They remained camped as long as the cloud dwelt above the Mishkan.

19 Even when the cloud lingered many days above the Mishkan, the children of Yisra'ël guarded the Charge of אִתָּנָה, and did not depart.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was above the Mishkan a few days: according to the command of אִתָּנָה they camped, and according to the command of אִתָּנָה they would depart.

21 And so it was, when the cloud dwelt only from evening until morning: when the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they departed. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud was taken up, they departed.

22 Whether two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud lingered above the Mishkan to dwell upon it, the children of Yisra'ël camped, and did not depart. But when it was taken up, they departed.

23 At the command of אִתָּנָה they camped, and at the command of אִתָּנָה they departed. They guarded the Charge of אִתָּנָה, at the command of by the hand of Mosheh.

10 And אִתָּנָה spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Make two silver trumpets for yourself, make them of beaten work. And you shall use them for calling the congregation and for breaking camp.

3 “And when they blow both of them, all the congregation shall meet before you at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

4 “And if they blow one, then the leaders, the heads of the thousands of Yisra’ël, shall gather to you.

5 “And when you blow a shout, the camps that lie on the east side shall depart.

6 “And when you blow a shout the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall depart - they blow a shout for them to depart.

7 “And when the assembly is to be assembled, you blow, but do not shout.

8 “And the sons of Aharon, the kohenim, blow with the trumpets. And it shall be to you for a Law forever throughout your generations.

9 “And when you go into battle in your land against the enemy that distresses you, then you shall shout with the trumpets, and you shall be remembered before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, and you shall be saved from your enemies.

10 “And in the day of your gladness, and in your Appointed Times, and at the beginning of your months, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and over your peace offerings. And they shall be a remembrance for you before your Elohim. I am אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.”

11 And it came to be on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud was taken up from above the Mishkan of the Witness.

12 And the children of Yisra’ël departed, journeying from the Wilderness of Sinai. And the cloud dwelt in the Wilderness of Paran.

13 Thus they departed the first time, according to the command of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם by the hand of Mosheh.

14 And the banner of the camp of the children of Yahudah departed first according to their divisions. And over their army was Naḥshon, son of Amminadab.

15 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Yissasqar was Nethan'ěl, son of Tsu'ar.

16 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Zebulun was Eliyaḅ, son of Hēlon.

17 And the Mishkan was taken down. And the sons of Gēreshon and the sons of Merari departed, bearing the Mishkan.

18 And the banner of the camp of Re'ubēn departed according to their divisions. And over their army was Elitsur, son of Sheḏy'ur.

19 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Shim'on was Shelumi'ěl, son of Tsurishaddai.

20 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Gaḏ was Elyasaph, the son of Deu'ěl.

21 And the Qehathites departed, bearing the Miqdash, while the Mishkan was put up before they came.

22 And the banner of the camp of the children of Ephrayim departed according to their divisions. And over their army was Elishama, son of Ammihuḏ.

23 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Menashsheh was Gamli'ěl, son of Pedahsur.

24 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Binyamin was Aḅidan, son of Gid'oni.

25 Then the banner of the camp of the children of Dan, which formed the rear guard of all the camps, departed according to their divisions. And over their army was Aḥi'ezer, son of Ammishaddai.

26 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Ashēr was Paḡ'i'ěl, the son of Oḡran.

27 And over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Aḥira, the son of Ĕynan.

28 Such was the order of departure of the children of Yisra'ěl, according to their divisions, when they departed.

29 And Mosheh said to Hōḇāḇ, the son of Re'uw'ël the Midyanite, Mosheh's father-in-law, "We are departing for the place of which אֱלֹהִים said, 'I give it to you.' Come with us, and we shall do good to you, for אֱלֹהִים has spoken good concerning Yisra'ël."

30 And he replied to him, "I am not going, but I am going to my own land and to my relatives."

31 Then he said, "Please do not leave us, because you know how we are to camp in the wilderness, and you shall be our eyes.

32 "And it shall be, when you go with us, then it shall be that whatever good אֱלֹהִים does to us, the same we shall do to you."

33 So they departed from the mountain of אֱלֹהִים on a journey of three days. And the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים went before them for the three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloud of אֱלֹהִים was above them by day when they went out from the camp.

35 And it came to be, whenever the ark departed, that Mosheh said, "Rise up, O אֱלֹהִים! And let Your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate You flee before You."

36 And when it rested, he said, "Return, O אֱלֹהִים, to the countless thousands of Yisra'ël."

11 And it came to be, when the people were as complainers, it was evil in the ears of אֱלֹהִים. And אֱלֹהִים heard it, and His displeasure burned. And the fire of אֱלֹהִים burned among them, and consumed those in the outskirts of the camp.

2 And the people cried out to Mosheh, and Mosheh prayed to אֱלֹהִים, and the fire died down.

3 Then he called the name of the place Tab'ërah, because the fire of אֱלֹהִים had burned among them.

4 And the mixed multitude who were in their midst lusted greatly, so the children of Yisra'ël also wept again and said, "Who is giving us meat to eat?

5 "We remember the fish which we ate without cost in Mitsrayim, the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic,

6 but now our life is dried up. There is naught to look at but this manna!"

7 Now the manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like the appearance of bdellium.

8 The people went about and gathered it, ground it on millstones or beat it in the mortar, and cooked it in a pot, and made cakes of it. And its taste was as the taste of cakes baked with oil.

9 And when the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna fell on it.

10 And Mosheh heard the people weeping throughout their clans, each man at the door of his tent. And the displeasure of אִי אִי burned exceedingly. And in the eyes of Mosheh it was evil,

11 so Mosheh said to אֱלֹהִים, "Why have You done evil to Your servant? And why have I not found favour in Your eyes, to put the burden of all these people on me?"

12 "Was it I who conceived all these people? Was it I who brought them forth, that You should say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom, as the foster father carries a nursing child,' to the land which You swore to their fathers?"

13 "Where am I to get meat to give to all these people? For they weep before me, saying, 'Give us meat to eat.'

14 "I am unable to bear all these people alone, because the burden is too heavy for me.

15 “And if You are doing this to me, please slay me altogether, if I have found favour in Your eyes, and let me not see my evil!”

16 Then אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Gather to Me seventy men of the elders of Yisra’el, whom you know to be the elders of the people and officers over them. And bring them to the Tent of Appointment, and let them stand there with you.

17 “And I shall come down and speak with you there, and shall take of the Ruah that is on you, and put on them. And they shall bear the burden of the people with you, so that you do not bear it yourself alone.

18 “And say to the people, ‘Qadosh yourselves for tomorrow, and you shall eat meat, because you have wept in the hearing of אֱלֹהִים, saying, “Who is giving us meat to eat? For it was well with us in Mitsrayim.” And אֱלֹהִים shall give you meat, and you shall eat.

19 ‘You are going to eat, not one day, nor two days, nor five days, nor ten days, nor twenty days,

20 but for a month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils and becomes an abomination to you, because you have rejected אֱלֹהִים who is among you, and have wept before Him, saying, “Why did we come up out of Mitsrayim?” ’ ”

21 And Mosheh said, “The people in whose midst I am are six hundred thousand men on foot, and You, You have said, ‘I give them meat to eat for a month of days.’

22 “Could flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Or could all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?”

23 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Is the arm of אֱלֹהִים too short? Now see whether My word meets you or not!”

24 And Mosheh went out and spoke to the people the words of אֱלֹהִים, and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people and stood them around the Tent.

25 And אֱלֹהִים came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Ruah that was upon him, and placed the same upon the seventy elders. And it came to be, when the Ruah rested upon them, that they nāḅu, but did not continue.

26 However, two men had remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Mēydaḏ. And the Ruah rested upon them. Now they were among those listed, but did not go out to the Tent. And they nāḅu in the camp.

27 And a young man ran and informed Mosheh, and said, “Eldad and Mēydaḏ nāḅu in the camp.”

28 And Yahoshua son of Nun, Mosheh’s assistant from his youth, answered and said, “Mosheh my master, forbid them!”

29 Then Mosheh said to him, “Are you jealous for my sake? Oh, that all the people of אֱלֹהִים were neḅi’im, that אֱלֹהִים would put His Ruah upon them!”

30 And Mosheh returned to the camp, both he and the elders of Yisra’el.

31 And a wind went forth from אֱלֹהִים, and it brought quail from the sea and let them fall beside the camp, about a day’s journey on this side and about a day’s journey on the other side, all around the camp, and about two ammah above the surface of the ground.

32 And the people were up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and gathered the quail. He who had least gathered ten ḥomers. And they spread them out for themselves all around the camp.

33 The meat was still between their teeth, before it was chewed, and the wrath of אֱלֹהִים burned against the people, and אֱלֹהִים smote the people with an exceeding great plague.

34 Then he called the name of that place Qibroth ha'Tta'awah, because there they buried the people who had lusted.

35 From Qibroth ha'Tta'awah the people departed for Hatsëroth - and they were at Hatsëroth.

12 Now Miryam and Aharon spoke against Mosheh because of the Kushite wife whom he had taken, for he had taken a Kushite wife.

2 And they said, "Has אֱלֹהִים spoken only through Mosheh? Has He not also spoken through us?" And אֱלֹהִים heard it.

3 And the man Mosheh was very humble, more than all men who were on the face of the earth.

4 And suddenly אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, and Aharon, and Miryam, "You three, come out to the Tent of Appointment!" So the three came out.

5 And אֱלֹהִים came down in the column of cloud and stood in the door of the Tent, and called Aharon and Miryam. And they both went forward.

6 And He said, "Hear now My words: If your nabi is of אֱלֹהִים, I make Myself known to him in a vision, and I speak to him in a dream.

7 "Not so with My servant Mosheh, he is trustworthy in all My house.

8 "I speak with him mouth to mouth, and plainly, and not in riddles. And he sees the form of אֱלֹהִים. So why were you not afraid to speak against My servant Mosheh?"

9 And the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים burned against them, and He left.

10 And the cloud turned away from above the Tent, and look: Miryam was leprous, as white as snow! And Aharon turned toward Miryam, and look: a leper!

11 And Aharon said to Mosheh, "Oh, my master! Please do not hold against us the sin in which we have done foolishly and in which we have sinned.

12 "Please do not let her be as one dead when coming out of its mother's womb, with our flesh half consumed!"

13 And Mosheh cried out to אֱלֹהִים, saying, "O Ēl, please heal her, please!"

14 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "If her father had but spit in her face, would she not be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut out of the camp seven days, and after that let her be re-admitted."

15 And Miryam was shut out of the camp seven days, and the people did not depart until Miryam was re-admitted.

16 And afterward the people departed from H̄atsĕroth, and they camped in the Wilderness of Paran.

13 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 "Send men to spy out the land of Kena'an, which I am giving to the children of Yisra'ĕl. Send one man from each tribe of their fathers, every one a leader among them."

3 And by the command of אֱלֹהִים Mosheh sent them from the Wilderness of Paran, all of them men who were heads of the children of Yisra'ĕl.

4 And these were their names. From the tribe of Re'ubĕn: Shammua, son of Zakkur.

5 From the tribe of Shim'on: Shaphat, son of H̄ori.

6 From the tribe of Yahudāh: Kalĕb, son of Yephunneh.

- 7 From the tribe of Yissaskar: Yiḡ'al, son of Yosēph.
8 From the tribe of Ephrayim: Hoshēa, son of Nun.
9 From the tribe of Binyamin: Palti, son of Raphu.
10 From the tribe of Zebulun: Gaddi'ēl, son of Sodī.
11 From the tribe of Yosēph, from the tribe of Menashsheh: Gaddi, son of Susi.
12 From the tribe of Dan: Ammi'ēl, son of Gemalli.
13 From the tribe of Ashēr: Shēthur, son of Miḡa'ēl.
14 From the tribe of Naphtali: Naḥbi, son of Wophsi.
15 From the tribe of Gaḏ: Geu'ēl, son of Maḡi.
16 These are the names of the men whom Mosheh sent to spy out the land. And Mosheh called Hoshēa the son of Nun, Yahoshua.
17 And Mosheh sent them to spy out the land of Kena'an, and said to them, "Go up here into the Negeb, and go up to the mountains,
18 and see what the land is like, and the people who dwell in it, whether strong or weak, whether few or many,
19 and whether the land they dwell in is good or evil, whether the cities they inhabit are in camps or strongholds,
20 and whether the land is rich or poor, and whether there are forests there or not. And you shall be strong, and bring some of the fruit of the land." Now the time was the season of the first-fruits of grapes.
21 So they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Tsin as far as Reḥob, near the entrance of Ḥamath.
22 And they went up through the Negeb and came to Ḥebron. And Aḥiman, Shēshai, and Talmi, the descendants of Anaq, were there. Now Ḥebron had been built seven years before Tso'an in Mitsrayim.
23 And they came to the wadi Eshkol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes. And they bore it between two of them on a pole, also of the pomegranates and of the figs.

24 That place was called the wadi Eshkol, because of the cluster which the men of Yisra'el cut down from there.

25 And they returned from spying out the land after forty days.

26 And they went and came to Mosheh and Aharon and all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el in the Wilderness of Paran, at Qadēsh. And they brought back word to them and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they reported to him, and said, "We went to the land where you sent us. And truly, it flows with milk and honey, and this is its fruit.

28 "But the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are walled, very great. And we saw the descendants of Anaq there too.

29 "The Amalēqites dwell in the land of the Negeb, while the Hittites and the Yebusites and the Amorites dwell in the mountains. And the Kena'anites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Yardēn."

30 And Kalēb silenced the people before Mosheh, and said, "Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are certainly able to overcome it."

31 But the men who had gone up with him said, "We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we."

32 And they gave the children of Yisra'el an evil report of the land which they had spied out, saying, "The land through which we have gone as spies is a land eating up its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great size.

33 “And we saw there the Nephilim, sons of Anaq, of the Nephilim. And we were like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and so we were in their eyes.”

14 Then all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Yisra’el grumbled against Mosheh and against Aharon, and all the congregation said to them, “If only we had died in the land of Mitsrayim! Or if only we had died in this wilderness!

3 “And why is אֱלֹהֵינוּ bringing us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and children should become a prey? Would it not be better for us to turn back to Mitsrayim?”

4 And they said to each other, “Let us appoint a leader, and let us turn back to Mitsrayim.”

5 Then Mosheh and Aharon fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Yisra’el.

6 And Yahoshua son of Nun, and Kalēb son of Yephunneh, who were among those who had spied out the land, tore their garments,

7 and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Yisra’el, saying, “The land we passed through to spy out is an exceedingly good land.

8 “If אֱלֹהֵינוּ has delighted in us, then He shall bring us into this land and give it to us, ‘a land which is flowing with milk and honey.’

9 “Only, do not rebel against אֱלֹהֵינוּ, nor fear the people of the land, for they are our bread. Their defence has turned away from them, and אֱלֹהֵינוּ is with us. Do not fear them.”

10 But all the congregation said to stone them with stones. Then the esteem of אֱלֹהֵינוּ appeared in the Tent of Appointment before all the children of Yisra’el.

11 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, "How long shall I be scorned by these people? And how long shall I not be trusted by them, with all the signs which I have done in their midst?"

12 "Let Me smite them with the pestilence and disinherit them, and make of you a nation greater and mightier than they."

13 And Mosheh said to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, "Then the Mitsrites shall hear it, for by Your power You brought these people up from their midst,

14 and they shall say to the inhabitants of this land they have heard that You, אִיִּזְרָאֵל, are in the midst of these people, that You, אִיִּזְרָאֵל, are seen eye to eye and that Your cloud stands above them, and You go before them in a column of cloud by day and in a column of fire by night.

15 "Now if You shall kill these people as one man, then the nations which have heard of Your report shall speak, saying,

16 'Because אִיִּזְרָאֵל was not able to bring this people to the land which He swore to give them, therefore He killed them in the wilderness.'

17 "And now, I pray, let the power of אִיִּזְרָאֵל be great, as You have spoken, saying,

18 'אִיִּזְרָאֵל is patient and of great kindness, forgiving wickedness and transgression, but by no means leaving unpunished; visiting the wickedness of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation.'

19 "Please forgive the wickedness of this people, according to the greatness of Your kindness, as You have forgiven this people, from Mitsrayim even until now."

20 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said, "I shall forgive, according to your word,

21 but truly, as I live and all the earth is filled with the esteem of אֱלֹהִים,

22 for none of these men who have seen My esteem and the signs which I did in Mitsrayim and in the wilderness, and have tried Me now these ten times, and have disobeyed My voice,

23 shall see the land of which I swore to their fathers, nor any of those who scorned Me see it.

24 “But My servant Kalēb, because he has a different spirit in him and has followed Me completely, I shall bring into the land where he went, and his seed shall inherit it.

25 “Since the Amalēqites and the Kena’anites are dwelling in the valley, turn back tomorrow and depart into the wilderness by the Way of the Sea of Reeds.”

26 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, and to Aharon, saying,

27 “How long shall this evil congregation have this grumbling against Me? I have heard the grumbings which the children of Yisra’el are grumbling against Me.

28 “Say to them, ‘As I live,’ declares אֱלֹהִים, ‘as you have spoken in My hearing, so I do to you:

29 ‘The carcasses of you who have grumbled against Me are going to fall in this wilderness, all of you who were registered, according to your entire number, from twenty years old and above.

30 ‘None of you except Kalēb son of Yephunneh, and Yahoshua son of Nun, shall enter the land which I swore I would make you dwell in.

31 ‘But your little ones, whom you said would become a prey, I shall bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected.

32 ‘But as for you, your carcasses are going to fall in this wilderness.

33 'And your sons shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your whorings, until your carcasses are consumed in the wilderness.

34 'According to the number of the days in which you spied out the land, forty days - a day for a year, a day for a year - you are to bear your wickednesses forty years, and you shall know My breaking off.

35 'I am אֱלֹהִים, I have spoken, I shall do this to all this evil congregation who are meeting against Me: In this wilderness they are consumed, and there they die.' "

36 And the men whom Mosheh sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation grumble against him by bringing an evil report of the land,

37 even those men who brought the evil report about the land, died by the plague before אֱלֹהִים.

38 Of those men who went to spy out the land, only Yahoshua son of Nun, and Kalēb son of Yephunneh remained alive.

39 And when Mosheh spoke these words to all the children of Yisra'ël, the people mourned greatly.

40 And they rose up early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, "See, we have indeed sinned, but we shall go up to the place which אֱלֹהִים had spoken of!"

41 But Mosheh said, "Why do you now transgress the command of אֱלֹהִים, since it does not prosper?"

42 "Do not go up, lest you be smitten by your enemies, for אֱלֹהִים is not in your midst.

43 "Because the Amalēqites and the Kena'anites are there before you, and you shall fall by the sword. Because you have turned away from אֱלֹהִים, אֱלֹהִים is not with you."

44 But they presumed to go up to the mountaintop, but neither the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים nor Mosheh left the camp.

45 So the Amalēqites and the Kena'anites who dwelt in that mountain came down and smote them, and beat them down, even to Ḥormah.

15 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, 'When you have come into the land of your dwellings, which I am giving you,

3 and you make an offering by fire to אֱלֹהִים, a burnt offering or a slaughtering, to accomplish a vow or as a voluntary offering or in your Appointed Times, to make a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים, from the herd or the flock,

4 then he who brings near his offering to אֱלֹהִים shall bring near a grain offering of one-tenth part of fine flour mixed with one-fourth of a hin of oil,

5 and one-fourth of a hin of wine as a drink offering you prepare with the burnt offering or the slaughtering, for each lamb.

6 'Or for a ram you prepare as a grain offering two-tenth parts of fine flour mixed with one-third of a hin of oil,

7 and as a drink offering you bring one-third of a hin of wine as a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

8 'And when you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering, or as a slaughtering to accomplish a vow, or as a peace offering to אֱלֹהִים,

9 then shall be brought with the young bull a grain offering of three-tenth parts of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil,

10 and bring as the drink offering half a hin of wine as an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

11 'This is what is done for each young bull, for each ram, or for each lamb or young goat.

12 'According to the number that you prepare, so you do for each one according to their number.

13 'Let all who are native do so with them, in bringing near an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

14 'And when a stranger sojourns with you, or whoever is among you throughout your generations, and would make an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים, as you do, so he does.

15 'One Law is for you of the assembly and for the stranger who sojourns with you - a Law forever throughout your generations. As you are, so is the stranger before אֱלֹהִים.

16 'One Torah and one Right-Ruling is for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you.' "

17 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

18 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, 'When you come into the land to which I bring you, then it shall be, when you eat of the bread of the land, that you present a contribution to אֱלֹהִים.

20 'Present a cake of the first of your dough as a contribution - as a contribution of the threshing-floor you present it.

21 'Of the first of your dough you are to give to אֱלֹהִים a contribution throughout your generations.

22 'And when you sin by mistake, and do not do all these Commands which אֱלֹהִים has spoken to Mosheh,

23 all that אֱלֹהִים has commanded you by the hand of Mosheh, from the day אֱלֹהִים gave command and onward throughout your generations,

24 then it shall be, if it is done by mistake, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall prepare one young bull as a burnt offering, as a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים, with its grain offering and its drink offering, according to the Right-Ruling, and one male goat as a sin offering.

25 'Then the kohēn shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el, and it shall be forgiven them, for it was by mistake. And they shall bring their offering, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים, and their sin offering before אֱלֹהִים, for their mistake.

26 'And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el and the stranger who sojourns in their midst, because all the people did it by mistake.

27 'And if a being sins by mistake, then he shall bring a female goat a year old as a sin offering.

28 'And the kohēn shall make atonement for the being who strays by mistake, when he sins by mistake before אֱלֹהִים, to make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

29 'For him who makes a mistake there is one Torah, both for him who is native among the children of Yisra'el and for the stranger who sojourns in their midst.

30 'But the being who acts defiantly, whether he is native or a stranger, he reviles אֱלֹהִים, and that being shall be cut off from among his people.

31 'Because he has despised the Word of אֱלֹהִים, and has broken His Command, that being shall certainly be cut off, his wickedness is upon him.' "

32 And while the children of Yisra'el were in the wilderness, they found a man gathering sticks on the Shabbath day.

33 And those who found him gathering sticks brought him to Mosheh and to Aharon, and to all the congregation.

34 And they put him in under guard, because it had not been declared what should be done to him.

35 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “The man shall certainly be put to death, all the congregation stoning him with stones outside the camp.”

36 And all the congregation brought him outside the camp and stoned him with stones, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Mosheh, and he died.

37 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

38 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ël, and you shall say to them to make tsitsit on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a blue cord in the tsitsit of the corners.

39 “And it shall be to you for a tsitsit, and you shall see it, and shall remember all the Commands of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and shall do them, and not search after your own heart and your own eyes after which you went whoring, 40 so that you remember, and shall do all My Commands, and be qodesh unto your Elohim.

41 “I am אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, to be your Elohim. I am אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Elohim.”

16 And Qorah, son of Yitshar, son of Qehath, son of Lëwi, took both Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliyab, and On, son of Peleth, sons of Re’uḇĕn,

2 and they rose up before Mosheh with some of the children of Yisra’ël, two hundred and fifty leaders of the congregation, called ones of the meeting, men of name.

3 And they assembled against Mosheh and against Aharon, and said to them, “Enough of you! For all the congregation is qodesh, all of them, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל is in their midst. Why then do you lift up yourselves above the assembly of אִיִּזְרָאֵל?”

4 And when Mosheh heard, he fell on his face,
 5 and spoke to Qoraḥ and all his company, saying, “Tomorrow morning אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall make known who is His and who is qodesh, and come near to Him. And let Him bring near to Him the one whom He chooses.
 6 “Do this: Take fire holders, Qoraḥ and all your company,
 7 and put fire in them and put incense in them before אִיִּזְרָאֵל tomorrow. And it shall be that the one whom אִיִּזְרָאֵל chooses is the qadosh one. Enough of you, sons of Lěwi!”

8 And Mosheh said to Qoraḥ, “Hear now, you sons of Lěwi:

9 “Is it little to you that the Elohim of Yisra’el has separated you from the congregation of Yisra’el, to bring you near to Himself, to perform the service of the Mishkan of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and to stand before the congregation to serve them,

10 and that He has brought you near to Himself, you and all your brothers, the sons of Lěwi, with you? Yet you seek the kehunnah as well?

11 “Therefore you and all your company are assembled against אִיִּזְרָאֵל. And Aharon, what is he that you grumble against him?”

12 And Mosheh sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliyaḅ, but they said, “We are not coming up!

13 “Is it little that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that you would also seize total rule over us?

14 “Also, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards. Would you bore out the eyes of these men? We are not coming up!”

15 And Mosheh became very displeased, and said to אֱלֹהִים, “Do not respect their offering. I have not taken one donkey from them, nor have I done harm to any of them.”

16 Then Mosheh said to Qorah, “Tomorrow, you and all your company shall be there before אֱלֹהִים, you and they and Aharon.

17 “And take each one his fire holder, and you shall put incense in it. And let each one bring his fire holder before אֱלֹהִים, two hundred and fifty fire holders, and you and Aharon, each one with his fire holder.”

18 So each one took his fire holder, and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and stood at the door of the Tent of Appointment with Mosheh and Aharon.

19 And Qorah assembled all the congregation against them at the door of the Tent of Appointment. Then the esteem of אֱלֹהִים appeared to all the congregation.

20 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, and to Aharon, saying,

21 “Separate yourselves from the midst of this congregation, and let Me consume them in a moment.”

22 But they fell on their faces, and said, “O Ėl, Elohim of the spirits of all flesh! When one man sins, are You wroth with all the congregation?”

23 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

24 “Speak to the congregation, saying, ‘Move away from around the tents of Qorah, Dathan, and Abiram.’”

25 So Mosheh rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Yisra’el followed him.

26 And he spoke to the congregation, saying, "Please turn away from the tents of these wicked men! Do not touch whatever belongs to them, lest you be consumed in all their sins."

27 Then they moved away from around the tents of Qorah, Dathan, and Abiram. And Dathan and Abiram came out and stood at the door of their tents, with their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Mosheh said, "By this you know that אֱלֹהִים has sent me to do all these works, not because of my own heart.

29 "If these die as all men do, or if they are visited as all men are visited, then אֱלֹהִים has not sent me.

30 "But if אֱלֹהִים creates what is unheard of, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them up with all that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the grave, then you shall know that these men have scorned אֱלֹהִים."

31 And it came to be, as he ended speaking all these words, that the ground under them split apart,

32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, with their households and all the men with Qorah, with all their goods.

33 So they and all those with them went down alive into the grave, and the earth closed over them, and they perished from the midst of the assembly.

34 And all Yisra'el who were round about them fled at their cry, for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up!"

35 And a fire came out from אֱלֹהִים and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense.

36 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

37 "Say to El'azar, son of Aharon the kohēn, to pick up the fire holders out of the blaze, for they are qodesh, and scatter the fire some distance away.

38 “The fire holders of these men who sinned against their own lives, let them be made into beaten plates as a covering for the altar. Because they brought them before אֱלֹהִים, therefore they are qodesh. And let them become a sign to the children of Yisra’ël.”

39 And El’azar the kohën took the bronze fire holders, which those who were burned up had brought, and they were beaten out as a covering on the altar -

40 a remembrance to the children of Yisra’ël that no stranger who is not of the seed of Aharon, should come near to offer incense before אֱלֹהִים, and not be like Qorah and his company - as אֱלֹהִים had said to him through Mosheh.

41 But all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ël grumbled against Mosheh and against Aharon on the next day, saying, “You, you have killed the people of אֱלֹהִים.”

42 And it came to be, when the congregation assembled against Mosheh and against Aharon, that they turned toward the Tent of Appointment. And see, the cloud covered it, and the esteem of אֱלֹהִים appeared.

43 And Mosheh and Aharon came before the Tent of Appointment.

44 And אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh, saying,

45 “Arise from amidst this congregation, and let Me consume them in a moment.” And they fell on their faces.

46 So Mosheh said to Aharon, “Take the fire holder and put fire in it from the altar, and lay incense on, and go, hurry to the congregation and make atonement for them, for wrath has gone out from אֱלֹהִים, the plague has begun.”

47 And Aharon took it as Mosheh commanded, and ran into the midst of the assembly, and saw that the plague had begun among the people. And he laid on the incense and made atonement for the people, 48 and stood between the dead and the living. And the plague was stopped.

49 And those who died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides those who died on account of Qorah.

50 Then Aharon returned to Mosheh at the door of the Tent of Appointment, for the plague had stopped.

17 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra’el, and take from them a rod from each father’s house, all their leaders according to their fathers’ houses, twelve rods. Write each one’s name on his rod,

3 and write Aharon’s name on the rod of Lëwi, for there is one rod for the head of each father’s house.

4 “You shall then place them in the Tent of Appointment before the Witness, where I meet with you.

5 “And it shall be that the rod of the man whom I choose buds, and I shall rid Myself of the grumbings of the children of Yisra’el, which they grumble against you.”

6 And Mosheh spoke to the children of Yisra’el, and all their leaders gave him a rod each, for each leader according to their fathers’ houses, twelve rods. And the rod of Aharon was among their rods.

7 So Mosheh placed the rods before אִיִּזְרָאֵל in the Tent of the Witness.

8 And it came to be on the next day that Mosheh went into the Tent of the Witness and saw that the rod of Aharon, of the house of Lëwi, had budded, and brought forth buds, and blossomed and bore ripe almonds.

9 And Mosheh brought out all the rods from before אֱלֹהִים to all the children of Yisra'ël. And they looked, and each man took his rod.

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Bring Aharon's rod back before the Witness, to be kept as a sign against the rebels, so that you put an end to their grumbings against Me, lest they die."

11 And Mosheh did as אֱלֹהִים had commanded him, so he did.

12 And the children of Yisra'ël spoke to Mosheh, saying, "See, we shall die, we shall perish, we shall all perish!

13 "Anyone who comes near the Mishkan of אֱלֹהִים dies. Shall we be consumed - to die?"

18 And אֱלֹהִים said to Aharon, "You and your sons and your father's house with you are to bear the wickedness against the Miqdash, and you and your sons with you are to bear the wickedness against your kehunnah.

2 "But bring with you your brothers of the tribe of Lëwi too, the tribe of your father to join you and serve you while you and your sons are with you before the Tent of the Witness.

3 "And they shall guard your charge, and the duty of all the Tent, but they do not come near the furnishings of the qodesh place and the altar, lest they die, both they and you.

4 "And they shall be joined with you and guard the duty to the Tent of Appointment, for all the service of the Tent, but a stranger does not come near you.

5 "And you shall guard the duty of the qodesh place and the duty of the altar, so that there be no more wrath on the children of Yisra'ël.

6 “And see, I Myself have taken your brothers the Lëwites from the midst of the children of Yisra’ël - a gift to you, given by אֶלְעָזָר, to do the service of the Tent of Appointment.

7 “But you and your sons with you are to guard your kehunnah for all matters at the altar and behind the veil, and you shall serve. I have given you the kehunnah as a gift for service, but the stranger who comes near is put to death.”

8 And אֶלְעָזָר spoke to Aharon, “And see, I Myself have also given you the charge of My contributions, all the qodesh gifts of the children of Yisra’ël. I have given them to you for the anointing, and to your sons, as a Law forever.

9 “This is yours of the most qodesh gifts, from the fire: all their offerings, all their grain offerings and all their sin offerings and all their guilt offerings which they render to Me, are most qodesh for you and your sons.

10 “Eat it in the most qodesh place - every male eats it. It is qodesh to you.

11 “This also is yours: the contribution of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Yisra’ël. I have given them to you, and your sons and daughters with you, as a Law forever. Everyone who is clean in your house eats it.

12 “All the best of the oil, and all the best of the new wine and the grain - their first-fruits which they give to אֶלְעָזָר - I have given them to you.

13 “The first-fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to אֶלְעָזָר, are yours. Everyone who is clean in your house eats it.

14 “All that is dedicated in Yisra’ël is yours.

15 “Everyone opening a womb of all flesh, which they bring to אֶלְעָזָר, whether man or beast, is yours. But the first-born of man you shall certainly ransom, and the first-born of the unclean beast you ransom.

16 “And ransom their ransomed ones when one month old, according to your valuation, five sheqels of silver, according to the sheqel of the qodesh place, which is twenty gērahs.

17 “But the first-born of a cow, or the first-born of a sheep, or the first-born of a goat you do not ransom, they are qodesh. Sprinkle their blood on the altar, and burn their fat as an offering made by fire for a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

18 “And their flesh is yours, as the wave breast and as the right thigh, it is yours.

19 “All the contributions of the qodesh gifts, which the children of Yisra’ēl present to אֱלֹהִים, I have given to you and your sons and daughters with you as a Law forever. It is a covenant of salt forever before אֱלֹהִים with you and your seed with you.”

20 And אֱלֹהִים said to Aharon, “You are not to have an inheritance in their land, nor have any portion in their midst. I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Yisra’ēl.

21 “And see, I have given the children of Lěwi all the tithes in Yisra’ēl as an inheritance in return for the service which they are serving, the service of the Tent of Appointment.

22 “And let the children of Yisra’ēl no more come near the Tent of Appointment, lest they bear sin and die,

23 because the Lěwites shall do the service of the Tent of Appointment, so they themselves bear their wickedness. A Law forever, throughout your generations: that among the children of Yisra’ēl they are to have no inheritance,

24 but the tithes of the children of Yisra’ēl, which they present as a contribution to אֱלֹהִים, I have given to the Lěwites as an inheritance. That is why I have said to them, ‘Among the children of Yisra’ěl they have no inheritance.’ ”

25 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

26 “Speak to the Lěwites and say to them, ‘When you take from the children of Yisra’ěl the tithes which I have given you from them as your inheritance, then you shall present a contribution of it to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, a tenth of the tithe.

27 ‘And your contribution shall be reckoned to you as grain from the threshing-floor and as filling from the winepress.

28 ‘Thus you also present a contribution unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל from all your tithes which you receive from the children of Yisra’ěl. And you shall give from it the contribution to אִיִּזְרָאֵל to Aharon the kohěn.

29 ‘From all your gifts you present every contribution due to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, from all the best of them, the qodesh part of them.’

30 “And you shall say to them, ‘When you have presented the best of it, then the rest shall be reckoned to the Lěwites as the yield of the threshing-floor and as the yield of the winepress.

31 ‘And you shall eat it in any place, you and your households, for it is your reward for your service in the Tent of Appointment,

32 and bear no sin because of it, when you have presented the best of it, and do not profane the qodesh gifts of the children of Yisra’ěl, lest you die.’ ”

19 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, saying,

2 “This is a law of the Torah which אִיִּזְרָאֵל has commanded, saying, ‘Speak to the children of Yisra’ěl, that they bring you a red heifer, a perfect one, in which there is no blemish and on which a yoke has never come.

3 'And you shall give it to El'azar the kohēn, and he shall bring it outside the camp, and shall slaughter it before him.

4 'And El'azar the kohēn shall take some of its blood with his finger, and sprinkle some of its blood seven times toward the front of the Tent of Appointment.

5 'And the heifer shall be burned before his eyes - he burns its hide, and its flesh, and its blood, and its dung.

6 'And the kohēn shall take cedar wood and hyssop and scarlet, and throw them into the midst of the fire burning the heifer.

7 'The kohēn shall then wash his garments, and shall bathe his body in water, and afterward come into the camp, but the kohēn is unclean until evening.

8 'And he who is burning it washes his garments in water, and shall bathe his body in water, and is unclean until evening.

9 'And a clean man shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and shall place them outside the camp in a clean place. And they shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Yisra'el for the water for uncleanness, it is for cleansing from sin.

10 'And he who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his garments, and is unclean until evening. And it shall be a Law forever to the children of Yisra'el and to the stranger who sojourns in their midst.

11 'He who touches the dead of any human being is unclean for seven days.

12 'He is to cleanse himself with the water on the third day, and on the seventh day he is clean. But if he does not cleanse himself on the third day, then on the seventh day he is not clean.

13 'Anyone who touches the dead of a human being, and does not cleanse himself, defiles the Mishkan of אֶת־אֶזְרָאֵל. And that being shall be cut off from Yisra'ël. He is unclean, for the water for uncleanness was not sprinkled on him, his uncleanness is still upon him.

14 'This is the Torah when a man dies in a tent: All who come into the tent and all who are in the tent are unclean for seven days,

15 and every open vessel which has no cover fastened on it, is unclean.

16 'Anyone in the open field who touches someone slain by a sword or who has died, or a bone of a man, or a grave, is unclean for seven days.

17 'And for the unclean being they shall take some of the ashes of the heifer burnt for cleansing from sin, and running water shall be put on them in a vessel.

18 'And a clean man shall take hyssop and dip it in the water, and shall sprinkle it on the tent, and on all the vessels, and on the beings who were there, or on the one who touched a bone, or the slain, or the dead, or a grave.

19 'And the clean one shall sprinkle the unclean on the third day and on the seventh day. And on the seventh day he shall cleanse himself, and shall wash his garments and bathe in water, and shall be clean in the evening.

20 'But the man who is unclean and does not cleanse himself, that being shall be cut off from among the assembly, because he has defiled the Miqdash of אֶת־אֶזְרָאֵל - water for uncleanness has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean.

21 'And it shall be a Law for them forever. And the one who sprinkles the water for uncleanness washes his garments. And the one who touches the water for uncleanness is unclean until evening.

22 'And whatever the unclean being touches is unclean. And the being who touches it is unclean until evening.' ”

20 And the children of Yisra'ël, all the congregation, came into the Wilderness of Tsin in the first month, and the people stayed in Qadësh. And Miryam died there and was buried there.

2 Now there was no water for the congregation and they assembled against Mosheh and against Aharon.

3 And the people contended with Mosheh and spoke, saying, “If only we had died when our brothers died before אִי־אֵל!

4 “Why have you brought up the assembly of אִי־אֵל into this wilderness, that we and our livestock should die here?

5 “And why have you brought us up out of Mitsrayim, to bring us to this evil place? - not a place of grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, and there is no water to drink.”

6 Then Mosheh and Aharon went from the presence of the assembly to the door of the Tent of Appointment, and they fell on their faces. And the esteem of אִי־אֵל appeared to them.

7 And אִי־אֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

8 “Take the rod and assemble the congregation, you and your brother Aharon. And you shall speak to the rock before their eyes, and it shall give its water. And you shall bring water for them out of the rock and give drink to the congregation and their livestock.”

9 And Mosheh took the rod from before אִי־אֵל as He commanded him.

10 And Mosheh and Aharon assembled the assembly before the rock. And he said to them, “Hear now, you rebels, shall we bring water for you out of this rock?”

11 Then Mosheh lifted his hand and struck the rock twice with his rod. And much water came out, and the congregation and their livestock drank.

12 But אֱלֹהִים spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon, “Because you did not believe Me, to qadosh Me in the eyes of the children of Yisra’ël, therefore you do not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them.”

13 These were the waters of Meribah, because the children of Yisra’ël contended with אֱלֹהִים, and He was qadosh among them.

14 And Mosheh sent messengers from Qadësh to the sovereign of Edom. “This is what your brother Yisra’ël said, ‘You know all the hardship that has befallen us,
15 that our fathers went down to Mitsrayim, and we dwelt in Mitsrayim a long time, and the Mitsrites did evil to us and our fathers.

16 ‘And we cried out to אֱלֹהִים, and He heard our voice and sent the Messenger and brought us up out of Mitsrayim. And see, we are in Qadësh, a city on the edge of your border.

17 ‘Please let us pass over, through your land. We shall not pass over through fields or vineyards, nor drink water from wells, we shall go along the sovereign’s highway. We shall not turn aside, right or left, until we have passed over your border.’ ”

18 But Edom said to him, “You do not pass over through me, lest I come out against you with the sword.”

19 And the children of Yisra’ël said to him, “We shall go by the highway, and if I or my livestock drink any of your water, then I shall pay for it. Let me only pass over on foot, without a word.”

20 But he said, "You do not pass over." And Edom came out against them with many men and with a strong hand.

21 So when Edom refused to let Yisra'el pass over through his border, Yisra'el turned away from him.

22 And the children of Yisra'el, all the company, departed from Qadēsh and came to Mount Hor.

23 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh and to Aharon in Mount Hor near the border of the land of Edom, saying,

24 "Aharon is to be gathered to his people, for he is not to enter the land which I have given to the children of Yisra'el, because you rebelled against My mouth at the water of Meribah.

25 "Take Aharon and El'azar his son, and bring them up to Mount Hor, 26 and strip Aharon of his garments and put them on El'azar his son, for Aharon is to be gathered to his people and die there."

27 And Mosheh did as אִרְאֵל commanded, and they went up to Mount Hor before the eyes of all the congregation.

28 And Mosheh stripped Aharon of his garments and put them on El'azar his son. And Aharon died there on the top of the mountain. And Mosheh and El'azar came down from the mountain.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aharon was dead, all the house of Yisra'el wept for Aharon, thirty days.

21 And the sovereign of Araḍ, the Kena'anite, who dwelt in the Negeb, heard that Yisra'el was coming on the way to Atharim, and he fought against Yisra'el and took some of them captive.

2 Then Yisra'el made a vow to אֱלֹהִים, and said, "If You deliver this people into my hand indeed, then I shall put their cities under the ban."

3 And אֱלֹהִים listened to the voice of Yisra'el and gave up the Kena'anites, and they put them and their cities under the ban. So the name of that place was called Ḥormah.

4 And they departed from Mount Hor by the way of the Sea of Reeds, to go around the land of Edom. But the being of the people grew impatient because of the way.

5 And the people spoke against Elohim and against Mosheh, "Why have you brought us up out of Mitsrayim to die in the wilderness? For there is no food and no water, and our being loathes this light bread."

6 And אֱלֹהִים sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people. And many of the people of Yisra'el died.

7 Then the people came to Mosheh, and said, "We have sinned, for we have spoken against אֱלֹהִים and against you. Pray to אֱלֹהִים to take away the serpents from us." So Mosheh prayed on behalf of the people.

8 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, "Make a fiery serpent, and put it on a pole. And it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live."

9 So Mosheh made a bronze serpent, and put it on a pole. And it came to be, if a serpent had bitten anyone, when he looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

10 And the children of Yisra'el departed and camped in Oboth.

11 And they departed from Oboth and camped at Iyeha'Abiram, in the wilderness which is east of Mo'ab, toward sunrise.

12 From there they departed and camped at the wadi Zered.

13 From there they departed and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Amorites, for the Arnon is the border of Mo'ab, between Mo'ab and the Amorites.

14 Therefore it is said in the Book of the Battles of אֶרְאֵל, "Wahēb in Suphah, the wadi Arnon,

15 and the slope of the wadi that turns aside to the dwelling of Ar, and lies on the border of Mo'ab."

16 And from there on to Be'ēr, which is the well where אֶרְאֵל said to Mosheh, "Gather the people, and let Me give them water."

17 Yisra'el then sang this song: "Spring up, O well! Sing to it, 18 a well the leaders sank, which the nobles of the people dug by hacking with their staves." Then from the wilderness on to Mattanah,

19 from Mattanah to Naḥali'el, from Naḥali'el to Bamoth,

20 and from Bamoth, in the valley that is in the country of Mo'ab, to the top of Pisgah which looks down on the wasteland.

21 And Yisra'el sent messengers to Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites, saying,

22 "Let me pass through your land. We shall not turn off into fields or vineyards, we shall not drink water from wells, but go by the sovereign's highway until we have passed over your border."

23 But Siḥon would not allow Yisra'el to pass through his border. So Siḥon gathered all his people together and went out against Yisra'el in the wilderness, and he came to Yahats and fought against Yisra'el.

24 And Yisra'el smote him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Yabboq, as far as the children of Ammon, for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Yisra'el took all these cities, and Yisra'el dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites - in Heshbon and in all its villages,

26 for Heshbon was the city of Sihon the sovereign of the Amorites, who had fought against the former sovereign of Mo'ab, and had taken all his land from his hand as far as the Arnon.

27 That is why those who speak in proverbs say, "Come to Heshbon, let the city of Sihon be built and established.

28 "For fire went out from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Mo'ab, the masters of the heights of the Arnon.

29 "Woe to you, Mo'ab! You have perished, O people of Kemosh! He has given his sons as fugitives, and his daughters into captivity, to Sihon the sovereign of the Amorites.

30 "Then we shot them - Heshbon has perished as far as Dibon. And we laid waste as far as Nophah, which reaches to Meydeba."

31 So Yisra'el dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Mosheh sent to spy out Ya'zer. And they took its villages and drove out the Amorites who were there, 33 and turned and went up by the way to Bashan. And Og sovereign of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.

34 And אַרְבָּע said to Mosheh, "Do not fear him, for I have given him into your hand, with all his people and his land. And you shall do to him as you did to Sihon sovereign of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon."

35 And they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until no remnant was left to him. And they took possession of his land.

22 And the children of Yisra'ël departed and camped in the desert plains of Mo'ab beyond the Yardën of Yeriho.

2 And Balaq son of Tsippor saw all that Yisra'ël had done to the Amorites.

3 And Mo'ab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they were many, and Mo'ab was in dread because of the children of Yisra'ël.

4 And Mo'ab said to the elders of Midyan, "Now this company is licking up all that is around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." Now Balaq son of Tsippor was sovereign of the Mo'abites at that time,

5 and he sent messengers to Bil'am son of Be'or at Pethor, which is near the River in the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying, "See, a people has come from Mitsrayim. See, they have covered the surface of the land, and are settling next to me!

6 "And now, please come at once, curse this people for me, for they are too strong for me. It might be that I smite them and drive them out of the land, for I know that he whom you barak is baruq, and he whom you curse is cursed."

7 And the elders of Mo'ab and the elders of Midyan left with divination fee in their hand, and they came to Bil'am and spoke the words of Balaq to him.

8 And he said to them, "Spend the night here, and I shall bring back word to you, as אֱלֹהִים speaks to me." So the heads of Mo'ab stayed with Bil'am.

9 And Elohim came to Bil'am and said, "Who are these men with you?"

10 And Bil'am said to Elohim, "Balaq, son of Tsippor, sovereign of Mo'ab, has sent to me, saying,

11 'See, a people has come out of Mitsrayim and cover the surface of the land. Come now, curse them for me. It might be that I am able to fight against them and drive them out.' "

12 And Elohim said to Bil'am, "Do not go with them. You do not curse the people, for they are baruk."

13 And Bil'am rose in the morning and said to the heads of Balaq, "Go back to your land, for אֱלֹהִים has refused to allow me to go with you."

14 And the heads of Mo'ab arose and went to Balaq, and said, "Bil'am refuses to come with us."

15 Then Balaq again sent heads, more numerous and more esteemed than they.

16 And they came to Bil'am and said to him, "This is what Balaq son of Tsippor said: 'Do not be withheld from coming to me, please,

17 for I esteem you very greatly, and whatever you say to me, I do. Therefore please come, curse this people for me.' "

18 And Bil'am answered and said to the servants of Balaq, "Though Balaq were to give me his house filled with silver and gold, I am unable to go beyond the word of אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, to do less or more.

19 "And now, please, you also stay here tonight, and let me find out what more אֱלֹהִים says to me."

20 And Elohim came to Bil'am at night and said to him, "If the men come to call you, rise and go with them, but only the word which I speak to you that you do."

21 And Bil'am rose in the morning and saddled his donkey, and went with the heads of Mo'ab.

22 But the displeasure of Elohim burned because he went, and the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים stationed Himself in the way as an adversary against him. And he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

23 And the donkey saw the Messenger of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$  standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand, and the donkey turned aside out of the way and went into the field. So Bil'am beat the donkey to turn her back onto the way.

24 Then the Messenger of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$  stood in a narrow passage between the vineyards, with a wall on this side and a wall on that side.

25 And when the donkey saw the Messenger of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ , she pushed herself against the wall and crushed Bil'am's foot against the wall, so he beat her again.

26 And the Messenger of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$  went further, and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn aside, right or left.

27 And when the donkey saw the Messenger of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ , she lay down under Bil'am. So Bil'am's displeasure burned, and he beat the donkey with his staff.

28 Then  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$  opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Bil'am, "What have I done to you, that you have beaten me these three times?"

29 And Bil'am said to the donkey, "Because you have mocked me. If there were a sword in my hand, for I would have killed you by now!"

30 And the donkey said to Bil'am, "Am I not your donkey on which you have ridden, ever since I became yours, to this day? Was I ever known to do so to you?" And he said, "No."

31 Then  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$  opened Bil'am's eyes, and he saw the Messenger of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$  standing in the way with His drawn sword in His hand. And he bowed his head and fell on his face.

32 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to him, “Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? See, I have come out to stand against you, because your way is reckless before Me.

33 “And the donkey saw Me and turned aside from Me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, I certainly would have killed you by now, and let her live.”

34 And Bil'am said to the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים, “I have sinned, for I did not know You stood in the way against me. And now, if evil is in Your eyes, let me turn back.”

35 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to Bil'am, “Go with the men, but only the word that I speak to you, that you speak.” Bil'am then went with the heads of Balaq.

36 And when Balaq heard that Bil'am was coming, he went out to meet him at the city of Mo'ab, which is on the border at the Arnon, which was in the extremity of the border.

37 And Balaq said to Bil'am, “Did I not urgently send to you, calling for you? Why did you not come to me? Am I not able to esteem you?”

38 And Bil'am said to Balaq, “See, I have come to you! Now, am I at all able to say somewhat? The word that Elohim puts in my mouth, that I speak.”

39 And Bil'am went with Balaq, and they came to Qiryath Hutsoth.

40 And Balaq slaughtered cattle and sheep, and he sent some to Bil'am and to the heads who were with him.

41 And it came to be in the morning, that Balaq took Bil'am and brought him up to the high places of Ba'al, and from there he saw the extremity of the camp.

23 And Bil'am said to Balaq, "Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here."

2 And Balaq did as Bil'am had spoken, and Balaq and Bil'am offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

3 Bil'am then said to Balaq, "Stand by your burnt offering, and let me go on. It might be that אֱלֹהִים comes to meet me, and whatever He shows me I shall declare to you." And he went to a bare height.

4 And Elohim came to Bil'am, and he said to Him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram."

5 And אֱלֹהִים put a word in the mouth of Bil'am, and said, "Return to Balaq, and this is what you say."

6 And he returned to him and saw him standing by his burnt offering, he and all the heads of Mo'ab.

7 And he took up his proverb and said, "Balaq the sovereign of Mo'ab has brought me from Aram, from the mountains of the east. 'Come, curse Ya'aqob for me, and come, rage at Yisra'el!'

8 "How do I curse whom Ēl has not cursed? And how do I rage at whom אֱלֹהִים has not raged?

9 "For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I observe him. Look, a people dwelling alone, not reckoning itself among the nations.

10 "Who shall count the dust of Ya'aqob, and the number of one-fourth of Yisra'el? Let me die the death of the upright, and let my end be like his!"

11 And Balaq said to Bil'am, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have kept on beraḳah!"

12 And he answered and said, "Should I not take heed to speak what אֱלֹהִים has put in my mouth?"

13 And Balaq said to him, "Please come with me to another place from where you see them. You only see the extremity but not all of them. Curse them for me from there."

14 And he took him to the field of Trophism, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

15 And he said to Balaq, "Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet over there."

16 And אֱלֹהִים came to Bil'am, and put a word in his mouth, and said, "Go back to Balaq, and say this."

17 So he went to him and saw him standing by his burnt offering, and the heads of Mo'ab with him. And Balaq asked him, "What did אֱלֹהִים say?"

18 And he took up his proverb and said, "Rise up, Balaq, and hear! Listen to me, son of Tsippor!

19 "Ēl is not a man, to lie; nor a son of man, to repent! Has He said, and would He not do it; or spoken, and would not confirm it?

20 "See, I have received, to barak. And He has barak, and I do not reverse it.

21 "He has not looked upon wickedness in Ya'aqob, nor has He seen trouble in Yisra'el. אֱלֹהִים his Elohim is with him, and the shout of a Sovereign is in him.

22 "Ēl who brought them out of Mitsrayim, is for them like the horns of a wild ox.

23 "For there is no sorcery against Ya'aqob, nor is there any divination against Yisra'el. Now it is said to Ya'aqob and to Yisra'el, 'What has Ēl done!'

24 "Look, a people rises like a lioness, and lifts itself up like a lion; it lies not down until it devours the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain."

25 And Balaq said to Bil'am, "Do not curse them at all, nor barak them at all!"

26 And Bil'am answered and said to Balaq, "Have I not spoken to you, saying, 'All that אֱלֹהִים speaks, that I do'?"

27 And Balaq said to Bil'am, "Please come, let me take you to another place. It might be right in the eyes of Elohim that you curse them for me from there."

28 And Balaq took Bil'am to the top of Pe'or, that overlooks the wasteland.

29 And Bil'am said to Balaq, "Build seven altars for me here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here."

30 And Balaq did as Bil'am had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 And when Bil'am saw that it pleased אֱלֹהִים to barak Yisra'el, he did not go as at other times, to seek to use sorcery, but he put his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Bil'am lifted up his eyes and saw Yisra'el encamped according to their tribes. And the Ruah of Elohim came upon him.

3 And he took up his proverb and said, "The saying of Bil'am, son of Be'or, and the saying of the man whose eyes are opened,

4 the saying of him who hears the words of Ėl, who sees the vision of Ėl Shaddai, who falls down, with eyes opened wide:

5 "How good are your tents, O Ya'aqob, your dwellings, O Yisra'el!

6 "Like wadis that stretch out, like gardens by a river, like aloes planted by אֱלֹהִים, like cedars beside waters.

7 “He makes water flow from his buckets, and his seed is in many waters. His sovereign is higher than Aḡaḡ, and his reign is exalted.

8 “Ĕl who brought him out of Mitsrayim is for them like the horns of a wild ox; he devours nations, his enemies; and he breaks their bones, and he strikes through with his arrows.

9 “He bowed down, he lay down like a lion. And, like a lion, who would rouse him? Baruk̄ is he who barak̄ you, and cursed is he who curses you.”

10 Then the displeasure of Balaq burned against Bil’am, and he struck his hands together. Balaq then said to Bil’am, “I summoned you to curse my enemies, and see, you have kept on beraḡah, these three times!

11 “And now flee to your place. I said I would greatly esteem you, and see, אַף־אָז has kept you back from esteem.”

12 And Bil’am said to Balaq, “Did I not also speak to your messengers whom you sent to me, saying,

13 ‘If Balaq should give me his house filled with silver and gold, I am unable to go beyond the word of אַף־אָז, to do either good or evil of my own heart. What אַף־אָז speaks, that I speak’?

14 “And now, see, I am going to my people. Come, let me advise you what this people is going to do to your people in the latter days.”

15 And he took up his proverb and said, “The saying of Bil’am, son of Be’or, and the saying of the man whose eyes are opened,

16 the saying of him who hears the words of Ĕl, and knows the knowledge of the Most High, who sees the vision of Ĕl Shaddai, who falls down, with eyes opened wide:

17 “I see Him, but not now; I observe Him, but not near. A Star shall come out of Ya’aqob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Yisra’ël, and shall smite the corners of Mo’ab, and shall destroy all the sons of Shëth.

18 “And Edom shall be a possession; and Së’ir shall be a possession - enemies - and Yisra’ël is doing mightily.

19 “And a Ruler shall come from Ya’aqob and destroy the remnant from Ar.”

20 He then looked on Amalëq, and he took up his proverb and said, “Amalëq was first among the nations, but his latter end is to perish forever.”

21 He then looked on the Qëynites, and he took up his proverb and said, “Firm is your dwelling place, and your nest is placed in the rock,

22 but Qayin is to be burned. Till when does Asshur keep you captive?”

23 And he took up his proverb and said, “Oh, who lives when Ĕl does this?”

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Kittim, and they shall afflict Asshur and afflict Ĕber, and so shall Amalëq, and he also perishes.”

25 And Bil’am arose and left, and returned to his place. And Balaq also went his way.

25 And Yisra’ël dwelt in Shittim, and the people began to whore with the daughters of Mo’ab,

2 and they invited the people to the slaughterings of their mighty ones, and the people ate and bowed down to their mighty ones.

3 Thus Yisra’ël was joined to Ba’al Pe’or, and the displeasure of אַף־אָז burned against Yisra’ël.

4 And אַף־אָז said to Mosheh, “Take all the leaders of the people and hang them up before אַף־אָז, before the sun, so that the burning displeasure of אַף־אֵל turns away from Yisra'ël.”

5 And Mosheh said to the judges of Yisra'ël, “Each one of you slay his men who were joined to Ba'al Pe'or.”

6 And see, one of the children of Yisra'ël came and brought to his brothers a Midyanite woman before the eyes of Mosheh and before the eyes of all the congregation of the children of Yisra'ël, who were weeping at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

7 And when Pinehas, son of El'azar, son of Aharon the kohën, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation and took a spear in his hand,

8 and he went after the man of Yisra'ël into the tent and thrust both of them through, the man of Yisra'ël, and the woman through her abdomen. Thus the plague among the children of Yisra'ël came to a stop.

9 And those who died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.

10 And אַף־אֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

11 “Pinehas, son of El'azar, son of Aharon the kohën, has turned back My wrath from the children of Yisra'ël, because he was ardent with My ardour in their midst, so that I did not consume the children of Yisra'ël in My ardour.

12 “Therefore say, ‘See, I am giving him My covenant of peace,

13 and it shall be to him and to his seed after him a covenant of an everlasting kehunnah, because he was ardent for his Elohim, and made atonement for the children of Yisra'ël.’ ”

14 And the name of the Yisra'élite who was killed, who was killed with the Midyanite woman, was Zimri, son of Salu, a leader of a father's house among the Shim'onites.

15 And the name of the Midyanite woman who was killed was Kozbi the daughter of Tsur. He was head of the people of a father's house in Midyan.

16 And אִפְאֵז spoke to Mosheh, saying,

17 "Distress the Midyanites! And you shall smite them,

18 for they distressed you with their tricks with which they deceived you in the matter of Pe'or and in the matter of Kozbi, the daughter of a leader of Midyan, their sister, who was killed in the day of the plague because of Pe'or."

26 And it came to be, after the plague, that אִפְאֵז spoke to Mosheh and El'azar, son of Aharon the kohēn, saying,

2 "Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Yisra'el from twenty years old and above, by their fathers' houses, everyone going out to the army in Yisra'el."

3 So Mosheh and El'azar the kohēn spoke with them in the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Yardēn of Yeriho, saying,

4 "From twenty years old and above, as אִפְאֵז commanded Mosheh and the children of Yisra'el who came out of the land of Mitsrayim."

5 Re'ubēn, first-born of Yisra'el, sons of Re'ubēn: of Ḥanoḳ, the clan of the Ḥanoḳites; of Pallu, the clan of the Palluites;

32 of Shemiḏa, the clan of the Shemiḏaites; of Ḥēpher, the clan of the Ḥēpherites.

33 And Tselapheḏad son of Ḥēpher had no sons, but daughters. And the names of the daughters of Tselapheḏad: Maḥlah, and No'ah, Ḥoḡlah, Milkah, and Tirtsah.

34 These are the clans of Menashsheh, and their registered ones: fifty-two thousand seven hundred.

35 These are the sons of Ephrayim according to their clans: of Shuthelah, the clan of the Shuthalḥites; of Bek̄er, the clan of the Bak̄rites; of Taḥan, the clan of the Taḥanites.

36 And these are sons of Shuthelaḥ: of Ēran, the clan of the Ēranites.

37 These are the clans of the sons of Ephrayim according to their registered ones: thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Yosëph according to their clans.

38 Sons of Binyamin according to their clans: of Bela, the clan of the Belaites; of Ashbël, the clan of the Ashbëlites; of Aḥiram, the clan of the Aḥiramites;

39 of Shephupham, the clan of the Shephuphamites; of Ḥupham, the clan of the Ḥuphamites.

40 And sons of Bela were Ard and Na'aman: of Ard, the clan of the Ardites; of Na'aman, the clan of the Na'amites.

41 These are sons of Binyamin according to their clans, and their registered ones: forty-five thousand six hundred.

42 These are sons of Dan according to their clans: of Shuḥam, the clan of the Shuḥamites. These are the clans of Dan according to their clans.

43 All the clans, of the Shuḥamites, according to their registered ones: sixty-four thousand four hundred.

44 Sons of Ashër according to their clans: of Yimna, the clan of the Yimnahites; of Yishwi, the clan of the Yishwites; of Beri'ah, the clan of the Beri'ites.

45 Of the sons of Beri'ah: of Ḥeḇer, the clan of the Ḥeḇerites; of Malki'ël, the clan of the Malki'ëlites.

46 And the name of the daughter of Ashër was Serah.

47 These are the clans of the sons of Ashër according to their registered ones: fifty-three thousand four hundred.

48 Sons of Naphtali according to their clans: of Yaḥtse'ël, the clan of the Yaḥtse'ëlites; of Guni, the clan of the Gunites;

49 of Yětser, the clan of the Yětserites; of Shillēm, the clan of the Shillēmites.

50 These are the clans of Naphtali according to their clans, and their registered ones: forty-five thousand four hundred.

51 These are the registered ones of the children of Yisra'ël: six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

53 “The land is to be divided to these as an inheritance, according to the number of names.

54 “To the large one you give a larger inheritance, and to the small one you give a smaller inheritance. Each shall be given its inheritance according to their registered ones.

55 “But the land is divided by lot, they inherit according to the names of the tribes of their fathers.

56 “According to the lot their inheritance is divided between the larger and the smaller.”

57 And these are the registered ones of the Lěwites according to their clans: of Gěreshon, the clan of the Gěreshonites; of Qehath, the clan of the Qehathites; of Merari, the clan of the Merarites.

58 These are the clans of the Lěwites: the clan of the Liḅnites, the clan of the Heḅronites, the clan of the Maḥlites, the clan of the Mushites, and the clan of the Qorḥites. And Qehath brought forth Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was Yoḳeḅeḍ the daughter of Lěwi, who was born to Lěwi in Mitsrayim. And to Amram she bore Aharon and Mosheh and their sister Miryam.

60 And to Aharon were born Naḍaḅ and Aḅihu, El'azar and Ithamar.

61 And Naḍaḅ and Aḅihu died when they brought strange fire before אִרְאֵל.

62 And their registered ones were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and above. For they were not registered among the other children of Yisra'ël, because there was no inheritance given to them among the children of Yisra'ël.

63 These are the ones registered by Mosheh and El'azar the kohën, who registered the sons of Yisra'ël in the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Yardën of Yeriho.

64 But among these there was not a man of those registered by Mosheh and Aharon the kohën when they registered the sons of Yisra'ël in the Wilderness of Sinai.

65 For אֶלֶל had said of them, "They shall certainly die in the wilderness." And not a man was left of them, except Kalëb son of Yephunneh, and Yahoshua son of Nun.

27 Then came the daughters of Tselaphehad, son of Hëpher, son of Gil'ad, son of Maqir, son of Menashsheh, from the clans of Menashsheh, son of Yosëph. And these were the names of his daughters: Maḥlah, No'ah, and Hoḡlah, and Milkah, and Tirtsah.

2 And they stood before Mosheh, and before El'azar the kohën, and before the leaders and all the congregation, by the doorway of the Tent of Appointment, saying,

3 "Our father died in the wilderness, yet he was not in the company of those who were met together against אֶלֶל, in company with Qoraḥ, but he died in his own sin. And he had no sons.

4 "Why should the name of our father be removed from among his clan because he had no son? Give us a possession among the brothers of our father."

5 Mosheh then brought their case before אֶלֶל.

6 And אֶלֶל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

7 “The daughters of Tselaphehad speak what is right. You should certainly give them a possession of inheritance among their father’s brothers, and cause the inheritance of their father to pass to them.

8 “And speak to the children of Yisra’el, saying, ‘When a man dies and has no son, then you shall cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter.

9 ‘And if he has no daughter, then you shall give his inheritance to his brothers.

10 ‘And if he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

11 ‘And if his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his clan, and he shall possess it.’ ” And it shall be to the children of Yisra’el a Law of Right-Ruling, as אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh.

12 And אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh, “Go up into this Mount Abiram, and see the land which I have given to the children of Yisra’el.

13 “And when you have seen it, you also shall be gathered to your people as Aharon your brother was gathered,

14 because you rebelled against My mouth in the Wilderness of Tsin, in the strife of the congregation, to qadosh Me at the waters before their eyes.” These were the waters of Meribah, at Qadesh in the Wilderness of Tsin.

15 And Mosheh spoke to אֱלֹהִים, saying,

16 “Let אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of the spirits of all flesh, appoint a man over the congregation, 17 who goes out before them and comes in before them, who leads them out and brings them in, so that the congregation of אֱלֹהִים be not like sheep without a shepherd.”

18 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Mosheh, “Take Yahoshua son of Nun with you, a man in whom is the Ruah. And you shall lay your hand on him,

19 and shall stand him before El’azar the kohēn and before all the congregation, and give him charge before their eyes,

20 and shall put some of your esteem upon him, so that all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ēl obey.

21 “And he is to stand before El’azar the kohēn, who shall inquire before אִיִּזְרָאֵל for him by the right-ruling of the Urim. At his word they go out, and at his word they come in, both he and all the children of Yisra’ēl with him, all the congregation.”

22 And Mosheh did as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded him, and took Yahoshua and stood him before El’azar the kohēn and before all the congregation,

23 and laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded by the hand of Mosheh.

28 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Command the children of Yisra’ēl, and you shall say to them, ‘Take heed to bring My offering, My food for My offerings made by fire as a sweet fragrance to Me, at their Appointed Time.’

3 “And you shall say to them, ‘This is the offering made by fire which you bring to אִיִּזְרָאֵל: two male lambs a year old, perfect ones, daily, a continual burnt offering.

4 ‘The one lamb you prepare in the morning, and the other lamb you prepare between the evenings,

5 with one-tenth of an ēphah of fine flour as a grain offering mixed with one-fourth of a hin of pressed oil,

6 a continual burnt offering which was offered at Mount Sinai for a sweet fragrance, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים,

7 and its drink offering, one-fourth of a hin for each lamb. Pour out the drink to אֱלֹהִים as an offering in the qodesh place.

8 'And the other lamb you prepare between the evenings. As the morning grain offering and its drink offering, you prepare it as an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים.

9 'And on the Shabbath day two lambs a year old, perfect ones, and two-tenth parts of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, with its drink offering,
10 the burnt offering for every Shabbath, besides the continual burnt offering with its drink offering.

11 'And on the beginnings of your months you bring near a burnt offering to אֱלֹהִים: two young bulls and one ram, and seven lambs a year old, perfect ones;
12 three-tenth parts of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for each bull; two-tenth parts of fine flour as a grain offering, mixed with oil, for the one ram;

13 and one-tenth part of fine flour, mixed with oil, as a grain offering for each lamb, as a burnt offering of sweet fragrance, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהִים.

14 'And their drink offering is half a hin of wine for a bull, and one-third of a hin for a ram, and one-fourth of a hin for a lamb. This is the burnt offering for each month throughout the months of the year,

15 and one male goat as a sin offering to אֱלֹהִים is prepared, besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

16 'And in the first month, on the fourteenth day, is the Pesah of אֱלֹהִים, 17 and on the fifteenth day of this month is a Festival.

For seven days unleavened bread is eaten.

18 'On the first day is a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work.

19 'And you shall bring near an offering made by fire as a burnt offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם: two young bulls and one ram, and seven lambs a year old, perfect ones they are for you,

20 and their grain offering, fine flour mixed with oil. Prepare three-tenth parts for a bull, and two-tenth parts for a ram.

21 'Prepare one-tenth part for each of the seven lambs,

22 and one goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you.

23 'Prepare these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering.

24 'According to these you are to prepare the food of the offering made by fire daily for seven days, as a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם. It is prepared besides the continual burnt offering and its drink offering.

25 'And on the seventh day you have a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work.

26 'And on the day of the first-fruits, when you bring a new grain offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם at your Festival of Shabuoth, you have a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work.

27 'And you shall bring near a burnt offering as a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם: two young bulls, one ram, and seven lambs a year old,

28 with their grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil: three-tenth parts for each bull, two-tenth parts for the one ram,

29 one-tenth part for each of the seven lambs,

30 one male goat to make atonement for you,

31 perfect ones they are for you. Prepare them with their drink offerings, besides the continual burnt offering with its grain offering.

29 'And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, you have a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work, it is a Yom Teruah for you.

2 'And you shall prepare a burnt offering as a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם: one young bull, one ram, seven lambs a year old, perfect ones,

3 and their grain offering: fine flour mixed with oil, three-tenth parts for the bull, two-tenth parts for the ram,

4 and one-tenth part for each of the seven lambs,

5 and one male goat as a sin offering, to make atonement for you,

6 besides the burnt offering with its grain offering for the New Moon, the continual burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings, according to their Right-Ruling, as a sweet fragrance, an offering made by fire to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

7 'And on the tenth of this seventh month you have a qodesh gathering, and you shall afflict your beings, you do no work.

8 'And you shall bring near a burnt offering to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, a sweet fragrance: one young bull, one ram, seven lambs a year old, perfect ones they are for you,

9 and their grain offering: fine flour mixed with oil, three-tenth parts for the bull, two-tenth parts for the one ram,

10 one-tenth part for each of the seven lambs,

11 one male goat as a sin offering, besides the sin offering for atonement the continual burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

12 'And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month you have a qodesh gathering, you do no servile work. And you shall celebrate a Festival to אֶתְכֶם seven days,
13 and you shall bring near a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֶתְכֶם: thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old, perfect ones they are,
14 and their grain offering: fine flour mixed with oil, three-tenth parts for each of the thirteen bulls, two-tenth parts for each of the two rams,
15 and one-tenth part for each of the fourteen lambs,
16 and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
17 'Then on the second day: twelve young bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old, perfect ones,
18 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,
19 and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.
20 'And on the third day eleven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old perfect ones,
21 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,
22 and one goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.
23 'Then on the fourth day: ten bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old perfect ones,
24 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,

25 and one male goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

26 'Then on the fifth day: nine bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old perfect ones,

27 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,

28 and one goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

29 'Then on the sixth day: eight bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old perfect ones,

30 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,

31 and one goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

32 'Then on the seventh day: seven bulls, two rams, fourteen lambs a year old, perfect ones,

33 and their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,

34 and one goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

35 'On the eighth day you have an assembly, you do no servile work,

36 and you shall bring near a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, a sweet fragrance to אֱלֹהִים: one bull, one ram, seven lambs a year old perfect ones,

37 their grain offering and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the Right-Ruling,

38 and one goat as a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, its grain offering, and its drink offering.

39 'These you prepare to אִשָּׁרָא at your Appointed Times, besides your vowed offerings and your voluntary offerings, as your burnt offerings and your grain offerings, as your drink offerings and your peace offerings.' ”

40 And Mosheh spoke to the children of Yisra'el according to all אִשָּׁרָא had commanded Mosheh.

30 And Mosheh spoke to the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Yisra'el, saying, “This is the word which אִשָּׁרָא has commanded:

2 “When a man vows a vow to אִשָּׁרָא, or swears an oath to bind himself by some agreement, he does not break his word, he does according to all that comes out of his mouth.

3 “Or if a woman vows a vow to אִשָּׁרָא, and binds herself by some agreement while in her father's house in her youth,

4 and her father hears her vow and the agreement by which she has bound herself, and her father has kept silent towards her, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement with which she has bound herself stands.

5 “But if her father forbids her on the day that he hears, then none of her vows nor her agreements by which she has bound herself stand. And אִשָּׁרָא pardons her, because her father has forbidden her.

6 “But if she at all belongs to a husband, while bound by her vows or by a rash utterance from her lips by which she bound herself,

7 and her husband hears it, and he has kept silent towards her on the day that he hears, then her vows shall stand, and her agreements by which she bound herself do stand.

8 “But if her husband forbids her on the day that he hears it, then he has nullified her vow which she vowed, and the rash utterance of her lips by which she bound herself, and אִי־אֵלֶיךָ pardons her.

9 “But any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, stands against her.

10 “And if she vowed in her husband’s house, or bound herself by agreement with an oath,

11 and her husband heard it, and has kept silent towards her and did not forbid her, then all her vows shall stand, and every agreement by which she bound herself stands.

12 “But if her husband clearly nullified them on the day he heard them, then whatever came from her lips concerning her vows or concerning the agreement binding her, it does not stand - her husband has nullified them, and אִי־אֵלֶיךָ pardons her.

13 “Every vow and every binding oath to afflict her being, let her husband confirm it, or let her husband nullify it.

14 “But if her husband is altogether silent at her from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or all the agreements that bind her - he confirms them, because he kept silent towards her on the day that he heard.

15 “But if he nullifies them after he has heard, then he shall bear her wickedness.”

16 These are the Laws which אִי־אֵלֶיךָ commanded Mosheh, between a man and his wife, and between a father and his daughter in her youth in her father’s house.

31 And אִי־אֵלֶיךָ spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Take vengeance for the children of Yisra’ël on the Midyanites. After that you are to be gathered to your people.”

3 And Mosheh spoke to the people, saying, “Arm some of yourselves for the campaign, and let them go against the Midyanites to take vengeance for אַף־אָז on Midyan.

4 “Send a thousand from each tribe of all the tribes of Yisra’ël for the campaign.”

5 So there were supplied from the tribes of Yisra’ël one thousand from each tribe, twelve thousand armed ones for the campaign.

6 And Mosheh sent them on the campaign, one thousand from each tribe, them and Pinehas son of El’azar the kohën on the campaign, with the qodesh utensils and the trumpets for sounding in his hand.

7 And they fought against the Midyanites, as אַף־אָז commanded Mosheh, and slew all the males.

8 And they slew the sovereigns of Midyan with the rest of those who were pierced: Ewi, and Reqem, and Tsur, and Hur, and Reba, the five sovereigns of Midyan. And they slew Bil’am son of Be’or with the sword.

9 And the sons of Yisra’ël took all the women of Midyan captive, with their little ones, and took as spoil all their livestock, and all their possessions.

10 And they burned with fire all the cities where they dwelt, and all their settlements.

11 And they took all the spoil and all the booty, both of man and beast.

12 And they brought the captives, and the booty, and the spoil to Mosheh, and to El’azar the kohën, and to the congregation of the children of Yisra’ël, to the camp in the desert plains of Mo’ab by the Yardën of Yeriho.

13 And Mosheh, and El'azar the kohēn, and all the leaders of the congregation, went to meet them outside the camp.

14 But Mosheh was wroth with the officers of the army, with the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, who had come from the campaign.

15 And Mosheh said to them, "Have you kept all the women alive?"

16 "Look, they are the ones who caused the children of Yisra'el, through the word of Bil'am, to trespass against אֱלֹהֵינוּ in the matter of Pe'or, and there was a plague among the congregation of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

17 "And now, slay every male among the little ones. And every woman who has known a man by lying with a man you shall slay.

18 "But keep alive for yourselves all the female children who have not known a man by lying with a man.

19 "And you, camp outside the camp seven days. Whoever has slain any being, and whoever has touched any slain, cleanse yourselves and your captives on the third day and on the seventh day.

20 "And cleanse every garment, and every object of leather and whatever is made of goats' hair, and every object of wood."

21 And El'azar the kohēn said to the men of the campaign who went to the battle, "This is the Law of the Torah which אֱלֹהֵינוּ commanded Mosheh:

22 "Only the gold, and the silver, the bronze, the iron, the tin, and the lead,

23 every object that passes through fire, you put through the fire, and it shall be clean; only, let it be cleansed with the water for uncleanness. And whatever does not pass through fire you pass through water.

24 “And you shall wash your garments on the seventh day and be clean, and afterwards come into the camp.”

25 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

26 “Count up the plunder that was taken, of man and of beast, you and El’azar the kohēn and the heads of the fathers of the congregation.

27 “And you shall divide the plunder into two parts, between those who took part in the battle, who went out on the campaign, and all the congregation.

28 “And put aside a levy for אִיִּזְרָאֵל on the men of battle who went out on the campaign: one out of every five hundred, of man, and of the cattle, and of the donkeys, and of the sheep.

29 “Take it from their half, and give it to El’azar the kohēn as a contribution to אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

30 “And from the children of Yisra’ēl’s half you shall take one of every fifty, of man, of the cattle, of the donkeys, and of the sheep, of all the livestock, and give them to the Lēwites guarding the duty of the Mishkan of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.”

31 And Mosheh and El’azar the kohēn did as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Mosheh.

32 And the booty remaining from the plunder, which the people of the campaign had taken, was six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep,

33 and seventy-two thousand cattle,

34 and sixty-one thousand donkeys,

35 and thirty-two thousand human beings in all, of women who had not known a man by lying with a man.

36 And the half, the portion for those who went out on the campaign, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

37 and the levy unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל of the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five.

38 And the cattle were thirty-six thousand, of which the levy unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל was seventy-two.

39 And the donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred, of which the levy unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל was sixty-one.

40 And the human beings were sixteen thousand, of which the levy unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל was thirty-two beings.

41 So Mosheh gave the levy which was the contribution unto אִיִּזְרָאֵל to El'azar the kohēn, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Mosheh.

42 And from the children of Yisra'el's half, which Mosheh divided from the men who campaigned:

43 now the half belonging to the congregation was three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep,

44 and thirty-six thousand cattle,

45 and thirty thousand five hundred donkeys,

46 and sixteen thousand human beings.

47 Then Mosheh took from the children of Yisra'el's half: one out of every fifty, drawn from man and beast, and gave them to the Lēwites, who guarded the duty of the Mishkan of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded Mosheh.

48 And the officers who were over thousands of the campaign, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, came near to Mosheh, 49 and they said to Mosheh, "Your servants have taken a count of the fighting men under our command, and not a man of us is missing.

50 "So we have brought an offering for אִיִּזְרָאֵל, what every man found of ornaments of gold: armlets and bracelets and signet rings and earrings and necklaces, to make atonement for ourselves before אִיִּזְרָאֵל.”

51 And Mosheh and El’azar the kohēn received the gold from them, all the fashioned ornaments.

52 And all the gold of the offering that they presented to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty sheqels.

53 The men of the campaign had taken spoil, every man for himself.

54 And Mosheh and El’azar the kohēn received the gold from the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the Tent of Appointment as a remembrance for the children of Yisra’ēl before אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

32 And the children of Re’uḇēn and the children of Gaḏ had much livestock, a large number. And they saw the land of Ya’zēr and the land of Gil’aḏ and saw that the place was a place for livestock.

2 So the children of Gaḏ and the children of Re’uḇēn came and spoke to Mosheh, and to El’azar the kohēn, and to the leaders of the congregation, saying,

3 “Ataroth, and Dibon, and Ya’zēr, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and El’alēh, and Seḇam, and Neḇo, and Be’on,

4 the land which אִיִּזְרָאֵל had smitten before the congregation of Yisra’ēl, is a land for livestock, and your servants have livestock.”

5 And they said, “If we have found favour in your eyes, let this land be given to your servants as a possession, and do not let us pass over the Yardēn.”

6 And Mosheh said to the children of Gaḡ and to the children of Re'ubēn, "Are your brothers to go into the battle while you yourselves sit here?"

7 "Now why do you discourage the heart of the children of Yisra'ēl from passing over into the land which אֲרָצָא has given them?"

8 "Thus your fathers did when I sent them away from Qaḡēsh Barnēa to see the land.

9 "For when they went up to the wadi Eshkol and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Yisra'ēl, so that they did not go into the land which אֲרָצָא had given them.

10 Then the displeasure of אֲרָצָא burned on that day, and He swore an oath, saying,

11 'Not one of the men who came up from Mitsrayim, from twenty years old and above, is to see the land of which I swore to Aḡraham, Yitshaq, and Ya'aqob, because they did not follow Me completely,

12 except Kalēḡ son of Yephunneh, the Qenizzite, and Yahoshua son of Nun, for they have followed אֲרָצָא completely.'

13 "So the displeasure of אֲרָצָא burned against Yisra'ēl, and He made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until all the generation that had done evil in the eyes of אֲרָצָא was destroyed.

14 "And see, you have risen in your father's place, an increase of men, sinners, to add still more the burning displeasure of אֲרָצָא against Yisra'ēl.

15 "For if you turn away from following Him, He shall once again leave them in the wilderness, and you shall destroy all these people."

16 Then they came near to him and said, "Let us build sheep-enclosures here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones,

17 but let us ourselves be armed, hastening before the children of Yisra'ël until we have brought them to their place. And our little ones shall dwell in the walled cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 “We shall not return to our homes until every one of the children of Yisra'ël has received his inheritance.

19 “For we shall not inherit with them on the other side of the Yardĕn and beyond, because our inheritance has fallen to us on this eastern side of the Yardĕn.”

20 And Mosheh said to them, “If you make this promise: if you arm yourselves before אֶפְרַיִם for battle,
21 and all your armed ones pass over the Yardĕn before אֶפְרַיִם until He has driven out His enemies from before Him,

22 and the land has been subdued before אֶפְרַיִם, then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless before אֶפְרַיִם and before Yisra'ël. And this land shall be your possession before אֶפְרַיִם.

23 “But if you do not do so, then see, you shall sin against אֶפְרַיִם, and know: your sin is going to find you out.

24 “Build cities for your little ones and enclosures for your sheep, and do what you have promised.”

25 And the children of Gađ and the children of Re'ubĕn spoke to Mosheh, saying, “Your servants are going to do as my master commands.

26 “Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our livestock are going to be there in the cities of Gil'ađ, 27 but your servants are passing over, every armed one of the army, before אֶפְרַיִם, to battle, as my master says.”

28 And Mosheh gave command concerning them to El'azar the kohĕn, to Yahoshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'ël.

29 And Mosheh said to them, "If the children of Gaḏ and the children of Re'ubēn pass over the Yardēn with you, every man armed for battle before אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and the land has been subdued before you, then you shall give them the land of Gil'aḏ as a possession.

30 "But if they do not pass over armed with you, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Kena'an."

31 Then the children of Gaḏ and the children of Re'ubēn answered, saying, "As אִיִּזְרָאֵל has said to your servants, so we do.

32 "We ourselves are passing over armed before אִיִּזְרָאֵל into the land of Kena'an, but the possession of our inheritance remains with us beyond the Yardēn."

33 So Mosheh gave to the children of Gaḏ, to the children of Re'ubēn, and to half the tribe of Menashsheh, son of Yosēph, the reign of Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites and the reign of Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, the land with its cities within the borders, the cities of the land round about.

34 And the children of Gaḏ built Diḇon and Ataroth and Aro'ēr,

35 and Atroth, Shophan and Ya'zēr and Yoḡbehah,

36 and Bēyth Nimrah and Bēyth Haran, walled cities, and enclosures for sheep.

37 And the children of Re'ubēn built Ḥeshbon and Elalēh and Qiryathayim, 38 Neḇo and Ba'al Me'on - the names being changed - and Shiḇmah. And they gave other names to the cities which they built.

39 And the sons of Maḵir son of Menashsheh went to Gil'aḏ and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were in it.

40 So Mosheh gave Gil'ad to Maqir, son of Menashsheh, and he dwelt in it.

41 And Ya'ir son of Menashsheh went and took its small towns, and called them Hawoth Ya'ir.

42 And Nobah went and took Qenath and its villages, and he called it Nobah, after his own name.

33 These are the departures of the children of Yisra'el, who went out of the land of Mitsrayim by their divisions under the hand of Mosheh and Aharon.

2 And Mosheh wrote down the starting points of their departures at the command of אֱלֹהִים, and these are their departures according to their starting points:

3 So they departed from Ra'meses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month, on the morrow of the Pesah the children of Yisra'el went out with a high hand before the eyes of all the Mitsrites,

4 and the Mitsrites were burying all their first-born, whom אֱלֹהִים had smitten among them. Also on their mighty ones אֱלֹהִים had executed judgments.

5 Then the children of Yisra'el departed from Ra'meses and camped at Sukkoth.

6 And they departed from Sukkoth and camped at E'tham, which is on the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they departed from E'tham and turned back to Pi ha'Hiroth, which is before Ba'al Tsephon. And they camped near Miḡdol.

8 And they departed from before ha'Hiroth and passed over through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, went three days' journey in the Wilderness of E'tham, and camped at Marah.

9 And they departed from Marah and came to E'lim. And at E'lim were twelve springs of water and seventy palm trees, so they camped there.

- 10 And they departed from Ēlim and camped by the Sea of Reeds.
- 11 And they departed from the Sea of Reeds and camped in the Wilderness of Sin.
- 12 And they departed from the Wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophqah.
- 13 And they departed from Dophqah and camped at Alush.
- 14 And they departed from Alush and camped at Rephidim, and there was no water for the people to drink.
- 15 And they departed from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai.
- 16 And they departed from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped at Qibroth ha'Tta'awah.
- 17 And they departed from Qibroth ha'Tta'awah and camped at Hatsëroth.
- 18 And they departed from Hatsëroth and camped at Rithmah.
- 19 And they departed from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon Perets.
- 20 And they departed from Rimmon Perets and camped at Liḅnah.
- 21 And they departed from Liḅnah and camped at Rissah.
- 22 And they departed from Rissah and camped at Qehëlathah.
- 23 And they departed from Qehëlathah and camped at Mount Shapher.
- 24 And they departed from Mount Shapher and camped at Haraḏah.
- 25 And they departed from Haraḏah and camped at Maqhëloth.
- 26 And they departed from Maqhëloth and camped at Taḥath.

27 And they departed from Taḥath and camped at Teraḥ.

28 And they departed from Teraḥ and camped at Mithqah.

29 And they departed from Mithqah and camped at Ḥashmonah.

30 And they departed from Ḥashmonah and camped at Mosëroth.

31 And they departed from Mosëroth and camped at Benëy Ya'aqan.

32 And they departed from Benëy Ya'aqan and camped at Ḥor ha'Gidgaḏ.

33 And they departed from Ḥor ha'Gidgaḏ and camped at Yotḃathah.

34 And they departed from Yotḃathah and camped at Aḃronah.

35 And they departed from Aḃronah and camped at Etsyon Geḃer.

36 And they departed from Etsyon Geḃer and camped in the Wilderness of Tsin, which is Qaḏësh.

37 And they departed from Qaḏësh and camped at Mount Hor, on the boundary of the land of Eḏom.

38 Then Aharon the kohën went up to Mount Hor at the command of אִרְאַז and died there in the fortieth year after the children of Yisra'ël had come out of the land of Mitsrayim, on the first day of the fifth month.

39 Now Aharon was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

40 And the sovereign of Araḏ, the Kena'anite, who dwelt in the Negeḃ in the land of Kena'an, heard of the coming of the children of Yisra'ël.

41 So they departed from Mount Hor and camped at Tsalmonah.

42 And they departed from Tsalmonah and camped at Punon.

43 And they departed from Punon and camped at Oboth.

44 And they departed from Oboth and camped at Iyē ha'Abiram, at the border of Mo'ab.

45 And they departed from Iyim and camped at Dibon Gad.

46 And they departed from Dibon Gad and camped at Almon Diblathayemah.

47 And they departed from Almon Diblathayemah and camped in the mountains of Abiram, before Nebo.

48 And they departed from the mountains of Abiram and camped in the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Yardēn of Yeriho.

49 And they camped by the Yardēn, from Bēyth Yeshimoth as far as Abēl ha'Shittim in the desert plains of Mo'ab.

50 And אֶרְרָא spoke to Mosheh in the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Yardēn of Yeriho, saying,

51 "Speak to the children of Yisra'el, and say to them, 'When you have passed over the Yardēn into the land of Kena'an,

52 then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and shall destroy all their engraved stones, and shall destroy all their moulded images, and lay waste all their high places,

53 and you shall possess the land and dwell in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

54 'And you shall divide the land by lot as an inheritance among your clans. To the larger you give a larger inheritance, and to the smaller you give a smaller inheritance. Wherever the lot falls to anyone, that is his. You inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

55 'And if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then it shall be that those whom you let remain shall be pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they shall trouble you in the land where you dwell.

56 'And it shall be that I do to you as I thought to do to them.' ”

34 And אִרְאֵל spoke to Mosheh, saying,

2 “Command the children of Yisra’ël, and say to them, ‘When you come into the land of Kena’an, this is the land which falls to you as an inheritance, the land of Kena’an to its boundaries:

3 ‘Then your southern border shall be from the Wilderness of Tsin along the border of Edom, and your southern border shall be eastward from the end of the Salt Sea.

4 ‘Then your border shall turn from the southern side of the Ascent of Aqrabbim, continue to Tsin, and be on the south of Qaděsh Barnĕa, and it shall go on to Hĕtsar Addar, and continue to Atsmon.

5 ‘And the border shall turn from Atsmon to the wadi of Mitsrayim, and it shall end at the Sea.

6 ‘As for the western border, you shall have the Great Sea for a border, this is your western border.

7 ‘And this is your northern border: From the Great Sea you mark out your borderline to Mount Hor,

8 from Mount Hor you mark out your border to the entrance of Hĕmath, and the edge of the border shall be toward Tsedad,

9 and the border shall proceed to Ziphron, and it shall end at Hĕtsar Ĕynan. This is your northern border.

10 ‘And you shall mark out your eastern border from Hĕtsar Ĕynan to Shepham, 11 and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ayin, and the border shall go down and reach to the eastern side of the Sea of Kinnereth.

12 'And the border shall go down along the Yardēn, and it shall end at the Salt Sea. This is your land with its surrounding boundaries.' "

13 And Mosheh commanded the children of Yisra'el, saying, "This is the land which you inherit by lot, which אֶרֶץ has commanded to give to the nine tribes and to the half-tribe.

14 "For the tribe of the children of Re'ubēn according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gaḏ according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance. And the half-tribe of Menashsheh has received its inheritance.

15 "The two tribes and the half-tribe have received their inheritance beyond the Yardēn of Yeriho eastward, toward the sunrise."

16 And אֶרֶץ spoke to Mosheh, saying,

17 "These are the names of the men who divide the land among you as an inheritance: El'azar the kohēn, and Yahoshua son of Nun.

18 "And take one leader of every tribe to divide the land for the inheritance.

19 "And these are the names of the men. From the tribe of Yahudaḥ: Kalēḅ son of Yephunneh.

20 "And from the tribe of the children of Shim'on: Shemu'el son of Ammihud.

21 "From the tribe of Binyamin: Eliḡaḡ son of Kislon.

22 "And a leader from the tribe of the children of Dan: Buqqi son of Yoḡli.

23 "From the sons of Yosēph: a leader from the tribe of the children of Menashsheh, Ḥanni'el son of Ēphod.

24 “And a leader from the tribe of the children of Ephrayim: Qemu’ël son of Shiphtan.

25 “And a leader from the tribe of the children of Zebulun: Elitsaphan son of Parnaḳ.

26 “And a leader from the tribe of the children of Yissasḳar: Palti’ël son of Azzan.

27 “And a leader from the tribe of the children of Ashër: Aḥihuḍ son of Shelomi.

28 “And a leader from the tribe of the children of Naphtali: Peḏah’ël son of Ammihuḍ.”

29 These are the ones אֲרָבָב commanded to divide the inheritance among the children of Yisra’ël in the land of Kena’an.

35 And אֲרָבָב spoke to Mosheh in the desert plains of Mo’ab by the Yardën of Yeriḥo, saying,

2 “Command the children of Yisra’ël that they shall give the Lëwites cities to dwell in from the inheritance of their possession. Also give the Lëwites open land around the cities.

3 “And they shall have the cities to dwell in, and their open land for their cattle, and for their herds, and for all their livestock.

4 “And the open land of the cities which you give the Lëwites are from the wall of the city outward a thousand ammah all around.

5 “And you shall measure outside the city on the east side two thousand ammah, and on the south side two thousand ammah, and on the west side two thousand ammah, and on the north side two thousand ammah. And the city is in the middle. This is to them the open land for the cities.

6 “And the cities which you give to the Lëwites are the six cities of refuge, which you give to him who killed someone to flee to, and to these you add forty-two cities.

7 “All the cities which you give to the Lěwites are forty-eight, these with their open land.

8 “And the cities which you give are from the possession of the children of Yisra’ěl. From the larger you give many, from the smaller you give few, each one gives some of its cities to the Lěwites, in proportion to the inheritance that each inherits.”

9 And אַף־אֵלַם spoke to Mosheh, saying,

10 “Speak to the children of Yisra’ěl, and say to them, ‘When you pass over the Yarděn into the land of Kena’an,

11 then you shall choose cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the one who accidentally killed someone shall flee there.

12 ‘And they shall be cities of refuge for you from the revenger, and the one who killed someone is not to die until he stands before the congregation in right-ruling.

13 ‘And of the cities which you give, six are to be cities of refuge.

14 ‘Give three cities beyond the Yarděn, and give three cities in the land of Kena’an, as cities of refuge.

15 ‘These six cities are for refuge for the children of Yisra’ěl, and for the sojourner, and for the settler in their midst, for anyone who accidentally kills someone to flee there.

16 ‘But if he has smitten him with an instrument of iron, so that he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall certainly be put to death.

17 ‘And if he has smitten him with a stone in the hand, by which one could die, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall certainly be put to death.

18 'Or if he has smitten him with a wooden instrument that could kill, and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer shall certainly be put to death.

19 'The revenger of blood himself puts the murderer to death. When he meets him, he puts him to death.

20 'And if he thrusts him through in hatred, or throws at him while lying in wait, so that he dies,

21 or in enmity he smites him with his hand so that he dies, the one who smote him shall certainly be put to death, for he is a murderer. The revenger of blood puts the murderer to death when he meets him.

22 'But if he pushes him suddenly without enmity, or throws at him without lying in wait,

23 or uses a stone, by which a man could die, throwing it at him without seeing him, so that he dies, while he was not his enemy or seeking his harm,

24 then the congregation shall judge between him who killed someone and the revenger of blood, according to these Right-Rulings.

25 'And the congregation shall rescue the one who killed someone from the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall return him to the city of refuge where he had fled, and he shall remain there until the death of the kohēn ha'gadol who was anointed with the qodesh oil.

26 'But if the one who killed someone at any time goes outside the limits of the city of refuge where he fled,

27 and the revenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the revenger of blood kills him who killed someone, he is not guilty of blood, 28 because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the kohēn ha'gadol. But after the death of the kohēn ha'gadol he who killed someone is to return to the land of his possession.

29 'And these shall be for a Law of Right-Ruling to you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 'Whoever kills someone has to be put to death as a murderer by the mouth of witnesses, but one witness does not bear witness against someone to die.

31 'And take no ransom for the life of a murderer who is guilty of death, but he shall certainly be put to death.

32 'And take no ransom for him who has fled to his city of refuge to return to dwell in the land before the death of the kohēn.

33 'And do not profane the land where you are, for blood profanes the land, and the land is not pardoned for the blood that is shed on it, except by the blood of him who shed it.

34 'And do not defile the land which you inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell, for I, אֱלֹהִים, am dwelling in the midst of the children of Yisra'ēl.' "

36 And the heads of the fathers of the clans of the children of Gil'ad, son of Makir, son of Menashsheh, of the clans of the sons of Yosēph, came near and spoke before Mosheh and before the leaders, the heads of the fathers of the children of Yisra'ēl,

2 and said, "אֱלֹהִים commanded my master to give the land as an inheritance by lot to the children of Yisra'ēl, and my master was commanded by אֱלֹהִים to give the inheritance of our brother Tselaphehad to his daughters.

3 "Now if they are married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Yisra'ēl, then their inheritance shall be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry, and taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 “And if the Yobël of the children of Yisra’ël takes place, then their inheritance shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe into which they marry, and their inheritance taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

5 And Mosheh commanded the children of Yisra’ël according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, saying, “What the tribe of the sons of Yosëph speaks is right.

6 “This is the word which אֱלֹהִים has commanded, for the daughters of Tselapheḡad, saying, ‘Let them marry who is good in their eyes, but let them marry only within the clan of their father’s tribe.’

7 “And the inheritance of the children of Yisra’ël is not to change hands from tribe to tribe, for every one of the children of Yisra’ël is to cling to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 “And every daughter possessing an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Yisra’ël is to be the wife of one of the clan of her father’s tribe, so that the children of Yisra’ël possess each the inheritance of his fathers.

9 “Thus the inheritance is not to change hands from one tribe to another, but every tribe of the children of Yisra’ël is to cling to its own inheritance.”

10 As אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh, so did the daughters of Tselapheḡad.

11 For Maḡlah, Tirtsah, and Ḥoḡlah, and Milkah, and No’ah, the daughters of Tselapheḡad, were married to the sons of their father’s brothers.

12 And they were married into the clans of the children of Menashsheh, the son of Yosëph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of their father’s clan.

13 These are the Commands and the Right-Rulings which אֱלֹהִים commanded the children of Yisra’ël by the hand of Mosheh in the desert plains of Mo'ab by the Yardēn of Yeriho.

DEBARIM

דברים 42994

- 1 These are the words which Mosheh spoke to all Yisra'el beyond the Yardēn in the wilderness, in the desert plain opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, and Laḅan, and Ḥatsēroth, and Di Zahab,
- 2 eleven days from Ḥorēḅ by way of Mount Sē'ir to Qaḏēsh Barnēa.
- 3 And it came to be in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, that Mosheh spoke to the children of Yisra'el according to all that אֱלֹהִים had commanded him concerning them,
- 4 after he had smitten Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites, who dwelt in Ḥeshbon, and Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth in Eḡre'i.
- 5 Beyond the Yardēn, in the land of Mo'ab, Mosheh undertook to declare this Torah, saying,
- 6 "אֱלֹהִים our Elohim spoke to us in Ḥorēḅ, saying, 'You have dwelt long enough at this mountain.
- 7 'Turn and depart on your way, and go into the mountains of the Amorites, and to all the neighbouring places in the desert plain, in the mountains and in the low country, and in the Negeḅ and on the seacoast, to the land of the Kena'anites and to Leḅanon, as far as the great river, the River Perath.
- 8 'See, I have put the land before you. Go in and possess the land which אֱלֹהִים swore to your fathers, to Aḅraham, to Yitshāq, and to Ya'aqob, to give to them and their seed after them.'
- 9 "And I spoke to you at that time, saying, 'I am unable to bear you by myself.

10 'אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has increased you, and see, you are today as numerous as the stars of the shamayim.

11 'אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers is going to add to you a thousand times more than you are, and barak<sub>u</sub> you as He has spoken to you!

12 'How do I bear your pressure and your burden and your strife, by myself?

13 'Choose men, wise and understanding, and known to your tribes, and let me appoint them as your heads.'

14 "And you answered me and said, 'The word which you have spoken to us to do is good.'

15 "And I took the heads of your tribes, wise men and known, and made them heads over you, leaders of thousands, and leaders of hundreds, and leaders of fifties, and leaders of tens, and officers for your tribes.

16 "And I commanded your judges at that time, saying, 'When hearing between your brothers, judge righteously between a man and his brother or the stranger who is with him.

17 'Do not show partiality in right-ruling, hear the small as well as the great. Do not be afraid of anyone's face, for the right-ruling belongs to Elohim. And the case which is too hard for you, bring it to me, and I shall hear it.'

18 "And I commanded you at that time all the words which you should do.

19 "Then we departed from H<sub>o</sub>rēb, and went through all that great and awesome wilderness which you saw on the way to the mountains of the Amorites, as אֱלֹהִים our Elohim had commanded us. And we came to Qadēsh Barnēa.

20 “And I said to you, ‘You have come to the mountains of the Amorites, which אֱלֹהִים our Elohim is giving us.

21 ‘See, אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has put the land before you. Go up and possess it, as אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers has spoken to you. Do not fear, nor be discouraged.’

22 “And all of you came near to me and said, ‘Let us send men before us, and let them search out the land for us, and bring back word to us of the way by which we should go up, and of the cities into which we would come.’

23 “And the matter was good in my eyes, so I took twelve of your men, one man from each tribe.

24 “And they turned and went up into the mountains, and came to the wadi Eshkol, and spied it out.

25 “And they took some of the fruit of the land in their hands and brought it down to us. And they brought back word to us, saying, ‘The land which אֱלֹהִים our Elohim is giving us is good.’

26 “But you would not go up and rebelled against the word of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim,

27 and grumbled in your tents, and said, ‘Because אֱלֹהִים was hating us, He has brought us out of the land of Mitsrayim to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.

28 ‘Where are we going to? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, “The people are greater and taller than we, the cities are great and walled up to the shamayim, and we saw the sons of the Anaqim there too.”’

29 “Then I said to you, ‘Have no dread or fear of them.

30 ‘אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, who is going before you, He fights for you, according to all He did for you in Mitsrayim before your eyes,

31 and in the wilderness, where you saw how אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim has borne you, as a man bears his son, in all the way that you went until you came to this place.’

32 “Yet in this matter you are putting no trust in אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, 33 who is going before you in the way to seek out a place for you to pitch your tents, to show you the way you should go, in fire by night and in a cloud by day.

34 “And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and took an oath, saying,

35 ‘Not one of these men of this evil generation shall see that good land of which I swore to give to your fathers,

36 except Kalēb son of Yephunneh. He shall see it, and to him and his children I give the land on which he walked, because he followed אֱלֹהֵיכֶם completely.’

37 “And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם was enraged with me for your sakes, saying, ‘You do not go in there, either.

38 ‘Yahoshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there. Strengthen him, for he shall cause Yisra’el to inherit.

39 ‘And your little ones and your children, who you say are for a prey, who today have no knowledge of good and evil, they are going in there. And to them I give it, and they are to possess it.

40 ‘But you, turn and take your journey into the wilderness by the Way of the Sea of Reeds.’

41 “Then you answered and said to me, ‘We have sinned against אֱלֹהֵיכֶם. We ourselves are going up, and we shall fight, as אֱלֹהֵיכֶם our Elohim commanded us.’ And when each one of you had girded on his battle gear, you were ready to go up into the mountain.

42 “And אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Say to them, “Do not go up nor fight, for I am not in your midst, lest you be smitten before your enemies.” ’

43 “So I spoke to you, but you would not listen and rebelled against the word of אֱלֹהִים, and acted proudly, and went up into the mountain.

44 “Then the Amorites who dwelt in that mountain came out against you and chased you as bees do, and beat you back from Sě’ir to Ḥormah.

45 “And you returned and wept before אֱלֹהִים, but אֱלֹהִים would not listen to your voice nor give ear to you.

46 “So you dwelt in Qaděsh many days, according to the days that you dwelt.

2 “Then we turned and departed into the wilderness, the way of the Sea of Reeds, as אֱלֹהִים spoke to me, and we went round Mount Sě’ir, many days.

2 “And אֱלֹהִים spoke to me, saying,

3 ‘You have gone around this mountain long enough, turn northward.

4 ‘And command the people, saying, “You are about to pass over into the border of your brothers, the descendants of Ĕsaw, who live in Sě’ir, and they are afraid of you. So be on your guard.

5 “Do not strive with them, for I do not give you any of their land, no, not so much as one footstep, because I have given Mount Sě’ir to Ĕsaw as a possession.

6 “What food you buy from them with silver you shall eat. And also, what water you buy from them with silver you shall drink.

7 “For אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has barak<sub>u</sub> you in all the work of your hand. He has known your wandering through this great wilderness. These forty years אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has been with you, you have not lacked any matter.” ’

8 “And when we passed beyond our brothers, the descendants of Ěsaw who dwell in Sě’ir, away from the way of the desert plain, away from Ěylath and Etsyon Geber, we turned and passed over by way of the Wilderness of Mo’ab.

9 “And אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Do not distress Mo’ab, nor stir yourself up against them in battle, for I do not give you any of their land as a possession, because I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.’”

10 The Ěymites had dwelt there formerly, a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anaqim.

11 They were also reckoned as Repha’ites, like the Anaqim, but the Mo’abites call them Ěymites.

12 And the Ĥorites formerly dwelt in Sě’ir, but the descendants of Ěsaw dispossessed them and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their place, as Yisra’ěl did to the land of their possession which אֱלֹהִים gave them.

13 “ ‘Now rise up, and pass over the wadi Zered.’ So we passed over the wadi Zered.

14 “And the time we took to come from Qaděsh Barněa until we passed over the wadi Zered was thirty-eight years, until all the generation of the men of battle was consumed from the midst of the camp, as אֱלֹהִים had sworn to them.

15 “And also, the hand of אֱלֹהִים was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp until they were consumed.

16 “And it came to be, when all the men of battle had finally perished from among the people,

17 that אֱלֹהִים spoke to me, saying,

18 'This day you are to pass over at Ar, the boundary of Mo'ab.

19 'And when you come near the children of Ammon, do not distress them nor stir yourself up against them, for I do not give you any of the land of the children of Ammon as a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot as a possession.'

20 That was also reckoned as a land of Repha'ites. Repha'ites formerly dwelt there. But the Ammonites call them Zamzummim,

21 a people as great and numerous and tall as the Anaqim. But אֲנָקִים destroyed them before them, and they dispossessed them and dwelt in their place,

22 as He had done for the descendants of Ēsaw, who dwelt in Sě'ir, when He destroyed the Ḥorites from before them. They dispossessed them and dwelt in their place, even to this day.

23 And the Awwim who dwelt in villages as far as Azzah, the Kaphtorim who came from Kaphtor, destroyed them and dwelt in their place.

24 'Arise, depart and pass over the wadi Arnon. See, I have given into your hand Siḥon the Amorite, sovereign of Ḥeshbon, and his land. Begin to possess it, and stir up yourself against him in battle.

25 'This day I begin to put the dread and fear of you upon the peoples under all the shamayim, who, when they hear the report of you, shall tremble and shake because of you.'

26 "Then I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Qeḏemoth to Siḥon sovereign of Ḥeshbon, with words of peace, saying,

27 'Let me pass over through your land on the highway. I shall go on the highway and turn neither to the right nor to the left.

28 'What food you sell me for silver I shall eat, and what water you give me for silver I shall drink. Only let me pass over on foot,

29 as the descendants of Ĕsaw who dwell in Sě'ir and the Mo'abites who dwell in Ar did for me - until I pass over the Yarděn to the land אֲרָצָא our Elohim is giving us.'

30 "But Siḥon sovereign of Ḥeshbon would not let us pass over, for אֲרָצָא your Elohim hardened his spirit and strengthened his heart, to give him into your hand, as it is this day.

31 "And אֲרָצָא said to me, 'See, I have begun to give Siḥon and his land over to you. Begin to possess - in order to possess his land.'

32 "And Siḥon and all his people came out against us to fight at Yahats,

33 and אֲרָצָא our Elohim gave him over to us, so we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 "And we took all his cities at that time, and we put the men, women, and little ones of every city under the ban, we left none remaining.

35 "Only the livestock we took as plunder for ourselves, and the spoil of the cities which we captured.

36 "From Aro'ěr, which is on the edge of the wadi Arnon, and the city that is by the wadi, as far as Gil'ad, there was not one city too high for us. אֲרָצָא our Elohim gave all to us.

37 "Only you did not go near the land of the children of Ammon - anywhere along the wadi Yabboq, or to the cities of the mountains, or wherever אֲרָצָא our Elohim had commanded us.

3 “Then we turned and went up the way to Bashan. And Oḡ sovereign of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edre’i.

2 “And אִיִּזְרְאֵל said to me, ‘Do not fear him, for I have given him and all his people and his land into your hand. And you shall do to him as you did to Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites, who dwelt at Ḥeshbon.’

3 “So אִיִּזְרְאֵל our Elohim also gave into our hands Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, with all his people, and we smote him until he had no survivors remaining.

4 “And we captured all his cities at that time. There was not a city which we did not take from them: sixty cities, all the district of Argob, the reign of Oḡ in Bashan.

5 “All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates and bars, besides a great many unwalled towns.

6 “And we put them under the ban, as we did to Siḥon sovereign of Ḥeshbon, putting the men, the women, and the children of every city under the ban.

7 “But all the livestock and the spoil of the cities we took as booty for ourselves.

8 “And at that time we took the land, from the hand of the two sovereigns of the Amorites, that was beyond the Yardēn, from the wadi Arnon to Mount Ḥermon -

9 Tsidonians call Ḥermon, Siryon and the Amorites call it Senir -

10 all the cities of the plain, all Gil’ad, and all Bashan, as far as Salkah and Edre’i, cities of the reign of Oḡ in Bashan.

11 “For only Oḡ sovereign of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Repha’ites. See, his bedstead was an iron bedstead. Is it not in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? Nine ammah is its length and four ammah its width, according to the ammah of a man.

12 “And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aro’ēr, which is by the wadi Arnon, and half the mountains of Gil’ad and its cities, I gave to the Re’uḇēnites and the Gaḏites.

13 “And the rest of Gil’ad, and all Bashan, the reign of Oḡ, I gave to half the tribe of Menashsheh - all the district of Argob, with all Bashan, called the land of the Repha’ites.

14 “Ya’ir son of Menashsheh had taken all the district of Argob, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Ma’aḱathites, and called them after his own name: ha’Bashan Ḥawoth Ya’ir, to this day.

15 “And to Maḱir I gave Gil’ad.

16 “And to the Re’uḇēnites and the Gaḏites I gave from Gil’ad as far as the wadi Arnon, the middle of the wadi as the border, as far as the wadi Yabboq, the border of the children of Ammon,

17 and the desert plain, with the Yardēn as the border, from Kinnereth as far as the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, below the slopes of Pisgah on the east.

18 “And I commanded you at that time, saying, ‘אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim has given you this land to possess. All you sons of might, pass over armed before your brothers, the children of Yisra’ēl.

19 ‘But let your wives and your little ones, and your livestock - I know that you have much livestock - stay in your cities which I have given you,

20 until אֱלֹהֵיכֶם has given rest to brothers as to you, and they also possess the land which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is giving them beyond the Yardēn. Then you shall return, each man to his possession which I have given you.’

21 “And I commanded Yahoshua at that time, saying, ‘Your eyes have seen all that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has done to these two sovereigns. אֱלֹהִים does the same to all the reigns which you are passing over.

22 ‘Do not fear them, for אֱלֹהִים your Elohim Himself fights for you.’

23 “And I pleaded with אֱלֹהִים at that time, saying,

24 ‘O Adonai אֱלֹהִים, You have begun to show Your servant Your greatness and Your strong hand, for who is a mighty one in the shamayim or on earth who does according to Your works and according to Your might?’

25 ‘I pray, let me pass over and see the good land beyond the Yardĕn, this good hill country, and Lebanon.’

26 “But אֱלֹהִים was enraged with me, for your sake, and would not listen to me, and אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Enough of that! Speak no more to Me about this matter.

27 ‘Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and look with your eyes, for you do not pass over this Yardĕn.

28 ‘But command Yahoshua, and strengthen him and make him brave, for he shall pass over before this people and causes them to inherit the land which you see.’

29 “And we dwelt in the valley opposite Bĕyth Pe’or.

4 “And now, O Yisra’ĕl, listen to the Laws and the Right-Rulings which I am teaching you to do, so that you live, and shall go in and possess the land which אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers is giving you.

2 “Do not add to the Word which I command you, and do not take away from it, so as to guard the Commands of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim which I am commanding you.

3 “Your eyes have seen what אֱלֹהִים did at Ba'al Pe'or, for אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has destroyed from your midst all the men who followed Ba'al Pe'or.

4 “But you who are clinging to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim are alive today, every one of you.

5 “See, I have taught you Laws and Right-Rulings, as אֱלֹהִים my Elohim commanded me, to do thus in the land which you go to possess.

6 “And you shall guard and do them, for this is your wisdom and your understanding before the eyes of the peoples who hear all these Laws, and they shall say, ‘Only a wise and understanding people is this great nation!’

7 “For what great nation is there which has Elohim so near to it, as אֱלֹהִים our Elohim is to us, whenever we call on Him?

8 “And what great nation is there that has such Laws and righteous Right-Rulings like all this Torah which I put before you this day?

9 “Only, guard yourself, and guard your הַיָּדָיִם diligently, lest you forget the Words your eyes have seen, and lest they turn aside from your heart all the days of your life. And you shall make them known to your children and your grandchildren.

10 “The day when you stood before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim in Horeb, אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Assemble the people to Me and I make them hear My Words, so that they learn to revere Me all the days they live on the earth and teach their children.’

11 “And you came near and stood at the foot of the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the shamayim - darkness and cloud, dense cloud.

12 “And אֱלֹהִים spoke to you out of the midst of the fire. You heard a voice of words, but saw no form, you only heard a voice.

13 “And He made known to you His Covenant which He commanded you to do, the Ten Words, and He wrote them on two tablets of stone.

14 “And אֱלֹהִים commanded me at that time to teach you Laws and Right-Rulings, for you to do them in the land which you pass over to possess.

15 “Therefore, diligently guard yourselves, for you saw no form when אֱלֹהִים spoke to you at Hōrēb out of the midst of the fire,

16 lest you should do corruptly and shall make for yourselves a carved image in the form of any figure - the likeness of male or female,

17 the likeness of any beast that is on the earth or the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the shamayim,

18 the likeness of any creature that creeps on the ground or the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth;

19 and lest you lift up your eyes to the shamayim, and shall see the sun, and the moon, and the stars - all the host of the shamayim - and you be drawn away into bowing down to them and serving them, which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has allotted to all the peoples under all the shamayim.

20 “But אֱלֹהִים has taken you and brought you out of the iron furnace, out of Mitsrayim, to be His people, an inheritance, as it is today.

21 “And אֱלֹהִים was enraged with me because of your words, and swore that I would not pass over the Yardēn, and that I would not enter the good land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you as an inheritance.

22 “For I am to die in this land, I am not passing over the Yardën, but you are passing over, and shall possess that good land.

23 “Guard yourselves, lest you forget the Covenant of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim which He made with you, and shall make for yourselves a carved image in any likeness אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim has commanded you.

24 “For אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is a consuming fire, a jealous Ėl.

25 “When you bring forth children and grandchildren, and shall grow old in the land, and shall do corruptly and make a carved image in any likeness, and shall do what is evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim to provoke Him,

26 “I shall call the shamayim and earth to witness against you on that day, that you soon completely perish from the land which you pass over the Yardën to possess - you do not prolong your days in it but are completely destroyed.

27 “And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם shall scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the gentiles where אֱלֹהֵיכֶם drives you.

28 “And there you shall serve mighty ones, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see nor hear nor eat nor smell.

29 “But from there you shall seek אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, and shall find, when you search for Him with all your heart and with all your being.

30 “In your distress, when all these words shall come upon you in the latter days, then you shall return to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim and shall obey His voice.

31 “For אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is a compassionate Ėl, He does not forsake you, nor destroy you, nor forget the Covenant of your fathers which He swore to them.

32 “For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that Elohim created man on the earth, and ask from one end of the shamayim to the other end of the shamayim, whether there has been a Word as great as this, or has been heard like it.

33 “Has a people heard the voice of Elohim speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

34 “Or has Elohim tried to go and take for Himself a nation from the midst of a nation by trials, and by signs, and by wonders, and by battle, and by a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and by great fearsome deeds, according to all that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim did for you in Mitsrayim before your eyes?

35 “You have been shown it, to know that אֱלֹהִים Himself is Elohim; there is no one beside Him.

36 “From the shamayim He let you hear His voice, to instruct you, and on earth He showed you His great fire, and you heard His words out of the midst of the fire.

37 “And because He loved your fathers, therefore He chose their seed after them, and brought you out of Mitsrayim with His Presence, with His great power, 38 to drive out from before you nations greater and stronger than you, to bring you in, to give you their land as an inheritance, as it is today.

39 “And you shall know today, and shall recall to your heart that אֱלֹהִים Himself is Elohim in the shamayim above and on the earth beneath; there is none else.

40 “And you shall guard His Laws and His Commands which I command you today, so that it is well with you and with your children after you, and so that you prolong your days on the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you for all time.”

41 Then Mosheh separated three cities beyond the Yardēn, toward the rising of the sun,

42 for him who killed someone to flee there, he who kills his neighbour unintentionally, without having hated him in time past, and might flee to one of these cities and live:

43 Betser in the wilderness in the level land for the Re'ubēnites, and Ramoth in Gil'ad for the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan for the Menashshites.

44 And this is the Torah which Mosheh put before the children of Yisra'ēl.

45 These are the Witnesses, and the Laws, and the Right-Rulings which Mosheh spoke to the children of Yisra'ēl after they came out of Mitsrayim, 46 beyond the Yardēn, in the valley opposite Bēyth Pe'or, in the land of Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites, who dwelt at Ḥeshbon, whom Mosheh and the children of Yisra'ēl had smitten after they came out of Mitsrayim.

47 And they took possession of his land and the land of Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, two sovereigns of the Amorites, who were beyond the Yardēn, toward the rising of the sun,

48 from Aro'ēr, which is on the bank of the wadi Arnon, even to Mount Siyon, which is Ḥermon, 49 and all the desert plain beyond the Yardēn as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

5 And Mosheh called all Yisra'ēl, and said to them, "Hear, O Yisra'ēl, the Laws and Right-Rulings which I speak in your hearing today. And you shall learn them, and guard to do them.

2 "אִתָּנוּ our Elohim made a Covenant with us in Ḥorēb.

3 “אֱלֹהִים did not make this Covenant with our fathers, but with us, those who are here today, all of us who are alive.

4 “אֱלֹהִים spoke with you face to face on the mountain from the midst of the fire.

5 “I stood between אֱלֹהִים and you at that time, to declare to you the Word of אֱלֹהִים - for you were afraid because of the fire, and you did not go up the mountain - saying:

6 ‘I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, out of the house of bondage.

7 ‘You have no other mighty ones against My face.

8 ‘You do not make for yourself a carved image, any likeness of which is in the shamayim above, or which is in the earth beneath, or which is in the waters under the earth,

9 you do not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, am a jealous Ėl, visiting the wickedness of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me,
10 but showing kindness to thousands, to those who love Me and guard My Commands.

11 ‘You do not bring the Name of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim to naught, for אֱלֹהִים does not leave him unpunished who brings His Name to naught.

12 ‘Guard the Shabbath day, to qadosh it, as אֱלֹהִים your Elohim commanded you.

13 ‘Six days you labour, and shall do all your work,

14 but the seventh day is a Shabbath of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim. You do not do any work - you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger who is within your gates, so that your male servant and your female servant rest as you do.

15 'And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Mitsrayim, and that אלהים your Elohim brought you out from there by a strong hand and by an outstretched arm. Therefore אלהים your Elohim commanded you to perform the Shabbath day.

16 'Respect your father and your mother, as אלהים your Elohim has commanded you, so that your days are prolonged, and so that it is well with you on the land which אלהים your Elohim is giving you.

17 'You do not murder.

18 'You do not commit adultery.

19 'You do not steal.

20 'You do not bear false witness against your neighbour.

21 'You do not covet your neighbour's wife, nor do you desire your neighbour's house, his field, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, his ox, nor his donkey, or whatever belongs to your neighbour.'

22 "These Words אלהים spoke to all your assembly, in the mountain from the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the dense cloud, with a loud voice, and He added no more. And He wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

23 "And it came to be, when you heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire, that you came near to me, all the heads of your tribes and your elders,

24 and said, 'See, אלהים our Elohim has shown us His esteem and His greatness, and we have heard His voice from the midst of the fire. Today we have seen that Elohim speaks with man - and he lives!

25 'And now why should we die? For this great fire is consuming us. If we hear the voice of אלהים our Elohim any more, then we shall die.

26 'For who is there of all flesh who has heard the voice of the living Elohim speaking from the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 'You go near and hear all that אֱלֹהִים our Elohim says, and speak to us all that אֱלֹהִים our Elohim says to you, and we shall hear and do it.'

28 "And אֱלֹהִים heard the voice of your words when you spoke to me, and אֱלֹהִים said to me, 'I have heard the voice of the words of this people which they have spoken to you. They have done well in all that they have spoken.

29 'Oh, that they had such a heart in them, to revere Me and to guard all My Commands always, so that it might be well with them and with their children forever!

30 'Go, say to them, "Return to your tents."

31 'But you, stand here by Me, and let Me speak to you all the Commands, and the Laws, and the Right-Rulings which you are to teach them. And they shall do them in the land which I am giving them to possess.'

32 "And you shall guard to do as אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has commanded you - do not turn aside, to the right or to the left.

33 "Walk in all the Way which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has commanded you, so that you live and it be well with you. And you shall prolong your days in the land which you possess.

6 "And this is the Command, the Laws and Right-Rulings which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has commanded, to teach you to do in the land which you are passing over to possess,

2 so that you revere אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, to guard all His Laws and His Commands which I command you, you and your son and your grandson, all the days of your life, and that your days be prolonged.

3 “And you shall hear, O Yisra’el, and shall guard to do, that it might be well with you, and that you increase greatly as אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers has spoken to you, a land flowing with milk and honey.

4 “Hear, O Yisra’el: אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, אֱלֹהִים is one!

5 “And you shall love אֱלֹהִים your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your might.

6 “And these Words which I am commanding you today shall be in your heart,

7 and you shall impress them upon your children, and shall speak of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up,

8 and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

9 “And you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

10 “And it shall be, when אֱלֹהִים your Elohim brings you into the land of which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Yitshaq, and to Ya’aqob, to give you great and good cities which you did not build,

11 and houses filled with all kinds of goods, which you did not fill, and wells dug which you did not dig, vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant, and you shall eat and be satisfied -

12 be on guard, lest you forget אֱלֹהִים who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, from the house of bondage.

13 “Revere אֱלֹהִים your Elohim and serve Him, and swear by His Name.

14 “Do not go after other mighty ones, the mighty ones of the peoples who are all around you,

15 for אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim is a jealous Ėl in your midst, lest the displeasure of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim burn against you, then He shall destroy you from the face of the earth.

16 “Do not try אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim as you tried Him in Massah.

17 “Diligently guard the Commands of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, and His Witnesses, and His Laws which He has commanded you.

18 “And you shall do what is right and good in the eyes of אֱלֹהֶיךָ, that it might be well with you, and you shall go in and possess the good land of which אֱלֹהֶיךָ swore to your fathers,

19 to drive out all your enemies from before you, as אֱלֹהֶיךָ has spoken.

20 “When your son asks you in time to come, saying, ‘What is the meaning of the Witnesses, and the Laws, and the Right-Rulings which אֱלֹהֶיךָ our Elohim has commanded you?’

21 then you shall say to your son, ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Mitsrayim, and אֱלֹהֶיךָ brought us out of Mitsrayim with a strong hand,

22 and אֱלֹהֶיךָ sent signs and wonders, great and grievous, upon Mitsrayim, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes.

23 ‘And He brought us out from there, to bring us in, to give us the land of which He swore to our fathers.

24 ‘And אֱלֹהֶיךָ commanded us to do all these Laws, to revere אֱלֹהֶיךָ our Elohim, for our good always, to keep us alive, as it is today.

25 ‘And it is righteousness for us when we guard to do all this Command before אֱלֹהֶיךָ our Elohim, as He has commanded us.’

7 “When אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim brings you into the land which you go to possess, He shall also clear away many nations before you: the Hittites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Kena’anites and the Perizzites and the Hivvites and the Yebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you.

2 “And when אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim gives them over to you, you shall smite them and put them under the ban, completely. Make no covenant with them, and show them no favour.

3 “And do not intermarry with them - you do not give your daughter to his son, and you do not take his daughter for your son,

4 for he turns your sons away from following Me, to serve other mighty ones. Then the displeasure of אֱלֹהֶיךָ shall burn against you and promptly destroy you.

5 “But this is what you do to them: Break down their altars, and destroy their pillars, and cut down their Ashĕrim, and burn their carved images with fire.

6 “For you are a qodesh people to אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim. אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a treasured possession above all the peoples on the face of the earth.

7 “אֱלֹהֶיךָ did not place His love on you nor choose you because you were more numerous than any other people, for you were the least of all peoples,

8 but because of אֱלֹהֶיךָ loving you, and because of Him guarding the oath which He swore to your fathers, אֱלֹהֶיךָ has brought you out with a strong hand, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim.

- 9 “And you shall know that אלהים your Elohim, He is Elohim, the trustworthy Ėl guarding Covenant and kindness for a thousand generations with those who love Him, and those who guard His Commands, 10 but repaying those who hate Him to their face, to destroy them. He does not delay with him who hates Him, He repays him to his face.
- 11 “And you shall guard the Command, and the Laws, and the Right-Rulings which I command you today, to do them.
- 12 “And it shall be, because you hear these Right-Rulings, and shall guard and do them, that אלהים your Elohim shall guard with you the Covenant and the kindness which He swore to your fathers, 13 and shall love you and barak<sub>u</sub> you and increase you, and shall barak<sub>u</sub> the fruit of your womb and the fruit of your land, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flock, in the land of which He swore to your fathers to give you.
- 14 “Baruk<sub>u</sub> are you above all peoples - there is not going to be a barren man or a barren woman among you or among your livestock.
- 15 “And אלהים shall turn away from you all sickness and put on you none of the evil diseases of Mitsrayim which you have known, but He shall put them on all those who hate you.
- 16 “And you shall consume all the peoples whom אלהים your Elohim is delivering over to you - your eye shall not pardon them. And do not serve their mighty ones, for that is a snare to you.
- 17 “When you say in your heart, ‘These nations are greater than I, I am unable to drive them out,’
18 do not be afraid of them. Remember well what אלהים your Elohim did to Pharaoh and to all Mitsrayim,

19 the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs and the wonders, the strong hand and the outstretched arm, by which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim brought you out. אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim does so to all the peoples of whose presence you are afraid.

20 “And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim also sends the hornet among them until those who are left, who hide themselves from you, are destroyed.

21 “Do not be afraid of them, for אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, the great and awesome Ėl, is in your midst.

22 “And אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim shall drive out those nations before you, little by little. You are not allowed to destroy them at once, lest the beasts of the field become too numerous for you.

23 “But אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim shall deliver them over to you and destroy them with a great destruction until they are consumed.

24 “And He shall give their sovereigns into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under the shamayim. No one is going to be able to stand against you until you have destroyed them.

25 “The carved images of their mighty ones you are to burn with fire. Do not covet the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it for yourselves, lest you be snared by it, for it is an abomination to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.

26 “And do not bring an abomination into your house, lest you be accursed like it. Utterly loathe it and utterly hate it, for it is accursed.

8 “Guard to do every Command which I command you today, that you might live, and shall increase, and go in, and shall possess the land of which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם swore to your fathers.

2 “And you shall remember that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim led you all the way these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, prove you, to know what is in your heart, whether you guard His Commands or not.

3 “And He humbled you, and let you suffer hunger, and fed you with manna which you did not know nor did your fathers know, to make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but by all that comes from the mouth of אֱלֹהִים.

4 “Your garments did not wear out on you, nor did your foot swell these forty years.

5 “Thus you shall know in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so אֱלֹהִים your Elohim disciplines you,

6 therefore you shall guard the Commands of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, to walk in His Ways and to revere Him.

7 “For אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is bringing you into a good land, a land of streams of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills,

8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey,

9 a land in which you eat bread without scarcity, in which you do not lack at all, a land whose stones are iron and out of whose hills you dig copper.

10 “And you shall eat and be satisfied, and shall barak אֱלֹהִים your Elohim for the good land which He has given you.

11 “Be on guard, lest you forget אֱלֹהִים your Elohim by not guarding His Commands, and His Right-Rulings, and His Laws which I command you today,

12 lest you eat and shall be satisfied, and build lovely houses and shall dwell in them,

13 and your herds and your flocks increase, and your silver and your gold are increased, and all that you have is increased,

14 that your heart then becomes lifted up, and you forget אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, from the house of bondage,

15 who led you through that great and awesome wilderness - fiery serpents and scorpions and thirst - where there was no water, who brought water for you out of the flinty rock,

16 who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers did not know, in order to humble you and to try you, to do you good in the end,

17 you then shall say in your heart, 'My power and the strength of my hand have made for me this wealth!'

18 "But you shall remember אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth, in order to establish His Covenant which He swore to your fathers, as it is today.

19 "And it shall be, if you by any means forget אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, and follow other mighty ones, and serve them and bow yourself to them, I have warned you this day that you shall certainly perish.

20 "Like the nations which אֱלֹהֶיךָ is destroying before you, so you are to perish, because you did not obey the voice of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim.

9 "Hear, O Yisra'ël: You are passing over the Yardēn today, to go in to dispossess nations greater and stronger than yourself, cities great and walled up to the shamayim,

2 a people great and tall, the descendants of the Anaqim, whom you know, and of whom you heard it said, 'Who stands before the descendants of Anaq?'

3 "And you shall know today that אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim is He who is passing over before you as a consuming fire - He destroys them and subdues them before you.

So you shall dispossess them and destroy them quickly, as אֱלֹהִים has said to you.

4 “Do not think in your heart, after אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has driven them out before you, saying, ‘Because of my righteousness אֱלֹהִים has brought me in to possess this land.’ But it is because of the wickedness of these nations that אֱלֹהִים is driving them out from before you.

5 “It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you go in to possess their land, but because of the wickedness of these nations that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim drives them out from before you, in order to establish the word which אֱלֹהִים swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Yitshaq, and to Ya’aqob.

6 “And you shall know that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is not giving you this good land to possess because of your righteousness, for you are a stiff-necked people.

7 “Remember, do not forget how you provoked to wrath אֱלֹהִים your Elohim in the wilderness. From the day that you came out of the land of Mitsrayim until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against אֱלֹהִים.

8 “Even in Horēb you made אֱלֹהִים wroth, so that אֱלֹהִים was enraged with you, to destroy you.

9 “When I went up into the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the Covenant which אֱלֹהִים made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights. I did not eat bread nor did I drink water.

10 “Then אֱלֹהִים gave me the two tablets of stone written with the finger of Elohim, and on them were all the Words which אֱלֹהִים had spoken to you on the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11 “And it came to be, at the end of forty days and forty nights, that אֱלֹהִים gave me the two tablets of stone, the tablets of the Covenant.

12 “Then אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Arise, go down quickly from here, for your people whom you brought out of Mitsrayim have acted corruptly. They have quickly turned aside from the Way which I commanded them, they have made themselves a moulded image.’

13 “And אֱלֹהִים spoke to me, saying, ‘I have seen this people, and look, they are a stiff-necked people.

14 ‘Leave Me alone, so that I destroy them and blot out their name from under the shamayim, and make of you a nation stronger and greater than they.’

15 “So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire. And the two tablets of the Covenant were in my two hands.

16 “And I looked and saw that you had sinned against אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and had made for yourselves a moulded calf! You had quickly turned aside from the Way which אֱלֹהִים had commanded you.

17 “And I took the two tablets and threw them out of my two hands and broke them before your eyes,

18 and I fell down before אֱלֹהִים, as at the first, forty days and forty nights. I did not eat bread and I did not drink water, because of all your sins which you committed in doing evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke Him.

19 “For I was afraid of the displeasure and rage with which אֱלֹהִים was wroth with you, to destroy you. But אֱלֹהִים listened to me that time once more.

20 “And אֱלֹהִים was very enraged with Aharon, to destroy him, so I prayed for Aharon at that time also.

21 “And I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire and crushed it and ground it very small, until it was as fine as dust. And I threw its dust into the stream that came down from the mountain.

22 “And at Tab’erah and at Massah and at Qibroth ha’Tta’awah you made אֱלֹהִים wroth.

23 “And when אֱלֹהִים sent you from Qadēsh Barnēa, saying, ‘Go up and possess the land which I have given you,’ then you rebelled against the word of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and you neither trusted Him nor listened to His voice.

24 “You have been rebellious against אֱלֹהִים from the day that I knew you.

25 “So I fell down before אֱלֹהִים the forty days and forty nights, for I fell down because אֱלֹהִים had said He would destroy you.

26 “And I prayed to אֱלֹהִים, and said, O Adonai אֱלֹהִים, do not destroy Your people and Your inheritance whom You have redeemed in Your greatness, whom You have brought out of Mitsrayim with a strong hand.

27 ‘Remember Your servants, Abraham, Yitshaq, and Ya’aqob. Do not look on the stubbornness of this people, or on their wickedness or on their sin,

28 lest the land from which You brought us should say, “Because אֱלֹהִים was not able to bring them to the land which He promised them, and because He hated them, He has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.”

29 ‘And they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm.’

10 “At that time אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Hew for yourself two tablets of stone like the first, and come up to Me on the mountain. And you shall make yourself an ark of wood,

2 then I write on the tablets the Words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. And you shall put them in the ark.'

3 "So I made an ark of acacia wood, hewed two tablets of stone like the first, and went up the mountain, with the two tablets in my hand.

4 "And He wrote on the tablets according to the first writing, the Ten Words, which אֱלֹהִים had spoken to you in the mountain from the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly. Then אֱלֹהִים gave them to me,
5 and I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tablets in the ark which I had made. And they are there, as אֱלֹהִים commanded me."

6 Now the children of Yisra'el departed from the wells of Beney Ya'aqan to Moserah. Aharon died there, and he was buried there. And El'azar his son became kohēn in his place.

7 From there they departed to Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Yotbathah, a land of rivers of water.

8 At that time אֱלֹהִים separated the tribe of Lēwi to bear the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים, to stand before to אֱלֹהִים, serve Him, and to barak in His Name, to this day.

9 Therefore Lēwi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers. אֱלֹהִים is his inheritance, as אֱלֹהִים your Elohim promised him.

10 "And I stayed in the mountain for forty days and forty nights. And אֱלֹהִים heard me at that time also, and אֱלֹהִים chose not to destroy you.

11 "And אֱלֹהִים said to me, 'Arise, go before the people, to depart, and let them go in and possess the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.'

12 "And now, Yisra'el, what is אֱלֹהִים your Elohim asking of you, but to revere אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, to walk in all His Ways and to love Him, and to serve אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim with all your heart and with all your being, 13 to guard the Commands of אֱלֹהֶיךָ and His Laws which I command you today for your good?

14 “See, the shamayim and the shamayim of shamayim belong to אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, also the earth with all that is in it.

15 “אֱלֹהֶיךָ delighted only in your fathers, to love them. And He chose their seed after them, you above all peoples, as it is today.

16 “And you shall circumcise the foreskin of your heart, and harden your neck no more.

17 “For אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim is Elohim of mighty ones and Adon of masters, the great Ėl, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality nor takes a bribe.

18 “He executes right-ruling for the fatherless and the widow, and loves the stranger, giving him food and a garment.

19 “And you shall love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Mitsrayim.

20 “Revere אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim. Serve Him, and cling to Him, and swear by His Name.

21 “He is your praise, and He is your Elohim, who has done for you these great and awesome deeds which your eyes have seen.

22 “Your fathers went down to Mitsrayim with seventy beings, and now אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim has made you as numerous as the stars of the shamayim.

11 “And you shall love אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim and guard His Charge: even His Laws, and His Right-Rulings, and His Commands, always.

2 “And you shall know today - for it is not your children who have not known and who have not seen the discipline of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, His greatness, His strong hand and His outstretched arm,

3 and His signs, and His works which He had done in the midst of Mitsrayim, to Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, and to all his land;

4 and that which He had done to the army of Mitsrayim, to their horses and their chariots, when He made the waters of the Sea of Reeds overflow them as they pursued you, and how אֱלֹהִים has destroyed them to this day;

5 and what He had done for you in the wilderness till you came to this place;

6 and what He had done to Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliyab, son of Re'ubēn, when the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the living creatures that were in their possession, in the midst of all Yisra'el.

7 “For yours are the eyes that saw all the great work of אֱלֹהִים, which He did.

8 “And you shall guard every Command which I command you today, so that you are strong, and shall go in, and shall possess the land which you are passing over to possess,

9 and to prolong your days in the land which אֱלֹהִים swore to give your fathers, to them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

10 “For the land which you are going in to possess is not like the land of Mitsrayim from which you have come, where you sowed your seed and watered it by foot, as a vegetable garden,

11 but the land which you are passing over to possess is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water from the rain of the shamayim,

12 a land which אלהים your Elohim looks after. The eyes of אלהים your Elohim are always on it, from the beginning of the year to the latter end of the year.

13 'And it shall be that if you diligently obey My Commands which I command you today, to love אלהים your Elohim and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your being,

14 then I shall give you the rain for your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain, and you shall gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil.

15 'And I shall give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be satisfied.

16 'Guard yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside and serve other mighty ones and bow down to them.

17 'Then the displeasure of אלהים shall burn against you, and He shall shut up the shamayim, and there be no rain, and the land not give its increase. And you shall perish quickly from the good land which אלהים is giving you.

18 'And you shall lay up these Words of Mine in your heart and in your being, and shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 'And you shall teach them to your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up,

20 and shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates,

21 so that your days and the days of your children are increased on the land of which אלהים swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of the shamayim on the earth.

- 22 'For if you diligently guard all these Commands which I command you, to do it, to love אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, to walk in all His Ways, and to cling to Him,
- 23 then אֱלֹהֶיךָ shall drive out all these nations before you, and you shall dispossess greater and stronger nations than you.
- 24 'Every place on which the sole of your foot treads is yours: from the wilderness, and Leḇanon, from the river, the River Perath, even to the Western Sea is your border.
- 25 'No man shall stand against you. אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim shall put the dread of you and the fear of you upon all the land where you tread, as He has spoken to you.
- 26 'See, I am putting before you today a beraḳah and a curse:
- 27 the beraḳah, when you obey the Commands of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim which I command you today;
- 28 and the curse, if you do not obey the Commands of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, but turn aside from the Way which I command you today, to go after other mighty ones which you have not known.
- 29 'And it shall be, when אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim has brought you into the land which you go to possess, that you shall put the beraḳah on Mount Gerizim and the curse on Mount Ėyḅal.
- 30 'Are they not beyond the Yardēn, following the way of the sun westward, in the land of the Kena'anites who dwell in the desert plain opposite Gilgal, beside the terebinth trees of Moreh?
- 31 'For you are passing over the Yardēn to go in to possess the land which אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim is giving you, and you shall possess it and dwell in it,
- 32 and shall guard to do all the Laws and Right-Rulings which I am putting before you today.'

12 “These are the Laws and Right-Rulings which you guard to do in the land which אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers is giving you to possess, all the days that you live on the land.

2 “Completely destroy all the places where the nations which you are dispossessing served their mighty ones, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree.

3 “And you shall break down their altars, and destroy their pillars, and burn their Ashĕrim with fire. And you shall cut down the carved images of their mighty ones and shall destroy their name out of that place.

4 “Do not do so to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim,
5 but seek the place which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses, out of all your tribes, to put His Name there, for His Dwelling Place, and there you shall enter.

6 “And there you shall take your burnt offerings, and your offerings, and your tithes, and the contributions of your hand, and your vowed offerings, and your voluntary offerings, and the firstlings of your herd and of your flock.

7 “And there you shall eat before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has baraḵ you.

8 “Do not do all that we do here today - each one whatever is right in his own eyes.

9 “Because you have not yet entered the rest and the inheritance which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you.

10 “But you shall pass over the Yardĕn, and shall dwell in the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you to inherit, and He shall give you rest from all your enemies round about, and you shall dwell in safety.

11 “And it shall be, that unto the place which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses to make His Name dwell there, there you are to bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your offerings, and your tithes, and the contributions of your hand, and all your choice offerings which you vow to אֱלֹהִים.

12 “And you shall rejoice before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, you and your sons and your daughters, and your male servants and your female servants, and the Lēwite who is within your gates, since he has no portion nor inheritance with you.

13 “Guard yourself that you do not offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see,

14 except in the place which אֱלֹהִים chooses, in one of your tribes, there you are to offer your burnt offerings, and there you are to do all that I command you.

15 “Only, whatever your being desires you shall slaughter and eat, according to the berak̄ah of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim which He has given you, within all your gates. The unclean and the clean do eat of it, of the gazelle and the deer alike.

16 “Only, the blood you do not eat, pour it on the earth like water.

17 “You are not allowed to eat within your gates the tithe of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your oil, or of the firstlings of your herd or your flock, or of any of your offerings which you vow, or of your voluntary offerings, or of the contribution of your hand.

18 “But eat them before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, in the place which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses, you and your son and your daughter, and your male servant and your female servant, and the Lēwite who is within your gates. And you shall rejoice before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim in all that you put your hands to.

19 “Guard yourself that you do not forsake the Lěwite as long as you live in your land.

20 “When אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim enlarges your border as He has promised you, and you say, ‘Let me eat meat,’ because you long to eat meat, you eat as much meat as your being desires.

21 “When the place where אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim chooses to put His Name is too far from you, then you shall slaughter from your herd and from your flock which אֱלֹהֶיךָ has given you, as I have commanded you, and you shall eat within your gates as much as your being desires.

22 “Only, as the gazelle and the deer are eaten, so you are to eat of it. The unclean and the clean alike eat of it.

23 “Only, be firm not to eat the blood, for the blood is the life, do not eat the life with the meat.

24 “Do not eat it, you pour it on the earth like water.

25 “Do not eat it, that it might be well with you and your children after you, when you do what is right in the eyes of אֱלֹהֶיךָ.

26 “Only, the qodesh gifts which you have, and your vowed offerings, you are to take up and go to the place which אֱלֹהֶיךָ chooses.

27 “And you shall make your burnt offerings, the meat and the blood, on the altar of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim. And the blood of your offerings is poured out on the altar of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, and you eat the meat.

28 “Guard, and obey all these Words which I command you, that it might be well with you and your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the eyes of אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim.

29 “When אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim cuts off from before you the nations which you go to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land,

30 guard yourself that you are not ensnared to follow them, after they are destroyed from before you, and that you do not inquire about their mighty ones, saying, 'How did these nations serve their mighty ones? And let me do so too.'

31 "Do not do so to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, for every abomination which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם hates they have done to their mighty ones, for they even burn their sons and daughters in the fire to their mighty ones.

32 "All the Words I am commanding you, guard to do it - do not add to it nor take away from it.

13 "When there arises among you a nabi or a dreamer of dreams, and he shall give you a sign or a wonder,

2 and the sign or the wonder shall come true, of which he has spoken to you, saying, 'Let us go after other mighty ones - which you have not known - and serve them,'

3 do not listen to the words of that nabi or that dreamer of dreams, for אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is trying you to know whether you love אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim with all your heart and with all your being.

4 "Walk after אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim and revere Him, and guard His Commands and obey His voice, and serve Him and cling to Him.

5 "And that nabi or that dreamer of dreams is put to death, because he has spoken apostasy against אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim - who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim and redeemed you from the house of bondage - to make you stray from the Way in which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim commanded you to walk. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst.

6 "When your brother, the son of your mother, or your son or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend who is as your own being, entices you secretly, saying, 'Let us go and serve other mighty ones' - which you have not known, neither you nor your fathers,

7 of the mighty ones of the people which are all around you, near to you or far off from you, from one end of the earth to the other end of the earth -

8 do not agree with him or listen to him, nor shall your eye pardon him, nor spare him or conceal him,

9 but you shall certainly kill him. Your hand is first against him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people,

10 and you shall stone him with stones until he dies, because he sought to entice you away from אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim, from the house of bondage.

11 "And let all Yisra'el hear and revere, and not again do any such evil matter as this in your midst.

12 "When you hear someone in one of your cities, which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim gives you to dwell in, saying,

13 'Some men, sons of Beliya'al, have gone out of your midst and led the inhabitants of their city astray, saying, "Let us go and serve other mighty ones" ' - which you have not known -

14 then you shall inquire, search out, and ask diligently. And see if the matter is true and established that this abomination was done in your midst,

15 you shall certainly smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, putting it under the ban, and all that is in it and its livestock, with the edge of the sword.

16 "And gather all its plunder into the middle of the street, and completely burn with fire the city and all its plunder, before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim. And it shall be a heap forever, never to be built again.

17 “And none of that which is put under the ban is to cling to your hand, so that אִיִּךְ turns from the fierceness of His displeasure and shall show you compassion, love you and increase you, as He swore to your fathers,

18 when you obey the voice of אִיִּךְ your Elohim, to guard all His Commands which I command you today, to do what is right in the eyes of אִיִּךְ your Elohim.

14 “You are the children of אִיִּךְ your Elohim. Do not cut yourselves nor shave the front of your head for the dead,

2 for you are a qodesh people to אִיִּךְ your Elohim, and אִיִּךְ has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a treasured possession above all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

3 “Do not eat whatever is abominable.

4 “These are the living creatures which you do eat: ox, sheep, and goat,

5 deer, and gazelle, and roebuck, and wild goat, and mountain goat, and antelope, and mountain sheep.

6 “And every beast that has a split hoof divided in two, chewing the cud, among the beasts, you do eat.

7 “But of those chewing the cud or those having a split hoof completely divided, you do not eat, such as these: the camel, and the hare, and the rabbit, for they chew the cud but do not have a split hoof, they are unclean for you.

8 “And the pig is unclean for you, because it has a split hoof, but does not chew the cud. You do not eat their flesh or touch their dead carcasses.

9 “These you do eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales you do eat.

10 “And whatever does not have fins and scales you do not eat, it is unclean for you.

- 11 “Any clean bird you do eat,
12 but these you do not eat: the eagle, and the vulture, and the black vulture,
13 and the red kite, and the falcon, and the buzzard after their kinds,
14 and every raven after its kind,
15 and the ostrich, and the nighthawk, and the seagull, and the hawk after their kinds,
16 the little owl, and the great owl, and the white owl,
17 and the pelican, and the carrion vulture, and the fisher owl,
18 and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe and the bat.
19 “And every creeping creature that flies is unclean for you, they are not eaten.
20 “Any clean bird you do eat.”
21 “Do not eat whatever dies of itself. Give it to the stranger who is within your gates, to eat it, or sell it to a foreigner. For you are a qodesh people to אלהיך your Elohim. Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.
22 “You shall tithe without fail all the yield of your grain that the field brings forth year by year.
23 “And you shall eat before אלהיך your Elohim, in the place where He chooses to make His Name dwell, the tithe of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and of the firstlings of your herds and your sheep, so that you learn to revere אלהיך your Elohim always.
24 “But when the way is too long for you, so that are not able to bring the tithe, or when the place where אלהיך your Elohim chooses to put His Name is too far from you, when אלהיך your Elohim is beraḵah you,
25 then you shall give it in silver, and shall take the silver in your hand and go to the place which אלהיך your Elohim chooses.

26 “And you shall use the silver for whatever your being desires: for cattle or sheep, for wine or strong drink, for whatever your being desires. And you shall eat there before אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, and you shall rejoice, you and your household.

27 “And do not forsake the Lēwite who is within your gates, for he has no part nor inheritance with you.

28 “At the end of every third year you bring out all the tithe of your increase of that year and store it up within your gates.

29 “And the Lēwite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the sojourner and the fatherless and the widow who are within your gates, shall come and eat and be satisfied, so that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim barak̄ you in all the work of your hand which you do.

15 “At the end of every seven years you make a release of debts.

2 “And this is the word of the release: Every creditor is to release what he has loaned to his neighbour, he does not require it of his neighbour or his brother, because it is called the release of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם.

3 “Of a foreigner you could require it, but your hand is to release whatever is owed by your brother.

4 “Only, there should be no poor among you. For אֱלֹהֵיכֶם greatly barak̄ you in the land which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is giving you to possess as an inheritance,

5 only if you diligently obey the voice of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, to guard to do all these Commands which I am commanding you today.

6 “For אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim shall barak̄ you as He promised you. And you shall lend to many nations, but you shall not borrow. And you shall rule over many nations, but they do not rule over you.

7 “When there is a poor man with you, one of your brothers, within any of the gates in your land which  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  your Elohim is giving you, do not harden your heart nor shut your hand from your poor brother,

8 for you shall certainly open your hand to him and certainly lend him enough for his need, whatever he needs.

9 “Be on guard lest there be a thought of Beliya'al in your heart, saying, ‘The seventh year, the year of release, is near,’ and your eye is evil against your poor brother and you give him naught. And he shall cry out to  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  against you, and it shall be a sin in you.

10 “You shall certainly give to him, and your heart should not be grieved when you give to him, because for this reason  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  your Elohim baraḵ you in all your works and in all to which you put your hand.

11 “Because the poor one does not cease from the land, therefore I am commanding you, saying, ‘You shall certainly open your hand to your brother, to your poor and to your needy one, in your land.’

12 “When your brother is sold to you, an Ibri man or an Ibri woman, and shall serve you six years, then let him go free from you in the seventh year.

13 “And when you send him away free from you, let him not go away empty-handed.

14 “You shall richly supply him from your flock, and from your threshing-floor, and from your winepress. With that which  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  has baraḵ you with, give to him.

15 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Mitsrayim, and  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  your Elohim redeemed you. Therefore I am commanding you this Word today.

16 “And it shall be, when he says to you, ‘I do not go away from you,’ because he loves you and your house, because it is good for him with you,

17 then you shall take an awl and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Do the same to your female servant.

18 “Let it not be hard in your eyes when you send him away free from you, for he has been worth a double hired servant in serving you six years. And  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim shall barak<sub>k</sub> you in all that you do.

19 “Qadosh to  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim all the first-born males that come from your herd and your flock. Do no work with the first-born of your herd, nor shear the first-born of your flock.

20 “You and your household are to eat it before  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim year by year in the place which  $\text{אלהים}$  chooses.

21 “But when there is any defect in it, lame or blind, or has any evil defect, do not slaughter it to  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim.

22 “Eat it within your gates - the unclean and the clean alike - as the gazelle, and as the deer.

23 “Only, do not eat its blood, pour it on the ground like water.

16 “Guard the month of Abib<sub>b</sub>, and perform the Pesah<sub>h</sub> to  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim, for in the month of Abib<sub>b</sub>  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim brought you out of Mitsrayim by night.

2 “And you shall slaughter the Pesah<sub>h</sub> to  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim, from the flock and the herd, in the place where  $\text{אלהים}$  chooses to put His Name.

3 “Eat no leavened bread with it. For seven days you eat unleavened bread with it, bread of affliction, because you came out of the land of Mitsrayim in haste - so that you remember the day in which you came out of the land of Mitsrayim, all the days of your life.

4 “And no leaven should be seen with you in all your border for seven days, neither should the meat which you slaughter in the evening on the first day stay all night until morning.

5 “You are not allowed to slaughter the Pesah within any of your gates which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim gives you,
6 but at the place where אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses to make His Name dwell, there you slaughter the Pesah in the evening, at the going down of the sun, at the Appointed Time you came out of Mitsrayim.

7 “And you shall roast and eat it in the place which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses, and in the morning you shall turn and go to your tents.

8 “Six days you eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there is a closing Festival to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim - you do no work.

9 “Count seven weeks for yourself. Begin to count seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the grain.

10 “And you shall perform the Festival of Shabuoth to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, according to the voluntary offering from your hand, which you give as אֱלֹהִים your Elohim barak<sub>u</sub> you.

11 “And you shall rejoice before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, you and your son and your daughter, and your male servant and your female servant, and the Lěwite who is within your gates, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who is in your midst, at the place where אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses to make His Name dwell.

12 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in Mitsrayim, and you shall guard and do these Laws.

13 “Perform the Festival of Sukkoth for seven days after the ingathering from your threshing-floor and from your winepress,

14 and you shall rejoice in your Festival, you and your son and your daughter, and your male servant and your female servant, and the Lēwite, and the stranger and the fatherless and the widow who are within your gates.

15 “For seven days you shall celebrate a Festival to אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim in the place which אֱלֹהֵיךָ chooses, because אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim barak<sub>ך</sub> you in all your increase and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be only rejoicing!

16 “Three times a year all your males appear before אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim in the place which He chooses: at the Festival of Matstsoth, and at the Festival of Shabuoth, and at the Festival of Sukkoth. And none should appear before אֱלֹהֵיךָ empty-handed,

17 each one with the gift of his hand, according to the bera<sub>ך</sub>ah of אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim which He has given you.

18 “Appoint judges and officers within all your gates, which אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim is giving you, according to your tribes. And they shall judge the people with righteous right-ruling.

19 “Do not distort right-ruling. Do not show partiality, nor take a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

20 “Follow righteousness, righteousness so that you live and inherit the land which אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim is giving you.

21 “Do not plant for yourself any tree as an Ashērah near the altar of אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim that you make for yourself.

22 “And do not put up a pillar, which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim hates.

17 “Do not slaughter to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim a bull or sheep which has any blemish, any evil matter, for that is an abomination to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

2 “When there is found in your midst, in any of your cities which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you, a man or a woman who does what is evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, in transgressing His Covenant,

3 and has gone and served other mighty ones and bowed down to them, or to the sun or to the moon or to any of the host of the shamayim, which I have not commanded,

4 and it has been made known to you and you have heard, and have searched diligently. Then see, if true: the matter is confirmed that such an abomination has been done in Yisra’ēl,

5 then you shall bring out to your gates that man or woman who has done this evil matter, and you shall stone to death that man or woman with stones.

6 “At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall he that is to die be put to death. He is not put to death by the mouth of one witness.

7 “The hand of the witnesses shall be first against him to put him to death, and the hand of all the people last. So you shall purge the evil from your midst.

8 “When any matter arises which is too hard for you to judge, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, or between stroke and stroke - matters of strife within your gates - then you shall rise and go up to the place which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses,

9 and shall come to the kohenim, the Lēwites, and to the judge who is in those days, and shall inquire.

And they shall declare to you the word of Right-Ruling,

10 and you shall do according to the word which they declare to you from that place which אֱלֹהִים chooses. And you shall guard to do according to all that they instruct you.

11 “Do according to the Torah in which they teach you, according to the Right-Ruling which they say to you. You do not turn to the right or to the left from the word which they declare to you.

12 “And the man who acts arrogantly, so as not to listen to the kohēn who stands to serve there before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, or to the judge, that man shall die. So you shall purge the evil from Yisra’ēl.

13 “And let all the people hear and revere, and no longer do arrogantly.

14 “When you come to the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you, and shall possess it and shall dwell in it, and you shall say, ‘Let me appoint a sovereign over me like all the gentiles that are around me,’

15 you shall certainly appoint sovereign over you whom אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall choose. Appoint a sovereign over you from among your brothers, you are not allowed to appoint a foreigner over you, who is not your brother.

16 “Only, he is not to increase horses for himself, nor cause the people to return to Mitsrayim to increase horses, for אֱלֹהִים has said to you, ‘Do not return that way again.’

17 “And he is not to increase wives for himself, lest his heart turn away, nor is he to greatly increase silver and gold for himself.

18 “And it shall be, when he sits on the throne of his reign, that he shall write for himself a copy of this

Torah in a book, from the one before the kohenim, the Lěwites.

19 “And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, so that he learns to revere אֱלֹהֵי his Elohim and guard all the Words of this Torah and these Laws, to do them,

20 so that his heart is not lifted up above his brothers, and so as not to turn aside from the Command, right or left, so that he prolongs his days in his reign, he and his children, in the midst of Yisra’ěl.

18 “The kohenim, the Lěwites, all the tribe of Lěwi, have no part nor inheritance with Yisra’ěl. They are to eat the offerings of אֱלֹהֵי made by fire, and His inheritance.

2 “But among his brothers, no inheritance. אֱלֹהֵי is his inheritance, as He has spoken to him.

3 “And this is the kohēn’s right from the people, from those who bring an offering, whether it is bull or sheep: they shall give to the kohēn the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the stomach;

4 the first-fruits of your grain and your new wine and your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you give to him.

5 “For אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim has chosen him out of all your tribes to stand to serve in the Name of אֱלֹהֵי, him and his sons forever.

6 “And when the Lěwite comes from one of your gates, from where he has sojourned among all Yisra’ěl, and shall come with all the desire of his being to the place אֱלֹהֵי which chooses,

7 then he shall serve in the Name of אֱלֹהֵי his Elohim, like all his brothers the Lěwites, who are standing there before אֱלֹהֵי.

8 “They are to have portion for portion to eat, besides what comes from the sale of his inheritance.

9 “When you come into the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you, do not learn to do according to the abominations of those gentiles.

10 “Let no one be found among you who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire, or one who practises divination, or a user of magic, or one who interprets omens or a sorcerer,

11 or one who conjures spells, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead.

12 “For whoever does these are an abomination to אֱלֹהִים, and because of these abominations אֱלֹהִים your Elohim drives them out from before you.

13 “Be perfect before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

14 for these nations whom you are dispossessing listen to those using magic and to diviners. But as for you, אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has not appointed such for you.

15 “אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall raise up for you a Naḅi like me from your midst, from your brothers. Listen to Him,

16 according to all you asked of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim in Ḥorēḅ in the day of the assembly, saying, ‘Let me not hear again the voice of אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, nor let me see this great fire any more, lest I die.’

17 “And אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘What they have spoken is good.

18 ‘I shall raise up for them a Naḅi like you out of the midst of their brothers. And I shall put My Words in His mouth, and He shall speak to them all that I command Him.

19 ‘And it shall be, the man who does not listen to My Words which He speaks in My Name, I require it of him.

20 'But the nabi who presumes to speak a word in My Name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who speaks in the name of other mighty ones, even that nabi shall die.'

21 "And when you say in your heart, 'How do we know the word which אֱלֹהִים has not spoken?' -

22 when the nabi speaks in the Name of אֱלֹהִים and the word is not, or comes not, that is the word which אֱלֹהִים has not spoken. The nabi has spoken it presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

19 "When אֱלֹהִים your Elohim cuts off the nations whose land אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you, and you dispossess them and dwell in their cities and in their houses,

2 separate three cities for yourself in the midst of your land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you to possess.

3 "Prepare a way for yourself, and divide into three parts the border of your land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you to inherit, that anyone who killed someone shall flee there.

4 "And this is the matter of the one who killed someone who flees there and live: He who smites his neighbour unintentionally, not having hated him in time past,

5 even he who goes to the forest with his neighbour to cut timber, and his hand swings a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle and strikes his neighbour so that he dies - let him flee to one of these cities and live,

6 lest the revenger of blood, while his displeasure is hot, pursue the one who killed someone and overtake him, because the way is long, and shall smite him, though he was not worthy of death, since he had not hated him before.

7 “Therefore I am commanding you, saying, ‘Separate three cities for yourself.’

8 “And if אֶרְצְךָ your Elohim enlarges your border, as He swore to your fathers, and has given you the land which He promised to give to your fathers -

9 when you guard all this Command to do it, which I am commanding you today, to love אֶרְצְךָ your Elohim and to walk in His Ways all the days - then you shall add three more cities for yourself besides these three,
10 so that innocent blood is not shed in the midst of your land which אֶרְצְךָ your Elohim is giving you as an inheritance, or blood-guilt shall be upon you.

11 “But when anyone hates his neighbour, and shall lie in wait for him and rise against him and smite the life from him so that he dies, then he shall flee to one of these cities,

12 and the elders of his city shall send and bring him from there, and give him into the hand of the revenger of blood, and he shall die.

13 “Your eye shall not pardon him, but you shall purge the blood of the innocent from Yisra’el, so that it might be well with you.

14 “Do not remove your neighbour’s boundary, which those in the past have bound, in your inheritance which you inherit in the land that אֶרְצְךָ your Elohim is giving you to possess.

15 “One witness does not rise up against a man concerning any wickedness or any sin that he commits. At the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses a matter is established.

16 “When a malicious witness rises up against any man to accuse him of turning aside, 17 then both men who have the dispute shall stand before אֲפֹדִים, before the kohenim and the judges who serve in those days.

18 “And the judges shall diligently search and see if the witness is a false witness, who has falsely accused his brother,

19 then you shall do to him as he thought to have done to his brother. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst.

20 “And let the rest hear and revere, and never again do this evil matter in your midst.

21 “And let your eye not pardon, life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20 “When you go out to battle against your enemies, and shall see horses and chariots and people more numerous than you, do not be afraid of them, for אֲפֹדִים your Elohim, who brought you up from the land of Mitsrayim, is with you.

2 “And it shall be, when you draw near to the battle, that the kohēn shall come and speak to the people,

3 and shall say to them, ‘Hear, O Yisra’ēl: You are drawing near today to battle with your enemies. Do not let your heart faint, do not fear, or tremble, or be afraid before them,

4 for אֲפֹדִים your Elohim is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.’

5 “And the officers shall speak to the people, saying, ‘Who is the man who has built a new house and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man dedicate it.

6 ‘And who is the man who has planted a vineyard and has not begun to use it? Let him also go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man should begin to use it.

7 'And who is the man who is engaged to a woman and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle and another man take her.'

8 "And the officers shall speak further to the people, and say, 'Who is the man who is afraid and tender of heart? Let him go and return to his house, lest the heart of his brothers faint like his heart.'

9 "And it shall be, when the officers have finished speaking to the people, that they shall appoint commanders of the divisions to lead the people.

10 "When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then you shall make a call for peace to it.

11 "And it shall be that if it accepts your call for peace, and shall open to you, then all the people found in it are to be your compulsory labour, and serve you.

12 "But if it does not make peace with you, and shall fight against you, then you shall besiege it,

13 and אִף־אִף your Elohim shall give it into your hands, and you shall smite every male in it with the edge of the sword.

14 "Only the women, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, all its spoil, you take as plunder for yourself. And you shall eat the enemies' plunder which אִף־אִף your Elohim gives you.

15 "Do so to all the cities which are very far from you, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 "Only, of the cities of these peoples which אִף־אִף your Elohim gives you as an inheritance, you do not keep alive any that breathe,

17 but you shall certainly put them under the ban: the Hittite and the Amorite and the Kena'anite and the Perizzite and the Hivvite and the Yebusite, as אִף־אִף your Elohim has commanded you,

18 lest they teach you to do according to all their abominations which they have done for their mighty ones, and you sin against אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.

19 “When you besiege a city for a long time by fighting against it to take it, you do not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them. If you do eat of them, do not cut them down. For is the tree of the field a man to be besieged by you?

20 “Only the trees which you know are not trees for food you do destroy and cut down, to build siege-works against the city that is fighting against you, until it falls.

21 “When anyone is found slain, lying in the field in the land which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is giving you to possess, and it is not known who smote him,

2 then your elders and your judges shall go out, and they shall measure the distance from the slain man to the cities round about.

3 “And it shall be that the elders of the city nearest to the slain man shall take a heifer which has not been worked and which has not pulled with a yoke,

4 and the elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a wadi with flowing water, which is neither ploughed nor sown, and they shall break the heifer’s neck there in the wadi.

5 “And the kohenim, the sons of Lěwi, shall come near, for אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim has chosen them to serve Him and to barak in the Name of אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, and by their command every strife and every stroke.

6 “And let all the elders of that city nearest to the slain man wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the wadi.

7 “And they shall answer and say, ‘Our hands have not shed this blood, nor have our eyes seen it.

8 'O אֱלֹהִים, forgive Your people Yisra'ël, whom You have redeemed, and do not allow innocent blood in the midst of Your people Yisra'ël.' And the blood-guilt shall be pardoned to them.

9 "Thus you purge the guilt of innocent blood from your midst when you do what is right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים.

10 "When you go out to fight against your enemies, and אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall give them into your hand, and you shall take them captive,

11 and shall see among the captives a woman lovely of form, and shall delight in her and take her for your wife,

12 then you shall bring her home to your house, and she shall shave her head and trim her nails,

13 and put aside the mantle of her captivity, and shall dwell in your house, and mourn her father and her mother a month of days. And after that you shall go in to her and be her husband, and she shall be your wife.

14 "And it shall be, if you are not pleased with her, then you shall let her go at her desire, but you do not sell her at all for silver. Do not treat her harshly, since you have humbled her.

15 "When a man has two wives, one loved and the other unloved, and they have borne him children, both the loved and the unloved, and the first-born son is of her who is unloved,

16 then it shall be, on the day he makes his sons to inherit his possessions, he is not allowed to treat the son of the beloved wife as first-born in the face of the son of the unloved, who is the first-born.

17 "But he is to acknowledge the son of the unloved wife as the first-born by giving him a double portion of all that he has, for he is the beginning of his strength - the right of the first-born is his.

- 18 “When a man has a wayward and rebellious son who is not listening to the voice of his father or the voice of his mother, and who, when they have disciplined him, does not listen to them,
- 19 then his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders of his city, to the gate of his city,
- 20 and shall say to the elders of his city, ‘This son of ours is wayward and rebellious. He is not listening to our voice, he is a glutton and a drunkard.’
- 21 “Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst. And let all Yisra’ël hear, and revere.
- 22 “And when a man has committed a sin worthy of death, then he shall be put to death and you shall hang him on a tree.
- 23 “Let his body not remain overnight on the tree, for you shall certainly bury him the same day - for he who is hanged is accursed of Elohim - so that you do not defile the land which ארצך your Elohim is giving you as an inheritance.

22 “When you see your brother’s ox or his sheep going astray, you shall not hide yourself from them. Return them to your brother without fail.

2 “And if your brother is not near you, or if you do not know him, then you shall bring it to your own house, and it shall be with you until your brother seeks it, then you shall return it to him.

3 “And so you do with his donkey, and so you do with his garment, and so you do with whatever your brother loses, which he has lost and you have found. You are not allowed to hide yourself.

4 “When you see your brother’s donkey or his ox fall down on the way, you shall not hide yourself from them. Help him raise them without fail.

5 “A woman does not wear that which pertains to a man, nor does a man put on a woman’s garment, for whoever does this is an abomination to אִתְּךָ your Elohim.

6 “When you come upon a bird’s nest along the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, with the mother sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother with the young -

7 let the mother go without fail, and take the young for yourself, so that it might be well with you, and that you have prolonged days.

8 “When you build a new house, then you shall make a parapet for your roof, so that you do not bring blood-guilt on your house when one falls from it.

9 “Do not sow your vineyard with different kinds of seed, lest the yield of the seed which you have sown and the fruit of your vineyard be defiled.

10 “Do not plough with an ox and a donkey together.

11 “Do not put on a garment of different kinds, of wool and linen together.

12 “Make tassels on the four corners of the garment with which you cover yourself.

13 “When any man takes a wife, and shall go in to her, and shall hate her,

14 and shall make abusive charges against her and bring an evil name on her and say, ‘I took this woman, and when I came to her I did not find her a maiden,’

15 then the father and mother of the young woman shall take and bring out the proof of the girl’s maidenhood to the elders of the city at the gate.

16 “And the girl’s father shall say to the elders, ‘I gave my daughter to this man as wife, and he hates her.

17 'And see, he has made abusive charges against her, saying, "I did not find your daughter a maiden," and yet these are the proofs of my daughter's maidenhood.' And they shall spread the garment before the elders of the city.

18 "And the elders of that city shall take that man and punish him,

19 and fine him one hundred pieces of silver and give them to the father of the young woman, because he has brought an evil name on a maiden of Yisra'ël. And she is to be his wife, he is not allowed to put her away all his days.

20 "But if the matter is true, that the girl was not found a maiden,

21 then they shall bring out the girl to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her to death with stones, because she has done wickedness in Yisra'ël, to whore in her father's house. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst.

22 "When a man is found lying with a woman married to a husband, then both of them shall die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman. Thus you shall purge the evil from Yisra'ël.

23 "When a girl who is a maiden is engaged to a husband, and a man finds her in the city and lies with her,

24 then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and shall stone them to death with stones, the girl because she did not cry out in the city, and the man because he has humbled his neighbour's wife. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst.

25 "But if a man finds the girl who is engaged in the field, and the man seizes her and lies with her, then only the man who lay with her shall die.

26 “But you shall do no matter to the girl. The girl has no sin worthy of death - for the matter is like a man who rises against his neighbour and kills him -

27 for he found her in the field, and she cried out the engaged girl, but without anyone to save her.

28 “When a man finds a girl who is a maiden who is not engaged, and he seizes her and lies with her, and they are found out,

29 then the man who lay with her shall give to the girl’s father fifty pieces of silver, and she is to be his wife because he has humbled her. He is not allowed to put her away all his days.

30 “A man does not take his father’s wife, nor uncover his father’s skirt.

23 “One of wounded, mutilated or genitalia cut off, does not enter the assembly of אִשְׂרָאֵל.

2 “One of incestuous birth does not enter the assembly of אִשְׂרָאֵל, even a tenth generation of his does not enter the assembly of אִשְׂרָאֵל.

3 “An Ammonite or Mo’abite does not enter the assembly of אִשְׂרָאֵל, even a tenth generation of them does not ever enter the assembly of אִשְׂרָאֵל,

4 because they did not meet you with bread and water on the way when you came out of Mitsrayim, and because they hired against you Bil’am son of Be’or from Pethor of Aram Naharayim, to curse you.

5 “But אִשְׂרָאֵל your Elohim refused to listen to Bil’am, and אִשְׂרָאֵל your Elohim turned the curse into a beraḥah for you, because אִשְׂרָאֵל your Elohim loves you.

6 “Do not seek their peace nor their good, all your days, forever.

7 “Do not loathe an Edomite, for he is your brother. Do not loathe a Mitsrite, because you were a stranger in his land.

8 “The children of the third generation born to them do enter the assembly of אֱלֹהִים.

9 “When the army goes out against your enemies, then you shall guard yourself from every evil matter.

10 “When there is any man among you who is not clean because of an emission in the night, then he shall go outside the camp. Let him not come into the midst of the camp.

11 “And it shall be, toward evening, that he bathes with water. And when the sun goes let him come into the midst of the camp.

12 “And you shall have a place outside the camp, where you shall go out,

13 and you shall have a sharp implement among your equipment, and when you sit down outside, you shall dig with it and turn and cover your excrement.

14 “For אֱלֹהִים your Elohim walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you and give your enemies over to you. Therefore your camp shall be qodesh, so that He does not see unclean matter among you, and shall turn away from you.

15 “You do not hand over to his master the slave who has escaped from his master to you.

16 “Let him dwell with you in your midst, in the place which he chooses within one of your gates, where it is pleasing to him. Do not oppress him.

17 “None of the daughters of Yisra’el is to be a cult prostitute, nor any of the sons of Yisra’el be a cult prostitute.

18 “Do not bring the hire of a whore or the pay of a dog to the House of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim for any vowed offering, for both of these are an abomination to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

19 “Do not lend at interest to your brother, interest of silver, interest of food, or interest of whatever is lent at interest.

20 “To a foreigner you lend at interest, but to your brother you do not lend at interest, so that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim might barak<sub>u</sub> you in all that you put your hand to in the land which you are entering to possess.

21 “When you make a vow to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, do not delay to pay it, for אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is certainly requiring it of you, and it shall be sin in you.

22 “But when you abstain from vowing, it is not sin in you.

23 “That which has gone from your lips you shall guard and do, for you voluntarily vowed to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim what you have promised with your mouth.

24 “When you come into your neighbour’s vineyard, you shall eat to the satisfaction of your desire, but do not put any in a receptacle of yours.

25 “When you come into your neighbour’s standing grain, you shall pluck the heads with your hand, but do not use a sickle on your neighbour’s standing grain.

24 “When a man takes a wife and shall marry her, then it shall be, if she finds no favour in his eyes because he has found a matter of shamefulness in her, and he shall write her a certificate of divorce, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house,

2 and if she left his house and went and became another man’s wife,

3 and the latter husband shall hate her and write her a certificate of divorce, and put it in her hand, and send her out of his house, or when the latter husband dies who took her to be his wife,

4 then her former husband who sent her away is not allowed to take her back to be his wife after she has been defiled, for that would be an abomination before  $\text{אלהים}$ . And do not bring sin on the land which  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim is giving you as an inheritance.

5 “When a man has taken a new wife, let him not go out into the army nor let any matter be imposed upon him. He shall be exempt one year for the sake of his home, to rejoice with his wife whom he has taken.

6 “No one takes in pledge the lower or the upper millstone, for he would be taking a life in pledge.

7 “When a man is found kidnapping any of his brothers or the children of Yisra’el, and treats him harshly or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die. Thus you shall purge the evil from your midst.

8 “Take heed, in an outbreak of leprosy, to diligently guard and do according to all that the kohenim, the Lēwites, teach you. As I have commanded them, so you shall guard to do.

9 “Remember what  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim did to Miryam on the way when you came out of Mitsrayim.

10 “When you lend your brother a loan, do not go into his house to get his pledge.

11 “Stand outside, and let the man to whom you lend bring the pledge out to you.

12 “And if the man is poor, do not sleep with his pledge.

13 “By all means return the pledge to him at sundown, and he shall sleep in his own garment, and shall barak<sub>ך</sub> you. And it shall be righteousness to you before  $\text{אלהים}$  your Elohim.

14 “Do not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, of your brothers or of the strangers who is in your land within your gates.

15 “Give him his wages on the same day, and do not let the sun go down on it, for he is poor and lifts up his being to it, so that he does not cry out against you to אֱלֹהִים, and it shall be sin in you.

16 “Fathers are not put to death for their children, and children are not put to death for their fathers, each is to die for his own sin.

17 “Do not twist the right-ruling of a stranger or the fatherless, nor take the garment of a widow.

18 “But you shall remember that you were a slave in Mitsrayim, and that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim redeemed you from there. Therefore I am commanding you to do this Word.

19 “When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgotten a sheaf in the field, do not go back to get it. Let it be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow, so that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim might barak you in all the work of your hands.

20 “When you beat your olive trees, do not examine the branch behind you. Let it be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21 “When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, do not glean behind you. Let it be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

22 “And you shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Mitsrayim. Therefore I am commanding you to do this Word.

25 “When there is a dispute between men, then they shall come unto judgment, and they shall be judged, and the righteous declared righteous and the wicked declared wicked.

2 “And it shall be, if the wicked is to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down and be beaten in his presence with the number of blows according to his wickedness.

3 “Forty blows he gives him but no more, lest he beat him with many more blows than these, and your brother be degraded before your eyes.

4 “Do not muzzle an ox while it is threshing.

5 “When brothers dwell together, and one of them has died, and has no son, the widow of the dead man shall not become a stranger’s outside. Her husband’s brother goes in to her, and shall take her as his wife, and perform the duty of a husband’s brother to her.

6 “And it shall be that the first-born son which she bears rises up for the name of his dead brother, so that his name is not blotted out of Yisra’ël.

7 “But if the man does not desire to take his brother’s wife, then let his brother’s wife go up to the gate to the elders, and say, ‘My husband’s brother refuses to raise up a name to his brother in Yisra’ël, he does not agree to perform the duty of my husband’s brother.’

8 “The elders of his city shall then call him and speak to him, and he shall stand and say, ‘I have no desire to take her,’

9 then his brother’s wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and remove his sandal from his foot, and shall spit in his face, and answer and say, ‘Thus it is done to the man who does not build up his brother’s house.’

10 “And in Yisra’ël his name shall be called, ‘The house of him who had his sandal removed.’

11 “When men fight together, a man with another, and the wife of one shall draw near to rescue her husband from the hand of the one attacking him, and shall put out her hand and seize him by the genitals, 12 then you shall cut off her hand - your eye does not pardon.

13 “You shall not have in your bag differing weights, a heavy and a light.

14 “You shall not have in your house differing measures, a large and a small.

15 “You shall have a perfect and right weight, a perfect and right measure, so that they prolong your days on the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you.

16 “For all who do these, and all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

17 “Remember what Amalëq did to you on the way as you were coming out of Mitsrayim, 18 how he met you on the way and attacked your back, all the feeble ones in your rear, when you were tired and weary. And he did not revere Elohim.

19 “Therefore it shall be, when אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has given you rest from your enemies all around, in the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you to possess as an inheritance, that you blot out the remembrance of Amalëq from under the shamayim. Do not forget!

26 “And it shall be, when you come into the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you as an inheritance, and you possess it and dwell in it,

2 that you shall take some of the first of all the fruits of the land which you bring from your land that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you, and shall put it in a basket and go to the place where אֱלֹהִים your Elohim chooses to make His Name dwell there.

3 “And you shall come to the one who is kohēn in those days, and say to him, ‘I shall declare today to

אֱלֹהִים your Elohim that I have come to the land which אֱלֹהִים swore to our fathers to give us.'

4 "And the kohēn shall take the basket from your hand and place it before the altar of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

5 "And you shall answer and say before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, 'My father was a perishing Aramean, and he went down to Mitsrayim and sojourned there with few men. And there he became a nation, great, mighty, and numerous.

6 'But the Mitsrites did evil to us, and afflicted us, and imposed hard labour on us.

7 'Then we cried out to אֱלֹהִים Elohim of our fathers, and אֱלֹהִים heard our voice and saw our affliction and our toil and our oppression.

8 'And אֱלֹהִים brought us out of Mitsrayim with a strong hand and with an outstretched arm, with great reverence and with signs and wonders.

9 'And He brought us to this place and has given us this land, "a land flowing with milk and honey."

10 'And now, see, I have brought the first-fruits of the land which You, O אֱלֹהִים, have given me.' Then you shall place it before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and bow down before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim,

11 and shall rejoice in all the good which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has given to you and your house, you and the Lēwite and the stranger who is among you.

12 "When you have completed tithing all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, and have given it to the Lēwite, to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, and they have eaten within your gates and have been satisfied,

13 then you shall say before אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, 'I have put away the qodesh portion from my house, and also have given it to the Lēwite, and to the stranger, and to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all Your Command which You have commanded me. I have not transgressed Your Commands, nor have I forgotten.

14 'I have not eaten any of it when in mourning, nor have I removed any of it for any unclean use, nor given any of it for the dead. I have obeyed the voice of אלהים my Elohim, I have done according to all that You have commanded me.

15 'Look from Your qodesh dwelling place, from the shamayim, and baraḵ Your people Yisra'ël and the land which You have given us, as You swore to our fathers, "a land flowing with milk and honey." '

16 "Today אלהים your Elohim is commanding you to do these Laws and Right-Rulings. And you shall guard and do them with all your heart and with all your being.

17 "You have today caused אלהים to proclaim to be your Elohim, and to walk in His Ways and guard His Laws, and His Commands, and His Right-Rulings, and to obey His voice.

18 "And אלהים has caused you to proclaim today to be His people, a treasured possession, as He has spoken to you, and to guard all His Commands,

19 so as to make you high above all nations which He has made, for a praise, and for a name, and for esteem, and for you to be a qodesh people to אלהים your Elohim, as He has spoken."

27 And Mosheh, with the elders of Yisra'ël, commanded the people, saying, "Guard all the Commands which I am commanding you today.

2 "And it shall be, on the day when you pass over the Yardēn to the land which אלהים your Elohim is giving you, that you shall put up for yourselves large stones, and plaster them with plaster,

3 and write on them all the Words of this Torah, when you have passed over, so that you go into the land which אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim is giving you, 'a land flowing with milk and honey,' as אֱלֹהֵי Elohim of your fathers has spoken to you.

4 "And it shall be, when you have passed over the Yardēn, that on Mount Ēybal you put up these stones, which I command you today, and you shall plaster them with plaster,

5 and build an altar to אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim there, an altar of stones - do not use an iron tool on them.

6 "Build the altar of אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim with complete stones, and you shall offer burnt offerings on it to אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim,

7 and shall offer peace offerings, and eat there, and rejoice before אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim.

8 "And you shall write all the Words of this Torah on the stones - plainly and well."

9 And Mosheh and the kohenim, the Lēwites, spoke to all Yisra'ēl, saying, "Be silent and hear, O Yisra'ēl: This day you have become the people of אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim,

10 and you shall obey the voice of אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim, and do His Commands and His Laws which I command you today."

11 And Mosheh commanded people on that day, saying,

12 "These are to stand on Mount Gerizim to barak the people, when you have passed over the Yardēn: Shim'on, and Lēwi, and Yahudāh, and Yissaskar, and Yosēph, and Binyamin.

13 “And these are to stand on Mount Ĕybal to curse: Re’ubēn, Gaḏ, and Ashēr, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 “And the Lēwites shall speak with a loud voice and say to all the men of Yisra’ēl:

15 ‘Cursed is the man who makes a carved or moulded image, an abomination to אִתָּנָה, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and puts it up in secret.’ And all the people shall answer and say, ‘Amēn!’

16 ‘Cursed is he who makes light of his father or his mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

17 ‘Cursed is he who moves his neighbour’s boundary.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

18 ‘Cursed is he who misleads the blind in the way.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

19 ‘Cursed is he who twists the right ruling of the stranger, the fatherless, and widow.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

20 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s bed.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

21 ‘Cursed is he who lies with any beast.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

22 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

23 ‘Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

24 ‘Cursed is he who smites his neighbour secretly.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

25 ‘Cursed is he who takes a bribe to slay an innocent being.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

26 ‘Cursed is he who does not establish the Words of this Torah.’ And all the people shall say, ‘Amēn!’

28 “And it shall be, if you diligently obey the voice of אלהים your Elohim, to guard to do all His Commands which I command you today, that אלהים your Elohim shall make you high above all nations of the earth.

2 “And all these birkoth shall come upon you and overtake you, if you obey the voice of אלהים your Elohim:

3 “Baruk are you in the city, and baruk are you in the field.

4 “Baruk is the fruit of your body, and the fruit of your ground and the fruit of your livestock - the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.

5 “Baruk is your basket and your kneading bowl.

6 “Baruk are you when you come in, and baruk are you when you go out.

7 “אלהים causes your enemies who rise against you to be smitten before your face - they come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways.

8 “אלהים commands the berakah on you in your storehouses and in all to which you put your hand, and shall baruk you in the land which אלהים your Elohim is giving you.

9 “אלהים establishes you as a qodesh people to Himself, as He has sworn to you, if you guard the Commands of אלהים your Elohim and walk in His Ways.

10 “And all peoples of the earth shall see that the Name of אלהים is called upon you, and they shall be afraid of you.

11 “And אלהים shall make you to have plenty of what is good, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land of which אלהים swore to your fathers to give you.

12 “אֱלֹהִים opens to you His good treasure, the shamayim, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to barak all the work of your hand. And you shall lend to many nations, but you do not borrow.

13 “And אֱלֹהִים shall make you the head and not the tail. And you shall be only on top, and not be beneath, if you obey the Commands of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, which I command you today, to guard and do.

14 “And do not turn aside from any of the Words which I am commanding you today, right or left, to go after other mighty ones to serve them.

15 “And it shall be, if you do not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, to guard to do all His Commands and His Laws which I command you today, that all these curses shall come upon you and overtake you:

16 “Cursed are you in the city, and cursed are you in the field.

17 “Cursed is your basket and your kneading bowl.

18 “Cursed is the fruit of your body and the fruit of your land, the increase of your cattle and the offspring of your flocks.

19 “Cursed are you when you come in, and cursed are you when you go out.

20 “אֱלֹהִים sends on you the curse, the confusion, and the rebuke in all that you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly, because of the evil of your doings by which you have forsaken Me.

21 “אֱלֹהִים makes the plague cling to you until He has consumed you from the land which you are going to possess.

22 “אֱלֹהִים smites you with wasting disease, and with inflammation, and with burning, and with extreme heat, and with the sword, and with blight, and with mildew. And they shall pursue you until you perish.

23 "And your shamayim which are over your head shall be bronze, and the earth which is under you iron.

24 "אֲרָאָה makes the rain of your land powder and dust; from the shamayim it comes down on you until you are destroyed.

25 "אֲרָאָה causes you to be defeated before your enemies - you go out one way against them and flee seven ways before them. And you shall become a horror to all the reigns of the earth.

26 "And your carcasses shall be food for all the birds of the shamayim and the beasts of the earth, with no one to frighten them away.

27 "אֲרָאָה shall smite you with the boils of Mitsrayim, with tumours, with the scab, and with the itch, from which you are unable to be healed.

28 "אֲרָאָה shall smite you with madness and blindness and bewilderment of heart.

29 "And you shall be groping at noon, as a blind man gropes in darkness, and not prosper in your ways. And you shall be only oppressed and plundered all the days, with no one to save you.

30 "You become engaged to a wife, but another man lies with her. You build a house, but do not dwell in it. You plant a vineyard, but do not use its fruit.

31 "Your ox is slaughtered before your eyes, but you do not eat of it. Your donkey is violently taken from before you, and it is not given back to you. Your sheep are given to your enemies, with no one to save them.

32 "Your sons and your daughters are given to another people, and your eyes look and fail for them all day long, and your hand powerless.

33 "A people whom you have not known eat the fruit of your land and all your labours. And you shall be only oppressed and crushed all the days.

34 “And you shall be maddened because of the sight which your eyes see.

35 “אֱלֹהִים smites you in the knees and on the legs with evil boils of which you are unable to be healed, and from the sole of your foot to the top of your head.

36 “אֱלֹהִים brings you and the sovereign whom you appoint over you to a nation which neither you nor your fathers have known, and there you shall serve other mighty ones, wood and stone.

37 “Thus you shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a mockery among all the peoples to which אֱלֹהִים drives you.

38 “You take much seed out into the field but gather little in, for the locust consumes it.

39 “You plant vineyards, and shall labour, but you neither drink of the wine nor gather, for the worm eats it.

40 “You have olive trees in all your border, but do not anoint with oil, for your olives drop off.

41 “You bring forth sons and daughters, but they are not with you, for they go into captivity.

42 “Locusts possess all your trees and the fruit of your ground.

43 “The sojourner who is among you rises higher and higher above you, but you come down lower and lower.

44 “He lends to you, but you do not lend to him. He is the head, and you are the tail.

45 “And all these curses shall come upon you, and they shall pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, to guard His Commands and His Laws which He commanded you.

46 “And they shall be upon you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your seed, forever,

47 because you did not serve אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim with joy and gladness of heart for all the plenty.

48 “You shall serve your enemies whom אֱלֹהֶיךָ sends against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in need of all. And he shall put a yoke of iron on your neck until he has destroyed you.

49 “אֱלֹהֶיךָ brings a nation against you from afar, from the end of the earth, as swift as the eagle flies, a nation whose language you shall not understand,

50 a fierce-looking nation, which shows no regard for the elderly nor show favour to the young,

51 and they shall eat the fruit of your livestock and the fruit of your land, until you are destroyed. They leave you no grain, nor new wine, nor oil, nor the increase of your cattle or the offspring of your flocks, until they have destroyed you.

52 “And they shall besiege you at all your gates till your high and fenced walls, in which you are trusting, come down in all your land. And they shall besiege you at all your gates in all your land which אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim has given you.

53 “And you shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and your daughters whom אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim has given you, in the siege and distress in which your enemies distress you.

54 “The man among you who is tender, and who is very delicate, his eye is evil against his brother, against the wife of his bosom, and against the rest of his children whom he leaves behind,

55 against giving any of them the flesh of his children that he eats, because it is all that has been left to him in the siege and distress with which your enemy distresses you in all your gates.

56 “The tender and the delicate woman among you, who have not tried to put the sole of her foot on the ground because of her delicateness and tenderness, her eye is evil against the husband of her bosom, and against her son, and against her daughter, 57 and against her seed which comes out from between her legs, and her children whom she bears, for she eats them in secret for lack of all, in the siege and distress with which your enemy distresses you in all your gates.

58 “If you do not guard to do all the Words of this Torah that are written in this Book, to revere this esteemed and awesome Name, אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, 59 then אֱלֹהִים shall bring upon you and your descendants extraordinary plagues, great and lasting plagues, and grievous and lasting sicknesses.

60 “And He shall bring back on you all the diseases of Mitsrayim, of which you were afraid, and they shall cling to you, 61 also every sickness and every plague, which is not written in the Book of this Torah, אֱלֹהִים brings upon you until you are destroyed.

62 “And you shall be left with few men, although you had become as numerous as the stars of the shamayim, because you did not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

63 “And it shall be, that as אֱלֹהִים rejoiced over you to do you good and increase you, so אֱלֹהִים rejoices over you to destroy you and lay you waste. And you shall be plucked from off the land which you go to possess.

64 “And אֱלֹהִים shall scatter you among all peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you shall serve other mighty ones, which neither you nor your fathers have known, wood and stone.

65 “And among those nations you are to find no rest, nor have a resting place for the sole of your foot. But there אֱלֹהִים shall give you a trembling heart, and failing eyes, and sorrow of being.

66 “And your life shall be hanging in suspense before you, and you shall fear day and night, and not be certain of your life.

67 “In the morning you say, ‘Oh, that it were evening!’ And at evening you say, ‘Oh, that it were morning!’ because of the fear of your heart, with which you fear, and because of the sight which your eyes see.

68 “And אֱלֹהִים shall bring you back to Mitsrayim in ships, by a way of which I said to you, ‘You are never to see it again.’ And there you shall be sold to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no one to buy.”

29 These are the words of the Covenant which אֱלֹהִים commanded Mosheh to make with the children of Yisra'ël in the land of Mo'ab, besides the Covenant which He made with them in Horëb.

2 And Mosheh called all Yisra'ël and said to them, “You yourselves saw all that אֱלֹהִים did before your eyes in the land of Mitsrayim, to Pharaoh and to all his servants and to all his land.

3 “Your eyes saw the great trials, the signs, and those great wonders.

4 “But אֱלֹהִים has not given you a heart to know and eyes to see and ears to hear, till this day.

5 “And I have led you forty years in the wilderness. Your garments have not worn out on you, and your sandals have not worn out on your feet.

6 “You ate no bread and drank no wine nor strong drink, so that you might know that I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

7 “And when you came to this place, Siḥon sovereign of Heshbon and Oḡ sovereign of Bashan came out against us to battle, and we smote them,

8 and took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Re’uḇēnites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Menashsheh.

9 “Therefore you shall guard the words of this Covenant, and do them, so that you prosper in all that you do.

10 “All of you are standing today before אלהיכם your Elohim: your leaders, your tribes, your elders and your officers, all the men of Yisra’ēl,

11 your little ones, your wives, and your sojourner who is in the midst of your camp, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water,

12 so that you should enter into Covenant with אלהיכם your Elohim, and into His oath, which אלהיכם your Elohim makes with you today,

13 in order to establish you today as a people for Himself, and He Himself be your Elohim, as He has spoken to you, and as He has sworn to your fathers, to Aḇraham, to Yitshāq, and to Ya’aqob.

14 “And not with you alone I am making this Covenant and this oath,

15 but with him who stands here with us today before אלהיכם our Elohim, as well as with him who is not here with us today.

16 “For you know how we dwelt in the land of Mitsrayim and how we passed through the nations which you passed through,

17 and you saw their abominations and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were with them,

18 lest there should be among you a man or woman or clan or tribe, whose heart turns away today from אלהינו our Elohim, to go and serve the mighty ones of these nations, lest there should be among you a root bearing bitterness or wormwood.

19 “And it shall be, when he hears the words of this curse, that he should barak himself in his heart, saying, ‘I have peace though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart,’ in order to add drunkenness to thirst.

20 “אלהינו would not forgive him, but rather, the displeasure of אלהינו and His jealousy shall burn against that man, and every curse that is written in this Book shall settle on him, and אלהינו shall blot out his name from under the shamayim.

21 “And אלהינו shall separate him for evil, out of all the tribes of Yisra’el, according to all the curses of the Covenant that are written in this Book of the Torah.

22 “And the generation to come of your children who rise up after you, and the foreigner who comes from a far land, shall say when they see the plagues of that land and the sicknesses which אלהינו has sent into it:

23 ‘All its land is sulphur, salt, and burning; it is not sown, nor does it bear, nor does any grass grow there, like the overthrow of Sedom and Amarah, Admah and Tseboyim, which אלהינו overthrew in His displeasure and His wrath.’

24 “And all nations shall say, ‘Why has אלהינו done so to this land? What does the heat of this great displeasure mean?’

25 “And it shall be said, ‘Because they have forsaken the Covenant of אלהינו Elohim of their fathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim.

26 ‘And they went and served other mighty ones and bowed themselves to them, mighty ones that they did not know and that He had not given to them,

27 therefore the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים burned against this land, to bring on it every curse that is written in this Book.

28 'And אֱלֹהִים uprooted them from their land in displeasure, and in wrath, and in great rage, and cast them into another land, as it is today.'

29 "The hidden belongs to אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, but what is revealed belongs to us and to our children forever, to do all the Words of this Torah.

30 "And it shall be, when all these words come upon you, the beraḥah and the curse which I have put before you, and you shall bring them back to your heart among all the gentiles where אֱלֹהִים your Elohim drives you,

2 and shall turn back to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim and obey His voice, according to all that I command you today, with all your heart and with all your being, you and your children,

3 then אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall turn back your captivity, and shall have compassion on you, and He shall turn back and gather you from all the peoples where your Elohim has scattered you.

4 "If any of you are driven out to the farthest parts under the shamayim, from there אֱלֹהִים your Elohim gathers you, and from there He takes you.

5 "And אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall bring you to the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it. And He shall do good to you, and increase you more than your fathers.

6 "And אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall circumcise your heart and the heart of your seed, to love אֱלֹהִים your Elohim with all your heart and with all your being, so that you might live,

7 and אלהיך your Elohim shall put all these curses on your enemies and on those who hate you, who persecuted you.

8 “And you shall turn back and obey the voice of אלהיך and do all His Commands which I command you today.

9 “And אלהיך your Elohim shall make you have excess in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground for good. For אלהיך turns back to rejoice over you for good as He rejoiced over your fathers,

10 if you obey the voice of אלהיך your Elohim, to guard His Commands and His Laws which are written in this Book of the Torah, if you turn back to אלהיך your Elohim with all your heart and with all your being.

11 “For this Command which I am commanding you today, it is not too hard for you, nor is it far off.

12 “It is not in the shamayim, to say, ‘Who shall ascend into the shamayim for us, and bring it to us, and cause us to hear it, so that we do it?’

13 “Nor is it beyond the sea, to say, ‘Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, and cause us to hear it, so that we do it?’

14 “For the Word is very near you, in your mouth and in your heart - to do it.

15 “See, I have put before you today הַיֵּאֵר and good, and death and evil,

16 in that I am commanding you today to love אלהיך your Elohim, to walk in His Ways, and to guard His Commands, and His Laws, and His Right-Rulings. And you shall live and increase, and אלהיך your Elohim shall barak you in the land which you go to possess.

17 “But if your heart turns away, and you do not obey, and shall be drawn away, and shall bow down to other mighty ones and serve them,

18 “I have declared to you today that you shall certainly perish, you shall not prolong your days in the land which you are passing over the Yardēn to enter and possess.

19 “I have called the shamayim and the earth as witnesses today against you: I have put before you ḥai and death, the beraḵah and the curse. Therefore you shall choose ḥai, so that you live, both you and your seed,

20 to love אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim, to obey His voice, and to cling to Him - for He is your ḥai and the length of your days - to dwell in the land which אֱלֹהֵיךָ swore to your fathers, to Aḇraham, to Yitshāq, and to Ya’aqob, to give them.”

31 And Mosheh went and spoke these words to all Yisra’ēl,

2 and he said to them, “I am one hundred and twenty years old today. I am no longer able to go out and come in. And אֱלֹהֵיךָ has said to me, ‘You do not pass over this Yardēn.’

3 “אֱלֹהֵיךָ your Elohim Himself is passing over before you. He shall destroy these nations from before you and you possess them. Yahoshua himself is passing over before you, as אֱלֹהֵיךָ has spoken.

4 “And אֱלֹהֵיךָ shall do to them as He did to Siḥon and to Oḡ, the sovereigns of the Amorites and their land, when He destroyed them.

5 “And אֱלֹהֵיךָ shall give them over to you, and you shall do to them according to all the Command which I have commanded you.

6 “Be strong and courageous, do not fear nor be afraid of them. For it is יהוה your Elohim who is going with you. He does not fail you nor forsake you.”

7 And Mosheh called Yahoshua and said to him before the eyes of all Yisra’ël, “Be strong and courageous, for you are going with this people to the land which יהוה has sworn to their fathers to give them, and you are to let them inherit it.

8 “And it is יהוה who is going before you, He Himself is with you. He does not fail you nor forsake you. Do not fear nor be discouraged.”

9 And Mosheh wrote this Torah and gave it to the kohenim, the sons of Lěwi, who bore the ark of the Covenant of יהוה, and to all the elders of Yisra’ël.

10 And Mosheh commanded them, saying, “At the end of seven years, at the Appointed Time, the year of release, at the Festival of Sukkoth, 11 when all Yisra’ël comes to appear before יהוה your Elohim in the place which He chooses, read this Torah before all Yisra’ël in their hearing.

12 “Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and your sojourner who is within your gates, so that they hear, and so that they learn to revere יהוה your Elohim and guard to do all the Words of this Torah.

13 “And their children, who have not known it, should hear and learn to revere יהוה your Elohim as long as you live in the land you are passing over the Yarděn to possess.”

14 And יהוה said to Mosheh, “See, the days have drawn near for you to die. Call Yahoshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Appointment, so that I command him.” And Mosheh and Yahoshua went and presented themselves in the Tent of Appointment.

15 And אֶרְאָה appeared at the Tent in a column of a cloud, and the column of a cloud stood above the door of the Tent.

16 And אֶרְאָה said to Mosheh, “See, you are about to sleep with your fathers. And this people shall rise and whore after the mighty ones of the strangers of the land into the midst of which they shall enter, and forsake Me and break My Covenant which I have made with them.

17 “Then My displeasure shall burn against them in that day, and I shall forsake them and hide My face from them, and they shall be consumed. And many evils and distresses shall come upon them, and it shall be said in that day, ‘Is it not because our Elohim is not in our midst that these evils have come upon us?’

18 “And I shall certainly hide My face in that day, because of all the evil which they have done, for they shall turn to other mighty ones.

19 “And now write down this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Yisra’ël. Put it in their mouths, so that this song is to Me for a witness against the children of Yisra’ël.

20 “And I shall bring them to the land flowing with milk and honey, of which I swore to their fathers, and they shall eat and be satisfied and be fat, then they shall turn to other mighty ones, and they shall serve them, and scorn Me and break My Covenant.

21 “And it shall be, when many evils and distresses come upon them, that this song shall answer before them as a witness. For it is not to be forgotten in the mouths of their seed, for I know their thoughts which they are forming today, even before I bring them to the land of which I swore to give them.”

22 And Mosheh wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the children of Yisra'ël.

23 And He commanded Yahoshua son of Nun, and said, "Be strong and courageous, for you are to bring the children of Yisra'ël into the land of which I swore to them, and I Myself am with you."

24 And it came to be, when Mosheh had completed writing the Words of this Torah in a Book, until their completion,

25 that Mosheh commanded the Lëwites, who bore the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים, saying,

26 "Take this Book of the Torah, and you shall place it beside the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and it shall be there as a witness against you,

27 for I myself know your rebellion and your stiff neck. See, while I am still alive with you today, you have been rebellious against אֱלֹהִים, then how much more after my death?

28 "Assemble unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, so that I speak these words in their hearing and call the shamayim and the earth to witness against them.

29 "For I know that after my death you shall do very corruptly and turn aside from the Way which I have commanded you. And evil shall come to you in the latter days, because you do what is evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke Him through the work of your hands."

30 So Mosheh spoke in the hearing of all the assembly of Yisra'ël the words of this song till their completion:

32 "Give ear, O shamayim, and let me speak;
And hear, O earth,
The words of my mouth.

- 2 “Let my instruction fall as rain,
My speech drop down as dew,
As fine rain on the tender plants,
And as showers on the grass.
- 3 “For I proclaim the Name of אֱלֹהִים,
Ascribe greatness to our Elohim.
- 4 “The Rock! His work is perfect,
For all His Ways are right-ruling,
An Ėl of truth and without unrighteousness,
Righteous and straight is He.
- 5 “A twisted and wicked generation has corrupted itself,
Their blemish, not His children.
- 6 “Do you do this to אֱלֹהִים,
O foolish and unwise people?
Is He not your Father, who bought you,
Who created you and established you?
- 7 “Remember the days of old,
Consider the years of many generations.
Ask your father and let him show you,
Your elders, and let them say to you:
- 8 “When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance,
When He separated the sons of Adam,
He established the boundaries of the peoples
According to the number of the children of Elohim.
- 9 “For the portion of אֱלֹהִים is His people,
Ya’aqob His allotted inheritance.
- 10 “He found him in a wilderness,
And in a wasted, howling desert.
He encompassed him, He made him understand,
He watched over him as the apple of His eye.
- 11 “As an eagle stirs up its nest,
Flutters over its young,

Spreading out its wings, taking them up,
Bearing them on its wings.

12 “אֱלֹהִים alone led him,

And there was no strange mighty one with him.

13 “He made him ride in the heights of the earth,

And he ate the fruit of the fields,

And He made him to draw honey from the rock,

And oil from the flinty rock,

14 “Curds from the cattle,

And milk of the flock,

With fatness of lambs,

And rams of the breed of Bashan,

And goats, with the choicest wheat;

And you drank wine, the blood of grapes.

15 “But Yeshurun grew fat and kicked;

You grew fat, you grew thick,

You are covered with fat;

So he forsook Eloah who made him,

And scorned the Rock of his deliverance.

16 “They moved Him to jealousy with the foreign,

With abominations they provoked Him.

17 “They slaughtered to demons - not Eloah -

Mighty ones they did not know,

New ones who came lately,

Which your fathers did not reverence.

18 “You neglected the Rock who brought you forth,

And forgot the Ēl who fathered you.

19 “And אֱלֹהִים saw, and despised,

Because of the provocation of His sons and His daughters.

20 “And He said, ‘Let Me hide My face from them,

Let Me see what their end is,

For they are a perverse generation,

Children in whom there is no trusting.

21 “They made Me jealous by what is not Ēl.
 They provoked Me with their worthlessness.
 But I make them jealous by those who are no people,
 I provoke them with a foolish nation.
 22 “For a fire was kindled in My wrath
 And burns to the bottom of She’ol,
 And consumes the earth and its increase,
 And lights on fire the foundations of mountains.
 23 “I gather evils upon them,
 I use up My arrows upon them -
 24 “Wasted by scarcity of food,
 And consumed by heat and bitter destruction,
 And the teeth of beasts I send upon them,
 With the poison of serpents of the dust.
 25 “The sword bereaves from the outside,
 And fear from within,
 Both young man and maiden,
 Nursing child with the man of grey hairs.
 26 “I said, ‘I should blow them away,
 I should make the remembrance of them
 To cease from among men,
 27 “If I did not fear the enemy’s taunt,
 Lest their adversaries misunderstand,
 Lest they say, “Our hand is high,
 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ has not done all this.” ’
 28 “For they are a nation lost to counsel,
 And there is no understanding in them.
 29 “If they were wise,
 They would understand this,
 They would consider their latter end!
 30 “How would one chase a thousand,
 And two put ten thousand to flight,
 Unless their Rock had sold them,
 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ had given them up?

- 31 “For their rock is not like our Rock -
Even our enemies are judges.
- 32 “Their vine is of the vine of Sedom
And of the fields of Amorah;
Their grapes are grapes of gall,
Their clusters are bitter.
- 33 “Their wine is the poison of serpents,
And the fierce venom of cobras.
- 34 ‘Is it not stored up with Me,
Sealed up among My treasures?
- 35 ‘Vengeance is Mine, and repayment,
At the time their foot slips;
For near is the day of their calamity,
And the preparations are hastening to them.’
- 36 “For אֱלֹהִים rightly rules His people
And has compassion on His servants,
When He sees that their power is gone,
And there is no one remaining,
Shut up or at large.
- 37 “And He shall say, ‘Where are their mighty ones,
The rock in whom they sought refuge?
- 38 ‘Who ate the fat of their slaughterings,
And drank the wine of their drink offering?
Let them arise and help you,
Let it be a hiding-place for you!
- 39 ‘See now that I, I am He,
And there is no Elohim besides Me.
I put to death and I make alive.
I have wounded, and I heal.
And from My hand no one delivers!
- 40 ‘For I lift My hand to the shamayim,
And shall say: As I live forever,
- 41 ‘If I have sharpened My flashing sword,
And My hand takes hold on judgment,

I shall return vengeance to My enemies,
And repay those who hate Me.

42 'I make My arrows drunk with blood,
And My sword devours flesh,
With the blood of the slain and the captives,
From the long-haired enemy chiefs.'

43 "O nations, acclaim His people!
For He avenges the blood of His servants,
And returns vengeance to His adversaries,
And shall pardon His land, His people."

44 Then Mosheh came, with Yahoshua son of Nun, and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.

45 And when Mosheh ended speaking all these words to all Yisra'el,

46 he said to them, "Lay your heart on all the words with which I warn you today, so that you command your children to guard to do all the Words of this Torah.

47 "For it is not a worthless Word for you, because it is your  $\text{חַי}$ , and by this Word you prolong your days on the land which you pass over the Yardēn to possess."

48 And  $\text{אֶבְרָם}$  spoke to Mosheh that same day, saying,

49 "Go up this mountain of the Aḅiram, Mount Neḅo, which is in the land of Mo'ab, which is opposite Yeriḥo, and look at the land of Kena'an, which I give to the children of Yisra'el as a possession,

50 and die on the mountain which you ascend, and be gathered to your people, as Aharon your brother died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people,

51 because you trespassed against Me in the midst of the children of Yisra'el at the waters of Meriḅah

Qadēsh, in the Wilderness of Tsin, because you did not qadosh Me in the midst of the children of Yisra'ēl.
 52 “For you are to look at the land before you, but not enter there, into the land which I am giving to the children of Yisra'ēl.”

33 And this is the beraqah with which Mosheh the man of Elohim barak the children of Yisra'ēl before his death.

2 And he said, “אִתְּךָ came from Sinai, and rose from Sē'ir for them. He shone forth from Mount Paran, and came with ten thousands of qodeshim - at His right hand a law of fire for them.

3 Indeed, He loves the peoples, all His qodeshim are in Your hand. And they, they sat down at Your feet, receiving Your Words.

4 Mosheh commanded us a Torah, an inheritance of the assembly of Ya'aqob.

5 And He was Sovereign in Yeshurun, when the heads of the people were gathered, the tribes of Yisra'ēl

6 “Let Re'ubēn live, and not die, and let his men be numbered.”

7 And this of Yahudah, and he said, “Hear, אִתְּךָ, the voice of Yahudah, and bring him to his people. His hands shall fight for him, and You be a help against his enemies.”

8 And of Lēwi he said, “Your Tummim and Your Urim belong to Your kind one, whom You tried at Massah, with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah,

9 who said of his father and mother, ‘I have not seen them.’ And he did not acknowledge his brothers, or know his own children, for they have guarded Your Word and watched over Your Covenant.

10 “They teach Your Right-Rulings to Ya’aqob, and Your Torah to Yisra’ël. They put incense before You, and a complete burnt offering on Your altar.

11 “O אֱלֹהִים barak his strength, and accept the work of his hands. Strike through the loins of those who rise against him, and of those who hate him, that they rise no more.”

12 Of Binyamin he said, “Let the beloved of אֱלֹהִים dwell in safety by Him, shielding him all the day, as he dwells between His shoulders.”

13 And of Yosëph he said, “Baruk of אֱלֹהִים is his land, with the choicest from the shamayim, with the dew, and the deep lying beneath,

14 with the choice fruits of the sun, with the choice yield of the months,

15 with the finest of the ancient mountains, with the choicest of the everlasting hills,

16 with the choicest of the earth and all that fills it, and the good pleasure of Him who dwelt in the bush. Let it come on the head of Yosëph, and on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.

17 “His splendour is like a first-born bull, and his horns are like the horns of the wild ox. With them he pushes the peoples to the ends of the earth. And they are the ten thousands of Ephrayim, and they are the thousands of Menashsheh.”

18 And of Zëbulun he said, “Rejoice. O Zëbulun, in your going out, and Yissaskar in your tents!

19 “They call peoples to the mountain, there they bring offerings of righteousness, for they draw from the riches of the seas, and treasures hidden in the sand.”

20 And of Gađ he said. “Baruk is he who enlarges Gađ. He dwells as a lion, and shall tear off the arm, also the crown.

21 “And he chose the best for himself, for there the portion of the lawgiver was hidden. And he came with the heads of the people. The righteousness of אִיִּשׁׁר he did, and His Right-Rulings with Yisra’ël.”

22 And of Dan he said, “Dan is a lion’s cub, that leaps from Bashan.”

23 And of Naphtali he said, “O Naphtali, satisfied with pleasure, and filled with the beraḵah of אִיִּשׁׁר, possess the west and the south.”

24 And of Ashër he said, “Ashër is most baruḵ of sons. Let him be accepted by his brothers, and dip his foot in oil.

25 “Your sandals are iron and bronze, and your strength as your days.

26 “O Yeshurun, there is no one like Ėl, riding the shamayim to help you, and on the clouds, in His excellency.

27 “The Elohim of old is a refuge, and beneath are everlasting arms. And He drives out the enemy from before you and says, ‘Destroy!’

28 ‘Thus Yisra’ël dwells in safety, the fountain of Ya’aqob alone, in a land of grain and new wine. His shamayim also drop down dew.

29 “Baruḵ are you, O Yisra’ël! Who is like you? A people saved by אִיִּשׁׁר, the shield of your help, and He who is the sword of your excellency! And your enemies are subdued for you, and you tread down their high places.”

34 And Mosheh went up from the desert plains of Mo’ab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Yeriho. And אִיִּשׁׁר showed him all the land of Gil’ad as far as Dan.

2 and all Naphtali and the land of Ephrayim and Menashsheh, all the land of Yahudah as far as the Western Sea,

3 and the Negeb, and the plain of the Valley of Yeriho, the city of palm trees, as far as Tso'ar.

4 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, "This is the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Yitshaq, and to Ya'aqob, saying, 'To your seed I give it.' I have let you look at it with your eyes, but you do not pass over there."

5 And Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים died there in the land of Mo'ab, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And He buried him in a valley in the land of Mo'ab, opposite Běyth Pe'or, and no one knows his burial place to this day.

7 And Mosheh was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim nor his freshness gone.

8 And the children of Yisra'el wept for Mosheh in the desert plains of Mo'ab thirty days. And the days of weeping and mourning for Mosheh were completed.

9 And Yahoshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Mosheh had laid his hands on him. And the children of Yisra'el listened to him, and did as אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

10 And since then no nabi has arisen in Yisra'el like Mosheh, whom אֱלֹהִים knew face to face,

11 for all the signs and wonders which אֱלֹהִים sent him to do in the land of Mitsrayim, before Pharaoh, and before all his servants, and in all his land,

12 and for all that strong hand and all the great fearsome deeds which Mosheh did before the eyes of all Yisra'el.

YAHOSHUA

יְהוֹשֻׁעַ בֶּן־נֹחַן

1 And it came to be, after the death of Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים, that אֱלֹהִים spoke to Yahoshua son of Nun, the assistant of Mosheh, saying,

2 “Mosheh My servant is dead, so now, arise, pass over this Yardeh, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them, to the children of Yisra’el.

3 “Every place on which the sole of your foot treads I have given you, as I spoke to Mosheh.

4 “From the wilderness and this Lebanon even as far as the great river, the River Perath, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, is your border.

5 “No man is going to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Mosheh, so I am with you. I do not fail you nor forsake you.

6 “Be strong and courageous, for you are to let this people inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them.

7 “Only be strong and very courageous, to guard to do according to all the Torah which Mosheh My servant commanded you. Do not turn from it right or left, so that you act wisely wherever you go.

8 “Do not let this Book of the Torah depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you guard to do according to all that is written in it. For then you shall make your way prosperous, and act wisely.

9 “Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid, nor be discouraged, for אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is with you wherever you go.”

10 And Yahoshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 “Pass through the midst of the camp and command the people, saying, ‘Prepare food for yourselves, for within three days you are passing over this Yardĕn, to go in to possess the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you to possess.’ ”

12 And Yahoshua spoke to the Re’ubĕnites and to the Gadites and to half the tribe of Menashsheh, saying,

13 “Remember the word which Mosheh, servant of אֱלֹהִים, commanded you, saying, ‘אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving you rest, and He shall give you this land.’

14 “Let your wives, your little ones, and your livestock stay in the land which Mosheh gave you beyond the Yardĕn. But you shall pass before your brothers armed, all your brave fighters, and shall help them,

15 until אֱלֹהִים has given your brothers rest, as unto you. So shall they also take possession of the land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is giving them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and shall possess that which Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים gave you beyond the Yardĕn toward the rising of the sun.”

16 And they answered Yahoshua, saying, “All that you have commanded us we do, and wherever you send us we go.

17 “According to all that we obeyed Mosheh, so we obey you. Only, let אֱלֹהִים your Elohim be with you, as He was with Mosheh.

18 “Whoever rebels against your command and does not obey your words, in all that you command him, is put to death. Only be strong and courageous.”

2 And Yahoshua son of Nun secretly sent out two men from Shittim to spy, saying, “Go, see the land, and Yeriho.” And they went, and came to the house of a woman, a whore, and her name was Raḥab, and they lay down there.

2 But it was reported to the sovereign of Yeriho, saying, “See, men from the children of Yisra’el have come here tonight to search out the land.”

3 And the sovereign of Yeriho sent to Raḥab, saying, “Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered your house, for they have come to search out all the land.”

4 But the woman had taken the two men and hid them. So she said, “The men came to me, but I did not know where they were from.

5 “Then it came to be as the gate was being shut, when it was dark, that the men went out. I do not know where the men went. Pursue them quickly, so that you overtake them.”

6 But she had brought them up to the roof and hidden them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid out on the roof.

7 And the men pursued them by the way to the Yardēn, to the fords. And they shut the gate afterwards as soon as the pursuers had gone out.

8 And before they lay down, she came up to them on the roof,

9 and she said to the men, “I know that אֱלֹהִים has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away because of you.

10 “For we have heard how אֱלֹהִים dried up the water of the Sea of Reeds for you when you came out of Mitsrayim, and what you did to the two sovereigns of the Amorites who were beyond the Yardēn, Siḥon and Oḡ, whom you put under the ban.

11 “And when we heard, our hearts melted, and there was no spirit left in anyone because of you, for אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, He is Elohim in the shamayim above and on earth beneath.

12 “And now, please swear to me by אֱלֹהִים, since I have shown you kindness, that you also show kindness to my father’s house, and shall give me a true token,

13 and shall spare my father, and my mother, and my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and shall deliver our lives from death.”

14 And the men said to her, “Our lives for yours, if you do not expose this matter of ours, then it shall be, when אֱלֹהִים has given us the land, that we shall treat you in kindness and truth.”

15 So she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on the city wall and she dwelt on the wall.

16 And she said to them, “Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers come upon you. And you shall hide there three days, until the pursuers have returned, and afterwards go on your way.”

17 And the men said to her, “We are released from this oath of yours which you have made us swear,

18 unless, when we come into the land, you bind this line of scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you bring your father, and your mother, and your brothers, and all your father’s household to your own home.

19 “And it shall be that anyone who goes outside the doors of your house into the street, his blood is on his own head, and we are innocent. And anyone who is with you in the house, his blood is on our head if a hand is laid on him.

20 “And if you expose this matter of ours, then we shall be released from your oath which you made us swear.”

21 And she said, “Let it be according to your words.” And she sent them away, and they went. And she bound the scarlet cord in the window.

22 So they left and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days until the pursuers returned. And the pursuers sought them in all the way, but did not find them.

23 Then the two men returned and came down from the mountain, and passed over. And they came to Yahoshua son of Nun, and related to him all that had befallen them.

24 And they said to Yahoshua, “Truly אֱלֹהִים has given all the land into our hands, and also, all the inhabitants of the land have melted away before us.”

3 And Yahoshua rose early in the morning, and they departed from Shittim and came to the Yardēn, he and all the children of Yisra’ēl, and stayed there before they passed over.

2 And it came to be, after three days, that the officers went into the midst of the camp,

3 and they commanded the people, saying, “When you see the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and the kohenim, the Lēwites, bearing it, then you shall depart from your place and follow it.

4 “Only, keep a distance between you and it, about two thousand ammah by measure. Do not come near it, so that you know which way to go, for you have not passed over this way before.”

5 And Yahoshua said to the people, “Qadosh yourselves, for tomorrow אֱלֹהִים is doing wonders in your midst.”

6 And Yahoshua spoke to the kohenim, saying, "Take up the ark of the Covenant and pass over before the people." So they took up the ark of the Covenant and went before the people.

7 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, "This day I begin to make you great before the eyes of all Yisra'ël, so that they know that I am with you as I was with Mosheh.

8 "And you, command the kohenim who bear the ark of the Covenant, saying, 'When you come to the edge of the water of the Yardĕn, stand in the Yardĕn.' "

9 And Yahoshua said to the children of Yisra'ël, "Come near, and hear the words of אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Elohim."

10 And Yahoshua said, "By this you shall know that the living Ĕl is in your midst, and that He is certainly driving out from before you the Kena'anites and the Hittites and the Hivvites and the Perizzites and the Girgashites and the Amorites and the Yebusites:

11 "See, the ark of the Covenant of the Adon of all the earth is passing over before you into the Yardĕn.

12 "And now, take for yourselves twelve men from the tribes of Yisra'ël, one man from every tribe.

13 "And it shall be, as soon as the soles of the feet of the kohenim who bear the ark of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, the Adon of all the earth, come to rest in the waters of the Yardĕn, that the waters of the Yardĕn are cut off, the waters that come down from upstream, and stand as a heap."

14 And it came to be, when the people departed from their tents to pass over the Yardĕn, with the kohenim bearing the ark of the Covenant before the people,

15 and as those bearing the ark came to the Yardĕn, and the feet of the kohenim bearing the ark dipped in the edge of the water - now the Yardĕn overflows all its banks during all the time of harvest -

16 that the waters which came down from upstream stood still, and rose in a heap very far away at Aḏam, the city that is beside Tsarethan. And the waters going down into the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, were completely cut off. And the people passed over opposite Yeriḥo.

17 And the kohenim bearing the ark of the Covenant of אֶלֹהִים stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Yardēn. And all Yisra'ēl passed over on dry ground, until all the nation had completely passed over the Yardēn.

4 And it came to be, when the entire nation had completely passed over the Yardēn, that אֶלֹהִים spoke to Yahoshua, saying,

2 “Take for yourselves twelve men from the people, one man from every tribe,

3 and command them, saying, ‘Take for yourselves twelve stones from here, out of the midst of the Yardēn, from the place where the kohenim’s feet stood firm. And you shall bring them with you and leave them in the camp in which you spend the night.’

4 And Yahoshua called the twelve men whom he had appointed from the children of Yisra'ēl, one man from every tribe,

5 and Yahoshua said to them, “Pass over before the ark of אֶלֹהִים your Elohim into the midst of the Yardēn, and each one of you take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Yisra'ēl,

6 so that this shall be a sign in your midst when your children ask in time to come, saying, ‘What do these stones mean to you?’

7 “Then you shall answer them that the waters of the Yarděn were cut off before the ark of the Covenant of אֶלֹהִים. When it passed over the Yarděn, the waters of the Yarděn were cut off. And these stones shall be for a remembrance to the children of Yisra’ěl forever.”

8 And the children of Yisra’ěl did so, as Yahoshua commanded, and took up twelve stones from the midst of the Yarděn, as אֶלֹהִים had spoken to Yahoshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Yisra’ěl, and took them over with them to their camp, and laid them down there.

9 Yahoshua also put up twelve stones in the midst of the Yarděn, in the place where the feet of the kohenim who bore the ark of the Covenant stood. And they are there to this day.

10 And the kohenim who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Yarděn until every matter was finished that אֶלֹהִים had commanded Yahoshua to speak to the people, according to all that Mosheh had commanded Yahoshua. And the people hastened and passed over.

11 And it came to be, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of אֶלֹהִים and the kohenim passed over in the presence of the people.

12 And the sons of Re’uḇĕn, and the sons of Gaḏ, and half the tribe of Menashsheh passed over armed before the children of Yisra’ěl, as Mosheh had spoken to them.

13 About forty thousand armed ones of the army passed over before אֶלֹהִים for battle, to the desert plains of Yeriḥo.

14 On that day אֶלֹהִים made Yahoshua great before the eyes of all Yisra’ěl. And they revered him, as they had revered Mosheh, all the days of his life.

15 And אֶלֹהִים spoke to Yahoshua, saying,

16 “Command the kohenim who bear the ark of the Witness, and let them come up from the Yardĕn.”

17 And Yahoshua commanded the kohenim, saying, “Come up from the Yardĕn.”

18 And it came to be, when the kohenim who bore the ark of the Covenant of יהוה had come from the midst of the Yardĕn, and the soles of the kohenim feet touched the dry land, that the waters of the Yardĕn returned to their place and flowed over all its banks as before.

19 And the people came up from the Yardĕn on the tenth day of the first month, and they camped in Gilgal on the east border of Yeriĥo.

20 And those twelve stones which they took out of the Yardĕn, Yahoshua put up in Gilgal.

21 And he said to the children of Yisra’ĕl, saying, “When your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, ‘What are these stones?’

22 then you shall let your children know, saying, ‘Yisra’ĕl passed over this Yardĕn on dry land,’

23 for יהוה your Elohim dried up the waters of the Yardĕn before you until you had passed over, as יהוה your Elohim did to the Sea of Reeds, which He dried up before us until we had passed over,

24 so that all the peoples of the earth shall know the hand of יהוה, that it is strong, so that you shall revere יהוה your Elohim forever.”

5 And it came to be, when all the sovereigns of the Amorites who were beyond the Yardĕn westward, and all the sovereigns of the Kena’anites who were by the sea, heard that יהוה had dried up the waters of the Yardĕn from before the children of Yisra’ĕl until we had passed over, that their heart melted. And there was no spirit in them any longer, because of the children of Yisra'ël.

2 At that time אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, "Make knives of flint for yourself, and circumcise the sons of Yisra'ël again the second time."

3 So Yahoshua made knives of flint for himself, and circumcised the sons of Yisra'ël at the Hill of Foreskins.

4 And this is why Yahoshua circumcised them: All the people who came out of Mitsrayim who were males, all the men of battle, had died in the wilderness on the way, after they had come out of Mitsrayim.

5 For all the people who came out had been circumcised, but all the people who were born in the wilderness on the way as they came out of Mitsrayim had not been circumcised.

6 For the children of Yisra'ël walked forty years in the wilderness, till all the nation - the men of battle who came out of Mitsrayim - were consumed, because they did not obey the voice of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, to whom אִיִּזְרָאֵל swore not to show them the land which אִיִּזְרָאֵל had sworn to their fathers that He would give us, "a land flowing with milk and honey."

7 And Yahoshua circumcised their sons whom He raised up in their place; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised on the way.

8 And it came to be, when they had completed circumcising all the nation, that they stayed in their places in the camp till they were healed.

9 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Mitsrayim from you." So the name of the place is called Gilgal to this day.

10 And the children of Yisra'ël camped in Gilgal, and performed the Pesah on the fourteenth day of the month at evening on the desert plains of Yeriho.

11 And they ate of the stored grain of the land on the morrow after the Pesah, unleavened bread and roasted grain on this same day.

12 And the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten the stored grain of the land. And the children of Yisra'ël no longer had manna, but they ate the food of the land of Kena'an that year.

13 And it came to be, when Yahoshua was by Yeriho, that he lifted his eyes and looked and saw a Man standing opposite him with His sword drawn in His hand. And Yahoshua went to Him and said to Him, "Are You for us or for our adversaries?"

14 And He said, "No, for I have now come as Captain of the host of אֶלֶל." And Yahoshua fell on his face to the earth and did obeisance, and said to Him, "What is Adoni saying to His servant?"

15 And the Captain of the host of אֶלֶל said to Yahoshua, "Take your sandal off your foot, for the place where you stand is qodesh." And Yahoshua did so.

6 And Yeriho was shut up tight because of the presence of the sons of Yisra'ël - none going out, and none coming in.

2 And אֶלֶל said to Yahoshua, "See! I have given Yeriho and its sovereign, mighty brave men, into your hand.

3 "And you shall go around the city, all the men of battle going around the city once. Do this for six days.

4 "And let seven kohenim bear seven rams' horns before the ark, and on the seventh day go around the city seven times while the kohenim blow the horns.

5 “And it shall be, when they make a long blast with the ram’s horn, and when you hear the sound of the horn, that all the people shout with a great shout. And the wall of the city shall fall down flat, and the people shall go up every man straight before him.”

6 And Yahoshua son of Nun called the kohenim and said to them, “Take up the ark of the Covenant, and let seven kohenim bear seven rams’ horns before the ark of אֲרֹן.”

7 And he said to the people, “Pass over, and go around the city, and let him who is armed pass over before the ark of אֲרֹן.”

8 And it came to be, when Yahoshua had spoken to the people, that the seven kohenim bearing the seven rams’ horns before אֲרֹן passed over and blew the horns, and the ark of the Covenant of אֲרֹן went after them.

9 And the armed men went before the kohenim who blew the horns, and the rear guard came after the ark, going on and blowing the horns.

10 But Yahoshua had commanded the people, saying, “Do not shout or cause your voice to be heard, nor let any word come out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout.”

11 And the ark of אֲרֹן went around the city, going around once. And they came into the camp and stayed in the camp.

12 And Yahoshua rose early in the morning, and the kohenim took up the ark of אֲרֹן.

13 And seven kohenim bearing seven rams’ horns before the ark of אֲרֹן were walking, going on, and they blew the horns, and the armed men went before them. But the rear guard came after the ark of אֲרֹן, going on, and blowing the horns.

14 And the second day they went around the city once and returned to the camp. Thus they did six days.

15 And it came to be on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and went around the city seven times in this way. Only on that day they went around the city seven times.

16 And it came to be at the seventh time, when the kohenim blew the horns, that Yahoshua said to the people, "Shout, for אִי־אֵלֹהִים has given you the city!

17 "And the city shall be put under the ban, it and all that is in it belongs to אִי־אֵלֹהִים. Only Rahab the whore is to live, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent.

18 "And you, by all means guard yourselves from that which is under the ban, lest you come under the ban when you take of that which is under the ban, and make the camp of Yisra'el a curse, and shall trouble it.

19 "But all the silver and gold, and vessels of bronze and iron, are qodesh to אִי־אֵלֹהִים, they go into the treasury of אִי־אֵלֹהִים."

20 And the people shouted when the ram's horns were blown. And it came to be when the people heard the sound of the horn, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. And the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they captured the city.

21 And they put under the ban all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox and sheep and donkey, with the edge of the sword.

22 And to the two men who had spied out the land Yahoshua said, "Go into the house of the woman, the whore, and from there bring out the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her."

23 And the young men, the spies, went in and brought out Raḥab, and her father, and her mother, and her brothers, and all that she had. So they brought out all her relatives and put them outside the camp of Yisra'ël.

24 And they burned the city and all that was in it with fire. Only the silver and gold, and the vessels of bronze and of iron, they put into the treasury of the House of אֱלֹהִים.

25 However, Yahoshua kept alive Raḥab the whore, and her father's household, and all that she had. And she dwelt in the midst of Yisra'ël to this day, because she hid the messengers whom Yahoshua sent to spy out Yeriḥo.

26 And Yahoshua warned them at that time, saying, "Cursed is the man before אֱלֹהִים who rises up and builds this city Yeriḥo - he lays its foundation with his first-born, and with his youngest he puts up its gates."

27 And אֱלֹהִים was with Yahoshua, and a report about him was in all the land.

7 But the children of Yisra'ël committed a trespass regarding that which is under the ban, for Aḱan son of Karmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Yahudah, took of that which is under the ban. And the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים burned against the children of Yisra'ël.

2 Now Yahoshua sent men from Yeriḥo to Ai, which is beside Běyth Awen, on the east side of Běyth Ēl, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the land." And the men went up and spied out Ai.

3 And they returned to Yahoshua and said to him, "Let not all the people go up, but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai. Do not make all the people toil up there, for the people of Ai are few."

4 And about three thousand men went up there from the people, but they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote about thirty-six men, for they pursued them from before the gate as far as Shebarim, and smote them on the descent. So the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

6 And Yahoshua tore his garments, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of אֱלֹהִים until evening, both he and the elders of Yisra'ël, and they put dust on their heads.

7 And Yahoshua said, "Oh Adonai אֱלֹהִים, why have You brought this people over the Yardën at all, to give us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had been content to stay beyond the Yardën!

8 "O אֱלֹהִים, what do I say when Yisra'ël turns its back before its enemies,

9 and the Kena'anites and all the inhabitants of the land hear, and shall surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. What then do You do for Your great Name?"

10 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, "Rise up! Why are you lying on your face?

11 "Yisra'ël has sinned, and they have also transgressed My Covenant which I commanded them. And they have even taken some of that which is under the ban, and have both stolen and deceived, and also put it among their own goods.

12 "And the sons of Yisra'ël shall not be able to stand before their enemies. They are going to turn their backs before their enemies, for they have become accursed. I am not with you any more, unless you destroy that which is under the ban from your midst.

13 "Rise up, qadosh the people, and you shall say, 'Qadosh yourselves for tomorrow, because thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, "That which is under the ban is in your midst, O Yisra'ël. You are not able to stand before your enemies until you put away that which is under the ban out of your midst.”

14 ‘And you shall be brought near in the morning, according to your tribes. And it shall be, the tribe which אִשָּׁרָא takes comes according to clans. And the clan which אִשָּׁרָא takes comes by households. And the household which אִשָּׁרָא takes comes by men.

15 ‘And it shall be that he who is taken with that which is under the ban is burned with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the Covenant of אִשָּׁרָא, and because he has committed wickedness in Yisra'ël.’ ”

16 So Yahoshua arose early in the morning and brought Yisra'ël by their tribes, and the tribe of Yahudah was taken, and he brought the clan of Yahudah, and he took the clan of the Zarhites.

17 And he brought the clan of the Zarhites by men, and Zabdi was taken.

18 And he brought his household by men, and Aqan son of Karmi, son of Zabdi, son of Zerah, of the tribe of Yahudah, was taken.

19 Then Yahoshua said to Aqan, “My son, now give esteem to אִשָּׁרָא Elohim of Yisra'ël, and make confession to Him. And please declare to me what you have done, do not hide it from me.”

20 So Aqan answered Yahoshua and said, “Truly, I have sinned against אִשָּׁרָא Elohim of Yisra'ël, and this is what I did:

21 “When I saw among the spoil a lovely garment from Shin'ar, and two hundred sheqels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing fifty sheqels, I coveted them and took them. And see, they are hidden in the ground in the midst of my tent, with the silver under it.”

22 And Yahoshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. And see, it was hidden in his tent, with the silver under it.

23 And they took them from the midst of the tent, brought them to Yahoshua and to all the children of Yisra'ël, and laid them out before אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

24 Then Yahoshua, and all Yisra'ël with him, took Aֲכָן son of Zerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his donkeys, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had, and they brought them to the Valley of Aֲקֹר.

25 And Yahoshua said, "Why have you troubled us? אִיִּזְרָאֵל troubles you today!" Then all Yisra'ël stoned him with stones. And they burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones, which remains to this day. Then אִיִּזְרָאֵל turned from the fierceness of His displeasure. Therefore the name of that place has been called the Valley of Aֲקֹר to this day.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Yahoshua, "Do not be afraid, nor be discouraged. Take all the soldiers with you, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into your hand the sovereign of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land.

2 "So you shall do to Ai and its sovereign as you did to Yeriho and its sovereign. Only its spoil and livestock you take as plunder for yourselves. Lay for yourselves ambush for the city, behind it."

3 And Yahoshua and all the soldiers rose up, to go up to Ai. And Yahoshua chose thirty thousand mighty brave men and sent them away by night,

4 and commanded them, saying, “See, you are going to lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, but all of you shall be prepared,

5 while I and all the people who are with me approach the city. And it shall be, when they come out against us, as formerly, that we shall flee before them,

6 and they shall come out after us till we have drawn them from the city, as though saying, ‘They are fleeing before us as formerly.’ And we shall flee before them,

7 then you shall rise from the ambush and seize the city. And אֱלֹהִים your Elohim shall give it into your hand.

8 “And it shall be, when you capture the city, that you burn the city with fire. Do according to the word of אֱלֹהִים. See, I have commanded you.”

9 And Yahoshua sent them out. And they went to lie in ambush, and stayed between Běyth Ěl and Ai, on the west side of Ai. But Yahoshua stayed that night in the midst of the people.

10 And Yahoshua rose up early in the morning and inspected the people, and went up, he and the elders of Yisra’ěl, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the soldiers who were with him went up and drew near, and came before the city and camped on the north side of Ai, with the valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men and placed them in ambush between Běyth Ěl and Ai, on the west side of the city.

13 So they stationed the people, all the army that was on the north of the city, and its rear guard on the west of the city, and Yahoshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to be, when the sovereign of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hastened and rose up early and went out against Yisra'ël to battle, he and all his people, at an appointed place before the desert plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Yahoshua and all Yisra'ël let themselves be beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness.

16 And all the people who were in Ai were called together to pursue them. And they pursued Yahoshua and were drawn away from the city.

17 So there was not a man left in Ai or Bëyth Ĕl who did not go out after Yisra'ël, and they left the city open and pursued Yisra'ël.

18 And אִרְיָאז said to Yahoshua, "Stretch out the spear that is in your hand toward Ai, for I give it into your hand." And Yahoshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city,

19 and the ambush rose up quickly from their place, and they ran at the stretching out of his hand, and entered the city and took it, and hastened to burn the city with fire.

20 And the men of Ai looked behind them and saw the smoke of the city rising to the shamayim. And there was no power in them to flee this way or that way, for the people who had fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers.

21 For when Yahoshua and all Yisra'ël saw that the ambush had captured the city and that the smoke of the city went up, they turned back and smote the men of Ai.

22 The others also came out of the city against them, so they were in the midst of Yisra'ël, some on this side and some on that side. And they smote them until none were left, and none had escaped.

23 But the sovereign of Ai they caught alive, and brought him to Yahoshua.

24 And it came to be, when Yisra'ël ended slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness where they pursued them, and when they all had fallen by the edge of the sword until they were consumed, that all the Yisra'ëlites returned to Ai and smote it with the edge of the sword.

25 And it came to be that all who fell that day, both men and women, were twelve thousand - all men of Ai.

26 And Yahoshua did not draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the spear, until he had put all the inhabitants of Ai under the ban.

27 Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Yisra'ël took as booty for themselves, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which He had commanded Yahoshua.

28 And Yahoshua burned Ai and made it a heap forever, a ruin to this day.

29 And he hanged the sovereign of Ai on a tree until evening. And at sunset Yahoshua commanded that they should take his corpse down from the tree, and throw it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raise over it a great heap of stones, to this day.

30 And Yahoshua built an altar to אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël in Mount Ĕybal, 31 as Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים had commanded the children of Yisra'ël, as it is written in the Book of the Torah of Mosheh, "an altar of unhewn stones over which no man has wielded iron." And they offered on it burnt offerings to אֱלֹהִים, and slaughtered peace offerings.

32 And there, in the presence of the children of Yisra'ël, he wrote on the stones a copy of the Torah of Mosheh, which he had written.

33 And all Yisra'ël - the sojourner as well as the native - with their elders and officers and judges, stood on either side of the ark before the kohenim, the Lěwites, who bore the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ĕybal, as Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים had commanded before, that they should barak the people of Yisra'ël.

34 And afterward he read all the Words of the Torah, the birekoth and the cursings, according to all that is written in the Book of the Torah.

35 There was not a word of all that Mosheh had commanded which Yahoshua did not read before all the assembly of Yisra'ël, with the women, and the little ones, and the sojourners who accompanied them.

9 And it came to be, when all the sovereigns who were beyond the Yarděn, in the hills and in the low country and in all the coasts of the Great Sea toward Lebanon - the Hittite and the Amorite, the Kena'anite and the Perizzite, the Hivvite and the Yebusite - heard,

2 they gathered together to fight with Yahoshua and Yisra'ël with one accord.

3 And the inhabitants of Gib'on heard what Yahoshua had done to Yeriho and Ai,

4 and they acted slyly and went and pretended to be envoys. And they took old sacks on their donkeys, old wineskins torn and mended,

5 and old and patched sandals on their feet, and old garments on themselves. And all the bread of their provision was dry, it was crumbs.

6 And they went to Yahoshua, to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him and to the men of Yisra'ël, "We have come from a far land, and now, make a covenant with us."

7 But the men of Yisra'ël said to the Hīwwites, "It could be that you dwell in our midst, so how would we make a covenant with you?"

8 And they said to Yahoshua, "We are your servants." And Yahoshua said to them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"

9 So they said to him, "From a land very far off your servants have come, because of the Name of אֱלֹהֵי אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim. For we have heard the report of Him, and all that He did in Mitsrayim,

10 and all that He had done to the two sovereigns of the Amorites who were beyond the Yardēn, to Siḥon sovereign of Ḥeshbon, and Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth.

11 "So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land spoke to us, saying, 'Take food with you for the journey, and go to meet them, and say to them, "We are your servants, and now, make a covenant with us."'

12 "This bread of ours we took hot for our provision from our houses on the day that we left to come to you. But now, see, it is dry and it is crumbly.

13 "And these wineskins which we filled were new, and see, they are torn. And these our garments and our sandals have become old because of the very long journey."

14 And the men of Yisra'ël took some of their food, but they did not ask the word of אֱלֹהֵי אֱלֹהֵי.

15 And Yahoshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them to let them live, and the rulers of the congregation swore to them.

16 And it came to be at the end of three days, after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours who dwelt near them.

17 And the children of Yisra'ël departed and came to their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gib'on, and Kephirah, and Be'ëroth, and Qiryath Ye'arim.

18 But the children of Yisra'ël did not smite them, because the rulers of the congregation had sworn to them by אלהים Elohim of Yisra'ël. And all the congregation grumbled against the rulers.

19 But all the rulers said to all the congregation, "We have sworn to them by אלהים Elohim of Yisra'ël, and we are unable to touch them now.

20 "Let us do this to them: We shall keep them alive, lest wrath be upon us because of the oath which we swore to them."

21 And the rulers said to them, "Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and drawers of water for all the congregation, as the rulers had promised them."

22 Then Yahoshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, "Why have you deceived us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' yet you are dwelling in our midst?

23 "And now you are cursed, and you shall not cease from being slaves, and woodcutters and drawers of water for the House of my Elohim."

24 And they answered Yahoshua and said, "Your servants were clearly told that אלהים your Elohim commanded His servant Mosheh to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. So we were very much afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this deed.

25 “And now, see, we are in your hands. Do with us as it seems good and right to do to us.”

26 And he did so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Yisra’ël, and they did not kill them.

27 And that day Yahoshua made them woodcutters and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of אֲזִיזָה, even to this day, at the place that He should choose.

10 And it came to be when Aḏoni-Tseḏeq sovereign of Yerushalayim heard that Yahoshua had captured Ai and had put it under the ban, that he had done to Ai and its sovereign as he had done to Yeriḥo and its sovereign, and that the inhabitants of Giḇ’on had made peace with Yisra’ël and were in their midst,

2 that they feared greatly, because Giḇ’on was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.

3 And Aḏoni-Tseḏeq sovereign of Yerushalayim sent to Hoham sovereign of Ḥeḇron, and to Piram sovereign of Yarmuth, and to Yaphiya sovereign of Laḵish, and to Deḇir sovereign of Eḡlon, saying,

4 “Come up to me and help me, and let us smite Giḇ’on, for it has made peace with Yahoshua and with the children of Yisra’ël.”

5 So the five sovereigns of the Amorites - the sovereign of Yerushalayim, the sovereign of Ḥeḇron, the sovereign of Yarmuth, the sovereign of Laḵish, the sovereign of Eḡlon - gathered together and went up, they and all their armies, and camped before Giḇ’on and fought against it.

6 And the men of Gib'on sent to Yahoshua at the camp at Gilgal, saying, "Do not withdraw your hand from your servants. Come up to us quickly, and save us and help us, for all the sovereigns of the Amorites who dwell in the mountains have assembled against us."

7 And Yahoshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the soldiers with him, and all the mighty brave men.

8 And אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל said to Yahoshua, "Do not fear them, for I have given them into your hand. Not one of them stands before you."

9 So then Yahoshua came upon them suddenly, having gone up all night from Gilgal.

10 And אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל threw them into confusion before Yisra'el, and they smote them with a great smiting at Gib'on, and pursued them along the way that goes to Bēyth Ḥoron, and smote them as far as Azēqah and Maqqēdah.

11 And it came to be, as they fled before Yisra'el and were on the descent of Bēyth Ḥoron, that אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל threw down large hailstones from the shamayim on them as far as Azēqah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than those whom the sons of Yisra'el had slain with the sword.

12 Then Yahoshua spoke to אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל in the day when אִיִּזְרְיָאֵל gave the Amorites over to the children of Yisra'el, and he said before the eyes of Yisra'el, "Sun, stand still over Gib'on; and moon, in the Valley of Ayalon."

13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself upon their enemies. Is this not written in the Book of Yashar? Thus the sun stopped in the midst of the shamayim, and did not hasten to go down for an entire day.

14 And there has been no day like that, before it or after it, that אִיִּזְרָאֵל listened to the voice of a man, because אִיִּזְרָאֵל fought for Yisra'ël.

15 So Yahoshua returned, and all Yisra'ël with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

16 Now these five sovereigns had fled and hidden themselves in a cave at Maqqēḏah.

17 And it was reported to Yahoshua, saying, "The five sovereigns have been found hidden in the cave at Maqqēḏah."

18 And Yahoshua said, "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave, and put men by it to guard them.

19 "And you, do not stand still, but pursue your enemies. And you shall smite them in the rear. Do not allow them to enter their cities, for אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Elohim has given them into your hand."

20 And it came to be, when Yahoshua and the children of Yisra'ël had ended smiting them with a very great smiting, till they had finished - but those who escaped went into walled cities -

21 that all the people returned to the camp, to Yahoshua at Maqqēḏah, in peace. No one moved his tongue against any of the sons of Yisra'ël.

22 Then Yahoshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five sovereigns to me from the cave."

23 And they did so, and brought those five sovereigns to him from the cave: the sovereign of Yerushalayim, the sovereign of Hebron, the sovereign of Yarmuth, the sovereign of Lakish, the sovereign of Eglon.

24 And it came to be, when they brought out those sovereigns to Yahoshua, that Yahoshua called for all the men of Yisra'ël, and said to the chiefs of the men of battle who went with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these sovereigns.” And they drew near and put their feet on their necks.

25 Then Yahoshua said to them, “Do not be afraid nor be discouraged, be strong and courageous, for this is what אֲפָאָז is going to do to all your enemies whom you are fighting.”

26 And afterward Yahoshua smote them and killed them, and hanged them on five trees. And they were hanging on the trees until evening.

27 And it came to be, at the time of the going down of the sun, that Yahoshua commanded, and they took them down from the trees, and threw them into the cave where they had been hidden, and laid large stones against the cave’s mouth, to this day.

28 And on that day Yahoshua captured Maqqēdah, and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and he put its sovereign under the ban - them and all the people who were in it, he left no survivor. And he did to the sovereign of Maqqēdah as he had done to the sovereign of Yeriho.

29 Then Yahoshua passed over, and all Yisra’el with him, from Maqqēdah to Liḅnah. And they fought against Liḅnah.

30 And אֲפָאָז also gave it and its sovereign into the hand of Yisra’el. And he smote it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, he left no survivor in it. And he did to its sovereign as he had done to the sovereign of Yeriho.

31 Then Yahoshua passed over, and all Yisra’el with him, from Liḅnah to Laḱish, and encamped against it and fought against it.

32 And אֲפָאָז gave Laḱish into the hand of Yisra’el, who captured it on the second day, and smote it and all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, according to all that he had done to Liḅnah.

33 Then Horam sovereign of Gezer came up to help Laḳish. And Yahoshua smote him and his people, until he left him no survivor.

34 Then Yahoshua passed over, and all Yisra'el with him, from Laḳish to Eḡlon. And they encamped against it and fought against it, 35 and captured it on that day and smote it with the edge of the sword. And all the beings who were in it he put under the ban that day, according to all that he had done to Laḳish.

36 Then Yahoshua went up, and all Yisra'el with him, from Eḡlon to Hebron, and they fought against it, 37 and captured it and smote it with the edge of the sword, and its sovereign, and all its cities, and all the people who were in it. He left no survivor, according to all that he had done to Eḡlon, but put it and all the people who were in it under the ban.

38 Then Yahoshua returned, and all Yisra'el with him, to Debir, and fought against it, 39 and captured it and its sovereign and all its cities. And they smote them with the edge of the sword and put all the people who were in it under the ban, he left no survivor. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir and its sovereign, as he had done also to Liḡnah and its sovereign.

40 Thus Yahoshua smote all the land: the mountain country and the Negeb and the low country and the wilderness slopes, and all their sovereigns. He left no survivor, but put all that breathed under the ban, as אלהים Elohim of Yisra'el had commanded.

41 And Yahoshua smote them from Qaḡesh Barnea as far as Azzah, and all the land of Goshen, even as far as Giḡ'on.

42 And Yahoshua captured all these sovereigns and their land at one time, because אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël fought for Yisra'ël.

43 And Yahoshua returned, and all Yisra'ël with him, to the camp at Gilgal.

11 And it came to be, when Yaḅin sovereign of Ḥatsor heard, that he sent to Yoḅaḅ sovereign of Maḏon, and to the sovereign of Shimron, and to the sovereign of Aḵshaph,

2 and to the sovereigns who were from the north, in the mountains, and in the desert plain south of Kinneroth, and in the low country, and in the heights of Dor on the west -

3 the Kena'anites in the east and in the west, and the Amorite, and the Ḥittite, and the Perizzite, and the Yeḅusite in the mountains, and the Ḥiwvite below Ḥermon in the land of Mitspah.

4 And they went out, they and all their armies with them, as many people as numerous as the sand on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots.

5 And all these sovereigns met together, and they came and camped together at the waters of Mërom to fight against Yisra'ël.

6 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yahoshua, "Do not be afraid of their presence, for tomorrow about this time I am giving all of them over to Yisra'ël, slain. Hamstring their horses and burn their chariots with fire."

7 And Yahoshua, and all the soldiers with him, came against them suddenly by the waters of Mërom, and they fell on them.

8 And אֱלֹהִים gave them into the hand of Yisra'ël, and they smote them and pursued them to Great Tsidon, and to Misrephoth Mayim, and to the Valley of Mitspěh eastward. And they smote them until no survivor was left to them.

9 And Yahoshua did to them as אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to him: he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots with fire.

10 And Yahoshua turned back at that time and captured Ḥatsor, and smote its sovereign with the sword, for Ḥatsor was formerly the head of all those reigns.

11 And they smote all the people who were in it with the edge of the sword, putting them under the ban. He did not leave anyone breathing. Then he burned Ḥatsor with fire.

12 And Yahoshua captured all the cities of those sovereigns, and all their sovereigns, and he smote them with the edge of the sword. He put them under the ban, as Mosheh the servant of אִיִּזְרָאֵל commanded.

13 However, Yisra'ěl did not burn any cities that stood on their mounds, but Yahoshua burned only Ḥatsor.

14 And all the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the children of Yisra'ěl took as booty for themselves. But they smote every man with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them, and they did not leave anyone breathing.

15 As אִיִּזְרָאֵל had commanded Mosheh his servant, so Mosheh commanded Yahoshua, and so Yahoshua did. He did not turn aside a word of all that אִיִּזְרָאֵל had commanded Mosheh.

16 Thus Yahoshua took all this land: the mountain country, and all the Negeb, and all the land of Goshen, and the low country, and the desert plain, and the mountains of Yisra'ěl and its low lands,

17 from Mount Ḥalaq that goes up to Sě'ir, and as far as Ba'al Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Ḥermon. And he captured all their sovereigns, and smote them and killed them.

18 Yahoshua fought with all those sovereigns for a long time.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Yisra'ël, except the Ḥiwrites, the inhabitants of Gib'on. All the others they took in battle.

20 For it was of אִיִּזְרָאֵל to harden their hearts, that they should come against Yisra'ël in battle, in order to put them under the ban, so that they might have no favour, but that He might annihilate them, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had commanded Mosheh.

21 And at that time Yahoshua came and cut off the Anaqim from the mountains, from Ḥeb̄ron, from Deḇir, from Anaḇ, and from all the mountains of Yahud̄ah, and from all the mountains of Yisra'ël. Yahoshua put them with their cities under the ban.

22 There were none of the Anaqim left in the land of the children of Yisra'ël; only in Azzah, in Gath, and in Ashdoḡ some remained.

23 Thus Yahoshua took the entire land, according to all that אִיִּזְרָאֵל had said to Mosheh. And Yahoshua gave it as an inheritance to Yisra'ël according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from fighting.

12 And these are the sovereigns of the land whom the children of Yisra'ël smote, and whose land they possessed beyond the Yardēn towards the sun-rising, from the wadi Arnon to Mount Ḥermon, and all the desert plain eastward:

2 Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites, who dwelt in Ḥeshbon, ruling from Aro'ēr, which is on the bank of the wadi Arnon, from the middle of that wadi, and half

Gil'ad, even as far as the wadi Yabboq, the border of the children of Ammon,

3 and the desert plain from the Sea of Kinneroth eastward as far as the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, the way to Běyth Yeshimoth, and southward below the slopes of Pisgah,

4 and the border of Oḡ, sovereign of Bashan, who was of the remnant of the Repha'ites, who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edre'i,

5 and ruled in Mount Ḥermon, and in Salkah, and in all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Ma'akathites, and the half of Gil'ad as far as the border of Siḥon sovereign of Ḥeshbon.

6 Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהֵינוּ and the children of Yisra'el had smitten them. And Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהֵינוּ had given it as a possession to the Re'ubēnites, and to the Gaḏites, and to half the tribe of Menashsheh.

7 And these are the sovereigns of the land which Yahoshua and the children of Yisra'el smote beyond the Yardēn, on the west, from Ba'al Gaḏ in the Valley of Leḇanon as far as Mount Ḥalaq that goes up to Sě'ir, which Yahoshua gave to the tribes of Yisra'el as a possession according to their divisions,

8 in the mountain country, and in the low country, and in the desert plain, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the Negeb, the Ḥittites, the Amorites and the Kena'anites, the Perizzites, the Ḥiwwites, and the Yebusites:

9 the sovereign of Yeriḥo, one; the sovereign of Ai, which is beside Běyth Ēl, one;

10 the sovereign of Yerushalayim, one; the sovereign of Ḥebron, one;

11 the sovereign of Yarmuth, one; the sovereign of Laḵish, one;

- 12 the sovereign of Eḡlon, one; the sovereign of Gezer, one;
- 13 the sovereign of Deḡir, one; the sovereign of Geḡer, one;
- 14 the sovereign of Ḥormah, one; the sovereign of Araḡ, one;
- 15 the sovereign of Liḡnah, one; the sovereign of Aḡullam, one;
- 16 the sovereign of Maqqēḡah, one; the sovereign of Bēyth Ēl, one;
- 17 the sovereign of Tappuah, one; the sovereign of Ḥēpher, one;
- 18 the sovereign of Aphēq, one; the sovereign of Sharon, one;
- 19 the sovereign of Maḡon, one; the sovereign of Ḥatsor, one;
- 20 the sovereign of Shimron Mēron, one; the sovereign of Aḡshaph, one;
- 21 the sovereign of Ta'anak, one; the sovereign of Meḡiddo, one;
- 22 the sovereign of Qeḡesh, one; the sovereign of Yoqne'am in Karmel, one;
- 23 the sovereign of Dor in the heights of Dor, one; the sovereign of the nations of Gilgal, one;
- 24 the sovereign of Tirtsah, one. Thirty-one sovereigns in all.

13 And Yahoshua was old, advanced in years. And אֶלְנָתַן said to him, "You are old, advanced in years, and still much of the land remains to be possessed.

2 "This is the land that remains: all the districts of the Pelishtites and all the Geshurites,

3 from Shiḡor which is in front of Mitsrayim, and up to the border of Eqron northward, are considered as Kena'anite - the five princes of the Pelishtites, the

Azzathites, and the Ashdodites, the Eshqelonites, the Gittites, and the Eqronites; also the Awwites

4 on the south; all the land of the Kena'anites, and Me'arah that belongs to the Tsidonians as far as Aphëq, to the border of the Amorites;

5 and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Ba'al Gađ below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath;

6 all the inhabitants of the mountains from Lebanon as far as Misrephoth Mayim, and all the Tsidonians. I Myself drive them out from before the children of Yisra'ël. Only, divide it by lot to Yisra'ël as an inheritance, as I have commanded you.

7 "And now, divide this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half the tribe of Menashsheh."

8 With them the other half tribe the Re'uḃënites and the Gađites received their inheritance, which Mosheh had given them, beyond the Yardën eastward, as Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהֵינוּ had given them:

9 from Aro'ër which is on the bank of the wadi Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the wadi, and all the plain of Mëydeḃa as far as Diḃon;

10 and all the cities of Siḃon sovereign of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, as far as the border of the children of Ammon;

11 and Gil'ađ, and the border of the Geshurites, and of the Ma'aḃathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan as far as Salḃah;

12 all the reign of Oḡ in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edre'i, who remained of the remnant of the Repha'ites, for Mosheh had smitten and dispossessed them.

13 However, the children of Yisra'ël did not drive out the Geshurites nor the Ma'aḃathites, so the Geshurites and the Ma'aḱathites dwell in the midst of Yisra'ël to this day.

14 Only to the tribe of Lěwi he gave no inheritance - the offerings made by fire to אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël were their inheritance, as He said to them.

15 And Mosheh gave to the tribe of the children of Re'uḅēn, for their clans:

16 and their border was from Aro'ēr, which is on the bank of the wadi Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the wadi, and all the plain by Měydeḅa,

17 Ḥeshbon and all its cities that are in the plain: Dibon, and Bamoth Ba'al, and Běyth Ba'al Me'on,

18 and Yahtsah, and Qeděmoth, and Měpha'ath,

19 and Qiryathayim, and Siḅmah, and Tsereth Shaḅar on the mountain of the valley,

20 and Běyth Pe'or, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Běyth Yeshimoth;

21 and all the cities of the tableland, and all the reign of Siḅon sovereign of the Amorites, who reigned in Ḥeshbon, whom Mosheh had smitten with the princes of Miḅyan: Ewi, and Reqem, and Tsur, and Ḥur, and Reḅa, princes of Siḅon dwelling in the land.

22 And the sons of Yisra'ël killed with the sword Bil'am son of Be'or, the diviner, among those who were killed by them.

23 And the border of the children of Re'uḅēn was the bank of the Yardēn. This was the inheritance of the children of Re'uḅēn for their clans, the cities and their villages.

24 And Mosheh gave to the tribe of Gaḅ, to the children of Gaḅ for their clans:

25 and their border was Ya'zēr, and all the cities of Gil'aḅ, and half the land of the children of Ammon as far as Aro'ēr, which is before Rabbah,

26 and from Heshbon to Ramath Mitspēh and Betonim, and Maḥanayim to the border of Deḅir, 27 and in the valley Bēyth ha'Ram, and Bēyth Nimrah, and Sukkoth, and Tsaphon, the rest of the reign of Siḥon sovereign of Heshbon, the Yardēn being its border, as far as the edge of the Sea of Kinnereth, beyond the Yardēn eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gaḍ for their clans, the cities and their villages.

29 And Mosheh gave to half the tribe of Menashsheh, and it was for half the tribe of the children of Menashsheh for their clans:

30 and their border was from Maḥanayim, all Bashan, all the reign of Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, and all the small towns of Ya'ir which are in Bashan, sixty cities;

31 and the half of Gil'aḍ, and Ashtaroth and Edre'i, cities of the reign of Oḡ in Bashan, were for the children of Maḳir son of Menashsheh, to the half of the children of Maḳir for their clans.

32 These Mosheh gave as an inheritance in the desert plains of Mo'aḅ beyond the Yardēn, by Yeriḥo eastward.

33 But to the tribe of Lēwi Mosheh gave no inheritance. אֱלֹהִים, Elohim of Yisra'ēl, He was their inheritance, as He had said to them.

14 Now these the children of Yisra'ēl inherited in the land of Kena'an, which El'azar the kohēn, and Yahoshua son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'ēl caused them to inherit.

2 Their inheritance was by lot, as אֱלֹהִים had commanded by the hand of Mosheh, for the nine tribes and the half-tribe.

3 For Mosheh had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half-tribe beyond the Yardën, but to the Lëwites he gave no inheritance in their midst.

4 For the children of Yosëph had become two tribes: Menashsheh and Ephrayim. And they gave no part to the Lëwites in the land, except cities to dwell in, with their open land for their livestock and their possessions.

5 As אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh, so the children of Yisra'ël did, and they divided the land.

6 And the children of Yahudāh came to Yahoshua in Gilgal, and Kalëb son of Yephunneh the Qenizzite said to him, "You know the word which אֱלֹהִים said to Mosheh the man of Elohim concerning you and me in Qadësh Barnëa.

7 "I was forty years old when Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים sent me from Qadësh Barnëa to spy out the land, and I brought back word to him as it was in my heart.

8 "But my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt, but I followed אֱלֹהִים my Elohim completely.

9 "So Mosheh swore on that day, saying, 'The land on which your foot has trodden is your inheritance and your children's forever, because you have followed אֱלֹהִים my Elohim completely.'

10 "And now, see, אֱלֹהִים has kept me alive, as He said, these forty-five years since אֱלֹהִים spoke this word to Mosheh while Yisra'ël walked in the wilderness. And now, see, I am eighty-five years old today.

11 "Yet I am still as strong today as I was on the day that Mosheh sent me. As my strength was then, so my strength is now, for battle, and for going out and for coming in.

12 “And now, give me this mountain of which אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke in that day, for you heard in that day how the Anaqim were there, and that the cities were great and walled. If אִיִּזְרָאֵל is with me, then I shall dispossess them, as אִיִּזְרָאֵל said.”

13 Yahoshua then barak<sub>u</sub> him, and gave Hebron to Kalēb son of Yephunneh as an inheritance.

14 So Hebron became the inheritance of Kalēb son of Yephunneh the Qenizzite to this day, because he followed אִיִּזְרָאֵל Elohim of Yisra’ēl completely.

15 Now the name of Hebron was formerly Qiryath Arba, the greatest man among the Anaqim. And the land had rest from fighting.

15 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Yahuda<sub>h</sub> for their clans was to the border of Edom, the Wilderness of Tsin southward in the extreme south.

2 And their southern border began at the edge of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces southward.

3 And it went out to the southern side of the Ascent of Aqrabbim, passed over to Tsin, and went up on the south side of Qadēsh Barnēa, and passed over to Hetsron, went up to Adar, and went around to Qarqa,
4 and passed over to Atsmon, and went out to the wadi of Mitsrayim, and the border ended at the sea. This is your southern border.

5 And the east border was the Salt Sea as far as the end of the Yardēn. And the border on the northern quarter began at the bay of the sea at the end of the Yardēn.

6 And the border went up to Bēyth Hoḡlah and passed over north of Bēyth Araḇah. And the border went up to the stone of Bohan son of Re’uḇēn.

7 And the border went up toward Deḇir from the Valley of Aḵor, and it turned northward toward Gilgal, which is before the Ascent of Adummim, which is south of the wadi. And the border passed over to the waters of Ĕyn Shemesh and ended at Ĕyn Roġel.

8 And the border went up by the Valley of Bēn Hinnom to the southern slope of the Yebusite city, that is Yerushalayim. And the border went up to the top of the mountain that lies before the Valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the Valley of Repha'im northward.

9 And the border went around from the top of the hill to the fountain of the water of Nephtowaḥ, and went up to the cities of Mount Ephron. And the border went around to Ba'alah, that is Qiryath Ye'arim.

10 And the border turned around from Ba'alah westward to Mount Sē'ir, and passed over to the side of Mount Ye'arim on the north, that is Kesalon, and went down to Bēyth Shemesh, and passed over to Timnah.

11 And the border went out to the side of Eqron northward. And the border went around to Shikkeron, and passed over to Mount Ba'alah, and went out to Yaḅne'el. And the border ended at the sea.

12 And the west border was the coastline of the Great Sea. This is the boundary of the children of Yahudaḥ all around for their clans.

13 And to Kalēḅ son of Yephunneh he gave a portion in the midst of the children of Yahudaḥ, according to the command of אִרְאַז to Yahoshua: Qiryath Arba, that is Hebron - Arba was the father of Anaq.

14 And Kalēḅ drove out the three sons of Anaq from there: Shēshai, and Aḥiman, and Talmai, the children of Anaq.

15 And he went up from there to the inhabitants of Deḅir, and the name of Deḅir formerly was Qiryath Sēpher.

16 And Kalēḅ said, "He who smites Qiryath Sēpher and shall capture it, to him I shall give Aḳsah my daughter as wife."

17 And Othni'el son of Qenaz, the brother of Kalēb, captured it, so he gave him Aḳsah his daughter as wife.

18 And it came to be, when she came to him, that she persuaded him to ask her father for a field. And when she got off from the donkey, Kalēb said to her, "What is the matter?"

19 And she said, "Give me a beraḳah. Since you have given me land in the Negeb, give me also fountains of water." And he gave her the upper fountains and the lower fountains.

20 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Yahudaḥ for their clans:

21 And the cities at the furthest border of the tribe of the children of Yahudaḥ, toward the border of Eḏom in the Negeb, were Qabtse'el, and Eḏer, and Yaḡur,

22 and Qinah, and Dimonah, and Aḏaḏah,

23 and Qeḏesh, and Ḥatsor, and Yithnan,

24 Ziph, and Telem, and Be'aloth,

25 and Ḥatsor, Ḥaḏattah, and Qeriyoth, Ḥetsron, that is Ḥatsor,

26 Amam, and Shema, and Molaḏah,

27 and Ḥatsar Gaddah, and Ḥeshmon, and Bēyth Pelet,

28 and Ḥatsar Shu'al, and Be'ērsheḃa, and Bizyothyah,

29 Ba'alalah, and Iyim, and Etsem,

30 and Eltolad, and Kesil, and Ḥormah,

31 and Tsiqlaḡ, and Maḏmannah, and Sansannah,

32 and Leḃa'oth, and Shilḥim, and Ayin, and Rimmon. All the cities were twenty-nine, with their villages.

33 In the low country: Eshta'ol, and Tsor'ah, and Ashnah,

34 and Zanowah, and Eyn Gannim, Tappuah and Eynam,

35 Yarmuth and Aḏullam, Soḳoh and Azēqah,

36 and Sha'arayim, and Adithayim, and Gedërah, and Gedërothayim - fourteen cities with their villages.
 37 Tsenan, and Haḏashah, and Miḡdal Gaḏ,
 38 and Dil'an, and Mitspëh, and Yoqthe'ël,
 39 Laḱish, and Botsqath, and Eḡlon,
 40 and Kabbon, and Laḥmam, and Kithlish,
 41 and Gedëroth, Bëyth Daḡon, and Na'amah, and Maqqëḏah - sixteen cities with their villages.
 42 Liḃnah, and Ether, and Ashan,
 43 and Yiphtaḥ, and Ashnah, and Netsiḃ,
 44 and Qe'ilah, and Akzib, and Marëshah - nine cities
 with their villages.
 45 Eqron with its towns and its villages,
 46 from Eqron to the sea, all that were by the side of Ashdoḡ, with their villages.
 47 Ashdoḡ, its towns and its villages; Azzah, its towns and its villages; as far as the wadi of Mitsrayim and the Great Sea with its coastline.
 48 And in the mountain country: Shamir, and Yattir, and Soḱoh,
 49 and Dannah, and Qiryath Sannah, that is Deḃir,
 50 and Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim,
 51 and Goshen, and Ḥolon, and Giloh - eleven cities
 with their villages.
 52 Arab, and Dumah, and Esh'an,
 53 and Yanim, and Bëyth Tappuah, and Aphëqah,
 54 and Ḥumtah, and Qiryath Arba, that is Ḥeḃron, and Tsi'or - nine cities with their villages.
 55 Ma'on, Karmel, and Ziph, and Yuttah,
 56 and Yizre'ël, and Yoqḏe'am, and Zanowah, 57 Qayin, Giḃ'ah, and Timnah - ten cities with their villages.
 58 Ḥalḥul, Bëyth Tsur, and Gedor,
 59 and Ma'arath, and Bëyth Anoth, and Elteqon - six cities with their villages.
 60 Qiryath Ba'al, that is Qiryath Ye'arim, and Rabbah
 - two cities with their villages.

61 In the wilderness: Běyth Arabah, Middin, and Sekakah,

62 and Nibshan, and the City of Salt, and Ĕyn Gedī - six cities with their villages.

63 As for the Yebusites, the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, the children of Yahudah were unable to drive them out, so the Yebusites have dwelt with the children of Yahudah at Yerushalayim to this day.

16 And the lot for the children of Yosěph went out from the Yarděn, by Yeriho, to the waters of Yeriho on the east, to the wilderness going up from Yeriho through the mountains to Běyth Ĕl,

2 and went out from Běyth Ĕl to Luz, and passed over to the border of the Arkites at Ataroth,

3 and went down westward to the boundary of the Yaphlětites, as far as the boundary of Lower Běyth Ĥoron to Gezer, and it ended at the sea.

4 Thus the children of Yosěph, Menashsheh and Ephrayim, inherited.

5 And the border of the children of Ephrayim, according to their clans, was: The border of their inheritance on the east side was Ataroth Addar as far as Upper Běyth Ĥoron.

6 And the border went out toward the sea, to Mikmethath on the north, then the border went around eastward to Ta'anath Shiloh, and passed over it on the east of Yanoḥah,

7 and went down from Yanoḥah to Ataroth and Na'arah, reached to Yeriho, and came out at the Yarděn.

8 From Tappuah the border went westward to the wadi Qanah, and it ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephrayim for their clans.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephrayim were in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Menashsheh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they did not drive out the Kena'anites who dwelt in Gezer, so the Kena'anites dwell among the Ephrayimites to this day and have become compulsory labour.

17 And the lot for the tribe of Menashsheh, for he was the first-born of Yosëph, was: for Maķir the first-born of Menashsheh, father of Gil'aḍ, because he was a man of battle, therefore he had Gil'aḍ and Bashan.

2 And for the rest of the children of Menashsheh for their clans there was: for the children of Aḅi'ezer, and for the children of Hëleq, and for the children of Asri'ël, and for the children of Sheķem, and for the children of Hëpher, and for the children of Shemiḍa. These were the male children of Menashsheh son of Yosëph according to their clans.

3 But Tselapheḥaḍ son of Hëpher, son of Gil'aḍ, son of Maķir, son of Menashsheh, had no sons, but only daughters. And these were the names of his daughters: Maḥlah and No'ah, Hoḡlah, Milkah and Tirtsah.

4 And they came near before El'azar the kohën, before Yahoshua son of Nun, and before the rulers, saying, "אִתְּכֶם commanded Mosheh to give us an inheritance among our brothers." So he gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers, according to the command of אִתְּכֶם.

5 And ten portions fell to Menashsheh, besides the land of Gil'aḍ and Bashan, which were beyond the Yardën,

6 because the daughters Menashsheh received an inheritance among his sons. And the rest of Menashsheh's sons had the land of Gil'aḍ.

7 And the border of Menashsheh was from Ashër to Miķmethath, which faces Sheķem. And the border went up to the right to the inhabitants of Ĕyn Tappuah.

8 The land of Tappuah belonged to Menashsheh, but Tappuah on the border of Menashsheh belonged to the children of Ephrayim.

9 And the border went down to the wadi Qanah, southward to the wadi. These cities of Ephrayim were in the midst of the cities of Menashsheh, but the border of Menashsheh was north of the wadi, and it ended at the sea.

10 Southward it was Ephrayim's, and northward it was Menashsheh's, and the sea was its border, and they reached to Ashër on the north and to Yissaskar on the east.

11 And in Yissaskar and in Ashër, Menashsheh had Bëyth She'an and its towns, and Yible'am and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Ęyn Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Ta'anaḵ and its towns, and the inhabitants of Meḡiddo and its towns - three of the heights.

12 But the children of Menashsheh were unable to drive out the inhabitants of those cities, for the Kena'anites desired to dwell in that land.

13 And it came to be, when the children of Yisra'ël were strong, that they put the Kena'anites to compulsory labour, but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Yosëph spoke to Yahoshua, saying, "Why have you given us but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing we are a great people whom אִתָּנוּ has barak until now?"

15 And Yahoshua said to them, "If you are a great people, go up to the forest and clear a place for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and the Repha'ites, since the hill country of Ephrayim is too narrow for you."

16 Then the children of Yosëph said, "The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Kena'anites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are of Běyth She'an and its towns and those who are of the Valley of Yizre'ěl.”

17 And Yahoshua spoke to the house of Yosěph, to Ephrayim and to Menashsheh, saying, “You are a great people and have great power, you are not to have one lot,

18 for the hill country shall be yours. For though it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its farthest limits shall be yours. For you are to drive out the Kena'anites, though they have iron chariots and are strong.”

18 And all the congregation of the children of Yisra'ěl assembled at Shiloh, and they let the Tent of Appointment dwell there. And the land was subdued before them.

2 And seven tribes were left among the children of Yisra'ěl who had not yet shared their inheritance.

3 So Yahoshua said to the children of Yisra'ěl, “Till when are you going to fail to go in and possess the land which אֱלֹהִים Elohim of your fathers has given you?

4 “Appoint three men from each tribe, and let me send them out to go through the land and describe it according to their inheritance, and come back to me.

5 “And they shall divide it into seven portions - Yahudāh stays within their border on the south, and the house of Yosěph stays within their border on the north -

6 and you shall describe the land in seven portions, and shall bring it to me. Then I shall cast lots for you here before אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.

7 “But the Lěwites have no portion among you, for the kehunnah of אֱלֹהִים is their inheritance. And Gad, and Re'uběn, and half the tribe of Menashsheh have received their inheritance beyond the Yarděn on the east, which Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים gave them.”

8 So the men rose up and went. And Yahoshua commanded those who went to describe the land, saying, "Go, walk through the land, and describe it, and come back to me, and let me cast lots for you here before אִרְאֵל in Shiloh."

9 So the men went, and passed through the land, and described it in a book in seven portions by cities. And they came to Yahoshua at the camp in Shiloh.

10 And Yahoshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before אִרְאֵל, and there Yahoshua divided the land to the children of Yisra'el according to their portions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Binyamin came up for their clans, and the border of their lot came out between the children of Yahudaḥ and the children of Yosëph.

12 And their border was on the north side from the Yardën, and the border went up to the side of Yeriḥo on the north, and went up through the mountains westward, and ended at the Wilderness of Bëyth Awen.

13 And the border went over from there toward Luz, to the side of Luz, that is Bëyth Ēl, southward. And the border went down to Ataroth Aḡar, by the hill that lies on the south side of Lower Bëyth Ḥoron.

14 And the border was drawn and went around the west side to the south, from the hill that faces Bëyth Ḥoron southward, and it ended at Qiryath Ba'al, that is Qiryath Ye'arim, a city of the children of Yahudaḥ. This was the west side.

15 And the south side was from the end of Qiryath Ye'arim, and the border went out westward, and went out to the fountain of the waters of Nephtowaḥ.

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that faces the Valley of Bën Hinnom, which is in the Valley of the Repha'im on the north, and went down to the Valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Yebusite city on the south, and went down to Ēyn Rogël.

17 And it was drawn from the north, went out to Ĕyn Shemesh, and went out toward Geliloth, which is opposite the Ascent of Ađummim, and went down to the stone of Bohan son of Re'uḃēn,
 18 and passed over to the side opposite Araḃah northward, and went down to Araḃah.
 19 And the border passed over to the side of Běyth Hoḡlah northward, and the border ended at the north bay at the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Yardēn. This was the southern boundary,
 20 and the Yardēn borders it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Binyamin, according to its boundaries all around, for their clans.
 21 And the cities for the tribe of the children of Binyamin, for their clans, were Yeriḡo, and Běyth Hoḡlah, and Ĕmeq Qetsits,
 22 and Běyth Araḃah, Tsemarayim, and Běyth Ĕl,
 23 and Awwim, and Parah, Ophrah,
 24 and Kephah ha'Ammoni, and Ophni, and Gaḃa - twelve cities with their villages.
 25 Giḃ'on, and Ramah, and Be'ěroth,
 26 and Mitspěh, and Kephirah, and Motsah,
 27 and Reqem, and Yirpe'ěl, and Taralah,
 28 and Tsela, Eleph, and the Yeḃusite, that is Yerushalayim, Giḃ'ath and Qiryath - fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the children of Binyamin for their clans.

19 And the second lot came out for Shim'on, for the tribe of the children of Shim'on for their clans. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Yahudah.

2 And they had in their inheritance Be'ěrsheḃa, or Sheḃa, and Moladāh,
 3 and Ḥatsar Shu'al, and Balah, and Etsem,
 4 and Ĕtolaḃ, and Bethul, and Ḥormah,
 5 and Tsiqlaḡ, and Běyth Markaḃoth, and Ḥatsar Susah,

6 and Běyth Leḅa'oth, and Sharuḅen - thirteen cities and their villages.

7 Ayin, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan - four cities and their villages;

8 and all the villages that were all around these cities as far as Ba'alath Be'ēr, Ramath Neḡeb. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Shim'on for their clans.

9 The inheritance of the children of Shim'on was out of the portion of the children of Yahudah, for the portion of the children of Yahudah was too much for them. So the children of Shim'on had their inheritance within their inheritance.

10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun for their clans, and the border of their inheritance was as far as Sarid.

11 And their border went toward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to Dabbesheth, and reached to the wadi that faced Yoqne'am, 12 and turned back from Sarid eastward toward the sunrise, to the border of Kisloth Taḅor, and went out toward Daḅerath, and went up to Yaphiya.

13 And from there it passed over eastward, to the east of Gath Hěpher, toward Eth Qatsin, and went out to Rimmon, which borders on Ně'ah.

14 And the border went around it on the north side of Ḥannathon, and it ended in the Valley of Yiphthaḅ Ĕl; 15 also Qattath, and Nahalal, and Shimron, and Yiḡalah, and Běyth Leḅem - twelve cities with their villages.

16 This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun for their clans, these cities with their villages.

17 The fourth lot came out Yissaskar, for the children Yissaskar, for their clans.

18 And their border was toward Yizre'el, and Kesulloth, and Shunēm,

19 and Ḥapharayim, and Shiyon, and Anaḅarath,

20 and Rabbith, and Qishyon, and Eḅets,

21 and Remeth, and Ĕyn Gannim, and Ĕyn Ḥaddah, and Běyth Patstsěts.

22 And the border reached to Taḃor, and Shaḥatsimah, and Běyth Shemesh, and their border ended at the Yarděn - sixteen cities with their villages.

23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Yissaskar for their clans, the cities and their villages.

24 And the fifth lot came out for the tribe of the children of Ashěr for their clans.

25 And their border was Ḥelqath, and Ḥali, and Beten, and Aḳshaph,

26 and Allammeleḳ, and Amaḍ, and Mish'al. And it reached to Mount Karmel westward, and to Brook Shiḥor Liḃnath, 27 and turned toward the sunrise, to Běyth Daḡon, and reached to Zeḃulun and to the Valley of Yiphthaḥ Ĕl, then northward beyond Běyth ha'Ĕmeq and Ne'i'ěl, and went out to Kaḃul which was on the left, 28 and Ḥeḃron, and Reḥoḃ, and Ḥammon, and Qanah, as far as Great Tsiḡon.

29 And the border turned to Ramah and to the strong city Tsor, and the border turned to Ḥosah, and ended at the sea, from the coast to Aḳziḃ.

30 And Ummaḥ, and Aphěq, and Reḥoḃ were included - twenty-two cities with their villages.

31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ashěr for their clans, these cities with their villages.

32 The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, for the children of Naphtali for their clans.

33 And their border was from Ḥěleph, from the terebinth tree in Tsa'anannim, and Aḍami Neqeḃ, and Yaḃne'ěl, as far as Laqqum, and it ended at the Yarděn.

34 And the border turned westward to Aznoth Taḃor, and went out from there toward Ḥuqqoq, and reached to Zeḃulun on the south side and Ashěr on the west side, and ended at Yahudāh by the Yardēn toward the sunrise.

35 And the cities of defence were Tsiddim, Tsēr, and Ḥammath, Raqqath, and Kinnereth,
 36 and Aḍamah, and Ramah, and Ḥatsor,
 37 and Qeḍesh, and Edre'i, and Ĕyn Ḥatsor,
 38 and Yiron, and Miḡdal Ĕl, Ḥorēm, and Běyth Anath, and Běyth Shemesh - nineteen cities with their villages.

39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali for their clans, the cities with their villages.

40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan for their clans.

41 And the border of their inheritance was Tsor'ah, and Eshta'ol, and Ir Shemesh,

42 and Sha'alabbin, and Ayalon, and Yithlah,

43 and Ĕylon, and Timnathah, and Eqron,

44 and Elteqēh, and Gibbethon, and Ba'alath,

45 and Yahud, and Beněy Beraq, and Gath Rimmon,

46 and Měy Yarqon, and Raqqon, with the border before Yapho.

47 And the border of the children of Dan went out from them. And the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem and captured it. And they smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt in it, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father.

48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan for their clans, these cities with their villages.

49 And when they had ended dividing the land as an inheritance according to their borders, the children of Yisra'el gave an inheritance to Yahoshua son of Nun in their midst.

50 According to the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל they gave him the city which he asked for, Timnath Serah in the mountains of Ephrayim. And he built the city and dwelt in it.

51 These were the inheritances which El'azar the kohēn, and Yahoshua son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'ēl divided as an inheritance by lot in Shiloh before אִיִּזְרָאֵל, at the door of the Tent of Appointment. And they ended dividing the country.

20 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to Yahoshua, saying,

2 “Speak to the children of Yisra'ēl, saying, ‘Appoint for yourselves cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you through Mosheh,

3 for the slayer who kills any being accidentally, unintentionally, to flee there. And they shall be your refuge from the revenger of blood.

4 ‘And he shall flee to one of those cities, and stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declare his case in the hearing of the elders of that city. And they shall take him into the city as one of them, and give him a place, and he shall dwell among them.

5 ‘And when the revenger of blood pursues him, they do not give the slayer into his hand, because he smote his neighbour unintentionally, and did not hate him beforehand.

6 ‘And he shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for right-ruling, and until the death of the one who is kohēn ha'gadol in those days. Then let the slayer return and come to his own city and his own house, to the city from which he fled.’ ”

7 So they qadosh Qedesh in Galil, in the mountains of Naphtali, and Shekem in the mountains of Ephrayim, and Qiryath Arba, that is Hebron, in the mountains of Yahudah.

8 And beyond the Yardēn, by Yeriho eastward, they appointed Betser in the wilderness on the plain, from the tribe of Re'ubēn, and Ramoth in Gil'ad, from the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Menashsheh.

9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Yisra'ël and for the stranger who sojourned in their midst, for anyone accidentally killing any being, to flee there, and not die by the hand of the revenger of blood until he stood before the congregation.

21 And the heads of the fathers of the Lëwites came near to El'azar the kohën, to Yahoshua son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Yisra'ël.

2 And they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Kena'an, saying, "אִי־אָז־ commanded through Mosheh to give us cities to dwell in, with their open land for our livestock."

3 So the children of Yisra'ël gave to the Lëwites from their inheritance, at the command of אִי־אָז־, these cities and their open land:

4 And the lot came out for the clans of the Qehathites. And the children of Aharon the kohën, who were of the Lëwites, had thirteen cities by lot from the tribe of Yahudaḥ, from the tribe of Shim'on, and from the tribe of Binyamin.

5 And the rest of the children of Qehath had ten cities by lot from the clans of the tribe of Ephrayim, from the tribe of Dan, and from the half-tribe of Menashsheh.

6 And the children of Gëreshon had thirteen cities by lot from the clans of the tribe of Yissaskar, from the tribe of Ashër, from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the half-tribe of Menashsheh in Bashan.

7 The children of Merari for their clans had twelve cities from the tribe of Re'uḃën, and from the tribe of Gaḏ, and from the tribe of Zëbulun.

8 Thus the children of Yisra'ël gave these cities with their open land by lot to the Lëwites, as אִי־אָז־ had commanded by the hand of Mosheh.

9 So from the tribe of the children of Yahudāh and from the tribe of the children of Shim'on they gave these cities which are mentioned by name,
10 and they were for the children of Aharon, one of the clans of the Qehathites, who were of the children of Lēwi, for the lot was theirs first.
11 And they gave them Qiryath Arba, the father of Anaq - that is Hebron - in the mountains of Yahudāh, with the open land surrounding it.
12 And the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Kalēb son of Yephunneh as his possession.
13 But to the children of Aharon the kohēn they gave Hebron with its open land - a city of refuge for the slayer - and Libnah with its open land,
14 and Yattir with its open land, and Eshtemoa with its open land,
15 and Holon with its open land, and Debir with its open land,
16 and Ayin with its open land, and Yuttah with its open land, and Bēyth Shemesh with its open land - nine cities from those two tribes.
17 And from the tribe of Binyamin, Gib'on with its open land, Geḇa with its open land, 18 Anathoth with its open land, and Almon with its open land - four cities.
19 All the cities of the children of Aharon, the kohenim, were thirteen cities with their open lands.
20 And the clans of the children of Qehath, the Lēwites, the rest of the children of Qehath, even they had the cities of their lot from the tribe of Ephrayim.
21 And they gave them Shekem with its open land in the mountains of Ephrayim as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Gezer with its open land,
22 and Qibtsayim with its open land, and Bēyth Horon with its open land - four cities.
23 And from the tribe of Dan, Elteqēh with its open land, Gibbethon with its open land, 24 Ayalon with its open land, and Gath Rimmon with its open land - four cities.

25 And from the half-tribe of Menashsheh, Ta'anak with its open land, and Gath Rimmon with its open land - two cities.

26 All the ten cities with their open lands were for the rest of the clans of the children of Qehath.

27 And to the children of Gěreshon, of the clans of the Lěwites, from the other half-tribe of Menashsheh, they gave Golan in Bashan with its open land as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Be'eshterah with its open land - two cities.

28 And from the tribe of Yissaskar, Qishyon with its open land, Daberath with its open land, 29 Yarmuth with its open land, and Ĕyn Gannim with its open land - four cities.

30 And from the tribe of Ashěr, Mish'al with its open land, Abdon with its open land, 31 Helqath with its open land, and Reḥob with its open land - four cities.

32 And from the tribe of Naphtali, Qedesh in Galil with its open land as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Hammoth Dor with its open land, and Qartan with its open land - three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gěreshonites for their clans were thirteen cities with their open land.

34 And to the clans of the children of Merari, the rest of the Lěwites, from the tribe of Zeḅulun, Yoqne'am with its open land, Qartah with its open land, 35 Dimnah with its open land, Nahalal with its open land - four cities.

36 And from the tribe of Re'uḅēn, Betser with its open land, Yahtsah with its open land, 37 Qeděmoth with its open land, and Měpha'ath with its open land - four cities.

38 And from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gil'ad with its open land as a city of refuge for the slayer, and Maḥanayim with its open land, 39 Heshbon with its open land, Ya'zër with its open land - four cities in all.

40 All the cities for the children of Merari for their clans, the rest of the clans of the Lěwites, were by their lot twelve cities.

41 All the cities of the Lěwites within the possession of the children of Yisra'ěl were forty-eight cities with their open lands.

42 Each of these cities had its open land surrounding it. So it was with all these cities.

43 Thus אֱלֹהִים gave to Yisra'ěl all the land of which He had sworn to give to their fathers, and they took possession of it, and dwelt in it.

44 And אֱלֹהִים gave them rest all around, according to all that He had sworn to their fathers. And not a man of all their enemies stood against them, אֱלֹהִים gave all their enemies into their hand.

45 Not a word failed of any good word which אֱלֹהִים had spoken to the house of Yisra'ěl - all came in.

22 Then Yahoshua called for the Re'ubēnites, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Menashsheh,

2 and said to them, "You, you have guarded all that Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים commanded you, and have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.

3 "You have not left your brothers these many days, up to this day, but have guarded the Charge, the Command of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

4 "And now אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has given rest to your brothers, as He promised them. So now, return and go to your tents and to the land of your possession, which Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים gave you beyond the Yardēn.

5 "Only, diligently guard to do the Command and the Torah which Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים commanded you, to love אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and to walk in all His Ways, and to guard His Commands, and to cling to Him, and to serve Him with all your heart and with all your being.”

6 And Yahoshua barak them and sent them away, and they went to their tents.

7 And to half the tribe of Menashsheh Mosheh had given a possession in Bashan, but to the half of it Yahoshua gave among their brothers beyond the Yardĕn, westward. So when Yahoshua sent them away to their tents, he also barak them,

8 and spoke to them, saying, “Return to your tents with great riches, and with very much livestock, and with silver, and with gold, and with bronze, and with iron, and with countless garments. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers.”

9 And the children of Re’uḇĕn, and the children of Gaḏ, and half the tribe of Menashsheh returned, and left the children of Yisra’ĕl at Shiloh, which is in the land of Kena’an, to go to the land of Gil’aḏ, to the land of their possession, which they possessed according to the command of אִרְאֵל by the hand of Mosheh.

10 And they came to the districts of the Yardĕn which is in the land of Kena’an, and the children of Re’uḇĕn, and the children of Gaḏ, and half the tribe of Menashsheh built an altar there by the Yardĕn, a great conspicuous altar.

11 And the children of Yisra’ĕl heard it saying, “See, the children of Re’uḇĕn, and the children of Gaḏ, and half the tribe of Menashsheh have built an altar opposite the land of Kena’an, in the districts of the Yardĕn, at the border of the children of Yisra’ĕl.”

12 And when the children of Yisra’ĕl heard, all the congregation of the children of Yisra’ĕl assembled at Shiloh to go to fight against them.

13 So the children of Yisra’ĕl sent Pineḥas son of El’azar the kohĕn to the children of Re’uḇĕn, and to the children of Gaḏ, and to half the tribe of Menashsheh, into the land of Gil’aḏ,

14 and ten rulers with him, one ruler each from the chief house of every tribe of Yisra'ël. And each one was the head of the house of his father among the divisions of Yisra'ël.

15 And they came to the children of Re'ubĕn and to the children of Gaḏ, and to half the tribe of Menashsheh, to the land of Gil'aḏ, and spoke with them, saying,

16 "Thus says all the congregation of אִשְׂרָאֵל, 'What is this trespass you have committed against the Elohim of Yisra'ël, to turn away this day from following אִשְׂרָאֵל, in that you have built for yourselves an altar, to rebel against אִשְׂרָאֵל this day?

17 'Is the wickedness of Pe'or not enough for us, from which we have not been cleansed till this day, although there was a plague in the congregation of אִשְׂרָאֵל,

18 that you turn away today from following אִשְׂרָאֵל? And it shall be, if you rebel today against אִשְׂרָאֵל, that tomorrow He is wroth with all the congregation of Yisra'ël.

19 'And indeed, if the land of your possession is unclean, then pass over to the land of the possession of אִשְׂרָאֵל, where the Mishkan of אִשְׂרָאֵל dwells, and take possession among us. But do not rebel against אִשְׂרָאֵל, nor rebel against us, by building yourselves an altar besides the altar of אִשְׂרָאֵל our Elohim.

20 'Did not Aḵan son of Zeraḥ commit a trespass in that which is under the ban, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Yisra'ël? And he was not the only one to die in his wickedness.'

21 Then the children of Re'ubĕn, and the children of Gaḏ, and half the tribe of Menashsheh answered and said to the heads of the divisions of Yisra'ël, 22 "Ĕl Elohim אִשְׂרָאֵל, Ĕl Elohim אִשְׂרָאֵל, He knows, and let Yisra'ël itself know. If this has been in rebellion, or if in trespass against אִשְׂרָאֵל, do not save us this day.

23 “If we have built ourselves an altar to turn from following אֱלֹהִים, or if to offer burnt offerings or grain offerings on it, or if to make peace offerings on it, let אֱלֹהִים Himself require it.

24 “But truly, from reverence, for a reason we did this, saying, ‘In time to come your sons might speak to our sons, saying, “What have you to do with אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’el?’

25 “For אֱלֹהִים has made the Yardēn a border between you and us, you children of Re’uḇēn and children of Gaḏ. You have no portion with אֱלֹהִים.” So your sons would make our sons stop revering אֱלֹהִים.’

26 “So we said, ‘Let us now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering nor for slaughtering,

27 but to be a witness between you and us and our generations after us, to do the service of אֱלֹהִים before Him with our burnt offerings, with our slaughterings, and with our peace offerings, that your sons should not say to our sons in time to come, “You have no portion with אֱלֹהִים.”’

28 “So we said that it shall be, when they say this to us or to our generations in time to come, that we shall say, ‘See the pattern of the altar of אֱלֹהִים which our fathers made, though not for burnt offerings nor for slaughterings, but it is a witness between you and us.’

29 “Far be it from us to rebel against אֱלֹהִים, and to turn from following אֱלֹהִים this day, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for grain offerings, or for slaughterings, besides the altar of אֱלֹהִים our Elohim which is before His Mishkan.”

30 And Pineḥas the kohēn and the rulers of the congregation, and the heads of the thousands of Yisra’el who were with him, heard the words that the children of Re’uḇēn, and the children of Gaḏ, and the children of Menashsheh spoke, and it was good in their eyes.

31 And Pinehas son of El'azar the kohēn said to the children of Re'ubēn, and to the children of Gaḏ, and to the children of Menashsheh, "Today we know that אֱלֹהִים is in our midst, because you have not committed against אֱלֹהִים this trespass. Now you have delivered the children of Yisra'ēl out of the hand of אֱלֹהִים."

32 And Pinehas son of El'azar the kohēn, and the rulers, returned from the children of Re'ubēn and the children of Gaḏ, from the land of Gil'aḏ to the land of Kena'an, to the children of Yisra'ēl, and brought back word to them.

33 So the matter was good in the eyes of the children of Yisra'ēl, and the children of Yisra'ēl barak Elohim. And they spoke no more of going against to fight, to destroy the land where the children of Re'ubēn and Gaḏ dwelt.

34 And the children of Re'ubēn and the children of Gaḏ called the altar, "A witness between us that אֱלֹהִים is Elohim."

23 And it came to be, a long time after אֱלֹהִים had given rest to Yisra'ēl from all their enemies round about, that Yahoshua was old, advanced in years.

2 And Yahoshua called for all Yisra'ēl, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said to them, "I am old, advanced in years.

3 "And you, you have seen all that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has done to all these nations because of you, for אֱלֹהִים your Elohim is He who was fighting for you.

4 "See, I have divided to you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Yardēn, with all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the Great Sea westward.

5 "And אֱלֹהִים your Elohim thrust them out from before you, and shall drive them out from before you, and you shall possess their land, as אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim has promised you.

6 “And you shall be very strong to guard and to do all that is written in the Book of the Torah of Mosheh, so as not to turn aside from it right or left,

7 so as not to go in among these nations, these who remain among you. And make no mention of the name of their mighty ones, nor swear by, nor serve them nor bow down to them.

8 “But cling to אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim, as you have done to this day.

9 “For אֱלֹהֵיכֶם has driven out from before you great and strong nations. As for you, no one has stood against you to this day.

10 “One man of you put a thousand to flight, for אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim is He who is fighting for you, as He has promised you.

11 “And you shall diligently guard yourselves, to love אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim.

12 “But if you do turn back at all, and cling to the remnant of these nations, these that remain among you, and intermarry with them, and go in to them and they to you,

13 know for certain that אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim shall no longer drive these nations out from before you. And they shall be snares and traps to you, and a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim has given you.

14 “And see, this day I am going the way of all the earth. And you know in all your hearts and in all your beings that not one word has failed of all the good words which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim spoke concerning you. All of it has come to you, and not one word of them has failed.

15 “And it shall be, that as every good word has come upon you which אֱלֹהֵיכֶם your Elohim promised you, so אֱלֹהֵיכֶם brings upon you every evil word, until He has destroyed you from this good land which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has given you,

16 when you transgress the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, which He commanded you, and shall go and serve other mighty ones, and bow down to them. And the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים shall burn against you, and you shall perish quickly from the good land which He has given you.”

24 And Yahoshua gathered all the tribes of Yisra'ël to Shekhem and called for the elders of Yisra'ël, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers. And they presented themselves before Elohim.

2 And Yahoshua said to all the people, “Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, ‘Long ago your fathers dwelt beyond the River - Teraḥ, the father of Aḇraham and the father of Naḥor. And they served other mighty ones.

3 ‘So I took your father Aḇraham from beyond the River, and caused him to go through all the land of Kena'an, and multiplied his offspring and gave him Yitshaq.

4 ‘And to Yitshaq I gave Ya'aqob and Ėsaw. And to Ėsaw I gave the mountains of Sě'ir to possess, but Ya'aqob and his children went down to Mitsrayim.

5 ‘Then I sent Mosheh and Aharon, and plagued Mitsrayim, as I did in their midst. And afterward I brought you out.

6 ‘And I brought your fathers out of Mitsrayim, and you came to the sea. And the Mitsrites pursued your fathers with chariots and horsemen to the Sea of Reeds.

7 ‘And they cried out to אֱלֹהִים, and He put thick darkness between you and the Mitsrites, and brought the sea upon them and covered them. And your eyes saw what I did in Mitsrayim. And you dwelt in the wilderness a long time.

8 'And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt beyond the Yardēn, and they fought with you. But I gave them into your hand, and you possessed their land, and I destroyed them from before you.

9 'And Balaq son of Tsippor, sovereign of Mo'ab, rose up and fought against Yisra'el, and sent and called for Bil'am son of Be'or to curse you.

10 'But I refused to listen to Bil'am, so he continued to barak you, and I delivered you out of his hand.

11 'And you passed over the Yardēn and came to Yeriho. And the masters of Yeriho, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Kena'anite, and the Hittite, and the Girgashite, and the Hiwwite, and the Yebusite fought against you. But I gave them into your hand.

12 'And I sent the hornet before you which drove them out from before you, also the two sovereigns of the Amorites, but not with your sword or with your bow.

13 'And I gave you a land for which you did not labour, and cities which you did not build. And you dwell in them, you eat of the vineyards and olive trees which you did not plant.'

14 "And now, revere אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, serve Him in perfection and in truth, and put away the mighty ones which your fathers served beyond the River and in Mitsrayim, and serve אֱלֹהֵיכֶם!

15 "And if it seems evil in your eyes to serve אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, choose for yourselves this day whom you are going to serve, whether the mighty ones which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the mighty ones of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. But I and my house, we serve אֱלֹהֵיכֶם."

16 And the people answered and said, "Far be it from us to forsake אֱלֹהֵיכֶם, to serve other mighty ones,

17 for אֱלֹהֵיכֶם our Elohim is He who has brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Mitsrayim, from the house of bondage, who did those great signs before our eyes, and has guarded us in all the way that we went and among all the people through whom we passed.

18 “And אֱלֹהִים drove out from before us all the people, even the Amorites who dwelt in the land. We too serve אֱלֹהִים, for He is our Elohim.”

19 Then Yahoshua said to the people, “You are not able to serve אֱלֹהִים, for He is a qodesh Elohim, a jealous Ėl is He. He does not bear with your transgression and with your sins.

20 If you forsake אֱלֹהִים and shall serve mighty ones of a stranger, then He shall turn back and do you evil and consume you, after He has been good to you.”

21 And the people said to Yahoshua, “No, but we will serve אֱלֹהִים!”

22 Then Yahoshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen אֱלֹהִים for yourselves, to serve Him.” And they said, “Witnesses!”

23 “And now, put away the mighty ones of the stranger which are in your midst, and incline your heart to אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’el.”

24 And the people said to Yahoshua, “אֱלֹהִים our Elohim we serve, and His voice we obey.”

25 And Yahoshua made a covenant with the people that day, and laid on them a law and a right-ruling in Shekem.

26 Then Yahoshua wrote these words in the Book of the Torah of Elohim. And he took a large stone, and put it up there under the oak that was by the Miqdash of אֱלֹהִים.

27 And Yahoshua said to all the people, “See, this stone is a witness to us, for it has heard all the words of אֱלֹהִים which He spoke to us. And it shall be a witness against you, lest you lie against your Elohim.”

28 Then Yahoshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

29 And after these events it came to be that Yahoshua son of Nun, the servant of אֱלֹהִים, died, one hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath Serah, which is in the mountains of Ephrayim, on the north side of Mount Ga'ash.

31 And Yisra'el served אֱלֹהִים all the days of Yahoshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Yahoshua, who had known all the works of אֱלֹהִים which He had done for Yisra'el.

32 And the bones of Yosëph, which the children of Yisra'el had brought up out of Mitsrayim, they buried at Shekem, in the plot of ground which Ya'aqob had bought from the sons of Hamor the father of Shekem for one hundred qesitah, and which had become an inheritance of the children of Yosëph.

33 And El'azar son of Aharon died, and they buried him in a hill that belonged to Pinehas his son, which was given to him in the hill country of Ephrayim.

SHOPHETIM

ד'טפּשׁ ץרֹגְלִיָּו

1 And it came to be, after the death of Yahoshua, that the children of Yisra'el asked אַיִךְ, saying, "Who of us should go up first against the Kena'anites to fight against them?"

2 And אַיִךְ said, "Yahudah goes up. See, I have given the land into his hand."

3 And Yahudah said to Shim'on his brother, "Come up with me into my allotment, and let us fight against the Kena'anites. And I myself shall also go with you into your allotment." So Shim'on went with him.

4 And Yahudah went up, and אַיִךְ gave the Kena'anites and the Perizzites into their hand. And they smote ten thousand men at Bezeq.

5 And they found Adoni-Bezeq in Bezeq, and fought against him, and smote the Kena'anites and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-Bezeq fled, and they pursued him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

7 And Adoni-Bezeq said, "Seventy sovereigns with their thumbs and big toes cut off used to gather under my table. As I have done, so Elohim has repaid me." And they brought him to Yerushalayim, and he died there.

8 And the children of Yahudah fought against Yerushalayim and captured it, and smote it with the edge of the sword and lit the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children Yahudah went down to fight against the Kena'anites who dwelt in the mountains, in the Negeb, and in the low country.

10 And Yahudah went against the Kena'anites who dwelt in Hebron - now the name of Hebron was formerly Qiryath Arba - and they smote Shěshai, and Aḥiman, and Talmi.

11 And from there they went against the inhabitants of Deḅir - now the name of Deḅir was formerly Qiryath Sēpher.

12 And Kalēḅ said, "He who smites Qiryath Sēpher, and shall capture it, to him I shall give my daughter Aḳsah as wife."

13 And Othni'ēl son of Qenaz, Kalēḅ's younger brother, captured it. And he gave him his daughter Aḳsah as wife.

14 And it came to be, when she came in, that she urged him to ask her father for a field. And when she got off from her donkey, Kalēḅ said to her, "What is the matter?"

15 And she said to him, "Give me a beraḳah. Since you have given me land in the Negeḅ, give me also springs of water." So Kalēḅ gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16 And the children of the Qēynite, father-in-law of Mosheh, went up from Ir ha'Tamarim with the children of Yahudaḥ into the Wilderness of Yahudaḥ, which is in the south of Araḍ. And they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Yahudaḥ went with Shim'on his brother, and they smote the Kena'anites who inhabited Tsephath, and put it under the ban. So the name of the city was called Ḥormah.

18 And Yahudaḥ captured Azzah and its border, and Ashqelon and its border, and Eqron and its border.

19 And אֲרָאָז was with Yahudaḥ, so they took possession of the mountains, but they were unable to drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron to Kalēb, as Mosheh had said, and he drove out from there the three sons of Anaq.

21 However, the children of Binyamin did not drive out the Yebusites who inhabited Yerushalayim, so the Yebusites have dwelt with the children of Binyamin in Yerushalayim to this day.

22 And the house of Yosēph also went up against Bēyth Ēl, and אִיָּזָר was with them.

23 And the house of Yosēph sent men to spy out Bēyth Ēl - now the name of the city was formerly Luz.

24 And the watchmen saw a man coming out of the city, and they said to him, "Please show us the entrance to the city, and we shall show you kindness."

25 So he showed them the entrance to the city, and they smote the city with the edge of the sword. But the man and all his clan they let go,

26 and the man went to the land of the Hittites and built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.

27 And Menashsheh did not dispossess Bēyth She'an and its villages, nor Ta'anaq and its villages, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, nor the inhabitants of Yible'am and its villages, nor the inhabitants of Meḡiddo and its villages, for the Kena'anites desired to dwell in that land.

28 And it came to be, when Yisra'ēl was strong, that they put the Kena'anites into compulsory labour, but did not completely drive them out.

29 Neither did Ephrayim drive out the Kena'anites who dwelt in Gezer, so the Kena'anites dwelt in their midst, in Gezer.

30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Qitron or the inhabitants of Nahalol, so the Kena'anites dwelt in their midst, and became compulsory labour.

31 Neither did Ashēr drive out the inhabitants of Akko nor the inhabitants of Tsidon, nor of Aḥlab, nor of Aḳzib, nor of Ḥelbah, nor of Aphiq, nor of Reḥob.

32 So the Ashērites dwelt in the midst of the Kena'anites, the inhabitants of the land, because they did not drive them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Bēyth Shemesh nor the inhabitants of Bēyth Anath, but they dwelt among the Kena'anites, the inhabitants of the land. And the inhabitants of Bēyth Shemesh and of Bēyth Anath became compulsory labour for them.

34 And the Amorites pressed the children of Dan into the mountains, for they would not allow them to come down to the valley, 35 And the Amorites desired to dwell in Mount Ḥeres, in Ayalon, and in Sha'albim. But when the hand of the house of Yosēph became stronger, they became compulsory labour.

36 And the border of the Amorites was from the Ascent of Aqrabbim, from Sela, and upward.

2 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים came up from Gilgal to Boḳim, and said, "I led you up from Mitsrayim and brought you to the land of which I swore to your fathers, and I said, 'I do not break My Covenant with you,

2 and as for you, do not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land - break down their altars.' But you have not obeyed My voice. What is this you have done?"

3 “Therefore I also said, ‘I am not driving them out before you, and they shall be adversaries to you, and their mighty ones shall be a snare to you.’ ”

4 And it came to be, when the Messenger of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  spoke these words to all the children of Yisra’ël, that the people lifted up their voice and wept.

5 So they called the name of that place Bo $\text{קִים}$ , and slaughtered there to  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

6 Then Yahoshua dismissed the people, and the children of Yisra’ël went each to his own inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  all the days of Yahoshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Yahoshua, who had seen all the great works of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  which He had done for Yisra’ël.

8 And Yahoshua son of Nun, the servant of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  died, one hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him within the border of his inheritance at Timnath  $\text{הֶרֶס}$ , in the mountains of Ephrayim, on the north side of Mount Ga’ash.

10 And all that generation were likewise gathered to their fathers, and another generation arose after them who did not know  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  nor the work which He had done for Yisra’ël.

11 Then the children of Yisra’ël did evil in the eyes of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , and served the Ba’als,

12 and forsook  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  Elohim of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim, and went after other mighty ones, of the mighty ones of the people who were all around them, and they bowed down to them, and provoked  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

13 So they forsook  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  and served Ba’al and the Ashtoreths.

14 And the displeasure of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  burned against Yisra’ël. Therefore He gave them into the hands of plunderers who despoiled them. And He sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, and they were unable to stand before their enemies any longer.

15 Wherever they went out, the hand of אֲשֵׁרָה was against them for evil, as אֲשֵׁרָה had spoken, and as אֲשֵׁרָה had sworn to them. And they were distressed - greatly.

16 Then אֲשֵׁרָה raised up rulers who saved them from the hand of those who plundered them.

17 However, they did not listen to their rulers either, but went whoring after other mighty ones, and bowed down to them. They soon turned aside from the Way in which their fathers walked, in obeying the Commands of אֲשֵׁרָה - they did not do so.

18 And when אֲשֵׁרָה raised up rulers for them, אֲשֵׁרָה was with the ruler and saved them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the ruler, for אֲשֵׁרָה had compassion on their groaning because of those who oppressed them and crushed them.

19 And it came to be, when the ruler was dead, that they would turn back and do more corruptly than their fathers, to go after other mighty ones, to serve them and bow down to them. They did not refrain from their practices and from their stubborn way.

20 And the displeasure of אֲשֵׁרָה burned against Yisra'el, and He said, "Because this nation has transgressed My Covenant that I commanded their fathers, and has not obeyed My voice,

21 I also shall no longer drive out before them any of the nations which Yahoshua left when he died,

22 in order to try Yisra'el by them, whether they would guard the Way of אֲשֵׁרָה, to walk in them as their fathers guarded them, or not."

23 So אִיִּזְרָאֵל left those nations, without driving them out at once, and did not give them into the hand of Yahoshua.

3 And these are the nations which אִיִּזְרָאֵל left, to try Yisra'ël by them, all those who had not known all the battles in Kena'an,

2 only that the generations of the children of Yisra'ël might know, to teach them battle, only those who before did not know them:

3 five princes of the Pelishtites, and all the Kena'anites, and the Tsidonians, and the Hīwwites who dwelt in Mount Lebānon, from Mount Ba'al Hermon to the entrance of Hāmath.

4 And they were to try Yisra'ël by them, to know whether they would obey the Commands of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, which He had commanded their fathers by the hand of Mosheh.

5 Thus the children of Yisra'ël dwelt in the midst of the Kena'anites, the Hīttites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hīwwites, and the Yebūsites,

6 and took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and they served their mighty ones.

7 Thus the children of Yisra'ël did evil in the eyes of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and forgot אִיִּזְרָאֵל their Elohim, and served the Ba'als and the Ashērahs.

8 And the displeasure of אִיִּזְרָאֵל burned against Yisra'ël, and He sold them into the hand of Kushan-Rish'athayim sovereign of Aram Naharayim. And the children of Yisra'ël served Kushan-Rish'athayim eight years.

9 And when the children of Yisra'ël cried out to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, אִיִּזְרָאֵל raised up a saviour for the children of Yisra'ël, who saved them: Othni'ël son of Qenaz, Kalëb's younger brother.

10 And the Ruah of אֲרָאָם came upon him, and he ruled Yisra'ël, and went out to battle, and אֲרָאָם gave into his hand Kushan-Rish'athayim sovereign of Aram Naharayim. And his hand prevailed over Kushan-Rish'athayim,

11 and the land had rest for forty years. Then Othni'ël son of Qenaz died, 12 and the children of Yisra'ël again did evil in the eyes of אֲרָאָם. And אֲרָאָם made Eġlon sovereign of Mo'ab strong against Yisra'ël, because they had done evil in the eyes of אֲרָאָם.

13 And he gathered to himself the children of Ammon and Amalëq, and went and smote Yisra'ël, and they took possession of Ir ha'Tamarim.

14 And the children of Yisra'ël served Eġlon sovereign of Mo'ab eighteen years.

15 And when the children of Yisra'ël cried out to אֲרָאָם, אֲרָאָם raised up a saviour for them: Ĕhuđ son of Gëra, a Binyamite, a left-handed man. And by him the children of Yisra'ël sent a present to Eġlon sovereign of Mo'ab.

16 And Ĕhuđ made himself a sword, it was double-edged and an ammah in length, and he girded it under his long robe on his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present to Eġlon sovereign of Mo'ab. Now Eġlon was a very fat man.

18 And it came to be that when he had finished bringing near the present, he sent away the people bearing the present.

19 But he himself turned back from the stone images that were at Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O sovereign." And he said, "Be silent!” And all those standing beside him went out from him.

20 And Ĕhud came to him while he was sitting in his cool roof room. And Ĕhud said, “I have a message from Elohim for you.” So he arose from his seat.

22 And the handle went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his stomach, and it came out behind.

23 Then Ĕhud went out to the porch and shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

24 And when he had gone out, his servants came to look and saw the doors of the roof room were locked. So they said, “He is only covering his feet in the cool roof room.”

25 And they waited until they were ashamed, but saw he was not opening the doors of the upper room. So they took the key and opened them and saw their master, fallen to the ground, dead.

26 But while they were delaying Ĕhud escaped and had passed beyond the stone images, and escaped to Se’irah.

27 And it came to be, when he arrived, that he blew the ram’s horn in the mountains of Ephrayim, and the children of Yisra’el went down with him from the mountains, with him leading them.

28 And he said to them, “Follow me, for אִיָּאֵל has given your enemies the Mo’abites into your hand.” And they went down after him, and took the fords of Yardēn leading to Mo’ab, and did not allow anyone to pass over.

29 And they smote about ten thousand men of Mo'ab at that time, all robust and brave men, and not a man escaped.

30 And on that day Mo'ab was humbled under the hand of Yisra'el. And the land had rest for eighty years.

31 And after him was Shamgar son of Anath, and he smote six hundred men of the Pelishtites with an ox goad. And he too saved Yisra'el.

4 And when Eħud was dead, the children of Yisra'el again did evil in the eyes of אֲרָאָל.

2 Therefore אֲרָאָל sold them into the hand of Yaĕin the sovereign of Kena'an, who reigned in Ĥatsor. And the commander of his army was Sisera, who was dwelling in Ĥarosheth ha'Goyim.

3 And the children of Yisra'el cried out to אֲרָאָל, because he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and for twenty years he harshly oppressed the children of Yisra'el.

4 And Deĕborah, a neĕyah, the wife of Lappidoth, was judging Yisra'el at that time.

5 And she was dwelling under the palm tree of Deĕborah between Ramah and Běyth Ĕl in the mountains of Ephrayim. And the children of Yisra'el came up to her for right-ruling.

6 And she sent and called for Baraq son of Aĕino'am from Qeĕsh in Naphtali, and said to him, "Has not אֲרָאָל Elohim of Yisra'el commanded, 'Go, and you shall draw towards Mount Taĕor, and shall take with you ten thousand men of the sons of Naphtali and of the sons of Zeĕbulun,

7 and I shall draw unto you Sisera, the commander of Yaĕin's army, with his chariots and his company at the wadi Qishon, and shall give him into your hand'?"

8 And Baraq said to her, "If you go with me, then I shall go; but if you do not go with me, I do not go."

9 And she said, "I shall certainly go with you. Only, there shall be no esteem for you in the journey you are taking, for אֲרָאָה is going to sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." So Deborah arose and went with Baraq to Qedesh.

10 And Baraq called Zebulun and Naphtali to Qedesh. And he went up - ten thousand men under his command - and Deborah went up with him.

11 And Heber the Qēynite, of the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Mosheh, had separated himself from the Qēynites and pitched his tent near the terebinth tree at Tsa'anayim, which is beside Qedesh.

12 And they reported to Sisera that Baraq son of Abino'am had gone up to Mount Tabor.

13 So Sisera called all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth ha'Goyim to the wadi Qishon.

14 And Deborah said to Baraq, "Rise up! For this is the day in which אֲרָאָה has given Sisera into your hand. Has not אֲרָאָה gone out before you?" And Baraq went down from Mount Tabor with ten thousand men after him.

15 And אֲרָאָה destroyed Sisera and all his chariots and all his army with the edge of the sword before Baraq. And Sisera leaped from his chariot and fled away on foot.

16 But Baraq pursued the chariots and the army as far as Harosheth ha'Goyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword, not one was left.

17 Sisera, meanwhile, had fled on foot to the tent of Ya'el, the wife of Heber the Qēynite, for there was peace between Yabin sovereign of Hatsor and the house of Heber the Qēynite.

18 And Ya'ël went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn aside, my master, turn aside to me, do not fear." So he turned aside with her into the tent, and she covered him with a blanket.

19 And he said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a flask of milk, and gave him a drink, and covered him.

20 And he said to her, "Stand at the door of the tent, and it shall be if anyone comes and asks you, and says, 'Is there a man here?' you shall say, 'No.' "

21 But Ya'ël, Heber's wife, took a tent peg and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him and drove the peg into the side of his head, and it went down into the ground - for he was fast asleep and exhausted - and he died.

22 And see, as Baraq pursued Sisera, Ya'ël came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, let me show you the man whom you are seeking." And when he went into her tent, there lay Sisera, dead with the peg in the side of his head.

23 And on that day Elohim humbled Yaḅin sovereign of Kena'an in the presence of the children of Yisra'ël.

24 And the hand of the children of Yisra'ël grew stronger and stronger against Yaḅin sovereign of Kena'an, until they had cut off Yaḅin sovereign of Kena'an.

5 And on that day Deḅorah and Baraq son of Abino'am sang, saying,

2 "For leaders leading in Yisra'ël, for the people volunteering, barak אִפְּאֵל!

3 "Hear, O sovereigns! Give ear, O princes! I, I do sing to אִפְּאֵל; I sing praise to אִפְּאֵל Elohim of Yisra'ël.

- 4 “אֱלֹהִים, when You went out from Sə'ir, when You stepped from the field of Eḏom, the earth shook and the shamayim poured, the clouds also poured water.
- 5 “The mountains flowed at the presence of אֱלֹהִים, this Sinai, at the presence of אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël.
- 6 “In the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the days of Ya'ël, the highways were deserted, and the travellers went in crooked ways.
- 7 “Leadership ceased, it ceased in Yisra'ël, until I, Deḇorah, arose - a mother in Yisra'ël arose.
- 8 “They chose new mighty ones, then fighting was in the gates! Neither a shield nor spear was seen among forty thousand in Yisra'ël.
- 9 “My heart is towards the lawgivers of Yisra'ël, the volunteers among the people. Baraq אֱלֹהִים!
- 10 “You who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets, and you who walk along the way, declare it!
- 11 “By the voice of shouters, between the places of drawing water, there they recount the righteous acts of אֱלֹהִים, the righteous acts of His leadership in Yisra'ël; then the people of אֱלֹהִים shall go down to the gates.
- 12 “Wake up, wake up, Deḇorah! Wake up, wake up, sing a song! Arise, Baraq, and lead your captives away, O son of Aḇino'am!
- 13 “Then He made the remnant to rule the nobles; אֱלֹהִים came down for me against the mighty ones.
- 14 “Out of Ephrayim their root is against Amalëq. After you, Binyamin, with your peoples, out of Maḳir lawgivers came down, and out of Zeḇulun those who handle the scribe's reed.
- 15 “And the heads of Yissasḳar were with Deḇorah. And as Yissasḳar, so was Baraq sent into the valley under his command. Among the divisions of Re'ubēn there were great searchings of heart.

16 "Why did you remain among the sheepfolds, to hear the bleatings of the flocks? The divisions of Re'ubēn have great searchings of heart.

17 "Gil'ad remained beyond the Yardēn, and why did Dan remain on ships? Ashēr continued at the seashore, and remained by its landing places.

18 "Zebulun is a people who risked their lives to the point of death, Naphtali also, on the heights of the field.

19 "Sovereigns came, they fought, then the sovereigns of Kena'an fought in Ta'anaḵ, by the waters of Meḡiddo; they took no spoils of silver.

20 "From the shamayim they fought; the stars from their courses fought against Sisera.

21 "The wadi of Qishon swept them away, that age-old wadi, the wadi of Qishon. O my being, you have trampled in strength!

22 "Then stamped hoofs of horses, with the galloping, galloping of his steeds.

23 'Curse Mēroz,' said a messenger of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, 'curse, curse its inhabitants, because they did not come to the help of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, to the help of אִיִּזְרָאֵל among the mighty.'

24 "Baruḵ above women is Ya'ēl, the wife of Ḥeḇer the Qēynite - above women in tents she is baruḵ.

25 "He asked for water, she gave milk; she brought out curdled milk in a bowl for nobles.

26 "She stretched her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer. Then she pounded Sisera, she crushed his head, she pierced and struck through the side of his head.

27 “Between her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay still;
between her feet he bowed, he fell; where he bowed,
there he fell - destroyed.

28 “Through the window the mother of Sisera looked, and cried out through the lattice, ‘Why does his chariot delay to come? Why have the steps of his chariots tarried?’

29 “The wise ones of her princesses answered her,
indeed, she answered herself,

30 ‘Do they not find and divide the spoil: a girl or two for each man; a spoil of dyed work for Sisera, a spoil of dyed work embroidered, dyed work richly embroidered for the necks of the looter?’

31 “So do all Your enemies perish, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ! But let those who love Him be like the sun rising in its might!”
And the land had rest forty years.

6 And the children of Yisra’ël did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and אֱלֹהֵינוּ gave them into the hand of Midyan for seven years,

2 and the hand of Midyan was strong against Yisra’ël. And before the faces of the Midyanites the children of Yisra’ël made for themselves the refuges which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds.

3 And it came to be, whenever Yisra’ël had sown, that Midyan would come up, and Amalëq and the people of the East would come up against them,

4 and encamp against them and destroy the increase of the land as far as Azzah, and leave no food in Yisra’ël, neither sheep nor ox nor donkey.

5 For they came up with their livestock and their tents, coming in as numerous as locusts. And they and their camels were without number. And they came into the land to destroy it.

6 Thus Yisra'ël was brought very low because of Midyan, and the children of Yisra'ël cried out to אֱלֹהִים.
7 And it came to be, when the children of Yisra'ël cried out to אֱלֹהִים because of Midyan,
8 that אֱלֹהִים sent a nabi to the children of Yisra'ël, who said to them, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, 'I have brought you up from Mitsrayim and I brought you out of the house of bondage,
9 and I delivered you out of the hand of the Mitsrites and out of the hand of all your oppressors, and drove them out before you and gave you their land.
10 'And I said to you, "I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, do not fear the mighty ones of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell. And you have not obeyed My voice." ' "

11 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים came and sat under the terebinth tree which was in Ophrah, which belonged to Yo'ash the Abi'ezerite, while his son Gid'on threshed wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the eyes of the Midyanites.

12 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים appeared to him, and said to him, "אֱלֹהִים is with you, you mighty brave one!"

13 And Gid'on said to Him, "O my master, if אֱלֹהִים is with us, why has all this come upon us? And where are all His wonders which our fathers related to us, saying, 'Did not אֱלֹהִים bring us up from Mitsrayim?' But now אֱלֹהִים has left us and given us into the hands of Midyan."

14 And אֱלֹהִים turned to him and said, "Go in this strength of yours, and you shall save Yisra'ël from the hand of the Midyanites. Have I not sent you?"

15 And he said to Him, "O אֱלֹהִים, with what do I save Yisra'ël? See, my clan is the weakest in Menashsheh, and I am the least in my father's house."

16 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, "Because I am with you, you shall smite the Midyanites as one man."

17 And he said to Him, "Please, if I have found favour in Your eyes, then show me a sign that it is You who are speaking with me.

18 "Please do not move away from here, until I come to You and bring out my offering and put it before You." And He said, "I shall stay until you return."

19 And Gid'on went in, and prepared a young goat, and unleavened bread from an ephah of flour. The meat he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot. And he brought them out to Him, under the terebinth tree, and presented it.

20 And the Messenger of Elohim said to him, "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth." And he did so.

21 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים put forth the end of the staff that was in His hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened bread. And fire went up out of the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread. And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים went from his sight.

22 And when Gid'on saw that He was a Messenger of אֱלֹהִים, Gid'on said, "Oh Adonai אֱלֹהִים! For I have seen a Messenger of אֱלֹהִים face to face."

23 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, "Peace be with you! Do not fear, you do not die."

24 And Gid'on built an altar there to אֱלֹהִים, and called it: אֱלֹהִים Shalom. To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abi'ezerites.

25 And the same night it came to be that אֱלֹהִים said to him, "Take the young bull of your father, and the second bull of seven years old, and you shall throw down the altar of Ba'al that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is beside it.

26 "And you shall build an altar to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim on top of this rock in an orderly way, and shall take the second bull and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the image which you cut down.”

27 And Gid'on took ten men from among his servants and did as אִיִּזְרָאֵל had said to him. And it came to be, because he feared his father's household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 And the men of the city arose early in the morning and saw the altar of Ba'al was broken down, and the Asherah that was beside it had been cut down, and the second bull was being offered on the altar which was built.

29 And they said to each other, “Who has done this deed?” And when they had inquired and asked, they said, “Gid'on son of Yo'ash has done this deed.”

30 And the men of the city said to Yo'ash, “Bring out your son, so that he dies, for he has broken down the altar of Ba'al, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was beside it.”

31 And Yo'ash said to all who stood against him, “You, would you plead for Ba'al? You, would you save him? Let the one who would plead for him be put to death by morning! If he is a mighty one, let him plead for himself, because his altar has been broken down!”

32 So that day he called him Yerubba'al, saying, “Let Ba'al plead against him, because he has broken down his altar.”

33 Now all Midyan and Amalëq and the people of the East, were gathered together. And they passed over and encamped in the Valley of Yizre'ël.

34 Then the Ruah of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came upon Gid'on, and he blew the ram's horn, and the Abi'ezerites gathered behind him.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Menashsheh, who also gathered behind him. And he sent messengers to Ashër, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali. And they came up to meet them.

36 And Gid'on said to Elohim, "If You are saving Yisra'ël by my hand as You have said,

37 see, I am placing a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor. If there is dew only on the fleece, and it is dry on all the ground, then I shall know that You are saving Yisra'ël by my hand, as You have said."

38 And it was so, and he rose early the next morning and pressed the fleece, and wrung dew out of the fleece, to fill a bowl with water.

39 And Gid'on said to Elohim, "Do not be displeased with me, and let me speak only this time: Please let me try only this time with the fleece, please let it be dry only on the fleece, and let there be dew on all the ground."

40 And Elohim did so that night, and it was dry on the fleece only, but there was dew on all the ground.

7 And Yerubba'al, that is Gid'on, and all the people who were with him rose up early and encamped by Ĕyn Harođ, so that the camp of Midyan was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley.

2 And אַרְבָּעַיִם said to Gid'on, "The people who are with you are too many for Me to give Midyan into their hands, lest Yisra'ël boast against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.'

3 "And now, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him turn back, and leave Mount Gil'ad.' " And twenty-two thousand of the people turned back, while ten thousand remained.

4 And אַרְבָּעַיִם said to Gid'on, "The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and let Me prove them for you there. And it shall be, that of whom I say to you, 'This one goes with you,' let him go with you. And of whomever I say to you, 'This one does not go with you,' let him not go."

5 So he brought the people down to the water. And אִרְאֵל said to Gid'on, "Everyone who laps the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, separate him from everyone who bows down on his knees to drink."

6 And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men, and all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water.

7 And אִרְאֵל said to Gid'on, "By the three hundred men who lapped I save you, and shall give Midyan into your hand. Let all the other people go, each to his place."

8 And the people took food and their ram's horns in their hands. And he sent away all the rest of Yisra'el, each to his tent, but kept those three hundred men. Now the camp of Midyan was below him in the valley.

9 And it came to be, on that night, that אִרְאֵל said to him, "Arise, go down against the camp, for I have given it into your hand.

10 "But if you are afraid to go down, go down, you and Purah your servant, to the camp.

11 "And you shall hear what they say, and after that let your hands be strengthened. And you shall go down against the camp." So he went down with Purah his servant to the edge of the armed men who were in the camp.

12 And Midyan and Amalëq, and all the people of the East, were lying in the valley as many as locusts. And their camels were as numerous as the sand by the seashore.

13 And Gid'on came, and see, a man was relating a dream to his companion, and said, "See I had a dream, and see, a loaf of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midyan, and it came to a tent and smote it so that it fell and overturned, and the tent fell down.”

14 And his companion answered and said, “This is none else than the sword of Gid'on son of Yo'ash, a man of Yisra'el. Elohim has given Midyan and all the camp into his hand.”

15 And it came to be, when Gid'on heard this dream related, and its interpretation, that he bowed himself down. And he returned to the camp of Yisra'el, and said, “Arise, for אֱלֹהִים has given the camp of Midyan into your hand.”

16 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a ram's horn into the hands of all of them, with empty jars, and torches inside the jars.

17 And he said to them, “Watch me and do likewise. And see, when I come to the edge of the camp do as I do.

18 “And I shall blow the ram's horn, I and all those with me, then you shall also blow the ram's horns round about all the camp, and say, ‘For אֱלֹהִים and for Gid'on!’ ”

19 And Gid'on and the hundred men who were with him came to the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, as they had but newly posted the watch. And they blew the ram's horns and broke the jars that were in their hands.

20 And the three companies blew the ram's horns and broke the jars, and held the torches in their left hands and the ram's horns in their right hands for blowing. And they cried, “For אֱלֹהִים and for Gid'on!”

21 And each stood in his place, round about the camp. And all the army ran and cried out and fled, 22 and the three hundred blew the ram's horns, and אֶל־אֶל־אֶל put the sword of each one against the other throughout all the camp. And the army fled to Běyth Shittah, toward Tserěrah, as far as the border of Aběl Meholah, by Tabbath.

23 And the men of Yisra'ěl were called from Naphtali, and from Ashěr, and from all Menashsheh, and pursued Midyan.

24 Then Gid'on sent messengers throughout all the mountains of Ephrayim, saying, "Come down to meet Midyan, and capture from them the watering places as far as Běyth Barah and the Yarděn." So all the men of Ephrayim were called and captured the watering places as far as Běyth Barah and the Yarděn.

25 And they captured two princes of Midyan, Orěb and Ze'ěb, and slew Orěb at the rock of Orěb, and Ze'ěb they slew at the winepress of Ze'ěb while they pursued Midyan. And they brought the heads of Orěb and Ze'ěb to Gid'on beyond the Yarděn.

8 And the men of Ephrayim said to him, "What is this you have done to us by not calling us when you went to fight with Midyan?" And they contended with him sharply,

2 and he said to them, "What have I done as compared with you? Are the gleanings of Ephrayim not better than the grape harvest of Abi'ezer?"

3 "Elohim has given into your hands the princes of Midyan, Orěb and Ze'ěb. And what was I able to do as compared with you?" And when he had said that their rage toward him subsided.

4 And Gid'on and the three hundred men who were with him came to the Yarděn, passing over, weary yet pursuing.

5 And he said to the men of Sukkoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me, for they are weary, and I am pursuing Zebah and Tsalmunna, sovereigns of Midyan."

6 But the leaders of Sukkoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Tsalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?"

7 And Gid'on said, "Because of this, when אַף־אֵז has given Zebah and Tsalmunna into my hand, I shall tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briars!"

8 And he went up from there to Penu'el and spoke to them in the same way. And the men of Penu'el answered him as the men of Sukkoth had answered him.

9 So he spoke also to the men of Penu'el, saying, "When I come back in peace I shall break down this tower!"

10 And Zebah and Tsalmunna were at Qarqor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the people of the East. Now those who had fallen were one hundred and twenty thousand men who drew the sword.

11 And Gid'on went up by the way of those who dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Yoqbehah. And he smote the camp while the camp was at ease.

12 And Zebah and Tsalmunna fled, and he pursued them, and captured the two sovereigns of Midyan, Zebah and Tsalmunna, and shuddered the entire army.

13 And Gid'on son of Yo'ash returned from battle, from the Ascent of Heres,

14 and captured a youth of the men of Sukkoth and questioned him. And he wrote down for him the leaders of Sukkoth and its elders, seventy-seven men.

15 And he came to the men of Sukkoth and said, "See: Zebaḥ and Tsalmunna, about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebaḥ and Tsalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?'"

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Sukkoth a lesson.

17 And he broke down the tower of Penu'el and slew the men of the city.

18 And he said to Zebaḥ and Tsalmunna, "How were the men whom you killed at Tabor?" So they answered, "They were like you, each one looked like the son of a sovereign."

19 And he said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As אִיִּזְרָאֵל lives, if you had let them live, I would not slay you."

20 And he said to Yether his first-born, "Rise, slay them!" But the youth would not draw his sword, for he was afraid, because he was still a youth.

21 Then Zebaḥ and Tsalmunna said, "Rise yourself, and fall on us. For as a man is, so is his might." So Gid'on arose and slew Zebaḥ and Tsalmunna, and took the crescent ornaments which were on their camels' necks.

22 So the men of Yisra'el said to Gid'on, "Rule over us, both you and your son, also your son's son, for you have saved us from the hand of Midyan."

23 But Gid'on said to them, "I do not rule over you, nor does my son rule over you. אִיִּזְרָאֵל rules over you."

24 And Gid'on said to them, "I have a request to make of you, that each of you give me the ring from his spoil.” For they had rings of gold, because they were Yishma’ēlites.

25 And they said, “We shall certainly give them.” And they spread out a garment, and each man threw into it the ring from his spoil.

26 And the weight of the gold rings that he requested was one thousand seven hundred pieces of gold - besides the crescent ornaments, and the pendants, and purple robes which were on the sovereigns of Midyan, and besides the chains that were around their camels’ necks.

27 And Gid’on made it into a shoulder garment and put it up in his city, Ophrah. And all Yisra’ēl went whoring after it there. And it became a snare to Gid’on and to his house.

28 Thus Midyan was humbled before the children of Yisra’ēl, and they lifted their heads no more. And the land had rest for forty years in the days of Gid’on.

29 And Yerubba’al son of Yo’ash went and dwelt in his own house.

30 And Gid’on had seventy sons who were his own offspring, for he had many wives.

31 And his concubine who was in Shekem also bore him a son, and he gave him the name Abimelek.

32 And Gid’on son of Yo’ash died at a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Yo’ash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi’ezerites.

33 And it came to be, when Gid’on was dead, that the children of Yisra’ēl again went whoring after the Ba’als, and made Ba’al-Berith their mighty one.

34 Thus the children of Yisra’ēl did not remember אלהיהם their Elohim, who had delivered them from the hands of all their enemies round about, 35 nor did they show kindness to the house of Yerubba'al, Gid'on, according to all the good which he did for Yisra'el.

9 And Abimeleḵ son of Yerubba'al went to Sheḵem, to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them and with all the clan of the house of his mother's father, saying,
2 "Please speak in the hearing of all the masters of Sheḵem, 'Which is better for you, that seventy men, all the sons of Yerubba'al rule over you, or that one man rule over you?' And you shall remember that I am your own flesh and bone."

3 And his mother's brothers spoke all these words concerning him in the hearing of all the masters of Sheḵem. And their heart inclined toward Abimeleḵ, for they said, "He is our brother."

4 And they gave him seventy pieces of silver from the house of Ba'al-Berith, with which Abimeleḵ hired worthless and reckless men. And they followed him.

5 And he went to his father's house at Ophrah and slew his brothers, the seventy sons of Yerubba'al, on one stone. But Yotham the youngest son of Yerubba'al was left, because he hid himself.

6 And all the masters of Sheḵem gathered together, and all of Bēyth Millo, and they went and made Abimeleḵ sovereign beside the terebinth tree at the post that was in Sheḵem.

7 And they informed Yotham, and he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted his voice and cried out, and said to them, "Hear me, you masters of Sheḵem, and let Elohim hear you!

8 "The trees went forth to anoint a sovereign over them. And they said to the olive tree, 'reign over us!'

9 “And the olive tree said to them, ‘Shall I leave my oil, with which they esteem mighty ones and men, and go to sway over trees?’

10 “Then the trees said to the fig tree, ‘Come, reign over us!’

11 “And the fig tree said to them, ‘Shall I leave my sweetness and my good fruit, and go to sway over trees?’

12 “Then the trees said to the vine, ‘Come, reign over us!’

13 “And the vine said to them, ‘Shall I leave my new wine, which rejoices mighty ones and men, and go to sway over trees?’

14 “Then all the trees said to the bramble, ‘Come, reign over us!’

15 “And the bramble said to the trees, ‘If in truth you anoint me as sovereign over you, come, take shelter in my shade. But if not, let fire come out of the bramble and devour the cedars of Lebanon!’

16 “And now, if you have acted in truth and integrity in appointing Abimelek to reign, and if you have acted well with Yerubba'al and his house, and have done to him as his hands did to you -

17 for my father fought for you and risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midyan,

18 but you have risen up against my father's house today, and slew his seventy sons on one stone, and appointed Abimelek, the son of his female servant, to reign over the masters of Shekem, because he is your brother -

19 if then you have acted in truth and integrity with Yerubba'al and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelek, and let him also rejoice in you.

20 “But if not, let fire come out from Abimelek and devour the masters of Shekem and Bēyth Millo, and let fire come out from the masters of Shekem and from Bēyth Millo and devour Aḅimeleḳ!”

21 Then Yotham ran away and fled, and he went to Be'ēr and dwelt there, for fear of Aḅimeleḳ his brother.

22 And Aḅimeleḳ governed Yisra'el three years,

23 and Elohim sent an evil spirit between Aḅimeleḳ and the masters of Shekem. And the masters of Shekem acted treacherously against Aḅimeleḳ,

24 in order that the violence done to the seventy sons of Yerubba'al might come, and their blood be laid on Aḅimeleḳ their brother, who slew them, and on the masters of Shekem, who strengthened his hands to slay his brothers.

25 And the masters of Shekem put men in ambush against him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all who passed by them along that way. And it was reported to Aḅimeleḳ.

26 And Ga'al son of Eḅed came with his brothers and passed over to Shekem. And the masters of Shekem put their trust in him, 27 and went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards and trod out, and held a feast. And they went into the house of their mighty one, and ate and drank, and cursed Aḅimeleḳ.

28 And Ga'al son of Eḅed said, “Who is Aḅimeleḳ, and who is Shekem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Yerubba'al, and is not Zeḅul his officer? Serve the men of Ḥamor the father of Shekem! But why should we serve him?”

29 “If only this people were under my hand! Then I would remove Aḅimeleḳ.” And he said to Aḅimeleḳ, “Increase your army and come out!”

30 And when Zeḅul, the governor of the city, heard the words of Ga'al son of Eḅed, his displeasure burned.

31 And he sent messengers to Abimeleḵ by deceit, saying, "See, Ga'al son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Sheḵem. And see, they are besieging the city against you.

32 "And now, get up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field.

33 "And it shall be, as soon as the sun is up in the morning, then rise early and rush upon the city. And see, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, you shall do to them as your hand finds to do."

34 And Abimeleḵ and all the people who were with him rose up by night, and laid in wait against Sheḵem in four companies.

35 Now Ga'al son of Ebed went out and stood in the entrance to the city gate, and Abimeleḵ and the people who were with him rose from lying in wait.

36 And when Ga'al saw the people, he said to Zebul, "See, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!" But Zebul said to him, "You are seeing the shadows of the mountains like men."

37 And Ga'al spoke again and said, "See, people are coming down from the high part of the land, and another company is coming from the Diviners' Terebinth Tree."

38 And Zebul said to him, "Now where is your mouth with which you said, 'Who is Abimeleḵ, that we should serve him?' Are not these the people whom you despised? I beg you, go out and fight them now."

39 So Ga'al went out, leading the masters of Sheḵem, and fought Abimeleḵ.

40 And Abimeleḵ pursued him, and he fled from him. And many fell wounded, up to the entrance of the gate.

41 And Aḅimeleḅ stayed at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Ga'al and his brothers, so that they would not dwell in Sheḅem.

42 And it came to be the next day that the people went out into the field, and they informed Aḅimeleḅ.

43 And he took his people, and divided them into three companies, and laid in wait in the field, and looked and saw the people coming out of the city. And he rose against them and smote them.

44 And Aḅimeleḅ and the company that was with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the gate of the city. And the other two companies rushed upon all who were in the fields and smote them.

45 And Aḅimeleḅ fought against the city all that day, and captured the city and slew the people who were in it. And he broke down the city and sowed it with salt.

46 And all the masters of the tower of Sheḅem had heard that, and entered the stronghold of the house of Ĕl Berith.

47 And it was reported to Aḅimeleḅ that all the masters of the tower of Sheḅem were gathered together.

48 So Aḅimeleḅ went up to Mount Tsalmon, he and all the people who were with him. And Aḅimeleḅ took an axe in his hand and cut down a branch from the trees, and took it and laid it on his shoulder. Then he said to the people who were with him, "What you have seen me do, hurry, do as I have done."

49 And all the people likewise cut down each one his own branch and followed Aḅimeleḅ, and put them against the stronghold, and lit the stronghold on fire above them, so that all the men of the tower of Sheḅem died, about a thousand men and women.

50 Abimeleḵ then went to Thēbēts, and he encamped against Thēbēts and captured it.

51 However, there was a strong tower in the city, and all the men and women and all the masters of the city fled there and shut themselves in, and went up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimeleḵ came to the tower and fought against it, and approached the door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 But a certain woman dropped an upper millstone on the head of Abimeleḵ, and crushed his skull.

54 He then immediately called the young man, his armour-bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword and kill me, lest men say of me, 'A woman killed him.'" And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Yisra'ēl saw that Abimeleḵ was dead, each one went to his own place.

56 Thus did Elohim repay the evil of Abimeleḵ, which he had done to his father to slay his seventy brothers.

57 And all the evil of the men of Sheḵem Elohim turned back on their own heads, and the curse of Yotham son of Yerubba'al came on them.

10 And after Abimeleḵ there arose Tola son of Pu'ah, son of Dodo, a man of Yissasḵar, to save Yisra'ēl. And he dwelt in Shamir in the mountains of Ephrayim.

2 And he ruled Yisra'ēl twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried in Shamir.

3 And after him arose Ya'ir, a Gil'adite, and he ruled Yisra'ēl twenty-two years.

4 And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkeys. And they had thirty towns, which are called Ḥawoth Ya'ir to this day, which are in the land of Gil'ad.

5 And Ya'ir died, and was buried in Qamon.

6 And the children of Yisra'ël again did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and served the Ba'als and the Ashtoreths, and the mighty ones of Aram, and the mighty ones of Tsidon, and the mighty ones of Mo'ab, and the mighty ones of the children of Ammon, and the mighty ones of the Pelishtites - and forsook אֱלֹהִים and did not serve Him.

7 Therefore the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים burned against Yisra'ël. And He sold them into the hands of the Pelishtites and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And they crushed and oppressed the children of Yisra'ël that year - for eighteen years - all the children of Yisra'ël who were beyond the Yardën in the land of the Amorites, in Gil'ad.

9 And the children of Ammon passed over the Yardën to fight against Yahudah, and against Binyamin, and against the house of Ephrayim, so that Yisra'ël had great distress.

10 And the children of Yisra'ël cried out to אֱלֹהִים, saying, "We have sinned against You, because we have both forsaken our Elohim and served the Ba'als!"

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to the children of Yisra'ël, "Was it not from the Mitsrites and from the Amorites and from the children of Ammon and from the Pelishtites

12 and the Tsidonians and Amalëq and Ma'on when they oppressed you, and you cried out to Me, and I saved you from their hand?

13 "But you, you have forsaken Me and served other mighty ones. Therefore I do not save you again.

14 "Go and cry out to the mighty ones which you have chosen, let them save you in your time of distress."

15 And the children of Yisra'ël said to אִיִּי, "We have sinned! Do to us whatever is good in Your eyes, only deliver us today, please."

16 So they put away the foreign mighty ones from their midst and served אִיִּי. And His being was grieved with the trouble of Yisra'ël.

17 Then the children of Ammon were called together and encamped in Gil'ad. And the children of Yisra'ël gathered together and encamped in Mitspah.

18 And the people, the heads of Gil'ad, said to each other, "Let the man who is the first to fight against the children of Ammon be head over all the inhabitants of Gil'ad."

11 And Yiphtaḥ the Gil'adite was a mighty brave one, but he was the son of a whore. And Gil'ad brought forth Yiphtaḥ.

2 And the wife of Gil'ad bore sons. And when his wife's sons grew up, they drove Yiphtaḥ out, and said to him, "You shall not have an inheritance in the house of our father, for you are the son of another woman."

3 And Yiphtaḥ fled from his brothers and dwelt in the land of Tob. And worthless men banded together with Yiphtaḥ and went out with him.

4 And it came to be, some time later, that the children of Ammon fought against Yisra'ël.

5 And it came to be, when the children of Ammon fought against Yisra'ël, that the elders of Gil'ad went to bring Yiphtaḥ out of the land of Tob.

6 And they said to Yiphtaḥ, "Come, and you shall be our commander, and let us fight against the children of Ammon."

7 But Yiphtaḥ said to the elders of Gil'ad, "Did you not hate me, and drive me from my father's house?"

Why have you come to me now when you are in trouble?”

8 And the elders of Gil'ad said to Yiphtaḥ, “That is the reason we have turned to you, that you shall go with us and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gil'ad.”

9 And Yiphtaḥ said to the elders of Gil'ad, “If you take me back home to fight against the children of Ammon, and אֶפְרַיִם gives them to me, am I to be your head?”

10 And the elders of Gil'ad said to Yiphtaḥ, “אֶפְרַיִם is witness between us, if we do not do according to your words.”

11 Then Yiphtaḥ went with the elders of Gil'ad, and the people put him over them, as head and commander. And Yiphtaḥ spoke all his words before אֶפְרַיִם in Mitspah.

12 And Yiphtaḥ sent messengers to the sovereign of the children of Ammon, saying, “What is between you and me, that you have come to fight against me in my land?”

13 And the sovereign of the children of Ammon said to the messengers of Yiphtaḥ, “Because Yisra'el took my land when they came up out of Mitsrayim, from the Arnon as far as the Yabboq, and to the Yardēn. And now, give back those lands in peace.”

14 But Yiphtaḥ again sent messengers to the sovereign of the children of Ammon,

15 and said to him, “This is what Yiphtaḥ said, ‘Yisra'el did not take the land of Mo'ab, nor the land of the children of Ammon.

16 ‘For when they came up from Mitsrayim, and Yisra'el walked through the wilderness as far as the Sea of Reeds and came to Qadēsh, 17 then Yisra'ël sent messengers to the sovereign of Eđom, saying, "Please let me pass over, through your land." But the sovereign of Eđom would not listen. And they also sent to the sovereign of Mo'ab, but he refused, so Yisra'ël stayed at Qaděsh.

18 'Then they went through the wilderness and around the land of Eđom and the land of Mo'ab, and came to the east side of the land of Mo'ab, and encamped beyond Arnon. But they did not enter the border of Mo'ab, for Arnon was the border of Mo'ab.

19 'And Yisra'ël sent messengers to Siđon sovereign of the Amorites, sovereign of Heshbon, and Yisra'ël said to him, "Please let us pass over, through your land into our place."

20 'But Siđon did not trust Yisra'ël to pass over through his border, and Siđon gathered all his people together, and they encamped in Yahats, and fought against Yisra'ël.

21 'And אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël gave Siđon and all his people into the hand of Yisra'ël, and they smote them. So Yisra'ël took possession of all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that land.

22 'Thus they took possession of all the border of the Amorites, from Arnon to the Yabboq and from the wilderness to the Yarděn.

23 'And now, אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël has driven out the Amorites from before His people Yisra'ël, should you then possess it?

24 'Whatever Kemosh your mighty one gives you to possess, do you not possess it? And all that which אֱלֹהִים our Elohim takes possession of before us, we possess.

25 'And now are you any better than Balaq son of Tsippor, sovereign of Mo'ab? Did he ever strive against Yisra'ël? Did he ever fight against them?

26 'While Yisra'ël dwelt in Heshbon and its villages, and in Aro'ër and its villages, and in all the cities along the banks of Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not recover them within that time?

27 'So I have not sinned against you, but you are doing me evil by fighting against me. Let אֱלֹהֵי the Judge, judge today between the children of Yisra'ël and the children of Ammon.' "

28 But the sovereign of the children of Ammon did not listen to the words which Yiphtaḥ sent him.

29 And the Ruah of אֱלֹהֵי came upon Yiphtaḥ, and he passed through Gil'ad and Menashsheh, and passed through Mitspëh of Gil'ad. And from Mitspëh of Gil'ad he passed on toward the children of Ammon.

30 And Yiphtaḥ made a vow to אֱלֹהֵי, and said, "If You give the children of Ammon into my hands,

31 then it shall be that whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall belong to אֱלֹהֵי, and I shall offer it up as a burnt offering."

32 Yiphtaḥ then passed on toward the children of Ammon to fight against them, and אֱלֹהֵי gave them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aro'ër as far as Minnith, twenty cities, and to Abël Keramim, with a very great smiting. Thus the children of Ammon were humbled before the children of Yisra'ël.

34 And Yiphtaḥ came to his house at Mitspah, and saw his daughter coming out to meet him with timbrels and dancing. Now except for her he had neither son nor daughter.

35 And it came to be, when he saw her, that he tore his garments, and said, "Oh my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are among those who trouble me! And I, I have given my word to אִיִּזְרְאֵל, and I am unable to turn back.”

36 And she said to him, “My father, if you have given your word to אִיִּזְרְאֵל, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth, because אִיִּזְרְאֵל has taken vengeance for you upon your enemies, the children of Ammon.”

37 And she said to her father, “Let this be done for me: let me alone for two months, and let me go and wander on the mountains and bewail my maidenhood, my friends and I.”

38 Then he said, “Go.” And he sent her away for two months. And she went with her friends, and bewailed her maidenhood on the mountains.

39 And it came to be at the end of two months that she returned to her father, and he did to her as he had vowed, and she knew no man. And it became a law in Yisra’ël

40 that the daughters of Yisra’ël went every year for four days to lament the daughter of Yiphtaḥ the Gil’adite.

12 And the men of Ephrayim gathered together, and passed over toward Tsaphon, and said to Yiphtaḥ, “Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and did not call us to go with you? We are going to burn your house over you with fire!”

2 And Yiphtaḥ said to them, “My people and I were in a great struggle with the children of Ammon. And when I called you, you did not save me out of their hands.

3 “And I saw that you would not save me, then I took my life in my hands and went over against the children of Ammon. And אִיִּזְרְאֵל gave them into my hand. And why have you come up to me today to fight against me?"

4 Yiphtaḥ then gathered together all the men of Gil'ad and fought against Ephrayim. And the men of Gil'ad smote Ephrayim, because they had said, "You Gil'adite are fugitives of Ephrayim in the midst of Ephrayim, in the midst of Menashsheh."

5 And Gil'ad captured the fords of the Yardēn that faced Ephrayim. And it came to be, when the fugitives from Ephrayim said, "Let me pass over," the men of Gil'ad said to him, "You are an Ephrayimite!" If he said, "No,"

6 then they would say to him, "Please say, 'Shibboleth!'" And he would say, "Sibboleth," for he was unable to pronounce it right. Then they seized him and slew him at the fords of the Yardēn. And at that time there fell forty-two thousand Ephrayimites.

7 And Yiphtaḥ ruled Yisra'el six years. And Yiphtaḥ the Gil'adite died and was buried in one of the cities of Gil'ad.

8 And after him, Iḷtsan of Bēyth Leḥem ruled Yisra'el.

9 And he came to have thirty sons and thirty daughters - he sent abroad and brought in thirty daughters for his sons. And he ruled Yisra'el seven years.

10 And Iḷtsan died and was buried at Bēyth Leḥem.

11 And after him Ĕylon the Zeḅulunite ruled Yisra'el. And he ruled Yisra'el ten years.

12 And Ĕlon the Zeḅulunite died and was buried at Ayalon in the land of Zeḅulun.

13 And after him, Aḅdon son of Hillēl the Pirathonite ruled Yisra'el,

14 and he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy young donkeys. And he ruled Yisra'ël eight years.

15 And Abdon son of Hillël the Pirathonite died and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephrayim, in the mountains of the Amalëqites.

13 And again the children of Yisra'ël did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, so אֱלֹהִים gave them into the hand of the Pelishtites for forty years.

2 And there was a certain man from Tsor'ah, of the clan of the Danites, whose name was Manowaḥ. And his wife was barren and had not borne.

3 And a Messenger of אֱלֹהִים appeared to the woman and said to her, "See now, you are barren and have not borne, but you shall conceive, and you shall bear a son.

4 "And now, please guard, and do not drink wine or strong drink, and do not eat anything unclean.

5 "For look, you are conceiving and bearing a son. And let no razor come upon his head, for the youth is a Nazirite to Elohim from the womb on. And he shall begin to save Yisra'ël out of the hand of the Pelishtites."

6 And the woman came and spoke to her husband, saying, "A Man of Elohim came to me, and His appearance was like the appearance of a Messenger of Elohim, very awesome. But I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not declare to me His Name.

7 "And He said to me, 'See, you are conceiving and bearing a son. And now, drink no wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean, for the youth is a Nazirite to Elohim from the womb to the day of his death.' "

8 And Manowaḥ prayed to אֱלֹהִים, and said, "O אֱלֹהִים, please let the Man of Elohim whom You sent come to us again and teach us what to do for the youth who is to be born.”

9 And Elohim listened to the voice of Manowaḥ, and the Messenger of Elohim came to the woman again as she was sitting in the field, but Manowaḥ her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman ran hurriedly and informed her husband, and said to him, “See, He has appeared to me, the Man who came to me the other day!”

11 And Manowaḥ arose and went after his wife, and came to the Man, and he said to Him, “Are You the Man who spoke to this woman?” And He said, “I am.”

12 And Manowaḥ said, “Now let Your words come true! What is to be the rule for the youth’s life and his work?”

13 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to Manowaḥ, “Let the woman guard all that I said to her.

14 “Let her not eat anything that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, or eat anything unclean. Let her guard all that which I have commanded her.”

15 And Manowaḥ said to the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים, “Please let us detain You, and prepare a young goat for You.”

16 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to Manowaḥ, “Though you detain Me, I do not eat your food. But if you offer a burnt offering, offer it to אֱלֹהִים.” For Manowaḥ did not know He was a Messenger of אֱלֹהִים.

17 Then Manowaḥ said to the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים, “What is Your Name? When Your words come true, then we shall esteem You.”

18 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to him, “Why do you ask My Name, since it is wondrous?”

19 And Manowaḥ took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it upon the rock to אֱלֹהִים. And He did wondrously while Manowaḥ and his wife looked on.

20 And it came to be, as the flame went up toward the shamayim from the altar, that the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים went up in the flame of the altar. And Manowaḥ and his wife were watching, and they fell on their faces to the ground.

21 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים did not appear any more to Manowaḥ and his wife. Then Manowaḥ knew that He was a Messenger of אֱלֹהִים.

22 And Manowaḥ said to his wife, “We shall certainly die, because we have seen Elohim!”

23 But his wife said to him, “If אֱלֹהִים had been pleased to put us to death, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain offering from our hands, nor would He have shown us all this, nor would He have let us hear the like of this!”

24 So the woman bore a son and called his name Shimshon. And the child grew, and אֱלֹהִים barak him.

25 And the Ruah of אֱלֹהִים began to move him at Maḥaněh Dan, between Tsor’ah and Eshta’ol.

14 And Shimshon went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Pelishtites.

2 And he went up and informed his father and mother, saying, “I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Pelishtites. And now, take her for me for a wife.”

3 But his father and mother said to him, “Is there no woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you should take a wife from the uncircumcised Pelishtites?” And Shimshon said to his father, “Take her for me, for she is pleasing in my eyes.”

4 However, his father and mother did not know that it was of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, that He was seeking an occasion to move against the Pelishtites. For at that time the Pelishtites were ruling over Yisra'ël.

5 Then Shimshon went down to Timnah with his father and mother, and came to the vineyards of Timnah, and see, a young lion came roaring at him.

6 And the Ruah of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came mightily upon him, and he tore it apart as the tearing apart of a young goat, with naught in his hand. But he did not make known to his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down and spoke to the woman, and she pleased Shimshon well.

8 And when he returned later to take her, he turned aside to look at the carcass of the lion, and saw a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion.

9 And he took some of it in his hands and went along, eating. And he came to his father and mother, and gave them, and they ate. But he did not make known to them that he took the honey out of the carcass of the lion.

10 So his father went down to the woman. And Shimshon gave a feast there, for young men used to do so.

11 And it came to be, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.

12 And Shimshon said to them, "Please let me put forth a riddle to you. If you clearly solve and explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, then I shall give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of garments.

13 "But if you are unable to explain it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen shirts and thirty changes of garments." And they said to him, "Put forth your riddle and let us hear it."

14 And he said to them, "Out of the eater came forth food, and out of the strong came forth sweetness." And for three days they were unable to explain the riddle.

15 And it came to be on the seventh day that they said to Shimshon's wife, "Entice your husband to explain the riddle to us, or else we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you invited us in order to take what is ours? Is it not?"

16 And Shimshon's wife wept before him, and said, "You only hate me, and do not love me! You have put forth a riddle to the sons of my people, but you have not explained it to me." And he said to her, "Look, I have not explained it to my father or my mother, and should I explain it to you?"

17 And she had wept before him the seven days while their feast lasted. And it came to be on the seventh day that he informed her, because she pressed him so much. She then explained the riddle to the sons of her people.

18 And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? And what is stronger than a lion?" And he said to them, "If you had not ploughed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle!"

19 Then the Ruah of אַף־אֵז came upon him mightily, and he went down to Ashqelon and smote thirty of their men, stripped them, and gave the changes of garments to those who had explained the riddle. And his displeasure burned, and he went back up to his father's house.

20 And Shimshon's wife was given to his companion, who had been his friend.

- 15 And it came to be, after some time, in the days of wheat harvest, that Shimshon visited his wife with a young goat. And he said, "Let me go in to my wife, into her room." But her father would not permit him to go in.
- 2 And her father said, "Indeed, I thought that you hated her intensely; so I gave her to your companion. Is not her younger sister better than she? Please, take her instead."
- 3 And Shimshon said to them, "This time I am blameless regarding the Pelishtites if I do evil to them!"
- 4 And Shimshon went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned them tail to tail, and put a torch between each pair of tails,
- 5 and lit the torches on fire, and sent them out into the standing grain of the Pelishtites, and burned up both the shocks and the standing grain, even the vineyards and olive trees.
- 6 And the Pelishtites said, "Who did this?" And they answered, "Shimshon, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took away his wife and gave her to his companion." Then the Pelishtites went up and burned her and her father with fire.
- 7 And Shimshon said to them, "Though you do this, yet I shall take revenge on you, and after that I cease."
- 8 And he smote them hip and thigh, a great smiting, and went down and dwelt in the cleft of the rock of Ēytam.
- 9 The Pelishtites then went up and encamped in Yahudāh, and spread out against Leḥi.
- 10 And the men of Yahudāh said, "Why have you come up against us?" And they answered, "We have come up to bind Shimshon, to do to him as he has done to us."

11 Then three thousand men of Yahudāh went down to the cleft of the rock of Ēytam and said to Shimshon, “Do you not know that the Pelishtites are rulers over us? Why have you done this to us?” And he said to them, “As they did to me, so I did to them.”

12 And they said to him, “We have come down to bind you, to give you into the hand of the Pelishtites.” And Shimshon said to them, “Swear to me not to fall on me yourselves.”

13 And they spoke to him, saying, “No, but we are certainly going to bind you, and shall give you into their hand but certainly not kill you.” So they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock.

14 When he came to Leḥi, the Pelishtites came shouting to meet him. And the Ruah of אִי אִי came mightily upon him. And the ropes that were on his arms became like flax that is burned with fire, and his bonds broke loose from his hands.

15 And he found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and put out his hand and took it, and smote a thousand men with it.

16 And Shimshon said, “With the jawbone of a donkey, one heap, two heaps, with the jawbone of a donkey I have smitten a thousand men!”

17 And it came to be, when he had ended speaking, that he threw the jawbone from his hand, and called that place Ramath Leḥi.

18 And he became very thirsty, and cried out to אִי אִי and said, “You have given this great deliverance by the hand of Your servant. And now, am I to die of thirst and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?”

19 And Elohim split the hollow place that is in Leḥi, and water came out, and he drank. And his spirit came back, and he revived. So he called its name Ĕyn ha'Qorě, which is in Leḥi to his day.

20 And he ruled Yisra'ěl twenty years in the days of the Pelishtites.

16 And Shimshon went to Azzah and saw a woman there, a whore, and went in to her -

2 the Azzathites saying, "Shimshon has come here!" So they went round and lay in wait for him all night at the gate of the city, and kept silent all night, saying, "In the morning, when it is daylight, then we shall kill him."

3 Now Shimshon lay until midnight, and rose at midnight, and took hold of the doors of the gate of the city and the two gateposts, and pulled them up with the bar, put them on his shoulders, and took them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

4 And it came to be afterward that he loved a woman in the wadi Sorěq, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the princes of the Pelishtites came up to her and said to her, "Entice him, and find out where his great strength lies, and see by what we might overpower him, then we shall bind him to humble him. And let us give you, each one of us, eleven hundred pieces of silver."

6 And Delilah said to Shimshon, "Please reveal to me where your great strength lies, and by what you might be bound, to humble you."

7 And Shimshon said to her, "If they bind me with seven fresh cords, not yet dried, then I shall be weak, and be like any other man."

8 The princes of the Pelishtites then brought her seven fresh cords, not yet dried, and she bound him with them,

9 while those lying in wait stayed with her in the room. And she said to him, "The Pelishtites are upon you, Shimshon!" But he broke the cords as a strand of yarn breaks when it touches fire. So the secret of his strength remained unknown.

10 And Delilah said to Shimshon, "Look, you have mocked me and spoken lies to me. Now, please reveal to me by what you might be bound."

11 And he said to her, "If they bind me tightly with new ropes that have never been used, then I shall be weak, and be like any other man."

12 And Delilah took new ropes and bound him with them, and said to him, "The Pelishtites are upon you, Shimshon!" And those lying in wait were sitting in the inner room. But he broke them off his arms like a thread.

13 So Delilah said to Shimshon, "Until now you have mocked me and spoken lies to me, reveal to me how you might be bound." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web."

14 Then she fastened it with a pin, and said to him, "The Pelishtites are upon you, Shimshon!" But he awoke from his sleep, and pulled out the pin of the loom and the web.

15 Then she said to him, "How do you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not made known to me where your great strength lies."

16 And it came to be, when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, so that his being was wearied to death,

17 that he made known to her all his heart, and said to her, "No razor has ever come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to Elohim from my mother's womb. If I were shaven, then my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as any other man.”

18 And Delilah saw that he had made known to her all his heart, and she sent and called for the princes of the Pelishtites, saying, “Come up once more, for he has made known to me all his heart.” So the princes of the Pelishtites came up to her and brought the silver in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep on her knees, and called for a man and shaved off the seven locks of his head. Thus she began to humble him, and his strength left him.

20 And she said, “The Pelishtites are upon you, Shimshon!” And he awoke from his sleep, and said, “Let me go out as before, at other times, and shake myself loose!” But he did not know that אִרְאֵל had turned aside from him.

21 So the Pelishtites took him and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Azzah, and bound him with bronze shackles. And he became a grinder in the prison.

22 But the hair of his head began to grow again after it had been shaven.

23 And the princes of the Pelishtites gathered to offer a great slaughtering to Daḡon their mighty one, and to rejoice. And they said, “Our mighty one has given Shimshon our enemy into our hands!”

24 And the people saw him, and praised their mighty one, for they said, “Our mighty one has given into our hands our enemy, the destroyer of our land, who slew many of us.”

25 And it came to be, when their hearts were glad, that they said, “Call for Shimshon, and let him entertain us.” So they called for Shimshon from the prison, and he entertained them. And they made him stand between the columns.

26 And Shimshon said to the young man who held him by the hand, "Let me alone and let me feel the columns which support the house, so that I lean on them."

27 And the house was filled with men and women. And all the princes of the Pelishtites were there. And about three thousand men and women were on the roof who watched Shimshon entertaining.

28 And Shimshon called to אֱלֹהִים, saying, "O Adonai אֱלֹהִים, remember me, I pray! Strengthen me, I pray, only this time, O Elohim, and let me avenge myself on the Pelishtites with vengeance for my two eyes!"

29 And Shimshon took hold of the two middle columns which supported the house, and he braced himself against them, one on his right and the other on his left.

30 And Shimshon said, "Let me die with the Pelishtites!" And he bowed himself mightily, and the house fell on the princes and all the people in it. And the dead that he killed at his death were more than he had killed in his life.

31 And his brothers and all his father's household came down and took him, and brought him up and buried him between Tsor'ah and Eshta'ol in the tomb of his father Manowaḥ. And he had ruled Yisra'el twenty years.

17 And there was a man from the hill country of Ephrayim, whose name was Miḳahu.

2 And he said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, and on which you put a curse, even saying it in my ears.

Look, the silver is with me, I took it.” And his mother said, “Baruḳ of אִפְאָז be my son!”

3 And he gave back the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother, and his mother said, “I had truly qadosh the silver from my hand to אִפְאָז for my son, to make a carved image and a moulded image, and now, I give it back to you.”

4 And he gave the silver back to his mother, and his mother took two hundred pieces of silver and gave them to the silversmith, and he made it into a carved image and a moulded image. And they were in the house of Miḳahu.

5 Now the man Miḳah had a house of mighty ones, and made a shoulder garment and house idols. And he ordained one of his sons, who became his kohēn.

6 In those days there was no sovereign in Yisra’ēl - everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

7 And there was a young man from Běyth Leḥem in Yahudāh, of the clan of Yahudāh. And he was a Lěwite, and he was sojourning there.

8 And the man went out of the city of Běyth Leḥem in Yahudāh to sojourn wherever he could find a place. And he came to the mountains of Ephrayim, to the house of Miḳah, as he journeyed.

9 And Miḳah said to him, “Where do you come from?” And he said to him, “I am a Lěwite from Běyth Leḥem in Yahudāh, and I am on my way to find a place to sojourn.”

10 And Miḳah said to him, “Dwell with me, and be a father and a kohēn to me, and I give you ten pieces of silver per year, and allowance of garments, and your food.” And the Lěwite went.

11 So the Lěwite agreed to dwell with the man. And the young man became like one of his sons to him.

12 Then Miḳah ordained the Lěwite, and the young man became his kohěn, and he was in the house of Miḳah.

13 And Miḳah said, “Now I know that אֱלֹהִים does good to me, since I have a Lěwite as kohěn!

18 In those days there was no sovereign in Yisra’ěl.

And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking an inheritance for itself to dwell in, for until that day all their inheritance among the tribes of Yisra’ěl had not yet fallen to them.

2 And the children of Dan sent five men of their clan, brave men from Tsor’ah and Eshta’ol, to spy out the land and search it. And they said to them, “Go, search the land,” so they went to the mountains of Ephrayim, to the house of Miḳah, and spent the night there.

3 When they were near the house of Miḳah, they recognised the voice of the young Lěwite, and turned aside and said to him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place, and what do you have here?”

4 And he said to them, “Miḳah did such and such for me. And he hired me, and I have become his kohěn.”

5 And they said to him, “Please inquire of Elohim, and we shall know whether the journey on which we are going is prosperous.”

6 And the kohěn said to them, “Go in peace. Your journey on which you go is before אֱלֹהִים.”

7 Then the five men left and came to Layish, and saw the people who were in their midst, how they dwelt safely, according to the ruling of the Tsidonians, at rest and unsuspecting. And no one possessing authority in the land was reproaching for any matter. And they were far from the Tsidonians, and they had no word with anyone.

8 And the spies came back to their brothers at Tsor'ah and Eshta'ol, and their brothers said to them, "What do you say?"

9 And they said, "Arise, and let us go up against them. For we have seen the land, and look, it is very good. And you sit still! Do not hesitate to go to enter in to possess the land.

10 "When you go, you are to come to an unsuspecting people, and the land is spacious. For Elohim has given it into your hands, a place in which there is no lack of any matter which is on the earth."

11 And six hundred men of the clan of the Danites went from there, from Tsor'ah and Eshta'ol, armed for battle.

12 And they went up and encamped in Qiryath Ye'arim in Yahudah. Therefore they call that place Maḥanēh Dan to this day. See, it is west of Qiryath Ye'arim.

13 And they passed over from there to the mountains of Ephrayim, and came to the house of Miḳah.

14 And the five men who had gone to spy out the land of Layish answered and said to their brothers, "Do you know that there are in these houses a shoulder garment, and house idols, and a carved image, and a moulded image? And now, you know what to do."

15 And they turned aside there, and came to the house of the young Lēwite man, the house of Miḳah, and greeted him.

16 And the six hundred men, armed for battle, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate.

17 And the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up, and entering there, they took the carved image, and the shoulder garment, and the house idols, and the moulded image, while the kohēn stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were armed for battle.

18 And these went into Miḳah's house and took the idol, and the shoulder garment, and the house idols, and the moulded image. Then the kohēn said to them, "What are you doing?"

19 And they said to him, "Be silent, put your hand over your mouth, and come with us, and be a father and a kohēn to us. Is it better for you to be a kohēn to the household of one man, or that you be a kohēn to a tribe and a clan in Yisra'el?"

20 And the heart of the kohēn was glad. And he took the shoulder garment, and the house idols, and the carved image, and took his place among the people.

21 And they turned and went, and put the little ones, and the livestock, and the valuables in front of them.

22 They had gone some distance from the house of Miḳah, when the men who were in the houses near Miḳah's house gathered together and overtook the children of Dan,

23 and called out to the children of Dan. So they turned around and said to Miḳah, "What is the matter, that you have gathered such a company?"

24 And he said, "You have taken away my mighty ones which I made, and the kohēn, and you are leaving. Now what more do I have? What is this you say to me, 'What is the matter?' "

25 And the children of Dan said to him, "Do not let your voice be heard among us, lest men, bitter of being, fall upon you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household!"

26 And the children of Dan went their way. And when Miḳah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

27 Then they took what Miḳah had made, and the kohēn who had belonged to him, and went to Layish, to a people who were at rest and unsuspecting, and smote them with the edge of the sword and burned the city with fire.

28 And there was no deliverer, because it was far from Tsidon, and they had no word with anyone. And it was in the valley that belongs to Běyth Rehob. And they rebuilt the city and dwelt there.

29 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Yisra'ěl. But previously the name of the city was Layish.

30 And the children of Dan put up for themselves the carved image. And Yahonathan son of Gěreshom, son of Menashsheh, and his sons were kohenim to the tribe of Dan until the day the land was taken into exile.

31 And they put up for themselves the carved image of Miḳah, which he had made, all the days that the house of Elohim was in Shiloh.

19 And it came to be in those days, when there was no sovereign in Yisra'ěl, that there was a certain Lěwite sojourning on the further side of the mountains of Ephrayim. And he took for himself a concubine from Běyth Leḥem in Yahudah.

2 And his concubine committed whoring against him, and went away from him to her father's house at Běyth Leḥem in Yahudah, and was there four months.

3 And her husband arose and went after her, to speak to her heart and bring her back, having his servant and a couple of donkeys with him. And she brought him into her father's house. And the father of the young woman saw him, and he was glad to meet him.

4 And his father-in-law, the young woman's father, detained him, and he dwelt with him three days. And they ate and drank and spent the nights there.

5 And it came to be on the fourth day that they arose early in the morning. And he prepared to leave, but the young woman's father said to his son-in-law, "Refresh your heart with a piece of bread, and afterward go your way."

6 So they sat down, and the two of them ate and drank together. And the young woman's father said to the man, "Please agree to stay all night, and let your heart be glad."

7 And when the man arose to go, his father-in-law urged him. So he spent the night there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to go. But the young woman's father said, "Please refresh your heart." So they delayed until afternoon, and both of them ate.

9 And the man arose to go, he and his concubine and his servant. But his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him, "See, the day is now drawing toward evening. Please spend the night. See, the day is coming to an end. Stay here, and let your heart be glad. And you shall rise early tomorrow for your journey, and you shall go to your tent."

10 But the man would not stay that night. And he arose and left, and came to a place opposite Yebus, that is Yerushalayim. And with him were the two saddled donkeys, and his concubine with him.

11 They were near Yebus, and the day was far spent. And the servant said to his master, "Come, please, and let us turn aside into this city of the Yebusites and spend the night in it."

12 And his master said to him, "Let us not turn aside here into a city of foreigners, who are not of the children of Yisra'ël. But we shall pass over to Gib'ah."

13 And he said to his servant, "Come, let us draw near to one of these places, and spend the night in Gib'ah or in Ramah."

14 And they passed over and went their way. And the sun went down on them near Gib'ah, which belongs to Binyamin,

15 and they turned off there to go in to spend the night in Gib'ah. So he went in, and he sat down in the open square of the city, for no one would take them into his house to spend the night.

16 But see, an old man came in from his work in the field at evening, who also was from the mountains of Ephrayim. And he was sojourning in Gib'ah, whereas the men of the place were Binyamites.

17 And when he lifted up his eyes, he saw the traveller in the open square of the city. And the old man said, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

18 And he said to him, "We are passing over from Bëyth Lehem in Yahudah to the other side of the mountains of Ephrayim. I am from there, and I went to Bëyth Lehem in Yahudah, and I am going to the House of אֵלֵאֱזָרָה. But there is no one taking me into his house,

19 yet there is both straw and fodder for our donkeys, and bread and wine for myself, and for your female servant, and for the young man who is with your servant; there is no lack of any matter."

20 And the old man said, "Peace be with you! However, let all your needs be on me, only do not spend the night in the open square."

21 And he brought him into his house, and gave fodder to the donkeys. And they washed their feet, and ate and drank.

22 They were making their hearts glad, and see, men of the city, sons of Beliya'al, surrounded the house, beating on the door. And they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came to your house, so that we know him!"

23 But the man, the master of the house, went out to them and said to them, "No, my brothers! I beg you, do no evil! Since this man has come into my house, do not do this folly.

24 "Look, here is my maiden daughter and the man's concubine. Let me bring them out now, and humble them, and do with them what is good in your eyes, but do not do such a foolish matter to this man!"

25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine and brought her out to them. And they knew her and rolled themselves on her all night until morning, and let her go when the day began to break.

26 And as morning appeared the woman came back and fell down at the door of the man's house where her master was, till it was light.

27 And her master rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house and went out to go his way, and saw his concubine, fallen at the door of the house with her hands on the threshold.

28 And he said to her, "Rise up and let us go." But there was no answer. Then he took her on the donkey, and the man rose and went to his place, 29 and came into his house and took a knife, then laid hold of his concubine, and cut her up limb by limb into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the borders of Yisra'el.

30 And it came to be that all who saw it said, “There has never been, and there has not been seen the like of this, from the day that the children of Yisra’ël came up from the land of Mitsrayim until this day. Consider it, take counsel, and speak up!”

20 And all the children of Yisra’ël came out, from Dan to Be’ërsheḇa, and from the land of Gil’ad, and the congregation assembled as one man before אַף־אָז at Mitspah.

2 And the leaders of all the people, all the tribes of Yisra’ël, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of Elohim, four hundred thousand foot soldiers who drew the sword.

3 And the children of Binyamin heard that the children of Yisra’ël had gone up to Mitspah. And the children of Yisra’ël said, “Speak up, how did this evil come about?”

4 And the man, the Lëwite, husband of the woman who was murdered, answered and said, “My concubine and I went into Gib’ah, which belongs to Binyamin, to spend the night.

5 “And the masters of Gib’ah rose against me, and surrounded the house at night because of me. They thought to kill me, but instead they humbled my concubine, and she died.

6 “Then I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the land of the inheritance of Yisra’ël, because they committed wickedness and folly in Yisra’ël.

7 “Look, you are all children of Yisra’ël, speak and give your counsel here!”

8 And all the people rose as one man, saying, “Let not one of us go to his tent, nor any of us turn back to his house.

9 “And now, this is what we do to Gib’ah: go against it by lot.

10 “And we shall take ten men out of every hundred throughout all the tribes of Yisra’ël, and a hundred out of every thousand, and a thousand out of every ten thousand, to make food for the people, to prepare for their going to Gib’ah in Binyamin, for all the folly they did in Yisra’ël.”

11 And all the men of Yisra’ël were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Yisra’ël sent men through all the tribe of Binyamin, saying, “What is this evil that has come about among you?”

13 “And now, give us the men, the sons of Beliya’al who are in Gib’ah, so that we put them to death and put away evil from Yisra’ël!” But the children of Binyamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers, the children of Yisra’ël.

14 So the children of Binyamin gathered together from their cities to Gib’ah, to go to battle against the children of Yisra’ël.

15 And from their cities at that time the children of Binyamin registered twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gib’ah, who registered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed, each one could sling a stone at a hair’s breadth and not miss.

17 And besides Binyamin, the men of Yisra’ël registered four hundred thousand men who drew the sword, all of these were men of battle.

18 And the children of Yisra’ël rose and went up to Bëyth Ĕl to ask of Elohim, and they said, “Who of us go up first to battle against the children of Binyamin?” And אִי־אִי said, “Yahuḏah first.”

19 And the children of Yisra'ël rose in the morning and encamped against Giḇ'ah.

20 And the men of Yisra'ël went out to battle against Binyamin, and the men of Yisra'ël put themselves in battle array to fight against them at Giḇ'ah.

21 And the children of Binyamin came out of Giḇ'ah, and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of the Yisra'ëlites.

22 But the people, the men of Yisra'ël, strengthened themselves and again formed the battle line at the place where they had put themselves, in array on the first day.

23 And the children of Yisra'ël went up and wept before אֱלֹהִים until evening, and asked of אֱלֹהִים saying, "Should I again draw near for battle against the children of my brother Binyamin?" And אֱלֹהִים said, "Go up against him."

24 And the children of Yisra'ël drew near to the children of Binyamin on the second day.

25 And Binyamin went out against them from Giḇ'ah on the second day, and cut down to the ground eighteen thousand more of the children of Yisra'ël - all these drew the sword.

26 And all the children of Yisra'ël, even all the people, went up and came to Běyth Ĕl and wept, and sat there before אֱלֹהִים and fasted that day until evening. And they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before אֱלֹהִים.

27 And the children of Yisra'ël asked of אֱלֹהִים - the ark of the Covenant of Elohim was there in those days,

28 and Pineḥas son of El'azar, son of Aharon, stood before it in those days - saying, "Should I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Binyamin, or should I cease?" And אַחֲזַב said, "Go up, for tomorrow I give them into your hand."

29 And Yisra'el put ambushers all around Gib'ah.

30 And the children of Yisra'el went up against the children of Binyamin on the third day, and put themselves in battle array against Gib'ah as at the other times.

31 And the children of Binyamin came out to meet the people - drawn away from the city. And they began to smite some of the people, slaying, as at the other times, in the highways, of which one went up to Běyth Ĕl and the other to Gib'ah in the field, about thirty men of Yisra'el.

32 And the children of Binyamin said, "They are going to be smitten before us, as previously." But the children of Yisra'el said, "Let us flee and draw them away from the city to the highways."

33 And all the men of Yisra'el rose from their place and put themselves in battle array at Ba'al Tamar. And the ambush of Yisra'el broke forth from their position at Ma'areh Ġeba.

34 And ten thousand chosen men from all Yisra'el came against Gib'ah, and the battle was fierce. But they did not know that calamity was close to them.

35 And אַחֲזַב smote Binyamin before Yisra'el. And the children of Yisra'el destroyed twenty-five thousand one hundred men on that day in Binyamin - all these drew the sword.

36 And the children of Binyamin saw that they were smitten. And the men of Yisra'el had given ground to the Binyamites, because they trusted in the ambush that they had put against Gib'ah, 37 and the ambush hurried and came against Gib'ah, and the ambush spread out and smote the entire city with the edge of the sword.

38 And the appointed signal between the men of Yisra'ël and the ambush was that they would make a great cloud of smoke rise up from the city,

39 then the men of Yisra'ël would turn in battle, and Binyamin began to smite dead about thirty of the men of Yisra'ël. For they said, "They are indeed smitten before us, as at the first battle."

40 Then the cloud began to rise from the city in a column of smoke, and the Binyamites looked behind them, and saw the entire city going up in smoke to the shamayim.

41 And when the men of Yisra'ël turned back, the men of Binyamin were troubled, for they saw that calamity was close to them.

42 And they turned their backs before the men of Yisra'ël toward the way of the wilderness, but the battle overtook them, while those who had come out of the cities were destroying them in their midst.

43 They surrounded the Binyamites and pursued them, and with ease trampled them down as far as the front of Gib'ah toward the east.

44 And there fell of Binyamin eighteen thousand men - all of these were mighty men.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon. And they cut down five thousand of them on the highways, and followed after them up to Giḏom, and smote two thousand of them.

46 And all who fell of Binyamin that day were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword, all of these were mighty men.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and they dwelt at the rock of Rimmon for four months.

48 And the men of Yisra'ël turned back against the children of Binyamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword from every city, men and beasts, all who were found. And they lit fire to all the cities they came to.

21 And the men of Yisra'ël had sworn an oath at Mitspah, saying, "Not one of us shall give his daughter to Binyamin as a wife."

2 So the people came to Běyth Ěl, and sat there until evening before Elohim, and lifted up their voices and wept bitterly,

3 and said, "O אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, why has this come about in Yisra'ël, that today there should be one tribe missing in Yisra'ël?"

4 And it came to be on the morrow, that the people rose early and built an altar there, and brought burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 And the children of Yisra'ël said, "Who is there among all the tribes of Yisra'ël who did not come up with the assembly to אֱלֹהִים?" For they had made a great oath concerning anyone who had not come up to אֱלֹהִים at Mitspah, saying, "He shall certainly be put to death."

6 And the children of Yisra'ël were sorry for Binyamin their brother, and said, "One tribe is cut off from Yisra'ël today.

7 "What do we do for wives for those who remain, seeing we have sworn by אֱלֹהִים not to give them our daughters as wives?"

8 And they said, "Which one of the tribes of Yisra'ël did not come up to Mitspah to אֱלֹהִים?" And see, no one had come to the camp from Yaběsh Gil'ad to the assembly.

9 For when the people called a roll, see, not one of the inhabitants of Yaběsh Gil'ad was there.

10 And the congregation sent out there twelve thousand of their bravest men, and commanded them, saying, “Go, and you shall smite the inhabitants of Yaběsh Gil’ad with the edge of the sword, even the women and children.

11 “And this is what you do: Put under the ban every male, and every woman who has known a man by lying with him.”

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Yaběsh Gil’ad four hundred young maidens who had not known a man. And they brought them to the camp at Shiloh, which is in the land of Kena’an.

13 Then all the congregation sent, and spoke to the children of Binyamin who were at the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them.

14 And Binyamin turned back at that time, and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Yaběsh Gil’ad. But even so there were not enough for them.

15 And the people were sorry for Binyamin, because אֶרְבָּא had made a breach in the tribes of Yisra’ěl.

16 And the elders of the congregation said, “What do we do for wives for those who remain, since the women have been destroyed out of Binyamin?”

17 And they said, “There is an inheritance for the survivors of Binyamin, and no tribe is destroyed from Yisra’ěl.

18 “But we are unable to give them wives from our daughters, for the children of Yisra’ěl have sworn an oath, saying, ‘Cursed be the one who gives a wife to Binyamin.’ ”

19 So they said, “See, there is a yearly Festival of אֶרְבָּא in Shiloh, which is north of Běyth Ĕl, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Běyth Ĕl to Shekem, and south of Leḇonah.”

20 And they commanded the children of Binyamin, saying, "Go, lie in wait in the vineyards,

21 and watch. And see, when the daughters of Shiloh come out to perform their dances, then you shall come out from the vineyards, and every man catch a wife for himself from the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Binyamin.

22 "And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to us to complain, that we shall say to them, 'Favour us with them, because we did not take a wife for any of them in battle, neither have you given them to them, making yourselves guilty of your oath.' "

23 And the children of Binyamin did so, and took enough wives for their number from those who danced, whom they caught. Then they went and returned to their inheritance, and they rebuilt the cities and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Yisra'el went from there at that time, each one to his tribe and clan. And they went from there, each one to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no sovereign in Yisra'el - everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

SHEMU'ĒL 1

א למואל &amp; ללללל

1 And there was a certain man of Ramathayim Tsophim, of the mountains of Ephrayim, and his name was Elqanah son of Yeroḥam, son of Elihu, son of Toḥu, son of Tsuph, an Ephrayimite.

2 And he had two wives, the name of one was Ḥannah, and the name of the other Peninnah. And Peninnah had children, but Ḥannah had no children.

3 Now this man went up from his city year by year to worship and to slaughter to אלאא of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Ēli, Ḥophni and Pineḥas, the kohenim of אלאא, were there.

4 And when the day came for Elqanah to make an offering, he gave portions to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and daughters,

5 but, although he loved Ḥannah, he gave only one portion to Ḥannah, because אלאא had shut up her womb.

6 Moreover, her rival also provoked her greatly, to make her irritable, because אלאא had shut up her womb.

7 And so he did, year by year. Whenever she went up to the House of אלאא, she was provoked, so that she wept and did not eat.

8 And her husband Elqanah said to her, “Ḥannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? And why is your heart sad? Am I not better to you than ten sons?”

9 And Ḥannah rose up after eating and drinking in Shiloh, while Ēli the kohēn was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the Hēykal of אלאא.

10 And she was bitter in life, and prayed to אלאא and wept greatly.

11 And she made a vow and said, “O אֱלֹהִים of hosts, if You would indeed look on the affliction of your female servant and remember me, and not forget your female servant, but shall give your female servant a male child, then I shall give him to אֱלֹהִים all the days of his life, and let no razor come upon his head.”

12 And it came to be, as she kept on praying before אֱלֹהִים, that Ēli was watching her mouth.

13 And Ḥannah spoke in her heart, only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard. So Ēli thought she was drunk.

14 Then Ēli said to her, “How long are you going to be drunk? Put your wine away from you!”

15 And Ḥannah answered and said, “No, my master, I am a woman pained in spirit. And I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my being before אֱלֹהִים.

16 “Do not take your female servant for a daughter of Beliya'al, for it is out of my great concern and provocation that I have spoken until now.”

17 And Ēli answered and said, “Go in peace, and the Elohim of Yisra'el give you your petition which you have asked of Him.”

18 And she said, “Let your female servant find favour in your eyes.” And the woman went her way and ate, and her face was no more sad.

19 And they rose up early in the morning and worshipped before אֱלֹהִים, and returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elqanah knew Ḥannah his wife, and אֱלֹהִים remembered her.

20 And it came to be at the turn of days, that Ḥannah conceived and bore a son, and called his name Shemu'el, “Because I have asked אֱלֹהִים for him.”

21 And the man Elqanah and all his house went up to offer to אֱלֹהִים the yearly slaughtering and his vow.

22 But H̄annah did not go up, for she said to her husband, “When the child is weaned, then I shall take him. And he shall appear before אֱלֹהִים and remain forever there.”

23 And her husband Elqanah said to her, “Do what is good in your eyes. Remain until you have weaned him. Only let אֱלֹהִים establish His word.” And the woman remained and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with a three year old bull, and one *ē*phah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the House of אֱלֹהִים in Shiloh. And the child was young.

25 And they slaughtered a bull, and brought the child to *Ē*li.

26 And she said, “O my master! As your being lives, my master, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to אֱלֹהִים.

27 “I prayed for this youth, and אֱלֹהִים has granted me what I asked of Him.

28 “So I have also loaned him to אֱלֹהִים. All the days that he lives he shall be loaned to אֱלֹהִים.” And he worshipped there before אֱלֹהִים.

2 And H̄annah prayed and said, “My heart rejoices in אֱלֹהִים, my horn has been high in אֱלֹהִים. My mouth is opened wide over my enemies, for I have rejoiced in Your deliverance.

2 “There is no one qodesh like אֱלֹהִים, for there is no one besides You, and there is no rock like our Elohim.

3 “Do not multiply words so proudly, proudly; let no arrogance come from your mouth, for אֱלֹהִים is an *Ē*l of knowledge, and by Him deeds are weighed.

4 “Bows of the mighty are broken, and those who stumble shall be girded with strength.

5 “The satisfied have hired themselves out for bread, and the hungry have ceased. Even the barren has borne seven, and she who has many children pines away.

6 “אֱלֹהִים puts to death and makes alive, He brings down to the grave and raises up.

7 “אֱלֹהִים makes poor and makes rich, He brings low and lifts up.

8 “He raises the poor from the dust, He lifts the needy from the dunghill, to sit with princes, and make them inherit a throne of esteem. For the supports of the earth belong to אֱלֹהִים, and He has put the world upon them.

9 “He guards the feet of His kind ones, but the wicked are silent in darkness, for man does not become mighty by power.

10 “Those who oppose אֱלֹהִים are shattered, from the shamayim He thunders against them. אֱלֹהִים judges the ends of the earth, and gives strength to His sovereign, and exalts the horn of His anointed.”

11 And Elqanah went to his house at Ramah. But the youth served אֱלֹהִים before Ēli the kohēn.

12 And the sons of Ēli were sons of Beliya'al - they did not know אֱלֹהִים.

13 And the ruling of the kohenim with the people was that when any man offered a slaughtering, the kohēn's servant shall come with a three-pronged flesh-hook in his hand while the meat was cooking,

14 and shall thrust it into the basin, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot. And the kohēn would take for himself all that the flesh-hook brought up. Thus they did in Shiloh to all the Yisra'ēlites who came there.

15 Also, before they burned the fat, the kohēn's servant would come and say to the man who slaughtered, "Give meat for roasting to the kohēn, for he does not accept cooked meat from you, but raw."

16 And if the man said to him, "Let the fat be burned up first, then take as much as your being desires," he would then answer him, "No, but give it to me now. And if not, I shall take it by strength."

17 And the sin of the young men was very great before אֱלֹהִים, for the men despised the offering of אֱלֹהִים.

18 But Shemu'el was attending before אֱלֹהִים - a youth, wearing a linen shoulder garment.

19 And his mother would make him a little robe, and bring it to him year by year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly slaughtering.

20 And Ēli barak Elqanah and his wife, and said, "אֱלֹהִים give you offspring from this woman for the one she prayed for and gave to אֱלֹהִים." Then they would go to their own home.

21 And אֱלֹהִים visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters, while the young Shemu'el grew before אֱלֹהִים.

22 And Ēli was very old, and had heard all that his sons were doing to all Yisra'el, and how they lay with the women who were assembling at the door of the Tent of Appointment.

23 And he said to them, "Why do you do deeds like these? For I hear of your evil deeds from all the people.

24 "No, my sons! For it is not a good report that I hear: making the people of אֱלֹהִים transgress.

25 "If one man sins against another, Elohim shall judge him. But if a man sins against אֱלֹהִים, who shall pray for him?" But they did not listen to the voice of their father, though it pleased אֱלֹהִים to put them to death.

26 And the young Shemu'ël was growing in stature, and was in favour with אֱלֹהִים and also with men.

27 And a man of Elohim came to Ēli and said to him, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the house of your father when they were in Mitsrayim in Pharaoh's house,

28 even to choose him out of all the tribes of Yisra'ël to be My kohën, to offer upon My altar, to burn incense, and to wear a shoulder garment before Me? And did I not give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Yisra'ël made by fire?

29 'Why do you kick at My slaughtering and My offering which I have commanded in My Mishkan, and esteem your sons above Me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Yisra'ël My people?'

30 "Therefore אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël declares, 'I said indeed that your house and the house of your father would walk before Me forever.' But now אֱלֹהִים declares, 'Far be it from Me, for those who esteem Me I esteem, and those who despise Me are accursed.

31 'See, the days are coming that I shall cut off your arm and the arm of your father's house, so that an old man shall not be in your house.

32 'And you shall see an enemy in My Mishkan, despite all the good which Elohim does for Yisra'ël, and there shall not be an old man in your house forever.

33 'But any of your men whom I do not cut off from My altar is to consume your eyes and grieve your life, and all the increase of your house die as men.

34 'And this is the sign to you that comes upon your two sons, upon Hophni and Pinehas: in one day they are going to die, both of them.

35 'And I shall raise up for Myself a trustworthy kohēn who does according to what is in My heart and in My being. And I shall build him a steadfast house, and he shall walk before My anointed forever.

36 'And it shall be that everyone who is left in your house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a cake of bread, and say, "Please, put me in one of the kehunnah positions to eat a piece of bread." ' "

3 And the young Shemu'el was serving אִיִּזְרָאֵל before Ěli. And the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל was rare in those days - no vision breaking forth.

2 And it came to be in that day, that Ěli was lying down in his place. And his eyes had begun to grow so dim that he was unable to see,

3 and the lamp of Elohim had not gone out in the Hěykal of אִיִּזְרָאֵל where the ark of Elohim was, and Shemu'el was lying down to sleep.

4 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל called Shemu'el, and he answered, "Here I am!"

5 He then ran to Ěli and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call - lie down again." So he went and lay down.

6 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל again called, "Shemu'el!" And Shemu'el arose and went to Ěli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he answered, "My son, I did not call - lie down again."

7 Now Shemu'el did not yet know אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל was not yet revealed to him.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל called Shemu'el again the third time, and he arose and went to Ěli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me.” Then Ēli understood that אִיִּזְרָאֵל had called the youth.

9 So Ēli said to Shemu'ěl, “Go, lie down. And it shall be, if He calls you, say, ‘Speak, אִיִּזְרָאֵל, for Your servant hears.’” And Shemu'ěl went and lay down in his place.

10 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל came and stood and called as at other times, “Shemu'ěl! Shemu'ěl!” And Shemu'ěl answered, “Speak, for Your servant hears.”

11 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Shemu'ěl, “See, I am doing a matter in Yisra'ěl at which both ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle.

12 “In that day I shall confirm against Ēli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end.

13 “For I have declared to him that I am judging his house forever for the wickedness which he knows, because his sons cursed Elohim, and he did not rebuke them.

14 “And therefore I have sworn to the house of Ēli that the wickedness of the house of Ēli shall never be atoned for, by slaughtering or grain offering.”

15 And Shemu'ěl lay down until morning, and opened the doors of the House of אִיִּזְרָאֵל. And Shemu'ěl was afraid to report the vision to Ēli.

16 Then Ēli called Shemu'ěl and said, “Shemu'ěl, my son!” And he answered, “Here I am.”

17 And he said, “What is the word that He spoke to you? Please do not hide it from me. Elohim do so to you, and more also, if you hide a word from me of all the words that He spoke to you.”

18 And Shemu'ěl reported to him all the words, and hid none from him. And he said, “It is אִיִּזְרָאֵל. Let Him do what is good in His eyes.”

19 And Shemu'ěl grew up, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל was with him and did not let any of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Yisra'ël from Dan to Be'ërsheḃa knew that Shemu'ël had been established as a naḃi of אֱלֹהִים.

21 And אֱלֹהִים continued to appear in Shiloh, because אֱלֹהִים revealed Himself to Shemu'ël in Shiloh by the word of אֱלֹהִים.

4 Thus the word of Shemu'ël was to all Yisra'ël. And Yisra'ël went out to battle against the Pelishtites, and encamped beside Eben ha'Ēzer, while the Pelishtites encamped in Aphëq.

2 And the Pelishtites put themselves in battle array against Yisra'ël. And when the battle spread, Yisra'ël was smitten by the Pelishtites, who killed about four thousand men of the army in the field.

3 And when the people came into the camp, the elders of Yisra'ël said, "Why has אֱלֹהִים smitten us today before the Pelishtites? Let us bring the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים from Shiloh to us, so that He comes into our midst and save us from the hand of our enemies."

4 And the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought from there the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים of hosts, dwelling between the keruḃim. And the two sons of Ēli, Ḥophni and Pineḃas, were there with the ark of the Covenant of Elohim.

5 And when the ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים came into the camp, all Yisra'ël shouted so loudly that the earth shook.

6 And when the Pelishtites heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Iḃrim?" And when they knew that the ark of אֱלֹהִים had come into the camp,

7 the Pelishtites were afraid, for they said, "Elohim has come into the camp!" And they said, "Woe to us! For it has never been like this before.

8 “Woe to us! Who shall deliver us from the hand of these mighty Elohim? These are the Elohim who smote the Mitsrites with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 “Be strong and be men, you Pelishtites, that you do not become servants of the Ibrim, as they have been to you. Be men, and fight!”

10 And the Pelishtites fought, and Yisra'ël was smitten, and every man fled to his tent. And the slaughter was very great, and there fell of Yisra'ël thirty thousand foot soldiers.

11 And the ark of Elohim was captured, and the two sons of Ēli died, Hophni and Pinehas.

12 And a man of Binyamin ran from the battle line the same day, and came to Shiloh with his garments torn and dirt on his head.

13 And he came in and saw Ēli, sitting on a seat by the wayside watching, for his heart trembled for the ark of Elohim. And the man came into the city and reported it, and all the city cried out.

14 And Ēli heard the noise of the outcry and said, “What is the noise of this uproar?” And the man came hastily and informed Ēli.

15 Now Ēli was ninety-eight years old and his eyes were so dim that he was unable to see.

16 And the man said to Ēli, “I am he who came from the battle. And I fled today from the battle line.” And he said, “What was the matter, my son?”

17 And the messenger answered and said, “Yisra'ël has fled before the Pelishtites, and there has been a great slaughter among the people. And your two sons have died, Hophni and Pinehas, and the ark of Elohim has been captured.”

18 And it came to be, when he made mention of the ark of Elohim, that Ēli fell off the seat backward by the side of the gate. And his neck was broken and he died, for the man was old and heavy. And he ruled Yisra'ël forty years.

19 And his daughter-in-law, Pineḥas' wife, was pregnant, about to bear. And when she heard the news that the ark of Elohim was captured, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth, because her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Do not fear, for you have borne a son." But she did not answer, nor did she put her heart to it.

21 And she called the child Iḳabod, saying, "The esteem has departed from Yisra'ël!" because the ark of Elohim was taken and because of her father-in-law and her husband.

22 And she said, "The esteem has departed from Yisra'ël, for the ark of Elohim was taken."

5 And the Pelishtites took the ark of Elohim and brought it from Eḅen ha'Ēzer to Ashdod,

2 and the Pelishtites took the ark of Elohim and brought it into the house of Daḡon and put it by Daḡon.

3 And the Ashdodites rose early in the morning and saw Daḡon fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of אֲשֶׁרְאֵל. So they took Daḡon and put it in its place again.

4 And they arose early the next morning and saw Daḡon fallen on its face to the ground before the ark of אֲשֶׁרְאֵל, and the head of Daḡon and both the palms of its hands cut off, on the threshold, only Daḡon itself was left of it.

5 That is why, to this day, the priests of Daḡon and all who come into Daḡon's house do not tread on the threshold of Daḡon in Ashdoḡ.

6 But the hand of אִיָּאָז was heavy on the Ashdoḡites, and He wasted them and smote them with tumours - Ashdoḡ and its borders.

7 And when the men of Ashdoḡ saw this, they said, "Let not the ark of the Elohim of Yisra'ēl remain with us, for His hand has been hard on us, and on Daḡon our mighty one."

8 Then they sent and gathered to them all the princes of the Pelishtites, and said, "What do we do with the ark of the Elohim of Yisra'ēl?" And they answered, "Let the ark of the Elohim of Yisra'ēl be removed to Gath." And they removed the ark of the Elohim of Yisra'ēl.

9 And it came to be, after they removed it, that the hand of אִיָּאָז was against the city with a very great destruction. And He smote the men of the city, from the least to the greatest, and tumours broke out on them.

10 They then sent the ark of Elohim to Eqron. And it came to be, as the ark of Elohim came to Eqron, that the Eqronites cried out, saying, "They have removed the ark of the Elohim of Yisra'ēl to us, to kill us and our people!"

11 And they sent and gathered together all the princes of the Pelishtites, and said, "Send away the ark of the Elohim of Yisra'ēl, and let it return to its own place, so that it does not kill us and our people." For there had come a deadly destruction throughout all the city - the hand of Elohim was very heavy there.

12 And the men who did not die were smitten with tumours, and the cry of the city went up to the shamayim.

6 And the ark of אֲרָכָה was in the field of the Pelishtites for seven months.

2 And the Pelishtites called for the priests and the diviners, saying, “What do we do with the ark of אֲרָכָה? Let us know with what we should send it to its place.”

3 And they said, “If you send away the ark of the Elohim of Yisra’ël, do not send it empty, but you shall certainly return it to Him with a guilt offering. Then you are going to be healed, and it shall be known to you why His hand does not turn aside from you.”

4 And they said, “What is the guilt offering which we return to Him?” And they answered, “The number of the princes of the Pelishtites: five golden tumours and five golden rats. For the same plague was on all of you and on your princes.

5 “And you shall make images of your tumours and images of your rats that ruin the land, and you shall give esteem to the Elohim of Yisra’ël. It could be that He lifts His hand from you, from your mighty ones, and from your land.

6 “And why do you harden your hearts as the Mitsrites and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When He had severely dealt with them, did they not send them away, and they went?

7 “And now, take and make a new wagon, and two milk cows which have never been yoked, and hitch the cows to the wagon. And take their calves home, away from them.

8 “And take the ark of אֲרָכָה and put it on the wagon. And put the objects of gold which you are returning to Him as a guilt offering in a chest by its side, and send it away, and it shall go.

9 “And you shall see, if it goes up the way to its own border, to Běyth Shemesh, then He has done us this great evil. But if not, then we shall know that His hand has not come against us - an accident it was to us.”

10 And the men did so and took two milk cows and hitched them to the wagon, and shut up their calves at home.

11 And they put the ark of אִיִּזְרָאֵל on the wagon, and the chest with the gold rats and the images of their tumours.

12 And the cows went straight for the way to Běyth Shemesh, and went along the highway, bellowing as they went, and did not turn aside, right or left. And the princes of the Pelishtites went after them to the border of Běyth Shemesh.

13 And Běyth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. And they lifted their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

14 And the wagon came into the field of Yahoshua of Běyth Shemesh and stood there, and there was a great stone. So they split the wood of the wagon and offered the cows as a burnt offering to אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

15 And the Lěwites took down the ark of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and the chest that was with it, in which were the objects of gold, and put them on the great stone. And the men of Běyth Shemesh slaughtered burnt offerings and made offerings the same day to אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

16 And when the five princes of the Pelishtites saw it, they returned to Eqron the same day.

17 And these are the gold tumours which the Pelishtites returned as a guilt offering to אִיִּזְרָאֵל: one for Ashdoḡ, one for Azzah, one for Ashqelon, one for Gath, one for Eqron,

18 and the gold rats, by the number of all the cities of the Pelishtites belonging to the five princes, both walled cities and country villages, even as far as the great meadow on which they placed the ark of אֱלֹהִים, are to this day in the field of Yahoshua of Běyth Shemesh.

19 And He smote among the men of Běyth Shemesh, for they had looked into the ark of אֱלֹהִים. He smote among the people seventy men, and the people mourned because אֱלֹהִים smote among the people, a great smiting.

20 And the men of Běyth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before this qodesh אֱלֹהִים Elohim? And to whom shall He go from us?"

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Qiryath Ye'arim, saying, "The Pelishtites have brought back the ark of אֱלֹהִים. Come down, take it up to you."

7 And the men of Qiryath Ye'arim came and took the ark of אֱלֹהִים, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill, and qadosh El'azar his son to guard the ark of אֱלֹהִים.

2 And it came to be, from the day that the ark remained in Qiryath Ye'arim, that the time increased, it came to be twenty years. And all the house of Yisra'el lamented after אֱלֹהִים.

3 And Shemu'el spoke to all the house of Yisra'el, saying, "If you return to אֱלֹהִים with all your hearts, then put away the foreign mighty ones and Ashtaroth from among you, and prepare your hearts for אֱלֹהִים, and serve Him only, so that He delivers you from the hand of the Pelishtites."

4 And the children of Yisra'el put away the Ba'als and Ashtaroth, and served אֱלֹהִים only.

5 And Shemu'el said, "Gather all Yisra'el to Mitspah and let me pray to אֱלֹהִים for you."

6 And they gathered to Mitspah and drew water, and poured it out before אֱלֹהִים. And they fasted that day, and said there, "We have sinned against אֱלֹהִים." And Shemu'ěl rightly ruled the children of Yisra'ěl at Mitspah.

7 And when the Pelishtites heard that the children of Yisra'ěl had gathered together at Mitspah, the princes of the Pelishtites went up against Yisra'ěl. And the children of Yisra'ěl heard of it, and were afraid of the Pelishtites.

8 And the children of Yisra'ěl said to Shemu'ěl, "Do not cease to cry out to אֱלֹהִים our Elohim for us, that He would save us from the hand of the Pelishtites."

9 And Shemu'ěl took a suckling lamb and offered it as a burnt offering, completely, to אֱלֹהִים. And Shemu'ěl cried out to אֱלֹהִים for Yisra'ěl, and אֱלֹהִים answered him.

10 And it came to be, as Shemu'ěl offered up the burnt offering, the Pelishtites drew near to battle against Yisra'ěl. But אֱלֹהִים thundered with a great noise on that day on the Pelishtites, and troubled them, and they were smitten before Yisra'ěl.

11 And the men of Yisra'ěl went out from Mitspah and pursued the Pelishtites, and smote them as below Běyth Kar.

12 And Shemu'ěl took a stone and put it up between Mitspah and Shěn, and called its name Eḅen ha'Ēzer, saying, "Thus far אֱלֹהִים has helped us."

13 Thus the Pelishtites were humbled, and no longer came into the border of Yisra'ěl. And the hand of אֱלֹהִים was against the Pelishtites all the days of Shemu'ěl.

14 And the cities which the Pelishtites had taken from Yisra'ěl were returned to Yisra'ěl, from Eqron to Gath. And Yisra'ěl recovered its border from the hands of the Pelishtites. And there was peace between Yisra'ël and the Amorites.

15 And Shemu'ël rightly ruled Yisra'ël all the days of his life,

16 and each year he made the rounds of Bëyth Ĕl, and Gilgal, and Mitspah, and rightly ruled Yisra'ël in all those places.

17 Then he returned to Ramah, for his home was there. And there he rightly ruled Yisra'ël, and there he built an altar to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

8 And it came to be, when Shemu'ël was old, that he made his sons rulers over Yisra'ël.

2 And the name of his first-born was Yo'ël, and the name of his second, Abiyah, rulers in Be'ërsheba.

3 But his sons did not walk in his ways, and turned aside after own gain, and took bribes, and twisted right-ruling.

4 And all the elders of Yisra'ël gathered together and came to Shemu'ël at Ramah,

5 and said to him, "Look, you are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways. Now appoint for us a sovereign to rule us like all the nations."

6 But the word was evil in the eyes of Shemu'ël when they said, "Give us a sovereign to rule us." So Shemu'ël prayed to אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

7 And אֱלֹהֵינוּ said to Shemu'ël, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they say to you, for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected Me from reigning over them.

8 "According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Mitsrayim, even to this day - forsaking Me and serving other mighty ones - so they are doing to you too.

9 “And now, listen to their voice, but you shall certainly warn them, and shall make known to them the ruling of the sovereign who reigns over them.”

10 And Shemu'ël spoke all the words of אַף־אַז to the people who asked him for a sovereign,

11 and said, “This is the ruling of the sovereign who reigns over you: He shall take your sons and appoint them for his own chariots and to be his horsemen, and they shall run before his chariots,

12 and appoint commanders over his thousands and commanders over his fifties, or to plough his ground and reap his harvest, or to make his weapons, and equipment for his chariots.

13 “And your daughters he is going to take to be perfumers, and cooks, and bakers.

14 “And the best of your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive trees he is going to take and give them to his servants.

15 “And a tenth of your grain and your vintage he is going to take and give it to his officers and servants.

16 “And your male servants and your female servants and your best young men and your donkeys he is going to take and use for his own work.

17 “A tenth of your sheep he is going to take, and you are to be his servants.

18 “And you shall cry out in that day because of your sovereign whom you have chosen for yourselves, but אַף־אַז is not going to answer you in that day.”

19 However, the people refused to listen to the voice of Shemu'ël, and said, “No, but let a sovereign be over us.

20 Then we shall be, we also, like all the nations, and our sovereign shall rule us and go out before us and fight our battles.”

21 And Shemu'ël heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the hearing of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

22 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to Shemu'ël, "Listen to their voice, and make them a sovereign." And Shemu'ël said to the men of Yisra'ël, "Each of you go to his city."

9 And there was a man of Binyamin whose name was Qish, son of Abi'ël, son of Tseror, son of Beqorath, son of Aphiyaḥ, a Binyamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son whose name was Sha'ul, young and handsome. And there was not a more handsome man than he among the children of Yisra'ël, taller than any of the people by the shoulders and upwards.

3 And the donkeys of Qish, father of Sha'ul, were lost. And Qish said to his son Sha'ul, "Please take one of the servants with you, and arise, go seek the donkeys."

4 And he passed through the mountains of Ephrayim and through the land of Shalishah, but they did not find them. Then they passed through the land of Sha'alim, but they were not. Then he passed through the land of the Binyamites, but they did not find them.

5 They came to the land of Tsuph, and Sha'ul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, let us turn back, lest my father forgets about the donkeys and become worried about us."

6 And he said to him, "See, there is in this city a man of Elohim, and the man is esteemed. All that he says comes true, without fail. Now, let us go there. It could be that he shows us the way to go."

7 And Sha'ul said to his servant, "But look, if we go, what do we bring the man? For the bread in our bags is all gone, and there is no present to bring to the man of Elohim. What do we have?"

8 And the servant answered Sha'ul again and said, "Look, I have here at hand one fourth of a sheqel of silver. And I shall give that to the man of Elohim, and he shall make known to us our way."

9 Formerly, in Yisra'ël, when a man went to inquire of Elohim, he spoke thus, "Come, let us go to the seer," for the nabi of today was formerly called a seer.

10 And Sha'ul said to his servant, "Your word is good. Come, let us go." And they went to the city where the man of Elohim was.

11 As they went up the hill to the city, they met some young women going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

12 And they answered them and said, "He is. Look, ahead of you. Hurry now, for he came to this city today, for the people have an offering on the high place today.

13 "As you come into the city, you are going to find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people do not eat until he comes, for he barak the slaughtering, afterward they who are invited eat. And now, go up, for you should find him about this time."

14 And they went up to the city. They were coming into the midst of the city, and saw Shemu'ël coming out toward them to go up to the high place.

15 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל had revealed to Shemu'ël in his ear the day before Sha'ul came, saying,

16 "At this time tomorrow I shall send you a man from the land of Binyamin, and you shall anoint him leader over My people Yisra'ël, and he shall save My people from the hand of the Pelishtites. For I have seen My people, because their cry has come to me."

17 And when Shemu'ël saw Sha'ul, אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to him, "See, the man of whom I spoke to you. Let this one govern My people."

18 And Sha'ul drew near to Shemu'el in the gate, and said, "Please inform me, where is the house of the seer?"

19 And Shemu'el answered Sha'ul and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today. And tomorrow I shall let you go and make known to you all that is in your heart.

20 "As for your donkeys that were lost three days ago, do not lay your heart on them, for they have been found. And on whom is all the desire of Yisra'el? Is it not on you and on all your father's house?"

21 And Sha'ul answered and said, "Am I not a Binyamite - of the smallest of the tribes of Yisra'el, and my clan the least of all the clans of the tribe of Binyamin? Why then do you speak like this to me?"

22 And Shemu'el took Sha'ul and his servant and brought them into the hall, and gave to them a place at the head of those who were invited, and there were about thirty men.

23 And Shemu'el said to the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I told you to put it aside."

24 And the cook brought out the thigh with its upper part and put it before Sha'ul. And Shemu'el said, "See what was kept back. It was put aside for you. Eat, for it has been kept for you for this appointed time, saying, "I have invited the people." And Sha'ul ate with Shemu'el on that day.

25 And they came down from the high place into the city, and Shemu'el spoke with Sha'ul on the roof.

26 And they rose early. And it came to be about the dawning of the day that Shemu'el called to Sha'ul on the roof, saying, "Rise, so that I send you on your way." And Sha'ul rose, and both of them went outside, he and Shemu'el.

27 As they were walking toward the edge of the city, Shemu'ël said to Sha'ul, "Say to the servant to go on ahead of us." And he went on. "But you stand here a moment, so that I let you hear the word of Elohim."

10 And Shemu'ël took a flask of oil and poured it on his head, and kissed him and said, "Is it not because אִי־אִי־אִי has anointed you leader over His inheritance?"

2 "When you leave me today, you shall find two men by Raḥël's tomb in the border of Binyamin at Tseltsaḥ, and they shall say to you, 'The donkeys which you went to look for have been found. And see, your father has left the matters of the donkeys and is worrying about you, saying, "What shall I do for my son?"'

3 "And you shall pass on from there, and beyond, and shall come to the terebinth tree of Taḇor. And three men going up to Elohim at Běyth Ēl shall find you there, one bearing three young goats, another bearing three loaves of bread, and another bearing a skin of wine.

4 "And they shall greet you and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall accept from their hand.

5 "After that go to the hill of Elohim where the Pelishtite watch-post is. And it shall be, when you have come there to the city, that you shall meet a group of neḇi'im coming down from the high place with a stringed instrument, and a tambourine, and a flute, and a lyre before them, and they naḇa.

6 "And the Ruaḥ of אִי־אִי־אִי shall come upon you, and you shall naḇa with them and be turned into another man.

7 "And it shall be, when these signs come to you, do for yourself as your hand finds to do, for Elohim is with you.

8 “And you shall go down before me to Gilgal. And see, I am coming down to you to slaughter burnt offerings and make peace offerings. Wait seven days, till I come to you, then I shall make known to you what you should do.”

9 And it came to be, when he had turned his back to go from Shemu’ël, that Elohim gave him another heart. And all those signs came on that day.

10 And they came there to the hill and saw a group of neḇi’im, to meet him. And the Ruah of Elohim came upon him, and he naḇu in their midst.

11 And it came to be, all who knew him formerly looked and saw that he naḇu among the neḇi’im. So the people said to each other, “What is this that has come upon the son of Qish? Is Sha’ul also among the neḇi’im?”

12 And a man there answered and said, “And who is their father?” That is why it became a proverb, “Is Sha’ul also among the neḇi’im?”

13 And when he stopped naḇa, he went to the high place.

14 And the uncle of Sha’ul asked him and his servant, “Where did you go?” And he said, “To look for the donkeys. And when we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Shemu’ël.”

15 And the uncle of Sha’ul said, “Please inform me what Shemu’ël said to you.”

16 And Sha’ul said to his uncle, “He informed us plainly that the donkeys had been found.” But he did not disclose to him about the matter of the reign, what Shemu’ël had said.

17 And Shemu’ël called the people together to אִתְּכֶם at Mitspah,

18 and said to the children of Yisra’ël, “Thus said אֱלֹהֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל, the Elohim of Yisra’ël, ‘I have brought Yisra’ël up out of Mitsrayim, and delivered you from the hand of the Mitsrites and from the hand of all reigns and from those who oppressed you.'

19 "And today you have rejected your Elohim, who Himself saved you out of all your evils and your distresses. And you have said to Him, 'No, but appoint a sovereign over us!' And now, present yourselves before אִיִּזְרָאֵל by your tribes and by your clans."

20 And Shemu'ël brought near all the tribes of Yisra'ël, and the tribe of Binyamin was taken.

21 Then he brought near the tribe of Binyamin, by their clans, and the clan of Matri was taken, and Sha'ul son of Qish was taken. And when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 And they asked again of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, "Has the man come here yet?" And אִיִּזְרָאֵל answered, "See, he has hidden by the baggage."

23 And they ran and brought him from there. And he stood in the midst of the people, and he was taller than any of the people, from his shoulders and upwards.

24 And Shemu'ël said to all the people, "Do you see him whom אִיִּזְרָאֵל has chosen, that there is no one like him among all the people?" And all the people shouted and said, "Let the sovereign live!"

25 And Shemu'ël declared to the people the rulings of the reign, and wrote it in a book and placed it before אִיִּזְרָאֵל. And Shemu'ël sent all the people away, each to his house.

26 And Sha'ul went to his house too, to Gib'ah. And with him went brave men whose hearts Elohim had touched.

27 But the sons of Beliya'al said, "What! Does this one save us?" And they despised him, and brought him no presents. But he kept silent.

11 And Naḥash the Ammonite came up and camped against Yaḇēsh Gil'aḏ. And all the men of Yaḇēsh said to Naḥash, "Make a covenant with us, and we shall serve you."

2 Then Naḥash the Ammonite answered them, "For this I make a covenant with you, that I dig out all your right eyes, and I shall bring reproach on all Yisra'ēl."

3 And the elders of Yaḇēsh said to him, "Leave us alone for seven days, so that we send messengers to all the borders of Yisra'ēl. And then, if there is no one to save us, we shall come out to you."

4 And the messengers came to Giḇ'ah of Sha'ul and spoke the words in the hearing of the people. And all the people lifted up their voices and wept.

5 And look, Sha'ul was coming behind the herd from the field. And Sha'ul said, "Why are the people weeping?" And they related to him the words of the men of Yaḇēsh.

6 And the Ruah of Elohim came upon Sha'ul mightily as he heard these words, and his displeasure burned greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of cattle and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the border of Yisra'ēl by the hands of messengers, saying, "Whoever does not go out with Sha'ul and Shemu'el to battle, let this be done to his cattle." And the reverence of אַיָּאָז fell on the people, and they came out as one man.

8 And he mustered them in Bezeq, and the children of Yisra'ēl were three hundred thousand, and the men of Yahudah thirty thousand.

9 And they said to the messengers who came, "Say this to the men of Yabēsh Gil'ad, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have help.' " Then the messengers came and informed the men of Yabēsh, and they rejoiced.

10 So the men of Yabēsh said, "Tomorrow we come out to you, and you shall do to us whatever seems good to you."

11 And it came to be, on the next day, that Sha'ul put the people in three companies. And they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch and smote Ammon until the heat of the day. And it came to be that those left were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

12 And the people said to Shemu'ēl, "Who said, 'Shall Sha'ul reign over us?' Bring the men, so that we put them to death."

13 But Sha'ul said, "No man is put to death this day, for today אֱלֹהִים has wrought deliverance in Yisra'ēl."

14 And Shemu'ēl said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal and renew the reign there."

15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and there they appointed Sha'ul to reign before אֱלֹהִים in Gilgal, and there they made slaughterings of peace offerings before אֱלֹהִים. And there Sha'ul rejoiced, and all the men of Yisra'ēl, very greatly.

12 And Shemu'ēl said to all Yisra'ēl, "Look, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have appointed a sovereign over you.

2 "And now, look, the sovereign is walking before you. And I am old and grey, and look, my sons are with you. And I have walked before you from my youth to this day.

3 “Look, here I am. Witness against me before אֱלֹהִים and before His anointed: Whose ox have I taken, or whose donkey have I taken, or whom have I oppressed? Whom have I abused, or from whose hand have I received any bribe with which to blind my eyes? - then I restore it to you.”

4 And they said, “You have not oppressed us or abused us, nor have you taken any from anyone’s hand.”

5 So he said to them, “אֱלֹהִים is witness against you, and His anointed is witness today, that you have found naught in my hand.” And they answered, “He is witness.”

6 And Shemu’ël said to the people, “It is אֱלֹהִים who appointed Mosheh and Aharon, and who brought your fathers up from the land of Mitsrayim.

7 “And now, stand still, so that I judge you before אֱלֹהִים concerning all the righteous acts of אֱלֹהִים which He did to you and your fathers:

8 “When Ya’aqob had come to Mitsrayim, and your fathers cried out to אֱלֹהִים, then אֱלֹהִים sent Mosheh and Aharon, who brought your fathers out of Mitsrayim and made them dwell in this place.

9 “But they forgot אֱלֹהִים their Elohim, so He sold them into the hand of Sisera, commander of the army of Ḥatsor, and into the hand of the Pelishtites, and into the hand of the sovereign of Mo’ab. And they fought against them.

10 “And they cried out to אֱלֹהִים, and said, ‘We have sinned, because we have forsaken אֱלֹהִים and served the Ba’als and the Ashtaroth. And now, deliver us from the hand of our enemies, and we serve You.’

11 “And אֱלֹהִים sent Yerubba’al, and Beḏan, and Yiphtaḥ, and Shemu’ël, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies round about, and you dwelt in safety.

12 “And when you saw that Naḥash sovereign of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, ‘No, but let a sovereign reign over us,’ when אֱלֹהִים your Elohim was your sovereign.

13 “And now, here is the sovereign whom you have chosen and whom you have asked. And see, אֱלֹהִים has appointed a sovereign over you.

14 “If you revere אֱלֹהִים, and shall serve Him and obey His voice, and not rebel against the Command of אֱלֹהִים, then both you and the sovereign who reigns over you shall follow אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.

15 “But if you do not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים, and shall rebel against the Command of אֱלֹהִים, then the hand of אֱלֹהִים shall be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 “And now, stand and see this great matter which אֱלֹהִים does before your eyes:

17 “Is today not the wheat harvest? Let me call to אֱלֹהִים, so that He sends thunder and rain - know then and see that your evil is great, which you have done in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, in asking for yourselves a sovereign.”

18 And Shemu'ël called to אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly revered אֱלֹהִים and Shemu'ël.

19 And all the people said to Shemu'ël, “Pray for your servants to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, that we do not die, for we have added to all our sins by doing evil in asking for ourselves a sovereign.”

20 And Shemu'ël said to the people, “Do not fear. You have done all this evil. Only, do not turn aside from following אֱלֹהִים. And you shall serve אֱלֹהִים with all your heart, 21 and do not turn aside after worthlessness which does not profit or deliver, for they are worthless.

22 “For אֱלֹהִים would not cast away His people, for His great Name’s sake, seeing it has pleased אֱלֹהִים to make you His people.

23 “Also, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against אֱלֹהִים in ceasing to pray for you, but I shall teach you the good and straight Way.

24 “Only revere אֱלֹהִים, and you shall serve Him in truth with all your heart, for consider what marvels He has done for you.

25 “But if you persist in doing evil, both you and your sovereign are consumed.”

13 Sha’ul was . . . years old when he began to reign.

And when he had reigned two years over Yisra’ël,

2 Sha’ul chose for himself three thousand men of Yisra’ël. And two thousand were with Sha’ul in Miq̄mash and in the mountains of Bēyth Ĕl, and a thousand were with Yahonathan in Giḇ’ah of Binyamin. And the rest of the people he sent away, each to his tent.

3 And Yahonathan smote the watch-post of the Pelishtites that was in Geḇa, and the Pelishtites heard of it. And Sha’ul blew the ram’s horn throughout all the land, saying, “Let the Iḇrim hear!”

4 And all Yisra’ël heard the news that Sha’ul had smitten a watch-post of the Pelishtites, and also that Yisra’ël had become a stench to the Pelishtites. And the people were summoned to Sha’ul at Gilgal.

5 And the Pelishtites gathered to fight Yisra’ël, thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen, and people as numerous as the sand on the seashore. And they came up and camped in Miq̄mash, east of Bēyth Awen.

6 And the men of Yisra'ël saw that they were in trouble, for the people were distressed, and the people hid in caves, and in thorny bushes, and in rocks, and in holes, and in pits.

7 And Ibrim passed over the Yardën to the land of Gaḏ and Gil'ad. But Sha'ul was still in Gilgal, and all the people followed him, trembling.

8 And he waited for seven days, according to the appointment with Shemu'ël. But Shemu'ël did not come to Gilgal, and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Sha'ul said, "Bring a burnt offering and peace offerings here to me." And he offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came to be, as he had finished offering the burnt offering, look, Shemu'ël came. And Sha'ul went out to meet him, to barak him.

11 Then Shemu'ël said, "What have you done?" And Sha'ul said, "Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you did not come within the days appointed, and that the Pelishtites gathered at Mikmash, 12 so I said, 'The Pelishtites are going to come down on me at Gilgal, and I have not appeased the face of אֱלֹהִים.' So I felt compelled, and offered a burnt offering."

13 And Shemu'ël said to Sha'ul, "You have been foolish. You have not guarded the Command of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, which He commanded you. For now אֱלֹהִים would have established your reign over Yisra'ël forever.

14 "But now, your reign is not going to stand. אֱלֹהִים shall seek for Himself a man after His own heart, and אֱלֹהִים shall command him to be leader over His people, because you have not guarded what אִתָּךְ commanded you.”

15 And Shemu'el arose and went up from Gilgal to Gib'ah of Binyamin. And Sha'ul mustered the people who were present with him, about six hundred men.

16 And Sha'ul, and Yahanathan his son, and the people who were present with them remained in Gib'ah of Binyamin, while the Pelishtites camped at Mikmash.

17 And from the camp of the Pelishtites raiders went out in three companies. The one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shu'al, 18 and another company turned toward the way of Bëyth Horon, and another company turned toward the way of the border that overlooks the Valley of Tsebo'im toward the wilderness.

19 Now no blacksmith could be found in all the land of Yisra'el, for the Pelishtites said, “Lest the Ibrim make swords or spears.”

20 And all Yisra'el went down to the Pelishtites, each one to sharpen his ploughshare, and his mattock, and his axe, and his sickle.

21 And the charge was a pim for the ploughshares, and the mattocks, and the forks, and the axes, and to appoint the goads.

22 And it came to be, on the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Sha'ul and Yahanathan. But they were found with Sha'ul and Yahanathan his son.

23 And the outpost of the Pelishtites went out to the pass of Mikmash.

14 And it came to be one day that Yahanathan son of Sha'ul said to the young man who bore his armour, “Come, and let us go over to the outpost of the Pelishtites which is on the other side.” But he did not inform his father.

2 And Sha'ul remained at the outskirts of Gib'ah under a pomegranate tree at Miḡron, and the people who were with him were about six hundred men.

3 And Aḥiyahu son of Aḥitub, Iḡabod's brother, son of Pineḡas, son of Ēli, the kohēn of אֶלֹהִים in Shiloh, was wearing a shoulder garment. And the people did not know that Yahunathan had gone.

4 And between the passes, by which Yahunathan sought to go over to the outpost of the Pelishtites, there was an edge of a rock on one side and an edge of a rock on the other side. And the name, of one was Botsēts, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The one edge was on the north opposite Miḡmash, and the other on the south opposite Gib'ah.

6 And Yahunathan said to the young man who bore his armour, “Come, and let us go over to the outpost of these uncircumcised. If so be, אֶלֹהִים works for us. For there is no hindrance for אֶלֹהִים save by many or by few.”

7 And his armour-bearer said to him, “Do all that is in your heart, incline yourself. See, I am with you, according to your heart.”

8 And Yahunathan said, “See, we are passing over to the men - and show ourselves to them.

9 “If they say this to us, ‘Wait until we come to you,’ then we shall stand still in our place and not go up to them.

10 “But if they say this, ‘Come up to us,’ then we shall go up. For אֶלֹהִים has given them into our hand, and this is the sign to us.”

11 And both them disclosed themselves to the outpost of the Pelishtites, and the Pelishtites said, a

“See, the Ibrim are coming out of the holes where they have hidden.”

12 And the men of the outpost called to Yahonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, “Come up to us, and let us teach you a lesson.” Then Yahonathan said to his armour-bearer, “Come up after me, for אִרְרָז has given them into the hand of Yisra’ël.”

13 And Yahonathan climbed up on his hands and knees with his armour-bearer after him. And they fell before Yahonathan, and his armour-bearer was putting them to death behind him.

14 And that first slaughter which Yahonathan and his armour-bearer made was about twenty men, in about half a yoke-furrowed field.

15 And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. The outpost and the raiders also trembled, and the ground shook. And it became a trembling of Elohim.

16 And the watchmen of Sha’ul in Gib’ah of Binyamin looked and saw the crowd melting away, and they went here and there.

17 And Sha’ul said to the people who were with him, “Please inspect and see who has gone from us.” So they inspected and saw that Yahonathan and his armour-bearer were missing.

18 And Sha’ul said to Ahiyahu, “Bring the ark of Elohim here.” For the ark of Elohim was with the children of Yisra’ël on that day.

19 And it came to be, while Sha’ul talked to the kohēn, that the noise which was in the camp of the Pelishtites went on, and became great, so Sha’ul said to the kohēn, “Withdraw your hand.”

20 And Sha’ul was called, and all the people who were with him, and they went to the battle. And see, every man's sword was against his neighbour - a very great confusion.

21 And the Ibrim who were with the Pelishtites before that time, who went up with them into the camp, turned round, they too, to be with Yisra'ël, who were with Sha'ul and Yahunathan.

22 And all the men of Yisra'ël who had hidden in the mountains of Ephrayim, heard that the Pelishtites fled, and they also pursued them in the battle.

23 Thus אִרְאֵל saved Yisra'ël that day, and the battle passed over to Bëyth Awen.

24 And the men of Yisra'ël were distressed that day, for Sha'ul had placed the people under oath, saying, "Cursed be the man who eats food until evening, and I have taken revenge on my enemies." Therefore none of the people tasted food.

25 And all the land came into the woods, and there was honey on the ground.

26 And the people came into the woods and saw the honey, dripping. But no one put his hand to his mouth, for the people revered the oath.

27 But Yahunathan had not heard that his father had taken an oath of the people, and he stretched out the end of the rod that was in his hand and dipped it in a honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth. And his eyes lit up.

28 Then one of the people said, "Your father strictly took an oath of the people, saying, 'Cursed be the man who eats food today.' " And the people were weary.

29 And Yahunathan said, "My father has troubled the land. Now see how my eyes lit up when I tasted a little of this honey.

30 "How much better if the people had well eaten today of the spoil of their enemies which they found!

For then, would not the smiting among the Pelishtites have been greater?”

31 And they smote the Pelishtites that day from Mik<sub>u</sub>dash to Ayalon. So the people were very weary,
32 and the people pounced on the spoil, and took sheep, and cattle, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground. And the people ate with the blood.

33 And they told Sha'ul, saying, “Look, the people are sinning against אֱלֹהִים by eating with the blood!” And he said, “You have acted treacherously. Roll a large stone to me today.”

34 And Sha'ul said, “Disperse among the people, and say to them, ‘Each one bring his ox near to me, and each one his sheep, and you shall slaughter them here, and eat. And do not sin against אֱלֹהִים by eating with the blood.’ ” So every one of the people brought his ox with him that night, and slaughtered it there.

35 And Sha'ul built an altar to אֱלֹהִים. It was the first altar he built to אֱלֹהִים.

36 And Sha'ul said, “Let us go down after the Pelishtites by night, and plunder them until the morning light, and not leave a man of them.” And they said, “Do whatever seems good to you.” But the kohēn said, “Let us draw near to Elohim here.”

37 And Sha'ul asked of Elohim, “Should I go down after the Pelishtites? Do You give them into the hand of Yisra'el?” But He did not answer him that day.

38 And Sha'ul said, “Come over here, all you chiefs of the people, and know and see what this sin was today.

39 “For as אֱלֹהִים lives, who saves Yisra'el, though it be in Yahonathan my son, he shall certainly die.” But not one among all the people answered him.

40 And he said to all Yisra'el, “You be on one side, and my son Yahonathan and I be on the other side.”

And the people said to Sha'ul, "Do what seems good to you."

41 Then Sha'ul said to אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, "Give a perfect one." And Sha'ul and Yahunathan were taken, but the people escaped.

42 And Sha'ul said, "Cast between my son Yahunathan and me." And Yahunathan was taken.

43 Sha'ul then said to Yahunathan, "Explain to me what you have done." And Yahunathan explained to him, and said, "I only tasted a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand. "See, let me die!"

44 And Sha'ul answered, "Elohim do so and more also, for you shall certainly die, Yahunathan."

45 But the people said to Sha'ul, "Should Yahunathan die, who has wrought this great deliverance in Yisra'ël? Far be it! As אֱלֹהִים lives, let not one hair of his head fall to the ground, for he has wrought with Elohim this day." Thus the people rescued Yahunathan, and he did not die.

46 And Sha'ul returned from pursuing the Pelishtites, and the Pelishtites went to their own place.

47 And Sha'ul took the reign over Yisra'ël, and fought against all his enemies round about, against Mo'ab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the sovereigns of Tsoḅah, and against the Pelishtites. And wherever he turned, he caused trouble.

48 And he gathered an army and smote the Amalēqites, and delivered Yisra'ël from the hands of those who plundered them.

49 And the sons of Sha'ul were Yahunathan and Yishwi and Malkishua. And the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the first-born Měraḅ, and the name of the younger Miḳal.

50 And the name of Sha'ul's wife was Aḥino'am the daughter of Aḥima'ats. And the name of the commander of his army was Aḥnēr son of Nēr, uncle of Sha'ul.'

51 And Qish was the father of Sha'ul, and Nēr the father of Aḥnēr was the son of Aḥi'ēl.

52 And there was fierce fighting against the Pelishtites all the days of Sha'ul. And when Sha'ul saw any mighty man or any brave man, he took him for himself.

15 And Shemu'ēl said to Sha'ul, “אֲנִי אֶשְׁחַתְּךָ sent me to anoint you sovereign over His people, over Yisra'ēl. And now, listen to the voice of the words of אֲנִי אֶשְׁחַתְּךָ.

2 “Thus said אֲנִי אֶשְׁחַתְּךָ of hosts, ‘I shall punish Amalēq for what he did to Yisra'ēl, how he positioned against him on the way when he came up from Mitsrayim.

3 ‘Now go, and you shall smite Amalēq and put under the ban all that he has, and you shall not spare them, and put to death from man to woman, from infant to nursing child, from ox to sheep, from camel to donkey.’ ”

4 Then Sha'ul summoned the people and mustered them in Tela'im, two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men of Yahudāh.

5 And Sha'ul came to a city of Amalēq, and lay in wait in the wadi.

6 And Sha'ul said to the Qěynites, “Go, turn aside, come down from among the Amalēqites, lest I destroy you with them. For you showed kindness to all the children of Yisra'ēl when they came up out of Mitsrayim.” So the Qěynites turned aside from the midst of the Amalēqites.

7 And Sha'ul smote the Amalēqites, from Ḥawilah all the way to Shur, which is before Mitsrayim.

8 And he caught Aḡaḡ sovereign of the Amalēqites alive, and put under the ban all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Sha'ul and the people spared Aḡaḡ and the best of the sheep, and the cattle, and the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not put them under the ban. But all goods despised and worthless, that they put under the ban.

10 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Shemu'ěl, saying,
11 "I am grieved that I have appointed Sha'ul as sovereign, for he has turned back from following Me, and has not performed My Words." And it displeased Shemu'ěl, and he cried to אֱלֹהִים all night.

12 And Shemu'ěl rose early in the morning to meet Sha'ul, and it was told to Shemu'ěl, saying, "Sha'ul went to Karmel, and see, he put up a monument for himself, then turned and passed over, and went down to Gilgal."

13 And Shemu'ěl came to Sha'ul, and Sha'ul said to him, "Baruk are you of אֱלֹהִים! I have performed the word of אֱלֹהִים."

14 But Shemu'ěl said, "What then is this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the cattle which I hear?"

15 And Sha'ul said, "They have brought them from Amalēq, because the people spared the best of the sheep and the cattle, to slaughter to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim. And the rest we have put under the ban."

16 And Shemu'ěl said to Sha'ul, "Wait, and let me declare to you what אֱלֹהִים said to me last night." And he said to him, "Speak."

17 And Shemu'ěl said, "Though you were little in your own eyes, were you not head of the tribes of Yisra'ěl? And did not אֱלֹהִים anoint you sovereign over Yisra'ěl?"

18 “And אִיָּהוָה sent you on the way, and said, ‘Go, and you shall put under the ban the sinners, the Amalēqites, and fight against them until they are consumed.’

19 “And why did you not obey the voice of אִיָּהוָה, but swooped down on the spoil, and did evil in the eyes of אִיָּהוָה?”

20 And Sha’ul said to Shemu’ël, “I did obey the voice of אִיָּהוָה, and I went on the way on which אִיָּהוָה sent me, and brought back Aḡaḡ sovereign of Amalēq, and I put Amalēq under the ban.

21 “But the people took of the spoil, of the sheep and cattle, the best of that which should have been put under the ban, to slaughter to אִיָּהוָה your Elohim in Gilgal.”

22 Then Shemu’ël said, “Does אִיָּהוָה delight in burnt offerings and slaughterings, as in obeying the voice of אִיָּהוָה? Look, to obey is better than an offering, and to heed than the fat of rams.

23 “For rebellion is as the sin of divination, and stubbornness is as wickedness and idolatry. Because you have rejected the Word of אִיָּהוָה, He also rejects you as sovereign.”

24 And Sha’ul said to Shemu’ël, “I have sinned, for I have transgressed the Command of אִיָּהוָה and your words, because I feared the people and listened to their voice.

25 “And now, please pardon my sin, and return with me, and let me bow myself to אִיָּהוָה.”

26 But Shemu’ël said to Sha’ul, “I do not return with you, for you have rejected the Word of אִיָּהוָה, and אִיָּהוָה rejects you from being sovereign over Yisra’ël.”

27 And as Shemu’ël turned around to go away, Sha’ul seized the edge of his robe, and it tore.

28 And Shemu'ël said to him, “אֱלֹהִים has torn the reign of Yisra'ël from you today, and has given it to a neighbour of yours, better than you.

29 “Moreover, the Eminence of Yisra'ël does not lie nor relent. For He is not a man, that He should relent.”

30 Then he said, “I have sinned. But esteem me now, please, before the elders of my people and before Yisra'ël, and return with me, and I shall bow myself to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim.”

31 And Shemu'ël turned back after Sha'ul, and Sha'ul bowed himself to אֱלֹהִים.

32 And Shemu'ël said, “Bring Aġaġ sovereign of the Amalëqites here to me.” So Aġaġ came to him delightedly, and Aġaġ said, “Truly, the bitterness of death has turned aside.”

33 And Shemu'ël said, “As your sword bereaved women, let your mother be bereaved among women too.” Shemu'ël then hewed Aġaġ to pieces before אֱלֹהִים in Gilgal.

34 And Shemu'ël went to Ramah, while Sha'ul went up to his house at Gib'ah of Sha'ul.

35 And Shemu'ël did not see Sha'ul again until the day of his death, for Shemu'ël mourned for Sha'ul. And אֱלֹהִים was grieved that He had made Sha'ul to reign over Yisra'ël.

16 And אֱלֹהִים said to Shemu'ël, “How long are you going to mourn for Sha'ul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Yisra'ël? Fill your horn with oil, and go, I am sending you to Yishai the Bëyth Lehemite. For I have seen among his sons a sovereign for Myself.”

2 And Shemu'ël said, “How would I go? When Sha'ul hears it, he shall kill me.” And אֱלֹהִים said, “Take a heifer with you, and say, ‘I have come to slaughter to אֱלֹהִים.’”

3 “And you shall invite Yishai to the slaughtering, then let Me show you what to do. And you shall anoint for Me the one I say to you.”

4 And Shemu’ël did what אִיָּשָׁי said, and went to Běyth Leḥem. And the elders of the town trembled at his coming, and said, “Do you come in peace?”

5 And he said, “In peace. I have come to slaughter to אִיָּשָׁי. Qadosh yourselves, and you shall come with me to the slaughtering.” And he qadosh Yishai and his sons, and invited them to the slaughtering.

6 And it came to be, when they came, that he saw Eliyaḅ and thought, “The anointed of אִיָּשָׁי is indeed before Him.”

7 But אִיָּשָׁי said to Shemu’ël, “Do not look at his appearance or at the height of his stature, because I have refused him, for not as man sees, for man looks at the eyes, but אִיָּשָׁי looks at the heart.”

8 Then Yishai called Abinadab, and made him pass before Shemu’ël. And he said, “Neither has אִיָּשָׁי chosen this one.”

9 Next Yishai made Shammah pass by. And he said, “Neither has אִיָּשָׁי chosen this one.”

10 And Yishai made seven of his sons pass before Shemu’ël. And Shemu’ël said to Yishai, “אִיָּשָׁי has not chosen these.”

11 And Shemu’ël said to Yishai, “Are these all the young men?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest, and see, he is tending the sheep.” And Shemu’ël said to Yishai, “Send and bring him, for we do not turn round till he comes here.”

12 And he sent and brought him in. And he was tanned, with bright eyes, and good-looking. And אִיָּשָׁי said, “Arise, anoint him, for this is the one!”

13 And Shemu’ël took the horn of oil and anointed him in the midst of his brothers. And the Ruah of אִיָּשָׁי came upon Dawid from that day and onwards. And Shemu'el arose and went to Ramah.

14 And the Ruah of אַף־אֵז turned aside from Sha'ul, and an evil spirit from אַף־אֵז troubled him.

15 And the servants of Sha'ul said to him, "Look, now, an evil spirit from Elohim is troubling you.

16 "Please, let our master command your servants who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skilled player on the lyre. And it shall be that when the evil spirit from Elohim is upon you, that he shall play with his hand, and you be well."

17 And Sha'ul said to his servants, "Please get me a man that plays well, and bring him to me."

18 And one of the servants answered and said, "Look, I have seen a son of Yishai the Bēyth Lehemite, who knows how to play, a brave one, and a man of battle, and skilled in words, and a handsome man. And אַף־אֵז is with him."

19 So Sha'ul sent messengers to Yishai, and said, "Send me your son Dawid, who is with the sheep."

20 And Yishai took a donkey loaded with bread, and a skin of wine, and a young goat, and sent them by his son Dawid to Sha'ul.

21 And Dawid came to Sha'ul and stood before him. And he loved him greatly, and he became his armour-bearer.

22 Sha'ul therefore sent to Yishai, saying, "Please let Dawid stand before me, for he has found favour in my eyes."

23 And it came to be, whenever the spirit from Elohim was upon Sha'ul, that Dawid would take a lyre and play it with his hand. Then Sha'ul would become refreshed and well, and the evil spirit would leave him.

17 And the Pelishtites had gathered their armies for battle, and came together at Soḵoh, which belongs to Yahudāh, and encamped between Soḵoh and Azēqah, in Ephes Dammim.

2 And Sha'ul and the men of Yisra'ël were gathered and encamped in the Valley of Ēlah, and drew up in battle array to meet the Pelishtites.

3 And the Pelishtites stood on a mountain on one side, and Yisra'ël stood on a mountain on the other side, with the valley between them.

4 Then a champion came out from the camp of the Pelishtites, named Golyath, from Gath, whose height was six ammah and a zereth.

5 And a bronze helmet was on his head, and he was armed with a scaled armour, and the weight of the coat was five thousand sheqels of bronze,

6 and bronze shin guards on his legs and a bronze spear between his shoulders.

7 And the wood of his spear was like a weaver's beam, and his iron spearhead six hundred sheqels, and a shield-bearer went before him.

8 And he stood and shouted to the armies of Yisra'ël, and said to them, "Why have you come out to line up for battle? Am I not a Pelishtite, and you the servants of Sha'ul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me.

9 "If he is able to fight with me, and shall smite me, then we shall be your servants. But if I overcome him and shall smite him, then you shall be our servants and serve us."

10 Then the Pelishtite said, "This day I shall reproach the armies of Yisra'ël. Give me a man, and let us fight together."

11 And Sha'ul and all Yisra'el heard these words of the Pelishtite, and they were broken down and in great fear.

12 Now Dawid was the son of that Ephrathite of Bēyth Lehem in Yahudah, whose name was Yishai, and he had eight sons, and in the days of Sha'ul the man was old among men.

13 And the three oldest sons of Yishai went, they had gone to follow Sha'ul to the battle, and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliyaḅ the first-born, and his second Aḅinadaḅ, and the third Shammah.

14 And Dawid was the youngest. And the three oldest followed Sha'ul, 15 but Dawid went and returned from Sha'ul to feed his father's sheep at Bēyth Lehem.

16 And for forty days the Pelishtite drew near, morning and evening, and took his stand.

17 Then Yishai said to his son Dawid, "Please take to your brothers an ēphah of this dried grain and these ten loaves, and run to your brothers at the camp.

18 "And take these ten cheeses to the commander of the thousand, and see how your brothers are, and bring back news of them."

19 For Sha'ul and they and all the men of Yisra'el were in the Valley of Ēlah, fighting with the Pelishtites.

20 And Dawid rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a herdsman, and took and went as Yishai had commanded him. And he came to the camp as the army was going out to the fight, and they shouted for the battle.

21 And Yisra'el and the Pelishtites drew up in battle array, army against army.

22 And Dawid left his supplies in the hand of the keeper of the supplies, and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers.

23 And he was speaking with them and saw the champion, the Pelishtite of Gath, Golyath by name, coming up from the armies of the Pelishtites. And he spoke according to the same words, and Dawid heard.

24 And all the men of Yisra'el, when they saw the man, ran from him and were in great fear.

25 And the men of Yisra'el said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? For he has come up to reproach Yisra'el. And it shall be that the man who smites him, the sovereign is going to enrich him with great riches, and give him his daughter, and give his father's house exemption in Yisra'el."

26 And Dawid spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done for the man who smites this Pelishtite and shall take away reproach from Yisra'el? For who is this uncircumcised Pelishtite, that he should reproach the armies of the living Elohim?"

27 And the people answered him according to this word, saying, "This is what is done for the man who smites him."

28 And Eliyab his oldest brother heard when he spoke to the men. And Eliyab's displeasure burned against Dawid, and he said, "Why did you come down here? And with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride and the evil of your heart, for you have come down to see the battle."

29 And Dawid said, "Now what have I done? Was it not but a word?"

30 And he turned around from him toward another and said the same word. And these people answered him a word like the first word.

31 And when the words which Dawid spoke were heard, they reported them to Sha'ul, and he sent for him.

32 And Dawid said to Sha'ul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him, your servant is going, and shall fight with this Pelishtite."

33 And Sha'ul said to Dawid, "You are not able to go against this Pelishtite to fight with him, for you are but a youth, and he a man of battle from his youth."

34 Then Dawid said to Sha'ul, "Your servant has been tending sheep for his father, and when a lion or a bear came and took a lamb out of the flock,

35 I went out after it and smote it, and rescued from its mouth. And when it rose against me, I took hold of its beard, and smote it and killed it.

36 "Your servant has smitten both lion and bear. And this uncircumcised Pelishtite shall be like one of them, seeing he has reproached the armies of the living Elohim."

37 And Dawid said, "אִי־אֶזְרָא, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He delivers me from the hand of this Pelishtite." And Sha'ul said to Dawid, "Go, and אִי־אֶזְרָא be with you!"

38 And Sha'ul dressed Dawid with his garments, and he put a bronze helmet on his head, and put a coat of armour on him.

39 And Dawid girded his sword over his garments, and began to go, but he had not tried them. Then Dawid said to Sha'ul, "I am not able to go with these, for I have not tried them." So Dawid took them off.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones from the wadi, and put them in a shepherd's bag, in a pouch which he had, and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Pelishtite.

41 And the Pelishtite came, and began drawing near to Dawid, and the man who bore the shield went before him.

42 And when the Pelishtite looked about and saw Dawid, he despised him, for he was a youth, and tanned and good-looking.

43 And the Pelishtite said to Dawid, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" And the Pelishtite cursed Dawid by his mighty ones.

44 And the Pelishtite said to Dawid, "Come to me, and I give your flesh to the birds of the shamayim and the beasts of the field!"

45 But Dawid said to the Pelishtite, "You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a lance. But I come to you in the Name of יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of the armies of Yisra'el, whom you have reproached.

46 "This day יהוה shall deliver you into my hand, and I shall smite you and take your head from you, and give the carcasses of the camp of the Pelishtites today to the birds of the shamayim and the wild beasts of the earth, so that all the earth know that Elohim is for Yisra'el,

47 and all this assembly know that יהוה does not save with sword and spear, for the battle belongs to יהוה, and He shall give you into our hands."

48 And it came to be, when the Pelishtite arose and came and drew near to meet Dawid, that Dawid hurried and ran toward the army to meet the Pelishtite.

49 And Dawid put his hand in his bag and took out a stone, and slung it and smote the Pelishtite on his forehead, so that the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the ground.

50 Thus Dawiḡ prevailed over the Pelishtite with a sling and a stone, and smote the Pelishtite and killed him, and there was no sword in the hand of Dawiḡ.

51 Then Dawiḡ ran and stood over the Pelishtite, and took his sword and drew it out of its sheath and killed him, and cut off his head with it. And when the Pelishtites saw that their champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Yisra'ěl and Yahudaḡ arose and shouted, and pursued the Pelishtites as far as the entrance of the valley and to the gates of Eqron. And the wounded of the Pelishtites fell along the way to Sha'arayim, even as far as Gath and Eqron.

53 Then the children of Yisra'ěl turned back from chasing the Pelishtites, and they plundered their camps.

54 And Dawiḡ took the head of the Pelishtite and brought it to Yerushalayim, but he put his weapons in his tent.

55 And when Sha'ul saw Dawiḡ going out against the Pelishtite, he said to Aḡnēr, the commander of the army, "Aḡnēr, whose son is this youth?" And Aḡnēr said, "As your being lives, O sovereign, I do not know."

56 And the sovereign said, "Ask whose son this young man is."

57 And when Dawiḡ returned from the slaughter of the Pelishtite, Aḡnēr took him and brought him before Sha'ul with the head of the Pelishtite in his hand.

58 And Sha'ul said to him, "Whose son are you, young man?" And Dawiḡ said, "The son of your servant Yishai the Běyth Leḡemite."

18 And it came to be, when he had ended speaking to Sha'ul, that the being of Yahonathan was knit to the being of Dawid, and Yahonathan loved him as his own being.

2 And Sha'ul took him that day, and would not let him return to his father's house any more.

3 And Yahonathan and Dawid made a covenant, because he loved him as his own being.

4 And Yahonathan took off the robe that was on him and gave it to Dawid, and his garments, even to his sword and his bow and his girdle.

5 And Dawid went out wherever Sha'ul sent him. He acted wisely, and Sha'ul appointed him over the men of battle, and it was right in the eyes of all the people and also in the eyes of Sha'ul's servants.

6 And it came to be, as they came in, as Dawid was returning from smiting the Pelishtite, that the women came out from all the cities of Yisra'el, singing and dancing, to meet Sha'ul the sovereign with tambourines, with joy, and with musical instruments.

7 And the women sang as they danced, and said, "Sha'ul smote his thousands, and Dawid his ten thousands."

8 And Sha'ul was very wroth, and this matter was evil in his eyes, and he said, "To Dawid they have given ten thousands, and to me they have given thousands. So what more for him, except the reign?"

9 And from that day on Sha'ul eyed Dawid.

10 And it came to be on the next day that an evil spirit from Elohim came upon Sha'ul, and he nabu inside the house, while Dawid was playing by his hand, as usual. And the spear was in the hand of Sha'ul.

11 Then Sha'ul hurled the spear, for he said, "Let me smite Dawid, even to the wall." But twice Dawid withdrew from his presence.

12 And Sha'ul was afraid of Dawid, because אִי־אֵל was with him, but from Sha'ul He had turned away.

13 Sha'ul therefore removed him from his presence, and made him his commander over a thousand. And he went out and came in before the people.

14 And Dawid was acting wisely in all his ways, and אִי אִי אִי was with him.

15 And Sha'ul saw that he was acting very wisely, and was afraid of him.

16 But all Yisra'el and Yahudah loved Dawid, as he went out and came in before them.

17 And Sha'ul said to Dawid, "See my older daughter Mērab! I give her to you as a wife. Only be brave for me, and fight the battles of אִי אִי אִי." For Sha'ul thought, "Let not my hand be against him, but let the hand of the Pelishtites be against him."

18 And Dawid said to Sha'ul, "Who am I, and what is my life or my father's clan in Yisra'el, that I should be son-in-law to the sovereign?"

19 And it came to be at the time when Mērab, Sha'ul's daughter, should have been given to Dawid, that she was given to Adri'el the Meholathite as a wife.

20 And Miḳal, Sha'ul's daughter, loved Dawid. And they told Sha'ul, and the matter was right in his eyes.

21 And Sha'ul said, "Let me give her to him and let her be a snare to him, and the hand of the Pelishtites be against him." So Sha'ul said to Dawid a second time, "Become my son-in-law today."

22 And Sha'ul commanded his servants, "Speak to Dawid gently, and say, 'See, the sovereign has delighted in you, and all his servants have loved you. And now, be the sovereign's son-in-law!'"

23 And the servants of Sha'ul spoke those words in the hearing of Dawid. And Dawid said, "Does it seem to you a small matter to be a sovereign's son-in-law, seeing I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

24 And the servants of Sha'ul told him, saying, "Dawid has spoken according to these words."

25 And Sha'ul said, "Say to Dawid, 'The sovereign has no delight in any payment for the bride but one hundred foreskins of the Pelishtites, to take vengeance on the sovereign's enemies.' " But Sha'ul intended to have Dawid fall by the hand of the Pelishtites.

26 And his servants declared these words to Dawid, and it pleased Dawid well to become the sovereign's son-in-law. And the days had not expired, 27 and Dawid arose and went, he and his men, and smote two hundred men of the Pelishtites. And Dawid brought their foreskins, and they put them before the sovereign, to become the sovereign's son-in-law. And Sha'ul gave him Miḳal his daughter as a wife.

28 And Sha'ul saw and knew that אִיִּזְרָאֵל was with Dawid, and Miḳal daughter of Sha'ul loved him.

29 So then Sha'ul was still more afraid of Dawid. And Sha'ul came to be an enemy of Dawid all the days.

30 And the princes of the Pelishtites went out. And it came to be, whenever they went out, that Dawid acted more wisely than all the servants of Sha'ul, so that his name came to be very precious.

19 And Sha'ul spoke to Yahnathan his son and to all his servants, to put Dawid to death. But Yahnathan, Sha'ul's son, delighted much in Dawid,
2 and Yahnathan declared to Dawid, saying, "My father Sha'ul seeks to put you to death. And now, please be on your guard until morning, and dwell in secrecy, and hide.

3 "And I myself shall go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and speak with my father about you, and shall see, and shall let you know.”

4 And Yahonathan spoke well of Dawid to Sha'ul his father, and said to him, “Let not the sovereign sin against his servant, against Dawid, because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you.

5 “For he took his life in his hands and smote the Pelishtite, and אִיִּזְרָאֵל wrought a great deliverance for all Yisra'el. You saw it and rejoiced. Why then do you sin against innocent blood, to put Dawid to death without cause?”

6 And Sha'ul listened to the voice of Yahonathan, and Sha'ul swore, “As אִיִּזְרָאֵל lives, he does not die.”

7 Yahonathan then called Dawid, and Yahonathan told him all these words. So Yahonathan brought Dawid to Sha'ul, and he was in his presence as before.

8 And there was fighting again, and Dawid went out and fought with the Pelishtites, and smote them, a great smiting, and they fled before him.

9 And an evil spirit from אִיִּזְרָאֵל came upon Sha'ul as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand. And Dawid was playing by hand,

10 and Sha'ul sought to smite the spear through Dawid, and into the wall, but he slipped away from the presence of Sha'ul, so he smote the spear into the wall. And Dawid fled and escaped that night.

11 And Sha'ul sent messengers to Dawid's house to watch him and to put him to death in the morning. And Miḳal, Dawid's wife, informed him, saying, “If you do not save your life tonight, tomorrow you are put to death.”

12 So Miḳal let Dawid down through a window, and he went and fled and escaped.

13 And Miḳal took the household idol and laid it in the bed, and put a cover of goats' hair for his head, and covered it with a garment.

14 And when Sha'ul sent messengers to take Dawid, she said, "He is sick."

15 And Sha'ul sent the messengers back to see Dawid, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed to put him to death."

16 And the messengers came in and saw the household idol in the bed, with a cover of goats' hair for his head.

17 Sha'ul then said to Miḳal, "Why have you deceived me like this, and sent my enemy away, so that he escaped?" And Miḳal answered Sha'ul, "He said to me, 'Let me go, why should I put you to death?'"

18 Now Dawid fled and escaped, and went to Shemu'el at Ramah, and told him all that Sha'ul had done to him. And he and Shemu'el went and dwelt in Nawith.

19 And it was reported to Sha'ul, saying, "See, Dawid is in Nawith in Ramah!"

20 And Sha'ul sent messengers to take Dawid. And they saw the assembly of the neḅi'im naḅa, and Shemu'el standing as leader over them, and the Ruah of Elohim came upon the messengers of Sha'ul, and they also naḅu.

21 And when Sha'ul was told, he sent other messengers, and they naḅu likewise. So Sha'ul sent messengers again, the third time, and they naḅu also.

22 Then he himself went to Ramah, and came to the great well that is at Seḳu. And he asked, and said, "Where are Shemu'el and Dawid?" And one said, "There in Nawith in Ramah."

23 So he went there to Nawith in Ramah. And the Ruah of Elohim was upon him too, and he went on and naḅu until he came to Nawith in Ramah.

24 And he also stripped off his garments and naḅu before Shemu'ěl, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Sha'ul also among the neḅi'im?"

20 And Dawid fled from Nawith in Ramah, and went and said to Yahonathan, "What have I done? What is my wickedness, and what is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

2 And Yahonathan said to him, "Far be it! You are not going to die! See, my father does no big matter nor small matter without disclosing it to me. And why should my father hide this matter from me? It is not so!"

3 But Dawid swore again, and said, "Your father knows well that I have found favour in your eyes, and he says, 'Do not let Yahonathan know this, lest he be grieved.' But truly, as אִיִּזְכֵּי lives and as your being lives, there is but a step between me and death."

4 And Yahonathan said to Dawid, "Whatever your desire is, I do it for you."

5 And Dawid said to Yahonathan, "See, tomorrow is the New Moon, and I ought to sit with the sovereign to eat. But let me go, and I shall hide in the field until the third day at evening.

6 "If your father misses me at all, then you shall say, 'Dawid earnestly asked my permission to run over to Běyth Leḅem, his city, for a yearly slaughtering is made there for all the clan.'

7 "If he says thus, 'It is well,' your servant is safe. But if he is very displeased, then know that he has resolved to do evil.

8 “And you shall show kindness to your servant, for you have brought your servant into a covenant of אִימָנָה with you. And if there is wickedness in me, put me to death yourself, for why should you bring me to your father?”

9 And Yehonathan said, “Far be it from you! For if I knew with certainty that my father has resolved that evil is to come upon you, then would I not make it known to you?”

10 And Dawid said to Yehonathan, “Who would make it known to me, or what if your father answers you sharply?”

11 And Yehonathan said to Dawid, “Come, and let us go out into the field.” And they both went out into the field.

12 And Yehonathan said to Dawid, “אִימָנָה Elohim of Yisra'el! When I search out my father sometime tomorrow, or the third day, and see if there is good toward Dawid, and I do not send to you or disclose it to you,

13 so let אִימָנָה do so and much more to Yehonathan. And if it pleases my father to do you evil, then I shall disclose it to you and send you away, and you shall go in peace. And אִימָנָה be with you as He has been with my father.

14 “But show me the kindness of אִימָנָה, not only while I still live, so that I do not die,

15 and do not cut off your kindness from my house forever, no, not when אִימָנָה has cut off every one of the enemies of Dawid from the face of the earth.”

16 And Yehonathan made a covenant with the house of Dawid: “אִימָנָה shall require it at the hand of the enemies of Dawid.”

17 And Yahonathan again made Dawid swear, because he loved him, for he loved him as he loved his own being.

18 So Yahonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the New Moon, and you shall be missed, because your seat shall be empty.

19 "And on the third day, go down quickly and you shall come to the place where you hid on the day of the deed, and shall remain by the stone of Ezel.

20 "And let me shoot three arrows to the side of it as though shooting at a target,

21 and see, I shall send the youth, saying, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I expressly say to the youth, 'Look, the arrows are on this side of you, get them and come,' then, as אִי־אֵלֹהִים lives, there is safety for you and no concern.

22 "But if I say thus to the youth, 'Look, the arrows are beyond you,' go your way, for אִי־אֵלֹהִים has sent you away.

23 "And as for the word which you and I have spoken of, see, אִי־אֵלֹהִים is between you and me forever."

24 And Dawid hid in the field. And when the New Moon came, the sovereign sat down by the food to eat.

25 And the sovereign sat on his seat, as at other times, on a seat by the wall, with Yahonathan standing, and Abnēr sitting by Sha'ul's side, but the place of Dawid was empty.

26 But Sha'ul did not speak anything that day, for he thought, "It is an accident; he is not clean, for he has not been cleansed."

27 And it came to be the next day, the second of the month, that Dawid's place was empty. And Sha'ul said to Yahonathan his son, "Why has the son of Yishai not come to eat, either yesterday or today?"

28 And Yahonathan answered Sha'ul, "Dawid earnestly asked for leave to Bëyth Lehem.

29 "And he said, 'Please let me go, for our clan has a slaughtering in the city, and my brother has commanded me to be there. And now, if I have found favour in your eyes, please let me get away and see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the sovereign's table."

30 Then the displeasure of Sha'ul burned against Yahonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse, rebellious woman! Do I not know that you have chosen the son of Yishai to your own shame and to the shame of your mother's nakedness?"

31 "For as long as the son of Yishai lives on the earth, you shall not be established, you and your reign. And now, send and bring him to me, for he is a son of death."

32 And Yahonathan answered Sha'ul his father, and said to him, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

33 At that, Sha'ul hurled a spear at him to smite him. Then Yahonathan knew that his father had resolved to put Dawid to death.

34 And Yahonathan rose up from the table in the heat of displeasure, and ate no food the second day of the month, for he was grieved for Dawid, because his father put him to shame.

35 And it came to be, in the morning, that Yahonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with Dawid, and a small youth was with him.

36 And he said to the youth, "Now run, find the arrows which I shoot." As the youth ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the youth came to the place where the arrow was which Yahonathan had shot, Yahonathan called out after the youth and said, "Is not the arrow beyond you?"

38 And Yahonathan shouted after the youth, "Make haste, hurry, do not stand still!" And Yahonathan's youth picked up the arrows and came to his master.

39 But the youth knew not a speck. Only Yahonathan and Dawid knew of the matter.

40 Then Yahonathan gave his weapons to the youth and said to him, "Go, take them to the city."

41 And as soon as the youth had gone, Dawid rose up from the south side, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed down three times. And they kissed one another. And they wept together, but Dawid more so.

42 And Yahonathan said to Dawid, "Go in peace, since we have both sworn in the Name of אֱלֹהִים saying, 'אֱלֹהִים is between you and me, and between your seed and my seed, forever.'" Then he arose and left, and Yahonathan went into the city.

21 And Dawid came to Nob, to Aḥimeleḵ the kohēn. And Aḥimeleḵ trembled when he met Dawid, and asked him, "Why are you alone, and no one is with you?"

2 And Dawid said to Aḥimeleḵ the kohēn, "The sovereign has commanded me a word, and said to me, 'Let no one know whatever of the word about which I send you, and which I have commanded you.' And I have directed my young men to such and such a place.

3 "And now, what do you have on hand? Give five loaves into my hand, or whatever is found."

4 And the kohēn answered Dawid and said, "There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is qodesh bread - provided the young men have kept themselves from women.”

5 And Dawid answered the kohēn, and said to him, “Truly, women have been kept from us about three days since I came out. And the vessels of the young men are qodesh, and it is an ordinary mission, and also, it was qodesh in the vessel today.”

6 Then the kohēn gave him qodesh bread, for there was no bread there except the showbread which had been taken from before אִֿיֿאֵֿל, in order to put hot bread in on the day it is taken away.

7 Now one of the servants of Sha’ul was there that day, detained before אִֿיֿאֵֿל. And his name was Do’ēg, an Edomite, the chief of the herdsmen who belonged to Sha’ul.

8 And Dawid said to Aḥimeleḵ, “Is there not here on hand a spear or a sword? For I have brought neither my sword nor my weapons with me, because the matter of the sovereign was urgent.”

9 And the kohēn said, “The sword of Golyath the Pelishtite, whom you smote in the Valley of Ĕlah. See, it is wrapped in a garment behind the shoulder garment. If you would take it, take it. For there is none other except this one here.” And Dawid said, “There is none like it, give it to me.”

10 And Dawid rose and fled that day from before Sha’ul, and went to Aḵish the sovereign of Gath.

11 But the servants of Aḵish said to him, “Is this not Dawid the sovereign of the land? Did they not sing of him to each other in dances, saying, ‘Sha’ul smote his thousands, and Dawid his ten thousands’?”

12 And Dawid took these words to heart, and was very much afraid of Aḵish the sovereign of Gath,

13 and changed his behaviour before them, and feigned madness in their hands, and scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his saliva run down on his beard.

14 Then Aḱish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is acting like a madman. Why do you bring him to me?"

15 "Am I short of madmen, that you have brought this one to act as a madman near me? Should this one come into my house?"

22 And Dawiḍ went from there and escaped to the cave of Aḍullam. And his brothers and all his father's house heard it, and went down to him there.

2 And everyone who was in distress, everyone who was in debt, and everyone bitter in being gathered to him. So he became head over them, and there were about four hundred men with him.

3 And Dawiḍ went from there to Mitspěh of Mo'ab and said to the sovereign of Mo'ab, "Please let my father and mother come here with you, till I know what Elohim does for me."

4 And he left them with the sovereign of Mo'ab, and they dwelt with him all the time that Dawiḍ was in the stronghold.

5 And the naḅi Gaḍ said to Dawiḍ, "Do not remain in the stronghold. Leave, and go to the land of Yahudah." So Dawiḍ left and went into the Ḥereth woods.

6 And Sha'ul heard that Dawiḍ and the men who were with him had been discovered, while Sha'ul was in Gib'ah, sitting under a tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants standing about him.

7 And Sha'ul said to his servants who were standing around him, "Hear now, you Binyamites! Does the son of Yishai give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

8 “For all of you have conspired against me, and there is no one who reveals to me that my son has made a covenant with the son of Yishai. And there is not one of you who is grieved for me or reveals to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day.”

9 And Do’ēg̃ the Edomite, who was put over the servants of Sha’ul, answered and said, “I saw the son of Yishai going to Nob, to Aḥimeleḵ son of Aḥitub.

10 “And he inquired of אִרְיָאֵל for him, gave him food, and gave him the sword of Golyath the Pelishtite.”

11 And the sovereign sent someone to call Aḥimeleḵ the kohēn, son of Aḥitub, and all his father’s house, the kohenim who were in Nob. And they all came to the sovereign,

12 and Sha’ul said, “Hear now, son of Aḥitub!” And he answered, “Here I am, my master.”

13 And Sha’ul said to him, “Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Yishai, by giving him bread and a sword, and have inquired of Elohim for him, to rise against me, to lie in wait, as it is this day?”

14 And Aḥimeleḵ answered the sovereign and said, “And who among all your servants is so trustworthy as Dawid, who is the sovereign’s son-in-law, and has turned aside to your counsel, and is esteemed in your house?”

15 “Have I today begun to inquire of Elohim for him? Far be it from me! Let not the sovereign lay a case against his servant, or against any in the house of my father. For your servant knew not of all this, little or much.”

16 And the sovereign said, “You shall certainly die, Aḥimeleḵ, you and all your father’s house!”

17 The sovereign then said to the guards who stood about him, “Turn and put the kohenim of אִיִּזְרְאֵל to death, because their hand also is with Dawid, and because they knew when he fled and did not reveal it to me.” But the servants of the sovereign would not lift their hands to come against the kohenim of אִיִּזְרְאֵל.

18 And the sovereign said to Do'ëg, “You turn and come against the kohenim!” So Do'ëg the Edomite turned and came against the kohenim, and put to death on that day eighty-five men who wore a linen shoulder garment.

19 And he smote Nob, the city of the kohenim, with the edge of the sword, from men even to women, from children even to nursing infants, and oxen and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 And one of the sons of Aḥimelek son of Aḥitub, named Ebyathar, escaped and fled after Dawid.

21 And Ebyathar reported to Dawid that Sha'ul had slain the kohenim of אִיִּזְרְאֵל.

22 And Dawid said to Ebyathar, “I knew that day, when Do'ëg the Edomite was there, that he would certainly inform Sha'ul. I am accountable for all the lives of your father's house.

23 “Remain with me, do not fear. For he who seeks my life seeks your life, but with me you are safe.”

23 And they informed Dawid, saying, “See, the Pelishtites are fighting against Qe'ilah, and they are plundering the threshing-floors.”

2 So Dawid inquired of אִיִּזְרְאֵל, saying, “Shall I go and smite these Pelishtites?” And אִיִּזְרְאֵל said to Dawid, “Go and smite the Pelishtites, and save Qe'ilah.”

3 And Dawid's men said to him, “See, we here in Yahudah are afraid. How much more, then, if we go to Qe'ilah against the armies of the Pelishtites?”

4 And Dawid inquired of אִיָּהוָה once again. And אִיָּהוָה answered him and said, “Arise, go down to Qe’ilah, for I am giving the Pelishtites into your hand.”

5 So Dawid and his men went to Qe’ilah and fought with the Pelishtites, and he led away their livestock and smote them, a great smiting. Thus Dawid saved the inhabitants of Qe’ilah.

6 And it came to be, when Ebyathar son of Aḥimelek fled to Dawid at Qe’ilah, that he went down with a shoulder garment in his hand.

7 And Sha’ul was informed that Dawid had gone to Qe’ilah. Then Sha’ul said, “Elohim has estranged him into my hand, for he has shut himself in by entering a town that has gates and bars.”

8 And Sha’ul summoned all the people to battle, to go down, to Qe’ilah to besiege Dawid and his men.

9 And Dawid knew that Sha’ul was plotting evil against him, and said to Ebyathar the kohēn, “Bring the shoulder garment here.”

10 And Dawid said, “O אִיָּהוָה Elohim of Yisra’ēl, Your servant has heard for certain that Sha’ul seeks to come to Qe’ilah to destroy the city for my sake.

11 “Are the landowners of Qe’ilah going to surrender me into his hand? Is Sha’ul coming down, as Your servant has heard? O אִיָּהוָה Elohim of Yisra’ēl, I pray, let Your servant know.” And אִיָּהוָה said, “He is coming down.”

12 And Dawid said, “Are the land-owners of Qe’ilah going to surrender me and my men into the hand of Sha’ul?” And אִיָּהוָה said, “They are going to surrender you.”

13 Then Dawid and his men, about six hundred, arose and left Qe’ilah and went wherever they could go. And Sha’ul was informed that Dawid had escaped from Qe’ilah, and he ceased to go out.

14 And Dawid remained in the wilderness, in strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the Wilderness of Ziph. And Sha'ul sought him every day, but Elohim did not give him into his hand.

15 And Dawid saw that Sha'ul had come out to seek his life while Dawid was in the Wilderness of Ziph at Horesh.

16 And Yahonathan, Sha'ul's son, arose and went to Dawid at Horesh and strengthened his hand in Elohim,

17 and said to him, "Do not fear, for the hand of Sha'ul my father is not going to find you, and you are to reign over Yisra'el, and I am to be next to you. Even my father Sha'ul knows that."

18 And they made a covenant before אֱלֹהִים. And Dawid remained at Horesh while Yahonathan went to his own house.

19 And the Ziphites came up to Sha'ul at Gib'ah, saying, "Is Dawid not hiding with us in the strongholds of Horesh, in the hill of Haqilah, which is on the south of the wasteland?"

20 "And now, O sovereign, by all the desire of your being, come down, come down, and our part is to surrender him into the sovereign's hand."

21 And Sha'ul said, "Baruk are you of אֱלֹהִים, for you have sympathy with me.

22 "Please go, prepare yet further and find out and see the place where his hide-out is, who has seen him there. For I am told that he is very cunning.

23 "So look, and learn all about the hiding places where he hides. And you shall come back to me with certainty, then I shall go with you. And it shall be, if he is in the land, that I shall search for him throughout all the clans of Yahudah."

24 And they rose up and went to Ziph before Sha'ul, while Dawid and his men were in the Wilderness of Ma'on, in the desert plain on the south of the wasteland.

25 And Sha'ul and his men went to seek him, and they informed Dawid, so he went down to the rock, and remained in the Wilderness of Ma'on. And when Sha'ul heard this, he pursued Dawid in the Wilderness of Ma'on.

26 And Sha'ul went on one side of the mountain, and Dawid and his men on the other side of the mountain. And Dawid was hurrying to get away from Sha'ul, for Sha'ul and his men were surrounding Dawid and his men to take them.

27 Then a messenger came to Sha'ul, saying, "Hurry and come, for the Pelishtites have invaded the land!"

28 So Sha'ul turned back from pursuing Dawid, and went against the Pelishtites. Therefore they called that place Sela ha'Mahleqoth.

29 And Dawid went up from there and remained in strongholds at Ęyn Gedĭ.

24 And it came to be, when Sha'ul had returned from pursuing the Pelishtites, that it was reported to him, saying, "See, Dawid is in the Wilderness of Ęyn Gedĭ."

2 So Sha'ul took three thousand chosen men from all Yisra'el, and went to seek Dawid and his men on the face of Tsurĕy ha'Ye'Ęylim.

3 And he came to the sheepfolds, on the way, and there was a cave. And Sha'ul went in to relieve himself. Now Dawid and his men were sitting in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of Dawid said to him, "See, the day of which אַרְבָּז said to you, 'See, I am giving your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it seems good to you!' ” And Dawid arose and gently cut off a corner of Sha'ul's robe.

5 And it came to be afterward that the heart of Dawid smote him because he had cut the robe of Sha'ul.

6 So he said to his men, “Far be it from me, by אֱלֹהִים, that I should do this matter to my master, anointed of אֱלֹהִים, to stretch out my hand against him, for he is the anointed of אֱלֹהִים.”

7 And Dawid dispersed his servants with words, and did not allow them to rise against Sha'ul. And Sha'ul rose up from the cave and went on his way.

8 And afterward Dawid arose and went out of the cave, and called out to Sha'ul, saying, “My master the sovereign!” And when Sha'ul looked behind him, Dawid bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeisance.

9 And Dawid said to Sha'ul, “Why do you listen to the words of men who say, ‘See, Dawid seeks to do you evil’?

10 “See, this day your eyes have seen that אֱלֹהִים gave you today into my hand in the cave, and one said to slay you. But my eye pardoned you, and I said, ‘I do not stretch out my hand against my master, for he is the anointed of אֱלֹהִים.’

11 “And my father, see! Even see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not slay you, know and see that there is neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, while you are hunting my life to take it.

12 “Let אֱלֹהִים judge between you and me, and let אֱלֹהִים revenge me on you, but my hand is not against you.

13 “As the proverb of the ancients says, ‘Wickedness comes from the wicked.’ But my hand is not against you.

14 “After whom has the sovereign of Yisra’ël come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea?

15 “And אִי־אִי shall be judge, and rightly rule between you and me, and see and plead my case, and rightly rule me out of your hand.”

16 And it came to be, when Dawid had ended speaking these words to Sha’ul, that Sha’ul said, “Is this your voice, my son Dawid?” So Sha’ul lifted up his voice and wept.

17 And he said to Dawid, “You are more righteous than I, for you have rewarded me with good, whereas I have rewarded you with evil.

18 “And you have shown today how you have done good to me, for when אִי־אִי surrendered me into your hand you did not slay me.

19 “For if a man finds his enemy, shall he let him get away safely? And let אִי־אִי reward you with good for what you have done to me today.

20 “And now look, I know that you shall certainly reign, and that the reign of Yisra’ël shall be established in your hand.

21 “And now, swear to me by אִי־אִי that you do not cut off my seed after me, nor destroy my name from my father’s house.”

22 And Dawid swore to Sha’ul. Then Sha’ul went home, and Dawid and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 And Shemu’ël died, and all Yisra’ël gathered and mourned for him, and buried him at his home in Ramah. And Dawid arose and went down into the Wilderness of Paran.

2 Now there was a man in Ma'on and his work was in Karmel, and the man was very great. And he had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. And he came to be shearing his sheep in Karmel.

3 And the name of the man was Naḅal, and the name of his wife Aḅiḡayil. And she was a woman of good understanding and good-looking. But the man was hard and evil in his doings. And he was of Kalēḅ.

4 And Dawiḡ heard in the wilderness that Naḅal was shearing his sheep.

5 And Dawiḡ sent ten young men, and Dawiḡ said to the young men, "Go up to Karmel, and you shall come to Naḅal, and greet him in my name,

6 and say this, 'Long life and peace to you! And peace to your house, and peace to all that you have!

7 'And now, I have heard that you have shearers. Now your shepherds have been with us. We did not put them to shame, and not a speck of theirs was missing all the days they were in Karmel.

8 'Ask your young men, and let them inform you. So let the young men find favour in your eyes, for we come on a good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand to your servants and to your son Dawiḡ.' "

9 And the young men of Dawiḡ came and spoke to Naḅal according to all these words in the name of Dawiḡ, and waited.

10 But Naḅal answered the servants of Dawiḡ and said, "Who is Dawiḡ, and who is the son of Yishai? The servants who are running away from their masters, have become many nowadays.

11 "And shall I take my bread and my water and my meat that I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men coming from who knows where?"

12 And the young men of Dawid turned around on their way and went back, and came and reported to him all these words.

13 And Dawid said to his men, "Each one gird on his sword." So they each girded on his sword, and Dawid also girded on his sword. And about four hundred men went with Dawid, and two hundred remained with the baggage.

14 And one of the young men informed Abiḡayil, the wife of Naḡal, saying, "See, Dawid sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he scoffed at them.

15 "But the men were very good to us, and did not put us to shame, nor did we miss anything all the days we accompanied them, when we were in the fields.

16 "They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the days we were with them tending the sheep.

17 "And now, know and see what you should do, for evil has been resolved against our master, and against all his household, and he is too much of a son of Beliya'al to speak to."

18 Then Abiḡayil made haste and took two hundred loaves, and two skins of wine, and five sheep made ready, five se'im of roasted grain, and one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

19 And she said to her servants, "Pass over before me. See, I am coming after you." But she did not inform her husband Naḡal.

20 And it came to be, as she rode on the donkey, that she went down under cover of the hill, and there were Dawid and his men, coming down toward her, and she met them.

21 And Dawid had said, "Only in vain have I protected all that this one has in the wilderness, so that not a speck was missing of all that belongs to him. And he has repaid me evil for good.

22 “Let Elohim do so, and more also, to the enemies of Dawiḏ, if I leave one male of all who belong to him by morning light.”

23 And Abiḡayil saw Dawiḏ, and she hastened to come down from the donkey, and fell on her face before Dawiḏ, and bowed down to the ground, 24 and fell at his feet and said, “On me, my master, let this wickedness be on me! And please let your female servant speak in your ears, and hear the words of your female servant.

25 “Please, let not my master regard this man of Beliya'al, Naḅal. For as his name is, so is he: Naḅal is his name, and folly is with him. But I, your female servant, did not see the young men of my master whom you sent.

26 “And now my master, as אִיִּזְרְאֵל lives and as your being lives, since אִיִּזְרְאֵל has withheld you from coming to bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now then, let your enemies be as Naḅal, even those seeking evil against my master.

27 “And now this present which your female servant has brought to my master, let it be given to the young men who follow my master.

28 “Please bear the transgression of your female servant. For אִיִּזְרְאֵל is certainly making a steadfast house for my master, because my master fights the battles of אִיִּזְרְאֵל, and evil is not found in you in your days.

29 “And if a man rises to pursue you and seek your life, and the life of my master has been bound in the bundle of the living with אִיִּזְרְאֵל your Elohim, then the lives of your enemies He shall sling out, as from the pocket of a sling.

30 “And it shall be, when אֱלֹהִים has done for my master according to all the good that He has spoken concerning you, and has appointed you ruler over Yisra’ēl,

31 do not let this be a staggering and stumbling of heart to my master, that you have shed blood without cause, or that my master has saved himself. And when אֱלֹהִים has done good to my master, then remember your female servant.”

32 And Dawid said to Abiḡayil, “Baruḵ be אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’ēl, who sent you to meet me today!

33 “And baruḵ is your good taste, and baruḵ are you, because you have kept me this day from coming to bloodshed and from avenging myself with my own hand.

34 “Nevertheless, as אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’ēl lives, who has kept me back from doing evil to you, if you had not hurried and come to meet me, not a male would have been left to Naḅal by break of day, for certain.”

35 And Dawid received from her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. See, I have listened to your voice and have accepted your face.”

36 And Abiḡayil went to Naḅal, and see, he was at a feast in his house, like the feast of a sovereign. And Naḅal’s heart was glad within him, and he was exceedingly drunk. So she told him not a word, little or much, until morning light.

37 And it came to be, in the morning, when the wine had gone from Naḅal, and his wife had told him these matters, that his heart died within him, and he became like a stone.

38 And it came to be in about ten days, that אֱלֹהִים smote Naḅal, and he died.

39 And Dawiḍ heard that Naḅal was dead, and he said, “Baruḳ be אִיִּזְרָאֵל, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Naḅal, and has kept His servant from evil! For אִיִּזְרָאֵל has returned the evil of Naḅal on his own head.” And Dawiḍ sent and spoke to Aḅigayil, to take her as his wife.

40 And when the servants of Dawiḍ had come to Aḅigayil at Karmel, they spoke to her saying, “Dawiḍ sent us to you, to ask you to become his wife.”

41 And she arose, bowed her face to the earth, and said, “Here is your female servant, a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my master.”

42 And Aḅigayil hurried and rose, and rode on a donkey, with five of her female attendants. And she followed the messengers of Dawiḍ, and became his wife.

43 Dawiḍ had also taken Aḅino'am of Yizre'ēl, and so both of them were his wives.

44 But Sha'ul had given Miḳal his daughter, Dawiḍ's wife, to Palti son of Layish, who was from Gallim.

26 And the Ziphites came to Sha'ul at Giḅ'ah, saying, “Is not Dawiḍ hiding himself in the hill of Ḥaḳilah, overlooking the wasteland?”

2 And Sha'ul rose up and went down to the Wilderness of Ziph, and with him three thousand chosen men of Yisra'ēl, to seek Dawiḍ in the Wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Sha'ul encamped in the hill of Ḥaḳilah, overlooking the wasteland, by the way, while Dawiḍ was dwelling in the wilderness, and he saw that Sha'ul came after him into the wilderness.

4 And Dawiḍ sent out spies, and learned that Sha'ul had indeed come.

5 And Dawid̄ rose up and came to the place where Sha'ul had encamped. And Dawid̄ saw the place where Sha'ul lay, and Ab̄nēr son of Nēr, the commander of his army. And Sha'ul was lying within the enclosure, with the people encamped all around him.

6 And Dawid̄ spoke up and said to Aḥimeleḵ the Hittite and to Ab̄ishai son of Tseruyah, brother of Yo'ab̄, saying, "Who goes down with me to Sha'ul in the camp?" And Ab̄ishai said, "I, I go down with you."

7 And Dawid̄ and Ab̄ishai came to the people by night and saw Sha'ul lying asleep within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head, and Ab̄nēr and the people lay all around him.

8 And Ab̄ishai said to Dawid̄, "Elohim has surrendered your enemy into your hand this day. And now, please, let me smite him at once with the spear, right into the earth, and not a second time!"

9 But Dawid̄ said to Ab̄ishai, "Do not destroy him, for who shall stretch out his hand against the anointed of אֱלֹהִים, and be guiltless?"

10 Dawid̄ also said, "As אֱלֹהִים lives, except אֱלֹהִים smites him, or his day come that he shall die, or he shall go out to battle and perish,

11 far be it from me, by אֱלֹהִים, that I stretch out my hand against the anointed of אֱלֹהִים. And now, please take the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go."

12 So Dawid̄ took the spear and the jug of water by Sha'ul's head, and they went away. And no man saw it or knew it or awoke, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from אֱלֹהִים had fallen on them.

13 And Dawid̄ passed over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill far away, a great distance being between them.

14 And Dawid̄ called out to the people and to Aḅnēr son of Nēr, saying, “Do you not answer, Aḅnēr?” And Aḅnēr answered and said, “Who are you, calling out to the sovereign?”

15 And Dawid̄ said to Aḅnēr, “Are you not a man? And who is like you in Yisra'ěl? Why then have you not guarded your master the sovereign? For one of the people came in to destroy your master the sovereign.

16 “What you have done is not good. As אִיִּזְרָאֵל lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not guarded your master, the anointed of אִיִּזְרָאֵל. And now see where the sovereign's spear is, and the jug of water that was by his head.”

17 And Sha'ul recognised Dawid̄'s voice, and said, “Is that your voice, my son Dawid̄?” And Dawid̄ said, “It is my voice, my master, O sovereign.”

18 And he said, “Why is this that my master is pursuing his servant? For what have I done, or what evil is in my hand?

19 “And now, please, let my master the sovereign hear the words of his servant: If אִיִּזְרָאֵל has moved you against me, let Him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, then they are cursed before אִיִּזְרָאֵל, for they have driven me out today that I should not join myself to the inheritance of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, saying, ‘Go, serve other mighty ones.’

20 “And now, do not let my blood fall to the earth before the face of אִיִּזְרָאֵל. For the sovereign of Yisra'ěl has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains.”

21 And Sha'ul said, “I have sinned. Come back, my son Dawid̄. For no more am I going to do evil to you, because my life was precious in your eyes today. See, I have acted foolishly, and have greatly strayed.”

22 And Dawid answered and said, "See, the sovereign's spear! And let one of the young men come over and get it.

23 "And let אִיִּי reward every man for his righteousness and his trustworthiness, for this day אִיִּי gave you into my hand, but I would not stretch out my hand against the anointed of אִיִּי.

24 "And see, as your life has been valued in my eyes today, so let my life be valued in the eyes of אִיִּי, and let Him deliver me out of all distress."

25 And Sha'ul said to Dawid, "Baruk are you, my son Dawid, achieving much, and indeed prevailing!" Then Dawid went on his way, and Sha'ul returned to his place.

27 And Dawid said in his heart, "Now I shall perish by the hand of Sha'ul, some day. There is naught better for me than to escape to the land of the Pelishtites. Then Sha'ul shall give up searching for me any longer in any part of Yisra'el, and I shall escape out of his hand."

2 So Dawid rose up and passed over with the six hundred men who were with him to Akish son of Ma'ok, sovereign of Gath.

3 And Dawid dwelt with Akish at Gath, he and his men, each man with his household - Dawid with his two wives, Ahino'am the Yizre'elitess, and Abigail the Karmelitess, Nabal's widow.

4 And it was reported to Sha'ul that Dawid had fled to Gath, so he sought him no more.

5 And Dawid said to Akish, "If I have now found favour in your eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, to dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?"

6 And Aḳish gave him Tsiqlāg that day. That is why Tsiqlāg has belonged to the sovereigns of Yahudāh to this day.

7 And the time that Dawid dwelt in the country of the Pelishtites came to be a year and four months.

8 And Dawid and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalēqites. For those nations were the inhabitants of the land from of old, as you go to Shur, even as far as the land of Mitsrayim.

9 And when Dawid had smitten the land, he left neither man nor woman alive, but took away sheep, and cattle, and donkeys, and camels, and garments, and returned and came to Aḳish.

10 And Aḳish would say, "Where have you made a raid today?" And Dawid would say, "Against the South of Yahudāh, or against the South of the Yeraḥme'ēlites, or against the South of the Qēynites."

11 Dawid did not keep alive man nor woman, to bring news to Gath, saying, "Lest they inform against us, saying, 'Thus Dawid did.'" And this was his practice all the days that he dwelt in the country of the Pelishtites.

12 And Aḳish trusted Dawid, saying, "He has indeed made himself a stench to his people in Yisra'ēl, and has become my servant forever."

28 And it came to be in those days that the Pelishtites gathered their armies for battle, to fight with Yisra'ēl. And Aḳish said to Dawid, "You know, of course, that you are to go out with me in the army, you and your men."

2 And Dawid said to Aḳish, "Very well, you shall know what your servant should do." And Aḳish said to Dawid, "Very well, I make you one of my chief guardians forever."

3 And Shemu'el had died, and all Yisra'el had mourned for him and buried him in Ramah, in his own city. And Sha'ul had put away the mediums and the spiritists from the land.

4 And the Pelishtites were gathered, and came and encamped at Shunēm. And Sha'ul gathered all Yisra'el, and they encamped at Gilboa.

5 And when Sha'ul saw the army of the Pelishtites, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.

6 And Sha'ul inquired of אִיִּדּוֹת, but אִיִּדּוֹת did not answer him, either by dreams or by Urim or by the nebi'im.

7 Sha'ul then said to his servants, "Find me a woman who is a medium, to go to her and inquire of her." And his servants said to him, "Look, there is a woman who is a medium at Ĕyn Dor."

8 And Sha'ul disguised himself and put on other garments, and went, he and two men with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Please divine for me, and bring up for me the one I shall name."

9 But the woman said to him, "Look, you know what Sha'ul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to put me to death?"

10 And Sha'ul swore to her by אִיִּדּוֹת, saying, "As אִיִּדּוֹת lives, no punishment comes upon you for this matter."

11 And the woman said, "Whom do I bring up for you?" So he said, "Bring up Shemu'el for me."

12 And when the woman saw Shemu'el, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman spoke to Sha'ul, saying, "Why have you deceived me? You yourself are Sha'ul!"

13 And the sovereign said to her, "Do not be afraid. What did you see?" And the woman said to Sha'ul, "I saw a spirit coming up out of the earth."

14 And he said to her, "What is his form?" And she said, "An old man is coming up, and he is covered with a mantle." And Sha'ul knew that it was Shemu'ël, and he bowed with his face to the ground and did obeisance.

15 And Shemu'ël said to Sha'ul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?" And Sha'ul answered, "I am deeply distressed, for the Pelishtites are fighting against me, and Elohim has turned aside from me and does not answer me any more, neither by nebi'im nor by dreams. So I have called you, to reveal to me what I should do.

16 Then Shemu'ël said, "And why do you ask me, seeing אֱלֹהִים has turned aside from you and has become your enemy?"

17 "And אֱלֹהִים has done for Himself as He spoke by me. For אֱלֹהִים has torn the reign out of your hand and given it to your neighbour, to Dawid.

18 "Because you did not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים nor execute His burning wrath upon Amalëq, therefore אֱלֹהִים has done this matter to you today.

19 "Further, אֱלֹהִים also gives Yisra'ël with you into the hand of the Pelishtites. And tomorrow you and your sons are with me. אֱלֹהִים also gives the army of Yisra'ël into the hand of the Pelishtites."

20 And immediately Sha'ul fell on the ground, his complete length, and greatly feared because of the words of Shemu'ël. And there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no food all day or all night.

21 And the woman came to Sha'ul and saw that he had been greatly disturbed, and said to him, "See, your female servant has obeyed your voice, and I have put my life in my hands and have listened to the words which you spoke to me.

22 "And now, please listen to the voice of your female servant too, and let me put a piece of bread before you. And eat, so that you have strength when you go on your way."

23 But he refused and said, "I am not going to eat." But his servants, together with the woman, urged him. And he listened to their voice. So he rose from the ground and sat on the bed.

24 And the woman had a fatted calf in the house, and she quickly slaughtered it. And she took flour and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread from it.

25 And she brought it before Sha'ul and his servants. And they ate, and rose up and went away that night.

29 And the Pelishtites gathered all their armies at Aphēq, while Yisra'ēl encamped by a fountain which is in Yizre'ēl.

2 And the princes of the Pelishtites were passing on by hundreds and by thousands, and Dawiḍ and his men were passing on in the rear with Aḳish.

3 And the princes of the Pelishtites said, "Who are these Iḅrim?" And Aḳish said to the princes of the Pelishtites, "Is this not Dawiḍ, the servant of Sha'ul sovereign of Yisra'ēl, who has been with me these days, or these years? And to this day I have found naught in him since he came over."

4 But the princes of the Pelishtites were wroth with him, and the princes of the Pelishtites said to him, "Send the man back, let him return to the place which you have appointed for him, and do not let him go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become our adversary. For with what could he appease his master, if not with the heads of these men?

5 “Is this not Dawid, of whom they sang to each other in dances, saying, ‘Sha’ul smote his thousands, and Dawid his ten thousands?’”

6 And Aqish called Dawid and said to him, “As אףאז lives, you have been straight, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my eyes. For to this day I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me. But in the eyes of the princes you are not good.

7 “And now, return, and go in peace, and do no evil in the eyes of the princes of the Pelishtites.”

8 And Dawid said to Aqish, “But what have I done? And to this day what have you found in your servant as long as I have been with you, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my master the sovereign?”

9 But Aqish answered and said to Dawid, “I know that you are as good in my eyes as a messenger of Elohim, but the princes of the Pelishtites have said, ‘Let him not go up with us to the battle.’”

10 “And now, rise early in the morning with your master’s servants who have come with you. And as soon as you are up early in the morning and have light, then go.”

11 And Dawid and his men rose up early to go in the morning, to return to the land of the Pelishtites, and the Pelishtites went up to Yizre’el.

30 And it came to be, when Dawid and his men came to Tsiqlaḡ, on the third day, that the Amalēqites had invaded the South and Tsiqlaḡ, and smote Tsiqlaḡ and burned it with fire.

2 And they took captive the women and those who were there, from small to great. They did not kill anyone, but they led them away and went their way.

3 And Dawid and his men came to the city and saw it burned with fire, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been taken captive.

4 And Dawid and the people who were with him lifted up their voices and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And Dawid's two wives, Aḥino'am the Yizre'elitess, and Aḇiḡayil the widow of Naḇal the Karmelite, had been taken captive.

6 And Dawid was greatly distressed, for the people spoke of stoning him, because the being of all the people was grieved, each for his sons and his daughters. But Dawid strengthened himself in אֱלֹהֵי אֱיָתָו his Elohim.

7 And Dawid said to Ebyathar the kohēn, son of Aḥimeleḡ, "Please bring the shoulder garment here to me." So Ebyathar brought the shoulder garment to Dawid.

8 And Dawid inquired of אֱלֹהֵי אֱיָתָו, saying, "Do I pursue this band? Do I overtake them?" And He answered him, "Pursue, for you shall certainly overtake them, and certainly rescue."

9 So Dawid went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the wadi Besor, where a halt was made by those who were left behind,

10 while Dawid pursued, he and four hundred men - for two hundred halted, who were too faint to pass over the wadi Besor.

11 And they found a man in the field, a Mitsrite, and took him to Dawid. And they gave him bread and he ate, and they let him drink water, 12 and gave him a piece of a cake of figs and two clusters of raisins. And when he had eaten, his strength came back to him, for he had not eaten bread nor drunk water for three days and three nights.

13 And Dawiḍ said to him, "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" And he said, "I am a young man from Mitsrayim, servant of an Amalēqite. And my master left me behind, for I had been sick three days.

14 "We attacked the south of the Kerēthites and against that which belongs to Yahudāh, and upon the south of Kalēb, and we burned Tsiqlāg with fire."

15 And Dawiḍ said to him, "Could you bring me down to this marauding band?" And he said, "Swear to me by Elohim that you neither kill me nor surrender me into the hands of my master, then I bring you down to this marauding band."

16 And he brought him down and saw they were spread out over all the land, eating and drinking and dancing, because of all the great spoil which they had taken from the land of the Pelishtites and from the land of Yahudāh.

17 And Dawiḍ smote them from twilight until the evening of the next day. And none of them escaped, except four hundred young men who rode on camels and fled.

18 And Dawiḍ rescued all that the Amalēqites had taken. Dawiḍ also rescued his two wives.

19 And there was none missing of them, whether small or great, whether sons or daughters, or spoil or whatever they had taken from them. Dawiḍ recovered all.

20 Besides, Dawiḍ captured all the flocks and herds they had driven before those livestock, and they said, "This is Dawiḍ's spoil."

21 And Dawid came to the two hundred men who were too faint to follow Dawid, who had also been left at the wadi Besor. And they went out to meet Dawid and to meet the people who were with him. And when Dawid came near the people, he greeted them.

22 And all the evil and worthless men of those who went with Dawid answered and said, "Because they did not go with us, we do not give them any of the spoil that we have rescued, except for every man's wife and children, and let them take them and go."

23 But Dawid said, "My brothers, do not do so with what אִי־אֵל has given us, who has protected us and gave into our hand the band that came against us.

24 "And who would listen to you in this matter? For as his portion is who goes down to the battle, so is his portion who remains with the baggage, they share alike."

25 And it came to be, from that day forward, he appointed it for a law and a right-ruling for Yisra'el to this day.

26 And when Dawid came to Tsiqlaḡ, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Yahudah, to his friends, saying, "Here is a present for you from the spoil of the enemies of אִי־אֵל,"

27 to those in Běyth Ēl, and to those in Ramoth of the South, and to those in Yattir,

28 and to those in Aro'ēr, and to those in Siphmoth, and to those in Eshtemoa,

29 and to those in Raḡal, and to those in the cities of the Yeraḥme'ēlites, and to those in the cities of the Qěynites,

30 and to those in Ḥormah, and to those in Korashan, and to those in Athaḡ,

31 and to those in Hebron, and to all the places where Dawid had gone up and down, he and his men.

31 And the Pelishtites were fighting against Yisra'ël, and the men of Yisra'ël fled from before the Pelishtites, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

2 And the Pelishtites followed hard after Sha'ul and his sons. And the Pelishtites smote Yahonathan, and Abinadab, and Malkishua, sons of Sha'ul.

3 And the battle went hard against Sha'ul, and the archers hit him, so that he was severely wounded by the archers.

4 And Sha'ul said to his armour-bearer, "Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised men come and thrust me through and roll themselves on me." But his armour-bearer would not, for he was greatly afraid. So Sha'ul took the sword and fell on it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Sha'ul was dead, he also fell on his sword, and died with him.

6 Thus Sha'ul died, and three of his sons, and his armour-bearer, also all his men, together on that day.

7 And they saw - the men of Yisra'ël who were beyond the valley, and those who were beyond the Yardën - that the men of Yisra'ël had fled and that Sha'ul and his sons were dead. So they forsook the cities and fled, and the Pelishtites came and dwelt in them.

8 And the next day it came to be, when the Pelishtites came to strip the slain, that they found Sha'ul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head and stripped off his armour, and sent word throughout the land of the Pelishtites, to announce it in the house of their idols and to the people.

10 And they placed his armour in the house of the Ashtaroth, and they fastened his body to the wall of Běyth Shan.

11 And the inhabitants of Yaběsh Gil'ad heard what the Pelishtites had done to Sha'ul, 12 and all the brave men arose and went all night, and took the body of Sha'ul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Běyth Shan. And they came to Yaběsh and burned them there.

13 And they took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Yaběsh, and fasted for seven days.

SHEMU'ĒL 2

ב שמואל ב 2

1 And it came to be after the death of Sha'ul, when Dawid had returned from smiting the Amalēqites, that Dawid remained two days in Tsiqlaḡ.

2 And it came to be on the third day, that see, a man came out of the camp from Sha'ul with his garments torn and dust on his head. And it came to be, when he came to Dawid, that he fell to the ground and did obeisance.

3 And Dawid said to him, "From where do you come?" And he said to him, "I have escaped from the camp of Yisra'el."

4 And Dawid said to him, "What was the matter? Please inform me." And he said, "The people have fled from the battle, and also many of the people have fallen and are dead, and Sha'ul and Yahunathan his son are dead too."

5 And Dawid said to the young man who informed him, "How do you know that Sha'ul and Yahunathan his son are dead?"

6 And the young man who informed him said, "By chance I was on Mount Gilboa and saw Sha'ul leaning on his spear. And see, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 "And when he looked behind him, he saw me and called to me, and I answered, 'Here I am.'

8 "And he said to me, 'Who are you?' So I answered him, 'I am an Amalēqite.'

9 "And he said to me, 'Please stand over me and put me to death, for agony has seized me, but my life is still in me.'

10 “So I stood beside him and put him to death, for I knew he would not live after he had fallen. And I took the diadem that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my master.”

11 And Dawid took hold of his own garments and tore them, and also all the men who were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept and fasted until evening for Sha'ul and for Yahanathan his son, and for the people of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and for the house of Yisra'ël, because they had fallen by the sword.

13 Then Dawid asked the young man who informed him, “Where are you from?” And he answered, “I am the son of a sojourner, an Amalëqite.”

14 And Dawid said to him, “How was it you were not afraid to stretch out your hand to destroy the anointed of אִיִּזְרָאֵל?”

15 And Dawid called one of the young men and said, “Draw near and fall on him!” And he smote him so that he died.

16 And Dawid said to him, “Your blood is on your own head, for your own mouth has witnessed against you, saying, ‘I myself have put to death the anointed of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.’”

17 Then Dawid lamented with this lamentation over Sha'ul and over Yahanathan his son,

18 and he ordered “The Bow” to be taught to the children of Yahudah. See, it is written in the Book of Yashar:

19 “The splendour of Yisra'ël
Is slain on your high places!
How the mighty have fallen!

20 “Declare it not in Gath,
Proclaim it not in the streets of Ashqelon,

Lest the daughters of the Pelishtites rejoice,
Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised exult.

21 "Mountains of Gilboa!
No dew or rain be upon you,
Nor fields of offerings.
For there the shield of the mighty lay rejected,
The shield of Sha'ul, not anointed with oil.

22 "From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Yehonatan did not turn back,
And the sword of Sha'ul did not return empty.

23 "Sha'ul and Yehonatan were beloved
And pleasant in their lives,
And in their death they were not parted.
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.

24 "Daughters of Yisra'el - weep over Sha'ul,
Who wrapped you in scarlet, with finery;
Who decked your robes with ornaments of gold.

25 "How the mighty have fallen
In the midst of the battle!
Yehonatan was slain in your high places.

26 "I am distressed for you, my brother Yehonatan.
You have been very pleasant to me.
Your love to me was wondrous,
Surpassing the love of women.

27 "How the mighty have fallen,
And the weapons of battle perish!"

2 And it came to be afterwards that Dawid inquired of אִיִּזְבֵּב, saying, "Do I go up to any of the cities of Yahudah?" And אִיִּזְבֵּב said to him, "Go up." And Dawid said, "Where should I go up?" And He said, "To Hebron."

2 And Dawid went up there, as well as his two wives, Aḥino'am the Yizre'elitess, and Aḃiḡayil the widow of Naḃal the Karmelite.

3 And Dawid brought up the men who were with him, each man with his household, and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 And the men of Yahudah came, and anointed Dawid sovereign over the house of Yahudah there. They also reported to Dawid, saying, "The men of Yaḃesh Gil'aḡ are they who buried Sha'ul."

5 Dawid then sent messengers to the men of Yaḃesh Gil'aḡ, and said to them, "You are baruḡ of אַיְיִ, for you have shown this kindness to your master, to Sha'ul, that you buried him.

6 "And now, אַיְיִ show kindness and truth to you, and I am also going to do you good, because you have done this deed.

7 "And now, let your hands be strengthened and be brave, for your master Sha'ul is dead, and also the house of Yahudah has anointed me sovereign over them."

8 But Aḃnēr son of Nēr, commander of the army of Sha'ul, took Ishbosheth the son of Sha'ul, and brought him over to Maḡanayim,

9 and appointed him to reign over Gil'aḡ, and over the Ashērites, and over Yizre'el, and over Ephrayim, and over Binyamin, and over all Yisra'el.

10 Ishbosheth, son of Sha'ul, was forty years old when he began to reign over Yisra'el, and he reigned two years. Only the house of Yahudah followed Dawid.

11 And the time that Dawid was sovereign in Hebron over the house of Yahudah was seven years and six months.

12 And Abner son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth son of Sha'ul, went out from Mahanayim to Gibeon.

13 And Yoab son of Tseruyah, and the servants of Dawid, went out and met them by the pool of Gibeon. And they sat down, one on one side of the pool and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And Abner said to Yoab, "Let the young men now rise and compete before us." And Yoab said, "Let them rise."

15 And they rose and went over by number, twelve from Benjamin, followers of Ishbosheth son of Sha'ul, and twelve from the servants of Dawid.

16 And each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword in his opponent's side, and they fell down together. So that place was called the Field of Sharp Swords, which is in Gibeon.

17 And the battle was fierce that day, and Abner and the men of Yisra'el were smitten before the servants of Dawid.

18 And there were three sons of Tseruyah there, Yoab and Abishai and Asah'el. And Asah'el was light on his feet, as one of the gazelles in the field.

19 And Asah'el pursued Abner, and in going he did not turn aside to the right or to the left from following Abner.

20 And Abner looked behind him and said, "Are you Asah'el?" And he answered, "I am."

21 And Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and lay hold on one of the young men and take his armour for yourself." But Asah'el would not turn aside from following him.

22 And Abner again said to Asah'el, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I smite you to the ground? How then could I face your brother Yoab?"

23 But he refused to turn aside, and Aḅnĕr smote him with the blunt end of the spear in the stomach, so that the spear came out of his back. And he fell down there and died on the spot. And it came to be that as many as came to the place where Asah'ĕl fell down and died, stood still.

24 And Yo'aḅ and Aḅishai pursued Aḅnĕr. And the sun was going down and they came to the hill of Ammah, which overlooks Giyah by the way to the Wilderness of Giḅ'on.

25 And the children of Binyamin gathered together behind Aḅnĕr and became a single company, and took their stand on top of a hill.

26 And Aḅnĕr called to Yo'aḅ and said, "Should the sword devour forever? Do you not know that it is bitter in the latter end? And when are you going to say to the people to turn back from pursuing their brothers?"

27 And Yo'aḅ said, "As Elohim lives, if you had not spoken, then all the people would have given up pursuing their brothers only the next morning."

28 Yo'aḅ then blew a ram's horn, and all the people halted and pursued Yisra'ĕl no further, nor did they fight any more.

29 And Aḅnĕr and his men went on all that night through the desert plain, and passed over the Yardĕn, and went through all Bithron. And they came to Maḅanayim.

30 And Yo'aḅ turned back from pursuing Aḅnĕr. And when he had gathered all the people together, there were missing of Dawiḍ's servants nineteen men and Asah'ĕl.

31 But the servants of Dawiḍ had smitten, of Binyamin and Aḅnĕr's men, three hundred and sixty men who died.

32 And they brought Asah'el and buried him in his father's tomb, which was in Bēyth Lehem. And Yo'ab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at daybreak.

3 And the fighting between the house of Sha'ul and the house of Dawid was long drawn out. And Dawid continued to strengthen, but the house of Sha'ul continued to weaken. But he refused to turn aside,

2 And sons were born to Dawid in Hebron. And his first-born was Amnon by Aḥino'am the Yizre'elitess;

3 and his second, Kil'ab, by Aḥigayil the widow of Naḥal the Karmelite; and the third, Aḥshalom son of Ma'aḥah, the daughter of Talmai, sovereign of Geshur;

4 and the fourth, Aḍoniyah son of Ḥaggith; and the fifth, Shephatyah son of Aḥital;

5 and the sixth, Yithre'am, by Dawid's wife Eḡlah. These were born to Dawid in Hebron.

6 And it came to be, while there was fighting between the house of Sha'ul and the house of Dawid, that Aḥnēr was strengthening himself in the house of Sha'ul.

7 And Sha'ul had a concubine, whose name was Ritspah, daughter of Ayah. And Ishbosheth said to Aḥnēr, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?"

8 And Aḥnēr was very displeased at the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Yahuḍah, that I show kindness to the house of Sha'ul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends today, and have not let you fall into the hand of Dawid, that you charge me today with a wickedness concerning this woman?"

9 “Elohim does so to Aḅnēr, and more also, if I do not do for Dawiḍ as אִי־אִי־אִי has sworn to him:

10 to cause the reign to pass over from the house of Sha'ul, and to raise up the throne of Dawiḍ over Yisra'ēl and over Yahudāh, from Dan to Be'ērsheḅa.”

11 And he was unable to answer Aḅnēr another word, because he feared him.

12 And Aḅnēr sent messengers on his behalf to Dawiḍ, saying, “Whose is the land?” saying also, “Make your covenant with me, and see, my hand is with you to bring all Yisra'ēl to you.”

13 And Dawiḍ said, “Good, I make a covenant with you. Only one matter I am asking of you: you do not see my face unless you first bring Miḳal, daughter of Sha'ul, when you come to see my face.”

14 Dawiḍ then sent messengers to Ishbosheth son of Sha'ul, saying, “Give me my wife Miḳal, to whom I became engaged for a hundred foreskins of the Pelishtites.”

15 And Ishbosheth sent and took her from her husband, from Palti'ēl son of Layish.

16 But her husband went with her to Baḥurim, going on and weeping behind her. And Aḅnēr said to him, “Go, turn back!” And he turned back.

17 And Aḅnēr had a word with the elders of Yisra'ēl, saying, “In time past you were seeking for Dawiḍ to be sovereign over you.

18 “And now, do it! For אִי־אִי־אִי has spoken of Dawiḍ, saying, ‘By the hand of My servant Dawiḍ, I save My people Yisra'ēl from the hand of the Pelishtites and the hand of all their enemies.’ ”

19 And Aḅnēr also spoke in the hearing of Binyamin. And Aḅnēr also went to speak in the hearing of Dawiḍ in Hebron all that seemed good to Yisra'ēl and all the house of Binyamin.

20 And Aḅnĕr and twenty men with him came to Dawiḍ at Ḥeḅron. And Dawiḍ made a feast for Aḅnĕr and the men who were with him.

21 And Aḅnĕr said to Dawiḍ, "Let me arise and go, and gather all Yisra'ĕl to my master the sovereign, and let them make a covenant with you, and you shall reign over all that your being desires." And Dawiḍ sent Aḅnĕr away, and he went in peace.

22 And see, the servants of Dawiḍ and Yo'aḅ came from a raid and brought much spoil with them. But Aḅnĕr was not with Dawiḍ in Ḥeḅron, for he had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

23 And Yo'aḅ and all the army that was with him came, and they reported to Yo'aḅ, saying, "Aḅnĕr son of Nĕr came to the sovereign, and he sent him away, and he has gone in peace."

24 And Yo'aḅ went to the sovereign and said, "What have you done? See, Aḅnĕr has come to you! Why is it that you sent him away, and he has already gone?"

25 "You know that Aḅnĕr son of Nĕr came to deceive you, to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you are doing."

26 Yo'aḅ then left Dawiḍ, and he sent messengers after Aḅnĕr, who brought him back from the well of Sirah. But Dawiḍ did not know it.

27 Thus Aḅnĕr returned to Ḥeḅron, and Yo'aḅ took him aside in the gate to speak with him privately, and there struck him in the stomach, so that he died for the blood of Asah'ĕl his brother.

28 And when Dawiḍ heard it afterwards, he said, "My reign and I are guiltless before אֱלֹהִים forever of the blood of Aḅnĕr son of Nĕr.

29 "Let it rest on the head of Yo'aḅ and on all his father's house. And let there never fail to be in the house of Yo'aḅ one who has a discharge or is a leper, who leans on a staff or falls by the sword, or who lacks bread.”

30 So Yo'ab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had killed their brother Asah'el at Gibeon in the battle.

31 And David said to Yo'ab and to all the people who were with him, “Tear your garments, gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn for Abner.” And Sovereign David followed the coffin.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron. And the sovereign lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner, and all the people wept.

33 And the sovereign sang a lament over Abner and said, “Should Abner die as a fool dies?

34 “Your hands were not bound nor your feet put into shackles. As one falls before sons of evil, so you fell.” And all the people wept over him again.

35 And all the people came to cause David to eat food while it was still day, but David swore, saying, “Elohim do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread or whatever else till the sun goes down!”

36 And all the people took note of it, and it was good in their eyes, since whatever the sovereign did was good in the eyes of all the people.

37 And all the people and all Yisra'el knew that day that it had not been the sovereign's intent to kill Abner son of Ner.

38 The sovereign also said to his servants, “Do you not know that a prince and a great one has fallen in Yisra'el today?

39 “And I am weak today, though anointed sovereign. And these men, the sons of Tseruyah, are too harsh for me. Let אף־אף repay the evil-doer according to his evil.”

4 And the son of Sha'ul heard that Abnēr had died in Hebron, and he lost heart, and all Yisra'el was troubled.

2 And the son of Sha'ul had two men, commanders of bands, and the name of one was Ba'anah and the name of the other Rēkab, sons of Rimmon the Be'erothite, of the children of Binyamin. For Be'eroth was also reckoned to Binyamin,

3 because the Be'erothites fled to Gittayim and have been sojourners there until this day.

4 Now Yahonathan, son of Sha'ul, had a son who was lame in his feet. He was five years old when the news about Sha'ul and Yahonathan came from Yizre'el, and his nurse took him up and fled. And it came to be, as she hurried to flee, that he fell and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.

5 So the sons of Rimmon the Be'erothite, Rēkab and Ba'anah, went and came at about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, who was lying on his bed at noon.

6 And they came into the midst of the house, to fetch wheat, and they struck him in the stomach, and Rēkab and Ba'anah his brother escaped.

7 Thus they came into the house when he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him. And they took his head, and went the way of the desert plain all night,

8 and brought the head of Ishbosheth to Dawid at Hebron, and said to the sovereign, "See, the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Sha'ul your enemy, who sought your life. So אִתָּנִי has given my master the sovereign vengeance on Sha'ul and his seed this day."

9 And Dawiḍ answered Rēkab and Ba'anah his brother, sons of Rimmon the Be'erothite, and said to them, "As אִי־אִי lives, who has redeemed my life out of all distress,

10 when someone reported to me, saying, 'See, Sha'ul is dead,' and he was a bearer of good news in his own eyes, I then took hold of him and slew him in Tsiqlaḡ, which was the reward I gave him for his news.

11 "How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous man in his own house on his bed, should I not now require his blood at your hand and remove you from the earth?"

12 And Dawiḍ commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and feet, and hanged them by the pool in Hebron. And they took the head of Ishbosheth and buried it in the tomb of Abnēr in Hebron.

5 And all the tribes of Yisra'el came to Dawiḍ at Hebron and spoke, saying, "Look, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 "Formerly, when Sha'ul was sovereign over us, you were the one who led Yisra'el out and brought them in. And אִי־אִי said to you, 'Shepherd My people Yisra'el, and be ruler over Yisra'el.' "

3 And all the elders of Yisra'el came to the sovereign at Hebron, and Sovereign Dawiḍ made a covenant with them at Hebron before אִי־אִי. And they anointed Dawiḍ sovereign over Yisra'el.

4 Dawiḍ was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Yahudaḥ seven years and six months, and in Yerushalayim he reigned thirty-three years over all Yisra'el and Yahudaḥ.

6 And the sovereign and his men went to Yerushalayim against the Yebusites, the inhabitants of the land. And they spoke to Dawid, saying, "Except you take away the blind and the lame, you are not going to come in here," thinking, "Dawid is not going to come in here."

7 But Dawid captured the stronghold of Tsiyon, the City of Dawid.

8 And Dawid said on that day, "Anyone who reaches the water-shaft, let him smite the Yebusites and the lame and the blind, who are hated by Dawid's being." That is why they say, "The blind and the lame do not come into the house."

9 And Dawid dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the City of Dawid. And Dawid built all around from ha'Millo and inward.

10 And Dawid went on and became great, and אֱלֹהִים Elohim of hosts was with him.

11 Now Hiram sovereign of Tsor sent messengers to Dawid, and cedar trees, and carpenters and masons. And they built a house for Dawid.

12 And Dawid knew that אֱלֹהִים had established him as sovereign over Yisra'el, and that He had exalted His reign, because of His people Yisra'el.

13 And Dawid took more concubines and wives from Yerushalayim, after he had come from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to Dawid.

14 And these were the names of those born to him in Yerushalayim: Shammua, and Shoḇaḇ, and Nathan, and Shelomoh,

15 and Yibḥar, and Elishua, Nepheg, and Yaphiya,

16 and Elishama, and Elyada, and Eliphelet.

17 And the Pelishtites heard that they had anointed Dawid sovereign over Yisra'el, and all the Pelishtites went up to search for Dawid, but Dawid heard and went down to the stronghold.

18 And the Pelishtites came and spread themselves out in the Valley of Repha'im.

19 And Dawid inquired of אֱלֹהִים, saying, "Do I go up against the Pelishtites? Do You give them into my hand?" And אֱלֹהִים said to Dawid, "Go up, for I shall certainly give the Pelishtites into your hand."

20 And Dawid came to Ba'al Peratsim, and Dawid smote them there. And he said, "אֱלֹהִים has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." So he called the name of that place Ba'al Peratsim.

21 And they left their images there, and Dawid and his men took them away.

22 And the Pelishtites again came up and were spread out in the Valley of Repha'im.

23 And when Dawid inquired of אֱלֹהִים, He said, "Do not go up, turn around behind them, and you shall come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

24 "And it shall be, when you hear the sound of stepping in the tops of the mulberry trees, then act promptly, for then אֱלֹהִים shall go out before you to smite the camp of the Pelishtites."

25 And Dawid did so, as אֱלֹהִים commanded him, and smote the Pelishtites from Geḇa as far as Gezer.

6 Now Dawid again gathered all the chosen men of Yisra'el, thirty thousand.

2 And Dawid rose up and went with all the people who were with him from Ba'alē Yahudāh, to bring up from there the ark of Elohim, that is called by the Name, the Name אֱלֹהִים of Hosts, who dwells between the keruḇim.

3 And they placed the ark of Elohim on a new wagon, and brought it from the house of Aḅinadab, which was on the hill. And Uzzah and Aḅyo, sons of Aḅinadab, were leading the new wagon.

4 And they brought it from the house of Aḅinadab, which was on the hill, with the ark of Elohim. And Aḅyo was walking before the ark.

5 And Dawid and all the house of Yisra'el were dancing before אֲפֻצָּה, with all fir wood instruments, and with lyres, and with harps, and with tambourines, and with sistrums, and with cymbals.

6 And when they came to the threshing-floor of Naḅon, Uzzah reached out toward the ark of Elohim and took hold of it, for the oxen stumbled.

7 And the wrath of אֲפֻצָּה burned against Uzzah, and Elohim smote him there for the fault. And he died there by the ark of Elohim.

8 And Dawid was displeased because אֲפֻצָּה had broken out against Uzzah. And he called the name of the place Perets Uzzah, until this day.

9 And Dawid was afraid of אֲפֻצָּה on that day, and said, "How shall the ark of אֲפֻצָּה come to me?"

10 And Dawid would not move the ark of אֲפֻצָּה with him into the City of Dawid, but Dawid turned it aside to the house of Obēd-Edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of אֲפֻצָּה remained in the house of Obēd-Edom the Gittite three months, and אֲפֻצָּה barak Obēd-Edom and all his house.

12 And it was reported to Sovereign Dawid, saying, "אֲפֻצָּה has barak the house of Obēd-Edom and all that he has, because of the ark of Elohim." Dawid then went and brought up the ark of Elohim from the house of Obēd-Edom to the City of Dawid with rejoicing.

13 And it came to be, when those bearing the ark of אֲרָכָה had gone six steps, that he slaughtered bulls and fatlings.

14 And Dawid danced before אֲרָכָה with all his might. And Dawid was wearing a linen shoulder garment.

15 Thus Dawid and all the house of Yisra'el brought up the ark of אֲרָכָה with shouting and with the sound of the ram's horn.

16 And it came to be, when the ark of אֲרָכָה came into the City of Dawid, that Miḳal, daughter of Sha'ul, looked through a window and saw Sovereign Dawid leaping and dancing before אֲרָכָה, and she despised him in her heart.

17 So they brought the ark of אֲרָכָה in, and put it in its place in the midst of the Tent that Dawid had pitched for it. And Dawid brought burnt offerings before אֲרָכָה, and peace offerings.

18 And when Dawid had finished bringing burnt offerings and peace offerings, he barak the people in the Name of אֲרָכָה of hosts.

19 And he apportioned to all the people, to all the crowd of Yisra'el, from man even to women, to each one a loaf of bread, and a measure, and a cake of raisins. And all the people left, each one to his house.

20 And Dawid returned to barak his household, and Miḳal the daughter of Sha'ul came out to meet Dawid, and said, "How esteemed was the sovereign of Yisra'el today, uncovering himself today in the eyes of the female servants of his servants, as one of the foolish ones shamelessly uncovers himself!"

21 So Dawid said to Miḳal, "Before אֲרָכָה, who chose me instead of your father and all his house, commanding me to be ruler over the people of אֲרָכָה, over Yisra'el, so I danced before אֲרָכָה.

22 “And I shall be even more slight than this, and shall be humble in my own eyes. But as for the female servants of whom you have spoken, by them I am esteemed.”

23 And Miḱal the daughter of Sha’ul had no children to the day of her death.

7 And it came to be when the sovereign was dwelling in his house, and אֱלֹהִים had given him rest from all his enemies all around,

2 that the sovereign said to Nathan the nabi, “See now, I am dwelling in a house of cedar, but the ark of Elohim dwells within curtains.”

3 And Nathan said to the sovereign, “Go, do all that is in your heart, for אֱלֹהִים is with you.”

4 And it came to be that night that the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Nathan, saying,

5 “Go and say to My servant Dawid, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Would you build a house for Me to dwell in?’

6 “For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought the children of Yisra’ël up from Mitsrayim, even to this day, but have moved about in a Tent and in a Dwelling Place.

7 “Wherever I have walked with all the children of Yisra’ël, have I ever spoken a word to anyone from the tribes of Yisra’ël, whom I commanded to shepherd My people Yisra’ël, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ” ’

8 “And now, say to My servant Dawid, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, “I took you from the pasture, from following the flock, to be ruler over My people, over Yisra’ël.

9 “And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a great name, like the name of the great ones who are on the earth.

10 “And I shall appoint a place for My people Yisra’ēl, and shall plant them, and they shall dwell in a place of their own and no longer be afraid, neither shall the children of wickedness oppress them again, as at the first,

11 even from the day I appointed rulers over My people Yisra’ēl, and have caused you to rest from all your enemies. And אֱלֹהִים has declared to you that אֱלֹהִים would make you a house.

12 “When your days are filled and you rest with your fathers, I shall raise up your seed after you, who comes from your inward parts, and shall establish his reign.

13 “He builds a house for My Name, and I shall establish the throne of his reign forever.

14 “I am to be his Father, and he is My son. If he does perversely, I shall reprove him with the rod of men and with the blows of the sons of men.

15 “But My kindness does not turn aside from him, as I turned it aside from Sha’ul, whom I removed from before you.

16 “And your house and your reign are to be steadfast forever before you - your throne is established forever.” ’ ’ ”

17 According to all these words and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to Dawid.

18 And Sovereign Dawid went in and sat before אֱלֹהִים and he said, “Who am I, O Adonai אֱלֹהִים? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?

19 “And yet this was a small matter in Your eyes, O Adonai אֱלֹהִים. And You have also spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come. And is this the teaching of man, O Adonai אֱלֹהִים?

20 “And what more does Dawid say to You? For You, Adonai אֲדֹנָי, know Your servant.

21 “Because of Your word, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, to make it known to Your servant.

22 “You are great indeed, O Adonai אֲדֹנָי. For there is none like You, and there is no Elohim but You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 “And who is like Your people, like Yisra’el, the one nation on the earth whom Elohim went to redeem for Himself as a people, to make for Himself a Name, and to do for You greatness, and awesome deeds for Your land before Your people, whom You redeemed for Yourself from Mitsrayim, from the nations and their mighty ones?

24 “And You have established for Yourself Your people Yisra’el as Your own people forever, and You, אֲדֹנָי, have become their Elohim.

25 “And now, O אֲדֹנָי Elohim, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, establish it forever and do as You have said.

26 “And let Your Name be made great forever, saying, ‘אֲדֹנָי of hosts is the Elohim over Yisra’el.’ And let the house of Your servant Dawid be established before You.

27 “For You, O אֲדֹנָי of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, have revealed this to Your servant, saying, ‘I build you a house.’ Therefore Your servant has taken heart to pray this prayer to You.

28 “And now, O Adonai אֲדֹנָי, You are Elohim, and Your words are true, and You have spoken this goodness to Your servant.

29 “And now, be pleased to barak the house of Your servant, to be before You, forever. For You, O Adonai

אִתְּךָ, have spoken it, and with Your beraḳah let the house of Your servant be baruḳ forever.”

8 And after this it came to be that Dawiḍ smote the Pelishtites and humbled them. And Dawiḍ took the bridle of the mother city out of the hand of the Pelishtites.

2 He also smote Mo'ab, and measured them off with a line, causing them to lie down on the earth. With two lines he measured off those to be put to death, and with one complete line those to be kept alive. And the Mo'abites became Dawiḍ's servants, and brought presents.

3 Dawiḍ also smote Haḏaḏezer son of Reḥob, sovereign of Tsoḅah, as he went to restore his rule at the River Perath.

4 And Dawiḍ captured from him one thousand and seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. And Dawiḍ destroyed all the chariots, but he left of them a hundred chariots.

5 And the Arameans of Dammeseq came to help Haḏaḏezer sovereign of Tsoḅah, and Dawiḍ smote twenty-two thousand of the Arameans.

6 Then Dawiḍ put watch-posts in Aram of Dammeseq. And the Arameans became Dawiḍ's servants, and brought presents. And אִתְּךָ saved Dawiḍ wherever he went.

7 And Dawiḍ took the shields of gold which were on the servants of Haḏaḏezer, and brought them to Yerushalayim.

8 And from Betaḥ and from Běrothai, cities of Haḏaḏezer, Sovereign Dawiḍ took very much bronze.

9 And To'i sovereign of Ḥamath heard that Dawiḍ had smitten all the army of Haḏaḏezer,

10 so To'i sent Yoram his son to Sovereign Dawid, to ask peace of him and barak him, because he had fought against Haḡadezer and smote him, for Haḡadezer had battles with To'i. And brought with him objects of silver, and objects of gold, and objects of bronze.

11 Sovereign Dawid also qadosh these to אֱלֹהֵי, along with the silver and gold that he had qadosh from all the nations which he had humbled:

12 from Aram, and from Mo'ab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Pelishtites, and from Amalēq, and from the spoil of Haḡadezer son of Reḡob, sovereign of Tsoḡah.

13 And Dawid made a name when he returned from smiting eighteen thousand Arameans in the Valley of Salt.

14 And he put watch-posts in Edom. Throughout all Edom he put watch-posts, and all the Edomites became Dawid's servants. And אֱלֹהֵי saved Dawid wherever he went.

15 And Dawid reigned over all Yisra'el, and Dawid was doing right-ruling and righteousness to all his people.

16 And Yo'ab son of Tseruyah was over the army, and Yahoshaphat son of Aḡiluḡ was recorder,

17 and Tsadoq son of Aḡitub and Aḡimeleḡ son of Ebyathar were the kohenim, and Serayah was the scribe,

18 and Benayahu son of Yahoyaḡa was over both the Kerēthites and the Pelēthites, and Dawid's sons were kohenim.

9 And Dawid said, "Is there still anyone who is left of the house of Sha'ul, that I might show him kindness, because of Yahonathan?"

2 And the house of Sha'ul had a servant whose name was Tsiḅa. And they had called him to Dawiḍ, and the sovereign said to him, "Are you Tsiḅa?" And he said, "Your servant!"

3 And the sovereign said, "Is there not still someone of the house of Sha'ul, so that I show him the kindness of Elohim?" And Tsiḅa said to the sovereign, "There is still a son of Yahunathan, lame in his feet."

4 So the sovereign said to him, "Where is he?" And Tsiḅa said to the sovereign, "See, he is in the house of Maḳir son of Ammi'ēl, in Lo Ḍeḅar."

5 And Sovereign Dawiḍ sent and brought him out of the house of Maḳir son of Ammi'ēl, from Lo Ḍeḅar.

6 And Mephiḅosheth son of Yahunathan, son of Sha'ul, came to Dawiḍ, and fell on his face and did obeisance. And Dawiḍ said, "Mephiḅosheth!" And he answered, "Here is your servant!"

7 Dawiḍ then said to him, "Do not fear, for I shall certainly show you kindness because of Yahunathan your father, and shall return to you all the land of Sha'ul your grandfather, and let you eat bread at my table continually."

8 And he bowed himself and said, "What is your servant, that you should turn to such a dead dog as I?"

9 And the sovereign called Tsiḅa servant of Sha'ul, and said to him, "I have given to your master's son all that belonged to Sha'ul and to all his house.

10 "And you and your sons and your servants, shall work the land for him, and you shall bring, and your master's son shall have food to eat. But let Mephiḅosheth your master's son eat bread at my table always." And Tsiḅa had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 And Tsiḅa said to the sovereign, "According to all that my master the sovereign has commanded his servant, so your servant does." "As for Mephiḅosheth, he shall eat at my table as one of the sons of the sovereign."

12 And Mephiḅosheth had a young son whose name was Miḱa. And all who dwelt in the house of Tsiḅa were servants of Mephiḅosheth.

13 And Mephiḅosheth was dwelling in Yerushalayim, for he ate continually at the sovereign's table. And he was lame in both his feet.

10 And after this it came to be that the sovereign of the children of Ammon died, and Ḥanun his son reigned in his place.

2 And Dawid said, "Let me show kindness to Ḥanun son of Naḥash, as his father showed kindness to me." So Dawid sent by the hand of his servants to comfort him concerning his father. And when Dawid's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon,
3 the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Ḥanun their master, "Is Dawid esteeming your father in your eyes in that he has sent comforters to you? Has Dawid not rather sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?"

4 So Ḥanun took Dawid's servants and shaved off half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, as far as their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 And they informed Dawid, and he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the sovereign said, "Wait at Yeriḥo until your beards have grown, and then return."

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had become a stench to Dawid, the children of Ammon sent and hired Arameans of Bēyth Reḥoḅ and Arameans of Tsoḅa, twenty thousand foot soldiers, and the sovereign of Ma'aḱah, one thousand men, and men of Toḅ, twelve thousand men.

7 And Dawiḍ heard, and sent Yo'aḅ and the entire army, the mighty men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array at the entrance of the gate. And the Arameans of Tsoḅa, and Reḥoḅ, and men of Toḅ, and Ma'aḱah were by themselves in the field.

9 And Yo'aḅ saw that the battle line was against him before and behind, and he chose out of all the chosen men of Yisra'ēl and put them in battle array against the Arameans.

10 And the rest of the people he gave under the hand of Aḅishai his brother, and he put them in battle array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you shall help me. But if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I shall come and help you.

12 "Be strong, and let us show strength for our people and for the cities of our Elohim, and let אִי־אֵל do what is good in His eyes."

13 And Yo'aḅ drew near, and the people with him, to battle against Aram, and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they also fled before Aḅishai, and went into the city. And Yo'aḅ returned from the children of Ammon and came to Yerushalayim.

15 And Aram saw that they were smitten before Yisra'ēl, and they gathered together,

16 and Haḡaḡezer sent and brought out the Arameans who were beyond the River, and they came to Ḥēlam. And Shoḅaḱ the commander of the army of Haḡaḡezer went before them.

17 And it was reported to Dawid, and he gathered all Yisra'el, and passed over the Yarden, and came to Hēlam. And Aram put themselves in battle array against Dawid and they fought with him.

18 And Aram fled before Yisra'el, and Dawid slew seven hundred charioteers and forty thousand horsemen of Aram, and he smote Shobak, commander of their army, who died there.

19 And all the sovereigns, the servants of Hadadezer, saw that they were smitten by Yisra'el, and made peace with Yisra'el, and served them. And the Arameans were afraid to help the children of Ammon any more.

11 And it came to be at the turn of the year, at the time sovereigns go out, that Dawid sent Yo'ab and his servants with him, and all Yisra'el, and they destroyed the children of Ammon and besieged Rabbah. But Dawid remained at Yerushalayim.

2 And it came to be, at evening time, that Dawid rose up from his bed and walked about on the roof of the sovereign's house. And from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very good to look at.

3 And Dawid sent and asked about the woman, and one said, "Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliyam, the wife of Uriyah the Hittite?"

4 And Dawid sent messengers, to fetch her. And she came to him, and he lay with her - for she was cleansing herself from her uncleanness - and she returned to her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and informed Dawid, and said, "I am pregnant."

6 Then Dawid sent to Yo'ab, "Send Uriyah the Hittite to me." And Yo'ab sent Uriyah to Dawid.

7 And Uriyah came to him, and Dawiḍ asked how Yo'ab was doing, and how the people were doing, and how the fighting was going.

8 And Dawiḍ said to Uriyah, "Go down to your house and wash your feet." And Uriyah went out from the sovereign's house, and a gift from the sovereign followed him.

9 But Uriyah lay down at the door of the sovereign's house with all the servants of his master, and did not go down to his house.

10 And they informed Dawiḍ, saying, "Uriyah did not go down to his house," So Dawiḍ said to Uriyah, "Did you not come from a journey? Why did you not go down to your house?"

11 And Uriyah said to Dawiḍ, "The ark and Yisra'el and Yahudah are dwelling in booths, and my master Yo'ab and the servants of my master are encamped in the open fields. And I, should I go to my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your being lives, let me not do this."

12 And Dawiḍ said to Uriyah, "Remain here today also, and tomorrow I let you go." So Uriyah remained in Yerushalayim, that day and the next.

13 And Dawiḍ called him, and he ate and drank before him, and he made him drunk. And at evening he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his master, but he did not go down to his house.

14 And it came to be in the morning that Dawiḍ wrote a letter to Yo'ab and sent it by the hand of Uriyah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, "Put Uriyah in the front of the heaviest battle, and you shall turn away from him, and he shall be smitten and shall die."

16 And it came to be, as Yo'ab watched the city, that he appointed Uriyah to the place where he knew there were brave men.

17 And the men of the city came out and fought with Yo'ab. And some of the people of the servants of Dawid fell. And Uriyah the Hittite also died.

18 And Yo'ab sent and reported to Dawid all the events of the battle,

19 and commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have finished reporting all the events of the battle to the sovereign,

20 then it shall be, if the sovereign's wrath rises and he says to you, 'Why did you go so near to the city when you fought? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?

21 'Who smote Abimelek the son of Yerubbesheth? Was it not a woman who threw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thēbēts? Why did you go near the wall?' Then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriyah the Hittite is also dead.' "

22 And the messenger went, and came and reported to Dawid all with which Yo'ab had sent him.

23 And the messenger said to Dawid, "The men have been mighty against us and came out to us in the field, but we drove them back as far as the entrance of the gate.

24 "And the archers shot from the wall at your servants. And some of the sovereign's servants are dead, and your servant Uriyah the Hittite is also dead."

25 And Dawid said to the messenger, "Say to Yo'ab, 'Do not let this matter be evil in your eyes, for the sword devours one as well as another. Strengthen your attack against the city, and overthrow it.' And encourage him."

26 And the wife of Uriyah heard that Uriyah her husband was dead, and she lamented for her husband.

27 And when her mourning was over, Dawiḍ sent and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the deed that Dawiḍ had done was evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים.

12 Then אֱלֹהִים sent Nathan to Dawiḍ. And he came to him, and said to him, “There were two men in one city, one rich and the other poor.

2 “The rich one had flocks and herds, very many.

3 “But the poor one had only one little ewe lamb which he had bought and kept alive. And it grew up with him and with his children together. It ate of his own food and drank from his own cup and lay in his bosom. And it was like a daughter to him.

4 “And a traveller came to the rich man, who refused to take from his own flock and from his own herd to prepare one for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but he took the poor man’s lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him.”

5 And the wrath of Dawiḍ burned greatly against the man, and he said to Nathan, “As אֱלֹהִים lives, the man who has done this is a son of death!

6 “Also, he has to repay fourfold for the lamb, because he did this deed and because he had no compassion.”

7 Then Nathan said to Dawiḍ, “You are the man! Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’ēl, ‘I anointed you sovereign over Yisra’ēl, and I delivered you from the hand of Sha’ul.

8 ‘And I gave you your master’s house and your master’s wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Yisra’ēl and Yahudāh. And if that were not enough, I also would have given you much more!

9 ‘Why have you despised the Word of אֱלֹהִים to do evil in His eyes? You have killed Uriyah the Hittite with the sword, and his wife you took to be your wife, and you have killed him with the sword of the children of Ammon.

10 'And now, the sword does not turn aside from your house, because you have despised Me, and have taken the wife of Uriyah the Hittite to be your wife.'

11 "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'See, I am raising up evil against you, from your own house, and shall take your wives before your eyes and give them to your neighbour, and he shall lie with your wives in the sight of this sun.

12 'For you did it in secret, but I shall do this deed before all Yisra'ël, and before the sun.' "

13 And Dawid said to Nathan, "I have sinned against אֱלֹהִים." And Nathan said to Dawid, "Also, אֱלֹהִים has put away your sin, you shall not die.

14 "However, because by this deed you have greatly scorned אֱלֹהִים the child also who is born to you shall certainly die."

15 And Nathan went to his house, and אֱלֹהִים afflicted the child that Uriyah's wife had born to Dawid, and he was sick.

16 And Dawid sought Elohim for the child, and Dawid fasted and went in and spent all night lying on the ground.

17 So the elders of his house stood up over him, to raise him up from the earth. But he would not, nor did he eat food with them.

18 And on the seventh day it came to be that the child died. And the servants of Dawid were afraid to inform him that the child was dead, for they said, "Look, while the child was still alive, we spoke to him, and he would not listen to our voice. And how do we say to him that the child is dead? He may act terribly!"

19 And Dawid saw that his servants were whispering, and Dawid perceived that the child was dead. Then

Dawid said to his servants, "Is the child dead?" And they said, "He is dead."

20 Dawid then rose up from the ground, and washed and anointed himself, and changed his garments. And he went into the House of אֱלֹהִים and bowed himself, then came to his own house, and asked, and they put food before him, so he ate.

21 And his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept because of the living child, but when the child died, you rose up and ate food."

22 And he said, "While the child was alive I fasted and wept, for I said, 'Who knows whether אֱלֹהִים shows favour unto me, and the child shall live?'

23 "But now he is dead, why should I fast? Am I able to bring him back again? I am going to him, but he does not return to me."

24 And Dawid comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her. So she bore a son, and he called his name Shelomoh. And אֱלֹהִים loved him,

25 and sent by the hand of Nathan the nabi, and called his name Yedideyah, because of אֱלֹהִים.

26 And Yo'ab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and captured the royal city.

27 And Yo'ab sent messengers to Dawid, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah, and I have captured the city's water supply.

28 "And now, gather the rest of the people together and encamp against the city and capture it, lest I capture the city and it be called after my name."

29 And Dawid gathered all the people and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and captured it.

30 And he took their sovereign's crown from his head. And its weight was a kikar of gold, with precious stones, and it was on Dawid's head. And he brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

31 And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to the saw and to sharp instruments of iron and to axes of iron, and made them pass over to the brick works. And so he did with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And Dawid and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

13 And after this it came to be that Abshalom son of Dawid had a lovely sister, whose name was Tamar, and Amnon son of Dawid loved her.

2 And Amnon was distressed, even to become sick, because of his sister Tamar - for she was a maiden - and it was hard in the eyes of Amnon to do whatever to her.

3 And Amnon had a friend whose name was Yonadab son of Shim'ah, Dawid's brother. Now Yonadab was a very cunning man.

4 And he said to him, "Why are you, the sovereign's son, becoming thinner day after day? Explain it to me." And Amnon said to him, "I love Tamar, my brother Abshalom's sister."

5 And Yonadab said to him, "Lie down on your bed and pretend to be sick. And when your father comes to see you, say to him, 'Please let my sister Tamar come and give me food, and make the food before my eyes so that I see it, and eat it from her hand.' "

6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be sick. And when the sovereign came to see him, Amnon said to the sovereign, "Please let Tamar my sister come and make a couple of cakes for me before my eyes, so that I eat from her hand."

7 And Dawid sent to Tamar, to the house, saying, "Please go to the house of your brother Amnon, and make food for him."

8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house, while he was lying down. And she took dough and kneaded it, and made cakes before his eyes, and baked the cakes.

9 And she took the pan and turned them out before him, but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, "Make everyone go away from me." And they all went out from him.

10 And Amnon said to Tamar, "Bring the food into the bedroom, that I eat from your hand." And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them to Amnon her brother in the bedroom.

11 And she brought them to him to eat, and he took hold of her and said to her, "Come, lie with me, my sister."

12 And she answered him, "No, my brother, do not humble me, for it is not done so in Yisra'el. Do not do this wickedness!

13 "And I, where could I take my shame? And you - you would be like one of the fools in Yisra'el. And now, please speak to the sovereign, for he would not withhold me from you."

14 But he would not listen to her voice, and being stronger than she, he humbled her and lay with her.

15 Amnon then exceedingly hated her, so that the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, "Arise, go!"

16 And she said to him, "No, for this evil of sending me away is worse than the other you have done to me." But he would not listen to her.

17 And he called his young man serving him, and said, "Now put this one out, away from me, and bolt the door behind her."

18 And she had on a long coat, for the sovereign's maiden daughters wore such garments. And his servant put her out and bolted the door behind her.

19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her long coat that was on her, and put her hand on her head and went away crying bitterly.

20 And Abshalom her brother said to her, "Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now, keep silent, my sister. He is your brother, do not take this matter to heart." So Tamar remained in the house of her brother Abshalom, but was ruined.

21 And Sovereign Dawid heard all these reports, and he was very wroth.

22 And Abshalom spoke to his brother Amnon neither good nor evil. For Abshalom hated Amnon, because he had humbled his sister Tamar.

23 And it came to be, after two years, that Abshalom had sheep-shearers in Ba'al Hatzor, which is beside Ephrayim, and Abshalom invited all the sons of the sovereign.

24 And Abshalom came to the sovereign and said, "See, your servant has sheep-shearers. Please, let the sovereign and his servants go with your servant."

25 But the sovereign said to Abshalom, "No, my son, let us not all go now, lest we be too heavy on you." And he urged him, but he would not go. And he barak him.

26 And Abshalom said, "If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us." And the sovereign said to him, "Why should he go with you?"

27 And Abshalom urged him, so he let Amnon and all the sons of the sovereign go with him.

28 And Aḅshalom had commanded his servants, saying, "Watch, and when the heart of Amnon is glad with wine, and I shall say to you, 'Smite Amnon!' then kill him. Do not be afraid. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and brave."

29 Then the servants of Aḅshalom did to Amnon as Aḅshalom had commanded. Then all the sons of the sovereign rose up, and each one mounted his mule and fled.

30 And it came to be, while they were on the way, that news came to Dawid, saying, "Aḅshalom has smitten all the sons of the sovereign, and not one of them is left!"

31 And the sovereign rose up and tore his garments and lay on the ground, and all his servants stood by with their garments torn.

32 And Yonadab son of Shim'ah, Dawid's brother, answered and said, "Do not let my master say they have killed all the young men, the sons of the sovereign, for only Amnon is dead. For by the command of Aḅshalom this has been appointed from the day that he humbled his sister Tamar.

33 "And now, let not my master the sovereign take the matter to his heart, to think that all the sons of the sovereign are dead. For only Amnon is dead."

34 And Aḅshalom fled, and the young man who was watching lifted up his eyes and looked and saw many people were coming from the way behind him, on the side of the hill.

35 Then Yonadab said to the sovereign, "Look, the sons of the sovereign are coming; as your servant said, so it is."

36 And it came to be, as soon as he had finished speaking, that look, the sons of the sovereign came, and they lifted up their voice and wept. And the sovereign too, and all his servants wept very bitterly.

37 But Abshalom fled and went to Talmi son of Ammihud, sovereign of Geshur. And Dawid mourned for his son all the days.

38 So Abshalom fled and went to Geshur, and was there three years.

39 Sovereign Dawid then longed to go to Abshalom, for he had been comforted concerning Amnon, because he was dead.

14 And Yo'ab son of Tseruyah knew that the heart of the sovereign was towards Abshalom.

2 And Yo'ab sent to Tegowa and brought from there a wise woman, and said to her, "Please pretend to be a mourner, and put on mourning garments, and do not anoint yourself with oil, but act like a woman who has been mourning a long time for the dead.

3 "Then you shall go to the sovereign and speak to him according to this word." And Yo'ab put the words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Tegowa spoke to the sovereign, she fell on her face to the ground and did obeisance, and said, "Save, O sovereign!"

5 And the sovereign said to her, "What is your trouble?" And she answered, "Truly I am a widow, my husband is dead.

6 "And your female servant had two sons. And the two fought with each other in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one smote the other and killed him.

7 "And see, the entire clan has risen up against your female servant and said, 'Give him who smote his brother, so that we put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed, and destroy the heir also.'

Thus they would extinguish my burning coal that is left, and leave to my husband neither name nor remnant on the earth.”

8 And the sovereign said to the woman, “Go to your house, and let me give orders concerning you.”

9 And the woman of Teqowa said to the sovereign, “My master, O sovereign, let the wickedness be on me and on my father’s house, and the sovereign and his throne be guiltless.”

10 And the sovereign said, “Whoever speaks to you, bring him to me, and let him no longer touch you.”

11 And she said, “Please let the sovereign remember 𐤀𐤆𐤀𐤁 your Elohim, and the redeemer of blood not destroy any more, lest they destroy my son.” And he said, “As 𐤀𐤆𐤀𐤁 lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the ground.”

12 And the woman said, “Please, let your female servant speak a word to my master the sovereign.” And he said, “Speak.”

13 And the woman said, “And why have you reasoned like this against the people of Elohim? For in speaking this word the sovereign is as one who is guilty, in that the sovereign does not bring his outcast one home again.

14 “For we shall certainly die and become like water spilled on the ground, which is not gathered up again. Yet Elohim does not take away a life, but shall devise ways, so that His outcast ones are not cast out from Him.

15 “And now I have come to speak this word to my master the sovereign because the people have made me afraid. And your female servant said, ‘Please let me speak to the sovereign, it could be that the sovereign does what his female servant asks,

16 for the sovereign has listened to deliver his female servant from the hand of the man seeking to destroy me and my son together from the inheritance of Elohim.'

17 "Then your female servant said, 'Please let the word of my master the sovereign be comforting, for my master the sovereign is as the messenger of Elohim, in discerning the good and the evil. And אִתְּךָ your Elohim is with you.' "

18 And the sovereign answered and said to the woman, "Please do not hide from me the matter that I am asking you." And the woman said, "Please, let my master the sovereign speak."

19 And the sovereign said, "Is the hand of Yo'ab with you in all this?" And the woman answered and said, "As your being lives, my master the sovereign, there is none to the right or to the left from all that my master the sovereign has spoken. For your servant Yo'ab commanded me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your female servant.

20 "Your servant Yo'ab has done this to change the appearance of the matter. But my master is wise, according to the wisdom of a messenger of Elohim, to know all that is in the earth."

21 And the sovereign said to Yo'ab, "See now, you shall do this matter. And go, bring back the young man Abshalom."

22 And Yo'ab fell to the ground on his face and did obeisance, and baraḵ the sovereign. And Yo'ab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favour in your eyes, my master, O sovereign, in that the sovereign has done the word of his servant."

23 And Yo'ab rose up and went to Geshur, and brought Abshalom to Yerushalayim.

24 And the sovereign said, "Let him return to his own house, but do not let him see my face." And Aḅshalom went to his own house, and did not see the sovereign's face.

25 And in all Yisra'ēl there was no one who was praised as much as Aḅshalom for his good looks. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he cut the hair of his head - for it was at every year's end that he cut it because it was heavy on him - when he cut it, he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred sheqels by the sovereign's weight.

27 And to Aḅshalom were born three sons, and one daughter whose name was Tamar. She was a woman of lovely appearance.

28 And Aḅshalom dwelt in Yerushalayim, two years, and he had not seen the sovereign's face.

29 Then Aḅshalom sent for Yo'ab, to send him to the sovereign, but he would not come to him. And he sent again the second time, but he would not come.

30 And he said to his servants, "See, Yo'ab's field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and light it on fire." And Aḅshalom's servants lit the field on fire.

31 Then Yo'ab rose up and came to the house of Aḅshalom, and said to him, "Why have your servants lit my field on fire?"

32 And Aḅshalom said to Yo'ab, "Look, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, so that I send you to the sovereign, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It was good for me while I was there." ' And now, let me see the sovereign's face. And if there is any wickedness in me, then you shall put me to death."

33 Yo'ab then went to the sovereign and informed him. And he called for Aḅshalom, and he came to the sovereign and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the sovereign. Then the sovereign kissed Abshalom.

15 And it came to be after this that Abshalom prepared a chariot and horses for himself, and fifty men to run before him.

2 And Abshalom used to rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. And it came to be, whenever anyone who had a complaint came to the sovereign for a right-ruling, that Abshalom would call to him and say, "What city are you from?" And when he said, "Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Yisra'el,"

3 Abshalom would say to him, "Look, your matters are good and right, but you have nobody from the sovereign to hear you."

4 And Abshalom would say, "Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any complaint or case would come to me, and I shall let right be done to him."

5 And it came to be, whenever anyone came near him to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him.

6 And Abshalom did this to all Yisra'el who came to the sovereign for right-ruling. And Abshalom stole the hearts of the men of Yisra'el.

7 And it came to be at the end of four years that Abshalom said to the sovereign, "Please, let me go to Hebron and pay the vow which I vowed to אֱלֹהִים.

8 "For your servant vowed a vow while I dwelt at Geshur in Aram, saying, 'If אֱלֹהִים indeed brings me back to Yerushalayim, then I shall serve אֱלֹהִים.' "

9 And the sovereign said to him, "Go in peace." And he rose up and went to Hebron.

10 But Aḅshalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Yisra'ěl, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the ram's horn, then you shall say, 'Aḅshalom is sovereign in Hebron!'" '

11 And with Aḅshalom went two hundred men from Yerushalayim who were invited, and they went along unsuspectingly, and did not know the matter at all.

12 Aḅshalom also sent for Aḥithophel the Gilonite, counsellor of Dawid, from his city, from Giloh, while he was bringing offerings. And it came to be that the conspiracy became strong, for the people with Aḅshalom kept increasing.

13 Then a messenger came to Dawid, saying, "The hearts of the men of Yisra'ěl are with Aḅshalom."

14 And Dawid said to all his servants who were with him at Yerushalayim, "Rise up, and let us flee, for none of us shall escape from Aḅshalom. Go in haste, lest he overtake us quickly and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword."

15 And the sovereign's servants said to the sovereign, "Look, your servants do according to all my master the sovereign chooses."

16 And the sovereign went out, and all his household at his feet. But the sovereign left ten women, concubines, to look after the house.

17 So the sovereign went out, and all the people at his feet, and they stood still at the last house.

18 And all his servants were passing on at his side. And all the Kerēthites, and all the Pelēthites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men who had followed him from Gath, were passing on before the sovereign.

19 And the sovereign said to Ittai the Gittite, "Why do you go, you also, with us? Turn back and remain with the sovereign, for you are a foreigner, and also an exile from your own place."

20 “You came yesterday, and should I today make you wander up and down with us, when I am going wherever I am going? Return, and take your brothers back. Kindness and truth be with you.”

21 And Ittai answered the sovereign and said, “As אִיִּזְרָאֵל lives, and as my master the sovereign lives, in whatever place my master the sovereign is, whether in death or life, let your servant also be there.”

22 Therefore Dawid said to Ittai, “Go, and pass over.” And Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him passed over.

23 And all the land was weeping with a loud voice, and all the people were passing over. And the sovereign himself was passing over the wadi Qidron, and all the people were passing over toward the way of the wilderness.

24 And see, Tsadoq also, and all the Lēwites with him, bearing the ark of the Covenant of Elohim. And they put down the ark of Elohim, and Ebyathar went up until all the people completed passing over from the city.

25 And the sovereign said to Tsadoq, “Take the ark of Elohim back to the city. If I find favour in the eyes of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, then He shall bring me back and show me both it and His dwelling.

26 “But if He says thus, ‘I have not delighted in you,’ here I am, let Him do to me as is good in His eyes.”

27 And the sovereign said to Tsadoq the kohēn, “Are you not a seer? Return to the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Aḥima’ats your son, and Yahnathan son of Ebyathar.

28 “See, I am waiting in the desert plains of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me.”

29 And Tsadoq and Ebyathar took the ark of Elohim back to Yerushalayim, and they remained there.

30 And Dawid went up by the ascent of the Olives, and wept as he went up. And he had his head covered and went barefoot. And all the people who were with him covered their heads and went up, weeping as they went up.

31 And Dawid was informed, saying, "Aḥithophel is among the conspirators with Aḇshalom." And Dawid said, "O אִי־אִי, I pray You, make the counsel of Aḥithophel foolish!"

32 And it came to be that Dawid came to the summit, where he bowed himself before Elohim, and saw Ḥushai the Arkite, came to meet him with his robe torn and dust on his head.

33 And Dawid said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you shall become a burden to me,

34 but if you return to the city, and say to Aḇshalom, 'I am your servant, O sovereign - once servant of your father, but now I am your servant,' then you shall nullify the counsel of Aḥithophel for me.

35 "And are not Tsadoq and Ebyathar the kohenim with you there? And it shall be that every matter you hear from the sovereign's house, you should report to Tsadoq and Ebyathar the kohenim.

36 "See, there with them are their two sons, Aḥima'ats, Tsadoq's son, and Yahonathan, Ebyathar's son. And by them you shall send me every matter you hear."

37 And Ḥushai, Dawid's friend, went into the city. And Aḇshalom came into Yerushalayim.

16 And Dawid had passed on a little from the summit, and saw Tsiḇa the servant of Mephibosheth, who met him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them two hundred loaves, and one hundred cakes of raisins, and one hundred summer fruit, and a skin of wine.

2 And the sovereign said to Tsiba, "Why do you have these?" And Tsiba said, "The donkeys are for the sovereign's household to ride on, and the bread and summer fruit for the young men to eat, and the wine for the wearied to drink in the wilderness."

3 And the sovereign said, "And where is the son of your master?" And Tsiba said to the sovereign, "See, he remains in Yerushalayim, for he said, 'Today the house of Yisra'el is going to return the reign of my father to me.' "

4 And the sovereign said to Tsiba, "See, all that belongs to Mephibosheth is yours." And Tsiba said, "I have bowed myself, let me find favour in your eyes, my master, O sovereign!"

5 And when Sovereign Dawid came to Bahurim he saw a man from the clan of the house of Sha'ul, whose name was Shim'i son of Gera, coming from there. He came out, cursing as he came.

6 And he threw stones at Dawid. And all the servants of Sovereign Dawid, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right and on his left.

7 And this is what Shim'i said as he cursed, "Get out! Get out! O man of blood, and man of Beliya'al!

8 "אִי־אִי has brought upon you all the blood of the house of Sha'ul, in whose place you have reigned. And אִי־אִי has given the reign into the hand of Abshalom your son. And see, you are in your own evil, for you are a man of blood!"

9 And Abishai son of Tseruyah said to the sovereign, "Why should this dead dog curse my master the sovereign? Please, let me pass over and take off his head!"

10 And the sovereign said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Tseruyah? For let him curse, even because אִיִּי has said to him, 'Curse Dawid.' And who should say, 'Why did you do that?'"

11 And Dawid said to Aḇishai and all his servants, "See how my son who came from my own body seeks my life, and how much more now this Binyamite? Leave him alone, and let him curse, for אִיִּי has spoken to him.

12 "If so be, אִיִּי looks on my affliction, and אִיִּי shall return good to me for his cursing today."

13 And as Dawid and his men went in the way, Shim'i walked alongside him on the hillside, and cursed as he went, and threw stones at him and kicked up dust.

14 And the sovereign and all the people who were with him became weary, and they refreshed themselves there.

15 And Aḇshalom and all the people, the men of Yisra'ēl, came to Yerushalayim, and Aḥithophel was with him.

16 And it came to be, when Ḥushai the Arkite, the friend of Dawid, had come to Aḇshalom, that Ḥushai said to Aḇshalom, "Let the sovereign live! Let the sovereign live!"

17 And Aḇshalom said to Ḥushai, "Is this your kindness to your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?"

18 And Ḥushai said to Aḇshalom, "No, I am for the one whom אִיִּי and this people and all the men of Yisra'ēl have chosen, and with him I remain.

19 "And besides, whom should I serve? Should it not be before his son? As I have served before your father, so I am before you."

20 And Aḇshalom said to Aḥithophel, "Give your advice. What should we do?"

21 And Aḥithophel said to Aḇshalom, “Go in to your father’s concubines, whom he has left to look after the house. And all Yisra’ēl shall hear that you have made yourself a stench to your father. And the hands of all who are with you shall be strong.”

22 So they pitched a tent for Aḇshalom on the top of the house, and Aḇshalom went in to his father’s concubines before the eyes of all Yisra’ēl.

23 Now the advice Aḥithophel gave in those days was as if one had inquired at the word of Elohim. So was all the advice of Aḥithophel both to Dawiḍ and to Aḇshalom.

17 And Aḥithophel said to Aḇshalom, “Please let me choose twelve thousand men, and let me arise and pursue Dawiḍ tonight,

2 and come upon him while he is weary and weak. And I shall make him afraid and all the people who are with him shall flee. And I shall smite the sovereign alone,

3 and bring back all the people to you. When all return except the man whom you seek, all the people should be at peace.”

4 And the saying pleased Aḇshalom and all the elders of Yisra’ēl.

5 But Aḇshalom said, “Now call Ḥushai the Arkite also, and let us hear what he says too.”

6 And Ḥushai came to Aḇshalom, and Aḇshalom spoke to him, saying, “Aḥithophel has spoken according to this word. Should we do as he says? If not, speak up.”

7 And Ḥushai said to Aḇshalom, “The advice that Aḥithophel has given is not good at this time.”

8 And Ḥushai said, “You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are as bitter in being as a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. And your father is a man of battle, and would not spend the night with the people.

9 “See, by now he is hidden in some pit, or in some place. And it shall be, when some of them fall at the first, that whoever hears it shall say, ‘There has been a smiting among the people who are following Aḅshalom.’

10 “And even he who is brave, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, would utterly melt. For all Yisra’ēl knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are brave men.

11 “But I advise: Let all Yisra’ēl without fail be gathered to you, from Dan to Be’ērsheḅa, as numerous as the sand by the sea, and that you yourself go to battle.

12 “And we shall come upon him in some place where he is found, and fall on him as the dew falls on the ground. And there shall be left of him and of all the men with him not even one.

13 “And if he withdraws into a city, then all Yisra’ēl shall bring ropes to that city. And we shall pull it into the wadi, until there is not one small stone found there.”

14 Aḅshalom and all the men of Yisra’ēl then said, “The advice of Ḥushai the Arkite is better than the advice of Aḥithophel.” For אִי־אִזַּל had ordained to nullify the good advice of Aḥithophel, for the sake of אִי־אִזַּל bringing evil upon Aḅshalom.

15 Ḥushai then said to Tsadoq and to Ebyathar the kohenim, “Aḥithophel has advised Aḅshalom and the elders of Yisra’ēl such and such, but I have advised so and so.

16 “And now, send hastily and inform Dawiḍ, saying, ‘Do not spend this night in the desert plains of the wilderness, but pass over without fail, lest the sovereign and all the people with him be swallowed up.' ”

17 And Yahonathan and Aḥima'ats were stationed at Ĕyn Roḡěl, and a female servant would come and inform them, and they would go and inform Sovereign Dawid, for they could not be seen entering the city.

18 But a youth saw them, and informed Aḃshalom. So the two of them went away at once and came to a man's house in Baḥurim, who had a well in his courtyard, and they went down into it.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground grain on it, so the matter was not known.

20 And the servants of Aḃshalom came to the woman at the house and said, “Where are Aḥima'ats and Yahonathan?” And the woman said to them, “They have passed over the stream of water.” And they looked and did not find them, and returned to Yerushalayim.

21 And it came to be, after they had left, that they came up out of the well and went and informed Sovereign Dawid, and said to Dawid, “Arise and pass over the water quickly. For thus Aḥithophel has advised against you.”

22 And Dawid and all the people who were with him rose up and passed over the Yarděn. And by morning light not even one remained who had not gone over the Yarděn.

23 And Aḥithophel saw that his advice was not followed, so he saddled his donkey, and rose up and went home to his house, to his city. Then he gave charge to his house, and hanged himself, and died. And he was buried in his father's tomb.

24 And Dawiḍ came to Maḥanayim. And Aḇshalom passed over the Yardēn, he and all the men of Yisra'ēl with him.

25 And Aḇshalom appointed Amasa over the army instead of Yo'ab. Now Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Yithra, an Yisra'élite, who had gone in to Aḇigayil the daughter of Naḥash, sister of Tseruyah, Yo'ab's mother.

26 And Yisra'ēl and Aḇshalom encamped in the land of Gil'ad.

27 And it came to be, when Dawiḍ had come to Maḥanayim, that Shoḇi son of Naḥash from Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Maḵir son of Ammi'ēl from Lo Deḇar, and Barzillai the Gil'adite from Roḡelim,

28 brought beds and basins, and earthen vessels and wheat, and barley and flour, and roasted grain and beans, and lentils, and parched grain,

29 and honey and curds, and sheep and cheese of the herd, for Dawiḍ and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness."

18 And Dawiḍ mustered the people who were with him, and put commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds over them.

2 And Dawiḍ sent out one third of the people under the hand of Yo'ab, and one third under the hand of Aḇishai son of Tseruyah, Yo'ab's brother, and one third under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the sovereign said to the people, "I shall certainly go out with you too."

3 But the people answered, "Do not go out, for if we flee away, they would not lay heart upon us. Even if half of us die, they would not lay heart upon us. For now, ten thousand are like us. Therefore, it is better for you to support us from the city.”

4 And the sovereign said to them, “That which is good in your eyes I do.” And the sovereign stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the sovereign ordered Yo’ab, and Abishai and Ittai, saying, “Be gentle with the young man Abshalom for my sake.” And all the people heard when the sovereign gave all the commanders orders concerning Abshalom.

6 So the people went out into the field to meet Yisra’el. And the battle was in the forest of Ephrayim, 7 and the people of Yisra’el were smitten there before the servants of Dawid. And the smiting there that day was great - twenty thousand.

8 And the battle there was scattered over the face of all the land, and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 And when Abshalom met the servants of Dawid, Abshalom was riding on a mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a great terebinth tree, and his head caught in the terebinth. And he was suspended between the shamayim and earth while the mule which was under him passed on.

10 And a certain man saw it and informed Yo’ab, and said, “Look, I saw Abshalom hanging in a terebinth tree!”

11 And Yo’ab said to the man who informed him, “Now look, you saw, and why did you not smite him to the earth there? Then I would have given you ten pieces of silver and a belt.”

12 But the man answered Yo’ab, “Though I were to receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I would not raise my hand against the son of the sovereign. Because in our hearing the sovereign ordered you and Ab̄ishai and Ittai, saying, 'Take heed, you who go against the youth, against Ab̄shalom!'

13 "Otherwise I would have been untrue to my own life. For no matter is hidden from the sovereign, and you yourself would have put yourself against me."

14 And Yo'ab̄ said, "Let me not waste time here with you." And he took three spears in his hand and thrust them through Ab̄shalom's heart, while he was still alive in the midst of the terebinth tree.

15 And ten young men who bore Yo'ab̄'s armour went around, and smote Ab̄shalom and put him to death.

16 And Yo'ab̄ blew the ram's horn, and the people returned from pursuing Yisra'ēl, for Yo'ab̄ had held the people back.

17 And they took Ab̄shalom and threw him into a large pit in the forest, and heaped a very large pile of stones over him. And all Yisra'ēl fled, each one to his tent.

18 And Ab̄shalom in his lifetime had taken and put up a monument for himself, which is in the Sovereign's Valley. For he said, "I have no son to keep my name in remembrance." And he called the monument after his own name. And to this day it is called Ab̄shalom's Monument.

19 And Aḥima'ats son of Tsadoq said, "Please let me run and take the news to the sovereign, for אִי־אִנִּי has judged his enemies."

20 But Yo'ab̄ said to him, "You are not the man to take the news today, but you shall take the news another day. But today you do not take news, because the sovereign's son is dead."

21 And Yo'ab̄ said to the Kushite, "Go, inform the sovereign what you have seen." And the Kushite bowed himself to Yo'ab̄ and ran.

22 And Aḥima'ats son of Tsadoq said again to Yo'ab, "And whatever might be, please let me also run after the Kushite." And Yo'ab said, "Why would you run, my son, there is no news to bring you reward."

23 "But whatever might be, let me run." So he said to him, "Run." And Aḥima'ats ran by the way of the plain, and passed the Kushite.

24 Now Dawid was sitting between the two gates. And the watchman went up to the roof over the gate, to the wall, and lifted his eyes and looked and saw a man, running alone.

25 So the watchman called out and told the sovereign. And the sovereign said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." And he came nearer and nearer.

26 And the watchman saw another man running, and the watchman called out to the gatekeeper and said, "See, a man, running by himself!" And the sovereign said, "This one is also bringing news."

27 And the watchman said, "I see the running of the first is like the running of Aḥima'ats son of Tsadoq." And the sovereign said, "This is a good man, and he comes with good news."

28 And Aḥima'ats called out and said to the sovereign, "Peace!" Then he bowed down with his face to the earth before the sovereign, and said, "Baruk be אלהיך your Elohim, who has surrendered the men who raised their hand against my master the sovereign!"

29 And the sovereign said, "Peace to the young man, to Abshalom?" And Aḥima'ats answered, "When Yo'ab sent the sovereign's servant and me your servant, I saw a great crowd, but I did not know why."

30 And the sovereign said, "Turn aside and stand here." And he turned aside and stood still.

31 And see, the Kushite came, and the Kushite said, "Receive news, my master the sovereign! For אַפְשָׁלוֹם has judged this day all those who rose against you."

32 And the sovereign said to the Kushite, "Peace to the young man, to Aḅshalom?" And the Kushite answered, "Let the enemies of my master the sovereign, and all who rise against you for evil, be as that young man is!"

33 And the sovereign was shaken, and went up to the room over the gate, and wept. And as he went, he said this, "O my son Aḅshalom! My son, my son Aḅshalom, if only I had died instead of you! O Aḅshalom my son, my son!"

19 And it was reported to Yo'ab, "See, the sovereign is weeping and mourning for Aḅshalom."

2 So the deliverance that day was turned into mourning for all the people. For the people heard on that day, saying, "The sovereign has been grieved for his son."

3 And the people stole back into the city that day, as people who are ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 And the sovereign covered his face, and the sovereign cried out with a loud voice, "O my son Aḅshalom! O Aḅshalom, my son, my son!"

5 And Yo'ab came into the house to the sovereign, and said, "Today you have put to shame all your servants who today have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and daughters, and the lives of your wives and the lives of your concubines,

6 by loving those who hate you, and by hating those who love you. For you have made it clear today that you have neither commanders nor servants, for today

I know that if Abshalom had lived and all of us had died today, then it would be right in your eyes.

7 “And now, arise, go out and speak to the heart of your servants. For I swear by אֱלֹהִים, if you do not go out, not one passes the night with you. And that is worse for you than all the evil that has come upon you from your youth until now.”

8 So the sovereign rose up and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, “Look, the sovereign is sitting in the gate.” And all the people came before the sovereign. As for Yisra’ël, they had fled, each one to his tent.

9 And it came to be, that all the people were contending throughout all the tribes of Yisra’ël, saying, “The sovereign delivered us from the hand of the enemies, he rescued us from the hand of the Pelishtites, and now he has fled from the land because of Abshalom,

10 and Abshalom, whom we anointed over us, has died in battle. And now, why are you silent about bringing back the sovereign?”

11 And Sovereign Dawid sent to Tsadoq and Ebyathar the kohenim, saying, “Speak to the elders of Yahudah, saying, ‘Why are you the last to bring the sovereign back to his house, since the words of all Yisra’ël have come to the sovereign, to his house?’

12 ‘You are my brothers, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the sovereign?’

13 “And say to Amasa, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? Elohim do so to me, and more also, if you are not commander of the army before me all the days in place of Yo’ab.’ ”

14 Thus he swayed the hearts of all the men of Yahudāh as one man, so that they sent to the sovereign, "Return, you and all your servants!"

15 So the sovereign returned and came to the Yardēn. And Yahudāh came to Gilgal, to go to meet the sovereign, to bring the sovereign over the Yardēn.

16 And Shim'i son of Gěra, a Binyamite, who was from Baḥurim, hastened and came down with the men of Yahudāh to meet Sovereign Dawiḍ.

17 And with him were a thousand men of Binyamin, and Tsiḇa the servant of the house of Sha'ul, and his fifteen sons, and his twenty servants with him. And they rushed over the Yardēn before the sovereign.

18 And they passed over the ford to bring over the sovereign's household, and to do what was good in his eyes. And Shim'i son of Gěra fell down before the sovereign when he had passed over the Yardēn, 19 and said to the sovereign, "Do not let my master reckon wickedness to me, neither remember what wickedness your servant did on the day that my master the sovereign left Yerushalayim, that the sovereign should take it to heart.

20 "For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. And see, I have come today, first of all the house of Yosēph, to go down to meet my master the sovereign."

21 But Aḇishai son of Tseruyah answered and said, "Should Shim'i not be put to death for this, because he cursed the anointed of אֱלֹהִים?"

22 And Dawiḍ said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Tseruyah, that you are to be adversaries to me today? Should any man be put to death in Yisra'ēl today? For do I not know that I am sovereign over Yisra'ēl today?"

23 So the sovereign said to Shim'i, "You do not die." And the sovereign swore to him.

24 And Mephibosheth son of Sha'ul came down to meet the sovereign. And he had not attended to his feet, nor trimmed his moustache, nor washed his garments, from the day the sovereign went away until the day he came back in peace.

25 And it came to be, when he had come to Yerushalayim to meet the sovereign, that the sovereign said to him, "Why did you not go with me, Mephibosheth?"

26 And he answered, "My master, O sovereign, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, 'I am saddling a donkey for myself to ride on it and go to the sovereign,' because your servant is lame.

27 "And he spoke slander against your servant to my master the sovereign, but my master the sovereign is as a messenger of Elohim. Therefore do what is good in your eyes.

28 "For all of my father's house were but dead men before my master the sovereign. Yet you put your servant among those who eat at your own table. Therefore what right have I still to cry out any more to the sovereign?"

29 Then the sovereign said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I have said, 'You and Tsiḇa share the land.' "

30 And Mephibosheth said to the sovereign, "Rather, let him take it all, since my master the sovereign has come back in peace to his own house.

31 And Barzillai the Gil'adite came down from Roḡelim and passed over the Yardēn with the sovereign, to send him on his way over the Yardēn.

32 And Barzillai was a very aged man, eighty years old. And he had sustained the sovereign while he was dwelling at Maḥanayim, for he was a very rich man.

33 And the sovereign said to Barzillai, "Pass over with me, and I shall provide for you with me in Yerushalayim."

34 But Barzillai said to the sovereign, "How many are the days of my life, that I should go up with the sovereign to Yerushalayim?"

35 "I am now eighty years old. Do I discern between the good and evil? Does your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Do I still hear the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be a further burden to my master the sovereign?"

36 "Your servant would only pass over the Yardēn with the sovereign for a short distance. And why should the sovereign repay me with such a reward?"

37 "Please let your servant turn back again to die in my own city, near the burying-place of my father and mother. But here is your servant Kimham, let him pass over with my master the sovereign, and do for him what is good in your eyes."

38 And the sovereign answered, "Kimham is passing over with me, and let me do for him what is good in your eyes. Now whatever you choose of me, I do for you."

39 Then all the people went over the Yardēn. And when the sovereign had passed over, the sovereign kissed Barzillai and barak<sub>ḵ</sub> him, and he returned to his own place.

40 And the sovereign passed over to Gilgal, and Kimham passed over with him. And all the people of Yahudāh brought the sovereign over, and also half the people of Yisra'ēl.

41 And see, all the men of Yisra'ël were coming to the sovereign! And they said to the sovereign, "Why have our brothers, the men of Yahudāh, stolen you away and brought the sovereign, and his household, and all Dawid's men with him over the Yardēn?"

42 And all the men of Yahudāh answered the men of Yisra'ël, "Because the sovereign is our relative. And why are you displeased over this matter? Have we at all eaten at the sovereign's cost? Or has he given us any gift?"

43 And the men of Yisra'ël answered the men of Yahudāh, and said, "We have ten parts in the sovereign, and in Dawid too, we have more than you. Why then did you despise us? Was it not our advice first to bring back our sovereign?" But the words of the men of Yahudāh were harsher than the words of the men of Yisra'ël.

20 And there came to be a man of Beliya'al, whose name was Sheba son of Bikri, a Binyamite. And he blew a ram's horn, and said, "We have no part in Dawid, nor do we have inheritance in the son of Yishai - each one to his tents, O Yisra'ël!"

2 Then all the men of Yisra'ël deserted Dawid, to follow Sheba the son of Bikri. But the men of Yahudāh, from the Yardēn as far as Yerushalayim, clung to their sovereign.

3 And Dawid came to his house at Yerushalayim. And the sovereign took the ten women, his concubines whom he had left to look after the house, and put them in a protected house and supported them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

4 And the sovereign said to Amasa, "Call the men of Yahudāh for me within three days, and be present here yourself."

5 And Amasa went to call the men of Yahudāh. But he delayed longer than the appointed time which Dawid had appointed him.

6 And Dawid said to Abishai, "Now Sheba son of Bikri is going to do us more evil than Abshalom. Take the servants of your master, and pursue him, lest he find for himself walled cities, and escape us."

7 Then the men of Yo'ab went out after him, with the Kerethites and the Pelēthites, and all the mighty men. And they went out of Yerushalayim to pursue Sheba son of Bikri.

8 When they were near the large stone which is in Gib'on, Amasa came before them. And Yo'ab was dressed in battle armour, and on it was a girdle with a sword fastened in its sheath at his hips. And as he went forward, it fell out.

9 And Yo'ab said to Amasa, "Peace, my brother?" And Yo'ab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa was not on guard against the sword in Yo'ab's hand. And he struck him with it in the stomach, and his inward parts poured out on the ground, and he did not do so again, and he died. Then Yo'ab and Abishai his brother pursued Sheba son of Bikri.

11 And a man, one of Yo'ab's men, stood beside him, and said, "Whoever is well pleased with Yo'ab and whoever is for Dawid, let him follow Yo'ab!"

12 And Amasa was rolling in his blood in the middle of the highway. And the man saw that all the people stood still, so he moved Amasa from the highway to the field and threw a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came upon him halted.

13 When he was removed from the highway, all the men passed on after Yo'ab to pursue Sheba son of Bikri.

14 And he passed over through all the tribes of Yisra'el to Abel, and to Beyth Ma'akah, and to all the Berites. And they were assembled and went after him too.

15 And they went and besieged him in Abel of Beyth Ma'akah, and they cast up a siege mound against the city. And it stood in a rampart, and all the people who were with Yo'ab battered the wall to throw it down.

16 Then a wise woman called out from the city, "Listen, listen! Please say to Yo'ab, 'Come nearby, so that I speak to you.' "

17 And he came near to her, and the woman said, "Are you Yo'ab?" And he answered, "I am." Then she said to him, "Listen to the words of your female servant." And he answered, "I am listening."

18 Then she spoke, saying, "In former times they often spoke, saying, 'Let them inquire of Abel,' and so it ended.

19 "I am of the peaceable and trustworthy ones in Yisra'el. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Yisra'el. Why do you swallow up the inheritance of אִיִּים?"

20 And Yo'ab answered and said, "Far be it, far be it from me to swallow up or to destroy!

21 "That is not the case. But a man from the mountains of Ephrayim, Sheba son of Bikri by name, has raised his hand against the sovereign, against Dawid. Hand him over, him alone, and I withdraw from the city." And the woman said to Yo'ab, "Look, his head is going to be thrown to you over the wall."

22 So the woman in her wisdom went to all the people. And they cut off the head of Sheḇa son of Bīkri, and threw it out to Yo'ab. Then he blew a ram's horn, and they dispersed from the city, each one to his tent. And Yo'ab returned to the sovereign at Yerushalayim.

23 Now Yo'ab was over all the army of Yisra'el, and Benayah son of Yahoyaḏa was over the Kerēthites and the Pelēthites,

24 and Aḏoram was over the compulsory labour, and Yahoshaphat son of Aḥiluḏ was recorder,

25 and Shewa was scribe, and Tsaḏoq and Ebyathar were the kohenim,

26 and Ira the Ya'irite was kohēn to Dawiḏ.

21 And there was a scarcity of food in the days of Dawiḏ for three years, year after year. And Dawiḏ sought the face of אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים answered, "Because of Sha'ul and his bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Giḇ'onites."

2 The sovereign therefore called the Giḇ'onites and spoke to them. Now the Giḇ'onites were not of the children of Yisra'el, but of the remnant of the Amorites. And the children of Yisra'el had sworn protection to them, but Sha'ul had sought to kill them in his ardour for the children of Yisra'el and Yahudaḥ.

3 So Dawiḏ said to the Giḇ'onites, "What should I do for you? And with what do I make atonement, so that you barak the inheritance of אֱלֹהִים?"

4 And the Giḇ'onites said to him, "It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Sha'ul, or his house, neither is it for us to put to death any man in Yisra'el." And he said, "Whatever you say I do for you."

5 And they said to the sovereign, "The man who consumed us and plotted against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in all the border of Yisra'ël,

6 let seven men of his sons be given to us, and we shall hang them before אֲרָאֵל in Gib'ah of Sha'ul, whom אֲרָאֵל chose." And the sovereign said, "I give them."

7 But the sovereign spared Mephibosheth son of Yahonathan, son of Sha'ul, because of the oath of אֲרָאֵל that was between them, between Dawid and Yahonathan son of Sha'ul.

8 And the sovereign took the two sons of Ritspah the daughter of Ayah, whom she bore to Sha'ul: Armoni and Mephibosheth, and the five sons of Mikal the daughter of Sha'ul, whom she brought up for Adri'ël the son of Barzillai, the Meholathite,

9 and gave them into the hands of the Gib'onites, and they hanged them on the hill before אֲרָאֵל. So the seven fell together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 And Ritspah the daughter of Ayah took sackcloth and spread it for herself on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until the late rains poured on them from the shamayim. And she did not allow the birds of the shamayim to rest on them by day nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And Dawid was informed what Ritspah the daughter of Ayah, the concubine of Sha'ul, had done.

12 And Dawid went and took the bones of Sha'ul, and the bones of Yahonathan his son, from the men of Yabesh Gil'ad who had stolen them from the street of Bëyth Shan, where the Pelishtites had hung them up, after the Pelishtites had struck down Sha'ul in Gilboa.

13 And he brought up the bones of Sha'ul and the bones of Yahonathan his son from there, and they gathered the bones of those who had been hanged, 14 and buried the bones of Sha'ul and Yahonathan his son in the land of Binyamin in Tsela, in the tomb of Qish his father, and did all that the sovereign commanded. And after that Elohim heard prayer for the land.

15 And the Pelishtites were again fighting against Yisra'ël, so Dawid and his servants with him went down and fought against the Pelishtites. And Dawid was weary,

16 and Yishbo Benob - who was one of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose bronze spear was three hundred pieces, who was bearing a new sword - spoke of killing Dawid.

17 But Abishai son of Tseruyah came to help him, and smote the Pelishtite and killed him. Then Dawid's men swore to him, saying, "Do not go out with us to battle any more, lest you put out the lamp of Yisra'ël."

18 And it came to be afterward, that there was a battle again with the Pelishtites at Gob. Then Sibbekai the Hushathite smote Saph, who was one of the sons of the giant.

19 And there was a battle with the Pelishtites again at Gob, where Elhanan son of Ya'arëy-Oreġim the Bëyth Lehemite smote Golyath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

20 And there was a battle in Gath again, where there was a man of great height, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number. And he also was descended from the giants.

21 And he reproached Yisra'ël, and Yahonathan son of Shim'i, the brother of Dawid, smote him.

22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of Dawid and by the hand of his servants.

22 Then Dawid spoke to אֱלֹהִים the words of this song, on the day when אֱלֹהִים had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Sha'ul.

2 And he said, "אֱלֹהִים is my rock and my stronghold and my deliverer.

3 "My Elohim is my rock,
I take refuge in Him,
My shield and the horn of my deliverance,
My high tower and my refuge.
My Saviour, You save me from violence.

4 "I call on אֱלֹהִים, the One to be praised,
And I am saved from my enemies.

5 "For the waves of death surrounded me,
Floods of Beliya'al made me afraid,

6 "The cords of the grave were all around me;
The snares of death were before me.

7 "In my distress I called upon אֱלֹהִים,
And to my Elohim I cried.
And from His Hēykal He heard my voice,
And my cry was in His ears.

8 "And the earth shook and trembled,
The foundations of the shamayim were troubled,
Because He was wrath.

9 "Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And devouring fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.

10 "And He bowed the shamayim and came down,
And dense cloud was under His feet.

11 "And He rode upon a kerub, and flew,
And was seen upon the wings of the wind.

- 12 “And He put darkness around Him as booths,
Gatherings of waters, thick clouds.
- 13 “From the brightness before Him Coals of fire were kindled.
- 14 “אֱלֹהִים thundered from the shamayim,
And the Most High sent forth His voice.
- 15 “And He sent out arrows and scattered them,
Lightning, and confused them.
- 16 “And the channels of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At the rebuke of אֱלֹהִים,
At the blast of the breath of His nostrils.
- 17 “He sent from above, He took me,
He drew me out of many waters.
- 18 “He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From those hating me,
For they were stronger than I.
- 19 “They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
But אֱלֹהִים was my support.
- 20 “And He brought me out into a large place,
He delivered me for He delighted in me.
- 21 “אֱלֹהִים rewarded me according to my righteousness;
According to the cleanness of my hands He repaid me.
- 22 “For I have guarded the Ways of אֱלֹהִים,
And have not acted wickedly against my Elohim.
- 23 “For all His Right-Rulings are before me;
As for His Laws, I do not turn from them.
- 24 “And I am perfect before Him,
And I guard myself from my wickedness.
- 25 “And אֱלֹהִים repays me according to my righteousness,
According to my cleanness before His eyes.

26 "With the kind You show Yourself kind,
With the perfect one You show Yourself perfect,
27 "With the clean You show Yourself clean,
And with the wicked You show Yourself twisted.
28 "For You save the humble people,
But Your eyes are on the haughty to bring them low.
29 "For You are my lamp, O אֱלֹהִים,
And אֱלֹהִים makes my darkness light.
30 "For with You I run against a band,
With my Elohim I leap over a wall.
31 "The Ėl - His Way is perfect;
The Word of אֱלֹהִים is proven;
He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
32 "For who is Ėl, besides אֱלֹהִים?
And who is a rock, besides our Elohim?
33 "Ėl is my mighty stronghold,
And He makes my way perfect,
34 "Making my feet like the feet of a deer,
And puts me on my high places,
35 "Teaching my hands for battle,
So that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
36 "And You give me the shield of Your deliverance,
And Your lowliness makes me great.
37 "You enlarge my step under me,
So that my feet shall not slip.
38 "I pursue my enemies and destroy them,
And I do not turn back till they are destroyed.
39 "And I destroy them and crush them,
So that they do not rise,
And fall under my feet.
40 "And You gird me with strength for battle,
You cause my adversaries to bow under me.
41 "And You make my enemies turn their backs,
Those hating me, and I cut them off.

42 “They look but there is no saviour,
 Unto אֱלֹהִים, but He shall not answer them.
 43 “And I beat them as dust of the earth,
 I beat them small as dirt in the streets -
 I spread them out.
 44 “And You deliver me from the strivings of my people,
 You safeguard me as the head of the nations;
 A people I have not known serve me.
 45 “Sons of the foreigner submit to me,
 As soon as they hear they obey me.
 46 “Sons of the foreigner fade away,
 And gird themselves from their strongholds.
 47 “אֱלֹהִים lives! And baruk is my Rock!
 And exalted is my Elohim,
 The Rock of my deliverance,
 48 “Ēl who avenges me,
 And bringing peoples down under me,
 49 “And bringing me out from my enemies;
 You raise me up above those rising up against me;
 You deliver me from a man of violence.
 50 “Therefore I give thanks to You, O אֱלֹהִים, among nations,
 And I sing praise to Your Name.
 51 “A tower of deliverance is He to His sovereign,
 And showing kindness to His anointed,
 To Dawid and his seed, forever.”

23 And these are the last words of Dawid, the saying of Dawid son of Yishai, the saying of the man raised up on high, the anointed of the Elohim of Ya'aqob, and the sweet singer of Yisra'el:

2 “The Ruah of אֱלֹהִים has spoken through me,
 And His Word is on my tongue.

3 “The Elohim of Yisra’ël said,
 The Rock of Yisra’ël spoke to me,
 ‘One who rules over man righteously,
 4 “Who rules in the reverence of Elohim,
 Is like the light of the morning when the sun rises,
 A morning without clouds,
 Tender grass from the earth
 From sunshine, from rain.’
 5 “For is not my house so with ĔI?
 For He has made an everlasting Covenant with me,
 Ordered in all, and guarded.
 For all my deliverance and all desire,
 Shall He not make it send forth a Branch?
 6 “But the worthless are all as thorns thrust away,
 For they are not taken with hands,
 7 “But the man who touches them
 Uses iron or the shaft of a spear,
 And with fire they are burned up in place.”
 8 These are the names of the mighty men whom Dawid had: Yoshëb Bashshebëth the Tahkemonite, chief among the officers, he was Adino the Etsnite, for eight hundred slain at one time.
 9 And after him was El’azar son of Dodo, the Ahoite, one of the three mighty men with Dawid when they taunted the Pelishtites who were gathered there for battle, and the men of Yisra’ël had gone up.
 10 He arose and smote the Pelishtites until his hand was weary, but his hand clung to the sword, so אִתָּו brought about a great deliverance that day. And the people returned after him only to plunder.
 11 And after him was Shammah son of Agë the Hararite. And the Pelishtites had gathered into a company where there was a plot of ground covered with lentils, and the people fled from the Pelishtites.

12 But he took his stand in the middle of the field, and delivered it, and smote the Pelishtites, and אַרְבָּעָה wrought a great deliverance.

13 And three of the thirty chief men went down at harvest time and came to Dawid at the cave of Adullam, while the army of Pelishtites encamped in the Valley of Repha'im.

14 And Dawid was then in the stronghold, while a watch-post of the Pelishtites was then in Bēyth Lehem.

15 And Dawid longed and said, "Oh that someone would give me a drink of the water from the well of Bēyth Lehem, which is by the gate!"

16 And the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Pelishtites, and drew water from the well of Bēyth Lehem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to Dawid. But he would not drink it, but poured it out to אַרְבָּעָה.

17 And he said, "Far be it from me, O אַרְבָּעָה, to do this - the blood of the men who went at the risk of their lives!" So he would not drink it. This is what the three mighty men did.

18 And Abishai the brother of Yo'ab, son of Tseruyah, was chief of another three. And he lifted his spear against three hundred men whom he slew, and had a name among these three.

19 Was he not the most esteemed of three? And he became their commander, but he did not come to the first three.

20 And Benayahu was the son of Yahoyada, son of a brave man from Qabtse'el, great in deeds. He smote two lion-like men of Mo'ab. And he went down and smote a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

21 And he smote a Mitsrite, an impressive man. And the Mitsrite had a spear in his hand, so he went down to him with a staff, wrenched the spear out of the Mitsrite's hand, and slew him with, his own spear.

22 This is what Benayahu son of Yahoyada did, and had a name among three mighty men.

23 He was more esteemed than the thirty, but he did not come to the first three. And Dawid put him over his guard.

24 Asah'el the brother of Yo'ab was one of the thirty; Elhanan son of Dodo of Be'lyth Lehem,

25 Shammah the Harodite, Eliqa the Harodite,

26 Helets the Paltite, Ira son of Iqqesh the Teqowite,

27 Abi'ezer the Anethothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

28 Tsalmon the Ahothite, Maharai the Netophathite,

29 Heleb son of Ba'annah the Netophathite, Ittai son of Ribai from Gib'ah of the children of Binyamin,

30 Benayahu the Pirathonite, Hiddai from the wadis of Ga'ash,

31 Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaweth the Barhumite,

32 Elyahba the Sha'albonite of the sons of Yashen, Yehonathan,

33 Shammah the Hararite, Ahyam son of Sharar the Hararite,

34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai, son of the Ma'akathite, Eliyam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

35 Hetsrai the Karmelite, Pa'arai the Arbite,

36 Yig'al son of Nathan of Tsobah, Bani the Gadite,

37 Tseleq the Ammonite, Naharai the Be'erothite, armour-bearer of Yo'ab son of Tseruyah,

38 Ira the Yithrite, Gareb the Yithrite,

39 and Uriyah the Hittite - thirty-seven in all.

24 And again the displeasure of אִי־אֵל burned against Yisra'el, and moved Dawid against them to say, "Go, number Yisra'el and Yahudah."

2 And the sovereign said to Yo'ab̄ the commander of the army who was with him, "Go please, throughout all the tribes of Yisra'ēl, from Dan to Be'ērsheḇa, and register the people, so that I know the number of the people."

3 And Yo'ab̄ said to the sovereign, "Even if אַף־אֵלֹהִים your Elohim adds to the people a hundredfold more than there are, and the eyes of my master the sovereign see it, but why does my master the sovereign delight in this matter?"

4 However, the sovereign's word prevailed against Yo'ab̄ and against the commanders of the army. And Yo'ab̄ and the commanders of the army went out from the presence of the sovereign to register the people of Yisra'ēl.

5 And they passed over the Yardēn and camped in Aro'ēr, on the right side of the town which is in the midst of the wadi of Gaḏ, and toward Ya'zēr.

6 Then they came to Gil'aḏ and to the land of Taḥtim Ḥoḏshi, and they came to Dan Ya'an and around to Tsiḏon.

7 And they came to the stronghold of Tsor and to all the cities of the Hiwwites and the Kena'anites, and went out to South Yahudāh as far as Be'ērsheḇa.

8 And when they had gone through all the land, they came to Yerushalayim at the end of nine months and twenty days.

9 And Yo'ab̄ gave the number of the registration of the people to the sovereign, and there were in Yisra'ēl eight hundred thousand brave men who drew the sword, and the men of Yahudāh were five hundred thousand men.

10 And the heart of Dawiḏ smote him after he had numbered the people. And Dawiḏ said to אֲדָמָה, "I have sinned greatly in what I have done. But now, I pray, O אֱלֹהִים, take away the wickedness of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly.”

11 And Dawid rose up in the morning, and the word of אֱלֹהִים came to the nabi Gad, Dawid’s seer, saying,

12 “Go, and you shall speak to Dawid, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “I hold three before you. Choose one of them, and I do it to you.” ’ ”

13 Gad then came to Dawid and informed him. And he said to him, “Should seven years of scarcity of food come to you in your land? Or would you flee three months before your enemies, while they pursue you? Or should there be three days’ plague in your land? Now know and see what answer I take back to Him who sent me.”

14 And Dawid said to Gad, “I am in great trouble. Please let us fall into the hand of אֱלֹהִים, for His compassion is great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

15 And אֱלֹהִים sent a plague upon Yisra’el from the morning till the appointed time, and from Dan to Be’ersheba seventy thousand men of the people died.

16 And the messenger stretched out His hand over Yerushalayim to destroy it, and אֱלֹהִים relented concerning the evil, and said to the messenger who was destroying the people, “It is enough, now stop Your hand.” And the messenger of אֱלֹהִים was by the threshing-floor of Arawnah the Yebusite.

17 And Dawid spoke to אֱלֹהִים when he saw the messenger who was smiting the people, and said, “See, I have sinned, and I have done perversely. But these sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, be against me and against my father’s house.”

18 And Gad came that day to Dawid and said to him, "Go up, raise an altar to אֱלֹהִים on the threshing-floor of Arawnah the Yebusite."

19 And Dawid, according to the word of Gad, went up as אֱלֹהִים commanded.

20 And Arawnah looked and saw the sovereign and his servants coming toward him. And Arawnah went out and bowed before the sovereign with his face to the ground.

21 And Arawnah said, "Why has my master the sovereign come to his servant?" And Dawid said, "To buy the threshing-floor from you, to build an altar to אֱלֹהִים, so that the plague be withdrawn from the people."

22 And Arawnah said to Dawid, "Let my master the sovereign take and offer that which seems good to him. Here are cattle for burnt offering, and threshing implements and the yokes of the cattle for wood.

23 "All these, O sovereign, Arawnah has given to the sovereign." And Arawnah said to the sovereign, "אֱלֹהִים your Elohim accept you!"

24 And the sovereign said to Arawnah, "No, let me buy it from you for a price, for certain. I am not offering burnt offerings to אֱלֹהִים my Elohim without cost." So Dawid bought the threshing-floor and the cattle for fifty sheqels of silver.

25 And Dawid built an altar to אֱלֹהִים there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. And אֱלֹהִים answered the prayers for the land, and the plague was withdrawn from Yisra'el.

MELAKIM 1

א מלכים & מלכות

1 And Sovereign Dawid was old, advanced in years. And they covered him with garments, but he could not get warm.

2 So his servants said to him, "Let them seek for our master the sovereign a young woman, a maiden, and she shall stand before the sovereign and be his companion, and shall lie in your bosom, so that our master the sovereign gets warm."

3 And they sought for a lovely young woman in all the border of Yisra'el, and found Abishaḡ the Shunammite, and brought her to the sovereign.

4 And the young woman was very lovely. And she was a companion for the sovereign, and served him, but the sovereign did not know her.

5 And Adoniyah son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I reign." And he prepared for himself a chariot and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 Now his father had not worried him at any time by saying, "Why have you done so?" He was also very good-looking. And he was born after Abshalom.

7 And he talked with Yo'ab son of Tseruyah and with Ebyathar the kohēn, and they supported Adoniyah.

8 But Tsadoq the kohēn, and Benayahu son of Yahoyada, and Nathan the nabī, and Shim'i, and Rē'i, and the mighty men who belonged to Dawid were not with Adoniyahu.

9 And Adoniyahu offered sheep and cattle and fatlings by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by Ėyn Roḡel. He also invited all his brothers, the sovereign's sons, and all the men of Yahudāh, servants of the sovereign.

10 But he did not invite Nathan the nabī, or Benayahu, or the mighty men, or Shelomoh his brother.

11 Nathan then spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Shelomoh, saying, "Have you not heard that Adoniyahu son of Haggith has become sovereign, and Dawid our master does not know it?"

12 "And now, come let me give you advice, and deliver your own life and the life of your son Shelomoh.

13 "Go immediately to Sovereign Dawid and say to him, 'Did you not, my master, O sovereign, swear to your female servant, saying, "Certainly, your son Shelomoh shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne"? Why then has Adoniyahu become sovereign?'

14 "Look, while you are still speaking there with the sovereign let me come in after you and confirm your words."

15 And Bathsheba went into the room to the sovereign. Now the sovereign was very old, and Abishaḡ the Shunammite was serving the sovereign.

16 And Bathsheba bowed and did obeisance to the sovereign. And the sovereign said, "What do you want?"

17 And she said to him, "My master, you swore by אלהים your Elohim to your female servant, saying, 'Certainly, Shelomoh your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.'

18 "And now, look! Adoniyah has become sovereign. And now, my master the sovereign, you do not know about it.

19 “And he has offered great numbers of bulls and fatlings and sheep, and has invited all the sons of the sovereign, and Ebyathar the kohēn, and Yo’ab the commander of the army, but he did not invite Shelomoh your servant.

20 “And you my master, O sovereign, the eyes of all Yisra’el are on you, to declare to them who is going to sit on the throne of my master the sovereign after him.

21 “Otherwise it shall be, when my master the sovereign rests with his fathers, that I and my son Shelomoh shall be considered sinners.”

22 And see, while she was still speaking with the sovereign, Nathan the nabī also came in.

23 So they informed the sovereign, saying, “Here is Nathan the nabī.” And when he came in before the sovereign, he bowed down before the sovereign with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, “My master, O sovereign, have you said, ‘Adoniyahu shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne’?

25 “For he has gone down today, and has offered great numbers of bulls and fatlings and sheep, and has invited all the sovereign’s sons, and the commanders of the army, and Ebyathar the kohēn. And look! They are eating and drinking before him. And they say, ‘Let Sovereign Adoniyahu live!’

26 “But he has not invited me, me your servant, nor Tsadoq the kohēn, nor Benayahu son of Yahoyada, nor your servant Shelomoh.

27 “If this matter is from my master the sovereign, then you did not let your servant know who should sit on the throne of my master the sovereign after him.”

28 And Sovereign Dawid answered and said, "Call Bathsheba to me." So she came into the sovereign's presence and stood before the sovereign.

29 And the sovereign took an oath and said, "As אֱלֹהִים lives, who has redeemed my life out of all distress,

30 even as I swore to you by אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, saying, 'Certainly, Shelomoh your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place,' even so I do this day."

31 And Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did obeisance to the sovereign, and said, "Let my master Sovereign Dawid live forever!"

32 And Sovereign Dawid said, "Call me Tsadoq the kohēn, and Nathan the nabi, and Benayahu son of Yahoyaḏa." And they came before the sovereign.

33 And the sovereign said to them, "Take with you the servants of your master, and you shall have Shelomoh my son ride on my own mule, and take him down to Giḥon.

34 "And there Tsadoq the kohēn and Nathan the nabi shall anoint him sovereign over Yisra'el. And blow the horn, and say, 'Let Sovereign Shelomoh live!'

35 "And you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne, and he shall reign in my place. For I have appointed him to be ruler over Yisra'el and over Yahudaḥ."

36 And Benayahu son of Yahoyaḏa answered the sovereign and said, "Amēn! So says אֱלֹהִים Elohim of my master the sovereign.

37 "As אֱלֹהִים has been with my master the sovereign, so let Him be with Shelomoh and make his throne greater than the throne of my master Sovereign Dawid."

38 Then Tsadoq the kohēn, and Nathan the nabī, and Benayahu son of Yahoyada, and the Kerēthites, and the Pelēthites went down and had Shelomoh ride on Sovereign Dawid's mule, and took him to Giḥon.

39 And Tsadoq the kohēn took a horn of oil from the Tent and anointed Shelomoh. And they blew the horn, and all the people said, "Let Sovereign Shelomoh live!"

40 And all the people came up after him. And the people played the flutes and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth was split by their noise!

41 And Adoniyahu and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had finished eating. And Yo'ab heard the sound of the horn, and said, "Why is the city in such a noisy uproar?"

42 And he was still speaking, then see, Yahnathan came, son of Ebyathar the kohēn. And Adoniyahu said to him, "Come in, for you are a brave man, and you bring good news."

43 But Yahnathan answered and said to Adoniyahu, "No! Our master Sovereign Dawid has made Shelomoh sovereign, 44 and the sovereign has sent with him Tsadoq the kohēn, and Nathan the nabī, and Benayahu son of Yahoyada, and the Kerēthites, and the Pelēthites. And they had him ride on the sovereign's mule.

45 "And Tsadoq the kohēn and Nathan the nabī have anointed him sovereign at Giḥon. And they have gone up from there rejoicing, and the city is moved. This is the noise you heard.

46 "And further, Shelomoh sits on the throne of the reign.

47 "And further, the servants of the sovereign have gone to barak our master Sovereign Dawid, saying,

‘Let your Elohim make the name of Shelomoh better than your name, and his throne greater than your throne.’ And the sovereign bowed himself on the bed.

48 “And the sovereign also said thus, ‘Baruḵ be אֱלֹהֵי Elohim of Yisra’el, who has given to sit on my throne this day, while my eyes see it!’ ”

49 And all the guests who were invited by Adoniyahu were afraid, and rose, and each one went his way.

50 And Adoniyahu was afraid of Shelomoh, and rose, and went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

51 And it was reported to Shelomoh, saying, “Look, Adoniyahu is afraid of Sovereign Shelomoh. And look, he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let Sovereign Shelomoh swear to me today that he does not put his servant to death with the sword.’ ”

52 And Shelomoh said, “If he proves himself a worthy man, not one hair of him is going to fall to the earth, but if evil is found in him, then he shall die.”

53 And Sovereign Shelomoh sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and fell down before Sovereign Shelomoh. And Shelomoh said to him, “Go to your house.”

2 And the days of Dawid drew near to die, and he commanded Shelomoh his son, saying,

2 “I am going the way of all the earth. And you shall be strong, and be a man.

3 “And guard the Charge of אֱלֹהֵי your Elohim: to walk in His Ways, to guard His Laws, His Commands, His Right-Rulings, and His Witnesses, as it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, so that you do wisely all that you do and wherever you turn;

4 so that אֱלֹהִים establishes His word which He spoke concerning me, saying, 'If your sons guard their way, to walk before Me in truth with all their heart and with all their being,' saying, 'there is not to cease a man of yours on the throne of Yisra'ël.'

5 "And also, you know what Yo'ab son of Tseruyah did to me, and what he did to the two commanders of the armies of Yisra'ël, to Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Yether, that he slew them, and shed the blood of battle in peace, and put the blood of battle on his belt that was around his waist, and on his sandals that were on his feet.

6 "So act according to your wisdom, and do not let his grey hair go down to the grave in peace.

7 "But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gil'adite, and let them be among those who eat at your table, for so they came to me when I fled from Abshalom your brother.

8 "And see, with you is Shim'i son of Gera, the Binyamite from Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous cursing in the day when I went to Mahanayim. But he came down to meet me at the Yarden, and I swore to him by אֱלֹהִים, saying, 'I shall not put you to death with the sword.'

9 "And now, do not leave him unpunished, for you are a wise man and know what you should do to him, and shall bring his grey hair down to the grave with blood."

10 And Dawid slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of Dawid.

11 And the days that Dawid reigned over Yisra'ël was forty years. He reigned seven years in Hebron, and in Yerushalayim he reigned thirty-three years.

12 And Shelomoh sat on the throne of his father Dawid. And his reign was firmly established.

13 And Adoniyahu son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Shelomoh, and she said, "Do you come in peace? And he said, "Peace."

14 And he said, "I have a word for you," and she said, "Speak."

15 And he said, "You know that the reign was mine, and all Yisra'el had turned their faces toward me, that I should reign. But the reign has been turned around, and has become my brother's, for it was his from אֶלְעָזָר.

16 "And now, I am making one request of you, do not refuse me." And she said to him, "Say it."

17 And he said, "Please speak to Sovereign Shelomoh - for he would not refuse you - to give me Abishaḡ the Shunammite as wife."

18 And Bathsheba said, "Good, let me speak for you to the sovereign."

19 And Bathsheba came to Sovereign Shelomoh, to speak to him for Adoniyahu. And the sovereign rose up to meet her and bowed down to her, and sat down on his throne and had a throne put for the sovereign's mother. So she sat at his right hand.

20 And she said, "I am making one small request of you, do not refuse me." And the sovereign said to her, "Ask it, my mother, for I do not refuse you."

21 Then she said, "Let Abishaḡ the Shunammite be given to Adoniyahu your brother as wife."

22 And Sovereign Shelomoh answered and said to his mother, "Now why do you ask Abishaḡ the Shunammite for Adoniyahu? Ask for him the reign also - for he is my older brother - for him, and for Ebyathar the kohēn, and for Yo'ab son of Tseruyah."

23 And Sovereign Shelomoh swore by אֱלֹהִים, saying, “Elohim does so to me, and more also, if Adoniyahu has not spoken this word against his own life!

24 “And now, as אֱלֹהִים lives, who established me and put me on the throne of Dawid my father, and who has made me a house, as He promised, Adoniyahu shall be put to death today!”

25 And Sovereign Shelomoh sent by the hand of Benayahu son of Yahoyada, and he fell upon him, and he died.

26 Then the sovereign said to Ebyathar the kohēn, “Go to Anathoth, to your own fields, for you deserve death. But I do not put you to death at this time, because you bore the ark of the Adon אֱלֹהִים before my father Dawid, and because you were afflicted in all my father was afflicted in.”

27 So Shelomoh dismissed Ebyathar from being kohēn to אֱלֹהִים, to fill the word of אֱלֹהִים which He spoke concerning the house of Ēli at Shiloh.

28 And news came to Yo’ab, for Yo’ab had turned aside after Adoniyah, though he did not turn aside after Abshalom. And Yo’ab fled to the Tent of אֱלֹהִים, and took hold of the horns of the altar.

29 And the report came to Sovereign Shelomoh that Yo’ab had fled to the Tent of אֱלֹהִים, and see, he is by the altar. Then Shelomoh sent Benayahu son of Yahoyada, saying, “Go, fall on him.”

30 So Benayahu came to the Tent of אֱלֹהִים and said to him, “Thus said the sovereign, ‘Come out!’ ” And he said, “No, for here I die.” And Benayahu brought back word to the sovereign, saying, “Thus said Yo’ab, and thus he answered me.”

31 And the sovereign said to him, “Do as he has said, and fall upon him. And you shall bury him, so that you take away from me and from the house of my father the blood which Yo'ab shed without cause.

32 “Thus אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall return his blood on his head, because he had fallen on two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, while my father Dawid did not know it: Abner son of Ner, commander of the army of Yisra'el, and Amasa son of Yether, commander of the army of Yahuḏah.

33 “So shall their blood return upon the head of Yo'ab and upon the head of his seed forever. But upon Dawid and his seed, upon his house and his throne, there is to be peace forever from אִיִּזְרָאֵל.”

34 Then Benayahu son of Yahoyaḏa went up and fell upon him and put him to death. And he was buried in his own house in the wilderness.

35 And the sovereign put Benayahu son of Yahoyaḏa in his place over the army, and the sovereign put Tsadoq the kohēn in the place of Ebyathar.

36 And the sovereign sent and called for Shim'i, and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Yerushalayim and dwell there, and do not go out from there anywhere.

37 “And it shall be, on the day you go out and pass over the wadi Qidron, know for certain that you shall die - your blood is on your own head.”

38 And Shim'i said to the sovereign, “The word is good. As my master the sovereign has said, so your servant does.” So Shim'i dwelt in Yerushalayim many days.

39 And it came to be at the end of three years, that two slaves of Shim'i fled to Akish son of Ma'akah, sovereign of Gath. And they informed Shim'i, saying, “See, your slaves are in Gath!”

40 And Shim'i rose up, and saddled his donkey, and went to A<sub>k</sub>ish at Gath to look for his slaves. And Shim'i went and brought his slaves from Gath.

41 And Shelomoh was told that Shim'i had gone from Yerushalayim to Gath and had come back.

42 So the sovereign sent and called for Shim'i, and said to him, "Did I not make you swear by אֱלֹהִים, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain that on the day you leave to go anywhere, you shall certainly die'? And you said to me, 'The word I have heard is good.'

43 "And why have you not guarded the oath of אֱלֹהִים and the command that I gave you?"

44 The sovereign also said to Shim'i, "You shall know all the evil that your heart has known, that you did to my father Dawid. And אֱלֹהִים shall return your evil on your own head.

45 "But Sovereign Shelomoh is baruk, and the throne of Dawid is established before אֱלֹהִים forever."

46 So the sovereign ordered Benayahu son of Yahoyada, and he went out and fell on him, and he died. And the reign was established in the hand of Shelomoh.

3 And Shelomoh joined in marriage with Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, and took the daughter of Pharaoh, and brought her to the City of Dawid until he had completed building his own house, and the House of אֱלֹהִים, and the wall all around Yerushalayim.

2 Only, the people slaughtered at the high places, for a House for the Name of אֱלֹהִים had not been built until those days.

3 And Shelomoh loved אֱלֹהִים, walking in the Laws of his father Dawid, except that he slaughtered and burned incense at the high places.

4 And the sovereign went to Gib'on to slaughter there, for that was the great high place. Shelomoh offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

5 At Gib'on אֱלֹהִים appeared to Shelomoh in a dream by night, and Elohim said, "Ask what I should give you."

6 And Shelomoh said, "You have shown great kindness to your servant Dawid my father, as he walked before You in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with You. And You have guarded for him this great kindness, and gave him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 "And now, O אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, You have appointed Your servant to reign instead of my father Dawid. But I am a little child, I do not know how to go out or to come in.

8 "And Your servant is in the midst of Your people whom You have chosen, a great people, too numerous to be numbered or counted.

9 "Shall You then give to Your servant an understanding heart to rule Your people, to discern between good and evil? For who is able to rule this great people of Yours?"

10 And the word was good in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, that Shelomoh had asked this.

11 So Elohim said to him, "Because you have asked this, and have not asked long life for yourself, nor have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself discernment to understand right-ruling,

12 see, I shall do according to your words. See, I shall give you a wise and understanding heart, so that there was none like you before you, and none like you shall arise after you.

13 “And I shall also give you what you have not asked: both riches and esteem, so that there shall not be anyone like you among the sovereigns all your days.

14 “And if you walk in My Ways, to guard My Laws and My Commands, as your father Dawid walked, then I shall prolong your days.”

15 And Shelomoh awoke, and see, it was a dream! And he came into Yerushalayim and stood before the ark of the Covenant of אֲרֹן, and offered up burnt offerings and made peace offerings. And he made a feast for all his servants.

16 Then two women, whores, came to the sovereign, and stood before him.

17 And one woman said, “O my master, this woman and I dwell in the same house. And I gave birth while she was in the house.

18 “And it came to be, the third day after I had given birth, that this woman also gave birth. And we were together. There was no one else with us in the house, only the two of us in the house.

19 “Then this woman’s son died in the night, because she lay on him.

20 “And she rose up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side, while your female servant slept, and laid him in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 “And I rose up in the morning to nurse my son and saw he was dead. But I looked at him closely in the morning, and saw he was not my son whom I had borne.”

22 And the other woman said, “No! But the living one is my son, and the dead one is your son.” And the first woman said, “No! For the dead one is your son, and the living one is my son.” And they spoke before the sovereign.

23 And the sovereign said, “The one says, ‘This is my son, who lives, and your son is the dead one,’ while the other says, ‘No! For your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.’ ”

24 And the sovereign said, “Bring me a sword.” So they brought a sword before the sovereign.

25 And the sovereign said, “Divide the living child in two, and give half to one, and half to the other.”

26 And the woman whose son was living spoke to the sovereign, for she was overcome with compassion for her son. And she said, “O my master, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!” But the other said, “Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him.”

27 And the sovereign answered and said, “Give the first woman the living child, and by no means kill him - she is his mother.”

28 And all Yisra’el heard of the right-ruling which the sovereign had rendered. And they revered the sovereign, for they saw that the wisdom of Elohim was in him to do right-ruling.

4 And it came to be that Sovereign Shelomoh was sovereign over all Yisra’el.

2 And these were his chief officials: Azaryahu son of Tsadoq, the kohēn;

3 Elihoreph and Ahiyahu, sons of Shisha, scribes; Yahoshaphat son of Ahilud, the recorder;

4 and Benayahu son of Yahoyada, over the army; and Tsadoq and Ebyathar, the kohenim;

5 and Azaryahu son of Nathan, over the officers; Zabud son of Nathan, a kohēn, friend of the sovereign;

6 and Aḥishar, over the household; and Aḏoniram son of Aḃda, over the compulsory labour.

7 And Shelomoh had twelve governors over all Yisra'ěl, who provided food for the sovereign and his household - each one made provision for one month of the year -

8 and these were their names: Ben-Ḥur, in the mountains of Ephrayim;

9 Ben-Deqer, in Maqats and Sha'alḃim and Běyth Shemesh and Ĕylon Běyth Ḥanan;

10 Ben-Ḥesed in Arubboth, Soḓoh and all the land of Ḥěpher were his;

11 Ben-Aḃinaḏab, all the height of Dor, Taphath the daughter of Shelomoh became his wife;

12 Ba'ana son of Aḥiluḏ, in Ta'anaḓ and Meḡiddo, and all Běyth She'an, which is beside Tsarethan below Yizre'ěl, from Běyth She'an to Aḃěl Meḥolah, as far as the other side of Yoqne'am;

13 Ben-Geḃer, in Ramoth Gil'aḏ, the towns of Ya'ir son of Menashsheh in Gil'aḏ were his; the portion of Argob in Bashan, sixty large cities with walls and bronze gate-bars, were his;

14 Aḥinaḏab son of Iddo, in Maḥanayim;

15 Aḥima'ats in Naphtali; he also took Basemath the daughter of Shelomoh as wife;

16 Ba'anah son of Ḥushai, in Ashěr and in Aloth;

17 Yahoshaphat son of Paruwaḥ, in Yissasḓar;

18 Shim'i son of Ĕlah, in Binyamin;

19 Geḃer son of Uri, in the land of Gil'aḏ, in the land of Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites and of Oḡ sovereign of Bashan, and one governor was in the land.

20 Yahudaḥ and Yisra'ěl were as numerous as the sand by the sea, eating and drinking and rejoicing.

21 And Shelomoh was ruling over all reigns from the River to the land of the Pelishtites, as far as the border of Mitsrayim. They did taskwork and served Shelomoh all the days of his life.

22 And Shelomoh's food supply for one day was thirty kors of fine flour, and sixty kors of meal, 23 ten fatted cattle and twenty cattle from the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides deer, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fatted fowl.

24 For he was ruling over all on this side of the River from Tiphsaḥ even to Azzah, over all the sovereigns on this side of the River. And he had peace on all sides round about him.

25 And Yahuḍah and Yisra'el dwelt safely, each man under his vine and his fig tree, from Dan as far as Be'ěrsheḃa, all the days of Shelomoh.

26 And Shelomoh had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.

27 And these governors, each one in his month, provided food for Sovereign Shelomoh and for all who came to the table of Sovereign Shelomoh. There was no lack in their supply.

28 They also brought barley and straw to the appointed place, for the horses and steeds, each one according to his right-ruling.

29 And Elohim gave Shelomoh exceeding great wisdom and understanding, and largeness of heart like the sand on the seashore.

30 And Shelomoh's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the men of the East and all the wisdom of Mitsrayim.

31 For he was wiser than all men, than Ęythan the Ezraḥite, and Hěman, and Kalkol, and Darda, the sons of Maḥol. And his name was in all the nations round about.

32 And he spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs were one thousand and five.

33 And he spoke of trees, from the cedar tree of Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall. And he spoke of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping creatures, and of fish.

34 And there came from all peoples, from all the sovereigns of the earth who had heard of his wisdom, to hear the wisdom of Shelomoh.

5 And Hiram sovereign of Tsor sent his servants to Shelomoh, because he heard that they had anointed him sovereign in place of his father, for Hiram had always loved Dawid.

2 And Shelomoh sent to Hiram, saying,

3 “You know my father Dawid was unable to build a House for the Name of אֱלֹהִים his Elohim because of the battles which were all around him, until אֱלֹהִים put them under the soles of his feet.

4 “But now אֱלֹהִים my Elohim has given me rest all around, there is neither adversary nor evil incident.

5 “And see, I intend to build a House for the Name of אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, as אֱלֹהִים spoke to my father Dawid, saying, ‘Your son, whom I put on your throne in your place, he builds the House for My Name.’

6 “And now, command that they cut down cedars for me from Lebanon. And let my servants be with your servants, and let me pay you wages for your servants according to whatever you say. For you know there is none among us who knows to cut timber like the Tsidonians.”

7 And it came to be, when Hiram heard the words of Shelomoh, that he rejoiced greatly and said,

“Baruk be אִיִּיז this day, for He has given Dawid a wise son over this great people!”

8 And Hiram sent to Shelomoh, saying, “I have heard that which you sent me. Let me do all you desire concerning the cedar and cypress logs.

9 “Let my servants bring them down from Lebanon to the sea, then I put them in rafts by sea to the place you direct me. And I shall spread them out there, then you take them up, while you do my desire by giving food for my household.”

10 And Hiram gave Shelomoh cedar and cypress logs - all his desire.

11 And Shelomoh gave Hiram twenty thousand kors of wheat as food for his household, and twenty kors of pressed oil. Thus Shelomoh gave to Hiram year by year.

12 And אִיִּיז gave Shelomoh wisdom, as He promised him. And there was peace between Hiram and Shelomoh, and the two of them made a covenant.

13 And Sovereign Shelomoh raised up compulsory labour out of all Yisra’el. And the compulsory labour was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses - they were one month in Lebanon, two months at home. And Adoniram was over the compulsory labour.

15 And Shelomoh had seventy thousand bearing burdens, and eighty thousand hewing in the mountains,

16 besides three thousand three hundred from the chiefs of Shelomoh’s deputies who were over the work, those ruling over the people who laboured in the work.

17 And the sovereign commanded, and they brought large stones, precious stones, to lay the foundation of the House with hewn stones.

18 And Shelomoh's builders, and Hiram's builders, and the men of Gebal hewed, and prepared timber and stones to build the House.

6 And it came to be, in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Yisra'el had come out of the land of Mitsrayim, in the fourth year of the reign of Shelomoh over Yisra'el, in the month of Ziw, which is the second month, that he began to build the House of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

2 And the House which Sovereign Shelomoh built for אֱלֹהֵינוּ was sixty ammah long, and twenty wide, and thirty ammah high.

3 And the porch at the front of the Hëykal of the House was twenty ammah long, according to the breadth of the House, and its width ten ammah, from the front of the House.

4 And he made for the House windows with narrowed frames.

5 And against the wall of the House he built rooms all around, the walls of the House, all around the Hëykal and the Speaking Place. Thus he made side rooms all around.

6 The lowest side room was five ammah wide, and the middle one was six ammah wide, and the third one was seven ammah wide; for he made narrow ledges around the outside of the House, so as not to lay hold on the walls of the House.

7 And the House, when it was being built, was built with finished stone made ready beforehand, so that no hammer or chisel or any iron tool was heard in the House while it was being built.

8 The doorway for the middle side room was on the right side of the House. And they went up by stairs to the middle side rooms, and from the middle to the third.

9 So he built the House and completed it, and he panelled the House with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And he built the side rooms of the structure against all the House, each five ammah high, and they were fastened to the House with cedar beams.

11 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Shelomoh, saying,

12 “This House which you are building - if you walk in My Laws, and do My Right-Rulings, and shall guard all My Commands and walk in them, then I shall confirm My Word with you, which I spoke to your father Dawid,

13 and shall dwell in the midst of the children of Yisra’el, and not forsake My people Yisra’el.”

14 So Shelomoh built the House and completed it.

15 And he built the walls of the House inside with cedar boards, from the floor of the House to the ceiling he panelled them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the House with planks of cypress.

16 And he built twenty ammah at the rear of the House, from floor to the walls, with cedar boards. And he built it inside as the Speaking Place, as the Most Qodesh Place.

17 And the House was forty ammah, it is the Hëykal before it.

18 And the cedar for the House inside was carved with ornaments and open flowers; all was cedar, not a stone was seen.

19 And he prepared the Speaking Place in the midst of the House, to place the ark of the Covenant of אֲרֹן there.

20 And the front of the Speaking Place was twenty ammah long, and twenty ammah wide, and twenty ammah high. And he overlaid it with refined gold, and overlaid the altar of cedar.

21 And Shelomoh overlaid the inside of the House with refined gold, and made gold chains pass over the front of the Speaking Place, and overlaid it with gold.

22 Thus he overlaid the entire House with gold, until the entire House was completed. And the entire altar that was by the Speaking Place he overlaid with gold.

23 And inside the Speaking Place he made two kerubim of olive wood, ten ammah high.

24 And one wing of the kerub was five ammah, and the other wing of the kerub five ammah - ten ammah from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other.

25 And the other kerub was ten ammah. Both kerubim were of the same size and shape.

26 The height of one kerub was ten ammah, and so was the other kerub.

27 And he placed the kerubim in the midst of the inner House. And they stretched out the wings of the kerubim so that the wing of the one touched one wall, and the wing of the other kerub touched the other wall. And their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

28 And he overlaid the kerubim with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the House all around, both inside and outside, with carved figures of kerubim, and palm trees, and open flowers.

30 And he overlaid the floor of the House with gold, inside and outside.

31 And for the entrance of the Speaking Place he made doors of olive wood: the lintel, doorposts, a fifth.

32 And the two doors were of olive wood. And he carved on them figures of kerubim, and palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold. And he spread the gold on the kerubim and on the palm trees.

33 And so he made doorposts for the door of the Hëykal of olive wood - a fourth part.

34 And the two doors were of cypress wood, the two leaves of the one folded, and two leaves of the other door folded.

35 And he carved kerubim, and palm trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold laid smoothly on the carved work.

36 And he built the inner courtyard with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.

37 In the fourth year the foundation of the House of אֶלֶּז was laid, in the month Ziw.

38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, the eighth month, the House was completed in all its matters and according to all its plans. Thus he built it for seven years.

7 And Shelomoh built his own house for thirteen years, and he completed his entire house.

2 And he built the house of the forest of Leḇanon. It was one hundred ammah long, and fifty ammah wide, and thirty ammah high, with four rows of cedar columns, and cedar beams on the columns.

3 And it was panelled with cedar above the beams that were on forty-five columns, fifteen to a row.

4 And there were windows with narrowed frames in three rows, and window was opposite window, three times.

5 And all the doorways and doorposts had square frames. And window was opposite window, three times.

6 And he made the porch of the columns, fifty ammah long and thirty ammah wide. And the porch was in front of them, and the columns and the roof was in front of them.

7 And he made a hall for the throne, the Hall of Right-Ruling, where he ruled. And it was panelled with cedar from floor to floor.

8 And the house where he was to dwell, the other courtyard, within the hall was of like workmanship. And Shelomoh made a house like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken.

9 All these were of precious stone hewn to size, sawed with a saw, inside and out, from the foundation to the coping, and also on the outside to the great courtyard.

10 And the foundation was of precious stone, large stones, stones of ten ammah and stones of eight ammah.

11 And above were precious stones, hewn to size, and cedar wood.

12 So the great courtyard all around had three rows of hewn stones and a row of cedar beams, as was the inner courtyard of the House of אֶלֶל and the porch of the House.

13 And Sovereign Shelomoh sent and brought Hiram from Tsor.

14 He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tsor, a bronze worker. And he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill in working with all kinds of bronze work. So he came to Sovereign Shelomoh and did all his work.

15 And he cast two columns of bronze, each one eighteen ammah high, and a line of twelve ammah measured the circumference of each.

16 And he made two capitals of cast bronze, to put on the tops of the columns - the height of one capital was five ammah, and the height of the other capital was five ammah -

17 a lattice network, with wreaths of chainwork, for the capitals which were on top of the columns, seven chains for one capital and seven for the other capital.

18 And he made the columns, and two rows of pomegranates above the network all around to cover the capitals that were on top, and so he did for the other capital.

19 And the capitals that were on top of the columns in the hall were in the shape of lilies, four ammah.

20 And there were capitals above also on the two columns, by the bulge which was next to the network. And the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows on each of the capitals all around.

21 And he put up the columns by the porch of the Hēykal. And he put up the column on the right and called its name Yaḳin, and he put up the column on the left and called its name Bo'az.

22 And on the top of the columns was lily work. Thus the work of the columns was completed.

23 And he made the sea of cast metal, ten ammah from one rim to the other, round all about, and five ammah high, and a line of thirty ammah measured around it.

24 And below its rim were ornaments all around, ten to an ammah, all the way around the sea. The ornaments were cast in two rows when it was cast.

25 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, and three facing west, and three facing south, and three facing east. And the sea was put upon them, and all their back parts were inward.

26 And it was a tophaḥ thick, and its rim was shaped like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths.

27 And he made ten stands of bronze, each stand was four ammah long, and four ammah wide, and three ammah high.

28 And this is how the stands were made: They had side panels, and the side panels were between frames,

29 and on the side panels that were between the frames were lions, oxen, and kerubim, and a pedestal above on the frame. Below the lions and oxen were wreaths of beaten work.

30 And each stand had four bronze wheels and axles of bronze, and its four feet had supports. Under the basin were cast supports beside each wreath.

31 And its opening inside the crown at the top was one ammah. And the opening was round, like the work of the pedestal, one and a half ammah. And also on the opening were engravings, but the side panels were square, not round.

32 And the four wheels were under the side panels, and the axles of the wheels were joined to the stand, and the height of a wheel was one and a half ammah.

33 And the wheels were made like chariot wheels. Their axle pins, and their rims, and their spokes, and their hubs were all cast.

34 And there were four supports at the four corners of each stand, its supports were of the stand itself.

35 And on the top of the stand, half an ammah in height - round all around. And on the top of the stand, its flanges and its side panels were of the same.

36 And on the plates of its flanges and on its side panels he engraved keruḅim, lions, and palm trees, according to the clear space on each, with wreaths all around.

37 He made the ten stands like this: all of them were of one mould, one measure, and one shape.

38 And he made ten basins of bronze; each basin contained forty baths, and each basin was four ammah, one basin on each of the ten stands.

39 And he put five stands on the right side of the House, and five on the left side of the House, and he put the sea on the right side of the House to the east, facing the south.

40 And Hiram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. And Hiram completed doing all the work that he was to do for Sovereign Shelomoh on the House of אִיִּזְרָאֵל:

41 the two columns, and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the columns, and the two networks covering the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the columns;

42 and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the columns;

43 and the ten stands, and the ten basins on the stands;

44 and the one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;

45 and the pots, and the shovels, and the bowls. And all these utensils which Hiram made for Sovereign Shelomoh for the House of אֱלֹהִים were of polished bronze.

46 The sovereign had them cast in clay in the district of Yardēn between Sukkoth and Tsarethan.

47 And Shelomoh left out all the utensils, because they were many, nor was the weight of the bronze searched out.

48 So Shelomoh made all the utensils for the House of אֱלֹהִים: the altar of gold, and the table of gold on which was the showbread;

49 and the lampstands of refined gold, five on the right side and five on the left in front of the Speaking Place, with the flowers and the lamps and the snuffers of gold;

50 and the basins, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the ladles, and the fire holders of refined gold, and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner House, the Most Qodesh Place, and for the doors of the House of the Hēykal.

51 Thus all the work which Sovereign Shelomoh had done for the House of אֱלֹהִים was completed. And Shelomoh brought in the qodesh items of his father Dawid: the silver and the gold and the utensils, and he put them in the treasuries of the House of אֱלֹהִים.

8 Then Shelomoh assembled the elders of Yisra'el and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Yisra'el, to Sovereign Shelomoh in Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of the Covenant of אֲרָכָה from the City of Dawid, which is Tsiyon.

2 And all the men of Yisra'el assembled to Sovereign Shelomoh at the Festival in the month of Ėythanim, which is the seventh month.

3 And all the elders of Yisra'el came, and the kohenim took up the ark,

4 and brought up the ark of אֲרָכָה, and the Tent of Appointment, and all the qodesh utensils that were in the Tent. And the kohenim and the Lėwites brought them up,

5 and Sovereign Shelomoh, and all the congregation of Yisra'el who had assembled with him, were with him before the ark, slaughtering so many sheep and cattle, that they could not be counted or numbered.

6 And the kohenim brought in the ark of the Covenant of אֲרָכָה to its place, into the Speaking Place of the House, to the Most Qodesh Place, under the wings of the keruḅim,

7 for the keruḅim spread two wings over the place of the ark, and the keruḅim covered over the ark and its poles.

8 And the poles extended so that the ends of the poles were seen from the qodesh place, in front of the Speaking Place, but they were not seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

9 There was naught in the ark, only the two tablets of stone which Mosheh put there at Ḥorėḅ, where אֲרָכָה made a Covenant with the children of Yisra'el, when they came out of the land of Mitsrayim.

10 And it came to be, when the kohenim came out of the qodesh place, that the cloud filled the House of אֲרָכָה,

11 so that the kohenim were unable to stand and perform the service because of the cloud, for the esteem of אֱלֹהִים filled the House of אֱלֹהִים.

12 And Shelomoh said, “אֱלֹהִים has said He would dwell in the dense cloud.

13 I have indeed built You an exalted House, an established place for You to dwell in forever.”

14 And the sovereign turned around and barak all the assembly of Yisra'ël, while all the assembly of Yisra'ël was standing.

15 And he said, “Baruk be אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, who spoke with His mouth to my father Dawid, and with His hand has filled it, saying,

16 ‘Since the day I brought My people Yisra'ël out of Mitsrayim, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Yisra'ël in which to build a House for My Name to be there, but I chose Dawid to be over My people Yisra'ël.’

17 “And it was in the heart of my father Dawid to build a House for the Name of אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël.

18 “But אֱלֹהִים said to my father Dawid, ‘Because it has been in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well that it was in your heart.

19 ‘Only, you do not build the House, but your son, who is coming from your loins, he builds the House for My Name.’

20 “Now אֱלֹהִים has established His word which He spoke, and I have been raised up instead of my father Dawid, and sit on the throne of Yisra'ël, as אֱלֹהִים promised, and built a House for the Name of אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël,

21 and have appointed there a place for the ark, wherein is the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim.”

22 And Shelomoh stood before the altar of אֱלֹהִים in front of all the assembly of Yisra'el, and spread out his hands toward the shamayim,

23 and said, “אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, there is no Elohim in the shamayim above or on earth below like You, guarding Your Covenant and kindness with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart,

24 who has guarded that which You promised Your servant Dawid my father. Indeed, You have both spoken with Your mouth and have filled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

25 “And now, אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, guard what You promised Your servant Dawid my father, saying, ‘There is not to cease a man of yours before Me, sitting on the throne of Yisra'el - only, if your sons guard their way, to walk before Me as you have walked before Me.’

26 “And now, O Elohim of Yisra'el, please let Your word come true which You have spoken to Your servant Dawid my father.

27 “For is it true: Elohim dwells on the earth? See, the shamayim and the shamayim of the shamayim are unable to contain You, how much less this House which I have built!

28 “Yet, shall You turn to the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, and listen to the cry and the prayer which Your servant is praying before You today?

29 “For Your eyes to be open toward this House night and day, toward the place of which You said, ‘My Name is there,’ to listen to the prayer which Your servant makes toward this place.

30 “Then, shall You hear the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Yisra’ël when they pray toward this place, when You hear in Your dwelling place, in the shamayim? And shall You hear, and forgive?

31 “If anyone sins against his neighbour, and he has lifted up an oath on him, to cause him to swear, and comes and swears before Your altar in this House,
32 then hear in the shamayim, and act and rightly rule Your servants, declaring the wicked wicked, bringing his way on his head, and declaring the righteous right by giving him according to his righteousness.

33 “When Your people Yisra’ël are smitten before an enemy, because they have sinned against You, and they shall turn back to You and confess Your Name, and pray and make supplication to You in this House, 34 then hear in the shamayim, and forgive the sin of Your people Yisra’ël, and bring them back to the land which You gave to their fathers.

35 “When the shamayim are shut up and there is no rain because they sin against You, when they pray toward this place and confess Your Name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,

36 then hear in the shamayim, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Yisra’ël - for You teach them the good way in which they should walk - and shall give rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.

37 “When there is scarcity of food in the land; when there is pestilence, blight, mildew, locusts, grasshoppers; when their enemy distresses them in the land of their cities; any plague, any sickness,

38 whatever prayer, whatever supplication by anyone of all Your people Yisra'ël, each knowing the plague of his own heart, and shall spread but his hands toward this House,

39 then hear in the shamayim, Your dwelling place, and forgive, and act, and render unto everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know. Because You - You alone - know the hearts of all the sons of men, 40 so that they revere You all the days that they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.

41 "Also, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Yisra'ël, but has come from a far land for Your Name's sake -

42 since they hear of Your great Name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm - and he shall come and pray toward this House,

43 hear in the shamayim Your dwelling place, and do according to all for which the foreigner calls to You, so that all peoples of the earth know Your Name and revere You, as do Your people Yisra'ël, and know that this House which I have built is called by Your Name.

44 "When Your people go out to battle against their enemy, in the way that You send them, and they shall pray to אֱלֹהֵיךָ toward the city which You have chosen and toward the House which I have built for Your Name, 45 then shall You hear in the shamayim their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause?

46 "When they sin against You - for there is no one who does not sin - and You become enraged with them and give them to the enemy, and they take them captive to the land of the enemy, far or near;

47 and they shall turn back unto their heart in the land where they have been taken captive, and shall turn, and make supplication to You in the land of those who took them captive, saying, 'We have sinned and acted wickedly, we have committed wickedness,'

48 and they shall turn back to You with all their heart and with all their being in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and shall pray to You toward their land which You gave to their fathers, the city which You have chosen and the House which I have built for Your Name,

49 then shall You hear in the shamayim Your dwelling place their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause,

50 and forgive Your people who have sinned against You, and all their transgressions which they have transgressed against You? And give them compassion before those who took them captive, and they shall have compassion on them.

51 'For they are Your people and Your inheritance, whom You brought out of Mitsrayim, out of the iron furnace.

52 "Let Your eyes be open to the supplication of Your servant and the supplication of Your people Yisra'ël, to listen to them whenever they call to You.

53 "For You have separated them unto Yourself for an inheritance, out of all the peoples of the earth, as You spoke by the hand of Your servant Mosheh, when You brought our fathers out of Mitsrayim, O Adonai אֱלֹהֵינוּ."

54 And it came to be, when Shelomoh had ended praying all this prayer and supplication to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, that he rose up from before the altar of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to the shamayim.

55 And he stood and barak all the assembly of Yisra'el with a loud voice, saying,

56 “Baruk be אֱלֹהֵינוּ, who has given rest to His people Yisra'el, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good Word, which He promised through His servant Mosheh.

57 “אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim is with us as He was with our fathers - He does not leave us nor forsake us -

58 to incline our hearts to Himself, to walk in all His Ways, and to guard His Commands and His Laws and His Right-Rulings, which He commanded our fathers.

59 “And let these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before אֱלֹהֵינוּ, be near אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim day and night, to maintain the cause of His servant and the cause of His people Yisra'el, the matter of each day in its day, 60 so that all the peoples of the earth might know that אֱלֹהֵינוּ is Elohim, there is no one else.

61 “Let your heart therefore be perfect to אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim, to walk in His Laws and guard His Commands, as at this day.”

62 And the sovereign and all Yisra'el with him made slaughterings before אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

63 And Shelomoh brought peace offerings, which he slaughtered to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. Thus the sovereign and all the children of Yisra'el dedicated the House of אֱלֹהֵינוּ.

64 On that day the sovereign qadosh the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the House of אֱלֹהֵינוּ, for there he made burnt offerings, and the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before אֱלֹהִים was too small to contain the burnt offerings, and the grain offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Shelomoh at that time observed the Festival, and all Yisra'el with him, a great assembly from the entrance of Ḥamath to the wadi of Mitsrayim, before אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, seven days and seven days - fourteen days.

66 On the eighth day he sent the people away. And they barak the sovereign, and went to their tents rejoicing and glad of heart for all the goodness that אֱלֹהִים had done for his servant Dawid, and for Yisra'el His people.

9 And it came to be, when Shelomoh had finished building the House of אֱלֹהִים and the house of the sovereign, and all the desire of Shelomoh which he was pleased to do,

2 that אֱלֹהִים appeared to Shelomoh the second time, as He had appeared to him at Gib'on.

3 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication that you have made before Me. I have qadosh this House which you have built to put My Name there forever, and My eyes and My heart shall always be there.

4 "And you, if you walk before Me as your father Dawid walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, if you guard My Laws and My Right-Rulings,

5 then I shall establish the throne of your reign over Yisra'el forever, as I promised Dawid your father, saying, 'There is not to cease a man of yours on the throne of Yisra'el.'

6 “If you at all turn back, you or your sons, from following Me, and do not guard My Commands, My Laws, which I have put before you, but shall go and serve other mighty ones and bow yourselves to them,

7 then I shall cut off Yisra’el from the face of the land which I have given them, and send away from My presence this House which I have qadosh for My Name. And Yisra’el shall be a proverb and a mockery among all the peoples.

8 “And this House, which has been exalted, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and hiss, and say, ‘Why has אֱלֹהִים done thus to this land and to this House?’

9 “Then they shall say, ‘Because they have forsaken אֱלֹהִים their Elohim, who brought their fathers out of the land of Mitsrayim, and they embraced other mighty ones, and bowed themselves to them and served them. That is why אֱלֹהִים has brought all this evil on them.’ ”

10 And it came to be, at the end of twenty years, that Shelomoh had built the two houses, the House of אֱלֹהִים and the house of the sovereign.

11 Hiram the sovereign of Tsor had supplied Shelomoh with cedar and cypress and gold, as much as he desired. Then Sovereign Shelomoh gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galil.

12 And Hiram came from Tsor to see the cities which Shelomoh had given him, but they were not right in his eyes, 13 and he said, “What are these cities you have given me, my brother?” And he called them the land of Kabul, as they are to this day.

14 And Hiram sent the sovereign one hundred and twenty kikars of gold.

15 And this is the purpose of the compulsory labour which Sovereign Shelomoh raised, to build the House of אֶלֹהִים, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Yerushalayim, and H̄atsor, and Meḡiddo, and Gezer -

16 Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim had gone up and taken Gezer and burned it with fire, and had slain the Kena'anites who dwelt in the city, and had given it as a payment for the bride to his daughter, Shelomoh's wife -

17 and Shelomoh built Gezer, and Lower Bēyth Horon,

18 and Ba'alath, and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land of Yahudah,

19 and all the storage cities that Shelomoh had, and cities for his chariots and cities for his cavalry, and whatever Shelomoh desired to build in Yerushalayim, and in Leḇanon, and in all the land of his rule.

20 All the people who were left of the Amorites, the H̄ittites, the Perizzites, the H̄iwrites, and the Yeḇusites, who were not of the children of Yisra'el -
21 their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Yisra'el had not been able to destroy completely - from these Shelomoh raised compulsory labour, as it is to this day.

22 But Shelomoh did not make slaves of the children of Yisra'el, because they were men of battle, and his servants, and his rulers, and his officers, and commanders of his chariots, and his cavalry.

23 These were the chiefs of the officials who were over the work of Shelomoh: five hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people who did the work.

24 And the daughter of Pharaoh came up from the City of Dawid to her house that he built for her. Then he built Millo.

25 And three times a year Shelomoh brought burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he had built for אֱלֹהִים, and he burned incense with that which was before אֱלֹהִים - thus gave completeness to the House.

26 And Sovereign Shelomoh built a fleet of ships at Etsyon Geber, which is near Ėyloth on the shore of the Sea of Reeds, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent his servants with the fleet, seamen who knew the sea, to work with the servants of Shelomoh.

28 And they went to Ophir, and took four hundred and twenty kikars of gold from there, and brought it to Sovereign Shelomoh.

10 And the sovereignty of Sheba heard of the report of Shelomoh concerning the Name of אֱלֹהִים, and came to try him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Yerushalayim with a very great company, with camels that bore spices, very much gold, and precious stones. And she came to Shelomoh, and she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.

3 And Shelomoh answered all her questions. There was no matter hidden from the sovereign that he did not make known to her.

4 And the sovereignty of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Shelomoh, and the house that he had built,

5 and the food on his table, and the seating of his servants, and the service of his waiters and their attire, and his cupbearers, and his burnt offerings which he offered in the House of אֱלֹהִים, and there was no more spirit in her.

6 Then she said to the sovereign, “The word I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom was true.

7 “But I did not believe the words until I came and saw with my own eyes. And see, I have not been told the half! Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the report which I heard.

8 “Baruk are your men and baruk are these your servants, who stand continually before you, who are hearing your wisdom!

9 “Baruk be אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, who delighted in you, to put you on the throne of Yisra’el! Because אֱלֹהִים has loved Yisra’el forever, therefore He made you sovereign, to do right-ruling and righteousness.”

10 And she gave the sovereign one hundred and twenty kikars of gold, and very many spices, and precious stones. Never again did so many spices come as the sovereignty of Sheba gave to Sovereign Shelomoh.

11 And also, the ships of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought almug wood, a great many, and precious stones from Ophir.

12 And the sovereign made steps of the almug wood for the House of אֱלֹהִים and for the sovereign’s house, also lyres and harps for singers. No such almug wood has come or been seen to this day.

13 And Sovereign Shelomoh gave the sovereignty of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides what he gave her according to the hand of Sovereign Shelomoh. And she turned and went to her land, she and her servants.

14 And the weight of gold that came to Shelomoh yearly was six hundred and sixty-six kikars of gold,

15 besides that from men of travel, and the profit from traders, and from all the sovereigns of Arabia, and from the governors of the land.

16 And Sovereign Shelomoh made two hundred large shields of beaten gold - six hundred pieces of gold went into each shield;

17 and three hundred shields of beaten gold - three minas of gold went into each shield. And the sovereign put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.

18 And the sovereign made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with refined gold.

19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round at the back, and there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.

20 And twelve lions were standing there, one on each side of the six steps. The like of it was never made in any reign.

21 And all the drinking vessels of Sovereign Shelomoh were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of refined gold - not of silver, for this was reckoned of little value in the days of Shelomoh.

22 For the sovereign had ships of Tarshish at sea with the fleet of Hiram. Once every three years the ships of Tarshish came bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and baboons.

23 And Sovereign Shelomoh was greater than any of the sovereigns of the earth in riches and wisdom.

24 And all the earth sought the presence of Shelomoh to hear his wisdom, which Elohim had put in his heart.

25 And they were each bringing his present: objects of silver and objects of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

26 And Shelomoh gathered chariots and horsemen, and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the sovereign in Yerushalayim.

27 And the sovereign made silver as common in Yerushalayim as stones, and he made cedars as plenty as the sycamores which are in the low country.

28 And Shelomoh had horses brought out from Mitsrayim and Quěh; the sovereign's merchants brought them from Quěh at a price.

29 And a chariot came up and went out from Mitsrayim for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse one hundred and fifty. And so, by their hand, they brought them out to all the sovereigns of the Hittites, and the sovereigns of Aram.

11 And Sovereign Shelomoh loved many foreign women in addition to the daughter of Pharaoh: Mo'abite, Ammonite, Edomite, Tsidonian, and Hittite women;

2 from the nations of whom אִתְּנָה had said to the children of Yisra'el, "You do not go into them, and they do not go into you, for they shall certainly turn away your hearts after their mighty ones." Shelomoh clung to these in love.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines. And his wives turned away his heart.

4 And it came to be, when Shelomoh was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other mighty ones. And his heart was not perfect with אֱלֹהִים his Elohim, as was the heart of his father Dawid.

5 And Shelomoh went after Ashtoreth the mighty one of the Tsidonians, and after Milkom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 Thus Shelomoh did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and did not follow אֱלֹהִים completely, like his father Dawid.

7 Then Shelomoh built a high place for Kemosh the abomination of Mo'ab, on the hill that is east of Yerushalayim, and for Molek the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 And so he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and slaughtered to their mighty ones.

9 Therefore אֱלֹהִים was enraged with Shelomoh, because his heart had turned away from אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, who had appeared to him twice,
10 and had commanded him concerning this word, not to go after other mighty ones. But he did not guard what אֱלֹהִים had commanded.

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to Shelomoh, "Because you have done this, and have not guarded My Covenant and My Laws, which I have commanded you, I shall certainly tear the reign away from you and give it to your servant.

12 "Only, I do not do it in your days, for the sake of your father Dawid. Out of the hand of your son I shall tear it.

13 "Only, I shall not tear away all the reign but give one tribe to your son for the sake of my servant Dawid, and for the sake of Yerushalayim which I have chosen."

14 And אִרְאֵל raised up an adversary against Shelomoh, Haḏaḏ the Eḏomite. He was of the seed of the sovereign in Eḏom.

15 And it came to be, when Dawiḏ was in Eḏom, and Yo'ab the commander of the army had gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Eḏom -

16 Yo'ab remained there with all Yisra'el for six months, until every male in Eḏom was cut off -

17 that Aḏaḏ fled to go to Mitsrayim, he and certain Eḏomites of his father's servants with him, while Haḏaḏ was still a little child.

18 And they arose from Midyan and came to Paran, and took men with them from Paran and came to Mitsrayim, to Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, who gave him a house, and ordered food for him, and gave him land.

19 And Haḏaḏ found much favour in the eyes of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Sovereigness Taḥpenēs.

20 And the sister of Taḥpenēs bore him Genuḃath his son, whom Taḥpenēs weaned in Pharaoh's house. And Genuḃath was in the house of Pharaoh among the sons of Pharaoh.

21 And Haḏaḏ heard in Mitsrayim that Dawiḏ slept with his fathers, and that Yo'ab the commander of the army was dead, and Haḏaḏ said to Pharaoh, "Let me go to my land."

22 And Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that you are now seeking to go to your own land?" And he answered, "No, but please let me go."

23 And Elohim raised up another adversary against him, Rezon son of Elyada who had fled from his master, Haḏaḏezer sovereign of Tsoḃah,

24 and when Dawiḏ slew them he gathered men to him and became commander over a raiding band. And they went to Dammeseq and dwelt there, and reigned in Dammeseq.

25 And he was an adversary of Yisra'ēl all the days of Shelomoh - besides the trouble that Haḏaḏ caused - and he was hostile to Yisra'ēl and reigned over Aram.

26 And a servant of Shelomoh, Yarob'am son of Nebat, an Ephrayimite from Tserēḏah, whose mother's name was Tseru'ah, a widow, also lifted up a hand against the sovereign.

27 And this is what caused him to lift up a hand against the sovereign: Shelomoh had built Millo, repairing the breaks in the City of Dawiḏ his father.

28 And the man Yarob'am was a brave man. And Shelomoh, seeing that the young man was doing his work well, made him the officer over all the compulsory labour of the house of Yosēph.

29 And it came to be at that time, when Yarob'am went out of Yerushalayim, that the naḇi Aḥiyahu the Shilonite met him on the way. And he was wearing a new garment, and the two were alone in the field.

30 And Aḥiyahu took hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it into twelve pieces,

31 and said to Yarob'am, "Take for yourself ten pieces, for thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of Yisra'ēl, 'See, I am tearing the reign out of the hand of Shelomoh and shall give ten tribes to you,

32 but he shall have one tribe for the sake of My servant Dawiḏ, and for the sake of Yerushalayim, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra'ēl.

33 'Because they have forsaken Me, and bow themselves to Ashtoreth the mighty one of the Tsidonians, to Kemosh the mighty one of the Mo'abites, and to Milkom the mighty one of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in My Ways - to do what is right in My eyes, and My Laws and My Right-Rulings, as did his father Dawid.

34 'But I do not take all the reign out of his hand, because I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of My servant Dawid, whom I chose because he guarded My Commands and My Laws.

35 'And I shall take the reign out of his son's hand and give it to you, the ten tribes.

36 'And to his son I give one tribe, so that My servant Dawid shall always have a lamp before Me in Yerushalayim, the city which I have chosen for Myself, to put My Name there.

37 'So I take you, and you shall reign over all that your being desires, and you shall be sovereign over Yisra'el.

38 'And it shall be, if you obey all that I command you, and shall walk in My Ways, and do what is right in My eyes, to guard My Laws and My Commands, as My servant Dawid did, then I shall be with you and build for you a steadfast house, as I built for Dawid, and shall give Yisra'el to you.

39 'And because of this I humble the seed of Dawid, but not forever.' "

40 And Shelomoh sought to kill Yarob'am, but Yarob'am rose up and fled to Mitsrayim, to Shishaq sovereign of Mitsrayim, and was in Mitsrayim until the death of Shelomoh.

41 And the rest of the acts of Shelomoh, all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Shelomoh?

42 And the days that Shelomoh reigned in Yerushalayim over all Yisra'el was forty years.

43 So Shelomoh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of Dawid his father, and Reḥab'am his son reigned in his place.

12 And Reḥab'am went to Sheḳem, for all Yisra'el had gone to Sheḳem to appoint him to reign.

2 And it came to be, when Yarob'am son of Nebat heard this - he was still in Mitsrayim, for he had fled from the presence of Sovereign Shelomoh and had been dwelling in Mitsrayim -

3 that they sent and called him. And Yarob'am and all the assembly of Yisra'el came and spoke to Reḥab'am, saying,

4 "Your father made our yoke hard, and now, lighten the hard service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, then we serve you."

5 And he said to them, "Go away for three days, then come back to me." And the people went.

6 Then Sovereign Reḥab'am consulted the elders who stood before his father Shelomoh while he still lived, and he said, "What do you advise me to answer these people?"

7 And they spoke to him, saying, "If you are a servant to these people today, and shall serve them, and shall answer them and speak good words to them, then they shall be your servants all the days."

8 But he ignored the advice the elders gave him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

9 And he said to them, "What advice do you give? How should we answer this people who have spoken to me, saying, 'Lighten the yoke which your father put on us'?"

10 And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Say this to this people who have spoken to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us.' Say this to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist!

11 'And now, my father laid a heavy yoke on you, but I add to your yoke; my father flogged you with whips, but I, I flog you with scourges!' "

12 So Yarob'am and all the people came to Reḥab'am the third day, as the sovereign had spoken, saying, "Come back to me the third day."

13 But the sovereign answered the people harshly, and ignored the advice which the elders had given him,

14 and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I add to your yoke; my father flogged you with whips, but I, I flog you with scourges!"

15 So the sovereign did not listen to the people, for the turn of events was from אִיִּצְרָאֵל, in order to establish His word, which אִיִּצְרָאֵל had spoken by Aḥiyahu the Shilonite to Yarob'am son of Neḅat.

16 And all Yisra'ël saw that the sovereign did not listen to them. Then the people answered the sovereign, saying, "What portion do we have in Dawid? And there is no inheritance in the son of Yishai. To your tents, O Yisra'ël! Now, see to your own house, O Dawid!" So Yisra'ël went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Yisra'ël who dwelt in the cities of Yahudah, Reḥab'am reigned over them.

18 And when Sovereign Reḥab'am sent Aḏoram, who was over the compulsory labour, all Yisra'ël stoned him with stones, and he died. And Sovereign Reḥab'am hastily mounted his chariot to flee to Yerushalayim.

19 Thus Yisra'el revolted against the house of Dawid to this day.

20 And it came to be when all Yisra'el heard that Yarob'am had come back, they sent for him and called him to the congregation, and appointed him to reign over all Yisra'el. There was none who followed the house of Dawid, except the tribe of Yahudah only.

21 And Rehab'am came to Yerushalayim, and he assembled all the house of Yahudah with the tribe of Binyamin, one hundred and eighty thousand chosen men of battle, to fight against the house of Yisra'el, to bring back the reign to Rehab'am son of Shelomoh.

22 But the word of Elohim came to Shemayah the man of Elohim, saying,

23 "Speak to Rehab'am son of Shelomoh, sovereign of Yahudah, and to all the house of Yahudah and Binyamin, and to the rest of the people, saying,

24 'Thus said יהוה, "Do not go up or fight against your brothers the children of Yisra'el. Let every man return to his house, for this matter is from Me." ' " So they obeyed the word of יהוה, and turned back, according to the word of יהוה.

25 And Yarob'am built Shekem in the mountains of Ephrayim, and dwelt there. And he went out from there and built Penu'el.

26 And Yarob'am said in his heart, "Now the reign, shall return to the house of Dawid.

27 "If these people go up to do slaughterings in the House of יהוה at Yerushalayim, then the heart of this people shall turn back to their master, Rehab'am sovereign of Yahudah, and they shall slay me and go back to Reḥab'am sovereign of Yahudaḥ."

28 So the sovereign took counsel and made two calves of gold, and said to the people, "It is too much for you to go up to Yerushalayim. See, your mighty ones, O Yisra'el, which brought you up from the land of Mitsrayim!"

29 And he put up one in Běyth Ĕl, and the other he put in Dan.

30 And this matter became a sin, for the people went before the one as far as Dan.

31 And he made the house of high places, and made priests from all sorts of people, who were not of the sons of Lěwi.

32 And Yarob'am performed a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the Festival that was in Yahudaḥ, and he offered on the altar. So he did at Běyth Ĕl, slaughtering to the calves that he had made. And at Běyth Ĕl he appointed the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 And he made offerings on the altar which he had made at Běyth Ĕl on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised in his own heart. And he performed a festival for the children of Yisra'el, and offered on the altar and burned incense.

13 And see, a man of Elohim went from Yahudaḥ to Běyth Ĕl by the word of אִיִּזְבַּב, while Yarob'am was standing by the altar to burn incense.

2 And he cried out against the altar by the word of אִיִּזְבַּב, and said, "O altar, altar! Thus said אִיִּזְבַּב, 'See, a son is to be born to the house of Dawid, Yoshiyahu is his name. And on you he shall offer the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and men's bones be burned on you.' ”

3 And he gave a sign the same day, saying, “This is the sign which אֱלֹהִים has spoken: See, the altar is split apart, and the ashes on it are poured out.”

4 And it came to be when Sovereign Yarob'am heard the saying of the man of Elohim, who cried out against the altar in Běyth Ĕl, that he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, “Seize him!” Then his hand, which he stretched out toward him, dried up, so that he was unable to bring it back to him.

5 And the altar was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of Elohim had given by the word of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And the sovereign answered and said to the man of Elohim, “Please appease the face of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and pray for me, that my hand might be restored to me.” And the man of Elohim appeased the face of אֱלֹהִים, and the sovereign's hand was restored to him, and became as it was before.

7 The sovereign then said to the man of Elohim, “Come home with me and refresh yourself, and I give you a gift.”

8 But the man of Elohim said to the sovereign, “If you were to give me half your house, I do not go in with you, nor do I eat bread nor drink water in this place.

9 “For so He commanded me by the word of אֱלֹהִים, saying, ‘Do not eat bread, nor drink water, nor return by the same way you came.’ ”

10 So he went another way and did not return by the way he came to Běyth Ĕl.

11 And a certain old naḇi was dwelling in Běyth Ĕl, and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of Elohim had done that day in Běyth Ĕl, the words which he had spoken to the sovereign.

12 And their father said to them, "Which way did he go?" And his sons had seen which way the man of Elohim went who came from Yahudāh.

13 And he said to his sons, "Saddle the donkey for me." And they saddled the donkey for him, and he rode on it,

14 and went after the man of Elohim, and found him sitting under a terebinth. And he said to him, "Are you the man of Elohim who came from Yahudāh?" And he said, "I am."

15 And he said to him, "Come home with me and eat bread."

16 And he said, "I am not able to return with you or to go in with you, nor am I to eat bread or drink water with you in this place.

17 "For word came to me by the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, 'Do not eat bread nor drink water there, nor return by going the way you came.' "

18 And he said to him, "I too am a nabi like you, and a messenger spoke to me by the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, saying, 'Bring him back with you to your house, and let him eat bread and drink water.' " But he lied to him.

19 So he turned back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.

20 And it came to be, as they sat at the table, that the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came to the nabi who had brought him back,

21 and he cried out to the man of Elohim who came from Yahudāh, saying, "Thus said אִיִּזְרָאֵל, 'Because you have rebelled against the mouth of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, and have not guarded the command which אִיִּזְרָאֵל your Elohim commanded you,

22 and turned back, and ate bread, and drank water in the place of which He said to you, “Do not eat bread nor drink water,” your body shall not enter the burying-place of your fathers.’ ”

23 And it came to be, after he had eaten bread and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for him, for the nabi whom he had brought back.

24 And he went, and a lion met him on the way and killed him. And his body was thrown on the way. And the donkey was standing by it, and the lion was standing by the body.

25 And see, men were passing by and saw the body thrown on the way, while the lion was standing by the body. And they went and reported it in the city where the old nabi dwelt.

26 And the nabi who had brought him back from the way heard it, and said, “It is the man of Elohim who rebelled against the word of אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים gave him to the lion, and it tore him apart and killed him, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which He spoke to him.”

27 And he spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And they saddled it.

28 So he went and found his body thrown on the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body nor mauled the donkey.

29 And the nabi lifted up the body of the man of Elohim, and placed it on the donkey, and brought it back. And the old nabi came to the city to mourn, and to bury him,

30 and he placed his body in his own tomb. And they lamented over him, saying, “Oh, my brother!”

31 And it came to be, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, “When I am dead, then you shall bury me in the tomb where the man of Elohim is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones.

32 “For the word which he cried out, by the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל, against the altar in Běyth Ĕl, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Shomeron, shall certainly come to be.”

33 After this event Yarobʿam did not turn from his evil way, but again he made priests from all sorts of people for the high places. Whoever desired, he ordained, to become one of the priests of the high places.

34 And this matter was the sin of the house of Yarobʿam, even to cut it off and destroy it from the face of the earth.

14 At that time Aḥiyah the son of Yarobʿam became sick.

2 And Yarobʿam said to his wife, “Please arise, and disguise yourself, so they do not know that you are the wife of Yarobʿam, and go to Shiloh. See, Aḥiyahu the naḅi is there, who spoke that I would be sovereign over this people.

3 “And you shall take with you ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him. Let him declare to you what becomes of the child.”

4 And Yarobʿam’s wife did so, and rose up and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Aḥiyahu. But Aḥiyahu was unable to see, for his eyes had dimmed because of his age.

5 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל had said to Aḥiyahu, “See, the wife of Yarobʿam is coming to ask you a word about her son, for he is sick. Speak to her thus and thus. For it shall be, when she comes in, that she makes herself strange.”

6 And it came to be, when Aḥiyahu heard the sound of her footsteps as she came through the door, he said, "Come in, wife of Yarob'am. Why are you making yourself strange? And I have been sent to you with heaviness.

7 Go, say to Yarob'am, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, "Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you ruler over My people Yisra'el,
8 and tore the reign away from the house of Dawid, and gave it to you - and you have not been as My servant Dawid, who guarded My Commands and who followed Me with all his heart, to do only what was right in My eyes,

9 but you have done more evil than all who were before you, for you have gone and made for yourself other mighty ones and moulded images to provoke Me, and have cast Me behind your back -

10 therefore, see, I am bringing evil to the house of Yarob'am, and shall cut off from Yarob'am every male in Yisra'el, whether shut up or left at large, and sweep away the remnant of the house of Yarob'am, as one sweeps away dung until it is all gone.

11 Those of Yarob'am who die in the city the dogs eat, and those who die in the field the birds of the shamayim eat, for אֱלֹהִים has spoken it!" '

12 "And you, arise, go to your house. When your feet enter the city, the child shall die.

13 "And all Yisra'el shall mourn for him and bury him, for he is the only one of Yarob'am who shall come to the grave, because in him there is found a good report toward אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, in the house of Yarob'am.

14 "And אֱלֹהִים shall raise up for Himself a sovereign over Yisra'el who cuts off the house of Yarob'am, this day, and even now!

15 “And אֲשֵׁרִים shall smite Yisra’ël, as a reed is shaken in the water, and shall pluck Yisra’ël from this good land which He gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the River, because they made their Ashĕrim, provoking אֲשֵׁרִים,

16 and He shall give Yisra’ël up, because of the sins of Yarob’am, who sinned and who made Yisra’ël sin.”

17 And the wife of Yarob’am rose up and went, and came to Tirtsah. When she came to the threshold of the house, the child died.

18 And they buried him, and all Yisra’ël lamented for him, according to the word of אֲשֵׁרִים which He spoke through His servant Aĥiyahu the nabî.

19 And the rest of the acts of Yarob’am, how he fought and how he reigned, see, they are written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra’ël.

20 And the days that Yarob’am reigned was twenty-two years. So he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place.

21 Meanwhile Reĥab’am son of Shelomoh reigned in Yahudah. Reĥab’am was forty-one years old when he became sovereign, and he reigned seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city which אֲשֵׁרִים had chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra’ël, to put His Name there. And his mother’s name was Na’amah the Ammonitess.

22 And Yahudah did evil in the eyes of אֲשֵׁרִים, and they provoked Him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, more than all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built for themselves high places, and pillars, and Ashĕrim on every high hill and under every green tree.

24 And there were also cult prostitutes in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the gentiles which אֲרָאָה dispossessed before the children of Yisra'ël.

25 And it came to be, in the fifth year of Sovereign Reḥab'am, that Shishaq sovereign of Mitsrayim came up against Yerushalayim.

26 And he took away the treasures of the House of אֲרָאָה and the treasures of the sovereign's house, he even took away all. And he took away all the shields of gold which Shelomoh had made.

27 And Sovereign Reḥab'am made shields of bronze to replace them, and entrusted them into the hands of the chiefs of the guard, who guarded the entrance of the sovereign's house.

28 And it came to be, whenever the sovereign went into the House of אֲרָאָה, the guards would bring them, then take them back into the guardroom.

29 And the rest of the acts of Reḥab'am, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahuḏah?

30 And there was fighting between Reḥab'am and Yarob'am all the days.

31 So Reḥab'am slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of Dawid. And the name of his mother was Na'amah the Ammonitess. And Aḇiyam his son reigned in his place.

15 And in the eighteenth year of Sovereign Yarob'am son of Neḇat, Aḇiyam became sovereign over Yahuḏah.

2 He reigned three years in Yerushalayim, and his mother's name was Ma'aḳah the granddaughter of Aḇishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him, and his heart was not perfect to אֱלֹהִים his Elohim, as was the heart of his father Dawid.

4 But for Dawid's sake אֱלֹהִים his Elohim gave him a lamp in Yerushalayim, to raise up his son after him and by establishing Yerushalayim,

5 for Dawid did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and did not turn aside from all that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of Uriyah the Hittite.

6 And there was fighting between Reḥab'am and Yarob'am all the days of his life.

7 And the rest of the acts of Abiyam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudah? And there was fighting between Abiyam and Yarob'am.

8 So Abiyam slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of Dawid. And Asa his son reigned in his place.

9 And in the twentieth year of Yarob'am sovereign of Yisra'el, Asa became sovereign over Yahudah.

10 And he reigned forty-one years in Yerushalayim, and his grandmother's name was Ma'akah the granddaughter of Abishalom.

11 And Asa did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, as his father Dawid had done, 12 and put away the cult prostitutes from the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made.

13 And he also removed Ma'akah his grandmother from being sovereigness mother, because she had made an abominable image for Asherah. And Asa cut down her abominable image and burned it by the wadi Qidron.

14 But the high places were not removed. However, Asa's heart was perfect with אֱלֹהִים all his days.

15 And he brought into the House of אֱלֹהִים the qodesh items of his father, and his own qodesh items: silver and gold and utensils.

16 And there was fighting between Asa and Ba'asha sovereign of Yisra'el all their days.

17 And Ba'asha sovereign of Yisra'el came up against Yahudah, and built Ramah, to keep anyone from going out or coming in to Asa sovereign of Yahudah.

18 And Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the House of אֱלֹהִים and the treasuries of the sovereign's house, and gave them into the hand of his servants. And Sovereign Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, son of Hezyon, sovereign of Aram, who dwelt in Dammeseq, saying,

19 "Let there be a covenant between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look, I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come, break your covenant with Ba'asha sovereign of Yisra'el, so that he withdraws from me."

20 And Ben-Hadad listened to Sovereign Asa, and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Yisra'el, and smote Iyon, and Dan, and Abel Beyth Ma'akah, and all Kinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali.

21 And it came to be, when Ba'asha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah, and remained in Tirtsah.

22 Then Sovereign Asa summoned all Yahudah - none was exempted - and they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Ba'asha had used for building. And with them Sovereign Asa built Geba of Binyamin, and Mitspah.

23 And the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudāh? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.

24 So Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of Dawiḍ his father. And Yahoshaphat his son reigned in his place.

25 And Naḍab son of Yarob'am became sovereign over Yisra'ël in the second year of Asa sovereign of Yahudāh, and he reigned over Yisra'ël two years.

26 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin by which he had made Yisra'ël sin.

27 Then Ba'asha son of Aḥiyahu, of the house of Yissaskar, conspired against him. And Ba'asha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Pelishtites, for Naḍab and all Yisra'ël had laid siege to Gibbethon.

28 And Ba'asha killed him in the third year of Asa sovereign of Yahudāh, and reigned in his place.

29 And it came to be, when he became sovereign, that he smote all the house of Yarob'am. He did not leave to Yarob'am anyone breathing, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which He had spoken by His servant Aḥiyahu the Shilonite,
30 because of the sins of Yarob'am, which he had sinned and by which he had made Yisra'ël sin, because of his provocation with which he had provoked אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël.

31 And the rest of the acts of Naḍab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël?

32 And there was fighting between Asa and Ba'asha sovereign of Yisra'ël all their days.

33 In the third year of Asa sovereign of Yahudāh, Ba'asha son of Aḥiyahu became sovereign over all Yisra'el in Tirtsah, and reigned twenty-four years.

34 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and walked in the way of Yarob'am, and in his sin by which he had made Yisra'el sin.

16 Then the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yahu son of Ḥanani, against Ba'asha, saying,

2 “Because I raised you up out of the dust and made you ruler over My people Yisra'el, but you walked in the way of Yarob'am, and made My people Yisra'el sin, to provoke Me with their sins,

3 see, I am going to sweep away Ba'asha and his house, and shall make your house like the house of Yarob'am the son of Nebat.

4 “Anyone belonging to Ba'asha who dies in a city the dogs eat, and anyone belonging to him who dies in a field the birds of the shamayim eat.”

5 And the rest of the acts of Ba'asha, what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

6 So Ba'asha slept with his fathers and was buried in Tirtsah. And his son Ēlah reigned in his place.

7 Moreover, the word of אֱלֹהִים came by the naḥi Yahu son of Ḥanani against Ba'asha and his house, because of all the evil that he did in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים in provoking Him with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Yarob'am, and because he smote them.

8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa sovereign of Yahudāh, Ēlah son of Ba'asha began to reign over Yisra'el in Tirtsah, two years.

9 And his servant Zimri, commander of half his chariots, conspired against him as he was in Tirtsah drinking himself drunk in the house of Artsa, who was over his house in Tirtsah.

10 Then Zimri came in and smote him and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa sovereign of Yahudah, and reigned in his place.

11 And it came to be, when he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, that he smote all the household of Ba'asha. He did not leave him one male, neither of his relatives nor of his friends.

12 So Zimri destroyed the entire house of Ba'asha, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, which He spoke against Ba'asha by Yahu the nabi,

13 for all the sins of Ba'asha and the sins of Ĕlah his son, by which they had sinned and by which they had made Yisra'el sin, in provoking אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el with their worthlessnesses.

14 And the rest of the acts of Ĕlah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa sovereign of Yahudah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirtsah. And the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Pelishtites.

16 And the people encamped heard and said, "Zimri has conspired and also smote the sovereign." So all Yisra'el appointed Omri, the commander of the army, to reign over Yisra'el that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up, and all Yisra'el with him, from Gibbethon, and they besieged Tirtsah.

18 And it came to be, when Zimri saw that the city was captured, that he went into a high place of the sovereign's house and burned the sovereign's house down upon himself with fire, and died,

19 because of the sins which he had sinned in doing evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, in walking in the way of Yarob'am, and in his sin which he had committed to make Yisra'el sin.

20 And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the conspiracy he made, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

21 Then the people of Yisra'el were divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni son of Ginath, to make him reign, and half followed Omri.

22 But the people who followed Omri were stronger than the people who followed Tibni son of Ginath. And Tibni died and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa sovereign of Yahudah, Omri became sovereign over Yisra'el, and reigned twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirtsah.

24 And he bought the hill of Shomeron from Shemer for two kikars of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, Shomeron, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill.

25 And Omri did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and did evil more than all those before him,

26 and walked in all the ways of Yarob'am son of Nebat, and in his sin by which he had made Yisra'el sin, provoking אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el with their worthlessnesses.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and the might that he attained, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers and was buried in Shomeron. And Ahab his son reigned in his place.

29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa sovereign of Yahudah, Ahab son of Omri became sovereign over Yisra'el. And Ahab son of Omri reigned over Yisra'el in Shomeron twenty-two years.

30 And Aḥaḇ son of Omri did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, more than all those before him.

31 And it came to be, as though it had been a light matter for him to walk in the sins of Yarob'am son of Neḇat, that he took as wife Izeḇel the daughter of Ethba'al, sovereign of the Tsidonians. And he went and served Ba'al and bowed himself to it, 32 and raised up an altar for Ba'al in the house of Ba'al, which he had built in Shomeron.

33 And Aḥaḇ made an Asherah. And Aḥaḇ did more to provoke אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el than all the sovereigns of Yisra'el before him.

34 In his days Ḥi'el of Běyth ha'Ēli built Yeriḥo. He laid its foundation at the cost of Aḇiram his first-born, and at the cost of his youngest son Seḡuḇ he put up its gates, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, which He had spoken through Yahoshua son of Nun.

17 And Ēliyahu the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gil'ad, said to Aḥaḇ, "As אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el lives, before whom I stand, there shall be no dew or rain these years, except at my word."

2 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, saying,

3 "Go away from here and turn eastward, and hide by the wadi Kerith, which flows into the Yardēn.

4 "And it shall be that you drink from the stream, and I shall command the ravens to feed you there."

5 And he went and did according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, for he went and dwelt by the wadi Kerith, which flows into the Yardēn.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning, and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the stream.

7 And it came to be after a while that the stream dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 Then the word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, saying,
9 “Rise up, go to Tsarephath, which belongs to Tsidon, and dwell there. See, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you.”

10 And he rose up and went to Tsarephath, and came to the gate of the city and saw a widow there gathering sticks. And he called and said to her, “Please bring me a little water in a vessel to drink.”

11 And as she was going to get it, he called and said to her, “Please bring me a piece of bread in your hand.”

12 And she said, “As אֱלֹהִים your Elohim lives, I do not have bread, only a handful of flour in a bin, and a little oil in a jar. And see, I am gathering a couple of sticks and shall go in and prepare it for myself and my son, and we shall eat it, and die.”

13 And Ēliyahu said to her, “Do not fear, go and do as you have said, but make me a small cake from it first, and bring to me. And afterward make some for yourself and your son.

14 “For thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘The bin of flour shall not be used up, nor the jar of oil run dry, until the day אֱלֹהִים sends rain on the earth.’ ”

15 So she went and did according to the word of Ēliyahu, and she and he and her household ate for many days.

16 The bin of flour was not used up, nor did the jar of oil run dry, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which He spoke by Ēliyahu.

17 And after these events it came to be that the son of the woman who owned the house became sick.

And his sickness was very severe until there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said to Ēliyahu, “What have I to do with you, O man of Elohim? Have you come to me to bring my wickedness to be remembered, and to kill my son?”

19 And he said to her, “Give me your son.” So he took him from her arms and took him to the upper room where he was dwelling, and laid him on his own bed,

20 and cried out to אֱלֹהִים and said, “O אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, have You also brought evil on the widow with whom I am sojourning, to kill her son?”

21 And he stretched himself out on the child three times, and cried out to אֱלֹהִים and said, “O אֱלֹהִים my Elohim, I pray, let the life of this child come back to him.”

22 And אֱלֹהִים heard the voice of Ēliyahu, and the life of the child came back to him, and he lived.

23 And Ēliyahu took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house, and gave him to his mother. And Ēliyahu said, “See, your son lives!”

24 And the woman said to Ēliyahu, “Now by this I know that you are a man of Elohim, and that the word of אֱלֹהִים in your mouth is truth.”

18 And after many days it came to be that the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Ēliyahu, in the third year, saying, “Go, present yourself to Aḥab, and I give rain on the earth.”

2 Thereupon Ēliyahu went to present himself to Aḥab. And the scarcity of food in Shomeron was severe.

3 And Aḥaḇ had called Oḇadyahu, who was over his house. Now Oḇadyahu revered אֱלֹהִים exceedingly.

4 And it came to be, while Izeḇel cut down the neḇi'im of אֱלֹהִים, that Oḇadyahu had taken one hundred neḇi'im and hidden them, fifty to a cave, and had fed them with bread and water.

5 And Aḥaḇ had said to Oḇadyahu, "Go into the land to all the springs of water and to all the wadis, it could be that we find grass to keep the horses and mules alive, and not have any livestock cut off."

6 And they divided the land between them to pass over it, Aḥaḇ went one way by himself, and Oḇadyahu went another way by himself.

7 And as Oḇadyahu was on his way, then see, Ēliyahu met him. And he recognised him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is that you, my master Ēliyahu?"

8 And he answered him, "It is I. Go, say to your master, 'Ēliyahu is here.' "

9 And he said, "What have I sinned, that you are giving your servant into the hand of Aḥaḇ, to kill me?"

10 "As אֱלֹהִים your Elohim lives, there is no nation or reign where my master has not sent to look for you. And when they said, 'He is not here,' he made the reign or nation swear that they could not find you.

11 "And now you say, 'Go, say to your master, "Ēliyahu is here" '!

12 "And it shall be, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Ruah of אֱלֹהִים takes you away to a place I do not know. And I shall come to report to Aḥaḇ, and when he does not find you, he shall kill me. But I your servant have revered אֱלֹהִים from my youth.

13 "Was it not reported to my master what I did when Izeḇel slew the neḇi'im of אֱלֹהִים, how I hid one hundred men of the nebi'im of אֱלִיָּהוּ, fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 “And now you say, ‘Go, say to your master, “Ēliyahu is here!” ’ Then he shall slay me.”

15 And Ēliyahu said, “As אֱלִיָּהוּ of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I shall indeed show myself to him today.”

16 Obadyahu then went to meet Aḥaḇ and informed him, and Aḥaḇ went to meet Ēliyahu.

17 And it came to be, when Aḥaḇ saw Ēliyahu, that Aḥaḇ said to him, “Is that you, O disturber of Yisra'el?”

18 And he answered, “I have not disturbed Yisra'el, but you and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the Commands of אֱלִיָּהוּ, and you have followed the Ba'als.

19 “And now, send and gather all Yisra'el to me on Mount Karmel, the four hundred and fifty prophets of Ba'al, and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Izebel's table.”

20 Aḥaḇ then sent for all the children of Yisra'el, and gathered the prophets on Mount Karmel.

21 And Ēliyahu came to all the people, and said, “How long would you keep hopping between two opinions? If אֱלִיָּהוּ is Elohim, follow Him; and if Ba'al, follow him.” But the people answered him not a word.

22 And Ēliyahu said to the people, “I alone am left a nabi of אֱלִיָּהוּ, but the prophets of Ba'al are four hundred and fifty men.

23 “Now let them give us two bulls. And let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, but light no fire. And I, I prepare the other bull, and shall lay it on the wood, but light no fire.

24 “And you shall call on the name of your mighty one, and I, I call on the Name of אֱלֹהִים. And the Elohim who answers by fire, He is Elohim.” So all the people answered and said, “The word is good.”

25 And Ēliyahu said to the prophets of Ba'al, “Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first, for you are many. And call on the name of your mighty one, but light no fire.”

26 So they took the bull which was given them, and prepared it, and called on the name of Ba'al from morning even until noon, saying, “O Ba'al, answer us!” But there was no voice and no one answered. And they leaped about the altar which they had made.

27 And it came to be at noon, that Ēliyahu taunted them and said, “Cry aloud, for he is a mighty one; he is meditating, or he is busy, or he is on a journey, or it could be that he is asleep and has to be awakened!”

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves, according to their ruling, with knives and spears, until the blood gushed out on them.

29 And it came to be when midday was past, that they naḅu until the time of bringing the offering. But there was no voice and no one answered, and no one paying attention.

30 Then Ēliyahu said to all the people, “Come closer to me.” And all the people came closer to him. And he repaired the altar of אֱלֹהִים that was broken down.

31 And Ēliyahu took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Ya'aqoḅ, to whom the word of אֱלֹהִים had come, saying, “Yisra'el is your name.”

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the Name of אֱלֹהִים. And he made a trench around the altar large enough to hold two se'im of seed.

33 And he arranged the wood, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood."

34 Then he said, "Do it a second time," and they did it a second time. And he said, "Do it a third time," and they did it a third time.

35 And the water flowed around the altar, and he filled the trench with water too.

36 And it came to be, at the time of bringing the offering, that Ēliyahu the nabī came near and said, "אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Abraham, Yitshaq, and Yisra'el, let it be known today: You are Elohim in Yisra'el, and I Your servant, have done all these matters by Your word.

37 "Answer me, O אֱלֹהִים, answer me, and let this people know that You are אֱלֹהִים Elohim, and You shall turn their hearts back to You again."

38 Then the fire of אֱלֹהִים fell and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood and the stones and the dust, and it licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And all the people saw, and fell on their faces, and said, "אֱלֹהִים, He is the Elohim! אֱלֹהִים, He is the Elohim!"

40 And Ēliyahu said to them, "Seize the prophets of Ba'al! Do not let one of them escape!" So they seized them, and Ēliyahu brought them down to the wadi Qishon and slew them there.

41 And Ēliyahu said to Aḥab, "Go up, eat and drink, because of the sound of the noise of rain."

42 And Aḥaḇ went up to eat and to drink. And Ēliyahu went up to the top of Karmel, and he bowed down on the ground, and put his face between his knees,

43 and said to his servant, “Go up, please, look closely toward the sea.” So he went up and looked closely, and said, “Not a speck.” And seven times he said, “Go again.”

44 And it came to be the seventh time, that he said, “See, a little cloud as small as a man’s hand is coming out of the sea!” And he said, “Go up, say to Aḥaḇ, ‘Hitch up, and go down before the rain stops you.’ ”

45 And in the meantime, it came to be that the shamayim became black with clouds and wind, and there was a heavy rain, while Aḥaḇ rode and went to Yizre’ēl.

46 And the hand of אַיָּהוָה was on Ēliyahu. And he girded up his loins and ran ahead of Aḥaḇ to the entrance of Yizre’ēl.

19 And when Aḥaḇ reported to Izeḇel all that Ēliyahu had done, also how he slew all the prophets with the sword,

2 Izeḇel sent a messenger to Ēliyahu, saying, “So let the mighty ones do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.”

3 And he feared, and rose up and ran for his life, and went to Be’ērsheḇa, which belongs to Yahuḏah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a broom tree, and prayed that he might die, and said, “It is enough! Now, אֱלֹהִים, take my life, for I am no better than my fathers!”

5 And he lay and slept under a broom tree, and see, a messenger touched him, and said to him, “Rise, eat.”

6 And he looked and saw by his head a cake baked on coals, and a jar of water. So he ate and drank, and turned and lay down.

7 And the messenger of אֱלֹהִים came back the second time, and touched him, and said, “Rise, eat, for the journey is too much for you.”

8 And he rose up and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights as far as Ḥorēḇ, the mountain of Elohim.

9 And there he went into a cave and spent the night there. And see, the word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, and said to him, “What are you doing here, Ēliyahu?”

10 And he said, “I have been very ardent for אֱלֹהִים Elohim of hosts, for the children of Yisra’el have forsaken Your Covenant. They have thrown down Your altars, and they have slain Your neḇi’im with the sword, and I am left, I alone, and they seek my life, to take it.”

11 And He said, “Go out, and stand on the mountain before אֱלֹהִים.” And see, אֱלֹהִים passed by, and a great and strong wind tearing the mountains and breaking the rocks in pieces before אֱלֹהִים - אֱלֹהִים was not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake - אֱלֹהִים was not in the earthquake, 12 and after the earthquake a fire - אֱלֹהִים was not in the fire, and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it came to be, when Ēliyahu heard it, that he wrapped his face in his robe and went out and stood at the cave opening. And see, a voice came to him, and said, “What are you doing here, Ēliyahu?”

14 And he said, "I have been very ardent for אֱלֹהִים Elohim of hosts, for the children of Yisra'el have forsaken Your Covenant. They have thrown down Your altars, and they have slain Your nebi'im with the sword, and I am left, I alone, and they seek my life, to take it."

15 And אֱלֹהִים said to him, "Go, return on your way to the Wilderness of Dammeseq. And you shall go in and anoint Ḥaza'el as sovereign over Aram.

16 "And anoint Yahu son of Nimshi as sovereign over Yisra'el. And anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Aḅel Meḥolah as nabi in your place.

17 "And it shall be that whoever escapes the sword of Ḥaza'el, Yahu kills. And whoever escapes from the sword of Yahu, Elisha kills.

18 "And I shall leave seven thousand in Yisra'el, all whose knees have not bowed to Ba'al, and every mouth that has not kissed him."

19 And he went from there, and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was ploughing with twelve yokes before him, and he was with the twelfth. And Ēliyahu passed by him and threw his robe on him.

20 And he left the oxen and ran after Ēliyahu, and said, "Please let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I follow you." And he said to him, "Go, turn back, for what have I done to you?"

21 And he turned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen and slaughtered them and cooked their flesh, using the implements of the oxen, and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he rose up and followed Ēliyahu, and became his servant.

20 And Ben-Hadaḅ the sovereign of Aram gathered all his army, and there were thirty-two sovereigns with him, with horses and chariots. And he went up and besieged Shomeron, and fought against it.

2 And he sent messengers into the city to Aḥab sovereign of Yisra'ël, and said to him, "Thus said Ben-Haḏaḏ,

3 'Your silver and your gold are mine, and your wives and children, the best, are mine.' "

4 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël answered and said, "As you say, my master, O sovereign, I am yours, and all that I have."

5 And the messengers came back and said, "Thus speaks Ben-Haḏaḏ, saying, 'Indeed I have sent to you, saying, "Give me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children,"

6 but about this time tomorrow I shall send my servants to you, and they shall search your house and the houses of your servants. And it shall be, that whatever is pleasing in your eyes they shall lay hold of and take it.' "

7 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël called all the elders of the land, and said, "Please know and see the evil this one is seeking, for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I did not refuse him."

8 And all the elders and all the people said to him, "Do not listen nor agree."

9 So he said to the messengers of Ben-Haḏaḏ, "Say to my master the sovereign, 'All that you sent for to your servant the first time I shall do, but this I am unable to do.' " And the messengers went and brought back word to him.

10 And Ben-Haḏaḏ sent to him and said, "The mighty ones do so to me, and more also, if enough dust is left of Shomeron for a handful for each of the people who follow me."

11 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël answered and said, "Speak, 'Him who girds on should not boast like him who lays it down.' "

12 And it came to be when this word was heard, as he and the sovereigns were drinking in the booths, that he said to his servants, "Ready yourselves." So they turned themselves against the city.

13 And see, a nabî came near to Aḥab sovereign of Yisra'ël, saying, "Thus said אִיִּי, 'Have you seen all this great company? See, I am giving it into your hand today, and you shall know that I am אִיִּי.' "

14 And Aḥab said, "By whom?" And he said, "Thus said אִיִּי, 'By the young rulers of the provinces.' " And he said, "Who opens the attack?" Then he answered, "You."

15 And he mustered the young rulers of the provinces, and there were two hundred and thirty-two. And after them he mustered all the people, all the children of Yisra'ël, seven thousand.

16 And they went out at noon, while Ben-Haḡaḡ and the thirty-two sovereigns helping him were getting drunk in the booths.

17 And the young rulers of the provinces went out first. And Ben-Haḡaḡ sent out, and they reported to him, saying, "Men have come out of Shomeron!"

18 Then he said, "If they have come out for peace, seize them alive. And if they have come out for battle, seize them alive."

19 So these young rulers of the provinces went out of the city with the army which followed them.

20 And each smote his man, so the Arameans fled, and Yisra'ël pursued them. And Ben-Haḡaḡ the sovereign of Aram escaped on a horse with the horsemen.

21 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël went out and smote the horses and chariots, and smote the Arameans, a great smiting.

22 And the nabi came to the sovereign of Yisra'ël and said to him, "Go, strengthen yourself. And know and see what you should do, for at the turn of the year the sovereign of Aram is coming up against you."

23 And the servants of the sovereign of Aram said to him, "Their mighty ones are mighty ones of the hills. That is why they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain - are we not stronger than they?"

24 "Now do this: Take away the sovereigns, each from his position, and put officers in their places, 25 and number an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot, and let us fight against them in the plain - are we not stronger than they?" And he listened to their voice and did so.

26 And it came to be, at the turn of the year, that Ben-Hadaḡ mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphëq to fight against Yisra'ël.

27 And the children of Yisra'ël were mustered and were fed, and they went against them. And the children of Yisra'ël encamped before them like two little flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the land.

28 And there came near a man of Elohim and spoke to the sovereign of Yisra'ël, and said, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'Because the Arameans have said, "אֱלֹהִים is Elohim of the hills, but He is not Elohim of the valleys," therefore I shall give all this great company into your hand, and you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים.'"

29 And they encamped opposite each other for seven days. And it came to be that on the seventh day the battle was joined. And the children of Yisra'el smote one hundred thousand foot soldiers of the Arameans in one day.

30 And those that were left fled to Aphēq, into the city, and a wall fell on twenty-seven thousand of the men who were left. And Ben-Haḏaḏ fled and went into the city, into an inner room.

31 And his servants said to him, "See now, we have heard that the sovereigns of the house of Yisra'el are kind sovereigns. Please, let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our heads, and go out to the sovereign of Yisra'el. It could be that he spares your life."

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins and put ropes around their heads, and came to the sovereign of Yisra'el and said, "Your servant Ben-Haḏaḏ said, 'Please let me live.' " And he said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

33 And the men divined and they quickly grasped it and said, "Your brother Ben-Haḏaḏ." And he said, "Go, bring him." So Ben-Haḏaḏ came out to him, and he let him come up on the chariot.

34 And Ben-Haḏaḏ said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I return. And put up marketplaces for yourself in Dammeseq, as my father did in Shomeron." And Aḥaḅ said, "I send you away with this covenant." And he made a covenant with him and sent him away.

35 And a certain man of the sons of the neḅi'im said to his neighbour by the word of אִיִּי, "Strike me, please." But the man refused to smite him.

36 Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of אִיִּי, see, as soon as you leave me a lion shall smite you.” And when he left him, a lion found him and smote him.

37 And he found another man, and said, “Strike me, please.” So the man struck him, striking and wounding.

38 Then the nabī went and waited for the sovereign by the way, and disguised himself with ashes on his eyes.

39 And as the sovereign passed by, he cried out to the sovereign and said, “Your servant went out into the midst of the battle. And see, a man came over and brought a man to me, and said, ‘Guard this man. If he should in any way be missing, your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a kiḡar of silver.’

40 “And it came to be, while your servant was busy here and there, he was gone.” And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl said to him, “Your judgment is right, you yourself have decided it.”

41 Then he quickly removed the ashes from his eyes. And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl recognised him as one of the neḇi’im.

42 And he said to him, “Thus said אִי־אִי, ‘Because you have let slip out of your hand a man whom I put under the ban, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.’ ”

43 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl went to his house embittered and displeased, and came to Shomeron.

21 And it came to be, after these events, that Naḇoth the Yizre’ēlite had a vineyard which was in Yizre’ēl, near the palace of Aḥaḇ the sovereign of Shomeron.

2 And Aḥaḇ spoke to Naḇoth, saying, “Give me your vineyard, and it shall be a vegetable garden for me, since it adjoins my house. And let me give you a better vineyard for it. If it is good in your eyes, let me give you its worth in silver.”

3 And Naboth said to Ahab, “Far be it from me, by אִי־אֶזְכֹּר, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!”

4 And Ahab went into his house embittered and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Yizre’elite had spoken to him when he said, “I do not give you the inheritance of my fathers.” And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, and did not eat food.

5 And Izebel his wife came to him, and said to him, “Why is your spirit so embittered that you are not eating food?”

6 And he said to her, “Because I spoke to Naboth the Yizre’elite, and said to him, ‘Give me your vineyard for silver, or if you prefer, I give you another vineyard for it.’ But he answered, ‘I do not give you my vineyard.’ ”

7 So Izebel his wife said to him, “Do you now rule over Yisra’el? Rise up, eat food, and let your heart be glad. Let me give you the vineyard of Naboth the Yizre’elite!”

8 Then she wrote letters in Ahab’s name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and the nobles who were dwelling in the city with Naboth.

9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, “Proclaim a fast, and seat Naboth at the head of the people,

10 and seat two men, sons of Beliya’al before him to bear witness against him, saying, ‘You have blasphemed Elohim and the sovereign.’ Then you shall take him out, and stone him to death.”

11 And the men of his city, the elders and nobles who were inhabitants of his city, did as Izebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.

12 They proclaimed a fast, and seated Naboth at the head of the people.

13 And the men, sons of Beliya'al, came in and sat before him. And the men of Beliya'al witnessed against him, against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth has blasphemed Elohim and the sovereign!" So they took him outside the city and stoned him with stones, and he died.

14 And they sent to Izebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned and is dead."

15 And it came to be, when Izebel heard that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, that Izebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Yizre'elite, which he refused to give you for silver, for Naboth is not alive but dead."

16 And it came to be, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose to go down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Yizre'elite.

17 And the word of אִיִּזְרְאֵל came to Ēliyahu the Tishbite, saying,

18 "Rise up, go down to meet Ahab sovereign of Yisra'el, who lives in Shomeron. See, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it.

19 "And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus said אִיִּזְרְאֵל, "Have you murdered and also taken possession?" ' And you shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus said אִיִּזְרְאֵל, "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, the dogs are going to lick your blood, even yours." ' "

20 And Ahab said to Ēliyahu, "Have you found me, O my enemy?" And he answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do evil in the eyes of אֲשֵׁרָא:

21 'See, I am bringing evil on you, and shall consume your descendants, and cut off from Aḥaḇ every male in Yisra'ël, both those shut up and those left at large,

22 and make your house like the house of Yarob'am son of Neḇat, and like the house of Ba'asha son of Aḥiyahu, because of the provocation with which you have provoked Me, and made Yisra'ël sin.'

23 "And also of Izeḇel אֲשֵׁרָא has spoken, saying, 'The dogs are going to eat Izeḇel by the wall of Yizre'ël.'

24 "The dogs are going to eat whoever belongs to Aḥaḇ and dies in the city, and the birds of the shamayim are going to eat whoever dies in the field."

25 Indeed, there never was anyone like Aḥaḇ who sold himself to do evil in the eyes of אֲשֵׁרָא, because Izeḇel his wife stirred him up.

26 And he acted very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites had done, whom אֲשֵׁרָא dispossessed from before the children of Yisra'ël.

27 And it came to be, when Aḥaḇ heard those words, that he tore his garments and put sackcloth on his body, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

28 And the word of אֲשֵׁרָא came to Ēliyahu the Tishbite, saying,

29 "See how Aḥaḇ has humbled himself before Me? Because he has humbled himself before Me, I do not bring the evil in his days, but in the days of his son I bring the evil on his house."

22 And they continued three years without fighting between Aram and Yisra'ël.

2 And it came to be, in the third year, that Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudāh came down to the sovereign of Yisra'ël.

3 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth in Gil'ad is ours, and we are keeping silent from taking it out of the hand of the sovereign of Aram!"

4 And he said to Yahoshaphat, "Do you go with me to battle at Ramoth Gil'ad?" And Yahoshaphat said to the sovereign of Yisra'ël, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

5 And Yahoshaphat said to the sovereign of Yisra'ël, "Please, first inquire for the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל."

6 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël gathered the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Do I go against Ramoth Gil'ad to battle, or do I refrain?" And they said, "Go up, for אִיִּזְרָאֵל gives it into the hand of the sovereign."

7 And Yahoshaphat said, "Is there not here a nabi of אִיִּזְרָאֵל besides, that we might inquire of him?"

8 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël said to Yahoshaphat, "There is still one man, Miḳayahu son of Yimlah, to inquire of אִיִּזְרָאֵל by him. But I hate him, because he does not naḅa good concerning me, but evil." And Yahoshaphat said, "Let not the sovereign say so!"

9 So the sovereign of Yisra'ël called an officer and said, "Bring Miḳayahu son of Yimlah at once!"

10 And the sovereign of Yisra'ël and Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudāh were sitting, each on his throne, dressed in their robes, at a threshing-floor at the entrance of the gate of Shomeron. And all the prophets were naba before them.

11 And Tsidqiyahu son of Kena'anah had made horns of iron for himself, and said, "Thus said אִיִּזְבַּב, 'With these you push the Arameans until they are destroyed.' "

12 And all the prophets were naba so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gil'ad and prosper, for אִיִּזְבַּב shall give it into the hand of the sovereign."

13 And the messenger who had gone to call Miqayahu spoke to him, saying, "See now, the words of the prophets with one mouth are good towards the sovereign. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and you shall speak good."

14 And Miqayahu said, "As אִיִּזְבַּב lives, whatever אִיִּזְבַּב says to me, that I speak."

15 And he came to the sovereign, and the sovereign said to him, "Miqayahu, do we go against Ramoth Gil'ad to battle, or do we refrain?" And he answered him, "Go and prosper, for אִיִּזְבַּב shall give it into the hand of the sovereign!"

16 And the sovereign said to him, "How many times have I made you swear that you do not speak to me, except the truth, in the Name of אִיִּזְבַּב?"

17 So he said, "I saw all Yisra'el scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And אִיִּזְבַּב said, 'These have no master. Let everyone return to his house in peace.' "

18 And the sovereign of Yisra'el said to Yahoshaphat, "Have I not said to you that he would not naba good concerning me, but evil?"

19 Then he said, "Therefore hear the word of אִיִּזְבַּב: I saw אִיִּזְבַּב sitting on His throne, and all the host of the shamayim standing by Him, on His right and on His left.

20 “And אִיָּאָז said, ‘Who shall entice Aḥaḇ to go up and fall at Ramoth Gil’ad?’ And this one said this, and another said that.

21 “And a spirit came forward and stood before אִיָּאָז, and said, ‘Let me entice him.’

22 “And אִיָּאָז said to him, ‘In what way?’ And he said, ‘I shall go out and be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And He said, ‘Entice him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.’

23 “And now, see, אִיָּאָז has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and אִיָּאָז has spoken evil concerning you.”

24 And Tsidqiyahu son of Kena’anah came near and struck Miḳayahu on the cheek, and said, “Where did the spirit of אִיָּאָז pass over from me to speak to you?”

25 And Miḳayahu said, “Look, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner room to hide!”

26 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl said, “Take Miḳayahu, and return him to Amon the governor of the city, and to Yo’ash son of the sovereign,

27 and say, ‘Thus said the sovereign, “Put this one in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction until I come in peace.” ’ ”

28 And Miḳayahu said, “If you ever return in peace, אִיָּאָז has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Hear, all you people!”

29 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl and Yahoshaphat the sovereign of Yahudāh went up to Ramoth Gil’ad.

30 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl said to Yahoshaphat, “Let me disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your robes.” So the sovereign of Yisra’ēl disguised himself and went into battle.

31 And the sovereign of Aram had commanded the thirty-two commanders of his chariots, saying, “Fight with no one small or great, but only with the sovereign of Yisra'ël.”

32 And it came to be, when the commanders of the chariots saw Yahoshaphat, that they said, “Indeed, it is the sovereign of Yisra'ël!” So they turned aside to fight against him, and Yahoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to be, when the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the sovereign of Yisra'ël, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a man drew a bow in his simplicity, and smote the sovereign of Yisra'ël between the joints of his armour. And he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”

35 And the battle increased that day. And the sovereign was propped up in his chariot, facing the Arameans, and died at evening, and the blood ran out from the wound onto the floor of the chariot.

36 And as the sun was going down, a shout passed through the camp, saying, “Each to his city, and each to his land!”

37 So the sovereign died and was brought to Shomeron, and they buried the sovereign in Shomeron.

38 And when the chariot was washed at a pool in Shomeron, the dogs licked up his blood, where the whores bathed, according to the word of אִי אִי אִי which He had spoken.

39 And the rest of the acts of Aḥaḇ and all that he did, and the ivory house which he built and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël?

40 So Aḥaḇ slept with his fathers, and Aḥazyahu his son reigned in his place.

41 And Yahoshaphat son of Asa began to reign over Yahudah in the fourth year of Ahab sovereign of Yisra'el.

42 Yahoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became sovereign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of his father Asa. He did not turn aside from them, doing what was right in the eyes of אלהים. Only, the high places were not taken away, for the people slaughtered and burned incense on the high places.

44 And Yahoshaphat made peace with the sovereign of Yisra'el.

45 And the rest of the acts of Yahoshaphat, and the might that he showed, and how he fought, are they not written in the Book of the Annals of the sovereigns of Yahudah?

46 And the rest of the cult prostitutes, who remained in the days of his father Asa, he cleared out from the land.

47 And there was then no sovereign in Edom, a deputy was sovereign.

48 Yahoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold. However, they did not go, for the ships were wrecked at Etsyon Geber.

49 Then Ahazyahu son of Ahab said to Yahoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Yahoshaphat would not.

50 So Yahoshaphat slept with fathers, and was buried with fathers in the City of Dawid his father. And Yahoram his son reigned in his place.

51 Ahazyahu son of Ahab began to reign over Yisra'el in Shomeron in the seventeenth year of Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudah, and reigned two years over Yisra'el,

52 and did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and walked in the way of his father and in the way of his mother and in the way of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'el sin,
53 and served Ba'al and bowed himself to it, and provoked אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, according to all that his father had done.

מלכים ב' 2

1 And Mo'ab revolted against Yisra'ël after the death of Aḥab.

2 And Aḥazyahu fell through the lattice of his upper room in Shomeron, and was injured, and sent messengers and said to them, "Go, inquire of Ba'al-Zebub, the mighty one of Eqron, if I shall recover from this injury."

3 But a messenger of אֲחָזָה spoke to Ēliyahu the Tishbite, "Rise up, go up to meet the messengers of the sovereign of Shomeron, and say to them, 'Is it because there is no Elohim in Yisra'ël that you are going to inquire of Ba'al-Zebub, the mighty one of Eqron?'

4 "So therefore, thus said אֲחָזָה, 'You are not going to get out of the bed to which you have gone up, for you shall certainly die.' " And Ēliyahu went.

5 And the messengers returned to him, and he said to them, "Why have you come back?"

6 And they said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the sovereign who sent you, and say to him, "Thus said אֲחָזָה, 'Is it because there is no Elohim in Yisra'ël that you are sending to Ba'al-Zebub, the mighty one of Eqron? Therefore you are not going to get out of the bed to which you have gone up, for you shall certainly die.' " " " "

7 And he said to them, "What was the man like who came up to meet you and spoke to you these words?"

8 And they answered him, "He was a hairy man, and wore a leather girdle around his waist." And he said, "It is Ēliyahu the Tishbite."

9 He then sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he went up to him, and see, he was sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him, "Man of Elohim, the sovereign has said, 'Come down!'"

10 And Ēliyahu answered and said to the captain of fifty, "And if I am a man of Elohim, let fire come down from the shamayim and consume you and your fifty men." And fire came down from the shamayim and consumed him and his fifty.

11 He then sent another captain of fifty with his fifty men to him. And he answered and said to him, "Man of Elohim, this is what the sovereign said, 'Come down at once!'"

12 And Ēliyahu answered and said to them, "If I am a man of Elohim, let fire come down from the shamayim and consume you and your fifty men." And a fire of Elohim came down from the shamayim and consumed him and his fifty.

13 And again he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Ēliyahu, and pleaded with him, and said to him, "Man of Elohim, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your eyes.

14 "See, fire has come down from the shamayim and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life be precious in your eyes."

15 And the Messenger of אֱלֹהִים said to Ēliyahu, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he rose up and went down with him to the sovereign,

16 and spoke to him, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Ba'al-Zebub, the mighty one of Eqron, is it because there is no Elohim in Yisra'el to inquire of His word? Therefore you are not going to get out of the bed to which you have gone up, for you shall certainly die.’ ”

17 And he died, according to the word of אֱלִיָּהוּ which Ēliyahu had spoken. And Yahoram reigned in his place, in the second year of Yahoram son of Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudāh, for he had no son.

18 And the rest of the acts of Aḥazyahu which he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra’ēl?

2 And it came to be, when אֱלִיָּהוּ was to take up Ēliyahu to the shamayim by a whirlwind, that Ēliyahu went with Elisha from Gilgal.

2 And Ēliyahu said to Elisha, “Please remain here, for אֱלִיָּהוּ has sent me on to Běyth Ēl.” And Elisha said, “As אֱלִיָּהוּ lives, and as your being lives, I do not leave you!” And they went down to Běyth Ēl.

3 And the sons of the neḇi’im who were at Běyth Ēl came out to Elisha, and said to him, “Do you know that אֱלִיָּהוּ is taking away your master from your head?” And he said, “I also know, be silent!”

4 And Ēliyahu said to him, “Elisha, please remain here, for אֱלִיָּהוּ has sent me on to Yeriḥo.” And he said, “As אֱלִיָּהוּ lives, and as your being lives, I do not leave you!” And they came into Yeriḥo.

5 And the sons of the neḇi’im who were at Yeriḥo came to Elisha and said to him, “Do you know that אֱלִיָּהוּ is taking away your master from over you today?” And he said, “I also know, be silent!”

6 And Ēliyahu said to him, “Please remain here, for אֱלִיָּהוּ has sent me on to the Yardēn.” And he said, “As אֱלִיָּהוּ lives, and as your being lives, I do not leave you!” And the two of them went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the nebi'im went and stood facing them at a distance, while the two of them stood by the Yardēn.

8 And Ĕliyahu took his mantle, and rolled it up, and struck the water. And it was divided this way and that, so that the two of them passed over on dry ground.

9 And it came to be, when they had passed over, that Ĕliyahu said to Elisha, "Ask what I am to do for you, before I am taken away from you!" And Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

10 And he said, "You have made it hard to ask, yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it is yours; but if not, it is not."

11 And it came to be, as they continued on and spoke, that see, a chariot of fire with horses of fire which separated the two of them. And Ĕliyahu went up by a whirlwind into the shamayim.

12 And Elisha saw it, and he cried out, "My father, my father, the chariot of Yisra'ēl and its horsemen!" And he saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own garments and tore them into two pieces.

13 And he took up the mantle of Ĕliyahu that had fallen from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Yardēn.

14 And he took the mantle of Ĕliyahu that had fallen from him, and struck the water, and said, "Where is אלהים Elohim of Ĕliyahu?" And he struck the water, and it was divided this way and that, and Elisha passed over.

15 And when the sons of the nebi'im who were from Yeriho saw him, they said, "The spirit of Ĕliyahu rests on Elisha." And they came to meet him, and bowed to the ground before him.

16 And they said to him, "Look, there are fifty strong men with your servants. Please let them go and search for your master, lest the Ruah of אִיָּאֵל has taken him up and cast him upon some mountain or into some valley." And he said, "Send no one."

17 But they pressed upon him till he was ashamed, and he said, "Send." So they sent fifty men, and they searched for three days but did not find him.

18 And they returned to him, for he remained in Yeriho, and he said to them, "Did I not say to you, 'Do not go'?"

19 And the men of the city said to Elisha, "Look, the site of this city is good, as my master sees, but the waters are spoilt, and the land barren."

20 And he said, "Bring me a new bowl, and put salt in it." And they brought it to him.

21 And he went out to the source of the water, and threw salt in there, and said, "Thus said אִיָּאֵל, 'I have healed this water - no longer shall death or barrenness come from it.' "

22 And the waters were healed, to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

23 And he went up from there to Běyth Ėl. And as he was going up the way, some youths came from the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, baldhead! Go up, baldhead!"

24 And he turned around and looked at them, and pronounced a curse on them in the Name of אִיָּאֵל. And two female bears came out of the forest and tore to pieces forty-two of the youths.

25 And from there he went to Mount Karmel, and from there he returned to Shomeron.

3 And Yahoram son of Aḥaḇ began to reign over Yisra'ěl at Shomeron in the eighteenth year of Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudāh, and reigned twelve years.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, but not like his father and mother; for he removed the statue of Ba'al which his father had made.

3 But he clung to the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'el sin. He did not turn away from them.

4 And Mēysha sovereign of Mo'ab was a sheep-breeder, and he paid the sovereign of Yisra'el one hundred thousand lambs and the wool of one hundred thousand rams.

5 And it came to be, when Ahab died, that the sovereign of Mo'ab revolted against the sovereign of Yisra'el.

6 And Sovereign Yahoram went out of Shomeron at that time and mustered all Yisra'el.

7 And he went and sent to Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudāh, saying, "The sovereign of Mo'ab has revolted against me. Do you go with me to fight against Mo'ab?" And he said, "I go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses."

8 And he said, "Which way do we go up?" And he said, "By way of the Wilderness of Edom."

9 And the sovereign of Yisra'el went, and the sovereign of Yahudāh and the sovereign of Edom, and went round a journey of seven days. And there was no water for the army, nor for the cattle that followed them.

10 And the sovereign of Yisra'el said, "What? Has אֱלֹהִים called these three sovereigns to give them into the hand of Mo'ab?"

11 And Yahoshaphat said, "Is there no nabi of אֱלֹהִים here? Then let us inquire of אֱלֹהִים through him." One of the servants of the sovereign of Yisra'el then answered and said, "Elisha son of Shaphat is here, who poured water out on the hands of Ēliyahu."

12 And Yahoshaphat said, "The word of אֱלִיָּהוּ is with him." And the sovereign of Yisra'el and Yahoshaphat and the sovereign of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said to the sovereign of Yisra'el, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father and the prophets of your mother." And the sovereign of Yisra'el said to him, "No, for אֱלִיָּהוּ has called these three sovereigns to give them into the hand of Mo'ab."

14 And Elisha said, "As אֱלִיָּהוּ of hosts lives, before whom I stand, if it were not that I regard the presence of Yahoshaphat sovereign of Yahudah, I would not look at you nor see you.

15 "And now, bring me a harpist." And it came to be, when the harpist played, that the hand of אֱלִיָּהוּ came upon him.

16 And he said, "Thus said אֱלִיָּהוּ, 'Make this wadi ditches - ditches.'

17 "For thus said אֱלִיָּהוּ, 'You are not going to see wind, nor rain. Yet that wadi is to be filled with water, so that you, your cattle, and your beasts shall drink.'

18 "And this shall be but a light matter in the eyes of אֱלִיָּהוּ. And He shall give Mo'ab into your hand.

19 "And you shall smite every walled city and every choice city, and shall cut down every good tree, and stop up every fountain of water, and ruin every good piece of land with stones."

20 And it came to be in the morning, when the grain offering was offered, that see, water came by way of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

21 And when all Mo'ab heard that the sovereigns had come up to fight against them, all who were able to bear arms and older were gathered, and they stood at the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun was shining on the water. And the Mo'abites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.

23 And they said, "This is blood. The sovereigns have indeed struck swords and have killed one another. And now, Mo'ab, to the spoil!"

24 And they came to the camp of Yisra'el, and Yisra'el rose up and smote the Mo'abites, so that they fled before them. And they entered their land, and smote the Mo'abites.

25 And they broke down the cities, and each man threw a stone on every good piece of land and filled it. And they stopped up all the fountains of water and cut down all the good trees, until the stones of Qir Haraseth were left. And the slingers went round and smote it.

26 And when the sovereign of Mo'ab saw that the battle was too strong for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the sovereign of Edom, but they could not,

27 then took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great wrath against Yisra'el. And they left him and returned to the land.

4 And a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the nebi'im cried out to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant revered אֱלֹהִים. And the lender has come to take my two sons to be his slaves."

2 And Elisha said to her, "What should I do for you? Inform me, what do you have in the house?" And she said, "Your female servant has none at all in the house except a pot of oil."

3 And he said, "Go, borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbours, empty vessels, do not get a few.

4 "And when you have come in, you shall shut the door behind you and your sons. Then pour it into all those vessels, and put aside the filled ones."

5 So she went from him and shut the door behind her and her sons, who brought to her, and she poured it out.

6 And it came to be, when the vessels were filled, that she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." But he said to her, "There is not another vessel." And the oil ceased.

7 So she went and informed the man of Elohim, and he said, "Go, sell the oil and pay your debt. And you and your sons live on the rest."

8 And it came to be on a day that Elisha went to Shunēm, where there was a prominent woman, and she urged him to eat some food. And it came to be, as often as he passed by, that he turned in there to eat some food.

9 And she said to her husband, "Look, I know that this is a qodesh man of Elohim, who passes by us continually.

10 "Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall, and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand. And it shall be, whenever he comes to us, let him turn in there."

11 And it came to be on a day that he came there, and he turned in to the upper room and lay down there.

12 And he said to Gëhazi his servant, "Call this Shunammite woman." So he called her, and she stood before him.

13 And he said to him, "Please say to her, 'Look, you have gone to all this trouble for us. What is there to be done for you? Should I speak on your behalf to the sovereign or to the commander of the army?' " And she answered, "I am dwelling among my own people."

14 And he said, "What then is to be done for her?" And Gëhazi answered, "Well, she has no son, and her husband is old."

15 And he said, "Call her." So he called her, and she stood in the doorway.

16 And he said, "About this time next year you shall embrace a son." And she said, "No, my master, man of Elohim, do not lie to your female servant!"

17 And the woman conceived, and bore a son when the appointed time had come, of which Elisha had spoken to her.

18 And the child grew. And it came to be on a day that he went out to his father, to the reapers,

19 and he said to his father, "My head, my head!" And he said to a servant, "Take him to his mother."

20 So he took him and brought him to his mother, and he sat on her knees till noon, and died.

21 And she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of Elohim, and shut him in, and went out.

22 And she called to her husband, and said, "Please send me one of the young men and one of the donkeys, so that I hurry to the man of Elohim and return."

23 And he said, "Why are you going to him today? It is neither the New Moon nor the Shabbath." And she said, "It is well!"

24 And she saddled the donkey and said to her servant, "Drive and go, do not slow down, except I speak to you."

25 And she went, and came to the man of Elohim at Mount Karmel. And it came to be, when the man of Elohim saw her at a distance, that he said to his servant Gěḥazi, "See, the Shunammite woman.

26 "Please run now to meet her, and say to her, 'Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?' " And she answered, "It is well."

27 And she came to the man of Elohim at the hill, and she caught him by the feet, but Gěḥazi came near to push her away. But the man of Elohim said, "Leave her alone, for her being is bitter in her, and אִי־אִי has hidden it from me, and has not revealed it to me."

28 And she said, "Did I ask a son of my master? Did I not say, 'Do not deceive me'?"

29 And he said to Gěḥazi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go. When you meet anyone, do not greet him, and when anyone greets you, do not answer him. And you shall lay my staff on the face of the child."

30 And the mother of the child said, "As אִי־אִי lives, and as your being lives, I do not leave you." And he rose and followed her.

31 And Gěḥazi went on ahead of them, and laid the staff on the face of the child. But there was no voice and there was no hearing, so he went back to meet him, and reported to him, saying, "The child has not awakened."

32 And Elisha came into the house and saw the child was dead, lying on his bed,

33 and he went in, and shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to אִי־אִי.

34 And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands, and stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm.

35 And he returned and walked back and forth in the house, then went up and stretched himself out on him. And the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gēhazi and said, "Call this Shunammite." So he called her and she came in to him, and he said, "Pick up your son."

37 Then she went in and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and picked up her son and went out.

38 And Elisha returned to Gilgal. And the scarcity of food was in the land, and the sons of the nebi'im were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, "Put on the large pot, and cook stew for the sons of the nebi'im."

39 And one went out to the field to gather plants, and found a wild vine, and gathered wild cucumbers from it, filling the skirt of his garment, and came and sliced them into the pot of stew, though they did not know what they were.

40 They then served it to the men to eat. And it came to be, as they were eating the stew, that they cried out and said, "O man of Elohim, there is death in the pot!" And they were unable to eat it.

41 And he said, "Then bring some flour." And he put it into the pot, and said, "Serve it to the people to eat." And there was no evil matter in the pot.

42 Now a man came from Ba'al Shalishah, and brought the man of Elohim bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley bread, and newly ripened grain in his knapsack. And he said, "Give it to the people to eat."

43 And his servant said, "What? Do I put this before one hundred men?" And he said, "Give it to the people to eat. For thus said אִיִּי, 'Eat and have some left over.'"

44 And he put it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the word of אִיִּי.

5 And Na'aman, commander of the army of the sovereign of Aram, was a great man in the eyes of his master, and highly respected, because by him אִיִּי had given deliverance to Aram. And though a brave man, was leprous.

2 And the Arameans had gone out on raids, and had brought back captive a young girl from the land of Yisra'ël, and she served the wife of Na'aman.

3 And she said to her mistress, "If only my master were with the nabî who is in Shomeron! Then he would recover him of his leprosy."

4 And Na'aman went in and reported to his master, saying, "Thus and thus spoke the girl who is from the land of Yisra'ël."

5 And the sovereign of Aram said, "Go, enter, and let me send a letter to the sovereign of Yisra'ël." And he went and took with him ten kiḳars of silver, and six thousand gold, and ten changes of garments.

6 And he brought the letter to the sovereign of Yisra'ël, which said, "And now, when this letter comes to you, see I have sent Na'aman my servant to you, so that you shall recover him of his leprosy."

7 And it came to be, when the sovereign of Yisra'ël read the letter, that he tore his garments and said, "Am I Elohîm, to kill and keep alive, that this man sends a man to me to recover him of his leprosy? For consider now, and see how he is seeking an occasion with me!”

8 And it came to be, when Elisha the man of Elohim heard that the sovereign of Yisra'ël had torn his garments, that he sent to sovereign, saying, “Why have you torn your garments? Please let him come to me, so that he knows that there is a naḅi in Yisra'ël.”

9 So Na'aman came with his horses and chariot, and he stood at the entrance of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, “Go, and you shall wash seven times in the Yardën, that your flesh might be restored to you, and be clean.”

11 But Na'aman became wrath, and went away and said, “See, I said to myself, ‘He would certainly come out to me, and stand and call on the Name of אֱלֹהֵי his Elohim, and wave his hand over the place, and recover, the leprosy.’

12 “Are not the Aḅanah and the Pharpar, the rivers of Dammeseq, better than all the waters of Yisra'ël? Could I not wash in them and be clean?” And he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near and spoke to him, and said, “My father, if the naḅi had spoken to you a great matter, would you not have done it? How much more then, when he says to you, ‘Wash, and be clean’?”

14 Then he went down and dipped seven times in the Yardën, according to the word of the man of Elohim. And his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 And he returned to the man of Elohim, he and all his company, and came and stood before him and said, “See, now I know that there is no Elohim in all the earth, except in Yisra'ël. And now, please take a gift from your servant.”

16 But he said, "As אֱלֹהִים lives, before whom I stand, I do not accept it." And he pressed on him to accept it, but he refused.

17 Then Na'aman said, "If not, please let your servant be given two mule-loads of earth, for no longer is your servant going to make a burnt offering and slaughtering to other mighty ones, but to אֱלֹהִים.

18 "אֱלֹהִים grant forgiveness to your servant in this matter: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down in the house of Rimmon; when I bow down in the house of Rimmon, אֱלֹהִים, please grant forgiveness to your servant in this matter."

19 Then he said to him, "Go in peace." And he walked from him some distance.

20 But Gēḥazi, the servant of Elisha the man of Elohim, said, "Look, my master has spared Na'aman this Aramean, while not receiving from his hands what he brought. But as אֱלֹהִים lives, I shall run after him and take whatever from him."

21 And Gēḥazi pursued Na'aman. And when Na'aman saw him running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is there peace?"

22 And he said, "Peace. My master has sent me, saying, 'Look, even now two young men of the sons of the neḇi'im have come to me from the mountains of Ephrayim. Please give them a kiḳar of silver and two changes of garments.' "

23 And Na'aman said, "Please accept two kiḳars." And he urged him, and bound two kiḳars of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and handed them to two of his servants. And they bore them ahead of him.

24 And when he came to the high place, he took them from their hand, and stored them away in the house, and let the men go, and they went.

25 And he went in and stood before his master, and Elisha said to him, "Where did you go, Gēḥazi?" And he said, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

26 But he said to him, "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned back from his chariot to meet you? Is it time to accept silver and to accept garments, and olive trees and vineyards, and sheep and cattle, and male and female servants?"

27 "So let the leprosy of Na'aman cling to you and your descendants forever." And he went out from him as leprous as snow.

6 And the sons of the neḅi'im said to Elisha, "See, the place where we dwell with you is too small for us.

2 "Please, let us go to the Yardēn, and let every man take a log from there, and let us make there a place to dwell." And he answered, "Go."

3 Then the one said, "Please undertake to go with your servants." And he answered, "I shall go."

4 And he went with them, and they came to the Yardēn, and they cut down trees.

5 And it came to be, as one was cutting down a tree, that the iron axe head fell into the water. And he cried out and said, "Oh my master!" For it was borrowed.

6 And the man of Elohim said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. And he cut off a stick, and threw it in there, and made the iron float.

7 And he said, "Pick it up." And he reached out his hand and took it.

8 And the sovereign of Aram was fighting against Yisra'ēl, and took counsel with his servants, saying, "My camp is in such and such a place."

9 And the man of Elohim sent to the sovereign of Yisra'ël, saying, "Be on guard, do not pass this place, for the Arameans are coming down there."

10 The sovereign of Yisra'ël then sent to the place of which the man of Elohim had spoken to him, and warned him, so that he was on his guard there, not once, and not twice.

11 And this greatly troubled the heart of the sovereign of Aram. And he called his servants and said to them, "Declare to me! Who of us is for the sovereign of Yisra'ël?"

12 And one of his servants said, "None, my master, O sovereign, for Elisha, the nabî who is in Yisra'ël, declares to the sovereign of Yisra'ël the words that you speak in your bedroom."

13 And he said, "Go and see where he is, so that I send and get him." And it was reported to him, saying, "See, he is in Dothan."

14 And he sent horses and chariots and a great army there, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 And the servant of the man of Elohim rose early and went out, and saw an army, surrounding the city with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, "Oh, my master! What do we do?"

16 And he answered, "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them."

17 And Elisha prayed, and said, "אֱלֹהִים, I pray, open his eyes and let him see." And אֱלֹהִים opened the eyes of the young man, and he looked and saw the mountain covered with horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed to אֱלֹהִים, and said, "Strike this nation with blindness, I pray.” And He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19 And Elisha said to them, “This is not the way, nor is this the city. Follow me, and let me bring you to the man whom you seek.” But he led them to Shomeron.

20 And it came to be, when they had come to Shomeron, that Elisha said, “אִיִּי, open the eyes of these men so that they see.” And אִיִּי opened their eyes, and they looked and saw they were in the midst of Shomeron!

21 And when the sovereign of Yisra’ël saw them, he said to Elisha, “My father, should I smite? Should I smite?”

22 But he said, “Do not smite. Do you smite those whom you have taken captive with your sword and your bow? Put food and water before them and let them eat and drink and go to their master.”

23 And he made a great feast for them. And after they ate and drank, he let them go, and they went to their master. And the bands of Aramean raiders came no more into the land of Yisra’ël.

24 And after this it came to be that Ben-Hadad the sovereign of Aram mustered all his army, and went up and besieged Shomeron.

25 And there was a great scarcity of food in Shomeron. And see, they besieged it until a donkey’s head went at eighty pieces of silver, and one-fourth of a kab of dove droppings for five pieces of silver.

26 And it came to be, as the sovereign of Yisra’ël was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, “Help, my master, O sovereign!”

27 And he said, “If אִיִּי does not help you, where do I find help for you? From the threshing-floor or from the winepress?”

28 And the sovereign said to her, "What is troubling you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son and let us eat him today, and tomorrow we eat my son.'

29 "So we cooked my son, and ate him. And I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son and let us eat him.' But she has hidden her son."

30 And it came to be, when the sovereign heard the words of the woman, that he tore his garments. And as he passed by on the wall, the people looked and saw the sackcloth on his body, underneath.

31 And he said, "Elohim do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha son of Shaphat remains on him today."

32 And Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. And the sovereign sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent someone to take away my head? Look, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door. Is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

33 While he was still speaking with them, then see, the messenger came down to him, and he said, "Look, this evil is from אֲרָמָז, why should I wait for אֲרָמָז any longer?"

7 And Elisha said, "Hear the word of אֲרָמָז. Thus said אֲרָמָז, 'About this time tomorrow a se'ah of fine flour for a sheqel, and two se'im of barley for a sheqel, at the gate of Shomeron.' "

2 And an officer on whose hand the sovereign leaned answered the man of Elohim and said, "Look, if אֲרָמָז is making windows in the shamayim, shall this word come true?" And he said, "Look, you are about to see it with your eyes, but not eat of it."

3 And there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. And they said to each other, "Why are we sitting here until we are dead?"

4 "If we shall say, 'Let us go into the city,' the scarcity of food is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we shall die. And now, come, let us surrender to the army of the Arameans. If they keep us alive, we live. And if they kill us, we shall die."

5 So at twilight they rose up to go to the camp of the Arameans. And when they had come to the outskirts of the Aramean camp, look, no one was there.

6 For אַרְמֵי־אֲרָמִי had caused the army of the Arameans to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses, the noise of a great army, and they said to each other, "Look, the sovereign of Yisra'ël has hired against us the sovereigns of the Hittites and the sovereigns of the Mitsrites to come against us!"

7 So they rose up and fled at twilight, and left the camp as it is - their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys - and they fled for their lives.

8 And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and took from there silver and gold and garments, and went and hid them. And they came back and went into another tent, and took from there and went and hid it.

9 Then they said to each other, "We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we are keeping silent. And if we wait until morning light, then wickedness shall come upon us. And now, come, let us go and inform the house of the sovereign."

10 And they came and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and informed them, saying, "We went to the camp of Aram, and look, there is not a man or a voice of man, only horses tied and donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.”

11 And the gatekeepers called, and they informed the house of the sovereign inside.

12 So the sovereign rose up in the night and said to his servants, “Let me now inform you what the Arameans have done to us. They know that we are starving, so they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, ‘When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and enter into the city.’ ”

13 And one of his servants answered and said, “Please, let some take five of the horses that are left in the city. Look, they are like the entire crowd of Yisra’ël that are left in it, look, they are like the entire crowd of Yisra’ël left from those who are consumed. So let us send and see.”

14 They then took two chariots with horses. And the sovereign sent them in the direction of the camp of Aram, saying, “Go and see.”

15 And they went after them to the Yardën. And look, all the way was littered with garments and weapons which the Arameans had thrown away in their haste. And the messengers returned and reported to the sovereign.

16 Then the people went out and plundered the camp of Aram. So a se’ah of fine flour was for a sheqel, and two se’im of barley for a sheqel, according to the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

17 And the sovereign had appointed the officer on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate. But the people trampled him in the gate, and he died, as the man of Elohim had said, who spoke when the sovereign came down to him.

18 And it came to be, as the man of Elohim had spoken to the sovereign, saying, “Two se'im of barley for a sheqel, and a se'ah of fine flour for a sheqel, at this time tomorrow in the gate of Shomeron,”

19 that officer answered the man of Elohim, and said, “Now look, if אִרְאֵל is making windows in the shamayim, is it according to this word?” And he had said, “Look, you are about to see it with your eyes, but not eat of it.”

20 And so it came to be for him, for the people trampled him in the gate, and he died.

8 And Elisha spoke to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, “Rise up and go, you and your household, and sojourn wherever you do sojourn, for אִרְאֵל has called for a scarcity of food, and also, it is coming upon the land for seven years.”

2 And the woman rose up and did according to the word of the man of Elohim, and she went with her household and sojourned in the land of the Pelishtites, seven years.

3 And it came to be, at the end of seven years, that the woman returned from the land of the Pelishtites. And she went to cry out to the sovereign for her house and for her land.

4 And the sovereign was speaking to Gěḥazi, the servant of the man of Elohim, saying, “Please relate to me all the great matters Elisha has done.”

5 And it came to be, as he was relating to the sovereign how he had restored the dead to life, that see, the woman whose son he had restored to life, was crying out to the sovereign for her house and for her land. And Gěḥazi said, “My master, O sovereign, this is the woman, and this is her son whom Elisha restored to life.”

6 So the sovereign asked the woman, and she related to him. And the sovereign appointed a certain eunuch for her, saying, "Return all that was hers, and all the increase of the field from the day that she left the land until now."

7 And Elisha came to Dammeseq, and Ben-Hadaḡ sovereign of Aram was sick. And it was reported to him, saying, "The man of Elohim has come here."

8 And the sovereign said to Ḥaza'ěl, "Take a present in your hand, and go to meet the man of Elohim, and inquire of אִיִּיז by him, saying, 'Do I recover from this sickness?'"

9 And Ḥaza'ěl went to meet him and took a present with him, of all the goods of Dammeseq, forty camel-loads. And he came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Ben-Hadaḡ sovereign of Aram has sent me to you, saying, 'Do I recover from this sickness?'"

10 And Elisha said to him, "Go, say to him, 'You shall certainly recover.' But אִיִּיז has shown me that he shall certainly die."

11 And he looked steadily until he was ashamed. Then the man of Elohim wept.

12 And Ḥaza'ěl said, "Why is my master weeping?" And he answered, "Because I know the evil that you are going to do to the children of Yisra'ěl: Lighting their strongholds on fire, and slaying their young men with the sword, and dashing their children, and ripping open their women with child."

13 And Ḥaza'ěl said, "But what is your servant - a dog, that he should perform this great matter?" And Elisha answered, "אִיִּיז has shown that you are to be sovereign over Aram!"

14 And he left Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?" And he answered, "He said to me that you shall certainly recover."

15 And on the next day it came to be that he took a thick cloth and dipped it in water, and spread it over his face so that he died. And Haza'el reigned in his place.

16 And in the fifth year of Yahoram son of Ahab sovereign of Yisra'el - Yahoshaphat was sovereign of Yahudah - Yahoram son of Yahoshaphat began to reign as sovereign of Yahudah.

17 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Yerushalayim.

18 And he walked in the way of the sovereigns of Yisra'el, as the house of Ahab had done, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife. And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים.

19 However, אֱלֹהִים would not destroy Yahudah, for the sake of Dawid His servant, as He promised him to give a lamp to him and his sons forever.

20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Yahudah, and made a sovereign over themselves.

21 And Yoram passed over to Tsa'ir, and all his chariots with him. And he rose by night and smote the Edomites who had surrounded him and the commanders of the chariots, but his people fled to their tents.

22 Yet Edom has been in revolt from under the hand of Yahudah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Yoram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudah?

24 So Yoram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of Dawid. And Ahazyahu his son reigned in his place.

25 In the twelfth year of Yoram son of Aḥab sovereign of Yisra'ël, Aḥazyahu son of Yahoram sovereign of Yahudah began to reign.

26 Aḥazyahu was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Yerushalayim. And the name of his mother was Athalyahu, the granddaughter of Omri, sovereign of Yisra'ël.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Aḥab, and did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, as the house of Aḥab had done, for he was the son-in-law of the house of Aḥab.

28 And he went with Yoram son of Aḥab to battle against Ḥaza'ël sovereign of Aram at Ramoth Gil'ad, and the Arameans struck Yoram.

29 And Sovereign Yoram went back to Yizre'ël to recover from the wounds with which the Arameans had struck him at Ramah, when he fought against Ḥaza'ël sovereign of Aram. Then Aḥazyahu son of Yahoram, the sovereign of Yahudah, went down to see Yoram son of Aḥab in Yizre'ël, for he was sick.

9 And Elisha the nabi called one of the sons of the nebi'im, and said to him, "Gird your loins and take this flask of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gil'ad.

2 "And you shall go there and look there for Yahu son of Yahoshaphat, son of Nimshi, and go in and make him rise up from among his brothers, and take him to an inner room,

3 "and take the flask of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים, "I have anointed you sovereign over Yisra'ël." ' Then you shall open the door and flee, and do not wait."

4 So the young man - the young man the nabi - went to Ramoth Gil'ad,

5 and came in and saw the commanders of the army sitting. And he said, "I have a message for you, O commander." And Yahu said, "For which one of us?" And he said, "For you, commander."

6 And he rose up and went into the house. And he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, 'I anointed you sovereign over people of אֱלֹהִים, over Yisra'ël.

7 'And you shall smite the house of Aḥab your master, and I shall avenge the blood of My servants the nebi'im, and the blood of all the servants of אֱלֹהִים, at the hand of Izebel.

8 'And all the house of Aḥab shall perish. And I shall cut off from Aḥab all the males in Yisra'ël, both those shut up and those left at large.

9 'And I shall give up the house of Aḥab like the house of Yarob'am son of Nebat, and like the house of Ba'asha son of Aḥiyahu.

10 'And the dogs are going to eat Izebel in the portion of Yizre'ël, with none to bury her.' " Then he opened the door and fled.

11 And Yahu came out to the servants of his master, and one said to him, "Is there peace? Why did this madman come to you?" And he said to them, "You know the man and his talk."

12 And they said, "A lie! Reveal it to us now." So he said, "Thus and thus he spoke to me, saying, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים, "I have anointed you sovereign over Yisra'ël." ' "

13 And they hurried, and each one took his garment and put it under him on the top of the steps. And they blew a ram's horn, saying, "Yahu reigns!"

14 Thus Yahu son of Yahoshaphat, son of Nimshi, conspired against Yoram - now Yoram had been guarding Ramoth Gil'ad, he and all Yisra'el, against Haza'el sovereign of Aram.

15 But Sovereign Yahoram had returned to Yizre'el to recover from the wounds with which the Arameans had smitten him when he fought with Haza'el sovereign of Aram - Yahu now said, "If this is your desire, let no one leave or escape from the city to go and make it known in Yizre'el!"

16 And Yahu rode in a chariot and went to Yizre'el, for Yoram was laid up there. And Ahazyahu sovereign of Yahuḏah had come down to see Yoram.

17 And a watchman stood on the tower in Yizre'el, and he saw the company of Yahu as he came, and said, "I see a company of men." And Yahoram said, "Get a horseman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Is there peace?'"

18 And the horseman went to meet him, and said, "Thus said the sovereign, 'Is there peace?'" And Yahu said, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me." And the watchman spoke, saying, "The messenger went to them, but is not coming back."

19 Then he sent out a second horseman who came to them, and said, "Thus said the sovereign, 'Is there peace?'" And Yahu answered, "What have you to do with peace? Turn around and follow me."

20 And the watchman spoke, saying, "He went up to them and is not coming back. And the driving is like the driving of Yahu son of Nimshi, for he drives madly!"

21 Then Yahoram said, "Hitch up." And his chariot was hitched up. And Yahoram sovereign of Yisra'el and Ahazyahu sovereign of Yahuḏah went out, each in his chariot. And they went out to meet Yahu, and met him on the portion of Naboth the Yizre'elite.

22 And it came to be, when Yahoram saw Yahu, that he said, "Is there peace, Yahu?" But he answered, "What peace, as long as the whorings of your mother Izebel and her witchcraft are so many?"

23 Thereupon Yahoram turned his hands around and fled, and said to Aḥazyahu, "Treachery, O Aḥazyahu!"

24 And Yahu drew his bow and shot Yahoram between his arms. And the arrow came out at his heart, and he sank down in his chariot.

25 And said to Bidqar his officer, "Take him up, and throw him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Yizre'elite. Remember how you and I were riding together behind Aḥab his father, and אִיִּזְרְאֵל lifted up this pronouncement against him:

26 'Have I not seen the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons last night?' declares אִיִּזְרְאֵל. 'And I shall repay you in this portion,' declares אִיִּזְרְאֵל. And now, take up, throw him on the portion, according to the word of אִיִּזְרְאֵל."

27 And Aḥazyahu sovereign of Yahudah saw this and fled up the way to Bēyth ha'Gan. And Yahu pursued him, and said, "Smite him, him too, in the chariot," at the ascent to Gur, which is by Yible'am. And he fled to Meḡiddo, and died there.

28 Then his servants conveyed him in the chariot to Yerushalayim, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of Dawid.

29 And in the eleventh year of Yoram son of Aḥab, Aḥazyahu began to reign over Yahudah.

30 And Yahu came to Yizre'el, and Izebel heard of it. And she put paint on her eyes and adorned her head, and looked through a window.

31 And as Yahu came to the gate, she said, "Is it peace, Zimri, slayer of your master?"

32 And he lifted up his face to the window and said, "Who is with me? Who?" And two, three eunuchs looked down to him.

33 And he said, "Throw her down." And they threw her down, and some of her blood spattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her under foot.

34 And he went in, and he ate and drank, and said, "Go now, see to this cursed one, and bury her, for she was a sovereign's daughter."

35 So they went to bury her, but all they found of her was the skull and the feet and the palms of the hands.

36 And they came back and informed him. And he said, "This is the word of אִיִּזְרְאֵל, which He spoke by His servant Ēliyahu the Tishbite, saying, 'In the portion of Yizre'ël dogs are going to eat the flesh of Izeḇel, 37 and the corpse of Izeḇel shall be as dung on the surface of the field, in the portion of Yizre'ël, so that they do not say, "This is Izeḇel." ' "

10 And Aḥaḇ had seventy sons in Shomeron. And Yahu wrote letters and sent to Shomeron, to the rulers of Yizre'ël, to the elders, and to the guardians of Aḥaḇ, saying,

2 "And now, when this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and you have chariots and horses, and a walled city, and weapons,

3 choose the best and most upright of your master's sons, and appoint him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

4 And they were greatly afraid, and said, "Look, two sovereigns have not stood before him, how do we stand, we?"

5 And he who was over the house, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and the guardians, sent to Yahu, saying, "We are your servants, and all that you say to us we do. We do not appoint anyone to reign. Do what is good in your eyes."

6 And he wrote a second letter to them, saying, "If you are for me, and if you obey my voice, take the heads of the men, your master's sons, and come to me at Yizre'el by this time tomorrow." Now the sovereign's sons, seventy beings, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up.

7 And it came to be, when the letter came to them, that they took the sovereign's sons and slew them, seventy men, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Yizre'el.

8 Then a messenger came and informed him, saying, "They have brought the heads of the sovereign's sons." And he said, "Make them two heaps at the entrance of the gate until morning."

9 And it came to be, in the morning, that he went out and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Look, I conspired against my master and slew him, but who smote all these?"

10 "Know now that not one word of אִיִּזְרְאֵל which אִיִּזְרְאֵל spoke concerning the house of Aḥaḇ falls to the ground, for אִיִּזְרְאֵל has done what He spoke by His servant Ēliyahu."

11 And Yahu smote all those left of the house of Aḥaḇ in Yizre'el, and all his great men and his friends and his priests, until he left him without a survivor.

12 And he rose up to go, and went to Shomeron. On the way, at Běyth Ēqeḍ of the Shepherds,

13 Yahu met the brothers of Aḥazyahu sovereign of Yahudaḥ, and said, "Who are you?" And they answered, "We are brothers of Aḥazyahu, and we have come down to greet the sons of the sovereign and the sons of the sovereigness mother.”

14 And he said, “Take them alive!” So they took them alive, and slew them at the well of Běyth Ĕqed, forty-two men, and he left none of them.

15 And he left there and met Yahnadab son of Rěkab, coming to meet him, and barak him and said to him, “Is your heart right, as my heart is toward your heart?” And Yahnadab answered, “It is.” “If it is, give me your hand.” And he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, “Come with me, and see my ardour for אֱלֹהִים.” And they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And he came to Shomeron, and smote all those left of Ahab in Shomeron, till he had destroyed them, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which He spoke to Ĕliyahu.

18 And Yahu gathered all the people and said to them, “Ahab served Ba'al a little; Yahu serves him much.

19 “And now, call to me all the prophets of Ba'al, all his servants, and all his priests. Let no one be missing, for I have a great slaughtering to make to Ba'al. Anyone who is lacking shall not live!” But Yahu did this deceptively, in order to destroy the servants of Ba'al.

20 And Yahu said, “Proclaim an assembly for Ba'al.” So they proclaimed it.

21 And Yahu sent throughout all Yisra'el, and all the servants of Ba'al came, so that there was not a man left who did not come. And they came into the house of Ba'al, and the house of Ba'al was filled from end to end.

22 And he said to him who was over the wardrobe, "Bring out garments for all the servants of Ba'al." And he brought out garments for them.

23 And Yahu and Yahonaḏaḅ son of Rěkaḅ went into the house of Ba'al, and said to the servants of Ba'al, "Search and see that no servants of אֱלֹהִים are here with you, but only the servants of Ba'al."

24 So they went in to make offerings and burnt offerings. Now Yahu had appointed for himself eighty men on the outside, and had said, "The man who lets escape of the men whom I have brought into your hands - his life for his life!"

25 And it came to be, when he had finished making the burnt offering, Yahu said to the guard and to the officers, "Go in, smite them, let no one come out!" And they smote them with the edge of the sword, and the guards and the officers threw them out, and went into the inner room of the house of Ba'al,

26 and brought out the pillars of the house of Ba'al and burned them,

27 and broke down the statue of Ba'al, and broke down the house of Ba'al and made it a latrine to this day.

28 Thus Yahu destroyed Ba'al out of Yisra'el.

29 However, Yahu did not turn away from the sins of Yarob'am son of Neḅat, who had made Yisra'el sin, from the golden calves that were at Běyth Ĕl and Dan.

30 And אֱלֹהִים said to Yahu, "Because you have done well by doing what is right in My eyes, and have done to the house of Aḥaḅ all that was in My heart, your sons are going to sit on the throne of Yisra'el to the fourth generation."

31 But Yahu did not guard to walk in the Torah of אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el with all his heart. For he did not turn away from the sins of Yarob'am, who had made Yisra'el sin.

32 In those days אֲרָאָם began to cut off some in Yisra'el. And Haza'el smote them throughout all the border of Yisra'el, 33 from the Yardēn to the sun-rising: all the land of Gil'ad - the Gadites, and the Re'ubēnites, and the Menashshites - from Aro'ēr, which is by the wadi Arnon, including Gil'ad and Bashan.

34 And the rest of the acts of Yahu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

35 So Yahu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Shomeron. And Yaho'aḥaz his son reigned in his place.

36 And the days that Yahu reigned over Yisra'el in Shomeron were twenty-eight years.

11 And Athalyahu was the mother of Aḥazyahu. And when she saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the offspring of the reign.

2 But Yahosheḇa, the daughter of Sovereign Yoram, sister of Aḥazyahu, took Yo'ash son of Aḥazyahu, and stole him away from among the sons of the sovereign's sons who were put to death. So they hid him and his nurse in the bedroom, from Athalyahu, and he was not put to death.

3 And he remained with her in hiding in the House of אֲרָאָם for six years, while Athalyahu was reigning over the land.

4 And in the seventh year Yahoyada sent and brought the commanders of hundreds, with the Karites and the runners, and brought them into the House of אֲרָאָם to him. And he made a covenant with them and took an oath from them in the House of אֶלֶל, and showed them the son of the sovereign.

5 And he commanded them, saying, "This is what you are to do: One-third of you who come in on the Shabbath are to be on guard in the sovereign's house,

6 and one-third at the gate of Sur, and one-third at the gate behind the runners. And you shall be on guard in the house, lest it be broken down.

7 "And the two detachments of you who are going out on the Shabbath shall be on guard in the House of אֶלֶל for the sovereign.

8 "And you shall surround the sovereign on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand. And whoever comes within the ranks, let him be put to death. And be with the sovereign as he goes out and as he comes in."

9 So the commanders of the hundreds did according to all that Yahoyada the kohēn commanded. And each of them took his men who were going in on the Shabbath, with those who were going out on the Shabbath, and came to Yahoyada the kohēn.

10 And the kohēn gave the commanders of hundreds the spears and shields which had belonged to Sovereign Dawid, that were in the House of אֶלֶל.

11 And the runners stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, all around the sovereign, from the right side of the House to the left side of the House, by the altar and the House.

12 And he brought out the son of the sovereign and put on him the diadem and the Witness. And they appointed him to reign and anointed him, and they clapped their hands and said, "Let the sovereign live!"

13 And Athalyahu heard the noise of the runners, the people, and she came to the people, into the House of אֶלְיָאָז,

14 and looked and saw the sovereign standing by a column, according to the ruling, and the chiefs and the trumpeters were beside the sovereign, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. And Athalyahu tore her garments and cried out, "Treason! Treason!"

15 And Yahoyada the kohēn commanded the commanders of the hundreds, the officers of the army, and said to them, "Take her outside the ranks, and slay with the sword whoever follows her." For the kohēn had said, "Do not let her be killed in the House of אֶלְיָאָז."

16 So they took hold of her, and she went by way of the horses' entrance to the sovereign's house, and was put to death there.

17 And Yahoyada made a covenant between אֶלְיָאָז and the sovereign and the people, to be the people of אֶלְיָאָז - also between the sovereign and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went to the house of Ba'al, and broke it down. They completely broke up its altars and images, and slew Mattan the priest of Ba'al before the altars. And the kohēn appointed inspectors over the House of אֶלְיָאָז,

19 and took the commanders of hundreds, and the Karites, and the runners, and all the people of the land. And they brought the sovereign down from the House of אֶלְיָאָז, and went by way of the gate of the runners to the sovereign's house. And he sat on the throne of the sovereigns.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city had rest, for they had slain Athalyahu with the sword in the sovereign's house.

21 Yaho'ash was seven years old when he began to reign.

12 Yaho'ash began to reign in the seventh year of Yahu, and he reigned forty years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Tsibyah of Be'ërsheba.

2 And Yaho'ash did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים all the days in which Yahoyada the kohën instructed him.

3 However, the high places were not taken away; the people still slaughtered and burned incense on the high places.

4 And Yaho'ash said to the kohenim, "All the silver of the qodesh gifts that are brought into the House of אֱלֹהִים, the silver coming over, each man's assessment silver, all the silver that a man purposes in his heart to bring into the House of אֱלֹהִים,

5 let the kohenim take for themselves, each from his friend. And let them repair the damages of the House, wherever there is damage."

6 And it came to be, by the twenty-third year of Sovereign Yaho'ash, that the kohenim had not repaired the damages of the House,

7 and Sovereign Yaho'ash called Yahoyada the kohën and the other kohenim, and said to them, "Why have you not repaired the damages of the House? And now, do not take any more silver from your friends, but give it for repairing the damages of the House."

8 And the kohenim agreed that they would neither receive any more silver from the people, nor repair the damages of the House.

9 And Yahoyada the kohën took a chest, and bored a hole in its lid, and put it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the House of אֱלֹהִים. And the kohenim who guarded the door put there all the silver that was brought into the House of אֶלְיָאֵל.

10 And it came to be, whenever they saw that there was much silver in the chest, that the sovereign's scribe and the kohēn ha'gadol came up and put it in bags, and counted the silver that was found in the House of אֶלְיָאֵל,

11 and gave the silver, weighed out, into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the House of אֶלְיָאֵל. And they paid it out to the carpenters and builders who worked on the House of אֶלְיָאֵל,

12 and to stonemasons and stone-cutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the damage of the House of אֶלְיָאֵל, and for all that was paid out to repair the House.

13 However there were not made for the House of אֶלְיָאֵל basins of silver, snuffers, sprinkling-bowls, trumpets, any objects of gold, or objects of silver, from the silver that was brought into the House of אֶלְיָאֵל,

14 for they gave that to the workmen, and they repaired the House of אֶלְיָאֵל with it.

15 And they did not reckon with the men into whose hand they gave the silver to be paid to workmen, for they acted trustworthily.

16 The silver from the trespass offerings and the silver from the sin offerings were not brought into the House of אֶלְיָאֵל. It belonged to the kohenim.

17 And Ḥaza'ēl sovereign of Aram went up and fought against Gath, and captured it. And Ḥaza'ēl turned his face to go up to Yerushalayim.

18 And Yaho'ash sovereign of Yahuḏah took all the qodesh gifts that his fathers, Yahoshaphat and Yahoram and Aḥazyahu, sovereigns of Yahuḏah, had qadosh, and his own qodesh gifts, and all the gold found in the treasuries of the House of אֶלְיָאֵל and in the sovereign's house, and sent them to Ḥaza'el sovereign of Aram. Then he went away from Yerushalayim.

19 And the rest of the acts of Yo'ash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudaḥ?

20 And his servants rose up and made a conspiracy, and smote Yo'ash in the house of Millo, which goes down to Silla.

21 For Yozaḳar son of Shim'ath and Yahozabaḳ son of Shomer, his servants, smote him. So he died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of Dawid. And Amatsyah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the twenty-third year of Yo'ash son of Aḥazyahu, sovereign of Yahudaḥ, Yaho'aḥaz son of Yahu began to reign over Yisra'el in Shomeron, and reigned seventeen years.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and followed the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'el sin. He did not turn away from them.

3 And the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים burned against Yisra'el, and He gave them into the hand of Ḥaza'el sovereign of Aram, and into the hand of Ben-Hadaḳ son of Ḥaza'el, all the days.

4 Then Yaho'aḥaz sought the face of אֱלֹהִים. And אֱלֹהִים listened to him, for He saw the oppression of Yisra'el, because the sovereign of Aram oppressed them.

5 And אֱלֹהִים gave Yisra'el a saviour, so that they came out from under the hand of Aram. And the children of Yisra'el dwelt in their tents as before.

6 However, they did not turn away from the sins of the house of Yarob'am, who had made Yisra'el sin, but walked in them. Moreover, the Asherah also remained in Shomeron.

7 For He left of the army of Yaho'aḥaz only fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen, for the sovereign of Aram had destroyed them and made them like the dust at threshing.

8 And the rest of the acts of Yaho'aḥaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

9 So Yaho'aḥaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Shomeron. And Yo'ash his son reigned in his place.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of Yo'ash sovereign of Yahudāh, Yaho'ash son of Yaho'aḥaz began to reign over Yisra'el in Shomeron, sixteen years.

11 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים. He did not turn away from all the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'el sin - he walked in it.

12 And the rest of the acts of Yo'ash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amatsyah sovereign of Yahudāh, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

13 So Yo'ash slept with his fathers. And Yarob'am sat on his throne. And Yo'ash was buried in Shomeron with the sovereigns of Yisra'el.

14 And Elisha had become sick with the sickness in which he died. And Yo'ash the sovereign of Yisra'el came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, "O my father, my father, the chariots of Yisra'el and their horsemen!"

15 And Elisha said to him, "Take a bow and some arrows." And he took a bow and some arrows.

16 And he said to the sovereign of Yisra'el, "Place your hand on the bow." So he placed his hand, and

Elisha placed his hands on the hands of the sovereign,

17 and said, "Open the east window." And he opened it and Elisha said, "Shoot." And he shot. Then he said, "The arrow of deliverance of אִיִּזְרָאֵל and the arrow of deliverance from Aram, for you shall smite Aram at Aphēq until it is finished."

18 Then he said, "Take the arrows," and he took them. And he said to the sovereign of Yisra'ēl, "Strike the ground," and he struck three times, and stopped.

19 And the man of Elohim was wroth with him and said, "You should have smitten five or six times, then you would have smitten Aram till its utter destruction. But now you shall smite Aram only three times."

20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the raiding bands from Mo'ab came into the land in the spring of the year.

21 And it came to be, they were burying a man, and there they saw a raiding band, and cast the man in the tomb of Elisha. And the man fell and touched the bones of Elisha, and came to life and stood on his feet.

22 And Ḥaza'ēl sovereign of Aram oppressed Yisra'ēl all the days of Yaho'aḥaz.

23 But אִיִּזְרָאֵל showed favour to them, and had compassion on them, and turned toward them, for the sake of His Covenant with Abraham, Yitshaq, and Ya'aqob, and would not destroy them or cast them from His presence as yet.

24 And Ḥaza'ēl sovereign of Aram died. And Ben-Hadaq his son reigned in his place.

25 And Yaho'ash son of Yaho'aḥaz recovered from the hand of Ben-Hadaq, son of Ḥaza'ēl, the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Yaho'aḥaz his father in battle. Yo'ash smote him three times, and he recovered the cities of Yisra'ël.

14 In the second year of Yo'ash son of Yo'aḥaz, sovereign of Yisra'ël, Amatsyahu son of Yo'ash, sovereign of Yahudāh, began to reign.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yaho'addin of Yerushalayim.

3 And he did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, but not like his father Dawid. He did according to all his father Yo'ash did.

4 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still slaughtered and burned incense on the high places.

5 And it came to be, as soon as the reign was strong in his hand, that he smote his servants who had smitten his father the sovereign.

6 But he did not put to death the children of the murderers, according to what is written in the Book of the Torah of Mosheh, in which אֱלֹהִים commanded, saying, "Fathers are not put to death for the children, and children are not put to death for the fathers, but each one is put to death for his own sin."

7 He smote Edom in the Valley of Salt, ten thousand, and took Sela in battle, and called its name Yoqthe'ël to this day.

8 Amatsyah then sent messengers to Yaho'ash son of Yaho'aḥaz, son of Yahu, sovereign of Yisra'ël, saying, "Come, let us look each other in the face!"

9 And Yaho'ash sovereign of Yisra'ël sent to Amatsyahu sovereign of Yahudāh, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife.' And a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

10 "You have certainly smitten Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Be esteemed and stay in your house. But why do you stir up yourself to evil, that you should fall - you and Yahuḏah with you?"

11 But Amatsyahu did not listen, so Yaho'ash sovereign of Yisra'ël went up, and he and Amatsyahu sovereign of Yahuḏah faced one another at Běyth Shemesh, which belongs to Yahuḏah.

12 And Yahuḏah was smitten before Yisra'ël, and they each fled to his tent.

13 And Yaho'ash sovereign of Yisra'ël caught Amatsyahu sovereign of Yahuḏah, son of Yaho'ash, son of Aḥazyahu, at Běyth Shemesh. And they came to Yerushalayim and he broke through the wall of Yerushalayim from the Gate of Ephrayim to the Corner Gate, four hundred ammah,

14 and took all the gold and silver, and all the objects that were found in the House of אֶתֶּן and in the treasuries of the sovereign's house, and hostages, and returned to Shomeron.

15 And the rest of the acts of Yaho'ash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amatsyahu sovereign of Yahuḏah, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël?

16 So Yaho'ash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Shomeron with the sovereigns of Yisra'ël. And Yarob'am his son reigned in his place.

17 And Amatsyahu son of Yo'ash, sovereign of Yahuḏah, lived fifteen years after the death of Yaho'ash son of Yaho'aḥaz, sovereign of Yisra'ël.

18 And the rest of the acts of Amatsyahu, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahuḏah?

19 And they made a conspiracy against him in Yerushalayim, and he fled to Lakish. And they sent after him to Lakish and killed him there, 20 and brought him on horses, and he was buried at Yerushalayim with his fathers in the City of Dawid.

21 And all the people of Yahudah took Azaryahu, who was sixteen years old, and appointed him to reign instead of his father Amatsyahu.

22 He built Ėylath and restored it to Yahudah, after the sovereign slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amatsyahu son of Yo'ash, the sovereign of Yahudah, Yarob'am son of Yo'ash, the sovereign of Yisra'el, began to reign in Shomeron, and reigned forty-one years.

24 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים. He did not turn away from all the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'el sin.

25 He restored the border of Yisra'el from the entrance of Hamath to the Sea of the Arabah, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, which He had spoken through His servant Yonah son of Amittai, the nabi who was from Gath Hēpher.

26 For אֱלֹהִים saw that the affliction of Yisra'el was very bitter. And there was no one, neither shut up nor left at large, to help Yisra'el.

27 And אֱלֹהִים had not said that He would blot out the name of Yisra'el from under the shamayim, but saved them by the hand of Yarob'am son of Yo'ash.

28 And the rest of the acts of Yarob'am, and all that he did, and his might, how he fought, and how he recovered Dammeseq and Hamath for Yahudah in Yisra'el, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el?

29 So Yarob'am slept with his fathers, the sovereigns of Yisra'el. And Zeqaryah his son reigned in his place.

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Yarob'am sovereign of Yisra'el, Azaryahu son of Amatsyah, sovereign of Yahudah, began to reign.

2 He was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yeḳolyahu of Yerushalayim.

3 And he did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that his father Amatsyahu did,

4 however, the high places were not taken away. The people still slaughtered and burned incense on the high places.

5 And אֱלֹהִים smote the sovereign, so that he was a leper until the day of his death, and he dwelt in a separate house. And Yotham son of the sovereign was over the house, ruling the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azaryahu, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudah?

7 So Azaryahu slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of Dawid. And Yotham his son reigned in his place.

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azaryahu sovereign of Yahudah, Zeḳaryahu son of Yarob'am began to reign over Yisra'el in Shomeron, for six months.

9 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, as his fathers had done. He did not turn away from the sins of Yarob'am son of Neḅat, who had made Yisra'el sin.

10 And Shallum son of Yabesh conspired against him, and smote him in front of the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place.

11 And the rest of the acts of Zeḳaryah, see, they are written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el.

12 This was the word of אִיָּאֵל which He spoke to Yahu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation are going to sit on the throne of Yisra'ël." And it came to be so.

13 Shallum son of Yabēsh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziyah, the sovereign of Yahudāh. And he reigned a month of days in Shomeron.

14 And Menaḥēm son of Gaḏi went up from Tirtsah, and came to Shomeron, and smote Shallum son of Yabēsh in Shomeron and killed him, and reigned in his place.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he led, see, they are written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël.

16 And Menaḥēm smote Tiphsaḥ, and all who were there, and its borders, from Tirtsah. Because they did not open it to him, therefore he smote it. And he ripped open all the pregnant women.

17 In the thirty-ninth year of Azaryahu sovereign of Yahudāh, Menaḥēm son of Gaḏi began to reign over Yisra'ël, ten years in Shomeron.

18 And he did evil in the eyes of אִיָּאֵל. He did not turn away from the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'ël sin, all his days.

19 Pul the sovereign of Ashshur came against the land. And Menaḥēm gave Pul a thousand kiḳars of silver, for his hand to be with him to strengthen the reign in his hand.

20 And Menaḥēm exacted the silver of Yisra'ël, of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty sheqels of silver, to give to the sovereign of Ashshur. And the sovereign of Ashshur turned back, and did not stay there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Menaḥēm, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël?

22 So Menaḥēm slept with his fathers. And Peqaḥyah his son reigned in his place.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azaryahu the sovereign of Yahudāh, Peqaḥyah the son of Menaḥēm began to reign over Yisra'ël in Shomeron, for two years.

24 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים. He did not turn away from the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'ël sin.

25 And Peqaḥ son of Remalyahu, a chief officer of his, conspired against him and smote him in Shomeron, in the high place of the sovereign's house, along with Argob and Aryēh, and with him were fifty men of Gil'aḏ. So he killed him and reigned in his place.

26 And the rest of the acts of Peqaḥyah, and all that he did, see, they are written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël.

27 In the fifty-second year of Azaryahu sovereign of Yahudāh, Peqaḥ son of Remalyahu began to reign over Yisra'ël in Shomeron, for twenty years.

28 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים. He did not turn away from the sins of Yarob'am son of Nebat, who had made Yisra'ël sin.

29 In the days of Peqaḥ sovereign of Yisra'ël, Tiḡlath-Pileser sovereign of Ashshur came and took Lyon, and Abēl Bēyth Ma'aḳah, and Yanowaḥ, and Qeḏesh, and Ḥatsor, and Gil'aḏ, and Galil, all the land of Naphtali, and took them into exile to Ashshur.

30 And Hoshēa son of Ēlah led a conspiracy against Peqaḥ son of Remalyahu, and smote him, and killed him, and reigned in his place in the twentieth year of Yotham son of Uzziyah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Peqah, and all that he did, see, they are written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yisra'el.

32 In the second year of Peqah son of Remalyahu, sovereign of Yisra'el, Yotham son of Uzziyahu, sovereign of Yahudah, began to reign.

33 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yerusha the daughter of Tsadoq.

34 And he did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים. He did according to all that his father Uzziyahu did.

35 However, the high places were not taken away. The people still slaughtered and burned incense on the high places. He built the Upper Gate of the House of אֱלֹהִים.

36 And the rest of the acts of Yotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudah?

37 In those days אֲרָם began to send Retsin sovereign of Aram and Peqah son of Remalyahu against Yahudah.

38 So Yotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of Dawid his father. And A haz his son reigned in his place.

16 In the seventeenth year of Peqah son of Remalyahu, A haz son of Yotham, sovereign of Yahudah, began to reign.

2 A haz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים his Elohim, as his father Dawid had done.

3 But he walked in the way of the sovereigns of Yisra'el, and he also made his son pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the gentiles whom אֲשׁוּר had dispossessed from before the children of Yisra'el.

4 And he slaughtered and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Then Retsin sovereign of Aram and Peqaḥ son of Remalyahu, sovereign of Yisra'el, came up to Yerushalayim, to battle. And they besieged Aḥaz but were unable to overcome him.

6 At that time Retsin sovereign of Aram recovered Ėylath for Aram, and drove the men of Yahudaḥ from Ėylath. And the Edomites went to Ėylath, and have dwelt there to this day.

7 And Aḥaz sent messengers to Tiḡlath-Pileser sovereign of Ashshur, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the sovereign of Aram and from the hand of the sovereign of Yisra'el, who are rising up against me."

8 And Aḥaz took the silver and gold that was found in the House of אֲשׁוּר, and in the treasuries of the house of the sovereign, and sent it as a present to the sovereign of Ashshur.

9 And the sovereign of Ashshur listened to him. And the sovereign of Ashshur went up against Dammeseq and captured it, and exiled it to Qir, and he killed Retsin.

10 And Sovereign Aḥaz went to meet Tiḡlath-Pileser sovereign of Ashshur at Dammeseq, and saw an altar that was at Dammeseq. And Sovereign Aḥaz sent to Uriyah the kohēn a sketch of the altar and its pattern, according to all its workmanship.

11 And Uriyah the kohēn built an altar according to all that Sovereign Aḥaz had sent from Dammeseq. And Uriyah the kohēn made it before Sovereign Aḥaz came from Dammeseq.

12 And when the sovereign came from Dammeseq, the sovereign saw the altar, and the sovereign approached the altar and made offerings on it.

13 And he burned his burnt offering and his grain offering. And he poured his drink offering and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings on the altar.

14 And the bronze altar which was before אֲשֶׁשׁוּר he brought from the front of the House, from between the new altar and the House of אֲשֶׁשׁוּר, and put it on the north side of the altar.

15 And Sovereign Aḥaz commanded Uriyah the kohēn, saying, "On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening grain offering, and the sovereign's burnt offering, and his grain offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their grain offering, and their drink offerings. And sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering and all the blood of the slaughtering. And the bronze altar is for me to inquire by."

16 And Uriyah the kohēn did according to all that Sovereign Aḥaz commanded.

17 And Sovereign Aḥaz cut off the side panels of the stands, and removed the basins from them. And he took down the sea from the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stones.

18 And the covered way which they had built in the House for the Shabbath, and the sovereign's outer entrance, he took from the House of אֲשֶׁשׁוּר, because of the sovereign of Ashshur.

19 And the rest of the acts of Aḥaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahuḏah?

20 So Aḥaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of Dawid. And Hizqiyahu his son reigned in his place.

17 In the twelfth year of Aḥaz sovereign of Yahuḏah, Hoshĕa son of Ēlah began to reign over Yisra'ĕl in Shomeron, for nine years.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, but not as the sovereigns of Yisra'ĕl who were before him.

3 Shalmaneser sovereign of Ashshur came up against him. And Hoshĕa became his servant, and rendered him a present.

4 But the sovereign of Ashshur found a conspiracy in Hoshĕa, for he had sent messengers to So, sovereign of Mitsrayim, and had not brought a present to the sovereign of Ashshur, as year by year. And the sovereign of Ashshur shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 And the sovereign of Ashshur went through all the land, and went up to Shomeron and besieged it for three years.

6 In the ninth year of Hoshĕa, the sovereign of Ashshur captured Shomeron and exiled Yisra'ĕl to Ashshur, and settled them in Ḥalah and Ḥabor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Maḏites.

7 Now this came to be because the children of Yisra'ĕl had sinned against אֱלֹהִים their Elohim - who had brought them up out of the land of Mitsrayim, from under the hand of Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim - and revered other mighty ones,

8 and walked in the laws of the gentiles whom אֱלֹהִים had dispossessed from before the children of Yisra'ĕl, and of the sovereigns of Yisra'ĕl that they had made.

9 And the children of Yisra'ĕl secretly did matters against אֱלֹהִים their Elohim that were not right, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, from watchtower unto the walled city,

10 and put up for themselves pillars and Ashërim on every high hill and under every green tree,

11 and burned incense there on all the high places, like the gentiles whom אֱלֹהִים had removed from their presence. And they did evil matters to provoke אֱלֹהִים, 12 and served the idols, of which אֱלֹהִים had said to them, “Do not do this.”

13 And אֱלֹהִים warned Yisra’ël and Yahudah, through all of His nebi’im, and every seer, saying, “Turn back from your evil ways, and guard My Commands and My Laws, according to all the Torah which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by My servants the nebi’im.”

14 But they did not listen and hardened their necks, like the necks of their fathers, who did not put their trust in אֱלֹהִים their Elohim,

15 and rejected His Laws and His Covenant that He had made with their fathers, and His Witnesses which He had witnessed against them, and went after worthlessness, and became worthless, and after the gentiles who were all around them, of whom אֱלֹהִים had commanded them not to do like them.

16 And they left all the Commands of אֱלֹהִים their Elohim, and made for themselves a moulded image, two calves, and made an Ashërah and bowed themselves to all the host of the shamayim, and served Ba’al,

17 and caused their sons and daughters to pass through the fire, and practised divination and sorcery, and sold themselves to do evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke Him.

18 So אֱלֹהִים was very enraged with Yisra'ël, and removed them from His presence - none was left but the tribe of Yahudah alone.

19 Yahudah, also, did not guard the Commands of אֱלֹהִים their Elohim, but walked in the laws of Yisra'ël which they made.

20 And אֱלֹהִים rejected all the seed of Yisra'ël, and afflicted them, and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until He had cast them out from His presence.

21 For He tore Yisra'ël from the house of Dawid, and they made Yarob'am son of Nebat sovereign. And Yarob'am drove Yisra'ël from following אֱלֹהִים, and made them commit a great sin.

22 And the children of Yisra'ël walked in all the sins of Yarob'am which he did. They did not turn away from them,

23 until אֱלֹהִים removed Yisra'ël from His presence, as He spoke by all His servants the nebi'im. So Yisra'ël was exiled from their land to Ashshur, as it is to this day.

24 And the sovereign of Ashshur brought people from Babel, and from Kuthah, and from Awwa, and from Hamath, and Sepharwayim, and placed them in the cities of Shomeron instead of the children of Yisra'ël. And they took possession of Shomeron and dwelt in its cities.

25 And it came to be, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they did not revere אֱלֹהִים, and אֱלֹהִים sent lions among them, which kept on slaying among them.

26 And they spoke to the sovereign of Ashshur, saying, "The nations whom you have removed and placed in the cities of Shomeron do not know the Right-Ruling of the Elohim of the land. And He has sent lions among them, and see, they are slaying among them because they do not know the Right-Ruling of the Elohim of the land.”

27 And the sovereign of Ashshur commanded, saying, “Send one of the kohenim whom you exiled from there, to go there. Let him go and dwell there, and let him teach them the Right-Ruling of the Elohim of the land.”

28 And one of the kohenim whom they had exiled from Shomeron came and dwelt in Běyth Ĕl, and taught them how to revere אֱלֹהִים.

29 But every nation was making mighty ones of its own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Shomeronites had made, every nation in the cities where they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babel made Sukkoth Benoth, and the men of Kuth made Něrġal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, 31 and the Awwites made Nibĥaz and Tartaq. And the Sepharwites burned their children in fire to Adrammeleġ and Anammeleġ, the mighty ones of Sepharim.

32 They also revered אֱלֹהִים, and from every class they made for themselves priests of the high places, who offered for them in the house of the high places.

33 They were revering אֱלֹהִים, and they were serving their own mighty ones, according to the ruling of the nations from among whom they had been exiled.

34 To this day they are doing according to the former rulings: they are not revering אֱלֹהִים, nor do they follow their Laws or their Right-Rulings, or the Torah and Command which אֱלֹהִים had commanded the children of Ya’aqob, whose name He made Yisra’el,

35 with whom אֱלֹהִים had made a Covenant and commanded them, saying, “Do not revere other mighty ones, nor bow down to them nor serve them nor slaughter to them;

36 but אֱלֹהִים, who brought you up from the land of Mitsrayim with great power and with an outstretched arm, Him you shall revere, and to Him you shall bow yourselves, and to Him you shall slaughter.

37 “And guard to do forever the Laws, and the Right-Rulings, and the Torah, and the Command which He wrote for you. And do not revere other mighty ones.

38 “And do not forget the Covenant that I have made with you, and do not revere other mighty ones.

39 “And revere אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, so that He delivers you from the hand of all your enemies.”

40 But they did not obey, and did according to their former ruling.

41 So these nations were revering אֱלֹהִים, and served their carved images, both their children and their children’s children. As their fathers did, they are doing to this day.

18 And it came to be in the third year of Hoshĕa son of Ĕlah, sovereign of Yisra’ĕl, that Hizqiyah son of Aĥaz, sovereign of Yahudah, began to reign.

2 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. And his mother’s name was Abi, daughter of Zeġaryah.

3 And he did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that his father Dawid did.

4 He took away the high places and broke the pillars, and cut down the Ashĕrah, and broke in pieces the bronze serpent which Mosheh had made, for until those days the children of Yisra’ĕl burned incense to it, and called it Neĥushtan.

5 He put his trust in אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, and after him was none like him among all the sovereigns of Yahuḏah, nor who were before him,

6 and he clung to אֱלֹהִים. He did not turn away from following Him, but guarded His Commands, which אֱלֹהִים had commanded Mosheh.

7 And אֱלֹהִים was with him - wherever he went he acted wisely. And he rebelled against the sovereign of Ashshur and did not serve him.

8 He smote the Pelishtites, as far as Azzah and its borders - from watchtower to walled city.

9 And it came to be in the fourth year of Sovereign Ḥizqiyahu, which was the seventh year of Hoshĕa son of Ēlah, sovereign of Yisra'ël, that Shalmaneser sovereign of Ashshur came up against Shomeron and besieged it,

10 and they captured it at the end of three years. In the sixth year of Ḥizqiyah, that is the ninth year of Hoshĕa sovereign of Yisra'ël, Shomeron was captured.

11 And the sovereign of Ashshur exiled Yisra'ël to Ashshur, and placed them in Ḥalah and Ḥabor, the River of Gozan, and in the cities of the Madites, 12 because they did not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים their Elohim, but transgressed His Covenant - all that Mosheh the servant of אֱלֹהִים had commanded. And they did not obey nor do them.

13 And in the fourteenth year of Sovereign Ḥizqiyahu, Sanḥērib sovereign of Ashshur came up against all the walled cities of Yahuḏah and captured them.

14 And Ḥizqiyah sovereign of Yahuḏah sent to the sovereign of Ashshur at Lakish, saying, "I have sinned, turn away from me. I shall bear whatever you impose on me." And the sovereign of Ashshur imposed upon Hizqiyah, the sovereign of Yahudah, three hundred kikars of silver and thirty kikars of gold.

15 And Hizqiyah gave him all the silver that was found in the House of אֱלֹהִים and in the treasuries of the sovereign's house.

16 At that time Hizqiyah cut off the doors of the Hēykal of אֱלֹהִים, and the doorposts which Hizqiyah sovereign of Yahudah had overlaid, and gave it to the sovereign of Ashshur.

17 And the sovereign of Ashshur sent the Tartan, and the Raḅsaris, and the Raḅshaqēh from Laḅish, with a great army against Yerushalayim, to Sovereign Hizqiyahu. And they went up and came to Yerushalayim. And when they had come up, they came and stood by the channel of the upper pool, which was on the highway to the Launderer's Field.

18 And they called to the sovereign. And Elyaqim son of Hilqiyahu, who was over the household, and Sheḅnah the scribe, and Yo'ah son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

19 And the Raḅshaqēh said to them, "Please say to Hizqiyahu, 'Thus said the great sovereign, the sovereign of Ashshur, "What is this trust in which you have trusted?"

20 "You have spoken of having counsel and strength for battle, but they are only words of the lips! And in whom do you trust, that you rebel against me?"

21 "Now look! You have put your trust in the staff of this crushed reed, Mitsrayim, on which if a man leans, it shall go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim to all who trust in him.

22 "But when you say to me, 'We trust in אֱלֹהִים our Elohim,' is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hizqiyahu has taken away, and said to Yahudāh and Yerushalayim, ‘Bow yourselves before this altar in Yerushalayim?’” ’

23 “And now, I urge you, give a pledge to my master the sovereign of Ashshur, then I give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put riders on them!

24 “And how do you turn back the face of one commander of the least of my master’s servants, and trust in Mitsrayim for chariots and horsemen?

25 “Have I now come up without אֲרָאָא against this place to destroy it? אֲרָאָא said to me, ‘Go up against this land, and you shall destroy it.’ ”

26 Then said Elyaqim son of Hīlqiyahu, and Shebnaḥ, and Yo’ah to the Rabshaqēh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. And do not speak to us in the language of Yahudāh, in the ears of the people on the wall.”

27 And the Rabshaqēh said to them, “Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men sitting on the wall to eat their own dung and drink their own urine, with you?”

28 And the Rabshaqēh stood and called out with a loud voice in the language of Yahudāh, and spoke and said, “Hear the word of the great sovereign, the sovereign of Ashshur!

29 “Thus said the sovereign, ‘Do not let Hīzqiyahu deceive you, for he is unable to deliver you out of his hand,

30 and do not let Hīzqiyahu make you trust in אֲרָאָא, saying, “אֲרָאָא shall certainly deliver us, and this city is not given into the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur.” ’

31 “Do not listen to Hīzqiyahu, for thus said the sovereign of Ashshur, ‘Make peace with me by a present and come out to me, and let each of you eat from his own vine and each from his own fig tree, and each of you drink the waters of his own cistern,

 32 until I come. Then I shall take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, and live, and not die. But do not listen to Hızqiyahu, when he misleads you, saying, “אִי־אִי shall deliver us.”

33 ‘Has any of the mighty ones of the nations at all delivered its land from the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur?

34 ‘Where are the mighty ones of Ḥamath and Arpaḍ? Where are the mighty ones of Sepharwayim and Hēna and Iwwah? Did they deliver Shomeron from my hand?

35 ‘Who among all the mighty ones of the lands have delivered their land out of my hand, that אִי־אִי should deliver Yerushalayim from my hand?’ ”

36 But the people were silent and did not answer him a word, for the command of the sovereign was, “Do not answer him.”

37 And Elyaqim son of Ḥilqiyah, who was over the household, and Sheḇnah the scribe, and Yo’ah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hızqiyahu with their garments torn, and they reported to him the words of the Raḇshaqēh.

19 And it came to be, when Sovereign Hızqiyahu heard it, that he tore his garments, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of אִי־אִי,
 2 and sent Elyaqim, who was over the household, and Sheḇnah the scribe, and the elders of the kohenim, covering themselves with sackcloth, to Yeshayahu the naḇi, son of Amots.

3 And they said to him, “Thus said Hīzqiyahu, ‘This day is a day of distress and rebuke and scorn, for the children have come to birth but there is no power to bring forth.

4 ‘It could be that אֱלֹהִים your Elohim hears all the words of the Raḅshaqēh, whom his master the sovereign of Ashshur has sent to reproach the living Elohim, and shall rebuke the words which אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.’ ”

5 And the servants of Sovereign Hīzqiyahu came to Yeshayahu,

6 and Yeshayahu said to them, “Say this to your master, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the sovereign of Ashshur have reviled Me.

7 “See, I am putting a spirit upon him, and he shall hear a report and return to his own land. And I shall cause him to fall by the sword in his land.” ’ ”

8 And the Raḅshaqēh returned and found the sovereign of Ashshur fighting against Liḅnah, for he had heard that he had left Laḳish.

9 And when the sovereign heard concerning Tirhaqah sovereign of Kush, “See, he has come out to fight against you,” he again sent messengers to Hīzqiyahu, saying,

10 “Speak to Hīzqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh, saying, ‘Do not let your Elohim in whom you trust deceive you, saying, “Yerushalayim is not given into the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur.”

11 ‘See, you have heard what the sovereigns of Ashshur have done to all lands by putting them under the ban. And are you going to be delivered?

12 ‘Have the mighty ones of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed: Gozan and Ḥaran and Retseph, and the sons of Ēden who were in Telassar?

13 'Where is the sovereign of Ḥamath, and the sovereign of Arpad, and the sovereign of the city of Sepharwayim, Hēna, and Iwwah?' "

14 And Ḥizqiyahu received the letters from the hand of the messengers, and read them, and went up to the House of אֱלֹהִים. And Ḥizqiyahu spread it before אֱלֹהִים.

15 And Ḥizqiyahu prayed before אֱלֹהִים, and said, "O אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, the One who dwells between the keruḇim, You are Elohim, You alone, of all the reigns of the earth. You have made the shamayim and earth.

16 "Incline Your ear, O אֱלֹהִים, and hear. Open Your eyes, O אֱלֹהִים, and see. And hear the words of Sanḥerib, which he has sent to reproach the living Elohim.

17 "Truly, אֱלֹהִים, the sovereigns of Ashshur have laid waste the nations and their lands,

18 and have put their mighty ones into the fire, for they were not mighty ones, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone, and destroyed them.

19 "And now, O אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, I pray, save us from his hand, so that all the reigns of the earth know that You are אֱלֹהִים Elohim, You alone."

20 Then Yeshayahu son of Amots sent to Ḥizqiyahu, saying, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, 'I have heard that which you have prayed to Me against Sanḥerib sovereign of Ashshur.'

21 "This is the word which אֱלֹהִים has spoken concerning him, 'The maiden, the daughter of Tsiyon, has despised you, mocked you; the daughter of Yerushalayim has shaken her head behind you!

22 'Whom have you reproached and reviled? Against whom have you raised a voice, and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël!

23 'By the hand of your messengers you have reproached אִי־אִי, and said, "With my many chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon. And I cut down its tall cedars, its choice cypress trees. And I enter its remotest parts, its thickest forest.

24 'I have dug and drunk strange water, and with the soles of my feet I dry up all the streams of defence."

25 'Have you not heard long ago, I made it; from days of old I formed it? Now I have brought it to be, that you should make walled cities ruinous heaps.

26 'And their inhabitants were powerless, they were overthrown and put to shame, they were as the grass of the field and the green plants, as the grass on the house-tops and withered before it had grown.

27 'But I know your sitting down, and your going out and your coming in, and your rage against Me.

28 'Because your rage against Me and your pride have come up to My ears, I shall put My hook in your nose and My bridle in your lips, and I shall turn you back by the way which you came.

29 'And this is the sign for you: This year you eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs from that, and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

30 'And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Yahuḏah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

31 'For out of Yerushalayim comes forth a remnant, and those who escape from Mount Tsiyon - the ardour of אִי־אִי does this.'

32 “Therefore thus said אֲשַׁשׁוּר concerning the sovereign of Ashshur, ‘He does not come into this city, nor does he shoot an arrow there, nor does he come before it with shield, nor does he build a siege mound against it.

33 ‘By the way that he came, by the same he turns back. And he does not come into this city,’ declares אֲשַׁשׁוּר.

34 ‘And I shall defend this city, to save it for My own sake and for the sake of Dawid My servant.’ ”

35 And it came to be in that night that the messenger of אֲשַׁשׁוּר went out, and smote in the camp of Ashshur one hundred and eighty-five thousand. And they rose up early in the morning and saw all of them dead bodies.

36 And Sanḥerib sovereign of Ashshur broke camp and went away, and turned back, and remained in Ninewēh.

37 And it came to be, as he was bowing himself in the house of Nisroḵ his mighty one, that his sons Adrammeleḵ and Sar’etser smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And his son Ēsarḥaddon reigned in his place.

20 In those days Hizqiyahu was sick unto death. And Yeshayahu the naḇi, son of Amots, went to him and said to him, “Thus said אֲשַׁשׁוּר, ‘Put your house in order, for you are going to die, and not live.’ ”

2 And he turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to אֲשַׁשׁוּר, saying,

3 “I pray to You, O אֲשַׁשׁוּר, remember how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done what was good in Your eyes.” And Hizqiyahu wept bitterly.

4 And it came to be, before Yeshayahu had gone out into the middle court, that the word of אֱלֹהִים came to him, saying,

5 “Return and say to Hizqiyahu the leader of My people, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of Dawid your father, “I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. See, I am going to heal you. On the third day go up to the House of אֱלֹהִים.

6 “And I shall add to your days fifteen years, and deliver you and this city from the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur, and shall defend this city for My own sake, and for the sake of Dawid My servant.”

7 And Yeshayahu said, “Take a cake of figs.” And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.

8 And Hizqiyahu said to Yeshayahu, “What is the sign that אֱלֹהִים heals me, and that I shall go up to the House of אֱלֹהִים the third day?”

9 And Yeshayahu said, “This is the sign for you from אֱלֹהִים, that אֱלֹהִים does the word which He has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees or go backward ten degrees?”

10 And Hizqiyahu said, “It would be easy for the shadow to go down ten degrees; no, but let the shadow go backward ten degrees.”

11 And Yeshayahu the nabi cried out to אֱלֹהִים, and He brought the shadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down on the sundial of Aḥaz.

12 At that time Berodaḳ-Baladan son of Baladan, sovereign of Babel, sent letters and a present to Hizqiyahu, for he heard that Hizqiyahu had been sick.

13 And Hizqiyahu listened to them, and showed them all his treasure house, the silver and the gold, and the spices and the precious ointment, and all his armoury, and all that was found among his treasures. There was not an object in his house or in all his rule that Hizqiyahu did not show them.

14 And Yeshayahu the nabi came to Sovereign Hizqiyahu, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" And Hizqiyahu said, "They came from a distant land, from Babel."

15 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hizqiyahu answered, "They saw all that is in my house; there is not an object among my treasures that I did not show them."

16 And Yeshayahu said to Hizqiyahu, "Hear the word of אִיִּיִּי:

17 'See, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have treasured up until this day, shall be brought to Babel - no object is to be left,' said אִיִּיִּי.

18 'And they are going to take away some of your sons who are to be born to you, whom you bring forth, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the sovereign of Babel.' "

19 And Hizqiyahu said to Yeshayahu, "The word of אִיִּיִּי which you have spoken is good!" And he said, "Is it not so, if peace and truth are to be in my days?"

20 And the rest of the acts of Hizqiyahu, and all his might and how he made a pool and a channel and brought water into the city, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahuḏah?

21 So Hizqiyahu slept with his fathers. And Menashsheh his son reigned in his place.

21 Menashsheh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Hephtsiḇah.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to the abominations of the gentiles whom אֱלֹהִים dispossessed before the children of Yisra'ël.

3 For he turned and built the high places which Hizqiyahu his father had destroyed, and raised up altars for Ba'al, and made an Asherah, as Aḥaḇ sovereign of Yisra'ël had done, and he bowed himself to all the host of the shamayim and served them.

4 And he built altars in the House of אֱלֹהִים, of which אֱלֹהִים had said, "In Yerushalayim I put My Name."

5 And he built altars for all the host of the shamayim in the two courtyards of the House of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And he made his son pass through the fire, and practised magic, and used divination, and consulted spiritists and mediums. He did much evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, to provoke.

7 And he placed a carved image of Asherah that he had made in the House of which אֱלֹהִים had said to Dawid and to Shelomoh his son, "In this House and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra'ël, I put My Name forever,

8 and no more shall I cause the feet of Yisra'ël to move from the land which I gave their fathers - only if they guard to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the Torah that My servant Mosheh commanded them."

9 But they did not obey, and Menashsheh led them astray to do more evil than the gentiles whom אֱלֹהִים had destroyed before the children of Yisra'ël.

10 And אֱלֹהִים spoke by His servants the neḇi'im, saying,

11 "Because Menashsheh sovereign of Yahuḏah has done these abominations, having done more evil than all the Amorites who were before him, and also made Yahuḏah sin with his idols,

12 therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, 'See, I am bringing such evil upon Yerushalayim and Yahudah that both ears of those who hear of it shall tingle.

13 'And I shall stretch over Yerushalayim the measuring line of Shomeron and the plummet of the house of Aḥab, and shall wipe Yerushalayim as one wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down.

14 'And I shall forsake the remnant of My inheritance and give them into the hand of their enemies. And they shall be for a prey and for a plunder to all their enemies,

15 because they have done evil in My eyes, and have provoked Me since the day their fathers came out of Mitsrayim, even to this day.' ”

16 And also, Menashsheh shed very much innocent blood, until he had filled Yerushalayim from one end to another, besides his sin with which he made Yahudah sin, in doing evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים.

17 And the rest of the acts of Menashsheh, and all that he did, and the sin that he committed, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudah?

18 So Menashsheh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza. And his son Amon reigned in his place.

19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Yerushalayim. And the name of his mother was Meshullemeth the daughter of Ḥaruts of Yotebah.

20 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, as his father Menashsheh had done,

21 and walked in all the ways that his father had walked, and served the idols that his father had served, and bowed himself to them,

22 and forsook אֱלֹהִים Elohim of his fathers, and did not walk in the Way of אֱלֹהִים.

23 And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and killed the sovereign in his own house.

24 But the people of the land smote all those who had conspired against Sovereign Amon, and the people of the land appointed his son Yoshiyahu to reign in his place.

25 And the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudāh?

26 And he was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza. And his son Yoshiyahu reigned in his place.

22 Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Yedīdah the daughter of Adayah of Botsqath.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and walked in all the ways of his father Dawid, and did not turn aside, right or left.

3 And it came to be, in the eighteenth year of Sovereign Yoshiyahu, that the sovereign sent Shaphan the scribe, son of Atsalyahu, son of Meshullam, to the House of אֱלֹהִים, saying,

4 "Go up to Hīlqiyahu the kohēn ha'gadol, and let him weigh the silver which has been brought into the House of אֱלֹהִים, which the doorkeepers have gathered from the people.

5 "And let them give it into the hand of those doing the work, who are the overseers in the House of אֱלֹהִים. And let them give it to those who are in the House of אֱלֹהִים doing the work, to repair the damages of the house,

6 to carpenters and to builders and to stonemasons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

7 “However, let not the silver given into their hand be reckoned with them, for they are acting trustworthily.”

8 And Hīlqiyahu the kohēn ha’gadol said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Torah in the House of אֶלֶלֶל.” And Hīlqiyah gave the Book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the sovereign, and brought word to the sovereign again, saying, “Your servants have gathered the silver that was found in the house, and have given it into the hand of those who do the work, who oversee the House of אֶלֶלֶל.”

10 And Shaphan the scribe informed the sovereign, saying, “Hīlqiyah the kohēn has given me a Book.” And Shaphan read it before the sovereign.

11 And it came to be, when the sovereign heard the words of the Book of the Torah, that he tore his garments,

12 and the sovereign commanded Hīlqiyah the kohēn, and Aḥiqam son of Shaphan, and Aḵbor son of Miḳayah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asayah a servant of the sovereign, saying,

13 “Go, inquire of אֶלֶלֶל for me, for the people and for all Yahudāh, concerning the words of this Book that has been found. For great is the wrath of אֶלֶלֶל that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not obeyed the words of this Book, to do according to all that is written concerning us.”

14 Then Hīlqiyahu the kohēn, and Aḥiqam, and Aḵbor, and Shaphan, and Asayah went to Huldah the neḇiyah, the wife of Shallum son of Tiqwah, son of Hārḥas, keeper of the wardrobe. Now she was dwelling in Yerushalayim in the Second Quarter. And they spoke with her.

15 And she said to them, “Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘Say to the man who sent you to Me,

16 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘See, I am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, all the words of the Book which the sovereign of Yahudāh has read,

17 because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other mighty ones to provoke Me with all the works of their hands. And so My wrath shall be kindled against this place and not be quenched.’ ” ’

18 “And to the sovereign of Yahudāh, who sent you to inquire of אֱלֹהִים, say this to him, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’el, “As for the words which you have heard, 19 because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before אֱלֹהִים when you heard what I spoke against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would become a ruin and a curse, and tore your garments and wept before Me, I also have heard,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

20 “Therefore, see, I am gathering you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, so that your eyes do not see all the evil I am bringing on this place.” ’ ” And they brought word to the sovereign.

23 And the sovereign sent, and they gathered all the elders of Yahudāh and Yerushalayim to him.

2 And the sovereign went up to the House of אֱלֹהִים with all the men of Yahudāh, and all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim with him, and the kohenim and the nebi'im and all the people, both small and great. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the House of אֱלֹהִים.

3 And the sovereign stood by the column and made a covenant before אֱלֹהִים, to follow אֱלֹהִים and to guard His Commands and His Witnesses and His Laws, with all his heart and all his being, to establish the Words of this Covenant that were written in this Book. And all the people stood to the Covenant.

4 Then the sovereign commanded Hīlqiyahu the kohēn ha'gadol, and the kohenim of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring out of the Hēykal of אֱלֹהִים all the objects that were made for Ba'al, and for Asherah, and for all the host of the shamayim. And he burned them outside Yerushalayim in the fields of Qidron, and took their ashes to Bēyth Ēl.

5 And he put down the black-robed priests whom the sovereigns of Yahudah had appointed to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Yahudah and in the places all around Yerushalayim, and those who burned incense to Ba'al, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the constellations, and to all the host of the shamayim.

6 And he brought out the Asherah from the House of אֱלֹהִים, to the wadi Qidron outside Yerushalayim, and burned it at the wadi Qidron and ground it to ashes, and threw its ashes on the graves of the sons of the people.

7 And he broke down the houses of the male cult prostitutes that were in the House of אֱלֹהִים, where the women wove tapestries for the Asherah.

8 And he brought all the kohenim from the cities of Yahudah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geḇa to Be'ērsheḇa, and broke down the high places at the gates which were at the entrance of the Gate of Yahoshua the governor of the city, which were to the left of the city gate.

9 However, the priests of the high places did not come up to the altar of אֱלֹהִים in Yerushalayim, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.

10 And he defiled Topheth, which is in the Valley of Bēn Hinnom, so that no man could make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Molek.

11 And he did away with the horses that the sovereigns of Yahudah had given to the sun, at the entrance to the House of אֱלֹהִים, by the room of Nathan-Melek the eunuch, that were in the court. And he burned the chariots of the sun with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Aḥaz, which the sovereigns of Yahudah had made, and the altars which Menashsheh had made in the two courtyards of the House of אֱלֹהִים, the sovereign broke down, and rushed from there, and threw their dust into the wadi Qidron.

13 And the sovereign defiled the high places that were before Yerushalayim, which were on the right hand of the Mountain of Destruction, which Shelomoh sovereign of Yisra'el built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Tsidonians, and for Kemosh the abomination of the Mo'abites, and for Milkom the abomination of the children of Ammon.

14 And he broke in pieces the pillars and cut down the Ashērim, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 And also the altar that was at Bēyth Ēl, and the high place which Yarob'am son of Nebat made, by which he made Yisra'el sin, both that altar and the high place he broke down. And he burned the high place and ground it to dust, and burned the Asherah.

16 Then Yoshiyahu turned, and saw the tombs that were there on the mountain. And he sent and took the bones out of the tombs and burned them on the altar, and defiled it according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which the man of Elohim proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 And he said, "What tombstone is this that I see?" And the men of the city said to him, "It is the tomb of the man of Elohim who came from Yahudah and proclaimed these matters which you have done against the altar of Běyth Ĕl."

18 And he said, "Let him alone, let no one move his bones." So they left his bones alone, with the bones of the nabi who came from Shomeron.

19 And Yoshiyahu also took away all the houses of the high places that were in the cities of Shomeron, which the sovereigns of Yisra'ěl had made to provoke. And he did to them according to all the deeds he did in Běyth Ĕl.

20 And he slaughtered all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them, and went back to Yerushalayim.

21 And the sovereign commanded all the people, saying, "Prepare the Pesah to אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, as it is written in this Book of the Covenant."

22 For such a Pesah had not been prepared since the days of the rulers who ruled Yisra'ěl, nor in all the days of the sovereigns of Yisra'ěl and the sovereigns of Yahudah,

23 but in the eighteenth year of Sovereign Yoshiyahu this Pesah was prepared before אֱלֹהִים in Yerushalayim.

24 And also, Yoshiyahu put away those who consulted mediums and spiritists, and the household mighty ones and idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Yahudāh and in Yerushalayim, in order to establish the words of the Torah which were written in the Book that Hīlqiyahu the kohēn found in the House of אֶלֶל.

25 And before him there was no sovereign like him, who turned back to אֶלֶל with all his heart, and with all his being, and with all his might, according to all the Torah of Mosheh; and after him none rose up like him.

26 However, אֶלֶל did not turn from the fierceness of His great wrath, with which His wrath burned against Yahudāh, because of all the provocations with which Menashsheh had provoked Him.

27 And אֶלֶל said, “Even Yahudāh I shall remove from My presence, as I have removed Yisra’ēl, and I shall reject this city Yerushalayim which I have chosen, and the House of which I said, ‘My Name is there.’ ”

28 And the rest of the acts of Yoshiyahu, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudāh?

29 In his days Pharaoh Neḳo sovereign of Mitsrayim went up against the sovereign of Ashshur, to the River Perath. And Sovereign Yoshiyahu went out to him, and he killed him at Meḡiddo when he saw him.

30 And his servants conveyed his body in a chariot from Meḡiddo, and brought him to Yerushalayim, and buried him in his own tomb. And the people of the land took Yaho’aḥaz son of Yoshiyahu, and anointed him, and appointed him to reign in his father’s place.

31 Yaho’aḥaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Yerushalayim. And his mother’s name was Ḥamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu of Liḇnah.

32 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that his fathers did.

33 And Pharaoh Neִכוֹ imprisoned him at Riblah in the land of Ḥamath, to keep him from reigning in Yerushalayim. And he imposed on the land a fine of one hundred kiִּקָּרִים of silver and a kiִּקָּר of gold.

34 And Pharaoh Neִכוֹ appointed Elyaqim son of Yoshiyahu to reign in place of his father Yoshiyahu, and changed his name to Yahoyaqim. And Pharaoh took Yaho'aֲחָז and went to Mitsrayim, and he died there.

35 And Yahoyaqim gave the silver and gold to Pharaoh. Only, he taxed the land to give silver according to the command of Pharaoh. He exacted the silver and gold from the people of the land, from every one according to his assessment, to give it to Pharaoh Neִכוֹ.

36 Yahoyaqim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedayah of Rumah.

37 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that his fathers did.

24 In his days Nebuִּקְדַנְתַּשַׁר sovereign of Babel came up, and Yahoyaqim became his servant for three years. And he turned and rebelled against him.

2 And אֱלֹהִים sent against him raiding bands of Kasdites, and raiding bands of Aram, and raiding bands of Mo'ab, and raiding bands of the children of Ammon. And He sent them against Yahudah to destroy it, according to the word of אֱלֹהִים which He had spoken by His servants the neִבִּי'im.

3 Only at the command of אֲשֶׁרָא this came upon Yahudāh, to remove from His presence, because of the sins of Menashsheh, according to all that he did,
4 and also because of the innocent blood that he shed. For he filled Yerushalayim with innocent blood, which אֲשֶׁרָא would not forgive.

5 And the rest of the acts of Yahoyaqim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Yahudāh?

6 So Yahoyaqim slept with his fathers. And Yahoyaqin his son reigned in his place.

7 And the sovereign of Mitsrayim did not come out of his land again, for the sovereign of Babel had taken all that belonged to the sovereign of Mitsrayim from the wadi of Mitsrayim to the River Perath.

8 Yahoyaqin was eighteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Yerushalayim three months. And his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Yerushalayim.

9 And he did evil in the eyes of אֲשֶׁרָא, according to all that his father did.

10 At that time the servants of Nebuqadnettsar sovereign of Babel came up against Yerushalayim, and the city was besieged.

11 And Nebuqadnettsar sovereign of Babel came against the city, as his servants were besieging it.

12 And Yahoyaqin sovereign of Yahudāh, and his mother, and his servants, and his heads, and his eunuchs went out to the sovereign of Babel. And the sovereign of Babel, in the eighth year of his reign, took him prisoner.

13 And he took from there all the treasures of the House of אֲשֶׁרָא and the treasures of the sovereign's house, and he cut in pieces all the objects of gold which Shelomoh sovereign of Yisra'ël had made in the Hëykal of אֱלֹהִים, as אֱלֹהִים had said.

14 And he exiled all Yerushalayim, and all the officers and all the mighty brave men - ten thousand exiles - and all the craftsmen and smiths. None remained except the poorest people of the land.

15 And he exiled Yahoyaқin to Babel. And the sovereign's mother, and the sovereign's wives, and his eunuchs, and the leading men of the land he exiled from Yerushalayim to Babel.

16 And all the mighty brave men, seven thousand, and craftsmen and smiths, one thousand, all who were strong and fit for battle, these the sovereign of Babel brought to Babel into exile.

17 And the sovereign of Babel appointed Mattanyah, Yahoyaқin's uncle, to reign in his place, and changed his name to Tsidqiyahu.

18 Tsidqiyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu of Libnah.

19 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that Yahoyaқim did.

20 For this took place in Yerushalayim and Yahudah because of the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים, until He had cast them out from His presence. And Tsidqiyahu rebelled against the sovereign of Babel.

25 And it came to be in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, that Nebuқadnetstsar sovereign of Babel and all his army came against Yerushalayim and encamped against it, and they built a siege wall against it all around.

2 And the city was besieged until the eleventh year of Sovereign Tsidqiyahu.

3 By the ninth of the month the scarcity of food had become so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

4 Then the city wall was breached, and all the men of battle fled at night by way of the gate between two walls, which was by the sovereign's garden, even though the Kasdites were still encamped all around against the city. And the sovereign went by way of the desert plain.

5 And the army of the Kasdites pursued the sovereign, and overtook him in the desert plains of Yeriho, and all his army was scattered from him.

6 And they seized the sovereign and brought him up to the sovereign of Babel at Riblah, and they pronounced sentence on him.

7 And they slaughtered the sons of Tsidqiyahu before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Tsidqiyahu, and bound him with bronze shackles, and took him to Babel.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Sovereign Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel, Nebuzaradan the chief of the guard, a servant of the sovereign of Babel, came to Yerushalayim.

9 And he burned the House of אֶלֶּהֶם and the house of the sovereign, and all the houses of Yerushalayim - even every great house he burned with fire.

10 And all the army of the Kasdites who were with the chief of the guard broke down the walls of Yerushalayim all around.

11 And Nebuzaradan the chief of the guard took into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who deserted to the sovereign of Babel, with the rest of the multitude.

12 But the chief of the guard left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

13 And the bronze columns that were in the House of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ , and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the House of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ , the Kasdites broke in pieces, and took their bronze away to Babel.

14 And they took the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the ladles, and all the bronze utensils the kohenim used in the service.

15 And the chief of the guard took the fire holders and the basins which were of solid gold and solid silver.

16 The bronze of all these utensils was beyond measure - the two columns, the one sea, and the stands, which Shelomoh had made for the House of  $\aleph\aleph\aleph$ .

17 The height of one column was eighteen ammah, and the capital on it was of bronze. And the height of the capital was three ammah, and the network and pomegranates all around the capital were all of bronze. And the second column was the same, with a network.

18 And the chief of the guard took Serayah the chief kohēn, and Tsephanyahu the second kohēn, and the three doorkeepers.

19 And out of the city he took a certain eunuch who was appointed over the men of battle, and five men of those who saw the sovereign's face, who were found in the city, and the chief scribe of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

20 And Neḅuzaraḅan, chief of the guard, took them and made them go to the sovereign of Babel at Riblah.

21 And the sovereign of Babel smote them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So he exiled Yahudah from its own land.

22 And he appointed Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, son of Shaphan, over the people who were left in the land of Yahudah, whom Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel had left.

23 And all the commanders of the armies, they and their men, heard that the sovereign of Babel had appointed Gedalyahu. And they came to Gedalyahu at Mitspah, even Yishma'el son of Nethanyah, and Yohanan son of Qareah, and Serayah son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Ya'azanyahu the son of a Ma'akathite, they and their men.

24 And Gedalyahu swore to them and their men, and said to them, "Do not be afraid of the servants of the Kasdites. Dwell in the land and serve the sovereign of Babel, and let it be well with you."

25 And in the seventh month it came to be that Yishma'el son of Nethanyah, son of Elishama, of the seed of the reign, came with ten men and smote Gedalyahu that he died, and the Yahudim, and the Kasdites who were with him at Mitspah.

26 And all the people rose up, small and great, and the commanders of the armies, and went to Mitsrayim, for they were afraid of the Kasdites.

27 And it came to be in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Yahoyakin sovereign of Yahudah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, that Ewil-Merodak sovereign of Babel, in the year that he began to reign, released Yahoyakin sovereign of Yahudah from prison,

28 and spoke kindly to him, and appointed his throne above the throne of the sovereigns who were with him in Babel,

29 and changed his prison garments. And he ate bread continually before the sovereign all the days of his life.

30 And as his allowance, a continual allowance was given to him from the sovereign, a quota for each day, all the days of his life.

YESHAYAHU

יהוה ישעיהו

1 The vision of Yeshayahu son of Amots, which he saw concerning Yahuḏah and Yerushalayim in the days of Uzziyahu, Yotham, Aḥaz, Hizqiyahu - sovereigns of Yahuḏah.

2 Hear, O shamayim, and listen, O earth! For אֱלֹהִים has spoken, "I have reared and brought up children, but they have transgressed against Me.

3 An ox knows its owner and a donkey its master's crib - Yisra'el does not know, My people have not understood."

4 Alas, sinning nation, a people loaded with wickedness, a seed of evil-doers, sons acting corruptly! They have forsaken אֱלֹהִים, they have provoked the Qadosh One of Yisra'el, they went backward.

5 Why should you be beaten any more? You continue in apostasy! All the head is sick, and all the heart faints.

6 From the sole of the foot, to the head, there is no soundness in it - wounds and bruises and open sores; they have not been closed or bound up, or soothed with ointment.

7 Your land is laid waste, your cities are burned with fire, strangers devour your land in your presence. And it is laid waste, as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Tsiyon is left as a booth in a vineyard, as a hut in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 Unless אֱלֹהִים of hosts had left to us a small remnant, we would have become like Sedom, we would have been made like Amorah.

10 Hear the word of אֱלֹהִים, you rulers of Sedom; give ear to the Torah of our Elohim, you people of Amarah!

11 “Of what use to Me are your many slaughterings?” declares אֱלֹהִים. “I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts. I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs or goats.

12 “When you come to appear before Me, who has required this from your hand, to trample My courtyards?

13 “Stop bringing futile offerings, incense, it is an abomination to Me. New Moons, Shabbathoth, the calling of meetings - I am unable to bear unrighteousness and assembly.

14 “My being hates your new moons and your appointed times, they are a trouble to Me, I am weary of bearing them.

15 “And when you spread out your hands, I hide My eyes from you; even though you make many prayers, I do not hear. Your hands have become filled with blood.

16 “Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes. Stop doing evil!

17 “Learn to do good! Seek Right-Ruling, reprove the oppressor, defend the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 “Come now, and let us reason together,” says אֱלֹהִים. “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

19 “If you submit and obey, you shall eat the good of the land;

20 but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured by the sword,” for the mouth of אֱלֹהִים has spoken.

21 How the steadfast city has become a whore! I have filled it with Right-Ruling; righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers.

22 Your silver has become dross, your wine is mixed with water.

23 Your rulers are stubborn, and companions of thieves. Everyone loves bribes, and runs after rewards. They do not defend the fatherless, nor does the cause of the widow reach them.

24 Therefore the Adon declares, אֱלֹהִים of hosts, Almighty of Yisra'el, "Ah, I shall be eased of My adversaries, and I shall be avenged of My enemies.

25 "And I shall turn My hand against you, and shall refine your dross as with lye, and shall remove all your alloy.

26 "And I shall give back your judges as at the first, and your counsellors as at the beginning. After this you shall be called the city of righteousness, a steadfast city."

27 Tsiyon shall be ransomed with right-ruling, and her returning ones with righteousness.

28 And the destruction of transgressors and of sinners is together, and those who forsake אֱלֹהִים shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the terebinth trees which you have desired. And you shall be embarrassed because of the gardens which you have chosen.

30 For you shall be as a terebinth whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.

31 The strong shall be for tow, and his work for a spark. And both shall burn together, with no one to extinguish.

2 The word that Yeshayahu the son of Amots saw concerning Yahudah and Yerushalayim:

2 And it shall be in the latter days that the mountain of the House of אֱלֹהִים is established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills. And all nations shall flow to it.

3 And many peoples shall come and say, “Come, and let us go up to the mountain of אֱלֹהִים, to the House of the Elohim of Ya’aqob, and let Him teach us His Ways, and let us walk in His paths, for out of Tsiyon comes forth the Torah, and the Word of אֱלֹהִים from Yerushalayim.”

4 And He shall judge between the nations, and shall reprove many peoples. And they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither teach battle any more.

5 O house of Ya’aqob, come and let us walk in the light of אֱלֹהִים.

6 For You have forsaken Your people, the house of Ya’aqob, because they have been filled from the East, and practise magic like the Pelishtites, and they are pleased with the children of foreigners.

7 And their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures. And their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots.

8 And their land is filled with idols; they bow themselves to the work of their own hands, to what their own fingers have made.

9 And the lowly bows down, and the high is humbled; therefore You do not bear them.

10 Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust, because of the reverence of אֱלֹהִים and the splendour of His excellency.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, the pride of men shall be bowed down, and אִיִּי alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For אִיִּי of hosts has a day against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up, so that it is brought low;

13 and against all the cedars of Lebanon that are high and lifted up, and against all the oaks of Bashan;

14 and against all the high mountains, and against all the hills that are lifted up;

15 and against every lofty tower, and against every strong wall;

16 and against all the ships of Tarshish, and against all the desirable craft.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the pride of men shall be brought low. And אִיִּי alone shall be exalted in that day, 18 and the idols completely pass away.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, from dread of אִיִּי and the splendour of His excellency, when He arises to shake the earth mightily.

20 In that day man shall throw away his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which they made, each for himself to worship, to the moles and bats,

21 to go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the crags of the rugged rocks, because of the reverence of אִיִּי and the splendour of His excellency, when He arises to shake the earth mightily.

22 Cease from man, whose breath is in his nostrils, for in what is he to be reckoned upon?

3 For look, the Adon, אִיִּי of hosts, is turning aside from Yerushalayim and from Yahudah the stock and the store, all the supply of bread and all the supply of water;

2 the mighty man and the man of battle, the judge and the nabi, and the diviner and the elder;

3 the commander of fifty and the highly respected man, and the counsellor and the skilled craftsman, and the clever enchanter.

4 “And I shall make youths their heads, and children shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall exert pressure, man on man, man on his neighbour; the young rise up against the older, and the lightly esteemed against the highly esteemed.”

6 When a man takes hold of his brother in the house of his father, by the garment, “Come, be a chief over us, and let this ruin be under your hand,”

7 he shall swear in that day, saying, “I am not a healer, for in my house is neither bread nor garment; do not make me a chief of the people.”

8 For Yerushalayim has stumbled, and Yahudah has fallen, because their tongue and their doings are against אִי־אִי, to provoke the eyes of His esteem.

9 The look on their faces witnesses against them, and they declare their sin as Sedom; they do not hide it. Woe to their being! For they have brought evil upon themselves.

10 “Say to the righteous it is well, for they eat the fruit of their doings.

11 “Woe to the wicked - evil! For the reward of his hand is done to him.

12 “My people! Youths exert pressure on them, and women rule over them. O My people! Your leaders lead astray, and swallow the way of your paths.”

13 אִי־אִי shall stand up to plead, and is standing to judge the peoples.

14 אֱלֹהִים enters into judgment with the elders of His people and its heads, “It is you who have eaten up the vineyard, the plunder of the poor is in your houses.

15 “What do you mean by crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor?” declares the Adon, אֱלֹהִים of hosts.

16 And אֱלֹהִים says, “Because the daughters of Tsiyon are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and seductive eyes, walking and mincing as they go, making a jingling with their feet,

17 therefore אֱלֹהִים shall smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Tsiyon, and אֱלֹהִים expose their nakedness.”

18 In that day אֱלֹהִים takes away the finery of the anklets, and the headbands, and the crescents,

19 the pendants, the bracelets and the veils,

20 the headdresses, and the leg ornaments, and the sashes, and the perfume flasks, and the amulets,

21 the rings, and the nose jewels,

22 the costly robes, and the cloaks, and the shawls, and the purses,

23 the mirrors, and the fine linen, and the turbans, and the large veils.

24 And it shall be: Instead of a sweet fragrance, a smell of decay; and instead of a belt, a rope; and instead of braided curls, baldness; and instead of a festal robe, a girding of sackcloth; and branding instead of loveliness.

25 Your men shall fall by the sword, and your strength in battle.

26 And her gates shall lament and mourn, and she, deserted, shall sit on the ground.

4 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, “We shall eat our own food and wear our own clothes; only let us be called by your name, to take away our reproach.”

2 In that day the Branch of אֶפְרַיִם shall be splendid and esteemed. And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for the escaped ones of Yisra’ël.

3 And it shall be that he who is left in Tsiyon and he who remains in Yerushalayim is called qodesh, everyone who is written among the living in Yerushalayim.

4 When אֶפְרַיִם has washed away the filth of the daughters of Tsiyon, and rinsed away the blood of Yerushalayim from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning,

5 then אֶפְרַיִם shall create above every dwelling place of Mount Tsiyon, and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night, for over all the esteem shall be a covering,

6 and a booth for shade in the daytime from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

5 Please let me sing to the One I love, a song for my loved One regarding His vineyard: my loved One has a vineyard on a fertile hill.

2 And He dug it up and cleared it of stones, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a watchtower in its midst, and also made a winepress in it. And He waited for the yielding of grapes, but it yielded rotten ones.

3 “And now, O inhabitant of Yerushalayim and man of Yahudah, please judge between Me and My vineyard.

4 “What more could have been done to My vineyard that I have not done in it? Why, when I waited for the yielding of grapes, did it yield rotten ones?”

5 “And now, please let Me inform you what I am doing to My vineyard: To take away its hedge and it shall be burned; to break down its wall and it shall be trampled down;

6 and I lay it waste; it is not pruned or dug and thornbushes and weeds shall come up; and I command the clouds not to rain on it.”

7 For the vineyard of אֱלֹהִים of hosts is the house of Yisra'el, and the man of Yahuḏah is His pleasant plant. He looked for right-ruling, but see, oppression; for righteousness, but see, weeping.

8 Woe to those who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land!

9 In my hearing אֱלֹהִים of hosts, “Truly, many houses shall be a waste - big and fine ones, without inhabitant.

10 “For ten acres of vineyard yield one bath, and a homer of seed yields one ĕphah.”

11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning pursuing strong drink, who stay up late at night - wine inflames them!

12 And the lyre and the harp, the tambourine and flute, and wine are in their feasts; but they do not regard the deeds of אֱלֹהִים, nor see the work of His hands.

13 Therefore my people have gone into exile, because they have no knowledge. And their esteemed men are starved, and their crowd dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore the grave has made itself wide and opened its mouth. Without Law, their splendour and their crowd and their uproar, and he who is exulting within her, shall go down into it.

15 And man is bowed down, and mortal man humbled, and the eyes of the proud are humbled.

16 But אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת of hosts is exalted in judgment, and the qodesh Ėl is qodesh in righteousness.

17 And the lambs shall feed in their pasture, and strangers shall eat in the waste places of the fat ones.

18 Woe to those who draw wickedness with cords of falsehood, and sin as with wagon ropes,

19 who are saying, "Let Him hurry! Let Him hasten His work, so that we see it! And let the counsel of the Qadosh One of Yisra'el draw near and come, so that we know."

20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and clever in their own sight!

22 Woe to the mighty to drink wine, and brave men to mix strong drink,

23 who declare right the wicked for a bribe, and the righteousness of the righteous they turn aside from him!

24 Therefore, as a tongue of fire devours the stubble, and the flame consumes the chaff, their root is as rottenness, and their blossom goes up like dust - because they have rejected the Torah of אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת of hosts, and despised the Word of the Qadosh One of Yisra'el.

25 Therefore the displeasure of אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת has burned against His people, and He stretches out His hand against them and smites them, and the mountains tremble. And their carcass is as filth in the middle of the streets. With all this His displeasure has not turned back, and His hand is still stretched out!

26 And He shall lift up a banner to the nations from afar, and shall whistle to them from the end of the earth. And see, they come with speed, swiftly!

27 Not one of them is weary or stumbling, not one slumbers or sleeps. Not a belt shall be loosened on their loins, nor the thong of their sandals be broken.

28 Their arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hooves shall seem like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind.

29 Their roar is like that of a lion, they roar like young lions. And they growl and seize prey, and slip away, with no one to rescue.

30 And in that day they shall growl over it as with the growling of the sea. And one shall look at the earth, and see, darkness and distress! And light shall be darkened by the clouds.

6 In the year that Sovereign Uzziyahu died, I saw אֲלֹהִים sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the Hēykal.

2 Above it stood seraphim. Each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew.

3 And one cried to another and said, "Qodesh, qodesh, qodesh is אֲלֹהִים of hosts; all the earth is filled with His esteem!"

4 And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 And I said, "Woe to me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips - for my eyes have seen the Sovereign, אֲלֹהִים of hosts."

6 And one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from the altar.

7 And he touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your wickedness is taken away, and your sin is covered."

8 And I heard the voice of אִיִּי, saying, "Whom do I send, and who would go for Us?" And I said, "Here am I! Send me."

9 And He said, "Go, and you shall say to this people, 'Hearing, you hear, but do not understand; and seeing, you see, but do not know.'

10 "Make the heart of this people fat, and their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and shall turn and be healed."

11 Then I said, "אִיִּי, until when?" And He answered, "Until the cities are laid waste and without inhabitant, and the houses are without a man, and the land is laid waste, a ruin, 12 and אִיִּי has removed men far away, and the forsaken places be many in the midst of the land.

13 "But still, there is a tenth part in it, and it shall again be for a burning, like a terebinth tree and like an oak, whose stump remains when it is cut down. The qodesh seed is its stump!"

7 And it came to be in the days of Aḥaz son of Yotham, son of Uzziyahu, sovereign of Yahuḏah, that Retsin sovereign of Aram and Peqaḥ son of Remalyahu, sovereign of Yisra'el, went up to Yerushalayim to fight against it, but could not prevail against it.

2 And it was reported to the house of Dawiḏ, saying, "Aram has allied with Ephrayim." And his heart and the heart of his people were moved as the trees of the forest are moved with the wind.

3 And אִיָּהוָה said to Yeshayahu, “Go out now to meet Aḥaz, you and She’ar-Yashub̄ your son, at the end of the channel of the upper pool, on the highway of the Launderer’s Field,

4 and say to him, ‘Take heed, and be calm; do not fear or be faint-hearted for these two stubs of smoking firebrands, for the fierce displeasure of Retsin and Aram, and the son of Remalyahu.

5 ‘Because Aram, Ephrayim, and the son of Remalyahu have plotted evil against you, saying,

6 “Let us go up against Yahudāh and tear it apart, and break it open for ourselves, and appoint a sovereign over them, the son of Taḇe’ēl.”

7 ‘Thus said the Adon אִיָּהוָה, “It is not going to stand, nor shall it take place.

8 “For the head of Aram is Dammeseq, and the head of Dammeseq is Retsin. And within sixty-five years Ephrayim is to be broken as a people.

9 “And the head of Ephrayim is Shomeron, and the head of Shomeron is the son of Remalyahu. If you do not believe, you are not steadfast.” ’ ’

10 And אִיָּהוָה spoke again to Aḥaz, saying,

11 “Ask a sign for yourself from אִיָּהוָה your Elohim; make deep the request or make it high.”

12 But Aḥaz said, “I do not ask nor try אִיָּהוָה!”

13 And he said, “Hear now, O house of Dawid! Is it not enough that you weary men, that you weary my Elohim also?

14 “Therefore אִיָּהוָה Himself gives you a sign: Look, the maiden conceives and gives birth to a Bēn, and shall call His Name Immanu’ēl.

15 “He eats curds and honey when He knows to refuse evil and choose the good.

16 "For before the Child knows to refuse evil and choose the good, the land that you dread is to be forsaken by both her sovereigns.

17 "אֲשׁוּר brings on you and your people and your father's house days that have not come since the day that Ephrayim turned away from Yahudah - the sovereign of Ashshur."

18 And it shall be in that day that אֲשׁוּר whistles for the fly that is in the farthest part of the rivers of Mitsrayim, and for the bee that is in the land of Ashshur.

19 And they shall come, and all of them shall rest in the steep ravines and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all weeds and in all pastures.

20 In that day אֲשׁוּר shall shave with a razor hired beyond the River - with the sovereign of Ashshur - the head and the hair of the legs, and also remove the beard.

21 And it shall be in that day that a man keeps alive a young cow and two sheep.

22 And it shall be, that he shall eat curds because of the plenty of milk he gets, for everyone left in the land shall eat curds.

23 And it shall be in that day, every place where there were a thousand vines worth a thousand sheqels of silver, let it be for thornbushes and weeds.

24 With arrows and bows one shall go there, because all the land shall be thornbushes and weeds.

25 And to all the hills which were tilled with the hoe, you do not go for fear of thornbushes and weeds; but it shall be for sending oxen to, and a place for sheep to roam.

8 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to me, “Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man’s pen concerning Mahër-Shalal-Ḥash-Baz.

2 “And let Me take reliable witnesses to record, Uriyah the kohën and Zeḳaryahu son of Yebereḳyahu.”

3 And I went to the neḅiyah, and she conceived and bore a son. And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to me, “Call his name Mahër-Shalal-Ḥash-Baz;

4 for before the child knows to cry ‘My father’ and ‘My mother,’ the riches of Dammeseq and the spoil of Shomeron is taken away before the sovereign of Ashshur.”

5 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke to me again, saying,

6 “In as much as these people refused the waters of Shiloah that flow softly, and rejoice in Retsin and in Remalyahu’s son;

7 now therefore, see, אִיִּזְרָאֵל brings up over them the waters of the River, strong and mighty - the sovereign of Ashshur and all his esteem. And he shall come up over all his channels and go over all his banks.

8 “And he shall pass through Yahudah, he shall overflow and pass over, reaching up to the neck. And the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of Your land, O Immanu’ël.

9 “Be shattered, O you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Give ear, all you from the far places of the earth. Gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, but be broken in pieces.

10 “Take counsel, and it comes to naught; speak a word, and it does not stand, for Ĕl is with us.”

11 For אִיִּזְרָאֵל spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying,

12 “Do not say, ‘A conspiracy,’ concerning all that this people call a conspiracy, nor be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled.

13 “אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת of hosts, Him you shall qadosh. Let Him be your reverence, and let Him be your awe.

14 “And He shall be for a Miqdash, but a stone of stumbling and a rock that makes for falling to both the houses of Yisra’el, as a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

15 “And many among them shall stumble and fall, and be broken and snared and taken.”

16 Bind up the Witness, seal the Torah among my talmidim.

17 And I shall wait on אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת, who hides His face from the house of Ya’aqob. And I shall look for Him.

18 Look, I and the children whom אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת has given me - for signs and wonders in Yisra’el from אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת of hosts, who dwells in Mount Tsiyon.

19 And when they say to you, “Seek those who are mediums and wizards, who whisper and mutter,” should not a people seek their Elohim? Should they seek the dead on behalf of the living?

20 To the Torah and to the Witness! If they do not speak according to this Word, it is because they have no daybreak.

21 And they shall pass through it hard-pressed and hungry. And it shall be, when they are hungry, that they shall be wroth and curse their sovereign and their Elohim, looking upward.

22 And they shall look to the earth and see distress and darkness, gloom of hard times, and be driven into thick darkness.

9 But there is no gloom upon her who is distressed, as when at first He humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward more heavily oppressed her, by the way of the sea, beyond the Yardēn, in Galil of the nations.

2 The people who were walking in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death a light has shone.

3 You shall increase the nation; You shall make its joy great. They shall rejoice before You, as in the joy of harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

4 For You shall break the yoke of his burden and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midyan.

5 For every boot of one trampling in tumult, and coat rolled in blood, shall be used for burning and fuel for fire.

6 For a Child shall be born unto us, a Bēn shall be given unto us, and the rule is on His shoulder. And His Name is called Wonder, Counsellor, Strong Ĕl, Father of Continuity, Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of His rule and peace there is no end, upon the throne of Dawid and over His reign, to establish it and sustain it with right-ruling and with righteousness from now on, even forever. The ardour of אֲרִיָּאֵל of hosts does this.

8 אֲרִיָּאֵל sent a word against Ya'aqob, and it has fallen on Yisra'ēl.

9 And the people shall know, all of them, Ephrayim and the inhabitant of Shomeron, who say in pride and greatness of heart:

10 "The bricks have fallen down, but we rebuild with hewn stones; the sycamores are cut down, but we replace them with cedars."

11 And אֲרִיָּאֵל raised the adversaries of Retsin against him, and stirred up his enemies,

12 the Arameans before and the Pelishtites behind. And they devour Yisra'ël with an open mouth. With all this His displeasure has not turned back, and His hand is still stretched out.

13 And the people have not turned back to Him who smites them, nor have they sought אֲרָמִי of hosts.

14 And אֲרָמִי cuts off head and tail from Yisra'ël, palm branch and reed in one day.

15 Elder and highly respected, he is the head; the nabi who teaches falsehood, he is the tail.

16 For the leaders of this people lead astray, and those who are guided by them are swallowed up.

17 Therefore אֲרָמִי does not rejoice over their young men, and has no compassion on their fatherless and widows; for everyone is defiled and evil, and every mouth speaks foolishness. With all this His displeasure has not turned back, and His hand is still stretched out.

18 For wickedness burns as the fire; it consumes thornbushes and weeds, and lights the bushes of the forest ablaze, and they roll up like rising smoke.

19 The land shall be burned up by the wrath of אֲרָמִי of hosts, and the people be as fuel for the fire. A man shall not spare his brother,

20 and cut down on the right hand, but shall be hungry; and he devours on the left hand, but shall not be satisfied; each one devouring the flesh of his own arm:

21 Menashsheh, Ephrayim, and Ephrayim, Menashsheh; together they are against Yahudah. With all this His displeasure has not turned back, and His hand is still stretched out.

10 “Woe to those making unrighteous decrees, writers who have prescribed toil,

2 to keep the needy back from right-ruling, and to take what is right from the poor of My people, that widows become their prey, and orphans their plunder.

3 “What shall you do in the day of visitation, and in the ruin which comes from afar? To whom would you run for help? And where would you leave your wealth?

4 “Without Me they shall bow down among the prisoners, and fall among the slain.” With all this His displeasure has not turned back, and His hand is still stretched out.

5 “Woe to Ashshur, the rod of My displeasure and the staff in whose hand is My displeasure.

6 “Against a defiled nation I send him, and against the people of My wrath I command him to seize the spoil, to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mud of the streets.

7 “But he does not intend so, nor does his heart think so, for it is in his heart to destroy, and cut off not a few nations.

8 “For he says, ‘Are not my princes sovereigns?

9 ‘Is not Kalno like Karkemish? Is not Ḥamath like Arpad? Is not Shomeron like Dammeseq?

10 ‘As my hand has found the reigns of the idols, whose carved images excelled those of Yerushalayim and Shomeron,

11 as I have done to Shomeron and her idols, do I not do also to Yerushalayim and her idols?’

12 “And it shall be, when אִשְׁשׁוּר has performed all His work on Mount Tsiyon and on Yerushalayim, that I shall punish the fruit of the greatness of the heart of the sovereign of Ashshur, and the boasting of his haughty looks.

13 “For he has said, ‘By the power of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom, for I have been clever.

And I remove the boundaries of the people, and have robbed their treasuries. And I put down the inhabitants like a strong one.

14 'And my hand finds the riches of the people like a nest. And I have gathered all the earth like forsaken eggs are gathered. And there was no one who moved his wing, nor opened his mouth with even a peep.' ”

15 Would the axe boast itself over him who chops with it, or the saw exalt itself over him who saws with it? As a rod waving those who lift it up! As a staff lifting up that which is not wood!

16 Therefore the Adon, אֲדֹנָי of hosts, sends leanness among his fat ones. And under his esteem he kindles a burning like the burning of a fire.

17 And the Light of Yisra'ël shall be for a fire, and his Qadosh One for a flame. And it shall burn and devour his weeds and his thornbushes in one day,

18 and consume the esteem of his forest and of his fertile field, both life and flesh. And they shall be as when a sick man wastes away,

19 and the remaining trees of his forest shall be so few in number that a child records them.

20 And in that day it shall be that the remnant of Yisra'ël, and those who have escaped of the house of Ya'aqob, never again lean upon him who smote them, but shall lean upon אֲדֹנָי, the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël, in truth.

21 A remnant shall return, the remnant of Ya'aqob, to the Mighty Ėl.

22 For though your people, O Yisra'ël, be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return - a decisive end, overflowing righteousness.

23 For the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts is making a complete end, as decided, in the midst of all the earth.

24 Therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts, “My people, who dwell in Tsiyon, be not afraid of Ashshur, who beats you with a rod and lifts up his staff against you, in the way of Mitsrayim.

25 “For yet a little while and the displeasure shall be completed, and My displeasure be to their destruction.”

26 And אֲדֹנָי of hosts stirs up a lash for him as the smiting of Midyan at the rock of Orēb. And as His rod was on the sea, so shall He lift it up in the way of Mitsrayim.

27 And in that day it shall be that his burden is removed from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

28 He has come upon Ayath, he has passed Miḡron. At Miḡmash he stored his supplies.

29 They have gone through the pass, they have taken up lodging at Geḇa. Ramah is afraid, Giḇ'ah of Sha'ul has fled.

30 Lift up your voice, O daughter of Gallim! Listen, Layishah - O poor Anathoth!

31 Maḡmēnah has fled, the inhabitants of Gēḇim sought refuge.

32 Yet he remains at Nob that day; he shakes his fist at the mountain of the daughter of Tsiyon, the hill of Yerushalayim.

33 Look, the Adon, אֲדֹנָי of hosts, is lopping off a branch with an awesome crash, and the tall ones are cut down, and the lofty ones are laid low.

34 And He shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Leḇanon shall fall as a mighty one!

11 And a Rod shall come forth from the stump of Yishai, and a Sprout from his roots shall bear fruit.

2 The Ruah of אִי אִי shall rest upon Him - the Ruah of wisdom and understanding, the Ruah of counsel and might, the Ruah of knowledge and of the reverence of אִי אִי,

3 and shall make Him breathe in the reverence of אִי אִי. And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, nor decide by the hearing of His ears.

4 But with righteousness He shall judge the poor, and shall decide with straightness for the meek ones of the earth, and shall smite the earth with the rod of His mouth, and slay the wicked with the breath of His lips.

5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of His loins, and trustworthiness the girdle of His waist.

6 And a wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and a leopard lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child leads them.

7 And cow and bear shall feed, their young ones lie down together, and a lion eat straw like an ox.

8 And the nursing child shall play by the cobra's hole, and the weaned child shall put his hand in the adder's den.

9 They do no evil nor destroy in all My qodesh mountain, for the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of אִי אִי as the waters cover the sea.

10 And in that day there shall be a Root of Yishai, standing as a banner to the people. Unto Him the gentiles shall seek, and His rest shall be esteem.

11 And it shall be in that day that אִי אִי puts His hand again a second time to recover the remnant of His people who are left, from Ashshur and from Mitsrayim, from Pathros and from Kush, from Ėylam and from Shin'ar, from H̄amath and from the islands of the sea.

12 And He shall raise a banner for the nations, and gather the outcasts of Yisra'ël, and assemble the dispersed of Yahudāh from the four corners of the earth.

13 And the envy of Ephrayim shall turn aside, and the adversaries of Yahudāh be cut off. Ephrayim shall not envy Yahudāh, and Yahudāh not trouble Ephrayim.

14 But they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Pelishtites toward the west; together they plunder the people of the east, their hand stretching forth on Edom and Mo'ab, and the children of Ammon shall be subject to them.

15 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall put under the ban the tongue of the Sea of Mitsrayim, and He shall wave His hand over the River with the might of His Ruah, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and shall cause to tread it in sandals.

16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of His people, those left from Ashshur, as it was for Yisra'ël in the day when he came up from the land of Mitsrayim.

12 And in that day you shall say, "I thank You אִיִּזְרָאֵל, though You were enraged with me, Your displeasure has turned back, and You have comforted me.

2 "See, Ėl is my deliverance, I trust and am not afraid. For Yah, אִיִּזְרָאֵל, is my strength and my song; and He has become my deliverance."

3 And you shall draw water with joy from the fountains of deliverance.

4 And in that day you shall say, "Praise אִיִּזְרָאֵל, call upon His Name; make known His deeds among the peoples, make mention that His Name is exalted.

5 "Sing to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, for He has done excellently; this is known in all the earth.

6 “Cry aloud and shout, O inhabitant of Tsiyon, for great is the Qadosh One of Yisra’el in your midst!”

13 The message concerning Babel which Yeshayahu son of Amots saw.

2 “Lift up a banner on the high mountain, raise your voice to them; wave your hand, let them enter the gates of the nobles.

3 “I have commanded My qodeshim; I have also called My mighty men for My displeasure, My proudly exulting ones.”

4 The noise of an uproar in the mountains, like that of many people! A noise of uproar of the reigns of gentiles gathered together! אִיִּי of hosts is gathering an army for battle.

5 They are coming from a distant land, from the end of the shamayim, even אִיִּי and His weapons of displeasure, to destroy all the earth.

6 Howl, for the day of אִיִּי is near! It comes as a destruction from Ĕl Shaddai.

7 Therefore all hands go limp, every man’s heart melts,

8 and they shall be afraid. Pangs and sorrows take hold of them, they are in pain as a woman in labour; they are amazed at one another, their faces aflame!

9 See, the day of אִיִּי is coming, fierce, with wrath and heat of displeasure, to lay the earth waste, and destroy its sinners from it.

10 For the stars of the shamayim and their constellations do not give off their light. The sun shall be dark at its rising, and the moon not send out its light.

11 “And I shall punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their wickedness, and shall put an end to the arrogance of the proud, and lay low the pride of the ruthless.

12 "I shall make mortal man scarcer than fine gold, and mankind than the gold of Ophir.

13 "So I shall make the shamayim tremble, and the earth shall shake from her place, in the wrath of אַף אַף of hosts and in the day of the heat of His displeasure.

14 "And it shall be as the hunted gazelle, and as a sheep that no man takes up - every man turns to his own people, and everyone flees to his own land.

15 "Whoever is found is thrust through, and everyone taken falls by the sword.

16 "And their children are dashed to pieces before their eyes, their houses plundered and their wives ravished.

17 "See, I am stirring up the Madites against them, who do not regard silver, and as for gold, they do not delight in it.

18 "And bows dash the young to pieces, and they have no compassion on the fruit of the womb, their eye spares no children.

19 "And Babel, the splendour of reigns, the comeliness of the Kasdites' pride, shall be as when Elohim overthrew Sedom and Amorah.

20 "She shall never be inhabited, nor be settled from generation to generation; nor shall the Arabian pitch tents there, nor shepherds rest their flocks there.

21 "But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there, and their houses shall be filled with owls. And ostriches shall dwell there, and wild goats frolic there.

22 "And hyenas shall cry in their citadels, and jackals in their pleasant palaces. And her time is near to come, and her days are not drawn out."

14 For אִיִּזְרָאֵל has compassion on Ya'aqob, and shall again choose Yisra'el, and give them rest in their own land. And the strangers shall join them, and they shall cling to the house of Ya'aqob.

2 And peoples shall take them and bring them to their own place. And the house of Yisra'el shall possess them for servants and female servants in the land of אִיִּזְרָאֵל. And they shall make captives of their captors, and rule over their oppressors.

3 And it shall be, in the אִיִּזְרָאֵל day gives you rest from your sorrow, and from your trouble and the hard service in which you were made to serve,

4 that you shall take up this proverb against the sovereign of Babel, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased, the gold-gatherer ceased!

5 "אִיִּזְרָאֵל has broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers,

6 he who smote the people in wrath with ceaseless blows, he who ruled the gentiles in displeasure, is persecuted and no one restrains.

7 "All the earth is at rest and at peace, they shall break forth into singing.

8 "Even the cypress trees rejoice over you, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, 'Since you were cut down, no woodcutter has come up against us.'

9 "The grave from beneath is excited about you, to meet you at your coming; it stirs up the dead for you, all the chief ones of the earth; it has raised up from their thrones all the sovereigns of the gentiles.

10 "All of them respond and say to you, 'Have you also become as weak as we? Have you become like us?

11 'Your arrogance has been brought down to the grave, and the sound of your stringed instruments;

the maggot is spread under you, and worms cover you.'

12 "How you have fallen from the shamayim, O Hělēl, son of the morning! You have been cut down to the ground, you who laid low the gentiles!

13 "For you have said in your heart, 'Let me go up to the shamayim, let me raise my throne above the stars of Ĕl, and let me sit in the mount of meeting on the sides of the north;

14 let me go up above the heights of the clouds, let me be like the Most High.'

15 "But you are brought down to the grave, to the sides of the pit.

16 "Those who see you stare at you, and ponder over you, saying, 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook reigns,

17 who made the world as a wilderness and destroyed its cities, who would not open the house of his prisoners?'

18 "All the sovereigns of the gentiles, all of them, were laid in esteem, everyone in his own house;

19 but you have been thrown from your grave like an abominable branch, like the garment of those who are slain, thrust through with a sword, who go down to the stones of the pit, like a trampled corpse.

20 "You are not joined with them in burial, for you have destroyed your land and slain your people. Let the seed of evil-doers never be mentioned.

21 "Prepare his children for slaughter, because of the wickedness of their fathers, lest they rise up and possess the land, and fill the face of the world with cities."

22 "And I shall rise up against them," declares אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת of hosts, "and shall cut off from Babel the name and remnant, and offspring and descendant,” declares

23 “And I shall make it a possession for the porcupine, and marshes of muddy water; and shall sweep it with the broom of destruction,” declares אֱלֹהֵינוּ of hosts.

24 אֱלֹהֵינוּ of hosts has sworn, saying, “Truly, as I have planned, so shall it be; and as I have purposed, so it stands:

25 “To break Ashshur in My land, and tread him down on My mountains. And his yoke shall be removed from them, and his burden removed from their shoulders.

26 “This is the counsel that is counselled for all the earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.

27 “For אֱלֹהֵינוּ of hosts has counselled, and who annuls it? And His hand that is stretched out, who turns it back?”

28 This is the message which came in the year that Sovereign Aḥaz died:

29 “Do not rejoice, all you of Pelesheth, that the rod that smote you is broken; for out of the serpent’s roots comes forth an adder, and its offspring is a fiery flying serpent.

30 “And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy lie down in safety. And I shall kill your roots with scarcity of food, and it shall slay your remnant.

31 “Howl, O gate! Cry, O city! Melt away, all you of Pelesheth! For smoke shall come from the north, and there is no stranger in his ranks.”

32 And what does one answer the messengers of a nation? “That אֱלֹהֵינוּ has founded Tsiyon, and the poor of His people take refuge in it.”

15 The message concerning Mo'ab. Because in the night Ar of Mo'ab was laid waste, was silenced! Because in the night Qir of Mo'ab was laid waste, was silenced!

2 He has gone up to the house and Diḅon, to the high places to weep. Mo'ab is wailing over Neḅo and over Měydeḅa; on all their heads is baldness, and every beard is cut off.

3 In their streets they shall put on sackcloth; on the tops of their houses and in their streets everyone wails, weeping bitterly.

4 And Ḥeshbon and El'alēh cry out, their voice shall be heard as far as Yahats. Therefore the armed ones of Mo'ab shout; his being shall tremble within him.

5 My own heart is toward Mo'ab; her fugitives cry unto Tso'ar, like a three-year-old heifer. For by the ascent of Luḥith they go up with weeping; for in the way of Ḥoronayim they raise a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim are wastes, for the green grass has withered away; the grass fails, there is no greenness.

7 Therefore the wealth, acquired and stored up, they take away to the wadi ha'Arabim.

8 For the cry has gone all around the borders of Mo'ab, its wailing to Ēḡlayim and its wailing to Be'ēr Ēlim.

9 "For the waters of Dimon shall be filled with blood; for I shall bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him who escapes from Mo'ab, and on the remnant of the land."

16 Send a lamb to the ruler of the land, from Sela to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Tsiyon.

2 And it shall be, like a wandering bird, a nest thrown out, so are the daughters of Mo'ab at the fords of Arnon.

3 "Bring counsel, execute judgment; make your shadow like the night in the middle of the day; hide the outcasts, do not betray him who escapes.

4 "Let My outcasts dwell with you, O Mo'ab; be a shelter to them from the face of the ravager. For the oppressor has met his end, destruction has ceased, those trampling down have perished from the land.

5 "And in kindness the throne shall be established. And One shall sit on it in truth, in the Tent of Dawid, judging and seeking Right-Ruling, and speeding righteousness."

6 We have heard of the pride of Mo'ab - very proud - of his pride, his arrogance and his rage. His boastings are not true.

7 So Mo'ab wails for Mo'ab, everyone wails. For the raisin-cakes of Qir Haraseth they moan. They are utterly smitten.

8 For the fields of Heshbon languish - the vine of Sibmah. The masters of the gentiles have broken down its choice plants, which have reached to Ya'zer and wandered through the wilderness. Her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

9 Therefore I bewail the vine of Sibmah, with the weeping of Ya'zer. I water you with my tears, O Heshbon and El'alēh, for acclamation have fallen over your summer fruit and your harvest.

10 Gladness is taken away, and joy from the orchard; in the vineyards there is no singing, nor shouting; No treaders tread out wine in their presses; I have made their acclamation cease.

11 Therefore my inward parts sound like a lyre for Mo'ab, and my inner being for Qir Heres.

12 And it shall be, when it is seen that Mo'ab has wearied herself on the high place, that she shall come to her sanctuary to pray, but not be able.

13 This is the word which אִיִּזְרְאֵל has spoken concerning Mo'ab since that time.

14 But now אִיִּזְרְאֵל has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as the years of a hired man, the esteem of Mo'ab is to be despised with all its great throng, and the remnant be few, small and weak."

17 The message concerning Dammeseq. "See, Dammeseq ceases to be a city, and shall become a heap of ruins.

2 "The cities of Aro'ër are forsaken, they are for flocks which shall lie down, with no one to frighten.

3 "And the stronghold shall cease from Ephrayim, and the reign from Dammeseq, and the remnant of Aram be as the esteem of the sons of Yisra'ël," declares אִיִּזְרְאֵל of hosts.

4 "And in that day it shall be that the esteem of Ya'aqob wanes, and the fatness of his flesh grows lean.

5 "And it shall be as when the harvester gathers the grain, and reaps the heads with his arm. And it shall be as he who gathers heads of grain in the Valley of Repha'im.

6 "And gleaning grapes shall be left in it, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives at the top of the uppermost branch, four or five in its most fruit-bearing branches," declares אִיִּזְרְאֵל Elohim of Yisra'ël.

7 In that day man shall look to his Maker, and his eyes turn to the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël.

8 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands; and he shall not see that which his own fingers made, nor the Ashërim nor the sun-pillars.

9 In that day his strong cities become like a forsaken forest and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Yisra'el. And it shall become a ruin.

10 Because you have forgotten the Elohim of your deliverance, and have not remembered the Rock of your stronghold, therefore you shall plant pleasant plants and put out foreign seedlings, 11 by day make your plant to grow, and in the morning make your seed to flourish - the harvest is a heap in the day of grief and incurable pain.

12 Woe to the uproar of many people who make a noise like the roar of the seas, and to the rushing of nations that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters -

13 nations rushing like the rushing of many waters. But He shall rebuke them and they shall flee far away, and be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, like whirling dust before the whirlwind.

14 At eventide, look! Alarm! Before morning, it is no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

18 Woe to the land shadowed with whirring wings, which is beyond the rivers of Kush,

2 which sends envoys by sea, even in vessels of reed on the waters, saying, "Go, swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth-skinned, to a people dreaded from their beginning onward, a nation mighty and trampling, whose land the rivers divide."

3 All inhabitants of the world, and you that dwell on the earth: When a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! And when a ram's horn is blown, hear!

4 For thus אֱלֹהִים said to me, "I am still, and I watch in My dwelling place like dazzling heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."

5 For before harvest, when the bud is perfect and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, then He shall cut off the twigs with pruning hooks, and shall cut down and take away the spreading branches.

6 They are left together for the mountain birds of prey and for the beasts of the earth. And the birds of prey shall summer on them, and all the beasts of the earth winter on them.

7 In that time a present shall be brought to אֱלֹהִים of hosts from a people tall and smooth-skinned, and from a people awesome from their beginning onward - a nation mighty and trampling, whose land the rivers have divided - to the place of the Name of אֱלֹהִים of hosts, to Mount Tsiyon.

19 The message concerning Mitsrayim. See, אֱלֹהִים is riding on a swift cloud, and He shall come into Mitsrayim. And the idols of Mitsrayim shall tremble at His presence, and the heart of Mitsrayim melt in its midst.

2 "And I shall stir up Mitsrites against Mitsrites, and they shall fight, each one against his brother, and each one against his neighbour, city against city, reign against reign.

3 "And the spirit of Mitsrayim shall vanish within them, and I destroy their counsel. And they shall seek the idols and the mutterers, the mediums and the sorcerers.

4 "And I shall deliver the Mitsrites into the hand of a cruel master, and a fierce sovereign to rule over them," declares the Adon, אֱלֹהִים of hosts.

5 And waters shall fail from the sea, and the river wasted and dried up.

6 And the rivers shall stink, and the streams shall be weak and dried up. Reeds and rushes shall wither.

7 Bare places by the River, by the mouth of the River, and every sown field by the River shall wither. It shall be driven away, and be no more.

8 And the fishermen shall lament, and all those who cast hooks into the River shall mourn, and they who spread nets on the waters shall pine away.

9 And those who work in fine flax, and those who weave fine fabric shall become ashamed.

10 And its foundations shall be crushed, all the wage workers grieved in being.

11 The princes of Tso'an are only fools; the counsel of Pharaoh's wise ones have become senseless. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient sovereigns?"

12 Where are they? Where are your wise men? Let them show you, and let them know what אֲרָצָה of hosts has counselled against Mitsrayim.

13 The princes of Tso'an have become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived. They, the corner-stone of her tribes, have led Mitsrayim astray.

14 אֲרָצָה has mixed a perverse spirit in her midst. And they have led Mitsrayim astray in all her work, as a drunkard strays in his vomit.

15 And there is no work for Mitsrayim, by either head or tail, palm branch or bulrush.

16 In that day Mitsrayim shall become like women, and tremble and fear because of the waving of the hand of אֲרָצָה of hosts, which He waves over it.

17 And the land of Yahudah shall be a fear to Mitsrayim, everyone who mentions it fears for himself, because of the counsel of אֱלֹהִים of hosts which He has counselled against it.

18 In that day five cities in the land of Mitsrayim shall speak the language of Kena'an and swear by אֱלֹהִים of hosts, one is called the City of Destruction.

19 In that day an altar to אֱלֹהִים shall be in the midst of the land of Mitsrayim, and a standing column to אֱלֹהִים at its border.

20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to אֱלֹהִים of hosts in the land of Mitsrayim. When they cry to אֱלֹהִים because of the oppressors, He sends them a Saviour and an Elohim, and shall deliver them.

21 And אֱלֹהִים shall be known to Mitsrayim, and the Mitsrites shall know אֱלֹהִים in that day, and make slaughtering and meal offering, and shall make a vow to אֱלֹהִים and pay it.

22 And אֱלֹהִים shall smite Mitsrayim, smite it and heal it. And they shall turn to אֱלֹהִים, and He shall hear them and heal them.

23 In that day there shall be a highway from Mitsrayim to Ashshur, and Ashshur shall come into Mitsrayim and Mitsrayim into Ashshur, and Mitsrayim shall serve with Ashshur.

24 In that day Yisra'el shall be one of three with Mitsrayim and Ashshur, even a beraḵah in the midst of the earth,

25 whom אֱלֹהִים of hosts shall barak, saying, "Baruk is Mitsrayim My people, and Ashshur the work of My hands, and Yisra'el My inheritance."

20 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the sovereign of Ashshur sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it,

2 at that same time אֱלֹהִים spoke by means of Yeshayahu son of Amots, saying, "Go, and remove the sackcloth from your body, and take your sandals off your feet.” And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

3 And אִרְיָאֵל said, “As My servant Yeshayahu has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder against Mitsrayim and Kush,

4 so does the sovereign of Ashshur lead away the captives of Mitsrayim and the exiles of Kush, young and old, naked and barefoot, with their buttocks uncovered - the shame of Mitsrayim.

5 “And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Kush, their expectation, and of Mitsrayim, their boast.

6 “And the inhabitant of this coastland shall say in that day, ‘See, such is our expectation, wherever we flee for help to be delivered from the sovereign of Ashshur. And how do we escape?’ ”

21 The message concerning the Wilderness of the Sea. As whirlwinds in the Negeb sweep on, so it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land.

2 A distressing vision is revealed to me: the treacherous betrays, and the ravager ravages. Go up, O Ēylam! Besiege, O Madai! All the groaning I bring to an end.

3 Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pangs have seized me, like the pangs of a woman in labour. I was distressed when I heard it; I was troubled when I saw it.

4 My heart reeled, horror overwhelmed me; the night for which I longed He turned into fear for me.

5 Prepare the table, spread the mat, eat and drink. Arise, you princes, anoint the shield!

6 For אִרְיָאֵל has said this to me, “Go, appoint a watchman, let him declare what he sees.”

7 And he saw a chariot with a pair of horsemen, a chariot of donkeys, and a chariot of camels, and he listened attentively, very attentively.

8 Then he cried, "A lion, O אֲרָמָא! I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and I have sat at my post every night.

9 "And see this, a chariot of men coming with a pair of horsemen!" And he spoke up and said, "Babel is fallen, is fallen! And all the carved images of her mighty ones He has broken to the ground."

10 Oh, my threshing and the grain of my floor! That which I have heard from אֲרָמָא of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, I have declared to you.

11 The message concerning Dumah. He calls to me out of Sē'ir, "Watchman, how much of the night is passed? Watchman, how much of the night has passed?"

12 The watchman said, "Morning came, and also the night. If you inquire, inquire. Come again!"

13 The message concerning Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you stay, O you travelling companies of Dedanites.

14 You who dwell in the land of Tēma, bring water to him who is thirsty, meet the fugitive with bread.

15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the stress of battle.

16 For thus אֲרָמָא has said to me, "Within a year, according to the year of a hired man, all the esteem of Qēḏar shall come to an end,

17 and the rest of the number of archers, the mighty men of the people of Qēḏar, shall be few. For אֲרָמָא Elohim of Yisra'el has spoken."

- 22 The message concerning the Valley of Hizzayon. What troubles you now, that you have all gone up to the house-tops,
- 2 you who are filled with turmoils, a noisy city, a city of revelry? Your slain are not slain with the sword, nor the dead in battle.
- 3 All your rulers have fled together; without a bow they were taken captive. All who are found in you are bound together, who have fled from afar.
- 4 Therefore I said, "Look away from me, let me weep bitterly. Do not try to comfort me because of the ravaging of the daughter of my people."
- 5 For it is a day of uproar and treading down and perplexity by the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts in the Valley of Hizzayon - breaking down of a wall and of crying to the mountain.
- 6 And Eylam bore the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Qir bared the shield.
- 7 And it shall be that your choicest valleys shall be filled with chariots, and the horsemen shall take up positions at the gate.
- 8 Then He removed the covering of Yahudah. And you looked in that day to the weapons of the house of the Forest.
- 9 And you saw the breaches of the city of Dawid, that it was great. And you gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
- 10 And you counted the houses of Yerushalayim, and the houses you broke down to strengthen the wall.
- 11 And you dug a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you have not looked to its Maker, nor have you seen Him who fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts called for weeping and for mourning, for baldness and for girding with sackcloth.

13 Then see! Joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating meat and drinking wine, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

14 And it was revealed in my hearing by אֲדֹנָי of hosts, "For this wickedness shall certainly not be pardoned until you die," said the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts.

15 Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts, "Go, come to this steward, to Shebnaḥ, who is over the house, and say, 16 'What have you here, and whom have you here, that you have hewn a tomb here, as he who hews himself a tomb on high, cutting out a resting place for himself in a rock?

17 'See, אֲדֹנָי is hurling you away, O man, and is firmly grasping you, 18 rolling you up tightly like a ball, into a wide land. There you are to die, and there your esteemed chariots are to be the shame of your master's house.

19 'And I shall drive you from your office, and you shall be ousted from your position.

20 'And it shall be in that day, that I shall call My servant Elyaqim son of Hilqiyahu.

21 'And I shall put your robe on him, and strengthen him with your girdle, and give your authority into his hand. And he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and to the house of Yahuḏah.

22 'And I shall place the key of the house of Dawid on his shoulder. And he shall open, and no one shuts; and shall shut, and no one opens.

23 'And I shall fasten him like a peg in a steadfast place, and he shall become a throne of esteem to his father's house.

24 'And they shall hang on him all the weight of his father's house, the offspring and the offshoots, all vessels of small quantity, from the cups to all the jars.

25 'In that day,' declares אֱלֹהִים of hosts, 'the peg that is fastened in the steadfast place shall be removed and be cut down and fall, and the burden that was on it shall be cut off. For אֱלֹהִים has spoken.' "

23 The message concerning Tsor. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it has been destroyed, without house, without harbour. From the land of Kittim it has been revealed to them.

2 Be silent, you inhabitants of the coastland, you merchants of Tsidon, who passed over the sea, they filled you.

3 And on great waters the grain of Shiḥor, the harvest of the River, was her increase. And she was a market-place for the nations.

4 Be ashamed, O Tsidon, for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, "I have not laboured, nor brought forth children; neither have I reared young men, brought up maidens."

5 Like the report of Mitsrayim, they too are grieved at the report of Tsor.

6 Pass over to Tarshish; wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!

7 Is this your city of revelry, whose antiquity is from days of old, whose feet carried her far off to sojourn?

8 Who has counselled this against Tsor, the crowning city, whose merchants are chiefs, whose traders are the esteemed of the earth?

9 אֱלֹהִים of hosts has counselled it, to defile the pride of all splendour, and to shame all the esteemed of the earth.

10 Overflow through your land like the River, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more strength.

11 He has stretched out His hand over the sea, He shook the reigns; אֲרָרַז has given a command against Kena'an to destroy its strongholds.

12 And He said, "Never again shall you exult, O you oppressed maiden daughter of Tsidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim, even there you shall find no rest."

13 See the land of the Kasdites - this people did not exist. Ashshur founded it for wild beasts of the desert. They put up their siege-towers, they demolished her palaces, and made her a ruin.

14 Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste!

15 And in that day it shall be that Tsor is forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one sovereign. At the end of seventy years it shall be to Tsor as in the song of the whore:

16 "Take a lyre, go about the city, you forgotten whore; make sweet playing, sing many songs, so that you might be remembered."

17 And at the end of seventy years it shall be that אֲרָרַז visits Tsor. And she shall return to her hire and commit whoring with all the reigns of the earth on the face of the land.

18 And her goods and her hire shall be qadosh for אֲרָרַז, not treasured nor laid up, for her gain is for those who dwell before אֲרָרַז, to eat sufficiently, and for a choice covering.

24 See, אֲרָרַז is making the earth empty and making it waste, and shall overturn its surface, and shall scatter abroad its inhabitants.

2 And it shall be - as with the people so with the kohēn, as with the servant so with his master, as with the female servant so with her mistress, as with the buyer so with the seller, as with the lender so with the borrower, as with the creditor so with the debtor;

3 the earth is completely emptied and utterly plundered, for אִי־אִי has spoken this word.

4 The earth shall mourn and wither, the world shall languish and wither, the haughty people of the earth shall languish.

5 For the earth has been defiled under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the Torot, changed the Law, broken the everlasting Covenant.

6 Therefore a curse shall consume the earth, and those who dwell in it be punished. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth shall be burned, and few men shall be left.

7 The new wine shall fail, the vine shall languish, all those glad at heart shall sigh.

8 The joy of the tambourine shall cease, the noise of those who rejoice shall end, the joy of the lyre shall cease.

9 No more do they drink wine with a song, strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.

10 The deserted city shall be broken down, every house shall be shut, no one enters.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy shall be darkened, the gladness of the earth shall be gone.

12 The city is left in ruins, and the gate is stricken with destruction.

13 For thus it is to be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, like the shaking of an olive tree, like the gleaning of grapes when the grape harvest is done.

14 They lift up their voice, they sing of the excellency of אִי־אִי, they shall cry aloud from the sea.

15 Therefore esteem אֱלֹהִים in the east, the Name of אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el in the coastlands of the sea.

16 From the ends of the earth we shall hear songs, "Splendour to the Righteous One!" But I say, "I waste away, I waste away! Woe to me! The treacherous betray, with treachery the treacherous betray."

17 Fear and the pit and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall be that he who flees from the noise of the fear falls into the pit, and he who comes up from the midst of the pit is caught in the snare. For the windows from on high shall be opened, and the foundations of the earth be shaken.

19 The earth shall be utterly broken, the earth shall be completely shattered, the earth shall be fiercely shaken.

20 The earth shall stagger like a drunkard. And it shall totter like a hut, and its transgression shall be heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and not rise again.

21 And in that day it shall be that אֱלֹהִים punishes on high the host of exalted ones, and on the earth the sovereigns of the earth.

22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and be punished after many days.

23 And the moon shall blush, and the sun shall be ashamed, for אֱלֹהִים of hosts shall reign on Mount Tsiyon, and in Yerushalayim, and before His elders, in esteem!

25 O אֱלֹהִים, You are my Elohim. I exalt You, I praise Your Name, for You shall do a wonder - counsels of long ago, trustworthiness, truth.

- 2 For You shall make a city a heap, a walled city a ruin, a palace of foreigners to be a city no more - never to be rebuilt.
- 3 Therefore a strong people praise You, the city of the powerful nations revere You.
- 4 For You shall be a refuge to the poor, a refuge to the needy in his distress, a shelter from the storm, a shade from the heat. For the spirit of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall.
- 5 You subdue the noise of foreigners, as heat in a dry place; as heat in the shadow of a cloud, the singing of the ruthless is subdued.
- 6 And in this mountain אֶרְצָאֵל of hosts shall make for all people a feast of choice pieces, a feast of old wines, of choice pieces with marrow, of old wines, well-refined.
- 7 And He shall swallow up on this mountain the surface of the covering which covers all people, and the veil which is spread over all nations.
- 8 He shall swallow up death forever, and the Adon אֶרְצָאֵל shall wipe away tears from all faces, and take away the reproach of His people from all the earth. For אֶרְצָאֵל has spoken.
- 9 And it shall be said in that day, "See, this is our Elohim. We have waited for Him, and He saves us. This is אֶרְצָאֵל, we have waited for Him, let us be glad and rejoice in His deliverance."
- 10 For the hand of אֶרְצָאֵל rests on this mountain, and Mo'ab is trodden down under Him, as straw is trodden down in the water of a dunghill.
- 11 And He shall spread out His hands in their midst as he who swims spreads out his hands to swim, and He shall bring down their pride together, with the skill of His hands.

12 And the high stronghold of your walls He shall bring down, lay it low, levelled to the ground, down to the dust.

26 In that day this song is sung in the land of Yahudah, "We have a strong city - He appoints deliverance, walls and ramparts.

2 "Open the gates, let the righteous nation which guards the truth enter in.

3 "The one steadfast of mind You guard in perfect peace, for he trusts in You.

4 "Trust in אֱלֹהִים forever, for in Yah, אֱלֹהִים, is a rock of ages.

5 "For He shall bring down those who dwell on high. He lays the exalted city low, He lays it low to the earth, He brings it down to the dust.

6 "A foot tramples it down - feet of the poor, footsteps of the needy."

7 The path of the righteous is uprightness; O upright One, You weigh the course of the righteous.

8 Also, in the path of Your Right-Rulings, O אֱלֹהִים, we have waited for You; the longing of being is for Your Name and for the remembrance of You.

9 My being longs for You in the night, also, my spirit within me seeks You earnestly. For when Your Right-Rulings are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world shall learn righteousness.

10 The wicked finds favour, he shall not learn righteousness; in the land of straightforwardness he acts perversely, and does not see the excellency of אֱלֹהִים.

11 O אֱלֹהִים, Your hand is high, they do not see. They see the ardour of the people and are ashamed; also, let the fire for Your adversaries consume them.

12 O אֱלֹהִים, You establish peace for us, for You have also done all our works in us.

13 O אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, other masters besides You have had rule over us; only in You do we make mention of Your Name.

14 The dead do not live; the departed spirits do not rise. Therefore You have visited and destroyed them, and made all their remembrance to perish.

15 You shall increase the nation, O אֱלֹהִים, You shall increase the nation; You are esteemed; You shall expand all the borders of the land.

16 O אֱלֹהִים, in distress they shall visit You, they shall pour out a prayer when Your disciplining is upon them.

17 As a woman with child and about to give birth writhes and cries out in her pain, so shall we be before Your face, O אֱלֹהִים.

18 We have conceived, we writhed in pain; we have given birth to wind. We have not accomplished deliverance in the earth nor have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Let Your dead live, and my dead body, let them arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in dust; for Your dew is a dew of light, and let the earth give birth to the departed spirits.

20 Go, my people, enter your rooms, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourself, as it were, for a little while, until the displeasure is past.

21 For look, אֱלֹהִים is coming out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their wickedness. And the earth shall disclose her blood, and no longer cover her slain.

27 In that day אֱלֹהִים with His severe sword, great and strong, punishes Liwiathan the fleeing serpent, Liwiathan that twisted serpent. And He shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

2 In that day sing to her, "A vineyard of red wine!

3 "I, אֶרְאֶה, do guard it, I water it every moment; lest any hurt it, I guard it night and day.

4 "Wrath is not in Me. Who would put thornbushes and weeds against Me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

5 "Or let him take hold of My strength and make peace with Me. Let him make peace with Me!"

6 Those who come He causes to take root in Ya'aqob, Yisra'el shall blossom and bud. And they shall fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 Has He smitten him as He smote those who were smiting him? Or were they slain as those they had killed?

8 In measure, by sending her away, You contended with her. He shall take away by His rough wind in the day of the east wind.

9 Therefore by this the wickedness of Ya'aqob is covered. And this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: when he makes all the stones of the altar like chalkstones that are beaten to dust - Asherim and sun-pillars rise no more.

10 For the city of defence is lonely, a home forsaken and left like a wilderness - there the calf feeds, and there it lies down, and shall consume its branches.

11 When its twigs are dry, they are broken off, women come and light them on fire. For it is a people of no understanding, therefore He who made them has no compassion on them, and He who formed them shows them no favour.

12 And in that day it shall be that אֶרְאֶה threshes, from the channel of the River to the wadi of Mitsrayim. And you shall be gathered one by one, O children of Yisra'ël.

13 And in that day it shall be that a great horn is blown, and those who were perishing in the land of Ashshur and the outcasts in the land of Mitsrayim shall come, and shall worship אֱלֹהֵי on the qodesh mountain, in Yerushalayim.

28 Woe to the proud crown of the drunkards of Ephrayim, and to the fading flower of its splendid comeliness that is on the head of the fertile valley, to those who are overcome with wine!

2 See, אֱלֹהֵי has one who is mighty and strong, like a downpour of hail and a destroying storm, like a flood of mighty waters overflowing, who casts down to the earth with the hand.

3 The proud crown of the drunkards of Ephrayim, is trampled under foot;

4 and the fading flower of its splendid comeliness that is on the head of the fertile valley, like the first fruit before the summer, which, when one sees it, he eats it up while it is still in his hand.

5 In that day אֱלֹהֵי of hosts is for a crown of splendour and a head-dress of comeliness to the remnant of His people,

6 and a spirit of right-ruling to him who sits in right-ruling, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.

7 And these too have gone astray through wine, and through strong drink wandered about. Kohēn and nabi have gone astray through strong drink, they are swallowed up by wine, they wander about through strong drink, they go astray in vision, they stumble in right-ruling.

8 For all tables shall be covered with vomit, no place without filth.

9 Whom would He teach knowledge? And whom would He make to understand the message? Those weaned from milk, those taken from the breasts!

10 For it is: command upon command, command upon command, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little.

11 For with a jabbering lip and a foreign tongue He speaks to this people, 12 to whom He said, "This is the rest, give rest to the weary," and, "This is the refreshing." But they would not hear.

13 But the Word of אִיִּי was to them, "Command upon command, command upon command, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little," so that they go and shall stumble backward, and be broken and snared and taken captive.

14 Therefore hear the Word of אִיִּי, you men of scorn, who rule this people who are in Yerushalayim, 15 because you have said, "We have made a covenant with death, and with the grave we have effected a vision. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it does not come to us, for we have made lying our refuge, and under falsehood we have hidden ourselves."

16 Therefore thus said the Adon אִיִּי, "See, I am laying in Tsiyon a stone for a foundation, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a settled foundation. He who trusts shall not hasten away.

17 And I shall make Right-Ruling the measuring line, and righteousness the plummet. And the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lying, and the waters overflow the hiding place.

18 And your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your vision with the grave not stand. When an overflowing scourge passes through, then you shall be trampled down by it.

19 As often as it passes through it shall take you, for it shall pass through every morning, and by day and by night. And it shall be only trembling to understand the message.”

20 For the bed shall be too short for a man to stretch out on, and the covering shall be too narrow to wrap himself in it.

21 For אִי־אִי־אִי rises up as at Mount Peratsim, and He is wroth as at the Valley of Gib'on, to do His work, His strange work, and to do His deed, His strange deed.

22 And now, do not be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong. For I have heard from the Adon אִי־אִי־אִי of hosts, a destruction decreed upon all the earth.

23 Give ear and hear my voice, listen and hear my word.

24 Does the ploughman keep ploughing all day to sow? Does he keep turning his soil and breaking the clods?

25 When he has levelled its surface, does he not sow the caraway and scatter the cummin, plant the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place?

26 For He instructs him for Right-Ruling, his Elohim teaches him.

27 For caraway is not threshed with a threshing sledge, nor is a wagon wheel rolled over cummin, but caraway is beaten out with a stick, and cummin with a rod.

28 Grain is crushed, so one does not go on threshing it forever, nor break it with his wagon wheel, nor crush it with his horsemen.

29 Even this has come from אַרְיֵל of hosts, who did wonders in counsel, who made wisdom great.

29 Woe to Ari'ël, to Ari'ël, the city where Dawid dwelt! Add year to year, let festivals come around.

2 “And I shall distress Ari'ël, and there shall be mourning and sorrow, and it shall be to Me as Ari'ël.

3 “And I shall encamp against you all around, I shall lay siege against you with a mound, and I shall raise siege-works against you.

4 “And you shall be brought low and speak out of the ground, and your speech shall be low, out of the dust. And your voice shall be like a medium's, out of the ground, and your speech whisper out of the dust.

5 “But the crowd of those strange to you shall be like fine dust, and the crowd of the ruthless ones as chaff blowing away. And it shall be in an instant, suddenly!”

6 You shall be visited by אַרְיֵל of hosts with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and flame of devouring fire.

7 Then the crowd of all the gentiles who fight against Ari'ël, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.

8 And it shall be as when a hungry man dreams, and see, he eats; but he awakes, and his being is empty; or as when a thirsty man dreams, and see, he drinks; but he awakes, and see, he is faint, and his being is longing. Thus shall the crowd of all the gentiles be who fight against Mount Tsiyon.

9 Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunk, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For אִיִּי has poured out on you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the nebi'im. And He has covered your heads, the seers.

11 And the entire vision is to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men give to one who knows books, saying, "Read this, please." And he said, "I am unable, for it is sealed."

12 And the book is given to one who does not know books, saying, "Read this, please." And he said, "I have not known books."

13 And אִיִּי says, "Because this people has drawn near with its mouth, and with its lips they have esteemed Me, and it has kept its heart far from Me, and their reverence of Me has become a command of men that is taught!

14 "Therefore, see, I am again doing a marvellous work among this people, a marvellous work and a wonder. And the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their clever men shall be hidden."

15 Woe to those who seek deep to hide their counsel far from אִיִּי, and their works are in the dark; they say, "Who sees us?" and, "Who knows us?"

16 How perverse of you! Should the potter be reckoned as the clay? Should what is made say of its Maker, "He did not make me"? And what is formed say of Him who formed it, "He did not understand"?

17 Is it not yet a little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into garden land, and garden land be reckoned as a forest?

18 And in that day the deaf shall hear the words of the Book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of gloom, and out of darkness.

19 And the meek ones shall increase their joy in אִתְּךָ, and the poor among men rejoice in the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël.

20 For the ruthless one is brought to naught, the scorner is consumed, and all who watch for evil shall be cut off,

21 those who make a man to sin in word, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and turn aside the righteous with emptiness.

22 Therefore thus said אִתְּךָ, who ransomed Abraham, concerning the house of Ya'aqob, "Ya'aqob is no longer put to shame, no longer does his face grow pale.

23 "For when he sees his children, the work of My hands, in his midst, they shall qadosh My Name, and qadosh the Qadosh One of Ya'aqob, and revere the Elohim of Yisra'ël.

24 "And those who went astray in spirit shall come to understanding, and the grumblers accept instruction."

30 "Woe to the stubborn children," declares אִתְּךָ, "to make counsel, but not from Me, and to devise plans, but not of My Ruaḥ, in order to add sin to sin;
2 who are walking to go down to Mitsrayim, and have not asked My mouth, to be strengthened in the strength of Pharaoh, and to seek refuge in the shadow of Mitsrayim!

3 "And the strength of Pharaoh shall become your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Mitsrayim your confusion.

4 "For his princes were at Tso'an, and his messengers came to Haněs.

5 "They were all ashamed of a people who do not profit them, not for help or profit, but a shame and also a reproach."

6 The message concerning the beasts of the Negeb. Through a land of trouble and distress, from which came the lioness and lion, the adder and fiery flying serpent, they convey their riches on the backs of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people,

7 even Mitsrayim, whose help is vain and empty. Therefore I have called her Rahab-Hēm-Shebeth.

8 And go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it on a scroll, that it is for a latter day, a witness forever:

9 that this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who refuse to hear the Torah of אִתְּנָהּ,

10 who say to the seers, “Do not see,” and to the nebi'im, “Do not naḅa to us what is right. Speak to us what is smooth, naḅa deceits.

11 “Turn aside from the Way, swerve from the path, cause the Qadosh One of Yisra'el to cease from before us.”

12 Therefore thus said the Qadosh One of Yisra'el, “Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on them, 13 therefore this wickedness is to you like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly, swiftly.”

14 And He shall break it like the breaking of the potter's vessel, which is broken in pieces, without sparing, so that there is not found among its fragments a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water from the cistern.

15 For thus said the Adon אִתְּנָהּ, the Qadosh One of Yisra'el, “In returning and rest you are saved, in stillness and trust is your strength.” But you would not,

16 and you said, "No, for we flee upon horses," therefore you flee! And, "We ride on swift horses," therefore those who pursue you are swift!

17 One thousand at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five you shall flee until you are left as a pole on top of a mountain and as a sign on a hill.

18 And therefore אֱלֹהִים shall wait, to show you favour. And therefore He shall be exalted, to have compassion on you. For אֱלֹהִים is an Elohim of right-ruling. Baruk are all those who wait for Him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Tsiyon at Yerushalayim, you shall weep no more. He shall show much favour to you at the sound of your cry; when He hears, He shall answer you.

20 Though אֱלֹהִים gave you bread of adversity and water of affliction, your Teacher shall no longer be hidden. But your eyes shall see your Teacher, 21 and your ears hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the Way, walk in it," whenever you turn to the right, or whenever you turn to the left.

22 And you shall defile the covering of your graven images of silver, and the plating of your moulded images of gold. You shall throw them away as a menstrual cloth and say to them, "Be gone!"

23 And He shall give the rain for your seed with which you sow the ground, and bread of the increase of the earth. And it shall be fat and rich, your cattle grazing in an enlarged pasture in that day,

24 and the oxen and the young donkeys that work the ground eat seasoned fodder winnowed with shovel and fan.

25 And on every high mountain and on every high hill there shall be rivers and streams of waters, in the day of great killing, when the towers fall.

26 And the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that אֲשׁוּר binds up the breach of His people, and heals the wound of His blows.

27 See, the Name of אֲשׁוּר is coming from afar, burning with His wrath, and heavy smoke. His lips shall be filled with rage, and His tongue be as a devouring fire;

28 and His breath shall be as an overflowing stream, which reaches up to the neck, to sift the nations with a sieve of falsehood, and a misleading bridle on the jaws of the peoples.

29 Let the song be to you as in a night qadosh for a Festival, and gladness of heart as he who is going with a flute, to come into the mountain of אֲשׁוּר, to the Rock of Yisra'el.

30 And אֲשׁוּר shall cause His excellent voice to be heard, and show the coming down of His arm, with raging wrath and the flame of a consuming fire, with scattering, downpour and hailstones.

31 For through the voice of אֲשׁוּר Ashshur is broken down, with a rod He smites.

32 And every passage of the ordained staff which אֲשׁוּר lays on him, shall be with tambourines and lyres, when He shall fight with it, battling with a brandishing arm.

33 For Topheth was ordained of old, even for the sovereign it has been prepared. He has made it deep and large, its fire pit with much wood; the breath of אֲשׁוּר, as a stream of burning sulphur, is burning in it!

31 Woe to those who go down to Mitsrayim for help, and rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but who do not look to the Qadosh One of Yisra'el, nor seek אֱלֹהִים!

2 And He also is wise, and has brought evil, and has not turned aside His words. And He shall rise up against the house of evil-doers, and against the help of workers of wickedness.

3 And the Mitsrites are men, and not Ėl. And their horses are flesh, and not spirit. And when אֱלֹהִים stretches out His hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall. And they shall all fall, together.

4 For this is what אֱלֹהִים has said to me, "As a lion roars, and a young lion over his prey, though a band of shepherds is called out against him, he is not afraid of their voice nor disturbed by their noise, so אֱלֹהִים of hosts shall come down to fight upon Mount Tsiyon and upon its hill.

5 "Like hovering birds, so does אֱלֹהִים of hosts protect Yerushalayim - protecting and delivering, passing over and rescuing."

6 Turn back to Him from whom the children of Yisra'el have deeply fallen away.

7 For in that day, let each man reject his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made for yourselves, as a sin.

8 "And Ashshur shall fall by a sword not of man, and a sword not of mankind shall devour him. But he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall become slave labour, 9 and his strength pass away because of fear, and his commanders shall be afraid of the banner," declares אֱלֹהִים, whose light is in Tsiyon and whose furnace is in Yerushalayim.

32 See, a sovereign shall reign in righteousness, and rulers rule in right-ruling.

2 And each one shall be as a hiding place from the wind, and a shelter from the downpour, as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of those who see are not dim, and the ears of those who hear listen.

4 And the heart of the rash understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers hurries to speak plainly.

5 A fool is no longer called noble, nor the scoundrel said to be respectable;

6 for a fool speaks folly, and his heart works wickedness: to practise filthiness, and to speak against אִרְאִי that which misleads, to starve the being of the hungry, and to withhold the drink from the thirsty.

7 And the methods of the scoundrel are evil - he has devised wicked plans to destroy the poor with words of falsehood, even when the needy pleads for right-ruling.

8 But the generous one devises what is generous, and by generous deeds he rises up.

9 Rise up, you women who are at ease, hear my voice you complacent daughters; listen to my speech.

10 In little more than a year you shall be troubled, you complacent women; for the grape harvest shall fail, the ingathering shall not come.

11 Tremble, you women who are at ease; be troubled, you complacent ones; strip yourselves, and make yourselves bare, and gird sackcloth on your waists.

12 Lament upon the breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruit-bearing vine.

13 Weeds and thornbushes come up over the ground of My people, indeed, over all the houses of joy, the city of revelry;

14 for the palace is abandoned, the crowded city deserted. Hill and watch-tower serve as caves forever, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;

15 until the Ruah is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness shall become garden-land, and the garden-land be reckoned as a forest.

16 Then right-ruling shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the garden-land.

17 The work of righteousness shall be peace, and the service of righteousness be rest and safety forever.

18 And My people shall dwell in a home of peace, and in safe dwellings, and in undisturbed resting places,

19 even when hail shall fall, felling the forest, and the city be brought low in humiliation.

20 Baruk are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the foot of the ox and the donkey.

33 Woe to you ravager, while you have not been ravaged, and you treacherous, while they have not betrayed you! When you have ceased ravaging, you shall be ravaged. And when you stop betraying, they shall betray you.

2 O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, show us favour, for we have waited for
You. Be their arm every morning, our deliverance also in time of distress.

3 At the noise of the rumbling the people shall flee.
When You lift Yourself up, the gentiles shall be scattered.

4 And Your plunder shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpillar; as locusts rush about, they rush upon them.

5 יהוה is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Tsiyon with Right-Ruling and righteousness.

6 And He shall be the trustworthiness of your times, a wealth of deliverance, wisdom and knowledge. The reverence of יהוה - that is His treasure.

7 See, their brave ones shall cry outside, the messengers of peace weep bitterly.

8 The highways shall be deserted, the wayfaring man shall have ceased. He has broken the Covenant, he has despised the cities, he respected no man.

9 The earth shall mourn and languish, Lebanon shall be ashamed. Sharon shall be withered like a desert, and Bashan and Karmel be shaking.

10 "Now I rise up," declares יהוה. "Now I am exalted, now I am lifted up.

11 "You conceive chaff, you bring forth stubble, your spirit devours you like fire.

12 "And peoples shall be like the burnings of lime, like thorns cut up they are burned in the fire.

13 "You who are afar off, hear what I shall do; and you who are near, know My might."

14 Sinners in Tsiyon shall be afraid; trembling shall grip the defiled ones, "Who of us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who of us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?"

15 He who walks righteously and speaks what is straight, he who rejects the gain of oppressions, who keeps his hands from accepting bribes, who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed, and shuts his eyes from seeing evil -

16 he shall inhabit the heights; strongholds of rocks be his refuge. His bread shall be given him, his water be steadfast.

17 Your eyes shall see the Sovereign in His comeliness, see a land that is far off.

18 Your heart ponders fear, "Where is the scribe? Where is he who weighs? Where is he who counts the towers?"

19 No longer shall you see a fierce people, a people of too deep a lip to hear, of a jabbering tongue no one understands.

20 See Tsiyon, the city of our appointed time; your eyes shall see Yerushalayim, an undisturbed home, a tent not taken down. Its stakes are never removed, nor any of its cords broken.

21 But there, great is אֱלֹהֵינוּ for us; a place of broad rivers, streams, in which no boat with oars sails, nor big ships pass by -

22 for אֱלֹהֵינוּ is our Judge, אֱלֹהֵינוּ is our Lawgiver, אֱלֹהֵינוּ is our Sovereign, He saves us -

23 your ropes shall be slack, they do not strengthen their mast, they shall not spread the sail. Then the prey of great plunder shall be divided, the lame shall take the prey.

24 Neither shall the inhabitant say, "I am sick." The people who dwell in it are forgiven their wickedness!

34 Come near, you gentiles, to hear. And listen, you people! Let the earth hear, and all that is in it, the world and all its offspring.

2 For the displeasure of אֱלֹהֵינוּ is against all the gentiles, and His wrath against all their divisions. He shall put them under the ban, He shall give them over to the slaughter,

3 and their slain be thrown out, and their stench rise from their corpses. And mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And all the host of the shamayim shall rot away. And the shamayim shall be rolled up like a scroll, and all their host fade like a leaf fading on the vine, and like the fading one of a fig tree.

5 “For My sword shall be drenched in the shamayim. Look, it comes down on Edom, and on the people of My curse, for judgment.

6 “The sword of אֶיֶז shall be filled with blood, it shall be made over-flowing with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams. For אֶיֶז has a slaughtering in Botsrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

7 “And wild oxen shall come down with them, and young bulls with bulls. And their land shall be drenched with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.”

8 For it is the day of the vengeance of אֶיֶז, the year of recompense for the cause of Tsiyon.

9 And its streams shall be turned into tar, and its dust into sulphur, and its land shall become burning tar,

10 that is not quenched night or day, its smoke going up forever. From generation to generation it lies waste, no one passes through it forever and ever,

11 so that the pelican and the porcupine possess it, also the owl and the raven dwell in it. And He shall stretch out over it the line of formlessness and stones of emptiness.

12 Its caves, with no one in them, is called a reign, but all its rulers have vanished.

13 And thorns shall come up in its palaces, nettles and brambles in its strongholds. And it shall be a home for jackals, a courtyard for ostriches.

14 And the wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the jackals, and the shaggy goat call to its companion. The night creature shall also settle there, and shall find for herself a place of rest.

15 The arrow snake shall nest there, and lay eggs and hatch, and gather them under her shadow. There too the vultures shall gather, each with its mate.

16 Search from the Book of  $\text{אִתְּךָ}$ , and read: not one of these shall be missing, not one shall be without a mate, for He has commanded my mouth. And His Ruah shall gather them.

17 And He shall cast the lot for them, and His hand shall divide it among them with a measuring line - they possess it forever, from generation to generation they dwell in it.

35 Let the wilderness and the dry place be glad for them, and let the desert rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

2 It blossoms much and rejoices, even with joy and singing. The esteem of Lebanon shall be given to it, the excellence of Karmel and Sharon. They shall see the esteem of  $\text{אִתְּךָ}$ , the excellency of our Elohim.

3 Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the weak knees.

4 Say to those with anxious heart, "Be strong, do not fear! See, your Elohim comes with vengeance, with the recompense of Elohim. He is coming to save you."

5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf be opened.

6 Then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb sing, because waters shall burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.

7 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water - in the home for jackals, where each lay, grass with reeds and rushes.

8 And there shall be a highway, and a way, and it shall be called "The Way of Qodeshah." The unclean does not pass over it, but it is for those who walk the Way, and not a wandering fool.

9 No lion is there, nor any ravenous beast go up on it, it is not found there. But the redeemed shall walk there.

10 And the ransomed of אֲרָמֵי shall return and enter Tsiyon with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. They shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

36 And it came to be in the fourteenth year of Sovereign Hizqiyahu that Sanḥëriḇ sovereign of Ashshur came up against all the walled cities of Yahudah and took them.

2 And the sovereign of Ashshur sent the Raḇshaqëh with a great army from Laḁish to Sovereign Hizqiyahu at Yerushalayim. And he stood by the channel of the upper pool, on the highway to the Launderer's Field.

3 And there came to him Elyaqim son of Ḥilqiyahu, who was over the household, and Sheḇnah the scribe, and Yo'aḁ son of Asaph, the recorder.

4 The Raḇshaqëh then said to them, "Please say to Hizqiyahu, 'Thus said the great sovereign, the sovereign of Ashshur, "What trust is this in which you trust?"

5 “I say: You speak of having counsel and strength for battle, but they are vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?”

6 “Look! You are trusting in the staff of this broken reed, Mitsrayim, on which if a man leans, it shall go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh the sovereign of Mitsrayim to all who trust in him.

7 “But if you say to me, ‘We trust in אֱלֹהִים our Elohim,’ is it not He whose high places and whose altars Hizqiyahu has taken away, and has said to Yahudah and to Yerushalayim, ‘Bow yourselves before this altar’?”

8 “And now, I urge you, please give a pledge to my master the sovereign of Ashshur, and I give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to put riders on them!

9 “And how do you refuse one officer of the least of my master’s servants, and put your trust in Mitsrayim for chariots and horsemen?”

10 “And now, have I come up without אֱלֹהִים against this land to destroy it? אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Go up against this land, and destroy it.’ ”

11 And Elyaqim, Shebñah, and Yo’ah said to the Raḅshaqëh, “Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. And do not speak to us in the language of Yahudah in the hearing of the people who are on the wall.”

12 But the Raḅshaqëh said, “Has my master sent me to your master and to you to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?”

13 And the Raḅshaqëh stood and called out with a loud voice in the language of Yahudah, and said, “Hear the words of the great sovereign, the sovereign of Ashshur!

- 14 “Thus said the sovereign, ‘Do not let Hizqiyahu deceive you, for he is unable to deliver you, 15 and do not let Hizqiyahu make you trust in אֲשַׁשׁוּרַיִם saying, “אֲשַׁשׁוּרַיִם, shall certainly deliver us, this city is not given into the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur.” ’
- 16 “Do not listen to Hizqiyahu, for thus said the sovereign of Ashshur, ‘Make peace with me by a present and come out to me. And let each of you eat from his own vine and each from his own fig tree, and each of you drink the waters of his own cistern, 17 until I come. Then I shall take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
- 18 ‘Beware lest Hizqiyahu mislead you, saying, “אֲשַׁשׁוּרַיִם shall deliver us.” Has any one of the mighty ones of the nations delivered its land from the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur?
- 19 ‘Where are the mighty ones of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the mighty ones of Sepharwayim? And when have they delivered Shomeron from my hand?
- 20 ‘Who among all the mighty ones of these lands have delivered their land from my hand, that אֲשַׁשׁוּרַיִם should deliver Yerushalayim from my hand?’ ”
- 21 But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the command of the sovereign was, “Do not answer him.”
- 22 And Elyaqim son of Hilqiyahu, who was over the household, Shebnah the scribe, and Yo’ah son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hizqiyahu with their garments torn, and they reported to him the words of the Raḇshaqēh.

37 And it came to be, when Sovereign Hizqiyahu heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the House of אִיִּזְבַּב,

2 and sent Elyaqim, who was over the household, and Sheb̄nah the scribe, and the elders of the kohenim, covering themselves with sackcloth, to Yeshayahu the nabi, the son of Amots.

3 And they said to him, “Thus said Hizqiyahu, ‘This day is a day of distress and rebuke and scorn, for the children have come to birth, but there is no strength to bring forth.

4 ‘It could be that אִיִּזְבַּב your Elohim hears the words of the Rab̄shaqēh, whom his master the sovereign of Ashshur has sent to reproach the living Elohim, and shall rebuke the words which אִיִּזְבַּב your Elohim has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.’ ”

5 So the servants of Sovereign Hizqiyahu came to Yeshayahu,

6 and Yeshayahu said to them, “Say this to your master, ‘Thus said אִיִּזְבַּב, “Do not be afraid of the words which you have heard, with which the servants of the sovereign of Ashshur have reviled Me.

7 “See, I am putting a spirit in him, and he shall hear a report and return to his own land. And I shall cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.” ’ ”

8 And the Rab̄shaqēh returned and found the sovereign of Ashshur fighting against Lib̄nah, for he had heard that he had left Laq̄ish.

9 And he heard concerning Tirhaqah sovereign of Kush, “He has come out to fight with you.” And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hizqiyahu, saying,

10 “Speak to Hizqiyahu the sovereign of Yahudah, saying, ‘Do not let your Elohim in whom you trust deceive you, saying, “Yerushalayim is not given into the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur.”

11 ‘See, you have heard what the sovereigns of Ashshur have done to all lands by putting them under the ban. And are you going to be delivered?

12 ‘Have the mighty ones of the nations delivered those whom my fathers have destroyed, Gozan and Ḥaran and Retseph, and the sons of Ēden who were in Telassar?

13 ‘Where is the sovereign of Ḥamath, and the sovereign of Arpad, and the sovereign of the city of Sepharwayim, Hēna, and Iwwah?’ ”

14 And Ḥizqiyahu received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. And Ḥizqiyahu went up to the House of אֱלֹהִים, and spread it before אֱלֹהִים.

15 And Ḥizqiyahu prayed to אֱלֹהִים, saying,

16 “O אֱלֹהִים of hosts, Elohim of Yisra’ēl, the One who dwells between the kerubim, You are Elohim, You alone, of all the reigns of the earth. You have made the shamayim and earth.

17 “Incline Your ear, O אֱלֹהִים, and hear. Open Your eyes, O אֱלֹהִים, and see. And hear all the words of Sanḥērib, who has sent to reproach the living Elohim.

18 “Truly, אֱלֹהִים, the sovereigns of Ashshur have laid waste all the lands, and their land,

19 and have put their mighty ones into the fire, for they were not mighty ones, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone. And they destroyed them.

20 “And now, O אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, save us from his hand, so that all the reigns of the earth know that You are אֱלֹהִים, You alone.”

21 Then Yeshayahu son of Amots sent to Ḥizqiyahu, saying, “Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra’ēl, ‘Because you have prayed to Me against Sanḥērib sovereign of Ashshur, 22 this is the word which אִיִּי has spoken concerning him, “The maiden, the daughter of Tsiyon, has despised you, mocked you; the daughter of Yerushalayim has shaken her head behind you!

23 “Whom have you reproached and reviled? And against whom have you raised your voice, and lifted up your eyes in pride? Against the Qadosh One of Yisra’ël!

24 “By the hand of your servants you have reproached אִיִּי, and said, ‘With my many chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the limits of Leḇanon. And I cut down its tall cedars and its choice cypress trees. And I enter its farthest height, its thickest forest.

25 ‘I have dug and drunk water, and with the soles of my feet I have dried up all the streams of defence.’

26 “Have you not heard long ago how I made it, from days of old, that I formed it? Now I have brought it about, that you should be for crushing walled cities into heaps of ruins.

27 “And their inhabitants were powerless, they were over-thrown and put to shame. They were as the grass of the field and as the green plant, as the grass on the house-tops and as grain blighted before it is grown.

28 “But I know your sitting down, and your going out and your coming in, and your rage against Me.

29 “Because your rage against Me and your pride have come up to My ears, I shall put My hook in your nose and My bridle in your lips, and I shall turn you back by the way which you came.

30 “And this shall be the sign for you: This year you eat such as grows of itself, and the second year what springs from that, and in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

31 “And the remnant who have escaped of the house of Yahudāh shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

32 “For out of Yerushalayim comes forth a remnant, and those who escape from Mount Tsiyon - the ardour of אֲרָאֵל of hosts does this.

33 “Therefore thus said אֲרָאֵל concerning the sovereign of Ashshur, ‘He does not come into this city, nor does he shoot an arrow there, nor does he come before it with shield, nor does he build a siege mound against it.

34 ‘By the way that he came, by the same he turns back. And into this city he does not come,’ declares אֲרָאֵל.

35 ‘And I shall defend this city, to save it for My own sake and for the sake of My servant Dawid.’ ”

36 And a messenger of אֲרָאֵל went out, and killed in the camp of Ashshur one hundred and eighty-five thousand. And they arose early in the morning, and saw all of them, dead bodies.

37 And Sanḥērib the sovereign of Ashshur broke camp and went away, and turned back, and remained at Ninewēh.

38 And it came to be, as he was bowing himself in the house of Nisroḵ his mighty one, that his sons Adrammeleḵ and Sar’etser smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And his son Ēsarḥaddon reigned in his place.

38 In those days Hizqiyahu was sick and near death. And Yeshayahu the nabī, the son of Amots, came to him, and said to him, “Thus said אֲרָאֵל, ‘Put your house in order, for you are going to die and not live.’ ”

2 And Hizqiyahu turned his face toward the wall, and prayed to אֲרָאֵל,

3 and said, "I pray, O אֱלֹהִים, please remember how I have walked before You in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done what is good in Your eyes." And Hizqiyahu wept bitterly.

4 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yeshayahu, saying,

5 "Go and say to Hizqiyahu, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of Dawid your father, "I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. See, I am adding fifteen years to your days.

6 "And out of the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur I shall deliver you and this city, and protect this city."

7 "And this is the sign to you from אֱלֹהִים that אֱלֹהִים does this word which He has spoken:

8 "See, I am bringing the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down with the sun on the sundial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward." And the sun returned ten degrees on the dial by which it had gone down.

9 This is the writing of Hizqiyahu sovereign of Yahuḏah, when he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

10 I said, "Am I to go into the gates of the grave in the prime of my life? Shall I be deprived of the rest of my years?"

11 I said, "I shall not see Yah - Yah in the land of the living! I shall no longer look on man with the inhabitants of the world!

12 "My dwelling is plucked up, taken from me like a shepherd's tent. I have cut off my life like a weaver; He cuts me off from the loom. From day to night You make an end of me.

13 "I composed myself until morning. Like a lion, so He shatters all my bones. From day to night You make an end of me.

14 “Like a swallow or a thrush, so I chattered; I moaned like a dove; my eyes look weakly on high. O אֱלֹהִים, I am oppressed, undertake for me!

15 “What do I say? For He has spoken to me, and He Himself has acted. Softly I go, all my years, because of the bitterness of my being.

16 “O אֱלֹהִים, by these are life, and my spirit finds life in all of them. Restore me and make me live.

17 “See, for peace I had what was bitter, bitter. But You have lovingly delivered my being from the pit of corruption, for You have cast all my sins behind Your back.

18 “For the grave does not thank You, nor death praise You; those who go down to the pit do not watch for Your truth.

19 “The living, the living - he is praising You, as I do this day. A father makes known Your truth to his children.

20 “אֱלֹהִים, come to save me! And let us sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in the House of אֱלֹהִים.”

21 For Yeshayahu had said, “Let them take a cake of figs, and apply it on the boil, so that he lives.”

22 And Hizqiyahu asked, “What is the sign that I go up to the House of אֱלֹהִים?”

39 At that time Merodaḳ-Balaḳan son of Balaḳan, sovereign of Babel, sent letters and a present to Hizqiyahu for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered.

2 And Hizqiyahu was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his treasures, the silver and gold, the spices and precious ointment, and all his armoury, and all that was found among his treasures. There was not an object in his house or in all his rule that Hizqiyahu did not show them.

3 And Yeshayahu the nabi went to Sovereign Hizqiyahu, and said to him, "What did these men say, and from where did they come to you?" And Hizqiyahu said, "They came to me from a distant land, from Babel."

4 And he said, "What have they seen in your house?" And Hizqiyahu said, "They have seen all that is in my house; there is not an object among my treasures that I did not show them."

5 So Yeshayahu said to Hizqiyahu, "Hear the word of אֲרָמָיִם of hosts:

6 'See, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and what your fathers have stored up until this day, shall be taken away to Babel; not a matter shall be left,' declares אֲרָמָיִם.

7 'And they shall take some of your sons who are born to you, whom you bring forth. And they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the sovereign of Babel.' "

8 And Hizqiyahu said to Yeshayahu, "The word of אֲרָמָיִם which you have spoken is good!" And he said, "Because there is peace and truth in my days."

40 "Comfort, comfort My people!" says your Elohim.

2 "Speak to the heart of Yerushalayim, and cry out to her, that her hard service is completed, that her wickedness is pardoned, that she has received from the hand of אֲרָמָיִם double for all her sins."

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, "Prepare the way of אֲרָמָיִם; make straight in the desert a highway for our Elohim.

4 "Let every valley be raised, and every mountain and hill made low. And the steep ground shall become level, and the rough places smooth.

5 “And the esteem of אֱלֹהִים shall be revealed, and all flesh together shall see it. For the mouth of אֱלֹהִים has spoken.”

6 The voice said, “Cry out!” and he said, “What do I cry?” “All flesh is grass, and all its loveliness is like the flower of the field.

7 “Grass shall wither, the flower shall fade, when the Ruah of אֱלֹהִים has blown on it! Truly the people are grass!

8 “Grass shall wither, the flower shall fade, but the Word of our Elohim stands forever.”

9 You who bring good news to Tsiyon, get up into the high mountain. You who bring good news to Yerushalayim, lift up your voice with strength, lift it up, be not afraid. Say to the cities of Yahudah, “See your Elohim!”

10 See, the Adon אֱלֹהִים comes with strength, and His arm rules for Him. See, His reward is with Him, and His recompense before Him.

11 He feeds His flock like a shepherd, He gathers the lambs with His arm, and carries them in His bosom, gently leading those who are with young.

12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and measured the shamayim with a zereth, and contained the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance?

13 Who has meted out the Ruah of אֱלֹהִים, or as His counsellor taught Him?

14 With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him in the path of Right-Ruling? Who taught Him knowledge, and showed Him the Way of understanding?

15 See, nations are as a drop in a bucket, and are reckoned as dust on the balance. See, He lifts up isles as fine dust.

16 And Lebanon is not enough to burn, nor its beasts enough for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before Him are as naught, and they are reckoned by Him as less than a speck, and emptiness.

18 And to whom would you liken Ēl? And what likeness would you compare to Him?

19 The workman moulds a graven image, and the goldsmith overspreads it with gold, and the silversmith casts silver chains.

20 He who is too poor for such an offering chooses a tree that does not rot. He seeks for himself a skilled craftsman to prepare a carved image that does not totter.

21 Did you not know? Have you not heard? Has it not been declared to you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is He who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers, who stretches out the shamayim like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in,

23 who brings princes to naught, shall make the rulers of the earth as emptiness.

24 Hardly have they been planted, hardly have they been sown, hardly has their stock taken root in the earth, when He shall blow on them and they wither, and a whirlwind take them away like stubble.

25 “And to whom then do you liken Me, or am I compared?” says the Qadosh One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high and see. Who has created these? He who is bringing out their host by number, He calls them all by name, by the greatness of His might and the strength of His power - not one is missing.

27 Why do you say, O Ya'aqob, and speak, O Yisra'el, "My way is hidden from אֱלֹהִים, and my rights are overlooked by my Elohim"?

28 Did you not know? Have you not heard? The everlasting Elohim, אֱלֹהִים, the Creator of the ends of the earth, neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable.

29 He gives power to the faint, and to those who have no might He increases strength.

30 Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men stumble and fall,

31 but those who wait on אֱלֹהִים renew their strength, they raise up the wing like eagles, they run and are not weary, they walk and do not faint.

41 "Be silent before Me, you coastlands, and let peoples renew their power! Let them come near, then let them speak. Let us come together for Right-Ruling.

2 "Who raised up the righteous one from the east, called him to His foot, gave the nations before him, and made sovereigns submit to him? He gave them as the dust to his sword, as driven stubble to his bow.

3 "He pursued them, passed over in safety, by a path that he had not gone with his feet.

4 "Who has performed and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? 'I, אֱלֹהִים, am the first, and even the last I am He.' "

5 Coastlands see it and fear, the ends of the earth are afraid - they draw near and come.

6 Everyone helps his neighbour, and says to his brother, "Be strong!"

7 And the craftsman encourages the goldsmith. He who smooths with the hammer inspires him who strikes the anvil, saying of the joining, "It is good." And he fastens it with nails, so it does not totter.

8 "But you, Yisra'ël, are My servant, Ya'aqob, whom I have chosen, the descendants of Abraham whom I love,

9 whom I have strengthened from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest parts, and said to You, 'You are My servant, I have chosen you and have not rejected you.

10 'Do not fear, for I am with you. Do not look around, for I am your Elohim. I shall strengthen you, I shall also help you, I shall also uphold you with the right hand of My righteousness.'

11 "See, all those who raged against you are ashamed and blush, they are as naught. And the men who strive with you perish.

12 "You seek them but do not find them, those who struggle with you. Those who fight you are naught, as less than naught.

13 "For I, אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, will strengthen your right hand, saying to you, 'Do not fear, I shall help you.'

14 "Do not fear, you worm Ya'aqob, you men of Yisra'ël! I shall help you," declares אֱלֹהִים and your Redeemer, the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël.

15 "See, I shall make you into a new threshing sledge with sharp teeth, let you thresh mountains and beat them small, and make hills like chaff.

16 "You winnow them, the wind lifts them up, and the whirlwind scatters them; but you, you rejoice in אֱלֹהִים, and boast in the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël.

17 "When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongues have failed for thirst, I, אֱלֹהִים, do answer them; I, the Elohim of Yisra'ël, do not forsake them.

18 “I open rivers on bare hills, and fountains in the midst of valleys; I make a wilderness become a pool of water, and a dry land springs of water.

19 “I put in the wilderness cedar, acacia and myrtle and oil tree; I place in the desert cypress, pine and box tree together.

20 “So that they see and know, and consider and understand together, that the hand of אֱלֹהִים has done this, and the Qadosh One of Yisra’el has created it.

21 “Present your case,” says אֱלֹהִים. “Let your strong come near,” says the Sovereign of Ya’aqob.

22 “Let them draw near and declare to us what is going to take place; let them declare the former, what they were, and we consider them, and know the latter end of them; or announce to us what is coming.

23 “Declare those that are going to come hereafter, and we know that you are mighty ones; also, do good or do evil, and let us be amazed and see it together.

24 “See, you are of naught, and your work a breath; he who chooses you is an abomination.

25 “I have stirred up one from the north, and he comes; from the rising of the sun he calls on My Name. And he comes against princes as mortar, as the potter treads clay.

26 “Who has declared from the beginning, and we know? And former times, and we say, ‘He is righteous’? No, no one is declaring; no, no one is proclaiming; no, no one is hearing your words.

27 “He who is First said to Tsiyon, ‘See, see them!’ And to Yerushalayim I give one who brings good news.

28 “And I see that there is no man, and of these, there is no counsellor, who, when I ask of them, answers a word.

29 “See, all of them are useless, their works are naught, their moulded images are wind and confusion.

42 “See, My Servant whom I uphold, My Chosen One My being has delighted in! I have put My Ruah upon Him; He brings forth Right-Ruling to the nations.

2 “He does not cry out, nor lift up, nor causes His voice to be heard in the street.

3 “A crushed reed He does not break, and smoking flax He does not quench. He brings forth Right-Ruling in accordance with truth.

4 “He does not become weak or crushed, until He has established Right-Ruling in the earth. And the coastlands wait for His Torah.”

5 Thus said the ĖI, אֱלֹהִים, who created the shamayim and stretched them out, who spread forth the earth and that which comes from it, who gives breath to the people on it, and spirit to those who walk on it:

6 “I, אֱלֹהִים, have called You in righteousness, and I take hold of Your hand and guard You, and give You for a Covenant to a people, for a Light to the gentiles,
7 to open blind eyes, to bring out prisoners from the prison, those who sit in darkness from the prison house.

8 “I am אֱלֹהִים, that is My Name, and My esteem I do not give to another, nor My praise to idols.

9 “See, the former have come, and new ones I am declaring; before they spring forth I let you hear them.”

10 Sing to אֱלֹהִים a new song; His praise from the ends of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it, you coastlands and you inhabitants of them!

11 Let the wilderness and its cities lift up their voice, the villages where Qēdar dwells. Let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

12 Let them give esteem to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and declare His praise in the coastlands.

13 אֱלֹהֵינוּ goes forth like a mighty man. He stirs up ardour like a fighter. He cries out, also shouts aloud. Over His enemies He shows Himself mighty.

14 “I have kept silent from of old, I have been still and held Myself back. Like a woman in labour I cry out, I pant and gasp at once.

15 “I lay waste mountains and hills, and I dry up all their plants. And I shall make rivers become coastlands, and I dry up pools.

16 “And I shall lead the blind by a way they have not known - in paths they have not known I lead them. I make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These matters I shall do for them, and I shall not forsake them.

17 “Those who trust in idols, who say to the moulded images, ‘You are our mighty ones,’ shall be turned back, utterly ashamed.

18 “Hear, you deaf! And look, you blind, and see.

19 “Who is blind but My servant, or deaf as My messenger whom I send? Who is blind as he who is at peace, and blind as servant of אֱלֹהֵינוּ?

20 “You see much, but do not observe; ears are open, but do not hear.”

21 It has delighted אֱלֹהֵינוּ, for the sake of His righteousness, to make the Torah great and esteemed.

22 But this is a people robbed and plundered, all of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prison houses. They have become a prey, with no one to deliver - for plunder, and no one to say, “Restore!”

23 Who among you gives ear to this, pays attention and hears for the time to come?

24 Who gave Ya’aqob for plunder, and Yisra’ël to the robbers? Was it not אַף־אַז, He against whom we sinned? For they would not walk in His Ways, and they did not obey His Torah!

25 So He has poured on him His burning displeasure and the strength of battle, and it lit him on fire all around, yet he did not understand. And it burned against him, yet he did not take it to heart!

43 But now, thus said אַף־אַז, your Creator, O Ya’aqob, and He who formed you, O Yisra’ël, “Do not fear, for I have redeemed you. I have called you by your name, you are Mine.

2 “When you pass through the waters, I am with you; and through rivers, they do not overflow you. When you walk through fire, you are not scorched, and a flame does not burn you.

3 “For I am אַף־אַז your Elohim, the Qadosh One of Yisra’ël, your Saviour; I gave Mitsrayim for your ransom, Kush and Seba in your place.

4 “Since you were precious in My eyes, you have been esteemed, and I have loved you. And I give men in your place, and peoples for your life.

5 “Do not fear, for I am with you. I shall bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west.

6 “I shall say to the north, ‘Give them up!’ And to the south, ‘Do not keep them back!’ Bring My sons from afar, and My daughters from the ends of the earth -

7 all those who are called by My Name, whom I have created, formed, even made for My esteem.”

8 He shall bring out a blind people who have eyes, and deaf ones who have ears.

9 All the nations shall be assembled, and the peoples be gathered. Who among them declares this, and shows us former? Let them give their witnesses, to be declared right; or let them hear and say, "It is truth."

10 "You are My witnesses," declares אֱלֹהִים, "And My servant whom I have chosen, so that you know and believe Me, and understand that I am He. Before Me there was no Ėl formed, nor after Me there is none.

11 "I, I am אֱלֹהִים, and besides Me there is no saviour.

12 "I, I have declared and saved, and made known, and there was no foreign mighty one among you. And you are My witnesses," declares אֱלֹהִים, "that I am Ėl.

13 "Even from the day I am He, and no one delivers out of My hand. I work, and who turns it back?"

14 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, your Redeemer, the Qadosh One of Yisra'el, "For your sake I shall send to Babel, and bring them all down as fugitives, even the Kasdites, who rejoice in their ships.

15 "I am אֱלֹהִים, your Qadosh One, Creator of Yisra'el, your Sovereign."

16 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, who makes a way in the sea and a path through the mighty waters,

17 who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the strong. They lie down together, they do not rise, they have been extinguished, they have been quenched like a wick.

18 "Do not remember the former, nor consider that of old.

19 "See, I am doing what is new, let it now spring forth. Do you not know it? I am even making a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

20 “The beast of the field esteems Me, the jackals and the ostriches, because I have given waters in the wilderness and rivers in the desert, to give drink to My people, My chosen, 21 this people I have formed for Myself, let them relate My praise.

22 “But you have not called on Me, O Ya’aqob, for you have been weary of Me, O Yisra’ël.

23 “You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings, nor have you esteemed Me with your slaughterings. I have not caused you to serve with grain offerings, nor wearied you with incense.

24 “You have not bought Me sweet cane with silver, nor have you satisfied Me with the fat of your slaughterings. You have only burdened Me with your sins, you have wearied Me with your wickednesses.

25 “I, I am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake, and remember your sins no more.

26 “Remind Me, let us enter into judgment, together; relate, that you might be declared right.

27 “Your first father sinned, and your interpreters have transgressed against Me.

28 “So I have profaned the chief ones of the qodesh place, and I have delivered up Ya’aqob to the curse, and Yisra’ël to scorn.

44 “But now hear, O Ya’aqob My servant, and Yisra’ël whom I have chosen.

2 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים who made you and formed you from the womb, who helps you, ‘Do not fear, O Ya’aqob My servant, and Yeshurun, whom I have chosen.

3 ‘For I pour water on the thirsty, and floods on the dry ground. I pour My Ruah on your seed, and My beraḵah on your offspring,

4 and they shall spring up among the grass like willows by streams of water.'

5 "One says, 'I belong to אֱלֹהִים; another calls himself by the name of Ya'aqob; another writes with his hand, 'Unto אֱלֹהִים,' and names himself by the name of Yisra'ël.

6 "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, Sovereign of Yisra'ël, and his Redeemer, אֱלֹהִים of hosts, 'I am the First and I am the Last, besides Me there is no Elohim.

7 'And who is like Me? Let him call and declare it, and lay it before Me, since I appointed the everlasting people. And the events that are coming and those that do come, let them declare these to them.

8 'Do not fear, nor be afraid. Have I not since made you hear, and declared it? You are My witnesses. Is there an Eloah besides Me? There is no other Rock, I know not one.' "

9 Those who make an idol, all of them are emptiness, and their delights do not profit. And they are their own witnesses; they neither see nor know, so that they are put to shame.

10 Who would form a mighty one or cast an idol that is of no value?

11 See, all his companions are ashamed, and the workmen, they are but men. Let them all be gathered together, let them stand up, let them fear, let them be put to shame, altogether.

12 The craftsman in iron with the tools works one in the coals, and fashions it with hammers, and works it with the strength of his arms. Even so, he shall be hungry, and has no strength; he drinks no water and is weary.

13 The carpenter stretches out his rule, he outlines it with chalk; he fashions it with a plane, and he outlines it with the compass, and makes it like the figure of a man, according to the comeliness of a man, to remain in the house.

14 He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes cypress and oak, which he raised among the trees of the forest. He has planted a pine, and the rain nourishes it.

15 And it shall be for a man to burn, for he takes some of it and warms himself. He also kindles it and shall bake bread. He also makes a mighty one and bows himself to it - has made it a carved image and falls down before it.

16 Half of it he shall burn in the fire; with this half he eats meat. He roasts a roast, and is satisfied. He also warms himself and says, "Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire."

17 And the rest of it he makes into a mighty one, his carved image. He falls down before it and worships, prays to it and says, "Deliver me, for you are my mighty one."

18 They do not know nor understand, for He has smeared their eyes from seeing, and their hearts from understanding.

19 And no one recalls it to his heart, nor is there knowledge nor understanding to say, "I have burned half of it in the fire, and I have also baked bread on its coals; I have roasted meat and eaten it. And shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Should I fall down before a log of wood?"

20 Feeding on ashes, a deceived heart turns him aside, and he does not deliver his being, nor says, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

21 "Remember these, O Ya'aqob, and Yisra'el, for you are My servant! I have formed you, you are My servant, O Yisra'el, do not forget Me!

22 “I shall wipe out your transgressions like a cloud, and your sins like a mist. Return to Me, for I shall redeem you.”

23 Sing, O shamayim, for אֱלֹהִים shall do it! Shout, O depths of the earth! Break forth into singing, O mountains, forest, and every tree in it! For אֱלֹהִים shall redeem Ya'aqob, and make Himself clear in Yisra'el.

24 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, your Redeemer, and He who formed you from the womb, “I am אֱלֹהִים, doing all, stretching out the shamayim all alone, spreading out the earth, with none beside Me,

25 frustrating the signs of the babblers, and driving diviners mad, turning wise men backward, and making their knowledge foolish,

26 confirming the word of His servant, and completing the counsel of His messengers, who says of Yerushalayim, ‘Be inhabited,’ and of the cities of Yahudah, ‘They shall be built, and her ruins raised up by Me,’

27 who is saying to the deep, ‘Be dry, and your rivers I dry up,’

28 who is saying of Koresh, ‘He is My shepherd, and he completes all My pleasure, even saying to Yerushalayim, “Let her be built,” and to the Hëykal, “Let her foundation be laid.” ’

45 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים to His anointed, to Koresh, whose right hand I have grasped, to subdue nations before him and ungird the loins of sovereigns, to open before him the double doors, so that gates are not shut:

2 ‘I go before you and make the crooked places straight; I shatter the gates of bronze and cut down the bars of iron.

3 'And I shall give you the treasures of darkness and hoarded wealth of secret places, so that you know that I, אֱלֹהִים, who are calling you by your name, am the Elohim of Yisra'ël.

4 'For the sake of Ya'aqob My servant, and of Yisra'ël My chosen, I also call you by your name, I give you a title, though you have not known Me.

5 'I am אֱלֹהִים, and there is none else - there are no mighty ones besides Me. I gird you, though you have not known Me,

6 so that they know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is none but Me. I am אֱלֹהִים, and there is none else,

7 forming light and creating darkness, making peace and creating evil. I, אֱלֹהִים, do all these.'

8 "Rain down, O shamayim, from above, and let clouds pour down righteousness. Let the earth open, let them bring forth deliverance, and let righteousness spring up together. I, אֱלֹהִים, have created it.

9 "Woe to him who strives with his Maker! - a potsherd with the potsherds of the earth. Does clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?' Or your handiwork say, 'He has no hands'?

10 "Woe to him who says to his father, 'What are you bringing forth?' Or to the woman, 'What are you labouring over?' "

11 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël, and his Maker, "Do you ask Me about My sons what is to come? And about the work of My hands do you command Me?

12 "I have made the earth, and created man on it. I, My hands have stretched out the shamayim, and all their host I have commanded.

13 "I have stirred him up in righteousness, and all his ways I make straight. He builds My city and lets My exiles go, not for price nor reward,” declares אֱלֹהִים of hosts.

14 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “The labour of Mitsrayim and merchandise of Kush and of the Seba’ites, men of size, come over to you and they are yours. They walk behind you, they come over in chains, and they bow down to you. They make supplication to you, saying, ‘Indeed, Ėl is in you, and there is none else, no mighty one.’ ”

15 Truly You are Ėl, who hides Yourself, O Elohim of Yisra’el, Saviour!

16 They shall be put to shame, and even be humiliated, all of them - the makers of idols shall go away together in humiliation.

17 Yisra’el shall be saved by אֱלֹהִים with an everlasting deliverance. You are not to be ashamed nor hurt, forever and ever.

18 For thus said אֱלֹהִים, Creator of the shamayim, He is Elohim, Former of earth and its Maker, He established it, He did not create it to be empty, He formed it to be inhabited: “I am אֱלֹהִים, and there is none else.

19 “I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth. I have not said to the seed of Ya’aqob, ‘Seek Me in vain.’ I am אֱלֹהִים, speaking righteousness, declaring matters that are straight.

20 “Gather yourselves and come; draw near together, you who have escaped from the gentiles. No knowledge have they who are lifting up the wood of their carved image, and pray to a mighty one that does not save.

21 “Declare and bring near, let them even take counsel together. Who has announced this from of old? Who has declared it from that time? Is it not I, אֵלֵינוּ? And there is no mighty one besides Me, a righteous Ėl and a Saviour, there is none besides Me.

22 “Turn to Me and be saved, all you ends of the earth! For I am Ėl, and there is none else.

23 “I have sworn by Myself, a word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, so that to Me every knee shall bow, every tongue swear.

24 “One shall say, ‘Only in אֵלֵינוּ do I have righteousness and strength’ - he comes to Him. And all those displeased with Him shall be put to shame.

25 “In אֵלֵינוּ all the seed of Yisra’el shall be declared right and boast.”

46 Běl has bowed down, Neḅo is stooping, their idols were on the beasts and on the cattle. That which is carried is burdensome, a burden to the weary.

2 They have stooped, they have bowed down together, they were unable to deliver the burden, but they themselves went into captivity.

3 “Listen to Me, O house of Ya’aqob and all the remnant of the house of Yisra’el, who are borne from the body, who are carried from the womb:

4 even to your old age, I am He, and even to grey hairs I carry! I have made and I bear, and I carry and rescue.

5 “To whom do you liken Me, and compare Me and make Me similar, that we should be alike?

6 “They pour gold out of the bag, and weigh silver on the scale. They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a mighty one. They fall down, they also bow themselves.

7 “They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it and put it in its place, and it stands - from its place it does not move. Though one cries out to it, it does not answer, nor save him from his distress.

8 “Remember this, and show yourselves men; turn it back, you transgressors.

9 “Remember the former of long ago, for I am Ĕl, and there is no one else - Elohim, and there is no one like Me,

10 declaring the end from the beginning, and from of old that which has not been done, saying, ‘My counsel stands, and all My delight I do,’

11 calling a bird of prey from the east, the man who executes My counsel, from a distant land. Indeed I have spoken it, I also bring it to pass. I have planned it, I also do it.

12 “Listen to Me, you stubborn-hearted, who are far from righteousness:

13 “I shall bring My righteousness near, it is not far off, and My deliverance, it is not delayed. And I shall give deliverance in Tsiyon, My esteem to Yisra’ël.

47 “Come down and sit in the dust, O maiden daughter of Babel. Sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Kasdites! For no more do they call you tender and delicate.

2 “Take the millstones and grind flour. Remove your veil, lift up the skirt, uncover the leg, pass through rivers.

3 “Let your nakedness be uncovered, let your shame also be exposed. I take vengeance, and meet no man.”

4 Our Redeemer, אֱלֹהֵינוּ of hosts is His Name, the Qadosh One of Yisra’ël.

5 “Sit silent, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Kasdites! For no more do they call you Mistress of Reigns.

6 “I was wroth with My people, I have profaned My inheritance and I gave them into your hand. You showed them no compassion, you made your yoke very heavy on the elderly.

7 “And you said, ‘I am mistress forever,’ so that you did not take these to heart, and did not remember the latter end of them.

8 “And now, hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who dwells complacently, who says in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none but me. I do not sit as a widow, nor do I know the loss of children.’

9 “Both of these come to you suddenly, in one day: the loss of children, and widowhood. They shall come upon you in completeness, because of your many witchcrafts, for your numerous great potent spells.

10 “And you have trusted in your evil, you have said, ‘No one sees me.’ Your wisdom and your knowledge have led you astray. And you have said in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none but me.’

11 “But evil shall come upon you, not knowing from where it arises, and trouble fall upon you, being unable to put it off, and ruin come upon you suddenly, which you know not.

12 “Stand now with your potent spells and your many witchcrafts, in which you have laboured from your youth, if maybe you are able to profit, if maybe you find strength.

13 “You are exhausted by your many counsels; let the astrologers, the stargazers, and those who prognosticate by the new moons stand up and save you from what is coming upon you.

14 “See, they shall be as stubble, fire shall burn them, they do not deliver themselves from the power of the flame, there is not a coal to be warmed by, nor a fire to sit before it!

15 “So they shall be to you with whom you have laboured, your merchants from your youth. They shall wander, each one his own way, there is none to save you.

48 “Hear this, O house of Ya’aqob, who are called by the name of Yisra’ël, and have come from the waters of Yahudah, who swear by the Name of אֱלֹהִים, and profess the Elohim of Yisra’ël - but not in truth or in righteousness -

2 for they call themselves after the qodesh city, and lean on the Elohim of Yisra’ël - אֱלֹהִים of hosts is His Name:

3 “I have declared the former from the beginning, and they went forth from My mouth, and I made you hear them. Suddenly I acted, and they came to be.

4 “Because I knew that you were hard, and your neck was an iron sinew, and your forehead bronze,
5 therefore I declared it to you long ago. Before it came I made you hear, lest you should say, ‘My idol has done them, and my carved image and my moulded image commanded them.’

6 “You have heard, look at them all. And do you not declare it? From now on I shall make you hear new ones, even hidden ones, which you have not known.

7 “Now they shall be created and not long ago. And before this day you have not heard them, lest you should say, ‘Look, I knew them.’

8 “No, you have not heard; no, you have not known; no, from of old your ear has not been open. Because I knew that you are indeed treacherous, and are called ‘a transgressor from the womb.’

9 “For My Name’s sake I postponed My displeasure, and for My praise I held it back from you, so as not to cut you off.

10 “See, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.

11 “For My own sake, for My own sake, I do it. For how is it profaned? And My esteem I do not give to another.

12 “Listen to Me, O Ya’aqob, and Yisra’el, My called: I am He, I am the First, I am also the Last.

13 “Also, My hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and My right hand has stretched out the shamayim. I call to them, let them stand together.

14 “All of you, gather yourselves, and hear! Who among them has declared these? אֱלֹהִים has loved him. Let him do His pleasure on Babel, and His arm be on the Kasdites.

15 “I, I have spoken, I have also called him, I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

16 “Come near to Me, hear this: I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, I was there. And now the Adon אֱלֹהִים has sent Me, and His Ruah.”

17 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, your Redeemer, the Qadosh One of Yisra’el, “I am אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, teaching you what is best, leading you by the way you should go.

18 “If only you had listened to My Commands! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea.

19 “And your seed would have been like the sand, and the offspring of your inward parts like the grains of sand. His name would not have been cut off nor destroyed from before Me.

20 “Come out of Babel! Flee from the Kasdites! Declare this with a voice of singing, proclaim it, send it out to the end of the earth! Say, ‘אֱלֹהִים has redeemed His servant Ya’aqob!’ ”

21 And they did not thirst when He led them through the deserts; He caused waters from a rock to flow for them; He split the rock, and waters gushed out.

22 “There is no peace for the wicked,” said אֱלֹהִים.”

49 Listen to Me, O coastlands, and hear, you peoples from afar! אֱלֹהִים has called Me from the womb, from My mother’s body He has caused My Name to be remembered.

2 And He made My mouth like a sharp sword, in the shadow of His hand He hid Me, and made Me a polished shaft. In His quiver He hid Me.”

3 And He said to Me, ‘You are My servant, O Yisra’ël, in whom I am adorned.’

4 And I said, ‘I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for emptiness, and in vain. But my Right-Ruling is with אֱלֹהִים, and my work with my Elohim.’ ”

5 And now said אֱלֹהִים - who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, to bring Ya’aqob back to Him, though Yisra’ël is not gathered to Him, yet I am esteemed in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, and My Elohim has been My strength -

6 and He says, “Shall it be trivial for You to be My Servant to raise up the tribes of Ya’aqob, and to bring back the preserved ones of Yisra’ël? And I shall give You as a light to the gentiles, to be My deliverance to the ends of the earth!”

7 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Redeemer of Yisra’ël, their Qadosh One, to the despised, to the loathed One of the nation, to the Servant of rulers, “Sovereigns shall see and arise, rulers also shall bow themselves, because of אֱלֹהִים who is steadfast, the Qadosh One of Yisra’ël. And He has chosen You!”

8 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “In a favourable time I shall answer You, and in the day of deliverance I shall help You - and I guard You and give You for a Covenant of the people, to restore the earth, to cause them to inherit the ruined inheritances, 9 to say to the prisoners, 'Go out,' to those who are in darkness, 'Show yourselves.' "Let them feed on the ways, and let their pasture be on all bare hills.

10 "They shall not hunger nor thirst, neither heat or sun strike them, for He who has compassion on them shall lead them, even by fountains of water guide them.

11 "And I shall make all My mountains a way, and My highways raised up.

12 "See, these come from far away, and see, those from the north and the west, and these from the land of Sinim."

13 Sing, O shamayim, rejoice, O earth! And break out in singing, O mountains! For אֱלֹהִים shall comfort His people and have compassion on His afflicted ones.

14 But Tsiyon says, "אֱלֹהִים has forsaken me, and אֱלֹהִים has forgotten me."

15 "Would a woman forget her nursing child, and not have compassion on the son of her womb? Though they forget, I never forget you.

16 "See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; your walls are always before Me.

17 "Your sons shall hurry, your destroyers and those who laid you waste depart from you.

18 "Lift up your eyes round about and see, all of them gather together and come to you. As I live," declares אֱלֹהִים, "you shall put on all of them as an ornament, and bind them on you as a bride does.

19 "For your wastes, and your deserted places, and the land of your destruction, shall soon be too narrow for the inhabitants, while those who swallowed you up are far away.

20 "The sons of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, 'The place is too narrow for me, make room for me to live.'

21 “And you shall say in your heart, ‘Who has brought forth these for me, since I am bereaved and barren, an exile, and wandering to and fro? And who reared them? See, I was left alone - from where did these come?’ ”

22 Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “See, I lift My hand up to the gentiles, and raise My banner for the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their arms, and your daughters carried on their shoulders;

23 “And sovereigns shall be your foster fathers, and their sovereignesses your nursing mothers. They bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick up the dust of your feet. And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי - those who wait for Me shall not be ashamed.”

24 Is prey taken from the mighty, and the captives of the righteous delivered?

25 Yet thus said אֲדֹנָי, “Even the captives of the mighty are taken away, and the prey of the ruthless is delivered; and I strive with him who strives with you, and I save your children.

26 “And I shall feed those who oppress you with their own flesh, and let them drink their own blood as sweet wine. All flesh shall know that I, אֲדֹנָי, am your Saviour, and your Redeemer, the Elohim of Ya’aqob.”

50 “Thus says אֲדֹנָי, “Where is the certificate of your mother’s divorce, whom I have put away? Or which of My creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Look, you were sold for your wickednesses, and your mother was put away for your transgressions.

2 “When I came, why was there no man? When I called, why was there no one to answer? Was My hand too short to redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? See, by My rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness; their fish stink for there is no water, and die of thirst.

3 “I clothe the shamayim with darkness, and I make sackcloth their covering.”

4 The Adon אֲדֹנָי has given Me the tongue of talmidim, that I should know to help the weary with a word. He wakes Me morning by morning, he wakes My ear to hear as talmidim.

5 The Adon אֲדֹנָי has opened My ear, and I was not rebellious, nor did I turn away.

6 I gave My back to those who struck Me, and My cheeks to those who plucked out the beard, I did not hide My face from humiliation and spitting.

7 And the Adon אֲדֹנָי helps Me, therefore I shall not be humiliated. So I have turned My face like a flint, and I know that I am not put to shame.

8 Near is He who declares Me right. Who would contend with Me? Let us stand together. Who is My adversary? Let him come near Me.

9 See, the Adon אֲדֹנָי helps Me. Who would declare Me wicked? See, all of them wear out like a garment, a moth eats them.

10 Who among you is revering אֲדֹנָי, obeying the voice of His Servant, that has walked in darkness and has no light? Let him trust in the Name of אֲדֹנָי and lean upon his Elohim!

11 See, all you who light a fire, girding on burning arrows: walk in the light of your fire and in the burning arrows you have lit. From My hand you shall have this: you shall lie down in grief!

51 “Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness, seeking אֲדֹנָי: Look to the rock you were hewn from, and to the hole of the pit you were dug from.

2 “Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you. For he was alone when I called him, and I barak him and increased him.

3 “For אֱלֹהִים shall comfort Tsiyon, He shall comfort all her waste places. For He makes her wilderness like E<sup>ן</sup>den, and her desert like the garden of אֱדֶן. Joy and gladness are found in it, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

4 “Listen to Me, My people, and give ear to Me, O My nation, for the Torah goes forth from Me, and My Right-Ruling I place as a light to peoples.

5 “My righteousness is near, My deliverance shall go forth, and My arms judge peoples. Coastlands wait upon Me, and for My arm they wait expectantly.

6 “Lift up your eyes to the shamayim, and look on the earth beneath, for the shamayim shall vanish like smoke, and the earth wear out like a garment, and those who dwell in it die as gnats. But My deliverance is forever, and My righteousness is not broken.

7 “Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, a people in whose heart is My Torah: do not fear the reproach of men, nor be afraid of their revilings.

8 “For a moth eats them like a garment, and a worm eats them like wool; but My righteousness is forever, and My deliverance to all generations.”

9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of אֱלֹהִים! Awake as in days of old, everlasting generations. Was it not You who cut pride apart, and pierced the dragon?

10 Was it not You who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

11 And let the ransomed of אֱלֹהִים return. And they shall come to Tsiyon with singing, with everlasting joy on their heads. Let them attain joy and gladness; sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

12 "I, I am He who comforts you. Who are you that you should be afraid of man that dies, and of the son of man who is made like grass?

13 "And you have forgotten אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Maker who stretched out the shamayim and laid the foundations of the earth, and you continually fear, all the day, because of the rage of the oppressor, as he has prepared to destroy. And where is the rage of the oppressor?

14 "Bowed, he hastens to be loosened, that he should not die in the pit, and that his bread should not fail.

15 "But I am אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, stirring up the sea, and its waves roar. אֱלֹהֶיךָ of hosts is His Name.

16 "And I have put My Words in Your mouth, and with the shadow of My hand I have covered You, to plant the shamayim and lay the foundations of the earth, and to say to Tsiyon, 'You are My people.' "

17 Awake, awake yourself! Rise up, O Yerushalayim, you who have drunk at the hand of אֱלֹהֶיךָ the cup of His wrath. You have drunk the dregs of the cup of reeling, and drained it out.

18 Of all the sons she bore, she has none to guide her. And of all the sons she has brought up, no one strengthens her hand.

19 Both these are coming upon you - who is sorry for you? Ruin and destruction, scarcity of food and sword. How shall I comfort you?

20 Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, like a gazelle in a net. They are filled with the wrath of אֱלֹהֶיךָ, the rebuke of your Elohim.

21 Therefore please hear this, you afflicted and drunk, but not with wine.

22 Thus said your Adon, אֲדֹנָי and your Elohim, who pleads the cause of His people, “See, I shall take out of your hand the cup of reeling, the dregs of the cup of My wrath - never again shall you drink it.

23 “And I shall put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said to your being, ‘Bow down, and we pass over you.’ And you made your back like the ground, and as the street, to walk over.”

52 Awake, awake! Put on your strength, O Tsiyon, put on your garments of splendour, O Yerushalayim, the qodesh city! For no more do the uncircumcised and the unclean come into you.

2 Shake yourself from the dust, arise, and sit down, O Yerushalayim. Loose yourself from the bonds of your neck, O captive daughter of Tsiyon!

3 For thus said אֲדֹנָי, “You have been sold for naught, and you are redeemed not with silver.”

4 For thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “At first My people went down into Mitsrayim to sojourn there, and Ashshur oppressed them without cause.

5 “And now, what have I here,” declares אֲדֹנָי, “that My people are taken away for naught? Those who rule over them make them wail,” declares אֲדֹנָי, “and My Name is despised all day continually.

6 “Therefore My people shall know My Name, in that day, for I am the One who is speaking. See, it is I.”

7 How pleasant upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace, who brings good news, who proclaims deliverance, who says to Tsiyon, “Your Elohim reigns!”

8 The voice of your watchmen! They shall lift up their voices, together they shout for joy, because eye to eye they see the return of אֲדֹנָי to Tsiyon.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Yerushalayim! For אֱלֹהִים shall comfort His people, He shall redeem Yerushalayim.

10 אֱלֹהִים shall lay bare His qodesh arm in the eyes of all the nations. And all the ends of the earth shall see the deliverance of our Elohim.

11 Turn aside! Turn aside! Come out from there, touch not the unclean. Come out of her midst, be clean, you who bear the vessels of אֱלֹהִים.

12 For you shall not come out in haste, nor go in flight. For אֱלֹהִים is going before you, and the Elohim of Yisra'el is your rear guard.

13 See, My Servant shall work wisely, He shall be exalted and lifted up and very high.

14 As many were astonished at You - so the disfigurement beyond any man's and His form beyond the sons of men -

15 He shall likewise startle many nations. Sovereigns shut their mouths at Him, for what had not been recounted to them they shall see, and what they had not heard they shall understand.

53 Who has believed our report? And to whom was the arm of אֱלֹהִים revealed?

2 For He grew up before Him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no form or splendour that we should look upon Him, nor appearance that we should desire Him -

3 despised and rejected by men, a man of pains and knowing sickness. And as one from whom the face is hidden, being despised, and we did not consider Him.

4 Truly, He has borne our sicknesses and carried our pains. Yet we reckoned Him stricken, smitten by Elohim, and afflicted.

5 But He was pierced for our transgressions, He was crushed for our wickednesses. The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, and by His stripes we are healed.

6 We all, like sheep, went astray, each one of us has turned to his own way. And אָיָאָז has laid on Him the wickedness of us all.

7 He was oppressed and He was afflicted, but He did not open His mouth. He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before its shearers is silent, but He did not open His mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment. And as for His generation, who considered that He shall be cut off from the land of the living? For the transgression of My people He was stricken.

9 And He was appointed a grave with the wicked, and with the rich at His death, because He had done no violence, nor was deceit in His mouth.

10 But אָיָאָז was pleased to crush Him, He laid sickness on Him, that when He made Himself an offering for guilt, He would see a seed, He would prolong His days and the pleasure of אָיָאָז prosper in His hand.

11 From the suffering of His life He would see light and be satisfied. Through His knowledge My righteous Servant makes many righteous, and He bears their wickednesses.

12 Therefore I give Him a portion among the great, and He divides the spoil with the strong, because He poured out His being unto death, and He was counted with the transgressors, and He bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 “Sing, O barren one, you who did not bear! Break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who have not been in labour! For the children of the deserted one are more than the children of the married woman," said אֱלֹהִים.

2 "Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch out the curtains of your dwellings, spare not. Lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes.

3 "For you shall break forth to the right and to the left, and your seed inherit the nations, and make the deserted cities inhabited.

4 "Do not fear, for you shall not be put to shame, nor hurt, you shall not be humiliated. For the shame of your youth you shall forget, and not remember the reproach of your widowhood any more.

5 "For your Maker is your husband, אֱלֹהִים of hosts is His Name, and the Qadosh One of Yisra'ël is your Redeemer. He is called the Elohim of all the earth.

6 "For אֱלֹהִים has called you like a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, like a wife of youth when you were refused," declares your Elohim.

7 "For a little while I have forsaken you, but with great compassion I shall gather you.

8 "In an overflow of wrath I hid My face from you for a moment, but with everlasting kindness I shall have compassion on you," said אֱלֹהִים, your Redeemer.

9 "For this is the waters of Noah to Me, in that I have sworn that the waters of Noah would never again cover the earth, so have I sworn not to be wroth with you, nor to rebuke you.

10 "For though the mountains be removed and the hills be shaken, My kindness is not removed from you, nor is My Covenant of peace shaken," said אֱלֹהִים, who has compassion on you.

11 "O you afflicted one, tossed with storm, and not comforted, see, I shall lay your stones in emeralds, and your foundations with sapphires,

12 and shall make your battlements of rubies, your gates of crystal, and all your walls of precious stones,
 13 and all your children taught by אִיִּי, and the peace of your children great.

14 “In righteousness you shall be established - far from oppression, for you shall not fear, and from ruin, for it does not come near you.

15 “See, they shall indeed assemble, but not because of Me. Whoever shall assemble against you falls for your sake!

16 “See, I Myself have created the blacksmith who blows the coals in the fire, who brings forth an instrument for his work. And I have created the waster to destroy.

17 “No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue which rises against you in judgment you shall prove wicked. This is the inheritance of the servants of אִיִּי, and their righteousness from Me,” declares אִיִּי.

55 “Oh everyone who thirsts, come to the waters. And you who have no silver, come, buy and eat. Come, buy wine and milk without silver and without price.

2 “Why do you weigh out silver for what is not bread, and your labour for what does not satisfy? Listen, listen to Me, and eat what is good, and let your being delight itself in fatness.

3 “Incline your ear, and come to Me. Hear, so that your being lives. And let Me make an everlasting Covenant with you, the trustworthy kindnesses of Dawid.

4 “See, I have given Him as a witness to the people, a Leader and a Commander for the people.

5 “See, a nation you do not know, you shall call, and a nation who does not know you runs to you, because of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and the Qadosh One of Yisra'el, for He has adorned you.”

6 Seek אֱלֹהִים while He is to be found, call on Him while He is near.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts. Let him return to אֱלֹהִים, who has compassion on him, and to our Elohim, for He pardons much.

8 “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

9 “For as the shamayim are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.

10 “For as the rain comes down, and the snow from the shamayim, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, and give seed to the sower and bread to the eater,

11 so is My Word that goes forth from My mouth - it does not return to Me empty, but shall do what I please, and shall certainly accomplish what I sent it for.

12 “For with joy you go out, and with peace you are brought in - the mountains and the hills break forth into singing before you, and all the trees of the field clap the hands.

13 “Instead of the thorn the cypress comes up, and instead of the nettle the myrtle comes up. And it shall be to אֱלֹהִים for a name, for an everlasting sign which is not cut off.”

56 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Guard Right-Ruling, and do righteousness, for near is My deliverance to come, and My righteousness to be revealed.

2 “Baruk is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it, guarding the Shabbath lest he profane it, and guarding his hand from doing any evil.

3 “And let not the son of the foreigner who has joined himself to אֲרָמִי speak, saying, ‘אֲרָמִי has certainly separated me from His people,’ nor let the eunuch say, ‘Look I am a dry tree.’ ”

4 For thus said אֲרָמִי, “To the eunuchs who guard My Shabbathoth, and have chosen what pleases Me, and hold fast to My Covenant:

5 to them I shall give in My house and within My walls a place and a name better than that of sons and daughters - I give them an everlasting name that is not cut off.

6 “Also the sons of the foreigner who join themselves to אֲרָמִי, to serve Him, and to love the Name of אֲרָמִי, to be His servants, all who guard the Shabbath, and not profane it, and holdfast to My Covenant -

7 them I shall bring to My qodesh mountain, and let them rejoice in My house of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their slaughterings are accepted on My altar, for My house is called a house of prayer for all the peoples.”

8 The Adon אֲרָמִי, who gathers the outcasts of Yisra’el, declares, “I still gather to him besides those who are gathered to him.”

9 All you beasts of the field, come to devour, all you beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind, all of them, they have not known. All of them are dumb dogs, unable to bark, dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 And the dogs have a strong appetite, they never have enough. And they are shepherds! They have not known understanding. All of them look to their own way, every one for his own gain, from his own end.

12 “Come, let me bring wine and fill ourselves with strong drink. And tomorrow shall be as today, even much greater.”

57 The righteous one has perished, and no one takes it to heart. And kind men are taken away, while no one understands that the righteous one is taken away from the presence of evil,

2 he enters into peace. They who walk in integrity rest on their beds.

3 “But come here, you sons of the sorceress, you offspring of the adulterer and the whore!

4 Against whom are you sporting? Against whom do you make a wide mouth and stick out the tongue? Are you not children of transgression, offspring of falsehood,

5 being inflamed with mighty ones under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?

6 “Among the smooth stones of the stream is your portion; they, they, are your lot! Also to them you have poured a drink offering, you have offered a grain offering. Am I comforted in these?

7 “On a high and lofty mountain you have made your bed. There, too, you went up to make an offering.

8 “Also behind the doors and their posts you have made your remembrance. For you have departed from Me, and have gone up to them. You have made your bed wide and made a covenant with them. You have loved their bed, where you saw their hand.

9 “And you went to the sovereign with ointment, and increased your perfumes. And you sent your messengers far off, and lowered yourself even to the grave.

10 “You have wearied yourselves with your many wanderings, yet you did not say, ‘I give up!’ You have found the life of your hand, therefore you were not grieved.

11 “And of whom have you been afraid, or feared, that you have lied and not remembered Me, nor taken it to your heart? Have I not been silent, even from of old, and you have not revered Me?

12 “Let Me declare your righteousness and your works, for they do not profit you.

13 “When you cry out, let your collection of idols deliver you. But the wind shall bear them all away, a breath take them. But he who takes refuge in Me shall inherit the land, and possess My qodesh mountain.”

14 And one shall say, “Heap it up! Heap it up! Prepare the way, take the stumbling-block out of the way of My people.”

15 For thus declares the high and exalted One who dwells forever, whose Name is qodesh, “I dwell in the high and qodesh place, with him who has a bruised and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of bruised ones.

16 “For I would not strive forever, nor am I wroth forever, for the spirit would grow faint before Me, even the beings I have made.

17 “For the wickedness of his unfair gain I was wroth and I smote him. I hid Myself and was wroth, and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.

18 “I have seen his ways, but I heal him, and I lead him, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners, 19 creating the fruit of the lips: peace, peace to him who is far off and to him who is near,” said אִי אִי, “and I shall heal him.”

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, for it is unable to rest, and its waters cast up mud and dirt.

21 “There is no peace,” said my Elohim, “for the wicked.”

58 “Cry aloud, do not spare. Lift up your voice like a ram’s horn. Declare to My people their transgression, and the house of Ya’aqob their sins.

2 “Yet they seek Me day by day, and delight to know My ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and did not forsake the Right-Ruling of their Elohim. They ask of Me rulings of righteousness, they delight in drawing near to Elohim.

3 ‘Why have we fasted, and You have not seen? Why have we afflicted our beings, and You took no note?’ “Look, in the day of your fasting you find pleasure, and drive on all your labourers.

4 “Look, you fast for strife and contention, and to strike with the fist of wickedness. You do not fast as you do this day, to make your voice heard on high.

5 “Is it a fast that I have chosen, a day for a man to afflict his being? Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush, and to spread out sackcloth and ashes? Do you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to אִתְּךָ?

6 “Is this not the fast that I have chosen: to loosen the tight cords of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, to exempt the oppressed, and to break off every yoke?

7 “Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and that you bring to your house the poor who are cast out; when you see the naked, and cover him, and not hide yourself from your own flesh?

8 “Then your light would break forth like the morning, your healing spring forth speedily. And your righteousness shall go before you, the esteem of אִתְּךָ would be your rear guard.

9 “Then, when you call, אֱלֹהִים would answer; when you cry, He would say, ‘Here I am.’ “If you take away the yoke from your midst, the pointing of the finger, and the speaking of unrighteousness,

10 if you extend your being to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted being, then your light shall dawn in the darkness, and your darkness be as noon.

11 “Then אֱלֹהִים would guide you continually, and satisfy your being in drought, and strengthen your bones. And you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail.

12 “And those from among you shall build the old waste places. You shall raise up the foundations of many generations. And you would be called the Repairer of the breach, the Restorer of streets to dwell in.

13 “If you do turn back your foot from the Shabbath, from doing your pleasure on My qodesh day, and shall call the Shabbath ‘a delight,’ the qadosh of אֱלֹהִים ‘esteemed,’ and shall esteem it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words,

14 then you shall delight yourself in אֱלֹהִים. And I shall cause you to ride on the heights of the earth, and feed you with the inheritance of Ya’aqob your father. For the mouth of אֱלֹהִים has spoken!”

59 Look, the hand of אֱלֹהִים has not become too short to save, nor His ear too heavy to hear.

2 But your wickednesses separated you from your Elohim. And your sins have hidden His face from you, from hearing.

3 For your hands have been defiled with blood, and your fingers with wickedness; your lips have spoken falsehood, your tongue mutters unrighteousness.

4 No one calls for righteousness, and no one judges for truth. They trust in emptiness and speak worthlessness; they conceive trouble and bring forth wickedness.

5 They have hatched adders' eggs and they weave the spider's web. Whoever eats their eggs dies, and when one is broken an adder is hatched.

6 Their webs do not become garments, nor do they cover themselves with their works. Their works are works of wickedness, and a deed of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they hurry to shed innocent blood. Their thoughts are thoughts of wickedness, wasting and ruin are in their highways.

8 The way of peace they have not known, and there is no right-ruling in their ways. They have made crooked paths for themselves, whoever treads in them shall not know peace.

9 Therefore right-ruling has been far from us, and righteousness does not reach us. We look for light, but there is darkness; for brightness, but we walk in thick darkness!

10 We feel for the wall like the blind, and we feel as without eyes. At noon we stumble as at twilight, in deserted places, like the dead.

11 All of us growl like bears, and moan sadly like doves. We look for right-ruling, but there is none; for deliverance, but it is far from us.

12 For our transgressions have increased before You, and our sins witnessed against us. For our transgressions are with us, and as for our wickednesses, we know them:

13 transgressing, and being untrue to אֱלֹהֵינוּ, and turning away from our Elohim, speaking oppression and apostasy, conceiving and pondering words of falsehood from the heart.

14 And right-ruling is driven back, and righteousness stands far off. For truth has fallen in the street, and right is unable to enter.

15 And the truth is lacking, and whoever turns away from evil makes himself a prey. And אֱלֹהִים saw, and it displeased Him that there was no right-ruling.

16 And He saw that there was no man, and was astonished that there was no intercessor. So His own arm saved for Him, and His righteousness upheld him.

17 And He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of deliverance on His head. And He put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped Himself with ardour as a mantle.

18 According to their deeds, so He repays, wrath to His adversaries, recompense to His enemies. He repays recompense to the coastlands.

19 And they shall revere the Name of אֱלֹהִים from the west, and His esteem from the rising of the sun, when He comes like a distressing stream which the Ruah of אֱלֹהִים drives on.

20 “And the Redeemer shall come to Tsiyon, and to those turning from transgression in Ya’aqob,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

21 “As for Me, this is My Covenant with them,” said אֱלֹהִים: “My Ruah that is upon you, and My Words that I have put in your mouth, shall not be withdrawn from your mouth, nor from the mouth of your descendants, nor from the mouth of your descendants’ descendants,” said אֱלֹהִים, “from this time and forever.”

60 “Arise, shine, for your light has come! And the esteem of אֱלֹהִים has risen upon you.

2 “For look, darkness covers the earth, and darkness clouds the peoples. But אֱלֹהִים arises over you, and His esteem is seen upon you.

3 “And the gentiles shall come to your light, and sovereigns to the brightness of your rising.

4 “Lift up your eyes all around and see: all of them have gathered, they have come to you; your sons come from afar, and your daughters are supported on the side.

5 “Then you shall see and be bright, and your heart shall throb and swell, for the wealth of the sea is turned to you, the riches of the gentiles come to you.

6 “A stream of camels cover your land, the dromedaries of Midyan and Ĕphah; all those from Sheba come, bearing gold and incense, and proclaiming the praises of אֱלֹהִים.

7 “All the flocks of Qəḏar are gathered to you, the rams of Neḅayoth serve you; they come up for acceptance on My altar, and I embellish My esteemed House.

8 “Who are these who fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?

9 “Because the coastlands wait for Me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from afar, their silver and their gold with them, to the Name of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and to the Qadosh One of Yisra’ēl, because He has adorned you.

10 “And the sons of foreigners shall build your walls, and their sovereigns serve you. For in My wrath I have smitten you, but in My delight I shall have compassion on you.

11 “And your gates shall be open continually, they are not shut day or night, to bring to you the wealth of the gentiles, and their sovereigns in procession.

12 “For the nation and the reign that do not serve you shall perish, and those gentiles shall be utterly laid waste.

13 “The esteem of Lebanon shall come to you, cypress, pine, and the box tree together, to embellish the place of My Miqdash. And I shall make the place of My feet esteemed.

14 “And the sons of those who afflicted you come bowing to you, and all those who despised you shall bow themselves at the soles of your feet. And they shall call you: City of צִיּוֹן, Tsiyon of the Qadosh One of Yisra’el.

15 “Instead of you being forsaken and hated, so that no one passes through you, I shall make you an everlasting excellence, a joy of many generations.

16 “And you shall drink dry the milk of the gentiles, and shall milk the breast of sovereigns. And you shall know that I, צִיּוֹן, your Saviour and your Redeemer, am the Elohim of Ya’aqob.

17 “Instead of bronze I bring gold, and instead of iron I bring silver, and bronze instead of wood, and iron instead of stones. And I shall make your officers peace, and your magistrates righteousness.

18 “Violence shall no longer be heard in your land, neither wasting nor ruin within your borders. And you shall call your walls Deliverance, and your gates Praise.

19 “No longer is the sun your light by day, nor does the moon give light to you for brightness, but צִיּוֹן shall be to you an everlasting light, and your Elohim your comeliness.

20 “No longer does your sun go down, nor your moon withdraw itself, for אֱלֹהִים shall be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended.

21 “And your people, all of them righteous, shall inherit the earth forever - a branch of My planting, a work of My hands, to be adorned.

22 “The little shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation. I, אֱלֹהִים, shall hasten it in its time.”

61 The Ruah of the Adon אֱלֹהִים is upon Me, because אֱלֹהִים has anointed Me to bring good news to the meek. He has sent Me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim release to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound,

2 to proclaim the acceptable year of אֱלֹהִים, and the day of vengeance of our Elohim, to comfort all who mourn,

3 to appoint unto those who mourn in Tsiyon: to give them embellishment for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. And they shall be called trees of righteousness, a planting of אֱלֹהִים, to be adorned.

4 And they shall rebuild the old ruins, raise up the former wastes. And they shall restore the ruined cities, the wastes of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the foreigner be your ploughmen and your vinedressers.

6 But you shall be called, ‘Kohenim of אֱלֹהִים,’ ‘Servants of our Elohim’ shall be said of you. You shall consume the strength of the gentiles, and boast in their esteem.

7 Instead of your shame and reproach, they rejoice a second time in their portion. Therefore they take possession a second time in their land, everlasting joy is theirs.

8 “For I, אֱלֹהִים, love right-ruling; I hate robbery for burnt offering. And I shall give their reward in truth, and make an everlasting Covenant with them.

9 “And their seed shall be known among the gentiles, and their offspring in the midst of the peoples. All who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed אֱלֹהִים has barak.”

10 I greatly rejoice in אֱלֹהִים, my being exults in my Elohim. For He has put garments of deliverance on me, He has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth brings forth its bud, as the garden causes the seed to shoot up, so the Adon אֱלֹהִים causes righteousness and praise to shoot up before all the nations!

62 For Tsiyon’s sake I am not silent, and for Yerushalayim’s sake I do not rest, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her deliverance as a lamp that burns.

2 And the nations shall see your righteousness, and all sovereigns your esteem. And you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of אֱלֹהִים designates.

3 And you shall be a crown of comeliness in the hand of אֱלֹהִים, and a royal head-dress in the hand of your Elohim.

4 No longer are you called “Forsaken,” and no longer is your land called “Deserted.” But you shall be called “I delight in her,” and your land “Married,” for אֱלֹהִים shall delight in you, and your land be married.

5 For as a young man marries a maiden, so shall your sons marry you. And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your Elohim rejoice over you.

6 I have put watchmen on your walls, O Yerushalayim, all the day and all the night, continually, who are not silent. You who remember אִיִּזְרָאֵל, give yourselves no rest,

7 and give Him no rest till He establishes and till He makes Yerushalayim a praise in the earth.

8 אִיִּזְרָאֵל has sworn by His right hand and by the arm of His strength, "No more do I give your grain to be food for your enemies, nor do sons of the foreigner drink your new wine, for which you have laboured;

9 but those gathering it shall eat it, and hallelu-אִיִּזְרָאֵל. And those collecting it shall drink it in My qodesh courts."

10 Pass through, pass through the gates! Prepare the way for the people. Build up, build up the highway! Remove the stones. Lift up a banner for the peoples!

11 See, אִיִּזְרָאֵל has proclaimed to the end of the earth: "Say to the daughter of Tsiyon, 'See, your deliverance has come; see, His reward is with Him, and His work before Him.'"

12 And they shall be called, "The Qodesh people, the Redeemed of אִיִּזְרָאֵל." And you shall be called, "Sought out, a City not forsaken."

63 Who is this coming from Edom, with garments of glowing colours from Botsrah, who is robed in splendour, striding forward in the greatness of His strength? "It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

2 Why is there red on Your raiment, and Your garments like one who treads in the winepress?

3 “I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the peoples no one was with Me. And I trod them down in My displeasure, and I trampled them in My wrath. Their blood is sprinkled upon My garments, and I have defiled all My raiment.

4 “For a day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed has come.

5 “And I looked, but there was none helping, and I was astonished that there was none upholding. So My own arm saved for Me, and My wrath upheld Me.

6 “And I trod down peoples in My displeasure, and made them drunk in My wrath, and brought down their strength to earth.”

7 Let me recount the kindnesses of יהוה and the praises of יהוה, according to all that יהוה has done for us, and the great goodness toward the house of Yisra'el, which He has done for them according to His compassion, and according to His many kindnesses.

8 And He said, “They are My people, children who do not act falsely.” And He became their Saviour.

9 In all their distress He was distressed, and the Messenger of His Presence saved them. In His love and in His compassion He redeemed them, and He lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled and grieved His Ruah ha'Qodesh, so He turned against them as an enemy, and He fought against them.

11 Then He remembered the days of old, Mosheh, His people, “Where is He who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of His flock? Where is He who put His Ruah ha'Qodesh within him,

12 who led them by the right hand of Mosheh, with His comely arm, dividing the water before them to make for Himself an everlasting Name,

13 who led them through the deep? Like a horse in the wilderness they did not stumble.”

14 As a beast goes down into the valley, and the Ruah of אִיִּי causes him to rest, so You led Your people, to make Yourself a comely Name.

15 Look down from the shamayim, and see from Your qodesh and comely dwelling. Where are Your ardour and Your might, the stirring of Your inward parts and Your compassion toward me? Are they withheld?

16 For You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Yisra'el does not recognise us. You, O אִיִּי, are our Father, our Redeemer - Your Name is from of old.

17 O אִיִּי, why do You make us stray from Your ways, and harden our heart from Your reverence? Turn back, for the sake of Your servants, the tribes of Your inheritance.

18 For a little while Your qodesh people possessed it - our adversaries have trodden down Your Miqdash.

19 We have become like those over whom You never ruled - Your Name is not called on them!

64 Oh, that You would tear the shamayim open, come down, that mountains shall shake before You -
 2 as when fire burns twigs, as fire makes water boil - to make Your Name known to Your adversaries, so that nations tremble before You.

3 When You did fearfully, which we did not expect, You came down, mountains shook before You!

4 Since the beginning of the ages they have not heard nor perceived by the ear, nor has the eye seen any Elohim besides You, who acts for those who wait for Him.

5 You shall meet him who rejoices and does righteousness, who remembers You in Your ways.

See, You were wroth when we sinned in them a long time. And should we be saved?

6 And all of us have become as one unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as soiled rags. And all of us fade like a leaf, and our wickednesses, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is no one who calls on Your Name, who stirs himself up to take hold of You; for You have hidden Your face from us, and have consumed us because of our wickednesses.

8 And now, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, You are our Father. We are the clay, and You our potter. And we are all the work of Your Hand.

9 Do not be wroth, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ, nor remember wickedness forever. See, please look, all of us are Your people!

10 Your qodesh cities have become a wilderness, Tsiyon has become a wilderness, Yerushalayim a waste.

11 Our qodesh and comely House, where our fathers praised You, has been burned up with fire. And all that we treasured has become a ruin.

12 In view of all this, would You restrain Yourself, O אֱלֹהֵינוּ? Would You keep silent and afflict us beyond measure?

65 “I have let Myself be inquired of, not by those who asked; I was found, not by those who sought Me. I said, ‘Here I am, here I am,’ to a nation not calling on My Name.

2 “I have held out My hands all day long to a stubborn people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts;

3 the people who provoke Me continually to My face, who slaughter in gardens, and burn incense on altars of brick;

4 who sit among the graves, and spend the night in secret places, who eat flesh of pigs, and the broth of uncleanness is in their pots,

5 who say, 'Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am qodesh to you!' These are smoke in My nostrils, a fire that burns all day.

6 "See, it is written before Me: I am not silent, but shall repay, and I shall repay into their bosom,

7 your wickednesses and the wickednesses of your fathers together," said אֱלֹהִים, "who burned incense on the mountains and reproached Me on the hills. And I shall measure their former work into their bosom."

8 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, "As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one shall say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is berakah in it,' so I do for My servants' sake, not to destroy them all.

9 "And I shall bring forth a seed from Ya'aqob, and from Yahudah an heir of My mountains. And My chosen ones shall inherit it, and My servants dwell there.

10 "And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the Valley of Aqor a place for herds to lie down, for My people who have sought Me.

11 "But you are those who forsake אֱלֹהִים, who forget
My qodesh mountain, who prepare a table for Gad, and who fill a drink offering for Meni.

12 "And I shall allot you to the sword, and let you all bow down to the slaughter, because I called and you did not answer, I spoke and you did not hear, and you did evil before My eyes and chose that in which I did not delight."

13 Therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “See, My servants eat, but you hunger; see, My servants drink, but you thirst; see, My servants rejoice, but you are put to shame;

14 see, My servants sing for joy of heart, but you cry for sorrow of heart, and wail for breaking of spirit.

15 “And you shall leave your name as a curse to My chosen, for the Adon אֲדֹנָי shall put you to death, and call His servants by another name,

16 so that he who barak himself in the earth, barak himself in the Elohim of truth. And he who swears in the earth swears by the Elohim of truth. Because the former distresses shall be forgotten, and because they shall be hidden from My eyes.

17 “For look, I am creating new shamayim and a new earth, and the former shall not be remembered, nor come to heart.

18 “But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create; for look, I create Yerushalayim a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 “And I shall rejoice in Yerushalayim, and shall joy in My people, and let the voice of weeping no more be heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 “No more is an infant from there going to live but a few days, nor an old man who does not complete his days, for the youth dies one hundred years old, but the sinner being one hundred years old shall be lightly esteemed.

21 “And they shall build houses and inhabit them, and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

22 “They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat. For the days of My people are going to be as the days of a tree, and My chosen ones outlive the work of their hands.

23 “They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth children for trouble. For they are the seed of the baruk of אֱלֹהִים, and their offspring with them.

24 “And it shall be that before they call, I answer. And while they are still speaking, I hear.

25 “Wolf and lamb feed together, a lion eats straw as an ox, and dust is the snake’s food. They shall do no evil, nor destroy in all My qodesh mountain,” said אֱלֹהִים.

66 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “The shamayim are My throne, and the earth is My footstool. Where is this house that you build for Me? And where is this place of My rest?

2 “And all these My hand has made, and all these that exist,” declares אֱלֹהִים. “Yet to such a one I look: on him who is poor and bruised of spirit, and who trembles at My Word.

3 “Whoever slaughters the bull slays a man; whoever slaughters the lamb breaks a dog’s neck; whoever brings a grain offering - pig’s blood; whoever burns incense barak an idol. Indeed, they have chosen their own ways, and their being delights in their abominations.

4 “I shall also choose their punishments, and bring their fears on them. Because I called, but no one answered. I spoke and they did not hear, and they did evil before My eyes, and chose what was displeasing to Me.”

5 Hear the Word of אֱלֹהִים, you who tremble at His Word, “Your brothers who hate you, who cast you out for My Name’s sake, said, ‘Let אֱלֹהִים be esteemed, so that we see your joy.’ But they are put to shame.”

6 “A roaring sound from the city, a voice from the Hēykal, the voice of אֱלֹהִים, repaying His enemies!

7 “Before she laboured, she gave birth; before a pain came to her, she was delivered of a male child.

8 “Who has heard the like of this? Who has seen the like of these? Is a land brought forth in one day? Is a nation born at once? For as soon as Tsiyon laboured, she gave birth to her children.

9 “Shall I bring to birth, and not give delivery?” says אֱלֹהִים. “Shall I who give delivery restrain birth?” said your Elohim.

10 “Rejoice with Yerushalayim, and be glad with her, all you who love her; rejoice greatly with her, all you who mourn for her;

11 so that you feed, and shall be satisfied with the breast of her comforts, so that you drink deeply, and shall delight yourselves in her overflowing esteem.”

12 For thus said אֱלֹהִים, “See, I am extending peace to her like a river, and the esteem of the gentiles like a flowing stream. And you shall feed; you shall be carried on the side, and be fondled on her knees.”

13 “As one whom his mother comforts, so I comfort you. And in Yerushalayim you are comforted.”

14 “And you shall see, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones flourish as tender grass. And the hand of אֱלֹהִים shall be known to His servants, and His displeasure to His enemies.

15 “For look, אֱלֹהִים comes with fire and with His chariots, like a whirlwind, to render His displeasure with burning, and His rebuke with flames of fire.

16 “For by fire and by His sword אֱלֹהִים shall judge all flesh, and the slain of אֱלֹהִים shall be many -

17 those who qadosh themselves and cleanse themselves at the gardens after ‘one’ in the midst, eating flesh of pigs and the abomination and the mouse, come to an end, altogether,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

18 “And I, because of their works and their imaginations, am coming to gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and see My esteem.

19 “And I shall appoint a sign among them, and shall send some of those who escape to the nations - Tarshish and Pul and Lud, who draw the bow, and Tubal and Yawan, the coastlands far off who have not heard My report nor seen My esteem. And they shall declare My esteem among the gentiles.

20 “And they shall bring all your brothers as an offering to אֱלֹהֵיךָ out of all the gentiles, on horses and in chariots and in litters, on mules and on camels, to My qodesh mountain Yerushalayim,” declares אֱלֹהֵיךָ, “as the children of Yisra’el bring an offering in a clean vessel into the House of אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

21 “And from them too I shall take for kohenim - for Lēwites,” declares אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

22 “For as the new shamayim and the new earth that I make stand before Me,” declares אֱלֹהֵיךָ, “so your seed and your name shall stand.

23 “And it shall be that from New Moon to New Moon, and from Shabbath to Shabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before Me,” declares אֱלֹהֵיךָ.

24 “And they shall go forth and look upon the corpses of the men who have transgressed against Me. For their worm shall not die, and their fire not be quenched. And they shall be repulsive to all flesh!”

YIRMEYAHU

יִרְמְיָהוּ בֶן־חִלְקִיָּהוּ

1 The words of Yirmeyahu the son of Hīlqiyahu, of the kohenim who were in Anathoth in the land of Binyamin,
2 to whom the word of אֱלֹהִים came in the days of Yoshiyahu son of Amon, sovereign of Yahuḏah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

3 And it came in the days of Yahoyaqim, son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahuḏah, until the end of the eleventh year of Tsidqiyahu, son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahuḏah, until the exile of Yerushalayim in the fifth month.

4 Now the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,
5 “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you came out of the womb I qadosh you - I appointed you a nabi to nations.”

6 And I said, “Ah, Adonai אֱלֹהִים! See, I do not know how to speak, for I am a youth.”

7 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, “Do not say, ‘I am a youth,’ but go to all to whom I send you, and speak whatever I command you.

8 “Do not fear their faces, for I am with you to deliver you,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

9 Then אֱלֹהִים put forth His hand and touched my mouth, and אֱלֹהִים said to me, “See, I have put My words in your mouth.

10 “See, I have this day appointed you over the nations and over the reigns, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.”

11 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying, “What do you see, Yirmeyahu?” And I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.”

12 And אִירָמְיָהוּ said to me, “You have seen well, for I am watching over My word to do it.”

13 And the word of אִירָמְיָהוּ came to me a second time, saying, “What do you see?” And I said, “I see a boiling pot, and it is facing from the north.”

14 And אִירָמְיָהוּ said to me, “Out of the north evil is let loose on all the inhabitants of the land.

15 “For look, I am calling all the clans of the reigns of the north,” declares אִירָמְיָהוּ. “And they shall come and each one put his throne at the entrance of the gates of Yerushalayim, against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Yahudah.

16 “And I shall pronounce My judgments against them concerning all their evil, because they have forsaken Me, burned incense to other mighty ones, and bowed themselves to the works of their own hands.

17 “Now, gird up your loins and arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Do not break down before their faces, lest I break you before them.

18 “For look, I have made you this day a walled city and an iron column, and bronze walls against all the land, against the sovereigns of Yahudah, against her heads, against her kohenim, and against the people of the land.

19 “And they shall fight against you, but not prevail against you. For I am with you,” declares אִירָמְיָהוּ, “to deliver you.”

2 And the word of אִירָמְיָהוּ came to me, saying,

2 “Go, and you shall cry in the hearing of Yerushalayim, saying, ‘Thus said אִירָמְיָהוּ, “I remember you, the kindness of your youth, the love of your bridehood, when you went after Me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

3 “Yisra’ël was qodesh to אֱלֹהִים, the first-fruits of His increase. All who ate of it became guilty - evil came upon them,” declares אֱלֹהִים.’ ”

4 Hear the word of אֱלֹהִים, O house of Ya’aqob and all the clans of the house of Yisra’ël.

5 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “What unrighteousness have your fathers found in Me, that they have gone far from Me, and went after worthlessness, became worthless?

6 “And did not they say, ‘Where is אֱלֹהִים, who brought us up out of the land of Mitsrayim, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and pits, through a land of drought and the shadow of death, a land that no one passed through and where no one dwelt?’

7 “Then I brought you into a garden land, to eat its fruit and its goodness. But when you entered, you defiled My land and made My inheritance an abomination.

8 “The kohenim did not say, ‘Where is אֱלֹהִים?’ And those who handle the Torah did not know Me, and the shepherds transgressed against Me, and the nebi’im naḅu by Ba’al, and walked after no value.

9 “Therefore I still contend with you,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “and with your children’s children I contend.

10 “For, pass beyond the isles of Kittim and see, and send to Qēḏar and observe well, and see if there has been any like this.

11 “Has a nation changed its mighty ones, which are not mighty ones? But My people have changed My esteem for that which does not profit.

12 “Be amazed, O shamayim, at this, and be frightened, be utterly dried up,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

13 “For My people have done two evils: they have forsaken Me, the fountain of living waters, to hew out for themselves cisterns, cracked cisterns, which do not hold water.

14 “Is Yisra’ël a servant? Was he born in the house? Why is he given to plunder?”

15 “The young lions roared at him, they growled, and made his land waste; his cities have been burned, without inhabitant.

16 “Even the sons of Noph and of Taḥpanḥes have shaven the crown of your head.

17 “Have you not done this to yourself, by forsaking אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim when He led you in the way?”

18 “And now why take the way to Mitsrayim, to drink the waters of Shiḥor? Or why take the way to Ashshur, to drink the waters of the River?”

19 “Your own evil instructs you, and your backslidings reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is evil and bitter that you have forsaken אֱלֹהֶיךָ your Elohim, and that My reverence is not in you,” declares the Adon אֱלֹהֵי הַשָּׁמַיִם of hosts.

20 “For of old you have broken your yoke and tore off your bonds. And you said, ‘I am not serving!’ When on every high hill and under every green tree you lay down, a whore.

21 “Yet I had planted you a choice vine, all of it a true seed. How then have you turned before Me into the degenerate plant of a strange vine?”

22 “Although you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your wickedness is ingrained before Me,” declares the Adon אֱלֹהֵי הַשָּׁמַיִם.

23 “How do you say, ‘I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Ba’als’? See your way in the valley, know what you have done: a swift dromedary breaking loose in her ways,

24 a wild donkey used to the wilderness, sniffing the wind in the desire of her being - in her time of mating, who turns her away? All those who seek her need not weary themselves; in her month they find her.

25 “Keep your foot from being bare, and your throat from thirst. But you said, ‘It is useless, because I love strangers, and after them I go.’

26 “As the thief is ashamed when he is found out, so is the house of Yisra’ël ashamed - they and their sovereigns and their heads, and their kohenim and their nebi’im,

27 saying to a tree, ‘You are my father,’ and to a stone, ‘You gave birth to me.’ For they have turned their back to Me, and not their face. But in the time of their calamity they say, ‘Arise and save us.’

28 “But where are your mighty ones that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise if they save you in the time of your calamity. Because your mighty ones have become as many as your cities, O Yahudah.

29 “Why do you complain to Me? You all have transgressed against Me,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

30 “In vain have I smitten your children - they received no instruction. Your sword has devoured your nebi’im like a destroying lion.

31 “O generation, see the word of אֱלֹהִים! Have I been a wilderness to Yisra’ël, or a land of darkness? Why do My people say, ‘We have broken loose; we come to You no more’?

32 “Would a maiden forget her ornaments, or a bride her headband? Yet My people have forgotten Me, days without number.

33 “Why do you embellish your way to seek love? Therefore you have even taught the evil women your ways.

34 “Even on your skirts is found the blood of the lives of the poor innocents. You did not find them breaking in, but in spite of all these,

35 you say, 'Because I am innocent, certainly His displeasure shall turn from me.' See, I shall bring judgment on you, because you say, 'I have not sinned.'

36 "Why do you go about so much to change your way? Even of Mitsrayim you are to be ashamed, as you were ashamed of Ashshur.

37 "Even from this one you shall go forth, with your hands on your head. For אֲרָאָה has rejected those you trust, and you shall not prosper by them,

3 saying, "If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him and becomes another man's, does he return to her again? Would not that land be made greatly unclean? But you have committed whoring with many lovers. And would you return to Me?" declares אֲרָאָה.

2 "Lift up your eyes to the bare heights and see: where have you not lain with men? Beside the ways you have sat for them like an Arabian in the wilderness. And you made the land unclean with your whorings and your evil.

3 "Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain. You have had a whore's forehead, you refuse to be ashamed.

4 "Shall you not from now on cry to Me, 'My father, You are the guide of my youth?'

5 'Does one bear a grudge forever? Does one keep it to the end?' See, you have spoken and done the evils that you could."

6 And אֲרָאָה said to me in the days of Yoshiyahu the sovereign, "Have you seen what backsliding Yisra'el has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there committed whoring.

7 “And after she had done all these, I said ‘Return to Me.’ But she did not return. And her treacherous sister Yahudāh saw it.

8 “And I saw that for all the causes for which backsliding Yisra’ēl had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a certificate of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Yahudāh did not reverence, but went and committed whoring too.

9 “And it came to be, through her frivolous whoring, that she defiled the land and committed adultery with stones and wood.

10 “And yet for all this her treacherous sister Yahudāh has not turned to Me with all her heart, but falsely,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

11 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, “Backsliding Yisra’ēl has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Yahudāh.

12 “Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, ‘Return, O backsliding Yisra’ēl,’ declares אֱלֹהִים, ‘I shall not look on you in displeasure, for I am kind,’ declares אֱלֹהִים, ‘and I do not bear a grudge forever.

13 ‘Only, acknowledge your wickedness, because you have transgressed against אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, and have scattered your ways to strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed My voice,’ declares אֱלֹהִים.

14 “Return, O backsliding children,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “for I shall rule over you, and shall take you, one from a city and two from a clan, and shall bring you to Tsiyon.

15 “And I shall give you shepherds according to My heart, and they shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 “And it shall be, when you have increased, and shall bear fruit in the land in those days, declares

אֱלֹהִים, “that they no longer say, ‘The ark of the Covenant of אֱלֹהִים.’ Neither would it come to heart, nor would they remember it, nor would they visit it, nor would it be made again.

17 “At that time Yerushalayim shall be called the throne of אֱלֹהִים, and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the Name of אֱלֹהִים, to Yerushalayim, and no longer walk after the stubbornness of their evil heart.

18 “In those days the house of Yahuḏah shall go to the house of Yisra’ēl, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given as an inheritance to your fathers.

19 “But I said, ‘How would I put you among the children and give you a pleasant land, a splendid inheritance of the hosts of nations?’ ”And I said, ‘Call Me, “My Father,” and do not turn away from Me.’

20 “But indeed as a wife betrays her husband, so have you betrayed Me, O house of Yisra’ēl,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

21 A voice was heard on the bare heights, weeping supplications of the children of Yisra’ēl, because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten אֱלֹהִים their Elohim.

22 “Return, O backsliding children, I shall make your backslidings cease.” “See, we have come to You, for You are אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.

23 “Truly, delusion comes from the high hills, the noisy throng on the mountains. Truly, in אֱלֹהִים our Elohim is the deliverance of Yisra’ēl.

24 “For shame has devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

25 “We shall lie down in our shame, while our reproach covers us. For we have sinned against אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day, and have not obeyed the voice of אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.”

4 “If you do return, O Yisra’el,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “return to Me. And if you remove your abominations from My presence, and cease straying,

2 and shall swear, ‘As אֱלֹהִים lives,’ in truth, in right-ruling, and in righteousness - then nations shall barak themselves in Him, and they shall boast in Him!”

3 For this is what אֱלֹהִים said to the men of Yahudāh and Yerushalayim, “Break up your tillable ground, and do not sow among thorns.

4 “Circumcise yourselves unto אֱלֹהִים, and take away the foreskins of your hearts, you men of Yahudāh and inhabitants of Yerushalayim, lest My wrath come forth like fire and burn, with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds.”

5 Declare in Yahudāh and let it be heard in Yerushalayim, and say, “Blow the ram’s horn in the land. Cry aloud and say, ‘Gather yourselves, and let us go into the walled city.’

6 “Lift up the banner toward Tsiyon. Be strong, do not stand still! For I am bringing evil from the north, and great destruction.”

7 “A lion has come up from his bush, and the destroyer of nations is on his way. He has departed from his place to make your land a ruin. Your cities are laid waste, without inhabitant.

8 “For this, gird yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail. For the burning displeasure of אֱלֹהִים has not turned back from us.

9 “And in that day it shall be,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “that the heart of the sovereign shall perish, and the heart of the heads. And the kohenim shall be astonished, and the nebi’im wonder.”

10 Then I said, “Ah, Adonai אֲדֹנָי! Truly, You have greatly deceived this people and Yerushalayim, saying, ‘Peace is for you,’ whereas the sword reaches to the heart.”

11 At that time it shall be said to this people and to Yerushalayim, “A scorching wind of the bare heights blows in the wilderness toward the daughter of My people, not to fan or to cleanse.

12 “A wind too strong for this shall come for Me. Now it is I who speak judgments against them.

13 “See, he comes up like clouds, and his chariots like a whirlwind. His horses shall be swifter than eagles. Woe to us, for we shall be ravaged!”

14 O Yerushalayim, wash your heart from evil, and be saved. Till when would your wicked thoughts remain within you?

15 For a voice is declaring from Dan, and is proclaiming trouble from Mount Ephrayim:

16 “Announce to the nations, look, proclaim against Yerushalayim, that besiegers are coming from a distant land and raise their voice against the cities of Yahudah.

17 “Like keepers of a field they are against her all around, because she has rebelled against Me,” declares אֲדֹנָי.

18 “Your ways and your deeds have brought this upon you. This is your evil, because it is bitter, because it has reached into your heart.”

19 O my inward parts, my inward parts! I am in pain! O the walls of my heart! My heart pounds in me, I am not silent. For you have heard, O my being, the sound of the ram’s horn, a shout of battle!

20 Destruction upon destruction is cried, for all the land is ravaged. Suddenly my tents are ravaged - my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see a banner, and hear the sound of the ram's horn?

22 "For My people are foolish, they have not known Me. They are stupid children, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge."

23 I looked at the earth, and saw it was formless and empty. And the shamayim, they had no light.

24 I looked at the mountains, and saw they shook, and all the hills were swaying.

25 I looked, and saw there was no man, and all the birds of the shamayim had fled.

26 I looked, and saw the garden land was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of אֱלֹהִים, by His burning displeasure.

27 For thus said אֱלֹהִים, "All the earth shall be a ruin, but I shall not make a complete end.

28 "On account of this, let the earth mourn and the shamayim above be dark, because I have spoken, because I have purposed and shall not relent, nor do I turn back from it."

29 All the city is fleeing from the noise of the horsemen and bow archers. They shall go into bushes and climb up on the rocks. All the city is forsaken, and no one is dwelling in it.

30 And when you are ravaged, what would you do? Though you put on crimson, though you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, you adorn yourself in vain. Your lovers despise you, they seek your life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labour, the distress as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Tsiyon! She bewails herself, she spreads out her hands, saying, "Woe to me, for my being faints because of murderers!"

5 “Diligently search the streets of Yerushalayim, and please look, and know and seek in her open places if you find a man, if there is anyone doing Right-Ruling, seeking the truth, then I shall pardon her.

2 “Even when they say, ‘As אֱלֹהִים lives,’ they swear falsely, for certain.”

3 O אֱלֹהִים, are Your eyes, not on truth? You have smitten them, but they have not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive instruction. They made their faces harder than rock, they refused to turn back.

4 Then I said, “These are only the poor. They have been foolish, for they have not known the Way of אֱלֹהִים, the Right-Ruling of their Elohim.

5 “Let me go to the great men and speak to them, for they have known the Way of אֱלֹהִים, the Right-Ruling of their Elohim.” But these have altogether broken the yoke and torn off the bonds.

6 Therefore a lion from the forest shall smite them, a wolf of the deserts ravage them. A leopard is watching over their cities, whoever comes out of them is torn in pieces. For their transgressions have been many, their backslidings have been numerous.

7 “Why should I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by those that are not mighty ones. When I had filled them up, they then committed adultery and they thronged to the house of a whore.

8 “They were like well-fed horses, each one neighed after his neighbour’s wife.

9 “Would I not punish them for this?” declares אֱלֹהִים. “And would I not revenge Myself on such a nation as this?”

10 “Go up on her walls and destroy, but do not make a complete end. Take away her branches, for they do not belong to אֱלֹהִים.

11 “For the house of Yisra’el and the house of Yahudāh have utterly betrayed Me,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

12 They have been untrue to אֱלֹהִים and said, “It is not He. No evil comes upon us, nor do we see sword or scarcity of food.”

13 And the nebi'im have become wind, and the Word is not in them. Thus shall be done to them:

14 Therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of hosts, “Because you speak this word, see, I am making My words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

15 “See, I am bringing a nation against you from afar, O house of Yisra’el,” declares אֱלֹהִים. “It is an enduring nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you do not know, nor do you understand what they say.

16 “Their quiver is like an open tomb, all of them are mighty men.

17 “And they shall eat up your harvest and your bread, which your sons and daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds, they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. With the sword they shall demolish your walled cities, in which you are trusting.

18 “But even in those days,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “I shall not make a complete end of you.

19 “And it shall be, when they say, ‘Why does אֱלֹהִים our Elohim do all this to us?’ then you shall answer them, ‘As you have forsaken Me and served foreign mighty ones in your land, so you shall serve foreigners in a land that is not yours.’

20 “Declare this in the house of Ya’aqob and proclaim it in Yahudāh, saying,

21 'Hear this now, O foolish people without heart, who have eyes and see not, and who have ears and hear not:

22 'Do you not revere Me?' declares אֱלֹהִים. 'Do you not tremble at My presence, who have placed the sand as the boundary of the sea, by an everlasting law, and it does not pass over it? Though its waves toss to and fro, they are not able; though they roar, they do not pass over it.

23 'But this people has a backsliding and rebellious heart, they have turned aside and gone away.

24 'And they do not say in their heart, "Let us now revere אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season. He guards for us the Law: the Shabuoth of harvest."

25 'Your wickednesses have turned these away, and your sins have kept the good from you.

26 'For among My people are found wicked men who lie in wait as one who lays snares. They have laid up a trap, they catch men.

27 'As a cage is filled with birds, so their houses are filled with deceit. Therefore they have become great and grown rich.

28 'They have become fat, they are sleek. They also overlook the deeds of the wicked. They did not rightly rule the cause of the fatherless, so that they prosper. And the right of the needy they did not rightly rule.

29 'Would I not punish them for this?' declares אֱלֹהִים. 'Would I not revenge Myself on such a nation as this?'

30 "An astounding and horrible matter has come to be in the land:

31 The nebi'im have nabu falsely, and the kohenim rule by their own hand, and My people have loved it so. And what are you going to do at the end of it?

6 “O children of Binyamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Yerushalayim! Blow the ram’s horn in Teqowa, and put up a signal-fire in Běyth ha’Kkerem, for evil has been seen from the north, and great destruction.

2 “I shall cut off the lovely and delicate one, the daughter of Tsiyon.

3 “The shepherds with their flocks shall come to her, they shall pitch their tents against her all around. They shall pasture, each one in his own place.”

4 “Declare battle against her. Arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us, for the day goes away, for the shadows of the evening are lengthening.

5 “Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.”

6 For thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  of hosts, “Cut down her trees, and cast up a siege mound against Yerushalayim. She is the city to be punished, in whose midst there is only oppression.

7 “As a well flows with water, so she flows with her evil. Violence and destruction are heard in her. Before Me continually are suffering and smiting.

8 “Be instructed, O Yerushalayim, lest My being be torn from you, lest I make you a waste, a land not inhabited.”

9 Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  of hosts, “Let them thoroughly glean as a vine the remnant of Yisra’ël; pass your hand again over the branches like a grape-gatherer.”

10 To whom shall I speak and give warning, so that they hear? See, their ear is uncircumcised, and they are unable to listen. See, the word of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  is a reproach to them, they do not delight in it.

11 Therefore I am filled with the wrath of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ . I have become weary of containing it. “Pour it out on the children outside, and on the company of young men together, for even husband and wife shall be taken, the aged and the very old.

12 “And their houses shall be turned over to others, fields and wives together. For I shall stretch out My hand against the inhabitants of the land,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

13 “For from the least of them even to the greatest of them, they are all greedy for gain. And from the nabi even to the kohēn, all act falsely.

14 “And they heal the breach of My people slightly, saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ when there is no peace.

15 “Were they ashamed when they had done abomination? No! They were not at all ashamed, nor did they know how to blush. Therefore they shall fall among those who fall. They shall stumble at the time I visit them,” said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

16 Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where the good way is, and walk in it; and find rest for yourselves. But they said, ‘We do not walk.’

17 “And I raised up watchmen over you, ‘Listen to the sound of the ram’s horn!’ But they said, ‘We do not listen.’

18 “Therefore hear, you nations, and know, O congregation, what is upon them!

19 “Hear, O earth! See, I am bringing evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to My Words, nor My Torah - and they rejected it.

20 “What need have I of frankincense from Shebā, and sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, and your slaughterings have not been sweet to Me.”

21 Therefore thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “See, I am laying stumbling-blocks before this people. And the fathers and the sons together shall stumble on them, the neighbour and his friend shall perish.”

22 Thus said יְהוָה, “See, a people shall come from the land of the north, and a great nation is stirred up from the farthest parts of the earth,

23 they seize bow and spear, they are cruel and have no compassion, their voice roars like the sea. And they ride on horses, put in array as a man for battle against you, O daughter of Tsiyon.”

24 We have heard the report of it, our hands grow weak. Distress has taken hold of us, pain as of a woman in labour.

25 Do not go out into the field, nor walk by the way. Because of the sword of the enemy, fear is on every side.

26 O daughter of my people, gird on sackcloth, and roll about in ashes! Make mourning as for an only son, most bitter lamentation because suddenly the ravager shall come upon us.

27 “I have made you a trier and a stronghold among My people, so that you know, and shall try their way.

28 “All of them are rebels of rebels, walking as slanderers. They are bronze and iron, all of them are corrupters.

29 “The bellows have burned, the lead has been consumed by fire. The refiner has refined in vain, for those who are evil have not been separated.

30 “They shall call them rejected silver, because יְהוָה has rejected them.”

7 The word that came to Yirmeyahu from יְהוָה, saying,

2 “Stand in the gate of the House of יְהוָה, and you shall proclaim there this word, and shall say, ‘Hear the word of יְהוָה, all you of Yahudah who enter in at these gates to bow before יְהוָה!’ ”

3 Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'ël, “Make your ways and your deeds good, then I let you dwell in this place.

4 “Do not trust in these false words, saying, ‘This is the Hëykal of אֱלֹהִים, the Hëykal of אֱלֹהִים, the Hëykal of אֱלֹהִים!’

5 “For if you truly make your ways and your deeds good, if you truly do right-ruling between a man and his neighbour,

6 if you do not oppress the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and do not shed innocent blood in this place, or walk after other mighty ones to your own evil,

7 then I shall let you dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers forever and ever.

8 “See, you are trusting in false words, which do not profit -

9 stealing, murdering, and committing adultery, and swearing falsely, and burning incense to Ba'al, and walking after other mighty ones you have not known.

10 “And you came and stood before Me in this house which is called by My Name, and said, ‘We have been delivered’ - in order to do all these abominations!

11 “Has this house, which is called by My Name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Look, I, even
 I Myself have seen it,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

12 “But go now to My place at Shiloh, where I put My Name at the first, and see what I did to it because of the evil of My people Yisra'ël.

13 “And now, because you have done all these works,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you did not hear, and I called you, but you did not answer,

14 “I shall also do to this house, which is called by My Name, in which you trust, and to this place which I gave to you and your fathers, as I did to Shiloh.

15 “And I shall cast you out of My presence, as I have cast out all your brothers, all the seed of Ephrayim.

16 “And you, do not pray for this people, nor lift up a cry or prayer for them, nor make intercession to Me, for I do not hear you.

17 “Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Yahudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim?

18 “The children are gathering wood, the fathers are lighting the fire, and the women are kneading their dough, to make cakes for the sovereignty of the heavens, and to pour out drink offerings to other mighty ones, to provoke Me.

19 “Is it Me they are provoking?” declares אֱלֹהִים. “Is it not themselves - unto the shame of their own faces?”

20 Therefore, thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “See, My displeasure and My wrath is poured out on this place, on man and on beast, and on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground. And it shall burn and not be quenched.”

21 Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’ël, “Add your burnt offerings to your slaughterings and eat meat.

22 “For I did not speak to your fathers, or command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim, about matters of burnt offerings or slaughterings.

23 “But this Word I commanded them, saying, ‘Obey My voice, and I shall be your Elohim, and you be My people. And walk in all the Ways that I have commanded you, so that it be well with you.’

24 “But they did not obey or incline their ear, but walked in the counsels, in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward and not forward.

25 “From the day that your fathers came out of the land of Mitsrayim until this day, I have even sent to you all My servants the nebi'im, daily rising up early and sending them.

26 “But they did not obey Me or incline their ear, but stiffened their neck. They did evil, more than their fathers.

27 “And you shall speak all these words to them, though they do not listen to you. And you shall also call to them, though they do not answer you.

28 “But you shall say to them, ‘This is a nation that did not obey the voice of אלהים their Elohim, nor did they accept instruction. Truth has perished and has been cut off from their mouth.

29 ‘Cut off your hair and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights, for אלהים has rejected and forsaken the generation of His wrath.’

30 “For the children of Yahudah have done what is evil in My eyes,” declares אלהים. “They have put their abominations in the House which is called by My Name, to defile it.

31 “And they have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of Bēn Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire, which I did not command, nor did it come into My heart.

32 “Therefore see, the days are coming,” declares אלהים, “when it shall no longer be called Topheth, or the Valley of Bēn Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they shall bury in Topheth until no room is left.

33 “And the corpses of this people shall be food for the birds of the shamayim and for the beasts of the earth, with none to frighten them away.

34 “And in the cities of Yahudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim I shall make to cease the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. For the land shall become a waste!

8 “At that time,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “they shall bring the bones of the sovereigns of Yahuḏah, and the bones of its heads, and the bones of the kohenim, and the bones of the nebi'im, and the bones of the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, out of their graves,

2 and shall spread them before the sun and the moon and all the host of the heavens, which they have loved and which they have served and after which they have walked, which they have sought, and to which they have bowed themselves. They shall not be gathered nor buried, they shall be for dung on the face of the earth.

3 “And death shall be preferred to life by all the rest of those who remain of this evil people, who remain in all the places where I have driven them,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$  of hosts.

4 “And you shall say to them, ‘Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$ , “Would they fall, and not rise? Does one turn away and not return?’

5 “Why then has this people, Yerushalayim, turned away in a continual backsliding? They seize upon deceit, they refuse to turn back.

6 “I have listened and heard - they do not speak right. No man has repented of his evil, saying, ‘What have I done?’ They all turned to their own course, like a horse rushing into battle.

7 “Even a stork in the shamayim knows her appointed times. And a turtledove, and a swallow, and a thrush guard the time of their coming. But My people do not know the Right-Ruling of  $\text{יהוה}$ .

8 “How do you say, ‘We are wise, and the Torah of  $\text{יהוה}$  is with us’? But look, the false pen of the scribe has worked falsehood.

9 “The wise shall be put to shame, they shall be broken down and caught. See, they have rejected the Word of אֱלֹהִים, so what wisdom do they have?

10 “Therefore I give their wives to others, and their fields to possessing ones. For from the least even to the greatest, they are all greedy for gain. From the nabi to the kohēn, all act falsely.

11 “And they heal the breach of the daughter of My people slightly, saying, ‘Peace, peace!’ when there is no peace.

12 “Were they ashamed when they had done abomination? No! They were not at all ashamed, nor did they know how to blush. So they shall fall among those who fall. They shall stumble in the time of their visitation,” said אֱלֹהִים.

13 “I shall snatch them away,” declares אֱלֹהִים. “There are no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf has faded. And what I gave them shall pass away from them.” ’ ’ ”

14 Why are we sitting still? Gather yourselves, and let us go into the walled cities, and let us be silent there. For אֱלֹהִים our Elohim has let us perish and given us poisoned water to drink, because we have sinned against אֱלֹהִים.

15 We looked for peace, but there was no good; for a time of healing, but see - fear!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan. All the land shook at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones. They came and devoured the land and all that fills it, the city and those who dwell in it.

17 “For look, I am sending among you serpents, adders, which have no enchanter, and they shall bite you,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

18 When in grief I would seek comfort; my heart is sick within me.

19 Observe! The voice, the cry of the daughter of my people from a distant land, “Is אִי־אֵלֹהִים not in Tsiyon? Is her Sovereign not in her?” “Why have they provoked Me with their carved images, and with foreign worthlessnesses?”

20 “The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we have not been saved!”

21 For the breach of the daughter of my people I have been broken. I have grown sad; astonishment has seized me.

22 Is there no balm in Gil’ad, is there no healer there? Why has the healing of the daughter of my people not come?

9 Oh, that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, and I would weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

2 Oh, that I had in the wilderness lodging place for wayfaring men, and I would leave my people, and go from them! For they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

3 “And they bend their tongue like a bow. Falsehood, and not truth, prevails on the earth. For they proceed from evil to evil, and they have not known Me,” declares אִי־אֵלֹהִים.

4 “Let everyone beware of his neighbour and not trust any brother. For every brother catches by the heel, and every neighbour walks with slanderers.

5 “And everyone deceives his neighbour, and no one speaks the truth. They have taught their tongue to speak falsehood, and have wearied themselves to do wickedly.

6 “You live in the midst of deceit; through deceit they have refused to know Me,” declares אִי־אֵלֹהִים.

7 Therefore thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת}$  of hosts, “See, I shall refine them, and shall try them, for what shall I do because of the daughter of My people?”

8 “Their tongue is a slaying arrow. It speaks deceit - speaks peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in his heart he makes his ambush.

9 “Would I not punish them for this?” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת}$ . “Would I not revenge Myself on such a nation as this?”

10 “I shall take up a weeping and wailing for the mountains, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they have been burned up, without any passing over, nor has the voice of cattle been heard. Both the birds of the shamayim and the beasts have fled, they have gone.

11 “And I shall make Yerushalayim a heap of ruins, a habitation for jackals; and the cities of Yahudah I shall make a waste, without an inhabitant.”

12 Who is the wise man, that he understands this? And to whom has the mouth of  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת}$  spoken, that he declares it? Why has the land perished, has it been burned up like a wilderness, with none passing through?

13 And  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת}$  says, “Because they have forsaken My Torah which I put before them, and have not obeyed My voice, nor walked according to it,

14 but they have walked according to the stubbornness of their own heart and after the Ba’als, which their fathers had taught them.”

15 Therefore thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי צְבָאוֹת}$  of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “See, I am making this people eat wormwood, and I shall make them drink poisoned water.

16 “And I shall scatter them among the gentiles, whom neither they nor their fathers have known. And I shall send a sword after them until I have consumed them.”

17 Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$  of hosts, “Discern! And call for the mourning women, that they come. And send for the wise women, that they come.

18 “And let them hasten and take up a wailing for us, and let our eyes run with tears and our eyelids gush with water.

19 “For a voice of wailing is heard from Tsiyon, ‘How we are ravaged! We are greatly ashamed, because we have forsaken the land, because we have been thrown out of our dwellings.’ ”

20 But hear the word of  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$ , O women, and let your ear receive the word of His mouth. And teach your daughters wailing, and each one her neighbour a lamentation.

21 For death has come through our windows, has entered our palaces, cutting off the children from the streets, and the young men from the squares.

22 Speak, “Thus declares  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$ , ‘The corpses of men shall fall as dung on the face of the field, like cuttings after the reaper, with none to gather them.’ ”

23 Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$ , “Let not the wise boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty boast in his might, nor let the rich boast in his riches, 24 but let him who boasts boast of this, that he understands and knows Me, that I am  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$ , doing kindness, right-ruling, and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$ .

25 “See, the days are coming,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהֵי}$ , “when I shall punish all circumcised with the uncircumcised

26 “Mitsrayim, and Yahudah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Mo’ab, and all those trimmed on the edges, who dwell in the wilderness. For all the gentiles are uncircumcised, and all the house of Yisra'ël are uncircumcised in heart!"

10 Hear the word which אֱלֹהִים speaks to you, O house of Yisra'ël.

2 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, "Do not learn the way of the gentiles, and do not be frightened by the signs of the shamayim, for the gentiles are frightened by them.

3 "For the prescribed customs of these peoples are worthless, for one cuts a tree from the forest, work for the hands of a craftsman with a cutting tool.

4 "They adorn it with silver and gold, they fasten it with nails and hammers so that it does not topple.

5 "They are like a rounded post, and they do not speak. They have to be carried, because they do not walk. Do not be afraid of them, for they do no evil, nor is it in them to do any good."

6 There is none like You, O אֱלֹהִים. You are great, and great is Your Name in might.

7 Who would not revere You, O Sovereign of the nations? For this is Your due, for among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their reigns, there is none like You.

8 They are both brutish and foolish, an instruction of worthlessness is the tree.

9 Silver is beaten into plates; it is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the craftsman and of the hands of the smith; draped in blue and purple; all of them are the work of skilled ones.

10 But אֱלֹהִים is truly Elohim. He is the living Elohim and the everlasting Sovereign. At His wrath the earth shakes, and nations are unable to stand His displeasure.

11 Say to them this, "The elah that did not make the shamayim and the earth shall perish from the earth and from under these shamayim."

12 He has made the earth by His power, He has established the world by His wisdom, and has stretched out the shamayim by His understanding.

13 When He makes His voice heard, there is a roaring of waters in the shamayim. And He makes vapours rise from the ends of the earth. The lightnings for rain He has made, and brings wind from His treasuries.

14 Everyone is brutish in knowledge; every smith is put to shame by his idol. For his moulded image is falsehood, and there is no spirit in them.

15 They are worthless, a work of mockery. In the time of their punishment they perish.

16 The Portion of Ya'aqob is not like these, for He is the Maker of all, and Yisra'el is the tribe of His inheritance - אֱלֹהֵינוּ of hosts is His Name.

17 Gather up your bundle from the ground, you who live under siege!

18 For thus said אֱלֹהֵינוּ, "See, at this time I am hurling out the inhabitants of the land, and shall distress them, so that they feel it."

19 Woe to me for my breaking! My wound is grievous, but I say, "This is my sickness, and I bear it.

20 "My tent has been ravaged, and all my cords have been broken. My children have gone from me, and they are no more. There is no one to pitch my tent any more, or to put up my curtains.

21 For the shepherds have become brutish, and they have not sought אֱלֹהֵינוּ. Therefore they did not understand, and all their flock scattered."

22 See, it has come, the voice of a report, and a great shaking out of the land of the north, to make the cities of Yahudah a waste, a habitation of jackals.

23 O אֱלֹהִים, I know the way of man is not in himself, it is not for man who walks to direct his own steps.

24 O אֱלֹהִים, chastise me, but with right-ruling - not in Your displeasure, lest You bring me to naught.

25 Pour out Your wrath on the gentiles who do not know You, and on the tribes who do not call on Your Name. For they have eaten up Ya'aqob, devoured him and consumed him, and laid waste his home.

11 The word that came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים, saying,

2 "Hear the words of this Covenant, and speak to the men of Yahudah and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

3 "And you shall say to them, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el, "Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this Covenant,

4 which I commanded your fathers in the day when I brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim, from the iron furnace, saying, 'Obey My voice, and you shall do according to all that I command you, and you shall be My people, and I be your Elohim,'

5 in order to establish the oath which I have sworn to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day." ' " And I answered and said, "Amēn, אֱלֹהִים."

6 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Yahudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim, saying, 'Hear the words of this Covenant and do them.

7 'For I earnestly warned your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Mitsrayim, until this day, rising early and warning, saying, "Obey My voice."

8 'But they did not obey or incline their ear, but everyone walked in the stubbornness of his evil heart. So I brought on them all the words of this Covenant, which I commanded them to do, and they did not do.'

9 And אִיִּי said to me, "There is a conspiracy among the men of Yahudāh and among the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

10 "They have turned back to the wickednesses of their forefathers who refused to hear My Words, and they have gone after other mighty ones to serve them. The house of Yisra'ël and the house of Yahudāh have broken My Covenant I made with their fathers."

11 Therefore thus said אִיִּי, "See, I am bringing evil on them which they are unable to escape. Then they shall cry out to Me, but I shall not listen to them.

12 "And the cities of Yahudāh and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim shall go and cry out to the mighty ones to whom they burn incense, but they shall bring no deliverance to them at all in the time of their evil.

13 "For your mighty ones have become as many as your cities, O Yahudāh. And you have put up as many altars to shame as there are streets in Yerushalayim - altars to burn incense to Ba'al.

14 "And you, do not pray for this people, or lift up a cry or prayer for them, for I do not hear them in the time that they cry out to Me because of their evil.

15 "Why should My beloved be in My house - she has done wickedness with many. And does the qodesh flesh remove your evil from you? Then you rejoice?

16 "אִיִּי has named you, 'Green Olive Tree, Lovely, of Pleasant Fruit.' With the noise of a great sound He has lit it on fire, and its branches shall be broken.

17 "And אִיִּי of hosts, who planted you, has spoken evil against you for the evil of the house of Yisra'ël and of the house of Yahudāh, which they have done against themselves to provoke Me, by burning incense to Ba'al."

18 And אֱלֹהִים made it known to me, and I know it. Then You showed me their deeds.

19 But I was like a gentle lamb brought to the slaughter. And I did not know that they had plotted against me, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, and let his name be remembered no more."

20 But, O אֱלֹהִים of hosts, who judges righteously, who tries kidneys and heart, let me see Your vengeance upon them, for unto You I have revealed my cause.

21 "Therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים concerning the men of Anathoth who are seeking your life, saying, 'Do not naba in the Name of אֱלֹהִים, lest you die by our hand'

22 therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, 'See, I am punishing them, the young men shall die by the sword, their sons and their daughters shall die by scarcity of food.

23 'And there shall be no remnant of them, for I bring evil on the men of Anathoth - the year of their punishment.' "

12 Righteous are You, O אֱלֹהִים, when I plead with You. Indeed, let me speak with You about right-rulings. Why has the way of the wicked prospered? All the workers of treachery are at ease?

2 You have planted them and they have taken root, they grow and they bear fruit. You are near in their mouth but far from their kidneys.

3 But You have known me, O אֱלֹהִים. You see me, and You have tried my heart toward You. Draw them away like sheep for slaughter, and qadosh them for the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall the land mourn, and the plants of every field wither? The beasts and birds are consumed, for the evil of those who dwell there, because they said, "He does not see our latter ending."

5 "If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how do you contend with horses? And if in the land of peace, you feel safe, then how do you manage in the pride of the Yardeñ?

6 "For even your brothers, the house of your father, even they have betrayed you, even they have cried aloud after you. Do not believe them, even though they speak smooth words to you.

7 "I have forsaken My house, I have left My inheritance, I have given the beloved of My being into the hand of her enemies.

8 "My inheritance has become to Me like a lion in the forest. It cries out against Me, therefore I have hated it.

9 "My inheritance is to Me like a speckled bird of prey, the birds of prey all around are against her. Go, gather all the beasts of the field, bring them to devour!

10 "Many shepherds have destroyed My vineyard, they have trodden My portion under foot, they have made My pleasant portion become a deserted wilderness.

11 "They have laid it waste - a waste, it mourns to Me. All the land is laid waste, because no one takes it to heart.

12 "The ravagers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness, for the sword of אֶפְרַיִם is devouring from one end of the land to the other end of the land. There is no peace to any flesh.

13 "They have sown wheat but reaped thorns, they have exhausted themselves - they do not profit. And they shall be ashamed of your harvest because of the burning displeasure of אֱלֹהִים.”

14 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “As for all My evil neighbours who touch the inheritance which I have caused My people Yisra’el to inherit; see, I am plucking them out of their land, and I shall pluck out the house of Yahudah from their midst.

15 “And it shall be, after My plucking them out, I shall return, and have compassion on them and bring them back, everyone to his inheritance and everyone to his land.

16 “And it shall be, if they learn well the Ways of My people, to swear by My Name, ‘As אֱלֹהִים lives,’ as they taught My people to swear by Ba’al, then they shall be established in the midst of My people.

17 “But if they do not obey, I shall pluck up, pluck up and destroy that nation,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

13 Thus אֱלֹהִים said to me, “Go and get yourself a linen girdle, and put it on your loins, but do not put it in water.”

2 So I bought a girdle according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, and put it on my loins.

3 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me the second time, saying,

4 “Take the girdle that you have bought, which is on your loins, and arise, go to Perath, and hide it there in a hole in the rock.”

5 And I went and hid it by Perath, as אֱלֹהִים commanded me.

6 And it came to be after many days that אֱלֹהִים said to me, “Arise, go to Perath, and take from there the girdle which I commanded you to hide there.”

7 So I went to Perath and dug, and I took the girdle from the place where I had hidden it. And there was the girdle, ruined. It was completely useless.

8 And the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

9 “Thus said יהוה, ‘Thus I ruin the pride of Yahudah and the great pride of Yerushalayim.

10 ‘This evil people, who refuse to hear My Words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and walk after other mighty ones to serve them and to bow themselves to them, is like this girdle which is completely useless.

11 ‘For as the girdle clings to the loins of a man, so I have caused all the house of Yisra’el and all the house of Yahudah to cling to Me,’ declares יהוה, ‘to become Mine - for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for an adorning. But they did not listen.’

12 “And you shall speak to them this word, ‘Thus said יהוה Elohim of Yisra’el, “Every pitcher is to be filled with wine.” ’ And when they say to you, ‘Do we not know that every pitcher should be filled with wine?’

13 “Then say to them, ‘Thus said יהוה, “See, I am filling all the inhabitants of this land, and the sovereigns who sit on the throne of Dawid, and the kohenim, and the nebi'im, and all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim with drunkenness!

14 “And I shall dash them one against another, both the fathers and the sons together,” declares יהוה. “I do not spare nor pardon nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.” ’ ”

15 Listen and give ear, do not be proud, for יהוה has spoken.

16 Give esteem to יהוה your Elohim before He brings darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and while you are looking for light, He turns it into the shadow of death, makes it dense darkness.

17 And if you do not listen, my being shall weep in secret for your pride, and my eyes bitterly weep and run down with tears, because the flock of אִיִּזְרָאֵל shall be taken captive.

18 Say to the sovereign and to the sovereigness mother, "Humble yourselves. Sit down, for your rule, the crown of your comeliness, has come down."

19 The cities of the South shall be shut up, with no one to open them. Yahuḁah shall be taken into exile, all of it. She shall be taken into exile, completely.

20 Lift up your eyes and see those who come from the north. Where is the flock that was given to you, your lovely sheep?

21 What would you say when He visits you? For you have taught them to be chiefs, to be head over you. Do not pangs seize you, like a woman in labour?

22 And when you say in your heart, "Why has this come upon me?" It is because of your great wickedness that your skirts have been uncovered, your heels made bare.

23 Does a Kushite change his skin and a leopard its spots? You who are taught to do evil are also unable to do good!

24 "So I shall scatter them like stubble that passes away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 "This is your lot, your measured portion from Me," declares אִיִּזְרָאֵל, "because you have forgotten Me, and trust in falsehood.

26 "I shall even draw your skirts over your face, and your shame shall be seen,

27 your adulteries and your neighings, the wickedness of your whoring! I have seen your abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe to you, O Yerushalayim! How long before you would be made clean?"

14 The word of אִיִּי that came to Yirmeyahu concerning the matter of droughts.

2 “Yahudāh has mourned, and her gates have languished. They have mourned on the ground, and the cry of Yerushalayim has gone up.

3 “And their nobles have sent their little ones for water, they went to the cisterns and found no water, they returned with their vessels empty. They were put to shame, and blushed and covered their heads.

4 “Because the ground became cracked, for there has been no rain in the land. The ploughmen were put to shame, they covered their heads.

5 “Even the deer gave birth in the field, but left because there was no grass.

6 “And wild donkeys stood in the bare heights, they sniffed at the wind like jackals. Their eyes have failed because there was no grass.”

7 O אִיִּי, though our wickednesses witness against us, act, for Your Name’s sake. For our backslidings have been many, we have sinned against You.

8 O Expectation of Yisra’ēl, its Saviour in time of distress, why should You be like a stranger in the land, or like a traveller who turns aside to lodge?

9 Why should You be as one who is stunned, as a mighty man that is unable to save? Yet You, O אִיִּי, are in our midst, and Your Name has been called on us. Do not leave us!

10 Thus said אִיִּי to this people, “So they have loved to wander, they have not restrained their feet. Therefore אִיִּי has not accepted them. Now He remembers their wickedness and punishes their sins.”

11 And אִיִּי said to me, “Do not pray for this people for their good.

12 “When they fast, I do not hear their cry. And when they offer burnt offering and grain offering, I do not accept them. Instead, I am consuming them by sword, and by scarcity of food, and by pestilence.”

13 But I said, “Ah, Adonai אֱלֹהִים! See, the nebi'im say to them, ‘You are not to see a sword, nor have scarcity of food, for I give you true peace in this place.’”

14 Then אֱלֹהִים said to me, “The nebi'im naba falsehood in My Name. I have not sent them, nor commanded them, nor spoken to them. They naba to you a false vision, worthless divination, and the deceit of their own heart.

15 “Therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים concerning the nebi'im who naba in My Name, whom I did not send, and who say, ‘Sword and scarcity of food shall not be in this land.’ ‘By sword and scarcity of food those nebi'im shall be consumed!

16 ‘And the people to whom they naba shall be thrown out in the streets of Yerushalayim because of the scarcity of food and the sword, with no one to bury them - them nor their wives, their sons nor their daughters. For I shall pour their evil on them.’

17 “And you shall say this word to them, ‘Let my eyes flow with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the maiden daughter of my people has been crushed with a mighty blow, with a very severe wound.

18 ‘If I go out to the field, then see those slain with the sword! And if I enter the city, then see those sick from scarcity of food! For both nabi and kohēn go about in a land they do not know.’”

19 Have You completely rejected Yahuḏah? Has Your being loathed Tsiyon? Why have You smitten us so that there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but there was no good; and for the time of healing, but see - fear!

20 O אֱלֹהִים, we know our wickedness and the wickedness of our fathers, for we have sinned against You.

21 Do not scorn us, for Your Name's sake. Do not despise the throne of Your esteem. Remember, do not break Your Covenant with us.

22 Are there among the worthless idols of the nations any causing rain? And do the shamayim give showers? Are You not He, O אֱלֹהִים our Elohim? And we wait for You, for You are the One who does all this.

15 And אֱלֹהִים said to me, "Even Mosheh and Shemu'el were to stand before Me, My being is not toward this people. Send them away from My presence, let them go.

2 "And it shall be, when they say to you, 'Where do we go?' then you shall say to them, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים, "Those for death, to death. And those for the sword, to the sword. And those for scarcity of food, to scarcity of food. And those for captivity, to captivity." '

3 "And I shall appoint over them four kinds," declares אֱלֹהִים, "the sword to slay, the dogs to drag, the birds of the shamayim and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.

4 "And I shall make them for a horror to all the reigns of the earth, on account of Menashsheh son of Hizqiyahu, sovereign of Yahudah, because of what he did in Yerushalayim.

5 "For who has compassion on you, O Yerushalayim? And who mourns for you? And who turns aside to ask how you are doing?

6 "You who have forsaken Me," declares אֱלֹהִים, "you have gone backward. Therefore I shall stretch out My hand against you and destroy you. I have been weary of relenting!

7 “And I shall winnow them with a winnowing fan in the gates of the land. I shall bereave, I shall destroy My people. They would not turn back from their ways.

8 “Their widows shall be more numerous than the sand of the seas. I shall bring against them, against the mother of the young men, a ravager at noon. I shall cause terror and sudden alarm to fall on her, suddenly.

9 “She who has borne seven shall pine away. She shall breathe her last. Her sun shall go down while it is yet day. She shall be put to shame and be humiliated. And their remnant I give up to the sword before their enemies,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

10 Woe to me, my mother, that you have borne me, a man of strife and a man of contention to all the earth! I have neither lent for interest, nor have men lent to me for interest. All of them are reviling me.

11  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  said, “Did I not direct you for good? Did I not intercede for you in a time of evil and in a time of distress against the enemy?”

12 “Does one break iron, iron or bronze from the north?”

13 “Your wealth and your treasures I give as plunder, not for price, because of all your sins, even in all your borders.

14 “And I shall cause them to pass over with your enemies into a land which you did not know, for a fire is kindled in My displeasure, which burns upon you.”

15 You Yourself know, O  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ . Remember me and visit me, and take vengeance for me on these who persecute me. In Your patience, do not take me away. Know that for You I have suffered reproach.

16 Your Words were found, and I fed on them, and Your Word was to me the joy and rejoicing of my heart. For Your Name is called on me, O יהוה Elohim of hosts.

17 I have not sat in the company of the mockers, nor do I exult. I have sat alone because of Your hand, for You have filled me with displeasure.

18 Why is my pain without end and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Are You to me like a failing stream, as waters not steadfast?

19 Therefore thus said יהוה, “If you turn back, then I shall bring you back. Before Me you shall stand. And if you take out the precious from the worthless, you shall become as My mouth. Let them return to you, but do not return to them.

20 “And I shall make you to this people a strong bronze wall. And they shall fight against you, but not overcome you. For I am with you to save you and deliver you,” declares יהוה.

21 “And I shall deliver you from the hand of evil-doers, and I shall ransom you from the grip of the ruthless.”

16 And the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

2 “Do not take a wife, nor have sons or daughters in this place.”

3 For thus said יהוה concerning the sons and daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bear them and their fathers who bring them forth in this land,

4 “They shall die of deaths from diseases, they shall not be lamented nor be buried, but be like dung on the face of the earth, and be consumed by sword and by scarcity of food. And their corpses shall be meat for the birds of the shamayim and for the beasts of the earth.”

5 For thus said ירמיהו, “Do not enter the house of mourning, neither go to lament or mourn for them, for I have withdrawn My peace from this people,” declares ירמיהו, “even the kindness and the compassions.

6 “Both great and small shall die in this land. They shall not be buried, and no one shall lament for them, or cut themselves, or make themselves bald for them.

7 “Neither shall they break bread in mourning for them to comfort them for the dead, nor give them the cup of comfort to drink for their father or their mother.

8 “Do not enter the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and drink.”

9 For thus said ירמיהו of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “See, before your eyes and in your days, I am making the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride to cease in this place.

10 “And it shall be, when you declare to this people all these words, and they shall say to you, ‘Why has ירמיהו pronounced all this great evil against us? And what is our wickedness, and what is our sin that we have committed against ירמיהו our Elohim?’

11 then you shall say to them, ‘Because your fathers have forsaken Me,’ declares ירמיהו, ‘and have walked after other mighty ones and served them and bowed themselves to them, and have forsaken Me, and did not guard My Torah.

12 ‘And you have done more evil than your fathers, for look, each one walks according to the stubbornness of his own evil heart, without listening to Me.

13 ‘So I shall throw you out of this land into a land that you do not know, neither you nor your fathers. And there you shall serve other mighty ones day and night, where I show you no favour.'

14 "Therefore see, the days are coming," declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , "when it is no longer said, ' $\text{יהוה}$  lives who brought up the children of Yisra'el from the land of Mitsrayim,'

15 but, ' $\text{יהוה}$  lives who brought up the children of Yisra'el from the land of the north and from all the lands where He had driven them.' For I shall bring them back into their land I gave to their fathers.

16 "See, I am sending for many fishermen," declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , "and they shall fish them. And after that I shall send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain and every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 "For My eyes are on all their ways; they have not been hidden from My face, nor has their wickedness been hidden from My eyes.

18 "And first I shall repay double for their wickedness and their sin, because they have defiled My land with the dead bodies of their filthiness, and have filled My inheritance with their abominations."

19 O  $\text{יהוה}$ , my strength and my stronghold and my refuge, in the day of distress the gentiles shall come to You from the ends of the earth and say, "Our fathers have inherited only falsehood, futility, and there is no value in them."

20 Would a man make mighty ones for himself, which are not mighty ones?

21 "Therefore see, I am causing them to know, this time I cause them to know My hand and My might. And they shall know that My Name is  $\text{יהוה}$ !"

17 "The sin of Yahudah is written with a pen of iron, engraved with the point of a diamond on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars,

2 while their children remember their altars and their Ashērim by the spreading trees on the high hills.

3 “My mountain in the field, I give as plunder, your wealth, all your treasures, your high places of sin, throughout all your borders.

4 “And you, even of yourself, shall let go of your inheritance which I gave you. And I shall make you serve your enemies in a land which you have not known, for you have kindled a fire in My displeasure which burns forever.”

5 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart turns away from אֱלֹהִים.

6 “For he shall be like a shrub in the desert, and not see when good comes, and shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land that is not inhabited.

7 “Baruk is the man who trusts in אֱלֹהִים, and whose trust is אֱלֹהִים.

8 “For he shall be like a tree planted by the waters, which spreads out its roots by the river, and does not see when heat comes. And his leaf shall be green, and in the year of drought he is not anxious, nor does he cease from yielding fruit.

9 “The heart is crooked above all, and desperately sick - who shall know it?

10 “I, אֱלֹהִים, search the heart, I try the kidneys, and give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his deeds.

11 “As a partridge that broods but does not hatch, so is he who gets riches, but not by right. It leaves him in the midst of his days, and at his end he is a fool.”

12 An esteemed throne, exalted from the beginning, is the place of our Miqdash.

13 O אִיִּי, the expectation of Yisra'el, all who forsake You are put to shame. "Those who depart from Me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken אִיִּי, the Fountain of living waters."

14 Heal me, O אִיִּי, so that I am healed. Save me, so that I am saved, for You are my praise.

15 See, they say to me, "Where is the word of אִיִּי? Let it come now!"

16 And I have not run away from being a shepherd who follows You, nor have I longed for the woeful day. You Yourself have known, that which came out of my lips was before You.

17 Do not be a ruin to me, You are my shelter in the day of evil.

18 Let these who persecute me be put to shame, but do not let me be put to shame. Let them be broken, but do not let me be broken. Bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction!

19 Thus אִיִּי said to me, "Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, by which the sovereigns of Yahudah come in and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Yerushalayim.

20 "And you shall say to them, 'Hear the word of אִיִּי, you sovereigns of Yahudah, and all Yahudah, and all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, who enter by these gates.

21 'Thus said אִיִּי, "Guard yourselves, and bear no burden on the Shabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Yerushalayim, 22 nor take a burden out of your houses on the Shabbath day, nor do any work. And you shall qadosh the Shabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 "But they did not obey, or incline their ear, and they made their neck stiff not to hear and not to receive instruction.

24 “And it shall be, if you diligently obey Me,” declares אֲדֹנָי, “to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Shabbath day, and qadosh the Shabbath day, to do no work in it,

25 then sovereigns and heads sitting on the throne of Dawid shall enter in through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses, they and their heads - the men of Yahudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim. And this city shall be inhabited forever.

26 “And they shall come from the cities of Yahudah and from the places around Yerushalayim, and from the land of Binyamin and from the low country, from the mountains and from the Negeb, bringing burnt offerings and slaughterings, grain offerings and incense, bringing offerings of praise to the House of אֲדֹנָי.

27 “But if you do not obey Me to qadosh the Shabbath day, and not to bear a burden when entering the gates of Yerushalayim on the Shabbath day, then I shall kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall consume the palaces of Yerushalayim, and not be quenched.” ’ ’ ”

18 The word which came to Yirmeyahu from אֲדֹנָי, saying,

2 “Arise, and go down to the potter’s house, and there I let you hear My words.”

3 So I went down to the potter’s house, and saw him doing a piece of work on the wheel.

4 And the vessel that he made of clay was ruined in the hand of the potter, so he remade it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to do.

5 Then the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

6 “O house of Yisra’el, am I not able to do with you as this potter?” declares אֲדֹנָי. “Look, as the clay is in the hand of the potter, so are you in My hand, O house of Yisra'ël!

7 “The moment I speak concerning a nation and concerning a reign, to pluck up, to pull down, and to destroy it,

8 and that nation shall turn from its evil because I have spoken against it, then I shall repent of the evil that I thought to do to it.

9 “And the moment I speak concerning a nation and concerning a reign, to build and to plant it,

10 and it shall do evil in My eyes in not obeying My voice, then I shall repent concerning the good with which I spoke of doing to it.

11 “And now, speak to the men of Yahudāh and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, saying, ‘Thus said יְרֵמְיָהּ, “See, I am forming evil and devising a plan against you. Return now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your deeds good.” ’ ’ ”

12 But they shall say, “It is no use! For we walk according to our own plans, and we do each one the stubbornness of his evil heart.”

13 Therefore thus said יְרֵמְיָהּ, “Ask now among the nations, who has heard the like of this? The maiden of Yisra'ël has done what is most horrible.

14 “Does the snow of Lebanon cease from the rock of the field? Or the cool flowing waters from afar dry up?

15 “But My people have forgotten Me, they have burned incense to what is false, and they have stumbled from their ways, from the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths and not on a highway, 16 to make their land become a ruin, a hissing forever - everyone who passes by it is appalled and shakes his head.

17 “I shall scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I shall show them the back and not the face in the day of their calamity.”

18 Then they said, “Come and let us devise plans against Yirmeyahu, for the Torah shall not perish from the kohēn, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the nabī. Come and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not listen to any of his words.”

19 Attend to me, O אֱלֹהִים, and listen to the voice of my adversaries!

20 Should good be repaid with evil? For they have dug a pit for my life. Remember that I stood before You to speak good for them, and to turn away Your wrath from them.

21 So give their children over to scarcity of food, and hand them over to the power of the sword. Let their wives become widows and bereaved of their children. Let their men be put to death, their young men be smitten by the sword in battle.

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when You bring a raiding party suddenly upon them. For they have dug a pit to take me, and laid snares for my feet.

23 But You, O אֱלֹהִים, You know all their counsel against me, to slay me. Do not pardon their wickedness, nor blot out their sin from Your presence, and let them be overthrown before You. Deal with them in the time of Your displeasure.

19 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Go and get a potter’s earthen jug, and take some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the kohenim.

2 “Then you shall go out to the Valley of Bēn Hinnom, which is by the entry of the Potsherd Gate, and shall proclaim there the words that I speak to you,

3 and shall say, 'Hear the word of יהוה, sovereigns of Yahudāh and inhabitants of Yerushalayim. Thus said יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, "See, I am bringing evil on this place, that makes the ears tingle of all who hear it.

4 "Because they have forsaken Me and have profaned this place, and have burned incense in it to other mighty ones whom neither they, their fathers, nor the sovereigns of Yahudāh have known, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocents,
5 and have built the high places of Ba'al, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings to Ba'al, which I did not command or speak, nor did it come into My heart.

6 "Therefore see, the days are coming," declares יהוה, "that this place shall no more be called Topheth or the Valley of Bēn Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

7 "And I shall pour out the counsel of Yahudāh and Yerushalayim in this place, and I shall make them fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who seek their lives. And I shall give their corpses as meat for the birds of the shamayim and for the beasts of the earth.

8 "And I shall make this city a ruin, and a hissing - everyone who passes by it is appalled and hisses because of all its plagues.

9 "And I shall make them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and eat one another's flesh in the siege and in the distress with which their enemies and those who seek their lives distress them." '

10 "And you shall break the jug before the eyes of the men who go with you,

11 and shall say to them, 'Thus said יהוה of hosts, "Even so I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, which one is unable to repair again. And let them bury them in Topheth till there is no place to bury.

12 "This is what I shall do to this place," declares יהוה, "and to its inhabitants, so as to make this city like Topheth.

13 "And the houses of Yerushalayim and the houses of the sovereigns of Yahudah shall be as unclean as the place of Topheth, because of all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of the shamayim, and poured out drink offerings to other mighty ones." ' "

14 And when Yirmeyahu returned from Topheth, where יהוה had sent him to naḇa, he stood in the courtyard of the House of יהוה and said to all the people,

15 "Thus said יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'ël, 'See, I am bringing on this city and on all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have stiffened their necks so as not to hear My Words.' "

20 And Pashḥur son of Immër, the kohën who was also chief governor in the House of יהוה, heard that Yirmeyahu naḇu these words.

2 And Pashḥur struck Yirmeyahu the naḇi, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Binyamin, which was by the House of יהוה.

3 And it came to be on the next day that Pashḥur brought Yirmeyahu out of the stocks, and Yirmeyahu said to him, "יהוה has not called your name Pashḥur, but Maḡor-Missabib.

4 "For thus said יהוה, 'See, I am making you a fear to yourself and to all your loved ones. And they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, while your eyes see it. And I shall give all Yahudāh into the hand of the sovereign of Babel, and he shall exile them to Babel and smite them with the sword.

5 'And I shall give all the wealth of this city and all its labour, and all its valuables, and all the treasures of the sovereigns of Yahudāh, I give into the hand of their enemies, who shall plunder them, seize them, and shall bring them to Babel.

6 'And you, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house, shall go into captivity, and enter into Babel. And there you shall die, and be buried there, you and all your friends, to whom you have nabu falsehood.' "

7 O אִיִּי, You deluded me, and I was deluded. You are stronger than I, and have prevailed. I have been ridiculed all day long, everyone mocks me.

8 For when I speak, I cry out, proclaiming violence and ruin. Because the word of אִיִּי was made to me a reproach and a mockery daily.

9 Whenever I said, "Let me not mention Him, nor speak in His Name again," it was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones. And I became weary of holding it back, and was helpless.

10 For I heard many mocking, "Fear on every side!" "Expose," they say, "let us expose him!" All my friends watched for my stumbling, "He might be lured away, so that we prevail against him, and take our revenge on him."

11 But אִיִּי is with me like a mighty, awesome One. Therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and not prevail. They shall be greatly ashamed, for they have not acted wisely - an everlasting reproach never to be forgotten.

12 But, O אִיִּי of hosts, trying the righteous, and seeing the kidneys and heart, let me see Your vengeance on them, for I have revealed my cause to You.

13 Sing to אֱלֹהִים! Hallelu-אֱלֹהִים! For He has delivered the being of the poor from the hand of evil ones.

14 Cursed be the day in which I was born! Let the day not be baruk in which my mother bore me!

15 Let the man be cursed who brought news to my father, saying, "A male child has been born to you," making him very glad.

16 And let that man be like the cities which אֱלֹהִים overthrew, and repented not. Let him hear the cry in the morning and the shouting at noon, 17 because I was not slain from the womb, so that my mother should have been my grave and her womb forever great.

18 Why did I come forth from the womb to see toil and sorrow, and spend my days in shame?

21 The word that came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים when Sovereign Tsidqiyahu sent to him Pashhur son of Malkiyah, and Tsephanyah the son of Ma'asëyah, the kohën, saying,

2 "Please inquire of אֱלֹהִים on our behalf, for Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel is fighting against us. It might be that אֱלֹהִים deals with us according to all His wondrous works, so that he withdraws from us."

3 But Yirmeyahu said to them, "Say this to Tsidqiyahu,

4 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'ël, "See, I am turning back the weapons of battle that are in your hands, with which you fight against the sovereign of Babel and the Kasdites who besiege you outside the wall. And I shall gather them inside this city.

5 "And I Myself shall fight against you with an outstretched hand, and with a strong arm, even in displeasure and rage and great wrath.

6 “And I shall smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast - let them die of a great pestilence.

7 “And afterward,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “I give Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudah, his servants and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence and the sword and the scarcity of food, into the hand of Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life. And he shall smite them with the edge of the sword. He shall not pardon them, nor spare nor have compassion.” ’

8 “You shall also say to this people, ‘Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$ , “See, I lay before you the way of life and the way of death.

9 “Whoever stays in this city dies by the sword, by scarcity of food, and by pestilence. But whoever goes out and shall go over to the Kasdites who besiege you, is going to live, and his life shall be as a prize to him.

10 “For I have turned My face against this city for evil and not for good,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ . “It is given into the hand of the sovereign of Babel, and he shall burn it with fire.” ’

11 “And to the house of the sovereign of Yahudah, ‘Hear the word of  $\text{יהוה}$ , 12 ‘O house of Dawid! Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$ , “Render right-ruling in the morning, and deliver him who has been robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest My wrath go out like fire and burn, with no one to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds.

13 “See, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, rock of the plain,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “who are saying, ‘Who would come down against us? And who would come into our dwellings?’

14 “And I shall punish you according to the fruit of your deeds,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ . “And I shall kindle a fire in its forest, and it shall consume all that is around her.” ’ ”

22 Thus said ירמיהו, “Go down to the house of the sovereign of Yahudah. And there you shall speak this word,

2 and shall say, ‘Hear the word of ירמיהו, O sovereign of Yahudah, you who sit on the throne of Dawid, you and your servants and your people who enter these gates!

3 ‘Thus said ירמיהו, “Do right-ruling and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor. Do not maltreat nor do violence to the stranger, the fatherless, or the widow, nor shed innocent blood in this place.

4 “For if you certainly do this word, then there shall enter in by the gates of this house sovereigns sitting on the throne of Dawid, riding on horses and in chariots, he and his servants and his people.

5 “But if you do not obey these words, I swear by Myself,” declares ירמיהו, “that this house shall become a ruin.” ’ ”

6 For thus said ירמיהו to the house of the sovereign of Yahudah, “You are as Gil’ad to Me, the head of Lebanon. But I shall make you a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 “And I shall prepare destroyers against you, each with his weapons. And they shall cut down your choice cedars and throw them into the fire.

8 “And many gentiles shall pass by this city, and they shall say to one another, ‘Why has ירמיהו done so to this great city?’

9 “Then they shall say, ‘Because they have forsaken the Covenant of ירמיהו their Elohim, and bowed themselves to other mighty ones and served them.’ ”

10 Do not weep for the dead, nor mourn for him. Weep bitterly for him who goes away, for he shall never come back nor see the land of his birth.

11 For thus said  $\text{אֲדָנָי}$  concerning Shallum son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahudāh, who reigned instead of Yoshiyahu his father, who went from this place, “He shall never come back, 12 but he shall die in the place where they have exiled him, and not see this land again.

13 “Woe to him who builds his house without righteousness and his rooms without Right-Ruling, who uses his neighbour’s service without wages and does not give him his wages,

14 who says, ‘I am going to build myself a wide house with spacious rooms, and cut out windows for it, panelling it with cedar and painting it in red.’

15 “Do you reign because you enclose yourself in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do right-ruling and righteousness? Then it was well with him.

16 “He defended the cause of the poor and needy - then it was well. Was this not to know Me?” declares  $\text{אֲדָנָי}$ .

17 “But your eyes and your heart are only upon your own greedy gain, and on shedding innocent blood, and on oppression and on doing violence.”

18 Therefore thus said  $\text{אֲדָנָי}$  concerning Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahudāh, “Let them not lament for him: ‘Alas, my brother!’ or ‘Alas, my sister!’ Let them not lament for him: ‘Alas, master!’ or ‘Alas, his excellency!’

19 “He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, dragged and thrown outside the gates of Yerushalayim.

20 “Go up to Lebānon, and cry out, and lift up your voice in Bashan. And cry from Aḅarim, for all your lovers are destroyed.

21 “I have spoken to you in your ease, but you said, ‘I do not listen.’ This has been your way from your youth, for you did not obey My voice.

22 “Let all your shepherds be devoured by the wind, and your lovers go into captivity. Then you shall be ashamed and humiliated for all your evil.

23 “You who dwell in Lebanon, being nested in the cedars, how you shall groan when pangs come upon you, like the pains of a woman giving birth!

24 “As I live,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “though Konyahu son of Yahoyaqim, sovereign of Yahudah, were the signet on My right hand, I would still pull you off from there;

25 and I shall give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of those whose face you fear, into the hand of Nebukadnetstsar sovereign of Babel and the hand of the Kasdites.

26 “And I shall hurl you out, and your mother who bore you, into another land where you were not born, and there you shall die.

27 “But they shall not return to the land to which their being yearns to return.

28 “Is this man Konyahu a despised broken pot, or an undesirable vessel? Why are they hurled out, he and his descendants, and cast into a land which they do not know?

29 “O land, land, land! Hear the word of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ !

30 “Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , ‘Write this man down as childless, a strong man who is not to prosper in his days, for none of his descendants shall prosper, sitting on the throne of Dawid, or rule any more in Yahudah.’ ”

23 “Woe to the shepherds destroying and scattering the sheep of My pasture!” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

2 Therefore thus said יהוה Elohim of Yisra'el against the shepherds who feed My people, "You have scattered My flock, driven them away, and have not tended them. See, I am punishing you for the evil of your deeds," declares יהוה.

3 "Therefore I shall gather the remnant of My flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and shall bring them back to their fold. And they shall bear and increase.

4 "And I shall raise up shepherds over them, and they shall feed them. And they shall fear no more, nor be discouraged, nor shall they be lacking," declares יהוה.

5 "See, the days are coming," declares יהוה, "when I shall raise for Dawid a Branch of righteousness, and a Sovereign shall reign and act wisely, and shall do right-ruling and righteousness in the earth.

6 "In His days Yahudah shall be saved, and Yisra'el dwell safely. And this is His Name whereby He shall be called: 'יהוה Tsidqenu.'

7 "Therefore, see, the days are coming," declares יהוה, "when they shall say no more, 'As יהוה lives who brought up the children of Yisra'el out of the land of Mitsrayim,'

8 but, 'As יהוה lives who brought up and led the seed of the house of Yisra'el out of the land of the north and from all the lands where I had driven them.' And they shall dwell on their own land."

9 My heart within me is broken because of the nebi'im; all my bones shake. I am like a drunken man, and like a man overcome by wine, because of יהוה, and because of His qodesh words.

10 For the land is filled with adulterers; for the land mourns because of a curse. The pastures of the wilderness are dried up. And their course is evil, and their might is not right.

11 “For both nabi and kohēn have become defiled. Even in My house I have found their evil,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

12 “Therefore their way is to them like slippery ways in the dark. They are driven on and they shall fall in them. For I bring evil on them, the year of their punishment,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

13 “And I have seen folly in the nebi'im of Shomeron: they naba by Ba'al and led My people Yisra'el astray.

14 “And among the nebi'im of Yerushalayim I have seen a horrible matter: committing adultery and walking in falsehood. And they strengthen the hands of evil ones, so that no one turns back from his evil. All of them are like Sedom to Me, and her inhabitants like Amarah.

15 “Therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts concerning the nebi'im, ‘See, I am making them eat wormwood, and shall make them drink poisoned water. For defilement has gone out into all the land from the nebi'im of Yerushalayim.’ ”

16 Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, “Do not listen to the words of the nebi'im who naba to you, they lead you astray. They speak a vision of their own heart, not from the mouth of אֱלֹהִים.

17 “They keep on saying to those who despise Me, ‘אֱלֹהִים has said you shall have peace.’ And to all who walk according to the stubbornness of their own heart, ‘No evil comes upon you.’ ”

18 For who has stood in the counsel of אֱלֹהִים, and has seen and heard His word? Who has listened to His word and obeyed it?

19 See, a storm of אֱלֹהִים shall go forth in a rage, a whirling storm! It whirls on the head of the wicked.

20 The displeasure of אֱלֹהִים shall not turn back until He has done and established the purposes of His heart. In the latter days you shall understand it perfectly.

21 "I did not send these nebi'im, yet they ran. I have not spoken to them, yet they nabu.

22 "But if they had stood in My counsel, then they would have let My people hear My Words, and they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their deeds.

23 "Am I an Elohim close by," declares אלהים, "and not an Elohim afar off?"

24 "If anyone is hidden in secret places, would I not see him?" declares אלהים. "Do I not fill the shamayim and earth?" declares אלהים.

25 "I have heard what the nebi'im have said who naba falsehood in My Name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed!'

26 "Till when shall it be in the heart of the nebi'im? - the nebi'im of falsehood and nebi'im of the deceit of their own heart,

27 who try to make My people forget My Name by their dreams which everyone relates to his neighbour, as their fathers forgot My Name for Ba'al.

28 "The nabi who has a dream, let him relate the dream, and he who has My Word, let him speak My Word in truth. What is the chaff to the wheat?" declares אלהים.

29 "Is not My Word like a fire?" declares אלהים, "and like a hammer that shatters a rock?"

30 "Therefore see, I am against the nebi'im," declares אלהים, "who steal My Words every one from his neighbour.

31 "See, I am against the nebi'im," declares אלהים, "who use their tongues and say, 'He declares אלהים.'

32 "See, I am against those who naba false dreams," declares אלהים, "and relate them, and lead My people astray by their falsehoods and by their reckless boasting. But I Myself did not send them nor have I commanded them. And they do not profit this people at all,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

33 “And when these people or the nabi or the kohēn ask you, saying, ‘What is the message of אֱלֹהִים?’ then you shall say to them, ‘What message?’ I shall forsake you,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

34 “As for the nabi and the kohēn and the people who say, ‘The message of אֱלֹהִים,’ I shall punish that man and his house.

35 “This is what each one says to his neighbour, and each one to his brother, ‘What has אֱלֹהִים answered?’ and, ‘What has אֱלֹהִים spoken?’

36 “But the message of אֱלֹהִים you no longer remember! For every man’s message is his own word, for you have changed the Words of the living Elohim, אֱלֹהִים of hosts, our Elohim!

37 “This is what you say to the nabi, ‘What has אֱלֹהִים answered you?’ and, ‘What has אֱלֹהִים spoken?’

38 “But since you say, ‘The message of אֱלֹהִים!’ therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘Because you say this word, “The message of אֱלֹהִים!” and I have sent to you, saying, “Do not say, ‘The message of אֱלֹהִים!’ ”

39 therefore see, I, I shall utterly forget you and cast you away from My presence, along with the city that I gave you and your fathers.

40 ‘And I shall put an everlasting reproach on you, and an everlasting shame that is not forgotten.’ ”

24 אֱלֹהִים showed me, and look, there were two baskets of figs put before the Hēykal of אֱלֹהִים, after Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel had exiled Yekonyahu son of Yahoyaqim, sovereign of Yahuḏah, and the heads of Yahuḏah with the craftsmen and smiths, from Yerushalayim, and had brought them to Babel.

2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first ripe. And the other basket had very spoilt figs which could not be eaten, they were so spoilt.”

3 And אִירָמְיָהוּ said to me, “What do you see, Yirmeyahu?” And I said, “Figs, the good figs, very good. And the spoilt, very spoilt, which could not be eaten, they are so spoilt.”

4 Again the word of אִירָמְיָהוּ came to me, saying,

5 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘Like these good figs, so do I acknowledge the exiles of Yahudah, whom I have sent out of this place for their own good, into the land of the Kasdites.

6 ‘And I shall lay My eyes on them for good, and shall bring them back to this land. And I shall build them and not pull them down, and shall plant them and not pluck them up.

7 ‘And I shall give them a heart to know Me, that I am אֱלֹהִים. And they shall be My people and I shall be their Elohim, for they shall turn back to Me with all their heart.

8 ‘And as the spoilt figs that could not be eaten because they are so spoilt,’ for thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘so do I give up Tsidqiyahu, the sovereign of Yahudah, his heads, the rest of Yerushalayim who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Mitsrayim.

9 ‘And I shall make them a horror to all the reigns of the earth, for evil, to be a reproach and a byword, a mockery and a curse, in all the places to which I drive them.

10 ‘And I shall send the sword, the scarcity of food, and the pestilence among them, till they are consumed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers.’ ”

25 The word that came to Yirmeyahu concerning all the people of Yahudāh, in the fourth year of Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, the sovereign of Yahudāh, which was the first year of Nebūkadnetstsar sovereign of Babel,

2 which Yirmeyahu the nabī spoke to all the people of Yahudāh and to all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, saying,

3 “From the thirteenth year of Yoshiyahu son of Amon, sovereign of Yahudāh, even to this day, this is the twenty-third year in which the word of אֱלֹהִים has come to me. And I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not listened.

4 “Moreover, אֱלֹהִים has sent to you all His servants the nabī'im, rising early and sending them, but you have not listened nor inclined your ear to hear,

5 saying, ‘Turn back now everyone from his evil way and from the evil of your deeds, and dwell on the land which אֱלֹהִים has given to you and your fathers forever and ever.

6 ‘And do not go after other mighty ones to serve them and to bow down to them. And do not provoke Me with the works of your hands, so that I do you no evil.’

7 “But you did not listen to Me,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “so as to provoke Me with the works of your hands, for your own evil.

8 “Therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, ‘Because you did not obey My Words,

9 see, I am sending and taking all the tribes of the north,’ declares אֱלֹהִים, ‘and Nebūkadnetstsar the sovereign of Babel, My servant, and shall bring them against this land and against its inhabitants, and against these nations all around, and shall put them under the ban, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and everlasting ruins.

10 'And I shall banish from them the voice of rejoicing and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones and the light of the lamp.

11 'And all this land shall be a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the sovereign of Babel seventy years.

12 'And it shall be, when seventy years are completed, that I shall punish the sovereign of Babel and that nation, the land of the Kasdites, for their wickedness,' declares אֱלֹהִים, 'and shall make it everlasting ruins.

13 'And I shall bring on that land all My words which I have pronounced against it, all that is written in this book, which Yirmeyahu has nabu concerning all the nations.

14 'For they too shall be enslaved by many nations and great sovereigns. And I shall repay them according to their deeds and according to the works of their hands.' "

15 For thus said אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Yisra'el to me, "Take this wine cup of wrath from My hand, and make all the nations, to whom I send you, drink it.

16 "And they shall drink, and shake, and go mad because of the sword that I am sending among them."

17 I then took the cup from the hand of אֱלֹהִים, and made all the nations drink, to whom אֱלֹהִים had sent me;

18 Yerushalayim and the cities of Yahuḏah, and its sovereigns, its heads, to make them a ruin, an object of astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;

19 Pharaoh sovereign of Mitsrayim, and his servants, and his heads, and all his people;

20 and all the mixed multitude, and all the sovereigns of the land of Uts, and all the sovereigns of the land of the Pelishtites - even Ashqelon, and Azzah, and Eqron, and the remnant of Ashdod;

21 Edom, and Mo'ab, and the children of Ammon;

22 and all the sovereigns of Tsor, and all the sovereigns of Tsidon, and the sovereigns of the coastlands which are beyond the sea;

23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who are in the farthest corners;

24 and all the sovereigns of Arabia and all the sovereigns of the mixed multitude who dwell in the wilderness;

25 and all the sovereigns of Zimri, and all the sovereigns of Eylam, and all the sovereigns of the Madites;

26 and all the sovereigns of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the reigns of the earth which are on the face of the ground. Also the sovereign of Shēshaḳ shall drink after them.

27 "And you shall say to them, 'Thus said יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, "Drink, be drunk, and vomit! Fall and rise no more, because of the sword which I am sending among you." '

28 "And it shall be, when they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, then you shall say to them, 'Thus said יהוה of hosts, "You shall drink!

29 "For look, I am beginning to bring evil upon the city which is called by My Name, and should you be entirely unpunished? You are not going unpunished, for I am calling for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth," declares יהוה of hosts.'

30 "And you shall naḅa against them all these words, and say to them, 'יהוה roars from on high, and utters His voice from His qodesh dwelling place. He roars mightily over His fold, a shout as those who tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 “Tumult shall come to the ends of the earth, for אֲרָצָא has a controversy with the nations. He shall enter into judgment with all flesh. The wicked He shall give to the sword,’ declares אֲרָצָא.”

32 Thus said אֲרָצָא of hosts, “See, evil is going forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind is raised up from the farthest parts of the earth.

33 “And in that day the slain of אֲרָצָא shall be from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth. They shall not be lamented, or gathered, or buried, for they are dung on the face of the ground.

34 “Howl, you shepherds, and cry! And roll yourselves in ashes, you leaders of the flock! For the days of your slaughter and your scatterings are completed, and you shall fall like a choice vessel.

35 “And a place of refuge shall perish from the shepherds, and escape from the leaders of the flock.

36 “Hear the cry of the shepherds, and a wailing of the leaders of the flock, for אֲרָצָא is ravaging their pasture!

37 “And the pastures of peace shall be cut down because of the burning displeasure of אֲרָצָא.

38 “Like a lion He shall leave His hiding place, for their land shall become a waste because of the sword of oppressors, and because of His burning displeasure.”

26 In the beginning of the reign of Yahoyaqim the son of Yoshiyahu, the sovereign of Yahudah, this word came from אֲרָצָא, saying,

2 “Thus said אֲרָצָא, ‘Stand in the courtyard of the House of אֲרָצָא, and speak to all the cities of Yahudah, which come to bow themselves in the House of אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים, all the words that I command you to speak to them. Do not diminish a word.

3 'If so be that they listen and each turn from his evil way, then I shall repent of the evil that I plan to do to them, because of the evil of their deeds.'

4 "And you shall say to them, 'Thus said אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים, "If you do not listen to Me, to walk in My Torah which I put before you,

5 to listen to the words of My servants the nebi'im I am sending you, even rising up early and sending them - though you have not listened -

6 then I shall make this House like Shiloh, and make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth." ' "

7 And the kohenim and the nebi'im and all the people heard Yirmeyahu speaking these words in the House of אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים.

8 And it came to be, when Yirmeyahu had ended speaking all that אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the kohenim and the nebi'im and all the people seized him, saying, "You shall certainly die!

9 "Why have you naḥu in the Name of אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים, saying, 'This House shall be like Shiloh, and this city be dried up, without an inhabitant'?" And all the people were gathered against Yirmeyahu in the House of אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים.

10 And the heads of Yahudah heard this, and they came up from the sovereign's house to the House of אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים and sat down in the entrance of the new gate of the House of אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים.

11 And the kohenim and the nebi'im spoke to the heads and all the people, saying, "A death sentence for this man! For he has naḥu against this city, as you have heard with your ears."

12 And Yirmeyahu spoke to all the heads and all the people, saying, "אֶלְהֵאֱלֹהִים sent me to naḥa against this house and against this city with all the words you heard.

13 “And now, make good your ways and your deeds, and obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים your Elohim, then אֱלֹהִים shall relent concerning the evil He has pronounced against you.

14 “And I, look I am in your hand. Do with me as seems good and right to you.

15 “But know for certain that if you put me to death, you are bringing innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants. For truly אֱלֹהִים has sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing.”

16 Then the heads and all the people said to the kohenim and the nebi'im, “No death sentence for this man. For he has spoken to us in the Name of אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.”

17 And some of the elders of the land rose up and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,

18 “Miḳayah of Moresheth naḅu in the days of Hizqiyahu the sovereign of Yahudah, and he spoke to all the people of Yahudah, saying, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, “Tsiyon shall become a ploughed field, and Yerushalayim be heaps, and the mountain of the House like the bare hills of the forest.” ’

19 “Did Hizqiyahu sovereign of Yahudah and all Yahudah indeed put him to death? Did he not revere אֱלֹהִים and seek the favour אֱלֹהִים? And the Adon relented concerning the evil which He had pronounced against them. But we are doing great evil against ourselves.”

20 There was however a man who naḅu in the Name of אֱלֹהִים, Uriyahu the son of Shemayahu of Qiryath Ye'arim, who naḅu against this city and against this land according to all the words of Yirmeyahu.

21 And when Yahoyaqim the sovereign, with all his mighty men and all the heads, heard his words, the sovereign sought to put him to death. But Uriyahu heard of it, and was afraid and fled, and went to Mitsrayim.

22 Then Yahoyaqim the sovereign sent men to Mitsrayim: Elnathan the son of Aḳbor, and some men who went with him to Mitsrayim.

23 And they brought Uriyahu from Mitsrayim and brought him to Yahoyaqim the sovereign, who smote him with the sword and threw his dead body into the graves of the common people.

24 However, the hand of Aḥiqam son of Shaphan was with Yirmeyahu, so as not to give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

27 In the beginning of the reign of Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, the sovereign of Yahudāh, this word came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים, saying,

2 “This is what אֱלֹהִים said to me, ‘Make for yourselves bands and yokes. Then you shall put them on your neck,

3 and shall send them to the sovereign of Edom, and the sovereign of Mo’ab, and the sovereign of the Ammonites, and the sovereign of Tsor, and the sovereign of Tsidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Yerushalayim to Tsidqiyahu, the sovereign of Yahudāh.

4 ‘And you shall command them to say to their masters, “Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’ēl, ‘Say this to your masters,’

5 ‘I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are on the face of the earth, by My great power and by My outstretched arm. And I shall give it to whom it seemed right in My eyes.

6 'And now, I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebūkadnetšar the sovereign of Babel, My servant. And the beasts of the field I have also given him to serve him.

7 'And all nations shall serve him and his son and his son's son, until the time of his land comes. And then many nations and great sovereigns shall make him serve them.

8 'And it shall be, the nation and reign that do not serve Nebūkadnetšar the sovereign of Babel, and the one that does not put its neck under the yoke of the sovereign of Babel, that nation I shall punish,' declares אֱלֹהִים, 'with the sword, and the scarcity of food, and the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

9 'So do not listen to your nebi'im, or to your diviners, or to your dreamers, or to your observers of clouds, or your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, "Do not serve the sovereign of Babel."

10 'For they naḅa falsehood to you, to remove you far from your land. And I shall drive you out, and you shall perish.

11 'But the nations that bring their necks under the yoke of the sovereign of Babel and serve him, I shall leave in their own land,' declares אֱלֹהִים, 'and they shall till it and dwell in it.' "

12 And I spoke to Tsidqiyahu the sovereign of Yahudah according to all these words, saying, "Bring your necks under the yoke of the sovereign of Babel, and serve him and his people, and live!

13 "Why should you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the scarcity of food, and by the pestilence, as אֱלֹהִים has spoken against the nation that does not serve the sovereign of Babel?"

14 “Do not listen to the words of the neḇi'im who speak to you, saying, ‘Do not serve the sovereign of Babel,’ for they naḇa falsehood to you,

15 for I have not sent them,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “yet they naḇa falsehood in My Name, in order that I drive you out. Then you shall perish, you and the neḇi'im who naḇa to you.”

16 Then I spoke to the kohenim and to all this people, saying, “Thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘Do not listen to the words of your neḇi'im who naḇa to you, saying, “See, the vessels of the House of אֱלֹהִים, are brought back from Babel soon now,” for they naḇa falsehood to you.

17 ‘Do not listen to them. Serve the sovereign of Babel, and live! Why should this city become a ruin?

18 ‘But if they are neḇi'im, and if the word of אֱלֹהִים is with them, let them now make intercession to אֱלֹהִים of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the House of אֱלֹהִים, and in the house of the sovereign of Yahuḁah, and at Yerushalayim, shall not go to Babel.’

19 “For thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts concerning the columns, and concerning the sea, and concerning the stands, and concerning the remainder of the vessels which are left in this city,

20 which Neḇuḁadnetstsar the sovereign of Babel did not take, when he exiled Yeḁonyahu the son of Yahoyaḁim, the sovereign of Yahuḁah, from Yerushalayim to Babel, and all the nobles of Yahuḁah and Yerushalayim -

21 thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, concerning the vessels that remain in the House of אֱלֹהִים, and in the house of the sovereign of Yahuḁah and of Yerushalayim:

22 ‘They shall be brought to Babel, and be there until the day that I visit them,’ declares אֱלֹהִים. ‘Then I shall bring them back and restore them to this place.’ ”

28 And it came to be in that year, at the beginning of the reign of Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudah, in the fourth year and in the fifth month, that Hananyah son of Azzur the nabi, who was from Gib'on, spoke to me in the House of אֶלֹהִים in the presence of the kohenim and of all the people, saying,

2 "Thus spoke אֶלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, saying, 'I have broken the yoke of the sovereign of Babel.

3 Within two years I am going to bring back to this place all the vessels of the House of אֶלֹהִים, that Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel removed from this place and took to Babel.

4 'And I am going to bring back to this place Yekonyahu son of Yahoyaqim, sovereign of Yahudah, with all the exiles of Yahudah who went to Babel,' declares אֶלֹהִים, 'for I am going to break the yoke of the sovereign of Babel.' "

5 Then the nabi Yirmeyahu spoke to the nabi Hananyah in the presence of the kohenim and in the presence of all the people who stood in the House of אֶלֹהִים,

6 and the nabi Yirmeyahu said, "Amën! אֶלֹהִים do so! אֶלֹהִים establish your words which you have nabu, to bring back the vessels of the House of אֶלֹהִים and all the exiles from Babel to this place!

7 "Only, hear now this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people:

8 "The nebi'im who have been before me and before you of old nabu against many lands and great reigns, of battle and of evil and of pestilence.

9 "The nabi who naba of peace - when the word of the nabi comes to pass, that nabi is known as one whom אֶלֹהִים has truly sent."

10 And Ḥananyah the nabi took the yoke off the nabi Yirmeyahu's neck and broke it.

11 And Ḥananyah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'So I shall break the yoke of Nebuqadnetstsar sovereign of Babel from the neck of all nations within two years.' " And the nabi Yirmeyahu went his way.

12 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu, after Ḥananyah the nabi had broken the yoke from the neck of the nabi Yirmeyahu, saying,

13 "Go and speak to Ḥananyah, saying, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים, "You have broken the yokes of wood, but you shall make yokes of iron instead."

14 'For thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, "I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, to serve Nebuqadnetstsar sovereign of Babel. And they shall serve him. And I have also given him the beasts of the field." ' "

15 And the nabi Yirmeyahu said to Ḥananyah the nabi, "Listen, please, Ḥananyah, אֱלֹהִים has not sent you, but you have made this people trust in falsehood.

16 "Therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'See, I am sending you away from the face of the earth. This year you shall die, for you have spoken apostasy against אֱלֹהִים.' "

17 And Ḥananyah the nabi died the same year, in the seventh month.

29 And these are the words of the letter which Yirmeyahu the nabi sent from Yerushalayim to the rest of the elders of the exile, and to the kohenim, and to the nabi'im and to all the people whom Nebuqadnetstsar had exiled from Yerushalayim to Babel -

2 after Yeḳonyah the sovereign, and the sovereignty mother, and the eunuchs, and the heads of Yahudāh and Yerushalayim, and the craftsmen, and the smiths had gone from Yerushalayim -

3 by the hand of El'asah son of Shaphan, and Gemaryah the son of Hilqiyah, whom Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh sent to Babel, to Nebukadnetzar the sovereign of Babel, saying,

4 "Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, Elohim of Yisra'el, to all the exiles whom I exiled from Yerushalayim to Babel,

5 'Build houses and dwell, plant gardens and eat their fruit.

6 'Take wives and bring forth sons and daughters. And take wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, and let them bear sons and daughters, and be increased there, and not diminished.

7 'And seek the peace of the city where I have exiled you, and pray to אֱלֹהִים for it, for in its peace you have peace.'

8 "For thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, Elohim of Yisra'el, 'Let not your nebi'im and your diviners who are in your midst deceive you, neither listen to the dreams which you are dreaming.

9 'For they naba falsely to you in My Name. I have not sent them,' declares אֱלֹהִים.

10 "For thus said אֱלֹהִים, 'When seventy years are completed, at Babel I shall visit you and establish My good word toward you, to bring you back to this place.

11 'For I know the plans I am planning for you,' declares אֱלֹהִים, 'plans of peace and not of evil, to give you an expectancy and a latter end.

12 'Then you shall call on Me, and shall come and pray to Me, and I shall listen to you.

13 'And you shall seek, and shall find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.

14 'And I shall be found by you,' declares אֱלֹהִים, 'and I shall turn back your captivity, and shall gather you from all the gentiles and from all the places where I have driven you, declares אֱלֹהִים. And I shall bring you back to the place from which I have exiled you.'

15 "Because you have said, 'אֱלֹהִים has raised up nebi'im for us in Babel' -

16 thus said אֱלֹהִים concerning the sovereign who sits on the throne of Dawid, concerning all the people who dwell in this city, and concerning your brothers who have not gone out with you into exile,

17 thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, 'See, I am sending on them the sword, the scarcity of food, and the pestilence. And I shall make them like spoilt figs, so spoilt as to be inedible.

18 'And I shall pursue them with the sword, with scarcity of food, and with pestilence. And I shall make them a horror among all the reigns of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach among all the gentiles where I have driven them.

19 'For they did not heed My words,' declares אֱלֹהִים, 'which I sent to them by My servants the nebi'im, rising up early and sending them, yet you did not listen,' declares אֱלֹהִים.

20 "You, therefore, hear the word of אֱלֹהִים, all you exiles whom I have sent from Yerushalayim to Babel.

21 "Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, concerning Aḥab son of Qolayah, and Tsidqiyahu son of Ma'asēyah, who are naḥa falsely to you in My Name, 'See, I am giving them into the hand of Neḥuḳadnetstsar sovereign of Babel, and he shall smite them before your eyes.

22 'And because of them all the exiles of Yahudah who are in Babel shall use a curse, saying, "אֱלֹהִים make you like Tsidqiyahu and Aḥab, whom the sovereign of Babel roasted in the fire,"

23 because they have done wickedness in Yisra'ël, and committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken a word in My Name falsely which I have not commanded them. And I am He who knows, and a witness,' declares אֱלֹהִים.

24 "And speak to Shemayahu the Neḥelamite, saying,

25 "Thus speaks אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'ël, saying, 'Because you have sent letters in your name to all the people who are at Yerushalayim, to Tsephanyah son of Ma'asëyah the kohën, and to all the kohenim, saying,

26 "אֱלֹהִים has made you kohën instead of Yahoyada the kohën, so that there are overseers in the House of אֱלֹהִים over everyone who is mad and makes himself a nabi, that you should put him in the stocks and in the iron collar.

27 "So why have you not reproved Yirmeyahu of Anathoth who makes himself a nabi to you?

28 "For he has sent to us in Babel, saying, 'This is long - build houses and dwell, and plant gardens and eat their fruit.' " ' "

29 And Tsephanyah the kohën read this letter in the hearing of Yirmeyahu the nabi.

30 Then the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu, saying,

31 "Send to all those in exile, saying, 'Thus said אֱלֹהִים concerning Shemayah the Neḥelamite, "Because Shemayah has nabu to you, and I have not sent him, and he has made you to trust on falsehood,"

32 therefore thus said אֱלֹהִים, "See, I am bringing punishment upon Shemayah the Neḥelamite and his seed: he shall have no one to dwell among this people, nor is he to see the good that I am about to do for My people," declares אֱלֹהִים, "because he has spoken apostasy against אֱלֹהִים." ' "

30 The word that came to Yirmeyahu from אִירְמְיָהוּ, saying,

2 “Thus spoke אִירְמְיָהוּ Elohim of Yisra’el, saying, ‘Write in a book for yourself all the words that I have spoken to you.

3 ‘For look, the days are coming,’ declares אִירְמְיָהוּ, ‘when I shall turn back the captivity of My people Yisra’el and Yahudah,’ declares אִירְמְיָהוּ, ‘and I shall bring them back to the land that I gave to their fathers, and let them possess it.’ ”

4 And these are the words אִירְמְיָהוּ spoke concerning Yisra’el and Yahudah.

5 “For this is what אִירְמְיָהוּ said, ‘We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

6 ‘Ask now, and see if a man is giving birth. Why do I see every man with his hands on his loins like a woman in labour, and all faces turned pale?

7 ‘Oh! For great is that day, there is none like it. And it is the time of Ya’aqob’s distress, but he shall be saved out of it.

8 ‘And it shall be in that day,’ declares אִירְמְיָהוּ of hosts, ‘that I break his yoke from your neck, and tear off your bonds, and foreigners no more enslave them.

9 ‘And they shall serve אִירְמְיָהוּ their Elohim and Dawid their sovereign, whom I raise up for them.

10 ‘And you, do not fear, O Ya’aqob My servant,’ declares אִירְמְיָהוּ, ‘nor be discouraged, O Yisra’el. For look, I am saving you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity. And Ya’aqob shall return, and have rest and be at ease, with no one to trouble him.

11 ‘For I am with you,’ declares אִירְמְיָהוּ, ‘to save you. Though I make a complete end of all gentiles where I have scattered you, yet I do not make a complete end of you. But I shall reprove you in judgment, and by no means leave you unpunished.'

12 "For thus said  $\text{יהוה}$ , 'Your breach is incurable, your wound is grievous.

13 'No one pleads your cause, to bind up. There are no healing medicines for you.

14 'All those loving you have forgotten you, they do not seek you. For I smote you as an enemy smites, with cruel chastisement, because your wickedness is great, your sins have increased.

15 'Why do you cry about your breach? Your pain is incurable. Because of your many wickednesses, because your sins have increased, I have done this to you.

16 'However, all those who devour you shall be devoured. And all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity. And those who exploit you shall be exploited, and all who prey upon you I shall make a prey.

17 'For I restore health to you and heal you of your wounds,' declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , 'for they have called you an outcast saying, "This is Tsiyon, no one is seeking her." '

18 "Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$ , 'See, I turn back the captivity of Ya'aqob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places. And the city shall be built upon its own mound, and the palace stand on its right place.

19 'And out of them shall arise thanksgiving and the voice of those who are laughing. And I shall increase them, and they shall not diminish. And I shall esteem them, and they shall not be small.

20 'And his children shall be as before, and his congregation shall be established before Me. And I shall punish all who oppress them.

21 'And his Prince shall be from him, and his Ruler shall come from among him. And I shall bring him near, and he shall approach Me, for who is this who pledged his heart to approach Me?’ declares אֱלֹהִים.

22 ‘And you shall be My people, and I shall be your Elohim.’ ”

23 See, the storm of אֱלֹהִים shall go forth in a rage, a whirling storm! It bursts upon the head of the wicked.

24 The burning displeasure of אֱלֹהִים shall not turn back until He has done and established the purposes of His heart. In the latter days you shall understand it.

31 “At that time,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “I shall be the Elohim of all the clans of Yisra’ël, and they shall be My people.”

2 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “A people escaped from the sword found favour in the wilderness, Yisra’ël, when it went to find rest.”

3 אֱלֹהִים appeared to me from afar, “I have loved you with an everlasting love, therefore I shall draw you with kindness.

4 “I am going to build you again. And you shall be rebuilt, O maiden of Yisra’ël! Again you shall take up your tambourines, and go forth in the dances of those who rejoice.

5 “Again you shall plant vines on the mountains of Shomeron. The planters shall plant and treat them as common.

6 “For there shall be a day when the watchmen cry on Mount Ephrayim, ‘Arise, and let us go up to Tsiyon, to אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.’ ”

7 For thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Sing with gladness for Ya’aqob, and shout among the chief of the nations. Cry out, give praise, and say, ‘O אֱלֹהִים, save Your people, the remnant of Yisra’ël!’

8 “See, I am bringing them from the land of the north, and shall gather them from the ends of the earth, among them the blind and the lame, those with child and those in labour, together - a great assembly returning here.

9 “With weeping they shall come, and with prayers I bring them. I shall make them walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they do not stumble. For I shall be a Father to Yisra’ël, and Ephrayim - he is My first-born.

10 “Hear the word of אֱלֹהִים, O gentiles, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, ‘He who scattered Yisra’ël gathers him, and shall guard him as a shepherd, his flock.’

11 “For אֱלֹהִים shall ransom Ya’aqob, and redeem him from the hand of one stronger than he.

12 “And they shall come in and shall sing on the height of Tsiyon, and flow toward the goodness of אֱלֹהִים, for grain and for new wine and for oil, and for the young of the flock and the herd. And their being shall be like a well-watered garden, and never languish again.

13 “Then shall a maiden rejoice in a dance, and young men and old, together. And I shall turn their mourning to joy, and shall comfort them, and shall make them rejoice from their sorrow, 14 and shall fill the being of the kohenim with fatness. And My people shall be satisfied with My goodness,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

15 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “A voice was heard in Ramah, wailing, bitter weeping, Rahël weeping for her children, refusing to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.”

16 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “Hold back your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears, for there is a reward for your work,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “and they shall return from the land of the enemy.

17 “And there is expectancy for your latter end,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “and your children shall return to their own country.

18 “I have clearly heard Ephrayim lamenting, ‘You have chastised me, and I was chastised, like an untrained calf. Turn me back, and I shall turn back, for You are  $\text{יהוה}$  my Elohim.

19 ‘For after my turning back, I repented. And after I was instructed, I struck myself on the thigh. I was ashamed, even humiliated, for I bore the reproach of my youth.’

20 “Is Ephrayim a precious son to Me, a child of delights? For though I spoke against him, I still remembered him. That is why My affections were deeply moved for him. I have great compassion for him,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ .

21 “Put up signposts, make landmarks; lay your heart toward the highway, the way in which you went. Turn back, O maiden of Yisra’el, turn back to these cities of yours!

22 “Till when would you turn here and there, O backsliding daughter? For  $\text{יהוה}$  has created what is new on earth: a woman encompasses a man!”

23 Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$  of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “Let them once again say this word in the land of Yahudah and in its cities, when I turn back their captivity, ‘ $\text{יהוה}$  barak<sub>k</sub> you, O home of righteousness, mountain of qodeshah!’

24 “And in Yahudah and all its cities farmers and those who journey with flocks, shall dwell together.

25 “For I shall fill the weary being, and I shall replenish every grieved being.”

26 At this I awoke and looked around, and my sleep was sweet to me.

27 “See, the days are coming,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “that I shall sow the house of Yisra’el and the house of Yahudah with the seed of man and the seed of beast.

28 “And it shall be, that as I have watched over them to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict, so I shall watch over them to build and to plant,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ .

29 “In those days they shall no longer say, ‘The fathers ate sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are blunted.’

30 “But each one shall die for his own wickedness - whoever eats sour grapes, his teeth shall be blunted.

31 “See, the days are coming,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “when I shall make a new Covenant with the house of Yisra’el and with the house of Yahudah, 32 not like the Covenant I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Mitsrayim, My Covenant which they broke, though I was a husband to them,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ .

33 “For this is the Covenant I shall make with the house of Yisra’el after those days, declares  $\text{יהוה}$ : I shall put My Torah in their inward parts, and write it on their hearts. And I shall be their Elohim, and they shall be My people.

34 “And no longer shall they teach, each one his neighbour, and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know  $\text{יהוה}$ ,’ for they shall all know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ . “For I shall forgive their wickedness, and remember their sin no more.”

35 Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$ , who gives the sun for a light by day, and the laws of the moon and the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, and its waves roar -  $\text{יהוה}$  of hosts is His Name:

36 “If these laws vanish from before Me,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “then the seed of Yisra’el shall also cease from being a nation before Me forever.”

37 Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “If the shamayim above could be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I would also cast off all the seed of Yisra’el for all that they have done,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

38 “See, the days are coming,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “that the city shall be built for אֱלֹהִים from the Tower of Hanane’el to the Corner Gate.

39 “And the measuring line shall again extend straight ahead to the hill Garēb, then it shall turn toward Go’ah.

40 “And all the valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields as far as the wadi Qidron, to the corner of the Horse Gate toward the east, is to be qodesh to אֱלֹהִים. It shall not be plucked up or thrown down any more forever.”

32 The word that came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים in the tenth year of Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebukadnetstsar.

2 Now at that time the army of the sovereign of Babel besieged Yerushalayim, and Yirmeyahu the nabi was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the house of the sovereign of Yahudah.

3 For Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudah had shut him up, saying, “Why do you nebuah, saying, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים, “See, I am giving this city into the hand of the sovereign of Babel, and he shall take it,

4 and Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudah shall not escape from the hand of the Kasdites, but certainly be given into the hand of the sovereign of Babel, and shall speak with him face to face, and see him eye to eye,

5 and he shall lead Tsidqiyahu to Babel, and be there until I visit him,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “though you fight with the Kasdites, you shall not prosper” ’?”

6 And Yirmeyahu said, “The word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

7 ‘See, Haname’el son of Shallum your uncle is coming to you saying, “Buy my field which is in Anathoth, for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.” ’

8 “So Haname’el my uncle’s son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of אֱלֹהִים, and said to me, ‘Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Binyamin, for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption. Buy it for yourself.’ And I knew that this was the word of אֱלֹהִים.

9 “And I bought the field which was at Anathoth from Haname’el, my uncle’s son, and weighed out to him the silver, seventeen sheqels of silver.

10 “And I signed the deed and sealed it, took witnesses, and weighed the silver in the scales.

11 “Then I took the deed of purchase - that which was sealed according to the command and law, and that which was open -

12 and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruk son of Neryah, son of Maḥsēyah, in the presence of Haname’el my uncle’s son, and in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, before all the Yahuḏim who sat in the court of the guard.

13 “And I commanded Baruk before their eyes, saying,

14 ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “Take these deeds, both this deed of purchase which is sealed and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, so that they remain many days.”

15 'For thus said אֱלֹהֵי הַצְּבָאוֹת of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'ël, "Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land." '

16 "And after I had given the deed of purchase to Baruk son of Nĕriyah, I prayed to אֱלֹהֵי, saying,

17 'Ah, Aḏonai אֱלֹהֵי! See, You have made the shamayim and the earth by Your great power and outstretched arm. There is no matter too hard for You, 18 who show kindness to thousands, and repay the wickedness of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them - the Great, the Mighty Ėl, אֱלֹהֵי of hosts is His Name, 19 great in counsel and mighty in work, for Your eyes are open to all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds.

20 'For You have put signs and wonders in the land of Mitsrayim, to this day, and in Yisra'ël and among other men. And You have made Yourself a Name, as it is this day.

21 'And You have brought Your people Yisra'ël out of the land of Mitsrayim with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and an outstretched arm, and with great fearsome deeds.

22 'And You gave them this land, of which You swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey.

23 'And they came in and possessed it, but they did not obey Your voice nor did they walk in Your Torah. They did not do all that You commanded them to do, so You brought all this evil upon them.

24 'See the siege mounds! They have come to the city to take it. And the city has been given into the hand of the Kasdites who fight against it, because of the sword and the scarcity of food and the pestilence.

And what You have spoken has come about, and look, You see it!

25 'Yet You, O Adonai אֲדֹנָי, have said to me, "Buy the field for silver, and take witnesses"! although the city has been given into the hand of the Kasdites.' "

26 Then the word of אֲדֹנָי came to Yirmeyahu, saying,

27 "See, I am אֲדֹנָי, the Elohim of all flesh. Is there any matter too hard for Me?"

28 Therefore thus said אֲדֹנָי, "See, I am giving this city into the hand of the Kasdites, into the hand of Nebuqadnetzar sovereign of Babel, and he shall take it.

29 "And the Kasdites who fight against this city shall come and light fire to this city and burn it, with the houses on whose roofs they burned incense to Ba'al and poured out drink offerings to other mighty ones, to provoke Me.

30 "For the children of Yisra'el and the children of Yahudah have done only evil before Me, from their youth. For the children of Yisra'el have only provoked Me with the work of their hands," declares אֲדֹנָי.

31 "For this city has been a cause for My displeasure and My wrath from the day that they built it, even to this day that I should remove it from before My face,

32 because of all the evil of the children of Yisra'el and the children of Yahudah, which they have done to provoke Me - they, their sovereigns, their heads, their kohenim, their nebi'im, and the men of Yahudah, and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

33 "And they have turned their back to Me, and not their face - though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, they did not listen to receive instruction.

34 "And they put their abominations in the House which is called by My Name, to defile it.

35 “And they built the high places of Ba’al which are in the Valley of Bēn Hinnom, to offer up their sons and their daughters to Molek, which I did not command them, nor did it come into My heart, that they should do this abomination, to make Yahudah sin.

36 “And now, thus said יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra’el, concerning this city of which you say, ‘It shall be given into the hand of the sovereign of Babel by the sword, and by scarcity of food, and by pestilence’:

37 ‘See, I am gathering them out of all the lands where I have driven them in My displeasure, and in My wrath, and in great rage. And I shall bring them back to this place, and shall let them dwell in safety.

38 ‘And they shall be My people, and I shall be their Elohim.

39 ‘And I shall give them one heart and one Way, to revere Me all the days, for the good of them and of their children after them.

40 ‘And I shall make an everlasting Covenant with them, that I do not turn back from doing good to them. And I shall put My reverence in their hearts so as not to turn aside from Me.

41 ‘And I shall rejoice over them to do good to them, and shall plant them in this land in truth, with all My heart and with all My being.’

42 “For thus said יהוה, ‘As I have brought all this great evil on this people, so I am bringing on them all the good that I am speaking to them.

43 ‘And fields shall be bought in this land of which you are saying, “It is a wasteland, without man or beast. It has been given into the hand of the Kasdites.”

44 ‘Fields shall be bought for silver, and deeds signed and sealed, and witnesses be called, in the land of Binyamin, and in the places around Yerushalayim, and in the cities of Yahudah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the low country, and in the cities of the Negeb. For I shall turn back their captivity,' declares יהוה.”

33 And the word of יהוה came to Yirmeyahu a second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the guard, saying,

2 “Thus said יהוה who made it, יהוה who formed it to establish it, יהוה is His Name,

3 ‘Call unto Me, and I shall answer you, and show you greatness and unknowns, which you have not known.’

4 “For thus said יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra’ël, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the sovereigns of Yahuḏah, which are thrown down against the siege mounds and the sword,

5 while coming to fight with the Kasdites, and to fill their places with the corpses of men whom I shall slay in My displeasure and My wrath, all for whose evil I have hidden My face from this city.

6 ‘See, I am bringing to it relief and healing. And I shall heal them and reveal to them the riches of peace and truth.

7 ‘And I shall turn back the captivity of Yahuḏah and the captivity of Yisra’ël, and shall build them as at the first,

8 and shall cleanse them from all their wickedness that they have sinned against Me. And I shall pardon all their wickednesses that they have sinned and by which they have transgressed against Me.

9 ‘And it shall be to Me a name of joy, a praise, and a pride before all nations of the earth, who hear all the good I am doing to them, and they shall revere and quiver for all the goodness and all the peace I am doing to it.’

10 “Thus said יהוה, ‘In this place of which you say, “It is dried up, without man and without beast,” in the cities of Yahudāh, in the streets of Yerushalayim that are deserted, without man and without inhabitant and without beast, there shall once again be heard

11 the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who are saying, “Praise יהוה of hosts, for יהוה is good, for His kindness is forever,” of those who are bringing the offering of praise into the House of יהוה. For I shall turn back the captivity of the land, as at the first,’ declares יהוה.

12 “Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘In this place which is dried up, without man and without beast, and in all its cities, there shall once again be a home of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.

13 ‘In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the low country, and in the cities of the Negeb, and in the land of Binyamin, and in the places around Yerushalayim, and in the cities of Yahudāh, the flocks once again pass under the hands of him who counts them,’ declares יהוה.

14 ‘See, the days are coming,’ declares יהוה, ‘when I shall establish the good word which I have promised to the house of Yisra’ēl and to the house of Yahudāh:

15 ‘In those days and at that time I cause a Branch of righteousness to spring forth for Dawid. And He shall do right-ruling and righteousness in the earth.

16 ‘In those days Yahudāh shall be saved, and Yerushalayim dwell in safety. And this is that which shall be proclaimed to her: ‘יהוה our Righteousness.’

17 “For thus said יהוה, ‘For Dawid there is not to cease a man to sit on the throne of the house of Yisra’ēl.

18 'And for the kohenim, the Lěwites, there is not to cease a man to offer burnt offerings before Me, to kindle grain offerings, and to slaughter continually.' ”

19 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu, saying,
20 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘If you could break My covenant with the day and My covenant with the night, so that there be not day and night in their season,

21 then My covenant could also be broken with Dawid My servant - so that he shall not have a son to reign upon his throne - and with the Lěwites, the kohenim, My attendants.

22 ‘As the host of the shamayim is not counted, nor the sand of the sea measured, so I increase the descendants of Dawid My servant and the Lěwites who attend upon Me.’ ”

23 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu, saying,
24 “Have you not observed what these people have spoken, saying, ‘The two clans which אֱלֹהִים has chosen have been rejected by Him’? So they have despised My people, no more to be a nation before them.

25 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘If My covenant is not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the laws of the shamayim and earth,

26 then I would also reject the descendants of Ya’aqob and Dawid My servant, so that I should not take of his descendants to be rulers over the descendants of Aḇraham, Yitshaq, and Ya’aqob. For I shall turn back their captivity, and have compassion on them.’ ”

34 The word which came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים, when Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel and all his army, and all the reigns of the earth under his rule, and all the people, fought against Yerushalayim and all its cities, saying,

2 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים the Elohim of Yisra’ël, ‘Go and speak to Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh and say to him, “Thus said אֱלֹהִים, ‘See, I am giving this city into the hand of the sovereign of Babel. And he shall burn it with fire,

3 and you shall not escape out of his hand, but certainly be taken and given into his hand. And your eyes shall see the eyes of the sovereign of Babel, and his mouth shall speak with your mouth, and you shall go to Babel.’ ” ’

4 “But hear the word of אֱלֹהִים, O Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh! Thus אֱלֹהִים said concerning you, ‘You shall not die by the sword.

5 ‘In peace you are to die, and as in the burnings of spices for your fathers, the former sovereigns who were before you, so they shall burn spices for you and lament for you, saying, “Alas, master!” ’ For I have spoken the word,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

6 And Yirmeyahu the nabi spoke all these words to Tsidqiyahu the sovereign of Yahudāh in Yerushalayim,

7 while the sovereign of Babel’s army was fighting against Yerushalayim and all the cities of Yahudāh that were left, against Laḳish and Azēqah. For only these walled cities remained of the cities of Yahudāh.

8 The word which came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים, after Sovereign Tsidqiyahu had made a covenant with all the people who were at Yerushalayim to proclaim release to them:

9 that everyone was to let his male and female slave go free, the Iḅri man and the Iḅri woman, no one was to keep a Yahudi, his brother, enslaved.

10 And when all the heads and all the people who had come into the covenant heard that each one was to let his male and female slaves go free, and not keep them enslaved any longer, they obeyed and released them.

11 But afterward they changed their minds and made the male and female slaves return, whom they had let go free, and brought them into subjection as male and female slaves.

12 Therefore the word of יהוה came to Yirmeyahu from יהוה, saying,

13 “Thus said יהוה the Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘I Myself made a Covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim, out of the house of bondage, saying,

14 “At the end of seven years each one should let his lbri brother go free, who has been sold to him. And when he has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you.” But your fathers did not obey Me nor incline their ear.

15 ‘And you recently turned and did what was right in My eyes, each man proclaiming release to his neighbour. And you made a covenant before Me in the House which is called by My Name.

16 ‘But you turned back and profaned My Name, and each one of you took back his male and female slaves, whom he had let go free, at their pleasure, and brought them into subjection, to be your male and female slaves.’

17 “Therefore thus said יהוה, ‘You have not obeyed Me in proclaiming release, each one to his brother and each one to his neighbour. See, I am proclaiming release to you,’ declares יהוה, ‘to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the scarcity of food! And I shall make you a horror to all reigns of the earth.

18 ‘And I shall give the men who are transgressing My Covenant, who have not established the words of the covenant which they made before Me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between the parts of it:

19 the heads of Yahudāh, and the heads of Yerushalayim, the eunuchs, and the kohenim, and all the people of the land who passed between the parts of the calf.

20 ‘And I shall give them into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those who seek their life. And their corpses shall be for food to the birds of the shamayim and the beasts of the earth.

21 ‘And I shall give Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh and his heads into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the sovereign of Babel’s army that has withdrawn from you.

22 ‘See, I am commanding,’ declares אֱלֹהִים, ‘and shall bring them back to this city, and they shall fight against it and take it and burn it with fire. And I shall make the cities of Yahudāh a ruin without inhabitant.’”

35 The word which came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים in the days of Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahudāh, saying,

2 “Go to the house of the Rēkabites. And you shall speak to them, and bring them into the House of אֱלֹהִים, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink.”

3 And I took Ya’azanyah the son of Yirmeyahu, the son of Ḥabatstsinyah, and his brothers and all his sons, and all the house of the Rēkabites,

4 and brought them into the House of אֱלֹהִים, into the room of the sons of Ḥanan son of Yiḡdalyahu, a man of Elohim, which was by the chamber of the heads, above the room of Ma’asēyahu son of Shallum, the keeper of the door.

5 And I put before the sons of the house of the Rěkabites bowls filled with wine, and cups, and I said to them, “Drink wine.”

6 But they said, “We do not drink wine, because Yonadab the son of Rěkab, our father, commanded us, saying, ‘You shall not drink wine, neither you nor your sons, forever.

7 ‘And do not build a house, neither sow seed, nor plant a vineyard, nor have any of these, but dwell in tents all your days, so that you live many days on the face of the land where you are sojourners.’

8 “So we obeyed the voice of Yonadab son of Rěkab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters,

9 nor to build ourselves houses to dwell in. And we have no vineyard, field or seed.

10 “But we dwell in tents, and have obeyed and done according to all that Yonadab our father commanded us.

11 “And it came to be, when Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel came up into the land, that we said, ‘Come, let us go to Yerushalayim for fear of the army of the Kasdites and for fear of the army of the Arameans.’ So we dwell at Yerushalayim.”

12 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu, saying,

13 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘Go, and you shall say to the men of Yahudah and to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, “Have you not received instruction, to obey My Words?” declares אֱלֹהִים.

14 “The words of Yonadab son of Rěkab, which he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are established, and they have not drunk unto this day, for they have obeyed their father’s command. And as for Me, I have spoken to you, rising early and speaking, but you have not obeyed Me.

15 “And I sent to you all My servants the nebi'im, rising up early and sending them, saying, ‘Turn, each one from his evil way, and make good your deeds, and do not go after other mighty ones to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given you and your fathers.’ But you have not inclined your ear, nor obeyed Me.

16 “The sons of Yonadab son of Rēkab have indeed carried out the command of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not obeyed Me.’ ”

17 “Therefore thus said יהוה Elohim of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, ‘See, I am bringing on Yahuḏah and on all the inhabitants of Yerushalayim all the evil I have pronounced against them, because I have spoken to them but they did not listen, and I have called to them but they did not answer.’ ”

18 And Yirmeyahu said to the house of the Rēkabites, “Thus said יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, ‘Because you have obeyed the command of Yonadab your father, and guarded all his commands and done according to all that he commanded you,

19 therefore thus said יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, “Of Yonadab son of Rēkab there shall never cease to be a man to stand before Me.” ’ ”

36 And it came to be in the fourth year of Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahuḏah, that this word came to Yirmeyahu from יהוה, saying,

2 “Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Yisra'el, and against Yahuḏah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Yoshiyahu even to this day.

3 “It could be that the house of Yahudāh hears of all the evil which I plan to bring upon them, so that each one turns back from his evil way, and I shall pardon their wickedness and their sin.”

4 And Yirmeyahu called Baruk̄ son of Nēriyah. And Baruk̄ wrote on a scroll from the mouth of Yirmeyahu, all the words of אִיִּי which He had spoken to him.

5 And Yirmeyahu commanded Baruk̄, saying, “I am shut up, I am unable to enter the House of אִיִּי.

6 “But you shall enter, and shall read from the scroll which you have written from my mouth, the words of אִיִּי, in the hearing of the people in the House of אִיִּי on the day of fasting. And also read them in the hearing of all Yahudāh who come from their cities.

7 “It could be that they present their supplication before אִיִּי, and they turn back, each one from his evil way. For great is the displeasure and the wrath that אִיִּי has spoken against this people.”

8 And Baruk̄ son of Nēriyah did according to all that Yirmeyahu the nabī commanded him, reading from the book the words of אִיִּי in the House of אִיִּי.

9 And it came to be in the fifth year of Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahudāh, in the ninth month, that they called a fast before אִיִּי to all the people in Yerushalayim, and to all the people who came from the cities of Yahudāh to Yerushalayim.

10 And Baruk̄ read from the book the words of Yirmeyahu in the House of אִיִּי, in the room of Gemaryahu son of Shaphan the scribe, in the upper courtyard at the entry of the New Gate of the House of אִיִּי, in the hearing of all the people.

11 And Miḳayahu son of Gemaryahu, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of אִיִּי from the book.

12 And then he went down to the sovereign's house, into the scribe's room. And there all the heads were sitting: Elishama the scribe, Delayahu son of Shemayahu, Elnathan son of Aḳbor, Gemaryahu son of Shaphan, Tsidqiyahu son of Ḥananyahu, and all the heads.

13 And Miḳayahu told them all the words which he heard when Baruḳ read the book in the hearing of the people.

14 Then all the heads sent Yahudi son of Nethanyahu, son of Shelemyahu, son of Kushi, to Baruḳ, saying, "Take in your hand the scroll from which you have read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruḳ son of Nėriyah took the scroll in his hand and came to them.

15 And they said to him, "Sit down, please, and read it in our hearing." Then Baruḳ read it in their hearing.

16 And it came to be, when they had heard all the words, that they looked at each other in fear, and said to Baruḳ, "We are certainly going to report all these words to the sovereign."

17 And they asked Baruḳ, saying, "Please explain to us, how did you write all these words? From his mouth?"

18 And Baruḳ answered them, "From his mouth he spoke all these words to me, and I wrote them with ink in the book."

19 Then the heads said to Baruḳ, "Go, hide, you and Yirmeyahu, and let no one know where you are."

20 And they went to the sovereign, into the court. But they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the hearing of the sovereign.

21 The sovereign therefore sent Yahudi to bring the scroll, and he took it from the room of Elishama the scribe. And Yahudi read it in the hearing of the sovereign and in the hearing of all the heads standing beside the sovereign.

22 And the sovereign was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month, with a fire burning on the hearth before him.

23 Then it came to be, when Yahudi had read three or four columns, that the sovereign cut it with the scribe's knife and threw it into the fire that was on the hearth, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet the sovereign and all his servants who heard all these words were not afraid, nor did they tear their garments.

25 Moreover, Elnathan, and Delayahu, and Gemaryahu pleaded with the sovereign not to burn the scroll, but he did not listen to them.

26 And the sovereign commanded Yerahme'el son of the sovereign, and Serayahu son of Azri'el, and Shelemyahu son of Abde'el, to seize Baruq the scribe and Yirmeyahu the nabi, but אִיִּזְכָּר had hid them.

27 And after the sovereign had burned the scroll with the words which Baruq had written from the mouth of Yirmeyahu, the word of אִיִּזְכָּר came to Yirmeyahu, saying,

28 "Take another scroll, and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll which Yahoyaqim the sovereign of Yahudah has burned,

29 and say to Yahoyaqim sovereign of Yahudah, 'Thus said אִיִּזְכָּר, "You have burned this scroll, saying, 'Why have you written in it that the sovereign of Babel is certainly coming to destroy this land, and cause man and beast to cease from here?' "

30 'Therefore thus said אִיִּזְכָּר concerning Yahoyaqim sovereign of Yahudah, "He shall have no one to sit on the throne of Dawid, and his dead body is to be thrown out, to the heat of the day and the frost of the night.

31 “And I shall punish him, and his seed, and his servants for their wickedness. And I shall bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and on the men of Yahudah all the evil I have spoken against them. But they did not listen.” ’ ’ ”

32 So Yirmeyahu took another scroll and gave it to Baruq the scribe, son of Nėriyah, who wrote on it from the mouth of Yirmeyahu all the words of the book which Yahoyaqim sovereign of Yahudah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

37 And Sovereign Tsidqiyahu son of Yoshiyahu reigned instead of Konyahu son of Yahoyaqim, whom Nebuqadnetstsar sovereign of Babel appointed to reign in the land of Yahudah.

2 But neither he nor his servants nor the people of the land had listened to the words of אֱלֹהִים which He spoke by the nabi Yirmeyahu.

3 And Tsidqiyahu the sovereign sent Yahuqal son of Shelemyah, and the kohēn, Tsephanyahu son of Ma’asėyah, to the nabi Yirmeyahu, saying, “Please pray to אֱלֹהִים our Elohim for us.”

4 Now Yirmeyahu was still coming and going among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison.

5 Meanwhile, Pharaoh’s army had departed from Mitsrayim. And when the Kasdites who were besieging Yerushalayim heard news of them, they withdrew from Yerushalayim.

6 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu the nabi, saying,

7 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים the Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘Say this to the sovereign of Yahudah, who sent you to Me to inquire of Me, "See, Pharaoh's army which has come up to help you, shall turn back to Mitsrayim, to their own land.

8 "And the Kasdites shall return and fight against this city, and take it and burn it with fire." '

9 "Thus said אַרְבָּז, 'Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Kasdites shall go away from us," for they do not go.

10 'For though you had smitten the entire army of the Kasdites who are fighting against you, and there remained only wounded men among them, they would get up, each man in his tent, and burn the city with fire.' "

11 And it came to be, when the army of the Kasdites left the siege of Yerushalayim for fear of Pharaoh's army,

12 that Yirmeyahu went out of Yerushalayim to go into the land of Binyamin to receive his portion there in the midst of the people.

13 And it came to be, as he was in the gate of Binyamin, a master of the guard was there whose name was Yiriyah son of Shelemyah, son of Hananyah. And he seized Yirmeyahu the nabi, saying, "You are deserting to the Kasdites!"

14 But Yirmeyahu said, "It is a lie! I am not deserting to the Kasdites." But he did not listen to him, and Yiriyah seized Yirmeyahu and brought him to the heads.

15 And the heads were wroth with Yirmeyahu, and smote him and put him in prison in the house of Yahnathan the scribe. For they had made that for a prison.

16 When Yirmeyahu had entered into the dungeon and into the cells, then Yirmeyahu remained there many days.

17 And Tsidqiyahu the sovereign sent and took him out. And the sovereign asked him secretly in his house, and said, "Is there any word from אִיִּי?" And Yirmeyahu said, "There is." And he said, "You are given into the hand of the sovereign of Babel!"

18 And Yirmeyahu said to Tsidqiyahu the sovereign, "What have I sinned against you, and against your servants, and against this people, that you have put me into prison?"

19 "Where are your nebi'im who nabu to you, saying, 'The sovereign of Babel is not coming against you or against this land?'"

20 "But now, please hear, O my master the sovereign. Please, let my petition be accepted before you, and do not make me return to the house of Yahnathan the scribe, lest I die there."

21 Tsidqiyahu the sovereign then gave orders for Yirmeyahu to be placed in the court of the guard, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread from the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was gone. So Yirmeyahu remained in the court of the guard.

38 And Shephatyah son of Mattan, and Gedalyahu son of Pashhur, and Yuḵal son of Shelemyahu, and Pashhur son of Malkiyah heard the words which Yirmeyahu had spoken to all the people, saying,

2 "Thus said אִיִּי, 'He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, by scarcity of food, and by pestilence, but whoever goes over to the Kasdites shall live. And his life shall be as a prize to him, and he shall live.'

3 "Thus said אִיִּי, 'This city is certainly given into the hand of the sovereign of Babel's army, and he shall take it.' "

4 Then the heads said to the sovereign, "Please, let this man be put to death, because he is weakening the hands of the men of battle who are left in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man does not seek the peace of this people, but the evil."

5 And Tsidqiyahu the sovereign said, "Look, he is in your hand. For the sovereign is unable to do any matter against you."

6 And they took Yirmeyahu and threw him into the dungeon of Malkiyahu the sovereign's son, which was in the court of the guard, and they let Yirmeyahu down with ropes. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mud. So Yirmeyahu sank in the mud.

7 And Ebed-Melek the Kushite, one of the eunuchs, who was in the sovereign's house, heard that they had put Yirmeyahu in the dungeon. And the sovereign was sitting at the Gate of Binyamin,

8 And Ebed-Melek came from the sovereign's house and spoke to the sovereign, saying,

9 "My master the sovereign, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Yirmeyahu the nabi, whom they have thrown into the dungeon, and he is likely to die from hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city."

10 And the sovereign commanded Ebed-Melek the Kushite, saying, "Take thirty men from here with you, and lift Yirmeyahu the nabi out of the dungeon before he dies."

11 So Ebed-Melek took the men with him and went into the house of the sovereign under the treasury, and took old clothes and old rags from there, and let them down by ropes into the dungeon to Yirmeyahu.

12 And Ebed-Melek the Kushite said to Yirmeyahu, "Please put these old clothes and rags under your armpits, under the ropes." And Yirmeyahu did so,

13 and they pulled Yirmeyahu up with ropes and lifted him out of the dungeon. And Yirmeyahu remained in the court of the guard.

14 Then Tsidqiyahu the sovereign sent and had Yirmeyahu the nabi brought to him at the third entrance of the House of אֱלֹהִים. And the sovereign said to Yirmeyahu, "I am asking you a matter. Do not hide a matter from me."

15 And Yirmeyahu said to Tsidqiyahu, "If I declare it to you, shall you not put me to death? And if I give you advice, you shall not listen to me."

16 But Tsidqiyahu the sovereign swore secretly to Yirmeyahu, saying, "As אֱלֹהִים lives, who made us this life, I do not put you to death, nor do I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

17 And Yirmeyahu said to Tsidqiyahu, "Thus said אֱלֹהִים, the Elohim of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, 'If you do indeed surrender to the heads of the sovereign of Babel, then your being shall live, and this city not be burned with fire. And you and your house shall live.

18 'But if you do not surrender to the heads of the sovereign of Babel, then this city shall be given into the hand of the Kasdites, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape from their hand.' "

19 Then Tsidqiyahu the sovereign said to Yirmeyahu, "I am afraid of the Yahudim who have gone over to the Kasdites, lest they give me into their hand, and they maltreat me."

20 But Yirmeyahu said, "They shall not hand you over. Please, obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים which I speak to you, and let it be well with you, and your life be spared.

21 "But if you refuse to surrender, this is the word that אֱלֹהִים has shown me:

22 'Then see, all the women who are left in the sovereign of Yahudāh's house shall be surrendered to the heads of the sovereign of Babel, and see, they are saying, "Your close friends have provoked you and prevailed against you; your feet have sunk in the mire; they have turned away again."

23 'And they are going to surrender all your wives and children to the Kasdites, and you yourself shall not escape from their hand, but be taken by the hand of the sovereign of Babel, and this city shall be burned with fire.' "

24 Then Tsidqiyahu said to Yirmeyahu, "Let no one know of these words, and you shall not die.

25 "But if the heads hear that I have spoken with you, and they come to you and say to you, 'Declare to us now what you have said to the sovereign, and also what the sovereign said to you. Do not hide it from us, and we do not put you to death,'

26 then you shall say to them, 'I presented my petition before the sovereign, not to send me back to the house of Yahnathan to die there.' "

27 And all the heads came to Yirmeyahu and asked him. And he informed them according to all these words that the sovereign had commanded. And they said no more to him, for the matter was not heard.

28 So Yirmeyahu remained in the court of the guard until the day that Yerushalayim was taken, and he was when Yerushalayim was taken.

39 In the ninth year of Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh, in the tenth month, Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel and all his army came against Yerushalayim, and besieged it.

2 In the eleventh year of Tsidqiyahu, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, the city was broken into.

3 And all the heads of the sovereign of Babel came in and sat in the Middle Gate: Nĕrgal Sar-Etser, Samgar-Nebo, Sarsekim, Raḅ-Saris, Nĕrgal Sar-Etser, Raḅ-Maḡ, and all the rest of the heads of the sovereign of Babel.

4 And it came to be, when Tsidqiyahu the sovereign of Yahudah and all the men of battle saw them, they fled and left the city by night, by way of the sovereign's garden, by the gate between the two walls. And he went out toward the desert plain.

5 But the army of the Kasdites pursued them and overtook Tsidqiyahu in the desert plains of Yeriḡo. And they captured him, and brought him up to Neḅuḱadnetstsar sovereign of Babel, to Riḅlah in the land of Ḥamath, where he spoke judgment on him.

6 And the sovereign of Babel slew the sons of Tsidqiyahu before his eyes in Riḅlah. The sovereign of Babel also slew all the nobles of Yahudah.

7 And he put out the eyes of Tsidqiyahu, and bound him with bronze shackles to bring him to Babel.

8 And the Kasdites burned the house of the sovereign and the houses of the people with fire, and they broke down the walls of Yerushalayim.

9 And Neḅuzaradan, chief of the guard, exiled to Babel the remnant of the people who remained in the city and those who defected to him, with the rest of the people who were left.

10 But Neḅuzaradan, chief of the guard, left in the land of Yahudah the poor people, who had naught whatever, and gave them vineyards and fields on the same day.

11 And Neḅuḱadnetstsar the sovereign of Babel gave an order concerning Yirmeyahu to Neḅuzaradan, chief of the guard, saying,

12 “Take him and look after him, and do no harm whatsoever to him, but do to him even as he shall speak to you.”

13 And Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, and Nebushazban the Raḥsaris, Nērgal-Sar-Etser the Raḥmaḡ, and all the sovereign of Babel’s chief officers sent,

14 and had Yirmeyahu taken from the court of the guard, and gave him to Gedalyahu son of Aḥiqam, son of Shaphan, to take him home. And he dwelt among the people.

15 And the word of אֱלֹהִים had come to Yirmeyahu while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying,

16 “Go, and you shall speak to Ebed-Meleḵ the Kushite, saying, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “See, I am bringing My words upon this city for evil and not for good, and they shall be before you in that day.

17 “And I shall deliver you in that day,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “so that you are not given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.

18 “For I shall rescue you, and you shall not fall by the sword. But your life shall be as a prize to you, for you have put your trust in Me,” declares אֱלֹהִים.’ ”

40 The word that came to Yirmeyahu from אֱלֹהִים after Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all the exiles from Yerushalayim and Yahudah, who were being exiled to Babel.

2 And the chief of the guard took Yirmeyahu and said to him, “אֱלֹהִים your Elohim has spoken this evil on this place.

3 “And אֱלֹהִים has brought it on, and has done, as He has said. Because you have sinned against אֱלֹהִים, and did not obey His voice, therefore this matter has come upon you.

4 “And now, see, I loosen you today from the chains that were on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babel, come, and I shall look after you. But if it seems wrong for you to come with me to Babel, remain here. See, all the land is before you, go wherever it seems good and right for you to go.”

5 And before he replied, “Or go back to Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, son of Shaphan, whom the sovereign of Babel has made governor over the cities of Yahudah, and dwell with him among the people, or go wherever it seems right for you to go.” And the chief of the guard gave him provisions and a gift and let him go.

6 So Yirmeyahu went to Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, to Mitspah, and dwelt with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 And all the commanders of the armies who were in the fields, they and their men, heard that the sovereign of Babel had made Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam governor in the land, and had put him in charge of the men, and women, and children, and the poor of the land who had not been exiled to Babel.

8 So they came to Gedalyahu at Mitspah - Yishma'el the son of Nethanyahu, and Yoḥanan and Yahnathan the sons of Qarēah, and Serayah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ophai the Netophathite and Yezanyahu the son of a Ma'akathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, son of Shaphan, swore to them and their men, saying, “Do not be afraid of serving the Kasdites. Dwell in the land and serve the sovereign of Babel, and it shall be well with you.

10 “And I, see, I am dwelling at Mitspah, to serve the Kasdites who come to us. But you, gather wine and summer fruit and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities which you have taken.”

11 Also, when all the Yahudim who were in Mo’ab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and who were in all the lands, heard that the sovereign of Babel had left a remnant of Yahudah, and that he had appointed over them Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, son of Shaphan,

12 then all the Yahudim returned from all the places where they had been driven, and came to the land of Yahudah, to Gedalyahu at Mitspah, and gathered wine and summer fruit in large quantities.

13 And Yoḥanan son of Qarēah and all the commanders of the army that were in the fields came to Gedalyahu at Mitspah,

14 and they said to him, “Do you know that Ba’alis sovereign of the Ammonites has sent Yishma’el son of Nethanyah to take your life?” But Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam would not believe them.

15 Then Yoḥanan son of Qarēah spoke secretly to Gedalyahu in Mitspah, saying, “Please let me go and smite Yishma’el son of Nethanyah, without anyone knowing it. Why should he murder you, and so let all the Yahudim who are gathered to you be scattered, and the remnant in Yahudah perish?”

16 But Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam said to Yohanan son of Qarēah, “Do not do this matter, for what you are saying about Yishma’el is not true.”

41 And in the seventh month it came to be that Yishma’el son of Nethanyah, son of Elishama, of the royal seed, and of the officers of the sovereign, came with ten men to Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, at Mitspah. And while they ate bread together there in Mitspah,

2 Yishma'el son of Nethanyah, and the ten men who were with him, arose and smote Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam, son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him whom the sovereign of Babel had made governor over the land.

3 And Yishma'el smote all the Yahudim who were with him, with Gedalyahu at Mitspah, and the Kasdites who were found there, the men of battle.

4 And it came to be, on the second day after he had killed Gedalyahu, when no one yet knew it,

5 that men came from Shekem, from Shiloh, and from Shomeron, eighty men with their beards shaved and their garments torn, having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the House of אֱלֹהִים.

6 And Yishma'el son of Nethanyah went out from Mitspah to meet them, weeping as he walked along. And it came to be, as he met them, that he said to them, "Come to Gedalyahu son of Ahiqam!"

7 And it came to be, when they came inside the city, that Yishma'el son of Nethanyah slew them into a pit, he and the men who were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them who said to Yishma'el, "Do not kill us, for we have wheat, and barley, and oil, and honey hidden in the field." So he held back and did not kill them among their brothers.

9 And the pit into which Yishma'el had thrown all the corpses of the men whom he had slain, because of Gedalyahu, was the same one Asa the sovereign had made for fear of Ba'asha sovereign of Yisra'el - Yishma'el son of Nethanyahu had filled it with the slain.

10 Then Yishma'el took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mitspah, the sovereign's daughters and all the people who were left in Mitspah, whom Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, had entrusted to Gedalyahu son of Aḥiqam. And Yishma'el son of Nethanyahu took them captive and went to go over to the Ammonites.

11 But Yoḥanan son of Qarəaḥ and all the commanders of the army that were with him heard of all the evil that Yishma'el son of Nethanyah had done,
12 so they took all the men and went to fight with Yishma'el son of Nethanyah. And they found him by the great pool that is in Giḇ'on.

13 And it came to be, when all the people who were with Yishma'el saw Yoḥanan son of Qarəaḥ, and all the commanders of the army who were with him, that they were glad.

14 And all the people whom Yishma'el had taken captive from Mitspah turned around, and came back, and went to Yoḥanan son of Qarəaḥ.

15 But Yishma'el the son of Nethanyah escaped from Yoḥanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then Yoḥanan son of Qarəaḥ, and all the commanders of the army that were with him, took from Mitspah all the rest of the people whom he had recovered from Yishma'el son of Nethanyah after he had murdered Gedalyahu son of Aḥiqam - the mighty men of battle and the women and the children and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Giḇ'on.

17 And they departed and dwelt in the lodging place of Kimham, which is near Bəyth Leḥem, to go to enter Mitsrayim, 18 because of the Kasdites. For they were afraid of them, because Yishma'el son of Nethanyah had smitten Gedalyahu son of Aḥiqam, whom the sovereign of Babel had made governor in the land.

42 Then all the commanders of the army, and Yoḥanan son of Qarəaḥ, and Yezanyah son of Hoshayah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, came near

2 and said to Yirmeyahu the nabi, “We beg you, let our petition be acceptable to you, and pray for us to אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Elohim, for all this remnant, for we are few left of many, as your eyes see us.

3 “And let אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Elohim show us the way in which we should walk and the word we should do.”

4 And Yirmeyahu the nabi said to them, “I have heard. See, I am praying to אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Elohim according to your words, and it shall be that I declare to you all the word אֱלֹהֵינוּ answers you. I withhold not a word from you.”

5 And they said to Yirmeyahu, “Let אֱלֹהֵינוּ be a true and steadfast witness between us, if we do not do according to all the word which אֱלֹהֵינוּ your Elohim sends us by you.

6 “Whether good or evil, let us obey the voice of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim to whom we send you, in order that it might be well with us when we obey the voice of אֱלֹהֵינוּ our Elohim.”

7 And after ten days it came to be that the word of אֱלֹהֵינוּ came to Yirmeyahu.

8 So he called Yoḥanan son of Qarəah, and all the commanders of the army which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

9 and said to them, “Thus said אֱלֹהֵינוּ, the Elohim of Yisra’el, to whom you sent me to present your petition before Him,

10 ‘If you would indeed stay in this land, then I shall build you and not pull you down, and I shall plant you and not pluck you up. For I have relented of the evil I have done to you.

11 ‘Do not be afraid of the sovereign of Babel, of whom you are afraid. Do not be afraid of him,’ declares אלהים, 'for I am with you, to save you and deliver you from his hand.

12 'And I shall show you compassion, so that he has compassion on you and let you return to your own land.'

13 "But if you say, 'We are not staying in this land,' and so disobey the voice of אלהים your Elohim,

14 saying, 'No, but we are going to the land of Mitsrayim so that we see no fighting, nor hear the sound of the ram's horn, nor hunger for bread, and there we shall stay,'

15 then hear the word of אלהים, O remnant of Yahudah! Thus said אלהים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, 'If you indeed turn your faces to enter Mitsrayim, and shall go to sojourn there,

16 then it shall be that the sword which you feared overtakes you there in the land of Mitsrayim, and the scarcity of food of which you were afraid clings to you there in Mitsrayim, and you die there.

17 'And so it shall be with all the men who turned their faces to go to Mitsrayim to sojourn there: they shall die by the sword, by scarcity of food, and by pestilence, and not one of them shall survive or escape from the evil I am bringing upon them.'

18 "For thus said אלהים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra'el, 'As My displeasure and My wrath have been poured out on the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, so shall My wrath be poured out on you when you enter Mitsrayim. And you shall be an oath, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach, and you shall see this place no more.'

19 "אלהים has spoken about you, O remnant of Yahudah, 'Do not go to Mitsrayim!' Know for certain that I have warned you this day.

20 "For you deceived yourselves when you sent me to אלהים your Elohim, saying, 'Pray for us to אלהים our

Elohim, and according to all that אִתְּךָ your Elohim says, so declare to us and we shall do it.’

21 “So I have declared it to you today, but you have not obeyed the voice of אִתְּךָ your Elohim in all which He has sent me to you.

22 “And now, know for certain that you shall die by the sword, by scarcity of food, and by pestilence in the place where you have desired to go to sojourn.”

43 And it came to be, when Yirmeyahu had ended speaking all these words to all the people - all the words of אִתְּךָ their Elohim, for which אִתְּךָ their Elohim had sent him to them -

2 that Azaryahu son of Hoshayah, and Yoḥanan son of Qarēah, and all the proud men spoke, saying to Yirmeyahu, “You are speaking a lie! אִתְּךָ our Elohim has not sent you to say, ‘Do not go to Mitsrayim to sojourn there.’

3 “For Baruk son of Nēriyah is moving you against us, to give us into the hand of the Kasdites, to put us to death or exile us to Babel.”

4 So Yoḥanan son of Qarēah, and all the commanders of the army, and all the people disobeyed the voice of אִתְּךָ, to stay in the land of Yahudah.

5 And Yoḥanan son of Qarēah and all the commanders of the army took all the remnant of Yahudah who had returned to dwell in the land of Yahudah, from all nations where they had been driven -

6 the men, and the women, and the children, and the sovereign’s daughters, and every being whom Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, had left with Gedalyahu son of Aḥiqam, son of Shaphan, and Yirmeyahu the naḇi, and Baruk son of Nēriyah.

7 So they went to the land of Mitsrayim, for they disobeyed the voice of אֱלֹהִים. And they went as far as Taḥpanḥes.

8 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to Yirmeyahu in Taḥpanḥes, saying,

9 “Take large stones in your hand, and you shall hide them before the eyes of the men of Yahudāh, in the clay in the brick courtyard which is at the entrance to Pharaoh’s house in Taḥpanḥes.

10 “Then you shall say to them, ‘Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’ēl, “See, I am sending, and I shall bring Nebuḳadnetzar the sovereign of Babel, My servant. And I shall place his throne above these stones that I have hidden. And he shall spread his canopy over them.

11 “And he shall come and smite the land of Mitsrayim. Death to those for death, and captivity to those for captivity, and the sword to those for the sword.

12 “And he shall light fire to the houses of the mighty ones of Mitsrayim. And he shall burn them and take them captive. And he shall cover himself with the land of Mitsrayim, as a shepherd puts on his garment, and he shall go out from there in peace.

13 “And he shall break the stone pillars of Bēyth Shemesh which are in the land of Mitsrayim, and he shall burn the houses of the mighty ones of the Mitsrites with fire.” ’ ’ ”

44 The word that came to Yirmeyahu concerning all the Yahudim who were dwelling in the land of Mitsrayim - who were dwelling at Miḡdol, and at Taḥpanḥes, and at Noph, and in the land of Pathros, saying,

2 “Thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’ēl, ‘You yourselves have seen all the evil that I have brought on Yerushalayim and on all the cities of Yahudāh. And see, this day they are a ruin, and no one dwells in them,

3 because of their evil which they have done to provoke Me, by going to burn incense by serving other mighty ones whom they did not know, they nor you nor your fathers.

4 ‘And I sent to you all My servants the nebi’im, rising early and sending them, saying, “Please do not do this abominable matter that I hate!”

5 ‘But they did not listen or incline their ear, to turn from their evil, not to burn incense to other mighty ones.

6 ‘So My wrath and My displeasure were poured out and burned in the cities of Yahudāh and in the streets of Yerushalayim, and they became a ruin and a wasteland, as it is this day.’

7 “And now, thus said יהוה, the Elohim of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’ēl, ‘Why are you doing this great evil against your lives, to cut off from you man and woman, child and infant, from the midst of Yahudāh, leaving none to remain,

8 by provoking Me with the works of your hands, by burning incense to other mighty ones in the land of Mitsrayim where you have gone to dwell, to cut yourselves off and be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 ‘Have you forgotten the evils of your fathers, and the evils of the sovereigns of Yahudāh, and the evils of their wives, and your own evils, and the evils of your wives, which they have done in the land of Yahudāh and in the streets of Yerushalayim?

10 ‘To this day they have not been humbled, nor have they revered, nor have they walked in My Torah and in My Laws that I put before you and your fathers.’

11 “Therefore thus said יהוה of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, ‘See, I am turning My face against you for evil and for cutting off all Yahudah.

12 ‘And I shall take the remnant of Yahudah who have turned their faces to go into the land of Mitsrayim to sojourn there. And they shall all be consumed in the land of Mitsrayim - fall by the sword, consumed by scarcity of food. From the least to the greatest they shall die, by the sword and by scarcity of food. And they shall be a cursing and an astonishment and a curse and a reproach!

13 ‘And I shall punish those dwelling in the land of Mitsrayim, as I have punished Yerushalayim, by the sword, by scarcity of food, and by pestilence.

14 ‘And none of the remnant of Yahudah who have gone into the land of Mitsrayim to sojourn there shall escape or survive, lest they return to the land of Yahudah, to which they are longing to return to dwell there. For they shall not return, except those who escape.’ ”

15 Then all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to other mighty ones, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, and all the people who dwelt in the land of Mitsrayim, in Pathros, answered Yirmeyahu, saying,

16 “We are not going to listen to you in the matter about which you spoke to us in the Name of יהוה!

17 “But we shall do whatever has gone out of our own mouth, to burn incense to the sovereignty of the heavens and pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our sovereigns and our heads, in the cities of Yahudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim. And we had plenty of food, and were well-off, and saw no evil.

18 “But since we ceased burning incense to the sovereignty of the heavens and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked all and have been consumed by the sword and by scarcity of food.

19 “And when we burned incense to the sovereignty of the heavens and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make cakes for her, to idolize her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?”

20 Then Yirmeyahu spoke to all the people - to the men and to the women, and to all the people who had given him that answer, saying,

21 “As for the incense that you burned in the cities of Yahudah and in the streets of Yerushalayim, you and your fathers, your sovereigns and your heads, and the people of the land, did not אֱלֹהִים remember them? And it came into His heart!

22 “And אֱלֹהִים could no longer bear it, because of the evil of your deeds and because of the abominations which you did. Therefore your land is a ruin, an object of astonishment, a curse, and without an inhabitant, as it is this day.

23 “Because you have burned incense and because you have sinned against אֱלֹהִים, and did not obey the voice of אֱלֹהִים or walk in His Torah, in His Laws or in His Witnesses, therefore this evil has befallen you, as at this day.”

24 And Yirmeyahu said to all the people and to all the women, “Hear the word of אֱלֹהִים, all Yahudah who are in the land of Mitsrayim!

25 “Thus spoke אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, saying, ‘You and your wives have spoken with your mouths, and have filled with your hands, saying, “We shall perform our vows that we have made, to burn incense to the sovereignty of the heavens and pour out drink offerings to her.” Then confirm your vows and perform your vows!’

26 “Therefore hear the word of יהוה, all Yahudāh who are dwelling in the land of Mitsrayim, ‘See, I have sworn by My great Name,’ declares יהוה, ‘My Name shall no longer be called upon by the mouth of any man of Yahudāh in all the land of Mitsrayim, saying, “As the Adon יהוה lives...”’

27 ‘See, I am watching over them for evil and not for good. And all the men of Yahudāh who are in the land of Mitsrayim shall be consumed by the sword and by scarcity of food, until they come to an end.

28 ‘And those who escape the sword, few in number, shall return from the land of Mitsrayim to the land of Yahudāh. And all the remnant of Yahudāh, who came into the land of Mitsrayim to sojourn there, shall know whose word is established, Mine or theirs.

29 ‘And this is the sign to you,’ declares יהוה, ‘that I am punishing you in this place, so that you know that My words are certainly established against you for evil.’

30 “Thus said יהוה, ‘See, I am giving Pharaoh Hophra sovereign of Mitsrayim into the hand of his enemies and into the hand of those who seek his life, as I gave Tsidqiyahu sovereign of Yahudāh into the hand of Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel, his enemy who sought his life.’ ”

45 The word that Yirmeyahu the nabi spoke to Baruk son of Nēriyah, when he had written these words in a book from the mouth of Yirmeyahu, in the fourth year of Yahoyaqim son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahudāh, saying,

2 “Thus said יהוה, the Elohim of Yisra’ēl, concerning you, Baruk:

3 ‘You have said, “Woe to me now! For יהוה has added grief to my pain. I have been wearied with my sighing, and I have found no rest.” ’

4 “Say this to him, ‘Thus said ירמיהו, “See, what I have built I am breaking down, and what I have planted I am plucking up, that is, the entire land.

5 “And do you seek great matters for yourself? Do not seek them, for look, I am bringing evil on all flesh,” declares ירמיהו. “But I shall give your life to you as a prize in all places, wherever you go.” ’ ”

46 The word of ירמיהו which came to Yirmeyahu the nabi concerning the gentiles:

2 For Mitsrayim, concerning the army of Pharaoh Neḵo, sovereign of Mitsrayim, which was by the River Perath in Karkemish, and which Nebūḳaḏnetṣar the sovereign of Babel had smitten in the fourth year of Yahoyaḳim, son of Yoshiyahu, sovereign of Yahudāh:

3 “Prepare the large and the small shield, and draw near to battle!

4 “Harness the horses, and mount up, you horsemen! Stand with helmets, polish the spears, put on the armour!

5 “Why do I see them afraid, turned back? And their fighters are beaten down. And they have fled in haste, and did not look back, for fear was all around,” declares ירמיהו.

6 Do not let the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape. They shall stumble and fall toward the north, by the River Perath.

7 Who is this rising like a flood, whose waters surge about like the rivers?

8 Mitsrayim rises like a flood, and its waters surge about like the rivers. And he says, ‘Let me rise and cover the earth; let me destroy the city and its inhabitants.’

9 Go up, O horses, and rage, O chariots! And let the mighty men go forth - Kush and Put who handle the shield, and Luḏ who handle and bend the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts, a day of vengeance, to revenge Himself on His adversaries. And the sword shall devour, and be satisfied and made drunk with their blood. For the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts has a slaughtering in the land of the north by the River Perath.

11 Go up to Gil'ad and take balm, O maiden, the daughter of Mitsrayim. In vain you have used many remedies, there is no healing for you.

12 Nations have heard of your shame, and your cry has filled the land. For the mighty has stumbled against the mighty, they have both fallen together.

13 The word which אֲדֹנָי spoke to Yirmeyahu the nabi, about the coming of Neḅuḅadnetstsar sovereign of Babel, to smite the land of Mitsrayim:

14 "Declare in Mitsrayim, and let it be heard in Miḡdol. And let it be heard in Noph and in Taḥpanḥes. Say, 'Stand fast and be prepared, for a sword shall devour all around you.'

15 "Why were your strong ones swept away? They did not stand because אֲדֹנָי drove them away.

16 "He made many stumble; indeed, they fell over each other, and said, 'Arise! Let us go back to our own people, and to the land of our birth, away from the oppressing sword.'

17 "There they cried, 'Pharaoh, sovereign of Mitsrayim, is but a noise. He has let the appointed time pass by!'

18 "As I live," declares the Sovereign, whose Name is אֲדֹנָי of hosts, "For as Taḅor is among the mountains, and as Karmel by the sea, he shall come.

19 “O you daughter dwelling in Mitsrayim, prepare yourself to go into exile! For Noph shall become a waste and a ruin, and be burned, without inhabitant.

20 “Mitsrayim is like a very pretty heifer, but destruction comes, it comes from the north.

21 “Her hired ones too, in her midst, are like fattened calves, for they too shall turn, they shall flee away together. They shall not stand, for the day of their calamity has come upon them, the time of their punishment.

22 “Its sound moves along like a serpent, for they move on like an army and come against her with axes, like woodcutters.

23 “They shall cut down her forest,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “for it is not searched, because they are more numerous than locusts, and without number.

24 “The daughter of Mitsrayim shall be put to shame. She shall be given into the hand of the people of the north.”

25 אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, has said, “See, I am bringing punishment on Amon of No, and on Pharaoh, and on Mitsrayim, and on their mighty ones, and on their sovereigns, and on Pharaoh and on those trusting in him.

26 “And I shall give them into the hand of those who seek their lives, into the hand of Nebūkadnetzar sovereign of Babel and into the hand of his servants. And afterward it shall be inhabited as in the days of old,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

27 “But as for you, do not fear, O My servant Ya’aqob, and do not be discouraged, O Yisra’el! For look, I am saving you from afar, and your descendants from the land of their captivity. And Ya’aqob shall return, and shall have rest and be at ease, with no one disturbing.

28 “Do not fear, O Ya’aqob My servant,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “for I am with you. Though I make a complete end of all the gentiles to which I have driven you, yet I do not make a complete end of you. But I shall reprove you in right-ruling, and by no means leave you unpunished.”

47 The word of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  that came to Yirmeyahu the nabi concerning the Pelishtites, before Pharaoh smote Azzah:

2 Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “See, waters are rising out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood. And they shall overflow the land and all that is in it, the city and those who dwell within. And men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.

3 “At the noise of the stamping hooves of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look to their children, because of weakness of hands,

4 because of the day that shall come to ravage all the Pelishtites, to cut off from Tsor and Tsidon every helper that survives. For  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  is ravaging the Pelishtites, the remnant of the isle of Kaphtor.

5 “Baldness shall come upon Azzah, Ashqelon shall be cut off with the remnant of their valley. Till when would you cut yourself?

6 “O you sword of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , how long till you rest? Put yourself up into your sheath, rest and be still!

7 “How shall it rest, when  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  has given it a command? Against Ashqelon and against the seashore - there He has appointed it.”

48 Concerning Mo’ab. This is what  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el said, “Woe to Nebo! For it is ravaged, Qiryathayim is put to shame, captured. The high stronghold is put to shame and broken down.

2 “There is praise for Mo’ab no longer. In Heshbon they have devised evil against her, ‘Come and let us cut it off as a nation.’ O Madmēn, you are also cut off, a sword goes after you.

3 “Listen! An outcry from Horonayim, ravaging and great destruction!

4 “Mo’ab shall be destroyed, her little ones shall cry out.

5 “For on the ascent to Luhith they go up weeping bitterly. For in the descent of Horonayim the enemies shall hear a cry of destruction.

6 “Flee, deliver your own lives! And be like a bush in the wilderness.

7 “For because you have trusted in your works and your treasures, you shall be captured. And Kemosh shall go forth into exile, his priests and his heads together.

8 “And a ravager shall come into every city, no one escapes. And the valley shall perish, and the plain be destroyed, as אִיִּי has spoken.

9 “Give wings to Mo’ab, for she has to flee away, and her cities become a ruin, with no one to dwell in them.

10 “Cursed is he who is slack in doing the work of אִיִּי, and cursed is he who withholds his sword from blood.

11 “Mo’ab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his dregs, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, nor has he gone into exile. Therefore his flavour has stayed in him, and his fragrance is unchanged.

12 “Therefore see, the days are coming,” declares אִיִּי, “when I shall send him tilters, who shall tilt him over and empty his vessels and break the pitchers.

13 “And Mo’ab shall be ashamed because of Kemosh, as the house of Yisra’el was ashamed of Běyth Ĕl, their refuge.

14 “How do you say, ‘We are mighty and strong men for battle’?

15 “Mo’ab is ravaged and her cities have been entered. And her chosen young men have gone down to the slaughter,” declares the Sovereign, whose Name is יהוה of hosts.

16 “The calamity of Mo’ab is near to come and his affliction hurries fast.

17 “Lament for him, all you who are around him. And all you who know his name, say, ‘How the strong sceptre has been broken, the staff of splendour!’

18 “Come down from your esteem, and sit in thirst, O inhabitant, daughter of Dibon. For the ravager of Mo’ab shall come against you, he shall destroy your strongholds.

19 “Stand by the way and watch, O inhabitant of Aro’er. Ask him who flees and her who escapes; say, ‘What has been done?’

20 “Mo’ab has been put to shame, for it has been broken down. Howl and cry! Let it be heard in Arnon that Mo’ab is ravaged.

21 “And judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon and on Yahatsah and on Mopha’ath,

22 and on Dibon and Nebo and on Běyth Diblathayim,

23 and on Qiryathayim and on Běyth Gamul and on Běyth Me’on,

24 and on Qeriyoth and on Botsrah and on all the cities of the land of Mo’ab, far and near.

25 “The horn of Mo’ab has been cut off, and his arm has been broken,” declares יהוה.

26 “Make him drunk, because he has made himself great against אִיִּצְרָאֵל. Mo’ab shall splash in his vomit, and he shall also be in mockery.

27 “And was not Yisra’el a mockery to you? Was he found among thieves? For whenever you speak of him, you shake your head.

28 “O inhabitants of Mo’ab, leave the cities and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove making a nest in the sides of the cave’s mouth.

29 “We have heard of the pride of Mo’ab. He is very proud of his loftiness and arrogance and pride, and of the haughtiness of his heart.”

30 “I know his wrath,” declares אִיִּצְרָאֵל, “and his boastings are untrue. His deeds are false.

31 “Therefore I wail for Mo’ab, and I cry out for all Mo’ab. I mourn for the men of Qir H̄eres.

32 “O vine of Sibmah! I weep for you with the weeping of Ya’zēr. Your branches have passed over the sea, they have come to the sea of Ya’zēr. The ravager has fallen on your summer fruit and your grape harvest.

33 “Joy and gladness have been taken away from the orchard and from the land of Mo’ab. And I have made wine to cease from the winepresses. No one treads with shouting - the shouting is no shouting!

34 “From the outcry of H̄eshbon unto El’alēh, unto Yahats, they shall raise their voice, from Tso’ar to H̄oronayim, like a three-year-old heifer, for even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.

35 “And I shall make an end in Mo’ab to him who offers in the high places and burns incense to his mighty ones,” declares אִיִּצְרָאֵל.

36 “So My heart sounds for Mo’ab like flutes, and My heart sounds for the men of Qir H̄eres like flutes. Therefore the wealth they made shall be gone.

37 “For every head is bald, and every beard clipped - cuts on all the hands, and sackcloth on the loins.

38 “On all the house-tops of Mo’ab and in its streets it is all lamentation, for I have broken Mo’ab like a vessel in which no one delights,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

39 “How she has been broken down! They shall wail! How Mo’ab has turned her back with shame! So Mo’ab shall be a mockery and a horror to all those about her.”

40 For thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “See, he soars like an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Mo’ab.

41 “Qeriyoth shall be captured, and the strongholds seized. And the heart of the mighty men in Mo’ab on that day shall be like the heart of a woman in labour.

42 “And Mo’ab shall be destroyed as a people, because he has made himself great against  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

43 “Fear and the pit and the snare are upon you, O inhabitant of Mo’ab,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

44 “He who flees from the fear falls into the pit, and he who gets out of the pit is caught in the snare. For I am bringing upon Mo’ab the year of their punishment,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

45 “Those who fled stood powerless under the shadow of Heshbon. But a fire shall come out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and consume the brow of Mo’ab and the crown of the head of the sons of Sha’on.

46 “Woe to you, O Mo’ab! The people of Kemosh have perished, for your sons have been taken into exile, and your daughters into exile.

47 “But I shall turn back the captivity of Mo’ab in the latter days,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ . Thus far is the judgment of Mo’ab.

49 Concerning the Ammonites: Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ , “Has Yisra’el no sons? Has he no heir? Why has Malkam taken possession of Gad, and his people dwell in its cities?

2 “Therefore see, the days are coming,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ , “when I shall sound a battle cry in Rabbah of the Ammonites. And it shall be a heap, a wasteland, and her villages shall be burned with fire. Then Yisra’el shall dispossess those who dispossessed him,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ .

3 “Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is ravaged! Cry, daughters of Rabbah, gird on sackcloth! Lament and diligently search by the walls, for Malkam shall go into exile, with his priests and his heads.

4 “Why do you boast in the valleys, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter who is trusting in her treasures, saying, ‘Who would come against me?’

5 “See, I am bringing fear upon you, from all those around you,” declares the Adon  $\text{יהוה}$  of hosts. “And you shall be driven out, each one straight ahead, with no one to bring home the wanderer.

6 “And after this I turn back the captivity of the children of Ammon,” declares  $\text{יהוה}$ .

7 Concerning Edom: Thus said  $\text{יהוה}$  of hosts, “Is there no more wisdom in Těman? Has counsel been lost to those with understanding? Has their wisdom vanished?

8 “Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan! For I shall bring the calamity of Ęsaw upon him, the time that I shall punish him.

9 “If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? Even thieves by night would destroy until they had enough!

10 “But as for Me, I shall make Ęsaw bare. I shall uncover his hiding places, so that he is unable to conceal himself. His seed is ravaged, his brothers and his neighbours, and he is no more.

11 “Leave your fatherless children, let Me keep them alive. And let your widows trust in Me.”

12 For thus said אֱלֹהִים, “See, those whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have certainly drunk. And are you the one to go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but certainly drink of it.

13 “For I have sworn by Myself,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “that Botsrah is to become a ruin, a reproach, a waste, and a curse, and all its cities become everlasting wastes.”

14 I have heard a report from אֱלֹהִים, and an envoy has been sent to the nations, “Gather together, come against her, and rise up to battle!

15 “For look, I shall make you small among nations, despised among men.

16 “The dread for you, the pride of your heart, has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, holding the height of the hill! Though you make your nest as high as the eagle, from there I bring you down,” declares the Adon.

17 “And Edom shall be a ruin, everyone who passes by it is astonished and whistles at all its plagues.

18 “As in the overthrow of Sedom and Amarah and their neighbouring cities,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “No one shall dwell there, nor would a son of man sojourn in it.

19 “See, he comes up like a lion from the pride of the Yardēn against the home of the strong. But in an instant I shall make him run away from her. And who is the Chosen One to appoint over her? For who is like Me? And who summons Me? And who is that Shepherd who stands before Me?”

20 Therefore hear the counsel of אֱלֹהִים which He has counselled concerning Edom, and the purposes He has purposed concerning the inhabitants of Těman: the least of the flock shall drag them away! He shall make their pasture a waste before them!

21 The earth shall be shaken at the noise of their fall. There is an outcry! Its noise is heard at the Sea of Reeds.

22 See, like an eagle he flies up, and spreads his wings over Botsrah. And the heart of the mighty men of Edom in that day shall be like the heart of a woman in her pain.

23 Concerning Dammeseq: "Ḥamath and Arpad have been put to shame, for they have heard an evil report. They have been melted in anxiety, like the sea, unable to rest.

24 "Dammeseq has become feeble, she has turned to flee, and trembling has seized her. Distress and pain have taken hold of her like a woman in labour.

25 "How is the city of praise deserted, the city of My joy!

26 "Therefore her young men fall in her streets, and all the men of battle are cut off in that day," declares אֱלֹהֵינוּ of hosts.

27 "And I shall kindle a fire in the wall of Dammeseq, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-Hadad."

28 To Qēdar and to the reigns of Ḥatsor, which Nebūkadnetzar sovereign of Babel smote: Thus said אֱלֹהֵינוּ, "Arise, go up to Qēdar, and ravage the men of the East!

29 "Their tents and their flocks, their curtains and all their vessels shall be taken. And they shall take away their camels for themselves. And they shall cry out to them, 'Fear is on every side!'

30 "Flee, go away! Dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Ḥatsor!" declares אֱלֹהֵינוּ. "For Nebūkadnetzar sovereign of Babel has taken counsel against you, and has devised a plan against you.

31 “Arise, go up to the nation at ease that dwells safely,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ . “It has no gates or bars, they dwell alone.

32 “And their camels shall become plunder, and their large herds booty. And I shall scatter them to all winds, those who cut off the corner, and bring their calamity from all its sides,” declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

33 “Hatsor shall be a habitation for jackals, a desert forever. No one dwells there, nor does son of man sojourn in it.”

34 The word of  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  that came to Yirmeyahu the nabi concerning Ęylam, in the beginning of the reign of Tsidqiyahu, the sovereign of Yahudah, saying,

35 “Thus said  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  of hosts, ‘See, I am breaking the bow of Ęylam, the chief of their might.

36 ‘And I shall bring upon Ęylam the four winds from the four quarters of the shamayim, and scatter them toward all those winds. And there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Ęylam do not go.

37 ‘And I shall break Ęylam before their enemies and before those who seek their life. And I shall bring evil upon them, my burning displeasure,’ declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ . ‘And I shall send the sword after them until I have consumed them.

38 ‘And I shall place My throne in Ęylam, and destroy from there the sovereign and the heads,’ declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .

39 ‘And it shall be in the latter days that turn back the captivity of Ęylam,’ declares  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$ .”

50 The word that  $\text{אֱלֹהִים}$  spoke concerning Babel, concerning the land of the Kasdites by Yirmeyahu the nabi.

2 “Declare among the nations, and let it be heard. And lift up a banner, let it be heard, and do not conceal it. Say, ‘Babel shall be taken, Běl shall be put to shame, Merodāḳ shall be broken, her images shall be put to shame, her idols shall be broken.'

3 For a nation shall come up against her from the north, which shall make her land waste, and none shall dwell in it. They shall flee, they shall go, both man and beast.

4 "In those days and at that time," declares אִיִּזְרָאֵל, "the children of Yisra'ël shall come, they and the children of Yahudāh together, weeping as they come, and seek אִיִּזְרָאֵל their Elohim.

5 "They shall ask the way to Tsiyon, their faces toward it, 'Come and let us join ourselves to אִיִּזְרָאֵל, in an everlasting Covenant, never to be forgotten.'

6 "My people have been wandering sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains. They have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place.

7 "All who found them have devoured them. And their adversaries have said, 'We are not guilty, because they have sinned against אִיִּזְרָאֵל, the Home of righteousness, and the Expectation of their fathers: אִיִּזְרָאֵל.'

8 "Flee from the midst of Babel, come out of the land of the Kasdites. And be as rams before a flock.

9 "For look, I am stirring up and bringing up against Babel an assembly of great nations from a land of the north, and they shall array themselves against her. From there she shall be captured - their arrows are like those of a mighty skilled man, not returning empty-handed.

10 "And Kasdim shall become plunder, all who plunder her shall satisfy themselves," declares אִיִּזְרָאֵל.

11 "Because you were glad, because you rejoiced, you who plunder My inheritance, because you have grown fat like a heifer threshing grain, and you neigh like stallions,

12 your mother shall be greatly ashamed. She who bore you shall be humiliated. Look, the last of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land and a desert.

13 “Because of the wrath of אֲשׁוּר she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be deserted - all of it. Everyone passing by Babel shall be astonished and whistle at all her plagues.

14 “Arrange yourselves against Babel all around, all you who bend the bow. Shoot at her, spare no arrows, for she has sinned against אֲשׁוּר.

15 “Shout against her all around. She has given her hand, her foundations have fallen, her walls are thrown down, for it is the vengeance of אֲשׁוּר. Take vengeance on her. As she has done, so do to her.

16 “Cut off the sower from Babel, and him who handles the sickle at harvest time. From before the sword of the oppressor each one turns to his own people, and each one flees to his own land.

17 “Yisra’el is a scattered sheep, the lions have driven him away. First the sovereign of Ashshur devoured him, and now, at last, this Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel has broken his bones.”

18 Therefore thus said אֲשׁוּר of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “See, I am punishing the sovereign of Babel and his land, as I have punished the sovereign of Ashshur.

19 “And I shall bring back Yisra’el to his pasture, and he shall feed on Karmel and Bashan. And his being shall be satisfied on Mount Ephrayim and Gil’ad.

20 “In those days and at that time,” declares אֲשׁוּר, “the wickedness of Yisra’el shall be searched for, but there shall be none; and the sin of Yahudah, but none shall be found. For I shall pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.

21 “Go up against the land of Merathayim, against it, and against the inhabitants of Peqod. Slay and put them under the ban,” declares אֱלֹהִים, “and do according to all that I have commanded you.

22 “There is a sound of battle in the land, and of great destruction.

23 “How the hammer of all the earth has been cut off and broken! How Babel has become a ruin among the nations!

24 “I have laid a snare for you, and you were captured, O Babel, and you yourself did not know! You have been found and also caught, because you strove against אֱלֹהִים.”

25 אֱלֹהִים has opened His armoury, and has brought out the weapons of His displeasure, for the Adon Elohim of hosts has a work to do in the land of the Kasdites.

26 Come against her from every quarter, open her storehouses, pile her up as heaps of ruins, and put her under the ban. Let her have no remnant.

27 Slay all her bulls, let them go down to the slaughter. Woe to them! For their day has come, the time of their punishment.

28 Listen! They flee and escape from the land of Babel, to declare in Tsiyon the vengeance of אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, the vengeance of His Hēykal.

29 “Summon archers against Babel. All you who bend the bow, encamp against it all around, let no one escape. Repay her according to her work, do to her according to all she has done. For she has been proud against אֱלֹהִים, against the Qadosh One of Yisra’el.

30 “Therefore her young men shall fall in the streets, and all her men of battle shall perish in that day,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

31 “See, I am against you, O proud one!” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי of hosts, “for your day has come, the time for your punishment.

32 “And the proud one shall stumble, and he shall fall, with no one to raise him up. And I shall kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all around him.”

33 Thus said אֲדֹנָי of hosts, “The children of Yisra’el were oppressed, along with the children of Yahudah. And all who took them captive have held them fast, they refused to let them go.

34 “Their Redeemer is strong, אֲדֹנָי of hosts is His Name. He shall strongly plead their case, so as to give rest to the land, but unrest to the inhabitants of Babel.

35 “A sword is upon the Kasdites,” declares אֲדֹנָי, “and it is upon the inhabitants of Babel, and upon her heads and upon her wise men.

36 “A sword is upon the liars, and they shall be fools. A sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be broken down.

37 “A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mixed peoples who are in her midst, and they shall become like women. A sword is upon her treasures, and they shall be plundered.

38 “A sword is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up. For it is a land of carved images, and they boast about their idols.

39 “Therefore the wild desert beasts shall dwell with the jackals, and the ostriches dwell in it. And it shall never again be inhabited, nor dwelt in, unto all generations.

40 “As Elohim overthrew Sedom and Amarah and their neighbouring cities,” declares אֲדֹנָי, “so no one would dwell there, nor would son of man sojourn in it.

41 “See, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation and many sovereigns stirred up from the ends of the earth.

42 “They lay hold of bow and spear, they are cruel and they show no compassion. They sound like the roaring sea, and ride on horses, put in array, like a man for the battle, against you, O daughter of Babel.

43 “The sovereign of Babel has heard the report about them, and his hands became weak. Distress has seized him, pain like that of a woman in labour.

44 “See, he comes up like a lion from the pride of the Yardēn, against the enduring pasture. But in an instant I shall make them run away from her. And who is the Chosen One whom I appoint against her? For who is like Me? Who summons Me? And who is that Shepherd who stands before Me?”

45 Therefore hear the counsel of אִיִּזְרָאֵל which He has counselled concerning Babel, and His purposes He has purposed concerning the land of the Kasdites: the least of the flock shall drag them away! He shall make their pasture a waste before them!

46 At the sound of Babel’s capture the earth shall be shaken, and the outcry shall be heard among the nations.

51 Thus said אִיִּזְרָאֵל, “See, I am stirring up the spirit of a destroyer against Babel, against those who dwell in Leḇ - My opponents.

2 And I shall send winnowers to Babel, who shall winnow her and empty her land. For they shall be against her all around, in the day of evil.

3 “Let the archer draw his bow, and let him stand ready in his armour. Do not spare her young men, put all her army under the ban.

- 4 “And the slain shall fall in the land of the Kasdites, and the pierced-through in her streets.
- 5 “For neither Yisra’ël nor Yahudāh is widowed by his Elohim, אֱלֹהִים of hosts, though their land has been filled with sin against the Qadosh One of Yisra’ël.”
- 6 Flee from the midst of Babel and let each one save his life! Do not be cut off in her wickedness, for this is the time of the vengeance of אֱלֹהִים, the recompense He is repaying her.
- 7 Babel was a golden cup in the hand of אֱלֹהִים, making drunk all the earth. The nations drank her wine, that is why the nations went mad!
- 8 Babel shall suddenly fall and be broken. Howl for her! Take balm for her pain - if so be, she might be healed.
- 9 We would have healed Babel, but she is not healed. Let us leave her and each go to his own land, for her judgment reaches to the shamayim and is lifted up to the clouds.
- 10 אֱלֹהִים has brought forth our righteousness. Come and let us declare in Tsiyon the work of אֱלֹהִים our Elohim.
- 11 Polish the arrows! Put on the shields! אֱלֹהִים has stirred up the spirit of the sovereigns of the Madites. For His plan is against Babel to destroy it, because it is the vengeance of אֱלֹהִים, the vengeance for His Hēykal.
- 12 Lift up a banner on the walls of Babel, strengthen the watch, station the watchmen, prepare the ambush. For אֱלֹהִים has both planned and done what He spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babel.
- 13 You who dwell upon many waters, great in treasures, your end has come, the measure of your greedy gain.

14 יהוה of hosts has sworn by Himself, “I shall certainly fill you with men, as with locusts, and they shall lift up a shout against you.”

15 He made the earth by His power, He established the world by His wisdom, and stretched out the shamayim by His understanding.

16 When He gives forth His voice the waters in the shamayim roar, and He makes vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; He makes lightnings for the rain, and He brings the wind out of His treasuries.

17 All mankind has become too brutish to know, every smith has been put to shame by the carved image, for his moulded image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are worthless, a work of mockery. In the time of their punishment they perish.

19 The Portion of Ya’aqob is not like them, for He is the Maker of all, and Yisra’el is the tribe of His inheritance. יהוה of hosts is His Name.

20 “You are My battle-axe, weapons of battle, and with you I shall break nations in pieces, and with you I shall destroy reigns.

21 “And with you I shall break in pieces the horse and its rider, and with you I shall break in pieces the chariot and its rider.

22 “And with you I shall break in pieces man and woman, and with you I shall break in pieces old and young, and with you I shall break in pieces the young man and the maiden.

23 “And with you I shall break in pieces the shepherd and his flock, and with you I shall break in pieces the farmer and his yoke of oxen. And with you I shall break in pieces governors and rulers.

24 “And I shall repay Babel and all the inhabitants of Kasdim for all the evil they have done in Tsiyon before your eyes,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

25 “See, I am against you, O destroying mountain, who destroys all the earth,” declares אֱלֹהִים. “And I shall stretch out My hand against you. And I shall roll you down from the rocks, and make you a burnt mountain.

26 “And they shall not take from you a stone for a corner nor a stone for a foundation, but you shall be a waste forever,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

27 Lift up a banner in the land, blow the ram’s horn among the nations! Prepare the nations against her, call the reigns together against her: Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz. Appoint a commander against her, bring up horses like hairy locusts.

28 Separate the nations against her, with the sovereigns of the Madites, its governors and all its rulers, all the land of his rule, 29 so that the land shakes and writhes in pain. For every plan of אֱלֹהִים shall be established against Babel, to make the land of Babel a ruin, without inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babel have ceased to fight, they remained in their strongholds. Their might has failed, they became like women, they have burned her dwelling places. The bars of her gate have been broken.

31 One runner runs to meet another, and one reporter to meet another, to report to the sovereign of Babel that his city is taken on all sides, 32 and the fords have been captured, and they have burned the reeds with fire, and the soldiers are startled.

33 For thus said אֱלֹהִים of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’el, “The daughter of Babel is like a threshing-floor at the time it is trodden. Yet a little while and the time of her harvest shall come.”

34 “Nebūkadnetstsar the sovereign of Babel has devoured us, he has crushed us, he has made us an empty vessel, he has swallowed us up like a dragon. He has filled his stomach with my delicacies, he has driven us away.

35 “Let the violence done to me and my flesh be upon Babel,” says the inhabitant of Tsiyon. And, “Let my blood be upon the inhabitants of Kasdim,” says Yerushalayim.

36 Therefore thus said אִיִּי, “See, I am pleading your case. And I shall take vengeance for you and dry up her sea and make her fountain dry.

37 “And Babel shall become a heap, a habitation of jackals, an astonishment and a hissing, without inhabitant.

38 “Together they roar like lions, they shall growl like lions’ cubs.

39 “In their heat I prepare their feasts. And I shall make them drunk, so that they rejoice, and sleep a never-ending sleep and not awake,” declares אִיִּי.

40 “I shall bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats.

41 “Oh, how Shēshaḳ has been captured, the praise of all the earth been seized! How Babel has become a ruin among the nations!

42 “The sea has risen over Babel, she has been covered with the roaring of its waves.

43 “Her cities have become a ruin, a dry land and a desert, a land where no one dwells, neither does a son of man pass by it.

44 “And I shall punish Bēl in Babel. And I shall make him spew out what he has swallowed, and nations shall no longer stream to him. Even the wall of Babel shall fall.

45 “Come out of her midst, My people! And let everyone deliver his being from the burning displeasure of אִיִּיז.

46 “And lest your heart grow faint, and you fear the report heard in the land - for a report shall come one year, and after that, in another year a report shall come, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler -

47 therefore see, the days are coming that I shall bring punishment on the carved images of Babel, and all her land shall be put to shame, and all her slain fall in her midst.

48 “And the shamayim and the earth and all that is in them shall shout for joy over Babel, for the ravagers shall come to her from the north,” declares אִיִּיז.

49 As Babel is to fall for the slain of Yisra’el, so for Babel the slain of all the earth shall fall.

50 You who have escaped the sword, go away! Do not stand still! Remember אִיִּיז from afar, and let Yerushalayim come to your heart.

51 We are ashamed because we have heard reproach. Shame has covered our faces, for strangers have come into the miqdashim of the House of אִיִּיז.

52 “Therefore see, the days are coming,” declares אִיִּיז, “that I shall bring punishment on her carved images, while the wounded groan throughout all her land.

53 “Though Babel should mount up to the shamayim, and though she should make the height of her strength inaccessible, ravagers shall come to her from Me,” declares אִיִּיז.

54 Listen! A cry from Babel, and great destruction from the land of the Kasdites,

55 because אִרְיָאֵל is ravaging Babel, and shall silence her loud voice. And her waves shall roar like great waters, the noise of their voice shall resound,

56 because the ravager shall come against her, against Babel, and her mighty men shall be captured. Every one of their bows shall be broken, for אִרְיָאֵל is the Ēl of recompense, He shall certainly repay.

57 “And I shall make her rulers drunk, and her wise men, her governors, and her deputies, and her mighty men. And they shall sleep a lasting sleep, and not awake,” declares the Sovereign, whose Name is אִרְיָאֵל of hosts.

58 Thus said אִרְיָאֵל of hosts, “The broad walls of Babel are completely demolished, and her high gates are burned with fire, and peoples labour in vain, and the nations weary themselves for fire.”

59 The word that Yirmeyahu the nabi commanded Serayah son of Nēriyah, son of Maḥsēyah, when he went with Tsidqiyahu the sovereign of Yahuḏah to Babel in the fourth year of his reign. And Serayah was a quartermaster.

60 So Yirmeyahu wrote in a book all the evil that would come upon Babel, all these words which have been written concerning Babel.

61 And Yirmeyahu said to Serayah, “When you come to Babel and see it, and read all these words,

62 then you shall say, ‘O אִרְיָאֵל, You have spoken concerning this place to cut it off, so that none shall dwell in it, neither man nor beast, for it is a ruin forever.’

63 “And it shall be, when you have ended reading this book, that you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of Perath,

64 and shall say, ‘So does Babel sink and not rise from the evil that I am bringing upon her, and they shall weary themselves.' ” Thus far are the words of Yirmeyahu.

52 Tsidqiyahu was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim. And his mother's name was Ḥamutal the daughter of Yirmeyahu of Liḇnah.

2 And he did evil in the eyes of אֱלֹהִים, according to all that Yahoyaqim had done.

3 For through the displeasure of אֱלֹהִים this came to be against Yerushalayim and Yahudāh, until He had cast them out from His presence. And Tsidqiyahu rebelled against the sovereign of Babel.

4 And it came to be in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, that Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel and all his army came against Yerushalayim and encamped against it. And they built a siege wall against it all around.

5 And the city was under siege until the eleventh year of Sovereign Tsidqiyahu.

6 On the ninth of the fourth month the scarcity of food was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land.

7 Then the city wall was breached, and all the men of battle fled and went out of the city at night by way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the sovereign's garden, while the Kasdites were near the city all around. And they went by way of the desert plain.

8 But the army of the Kasdites pursued the sovereign, and they overtook Tsidqiyahu in the desert plains of Yeriḥo, and his entire army was scattered from him.

9 Then they captured the sovereign and brought him up to the sovereign of Babel at Riblah in the land of Ḥamath, and he pronounced judgments on him.

10 And the sovereign of Babel slew the sons of Tsidqiyahu before his eyes, and he also slew all the heads of Yahudah in Riblah.

11 And he put out the eyes of Tsidqiyahu. And the sovereign of Babel bound him in bronze shackles, and took him to Babel, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12 And on the tenth of the fifth month, which was the nineteenth year of sovereign Nebukadnetzar sovereign of Babel, Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, who served the sovereign of Babel, came to Yerushalayim,

13 and he burned the House of אִיִּזְבֵּב, and the sovereign's house, and all the houses of Yerushalayim, and all the houses of the great men, he burned with fire.

14 And all the army of the Kasdites who were with the chief of the guard broke down all the walls of Yerushalayim all around.

15 And Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, exiled some of the poor people, and the rest of the people who were left in the city, and the defectors who had gone over to the sovereign of Babel, and the rest of the craftsmen.

16 But Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, left some of the poor of the land as vinedressers and farmers.

17 And the Kasdites broke the bronze columns that were in the House of אִיִּזְבֵּב, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the House of אִיִּזְבֵּב, and brought all their bronze to Babel.

18 They also took away the pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the ladles, and all the bronze utensils with which they served,

19 and the basins, and the fire holders, and the bowls, and the pots, and the lampstands, and the ladles, and the cups, whatever was of solid gold and whatever was of solid silver, the chief of the guard took.

20 The two columns, one sea, the twelve bronze bulls which were under it, and the stands, which Sovereign Shelomoh had made for the House of אֶלֶל - the bronze of all these vessels was beyond weighing.

21 As for the columns, the height of one column was eighteen ammah, and its circumference was twelve ammah, and its thickness was four etsba'oth, hollow.

22 And a capital of bronze was on it. And the height of one capital was five ammah, with a network and pomegranates all around the capital, all of bronze. And the second column, with pomegranates was the same.

23 And there were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides. All the pomegranates on the network were one hundred, all around.

24 And the chief of the guard took Serayah the chief kohēn, and Tsephanyah the second kohēn, and the three doorkeepers.

25 And from the city he took one eunuch who was in charge of the men of battle, and seven men who saw the sovereign's face, who were found in the city, and the scribe of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land who were found in the city.

26 And Neḅuzaraḁan, chief of the guard, took these and brought them to the sovereign of Baḅel at Riḅlah, 27 and the sovereign of Baḅel smote them and put them to death at Riḅlah in the land of Ḥamath. Thus Yahudaḁah was exiled from its own land.

28 These are the people whom Neḅukaḁnetstsar exiled: in the seventh year, three thousand and twenty-three Yahudaḁim;

29 in the eighteenth year of Nebukadnetstsar he exiled from Yerushalayim eight hundred and thirty-two beings;

30 in the twenty-third year of Nebukadnetstsar, Nebuzaradan, chief of the guard, exiled of the Yahudim seven hundred and forty-five beings. All the beings were four thousand six hundred.

31 And it came to be in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Yahoyakn sovereign of Yahudah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth of the month, that Ewil-Merodakn sovereign of Babel, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Yahoyakn sovereign of Yahudah and brought him out of prison, 32 and spoke kindly to him and placed his throne above those of the sovereigns who were with him in Babel.

33 So he changed his prison garments, and he ate bread continually before the sovereign all the days of his life.

34 And as for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the sovereign of Babel, a portion for each day until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

YEHEZQĚL

לְאֶזְרָאֵל בֶּן-בִּזְיָאֵל

1 And it came to be in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth of the month, as I was among the exiles by the River Keḅar, the shamayim were opened and I saw visions of Elohim.

2 On the fifth of the month, in the fifth year of Sovereign Yahoyaḱin's exile,

3 the word of אֱלֹהִים came expressly to YeḥezqĚl the kohĕn, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Kasdites by the River Keḅar. And the hand of אֱלֹהִים came upon him there.

4 And I looked and saw a whirlwind coming out of the north, a great cloud with fire flashing itself. And brightness was all around it, and out of its midst like glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire,

5 and out of the midst of it came what looked like four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man.

6 And each one had four faces, and each one had four wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calves' foot. And they sparkled like the appearance of polished bronze,

8 and under their wings on their four sides were the hands of a man. And each of the four had faces and wings -

9 their wings touched one another. They did not turn when they went, but each one went straight forward.

10 And the likeness of their faces: the face of a man, and each of the four had the face of a lion on the right side, and each of the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and each of the four had the face of an eagle.

11 Such were their faces. Their wings were spread upward, two of each touched one another, and two covered their bodies.

12 And each one went straight forward, going wherever the spirit was to go, and they did not turn when they went.

13 And the likeness of the living creatures: their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of torches, moving back and forth among the living creatures. And the fire was bright, and out of the fire went lightning.

14 And the living creatures ran back and forth, like the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 And I looked at the living creatures, and saw a wheel on the earth beside each living creature with its four faces.

16 The appearance of the wheels and their works was like the appearance of beryl, and all four had the same form. The appearance of their works was, as it were, a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

17 When they went, they went in any one of four directions, they did not turn aside when they went.

18 And their rims were high and awesome, and their rims were covered with eyes, all around the four of them.

19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them. And when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went, because there the spirit went. And the wheels were lifted together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

21 When those went, these went; when those stood, these stood. And when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up together with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

22 And a likeness was over the heads of the living creatures, an expanse like the appearance of an awesome crystal, stretched out over their heads.

23 And under the expanse their wings were straight, one toward another. Each one had two which covered one side, and each one had two which covered the other side of the body.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of many waters, like the voice of Ėl Shaddai, a tumult like the noise of an army. And when they stood still, they let down their wings.

25 And a voice came from above the expanse that was over their heads. When they stood, they dropped their wings.

26 And above the expanse over their heads was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like a sapphire stone. And on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man high above it.

27 And from the appearance of His waist and upward I saw what looked like glowing metal with the appearance of fire all around within it. And from the appearance of His waist and downward I saw what looked like fire, and brightness all around.

28 As the appearance of a rainbow in a cloud on a rainy day, so was the appearance of the brightness all around it. This was the appearance of the likeness of the esteem of אֱלֹהִים. And when I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of One speaking.

2 And He said to me, "Son of man, stand on your feet, so that I speak to you."

2 And the Ruah entered into me when He spoke to me, and stood me on my feet. And I heard Him who was speaking to me.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, I am sending you to the children of Yisra'ël, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against Me. They and their fathers have transgressed against Me, until this day.

4 "And the children are stiff of face and hard of heart to whom I am sending you, and you shall say to them, 'Thus said the Adon אדון אלהים.'

5 "And they - whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are a rebellious house - shall know that a nabi has been in their midst.

6 "And you, son of man, do not be afraid of them, nor be afraid of their words, though thistles and thorns are with you and you dwell among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words or discouraged by their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

7 "And you shall speak My Words to them, whether they hear or whether they refuse, for they are rebellious.

8 "And you, son of man, hear what I am speaking to you. Do not be rebellious like that rebellious house, open your mouth and eat what I am giving you."

9 And I looked and saw a hand stretched out to me. And see, a scroll of a book was in it,

10 and He spread it before me, and it was written on the inside and on the outside. And written on it were lamentations and mourning and woe.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, eat what you find, eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Yisra'ël."

2 And I opened my mouth, and He fed me the scroll.

3 And He said to me, "Son of man, feed your stomach, and fill your stomach with this scroll that I am giving you.” And I ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4 And He said to me, “Son of man, go to the house of Yisra’ël, and you shall speak to them with My Words.

5 “For you are not sent to a people of foreign speech and of difficult language, but to the house of Yisra’ël,
6 not to many people of foreign speech and of difficult language, whose words you do not understand. If I had rather sent you to them, they would have listened to you.

7 “But the house of Yisra’ël is going to refuse to listen to you, for they refuse to listen to Me. For all the house of Yisra’ël are hard of head, and hard of heart.

8 “See, I shall make your face as hard as their faces and your forehead as hard as their foreheads.

9 “Like adamant stone, harder than flint, I shall make your forehead. Do not be afraid of them, nor be discouraged at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.”

10 And He said to me, “Son of man, receive into your heart all My Words that I speak to you, and hear with your ears.

11 “And go! Come to the exiles, to the children of your people, and speak to them and say to them, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי,’ whether they hear, or whether they refuse.”

12 And the Ruah lifted me up, and behind me I heard a voice of great rumbling, “Baruk be the esteem of אֲדֹנָי from His place,”

13 and the sound of the wings of the living creatures touching one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, and the sound of a great rushing.

14 And the Ruah lifted me and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit, while the hand of אִיִּזְרָאֵל was strong upon me.

15 And I came to the exiles at Tēl Abīb, who were dwelling by the River Keḅar. And I sat where they were sitting, and sat there, stunned among them, seven days.

16 And it came to be at the end of seven days that the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came to me, saying,

17 “Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Yisra’ēl. And you shall hear a word from My mouth, and shall warn them from Me.

18 “When I say to the wicked, ‘You shall certainly die,’ and you have not warned him, nor spoken to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his ḥai, that same wicked man shall die in his wickedness, and his blood I require at your hand.

19 “But if you have warned the wicked and he does not turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his wickedness, and you have delivered your being.

20 “And when a righteous one turns from his righteousness and shall do unrighteousness, when I have put a stumbling-block before him, he shall die. Because you did not warn him, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he has done is not remembered, and his blood I require at your hand.

21 “But if you have warned the righteous one that the righteous should not sin, and he did not sin, he shall certainly live because he has been warned, and you have delivered your being.”

22 And the hand of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came upon me there, and He said to me, “Arise, go out into the plain, so that I might speak to you there.”

23 So I got up and went out into the plain, and see, the esteem of אִיָּאָז stood there, like the esteem which I saw by the River Kebar, and I fell on my face.

24 And the Ruah entered me and stood me on my feet, and spoke with me and said to me, "Go, shut yourself inside your house.

25 "And you, O son of man, see, they shall put cords on you and bind you with them, so that you do not go out in their midst.

26 "And I make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be dumb and not be a reprover to them, for they are a rebellious house.

27 "But when I speak with you, I open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus said the Adon אִיָּאָז.' He who hears, let him hear. And he who refuses, let him refuse, for they are a rebellious house.

4 "And you, son of man, take a clay tablet, and you shall lay it before you, and shall inscribe on it a city, Yerushalayim,

2 and shall lay siege against it, and build a siege wall against it, and heap up a mound against it, and make camps against it, and place battering rams against it all around.

3 "Then take an iron plate, and put it as an iron wall between you and the city. And you shall turn your face against it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. It is a sign to the house of Yisra'el.

4 "And lie on your left side, and you shall put the wickedness of the house of Yisra'el on it. As many days as you lie on it, you shall bear their wickedness.

5 "For I Myself have laid on you the years of their wickedness, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days. And you shall bear the wickedness of the house of Yisra'el.

6 “And when you have completed them, you shall lie again on your right side and shall bear the wickedness of the house of Yahudāh forty days, a day for a year. I have laid on you a day for a year.

7 “Then you shall turn your face toward the siege of Yerushalayim, with your arm bared, and you shall naba against it.

8 “And see, I shall put cords on you so that you do not turn from one side to another until you have completed the days of your siege.

9 “And take wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt. And you shall put them into one vessel, and make bread of them. You shall eat it, as many days as you lie on your side, three hundred and ninety days.

10 “And your food which you eat is by weight, twenty sheqels a day, to be eaten from time to time.

11 “And drink water by measure, one-sixth of a hin, to be drunk from time to time.

12 “And eat it as a barley cake. And bake it, before their eyes, on human dung.”

13 And אִיִּזְרָאֵל said, “Even so the children of Yisra’el shall eat their defiled bread among the gentiles, to whom I drive them.”

14 Then I said, “Ah, Adonai אִיִּזְרָאֵל! See, I have never defiled myself from my youth till now. I have never eaten what died of itself or was torn by beasts, nor has unclean meat ever come into my mouth.”

15 And He said to me, “See, I am giving you the dung of cattle instead of human dung, and you shall prepare your bread over it.”

16 And He said to me, “Son of man, see, I am going to cut off the supply of bread in Yerushalayim, and they shall eat bread by weight and with fear, and drink water by measure and with dread,

17 so that they lack bread and water, and shall be appalled with one another, and be consumed in their wickedness.

5 “And you, son of man, take a sharp sword, take it as a barber’s razor, and you shall pass it over your head and your beard. And you shall take scales to weigh and divide the hair.

2 “Burn with fire one-third in the midst of the city when the days of the siege are completed. And you shall take one-third and strike around it with the sword, and scatter one-third in the wind. And I shall draw out a sword after them.

3 “And you shall take a few from there and bind them in the edge of your garment.

4 “And take again some of them, and throw them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire. From it a fire shall spread unto all the house of Yisra’el.

5 “Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, ‘This is Yerushalayim which I have placed in the midst of the gentiles, with the lands all around her.

6 ‘But she rebelled against My Right-Rulings, doing wickedness, more than the gentiles, and My Laws more than the lands all around her. For they have rejected My Right-Rulings, and they have not walked in My Laws.’

7 “Therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, ‘Because you have rebelled more than the gentiles all around you, and have not walked in My Laws, nor done My Right-Rulings, nor even done according to the right-rulings of the gentiles all around you,’

8 therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, ‘Look I Myself am against you and shall execute judgments in your midst before the eyes of the gentiles.

9 'And I shall do among you what I have never done, and the like of which I never do again, because of all your abominations.

10 'Therefore fathers are going to eat their sons in your midst, and sons eat their fathers. And I shall execute judgments among you and scatter all your remnant to all the winds.

11 'Therefore, as I live,' declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, 'because you have defiled My Miqdash with all your filthiness and with all your abominations, therefore I also withdraw. And My eye shall not pardon, nor shall I spare.

12 'One-third of you shall die of pestilence, and be consumed with scarcity of food in your midst. And one-third shall fall by the sword all around you. And I shall scatter another third to all the winds, and draw out a sword after them.

13 'And My displeasure shall be completed. And I shall bring My wrath to rest upon them, and I shall be eased. And they shall know that I, אֲדֹנָי, have spoken it in My ardour, when I have completed My wrath upon them.

14 'And I shall make you a waste and a reproach among the gentiles that are all around you, before the eyes of all who pass by.

15 'And it shall be a reproach, an object of scorn, a warning, and an astonishment to the gentiles that are all around you, when I execute judgments among you in displeasure and in wrath and in heated chastisements. I, אֲדֹנָי, have spoken.

16 'When I send against them the evil arrows of scarcity of food which shall be for their destruction, which I send to destroy you, I shall increase the scarcity of food upon you and cut off your supply of bread.

17 'And I shall send against you scarcity of food and evil beasts, and they shall bereave you. And pestilence and blood shall pass through you, while I bring the sword against you. I, אֱלֹהִים, have spoken.' "

6 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

2 "Son of man, turn your face toward the mountains of Yisra'ël, and naba against them.

3 "And you shall say, 'O mountains of Yisra'ël, hear the word of the Adon אֱלֹהִים!' Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים to the mountains, to the hills, to the ravines, and to the valleys, "Look, I Myself am bringing a sword against you, and I shall destroy your high places.

4 "And your altars shall be ruined, your sun-pillars shall be broken in pieces. And I shall make your slain fall in front of your idols,

5 and lay the corpses of the children of Yisra'ël in front of their idols, and scatter your bones all around your altars.

6 "In all your dwelling places the cities shall be destroyed and the high places deserted, so that your altars are broken and bear their punishment. And your idols shall be destroyed and made to cease, and your sun-pillars cut down, and your works blotted out.

7 "And the slain shall fall in your midst, and you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים.

8 "But I shall leave a remnant, in that some of you shall escape the sword among the gentiles, when you are scattered throughout the lands.

9 "And those of you who escape shall remember Me among the gentiles where they have been taken captive, because I have been broken by their adulterous heart which has turned away from Me, and by their eyes which whored after their idols. And they shall loathe themselves for the evils which they have done in all their abominations.

10 “And they shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים, and not for naught have I spoken to do this evil to them.”

11 ‘Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “Strike with your hand and stamp your feet, and say, ‘Alas, because of all the evil abominations of the house of Yisra’ël who shall fall by sword, by scarcity of food, and by pestilence!

12 ‘He who is far off shall die by pestilence, he who is near fall by the sword, and he who is left over and is besieged, die by scarcity of food. And I shall complete My wrath upon them.

13 ‘And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים, when their slain are among their idols all around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, under every green tree, and under every thick oak, wherever they offered sweet incense to all their idols.

14 ‘And I shall stretch out My hand against them and make the land a wasteland, even more waste than the wilderness toward Diblah, in all their dwelling places. And they shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים.’ ” ”

7 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

2 “And you, son of man, this is what the Adon אֱלֹהִים said to the land of Yisra’ël, ‘An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land.

3 ‘Now the end is upon you, and I shall send My displeasure against you, and judge you according to your ways, and repay you for all your abominations.

4 ‘And My eye shall not pardon you, nor would I spare, for I repay your ways while your abominations are in your midst. And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים!’

5 “Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, ‘A calamity, an only calamity, look, it has come!

6 'An end has come, the end has come! It has awakened against you, look, it has come!

7 'The turn has come to you, O inhabitants of the land. The time has come, a day of uproar is near, and not of rejoicing in the mountains.

8 'Soon I shall pour out My wrath, and shall complete My displeasure upon you, and judge you according to your ways, and repay you for all your abominations.

9 'And My eye shall not pardon, nor would I spare. I give you according to your ways while your abominations are in your midst. And you shall know that I am אֵלֹהִים who smites.

10 'See, the day! See, it has come! The turn has come, the rod has blossomed, pride has budded.

11 'The violence has grown into a rod of wickedness. There is none of them, and none of its crowd, and none of their riches, and none eminent among them.

12 'The time has come, the day has arrived. 'Let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, for wrath is on all its crowd.

13 'For the seller shall not return to what has been sold, though they are still alive. For the vision is for all its crowd - it shall not turn back. And because of his wickedness no one holds fast to his life.

14 'They have blown the trumpet and all is prepared, but no one goes to battle, for My wrath is on all its crowd.

15 'The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the scarcity of food inside. He who is in the field dies by the sword, and he who is in a city, scarcity of food and pestilence devour him, 16 while they who escape of them shall escape and be on the mountains like doves of the valleys. All of them mourning, each for his wickedness.

17 'All hands go limp, and all knees become as water.

18 'And they shall gird on sackcloth, and be covered with trembling. And shame shall be on every face, and baldness on all their heads.

19 'They throw their silver into the streets, and their gold becomes as filth. Their silver and their gold is unable to deliver them in the day of the wrath of אַף־אָז. They do not satisfy their appetite, nor fill their stomachs, because it has been their stumbling-block of wickedness.

20 'And the splendour of His ornaments, He made it in excellency. But they made from it the images of their abominations and their filthiness. Therefore I shall make it like filth to them.

21 'And I shall give it for a prey into the hands of strangers, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil, and they shall profane it.

22 'And I shall turn My face from them. And they shall profane My secret place, for destroyers shall enter it and profane it.

23 'Make a chain, for the land has been filled with crimes of blood, and the city has been filled with violence.

24 'And I shall bring the evil ones of the gentiles, and they shall possess their houses. And I shall cause the pride of the strong to cease, and their miqdashim shall be profaned.

25 'Destruction shall come. And they shall seek peace, but there is none.

26 'Calamity upon calamity shall come, and report shall be upon report. And they shall seek a vision from a nabi. But the Torah has perished from the kohēn, and counsel from the elders!

27 'Let the sovereign mourn, and let the prince put on despair, and let the hands of the common people tremble. And I shall deal with them according to their way, and judge them with their own right-rulings. And they shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים! ”

8 And it came to be in the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth of the month, as I sat in my house with the elders of Yahudāh sitting before me, that the hand of the Adon אֱלֹהִים fell upon me there.

2 And I looked and saw a likeness, like the appearance of fire. From His waist and downward the appearance was like fire, and from His waist and upward the appearance of brightness, like glowing metal.

3 And He stretched out the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my hair. And the Ruah lifted me up between the earth and the shamayim, and brought me in visions of Elohim to Yerushalayim, to the door of the north gate of the inner court, where the seat of the image of jealousy was, which causes jealousy.

4 And see, the esteem of the Elohim of Yisra'el was there, like the vision that I saw in the plain.

5 And He said to me, “Son of man, please lift your eyes toward the north.” And I lifted my eyes northward, and north of the altar gate I saw this image of jealousy in the entrance.

6 And He said to me, “Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations which the house of Yisra'el are doing here, driving Me away from My Miqdash? And you are to see still greater abominations.”

7 Then He brought me to the door of the court. And I looked and saw a hole in the wall.

8 And He said to me, “Son of man, please dig into the wall.” And when I dug into the wall I saw a door.

9 And He said to me, "Go in, and see the evil abominations which they are doing there."

10 And I went in and looked and saw all kinds of creeping creatures, abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Yisra'ěl, carved all around on the walls.

11 And facing them stood seventy men of the elders of the house of Yisra'ěl, and in their midst stood Ya'azanyahu son of Shaphan. Each one had a censor in his hand, and a thick cloud of incense went up.

12 And He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Yisra'ěl are doing in the dark, each one in the room of his idols? For they say, '𐤀𐤆𐤁𐤁 does not see us, 𐤀𐤆𐤁𐤁 has forsaken the land.' "

13 And He said to me, "You are to see still greater abominations which they are doing."

14 And He brought me to the door of the north gate of the House of 𐤀𐤆𐤁𐤁, and I saw women sitting there, weeping for Tammuz.

15 Then He said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? You are to see still greater abominations than these."

16 And He brought me into the inner court of the House of 𐤀𐤆𐤁𐤁. And there, at the door of the Hěykal of 𐤀𐤆𐤁𐤁, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men with their backs toward the Hěykal of 𐤀𐤆𐤁𐤁 and their faces toward the east, and they were bowing themselves eastward to the sun.

17 And He said to me, "Have you seen, O son of man? Is it a small matter to the house of Yahudāh to do the abominations which they have done here? For they have filled the land with violence, and turn back to provoke Me. And see, they are putting the branch to My nose.

18 “Therefore I shall indeed deal in wrath. My eye shall not pardon nor would I spare. And they shall cry in My ears with a loud voice, but I shall not hear them.”

9 And He called out in my hearing with a loud voice, saying, “Let the punishers of the city draw near, each with his weapon of destruction in his hand.”

2 And look, six men came from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with his battle-axe in his hand. And one man in their midst was clothed with linen and had a writer’s ink-horn at his side. And they came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3 And the esteem of the Elohim of Yisra’el went up from the kerub, where it had been, to the threshold of the House. And He called to the man clothed with linen, who had the writer’s ink-horn at his side,

4 and אִיִּזְרָאֵל said to him, “Pass on into the midst of the city, into the midst of Yerushalayim, and you shall put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and cry over all the abominations that are done within it.”

5 And to the others He said in my hearing, “Pass on into the city after him and smite, do not let your eye pardon nor spare.

6 “Slay to destruction old, young men, maidens and children and women, but do not come near anyone upon whom is the mark, and begin at My Miqdash.” So they began with the elders who were in front of the House.

7 And He said to them, “Defile the House, and fill the courts with the slain. Go out!” And they went out and smote in the city.

8 And as they were smiting them it came to be that I alone was left. And I fell on my face and cried out, and said, “Ah, Adonai אִיִּזְרָאֵל! Are You destroying all the remnant of Yisra'ěl in pouring out Your wrath on Yerushalayim?"

9 And He said to me, "The wickedness of the house of Yisra'ěl and Yahudāh is exceedingly great, and the land is filled with bloodshed, and the city filled with that which is warped. For they say, 'אֱלֹהִים has forsaken the land, and אֱלֹהִים is not seeing!'

10 "But as for Me, My eye shall not pardon, nor would I spare, I shall recompense their deeds on their own head."

11 And see, the man clothed with linen, who had the ink-horn at his side, reported back and said, "I have done as You commanded me."

10 And I looked and saw in the expanse that was above the head of the kerubim, like a sapphire stone, having the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And He spoke to the man clothed with linen, and said, "Go in among the wheels, under the kerub, and fill your hands with coals of fire from among the kerubim, and scatter over the city." And he went in before my eyes.

3 And the kerubim were standing on the south side of the House when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner court.

4 And the esteem of אֱלֹהִים went up from the kerub, over the threshold of the House. And the House was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the esteem of אֱלֹהִים.

5 And the sound of the wings of the kerubim was heard in the outer court, like the voice of Ēl Shaddai when He speaks.

6 And it came to be, when He commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the keruḅim,” that he went in and stood beside the wheel.

7 And the keruḅ stretched out his hand from among the keruḅim to the fire that was among the keruḅim, and took some, and put it into the hands of the man clothed with linen, who took it and went out.

8 And the form of a man’s hand was seen under the wings of the keruḅim.

9 And I looked and saw four wheels beside the keruḅim, one wheel beside each keruḅ, and the wheels’ appearance was like the colour of beryl stone.

10 As for their appearance, all four looked alike; as if a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went on their four sides; they did not turn aside when they went, but went in the direction the head was facing. They did not turn aside when they went.

12 And their entire bodies, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels that the four had, were covered with eyes all around.

13 The wheels were called in my hearing, “Wheel.”

14 And each one had four faces: the first face was the face of a keruḅ, and the second face the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the keruḅim were lifted up - it was the living creature I saw by the River Keḅar.

16 And when the keruḅim went, the wheels went beside them. And when the keruḅim lifted their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also did not turn from beside them.

17 When they stood still, the wheels stood still, and when one was lifted up, the other lifted itself up, for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 And the esteem of אֲרָמָז went from the threshold of the House and stood over the keruḅim.

19 And the keruḅim lifted their wings and rose from the earth before my eyes. When they went out, the wheels were beside them. And it stood at the door of the east gate of the House of אֲרָמָז, and the esteem of the Elohim of Yisra'ël was above them.

20 It was the living creature I saw under the Elohim of Yisra'ël by the River Keḅar, and I knew they were keruḅim.

21 Each one had four faces and each one four wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same as the faces which I had seen by the River Keḅar, their appearances and themselves. Each one went straight forward.

11 And the Ruaḥ lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the House of אֲרָמָז, which faces east. And see, at the door of the gate were twenty-five men, among whom I saw Ya'azanyah son of Azzur, and Pelatyahu son of Benayahu, heads of the people.

2 And He said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who plot wickedness and give evil counsel in this city,

3 who are saying, 'It is not near, let us build houses. This is the cooking pot, and we are the meat.'

4 "Therefore naḅa against them, naḅa, O son of man!"

5 And the Ruaḥ of אֲרָמָז fell upon me, and said to me, "Speak! 'Thus said אֲרָמָז, "Thus you have said, O house of Yisra'ël. For I know what comes up in your spirit.

6 “You have increased your slain in this city, and filled its streets with the slain.”

7 ‘Therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “Your slain whom you have laid in its midst, they are the meat, and this city is the cooking pot. But I shall bring you out of the midst of it.

8 “You have feared the sword, and I bring a sword upon you,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.

9 “And I shall bring you out of its midst, and give you into the hands of strangers, and execute judgments on you.

10 “By the sword you fall. At the border of Yisra’ël I judge you. And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי.

11 “This is not your cooking pot, nor are you the meat in its midst. At the border of Yisra’ël I judge you.

12 “And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי, for you have not walked in My Laws nor executed My Right-Rulings, but have done according to the rulings of the gentiles which are all around you.” ’ ’

13 And it came to be, while I was neḅuah, that Pelatyahu son of Benayah died. And I fell on my face and cried out with a loud voice, and said, “Ah, Adonai אֲדֹנָי! Are You making an end of the remnant of Yisra’ël?”

14 Then the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

15 “Son of man, your brothers, your relatives, your kinsmen, and all the house of Yisra’ël, all of it, are those about whom the inhabitants of Yerushalayim said, ‘Keep far from אֲדֹנָי, this land has been given to us as a possession.’

16 “Therefore say, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “Although I have sent them far off among the gentiles, and although I have scattered them among the lands, yet I was for them a Miqdash for a little while in the lands to which they came.” ’

17 “Therefore say, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “And I shall gather you from the peoples, and I shall assemble you from the lands where you have been scattered, and I shall give you the land of Yisra’ēl.” ’

18 “And they shall go there, and shall take away all its filthiness and all its abominations from there.

19 “And I shall give them one heart, and put a new spirit within you. And I shall take the stony heart out of their flesh, and give them a heart of flesh, 20 so that they walk in My Laws, and guard My Right-Rulings, and shall do them. And they shall be My people and I shall be their Elohim.

21 “But to those whose hearts walk after the heart of their filthiness and their abominations, I shall recompense their deeds on their own heads,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.

22 And the kerubim lifted up their wings, with the wheels beside them, and the esteem of the Elohim of Yisra’ēl was high above them.

23 And the esteem of אֲדֹנָי went up from the midst of the city and stood upon the mountain, which is on the east side of the city.

24 And the Ruah lifted me up and brought me in a vision by the Ruah of Elohim into Kasdim, to those in exile. And the vision that I had seen went up from me.

25 And I spoke to those in exile of all the words of אֲדֹנָי which He had shown me.

12 And the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, you are dwelling in the midst of a rebellious house. They have eyes to see but they have not seen, they have ears to hear but they have not heard, for they are a rebellious house.

3 “Therefore, son of man, prepare your baggage for exile, and go into exile by day before their eyes. And you shall go from your place into exile to another place before their eyes. It could be that they see, though they are a rebellious house.

4 “And you shall bring out your baggage for exile before their eyes by day, and at evening go before their eyes, like those who go into exile.

5 “Dig through the wall before their eyes, and you shall carry out through it -

6 take them on your shoulders and bring them out at dark before their eyes. Cover your face, so that you do not see the land, for I have made you a sign to the house of Yisra’ël.”

7 And so I did, as I was commanded. I brought out my baggage for exile by day, and at evening I dug through the wall with my hand. I brought them out at dark, and I took them on my shoulder before their eyes.

8 And in the morning the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

9 “Son of man, did not the house of Yisra’ël, the rebellious house, say to you, ‘What are you doing?’

10 “Say to them, ‘Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “This message is to the prince in Yerushalayim and all the house of Yisra’ël who are in their midst.” ’

11 “Say, ‘I am a sign to you. As I have done, so it is done to them - they are to go into exile, into captivity.’

12 “And the prince who is in their midst is to bear his baggage on his shoulder at dark and go out. They are to dig through the wall to bring them out through it. He is to cover his face, so that he does not see the land with his eyes.

13 “And I shall spread My net over him, and he shall be caught in My snare. And I shall bring him to Babel, the land of the Kasdites, but he shall not see it, and yet die there.

14 “And I shall scatter to every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands, and I shall draw out the sword after them.

15 “And they shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים, when I scatter them among the gentiles. And I shall disperse them throughout the lands.

16 “But I shall let a few of their men escape from the sword, from scarcity of food, and from pestilence, so that they recount all their abominations among the gentiles wherever they go. And they shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים.”

17 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

18 “Son of man, eat your bread with trembling, and drink your water with fear and with anxiety.

19 “And you shall say to the people of the land, ‘Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and to the land of Yisra’el, “Let them eat their bread with anxiety, and drink their water with astonishment, for her land is emptied of all who are in it, because of the violence of all those who dwell in it.

20 “And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall become a wasteland. And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים.” ’ ”

21 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

22 “Son of man, what is this proverb that you people have about the land of Yisra’el, which says, ‘The days go by, and every vision shall come to naught’?

23 “Therefore say to them, ‘Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “I shall make this proverb to cease, so that they no longer use it as a proverb in Yisra’el.” But say to them, “The days have drawn near, as well as the matter of every vision.

24 “For no longer is there to be any false vision or flattering divination within the house of Yisra’el.

25 “For I am אֱלֹהִים, I speak. And the word which I speak is done. It is no longer deferred. For in your days, O rebellious house, when I speak the word I shall do it,” declares the Adon אֱלֹהִים.’ ”

26 Again the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

27 “Son of man, see, the house of Yisra’ël is saying, ‘The vision that he is seeing is for many days from now, and he is neḅuah of times far off.’

28 “Therefore say to them, ‘Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “None of My words are deferred any longer. When I speak a word it is done,” declares the Adon אֱלֹהִים.’ ”

13 And the word of אֱלֹהִים came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, naḅa against the neḅî'im of Yisra'ël who naḅa, and say to those who naḅa out of their own heart, ‘Hear the word of אֱלֹהִים!’ ”

3 Thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “Woe to the foolish neḅî'im, who are following their own spirit, without having had a vision!

4 “O Yisra'ël, your neḅî'im have been like foxes among ruins.

5 “You have not gone up into the breaches, nor do you build a wall for the house of Yisra'ël to stand in battle on the day of אֱלֹהִים.

6 “Their visions are false and their divinations a lie, saying, ‘Thus declares אֱלֹהִים,’ when אֱלֹהִים has not sent them, yet they expected the word to be confirmed!

7 “Have you not seen a false vision, and have you not spoken a divination of lies? You say, ‘אֱלֹהִים declares,’ when I have not spoken.”

8 Therefore thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “Because you have spoken falsehood and seen lies, therefore see, I am against you,” declares the Adon אֱלֹהִים.

9 “My hand shall be against the neḇi’im who see falsehood and who divine lies. They shall not be in the council of My people, nor be written in the record of the house of Yisra’ēl, and they shall not enter into the land of Yisra’ēl. And you shall know that I am the Aḏon אֲדֹנָי.

10 “Because, even because they have led My people astray, saying, ‘Peace!’ when there is no peace. And when one is building a wall, see, they are coating it with whitewash!

11 “Say to those who coat it with whitewash: it shall fall! There shall be flooding rain, and you, O great hailstones: fall! - and a stormy wind breaks it down, 12 and see, the wall shall fall! Shall you not be asked, ‘Where is the coating with which you coated it?’ ”

13 Therefore thus said the Aḏon אֲדֹנָי, “I shall break down with a stormy wind in My wrath, and a flooding rain in My displeasure, and great hailstones in wrath, to consume.

14 “And I shall throw down the wall you have coated with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, and its foundation shall be uncovered. And it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי.

15 “So I shall complete My wrath on the wall and on those coating it with whitewash, and say to you, ‘The wall is no more, nor those whitewashing it -

16 the neḇi’im of Yisra’ēl who naḇa concerning Yerushalayim, and who are seeing visions of peace for her when there is no peace,’ ” declares the Aḏon אֲדֹנָי.

17 “And you, son of man, turn your face against the daughters of your people, who naḇa out of their own heart, and naḇa against them.

18 “And you shall say, ‘This is what the Adon אֲדֹנָי said, “Woe to those sewing pads for all joints of the hand, and to those making nettings for the heads of every height, to trap beings! You trap the beings of My people, while you preserve your own beings!”

19 “And you have profaned Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to put to death beings that should not die, and to keep alive beings who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies!”

20 ‘Therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “See, I am against your pads by which you trap the beings there like birds. And I shall tear them from your arms, and shall let the beings go, the beings you trap like birds.

21 “And I shall tear off your nettings, and shall deliver My people out of your hand, and they shall no longer be as prey in your hand. And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי.” ’ ”

22 “Because with falsehood you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad. And you have strengthened the hands of the wicked, so that he does not turn from his evil way, to keep him alive.

23 “Therefore you shall no longer see false visions, nor practise divination. And I shall deliver My people out of your hand, and you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי.”

14 And some of the elders of Yisra’el came to me and sat before me.

2 And the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

3 “Son of man, these men have put up their idols in their hearts, and have put the stumbling-block of their wickedness before their face. Should I let them inquire of Me at all?

4 “Therefore speak to them, and you shall say to them, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “Everyone of the house of Yisra’ël who puts up his idols in his heart, and puts the stumbling-block of his wickedness before his face, and shall come to the nabi - I אֲדֹנָי shall answer him who comes, according to his many idols,

5 in order to lay hold of the house of Yisra’ël by their heart, for they have become estranged from Me by their idols, all of them.” ’

6 “Therefore say to the house of Yisra’ël, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “Repent, and turn back from your idols, and turn back your faces from all your abominations.

7 “For anyone of the house of Yisra’ël, or of the strangers who sojourn in Yisra’ël, who separates himself from Me and puts up his idols in his heart and puts the stumbling-block of his wickedness before his face, and shall come to a nabi to inquire of him concerning Me, I אֲדֹנָי shall answer him Myself.

8 “And I shall turn My face against that man and make him a sign and a proverb, and I shall cut him off from the midst of My people. And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי.

9 “And if the nabi is deceived, and shall speak a word, I אֲדֹנָי have deceived that nabi, and shall stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from the midst of My people Yisra’ël.

10 “And they shall bear their wickedness, the wickedness of the nabi is the same as the wickedness of the inquirer,

11 so that the house of Yisra’ël no longer strays from Me, nor be made unclean any more with all their transgressions. And they shall be My people and I be their Elohim,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.’ ”

12 And the word of אֲדֹנָי came again to me, saying,
13 “Son of man, when a land sins against Me to commit a trespass, and I shall stretch out My hand against it, and cut off its supply of bread and send scarcity of food on it, and cut off man and beast from it,
14 even though these three men, Noah, Dani’el, and Iyob, were in it, they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.
15 “If I cause an evil beast to pass through the land, and it shall bereave it, and it shall be a wasteland, so that no man passes through because of the beasts,
16 even though these three men were in it, as I live,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land be a wasteland.
17 “Or if I bring a sword on that land, and I shall say, ‘Sword, go through the land,’ and I shall cut off man and beast from it,
18 even though these three men were in its midst, as I live,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, for they alone would be delivered.
19 “Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and I shall pour out My wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast,
20 even though Noah, Dani’el, and Iyob were in it, as I live,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “they would deliver neither son nor daughter. They would deliver their own lives by their righteousness.”
21 For thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “How much more it shall be when I send My four evil judgments on Yerushalayim: the sword and scarcity of food and evil beasts and pestilence, to cut off man and beast from it?

22 “But see, there shall be left in it a remnant who are brought out, both sons and daughters. See, they are coming out to you, and you shall see their ways and their deeds, and shall be comforted concerning the evil which I have brought upon Yerushalayim - all that I have brought upon it.

23 “And they shall comfort you, when you see their ways and their deeds. And you shall know that it was not for naught that I have done whatever I did in it,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.

15 Then the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, how is the vine tree better than any tree, the vine branch that has been among the trees of the forest?

3 “Is wood taken from it to be made into any work? Do they take a peg from it to hang any vessel on?

4 “See, into the fire it shall be given for fuel. Both ends of it the fire shall burn, and its middle shall be scorched. Is it fit for any work?

5 “See, when it was intact, it was not made for work, how much less when the fire has burned it and it is scorched shall it still be used for work?

6 “Therefore thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, ‘As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I shall give up the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

7 ‘And I shall turn My face against them. They shall go out from one fire, but another fire consumes them. And you shall know that I am אֲדֹנָי, when I turn My face against them.

8 ‘And I shall make the land a wasteland, because they committed trespass,’ declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.”

16 Again the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, make known to Yerushalayim her abominations,

3 and say, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי to Yerushalayim, “Your origin and your birth are from the land of Kena’an. Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite.

4 “As for your birth, on the day you were born your navel cord was not cut, nor were you washed in water for cleansing, and you were not rubbed with salt at all, nor wrapped in cloth at all.

5 “No eye felt sorry for you, to do any of these for you, to have compassion on you. But you were thrown out into the open field, to the loathing of your life on the day you were born.

6 “Then I passed by you and saw you trampled down in your own blood, and I said to you in your blood, ‘Live!’ And I said to you in your blood, ‘Live!’

7 “I have let you grow like a plant in the field. And you are grown and are great, and you come in the finest ornaments. Breasts were formed, your hair grew, and you were naked and bare.

8 “Again I passed by you and looked upon you and saw that your time was the time of love. And I spread My skirt over you and covered your nakedness. And I swore an oath to you and entered into a Covenant with you, and you became Mine,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.

9 “And I washed you in water, and I washed off your blood, and I anointed you with oil.

10 “And I dressed you in embroidered work and gave you sandals of leather. And I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk.

11 “And I adorned you with ornaments, and I put bracelets on your wrists, and a chain on your neck.

12 “And I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a crown of adorning on your head.

13 “Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your dress was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour, and honey, and oil. And you were exceedingly pretty, and became fit for royalty.

14 “And your name went out among the nations because of your loveliness, for it was perfect, by My splendour which I had put on you,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.

15 “But you trusted in your own loveliness, and whored because of your name, and poured out your whorings on everyone passing by who would have it.

16 “And you took some of your garments and made multi-coloured high places for yourself, and whored on them - which should not have come about, nor shall it be.

17 “And you took your splendid adornments, of My gold and My silver that I gave you, and made for yourself images of a male and whored with them.

18 “And you took your embroidered garments and covered them, and you put My oil and My incense before them.

19 “And My food which I gave you, fine flour and oil and honey which I fed you, you put it before them as sweet incense - and so it was,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.

20 “And you took your sons and your daughters, whom you bore to Me, and these you slaughtered as food to them. Were your whorings a small matter, 21 that you have slain My children and gave them up to them by causing them to pass through the fire?

22 “And in all your abominations and whorings you did not remember the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, trampled down in your blood.

23 “Then it came to be after all your evil - ‘Woe, woe to you!’ declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי -

24 that you also built an arched place for yourself, and made a high place in every street for yourself.

25 “You built your high places at the head of every way, and made your loveliness to be loathed. And you parted your legs to everyone who passed by, and increased your whorings.

26 “And you whored with the sons of Mitsrayim, your neighbours, great of flesh. And you increased your whorings to provoke Me.

27 “And see, I have stretched out My hand against you, and withdrew your portion, and gave you up to the desire of those who hate you, the daughters of the Pelishtites, who are ashamed of your wicked way.

28 “And you whored with the sons of Ashshur, without being satisfied. And you whored with them and still were not satisfied.

29 “And you increased your whorings as far as the land of traders, Kasdim, and even then you were not satisfied.

30 “How weak is your heart!” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “seeing you do all this, the deeds of a shameless whore.

31 “You built your arched place at the head of every way, and built your high place in every street. Yet you were unlike a whore, you scorned hire!

32 “The wife who commits adultery who takes strangers instead of her husband!

33 “To all whores they give gifts, but you gave gifts to all your lovers, and bribed them to come to you from all around in your whorings.

34 “Thus you are different from other women in your whorings, because no one whores after you, and in you giving a hire, while a hire was not given to you. Thus you are different.”

35 ‘Therefore, O whore, hear the word of אִיִּזָּה!

36 ‘Thus said the Adon אִיִּזָּה, “Because your copper was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your whorings with your lovers, and with the idols of your abominations, and because of the blood of your children which you gave to them,

37 therefore, see, I am gathering all your lovers with whom you took pleasure, all those you loved, with all those you hated. And I shall gather them from all around against you and shall uncover your nakedness to them, and they shall see all your nakedness.

38 “And I shall judge you with judgments of adulteresses and shedders of blood. And I shall bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy.

39 “And I shall give you into their hand, and they shall throw your arched place down, and they shall break down your high places. And they shall strip you of your garments, and they shall take your splendid adornments, and leave you naked and bare.

40 “And they shall bring up an assembly against you, and they shall stone you with stones and thrust you through with their swords,

41 and burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you before the eyes of many women. And I shall make you stop whoring, and no longer give hire.

42 “So I shall bring My wrath to rest upon you, and My jealousy shall turn away from you. And I shall be calm, and no longer be wroth.

43 “Because you did not remember the days of your youth, but troubled Me with all this, so see, I shall also bring your way on your own head,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי. “And shall I not do this thought for all your abominations?”

44 “See, all who use proverbs shall use this proverb against you, ‘Like mother, like daughter!’

45 “You are your mother’s daughter, who despises her husband and her children. And you are the sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

46 “And your elder sister is Shomeron, she and her daughters, who is dwelling to the north of you. And your younger sister, who is dwelling to the south of you, is Sedom and her daughters.

47 “And have you not walked in their ways and did according to their abominations? But in all your ways you soon became more corrupt than they.

48 “As I live,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “neither your sister Sedom nor her daughters have done as you and your daughters have done.

49 “See, this was the wickedness of your sister Sedom: She and her daughter had pride, sufficiency of bread, and unconcerned ease. And she did not help the poor and needy.

50 “And they were haughty and did abomination before Me, and I took them away when I saw it.

51 “And Shomeron did not commit half of your sins, but you have increased your abominations more than they, and by all the abominations which you have done you made your sisters seem righteous!

52 “You also, who pleaded for your sisters, bear your own shame, because the sins which you committed were more abominable than theirs. They are more righteous than you. So be ashamed too, and bear your own shame, because you have made your sisters seem righteous.

53 “And I shall turn back their captivity, the captivity of Sedom and her daughters, and the captivity of Shomeron and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives with them,

54 so that you bear your shame, and shall blush for all that you did when you comforted them,

55 “and your sisters, Sedom and her daughters, return to their former state, and Shomeron and her daughters return to their former state, and you and your daughters return to your former state.

56 “Was not your sister Sedom a byword in your mouth in the days of your pride, 57 before your evil was exposed, as the time of the reproach of the daughters of Aram and all who were around her, and of the daughters of the Pelishtites, who are despising you everywhere?

58 “You shall bear your wickedness and your abominations,” declares אֱלֹהִים.

59 “For thus said the Adon אֱלֹהִים, “I shall deal with you as you have done, in that you have despised the oath by breaking the Covenant.

60 “But I shall remember My Covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I shall establish an everlasting Covenant with you.

61 “And you shall remember your ways and be ashamed, when you receive your older and your younger sisters. And I shall give them to you for daughters, though not by your own covenant.

62 “And I Myself shall establish My Covenant with you. And you shall know that I am אֱלֹהִים,

63 so that you remember. And you shall be ashamed, and never open your mouth any more because of your shame, when I pardon you for all you have done,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי.’ ”

17 And the word of אֲדֹנָי came to me, saying,

2 “Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Yisra’ël.

3 “And you shall say, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “The great eagle with large wings of long pinions, covered with feathers of various colours, came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar.

4 “He plucked off the topmost of its young twigs and brought it to a land of traders. In a city of merchants he placed it.

5 “He also took some of the seed of the land and planted it in a field for seed. He took it by many waters, placed it like a willow tree.

6 “So it grew and became a low, spreading vine. Its branches turned toward him, and its roots were under it. And it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and sent out shoots.

7 “And there was another great eagle with large wings and many feathers. And see, this vine bent its roots toward him, and stretched its branches toward him, to water it, away from the beds where it was planted.

8 “It was planted in a good field by many waters, to bring forth branches, and to bear fruit, to be a splendid vine.” ’

9 “Say, ‘Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “Is it going to thrive? Is he not going to pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, and let it wither? All of its sprouting leaves wither, without great power or many people, to pluck it up by its roots.

10 “See, it is planted, is it going to thrive? Would it not utterly wither when the east wind touches it - wither in the beds where it grows?” ’ ”

11 And the word of אִיִּזְרָאֵל came to me, saying,

12 “Please say to the rebellious house, ‘Do you not know what these mean?’ Say, ‘See, the sovereign of Babel went to Yerushalayim and took its sovereign and heads, and brought them with him to Babel.

13 ‘And he took one of the royal seed, and made a covenant with him, and put him under oath. And he took away the mighty of the land, 14 so that the reign would be brought low and not lift itself up, but guard his covenant, that it might stand.

15 ‘But he rebelled against him by sending his messengers to Mitsrayim, to give him horses and many people. Shall he thrive? Shall he escape who is doing these? And shall he break a covenant and still escape?

16 ‘As I live,’ declares the Adon אִיִּזְרָאֵל, ‘in the place where the sovereign dwells who appointed him to reign, whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke, with him in the midst of Babel he shall die!

17 ‘And Pharaoh with his great army and great company is not going to help him in battle, when they heap up a siege mound and build a wall to cut off many beings.

18 ‘And he despised the oath by breaking the covenant. And see, he has given his hand and he has done all this, he is not going to escape.’ ”

19 Therefore thus said the Adon אִיִּזְרָאֵל, “As I live, My oath which he has despised, and My Covenant which he has broken, shall I not put it on his own head?

20 “And I shall spread My net over him, and he shall be taken in My snare. And I shall bring him to Babel and enter into judgment with him there for the trespass which he committed against Me,

21 and all his fugitives with all his bands fall by the sword, and those who are left be scattered to every wind. And you shall know that I, אֲנִי, have spoken.”

22 Thus said the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “And I shall take from the top of the highest cedar and appoint it. And I Myself shall pluck off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs, and plant it on a high and lofty mountain.

23 “On the mountain height of Yisra’ël I plant it. And it shall bring forth branches, and bear fruit, and become a big cedar. And under it shall dwell birds of every sort, in the shadow of its branches they shall dwell.

24 “And all the trees of the field shall know that I, אֲנִי, have brought down the high tree and exalted the low tree, dried up the green tree and made the dry tree flourish. I, אֲנִי, have spoken and shall do it.”

18 And the word of אֲנִי came to me, saying,

2 “What do you mean when you use this proverb concerning the land of Yisra’ël, saying, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are blunted’?

3 “As I live,” declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי, “you shall no longer use this proverb in Yisra’ël.

4 “See, all beings are Mine, the being of the father as well as the being of the son is Mine. The being that is sinning shall die.

5 “But if a man is righteous and shall do right-ruling and righteousness,

6 if he has not eaten on the mountains, nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Yisra’ël, nor defiled his neighbour's wife, nor comes near a woman during her uncleanness,

7 if he does not oppress anyone, returns to the debtor his pledge, does not commit robbery, gives his bread to the hungry and covers the naked with a garment,

8 if he does not lend on interest or take increase, turns back his hand from unrighteousness, executes right-ruling in truth between man and man,

9 if he walks in My Laws, and he has guarded My Right-Rulings in truth - he is righteous, he shall certainly live!" declares the Adon אדון אלהים.

10 "But if he has brought forth a son who is a robber or a shedder of blood, who does any of these -

11 whereas he himself did not do any of these - that also he has eaten on the mountains or defiled his neighbour's wife,

12 if he has oppressed the poor and needy, has committed robbery, he does not return a pledge, has lifted his eyes to the idols, or done abomination,

13 if he has lent on interest or taken increase - shall he live? He shall not live! If he has done any of these abominations, he shall certainly die, his blood is upon him.

14 "But see, if he has brought forth a son who sees all the sins which his father has done, but he fears and does not do likewise,

15 has not eaten on the mountains, and has not lifted his eyes to the idols of the house of Yisra'ël, has not defiled his neighbour's wife,

16 has not oppressed anyone, nor withheld a pledge, nor committed robbery, has given his bread to the hungry and covered the naked with a garment,

17 turns back his hand from the poor, and he has not taken interest or increase, has executed My Right-

Rulings and walked in My Laws - he shall not die for the wickedness of his father, he shall certainly live!

18 "His father, because he used oppression, robbed his brother, and did what is not good among his people, see, he shall die for his wickedness.

19 "And you said, 'Why should the son not bear the wickedness of the father?' But the son has done right-ruling and righteousness, he has guarded all My Laws and he does them, he shall certainly live.

20 "The being who sins shall die. The son shall not bear the wickedness of the father, nor the father bear the wickedness of the son. The righteousness of the righteous is upon himself, and the wickedness of the wicked is upon himself.

21 "But the wicked, if he turns from all his sins which he has done, and he shall guard all My Laws, and shall do right-ruling and righteousness, he shall certainly live, he shall not die.

22 "All the transgressions which he has done shall not be remembered against him - in his righteousness that he has done, he shall live.

23 "Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked?" declares the Adon אֲדֹנָי. "Is it not that he should turn from his ways, and live?"

24 "But when a righteous one turns away from his righteousness and does unrighteousness, according to all the abominations that the wicked one has done, shall he live? All his righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered. For his trespass which he has committed, and for his sin which he has committed, for them he shall die.

25 "And you said, 'The Way of אֲדֹנָי is not right.' Hear now, O house of Yisra'ël, is My Way not right? Is it not your ways that are not right?"

26 “When a righteous one turns away from his righteousness, and does unrighteousness, and he dies in it, it is because of his unrighteousness which he has done that he dies.

27 “And when the wicked turns away from the wickedness which he has done, and he does right-ruling and righteousness, he keeps himself alive.

28 “Because he sees and turns away from all the transgressions which he has done, he shall certainly live, he shall not die.

29 “And the house of Yisra’ěl have said, ‘The Way of אִיִּצְחָק is not right.’ Are My Ways not right, O house of Yisra’ěl? Is it not your ways that are not right?
